Prime Lands Targeted As Site Of 200 Acre Landfill

BY AISLING CONROY

Up to sixty landowners throughout the county are being informed this week that part of their lands have been targeted as possible locations for a 150 - 200 acre landfill site.

Three sites have been shortlisted by consultants J. B. Barry & Partners, Consulting Engineers and all are located in the new three seater Kilmachthomas electoral area which will be contested for the first time in next June's local elections.

The three sites are in the Rathnasilloge/Graigie area of Stradbally, at Ballybrack, close to Kilmachthomas and at Kildermody in the Ballyduff/Kilmeaden area.

In arriving at these three sites, such criteria as road network, population proximity, landscape, ground-water protection, national heritage areas, availability of services and screening etc. were all taken into ac-

"NEGATIVE REACTION"

Cllr. Oliver Coffey who has already been selected by Fine Gael as the party's candidate in the Kilmac' area has predicted that these sites, most of which are located on prime agricultural land, will get a negative reaction from residents in the areas affected.

The site at Rathnasilloge outside the award winning village of Stradbally is very close to the proposed pig production unit which is already a source of major contention for the local community.

The planning application which was lodged by a subsidiary of the Dawn Meats Group is currently under consideration by the planning section of the County Council.

SITE SELECTED IN 8/9 MONTHS

Presenting the consultants report on the landfill site selection at this week's meeting of the County Council, Dan O'Donoghue of J. B. Barry & Partners stressed the urgency of having the new landfill site up and running at the earliest possible stage.

He expected the final location of the landfill, which will serve both the city and county for the next 25 years, to be identified by the end of July next year.

The statutory requirements laid down by the Environmental Protection

Know Your Rights

Question

At the moment I am coming to the end of my maternity leave and I have just heard that I may be entitled to some additional leave under an EU Directive about Parental Leave. May I take this leave and how would I apply for it?

Answer

Parental Leave is a term used to describe leave from work taken by parents to take care of their young children. Under EU Directive on Parental Leave (94/34/EC) Ireland will introduce its own Parental Leave Scheme from 3rd December, 1998.

The leave will apply to parents of children born on or after 3 June, 1996 or new born children adopted on or after that date. Each parent will be entitled to a total of 14 weeks unpaid leave for each child but it must be taken before the child is 5 years old, subject to modification in the case of an adopted child. Public holidays which fall during the period of parental leave are added on to the end of parental leave.

Each parent has a separate entitlement to parental leave from his/her job and the leave is not transferable, i.e. the mother cannot take the father's leave or vice-versa.

To be eligible you must have one year's continuous service with the employer before you take parental leave.

If you wish to avail of parental leave you must give six weeks advance notice to the employer. The notice must specify the date you intend to commence parental leave, the duration of the leave and the manner in which you propose to take the leave. The 14 weeks may be taken as a continuous block or by agreement between employer and employee in separate blocks.

Parental leave is unpaid but is reckonable for the purposes of employment rights other than superannuation. After parental leave you are entitled to return to the same job and if this is not considered practical by your employer, he/she must provide suitable alternative employment.

For further information about parental leave you may contact: Equality Division, Department of Justice, Equality and Law Reform, Dun Aihirgin, 43-49 Mespil Rd., Dublin 4 Tel: (01) 6670344 Fax 6670366/7; website: www.irgov.ie/justice

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,
 I wish to make a few points about the above. I realise I've left this submission very late. The fact is I have not been going downtown (for medical reasons) since Sept. 1st. Last week therefore was the first time I saw parking prohibited outside Whelan's in O'Connell Street with fixed bollards to the corner of Western Terrace.
 I don't own a car but I am a concerned citizen and I asked myself what are people supposed to do with their cars while they pop into Capitol Cleaners, the Wheelchair Shop, Whelan's, Wyley's, J.R.'s, the Phone Shop or Jim Foley's? I inquired and was told this was just an experiment and probably wouldn't be permanent.

Today a member of the Gardai was standing at the corner of Western Terrace. I asked him if he thought the arrangement would become permanent. He said it very well might because it was achieving the purpose behind all these changes in traffic flow and car parking i.e. to get the traffic flowing freely in O'Connell Street and he said as you can see, it is doing that.
 Yes the traffic was flowing freely but is that the only consideration that needs to be taken into account? In my opinion if the present arrangement is continued, people's livelihoods will be put at risk because what will happen is this. Motorists who normally frequent the shops in this area will find alternative places to supply their needs, places where they can park their cars. Who are we trying to facilitate with all this talk about free flowing traffic? Mightn't it be (especially with regards to Mary Street and O'Connell Street) people who drive straight through the town without spending a penny in it?

 To answer the question I asked myself in Paragraph 2. The traders were never told that motorists could park further down O'Connell Street. That's a very glib answer. The parking spaces there are not sufficient to meet the needs of those who shop in Lower O'Connell Street. They have a genuine grievance too because heavy containers discharging goods into the back entrance of Darrers cause serious obstruction at times. I'm not sure how or where these deliveries should be made but it seems a bit unfair that O'Connell Street has to suffer when the store they are supplying is on another street.

 I totally agree with the parking prohibition between the fixed bollards opposite Ben O'Neill's. It is necessary because of the narrowness of the street at that point. In my opinion if that had been strictly enforced with heavy fines for offenders, it would not be necessary to extend the No Parking as far as Western Terrace. But it wasn't. On many occasions I saw cars parked between the bollards in broad daylight. Where were the Gardai and the traffic wardens then? I told one man that if I met the traffic warden further down I would report him. He thought it was none of my business but it is, as is the situation at the corner end of St. Brigid's Terrace where cars are constantly parking outside Condon's Video Shop. They not only park on double yellow lines but so far in on the footpath that pedestrians cannot pass between them and the wall. They have to pass outside the parked cars. A young man was killed at that corner not too many years ago. If the parking regulations are not enforced sooner or later, we'll have another fatal accident.
 Yours faithfully,
 Mary Burke,
 15 Fitzgerald Terrace,
 Dungarvan,
 Co. Waterford.
 Thursday, October 15, 1998.
 Similar submission handed in to Town Hall today (Friday).

THE VIKINGS - SCANDINAVIAN WARRIORS WITH A SOFT SIDE

The Vikings are usually thought of as raiders from Norway, Sweden and Denmark who pillaged and plundered the coastal towns of Europe during the Middle Ages.

But they were also poets and artists who composed long dramatic poems and told stories called sagas. Sagas usually told tales about the adventures of their heroes.

The Vikings were also merchants who traded with Russia, France, the British Isles, Greenland and Iceland. They settled in all these places and one of the biggest settlements was in Northern France. This became known as Normandy. So the Normans who eventually invaded England in 1066 were not dark-haired Latins and Gauls but fair-haired descendants of the Viking races.

The Vikings were also famous for their long ships. Above all else they were seafarers and even their long houses were shaped like boats. When a Viking chief died he was either cremated aboard his ship which was set afloat on the ocean or he would be buried in his ship which would be dragged ashore and covered in a huge mound.

Viking warriors are often portrayed wearing helmets with long horns but recent research has failed to show this to be accurate. Pictured here is the way a Viking warrior would really have looked.

WATERFORD TOURISM

Going to the Dogs

It's official. Waterford Tourism is "going to the Dogs" on Saturday November 28th. The newly refurbished Waterford Greyhound Stadium, which has just received a £1 million facelift, is the venue for the local fundraiser for the organisation charged with promoting the Crystal County.

Waterford Tourism is an independent body, surviving largely on funding from blue chip companies such as Waterford Crystal, Avonmore Waterford Group, the Local Authorities and the Tourism Trade; therefore it is necessary at intervals throughout the year to create revenue by means of fundraising.

Details of Waterford Tourism's "Night at the Dogs" were officially announced at the track at a reception attended by Waterford Tourism's board members, local dignitaries and representatives of Bord Na gCon.

Combining the thrill of the chase with a unique atmosphere of fun and excitement, Kilcohan track will on November 28th provide Waterford Tourism with the ideal setting for their fundraiser and support of the public will be rewarded with a great night out.

Tickets to attend the evening will cost £5 and will entitle the bearer to admission to the Stadium plus a complimentary racecard and the opportunity to win super gate prizes including, return flights from Waterford to Stansted plus four nights accommodation in Jury's Hotel, London. There will also be a selection of Weekends Away to be won in various destinations throughout Ireland along with Meal Vouchers for some of Waterford's finest restaurants.

Tickets are available from Sinnotts Record Store,

Michael Street

Waterford city and Dungarvan Tourist Office, The Square, Dungarvan, and Tom Whelan, Dungarvan Golf Club.

Waterford Tourism, under the watchful eye of Monica Leech, Chief Executive Officer, has been working tirelessly in the promotion of the region. Over the past 20 months they have collected a central marketing fund of £380,000 which has been spent on innovative campaigns to promote Waterford as a destination in its own right in the UK and in the domestic market.

Safety Of Rail Passengers Must Be No. 1 Priority

A confidential report on the country's rail network is currently being considered by the cabinet. The safety of the Waterford/Dublin Line is also believed to be questioned in the report.

Cllr. Maurice Cummins, Fine Gael, has expressed grave concern at the lack of finance to upgrade the Waterford/Dublin line which could put the lives of passengers at risk. Cllr. Cummins contacted CIE both locally and nationally and they agree that the line needs upgrading. "What concerns me is that finance is in place presently to upgrade from Dublin to Kilkenny but no provision has been made for the section between Kilkenny and Waterford and I am calling for an immediate injection of funding to upgrade this line in the interests of safety."

Cllr. Cummins said he is aware of the excellent safety record of CIE and the fact that they check the line three times weekly and have reduced the speed of the trains on the line, but accessibility to Waterford and South East is hindered as a result.

The majority of the Waterford/Dublin line is made up of old jointed track on sleepers which is outdated and is not as safe as continuous welded track which is in operation on the Cork/Dublin and other lines.

To coincide with the opening of their new, state of the art, West Waterford studios and offices at Harbour Bay, Dungarvan WLR FM has added to its impressive fleet of jeeps with a brand new Mitsubishi Pajero 2.5 gls supplied by Michael Carroll Motors, Dungarvan. Photo shows Michael Carroll handing over the keys of the new jeep to Paul Byrne, Operations Manager, Dungarvan. Also included is Jim Landers, WLR FM's G.A.A. Correspondent.

Ring Gaeltacht To Benefit From Major Funding

Deputy Brendan Kenneally has been informed by his colleague Eamon O Cuiv T.D., Minister of State at Department of Arts Heritage Gaeltacht and the Islands, of grants totalling £42,700 for the Ring Gaeltacht. As is usual, it is expected that these will be matched by Waterford County Council allowing in excess of £85,000 to be spent.

"The bulk of this money will be spent on a sewage extension at Shanakill which will cost approximately £80,000. The balance will be spent on improvement works to the car park, adjacent to the local Church," said Deputy Kenneally.

Couple Celebrate Homecoming Of Their Brave 2-Year-Old Toddler

Swindon based couple Lindsay and Eugene Kiely, both originally from Co. Waterford, are finally enjoying some time at home together with their two year old toddler Tyrone and 8 month old baby girl Clodagh.

Little Tyrone was the first child under five in Britain to undergo a lifesaving new operation to reduce the growth of a pineal blastoma - a malignant brain tumour.

First diagnosed with the rare form of cancer when his little sister Clodagh was only weeks old, the siblings have now been reunited at their home in Toothill, West Swindon.

Eugene Kiely, whose mother Rita lives at Congress Villas, Dungarvan, said it's brilliant to have Tyrone home and see the two children playing together.

"Clodagh's ecstatic to be with him. Until now she's only been able to see him through glass at the hospital".

A former employee of the L&N, Dungarvan, Eugene (25) now works as a sales executive with GWC marketing. He and his wife Lindsay (20), who is a former student of Ard Scoil na nDeise, moved to England 3 years ago where they later married. Lindsay's parents Dot and Gordon Johnson live at Ballinaclash, Youghal.

Speaking to Swindon newspaper, the 'Evening Advertiser', Lindsay said: "All I want to do is return to a normal life and enjoy the Monday morning chores in life that other people take for granted.

"Clodagh was a little godsend as I have had to keep going for her at times when I felt like falling apart".

The lifesaving operation was performed at the Bristol Hospital for Sick Children using a technique taken from doctors in France - an internationally renowned centre for this type of cancer treatment.

Doctors at the Bristol Hospital said it was unlikely that Tyrone would live to school age unless they tried out the revolutionary treat-

Surgeons extracted bone marrow from the toddler which was subsequently frozen and preserved. Tyrone spent nine days in intensive chemotherapy to kill the cancer cells before his bone marrow was replaced and a further nine weeks in isolation to help rebuild his resistance to infection. In addition, the brave little toddler had to have blood transfusions every second day.

Consultant paediatric oncologist Dr. Steve Lewis said Tyrone is a "cracking lad" who responded well to treatment.

"We all now have to wait to see what happens", he added.

The successful operation reduced the tumour from the size of a satsuma to an acorn enabling Tyrone to finally return home to his parents and little sister.

"It was horrendous watching our son go through that treatment, but it was the only hope we had", said Eugene.

Tyrone is still undergoing treatment for the rare cancer. A pineal blastoma is extremely rare and family doctors are unlikely to come across such a case in their entire career.

We wish Lindsay, Eugene, Tyrone and Clodagh every best wish in the future.

DUNGARVAN MUSICAL AND CHORAL SOCIETY NOTES

DMC's has been entertaining a huge audience in a wide area for more than thirty-seven years and this year is returning to its roots by concentrating on Choral music as we did in the early '60s. We helped Gay Byrne in his early career by bringing our "Black and White Minstrel Show" to the Late Late Show and a national audience. Later we went international at the Cork Choral and Dance Festival. Since then Dungarvan had come to expect high quality entertainment from the Society every year and hundreds of Society members have enjoyed the long preparatis and super productions.

Last Monday members began rehearsing as a choir again under the leadership of Fiona McGuire and we are now inviting past and present members and anyone who feel they may enjoy choral singing to join us in the Park Hotel every Monday night at 8.00pm. You can be assured of a very warm, friendly welcome and, of course, being in at the start will give you the chance to influence the direction the Society takes from here. Remember then to make a note in your diary and head for the Park Hotel at 8.00pm on Monday nights. — PRO

MONEY MATTERS

SPEND - SPEND SPEND

It is very easy to get into serious debt, much more difficult to get out of it. If you are in debt you must become ruthlessly realistic about your money. Many people simply have no idea how much they spend on what.

Be realistic. Work out your total income. Work out your total expenditure. Christmas is only a couple of weeks away. Be careful how you spend your money. Do not run up huge debts with store cards, credit cards etc. Do not overspend and have a huge bill to face in the New Year which you cannot afford.

Remember — four dangerous words: Buy now, pay later; four sensible words: I can't afford it.

The Money Advice and Budgeting Service will be happy to help you solve your debt problems

The Money Advice & Budgeting Service is based at 36 Lower Main St., Dungarvan (Tel. 058-44922) and provides a service throughout the West Waterford area. It is part of the national MABS Service and is free, confidential and independent. Visit our web site at: <http://homepage.tinet.ie/~wwmabs>

Add A Taste Of Spice To Salad

A BIENNIAL plant that grows about 12 inches high with a spread of about 15 inches, Celeriac is used in salads and can also be cooked.

The leaves are used for seasoning and garnishing and the bulb at the base of the stems can be grated for use in salads or can be cooked in stews or casseroles as an alternative to the more conventional celery.

It is a cool temperature crop withstanding minus 10 degrees if the crowns are protected with straw. Plants tolerate light shade if the soil is moist. Celeriac needs low nitrogen levels and a six month growing season for the bulb to develop.

Germination may be erratic so seeds should be sown indoors in the spring. They should be planted at least a foot apart with their crowns at soil level and not buried. Mulch after planting and water well, particularly in dry conditions.

Plants may be fed during the growing season and towards the end of the summer the coarse outer leaves should be removed so the crowns are exposed. This encourages the bulbs to develop.

To protect from frost, spread a layer of straw, about 6 inches thick, around the crowns. Celeriac is grown for winter harvesting and may be gathered anytime from autumn until the following spring.

The bulbs are ready to be used when they are about four inches in diameter. The flavour is best and the bulbs will keep longer if the roots are left in the ground over winter.

ASPARAGUS

Asparagus is perennial and may be productive for up to 20 years. Its light, fern-like foliage grows over 3ft tall with a spread of about 18 inches.

It is cultivated for the delicious young shoots or spears that push through the ground in spring.

The plant is a cool-season crop growing best at 16 to 24 degrees centigrade in regions with cool winters that provide the necessary dormant period.

Asparagus should be planted on an open site avoiding exposed situations and frost pockets. The plant tolerates a wide range of moderately fertile soils although acid soils should be limed. Good drainage is essential.

Do not make a new asparagus bed where asparagus has been grown before since soil-borne diseases may persist. Remove all perennial weeds from the site and dig in manure or compost.

Asparagus is traditionally grown by planting one-year-old purchased plants or crowns in the spring. The crowns should never be allowed to dry out before planting. They should be grown about 15 inches apart in single or double rows.

The crowns should be planted about four inches deep. The roots should be spread out evenly then covered in soil up to the crown. Asparagus requires little attention other than keeping the beds weed-free. When the foliage turns yellow in autumn, cut the stems back to about one inch above the soil. It should be allowed to build into a strong plant before harvesting in the spring. Good modern cultivars may be cut lightly in the second season.

The following year, limit cutting to a six-week period. Subsequently, cutting may continue over eight weeks if the plants are growing well. Harvest the spears when they are about six inches high and fairly thick. Cut at an angle taking care not to damage other nearby spears. Remaining spears will continue to grow.

Asparagus freezes well and can be used in a host of recipes.

VITAMIN C (Ascorbic Acid)

Vitamin C is a ubiquitous compound, present in almost all plants and animals. Humans cannot produce their own bodily supply of Vitamin C, and consequently require a regular dietary intake. The classic Vitamin C deficiency disease is scurvy. A prolonged deficiency of Vitamin C may not lead to clinical symptoms, but may predispose towards heart disease and lowered immunity.

Studies have shown that Vitamin C levels become depleted during the course of an infection. There is also evidence that large doses, at least 1000 mg/day, can help symptoms of the common cold.

Orange & Fig Tart

Preparation — 30 minutes
Cooking — 35-40 minutes
Serves — 6

- Pastry:
225g/8oz self-raising flour
100g/4oz butter, chilled and cubed
2 tbsp caster sugar
1 1/2 tbsp milk

- Filling:
4 small oranges
3 fresh figs
2 egg yolks, size 3
1 tbsp plain flour
50g/2oz ground almonds
50g/2oz caster sugar
50g/2oz butter, melted
4 tbsp double cream
Caster sugar to dredge
Lightly whipped cream to serve

Method

- To make pastry, sift flour into a large bowl with a pinch of salt. Add butter and rub into the flour with your fingertips until the mixture resembles fine breadcrumbs.
- Stir in sugar and milk. Bring mixture together to form a dough. Place dough on a floured surface and knead gently until smooth. Cover and chill for twenty minutes.

- Preheat oven to 180°C/350°F/Gas Mark 4. Place a baking sheet in the oven to preheat. Meanwhile remove the skin and pith from oranges. Trim off fig tops then cut the oranges and figs into quarters. In a clean bowl add the egg yolks, flour, ground almonds, sugar, butter and cream. Beat together until smooth.

- Lightly grease a 23cm/9 ins. pie plate. On a floured surface roll out pastry to a 25cm/10 ins. circle. Gently lift the pastry over the pie plate, pushing pastry into the dip of the plate and leaving the surplus to hang over the rim.

- Add fruit to the pie plate and pour over the almond mixture. Roughly fold in pastry edges over the fruit. Brush the pastry rim with milk.

- Place the pie on the baking sheet in the oven and bake for 35-40 minutes until the pastry is golden and the filling set. Dredge with caster sugar and serve warm with cream.

Family Health

By DAVE BARRY

Q: My son is 13 months old. Apart from some asthma for which he is being treated, he is otherwise well but what worries us is that he seems to drink so little even though I try and force it. The district nurse tells me he is all right but when he was smaller he once became dehydrated - that's why I'm concerned.

A: Your concern is understandable but you need not worry. When a child is healthy, he will take all the drink that he needs. It's likely that your child was very much younger and unwell when he became mildly dehydrated. Doctors will always look for dehydration in a very young baby who is unwell because their bodies water-content-controlling mechanisms are still developing and are more easily disturbed as a result. But your child is thriving. While he continues to do so and with the advice that is regularly given to you by the nurse, I should just relax about his fluid intake as she has suggested. Should you continue to worry do consult your doctor again.

Age Of Beauty

ESSENTIAL OILS

Chamomile German, Maroc or Roman

Chamomile German is a strong aromatic herb with a branching stem with feathery leaves and white flowers. It is a non toxic oil but may cause dermatitis in some people. In skin care it is used to treat acne, boils, earache, inflammations, rashes, wounds, arthritis and neuralgia. Rheumatism can be treated with German Chamomile and also colic, nausea and menopausal problems.

Chamomile Maroc has tubular yellow flowers which are surrounded by white ligulets. It is distantly related to German Chamomile. This is one of the most recent oils to come on the market. It is a non toxic and non irritant oil. It is used in skin care to treat sensitive skin, also colic, headache and insomnia. It is also used in perfumes and colognes.

Chamomile Roman is a small perennial herb with a hairy stem with white flowers and an apple like scent. It had a medical reputation in Europe for over 2000 years. It was also used by the Egyptians and the Moors. It is a non toxic and non irritant.

Its aromatherapy and home use is the same as for German Chamomile. It is also used in the pharmaceutical industry in antiseptic ointments and tonic preparations. It is extensively used in cosmetics, soaps and high-class perfumes.

Up and Up! St. John's

At the recent Annual General Meeting of St. John's Association for Children with Special Educational Needs, held at St. John's Special School, votes of sympathy were passed on the deaths of Annie McGrath, Cappoquin, Norah and Mary Hyslop, Abbeyside, Mrs. Phil Hamilton and Derek Moroney, Dungarvan.

Tributes were then paid to the public for their generous contributions to the Annual Churchgate Collection. "Apart from thanking the people who gave so freely, I would like to thank the collectors in each parish" said Michael Power of Childers Estate, Dungarvan, Chairman. He then listed all the parishes in West Waterford and Youghal, the amount contributed at each and gave the total as £5,000 approx.

"The success of this school owes much to the support of the public through St. John's Association" said Noel Brennan, Principal of St. John's Special School. Many notable features of the school's work were listed, including the pupils' recent involvement in public exams (The NCVA certificate), sporting successes, musical events within the school and beyond, expansion of computer technology, the new school crest, and the sharing of the school's success with centres throughout Africa.

Yes, this year the principal was invited to Namibia to offer teacher educators there the St. John's School recipe for success which has evolved over many years. This followed on similar work in South Africa in 1997 when Noei Brennan brought the work of St. John's School to a newly-established Special Education facility in a black township. These trips were organised by APSO (Agency for Personal Service Overseas), and generously supported by St. John's Association and Dungarvan Soroptimists.

St. John's School continues to serve the needs of children with limited ability who are aged from five to eighteen. It's low pupil:staff ratio, broad curriculum, ancillary staff, excellent transport service, positive acceptance of pupils difficulties and it's warm and friendly atmosphere all add up to a school where pupils and teachers are proud to belong.

In his report to the Annual General Meeting Noel spoke of the highly successful Work Experience Programme for pupils aged 16 - 18. Through this scheme local employers offer 3 week's work opportunities in a variety of settings, for which the school is very grateful.

Mr. Brennan also expressed his satisfaction that all pupils aged over 16 were now entitled to the weekly Dependent Persons Allowance from the Department of Social, Community and Family Affairs.

Mr. Paul Clerkin, Honorary Treasurer, spoke of the enviable position of the St. John's Association finances. The meeting accepted his proposal that the Board of Management be given the money needed to carry out various minor improvements at the school.

He concluded by saying how glad he was to hear that Special Schools were receiving generous grants to improve Information and Communication Technology in the school.

So St. John's Association, now in existence for 35 years, marches on. Its worthwhile work in support of Special Education is widely appreciated, and enquiries about St. John's Special School are always welcome.

CHANGEOVER TO EURO

For the past number of weeks I have written on the computer Year 2000 problem and how it will affect your business. This week I would like to concentrate on another major issue which will have serious ramifications for all businesses, particularly those who are in the export market namely the forthcoming introduction of the Euro Single Currency.

Timetable

On May 2, 1998 the European Council formally announced the EU member states that have qualified to join EMU. As had been expected, Ireland has qualified for entry and will be one of the eleven countries participating in EMU from the start.

The timetable for EMU and the changeover to the Euro is as follows - On January 1, 1999 EMU will begin. The Euro will come into being as the single currency of the participating member states and the conversion rates between the Euro and the currencies of those member states will be irrevocably fixed. The Euro will be usable for non-cash transactions but Euro notes and coins will not become available until January 1, 2002 so Irish notes and coins will continue in use. This period from January 1, 1999 to December 31, 2001 is called the transitional period.

On January 1, 2002 Euro notes and coins will be introduced into circulation and Irish notes and coins will begin to be withdrawn. By July 1, 2002 at the latest, Irish notes and coins will have been completely withdrawn from circulation and the changeover to the Euro will be complete. This period, when both Euro notes and coins and Irish pound notes and coins are in circulation together, is called the dual circulation period. The length of this period will be determined at national level and is likely to be a good deal less than six months.

The Transitional Period - January 1, 1999 To December 31, 2001

Bear in mind the following key points about the transitional period - Irish pound notes and coins will be the only form of cash in circulation. Irish pound dominated cheques and electronic means of payment will continue to be available.

If your retail business is largely cash based, the impact of the single currency during the transitional period is likely to be limited. However you should consider the following issues -

Some customers may wish to use Euro denominated cheques and credit cards during the transitional period. You should therefore review the procedures and services available and wholesalers may decide to change over to the Euro shortly after January 1, 1999 so you should find out what their changeover plans are now. As an exercise in customer service from January 1, 1999 you should gradually familiarise your customers with the Euro by beginning to display the prices of at least some items in both Euro and Irish pounds at some point in the pricing chain (e.g. shelf edge labels, prices on products and/or till receipts). This information should be provided especially in the period close to January 1, 2000 when Euro notes and coins will be introduced.

The Dual Circulation Period - January 1, 2002 To July 1, 2002 At The Latest

On January 1, 2001 Euro notes and coins will be introduced into circulation. Irish pound notes and coins will remain in circulation for a maximum period of six months (and probably a good deal less) before the national currency is finally withdrawn.

Bear in mind the following key points about the dual circulation period - Irish pound notes and coins will be in circulation alongside Euro notes and coins but in diminishing numbers as their withdrawal proceeds.

Bank accounts denominated in Irish pounds and other participating currencies will be automatically converted to the Euro from January 1, 2002.

Banks and building societies will ensure that ATM machines will be converted to Euro in as short a time as possible following the introduction of Euro notes and coins.

A customer will be able to tender either Irish pounds or Euro when making a purchase during the dual circulation period. In order to accelerate the withdrawal of the Irish currency, retailers will probably give change back only in Euro. The handling of both Irish pounds and Euro will have a significant impact on the cash management of your business. For example you will be able to accommodate both sets of notes and coins in your existing till or will you need to invest in a second cash drawer or find some other way of catering for the two currencies?

To help your customers become familiar with prices in Euro as well as to familiarise your own employees, you will need to have dual pricing (i.e. displaying prices in both Irish pounds and Euro) in place. For example on shelf edge labels, prices on products and till receipts.

Staff will need training to become familiar with the new notes and coins as well as the new Euro pricing system. Remember your staff will need to be able to respond to customer queries.

Ballinameela Aglish Dramatics

Declan McGrath (Dermot Gibbon), Julie Conroy (Grainne Gibbon) and Patsy Fleming (Fintan Kinnore) practice their lines for the upcoming production by B.A.D.

Rehearsals continue for the upcoming performance of the Hugh Leonard play "The Patrick Pearse Motel" by B.A.D. under the watchful eye of Michael Scanlon.

Based in Dublin in the seventies, the play is set around the lives of two couples, Dermot and Grainne Gibbon, played by Declan McGrath and Julie Conroy and Fintan and Niamh Kinnore played by Patsy Fleming and Brigid O'Brien and the opening of a motel.

