Top Marks For Leaving Cert Students

KEVIN KIRRAANE

Pay claims, disruptions, strikes and counter-strikes were all but forgotten on Wednesday last, as students received their Leaving Cert grades, having endured more than most during the past school year.

The points race and the scramble for college courses were not the only things the class of 2000-01 had to contend with. A long running pay dispute between the ASTI and the Government meant school closures, pickets and even student walk-outs during the course of the year.

A small number of sixth year students from Ard Scoil na Deise found this out early in the year, and during one of the strike days attempted to enter the school and "demanded" to be supervised.

Demonstrations from students throughout the country increased in regularity as the school year drew to a close and ASTI strikes intensified.

This trend of student demonstrations was followed locally with St. Augustinian students staging a peaceful walk-out and continued their protest at the gates of the school for a number of hours.

As two-day school weeks came into force and the Government and the ASTI dug in for the long haul, resolution looked far away at times.

Fears even began to grow that the Leaving Certificate would not go ahead at all, but with public opinion increasingly swinging away from them, the striking teachers put their pay claims on the backburner.

On Wednesday last, feel-

Winner At RDS

"Colman," which is owned and bred by Noeline Broderick of Ballyconner, Dungarvan, and ridden by Rosemary Connors of Bellard Stradbally, took first prize in the Ladies Hunter Side-saddle Class at the Kerrygold Horse Show at the RDS last week.

The Into the West - Flor's Girl, 17.2h.h. chestnut gelding was also overall reserve champion in the side saddle class. To add to a wonderful week at the show for the Dungarvan exhibitor, the same horse was placed third in the 5 year old light-weight class when ridden by Phillip Scott of Sligo.

Colman has become a prolific prizewinner at shows over the last few years having captured the Gorey Show only three weeks ago. Keen interest was expressed in the RDS Champion by many foreign buyers.

West Waterford's Postal Network To Be Crippled By Strikes?

KEVIN KIRRAANE

Industrial action, which would ultimately involve West Waterford's postal network, looks on the cards, following an angry response by postmasters to government plans to change the face of the rural postal service as we know it.

An overhaul of loss making An Post has already been recommended to the Government. The recommendation states that the rural post offices should move away from a fixed cost retainer model to an agency basis, which, in effect, would allow private company's to run this service.

These recommendations would affect the 10 rural post offices in the immediate West Waterford area and could, in the long term, see the closure of one or more of these offices.

But it now appears that Postmasters will fight the decision tooth and nail in the coming months.

A measure of this feared action was seen first on Thursday last in Portlaoise where the country's 1,800 postmasters gathered. The protestors to the overhaul staged a peaceful protest and described their blockade of a postal depot in the town as a "taster of further action to come".

Industrial action would see the picketing of Dungarvan, Tallow, Lismore, Cappoquin and Kilmacthomas post offices as well as a number of smaller post offices around West Waterford. It would also lead to long delivery delays for businesses dependant on the postal service, in the coming year.

Meanwhile, it has been announced that An Posts postal network will lose an estimated £1 million per month and to offset these losses An Post has formulated new charges on stamps.

These price increases, if implemented, would see a 30 per cent rise for international mail and an estimated 17% across the board increases for stamps down from a rise of 60% put to the Government earlier in the year.

If some of these measures are not put in place to stem the haemorrhage, the postal services losses are expected to reach £79.2 million by 2005.

Helvick Lifeboat Launched

Helvick Head's Atlantic 75 lifeboat was launched at 12 noon on Tuesday last August 15th, to the assistance of locally owned fishing vessel, the "Golding". The owner and skipper of the 32ft vessel Ritchie Walsh had radioed for help when the vessel's gear box failed to engage, while fishing approx. 7 miles west of Helvick. The RNLI lifeboat crewed by Paidi Breathnach, John Condon and Willie Harty quickly reached the vessel and took it on tow. The whole operation was completed within two hours when the fishing boat was delivered to the safety of Helvick pier. Skipper Ritchie Walsh expressed his thanks to the lifeboat crew for their assistance.

THE WAY WE LIVE: HISTORY

THE MUSLIM EMPIRE

The Prophet Muhammad was a religious leader who lived in Arabia from AD 570 to 632. Muhammad taught people to worship Allah (God) and to live good lives.

His teaching led to the growth of a major world religion, called Islam ('obedience to God'). It is still followed by millions of people today. In AD 622 Muhammad was forced by enemies to leave his home city, Mecca.

He went to Medina, an Arabian market town, where he and his companions developed a new lifestyle, based on their faith. They became known as 'Muslims' — the people of Islam.

Muhammad returned to Mecca with an army in AD 630, and captured it. Soon, Muslim soldiers took control of all Arabia, spreading their faith wherever they went. By AD 750 they had conquered a vast empire, stretching from southern Spain to the borders of China.

A Great Muslim City

The Muslim lands were ruled by princes called caliphs, and governed by Muslim laws. At first the caliphs' capital was at Medina, then at Damascus (in Syria), but they soon moved it to Baghdad, a magnificent new city (now in Iraq).

Baghdad was founded by Caliph al-Mansur in AD 762. It was a circular city with a great mosque at the centre, and the caliph's palace nearby.

Within the city walls there were schools, hospitals, bath-houses, libraries, gardens, fountains, markets, shops, and an observatory for studying the stars.

In 1258, Baghdad was destroyed by invading Mongol armies.

Mecca

The city of Mecca, in Arabia, was an ancient holy site. After AD 630, when the Prophet Muhammad and his soldiers captured Mecca, it became the holiest place in the Muslim world and an important centre of pilgrimage.

At the heart of the city stood the Kaaba ('cube'), a building housing a holy relic known as the Black Stone. Muhammad taught that the Jewish Prophet Abraham had worshiped God there, long ago.

Today, Muslim people aim to make a pilgrimage to Mecca at least once in their lives.

GENGHIS KHAN

During the 13th century, the Muslim lands were conquered by fierce Mongol armies.

The Mongols were nomads, who lived in central Asia. In 1206, all the Mongol tribes joined together under the leadership of a soldier prince called Temujin, and set off to conquer new lands.

Temujin took the title 'Genghis Khan' (it means 'world ruler'). He united all the lands conquered by the Mongols into a mighty empire, made new laws and encouraged trade. When he died in 1227, he ruled all Asia, and half China, too.

CURVING DOMES

Muslim engineers discovered how to build high curving domes above square or rectangular prayer-halls — no one else had been able to do this properly before.

Back To School Allowances Will Again Fail To Meet Huge Costs For Parents

The failure of the Government to increase the Back to School Clothing and Footwear Allowance in the last twelve months will make the costs of returning children to school another financial burden that many parents in Co. Waterford cannot afford.

That's according to Cllr. Fiachra Ó Céilleachair, a member of Waterford County Council for the Dungarvan electoral area. He feels the Allowance - which is available to social welfare recipients and those on recognised training and employment schemes, remains completely ineffective in denting the huge costs of the return to school in September. Cllr. Ó Céilleachair feels the present rates of £63 for primary children and £78 for secondary pupils are totally out of line with the real clothing and footwear costs of the children concerned. Cllr. Ó Céilleachair points to extensive research the Labour Party has conducted in this area in recent years, which showed that uniform and footwear costs for a child starting secondary school ranges from £250 to £400. He said that the paltry £78 that the Department provides needs to be substantially increased.

"In addition, it is now a matter of urgency that the current income limits for the Back to School Clothing and Footwear Allowance be revised upwards to the same limits that exist for the Family Income Supplement. A great many low income families receive no assistance at all and the scheme as it currently operates is full of anomalies. Educational disadvantage remains a serious problem in this country and the burden of providing uniforms and footwear is a significant factor in the low participation rates of low income students in the education system. The Government must take the lead in this endeavour and make a real commitment to assisting parents with the costs of putting their children through school."

Dungarvan Looks Set To Secure Host Town Status

Kevin Kirrane

Dungarvan's bid to become a host town for the 2003 Special Olympics looks on course following the receipt of a letter from Fiona O'Loughlin, Host Town Manager, congratulating Dungarvan's Host Town Committee on the quality of its submission.

Mrs. O'Loughlin described the management of the 2003 Special Olympics as "delighted" to have received such an in depth and detailed submission.

The Host Town Manager is at present busy matching the towns with the participating countries and, she said, due to Dungarvan Host Town Committee's "comprehensive proposal" her job was made "a little bit easier".

This appears to be good news indeed for Dungarvan's bid for host town status and Chairman of the Committee, Michael O'Riordan said recently that he is quietly confident of Dungarvan securing a position as host town for the prestigious event.

WLR FM IS THE STRONGEST STATION IN THE SOUTH EAST

For the 10th successive year, WLR fm has emerged as the dominant radio station in the South East. In the latest Joint National Listenership Research (July 2000 to June 2001) WLR fm attracted 52% of adults each day, for the same period 2 FM attracted 30% of the audience while Radio 1 was down to 22% and Today fm recorded 18%.

Top performers for WLR fm were the breakfast duo - Timmy Ryan and Nicola Beresford. Billy McCarthy's hugely popular morning programme continues to attract audiences of 20,000 or more each morning while both Geoff Harris and John O'Shea's Country and Irish programme showed substantial increases.

Managing Director, Des Whelan said the station's most recent audience figures were very encouraging, "we're all delighted at WLR fm - the latest figures are really excellent in light of the very competitive radio environment and puts WLR fm amongst the best performing local radio stations in the country."

- 90ml olive oil
- 2 onions, peeled and chopped
- Orange rind, finely grated
- 100g ground almonds
- 1 litre of vegetable stock
- Salt and pepper

Add the peppers and stock, then cook the soup gently for 5 minutes.

Leave to cool, then blend until smooth. Season to taste.

To freeze, transfer the soup to a freezerproof container, leaving at least 1cm space at the rim.

To thaw, transfer to the fridge 24 hours before serving. Mix together the garlic, crème fraîche and seasoning.

Reheat the soup, then scatter with almonds and basil.

Hot Breakfast At Any Time Of Day

MAKE sure all the components of the all-day breakfast are ready to be served together on a hot plate, accompanied by freshly-made toast, a glass of fruit juice and a cup of tea or coffee.

New Services In The Pipeline For Rural West Waterford

By Kevin Kirrane

In recent months rural councillors have rallied Waterford County Council against the removal of public phones and other services, and have called for better public transport in rural West Waterford. Now, a Government report suggests that not only were they right to do so, but these calls may be the only cure for a declining way of life.

The report states that services are the only way ahead for rural communities at a time when larger urban centres are becoming an increasingly draw.

West Waterford is not the only area where people have moved away from a rural lifestyle into more affluent urban centres. But the result has been just as devastating economically and socially as the more publicised demise of rural communities in the West of Ireland.

Indeed, while the west of Ireland has staged something of a comeback due to European and Government aid, West Waterford has now slipped in terms of incomes below what were once called the "economic black-spots".

The result has been a decline in the rural population of the County which has hit smaller urban centres like Tallow, Lismore and Cappoquin while the population of Cities continue to spiral upwards.

In turn, it is believed, that due to the small work force available in these towns, especially in the younger age bracket, the IDA are finding it increasingly difficult to attract new businesses to West Waterford.

To stem this tide plans are already in place, which the Government hope, will turn around what appears to be a terminal slide. A new report suggests the way forward for rural communities is to put in place more cost effective services in place for rural communities.

This would include an increase in bus services - including the use of school buses to increase the number of trips, a one-stop shop run by the local community which would allow access to all Government services such as postal services, and thirdly improving services to the elderly and those with disabilities.

Bus services would be on the present public-private partnership basis, while the one-stop shop is likely to provide a public internet access point sometime in the future.

The advent of these new features, the Government plan, will improve the quality of life for those in rural areas and in so doing, attract people to stay.

Ballyduff Upper Tidy Towns Committee

Ballyduff Tidy Towns committee wish to thank everyone who supported us in our recent annual church gate collection. People were very generous which shows appreciation of the work we have been carrying out.

Currently Ballyduff is holding top place in the Waterford County inter-villages litter challenge. Final results will be known this week and we are excitedly waiting the outcome in the hope of making it two in a row.

Many people have remarked on the state of cleanliness in the village and we encourage everyone in the area to keep up the good work and maintain a village we can be proud of. We appreciate that there is a lot of construction going on in the area and encourage those involved to keep their work areas free of litter and waste.

PETER O'CONNOR

Peter O'Connor was born in Wicklow, around 1872, but spent most of his life in Waterford. He was a world athlete and commenced his athletic career in 1898. His first All-Ireland Championship competition was in 1899. He broke the world record for the long jump at this competition, and also broke records in the 200 yards race and the Hop, Skip and Jump (48 feet). In 1901 he set the world record in the long jump of 24 feet, 11.75 inches, in Dublin. This remained an international record for 25 years and an Irish record for 89 years. He was British long jump champion from 1901 to 1906. His best athletic years were between 1900 and 1904. He won the Gold Medal in the hop, skip and jump, and the Silver Medal in the long jump at the Olympics of 1906 (tenth anniversary games at Athens). He was 34 years of age at this stage, which made his achievements all the more remarkable. At that time Irish athletes competed under the British flag. O'Connor refused to wear British colours at the medal ceremony and insisted on waving a green flag to indicate his nationality. ## Dungarvan Leader Gardening

Green Fingers Looking Good

GARDENING gives you the ideal opportunity to enjoy the great outdoors – right on your doorstep.

You don't need to travel, you don't need to plan, you don't even need to be kitted out with special equipment. You simply step outside the backdoor and you're ready to begin...

But like all outdoor activities, there are a host of accessories that can make pursuing your hobby more convenient, more comfortable – and less vulnerable to the great British weather.

When you're gardening the chances are you'll be in the privacy of your own backyard and nobody will take a great deal of notice of your choice of clothing. You don't need to make a fashion statement – and unlike walking or cycling, designer gear has made little impact on the world of gardening.

But you do need to be comfortable, warm and dry, so a little investment in appropriate gear is well worthwhile.

Footwear comes first. Whatever the weather, you'll be exposed to mud and dirt – and you don't want to ruin your best shoes. The traditional footwear favourite is the good old wellington boot. It keeps out the wet, is suitable for all weather and ranges in price from £5 to £50.

While a cheap pair may be fine for the occasional gardener, if your hobby is serious or you are likely to walk miles down muddy tracks, it is worth investing more for the extra comfort.

Since the welly was invented, footwear has become more sophisticated and most garden centres now offer an extensive choice. Waterproof PVC ankle boots are particularly popular as they offer greater flexibility, but the current favourite is the garden clog.

Based on the Dutch clog design but made from wellington boot material, they are easy to slip on – and if you get a good pair the linings can be taken out for cleaning. Prices start at around £12.

Next on the shopping list should be a good pair of gloves, with a strong, leather or woven fabric palm and heavy-duty back to protect your hands from prickly thorns or other sharp objects. Not only will they make gardening cleaner and more comfortable, they will also protect you from cuts, which can be unpleasant and even dangerous if you're up to your elbows in mud. Good gloves start at around £10.

If you're serious about your hobby and want to garden in all weathers, a good, thorn- and water-proof jacket is also essential. Waxed jackets have long been a favourite since they are hard-wearing, tear-resistant and easy to clean. Modern fibres are excellent at keeping out the weather – but make sure they are not prone to damage from sharp objects.

Your garden centre will be packed with ideas and items that can make life easier, from specially-designed hats, shirts and trousers to kneeling mats for weeding and aprons that will hold your garden tools.

Like every hobby, gardening has an infinite selection of equipment and accessories available. The important thing to remember is that the essential basics needn't cost a fortune – but if your hobby becomes serious and you have a big budget, there are plenty of things to choose from.

W A R M
and dry: A good, water-proof jacket is important – but make sure it is thorn-resistant and easy to clean.

This week in the garden

SOW SCHIZANTHUS FOR SPRING FLOWERING

Sow now in order to have really large schizanthus for spring decorations in the greenhouse or conservatory. Sow seeds thinly in well-drained seed boxes using a seed compost and germinate in a frame. The cooler the conditions the better.

SOW WINTER SPINACH AND SPINACH BEET

Choose a sheltered place and make a sowing of prickly-seeded spinach to stand the winter. Sow the seed thinly in drills 2.5cm deep and 30cm apart.

You can make a sowing of spinach beet now for use in winter and spring. This useful variety of beetroot is grown solely for its leaves, used as a spinach substitute.

START TO GATHER MUSHROOMS FROM OUTDOOR BEDS

If you were able to make a mushroom bed in the open in July you should examine it now for the first mushrooms. Gather the buttons (young mushrooms) as they form. The bed should continue well into the autumn.

ings of jubilation and regret were no different than years before, as points were tallied and the race for college places began to take shape.

With more college places, apprenticeships and PLC courses on offer than ever before as well as fewer students doing this year's Leaving Cert, points requirements have gone down for most subjects and more choices are now available to students.

Results themselves were said to be on a par with previous years, and in some cases even up, on less disrupted years.

Whatever the result, the message from Guidance Counsellors has been, not to worry.

Sean Ahern who is currently acting CEO of Co. Waterford VEC and is due to take up the post of headmaster at St. Declan's Kilmacthomas reiterates this point.

"For any student who did not get their first choice there is a good chance of getting your second choice", Mr. Ahern said. He went on to say that before any decision is made, a student should first consult with the school's guidance counsellor.

In St. Declan's ninety-six students did their Leaving Certificate this year. "Overall", Mr. Ahern said "results in higher level English and Math's were appreciably higher with a good number of students getting A' and B's."

He also said that "all did very well, both those who worked very hard to pass and those who got high marks in their subjects."

Mr. Ahern put St. Declan's high marks down to the implementation of transition year which he said had "a major impact."

St. Augustian's College Dungarvan principal Fr. Pat Moran was also enthusiastic about the results his school received.

"The overall results were above the national average with many students gaining more than enough points to allow them to pursue their chosen third level courses," Fr. Moran said.

Indeed, "several students attained in excess of 550 points. On the other hand Fr. Moran said "there were also those who were happy to get through and for them it was an equally splendid result."

