Proposed Glanbia Development Under Scrutiny

Ann Cahill, Coolagurtwee, Cappoquin who received a Diploma in Nursing at South Bank University, London

By Kevin Kirrane

Intense scrutiny and a dissection of all the relevant facts, figures and plans for the proposed development of a shopping complex on the former Glanbia site, were the order of the day, at An Bord Pleanála's oral hearing into the project last week.

Three days of submissions were heard - initially from the three sets of objectors then by Clancy Construction and Dungarvan Urban Council, followed by the deep probing of the evidence given, during cross examinations.

The appellants to the £300 million project - which, it is estimated, will bring in excess of 1,000 jobs to the town - were made up of the retailers representative group RGDATA and conservationists Irish Friends of the Environment.

Martin O'Regan and Prionias Breathnach as well as An Taisce, were due to be part of the hearing but the two individuals - who were previously part of the Chamber of Commerce's appeal before that was withdrawn - were unable to attend. An Taisce, meanwhile, have already processed their appeal.

Representing An Bord Pleanála was Inspector Andrew Boylan while speaking on behalf of Irish Friends of the Environment were Collette O'Connell and her husband who introduced himself as Mr. O'Mahoney. Also giving a submission on behalf of this grouping was Peter Sweetman and a former Chief Fire Officer John Connolly.

This group made varying claims including a sensational submission from Mr. Connolly that the power plant did not need a fire certificate and that the multi-screen cineplex which is included in the scheme could cause a fire hazard.

SHADES OF STARDUST

Mr. Connolly claimed that, in particular, the multi-screen cineplex had inadequate fire escape facilities especially towards the rear of the building "which is virtually a corridor". Mr. Connolly described this "as having shades of Stardust".

The anchor tenant shopping unit came in for criticism, as well, from the former Chief Fire Officer. He said this

Travellers Finally Leave Youghal Road Site

Relief Felt By Residents And Businesses At Travellers Departure

By Kevin Kirrane

A great sigh of relief was undoubtedly heaved by the residents of Dungarvan as, on Monday last, the traveller convoy camped on the Youghal Road finally left the town almost a week after they had first undertaken to do so.

However, the relief felt, quickly turned to anger, as the full extent of the debris left behind was revealed. Sofa's, armchairs and an assortment of other furniture, as well as domestic refuse, plastic bags, cardboard boxes and an collection of other items were strewn from the sea's edge up to the walls of the site.

However, the cost of the clean-up operation is expected to be surprisingly low, ranging from just over £500 to £1,000, and, in an unexpected gesture, the travellers have left the Urban Council half the costs of the clean up operation and the provision of skips on the site.

building "will need to be massively re-designed."

Meanwhile, Mr. Sweetman alleged, amid a lengthy submission, that some of the relevant documentation was not on the planning file. This, he claimed, was a fundamental flaw in the planning application.

"Is the planning department deliberately setting out to deceive the public", Mr. Sweetman said. He continued by saying that the site of the proposed development is listed nationally as a Specially Protected Area (SPA).

300 EXTRA CARS ON QUIET ROAD

This was followed by a submission from Mr. O'Mahoney who said that Davis Street - where an access onto the site is planned - is far too narrow for the traffic, which it is proposed, will use this road. He claimed that phase 1 of the project would put 300 extra cars onto a normally quiet road.

Mr. O'Mahoney then went on to say that he had reason to believe that the opening onto Davis Street will result in the Urban Council compulsorily purchasing a number of properties on this street to widen it for the access road.

Another claim put forward by Mr. O'Mahoney was that the ground where the development is due to be sited is contaminated. Part of the Glanbia site was used as a municipal dump up until 1968 and was used to dump contaminated hides of cattle from the leather factory during this time, Mr. O'Mahoney said.

The other appellant present - RGDATA - was represented by Fergal MacCabe.

Mr. MacCabe claimed that a multi-storey car park was needed rather than surface level parking to enable the local authority to develop Grattan Square to its potential.

He also claimed that the development would take a significant amount of trade from the town, especially those shops at the opposite side of the town from the proposed development.

MASSIVE LEAKAGE

Later, he went on to question the affect the development would have on the small retail outlets a few miles outside Dungarvan. However, Neil Bannon - a chartered surveyor representing Clancy Construction - said there was already massive leakage out of Dungarvan.

Mr. Bannon said that even after the centre is up and running there would still be an annual leakage of business from Dungarvan in the region of £14 million.

"However, that must be compared with the much more significant £32 million loss of business the town is currently experiencing for its entire catchment area", Mr. Bannon said.

In a rejection of a claim by RGDATA that the multi-million pound project would have an adverse impact on existing business Mr. Bannon also said "It will just be bringing back the natural retail business to Dungarvan which is currently being lost because of the absence of the facilities the developer is proposing to provide. Neither will it affect business in neighbouring towns and villages as has been asserted".

Also appearing on behalf of Clancy Construction was Bernard McHugh. He told the hearing that the development would, instead of prejudicing Grattan Square, allow the Urban Council to develop it to its potential. This will happen as a result of pressure of car parking being taken off the square, Mr. McHugh said.

Rejecting the use of a multi-storey car park, Mr. McHugh said that at the present time, it would not be economically viable to provide this.

TOTAL MONOPOLY

The complex itself, he said, will provide an extension of Dungarvan and will also improve rather than damage the town.

"Today Dungarvan is not a major retail centre", Mr. McHugh said "There is a total monopoly by the Supervalu Stores with no other major retail outlet in the town."

The proposed shopping centre, he contends, will provide diversification and additional choice for the public.

Ann McCrone of Dungarvan Urban Council said that the development of the Glanbia site was seen - at planning permission stage - as vital for the economy of Dungarvan and the remainder of the town centre.

"The development strategy extends the town centre and seeks to integrate both the present square with the proposed development", Mrs. McCrone said during the Urban Council's submission.

Referring to the development of the power plant, she said, this was seen as necessary to serve Dungarvan and would be vital in the town becoming a regional gateway.

The Inspector, Andrew Boylan, will now formulate a recommendation and this will be made to An Bord Pleanala in the coming weeks. An Bord Pleanala may use this recommendation as part of their overall decision on the site.

The clean up operation, itself, was begun by the Urban Council almost immediately after the convoy left. The operation is currently being undertaken by a JCB and a number of Council workers.

There was some speculation in the area that truck loads of soil brought into the site was also part of this operation. However it will in fact, be used to landscape the entrance of the scenic walkway planned between Quanns and the Youghal Road.

The traveller issue flared up initially last Saturday week when a convoy of 60 caravans moved onto the site along with the same number of vans, cars and trailers.

Following the travellers entry onto the Urban Council property a number of approaches were quickly made by the acting Town Clerk, Joe O'Flaherty, in an attempt to secure an undertaking from them, as to their departure date. First, the travellers set a date for Wednesday of last week but when the convoy did not leave by 2pm that day, the Urban Council decided on a "get tough" strategy. As part of this strategy a truck load of boulders was brought on to the site escorted by four Gardai.

However, according to one of the chief negotiators towards an eventual settlement, Cllr. Michael O'Riordan, the travellers then gave an undertaking to leave on Friday. But, once again, the travellers failed to leave on time with only a handful of caravans departing the site over the weekend.

The presence of large numbers of travellers in the town sparked fears that trouble would be caused and publicans and hoteliers had a large number of security staff on their doors. At least one other pub did not open its doors at all over the weekend. However according to Gardai in Dungarvan, no incidents were reported in the town involving the travellers camped on the Youghal Road.

Meanwhile, Cllr. Billy Kyne has slammed, what he called, the "softly, softly approach to traveller encampments."

Cllr. Kyne said that "the most recent influx of travellers to the Youghal Road has confirmed what has been obvious for sometime, that Dungarvan is a soft touch for this type of community intimidation."

"This is not only an incident of forced entry but also clearly an attitude of aggression, total disrespect to the public generally and to the residents directly affected, who faced appalling mess and noise."

He also described the "siege mentality" felt in the town over the weekend "with pub doors closed and tension in the air."

The councillor contrasted as well the different measures used to treat those who are prosecuted for speeding and dumping with the "impunity" given to the travellers who he said, in this case, broke into private property, vandalised it and left a "disgusting mess behind" without any prosecution taking place.

Cllr. Kyne concluded by saying "the softly, softly approach is not working. Dungarvan now through its Council and the rule of law and order must effectively intervene. The alternative is not only what has happened at the Youghal Road but could well be worse."

Dungarvan based Deputy, Austin Deasy, meanwhile, has called for a new strategy to deal with the "problem being experienced by travellers and being generated by them."

Deputy Deasy is "calling on the Government to designate a Cabinet Minister to oversee a National Policy which will address the situation, which has gotten out of hand".

The deputy would like to see an up to date survey of the number of travellers in the country, the number of caravans they possess, and an assessment of those who wished to be housed and those who wish to remain on the road.

In a completely separate incident, travellers who were camped in Abbeyside were involved in a disturbance between factions within one traveller family, which resulted in one man suffering injuries to his arm. The matter is now currently under investigation.

New Manager For Florries Centra

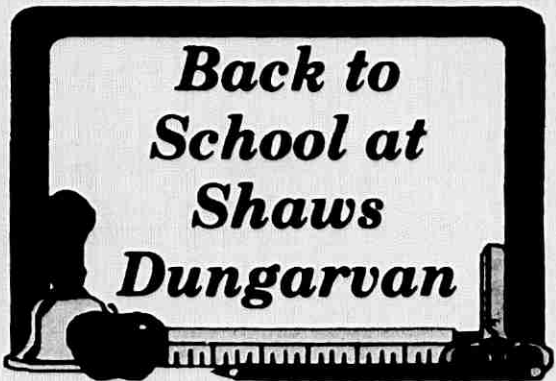

Florries Centra is pleased to announce the appointment of Damian Grehan as Manager.

Damian brings with him a wealth of experience, having worked for 23 years in the food retail trade. He spent 10 years with the Quinnsworth Group and also worked with the Caulfield Group and more recently with Garvey's Super Valu, Dungarvan. He was the owner of the award-winning Damian's Deli in Cork city and drawing on his vast experience he plans to make Florries Centra one of the best hot/cold deli and fresh food outlets in the area, with extra product lines and special offers instore while maintaining the quality of service, and high standards for which Florries Centra is already so well known.

MEDIEVAL EUROPE

THE BLACK DEATH

The Black Death was a terrible epidemic (outbreak of disease) that arrived in Europe from Asia in 1347. The germs that caused it were carried in the blood of rats and fleas (mostly living in dirty, crowded towns) and passed on to humans by flea-bites. Medieval people did not understand this; they tried many different remedies, such as saying special prayers, washing in herb-scented vinegar, or carrying lucky charms. But none of them worked. The Black Death killed millions of people.

Living On The Land

Most people in medieval Europe earned their living from the land. Peasant men, women and children laboured in the fields, ploughing, sowing and harvesting, making hay, picking grapes for wine, and making butter and cheese. Some peasants were not even free to leave their lord's farm.

PILGRIMAGES

In the Middle Ages pilgrimages made journeys to say prayers at Christian holy places throughout Europe and the Middle East. A pilgrimage had a serious purpose, but it could also be fun. Pilgrims stayed at inns to rest and refresh themselves and enjoy good food and ale. They travelled in groups for company, but also for protection against bandits and thieves.

LEADER PARTNERSHIP IR£3.1m. For Rural Waterford

Waterford Leader Partnership Ltd. is pleased to announce that it has been selected to implement the LEADER + programme until 2006 in County Waterford. WLP Ltd., the group responsible for administering LEADER II funding in County Waterford, has been allocated in the region of IR£3.1 million (approximately 3.8m EUROS) to develop the rural area through the creation of new opportunities and to establish innovative and sustainable projects in the next 6 years. The Minister of State at the Department of Agriculture, Food and Rural Development, Mr. Eamon O Cuiv, TD, recently made the announcement following evaluation of the proposals submitted by groups throughout the country. The increasing importance of Rural Development at National and European level is underlined by the recent allocation of funding under the European LEADER + and National Rural Development Programme. The Manager of WLP Ltd., Mr. Jimmy Taaffe, warmly welcomes the recent announcement and expects the programme to commence with the minimum of delay.

ARDMORE PATTERN

At midnight on Pattern Eve, the faithful again kept the vigil at the Well. The wonderful group led by Whelan's of Ballyquin had been there beforehand and had done the illuminations. Candles in jarsound rather crude but they looked absolutely magical in the darkness, laid on the ground and in convenient niches all over the Well area. We had the rosary in Irish and Eamon Moinbhial led the traditional Irish prayers to St. Declan, followed by an Irish hymn. Some stayed and did the rounds; others wended their way homewards, most of us conscious that countless generations of our own forefathers back through the centuries had done precisely as we had done, on that revered location on the cliff top. Dungarvan Dramatic Club News

Our programme of events to celebrate our sixteenth anniversary is currently being finalised. At present, we have the following line-up planned.

To kick off our celebrations we are running, in conjunction with Dungarvan Camera Club and generously sponsored by Dungarvan Credit Union an exhibition of photographs in the Arts Centre.

This exhibition is due to open on September 4th and takes the form of a 24 hour shoot of Dungarvan and its environs!

Our next event will be a competition for national schools, the prize for the winning class being a number of drama workshops.

We are currently in the planning stages of a pub theatre project. The details of this will be released at a later date.

In October we will also be launching a playwright competition, the competition will be for a one-act play by a previously unpublished author with the theme being sixty.

We are delighted to have secured the talents of Donal O'Kelly for two nights. We will now present two one man shows. On October 17th we will kick off in the Park Hotel with 'Bat the Father, Rabbit the Son'.

On the following night, October 18th, Donal O'Kelly will also perform 'Catalpa' which he also wrote.

Live music by Trevor Knight will accompany this. Donal and Trevor have performed 'Catalpa' to the highest acclaim on three continents from Manorhamilton to Melbourne, Tinahely to Toronto, Boston to Balbriggan, Copenhagen to Inis Oirr.

The Irish Times critic said of 'Catalpa', "exuberant, exhilarating, magical... it's a triumph, a joy a delight". Two nights to look forward to indeed.

Our last event before Christmas will be our celebratory dinner dance with the 16-piece swing band "Route 66".

It will be a busy autumn/winter season for theatre lovers in Dungarvan.

CLARIFICATION

In our story in last week's edition on the latest influx of traveller/traders into Dungarvan we incorrectly attributed a comment from the chairperson of Dungarvan Urban Council, Cllr. Teresa Wright, that the travellers were believed to be on holidays in the Dungarvan area from England, Limerick and Dublin.

Cllr. Wright did not in fact make any reference in that regard, and we are happy to state that in the interests of clarification.

DUNGARVAN MUSEUM NOTES

DONATIONS
We will gratefully accept any items of interest as donations.

PHOTOGRAPHIC EXHIBITION
Come in and see our photographic exhibition of times past, which is still on display in the museum.

Richard John Ussher 1841 - 1913

Richard was born at Cappagh House on 6 April 1841, the only surviving child of Richard Kelly Ussher (1778-1854) and Isabella Grant (d.1881). He is said to have lived abroad for many years returning to Cappagh in the early 1860's. In 1863 he was appointed a Justice of the Peace for Co. Waterford. On 20 January 1866 he married Elizabeth, daughter of John William Finlay of Corkagh House, Co Dublin. They had four boys and a girl.

In 1875 he built a new house at Cappagh just above the old one which still survives. The new house was designed by James Otway and Robert Watt, railway engineers. He developed an interest in ornithology and became obsessed with collecting bird's eggs. He later joined the Irish Society for the Protection of birds. He began to study rare bird species and also explored caves for fossil remains of birds. He is said too have found remains of the Great Auk in the sand dunes at Tramore. In 1906 he was the co-author of an important book - Birds of Ireland. Towards the end of his life he spent much time excavating caves in Waterford, Cork, Sligo and Clare. His excavation results were published in various archaeological and natural history journals.

If anyone has an article or thesis on a topic of Waterford interest, we will gladly display it online in our museum site. Copyright will be retained by the author. Articles can be submitted to the museum directly or you can e-mail william@deisedesign.com.

Dungarvan-Tipperary/ South MS Notes

The day of our big cycle - The Southeast Classic - is approaching fast, just ten more days. Let's hope it will be a fine day for the sake of the cyclists and collectors.

The cycle will leave the Square in Dungarvan at 9.30 a.m. on Saturday August 25th. It will head for Waterford via Kilmacthomas. We need a great many bucket collectors for Waterford so, if anyone can spare the day for a good cause, phone Eleanor at 058-46217. We will be delighted to hear from you.

From Waterford, the cycle will make it's way to Mooncoin for tea and sandwiches provided by Mary Keane and helpers of the Waterford Branch M.S.

Then it's on to Kilkenny after which it will turn back from Carrick-on-Suir and Clonmel. The next stop will be at The Hidden Inn at Kilmanahan. Indeed we are very grateful to the proprietors of the Hidden Inn who have put on two barbecues in aid of the branch recently.

It's a straight run then through Ballymacarby to Dungarvan. We expect to be back in the Square by 6.00 p.m. It would be nice to have some people there to welcome back the cyclists after their long cycle. A meal will be laid on at the Park Hotel for the cyclists and collectors.

This cycle is our main annual fund-raiser and we appeal for your support. Don't forget, if you put your name in a sponsorship card and give a donation, you will be in for a draw for a portable TV later in the year.

It's A Time For A Border Attack

A BEAUTIFUL border can be the highlight of any garden – but getting the right combination of colours and flowering times really is an art form.

Too many of us see something we like at the local nursery, buy it, plant it and hope for the best with little thought for the overall picture.

Good gardeners know exactly how to mix and match, building a blend that endures a border looks stunning from top to bottom from spring through to early autumn.

For the less experienced among us, it is a question of looking carefully at the location, seeking advice from a garden centre, reading up on plant types – and drawing a detailed plan before you even start planting.

It is always important to allow adequate space. Too many gardeners make the mistake of packing a new border with plants so it looks full right from the start. But as the plants become established their growth is restricted as they battle for space – and the strongest dominate the border at the expense of all their neighbours.

A new border should be specially prepared, with a healthy helping of manure dug into the soil during the autumn.

Attack

Border beautiful: Choosing the right plants is an art form.

This week in the garden

Prune hydrangeas
Most hydrangeas will have finished flowering and will benefit from a little pruning. Cut off each faded flower truss as far back as the first plump-looking growth bud and remove any thin, weak-looking stems. Of course, if some of the branches are still producing good blooms, leave these unpruned.

Lift spring-sown onions
Onions sown in January under glass and March outdoors should have completed their growth, and there is no point in leaving them in the ground any longer. Lift them carefully with a fork and spread them out on the surface to dry. After a few days, shake any soil from the bulbs and store them, either on shelves or in shallow boxes, in a dry, frost-proof shed or room – or strung together in ropes.

Sow onions
This is the time to sow onions, both for use as small salad in the spring and to provide early bulbs before the spring sown crop. Select a fairly sheltered place and ground that has been well cultivated, but not recently manured.

Perfect borders: top tips

Here are some essential tips for creating a perfect herbaceous border:

1. Dig well-rotted manure or compost into the soil during the autumn.
2. To shape a curved border, lay a garden hose along your chosen line and cut into the ground with an edging tool before digging the border.
3. Plant in the spring according to the conditions:
Sandy soil – plant early so roots become established before the warm weather.

Clay soil – plant in the late spring. If you plant too early the cold, wet soil will cause rot and may kill the plant.

4. Container-grown plants can be planted in the summer but must be watered constantly for the first couple of months.
5. Put tall plants at the back of the border, shorter ones at the front.
6. Put several plants of the same variety together in irregular clusters.
7. The colour scheme is a matter of personal choice – and may depend on other aspects of the garden. Put the strongest colours in the foreground and the paler colours further off.

8. Good colour blends include soft blues, pinks and purples; bright yellows, oranges and reds; red and blue. White can be added to all combinations.
9. Choose plants with a long flowering season – or pick a blend of plants with shorter seasons to ensure constant colour. Foliage plants such as hostas provide continuity.
10. Borders should be mulched every autumn and a slow-release fertiliser applied every spring.

Tallow Welcome Home Festival

Tallow is delighted to have a world class culinary expert assisting our Barbecue Competition. Chris Boland whose grandfather and grandmother were both from Ireland will be in attendance. Chris is the driving force behind the world renowned Arts Club of Washington, the first choice for many prestigious social and diplomatic events in that great city.

CHRIS BOLAND

The Arts Club is situated less than half a mile from the White House and was originally the home of the sixth president of the United States, James Monroe. After the British burned the White House during the War of Independence, this building served as the residence of the President while reconstruction took place.

As director of catering, he has entertained and delighted many of the worlds most important diplomats with excellent cuisine.

Included among the guests of the Arts Club are Jimmy Carter, former President of the U.S.A., Colin Powell, current Secretary of State, Madeline Albright and many leaders from around the world.

Chris has a wealth of experience in the world of Barbecue having taken part in many national and international competitions and will be on hand at our festival to give some tips and assistance to all of you who want to improve their culinary skills.

He will also give some cooking demonstrations and we look forward to sampling some of his fare.

DAUNTING CHALLENGE FOR TALLOW YOUNG HURLERS

Tallow's senior hurlers face their stiffest test to date when they take on Mt. Sion in the quarter-final of the championship on Sunday evening at 7.15 p.m. in the Fraher Field.

Tallow selectors set out realistic attainable goals for their team at the start of the year. A win in the first round of the championship was vital to stave off the perennial dog fight of relegation which was strangling the development of a young team. Despite the decimation of the squad with the loss of up to 9 players from last year, this was achieved.

A second round draw against Portlaw seemed to represent our best opportunity in years of a semi-final place but we under-performed and paid the price. After a titanic struggle we overcame Stradbally and the lads showed a lot of character in doing so. It has been a learning process for our lads and they will benefit from what they have learned already this year. It's not over yet. Mt. Sion represent the next obstacle - a formidable one. We are under no illusions about this one. Mt. Sion will be overwhelming favourites and will be anxious to get us out of the way for another crack at Lismore. We have too proud a tradition to be dismissed so easily. We are made of sterner stuff. If we hurl to a man and show the same strength of character that has lately been emerging, then we're in this ball game with a real chance. It won't be easy and your support at the game would help. Let the games begin!

MEMORIAL TO AUGUSTINIAN PRIEST

Fr. Jim Kiely Remembered

The long planned memorial to Fr. Jim Kiely and the Priests and Religious of Sliabh gCua has now been put in place in Touraneena and will shortly become part of the character and history of the locality.

While a number of subscriptions have already been committed / made, considerable additional funding is required to meet the costs of material and the cutting, laying and inscribing the limestone material of which the memorial is constructed etc. The overall cost excluding the voluntary labour input is approx. £3,000.

It is proposed as part of the project to draw up and publish a booklet covering biographical details and information about Fr. Jim and all those listed together with historic information on the Church and parish of Touraneena, the priests who served there over the years and a listing of those currently following a religious vocation and other material and this will be made available later.

The coordinating committee now invites the people of Sliabh gCua and beyond who would like to be associated with this project to make contributions to the Fr Jim Kiely Memorial Account: Sort No 906021 A/c No.33829739 Bank of Ireland, Dungarvan or to any member of the coordinating committee: Sean Whelan, Paschal Power, Jim Queally, Tom Power, Jim Cullinan, Piery Butler, Micheál Quinlan, Tom Gleeson and John Power.

Fr. Jim died in London in 1995 and the memorial will be unveiled in Touraneena after the cemetery Mass at 2.30 on Sunday, 19 August.

MODELIGO NOTES

TODAY IS OUR PATTERN DAY

Come one, come all and join us as we celebrate our annual Pattern Day. Sports events, for all ages, commence at 5.30pm this Wednesday evening, 15th August, in Modeligo Community Centre. Open and confined events include sack race, three-legged race and egg and spoon race, all guaranteed to cause riots of laughter!

Later on at 7.30pm, in what is always a keenly played football match, Modeligo challenge Kilrossanty for the prestigious John Fitzgerald Memorial Cup. Finally as the night draws to a close it is time to relax with open-air music and dancing at Deckie's Lounge. There is something for every member of the family to enjoy at the Pattern, so load up the car and join the fun. It is a great opportunity to meet friends who have travelled home especially for the Pattern.

TABLE QUIZ

The Pattern committee wish to thank all those who took part in the Table Quiz and made it such a success. Congratulations to the Kereen team who scored 59 points to win the contest.

MODELIGO WHEELERS

Saturday's weather may not have been the best for cycling, but the Wheelers didn't let a drop of rain stop them in their quest to complete the 40 mile circuit. Heartiest congratulations to all those brave cyclists who rose to the challenge. The route began at Deckie's Lounge travelling via Clashmore to the seaside village of Ardmore and back to Modeligo through Dungarvan town.