When the two men have to go on a business trip to Cork, it gives the ladies an opportunity to test that saying, "When the cat's away ....." especially when one Mr. James Usheen, played by Henry O'Keeffe arrives on the scene. Add to this the arrival of Miss Manning, a person with an awful lot more baggage than just her suitcases, played by Emma Barrett, to take up employment as the manageress of the motel and the premature return of the businessmen from Cork and what ensues is a riotous comedy guaranteed to banish any symptom of the winter blues. The part of Hoolihan, the nightwatch man at the motel is played by Michael Stack. Hoolihan happens to be a veteran of the 1916 Rising but all his experience could not possibly prepare him for the 'action' he was to witness at "The Patrick Pearse Motel."

Performance is set for the first week of December at Carriglea Convent Hall. B.A.D. are very grateful to Villierstown Hall Committee for the use of the hall for rehearsals.

Melleray Scout Centre Organises Radio Jamboree

The annual worldwide Scouting Jamboree On The Air took place on the weekend of October 17/18. Mount Melleray Scout Centre once again provided a short wave radio station for the duration of the Jamboree.

This was the 41st such annual event since 1958 when the first Jamboree-On-The-Air was held, millions of Scouts and Guides have "met" each other through J.O.T.A. Not only is it fun to talk to Scouts from other parts of the world but it is also a chance to find out about other countries and about Scouting elsewhere. Not many people realise that 400,000 plus Scouts take part in J.O.T.A. each year.

Mount Melleray Scout

Centre acted as National Jamboree Organiser for Ireland this year. Scouts and Guides from Ballygunner, Dungarvan, Youghal and Cork City joined us in the centre for the two days plus many visitors on the Sunday. Our station had a very nice contact with Scout Headquarters in Geneva, HB9S, operated by Richard Middlekoop, PA3BAR. For those who are going to the World Scout Jamboree in Santiago, Chile later this year, Richard is the man who will be running the short wave station from there and also the organiser of the "Blind Date" disco. If you need more information on that please contact the centre.

We also had a long chat with the man who started J.O.T.A. in 1958, Les Mitchell, G3BHK. Les has local connections with the Gore-Smyth estate in Youghal Harbour. The Scouts had great fun with a group from Burton-On-Trent who sang campfire songs for us, our offer to manage them as a group was turned down. The station made contact with 43 different countries over the two days, Faeroe Island, Oman, Japan, New Siberia, Finland, Israel, Norway, Svalbard Island (look that one up in your atlas) to mention a few. We had a ball in J.O.T.A. '98, our thanks to everyone scouts, guides, radio amateurs. Radio operators were Pat Geoghegan, E19EZ, Cappoquin, Bob Williams, E17AF, Clonmel, Joe Cahill, E17IO, Fermoy.

NIRE VALLEY RAMS BALL

On Friday, November 13 at the Minella Hotel, Clonmel the holding of the Nire Valley Rams Ball takes place on the anniversary of the state of emergency to reignite urban rural romance which blossomed explosively in the fifties to raise money for C.A.R.I. a childrens charity for the victims of child abuse, to create a search party to bring the lost sheep back to the fold, to reverse the tide of single lonely young leaving the countryside because Christmas party partners are as scarce as hens teeth.

The aim is to create a highly social fulfilled romantic environment in which people of all ages of maturity can easily intermingle socially to sow the seeds for further romantic interludes. Judging by the interest you would swear 'twas the first ball held in the Comeraghs. They have decided to make it a fancy dress in order to ignite people's imagination so let the theme be wild.

Do you possess the rare qualities to become this year's Comeragh Mountain Queen of the Wool? The successful candidate will be judged on her ability to collect straw in her hair, resuscitate and nurse dying lambs, toss and dose a ram lamb, milk Willie Power's three leat cow, manoeuvre a toy tractor trailer around an obstacle course. The 1998 Comeragh Mountain Queen of the Wool will automatically qualify for the international Rose of Tralee in 1999. Music on the night supplied by The Paddies. This probably will become a major annual event on the calendar.

NEWCASTLE VOLUNTARY HOUSING ASSOCIATION

A meeting of Newcastle Voluntary Housing Association took place in Newcastle Community Hall recently to discuss the next step in the planning process to provide a social housing development in Newcastle.

Two special guests attended with fifteen other members present Nurse Mary Fennell, Public Health Nurse for the region and John O'Mahony (Kilmanahan) Housing Officer for South Tipperary. He provided information as to the services and funding that is available from their two organisations.

The key topics discussed included the need for a meeting place within the housing scheme where residents, family and friends could socialise. There was also lengthy discussions as to what provisions should be considered as far as medical services, potential community meal services and other considerations for catering for the elderly. The committee visited the social housing development in Holycross on last Sunday to speak to the founders and residents and to get more ideas. The committee are holding a table quiz at The Hidden Inn Road House, Kilmanahan on Friday night, November 27.

CHAMPIONS OF 25 YEARS AGO TO BE HONOURED

At The Oriel Lounge Bar, Ballymacarbry on Saturday night next, November 14 Fourmilewater Hurling Club will honour its Minor 'A' hurling team who won the Minor Hurling title in 1973 when they defeated Erins Own at Walsh Park, Waterford. Memories of that great game are still in people's minds. They can remember that day as County Treasurer, Noel Dalton presented the Canon Walsh Cup to the Fourmilewater captain, Willie Ryan who was an outstanding net minder. On the day there were outstanding displays by several players; Declan Fitzpatrick, who scored 8 pts. (one from a free from over 80 yds.) a great feat for a boy of 16 years and goals by Johnny Halpin (2), Ollie Power, Sean Grant and Billy Walsh. The team in the final were Willie Ryan, Pat Hally, Eamonn Power, Pat McCarthy, Michael Hally, Albert Burke, Patrick Whelan, Michael Ryan, Tommy Halpin, John Michael Power, Johnny Halpin, Declan Fitzpatrick, Sean Grant, Ollie Power, Billy Walsh and the subs Joe Ryan, Sean Guiry, Walter Kearney, Thomas Kelly, Liam Kelleher, Michael F. Whelan, Bernard O'Grady, Jim Fenton, Jim Lonergan, Jimmy Power, Tom Condon. The referee on the day was Jim Joe Landers (Capoquin). The man who coached the 1973 winning Fourmilewater team was Willie Prendergast who was in sole charge of the team. There can be no doubt that Willie Prendergast deserves the lions share of the credit. He brought a team from nowhere and worked hard to improve the fitness and the skill and the discipline he put into them. That team contained a few fiery players but thanks to Willie no one strayed off course or batted an eyelid in the heat of battle. So he was the man with those young men who achieved that great milestone. After winning the minor title that team never again played together.

On the team were five sets of brothers - Ryans (of which Michael is today manager of the Waterford ladies football team), the Powers, the Whelans, the Hallys and the Halpins.

RECENT DEATHS

LATE ROBERT HICKEY

Profound and sincere feelings of regret were widely expressed at the news of the death of Mr. Robert (Bob) Hickey, Lackendarra Upper, Ballinamult and late of Derry which sad event took place in the loving and tender care of the Sisters of Nazareth House, Bishop Street, Derry on Sunday, November 1.

The deceased was the last surviving member of an old and respected Sliabh gCua family. He was a very estimable gentleman of many charming traits of character. His gentle, good humoured and obliging nature, mild manner and unassuming disposition commended him to all fortunate enough to have known him. He was a man possessed of an old world charm and was always welcome in whatever company he found himself.

For many years he attended the dances in Ballymacarbry on the Sunday nights with his many comrades. In those days the bicycle was the mode of transport. Also at the house gambles, he would render his favourite song, "The Tanyard Side" and all who knew him now deeply and justifiably grieve for the void his sad demise leaves.

On Tuesday his remains were removed from the Mortuary at Nazareth House, Derry to St. Mary's Parish Church, Touraneena where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Cornelius Kelleher P.P. Nire/Touraneena. On Wednesday morning, the feast of St. Charles, requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his gentle soul. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Kelleher P.P. After Mass on a crisp November day he was laid to rest in the family plot in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of mourners paying their final respects to a Christian friend whose memory they will cherish. To his niece and his many relatives we extend our sympathy.

LATE MR. JAMES MULCAHY

It is with deep and sincere regret we pen the death of Mr. James (Seamus) Mulcahy, Pearse Crescent, Sligo and formerly of Newcastle, Clonmel which sad event took place at Sligo General Hospital on Sunday, November 1.

The deceased was a member of an old and respected South Tipperary family. A man of outstanding qualities who possessed a wonderful warm personality and made friends with ease, he was a kind and loving husband, a gentle father, his family were his pride and joy. He was a caring neighbour abounding in Christian charity who made an immediate and lasting impression by virtue of his easygoing nature which endeared him to all. He was a true gentleman in every sense of the word and a host of friends who appreciated his company, advice or assistance in any way now truly and justifiably grieve with family, neighbours and many friends for the demise his sad parting leaves.

Many tributes have been paid to this fine man but perhaps the finest was paid to him on Tuesday evening by the large concourse of mourners who were present when his remains were removed from his residence to St. Anne's Parish Church, Sligo. On Wednesday morning, the feast of St. Charles, Mass of the Resurrection was celebrated for the happy repose of his gentle soul. After Mass the funeral took place to Sligo Cemetery where he was laid to rest. To his family, brother and sister we extend our sympathy.

Solas na soilse da na hanam.

LATE MRS.

MARGARET O'SHEA

It was with deep regret the district learned of the death of Mrs. Margaret O'Shea (nee Fitzpatrick), Mollough Abbey, Newcastle which sad event took place at Cork University Hospital on Thursday, November 5.

The deceased, who was in her early seventies, was a member of an old and respected Newcastle family. She was a lady of outstanding qualities who possessed a wonderful warm personality and made friends with ease. All callers to her home were made feel truly welcome as she was a caring neighbour abounding in Christian charity who made an immediate and lasting impression by virtue of her easygoing nature. She was a wonderful wife and mother, her family were so dear to her. She was heartbroken at the death of her son, Gerry who passed to his reward almost seven years ago at the age of 35.

Many tributes have been paid to this fine lady but perhaps the finest was paid to her on Friday evening when all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of mourners who were present when her remains, after the rosary was recited, were removed from Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel to the Parish Church of St. Mary's, Newcastle where they were blessed and received. On Saturday morning, the feast of St. Willibrord, the saint with the gift of prophecy, requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of her gentle soul. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Patrick Gear C.C. Fourmilewater/Newcastle assisted by Rev. Fr. Sean Nugent P.P. Burncourt/Clogheen, Rev. Fr. Thomas Morrissey, Mollough Retired P.P. Burncourt/Clogheen and Rev. Fr. Edmund Tobin Fourmilewater/Newcastle. After Mass the funeral took place to the ancient Churchyard at Newcastle where, on a windy November day, she was laid to rest beside the wall of the church. Fr. Gear C.C. officiated at the graveside in the presence of another large concourse of mourners who came to pay their final respects to a dear Christian friend whose memory they will cherish. To her husband John, son Sean, daughter Miriam and her many relatives we extend our sympathy.

SYMPATHY

Sympathy of the district is extended to Mrs. Mai Power, St. Martin's Place, Ballymacarbry on the death of her sister, Mrs. Ellen (Nellie) Whitehead (nee Duggan), a native of Mollough, Newcastle which sad event took place in Kent, England where she was domiciled for some years.

THE SLEEPING PLACE

There is wonderful interest locally in Fr. Iain Duggan's book of poetry entitled 'The Sleeping Place'. The poem 'The Sleeping Place' appears on page 15 of the book and the inspiration for the poem was triggered by a visit to the Quaker cemetery in Rosenallis in Co. Laois. Fr. Duggan was deeply touched by the serenity of the place. The local people refer to it affectionately as 'The Sleeping Place' because after the name on almost every tombstone is found the inscription 'who fell asleep in Jesus'. Fr. Iain felt it a lovely inspiration for a poem which he then wrote and when he cast around for a title, it seemed to be just right.

'Here willow and yew and rhododendron

Shelter Duggan and Goodbody and a Pim. Sweet Rosenallis, your Quaker cemetery is Oh, such an oasis of peace in late spring'

Lord, may we realise that there is no such thing

As the finished article, the perfect, no, not even up above,

No borders of class, colour, race or creed in heaven,

In the world of the living dead, the meeting-house of love.'

On the cover of the book Fr. Iain points out that 'not all poetry is easily understood and understanding is not everything. To echo T.S. Eliot, the experience of a poem is the experience both of a moment and of a lifetime.'

'The Sleeping Place' is very good value indeed and is available locally from Power's Bookshop, Mary Street, Readers Choice and David Walsh, Office Supplies, Main Street or from his devoted brother Phil Duggan, Ballinroad.

THE CHANGING FACE OF MURPHY PLACE

The widening of the Murphy Place roads is planned to commence shortly when the green strip along both sides of the Estate and the trees will be removed. However, a protest signed by the vast majority of the residents has been lodged with the Council obviously objecting to the developments. The concern of the residents relates to the expectation that the wider thoroughfare will encourage speeding by school traffic. It is thought also that it will accommodate parking during the lunch-break at Scoil Mhuire. Personally, I would be concerned at the removal of any grassy areas and trees in any estate in Abbeyside.

SALE OF WORK

Ballinroad Hall will again host a Sale of Work and the much looked forward to event will take place on Sunday 22nd November from 2.00 pm to 5.00 pm. Tickets for the Draw are at present on sale and you are requested to be as generous as possible.

NEW BUSINESS

Recently, Joe Organ, who is a Sarsfield St. resident opened up a Barber Shop at the junction of Crotty's Corner in the premises which was once a Turf Accountants Establishment. The premises are modernised and very nicely presented. Joe was trained in the business by the very well-known Hair Stylist Peter Marks of Cork and Dublin and he is well equipped to cut gents hair to any style preferred by the customer.

Joe is son of Johnnie and Kitty Organ of Sarsfield Street.

ABBEYSIDE JUST OUSTED IN SCHOOLS FINAL

The Abbeyside boys travelled to the Fraher Field and were unlucky to be beaten by near neighbours from St. Joseph's, Dungarvan by one point. The winner here was the game of football and it was great to see both schools so evenly balanced.

It is vital that the large urban areas compete at the highest level possible and that they are stretched to the limit of their ability in quest of glory.

Abbeyside led at half time by one point with Diarmuid Sheehan scoring the goal. Another goal following the break and Abbeyside seemed on their way but Dungarvan kept plugging away and when Jamie Cullinane goaled for St. Joseph's it gave them the confidence to carve out a victory that must have delighted Eileen Fennell who was born and reared in Abbeyside.

The Abbeyside boys need not be down hearted and I am sure many of them will go on to represent the club and continue to play at adult level.

Armistice Day — Island of Ireland Peace Park

At the 11th hour on the 11th day of the 11th month of 1918 — 80 years ago — hostilities ceased and the Great War was over.

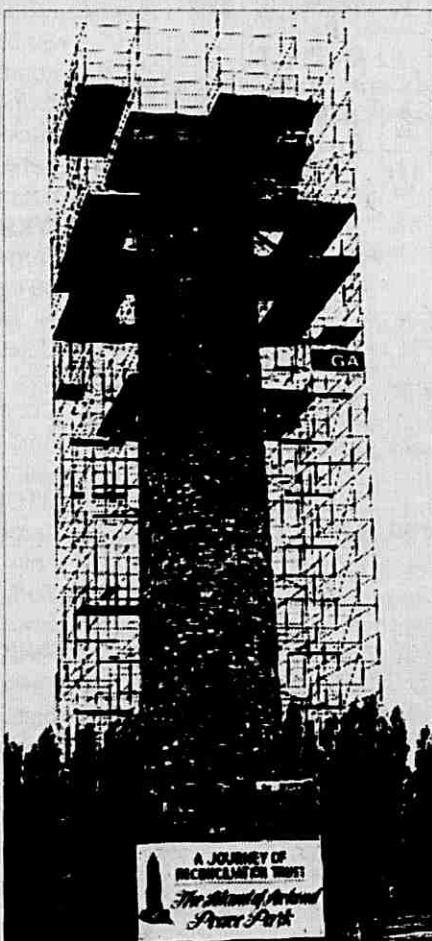

It is estimated that around 500,000 Irishmen volunteered to fight for the rights of small nations, and the fine War Memorial at Islandbridge in Dublin honours the 49,500 who never returned home.

Many of these men were from Waterford City and County, and many families today still proudly possess medals and mementos of that terrible sacrifice.

This week the President of Ireland and the Queen of England meet in a corner of Belgium to dedicate the Island of Ireland Peace Park.

The Park commemorates the stand side by side of men of the Northern Ireland 36th Division and men of the Southern Ireland 16th Division at the famous Ypres/Messines Ridge battle.

We should remember them — "they shall not grow old as we that are left grow old" — and we should also remember the men who did come back to Ireland, and who did at last grow old. May they all rest in peace.

ABBEYSIDE REFERENCE ARCHIVE

Last week a man gave us a nice old sepia photograph of the crew of a ship for our Maritime section. We understand there are two Abbeyside men in the crew and we hope to learn more about the photograph in the future.

As Abbeyside has such a strong seafaring tradition it always gives us pleasure to add items to our Maritime section and so help to record and reflect the people from "the village" that made their living on the high seas. This Sunday evening Seamus O' Brien whose ancestors were no strangers to the sea takes the chair at the Parish Office where all visitors will be welcome to come along and browse at leisure. Parking as always at the Pond.

Make Children's Playground A Millennium Project

A call has been made to make children's playgrounds a Millennium Project in Dungarvan and Abbeyside by Democratic Left's Cllr. Fiachra Ó Ceilleachair.

Cllr. Ó Ceilleachair feels that this aspect of Dungarvan's development has been badly neglected and that it's time that the Council faces up to its obligations to the children of the area.

An excellent study and report on the subject has been completed by students of Dungarvan Technical College and there is strong support for the measure among the parents of the area.

"I will be calling for money to be provided in the '99 estimates for this project, so that a start can be made towards providing the amenities before the new Millennium," said Cllr. Ó Ceilleachair.

Winter Feeding

The level of Winter feeding required will depend on issues such as animal type, quantity and quality of forage available and proposed sale date of the animal.

SUCKLER COWS

Feeding regime will depend on forage quality and cow condition. Cows in good body condition can be restricted on silage only to 40 kg/day (80% of their ad-lib intake). One roundbale of silage (700 kg) when restricted should last 17 Suckler cows a day. Cows in poor body condition will require silage ad-lib or 1 roundbale per 14 cows per day. Dry suckler cows being fed straw require between 2 - 3 kg of 18% crude protein concentrate per day.

WEANLINGS

Target gain: 0.5 - 0.6 kg per day or 70 - 80 kg over the Winter. Heavy Weanlings (+ 300 kgs), Good Quality Silage + 1 kg Concentrates. Light Weanlings (250 kgs) Good quality silage + 1.5 - 2 kgs Concentrates. Animals intended for sale next Spring should receive 2 kg of concentrates per day.

STORES

Target gain 0.5 kg/day. Silage ad-lib only. (If you intend to graze cattle next Spring). Silage + 2 kg of concentrates where cattle are to be sold next Spring.

FINISHING

Target gain: Steers 0.9 - 1.1 kg/day heifers 0.8 - 0.9 kgs/day. With good quality silage 0.75 kg concentrates /100 kg of liveweight. Where silage is scarce 1 kg concentrates / 100 kg of liveweight. Split feeding of concentrates is needed once you exceed 3 kg / day.

POINTS ON RATIONS

* Energy is the main requirement in cattle rations. Aim for a ration with an energy content of mj ME/ as fed or 12.5 mj ME/kg on a DM basis.

* Protein is normally adequate in most finishing cattle diets (11 - 13 %). Protein in rations may have to increase where young bulls are being fed to 16%. Straw diets also require higher levels of protein. Diets containing fodder beet will also require balancing for protein.

* When buying in pelleted compound rations, avoid paying more than £125 - 135/tonne. Home mixing; coarse rations and purchasing in bulk will obviously reduce costs.

* Main energy feeds are barley, wheat, oats, maize, beet pulp and citrus pulp. Of these, barley and beet pulp offer the best value this year.

* Most protein sources are good value. Feeds such as Soya, Maize gluten. Maize distillers and rapeseed meal are worth considering. Soya in terms of price and quality represents the best value.

* Add a vitamin/mineral mix at 25 kg per tonne of straight feed.

Tillage

SOIL CONDITIONS/SEEDING RATE

Rainfall for the end of October is above normal with areas in the northern half of the country getting up to 4 times the normal pattern. Soil traffic ability and workability is very poor and sowings are temporarily halted. The opportunity for reducing seed rates has now passed.

Poor soil conditions and high populations of both slugs and leather jackets demand a seeding rate of at least 188 kg/ha (12 st/ac) for both wheat and oats. It is now too late to sow winter barley.

When conditions recover continue to sow wheat up to early December and oats to mid November.

BYDV CONTROL

Aphid numbers are high Crops sown up to early October should be sprayed by now. Follow up with another application: mid November to early December. Spray crops sown from mid October at the 2 - 3 leaf stage. Use any of the contact aphicides such as Decis, Cypersect, Sumi Alpha, Cyperkill, Toppel etc.

The risk of infection of crops to be sown from now onwards will depend on temperature and aphid counts through the winter.

Reminder

The Teagasc National Dairy Conference will be held in the Hotel Minella, Clonmel, on November 19, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Dairy production systems, dairy industry developments and taxation will be dealt with by Teagasc, industry personnel and farmers.

IFA\FBD 1998 EUROPEAN TOUR

County Waterford Farmer Gets Insight into European Farming

Anthony Ryan, Ballymacarbray, winner of the 1998 IFA/FBD European Scholarship tour in Waterford was one of a group of farmers drawn from 925 IFA Branches for their voluntary help in developing the Association's membership. Here he writes of his experiences and outlines some of the challenges and opportunities which Central European farmers pose for Ireland's farming and food industry.

The 1998 IFA/FBD European Scholarship tour took 35 farmers from every IFA Executive region to see for ourselves how our farming colleagues across Germany, Austria, Slovenia and Italy do their business and what concerns they have for their future in farming. We observed the ways in which European farmers overcome problems and get the best out of their land and stock on the different terrains of the Bavarian region of Germany, the non EU country of Slovenia, the mountainous region of Austria and the scenic and productive regions of Northern Italy. We also got to the heart of European farm politics in meeting farm organisations in the countries visited to get their views on how they see European farming and international farm policy impact on their futures.

In general, farmers in Germany, Austria and Italy were, like ourselves in Ireland, concerned for the future. In particular, the impact that the Santer 2000 Proposals would have on their business was a topic of frequent discussion. The Germans and Austrians were very much in favour of retaining milk quotas, providing direct income supports for our livestock industry and protecting our markets with a combination of quotas, supply management and import restrictions after the Santer 2000 Proposals and the next round of GATT.

The situation in Italy was different with the farmers wanting to get rid of milk quotas as they see a massive opportunity to increase milk production to meet the demands of their own native population. Currently, Italy only produces 65% of the milk they consume. The Irish farm group were quick to point to our Italian colleagues that the Irish milk producers were happy to supply their markets with milk and were willing to reciprocate by buying Italian wine in Ireland.

The prices of farm produce in Germany, Austria, and Italy were slightly higher than those received by Irish farmers with milk 5% - 10% higher and beef 10% - 20% higher.

The farm structure in Austria was on average only half that of Ireland's average farm size. In Italy the farms were bigger and more intensive. Tourism is a massive industry in Austria and the vast majority of small farmers are involved in one way or the other in supplementing their household income by providing facilities and accommodation to European holiday makers in the Summer and for skiing in the Winter. In general Austrian farmers regretted the fact that their country joined the European Union as the national supports they enjoyed prior to membership were being slowly whittled away, exposing their small farm structure to a very difficult economic future.

Generally, farmers in Germany, Austria and Italy had higher costs of production when compared to our own in Ireland. They had very expensive buildings, over-mechanised farms and an intensive method of milk and beef production that certainly left nobody concerned over our ability to compete in producing food, cost effectively.

Slovenia is not part of the European Union. It is the northern end of what was traditionally known as Yugoslavia and has a population of 2 million people. Farmers in the main are small, with an average herd size of 4 - 5 cows. The Government provides some supports for farmers and milk prices are running at approx. 90p/gal., with beef prices at 80p/lb. We visited a big farmer with 18 dairy cows — this man had plans to expand his herd to 25 cows over the next few years. He, like farmers in the other countries visited, was concerned for his future and was certainly concerned of the impact the European Union would have on his business when his country would eventually be accepted into EU membership. In Slovenia we also visited a small Co-operative with about 1500 suppliers whose average supplier produced 4,000 gals. of milk per year. They hoped to be able to survive into the future but would require significant investment in plant and equipment if they were to meet the exacting quality standards imposed on our own processors in Ireland and across the EU.

ICMSA WELCOMES PROPOSED CHANGES IN PRSI PENSION RULES

ICMSA has welcomed the proposed changes in PRSI Pension rules, which will benefit farmers and other self-employed. Mr. Donal Hynes, Chairman of ICMSA Taxation Committee said that ICMSA had lobbied for these changes over the past ten years.

Mr. Hynes said that the current rules exclude anyone who has less than 10 years PRSI contributions. In effect any farmer who was over 56 on 5 April 1998 was deprived of PRSI even though he may have made a PRSI contribution for up to 9 years.

ICMSA estimate that in 1998 up to 25,000 farmers were potentially excluded from the PRSI pension because of this rule. ICMSA had proposed the Pro-Rata Pension system as the way of removing this blatant discrimination against farmers and other self employed. The current higher rate of Pro-Rata Pension is £62.30 plus the normal £56.90 payout for an adult dependent, giving £119.20, compared to a full PRSI pension for a married couple of £139.90.

However, Mr. Hynes expressed dissatisfaction that persons with less than five years PRSI contributions are still excluded from a PRSI pension under the Minister's proposals. ICMSA has proposed the lower rate Pro-Rata Pension for these individuals.

MAJOR DISAGREEMENT ON FUNDING OF ANIMAL DISEASE ERADICATION PROGRAMME

A major disagreement has arisen on the funding of the Animal Disease Eradication Programme. Following a meeting with senior officials from the Department of Agriculture, ICMSA Deputy President, Pat O'Rourke said that he was shocked that the

paid to farmers with animal disease problems.

Mr. O'Rourke said "The Department of Agriculture and ICMSA had agreed last August on the payment of compensation due to farmers prior to September of last year. Despite the fact that all of these cases have now been fully documented and quantified, the Department will not make these payments without first cutting the level of disease compensation due to farmers generally. This is totally unacceptable to ICMSA. Furthermore the Minister has apparently decided, without full consultation with farmers, to force farmers to pay for cattle tags. This is a new cost on farmers who are already finding it impossible to support their families financially." Mr. O'Rourke concluded that the Minister must directly address these issues and he is calling for a full meeting of the Animal Disease Forum as soon as possible.

ICMSA - Severe Income Problems For Farmers

Liam Heverin, Chairman of ICMSA's Beef and Cattle Committee said that the Minister for Agriculture and Food should visit a livestock mart if he thinks farmers incomes are no lower than they were in 1997. There is now a severe income problem, Mr. Heverin said, on many small family farms as a result of the current low livestock prices and also the additional cost associated with the current fodder shortages.

Farms have to sell cattle at extremely low prices due to a lack of adequate fodder. The current prices mean that farmers are now selling cattle at less than what they would have paid for them last Spring, Mr. Heverin said. Such a situation is not sustainable and requires Irish and EU action to ensure that these farmers overcome the current short term difficulties.

What is needed, Mr. Heverin said, is a once-off premium to be paid to farmers who have sold cattle to the marts or processors since August of this year. These are the farmers, Mr. Heverin said who have lost heavily due to the lower prices with in excess of £100 per head of a loss. Such a premium was put in place during the BSE Crisis and prices are now lower than they were during the BSE Crisis.

LISMORE MILLENIUM JOURNAL

A millenium miscellany has been published recently in Lismore, The Lismoreian. It is very wide-ranging, a 'catch-up' journal as the Foreword says. There are over 200 A4 pages of articles, interviews, profiles, proposals for restoring antiquities, poems, a brilliant hurling survey, short stories, and photos - some rare.

Local publications can sometimes be slipshod; this journal is not. It ranges easily from the scholarly to the humorous not faltering in orthography or syntax. In an age of declining literacy it is a delight to read. The articles 'as Gaeilge' - often a test of a journal's literacy credibility - are exemplary. One criticism might be the foreshortening of the Ptolemy map on p. 15, but this is to quibble. Apart from the contents, the miscellany is handsomely turned out with a black and amber soft-board cover, perfect binding, and arresting graphics.