He also advises those who received their CAO offers. "It's a very unpredictable time as points can fluctuate based on the achievements of everyone involved and the number of applicants."

To those who do not receive their first choice he said "don't worry you may get in on the ensuing round. If this is not the case then don't panic, there may be alternative ways to get what you want."

Meanwhile Pat Buckley of Dungarvan Technical College reports "a 100% success rate with many students getting enough points to pursue the 3rd level course of their choice."

A number of other students will be returning to the Technical college to do one of the Colleges Post Leaving Certificate Courses.

The Principle went on to thank "all the teachers for their commitment during the year which was clearly reflected in the results the students got."

Margaret O'Brien, principal of Ard Scoil na Deise was also "thrilled" with the achievements of the students in her school.

"In what was a very difficult year, I am delighted with how well our students did, especially in English, Irish, Geography and History. The results were excellent all round", she said.

Principal of Dungarvan CBS, Jim Ryan, was very happy with the "excellent" performance of his students. He said the less academic students in his school "did very well" which went against the national trend.

Indeed, Mr. Ryan said that this was one of the most successful set of results he has seen in the school since he became principal.

Victorious Minor Ladies Given Civic Welcome

In the wake of the victory of the Ladies minor football team in the All Ireland final against Meath, the Cathaoirleach of Dungarvan Urban District Council, Cllr. Teresa Wright and Waterford County Council, Cllr. Ollie Wilkinson, honoured the victorious team with a Civic Welcome on their return to Dungarvan last Saturday evening.

It was dark before the girls arrived at Lawlor's Hotel, but thankfully the rain, which had persisted all day and had mercifully cleared for a short while earlier in time for the match, had cleared once more for their arrival in Dungarvan.

It was a joyous occasion and the girls of Waterford were ready to celebrate the only national title to come to the County this year. In the words of County Board Chairman, Pádraig O Riain, it was a barren year by Ladies' football standards, but this success not only puts the seal on another good year for the ladies, but also sows the seeds for next year's senior and minor campaigns.

In her address of welcome, Cllr. Wright said she wished to congratulate and salute all the girls for what they had achieved. "You have your national title," she said, "and you certainly deserve it. Your comprehensive defeat of Meath today, as well as your annihilation of Clare and Cork in the earlier rounds, marks you out as something very special. While we have minors like you to call on, the future is very bright indeed."

The Cathaoirleach also paid tribute to the manner in which the team members always conducted themselves in the public eye.

"You girls have been, and continue to be, an inspiration for the young people of Waterford," she continued. "I do not think that you fully realise just how much the girls of this County admire and look up to you and in this respect, you carry a responsibility you may not realise."

She said it was a long time since Waterford had the success on the hurling field which we all covet. "The White and Blue has a short shelf life each summer," she said, "and were it not for the women of Waterford, we would have precious little to celebrate in our National Games."

Cllr. Ollie Wilkinson said that one of the highlights of any Cathaoirleach's term of office, would have to be the honour of welcoming home a Waterford team which had won an All Ireland title. "Over the years, at all levels, we have longed for All Ireland honours," he said, "and it has been left to the Ladies of Waterford to return home with silver and we are very proud of each and every one of them."

"You are the last Waterford team in action this year and it is wonderful to see the All Ireland Cup in our midst tonight. You went into action against Meath in Dr. Cullen Park today, a County which has a great tradition in football. You went in totally unafraid of reputations, have captured the trophy and have done Waterford proud in the process."

Team captain, Cliona O'Keeffe thanked her fellow players for the huge effort they had made during the course of the campaign, turning out to over sixty training sessions along the way. She thanked Manager, Michael Ryan and his assistant, Bridget Grant and all the back-room team for what they had done for the team. She said she hoped that this success would be something on which to build for the future and looked forward to many other victories for Waterford Ladies Football in the years ahead.

Manager and Coach, Michael Ryan said that this was a very special team, which was perfectly balanced over all sectors of the field. From goalkeeper, Mary Hayes to the forward line, everyone had played their part superbly.

"You have put in great performances all year," he told his team, "but this is not the end. It is only the start of the next campaign. This team can go places," he continued, "this team can do great things, but only if it stays together and all those eligible continue to commit themselves fully."

Asst. Coach, Bridget Grant thanked the girls for their commitment during the long campaign and paid tribute to the persistence and dedication of Michael Ryan, 'without whom', she said, 'there would probably be no Ladies Football in Waterford.' She thanked her husband Pat and also her mother for making it possible for her to be away from the family so often. "Without them," she said, "I would not be able to give the teams the time that I do."

County Board Chairman, Pádraig O Riain also added his congratulations and said that it was a very special oc-

Ollie Wilkinson, Cathaoirleach, Waterford County Council; Michael Ryan, Team Manager and Coach; Cllr. casation from his point of view, as their daughter Marion was a member of the team.

"We in this county take great pride in every team which wears the Blue and White," he said, "and while we may not have had a great deal of success in the men's games, we have always participated well and that, in the final analysis, is what it is all about."

"The girls of the Waterford Minor team have kept that pride alive this year and we look forward to when the Senior and Junior Ladies will shine again and grace the sod of Croke Park."

In conclusion, the captain, Cliona O'Keeffe, manager Michael Ryan and assistant Bridget Grant were presented with special scrolls as a memento of the remarkable victory.

Waterford TD Calls For Greater Focus On Road Safety

Waterford Dail Deputy Brendan Kenneally has called for greater attention to be paid to road safety education in primary and secondary schools.

"Learning about road safety should be a life-long process and our schools are a logical place to start process", said the Fianna Fail TD.

"last year 415 people died and well over 10,000 were injured on our roads. These figures are unacceptable and we are still a long way off the best results achieved by other EU countries. Indeed despite a massive effort on the part of An Garda Síochána, the National Safety Council and the National Roads Authority, the death toll on our roads so far this year stands at 243 so it would appear that the message still isn't getting through - particularly to young males".

Deputy Kenneally stressed that his proposals for a greater focus on road safety in schools did not represent an attack on existing efforts. "The new programme that I would like to see introduced would in fact help teachers use road safety education in their day to day delivery of the curriculum across of subjects. My aim is certainly not to add to teachers current workloads. Rather teachers would be given resources and activity ideas which allow them to more easily incorporate road safety messages into their existing teaching programmes.

"The type of thing I have in mind might mean anything from counting traffic during the teaching of basic mathematics at primary level to writing road safety advertisements as part of English classes in secondary school", Deputy Kenneally added.

"It has been clear since we took office in 1997 that this Government is determined to further reduce the trauma on our roads and I am confident that the type of education programme I am proposing can help us achieve that. I will be in touch with Minister of State Robert Molloy TD about this suggestion as he has responsibility for road safety as part of his brief at the Department of Environment & Local Government.

"Education - whether it is direct or suggested - can be only one component of any effort to reduce road fatalities. the same is true for enforcement and engineering works. At the end of the day it is the attitude taken by road users that must change if we are to stop the carnage on our roads. The time is now right for all of us who travel by whatever means on our road network to look into our hearts and consider what more we can do as individuals to make those roads safer for ourselves and others", concluded Deputy Kenneally.

Unfinished Business On Milk Quota Management —WALSHE

IFA National Dairy Committee Chairman Pádraig Walshe has called on Minister for Agriculture Joe Walsh to tidy up two items of unfinished business in quota management. He said the Minister should make the earliest possible announcement regarding the allocation of Agenda 2000 milk quota to Development Farmers, and bring forward his long-promised legal framework for dairy farming partnerships.

"Minister Walsh did some time ago state he intended to do something for Development Farmers. We in IFA

SOLUTION TO ROADS DISPUTE NEEDS TO BE DRIVEN BY TAOISEACH

ICMSA have sought a meeting with the Taoiseach and Minister for the Environment & Local Government to resolve the on-going dispute relating to compensation for farmers for road developments. Mr. Pat O'Rourke, President of ICMSA said: "The dispute has continued for far too long with no action from the Government".

Mr. O'Rourke said a commitment was given in the Programme For Prosperity And Fairness (PPF) that the Compulsory Purchase Order (CPO) system would be implemented in a fair manner.

"In the context of the PPF, I have written to the Taoiseach and the Minister seeking a meeting between the Government and the farm organisations to resolve the outstanding issues, so that the work programme on road developments can continue. Many important issues remain to be resolved and substantial increased funding will have to be provided in order that farmers receive fair and reasonable compensation—as they are entitled to under the Constitution".

have at all times contended that the extra Agenda 2000 quota gave him a unique opportunity to right a wrong done to those farmers when quotas were first introduced. The Minister must announce a scheme granting Development Farmers the remainder of the Agenda 2000 milk quota at the earliest opportunity," Pádraig Walshe said.

"The second item of unfinished business is the long-promised legal framework for dairy farming partnerships, to include genuine partnerships already in existence. While this formula may suit a very small number of farmers initially, and although it may need to be quite restrictive to ensure that it does not constitute leasing by another name, it will be critical to encourage young people to get into farming and stay with it, and for the producers whom it will suit to improve their quality of life, and help them grow their enterprises," he concluded.

IFA CAMPAIGN SECURES INCREASE IN PRE '99 PREMIUMS

IFA's major campaign to bring pre-1999 forestry premium levels into line with current rates has finally secured a Government commitment on funding, which will directly benefit over 10,000 farmers.

An intensive IFA lobbying campaign over the past year culminated in IFA President Tom Parlon heading up a recent delegation of key industry leaders to make a strong case for the premium increase to Marine and Natural Resources Minister Frank Fahey.

Mr. Parlon told the Minister that the premium increase was a "make or break issue for farmer foresters and the industry as a whole".

Responding to the Government's confirmation of the premium increase, the IFA President said "this move will restore confidence among farmer foresters for future investments because it demonstrates a serious Government commitment to the industry".

The National Hill Farmers Association

The N.H.F.A. met with Avril Doyle, MEP on August 14th at Woodenbridge, Co. Wicklow, where a fixed ewe premium of £30 was strongly proposed. It was highlighted, the fact that the sheep sector lags behind others and that the proposed level of aid would not provide sheep producers with a fair level of income and in particular redress the income balance between sheep producers and other producers (special beef premium and suckler cow premium) a difference of £98.21 per live unit.

The present fixed ewe premium of £16 is not satisfactory. The N.H.F.A. are trying to get other farming organisations to think along the same lines. The N.H.F.A. have already submitted these proposals to Agriculture Minister Joe Walsh, T.D. on July 8th which he in turn submitted to the EU for approval.

Eamon O Cuiv, Minister of State, at the Dept. of Agriculture & Rural Development has welcomed the invitation by the N.H.F.A. to a meeting in Dungarvan, Co. Waterford on September 13th and to Ballyvourney, Co. Cork on September 27th. The agenda and times of these meetings to be fixed at a later date.

BEEF

Provision for Autumn Grass Must be Planned:

Maximising the provision of autumn grazing will result in considerable savings of winter feed as well as reducing the amount of labour and the quantity of slurry that has to be stored and handled. There are however a few precautions – it is a mistake to be overzealous in trying to get every last blade of grass eaten before the end of the year. Avoid severe poaching and finish grazing by 1st November, all fields that are intended for grazing in March of next year. At this time of the year growth is slowing down so it takes longer to build up grass cover and at the same time the rate at which pasture matures and begins to decay is also slowing down so rotation periods between grazings can be lengthened considerably.

Build Up Grass Supply:-

With the trend towards just one silage cut, it is easy to build up grass cover in July and August. In fact one of the grassland management problems with one silage cut is too much grass in July/August which often necessitates making surplus as baled silage or hay. With the whole farm available for grazing it should be possible to build up grass reserves between early mid August and mid September. After that, growth rates will be lower than the daily herd demand and reserves (grazing days ahead) will fall. To get satisfactory build-up of grass reserves, say 30 – 40 grazing days ahead by mid September, it is necessary to lengthen the rotation length up to 35 days. This is more easily achieved by keeping all the stock in one or two groups and having a large number of paddocks. Controlled rotational grazing allows the allocation of grass supply to stock requirements, reduces waste and extends the grazing season. Split up large silage fields with temporary fencing to get a better balance between daily supply and requirements.

Response to Nitrogen:-

In August a response of about 12 kg grass dry matter per kilo of nitrogen can be expected. The response declines to about 8 kg DM per kg N by mid September and about 5 kg DM/kg N by late September and early October. However, these are general guideline responses and there is considerable variation with weather, soil and sward types.

RECENT DEATHS

LATE JOHN POWER

The passing on Thursday, August 9th at St. Michael's Ward of St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan of John Power was the source of great sadness and deep regret. A native of Deerpark, Ballymacarbray. Aged 84 years John was employed for many years in the Forestry. Times were tough and John would have had to cycle long distances to his place of employment. A hard worker, the Forestry Department were fortunate to have John as an employee as he always gave of his very best. A religious man, John was one of the old stock, who greatly valued the old traditions. He enjoyed nothing better than a good old sing song, with his rendering of the old songs of the parish his forte. He could play the accordion with complete ease and was very much to the fore in Comhaltas affairs. Cutting turf in the Nire Valley for the coming winter was another activity John played no small part. He always followed the fortunes of the local Fourmilewater GAA Club, his own father was a founder member and the first secretary of that club. Hospitalised for the last two and a half years, John's passing severs another link with the past.

Reposing at the Kiely Funeral Home, Dungarvan the removal took place on Saturday evening to St. Laurence's Church, Fourmilewater where Rev. Fr. P. Condon C.C. conducted the funeral service. The 11 o'clock funeral Mass on Sunday was offered for the happy repose of John's soul. The lessons were read by Pádraig and Pat (grandsons). Prayers of the Faithful were shared by Sinead, Aisling and Eimear Conroy (grandchildren), Gavin and Paul Power (great grandchildren), Aisling and Aoife Conroy, Gary and Dean Power, son and daughter Pat and Breda brought the offertory gifts to the altar where Fr. Condon C.C. was Mass celebrant. Fourmilewater Parish choir gave us beautiful music as did Nora Walsh (nee Hogan). At the graveside Fr. Pat C.C. imparted final blessing before John was laid to rest. Richie Halpin played a most fitting tribute on the accordion which was greatly appreciated by the large concourse present who had come to pay their respect and sympathise with son Pat, daughter Breda Conroy, 9 Fr. Twomey's Rd., Dungarvan, brother Pam, sisters Mary and Nell, daughter-in-law Mary, son-in-law Paul, his grandchildren, great grandchildren, many nephews, nieces to whom we too wish to express our condolences at this time.

We write with great sadness on the passing at Waterford Regional Hospital, of Christy Carleton, 12 St. Brigid's Tce., Dungarvan. We sympathise with his brother, sisters and many other relatives. Carlo who was very well known, was employed at John Phelan's on the Quay for over thirty years. A skilful hurler and footballer in his day his passing at 72 years of age is deeply regretted. Removal took place on Thursday last from the Kiely Funeral Home to St. Mary's Parish Church. Funeral Mass on Friday celebrated by V. Rev. Fr. N. O'Mahoney P.P. with the interment in Abbeyside Cemetery afterwards.

LATE JOHN WHITE

It is with deep regret that we record the passing of John White, Monamud, Dungarvan which sad event occurred unexpectedly on Sunday morning the 12th August.

John was born in 1940 and christened on a very special day, it was St. Patrick's Day and Palm Sunday that year. An unusual occurrence which is estimated will not happen again until the year 2391. He loved to tell his friends that he wore the Palm and the Shamrock on his Christening robe.

He attended Garranbane N.S. where he formed friendships that were to last his lifetime. His schooldays over, he went into farming with his late father and continued farming up to the moment of his death. He loved the land and the livestock. He was multi talented and could do anything with his hands. He was often in demand by family, neighbours and friends whom he was ever ready and willing to help.

John was a popular figure in the social life of the Kilgobnet parish and beyond. He took great pride in helping to organise the highly successful Golden Jubilee Reunion in 1989 of Garranbane N.S. His commitment to the Deise Festival for 15 years was unsurpassed.

John was one of nature's gentlemen. A man of powerful stature he was big in every sense of the word and had a great sense of fun and humour. He will be remembered as a loving husband and father devoted to his wife Mary and his family. He was a deeply reli-

Liturgy of the word was read by Frances and Jim. Prayers of the Faithful were read by John, Maria and Ciara. Appropriate Hymns were sung by the Kilgobnet choir, accompanied by Dinah Walsh. Maria sang a very moving tribute entitled "The Wind Beneath My Wings", followed by John's favourite Hymn "How Great Thou Art" beautifully performed by Neil Hurley and choir.

Following final prayers and blessing he was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

Chief mourners were wife Mary, sons John and Jim, daughters Frances and Maria, granddaughter Ciara, sisters Catherine, Ita, Stella and Pearl, son-in-law Philip, daughter-in-law Avice and extended family at home and abroad.

Ballyduff Notes

BALLYDUFF GALA FESTIVAL

ALL IRELAND MACRA TUG-O-WAR FINALS

The coming weekend is a big weekend in Macra circles. The county are hosting the All-Ireland 7-a-side hurling finals on Saturday. On Sunday, the local Macra club, Ballyduff (recent winners of the Waterford Macra Club of the Year Award) play hosts, for the fifth year, to the All Ireland Macra Tug O War Finals.

Always a great spectacle to watch this year promises to be just as good. Monaghan Macra who were top pullers for a few years, are not coming this time, so the field is wide open and the title is there for the taking.

One person who is coming is our sponsor William Kingston of Glencairn (087) 8593625. William provides home loans, illness cover, life assurance, saving plans and pensions with his parent company Irish Life plc. It is the second year that William and Irish Life have sponsored the Tug-O-War and we thank them for their support.

Teams from Cork, Wexford, Tipperary, Meath and Waterford among others are due to come. There is good trophies and prize money awaiting them. Two All-Ireland titles also await with the mens competition for a team of 8 and a womens competition for a team of 6.

So we hope for a good day, including the weather and to see you all at Ballyduff Gala Day.

WATERFORD MACRA NA FEIRME HOSTS ALL IRELAND 7-A-SIDE HURLING FINALS

West Waterford and East Cork have a rich tradition of hurling with many proud moments. On August 25 Waterford Macra na Feirme continue this tradition by hosting the All Ireland Macra Hurling Finals in Ballyduff in the heart of the region.