The cycle was organised to help raise funds for Dungarvan District Hospital and Alzheimers Unit. A big "Thank You" to all those who supported the Wheelers and contributed so generously to the fund. Anyone who wishes to donate to the appeal can still do so by contacting any of the Wheelers.

LOTTO

Winning Numbers Drawn: 4, 14, 18. Congratulations to Tomás Curran, Churchquarter, the winner of last weeks £300 Jackpot. And so the jackpot begins again at £200 for this Saturday's draw. Will you be the next to get your name on a jackpot cheque? If you're not in, you haven't a chance.

£10 winners: Mark Dalton, Dungarvan; Noreen Lafford; Mary Glavin, Ballinameela; Sandra Mulcahy, Ballylemon; Clodagh Kiely, Lyrattin;

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family, relatives and friends of the late Patrick Walsh, Abbeyside and Farnane, who went to his eternal reward last week. May he rest in peace.

NAOMH BHRID

Naomh Bhríd U-16 hurlers were due to play Stradbally at Modeligo Community Field but it was a case of all toggled off and no match to play for the locals as the Covesiders failed to appear. The lure of Tramore beach on a bank holiday Monday may have proved too strong for the opposition! It now means that Naomh Bhríd qualify for the knock-out stages of this competition, where our opponents will be An Gaeltacht. This should be a very close contest as we played a 2-5 to 1-8 draw with the Gaelgeoiri in the league section.

LADIES FOOTBALL

In connection with the recent Déise ladies football church gate collection, we would like to thank all the people who contributed. Training continues for all age groups.

BALLINACOURTY BOW OUT OF 'B' CHAMPIONSHIP

Ballinacourty's third team took on the Brickeys in the losers group knockout match played at St. Augustines Park on Sunday night last at 7.15 p.m. The game started in lively fashion with both teams all out to win and what the players lacked in skill and pace was made up for in endeavour and commitment.

In the early stages the Brickeys had slightly the more possession with full forward Gerry McGrath involved in a few movements. Brickey's opened the scoring with a point from play but Ballinacourty replied with a pointed free. The Brickeys pressed forward and Kevin Tobin had to make a good save to prevent a goal. However, Brickeys managed an excellent point from play. Tomas Kiely won possession in the half-back line for Ballinacourty and in a passing movement involving Jim Kiely, Fran McGovern and Kiely again the latter sent in a high ball which the Brickey keeper found difficult to handle. Shortly afterwards the long high ball tactic worked for the home team as the kick ended up in the back of the net.

BRICKEY RESPONSE

The men in the black and amber pressed forward and won two frees from which they scored. Fran McGovern edged Ballinacourty in front when he gathered following a long range free kicked into the area by Nicholas Dwane. Brickey's showing commendable spirit pressed forward and a headed goal brought their supporters to their feet. Another point from play meant they were three points ahead. Timmy Organ pointed a free for the green and white. Gerry McGrath almost got through for a goal but was well blocked down in the small square by Ger Collins.

Half-time Brickeys 1-5. Ballinacourty 1-3.

THE SECOND HALF

The Brickeys won possession from the throw-in and Kevin Tobin on the goal line managed to get his hands to it and deflected the ball onto the crossbar and somehow the ball was cleared away. A Brickey point from play was the first score of the second half. After 5 mins Timmy Organ kept Ballinacourty in touch with a point from a free. Brickeys now had their best period and extended their lead with a point from long range and a goal set up when Gerry McGrath fisted on the ball to an unmarked colleague who made no mistake. Brickeys 2-7, Ballinacourty 1-4 and Brickeys looked comfortable with a six point lead.

BALLINACOURTY COMEBACK

The home selectors switched Pat Knightly to centre-forward with Jim Kiely switching to full-forward. Neil Collieran and J.P. Mills were also introduced. Nicholas Dwane kicked a '45 wide. Timmy Organ took a quick free but again the recipient kicked wide. Ballinacourty did possess a will to win but they found it difficult to break down a solid Brickey defence. Nicholas Dwane jumped high to catch a ball 40 metres out as he kicked an inspirational point. The players responded and with ten minutes remaining Joe Walsh set off on a long solo run from a defensive position and sent the ball between the posts. Four points between the teams. Pat Knightly gathered possession on the right hand side and kicked a point with his left leg. Raymond Spratt and Brian Byrne were introduced for Diarmuid Molloy and Emmet Byrne respectively for the home team as it was hoped fresh legs would win the game. Timmy Organ pointed a free but it was the Brickey's who finished the stronger. They had to make a brilliant save following a good inter-passing movement for the Brickeys.

Full time score : Brickeys 2-8. Ballinacourty 1-8. Ballinacourty : Kevin Tobin, John Clancy, Joe Walsh, Eoin Browne, Tomas Kiely, Diarmuid Molloy, Brendan Mansfield, Nicholas Dwane, Billy Keoghan, Timmy Organ, Jim T. Kiely, Michael Kelleher, Emmet Byrne, Pat Knightly, Fran McGovern, Ref. Donal O Murchu refereed the game fairly.

ABBEYSIDE COMMUNITY CENTRE NOTES

The Community Centre committee will be holding two fundraisers this coming weekend.

On the 16th, 17th and 18th of August we will be in Garvey's Supervalu where we will be at the checkouts packing the shopping bags.

On Saturday the 18th and Sunday 19th we will be holding our first annual flag day / church gate collection.

The committee are currently seeking volunteers to help out with these fundraiser so if you have a few hours to spare this weekend why not come along and lend a hand.

ABBEYSIDE & GARRANBANE CHOIR NOTES

It has been a busy year for the Abbeyside and Garranbane choir. Alternating weeks between the Vigil Mass in Abbeyside and the 11.30 a.m. Mass in Garranbane has proved a good idea and will continue into the future. New members are always welcome. Practice is once a week in Garranbane Church on Wednesday nights 7.30 to 8.30 p.m.

Besides singing each week we have an active social side. In September some of our members travelled to Waterford to see Jesus Christ Superstar, while our younger members attended the Christmas Pantomime, Sleeping Beauty. We had our Christmas night out in Bridgie Terries, and this was so enjoyable we had another night out in March.

December also saw us carol singing at St. Joseph's Hospital with Bunny Garcia and at the request of Ger Enright on Christmas Eve we sang carols for an hour at Eurospar. All money raised from this, including sponsorship from Enrights, went to St. Augustine's Conference of St. Vincent de Paul.

The highlight of the year was undoubtedly being asked to form the core choir for the all-night Vigil and Dawn Mass at the Carmelite Convent in Tallo during the visit of St. Therese. We invited members from other choirs in the locality to join us for the occasion and in all we had fifty voices on the night. Even though we had some major problems with the sound system available there, everyone made the best of it and the singing and dawn chorus at the Mass made it an experience to remember.

ABBEYSIDE SCOUT NOTES

As a famous Apollo moon mission astronaut once said "the Eagle has landed". Yes, we are back from our adventures that were annual camp 2001 Curragh Chase. Indeed a great time was had by all.

We arrived in Limerick on Sunday evening where upon camp was immediately set up and indeed the next day was also involved with this activity. Tuesday saw the first days off site activity wherein we travelled by bus to the Scout National Water Activity Centre in Killaloe, County Clare. On arriving here at eleven thirty in the morning everyone was allocated to some sailing boats each which had a crew from Holland to show everyone the ropes. After about an hour all scouts such as Michael Organ and Marco Hanrahan so got the hang of things. Some of the older scouts decided to try and take over a boat manned by some American scouts and while they did not succeed they certainly had a good time trying. In the afternoon, it was time for some canoeing with the likes of David Hickey and Seamus O'Donnell putting everyone else to shame with their skills in the canoes. To round off an excellent day, all took a dip in the River Shannon to cool off on what was a glorious day weather-wise.

Wednesday morning was also another day on the buses as the troop headed for Tralee. The attraction here of course was the famous Aqua-Dome. A lot of the scouts had never been to the County of Kerry before, let alone to the swimming attraction so this was a good experience all round. A great attraction on camp this year was the Kilcornan Carting race way track at which the All Ireland National Finals are sometimes held. This then was no easy circuit by any means and the top drivers at this particular sport were Peter, Thomas, Frenchie, Muller and Kelvin. The driver with the fastest lap times on the three occasions we attended the course was Thomas Cashin although his style of driving which was compared to the Eddie Ervine School of Lunatic driving left a lot to be desired. On more than one occasion when either Frenchie or Peter had the racing line they were forced to pull out in order to leave lunatic Thomas through! Camp time also involved a visit to a Celtic Theme Park nearby which consisted of stone age buildings and showed how people lived at that time. In the town of Foynes a visit was paid to the flying Boat Museum. While the swimming - pool as well as the local chipper "Tasty Macs" were the highlight of the town of Askeaton which was only ten minutes drive from the scout campsite. One night during the middle of the week a fantastic game of rugby was played by the troop against a troop of visiting scouts from Germany. Some great tackles were put in by players on both sides and it was a struggle at times to get out from under a lot of the rucks and close quarter tackling. This was rugby literally in your face. Best for the troop were Thomas, Frenchie, the O'Donnells - Patrick and Séamus and Peter. It would be hard to pick out a man of the match but it would certainly have been a toss up between Thomas and Frenchie who seemed to relish in the close quarter tackling and the hanging on to the opponents for dear life. In fairness to the German team it has to be said the played some excellent stuff and were not afraid to mix it with the big boys. Even though the German team were made up entirely of lovely looking girl scouts this did not put our team off one bit, well done lads you did us proud and we win not let your girl friends know anything about this. A feature of camp was also of course campfires at which the traditional songs as well as some Limerick ones were heard. On the last night everyone having taken down all the tents during the day stayed indoors in the Scout Centre. This centre is a small version of Melleray Scout Centre in that it can hold up to thirty people indoors.

On Sunday before breakfast Vinny and Declan O'Mahoney arrived to take the gear home and following Mass, the troop headed for Abbeyside. At three o'clock in the afternoon the bus pulled in to the Den where everyone alighted and headed home after another successful annual camp with the 4th Waterford Abbeyside Troop. I would like to publicly thank all those who helped in any way with the running of this camp. Without your help it would not have been possible.

Abbeyside Reference Archive ARDMORE AND LISMORE

In the Archive we have a number of books that deal with Ardmore, likewise Lismore.

Last week, we added a nice new booklet that combines both. Its by Donal O Connor P.P., Parish Priest of Ardmore and Grange and deals with early Irish spirituality in the Decies, the Christian antiquities of Ardmore and the legacy of the Lismore Monastery. The drawings in the booklet are by Anne Carleton, Margaret Meehan and Brigid Shelly and it was printed by Kelleher Printers, Davitt's Quay.

We congratulate all involved on this beautiful piece of work which is on sale at De Paor Books, 36 Mary Street, Dungarvan. This Sunday evening Fintan Strain will be at the Parish Office minding this booklet and all the other 'treasures'. Visitors of all ages will be most welcome along.

SENIOR CITIZENS OUTING

This event took place recently and luckily the outing took place on one of the best days during the summer. Two bus loads of the senior members of our community left the Pond at 1.30 p.m. and undertook the relatively short journey to Tramore which was ideal for the people concerned and which was enjoyed by all. On arrival in Tramore all those who wished to partake were treated to coffee and biscuits. Following that some people went for a walk along the Promenade which was very enjoyable, others went indoors and played the slot machines and while some claimed to have won money, the majority were down a few pounds. However it was great fun and created a holiday atmosphere.

Everybody was in great spirits on the return journey to the Gold Coast where we were joined by those who were unable to travel. Approximately 130 sat down to a scrumptious meal served up in a very professional manner by the staff in the Gold Coast. Following a short rest the band comprising of Willie White, Dessie Beaumann, Joe Foley and Stephen Tutty entertained people for the rest of the evening. Ned Keane as usual acted as M.C. and he sang to entertain us as well. Aggie Hourigan and many of the usual singers performed as normal. Among the new faces present who performed were Mary Driscoll and Judy Power who sang 'The Rose of Tralee' and Elaine gave us a rendering of 'The Boys from the Co. Armagh'.

Chairperson Betty Tutty thanked all those who helped make the day a success especially the hard working committee. She thanked her fellow officers Tess Shine (Sec.) Seamus O'Brien (Treasurer) and Mary Rossiter (P.R.O.) for all their support. Fr. Doherty P.P. spoke to all present. At 11 p.m. Pat Daly's buses were on hand and the party goers were delivered to the doors of their homes including those who lived in Ballineety. Thanks is due to the drivers for their wonderful service.

All in all a very successful outing which was enjoyed by everybody who attended.

HISTORY

In 1463 Thomas, 7th Earl of Desmond was appointed Lord Deputy and he held a parliament in Wexford in the month of October. An act of Parliament stated that the seignory of lordship of Dungarvan was a great and ancient honour belonging to the King of England. It had for the most part been destroyed, it was stated because of the warfare over the years and the neglect of proper government there. The town government was to be given extra powers and to enjoy all kinds of free grants, liberties, privileges and customs as the town and manor of Clare in England had been. The town authority was to be composed of a portreeve and the general community who were the property owners or burgesses. They were to have authority to charge all kinds of duties and taxes on merchandise that was bought and sold within the town just as the custom in Bristol was. The dues and taxes collected by the town were to be used to repair and maintain the defences of Dungarvan.

Charters, privileges, liberties and the like were given to cities and towns to protect them against the impositions of the manorlords. The feudal dues and taxes of these lords interfered with the business of these town merchants. The choice of Clare and Bristol was apposite. Bristol was a seaport and Clare was an inland town in Suffolk where the Clare family had given to the burgesses freedom from feudal dues.

In the Wexford Parliament the Earl of Desmond received for himself and for his successors the fee - farm or tenancy of the manor of Dungarvan from the Crown, just as his ancestors had. It should not be forgotten that the Crown since its foundation had held town and manor in fee.

FARMING LEADER

IFA CAMPAIGN SECURES INCREASE IN PRE'99 PREMIUMS

IFA's major campaign to bring pre-1999 forestry premium levels into line with current rates has finally secured a Government commitment on funding, which will directly benefit over 10,000 farmers.

An intensive IFA lobbying campaign over the past year culminated in IFA President Tom Parlon heading up a recent delegation of key industry leaders to make a strong case for the premium increase to Marine and Natural Resources Minister Frank Fahey.

Mr. Parlon told the Minister that the premium increase was a "make or break issue for farmer foresters and the industry as a whole".

Responding to the Government's confirmation of the premium increase, the IFA President said "this move will restore confidence among farmer foresters for future investments because it demonstrates a serious Government commitment to the industry".

Forestry industry leaders, who attended the meeting with Minister Fahey organised by IFA, included Coillte, IFIC (Irish Forest Industry Chain) and representatives from the contracting companies, nurseries and the processing sector.

IFA Farm Forestry Chairman Pat Lehane said "IFA's campaign to secure an increase in the pre '99 forestry premiums began in the Spring of 2000 when the EU approved the 30% increase in premiums, but refused to fund existing plantations. At the stroke of a Brussels pen, 10,000 farmer foresters who had pioneered private forestry in this country were deprived of the premium increase and saw their investments downgraded".

Mr. Lehane said "IFA immediately pressed for Government funding and the initial response from Government Ministers was positive. Farmers were therefore devastated last May to hear the shock Dáil announcement refusing to fund the increase.

This month's confirmation from Minister Byrne of a change of heart by the Government on the issue is a critically important boost for the forestry sector and will be welcomed by committed farmer foresters throughout the country".

The increase is worth £3.4m per year to over 10,000 farmers on whom the industry depends so much for future investment.

Commenting Waterford IFA Farm Forestry Chairman, Patrick Trihy said "having previously raised expectations on this increase, we must expect that the Government has discussed this move with the European Commission and that EU clearance will therefore be a formality".

With this year's planting season fast approaching, IFA will be putting a renewed effort into demonstrating to farmers the real opportunities provided by forestry to supplement their incomes.

SOUTH EAST ICMSA NEWS

GLANBIA MEETING

An ICMSA delegation led by President Pat O'Rourke met with Glanbia on Tuesday 7th Aug. in Glanbia House Kilkenny.

The ICMSA group also included Jackie Cahill chairman of the national dairy committee, Tommy Cooke-Kilkenny, Michael Kehoe-Wexford, Tim Fitzgerald-Laois, John Skehan-Waterford, John Hemenstall-Wicklow, Cathal Buckley policy executive and John Quigley area development officer in the south east region.

The Glanbia team consisted of Tom Corcoran Chairman, Michael Walsh vice-chairman, John Maloney chief executive, Michael O'Neill milk assembly manager and Ger Mullally of the grain division.

The main issues discussed included milk price, markets and the outlook for dairy products, currency, milk collection / seasonality of production and trading issues.

ACTION NEEDED ON CATTLE PRICES

"Immediate action is required to halt the recent severe drop in cattle prices. In some cases, prices have fallen by over 10p/lb., which represents a loss of around £80 per head on every animal", said Mr. Pat O'Rourke, President of ICMSA.

The Minister for Agriculture, Food & Rural Development needs to introduce measures now to stabilise prices at a realistic level. With regard in particular to cattle over thirty months, the Special Purchase Scheme should be modified to take cattle over thirty months at the price set for steers under the Purchase For Destruction Scheme. For cattle under thirty months, an intervention system that will bring cattle to pre-July levels is required.

Following the outcome of the EU beef negotiations, the Minister stated that 'he had secured a commitment that the Intervention System will be used to stabilise the market in the Autumn'. "In terms of cattle prices, it is quite obvious that Autumn has come early and the Minister now needs to act", said Mr. O'Rourke.

"Following the BSE crisis last Autumn, when prices fell to a level similar to what they are now, definite and real action was taken by the EU Commission to stabilise the price of cattle. We are currently in a similar position as we are leading into the critical period for cattle sales. The BSE crisis is still impacting negatively and though initially the EU acted positively in stabilising prices, they must now continue to do so", concluded Mr. O'Rourke".

DAIRYING

Dairy problems:

- More mastitis than ever around!
- Co-ops have higher than ever SCC's.
- A lot of clinical cases suggests:
 - Chronic cows (cannot be cured).
 - Milking machine problems (pulsation, poor reserve, bad liners etc.)
 - Poor milking routine (too rough with cows and taking off clusters too early).
 - Stress (examine all aspects).
- High herd SCC's suggests:
 - Old herd of cows.
 - All the problems listed for clinical cases.
 - Stray electricity (have this checked out).
- Sorting out the problem involves:
 - Identifying the extent of the problem.
 - Identifying the cause of the problem.
- Not enough, nobody in fact, who has a problem, keeps records of mastitis.
 - You must fill the clinical mastitis record card.
 - This records the date a cow gets mastitis, the quarter and the type (all vital information).
 - This is vital if you have employed staff or a relief milker in.
 - You must get, at least 3 somatic tests done for each cow in the herd every year.
 - High SCC cows can be managed differently or culled if justified.
 - Get these tests done now, 3 weeks apart if you have a problem.
 - Discard the first few squirts of milk onto the aground when taking a sample because it is high in bacteria.
 - Use a jug to take a sample from each teat and then fill the small bottle from the jug.
 - A sensitivity test may have merit in identifying the type of bug causing the problem.
 - But sampling must be done very hygienically.
 - Cows must not have been treated with antibiotic (only fresh cases).
 - Some would argue that this is a wasted exercise because 70-80% of the bugs causing problems during lactation are Staph. Aureus and they are hard to kill.
 - Get the milking machine tested again.
 - Little things do make huge changes.

● The correct milking routine is as follows:

- Draw the foremilk to identify clinical cases in time and prevent mastitic milk getting into the bulk tank.
- Stimulate milk let-down by gentle rubbing of the udder.
- Wash teats if dirty.
- Put on and take off cluster gently because airblast cause serious problems.
- Teat dip afterwards.
- Some farmers are suffering serious financial losses due to high SCC's at present:
 - 3p to 6p per gallon.
 - Refusal by the Co-Op results when your milk has 400,000 bugs per ml. (imagine months).
 - The simple solution to avoid the latter scenario is to suckle or cull very high SCC cows (its amazing what damage 2 or 3 high cows can do).
- Change your milk liners now:
 - Gives more milk.
 - Less liner slip and so less mastitis.
 - Use Teagasc recommended ones.
- Lameness is also an issue:
 - Repair roadways.
 - Get the farm relief Service to attend to lame cows
- Cow condition must be near 3 now:
 - Very thin cows should have their health status examined and corrective action taken.
 - Remedial action must be taken now before it is too late.
 - It may mean more meals to these animals or early drying off.

SHEEP Store Lambs:

There has been several questions about the market outlook at the end of the year. The likely selling price of course influences the purchase price. Also what feed is available for store lambs? The cost of keeping a lamb at grass for 8 weeks is about £6 – a 35 kg lamb costing £45 coming in would need to make 122p/lb to break even (that's assuming a 19 kg carcass). The selling price would need to be 135p/lb to give £4-5/lamb profit.

RECENT DEATHS

LATE NAN COLEMAN

It is with feelings of profound regret and sadness we record the untimely passing of Nan Coleman, Ballygalane, Lismore which sad event occurred on 8th August at Waterford Regional Hospital. Aged 69 years, Nan was a member of a well known and highly respected family. A woman of outstanding qualities she possessed a wonderful warm personality. Nan was born in the cottage where she lived all her life. At the age of 3 years her father passed away leaving her mother Maggie to bring up Nan and her brother Michael alone. She left school at a young age to work for Bridget Heelan, a drapery store in Lismore. She was a carer all her life. When Nan met and married Michael they decided to live with her mother and take care of her. In later years she looked after her aunt Hannah. Nan cared for her husband Michael until his passing whom she shared a happy and contented life with at Ballygalane with their family. She then cared for her brother Michael for the last five years until March of this year when Michael went into hospital. Nan's home was her castle. She loved her vegetable garden and also her lawn and flowers. She loved cooking and baking. She was hard working and took great pride in doing any task. A woman of deep religious faith she had a great devotion to our Lady and the Sacred Heart.

Nan loved to have her grandchildren Shaun and Ronan around her, whom she adored. A loving and very proud mother of her son Jim and daughter Margaret she was a caring neighbour and friend to all who knew her. Nan will be greatly missed and her passing is much regretted by all her family and friends. On Wednesday evening rosary was recited by Rev. Fr. Kiely P.P. at Walsh Funeral Home in the presence of a large gathering. On Thursday evening removal took place to St. Mary's Church, Cappoquin. On arrival her remains were received and blessed by Rev. LATE DAN CULLINAN

The unexpected passing on Saturday August 4th of Dan Cullinan, Dromana, Cappoquin and late of Lackendarra, Ballinamult evoked feelings of sincere regret and sadness. A native of Lackendarra, aged 84 years, Dan was of old farming stock who loved to work the land. A tragic accident fifteen years ago left him without an arm. This loss he bore with great strength and dignity and not long after Dan was back in the thick of things farming in Lackendarra. An individual of great intelligence, an avid reader Dan could converse and debate all topics both national and international. He was involved with the Pioneer Movement and represented them in the various question times, likewise with Sliabh gCua in Seor quizzes.

Predeceased by his brothers Tom, Mick and Bill his sisters Kit, Bidy and Peg Dan's untimely passing is deeply regretted by brother John, sisters-in-law Nora and Ann, his many nephews, relatives and friends to whom we extend our condolences at this time. Very popular and most generous Dan loved children and was a great favourite with his grandnephews and grandnieces. A keen sense of humour and quick wit were some of his hallmarks which made him the best of company. Over the last few years Dan resided with John and Nora in Dromana where he will be sorely missed. The GAA was also close to Dan's heart and he loved to watch the action unfold as the various counties came head to head in the championships.

Reposing at the Kiely Funeral Home on Sunday, the removal took place that evening to St. Mary's Church, Touraneena where V. Rev. Fr. P. Hallihan P.E. blessed and received the remains. Fr. Michael Cullinan P.P., Ballyduff (relative) was chief celebrant with cocelebrant Fr. Hallihan P.E. and Fr. P. Butler C.C. at Dan's funeral Mass on Monday morning. The lessons were read by Catherine Weitbrecht and Sean Cullinan.

Prayers of the faithful were shared by Anna and Emma Ballot and Martin Weitbrecht. Music was played and sung by the Touraneena choir accompanied by Therese Butler. Following final prayers and blessing the interment was in the adjoining cemetery. (Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan).

LATE PAT WALSH B.E. C. ENG. M.I.E.I.

