Local Teenager Excels At Galway Races

TOM QUEALLY

Fifteen year old Tom Queally of Cappagh, Dungarvan became the youngest ever rider to win a major race at the prestigious Galway Races last week.

Son of Declan and Bernie Queally (nee Power), Tom rode a brilliant race from start to finish to win the £70,000 McDonagh Handicap in style.

To cap off his successful outing, Tom also rode a winner in the Compaq Software Acquisition Handicap and was placed fourth in the Compaq Installation Handicap the next day.

Despite his obvious youth, the teenager has a wealth of racing experience. He was declared the national pony racing champion last year having ridden over 40 winners and was also one of the twelve finalists nominated for the 1999 Pat Noctor Young Sports Star award in Dungarvan. The Cappagh jockey has only been riding on the track for four months and had six successes prior to Galway.

His father Declan is a member of the well known Queally family of Barracree, Ballinamult who have been very involved in hunting and point-to-point meetings over the years. Tom's mother Bernie hails from 'The Hill', Kilmacthomas where his grandmother, the late Anne Power was well known in greyhound and horse-racing circles.

Although attached to Pat Flynn's stables in Rathgormack, Tom rode the McDonagh Handicap on

Hollywood Honeymoon Rumours At Lismore Castle

The scenic setting of Lismore Castle was last week rumoured to be the honeymoon location of Hollywood newly weds Brad Pitt and Jennifer Aniston.

As speculation spread celebrity hunters, fans and even a letter arrived at the 12th century castle. The letter, addressed to Brad Pitt & Jennifer Aniston c/o Lismore Castle, had a 'please do not bend' sticker attached.

Growing rumours however were quickly dispelled by the manager of Lismore Estates Michael Penruddock who said the Hollywood heart-throb didn't even make an enquiry about staying at Lismore Castle.

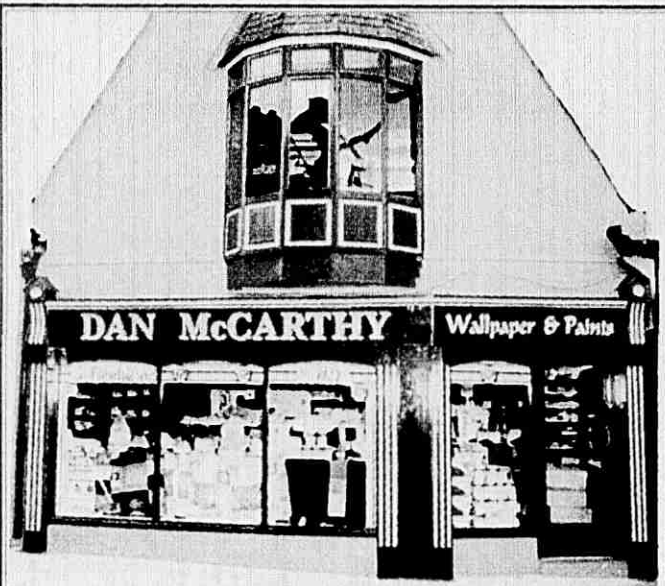

'Not known at this address' was promptly written on the A4 envelope and it was returned to the local post office.

Kite Surfing Hits County Waterford

World renowned kite surfer Ben Hanbury visited Co. Waterford last weekend to offer personal coaching on all aspects of the latest adrenalin sport of kite surfing. Ranked ninth in the world, Ben stopped off in Tramore on Saturday where he met with kite surfing fans from all over the county. Kite surfing looks as though it is going to be seen a lot more around our beaches and it is being heralded as a new sport for a new millennium. Surfers are connected 30 metres below a large kite and hold onto a control bar. They literally fly through the air before touching down and surfing on, pulled by the kite to a new launch zone. The sport draws on a vast array of other sports including surfing, power kiting, skateboarding and snow boarding.

 Tuesday 1st August, for Jim Bolger on board the impressive 'Tushna'. Off the home turn, he cleverly kicked for home and it was the decisive move. In his post race interview with Tracey Piggott, the young jockey came across extremely well, remaining cool and confident after his emphatic victory.

On Wednesday, Tom entertained the crowds once more in the Compaq Acquisition Handicap when riding 'She's Wonderful' to victory by two and a half lengths. Just over an hour later the youngster was aboard 'Springfield Guest' in the Compaq Installation Handicap in which he came home a creditable fourth.

LISMORE JOCKEY 2ND IN PLATE

Meanwhile in the Galway Plate Handicap Chase, Lismore jockey Ken Whelan rode second placed 'Monty's

Pass' for the Waterford based Dee's Syndicate. Owner Jimmy Mangan from Conna, outside Tallow, was thrilled yet disappointed after 'Monty's Pass' came home second. He won the Plate three years ago with 'Stroll Home'.

Pretty Wedding

Linda Byrne, Dungarvan Road, Cappoquin and Eddie Lyons, Bagenalstown, Co. Carlow, who were married recently at St. Andrews Church, Bagenalstown. Fr. Murphy officiated. The reception was held in the Lord Bagnal, Co. Carlow.

Admitting to be "entirely baffled" by the rumour, Mr. Penruddock told the Examiner last Friday that he would be delighted to play host to America's golden couple, who were recently married at a star studded California bash.

The Pitts would be given the Duchess's Suite with a minimum price tag of £2,500 a night, including B&B, dinner, afternoon tea and laundry service. The price includes accommodation for a party of up to twelve.

Brad most recently starred in the box office hit 'The Fight Club' and is also noted for his performances in 'Legend of the Falls', 'Interview With a Vampire', 'Twelve Monkeys', and 'Meet Joe Black' among others. His wife Jennifer also needs no introduction starring in the hit 'Friends' series.

Brad's name was previously linked with the sale of Kilmeaden House while two years ago the actor paid a visit to Co. Waterford with his parents and a large group of Americans. While staying in the area, Brad visited the well known Marine Bar in Pulla where he and the group enjoyed a traditional Irish night with host Christy O'Neill.

Pitt followers however will have to look elsewhere for the newly weds - the fuss is all a mystery to locals in Lismore.

Head gardener at Lismore Castle flower gardens said last year the rumours centred on Jack Nicholson staying at the castle which again attracted crowds of celebrity hunters.

Abbeyside Reference Archive

MINERALS

No, a rich lady did not donate her diamond necklace the the archive and so add to our treasure trove.

A man gave us a white piece of cardboard eight inches by six inches. On one side it contains six minerals Malachite from Lynagh Mine, Co. Galway; fluorite from the Burren Co., Clare, galena from the Wicklow mountains; sphalerite from Silvermines, Co. Tipperary; Talc from Westport, Co. Mayo and Calcite from Mallow, Co. Cork.

On the reverse, the cardboard contains a map of Ireland with 25 sites marked where various minerals are to be found.

This Sunday evening Ann Allridge will be at the Parish office minding our minerals and all the other treasures. Admission is free and seating is provided.

THE HUMAN BODY

FOOD AND DIGESTION

Every year, an average person eats about half a tonne of food. But we do not put on half a tonne of weight! We need to eat so much because there is a constant turnover within the body. Cells wear out and die, and new cells are made to replace them.

The food we eat is broken down, or digested, into its many and various nutrients. Some of these are used as raw materials for growth, body maintenance and repair.

Other nutrients are split apart to release the energy inside them, which is used for moving, breathing and hundreds of other life processes.

Any undigested or leftover bits of food, along with various bodily wastes, are then removed from the body at the end of the digestive process and by excretion.

Since the body is made from the food it eats, a balanced diet of good foods is important for health.

THE DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

The main part of the digestive system is the digestive tract. This is a long tube, some nine meters in total, through the middle of the body. It starts at the mouth, where food and drink enter, and finishes at the anus, where leftover food and wastes leave the body.

Some parts of the tract are wide, such as the stomach. Others are narrow and coiled, like the small intestine. Each part has an important digestive task. Also involved in digestion are the liver and pancreas.

FAST FOOD, SLOW EATING

Thorough chewing mashes any kind of food into a pulp, and makes it easier to digest in the stomach and intestines. Food that is bitten and swallowed with hardly any chewing cannot be digested as well.

TYPES OF TEETH

The adult human body has 32 teeth. The eight chisel-like incisors at the front bite food. The four pointed canines tear and rip it. The eight premolars and twelve molars at the back of the mouth are flattened to crush and chew it.

Before the adult teeth grow, the body has a first or 'milk' set of 20 teeth. These begin to grow soon after birth, and are replaced by the adult teeth from the age of about six or seven years.

All's Well That Ends Well For Helvick Lifeboat Rescues

Lifeboats
Ireland

The RNLI's Atlantic 75 lifeboat from Helvick Head Station was called out on two rescue missions in the past week.

On Wednesday last at 11.15 am the lifeboat launched to assist the 21 ft fishing punt "Suzy" which was fishing half a mile south of Helvick Head. The vessel with its Dungarvan based two man crew was disabled due to contaminated fuel. The lifeboat crewed by helmsmen John Condon, Davy (Skerries) Casey, and Paudi Walsh quickly reached the troubled vessel and towed it to Helvick pier to enable repairs to be carried out. Both skipper and crewman expressed their thanks to the lifeboat crew for their rapid response.

The second call out was over the Bank Holiday weekend when the Helvick Head Lifeboat responded at 4.30 on Monday morning to reports of a man having been seen entering the water at the Lookout in Dungarvan. Due to the strong currents there was great concern for his safety. Lifeboat helmsmen Michael Hayes, Alan Kelly and John Condon guided the RNLI "Alice and Charles" to Dungarvan and undertook an extensive search of the area. The search proving fruitless the lifeboat crew checked some adjacent yachts where lights were showing. Happily the nocturnal swimmer was located on a friends boat quite unaware of the search. The 26 year old male who was in Dungarvan with friends for the weekend expressed his thanks to the RNLI and his regret at having caused such anxiety. With handshakes all round all was well that ended well - this time!

A word of caution to all - Before going into or onto the water - Think first of your safety on the sea.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

QUESTION

I am a pensioner aged 72 on a Non-Contributory Old Age Pension. My husband died last year and I want to sell my house in order to move into a retirement home. I have just found out that the house is worth over £120,000. Will the money I get from the sale affect my pension?

ANSWER

No, if you sell your house and use the proceeds to buy or fund the renting of alternative accommodation or fund the payment of fees to a registered nursing home, the proceeds from the sale, up to a maximum limit of £150,000, may not be counted as means. From 5th July 2000 the maximum limit has been increased to £150,000 (previously it was £75,000).

This exemption applies to people over the age of 66 on noncontributory social welfare pensions. After you have bought or paid for your new accommodation there is a limit of £150,000 on the exemption - any figure above that is taken into account in the usual way. The exemption does not apply to interest earned on the proceeds.

Apart from this exemption other capital such as savings are assessed in the means test for non-contributory social welfare payments. The method for assessing capital will change in October 2000 and will be dealt with in this column next month.

Stradbally Macra na Feirme Notes

DUNGARVAN AGRICULTURAL SHOW 2000

It was that time of year again and the sun shone down on the crowds in Ballygagin for another Dungarvan Show. The majority of the Macra Club turned out for all the events including sports, lady driver, wood chopper challenge, tractor tasks and many more.

The day began early for two of our members - Laura and Finbarr who looked after the gates from 9.00 a.m. to 11.00 a.m. After this, it was straight to work on our club's P.R.O. Board. Many thanks must go to Laura Casey, Finbarr Coffey and Thomas Coffey who competed in the Dungarvan Show. Stradbally was entered in the P.R.O. Board section, tractor tasks and the wood chopper challenge. Congratulations to Finbarr Coffey who came a very close second place in the wood chopper challenge to Ballyduff's Michael O'Donnell.

The Macra arena attracted large crowds throughout the day as did our M.C. on the day - Sean Murphy who did a great job. Many thanks to Liam Hallahan and Martin Kenny for all their effort and hard work on the day.

SHOW DANCE

The highlight of the Macra year - the Dungarvan Show dance took place on Friday night 28th July in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan. It was particularly enjoyable this year for Stradbally as the club scooped it's first major award - "Most improved Club of the Year". As an extra bonus, the club was awarded 3rd place in "Club of the Year" behind Clonea Power and Cappoquin. Many thanks must go to our club chairperson Laura Casey and our club P.R.O. Fintan Coffey for all the hard work and tireless effort they have put into the club over the last year. Many thanks to the guest of honour on the night - Mr. T. J. Maher - Macra president and to the Munster vice-president Irene Moloney for coming along to the Awards night. Congratulations to Clonea Power on winning Club of the Year.

After all the awards had been received and the speeches over, everybody relaxed and danced the night away.

NATIONAL FINALS IN THE 7-ASIDE FOOTBALL

Well done to the men's 7 a-side football team who represented the clubs in the National finals in Tallaght on Sunday 23rd July. Unfortunately, the club did not retain it's title but by all accounts, they did their club and county proud.

TRIP TO OAKWOOD

21 Macra members from around the country travelled to Oakwood in Wales for a very enjoyable day out. Six of the Stradbally club went along and enjoyed themselves immensely. Three of our members - Paul, Robbie and George even attempted the bungee jump.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING 2000

Stradbally Macra will hold it's Annual General Meeting on Friday 11th August at 9.00 p.m. in Whelan's Bar, Stradbally. Would all members please attend this meeting. Our county Training Officer - Margaret Hayes and our club Development Officer Moira Murphy will be attending. At the end of the meeting, it is hoped to take the official club photograph.

Did you know that a search for "Waterford Accommodation" on the internet's top search company only gives three websites as a result.

With so many holidaymakers now choosing the internet to view their potential accommodation before they book, it makes sense that your business should be among the first they see.

Waterford-accommodation.com is a new internet website that will advertise all the best accommodation that is available in Waterford.

It is an ideal opportunity for those of you who realise the importance of a presence on the internet but do not want to dive in at the deep end by having an expensive website of your own.

Waterford-accommodation.com will promote your B&B, hotel or guesthouse with an individual screen showing pictures, text and contact details and will offer people the opportunity to email you directly regarding booking or availability. Now is the time to prepare for the 2001 tourist season.

As an introductory offer we are giving you the opportunity to be one of the first to avail of your own space on the website at a discounted price of £100 for a full year. This offer is for a limited period only.

For more details on this limited offer contact Colin on 086 8522590 or 051 645841 or by email info@waterford-accommodation.com

COOKERY CORNER

Some Like It Hotter

THIS is one to have hot... or hotter! It's up to you - you're in charge of the chilli powder.

Ingredients:

- (Serves 6)
- 450g lean British minced beef
- 1 small onion, finely chopped
- 1 clove garlic, crushed
- Half small red pepper, seeded and finely chopped
- Half small green pepper, seeded and finely chopped
- 1-2 tsp chilli powder
- 1 tbsp tomato ketchup or puree
- 60g fresh wholemeal breadcrumbs
- Black pepper
- 1 egg, beaten
- Plain flour, to shape

FOR THE SAUCE:

- 227g can tomatoes, chopped
- 1 tbsp clear honey
- Dash Tabasco sauce or

- half tsp chilli powder
- 4 spring onions, chopped

Method:

In a large bowl, mix together all the ingredients for the burgers until thoroughly combined. Cover and allow to chill for 15 minutes in a refrigerator.

With lightly floured hands divide mixture into six and make into burgers.

Barbecue or grill for 6-8 minutes each side.

While burgers are cooking make sauce: combine all ingredients in a saucepan, bring to the boil and simmer for approximately 10 minutes until reduced slightly. Serve the burgers with the sauce, wholemeal baps and a mixed salad.

Apple Strudel - It's Irrsistible!

CRISP filo pastry leaves and sweet apples combined make this delicious pudding irresistible.

Ingredients:

- Makes 2 strudels, 6 to 8 servings each
- 8 tart apples, sliced
- 13/4 cups real butter, melted
- 3/4 cup ground almonds
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 3/4 cup raisins
- 1 cup fine bread crumbs
- 200g (1/2 box) filo leaves, thawed
- 2 x 5ml sp cinnamon
- 1 x 15ml sp lemon rind, grated

Method:

Mix the apples with the raisins, lemon rind, sugar, cinnamon, and almonds. Then set aside.

Place one filo leaf on a piece of kitchen roll and brush it with the melted butter. Place a second leaf on top of the first and brush with butter again.

Repeat this process until five leaves have been used, using about 1/2 a cup of the butter.

Cook and stir the breadcrumbs with 1/4 cup of butter until lightly browned. Sprinkle 3/4 cup of the butter-fried breadcrumbs on the layered filo leaves.

Now, mound half of the apple filling in an 8cm strip along the narrow end of the filo, leaving a 5cm border. Lift the kitchen roll, and use it to roll the filo leaves over the apples. Brush the top of the strudel with butter and sprinkle with two 15ml spoonfuls of the buttered breadcrumbs.

Repeat the entire procedure for the second strudel. Bake the strudels at 400°F/180°C for 20 to 25 minutes, until browned.

Serve hot with custard, cream or ice-cream. Be careful when eating as the apple filling will be piping hot.

Arkansas Style Cheesecake

THICK and creamy cheesecake which is quick and easy to make - what are you waiting for?

Ingredients:

- Makes 8 servings
- 1 egg, separated
- 1 x 5ml sp vanilla
- 1 1/2 cup cottage cheese
- 1/8 x 5ml sp salt
- 1/2 cup skimmed milk
- 1/4 pint double cream
- 6 x 15ml sp Angel Delight
- 1 x 15ml sp lemon juice
- 1 x 15ml sp sugar substitute
- 1 packet gelatine

Method:

Take the cottage cheese and cream, and blend until very smooth. Then set aside.

Put the egg yolk in the top of a double boiler and beat well, then add the milk. Next, add the gelatine and salt.

Cook the mixture over boiling water until the gelatine dissolves and the mixture thickens - this will take about 10 minutes. Remove from the heat and add the sugar substitute. Leave to cool.

Add the cottage cheese and cream mixture, lemon juice and vanilla to cooled gelatine mixture.

When thoroughly mixed, chill - stirring occasionally - until the mixture mounds when dropped from a spoon.

Beat the egg white until stiff. Fold the egg white and Angel Delight together, then mix into the cottage cheese mixture.

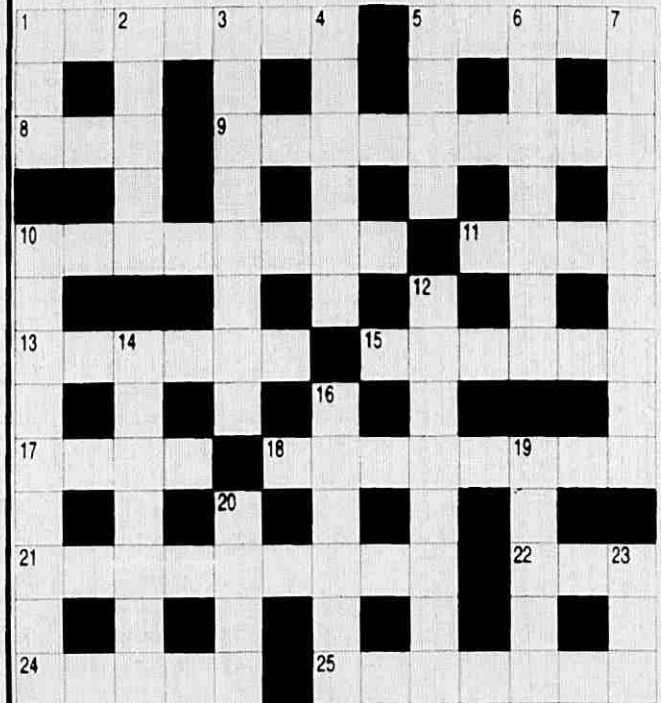

Pour the cheesecake filling into a ready made crust. Or, pour into pie plate and top with crumb topping. To make the crumb topping, crush two digestive biscuits and mix with a pinch of cinnamon and nutmeg.

Serve chilled with whipped cream and fresh fruit.

Health Tips from Remedies

Allium Sativum Also known as Garlic.

USES: high cholesterol, respiratory tract infections.
DESCRIPTION: Garlic is said to be the world's oldest medicine and is still one of the best and most popular herbal remedies. Remains of garlic have been found in caves inhabited 10,000 years ago. A Sumerian clay tablet dating from 3,000 BC records the first garlic prescription.

HOW IT WORKS: It is now recognised that it is the ratio of the various types of cholesterol and fats in the blood, which is more relevant than the totals measured. Garlic reduces the level of low-density lipoproteins (LDL) whilst increasing the levels of high-density lipoproteins (HDL). It has been suggested that an increase in HDL may enhance the removal of cholesterol. Garlic has also a mild action in lowering blood pressure and is well known for its antibiotic properties.

An organic and odourless form of Garlic, is available at

Eigse Sliabh gCua 2000

Eigse Sliabh gCua, the annual West Waterford week-end Festival from 18 - 20th August 2000 to celebrate the many traditions of the area, this year incorporates a number of events commemorating sean-nos singer Labhras O Cadhla, writer and publisher John O Daly of Lickoran and includes an illustrated Coach Tour and a Family Sports evening.

This year's 'Eigse' which will be opened by Waterford County Manager Donal Connolly with a special commemoration of Labhras O Cadhla 'sean nos' singer and teacher, born in Kilbrien and educated in the local school. The occasion will be used for the local launch by RTE's Peter Browne of a CD and Cassette on the RTE label entitled 'Labhras O Cadhla Amhrain o Sliabh gCua'. This valuable collection of songs and speeches gathered from RTE's sound archives is a manifestation of RTE's policy to make their archives accessible to the community.

The sound, originally recorded half a century ago, has been remastered to the highest specification and the comprehensive sleeve notes include a description of the area of Sliabh gCua and its geographical setting, a biography and several photographs of Labhras and the full texts of his songs as transcribed from the original recordings which will be of assistance to any person learning to sing these songs. This new release, produced by Peter Browne, forms part of the highly acclaimed series of traditional music releases from RTE which include Elizabeth Crotty, Denis Murphy, Padraig O'Keefe and Seamus Ennis, is now available on CD or cassette.

Labhras O Cadhla spent most of his working life in Ring College area and retired to Cappoquin where he spent his final years. As a young boy Labhras was taught many songs by his mother, his aunt and the older Irish speakers of his homeland. From this he gained a rich and varied store of songs and poetry many of which stem directly from the cultural milieu of the Sliabh gCua region including the songs of Padraig O Milleadha e.g. 'Sliabh Geal gCua na Feile'. He was an Irish language teacher in the area for many years up to his death in 1961. He was recognised as a superb singer by many including celebrated music collector, Seamus Ennis who believed him to be one of the best he ever heard.

The launch will be followed by a recording by RTE's Radio 1 of a special programme for later transmission using the native talent of Sliabh gCua and district and featuring many local musicians, dancers and singers including the local set dancers.

On Saturday morning there will be a lecture in the Community Hall, Kilbrien on John O'Daly local writer, translator, bookseller and publisher to mark the bicentennial of his birth.

In the afternoon there will be an Illustrated coach tour of places associated with the many traditions and heritage of Sliabh gCua starting from the Touraneena Community Centre. Later there will be open-air dancing in Touraneena village.

The Sunday morning 11 a.m. Mass in Touraneena will commemorate Labhras O Cadhla and John O Daly and all those who made a notable contribution to the Gaelic and Christian heritage of Sliabh gCua. In the afternoon a Commemoration of the life and achievements of the past and those who went before will be celebrated in a cemetery Sunday open air Mass for the dead generations buried in Touraneena.

On Sunday evening a Family

Sports Evening with many novelty events will be held in Kirwan GAA Park, commencing at 6 p.m. followed by a barbeque and dancing in Touraneena. Musicians are welcome and are invited to bring along their instruments and join in the fun.

The local pubs will host special 'Irish Night' features during the festival.

All are welcome to come along and enjoy themselves and to add to the fun and at the same time support local enterprise.

Eigse Sliabh gCua is organised and arranged in conjunction with local committees and the 2000 Millennium Committee as a community effort.

South East Classic Cycle

Saturday, August 19th, the day of our sponsored South East Classic Cycle is fast approaching. There is still time to register with Frank at 058 41376, Richie at 058 56231 or John at 051 646374. It should be an enjoyable, if testing, ride from Dungarvan to Waterford to Clonmel, Cahir and over the Vee by Cappoquin to Dungarvan. Help, if needed will be on hand at all times.

Bucket collectors are needed to collect in the towns en route. If you'd like an enjoyable day out and help a good cause at the same time contact any of the above numbers or any committee member.