This is a great honour for the county and for the parishes involved, as this is no mean achievement. 16 mens teams are coming and 7 Camogie teams. All to play each other and finish it out in one day.

Many pitches are needed and Waterford Macra wish to thank the local communities for their facilities.

Games are to be played in Ballyduff, Araglen, Lismore and Tallow. A big undertaking but there should be great moments of hurling as the teams come from many counties in Ireland who follow and play hurling with a passion. Some of the counties involved include Wexford, Waterford, Cork, Tipperary, Galway and Laois.

Starting at 11.30 am in the morning we hope to be in Ballyduff about 5 to play the finals.

BALLYDUFF COMMUNITY COUNCIL NOTES

Last Tuesday's meeting of Ballyduff Community Council was well attended despite the very bad weather. On opening the meeting Chairman Pat Kenny congratulated the Tidy Towns committee on their recent win in the inter villages litter challenge. Ballyduff Tidy Towns are doing wonderful work with limited resources and this win is another example of the community spirit which is prevalent in Ballyduff.

Our Annual festival is now underway, details of which can be found elsewhere in this issue. Gala Day on Sunday next will have something for all the family. We would like all areas to enter floats in the Fancy Dress parade and encourage everyone to come along and enjoy the spirit of the day.

Anyone willing to help on Gala Day, can come along to the field any time after nine o'clock on Sunday morning as there will be plenty of preparation to be done. Please don't leave all the work to the usual few stalwarts!

We hope to publish a news letter in the Autumn and therefore we encourage all groups and organisations in the area to submit a report of their activities and plans for the winter months to Mike Flynn or Sue Parr.

We wish a speedy recovery to Johnny O'Brien of Tobermahulla who is recovering from a recent illness. Johnny has been an active member of the Community Council for many years.

Unfortunately in recent weeks there has been some petty vandalism in the vicinity of our new Sports Hall. This building is a credit to all who were involved in its construction and we appeal to all people young and old to behave in a mature fashion and treat our buildings with the respect they deserve.

Before closing the meeting votes sympathy were expressed to relatives of the following people who passed away recently, Eily Coughlan Glencairn; Nell Hegarty; Kathleen Ahern (nee Lane) Mitchelstown; John O'Brien Coolagown; John Hannon Ballysaggart; Bill Donovan Acres Fermoy; Owen Geary Mocollopp; Jim O'Mahony Romford; Connie Walsh Lismore and formerly Barnavalla who was one of the founding members of Muin-tir Na Tire in Ballyduff and involved in the construction of St. Michael's Hall in 1944.

SYMPATHY

Sincere sympathy is extended to the wife, son, daughter, brothers, sisters, relatives and friends of the late Ml. Hickey, Deerpark, Lismore and to the father, sisters, brothers, uncles, aunts, relatives and friends of the late Nicky Hannigan, Camphire, Cappoquin.

SOCCER CLUB NOTES

On Monday night, the club held its Annual General Meeting in the Log Cabin. Officers elected for the coming year were — Chairman; Diarmuid Flynn. Secretary; Patrick Molumphy. Treasurer; Brendan Cotter. PRO James Scanlon. Joint Managers; Brendan Bolger and Diarmuid Flynn. Captain; Ml. Molumphy. Committee Edward Molumphy, Stephen Molumphy, Denis Twomey plus the officers. The playing season will be commencing shortly.

BALLYDUFF GAA NOTES

The Junior hurlers will play Cappoquin in the championship losers group final in Tallow on this Friday evening at 7.00 pm. Players to be present not later than 6.45 pm. The senior hurlers defeated Dungarvan in the final of the Eugene Hickey Memorial Trophy Tournament in the field on Sunday last by 1-16 to 0-13. The minor hurlers secured their place in the divisional final with a hard earned win over Brickey Rangers in Bushy Park on Tuesday evening last. Despite their ten points winning margin it was only in the second half that the team really got on top after they led by 2-5 to 0-6 at half time. In that period Brickey's missed two glorious goal chances which would have made a big difference. Neil Feeney and Stephen Molumphy were the first half goal scorers.

A second goal from Stephen early in the second period settled the team down and from there on they scored some great points.

Scorers were S. Molumphy 2-4, N. Feeney 1-1, C. Feeney 0-3, S. Cunningham 0-3, J. Kearney 0-2, P. Hickey 0-1. Final score Ballyduff 3-14 Brickey Rangers 1-10.

Panel was S. Feeney, D. Casey, B. Barry, W. Power, D. Twomey, E. Molumphy, F. Finn, S. Cunningham, P. Hickey, N. Feeney, S. Cogan, P. Heskin, S. Molumphy, D. Condon, C. Feeney, J. Kearney, C. Hannon, G. Miller and S. Keaneally.

An Gaeltacht will provide the opposition in the final which will, we expect be played on Wednesday night next in Cappoquin at 7.00 pm. The intermediate footballers were defeated by Ring in the losers group sectional final at Fraher Field in miserable conditions on Saturday evening last. We lost out in the end by a goal, 2-8 to 0-11. We totally dominated the opening half but some inexcusable wides, we recorded 18 over the hour, were to cost us dearly in the end.

Team was; D. Flynn, F. Finn, M. Drislane, W. Hickey, A. Feeney, G. Feeney, A. Martin, T. Feeney, B. Kearney, D. Twomey, M. Molumphy, S. Molumphy, J. Twomey, J. Scanlon, B. Hannon. Subs used S. Cogan, T. Molumphy.

We still have the league final against Ballinameela to play later in the year.

The numbers drawn in last Tuesday nights lotto draw were 12-16-23. There was no winner of the £600 jackpot. The £20 prizewinners were Gretta Barry, Larrybrittas, Glencairn, Shane Hannon, Ballysaggartmore, Lismore and Milo Corcoran, c/o Log Cabin, Ballyduff. Next weeks draw on Tuesday night in Lindsey's Bar at 10.30 pm.

BALLYDUFF SALMON FESTIVAL AN OUTSTANDING SUCCESS

The fifth Annual Ballyduff Salmon Festival which took place on Saturday and Sunday last was a huge success with a record number of competitors taking part and also a record catch. On Saturday twenty nine competitors took part and fished on beats on the River Blackwater between Lismore and Fermoy. At the weigh in on that evening at the Blackwater Lodge Hotel twenty four Salmon had been caught. The winner of the heaviest Salmon prize on the first day was John Quirke, Cahir, Co. Tipperary which weighed in at 8.87 lbs. In second place was Mark Rylands (8.03 lbs), third was Alex Rylands (7.40 lbs), fourth was Andrew Rylands (6.32 lbs) and in fifth place was Fr. Ml. Cullinan P.P. Ballyduff with a fish weighing 6.17 lbs. On Sunday morning 37 fishermen headed for the banks of the River Blackwater and on that evening a total of 27 salmon were presented for the weigh in. The winner was Conor Donnelly, Tallow with a fish weighing 9.25 lbs. In second place came John Lawlor (8.26 lbs) with the same person also landing the third heaviest Salmon of the day at 7.66 lbs.

The winner received a prize of a beautiful Waterford Bowl kindly sponsored by Dave Feeney and Sons, Builders; along with a weekend fishing for two rods on the River Blackwater along with B&B kindly sponsored by Blackwater Lodge Hotel. The second and third placed prizewinners received a prize of three days fishing for one rod along with B&B. The winner also received a fishing rod handcrafted by Mark Johnson. The main sponsors of the festival are Blackwater Lodge Hotel; Dave Feeney & Sons, Building Contractors and Heineken Ireland in association with the local vintners while the daily prizes were kindly sponsored by River Action Restaurant, Ballyduff and Brian Toomey, Sports Shop, Fermoy. The organising committee would like to thank the land owners and fishing owners for their cooperation and help without whom it would not be possible to stage such a successful venture.

BLACKWATER HOUSE GOLF SOCIETY NOTES

Charlie Barry Wins Presidents Prize — On Sunday the society travelled to Charleville Golf Club for our President Mr. John McGrath's prize. Wind and very soft underfoot conditions were the order of the day, so only top quality golf was required to make the table.

To Charlie Barry's credit that's what he played, with a brilliant 21 points in the back nine to win by one shot. Long serving society member Eddie Fraher put together a fine round for second place, while last years winner Declan Glavin just held on for third place. Category one was won by Lismore captains prize winner Sonny Landers, still on great form. Category two went to Society's treasurer Eamonn Costin with a fine "steady" round. Eric Fraher made a great day for the Fraher family winning category 3.

Charlie who is also our society captain in his acceptance speech thanked everyone involved and he was delighted to have won the prize. We all then had a nice evening at the "19th hole". The society would like to thank Charleville Golf Club for all their help, a special thanks to Peter Allen for driving the bus. Lastly Jimmy Hornbrook made a welcome return to our society, playing some lovely golf. He's coming back to his old self.

NEW ARRIVALS

Congratulations to Gerard and Joann Burke, Graigueavura, on the safe arrival of their baby daughter last week. Health and happiness to you all.

Also to Mr and Mrs Johnny Kenneally, Lyrattin and Australia, on the birth of their twins, a son and daughter. Best wishes to you all for the future.

NAOMH BRID

The U-16's continue with their preparations for their senior final clash with An Gaeltacht by visiting the Mill Field, Ballymacarby to play Fourmilewater in a friendly game. Tomás Fenton and Shane Hourigan had the dubious honour of playing for both teams as the home side began the game a man short.

Our opponents play in a section higher and it certainly showed as they played a very effective brand of hurling. The final score was 3-7 to 2-6 in favour of the home team. Naomh Bhríd played well in the second half and look forward with confidence to the semi-final.

THE LATE TOM WALSH

Profound regret was occasioned by the death in the wonderful care of the matron and staff of Drumhills nursing home on Thursday last August 16th 2001 of Mr. Tom Walsh, Ardmore.

Aged 95 years Tom had been in failing health in recent years but bore his illness with great resignation and he was lovingly cared for by his loving and devoted wife of 51 years, Caroline.

Tom will be remembered for his gentle, quite inoffensive disposition, qualities that won for him the affection and esteem of all who knew him. Throughout his working life and since his retirement Tom was so industrious and well organised that he always found the time and willingness to help neighbours and friends whenever called upon. He loved to meet with friends for a social gathering. A well read man Tom loved to read and his remarkable religious qualities were among his many strengths.

A bright light has gone from the Walsh home and from Ardmore Community. He will be greatly missed by everyone especially his family. He was a wonderful husband and father.

To his wife Caroline and his sons Peter and John, his daughter-in-law Joan and grandchildren, we express our deepest and heartfelt sympathy.

The very large and representative attendance at the funeral reception in Ardmore on Friday. Again at the Requiem mass at St. Decian's Church on Saturday morning and burial afterwards in Grange cemetery was edifying token of the respect and esteem

Tom and his family enjoy in areas far removed from Ardmore. May he rest in peace.

LISMORE GAA CLUB NOTES

Senior Hurling Semi Final

All roads lead to Dungarvan this Sunday evening to Fraher Field, Dungarvan for our County Semi final clash against Mt. Sion.

Despite having beaten them already in the championship Mt. Sion have come in the back door and that win a few weeks back will count for nothing come Sunday evening when Mt. Sion will be all out to exact revenge so only an extreme commitment, heart and desire to win with all players, subs and officials will do if we are to reach the final. Best of luck to all involved. Throw in time is at 6.45 pm.

Intermediate Hurlers Bow Out

Last Sunday in Dungarvan our intermediates bowed out of this years championship when we were comprehensively beaten by Colligan.

To say the performance was disappointing would be an understatement. Any team that only manages to raise four white flags in the whole hour speaks for itself.

Lismore Lotto

LISMORE CAPTURED IN POETRY

For a place to have a collection of poems written about it is the ultimate compliment. It happens only rarely, and often such works sink into mushy sentimentality. This is not the case in this excellent collection - Lismore. Poems in celebration by Eugene Dennis. Dennis has the advantage of belonging but not belonging to his objective correlative as it were. He sees with the real poet's detached eye and evaluates with a good writer's sympathy and sensibility. Such endeavour is about celebrating the immemorial (it doesn't stop at that); a task more crucial in an age of globalisation which is geared to homogenisation and may even get involved in suppressing the immemorial. In other words, only the expedient, the faddish current and the utilitarian count.

With my Deise connections, if not Lismore, I had great pleasure in reviewing some time back. The Lismoreian - A Millennial Miscellany which Dennis edited. The literary standard in that journal was quite outstanding hence my delight in receiving Dennis' poems for review. I've not been disappointed, and what is remarkable is the poetry's diversity in subject matter and indeed form - you get the lyric, the epic, and the dramatic. Aisling Last Forge in Lismore is a type of epic ballad in a novel aising form (explained by Dennis in a footnote). It captures brilliantly the whole daleidoscopic world of that most crucial functionary, the blacksmith-cum-farrier, in particular the Vaughan family of Lismore. If poetry is essentially about the eternal verities it is too, about loss or potential loss whether the loss be because of natural wastage or decline, neglect or crass indifference. The blacksmith's decline is sad but not tragic. His genius has been transformed and it is imperative that he be suitably memorialised - himself, his work and culture, the forge and so on. Dennis celebrates this better than any one I know. We must know what we come from to become what we can.

There are nearly fifty poems in the collection. While most are Lismore connected there are poems set in Cappoquin, Melleray, Ring and the general Lismore (greater) area, with a few non-specific poems, for example, Another Final Solution, which explores quite penetratingly and humorously the art of writing poetry. I cannot recommend this collection highly enough. The poems have a clinically and arresting language and images I admire and are not over poeticised with, for example, a metaphor on every line and alliterative overkill. Though the poems are overall Lismore specific as noted they could be universalised to any place, nor are they merely time-bound. Many are realised by connections to recent Irish conditions, for example, Vocation Evocation, Springback Meditation and even the whimsical Fair Field. Wordsworth wrote about Lucy; Dennis' Kate Pender is as transferable as Lucy!

Finally, the book is a fine production and the two illustrations towards the end totally endearing. A real bargain at the give-away three pounds at the Lismore Heritage Centre, at least initially. Stocks are limited so get a copy by hook or by crook; as I wrote earlier, 'Even if you hate poetry you'll love this, indeed, the Intro by Dennis himself is a gem in itself - in prose!' Guim rath ar an saothar agus an udar, ta suil agam go mbeidh breis uaidh.

— Tomas O'Neill, B.A.C.

TALLOW GAA CLUB NOTES

EXPERIENCED SION OVERCOME GALLANT TALLOW

Tallow 1-11 Mount Sion 1-18

Tallow put it up to the county champions for most of this game and it was not until the final 10 minutes that the more experienced Mt. Sion pulled away to win by 7 points and set up an intriguing semi final clash against Lismore next Sunday. Tallow needed and deserved more than their one point interval lead which in the end was not enough to cushion them against the late Sion surge.

Paul Kearney put us first on the scoreboard with a pointed free but Ken McGrath quickly levelled. Tallow settled well and mid way through the half led by 5 points to 3 before Mt. Sion hit four points without reply to go 2 ahead. Tallow reply was emphatic and a David O'Brien goal restored their lead. At this stage of the game with half time approaching and the breeze and sun at their backs Tallow needed more on the board but the champions from the East were hard to shake. McGrath was a constant threat and while he missed a share over the hour he still contributed 8 points. Mt. Sion drew level once more but a point from Billy "Beans" Sheehan put Tallow ahead 1-6 to 8 points at the end of the half.

Tallow's minimal lead was cancelled within minutes of the restart with a point from John Meaney. Ken McGrath added 2 more, the first an over the shoulder "McGrath special". Paul Kearney pegged it back to a point. Tallow battled fiercely with every man giving his all. The lion hearted James Murray at midfield hurled himself to a standstill. Mt. Sion went 2 points ahead but points from Brian Henley and Sean Slattery had us level yet again as we entered the final quarter.

A scrambled goal from the Mt. Sion corner forward Ian Power was the decisive turning point of the game. Dave "Fada" O'Brien was desperately unlucky not to equalise when his much more goal worthy effort was saved on the line 2 minutes later. Growing in confidence now Sion knocked over 3 points without reply. Tallow's resolve faltered a little as the energy sapping conditions and pace of the game took their toll. We had further points from "Fada" and Paul Kearney but by now Sion were comfortable and worthy winners of a keenly fought but very sporting contest. The lads can be justifiably proud of their efforts. They have played 5 tough championship games along this year. The experience will benefit them enormously. We have a small but dedicated panel who proved on Sunday they can hurl with the best. They have given all that was asked of them and we thank them for the enjoyment they have given us this year. A word of thanks also to trainer John Boylan and selectors Johnny Geary and Pat Murphy. Like most parishes in Ireland we have a proliferation of knowledgeable critics. Few have the guts to put their heads above the parapets and take on responsibility. These guys did and we appreciate their work. Not forgetting our "medics" either. Diarmuid and Tanya Hallahan and Georgina O'Connor did tremendous work all year. Mile buíochas do gach duine.

TALLOW GAA BOUND FOR U.S.A.

It's official. The trip is on. Tallow senior hurlers go international next Easter when they visit the United States. The American tour will involve games in New York and Boston. According to Milo Aherne, a prominent Waterford GAA figure in New York, there is a lot of excitement in the "Big Apple" about the visit of the "Talla lads". Eoin Barry in Boston tells us that the news of Tallow on Tour has made headlines there too. We will no doubt be meeting the lads and many more friends from Tallow during our visit. We will be spending 3 nights in N.Y. and 2 in Boston so there will be plenty of time for sight seeing, visit the art gallery, take in a Broadway play or just have a beer in the "Jolly Tinker" it that's what you fancy.

It gets better, supporters can travel with the team also. Yes of course, women can too. You don't think we're chauvinists?

We have to finalise numbers by end of September as we must book with airlines, hotels etc. If you wish to travel you must have your deposit of £200 (non refundable) paid by Saturday September 22nd. The players have already signed up so this for club members who wish to travel. Contact Johnny Geary, John McDonnell, Fiona Crowley or Liam Mulcahy but do so before 22nd September.

