Fianna Fail Count Cost After Disastrous Showing

KEVIN KIRRANE

Fine Gael missed out on a majority on Waterford County Council by just a single seat as Fianna Fail took a battering in a near disastrous showing in the local elections - incurring seat losses or a downturn of first preference share in almost all electoral areas.

The count, which went into the early hours of Sunday night and continued for the Dungarvan Electoral Area with a Sunday afternoon recount, saw elation for Sinn Fein - who made an historic breakthrough - and for Fine Gael who gained three seats on the council.

But there was despair for a number of long-serving Fianna Fail candidates.

Stradbally's Tom Cunning-

MANSFIELD CLAIMS TOWN AND COUNTY SEATS FOR SINN FEIN

ham was the first high-profile casualty on Saturday losing his Kilmac' seat followed by Nuala Ryan and party whip Paddy Kenneally who lost the seat he'd held since 1967.

Dunmore East's Geoff Power was the fourth casualty in what proved a long-night for the Government party.

WAKE-UP CALL

Fianna Fail councillors were calling for a cabinet reshuffle in the aftermath of the results and blamed the radiotherapy issue for the collapse of their vote. Cllr. James Tobin described it as a wake-up call for the party and also urged the Government to soften legislation being brought in, as, he said, some of the legislation is causing suffering.

FIANNA FAIL'S TOM CRONIN TOPS COUNTY POLL DESPITE PARTY'S POOR SHOWING

In percentage terms, the figures made even less appetising reading for the party. Fianna Fail purged 7.6% of its first preference share since the last local elections, while Fine Gael enjoyed an upsurge of 6.2% in the county.

For what's thought to be for the first-time in County Waterford, Fine Gael took a larger share of the first preferences than Fianna Fail - a vote which Deputy John Deasy says could now see the party in line for a second Dail seat at the next General Election.

Sinn Fein's support was at just under 3% while Labour stayed much the same as 1999 with 14.6% of the first preference vote. However, Labour did gain a seat on the County Council - Paddy O'Callaghan regained the seat he lost in '99 in the Tramore area, and while the thirty-six year-old SEHB professional Fiachra O Ceilleachair lost his seat, it was to party colleague Teresa Wright who performed extremely well to take seats on both Town and County Councils.

CRONIN TOPS POLL: DUNGARVAN ELECTORAL AREA

The Dungarvan Electoral Area saw Fianna Fail representation cut to a single councillor. Tom Cronin's poll-topping performance came as a surprise on a day when Fianna Fail suffered heavily from the fall-out of - amongst other things - the failure to locate a radiotherapy unit in Waterford Regional Hospital.

Behind him was Dungarvan GP, Tom Higgins, FG, who - like the last time out - polled strongly and took an early seat.

But many saw the performance of Damien Geoghegan as the star of Fine Gael's vote grabbing act in Dungarvan.

His confidence in the early tallies proved well-founded as he topped the poll on Dungarvan Town Council, and took the third seat on Waterford

Fine Gael's Damien Geoghegan who topped the poll in the Dungarvan Town Council.

Dungarvan Camera Club Notes

We had a very busy and interesting meeting on Tuesday 1st of June. Club members were very pleased to meet Elizabeth Murray of Murray's Pharmacy. Murray's are to sponsor Dungarvan Camera Club for the coming year and the Club hopes that this will be a two way street where working with the Camera Club will also be of benefit to Murray's. Members are encouraged to avail of Murray's facilities and expertise, which is good value for money. With state of the art equipment Murray's can process both digital and film, C41 Black & White, print from slide to photograph, transform colour to black & white, remove red eye, enlarge and crop etc. all sizes available from 6x4 to 12x8. Club Competition winning photographs will be on display in Murray's window during the month.

The field trip to John F. Kennedy Park in Wexford was a great success. The weather behaved itself very nicely, the flowers were perfectly in bloom and we had two gardening experts on hand — who could ask for anything more!

This month's field trip will leave from The Park Hotel at 8pm on Sunday 20th of June, the late start is to facilitate twilight shots - which might be suitable images for the corporate Christmas card project, venue to be decided.

The annual exhibition in the library is fast approaching and members should be thinking of potential photographs. The exhibition will run from the 23rd of July to the 14th of August. New members that require assistance can contact any of the committee. The Chairman is at pains to remind us that the exhibition prints must reflect 'imagination and awareness' — no snapshots. Please have a list of photographs, including captions, for exhibition at the next (July) meeting.

Competition dates for your diary:

AIB Spirit of Father Browne Photography Competition — closing date 5pm Friday 16th July 2004. Application forms available 01-641 2363 or on the website www.aibgroup.com/spirit

 The Summer section of the RTE weather photo competition is opening on the RTE website on the 7th of June. Two members have already been successful in getting their photos displayed on TV so give it a go, the website is www.rte.ie/weather/photo.html

We hope to run a digital workshop in September and David Ind might be persuaded to give another talk around that time on the basics of photography as his last presentation was so well received. There is a workshop on portraiture taking place in the Red Cow Complex, Naas Rd Dublin on Sunday 27th of June, anybody interested in travelling might contact Mary Tobin for details.

Monthly competition (up to 5x7)

Congratulations to this month's competition winners the theme was open so there was a great diversity in prints entered and the standard as usual was very high.

Second: Karen Dempsey with an early morning shot of the Lookout and Helvick.

Quarterly competition (up to 12x8) Theme = RED

Establishment of Dungarvan Town Commissioners.

This week our notes are again taken from a talk given by William Fraher to mark the centenary of Dungarvan Urban Council in 1999.

The 1916 Rising

On Monday 15 May 1916 the Urban district Council passed the following resolution: -

Unhappy and tragic occurrences in Dublin: -

Resolution passed regretting the recent and tragic occurrences that occurred in Dublin, tendering to the citizens our sympathy on the destruction of same and respectfully begs on his majesty's ministers the necessity of mercy in dealing with the rank and file who in the main were unanimous of their position etc.

19 June 1916: - We the Dungarvan Urban District Council protest in the strongest manner against the Partition of Ireland at the instigation of Lloyd George and that we demand the fulfilment of the Home Rule Bill for which the flower of Ireland's sons are presently shedding their blood for in France.

Like most of the other councils the Dungarvan Urban District were not behind the revolutionaries at first, but at the meeting on 19 June the Urban District Council passed the following resolution: -

That we the members of the Dungarvan Urban District Council ask the traders of the town to close their shops during office of high mass tomorrow as a mark of respect to the memory of our fellow countrymen who have been executed in Dublin and elsewhere in Ireland.

Clonea Beach Retains Blue Flag Status

By Kevin Kirrane

Clonea was celebrating the retention of their prestigious Blue Flag status yesterday (Tuesday) - one of just three beaches in the county which achieved the "pristine" levels of water quality necessary for the award.

Announcing the 2004 Blue Flags, Environment Minister, Martin Cullen, said this year, saw a marked improvement in bathing water quality, and with 97% coastal bathing water quality, Irish beaches are in the 'Champions League' division.

"Waterford is to the fore again this year which is good news for bathers, our tourist industry and our quality of life."

"We are seeing the benefit of record investment in water quality," he added.

Minister Cullen also paid tribute to the local authority for their "concerted effort to achieve the high standards required to be awarded a Blue Flag".

He said their commitment and high standards were getting due recognition.

And in tribute to beaches such as Clonea which kept their status, he added: "It's one thing to win a blue flag, it's another thing keeping it. Great credit must go to those who have managed to maintain the standard this year."

Bunmahon also successfully kept its Blue Flag status, while Councillor Strand in Dunmore East joined the list of beaches in the county complying with the strict limits.

Like many others from the surrounding parishes, countless people from Modeligo attended the Mercy Convent in Cappoquin for secondary education over the past number of years. Unfortunately due to the decline in vocations the convent is now closing after 150 years in the town. The South East
Garden Show

IVERK SHOW GROUNDS, PILTOWN, CO. KILKENNY

18th 19th & 20th June

Sponsored by: The Munster Express

The South East Garden Show sponsored by The Munster Express returns for the second year by popular demand. The exhibition is moving to a bigger and better venue at the Iverk Show Grounds, Piltown, Co. Kilkenny on 18th 19th & 20th June. It will be open from 11am until 8pm on Friday, 11am until 6pm on Saturday and 11am until 6pm on Sunday.

A WORLD OF IDEAS AT ONE VENUE

The Iverk Show Grounds is situated 3 miles from Carrick on Suir and is centrally located to Clonmel, Kilkenny and Waterford. The South East Garden Show will have everything to do with the garden on display and will also be incorporating a Future Homes Marquee for those looking for some home related products. Following the searing success of hundreds of similar events hosted by organiser Tom Murphy throughout the country, the South East can look forward to a bigger, better and even more fascinating trip into the multi-faceted world of the home and garden.

There has been huge interest in gardening in recent years with many people putting in conservatories, paving, decking, lawns and a vast array of shrubbery. Perhaps this has to do with the growing demand for DIY publications surrounding homes and gardens, in line with the increasing popularity of TV shows. Whether the reason, interest in homes and gardens is on the increase Tom Murphy more than caters for this growth.

June may have the longest days but this month is really just the start of high summer in gardening, so whether you want to add new life or some extra colour to make more of an impact in your garden right now then you'll find plenty of inspiration and expert advice on gardening and gardening related products at this year's South East Garden show

Health Tips from "Remedies"

HAY FEVER

Allium cepa is the Red Onion, hence using the Homeopathic idea of 'like curing like', the remedy is used to treat hay fever symptoms like those associated with peeling onions - streaming eyes and nose.

Euphrasia or Eyebright. This plant has a traditional use as a cure for eye complaints. Treats hay fever where the eyes burn and itch and the patient complains of intolerance to light.

Silicea. This remedy is usually associated with problems centred on the head, and especially involving the sinuses. Silicea hay fever shows a blocked, stuffy nose, often with symptoms worse in the morning.

EU Sends First Warning On Superdump

Commission Concerned About Effects On Rare Species

By Kevin Klrane

The European Commission has issued Ireland with its first written warning about Waterford County Council's plans to site a 'Superdump' at Garrynagree, the Lickey Concern Group say.

The warning - a Letter of Formal Notice - is the first stage of legal proceedings which can be activated by the commission if it considers EU laws to have been broken.

Although the letter has not been made public, the Lickey Concern Group - which has spearheaded opposition to the landfill - say they were formally notified of the "apparently substantial written text" by the commission.

It's believed the warning centres on fears that several environmental directives are not being respected in relation to the siting of the proposed superdump, and is based on much of the environmental information collected by the Concern Group.

The landfill is proposed to be sited next to an EU designated Special Area of Conservation - a designation put in place to protect the habitat of a rare species of shellfish which live in and around the River.

In its letter of formal notice, the commission also apparently highlighted four directives it says appear to be breached by the council's superdump plans - particularly that Garrynagree is an unsuitable disposal site under the EU Landfill Directive.

"As is normal practice, the commission has invited Ireland to submit its observations on the issues raised," a statement from the Concern Group says.

After a time for response has lapsed they can then issue a final written warning which would "clearly and definitely" set out the reasons why it considers EU law to have been broken.

It can also call on Ireland to comply with the directives within a specified period of time - usually two months.

If this isn't complied with, the commission may then decide to bring the case before the Court of Justice.

The warning is the latest in a series of problems and delays which has hampered the local authority's plans to site a countywide 'Superdump' in Garrynagree.

And it also comes in the weeks before the expected start of An Bord Pleanála's oral hearing proceedings into the siting of the Landfill.

Cases Made for Protection of Pedestrians in Lisfennel

Residents of the Springmount/Clogherane road in Dungarvan are correct to demand speed restrictions and other traffic and pedestrian measures in their locality.

That's the view of Labour Party Councillor Fiachra Ó Céilleachair, who says footpaths, additional street lighting and the examination of safety options at Lisfennel Cloise estate must also be on the agenda.

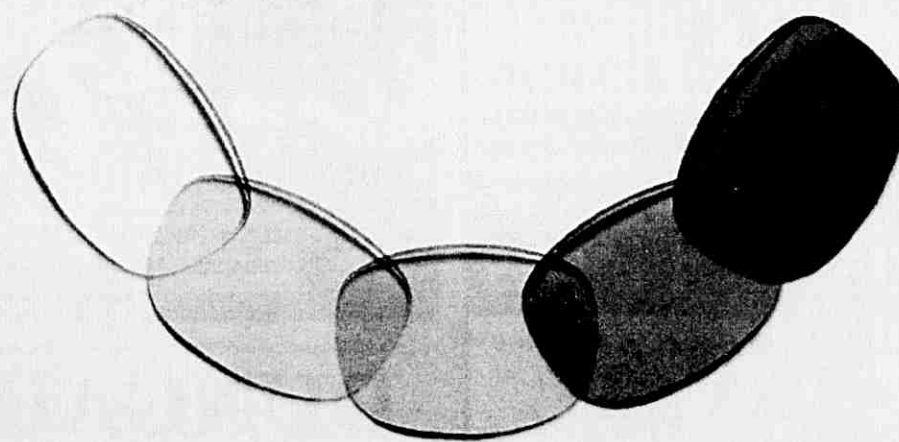

With the area in question straddling the jurisdictions of both Waterford County and Dungarvan Town Councils, Cllr. Ó Céilleachair has been making representations to both local authorities in an effort to address what he says are the ongoing concerns of local residents along the route that links the N25 by-pass to the Dungarvan GAA grounds at Clogherane.

Cllr. Ó Céilleachair says the Springmount/Clogherane road is set in a very residential area and that it is disappointing to hear from householders that some heavy traffic and other speeding vehicles are using the route as an alternative - particularly when points in the industrial estate can easily be accessed by a prominent link road from the by-pass.

Irrespective of alignment plans, Cllr. Ó Céilleachair says a range of traffic calming options and a footpath to serve the many pedestrians (including many of the town's children going to and from the GAA grounds) must come into play for the Clogherane/Springmount road, in the context of also making Lisfennel Cloise a safer residential environment to operate from.

Encouraging Children to Get Active...for Life!

Launch of Nationwide School's Sports Programme in association with SuperValu and the Irish Sports Council

Buntus – the Irish Sports Council's official Primary School's Sports Programme, proudly supported by SuperValu. The aim of the programme is to encourage children to actively participate in and enjoy support from a young age so as to maintain a healthier lifestyle.

In the wake of worrying statistics, which confirm that almost 20% of Irish children are now clinically overweight, this initiative which has the full backing of the Irish Government forms the basis of the primary schools sports curriculum.

Buntus provides comprehensive training for all teachers while studying the necessary sports equipment, teaching aids and support services for schools. The schools kit will also contain SuperValu nutritional leaflets which aim to teach children in a simple and engaging manner how healthy eating and an active lifestyle are equally important for their general health. A SuperValu Buntus video will also be included in each kit, for use with the curriculum. The supermarket group has in turn committed over 2 million euro to this project over a four year period.

Whilst some might argue that this level of obesity is linked to the advertising of high fat food, research has shown that the overall calorie intake of Irish people has not risen in the last 10 years. Therefore it would appear that it is an output problem, as in exercise rather than an input problem. The overall aim of the Buntus initiative is to foster Motor Skills development in children between the ages of 4-8 years and 'Games Interest' for children in the 8-14 age bracket. The programme also aims to promote an enjoyment of exercise in a supportive environment, as opposed to the more sedentary occupations they also enjoy, based around television and home computers.

Both teachers and parents are encouraged to get behind the SuperValu Buntus initiative, which is promoted by the Department of Education as well as the Department of Arts, Sports and Tourism. John Treacy, Chief Executive of the Irish Sports Council who have developed the programme says that 'Introducing children to sports at a young age leads to life long participation, with corresponding health benefits. Leading by example is also key! "If children see their parents regularly enjoying walking, exercising and sports activity they'll be encouraged to take part themselves. While busier lifestyles and work and home demands are putting pressure on many people the half hour a day allocated to gentle exercise will prove a great antidote to stress, while improving general health and well being".

Speaking at the launch, Ray Kelly, Marketing Director, SuperValu said "We're delighted to be involved in such an important initiative. With children obesity reaching unprecedented levels in Ireland, this is no longer something we can ignore, the Buntus initiative is a means of encouraging school children of all ages to lead a healthier lifestyle through sport, whilst equipping staff with the means to further promote this shift to a healthier lifestyle".

Interestingly, according to a new international report in two thirds of children in the US and key western European markets consider themselves to be 'healthy', despite considerable media coverage in recent years suggesting that children's health in many European countries is declining as a result of poor diet and lack of exercise. This report was compiled by TNS, one of the world's leading market information groups.

Buntus kits will be distributed, free of charge to over 3,500 Primary Schools in the Republic of Ireland between now and the end of the year. There are 180 locally owned SuperValu store throughout the Republic of Ireland. Local staff and owners will link to their local schools in promoting Buntus and encouraging the involvement of parents and children.

Local Toastmasters Excel

The members of West Waterford Toastmasters continue to impress from meeting to meeting. At the last meeting on June 3rd Paul Coolbear & Paddy Nolan continued to embrace the toastmaster programme with enthusiasm. Paddy ran a wide ranging & varied topics session which everyone enjoyed. Paul took the historic step of delivering his much anticipated stage 1 Icebreaker speech which added to the ambience of the meeting. The sense of fun & enjoyment that the new members bring to each meeting is very encouraging for the organisers of the new Club.

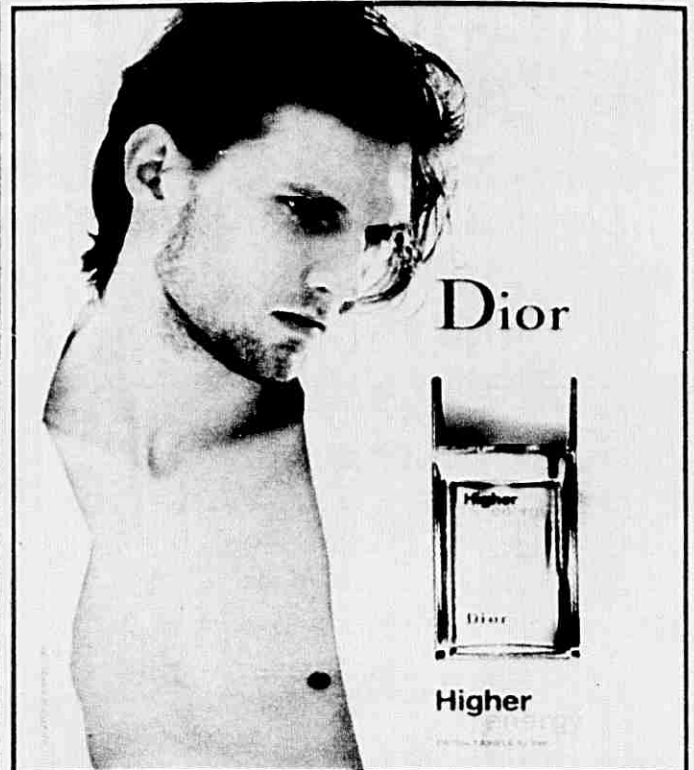

At the next meeting of West Waterford Toastmasters on this Thursday the 17th June the ice will be broken yet again as Jennifer Nolan will be giving her stage 1 Icebreaker speech. This is the first speech in the Communication & Leadership manual where members get to introduce themselves to the new club.

The members of the new Club continue to benefit from the support of the other clubs in the area who attend the meetings in Lismore on the 1st & 3rd Thursdays of the month. The valuable experience that the members of Clonmel, Dungarvan, Fermoy & Youghal toastmasters provide for the new Club is much appreciated by the new members in Lismore.

West Waterford Toastmasters Club is your Club. The Club was established so that the people of Lismore, Cappoquin, Tallow, Ballyduff & the greater catchment area of West Waterford can benefit from the Toastmaster Experience. Every Toastmaster meeting is your opportunity to make new friends & acquaintances, have a lot of fun & enjoy the traditional Irish craic & develop new skills in the process.

To best way to see how toastmasters' works is to attend a meeting. We would like to extend an open invitation to you to attend our next meeting as a guest this Thursday night - the 17th June at 8.15 p.m. in the Lismore Hotel, Lismore. Come along & enjoy the camaraderie & support of the members that will continue to help the West Waterford Toastmaster Club to go from strength to strength.

BILLIARDS

After weeks of top class competition we were treated to a tremendous game of Billiards in the final, which was played last Monday night. Pat Fitzgerald and Tony Wright (Jnr) battled it out over the extended distance. After being neck and neck and with the outcome in doubt a few errors and a bit of lady luck decided the game in favour of Pat Fitzgerald. Overall the tournament was very successful and well organised by the billiard room committee.

PROGRESSIVE 45

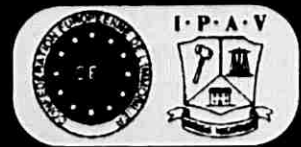

Last weeks winners were Mark Cummins and Dec Hourigan. Runners up were Joe Murray and Patsy O'Donnell. Lucky table winners were Fr. Cooney, John Nugent, Maisey Drohan and Onra Fennell. Cards continue every Thursday at 8.30 and all are welcome to come along.