An open meeting of the branch was held at the Park Hotel, Dungarvan on Wednesday, July 26th. Most of the meeting was taken up with arrangements for the cycle. Letters have gone out to various companies asking for some sponsorship as it costs quite a bit to run the cycle. We are most grateful to Norvatis, makers of Hydrosan Plus, who have already come in with a major sponsorship.

The cycle will be leaving Grattan Square, Dungarvan at 9.30 am on Saturday August 19th. We look forward to having a good crowd present to see the cyclist on their way.

Aries March 21 to April 20 You now have the energy and the opportunity to redesign your life. This is a time for action. Someone special is set to lend a helping hand. Sing your heart out this week, when you find something going for a song. Finances are stretched but you can make magic with what you have. Enjoy a social event. ☐ 1550 920 257	Taurus April 21 to May 21 Don't let an old jealousy haunt you and ruin an otherwise perfect partnership. Recognise compulsive behaviour and be prepared to talk things through with a good friend. A family mind proves easy to read and you understand. A special secret is set to be revealed. ☐ 1550 920 258	Gemini May 22 to June 21 Be determined and decisive. Avoid sounding vague or making things up as you go. Keep things simple. Indulge in a little of what you fancy and don't feel guilty about it, even when others try to rain on your parade. In work or business, an early start is your key to success. A letter brings good news. ☐ 1550 920 259	Cancer June 22 to July 22 You feel sure and strong about a decision recently made. Don't allow others to cause you to doubt. You are a thoughtful individual and you have given the circumstances much consideration. Ironing out some kinks in a muddled matter may prove to be a tough job. Do your best but don't try to please all. ☐ 1550 920 260
Leo July 23 to August 22 A sharp sense of purpose in the work place is needed. You are no longer prepared to waste time. Insist on clarity. A long awaited message finally arrives. Someone could get you into a tight spot but battle on. As stress factors rise, recognise that you have the ability to cope. ☐ 1550 920 261	Virgo August 23 to Sept 22 It is a time of tempting choices but the options may prove confusing. If in doubt, do without! Especially when shopping. You are in an extravagant mood and prone to over spending. Someone's feelings are stronger than you think! Recognise that others have differing priorities. Finances improve. ☐ 1550 920 262	Libra Sept 23 to Oct 23 An important apology is on its way, allowing an old rift to heal. Concentrate on building bridges rather than walls. A new professional direction proves exciting and gives you a buzz. Being prim and proper doesn't suit you. Break out and hang loose. You have had enough of rules. Assert yourself. ☐ 1550 920 263	Scorpio Oct 24 to Nov 21 Someone wants you to take a gamble, but how much are you prepared to risk? Consider the consequences if you lose but taking a chance could result in a great gain. You are provided with quite an eye opener but you take it in your stride. Use information wisely and keep your cards close to your chest. ☐ 1550 920 264
Sagittarius Nov 22 to Dec 23 Read instructions carefully. You have a tendency to do things your own way - even in situations where you are not qualified! Give a family member peace of mind by sharing your thoughts and aspirations. With your wild and wacky ways you may be giving others cause for concern. Home is where the heart is. ☐ 1550 920 265	Capricorn Dec 24 to Jan 20 In love, it is time to show your partner your daring side. Being spontaneous adds a certain sparkle and sees a special someone positively smitten. In work, be prepared to spell out what you want. Deal with minor worries before they become major concerns. Open and honest communication benefits all. ☐ 1550 920 266	Aquarius Jan 21 to Feb 19 You are entering the success zone &amp; unlikely to fail in any endeavour. Continue to be positive in attitude and recognise that you have the support of those around you. You give others lots to talk about and are certainly turning heads with your individual style. Sporting activities bring fun. ☐ 1550 920 267	Pisces Feb 20 to March 20 Tables are set to turn allowing for a restoration of balance. Insist on fair play in all your dealings. A lucky break comes your way. If you are a little dubious about a certain course of action, hold off. Timing is everything and being too soon or too late could cost you a lot. Forgive a friend who has let you down. ☐ 1550 920 268

Pansies Provide Plenty Of Colour

Fancy growing a few colourful flowers in your garden? Check out the tips below and be the best pansy grower on your street!

Pansies are not hard to grow - you don't even have to worry about cold weather. They love cool winter weather and will go on blooming until the hot weather appears next summer.

They like a really rich, well drained soil. Adding steer manure, your own compost or peat moss will help your soil to become loose and easy to work with.

Poor drainage, planting too deep, planting too close together - any or all of these can cause diseases which will make your plants die.

After you plant your pansies six to eight inches apart, water them in well. Don't fertilize them until later. Always wait a week or so to allow the roots to settle in. Then give them a good dose of Miracle Grow or another good fertilizer.

Cool Customer: Pansies can cope with cold weather

MARIGOLDS: The Facts

- Type: Annual
- Light: Full sun
- Flower colour: Orange and yellow, also mahogany and crimson for French mangolds.
- Soil requirements: Well drained.

Marigolds - they're easy to grow and great to look at!

MARIGOLDS are a gardener's dream come true - beautiful and easy to grow, in one!

Marigolds have a long flowering period. African marigolds have an upright growth and can reach a height of 30-40 inches, while French marigolds grow to only 8-16 inches.

The scent is strong and quite unpleasant, and is effective in repelling many garden pests. African marigolds come in shades of yellow and orange, while French marigolds are often multicolored in shades of orange, yellow, mahogany and crimson.

They are attractive as cut flowers if the scent isn't a problem. Change the water in the vase frequently.

Marigolds can be grown in all but the coldest climates.

Once your marigolds have been planted, water deeply and regularly, especially in hot weather. Mulching between plants will help to conserve moisture.

If you give them an early start, they will bloom throughout summer and autumn. In warmer areas, they will flower into winter. Marigolds are sometimes attacked by whiteflies and mites. Regular hoseings keep pests from becoming established.

THIS WEEK IN THE GARDEN

Ripen off onions

Onions from January and March sowings will now be approaching ripeness, and you can hasten this by bending over the leaves just above the neck of each bulb.

Pot winter flowering begonias

If you were able to root cuttings of winter flowering begonias in late winter, the plants should now be about ready for potting on into their flowering pots.

Cut back violas and pansies for propagation. It is an excellent idea to cut back a few plants of any good violas and pansies you may have with a view to encouraging basal growth which will provide cuttings next month. Scissor off the present flowering shoots to within 2.5cm of the roots. Then scatter a little fine soil mixed with sand and sifted leaf mould over the plants.

Sow cyclamen

It is possible to raise cyclamen from seed sown very early in the year and flower the plants the following winter, but the best results are obtained by sowing about the middle of August. Keep the seedlings growing steadily throughout the following autumn, winter, spring and summer so they make fine big corms for flowering the following autumn and winter.

Take pelargonium cuttings

You can take cuttings of both zonal and ivy-leaved bedding pelargoniums (geraniums) at any time during August. Choose shoots 10 to 13cm long that are not carrying flowers. Sever them cleanly just below a joint and insert the cuttings around the edge of well drained pots filled with sandy compost. The cuttings will root quickly if you stand them in a frame and shade them from direct sunshine, but they can also be rooted in any reasonably sheltered place indoors or out.

Continue to remove faded flowers and runners

Throughout August continue to remove faded flowers from roses and bedding and herbaceous plants.

Lisfennel/ Springmount Area Of Dungarvan Needs Attention

An area transcending the urban and county boundaries in Dungarvan has been highlighted as a community in need of facilities taken for granted in other parts of the town.

Cllr. Fiachra O Cailleachair, a Labour representative for the Dungarvan electoral area, says people living in Lisfennel and Springmount deserve attention for their part of the town - particularly as it is separated out from the rest of Dungarvan by the N25 by-pass. Whilst Cllr. O Cailleachair is hopeful that the present review of the Dungarvan town development plan may incorporate a future strategy for a community presently divided by the urban/county boundary, he feels there are pressing issues for the present such as the widening of the Lisfennel road and the provision of a footpath between the Lisfennel Close housing estate and the Dungarvan GAA grounds.

"Over recent years it is possible that the boundary situation has complicated local development in Lisfennel. Neighbours on the same road in the same townland are living in different jurisdictions. Two substantial housing estates, Lisfennel Close and Spring Meadow are served by separate authorities - with one being officially regarded as not being part of Dungarvan town at all - despite being only across the road from each other. This situation may well have to be examined between the County and Urban Councils in their deliberations in regard to the Town Development Plan review underway at the moment. Whatever local authority is responsible, the fact of the matter is that - among other local issues in the area - there should at least be a footpath leading from the GAA grounds down towards the interface with the by-pass. The GAA grounds are a focal point for the whole town. Local residents are anxious that I pursue this and other outstanding issues, in addition to seeking acceleration of promised or as yet incomplete initiatives. Both authorities will be aware of the priorities."

Abbeyside Scout Notes

Annual camp 2000 has come to an end at this stage and another very successful one it was. Although the numbers were quite small all those who attended were delighted with the camp and the various activities which were part of the camp. We had two patrols under the leadership of P/Ls Kelvin Brady, Patrick O'Donnell and Aidan French and their assistants Brian Rossiter and Seamus O'Donnell. The week got off to a very wet start when on Sunday night an inch and a half of rain was recorded in Glenshelane but thankfully once this was over the rest of the week saw only intermittent rain and quite a bit of sunshine. Monday morning was spent drying out the sleeping bags and other equipment that got wet before heading to Melleray Scout Centre for lunch cooked by Louise and Sandra. Tuesday was tour day and with Muller and Cossie at the wheel everyone headed for Waterford and a tour of the Waterford Treasures as well as the Waterford Crystal factory tour followed by a trip to the cinema to see Chicken Run which was an excellent animated film. Wednesday was another day on the move, it started with the moving water of Glenshelane river where all enjoyed canoeing. This was followed by a trip to Clonea leisure centre for a somewhat warmer dip and then a game of bowling at which in one of the games Cossie narrowly won by introducing some rather unorthodox tactics. Thursday was the big shopping day when the troop travelled by bus to Cork city to buy presents for themselves and the folks back home. The first item on the agenda in Cork was Quasar and indeed Kelvin did quite well also at the game of "who wants to be a millionaire", mind you he had twelve other friends to call on! It was surprising however that he never shared his winnings with his brother scouts. Friday was a day spent on site canoeing and this was also the day that the patrols headed off on their overnight hikes to Cappoquin scout den and also the Kirkham house in Modeligo, reports back suggested that the patrol that went to Modeligo got a lot better fed than those who went to the scout den, but then to balance things up, the Modeligo patrol were up quite a bit earlier the following morning than the others (something to do with chickens and a cock we believe). The patrols arrived back on site by lunch time Saturday and this day was the day of the big test meal with excellent meals being presented to the testers for their palate and appreciation. Also on camp we had mass celebrated by troop chaplain Father Keogh and hopefully Fintan and Vinny got some good photo's for the troop logs.

CAMP HIGHLIGHTS

The following are some of the lighter moments we will all remember from annual camp 2000, the canoeing water babies, Kelvin and Thomas, Chickens, animated and the real thing. One and a half inches of rain, mountain bike orienteering, very bad jokes, mouse Maurice specials, bugle playing, when the bugler could find it that is.

LATE PEGGY TREACY (NEE DEMPSEY)

In the early hours of Saturday 29th July, Peggy Treacy, Shandon, Dungarvan went to her eternal reward after her long and wonderful life of 90 years. One of a family of ten children born to Daniel and Julia Dempsey, Peggy was born in Skibbereen, Co. Cork. Her family were always to the fore in agriculture matters in the locality, although her own parents also ran a most successful grocery and bar on Grattan Square, today known as "The Enterprise". Predeceased by her husband Sean in 1984, who was a much valued Manager of Bandon Creamery. Sean was deeply involved in 1924 with the establishment of the Clashmore Branch of Dungarvan

Co-op, later he transferred to the Central Co-op in Dungarvan until his appointment to Bandon. Peggy herself continued to live in West Cork until failing health necessitated her transfer to Drumhills Nursing Home, Dungarvan. A deeply religious person, Peggy despite her long years could mix comfortably with her peers and the new generation of nephews and nieces. She was a great favourite and was the essence of good company and warm hospitality. Very much home orientated she took great pride in each and everyone of her family circle. Her passing at this time is deeply regretted and we express our deepest and heartfelt sympathy to Anne D'alton (sister), Ex N.T. Carriglea N.S., Con (brother), Shandon, her sisters-in-law, Nora, Alice, Pauline, her many nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

On Sunday a large concourse of mourners were present at the Kiely Funeral Home for prayers recited by Rev. Fr. Gearoid O'Sullivan C.M. UCC, after which the funeral cortege left for nearby St. Mary's Parish Church, Fr. O'Sullivan C.M. was joined by a full choir of clergy including V. Rev. Fr. O'Mahoney P.P., Rev. Fr. T. O'Riordan C.C., Rev. Fr. R. Grant C.C., V. Rev. Fr. J. Gough OSA, V. Rev. Fr. P. O'Reilly OSA, V. Rev. Fr. R. O'Doherty P.P., Rev. Fr. D. Slator OSA.

At the concelebrated Mass on Monday Fr. Gearoid was main celebrant with co-celebrants Fr. O'Mahoney P.P., Fr. Grant C.C. The liturgy of the word was shared by Conor Dempsey (nephew) and Angie Smith (niece) while members of the Treacy-Dempsey families read the prayers and intercession. The offertory procession saw Con and Pauline Dempsey, Sean Norris, Mary Kennelly, Roisin Buckley, Criona Twomey and grand nephews Jack, Mark and Cormac bring the gifts to the altar. The music of the O'Keefe family, Bandon and Mossie O'Donovan (relatives) who were accompanied by Gertrude Morrissey made the Holy Sacrifice a real celebration of Peggy's life. Later we gathered in the adjoining cemetery to bade our farewell to Peggy before she was laid to rest after life's labours.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan).

LATE MICHAEL WALSH

It is with profound sorrow and deep regret we record the passing of Michael Walsh, Thomas Street, Dungarvan and formerly of Belmont, Cappoquin, which sad event occurred on 29th July at the District Hospital Dungarvan.

Michael was well known and highly respected in the local community. A man of deep religious faith, he was an excellent husband, neighbour and friend. A native of Cappoquin, just the week before his passing he celebrated his 89th birthday. Michael spent most of his life working on the Cappoquin Estate as a gardener, a job he loved dearly. For some 56 years he worked there and took great pride in gardening. To his employers, Michael was a respected employee who did his job to the highest standards.

He married Nellie in 1951 and settled on the Cappoquin Estate where they both shared a happy and contented life.

Michael had many interests and enjoyed spending time outdoors. Sport played a big part in Michael's life. A member of the Cappoquin Rowing Club for many years, he also loved hurling and football and enjoyed going to GAA matches. In his early days he played all sports. He also played darts with Morrissey's Bar which he combined with having a chat with his friends.

After retiring, Michael and Nellie moved to Dungarvan some 15 years ago where they were both very happy and Michael continued to do gardening and having chats with neighbours and friends as they passed by his home.

Michael was someone special. He was one of life's true gentlemen, and he will be sadly missed by all, but especially by his wife Nellie and his relatives and friends.

On Sunday evening his remains were removed from the Walsh Funeral Home, Cappoquin to St. Mary's Church, Cappoquin, where the remains were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Power, C.C., assisted by Rev. Fr. Arthure, P.P. and Rev. Fr. O'Mahoney, P.P., Dungarvan.

On Monday morning the funeral Mass was celebrated by Fr. Arthure, assisted by Fr. Power, Fr. Grant, C.C., and Fr. O'Reilly, O.S.A., C.C. During the Mass the readings were given by Maurice Kelleher and Dennis Kelleher, the parish choir provided the music, the psalm was sung by Carmel Kelleher, the offertory gifts were brought to the altar by Tom and Dan Kelleher and Kate and her daughter Heather Greeves. Burial took place in St. Declan's Cemetery, Cappoquin, Fr. Arthure officiating at the graveside, where Michael was laid to rest in the presence of a large cortege of mourners. May he rest peace.

The chief mourners were: Nellie (wife), Austin (brother), Mai (sister), nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

AN APPRECIATION

PHYLLIS STEARS R.I.P.

In the early hours of Sunday morning 23rd July, a very special woman Phyllis Stears formerly Duffy of Villierstown passed away at her home in Hemel Hempsted. She was special in so far as she was one of those larger than life characters - the most genuine, giving and honest person we are ever likely to meet.

It was very simple with Phyllis, what you saw is what you got 100 % and in to-day's world, isn't that something rare and wonderful. You see there were no hidden agendas with her, what she said is what she meant and being so open and honest hardly endears you to everyone but it was something I really loved about her.

She was first and foremost a family person, in fact the driving force behind her wonderful husband Eddie and lovely sons David, Peter and Martin but it didn't stop there. With Phyllis she was so interested in others also and liked nothing more than for people to better themselves. I've never ever known her to be envious of anyone or anything, only an admiration for those who achieved through hard work.

There was nothing she liked better than to sit by the fire in Villierstown with her great friend Mickeen, catch up on all the local news followed by discussion, arguments and laughter that would go on for hours on end. And speaking of laughter, I loved that infectious little giggle of hers that would break out when someone would say something that tickled her.

The only consolation I have is that I'm left with such wonderful memories of Phyllis that helps to soften that terrible empty feeling I'm left with. But what I can't dilute and I can't disguise is that I know I've lost a really true friend and you don't come by them too often. B.J.

A sincere thank you to our wonderful band of helpers on the day, to the sponsors and to all who contributed in so many ways to ensure a great day for our community.

IRISH NIGHT - A HUGE SUCCESS

All agreed that there is an abundance of talent in Melleray and this was to be seen at the Irish Night held in the Cats Bar where young members of the Community put on a great night's entertainment, featuring song, dance, recitation, comedy and plenty of music.

Set dancing was provided by the Melleray Ladies Set who won the Fiddlers Green Set dancing Competition two weeks ago in Rosstrevor. Congratulations to Melleray Scor on their achievement of a Munster Council Award.

This award was presented on the night to Brid Duggan and the efforts of Melleray Scor were acknowledged by club Chairman Ger Power. A great night was had by all.

GAA

On Saturday night last we play the first round of the Junior B Hurling Championship against Old Parish.

We were victorious on the scoreline 2-8 to 8 points. At half time the teams were level. Having missed a lot of scorable chances in the first half we were up against it going into the second half. Old Parish, more renowned as a football club certainly put it up to us in the second half, but our lads showed great commitment and fighting spirit to run out winners by six points.

Although commitment from the team has been good in matches we would like to see far more effort being put in at training as we will certainly have a task in hand to make further progress. On Friday night next we begin our football campaign when we play Kilgobnet in Toura-neena at 7.30 pm.

Here's hoping for the same spirit and commitment to carve out a win.

MODELIGO NATIONAL SCHOOL REUNION

"What a wonderful day" is the best way to describe 6th August 2000. An occasion promises to be many things to many people and indeed our national school reunion lived up to its expectations and will be long remembered in the minds of all who were part of it.

Warm smiles, firm handshakes and many tears were wrapped in fond memories as school pals were reunited for perhaps the first time since leaving school together.

So many people made a special effort to travel home from abroad to join our celebrations and we welcome them sincerely and hope the new links will grow stronger and they return more frequently.

Our celebrations began in the school with the official opening of the Millennium Garden by Rev. Fr. M. Barron P.P.

An impressive piece of design work surrounding an engraved granite rock will stand testament to our presence in the world to celebrate the millennium. Many thanks to J. Kearns for his attention and hard work to erect this piece of history. We also thank Mr. Tom Keith, millennium officer, Waterford County Council for his financial help and personal interest in our project.

Retired former principal Mrs. Josephine McCarthy planted a tree representing all the teachers, both past and present who have taught in the school. Vincent O'Donovan, chairman of the organising committee planted another tree representing all past pupils of Modeligo school, living and deceased. A third tree will be planted when the children return to school next month and it will represent the new generation. This tree will be situated in the middle, supported on either side by the teachers and by the traditions and aspirations of the pupils who have gone before.

Included in the reunion celebrations was the launch of a book - "Modeligo National School 1915 - 1982" (compiled by the reunion committee). It contains many class photographs dating from 1924. Also of interest is the history of the national school from its opening in 1867 to the present school and its future plans. A full roll-call of registration can also be found, so if you wish to see the list of pupils who commenced education with you, it's all in the book. Copies of the book are on sale at £10 each from Maurice Tobin, treasurer or any committee member. No home should be without this historic book which contains the name or picture of almost every pupil who attended school in the parish.

Finally, a last roll-call was held and classes from each decade were once more photographed. Thanks to Ena Doocey for her help and time.

The high point of the evening was concelebrated Mass. All past pupils celebrated this special occasion representing the impressive history the parish has in religious life. Chief celebrant was Fr. Larry Walsh with Fr. Paddy O'Brien, Fr. Michael Walsh and Fr. Brendan Crowley. Readings were read by Sr. Una Prendergast and Sr. Kathleen Fitzgerald. A full report next week.

A social evening was then enjoyed in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan.

It can be recorded that an historic event took place in Modeligo on 6th August, 2000 that will be long remembered and talked about for many years. The sun shone brightly, tears of joy flowed freely and fond friendships were rekindled in a day in the life of many people who realised a dream come true.

A special word of thanks to the organising committee for their untiring work over the last months - Vince O'Donovan, Nicholas O'Doherty, Paddy Hickey, Maurice Tobin, Deirdre Hennessey, Brenda Hickey, Fedelma Cliffe.

Also to all those who volunteered information, photos, stories and gave all the help they could to prepare for the occasion. To Michael Phelan, principal for permission to use roll books and the school for research. Thanks to everyone who came to join our celebrations from near and far. It was truly a good day to be present and witness this happy event. Buiochas le Dia.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR ORGANIC FOOD PRODUCERS

Minister Walsh recently launched An Bord Bia's report on organic food markets, which is one of the fastest growing segments of the European food market. Speaking at the launch he emphasised that opportunities exist for Irish organic producers to significantly increase market share, both on the domestic and export markets.

He pointed out some £1.5 billion earmarked for the new REPS in the period to 2006 will enable up to 70,000 farmers to participate in the measure and at the same time have significant impact on the growth of the organic sector. In addition funding of £6 million is being provided for the development of the organic sector under the Regional Programmes for the Border, Midland and Western Regional and the South and East Region.

"In order to draw up a coherent strategy for the development of the sector, I am now arranging for the establishment of an Organic Development Committee. The Committee will have representatives of the widest interests in the organic sector including those involved in production, marketing and distribution as well as in the areas of research, training, advice and regulation. I am confident that these initiatives will further assist the growth of the organic sector and ensure that it is in a good position to exploit the new opportunities presenting themselves", the Minister added.

SPECIAL TREATMENT FOR LOCKED UP HERDS UNDER THE EXTENSIFICATION PREMIUM

The Minister recently announced that the EU had agreed to changes in the extensification premium system for locked up herds.

Under the new rules, farmers whose herds are locked up because of disease outbreak will have the number of livestock units on their holdings for the duration of the lock-up period reduced by 20% for the purposes of calculating stocking density for the extensification premium. This change was made following representations from the Department to the EU Commission and fulfilled a Government commitment under the Programme for Prosperity and Fairness. "The changes, which are backdated to the beginning of the year, will be of very considerable benefit to the many farmers whose herds are locked up for disease reasons and who, for that reason, would find it difficult to comply with the stocking density requirements of the extensification premium", the Minister explained.