One critic said the book was an artifact worthy of the great city of St. Carthage. The most impressive critique was by a local lady. She said she was 'beaten to the grab' every night for a month to get her read of the book by her husband - and he a Tallow man! Though mainly of Lismore interest, it can, because of the historical importance of Lismore, appeal more widely e.g. many of the 'character sketches' have universal appeal. The uniform high standard of items is remarkable; some are gems e.g. a beautiful appraisal of Joe Whelan, athletics guru, a perfectly modulated mystic tale of priest hunting in penal times, great chit-chat from a farmer-musician, a definitive article on the brosná tradition in Lismore, a chilling story in the thirties by George O'Brien Snr. and gold nuggets too, e.g. a classic bit of serendipity regarding C.S. Parnell, and Mall Seat and Tostal photos and so on and on.

The miscellany would make a fine December 25th gift and at £7.99 is a snip considering there are no advertisers or sponsors. A feature of the book apparently is its protracted shelf-life revolving round the millennium idea. It is available now at shops locally, including Meacher's of Ballysaggart and at the Library and Heritage Centre. The editor (E. Dennis) and his writers are to be congratulated on doing a fine job, may they all live to produce another such effort next millennium! Finally, a launching is expected to which all are welcome (craic, ceoil, ol!) at a date to be announced locally later. Go n-eiri adh leis.

LISMORE TIDY TOWNS

As the present FAS Scheme draws to a close we express our thanks to our three workers Billy, Clive and Harry for the work they undertook during the past year on behalf of Tidy Towns. On Oct. 16th we held our local prizegiving at Rose's. A good crowd attended an enjoyable social evening with good music and craic. Thanks to all the ladies who made sandwiches and cakes for the night, as usual we had more than enough.

LISMORE SOCCER NOTES

Lismore played Ardmore on Sunday afternoon last at the Castle Farm Grounds in the Red House League and continued their winning run by one goal to nil victory. Level at half time the all important score came from Owen Bennett midway through the 2nd half. This was another wonderful performance by Lismore who now have gone 4 league game without dropping a point, the best start ever to their league displays through the years. The defence on Sunday was once again excellent and in their 4 games to date have conceded only.

However, with 10 games remaining in the league and just 3 pts separating 4 teams it is imperative that Lismore continue collecting points.

Team; K. Hornibrook, P. Prendergast, A. Meagher, A. Landers, O. Bennett, P. Walsh, M. Caples, B. Prendergast, P. Howard, M. Ormonde, D. Howard. sub, John Landers.

This weekend Lismore have a free Sunday as the eagerly awaited clash with neighbours Brideview has to be postponed as the Tallow club are playing in the F.A.I. Junior Cup away to Clonmel Town as we take this opportunity to wish Brideview the very best and hope they record another victory. Our next league game is on Sunday 22nd November when we play away to Pinewood Rangers. On Saturday next the U-15 team play at home to Youghal in the league. Kick off at 2.30 pm.

Congratulations — Congratulations to the Lismore GAA Club on having three players on the Munster Railway Cup Competition in Kilkenny on Sunday last against Leinster.

Dan Shanahan and Brendan Landers lined out while Dave Bennett was a substitute. Leinster won this game, which was played before just 326 spectators. The Lismore Club also had Jimmy O'Gorman as selector. All in all a record for the Lismore Club with 3 players and one selector involved.

Death — The death took place on Sunday last, 8th Nov. in St. Patrick's Nursing Home, Baldoyle of Rev. Bro. John Gerard Murphy. A native of Knocknagree, Co. Cork Br. Murphy who was in his 91st year and the oldest brother in the Southern Province came to Lismore CBS as Principal in 1940 and held that position until he retired in 1967. For all of us ex CBS we will always remember Bro. Blake and Br. Murphy who taught the primary classes before we "graduated" upstairs to the secondary. The late Bro. Blake succeeded Bro. Murphy as Principal and also as superior of Lismore CBS.

In 1967 Bro. Murphy retired to Monasteravin, Co. Kildare and he went from there to St. Patrick's Nursing Home at Baldoyle where he has spent the last 20 years.

He paid two visits to Lismore in the past 10 years, both of which were short stays. Bro. Murphy was laid to rest on Tuesday morning last, 10th Nov. in Blessed Edmund Rice cemetery, St. Patrick's, Baldoyle after 10.30 am Mass.

LISMORE DRAMATIC SOCIETY NOTES

Appreciative partners flocked to The Courthouse Theatre to see last weekend's production of "The Shaughran". As the storyline unfolded people understood the amount of effort that members (particularly backstage) had put into it. The romantic melodrama set in 1867 has sixteen scenes. The backstage crew have to be on their toes at all times but they would, wouldn't they?

With Tom Murphy's vocal encouragement, our wardrobe mistress Frances Tobin has excelled herself in outfitting everybody in period costume and Tina Flynn our prop manager has gone to extreme lengths to ensure that all the fine details required are fulfilled. Donal Kennefick has utilised the talents of David Anglesey, Joe White and the O'Brien musicians to portray the troubles and tribulations "The Shaughran" gets into.

We are performing again on this Thursday, November 12, Friday (13th), Saturday (14th) at 8.15 p.m. and don't miss a very varied production full of comedy, colour and excitement by booking at Maddens (058) 54148 early and often.

AFFANE A.F.C. NOTES

Last Sunday we had a challenge game against second division side Clashmore. It was a good game of football. Both sides had plenty of chances but some fine goalkeeping from both 'keepers made it a low scoring game.

We started the game very well playing some fine football, putting the Clashmore defence under pressure. From this we were awarded a penalty and John Crotty made no mistake. It stayed that way until half-time.

In the second half we started like the first, passing and moving the ball very well. We pushed forward looking for our second goal and Clashmore caught us on the break to score their first goal. It stayed like that up to ten minutes from time when a well worked move from the goalkeeper's kick-out which Tosh headed on to Mick Brown, a great ball from Mick to Kieran Mahony who rounded the 'keeper to slot home for a well deserved win.

The club would like to thank Clashmore for a great game of soccer in which they paid half the ref's fee. Nice one, lads. And the club would also like to thank Jim Foley for coming out of retirement to referee the game. Thanks Jim. It was a good job I wasn't playing isn't that right, Jim?

Team - J. Corcoran, D. Twomey, M. McCarthy, S. McCarthy, B. Denn, M. Prendergast, T. Hennebry, J. Crotty, I. Sheehan, D. Fraher, K. Mahony. Subs: M. Brown for D. Fraher.

Next week we are away to Dungourney. A win is a must. We will leave the Cross at 10 a.m.

OKLAHOMA! SET TO CAPTIVATE LOCAL AUDIENCES

Cappoquin is in a state of high excitement in expectation of the production of Rodgers and Hammerstein's ever popular Oklahoma! by students of St. Anne's Post Primary School this week.

Under the direction of School Principal, Orison Carlile their two previous productions "The Wizard Of Oz" and "The Sound Of Music" established a reputation for top class entertainment.

"Everyone remembers how good our previous shows were so we have spared no efforts in making Oklahoma! our best show yet," says producer, Orison Carlile.

There is a very strong production team involved with co-producer Margo Cashman doing the choreography, P. J. Dolan masterminding the stage management and Mairead Cullinane taking charge of music.

Oklahoma! is a very happy show with well known favourites like "Oh What A Beautiful Morning", "The Surrey With The Fringe On Top", "I Can't Say No" and "The Farmer And The Cowman Should Be Friends". The cast are raring to go and cannot wait for opening night.

The lead roles of Laurey and Curly are played by Robbie Shead and Jenny Moore while comedy is provided by Kevin Lynch and brother and sister Denis and Aine Byrne. Kenneth Foley plays the part of the evil Jud Fry while Amy Fraher plays Aunt Eller with great panache. The principals are supported by a strong cast which includes Donal O'Rourke, Jane Prendergast, Martin Gilligan, Rachel Hanrahan, Stephen Hogan, Brian Morrissey and numerous cowboys, farmers and cowgirls.

Under the guidance of their art teacher, Anne Mullah the students have been busily painting a 'bright golden haze' on the scenery. Even caretakers Michael Coleman and John Joe McGrath have been getting in on the act by building scenery and hanging lights.

The show runs from this Wednesday, November 11 to Saturday, November 14. The phones in the school (058) 54271 and in Mason's Foodstore (058) 54625 have been hopping off the hook so if you want to catch the excitement you had better be quick.

Minister Under Attack As Farming Crisis Continues

By AISLING CONROY

The beleaguered Minister for Finance, Charlie McCreevy came under a barrage of criticism at Monday's meeting of Waterford County Council after he accused farmers last weekend of exaggerating their problems in advance of next month's budget.

The Fianna Fáil Deputy's comments were labelled "outrageous" and it was alleged that he was clueless as to the problems facing Irish farming by some Council members who expressed their anger and dismay at the deepening crisis in the agricultural sector.

It was unanimously decided to write to the Taoiseach conveying the Council's concern at Minister McCreevy's remarks and to highlight the Council's concern at the overall situation within the farming community.

This crisis has gradually worsened with the economic recession that has hit Middle East markets and has been further compounded by the BSE crisis and the collapse of the Russian economy. The entire debate was originally raised by Council Chairperson, Nora Flynn who accused the Government of turning its back on rural Ireland. The dwindling number of farmers, she stressed, will ultimately have an adverse effect on rural towns and villages and small shops will be forced out by the larger supermarkets as rural populations decline.

"JUST NOT CAPABLE"

Having attended Dungarvan Mart prior to Monday's meeting, Cllr. Willie McDonnell spoke of rapidly falling prices whereby cattle is now £120 cheaper and lambs £20 a head cheaper than this time last year. In addition he revealed that pig farmers were finding it difficult to sell their animals in some places and grain growers are making do with a price of £80 per tonne - "barely enough to buy a decent pair of shoes."

Cllr. McDonnell quoted figures of up to 100 young farmers a week leaving the land. The average income in 1997 for 40% of farmers was £200 per week while another 40% averaged less than £100. Only recently 40,000 farmers from around the country, including himself, had demonstrated their concern at the decline in farming incomes at a massive protest march in Dublin.

"The situation has never been so bad," he slammed. "We have a man in charge who's just not capable. He hasn't a clue about what's going on in Irish farming."

Cllr. Oliver Coffey said Minister McCreevy's comments were outrageous and downgrading to farmers, particularly as the Minister represents a rural constituency in Kildare.

Having also attended that morning's Mart which he described as depressing, Cllr. Coffey said prices were so bad that livestock had actually cost more when they were initially bought.

DEATH WISH ON FARMERS

McCreevy's infamous comments were also lambasted by Cllr. Garry O'Halloran who said it seemed that the Minister has "some kind of death wish" on farmers. He said the latest Teagasc figures revealed that of the current 150,000 full-time farmers, in another ten years this figure will be reduced to 75,000.

Fianna Fáil's Cllr. Kieran O'Ryan said he was also deeply disturbed by the Minister's remarks and was of the opinion that the current crisis in farming is the greatest since the economic war with Britain.

Cllr. Fiachra Ó Ceilleachair pointed out that despite the Celtic Tiger, there is now more poverty in Ireland than ten years ago. He claimed that this isn't the first time that Minister McCreevy attacked farmers as he previously brought in the 'dirty dozen' measures which introduced a tax on unemployment benefit and sick pay etc.

Laying the blame for the current farming crisis firmly with the Fianna Fáil party, Labour's Cllr. Billy Kyne warned that if the present Government cannot control the building boom or the farming crisis, then it should not be in power.

Cllr. Ollie Wilkinson however said it was over simplification to blame the farming situation on the Minister. The crisis, he felt, has been happening with the past ten years. Even if farm families are allowed to qualify for Family Income Supplement, this in itself, he stressed, would not be a long term solution. Farming organisations need to get together with the Government to plan what needs to be done in the future.

TOO ALARMIST

Cllr. Paddy Kenneally maintained that people are being too alarmist about the farming situation. The whole market for livestock and grain, he said, is governed by supply and demand and at this point in time there is an over supply on the part of farmers and a drop in demand for meat.

"Things can only improve," he added. "In the present economic climate, people will leave the land," he asserted adding that it is now an economic reality that 500 acres are needed to maintain a farm.

Sharing his views, Cllr. Michael Queally put the farming crisis down to overproduction which, he claimed, started in 1992 with the introduction of the McSharry proposals when farmers deliberately increased herd size to qualify for subsidies.

TALLOW NOTES

BRIDEVIEW UTD. A.F.C. NOTES

RED HOUSE LEAGUE

Easy Win For Utd.

Our Div. 1 side travelled to Araglen on Sunday morning last and ran out easy winners while our Div. 3 side came from behind to clinch a draw at home to Modeligo. On Saturday our under-17 team drew at home to Pinewood Rangers while our Lotto was shared on Saturday night.

Division 1

Araglen 2

Brideview Utd. 6

We scored our six goals and to be honest missed about six more but the most important thing was a win. At times Utd. played terrific football but putting the ball in the Araglen net was a problem.

We began well and went in front in the 84th min. when Eoin Murphy set up Stephen Curley to score. A great Utd. move involving Curley, Murphy and Dermot Henley saw the latter header just go wide. We went two goals up in the 15th min. when J. P. Grey passed to Murphy who beat the offside trap and go on to score a fine goal. A penalty to Utd. after 18 mins. saw J. P. Grey crack home goal number three. Our 'keeper Billy Sheehan brought off a marvellous one-handed save in the 25th min. but Araglen did open their account a minute later through an o.g. Grey and Henley were both denied by the 'keeper before the half-time whistle sounded. At the break Utd. led 3-1.

Utd. kept the pressure on in the second half. Stephen Curley chipped the 'keeper in the 52nd min. but the 'keeper managed to get back to save the ball on the line. A minute later and Utd. were further ahead when Dermot Henley scored from close range. The crossbar denied the homeside after 56 mins.

Utd. put some great moves together after this but the final shot either went wide or was saved. Araglen pulled back a second goal in the 65th min. Utd. pressed forward again and goals from J. P. Grey (74th min.) and Stephen Curley (77th min.) saw Utd. run out easy winners.

Utd. - B. Sheehan, D. Doyle, D. Martin, P. Curley, R. Henley, J. P. Grey, S. Barry (capt.), J. Doyle, S. Curley, D. Henley, E. Murphy. Res.: S. Pratt (on after 45 mins.).

Division 3

Brideview Utd. 2

Modeligo 2

Twice during this game had Utd. to come from a goal down and at the end of an enjoyable game the points were shared. The visitors went in at the break leading 1-0. This goal came midway through the first half when Modeligo were awarded a penalty.

The second half saw Utd. fight back and indeed they drew level again from the penalty spot. Mark Walsh was the scorer here. However the visitors went in front for the second time ten minutes later and looked to have the points secure going into the final fifteen minutes.

Terence McSweeney had other ideas however when he shot home in the 76th min. to earn Utd. a share of the points here. Man of the match award went to young Maurice McGrath who was outstanding. It was good to see Terence McSweeney back in Utd.'s colours after his long lapse due to injury.

Utd. - S. O'Brien, I. Farmer, M. McGrath, T. McCarthy, T. McSweeney, P. Murphy, J. Beecher, S. Pratt, W. Henley, M. Walsh, B. Donnelly. Res.: T. Cunningham (used).

We wish Frank Power a speedy recovery. Frank picked up an injury two weeks ago.

Under-17 League

Brideview Utd. 3

Pinewood Rangers 3

This was a game that had everything - six goals, penalties, missed penalties and plenty of good football. Utd. had the first real scoring chance after ten minutes when we were awarded a penalty. However we missed this one. At the other end Rangers took full advantage when they were awarded a penalty after 17 mins. A second Rangers goal in the 33rd min. saw the visitors looking good. However with just three minutes to go to the break, Paul O'Brien pulled a goal back for us.

The second half was only five minutes old when O'Brien struck the equaliser and Utd. went ahead through an o.g. after 68 mins. It looked as if Utd. had the points wrapped up but Rangers equalised with just five minutes remaining. So the points were shared here after a very entertaining game.

Utd. - K. Keating, D. Ahern, M. McGrath, W. Henley, A. Kearney, P. Kearney, O. Fitzgerald, M. Goulding, M. Keating, P. O'Brien, A. Walsh. Res. (all used): D. Casey, C. Goulding, D. Keniry, T. Goulding.

Birthdays Club

This week we wish a belated happy birthday to Mary Connelly and also to Laura Fraser who was 10 last Sunday. Not forgetting Mena Mulcahy (don't forget, Tom).

News To Hand

Two of our committee had a great night on Saturday night last. One lad slept on the couch which he said was a bit on the cold side. Our other committee member went out of town and lived in a palace. Some of the lads said he was very grumpy on Sunday morning as well as almost getting lost. The two wives went supping on Sunday evening last. Because of this another committee member had to get his own tea, poor boy. The Kerry supporter was not pleased with his buddies heading on Sunday morning.

Best Wishes

We are glad to report that John William McCarthy is making steady progress in hospital and should be home for Christmas.

Invitation

Our club has been invited to take part in a tournament in England and the club will make a decision on this on this coming week. News on this next week.

On T.V.

This Friday night will see Waterford Utd. live on T.V. when they take on Shelbourne. A big number of locals are travelling for this one.

Trials

Many of our players will be going for trials for the league teams. The first trial should be held shortly.

Bus To Clonmel

The club are running a bus to Clonmel on Sunday next. The bus leaves the Square at 12 noon and leaves Clonmel for the return trip to Tallow at ?? o'clock. Names in immediately. Fee is just £3.

Weekend Fixtures

Under-11 League. Af-fane/Cappoquin v Brideview Utd. Kick-off 2.30 p.m.

Sunday, November 15
F.A.I. Junior Cup in Clonmel. Clonmel Town v Brideview Utd. Kick-off 2 p.m.

F.A.I. Junior Cup Injury Worries For Utd.

Yes it's an away trip for Utd. in the third round of the F.A.I. Junior Cup. On Sunday next we travel to Clonmel who themselves won this competition two years ago.

Utd. will be the underdogs on Sunday but this will suit the Tallow outfit. Manager Mick Sheehan and his squad are looking forward to the trip.

"While Clonmel Town will be everyone's favourites, we will not worry too much about this", stated manager Sheehan. "At the moment I am more worried about some of the injuries to our players. Sice will be missing for Sunday and John P. Grey is very doubtful at the moment," he added.

"Grey is a vital player in the squad and if he is out for Sunday, he will be a big loss," continued Sheehan. "We will go out to win," added Sheehan "and if our lads can play to form, then who knows what will happen."

Lotto

It's A Cronin Affair

Yes it surely was a Cronin affair. The club's Lotto was shared by three people on Saturday night last. What was unusual was that all three were Cronin namely Sean Cronin and Mary Kenneally (Cronin) of Woodview Park, Tallow. The third Cronin was from Lismore and that is Pat Cronin. The jackpot was £2,400 so each receives £800. Not bad money with Christmas just around the corner. We congratulate all three and wish them every success in the future.

The numbers drawn were 4, 7, 11, 21. The bonus number was 8. We had 21 people who matched three. Each received £20. Next week's draw takes place in The Local Bar this Saturday night at 8.45. The jackpot is £1,000.

Tallow Juvenile G.A.A. Club Notes UNDER-14 FOOTBALL

Western Final to be Replayed

Amid scenes reminiscent of the Clare v Offaly All-Ireland Semi-Final, Sunday's Under-14 Football Final against Kilgobinet in Cappoquin came to a premature and controversial end with the referee acknowledging he had made a mistake by blowing full time with almost 10 mins remaining. Kilgobinet, not unlike Clare will, with some justification, feel hard done by at the prospect of a replay as they were two points ahead and in control of the game when the whistle sounded.

This was the proverbial game of two halves (albeit one shorter than the other) with Tallow dominating the first half to lead by 2-3 to 1-0 at half-time. Conditions under foot were of the leaden variety and not really conducive to Tallow's normal free flowing game but the lads adapted well and appeared to be firmly in control going into the second half. Kilgobinet had other ideas however and took the game to Tallow as they began to convert chances which they had been guilty of squandering earlier on. As the Tallow lads were visibly tiring, Kilgobinet who were now coping better with the heavy conditions and slippery surface, pressed home their advantage and were leading by two points (3-2 to 2-3) when the fateful whistle sounded with, depending on who you talk to, between 8 and 10 minutes remaining. This was immediately acknowledged by the unfortunate man with the whistle with a replay now being the inevitable outcome.

On the day Tallow lacked their normal sparkle, primarily due to the amount of games these young lads have played in a short space of time but they will welcome a chance to redeem themselves in the replay which has not yet been fixed at time of writing.

Panel; E. Forbes, E. Fitzgerald, R. Geary, A. Kearney, M. O'Brien, Paul Kearney (0-1), Wm. Curley, K. Norris, R. Tobin, M. Curley (1-1), P. Sheehan (1-1), E. Hickey, C. Hickey, R. O'Brien, L. McCarthy, A. Daly, R. Rohan, J. Ryan.

We would like to thank the Cappoquin Club for making their pitch available which under the circumstances stood up remarkably well.

Dúirt Siad

I made a mistake "The man in black holds his hand up at the end of the U-14 Football Final. "It's time we introduced the siren", Bill Browne on the same issue.

"Nobody deserved to be this happy" The juvenile Chairman ag damhsa sa Bhreatain Bheag.

"You made more than one", Johnny Curley's unsympathetic response to quote number 1.

Suim Ins An Teanga Dúchais ?

Tá sé beartaithe ag C.L.C.G. Tulach an Iarainn Óg grúpa comhrá a chur ar bun le gairid. Dream neamh fhoirmiúil a bheidh ann i dtreo go bhféidfeadh aon duine a bhfuil spéis acu sa teanga dúchais teacht le chéile chun Gaeilge a labhairt. Is cuma cén caighdeán líofachta atá agat. Cuir glaoch ar Fionbarra Mac Cárthaigh 56391 nó Liam Ó Maolcatha 56757 má tá suim agat ann.

A comhrá group will be set up shortly by members of the Juvenile Club to enable anybody with an interest in the Irish language to get together informally to chat as Gaeilge. Don't be put off thinking you're Irish isn't up to it, we're all in the same boat. Níl ann ach easpa cleachtadh. In all honesty we've paid lip service for far too long to the promotion of our language within the association. All are welcome. Beidh fáilte roimh cách.

LATE ELIZABETH SHERIDAN-FITZGERALD

The sad and unexpected death of Elizabeth Sheridan/Fitzgerald took place at her home in Sunshine, Victoria, Australia on October 5th 1998. She was daughter of the late James and Hannah Fitzgerald, New Street, Tallow, sister of Claud, Kinsalebeg, Pad, Woodview Park, Maureen, Australia and Nan, England.

Lil, as she was affectionally known is survived by her husband Pat, two sons Keith and Kieran, daughter-in-law Christine, relatives and friends.

Even though she lived in Australia for over forty years she was no stranger to her native Tallow as she returned almost every other year for a couple of months during the life time of her parents and her late brother John to take care of their needs and to cheer them up. She was an exceptionally caring daughter, sister, and most of all loving wife to Pat, and mother to her sons. All through her life she was a kind and caring person and was blessed with a wonderful sense of humour. She gave of herself selflessly to all who came in contact with her, and other people's problems were never too big for her to tackle.

She started work at Redhill Hospital, London before emigrating with Pat after her marriage to Australia where once again she started caring for the sick at The Western General Hospital and later at the Peter McCallum Cancer Hospital.

The greater part of her life was spent caring for others. She was a sincere and devoted Catholic and in the early days in Australia, Pat and herself were pioneers in establishing The Church which proudly stands as The Parish Church in Sunshine, Victoria to-day.

As was her wish, her grieving husband and son Kieran brought her mortal remains to her native Tallow for burial. Her remains arrived at Cork Airport on Tuesday October 13th after the long journey from Australia. Tallow witnessed testimony of Lil's popularity in her home town at the reception ceremony conducted by Very Rev. Father Farrell P.P. at the Church of the Immaculate Conception when a large and very representative congregation attended. On Wednesday morning October 14th inst. at 11 am in a very solemn farewell to Lil, Requiem Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. Father Farrell P.P. who in his homily spoke very graciously of the good deeds in her life, and her devotion to her Church. The readings were conducted by her son Kieran, nephews, nieces, and the response Psalm was beautifully rendered by her niece Deirdre Fitzgerald. A very fitting and moving appreciation from her son Keith to his Mother was read by Deirdre on behalf of Keith who was unable to be present.

She is now at rest with her parents and family where her heart-broken husband and son laid her to rest after forty eight years of a very happy marriage before their sad return to Australia without her.

May her gentle soul Rest in Peace.

LOCAL BAR DARTS

TALLOW COMMUNITY CENTRE BADMINTON CLUB NOTES

We have a lot to report this week so we'll get straight into it. Firstly as you probably know already, our ticket sellers are in full swing at the moment and your support would be greatly appreciated. Thanks to all our sponsors who made this draw possible.

Last Tuesday we started our secondary school tournament and some great games were played. By the time you will read this you will know our winners and these will be in next week's notes. Looking at the tournament, it was noticeable that our players are improving and hopefully they will continue playing for a long time. On Friday last there was a big turnout of national school children. It has to be said that their behaviour has been exemplary and hopefully this will continue. Where possible it would be greatly appreciated if the parents of these children could help us with supervision. This may only mean a parent being needed once a month or less. Please consider it and contact John Pratt or Mary Murphy if you can help. If there are any more adults out there who are interested in playing please come along. As the saying goes the more the merrier and you might even enjoy yourselves. Tuesdays and Thursdays between 9 p.m. and 11 p.m. are the nights available for adult members. All are welcome.

Prime Lands Targeted As Site Of 200 Acre Landfill

Agency would then take the project into the new millennium. The first construction phase of the landfill will require capital investment of up to £5 million.

County Secretary, Peter Carey said the 50 - 60 landowners involved in the three aforementioned sites will all be approached by Council officials by the end of this week. Ownership details of all the landholdings within the three candidate areas will be acquired by the consultants and aerial photos and maps will be prepared.

Arrangements will then be put in place by the Council for a walkover survey of the sites by the project team which will include a detailed visual assessment.

It may arise that none of the three sites are suitable for use as a landfill based on further site testings such as boreholes etc. in which case the next ranked candidate areas will be evaluated. The landfill itself will replace the outdated dumps at Dungarvan, Tramore and Kilbarry which have a remaining capacity of just three years.

In stark contrast to these dumps, the County landfill will be developed to the same high standards of other modernly engineered facilities in South Dublin and Athlone which were visited earlier this year by a group of Council members.

The concept of a clean 'dump' which doesn't have an adverse impact on the natural environment will, however, prove a hard sell to the landowners and residents living close to the eventual landfill site. The issue will, no doubt, have a major bearing on next year's local elections particularly for those in the Kilmac' electoral area.

West Waterford Hospice Notes

Leamybrien Garda Receives National Award

Leamybrien Garda, Michael Heame has been chosen as the '98 Community Garda of the Year. Stationed in Leamybrien since 1990, Garda Heame was nominated for the national award by the Kilrossanty/Fews Community Alert committee.

A vote of congratulations to the popular Garda was proposed at this week's meeting of Waterford County Council by Cllr. Oliver Coffey. Garda Heame became actively involved in the local Community Alert Scheme when it was first set up in Fews and Kilrossanty in 1992.

In 1996 the local committee received a grant, enabling them to install 70 alarms for elderly people in the area. A native of Ballygunner, Garda Heame is well liked in the Leamybrien area and is a regular caller to the elderly of the Parish. He will be presented with his award at a function on November 18th in Clontarf Castle.

Review of the Year (Part One) — It has been a very hard and long year for Naomh Bríd GAA Club, particularly for our youngest players.

The year began back in January when we held our AGM in Modeligo. Vince was re-elected Chairman unanimously. Fr. Kelleher did not wish to stand as secretary and so was replaced by Thomas Keane. Pat Troy was again elected Treasurer on the night. A PRO was not appointed, it was decided that the committee would be kept small. One selector from each team was to be on the committee, plus the two adult Chairmen.

The playing year began with our under 8's taking to the boards of Dungarvan Sports Centre for the Annual Tournament run by the coaching and Development Committee.

At under 8 each year we never know what to expect. This year we can safely say we were rather surprised. We had a very good win against An Gaeltacht and drew with Abbeyside. However, we were defeated against Dungarvan and St. Oliver's.