ARIES
Mar 21 to April 20
You rarely complain but this week you have to when someone gets right up your nose. Stop brewing and start talking before you hit overload. Consider fundamental changes that you have put on the long finger. You will soon escape to a new world. From here on in things are likely to be plain sailing. Good ideas multiply and success breeds confidence. ☎ 1550-920-257

TAURUS
April 21 to May 21
Your nature means that you cannot help but respond to obligations and responsibilities but recently they have been getting you down. Enjoy a social week when you should make effort to make merry. Get an early start in work or you will find yourself under pressure. Keep on top of things and stick to your schedule. You are making headway. Someone is waiting to see what you will do next. ☎ 1550-920-258

GEMINI
May 22 to June 21
Don't lose heart in work or money matters. Things will pick up soon. In the meantime, be patient, a difficult thing to ask from an air sign! An arrangement may suit you now but what about in the future? Be slow to tie yourself to situations that may not agree with you in the long term. Think things through thoroughly. Your problems stem from trying to do too much in too little time. ☎ 1550-920-259

CANCER
Jun 22 to July 22
Someone is picking for a fight and you are right to have none of it. It takes two to tango but you have decided to sit this one out. Try to determine what you can do now that will contribute to achieving your goals. Something isn't lost, just mislaid. Don't panic and you are far more likely to see what is obvious and right under your nose. ☎ 1550-920-260

LEO
July 23 to Aug 22
No matter how tempted, don't just accept things for an easy life. Confrontation may be your only option if you have tried everything else. Spending now and thinking later could prove an unwise way of conducting your financial affairs. In work, business or important projects it is imperative to have a back up or contingency plan. Avoid putting all your eggs in one basket. ☎ 1550-920-261

VIRGO
Aug 23 to Sept 22
Some idea will lose steam over time so it is important to act sooner rather than later. You may not know yourself as well as you think. Be prepared to look in the mirror. You get the opportunity to get even this week but due to your character, are unlikely to take it. Commend yourself for not needing to lower yourself to the standards of others. ☎ 1550-920-262

LIBRA
Sep 23 to Oct 23
This is a time of interesting professional developments. Just when you thought you were stuck in the mud, it seems circumstances are set to change. Someone is so sweet, it is impossible to say "no" ... almost! Stick to your guns and don't apologise for doing what is right for you. It is too late to change plans. Face the unknown and study it until you know what is useful for you and what is not. ☎ 1550-920-263

SCORPIO
Oct 24 to Nov 21
Lacking objectivity? If you can't see straight perhaps you need a third party to throw some light. You should not ignore realities nor capitulate to them. Realities are facts and facts can be changed. It may be in your interest to let someone off the hook ... this time. If you draw the line, next time, ignorance can't be used as an excuse. ☎ 1550-920-264

SAGITTARIUS
Nov 22 to Dec 23
See the funny side of things this week and meet the strange with a smile. Remember, life is too important to be taken seriously. A family arrangement is finally agreed upon. When it comes to the practical side of life, you need a plan. Gather information and seek clarity. You have been bitten but you need to practice being twice shy. ☎ 1550-920-265

CAPRICORN
Dec 24 to Jan 20
Commit yourself to learning from past mistakes and be slow to repeat history. Sometimes you are too soft for your own good. Avoid putting yourself under pressure when decision making. Wait for someone's input. This week sees you fighting fit and at your best. Others will get as good as they give and that may include short shift. ☎ 1550-920-266

AQUARIUS
Jan 21 to Feb 19
Financially, you have changed your tune of recent times. In a material world, you will need to pay the ferryman. Progress may prove costly but worthwhile. Someone's hypothetical reasoning may actually give good indications of their intentions so listen carefully, even to whimsical daydreams. Finances are set to improve if you stick to that budget. ☎ 1550-920-267

PISCES
Feb 20 to March 20
You have to work, while others play. In the long term, circumstances will change dramatically. A family member needs your help rather than advice. Be prepared to show initiative even in situations that are not entirely your own. Someone has to get the ball rolling. At last your financial affairs are making sense and you are coming out of the woods. ☎ 1550-920-268

Dungarvan Leader Gardening

Features liven up your garden

YOU'VE seen all the TV gardening make-over programmes and now it's time to add a new lease of life to your own garden. But it's easier said than done if you aren't an experienced gardener, but here are a few ideas to get you in the mood.

■ Patios. Think about building a patio at the back of your house – it is an ideal place to relax with family and friends on those long summer evenings.

If the patio is raised this can give added dimension to your garden.

The careful selection of the right type of brick or paving stone can make all the difference to the look you want to achieve.

There is a patio to suit every garden, from crazy paving to geometrically designed patterns of red brick, so make sure that it blends in with your home and surroundings.

■ Barbecues. A popular garden feature is a solid brick barbecue – perfect for entertaining during the warmer months of the year. Make sure that it is in a good position before you fix it in place.

■ Paths. Make your garden a little more exciting with a path.

Be as creative as you dare, using a combination of colours and types of brick, block or paving stone, thinking all the time about blending in with the surroundings.

You could be daring and have a twisting winding path which circles your garden, or a opt for the more formal look with a straight path.

■ Borders. Build up your borders. Raised beds will give your garden more depth and make it easier for you to look after your plants.

■ Other features. Features are a simple and easy way to enhance the look of your garden and are often relatively easy to maintain.

Timber arches, walls, seat, benches and water-features are all becoming more popular all over the country and give an added focal point to the garden.

If you don't want to try anything too permanent. Test out the theory by buying a set of table and chairs which you can collapse and put away during the winter.

Added attractions: Garden furniture add an extra point of focus.

This week in the garden

Prune flower shrubs

Any shrubs that flowered during May or early June can be pruned, but this is not to say that pruning is always necessary. Much depends on the purpose for which the shrub is being grown and the amount of space that you can spare for it.

Take pink pipings

Now is the time to propagate pinks by cuttings. Select healthy looking, non-flowering shoots 10 to 13 cm long and pull them out at a joint.

This is known as taking a 'piping'. Insert these pipings firmly, 5 cm deep and about 10 cm apart each way, in sandy soil, preferably in a frame, but failing this in a shady border outdoors and keep well watered. They should be well rooted and ready for planting out by the end of September.

Sow French Beans

Make a sowing of French beans in a sheltered place outdoors. Sow the seeds singly about 15 cm apart in drills 5 cm deep. Plant two drills about 23 to 30 cm apart, then an alleyway about 75 cm wide, then another couple of rows and so on.

Stop cutting asparagus

It is most unwise to cut asparagus after the third week in June. Allow the plants to make foliage now so that new crowns may be formed for next year. Give the bed a small dressing of any good compound fertiliser.

Spray apples against Codling Moth

If in previous years grubs have been found feeding inside apples during July and August it is probable that the codling moth is responsible, and steps should be taken now to prevent further damage.

They can be controlled by placing pheromone traps containing a sheet of sticky paper in the trees.

The pheromone is the substance produced by female codling moths at mating time and it will attract males to their doom, leaving eggs unfertilised.

The second annual 'Tionól an tSamhraidh' (Summer Gathering) will take place in Dungarvan, Co Waterford the weekend of the 9-11th July 2004. Co-organised by Waterford County Council and Waterford Institute of Technology (WIT), 'Tionól an tSamhraidh' will consist of lectures, workshops and ancillary activities related to the Song Tradition of County Waterford. It is envisaged that Tionól an tSamhraidh will become an annual Irish cultural event in West Waterford, focusing on a different theme each year. Tá sé mar aidhm againn ócáid dá leithéid seo a eagrú go bliantúil chun cultúr, oidhreacht agus teanga Ghaelach Chontae Phort Láirge a cheiliúradh go poiblí.

Is é teideal Tionól na bliana seo ná "Ag Tógaint an Tinnis den Duine Bheadh Tréith Leis - Amhránaíocht na nDéise". Beidh aoi-chainteoirí oile ag tabhairt léachtanna uathu ar ghnéithe éagsúla den amhránaíocht go ginearálta agus ar amhránaíocht na nDéise ach go háirithe. Speakers for the weekend include: Lillis Ó Laoire, two-time winner of Corn Uí Riada, a lecturer in Irish in the University of Limerick and the University of Loyola Marymount in Los Angeles; Máirtín Mac Donnchadha, a singer and composer from Carraroe, working with Raidió na Gaeltachta in Maigh Eo; Éamonn Ó Bróithe, an Uilleann Piper and Singer from Dún Laoghaire originally, who got to know Pádraig and Nioclás Tóibín during his frequent visits to Ring and they inspired his love for the songs and Poetry of the Déise and Collette Moloney ó Ráth Luirc, Contae Chorcaí, a lecturer in Music in W.I.T. who has had two books published: The Irish Music Manuscripts of Edward Bunting (1770-1843): An Introduction and Catalogue and The Boss Murphy Musical Legacy.

Tionól an tSamhraidh will take place in the Civic Offices, The Park Hotel and The Old Market House Arts Centre, Dún Garbhán agus sé Liam Ó Maoilaotha, Stiúrthóir Oireachtas na Gaeilge a dhéanfaidh an oscailt oifigiúil sna hOifigí Cathartha ofche Dé hAoine. During Saturday there will be a series of very interesting and enjoyable workshops or ceardlanna with Áine Uí Fhoghlú, Áine Uí Cheallaigh and Sorcha Ní Chéilleachair. Beidh oíche chomóradh ar mhuintir Thóibín ó Rinn Ó gCuanach le hAnne Mulqueen mar Bhean a' Tí ar cheann de na himeachtaí atá á eagrú i rith na deireadh seachtaine.

Further information on Tionól an tSamhraidh, including a full programme, is available from Caitríona Breathnach, Oifigeach Forbartha Gaeilge, Comhairle Contae Phort Láirge on (058) 20884 or at msbreathnach@waterfordcoco.ie. As numbers are limited, those interested in attending Tionól an tSamhraidh are advised to book early.

WIT and Waterford County Council hope that Tionól an tSamhraidh will become a valuable and sought-after annual event that attracts, not only the people of the Déise, but a nationwide audience. Tá súil ag an dá eagraíocht go n-éireoidh go geal leis an dTionól i mí Iúil agus tá gach éinne ag súil le deireadh seachtaine thairbheach, thaitneamhach.

BEAKS, FEET AND EGGS

A bird does not have any teeth. It uses its beak for catching and cutting up its food. Birds' beaks are different shapes depending on what type of food they eat. Birds with long, thin bills use them for probing. Birds with short, strong beaks, such as finches, are usually nut eaters. Beaks that are flattened tend to be used for dabbling through mud. Birds of prey, such as the bald eagle, have strong, hooked beaks for tearing at flesh. Wading birds, such as the avocet have long beaks to probe mud on river beds and beaches. A hummingbird's long beak is ideal for reaching right into tube-shaped flowers. The toucan's colourful beak plays an important part in attracting a mate. The beak is about as long as the toucan's body, but it is not heavy because it is hollow.

COMING IN TO LAND

As it comes to land a bird spreads its tail feathers to act as an air break. It then stretches its legs forwards towards the ground or a perch. Once landed it closes its tail feathers to help it to balance.

EGGS LARGE AND SMALL

The ostrich lays the biggest egg of all. They are creamy white, measure about 20cm (8in) long, up to 15cm (6in) in diameter, and weigh about 1kg (2.2lb). If you wanted to boil one for breakfast it would take about 40 minutes to do.

The smallest bird is the bee hummingbird of South America. It measures just 57mm (2in) from the tip to its beak to the end of its tail - and half of that is the bill and the tail! Hummingbirds lay the smallest eggs, just 1cm (1/3in) long.

RECENT DEATHS

LATE BRIDGET MURPHY (NEE WHELAN)

It was with deep regret that we learned of the death of Bridget (Bid)dy Murphy of Mount Odell, Dungarvan, which sad event took place at Waterford Regional Hospital on 2nd June, 2004.

Bridget who was 82 years old, was a native of Ballymullalla, Cappagh. During her life she lived in Dublin and Arklow but settled in Carriglea where she spent many happy years with her late husband Jimmy who predeceased her by 13 years. She was a wonderful homemaker and lived for her family. She was a loving and devoted mother. She also loved her grandchildren and was proud of all their achievements.

Bridget was a lady of strong faith, she loved the Mass and attended Saturday evening Mass every week up to her recent stay in hospital. She loved her garden and had a knack of getting plants to grow which would have failed in the hands of others. She also enjoyed Irish music and dancing and was a supporter of the Brickey Rangers GAA Club.

She was also a great friend and neighbour and welcomed visits from all those who called to see her. She was a valued member of Glenbeg I.C.A. and over the years she enjoyed the fruits of the various craft classes which she attended.

Rosary was recited at the Kiely Funeral Home on Wednesday, 2nd June, led by V. Rev. Fr. M. J. Ryan. Removal of the remains took place on Thursday, 3rd to St. Mary's Parish Church where they were received by Canon O'Connor. A guard of honour was provided by members of Glenbeg I.C.A.

Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. Jim Griffin on Friday morning assisted by Canon O'Connor and Fr. P. Moran P.P., St. Mary's, Clonmel (close friend and neighbour).

Requiem Mass was celebrated by Fr. Jim Griffin on Friday morning, assisted by Canon O'Connor and Fr. P. Moran. Readings were by David McCarthy and Conor McGrath (grandsons). Prayers of the Faithful were read by Aisling and Niamh McGrath, Lorraine McCarthy (granddaughters) and Colleen and Dearbhla Whelan (grandnieces).

Offertory gifts of brown bread and a tapestry picture representing her home-making and craft skills were brought to the altar by her daughters Mary and Rose. Her friend Alice Condon carried a red rose and the bread and wine were carried by Joan Whelan and Mary Quinlan. Fergus Kavanagh explained the significance of the gifts as they were carried to the altar. Lorna-Jane Murray sang beautifully during the Mass.

A huge crowd then followed the funeral procession from St. Mary's Parish Church to the Old Grave yard where interment took place. Fr. O'Mahoney and Fr. O'Riordan and Canon O'Connor P.E. were also in attendance.

The chief mourners were Mary and Rose (daughters) sons-in-law Jim McGrath and Laurence McCarthy, brother Richard Whelan, sister Maggie Dunford, brother-in-law Cha Dunford, sisters-in-law Joan Whelan and Monica Farrell, grandchildren, nephews, nieces and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors).

VERY REV. THOMAS (JED) MCCARTHY

It is with feelings of deep regret we record the passing of Very Rev. Fr. Thomas (Jed) McCarthy, Modeligo and Rockhampton, Australia, which sad event occurred on 29th May at St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan.

Fr. Thomas McCarthy was born at Ballyhane, Cappoquin on 15th Jan. 1916. He attended the Mount Melleray Seminary from 1929-1935 and All Hallows College from 1935 - 1939. Fr. McCarthy was ordained on 25th June 1939 at All Hallows College. He arrived in the Diocese of Rockhampton on 13th Jan. 1940 and began priestly ministry at St. Mary's Parish, North Rockhampton on 21st Feb. 1940, as Assistant Priest. Fr. McCarthy served as Administrator at the Parishes of Marian, Farleigh and Capella and was Parish Priest of Springsure, West Rockhampton, Mt. Morgan and Marian. In his retirement he lived in West Mackay and later he returned to his homeland, where he spent the last five years.

Fr. Tom had a deep love for the priesthood and lived it to the full. He will always be loved and appreciated for the pastoral care he gave to so many people throughout the Diocese.

On Sunday evening removal took place from St. Joseph's Hospital Chapel, Dungarvan to the Church of Our Lady of Assumption, Modeligo, where Most Rev. William Lee, D.D. Bishop of Waterford and Lismore and many priests received his remains. Fr. Brendan Crowley, P.P., Newtown and Kill (nephew) was the chief cocelebrant of the funeral Mass on Monday, Dinah Walsh provided the music and singing. Fr. Tom was interred in the adjoining cemetery in his family's grave.

Readings were by Tony McCarthy (nephew) and David McCarthy (nephew). Prayers of the Faithful were recited by Sr. Rosemary McCarthy (niece), Denis McCarthy (nephew), Tom Crowley (nephew), Anthony Prendergast (nephew), Marie Rooney (niece), Gerry Crowley (nephew), Eileen Prendergast, niece, read the Communion Reflection.

Chief mourners were sister-in-law, Josephine McCarthy, brother-in-law Johnny Prendergast, nieces, nephews, cousins and a large circle of relations and friends, especially his many friends in St. Joseph's Hospital, Dungarvan.

(Funeral arrangements by Aidan Walsh & Sons, Funeral Directors, Cappoquin).

LATE TOM RYAN

It is with profound sorrow and deep regret that we record the death of Tom Ryan of Cooneen, Aghlish, Cappoquin, Co. Waterford on Thursday, June 3rd in his 78th year. Tom was born in Cooneen and lived there all his life. Tom was predeceased by wife Mary (nee Twomey) who passed away in 1990.

Tom was a man of boundless energy and extreme intelligence who had many interests. He was a dedicated and skilled farmer and a keen lover of animals. He almost never missed a mart in Dungarvan, and indeed travelled to many other marts in the vicinity. He possessed the skill of being able to assess a farm animal from a quick glance. He looked after his animals very well and took great pride in seeing them thrive. Throughout his life, he always had a dog who was always to be found by his side.

He was educated in Aghlish and in the Christian Brothers, Lismore, and he was a keen sportsman. He played hurling with the Geraldine's, and took up the game of golf in his late forties. He excelled at this game, and won many prizes. He once qualified for the Irish Open pro-am in Portmarnock, where he showed the professionals a thing or two. He also enjoyed playing cards, and played bridge for a long number of years in the Dungarvan and Lismore Bridge Clubs.

He followed lots of other sports, but his main sporting interest was horse racing, especially national hunt horse racing. Tom's knowledge of horses was immense, and he was a very disciplined punter. He used his judgement and knowledge to great effect. He never got carried away and always betted small amounts of money, because his main motive was the fun and excitement that the sport provided. He usually made a profit from his bets, and it is very few punters that one can genuinely say that about. He had a particular talent for picking a long-priced winner.

On the day he passed away, Tom's remains were transferred from the Bons Secours Hospital, Cork to Walsh's Funeral Home, Cappoquin. On Friday, the rosary was recited by Sr. Anne and Fr. John Kiely recited prayers. Then, the removal took place to the Church of the Assumption, Aghlish where his remains were received and blessed by Fr. Lucey P.P. Requiem Mass on Saturday was celebrated by Fr. Byrne P.P., a good friend of Tom's, who delivered a sincere yet entertaining homily, and concelebrated by Fr. Lucey. The lessons were read by Helen Ryan and Marella Twomey. Prayers of the Faithful were recited by Vincent Ryan, Niamh Ryan, Cian Ryan and Cliona Ryan. The gifts were brought to the altar by Billy Hallahan and Mort Kelleher. Mary Dee provided music. After prayers at the graveside, Tom was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

The chief mourners were his son Vincent, daughter Eleanor, son-in-law Philip, daughter-in-law Helen, grandchildren Niamh, Cian, Cliona and Eoin, brothers-in-law, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by Aidan Walsh & Sons, Funeral Directors, Cappoquin).

LATE BRIDGET MAHER

It is with great sadness we record the passing of Bridget Maher (nee Fleming), Curraghroche, Villierstown, Cappoquin, Co. Waterford at Mowlam Nursing Home, Waterford on the 30th May in her 88th year. She was predeceased by her husband James 33 years ago.

A native of Curraghroche, Bridget was involved in the I.C.A. and the Macra na Feirme in the Technical School in Ballinameela, also helping with the catering at the Dungarvan Show for many years. She also did a lot of knitting for charity. She possessed many fine qualities and was held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

A devoted wife and loving mother, her family were her priority and her door was always open to family and friends.

Reposing at Walsh's Funeral Home, Cappoquin on Sunday the rosary was recited by Sr. Ann and Sr. De Lourdes. On Monday evening Fr. Butler recited rosary and prayers. The removal then took place to St. James' Church, Ballinameela where her remains were received and blessed by Fr. Butler and Fr. Kiely. Hymns were sung by Ballinameela Choir.

At the requiem Mass on Tuesday the lessons were read by Lorraine Hackett and Alex Maher, grandchildren and Stephen O'Connell, great grandchild.

Prayers of the Faithful were recited by Breda O'Connell, Jenny Barlow, Michael John Maher and Linda Foley, grandchildren and Gina Foley, great grandchild and Mary Fraher, niece. The gifts were brought to the altar by Natasha Maher and Colin Power, grandchildren and Danielle Hackett, Nicole Maher, Cherene Foley and Kristine O'Connell, great grandchildren.

Hymns were sung by Mairead Cullinane, Aine Byrnes and Paddy O'Brien. After prayers at the graveside recited by Fr. Butler and Fr. Lucey she was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

She is survived by her brother Mick, sons John Joe, Laurence, Noel and James, daughters Anne and Marion, sister-in-law Betty, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grandchildren, great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

Funeral arrangements were by Aidan Walsh and Sons, Cappoquin.

Fianna Fail Count Cost After Disastrous Showing

County Council in an outstanding performance.

"I always felt since I started campaigning ten weeks ago that things were going well for me, and I was very confident of taking a seat," he said.

"But I was overwhelmed with the actual vote that I got in town - almost two quotas. I was absolutely delighted that we managed to hold onto our two seats on the Town Council and for me to go on and gain a seat on the county council."

COMFORTABLE

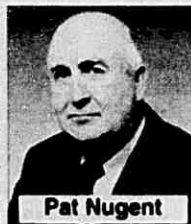

His first count of 776 mainly came from the urban area, though he picked up over one hundred more votes in the hinterlands.

"It was quite comfortable at the finish - I couldn't have predicted at the outset that it would be comfortable. But, I always felt, I would take it."

Damien Geoghegan had an opportunity to take the seat vacated in November by Deputy John Deasy, but turned it down, opting instead to face the electorate. Cllr. Geoghegan says he always felt this option would give the party the best chance to claim three seats.

While Fine Gael achieved this, there was disappointment for Geraldine Veale who was unable to hold onto the seat she was co-opted to.

Instead, it was newcomer to the political limelight, Pat Nugent - a former Glanbia employee and standing for election for the first-time - who polled extremely well; he received 656 first preferences and took the third Fine Gael seat.

Pat Nugent

NAIL-BITING FINISH

The count continued until 2am on Sunday morning resulting in a nail-biting finish for the two Labour candidates, Teresa Wright and Fiachra O Ceilleachair who were locked together on 844 votes apiece after the 14th count. However, with the distribution of Cllr. Geoghegan's surplus of 46 on the 15th count, Cllr. Wright edged eight votes clear of her fellow party candidate. Cllr. O Ceilleachair called a recount - resulting in the count being adjourned, and resuming again on Sunday afternoon.

Upon resumption, a number of slight changes were made, but in the end, Cllr. Wright's ability to attract transfers across the political divide was the decisive factor that helped her secure a county council seat - four votes ahead of Cllr. O Ceilleachair.

NORA FLYNN TRIUMPHS

Lismore Electoral Area

Fine Gael's strong showing was also visibly evident in the Lismore Electoral

Nora Flynn

Area, where Cappoquin publican Nora Flynn took a massive 1,012 first preferences - more than fifty ahead of nearest rival James Tobin.

Her performance proved a vindication for Flynn following the reversal she suffered at the hands of her near neighbour, Cathy McGrath, when the local party machine choose McGrath over her at the party's first selection convention.

However, all that was a distant memory for Flynn as she was hoisted onto the shoulders of delighted supporters after her comfortable election on the third count.

"It's history now," she said on Monday about the party snub. "It's water under the bridge."

She added that: "We were hoping for two seats in Lismore. And to hold those two seats and for me to top the poll - its just out of this world. It's just sinking in now."

DOOCEY SECURES SECOND SEAT

Fianna Fail's hopes of capitalising on the perceived troubles within the Fine Gael camp by taking three of the four seats in the Lismore Electoral Area were quickly dashed.

Tallow's James Tobin polled strongly with a first preference of 851, but there was disappointment - and for a time some concern - within the Wilkinson camp after his first count of 827 was well down on his father, Ollie Wilkinson's, result at the last election.

James Tobin

Bernard Leddy, who celebrated his poll-topping retention of his Lismore Town Council seat hours earlier, was edged out by Declan Doocey (FG) who attracted enough transfers from Cathy McGrath to take a seat on the sixth count.

SINN FEIN MAKE BREAKTHROUGH

Dungarvan Town Council Earlier, Sinn Fein had the first success of the day in Dungarvan Town Council with Brendan Mansfield securing a seat on the seventh count. Mansfield was lifted onto his supporters shoulders, and punched the air in delight at his history making achievement.

But, for the Dungarvan based architect, Damien Dillon - who joined Fianna Fail shortly before the election - the writing was on the wall early on.

Dillon made a brief appearance at the count early on Saturday, but the tallies - confirmed by the first count - put him out of the running for the final shake-up.