MINISTER LAUNCHES NEWLY STRUCTURED IRISH CATTLE BREEDING FEDERATION (ICBF)

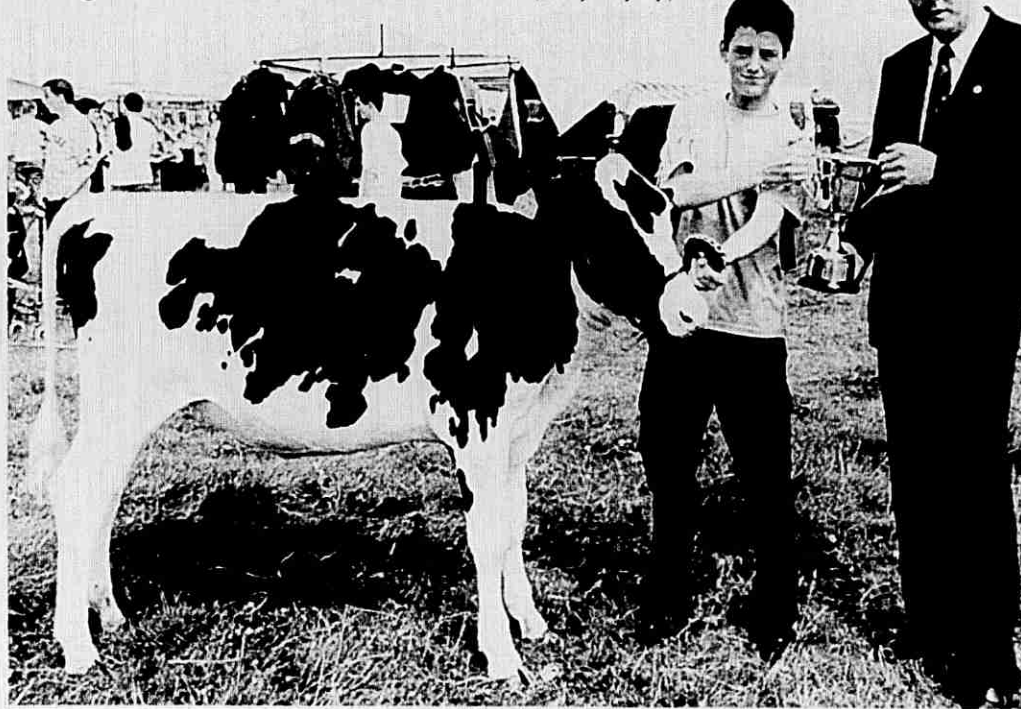

Speaking at the formal announcement of the newly structured Irish Cattle Breeding Federation (ICBF) Minister Walsh said that the occasion was momentum in that we now have a very broadly based and strongly supported commercial national cattle breeding body with a suitable permanent structure in place. This will give ICBF the platform of stability needed to assist in providing a more secure future for Irish farmers.

Emphasising the point that the Irish cattle breeding industry now has a unique opportunity to work together within the ICBF framework and to establish a world class cattle breeding programme, the Minister said that the whole objective of cattle breeding and ICBF is to produce better quality cattle for our dairy and beef farmers. "As far as the beef sector is concerned, there has been a decline in the carcass classification scores of our cattle in recent years, with the result that the majority of our cattle do not meet the requirements of premium customers in the European Union. This is a most unfortunate development particularly in view of the fact that approximately 50% of Irish beef comes from the suckler herd. We need a significant improvement in the classification scores of our cattle if we are to fully recover and further increase our share of the EU beef market", the Minister pointed out.

Concluding, the Minister said "I have long held the view that our meat factories should pay better price differentials in the procurement of their supplies and I am pleased to see that they are now moving in that direction. By doing so they not only encourage better breeding and, in turn, more suitable product for their customers in Europe, they also help secure their supply of raw material for processing in Ireland and the development of their businesses".

Waterford Macra Na Feirme Notes

The Waterford Macra Dungarvan show dance took place on Friday night 28th July in the Park Hotel, in Dungarvan. The show dance officially draws the Macra year to a close, and the efficiency results were announced.

The Macra President T.J. Maher was on hand to make the presentations along with Irene Maloney, the Munster Vice President, and the sponsors of the event. In a short speech, T.J. congratulated Waterford on its achievements throughout the year. In particular, the organising and hosting of the Macra National Annual Conference, which was held in Waterford in November.

Irene also thanked the sponsors and wished the best of luck to club and county officers for the coming year.

Waterford Macra chair, Caroline Smiddy said that the Macra section of the show, as always, being a high profile and entertaining event - and this year, was no different. Large crowds gathered around the Macra Section, while the competitions were taking place.

The first award was for the best PR display, which went to Cappoquin and thank you to the Dungarvan Leader for sponsoring the event. The lady driver competition, which was sponsored by Fred Forsey, went to Theresa Martin of Ballyduff Macra. Cappoquin won the art competition, and the sports competition title went to Killian Power of Kilmacthomas.

Niall O'Brien of Ballyduff won the gent's cookery and Alan Curran of Dungarvan won the tractor task.

In the recycling competition, Ken Murphy from Clonea-Power and Dungarvan's Paraig Dunne and David Murray took joint first place for making a go-kart from recycled materials. This year's woodchopper challenge was won by Stradbally and well done to Dungarvan for winning the final competition of the day, the Tug-of-war.

Overall, Dungarvan had the best men's team, and Ballyduff, the best woman's team. The Club of the Show title went to Clonea-Power and the most improved club of the year was Stradbally. The main title, Club of the Year was sponsored by AIB bank and went to Clonea-Power. Thank you to George Walsh and Marie Dower who were present for the AIB bank.

The Science of Farming and Food

GRASS RE-SEEDING DEMONSTRATIONS

This column has already given advice some weeks ago on the merits of re-seeding at least 10% of your grassland each year. Many farmers now use the minimum cultivation method of re-seeding in order to eliminate the problem of stones.

A demonstration of this re-seeding method will be given on the farm of Dan Leahy, Monaree, Kinsalebeg on Thursday August 10th at 11.00 a.m. Teagasc advisers Ruth Nolan and Tom Fallon assisted by Mark Nunan, Glanbia will give advice on all aspects of re-seeding. So come along and see for yourself.

A second demonstration will take place next week, on a date to be arranged in the Kilmeaden area.

DAIRYING: Putting Your Houses in Order

Every farmer should carry out a farmyard assessment. Ask yourself is your farmyard and housing

- A pollution free and safe workplace?
- Healthy and comfortable for animals?
- Enabling your animals to make best use of feed?
- Enabling you to make best use of labour in pleasant surroundings?

If the answer to any of the above questions is no, now is the time to take action so as to have work completed before winter.

Action

A good easy-feed layout should normally prevent pollution, improve animal performance and reduce labour requirements. This of course costs money but if you have a large leaky farmyard layout or bad housing, some changes have to be made. The type of changes to be made depends on what you can afford and your present and future requirements.

If your farming plans are uncertain and money is scarce substantial improvements can very often be made by tidying up the farmyard operations and the separation of clean and dirty water. Temporary easy-feed set ups, which reduce the amount of dirty yards, the erection of eave chutes and the channelling of clean water to soakways and waterways will drastically reduce the storage requirements for slurry and soiled water. As a temporary solution some straw-bedded housing will also help.

BEEF: Weaning Management

Maintaining good performance from August to weaning/housing or sale is vitally important to profitability and is a weakness on many cattle farms. As well as quality grass other factors should also be considered:

- Separate bull and heifer weanlings at grass - bull weanlings will give a better return to creep meals than heifers.
- Creep meal feeders are suited to starting weanlings on meals but should be replaced with trough feeding when weanlings are eating over 1.5 kg per head per day. With good quality grass, a feeding level of 1 - 1.5 kg per day is adequate. Meal feeding before weaning will help maintain high growth rates, have calves trained to meals and therefore less dependent on cow resulting in a much less stressful weaning.
- Introduce creep grazing for weanlings ahead of cows by moving the creep feeder or troughs to the field ahead of the cows.

Reducing Stress at Weaning

- Weanlings should be weaned before sale or housing, with creep feeding started at least 6 weeks earlier. Weaning is least stressful when cows are removed from the weanlings.
- Stress factors effecting weanlings include poor weather conditions, collecting, penning, testing/dosing, dehorning, castrating, weaning, housing, transporting to and from marts. The risk to respiratory problems is increased with exposure to stress and is highest where the weanling is exposed to a number of stress factors together.
- Vaccination is an additional aid to reduce risk from respiratory problems. An effective vaccination programme should commence 6 weeks before sale and should be a part of good weaning management to achieve best results. Viruses most commonly responsible are RSV, IBR and P13. Peak immunity for RSV will not be achieved until at least 4 weeks after first vaccination. Discuss vaccination with your vet in early August or at least 6 weeks before sale or housing.
- Certification of vaccination should be obtained from vet and should be announced at sale together with details of weaning date or creep feeding.

SHEEP: Ram Effect

February lambing flocks should maximise the ram effect to tighten up lambing. It only works at the start of the breeding season. Ewes will commence breeding in late August/September but there will be variation between ewes in a flock. The ram effect will bring individual ewes, which are late, into line with the bulk of the flock, which are starting normal heat.

Procedure:

- Keep ewes away from sight, sound and smell rams for at least 4 weeks. Note where neighbours rams are.
- Put rams in adjoining field for 3-4 days, this will trigger the onset of heat. Vasectomised rams or aprons could also be used where there is no suitable adjoining field. Introduce fertile rams 16-17 days later.

WATERFORD FARMERS SECURE INCREASE OF £ 1.06M FROM NEW DISADVANTAGED AREA SCHEME -IFA

Waterford IFA Chairman, Gerald Curran has said that around 1,400 Waterford farmers stand to gain up to £2.50M in new arrangements for the disadvantaged area scheme from 2001 onwards. This increase is as a result of IFA's campaign over the past number of weeks in highlighting the inequities that would result in the changeover in disadvantaged area payments from a per head of livestock to an acreage payment. Disadvantaged area payments in County Waterford will increase by £1.06M following last week's negotiations between the Government and IFA.

Mr. Curran said that the new scheme will be advantageous to the vast majority of farmers, some of whom will benefit from disadvantaged area payments for the first time. The scheme will be worth over £180million next year which is a £60million increase over the scheme's value in 2000.

The new scheme will include payments of £45 on up to 60 hectares in mountain areas (max payment £2,700); £70 on up to 45 hectares in more severely handicapped areas (max payment £3,150); and £60 on up to 45 hectares in less severely handicapped areas (max payment £2,700). For farmers in mountain areas with lowland severely handicapped areas it will be possible to achieve a maximum payment of £3,825, ie. with 45 hectares of more severely handicapped (or less severely handicapped) land and 15 hectares of mountain. IFA had expressed serious concern to the Government and EU in relation to those farmers who stood to lose in the changeover. In highlighting this sector of farmers, IFA has ensured that the losses are minimised over the next three years. A compensation package worth up to £20 million will apply.

The compensation scheme will be tapered over a three year period - for example, for a farmer whose payments will reduce by £1,000 next year, 90% of this loss or £900 compensation, will be paid in 2001, 80% or £800 of the loss will be paid in 2002 and 50% or £450 will be payable in 2003.

Mr. Curran said that "the new scheme is a balanced package backed by increased resources which is designed as far as possible at securing the incomes of vulnerable sectors including drystock farmers and both mountain and lowland sheep producers in the disadvantaged areas".

IFA National President, Tom Parlon who led the IFA negotiations with Government over the past number of weeks described the Government announcement of a new area based payment system as "a positive response to an unfair situation introduced at EU level." He acknowledged and appreciated the Taoiseach, the Minister for Agriculture and the Government's handling of the very difficult situation that had arisen for low income farmers in Disadvantaged Areas due to changes in EU regulations.

The changes in the numbers of farmers receiving payments and in the average payments received under both the new and old schemes is broken down in the attached table.

N.B. Currently 52.19% of Co. Waterford is disadvantaged, 23.10% severely handicapped and 29.09% less severely handicapped. Under the new arrangements for disadvantaged areas from 2001 onwards, 1,400 farmers in Co. Waterford will benefit from an increase of £1.06million (74% increase) bringing the total value of disadvantaged area payments in the county to £2.50 million.

ICMSA Welcomes Increase In Milk Price

Jackie Cahill, Chairman of ICMSA's Dairy Committee has welcomed the increase of 4 pence per gallon in the Irish Dairy Board on-account price effective from August 1.

Mr. Cahill stated that the Irish Dairy Board on-account price has increased by 8 pence per gallon since the end of June and is some 12.4 pence per gallon greater than this time last year, yet some co-operatives are proposing to pay a milk price on a par with this time last year.

"It is quite obvious that milk markets have firmed since this time last year, furthermore all indications are that improved market conditions are set to continue. Against this background I urge all co-operatives to reflect these increased market returns when setting their July and August milk price," said Mr. Cahill.

SOUTH EAST ICMSA NEWS

BREAKDOWN IN DISEASE ERADICATION NEGOTIATIONS

ICMSA totally rejected the latest Department proposals on disease eradication. Mr. Pat O'Rourke, President of ICMSA, said that the proposals tabled by the Department of Agriculture, Food and Rural Development could not form the basis for any progress. In fact, the proposals are a backward step and amount to a flagrant breach of the Programme for Prosperity and Fairness (PPF). The Department are proposing increased costs on farmers which is contrary to commitments in the PPF. This is not acceptable to ICMSA. The Department proposals would do nothing to eradicate TB.

The proposals from the Department involve a doubling of the current levies and a compulsory 30 day pre-movement test for TB. Mr. O'Rourke said that these two proposals, if implemented, would amount to another 'cottage industry' in the eradication scheme funded by farmers. These increased costs would amount to over £10m annually.

Mr. O'Rourke said that he had sought a meeting with Minister Walsh so that political direction can be given to commence serious negotiations so that targets and deadlines set down in the PPF can be achieved.

ICMSA WELCOMES INCREASE IN MILK PRICE

Mr. Jackie Cahill, Chairman of ICMSA's Dairy Committee, welcomed the increase of 4 pence per gallon in the Irish Dairy Board on-account price effective from 1 August. Mr. Cahill stated that the Irish Dairy Board on-account price has increased by 8 pence per gallon since the end of June and is some 12.4 pence per gallon greater than this time last year, yet some co-operatives are proposing to pay a milk price on a par with this time last year.

"It is quite obvious that milk markets have firmed since this time last year, furthermore all indications are that improved market conditions are set to continue. Against this background I now urge all co-operatives to reflect these increased market returns when setting their July and August milk price," said Mr. Cahill.

ICMSA CALL FOR TAX CUTS AND A PROGRAMME TO SECURE FARM INCOMES

In light of the Tanaiste, Ms. Mary Harney, T.D.'s, declaration that the Exchequer is "awash with money", Mr. Michael Doody, Chairman of ICMSA's Taxation Committee, called on the Government to follow through its commitment to introduce tax cuts in the next Budget and to introduce an action programme to secure farm incomes.

"Farm incomes declined by 20% over the three-year period from 1997 to 1999. ICMSA is very concerned that farm incomes will come under renewed pressure in 2000 due to increased input costs and service related charges - as well as the spiraling inflation rate", said Mr. Doody.

Mr. Doody stated that much was made of the conclusions and recommendations of the 2010 Report. "The Government must now introduce a programme of action to increase farm incomes. Such a programme must increase the competitiveness of agriculture by reducing the cost of farm inputs, by increasing capital investment allowances for on-farm investment and by introducing a taxation system that takes full account of the uniqueness of farming as a business".

BRIDEVIEW UTD A.F.C. NOTES

U-10 Cup Final Ballybridge Utd 2 Brideview Utd 2 (After Extra Time) Penalties 1-2 to Brideview Brideview Win Thriller

What a game of football this U-10 Cup final produced between our lads and East Cork side Ballybridge Utd. The big crowd present were entertained from start to finish. The East Cork side took the lead after just 3 mins when they scored direct from a free kick. Our lads replied quickly when Thomas Ryan beat two defenders before shooting low into the corner. Both Ryan and Aherne both went close to giving Brideview the lead.

At the other end Ballybridge had a free kick which just went over the crossbar. At the break the sides were level at 1-1.

The second half saw Ballybridge again grab an early goal after just 2 mins on the clock. Utd never gave up. Keeper Sullivan brought off a terrific save after 5 mins. to deny Ballybridge.

After this Utd came more into the game. Philip Cunningham played terrific football at the back as did Keith Hallahan and Kieran Geary. In midfield Brian Collins and scorer in chief Thomas Ryan tormented Ballybridge's defence while up front Shane Aherne tried hard and was unlucky not to have scored before a leg injury forced him to retire and on came Shane Feeney who played his part in this victory.

Utd was awarded a penalty in the 27th minute when Brian Collins was brought down and Ryan's effort hit the outside of the post and went wide. Ryan had a shot taken off the line in the 33rd minute but 30 mins later there was no denying Ryan when he broke down the left and shot low to the net.

It was all to play for now with the sides locked together at 2-2 but time ran out and at the end of an exciting game the final whistle saw both sides still level at 2-2.

The extra time failed to separated them even though the crossbar denied Ryan. So the game was decided on a penalty shootout with Brideview Utd winning 2-1.

port sponsored 18 Hole Stableford Competition on Monday. Maurice Cahillane (10) starting the ball rolling with a fine 42 points. Second place went to club PRO Philip Walton (16) who was left to rue over what might have been having six sixes on his card and was still able to conjure up 41 points. In 3rd place was Neil Twomey (5) posting an excellent 40 points. Tuesday saw the ACC Bank sponsored 18 Hole Fourball Competition. The winners with a magnificent 48 points were Billy Ormonde (12) and West Waterford's Ger Smith (9), second place went to Albert Corcoran (7) and Joe O'Flaherty (14) with a fine 46 points. 3rd place went to Pa Morrissey (13) and Monday's winner Maurice Cahillane (9) with a nice 45 points. Thursday was back to the hornibrooks for Toyota qualifier which has only three weeks left to qualify for the final which is on Saturday August 26th. This week's qualifiers were Brendan Ormonde (16) with a steady 38 points. 2nd place went to J. J. Henley (15) from Dungarvan with 37 points. Maurice Cahillane took the gross prize rounding off a good week for himself. Mary Cashman (25) was the ladies winner of the Kevin Ryan Builders sponsored 9 Hole competition with 23 1/2 points. Mick O'Grady (19) was the gents winner with 24 points, and so to the second big one of the open week namely the Murphy's Brewery (Ireland) 18 Hole Stroke Competition. The main man who is no stranger to this column was the still fast improving Jason Corcoran (12) with a fantastic 61 who doesn't seem to buckle under the pressure. In second place was Dan Behegan (6) playing golf of the highest calibre shooting 62. Third place went to Chris Whelan (6) with equally exceptional golf posting 63 to edge Ted O'Leary (22) into fourth place. Also with 63 due to a superior last 6 by Chris. T. W. Murphy (2) took the gross prize with a magnificent level, par round of 69. We would like to congratulate Brian Fox of Cill Dara who recorded a hole in one at the 14th and Knockanore's Frank Corcoran who eagled the index (1) 17th. Both these feats were recorded in the Murphy's Open Competition which had a field of 143 competitors which ends a very successful open week for the club. ## CLG NA NOG LIOS MOR

Under 16 Hurling

Our under 16's put in their worst performance of the championship when going under to Ballyduff in Ballyduff on Monday evening last. Lismore led by two points at the interval, thanks to a John Heneghan goal just before half time. However, they had to play second fiddle to a far more determined Ballyduff outfit in the second half. Greater effort will have to be put in on the field to play if we are to secure a play off place.

Minor Hurling

Our minors beat Fourmilewater in the 2nd round of the championship in Touraneena on Wednesday evening last. This was a very wholehearted performance and it had to be to get the better of a strong and determined Fourmile' side. Their next game is against St. Oliver's and as both teams are on full points this game will decide who qualifies for the semi final.

Progress On Computer Related Industries For Dungarvan?

The fact that the IDA is including computer and electronics sector companies among sources being lobbied for tenancy of an advance factory in Dungarvan has been welcomed by a local Labour Party representative.

Cllr. Fiachra O C illeachair – who has been pressing for Dungarvan and the west Waterford region to be promoted as a location for computer related industry – says young people from the area are migrating to bigger urban centres in search of such work. Cllr. O C illeachair has received written assurances from the IDA's south east regional manager, Mr. Pat Loftus, that the case for Dungarvan is being made both in respect of the advance factory and in general.

"Dungarvan is developing commercially and residentially. As regards further industrial growth, the case for computer based activity is a good one. The IDA have informed me that the 28,000 square feet advance factory at Shandon is being marketed in their ongoing contacts with computer firms.

This issue will be followed closely by young schoolleavers and those from the west Waterford area already studying in the various universities and third level institutions around the country. Young people who are working away but are regular visitors home to the Dungarvan area will also be awaiting progress."

Town Plan A Complex Subject

PUBLIC MEETING TO EXPLAIN TOWN DEVELOPMENT PLAN

Urban planning and the operation of the Planning Acts seem to have become more and more complex subjects over the last few years. The widespread economic progress which the country has made in recent times, means that more and more houses and apartments are going to be built, more shops and businesses opened and the population of urban areas going to increase. Many people do not know their rights under the Planning Acts and the difficulties which they could solve, while others, about to embark on some building project have little idea of their responsibilities to their neighbours and the community at large.

The proper and orderly planning of any community is carried out against the backdrop of the relevant council's Development Plan, which is revised every five years. The last Draft Town Development Plan for Dungarvan was adopted in June last and any revisions will be included in the final Draft to be placed before the Council later this year.

Now there is an opportunity for everyone to expand their knowledge on the subject, for on this Wednesday, Dungarvan Urban District is holding two information meetings where at least some of the mystique surrounding the subject can be eliminated.

A public presentation of the Draft Town Development Plan will be held in the Pearse Room of Lawlors Hotel on this Wednesday evening in two sessions at 3.30 and 7.30 pm. The presentation will broadly outline the content of the Plan and advise those attending of how submissions can be made, etc.

Community / Voluntary groups in Dungarvan are being notified and all are welcome to attend. The Draft Plan and Zoning maps are currently on display at the UDC Offices and at the Library, and submissions can be made up to 5.00 pm on 8th. September 2000.

All Community / Voluntary groups in Dungarvan as well as interested members of the public are again invited to attend.

MONEY MATTERS

PERSONAL BUDGETING

Most of us would not dream of running a small business without accounts. In personal finance it is just as important to maintain accounts and keep track of just where that hard earned money goes!

Avoidance of doing a personal or household budget, because you suspect the results will throw up some unpleasant facts, will not make a potential financial crisis go away. However, budgeting can be a positive experience if enough thought and effort goes into it.

Do you have any idea what you spent in the last 12 months on any of your personal commitments, overheads or leisure/social pursuits. If you don't then it maybe time to find out! You may be surprised to learn how much you spend in one year in a particular area of your life. This does not automatically mean that you need to change the way you spend your money. If you budget correctly you will be also to make your choices based on accurate rather than assumed facts about your situation.

When doing your budget, a good place to start is to mark off those items that cannot be changed. You should then be in a position to identify the non-essentials. Some items, which may seem essential become less so when faced with the prospect of losing a vital service, liberty or your home.

The following items should be given priority in your budget:

- Rent/Mortgage
- ESB
- Food
- Fuel

Once the above are taken care of, you and your family have heat, light, shelter and food.

The Money Advice & Budgeting Service is based at Civic Offices, Davitts Quay, Dungarvan (Tel 058-44922) and provides a service throughout the West Waterford area. It is part of the national MABS Service and is free, confidential and independent. Visit our web site at: www.mabs.ie

Pattern Night At Disearat Deaglaine

Another Pattern has come and gone in Ardmore. It was a memorable one with Mass under the shadow of the Round Tower, the inauguration of a splendid stone memorial to St. Declan on the Cliffe, and last by no means least, the faithful came to the Well at midnight, as they have done for centuries.

Again, the Whelan family of Ballyquin, Mary Power-O'Ma-hony and Pat Keating have to be thanked for their preparation of the illuminations. They took so much time and trouble, installing all those candles in the grass and in all the available niches and what a fitting background to the recitation and of the rosary and the ancient prayers in our own language. It was all simple, effective and beautiful. Go mbeirimid slan ag an seo aris.

CAPPOQUIN GAA NOTES

Street Run

The eagerly awaited club Fun Run is now only days away. Friday night next August 11th all the teams must be in the Central Bar between 7 and 7.30 pm for team sign in. The race will start at 8 pm sharp, for three miles around the town. The presentation of all prizes will be held in the Central Bar at the 60's and 70's disco which is on till late.

Training

At the time of these club notes going to print rumours are circulating of secret race training sessions behind closed doors. Noel Cummins Bookmakers would not be drawn into announcing his favourite saying the race is wide open with possible ringers in the field. Now that Tipperary are out of the hurling championship, club Chairman Ned Heffernan is believed to be doing savage training with his race times consistently coming down. While club juvenile gun and marathon man Michael Murray also heavily fancies his chances at the top prize unfortunately club treasurer John McGrath is unable to race due to his ongoing hamstring problems. Word on the street has it that both Kieran Veale and Donagh Cummins will not be running flat out, instead they will be saving themselves for later in the month.

One thing for certain is everybody will have a great craic on the night and the club would like to wish all competitors the best of luck.

HAPPY RETIREMENT MICHAEL

Long-serving member of the outdoor staff of Waterford County Council - Michael Seward, Grange has retired after 38 years of loyal service to his post. The huge amount of tributes being paid to Michael at this time speaks for itself. Michael was a very hard-working and honest worker, loved and respected by all his fellow workers. His contribution to the job was huge and we all are sad to see him leave. We wish Michael all the good health and happiness to enjoy a long and happy retirement in the company of his wife and family.