Tuesday 7th August brought the very sad news of the passing of St. Vincent's Hospital, Dungarvan of Pat Walsh, Tournore who was a native of Farnane and was son of the late Edmond and Helen (nee Kiely). Aged 86 years, Pat was educated at Modeligo, Melleray and completed his formal studies at U.C.C. graduating with his engineering degree. His chosen profession saw him give of his best in Foynes, Co. Limerick, London and Kuwait. Later he took up a position with Dungarvan Urban Council as Town Engineer. He was involved with the construction of the roads, housing estates and the water tower at Deelish and Ballinamuck. Many of the projects in the town benefitted greatly from Pat's vision and understanding. He loved to travel and crossed the Atlantic on many occasions. An avid reader, he loved his computer and despite his years e mails and use of modern technology caused him no stress whatsoever. To his eternal credit, Pat kept abreast of modern developments. For many years he was the cornerstone in the Civil Defence in the county. Pat had a deep interest in the Walsh-Kiely families and over many years researched the family tree. The completion of his work saw him produce a much valued document that traces the families back to 1700's. Having read some, one had to admire Pat for his diligence and dedication to a goal which gave him great personal satisfaction. Predeceased by his family members David, Eddie, Fr. Jim, Bibby and Fr. Nick, Pat Walsh who hailed from a deeply religious family which saw four of his brothers toil in the Lord's vineyard. Pat's absence among the local community will be missed.

We extend to Florrie, Fergus, Cormac, Patricia and their families, to his brothers Fr. Michael and Fr. Larry, Sean, sisters Jessie, Elsie and Rita and other relatives our deepest sympathy at this sad time.

On Thursday evening following prayers and rosary at the Kiely Funeral Home, a home which was designed by Pat himself, the funeral cortege left for St. Augustine's Church, Abbeyside Fr. Michael and Fr. Larry were joined by V. Rev. Fr. Doherty P.P. and Rev. Fr. Keogh C.C., Fr. Slator O.S.A.,

Fr. Cooney (prior) O.S.A., V. Rev. Fr. N. O'Mahoney P.P. for the funeral service.

Altar serving duties were carried out by David Walsh (grandson) with cousins Noel and Michael Coffey. After Mass the interment followed in St. Laurence's Cemetery, Ballinroad where a large and representative concourse gathered to bade a fond farewell to Pat and console the bereaved. The local Civil Defence provided guards of honour on both days of the funeral obsequies.

Chief mourners were wife Florrie, family Fergus, Cormac and Patricia, son-in-law Jerry, daughters-in-law Madhu and Myra, brothers Fr. Michael, Fr. Larry and Sean, sisters Jessie, Elsie and Rita and a wide circle of other relatives including brothers-in-law, sister-in-law, grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan).

LATE SHEILA FOLEY (NEE MOLONEY)

The locality on Monday 30th July, learned of the unexpected passing at St. Joseph's Hospital of Sheila Foley, O'Connell St. and late of Springmount, who had been ill for a short period. Predeceased by her husband Hugh on 14th April 1998, Sheila was a native of Springmount and came from one of the towns best known and most respected families, a family I may add very much to the fore in the business life of our town. Sheila was a quiet, unassuming person who had a wonderful and much admired dress sense and was a valued member of Ballinroad I.C.A. She loved their outings and also gave of her best with The Friends of St. Martin. Sheila loved her holidays and was a great fan of Daniel O'Donnell. Music was always close to her heart and she often enjoyed the many concerts where she saw her favourites perform. Sheila was a real lady who will be missed. We sympathise with her mother, brothers, sister and many other relatives at this time.

Removal took place on Tuesday evening after rosary and prayers recited by V. Rev. Fr. J. Kiely P.P. (cousin) from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church. In tribute to Sheila, colleagues and friends from the I.C.A. flanked the hearse as it made its way to church. Fr. John Kiely P.P. was joined by Fr. O'Mahoney P.P., Fr. Slator O.S.A. and Fr. O'Riordan C.C. for the funeral service. On Wednesday Sheila's funeral Mass was attended by a huge and representative concourse who listened to readings delivered by Carol Elstead and Maria Callanan (nieces) who also joined Betty Brett-Foley and Tom Callanan for the prayers of the faithful.

Music was provided by Dina Walsh, while David McGrath also shared a musical tribute. Later David was joined by brother Patsy in a final musical farewell at the graveside in Touraneena. Fr. John Kiely C.C. was main celebrant with co-celebrants Rev. Fr. D. McCarthy C.C., V. Rev. Fr. N. O'Mahoney P.P., Rev. Fr. T. O'Riordan C.C. and V. Rev. Fr. R. Doherty P.P.

We gathered in Touraneena for final prayers and blessing before Sheila was laid to rest after life's labours.

Chief mourners were mother Molly, brother Michael and John, sister Ann Elstead, brothers-in-law Patrick (Pa) Foley and Jack Elstead, sisters-in-law Rosaleen and Marie Foley, Bernie and Peggy Moloney and a wide circle of other relatives and friends including nephews and nieces.

The intermediate footballers have advanced to the quarter-final stages of the championship following their five points win over Brickey Rangers at Cappoquin on Saturday evening last. We led by two points at the end of the opening quarter but helped by a 19th minute goal, Brickey's came back to lead by 1-2 to 0-4 at half time. The sides were level on three occasions in the opening minutes of the second half before they took a one point lead with eight minutes to play. We finished the game in style and goals from James Scanlan and Denis Twomey in the 54th and 57th minutes left us leading by 2-8 to 1-6 at the final whistle. The prize for victory here is a place in the semi-final. The minor footballers were defeated by 1-9 to 0-9 by Clashmore in their final game of the league at Cappoquin on Wednesday night last. This defeat ended the teams interest in the competition. Well done to Patrick Molumphy and the players for the effort put in. WEST INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

LATE GOALS SEE BALLYDUFF THROUGH

BALLYDUFF 2-8, BRICKEY RANGERS 1-6

Goals from James Scanlan and Denis Twomey in the closing six minutes helped Ballyduff to a deserved victory at Cappoquin on Saturday evening in the Loser's Group Section final of the I.F.C. At the end of a very evenly contested opening half, Brickey's held a slender one point lead - 1-2 to 0-4. The goal, an excellent score came from Shane McGrath in the 19th minute and was a great individual goal following a solo run when he collected possession from a free in the Ballyduff half. The sides were level when Brendan Hannon converted a free for the Reds within two minutes of the restart. Points were exchanged before Ballyduff opened up a two points advantage after James Scanlan and county hurler Tom Feeney sent over. Two points from the impressive Tony Halpin had the Black and Amber side on parity. Brickey's now were getting a slight grip on the game and when centre forward Dermot O'Neill gave them the lead with eight minutes to play, it looked as if they may be the side to advance. Ballyduff had other ideas and they drove forward in search of scores and James Scanlan blasted home in the 54th minute following good work by minor players Stephen Molumphy and Denis Twomey. Brickey's were rocked by this score and within three minutes, the game as a contest was over when Twomey had the Reds second goal. Ballyduff now play Ring in the quarter-final.

Scorers for Ballyduff - J. Scanlan 1-1, D. Twomey 1-0, B. Hannon 0-3, M. Molumphy 0-2, T. Feeney 0-1, B. Kearney 0-1.

Scorers for Brickey Rangers - T. Halpin 0-4, S. McGrath 1-0, F. Nugent 0-1, D. O'Neill 0-1.

THE LATE OWEN GEARY

It is with deep regret that we record the death of Owen Geary, Lyrenagloch, Ballyduff who passed away peacefully in the loving care of his family in the early hours of Saturday July 28th. Deceased who had celebrated his ninetieth birthday last February was a member of the farming community until his retirement some years ago. He was an avid reader and had great powers of recall and he loved the game of 45. He was to be seen regularly in the village at evening time and was in actual fact driving to Ballyduff up to his 90th birthday. He had a life long interest in the GAA both at local and national level and was a great participant in debates and discussions on the games he loved so dearly. He was the last surviving member of the 1937 Ballyduff Junior team that lost the County Final that year to Passage. He played both codes for the club from the late twenties until the late thirties. He was left half back on the '37 Junior hurling team. In the same year, he played Junior football with Waterford against Laois, a game played in front of 18,000 people as the curtain raiser to a Kerry/Laois Senior Football championship replay.

The removal of remains took place on the Sunday evening from St. Carthage's Mortuary, Lismore to St. Michael's Church, Ballyduff. On arrival in the village, the cortege was met by a guard of honour formed by members of the GAA and from the community. The coffin was draped in the red and white flag of the club along with the No. 7 jersey he wore with such pride and distinction and was received and blessed by Rev. Fr. Ml. Cullinan P.P. The interment took place on Monday afternoon in St. Michael's Cemetery following concelebrated Mass in the presence of a large and representative concourse of mourners. A number of visiting clergy joined Rev. Fr. Cullinan P.P. in officiating at the graveside. Again, members of the GAA Club along with friends and neighbours formed a guard of honour as Owen made his final journey to his resting place.

Sincere sympathy is extended to his loving wife Mary, sons Eugene, Patsy, Maurice and Ned, daughters Peggy, Maureen, Anne and Chris, daughters-in-law, sons-in-law, brother-in-law, grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives, neighbours and friends.

May he rest in peace.

GAA - EXIT FROM INTERMEDIATE CHAMPIONSHIP

On Sunday last we faced Dungarvan in the hurling championship. We started quite well and led at half time by 1-7 to 1-4. However, from the three-quarter stage on we lost our way, gave away some silly frees and just 'ran out of steam'. The final score was 2-12 to 1-9. So the curtain comes down on our hurling year again. Once again we had a few injury problems which did not help our cause but the team that played on the day hurled their hearts out and can't be faulted. And just one note, in this time of referee bashing we want to say, full marks to Pat Tyler Walsh on a job well done.

TRAVEL

Twenty members from various clubs throughout the county travelled to Galway on the weekend of July 28th/29th. Shortly after our arrival in Galway, we decided to have a flutter on the Lotto.

Then we went on a 'pub crawl' followed by a visit to a night club until the early hours of Sunday morning.

Late on Sunday morning many of us strolled our way through some of the streets of Galway to cure some hangovers. In the early afternoon, we joined in the craic on the streets and the pubs. Then we decided to check the lotto results and realised how close we were to becoming multi-millionaires between fourteen of us. It was not to be. Still what we won made our weekend a little cheaper. Maybe next time 'lady luck' may be with us! On the Sunday evening we made the long journey home making a couple of stops on the way.

To conclude the weekend, we stopped off at Araglen where there was a festival and partied until the early hours of Monday morning.

Chamber Notes

Dungarvan Chamber assists local businesses to prepare for the arrival of the Euro

Retailers- by January 1st 2002, you must be able to price goods and services in Euro, invoice customers in Euro, pay staff in Euro, pay suppliers in Euro, maintain internal accounts and book keeping records in Euro and make all tax returns etc in Euro.

Have you set out a plan of action for your own business to ensure that you are ready for all of these changes. If not the Euro training session being hosted by Dungarvan Chamber of Commerce in September (date to be confirmed) will be of interest to you.

The Euro evening will focus on practical issues such as pricing, staff training and banking issues. A large part of the evening will also include a practical training session using "dummy" Euro notes and cash registers to give participants a more realistic feel for the challenges that will face retailers during the first few weeks of the changeover.

Brochures for this event will be forwarded to all local businesses in the coming days. We will be also be inviting retailers from the surrounding areas to participate in this training.

CHAMBER EURO CORNER

Over the following weeks, Dungarvan Chamber will cover issues relating to the introduction of the Euro which are of relevance to retailers:

Communicating with your customers — Retailers should not underestimate their customers' reactions. Some of them will be enthusiastic while others will perhaps be worried. Whatever their reactions, customers will expect to receive practical information and they will need to be reassured regarding the transparency of the transactions involved. Retail staff will therefore need to explain the current conversion and rounding rules, apply these scrupulously and show customers that conversion does not involve any price increases. Retailers should not hesitate to use more than one method of communicating these changes such as folders, displays etc. Business owners can also subscribe to a voluntary code of good conduct which will enable you to put up a confidence logo (eurologo) in your shop.

Converting prices to euros

— All your prices (in your shop, your catalogue or on your price list) will have to be displayed in euros by January 2002 at the latest. We therefore advise retailers not to wait until the last minute; instead, proceed by stages, adopting dual display of prices for your most important products so that you, your staff and your customers will get used to these prices.

In each case make sure that the conversion and rounding rules are correct and where necessary, use labels of different colours. As far as your cash register is concerned, you will need to indicate only the corresponding value for the total amount, not all prices line-by-line on a dual display basis. In this way, you will more easily avoid rounding errors. In any event, you should make sure with your supplier that sales receipts are printed in euros as of 1st January 2002.

Finally, do not forget to think about the question of psychological prices and rounded prices in euros:

Do not wait until the last minute to adapt your business strategy.

Under 16's Hurling

Report on game against An Gaeltacht last Monday night week.

Naomh Brid and An Gaeltacht met in the penultimate round of the county under 16's hurling championship. The game was a little late starting and by the time both teams were ready to play the appointed referee having waited 20 minutes left the field. Both teams agreed that the game should go ahead, with each team refereeing a half each. At the break the sides stood at 0.6 to 1.3. The second side saw a little needle step into the game and both teams could count themselves lucky not to have a player sent off. Naomh Brid opened the better in the second half going five points up. An Gaeltacht battled back and with about six minutes plus maybe a little stoppage time still to play had pulled the scores level. At this stage to the annoyance of the spectators on both sides the referee called a halt to the game. Team : Johnny Buckley, Pat Murphy, Brian McCarthy, Michael Myles, John Ahearn, Shane Hickey, Tristan Hickey 0.3, Willie Power 0-1, Aidan Hickey 0.3, Jack Power 1.0, Shane Hourigan, Tomas Fenton, Fionn Grace. Subs Paul Coffey and Shane Troy. The final score An Gaeltacht 2.5, Naomh Brid 1.8. They were due to play Stradbally last Monday night but Stradbally gave them a walk over. This puts them in a semi final against An Gaeltacht in Fraher Field on Tuesday 21st at 7 p.m. Please support them on the night.

Minor Football

Naomh Brid completed their campaign of the year against Kilrossanty in Colligan last Wednesday evening. Naomh Brid started the better with the opening score coming from a free from Denis Coffey in the 6th minute. Kilrossanty replied in the 13th minute, Tristan Hickey put Naomh Brid ahead once again with a great effort in the 15th minute. Kilrossanty finished the half stronger scoring 5 pts, without reply leaving the score 0.6 to 0.2 at the interval. With a slight breeze to Naomh Brid's advantage the lads applied a lot of pressure in the opening 10 minutes but failed to raise a flag. Kilrossanty added a further 2 points. In the 45 minute Naomh Brid were awarded a penalty Denis Coffey stepped up and unluckily hit the post and the danger was cleared. Naomh Brid pointed two frees in the 46th and 47th minutes but the game slipped away when Kilrossanty scored 2 goals in the 50th and 54th minutes. Darren O'Connor punched a great goal in the 58th minute to leave the final score 2.9 to 1.5. The team played very well collectively considering that Kilrossanty dominated this section. Paul Coffey was sound in the goal and his full back line of Shane Hickey, John Myles and Brian McCarthy all kept their men at bay. Willie Power and David O'Donovan competed strongly on the wings with Denis Coffey outstanding. Through the 60 minutes Paudie McCarthy and John Ahearn worked hard in the centre and Tristan Hickey, John Queally and Jack Power all doing well. Darren O'Connor, John Ahearn, Shane Troy and Paul Gleeson all contributed to the teams efforts.

Well done to all the lads who fielded and played well for their club in their minor championship. While we fielded a very young side they held their own. Thanks to John Patrick for the results each week.

Congratulations are sent to Nicky and Trish O'Donovan on the birth of a baby girl last week, well done Trish.

KILL GAA NOTES

Playing Pitch

The drainage operation on the playing pitch has started and the work is being carried out by Wexford Contractor Mr. Keogh of Gusserane. This major field development is under the watchful eye of field committee Chairman Tom Kirwan and groundsman Nicky Whelan, now fully recovered from a recent illness. Further plans for the field involve the provision of proper dug outs, toilet facilities and the erection of lighting. When complete the field will be a major asset to the divisional and county boards in the competition of the championship and a year long facility for the young footballers and hurlers of the area as the ladies footballers.

Half Century Ago

Fifty years on, we recall the 1951 under 14 football county final between Kill and Abbeyside played just after the school year finished. While many of the Kill team are still living in the locality some emigrated at an early age, while one or two have gone to their eternal rewards.

Kill panel: Monty Guiry (capt), John Queally, Maurice Kavanagh, Tom Kirwan, Maurice Bermingham, John

Note that a few of the lads went on to major prominence not only on the playing field but in the business world as well. Also interesting to note that the many skills taught and outlined by the Kill team coach, the late Dan O'Brien, himself a Killarney man and a disciple of the book on "How to Play Gaelic Football" by Dick Fitzgerald, long since out of print is still a huge part of the success of Kerry football and expertly demonstrated by Maurice Fitzgerald and Mike Frank Russell. There is no substitute for skills and the new system of 'pull and drag play offs' should be scrapped forthwith. Incidentally Kill defeated Abbeyside in the 1951 final. Yes 50 years is a very long time.

Thurles

Club Chairman Mick Ahern travelled to Thurles on Saturday last to see his native county pip the Dubs in the replay. Mick is confident that the Kingdom can go all the way again this year, and retain the title. He hopes to get a ticket for the semi final against Meath. The Royals will be no push over.

Diary

Players, club members and supporters are reminded to enter Friday 24th August in their diaries as the date of the special general meeting, to raise finance for the field development.

Sad

Sad, in a way to see the demolition of the old Carrolls Cross Creamery which came down last week, and a new development is to be erected in the site. The parish Creamery, as well being a place where farmers delivered their milk to be separated into cream for butter making and skim milk for animal feeding as well as their provisions from the Co-op, was also a place of social gathering and the news and happenings of the area were discussed in detail there. Carrolls Cross Creamery was no exception, and built just 80 years ago as a subsidising of Kilmeaden Co-op, it was the local point of discussion of all the happenings on the football and hurling fields of the area, particularly the games involving the "local" clubs Kill, Ballyduff and Newtown. Not to mention the big senior hurling championship games involving Waterford in Munster Finals and All Ireland Final Days. The end of an era.

Tallow Notes

BRIDEVIEW UTD A.F.C. NOTES

Tallow Ready To Rock

Yes, everything is now in place for Tallow's Welcome Home Festival which kicks off on Friday August 24th in the Brideview Bar. The festival committee have been working very hard behind the scenes making sure everything is ready.

This year's festival is the biggest one to date while last year's festival was the best one in recent years, it is hoped to be better than that again this year which will not be an easy task.

Chairman of the festival committee Mick Sheehan is pleased with the developments and preparation to date but added Sheehan we also have the little hiccup.

All posters and programmes will appear throughout West Waterford, East Cork and North Cork this weekend. If we get fine weather then we should have a very exciting week.

The V.W. Beetle Show is bringing people from many parts of Ireland while Mr. Barbecue himself has already arrived in Tallow from Washington D.C. namely Chris Boland. "Sponsorship is coming in already" added Sheehan, "but as always we still need more as this year's festival is going to break all records as regards the running of the festival".

Any festival committee will tell you that trying to come up with new ideas is the biggest problem they face.

This year in Tallow we have many firsts ie V.W. Beetle Show, barbecue competition, Phoenix Fireworks and not forgetting The School Around the Corner.

This year we are hoping to please everyone both young and old, boys and girls. The parade on the final day should be terrific and again this year we have our friends from the Heineken Blastercaster with WLR coming live from Tallow.

Another first will be the army full Brass and Reed Band which will lead the parade on the final day. Full programme will appear next week. So folks watch this space.

Super Lotto Jackpot £1,500
Last weeks numbers were 3-9-14-18. No winner. Match 3 winners Angela O'Hara, Ann O'Brien, Woodview Park, Elaine Curran, Kathleen Nugent and Marion Forbes. Draw this week takes place on this Friday August 17th in Luke McCarthy's at 10 pm.

Congratulations
To Colin Cunningham and Georgina O'Connor who announced their engagement. Best wishes to Colin making a comeback in Utd's jersey this season. Best wishes to both.

Birthdays Corner

This week we congratulate Phylis Cunningham who celebrated her birthday on Saturday last. Birthday greetings also to Phil Russell, Andrew O'Riordan (one of our star players), Sandra Giles. Belated greetings to Ray Fraser and Geraldine Oakham. Not forgetting Pat Murphy (Kilwatermoy).

News To Hand

It's all about "The Murphs" this week. Well read on. One of them spent a romantic weekend in Kilkenny and (so the bird told me) that he was so taken up that he never saw the locals. While another one is now heading up West, I believe. Well Shannon Airport is not too far away and the final one is now following. Kerry and playing his golf in Ballybunion but he also had a ball at the Bachelor Festival. He was really spruced up on Friday, now I wonder why ha ha! PS even the car looked well.

Sympathy

All in the club extend their deepest sympathy to the Mulcahy family, New St. on the sad passing of Margaret. May she rest in peace.

Speedy Recovery

All in the club wish Michael Mangan a speedy recovery after his accident last week. We are glad to report that Mike is over his operation and is on the mend.

Who Am I!

Yes, indeed I might well ask the above question, as last Friday night I was approached by a very charming lady who comes from Tallow but left the town many years ago. The girl in question was Biddy (Pratt) Brosnan. Biddy thought that yours truly was in fact Eddie Cunningham. Eddie was delighted with this when he met Biddy on Saturday morning and was told the story. We hope that Biddy may come back and live in Tallow. At the moment she resides in Co. Limerick.

Holidays Over

Yes, Gary, Michelle and family headed back to Luton on Sunday last. How time flies but they all enjoyed the holiday especially with the beautiful weather.

Also glad to hear that Val and Karen are settled in. Of course the landlord is still at home. Right Val. For many locals it was also a case of back to work with most factories opening this week.

INTER COMMUNITY LITTER CHALLENGE

This competition has ended for this year. We hope to have our final marks during this week. It does look like the winners of the tidy town competition will be Lismore who have led from the start. Our congratulations go to them.

We here in Tallow are slow starters and we usually get caught out in the first week or two. Please God next year we can get off to a better start.

As regards villages our neighbours Ballyduff are fighting it out with Fenor, Rathgormack and Aghlish.

Tallow Camogie Club Notes

TRAMORE 4-1, TALLOW 2-0

Our junior camogie team can count themselves very unlucky to have lost this county final last Wednesday night in Dungarvan G.A.A. grounds. The girls had the worst possible start when they conceded two early goals in the 3rd and 7th minute. At this stage our defence were under all sorts of pressure as most of our players struggled to get into the game. With about 10 minutes gone Gillian Sheehan received a bad knock on the head and had to be replaced by Maria Murphy. Then 5 minutes later Marian Forbes received another knock on the head. Tallow finally started to hurl and finished the half the stronger team but had no luck in front of goal. We had some really good chances with Pamela and Di-anne coming very close. Then Tramore got their third goal 2 minutes before half time which made it very difficult for girls to pull back in the second half.

Full credit to this team they never gave up and made a great game out of it. The first 15 mins were evenly contested by both sides but no scores were registered. The game then came to life when Marian sent a free all the way to back of the net to leave two goals between the teams. This now got the very big Tallow support behind the team. Injury hit again when Sharon had to go off with a knock on the leg and was replaced by Anne Marie Henley and also Christine by Billie Jean. Then with 10 minutes remaining Tanya got the goal of the game when she fired an unstoppable shot low into the bottom corner of the net. With our supporters going mental and only a goal between the team it looked like anyone's game. But even though they battled to the final whistle it was Tramore who finished the stronger and added another 1-1, the goal coming 4 mins into injury time.

Team : S. Kenneally, C. Corcoran, J. O'Neill, G. Sheehan, L. Murphy, M. Forbes, L. Tobin, S. Linehan, D. Pratt, K. Keane, P. Grey, K. McCormack, S. Casey, T. Hallahan, L. McCormack, M. Murphy, B. Sheehan, A. Henley, I. Mills, L. Keane.

COIS BHRIDE JUVENILE GAA NOTES

Matches Postponed

Last week was a relatively quiet one for the club with both scheduled matches being called off. Our U-16 hurling tie versus Clonea due to be played last Monday 6th August was conceded to Clonea because of our inability to field a team. Despite the fact that we were effectively out of this championship after just one win in four outings, the non appearance of so many of our players on the night was very disappointing for selectors Liam O'Brien, Michael Leahy, Frank Ryan and Frank Roche. Let us hope that a better effort will be made for the Western Championship in September.

Also called off was the U-13 hurling semi final of the Fitzgerald Cup which we were due to play away to Abbeyside last Wednesday night. This game is now fixed for tonight (Wed) at 7.30 and it will now take place in Tallow.

U-12 and U-14 Football

The Western U-12 and U-14 football championships are due to commence next Sunday 19th August (U-12) and Monday 20th (U-14). The selectors for U-14 are Dan Casey, Billy O'Keefe, Finn McCarthy and Pádraig Tobin. The U-12 selectors are Rachel Aherne, Noel Cunningham and Joe Ahearne.