FINAL SHAKE-UP

That final shake-up was instead to involve two of his party colleagues, Ann Marie Rossiter - the Chamber of Commerce president - and Nuala Ryan as well as three Labour Councillors - Fiachra O Ceilleachair, Paddy Power and Lar Hart - who fought it out for the last three seats.

Upon elimination, and with Fred Forsey of Fine Gael poised one vote from the quota to take the fifth seat behind Teresa Wright, Hart - just two votes behind Paddy Power - called for a recount.

However, on the following morning, Hart withdrew his request and the count resumed - with the three remaining seats filled by Ryan, Rossiter and O Ceilleachair.

The result saw a long-serving councillor and the outgoing Mayor of Dungarvan, Paddy Power and his colleague Lar Hart lose their seats - a result greeted with dismay by the Labour camp.

LABOUR DISAPPOINTMENT

Cllr. Billy Kyne, who took the second seat behind Geoghegan, said that while he was delighted to retain his seats on both council's "in what was a very demanding and difficult election campaign" this was "overshadowed" by the loss of Cllr. Lar Hart's and Cllr. Paddy Power's seats on the Town Council.

Fred Forsey

Ann Marie Rossiter

Billy Kyne

He said he was particularly saddened considering they were so close to retaining their seats and bearing in mind their years of public service to the citizens of the town and their friendship and assistance to him over many years.

"Obviously Cllr. O Ceilleachair's loss of his council seat is a major disappointment to him and to the party locally and nationally. I know that all these losses impact on the candidates and their families equally, but, over time, people will move on."

WRIGHT'S PERFORMANCE

He said Labour's achievement in winning three seats on the Town Council is still a significant one.

"I believe we never got the national recognition we deserved when we had four seats and we are unlikely to get recognition nationally from the party now that we have three."

However, he said: "I look forward to working on both local authorities for the people of all the area. There are many issues outstanding and new ones identified, and I look forward to working in partnership with Cllr. Teresa Wright on Waterford County Council to maximise our efforts and to try to create a new dimension on how we do business on behalf of our collective constituents."

"Teresa Wright's electoral performance on winning seats on both councils, and drawing an unprecedented number of transfers across the political divide was a major achievement and must be the highlight of the election campaign in County Waterford for the Labour party," he said.

LEDDY'S SUCCESS IN LISMORE

Lismore Town Council In Lismore, Fianna Fail's Bernard Leddy was elected with over double the quota of 77 with an impressive vote of 166

Bernard Leddy

- one of only two Fianna Fail candidates to top a local authority poll in the county.

In a repeat of the 1999 elections he was followed by Jimmy O'Gorman also of Fianna Fail. They were joined in the third and sixth counts respectively by party colleagues Peter Aherne and Helen O'Sullivan - who retained the seat she was co-opted to last year.

Fine Gael will be the second largest party with three seats; John Heneghan was elected on the sixth count; newcomer Orla Russell - who edged out Fianna Fail's Ann Marie Coughlan - and David Whelan.

Outgoing Mayor of Lismore, Mark Khan, secured a seat on the second count for Labour, while the Independent, John Campion took a seat on the fifth completing the lineup.

Mark Khan

GREENE OUTPOLLS O'RIAIN

In other areas around the county, Rathgormack teacher, Mary Greene topped the poll in the Suir electoral area ahead of the outgoing Mayor of County Waterford, Ciaran O Riain (FF). Portlaoise based, Paudie Coffey of Fine Gael took the third seat of the three-seater.

In Kilmacthomas - another three seater - Independent Roisin O'Shea failed in her election bid, but her vote in Stradbally may have stymied the chances of Tom Cunningham who lost his seat.

Mary Greene

Again it was another Fine Gael candidate, Liam Brazil, who topped the poll. Kilmac' based Ger Barron took the second seat for Labour followed by Pat Leahy of Fianna Fail.

Meanwhile, County Waterford was emphatically in favour of altering the constitutional right of all Irish born children to claim citizenship. Just under 80% of the electorate voted yes while around 19% voted against.

THE NEW COUNCIL

The incoming members of Waterford County Council are as follows:

FINE GAEL (11): Tom Higgins; Damien Geoghegan; Pat Nugent; Liam Brazil; Nora Flynn; Declan Doocey; Mary Greene; Paudie Coffey; John Carey; Anne Marie Power; Lolla O'Sullivan

FIANNA FAIL (7): Tom Cronin; Pat Leahy; James Tobin; Kevin Wilkinson; Kieran O'Ryan; Pat Daly; Dan Cowman

LABOUR (4): Billy Kyne; Teresa Wright; Ger Barron; Paddy O'Callaghan

SINN FEIN (1): Brendan Mansfield.

Multi-Million Hotel Development Granted Permission

HOTEL AND HOLIDAY HOME DEVELOPMENT FOR BALLINACOURTY

KEVIN KIRRANE

Controversial plans for a hotel and holiday home development at Kilgrovan in Ballinacourty was granted planning permission by Waterford County Council on Thursday last.

The permission paved the way for the multi-million euro 4 star hotel and 90 holiday "cottage" proposal to go-ahead subject to a number of conditions.

The development, proposed by Greenburch Ltd, was a source of contention and a number of objections from a local group and a number of residents forced developers to re-think the developments density.

The developers have twice reduced the density with the number of cottages sixty less than was the case when it was first proposed.

Waterford County Council has also sought the reduction in the density with one of the twenty-four conditions reducing the density by a further twenty six homes.

Its expected that at least some residents and groups who opposed the development will take opportunity to appeal the decision to An Bord Pleanala within the four-week time-period allowed.

Planning permission also includes a three-storey "Spa" hotel consisting of 80 bedrooms, two suites, 39 apartments, bar, restaurants, conference centre and all ancillary hotel facilities.

The hotel will also include sea water 'thalassa' swimming pools, treatment rooms and three tennis courts while a 450 car-park will be provided on site.

In its conditions the planning authority also ordered the developer to facilitate the council with access to the lands for the construction of a public car park.

They also ordered that a children's playground be provided and that a development contribution of over half a million be made and an archaeological pre-development testing of the site must also be carried out.

Developers say the multi-million euro development could create just under one hundred jobs once its up-and-running.

ARD SCOIL NEWS

Once again we come to the end of another school year. We wish all the best to our Leaving Cert. and Junior Cert. students who are sitting their exams at this time.

TY GRADUATION NIGHT

On Tuesday night, the TY students had their graduation ceremony. They were rewarded for their very busy year with certificates for First Aid, Communications, Self Defence, ECDL, Food Hygiene, Manual Handling, Dear Hector and Marketing. Mr. Fred Forsey presented the certificates for their driving skills and those who earned the Gaisce award were presented with their bronze medals by Mrs. Radley and Sr. Ena. Following the presentations, we were entertained by the choir and Mrs. O'Donovan's dance group and then parents and students joined staff for refreshments baked by the girls and catered by the Parents Council. Once again, Mrs. Stack had organised a very successful Transition Year.

End of Year

Third Year students had Mass with their tutors and year head, Mrs. O'Donovan. On their last day, French students started the morning with a petit dejeuner francais - chocolat chaud and croissants were a tasty start to the day.

Second Years also ended their year with Year Head, Mrs. O'Driscoll and their tutors with a Mass and party as did Fifth Years who enjoyed a coffee morning interlude with Mrs. Dennehy and tutors.

To all who sent Mass cards, letters and cards of sympathy and all who travelled to be with us at such a sad time in our lives. We will be forever grateful.

Friendship is a golden chain,
The links are friends so dear,
And like a rare and precious jewel,
It's treasured more each year,
It's clasped together firmly,
With love that's deep and true,
And it's rich with happy memories,
And fond recollections too,
Time can't destroy it's beauty,
For as long as memory lives,
Years can't erase the pleasures,
That the joy of friendship gives,
But to have an understanding friend,
Is worth far more than gold.

The holy Sacrifice of Mass will be offered for all your intentions. Anniversary Mass at 10 am on Friday, 2nd July in Abbeyside Church.

NOVENAS

NOVENA TO SACRED HEART

Dear Heart of Jesus, in the past I have asked you for many favours. This time I ask for this special one (mention favour). Take it, dear Heart of Jesus and place it within your own broken heart, where your Father sees it. Then, in his merciful eyes, it will become your prayer, not mine. Amen. Say this prayer for three days, promise publication and favour will be granted. Never known to fail — L.W.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. — M.

VILLIERSTOWN SCHOOL REUNION

Over four hundred guests turned up on the June Bank Holiday weekend in the beautiful village of Villierstown to celebrate our school reunion. It was like a gathering of the clans, they came from Australia, England, all parts of Ireland and everyone from the village. We were blessed with beautiful weather over the two days. Many a tear was shed as old friends greeted and hugged each other and a lot of reminiscing was done down memory lane. We commenced with Mass at 8:30pm celebrated by Fr. Lucey, Fr. Butler and Fr. Fitzgerald. The lessons were read by Johnny O'Brien and Marion Bailey. Prayers of the faithful were recited by Marie Keane and Billy Dalton. The offertory gifts were brought to the altar by Christy Morrissey and Grainne Mernin the bread and wine, Eily Mason a piece of linen to symbolise the beginning of Villierstown as a linen industry, George Hennessy the school register a reminder of all the pupils who passed through its doors, Villierstown has always been associated with the river Blackwater and Michael Mernin took to the altar a fishing net, great sportsman came from the village and James Ronayne took up a G.A.A. jersey and a photo of twice world cross country champion John Tracey. The music during the offertory was played by Pat Bailey on the flute and as he played there was not a dry eye in the church, it was really beautiful.

After communion a talk on the school was given by Thomas Morrissey. The lovely hymns during Mass was rendered by Olivia Morrissey and Sinead Ronayne. After Mass everyone stepped outside for a few minutes so we could lay out the tables and they then came through the marquee for a buffet and what a feast it was, expertly prepared by Carmel Bailey and colleagues. There was all kinds of meats, sauces, salads and desserts you would not see the likes of it in a five star hotel. The entertainment on stage was by the popular Sliabh gCua Ramblers and Paddy Joe and his gang were terrific. During the night presentations were made to some of the long serving teacher, Mrs. Scanlan, Mrs. Clancy, Patrick McGrath and the principal Mrs. Cunningham who also gave a talk on the present school.

Unfortunately Miss McGrath was unable to attend due to ill health. A presentation was also made to John Tracey and his father Jack who is the oldest past pupil living in the village. Mr. Jim Joe Landers was M.C. for the night. The hall was beautifully decorated and we had lots of old photos around it and we thank PJ Guiry for preparing them. The birds were singing as we left to go home in the morning and everyone took with them great memories of our school reunion. On Sunday afternoon those of us who did not go to the match watched it on a large screen in the Community Hall and the roof was raised as the final whistle went, well done to the boys in blue! On Sunday night we had music on the street and we gave out food to the returning supporters and the singing and dancing went on until the following day. The Villierstown school reunion will be talked about for years to come as it was one of the best weekends seen in the village. I would like to thank all our sponsors, the people who prepared the food on both days, those who prepared the village and hall especially Christy Morrissey, James Ronayne and George Horsom. I was lucky to be working with such a great committee George Hennessy, Michael Mernin, Jim Joe Landers, Grainne Mernin, Eily Mason, Tony Morrissey, Marie Keane, Carmel Bailey, Thomas Morrissey. We will have videos on sale of the reunion and they can be ordered by ringing Nora at 54018.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Mrs. Nora Flynn, Main Street, Cappoquin on topping the polls in the local elections and getting re-elected on the third count. Commiserations to Mrs Cathy McGrath, Crinnaughten.

CLONMEL TOWN BROUGHT TO A STAND STILL

Some six thousand people marching in Clonmel on Saturday, 5th June brought the place to a standstill, as they marched through the town centre to demand the opening of the new wing at South Tipperary General Hospital. The state-of-the-art new facilities which cost 30 million euro to build include wards, operating theatres, and an intensive care unit. All those have been completed since March '03, but lie idle because the Government has not sanctioned an annual two million euro to pay staffing. Banna Chluain Meala led the huge crowd of people of all ages from Irishtown to the main guard where speeches were given by Dr. Paud O'Regan, G.P., Dr. Mike Quirke and Lily Carey who spoke on behalf of the patients at the hospital. The Mayor of Clonmel Ald Phil Prendergast, said the huge crowd had spoken with their feet. It was clear the people of South Tipperary no longer wanted hospital services divided between Clonmel and Cashel. Dr. O'Regan welcomed the great turnout. This was a serious situation, as everyone was well aware. The division of the acute hospital services passed a major risk for all of us. No-one at the march knew the day or the hour when they might get sick and they all had family members who had been sick. If somebody developed complications, they were at great risk from the divided hospital services.

Late Kathleen White

It was with deep and sincere regret the district learned of the death of Mrs. Kathleen White (nee Cox), Ardfatima, Clonmel which sad event occurred suddenly.

Deceased kind hearted, good natured, family orientated, those were just a few of the complimentary terms used to describe her. A family devastated by her sudden departure, could no doubt, add many more as they try to pick up the pieces and cope with the loss of a loving mother whose unexpected death has left them with aching voids in their hearts.

She was daughter of William and Ellen Cox (nee Hickey), Clonmore, Co. Offaly, one of five children. After finishing school she took up employment with Maurice O'Connell, Engineer in Edenderry, Co. Offaly and when he moved to Clonmel in 1951, she moved too with his family, in order to settle them in, as she used to put it. Staying on in Clonmel a place she loved, she was subsequently employed by former County Manager Pdraig De Buitteir in Silversprings.

While working for him, she met Joe White, son of Jack and Mary White of Griffith Avenue. Jim was employed with Clonmel Corporation and collected the refuse in the Silversprings area. They married in 1954 and they resided for a number of years in Gortnafleur where two of their children were born. Moving to the new housing estate in Ardfatima where they eventually had five more children. Kathleen worked in a variety of jobs in Clonmel over the years Ormonde Hotel, Clonmel Laundry and Hotel Minella, after that she took up a job in 1975 at St. Luke's Hospital where she remained until she retired in 1990.

Reminiscing about their childhood memories, her daughters said they had the happiest memories of their mothers who looked after them with such care, tending cheerfully to their every need.

Constantly sewing and knitting for them, her daughter Eileen said she even made her wedding dress and also the bridesmaid dresses. More than anything the family are left with abiding memories of their mothers great nature manifested not along, in so many ways, in the home, but also in acts of kindness towards her neighbours and friends especially in times of sickness. Kathleen, too, was blessed with good neighbours like Eileen Kennedy and Jocie Maunsell, with whom she moved into the estate nigh on half a century ago. Amongst a coterie of friends were Nellie Fahey of Kilganey and Kitty O'Donnell of Lisronagh whom she met when she arrived in Clonmel all those years ago. Kitty and Kathleen recalled that they were married on the same day in St. John the Baptist Parish Church, Powerstown.

Noted for her generosity of spirit, she regularly visited the sick and she had a friend in St. Lukes whom she went to see frequently over the years. A much travelled lady, she has been to such far flung places as America and Abu Dhabi visiting nieces and nephews and her son John who is now in Iraq.

Kathleen was cool, calm and collected according to her family, who said she was a good person to have around in time of crisis. An independent and active woman, her favourite mode of transport was her bicycle, which she cycled on and up to a year ago. She was very popular and had a fine singing voice, her party piece being "The Cliffs of Doonee", and she loved the game of cards, her death sadly coming unexpectedly at home recently the night after an enjoyable game with friends in Marfield.

Her remains were removed to St. Mary's Parish Church, Irishtown where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Robert Power C.C., St. Mary's and Rev. Fr. Partholan O'Leary C.C., St. Oliver's, Clonmel. On the following morning requiem Mass was celebrated for the happy repose of her soul, the celebrant was Rev. Fr. Robert Power C.C., St. Mary's assisted by Rev. Fr. Partholan O'Leary C.C. After Mass the funeral took place to St. Patrick's Cemetery, Clonmel where she was laid to rest. Fr. O'Leary officiated at the graveside.

To her sons, daughters, brothers, sisters and her many relatives we extend our sympathy.

Leaba I measc na Naomh go raibh aige.

Lismore Golf Club We travelled to Waterford Castle Golf Club to take part in the Jimmy Bruen competition last Saturday.

We had a mixture of youth and experience in our team, but were unlucky not to qualify for the matchplay stage.

We were paired out against a very experienced Youghal team who also lost out by a single point. We wish to thank all the panel and team for their time and co-operation over the last couple of weeks.

We wish our mixed team the best of luck next Saturday in Carrick on Suir.

Many thanks to Waterford Castle Golf Club for their hospitality and to Youghal for a very sporting match.

Lady Captain's Prize a Great Success

A great day was had by all last Saturday as our Lady Captain's Prize was held in glorious sunshine. Well done to all who contributed over the course of the day and evening. Particular congratulations to the winner Anne Bennett and all of the prizewinners. Special mention for our Lady Captain who kindly sponsored a gent's 9-hole competition on Saturday evening. The winner was the ever-young Christy Hanrahan (17) with a fine score of 21 Pts, including a great finish with 3 pars at the last 3 holes. In second place was Paddy O'Leary (9) with 18 Pts piping a host of players by the narrowest of margins. On Sunday the good scoring continued in our 18-Hole competition sponsored by Kevin Walsh Isuzu Motors, with the in form Patsy Heaphy (12) clinching top spot with 40 Pts, beating Corkman Martin O'Driscoll (15) due to a superior back nine. Third place went to Bill Ahern (15) with 39 Pts, Bill's 21 points on the back nine just secured his prize from Sean Buckley & Billy Arrigan.

FLOWER FESTIVAL IN LISMORE CATHEDRAL

Next weekend St. Carthage's Cathedral in Lismore will be the centre of a magnificent Flower Festival. The whole cathedral will be decorated with flowers and the idea is that every decoration represents a Saint. The preparations have gone on for quite a while now, co-ordinated by Gwen Roe and many have accepted the challenge to contribute with their own floral creation.

The festival coincides with the Immrama Festival in Lismore and will start Friday at 2 p.m. The Cathedral will also be open on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and on Sunday from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. There will be plant and produce stalls, organised by Sally Perceval Maxwell and light refreshments will be available, supervised by Connie Dowd.

During the Festival, Cathedral organist Jan van Putten will present three short recitals of organ music, featuring music focusing on flowers, gardens and nature in general. Throughout the centuries composers have been inspired by living nature - the programme will contain music by Martin Peerson (The Primerose) and Girolamo Frescobaldi from (Flori Musicali) who were born in the 16th century but also a very recent composition called The Secret Rose by Eric Sweeney, Organist and Choirmaster of Christ Church Cathedral in Waterford. The organ recitals take place on Saturday at 3 p.m. and 4.30 p.m. and on Sunday at 4.00 p.m.

There will also be an abundance of music during the religious services on Sunday. In the morning service, beginning at 11.30, St. Carthage's singers will contribute with the communion service by Charles Villiers Stanford in B flat and with John Rutters delightful "For the Beauty of the Earth". There will be a special closing service at 5 p.m., this service will offer an opportunity to hear the Cathedral Junior Choir, a group of young singers expertly trained by Cindy O'Shea.

Apart from celebrating the many joys of nature, this Festival of Saints and Flowers aims at raising funds for the restoration of the Cathedral gates. At present, with the involvement of an heritage architect, a major review of the condition of the cathedral is being undertaken. The first results are now encouraging. Not only the condition of the gates, leaves much to be desired, but even worse, the steeple contains loose elements causing the risk of stones falling down. That is the reason why some weeks ago part of the Cathedral grounds and of the inside of the Cathedral have been closed to the public. Once the review is concluded more costly reparations will be needed. For this reason a (low) admission fee will be charged to visitors to the Festival. Adults are expected to pay 3 euro and families 5 euro. Admission of children is free when accompanied by an adult.

This Flower Festival will contribute tremendously to all celebrations that will take place in Lismore during the weekend. Everyone is warmly invited to pay a visit to the Cathedral, it will be very rewarding. It goes without saying that no fee will be charged for attendance of the religious services. Everyone is very welcome, there will be a lot to enjoy!

Stradbally News

CHURCH NEWS Sympathy

The death took place of Kathleen Crunden (nee O'Keeffe) in England on Wednesday June 9th the same day when Mass was said in Holy Cross Church, Stradbally for the anniversary of her mother Helena O'Keeffe, late of Knockrour. Sincere sympathy is extended to her sister Mary Quinn of Leamybrien/Kilmacthomas and the extended O'Keeffe family of Knockrour. The death took place in Devon, England on Tuesday, 8th June of Bernie Bolsom (nee Murray), late of the Pike and sincere sympathy is extended to her husband Roger and daughters, also to Bernie's sister Mary Power of Carrigcastle and her brother Jim Murray of Ballyvoile.

WEDDING

The honour of being the first couple to marry in Sacred Heart, Faha after the bi-centenary celebrations fell to Mary Elaine Casey, daughter of Pierce and Mary Casey, Faha Bridge and Arthur O'Riordan of Limerick. The ceremony with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing was performed by Fr. John Kiely, cousin of the bride, Fr. Michael Enright and Fr. Gary Bluett, Limerick. The bestman was Darragh O'Riordan and the groomsmen were Joe Shea while the bridesmaids were Aoife Casey and Johanna Doyle. The readers were Alan Casey and Jennifer Walsh. The music was supplied by Elspeth O'Riordan and Aoife Barry. The altar servers were Marie and Emily Connors and the reception was held in the Park Hotel, Dungarvan. Every happiness and Gods Blessings to the happy couple who will reside in Limerick.

FAHA

The dust may have settled in Faha but the excitement continues for what has been hailed as a great event, rarely equalled but never surpassed, for the bi-centenary celebrations of the Barron Memorial Church. Much time and effort was put in by the people who provided the music and singing during the Mass. Caroline Casey of Glen organised a number of local boys and girls to sing at the beginning of Mass and they were Dan Casey, Cathal Dee, Edmund Connolly, Jason Halpin, Niamh Power, Rebecca Casey, Niamh Dee, Pippi Griffin, Andrea Casey and Eileen Flynn. They will always remember singing for the President of Ireland. Fr. Michael Kennedy of Colligan led the singing from the ambo with support from Rose Power, Marie Curran, Enda Flynn, Caroline Casey, Melissa Walsh and Maria Merry. Treasa Ni Eachthighearn played on keyboard as well as a solo instrumental piece which was much appreciated. There has been much favourable comment of the presence of Jazz Train led by Pat Barron and they certainly set the scene for the celebrations that followed. The same can be said for the contribution of Richie Halpin whose music had the crowds on the floor all night and into the early hours of the following morning. The unseen work of Ed Humm on sound and the people from Nameton who eventually gave a perfect picture of the proceedings to the large crowd gathered in the marquee, full credit here to Toddy Fennell who left no stone unturned to provide great comfort for all. Thanks to John Power whose responsibilities included the marquee and also the toilet facilities and he came up trumps. Enda Farrell worked tirelessly to ensure the sound and pictures were second to none and here as well Willie Hartery played an important part. Billy Power had the hardest task as "bouncer" at the church door and he excelled in a difficult situation. John Quinn worked very close to the organising committee from start to finish and no words can adequately describe his contribution in so many areas to ensure everything ran smoothly. The catering was in the capable hands of Jack Molloy Caterers from Waterford and despite running out of milk everyone had plenty to eat even though the numbers being much larger than expected. The wine did not last too long with no one able to solve the problem, unlike the wedding at Cana!