ROAD IMPROVEMENTS IN PILTOWN

Addressing the problems with action is the motto of Grange councillor Tommy Cronin representing the concerned citizens of Piltown. Councillor Cronin has been campaigning for some urgent improvements to the dangerous bend on the Monaree side of the school and the removal of the fence and replacing it with a railing on the Moord side of the five-cross roads.

Collr. Cronin tells us work will commence shortly to improve both of the above and also the road in this area will be resurfaced.

We look forward to these welcome improvements in the interest of all our safety.

CLASHMORE TIDY TOWNS - TIDY VILLAGES COMPETITION

At the end of July, Clashmore stands way down the table in the Waterford County Council's Tidy Villages Competition. Overall, a disappointing result for our village. The judge's report last week stated - "Clashmore: Roadway leading from the Grotto to the G.A.A. field very littered. Building site needs attention. Small amounts of litter on Main Street. Small amounts of litter from village to Church."

A better effort is needed all round to keep Clashmore tidy.

Liam Lynch Commemoration

On last Sunday afternoon, 30th July 2000, a large gathering attended at the memorial which marks the spot where the hero Liam Lynch fell mortally wounded in 1923. The proceedings were chaired by Dr. Patrick C. Power M.A., Ph.D. Ballyneal who introduced the guest speakers. Sean O'Mahoney spoke on the life and times of General Liam Lynch. He said the net result of the Good Friday Agreement is that the Government has encouraged and led the Irish people to accept the legitimacy of British rule in Ireland. They do not seem to realise that the core problem continues to be that Irish citizens in their own land are subject to British rule. It is clear to me, he said, that republicans are confused by recent turn of events, particularly the fact republicans are now helping to administer the British statelet in Ireland. But the torch of republican idealism must remain alight and the goal of an independent sovereign Ireland must remain an achievable aspiration. Dr. Patrick Power in his address paid tribute to those who died during the past year. Secretary Enda O'Riordan thanked the media for their full co-operation at all times and all those for their support on making this year's commemoration a huge success. Wreaths were laid at the memorial by Matt Doyle on behalf of the National Graves Association and by Kitty Harney on behalf of the National Commemoration Committee, Pat O'Donnell on behalf of all who gave their lives for Ireland and Helena O'Callaghan (niece of Liam Lynch) in her uncle Liam's memory. A sincere thanks to Donnacha Mathuna for his rendering of the "Boys of Kilmichael" and to Mattie and Rebecca Weldon who played a lament and the National Anthem.

PINEWOOD RANGERS F.C. NOTES

On Monday last the 31st July we played our first game of the season, a friendly against Ballybacon.

We had a superb start to the game with Michael Doocey finishing after the keeper spilled a shot. Ten minutes later Shane Phelan made a great run up the wing to cross to the Ballybacon centre-half who finished admirably beyond his own keeper.

Then came the third Michael T. O'Ryan floating in a marvellous cross and Shane Phelan running in finished superbly.

Just on the stroke of half-time Ballybacon scored a penalty to leave the half-time score 3-1.

We played against the wind in the second half and were under a lot of pressure but only conceded one goal in the second half and held on to win.

Man of the match - Tom Doocey was unreal in goal, the goals that Ballybacon got had to be very good to beat him on the night.

Team: Tom Doocey, J. J. Moore, Liam Walsh, David Ryan, Noel Ryan, Shane Phelan, Joe Walsh, Conor Ryan, Michael J. Ryan, Ger McGrath, Michael Doocey. Subs: John Moore, Michael Wall.

The signs look good for the up and coming season and as we were missing several players, let's hope our squad will strengthen as the season is nearly upon us.

RECENT DEATHS

LATE MRS. ELIZABETH POWER

It is with deep regret we record the death of Mrs. Elizabeth Power (nee Hyland) O'Neill Street, Clonmel which sad event took place recently at Saint Joseph's Hospital, Clonmel. Deceased born in Cahir, Co. Tipperary some 90 years ago. She was affectionately known by her family and her many good neighbours as "The Queen". Her parents died when she was twelve years old and she took over the role of mother and father to her three brothers who now have predeceased her. She was married to Willie Power, a well known printer at Corbett's Printing Works, Parnell Street. She and her husband resided at O'Neill Street where they brought up four children. Blessed with perfect health for most of her four-score and ten, she was the last surviving member of the Hyland family from Cahir. Keeping very much abreast of the times, she had her own views on everything which she was never slow to express. The senior citizen of the street, she will be missed from her door-way where she loved to chat. The death of her son John a few years ago was a severe blow to her, as was her three neighbours with whom she was so close. A lover of television, she loved watching Coronation Street and the following day, discussing it with her neighbours. Having been out and about up to recently, she took ill and was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital where after two days there, she passed peacefully to her eternal reward. Her passing, even at an advanced age has left a void not alone in her home but in the street which will never be the same without the "Queen". Her remains were removed to Saint Mary's Parish church, Irishtown where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Michael Joseph Ryan P.P., St. Mary's. On the following morning, requiem Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of her gentle soul, the celebrant was Rev. Fr. Michael Joseph Ryan P.P. assisted by Rev. Fr. Michael Cullinan P.P., Ballyduff. After Mass the funeral took place to Saint Patrick's cemetery where a loving person was laid to rest. Fr. Ryan P.P. officiated at the graveside in the presence of a large concourse of mourners paying their final respects to a christian friend. To her daughters and her relatives we extend our sympathy.

LATE MRS. MARGARET SHEEHAN

With deep and sincere regret we pen the passing of Mrs. Margaret Sheehan (nee Gregory) Kickham Park, Clonmel which sad event occurred recently at Saint Joseph's Hospital Clonmel. Deceased was a member of a well loved and respected Clonmel family, the Gregory's. She was daughter of George and Hennie Gregory at College Avenue. She was one of a family of sixteen. After leaving school, she took up employment with Bulmers and subsequently with the Boat factory where she spent many happy years and made many lasting friends and it's often she recalled with glee that period of half a century ago when she was crowned "Crazy Queen" of Bulmers on a float outside the town-hall, having beaten off all other contenders with her record fund-raising collection in aid of Ferryhouse which was what the competition was all about. In the early 50's she and Donie Sheehan from Glenconnor went to England where they married. Shortly after, they returned and took up residence in Kickham Park where they reared six children. A great lover of music, there was many a good sing-song in her home, her favourite song was 'Red Red Robin' and she was a great fan of Patsy Cline. Her husband Donie passed to his eternal reward some twelve years ago and her brother six years ago, he was a caretaker at Clonmel Court-house. Having been in and out of hospital over the last few months, been home for a short period, she was removed again to the hospital where after a few weeks there, she passed to her reward with her family by her bedside. Her remains were removed to S.S. Peter & Paul's Parish Church where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Brian Power C.C. assisted by Rev. Fr. James Denmead C.C. St. Mary's. The following morning requiem Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of her gentle soul, the celebrant was Rev. Fr. Pat Green C.C. Peter & Pauls assisted by Rev. Fr. William Meehan P.P. Holy Family, Waterford. As the coffin was leaving the church Jimmy O'Dwyer gave a beautiful rendering of "You'll Never Know how Much I Love You". A guard of honour was provided by Tesco's staff where one of her sons are employed. The funeral took place to St. Patrick's cemetery when she was laid to rest with her husband Donie. Fr. Greene officiated at the graveside in the presence of another large concourse of mourners paying their last respects to a dear christian friend. To her family and her many relatives, we extend our sympathy.

The Survivors Of Suicide

Death by suicide goes against the grain of intrinsic belief that people should live into old age. The grief and guilt that arise in the aftermath and wake of suicide often leaves a legacy of guilt and confusion. A common cry is — what could I have done to prevent this?

Suicide has a double edged blade. It is death like no other and survivors are left to struggle with a pain like no other. Contrary to the assumption that nearly all suicides leave notes behind for their survivors in fact only a small percentage do. Suicide notes have a significant effect on survivors whether that final message is one of blame or love because there is no opportunity for survivors to respond. The act - the suicide is the final word.

Survivors are left with shame, guilt and anger as well as a multitude of unasked and asked questions by others. These others are paralysed by shock and find themselves incapable of experiencing a condolence or they are embarrassed—WHY - ! After all survivors are left like survivors of other deaths - with a hole in their heart. The death of any human being leaves a void, a hole in the heart that can never be filled. All survivors of death are hit with shock anger guilt denial intense lowliness depression and a pervasive sense of loss.

However one thing that sets suicide apart from other deaths is that family are not given an opportunity to make amends or say goodbye. Most survivors of death go through defined stages of grieving, denial being one. When death is by suicide and the victim is young parents and family often insist that the death was an accident. This denial is compounded if death is by overdose, drowning or car wreck. Another factor that compounds the gravity of death by suicide is that in most cases police are involved. This introduces a somewhat criminal element with intrusive and often insensitive and offensive questioning.

POSTVENTION

Postvention is about the assistance given to all survivors of suicide, including those that have survived a suicide attempt. Survivors need caring and support in coming to terms with the devastating tragedy that has happened. In fact bereaved survivors of suicide need extra special help to deal with their overwhelming guilt and self blame. If these feelings are not addressed or if they are mismanaged the survivors are at an increased risk of having grave, life long emotional problems dysfunctional relationships and other difficulties.

TORMENT OF GUILT

Death by suicide is not a gentle loss for it rips lives apart. To compound the pain there is a diminishment in community support and compassion, a kind of societal whispering that imprints the stigma of suicide. As in all death family survivors experience guilt but when death is by suicide family are devastated by all the things done and undone. They go over arguments, rejections and unreturned phone calls. They beat themselves up for fractured or severed relationships. Many survivors are tormented by haunting last minute memories and visions of seeing their loved one and with wondering what was going on in their head.

Parents of young people are shattered by guilt of having in some way failed their child at some point in their life or of overlooking or dismissing signals and cues. Sadly and erroneously these parents feel a deep sense of shame anger and guilt and are further terrified that because of their parental inadequacy and incompetence another child may also commit suicide. They become overprotective of their surviving children causing further problems. Parents grieve differently. Women are more external in expression of pain, men more internal but both are mortally and irrevocably wounded. Fathers talk of the lost future of the child, this is based on the premise he has no more future with this child. Even his work has lost meaning. Mothers on the other hand are more involved in the day to day activities of the child so her loss is in the present. Only parents who have gone through this nightmare of disbelief and bewilderment can describe the pain and trauma. Siblings experience enormous loss and guilt and in fact some may be crippled by a sense of responsibility — They feel stigmatised and vulnerable that they too might kill themselves. They very often experience great depression as for many siblings the question will always remain — WHY DID HE DIE? Unfortunately when family deny or cover up a suicide it makes it harder for friends or others to deal with the death or discuss it.

SPOUSAL SUICIDE

When a husband or wife commit suicide the very fabric of the marriage is under scrutiny. There is a pervading sense of guilt over arguments, emotional withdrawal or alcohol or drug use. If the marriage has had breakdowns or separations the surviving partner may bludgeon him/herself with blame. When a spouse elects to commit suicide it is a personal rejection and as suicide is seen by others as a preventable death the surviving partner is exposed to the malicious tongue of others. As the realisation of loss sets in so does the guilt and blame and another feeling that is carefully masked - a chilling sense of relief. There is a cold reality that the suicide has brought to an end the agony, resentments, hopelessness and sometimes physical abuse.

Children, although devastated by the suicide of a parent, all survive the death with professional help but they may experience profound grief that may linger for a long time. Children's reactions may be severe and are commonly characterised by being withdrawn and apathetic.

Communication is critical to a child's ability to accept a parent's death and I suggest that children be encouraged to express their feelings after the death of a loved one. It is also important that children be told the truth as completely and as quickly as possible. Parent's attempts at shielding the children come back to haunt them for no matter how well intentioned this shielding is, it produces secrecy and a web of distortions and it makes all involved conspirators in secrecy and silence. When a child knows the truth he can in his own way make sense of all that happened. If children learn of the circumstances of a parent's death from a third party, trust is eroded and the child never understands the reality of the death.

I am asked many times how do adults and children survive such anger and grief and how do they themselves survive not being destroyed by guilt. Society is what we are with each other. Thus people survive through the support of family and friends and professional help. Supports groups and workshops allow those who have been through a suicide to exchange support, information and encouragement. Effective communication is the exchange of information and suicide survivors can raise awareness about suicide and depression. Throughout my many years as a psychologist I have seen first hand the desolation, confusion and guilt in parents and children and friends of those who commit suicide nor can I shut out the image of seeing the body of my beloved son, John, as his lifeless body lay on a cold slab in the coroner's morgue dead from a self inflicted drug overdose. The pain for me then and now is still harrowing.

AWARENESS AND EDUCATION

Can we as a society close our eyes in apathy towards those young violent but unnecessary deaths? With such an alarming rise in the suicide rate we as a society need to view suicide as an act committed by a person who felt an overwhelming ambivalence toward life rather than the act of some 'deranged' or "unbalanced" person. In today's fast moving world there are many people who have grave interpersonal problems and pressures that thwart life satisfaction and happiness. We have many programmes to educate our young in sex, drug and alcohol abuse - all essential. However I also believe it is incumbent on a responsible society to teach children that life is a balance between satisfactions and frustrations, that it's a complex process that prompts disappointments, failures and loss and that they need to develop skills to deal with these experiences. When children are taught early to solve their own frustrations and to use their own thinking skills they will not become locked into what I term cognitive inflexibility. It is this cognitive inflexibility that triggers young people to focus on suicide as the solution to problems. We need to cultivate the skill to see the humour in life situations, to nurture a sense of laughter at oneself. Children that experience a wide gap between - who they are - and who they want to be or are expected to be - are at risk in developing low self esteem, self hatred, depression and eventually suicidal behaviours.

High self esteem is the most important preventative against suicide. Boys need to be encouraged to express their feelings so that they may be able to recognise their own cries for help rather than suppress them. We need to develop programmes where young people are motivated to lead constructive and productive lives and where they can learn life skills to cope with their own emotional problems and with the ups and downs of life.

A network of treatment and care programmes is needed to help those in a suicidal crisis. Parents and family need to take all threats seriously and be on the alert for clues to suicidal behaviours and intentions. Rather than dismissing talk of suicide as an attention getter responding to the cries for help and getting professional help and perhaps offering constructive alternatives and taking steps toward resolving the crisis by determining the seriousness of the suicidal intent by asking pertinent questions and by not leaving the suicidal alone.

Research has shown that when family emotional support is inadequate or absent suicide will be completed. Cries of help that are brushed aside with statements of - You'll probably feel better tomorrow - are worthless for to the suicidal there is little hope of a tomorrow. A suicidal's thoughts and behaviours indicate a critical loss of the belief that they are someone who matters. The cries for help indicate that, while intent on suicide, he is experiencing considerable ambivalence about acting out the thoughts. He is still hoping for some kind of intervention as intervention is about sustaining and stimulating the suicidal's desire to live.

Suicide and its precursor depression is not an illusion but a common condition that robs us of our young and loved ones. Douglas Dunn wrote - Look on the living - Love them - Hold them.

TO THE SUICIDAL

If you are reading this article and have suicidal thoughts you are open to and are now given another chance at life. Know that help is available. The following list outlines those that are at great risk of suicide:—

- People who are thinking of suicide or have made previous attempts;
- People who are depressed or severely anxious;
- People who abuse alcohol or drugs;
- Males who are living alone;
- People who are agitated and exhibit threatening violence to others;
- People who have lost interest in usual activities and can't sleep;
- People who have weight loss or gain and talk of feeling worthless and disappointed with themselves;
- People who feel hopeless about the future, are indecisive, can't concentrate and have recurring thoughts about death.

If someone you know exhibits any of the above get immediate help and make sure a supportive person is available to the sufferer. Other warning signs are giving away prized possessions, sudden changes in eating or sleep patterns, changes in job or school performance. If someone you know is in danger of committing suicide, take them seriously. Stay calm but don't under react. Don't try to handle it yourself, involve other people and professionals. Express concern. Listen attentively and ask direct questions. Ask if your friend or family member has a specific plan for suicide. Acknowledge the persons feelings and be empathetic, do not be judgmental. Provide hope that help is available. Don't leave the person alone. Don't promise confidentiality - you may need to talk to a professional. Reassure and point out suicide is a permanent solution to temporary problems.

Dr. Killeen is an accredited thanatologist, clinical and forensic psychologist and will be facilitating a workshop on death, suicide and grieving in October. # Abbeyside Topics

TAKEOVER BY THE NATIONAL ARMY

Having burned the barracks and Ballinacourty Coast Guard station, the republicans quartered themselves in the hotels.

The troops of the National Army arrived in Abbeyside and Dungarvan on the 16th August 1922. However a few days before that event the 300 men of the First Cork Brigade evacuated the town. They marched up the street, made their way to the railway station, where they commandeered a special train to take them off. The train was stopped at Cappoquin on their journey westward. The Republicans got out and blew up the railway bridge there that crossed the Blackwater. They then proceeded further west.

When the National Army entered Dungarvan the Republicans had all gone. Only a few soldiers arrived in the early morning, but at about midday a long line of military lorries approached, bringing with them stores, arms and equipment. They met with a good reception. They took up quarters in Church Street in the Town Hall and at the Union Hospital. There was also another body of them stationed in the Provincial Bank. People felt relieved that there was no fighting. The expected battle did not come off. By degrees a more peaceful atmosphere prevailed.

Subsequently, in November 1923, a special court, presided over by the County Court Judge, sat for over a fortnight in the Court House, hearing applications for malicious injuries and for compensation for goods commandeered and the amounts awarded totalled several thousands of pounds a sizable amount of money in those days. The entire amount of claims for Co. Waterford rose to a total of £800,000.

ABBEYSIDE AFC GROUNDS

A huge amount of work has gone into improvements to the Stucco Lane grounds over the past few years including dressing rooms, new railings, new training pitch etc. so it is distressing to see that the walls and front door of the dressing rooms have been badly marked. The club are doing tremendous work for the young people of Abbeyside and surely they deserve better treatment from those guilty of the defacement.

SENIOR CITIZENS OUTING REPORT

On Thursday 27th July two coaches with 95 people on board left Abbeyside to travel to Ballymaloo Cookery School in Co. Cork - a nice journey when one considers that those who travelled were senior citizens of the Parish of Abbeyside, Ballinroad and Garranbane. The weather was glorious which added enormously to the enjoyment of the day for all. Sightseeing through the windows of the bus was also more pleasant because of the weather.

Having arrived in Ballymaloo, all those present disembarked from the bus and visited the Cookery School and the beautiful gardens surrounding the school and restaurant. The senior citizens also visited the Stephen Pearce Gallery in Shanagarua and a pottery shop nearby. Some people bought gifts for those at home who were near and dear to them.

Stage Two

Having completed stage one of the outing the coaches returned to Ardmore and stopped outside Paddy Mac's Bar and Restaurant. Here the Senior Citizens were treated to a delicious meal which was very promptly served by the staff employed by the owners.

Following the meal many relaxed by taking a walk around the village of Ardmore which is very beautiful and was of course an outright winner of the Tidy Towns National Competition a few short years ago. Some people were attracted to the amusements and obviously enjoyed themselves.

Then it was back to the Lounge of Paddy Mac's where Jim and Geraldine Prendergast provided excellent music which entertained all present. Not everyone took to the floor but those who did obviously enjoyed themselves. Then it was back home to Abbeyside and one must say that the drivers of the two coaches hired from Pat Daly were most helpful and we thank them for that. Also a special word of thanks to the committee members who travelled.

WHISPERINGS FROM THE POOR MANS SEAT

On the week of the Pattern, Minnies Ladies Tug O War team put in some practise in Sylvia McGrath's back garden in preparation for the Pattern. It seems they defeated the mens team from Minnies in three straight pulls. Included in the mens team were SD, FS, PO and PB.

MURPHY PLACE REUNION

With the sale of tickets going exceptionally well, everything seems to be now in place for the big Reunion at Lawlors Hotel on Saturday next August 12th. The attendance will include many former residents who have not been home for a long time and intend making the journey back for the occasion. It is intended to be a night of fun and reminiscence, with no speeches. All present will be invited to sign "The Reunion Book" which will be afterwards sealed, put into a time capsule, and reopened after another fifty years, to be inspected (we hope) at a centenary celebration.

REUNION MASS

A 7.00 pm Mass at St. Augustine's Church, Abbeyside has been specially arranged to commemorate the memory of all the deceased residents of Murphy Place.

CARAVANS AT STOKES FIELD

The number of caravans have been increased to five at the time of writing. Four of the caravans are parked near the wall adjoining the Church and the latest camper is at the far end of the field by the sewage treatment plant. Will the number of caravans further increase in the near future?

FOROIGE

It is hoped to start a branch of Foroige, to cover our Parish of Abbeyside/Ballinroad/Garranbane. The initiative for establishing the club has been undertaken by our way active curate Fr. Martin Keogh.

What is Foroige you may ask! Well, it is a national voluntary youth organisation which involved the members of a community in influencing the development of its youth. Foroige is something positive to do. It is enjoyment. It is a challenge. It brings about the development of human qualities such as self confidence, responsibility, caring and respect.

THE FOROIGE CLUB

Young people between the ages of 12 and 18 years, together with adult leaders, form Foroige Clubs.

The young people are responsible in co-operation with adult leaders for making all decisions regarding the club. The members elect from among themselves a chairperson, secretary, treasurer, a public relations officer and not more than two other members who, together with the club leader, form the club committee. The Foroige Club meets once a week. Each meeting lasts about two hours and includes: a formal meeting where members make democratic decisions concerning the club. Club activities based on Foroige's educational programmes. Recreation.

If you are interested in becoming a Foroige Leader, or would like some more information about Foroige, please contact Fr. Martin Keogh C.C. at (058) 42379.

BANK HOLIDAY WEEKEND

The weather was mild but showery. Time sheets in our two golf courses were full. Clonea strand was quite busy even on Monday though it was not exactly beach weather. The Celtic Tiger was evident as the pubs did well.

NEW SIGN AT CLONEA BEACH

The sign - the supports of which are blue in colour - is placed adjacent to the steps leading on to the beach. Section one of the sign contains a map outlining Waterford County Council Bathing Areas. Category One are the 'Blue Flag Beaches' ie Clonea and Tramore. Category two mark the 'Designated Beaches' one of which is Ardmore. Category three maps out 'Bathing Areas' such as Helvic and Dungarvan.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPORTANCE

Section two of the sign contains a map of 'Areas of Environmental Importance' as designated by Waterford County Council Category One outlines Special Protection Areas such as Dungarvan.

Category Two shows "Special Areas of Conservation" ie Mahon Falls and the mountain walk between Ballymacarby and Rathgormack. Category three are National Heritage Areas.

Beach Bye Laws

The sign in lower case writing lists twenty-one Bye Laws in all. For purposes of illustration we list four examples hereunder.

1 Do not park a dormobile, caravan or overnight camper on a road or car park at the beach. 2 It is wrong to cause danger, obstruction or annoyance to persons using the beach.

3 It is bad behaviour to damage any grass, sand dunes, plants, shrubs, wall railing or fence on or along the beach.

4 It is illegal to throw stones or any other substance while on or near the beach.

The above is all part of Waterford County Council's Blue Flag Campaign 2000. The Blue Flag Status has to be applied for next year and the stretch of beach concerned is marked clearly on the relevant map.

Stradbally Notes

BLACKBERRIES ARE OUT IN STRADBALLY!

Another unusual event is taking place in Stradbally this week, it's the unseasonably early arrival of blackberries. Luscious ripe perfect blackberries are adorning the hedgerows in Carriganna, almost a full month before their seasonal unveiling! Does this mean that the mackerel are already running in Ballyvooney, and the Swallows will be heading off shortly for their winter sojourn in Africa?

It has also been a bumper few weeks for butterflies, there have been plenty of small whites (cabbage lovers), small tortoise shells (nettle and thistle lovers), peacocks, and small coppers around. I'm still trying to identify others.

The sides of the roads are also adorned with a fantastic array of wildflowers, many of which no longer grow anywhere else, and are preserved in the sanctuary of our hedgerows.

MERCY CONVENT RE-UNION A HUGE SUCCESS

The Committee of the Mercy Convent re-union would like to thank all the people who helped to make the night such an unqualified success. The volunteer organisers of the evening were overwhelmed by the large number of people that turned up. The Committee were particularly pleased to see so many of the Mercy nuns present from the other convents in the area, not forgetting the five priests who also attended.

The 'picture gallery' was of great interest to everyone and many thanks from the Committee to all those who lent photographs for the occasion. The refreshments provided on the night were a huge hit, and the organisers would like to express their gratitude to everyone who produced and served the food.