Under-Age Hurling Friendlies v Skibbereen

Last Saturday morning in scenic John F. Kennedy Park, Knockanore, Cois Bhríde played host to the juvenile hurlers of Skibbereen for a veritable feast of hurling. Senior Cork stars Joe Deane and Mark Landers, plus James Murray, Eoin Murphy and other senior hurlers from both Tallow and Shamrocks, came together to coach youngsters at U-10, 12 and 14 on the skills of hurling. As Skibbereen would be primarily recognised as a football stronghold, they were keen to bring their youngsters to a hurling environment, with the added ingredients of Senior Hurling stars to give them encouragement. Thankfully the weather stayed dry and with the ladies of the club providing tea and sandwiches, everyone was well catered for. Over 80 boys between the ages of 10 to 14 took part in total, and when the coaching sessions were over, each age group played a match, which were all won by Cois Bhríde.

Skibbereen mentors John Crowley, Alan Foley and Conor Hallahan said they were delighted with the welcome they received and invited Cois Bhríde back to West Cork for a Football Camp along the same lines on a date to be arranged. Our thanks to Joe Deane, Mark Landers, Eoin Murphy and James Murray plus Pádraig Tobin for all their assistance.

Minor Hurling v Lismore

Cappoquin was the venue on Tuesday night 14th August for our play-off match with Lismore to decide one of the two places going into the knock-out stages of this year's championship. Our lads are only too aware that their victory over Lismore in the league stage means nothing in the context of Tuesday's game and a huge effort needed to win this one. Throw in was at 7.00 pm.

Summer Hurling Camp

Tallow field is the venue for the Summer Hurling Camp which starts next Monday 20th August and which ends on Wednesday 22nd. Times are from 10.00 am to 2.30 pm and a packed lunch is advised to be brought. Peter Power, that great coach himself will be there plus, no doubt, various guests and the odd star player. Loads of fun and hurling is assured, so do come along next Monday.

Congratulations

Our heartiest congratulations go to committee member and selector Mary Murphy, on winning her 9th senior Camogie County medal with Lismore recently. Surely a great record and well deserved.

Fixtures

Wednesday 15th August U-13 hurling v Abbeyside in Tallow at 7.30 pm. Sunday 19th August U-12 Football v Kilrossanty at 11.00 am Knockanore. Monday 20th Aug U-14 football v Ardmore at 7.30 pm in Ardmore.

Sherry FitzGerald Call For a Reduction in the Rate of Stamp Duty

Sherry FitzGerald, Ireland's largest estate agents called today (Wednesday) for the Government to reduce the rate of stamp duty applicable to both owner-occupiers and investors in the residential property market.

Commenting on the results of a recent survey on the property market, Marian Finnegan Economist, Sherry FitzGerald Group noted. "The significant and miscalculated Government intervention in the market over the past three years culminating in the introduction of penalising rates of stamp duty in June 2000 has resulted in the diminution of investor demand in the residential market."

Investors purchased only 8% of all properties traded during the first six months of 2001, compared to in excess of 30% of property traded in the months prior to the publication of the first Bacon Report. The demise in the level of investor demand has been the catalyst in fuelling the strength of rental inflation particularly in the past twelve months when the pace of rental inflation has significantly exceeded that of asset price inflation.

The proportion of investors selling existing properties has also increased considerably in recent months. An analysis of properties traded during the first six months of 2001 reveals that 16% of properties sold were investment properties. This compares to 10% in 1999. This combined with the reduction in investor demand is likely to place further upward pressure on rental inflation in the months ahead.

Commenting Ms. Finnegan noted that investors' are a vital ingredient in the performance of a properly functioning property market. In attempting to solve the problems of one section of society the Government have however unwittingly worsened the plight of another less fortunate proportion of our community, those who cannot afford to buy a house.

Ms. Finnegan called on the Government to "reassess their approach to investor interest in the residential market by reducing the rate of stamp duty and/or re-introducing mortgage interest relief. If we are to really stabilise the residential market we require a healthy supply of both owner occupied and rented property. Any effort to thwart investor demand will only serve to delay a long-term solution to the housing crisis".

Ms. Finnegan suggested that the rates of stamp duty applicable to owner-occupiers also need to be reviewed. "Current rates of stamp duty penalise anyone who wishes to buy residential property. The significant deceleration in the rate of asset price inflation has also served to exacerbate the situation - with asset price inflation now less than 5% per annum, stamp duty rates appear even more penalising. Therefore in the interest of a free market environment it is essential that a complete review of the rates of stamp duty be completed if we are to encourage investor interest and restore confidence in long-term stability of the market".

County Development Board Member Profiles

Seán Tobin Community Representative

"The major strength of the County Development Board (CDB), as I see it, is the broad representation of all communities and the inclusion of all representative bodies." So says CDB member Seán Tobin from Tallow. "I am proud and delighted to be able to represent my own community on this Board which will define the development strategy for the county in the years to come."

Seán Tobin is married to Frances and they have five children. He established his own engineering business, Tobin Engineering in Tallow in 1979. The company, also trading as Goalpost Ireland, provides goalposts to GAA, soccer, hockey and rugby clubs throughout the country.

Tallow Enterprise Board

Seán is also Chairman of the Tallow Enterprise Board. As well as being involved in a range of social projects, the Board administers an Enterprise Training Centre in Tallow "as a hub for training and assisting people in getting back to work or improving their personal skills and education levels." Seán's work with the Tallow Enterprise Board makes him ideally suited to be a community representative on the CDB.

Community Participation

"My involvement with the CDB is compulsive," says Seán. "Of course it is very demanding and involves more work than I anticipated, but because I believe in it and in what it is trying to achieve, I am there for the long haul." Seán Tobin is a firm believer in inclusive involvement in the development process. "Of course you can say that the County Development Board is just another institution. However, I sincerely hope it won't be a toothless tiger. I believe in the concept behind the establishment of the Board and I hope we as Board members will deliver and listen to community representatives both at Board level and through the Community Forum process."

Seán Tobin feels that the CDB is giving communities a major opportunity to organise themselves into a strong pillar. "We need to seize this opportunity at county level by formulating a network to promote ourselves and what we stand for within our communities." Seán is worried that the demands of modern society mean that we are unable to keep strong community leaders and active community representatives. "The more people we get back working in the community the better. We need to train our members in leadership/administration skills and in sourcing funds which are often times available to community groups but which do not reach them. I see this as one of the objectives of the Community Forum process."

Community Forum

The Strategy Working Groups established under the County Development Board have been preparing briefing documents on the various economic, social and cultural topics for the Board itself. Seán Tobin strongly urges more community groups to get involved in this process. "You can still make a contribution to the development of our strategy for the next 10 years. As representatives of Community Groups we are all partners in the way forward and we must play our part in ensuring a secure future for our county. I would call on any community group that wishes to make a contribution to attend public meetings/workshops organised by the Board and to get involved in the process."

Through his involvement in the CDB, Seán Tobin is a living example of the contribution community leaders can make to the development process in Co Waterford. He is passionately committed to his work both locally in Tallow and as a CDB member. In Seán's own words the County Development Board Strategy "must come from the bottom up" and he intends to do his very best to ensure that this happens.

SENSELESS VANDALISM IN LISMORE

By Kevin Kirrane

In a night of senseless vandalism, a number of windows were broken in Lismore, with main victims of the damage being two sports facilities in the town - the GAA clubhouse and the Cricket Pavilion.

As well as this damage, the vandals wrecked the playing surface of the cricket grounds by churning up the normally immaculate surface in a car.

The vandalism which occurred on Tuesday night last, saw a small number of other windows throughout the town being smashed. Local residents said that the vandalism was perpetrated by a "small number of thugs" within the town.

The vandalism struck a particularly cruel blow to the Lismore Cricket Club, who now are unlikely to be able to use the grounds for 2-3 weeks and, it appears likely, that a number of matches will be cancelled as a result.

A significant amount of work will also have to be carried out to the surface for the clubs match with a team sponsored by the Duke of Devonshire's grandson - Chatworth from Derbyshire - to have the playing surface ready for the historic match's scheduled 1st of September starting date.

LISMORE NOTES

Summer Concert by St. Carthage's Singers In Lismore Cathedral

Lovers of choral music are promised an enjoyable evening on Wednesday 22nd August in Lismore Cathedral when St. Carthage's Singers present themselves with a programme spanning nearly five centuries. St. Carthage's Singers are the Choir-in Residence of Lismore Cathedral, the 22 members contribute regularly to the services in the Cathedral and in other Churches throughout the country. Every year they add to their repertoire. On 22nd August they wish to share their music with a wider audience.

Some of the new additions to the repertoire are very interesting from a musical point of view, for instance 'Haec est Dies' (This is the Day the Lord has made) by the Slovenian composer Jakob Handl (15509 - 1591). It is in fact a piece for two four-part choirs so in order to sing this piece, the Choir will divide itself in two smaller four part choirs. Composing for double choir was very common four centuries ago.

Another highlight will be 'Abendied' (Evening Hymn) by the German composer Josef Rheinberger who died 100 years ago. It is written in 6 parts (SSATTB) and is counted among Rheinberger's most beautiful choral works. Jan van Putten, the Conductor of St. Carthage's Singers wrote a short piece in 7 parts for a female choir based on the Beatitudes. This composition will be sung by the fourteen ladies of St. Carthage's Singers.

Another composer who died a century ago is John Stainer, once organist and choirmaster of St. Paul's Cathedral, London. St. Carthage's Singers will perform four of his choral compositions. Other works to be sung are by Thomas Tallis (If ye love me).

Heinrich Schutz (the final chorus of his Matthew's Passion), Alessandro Scarlatti (Exultate Deo), Sergei Rachmaninov (Ave Maria), John Rutter (The Lord is my Shepherd) and others.

In a number of pieces, the Choir will be accompanied by Colin Nicholls, Organist and Choirmaster of St. Finbarr's Cathedral, Cork. Colin Nicholls will also play three organ solos, among them the Prelude and Fugue in D minor by J. S. Bach.

The concert will end with a repeat performance of three parts from Bach's Cantata "Gottes Zeit ist die allerbeste Zeit" (BWV 106). Last year when the 250th anniversary of the death of Bach was commemorated, this Cantata was performed during the Back celebrations in Lismore. It was a great success and many of those who attended that performance will look forward to hearing it again. In this work, the Choir will be joined by William Beare, Dean of Lismore, baritone.

The concert on 22nd August in Lismore Cathedral begins at 8.00 p.m. Admission £5 (conc. £4). The concert will be repeated in Old St. Mary's, Clonmel on Friday 31st August.

FIXTURES

Thurs. 16th - Cavnagh's Ford In Golf Open Qualifier, Friday 17th - 9 Hole Mixed followed by Bar, Sat. 18th - Cavanagh's Ford In Golf Open Qualifier, Dun. 19th - Course reserved for G.U.I. Country Clubs Final, Tee reserved - Thurs. 16th - 2.03 p.m. - 2.31 p.m. Cobh Ladies, Thurs. 16th 4.30 p.m. - 4.58 p.m. Glengarriff G.C., Sat. 18th 1.56 p.m. - 2.13 p.m. Sweep Bar Golf Society, Sat. 18th 4.58 p.m. - 5.47 p.m. Ballybeggan/Spanish Point Golf Clubs, Sat. 25th Cavanagh's Ford in Golf Final.

At the start of our lead up to the President's Prize the juniors were back in action. The winner of the boys was Keith Landers (38) with 30 nett. The winner of the girls was Evette Hickey (45) with 31 1/2 nett. The rest of the week was spent with players trying to fine tune their games in readiness for our second biggest major namely Jack Aherne's President's Prize. The action finally got under way on Friday on a course that was a credit to our green-keeping staff. It was in excellent shape. The weather was very overcast but the golf played by assistant green keeper Deaglan De Paor (18) was anything but. I had the privilege of being his playing partner on the day and in my ten years of being a member of the club I have never witnessed a finer display of golf. Deaglan carded an astronomical 52 points in a round which included 5 birdies. Nobody came close to him on Friday, the next best score being 10 behind. It was the 42 points posted by the easy swinging John O'Gorman (13) with an excellent 42 points closely followed by Dungarvan's Mossie Walsh (10) with a nice 41 points and so to Saturday where there was drizzle in the air which turned into a wet night. By the evening it didn't stop Noel Landers (14), brother of Captain's Prizewinner Sonny from amassing an amazing 47 points which in previous years would easily have been enough to see him being the first round leader. Other features from Saturday saw Leeds United fanatic Eddie Budden (19) shooting an exceptional 44 points closely followed by local boy John Whelan (15) and the resurgent Tony Shalloe (14) both with 42 points. Sunday saw yet another overcast day but thankfully the rain held off. The big questions were could Deaglan produce a steady round which would surely be good enough to see him hold on to be the winner or could Noel produce another 40 plus which he is well capable of. It was hard to see the winner being anyone else. Deaglan got off to a fine start and Noel just never seemed to get into his usual groove. Deaglan went on to card 39 points despite 2 blanks at Rothwell's to be a fine and popular winner with a club record 91 points being 11 points clear of dark horse runner-up, the aforementioned easy swinging John O'Gorman (13) with 80 points. The gross winner was last years captain Shaun Power (6) with 61 points. In third place was Maurice Cahillane (10) edging John Whelan (15) into fourth place due to a superior back 18 holes. John in turn edging Noel Landers (14) into fifth place also due to a superior last 18 holes. The category winners were Murray Porteous (10) with 78 points, Tony Shalloe (14) with 78 points, Declan Glavin (17) with 75 points and club registrar Stephen Hales (18) with 76 points. Past President was Sean Moynihan (23) with 74 points. Best qualifier the aforementioned Eddie Budden (19) with 44 points. The Veteran was local favourite Dan Howard (19) and the Guest Prize went to Dungarvan's president Tom Coffey (17). So well done to Deaglan on his fantastic achievement and all the competitors who took part to make it a very successful weekend for Lismore Golf Club. Best Sunday was won by the easy going Ger Mulcahy (13) with 40 points.

Environment Today

Bonfires as a method of disposing of waste date back to medieval times when fires were used as a means of disposing of animal bones, hence the term bonfire. It is estimated that approximately 16,200 tonnes of household waste is burned annually across the country. Many people who burn their rubbish think that they are doing their bit for the environment by looking after their own waste. The fact of the matter is that bonfires cause air pollution, smoke and fumes and are the source of frequent complaints from disgruntled neighbours to Waterford County Council. Although the material in bonfires nowadays may not be as grisly as the bonfires of yore, they do still cause air pollution and annoy your neighbours by: ruining their washing, disturbing the enjoyment of their gardens and preventing them from opening their windows. Bonfires are controlled by the Air Pollution Act of 1987, under which it is illegal to cause a nuisance. This includes smoke, dust, aerosols and odours emitted in such a quantity 'as to be liable to be injurious to public health, or have a deleterious effect on flora and fauna or damage property or impair / interfere with amenities or the environment'.

Even if your bonfire isn't a cause of annoyance to your neighbours, they do cause air pollution. This is because the types of waste burned such as plastics; rubber; treated timber and timber products, such as formica, chipboard and plywood create an unpleasant odour when burned but also produce a range of toxic fumes. In high concentrations these poisonous compounds can have damaging health effects but if exposure to bonfire smoke is short lived, serious harm is unlikely.

Research by the USEPA has shown that burning of waste in uncontrolled conditions, such as bonfires, is a significant source of dioxins. Dioxins are chemical compounds containing chlorine that are produced as a by-product of combustion processes that reach temperatures of 250-500°C in the presence of a halogen such as chlorine. They have been found to be toxic and adverse to human health, furthermore, once released they are persistent in the environment.

Dioxins have received much attention in relation to arguments for and against the installation of incineration plants in Ireland. But have you ever thought that your own bonfire could produce more dioxins than you are ever likely to encounter due to a municipal incineration plant. Governments in Switzerland and Denmark are concerned about the contribution of uncontrolled burning of household waste to background dioxin levels and are taking action to control household burning of rubbish and to remove items such as plastic milk cartons and printed matter out of stoves and fireplaces.

There are other disposal options for materials that you might be tempted to put onto your garden bonfire. Most garden and kitchen waste can be recycled into a useful soil conditioner.

Composting units are available from Waterford County Council at a cost of £20. Phone 058-22000. For this you will get a kitchen caddy, or bucket with a lid, that you can use to store your kitchen scraps and all the information you need to get going. The Council's Anti-Litter Supervisors frequently organise collections of large items such as old furniture, mattresses, and white goods from the county's towns villages and rural areas. Some voluntary groups, charities and second hand shops may also take items you no longer need. Waste that is of no further use can be taken to your nearest landfill.

The Inter-Community Litter Challenge has finally come to an end after seven weeks of hard work on the part of all our communities and indeed the judges who have put a lot of time into the event. For those of you who aren't familiar with the challenge, the Inter-Community Litter Challenge is a league that is set up amongst the participating villages and towns. The communities compete against each other on a weekly basis and are given scores on the basis of how free their area is of litter. Great credit is due to all those involved who have not only improved their local environment but have also made us all more aware of the problem of litter and reminded us all that we have a part to play if we want to live in a litter-free community.

Unfortunately there can only be one winner in each section, but sincere thanks are due to all communities involved, you really have made a difference. However Congratulations are due to Lismore, the winner of the towns competition, and Ballyduff Upper, the winner of the villages competition. There will be a presentation of prizes at the County Environment Awards Evening, which will take place at the end of the year.

MASS ROCK

Where the three parishes of (1) Abbeyside, Ballinroad and Garranbane, (2) Kilrossanty and Fews, (3) Stradbally, Ballylaneen and Faha meet is a tranquil place marked by Cloch an Eidhinn. This will be the venue for a concelebrated Mass next Monday evening, August 20th at 7 p.m.

It is hoped that last year's large attendance will be repeated this year. One and all are welcome. The Mass is in thanksgiving for our escape from the recent foot and mouth disease.

Thanks to Pat Fennell and family for facilitating access and the plaque which was erected to mark the spot was railed off to protect it. This is much appreciated. The site will be signposted in the Ballyvoile area and parking will be available near the rock.

The following Monday will see Mass being held at Carraig an Aifrinn. Mass was celebrated here at a time when it was forbidden under penalty of death for the priest. This site has also been well preserved. All that is needed now is suitable weather conditions for a good attendance.

SYMPATHY

There was a great sense of shock in the village on the sudden death of Bernard (Benny) McCarthy of Rockville. Sincere sympathy is extended to his wife, Mary, daughter Helen, son Michael and the extended McCarthy family. By publication date the remains will have been removed to Holy Cross Church (Monday evening) followed by burial in Ballinameela on Tuesday morning. Large numbers of mourners are expected on both occasions.

The death has taken place in England of Bernard Moore, brother of Fr Terry Moore. Fr Moore, a Capuchin priest, is well known in Stradbally over the years because of his visits to the White family of Graigue. Bernard was buried in Warwickshire.

Sincere sympathy to the Moore and White families on their bereavement.

STRADBALLY TIDY TOWNS NOTES

The list of winners from the recent Tidy Towns raffle are as follows: 1st prize of £100, Ann Flanagan, The Kennels, Brenan Stradbally; 2nd prize £50, Kieran Fitzgerald, Ballyvooney; 3rd prize, Set of

The Committee would like to thank all who sponsored prizes and supported the raffle. The amount raised was almost £900.00 which will be ploughed back into the maintenance of the village.

Our annual church gate collection will take place at all Masses next weekend.

The Tidy Towns Committee was delighted to see a B.B.C. camera crew filming in the village last Sunday morning the 12th Aug. This could do wonders for our tourism promotion.

The Irish Heart Foundation and the Tidy Towns Committee are planning a walk on the Sli na Slainte route on a Sunday in September. We shall inform the notes when the details have been ironed out.

GULL ISLAND

Contact has been lost with the inhabitants and smoke was seen pouring from the government buildings in recent days. It is feared that the ethnic strife that has so marred the history of this small island, may have been reignited. The Irish Department of Foreign Affairs has advised tourists to postpone visits for the time being.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir,

Please would you allow me to use your newspaper to express my gratitude to all those who have supported St. Declan's Pre-School in Cappoquin. When I established the Pre-School I was helped in particular by the late Willie Gallagher and by Sister De Lourdes of the Convent of Mercy. I and the many children who have attended the school owe them both a great debt of gratitude.

I thank the very many parents who supported the school for the past twenty years and who entrusted me with starting their children on their educational path.

In September I will begin teaching in St. John's in Dungarvan but St. Declan's will continue under Marie Uniacke (Tel. 058 52930) and I wish her and all connected with the school continued success.

Yours faithfully,

Mrs. Virginia Dransfield

MASS ON THE COMERAGH MOUNTAINS

A record crowd attended the annual Mass celebrated each year at the Holy Year Cross overlooking Clonmel on August Bank Holiday Monday. Pilgrims who made the climb to the Cross enjoyed the summer weather. Chairman of the Holy Year Cross committee P. J. Powell was delighted with the fine turn out. Mr. Powell has been Chairman for the last forty one years, he has been unable to climb for the past two years for medical reasons. It was so satisfying to see so many young people there. Mass at summit was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Brian Power C.C. S.S. Peter & Paul's, Clonmel who described the annual Mass at the Cross as a "Beacon of Our Faith". The Cross on the Comeragh Mountains is truly a beacon as the committee recently overcame all the technical problems to install lighting. The provision to provide lighting has been a long standing ambition, but was delayed by a number of problems including the recent Foot and Mouth Crisis earlier in the year, as the committee were denied access to the mountain while the precautions were in place, but three weeks ago the committee finished the job and now the Cross is lit every night, said Mr. Powell. Clonmel Corporation is paying the cost of the electricity and that says Mr. Powell is a great source of satisfaction to the hard working committee to see their work for the past fifty one years of the pilgrimage is so much appreciated by the corporation and the people of Clonmel. Another local authority who came to the aid of this years climb, the torrential rain of last Thursday caused so much damage to the mountain side as deep gullies were cut deep on the path to the summit which could prove dangerous for the climbers. But Waterford County Council came to the rescue and their workmen levelled out the pathway to ensure the climbers safety. This climb up the Comeragh Mountain to Mass on the August Monday is an important event to the lives of so many Clonmel people for the past fifty one years, and this great tradition is set to continue.

RECENT DEATHS

LATE MR. DAVID HALLINAN

Profound and sincere feelings of regret were widely expressed at the news of the death of Mr. David (Davy) Hallinan, Croughclooney, Ballinamult, Co. Tipperary which sad event took place at Our Lady's Hospital, Cashel on Sunday 5th August.

Deceased was born 2nd October 1910, was a member of a well loved and respected family connected with the Blacksmith trade. Davy was a true gentleman in every sense of the word, a man who was highly respected not only by his family but by everybody for miles around. He was recognised and appreciated as a caring, extremely kind person who could always be relied upon to react swiftly and without fuss to any situation in which he was needed. In his early years he worked for many farmers around the district and later in life he took up the trade of Blacksmith and worked with his late brother Johnny who was the resident Blacksmith at the time. He had learned the skills of the trade from his late uncle Johnny Farrell at Knockatreelaun, Ballymacarbry.

When the era of electric welding came Davy was quick to pick up the trade and the skill in making and repairing gates, barrows and many other farm yard implements. He was one of the people that revived coursing in the district, each Sunday in the winter months he was to the fore beating for the hares. He was also one of the districts well known Gaels, himself and his good friend Billy Condon were for over twenty five years the first people to gain admission to Fraher Field, Dungarvan and they would occupy the seat on the steps at the Borreen side of the field. He was an outstanding handball player and in his youth played many a game. He was also a keen dance fan and attended many local dances in Doocey's, the Halfway and Mangon's, Newcastle, but his favourite pastime was the game of 45. He attended the game at Doocey's, Ballymacarbry on Friday nights and Newcastle on Thursday nights. At the game he was a skilled player and from the game he will be missed. He was a man with a great sense of fun and humour which made him delightful company. No cruel or harsh words ever came from his lips, and he never spoke harsh of anybody and his unexpected passing even of an advanced age has left the district the poorer.

Many tributes have been paid to him but perhaps the finest was paid to him on Monday evening when all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of mourners who were present when his remains after the rosary was recited by Rev. Fr. Paddy Hallinan, retired Foreign Missions and a former neighbour, were removed from Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel to the Parish Church of Saint Laurence, Fourmilewater where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Paddy Hallinan.

On Tuesday morning the feast of Saint Cajetan requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of his immortal soul. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Paddy Hallinan, assisted by Rev. Fr. Paddy Condon C.C., Fourmilewater/Newcastle. At the end of Mass P. J. Ryan, Chairman Waterford County GAA Board spoke on the Altar of the life of this fine gentleman and his association with all types of sport. After Mass as the Autumn rains come down one of its favourite sons was taken to his resting place in the plot with his late brother John who predeceased him by twenty years. Fr. Hallinan and Fr. Condon C.C. officiated at the graveside in the presence of another large concourse of mourners paying their final respects to a Christian friend whose memory they will long treasure.

To his brother Tommy and his sister Bridget and his many relatives we extend our sympathy.

LATE MRS. AGNES HALLY

It is with deep and sincere regret we pen the death of Mrs. Agnes Hally (nee Condon), Maughera, Ardfinnan which sad event occurred on Wednesday 1st August. Deceased was a member of a well loved and respected Newcastle family.