CEMETARY MASS

Friday next, June 18th is the Feast of the Sacred Heart, the original date for the bicentenary celebrations in Faha. There will be Mass at 7.30 pm followed by the blessing of graves. Each family is invited to attend to pay respect to their loved ones buried in Faha. There will be refreshments after Mass and hopefully the first will get a few strawberries! The remaining bi-centenary merchandise will be on sale as well with Monnie, Julia and Kieran Foley hoping to continue their great sales so far.

Vote of Sympathy Passed

At our last GAA meeting there was a vote of sympathy passed for the late Jack Kiely of Bonmahon. Sincere sympathy to his family and friends and may he rest in peace.

Great Display From The Juniors

Well done to the junior footballers on a fine display of football they put up to Butlerstown at the Dunhill GAA grounds last week. Kill fought bravely throughout this game making it a close encounter between both sides with Butlerstown beating the Kill side only by a small margin on the score board. Records were probably broken in this game also as young Conor Hennessey, 14 years old played for this adult team. Has this been accomplished in the past? Great players such as Monty Guiry and Martin Kennedy started very young with the club, but at 14 years of age? Conor also proved himself capable and comfortable with this grade as in the dying minutes of the game he gave an all important pass to his cousin Eddie Power, which resulted in an important goal for the Kill side. Well done to all the team on a determined and brave display, credit also to their manager Michael Casey for the tremendous work he is doing with the lads.

NEW FACE LIFT FOR BALLY

Well done to the owners of the Bally Inn on the new coat of tatch that is just about finished. Well done to everyone who participated in these improvements.

Successful Shamrock Poc Fada In Aid Of Friends of Ward 2D

The club was well represented among the large attendance which included many County players at the Shamrock Poc Fada on Bank Holiday Monday. Over €2,500 was raised and donated to the Friends of Ward 2D. Ward 2D is the isolation unit in Cork University Hospital where serious burns patients and Leukemia patients are treated. Friends of Ward 2D provide valuable support and purchase facilities for this ward which like so many others is underfunded. Philip Goulding received the cheque on behalf of Chairperson Imelda Reynolds and the trust and both have asked me to thank all who contributed in any way.

Tickets For The Munster Final

I have to say the majority of members appreciate the difficulty the club has with regard ticket distribution. It's a thankless, time consuming job and inevitably there will be complaints usually from people who are attending their first game of the year, maybe in years, and expect prime ticket. It doesn't work that way. Our club runai Lindsay is doing a superb job managing tickets as indeed are our western board officers particularly runai Anthony Walsh and treasurer Eddie Cunningham (no Jap I'm not going soft). Credit where credit is due. I have some idea of the work involved at club level. You can multiply that by several factors at board level. Those requesting tickets are asked to ring Lindsay by Tuesday, 22nd on 058-56015. I know many people don't like taking to machines but if you get no human response leave your name and a message and she will get back to you. And ring before 10:00pm. Don't want to disturb the Legend's beauty sleep. Tickets will be given out at 8:30pm on Thursday, 24th in St. Patrick's Hall. All tickets to be paid for on collection.

More On Tickets

While I'm on about tickets, I hope we do not see the same situation as last year where tickets for the Waterford terrace were on public sale in Cork. Before anybody starting writing letters or accosting me on the street I'm not talking about Waterford supporters getting their tickets through a Cork club or vice versa. I'm talking about the amount allocated to each county. I don't know the criteria used in allocating tickets to the competing counties but if it goes on the number supporters attending matches and not the population of the county then we're at least entitled to half. Get your spake in Paddy Joe.

Down On The Wire

Least anybody think I'm buttering up Cunni and Anthony for good tickets for the Munster final let me quickly add that I didn't ever get my tickets in Waterford for the last game against Tipp. No, my old friends in Cork came up with the goods, right on the halfway line mind you. The only draw back was my nose was up against the infernal wire, the curse of the viewing classes, and I had a good view of the players boots. Front and centre I definitely was. It was a bit surreal watching Waterford and Tipperary from the Cork section. (Thankfully none of them had read my notes after last years Munster final). To my right the massed ranks of the Deise faithful were in full voice, to may left the assembled tribes from Tipperary gave a rousing rendition of Sliabh na mBan setting the scene for the epic battle that lay ahead. In the narrow buffer zone that lay between at the seasoned hurling aficionados from Cork, watching dispassionately, analysing the strengths and weaknesses of both teams. By half time, my neighbour to my immediate right was not very impressed with the standard on display and conveyed a much to somebody by mobile phone. "We'll handle any one of the two of them" I heard him pronounce with some certainty. To be fair he was an astute observer of the game and clinical in his analysis of the situations throughout the first half. He professed no bias either way until, probably provoked by his half time phone comment, I vented criticism of the referee (a Cork resident) to get my own back. I was soon put in my place. Not at all boy. The referee was perfect.

Communication broke down between us following that little verbal spat until the introduction of Paul O'Brien (I had told the Corkman of my club allegiance earlier on). "Your man is coming on" he says by way of friendly overture and an attempt to make up. I wasn't very receptive. The game was slipping away from us. Straight in front of me Brian Phelan, who had hurled his heart out, looked like he had no more to give. To my right a Corkman, to my left a Tyrone man. Nowhere to turn to. Neither would understand. I was inconsolable. The Corkman tried and vowed his undying hatred for Tipperary, only I suspect because he thought they would be harder to beat than us in the Munster final. I had given up home but others hadn't. Phelan found a second wind and was plucking balls out of the sky like it was the first five minutes of the game. Prendergast drilled the ball in low, Mullane and his marker bundled each other out of the way and the ball ran through to Paul O who whipped it first time to the net. Oh joy, unbridled joy! "Nobody deserves to be this happy" as Finn would say. But there was nobody to hug.

Cois Bhride

The U11 hurlers repeated their success of last year and retained the U11 ground hurling county title. These lads are going well in the town and country as well. They play Abbesside tonight (Wednesday) in their final qualifying game in Knockanore. The U14 hurlers were beaten by Clonea in Tallow last Saturday but are still in with a shout if they win their last game against Portlaw/Mollerans on Monday evening.

Feile Skills Competition

Donnachadh Mulcahy represented the club in the Feile Skills Western Final in Cappoquin on Bank Holiday Monday and secured first place in the Western ranking. Mark Shaloo and Donnachadh represented the west in the final last Thursday which was won by a young Fitzgerald lad from De La Salle who will represent the County at the Feile Finals in Meath/Westmeath.

U13 skills competition: Thomas McGrath won the club competition and along with Kevin O'Brien and Thomas Daly represented the club in the Western finals. Thomas McGrath and Kevin has qualified for the County final this evening (Wednesday) in the Fraher Field. Adh mor lads.

Tickets

A limited amount of tickets will be available through the club for the Munster final. Members should contact runai Raymond McCarthy at 058 56015 no later than Tuesday, 22nd June. No family tickets.

Landscaping At The Bridge

Instead of whinging about the amount of public money being spent in neighbouring towns, Tallow Landscape Committee decided to do something about it. It's called self help. The landscaping and planting down at Tallow Bridge enhances the whole approach to the town and is a credit to all involved as well as those who took part in the Golf classic to raise funds. It's the type of initiative too often lacking in the community. Incidentally the area has been christened by Finn. It's called 'Gertie's Garden'. I think it will stick and maybe we should put up a little plaque. She deserves it.

Wexford Connection

I think it was 1996 when Tallow hosted Wexford club Oulart-the-Ballagh in the Feile under 14 hurling competition. Two young lads in particular caught the eye when the teams met eight years ago in Tallow. One on each team. Fast and skilful, similar enough in style, they looked like they might have a bit to offer. One was called Paul O'Brien and the other was a lad by the name of Jacob, son of Mick.

TAKE A WALK ROUND THE WOODS TODAY!

What a pleasure it has been walking, cycling or driving round the Sweep during the last few months. The landscaping which has been carried out on the two Milestones and on the hairpin bend has greatly enhanced this entrance to the town of Tallow. Take a walk and see for yourself. It will do you good.

Since mid January, when the first shoots of the flower bulbs appeared, to early May when the blooms faded beds of bright Tulips gave pleasure and joy to all who passed by. The floral display gave a whole new dimension to a walk in the area. A superb job has been carried out in the restoration of the natural stone wall on the hairpin bend. The provision of stone steps and a seat on one side and wheel chair access on the other provides easy entrance for strollers. The green area (which is the envy of many a gardener) includes a shrubbery and a flower bed and is constantly maintained by a local resident, Thomas Cunningham, to whom great credit is due. New Summer bedding was planted last weekend in the flower bed and milestone areas and we look forward to seeing their colourful display in the weeks ahead. The flowers last year were cared for by Kathleen French and friends.

No fairy's wand provided these delights. Thanks must go to Joe Flaherty who has taken such an interest in his adopted town. He was the instigator of the landscaping and is to be seen regularly picking up papers and working to keep the environment litter free. His vision, coupled with help from local residents, is steadily improving the entrance areas of the town.

A new committee, under the Chairmanship of Ted Keniry, has been formed with a view to landscaping other areas, particularly the large area at Tallow Bridge. This committee is most deserving of support and local people, as usual, are very generous in lending a helping hand.

Pride of place is part of our heritage and it is heart-warming to see plans in train to improve and enhance our native town.

BRIDEVIEW UNITED A.F.C. NOTES

Large Crowd Attend A.G.M.

Chairman Michael Sheehan stated we must be doing something right as the biggest crowd in the clubs 32 years attended the club A.G.M. and a few people for a variety of reasons not able to attend.

Our lotto jackpot was not won last Friday night and we have some players heading off to Limerick playing in the Kennedy Cup while our ladies team kick off on Thursday week.

A.G.M.

The biggest crowd ever to attend an A.G.M. turned up in the Devonshire Arms on Friday night last. The Chairman Michael Sheehan welcomed everyone to the meeting and stated it was nice to see such a crowd. Michael had a special welcome to the first girl ever to attend an A.G.M. The minutes of last years A.G.M. were read by Dominic Power and then came the Chairman's address.

Two excellent reports then followed the first from the secretary and then the treasurers report. The election of officers then took place. A full list at end of notes. The Chairman Michael Sheehan is anxious to continue with the clubs group developments. The general feeling is that the club is going in the right direction. Membership for the season will be €20 per players and €10 for schoolboys.

A players meeting is now to be called so that the club can see how many Junior teams to enter this season. The managers for the clubs teams will be picked at the first meeting and no doubt with a big committee we expect plenty of new ideas for the coming season.

President: Tom McCarthy; Vice Presidents: Dec McCarthy, Joe Tobin, John Russell, Leonard Fraser, Tony Coughlan, Maurice Tobin, Pat Coughlan; Chairman: Michael Sheehan; Vice Chairman: Michael Donnelly; Treasurer: David Doyle; Assistant Treasurer: Noel Cunningham; Secretary: Dominic Power; P.R.O.: Liam Fraser; Assistant: Dominic Power; Membership Officer: Tomas McCarthy; Committee: Ian Farmer, Brendan Donnelly, William Curley, Mark Sutherland, Stephen Pratt, Graham O'Neill, Kieran Casey, Pat McGrath and Joanie O'Neill.

Historic A.G.M.

Indeed it was as for the first time in the clubs 32 years a girl was elected onto the committee. Joanie O'Neill was a very welcome addition to the committee as were the new faces and we believe there are still a few more names to be added so we will keep you informed.

Sympathy

The club extends its deepest sympathy to the Buckley family on the sudden death of Sheila. May she rest in peace.

Ladies In Action

Our ladies team go into action on Thursday week, June 24th away to Valley Rangers. More news next week on the girls. There are six teams in the league which will be run on a home and away fixture.

All U7, U8 and U10's are to give their names and birthdates to either Ian Farmer or Liam Fraser on Saturday morning as they go into action shortly.

Kennedy Cup

We wish manager Liam Ahern and the lads all the best of luck in Limerick this week in the big Kennedy Cup tournament. The United players travelling to Limerick are Sean O'Sullivan, Keith Hallahan, Dean Pratt, Sean Long and Brian Collins.

Lotto Jackpot €2,250

Last weeks number 3-15-16-23. No winner. Match 3 winners nil. Draw this week in the Corner House on Friday night at 10:00pm. Remember If you are not in, you cannot win.

Pepsi F.A.I. Summer Camp

There are still some places available so if you want to participate then get in touch with either Ian Farmer or Liam Fraser immediately. Some guests will visit the camp during the week which runs from 12th to 16th July.

Pitch Finished

Finally, the ground development will be finished by Saturday of this week and I know that everyone in the club are looking forward to going back to Brideview Park.

All Weather Pitch

The tournament which will be ran on the All Weather pitch will begin on Monday week. Last Friday night a very unusual team took part in a training session on the pitch. The young ahem! ahem! lads were delighted with the workout and I understand they could now form their very own team. I could say more here but I will hold back. Right lads.

Birthday Corner

Happy birthday to one of our young players namely Daniel McElroy. Then we have Michael Condon Jr who will be a big 3 years old on Monday. Next Margaret Condon will be 21 again on Sunday next. Right Margaret!

John Leahy of Chelsea Football club will celebrate his birthday this week and Kathleen French will have her birthday party next week. Well done to everyone. Oh, I almost forgot Eoin Riordan who was 40 or maybe 30 years old on Saturday night last. The cake looked lovely, right Eoin.

Abbeyside Scout Notes

The cub meeting on Saturday night was an exciting one which was given over to watching a video. Proceedings got under way at 8 o'clock when all the cubs gathered at the Den, then it was off to the Chipper. Large bags of chips, even bigger burgers, coke and large amounts of curry were all ordered once the shell shocked staff got over their initial surprise at the amount of food that was being ordered. When everything was ready it was double quick time back to the Den to watch the video 'Spy Kids 3' which proved a big hit with all concerned. 10 o'clock arrived just as the video and the chips came to an end. The parents collected all concerned who had a very enjoyable night. This week's meeting takes place at the normal time of seven until eight. The cub season is now entering its last couple of meetings before it breaks up for the Summer.

Scouts

Last Saturday night saw some of the patrols making use of the good weather to go camping. Leader Kieran and patrol leader Rory had some of the Wolf patrol on an enjoyable overnight in the Cappoquin Scout Den. This was a good event which also saw the scouts hike out to the Glen where they met up with some of the local guide troop who were on a camping weekend. Thanks to our friends in the Cappoquin Scout Unit for the use once again of their Scout Den, it was much appreciated. Meanwhile in the Ring Gaeltacht patrol leader Cearbhail held a back yard camp which had an attendance made up of members of the Panther and Wolf patrols. The weather was kind as was the 'in house cook' who seemingly cooked up quite a meal late on Saturday night which was devoured in double quick time. On Sunday morning all attended the local church for what proved to be a first for many, that being a Mass in Irish. Thanks to Cearbhail and the Turraoin family for hosting this overnight camp.

Attention

The canoeing lesson with Mick O'Mara will be held this Thursday night, June 17th from 6 o'clock until nine o'clock approximately. The gathering point is the slip way at 'the look out' near the WLR studios. Scouts should bring a towel, spare t-shirt, shorts and an old pair of runners. The cost is 8 euro.

Reminder

Coming up on July 3rd and 4th we will be holding our annual town and church gate collection. We would ask any parent who possibly can to offer their help for a half an hour or thereabouts to help us with this collection. Please contact the leaders or a committee member, we need all the help we can get.

PUB LEAGUES ARE UNDERWAY

It is that time of the year again, when excitement will rise high at the local soccer field as the popular Pub Leagues are played. As usual there has been a big entry and with the usual pub rivalry abounding, there are sure to be several exciting contests. The teams will be 9-a-side and for over 18 players.

BOOK SALE IN ABBEYSIDE N.S.

A second hand book sale will take place in Abbeyside N.S. on Wednesday, 16th and Thursday, 17th June between 4:00pm and 10:00pm. All types of books (adults, childrens and comics) will be available. You can be sure there will be bargains galore.

NOTABLE CHANGES FROM ABBEYSIDE ON TOWN COUNCIL

Two new members elected for the first time in the person of Brendan Mansfield, Sinn Fein, of Sexton Street and Fred Forsey, Fine Gael of Pinewood. Brendan received 328 first count votes and was elected on the third count. Fred Forsey received 201 first count votes and was elected on the sixth count. Those to retain their seats were Billy Kyne (Labour), Michael O'Riordan (non-party), Nuala Ryan (Fianna Fail). Outgoing members who were unsuccessful were Damien Dillon (Fianna Fail) and Paddy Power (Labour). Dan Dineen (non-party), Richard Moore (Fianna Fail), Brendan O'Brien (non-party) and Mel Shanley (non-party) were unsuccessful in their attempts to get elected.

Newly re-elected Councillor Michael O'Riordan (non-party) is to campaign at the first Council meeting that two spaces be reserved outside Abbeyside Church for disabled people.

SCOIL MHUIRE, ABBEYSIDE

For sixth class, there will be an end of year Mass on Thursday which will be celebrated by Fr. Doherty P.P. There will be 54 pupils leaving 6th class this year. The pupils and teachers will be breaking up for the Summer holidays on the 25th June.

ABBEYSIDE REFERENCE ARCHIVE

A Book

Listening to Julian Walton on local radio last Saturday morning I was surprised to learn that the book 'An Introduction to the Architectural Heritage of Co. Waterford' is in short supply at the bookshops.

This book has been available here in our archive since it was launched at Christ Church Cathedral, Waterford on the 14th May 2004.

Maybe it's the fact that it's such a nice book that supply has been unable to keep up with demand in the bookshops.

This Sunday evening Emma Flynn will be at the Parish Office minding our copy of the Waterford Heritage book as well as all the other treasures. As always visitors will be most welcome along to browse at leisure.

THE ABBEYSIDE/ DUBAI CONNECTION

When we heard recently that an Abbeyside man had been appointed as one of the three adjudicators in selecting the Dubai entrant for the Rose of Tralee contest this year, our curiosity was naturally aroused and we made further enquiries.

John Power, son of Michael and Mary Power, Friars Walk, who was popularly known to his schoolmates as 'Dasher', is the gentleman in question and the one who is chosen as a judge in this high profile contest. Dubai is a fashion and glamour conscious country which regularly has an entry for the famous 'Rose' contest. John, who is the Accounts Manager for the Middle East section of the internationally famous Pernod-Picard Gulf Group (they operate the Duty Free, Irish Distillers Co, etc) began his career with the well known drapery business of Noel Devereux in Mary Street and is brother to Gemma, Michael and Killian. Being asked to adjudicate is a signal honour for the popular Abbeyside man.

PONGO PLAYERS ON TOUR

A group consisting of about 40 of the regular Pongo players at the Tuesday sessions in Ballinroad are back home, having spent four days in the Galway area with 'The Galway Bay Hotel' as their base. It was a wonderful trip, made all the more pleasing by the Summer like weather that lasted until they returned. The weekly sessions at St. Laurence's Hall have now ended and will resume in September.

WEST WATERFORD NOTES

THE SPORTING YEAR IN CLASHMORE N.S.

GIRLS FOOTBALL AND CAMOGIE CHAMPIONS!

Well done to the boys and girls of Clashmore N.S. for a wonderful year on the sports field. The girls team made history winning both the football and camogie finals in one year bringing two magnificent cups to the schools.

These girls are both hard-working and competitive, skills which will stand to them later in life too no doubt. We wish the girls well in Secondary school next year - April Ledingham, Ciara McCarthy, Sarah Curran, Sophie Condon and Ashlee Joyce, while they will be missed on the field, I'm sure there will be some younger girls ready to take their place on the team with Andrea Cunningham, Aileen O'Brien, Elaine Murphy, Evelyn O'Brien, Sinead McCarthy, Laura Lynch and Alannah O'Hagan.

It was hard on the boys team to have reached both finals and not to succeed against Touraneena to secure their place in the final which was held in Bushy Park on Wednesday, May 26th against Kinsalebeg. The start before the scheduled time left our boys unsettled and though they gave it their best effort scoring four goals, Kinsalebeg took the cup. Congratulations to Kinsalebeg and especially Brian O'Halloran, who played a terrific game. It was a great day for all three schools of the parish, each bringing home a cup. I'm sure everyone enjoyed the celebrations the following day.

A special word of thanks to Tim O'Keeffe for his help and support throughout the year especially from the boys team, Donal and Sean O'Connor, John Prendergast, Thomas Kelleher and Cormac Foley, Eric Mangan, Dean Power, Kieran O'Shaughnessy, Seamus O'Neill, Paul O'Connor, Jason Cunningham, Bob Dromey, Eamon Keevers and Kyle Cunningham.

Thanks also to the parents (especially the mums!) for their help with transport and support. Looking forward to seeing you all next year. Well done to everybody for a tremendous team effort and well done to Donal O'Connor who played an excellent game of football in the Primary game against Limerick last Sunday.

Wishing the best of luck to the boys who will complete their primary education this year, Donal and Sean O'Connor, John Prendergast, Thomas Kelleher and Cormac Foley.

Open day for New Infants on Wednesday, June 16th from 1:30 - 2:30pm. Wishing you all safe and happy holidays.

Lots Of Success At The Primary Schools Sports

Thirty two athletes from Clashmore N.S. took part in the primary schools sports competitions which was held in the Gold Boys U14 - Relay: Thomas Kelleher, John Prendergast, Sean and Donal O'Connor.

Gold Girls U12 Sprint and Bronze U12 600 mts - Andrea Cunningham.

Bronze Girls Under 14 - 600m: April Ledingham.

Silver Boys U14 - 600m: John Prendergast.

COUNTY FINAL

Paul O'Connor and John Prendergast went on to win silver medal (sprint and 600 mts) in the first ever county final which was held at Waterford Regional Sports Centre on May 20th. This was a remarkable achievement as the boys were up against the top athletes in their age groups from all the schools, big and small in the city and county.

Well done to all our athletes who did themselves and their school proud including: Zoe Hogan, Eoin Coughlan, Aaron O'Shaughnessy, Joshua Nuttall, Maurice Ledingham, Kate Hynes, Siobhan O'Shaughnessy, Marie Hynes, Emma Curran, Edel O'Keeffe, Daniel O'Neill, Chloe Walsh, Sinead McCarthy, Caoimhe Hynes, Jessica Lynch, Niamh McCarthy, Dean Power, Eamonn Keevers, Jason Cunningham, Elaine Murphy, Kyle Cunningham, Evelyn and Aileen O'Brien.

Clashmore/Kinsalebeg Community County Finals

A gentle reminder to all our athletes (1st and 2nd prize winners in event in Clashmore from Under 8 only upwards) take part in the County finals of the Community game which take place at Waterford Regional Sports Centre (opposite Waterford Crystal) on this Sunday, June 20th. The event commences with the parade of clubs at 12noon.