BRIDEVIEW UTD A.F.C. NOTES

U-8 League Utd's Babes Are Champions

Yes, Utd's babes clinched the league title after a thrilling game in Cappoquin on Friday night last. Full report further on.

Our lotto jackpot is still up for grabs while its festival time in Tallow this weekend.

At last the clubs developments will begin shortly and the kick off grows ever so close.

Rumour has it that Utd could have some new players this season. There is no truth in the rumour that Timmy Justin Sheehan is coming back but I do believe that he will be back playing with his buddy Justin McCarthy, right Justin.

U-8 LEAGUE Cappoquin 1 Brideview Utd 2

The driving rain did not dampen the spirits of these two teams who served up a terrific game of football despite the weather. Indeed the good sized crowd were kept on their toes right up to the final whistle.

Brideview got off to a flying start when with just 2 minutes gone a terrific volley from James Fitzgerald. The homeside put the pressure on and took the game to Utd.

Utd's keeper Alan Riordan brought off two terrific saves to keep us in the game. At the other end Sheehan and Barry both went close to increasing Utd's lead. At the break Fitzgerald's goal still separated the sides.

The second half was a real ding dong affair with play swinging from end to end. The homeside were back on level terms 6 mins into the second half.

Both sets of supporters were now in full voice. With 8 minutes remaining and both sides level at 1-1 a switch in Utd's team proved to be a winning one. Stephen Barry went into goal and out come Alan Riordan. Riordan turned out to be Utd's hero when he scored the all important winning goal to clinch the league title for Brideview.

This was a real team effort. In goal Alan Riordan played well and brought off some great saves before going outfield. James Fitzgerald and Capt. Aaron Pratt were marvellous defenders for Utd while midfielders James Murphy and Gavin Pratt made sure Utd's front men got a plentiful supply of the ball. Although neither Steve Barry or Evan Sheehan scored, both players tormented Cappoquin's defence.

Utd's reserves also played their part this season. They were Ray Barry, Brian McCarthy, Dion Hennessey, Kieran Fraser, Alan Curran, Andrew Riordan and Sean Barry.

Well done lads. It was no more than they deserved as they were unbeaten in the league. A win for Cappoquin would have seen the trophy going to them so it proved to be a terrific league.

Lotto Jackpot £1,600

Yes, we had no winner last week. Match 3 winners were Tina McNamara, Gillian Sheehan, Gerry McCarthy and Mary Aherne. The draw this week will take place on Sunday night at 9 o'clock on the outdoor stage.

Congratulations

Well done to Triona Buckley who passed her exams with flying colours. Well done from all in the club.

Birthday Greetings

To Joanie O'Neill who celebrates her birthday this weekend. We hope the party goes well Joanie.

Fixtures

Girls U-13 Cup Semi Final in Conna - Fermoy v Brideview Utd, kick off 3 pm.

ENJOYED THE GAME

Many local soccer fans made the trip to Dublin last Wednesday for the Rep. of Ireland's friendly. Reports are coming through that some of the lads had, well shall we say good seats. Well I suppose sitting next to David O'Leary, Kevin Moran, Craig Brown etc one could say that some were lucky.

David said to Pat (Sharky) what type of sandwich would you like? Right Pat.

KILL GAA NOTES

Playing Pitch: The major operation of draining the playing pitch is proceeding at pace and at time of going to press, up to half the surface area has been completed. Why not drop in to the field and see the operation at first hand? We can look forward to an all year round playing surface, which will be a major benefit to adult and juvenile players alike, male and female, as well as the divisional and county board. The club will then push on with the provision of dug outs, the erection of lights and toilet facilities. Maybe we could host a big match for the official re-opening, Tipperary v Wexford or Kerry v Meath. You'd never know.

Committee Meeting: At a committee meeting of the club held on Friday night last, it was decided that club Chairman Mick Ahern, and Club Secretary Sinead Hennessey would send a joint Club Circular to all players, Club members and supporters outlining the details of the field development and the financial reality resulting there from. The clubs proposal to raise the necessary finance is detailed and a favourable response to this club communique would be greatly appreciated. A further meeting of the club committee will be held on Tuesday night the 28th August at 8pm and the players sub-committee under the chairmanship of John Power will also be in attendance. John is requested to organise his fellow players Sub-Committee.

Comment: The recent, and far too numerous play-offs, in the Senior Football Championships, has once more illustrated the very poor standard of football at inter county level. Dublin's display in the replay against Kerry was appalling with continuous fisting of the ball, soloing and running at the Kerry defence and displaying a total inability to kick the properly. But of course this is just systematic of the melaise that has be-fallen Gaelic Football in the present era of super fitness and little skill. And of course we have yellow and red cards aired like confetti, electronic display boards slowing down the arrival of substitutes and fourth officials interfering with the continuity of play. Paudie O'Shea was perfectly entitled to feel aggrieved when his nephew Thomas was red carded for a minor offence. There is no tackle in Gaelic football, and the tactic of running at defences and getting "soft free's" is being emulated. But if the authorities in Croke Park continue to "copy-cat" from Aussie rules, the Premiership and the Six Nations they might find a solution. The re-solution to all Gaelic football's ills are simple, reward skill in all its format, and penalise the fisting and over carrying of the ball, re-introduce the free kick and line ball kicked off the ground only and allow backs to tackle on-coming forwards without being shown coloured cards. Or are we to see the ignominious sight of great defenders like Seamus Moynihan, Darren Fay and Sean Morty Lockhard being sin - binned for trivial offences, Gaelic Football is a physical game as well as a skilful game, and should remain so, and not be degraded by the waving of coloured cards, the displaying of electronic display boards, or the ridiculous sendings off for minor offences as happened recently to Hank Traynor and Peter Canavan. The game of football as displayed by Paddy McCormick, Noel Tierney, John O'Keefe, Mick O'Connell, Sean Purcell, Sean O'Neill, Robby O'Malley, Brian Mullins, Jimmy Keavney, Colm O'Rourke etc, is a thing of the past, and the code that is presently "passed" as football, is in need of major overhaul. Thank God for hurling - At present any how!

Best of Luck; Best of luck to near neighbours Bonmahon in their forthcoming eastern Intermediate Football Semi - Final.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

QUESTION

I have been called for jury service. I am working and I believe jury service can last for several weeks. Will I be paid when I am unable to work?

ANSWER

You will be paid but not by the court.

If you are called for jury service you must attend unless you are excused. The Juries Act 1976 requires an employee to be given time off to attend the court. Some groups such as doctors, nurses and members of religious orders are entitled to be excused from jury service as of right. If you are ill or for any other good reason you do not wish to serve, you can apply to the County Registrar to be excused.

When you are attending for jury service you will not be paid by the court, nor will you be paid expenses. Should you actually serve on a jury your lunch may be provided. However, you are entitled to be paid by your employer as you are considered to be in employment and you should not lose any other employment entitlements such as annual leave.

If your employer requests proof that you did attend court you can obtain a certificate of attendance from the jury office.

The committee would like to thank all those who supported the raffle and also those who supported the Car Boots Sale which was held recently.

As the next phase of the renovation of the church will be starting soon, they would appreciate any white sheets which you no longer need.

Letter To Editor

A chara,

The last issue of your paper had a full page advertisement for a building development in Stradbally. The different house types were classified as "The Denver", "The Ashbury", The "Dorset de Luxe." Why on earth the names of trans-Atlantic and cross-channel origin? They are utterly ludicrous. How I would cringe to have such an address. Do please spare us.

Unfortunately, I know that these developers are not the only offended in this respect.

If in need of names, why can't the local library be visited and place names of the Decies by Canon Power be scrutinised.

Mise le meas,
Siobhan Lincoln, Ardmore.

POST LEAVING CERTIFICATE COURSES AT DUNGARVAN TECHNICAL COLLEGE

NCVA Level 2 in Art, Craft and Design

With their emphasis on practical application, continuous assessment and attention to the individual, the Post Leaving Certificate is ideally suited to programmes in art and design. Dungarvan Technical College operates one such course, which is designed to develop the technical and creative skills of students in a great range of art disciplines. The course takes place over one year (full-time) or two years (part-time) and modules covered included - Painting, Design, Drawing, Combined Materials, Graphic Design and Print, Ceramics (Pottery), Textiles, Computer Applications, Work Experience

The course is run under the auspices of the National Council for Vocational Awards and successful students will receive the NCVA Level 2 award in Art, Craft and Design.

Portfolio Preparation

According to Danny Cunningham, the course co-ordinator the course has a two-tiered structure. He explains "While the aim of the course is to enhance the creative talents and visual awareness of all students, it serves as an excellent preparatory course for entry into third level studies through the preparation of portfolio".

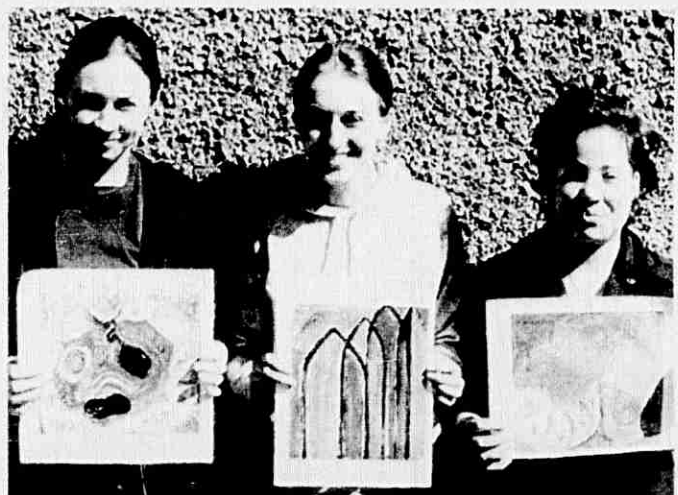

As such, students who intend to progress to further Art Studies will produce a portfolio to a demand high enough to achieve this.

Mature Students Alternatively, the course will accommodate mature students who desire to build on their interest in art and design. In this stream, there will be a great emphasis on teaching the basic elements of drawing and painting.

In addition to normal classes and workshops, both courses are complemented by visiting artists who will give talks and demonstrations. Students will also have an opportunity to visit galleries and artist's studios. It is also envisaged that all students will work towards exhibiting their work to the public in May 2002.

Interested applicants can obtain a prospectus by telephoning Dungarvan Technical College at 058 41184. There are no tuition fees and applicants may be eligible for a maintenance grant. Closing date for receipt of applicants is August 31st 2001.

Portfolio Students of the Art, Craft and Design course at Dungarvan Technical College proudly display their finished work as a result of a printing workshop given by Ms. Donna McNamara.

Ms Sharon McCarthy displays a selection of her finished artwork. Sharon completed a module in pottery as part of her Art, Craft and Design course at Dungarvan Technical College.

Environment Today

COUNCIL'S CAFE COMPOSTS ITS ORGANIC WASTE

The Civic Offices in Dungarvan have been successfully composting their organic waste for the past two months now. All lunchtime fruit scraps, old teabags and coffee grounds are collected in the café's kitchen caddy. At the end of each day they are deposited in the Council's Compost bin, which is visible from the main foyer of the offices. The compost bin has been fitted with a clear perspex panel, so next time you're in the Civic Offices in Dungarvan, take a look at our composting in action! The Composting scheme represents a significant diversion of waste from landfill and proves that even in the work place - It's easy to make a difference for the environment.

Composting is one of the cheapest and most effective ways of dealing with the organic fraction of your household waste. Up to one third of your household rubbish will simply rot away leaving you with nutritious compost for your garden. It saves space in your wheel bin, which saves you money, and space in the landfill... and it's easy! The process of composting will happen naturally, but compost bins make it quicker and handier by keeping your heap tidy in the garden. Compost Bins are available now from Waterford County Council at the subsidised rate of £20. For this you will also get a kitchen caddy, which is a container to save your organic waste in the kitchen, and all the information you need to get started. Call 058-22000 now for an application form.

LITTER AWARENESS

The Inter-Community Litter Challenge is now over, but don't let the work of these hard working groups go to waste. It's interesting to note that the definition of litter is quite wide and extends beyond casual pieces of paper or cigarette ends to anything large or small, which is or is likely to become unsightly. When you think of the vast array of material that ends up on our streets and countryside, anything from glass bottles, to fridge freezers and sofas, it's easy to understand that litter is not only unsightly and polluting, it is also a real danger to our wildlife. Play your part in making Co. Waterford Free of Litter. Contact the Litter Control Office with information about any litter offences or illegal dumping on 058-20875.

TWO NEW ANTI-LITTER SUPERVISORS

The Litter Control Office has recently appointed two full-time Environmental Patrol Officers. The appointees will join the two full-time and one part-time Anti Litter Supervisors already working in the county. One of the new ALS is on patrol already and the second will begin in the first week of September.

As part of the Student Summer Job Scheme, the Council has also employed two teams of beach cleaners one for the East of the County and one for the west. Well done to both teams who have been working away all summer to make sure that our beaches are pleasant places to visit. This can be a mammoth task as some people show flagrant disregard for others and the law. On the Spot Fines await anyone seen casually walking away from their picnic remains or dirty nappies after a day at the seaside. It is an offence to leave litter in any public place, an offence punishable by a £50 on-the-spot fine.

Building sites are another thorn in the side of the Anti-Litter Supervisors. Nowadays, building materials come wrapped in layers of packaging and much of it can end up as litter. However, builders as owners or persons responsible for any place that can be seen from a public place are responsible for keeping that area litter free. They must also take steps to make sure that lunch-time wrappers and packaging such as plastic and aeroboard will not fly off in the wind and become litter somewhere else. Beware this offence is also punishable by a £50 on-the-spot fine. If convicted of a litter offence in court the fine could rise to £1,500 and clean-up and legal costs may be added to this sum.

10 STEPS

Next week sees the beginning of a new series of articles based around the 10 Steps - It's easy to make a difference campaign. This campaign, which is sponsored by the Department of Environment and Local Government, centres around 10 steps that we can all take to become more environmentally friendly. Check out the associated website at: www.10steps.ie.

H BLOCK PRISONER TO SPEAK IN CLONMEL

On Wednesday next 22nd August a former H-Block prisoner John Pickering will speak of his experiences while imprisoned in the H-Blocks between 1976 and 95. John Pickering was involved in the Blanket protest and the No-Wash protest that led to 1981 hunger strike that resulted in the death of Bobby Sands M.P. Fermanagh/South Tyrone and nine others. Muiris O Suilleabhain, Sinn Fein, Ard Chomhairle and Chairperson of the Clonmel Cumann of Sinn Fein, will chair the meeting which will also be addressed by Seamus Healy T.D. a man who was active in the H-Block Armagh committee set up in Clonmel in 1981. O'Suilleabhain speaking about the meeting this week, said, In 1981 the world watched as the then British Prime Minister, Margaret Thatcher allowed a member of her own parliament to die. On the 5th May of that year when Bobby Sands died hundreds of thousands of people took to the streets of cities and towns across the world to protest. This public meeting will take place at 8 pm on Wednesday 22nd August in Hearn's Hotel and everyone is welcome to attend.

PRETTY WEDDING

The beautiful picturesque Roman Catholic Parish Church of Saint John the Baptist, Powerstown was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Saturday 4th August, the feast of Saint Dominic, the contracting parties were Seamus, son of Seamus and Una Hayes, Marlfield, Clonmel and Mary, daughter of Michael and Nellie Nugent, Clocully, Ardfinnan. The marriage ceremony with nuptial Mass and Papal blessing was solemnised by Rev. Fr. Sean Nugent P.P., Clogheen/Burncourt (uncle) in the presence of a large number of the relatives and friends of the contracting parties. The bride given away in marriage by her father Michael was attended by her sister Annette as bridesmaid while the Bestman was Derek O'Gorman, a friend of the groom. With the church ceremonies over the entire party left for Raheen House, Clonmel where the wedding reception took place and where a most enjoyable and musical time with Masie supplied by "City Gents" was had by all. After Fr. Sean Nugent P.P. had blessed the cake the toast of the Bride and Bridegroom was appropriately honoured and many felicitous speeches given by many present. Later in the evening when the happy couple left on their honeymoon which is being spent in Tuscany, Italy they were accorded a most congratulatory and enthusiastic send off accompanied by the best wishes of all present for a life of unclouded happiness in the years to come.

THE STUDENTS WAIT IT OVER

The long wait for many students, a large number from the local district as the results of the 2001 Leaving Cert, the most controversial in many years as a result of the teachers strike earlier this year, came out on Wednesday morning the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. There was the usual mix of emotions as the students tore open the envelopes to see how the results were. For many there was relief and joy at the results they received, then the mobile phones were dialled into action with the news for the anxious parents. For some pupils there were tears and disappointment as things didn't work out as they hoped, but there was more smiles than frowns. Well done to all those pupils.

SPANISH STUDENTS ENJOY THEIR VISIT

Spanish students will once again be returning home to Spain after enjoying the hospitality of the people of Clonmel and surrounding districts while they attended language classes in the town. The N.V.L. Kells language school, currently based in the Central Technical Institute has been run in Clonmel since 1992 by Mrs. Faoil O'Rourke from Ballymacarbry and her business partner Juan Manuel Elizalde. Faoil O'Rourke who teaches at Rockwell College during the school year, also accepts students who qualify for the scholarship scheme awarded by the Spanish government for students who attain the highest marks at the end of secondary school. Faoil whose grandmother was Spanish praised the excellent facilities at the Central Technical Institute where Spanish teachers give classes during the summer.