On Thursday evening her remains were removed to the Parish Church of the Holy Family, Ardfinnan where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Germiah Condon P.P., Ardfinnan/Ballybacon/Grange.

On Friday afternoon the feast of The Finding of Saint Stephen's Relics requiem Mass was celebrated for the repose of her gentle soul, the celebrant was Rev. Fr. Germiah Condon P.P. After Mass the funeral took place to Saint Finians Cemetery, Ardfinnan where she was laid to rest. To her family we extend our sympathy Go tugadh Dia solas na bhflaitheas da hanam.

LATE MRS. MADELINE HOGAN

It is with deep sadness and regret we pen the death of Mrs. Madeline Hogan, Toor, Kilsheelan which sad event occurred in the loving care of the nurses and staff of Saint Anthony's Nursing Home, Clonmel after a short period of illness. She was a lady who had a fully active and healthy life up to a few weeks prior to her death. She spent thirty years of her life in the employment of the Grubb family of Clogheen, a family she held in high esteem and where she made many lasting friends. She was always a kind, caring and loving person to all who knew her and she was a person who was always ready with the hand of help. She was a person of deep faith and practised her religion devoutly, it was one thing that took priority over everything else. A person who had a great love for animals throughout her life, her warm personality and welcoming home will be sadly missed by all.

Her remains were removed from Walshe's Funeral Home, Carrick-On-Suir following the recital of the rosary and prayers by Rev. Fr. Richard Geoghegan C.C., Carrick-On-Suir/Faugheen to the Parish Church of the Sacred Heart, Rathgormack where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Michael Curran P.P., Clonea Power/Rathgormack.

On Sunday, the feast of Saint Mary Magdalen the holy sacrifice of the Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of her gentle soul, the celebrant was Rev. Fr. Michael Curran P.P. assisted by Rev. Fr. Thomas Flynn P.P., Carrickbeg/Windgap and Rev. Brother Isodore OFM, Clonmel. After Mass she was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. Fr. Curran P.P. with the other clergy officiated at the graveside in the presence of another large concourse of mourners paying their final respects to a Christian friend whose memory they will long treasure.

To her many relatives we extend our sympathy.

LATE MR. JOHN POWER

Profound and sincere feelings of regret were widely expressed at the news of the death of Mr. John Power, Deerpark, Ballymacarbry which sad event took place after a long illness at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan on Thursday 9th August.

Deceased in his eighty fourth year was a member of a well loved and respected Ballymacarbry family, the "Powers of the Laurels". John was truly one of nature's gentleman possessed of a friendly, good humoured and generous disposition. His unassuming wit, rich fund of anecdote and remarkable facility in recalling and relating experiences of his earlier years held the fortunate listener enthralled and endeared him to all with whom he had contact.

He began his working life with many farmers in the district and then some fifty years ago he took up employment with the forestry in the Ballymacarbry district having previously worked with the forestry in Coolisheal, Kilsheelan, having to cycle to work there a round trip of over 30 miles a day for many years. Each year he would make the trip to the turf bog at Moneaha and cut the years turf. At the weekend he would visit the local for a few drinks and the chat, he was a man who was always welcome in whatever company he found himself. As a neighbour there was no one better always ready with the hand of help. If you had a bike to repair, a hook or a saw to sharpen he was only too happy to oblige. He was a person who had a great sense of fun and humour and on the accordion he played many tunes. He was also a lovely songster. In his younger days he played many hurling games with Fourmilewater and was always a great supporter of the club. He was a kind and loving husband and father, predeceased by his wife Bidy by some five years.

John's kindness was readily acknowledged by all who were privileged to have known him, his presence amongst us will be very much missed and his memory long cherished by a host of friends as was evidenced on Saturday evening when all walks of life were represented in the large concourse of mourners who were present when his remains after the rosary was recited were removed from the Kiely Funeral Home, Dungarvan to the Parish Church of Saint Laurence at Fourmilewater where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Patrick Condon C.C., Fourmilewater/Newcastle.

On Sunday the feast of Saint Clare (Abbess) the 11 am Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of his immortal soul, the celebrant was Rev. Fr. Patrick Condon C.C. After Mass as the rain threatened from the West one of the districts best loved was laid to rest in the family plot with his mother, brothers Maurice and Joe and his loving wife Bidy.

Fr. Condon C.C. officiated at the graveside in the presence of a large concourse of mourners paying their final respects to a Christian friend whose memory they will long cherish.

To his son and daughter, brother, sisters and his many relatives we extend our sympathy. Musical tributes were paid by Nora Walsh, Comeragh and Richie Halpin, Faha.

New Doctor For Cappoquin Health Centre

By Kevin Kirrane

Cappoquin finally looks set to get a new doctor for its health centre - well over a year after Dr. Pat Hill resigned from the post.

One doctor is already in the town, Dr. Ben Murphy and a locum GP has been standing in while the vacancy existed for the past 17 months.

The long running saga begun with the resignation of Dr. Pat Hill from his General Medical Services (GMS) post in Cappoquin in February 2000, with the vacancy being advertised by the South Eastern Health Board and a series of interviews held.

Only one doctor was successful at this stage and he informed the Health Board that he intended to take up the post. However, just a week before he was due to do so, this doctor notified the Board that he was no longer interested in the vacancy. As he was the only successful candidate at interview the vacancy had to be advertised once more.

Another series of interviews were held by the Health Board and the successful doctor was due to take up the post in January of this year. Again, shortly before this doctor was due to take up duty, he turned down the post.

For the third time the post was advertised in January of this year and interviews were held. Once again, the candidate who was successful told the Health Board that he would not take up the post. The doctor, however, had a change of heart, as in mid-July, he advised the Board that he would, indeed, be taking up the GMS post in Cappoquin which has been left vacant for almost two years.

The reason for the failure of the post to be filled up until this time, appears more to do with the perceived small practice available to doctors in the town compared to larger urban centres.

One difficulty, which is likely to remain even after the filling of the vacant post is the "after-hours" service provided by the doctors which has been brought to the attention of Cllr. Nora Flynn.

On Monday's and Tuesday's, Cllr. Flynn said that no real problem exists as a 1:3 rota is taken by doctors - where the three doctors based in Cappoquin and Lismore take turns to deal with out of hours patients.

The problem arises, during after hours on Wednesday's through to Friday's and again all day Saturday and Sunday.

Doctors then operate on a 1:6 rota with doctors in Conna, Co. Cork, Tallow and Ballyduff Upper added to those in Cappoquin/Lismore.

This results, in a few cases, in patients travelling from Ballinameela to as far away as Conna, to then be referred on to Ardkeen - which is an 80 mile round trip.

Cllr. Flynn said she was in no way criticising doctors and said "nobody can work all the hours God gave them especially not doctors who have such an important job"

Instead, she would like a central call-out system in place, which would operate with a driver, and would be beneficial to both doctors and patients. Alternatively, Cllr. Flynn said that the area where this 1:6 rota operates could be reduced in size and so allow patients to be closer to their doctors.

QUESTION

I have a disability and I am interested in doing a vocational training course with FAS. Will I keep my Disability Allowance while attending the course?

ANSWER

Up to July 2001 you would have retained your Disability Allowance while on the training course. However, from the 2nd July 2001 FAS are introducing new arrangements for people with disabilities in vocational training.

If you are getting Disability Allowance or Blind Person's Pension it will be suspended while you are on the course, but you will keep your secondary benefits such as medical card, travel pass etc. You will be paid a FAS training allowance of £85.50 or an amount equal to your social welfare payment, whichever is the greater. You will also receive a training bonus of £25.00 per week.

If you are unable to complete the course or do not have a job at the end of the course, your entitlement to your social welfare payment will be restored.

However, those in receipt of Disability Benefit or Invalidity Pension will retain their social welfare payment as well as their secondary benefits while on a training course. They will also receive the standard FAS training allowance of £85.50 but they will not be paid the £25 training bonus. Further information is available from your local FAS office or the Citizens Information Centre below.

This column has been compiled by Dungarvan Community Information Centre which provides a free and confidential service to the citizen at the Courthouse, Dungarvan. Open hours: Mon 11 am to 1 pm. Tuesday 11 am to 1 pm. Wednesday 7 pm to 9 pm. Friday 11 am to 1 pm. Tel. 058 44633.

POST LEAVING CERTIFICATE COURSES AT DUNGARVAN TECHNICAL COLLEGE

N.C.V.A Level II in Community and Health Services

In previous years, Dungarvan Technical College has successfully run both a Health Science (pre-nursing) and a Childcare course. However, from September 2001, the most important elements of both courses will be combined into a new course entitled Community and Health Services. This course will be run under the auspices of the National Council for Vocational Awards and will include modules such as:

- Anatomy and Physiology
- Introduction to Nursing
- Child Development
- Early Childhood Education
- Psychology
- Health, Hygiene and Safety

Another important element of the course is work experience, which will be organised on a continual basis throughout the year. As such, students will be accommodated in placements which are appropriate to their future career choices. In addition to normal classes, external speakers will visit students to cover a wide range of topics relevant to their coursework.

The Community and Health Services course is expected to have a wide appeal as it will be of benefit to students who wish to follow a career in Nursing, Childcare or Social Studies.

Nursing

Course co-ordinator Antoinette O'Brien points out that the course is suitable for those considering nursing as a career, particularly if they are interested in applying for a nursing course in the United Kingdom as the NCVA Level II award is recognised for entry into nursing programmes there. "Even for students with their hearts set on gaining a place in Ireland, the research skills and experience developed as a result of their coursework helps with their studies."

She points out that the course is particularly beneficial for those who have little experience in nursing and provides excellent preparation for those considering a career in this area.

She states: "Every September, we meet students who, while they have a genuine interest in nursing, don't really understand what the profession involves. By the end of the year they have grown in confidence and maturity. Many students who in the past have not initially considered nursing in the United Kingdom have applied for and been offered places there".

In the past, there has been a very high placement of students from the course nursing programmes in the U.K. This is of particular relevance to students this year as for the first time, application to nursing in Ireland will be through the C.A.O system. High demand for places will have a corresponding effect on points, placing the option out of reach for many students who would make ideal nurses. As nursing programmes in the United Kingdom accept the NCVA Level II qualification for entry, this course provides an alternative route to the career of their choice.

Childcare

However, the course is not only relevant to those interested in pursuing a career in nursing, as it also serves as a qualification in Childcare. Ms. O'Brien points out that: "while some modules might intimidate potential childcare students, the broader curriculum allows for a more rounded and successful student."

Those who have completed the course in the past have successfully gained employment in childcare facilities throughout the country.

Social Studies

Another major advantage of the course is that it can act as a stepping stone to further education at 3rd level. Through the Higher Education Links Scheme, students interested in pursuing courses in Social Studies in Institutes of Technology can access these programmes using their NCVA Level II qualification.

Mature Students

The course may also appeal to those mature students interested in returning to education. Ms. O'Brien adds that more and more mature students are returning to nursing. "For those with little experience, it is a great way of getting their feet wet, as it were, as they can brush up on their research skills and get back in the swing of academic work. Another bonus is that mature students (that is, anyone over 23 years of age) will still be interviewed for a nursing place in Ireland, and a course such as this prepares them for that".

As can be seen therefore, the course in Community and Health Services has a broad appeal. Interested applicants may obtain a prospectus and application form by phoning Dungarvan Technical College at 058 41184. Closing date for application forms is 31st August 2001. There are no tuition fees and students maybe eligible for maintenance grants.

MONEYMATTERS

Teaching Your Child To Budget

The spending habits of children are being watched by some of the world's largest corporations. Why is this so? Firstly, the children of today will be the consumers of tomorrow. Secondly, this group of the population has the largest amount of disposable income. As the economy continues its strong growth rate and incomes continue to rise, parents are giving their children more money to spend.

It is important that parents teach their children basic financial concepts when they are young. If this is not done these same children may fall victim to believing that money is an ever present item, even without forward planning.

So how do you teach your children the concepts of money management?

As soon as your child begins to understand the importance of money, explain the purpose of it, i.e. you need it for groceries, car, clothes, toys etc.

It may be a good idea to give your child money to give to the cashier at the checkout when out shopping. Ask the cashier to hand the change to your child. (If your child is old enough, have them count the change received).

Play money games with your children at home.

Teach them the purpose of writing a cheque and where the money comes from. Older children could also open their own Cashsave Account and be shown how to use it. Open a saving account at your local credit union. Bring your child with you when doing this and explain how the Credit union works.

Teach your child how to use credit cards responsibly. Many children believe that credit cards are a way to get "free" money and so must be helped to understand that the bill must be paid. Show them the receipts when your purchase something and when the Statement comes show them the corresponding amount on it. This will allow them to make the mental leap from buying the goods in the store and seeing the credit card bill at the end of the month.

Remember most importantly your child needs to know that money does not grow on trees.

The Money Advice & Budgeting Service is based at Civic Offices, Davitts Quay, Dungarvan (Tel. 058-44922) and provides a service throughout the West Waterford area. It is part of the national MABS Service and is free, confidential and independent. Visit our website at : www.mabs.ie

IN MEMORIAMS

BURKE — Eighth Anniversary — In loving memory of Gary Burke, late of 18, Silversprings and 15, Fitzgerald Terrace, Dungarvan, who departed this life on August 16, 1993.

Anniversary Mass at 11 a.m. on Sunday, August 19, in the Friary Church

With tears in my eyes I think of tomorrow,
Into my soul, dawn breaks as sorrow,
I wish you alive on this day of days,
But know this is impossible,
Due to God's ways.
Come to your grave, we each go to pray,
Unleashing all memories,
And trying to say,
That the ache in our being is alive, yet unseen,
As we wonder with a sparkle,
How life could have been.
You have made us appreciate,
The lives that we touch,
Taking for granted, now not so much,
By touch we are separated,
By hearts we are joined,
And though we can't see it,
To your love we're not blind.
That love is the link that keeps us together,
Rebuilding the chain in the storm of death's weather,
And knowing there is an eternal sunset,
Beyond the gate of life,
Where my Gary is now resting,
Free from mortal strife,
And memories are forever, beautiful and bright,
For time cannot extinguish the sunsets final light.
(All my love always Gary — Ann).

BURKE — Eighth Anniversary.
Like falling leaves the years go by,
But memories of you will never die,
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
But memories of you will outlast them all.
Will those who think of Gary today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Loving remembered by Maureen, Billy and all the Mulvihill family.)

BOWLER — First Anniversary — In loving memory of Duncan Bowler, Old Road, Tallow, who died on August 15, 2000. R.I.P.
August comes with sad regret,
The day, the month, I never forget,
Quietly today your memory is kept,
No need for words, I will never forget,
My thoughts go back as they always do,
I treasure the memories I have of you.
(Always remembered, never forgotten by your loving girlfriend Liz).

COSTIGAN — First Anniversary — In loving memory of a dear brother, Paddy Costigan, late of Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 16, 2000.
A loving spray of memories,
Tied up with all our love,
Memories we will treasure,
Of the one we dearly loved,
In the centre of God's garden,
There is someone special there,
That someone is our brother,
The best beyond compare.
(Always remembered by his sister Marguerita, Tom, nieces and nephews).

COSTIGAN — First Anniversary — In loving memory of a dear brother, Paddy Costigan, late of Cathal Brugha Place, Dungarvan, who died on August 16, 2000.
As down the road of memories,
We gently tread today,
Our loving thoughts are with you
As life goes on its way.
Time may heal the heartaches,
Like the smile that hides the tears,
But happy memories keep you close,
Despite the passing years.
(His brothers Eddie, Jimmy, Johnny, Mickey and Christy).

DALTON — Third Anniversary — In loving and cherished memory of a dear husband and father, James Dalton, late of Deerpark East, Lismore, who died on August 17, 1998.
We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you shall remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives,
Until we meet again.
So rest in peace dear loved one,
And thanks for all you've done,
We pray that God has given you,
The crown you've truly won.
(Sadly missed by his loving wife Teresa, sons James and Declan, daughters Ellen, Mary and Nora, sons-in-law, daughter-in-law and grandchildren.)

ELSTEAD — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Jean Elstead, late of Parklane Avenue, Abbeyside, Dungarvan, who died on August 15, 1995.
Anniversary Mass in St. Augustine's Church, Abbeyside on Wednesday, August 15, at 7 p.m.
Six years have passed now,
And still we wish and pray,
That we could have you back with us,
If only for one day.
Your passing was so sudden,
You were so far away,
We never got to say goodbye,
But we remember you each day.
So many things have happened, Jean,
Since you passed away,
Things you could have shared with us,
If God had let you stay.
You had a smile for everyone.
You had a heart of gold,
You left the sweetest memories, Jean,
That we will always hold.
To us you were so special,
So caring, kind and true,
You'll never be forgotten, Jean,
For we thought the world of you.
Will those who think of Jean today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered and loved by your heartbroken Mam, Dad, Bryan and Carol.)

ELSTEAD — Sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of Joan Elstead, late of Park lane, Abbeyside, who died on August 15, 1995. R.I.P. Masses offered.
Our hearts are full of memories,
We treasure them with care,
But the way you had to leave us,
Will always seem unfair,
We never knew that morning,
What sorrow the day would bring,
When a heart of gold stopped beating,
And we couldn't do a thing.
(Sadly missed by Granny Peg and family at home and away.)

ELSTEAD — Thirty-fourth Anniversary — In loving memory of John Elstead, late of Ballinacourty, Dungarvan, who died on August 14, 1967. R.I.P. Masses offered.
If you think of John today,
Spare a moment and say a prayer.
(Always remembered by Peg and family at home and away.)

HENLEY — Twentieth Anniversary — In sad and loving memory of Billy Henley, late of West Street, Tallow, who died on August 17, 1981. R.I.P. Also remembering his father, Liam, who died on March 2, 1998. R.I.P.
If memories bring us closer,
We are never far apart,
God has you in his keeping,
We have you in our hearts.
A date that's filled with sadness,
Returns to us today,
To mark the way you left us,
In such a sudden way.
No matter how our lives have changed,
No matter what we do,
There is a special place within our hearts,
That's forever kept for you.
(Always loved and never forgotten by your loving mother, sisters and brothers).

HOWELL — In loving memory of Abbie Howell of Barracree, Ballinamult, whose Fourteenth Anniversary occurs.
Gone but not forgotten,
Always in our thoughts and prayers,
Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Sadly missed by her loving family).

NEEDHAM — Twenty-seventh Anniversary — In fond memory of my father, Patrick Needham, late of 74, Murphy Place, Abbeyside, who died on August 13, 1974. R.I.P.

SCANLON — Seventh Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear nephew, Tom, late of "Coolhilla," Ballyhane, Cappoquin, who died on August 19, 1994. Rest in peace.

O'CALLAGHAN — Twenty-sixth Anniversary — In sad and loving memory of Dermot O'Callaghan, Carnglass, Knockanore, who died on August 16, 1975.
How do you mend a broken heart,
Where do I find a place to start,
A light went out the day you died,
And tears of grief that night I cried,
My tears still fall as time goes by,
But my love for you will never die,
So today I bring you flowers
As a token of my love,
For a son I'll always cherish,
Whom I hope to meet above,
I miss you more than ever,
Much more now than words can say,
Oh how I wish you weren't taken from me,
In such a tragic way.
(Always loved and never forgotten — Mam, brothers and sisters).

O'CALLAGHAN — Twenty-sixth Anniversary — In loving memory of my brother Dermot O'Callaghan, Carnglass, Knockanore, who died on August 16, 1975.
The day I had to leave you,
When my life on earth was through,
God picked me up and hugged me,
And said I welcome you.
It's good to have you back again,
You were missed while you were gone,
As for your friends and family,
They'll be here later on.
Never forget I'll be beside you,
Every day and week and year,
And when your sad I'm standing there,
To wipe away the tears,

Just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm always with you,
Every morning, noon and night.

TUTTY — Second Anniversary — In loving memory of my dear husband John Tutty, late of Kinafrehan, Dungarvan, who died on August 17, 1999.
As time goes by without you,
And days turn into years,
They hold a thousand memories,
And a million silent tears.
You showed us love and kindness,
You showed us how to care,
You bound us all together,
With a love few families share.
Someday we will meet again,
Where sorrow is unknown,
We will fold our arms around you,
And tell you we've come home.
May the God of love be with you, John,
And grant you eternal rest.

There never comes a moment,
That I don't think of you,
Or a day that passes,
That your face is not in view,
And when I'm sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
I seem to hear you whisper,
Cheer up and carry on.
You always said I'd miss you,
Now I know it's true,
Our whole world fell apart,
The day that we lost you.

He never thought when leaving home, He would never more return, That he in death so soon would sleep, And leave us here alone. A sudden call from God on high, You had no chance to say goodbye, Without farewell you fell asleep, But memories of you we will always keep. And those who loved you dearly, Are the ones who won't forget. No farewells were spoken, We did not say goodbye, You were gone before we knew it, And only God knows why. But we will always remember our whole life through, The last words we had with you. We never fail to pray for you, We never cease to care, We wish we could go home again, And find you waiting there. To the throne of Christ he will guide us, And with us he will stand, And that golden chain will be linked again, Locked by Christ's own hands. The wife and family of the late Jerry Crotty wish to thank most sincerely all those who sympathised with them in their recent sad bereavement; those who sent Mass cards, letters of sympathy, floral tributes and to those who travelled long distances and who called personally. Also to those who attended the obsequies. A special word of thanks to Canon O'Mahony, P.P., Fr. O'Riordan, C.C., Fr. Grant, C.C., Fr. Kelleher, P.P., Dr. O'Sullivan and staff, Dr. Brennock and Dr. Daly; Mr. Hegarty and team nurses in Surgical 1, W.R.H., hospice nurses and public health nurses; Tom Drohan, Funeral Director and all the kind neighbours and friends who helped in every way. Trusting this will be accepted by all. The holy sacrifice of the Mass will be offered for their intentions.

THANK YOU

The daughter and family of the late Bridget O'Neill wish to thank all who helped during our recent bereavement. Our gratitude to the doctors and staff of Waterford Regional Hospital, Orthopedic 1, Medical 2 and 3; Dr. Joseph O'Keefe, Tallow; Mrs. Johanna Murphy and staff of St. Carthage's Home and mortuary, Lismore. Thanks to Rev. Fr. Patrick Fitzgerald, P.P., Knockanore, Rev. Fr. Donal Leahy, P.P., Ballyduff; the five servers, Margaret Maher and the children's choir, with organist Catherine Baldwin. Thanks to the pall bearers, all who attended the rosary on Friday evening, the removal to Sacred Heart Church, Knockanore and the Mass and burial on Sunday; Mr. Joe Geary and son for taking care of the grave; Mrs. Callahan who decorated the altar and Mr. and Mrs. Cody, proprietors of the "Shamrock Lounge," Knockanore and their helpers for the wonderful meal they prepared and served after the funeral. Last but not least, Mrs. Berry Walsh and her son Aidan, Undertakers, Cappoquin. We commend them for their professionalism combined with compassion and understanding.

Perhaps you sent a loving card, Or sat quietly in a chair, Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, If so we saw it there. Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, As any friend could say, Perhaps you were not there at all, Just thought of us that day, Whatever you did to console our hearts, We thank you, so very much, whatever the part.

KING — Birthday Remembrance — In loving memory of my dear father and grandfather, James King, Ashtown, Kilmacthomas, whose birthday occurs at this time, August 13. The angels sang Amazing Grace, The Lord came down and touched your face, Then he whispered soft and low, Come with me James, it's time to go. I did not see you close your eyes, Perhaps it's just as well, For I never could have said goodbye, To a father I loved so well. When I am sad and lonely, And things are going wrong, I seem to hear you whisper, Cheer up and carry on, And when I see your photo, You seem to smile and say, Don't cry, I'm only sleeping, We'll meet again some day. (Sadly missed by your loving daughter Mary and grandchildren Catherine and Jackie. Happy Birthday Dad X X X).

BARRY — Birthday Remembrance of Tom Barry, late of Bewley, Cappoquin, on 17th August. A bouquet of beautiful memories. Sprayed with a million tears, Wishing God could have spared you, If just for a few more years, It does not take a special day, For me to think of you, Each Mass I hear, each prayer I say, Is offered up for you. (Always remembered by your loving wife Phil and Colin).

BARRY — Birthday Remembrance of Tom Barry, late of Bewley, Cappoquin, on 17th August. (Sadly missed by your loving daughter Pauline, Brendan, Lyndsey, Donna and Owen).

Promise publication and favour will be granted. Never known to fail. With grateful thanks. — M.A.P.

DUNGARVAN CREDIT UNION CYCLING CLUB NOTES

Action from the Summer Series - Maurice Hartery leads the chasing bunch into Millstreet village followed by Justin Coonan and Ger Wyley. (Photo; Rory Wyley)

WEDNESDAY EVENING - LEISURE SPIN

This Leisure spin will depart John Foley's each Wednesday evening at 6.30 pm. This spin which is strictly a leisure spin will take roughly an hour and a half or so. It has been noticed over the last couple of weeks that a certain few individuals have been trying to up the pace.