Clashmore/Kinsalebeg athletes please be in attendance at 11:40am to assemble for the parade. Please bring white socks and white shorts, club tee shirts will be available on the day from Gemma O'Connor. Best of luck to all of you and we hope you have a very enjoyable day.

UNDER 10 FOOTBALL

Narrow Defeat

Stradbally 1-3

Clashmore/Kinsalebeg 0-5

Our Under 10 football team were defeated by just one point in the County final of the Community Games on Thursday evening last in Abbeyside. Our opponents Stradbally put up a strong challenge right from the start. Our boys responded well and it could have been anyone's game right to the final whistle. It was a challenging road to the final having beaten Ardmore and Butlerstown and our panel of nineteen players played some brilliant football along the way. Well done to all of you.

A special word of thanks to our brilliant management team Martin Lynch, Pat O'Sullivan, Liam Cunningham and Tim Burke who did trojan work with the team. Your efforts are very much appreciated.

TICKETS

On a final note anyone who has not returned their tickets for the Waterford Community games raffle which takes place next Sunday please do so as soon as possible (Those who have please ignore this notice)

Road Bowling

We had just one score last Thursday night in Clashmore between Liam O'Rourke and Patsy Collins. This was a good score up to mid way, but from the veteran showed his experience and went on to win by a bowl of odds. Patsy, a strong under hand goes in to the losers group so we will see him again, being a Cork man, he won't be an easy one to shake off. Back again to Friday this week with scores starting in Clashmore at 7:30pm.

Clashmore G.A.A.

Juvenile Notes

UNDER 14 HURLING

We play Naomh Brid on this Friday evening in Sliabh gCua and we conclude the league section of the championship with a home game v An Gaeltacht on Monday evening at 7:30pm.

UNDER 10 FOOTBALL

The final in our series of Under 10 football tournament takes place on this Wednesday evening in Aglish.

Also our Under 10 community games team played a brilliant game but were unlucky to be beaten by Stradbally in the Waterford final on a score liner of Stradbally 1-7 Clashmore 1-6. Thanks to Pat O'Sullivan and Martin Lynch for their help in preparing the team for the final.

Summer Camp

Our annual Summer Camp takes place in the GAA field on the week commencing July 12th. Further details later.

PRIMARY GAME

Well done to players Donal O'Connor and Brian O'Halloran who performed with credit on the Waterford team in the Primary game against Limerick on Sunday last. This team played some excellent football and finished up winners on a scoreline of 1-3 to 0-4.

Clashmore Ramblers Soccer Notes

The AGM of the Clashmore Ramblers arranged for Saturday, 12th of June in the Old Still bar did not take place as an insufficient number of people turned up. It would appear that there is not enough interest in the club to warrant affiliating adult or juvenile teams for the coming season.

There will be one final attempt to hold an AGM on Friday, 18th June at 9:30pm in O Domhnaills bar. Anyone with an interest in helping to run should attend the meeting.

Local Election - Thrills and Spills for West Waterford

Following the resounding success of popular Ardmore Councillor Tommy Cronin in last Friday's local elections in which he topped the pole and was returned to his seat on Waterford County Council. It was all down hill after that for West of Waterford. In the huge rural area covering Ring/Old Parish to Aglish on the Lismore electoral border none of the other three sitting councillors were returned to power with six of the seven sitting councillors geographically located in or on the outskirts of the Dungarvan town, is a devastating result for the rural area of the County.

A bright note however for the Clashmore area, Pat Nugent, Carrigroe, Dungarvan is formally of Tinnock, he secured a seat for Fine Gael on the Council and we know Pat like Tommy Cronin will work for the greater good of West Waterford. To Tommy and Pat we extend our congratulations and wish them every success during their term in office.

Our thoughts and commiserations are with the outgoing councillors Geraldine Veale, Kinsalebeg and Patsy Kenneally, Aglish who despite receiving a good score of first preference votes were unable to secure enough transfers to keep them in the race for the final seats. The result is especially devastating for Patsy Kenneally who has devoted the greater part of his life to the Council and serving the people of this area. We would just like to say thanks to Patsy for doing a great job over the years.

The Lotto

No match four numbers to claim our jackpot on Monday night, so next week there is a jackpot of E4,450 to be won when our draw takes place at The Rising Sun. Last Monday nights numbers were 2-6-12-18. Congratulations to the following who were winners of E15 each: Thomas Power, Grange; Ber Buckner, Ardsalagh; Mary Jordan, 23 Village View, Clashmore; Oliver Broderick, Mount Stuart; Maureen Meehan, c/o Anne Coughlan. Well done all.

Clashmore 45 Drive

Over all of last Monday nights 45 drive at the Decies, Clashmore were Stephen Cunningham and Johnny Prendergast. In joint 2nd were Tony Keane and Gabriel Hynes, Roger Hynes and Roger Hynes. Best of the last five winners were Liam Curran and Thomas Power. Lucky last game winners were Maura McGrath and John Connerly, Nell and Paddy Foley, Bernard Moloney and Billy Allen.

Creamery Doors Close June 23rd

During the past week the farming community in the Glanbia, Clashmore branch catch-meant area were officially notified of the closure of their branch in the village on 23rd of June, having served this Community for the greater part of the past century and employing three people in very difficult times. One wonders how much thought has gone into the closing of Clashmore and other branches when rivals Kerry plan to expand their business in farm shops!

Where do we go from here? These and any other questions you may have can be put before the final public meeting on the issue on tonight, Wednesday June 16th, at the Clashmore Heritage Centre.

In Hospital

Our continued good wishes to Eddie Moloney, Tinnock. We are delighted to report Eddie is on the mend and hopefully will be back with us again in the next week or so. Family, friends, work-mates with Waterford County Council, presenters and listeners of CRY wish you a speedy recovery Eddie.

WELCOME HOME

A big, warm welcome home to our parish priest Very Rev. Maurice O'Gorman, who made a welcome return to our Parish last weekend and making an excellent recovery from his hip replacement operation. Continued good wishes to you Father.

Following his success in the Grotroe Mile, Clashmore athlete James Ledingham continued on his success on the track in Castleisland and Cork, winning two Munster championships in the 1,500mts Under 23 and the Senior Men 1,500mts in a new personal best time. Well done and continued success James.

2004 CREDIT UNION/SPORTS CENTRE SUMMER CAMP

AN ACTIVE ALTERNATIVE TO HOLIDAY BOREDOM

Proudly celebrating its 21st Birthday this year is the Dungarvan Summer Camp at Dungarvan Sports Centre whose administrators and Leaders can look back on twenty seasons over which they looked after the needs of nearly 12,000 children during their summer holidays.

That level of service makes them the oldest and most experienced Summer Camp in the County, with many lessons learned along the way. Foremost of these is that in the right environment and with the right Leaders and programme, it is not very difficult to keep children happy and actively engaged in some productive activity.

That can range between energetic games, swimming or their famous water-fight; through art and entertainment, to just sitting inside or out of doors listening to a story from one of their leaders. This year, there will be a greater emphasis on stage entertainment, with several of our Leaders well versed and experienced in stage matters.

Over the years, the Leaders at the Dungarvan Summer Camp have learned many things from the 11,000 or so campers who have passed through their doors, their likes and dislikes, their tricks and dodges, but most of all, how to keep young children entertained through a six hour day.

This year will be no different and the Sports Centre has again come together with Dungarvan Credit Union to offer children and parents a solution to their holiday entertainment problems.

For many children disenchanted with the weather, quickly bored with the inactivity of holidays, Summer Camp cannot come too soon. For parents faced with the daunting task of keeping their offspring happy in difficult circumstances, Summer Camp is just the ticket and already, bookings are flowing in to the busy Summer Camp Office at Dungarvan Sports Centre.

In this day and age of computer gadgetry, multiple TV Channels and DVDs, the thought that children might 'make their own fun' is hardly a realistic one and inevitably children will look to parents and minders for help.

Others will feel that life should be one continuous hurling or soccer game and will only be happy when racing across grass, swimming in a pool or playing on the beach each day.

The prayers and expectations of both can be answered with a week, or more, of Summer Camp at Dungarvan Sports Centre, where children of all ages and tastes, will come together to enjoy themselves at simple, yet effective activities.

Catering for children aged from six to about fourteen, in their own age categories, over a hundred children will converge each week on the now legendary Summer Camp, where for five days, between ten and four o'clock, they will enjoy themselves, play safely, make friends and not notice the hours slip by. Dungarvan Summer Camp is based on safety and simplicity, where there is a recognition that it is easy for children to enjoy life, provided they are kept safe, occupied, and motivated. At Dungarvan Sports Centre, twenty years of practice, twenty years of fine-tuning and twenty years of finding out just what makes children want to come to Summer Camp at all, will decide the final programme. While the children may not know it, the attraction is activity, simplicity and security in a friendly environment. Swimming is an every-day event and there are also art sessions, badge making and treasure hunts. Children can also look forward to the weekly barbecue and sing-song, the weekly disco and Leaders and Campers Concert each week. The children will enjoy themselves. If you have any doubts, ask those who have attended previously and they will assure you. And anyway, there's a full, no quibble, money back guarantee for each child, but you shouldn't need to avail of it.

Cúl na nóg

The committee of the local pré-school, Naionra Cúl na Nóg, held a very successful cake sale on Sunday 30th May. Thanks to all who donated bread, cakes, jams, etc. and especially to all who came along and purchased. There is an obvious demand for "fresh from the producer" products and the new Farmers and Artisans Market which will be held every Thursday in Scanlon's Yard had a very successful launch last week.

Another Great Concert

This Friday June 18th two more of the outstanding names of Irish Music will be in concert in Cúl na Smear Hall. Arty McGlynn and Nollaig Casey have toured the five continents and have been associated with the best names in Irish Music from Sharon Shannon to Van Morrison and from Planxty to De Dannan and Riverdance.

They are currently engaged in their first Irish tour in many years and chose Cúl na Smear from their contacts with other musicians who have enjoyed this excellent venue. Arty McGlynn stands out as the foremost Guitar player in Traditional Music and Nollaig Casey who has been described as a virtuoso fiddler is also an excellent singer in both Irish and English. Once again this concert is hosted by Craobh na gCumarach Comhaltas and tickets may be purchased from Ben O'Neill's Music shop or phone 058/41273.

Dungarvan Flower & Garden Club Notes

We had our last meeting before our summer break and what a wonderful evening of flower arranging we had from Mary O'Keeffe, whose arrangements were very contemporary. Mary used beautiful flowers, many with delicious scents, such as lilac, roses etc. Her colour combinations drew great applause from a very appreciative audience.

Our Club outing was a great day out and enjoyed by all who went along, it took us to Carlow and its environs, visiting Hardymount garden and a garden in Ballon. Stopping off for lunch in Rathwood. The day was ended with a most delicious meal in The Atheneum House Hotel.

All members who are helping with the flower festival in Ballinroad church in mid July should be getting their titles for exhibits shortly.

All that remains is to wish all members "Happy Gardening" during the summer and we look forward to seeing everyone again in September.

SUMMER CAMP COMPETITION WINNERS

Our two lucky readers to win a place each at Summer Camp this year are: Patrick Curran, Mount Odell, Dungarvan and Sean Fitzgerald, Glendalligan, Leamybrien, Co. Waterford. Congratulations to you both and your vouchers will be sent out by post in the next few days.

MINNIES BAR BEGINNERS LEAGUE

Shane Power's His Way Around

West Waterford's Shane Power took his first win in the Minnies Bar League last Tuesday evening clocking an impressive 22.01 for the three lap run around the St. Augustine's College grounds. Shane is improving with every race this year and has a bright future in the sport. Kevin Kenneally was second in a time of 22.11 with Jason Travers third in 22.26 (no sign of Damien). Jim Fleming is making steady progress back to full fitness and he was given the same finishing time as Dermot Dwyer 23.06. Brendan Walsh is running well at present also and he finished in 24.19. Toby Beddell kept the flag flying for Glaxosmithkline 26.37.

Another run of note was that of Ray Moore who is one of the most improved runners since the league began, his time of 26.54 gave him a 13th finishing place overall on the night. Michael Whelan, after a good Winter League, is running well and recorded a time of 27.40 while Mairead Flynn 28.14 had just 3 seconds to spare over the ever improving Joanne Dunford 28.17.

Pascal Proctor who now runs out to the league from home just to get in the extra mile or so was clocked at 29.22 for the 3 laps with P.J. Hunt was 29.28. Aisling Curran is very close to breaking the 30 minute barrier when she recorded 30.48 and the other Aisling, Weldon ran a time of 31.16.

Ann O'Connor was back to her best when she finished in 33.26, and Marie Allen is also making great strides and recorded 34.18. Mary Harney clocked 36.15. In the two lap run it was a one two for the two Michelle's, Coffey and Flynn, with Michelle Coffey completing the two laps in 23.37 and Michelle Flynn 24.25. Jean Brennan was just one second behind recording a good 24.26 while Catherine Carey ran a time of 26.00 and is improving with each passing week, while Mary Lynam is enjoying the run each week she ran a time of 26.39. Mary Ryan was 26.46 and Denise Regan 27.37. Well done to all our 2 lap runners.

The one lap runners are sticking to their task well and it's great to see them making the run each Tuesday. Keep up the good work Annette, Deidre, Noleen, Fiona and Nollaig.

CONGRATS TO MICHAEL

All at the club wishes to extend congratulations to popular club member Michael Cooney on his recent very high marks attained in his exams. 2ND ANNUAL KILMAC' MID-SUMMER 5 MILE ROAD RACE

The 2nd Annual Kilmacthomas mid-summer race will be held on Sunday June 27th at 11 a.m. There are two changes from last years race which are very important to note — 1. The race distance has changed from 10k to a 5 miler which should be more appealing to many, and 2 — the race time is now 11 a.m. this is to accommodate anyone who wishes to go to the Munster hurling final which is on at 4 p.m. this will give plenty of time to get to Thurles in time. Proceeds for the run will go to the local Juvenile G.A.A. Club and there will also be a 3-mile fun run and walk. It's hoped that as many of our club members as possible will participate in this race and support our club members from the Kilmac' area as they are great supporters of our events. We will have a full pre race report in next weeks notes.

JAMIE COSTIN 12TH IN POLAND

West Waterford's Athen's bound 50k race walker Jamie Costin was in action over the weekend in Poland. The race distance was over the much shorter distance of 10k, but nevertheless this was good preparation for Athens for Jamie. He is well pleased with his training and progress over the last couple of months after a back injury earlier in the year, he covered the 10 k in a very fast time of 41.09 finishing in 12th place. His next race now will be the national 20 k here in Ireland in two weeks time.

SUNDAY MORNING LONG RUN

The Sunday morning long run is now back in full swing and very good numbers are taking part. At present we are still covering the 10 mile crystal course, anyone interest is welcome to come along, starting from the Crystal Sports Centre at 9.30 am sharp. If your thinking about the Dublin Marathon or the National Half Marathon now is the time to start getting the long runs started. Also for those who can't make it on Sunday morning Jacinta and co. are also doing a long run from the same venue at the same starting time on Saturday. So no excuses lads and lassies.

Third Annual Old Still Bar 5

A reminder that the next race in the Ger Wyley Sports/Nike Summer Series will be the Old Still Bar, Clashmore 5 miler on Friday week June 25th at 8 pm. This will be race number 6 in this year's series and is the start of the second five races in this years series. The race will be sponsored once again this year by the Old Still Bar in Clashmore and out thanks to Dave Salmon for his kind ongoing sponsorship of the event. Race organiser Joe Salmon and West Waterford's road racing co-ordinator Gerry Cantwell have all the back ground work done for what promises to be a great night in the village.

Pictured in the centre is Tom Gough, Mooney's Pub, Ring (sponsors) before the start of the Cunnigar run last Friday evening.

WEST WATERFORD ATHLETICS NEWS

GER WYLEY SPORTS / NIKE SUMMER SERIES. RACE NO.6

Peter The Great Wins Mooney's Pub Ras Na Rinne

As the old ballad goes you take the high road and I'll take the low road, well this could well be said about the Cunnigar race as the athletes make their way onto the strand proper after the road section and face the arduous task of finding the shortest way to the point almost at Abbeyside before taking the town side back to Ring. Some head for Ballinacourty, some head for land's end in Abbeyside, some don't know where their going and follow the fellow ahead who also probably doesn't know where he is going either, (or wait now maybe it was a her) anyway one thing for "shore" it's a tough one — but that's what makes it the great race that it is. Its different and every-one thinks that they have the best route, and then you get to the Cunnigar eventually (I'm sure it grew this year, it's definitely getting longer or maybe we are getting slower) to discover that the fellow who was 100 yards behind going onto the strand is now 100 yards ahead of you — dam got it wrong again this year?

I think the best thing for next year is to follow Peter Duggan. Peter last Friday took his second Ras Na Rinne title having last won it in 1998. He lead the record entry of 141 runners down the road towards the Cunnigar and opened up a lead which he held to the finish line 31 minutes and 36 seconds later. Second man home was West Waterford athlete Mark Langford in 32.24. Mark is getting ever so close to claiming that number one spot on the winners rostrum and is improving with every outing. Third for 2004 was Jason O'Connor, Slaney Olympic, Wexford in 32.52. He will be well pleased with this run having finished 7th in last years race. The Masters prizes were split between Cork athletes and Waterford athletes, with Cork winning two and Waterford winning two, (O' no another draw lads), role on the Munster final, we will overcome.

Anyway the over 40 winner was Noel Curtin, Youghal A.C. 32.55. A fine run from Noel who also finished 4th overall. Winner of the over 45 was West Waterford road race co-ordinator Gerry Cantwell in 35.20. Gerry will also be very pleased with this run on home soil (or sand rather). The over 50 prize went to East Cork's Tim Twomey 36.11. Good to see Tim back to full fitness after a prolonged injury, and the over 55 winner was Waterford A.C. runner Alan Everett in 41.53. Young Sean Stillwell was the first junior man and into the bargain he attained a very high 5th overall finishing position. A young man with great strength and loads of potential — it looks like Sean's new running programme is paying dividends.

ON THE DOUBLE FOR JACKIE CARTY

"Their was an old Woman from Wexford" yes another great old ballad, Jackie Carty is definitely from Wexford, Kilmore to be more precise but I can tell you she ain't old, and her running improvement over the last year, year and a half is outstanding to say the least. She won this title in a superb time of 36.21. Jackie will be pleased with her progress having clocked 37.14 to take last years title, a great improvement you will agree. The battle for second place was a great one between Helen Doyle team mate of Jackie Carty's from Kilmore and West Waterford's Corinna Walsh, with just 5 seconds separating them at the line. On this occasion Corinna showed all her strength in splitting the two Wexford ladies claiming second in a time of 39.43 with Helen clocking 39.48. Helen it must be said also has improved out of sight, in this race last year she recorded a time of 42.43 — it must be something in the strawberries. West Waterford dominated the ladies Masters prizes winning four out of the five categories. The over 35 was won by Ann Dunford in 42.21, her time from last year was 44.48, (I told you last week keep an eye on this lady lots more to come.) The over 40 title was won by popular local woman Josie Ui Chuirrin in 45.44. Josie had lot's of local knowledge of the course. Waterford road runners athlete Kathleen Moran won the over 45 in 50.01 and Helene Hayes West Waterford took the over 50 title in 53.09 making it a double having also won that category last Monday in the Tournena 5k. Terri Gough, West Waterford fresh, from her great run in the London Marathon recently won the over 55 title in 56.21. The Junior female prize was won by Joyce Curtin Glenbrower A.C. in 41.02 and the first new comer local finisher was Sean Young who is keeping the Young family association alive with this race.

TEAM RACE

A feature of this race each year is the handicap team event and this year was no exception, with a great mixture of runners involved in the team awards. This years winning team was captained by Shane Power of Waterford A.C. Shane lead by example finishing a very good 12th overall. The other members of the winning team were Maurice Foley, Declan Harte, Betty Sheehan and Fergie Nolan all West Waterford. Second team consisted of Ray McConnell team captain, plus John Kent, United Striders, Liam Fleming, Clonmel, Ray Moore and Alice Shanley, West Waterford. Finally the third team were captained by Kevin Kenneally, West Waterford and included Paul McGrath, Margaret Collins, West Waterford, Fergus Murphy, Slaney Olympic and the one and only Bobby "the butcher" Coady.

THANK YOU

West Waterford Athletic Club would like to thank our race sponsor Tom and Ann Gough of Mooney's Pub for their kind sponsorship of Rás na Rinne. To all who provided the sandwiches for after the race thank you they were much appreciated by all. A special thanks to race organisers Mary Rose and Seamus O Droma along with our road racing co-ordinator Gerry Cantwell, another job well done. To all who helped out on the night with registration, times results, etc, much thanks.

For the first time this year we had the pleasure of having a water station out on the Cunnigar, our thanks to Rose and Paudie Crotty and family for providing same.

Commiserations to the runner who borrowed his brothers jeep to go to the race on Friday night, seemingly it's a million to one chance of that particular break down with that type of jeep, but of course that particular runner is one in a million, and yes it happened to him, just as well his brother is in the trade and can do the repair cheeply. Around the 500 Euro will I believe put things right sham.

Ould Butties — Pat "The Hearsman" Morrissey, Vincent "Bo Bo" Tutty and Michael "Dixie" Deegan after the Ras Na Rinne last Friday evening.

DUNGARVAN CREDIT UNION CYCLING CLUB NEWS

John Flynn Wins By A Whisker

The honours last Wednesday night went to John Flynn, following a most enjoyable competitive 23-mile circuit of Millstreet in tricky conditions. Heavy rain prior to the start cleared to a light mist, as groups departed Master McGrath in sequence, and after 15 miles of tough cycling, all participants came together in one large bunch at Botherwillin. A lively pace built up, although it must be stated that everyone was aware of slippery underfoot conditions and cycled with safety in mind. Once again, at the return to Ballinamuck the group was together as the hill approached, and at the finish line stewards had difficulty separating the first three cyclists. As it turned out, the Ballinacourty man, fresh from a week off the bike, stormed to victory by the narrowest of margins. In second place was Brett Lynam, followed by Ger Wyley, Paddy Power and Eamon Phelan.

On a wet evening it was pleasing to see that the majority of our Summer Series participants were not deterred by the weather, and enjoyed another wonderful race. We would like to acknowledge the assistance given on the night by our usual crew, and in particular also to Michael Whyte, Martin Veale and Eddie Moore who helped by driving with the groups on the road.

Our Summer Series is open to all Club members, and to members of other cycling clubs, provided you have a current licence, which you will be required to produce. If you are a beginner cyclist, you may participate initially for three weeks, after which you will be required to take out a licence. Membership forms will be available at the start, and once you have cycled three of these Wednesday events, you must return the membership form if you want to continue further. The route for this year's competitive event is the very popular Millstreet circuit, commencing at Master McGrath, climbing Colligan, and follows anti-clockwise to Millstreet, Modeligo, and returning by the main Cappoquin Road to Ballinamuck. The final race in this 2004 O'Mahony Cycles & Nursery Summer Series is scheduled for Friday evening, July 9th. Please note change of date.