Later in the year St. Oliver's and Brickey's brought teams to the Community Centre in Touraneena for a series of challenge game. We had so many under 8's at these games, in order to give everybody a game we split them in two to form A and B teams. Against St. Oliver's our 'A' team won but unfortunately our 'B' team were not as lucky.

Against Brickey's it was the other way around. Our 'A' team were beaten and our 'B' team won.

In May our under 8's were brought to Bushy Park to play in the Brickey Rangers Tournament. Our young boys had victories against St. Oliver's and Abbeyside, but lost to the host club. These results were good enough to put us into the semi-finals, where we played against Lismore. We lost the game but we did well in getting this far.

Many of our under 8's this year played hurling for the first time on a proper team, wearing a Club jersey, something everybody should have pride in.

Many of these players went onto play at a higher level. Four of our under 8's went onto play under 12 this year, Eanna Power, Patrick O' Donovan, Jamie Troy and Gary Power. Hopefully with the new year just a few weeks away, we will see all of our under 8's back again next year, playing under 8 or 9 or even at a higher level in 1999.

Next week more of our year will be reviewed.

Golf Suit — The Golf Suit that we mentioned in last week's notes, that we had got from Azzurri (Ireland) to raise a few pounds for the club was sold during the week for £70.

Under 10 — On Saturday morning we brought our under 10's to Cappoquin in their re-arranged Club Tournament.

In our first game we were beaten 3-0 to 0-2. Kieran McCarthy was our only scorer. Game two was against Dungarvan. In the first half we were very poor leaving in four goals. We improved a lot in the second half scoring 2-1. The goals coming from Paddy O' Donovan and the point from the stick of J.J. Coffey. We were very unlucky not to have scored more in the second half. The final score was 4-1 to 2-1.

Our final game was against Brickey's. All year round the games between these two sides have been very close and this game was no different. If went down to the wire, Brickey's at the end were 3-0 to 2-2 in front but we in the closing two minutes were very lucky not to have scored from one of five sidelines in less than a minute.

Our panel of players was J.J. Coffey, Johnny Kiely, Sean Fitzpatrick, Diarmuid Walsh, John Power (Redgate), James Power, Stevie Bumster, Paddy O' Donovan, Kieran McCarthy, Gary Power, Jamie Troy, Eanna Power, Jamie Cullinan, Eoin Walsh, Mick Dalton and Tommy Buckley.

Our best player on the day was Kieran McCarthy who was closely followed by Sean Fitzpatrick, J.J. Coffey and Diarmuid Walsh.

Naomh Bríd 3-7 Ballygunner 3-10 — On Saturday afternoon Naomh Bríd in round two of the under 17 hurling leagues nearly pulled off a shock when they came very close to beating Ballygunner at a very windy Kirwan Park.

At half time after playing with a gale force wind at our back and after playing with seven players we were just three points behind. In the second half playing into the wind we came very close to winning. At one stage we were a point in front.

This type of league which is nine a-side is something I would love to see brought in at Minor level which would give small clubs the chance to play on an even footing, but I doubt if it ever will. Our team and scorers were Colm Geary (0-1) Aidan Dalton (0-1), John Ahearne, John Myles, Denis Coffey (1-4), Walter O' Grady (2-1), Jonathan Webster, Jimmy Buckley and J.J. Coffey who stood in at the start of the second half to make up the required nine.

Naomh Bríd 2-5 De La Salle 5-13 — On Sunday morning our under 17 players travelled to Clayboy in the final round of the Under 17 County Hurling Leagues.

De La Salle did most of the damage in the first half of the game, in the second half we played much better, but were no match for a very good De La Salle team.

Naomh Bríd team; Patrick Organ, Denis Coffey (0-1), John Ahearne, John Myles, Patrick Coffey (0-3), Walter O' Grady, Sean Dempsey (0-1), Colm Geary (2-0) and Jimmy Buckley.

UNDER-12 FOOTBALL

On Sunday morning our under 12's travelled to Stradbally for their final under 12 football game of the year. Unfortunately we were well beaten. Our panel in Stradbally was Paul Coffey, John Power (Knockmeal), Brian McCarthy, Kieran McCarthy, Johnny Buckley, Stephen Coffey, Eoin Walsh, Shane Troy, Shane Hourigan, Jamie Troy, Tommy Buckley, J.J. Coffey, Eanna Power, John Power (Redgate) and Paddy O' Donovan.

SLIABH gCUA COMMUNITY CENTRE & G.A.A. LOTTO DRAW

Weekending November 8. Numbers drawn were 3, 8, 11. New jackpot £300. The five winners of £10 each were Marian McCarthy, Richard Power, Maria Cliffe, Mr. Quinlan, Pauline and Allan.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Last Tuesday Olivia Condon paid a visit to the local national school with the new Brendan Martin Cup. Olivia is a past pupil and has now five senior ladies football All-Ireland medals in her collection.

Olivia was also accompanied by team captain Siobhan O'Ryan from Ballymacarby and Player of the match in the replay Julianne Torpey from Kill who scored 1-2.

Ladies football in the county gets a great boost every time the county wins the senior All-Ireland with more girls taking up the game. Already there are some of the girls in the school looking forward to next year's Under-14 Championship with Na Déise.

BAG PACKERS

To raise funds for their school, the children, parents, teachers and past pupils of St. Mary's National School, Touraneena bag packed at Herlihy's Super Valu, Dungarvan on Saturday, October 24. It was a very successful venture raising £356.70. They wish to sincerely thank the manager and staff of Super Valu, all those who participated and those who generously contributed.

The bag packing venture will continue on Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 12 - 15 in Dunnes Stores, Oakville, Clonmel. Your support will be greatly appreciated.

JOHNNY GLEESON POOL TOURNAMENT

On behalf of the Cystic Fibrosis Association of Ireland Michael and Bridie Hickey would like to thank most sincerely Brendan and Mary Tobin and Maurice and Marie Cliffe who organised the very successful Johnny Gleeson Pool Tournament in Touraneena and Ballymacarby and presented them with a cheque for £1,302.

Your interest in Cystic Fibrosis is a great encouragement to us and your money will be put to good use in research which gets top priority.

We would also like to thank the business people who sponsored the tournament and all the people of Touraneena and Ballymacarby and surrounding areas who contributed so generously to this worthy cause.

K.C.K. Athletic Club Notes

Brilliant performance from the Kirwan twins and Edel Morrissey. The second round of the Munster B.L.O.E. Cross Country Championships were held in Rathkeale, Co. Limerick on Sunday last in brutal under foot conditions. The clubs under 9 girls had a brilliant run with Katie Kirwan taking the Gold medal and her twin sister Julie taking the Silver medal. We also had fine running from Katie Power 33rd, Ellen Flavin 35th, Jannett Flynn 42nd, Micaela O' Grady 45th. Great running from the girls out of a field of 82 runners. Our under 9 boys also had a brilliant run, led home in 5th place by Diarmuid Walsh with James Hurley in 21st place and Peter Morrissey in 42nd place. Again great running from the boys out of a field of 93 runners. We had one competitor in the boys under 11, Tom Flavin having his first run over Cross Country did very well to finish in 55th place.

In the girls under 13 Edel Morrissey had the race of her life to win her first Munster Title and she did it in style running away from her rivals over the last 300 meters to take the Gold medal from a field of 133 runners. Edel will captain the Munster under 13 team for the All-Ireland Championships in Carlow on the 13th December. She has also made the Munster team for the girls under 14 Championship in Cavan on the 29th November. Also running well in this race was Lisa McCarthy finishing in 72nd place. Michael Flynn ran well in the boys under 17, John Paul McCarthy did well to finish in 40th place.

Next Sunday we travel to Ferrybank for an open Cross Country meeting. Bus leaving Crotty's Corner at 11.00 am. Garranbane 11.10 am, Leamybrien 11.15 am and Kilmacthomas 11.30 am.

Long Service Awards Presented To County Fire Service Personnel

Noel Dempsey, Minister for the Environment and Local Government last week presented long service awards to members of the fire service from all over the country including nine members from Co. Waterford, three of whom are brothers. It was the first national presentation of these awards which previously were made on a regional basis.

The awards comprising of a medal and certificate were made for services of twenty and thirty years. Thomas Morrissey of Main Street, Cappoquin and Willie O'Keeffe of Portlaw each received a special emblem in the form of a flame and a certificate in recognition of thirty years service. The medal bears the traditional mark of the fire service, a helmet and crossed axes. The ribbon bears the national colours with the red colour for the fire brigade. The seven Co. Waterford fire service personnel to receive a medal and certificate in recognition of 20 years service were Philip Dunne, Kilmush Park, Dungarvan, Peter Hayes, Springfield, Dungarvan, Richard Hennessey, College Road, Ardmore, Cornelius McNamara, Lismore, Bernard Moynihan, Fr. Twomey's Road, Abbeyside, Noel Moynihan, Seapark, Dungarvan and Paul Moynihan, Parkdane, Abbeyside. All of the aforementioned fire service members are still serving with the exception of Willie O'Keeffe who is retired.

Minister Dempsey praised the fire service personnel for their unselfish devoted community service and their bravery in carrying out their duties. Throughout the years, the Minister said individuals working together in brigades have shown the dedication and courage which has provided the State with a skilled resource that any community would be proud of. Today, he added, was an opportunity to honour them in a public manner and for the community to express their thanks.

Santa Bear Appeal

The Central Remedial Clinic is seeking volunteers for its annual Santa Bear Appeal, sponsored by SNAP Printing — which will be taking place all over Ireland from Wednesday 2nd to Saturday 12th of December.

We are appealing to readers to help us in the co-ordination of the appeal.

HOW can YOU help? By donating a few hours of your time to sell the cute Santa Bears at your local shopping centre/supermarket, or privately to friends, family and colleagues.

The Santa Bears, which are approximately 1" in height and wear a Santa hat and scarf, will be on sale throughout the country for a minimum donation of £1. The Clinic is planning to raise £175,000 for the children of the CRC, and is very hopeful that there will be strong support nationally for this appeal.

The Central Remedial Clinic is a national centre for the care, treatment and development of over 3,500 children and adults with physical disabilities. Our services are completely free of charge, and as such we need to raise a great deal of money to maintain the high standard of care for which the Clinic is renowned.

We would be delighted to hear from anyone interested in helping us during our Santa Bear Appeal on our freephone number - 1800 - 612 - 612.

So Go On — Buy A Bear And Show You Care — Life Without One Would Be Simply Unbearable!

Dungarvan C.B.S. News

WINNERS AND LOSERS

On Wednesday last, November 4th our Under 161/2 hurling team bowed out of the Dean Ryan Cup, Munster Colleges Championship. Although in the end the margin of defeat was considerable, the effort our lads put in against a very fine Thurles CBS outfit has to be applauded. This was the first opportunity for our players to play in an 'A' grade competition, generally the preserve of much larger schools than ours, and they more than held their own until a Thurles scoring blitz in the second half. The experience will undoubtedly stand our players in good stead for next year. Well done to all concerned and to trainer Mr. Collins.

On a more positive note, Mr. O Rodaigh's Irish debating teams scored a double success last week, in the first round of the Gael Linn competitions. Our Junior squad comprised Donal O

Murchadha, Christopher Morrissey, Cathal Manahan and Fergus de Paor. They successfully proposed the motion "Ta saol an deagora ag dul i bhfeabhas" against Coláiste Phobail of Glanmire, Cork. The Senior team contained Eoin Breathnach, Tomás Kiely and Cillian O Murchadha. Again, they were successful in proposing that "Is e an tAbharachas (materialism) Dia an lae inniu", against their opponents from Coláiste Eoin, Youghal. Congratulations to Mr. O Rodaigh and the boys in helping to maintain the school's fine tradition of Irish debating.

CIVIC RECEPTION

The school's Golf Foundation All-Ireland Championship winning team of David Morrissey, Alan Harty and Mark Shanahan, together with their mentor Mr. Ryan, received the ultimate local accolade recently by being afforded a Civic Reception at the offices of Dungarvan Urban District Council. The boys' achievements in winning the senior championship earlier this year have certainly helped to bring the Dungarvan area to the fore in the national golfing arena and brought great honour to themselves and their school. Following that success, the team also represented Ireland very creditably at the World Championships in Sunningdale. Many congratulations to them and to Mr. Ryan once again.

Tallow Area Credit Union

John Hogan, Chairman Promotion and Development Committee Tallow Area Credit Union, making a presentation to Sharon Lawless to mark her recent achievements in winning the under 14 walking race in the Community Games and a European win in the Phoenix Park, Dublin. Also included are Sharon's parents.

Dungarvan Toastmasters

The Divisional Final of the Speech Competition and the Table Topics competition took place in Portlaoise last Sunday. Dungarvan Toastmasters were represented in the Speech Competition by Pádraig De Burca and by Geraldine Veale in the Table Topics. Both presentations were excellent but were pipped for the premier prize. The Speech Competition was won by Elaine Foxton from Arklow with Pádraig finishing third. Geraldine was awarded third place in the Table Topics which was won by John Kelly from Thurles. Both John and Elaine go forward to the District Final which takes place in Bournemouth this week-end.

The next meeting of Dungarvan Toastmasters takes place at the Park Hotel on Thursday 12th November at 8.00 pm sharp. There is a full programme and visitors are most welcome.

New Book On Fr. Patrick Fogarty (1791-1866)

On Wednesday, 18 November, Dungarvan Museum Society will host a talk and book launch by the Rev. Robert Arthure P.P. Cappoquin. Father Arthure has just written a biographical account of noted 19th c. priest Father Patrick Fogarty and his times.

Around 1825 Father Fogarty was sent to Dungarvan as curate. At this time a new church was under construction and Father Fogarty was involved in fundraising here and in England. In 1838 he was appointed Parish Priest of Lismore where he remained until his death in 1866. This fascinating book traces his early life, his involvement in the 1826 election, his role during the famine etc.

The book will be officially launched by noted Waterford historian Julian Walton in Lawlor's Hotel at 8 p.m. and all are welcome.

BRAY — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of Mary T. Bray of Barrack Street, Cappoquin, who died on November 10, 1992. R.I.P.

We never knew that night,
What sorrow that night would bring,
When a heart of gold stopped beating,
We could not do a thing.

You were gone before we knew it,
And only God knows why.
(Always remembered by Kathleen, John, Ivan and Rachael.)

BUCKLEY — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of Barry Buckley, late of Cappoquin, who died on November 15, 1990. R.I.P.

Until we meet again.
(Sadly missed by your loving parents, brothers and sisters.)

A gentle voice from God on high.
You left me here with pain and tears,
Now that you are gone,
I think of you and your cheerful ways,
I won't forget you throughout my days,
Here in my heart you will always remain,

A lot in life is new,
But the things that never alter,

It's how we feel inside, when we think of you today.
(From your son, Alan.)

We cannot stop the hands of time,
Nor have again the past,
But we shall love and remember you both,
As long as life will last.
Our lives go on without you,

It's hard to hide the heartache,
When someone speaks your names.

But the hearts that loved you will never forget.
(Always remembered by your loving family.)

McCARTHY — Seventh Anniversary — In loving memory of Eamonn McCarthy, late of Deelish, Dungarvan, who died on November 15, 1991.

You left us so suddenly,
Your last thoughts unknown,
You left us a memory,
We are proud to own.
We cannot forget you,
We don't even try,
Your memory still lingers,
As time passes by.
Missing you, Eamonn is a heartache that never goes away,
Precious memories, tears unseen,
Wishing your absence was only a dream.
You have crossed the flowing river,
To the shores of evergreen,
We would dearly love to see you, Eamonn,
But the river flows between.
Away on a beautiful hillside,
Free from sorrow and pain,
Some day we will go to meet you,
And find you waiting there.
We will know your voice among the crowd,
And your loving smile of old,
And our hands will meet on God's own street,
And never more unfold.

Late Bernadette Coffey

It is with the deepest sorrow that we record the death of Bernadette (Bernie) Coffey, "Tahilla," Springmount, Dungarvan, which occurred at Waterford Regional Hospital on Monday, November 2 as a result of a road accident.

Bernie was a very unassuming and inoffensive person who will be greatly missed. She led a very simple life. She was devoted to all her family, her brother, sisters, nieces and nephews, but most especially to her mother Catherine, whom she lived with. As well as taking care of her mother's needs, she was always most obliging and willing to help others. Her courteous manner and gentle ways won her many friends.

Bernie was a keen cyclist and she also loved walking and swimming. She was also a great lover of animals and nature. A very hard worker, Bernie was employed by M. J. Curran & Sons as an accounts clerk for the past 19 years.

On Tuesday evening a large crowd attended the removal from Dungarvan hospital morgue where the rosary was recited by Fr. N. O'Mahony, P.P. Also in attendance were Fr. John Kiely, P.P., Fr. Brendan Crowley, P.P., Fr. David McCarthy, C.C., Fr. Cooney, O.S.A., Fr. Jim Gough, O.S.A. and Fr. Barron, P.P. The remains were removed to Affane Church where they were received and blessed by Fr. Barron.

On Wednesday morning, following Mass celebrated by Fr. David McCarthy, assisted by Fr. M. Kennedy, Fr. N. Curran, Fr. Cooney, O.S.A., Fr. Patrick, O.C.S.O. and Fr. Barron, interment took place. Following prayers at the graveside, Bernie was laid to rest beside her father Michael in the adjoining cemetery.

To her heartbroken mother, sisters, brother and other relatives we tender our deepest and heartfelt sympathy.

Chief mourners — Catherine (mother), John (brother), Ellen and Mary (sisters), Antoinette (sister-in-law), William O'Connell and John Gough (brothers-in-law), Laura and Charlotte Coffey, Natalie and Andrea O'Connell (nieces), Michael and Noel Coffey, Brian and Liam O'Connell and Michael Gough (nephews), aunts, uncles, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by Aidan Walsh & Sons, Funeral Directors, Cappoquin.)

Late Dan Connors

On Monday, November 2, the locality and beyond learned with great sorrow and regret of the passing of Dan Connors, Leamybrien, who was known and loved far and near. His popularity knew no bounds as he was a great favourite with everybody. A member of the Connors family, Dan was son of Patrick (29th July, 1976) and Margaret (20th October 1973).

Dan's seventy-seven summers among us brought him in touch with so many. He was admired and envied for his skill as a master tin smith and his judgment re horses was renowned country wide. He was part and parcel of the many horse fairs where his dealings were legendary.

An honest and upright man if there ever was one, he was a sincere friend who proved his loyalty on many occasions. Dan was a character in the most colourful of ways. He could tell and recall a story with great gusto and his knowledge of the fabric of society was immense. A man of the old values and traditions, Dan was a deeply religious man who lived his life in a truly Christian way.

Music was another important ingredient in Dan's life. A few seasons ago a racehorse was named Danny Connors in his honour. It tasted the sweet wine of Cheltenham success and later gained many victories at the Irish racetracks.

We offer our deepest sympathy to Dan's sisters Mary and Margaret, brothers Christy and Johnny, his many nephews, nieces and relatives, some of whom had travelled long distances and from overseas to pay their respects to one who had touched so many lives. We are all the richer for having the acquaintance of Dan, but much poorer since his departure.

"I am home in heaven, dear ones, Oh, so happy and so bright, There is perfect joy and beauty, In this ever lasting light."

On Thursday evening, many many mourners were present at the Kiely Funeral Home for rosary and prayers recited by Fr. M. Keogh, C.C., after which the funeral cortege journeyed to Ballinroad via St. Mary's Parish church where a minute's silence was observed to the memory of Dan's parents who lie in the adjoining cemetery. A further prayerful pause at Grattan Square brought back many memories of happier times when Dan was in his prime and graced the local fair. At St. Laurence's church, Ballinroad, Fr. Keogh conducted the funeral liturgy. A huge concourse of mourners was present at the interment on Friday morning that followed the Requiem Mass which was offered for Dan's gentle soul. As the oak casket was lowered to its final resting place the air was punctured with that great favourite "Danny Boy." Beautiful floral tributes were placed on Dan's grave.

"We hold you Dan within our hearts, And there you shall remain, To walk with us through-out our lives, Until we meet again." (Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Shandon, Dungarvan.)

Late Clothilde Johnston

We record with sadness the death of Clothilde Johnston, late of Curraglass, Tallow and formerly of Mount Merion, Co. Dublin, which sad event occurred on November 4, at Padre Pio Rest Home where Clothilde spent the last year of her life in the loving care of the matron and staff.

Clothilde was a lovely lady, kind and considerate, and she will be sadly missed by her family and friends.

On Saturday her remains were removed from St. Carthage's mortuary to St. Carthage's Cathedral. Before leaving the mortuary, Canon Hewitt said the prayers.

The funeral service was conducted by Canon Carmody and Rev. Dennis Campbell. The congregation sang some lovely hymns and the solo singer was David Anglesey. The funeral took place immediately afterwards to Mogeela Cemetery, Curraglass, where Clothilde was laid to rest.

We extend our deepest sympathy to her son Douglas, daughter-in-law Vera, companion Henry Godfrey, grandchildren Nicholas, Shane and Ian, sister, brother, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by Aidan Walsh and Sons, Funeral Directors, Cappoquin.)

Late Jack Mulcahy

With great sadness and deep regret we record the death of Mr. Jack Mulcahy, Ballingown, Villierstown, Cappoquin, which occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan on November 3.

The removal was from the hospital mortuary Dungarvan. Before leaving, the rosary was recited by Fr. Lucey, P.P. and the remains were received and blessed by Fr. Lucey on arrival at Aglish Church.

Mass was celebrated by Fr. Lucey, assisted by Fr. Desmond and Fr. Kiely.

We extend our deepest sympathy to his sister, nephew, nieces, relatives and friends.

(Full obituary next issue.) (Funeral arrangements by Aidan Walsh & Sons, Funeral Directors, Cappoquin.)

Late Nora Fitzgerald (née Power)

On Thursday last the locality learned with great sadness and regret of the passing of Nora Fitzgerald, 51, Caseyville, Dungarvan, which occurred at St. Joseph's Hospital. Predeceased by her husband Michael by many years, Nora was a native of Ballykerogue, Stradbally.

We offer our sympathies to sons Tom, Patsy and Michael, daughter Marion and many other relatives on their great loss. May Nora rest in peace.

Removal took place on Friday at 7 p.m. from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church. Requiem Mass was celebrated on Saturday by Fr. N. O'Mahony, P.P. for the happy repose of her gentle soul. A huge concourse of mourners was present for the interment which took place in the adjoining cemetery.

(Full obituary next issue.) (James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

Mr. Michael Curran

In last week's obituary of the death of Michael Curran, Gortnadiha, Ring, it was stated that the funeral took place "from Drohan's Funeral Home." This in fact should have read "from his residence."

Inadvertently omitted from the list of chief mourners was the name of his sister-in-law Rita Curran, Old Parish.

LATE KATHLEEN POWER (NEE HOGAN)

On Saturday last we learned of the passing of Kathleen Power, Barnakill, Kilrossanty at Waterford Regional Hospital with sincere regret and sorrow.

A native of Ballyvoile and age 84 years, Kathleen was predeceased by her husband Patrick in May 1975. To Jim and Andy (sons), daughter-in-law Margaret, grandchildren Helen, Eoin, nephews, nieces and relatives we offer our sympathy at this sad time.

On Sunday evening the removal took place from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Brigid's Church, Kilrossanty. Requiem Mass was offered on Monday, after which the interment followed in the adjoining cemetery. Full obituary in next issue.

(Funeral arrangements were by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan.)

LATE JIMMY BUTLER

On Saturday, October 31 the locality learned with a deep sense of shock and disbelief of the demise of Jimmy Butler, 3 Patrick's Crescent which occurred at Waterford Regional Hospital.

Aged 71 years and a native of Lackenfunc, Jimmy was held in high esteem and enjoyed widespread popularity. A hardworking man all his life, he was noted for his tremendous strength. His beloved mouth organ and himself were so important, he often lifted the gloom and sadness with his wonderful sense of humour laced with witty comments. He was a renowned boxer in his younger days, he fought with and against the best. Our condolences we extend to his brother Tommy, his many nieces, nephews on whose shoulders the Lord has placed the heavy cross of family bereavement.

Rev. Fr. Michael Kennedy C.C. visited the Kiely Funeral Home for prayers and rosary and also officiated at all the funeral obsequies. Nephew Jimmy Butler read the lesson at Monday's Funeral Mass while a huge gathering was present at St. Mary's Parish Church cemetery for the interment. A guard of honour was provided by Dungarvan Boxing Club and indeed a club singlet and boxing gloves were placed on the coffin in tribute.

LATE MARGARET RYAN (NEE ALLEN)

The family of Margaret Ryan (nee Allen) were deeply shocked and saddened by her unexpected death on Friday, October 30 at Waterford Regional Hospital following a short illness.

Born in Ballyquin, Ardmore Margaret left these shores for England with her brother, Declan on January 1, 1946 returning briefly to recuperate after an illness when she met her beloved husband Tom. They married in October 1953 at the Church of Our Lady Help of Christians, Farnborough, Hampshire, England. Spending the majority of their very happy marriage in Farnborough, they returned home to retire in Rathlead, Old Parish in 1987 where their love and happiness grew stronger with each passing year.

Margaret was a very gentle lady with a unique and warm personality. She was well known for always putting others before herself and her thoughtfulness and delightful sense of humour made her popular and much loved by all who had the privilege of knowing her. She was deeply loved by her husband Tom, daughter Moira, son Liam, daughter-in-law Sue, son-in-law Richard, grandchildren Gemma, Thomas and Katie who will be lost without her. Indeed her sister, brothers, brother-in-law, sisters-in-law, relatives and friends will feel the huge void of her loss in their lives.

On Saturday, October 31 at Drohan's Funeral Home Fr. Conor Daly recited the rosary, attended by a large number of family, friends and neighbours. Removal was to Old Parish Church where her remains were received and blessed by Fr. John Kiely P.P. and a Mass followed. The requiem Mass took place on Sunday, November 1 celebrated by Fr. Kiely. The lessons were read by Kathleen Ryan and Jane Moloney and Prayers of the Faithful were read by Sr. Mary Ursula. After Mass her coffin was carried by her son, son-in-law and nephews to the adjoining cemetery followed by the large crowd of mourners. The graveside prayers were recited by Fr. Kiely P.P.

"May her beloved gentle soul rest in peace and may she find the reward she so richly deserves in Heaven."

LATE RITA CUMMINS

"Faoi bhrat Muire go raibh sí."

Removal this Wednesday at 6.30 p.m. from the Kiely Funeral Home to Ring Church. Requiem Mass on Thursday at 11 a.m. Interment in the adjoining cemetery. Full obituary in next issue.

Dungarvan Dramatic Club Notes

Our latest production "Lovers" by Brian Friel is almost ready to be unleashed on the public. The opening night, Tuesday next, November 17 is in aid of Déise Day Care Centre and we would like to thank them for their involvement and urge you to support them in their efforts. Tickets for the first night may be obtained by ringing (058) 44556.

"Lovers" consist of two separate plays both dealing with the age-old theme of love. The first play entitled "Winners" features Ray Bradfield and Caroline O'Connor as a pair of young lovers on the threshold of a life together, or are they? One story is related to by them and in tandem two narrators, Tomás Kiely and Liz Morrissey give us an outsiders viewpoint of their circumstances.

The second play "Losers" features another courting couple Andy (Pat O'Halloran) and Hanna (Pádraigin Ní Chadhla) who are conducting their relationship under the watchful ear of Hanna's mother (Rosemary O'Riordan) and her sidekick, sanctimonious neighbour Cissy Cassidy (Orla O'Keefe). In order to have some moments of intimacy, the courting couple come up with some rather novel practices.

You can be assured of a good night's entertainment as both plays offer many amusing yet thought-provoking insights into Irish life. The play runs from Tuesday to Friday of next week and tickets are available from club members and at The Park Hotel (058) 42899.

"Love is, of man's life, a thing apart, 'tis woman's whole existence"

Even in these liberated times, D. H. Lawrence's words still have a ring of truth about them. The search for the light-footed Cinderella, the dalliances of Barbie and Ken, continue to captivate little girls. The alternative fairy-tale has yet to take hold in the popular imagination. So, from an early age, society and indeed the young female herself, expects that love, in all its shapes and forms, will be her particular vocation.

However, the fairy-tale is scant preparation for the adult world. Maggie and Francine, the central characters in Mary Kearney's play "The Last Blackbird," soon discover that little in their previous lives could have schooled them to handle the difficult choices they are now faced with.