In future these spins will be kept at a comfortable pace for everyone. It's interesting to note that the few culprits who like to push the pace were nowhere to be seen during the summer series time trials.

WYLEY MIXES IT WITH THE BIG HITERS

Rory Wyley's good form continues throughout the summer with a good showing in all the top UK races he has ridden this summer. Rory recently put in a fine performance in the pro-am 'Tour of the Cotswolds'. This is a UCI ranking event (IS) and with points up for grabs attracts a very strong field of all the elite UK riders along with top amateurs and division two professional teams like the French St. Quentin Oktos squad. Rory was involved in all the breaks and was unlucky in the end to finish just outside the first twenty. A week later Rory put in a similarly strong performance in the Havant GP in Hampshire. Although there were no UCI points here it was still a 'premier calender' event. Rory riding with the 5 deals.

Com finished 25th overall. This again was a fine result considering the quality of the field and the large continental contingent in the race. So well done Rory from everyone here at Dungarvan Credit Union Cycling Club.

GRAN CANARIA

At this stage we just want to get an idea of how many people would be interested in travelling to the Canaries next February for a week. We would hope to go back to the same place. Ask anyone who was on the trip last year and they will all recommend it.

So if you are interested, give Tony a call on 43689 before Wednesday 15th August. As soon as we have an idea of the number interested in going we can provisional-ly book it.

Deise Archery Club Notes

IRISH TRADITIONAL FIELD ARCHERY SOCIETY'S ANNUAL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The August bank holiday weekend saw the Deise Archery Club make its first appearance at the Irish Traditional Field Archery Society National Championships.

This took place in Glannagh, Co. Longford, and was hosted with great professionalism and goodwill by the Warriors of Queen Maeve traditional field archery club.

Five contestants represented the Deise Archery Club; Michael Power (Gents Hunting Tackle) Kevin Power (Gents Longbow) Geraldine Swayne-Power (Ladies Hunting Tackle) Jeddy Walsh (Gents Flatbow) John O' Rourke (Gents Flatbow).

The weekend started on Friday 3rd August when Ciaran Mullooly and a cameraman from RTE came to the 'Queen Maeve' club in Co. Longford to film a sequence about the sport of traditional field archery. Pip Bickerstaffe and Richard Whittern gave very good accounts of the sport to Ciaran and they, with other club members, did some good acting shooting at some of the targets; rumour has it that we have a good chance of an "Oscar" next year! There is no news yet as to when it will be televised.

The championships proper started the following day, Saturday, with the excellent number of archers who came from Holland and the "Charnwood Archers" club of Nottingham in the UK as well from around Ireland making a total of 40 in all. Before the shooting started there was, what is becoming a tradition, the reenactment of the "olde tyme" custom of tying ladies' favours on to the bows of the archers. In this, the bowmen line up with their bows "presented" while the ladies line up opposite showing their favours.

Each Bowman then accepts the favour of his chosen lady and the favour is tied on to the end of his bow. For the longbow-men the favours were coloured ribbons and for the recurve bow men --- knickers! All in good fun!

We started shooting in the woods at about 11 o'clock. The course was a very good and challenging one set by the very experienced people from Charnwood; some of the ranges were long and the target situations tricky. We shot the first 16 targets in good weather and in woods, new to the club, that echoed to thuds as arrows hit the targets (or trees!) or not if they missed! When the first 16 targets were shot we returned to Glannagh for a much needed break and lunch.

In the afternoon the second 16 targets were shot in the "lower" woods. They were every bit as formidable as those were in the morning but the terrain was flatter and clearer of undergrowth. To counter these better points, the skies opened up and the rain teemed down but only for a short while, it cleared up and we continued to shoot in good weather again. When all were shot, we returned to the club at Glannagh tired but happy after a good day's shooting. Nothing was organised for Saturday evening so those of us who had homes to go to eventually drifted away saving ourselves for the exertions of Sunday.

Sunday dawned clear and bright, everyone assembling bright-eyed and bushy-tailed at Glannagh by 10:30 ready for the day's shooting. The day was much the same as Saturday with the welcomed exception that the rain held off all day until the evening when all was done.

The course was changed simply by altering the positions of the shooting-pegs thereby changing the unmarked distances and directions to the targets. So we, in groups of four, had another day's excellent shooting; whether we hit the target, its boss, a tree or missed altogether we enjoyed it which is the main reason for the event. We shot bear, deer, rabbit, rats, foxes, snakes (who said there are no snakes in Ireland!), wolf, magpies, etc., all without spilling a drop of animals' blood.

When the two rounds of 16 targets, with a break at Glannagh in between, were shot, we retired to Glannagh again to await the scores and the prize giving.

To the delight of the Deise Archery Club and its supporters, Kevin Power won the trophy for Gents Longbow Champion, and Michael Power won the Gents Hunting Tackle champion trophy. Considering that the Deise Archery Club has only recently been formed, it is a major achievement to have two national champions in the club already!

Longbow: Gents Kevin Power, 782pts.

Ladies Beryl Bickerstaffe, n/a (Charnwood Archers)

Juniors Eoghan Doherty, 656pts

Cubs Luke Butt, 532pts.

American Flatbow: Gents Sean Mulroy, 690pts.

Ladies Emily Roche, 344pts.

n/a = not available

Congratulations to all who won trophies, as the course was both challenging and exciting.

The overseas guest archers understood that not being members of ITFAS they were not eligible for an ITFAS trophy so instead they were each presented with a scroll with details of the event and a small Irish glass as a souvenir of their visit to Ireland and the championships.

With all the formalities out of the way the hooley began and the craic was GREAT! Parvez did his usual outstanding job serving up the barbecue ably assisted by Alan. The guitars, tin-whistle, bodhrans and singing, not to mention the Guinness and the wine flowed well into the night and everyone had one heck of a good time. By this time it was raining hard but no one cared; the shooting was done, we were under cover and were having too good a time to care about it! All the overseas guests, without exception, said that they were looking forward to coming back again and would like to see more of Ireland, as they had not been here before. They had enjoyed themselves so much.

The championships' great success is due to the hard work and help we received from many quarters. The main ones being: Jim and Toni for their hospitality for the use of their farm for the event and their unstinting efforts to make every-one welcome (their weekend started on Wednesday when the Charnwood Archers arrived!). To the Charnwood archers themselves who did a lot of strenuous work using their expertise to set the courses. To the ladies all who did so much to feed and water us all. To Tony Roddy Business systems whose loan of the photocopier has saved us a lot of time and effort in entry forms, notices, etc.

To Billy Cleary's father for his donation of a wonderfully hand-woven large wicker basket as a prize. To Pip Bickerstaffe who donated a hard-back version of his very good book "The Heritage of the Longbow" also as a prize. To Carol Soars and Roy Bickerstaffe who donated prizes of a bow bag and a bottle of wine. To the "Backstage Theatre", Longford, for its donation of tickets as prizes.

To the ITFAS committee, the WQM club committee and to every one else too numerous to mention, (they will know who they are), who did so much in their own way to contribute to the success of the occasion. Very Well done to you all and thank you so very much.

I.T.F.A.S. Championships 2002 — We would also like to thank the Warriors of Queen Maeve for all the help and support they have extended to us in setting up the Deise Archery Club.

It is hoped that the Deise Archery Club will host the national championships next year, when we will defend our titles, as well as show visiting archers the beautiful countryside of West Waterford.

Anyone interested in the Deise Archery Club should contact: Kevin Power (058) 68184 or John O'Rourke (024) 96942.

Warriors of Queen Maeve (Co Longford): Bob (044) 42508 Shay & Emily (044) 61071 or Jim & Toni (043) 71230.

CHICAGO TRIATHLON

Two members of Clonea Hotel Leisure Centre are to compete in the Chicago Triathlon 2001 for Our Lady's Hospital in Crumlin, Dublin. Later this month

John Flynn and Mel Shanley will be part of a 50 strong squad from all parts of the Country who together will raise approximately £150,000 for a new cystic fibrosis unit in Crumlin. This is Mel's second year representing Clonea Strand Leisure Centre but has been joined this year by lifelong friend John Flynn who both admit that without the excellent facilities available at Clonea this task would be difficult to prepare for. The centre boasts one of the best equipped gyms in the South East and the staff are always willing to set up a lane in the pool where John and Mel sometimes have to swim anything up to 100 lengths at a time during their training schedule. The unending list of sponsors who never fail will get a special mention when the lads return from Chicago.

Already Mel and John are preparing next years campaign and will have possibly five participants from Clonea Leisure Centre next year. Remember it's just a 1500m swim, 40km bike ride, 10km run. Start getting ready for next year as all shapes and sizes compete in triathlons.

CUNNIGAR PITCH & PUTT CLUB NOTES

John Carroll, winner of the Munster Matchplay Final held in the Cunnigar recently, with Derry McCarthy, Deerpark (runner-up and Munster Council representative).

LOTTO

Numbers drawn were 4-9-11-18. There was no winner with the following winning £20 each. D. Hodnett, D. O'Connor and Philip Duggan. Next week's jackpot £1,800.

Windy conditions prevailed for the Paddy Foley's Scratch Cup last Sunday morning but in spite of this many fine scores were still hit. A total of eleven players made the play off with the majority of these staying in the same positions that they went out in. Man of the moment Mark McCarthy was the eventual winner with a fine score of 12 under for the three rounds. Philly Regan finished second on 11. Mike Daly was third with 10 and Jason Hackett won the Inter with 9 under. Well done to all and many thanks to Billy and Mary Foley for their continued sponsorship.

Tonight, Wednesday sees the Darrer's Stores Fourball and Sunday next the 19th we have the Mai Power sponsored Cup and all names are to be in the Clubhouse by 2 pm on Saturday when the draw will take place. Tee off Sunday 9.45 am to 10.30 am. The following Wednesday then we have the Spratt family sponsored 36 Hole Single event with tee off between 6.00 pm to 6.30 pm. So there is plenty left to play for and the next big event will be on Sunday the 26th when we will have the Open Scratch Cup. We will have more about this next week.

A number of the Juvenile's travelled to Tralee at the weekend to take part in the Munster Stroke play competition and also to represent their County in the Inter County finals in Deerpark, Killarney on Sunday. Those who travelled were the Buckley brothers, David and Michael, Colin Houlihan, David Brophy and Jason Hackett. Our thanks also to Chairman Leonard Duggan who looked after the travel arrangements. A big well done to Stephen Costello, a recent winner in our Open who won the Munster title. Stephen is a member of the Waterford Crystal Club.

Best wishes to Christy Carlton who is presently hospitalised. — Shout fore.

FESTIVAL SPIRIT TO CONTINUE

Following West Waterford's hugely successful trip to Araglen as part of the Araglen Carnival, they will continue with the festival theme, when in association with Ballysaggart Community Festival, will race on their track in Ballysaggart on this Saturday August 18th at 4 p.m. This is not a misprint, this will be the first time West Waterford Autograss will run an event on a Saturday evening with racing beginning at 4 p.m. Scrutiny is from 1.30 p.m. to 3.30 p.m. sharp. This is also the penultimate round of the championship and with everything so close at the top of each class, it could make or break time for many drivers.

NATIONALS 2001

Over the August weekend, drivers from the North and South of Ireland competed against drivers from England, Scotland and Wales in the 2001 National Autograss finals. Drivers from West Waterford included Class 3 Nicky Hannigan, Class 5 Paddy Nugent, Class 9 Patrick Sheehy and Class 10 Jimmy Fuller. Paddy Nugent's brother Richie who lives in England also raced at the event.

The Nationals is the single biggest event in all Short Track Motor Racing. The quest to become national champion starts way back in April when the qualifying begins. By August, the top 40 cars in each class will line up to do battle over two days of racing.

With the 10 classes competing - this means 400 drivers competing and after some 200 races plus reruns, the champion is crowned.

Our drivers overall positions have greatly improved over the years but we still need that bit of luck to reach the top spot. Maybe our Juniors and Ladies will have better luck next month in the 2001 Ladies and Juniors Nationals.

ARAGLEN RESULTS

On Sunday July 29th West Waterford moved their racing to Araglen Community Field as part of the carnival programme. MODELIGO GAA CLUB

JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP MODELIGO 2-11, CLASHMORE 0-7

This game went ahead on Friday night last in Cappoquin and once again it took almost the entire first-half for us to steady and start to play with any bit of consistency. We did manage a good start with two unanswered points within the first ten minutes but after that we allowed Clashmore back into the game and for long periods of the first half, they dominated the play. Shane Denn pointed a close range free just before half-time to level the scores at the break at three points each. The second half however, was a different story and right from the throw-in, we got off to a great start with J. P. Ryan and Nick O'Donovan combining well to put us a point in front. From there, we seemed to step up a gear and really started to dominate the play. Half time substitute Tom Ormonde pounced on a loose ball around the area and despite the keeper's best efforts to save, Tom put the ball in the net to put us into a four point lead. Points from Nick O'Donovan, Shane Denn and J. P. Ryan followed before Clashmore replied but at this stage we were well on top. Despite the poor display in the first half, it has to be said that things greatly improved as the game went on. On the night, we had great performances from Paudie McCarthy and Richie Kiely in defence. Gavin Foley scored a brilliant point later on in the game, having done all the hard work to come up from right-half back. Walter,

Shane, J.P. and Johnny all played well around the centre of the field and of course Tom Ormonde gave a typical display when called on contributing a goal and a point. However, it has to be said that we will have to improve greatly if we are to progress in this championship. The team on the night was as follows - Eamonn Power, Richie Kiely, Paudie Denn, Josie Power, Gavin Foley, Johnny Byrne, Paudie McCarthy, Walter O'Grady, Shane Denn, Michael Power, J. P. Ryan, Shane Reddy, Brendan O'Connell, Nicholas O'Donovan, Ed. Lonergan, Tom Ormonde (for B. O'Connell), Jimmy Buckley (for Ed. Lonergan) Matthew Cashman (for N. Donovan) Tommy Kiely.

COACHING SCHEME NOTES

Coach John Heneghan makes a point at a very enjoyable camp in Clonea. DUNGARVAN GAA CLUB NOTES

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Last Sunday afternoon we travelled up to Cappoquin to play Ballysaggart in the Loser's Group of the Western Intermediate Hurling Championship. Having gone down heavily to Fourmilewater in our first round game, it would be interesting to see if we had made any improvement in our play in the intervening weeks. We had already defeated Ballysaggart in the League so expectations of victory were high without being too complacent. Having won the toss, we elected to play into a light breeze and got off to a great start as a Pat Veale point soon had us in front. Ballysaggart responded and soon after went in front, much to the delight of one Ballysaggart mentor who told our supporters that suggestions of a 5 point win for Dungarvan could be shoved up one particular part of his anatomy. And when they happened to score a goal to give them a 1-3 to 0-3 lead midway through the half, our supporters were beginning to agree with his viewpoint. At this stage, make no mistake about it, they were by far the hungrier team and played with greater heart. A further point increased their lead and changes needed to be made before this game would go beyond us. Too many of our attacks had to stem from our right half side of the field and whilst they often gained possession, they weren't getting the scores and certainly didn't warrant the constant bombardment from every puck out. Our midfield was in trouble and the repositioning of John Joe Ronayne in the full forward position was far beneficial to both him and the team, as a first time pull off the ground resulted in a goal that brought us unbelievably back into the game. A pointed free even brought us level. However, our constant fouling was to cost us again as three unanswered points from Ballysaggart gave them an interval lead of 1-7 to 1-4.

With ten minutes gone in the second half, both teams had added a point apiece but we still trailed by three. Then when things were looking bleak for us, we managed to put over some frees to eventually tie the match and unbelievably take the lead on a 1-9 to 1-8 scoreline. Our tails were up now and when Pat Veale goaled shortly afterwards, it gave us the breathing space we so badly needed. Three further points were added while our defence limited Ballysaggart to just one further point in the remaining minutes which gave us victory on a 2-12 to 1-9 scoreline.

We now progress to the second round where Ring will be our opponents and where we will have to up our performance considerably if we are to make any inroads in this grade.

Team: Paul Ahearn, Alan Harney, Conor Murphy, Bobby Lyons, Ciarán Curran, David Morrissey, Trevor Galvin, Graham Nagle, Derek Truman, Michael Power, John Joe Ronayne, Shane Hayes, Eoin Cunningham, Pat Veale, Jason Mahoney. Seamus Cunningham replaced Derek Truman who had to retire with a head injury midway through the second half.

MINOR FOOTBALL

Our minor footballers travelled to Leamybrien last Wednesday night to play Stradbally and they continued their championship campaign with a good win. They now progress to the semi-final stages where our opponents will be a team from the top of the other league section.

U-12 FOOTBALL

Our U-12 footballers are due to commence their championship campaign this Sunday morning when they play Ballinacourty. With holidays and things, our preparations have not been ideal but hopefully we can give a good account of ourselves.

FUN NIGHT

The Club embarks on a new venture this Wednesday evening when we hold a Fun Night at our grounds at Clogherane. Events will commence at 6.30 p.m. when Mass will be celebrated on what will be the Feast of The Assumption. At the conclusion of Mass, the games will begin in earnest with over forty events to be completed. All the usual paraphernalia will be on show including of course the Bouncy Castles. Music will be provided throughout the evening by none other than that eccentric milliner otherwise known as The Mad Hatter. Needless to say, a great night is assured for both young and the not so young so let's make sure of your presence as everyone will be most welcome. And let's hope the weather conditions will be favourable for us and the organisers who have both done trojan work over the past few weeks.

CONGRATULATIONS

As the Leaving Cert. results are released to-day, we hope the students get the results they require after their hard work and we wish them well as they pursue their careers.

ARDMORE G.A.A. CLUB NOTES

Under 14s win Clashmore Tournament

Our under 14 football team were gallant winners of The Pa Cunningham Tournament in Clashmore, at the weekend. Having rather easily disposed of an understrength Brickey team in the opening game, we faced the host club in the final. These two teams played a mighty game through the mist and indeed the game was finished under lights.

Trailing 2-2 to 0-3 at half time, our lads dug deep and dominated proceedings in the second half, but were still 3 points adrift with only two minutes remaining. Then team captain, Denis Flanagan won possession from a kick-out and weaved his way through for a super goal, to level proceedings. He was again under the resultant kickout and promptly popped it over the bar for the lead for the first time in the match. Outstanding mid-fielder, Brian Keane, won the next kickout and similarly deposited it over for another point, to seal a brilliant victory.

Our team was: Declan O'Reilly; James Flahavan (c); Robert Faherty, Alan O'Brien; James Flahavan (K); Paddy O'Donnell, David Hennessy; Brian Keane and Shane Power; Padraig Healy, Denis Flanagan, Chris Flanagan; Darragh Harty, Cormac Nugent and Edward Fitzgerald. Our subs all played: Sean O'Mahony, Anthony O'Mahony, Nioclás Lenane, Patrick Meehan, Tomás Galvin, David O'Brien.

Denis accepted the Cup on behalf of the team and thanked Clashmore for inviting us to participate in their tournament. Indeed well done to our hosts for a thoroughly enjoyable evening's sport and excellent organisation. Special mention should be made of the huge input to Clashmore juvenile affairs by young leaders such as, Declan Hickey, Brian Dunne and Padraig Connery.

Minors Bow out

Our minor football team bade farewell to this year's championship, when they lost 1-10 to 0-7, at Fraher Field, last Saturday evening, when after a huge effort we finally gave best to a better balanced Nire fifteen.

Having already lost, by the minimum margin, to Ballinacourty, it's on to other pastures for our minors. Playing with the breeze in the first half, we trailed 1-2 to 0-3 at the interval. Exchanges were pretty even in the opening half, but our opponents got an invaluable goal, and, in truth, we were chasing the game thereafter. The second half saw some positional switches, but the outcome was the same, we secured plenty possession but were unable to penetrate for the vital scores, whilst conceding too easily at the other end.

Deservedly graded in Division 1 this year, too many of these players do not realise that you cannot succeed at this level without effort and commitment. Nearly half of this team have attended only one training session, some none at all. So, while disappointing, especially for those who really cared, we got back what we put into it.

Kevin was sound in goal and Seamus played well in front of him. Philip, at centre back, really came into his own when moved to mid-field, and Maurice enhanced his reputation with a brilliant display, on the wing. Niall and Gary laboured long and hard in the middle. Billy, who accounted for all our scores, was best of our forwards and got most support from David, Stephen and Alan.

The team was: Kevin O'Mahony; Andy Walsh, Seamus Flavin, Derek Cronin; Maurice O'Connor, Philip Beausang, Walter Mansfield; Niall O'Brien and Gary North; Alan North, Anthony Troy, Stephen Conway; David Power, Billy Harty (c); Troy Egan. Subs: Cormac Morel (used), Brian Egan, Patrick Stilwell, Conor Hurley. Referee, P. Fitzgerald displayed a clear lack of knowledge of the game of football. This made life difficult for both teams.

The Advantage Rule

In fact many referees, throughout the country, interpretation of the advantage rule is ridiculous, so short is the time players are allowed to avail of the advantage. How often do we see the fouled player lose possession, kick the ball wide or indeed be blown for over-carrying, because of the foul. Advantage fouler. Many of these 'so-called advantages would have been scoreable frees, if given. If we cannot use common sense in applying the advantage rule, then get rid of it altogether. It is only frustrating everybody, players and coaches.

The rugby advantage rule ensures that fouling does not pay, ours often does the opposite. I have not seen the guidelines, so it may not be the fault of the individual referee, but surely the application of this merely requires common sense. The wonderful extra exposure that football is now receiving from the new All-Ireland format is once again highlighting referees in most controversial circumstances. It is time for everybody in the game to realise that no expense is being spared in the coaching and development of our games and managers etc.

The referee is now the poor relation. They must be given, at least, the same recognition and rewards and pandering as the players. Many matches are televised and local matches video-taped. Refs would benefit from match analysis of these tapes in the company of other referees and maybe the opposing coaches or captains or some such format.

Until some such format is introduced, our games will be at a disadvantage and so will our refs. Put them on the same level as the players and train them properly and look after them as we should. This will help the recruitment campaign.

Summer Camp Success

Following on the huge success of our football summer camp, our hurling camp last week kept up the high standard. With very few girls participating, numbers were more manageable and the quality of the coaching was again, excellent. What's more, we don't really appreciate what it means to all the youngsters to have our own star players teaching them. Parents were loud in their praise of the entire set up.

Senior Football

Our expected league match on Saturday evening failed to materialise. Some of our players are on holidays and many more will be going, over the next couple of months. In fairness, they all try to plan their holidays to avoid a clash with matches, but with no official two weeks closed, this is well nigh impossible. Some players, as do the majority of people, book and pay for their holidays early in the year. Two of our senior stars booked their holidays for early September, when they heard the semi-final was fixed for August 26th.

Now we hear that the semi-final will be Sept 8th.

Ladies

Hard luck to star full forward, Lisa Prendergast, who was injured in Saturday's Junior Munster Final defeat. She is now a doubtful starter for the Minor All Ireland semi-final, on Saturday.

THRILLING MINOR LADIES FOOTBALL FINAL IN PROSPECT

Waterford v Meath in Dr. Cullen Park, Carlow on Saturday at 2.30 pm

Waterford and Meath renew their under rivalry at Dr. Cullen Park, Carlow next Saturday afternoon in the All Ireland Minor Final a repeat of last years Senior Final which Waterford was in the dying moments of a thrilling game. On that occasion it took a great save by Aine Ryan and a goal in the 2nd minute of injury time by Mary O'Rourke to snatch a great victory.

Three years ago the majority of these players met in the U-14 All Ireland final also at Carlow and on that occasion Waterford turned around a 7 point interval deficit and Elaine Power scored a late point to clinch victory. Both sides have enjoyed their share of success, since several have graduated through the ranks to both senior and junior sides and this game promises to be a cliff hanger.

Meath came in as All Ireland U-16 champions of the last 2 years and have a well moulded side backed by Mary Sheridan, Jackie Shield, Grainne Nulty and Fiona Mahon. They will be entitled to start favourites, they sailed out of Leinster, before defeating Ulster champions Tyrone after extra time in the All Ireland Minor semi final 3 weeks ago. Under age football on the royal county is very strong. Like all Meath teams they will have that "never give up" attitude, they will fight for every ball and will play as a unit.

Waterford had 2 easy games against Clare and Tipperary, non events in fact before Kerry put it up to them in the Munster Final last month. In the end they had 2 points to spare in a thriller and they then went on to play Galway in the semi final in sweltering heat in Newmarket or Fergus. That game was on a knife edge for long periods before a great last 20 minutes sealed victory.