Result: John Flynn 10 pts., Brett Lynam 9 pts., Ger Wyley 8 pts., Paddy Power 7 pts., Eamon Phelan 6 pts. All other finishers 5 pts.

CLUB DAY, SUNDAY JULY 25TH

Dungarvan Credit Union Cycling Club is organising a fun Club Day on Sunday morning July 25th and it is hoped that each and every member of the club will participate. Involved is a cycle, a club photograph and refreshments along the route. More details next week.

SPINS FOR THE COMING WEEK...

Tuesday and Thursday, from Kilrush at 6.30pm, Saturday from Kilrush at 9.30am, and Sunday from the Square at 9.30am. Competitive cycling from Master McGrath at 6.45 pm on Wednesday.

RING OF KERRY

A great group from the club is booked into Killarney for the first weekend in July for the annual Ring of Kerry Charity event, and are currently training for the 112-mile trip. In previous years we have been delighted with how well cyclists were taken care of on this event, and accordingly we would like to remind all our participating members that a reasonable contribution is expected to fulfil your obligation. An evening of merriment is assured following the completion of the event.

END OF SEASON TRIP TO KILLARNEY

An end-of-season trip for club members and partners to the Arbutus Hotel in Killarney is being organised for Saturday, September 25th. Dinner is included, and we are assured of an extremely reasonable rate. Rooms are limited, and you will need to contact Tony O'Mahony at 43346 within the next few days to reserve your accommodation. The plan is to cycle to Killarney on the Saturday morning, and celebrate a very successful club year later that evening.

WICKLOW 200K

Twelve club members ventured to take part in the 2004 Wicklow 200k last Sunday, June 13th. Participating were: Finbarr Kelly, Tony Murray, Justin Coonan, Brett Lynam, Martin Veale, Michael Dwyer, John Flynn, Mark Power, Pádraig de Búrca, Margo O'Dowd, Liam Connors and Pierce Casey. We will have a report on this event next week.

DUNGARVAN RUGBY CLUB NOTES

SOCIAL

On Sunday, 6th June our annual social took place in the Park Hotel. Despite the obvious attraction of Páirc Uí Caoimh on the day, come on the lads!, we had a massive turnout. In especial I must salute the efforts of those who managed to get back in time from the match although Jackson seemed to be well rewarded for his efforts (more later).

A big thank you also to the Park's staff for being both gracious and efficient on the night. To their eternal credit they managed to get the meal in front of us only an hour and a half late. A great achievement considering how reluctant club members seemed to be to leave the bar. When the staff finally shepherded us into the hall, they provided a delicious meal and I cannot exaggerate our gratitude for an exceptional nights service.

With the meal devoured the speeches were upon us. Noble efforts from Jackson, as club captain, Liam our President, and Fiona, ladies captain were outshone by our guest of honour, Niall O'Driscoll, President of the Munster Branch. Admittedly, Niall did not have to content with his baby pictures being projected onto the screen as he talked, as other speakers did. Niall had attended two weddings on Friday and Saturday so we must applaud his efforts to our event too. What most shone through was his enthusiasm for the game, both in his speech and speaking with him afterwards. He also made the gracious offer of any possible help he can afford us. Jackson presented him with a beautiful prize of Waterford Crystal on behalf of the club though this can hardly reflect the depth of gratitude.

So to the awards, the only reason many of the crowd turned had turned up at all. Players of the year went to Ian Walsh and never has there been a more popular recipient. An absolute foundation of our defence, scintillating in attack and an all round nice guy (off the pitch at least). Ian was this years outstanding players, despite an awful disciplinary record! As for the ladies team, I don't think anybody would dispute that Brenda Hunt deserved the ladies player of the year award. Her athleticism, enthusiasm and bravery stood out in what was an outstanding debut year for the whole squad. Long may the team thrive both for what they bring to the club and for the spark of life a number of the squad brought to a few lucky individuals in the male club!!

Clubman of the year went to Jackson, a clear no brainer and a start to a great night for him. After being male captain at the start of the year, he took on the duties of club manager and selector after the first league game, due to the departure of Pat Walsh. He was an exceptional leader on the pitch, always at the forefront of the action and never shirked extra work around the club. All this and the birth of his first child during the season. One award just doesn't seem enough.

Juvenile players of the year was a more contentious affair. Strong showings from past winners, Joe Power and Cian Walsh, club stalwarts Cian Moloney and Simon Hanrahan and newcomers Kieran Connery and Jim Flavin were seen off by flamboyant hooker and club comedian Kelvin Brady. To describe Kelvin as a character would be to ridiculously understate the matter but it was hard graft and consummate skill that earned him this accolade. Now all that remains is for him to answer, why do all great hookers (Keith Wood, Shane Byrne, Kelvin himself and our own Sean Walsh) have such, er, distinctive haircuts?

The formalities dispensed with the serious business of the night began. Both the band, Big in Japan and D.J. John O'Connor gave great performances with a wide range of music to dance the night away. Highlights of the dance floor included the ladies team strutting their stuff to much open mouthed admiration, two, for reasons of discretion unnamed, revellers parading around the floor under a table cloth and Eoin Phelan performing manoeuvres which we can only pray won't be part of the pre-season training he's planning.

Towards the end of the night the new club lotto was launched. Fortunately for the club, unfortunately for the participants, there was no winner to christen its birth. Four spot prizes of E20 each were drawn, Jackson again striking lucky to win one. Perhaps he knew something we didn't, especially as he was overseeing the draw, but maybe he's just a lucky guy. One way or the other we now have a fully functional club lotto, the draw for which will take place in a different pub every second week. Just a note to say all club members are expected to sell tickets, the money raised will benefit you directly.

Some of the crowd seemed frankly disgusted that the bar actually closed on time (shock, horror). However, laws are laws and the crowd dispersed, some gladly home to bed, others in search of more revelry. Thankfully, we can look back on a successful night, both socially and financially. Hopefully the social will thrive for many years to come and next year let's bring some silverware along to celebrate.

WATERFORD VIKINGS 56 CORK BULLS 14

On a glorious afternoon in sun-kissed Cork, Waterford Vikings played their first competitive fixture against a Cork Bulls team highly fancied for the title. In the past few years the Bulls have been one of the leading forces in Irish Rugby league, so it was with no little trepidation that we stepped into the old Christians pitch.

Our fears were confirmed in the opening minutes as Bulls crossed for the first try of the game. Some good defending was undone by ill-discipline when a quickly taken penalty allowed the Bulls in. Moments later Vikings were desperately unlucky when a perfectly judged cross field kick by stand off Kevin Bower just eluded Bonzie's grasp in the corner. The Vikings fought on though and were rewarded soon after when James Caples finished off a well orchestrated drive.

The Bulls regained the lead when an innocuous grubber kick took a wicked deflection and allowed their loose forward to touch down under the posts. The lead didn't last as Vikings struck back through Bower, whose subtle dummy left the Bulls defense flat footed. Following hot on the heels was try of the match, again from Caples, who eluded four would be tacklers on his route to the sticks. A lapse in concentration left us exposed and their centre took full advantage to bring Cork into a two point lead. Vikings had the last say in the half though with Dermot Fahey over from close range to send his team in at half time 18-14 up.

Bulls emerged visibly pumped up for the second half. To Waterford's credit they did not leave Bulls cross the line, despite spending ten minutes defending on their own line. Eventually the siege was lifted and Vikings upped the tempo and began to impose themselves on their opposition. Tries from Bower, Francis Deffew, John Flavin and a brace from Bonzie Power broke Bull's morale. Two excellent long range efforts one each from Cian Moloney and Stephen Barron completed the route. On the day there were many contenders for man of the match but James Caples performance singled him out for the award to cap his two tries and solid defensive display.

Tries: James Caples (2), Bonzie Power (2), Kevin Bower (2), Francis Deffew, John Flavin, Dermot Fahey, Cian Moloney and Stephen Barron.

Conversions: Bonzie Power (5), Barry Walshe (1).

Team: P. Power, E. Connors, D. Whelan, J. Caples, B. Power, K. Bower, K. Kirwan, F. Deffew, W. Hogan, J. Flavin, C. Langley, D. Fahey, R. Heep.

Reps: S. Ree, D. Reynolds, M. Ryan, C. Moloney, D. Walshe, S. Walshe, S. Barron.

Special thanks to the Anchor Bar and Dillons Fitted Furniture for agreeing to sponsor the team. I'm sure the lads will reciprocate the gesture and support your business.

Next Saturday we play Limerick at home in Ballyrandle, kicking off at 4pm. Come early, stay late, drink cider in the sun, watch a fast paced, hard hitting sport. For all the girls, if your need further persuasion, just think off what Brian O'Driscoll and Johnny Wilkinson look like in shorts!!

UNDER-11 TOURNAMENT

We had two teams competing in the Sonny Nolan seven a side tournament which took place in Tramore last Saturday. It was a brilliant day and the tournament was organised brilliantly which was a fitting tribute to the late Sonny Nolan who worked tirelessly for schoolboy soccer in Waterford for over a half a century.

Both our teams reached the last eight of the shield competition with one of the teams involved in an exciting penalty shootout against Bolton in the last sixteen. This was great experience for all twenty players involved and the new kit won by Heather Finn made us look a very professional outfit on the day.

Many thanks to Dave Phillips who organised our players superbly who was ably assisted by Paul Leonard. Much appreciation to all the parents who travelled.

FERRYBANK TOURNAMENT

Ferrybank are holding an under-10 tournament on Saturday the 26th of June. This tournament is for players whose date of birth is on or after the 1st of January 1994.

SNIPPETS

Shay Kinsella of Share A Dream Foundation was in Stradbally last Sunday evening where we officially handed over the proceeds of the Christmas Day Swim. Photos were taken in the Square and Shay spoke about their plans for the summer including a massive holiday in Galway in August for up to a thousand children. One would have to be touched by the excellent work done by Shay and his team on very small recourses. Share A Dream as Shay explained is financed not by big fundraising drives but by numerous smaller events like our swim throughout the country. Once again many thanks to all to helped in any way.

The AGM of the club will take place on Thursday the 15th of July. We are giving good notice so expect a good turnout. We are looking for more new blood to come on the committee. Please think about it as we are now in the most important year of our 36th year in existence with our development. We will also be forming a committee for the school-boy/girl section so we would be hoping a number of parents would be interested in this.

DEISE ARCHERY CLUB NEWS

CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS

This weekend we hold our club championship in the Black Hill. This will be a double round shoot consisting of 40 big game targets. This shoot will start at 11.00 am registration for shoot is at 10.30. With the amount of new members this year one would expect to see some new faces on the winners podium. That doesn't mean that the old dogs will give up their titles without a fight. It has been interesting to see some faces that have been conspicuous by their absence, turning up lately for shoots. Ah yes the scene is set let the mind games begin and may the best man (or woman) win. Full results and photos to appear next week.

THE SQUIRREL IS DEAD LONG LIVE THE SQUIRREL

Yes folks it is with deep regret that I announce that our 3D squirrel has shaken off his mortal coil and gone to that great 3D course in the sky. While this will be met in some quarters with joy, I do believe that he should be replaced, this of course will be top of the agenda at our next open meeting, anyone wishing to comment on this matter can leave a message on the website forum at <http://www.chatarea.com/ITFASForum>

Will the course director please remove the remains and dispose of them in a sensitive manner.

Red House League ROUND UP

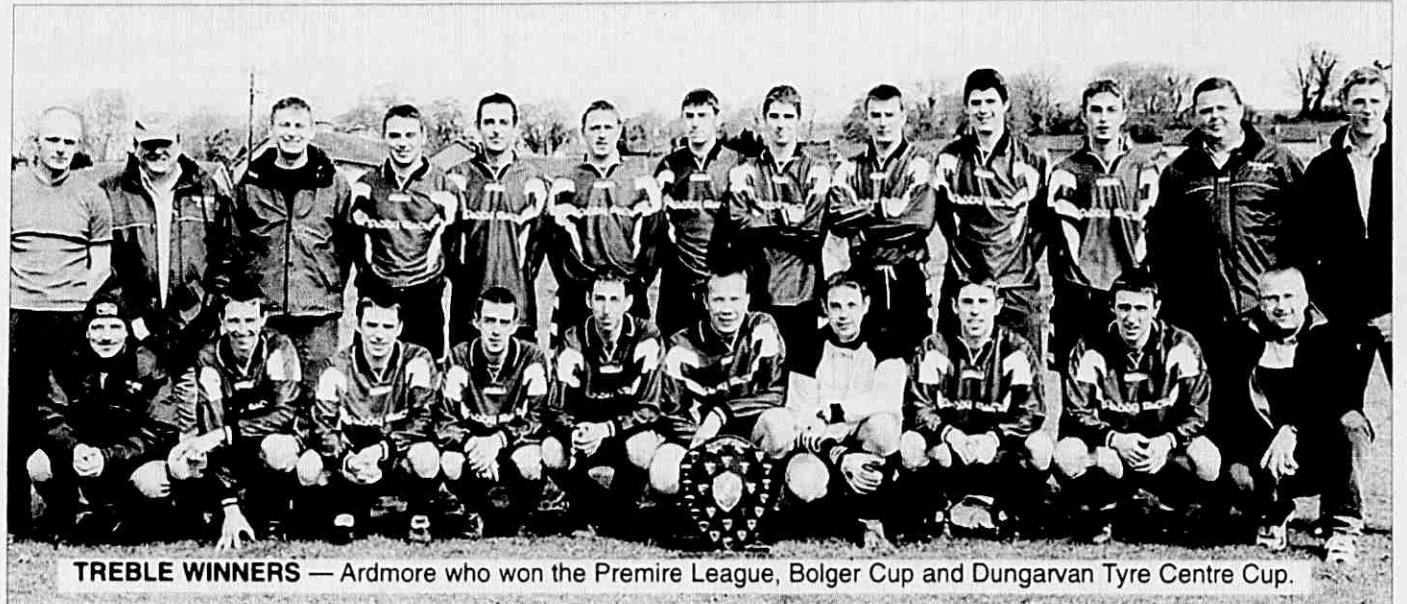

A LOOK BACK

In our look back at the season just finished we concentrate on the Premier Division. Red House League champions Ardmore had a fantastic season, being the 2nd team only to complete the League and Dungarvan Tyre Centre Cup double (Ballyduff the only other team to do so) and then to complete their season by adding another trophy, the Tony Bolger Plate, which they won by defeating Glen View in the final. We have described them on so many occasions as the best team in the league all season. They just dropped 3 pts all season, being defeated in Lismore by 3 goals to 2 goals in one of the best games this writer has seen all season. This was just a blip on their league performances as they won the league by nine points from their nearest challengers Lismore. Indeed with themselves and Lismore it turned into a two team race from the start of the season but on the 22nd February Ardmore went top of the table and the rest as they say is history. It was a fantastic season of consistency week after week and they are deserving champions.

However, next season will see a new challenge for the seaisiders as they try to retain the championship, a feat accomplished by only one team in the history of the league. Brideview in fact they won the league three times in a row. With the team Ardmore had last year and if the same commitment is given by the players, then there is no reason why they should not retain the championship, and an added bonus to the league would be to see Ardmore competing in the FAI and Munster Junior Cup competitions as this writer believes that with this current team they would be very strong contenders to go a long way in both competitions. Time will tell. Lismore, the reigning League champions got off to the best possible league start winning their opening two league games but lost in Ardmore with a very much understrength team. They eventually finished nine points behind the champions and dropped a total of 12 points in the 14 games, points that would have made a difference at the end, but unfortunately, Lismore were unable to field a settled and strong side every week. The club will of course be the lack of commitment by some players and as the club PRO wrote just after Christmas in a criticism of the leagues management in arranging an Oscar Traynor Cup challenge. "Our own league has to be the priority". We would say this applies to players in clubs as well! The Lismore club can be very proud of their players who played in the Oscar TREBLE WINNERS — Ardmore who won the Premire League, Bolger Cup and Dungarvan Tyre Centre Cup.

Traynor Cup campaign with their players giving 100% in the successful Cup run, not forgetting Joe Tobin who was joint manager of the inter league team.

Before we leave the top two teams is it any coincidence that both clubs are working hard at under age level. Credit here to everyone involved. In third place but 8 pts behind Lismore came Accrington Celtic who had their best season ever in the league. The Fermoy based outfit were very happy with their seasons work losing to Lismore on the opening day of the league they then picked up points before losing to Ardmore in a thriller in Fermoy. Indeed both Lismore and Ardmore completed the league double over Accrington, those four games being the only games they lost. Valley Rangers defeated them at the quarter final stage of the Tyre Centre Cup.

So overall they can look forward to next season with a certain degree of confidence. Brideview, for so many years the leagues standard bearers both on and off the field finished in 4th spot but 19 points behind the leaders.

However they can point to the fact that they played their 14 league games away from home as they carried out major work to their playing area. During the season they also opened their all weather pitch which has been a resounding success for the many clubs around the area. However they did not finish the season without silverware as they were defeated by Valley Rangers in the final of the Tony Bolger Cup. With many young players coming through (they won the 18 Cup) and a fantastic underage section Brideview will be back knocking at the top of the ladder in the new season were especially when they will be playing at home again. Valley Rangers, like Bride View always to the fore in Munster and FAI Junior Cup competitions had by their own standards a very poor league campaign, finishing in the bottom half of the league. They did however contest their Cup finals. In the Tyre Centre Cup they played second fiddle to winners Ardmore. In the Bolger Cup they overcame their neighbours and old Joe's Brideview and in the last game of the season lost out to Ballyduff in the Liam Fitzgerald Cup Final when they were comprehensively beaten especially in the 2nd half of that final losing by 3 goals to 1 goal.

So the summer break will do them the very best as they re-group for the new season, in which they should once again challenge for the top honours. Cappoquin champions two seasons ago were lucky and very lucky to avoid the drop to the 1st division which would have been the very first time that they would have been relegated in their history.

Here again we have a club with a wonderful underage structure and there are no fears for them as they will be a force again when their youths get more league experience.

At present much time has been taken up by the committee with the wonderful work they are doing in building their dressing rooms and erecting lights, all of which should be ready for the start of next season in August and the benefit of lights will be of tremendous help, not only to the club themselves, but also to the benefit of the league.

Pinewood Rangers promoted last season will have to play 1st division football again next season. They had some very good results early in the league but some mistakes at club committee level cost them points, points that would have kept them in the premier division. Knowing Mike Guiry like we do, Pinewood will be back in the premier this time twelve months.

Also relegated after just one season with the top boys will be Gortroe. To us, they were without doubt the biggest disappointment of the league. With the panel of players, most of them experienced with Munster Senior League experience - Gortroe were expected to be challenging for top honours.

We ourselves tipped them as outsiders for top honours at the very start of the year, but unfortunately they never had a settled side in any two weeks.

Speaking to some of their committee last week, there is a club restructuring taking place at present and they should be back challenging for promotion when next April or May arrives. So, that is our look at the Premier Division, division that was not as exciting as other seasons, with the league turning into a two 'horse race' with Ardmore and Lismore dominating the division from the very start of the season and unfortunately none of the other six sides able to keep pace with them.

Two sides, Bride View and Cappoquin had to devote much of their season preparing their grounds for the coming season and as we already wrote earlier, both clubs have wonderful underage structures and they should be a force once again come August.

OSCAR TRAYNOR CUP

It's that time of the year. The summer recess when the playing fields become quiet for a few weeks. However, we met up with Liam Fraser joint manager of the Oscar Traynor Cup side that were so unlucky to be beaten by the Sligo/Leitrim league in Sligo.

Liam told us that he hoped Joe Tobin and Paddy Pollard will come on board against next season with the management side of the Inter League team. Liam told us he is very busy at present with his beloved Bride View as they get their grounds ready for the new season. Liam gave us a wide ranging interview and we will publish this next week, and we should have more news after the AGM on the make up of the Oscar Traynor Cup management team.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

This Monday night, June 21st will see the Annual General Meeting of the Red House League take place at the Red House, Lismore commencing at 8.30 pm. All clubs are reminded to be present and on time as the meeting will commence at the appointed time.

There are many items to be discussed and the committee gave a commitment at the last delegate meeting that a discussion on fixtures will take place, this is to help those clubs who will be competing in the FAI and Munster Junior Cups and also the Oscar Traynor Cup squad who will start their campaign before Christmas.

Also on Monday night the Red House League Super Draw will be launched so a busy night is in store.

League Chairman Ml. McBride will be commencing his final year in the chair and league fixtures secretary Jim Foley will be retiring from the committee after many years holding the post. In fact Jim has been involved with the Red House League since it was founded in 1972. So there will be some new faces on the incoming committee.

Hope to see you there. Remember the time 8.30 pm.

Juvenile G.A.A. News from the Deise County

DR. HARTY CUP FIXTURES FOR 2004-2005 ANNOUNCED

Colaiste na nDeise who were beaten in the final of this years Dr. Harty Cup Final against St. Flannans from Ennis will have it all to do if they are to equal or better the results they achieved in last years competition. The combined Waterford Colleges have been drawn in a group along with Cashel Community School, North Mon from Cork City and Midleton C.B.S.

The first round of games in the 2004-2005 competition will take place on September 29th. Colaisti na nDeise will play Cashel on this date at a venue most likely to be in or around the Clonmel area. In round two on October 13th Colaisti na nDeise will face North Mon and on November 10th Colaisti na nDeise will play Midleton C.B.S.

De La Salle will also be involved in the competition for the coming year. De La Salle will be expected to be very strong in the competition in 2004-2005. They will be picking players mainly from the De La Salle and Ballygunner Clubs. In the opening round of games De La Salle will face the holders of the competition St. Flannan's. The two sides met in the quarter finals in last years competition and on that occasion De La Salle were unlucky to miss out. In round two De La Salle will play Kilmallock from Limerick and in round three they face another Limerick side in Doon C.B.S.

Another college side the Deise Supporters will be looking out for is St. Colmans from Fermoy. Over the past few years the Fermoy College have reached a number of Dr. Harty Cup Finals winning a number of them. In these winning teams a number of players from the clubs in the very far west of the county have worn the Colman's shirt with pride and a number of more are expected to be involved in the 2004-2005 competition.

In the opening round of games St. Colman's will play Colaiste Spioraid Naomh, in round two they play Colaiste Christ Ri and in round three play Thurles C.B.S. The best of luck is wished to all Waterford players that will be involved in this years competition. Closer to the time more details of the competition will appear in these notes.

UNDER 12 COUNTY FINALS

The under 12 hurling county finals were expected to take place this Saturday afternoon at Fraher Field. Due to unforeseen circumstances these final will now not go ahead as planned. The division one final between Ballygunner and the winners in tonight's (Wednesday) Western Final between Dungarvan and Lismore will play at a venue and time to be arranged in the Dungarvan Area.