Two men are in love with Maggie and the odds against them are weighted evenly. Shane O'Neill has been her friend since childhood, but he is her first cousin. She has been seeing Owen Byrne for several months. He can offer her stability; the other, the excitement of the theatre world to which he belongs.

Meanwhile, her older sister Francine finds herself attracted to the young university student who is staying with them. Will she endeavour to preserve her faltering marriage or yield to temptation?

"The Last Blackbird," directed by the author herself, will be performed by Ballyduff Drama Group in St. Michael's Hall, Ballyduff over two weekends — Nov. 20/22 and Nov. 26/28. Watch this space for further details.

ABBEYSIDE A.F.C. NOTES

DIV. 2A LEAGUE MATCH REPORT

Comprehensive Win For Rampant Reds

ABBEYSIDE 4 CARRICK 0

Abbeyside recorded a resounding win over a luckless Carrick combination at Stocco Lane. Michael Morrissey ensured the game went ahead as he spent hours forking the pitch prior to kick-off.

A measure of the progress the homesters have made since last year is that virtually the same Carrick side rick last year in a ill-tempered game. On this occasion the Reds held sway but a talented and sporting Carrick side made them fight all the way as they were thwarted by a superb defence of Ray Cliffe, Morrie Ferncombe, Séamí Mac Craith and Richard Ferncombe. Behind them David O'Connor had a blinder, easily his best since joining the club at the start of last season. Colin O'Connor made a welcome return after injury and his first steps in rehabilitation were very encouraging. Midfield was strong with Damien Cliffe dominating alongside the ever impressive Jon Jon Ferncombe. Olan Casey settled into his new outside role with aplomb while James Sheehan was a constant thorn in the Carrick rearguard.

Abbeyside opened the scoring on 26 mins. when Seamus Sheehan burst through the middle and lobbed the 'keeper from 30 yds. Ten minutes later Jon Jon Ferncombe made it 2-0 with a firm header from D. Cliffe's cross. Seamus Sheehan made it 3-0 into the second half fastening onto O'Riordan's pass. Joe O'Riordan made it 4-0 from close range after James Sheehan knocked down a corner.

WARE SHOWN WHAT'S WHAT

WARE TOWN 1 ABBEYSIDE 5

Abbeyside under-13's began their minitour at Essex with a resounding victory over a fancied Ware side who compete in the Premier League of Essex. This game was a personal triumph for Stephen Drummy who notched four goals to destroy the opposing defence. This game was played in driving rain but, we had some diehard support when Jason O'Brien's aunt Breda Whelan

Declan Byrne in the Villagers goal.

HARLOW & VILLAGERS SHARE SPOILS

ABBEYSIDE 6 HARLOW 6

Chris Mansfield, Stephen Drummy (3) and Philip Wade shared the goals as a thrilling draw meant honours were even. The lads tired from the previous days exertions and against a fresh and eager Harlow team made most of the running but could not maintain their lead even in their most commanding form.

Stephen Drummy notched three more goals in this game to emerge top scorer while Philip Wade's opener was perhaps the pick of all eleven goals scored by the villagers over the two matches. Harlow had a number of star performances especially their 'keeper who kept out some certain goals with his ability and strength.

Byrne, Lynch, (Young), Moloney, Maher, Reynolds, (O'Brien), Wade (capt.), Hennessey, Sheehan L., Sheehan D., Mansfield.

Before the game a presentation was made to the Harlow Club under-13 team by Philip Wade to mark our visit. This memento was sponsored by the Waterford Schoolboy League and bore their crest. We are very grateful to Chairman, Tom Browne for this and we were very proud to carry the banner of this very well organised committee and league who have given us great support over the last season.

A further presentation was made on Saturday night by Chairman, Joe O'Riordan to Harlow Town Manager, Eddie McLoskey to mark the visit of the club to Harlow.

Eddie Cantwell, who operated as a photographer on matchday for the Harlow - Hungerford game, drew a lot of favourable comment from the crowd particularly the female section. He was like a young 'Sean Byrne' and he shrugged off the disappointment of the sleeping arrangements at Peter's on the night before. Eddie the second honeymoon will have to wait !!

After the game against Ware we were given a lovely reception as the Ware committee treated the team and officials to a veritable feast. This was most welcome particularly as the inclement weather had taken its effect on players and officials alike.

A big hello and thank you to friendly bar manager Michael Foster whose ready smile, generous wit and tolerance of the youngsters exuberance made it a weekend to remember. No doubt Declan Byrne will be in touch with you Mick regarding Kirsty. A big thank you also to Raymond, Maggie, Martin, Hyacinth, Peter, Geoff, Pauline, Marianne, Angela and all at Harlow Town Football Club for all the generosity and kindness. A special big thank you to Terry Smith whose tireless efforts, endless patience and superb driving skills made everything possible. Terry was our man at the other side and along with Eddie, had the idea of the trip. Despite a number of hiccups particularly in the early stages of fundraising when circumstances out of our control occurred we managed to get the show on the road and on October 23 when everyone assembled at Danny's, we were ready to go on the trip. It was the first time the famed red and black of St. Augustine had been sported by an Abbeyside team outside of Ireland. And standing on the Ware pitch as Stephen Drummy struck the fifth goal for Abbeyside, a ripple of pride swept through the visitors contingent. As the great World War I poet, an Irishman Francis Ledwidge, wrote "The flower that blooms in adversity is the fairest bloom of all."

HARLOW TIT-BITS

Visit To Dixons — Approaching a rather state of the art Disc Computer "Mm", says Cairo, "I wonder what would happen if I press this button?"

"Sure go ahead" says Magoo, "and see what happens".

Sound waves explode through the shop then Cairo pushes at the keyboard pad and a dashing array of colours light up the large screen. In their haste to cut off the noise, they only succeed in increasing it. A young lady assistant rushes to the scene in an effort to assist, but at this point in time, re-programming seems to be the only answer to the problem. By this time the two Abbeyside men are very red in the face. The young lady mistakingly assumes that the lads intend to purchase. "I will call the General sir, he will demonstrate the model for you".

Exit Magoo, as the manager in the Armani suit approaches, Cairo beaming.

"Thank you sir for choosing Dixons", he says, extending his hand to Cairo. Meanwhile Magoo is on his knees outside the shop laughing.

Pen Pals — Terry Smith has informed me that the phone lines are buzzing in Harlow with calls from Abbeyside to certain young ladies. Letters also are arriving in Harlow by the bag full. Terry was approached on Sunday last at the club by a group of young ladies who wanted to know "when are the Abbeyside lads coming back?"

"I told them never" says Terry.

The Story Of John And Lizzie — Chatting to John and Lizzie Wade at Terry's 50th birthday party and next day after the Harlow v Abbeyside game, we were quite amused when Lizzie told us that she had purchased a black negligee for her weekend in Harlow. (John and Lizzie are grandparents to under-13 captain Philip Wade).

Lizzie continued "for when I took him a cup of tea he was gone off to sleep".

"Ah, sure" said John "I took a couple of them Viagra and I fell asleep".

Harlow Invasion To Abbeyside — Terry Smith and Eddie Cantwell's plans to bring Harlow Town to Abbeyside are now underway. The affair will be somewhat greater than our visit to the "Hawks Club". The provisional date set is from Friday, May 28 - June 2 inclusive. The under-13 side will be accompanied by some parents as well as mentors. But not only that the Harlow Town Adult Reserve team will also be coming to the village at the same time, so there is much preparation to be done in the next six months.

In Star Sport on October 29 under a heading "Irish eyes smile on hanks juniors" was a joint photo of Harlow and Abbeyside with match report which went as follows -

HARLOW TOWN UNDER-13'S 6 ABBEYSIDE YOUTH UNDER-13 6 (FRIENDLY)

Harlow and their Irish visitors Abbeyside enjoyed an even, eventful game at Harlow Sports Centre on Sunday. Nine goals game in the first half as the lead saw-sawed from one side to the other with Abbeyside holding a single goal advantage at the interval, the Irishmen's goals coming from captain Philip Wade (2), Steven Drummey (2) and Eamonn Hennessey.

In a tighter second half, Harlow seemed to have the edge as they led 6-5 with ten minutes left, after scoring through man of the match skipper, Stephen Reynolds (5) and Peter Conlon. But Abbeyside refused to give up and Drummy completed his hat-trick to earn the visitors a draw.

Abbeyside would like to thank everyone at Harlow Town F.C. for their hospitality over the weekend.

Mascot Stephen McGrath leads Harlow Town "Hanks" out of the tunnel in their Div. 2 fixture against Hungerford on October 26.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE NOTES

Top Three Win Again

BALLYDUFF ROOTED TO THE BOTTOM

Lismore continued their good start to the league with their fourth consecutive win. Valley Rangers and Brideview Utd. both recorded big wins away to Cappoquin and Ardglen respectively while champions Pinewood Rangers were a little fortunate to beat pointless Ballyduff who remain stuck at the bottom.

ARDMORE 0

The league leaders kept up their recent good form with another win, this time against Ardmore. The game itself saw little in the way of chances and the first half was scoreless. The only goal of the game came three minutes into the second half when a hopeful cross from Alan Landers eluded Ardmore's stand-in 'keeper Michael Supple and ended up in the net. In a very tight game Ardmore came closest to getting another goal when Anthony Aherne's shot was well saved by Keith Hornbrook in the Lismore goal.

BRIDEVIEW UTD. 'A' 6

Utd. began in really determined fashion and had the game sewn up after just 17 mins. when they raced into a 3-0 lead. Stephen Curley led the way when he scored from close in after 6 mins. Eoin Murphy made it two after a quarter of an hour and John Paul Grey added a third two minutes later from the penalty spot.

Araglen's goal in the first half came when David Browne's cross out in the left was deflected over the head of Brideview 'keeper Billy Sheehan after 25 mins. Ardglen had one other very good chance when a John Browne piledriver was tipped over by Sheehan.

Utd. again dominated the second half. Eoin Murphy made it four just six minutes after the restart. David Browne reduced the arrears for Ardglen with his second goal on the hour but Brideview pulled further clear with two goals in a minute, the first from John Paul Grey and another from Stephen Curley. Best for Brideview were Stuart Barry, Dermot Henley, Paul Curley and Stephen Curley. Tommy Kenneally, Pat Buckley, Dave Browne and James Kearney were Ardglen's best.

Araglen - Kevin Fitzgerald, John Tobin, John Browne, Tommy Kenneally, Tony White, P. J. Ahearne, Pat Buckley, Tony Russell, Brendan Carey, James Kearney, Dave Browne. Subs: Mike Hoye, Brendan O'Brien, Tom Browne, Denis Twomey.

Brideview Utd. - Billy Sheehan, Stephen Curley, Roy Henley, Paul Curley, Denis Martin, John Doyle, David Doyle, Stuart Barry, Eoin Murphy, Dermot Henley, John Paul Grey. Sub: Stephen Pratt.

BALLYDUFF 1
RANGERS 2

The league champions scored their third win of the season when they defeated luckless Ballyduff last Sunday. Rangers task was made easier when they found themselves 2-0 up at the break with goals from Martin Walsh and Michael Joe Ryan. Ballyduff, who are now back to full strength, pressurised the visitors throughout the second half but their only reward was a lone strike from James Scanlon.

VALLEY
RANGERS 'A' 5

DIVISION 2 ROUND-UP

An Ghaeltacht Demolish Mogeely

TWO MORE DRAWS IN YOUGHAL AND INCH

An Ghaeltacht recorded their first win of the season in some style by beating previously undefeated Mogeely. Youghal and Ballybridge shared the points in a draw as did Inch and Gortroe as all eight teams find themselves in a tight squeeze.

BALLYBRIDGE
UTD. 1

Youghal's lack of firepower told once again when, although they were on top in the first half, all they could muster was an Eamonn Cashel goal after 25 mins. Ballybridge were always in touch in the second half but it took an own goal two minutes from time to give them a share of the points.

Both sides are still waiting for their first league win and not surprisingly. The sides were level at the break with neither side able to break the deadlock. Gortroe took the lead in the second half through Kieran Griffin but victory for the visitors was denied when Michael Burns managed an equaliser.

AN GHAELTACHT 5
MOGEELY 1

Things appeared to be going to plan for Mogeely when Alan Collins put his side ahead early on. An Ghaeltacht pulled themselves together and found themselves 2-1 ahead at the break. The homieside made light of the absence of Tucker Curran and scored a further three goals in the second half. Micheál Ó Domhnaill (2), Timmy Power, David Condon and James Donnelly were the scorers for An Ghaeltacht who send best wishes to Tucker Curran, currently on trial with Whipscross United.

DIVISION 3 ROUND-UP

Valley Rangers Up To 2nd Place

Valley Rangers had a very good win at home to Dungourney while Brideview Utd. and Modeligo shared the points in Tallow.

MODELIGO 2

Twice Modeligo took the lead in this game but Brideview battled back each time to claim a share of the points. The visitors led 1-0 at the break following a penalty award but Utd. levelled when Mark Walsh converted a penalty after 55 mins. Again Modeligo took the lead but Terence McSweeney scored a deserved Castlebridge Celtic v Glenview at 11 a.m. Ref. Leonard Fraser.

Bits &amp; Pieces

There have been no draws in Div. 1 yet. Brideview 'A' and Valley 'A' are the league's top scorers with Ardglen closely followed by Cappoquin, the teams with the poorest defensive records. Just four points divide the top and bottom teams in Div. 2 where Inch are on the bottom despite not losing a game yet. In Div. 3 Castlebridge Celtic are unbeaten while Brideview 'B' have yet to win. Yet these teams drew when they met recently.

Next Delegate Meeting

This will take place on Monday, December 7 at 9 p.m. in the Red House Bar in Lismore. Referees meet at 8 p.m. while the committee will meet at 8.30 p.m.

RED HOUSE LEAGUE PREVIEWS

F.A.I. Junior Cup 4th Round

Match Preview

TOUGH ONE FOR UNITED

Clonmel Town v Brideview Utd. 'A'

Who would bet against Brideview overcoming pre match favourites Clonmel Town next Saturday. United disposed of Nenagh side Arra Rovers in the last round but Clonmel, especially with home advantage, will provide a stiffer task. Taking all things into account, it would be some achievement for Utd. to advance to the last eight but we give them the nod although it could go to extra-time. Away win.

DIVISION 1

Big Chance For Valley To Claim Top Spot
Pinewood Fancied In Ardmore
Vital Clash In Ballyduff

With Lismore and Brideview not playing in the league this Sunday, the focus will switch to Conna where Valley Rangers entertain struggling Araglen. Pinewood Rangers also hope to join the top clubs when they play away to Ardmore while Cappoquin look to end a run of defeats away to bottom club Ballyduff.

RANGERS SET FOR ANOTHER THREE POINTS

Valley Rangers 'A' v Araglen

Championship candidates against relegation battlers suggests only one result and Araglen's overworked defence will face an extremely busy 90 mins. against Valley. The home-side will be hoping to add to their two big wins recently while Araglen were soundly trashed last week. Home win.

VALUABLE POINTS AT STAKE IN ARDMORE

Ardmore v Pinewood Rangers

Currently in the bottom three and suffering from a lack of goals, Ardmore face up to the reigning champions who seem

The Winds Of Change

Following a recent F.A.I. Directive, three referees on the committee had to make a decision to either continue on the committee or continue refereeing. Yours truly has decided to hang up his whistle to stay as P.R.O. but Michael O'Neill (Secretary) and Leonard Fraser (Registrar) are stepping down from their 'desk jobs'.

Having spoken to Michael and Leonard, I know that the decision was not an easy one and on behalf of the committee I would like to thank them both for their years of service. Michael McBride will take over as secretary until the end of the season and Liam Fraser will cover for Leonard as registrar. The management committee will also be looking for some new faces on the league committee at the next delegate meeting.

to be finding their form after a shaky start. Ardmore are capable of winning this but Rangers can't afford to drop many more points in their first quest to regain their championship and a draw may be the likely outcome. A draw.

IMPORTANT MEETING IN BALLYDUFF

Ballyduff v Cappoquin

Defeat for Ballyduff would leave them 9 pts. behind their visitors at this early stage of the season and Cappoquin could do with a change of luck after losing their last four games. Ballyduff remain the only team in all three divisions without a point and they must get a result from this game or things will look really perilous for them. Home win.

DIVISION 2

Match Of The Day In Blackwater
Ballybridge Face Mogeely In Local Derby
Clashmore Travel To Inch

Gortroe At Home To In-Form An Ghaeltacht

Blackwater Rangers, with the narrowest of advantages, currently are top of Div. 2 and face third placed Youghal who could themselves go top if they win on Sunday. As many as six different teams could be leaders after Sunday, a good indication of how close this division is. Clashmore are second and they face bottom side Inch, still without a win. Fourth placed Mogeely are at home to Ballybridge and An Ghaeltacht, up three places following last week's results, travel to Gortroe who are still looking for their first win.

TOP OF THE TABLE CLASH IN KEREEN

Blackwater Rangers v Youghal

Both sides are unbeaten but have only one win each to date. Rangers were the division's top scorers until recently but face one of the leagues meanest defences. Draws won't win championships and both sides will be going all out for the three points. While it would be easy to forecast a draw, we will stick our neck out and opt for a Blackwater win. Home win.

LOCAL DERBY COULD PROVIDE PLENTY OF THRILLS

Mogeely v Ballybridge Utd.

Mogeely's drastic defeat last week will see them doubly determined to collect all three points. Utd. are just two points behind the leaders despite not yet playing particularly well and will be hoping to build on last week's draw against Youghal. It won't be easy to win this one and we feel that both teams may have to settle for a share of the points. A draw.

A STRUGGLE FOR BOTTOM SIDE INCH ?

Inch v Clashmore Ramblers

Second placed Clashmore Ramblers travel to bottom club Inch next Sunday morning. Inch have two draws from two games to date but a defeat would leave them 7 pts. behind Clashmore. Ramblers are one of the better teams on their day and they might just take the three points. Away win.

PROMOTION WINNERS RENEW RIVALRY

Gortroe v An Ghaeltacht

Both these teams came up from Div. 3 last season with Gortroe as champions. In fact Gortroe came out on top in their two league meetings and will be looking for their first win of the season on Sunday. After a miserable start An Ghaeltacht can look back with some satisfaction on their last two games, a 4-4 draw away to Blackwater Rangers and last Sunday's 5-1 defeat of Mogeely. A draw would seem the most likely outcome but An Ghaeltacht might just prove too strong up front. Away win.

DIVISION 3

Glenview To Challenge The Leaders?

Major Game In Modeligo

Tough Game For Affane In Dungourney

Unbeaten Castlebridge Celtic will be hoping to increase their lead at the top when they play Glenview at home. Valley Rangers will be looking to extend their recent winning run when they face Modeligo while third placed Affane have a tricky meeting away to Dungourney.

LEADERS TO WIDEN THE GAP ON GLENVIEW

Castlebridge Celtic v Glenview

Seven points currently separate the two teams who were relegated together just last season. After failing to win their first four games, Glenview finally came good two weeks ago winning 6-0 at home to Brideview Utd. 'B'. Amazingly Castlebridge are the only unbeaten team in Div. 3 and we don't feel Glenview will take away their record on Sunday. Home win.

RANGERS LOOKING FOR THREE IN A ROW

Modeligo v Valley Rangers 'B'

After losing their opening two games, Valley Rangers duly won the next two games to propel themselves up to second place. Modeligo are not far behind and served a warning to everybody following their recent draw with Castlebridge Celtic that they can be a match for anybody. Yet another draw could be on the cards but Valley seem to be hitting form just now and might prevail. Away win.

MAKE OR BREAK FOR DUNGOURNEY?

Dungourney v Affane

The homeside were many people's favourites to succeed this season but so far they have failed badly. Even winning their games in hand would leave them behind the leaders but a win on Sunday could breathe new life into their challenge. Affane lost a vital game to Valley recently and will be looking to restore their good early season form. Away win.

DIVISION 2B LEAGUE
Another Draw for Blues

Dungarvan 2; Ferrybank 2

Our 2A side let another two points slip through their hands on Sunday morning last when they only managed a draw against 10 man Ferrybank.

The Blues started this game with all guns blazing and went a goal up after only three minutes. A fine move which started in defence saw 'comeback kid' John Whelan float a pinpoint cross on to the head of new boy Dermot Dee and he made no mistake from close range. This was the perfect start for the Blues and when the visitors keeper limped off 7 minutes later after a nasty collision with Billy Coleman, leaving them with 10 men, the lads should really have pressed home the advantage. Chance after chance came the Blues way after this including several two players against the keeper situations and how they were missed is a total mystery. As the half wore on the Blues game began to deteriorate and Ferrybank began to take control. For long periods it looked like Dungarvan had the 10 men as the visitors were finding plenty of time on the ball. Eventually their pressure told and the teams went in at half time all square.

The second half followed the same pattern as the first with Ferrybank playing the better football but the Blues getting all the chances. David Sheehan was unlucky with a long range effort after a mis-hit by the keeper and Micky Donnelly's final shot was lame after he worked hard to get himself into a good position. It was finally up to defender Billy Coleman to show the forwards the way when he made a surging run from defence, played a one-two with John Whelan on the edge of the area and placed the ball perfectly into the corner of the net. This goal rubbished the opinions of some who say this player has no football! However, as has happened all season the boys were their own worst enemies and Ferrybank scored again after a mix-up in the six yard area saw the forward somehow force the ball home.

So another point for the Blues when it could easily have been three and with four draws out of five games the points situation is not that healthy.

Next week the Blues face probably their hardest test yet when they visit table toppers Rathgormack. A vast improvement will be

Dungarvan: K. O'Neill, B. Coleman, Ger Sullivan, Ger Beresford, Pat Dunford, D. Sheehan, D. Dee, M. Coles, F. O'Rourke, M. Donnelly, J. Whelan. Res: F. McGovern, P. Coles, D. O'Shea, D. Foley.

Man of the Match: D. Sheehan.

OSCAR TRAYNOR CUP

Waterford 1; Carlow 5

Waterford slumped to a big home defeat to Carlow at Ozier Park on Sunday last in what was a big surprise. The visitors were 3-1 up after only 22 minutes thanks to goals from Gerry Enright, Jacko Murphy and Man of the Match Alan Kelly. Southend's Mark Walsh replied for Waterford. The turning point in the game a minute from the interval when Waterford's Niall Butler was sent off. In the second half Alan Kelly went on to complete his hat trick when chipping goalkeeper Derek Heame twice. Alan Kelly is a player to keep an eye out for in the future.

Dungarvan's John Donnelly was playing up front for the Junior League selection but got very little supply.

SYMPATHY

Profound regret is expressed to the Cummins family Coolnagour on the death of Rita Cummins last Saturday. She was mother of our Club Officer and 3rd Division manager Michael "Stan" Cummins. Dungarvan United AFC express deepest sympathy to her husband Johnny, sons John, Thomas and Stan and all the Halley family on your cross of bereavement. May she rest in peace.

IRWIN'S SCHOOLBOY LEAGUE

Great Result For Valley Rangers In Norton Cup

CORK ROAD CELTIC SLIP IN VITAL LEAGUE GAME

The main focus last weekend was on Valley Rangers win against Park United in the U-17 league. Clashmore and Valley Rangers won while Brideview United and Pinewood Rangers drew.

U-17 LEAGUE
Brideview United 3 Pinewood Rangers 3 — United had the misfortune to miss a penalty after ten minutes and Pinewood made the most of their good luck to score twice before the break. Four minutes later and the game saw its third penalty and Paul O' Brien scored for Brideview to leave the score 2-1 to Pinewood at the interval. Five minutes after the break O' Brien made it 2-2 and United appeared to have made a perfect comeback when on own goal put them ahead with twenty minutes to go. Pinewood had the final say though, and they levelled the match in the final five minutes.

U-13 LEAGUE ROUND-UP

Ardmore And Valley Stay Top

Castlebridge Celtic 7 Blackwater Rangers 2 — An exciting game saw a slightly more experienced Castlebridge Celtic team lead 4-2 at the break. Rangers battled gamely but the homeside got the breaks in the second half and added another three goals. Scorers for Castlebridge were Jamie Cremin with three, James Sexton with two and one each from Declan Sexton and Kevin Sheedy.

Valley Rangers 2 Kilworth Celtic 0 — After a scoreless first half, Valley took the lead six minutes into the second half, when Kevin Cotter scored. Kilworth pressed hard for an equaliser but Valley secured their win with a second goal by Kevin Cotter four minutes from time.

GOOD WIN FOR CASTLEBRIDGE

Ardmore 5 Clashmore Ramblers 2 — Ardmore were good value for their win which keeps them on top of the table. Brian Keane scored twice and Patrick Trihy, Cormac Morrell (penalty) and Alan North also scored for Ardmore. Nick Beresford and Declan Allen were the scorers for Ramblers.

U-12 NORTON CUP
Valley Rangers 2 Park United (Kilkenny) 1 — A top class performance from these young lads ensured Valley's progress to the next round of this National Cup Competition. The sides were scoreless at the break before Richard O' Connell scored a tremendous goal for Valley early in the second half. Ronan Carr made it 2-0 for Rangers but Park United set up a nail biting finish when they pulled a goal back and went close to sending the game into extra-time, but Valley held on for a notable win.

NEXT MEETING
 This will take place on Monday night, December 14th at 8.45 pm in the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Tallow. The committee will meet at 8.00 pm.

FIXTURES
 The committee have decided that the month of December will be used mainly to play back games. The U-13 and U-14 trials will also be held during the Christmas holidays.

Cork Road Celtic 1 Valley Rangers 5 — Second placed Cork Road Celtic were well and truly beaten last Saturday morning. Valley led 2-0 at the break after goals from Billy Carr in the twentieth and twenty-sixth minute of the half. Cork Road had no answer to the visitors firepower and three minutes after the restart Aidan Noonan made it 3-0, eight minutes from time Declan Noonan added a fourth and two minutes later Carr scored Valley's fifth. Tomas Ryan scored a consolation goal for Cork Road Celtic just before the end, but this defeat could seriously damage their title prospects. While on this form Valley Rangers could yet make an impression.

Ardmore 2 Clashmore Ramblers 3 — Ramblers came from 2-0 down to defeat their fierce rivals Ardmore. The homeside led 1-0 at the break and increased their lead ten minutes into the second half. Clashmore pulled a goal back when Gerard O' Rourke netted a penalty. Michael Cliffe made it 2-2 and the Ramblers comeback was complete when Thomas Burke scored the winning goal for Clashmore. Gary North and Vincent McCarthy were on the mark for Ardmore.

AN GHAELTACHT AONTAITHE SOCCER NOTES

OLE OLE O DOMHNAILL

AN GHAELTACHT 5 MOGEELY 1

On Sunday last we entertained second placed Mogeely and recorded our best result of the season.

The first twenty minutes of this game was dominated by the visitors who with the aid of a strong breeze kept the homeside in their own half. Mogeely duly took the lead during this period. Our defence resolutely withstood the further frequent Mogeely attacks and our keeper Aidan Power kept our spirits up with some good saves. We gained in confidence as the half progressed and managed to attack the Mogeely side on a number of occasions. One of these attacks resulted in us being awarded a corner, which was powerfully headed to the Mogeely net by Micheal O Domhnaill. Soon afterwards some neat work on the left wing by David Condon produced our second goal when he crossed an inch perfect ball to the onrushing Tim Power who side footed home, this left the score on the turnover at 2-1. Our positive approach continued in the second half and further goals by Micheal O Domhnaill (pen), James Donnelly and David Condon capped a great performance. Man of the Match goes to Micheal O Domhnaill, ably assisted by Marc de Paor, Leonard Whelan and Eamonn Power.

This victory was achieved without the services of our striker "Tucker" Curran who was on trial with Whipps Cross United (Dr. Martin's League). Sorry to say that Tucker did not make the grade and must satisfy himself with at least one more season in the Red House League.

Team; A. De Paor, G. MacDonnacadha, E. De Paor, M. O Domhnaill, A. De Paor, S. O Domhnaill, M. De Paor, L. O Faolain, T. De Paor, D. Conduin, T. De Paor, (F.I.), R. Turraoin, M. Ceitinn, L. O Riain, S. Uada, L. O' Briain.

BALLINROAD A.F.C. NOTES

Ballinroad Lose Out In Eight Goal Thriller

CRUSADERS 5 BALLINROAD 3

Unfortunately we had to make 5 changes to the side for this away game. These changes resulted in Ballinroad being at sea for the first 20 minutes as players were adjusting to the new shape of the side.

In this period we conceded two soft goals, both the result of disorganisation. However, we fought back gamely and pulled one back through Brian Fox who chipped the home keeper from 18 yards for an excellent score. The score was 2-1 at half time.