Waterford field 7 members of this years starting senior line up; Elaine Power, Fiona O'Reilly, Marie Hogan, Deirdre Breathnach, Linda Wall, Aoife Murphy, Mary O'Rourke. In addition Mary Hayes, Natalie O'Connor, Michelle Ryan, Lisa Prendergast, Marian Ryan, Ciara Prendergast and Ealga Hayes have all played in the Junior team whilst Cleana O'Keeffe also played senior against Cork. So they have plenty of competitive games behind them and this is bound to be a help.

Waterford do have some injury problems as Natalie O'Connor, Cleana O'Keeffe and particularly Lisa Prendergast have struggled a bit - recent weeks all ankle injuries. Hopefully they will have cleared up for the game. Niamh Briggs and Mary Foley have come on and did well and are capable of doing so again.

In summing up this is sure to be a cracking game. It may well come down to a bounce of the ball, a bit of luck or a touch of green. Waterford will be determined to preserve their great record in All Ireland Finals and playing at their full potential for 60 minutes should just about get there, but not before some anxious moments.

WATERFORD LADIES FOOTBALL NEWS JUNIOR LADIES LOSE OUT TO LIMERICK

On Saturday night last Waterford Juniors and Limerick met in the replay of the Munster Final. From the throw-in of the ball, this looked as if Limerick was the strongest side. Although Waterford fought this championship game to the best of their ability, Limerick took this title on the whistle - Waterford 1-07, Limerick 3-12. Well done to Johnny Kirwan and his selectors Bridget Kelly and Noel Flaherty and also to this great young Waterford team. As no doubt they can use this year's championship to gain experience for next year.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

At last Tuesday night's County Board Meeting, chairman Michael Ryan thanked everyone who was involved in the Mary Walsh Tournament. He especially thanked Jimmy O'Rourke for organising fixtures and Eleanor Hickey, Nell Dalton and Bernie Troy for organising refreshments. He also thanked Deckie Walsh whose lounge bar was used for the presentation of trophies and where music was provided for the night. Chairman said it was a great situation to see three games going on at once in the Na Deise grounds. He called it a festival of football. He went on to thank the referees Brian Wall, Liam O'Rourke, Brendan Gallagher and Sean Foley for taking charge of the competitions and hoped that other clubs might consider running further tournaments throughout the year like this one.

CONGRATULATIONS TO THE MINORS

Congratulations to our Minors who beat Galway in the semi-all Ireland final. The minors will now go on to play Meath on the 18th August at 2.30 p.m. in Dr. Cullen Park, Carlow. Please try and support the ladies there.

SENIOR LADIES

to Clare last Sunday week in Bruff in the Munster final. It is the first time the ladies failed at this level since 1993 but this is a new young Senior team and no doubt will learn from this experience. Special thanks to all the girls for their commitment to training during the year and to their mentors Michael Ryan and Bridget Grant.

UNDER-16 HURLING

Our U-16 hurlers qualified for the semi-final of the county wide Division One championship by virtue of a 1-16 to 1-4 victory over a gallant Ballyduff Upper team that battled bravely to the final whistle. Our lads showed a good appetite for the game but will need to improve between now and the semi-final as we will be at the deep end with the big guns. The only way to look forward and prepare for this very important game is to have full attendance from the panel at all training sessions and if we can get some of our key players to control their discipline on the field of play, we will be in with a 50/50 chance.

The full panel is D. Ryan, S. Power, J. Kindregan, M. Brown, S. Donnelly, J. Mullen, P. Lynch, P. Hurney, P. Phelan, M. Gorman, B. Scanton, S. Hanrahan (Capt.), T. Murray,

JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Old Parish Junior footballers qualified for the Western semi-final after a comprehensive victory over Ballinacourty on Saturday evening last in Fraher Field with a scoreline of 1.13 to 1.1. We got off to a perfect start when Michael O'Donnell pointed inside the first minute. Timmy Power followed with four good points before he had to retire injured. Michael O'Donnell had his second and further points from Pádraig Mahony left us with a half time lead of 7 pts to 1. When following a defensive mistake

Ballinacourty got an early goal memories of last year's defeat came flooding back. However points from Pádraig Mahony and Michael O'Donnell with his third steadied the ship and following a fine move Martin Curran soloed through for a superb goal.

After Aiden Power pulled off a fine save to prevent a 'Courty come back we added further points to leave the final scoreline 1-13 to 1-1. This was a good victory for us and while there is plenty of room for improvement we nevertheless played some good football and there is a platform to build on. While our defence played well Micky Joe Keating and Ray Terry deserve special mention. Tomas and Michael did well at midfield and gave plenty of good ball to the forwards. There was good movement and combination work in the forwards with Pádraig Mahony and Michael O'Donnell especially catching the eye.

Team; Aiden Power, Sean Wade, Ray Terry, M.J. Keating, J. Foley, Mike de Paor, Shay Harty, Tomas Mahony, Michael Dower, Ray Power, Pádraig Mahony, Martin Curran, Timmy Power, Dec French, Michael O'Donnell.

Our next game is in Junior Hurling versus Kilrossanty in Leamybrien on Friday 24th August at 7.00.

WEDDING BELLS

Congratulations to all those poor fellows who tied the knot over the last few weeks, 11 blame it all on Mossie Devine who started the trend when he got married to Catherine. Best wishes to Mossie and Cathy, Brian and Shauna, Sean and Maire Brid, and to Shay and Niamh. May all your troubles be small ones. I noticed a lot of fellows taking notes at Sean and Maire Brid's wedding so I'm expecting to hear some news soon!!

NEXT WEEKEND

There are several very important ties listed for decision over the coming weekend and the fact that among these are the county senior hurling semi-final involving Ballygunner versus Portlaw and the clash of Tallow and county champions, Mount Sion in the losers group final, indicates very clearly that our autumn programme is well under-way.

The western board have a very large programme of championship matches in all grades and in both codes and here the chief interest will lie in the intermediate matches. From now until October it will be a case of non-stop action for the surviving teams, but barring two many draws, etc. the board should get through its programme before the season comes to an end

Mount Sion v. Tallow At Fraher Field

This is the final of the losers group and it will bring into opposition, two clubs whose long remembered clashes thrilled the thousands at this same venue a couple of decades ago when Tallow, like Mount Sion were making the headlines.

But sadly, times have changed and Tallow no longer pose a serious threat to clubs of the calibre of Mount Sion (not that Mount Sion are in the same mould of the teams which represented them 20 odd years ago).

It is indeed very sad that Tallow now find themselves in the same boat as six or seven others who are merely there to make up the numbers. This analysis of their role in the senior hurling championship might easily sound offensive to their very dedicated players who are very proud to wear the club colours, but unfortunately it is nevertheless, a fact.

Today, Tallow have played 4 championship matches (Tallow 1-11, Roanmore 2-5; Tallow 1-8, Portlaw 1-12; Tallow 3-12; Stradbally 2-15; Tallow 4-10, Stradbally 2-15).

The above preview was written before Mount Sion played Roanmore on Sunday evening last and while the result there does not change my opinion about Mount Sion going to win, I would now see Tallow have a better chance as the county champions will have to field without Tony Browne who retired with hamstringing problems after scoring 8 points.

This could turn out to be a very interesting game and in a season of major shocks and surprises, who knows what may happen.

S.H.C. Ballygunner v Portlaw At Walsh Park

This is the first semi-final and while Portlaw are an improving side they are not up to Ballygunner's standards. They had victories over Shamrocks and Tallow by 3 points and 4 points respectively in the early rounds and looked more impressive than recent Portlaw teams have, but at no time did they look like potential champions.

Ballygunner are confidently expected to reach the county final and speaking to one of their officers recently, I found him oozing with confidence about their prospects of taking the title this time round.

They were not over impressive when beating either Stradbally or Passage, but they rarely show their best form in the early part of the season. They scored 1-16 in both the above matches.

Practically all their line-out for this semi-final tie are holders of county senior hurling championship medals. The majority of them will have played inter-county at senior or/and under 21 level, so on the matter of experience they will have the advantage over Portlaw. On the Ballygunner side will be Ray

Whitty, Alan Kirwan, Nial O'Donnell, Fergal Hartley, Stephen Frampton, Gerry Cullinane, Rory, Billy and Darragh Sullivan, Michael Mahony, Paul Flynn, Paul

Foley, Tony Carroll, Tony Cummins, etc. and having to face such an array of hurling talent will certainly prove to be a daunting task for Portlaw.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

COUNTY SELECTORS

Now that the dust is beginning to settle after all the furore over the appointment of Justin McCarthy, Colm Bonner and Seamie Hannon the focus will be on the appointment of a football manager in the next few weeks. Already, the people with their ears to the ground are hearing rumours (supposed to be well founded) of the appointment of a high profile outside football coach who will undertake the mammoth task of trying to transform the county panel of footballers into a team with worthwhile prospects of making progress.

Being a new man and most of all being an outsider, I have no doubt but that the many 'high profile' players who have not been putting their shoulders to the wheel, so to speak in recent years, will take a fresh look at things and make whatever effort that is needed to mount a serious challenge in the national league.

I must confess to having absolutely no hope of winning a Munster championship while the present provincial set-up continues. If we set our sights on trying to win our division of the league involving the lower 8 counties and if we give it our best shot, then progress is possible.

While we continue to lose and lose and lose, outside counties will begin to regard us as an inferior breed of footballers. What makes all this even worse is the feeling that they might be right.

On the hurling front, things will now begin to move on and Justin, Colm and Seamie will assess the quality of player performances in the concluding matches of the championship. The outgoing panel is now disbanded and over the several weeks ahead the recruitment will continue on a gradual basis to form the new panel. There are no guarantees of places.

I'm sure the selectors will be greatly disappointed to hear of the efforts to play the full leagues within the calendar year. Playing hurling in the month of February (as is proposed) when pitches are normally sodden and muddy and patrons in no mood to sit it out on cold stands and embankments, is just not on. Also the many counties with dual players will find that the non-stop action and switching from one code to the other over the ten weeks of the February to May schedule will put them under abnormal pressure.

October/November is an ideal time for getting the leagues off the ground as then the weather and conditions are way more suitable. Of course it might be a problem for counties with players on the Australian Rules panel. For us, with a new team of selectors, an October start would be a big help in assessing the quality of players before the pressures of the new year get going.

The minor hurling selection committee is already named and approved and it is expected that the other committees will be named at the county board meeting on September 10th.

It has been suggested to me that a different approach should be adopted for the appointment of selectors for junior football and intermediate hurling. Those two championships are no big deal and will very likely be dispensed with in time. In the present climate these championships are hardly worth the pressures they cause or the expense that they incur.

The approach which was suggested is that the county intermediate hurling champions with a third selector from the county junior champions, be given charge and management of the county intermediate team and a similar system to apply for junior football

Frank Troy R.I.P.

This well respected KilmacThomas and Faha man who was a player with Kilmac' in the days when St. Annes were strong in junior hurling was laid to rest in Ballylaneen churchyard last week. Frank was a most dedicated GAA. person and as well as being a very good hurler, he filled other roles in the club before moving out to Faha where he helped in a big way when the football club were doing well in the championship.

A friend of mine who told me of Frank's death and who attended his burial in Ballylaneen said that sadly, there was nothing at the graveside to indicate that he had done more than his share for the Association during his very long and dedicated service. He was the last survivor of the St. Anne team of the late thirties and forties. May he rest peacefully in heaven.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Nire Defeat Lismore In Lively Game

NIRE 1-14, LISMORE 1-6

This was a clash of the champions in a lively and reasonably entertaining losers group match played at Fraher Field on Friday evening last.

Nire are the reigning senior county champions and Lismore are the intermediate champions and very few outside or inside Lismore expected to see a shock result so the result was no surprise.

At an early stage it looked as if it would be a runaway match for the Nire who raced into at 0-5 to 0-0 lead after points by Connie Power (0-3), Shane Walsh and Ger Walsh.

Paul Quinn had Lismore's opening score in the 10th minute and 2 minutes later Bobby Power restored the favourites 5 points lead with a fine point from play. Further points by Michael Guiry (2), Shane Walsh and Bobby Power helped the Nire to an 0-10 to 0-2 halftime lead. Lismore's second point was kicked over from a free by Brendan Landers in the 15th minute.

SECOND HALF

Early points were exchanged by Dave Bennett and Connie Power and Shane Walsh and Sean Daly to leave it at 0-12 to 0-4 by the 42nd minute. At this stage, Lismore were winning a lot of the ball and seemed to have halted the Nire's progress. Brendan Landers kicked over a Lismore free and a minute later Sean Daly, proving to be a problem for the Nire for most of the game shot a goal in the 44th minute to shock the senior champions. Now Lismore were playing well (at least as well as the Nire) and only 4 points separated the teams. There were ripples of excitement in the stand and a ray of hope among the outnumbered Lismore faithful, but the dream of a sensation lasted for just 4 minutes until Bobby Power, receiving from namesake Connie kicked the ball between the legs of the unlucky Lismore keeper Keith Hornibrook.

At this particular phase of the match the score might have been a bit against the run of play. This was in the 48th minute and it put an end to the game as a contest.

Lismore scored one further point (Dave Bennett from a free) while the winners added scores from Connie and Bobby Power, to score a very deserved win in a most sporting game.

A pleasant feature of the game was the swiftness with which the ball was moved up and down the field by two very fit teams.

There was little in the Nire's display to make them favourites to retain the county title, but probably because of their perceived view of the quality of the opposition and their early supremacy, their overall performance may have lacked the urgency or the motivation that would be needed if one of the more fancied sides were involved.

Lismore will have enjoyed their three matches in their first senior championship. Intermediate county champions do not normally survive that long in their first senior championship. They can now concentrate on the senior hurling championship meeting with Mount Sion or Tal-low

The Nire will now concentrate on their meeting with Stradbally and this game will be one of the highlights of

Nire — M. Doocey, D. Ryan, T. Walsh, M. Byrne, T. Flynn, I. Walsh, J. Moore, M. Walsh, B. Wall, G. Walsh, S. Walsh, C. Power, A. Ryan, B. Power, M. Guiry. Subs. played: S. Cuddy, C. Ryan, P. Halpin.

Lismore — K. Hornibrook, M. O'Sullivan, Mark Sullivan, W. Cunningham, D. Bennett, B. P. Prendergast, D. Howard, P. Quinn, D. Shanahan, P. Prendergast, S. Daly, J. Heneghan, P. Heaney, B. Landers, S. Prendergast. Sub played: James O'Connor.

Referee: Tim Byrne, Erin's Own.

PRESIDENT ELECT

At least half a dozen names are in the ring and I understand that there may be one or two more. Sean McCague will step down at the following congress, by which time his successor will have served a 12 months 'apprenticeship.'

Among those who have declared themselves to be candidates are Albert Fallon, who was the runner up to McCague two years ago, P.J. McGrath, Mayo and retired chairman of the Connacht Council, Seamus Allridge, former All Ireland referee and present chairman of the Leinster Council. Sean Kelly, retired chairman of the Munster Council, Noel Walsh, a trustee and a former Munster chairman and who was a candidate last time round. Christy Cooney, who is the present Munster Council chairman is also reported to be very interested, but has not made any formal declaration

Next Weekend Western Board Programme

Another full programme of adult and minor championship games is scheduled for the coming weekend and if there are neither draws or postponements the results will see a considerable advancement of the entire championship programme in the division.

INTERMEDIATE GAMES

The feature game here will be the clash involving Ring and Ballyduff in the intermediate football.

Several weeks ago these clubs clashed in this championship with the Gaeltacht team winning by 3-6 to 0-12. A report of that game told us that Ballyduff were under-strength for the match and a rebound of a 'saved' penalty by Seamie McGrath gave Ring the score that divided the teams in the finish.

Ring found themselves battling unsuccessfully for survival in the losers group section of the senior football championship last year and here in the intermediate grade they have yet to fulfil the assessment of the other clubs, that the Gaeltacht club would be 'cut-above' the others in the grade this season.

Ballyduff, who went on after that game to defeat Shamrocks in the first round of the losers group and then defeat Brickeys in the final of that section by 2-8 to 1-6 in Cappoquin last Saturday, will be found to be in top beat for this re-meeting with Ring.

Rings 'class' may prove to be the deciding factor.

ABBEYSIDE V. CLASHMORE I.H.C.

This is listed as the curtain raiser at Fraher Field on Saturday evening. It is a losers group match between two teams who were well beaten in the first round.

Abbeyside, who are the reigning western champions and lost to Ballyduff East in the county final last year, were well beaten by St. Marys, and Clashmore, junior champions last year, went under to Lismore.

When losing to St. Marys, Abbeyside were without seven or eight of last year's team and while some of these players are now available, fullback John Phelan, Eoin

Hayes and one or two others will be absentees.

I still reckon that Abbeyside will come through because of their greater experience. This will be the first occasion on which these clubs have met in intermediate hurling.

I.H.C - COLLIGAN V. LISMORE AT FRAHER FIELD

This should prove to be an interesting clash between first round winners of this championship. In their initial games, Colligan scored a 6 points victory over Ring (1-14 to 1-6) and on the same weekend, Lismore put Clashmore into the losers group after a (2-10 to 1-8) victory. Lismore are the only senior hurling team with an intermediate team still engaged in the championship. Practically all of their intermediate team have won championships at underage level and a few have senior county medals.

So they will provide a strong challenge here against the Rockies.

Colligan, with veterans, Jimmy Beresford and John Dunford giving leadership, have a nice blend of youth and experience going for them and this could make the difference here. But I certainly would not count Lismore out.

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

A number of matches in the junior hurling championship will also take place over the weekend and the list will include, Abbeyside versus Colligan at Fraher Field on Friday evening and St. Marys v. Cappoquin at Colligan, also on Friday.

OTHER GAMES

In the 'B' junior hurling championships, Glen Rovers (Melleray) will play Kilrossanty in Melleray on Friday and Kilgobinet will play Geraldines in Bushy Park.

WEEKEND RESULTS

Happily for the board, there were results in all the championship games played over the weekend.

In intermediate hurling, Dungarvan showed splendid form in their game against Ballysaggart and had obviously benefited from their two matches against Fourmilewater. The Old Boro team can now be regarded as one of the sides strongly in contention. They play Ring on next Sunday week.

Ballyduff put paid to the

JFC - Modeligo 2-11, Clashmore 0-7

This was a pretty decisive victory for Modeligo and it will help to keep their hopes alive at least for a while longer.

Ballinameela 5-16, Shamrocks 0-0

After beating Kilgobinet in a thriller two weeks previously, Ballinameela were installed as favourites to win this junior football championship and no one expected Shamrocks second team to better them here. As the score indicated, the winners cruised to a very easy win.

Old Parish 1-13, Ballinacourty 1-1

Old Parish pushed some very nice football here and deservedly led from start to finish. At half-time they led by 0-7 to 0-1 and continued to dominate in the second half. Goals by David Ferncombe for Ballinacourty and Martin Curran for Old Parish brought some life to the game in the second half, but there was never any real threat to the winners.

Pat Walsh, Fourmilewater, refereed.

TWO UP, ONE DOWN

Brickey Rangers were out in three football championships over the weekend and finished 2 up and 1 down. At junior level they beat Kilrossanty in a lively game at Abbeyside and came off winners by 2-11 to 0-10. In junior 'B' football they had a goal to spare in their match with Ballinacourty at Abbeyside (score: 1-8 to 0-8).

Also in the 'B' Championship, Melleray had a decisive victory over Eire Og at Fraher Field when winning on a scoreline of 4-7 to 1-6.

The Nire had a 2-12 to 1-5 win against Alfane and Ballinwillin just survived in a tight game with neighbours, Ballysaggart. Final score: 21-7 to 1-6.

Junior Hurling: Fourmilewater 1-8, Colligan 0-10

Played last week, this was a well contested game played at the Touraneena venue. A lucky goal made the difference in favour of the Ballymac' team.

MINOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

The semi-finals are due to be played on Wednesday of next week Dungarvan and Ballinacourty will meet in the first semi-final at Fraher Field at 6.15 and this will be followed by the 'B' semi-final involving Brickeys and Clashmore.

At Bushy Park, Kilrossanty will meet An Gaeltacht.

Other Games In Croke Park?

An almighty controversy followed the vote on this issue at Congress last April. It failed by a single vote to get the required two-thirds majority.

Had it been passed it would have allowed Central Council to decide if other games such as rugby and soccer, etc. could be played in Croke Park.

It goes without saying that if it became policy for Croke Park, it would follow that the facility would be available in all other grounds throughout the country.

The controversial motion will again be on the Congress agenda next year but there will be a different style of voting in that in future all major issues and particularly in cases where a vote expected to be tight, there will be a ballot vote (secret).

In the lead up to the Congress we are sure to have enormous media speculation again and will have all the old arguments about tradition, foreign games, why cannot the other sports have their own venues, etc. etc.

What I see as a major factor is that it is all a one-way thing in that while rugby and soccer can be accommodated in GAA grounds, hurling and Gaelic football cannot be played in rugby or soccer grounds because of their smaller dimensions. I am only throwing in the ball, so to speak, at this juncture and all the arguing has yet to begin. I will be back on the subject before the end of this year.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

MOUNT SION WIN LOCAL DERBY

MOUNT SION 1-17, ROANMORE 0-14

This local derby game by neighbouring city rivals produced its share of thrills and excitement, even though the public perception of the outcome, had the champions Mount Sion in the winner's enclosure before a ball was pucked.

The standard was not wonderful, but then again, games are not about standards anymore and as long as the public see close contests with bits of drama and controversy, they will willingly part with their few bob to enjoy the game. Here the public paid in excess of £2,800.

At halftime just 2 points separated the teams and the crown must have rested lightly on the heads of the champions as they went to their dressing room to ponder on what was to come in the second half. Half-time: Mount Sion 1-7, Roanmore 0-8.

With only 8 anxious minutes remaining, the same 2 points lay between the sides and with the tempo reaching its zenith, the exchanges became hectic with both having all to play for.

But as in normally the case in such circumstances, the champions held out for a six points win and a margin that does less than justice to a very brave effort by outsiders Roanmore.

Sean Ryan was the goal scorer for Mount Sion, while Roanmore were unlucky for goals on two occasions. Noelle Crowley fumbled a semi-penalty and Laurence O'Neill missed a 'sitter' when time added on was being played.

Scorers: Mount Sion — T. Browne 0-8, S. Ryan 1-2, K. McGrath 0-2, J. O'Meara 0-2, E. Kelly 0-2, I. Power 0-1; Roanmore — N. Crowley 0-7, C. Fanning 0-4, D. Murphy 0-2, M. Mackey 0-1.

Mount Sion — P. Flynn, J. Clere, B. Flannery, K. O'Connor, A. Kirwan, R. McGrath, K. O'Neill, E. Kelly, P. Fanning, E. McGrath, K. McGrath, T. Browne, S. Ryan, J. O'Meara, I. Power. Subs played: P. Browne and S. Twomey.

Roanmore — P. Tobin, M. Wadding, D. Ryan, D. Cowman, C. Byrne, G. Quinlan, L. Ryan, C. Fanning, D. Murphy, M. Mackey, J. Caulfield, P. Murphy, P. O'Neill, N. Crowley, D. Byrne. Sub: T. Dunphy.

Referee: John M. Kelly, Shamrocks.

THE CHANGE TO EURO

Because of the January 1st date for the introduction of the new currency, all clubs will be required to hold their annual general meeting well in advance of the end of December as if club financial statements are not presented in the present currency, there can be major problems. All balance sheets and financial statements after January 1st will have to appear in Euro currency.

NEXT YEAR?

With a new President elect to be chosen at Congress in April, a new voting system to be introduced, a new hurling format coming on stream and the present football championship format in the second of 2 year experiment, it is going to be quite an interesting season on many fronts.

This will be tough job for Martin who has a great relationship with the players but he is not afraid to yield the axe when needed. Martin is also a level one coach. Best of luck for the season.

2 B JOINT MANAGERS

Liam Costin and Gary Morrissey will be managers of our 2B team. This will be a hard league but with the players that the lads have, they will do very well. Liam and Gary have been a long time with the club. This will be Liam's second time to manage. Gary is making his debut. Both of the lads will work very hard. They will be very fair with all the players.

Waterford Utd Notes

BLUES LOSE THRILLER

Waterford Utd 3 Finn Harps 4

Waterford Utd played league title favourites Finn Harps in the first match of the league on Friday night in the R.S.C. This turned out to be a very tough and enjoyable encounter between two very good footballing sides.

Honours in the first half were shared and the teams went in level at 2 each. The first five minutes of the first half were dominated by Finn Harps and they were rewarded by a goal from a well struck shot. United picked up their game and had some very good chances cleared by a strong Harps defence. Waterford drew level and from that moment on it was all attack and were very unlucky to concede a goal with everyone in attack.

This was a disappointing result for us but by no means disheartening. Everyone gave their all and we are sure to be there at the top at the end of a long season so let's see as much support as we can for all our home games and hopefully you can make some of the away games.

TRAINING

The first training session of the new season took place for the U-12's last Sunday morning at 11.00 a.m. Don Henley, Jim Ryan and Michael Power took the lads through their paces. The U-12's will play in the B division this season. This is the team that won the U-12 league last season so hopes are high for another title.