The division two and three finals will now not take place until Saturday June 26th. In Division Two, Naomh Brid or St. Olivers who meet in tonight (Wednesday) Western Final in Cappoquin will play Passage. In the City League Final, Passage played Kilmacow from Kilkenny.

As these notes are been put together it is not known who won this final, however as Kilmacow are a Kilkenny Club and therefore could not play in a Waterford County Final, win or lose Passage will contest the Division Two county final.

Butlerstown after beating St. Saviours in the City League Division Three Final will play the winners of the Kilrossanty/An Gaeltacht Western Final.

FEILE FINAL

The County Feile Peil Og Final will take place this Friday evening in Fraher Field. For the second year in a row, Nire will represent the West of the county in the final. There opponents in the Final will be either De La Salle or Gaultier who met in the Eastern Final at Gaultier last night (Tuesday).

SUMMER CAMPS

Young hurlers both male and female across the city and county are reminded once again about the Azzurri Summer Camps that are taking place at nearly 30 venues across the city and county during the months of July and August.

The camps which cost a,45 per child or a,40 per child if there are two or more from the same family attending the camps. It is recommended that those who intend to participate in the camps are enrolled in plenty of time as the Waterford Kits which are given to each participant this year will have to be organised.

PRIMARY GAME.

Congratulations to the Primary School's team on their win over Limerick in the Primary Game in Limerick on Sunday. The Waterford panel of players for the game against limerick was as follows, Robert Bresna (Scoil Lorcaín), Brian O'Halloran (Kinsalebeg), Kevin Feely (Glor na Mara) Thomas Walsh (Ballymacarbry), Shane Nolan (St. Stephens), Donal O'Connor (Clashmore), Pat Fitzgerald (Bunscoil Bothar Naomh), Thomas Daly (Tallow), Corey De Roiste (Ring), Robin Spencer (St. Declan's), Frankie Condon (Touraneena), Michael O'Halloran (Abbeyside), Robbie Flynn (Fenor) and Conor O'Shea (Ardmore).

Preparations are at present I am sure under way to organising a team to contest a game against Cork before the Munster Senior Hurling Final in Thurles on Sunday week. As these notes are been put together I don't know if the team to be selected will be a hurling or camogie team. Which ever it is, it will be a very special day for the players selected as they will get to play in front of a crowd that will be 50,000 or more, something the vast majority of those that will play, will never experience again.

WESTERN FINALS

As already stated earlier two finals of the Declan Kiely Painting and Decorating Contractor under 12 hurling championship will take place this evening (Wednesday) at the Cappoquin venue. The division one final will see the meeting of Lismore and Dungarvan. In the league section of the competition, Lismore came out on top and going on this result Lismore will be favourites to take the division one title.

In Division two Naomh Brid will play St. Olivers in a local derby game. When the two sides met in the league section of the competition St. Olivers won the game and there will have to be favourites to take the title. However Naomh Brid have some very talented players in the likes of Michael Kiely and goalkeeper Eoin Kearns and cannot be ruled out of winning the final.

The division one final has a 7-00pm throw in and the division two final has a 8-00pm starting time. both games will be refereed by Tommy O'Sullivan.

The division three final between Kilrossanty and An Gaeltacht will take place this Thursday evening. As these notes are been put together on Monday evening no venue or time has been arranged for the game. however as soon as one is confirmed both clubs will be told.

JOHN MITCHELLS G.A.A. NOTES

Granville Hotel Junior Football Championship John Mitchells 5-6 Rathgormack 0-5 Hat Trick For Sullie

Mitchells got off to a flying start with goals from Kieran Power and Paddy O'Sullivan. Rathgormack scored a point, K. Power responded with two well taken points. Rathgormack finished the first half with a point leaving the half time score 2-2 to 0-2.

Second half started the same as the first, goal from a penalty from P. O'Sullivan and then a point and a goal by Ollie Atkins. Rathgormack had a point from play, at this stage Rathgormack were getting on top and were awarded a penalty which skimmed over the cross bar for a point. A wake up call which brought a fisted point by K. Power who also had a point from play minutes later.

After a well worked movement out field P. O'Sullivan was in for a point and finished the scoring with his third goal. Rathgormack had a last attack up field with a great shot at goal, was reflected over the bar by Motherwell goalkeeper David Peinel who had a magnificent game, between the posts.

Waterford Junior Football

Congratulations to Niall Barry, David and Tony Kirwan and John Power who had a very good game to help the Junior footballers to a Munster final in Limerick last Sunday against Limerick, the first adult championship win of this century.

County Duty

The Waterford Junior Football Team beat Limerick last Sunday and now find themselves in a Munster Final. This is super news for the two Ballinacourty lads who are involved with Jackson's Army. Laurence Hurney played at centre back and young Decky Fives is also on the panel. It must be fairly unique in that John Hurney Laurence's brother is on the Senior Hurling Panel who have qualified for the Munster Final and Laurence now also stands to bring another Munster Final medal back to the Hurney house hold. John already holds an under 21 Munster Football medal from last year. It would be great to see the lads going all the way and winning an All-Ireland medal.

Leaving on a jet plane.

This must be Hurney week but we would like to wish Lorna Hurney (yes you guessed it Laurence & John's sister) all the very best in her travels to Australia. Lorna no doubt will link up with another Hurney, her brother Garry, who is currently ensconced in the antipodes with John "Fifi" Phelan.

Senior Hurling Challenge

The senior hurlers had a good run out against Ballyduff Lower in a challenge game last Sunday morning. Fair play to Ballyduff for coming up for an 11.30am throw in. Our fellows certainly struggled out of bed it being so early of a Sunday morning. The game was lively and evenly contested despite both teams being short a few regulars. But this is no harm because it puts other fellows in the shop window. Well done to referee Robbie Whelan from Kilrossanty who did an excellent job. The team that started was as follows Pat Enright, Eoin Hayes, Gavin Breen, Brian Hayes, Gary Lyons, Rick Hanrahan, Alan Ryan, Shane Briggs, Patrick Lynch, Richie Foley, Eoin Murray, Paul Breen, Michael Enright, John Foley and Liam Briggs. Substitutes used were Mick Collins, David Cashin and the injured Brian Scanlon and Sean McGrath was also on hand.

Under 16 Hurling Championships

Having won the under 16 Football county final our lads under the tutelage of Joe Power,

Johnny Byrnes and Brian Beatty are now busily preparing for the under 16 hurling championship. Their first game will take place on Monday the 28th of June. This game will be played against Roanmore at our own club grounds. This will be an ideal way to get over your Munster Final hangover. Get and shout for the lads.

Fr. Doherty's Golden Jubilee

We wish the very best to Fr. O'Doherty our very popular parish priest whose golden jubilee takes place this Friday. Best wishes from the club and continued good health to Fr. Doherty.

Joe Flynn Cup

The club is thrilled to be awarded a cup by the Flynn family in memory of Joe. This cup will be used by our juvenile section and will be played for in a tournament to be arranged for our minor team. Our thanks to the Flynn family for this wonderful gesture.

Flag Day

Our juvenile Flag Day's will take place on the 17th and 18th of July. Kevin Tobin is arranging this and as usual this will be planned with military precision. Kevin will be looking for helpers so don't be shy and volunteer to do your bit.

Leaving and Junior Certificate

A lot of our players are currently slogging through their Leaving and Junior Certificate exams. It's funny the way the sun always seems to come out during exam times. We continue to wish all those sitting exams the very best of luck.

Tickets for the Munster Senior Hurling Final

Tickets for the Munster Final MUST be ordered from Club secretary Bernard Shields by Thursday the 17th of June at the latest. Bernard can be contacted on 058-41467. This is important folks, as some people believe they can turn up on the night and collect tickets. As you can appreciate it this is a thankless task as tickets will be at a premium for the Munster Final. So make sure you get your order in by the 17th at the latest.

Playing Field

A reminder to all that permission granting use of the field can only be received from our Club Secretary Bernard Shields who can be contacted on 058-41467. It has been noted of late that some people using the grounds have been leaving the gates at the road end open. Can those who open these gates for buses etc please close the gates immediately and ensure that they remain locked.

Happy Birthday

The night of the Tipperary game was a mighty night in the Village Inn. The celebrations were two fold. The game was video taped and was run over and over again for the screaming hordes. Celebrations were also taking place on the night for the great Johnny "Youghal" Long an immigrant who was enticed to Abbeyside by the elegant Ann and who celebrated his 50th birthday. There was craic and food a plenty as those who arrived back from Cork exhausted after the match were feted with the finest food and beverages. An unnamed local wit ventured the comment that Johnny must have been born in a leap year because he reckons this is his fourth time getting presents for his 50th birthday.

Local elections

Congratulations to Brendan Mansfield on being elected to the Waterford County Council and to the Dungarvan Town Council. Brendan currently hurls with Abbeyside and is son to our Chairman Tony Mansfield. Also well done to Nuala Ryan who was voted on to the Dungarvan Town Council. Nuala is mother to current hurler and footballer with the club Alan "Chunky" Ryan. Also well done to locals Billy Kyne and Dr. Tom Higgins and commiseration to those who did not make it.

Super Trio

The Kilkenny and Wexford players on our Super Trio panel commenced their All-Ireland campaigns last weekend. Even with all three scoring they could not unseat the leading combination from the previous week, namely John Mullane, Joe Deane, and Eoin Kelly with his excellent contribution of 2-8 for Tipperary against Waterford. Galway's Eugene Cloonan is the only one left to enter the fray as the All-Ireland Qualifiers get under way. It will be interesting to see what kind of score DJ and Henry accumulate as they try to enter through the cat flap in the back door.

Under 10 Hurling

We travelled to Kill last Saturday with an under strength team for the first round of the under 10 City League. We bounced back from two early defeats to win our third game and salvage some pride. There are lots more games to look forward to over the coming weeks.

Sympathies

Junior Senior League

This 13 a side competition, often used as a warm up for the Championship, has this year taken on a championship feeling with the top four ending up on equal points. With the top two to go to through to the final, and with scoring averages not taken into account, it means that we will have two-semi final to determine the final pairing.

This came about with St. Anne's and Gaultir, having to win to keep their hopes alive, doing just that in overcoming Ardkeen and Lismore respectively. The two semi final pairings will see Lismore at home to Gaultir and St. Anne's at home to Ardkeen. With the championship looming and with our county teams due in action over the next few weeks it was decided to set the September 4th as the semi final date with the final one week later. This was the correct decision and will allow an extension to the season for senior players whose season normally ends in July.

Under 12

The under 12 Championships are well under way at the moment with Lismore picking up full points from their four games to date and are almost assured of a final place in Division A while in the B Division

Tallow are flying high and are looking likely finalists. Both table toppers will be hoping to go one better than their under 14 teams.

Fixtures:

Monday 21st June
A Division:
St. Anne's v Butlerstown
Lismore v Ardkeen
Gaultir v Tallow
B Division:
Dungarvan v Portlaw
Tramore v Cappoquin

Inter Provincial Tournament

It was great to see Aine Lyng, Kate Marie Hearn and Karen Kelly represent the county when on the winning Munster Junior team last weekend. All three played their part in this victory and it shows that our players are well up to the standard of more established counties.

Referee

Congratulations to Morgan Conroy on being rewarded with another big match assignment when he took charge of the Munster Senior Final between current and previous All Ireland winners Tipperary and Cork last week in Semple Stadium. Ever willing to accommodate clubs and counties the advice and help he gives from beginners to senior is much appreciated.

U-11 Town and Country League

After their exploits in the U-11 ground hurling final last Friday week, it was back to the Town and Country League last week for our lads when they travelled to Dungarvan to take on the home side. Points from Edward Lonergan, Shane Roche, and Joe Leahy, and a goal from the stick of Rob Beecher put us in a very strong position with just a few minutes to go, but Dungarvan scored near the end to level the match, and we had to be happy with the draw. These lads are playing very well this year, and they could qualify for the final of this tournament if they can beat Abbeyside tonight (Wed) in Knockanore. So if you can, go along and give them a little support, it would give them a big lift. Panel of players; Seanie Barry, Ray Barry, Stevie Lucey, Tomas O'Neill, Joe Leahy, Kegan O'Farrell, Billy Buckley, Ed Lonergan (capt.), Padraig Ahearne, Shane Roche, Rob O'Sullivan, Stefan Tobin, Rob Beecher, Kieran Fraser, Noel Condon, Michael Tobin, Donnchadh McCarthy, Alan Curley, Sean Curley, Lee McLroy.

U-13 & U-14 Hurling skills

Cois Bhride recently held their internal U-13 and U-14 hurling skills trials, and the results were as follows; Thomas McGrath (a fast-improving player this year) was the winner of the U-13 trial, and Kevin O'Brien and Thomas Daly also qualified for the Western final which was held last Wednesday night. None of them were successful on the night, but well done to them anyway. Donnchadh Mulcahy qualified for the Western final of the U-14 skills which was held last Monday (Bank Holiday), and he did the club proud by winning the West. So with very little time to prepare, though he did get a lot of help from last year's All-Ireland Champion Thomas Ryan, it was off to Abbeyside last Thursday night for the County final, and though he did quite well, unfortunately he didn't win it. Well done to all who participated in this competition.

U-14 Hurling

Clonea were the visitors last Saturday morning in Tallow for the second-last game in this year's league. It's been a long season for the U-14's, but their progress in this championship has been good, with 4 games won out of 6. Clonea, however, have also been going well, and they came out on top of this match on a scoreline of 4-6 to 1-3. Keith Hallahan was the top scorer once again with 1-1, Evan Sheehan, and Kevin Curley were the other scorers. Their last match is versus Portlaw/St.Mollerans away next Monday night, and I feel that they might have to win this one to qualify for the play-offs. We wish them well.

Cobhron.

Cois Bhride would like to sympathise with the relatives and friends of Sheila Buckley, Woodview Park, who passed away last Friday. Ar dheis De go raibh a hanam.

Munster Final tickets

A limited amount of tickets will be available through Cois Bhride for the Waterford-Cork match on Sunday week. I am told there are no family tickets to be had, so once again we have to pay the full whack for our usual quota of bad quality stand tickets (not blaming you, Eddie and Anthony!). Runai Ray McCarthy 058-56196 will take your orders (club members only), last orders in before Tues 22nd June.

Shamrocks Poc Fada

Our club was well represented last Monday night week for this fund-raiser in aid of the Leukemia Trust Fund or Friends of Ward 2, and wasn't it great to see so many of the heroic Waterford team there just 24 hours after toppling Tipp. And indeed, James Murray and Paul (supersub) O'Brien were the very popular joint winners of the event which raised a very creditable 2,400 Euro for this charity. As usual the weather was magnificent, a few egos slightly bruised by the inability to propel the sliothar more than five yards without the intervention of the ditch, and the usual litany of excuses. All in all, a great night.

Waterford Primary team

Congratulations to Thomas Daly who was picked on the Primary School's football team versus Limerick last Sunday before the Senior Match in the Gaelic Grounds. Good to see football getting a look in now and then!

Golf Classic

Our annual golf classic, held on June 9 at Killeen Golf Club, was a great success. Blessed by excellent weather, 25 teams battled it out for the top prize, a set of engraved copper plaques specially hand-made by Jim Marsden. Victory eventually went to the Woodchester Finance team led by former Waterford dual star, Liam "Chuck" O'Connor.

Our special guest for the day was current Waterford hurling star Eoin Murphy, who brought a team with him all the way from Cork. It proved to be a fruitful journey, as Eoin's team (sponsored by PJ Hegarty) took sixth prize overall, and Eoin himself was the winner of our raffle for two Munster Final tickets. We are very grateful to Eoin for his support of the event.

We thank all those who provided sponsorship for the event, and especially those who donated prizes: Waterford Crystal, Allied Drinks, the Déise Development Draw, the Gold Coast, Dungarvan, West Waterford, Killeen and Black Bush golf clubs, the Granville Hotel, Waterford, Falcon Holidays and the Ordnance Survey.

Fourmilewater Hurling Club Notes

MUNSTER SEMI-FINAL

A fabulous day in Cork was had by all Waterford supporters on Sunday last, after our victory over Tipp. This game went down to the wire, but our grit and determination saw us through. The Munster final is on the 27th June in Thurles against Cork and it should be some game. The semi-final was nerve wrecking and it looked with 5 minutes to go that we were beaten, especially when Ken McGrath came off injured. When Paul O'Brien scored the winning goal, he fulfilled every young Waterford hurlers dream. We always wanted to score the winning goal against Tipp when we were young lads, but he was the one that got it - here's to the Munster final.

BRIAN WALL

Well done to Brian who replaced Tony Browne on the original line up. Brian was superb throughout and looked very confident throughout the match, and he did a lot of work off the ball. Brian is only the fourth Fourmilewater player to play championship hurling for Waterford - Jack Halpin, Mick Connolly and Pat Walsh being the other three. Let's hope Liam Lawlor will be the fifth sooner rather than later. It was great to hear our club being called out at the start of the match, so well done again to Brian. He must be in the reckoning now for a place on the Munster final team.

U-14

Our U-14's played in a Tournament in Clonmel on Bank Holiday Monday, and reached the final where they were narrowly beaten by Clonlally-Rossmore. They performed well and this was a worthwhile exercise. The team looked well on the programme in Cork on the day before, so they played with plenty of conviction.

TICKETS

Any one requiring tickets for the Munster final, contact Tom Kelly before Friday of this week, as there is going to be a great demand for them. Tony Condon had ten ordered since January, but he cancelled them this week for some reason - still he can always go to the seaside on the 27th June and there's always the qualifiers.

U-12

Our U-12's finally bowed out of the championship when they were beaten by St. Oliver's on Saturday last. The final score being 1-5 to 0-1. This team showed great courage and still during the year and can be proud of their performance so far this year and most of them can look forward to the U-13 championship which starts soon.

County Duty

The Waterford Junior Football Team beat Limerick last Sunday and now find themselves in a Munster Final. This is super news for the two Ballinacourty lads who are involved with Jackson's Army. Laurence Hurney played at centre back and young Decky Fives is also on the panel. It must be fairly unique in that John Hurney Laurence's brother is on the Senior Hurling Panel who have qualified for the Munster Final and Laurence now also stands to bring another Munster Final medal back to the Hurney house hold. John already holds an under 21 Munster Football medal from last year. It would be great to see the lads going all the way and winning an All-Ireland medal.

Leaving on a jet plane.

This must be Hurney week but we would like to wish Lorna Hurney (yes you guessed it Laurence & John's sister) all the very best in her travels to Australia. Lorna no doubt will link up with another Hurney, her brother Garry, who is currently ensconced in the antipodes with John "Fifi" Phelan.

Senior Hurling Challenge

The senior hurlers had a good run out against Ballyduff Lower in a challenge game last Sunday morning. Fair play to Ballyduff for coming up for an 11.30am throw in. Our fellows certainly struggled out of bed it being so early of a Sunday morning. The game was lively and evenly contested despite both teams being short a few regulars. But this is no harm because it puts other fellows in the shop window. Well done to referee Robbie Whelan from Kilrossanty who did an excellent job. The team that started was as follows Pat Enright, Eoin Hayes, Gavin Breen, Brian Hayes, Gary Lyons, Rick Hanrahan, Alan Ryan, Shane Briggs, Patrick Lynch, Richie Foley, Eoin Murray, Paul Breen, Michael Enright, John Foley and Liam Briggs. Substitutes used were Mick Collins, David Cashin and the injured Brian Scanlon and Sean McGrath was also on hand.

Under 16 Hurling Championships

Having won the under 16 Football county final our lads under the tutelage of Joe Power,

Johnny Byrnes and Brian Beatty are now busily preparing for the under 16 hurling championship. Their first game will take place on Monday the 28th of June. This game will be played against Roanmore at our own club grounds. This will be an ideal way to get over your Munster Final hangover. Get and shout for the lads.

Fr. Doherty's Golden Jubilee

We wish the very best to Fr. O'Doherty our very popular parish priest whose golden jubilee takes place this Friday. Best wishes from the club and continued good health to Fr. Doherty.

Joe Flynn Cup

The club is thrilled to be awarded a cup by the Flynn family in memory of Joe. This cup will be used by our juvenile section and will be played for in a tournament to be arranged for our minor team. Our thanks to the Flynn family for this wonderful gesture.

Flag Day

Our juvenile Flag Day's will take place on the 17th and 18th of July. Kevin Tobin is arranging this and as usual this will be planned with military precision. Kevin will be looking for helpers so don't be shy and volunteer to do your bit.

Leaving and Junior Certificate

A lot of our players are currently slogging through their Leaving and Junior Certificate exams. It's funny the way the sun always seems to come out during exam times. We continue to wish all those sitting exams the very best of luck.

Tickets for the Munster Senior Hurling Final

Tickets for the Munster Final MUST be ordered from Club secretary Bernard Shields by Thursday the 17th of June at the latest. Bernard can be contacted on 058-41467. This is important folks, as some people believe they can turn up on the night and collect tickets. As you can appreciate it this is a thankless task as tickets will be at a premium for the Munster Final. So make sure you get your order in by the 17th at the latest.

Playing Field

A reminder to all that permission granting use of the field can only be received from our Club Secretary Bernard Shields who can be contacted on 058-41467. It has been noted of late that some people using the grounds have been leaving the gates at the road end open. Can those who open these gates for buses etc please close the gates immediately and ensure that they remain locked.

The night of the Tipperary game was a mighty night in the Village Inn. The celebrations were two fold. The game was video taped and was run over and over again for the screaming hordes. Celebrations were also taking place on the night for the great Johnny "Youghal" Long an immigrant who was enticed to Abbeyside by the elegant Ann and who celebrated his 50th birthday. There was craic and food a plenty as those who arrived back from Cork exhausted after the match were feted with the finest food and beverages. An unnamed local wit ventured the comment that Johnny must have been born in a leap year because he reckons this is his fourth time getting presents for his 50th birthday.

Local elections

Congratulations to Brendan Mansfield on being elected to the Waterford County Council and to the Dungarvan Town Council. Brendan currently hurls with Abbeyside and is son to our Chairman Tony Mansfield. Also well done to Nuala Ryan who was voted on to the Dungarvan Town Council. Nuala is mother to current hurler and footballer with the club Alan "Chunky" Ryan. Also well done to locals Billy Kyne and Dr. Tom Higgins and commiseration to those who did not make it.

Super Trio

The Kilkenny and Wexford players on our Super Trio panel commenced their All-Ireland campaigns last weekend. Even with all three scoring they could not unseat the leading combination from the previous week, namely John Mullane, Joe Deane, and Eoin Kelly with his excellent contribution of 2-8 for Tipperary against Waterford. Galway's Eugene Cloonan is the only one left to enter the fray as the All-Ireland Qualifiers get under way. It will be interesting to see what kind of score DJ and Henry accumulate as they try to enter through the cat flap in the back door.

Golf Classic

Our annual golf classic, held on June 9 at Killeen Golf Club, was a great success. Blessed by excellent weather, 25 teams battled it out for the top prize, a set of engraved copper plaques specially hand-made by Jim Marsden. Victory eventually went to the Woodchester Finance team led by former Waterford dual star, Liam "Chuck" O'Connor.