We started well in the second half and had the home defence on the back foot for long spells. 15 minutes in, a cross from Maurice Tobin was headed home from a tight near post angle by John Joe Henley. We were rocked by Crusaders third which came against the run of play, a tap in after a goal mouth scramble. Ballinroad stuck to the task and were rewarded when Kieran Hallyahan beat a defender to a long centre to give the keeper no chance, stroking the ball home from 20 yards. We were now on top but the upper hand was gained through pure effort rather than controlled play. Two further goal mouth scrambles saw Crusaders rattle the net twice more to put the game beyond us.

Amazingly the home side had stuck 5 away from goal mouth scrambles while we scored 3 fine goals and came away losers. Brian Hayes who deputised for our regular keeper had an excellent game and made several superb stops.

Clearly any team which takes to the field short 5 key players is in trouble from the off, especially when 3 changes have to be made in defence.

FIXTURES

Sunday 15th November, home to Seaview at 11.00 am. Saturday 21st November, away to Southend at 2.15 pm.

SEAVIEW DRAW
Winner Tim Foley, £100.

U-14 SOCCER NOTES - SCHOOLBOYS FAI CUP

BALLINROAD 9 RAILWAY ATHLETIC 1
Ballinroad were very lethargic and out of sorts in the first half of this Cup game. No competitive game for one month combined with a number of players away on International duty over the last few weeks showed in terms of the lack of teamwork. Both the standard of passing and the tightness of marking were way below what was required. Despite these problems Ballinroad lead 2-1 at half time through goals from Colin Beresford and Nicky Donnelly.

Harsh words at half time plus some personnel changes brought about a greatly improved second half performance. An early second half goal by Liam Lenane who got on to the end of an excellent Willie Morrissey cross settled the team down. From then on the better team work and strong will to win of the Ballinroad side overcame the strong Railway resistance.

Ballinroad players to catch the eye were David Condon, Seamus Lavin, Liam Lenane, Nicky Donnelly and new signing Brian Morrissey.

All of the panel played, Simon Hanrahan, Shay Drohan, David Condon, Chris Walsh, Aidan Walsh, Seamus Lavin, Tony Fitzgerald (1), Paddy Mahon, Willie Morrissey, Liam Lenane (3), Michael Moore, Cian Moloney, Mark O'Donnell (1), Eoghan McCarthy and David Wall.

Ballinroad play Southend away in the next round of the SFAI Cup on Saturday November 14th at 11.45 am.

Ardmore Soccer Club Notes

TRIP

Arrangements for the trip to Abbots Kerswell are going fine and much thanks is due to Pat McGrath (Paddy Mac's) in this regard. It is most likely that the trip will be at Easter, flying from Cork to either Plymouth or Exeter, the cost of the flight will be around £120 and is conditional on being a member of the Soccer Club. The coordinator is Declan Hennessey and applications to go on the trip must be with him by 30th November which incidentally is also the final date for payment of membership subs.

LISMORE 1 ARDMORE 0

A depleted Ardmore side were so unlucky not to gain at least a point from this league game on Sunday against leaders Lismore.

The seashiders were without eight of their panel, some had genuine reasons others we don't know about. Ardmore fielding a bare eleven battled gamely and weren't without their chances. Lismore got the all important winner ten minutes into the second half which sealed the issue but the Lismore defence had to endure anxious moments before the referee blew the full time whistle.

Mike Supple had to step in between the posts and had a fine game and couldn't be faulted for the one that beat him. The back four inspired by Maurice Hennessey who had the game of his life were rock solid. Midfield battled gamely and Anthony Aherne was always a danger to the home defence and was so unlucky not to equalise with a few minutes left only to be denied by the Lismore keeper. Seamus Veale who played despite suffering from flu was another who had a good game and Cathal Hennessey played a captains part with a display that shows that he is maturing to a fine centre half.

This result means that unless things improve we will be fighting relegation this season and with the attitude of some of the panel that is not surprising.

Ardmore's best; Maurice Hennessey.

Ardmore U-13's had a good 5-2 win in the league and our U-17 team lost out by the odd goal in five.

DIV. 1B SIDE GO TOP

RAILWAY 1

TRAMORE RANGERS 0

Tommy Pratt's 1B side went to top of the league with a good win over Tramore on Saturday last. This game started at a very fast pace with Tramore coming off the back of a very good win over Kilmacthomas. The visitors put the pressure on us right from the first whistle and with their midfield well on top Tramore created a lot of chances but as the half went on our midfield started to get on top. Paul Quinn put some good passes together and Gary Keane's runs were causing the visitors' full back some problems. It was player manager Tommy Pratt who went very close when his header just went over the bar. This was how the half ended. In the second half our lads went at Tramore and with 10 minutes gone we were one up. Eamon Murphy won the ball and his pass found Paul Quinn who made no mistake. Our lads started to settle and played some good football. This was a good performance by all the lads. This win sets us up for a great game with second placed Kilmacow at home on Saturday at 2.15 pm on Modeligo.

Team; L. Morrissey, K. O'Donnell, E. Murphy, S. Daly, E. Costin, P. Quinn, C. Prendergast, G. Keane, T. Mahan, T. Pratt, J. Lynch. Subs, S. Quinn for J. Lynch, T. Fitzgerald, D. Lenane.

SFAI CUP

Both our under 12 sides went out of the SFAI National Cup on Saturday last. Never mind lads, let's get back to the league.

GET WELL

Our club would like to wish Eddie O'Shea a speedy recovery.

SEAVIEW DRAW

The second Seaview Celtic Draw was held on Saturday night last in Bridgie Terries hosted by the Waterford Hot Rod Club. We had one winner, Fiona Smyth won £100.00.

DIV. 3B GAME WASHED OUT

For the third week running our 3B side had no game due to the bad weather. This is disappointing for our squad who have had a great start winning their first seven games. We have no league game this weekend but we will have a friendly. Please check with the manager over the next few days.

FIXTURES FOR THIS WEEKEND

Saturday 14th November, Div. 1B side home to Kilmacow at 2.15 pm. Under 11 away to Ferrybank "B" at 10.30 am. Leaving at 9.00 am.

BOXING NEWS

The End Of The Road For "Murph"

St. Paul's B. C. held a tournament at the Tower Hotel on Thursday last, 5th of November to mark the retirement of National Flyweight Champion, Martin Murphy. Martin has reached the compulsory retiring age of thirty-five.

Incidentally, it was in this, his last year, that he won his national title. In his quest for the title Martin fought some of the greatest, including none other than World Champion and Olympic Silver Medallist, Wayne McCullagh. Unfortunately, Martin lost his fight tonight to Michael Burke of Gorey B.C., but only on a majority decision.

The Five other bouts were made up of all Waterford senior boxers against a team from West Ham England. National Welter Weight Champion Neil Gough took on Pa Walsh of St. Colmans B.C. Walsh took the fight to Gough from the first bell and he made him keep on his toes, catching him with some lovely right crosses, but the seasoned champ soon retaliated and caught Walsh with a left hook and he had him on the canvas in the second round and again in the fourth round. Nonetheless, Walsh put on a very good performance, and come championship time he will come after Gough's title.

Another local welterweight that will be snapping at Gough's heels is Dungarvan boxer James Keohane. He was also on tonight's bill, when he beat Danny Price of West Ham. Keohane won this fight comfortably, but he's still not back to his full potential. However, with each fight he will be improving and getting sharper. His next contest will be against Seanie Barret of Rylane B.C. on the 27th November in Macroom. Seanie narrowly beat James in the championship last year. James is also fighting in Birmingham in December when he takes on Jamie Scanlon, a Midland Counties champion. So, a busy couple of weeks ahead for Keohane.

Dungarvan B.C. have no less than five boxers taking part in the Cork leagues on Friday night at the Glen Boxing Club. Daniel Nugent is taking on John O'Sullivan, Leaside Lough; James Cawley takes on Alan Murphy, Fermoy; Ben McCombie is in against David O'Riordan of Riverstown; Jamie Donovan is boxing Kevin O'Keeffe, Fermoy, and Jeremy O'Mahony is boxing Sean Rose of St. Mary's.

Jamie Donovan and Jeremy O'Mahony, Richard O'Leary and Frankie Keniry are also boxing on Sunday afternoon at the St. Paul's tournament which takes place at 3 p.m. in St. Paul's gym.

Third time lucky for our table quiz which will definitely go ahead on Thursday night at 9 p.m. in Bridie Dees bar, Mary Street. There was a mix up over the first two attempts but I am assured this time it will go ahead, so don't miss a great night of fun and test your wits against Quiz Master, Jim Egan.

A Kids Disco in aid of the boxing club will take place on Friday night, 13th November at the Soccer Club at 8 p.m.

Dungarvan Ladies Hockey Notes

MOYNE 2 DUNGARVAN 3

On Sunday last we travelled to Thurles to play Moyne. This was a competitive match. Dungarvan took the lead after 5 minutes when from a short corner Louise Conroy passed to Gillian Dalton her shot was saved but Ann Brennan reacted to score. Moyne came more into the match and soon it was 1-1 when Moyne left winger released the centre forward who scored. Dungarvan rallied and after good pressure made it 2-1 when she scored with a rising shot from another short corner.

Early in the second half Dungarvan made it 3-1 when from another corner Lyndsey Keane pounced to score. Moyne to their credit battled on and made it 3-2. However, Dungarvan battled on for a very good win.

A great team performance with Carol Tobin, Eva Quinlan, Lorraine Hayes, Martina Landers, Eleanor Moore and Louise Conroy in defence, in midfield Gillian Conroy, Gillian Dalton and Aoife McGovern and up front Ann Brennan, Lyndsey Keane, Ciara O'Hehir, Michelle Power.

Player of the match was Anne Brennan. Thanks to all players who turned up. Thanks to Jack for umpiring.

A FEAST OF FOOTBALL IN FRAHER FIELD

Last Saturday we hosted the West Waterford Board Finals and proceedings commenced at 1.00 pm. The Fraher Field committee had everything in readiness and we are extremely grateful for all the help and co-operation we received. The teams, referees and officials arrived on time and only those with official passes were allowed onto the playing area and the cooperation in this respect was top class throughout the afternoon which was important as the County Board had two County Finals down for a decision on Sunday. Now, to the games.

Roinn A

St. Joseph's, Dungarvan 2-7 Scoil Mhuire, Abbeyside 2-6 — A great game of football between two evenly balanced sides. John Gorman opened the scoring for Abbeyside but John Regan was quick to reply for the Dungarvan boys. It was end to end stuff with every open space being availed of. Jason Reynolds pointed but again John Regan levelled things up following a fine solo. When Diarmuid Sheehan goaled we thought Abbeyside would take over but we didn't reckon for the spirit of the Dungarvan boys. Stephen Enright tipped over a Richard Foley piledriver. Luke Wade pointed but then disaster for Abbeyside when a long range kick from John Regan went all the way to the net. Team manager Eileen Fennell jumped for joy after that score. Two further points for Abbeyside and one from Dungarvan left the village boys leading by the minimum of margins at the interval.

Abbeyside came out well fired up and quickly found the back of the net. Jamie Nagle scored a nice one with his left foot. Dungarvan introduced Michael Murphy and the move put more pep into the team. Corner forward, Jamie Cullinane lashed home a goal and followed up with a point. Christopher Troy made a great tackle. Mark Gorman lofted over a long range free. Two goals and six points each. In an atmosphere of intense excitement Jamie Nagle lofted over the winning score.

The teams were a credit to their schools. There was no foul blow, no questioning the referees decision and no foul language. Just honest

Roinn B Corn I.N.T.O.

Tallow 0-9 Bunscoil Bhothar na Naomh 1-5 — Great credit to both schools for accepting their gradings which made for another close encounter. Michael Curley had three first half points for Tallow. Brendan Bennett, Eamonn Nugent and Justin Dowd were the Lismore scorers. Wing-back Eamonn Forbes of Tallow executed a brilliant block down. Both teams swapped points as both teams strove for supremacy. Eric Hickey, Tallow played a blinder. A through ball along the ground put Eamonn Nugent clear and his side-foot was excellently saved by goalkeeper Kevin Henley. Christopher O'Keeffe pointed for Lismore but a point from a free brought Tallow level at half-time.

Mark O'Brien went for goal but the ball went over. Mark pointed a free. Eamonn Forbes pointed a free and when Michael Curley added another Tallow looked safe. The marking was tight and scores were hard to come by. Lismore looked for a goal with spirit and got it when Justin Dowd goaled from a free. However, Tallow held out.

MINOR HURLING

The last of the Minor Championship Finals in the West will take place in Fraher Field on Sunday at 1.30 pm. In opposition will be Stradbally and Ardmore in the (B) Hurling decider - a game postponed very late two weeks ago due to the weather conditions. Ardmore will be hoping to complete a Minor Double, having already won the Minor (A) Football Divisional and Co. Titles. Stradbally are on a roll at present and last week's intermediate will be a great moral boost to the Minors and may be enough to see them come out on top.

LEAGUE FINALS

The Western Board are pressing ahead with its three Divisional Football League Finals this Saturday. In Division 1, Ballyduff travel to Colligan to play the home side Emmett's. The Div. 2 decider brings Nire and Clashmore into opposition at Abbeyside while Kilrossanty travel to Toura-naena to play Sliabh gCua in the Div. 3 Final. Ballyduff, Clashmore and Kilrossanty may come out on top. All games at 2.30 pm

COUNTY INTERMEDIATE HURLING FINAL

Stradbally Are Worthy Champions

STRADBALLY 0-11

BALLYDUFF LOWER 1-6

Despite playing for the final 27 mins. of the game with 14 men, Stradbally gave a fabulous performance to snatch the County Intermediate Hurling Championship title at the second attempt in Fraher Field on Sunday.

In a thrilling replay before a large attendance (gate receipts £4,400), the play was of a high standard despite the heavy condition of the pitch. There was little between the sides in the opening half and they ended the half on parity - Stradbally 0-6 Ballyduff 1-3.

Ballyduff led twice in the opening 8 mins. and Jack Kennedy gave them a 2 pts. advantage after 12 mins. Stephen Cunningham pointed for the Reds and when Niall Curran pointed twice in a 3 mins. period, the winners led for the first time after 18 mins. of play - 0-4 to 0-3. Trevor Curran converted frees in the 22nd and 28th mins. into injury time at the end of the half when he finished a Ray Barry free from his own "65" to the net.

Stradbally suffered a major setback 3 mins. after the restart when they had midfielder John Hearne sent off for an off the ball incident. The sides were still level 11 mins. into the second half after Niall and Trevor Curran pointed for Stradbally while Brian O'Leary and Ollie Atkins had similar scores for Ballyduff. Stradbally failed to convert three scoreable frees between the 43rd and 49th mins. Oliver Costello pointed a Stradbally "65" 10 mins. from time to edge his side back in front. Trevor Curran (free) stretched the lead within 60 secs. before Ballyduff's man of the match Ollie Atkins pointed a "65" to leave the minimum between the sides with 7 mins. remaining. Atkins missed a scoreable free after a foul on Tom Whelan who had switched from full-back to full-forward.

The excitement and tension was unbearable with the crowd on the edge of their seats cheering on their heroes. The final score of the game fittingly fell to Stradbally's Niall Curran to give his side a great win. The Stradbally defence and 'keeper Pat Curran, midfielders George Walsh, Niall Curran, Stephen Cunningham, Trevor Costello, Trevor Curran and Ger Power must take the lions share of the plaudits for this victory.

To the delight of the huge Stradbally following team captain Liam O'Brien (what a great club servant he is) was presented with the cup by County Board Chairman, Paddy Joe Ryan. The celebrations were sure to continue long into the night in the village.

Stradbally — P. Curran,

K. Coffey, O. Costello (0-1), D. Power, J. Coffey, T. Walsh, P. Kiely, G. Walsh, J. Hearne, G. Power, S. Cunningham (0-1), T. Costello, N. Curran (0-4), L. O'Brien, T. Curran (0-5). Sub: K. Coffey for O'Brien.

Ballyduff Lower — R. Barry, C. Kenny, T. Whelan, B. O'Regan, J. O'Leary, A. Whelan, D. Van Veen, S. Larkin, N. Power, J. Kennedy (0-1), P. Murphy, B. O'Leary (0-1), T. Larkin, O. Atkins (1-4), S. O'Leary. Subs: D. Whelan for T. Larkin, M. O'Keeffe for D. Whelan.

Referee - M. Wadding (Roanmore).

Ballinacourty Are Intermediate Football Champions

BALLINACOURTY 4-6
BALLYDUFF 0-10

Goals at vital stages in both halves saw Ballinacourty capture the A.W.G. sponsored West Intermediate Football Championship title at Ardmore on Saturday last in windy but dry conditions when they had 8 pts. to spare over Ballyduff. On an excellent pitch Ballinacourty got a dream start with a goal and a point in the opening 5 mins. Ml. Cosgrave pointed before John Foley slammed home the first of his two goals. Ml. Molumphy opened Ballyduff's account in the 8th minute before Garry Hurney and Patrick Molumphy exchanged points. Ballinacourty lead to 1-4 to 0-3 after 20 minutes of play. Foley had his second goal in the 22nd min. and within two minutes Ballyduff faced a major uphill battle when Garry Hurney billowed the net to leave his side 3-5 to 0-3 in front. John Twomey (free) and Ml. Molumphy had Ballyduff points before half time to leave their side 9 points adrift at the break -3-5 to 0-5. Ballinacourty had use of the strong cross wind in the opening half and Ballyduff got the second half off to a great start with two points from Patrick Molumphy inside the opening six minutes. In between these scores Ballyduff had their best chance of a goal in the game but goalkeeper Alan Beatty was swiftly off line to deny Tony Scanlon.

Any hope Ballyduff had were killed off in the 39th min. when Garry Hurney had his second goal to leave his side 10 points to the good.

The Ballinacourty goals were the decisive scores in a very sporting contest. After the game Ballinacourty captain John Organ was present-

Scorers: Ballinacourty; G. Hurney, J. Foley (2-0), Ml. Cosgrave (0-2), C. Keane and L. Hurney (0-1 each). Ballyduff: P. Molumphy, M. Molumphy and J. Twomey (0-3 each), B. Hannon (0-1).

Disappointment For Geraldines Again

MISSED CHANCES PROVE COSTLY FOR GERALDINES

PASSAGE 1-7
GERALDINES 1-6

There was further disappointment for Geraldines in a County Junior Hurling Final at Fraher Field on Sunday when they lost their third successive final and their form in five years. The western champions were left to rue shooting 13 wides many of them from easy scoring positions.

The opening half was a very tame affair at the end of which Geraldines led by 0-4 to 0-2. Eight minutes had elapsed before the first score was registered, a Michael Murray point from a free, for Gers. The same player added another two from placed balls before Passage opened their account in the 24th min.

Passage man of the match goalkeeper David Fowler denied Murray a certain goal two minutes after the restart. A point separated the sides when Geraldines struck for a goal in the 37th min. when Donnacha Tobin got on the end of a long delivery from midfield to billow the net. This seemed to be the score to settle Geraldines and set them up for victory but the squandermania continued. Still they led by 4 pts. with 12 mins. remaining and while Passage, seeking their first title in the grade in 61 years, were still plugging away. Geraldines seemed to be safe enough at this stage. Points from Sean Carey and James Heffernan left only two between the sides but Tobin pointed Gers into a three point advantage with 8 mins. remaining.

Midfielder Mark Cummins goaled for Passage 4 mins. from time after the Geraldines defence failed to clear their lines. Carey gave Passage the lead for the first time in the game 60 secs. later. Geraldines had chances to force the game to a replay or even snatch victory but they failed to convert them into scores. Murray went for a goal from a 58th min. penalty and they forced two 65"s after that and a free dropped short. Geraldines must be wondering what they have to do to snatch that elusive junior title.

County Board Chairman Paddy Joe Ryan gave the honour of presenting the cup to Eastern Board Chairman, Pat Flynn, himself a Passage man to the victorious captain, Ed Quann.

Passage — D. Fowler, O. Lynch, P. Connors, P. Gough, S. Millea, E. Quann, J. Cummins, J. Heffernan (0-1), M. Cummins (1-0), S. Carey (0-5), R. Corcoran (0-1), E. Flynn, S. Flynn, N. Connors, I. Connors. Sub: R. Gough for I. Connors.

P. J. KINDREGAN CAPTURES THE E. A. RYAN CUP

P.J. was a clear winner with a 65 nett and claims he should have done better and so was a worthy winner. The E.A. Ryan Cup was presented by a well known Dungarvan solicitor. He lived in Woodhouse which is now part of the Gold Coast Golf Course. He was married to May Lawlor of Lawlor's Hotel. Though not a competitive golfer he was President for many years both on the Cunnigar course and of course Balli-nacourty. I can remember his picture displayed on the wall of the clubhouse in Ballinacourty which most of us will remember was destroyed by fire. The cup is a substantial silver trophy and it must be a source of great

E.B.S. WINTER LEAGUE

The second round of the E.B.S. Winter League was played over last weekend in weather conditions that were reasonably difficult. The underfoot conditions were practically perfect despite the very heavy rain over the weekend but the very high wind, especially on Saturday kept the scoring quite low.

This Winter League has caught the imagination of the members judging by the numbers that played over the weekend. If this weekend is anything to go by this Dunhill team powered on by the White's and Moore's are leading the way after two rounds with The Spring, well led by Eugene Collins, a close second, Ballinacourty, the local favourites, who at the moment have the edge over their near rivals Ballinroad are in third spot with Portlaw in fourth and ## Ballinroad in fifth spot.

Kill, the favourites from the outset, are gathering their forces having started slowly, produced the second best score of the weekend and are sixth at the moment with Kilmacthomas in seventh and The Old Boro team in eighth place.

The remaining teams have some ground to make up with especially Ardmore who had a very poor turn out at the weekend. With the top eight teams with the best twelve weekly totals out of the sixteen to qualify for the play off stage there is still loads of time but it is unwise to leave it to the last few weeks to put in your best effort to make up the ground.

GOLF AND LEISURE SOCIAL

Congratulations to all the prize winners that received their prizes on the night which brought the curtain down on a golfing year in the Gold Coast that was a memorable say the least.

Minnies Squash Notes*Freyne Is King Again

Last weekend November 5th-7th the annual Heineken Nenagh open took place at the Dapp Inn in Nenagh, as usual and is customary a large contingent from Minnies made the trip. In the mens A we had defending champion Paul Freyne and Pat O'Brien. In the B we had Ray Moore and last years "C" winner Maurice Walsh. In the "C" we had Vincent Tutty and probationary on tour member Kevin Tutty. In the "D" we had Michael Tutty while in the ladies B we had the trio of Siobhan O Mahoney, Catherine Kiely and June Whyte.

In the mens "A" Pat opened Friday night with a 3-0 win over James Power from Limerick. On Saturday for the second weekend in a row Pat beat Highfield's Conor O Donoghue 3-0. In Saturday nights semi final Pat faced Munster closed "B" runner up Fergus McLysaght. Pat was made work hard to beat the Kerryman 3-0 to book his final berth for the second year running. Paul Freyne the defending champion and number one seed began his defence on Saturday. He opened with a quick 3-0 win over Limericks John Cosgrove. In his semi final Paul faced Alan Moore, last week Paul was a 27-1 winner against Moore, this week he had to work a small bit harder with Moore winning a tight third set. Paul won the first two 9-1, 9-2 and the fourth 9-1.

In Sundays final the two lads squared up against each other looking well in their specially commissioned Podge and Rodge polo shirts. As expected there were plenty of long opening exchanges with no quarter given. It was nip and tuck all through right up to 8-8 before Paul just nicked it to 10-8. Mary in the crowd wondered would this be Pats year as he weighs in much lighter this year and his fitness and stamina and speed are also way up on last season. The second set took on a similar pattern, very evenly matched, Pauls pinpoint accuracy doing the scoring for him and Pats incredible speed and agility grinding out his scores. It was level all the way to 7-7 again before Paul once again claimed the set this time 9-7. In the third set it was lethal Freyne, he was 5-0 up quicker than Pat could change his top.

Pat tried hard to claw his way back but Paul advanced too much before closing out for the match 9-5 to win his second title in a row, his third Nenagh open in total. For Pauls efforts he received the most beautiful set of crystal I have ever seen in all my years going to opens, a beautiful ships decanter a set of brandy glasses all nicely displayed on a mahogany tray with baize creme and brass handles plus a "Brown Envelope". Pat also received a huge Galway Crystal bowl. Paul on behalf of all the players thanked the players, organisers and sponsors Heineken pointing out how generous and loyal Heineken have been to Minnies. He expressed a wish to see all these playing this weekend at next years Minnies open. These sentiments were reiterated by Maurice Walsh who fell in for special praise from tournament director Pat Grace who asked Maurice for a few words after thanking him for his loyal support in bringing so many players up every year. The Nenagh open has an entry of 101 with 10 coming through the Minnies name.

SIOBHAN PIPPED AT FINAL HURDLE

In the mens "D" Michael Tutty was top seed. He opened with a tough 3-1 win over James Murray. In the second round Michael faced defeat in the face as he trailed 4-7 in the fifth before scraping home 3-2. In the semi final Michael can feel disappointed to have gone down to Donal Magnier having served twice for the match in the fourth and also holding the lead several times in the fifth.

In the ladies our own legend with four Ireland medals June Whyte was in action. She began Friday night late with a comfortable 3-0 win over Ann Walsh. In the second round June never did herself justice as she went down 0-3 to eventual winner Claire Carroll. Catherine Kiely opened with a 0-3 score against Siobhan Coakley.

In the second round Catherine played her best tournament match for quite a while and despite going down 1-3 to Liz Duggan she showed dogged determination saving nine match balls before eventually going down. Siobhan O Mahoney the top seed opened with a 3-0 win over Liz Duggan. In the second round she played really well to beat Siobhan Coakley 3-0. In the series Siobhan played her best game with a very long time as she beat Mary Ryan 3-2. In Sundays final against young Limerick girl Claire Carroll, Siobhan was very unlucky to lose a close opener 9-7. From there though Carroll took control to win the next two 9-1, 9-3. Ray, Kevin and Siobhan all picked up very generous pieces of Galway Crystal to add to their collection.

SINCEREST SYMPATHY

The club this week sends its very deepest sympathy to Mrs K Coffey, Mary, Ellen and John on the very tragic and sad death of Bernie Coffey. All of us were numbed with shock when we heard of the tragedy. Bernie was a former member of Minnies who competed on ladies and in club tournaments. For those of us lucky enough to know her Bernie like all the Coffey family was a very sincere, genuine caring and friendly person who will be deeply missed by us all. To all the Coffey family we again offer our deepest sympathy. The club was very well represented at both the removal and funeral with Ray Moore representing President Maurice Walsh who was out of the country. As a mark of respect the club cancelled all competitive activities for the week, Tuesday and Thursdays Munster league matches were called off and the David Walsh sponsored Inter-Finals was postponed to Monday 8th November. May the light of heaven shine on you Bernie.

Ray And Kevin Take The Plates

In the mens "B" Maurice Walsh opened against Laurence O Donovan from Highfield. Maurice held a 2-1 set advantage before going down 3-2 to the eventual winner. In the plate Maurice had a marathon and titanic five setter against local man Ted Ryan, Maurices experience and craft carried him through a nail biting fifth set. This put him into the plate semi where he faced Ray Moore. Ray began on Friday night with a disappointing 1-3 score against Peter Byrne. On Saturday morning he had a comfortable 3-0 win over the gentleman from Nenagh Terry O'Rourke. Against Maurice in the series Ray won the opener but soon found himself in deep trouble as Maurice won the second and third and led 3-0 in the fourth before hitting the wall. Ray clawed his way back to sneak the fourth 9-6 before wrapping up the fifth. In the final Ray faced top wall player Pat Hough, this was easily Rays best performance as he romped to victory 9-3, 9-5, 9-1.

In the "C" Vincent Tutty opened with a 3-0 victory over Kevin Morgan, in the second round another 3-0 victory was secured against J.J. Tobin. In the semi final Vincent faced Kildare man Joe McCormack runner up to Maurice last year, McCormack stole the first set 10-8, he sneaked a close second 9-7. McCormack won the third but when Vincent stormed into a 5-0 lead in the fourth we looked like we were going to five but McCormack jilted his way back to clinch it 9-6. (McCormack won Sundays final). Kevin Tutty became an adopted "on tour" member for the weekend. He opened with a close 1-3 scoreline against McCormack. In the plate Kevin had successive 3-0 wins over David McNamara and Stephen Griffin. In Sundays plate final Kevin faced big local man Martin Ryan. Kevin won the opener 9-4. A lapse of concentration saw Ryan pinch the second 10-8. Kevin raced through the third 9-1. Another lapse in the fourth nearly proved lethal as Kevin just scraped home 10-8.