The beautiful floral arrangements were also much appreciated, and the choir outdid themselves with their beautiful renditions of the hymns selected for the evening. Last but not least, a big 'thank you' goes to those who helped clean up afterwards.

SWIMMING AT STRADBALLY COVE

The yearly swimming lessons organised by Waterford County Council took place recently at Stradbally cove. Plenty of local children took part, with over fifty showing up to participate in categories from 'beginners' up to 'swim 5'. Bridget Queally from Grenan Kilmactomas was the instructor and she instilled confidence in even the most timid child.

The good weather played an important part in the large number attending, memories of last year's lessons in biting cold and rain were banished by the glorious sunshine. The lessons cost €6 per child, and were also subsidised by the County Council.

PRESENTATION TO SCÓR DANCERS

The Munster Scór Council presented plaques and silver plates to each member of the Stradbally Scór dancers, to commemorate their triumphant win at the Munster Finals and then their subsequent win at the

All-Ireland Championships. The celebratory evening was held in the Kilkoran Lodge Hotel, Cahir Co. Tipperary on Friday July 21st last. The proud parents who were invited to attend to watch the presentations, enjoyed a dinner and informal showcase dance display later in the evening. Liz Murphy was also honoured at the gathering, where she was presented with a trophy for her amazing coup bringing two Rince na Fóirne dance teams to the All-Ireland finals.

BEAUTY NIGHT AT THE G.A.A.

It was nice for a change to have 'women only' attending a function at the G.A.A., although the men were very definitely not excluded! Shirley Wall, Marcella Tobin and Denise Fitzgerald of Oriflame presented their new range of products on August 3rd (which includes stuff for men too), and everyone got the chance to sniff, poke, prod, squeeze and place orders to their heart's content. A make-over was carried out on two enthusiastic volunteers, and they both looked stunning. The door prize proceeds of £50 were presented to G.A.A. secretary Breda Kiely for the Juveniles, and there were lots of raffle prizes which Heather Finn, Yvonne Wall and myself seemed to win more than our fair share of! If you want to host an Oriflame evening in your house call Shirley at 058-46992.

'BATCHELORETTE' IN TROUBLE

It's bad enough to get the name wrong of someone you're not familiar with, but it's a very serious matter when you slip up on the name of a member of one's extended family! I reported last week that my niece Olivia O'Shea-Miles performed the sprightly 'cartwheel' Irish dancing number at the recent Lyre Heritage night in Stradbally, when it was in fact her sister Helena O'Shea-Miles.

Apparently the brother-in-law has the full 'infamous' brush dance, performed by the remarkable Bronagh and Leane Murphy on video, perhaps 'Batchelorettes in trouble' would be an apt title!

CONCELEBRANTS

There was an international flavour to the priests concelebrating the re-union Mass in Holy Cross church for the Past Pupil's of the Girl's primary school which was run by the Mercy order until 1988. Present were Fr. Virgil Power, a native of Fahafelagh now retired and living in Florida; Fr. Tom Whelan of Ballyvoile who ministered in Sierra Leone and is now based in Kimmage Manor in Dublin; Fr. Liam Cummins whose mother came from Ballykerogue, home on holidays from the Cameroons; Fr. Finbar Lucy and Fr. Michael Enright both of whom spent some time in the English mission. Unavoidably absent were Archdeacon Gregory Power and Canon Nicholas O'Mahoney.

The choir, accompanied by Mary Dunphy, sang a number of well known hymns which were much appreciated by the congregation, and the altar girls were Helena Hogan and Claire Connors both of whom are presently attending the girl's school. The readers at Mass were two Past-pupils, Joan Corry and Breda O'Brien. Thanks to Gerry Whelan who came to the rescue when there was a power failure in the church near the end of Mass.

RE-UNION

At the offertory procession during the recent Mass, to celebrate the re-union evening, the gifts were brought by Mary Sheehan, Sharon Costelloe, Mai O'Brien and Maureen Connors. A history of the Mercy nuns was given by John Keane, while Sister Assumpta gave an appreciation on behalf of the Mercy Order.

Carol Power presented a bouquet of flowers to Sister Philomena and John Walsh presented a yew tree which was planted in the Mercy nun's plot. Principal of the girl's school presented a painting of Stradbally Cove on behalf of the Board of Management.

OUTDOOR MASSES

Preparation continues for the two outdoor Masses scheduled for the 'rock of Ballyvoile', where the Parishes of Kilrossanty, Stradbally and Abbeyside (Garranbane) meet. This Mass will take place at 7 p.m. on Monday August 21st, while on the following Monday, August 28th, also at 7 p.m. Mass will be celebrated at Carraig an Aifrinn. Indications are that there should be a good attendance at both Masses, thanks to the enthusiasm of the local community who are looking forward to the occasion.

BALLY PATTERN

Owing to inclement weather the annual Mass to celebrate the feasts of Saints Joachim and Anne took place indoors and there was a large attendance. After Mass the graves were blessed and thanks to all the ladies who provided refreshments and entertainment in the community centre.

WEDDING

Congratulations and best wishes to Neil Phelan of Ballinabanogue, and Mary Byrne of Coolnasmear, who were married in Kilgobinet church on Saturday last. The best man was Pat Phelan assisted by Denis Phelan, while the bridesmaids were Julie Byrne and Kate O'Byrne.

STRADBALLY BOXER WINS TROPHY

Last Sunday evening a large crowd watched young local boxer Cathal Deery (Ballyvoile) take part in the 'An Rinn' Oyster Festival Boxing tournament. Cathal competed in the first contest which was an open air event in sweltering humid conditions. Cathal's opponent, a local boy (from An Rinn), who was two years older and 6 kilos heavier, gave a good account of himself but Cathal was quicker and faster on the day.

Mr Deery notes that it was a great pity that Cathal's club was turned down for a building grant when there are a lot of young boys who would like to join the Dungarvan boxing club, but current facilities are not adequate for them.

SWIM FULL STEAM AHEAD

The sixth annual RNLI sponsored swim in aid of the Helvic Head Lifeboat will take place on Sunday August 27th next. Starting from Ballinacourty at 4pm the swimmers will cross the bay, each accompanied by a safety boat as they make their way to the slipway by the Lifeboat House in Helvic Pier.

Training is well under way among the sponsored swimmers, and the Ladies Committee under the guidance of Olivere Walsh and her team will have a fabulous barbecue and suitable refreshments awaiting their arrival after the hard slog across the bay. The public are invited to share in this gala occasion, as they have in the past. Indeed it has proved to be a wonderful family day out with music on the pier and the wafting aroma of food on the barbecue against a colourful backdrop of trawlers, sailboats and yachts.

Come and support this very worthy cause. Remember the RNLI exists to save lives at sea.

Letter to the Editor

Unhappy With Dungarvan Show

Dear Editor,

Having spent a number of hours at the show, last Thursday week I decided to air a few points with your readers. I am currently working with a group of adult students from Switzerland who are in Dungarvan for three weeks. Every year they visit the show, on our recommendation, by using the courtesy bus from town. You can imagine my surprise and embarrassment to discover that there was none this year. Why? Surely the entrance fee alone (£4 per adult) would more than cover the cost of running a bus for the day?

I had told them not to walk or cycle as the road is narrow and very busy. So by not putting on a bus the Show lost out on 25 x £4 not to mention all the other people from town who did not go out because the bus was not running. Surely in this Millennium Year every effort would have been made to increase not only the size of the Show but also the number of people attending. It seems like a step backwards to me.

My second problem with the Show lies in the judging of one of the Animal classes. A black Aberdeen Angus bull and a Friesian Cow were being judged for the Best in Show. Both animals were, I am sure, excellent examples of their respective breeds, but I can only express my horror and dissatisfaction at the manner in which the final judging took place. The two judges could not make up their minds on the best animal and so tossed a coin for it! I could imagine the headlines "Best in Show Decided on the Toss of a Coin".

Surely, there had to be an alternative. I have seen and participated in a great many shows for both small and large animals all over Ireland and in England and never before have I witnessed such "judging." My sympathies go to the owner of the magnificent Angus Bull who must surely have felt cheated out of a prize at the toss of a coin.

I remember when this Show was the highlight of the year for both the people of Dungarvan and the surrounding rural community and was held in Shandon. With the passing of the years, the move away from town, while facilitating the expansion of the Show, has led to a loss of its original focus of a good day out for all the family. Not content with charging higher entrance fees, the Show for the most part seems to be an exercise in getting people, especially those with young children, to part with their money as quickly as possible, with the exception of Macra na Feirme who entertain the crowd with their various tests of skill, etc.

This years Show is more an example of Millennium Madness than something of which the Committee can be proud. While I can certainly appreciate that it takes a lot of hard work on behalf of any Committee to organise any event, surely a little common sense would not go astray in future years?

FRANCES MOYNIHAN

IN MEMORIAM

BRENNAN — First Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear Mam, Mary Brennan, Curraglass, who died on August 13, 1999.

A gift in life so precious and rare,
Is the love that a mother and daughter can share.
We shared that love, Mam, you and I,
From the day I was born,
Till the day you died.
The hardest thing in life to bear,
Is to want your Mam and you're not there.
So forgive me Lord if today I weep,
For a mother I loved and wanted to keep.
(Sadly missed by your loving daughter Patricia and son-in-law Johnnie.)

NANNA

Thank you Nanna for those years we shared,
The love you gave and the way you cared,
You left a place no one can fill,
We miss you Nanna and always will.
(Never forgotten, your loving grandsons Damien and Gavin.)

BYRNE — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of a dear daughter and sister, Nuala, late of Tournageeha, Ballyduff, whose anniversary occurs on August 12.

Anniversary Mass on Sunday, August 13, at 11.30 a.m. in St. Michael's Church.
To us she was a tiny flower, lent, not given,
To bud on earth, but to bloom in heaven.
(Lovingly remembered by Mam, Dad, Ann and brothers.)

CURRAN — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of Grace, late of 8, Bradford Close, Southways, Abbotside, Dungarvan who died on August 14, 1998.

FRAHER — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of our granddad, Paul, late of 8, Comeragh Crescent, Dungarvan who died on August 17, 1995.

(With love, Kayleigh, Vicky and Jonathan X X X.)

FRAHER — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my husband Paul, late of 8, Comeragh Crescent, Dungarvan who died on August 17, 1995.

Anniversary Mass for Paul in St. Mary's Parish Church on Tuesday, August 15, at 7.30 p.m.
Distance takes us far apart
And darkens my today,
I have to keep remembering,
You're just a thought away,
When the world is too confusing,

Times are hard to bear,
I pull your precious meaning,
Your bright spirit from the air.
If I sometimes drift,
Into a lovely state of mind,
I gather up the memories,
Of days we left behind,
And though you're not beside me,

I can tap into my heart,
And draw upon the warmth and love,
That lives when we're apart.
And with these fond reflections,

Of the times when you were near,
I sense a little bit of what it's like,
To have you here.
(From your loving wife, Teresa.)

FRAHER — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of our father, Paul Fraher, late of 8, Comeragh Crescent, Dungarvan who died on August 17, 1995.

At heaven's gate he will be waiting,
With that loving smile,
For he is only gone before us,
Just a little while.

A shadow walks beside us,
Forever by our side,
Always here to guide us,
Ever since you died.
And now it's your anniversary,

It's up to God above,
To tell you how much we miss you,
And give you all our love.
(Always remembered, Catherine, Regina, Paula, Richard, Gillian.)

FRAHER — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear brother, Paul, late of 8, Comeragh Crescent, Dungarvan who died on August 17, 1995.

In a church not far away,
Candles are burning for you today,
As we light them, we whisper low,
God bless you, we love and miss you so.
Wrap your arms around him, Lord,

Don't leave him all alone,
For now he is at home.
(Sadly missed by your loving sister Loretta and brother-in-law Pat.)

FRAHER — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear brother, Paul, late of 8, Comeragh Crescent, Dungarvan who died on August 17, 1995.

I knew all my life I would miss you,
For you meant the world to me,
I have such great memories of you,
That others cannot see,
There's no way I could forget you, Paul,
I never even try,
I will even love you more, Paul,
As time goes by.
(From your loving sister Kathleen.)

HEAPHY — Tenth Anniversary — In loving memory of John Heaphy, Ballyhane, Aflane, Cappoquin, who died on July 31, 1990.

Memories are precious, they don't fade away,
We think of you always, not just today.
(Always remembered by son Pat, Brid, Leona and Eric.)

KENEFICK — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear husband, Michael, Gortnapeeka, Ballyduff Upper, who died on August 12, 1997.

A day that is filled with sadness,
Returns to me today,
As I stop to remember you,
In a very special way,
No matter how my life has changed,
No matter what I do,
There's a special place within my heart,
That is always there for you.
(Lovingly remembered, never forgotten, your loving wife, Nora.)

KENEFICK — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear father, Michael, late of Gortnapeeka, Ballyduff Upper, who died on August 12, 1997.

Dad, your golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest,
God broke my heart to prove,
That he only takes the best.
It doesn't take a special day,
To bring you to my mind,
A day without a thought of you,
Is very hard to find.
(Sadly missed and always remembered by your loving daughter Margaret, son-in-law Tommy, grandson Micheál.)

LAWLESS — First Anniversary — In loving memory of James Lawless, Flower Hill, Ballyduff, who died on August 8, 1999.

You have left a place no one can fill,
We miss you Mam and always will.

(Never forgotten by your husband Joe, Tony and Trisha, Ann and John, Tomás and Kathleen, grandchildren, greatgrandchildren in Dungarvan and Cork.)

MEEHAN — Fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of our beloved grandmother, Mary, late of 60, Murphy Place, Abbotside, whose anniversary occurs on August 9.

How do we write on paper,
The feelings we have inside,
The heartache and the emptiness,
That's with us since you died,
And now that it's your anniversary,
We would like to let you know,
Just how much we miss you,
And wish you could come home,
You taught us many things in life,
That we would have to do,
But you never taught us how to cope,
With losing you.
We miss you because we loved you,
Much more than words can say,
And we know that without you, Nanny,
There is no perfect day.
Your memory is our greatest treasure,
To have, to love, to keep forever,
A Mass, a prayer, are all we can give,
These you shall have, Nanny, as long as you live.
(Always loved and never forgotten Nanny, from your granddaughters Finola and Majella.)

Years may pass and tears may dry,
But memories of you will never die.
(Always remembered by your son Michael, daughter-in-law Mary and grandchildren.)

NEEDHAM — Twenty-sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of my father, Patrick Needham, late of Murphy Place, Abbotside, who died on August 13, 1974.

If just for a few more years.
(Always remembered by your loving daughter Mary and granddaughter Tracy.)

NÍ MUIRITHE — An Ceathru Cuimneacáin — Muireann as Helvic, an Rinn, a fuair bás ar an 11ú Luanasa, 1996, aois 22.

O'CALLAGHAN — Twenty-fifth Anniversary — In sad and loving memory of Dermot, late of Carrigloss, Knockanore, who died on August 16, 1975.

God has a lovely garden,
In his mansion up above,
He tends the garden, every day,
With his tenderness and love,
The flowers that are in it,
Are the sweetest and the best,
To get into God's garden,
We have to pass a test.
He goes around them every day,
Treating them with care,
We're really very lucky,
We have a flower there,
And when we search that garden,
We'll look at it with pride,
Hoping God will put us at our Dermot's side,
We will always love and miss you.
(Your heartbroken Mam, brothers and sisters.)

We will always have memories, to cherish and hold,
Of a wonderful brother, more precious than gold,
We keep in our hearts the love of the past,
For there it is planted, forever to last.

With broken hearts we whisper low,
God Bless you, Dermot, we love you so.
(Your loving sister Jean, Jim, Michael and Shane.)

A little prayer to Jesus say,
(Fondly remembered always by Annette and brother-in-law Pat and family.)

There was one local winner in the July Deise Development Draw - Ml. O'Brien, Tobernahalla, Ballyduff who won £60. The draw is an outstanding success as a fund-raiser for the new Sports hall being built in the field. The annual Eugene Hickey Trophy tournament will be played during the Gala Festival. The U-16 hurling panel had a fruitless journey to Waterford city on Monday night where they were due to play Mt. Sion. However, the game did not take place as no referee turned up.

MILLENNIUM SPORTS HALL

Work on the development of the new Sport's hall in the Community Field is continuing apace. It is expected that the block-laying with the exception of one bay will be completed this week. The floor will be put in this Saturday. Anyone who can help out on the site whether they are block-layers, plasterers or general labourers are welcome any evening from 7.00 p.m. onwards or on Saturdays. Names can be given to Vincent Sheehan, Ml. Walsh or Maurice Geary. All the work on the building to date except the steel structure has been carried out on a voluntary basis. It is great to see crews of workers on site each evening with some of those present coming from outside the area. The building will measure 100 ft. and 50 ft. and will be a major asset to the community. The first major fundraising event undertaken by the finance committee was the Déise Dev. Draw. The July draw took place in Mt. Sion and we had one winner of a £60. prize namely Ml. O'Brien, Tobernahalla, Ballyduff. (Promoter - John Jackson). This year Ballyduff has a record number of tickets in the draw and to date, with three draws having taken place, we had a total of five prizewinners. The next draw will take place on Friday August 25th in Tramore and promoters are requested to submit remittances to coordinator well in advance of this date. A number of other fund-raising ventures are planned and we will have details of these in the coming weeks. Again, thanks for the excellent support to date which is much appreciated by all involved in the project.

COMMUNITY GAMES

to have such a representation at the national finals. This year a large number of competitors represented the area in athletics, art, soccer, hurling and volleyball. The committee would like to thank all who took part and the various team managers for their co-operation.

THE LATE JOHN FEENEY

It is with deep regret that we record the death of John Francis Feeney, Inchinleamy, Ballyduff which sad event occurred at his residence on Tuesday July 18th. Deceased, who worked in the construction trade, enjoyed life to the full and the strength of his popularity was evident by the large attendances at both the removal of remains and interment. The removal of remains took place on the Thursday evening from his residence to St. Michael's Church where they were received and blessed by Rev. Fr. M. Cullinane P.P. On arrival in the village, the cortege was met by a guard of honour drawn from friends, colleagues, neighbours and former school mates. The interment took place on Friday afternoon in St. Michael's cemetery with another large concourse of mourners present. Rev. Fr. M. Cullinane P.P. along with a number of visiting clergy officiated at the graveside. ## Emphatic Win For St. Oliver's WEST U-21 (B) FOOTBALL FINAL

St. Oliver's 1-14 An Gaeltacht 0-5

Pre match favourites St. Oliver's duly collected the first divisional title of the New Millennium when they proved far too strong for An Gaeltacht in a one sided final at Fraher Field on Monday afternoon. Early points from Eoghan Walsh (2), Martin O'Brien and Ger O'Donovan saw Oliver's lead by four seventeen minutes into the game. Nineteen minutes had elapsed before An Gaeltacht registered their first score a pointed free from Cian O'Connor who was to be their only player to get on the scoresheet. St. Oliver's led by 0-6 to 0-3 at the break and went on to totally dominate the second period. O'Connor converted another free for the Gaeltacht side 3 mins. after the restart to leave only two between the sides but Oliver's upped a gear and four points from Eoghan Walsh (3 from frees) in a nine minute period gave them a 6 points cushion. O'Connor was denied a certain goal five minutes from the end when his fisted effort was brilliantly saved by Jason McGrath in the Oliver's goal. The only goal of the game came in the closing stages when substitute Vinny Mernin found the net for Oliver's to give them an emphatic victory. An Gaeltacht were reduced to fourteen players early in the second half when one of their defenders was dismissed for a second bookable offence.

WATERFORD SATURDAY AUGUST 5TH

Javas Jet Broke The Clock or Did She?

Last Saturday nights all graded card produced a number of talking points not least the record breaking run of Javas Jet (Lassa Java - Suirside Lass) in a 500 yard race while two owners and trainers also recorded doubles with their runners.

First of all let's concentrate on the exceptional run of the Mary Breen owned and Paul Kervick trained Javas Jet who covered the 500 yard trip in 27.52 which was four points faster than the old record held by Down the Racks. Available at 4/1 Javas Jet displayed dash of early pace from trap four to lead from Ciaras Rocket and although the 4/6 favourite Stage Success showed up well in the closing stages he had no chance of catching the winner who won with some authority by three and a half lengths. This new record time must now be ratified by the Irish Greyhound Board who must decide whether last Saturday nights effort by Javas Jet in a four runner contest constitutes a new record.

Long time patron at both Enniscorthy and Waterford tracks Maura Mahon was present to see her Black Ivory (Matthews Gold - Tiger Milly) 3/1 make every yard of the running in the first race for a three and a half lengths success over Nikkis River in 29.69.

A wide open second event produced a hard earned but fully deserved victory for the Saltee Syndicate owned and Martin Butcher trained Double Gun (Ready About Nga - Twinkling Star) 4/1 who tracked cleverly around the third bend slipping into the lead past the long time leaders Graiguenoe Rose and Kellymount Wish before motoring on for a length and a quarter win over the former in 29.53.

An ease in grade was just what the doctor ordered for the Barbara Woodworth owned and Mary Buggy handled Song of Erin, this daughter of Staplers Jo and Seskin Claire driving clear out of trap three taking a graded sprint with plenty to spare by four and three quarter lengths from Dysart Capricorn in 16.68. The winner was returned the 6/4 favourite.

The same connections were back in the winners enclosure after the eighth event as 3/1 chance Derwent Pride ran her best ever race to oblige in an excellent 29.09. This daughter of Spiral Nikita and Dessies Pride destroyed her rivals for early pace going into a clear lead around the opening turn and in a one sided affair Derwent Pride dished out a nine and a half lengths beating to Belesker Lady.

Christine Marlins Scallywagrunaway (Lassa Java - Denmark Darling) 4/1 posted a trap to line victory in the fourth over the testing 730 yard trip. Racing into an early lead Scallywagrunaway enjoyed her 42.19 romp at the head of affairs coming home four lengths clear of a running on Final Secret who came from behind Greenane Mover to claim the runner up spot.

After two recent impressive victories over the standard distance Mo Madra dropped back to a two bend trip in the fifth race but this 11/10 favourite had an off night and failed to figure in the shake up. Victory here went to the highly consistent Lightning Peter (Trader Thad - Celtic Sparrow) this 2/1 shot running for James Mythen and the Baumen Syndicate holding at bay the late rally of Lilac Vintage by half a length in 16.74.

Dave Maltby - Baker who operated from Portlaw in County Waterford saw two of his runners post a short priced but welcome double. Savana Champ (Right Move UK - Paddock Mandy) 5/4 was first into action in a 730 yard marathon and this May 98 whelp made every post a winning one digging deep in the closing stages to withstand the flying late charge of 1/1 favourite Bongo Squaw who tasted defeat by a short head in 41.34.

Kennel mate Savana Whisper (Batties Whisper - Teresa's Collar) 1/1 had a much easier time in the ninth race obliging in 29.63. Gliding past the front running Painter Profile out of the second bend Savana Whisper stayed on strongly to record a two and a three quarter lengths victory. Both "Savana" winners will now continue their racing careers in England.

Local owner Tony Ryan sent out the final race winner of the session as 4/1 chance Field Rock (He Knows - Kingsmeadow Mist) 4/1 displayed sound early pace for trainer Dick Ryan to win out in 29.51. Derwent Star pushed the winner all the way and despite drifting wide into the home stretch Field Rock knuckled down to the task in hand to triumph by half a length.

WATERFORD TUESDAY AUGUST 1ST

The attendance at this the first meeting in August was swelled by a number of holidaymakers so much so that all the race cards were sold out prior to racing. The feature event of the evening was the final of the Added Bonus Sweepstake and it produced an exciting final. The early pacesetter Shanbally Pride appeared on her way to victory leading down the back from Europa Apache but the whole complexion of the race altered in the last twenty yards as Monmahogue Stone came through to challenge Shanbally Pride but in doing so she hampered the leader. As a result the Alan Jaggard owned and Dick Ryan trained Europa Apache (Druids Lodge - Ballygarron Lady) 9/4 seized the opportunity to flash by on the outside for a half a length success over Monmahogue Stone in 29.74.

Well known County Wexford owner/breeder George Roche kindly sponsored the four first round heats of the Up Wexford Unraced stake which carries a winners prize of £700.

Heat one. First Sailor was sent off the 4/5 favourite but despite a flying finish he was unable to peg back the Paul Harney owned and Jimmy Scully trained Tirlough Jerry (Spiral Nikita Ullid Citrate) this 2/1 chance obliging in 29.57. The winner was only in third spot down the back before overtaking Paul's Official on the rails at the third bend. First Sailor made rapid late headway only to go down by a neck.