The U-13's and U-14's had another training session last Thursday night at 7.30 p.m. A big squad was in attendance. Some of these lads have certainly shot up in height during the Summer months. Marty Foley, Cyril Raheer and Ray Akehurst took charge of this session.

REGISTRATION FORMS

The managers of each team are at present distributing registration forms to the players. Can all players fill these out as soon as possible and return them with the appropriate fee. Remember it is £10 per player. £8 if there is more than one player per family.

GAMES

A group of very young players whose ages ranged from 7 to 11 years were brought to Cappoquin last Sunday.

Two games were organised against Railway Athletic. This would have been some of these young boys very first competitive games and great fun was had by all. Thanks to the Railway Athletic Club and to Tom Browne and Martin Reddy in particular for inviting us up.

Saturday next our U-11 and U-13 teams are due to travel to Annewstown to face Seaview. All players to be at St. Laurence's Hall for 6.30 p.m. departure.

Saturday next our U-11 and U-13 teams are due to travel to Annewstown to face Seaview. All players to be at St.

Laurence's Hall for 10.00 a.m. departure.

SNIPPETS

Did you know that only 13 people bothered to pay for a league game at Old Trafford in 1921. The match though was a second division game between Stockport County and Leicester City. Stockport's ground was closed down at the time because of crowd disturbances.

QPR were the first team in the U.K. to install an artificial surface at their ground. Luton, Preston, Oldham and Stirling Albion all followed their example but after a few seasons, they all changed back to the real thing, the main reason being that the F.A. imposed a ban on all artificial surfaces for F.A. Cup games.

2. Bohemians.
3. Martin Allen.

Dungarvan Youth Soccer Notes

Any player interested in playing Youth's Soccer for Dungarvan this coming season must attend training this Thursday 16th or contact managers Kevin Moore (058) 48925 or Kevin Hayes 086 8973168 to confirm your intent. We have a challenge match next Sunday at home, again contact either manager if you cannot attend. If a panel has not been assembled by Sunday next there will be no Youth Soccer in Dungarvan which would be a shame as at first we expected a strong panel, so come on Jads, where are ye!!

▼ Mark Ferncombe receives the Abbotside Cup from sponsor Ger Enright of Enrights Eurospar. The competition was organised by the local club during the Pattern weekend.

Dungarvan Utd. Schoolboys Notes

On Friday night last we held a disco in the Clubhouse in conjunction with the Player of the Year Awards and everyone who attended made it a fantastic night. Music was by David Duggan and by god did he get the place moving with some great tunes. Then the time to give out the awards so that honour went to the managers, Michael and Ben Wall gave the U-11 to Gavin Crotty, U-12 to Cory Wall, Edwin Egan presented the U-13 to Christy Ross Power, U-14 John Byrne along with those, for the first time ever the club presented an award to a schoolgirl and that went to Sinead Hehir. If a managers satisfaction can be measured in any form it would have shown on the happy faces of those players.

Our Summer Camp has been changed to the 20th - 24th. The cost will be £10 per child. They must bring a packed lunch and change of clothing in the event of bad weather. Apologies must be given for a change of dates.

Next Sunday we will play Clonroche of Wexford in Challenge Games U-16, U-18 and 2nd division.

Training has started again so if any players would like to join the existing panels. The times are U-11 Wed at 5 pm, U-12, 13 Monday at 5.30 pm, U-14 15 Thursday 5 pm, U-16 girls Tuesday 6 pm.

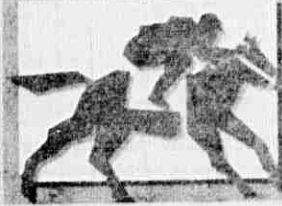

This Thursday our U-15 team will play Abbotside in the Crystal Field so it would be great if more people attended.

Finally we hold a benefit night on the 24th for the late Joe Wall who was a great servant to the club and we hope that people will attend in good numbers to show their appreciation.

HORSE RACING

BY MARK PHILLIPS

GALWAY HIGHLIGHTS

The weather was rather damp on the opening night but it did not prevent the Pat Hughes trained Gamekeeper 20/1 from posting back to back victories in the GPT Amateur handicap storming up the Ballybrit finishing stretch to defeat Wild Romance. Twenty four year old rider Aidan Fitzgerald from County Limerick had the mount on Gamekeeper and was riding his 35th winner in all.

A record attendance of over 22,000 people came to Galway for the second session. The featured McDonagh handicap a listed event with a prize fund of £100,000 produced a great Waterford victory as the Paul Roche trained Sheer Tenby 2/1 owned by the Halfway House Syndicate battled on tenaciously for 20 year old claiming jockey Colm O Donoghue. Sheer Tenby a £5,000 bargain purchase at the Newmarket horses in training sales last year was formerly trained in England by Robert Armstrong. Twenty seven year old trainer Paul Roche is only training for a short period of time having taken over the licence from his dad John Paul has fifteen horses under his care in his yard just outside Tramore.

Rathgormack County Waterford trainer Pat Flynn and his Waterford City born jockey Danny Grant combined to capture the seven furlong flat handicap with 12/1 shot (paid 20/1 on the tote) Boley Lass who proved a little over a length too fast for Rachels Delight.

The Galway Plate was the feature event on day three where in a smaller than normal field the Christy Roche trained 4/1 chance Grimes put his best foot forward staying on stoutly in the closing stages for Conor O Dwyer to defeat Quinze.

Curragh based trainer Dermot Weld enjoyed a great week and the classy Ansar was twice a winner for the master of Rosewell House during the week long Festival. Ansar with Barry Geraghty in the saddle captured a handicap hurdle on the opening night while despite taking a hike in the handicap the Aga Khan bred five year old was still good enough to capture the featured Guinness Handicap hurdle on the Thursday afternoon only this time Paul Carberry had the ride.

Dungarvan pilot Tom Queally was also on the mark on Thursday producing 16/1 outsider Leafoney with a well timed challenge to take the seven furlong Fillies handicap.

The Paul Roche bandwagon rolled on in the concluding bumper as the 20/1 outsider Fey Macha owned by Gerry Halley from Waterford beat a big field paying odds of 117/1 on the tote. To crown a great evening for Waterford Gerry Hally revealed that he bred the winner himself being a six year old mare by Phardante and West Lodge.

Winners with Waterford connections continued on Saturday with victories for Rua Lass 16/1 and Bridge Hotel 14/1. Eoin Griffin who trains a small string of horses in Slieverue on the outskirts of Waterford City has really done well with the nine year old mare Rua Lass and she recorded her biggest win to date capturing the £40,000 Dawn Milk extended handicap hurdle. Tramore trainer Paul Roche cannot stop sending out winners at present and he sent out Jim Treacy's Bridge Hotel to a clear cut victory in the concluding bumper. The winner here likes good ground and this well related son of Beau Sher and Lady Dorcet is certain to make his mark over hurdles. Robbie Returns to England.

Thirty four year old jockey Robbie Supple who quit race riding last year is to return to his old guvnor John Upson in the UK. Robbie has been working with Carlow trainer Jim Bolger for the past 12 months but he is looking forward to rejoining trainer Upson for whom he rode Nick The Brief to two Irish Hennessy Gold Cup victories at Leopardstown.

ROSS DOWN UNDER

County Wexford jockey John L Cullen was a late defection from the Irish Jump Jockeys team to travel to Australia and he was replaced by Barry Geraghty's younger brother Ross.

A DOUBLE FOR ROBERT.

It was good to see Waterford born National Hunt jockey Robert Widger back among the winners at Bangor On Dee last Friday. Without a winner for some time Robert rode two short priced winners for his boss Peter Hobbs in Mantusis 4/11 and Haydon James 11/4. To crown a great weekend for Robert he also partnered the well backed winner of the bumper at Worcester on Saturday with Pure Fun winning out at odds of 4/6.

Warwick Victory For Denis.

While the spotlight was very much focussed on Glorious Goodwood and Galway last week Dungarvan born trainer Denis Coakley was setting his sights slightly lower when going to Warwick last Wednesday but he did come away with a winner as 7/2 chance Goldie under Irish rider Willie Supple captured the seven furlong handicap.

PAT TURNS PRO

Dungarvan jockey Pat Crowley who is attached to the John Kiely stable has now turned professional. Pat who still claims the five pound allowance can go to scales at 9st 7lb.

Kieran Rates Galileo.

Top English based flat jockey Kieran Fallon who originally hails from County Clare paid the ultimate compliment to top three year old Galileo when he said that the son of Saddlers Wells was the best horse he had seen in his time and that there was even better to come.

Jamie in Top Form.

County Tipperary jockey Jamie Spencer who is attached to the Luca Cumanzi yard is in great form at present and he was seen to good effect at Goodwood on Saturday riding the 33/1 outsider Guinea Hunter to victory in the featured Stewards Cup.

PHOENIX STAKES

The Group one Phoenix Stakes is the showcase event on next Sunday's card at Leopardstown and trainer Aidan O'Brien is certain to make a bold bid to keep the first prize at home.

TRAMORE DAY 1

While the weather was overcast a good sized attendance came to the opening day of the Tramore Racing Festival.

The showcase race of the afternoon was the Mean Fiddler Chase and the Danny Howard trained Audity repeated last years victory with ridiculous ease, this 2/1 shot coming home eight lengths clear of Carrig House. Quintus was a major disappointment here showing little appetite for racing after the halfway mark.

County Kerry trainer Tom Cooper had a day to remember as he sent out two nice priced winners in the shape of Beaumont Belle 16/1 and Gallileo Strike 12/1.

The final race of the afternoon was marred by the death of Mayo Mick who was put down after slipping up right in front of the main grandstand.

PHOENIX STAKES FOR AIDAN

The Aidan O'Brien trained Johannesburg, the red hot 2/5 favourite encountered little difficulty in taking the £225,000 Phoenix Stake over six furlongs at Leopardstown last Sunday. This two year old son of Hennessy is now a one shot for next years English 2000 Guineas.

On the same card Waterford based owner John Brennan was on the mark in the £40,000 Ballyroan stakes as his 10/1 shot Saddlers Wings trained by Willie Mullins posted an exciting head win over Massilio.

Waterford Jockey Danny Grant combined with Rathgormack trainer Pat Flynn to capture the £17,500 Waterford Crystal handicap with 11/2 shot Boley Lass, while Cappagh, Dungarvan apprentice steered the 5/1 chance Tortue to victory in a one mile one furlong handicap. All in all a very good way for Waterford owned, trained and ridden horses.

KING SCORES IN FRANCE

The Aidan O'Brien trained King Charlemagne proved successful in the group one Prix Maurice de Gheest at Deauville last Sunday coming with a late run under jockey Jamie Spencer.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know that it currently costs £104 to register the racing names of a horse with the Irish Turf Club.

BIRTHDAY BOY WALTER

Former top flat jockey Walter Swinburn who is now retired from race riding and who these days spends some time as a racing analyst with Channel 4 celebrated his 39th birthday last week. Walter is no stranger to this country having been educated at Rockwell College, Cashel.

JOCKEY TURNED GREYHOUND TRAINER

Did you know that Johnny Seagrave who for years was one of the leading flat riders in the North of England is now a top class trainer of greyhounds in his native country.

LAILANI RESTS

English trained Ed Dunlop has decided to give his top class filly Lailani a rest after a hectic season. This daughter of Unfuwain is unbeaten in six outings this year having captured the Kildangan Irish Oaks and the recent Nassau Stakes at the Glorious Goodwood fixture. The intention is to leave her off until the Autumn where she will come back into training in time for a crack at the Prix Vermeille in France and the Breeders Cup in the USA.

PHELAN GOOD

The Phelan family from Carrick-On-Suir who are well known in the Shoe trade certainly had a week to remember last week. It all started in Kilcohan Park on Saturday night as William Phelan's greyhound Ballyneale Hill raced to victory in the opening contest at odds of 6/4. It was on to Cork races at Mallow on Bank Holiday Monday where the Pat Flynn trained and Tom Queally ridden Wacky Sport sporting the Phelan family colours captured the £15,000 Bluebird Handicap. It was back to Kilcohan Park on the Tuesday night where Ballyneale Jo completed a great mixed treble for connections making every yard of the running in the concluding 550 yard contest clocking a time of 30.52 in the process at the rewarding odds of 3/1.

CAUMSHINAUN IN FOAL

Caumshinaun whom trainer Dermot Weld recently trained to win two races for his county Waterford born mother Gita has now been retired from racing as she is in foal to Mujadil.

THREE GRADE ONE VICTORIES

Point Given the top rated middle distance colt in the USA recently notched his third grade one victory taking the Haskell Invitational Handicap. By all accounts Point Given was not over impressive and Galileo must now have an excellent chance of beating the American colt when the pair hopefully clash later on this year at the Breeders Cup meeting.

RETIREMENTS

Superstar Leo bred by Lester Piggot who was the top rated two year old filly in Europe last year has been retired from racing after struggling to find her best form this year. A decision has yet to be made as to what stallion she will visit.

Gr 1 winner Golden Snake has been retired to stand as a stallion at the national stud in Newmarket. The five year old son of Danzig suffered a career ending injury during the running of the King George V1 and Queen Elizabeth Diamond Stakes at Ascot. In all he won four group one events.

THIS WEEKS FIXTURES

Wednesday Tramore 2.15, Dundalk 5.15, Friday Cork 5.15, Saturday Tipperary 2.00 pm, Sunday The Curragh 2.30.

CRUEL BLOW FOR SEAMUS

Well known horse and greyhound owner Seamus Farrell from Thomastown in County Kilkenny will be hoping for better luck at the Tramore Racing festival as he had the misfortune to lose two of his horses at the Galway Festival. Land Of Time died after the handicap hurdle on Wednesday while on the same afternoon Private Peace was killed after the Galway Plate. Both horses were in the care of Piltown trainer Frances Crowley.

SUSPENSION CUT FOR MICKEY QUINN

Former soccer player turned horse trainer Mickey Quinn who was banned from training Racehorses after the Jockey Club found him guilty of neglecting horses in his care had his suspension reduced from two years to eighteen months after an appeals hearing last week. This means that he can now apply for a return of his licence from January 2003.

DECLAN ON THE MOVE

Top apprentice jockey Tom Queally had better watch out as his younger thirteen year old brother Declan rode his first ever winner on the Horse and Pony race circuit at Dunmanway in County Cork last week. Riding P. McCarthy's What A Man 3/1 in the fourth contest Declan adapted successful catch me if you can tactics to lead all the way for a four lengths victory over the 5/4 favourite The Whizz.

TURF WARS ON BBC 2

The Turf Wars series on National Hunt Racing in Ireland continues on BBC 2 at 7.30 pm on next Friday. In this weeks programme snow threatens the Leopardstown meeting, leaving County Kildare trainer Jessica Harrington hoping it clears.

IRISH JOCKS DOWN UNDER

The Irish Jump Jockeys annual visit to Australia did not get off to the best of starts as their riding gear and saddles were impounded at Adelaide Airport by local Customs officials. This incident was related to the dreaded outbreak of Foot and Mouth disease in Ireland and England earlier this year. The riding gear was sent for gamma radiation treatment but happily Australian firm Bonnetts supplied the team with new gear for their two week stint down under.

GREYHOUND NEWS

WATERFORD Tuesday August 7th 2001 Novice Greyhounds Steal The Show

A twelve race card was run off in record time and we just about managed to beat the heavy showers, which fell thereafter. Racing opened with four first round heats of the Up Wexford Unraced stake kindly sponsored by County Wexford based owner George Roche. In heat one the Richard O Gorman and Jack Gardner owned and Marie Byrne trained Rocinante (Mustang Jack-Minor Lady) was the best backed runner at 4/6 and despite drifting to the outside from his trap one starting point the favourite duly did the business with the minimum of fuss breezing in seven lengths clear of Nosy Tom in a pleasing 29.01. Tom Codd's Marwood Princess (Chart King -Cushie Terri) 2/1 captured heat two in 29.44. The "Princess" lay in third spot early on as Sheeraghs Rock and Jamaican Penny disputed the early running. The leaders came in contact at the entrance to the back straight however and as quick as lightning Marwood Princess darted into a winning lead beating Practical Boss by a length and a half.

After clocking 29.00 in an official trial Rebel Watcher was a hot order at 1/3 to capture heat three but after fluffing his start the favourite was in the wars throughout giving the impression that he would run better from an inside draw. This should not take away from the performance however of the Philip Heffernan owned 3/1 winner Sometime Now (FifthofNovember-Lisnak Barbie) this Desna Hattemore trained dog producing a delightful dash of early pace on his way to a clear cut six and a quarter lengths win over Sunny Storm in a speedy 28.82.

Only four runners went to traps for heat four and while Cushie Wizard led for three bends the Martin Stafford owned Famous Just (Thorgil Tex-Dactari) 5/2 raced into the lead over the final two bends to run out a four lengths winner over a green and wide running 1/3 favourite Toss Joy. Time 29.39.

It was back to graded fare after that and in a four runner sprint Liam Corcoran's home bred Jumbos Dotcom (Moaning Lad-Jumbos Jess) 3/1 came with a storming run on the wide outside to outpace the long time leader Merry Sheila by a short head in 16.80.

Visiting UK owner Dave Jolley was on hand to see his Jamaican Cole (Jamaican Hero-Liquorice Mist) 1/2 open his account for Portlaw trainer Jimmy Power in the sixth contest. The winner was hampered on the run up but as Dek The Best and Blackie Knows clashed off the second bend Jamaican Cole sprinted into the lead going on to triumph by two and a half lengths from Dunhill Donna in 29.78.

3/1 chance Tisiky Tom (He Knows-Honey Vixen) running for local owners Tomas and Luke Fitzgerald captured his second sprint contest in the seventh event holding at bay the late challenge of a wide running Dual Prospect who tasted defeat by the minimum distance in 16.80.

Racing room was at a premium on the run to the first bend in the eight event nevertheless Francis Power's 4/1 shot Hilldun Picture (Some Picture-Pavilion Girl) did well to head a tightly packed group around the opening two turns. Marfield Laurel ran on out of the pack but had no chance of catching Hilldun Picture who scored by four lengths in 29.44.

Mustang Miller was prominent early on in a 300 yard sprint but he enjoyed little luck in running and with Magic Spice and Amazon King drifting wide into the home stretch R and G McCarthy's Tramore Lad (Shanless Slippy- Franks Girl) 3/1 tracked cleverly up the inside rail to run out a length and a half winner over Amazon King in 16.46.

Vigorous Lady and Roys Rose held the early call in the tenth event but after losing ground together with a well backed Hilldun Sam at the first turn the Anna Hoban owned Stage Gerry (Deenside Spark-Stage Blondie) 2/1 cut through his field like a knife through butter and despite bumping with Vigorous Lady up the home stretch Stage Gerry powered home to score by two and three quarter lengths in 29.65.

The second bend was the scene of another incident in the eleventh contest as the pacesetter Acapulco Bay was clipped from behind. Young Thomas Foley's Active River (Doyougetit-Active Lynx) 6/4 took over in the lead at that point and making the best of his way home "Active" won out by a length from Sparta Percy in 29.69.

The William Phelan owned Ballyneale Jo (Larkhill Jo-Stitches Twister) 3/1 got back on the winning trail in the final race of the night leading all the way from trap four defeating a staying on Regal Hope by two lengths in 30.52.

WATERFORD Saturday August 11th 2001 Autumn Smashed Her Way to Victory

Well known Kilmacthomas based trainer Killian Power had double cause for celebration over the weekend. On Friday afternoon he married Rosemary Walsh and the newly weds were back in Kilcohan Park on Saturday night to see Autumn Smashed (Top Honcho-Fly Smasher) 4/5 power her way to victory in the final of the Maurice Jackson sponsored Waterford Heating and Plumbing 29.40 final. Flashing out of trap two Autumn Smashed led early on from Donore Picture before holding the late run of Bar The Journey by a length in an excellent 28.80.

Racing opened with a well deserved victory for the Lester Power owned Market Flight 3/1 this April 2000 son of Mustang Jack and Up The Oris packing too much early pace from trap four for Tawny Touch scoring by a length in 29.29.

Coming in as a reserve into trap one in the second contest over two bends Sean McLean's All In Three 6/4 a coursing bred son of In The Horrors and Lobnamna Rose drove up the inside of the pack on the run to the first turn to go clear for a three and three quarter lengths win over Jumbos Legend in a fast 16.48.

The High Faulkner owned Giglis Fame (Minnies Phantom-Tipps Quest) built up a healthy early advantage in a graded marathon and this 3/1 shot had plenty in reserve to withstand the late challenge of Active Ocean who tasted defeat by a length and a quarter in 41.48.

Raised in class for her assignment in the fourth Phil O'Neill's 6/1 chance Fahee Jenny (Deenside Equity-Fahee Lantern) proved equal to the task bombing away from trap two and although Marshals Jack was always close at hand Fahee Jenny saw the trip out to the limit to score by two lengths in a fast 29.05.

In a graded marathon Frank O'Hara's Volcano Violet (Lenson Lad-Wildfield Gold) 5/1 came through into the lead as the early leader Bud Springfield dropped away and the Bagnelstown runner stayed on well to beat a fast finishing Active Shannon by a neck in 42.01.

Races six and seven were semi finals of the Waterford

Crystal Open 550 yard stake The Charlie Nolan owned and Paul Hennessy trained Simply Supreme (Beaming Supreme-Aries Rose) 4/5 was drawn to perfection on the rails and easing his way past Larch Border and Marshals Hill the jolly who remained glued to the fence went well clear to record an impressive eight lengths win over Fly Quest in an eye catching clock of 29.75 which equalled the track record.

The second semi final produced a 30.14 winning return from the John Fitzgerald and Phil Gough owned Sparta Tom (Toms The Best-Tinrah Princess) this 6/4 shot doing the business nicely from a middle draw. Up front throughout "Sparta" saw off the third bend challenge of a slow starting 5/4 favourite Lemon Sash before running out a length winner over Little Jingle who came from a mile back to qualify for the £5,000 to the winner final.

The Boola Power Memorial Marathon event tempted some decent stayers into action. In the first semi final Frosty Rose led for a long way but running her final ever race having picked up an injury Frosty Rose tired rapidly in the closing stages as the always well placed Ebony Orchid (Frightful Flash-Elbony Rose) 7/1 held the late charge of Farranrory Maid by half a length in 41.22. The winner is owned by Frederick and Ann Duce. Having her first ever outing over six bends the Phil Gough and Pauline Corcoran owned Making Merry (Toms The Best-Tinrah Princess) 4/5 went a good deal faster in the second semi final creating a favourable impression in 40.86. Enniscorthy specialist Almost Deadly came away in front but ran very wide into the home stretch as Glenske Nijinski and Farranrory Bob joined issue up front. Out with the washing early on and finding very little racing room Making Merry delighted her supporters passing the entire field on the rails down the length of the back stretch. To her credit Almost Deadly baltied on bravely but Making Merry was gone beyond recall obliging by six and a quarter lengths.

In the final race of the session the Jimmy O'Connor and John Doheny owned Oceejaydee (Spiral Nikita-Lady Ballydaniel) 2/1 took over in the lead from Outlikealight at the first bend with this Paddy O'Connor trained dog making the long break for home in this 550 yard event beating a staying on Lead On Sal by a length in 39.62.

BATHS & FIRES

Baths & Fires Ltd has been set up primarily with the house buyer coupled with the DIY enthusiast in mind and, to this end, its 6,000 square feet of floor space, filled with bathrooms, hot tubs, whirlpools, showers and accessories with fireplaces will provide all the householders needs.

These appliances have already received rave reviews from the public for their quality, good taste and variety. An example of this variety are the fireplaces which come in a whole range of designer names and varieties (marble, stone, cast, slate, granite and timber).

In previous years, the new house buyer or those who wished to upgrade their homes, had to travel as far afield as Dublin to get the quality of stock offered by Baths & Fires Ltd and the public have responded to the opening of the business with great excitement.

Peter Jay, principal of Baths & Fires Ltd., said the great reviews his business has received has only compounded his original belief that "the South East craves for this kind of facility outside Dublin."

No more does the discerning buyer have to travel to the capital for all the best in baths and fireplaces or for designer names in these specific commodities.

Baths & Fires Ltd import direct from Spain, Iran, Belgium, China and the U.K. which as Peter Jay puts it, "underlines my statement that we are simply the biggest and the best in Munster."

The quality workmanship involved in these fireplaces and bathrooms and exquisite finishes are sure to appeal to all tastes in living room design.

As principal of the business, Peter Jay says "it is heart-warming to see the overall delight in peoples faces when viewing our showrooms". And, when you see them, it is not hard to wonder why. Set on wooden panelled flooring the showrooms give an effect of a gallery, with every piece that homeowners dream of laid out perfectly for the optimum effect and to give the homeowner the best view of what the bathrooms and fireplaces would look like in their own homes.