Cunnigar Pitch & Putt Club Notes
MINISTER OF FINANCE VISITS CUNNIGAR CLUB

Minister for Finance Martin Cullen, also included are P. Duggan, P. Power, M. Donovan, E. Lenihan, F. McCarthy and L. Duggan.

Martin Cullen, Junior Minister Department of Finance called to our course last Saturday to meet the committee to discuss the hosting of our All-Ireland Final, which will be held at the Cunnigar in August 1999. The committee outlined the details of running the All-Ireland National event and listed a number of items to Mr. Cullen. Martin went on to say that what the Cunnigar club members and the Council had achieved in the last number of years was just outstanding and had no doubt that he would do everything in his power to make sure our club would continue to make progress, not just for our members, but also for the town's people, young and old.

Our Chairman, Philip Duggan thanked Mr. Cullen for his visit to the Cunnigar Club and said he would be in close contact with Martin over the next couple of months.

LOTTO

Again there was no winner of our lotto jackpot last Tuesday night. The numbers drawn by Heather were 9-14-17-26. Our three lucky winner of £20 each went to Mary Early, Mary Salmon and Michael Sullivan. Our jackpot now is £400 and our draw takes place every Tuesday night at 7.45 pm. "What a little lotto could do for you".

TURKEY TOURNAMENT

Last Sunday morning we got off to a flyer, holding our sixth Turkey Tournament. We had some great partners drawn together, no one would dare to predict a winner. But again Tomas Maher and Pat Tutty who are both playing really well came home with a fantastic score of 19 under par to take 1st nett. In the gross the Duggan brothers Philip and Leonard were waiting in the club house for the last fourball to come in, yes it was that man again Carroll and his partner Paul Regan with a little smile on their faces told the story beating the two brothers on a count back to win 1st gross.

John now has his fourth turkey won and he tells me that he has plenty room at home for more. More on this next week.

COMMITTEE MEETING

Your next committee meeting will be held this Thursday night at 6.45 pm. All are requested to attend.

THIS SUNDAY SCOTCH FOURSOMES V. PAR

Sunday morning we will hold one of the hardest fourballs "Scotch". Also we have a hole in one prize on the 17 green, fancy your chances? Make sure your name is in on or before Friday. For more details see our notice board. Shout Fore.

RING/OLD PARISH A.C. NOTES

William Harty Is Munster Cross Country Champion

SILVER FOR FERDIA HAYES

The Munster Cross Country Championships for boys and girls under-9, 11, 13, 15, 17 were held in Rathkeele, Co. Limerick on Sunday. Run over one of the most demanding courses you are ever likely to meet for a cross country fixture, it really sorted out the men from the boys and what a performance William Harty produced in the boys under-15 literally destroying a class field to win as he pleased. William led the county to silver medals and the club team to bronze medals only being beaten for 2nd place on the breakdown. Next after William was James Ledingham in 5th place. As James is under 14, this was an excellent performance as was Stephen Morrissey finishing in 18th position. This lad is improving with ever race. Completing the scoring were Liam O Lionáin (40th) and Mark Healy (56th).

Another to produce the goods on Sunday was Ferdia Hayes who ran a real gutsy race in the boys under-9 to take the silver medal. This lad is real tough and seemed to revel in the atrocious conditions. Wayne Kelly finished 46th in this race. Ferdia's sister Ealga was also in the medals with an excellent run to be 10th in the girls under-13 race and so qualify her for her first All-Ireland. We had four other under-13 girls and all were members of the Waterford team that finished 3rd in the intercounty contest namely Aine Lombard (35th), Kate O'Brien (42nd), Louise Coughlan (43rd) and Tracey Shalloe (60th). Triona Shalloe also got among the medals when she finished 11th in the under-15 race and so qualified to represent Munster in the All-Irelands in Ardatton, Co. Carlow in five weeks time. Ciara Prendergast ran well here also to be 27th. Claire Ducey was another to run an excellent race and was unlucky not to get a medal for her effort as she finished 13th at under-11 level. Also running in this race were Tara Lee Weldon (44th), Sara O'Brien (48th) and Hanna Whelan (68th) and all can be satisfied that they gave it their best effort.

Sara Kate Ledingham was 17th in under-9 and any one who gets in the first 20 in a Munster Championships is running well. Nadine Cullen found the going tough as she had never experienced conditions like this before but battled on gamely to finish 50th. Shane Kelly was the first of the under-13 boys to finish with a big improvement on recent form to be 21st. Garry Nugent was 35th, Ross O'Shea (50th) and William Mulcahy (68th). Michael Hayes and Aisling Weldon were our only other runners on Sunday and both battled bravely through the mud to finish in the middle of the field.

Congratulations to Kate Kirwan and Edel Morrissey from K.C.K. who both won Munster titles on Sunday.

Next Sunday the action is nearer home with an Open Cross Country meeting in Ferrybank with a 1 p.m. start.

LADIES FOOTBALL

Congratulations to 5th Year student, Bridget Hannigan who was a member of the Waterford All-Ireland Ladies Football panel that won the All-Ireland Final Replay against Monaghan recently.

Congratulations also to past pupil Julianne Torpey who won player of the match in the final. Julianne and other members of the team visited the school this week with the Brendan Martin Cup.

EQUESTRIAN

Congratulations to Lisa Whelan in 1st Year who represented St. Declan's in a one day horse event in Kilkenny last Saturday. Lisa, who competed against schools from all around Ireland, rode superbly gaining many points in her dressage and going clear in the showjumping. The cross country course proved difficult in very bad weather conditions but Lisa managed to complete the course with just two stops at the water. Well done Lisa.

SOUTH EAST HOCKEY LEAGUE

Four of our teams travelled to Bunclody in Wexford on Tuesday. Again St. Declan's came out on top winning three games and losing one.

The Intermediates started the day with some excellent hockey. The first half was dominated by a strong St. Declan's side showing great skill and teamwork. Ten minutes before half-time Aoife Rockett found the net resulting from great build-up play.

The second half however changed with little or no ball to our forwards. Our defence did an excellent job to keep a strong attacking Bunclody side scoreless until the final whistle. Aoife Kearns had two great saves preventing the opposition to level the score. Best for St. Declan's were A. Crowley, A. Wall and J. Power.

Our Minors who are playing superbly this season again won away and are now on top of the league table. With excellent play being displayed from each player, Carlow's defence were left in disarray. With short corners practised repeatedly at training, St. Declan's deserved their goal from their corners with Rachel Ahern finding the net.

St. Declan's - J. Hill, M. Ryan, R. Ahern, A. Dee, S. O'Donnell, B. Kennedy, K. Dee, L. Power, N. Foley, D. Fitzgerald, M. Whelan, M. McCarthy, R. Weldon, E. Darcy.

1st YEAR A + B

Some excellent play displayed by our strong squad of 1st Year players resulted in Emma Wall crashing home a superb goal.

St. Declan's - U. Cleary, E. Curran, S. Crowley, N. Fitzgerald, E. Wall, V. Lawlor, A. M. Lawlor, E. Kirwan, S. Morrissey, L. Mackey, M. Smith, N. Dunne, L. Whelan, A. Veale, L. Dunphy.

Our 1st Year B were a little unlucky resulting in a 2-0 defeat. At stages some nice play was played but a strong forward line from Bunclody outplayed our defence to score two goals. Best for St. Declan's were C. Power, T. Cunningham and A. Sutton.

GIRLS SOCCER

Under-13

Munster Cup

On Friday St. Declan's had a great start to their Under-13 Munster Cup campaign with a 6-0 victory over the Mercy Convent, Waterford.

St. Declan's took the lead in the opening five minutes with a goal by Amy Sutton who aided a second goal 15 mins. into the half. E. Morrissey, who played superbly up front, increased the lead for St. Declan's with a goal at the end of the first half.

The Mercy fought hard in the second period but were unable to penetrate the St. Declan's defence.

E. Wall's efforts finally paid dividends with a goal five minutes into the second half. T. Gallagher not to be outdone, scored the goal of the match 15 mins. later. Finally A. Sutton completed the St. Declan's victory with another goal and earned herself a hat-trick in the process. St. Declan's now enter the quarter-final of this competition to face no doubt tougher competition.

Team - M. Power, A. Veale, C. Kirwan (capt.), R. Ahern, T. Gallagher, L. Murray, B. Kennedy, A. Dee, E. Wall, E. Morrissey, A. Sutton. Subs: U. Kirwan, J. Callaghan, S. Crowley, E. Kirwan, U. Cleary.

DUNGARVAN 0 CLONAKILTY 17

An understrength Dungarvan side put up a valiant fight against a very strong Cork team last Sunday. Dungarvan travelled to Clonakilty without regulars Mel Shanley, Eddie Loneragan, Doug Chappell or Colin Harty and the weather conditions did us no favours either.

The by now usual slow Dungarvan start happened yet again (we will have to do something about this) and we were 12-0 down in the first 15 mins. with some very slack tackling on our part. Then we started to sort it out. Ray Harty moved into the front row while Sean Walsh moved out to wing forward which steadied the scrum up. The bad luck really hit us as we lost players through injuries. Shay Harty went off after a 'suicide' tackle and Stuart got a knee in his chest, they were replaced by Jimmy and Pat Dunphy.

At half-time we reorganised the team and came out with a fighting attitude. We came close to scoring twice. Then Trevor Byrnes injured his shoulder and had to go off so were down to 14 players for the rest of the game. However the Dungarvan team showed its true spirit for the last half hour. We held Clonakilty out until the last minute when they got through our defences for one last try.

It was a great team effort with Niall Fahy and Seamus Cunningham playing really well. Seamus in his first match collected man of the match award - a brilliant career awaits him.

Next Match: Away Game next Sunday 15th November at Clonmel (in the Gleeson Cup competition). Meet at the Club House at 1 p.m. Contact the captain if any player can't travel.

Training: Training continues on Wednesdays and Fridays at 8pm. Any past members who would be willing to do some coaching on the odd night please contact Ray Harty at 058-46120.

WATERFORD LADIES FOOTBALL NEWS

As Good As It Gets

It was just after 2 p.m. on Saturday afternoon the 24th of October when the team bus pulled out of Ballymacarbery Destination - Dublin. Moments earlier Kathleen Walsh had proclaimed — there's a different attitude today, they will win this match.

The journey to Dublin was uneventful. A number of players sat on their own, conversation was scarce. The bus radio trotted out some pop music, a few walkmans were noticeable. A chat with Mary O'Donnell revealed that the youngest member of the team (16) was eagerly looking forward to the game.

The weather was terrible, tomorrow's forecast poor. A brief stop at Castledermot, a number of players emerged from the shop with crisps — Bridget wasn't pleased, eating rubbish again. Shortly afterwards the phone rang, the greeting "how are you now" told the tale. George Young is keeping tabs. Another call reveals that Triona Whyte has arrived from Bristol.

It was just after 5.15 p.m. when the team checked in at the West County Hotel. The players had been carefully paired off room-wise. After a meal it's time to go to Mass. We break the old routine and travelled by bus with Joe at the wheel. The weather dictates that the players wear their tracksuits.

Once again the priest recognises them. After a word of welcome he reveals he's praying for another great game, but can't wish us luck — he's a Monaghan man. His last sentence — your defence will have to improve. How many times have we heard that in the last 3 weeks, but to hear it at Mass, 100 miles from home is the last straw.

At the team talk everybody is deadly serious. The attitude looks good. The captain Siobhan talks of the need to dig deep. After that it's a video, "The Unbelievables". I can't stand them but the players can and tonight that's all that matters. George and Kathleen head for the Waterford Supporters Club get together. They have been very good to us. Marty Morrissey rings, checking last minute team news. He's not too optimistic about our chances.

The following morning the sun shines brightly. The trees that surround the hotel seem limp. The last thing we want is wind. Billy Kelly and Biddy Butler arrive and begin massaging the players. All the attention is focused on Annalisa. Toigh O'Sullivan's tonic is produced. Billy reckons she'll be fine and that's good enough for us. Somebody mentions a bottle of holy water that a chap called Paddy O'Brien had filled in three different "Holy Wells". We'll take any bit of inspiration we can get.

Jim Landers is hovering around for a few interviews. Biddy Butler produces the Monaghan newspaper. Before we know it it is 11.20 a.m. time to go. We're bound for St. Vincent's Club Grounds, a short distance from Croke Park for a warm up. We come to a cross, the road is blocked. Somebody recalls a cross at our way to the '91 final. We won that one. A good omen. Again we'll gladly take it.

The welcome at St. Vincent's is warm. Tony Joyce, a brother of former Dub star Bobby, has arranged everything. Bro Lennon is waiting for us. His name is just across the impressive playing fields. By now that gentle breeze has turned to a howling gale.

Bro Lennon knows the geography — it will be blowing directly into the Canal End he predicts! After a bit of stretching we decide to play a bit of a game. It's time to test Annalisa's leg. The game is furious. The tackles are coming in thick and fast. Nourin Walsh and Mary O'Donnell are flying and Annalisa is looking good. A bone-shaking challenge rears in — nobody is going to walk through this defence today. Time to call off the game before somebody gets hurt. Six minutes of rapid shooting practice, with and against the wind. No doubts — this team is ready for it.

Back to the bus and before we know it the Cusack Stand dominates the sky. Joe reverses the bus in under the stand, right up to the dressing room door. Eighth visit to Croke Park for Caitriona Casey, the look on her face would suggest it's her first. Inside the players sit in their usual places — superstition reigns.

A walk on the pitch, to see the conditions. It's half time in the league game between Dublin and Westmeath. Bro Lennon is right. It's blowing directly into Canal End. A walk down towards the goal reveals an amazing fact, from the 20 metre line in, the wind is swirling and blowing the opposite way. A decision on which way we'll play is postponed until the last possible moment. Can Houlihan's theory on Croke Park's swirling wind is very evident.

By now the players have changed and several have gone into the huge warm up room and are kicking the ball around furiously. The sound decibel is increasing with every passing minute, even Caitriona can be heard. Micheal O Muircheartaigh comes in — is Annalisa playing? is his first question — those ankle ligaments have made this lady famous. Conditions are very difficult he announces — best of luck and the genial broadcaster is gone.

Modeligo's Jim Bannon informs us that we are out first, in six minutes. Time for a last gee up. The circle, the clasping of hands, silent promises are made, this time we are going to win it.

That knock on the door — a bit like waiting to go to the gallows. Two changes in personnel and 8 positional switches would now be put to the test. Bridget says she's confident. This time the Waterford roar is much more evident. The weather is so cold we've decided to keep the tracksuit tops on.

Billy Kelly takes charge of the warm up. Marie Crotty has joined us from the Westmeath dressing room. A wind check reveals that the wind has changed completely, now it's blowing towards Hill 16.

It's time for the toss-up. It's vital, we want to lead them and see what they are made of. After what seems an age, Siobhan arrives back — we're playing with the wind. Bridget has completed Sarah's warm up, her handling is superb. Things are looking good.

Time to follow the Artane Boys Band, then it's the huddle — Amhran Na bFiann — last chat, concentration, communication and pressure. Then they are gone, off to their own individual patch. Now it's pretty well out of our hands.

Christy Haughey blows the first whistle. First ball to Monaghan. A brilliant kick down by Annalisa sets the tone. Rebecca levels it up from 30 yards, Claire's pass finds Caitriona and she sails through for a great score. The points are slow coming but the most important thing is that we are playing well.

Monaghan are being closed down. It's a different Martina this time round and Edel Byrne is struggling to get away from Siobhan. By the 20th minute it's 0-5 to 0-2, no cause for undue Monaghan concern.

Enter Mary O'Donnell to centre stage. First she's playing a one-two with Rebecca and kicks a great point, the side pops up on the left wing and her high floating centre drops into the top right hand corner of the net — the previous goal that our play deserved.

Monaghan rallied and by half time had reduced the deficit to 5 points. They must have fancied their chances. The Waterford dressing room was quiet but determined. A little bit of raining out, a different type of game was needed in the 2nd half. Let's attack them from the throw-in, they won't expect that.

Out of the blue Nourin Walsh begins pulling players out of their seats. It was a master stroke. The fire in her eyes spell business. Nobody was going to take this cup away from Waterford. Think of last year, do you want to go through the same feeling? Waterford took the field ready, willing and able.

Just as the ball was about to be thrown in the eagle eyed Bro Lennon spotted that the clock wasn't fully re-wound and brought it to the attention of the referee. The second throw in, you'd never think of the wind. The girls in Blue and White took over. Waterford played with an extra defender, Olivia Condon moved to corner back with Annalisa Crotty filling the space between the full and centre back. The plan was to crowd defence as well as creating more space in attack.

The players responded magnificently. Byrne's point was cancelled out by a Casey free. Aine Wall was booked for what only the referee knows! Rebecca and Aine landed points before Geraldine found Julie raiding from defence. A gentle astute lob, the net danced and so did Julie. Luck was the cry from the Hogan Stand and most homes and establishments north of the River Suir.

They don't know Julie. Playback time — 1997 Munster final v. Clare; '98 semi final v. Mayo and countless training sessions we have seen her do this 100 times. The only thing that we haven't seen was the jig she did in Croke Park. "Eat your heart out Michael Flatley".

The old cliché, teams are most vulnerable immediately after scoring was now underlined. Monaghan broke quickly down field and Greanar puts Linda Farrelly in for a goal. Olivia Condon pulls a hamstring. Billy rules her out. S.O.S. for Deirdre Nagle. Pull Claire Ryan back deep and pray. Dempsey, free from the attention of Olivia, lashes home a goal — it's going to be a long day. It's back to 3 points. Eleanor, Kate and Crotty are busy eating their nails, the mascots are hoping for another day out. Jackie has just about recovered from the wedding 48 hours earlier, no sign of Katie Kiely, Theresa Foley must be in a tizzy.

Geraldine kicks a point, she'll never get a more vital score. Monaghan manager Mickey Morgan, a likeable guy, gains a few wrinkles. Centre stage — Sarah Hickey — a couple of great saves prevent heart attacks. Deirdre O'Rourke, 30 minutes earlier the referee demanded her autograph, batted down the hatches. Triona got a few attacks of cramp, Monaghan showed no mercy like a great team they are — Dempsey and the youthful Kindlon concocted a goal, heart attack time again.

It was now that Waterford donned the mantle of greatness. Ten minutes left, against a gale force wind and the reigning champions on the ascendancy. Waterford needed to stand up and be counted. They did just that. R.T.E. relayed the script. In Lismore Hospital, they couldn't get their patients to finish their meal, Dunabney and the rest were probably the same, a few publicans were no doubt, struggling with the "2 consecutive holy hours."

Even a genius like Shakespeare couldn't have written the script. On R.T.E. Marty's voice was a little subdued, but Micheal O Muircheartaigh wasn't, neither, I suspect, were Kieran and Jim Joe. The last 11 minutes yielded just 2 scores. Both fell, nay were made and taken up by the lassies playing against the gale force wind. Talk about character. The fresh Fiona made a few vital runs, burning up precious seconds.

Lady Luck was in there somewhere, post and crossbar intervened, so did Sarah Hickey, they told us she would never make a goalkeeper, wrong again. The Hogan Stand collectively rose. So did the blood pressure. Picture Mick Burke, Ann Ryan, not to mention mother, just over a brain haemorrhage and stroke.

One last Monaghan hurrah, the ball drops on the 21 — 4 seconds on the clock, I knew then we'd win it — the hooter, ecstasy. Monaghan players sunk to the ground. We knew the story, we had been there before. The Northern side could still hold their heads high. They had played their part in the rise and rise of ladies football.

Head steward John Leonard began the search for the winning captain, the locked gates (pity) made her easier to find. Eagerly she danced up twelve steps, following in the footsteps of Mick O'Connell, Christy Ring, Mike Sheehy, Conor Hayes, Enda Collieran and even Pat Spillane (back in the studio), but more importantly Marie Crotty, Bernie Ryan, Geraldine O'Ryan and Nourin Walsh.

A Kilmanahan neighbour just two doors down, Noel Murray (National President) awaited to present the prize. Noel didn't stand a chance. Siobhan grabbed the coveted Brendan Martin Cup and raised it aloft. In the background Joe McDonagh could be seen smiling. Sorry Noel, but we wanted it badly.

It took a while (ages in fact) to get back to the dressing room, blame Brian Carty, David Kelly and a half dozen others, not to mention the marvellous Waterford supporters, led by Jimmy Kirwin (Old Parish).

That dressing room scene bore a contented look, no champagne, just a few sandwiches, apples and oranges. Mai O'Higgins' famous song "Dungarvan My Home Town" rung out again (she is a great supporter of ours). Twenty feet down the corridor the silence was deafening. The margin between winning and losing is thin, maybe its getting thinner. Let's not take anything away from Monaghan, they are a super side. By the way, we've got a fair old side ourselves.

The newer, bigger and better Brendan Martin Cup lay on the table, getting a rest before beginning the hectic rounds. Slowly the dressing room emptied, the players making their way to a function room behind the Hogan Stand.

As usual I was last to leave. Down the stairs from the dressing room and up the steps to the pitch. Darkness was descending. A walk across Croke Park, not a soul to be seen, a glance to the left revealed a giant crane in the North Dublin skyline on the Canal End, a light at the very top. A glance to the right revealed the scoreboard which told the tale — Waterford 2-14 Monaghan 3-8. Underneath the new clock stood at 00:00.

I COULDN'T HELP THE FEELING — THIS IS AS GOOD AS IT GETS.

DUNGARVAN G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

INDOOR HURLING

Indoor hurling training for the U-8, U-9 and U-10 hurlers has commenced at the Sports Centre and will continue every Saturday morning.

CAPPOQUIN TOURNAMENT

Our U-10 hurlers returned to Cappoquin on Saturday last to participate in the Host Clubs Tournament. Blessed with more favourable weather conditions than those which had caused its abandonment a fortnight ago we were grouped with Cappoquin, Naomh Brid and Brickey Rangers. Our local rivals Brickey Rangers were our first opponents. After a close fought affair we eventually emerged winners by 2-1 to 1-0. The scores restricted somewhat by the narrowness of the goalposts. Our next opponents were Naomh Brid. Some early goals set us on the road to victory and despite a spirited comeback by Naomh Brid in the second half we were to hold out to win by 5-1 to 2-0. This set us up with a clash with Cappoquin to see who would top the group and qualify for the final. We were to score first with a point but some slack marking led to the concession of a goal to leave a half time score of 0-1 to 1-0. Cappoquin scored two points early in the second half before a Gavin Crotty goal brought us back into it. However, we were to squander a few chances late in the game and we lost by the narrowest margin by 1-1 to 1-2. By finishing second in the group we qualified for the Shield Final where we met Fermoy. Here we really met our match and the gap in standards is clearly evident for all to see. Fermoy ran out comprehensive winners.

We would like to thank Cappoquin for the invitation and hope that it will be extended for next year where we will aim to go slightly better.

U-14 FOOTBALL

Our U-14 footballers suffered the disappointment of having their final against Ardmore postponed until next Saturday afternoon at the Fraher Field due to the adverse weather conditions. Hopefully next week-end will be more favourable weather wise and allow the Bord to complete the games.

Apologies to players and parents for any inconvenience caused.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

We played Ring in the Senior Relegation match at the Colligan venue on Saturday last and were defeated on the scoreline of 9 points to seven. The game was played in gale force conditions and we certainly have no one to blame but ourselves for the outcome.

SYMPATHY

On behalf of the Club we would like to extend our deepest sympathy to the family of the late Maureen Keating and also to James Cullinane, brother of the late John Cullinane who died recently. John Cullinane was a fine hurler in his day and won county honours with us in Minor Hurling in 1941 and 1942. Ar dheis De go raibh siad.

Stradbally G.A.A. Notes

COUNTY FINAL

Readers of this column will notice that this is the 3rd week of county Final notes. You may be sure that this is the week that matters, after months of preparation the title has come to the Cove Club. People outside the Club, Committee and immediate followers will not understand the work put in by Noel Costello and his Selectors Paddy Morrissey and Richard Hickey in preparing the team for this historic win. Sean Ahearn laid the foundation last year in making sure we won the Minor Championship. Noel Costello brought the under 21 team to a county final last year with many of today's stars playing. Kieran Heffernan the club trainer made sure time was available for hurling in the first rounds of the Championship. The cooperation was superb all through the season between all club Trainers and selectors and this surely showed on the pitch on Sunday. The Game itself was a hard fought battle and the Stradbally boys stood up and were well counted in the final analysis.

Ballyduff opened the scoring with a point and Trevor Curran equalised from a free. Ballyduff went 2 points ahead before Stradbally got on top. Points from Stephen Cunningham 2 from Niall Curran and 2 from Trevor Curran put Stradbally in the driver's seat but on the stroke of half time Ballyduff got the only goal of the game. The sides were now level going into the second half. The scores tell only part of the match performance, The selectors asked David Power to follow the Ballyduff full forward out the field and this he did well. Oliver Costello and Kevin Coffey were superb in the full back line and were helped by Tom Walsh and man of the match John Coffey, Paul Kiely was having a tremendous game on the left flank. George Walsh and John Hearne were magnificent at centre field and all the forwards were trying their hearts out. What could trainer Noel Costello ask for only the same in the second half.

Niall Curran opened the scoring in the second half Ballyduff scored 2 points to put them ahead for the last time Trevor Curran equalised and Oliver Costello put us ahead from a wonderful strike. John Hearne got caught retaliating and was sent from the field. All the Stradbally players now rose their game another notch and held Ballyduff to only one point in this period. Niall Curran got the final score of the game to leave Stradbally 2 points in front at the final whistle. Kevin Coffey replaced Liam O'Brien with 10 minutes to go and he used his speed when we were short handed. The second half display was magnificent from all our players. Tom Walsh and Ger Power were magnificent in the last quarter John Coffey was Man of the Match and must surely be brought on to the Waterford panel. Oliver Costello stood out in the full line and got great help from David Power and Kevin Coffey. Paul Kiely can be proud of his performance, George Walsh gave his all and was never beaten Ger Power, when moved to centre field showed why he is so good. Stephen Cunningham covered every blade of grass in Fraher Field and Trevor Costello had his best match of the championship. The full line of Trevor, Niall, and Liam O worked tirelessly and got most of our scores. Over all this was a panel performance with many fine players ready to play their part if asked. Yes I like many a Stradbally supporter enjoyed the win. Hard luck to Ballyduff they will be back they have plenty of talent and will use it wisely in the future.

BENEFIT NIGHT

Do not forget Saturday Night in the Club. This night is in aid of one of our greatest Matty Reilly who departed this world recently. He was one of the 72 winners and also part of the 74 junior hurling success. Come along and support this night.

COUNTY I.F.C. FINAL

Ballinacourty Seek Return To Senior Level

Fresh from their success over Ballyduff last Saturday in the Divisional Final, Ballinacourty journey to Walsh Park on Sunday (3 p.m. throw-in) to take on the eastern champions, De La Salle. Courty will have the benefit of two championship games in eight days under their belts and this should stand them in good stead. Relegated from the senior grade at the end of last season, Ballinacourty are now only 60 mins. away from a return to the top flight. They defeated Clashmore by a point in the west semi-final and had eight to spare over Ballyduff, last year's junior champions in the final.

Having lost to Dunhill in the 1997 Eastern Final, De La Salle gained sweet revenge this year when they defeated the same opposition by 2-3 to 0-11. That game was played in early October but they have not been idle as they have played at least three games. Ballinacourty have a blend of youth and experience in their side with players of the calibre of Michael Collins, Jimmy Stacey, John Phelan, Derek Hayes, Colin Keane, Laurence Hurney, Jonathan Moore, team captain John Organ along with John Foley and Garry Hurney who between them scored four goals last Saturday. De La Salle will enter the game as slight favourites but Ballinacourty have the players capable of winning the title and retaining their place in the senior grade.

UNDER-21 (B) FOOTBALL FINAL

St. Mary's (East) will be hoping to complete the second leg of Co. Under age Football Double at Walsh Park on Sunday next when they take on St. Oliver's in the Co. U-21 (B) Football Championship Final. Mary's won the Minor equivalent last weekend and will be strongly fancied to complete the double. St. Oliver's are now a major force at Juvenile level in West Waterford with a very important and well organised set up. Many of their players would have been involved with Geraldines last Sunday and will be anxious to get a win in this one.