Heat two. Only three runners faced the starter here with victory going to the Sean Dunphy owned Droopy's Spice (El Premier Droopy's Fiona) who dictated matters from the outset this 2/5 chance making all for a length success over Prince Trio in 29.69.

Heat three. The Tess Power owned Market Rumble (Smooth Rumble - Up The Oris) was all the rage here at 4/6 but after a moderate start the winner showed his mettle coming from behind a front running Cissies Fintan before winning out in 29.60.

Heat four. All the money in this qualifier was for Lukes Banjo and after breaking free from the pack this 4/6 favourite appeared well on his way to victory going into a five lengths lead over 5/2 shot Lonesome Hunter who clipped the running rail at the first bend. The leaders stride began to shorten off the home bend however and Ken O'Neil's beautifully bred Lonesome Hunter (Westmead Merlin - Tá Fáilte Romhat) finished powerfully to land the spoils by two lengths in 29.53.

Despite a slow start in the first graded race the All Trades Syndicate owned and Pat O'Regan trained Westpark Jack (Mustang Jack - Eastpark Mist) 4/1 secured a clear run on the rails at the opening turn when the previously unraced Sadlers Special left a narrow gap on his inside. The latter sent off the 4/6 favourite did his best to reel in "Westpark" but a length separated the pair at the winning line in 30.10.

There was plenty of money floating around in the sixth as Airmount Jim was supported down from 3/1 to 4/5. The favourite was denied a clear run around the opening bend however as the Michael Hennebry owned and Nicky Grace trained Honchos First (Top Honcho - Ardera Melody) 5/2 sprinted to the head of affairs to race on for a four and a quarter lengths victory over Powerful Rover in 29.80.

A graded sprint resulted in a narrow but deserved victory for the Richard Walsh owned Raywee Progress (Batties Rocket - Roan Judy) 5/2 who came from behind a fast starting Premiere Chip to win out by a neck in 16.94.

Savana Bawn (Fifthofnovember - Devon Melody) owned by Kevin Baker and trained by Dave Maltby Baker got off the mark at the third attempt in the ninth race obliging at odds of 2/1. Well suited to his rails draw the Portlaw dog powered his way into the lead around the opening turn and going clear he came home in pole position with seven and three quarter lengths to spare over a slow starting Scintillas Jodie in 29.99.

The Patrick Reddy owned Blackstar Bandit (Spiral Nikita - Special Bluebird) 5/2 posted his first race win in the final race of the session making every yard of the running from a middle draw accounting for Gerpats Amigo by two lengths in 29.78.

IRISH GREYHOUND BOARD ANNUAL REPORT 1999

For the fourth successive year the Irish Greyhound Industry has recorded highly satisfactory results with substantial increases in attendances, betting turnover, prize-money and sponsorship - as well as major progress in the implementation of the Boards capital development programme. The Boards Annual Report for 1999, together with interim figures for the first six months of 2000 were presented to Mr. Joe Walsh T.D., Minister for Agriculture, Food & Rural Development at Curraheen Park Stadium, Cork on Saturday 29th July.

Highlights of the Year

Total betting turnover £38m - an increase of 18.2%. Tote betting £10.9m - up by 9.2%. Bookmaker betting £27.1m - an increase of 22.2%. Sponsorship £791,826 - up 15%. Total prize money pay-out for year £2.6m

Attendances and Meetings

Aggregate attendances for the year amounted to 756,000 which represents a 13.6% increase in average attendances per meeting.

The total number of meetings held was 1,605 as compared with 1,818 for the previous year - a decrease of 213 meetings. This decrease in meetings significantly affected the overall attendance figure - with the main loss of meetings at Harold's Cross, Navan and Clonmel.

Healthy Statistics

Following a decade of decline which began in the mid '80's there has been a complete rejuvenation of the industry. This change has been spearheaded by the Board's Chairman Mr. Paschal Taggart together with a dedicated Board and Chief Executive, Michael Field. All key statistics have shown the dramatic increases, particularly when compared with 1995. The tote turnover of £10.9 million more than doubled - up 105%. Bookmaker betting at £27.1m increased by 55%. The attendance figure of 756,000 increased by 29% and total prize money paid out to owners at £1.2m represents an increase of 49% on the 1995 levels.

AERTEL CHANGES

There is a change to Aertels results service on Greyhound racing in Ireland. The two Dublin tracks Shelbourne Park and Harold's Cross are on page 637 while results from the country tracks are available on page 638.

ODELL DUKE SHINES IN DERBY

Despite the fact that he is probably one of the oldest entries in this years Paddy Power. Com Irish Derby Ned Power's Odell Duke showed his younger rivals a thing or two the Dunganvar greyhound priced at 10/1 in heat 14 of last Saturday nights derby heats sweeping to a head victory in 30.31.

TRACK DEVELOPMENTS

Monday 8th March 1999, was an historic milestone in the development of the Irish Greyhound Industry, when Mr. Joe Walsh, T.D. Minister for Agriculture, Food and Rural Development officiated at the sod turning ceremony at Curraheen Park for Cork's magnificent new greyhound stadium cum leisure facility. The grandstand topping out ceremony took place on 23rd July 1999 and excellent progress on the overall site development had been achieved at years end. The new facility was officially opened by Minister Joe Walsh, T.D. on the 20th May.

The new Curraheen Park Greyhound Stadium is one of the best equipped greyhound racing facilities in the world and has generated excellent returns in respect of attendances, restaurant bookings, bookmaker and totalisator turnover since opening day. This is very evident from the statistics available for the first six months of the current year 2000, which show: Attendances 44,000 (+109%). Tote Betting £679,257 (+194%). Bookmaker Betting £1,845,151 (+153%).

Work on a new development project at Harold's Cross Stadium, Dublin commenced in mid 1999 and the new stadium opened for racing on 14th July 2000. The new facilities include an excellent a la carte restaurant, together with corporate suites, similar to the highly successful Shelbourne Park Stadium facility.

During 1999 the Board also approved major developments at Limerick, Newbridge, Mullingar, Kilkenny and Galway.

CHANGE IN METHOD OF FUNDING FOR IRISH GREYHOUND BOARD AND IRISH HORSERACING AUTHORITY

The proposed changes in the method of funding both for the Irish Greyhound Board and the Irish Horseracing Authority came into operation on Sunday 25th July 1999. Bookmaker turnover at Board licensed tracks for the period 25th July 1999 to 31st December 1999 - amounted to £14.6m - an increase of 40% on turnover figures for the same period in 1998.

NATIONAL FORMBANK DATABASE

By the end of 1999, the installation of the Board's National Formbank Database has been fully completed. The software and hardware required to run the database has been installed in every track. This includes the three Northern Ireland tracks. The system is of tremendous value to all sectors of the greyhound industry. The system retains all racing performances at tracks around the country and this information can be accessed by all participating sites. The Irish Greyhound Board has completed the first stage of its web-site development. Further development plans involve providing access to its Formbank database via the web. This would allow owners to access all the race card history of any greyhound.

CONTINUED GROWTH FOR FIRST SIX MONTHS OF 2000

The highly successful performance of the Greyhound Industry in all the key areas showed continued improvement in the first six months of 2000 and interim figures released for the period to 30th June 2000 confirm this progressive trend. Details are as follows; Attendances 395,000 (+12%). Tote Betting £6,103m (+18%). Bookmaker Betting £17,084m (+55%).

JUVENILE NOTES

The next juvenile Open Competition in the Gold Coast is on Tuesday 22nd August. We had a great turn out for this Open, which is sponsored by Johnny Lynch Fruit Merchant, Dungarvan, last year and this year should be no exception. Time sheet for the Open starts at 9.00 am and runs to 12.30 pm. To book please ring 058 44055.

Open Intermediate Scratch Cup — On Sunday next the Open Intermediate Scratch Cup, handicap 12 to 18 and sponsored by the Allied Irish Bank, Dungarvan takes place in the Gold Coast. It is expected that the time sheet will be full for this competition so please ring early to reserve a tee time. Mixed Foursomes — The mixed foursomes matches are not running to schedule. This is not fair on any of the competitors and makes for a haphazard and badly run competition for everyone. Members involved in the Mixed Foursomes please make an extra effort to see that each round of this competition is completed on time.

Club Fourball — As with the mixed foursomes the Club Fourball is also falling behind schedule which is also unfair on other competitors that have their matches completed on time. It is the holiday period and members may be away topping up their tan but unfortunately the more mundane day to day things, like playing the Club Fourball on schedule, have to be completed as well.

Next Club Outing — The next Club outing takes place on Thursday 17th August to Faithlegg Golf Club. There are only twenty places available at the moment and they are allocated on a first come basis. Please see notice board for further details.

Presidents Prize — The Presidents Prize, presented by Brian O'Connor, will take place on the last week end of August. Qualifying rounds will be on Friday 25th and Saturday 26th with the top 100 to go through to play on Sunday 27th August. Entertainment and light refreshments will be provided after the presentation in the Gold Coast Golf Hotel.

Mixed Scramble — The Club Mixed Scramble is in danger of becoming a scramble for the male members only unless the ladies make a better and more sustained effort to participate on the Friday evenings and keep this very enjoyable competition alive.

New members, both male and female, are especially welcome for the scramble where you will get to know some of the more established members and if you are lucky pick up a few tips on the way.

LADIES GOLF NOTES

Open Days — The next Ladies Open Day is scheduled to take place on next Monday 14th August. This three ball Rumble competition is kindly sponsored by Ruffles Boutique, Main St., Dungarvan. ## YOUTHS TRIUMPHANT

Last Tuesday, the 1st of August was probably one of the best days for the club in two years. The Irish Club Youths Munster Final was the date. Fermoy was the venue. The conditions in the morning were ideal, although a slight breeze was blowing. The team consisted of international Alan Harty, Mark Shanahan and John Dunphy. Despite a disappointing first round from Alan Harty, both Mark Shanahan and John Dunphy produced two great rounds of 73 and 78 respectively to lie six shots behind Muskerri going into the second round. Conditions in the afternoon turned against the boys, with both wind and driving rain making scoring difficult. Despite the weather the boys fought on with Alan Harty shooting an almost impossible level par 70 and John Dunphy shooting another great round of 76. After the two rounds we were tied with Mallow on 17 over, but won on the second 18 in the countback. Pat Spratt, the manager was ecstatic having won yet again another pennant for the club. The celebrations went on late into the night in West

Waterford Golf Club and thanks to Justin Spratt for the entertainment. The boys will now travel to Donegal Golf Club for the All Ireland Final on the 28th August. Best of luck in the final and hopefully they will bring back the first green pennant to the club.

SPRATTS BAR OPEN

There was a huge turn out last weekend for the Castle Park Hotel and Spratts Bar Open kindly sponsored by Michael Spratt. The weather was excellent and the course was tip top for this event. O'Riordan was second with 42 points and Mark Shanahan won the gross with a brilliant score of two under par. It was a very successful weekend overall and the prizes were well appreciated, thanks to Michael Spratt.

Colligan Woods Riding Club

THE HORSE SHOE DIARIES

Dungarvan Show: — The Dungarvan Show saw several of our members in action. Taking a well deserved first was Sharon Mulcahy with her beautiful yearling, showing in hand. This lovely filly recently took first place at Castleannon Show and is undoubtedly one to watch in the future. Sharon also took a fourth place with her two year old. Competing in the Working Hunter were Donna Coady and "Sarah's Gift". "Sarah's Gift" jumped clear and was impeccably behaved throughout the showing and judging. Jumping in the 1.6m was Aine Cummins on "Milly". This young mare had her first outing in the Farmers Journal qualifier at Warrington and has since gone from strength

Competing at the Dungarvan Show are (l. to r.) Karen Flynn on "Murphy's Law", Tess O'Brien on "Toby Lord Byron" and Melody Williams on "Colligan's Kim"

talised on their form with a lovely double clear in the 1m jumping at Dungarvan. In the Amateur showing class we had three entries. Melody Williams showed Louise Moloney's "Colligan's Kim" with great aplomb. Karen Flynn showed her own "Murphy's Law" and Tess O'Brien showed her own "Toby Lord Byron". "Murphy's Law" was our top performer of the day, taking second place, with "Colligan's Kim" and "Toby Lord Byron" taking fifth and sixth respectively.

Millstreet: — We hope to have a strong contingent in Millstreet again this year. So far we have the following declared for the AIRC competitions, Louise Moloney, on "Colligan's Kim" Open, Trish Walsh, on "Lisfenell Lady", Tess O'Brien, on "Toby Lord Byron" and Eileen Gee, on "Chestnut Dream" Intermediate. We're delighted to see Eileen back in the saddle following a lengthy absence. Eileen recently made her comeback in some style taking a brilliant second place in the Amateur competition at Ballinassig. Des O'Brien, on "Toby Lord Byron" will compete in the Advanced Primary competition. A number of other riders have expressed an interest but have yet to confirm. They are reminded that entries must be in by August 12th. The highlight of the show will, however, be Louise Moloney's bid for the Amateur title. Despite an enforced absence of some months, Louise has gone on to qualify "Colligan's Kim" for this prestigious competition and we wish her the very best of luck.

Colligan Equestrian Centre Leagues: — With just one round remaining, competition is hot and last week saw Donna Coady and "Sarah's Gift" take the Maxi title, in what proved to be a very taxing jump off. This win for Donna has put her in with a chance for the overall title. Also in with a chance are Trish

Walsh and "Lisfenell Lady" who had four faults in the jump off, but have been clear up until now. Tom McCauliffe and "Charlie" had their problems too and didn't manage to make the jump off. Last week's course also gave trouble to some of our amateur riders. Pat Barron and "Katie" clocked up three faults on the treble. This was Pat's first mistake of the League, however, provided he can jump clear on final night he should still be able to hold onto the top spot. Tess O'Brien and "Toby Lord Byron" are clear all the way, however, having missed one round of the competition they are not considered serious contenders.

Club Hack: — Our recent hack proved a huge success and was well supported. There is definite potential here for a repeat performance later in the season. There were no casualties other than next day aches and pains, mostly attributed to the very fit horses, courtesy of Colligan Equestrian Centre. Easy on that Weetabix John. Eibhlin braved the wrath of folklore and defied the old adage, which cautions on the folly of changing horses mid stream. She and "Star" were last seen heading for home with a good tail wind. A certain horse was later observed swishing his tail in the vicinity of Grattan Square. A local hostelry has, allegedly, since applied for planning permission to erect a hitching post outside its premises.

Snippets: — Carol has finally turned up — "God's in his Heaven and all's right with the world". Eibhlin has just purchased a new equestrian aid - a portable step ladder. We're hoping to organise either a half day or full day trail ride during Sept., more details later.

Fantasy League: — Babs Coady (White Stick), Eibhlin Power (Top Rung), Carol Whelan (Brown Babe), Francis Dwane (Big Boy), Ann Wright (Hold me Back).

Sue Phelan — A Busy Lady

BY MARK PHILIPS

Despite the fact that the annual Waterford and Tramore Racing Festival is only a matter of days away newly appointed local race course manager Sue Phelan still managed to take some time out to give an interview with the "Leader". With a name like Phelan one quickly made the assumption that Sue was a local girl from the South Kilkenny region but not for the first time we backed a loser as Sue hails from Dublin while her parents are originally from Cork.

Sue studied agricultural science at U.C.D. but always had a deep interest in bloodstock affairs and gained valuable experience working with yearlings at the famous Santa Anita race track in California. Sue decided however in 1994 to move down south from her Dublin home and joined Glanbia or Waterford Co-Op as it was then known as a sales representative working for Gain Animal Feeds.

After a spell in the Carrick-on-Suir branch she moved to the Gaultier outlet where she became manager. A vacancy then arose as Office Administrator at Tramore race course and her application for the post proved successful.

Sue received her big break quite recently when the then manager New Ross based Michael Murphy decided to pursue his own business interests and Sue was duly appointed to the position of Manager at this unique seaside venue. The role of racecourse manager is a demanding one but this lady appears well up to tackling the tasks and issues that lie ahead. She is one of a growing breed of young managers appointed to the country's race tracks in the last twelve months. The managers job at the track is a full time position and while there are only nine racedays in the year there is a steady stream of incoming and outgoing correspondence to be dealt with.

A number of other activities are in operation at the track throughout the year such as the recent American Circus while the controversial Quad Bikes are ever present at the venue.

Sue is very bullish about the future of Tramore Racecourse and is very complimentary of the local support for the venture. The Directors of the track bring a healthy mix of business and sporting expertise to the venture and Sue is quick to acknowledge the support and encouragement provided by the Board of Directors. She is keen to try out new ideas and only recently attended the Galway Racing Festival in hope of picking up some tips from the Western track. One idea in the pipeline at the moment for the track is the schooling of racehorses on non race days but as Sue explains the Turf Club lay down stringent rules for such events such as the provision of an on site Ambulance and Veterinary Surgeon.

Away from the track the Phelan household is in picturesque Bonmahon. Surprise surprise Sue keeps two horses one of which is an ex racer who has now converted over to the dressage discipline. Sue likes to travel and is hopeful some day of making the trip over to see the famous Pardebuice Chase in the Czech Republic.

The Board of Management at Waterford and Tramore Racecourse can rest assured that there is one very vibrant lady at the helm and the future of the race course have never looked brighter.

Red House League

REFEREES MEETING

The first referees meeting of the season takes place on Monday night August 21st at 8 p.m. sharp in the Red House, Lismore. This is a particularly important meeting as all the new rules will be discussed with the new season just weeks away. A panel of referees will also have to be drawn up for the U-17 and U-18 leagues which will be starting soon. Finally I have been asked to remind all referees that they may only officiate at tournaments that have been sanctioned by the Red House League and the Munster Football Association. Written proof from these organisations is needed before a referee can take part in any competition and failure to comply with these regulations will result in a referee facing disciplinary action from his society.

DELEGATE MEETING

The date for the first delegate meeting is Monday night August 21st at 9 p.m. in the Red House in Lismore.

OSCAR TRAYNOR CUP

Nominations for managers for our team must be handed to the secretary, Michael McBride before the next delegate meeting.

GALLANT HOLDERS RELINQUISH TITLE

Parrish Bar made the breakthrough in only their second year of competition joining the long list of victors in this unique and vibrant tournament. In a hard and tense game Parrish grabbed the early initiative and after scoring had to endure a ferocious onslaught by a determined Kiely's combination who displayed a never say die commitment. However overall the better cohesion of the Parrish side carried the day and it was a proud Alan Harty who lifted the cup for Johnny Lynch's side.

While the final itself could not be described as a classic the will to win, commitment, determination shown by both sides was illustrated by some fierce tackles with no sides giving or asking for quarter.

Essentially a fair and good spirited game it was obvious from the start that both sides were well matched and if it was to be settled in normal time it would be a single goal that would separate the teams.

In a tense but exciting first half both defences were on top and the play was confined to the midfield sector where Joe Nolan and Bernie Crotty were having a fierce battle with Kevin Lonergan and Brian Kirwan.

Chances were few and far between but on 18 minutes Nicky Hayes was through on goal his left leg cocked to score when Kevin Walsh slid in with a last ditch tackle. "Penalty" cried the Kiely's support. "great tackle" echoed the Parrish. Matthews was unmoved and waved protests away. Up the field came Walsh into the Kiely's half played a one-two and fired in from 14 yards to break the deadlock. Back came Kiely's but with two on Mattie it was a difficult task. Lyons was elegant at the back while Pajo Lanigan belied his years to give a performance of great merit.

The gallant Kiely's team who just failed to retain their Amstel Pub League 2000

Try as Kiely's might they could not break back and indeed it was the captain himself Alan Harty who had the chance of the match to make it 2-0 but his shot just went wide

So the Parrish become the 2000 champions and after some marvellous performances throughout the tournament deservedly so.

Well done to them and commiserations to the losers Kielys who over the last 2 years have added a new dimension to the competition. Milo Corcoran presented the Heineken Cup to Alan Harty amid wild celebrations.

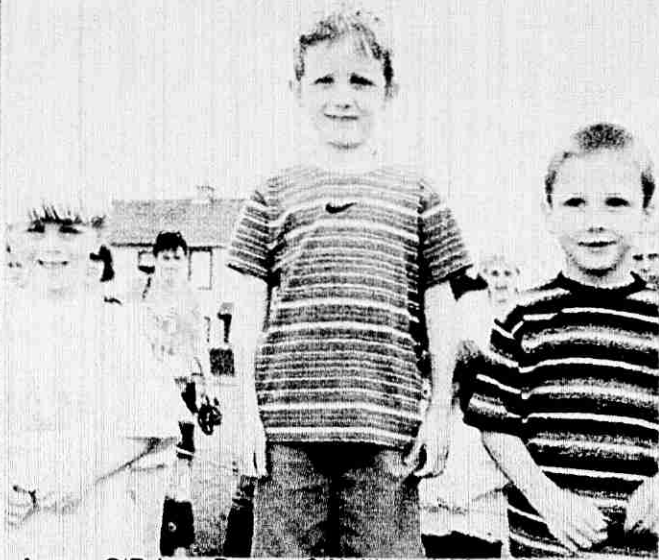

Man of the Match — Pajo Lanigan.

THANK YOU

A big thanks to the sponsors Amstel for their support, the staff of the Dungarvan Leader for their coverage and space and help, all the teams and pubs who entered and participated so well, the supporters (even the East Bank) the young lads who helped out every night with collection and ball retrieving and specially Michael Morrissey and John Kenneally who contributed much to the smooth running of the event. To one and all thanks very much and on to next year.

WATERFORD HANDBALL NEWS

4 Munster Titles For Waterford

These past few weeks have been very busy for all our handballers, senior and juvenile. The 60 x 30 championship have been in full swing during the month of July. All our senior players have been travelling to various handball courts around the province of Munster.

In the Silver Master B, Martin Sandford of the Kilgobinet Club successfully defended his Munster title when he defeated Limerick and Cork opponents. Mossy Butler did likewise when he retained his title against Pat O'Brien of Cork.

John Kiely and Bro. Spring regained the Munster A Masters Title last held in 1998, defeating Tipperary in the Munster final.

Two players to make their debut in the under 21 60 x 30 championship were the Keane brothers, Ricky and Kenny. They played Limerick in the final and out on a great display to bring this title to Waterford for the first time in recent years. The All-Ireland semi finals will be held on August 12th in Clonmel, Martin Sandford v Pat Savage of Kilkenny, Bro. Spring or Con Duggan of Tipperary v Frank Doolley of Kildare. At Garryhill, Mossy Butler v John Browne of Kildare. We wish all our players the best of luck in the All-Ireland series.

Our juveniles continued the good example of the last few years in reaching four Munster finals. These will be played in the coming week at the Ballyporeen Club Alley.

Our under 13 player, Jason O'Brien of Abbeyside had a great semi final win over Jer Sheehan of Cork, after losing the first game 7 - 15, he came back strongly to take the second by 15 - 13. In the final game the Cork lad had a 13 - 3 lead. Jason never gave up and fought back to take the game 15 - 13.

Our under 14 doubles, Patrick Hurney and Mark Fives came good on the night, after a slow start down seven aces they came back to take the game 15 - 8. The second game was won far easier than the score suggests, 15 - 7.

Our 15 doubles, Michael Browne and Simon Hanrahan, also of Abbeyside had a good win over a very strong pair from Cork. Like the under 14 pair these also had a slow start and were down 7 aces, they came back very strongly to win very comfortably by 21 - 7. The second game was a good battle and proved that Michael and Simon are improving with every game, winning this game 21 - 6.

Our under 17 singles player, Rick Hanrahan also qualified for the Munster final, Rick played well in qualifying games.

Our 13 and 14 players had already won Féile and All Ireland team medals as have Michael and Simon in the 14 - 15 team. They have taken to the 60 x 30 game very well.

We play Kerry during the coming week in the Munster finals. Best of luck to all senior and juveniles.

Dungarvan Credit Union Cycling Club Notes

JUNIOR TOUR

Best wishes to David Geary and Edward Kelly who are taking part in the Junior tour which runs from Tuesday August 8th to Sunday August 13th. The race takes place around the Dublin area and is the highlight of the year for junior riders.

TRAINING TIPS

Drink plenty of fluid to keep your heart rate down. Rinse your water bottle with minty antiseptic mouthwash to kill germs and get rid of that nasty plastic flavour.

Don't make weak excuses for why you couldn't hang on the last group ride. Nobody cares. Just go train.