RECENT DEATHS

LATE MRS. SADIE WALSH

It is with deep and sincere regret we pen the death of Mrs. Sadie Walsh, formerly of Garrymore and late Moangarriffe, Clonmel which sad event took place at Hammer-smith Hospital, London. Deceased in her 56th year was a member of a well loved and respected Clonmel family, the Hopkins of Garrymore. A poignant tree planting ceremony took place in the grounds of Ealing Borough Council in London to perpetuate the memory of Sarah (Sadie) Walsh. The signal honour usually reserved for dignitaries was paid to Sadie by her colleagues in the Social Services Department in acknowledgement of her loyal and dedicated service to the Council. This was a fitting tribute after two decades faithfully serving the people of the Borough of West London, her natural inclination, even outside of her job was to help anyone in need whenever she could. Attending the function together with management and staff were her husband Vincent and her family who were deeply moved by the occasion. She was one of six children, four boys and two girls. Having worked for a short period in Currons of Clonmel she emigrated where she met her husband Vincent Walsh from Dillion St., Clonmel. They set up home in London with a family who enjoyed Irish functions in London. One thing they never missed was the Clonmel reunions where they were sure to meet people from home. One thing they looked forward to was their annual holidays in Clonmel and their get together with friends. Family orientated they loved to bring their children with them to Clonmel. The death of Sadie's sister Bernie six years ago at the age of 36, leaving behind a husband and two young children, was a devastating blow to her. Suffering a deterioration in her health last year, she decided to retire from the Council and decided with her husband to return to Clonmel. This was planned for years, so they made the move last November to their new house of Meadowlands, Moangarriffe, Clonmel. Sadly after a short period she was back in England for medical treatment where she passed away to her reward at Hammer-smith Hospital to the inexpressible grief of her husband and family. The funeral took place to the Church of the Visitation, Greenford, Middlesex where they were received by a Limerick priest Rev. Fr. Michael Hanrahan C.C.

Her remains were then removed to S.S. Peter & Paul's, Clonmel where the requiem Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Brian Power C.C. After Mass the funeral took place to Saint Patrick's Cemetery where she was laid to rest. Fr. Power C.C. officiated at the graveside in the presence of a large number of her colleagues from London paying their final respects to a dear Christian friend.

To her husband Vincent, daughters, sons, brothers and her many relatives we extend our sympathy.

Go raibh loistin den scoith aige i measc na Naomh.

LATE MISS NANCY OWENS

With deep regret we pen the passing of Miss Nancy Owens, Dillion Street, Clonmel which sad event took place at Our Lady's Hospital, Cashel after an illness of short duration. Deceased was daughter of Ned and Ann Owens (nee Stapleton), Dillon Street, Clonmel. Sadly her father died when she was ten years old and her mother Ann died 5 years later, leaving Nancy at the tender age of fifteen years to care for the family. The family christened her "Our Little Mother", a well deserved title, she cared for them with much love and affection. Employed at the Boot Factory for some years until its closure, she then took up employment with Mick Gavin, Newsagents, Parnell St where she was adored by customers. In her younger days she loved dancing at the Play fair, Redmondstown, Derring-laur, the mountain road and the Collins Hall were amongst her favourite haunts, the hops there held many recollections for her. Her most memorable trip in her life was to Australia where her sister Angie lived, there she visited many places of interest such as Ned Kelly country and the open cast mines. In recent years she enjoyed the game of Bingo at the day care centre in Irishtown where for more than a decade she was one of the Friday group who are now saddened by the loss of a dear friend. In May she had a holiday in Ayr., Scotland where her parental ancestors came from. And a few weeks ago she had the outing of her lifetime, a trip to Mount Melleray. Her remains were removed from Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel to S.S. Peter & Paul's Parish Church where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Brian Power C.C., S.S. Peter & Paul's, assisted by Rev. Fr. Oscar O'Leary OFM, Cork, a great family friend. On the following morning requiem Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of her gentle soul. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Pat Hayes C.C. S.S. Peter & Paul's assisted by Rev. Oscar O'Leary OFM, Cork and Rev. Fr. Jim O'Dwyer. After Mass the funeral took place to Saint Patrick's Cemetery, Clonmel where she was laid to rest. Fr. Pat Hayes C.C. and Fr. Oscar O'Leary OFM, Cork officiated at the graveside. To the members of her family we extend our sympathy.

Go raibh suaimhneas siora aici i measc na Naomh.

(Undertakers Condon's, Clonmel).

ABBEYSIDE TOPICS

SCOIL MHUIRE CLASS REUNION

A lovely social gathering took place in Abbeyside last Friday night the 17th August. The group involved were the sixth class of 1975 - 1976 who attended Abbeyside National School and it was the 25th anniversary of their last year in Scoil Mhuire. The get together was the brainchild of Mary Tutty (nee Riordan), Mary Regan (nee Maher) and Jenny McGrath and they did all the organisational work involved in making the event on outstanding success.

MASS

The reunion commenced with Mass in St. Augustine's

Church, Abbeyside where the celebrant was Fr. Keogh. In his opening prayer he expressed hope that the memories revived during the course of the evening would be pleasant ones. He reminded those present that we would be lost without education but often it is only years later that we realise what our teachers have done for us. He asked a blessing from God on each one present.

The First Reading was read by Jean Kiely (nee McCarthy), the Responsorial Psalm by Eithne Mansfield and the Second Reading by Margaret Dwane. The theme of the Gospel was as follows: "Ask and you shall receive, Seek and you shall find, Knock and it will be opened unto you". The Prayers of the Faithful were read by Declan Clarke, Maurice Kiely and Gerard Kenneally. Four former teachers of Scoil Mhuire took part in the offertory Procession namely, Joan Mansfield who carried the class photo; Nuala Power a list of names from the Roll Book; Susan Clancy carried the Bread in the form of a host and Sean Prendergast presented the Chalice to Fr. Keogh. In conclusion Fr. Keogh stated it was great to celebrate memories and he laughed as he looked at the photograph of the class that had been taken on the day of their Confirmation.

LIST OF CLASS 1975-1976

FOOD AND CRAIC

The group reconvened at 'Minnies' at 8.30 pm where all enjoyed a few drinks before partaking in the buffet served by caterer Liam Rossiter. The cake, decorated with a photograph of the class on icing that was edible was cut and distributed at 10.10 pm and it tasted beautifully. Next came the 'Welcome Back' photograph which was taken in Minnies nightclub by Rory Wyley. Present school principal Mr. Finbarr Keogh attended every aspect of the function and was involved in the photographs. One can be sure Finbarr gave every help to the organisers to ensure the event would be an outstanding success.

While all this was going on the group Elco and Grace set up their microphones and speakers and tuned their instruments. They then proceeded to entertain the group for two hours and the atmosphere was electric.

Former classmates broke into groups and one can be sure many an incident of their school going days were recalled. It was a great night for Abbeyside and Scoil Mhuire and is an idea that could be taken up by other classes in the years to come.

The replay will take place on Saturday next the 25th August at 2.00 pm in the Fraher Field. Let's hope conditions will be easier for the players.

Abbeyside; Emmet Byrne, Sean Kiely, Michael Collins, Gavin Breen, David Cashin, Damien Cliffe, Shane Briggs, Eamonn Cashin, Michael Fives, Raymond Cliffe, John Hurney, Deckie Fives, Micky Enright, Laurence Hurney, Shemo Burns.

ABBEYSIDE REFERENCE ARCHIVE

MAPS

Maps are not one of our strong points at the Archive. It's not that we don't have them, it's more a case of we don't have the space to display them. On display each Sunday we have just two maps. The first is "St. Declan's Way," long distance walking route from Ardmore to Cashel. It's a map guide with strip maps.

The second map on display is the Ordnance survey Map No. 82 from the Discovery Series which covers Dungarvan and its environs.

This Sunday evening Bernie Condon will be at Parish Office minding these maps and all the other valuables.

This week's quote from the archive is: "This life must be a test, if it was the real thing we'd be given better instructions."

HISTORY

James the 7th Earl of Desmond who died in 1468 sent his son, Sir Gerald Mor Fitzgerald, to the Decies to see to his interests there. He was described as Lord of the Decies and he lived in a castle towering over the River Blackwater at Dromana. Here he could command the great river highway of the western Decies, which linked it with the outside world. He lived until 1488 and was succeeded by his son John who saw the beginning of a great change in Ireland.

In 1513 a meeting was held in Dromana to form an alliance between Sir Pierce Butler, later Earl of Ormond and Donal McCarthy, described as Prince of Carbery. It was typical of the local alliances that were necessary to defend property at that time. They made peace and then made some arrangements for mutual aid if attacked by third parties. Arbitrators were appointed in case of disputes. Thadeus, Donal McKrath (McGrath), Margaret Fitzgerald, Maurice Omehyran and two others were the witnesses of a signed agreement between them. The second signature was that of the leader of the McGrath swordsmen and the first time that the name of one of the family appears on a legal document. By this time normal law and order had broken down and the local lords ruled their territories independently, so that each lord "made law and peace for himself".

ABBEYSIDE COMMUNITY CENTRE NOTES

The committee would like to thank all of you who gave so generously to our fundraising events last weekend. Through your support we raised a lot of badly needed funds. We were also delighted with the level of public awareness the Community Centre Project has generated. With this level of support we hope that it will not be too long before the building of the new Community Centre will commence.

We would like to say a special word of thanks to "Garvey's Super Valu" for allowing us to hold our sponsored bag pack in their premises.

ABBEYSIDE ESCAPE WITH A DRAW

ABBEYSIDE 3-4 CLASHMORE 1-10

This Intermediate Western Hurling Championship Loser's Group Match went ahead at Fraher Field, Dungarvan on Saturday night last the 18th August. The pitch was heavy following torrential rain on Friday and Saturday and a heavy drizzle made it uncomfortable for the players during the game.

Clashmore had the advantage of the wind but some solid hurling by Damien Cliffe, Michael Collins, Eamonn Cashin and Micky Enright ensured Abbeyside dominated early on. When Damien Cliffe's long range free dipped under the crossbar into the net Abbeyside had the start they wanted. Centre back Karl O'Keefe set up a Clashmore point. Ray Cliffe pointed a free for Abbeyside. A classy stroke by one of the Clashmore forwards resulted in a point to keep them in touch. John Hurney won possession and pointed from long range. Clashmore got to grips with the conditions and scored four good points in a row without reply from the locals. Only for the work rate of Michael Fives and Ray Cliffe around the centre of the field circumstances could have become a lot worse for Abbeyside.

However, Ray Cliffe pointed a free to equalise matters at half time.

THE SECOND HALF

Abbeyside introduced the injured Hiker McGrath at full-forward and in a rearranged attack Deckie Fives had to make way for the more experienced player.

Hiker pulled and the sliotar flew over the crossbar. A Clashmore sideline and the full forward doubled on the incoming sliotar which sailed over the crossbar. Micky Enright got on the end of a long range free by Damien Cliffe and he shook the raindrops from the net. Clashmore pointed a free and got another following a Stephen Barron solo run. After 20 mins the score was Abbeyside 2-4 Clashmore 0-9.

Shane Briggs and Seanie Kiely worked hard in defence and Gavin Breen's clearances were good. However, as a unit the Abbeyside defence could not cope with the pace of Stephen Barron for Clashmore who scored 1-1 and as full time approached it looked as if Abbeyside were out of the championship. One final effort by Abbeyside saw the sliotar stroked across the goal and Micky Enright was in position to top it into the goal. Never was a goal more badly needed. Clashmore did have one final chance when one of their forwards got inside the Abbeyside defence 40 metres from goal but he sent the sliotar hopelessly wide.

REPLAY

The replay will take place on Saturday next the 25th August at 2.00 pm in the Fraher Field. Let's hope conditions will be easier for the players.

Abbeyside; Emmet Byrne, Sean Kiely, Michael Collins, Gavin Breen, David Cashin, Damien Cliffe, Shane Briggs, Eamonn Cashin, Michael Fives, Raymond Cliffe, John Hurney, Deckie Fives, Micky Enright, Laurence Hurney, Shemo Burns.

1977 UNDER-14's THE BRIGHT SPOT

In a rather unsatisfactory year it was the youngest team who proved to be best of all. In the under 14 (Grade A) competitions the Abbeyside lads had a fine and most courageous season. There may have been more talented squads and there may have been bigger and stronger outfits but there was surely no group of youngsters with such a fine will to win and determination not to give in.

In the hurling championship Abbeyside defeated Tallow and Dungarvan only to lose out in the County Final to an excellent Mount Sion team. In the under 14 football championship Abbeyside played five games when winning the County Final.

Rd 1 Abbeyside 9-9 Affane 0-0. Rd 2 Abbeyside 8-9 The Nire 3-2. Western Final Abbeyside 4-4 Kilrossanty 1-4. Co. Final Abbeyside 2-2 Mount Sion 1-5. Replay Abbeyside 1-7 Mount Sion 3-0.

Letters to the Editor

Department of Geography,
National University of Ireland,
Maynooth,
County Kildare.

The Editor,
Dungarvan Leader.

A chara,
I refer to the coverage in your issue of August 17 of the Bord Pleanála oral hearing regarding the proposed development of the Glanbia site in Dungarvan. I was an appellant along with Michael Regan (and not Martin Regan, as reported by you) against the decision by Dungarvan Urban Council to grant permission to the plans prepared for the site by Clancy Construction. As we were both out of the country, in line with arrangements made long before the date of the hearing was decided, we prepared an audiovisual presentation which was shown at the hearing on the afternoon of August 8. As your report presented the main points made in other submissions to the hearing, I would be glad of this opportunity to provide a brief synopsis of our presentation.

Michael Regan and I fully support the development of the Glanbia site, but this should be done according to the principles set out in the Draft Dungarvan Development Plan which was adopted by Dungarvan Urban Council last December. This Plan requires the redeveloped Glanbia site to be integrated with the existing historic town centre in terms of design, streetscape and interaction. We contend that, as a stand-alone suburban-type development, the shopping centre proposed for the site by Clancy Construction is not in compliance with these requirements. We also contend that the Clancy proposals do not provide a mix of residential and other non-retail functions in the shopping centre which forms the core of the proposed development. As a result, the shopping centre and surrounding car parks will be a desert at night, or more likely a magnet for antisocial activities.

We also argue that the application submitted by Clancy Construction did not provide sufficient information to allow the planning authority to properly assess its planning implications. Our conclusion is that the applicants should be requested to go back to the drawing board and produce a new proposal in sympathy both with the Development Plan and with Dungarvan's outstanding architectural heritage.

Is mise, le meas,

To Those I Love and Those Who Love Me

When I am gone, release me, let me go,
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me in tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave to you my love, you can only guess,
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I travelled on alone,
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part,
So bless the memories within your heart,
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call and I will come,
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near,
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear,
All my love around you, soft and clear,
And then when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile and a "welcome home."
(Always remembered, never forgotten — sadly missed by your loving wife Margaret, son Patrick, daughter Mary).

To say how much we love you,
But it will take the rest of our lives,
To forget the night we lost you,
For how do you mend a broken heart,
Where do you find a place to start,
A light went out the night you died,
The tears of grief, we cried and cried.
Smiles can hide sadness,
Tears can be wiped away,
But the heartache of losing our only girl,
Will never fade away.
(Remembered, missed and loved each and every day by Mam and Dad).

O'SHEA — Eighteenth Anniversary — In sad and loving memory of my dear sister, Sandra, who died August 21, 1983, late of Sunlawn, Affane.

When I lost you, Sandra,
My sister, my best friend,
The world seemed so much darker,
Like it had come to an end.
I couldn't think of the good times,
For months and months on end,
Just nightmares after losing you,
My sister and best friend.
Meet me in my dreams, San,
Talk to me once more,
Ease the everlasting pain,
That makes my heart so sore.
(So sadly missed and loved by your loving brother Eamonn and Colette, nephew Darragh and niece Clodagh).

O'SHEA — Eighteenth Anniversary — In loving memory of Sandra, Sunlawn, Affane, Cappoquin, who died August 21, 1983.

Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by Maura, Ann, Josephine and Francis).

Anniversary Mass on Saturday, August 25, at 7.30 p.m.
Our hearts are full of memories,
We treasure them with care,
But the way you had to leave us,
Will always seem unfair.
We never knew that morning,
What sorrow the day would bring,
When a heart of gold stopped beating,
And we couldn't do a thing.
(Sadly missed by Pat, Conor and Niamh.)

RYAN — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Ber Ryan, "Foss Way," South Mall, Lismore and late of Convent Street, Tallow. Please pray for Ber who died on August 23, 1994.

RYAN — Third Anniversary — In loving memory of Veronica Ryan, Kilmurray, Dungarvan, who died on August 27, 1998.
What we would give if we could say,
We'll go and see our Mam today,
To hear her voice, to see her smile,
To sit and talk with her awhile,
Out of our lives forever,
Veronica,
In our hearts forever more.
(Sadly missed by your family Tony, Mary, Liam, Seán and Eamonn, today and always).

WADE — Seventeenth Anniversary — In loving memory of our brother, Donal, late of 9, Connolly Row, Dungarvan, who died on August 22, 1984.

So close to our hearts each day of the year,
Deep in our hearts your memory is kept,
To love, to cherish and never forget.
(From your wife Sheila and all the family).

YOUNG-VEALE — Fifth Anniversary — In loving memory of Cory Young-Veale, 80, Childers Estate, Dungarvan, born and died on August 20, 1996.

We had you such a short time,
Before you went away,
We knew you were on loan to us,
We knew you could not stay.
God called you up to heaven,
To keep you in his love,
We miss you, baby Cory,
Our angel up above.
Someday we will meet again,
I'll hold your little hand,
You'll kiss me gently on the cheek,
And help me understand.
The reason why you left us,
Why you couldn't stay,
God wanted you in heaven,
And so you went away.
(Sadly missed always by Mammy, Daddy, Stephen, Andrea, Joshua and Jarod X X X X).

To the shores of evergreen,

But the river flows between.

Away on a beautiful hillside,
Free from sorrow and pain,
Some day we will go to meet you

And find you waiting there.
We will know your voice among the crowd,

And your loving smile of old,
And our hands will meet on God's own street,

And never more unfold
(Happy Birthday Dad, from Claire and Tony and family, Jacinta and John, Gerald and Bernard and families, and all the grandchildren).

TEAM NEWS

Premier

The Premier team have advanced to the semi-final stage of the Rock Rovers tournament by virtue of a 3-2 win over Hibernians last week. The Blues trailed 0-2 at one stage but goals from Colin Delahunty, John Power and Michael Downey saw them overcome the deficit. They were due to play Piltown, who have raised a few eyebrows by reaching this stage on Tuesday night (result next week). The Premier team also recaptured the Gary Burke Trophy on Friday night by overcoming Clonmel town 2-1. After falling behind to a brilliantly executed free-kick the Blues struck back with goals from Mark Crotty and Killian Lyons to record a fine win.