WATERFORD LADIES FOOTBALL NOTES

Waterford Continue Their Unbeaten Run

Waterford 6-14 All Stars 3-10

Waterford continued their 1998 unbeaten run when they demolished an All Star selection on Sunday last at Leamybrien. Playing a fluent, exciting brand of football, they were superior all over the field and a four minute blitz in the closing stages of the first half put them on the way.

The All Star selection included five Monaghan players and a couple from Meath but they never gelled. Despite early points from Deirdre Nagle and Mary O'Donnell, Waterford trailed by 0-3 to 0-2 after 15 mins. An Edel Byrne goal seemed to trigger a reaction.

Julie Torpey stormed upfield to score a replica of her effort against Mayo last September and within 2 mins. Geraldine O'Ryan and Rebecca Hallahan lashed home two further goals. Two great points by Deirdre Nagle and another from Hallahan gave Waterford a 3-7 to 1-5 half-time lead.

Angie Walsh and Marion Troy came on for the second half and the All Star staged a revival. Christine O'Brien and Christine Heffernan shot goals and by the 38th min. just a point separated the teams. A Geraldine O'Ryan point was followed by a gem of a goal from Mary O'Donnell. Within a minute Aine Wall found the net and the superior fitness of Waterford was beginning to tell. Martina O'Regan (twice) and Rebecca Hallahan fired over further points before the best move of the game put Mary O'Donnell in for Waterford's 6th goal. In addition Waterford hit the bar twice and the post and ran out very convincing winners.

Bridget Hannigan, Marion Troy, Angie Walsh and Aine Ryan all got a game and did well enough to suggest that competition for places is likely to be fierce whilst those so called old timers showed that there's plenty of life left in them yet.

Waterford - S. Hickey, B. Hannigan, S. O'Ryan, N. Walsh, A. Crotty, D. O'Rourke, J. Torpey (1-0), M. O'Ryan (0-3), C. Casey, R. Hallahan (1-2), M. O'Donnell (2-1), D. Nagle (0-3), A. Wall (1-1), C. Ryan, J. O'Ryan (1-3). Subs: M. Troy (0-1), A. Walsh, A. Ryan.

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

On Sunday next Ballymacarbray make the long trip to Cahercon (Mayo) for the All-Ireland club semi-final. Ballymac' will be attempting to qualify for their 12th All-Ireland Club Final in 14 years. They are playing well at the moment and no doubt Bridget Grant will ensure that there's no touch of complacency. It's a game they should win.

WESTERN CHAMPIONS

Ballinacourty intermediate footballers captured the Western Championship title at the wind swept Ardmore venue on Saturday afternoon last when they carved out a fine victory over last year's County junior champions Ballyduff on a 4-6 to 0-9 scoreline.

This was a very solid team effort in which each and every player played his part to the full in a very important victory for our club. Just what a championship success really means was emphasised once again on Saturday evening last when several overseas exiles phoned to know how the lads had got on. Attention now turns to preparing for the upcoming County Final against highly rated eastern champions, De La Salle who have really impressed in their last two outings against no less an opposition than Kilmacthomas and Dunhill.

COUNTY FINAL ON SUNDAY NEXT

The County Intermediate Football Final goes ahead at Walsh Park on Sunday next when Ballinacourty play eastern champions De La Salle at Walsh Park with a 3 p.m. throw in and it's now up to each and every player to pull out that little bit extra that will most certainly be required in this County Final.

All in the club extends best wishes to John Organ and his fellow players, team mentors Pat Moore, Pakie Hurney and Sean McGrath. Ballinacourty have displayed steady improvement in each of their three championship games to date and once again support will be important at Walsh Park on Sunday next.

After the game the players/team officials will travel back to Clonea Strand Hotel for a meal. Incidentally Clonea Strand Hotel owner, John McGrath captained the Ballinacourty team which won the 1965 County Intermediate Football title and the hotel are sponsoring a set of togs for Sunday's final while the Village Inn (Matt Organ) are sponsoring a set of socks. Our thanks to both for their support.

COMMITTEE MEETING

The club committee meets at the Parish Office on this Thursday night at 8.30.

DÉISE DEVELOPMENT DRAW

The Déise Development Draw Sub Committee continues to meet on Tuesday nights at the club pavilion at 8 p.m. and all sellers are requested to hand in sold tickets and returns in order that the up to date position can be assessed.

ON THE WHISTLE

Pat Moore was in charge of the whistle at Semple Stadium on Sunday last in the S.E.L. fixture between Tipperary and Limerick.

LOYAL SERVICE

Rain, hail or snow Jimmy O'Leary is on hand to open up the club dressing rooms for training each evening and it's such loyal service that helps our club to progress.

SCHOOLS

Congratulations to Scoil Gharbháin and teacher Sylvia Ní Murchú on an outstanding win over Coolnasmeear/Kilbrien in the 'C' Final in Fraher Field on Saturday evening.

In the 'A' Final Scoil Mhuire, Abbeyside had to give best to St. Mary's, Dungarvan in a very enjoyable final by the narrowest of margins. The players responded excellently to this coaching from teachers Eddie O'Halloran and Tom Walsh.

INDOOR HURLING

The attendances at our first night of indoor hurling exceeded all expectations. We continue with the same arrangement for next Friday night.

Munster Colleges Hurling Quarter Final

Thurles C.B.S. 5-13 Dungarvan C.B.S. 2-2

Dungarvan CBS's dreams of reaching the Dean Ryan Cup under-16 and a half semi-final were crushed by a powerful second half performance by Thurles C.B.S. at Clonmel last Wednesday. Dungarvan CBS fought hard in the first half and trailed by only two points 1-4 to 1-2 at half time. The local CBS got off to a great start with a John Myles goal in the second minute. While Dungarvan struggled over the first twenty minutes, they finished the half strongly with two points from Christopher Morrissey frees.

The early stages of the second half were evenly contested but Thurles took complete control in the final twenty minutes to launch wave after wave of attacks and build up a big lead.

This was a disappointing performance by Dungarvan, quite a number of key players were well below form, yet there were some fine displays on the Waterford side. Raymond Connery was steady in goal. The full back line of Denis Coffey, John Ahearne and Brian Flynn played well. Each of the halfbacks worked hard with Willie Kiely being most impressive. Stephen Sheridan battled hard at mid-field, while up front, Philip Beausang at centre forward had an outstanding first half. Sean Kiely at wing back hurled well throughout the match but faced Thurles' best player and also worked hard when moved to the attack, snatching a consolation goal.

Scorers for Dungarvan C.B. S.: John Myles 1-0; Sean Kiely 1-0; Christopher Morrissey 0-2 (frees).

Dungarvan C.B. S. team: Raymond Connery (St. Olivers), Denis Coffey (Naomh Bríd), John Ahearne (Naomh Bríd), Brian Flynn (Kilgobinet/Colligan), Raymond Kirby (Dungarvan), Willie Kiely (Kilgobinet/Colligan), Sean Kiely (Abbeyside), Stephen Sheridan (Dungarvan) (capt.), Christopher Morrissey (Brickey Rangers), Donal O Murchadha (Gaeltacht), Philip Beausang (Ardmore), Gearóid Breathnach (Gaeltacht), Jimmy Moore (Abbeyside), John Myles (Naomh Bríd), Sean Dempsey (Naomh Bríd).

Subs — Pat Veale (Dungarvan) for Donal O Murchadha (35 mins.), Eddie Fitzpatrick (Dungarvan) for John Myles (40 mins.)

CLUB LOTTO

This week we again had huge interest in the club lotto which took place at Paddy Mac's Bar. The numbers drawn were 8-9-16 and once again we had no matching ticket which means a bigger prize next week. Our five consolation winners were Ber Harty, Main St., Ardmore; Peggy Dunne, College Rd., Ardmore; Vanessa Hennessey, College Rd., Ardmore. Our thanks once again to Paddy Mac and his staff for their cooperation and we look forward to our next visit. Next week we go to Fleming's Bar in Grange as the Cliffe House Hotel bows out again until Spring when they reopen. We hope Eddie and Eileen Irwin enjoy their Winter break and we thank them for their help during the year.

SPECIAL CLUB MEETING

A special club meeting will be held on Thursday 19th November and all club members are asked to attend. As this will be the final club meeting of the year all players are also requested to attend.

DEISE DRAW

The tickets for the Christmas Deise Draw are now on sale and we would urge all of our members and supporters to support us by buying a ticket for this once off draw which has some marvellous prizes which we will list next week for your benefit. It costs a huge amount of money to keep teams on the road, and this draw gives your own supporters the chance to show your appreciations for the enjoyment given during the year, and also offers you a chance to win valuable prizes.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The AGM of the Club will be held on Friday night, December 4th in the Clubhouse with a 7.00 pm start. We will return to this important event in the next week or two but for now this is just a mention to make sure to keep December 4th free in your diary so you can attend this decision making meeting.

MINOR HURLING DIVISIONAL FINAL

The long awaited Minor Final between ourselves and Stradbally looks set to go ahead on Sunday afternoon next. Please consult the fixtures list elsewhere in the paper for the time and venue but suffice to say that we wish the very best of luck to all the lads as they try to complete a Football/Hurling Minor Double. We are sure that they will give this final their best shot against a Stradbally side who are currently on a hurling revival with their adult side regaining Senior status on Sunday last. So, they will be entering the fray as firm favourites. If our lads can take their scores then we could give a good account of ourselves and hopefully on Sunday evening another Cup will be on its way to the village. We urge all of our supporters to come out and give the lads every encouragement in their quest for victory.

Hopefully the long period without a game will not affect us too much with the break also giving Declan Prendergast an outside chance of playing in the Final.

UNDER14 'A' FOOTBALL

The U-14 A Divisional Final looks set to take place on Saturday next with Dungarvan providing the opposition. Again the time or venue have not been announced at the time of writing, so please check with the officers or team mentors, Denis Conway or Frankie North regarding the time and venue for this final.

The lads will be looking forward to the game, with Dungarvan certain to provide strong opposition. Once again we urge all of the parents to make a special effort to come along and support the lads as they try to capture this title. Hopefully everyone will be fit to play which should give the mentors a few options if things do not work out. We will be looking to these stars of the future to show the way and hopefully on Saturday evening team captain, Patrick Trihy will be leading the lads back to the Village with a victory under their belts and a place in the County Final.

BALLINACOURTY DEFEAT BALLYDUFF

The Intermediate Football Divisional Final was staged in Ardmore on Saturday last. It was another terrible day weather wise but once again the field was in excellent shape which helped the classier Ballinacourty forwards string together some fine moves which resulted in goals being scored. Each side scored 10 times but the goals were the difference and Ballinacourty are now just one step away from a quick return to Senior ranks.

INTERCOUNTY ACTIVITY

The County U-16 Footballers will be in action in the "John O' Donovan Cup" on Saturday next in Limerick where they will play two games. We will have Billy Harty and Niall Hennessey in the travelling party and hopefully they will come through unscathed for our hurling game the following day. Billy Harty (Snr) is the team manager and we wish all the Waterford Party the very best of luck in this prestigious competition.

SENIORS AWAY TO CAVAN

The County Senior footballers made the long journey to Breffni Park in Cavan for their second game in the league and hopefully club player Michael Supple will be in the travelling party. This will be a difficult assignment against the former Ulster Champions and will be another step in the learning process for Waterford who are now under the guidance of John Cummins. It will take a while to improve Waterford but patience and perseverance must be the order of the day along of course with dedication and commitment from the players.

MARY SHINES IN ALL STAR GAME

Once again Mary O'Donnell had another fine outing for the Waterford Senior Ladies as they defeated an All Star selection in Leamybrien on Sunday last. Mary scored 2-1 from centre forward which was a great return from this talented 16 year old.—PRO.

Clashmore G.A.A. Club Notes

LOTTO

No winner of last week's jackpot. Numbers drawn were 2-13-15-17. Consolation prize of £10 to each of the following; Richie Dee, Clashmore; Billy Lynch, Newtown; Louise Hallahan, Monatrea; Michael Fenton, Clashmore; Kieran Gleeson, Grange. Next week's draw takes place in the Old Mill, Piltown on Monday 16th November at 10.30 pm sharp. Next week's jackpot is a whopping £3,400. Tickets available from usual sellers and outlets.

U-21 HURLING

On last Saturday in Abbeyside we made our exit from the Western U-21 Hurling Championship when we were beaten by Colligan, and never looked like getting the upper hand on a much stronger Colligan team. After playing with a gale force wind in the first half we found ourselves behind at half-time after conceding two rather soft goals. Score at half-time was Clashmore 0-10 Colligan 2-5.

In the second half we played much better but our forwards were unable to breach the Colligan defence. Colligan scored 1-7 to our 0-3 in the second half.

Team; Seamus Budds, Shane Allen, Noel McGrath, Declan Hickey, Barry Dunne, Paudie Allen, Roger Ryan, Stephen Barron, Ed Beresford (0-10, 0-4 65' and 0-6 frees), Michael Cliffe, Karl O'Keefe, Michael Ryan, Seamus O'Rourke (0-2), Mark Power and Gerry O'Rourke (0-1). Subs; Philip Dee for Michael Ryan. Arthur Walsh, Christopher Coughlan, Mitch Baker, Pat Collins. This game ended all our championship aspirations for 1998. Overall 1998 was a most disappointing year on the playing fields as we failed to deliver on our early season form. Hopefully 1999 will see us land some championship silverware.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

No date as yet for the Division 1 Hurling League Final against Abbeyside. Hopefully this game will take place before the season closes.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

DEISE DRAW

Tickets are now available from any committee member for the Deise Draw which takes place in Dungarvan on the 18th December. With over £25,000 prize money tickets are great value at £20 each.

LADIES CLUB

The Junior Ladies had a good win in the league championship on Saturday in Clashmore. The visitors on this occasion were Dunhill. Clashmore had first use of the very strong wind and built up a big lead in the first half. In the second half stout defending by our ladies limited the Dunhill forwards and on the few attacks we had our forwards tagged on scores. Our girls are at least through to the play off's and indeed could go directly through to the Co. Final if other results go their way.

Team; B. Lombard, F. O'Rourke, S. O'Rourke, A. Barron, A. Beresford, D. O'Rourke, C. Dower, C. O'Keefe, M. Foley, M. O'Rourke, A. M. Casey, M. Casey, A. Sweeney, L. O'Brien. Subs used, M. Hickey, L. Hallahan and H. O'Neill.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

Apathy

Recently, Co. Bord na nÓg circulated in the region of 90 clubs (adult and juvenile) in Waterford seeking nominations for County Minor Hurling Selectors for 1999. Only 9 clubs returned nomination papers and a total of six people were nominated. For a county that reached this year's All-Ireland SHC semi-final, losing narrowly to Kilkenny, this shows a total lack of interest in the affairs of our county under age teams.

It is only six years ago that Waterford contested the All-Ireland minor hurling final (losing to Galway) and in the same year (1992) that the Deise hurlers won the All-Ireland under-21 title after a replay in Nowlan Park against Offaly.

Bord na nÓg have recommended the names of 3 candidates to Co. Adult Board for ratification at the November monthly meeting on the 30th. These are Jim Greene, Peter Power and Jack Laffan.

S.H. CHAMPIONSHIP

Erin's Own Stay Up

ERIN'S OWN 0-11 DUNHILL 1-1

City side Erin's Own had 7 points to spare over Dunhill in the Tedcastles Oil SHC relegation play-off replay at Clonea on Sunday afternoon. Dunhill will now participate in the Eastern intermediate championship next season. Dunhill were a strong force in the senior championship in the seventies and eighties and their case was not helped this year when Michael White transferred to Mt. Sion.

Referee: P. Walsh (Fourmilewater).

OIREACHTAS HURLING

Waterford travel to Parnell Park on Saturday afternoon to play Dublin in their final game of the Oireachtas tournament. In their 2 games to date Waterford lost to Tipperary in Dungarvan and defeated Antrim in Belfast. A win on Saturday is of paramount importance to keep what is largely an experimental side in recent weeks on a winning roll. It is expected that the Mt. Sion players will not be available on Saturday as they are playing the Clare champions in the Munster Club semi-final eight days later.

Waterford Hurlers Win Again

WATERFORD 3-7
KILKENNY 0-11

Two goals from Michael White helped Waterford record their second successive win in the Waterford Crystal South East Senior Hurling League when they had 5 points to spare over Kilkenny at St. John's Park, Kilkenny on Sunday.

Waterford had a dream start when White goaled after only 5 minutes while a late first half goal from John Meaney saw the winners lead by 2-2 to 0-6 at the break. White's second goal came 13 minutes into the second half when a mishit free by Dave Bennett was turned into the net by the alert Mount Sion clubman to put Waterford 3-4 to 0-8 in front. This score put Waterford firmly on course for a place in the concluding stages of the league.

Dave Bennett contributed five of Waterford's points from play and frees.

Scorers — Waterford: M. White 2-1, D. Bennett 0-5, J. Meaney 1-0, S. Daly 0-1; Kilkenny: A. Lawlor 0-4, J. Dooley, D. Buggy, and H.

Sheflin 0-2 each, B. Phelan 0-1.

Waterford — S. Brenner, G. Breen, G. Harris, B. Flannery, P. Walsh, E. Burke, R. McGrath, C. Fanning, D. Bennett, M. White, S. Daly, T. Carroll, J. Meaney, A. Kirwan, B. Browne. Subs., A. Lannon for Meaney, T. Flynn for McGrath, B. Henley for Kirwan.

Kilkenny — J. McGarry, T. Henderson, S. Doyle, L. McEvoy, M. Bookie, D. Dooley, J. Carroll, S. Dowling, P. Mullally, A. Lawlor, J. Dooley, B. Phelan, H. Sheflin, A. Cleere, D. Buggy. Subs., C. Phelan for Dooley, D. Maher for Phelan, M. O'Neill for S. Dowling.

Referee: D. Murphy (Wexford).

EASY WIN FOR TIPP

Elsewhere in the league, Tipperary hammered Limerick by 4-19 to 0-9 in Thurles in a game refereed by Pat Moore. Tipperary remain unbeaten under new manager Nicholas English. The Cork v. Waterford game was postponed as the Leinster side were playing Kerry in the Oireachtas.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

The November monthly County Board meeting has been deferred to Monday, November 30th in Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan at 7.30 p.m. There will be no December meeting due to Convention.

Railway Cup

Eight Waterford players were in the Munster starting line-up for last Sunday's Railway Cup hurling clash with Leinster at Nowlan Park. The Munster side were rocked before the game when the 4 Clare representatives withdrew from the team.

The Waterford players were Brendan Landers, Stephen Frampton, Sean Cullinane, Fergal Hartley, Brian Greene, Tony Browne, Paul Flynn and Dan Shanahan, while Brian Flannery, Dave Bennett, Billy O'Sullivan and Anthony Kirwan were amongst the substitutes.

Lismore's Jimmy O'Gorman was a member of the Munster Selection Committee.

Convention News

Convention in Waterford will take place in December this year, with the County Adult get-together on Saturday, December 12th in Dungarvan. Nominations close on Tuesday, December 1st.

Reports circulating at present seem to indicate that at least one County Adult officer is stepping down. The Western Board will hold their annual event on Thursday, December 10 with nominations to be submitted to Runai, Anthony Walsh by Thursday, November 19th.

Meanwhile a number of changes are expected at Bord na nÓg level at both County and Divisional Boards. In the East, Secretary Tim O'Byrne and Vice-Chairman Mossy Clifford are not seeking re-election, while John Jackson is stepping aside as PRO in the West and he has also acted as Secretary while Eddie O'Shea has been indisposed. Co. Bord na nÓg Convention takes place on Tuesday, December 1st, with the Western equivalent on Friday, November 27th.

Brickeys Lose Out In Co. Minor Football Final

ST. MARYS 3-12 BRICKEY RANGERS 0-11

A physically stronger St. Marys proved too strong for Brickey Rangers in the County Minor (B) football championship final at Portlaw on Saturday. Brickeys trailed by 2 points at half time (1-5 to 1-6), the St.

Marys goal coming from Paudie Hubbard in the 23rd minute and it being of a fortuitous nature.

The loss of key player James Cooney with a leg injury before the game was a major blow to the Western representatives. Seventeen minutes into the second half a Derek Hearne goal gave the winners a 2-11 to 0-6 lead and Marys top player, Michael Ahearne, had their third seven minutes later. A brace of points from Mark Nugent and Bob O'Brien saw Brickeys finish with a flourish.

Scorers for Brickeys were — M. Nugent 0-5, B. O'Brien 0-3, B. Kinsella 0-2, J. O'Reilly 0-1. Referee: J. Power, Kilrossanty.

SENIOR FOOTBALL

Ring Retain Senior Status

RING 0-9 DUNGARVAN 0-7

At the Colligan venue on Saturday afternoon, Ring footballers ensured that they will play in the senior grade next season when they had 2 points to spare over neighbours Dungarvan.

The Old Boro side still have another chance to stay senior as they will now play the losers of the Kill/Butlerstown tie which was postponed last weekend due to St. Marys involvement in the Minor (B) final.

Under-21 Hurling (B) Championship

COLLIGAN 3-12 CLASHMORE 0-13

At Abbeyside on Saturday, a strong second half performance saw Colligan advance to the Divisional U-21 (B) hurling championship final against Stradbally or St. Olivers. The sides were level at half time (Colligan 2-5, Clashmore 0-11), but Colligan, playing with wind advantage, added 1-7 in the second period, restricting the opposition to two points. Referee: J. M. Kelly (Shamrocks).

G.A.A. NOTES

Surviving members of the Waterford 1938 senior hurling team along with members of the 1948 minor and senior All Ireland hurling title winners and Munster junior football champions of the same year pictured with County G.A.A. Board Chairman, Paddy Joe Ryan at a special banquet in their honour in Lawlors Hotel, Dungarvan. All surviving members were presented with a Waterford Crystal Clock (sponsored by Waterford Crystal Ltd.) and included the following 1938 team — Willie Barron (Dungarvan) and Doyle Walsh (Portlaw); 1948 senior hurlers — John Cusack (Clonea), Tom Curran (Dungarvan), Johnny O'Connor (Abbeyside), Ned Daly (Lismore), Michael Hayes (Butlerstown), Kevin O'Connor (Erin's Own) and Andy Fleming (Mount Sion). ## JUNIOR FOOTBALL COUNTY FINAL

Kilrossanty Take On Ferrybank At Walsh Park

As far as I am aware, John Mitchells were the last "second string" football team to win the county championship about 25 years or so ago, and it will be very interesting now to see if their forebears, Kilrossanty can manage to repeat the achievement. This has been an odd year for Kilrossanty with success in both their junior grades and their senior side losing by a solitary point to St. Saviours.

It is now 61 years since Kilrossanty won the junior football championship, due mainly to the fact that they have been concentrating on the senior grade. Amazingly, four of the team who won the title back in 1937, are still around and are all hale and hearty.

Pat Veale (who celebrated his 90th birthday in January of this year) also played on their 1926 team. The others are his brother Michael Veale (Dykie) Monnie Guiry and John Kett. All four won senior championship with Kilrossanty in later years.

This season, Kilrossanty have an exceptionally good second team and succeeded in overcoming some strong opposition to win the Western title. In very poor conditions, they overpowered Emmetts in the final.

They are unlikely to change from the team, which won them the western championship.

Ferrybank, who won their divisional title when defeating Rathgormack at Walsh Park on Saturday, are reported as being a strong and lively team who, like Kilrossanty up here, had to overcome strong opposition to take the divisional title.

Ferrybank are around since the beginning of the century and until the seventies their success related to hurling, they having supplied many fine players to the county team in the senior grade.

In 1979 they lost to Ballinacourty in the senior county final and again in 1983 they were beaten by a single score by Kilrossanty in the senior football county final.

Given a fine day, this could be a very enjoyable final. It is a very open game and either side can win. I think that Ferrybank will need to have a lot of luck on their side if they are to beat Kilrossanty, if the western champions play as well as they have been doing in their last four or five matches up here.

SENIOR HURLING

Oireachtas Clash With Dublin

This will be our third match in the Oireachtas competition and it is fixed for Parnell Park on Saturday next.

So far we have gained nothing from this competition. Our first game was against Antrim and there was such a gap between the teams that it could only be described as a mismatch that cost the county about three and a half thousand pounds. Our next outing was against a very enthusiastic Tipperary team under their new management and this also could be described as a mismatch, because here we could offer only token resistance and were very well beaten. The crowd on this occasion was big, but the match was a disappointment.

At the time of writing, I don't know if a full panel will be available, but I consider it doubtful as the Mount Sion players are likely to be rested because of their engagement with the Clare champions at Walsh Park on the following Sunday. The selectors are likely to give as many players as possible on the panel a run during the competition.

Fourmilewater Celebrate

To commemorate the winning of their first minor hurling county championship twenty-five years ago (1973), the club are holding a celebration function at the Oriel Bar in Ballymacarbry on Saturday night next, November 14th. Invitations have been sent to all board officers.

Provincial Championship Draws

All eyes and ears will be glued to televisions on Sunday night next for the 1999 hurling and football championship draws, which are being made Live after the News.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Waterford Take On Cavan In Breffni Park

Waterford footballers make the long journey to Breffni Park in Cavan for their second round match with the highly rated Connacht team. Because of the journey involved, it is likely that the team will travel overnight.

Having been defeated by Wexford in their first game, Waterford are unlikely to win the points here, but the panel will learn from the game and avail of the outing as part of their ongoing preparation for the championship, which may operate on a round-robin system and give teams like Waterford a better chance, as we saw in minor football already this year. So far, the selectors have had little chance to work with the team and all the players who would likely join their panel, are not available, due to club championship ties.

Most of the players who played against Wexford were on the panel last year and there are newcomers from the younger age bracket, so with a mixture of youth and experience, they may not do all that badly in the league.

Cavan hit the big time in 1996 under Martin McHugh when they got to the All-Ireland semi-final, so with such a gap in standards, we can hardly look forward to a win on this occasion.

Club Leadership Course

The club Leadership courses which were run so successfully in the Spring, are due to resume next week at several centres around the south.

The first of the Autumn sessions here will commence at Lawlors Hotel on Tuesday 17th. and the second for the group will be held a week later on November 24th. Each of the two weekly sessions will take two hours and the club officers (three from each club) will be issued with an amount of back-up literature.

The clubs involved and notified are: Ardmore, Abbeyside, Fourmilewater, Ballyduff and Shamrocks (all West) and Mount Sion, Ballygunner, Tramore, Dunhill and Kill;

The second Autumn course will take place on Tuesday, December 1st and on Tuesday, December 8th.

Clubs involved in this course will be Clashmore, Nire, Lismore, Ballysaggart and Kilgobnet (West) and Butlerstown, Passage, Ballyduff East, Clonea and Roanmore. The courses are designed to improve club administration and according to a feedback from the first courses, they are doing this in a big way.

Sideline Problems

At two recent fixtures at the Fraher Field, linesmen reported of having difficulty in judging if a ball had crossed the sidelines because of the absence of the regular white line. The marked lines were in place and very clearly visible before the programme started, but because of being trampled on by club mentors, club officers, etc., they were wiped out at a very early stage. This added to the problems of the match officials and the board executive have now announced that action will be taken and if necessary, penalties will be imposed on clubs who fail to keep their officials in the allotted dugout.

Also in the matter of control at games in Fraher Field, it is important to again refer to the control of children who come to the ground accompanied by parents or minders. The safety of such children are the total responsibility of the parents/minders and not of the Board or field committee. It must be said that the majority of children who frequent the stand are kept under control by their caring parents, etc., but there are always the few who are allowed to expose themselves to danger and accident.

Get Well Wishes

We are delighted to learn that popular county and divisional board juvenile secretary, Eddie O'Shea is making a splendid recovery from his recent illness. There has been no more hard working official than Eddie and in wishing him a speedy recovery, we are doing so on behalf of every juvenile club and official in the county.

WELL DONE LISMORE UNDER-21 HURLERS

Fair play to the western champs on a marvellous under-21 County Final victory over a fancied Mount Sion team on Sunday week last. In any final everyone must play well and a few must have 'blinders'. This certainly was the case here with the 'big guns' firing regular volleys. Three titles in a row can't be bad. Well done to all concerned.

Well done to the officials of Cumann Na mBunscoil Portláirge on their great win for Best Overall Public Relations in Ireland and especially to P.R.O., Seamus Fitzgerald.