O'MAHONEY CYCLES CRITERIUM

On Saturday July 29th the club hosted the O'Mahoney cycles criterium during the Abbeyside Pattern Festival. The racing got under way with the under 12 race where Cian Geary finished 2nd. In the under 14 race we had three riders taking part, Thomas Byrne, Shane Power and Pádraig Cullen. Pádraig was the best finisher in 2nd place.

Following the U-16 race the senior and junior riders taking part, from as far afield as France, Kerry, Mayo, Wexford, Cork, Tipperary and Galway. Club riders taking part included Justin Coonan, Thomas Hogan, Pat Kenealy, Joe Kelly, John Dempsey, Edward Kelly and Henry Crowley. The race was held over 45 minutes and 5 laps of the circuit which at this stage had quite a crowd of spectators around it.

The speed was high from the start with several riders trying to break clear. About 4 laps into the race Paul Griffen riding for the Dan Morrissey's team went clear and quickly opened a huge gap on the others. About half way into the race another group of four riders went clear of the bunch, Pat Kenealy, Vincent Gleeson, Daniel Lynch and Paul Christopher worked well together to go well clear of the bunch.

Nearing the end Paul Griffen lapped the main bunch and went on to win the event. With two laps to go Vincent Gleeson and Daniel Lynch opened a small gap on the other two in their group. At the finish Gleeson was second with Lynch third. Pat Kenealy came in fourth with Paul Christopher fifth. Thomas Hogan was the first second category rider home.

A great evenings racing was had by all. Thanks to all involved - Tony O'Mahoney for sponsoring the race, re Abbeyside Pattern committee for their help on the night, Michael Hogan for the loud speakers, the local Gardaí for traffic control, Gerry Geary for race commentary and all club members who helped out on the night.

DUNGARVAN BIATHALON

The annual Dungarvan Biathlon is being held on August 27th so don't forget to find a running partner or get training and try the full event. More details later.

O'MAHONEY SUMMER SERIES

Following the completion of the above event a couple of weeks ago a night out is being arranged to present the prizes. Possible nights are either Wednesday August 16th or Thursday August 17th so keep your diary free. More details once finalised.

RAS CONNACHTA

This years Ras Connachta takes place in Cong, Co. Mayo from August 18th to 20th. This race is up there as one of the top races in the country with a large prize fund. It starts with a 50 mile stage on Friday evening following by 65 miles on Saturday morning. A 7.5 mile time trial will be held on Saturday evening. Sundays stage is 80 miles through the mountains. It is hoped a number of club riders will take part in this race which is the last big event of the season.

O'MAHONEY CYCLES SUMMER LEAGUE

All good things come to an end and the O'Mahoney Cycles Summer League is no exception following twelve weeks of battle we finally have a winner.

On the last night of the league we held a handicap race over the Millstreet circuit and what a race it turned out to be.

The lead group of Eamonn Terry, Shane Power, Gearóid Turraoin, Patrick Mahon, Jim Hyland, Eddie Moore and Tim Meehan raced their legs off to finish ahead of the next group home. Eamonn Terry rode an excellent race to take the nights honours. It also saw him move from 4th position overall to take 3rd place at the end of the league.

Young Pádraig Cullen stayed on to take 2nd place in the series overall and but for him missing a few races in the series he could have taken the top position.

So to the winner, Ger Wyley who fought hard every night to stay clear and take overall victory in the first series of the new Millennium. I am sure everyone will congratulate Ger on his fine win.

Finally, well done and a big thank you from the sponsors for everyone who took part and supported the league. Give yourselves a pat on the back. Also not forgetting our main man, Noel the watch Doherty who was probably first to arrive at the start and last to leave the finish line every night. Noel, thank you and your helpers very much.

Everyone can now take a well earned rest and enjoy what's left of the summer. Safe pedalling until next years league.

Congratulations to Eamonn Doherty and Sinead Lombard who got married recently. Many years of wedded bliss to you both.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL WESTERN CHAMPIONSHIP

On Friday evening of last week our second string team came up against Kilgobinet in the first round at Cappoquin and there was only one result - a comprehensive win for Kilgobinet. It took a great effort for us to field a team, as the majority of the players were very young and some retired. Hopefully they will meet another losing team in the next round.

CLUB LOTTO

On last Sunday night at the Shamrock Inn, Knockanore, the numbers drawn were 6-18-19-20. There was no jackpot winner and the £10 winners were Bernie Marshall, Strancally, Kevin Moloney, Ballyphilip, Eileen Kelly, Killenagh, Peter Millward, Castlelyons, Tom Hickey, Monang and Paul Martin, Tallow. On next Saturday night the jackpot draw will be for £1,100. Tickets at £1 from the usual sellers.

BY MARK PHILLIPS

GREAT DAY FOR LOCALS

Compaq Galway Plate day was a great one for Waterford owners, trainers and jockeys. Young Tom Queally rode his second winner at the festival guiding Tom Kidd trained She's Wonderful to an easy win over Fearsome Factor in the one and a half mile flat handicap.

Palette 10/1 owned by the Waterford based Mayden Syndicate ran yet another gutsy race in the Compaq Galway Plate running on strongly in the closing stages to finish a gallant third. The winner here was 20/1 outsider Dovali by Tom Rudd for the Wheelchair bound trainer Michael O'Brien.

The Roche family from Tramore were on the mark in the one mile handicap with the well supported 9/4 favourite Larifaari. Paul Carberry bringing this highly consistent four year old with a well timed run to see off the challenge of Truscott by a length.

Trainer John Roche very nearly completed a double in the amateur race when his 25/1 outsider Silent Native came from a long way off the pace to fill the runner-up spot behind two lengths winner Sage Dancer.

DIAMOND GLITTERS IN GALWAY SUN

Kilmoganny, County Kilkenny owner-breeder Seamus O'Farrell enjoyed one of his biggest ever pay days when his Perugino Diamond 14/1 captured an exciting Galway Hurdle. Dunhill pilot Shay Barry looked sure to win on Darialann turning for home but this mount made a right mess of the last. To be fair to the winner Peru Gino Diamond, he didn't exactly jump the last flight with any great fluency either but he got away from the back of the hurdle quicker to race on for a length and a half victory. The Tony Martin trained Barba Papa caught the eye here when making rapid late headway and he looks sure to pay his way in staying hurdles especially on good ground. Who knows we might see this fellow in Cheltenham next March providing the ground rides fast.

Earlier in the day the Michael O'Connor trained Testify ran a pleasing race over three miles to finish a close up second behind Bannow Bay. Testify was of course the mount of Tramore born Gary Hutchinson.

SHE'S WONDERFUL IN FOAL

She's Wonderful, a well named five year old daughter of Magical Wonder and Oh Jemina has run her last race as she is in foal to Kings Theatre and after her great win at Galway last week she was turned out in her paddock by connections last Saturday. She's Wonderful runs of course in the famous colours of Tom Nicholson who lives in county Kilkenny. Tom has enjoyed tremendous success with his runners down through the years and one of his best ever horses was Bigaroon while he also owned a useful steeplechaser called Gerry Doyle.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know that when Killarney born Jim Culloty rode Peru Gino to victory in the Guinness Galway Hurdle, this was his first ever winner in the country. He has of course ridden plenty of winners in England where he is attached to the Henrietta Knight stable.

WEXFORD MEETING

Wexford stage a mixed meeting on Saturday afternoon next where the first of seven races is underway at 2.30 p.m. The feature race of the afternoon is the one mile five furlong Nick O'Donnell Memorial Handicap.

JAYNES CLAIM REDUCED

Twenty-one year old Jayne Mulqueen who is attached to the Piltown yard of Frances Crowley had her claim reduced to three pounds when riding Benovia to victory at Naas recently. Jayne comes from Kilrossanty in County Waterford and is hopeful of riding plenty of more winners for the Crowley team who appear to have turned the corner in recent months against the dreaded virus which saw a number of runners from the yard perform below par in the past twelve months.

SIR MARK'S SECRETS

Did you know that one of Britain shrewdest horse trainers - Sir Mark Prescott was expelled from Harrow school for disruptive behaviour and he was left paralysed from the neck down for two years by a race fall at the age of 18. Sir Mark is also an avid coursing supporter.

THIS WEEK'S FIXTURES

Thursday: Sligo 2.30 - Haydock, Brighton, Chesham.

Friday: Kilmoganny 5.30, Haydock, Newmarket, Lingfield, Wolverhampton, Salisbury, Worcester.

Saturday: Wexford 2.30, Haydock, Newmarket, Ascot, Redcar, Stradford.

RUA LASS SCORES

Trained at Slieveue, a couple of miles outside Waterford city, the Eoin Griffin trained Rua Lass appeared far happier on the level at Galway than she did over hurdles at Wexford when capturing the final race on Saturday at odds of 8/1. Ridden on this occasion by the experienced amateur Karl Wyse Rua Lass went to the front a half a mile from home to motor clear for a facile eight length victory. Rua Lass will now probably revert to hurdles and if on her best behaviour could open her account over the minor obstacles at Tramore.

On the same card Rathgormack trainer Pat Flynn enjoyed a welcome success courtesy of 12/1 outsider Ballintry Guest. Waterford-born jockey Danny Grant bringing the four year old son of Be My Guest home three lengths clear of Game keeper.

DUBAI MILLENIUM'S CAREER OVER

The Godolphin Operarion suffered a major blow over the weekend with their star race horse Dubai Millennium breaking down in training only hours after Sheikh Mohammed had thrown down a six million dollar challenge to the Micheal Tobor owned Mont Jew. This match race was due to take place at either York, Newmarket or Ascot. Dubai Millennium won nine out of his ten races winning prize money in excess of 2.7 million pounds. Dubai Millennium broke a bone in his leg while being exercised on Newmarket Heath and he underwent surgery over the weekend, in the hope of saving the four year colt for stud duties only.

FOUR DAYS AT TRAMORE

The annual four day racing festival commences next Sunday afternoon with the first of seven races underway at 2.15. There is a mixed card on offer with the feature races being the Mean Fiddler Handicap Chase plus the Bord Gais Flat Handicap, both events worth £10. Race goes on the Sunday can also enjoy live coverage on the big screen of the Independent Heinz 57 Phoenix Group 1 Stakes from Leopardstown.

Racing at the seaside venue continues on Monday evening with the first race off at 5.15, while there are also afternoon meetings on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Given the current weather conditions, the going is bound to ride on the fast side although watering of the track takes place this week.

A piece of advice in advance of the meeting. If you are having a bet with any of the on course bookmakers or any of the away meetings, be sure and take the S.P. (Starting price) about your fancy as I found last year that bookmakers were offering reduced prices on most of the runners at the non Tramore meetings.

FRANKIE'S RETURN

Just nine weeks after being involved in an horrific plane crash Italian born Frankie Dettori made the perfect return to race action at Newmarket, riding a near 10/1 double, last Saturday.

ALEX CLEARED

Lady jockey Alex Greaves escaped punishment last week for returning a positive test to a banned diuretic. At a hearing of the Jockey Club Headquarters in London, the leading lady rider persuaded the disciplinary committee that it was as a result of a prescription drug she had taken. Diuretics are taken to achieve weight loss and they are banned by the Jockey Club since June of last year, unless taken as a prescription issued by a medical doctor.

GRIMES ON EASY LIST

Having been withdrawn from last Thursday's Guinness Hurdle at Galway stumbling on the home gallup when exercising under trainer Christy Roche, the J.P. McManus owned Grimes is out of action until the end of this year. The problem however with this gelding is the fact he runs best on a firm surface and he may well have to wait until the Spring before recapturing his best form.

PATSY VEALE

Judging by an excellent second placing behind the sell fancied Awsar at Galway, it shouldn't be too long before the M.A. Ryan owned and John Queally trained Patsy Veale sheds her maiden tag over hurdles.

DONAL'S WINNER

Kilsheelan based Donal O'Connor who races his greyhounds under the "Minor" prefix found himself in the winner's enclosure at Galway last Tuesday as his O' the River gelding River Cora justified odds of 4/5 running away with the Albatross Chase.

TOM'S WINNER

Young Cappagh jockey Tom Queally scaled new heights on the second day of the Galway Racing Festival giving the Jim Bolger trained 16/1 outsider Tushwa a peach of a ride to capture the £70,000 McDonagh extended handicap. At the head of affairs throughout, young Queally had the presence of mind to put his stick down in the closing stages riding Tushwa to a hands and heels success over 25/1 outsider Bibi Karam.

BATTLING GIANT SCORES

The Aidan O'Brien trained Giant's Causeway rattled off his third group one victory capturing the featured Sussex Stakes at glorious Goodwood. Sent off at 3/1 the Michael Kinane trained Giant's Causeway raced up with the pace throughout this mile event battling on tenaciously for a deserved victory over the French raider Dansili.

Lismore Cricket Club

WANTED

Person able to run fast, clench teeth tightly, coil up like a spring and unwind whilst full sprinting pace in the most uncomfortable position and fling with a straight arm 5 ounces of rock hard leather at 105 miles per hour at a defenceless opponent in front of 50,000 people and on live television coverage world wide.

Personal Attributes Required: Desire to cause pain and aggravation; no fear of blood; peak physical fitness; urge to sustain repeated attack on opposing team; ability to glare viciously

Bonus Qualifications (may be negative if excessive): Aware of appropriate times to spit; ability to witness pain and walk away; limited knowledge of colourful language appreciated

If you think you can be 2% of these things then you will be welcome to try out for the Lismore Cricket Team. Contact Stephen Pendle on 025 85216. We plan to engage our selected opposition in several friendly games this summer, excessive drinking and bad behaviour is optional.

Club Location and Contact Phones Numbers — Lismore Cricket Club have a well established ground in the playing grounds area with GAA field and Soccer pitches nearby on the outskirts of the town. The ground has a pavilion (clubhouse) and adequate room for those wishing to consume tea and cucumber sandwiches. Did you read that: tea and bloody cucumber sandwiches! That really does make me wonder what we are trying to achieve.

Are we trying to emulate a long lost commonwealth empire where in they are happy if someone finally makes a few runs and takes a couple of wickets and doesn't kick the heads in of passing locals (vis-a-vie soccer hooliganism). Or, should we be planning to make the game what we see in the likes of Australia, India, Pakistan South Africa and the West Indies, (and sometimes New Zealand, Sri Lanka and Zimbabwe). For those uninitiated into the game of cricket and for those stuck in the sporting ruts of feudal horse drawn carts we challenge you to bring your highly polished eye-hand co-ordination skills down to the cricket club and learn how to play the game in true exciting style.

This will probably get me the sack from the unappointed position of "Club Vice-Chairman and Learner From The Wise" due to excessive inappropriate references to "the mother country". I do stress though that cricket as played in all levels and watched on TV in Australia is a far more exciting than that I have seen and played here overall. I haven't officially played for Lismore yet but hope to soon, (if I am still invited). So I cannot let you know from first hand what the actual story is. I have however, played with members of the team on social games and in other teams and I am sure that some Antipodean Influences in the Lismore Camp won't go unappreciated.

In fact these boys might even buy a couple of cans for the throat and chops for the BBQ whilst I am left to teach them how to twiddle with their lawn mowers!

Ring John Ind on 058-53464 if you have any inclination to trying cricket. If you have played other sports and would like to try your hand at cricket you would be more than welcome. If you haven't played anything in your life and are totally uncoordinated but enjoy the craic and a beer, come down and join in and teach me a thing or two. If you live in the Fermoy, Araglen or Mitchelstown areas get in touch, I may well be able to give you a lift to the ground for training. Phone Stephen Pendle 025-85216.

RESULTS FROM SUNDAY

These are not available for general viewing in the locales of Lismore unless you are sympathetic to our plight. To fully appreciate them the non-cricketing readers of this fine publication must first be initiated into the scoring system of cricket. All out for 188 is not a great score. It is however better than a lot of teams can manage and is more than we got on Sunday week last.

This could easily be blamed on the weather and the lack of sub-aqua equipment on hand down at the cricket field. Despite a celebrating a most resourceful collapse our side we hammered ourselves into submission with a massive total of 7 for 26.

We sportingly played with out mackintoshes for the required 20 overs to enable the opposition claim moral and recordable victory. Lesser teams would have not managed to summon the integrity and presence of mind to be so benevolent. Lismore showed their generosity and commitment to the game despite playing the behaviourally challenged team of Midleton.

Tony Forristal Hurling Tournament

It is time once again to focus our attention on the annual Tony Forristal Tournament, which has become the recognised unofficial All-Ireland under-14 inter-county Festival of Hurling. 18 county teams will take part with 10 teams in division 1 and 8 teams in division 2.

The visiting teams from the three provinces will arrive in Waterford city on Saturday morning August 26th with the games commencing at 11am at four city venues: Roanmore, Mount Sion, De La Salle and Waterford Crystal Grounds, with the 2 finals in Walsh Park on Sunday 27th.

The Tournament is sponsored as usual by Waterford Crystal and organised annually by a small band of local hurling enthusiasts, the Tournament Committee, with the support of the local GAA clubs.

CONTRIBUTION TO HURLING

The Forristal Tournament is 19 years on the road and has in that time made a massive contribution to the development of the game in some 20 counties. Here in Waterford on the last week-end of August each year, new hurling names are launched on the inter-county scene, the stars of the future are first noted. Most of the present-day hurling stars first wore their county jersey at the Tony Forristal Tournament in Waterford city.

The National Coaching & Games Development Committee at Croke Park took the decision last year to discontinue under-age inter-county tournaments, as in their opinion, they bring too much pressure on young players. So, officially, this is the last Tony Forristal Tournament. Sad but true.

FESTIVAL OF HURLING 2000

Galway are the '99 champions of Division One.

UNDER-16 HURLING

Ferrybank 4-8, Naomh Brid 3-4.

In the final round of the county under-16's hurling championship Naomh Brid made their second visit to the city to play against Ferrybank, against a fairly balanced Ferrybank side that had a few lively forwards. Naomh Brid got off to the worst possible start conceding 2-1 inside the first five minutes. However, in the next 25 minutes we improved our game going in at the break 4-6 to 1-4. In the second half we continued to play some good hurling. A stronger defence for the second 30 minutes was well marshalled with Brian McCarthy, Paudi McCathy and the Power twins Jack and Willie working hard. The Naomh Brid team that played against Ferrybank was Johnny Buckley, Finnian Grace, Brian McCarthy, John Ahearne, Paudi McCarthy, Thomas Fenton, Tristan Hickey, Jack Power, Shane Hickey, Willie Power, Michael Myles, Darren O'Connor, Eddie Condon. Subs. Séamus Power, Sean O'Neill, Pat Murphy, Shane Troy, Aidan Hickey. Scorers Darren O'Connor 1-1, Sean O'Neill 1 goal, Aidan Hickey 1 goal, Willie Power 2pts., Tristan Hickey 1 pt.

They played Ardmore. Full report next week. Western semi-final provisionally booked for Monday 14th of August in Fraher field at 7.30 p.m. Players will be notified.

UNDER 10

We travelled to Pilmore on Wednesday last to play Gortroe and we had a great game. Both teams included a few older players and we came out tops in this one. Gortroe will return the visit in the near future.

UNDER 12 HURLING

Our game with Abbeyside was cancelled as Abbeyside only entered one team in the competition and should not have been in the draw. We now travel to Naomh Brid on Sunday morning at 11.30 am. Bus departs Quinns at 10.00 am. Training on Wednesday @ 6.30 pm. The under 13s should also attend this training in preparation for the Fitzgerald Cup.

UNDER 14 FOOTBALL

Training last week was poorly attended and goes ahead again on Thursday evening at 7.00pm.

MINORS IN ACTION

Hard to believe that, we are in the Western semi-final 'A', in minor hurling, and in the 'B' semi-final in minor football. That is the way this year's championship has turned out and it's nice to see our hurlers in the top flight.

We travelled to Clashmore on Wednesday last, unsure if we would have a team or not. We fielded a team which contained under 13 Brian Keane, under 14 Patrick Stillwell and under 15s Stephen Conway, Alan North and Maurice O'Connor and under 16 Niall O'Brien - and how well they all performed. Conor Hurley and Pdraig Crawford were our subs. Missing were: Gary North, Anthony Troy and Philip Beausang, all injured.

This was a cracking game and a huge team performance - in contrast to our football - in which everyone gave 110%, and we emerged wet and weary, but with a 2 points victory over a fancied Cappoquin side.

UNDER 16 HURLING

We had a convincing win over Shamrocks on Sunday. This was my first time seeing this team and I was delighted with their display. The quality of their hurling has improved enormously, none more so than Anthony, Cormac and Patrick, while Alan, Maurice and Niall O' were a class apart. Gary and Kevin and Stephen missed this game.

Our lineout was Conor Hurley, David Ahearne, Cormac Morel, Paddy O'Donnell, Patrick Stilwell, Maurice O'Connor, Anthony Troy, Niall O'Brien (2-1), Brian Keane (0-1), Alan North (1-4), Jim Curran, M.Lally (1-1), Pdraig Crawford (1-0). Well done to selectors Frankie North and John Joe Conway. Following on this win, we have since lost to Brickeys and Naomh Brid.

LADIES COUNTY MINORS

These girls made it a treble of Munster titles for Waterford, when they beat

Kerry on Wednesday night. Mary O'Donnell, back in her own age group, for once, dominated this game from start to finish. Lisa Prendergast and Natalie O'Connor, were both on the subs bench.

BACK IN THE PHELAN CUP FINAL

Our senior footballers recorded a fine win over

Tramore, last Monday night to earn their place in the Phelan Cup final, where they will meet Rathgormack, in a repeat of their Championship clash. This was a great game to win, as we pulled away from Tramore in the first half, but they came right back into and drew level, mid way through the second half.

But our young team, dug deep and played brilliantly in the last five minutes to record a 3 point win. It is a wonderful achievement for this young team to get to the final of such a prestigious competition. It also augurs well for our future aspirations in the senior championship, as prior to our last senior championship win, in 1977, we won The Phelan Cup on a few occasions. In fact, my first time seeing Ardmore play, from this side of the fence, was in a Phelan Cup Final against Tramore, I think, probably 1975. Twenty five years on from the 1977 victory would be a nice time for history to repeat itself.

WEEKLY LOTTO

We had no winner last week (1,2,11) and the five consolation winners were: Ann McCarthy, Eddie Irwin, Sabrina Fleming, John & Caroline Power, Noreen Morrissey. This week we are at The Cliff Hotel for a jackpot of £150.

JUNIOR HURLING

This match went ahead and we recorded a very comfortable victory over a Kilrossanty side that didn't seem to be too interested in hurling. I have often seen spectators leave a match before full time, but, when the Kilrossanty boys left, it was the first occasion on which I saw the subs and mentors drift away early.

This was a good workman-like performance from our lads, even though they were never really extended and sailed through at half throttle. No subs were introduced, in an effort to spare players for the Junior B match, which was scheduled for Saturday night. But we were unable to field, owing to the under 21 final on Monday.

UNDER 21 FOOTBALL CHAMPIONS 2000

Yes, we have won the first A Western Championship of the Millennium.

Stradbally went into a 4 points to nil lead early in the first half, when it looked as if we might never score, so much possession did we waste. Billy (out sick) was really missed from the full forward line, where most of our moves broke down.

Then Wayne scored a couple of frees and we went in at the break only 4 points to 2 down, thanks to a brilliant save and another fabulous interception from skipper Damien, Mikie, Ciaran and Patrick, in the full back line, were excellent throughout, especially in the first half, when they kept us in the game. Declan, Richie and Niall played well in the half line, but some of their distribution was atrocious in the first half and made the forwards look bad as a succession of balls were played directly to opposing defenders. Wayne was brilliant throughout and really looked a class apart, in addition he was unerring from placed balls as he slotted over five points, including one from almost sixty yards. Mid-field partner, Seamus, looked tired and his distribution was also poor, but he really knuckled down to the task and produced a great second half.

To be fair, Stradbally rarely got past our mid-fielders and half backs in the second half, and they failed to score again until late in the second half. The forwards were brutal in the first half, and a few shrewd switches at half time, brought James to the 40 and Cathal to the fringe of the square, with corner men, David and Gary on the wings and John and James O'Neill in the corners. The effect was magic, as all six improved dramatically. Well played, selectors.

James won everything in the middle and under 16 Gary was flying on the right and David earned a couple of the frees from Wayne on the left. Cathal really got on top of the Stradbally full back and John and James (and sub Adrian O'Donnell) all played their part.

A succession of points followed - 2 from Cathal, 3 from James O'Donnell (one a fifty), 2 from John Conway and Wayne's three frees.

We played lovely, free flowing football in that second half and every player rose to the occasion and we emerged deserving winners over a very fancied Stradbally. So we will be the first name on the new under 21 Halpin Cup, presented by the family of the late Tom Halpin. Well done. You put in the training and reaped the reward.