Division 2A

The division 2A team recorded a win over Kilmacthomas (Division 2B) in the Ballinroad tournament last week. At the end of ninety minutes the sides were deadlocked at 2-2. Dungarvan's goals coming from John Donnelly and Kieran Hallahan, before the Blues advanced 4-3 on penalties. However on Monday night they were beaten in the second round by Seaview Celtic who ran out 2-0 winners.

Division 2B

Our division 2B and Youth teams were due to play pre-season friendlies against Clonroche last Sunday but these games were cancelled as a result of a bereavement in the Wexford club.

On this Friday night the division 2A team will play the division 2B side in the Joe Wall memorial game. Kick-off is at 7.00 pm on the Crystal Pitch.

JOE WALL BENEFIT NIGHT

On Friday night the club will host a benefit night for the late Joe Wall. Joe gave sterling service to Dungarvan United over the years, firstly as a player and then as a schoolboy manager. Also on Friday night the Premier, Division 2A, Division 3A and Youth player of the Year Awards for last season will be presented.

No children under the age of 13 will be allowed on the premises and any 13-18 year olds must be accompanied by an adult.

GARY BURKE MEMORIAL TOURNAMENT

It's Coming Home

DUNGARVAN UNITED 2 CLONMEL TOWN 1

Yes, after a year away from home, the Gary Burke Memorial Trophy returns to Dungarvan United and again proudly sits on the mantelpiece in the clubhouse in Kilrush Park.

Clonmel came into this final as the reigning trophy holders and were determined to hold onto it for another year. This year's final turned out to be the most exciting yet in the history of the tournament.

Both teams played excellent football in very wet and slippery conditions and supporters from both sides enjoyed the excellent game of ball that was served up by two committed teams.

Clonmel started the sharpest and after only 7 minutes Dungarvan conceded a needless free 25 yards out. A powerfully struck shot beat the wall and gave the keeper no chance as Clonmel took a 1-0 lead. For the next 20 minutes the Blues showed magnificent spirit to get themselves back into the game. A good passing move found Mark (Gizzy) Crotty getting room inside the box and his shot put the Blues back on level terms 1-1.

This was Dungarvan's best period in the game and they made it count 10 minutes later when after a great supporting run Killian (Chilly) Lyons got room on the edge of the box and he coolly placed the ball past the diving keeper for what turned out to be the winning goal.

Clonmel piled on the pressure in the second half but it was Dungarvan that created the better chances to kill off the game as Dungarvan defended magnificently throughout the half.

After the game Clonmel's manager Billy Lamb paid the Blues a great compliment in saying that this was their toughest pre-season game to date even though they played some of the top clubs in Waterford, Tipperary, Kilkenny and also played Waterford United in preparation for the coming season.

Pat Keane representing the friends of Gary Burke, sponsors of the tournament, presented beautiful gold medals to the winners and silver medals to the runners-up. Ray Burke then presented Kevin Walsh with his man of the match award.

The organising committee would like to thank the four clubs for taking part i.e. Railway Athletic (Waterford), Rock Rovers (Tipperary), Clonmel Town (Tipperary) and Dungarvan United (Waterford). They also thanked the three referees Vincent (Bo Bo) Tutty, Michael (Dixie) Deegan and Ber (Sol Cambell) Whelan and also Dungarvan United for the use of their facilities.

Ballinroad Schoolboys Soccer Club Notes

MATCHES

All games fixed for last week were cancelled due to bad weather etc. There is a good possibility that both the U-11 and U-13 teams will be travelling to Anestown to play Seaview on this Wednesday night 22nd.

The bus will be leaving St Laurence's Hall at 6.15 pm and a game against Youghal Utd is on the cards for the U-14 team at home on Thursday night 23rd. This game if confirmed will take place at Dungarvan Rugby Club. All managers will contact the players to confirm whether these games are on or not.

Congratulations to Ballinroad Junior team who had a great 3-0 win against Stradbally in the Ballinroad Tournament on Thursday night last.

SEAVIEW DRAW

Tickets will be on sale soon for the annual Seaview draw. This is a vital source of revenue for the club so can we once more ask people to support the club by purchasing these tickets. At £20 they are excellent value and who knows a big prize could be yours.

REGISTRATION FORM

Can all managers make sure these are distributed to the players as fixtures for the coming season are out already. Remember it is £10 per player and £8 if there is more than one player per family.

TRAINING

Under 11 and U-12 training took place last Sunday morning at 11.00 am and will continue at this time until further notice.

Training took place last Thursday night for the U-13 and U-14 players at 7.30 pm. Well done to those who turned out on this wet evening. Training again next Thursday at Dungarvan Rugby Club if the match against Youghal does not take place.

SNIPPETS

Did you know that the first floodlights for a sporting event were used in October 1878 at Bramall Lane Sheffield. 20,000 people attended the game between two representative teams for Sheffield. Not a bad crowd considering only 4,500 attended the Cup Final that year.

Did you know that Scottish sides Dundee and Dundee Utd's grounds are positioned only 100 yards apart on Tannadice Street.

Dungarvan GAA Club Notes

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

Last Sunday evening we played Ballyduff in the Eugene Hickey Memorial Perpetual trophy in Ballyduff. This indeed was a very worthwhile workout ahead of our championship match next weekend. Indeed it was a good game of hurling with the sides level with 10 minutes remaining but Ballyduff finished the stronger and ran out winners. We would like to thank Ballyduff for their kind invitation to take part in this game.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

This Saturday afternoon at the Fraher Field we play Ring in the Intermediate Hurling Championship. Preparations for this match have been going well with challenge matches and good numbers at training sessions. However a massive effort will be required if we are to overcome a strong Ring side. This game has a 3.30 pm start.

MINOR FOOTBALL

Tonight, Wednesday we play Ballinacourty in the Western Semi Final of the Minor Football Championship. This should be a very good game with both teams having notched up some good victories along the way. This game takes place at the Fraher Field. Check local papers for time.

U-16 HURLING

On Sunday morning last at the Fraher Field we defeated the Brickeys in the Division 2 County semi final. The County Final is scheduled for the 1st September against Roanmore or Clonea.

MILLENNIUM TEAMS

Last Saturday night at the Clubhouse the club honoured the Dungarvan selection on the Waterford Millennium teams by making a presentation of Waterford Crystal to those involved. After a light buffet Chairman Paddy Fitzgerald presented the beautiful Crystal to Maree Goode, wife of the late Jackie Goode who was selected at left corner back, to Nan Moylan wife of the late Christy Moylan, who was selected at right half forward and to John Kiely who was chosen at full forward. On the football team we had one representative who was Tom Cunningham who was again presented with a piece of Waterford Crystal. Our congratulations go to those selected and the club was indeed honoured to acknowledge their selection. We would like to thank the families and friends who came along and hopefully had an enjoyable night.

Many thanks to our caterers who again served up a wonderful array of food.

U-12 FOOTBALL

Our U-12 football game against Ballinacourty had to be rearranged to this Thursday evening with a 7.00 pm throw in and in what will be a busy weekend for them we travel to Ballymac' this Sunday morning to play the Nire and this has a 11 am throw in. Our congratulations go to U-12 player Cormac Curran who was selected from last week's football Summer Camp to represent Waterford in the Primary Game.

FUN NIGHT

Last Wednesday evening we held our first Fun Night at the Club grounds. As it was the feast of the Assumption and which was originally the Pattern Day in Dungarvan we held Mass which was celebrated by Fr. Richard Geoghegan, who was assisted on the occasion by some beautiful singing by the choir. After Mass the fun and games began with three bouncy castles being somewhat overworked. The athletic events proved highly competitive and provided more fallers than the grand national. Brendan Landers stood in goal and faced a barrage of shots from all ages all eager to beat the Waterford star. Chairman Paddy Fitzgerald volunteered his services for the wet sponge throwing, much to the delight of the large crowd present, who quickly formed a queue and threw the sponges with accuracy and venom. His place in the stock was soon after replaced by the runai where another large queue formed not half the size of the queue that he is used to in his position in An Post. A big thank you must go to the organisers and all those who attended for making the night a very enjoyable one for all.

SYMPATHY

Our sincere sympathy goes to the family of Christy "Carlo" Carlton who died recently. Christy played hurling and football for Dungarvan in the 50's and 60's and was a renowned corner forward, and kept a keen interest in our affairs after his playing days. Our sympathy also to Eileen Murphy on the death of her niece. Ar dheis De go raibh siad.

U-16 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

On Sunday last at the Fraher Field we played The Brickey Rangers in the U-16 semi-final championship.

Dungarvan got off to a slow start, and found it hard to settle. Both teams found it difficult to settle, and we failed to play to our full potential. We lead by 3 pts. to 1 pt. at half time, the three points scored by Jamie Nagle from frees.

In the second half we came out with a different attitude and straight away we came out on top at centre field. Two great goals from Danny O'Brien and points from Michael Mahoney and Joe McGovern and another point from Danny O'Brien put us in the driving seat. Brian Bannon had a great game supplying the full forward line with plenty of ball. Capt. Stephen Kirby led by example in the number five jersey. Midfield dominated particularly in the second half due to the hard work of Paraic Cullen and Jamie Nagle.

John Paul Tutty stood strong again at centre back.

Christopher Troy suffered a hard blow to the knee and bravely continued as he was having a fine game at full back.

From Jamie Hallahan in goal to the full forward line this was a hard earned victory for Dungarvan. They will have to up their performance quite a bit if we are to win a County Title.

Final score Dungarvan 2-6 Brickey Rangers 5 points.

BUSY WEEKEND FOR WATERFORD U-AGE HURLERS

Waterford will have four teams involved in tournaments at the weekend. Two under 14 teams will take part in the All-Ireland U-14 Tony Forristal and Sonny Walsh Tournament in Waterford. The U-15 team will travel to Cork to compete in the Annual Carrigdown Tournament. The U-16 panel will travel to Tipperary for the Nenagh Cop Tournament. This puts a lot of strain on Bord na nOg officers and the three full time coaches and many other people as a lot of organising must be done ie buses, jerseys etc. Over 100 boys will be hurling at a high level over the weekend which can't be a bad thing. These games are all part of the learning process. We hope everyone will enjoy the games and be disciplined and well-behaved at all times.

GALWAY SHOCK THE 'CATS'

Galway S.H. had a great win over a disappointing Kilkenny team last Sunday. Hungrier, fitter and more skilful they now face Tipp on what should be a cracking All-Ireland.

Cork M.H. finally got their act together and made it a bad day for Kilkenny in Croke Park.

Waterford Ladies Football

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Mt. Sion Master Tallow In Closing Stages

MOUNT SION 1-18
TALLOW 1-11

Tallow were rank outsiders for this losers group tie against the reigning county champions, Mount Sion but because of Tallow's tremendous and whole hearted display, punters who might have gambled on an easy win for the champions would have been seriously worried at the three quarter stage when a Sean Slattery point from play brought the sides level for the sixth time in the game.

Up to this point and for a while after, there was nothing between the teams and with James Murray and Mark Geary more than holding their own at centre field, the chance of a major upset remained on the cards until entering the final ten minutes.

It was a game that won Tallow many new admirers and must have moved their ratings up the scale and listing their young side among the top four or five. It was their best display of this year.

Mount Sion fielded without Tony Browne whose hamstring problem may keep him sidelined for a while. Michael White, who is still under suspension, was also an absentee. Weakened by those defections, the champions approached the game with obvious caution and in their early play they seemed to lack their usual confidence and were relying on the likes of Ken McGrath, Eoin McGrath, John Meaney and a few others to see them over this one.

In the final minutes, the game was out of reach of Tallow, but nevertheless Mount Sion were relieved to hear the final whistle.

PLAY

Paul Kearney opened for Tallow in the 3rd minute and Ken McGrath replied with a free in the 4th. John Meaney and Paul Kearney exchanged points. Paul Kearney and Paul O'Brien had points to sent Tallow into a 0-4 to 0-2 lead in the 14th minute. Ken McGrath and Paul Kearney exchanged points before Eoin Kelly and Ian Power had points to bring Mount Sion level with Tallow in the 25th minute. Padraigh Fanning and Ken McGrath sent Mount Sion ahead by 2 points before the first goal of the game was shot home by David O'Brien for Tallow after Shane McCarthy had delivered the ball into the Mount Sion defence.

Tallow were in front again in the 27th minute. Ken McGrath and Tallow substitute exchanged points to leave the score at 1-6 to 0-8 in favour of Tallow at the break. Mount Sion had been denied what looked like being a certain goal when Martin Murphy brought off a wonder Tallow who were defeated by Mount Sion in the senior hurling championship at Fraher Field on Sunday last.

save from Eoin Kelly in the 22nd minute.

SECOND HALF

Points by Ken McGrath (2) and John Meaney sent Mount Sion back in front. Paul Kearney and John Meaney had points before Brian Henley and Sean Slattery pointed to leave the teams level on the 46th minute. Mount Sion had the next 4 points per Ian Power, Sean Ryan, substitute Jimmy Meaney and Ken McGrath to send them into a 4 points lead. Sean Slattery brought one back for Tallow but back came Eoin Kelly, Ken McGrath and Sean Ryan for scores that put the game out of reach for Tallow. Paul Kearney in the 60th minute had a consolation point for Tallow, shortly before the final whistle.

Scorers — Mount Sion: K. McGrath 0-8, I. Power 1-1, J. Meaney 0-3, S. Ryan and E. Kelly 0-2 each, P. Fanning and Jimmy Meaney 0-1 each; Tallow: P. Kearney 0-5, D. O'Brien 1-1, S. Slattery 0-2, J. Murray, B. Sheehan, B. Henley 0-1 each.

Mount Sion — P. Flynn, J. Clere, B. Flannery, K. O'Connor, S. Twomey, R. McGrath, A. Kirwan, E. McGrath, E. Kelly, K. McGrath, P. Fanning, J. O'Meara, S. Ryan, J. Meaney, I. Power. Subs J. Meaney and D. Kelly.

GATE RECEIPTS

The receipts for this game were in excess of £1600. On the previous evening at Walsh Park for Portlaw/Ballygunner they amounted to over £1,800.

'Gunners Through To SH Final

BALLYGUNNER 4-9
PORTLAW 1-7

This was the first senior hurling semi-final and while it produced the expected result, Portlaw made it a touch and go affair for the first 30 minutes and at the end of which, Ballygunner led by only 0-5 to 0-3.

The second half saw the favourites heading for victory at an early stage when Paul Flynn shot a goal from a semi-penalty in the first minute.

Former Tipperary star, Andy Moloney, shot Ballygunner's second goal in the 38th minute and further goals by Paul Foley and Billy O'Sullivan were replied to by a 50th minute goal from Freddy Kelly, but here it was all too late.

Ballygunner have now qualified for the county final against the reigning county champions Mount Sion or Lismore on September 16th.

Scorers — Ballygunner: P. Flynn 1-3, B. O'Sullivan 1-2, A. Moloney, P. Foley 0-1 each, S. Frampton 0-2, P. Power 0-1; Portlaw: F. Kelly 1-2, A. Kirwan 0-3, G. O'Brien, H. Maher 0-1 each.

PLAYERS IN THE U.S.A.

According to official figures published, the number of GAA players travelling to the USA this season shows an increase on previous years.

Players who travel out, do so to play and work there and in the process, earn money for winter studies at college, etc. etc. These days very many clubs are hard hit because of the scheme as in most cases it is the good club players who are invited over to play.

Players travel under Permit, Authorisation or Sanction and can go to the New York Board area or to the North American Board area which included, Boston, Chicago, San Francisco, Canada, Denver, Detroit Pittsburgh, Philadelphia or Charlotte.

This summer a total of 939 travelled over (62 full teams) and of these 24 were from Waterford.. Cork had 102.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Abbeyside And Clashmore Finish Level

ABBEYSIDE 3-4 CLASHMORE 1-10

Played in a continuous downpour of rain, conditions were totally unsuitable for hurling, but full credit to both sides for battling away bravely to the finish. It was a match that either team might have won and Abbeyside, even though in front for most of the game and missing numerous chances, were lucky to force a draw at the finish with time beginning to run out.

Michael Enright and Eddie Cashin combined for an early first half goal that helped Abbeyside to a share of the spoils at halftime, 1-3 to 0-6. Gerry O'Rourke, Michael Shalloe and Stephen Barron were Clashmore's target men.

Michael Enright had an early second half goal for Abbeyside and were moving well and still in front when Stephen Barron goaled for Clashmore in the 57th minute. The same player pointed a minute later to leave Abbeyside trailing by 3 points coming up to full time when Ray Cliffe crashed home the equalising goal.

Abbeyside — E. Byrne, J. Kiely, M. Collins, G. Breen, D. Cashin, D. Cliffe, S. Briggs, M. Fives, J. Hurney, R. Cliffe, L. Hurney, D. Fives, M. Enright, P. Byrne, E. Cashin. Sub: S. McGrath.

INTERMEDIATE FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

Goals Swing It For Ring

RING 2-8, BALLYDUFF 0-11

This intermediate football tie was also played in atrocious conditions with players having to cope with a continuous downpour. Ballyduff were the better team in the first half and played good direct football. In fact their halftime lead (0-6 to 0-3) did not show their superiority in those 30 minutes.

However two splendidly taken Seanie McGrath goals for the Gaeltacht team changed the course of the game in favour Ring. It was a game which Ballyduff did not deserve to lose but such are the fortunes in championship matches.

Ring will now have time to improve and may be the one they all have to beat for the title.

Referee: John M. Kelly, Shamrocks.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Comfortable Win For Colligan

COLLIGAN 0-18 LISMORE 0-4

It was a game in which the score tells the story. Colligan took control of the game from an early stage and as the halftime whistle approached, it became pretty obvious that the Rockies were going to coast to a facile victory.

Points by John Wall (2), Ray Bannon (2), Kevin Casey (2), Liam Reilly (2), Kenny Walsh (2), and Richard Kirwan helped them to an 0-11 to 0-2 halfway lead. Lismore points were by Paul Quinn and Billy Walsh.

In the second half the pattern of the game remained unchanged with John Wall shooting 4 and Ray Bannon 3 points for Colligan and Barney Prendergast having Lismore's only 2 points. Lismore failed to score from the 14th to the 46th minute.

Colligan — J. D. Casey, S. Ryan, J. Dunford, A. Walsh, R. Casey, W. Kiely, T. Kiely, M. Dunford, R. Kirwan, J. Wall, J. Beresford, K. Casey, K. Walsh, L. Reilly, R. Bannon. Subs played: P. Dunford, M. Tobin.

Lismore — J. McGrath, R. O'Sullivan, K. O'Gorman, M. Landers, A. Roche, B. Prendergast, D. Whelan, B. Crowley, Sean Prendergast, E. Quann, P. Quinn, O. O'Dowd, M. Shanahan, C. Kearney, B. Walsh. Sub: J. Heneghan.

SENIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

LOSERS GROUP FINAL

Stradbally Challenge The Nire At Fraher Field

Football people from all over the county could not have wished for a more attractive pairing for the final match in the losers' group of the county senior football championship and it is fair to predict that the biggest crowd so far this season for a football championship match in Fraher Field, will fill the stand here on Saturday evening.

I know there will be disappointment in many quarters that the match does not have a Sunday evening billing as one would expect for a high profile clash, but the venue will be taken on the following evening for the equally attractive and eagerly awaited meeting of county hurling champions, Mount Sion and strong championship challengers, Lismore, which also takes place in Fraher Field.

The Nire are the reigning county champions and like their counterparts in hurling, Mount Sion, it must have damaged their ego to have to fight their way out of a losers group before getting back into contention.

Team manager, Sean Guiry told me recently that the Nire will benefit from their three matches with Ardmore. He feels that the losers group, as it is presently structured, is wonderful for clubs who find themselves in that section as it provides them with more games and this is what all clubs are looking for.

Up to this stage Nire will have played six matches and Stradbally will have played four.

In their first round match, Nire had 7 points to spare over Clashmore before going on to engage Ardmore, unsuccessfully, in three games including two draws. They next defeated Kilrossanty and Lismore. Stradbally played strong championship challengers Rathgormack in their first game and lost by 4 points. They then drew with Tramore and won the replay before playing their best football for a long time against St. Saviours. Following their win over St Saviours the media immediately reduced the odds against them and short listed them for the championship.

Their club chairman, Pat Fennell, was one man who did not get carried away with his club's victory and he told me that it will take a better display than this to win this championship.

Both sides have top quality players (by our standards) and this fact encourages me to predict that this will be one of the better, if not th best game of the entire championship.

The Nire are the defending champions and will be favourites, but Stradbally, in the role of challengers and under less pressure, are capable of springing a surprise here. I see it as a 'touch and go' battle with the team which lasts the hour better, coming off winners.

It is the kind of a match that could end in a draw and such a result would see them back in action at the same venue in a week's time.

UNDER-16 PLAYERS ARE LEGAL

There seems to be some confusion about the announcement at the last county board meeting concerning the playing of players in the under-16 age group on adult teams. The statement referred to pointed out that under-16 age players are not covered by the Accident Scheme benefits if injured while playing on adult teams (mostly junior).

Youth players are covered under the Accident Scheme while playing juvenile competition only. It is important that this information is conveyed to juvenile players who may be asked by club team managers to play on an adult team.

SENIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP SEMI-FINAL

Lismore and Mt. Sion Battle For Place In Final

Six weeks ago, Lismore, scoring 0-16, consigned the county champions, Mount Sion to the Losers Group and I am sure that this chastening experience for the holders of 31 county senior hurling titles (which is an Irish record) will have fired their resolve to come back for another crack at their western conquerors, in their bid to retain their title.

That particular match was featured by an ugly exhibition of damn bad sportsmanship and in the immediate aftermath of the contest, it was disappointing to find that this aspect of the game became the main talking point to the exclusion of comment on the quality of the hurling. Mount Sion and Lismore are acknowledged as being two of the top three hurling teams in the county and between them they supply almost half of the county team at present.

Mount Sion are the champions, having trounced Ballygunner (1-20 to 0-9) in the disappointing county final last year. In the semi-final, Ballygunner overcame Lismore (4-11 to 2-17) in what was arguably the best match of the 2000 championship. Ballygunner were then the reigning county champions.

In saying that, almost half of the county team will be in action and we look forward to seeing Tony Browne (if recovered from a hamstring problem). Ken McGrath, Brian Flannery, Eoin McGrath, Michael White, Anthony Kirwan, etc. of Mount Sion, with Brendan Landers, Dan Shanahan, James O'Connor, Dave and Eoin Bennett, Paul Prendergast, Sean Daly, and company from Lismore, and with such an array of talent on view, this should be another cracker.

THE RESULT?

Lismore will put everything they know into winning this one and they being overdue a title, most supporters outside Mount Sion hope that the result here will take them a step closer to achieving this. To be completely honest about it, I do not feel very confident of a Lismore victory. Mount Sion were outplayed by them five weeks ago, but the champions did not play to their full potential and knew that if beaten they had the facility of the losers group.

So here, with their backs to the wall, the reigning county champions can be a much different proposition. They could reverse the result of their last meeting..

Last Sunday Mount Sion had to work very hard to overcome a very determined Tallow team in the losers group final. But in this game, one must not overlook the fact that the county champions shot a total of 20 wides. (one every 3 minutes).

WATERFORD'S NUMBER ONE HURLING SUPPORTER HAS HIS EYES ON ALL-IRELAND TITLE

It's that time of the year again as Guinness looks for Ireland's "Giant Among Fans" in the Guinness All-Ireland Hurling Championship. The quest is to find that special person who has passion, spirit and devotion for the game of hurling, from club to county, from juniors to seniors, supporting in hail, rain or shine, in the good times and the bad!

Michael Ó Faolain from Dungarvan, Co. Waterford emerged as best hurling supporter in Waterford. Michael now has a chance to bring home an All-Ireland title for the Deise. Michael goes forward to represent his county at the "Giant Among Fans" grand final in Dublin, on the eve of the Guinness All-Ireland Hurling Final in September, where county winners will compete for the coveted Liam Og McCarthy Cup and a fabulous holiday voucher to the value of £2,000.

The ultimate "Giant Among Fans" competition was held on the participating counties' local radio stations the week leading up to the respective counties' championship hurling match.

Fans were tested on their hurling knowledge, asked to sing a county song or personally pen supporter's song, improvise a county chant or tell their fanatical stories to the nation.

Michael's three minute running commentary secured his place in the final in September. When notified of his success, an elated Michael said, "I am truly delighted. Hurling means an awful lot to me and I am really looking to the final."

The biggest test of Michael's fanaticism has yet to come. Between here and the grand final in September, each county contestant will be asked to demonstrate their fanaticism and show their loyalty to their county, for example, paint their car or gable of their house in their county colours.

The results of their fanaticism will then be taken into consideration by the judging panel on the night of the "Giant Among Fans" grand final which will be held on the eve of the All-Ireland on Saturday, the 8th September in Storehouse, St. James's Gate, Dublin. The Grand Final will be hosted by celebrity GAA MC's, Des Cahill and Michael Ó Muirheartaigh.

Michael Whelan, Major Sponsorship Manager, Guinness Ireland Group said, "Since 1995 the Guinness All-Ireland Hurling Championship has gone from strength to strength and we believe it's the passion, spirit and colour of the hurling fans that have helped the games more recent popularity. We are giving them an opportunity to take centre stage for the Guinness Hurling Championship this year by pronouncing one person in Ireland the Ultimate Guinness "Giant Among Fans."

Next Weekend Western Board Programme

Double headers will be played at Fraher Field on Saturday and Sunday with each programme having its own attractions.

I.H. REPLAY Abbeyside v Clashmore

This has a 2 p.m. start at Fraher Field on Saturday and with so little between the teams when they met last week in the rain, there can be very little here at the finish either. I believe that a score or two will decide the issue.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP Dungarvan v Ring

This is the second and the feature game on the Saturday programme. I cannot recall a time when they met before in this grade. Dungarvan had two good matches against Fourmilewater before playing and beating Ballysaggart two weeks ago and these should stand them in good stead here.

Also they played very well against Ballysaggart and a repeat of that form should see them through against Ring, who lost their first round match against Colli-gan.

SUNDAY GAMES

A very attractive junior hurling double header can be enjoyed at Fraher Field on Sunday afternoon when Ardmore play Geraldines and Kilgobnet take on Brickey Rangers.

Geraldines v Ardmore

This is the feature game and has a 3.15 p.m. start. Ardmore, having won the 2000 under-21 hurling championship and with eleven of that team on their junior side, including the Prendergasts, Hennessys and company, must be strongly fancied to win here, even though the Geraldines are never an easy side to overcome, especially in Fraher Field. The forced absence of centre half back, Alan Cullen, will be a blow to the Aglishmen.

JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP.

Cappoquin v. Ballyduff

LADIES FOOTBALL MINOR ALL IRELAND FINAL

Vintage Déise Display Destroys Meath

WATERFORD 6-12

MEATH 2-6

Waterford Minor Ladies Football Team
All Ireland Champions 2001

The general consensus that the recent Munster Senior Final defeat at the hands of Clare was the end of an era, but the display of the Waterford Minor Ladies Footballers in the All-Ireland Final at a wet and miserable Dr. Cullen Park, Carlow on Saturday afternoon last, suggested that another era may well be underway as a young Decies side destroyed a fancied Meath team to capture the county's sixth Minor Title since 1991 and propel Waterford to the top of the roll of honour.

Make no mistake about it, this was a vintage display laced with good football as Waterford made light of the difficult conditions and turned on a superb performance. Meath had every reason to scratch their heads in disbelief when one considers that the teams met in the 1998 Under-14 Final and just a single point separated the teams and likewise in last year's Minor Semi-Final, again the margin was a single point.

When one considers that ten of the starting line-up are under-age again next year, the future of Waterford Ladies Football doesn't seem so bad after all. The success of Ard Scoil in the Munster Schools Competition, along with the contribution of county players to the success of Carrick-on-Suir and Clonmel schools in other Munster competitions, suggests that there is real talent coming through.

Forty eight hours of heavy rain made the sod on Dr. Cullen Park very slippery but, thankfully, the rain stopped at match time as the team that have become very familiar through the under-age ranks, tore into one another and Meath had a gilt-edged chance in the first minute, but Waterford keeper, Mary Hayes made a great save as Waterford weathered the early storm and a break downfield led to a free which Aoife Murphy duly pointed.

Indeed, the Brickey Rangers player was to go on to give an impeccable display of free-taking throughout the afternoon and by the 6th minute, she had nudged Waterford three points in front. Midfielder, Marie Hogan, burst through for another point and already it was noticeable that the Waterford forwards had the legs on the Meath defence.

Meath did engineer a 13th minute goal as Michelle Dunne's drive went in off the far post but Waterford's reply was decisive and Aoife Murphy's shot slipped through the hands of Meath keeper, Julie Scanlon restored the four point lead. Meath had a couple of chances, indeed they shot four consecutive wides, along with a point from dangerous forward, Jackie Shields but these misses were to prove costly as Waterford's full-forward, Lisa Prendergast, evaded her marker and planted the ball in the net, 2-4 to 1-1 after 18 minutes.

Meath's early threat evaporated due to a tight marking Waterford defence. Waterford had a marked height advantage in this area and close tackling outfield meant that Meath were reduced to lobbing high balls goalwards and these were gobbled up by a Waterford defence, well marshalled by full-back, Ciara Prendergast. Murphy and Shields, both from frees, exchanged points and Waterford led by 2-5 to 1-2 at the interval.

The first ten minutes of the second half were going to be decisive and Waterford took full advantage. A half dozen passes put Aoife Murphy in behind the Meath defence and she shot a goal and quickly pointed a free and after 32 minutes, Waterford were ten points to the good and out of sight as far as Meath were concerned.

They did rally with three consecutive points from Grinne Nulty, Jackie Shields and promising corner-forward, Katie O'Brien. Indeed, O'Brien, scorer of 1-5 in the Semi-Final and 2-6 in the Under-16 Final, was to get a real baptism of fire at the hands of tight-marking corner-back, Natalie O'Connor and this was to be her only score.

Once again, the Waterford defence assumed control and from then to the finish, there was only going to be one winner. The best move of the game, involving several players, put Cliona O'Keefe through and she buried the ball in the bottom left-hand corner of the net. The Waterford forwards were now running at the Meath defence and scores from both play and frees followed.

Linda Wall careered through and pointed after a 60 yard run. Yet another foul was punished by a Murphy pointed free. Lisa Prendergast missed a great chance but atoned in the 46th minute to notch her second goal of the game. Niamh Briggs came on and immediately made an impression.

Meath centre-forward, Jackie Shields, pointed a free. Mary O'Rourke was fouled and Aoife Murphy did likewise before the Waterford defence was caught out when Shields goaled a close in free in the 54th minute to leave the score, Waterford 5-9, Meath 2-6.

However, there was to be no fairytale ending. Waterford were galvanised into action and Meath's wing-back, Brid Guy received marching orders following a challenge. She was a little unlucky but another Meath defender was fortunate to stay on the field following a very hard tackle. Murphy pointed both frees. Mary Foley and Anna Dunford came on as substitutes and Niamh Briggs won possession on the right wing, worked her way through and hammered the ball to the net. The final score, a point fell to Mary O'Rourke whose display will be remembered for the part she played in most of Waterford's scores with excellent vision and distribution.

The final whistle saw team captain, Cliona O'Keefe collect the Cup. The players made a gallant effort to sing Dungarvan, My Home Town although their efforts suggested that they are far better footballers than singers. Supporter Jimmy Kirwan took his place in the team photograph and the rest, as they say, is history.

It would be hard to find fault with any aspect of this Waterford performance. In five Championship games, the team scored a staggering tally of 17-94 and conceded 6-25, an average score of 29 points per game whilst conceding just over 8 points per game. A 24 point victory in last year's Final added to an 18 point margin on Saturday suggests that this is an exceptional team and that is certainly the case.

Mary Hayes was excellent in goal. Two giant saves, especially one she saw very late, was a fine contribution. The full-back line of Natalie O'Connor, Ciara Prendergast and Ealga Hayes have been superb throughout the entire Championship and the half-line have improved considerably as the Championship went on. The height of Fiona O'Reilly and Michelle Ryan gives Waterford a big advantage, particularly under their own kick-out and good distribution quickly turns defence into attack. Elaine Power did a great job marking the dangerous Jackie Shields and her bursts upfield often created the extra player.

Waterford have a powerful midfield pair in Marie Hogan and Deirdre Breathnach. They won just about everything and that was the platform for the attack. Cliona O'Keefe, particularly in the second-half, had a fine game. Linda Wall and Marian Ryan supplied the pace on the wings and the inside line notched the scores. Aoife Murphy shot an incredible 2-9; Lisa Prendergast weighed in with 2-0 and Mary O'Rourke, who won the Player of the Match Award, made several of these scores. Substitutes, Niamh Briggs, Mary Foley and Anna Dunford also did their bit and let's not forget the contribution of the other panel members. Gillian Wall, Maria Power, Tracy Gallagher, Karen Kelly, Sharon Cronin, Beibhin Neilson, Aoife McGovern, Pauline Cunningham, Lorraine Whelan, Evelyn O'Brien and Aileen Barron.

Teams - Waterford:- Mary Hayes, Natalie O'Connor, Ciara Prendergast, Ealga Hayes, Fiona O'Reilly, Elaine Power, Michelle Ryan, Marie Hogan (0-1); Deirdre Breathnach, Marion Ryan, Cliona O'Keefe (1-0); Linda Wall (0-1); Aoife Murphy (2-9); Lisa Prendergast (2-0); Mary O'Rourke (0-1). Subs. Niamh Briggs (1-0); Mary Foley and Anna Dunford.

Meath:- Julie Scanlon,

Grinne Harrington, Mary Costello, Ann-Marie Fagan, Karen Bowe, Grinne Farrell, Brid Guy, Fiona Mahon, Grinne Nulty (0-1); Grinne Doherty; Jackie Shields (1-4); Adelle Carolan, Michelle Dunne (1-0); Jenny Rispan, Katie O'Brien (0-1). Sub. Mary Sheridan.

That completes the Championship campaign for the season. The Dungarvan U.D.C. and the County Council provided a reception for the teams in Lawlor's Hotel on Saturday night. Respective Chairpersons, Theresa Wright and Ollie Wilkinson and G.A.A. County Board Chairman, P.J. Ryan spoke glowingly of the team's achievements and this was a lovely touch put together by an unsung hero for such occasions, Tom Keith. However, this was a Minor Title and there is a lot of work to be done before the Brendan Martin Cup hopefully arrives back in the Square some time in the future.

DUNGARVAN GOLF NOTES

The president's prize kindly presented by Tom Coffey was played for last weekend.

Friday - Day 1 — The president's Prize began at 2.02p.m on Friday amid grey skies and light winds. By 4.30 p.m the rain arrived along with a strengthening wind to make scoring very difficult. One player who made light of the conditions was John Franklin playing off (13) with 40 pts. John went to the turn in 19 pts. with a great birdie on the 6th. He played very consistently on the back 9 for 21 pts with pars on the 11th, 12th, 13th, 15th, 16th and 17th.

Saturday Day 2 — Pierce Moloney outclasses the field. Severe downpours and temperatures dipping as low as 15°c greeted the players on Saturday. Torrential rain without a let up made scoring next to impossible so it was almost unbelievable that someone would shoot 41 pts, but Pierce Moloney did just that. Pierce, one of the best all-round sportsmen from Ballinacourty, had a fantastic 22 pts. on the front 9 the highlights being birdies on the difficult 2nd & 7th. Pierce had 19 pts. on the back 9 with another great birdie on the 17th. It was pretty obvious that his score would not be bettered and so it proved. The other scores of note were David Slattery and (12) with 37 pts. Mark Fleming (7) with 37 pts which was also excellent Golf. So the Clubhouse talk on Saturday night was could Moloney or Franklin win from the front or would someone else shoot a low score on Sunday. The questions would be answered on Sunday.