JUNIOR B HURLING

We entered this championship to facilitate the number of hurlers, especially those gone from underage ranks, who are not on the Junior team. However, because we were not prepared to risk our younger players so close to the under 21 final, these were all called into action on Friday night, against Kilrossanty. Our Junior B game was fixed for Saturday night, so we had to concede a walk-over. Phelan Cup Monday night, Minor Hurling Wednesday night, Junior Hurling Friday night and under 21 final Monday afternoon. Four games in eight days for the minors who are making all our teams. Mercifully, Naomh Brid have pulled out of the minor football, so we have Wednesday off.

Contrast this to the way Bord na nOg have issued their fixture list, which shows us all where we are right up to the end of November. They space all their championships over a nine month period, one championship at a time. They operate a league system all the time, with knockout at semi-final stage. It works. The adult clubs should give consideration to how Bord na nOg operate, before they decide on Championship format for future years, because it's not the fixtures committee who are at fault, it's the clubs themselves.

This fixture bottle-neck is getting worse each year, and is not helped by blackouts ahead of inter-county activity. I dread to think what would happen, if we actually had some intercounty success.

Semi-finals and finals of all these competitions follow the same sequence. Well done to Bord Na nOg, and to Thomas Keane and Eddie O'Shea, in particular, for their wonderful organisation. You are right up there with the best of them and compare most favourably with any other sport, most of which are administered by full time officers.

Junior Football Championship

With practically all the first rounds in this championship now completed, the divisional board officers will be in a position to proceed with the losers group draws when they meet at Dungarvan on tomorrow, Thursday night.

KILGOBINET 4-17 SHAMROCKS 0-1

This was a very comprehensive win for Kilgobinet who were never worried about the challenge from Shamrocks reserve team. This match was over as a contest long before the final whistle.

AFFANE 1-10 GERALDINES 1-6

It was sweet revenge for the beating they received from the losers here when they clashed in the intermediate grade some weeks ago. For Affane the win was badly needed and long overdue.

BALLINAMEELA 0-12 BALLINACOURTY 1-7

The victors deserved this result as over all they were the better side, but seem to lack goal scoring ability. Ballinacourty might have snatched that goal that would have ruined things for Ballinameela.

NIRE 3-8 TALLOW 0-8

The Nire were winners all the way because they were able to take advantage of the Tallow defensive errors that allowed them through for the match winning goals.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

All Ireland Final Tickets

Because of the fact that work on Phase 2 (Canal End) and Phase 3 (New Hogan Stand) are running behind schedule due to weather and work problems, etc., the stadium will not reach the expected capacity by the second week in September and as a consequence of this, a 'cut-back' of 12% of tickets will be necessary and the Waterford County Board have been notified accordingly.

As there will be no meeting of the County Board until after the hurling final on the second Sunday in September, the board's "Ticket Committee" have announced that a cut in club allocations will follow.

I understand that the situation may improve for the football final.

A COSTLY BUSINESS

The imposition of fines for breaches of Games Regulations is becoming a costly business at Provincial and All Ireland level as well as in the national leagues and it is obviously not having the desired effect. At every intercounty senior game this year match officials (who don't have to pay anyway) have ignored these regulations (including ourselves) and have been fined. Some of the fines have been pretty steep, like Galway, for instance, who were fined a total of £1,500 for breaches during their quarter final match with Tipperary two weeks ago.

As one who is in favour of penalties being imposed for breaches of regulations that are formulated to improve the image of the games, I find little fault with the GAC who impose the penalties. I do fault the boards who allow their team officials to incur these hefty fines.

The Waterford Crystal Tournament

I was surprised to see that the Tournament is now confined to just 4 teams, Waterford, Dublin, Limerick and Wexford. What has happened to Cork, Kilkenny and Tipperary?

The competition is set to commence on Sunday, October 15th and the final will be played at Walsh Park on Sunday, November 19th.

15-10-00 — At Parnell Park, Dublin v. Waterford; at New Ross, Wexford v. Limerick.

22-10-00 — At Walsh Park, Waterford v. Wexford; at Limerick, Limerick v. Dublin.

5-11-00 — At Parnell Park, Dublin v. Wexford; at Limerick, Limerick v. Waterford.

S/H/Semi-Final Draw

In the two county semi-finals of the senior hurling championship to be played at Walsh Park on Sunday August 20th, Mount Sion will play De La Salle and county champions, Ballygunner will take on Roanmore.

The draw was made on Sunday in Walsh Park after Roanmore had scored a 5 points victory over Portlaw in the outstanding quarter final.

From a county board point of view it is the ideal pairings because as of now it seems that we will have a county final repeat of Ballygunner and Mount Sion at Walsh Park this year. The county final will be played on September 3rd.

SARGENT CUP SENIOR HURLING TITLE

Unlucky Lismore Lose Out To Last Minute Goal

BALLYGUNNER 3-8 LISMORE 1-13

An injury time goal from a Paul Flynn free saw Ballygunner retain their Sergeant Cup Hurling title at Cappoquin on Sunday evening last. Having led from the 10th minute Lismore looked to have avenged the previous weeks championship defeat by the same opposition when they held a two points lead as the game entered the closing stages. Lismore led by 1-9 to 1-6 at half time after Dan Shanahan's goal in the 10th minute had put them 1-2 to 0-3 in front. Ballygunners opening goal was scored by Darragh O'Sullivan nine minutes before the break but Lismore finished the half the stronger with 2 points from Dave Bennett and one from

Sean Daly. Lismore held a 4 points advantage eight minutes into the second half when Paul Flynn had a fortuitous 'Gunners goal. A speculative 60 mt. shot hopped in the square and deceived goalkeeper Brendan Landers and this score left only one point between the sides. Points from Seamus Prendergast and Dave Bennett (free) stretched Lismore's lead to three before Flynn pointed a free in the 57th min. Then came Flynn's winning score from a 20 mt free in injury time to see the 'Gunners record their second major win over Lismore in a week. They must still meet in the Co. League decider.

Scorers for Ballygunner: P. Flynn 2-5, D. O'Sullivan 1-0, T. Carroll 0-2, M. Mahoney 0-1. Scorers for Lismore: D. Bennett 0-8, D. Shanahan 1-1, B. Prendergast, S. Daly, P. Prendergast, S. Prendergast 0-1 each.

Ballygunner: R. Whitty, C. Hapthorne, A. Kirwan, R. O'Sullivan, S. Frampton, F. Hartley, C. Kehoe, T. Fives, P. Power, B. O'Sullivan, M. Mahoney, T. Carroll, D. O'Sullivan, P. Foley, P. Flynn, B. O'Keeffe, for Fives, A. Cummins for Foley, A. Cullinane for Mahoney.

Lismore: B. Landers, M. O'Sullivan, D. Barry, A. Whelan, B. Prendergast, J. O'Connor, W. Cunningham, D. Howard, P. Prendergast, E. Bennett, P. Prendergast, D. Bennett, D. Shanahan, S. Daly, S. Kearney.

SF SAGA TO END Ring Challenge Dungarvan In Final Meeting

The Ring/Dungarvan/Clashmore round robin saga will finally come to an end on this weekend when Dungarvan and Ring battle for the final quarter final place in the championship.

Dungarvan have already beaten Clashmore in the second installment of the section and must now play Ring who received a bye.

Three weeks ago the sides ended on level terms after a contest that was close all the way after the Gaeltacht side had a dream start.

With form the way it is at the moment, it is difficult to feel confident about making a forecast, but Dungarvan having had a more recent competitive game, should be in form and qualify.

The winners here will meet Ballinacourty in the quarter final on the following Friday.

Whither Munster Hurling?

The question will be asked again and again after Sunday's defeat by odds-on favourites, Cork who surrendered their title when losing to rank outsiders Offaly at Croke Park on Sunday last in the first of the All-Ireland semi-finals.

Cork were obviously very confident, maybe a bit over confident, and did not have the answers when Offaly turned on the style in the second half. Offaly, who were among the strongest opponents of the 'back-door' system, came in that way after a hammering from Kilkenny and then struggled past outsiders, Derry in the quarter final. They came here on Sunday with a very positive attitude and this mental approach never allowed Cork to get anything like a safe distance in front.

In the end, Offaly deserved their win and it is now possible that we will see a repeat of the Leinster final on September 10th.

THOSE SCORES

On Sunday, Offaly scored 0-19 and Cork scored 0-15. Last year when they met in the championship Cork scored 0-19 and Offaly scored 0-16. In both matches Joe Deane scored 0-10.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Nire v. Tramore Only Senior Game Of The Weekend

This is listed as the only senior match of the weekend and if it does not finish in a draw at Fraher Field on Friday evening, the board will be able to make the draw for the semi finals on the following Sunday.

Tramore, who qualified after their first round victory over Kill, are waiting for a very long time to win any worthwhile football competition and are reported to be that bit better than usual this year as they have a number of new young players on their side.

They did very well in the Phelan Cup semi-final against Ardmore at Fraher Field last week, but they were ever so wasteful over the hour and kicked a penalty wide in the first half and lost by 3 points.

In the championship they scored 1-9 against Kill in a very tight game that left only a point between the sides in the end. In that game, former county goalkeeper Tom Brennan, Nick Hayes, Michael Kavanagh, John Frost, Pat Dunphy and Alan Reynolds were prominent and will again be key figures in taking this challenge to the more seasoned Nire team, most of whom won two or three senior county championship medals in the nineties.

The Nire are in by the back door after having lost very narrowly (2-7 to 0-12) against Kilrossanty in the first round. The Nire were a bit unlucky in that match and at least one of the Kilrossanty goals, by Nial O'Connor and Tom Kiely, could have been avoided.

They have also played well on the route back to the championship proper and having beaten off a strong challenge from Kill, they defeated St. Saviours in a splendid game of football. In that game a Pat Walsh goal in the 23rd minute helped the Nire to a slender one point lead at halftime. But the sides were level in the 53rd minute and in my view it was at that stage that St. Saviours threw away the game with a succession of wides due to reckless kicking (Nire 2-8, St. Saviours 0-12).

One of their regular scoring forwards, Connie Power, missed the Saviours game and is expected to be fit to play here on Friday. As far as I am aware, the remainder of the panel, Michael Byrne, Brian Wall, Tony Condon, Ian, Tom, Pat and big Pat Walsh, David Ryan, Bobby Power, A. Ryan, Ger Walsh, Tom Flynn, Martin Walsh, Michael Doocey (goal), Shane Walsh, John Moore, etc., are all available and looking forward to the challenge.

The Nire will probably be favourites to qualify for the semi-final but I would not bank on them winning if Tramore play to their full potential and if their forwards can overcome their failures at scoring.

Coaching Scheme News

Touraneena Hurling Camp — Waterford hurler Ken McGrath with four members of the Buckley family who are pupils of Modeligo N.S. at the recent hurling camp. Ken was marvellous and visited all the camps so far this year. He was very patient and had a great rapport with the children. The good news is that he is on the mend and hopefully he might be back in action before the hurling season ends.

HOLIDAY TIME

We are back in harness on Monday next when we will be working in the city venues with Joe Carton and Brendan Keogh. We always get huge crowds in the city and everything is well organised.

FUTURE HURLING CAMP DATES

- August 21 to 23 — Passage East
- August 23 to 25 — Ballyduff Lower.

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Powerful Display By Ardmore

ARDMORE 3-19
KILROSSANTY 0-3

This was a powerful display by Ardmore who led by 0-9 to 0-2 at half time and if they can maintain this form, they will be a difficult team to beat. Kilrossanty were not as poor as the scoreline made them appear, but they were outclassed. Veteran Pat Keating, who was in his prime in the late seventies, could not be blamed for this heavy defeat.

Junior Hurling Championship Results

With the losers group in all the adult championships this year, the one thing that the board are trying to avoid like the Plague, are drawn matches at the early stages. The first one happened on Saturday night last when Abbeyside and Clashmore finished level on 2-4 apiece in the junior 'B' section. This is particularly frustrating to the board when the clubs involved, like Abbeyside and Clashmore are involved in several other championships as well. I believe that when a losers group or a round-robin system is in vogue, that an extra-time clause should be insisted upon by the boards.

Walk-Over — As Kilgobinet had a manpower problem due to annual holidays, etc, they found themselves unable to field against Ardmore in the 'B' grade of the

BRICKEYS 3-6
GERALDINES 0-4

This game saw Brickeys get off to a good start in the hurling championship and their 9 points win was well deserved against the Geraldines who are no doubt, concentrating on the Junior 'A' championship.

GLEN ROVERS 2-8 OLD PARISH 0-8

This was a very good result for the Mellary club who can look forward with hope to the next round and maybe even further. The Seana Phobal side are in the losers group here, but in the main, their concentration will be on the junior football championship. The draws for the next rounds will be made on tomorrow, Thursday night.

Roanmore Qualify For Semi-Final

ROANMORE 1-12 PORTLAW 1-7

The defeat of Portlaw means that the final stages of the championship will be decided between the 4 city teams. It is a long spell since that situation obtained in Waterford hurling.

In the opening part of the last quarter final played at Walsh Park on Sunday last, it looked as if Portlaw were about to make the long overdue breakthrough in getting to a semi-final but a vastly improved second half display by Roanmore led by veterans, Kieran Delahunty, Noel Crowley, Danny Murphy, John Caulfield, etc, changed the scene considerably and when Hugh Maher, Portlaw was dismissed from the game with 10 minutes remaining, Roanmore got well on top and in the end won deservedly by 5 points.

At halftime Portlaw thanks to a splendid goal by Martin Hickey in the 12th minute led by 1-3 to 0-3. Interestingly, Portlaw did not score after the 12th minute.

A goal from a semi-penalty just 2 minutes after the restart brought the teams level when Delahunty shot to the net. Then Portlaw went two points ahead minutes later, but were not to score again for the remainder of the game. Kieran Delahunty brought them level in the 44th minute and Roanmore subsequently took a lead which they were never to relinquish.

Scorers - Roanmore — K. Delahunty 1-4, N. Crowley 0-2, D. Ryan 0-2, J. Caulfield, D. Murphy and C. Fanning 0-1 each; Portlaw — M. Hickey 1-1, A. Kirwan 0-3, K. Reid and J. O'Brien 0-1 each.

Roanmore — T. Flynn, N. Wadding, K. Cheasty, L. Ryan, P. Murphy T. Cronin, G. Mackey, J. Caulfield, C. Fanning, D. Murphy, N. Crowley, T. Dunphy, M. Mackey, K. Delahunty, D. Ryan.

Portlaw — J. Burrows, P. Nolan, P. Coffey, D. Walsh, E. Rockett, D. Foran, S. Cullinane, J. Hartley, E. Galvin, K. Reid, H. Maher, A. Kirwan, G. O'Brien, P. Walsh, M. Hickey. Subs. played, P. O'Brien, P. Duggan.

INTO Mini Sevens

In the the Mini- Sevens played during the interval at Croke Park on Sunday, Waterford were represented by Philip O'Keeffe, Lismore N/S in hurling and Tanya Morrissey also Lismore N/S in Camogie.

'B' Football All Ireland

A total of 11 counties will participate. Waterford have been given a bye into the quarter final in which they will play Louth at a Waterford venue on Saturday, September 30th. Should we survive, our semi-final game will be against Wicklow or Longford at a neutral venue.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

Minor Hurling Championship Results

COLLIGAN 1-14 CLASHMORE 0-1

Colligan did far better than when they played Ardmore two weeks earlier and for Clashmore it was a second heavy defeat.

STRADBALLY 3-6 BRICKEYS 1-4

Following their 3 goals defeat by An Gaeltacht in round one, Stradbally did well to come back for this decisive win against Brickeys who had previously lost to Dungarvan.

ABBEYSIDE 5-10 TALLOW 3-5

Abbeyside did very well here in their opening match of the championship, after having received a walk-over in their initial fixture. It was also the first game for Tallow whose first match was deferred because of a tragedy.

AN GAELTACHT 7-13 DUNGARVAN 0-3

This was a splendid result for the Gaeltacht team who are now obviously reaping the benefits of years of good coaching. It was their second big win in this championship to date. For Dungarvan it was a mighty defeat and something to cause concern.

ARDMORE 1-8 CAPPOQUIN 0-9

This was a second successive victory for the very busy Ardmore club who are now safely through to the k/o stages. For Cappoquin it was a little disappointing, following their big win in the first round.

LISMORE 0-9 FOURMILEWATER 1-4

It was Lismore's first game and they will be happy to have managed a win.

It was the second disappointing result for Fourmilewater who earlier suffered a 4 points defeat by St. Olivers.

Final Rounds — The final rounds in the round-robin section of the minor hurling championship will be played on Tuesday of next week. The round is brought forward in order not to clash with the Leaving Certificate results.

Sargent Cup For B'gunner

A single point victory for Ballygunner was a bitter pill for Lismore to swallow in the final of the Sargent Cup on Sunday night at Cappoquin as at the end of normal time it looked a Lismore victory after a 26 years wait.

A Paul Flynn special from a free decided the issue in their favour.

It would now seem that 2000 will not be a good year for the western side of the county as the last remaining 4 teams are all from eastern clubs.

Because the championships proper cannot resume until the losers group sections are played out, the fixtures committee now find themselves left with little option but to put pressure on all first round losers to get back into the action. With this in mind, the western board fixtures committee met last week and made the draws and fixtures for a number of these matches. These will be played within the next two weeks.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

Fourmilewater, who were surprisingly beaten by Ballysaggart, are drawn against Cappoquin and this tie will be played at Fraher Field on Sunday, August 20th. Cappoquin suffered a first round defeat at the hands of Ring.

St. Marys v. Colligan — This very attractive clash will take place at Fraher Field on this Sunday evening at 7.30 p.m.

On the basis of their first round displays, I fancy the Touraneena side to advance after this tie is decided. They played very well against Abbeyside and were beaten by just a few points, while Colligan were decisively beaten by Lismore.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL

The two losers group matches in this championship will also be played over the coming weekend.

Affane v. Modeligo — This game is scheduled as a curtain-raiser at Fraher Field on Sunday evening and will commence at 6.45 p.m.

The fact that it is a local derby will add spice to the tie as sporting rivalry between neighbours is always looked upon as something special.

I expect Affane to come off winners here.

Lismore v. Kilrossanty — This is fixed for Saturday evening in Cappoquin and it will be interesting here to see if the traditional hurling stronghold of Lismore can make a little bit of history by defeating the legendary football stronghold of Kilrossanty. I do not believe that it will happen.

MINOR FOOTBALL

On this Wednesday evening we have the final matches in the round-robin section of the championships before the A and B divide is fixed.

Abbeyside v. Dungarvan — This game is fixed for Fraher Field and it should be one of the more attractive matches of the evening in this final round.

Dungarvan have a win and a draw to their credit and a win here will leave them straight through to the quarter final of the 'A' minor football championship. Abbeyside have played just one game in which they were defeated by Kilgobnet who also have 3 points from 2 matches.

Kilgobnet v. Brickey Rangers — Brickeys looked like as if they were going to beat Dungarvan, but didn't. They will find it difficult to beat Kilgobnet who now need only 2 points to get up to the 'A' championship and which is their ambition at the present.

Affane v. Kilrossanty — Affane got a first round walk-over from Lismore and in their next tie they scored a comprehensive win over Clashmore. A win here would see them through. Kilrossanty were defeated by Clashmore, so, on the balance of things, Affane should win this one.

Ballyduff v. St. Olivers — St. Olivers have full points and to me they look to be the side they all have to beat. At the same time Ballyduff did score a deserved win against the Shamrocks after losing by a single point to the Nire in the first round. This game is in Lismore.

Nire v Shamrocks — The Nire, who lost the points against St. Olivers, will need to win this match, but unless Shamrocks have improved an awful lot since their first game, they need have little worry.

Stradbally v. An Gaeltacht — Two days ago when these clubs played in under 21 western football finals, they were in different grades. Stradbally were well beaten by Ardmore in their first game and received a w/o in the second round. The Gaeltacht were in sparkling form when defeating Ardmore and a repeat here would see them safe.

Ardmore and Clashmore are idle in this round.

Abbeyside/ Ballinacourty G.A.A. Club Notes

MINOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP Abbeyside 5-10, Tallow/Shamrocks 3-5

Abbeyside minor hurlers reversed last year's result against Tallow/Shamrocks at the Cappoquin venue on Wednesday, August 2 last when displaying good spirit they came out on top in a hard fought encounter. The village boys led at the interval by 4-2 to 2-3 and when Tallow reduced the leeway to four points (4-6 to 3-5) with 52 minutes played, the fat was really in the fire. It was then that our boys dug deep to carve out a deserved win.

Our scorers were J. Moore (3-4), S. Cleary (1-1), D. Ferncombe (1-0), J. Hurney (0-2), S. Kiely (0-2), P. Lynch (0-1).

Team — Patrick Enright, Rian McGrath, Rick Hanrahan, D. Molloy, David Cashin, Seanie Kiely, Simon Hanrahan, Liam Briggs, Keith Browne, Patrick Lynch, John Hurney, Seamus Lavan, Sean Cleary, Jimmy Moore, David Ferncombe. Subs used: Sean O'Connor, Matthew Burke.

JUNIOR (B) HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP Abbeyside 2-4, Clashmore 2-4

Full credit to the team mentors who worked so hard to insure that our second junior team fielded and also to all the players who displayed good spirit to battle back for a draw at Bushy Park on Saturday evening last having trailed 2-2 to 0-2 with 40 minutes played.

Scorers: L. Brennan (1-1), D. Ferncombe (1-0), G. McCarthy (0-2), M. Kelleher (0-1).

N.B. — It was nice to meet James Kelly here who won a Co. MHC medal with us back in 1976.

INTERNAL CLUB DRAW

Our second internal club draw in the current series will be held in the club pavilion on this Thursday evening at 8.45 p.m.

MINOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

On this Wednesday evening, Ballinacourty minor footballers play Dungarvan at the Fraher Field and they will need to display all-round improvement if they are to win here. Throw-in at 7.30 p.m.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP Ballinameela 0-12, Ballinacourty 1-7

Ballinacourty junior footballers, trailing 0-11 to 0-3 in the final quarter, staged a very spirited rally at Bushy Park on Friday evening last as Michael Cosgrave scored a goal and a point, with Alan Ryan, William Fennell and Roan McCarthy kicking over points to reduce the leeway to two points. Ballinameela held firm at that stage for a hard-earned win.

Our scorers: M. Cosgrave (1-4), A. Ryan, W. Fennell and R. McCarthy (0-1 each).

UNDER-16 HURLING

Abbeyside under-16 hurlers were due to play their final game in the championship against Roanmore in Waterford city. In last week's game they lost to Portlaw/Mollerans on a 2-12 to 1-7 scoreline at the club grounds.

UNDER-12 HURLING

Abbeyside under-12 hurlers recorded a hard-earned win over Cappoquin in the Western championship semi-final at the Fraher Field on Monday, 31st July last. They will now play Lismore in the divisional final.

COMMITTEE MEETING

The club committee's next meeting will be held in the club pavilion on Thursday, 17th August next at 8.30 p.m.

SYMPATHY

The club extends its sincere sympathy to Paddy, Michael, Robert and Margaret Power on the death of their father, whose grandsons Robert and Patrick wore the club colour with distinction.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

This Saturday night the 12th of August we play Ring at the Fraher Field in the losers group of the Senior Football Championship.

Having drawn with Ring in our previous encounter we expect this to be another close contest but hopefully we can improve our performance and secure victory and gain a quarter final meeting with neighbour Ballinacourty. This game has a 7.30 pm start.

MINOR HURLING

Last Wednesday night at Bushy Park we play An Ghaeltacht in the second round of the minor hurling championship. Sad to say we were at the wrong end of a very heavy defeat.

MINOR FOOTBALL

Tonight (Wednesday) the 9th August we play Ballinacourty in the last game of the league section. Having a win and a draw under our belts victory here would see us progress to the knockout stages of the championship. This game takes place at the Fraher Field and has a 7.30 pm start.

SYMPATHY

U-16 HURLING

Our U-16 hurlers travelled to Ballymac to play Fourmilewater on Monday 31st July in their final game of the league section. Again it was to prove most disappointing for us as after matching them for most of the game we eventually had to overcome a determined Fourmile challenge. This defeat means that we have failed to qualify for the knockout stages of the championship. While the results didn't go our way, great credit must go to those lads who gave of their time and effort for the last five weeks and while it went unrewarded it was certainly most appreciated.

UNDER-12

Next Saturday the club hosts its Annual Bridin Ni Christoir U-12 hurling tournament at Clogherane.