Sunday: Day 3 Final Day — The weather was ideal for golf on Sunday with a light breeze and sunshine with temperatures reaching 20. The big news from the morning was the 41 pts scored by both Paul McCarthy and Ray Moloney who were to finish 4th & 5th respectively. This was great shooting by two up and coming golfers. Later in the afternoon these scores were beaten by Pat Lanigan who had 38 pts. and an overall total of 73 pts which was to earn him 3rd Place. With 14 holes played it became clear that either Pierce Moloney or Mark Fleming would win the president's prize. Pierce got pars on the 16th & 17th and still held a slender lead heading for the 18th Tee.

Mark now realised that only a birdie would do him and the excitement was mounting as he put his three wood second shot 5 metres from the green. Mark chipped to three feet and in deafening silence rolled in the putt much to the delight of the huge crowd watching from the club veranda. This birdie clinched a great victory for Mark and Pierce was a sporting and gallant runner up.

PRESENTATION OF PRIZES

The prizegiving ceremony took place at 10.00 p.m and our popular captain Michael Brackett acted as the MC. The lady captain Ruth Byrne was the first to speak. In a witty, humorous and charming delivery Ruth extolled the virtues of our colourful president. The captain then spoke and he recalled the events of the week which centred around the visiting our president in his hospital bed. All present were in agreement when he described Tom Coffey as a great ambassador for the club. Then as the Captain called on Tom Coffey to speak everyone applauded in approval.

Tom spoke with great wit and humour. He welcomed his wife Joan and his children and their extended families. He welcomed his guests for the day Ray Moore, Laytown and Bettystown, Pat Murphy, Munster G.U.L. John Hughes President of the Gold Coast and Jack Aherne President of Lismore Golf Club.

Tom spoke of his great love for the game of golf. He praised the management and course committee for their work and in particular the two captains and Nicholas Norris, the club chairman. He also thanked Donal Verling, J. P. Hayes and Tom Conway for doing the scores. He thanked Tom Mulcahy for posting up the results. Finally he thanked Irene Howell, Liam Fitzgerald and Jack Elstead for looking after the prizes.

The Captain then called out the prizewinners. The gross was won by Donal Williams who had five birdies on his way to 33 pts. On collecting his prize as runner up Pierce Moloney was very sporting and generous in his praise for the winner. Mark Fleming in his acceptance speech as the winner said how thrilled he was to win and also acknowledged Pierce's great round in the driving rain on Saturday morning. The night was rounded off with a dance and a fine sing song.

Post Script — 228 people played which shows the high esteem in which our president is held. I spoke to the president shortly after 12.30 am and he said that he was very satisfied with the weekend and happy in the knowledge that everyone enjoyed themselves. Well done to all the winners especially Mark Fleming and a big thank you to our President Tom Coffey for a most entertaining and enjoyable week-end.

PAT STACK SPARKES IN ULSTER BANK SINGLES

The Ulster Bank Open Singles played for on Thursday was won by Pat Stack playing off (12) with 41 pts. The Dungarvan CBS teacher, a native of Listowel and an ardent Kerry supporter, had 21 pts on the front 9 with a birdie on the 3rd and pars on the 4th, 5th, 7th, & 9th. Pat Blanked the 13th but still had 20 pts on the back 9 with fine birdies on the 15th, 16th & 18th.

Pat who puts tremendous time and effort into the youth of the club, proved a popular winner and I'm in no doubt he was inspired by the terrific golf played by his son Kevin throughout the entire season. In second place with 40 pts off (12) we had Gold Coast member Jimmy O'Dwyer. Eoin Ryan won the gross with 36 pts.

NEW LIMERICK TRACK

Built at a cost of over £11 million the new horse track at Patrickswell in County Limerick is due to open its doors to the public on Sunday October 14th. Racing at the venue was given the green light by Turf Club officials Bill McLernon and Peter McGouran when they inspected the track last week. The Munster National will be the feature race on the opening day forming the centrepiece of an All National Hunt Card.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know that when the new track opens in County Limerick it will be the first new track in the republic to open since Wexford since back in 1951.

RACECOURSE STATS

The average attendance figures for horse race tracks in the Munster/Leinster region for the year 2001 make for some interesting reading.

Track	Avg Attendance

took the Intacta Print sponsored leading rider award with three winners.

MICK K TO FACE THE MUSIC

Jockey Mick Kinane is back in the High Court today, Wednesday. If his injunction against the Turf Club is lifted Mick could miss the ride on well fancied Mozart in the Nunthorpe Stakes on Thursday afternoon.

TRAMORE MUMS TO BE

What have recent Tramore winners Miskelette, Roseau, Ratoath Gale and Sposa all got in common? Well they were all in foal when winning their respective contests at the four day racing festival. Miskelette is in foal to Peteorius, Roseau in foal to Orpen, Ratoath Gale in foal to Pistolet Bleu and Sposa in foal to Imperial Ballet.

JIMMY KENNEDY RETIRES

Jimmy Kennedy from Tramore who for so long was a familiar sight on every Irish Racecourse working for the well known book-making firm of Richard Power retired from the business at Tramore on the 15th August last. We wish Jimmy well in his retirement.

HENRY'S ENGAGEMENT

Waterford trainer Henry De Bromhead recently announced his engagement to Eventing supporter Heather Moffat who works in Dublin with a Marketing company.

SEAN ON TRACK

Former world class cyclist Sean Kelly was spotted at the Tramore races during the week. He was there to lend his support to the newly formed Jack of Trumps Racing Club which is the brainchild of Carrick On Suir accountant David Skelly.

SISTER CLAIRE SCORES

While older brother Paul has captured the training headlines for sending out a number of winners at the Galway and Tramore racing festivals Claire Roche the jockey enjoyed her couple of minutes glory at Wolverhampton last Saturday night riding 20/1 outsider Sashay to victory for in form trainer and former National Hunt jockey Clive Cox.

FIRST WINNER AS A PRO

Jockey Pat Crowley who is attached to Dungarvan trainer John Kiely rode his first winner since turning professional at Cork last Friday partnering Glacial Queen to victory for his retained stable in a hurdle contest.

BRACE MARY PREVAILS

The Pat Flynn bandwagon rolled on to Cork last Saturday where the County Waterford handler sent out Miss Lauren Dee to capture the final race of the afternoon at the rewarding odds of 8/1 in a race confined to lady riders. Pat will be the first to agree though that the winning jockey Mary Horgan performed heroics aboard her mount as her saddle slipped and she almost had to ride bareback up the home straight. Well sat Mary.

TURF WARS BREAK

The BBC 2 series Turf Wars which concentrates on National Hunt racing here in Ireland will take a fortnight break but is expected to resume in a couple of weeks time on its regular slot of 7.30 pm on Friday evenings.

TRAMORE DAY TWO

A heavy mist descended over the track for the Monday night fixture and the runners were only visible to the public in the home straight.

Jockey Paul Carberry was in double winning form. He captured the feature event, the Richard Power handicap hurdle aboard the Mick Halford trained 10/1 shot Dariole while he completed the double later on in the evening guiding the John Queally trained 5/2 chance Ratoath Gale to a popular win in the Killone Estates Handicap Chase.

Co. Waterford trainer Pat Flynn was among the winners as Queen For A Day won the fourth contest. Queen For A Day's intended jockey Danny Grant took ill before this race and Wayne Lordan successfully deputised.

DAY THREE

Trainer Pat Flynn's horses are gradually coming back to their very best form and he completed a mixed double courtesy of Catch The Dragon 8/13 in the Maiden Hurdle under Barry Geraghty while Tom Queally gave the tail swishing Rainbow Realm a patient ride to land a one mile four furlong flat race.

Kono owned by Waterford's Builders David Flynn was expected to capture the opening three year old Maiden Hurdle but he appeared to run into traffic problems at the top of the course under Ruby Walsh. Kono ran on well in the closing stages but had no chance of overhauling the Noel Meade trained Pasteur who scored by two and a half lengths.

The Paul Roche trained Silent Native tends to blow hot and cold in his races but Dunhill rider Shay Barry had this fellow in the right frame of mind in the novice chase staying on strongly to defeat Rash Decision by five lengths.

Sixteen year old David Condon, son of trainer and well known amateur jockey Mike Condon rode his first ever winner taking the final race of the day coming with a well timed challenge on the Joanna Morgan trained Slaney Boy to collar Majariyya.

DAY FOUR

The concluding day of the festival took place in mild sunny conditions and a large crowd attended the traditional 15th of August fixture. Unlucky when slipping up on the flat here in June the Walter Power owned and trained Megammar 11/1 made no mistake in the opening handicap hurdle as Mark Grant brought the Torus gelding home in front of Haveitourway.

Pat Flynn and his jockey Danny Grant combined to capture a flat handicap with the well backed Indy Carr.

A disappointing sort on the flat the John Cullen ridden and Paul Roche trained Irishman 11/2 looked far happier with a couple of fences to jump in the handicap chase and when a challenging Scarrots crashed out at the last fence Irishman much to the delight of his local supporters was allowed cruise in two and a half lengths clear of Noble Gesture.

East Cork amateur Davy Russell sent the punters home happy as he captured the final race of the festival aboard the well known favourite Chermesina.

Well done to club track and field captain Michael Murray, his team and club secretary Nora Healy for bringing us this far and on Sunday we will be realistically be fighting for a top three placing. # Sliabh gCua Touraneena 2001 Eigse

Sliabh gCua 2001 Touraneena celebrates the past pupils of the local school and the priests and religious of the area in a week-end festival: "Fr. Jim Kiely Remembered."

In what must be one of the most unique projects of its kind, the people of Sliabh gCua have constructed a memorial to a well known Augustinian priest and in doing so have also brought attention to the work of Fr Jim and that of the many priests and religious who came out of that area and travelled to many different parts of the country and the world - wherever their vocations took them.

The friends of the late Fr Jim Kiely, OSA, in association with Cárde Sliabh gCua have come together and erected a memorial to his memory and to the priests and religious who were born in Touraneena parish in County Waterford.

Sliabh gCua has strong religious traditions and over the years the area has given many sons and daughters to the religious life and many, as well as Fr Jim, have had much achievement and received wide acknowledgement in their chosen vocation.

At the time of his death in 1995 Fr Jim was serving as Director of the Irish Bishops Chaplaincy Service in Great Britain, a position which Archbishop Cassidy of Tuam described as having responsibility equivalent to that of a Bishop. His funeral and memorial Masses in London, in Drogheda and in his native parish, drew massive attendances. In Hammersmith, church and state were represented and Cardinal Daly sent his special representative

The erection of the memorial was part of the annual Eigse Sliabh gCua, an annual week-end festival to celebrate the many traditions of the area and this year, as well as constructing and unveiling the memorial, it included a reunion of the old Touraneena national school.

The week-end Eigse was formally opened by Waterford Co Council Chairman, Ollie Wilkinson, who praised the work of those involved in initiating and maintaining the festival and extended a céad míle fáilte to all visitors to Sliabh gCua and County Waterford. The memorial, which had been in planning since the millennium year 2000, was unveiled in the presence of a huge gathering by Sr. Ann Kiely, following an oration by local resident and former Waterford County Council Chairman Sean Whelan who gave a summary of the life and work of Fr Jim.

Project coordinator John Power described the memorial as the laities acknowledgement and tribute to Fr Jim and the religious of Sliabh gCua and said that Fr Jim is but one in a long line of priests and religious from the Sliabh gCua area who made a notable contribution to society through their vocations, many achieving high office in their ministries. He said that biographical details on all these will be listed in a booklet to be drawn up and published shortly on the basis of material available on all those concerned

The initiative for the memorial came from Cárde Sliabh

Srs. Angela, Ann and Marie Kiely with (back row) John Power, Co-ordinator of Eigse Sliabh gCua, Sean Whelan, Fr. Connie Kelleher P.P. after the unveiling of the Fr. Jim Kiely Memorial recently.

gCua and local friends and admirers of Fr Jim who set up a committee some time ago to consider suggestions for a suitable memorial. Various ideas were considered before the proposal evolved for a simple haven or rest place across the road from the Touraneena Church entrance complementing the Padraig O Millea monument. It comprises a limestone frontage, an inscription and the names of Fr Jim and the deceased priests and other religious who were born in the area. It will serve as a haven of rest for parishioners to sit and talk (as Fr Jim often did at this site), and be a focal point for local gatherings. The hallmark of the memorial is its simplicity.

Fr. Connie Kelleher P.P. blessed the memorial and a group of young dancers and musicians under the guidance of Monnie Hallahan provided Fleadh cheoil type street entertainment in the village of Touraneena which was decorated for the occasion, while hundreds of visitors admired the new memorial, including former Augustinian colleagues Fr. Ben O'Brien, OSA and Fr. Michael Leahy, OSA and friends and relatives of the priests and religious listed on the memorial. Fr Jim's sisters, Sr. Ann Kiely, Superior General of the Franciscan Missionaries, Sr. Angela Kiely and Sr. Marie Kiely, were present.

A second show was brought to Dublin Vicar Street theatre this year and features Gillian Norris as lead dancer who is Deirdre's cousin as is Karen Hally who also stars in the show. Gillian is on a break from Riverdance for the summer. The two lead boys in the show are from the Riverdance cast and among the talented musicians is Maurice Lennon, Fiddle player of Stocktons Wing fame. Deirdre took over lead dancer from Gillian for 2 weeks as she was modelling in America.

Sponsored Charity Event

This year the Waterford Garda Ballybricken Squash Club are running a sponsored charity event with the aim of raising £5,000 for two local organisations - Waterford Pilgrimage Trust and Comeragh Wishes & Dreams Programmes on Saturday 25th August.

The organisers are planning a leisurely cycle from Waterford to Dungarvan and back while they say their "usual runners will also take off."

Sufficient drinks will be provided at stops along the route while showers and refreshments will be made available at De La Salle afterwards.

The event will help raise funds for Comeragh Wishes & Dreams who are part of the Brother of Charity Services Belmont who cater for up to 50 adults with intellectual disability. Their needs are catered for in a sheltered workshop and six group homes in Waterford. Some time ago while interviewing the service users regarding their choice of employment, many of them were told what they would love to do or what they really wished to do. Hence the development of Wishes & Dreams.

The other organisation that money shall go towards is Waterford Pilgrimage Trust. This charity in addition to the Lourdes Pilgrimages, for many years the trust has organised summer holiday camps for young people with special needs which they call "Friendship Weeks". The Trust is enabling young people particularly those with special needs to answer "Our Lady's Call."

A fee of £25.00 will be payable by those who do not wish to raise sponsorship. For those who do wish to raise sponsorship themselves, cards are available from the following:-

Ned Hogan 305364 - 087/2330282 or 086/8784983

Declan Harte 381333 or Pat Doyle 305364

Ballyduff Gala Festival

On Tuesday night last at a press reception in the Log Cabin details of this year's Ballyduff Gala Festival which commences on tonight (Thursday) and continues until Sunday night were announced. The contestants for this year's Harvest Queen competition were also introduced to the attendance.

The Festival is promoted by the local Community Council and is organised by sub-committee under the Chairmanship of Seamus Daly and Secretary Ann Marie O'Keeffe and a hard working membership. The Festival kicks-off on tonight (Thursday) with a cookery demonstration given by Iris Shane in St. Michael's Hall at 8 p.m. Admission is £6 and there will be a cheese and wine reception. There will be a karaoke in the Corner House Bar on the same night.

On Friday night there will be a teenage disco in St. Michael's Hall from 9 p.m. till midnight. On Saturday night there will be a barbecue in the Log Cabin from 9.30 p.m. onwards with loads of tasty food.

Sunday is D-Day with a varied and full programme of events to suit all tastes and age groups. Events get underway at 1.30 p.m. with the parade of Festival Queen contestants followed by the fancy dress parade from the village to the field. A new dimension this year is a free draw on the entry tickets for a colour television and hampers. Entries are being invited for the obstacle course (teams of 5 — 3 male and 2 females) and they can be given to Noel Hayes. Events in the field will include old time threshing, vintage display, sheaf throwing, pony rides, penalty taking, "build your own scare crow competition", arts and crafts, demonstrations, baby show, dog show, pets corner, guess the weight of both the salmon and the cake, adult and childrens photography competition, threading nuts and bolts, Booley House Dancers and lots more.

This year the committee are holding a Country Market which will be a great opportunity to stock up on farm fresh produce. Anyone interested in a stall should contact Ann Marie O'Keeffe.

The organising committee have a first by securing the "Eliminator Challenge" — a unique bouncy castle for the 7 to 10 year olds and this is the only one of its kind in Ireland. So this should be a real treat for the younger generation.

Tickets will be on sale for a Monster Raffle with the prize being All Ireland hurling final tickets as well as other prizes. Tom Casey who recently was placed second in the World Hot Rod Championship will have his car on display as will other local drivers. Another highlight on the day will be the All Ireland Macra Na Feirme tug-o-war finals (see elsewhere).

When the events in the field wind down activities will commence in the village with a "Beat on the Street" (kindly sponsored by Feeney Tarmacadem) at 8.30 p.m. with none other than our own D.J. Mania (Liam Keane) spinning the discs. The Festival Dance will take place later on Sunday night in St. Michael's Hall with music by Wallstreet, bar extension. During the dance the 2001 Harvest Queen will be selected and again this year there is a host of beautiful ladies vying for the title. The Millennium Queen Noreen O'Donovan will complete a very distinctive year in office on the night. Dancing will be till 2 a.m. and the monster raffle will also take place.

The organisers are grateful to its many sponsors for their continued generous support. Present at last week's launch were Milo Corcoran (newly elected President of the F.A.I.) representing Heineken Ireland; Paddy Jim Feeney representing Tallow Credit Union, William Kingston representing Irish Life sponsors of the Macra na Feirme tug-o-war finals, and Tommy Enright, Mocollop.