Our special guest for the day was current Waterford hurling star Eoin Murphy, who brought a team with him all the way from Cork. It proved to be a fruitful journey, as Eoin's team (sponsored by PJ Hegarty) took sixth prize overall, and Eoin himself was the winner of our raffle for two Munster Final tickets. We are very grateful to Eoin for his support of the event.

We thank all those who provided sponsorship for the event, and especially those who donated prizes: Waterford Crystal, Allied Drinks, the Déise Development Draw, the Gold Coast, Dungarvan, West Waterford, Killeen and Black Bush golf clubs, the Granville Hotel, Waterford, Falcon Holidays and the Ordnance Survey.

Prize winners: 1st Woodchester Finance; 2nd Tadhg Rioridan Motors; 3rd Portobello Hotel; 4th Saltan Properties II; 5th Halpin Construction; 6th PJ Hegarty; 7th Morris Insulation; Front Nine Greg Fives; Back Nine Bank of Ireland; Longest Drive Bobby Collis; Nearest the Pin Michael O'Grady.

Fourmilewater Hurling Club Notes

MUNSTER SEMI-FINAL

A fabulous day in Cork was had by all Waterford supporters on Sunday last, after our victory over Tipp. This game went down to the wire, but our grit and determination saw us through. The Munster final is on the 27th June in Thurles against Cork and it should be some game. The semi-final was nerve wrecking and it looked with 5 minutes to go that we were beaten, especially when Ken McGrath came off injured. When Paul O'Brien scored the winning goal, he fulfilled every young Waterford hurlers dream. We always wanted to score the winning goal against Tipp when we were young lads, but he was the one that got it - here's to the Munster final.

BRIAN WALL

Well done to Brian who replaced Tony Browne on the original line up. Brian was superb throughout and looked very confident throughout the match, and he did a lot of work off the ball. Brian is only the fourth Fourmilewater player to play championship hurling for Waterford - Jack Halpin, Mick Connolly and Pat Walsh being the other three. Let's hope Liam Lawlor will be the fifth sooner rather than later. It was great to hear our club being called out at the start of the match, so well done again to Brian. He must be in the reckoning now for a place on the Munster final team.

U-14

Our U-14's played in a Tournament in Clonmel on Bank Holiday Monday, and reached the final where they were narrowly beaten by Clonlally-Rossmore. They performed well and this was a worthwhile exercise. The team looked well on the programme in Cork on the day before, so they played with plenty of conviction.

TICKETS

Any one requiring tickets for the Munster final, contact Tom Kelly before Friday of this week, as there is going to be a great demand for them. Tony Condon had ten ordered since January, but he cancelled them this week for some reason - still he can always go to the seaside on the 27th June and there's always the qualifiers.

U-12

Our U-12's finally bowed out of the championship when they were beaten by St. Oliver's on Saturday last. The final score being 1-5 to 0-1. This team showed great courage and still during the year and can be proud of their performance so far this year and most of them can look forward to the U-13 championship which starts soon.

G.A.A. NOTES

BY "COMMENTATOR"

The Munster Final

Now that the euphoria of the Tipperary game has died down and we are all back to earth again our focus is beginning to switch in to the final in Thurles on next Sunday week.

There was a doubt about the venue and strong representations were made by the Limerick county board and the county council to have the final played there, the first since the massive redevelopment programme which cost approximately €11 million.

Both Waterford and Cork insisted on the game being played at Semple Stadium and the fix-ture has been greeted with great relief. Semple Stadium has a 50,000 plus capacity and geographically more accessible. No one wanted to again experience the nightmare that was Tipperary town after the league final.

Also, the atmosphere in Thurles on Munster final day is something special and adds a lot to the occasion.

Needless to mention, the game against Tipperary has been discussed, debated and analyzed over and over again.

The national media as a whole have praised the quality of the game and agreed that

Waterford were the worthy winners. There seems to be general agreement among the 'experts' that the most praiseworthy aspect of their whole display was the manner in which the team as a whole showed such tremendous character when their backs were to the wall in the closing seven or eight minutes. The feeling seems to be that if this quality can be maintained as a part and parcel of our make-up, the future for Waterford hurling is really bright.

A popular comment relates to the team finishing without three of their outstanding players Paul Flynn, Ken McGrath and Tony Browne and still winning.

This was something unimaginable before Sunday.

A local lady who is a die-hard supporter told me last week "when you are writing about the match now be sure not to make heroes out of a few of them because everyone of them 'burst their guts' trying to win."

I know that the majority of supporters share the same feeling but it would be difficult not to mention the two young newcomers to Munster championship, Paul O'Brien, whose splendidly taken goal proved our winning score and Brian Wall who was thrown into the cauldron of Munster championship to replace the mighty Tony Browne at the last moment. Both players will remember this experience for the rest of their lives, regardless of what they may achieve later.

The game against Tipperary was so different from the clash with Clare that some are inclined to the view that this was not as good a game (obviously because we did not hammer Tipp in the same manner in which we disposed of the Banner county).

In the opinion of Justin McCarthy this was a far more difficult match to win and he told WLR that this was a great game and a very difficult one to win and he said that it was as good a game as he had ever played in. He said all the players were magnificent.

Our old 'enemy' Ger Loughnane writing in the Daily Star believes that Waterford playing to their potential are as good as there is in the country at the present.

Ken Hogan of the Irish Independent paid glowing tribute to the quality of the hurling in the Deise county at the present time and Cyril Farrell on the "Sunday Game" programme believed that there is an All-Ireland in this team.

Of course the post match comment is given balance too and the need 'to keep our feet on the ground' is being emphasized by several and we hear some very well meaning supporters highlighting some of the imperfections that, if persevered with, can effect our progress. On top of the list here is the serious inaccuracy from play and from frees.

This is a matter that many people, not least among them the management team, will reflect upon.

Against All-Ireland and League double champions, Kilkenny we performed outstandingly and won by a single point. If I recall correctly we hit 16 wides in that game.

We defeated Cork also by a single point in another thriller and there we hit 16 wides again. And sixteen was the number of wides against Tipperary in the vital final match in the league when we drew to qualify. We defeated Tipperary in the semi-final in Cork ten days ago also by a single point, having hit 14 wides (as against 8 for Tipp). In our last 4 matches we shot a total of 60 wides from frees and from play and while it is a tribute to the team that despite all that, we got to the league final and are now in the Munster final, it must remain a worrying factor for the management team. Sometimes the cost of a single wide can be immeasurable.

The Winning Factor ?

It is a truism that every tight game in all sports has a 'winning factor' and while this is seldom applied in a serious way to hurling and football, I have often thought (to myself) that we won, or lost, because of a certain aspect of the game. In some sections of the media the same thing is referred to as the 'turning point.' This description is not always accurate.

I have already written that the result of the game in Cork was an 18 man production as far as we were concerned, but at the same time I do believe that this game had a 'winning factor' and that was the superb performance by our defence and particularly our halfback line in the dying minutes of the match. I'm sure that I will be even more convinced of this when I see the video.

Match Tickets

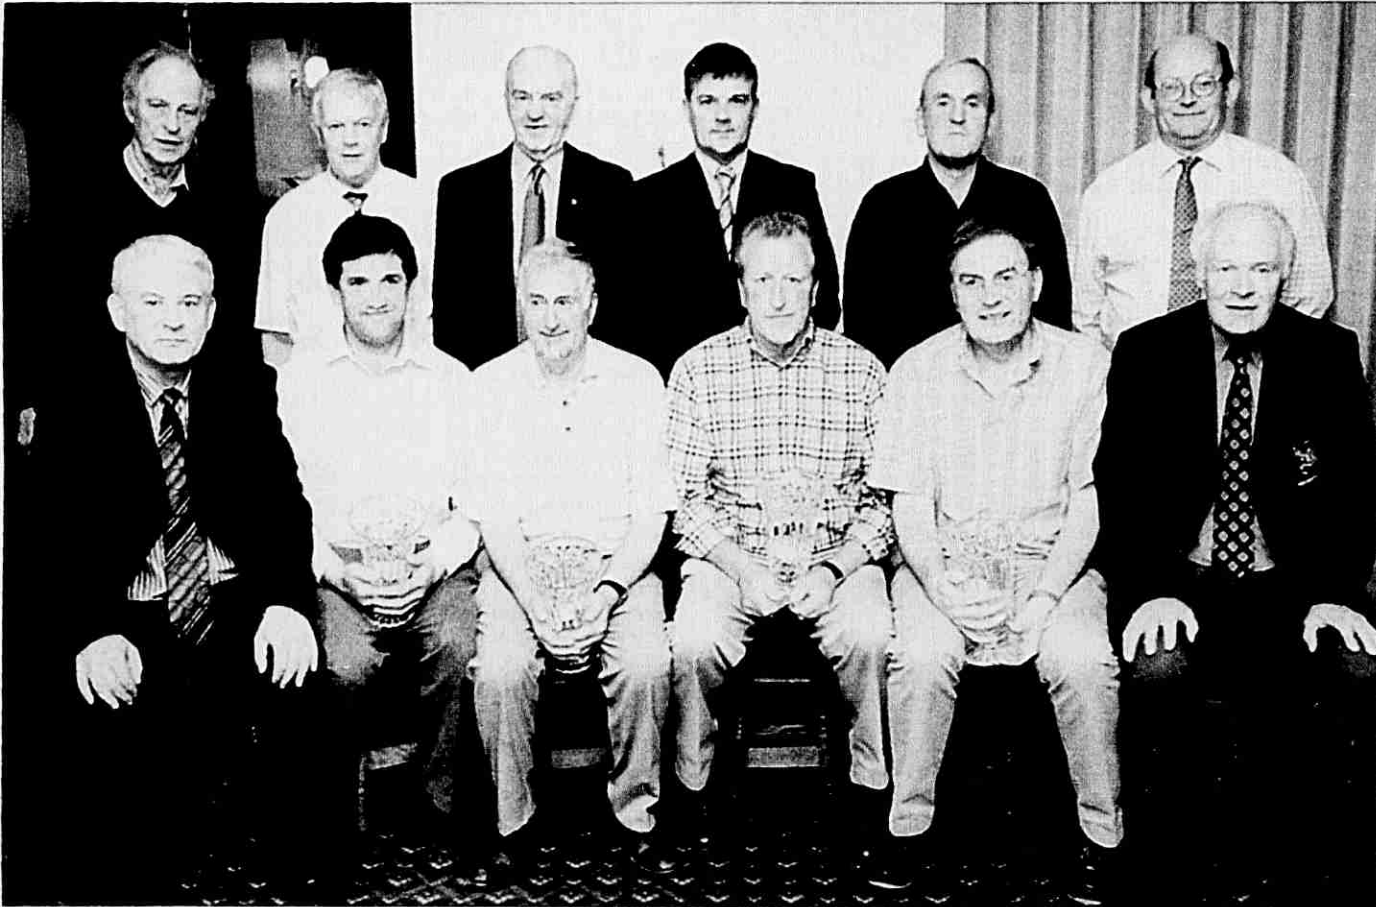

An announcement is to be made this weekend concerning the sale of tickets for the Munster Final. All stand tickets will be on sale through the clubs and paid up club members should make their requirements known as soon as possible.

Terrace tickets will be on sale to the public and here in the West they will be on sale at Kelly's shop in Emmett Street. No stand tickets will be on public sale. The Emmett Street shop is also open for county colours and other such emblems, etc.

Bookies Change Their Minds Again

In the past four weeks the betting shops have been struggling to predict which of a number of counties will win the McCarthy Cup this year.

During this time we have gone from 7th on their list down to 3rd and from 20/1 down to 4/1, as we are at the moment. The champions, Kilkenny remain the firm favourites at 6/4, Cork are next at 7/2. Waterford are on offer at 4/1. Galway are at 5/1 and Tipperary have drifted to 7/1. Clare are at 25/1 and Limerick are now 33/1.

The Qualifier Draws

The defeat of All Ireland champions, Kilkenny by outsiders Wexford on Sunday last was not just a very popular result, it was a game that will be talked about as one of the highlights of the 2004 hurling championship. For Kilkenny it was a defeat which sent them into the Qualifier for their first time.

The meeting of Limerick and Clare will undoubtedly be the biggest attraction and now there will be interest in how the dethroned Leinster champions, Kilkenny fare.

The Draw

Galway v Down
Clare v Laois/Westmeath
Limerick v Tipperary
Kilkenny v Offaly/Dublin

TIPPERARY IN TROUBLE

Tipperary were back in the news again last week and again it was bad news.

The refusal of the Tipperary board to postpone a club championship game involving two players who were on the county football team to play Fermanagh in the Qualifier competition on the following Saturday led to the manager, Andy Shortall resigning with his co-selectors. A three hour meeting of the county board failed to resolve the problem and subsequently the panel of players, showing solidarity with the management notified the county board that they will not play.

The general opinion seems to lay the blame on the board for not deferring the club game as surely the management were entitled to have their full panel available to them for at least six or seven days before an All-Ireland Qualifier.

Like Waterford, football is not first choice in the Premier County, but they did fare far better then we did in the national league and finished with 5 points. In a situation like this there is no winner and it is a pity that it had to happen.

This whole very sad situation brings clearly into focus the growing problems and in some instances the increasing rifts between county and club. It is becoming a major and very serious problem and sooner or later it has got to be faced.

Munster Junior Football Championship

Waterford Qualify For Munster Final

WATERFORD 0-10 LIMERICK 0-7

Waterford junior footballers who are being managed by the same official, John Kiely who guided them to an All-Ireland title six years ago, have now qualified to meet Cork in the provincial final on Wednesday April 30th and as far as we are aware the game will take place in Fraher Field.

The game was played in Limerick's Gaelic Grounds before our senior tie on Sunday last and ended in a very well deserved win for Waterford who fielded a very experienced side which contained several well known senior club players.

After the game, manager John Kiely said the selectors were proud of the way in which the whole team performed and said they were to be congratulated on having worn the county jersey with pride.

Waterford took the game to the home side from the start and were three points clear at halfway.

Limerick exerted great second half pressure and drew level with six minutes remaining. But Waterford hit back with three splendid late points to win deservedly.

PLAY

Waterford opened with an early David Kirwan point and within minutes Limerick replied with a score from Mike Mansell. Ray Hennessey put Waterford back in front but again the home team responded with a point from corner forward Mark Culhane.

At this stage Waterford were well settled in and took control of the game and brought their total to 5 points after David Kirwan, Sean Dempsey and full forward Paul Foley sent over unanswered points to leave the halftime score at 0-5 to 0-2 in favour of Waterford.

SECOND HALF

Immediately after the restart, Phelan had a Limerick point, but John Power responded with two Waterford scores. Limerick gradually got themselves more into the game and with scores from Mansel, Andy Lane and Nicholas Hunt, drew level with Waterford.

Then Waterford came storming back into the game and took complete control in the closing minutes with points from David Kirwan, Ray Hennessey and Emmett Doherty to win deservedly by that margin.

Waterford Scorers - D. Kirwan 0-3, R. Hennessey and J.

Power 0-2 each; S. Dempsey, E. Doherty and P. Foley 0-1 each; Limerick - M. Mansel 0-2; A. Lane, J. O'Connell, D. Phelan, M. Cahill N. hunt, 0-1 each.

Waterford - A. Kirwan, N. Barry, R. Power, M. Byrne, D. Ryan, L. Hurney, M. Kiely, S. Dempsey, M. O'Briien, K. Whelan, D. Kirwan, R. Hennessey, E. Doherty, P. Foley, J. Power. Sub. A. Ahearne for M. O'Brien.

NEXT WEEKEND

Intermediate and Junior Games Down For Decision

It is the weekend in which we enjoy the calm before the storm of the following Sunday in Thurles.

The Western board programme is all about football with intermediate and junior games down for decision.

IFC Dungarvan v Geraldines

This very attractive tie is scheduled for Fraher field on Friday evening and while Dungarvan, seeking a return to senior ranks where they belong, will be fancied to win, the Geraldines will be no push-over at this level after many great years in the junior championships.

Affane v Kilgobnet

This intermediate football tie is scheduled for the Colligan venue on Saturday evening. Affane are probably the more matured side but I expect that the fresh and lively Kilgobnet may come out on top here.

Sliab gCua v Ballinameela

This is the Saturday evening game at Fraher field and here patrons can look forward to a keenly fought contest. It looks to be a game that is difficult to call. It will certainly be a close one- hopefully not a draw.

Brickey Rangers v Ballyduff

This tie has a 7 p.m. start in Cappoquin on Sunday evening and if the Brickeys can manage to fire on all cylinders from the start, they will win this intermediate first round.

Junior Football Games

Three games are listed for Fraher field on Sunday. In the opener, Kilrossanty will play Ardmore and after this the Nire and Stradbally will clash in the same championship.

The Clashmore versus Ballinacourty junior football tie is scheduled for 7 p.m. at Fraher field.

Kilgobnet will play Brickey Rangers at Abbeyside on Friday evening and in the opening round of the junior "B" football championship Ballinacourty will meet Ballysaggart in Touraneena on Saturday.

WEEKEND RESULTS

An Rinn Concede W.O.

The junior football tie down for decision at Fraher field on Friday evening failed to materialise when An Rinn conceded a w/o to Kilgobnet. Disappointing for Kilgobnet who had 25 players in attendance, some had travelled from Cork and Dublin. Nevertheless Noel Costello's charges went ahead with a useful training session.

Twenty four hours later both clubs played an interesting challenge game in Bohadon which saw the Gaeltacht side win on a 3-8 to 1-8 score.

An Rinn looked very sharp and eager and played delightful football and their fitness levels were admirable.

Certainly mark them down as serious challengers for the Western intermediate championship, in fact outright favoritism for the title will surely rest with An Rinn.

Modeligo had a very clear cut victory over the fancied Seana Phobal side in their championship clash at Fraher field on Saturday evening.

The winners with 1-12 were fully deserving of their victory and will now take over the favourites tag for the championship.

Seana Phobal did score 10 points and contested every ball, but were not up to their best form in this one.

Also in junior football, Brickey Rangers had a comfortable 1-13 to 1-6 victory over Sliab gCua and Tallow were always on top when scoring 3-7 to 0-4 against Ballinwillin.

Stradbally junior footballers scored a win over Ardmore and Kilrossanty, in the same championship, defeated Clashmore.

INTERCOUNTY PRESSURE

Commencing on Sunday June 27th Waterford will play in the senior hurling Munster final against Cork in Thurles.

Three days later we play Cork in the Munster junior football final in Dungarvan and on the following evening we meet Cork for the third time in 4 days, this time in the minor football Munster semi-final on Thursday July 1st. Two days later, on Saturday July 3rd the senior footballers are scheduled to play in the All Ireland Qualifier.

Four days later on July 7th we are out in under 21 hurling against Clare in Thurles and after 3 more days the senior footballers are due to play round one of the new "B" All Ireland championships.

Win or lose the Munster S/H final we will be further involved.

Munster Senior Football Championship

Waterford Well Beaten by Limerick in Semi-Final

LIMERICK 1-18 WATERFORD 0-7

SECOND HALF

Waterford made a number of positional changes and while they never proved a threat to Limerick in the second half they did manage the same number of scores (0-5 each). This made the game a more enjoyable spectacle in the beautiful sun drenched stadium.

Scorers: Limerick - M. Gavin 0-8, C. Fitzgerald 0-4, M.

Rewidy 0-3, C. Mullane 1-0, S. Walsh 0-4, G. Power 0-2, M. Ahearne 0-1. Waterford - S. Walsh 0-4, G. Power 0-2, M. Ahern 0-1.

Limerick - S. O'Donnell, M. O'Riordan, J. McCarthy, T. Stack, P. Browne, S. Lucy, D. Reidy, J. Quane, J. Galvin, C. Mullane, M. Gavin, M. O'Brien, C. Fitzgerald, M. Reidy, E. Keating; Subs. S. Lavin, S. Kiely, J. Murphy, M. Horan, M. Jones.

Waterford- P. Houlihan, J. Moore, E. Rockett, T. Costello, C. Watt, T. Dunphy, N. Hennessy, K. O'Keefe, A. Hubbard, J. Hearne, M. Ahearne, J. Coffey, L. O Lonain, S. Walsh, G. Power, Subs. - K. Connery, B. Harty, T. Whelan, P. Nagle, O. Hayes.

Ref. M. Monahan, Kildare.

The gap in standards was clearly exposed in this disappointing game played at the Limerick Gaelic Grounds on Sunday last before a crowd of approximately 4,000 spectators.

Waterford were clearly out-classed by last season's beaten Munster finalists when Limerick making certain not to slip up on a chance of getting to their second provincial decider in a row, went all out from the throw in and raced into a half-time lead of 1-13 to 0-2.

The 14 points gap gave a fair indication of the gap in standards between the teams.

The second half saw a big improvement with the teams matching score for score and each county raising five white flags. The Limerick supporters attributed this to the fact that the hot favourites took their leg off the pedal after knowing at half-time that the result was then a foregone conclusion.

The fact that we failed to score for the first 25 minutes and did not have a 'wide' up to this point, showed the extent to which we were being out-played.

Shane Walsh pointed a 25th minute free and a Waterford attack saw Ger Power shoot for a goal that nearly came off. The save by goalkeeper Seamus O'Donnell sparked off a beautiful move by Limerick who worked the ball up the field to set up Conor Mullane for what was to be the only goal of the game just before half-time.

The score 1-13 to 0-2

Munster Under 21 Hurling Waterford v. Cork

Cork having defeated by 1-11 to 1-6 in round one of the championship on Wednesday evening last, will now take on Waterford in the semi-final on Wednesday July 7th. The semi-final is fixed for Pairc Ui Caoimh.

The under 21 football first round will not be played until Thursday July 28th. Here we take on Kerry in Killarney.

Lismore Camogie Notes

LISMORE UNDER 14 CAMOGIE TEAM

Our Under 12, 14 and Senior teams are all in action at the moment. Our Under 14 team were defeated recently in the County final but they were successful in the Feile na nGael All Ireland competition, on 24th - 26th June. The competition is being hosted in Co. Kildare this year and our club is being hosted by the Straffon Club. I am sure everyone has come in contact with one of the team members who are currently working hard to raise money for this weekend and we would like to thank everyone for their support again on this occasion.

Our Under 12 team has won their first three championship matches against Tallow, Gaultier and Butlerstown. They have two games left to play but it is looking good that they will qualify for a place in the final. Keep it up girls.

Our Senior team have qualified for the league semi final. They are currently training hard for their first round championship match against St. Annes which is on Friday, 25th of June.

Finally, I would like to wish all our players doing exams the best of luck.

TOURANEENA RACQUETBALL CLUB NOTES

Ailbhe Foley Wins Ann Power Memorial Shield

Young Ailbhe Foley from Knockmeal was the first winner of the inaugural Ann Power Memorial Perpetual Shield. Worked on the same system as the annual Colligan Cup, Ailbhe predicted a finishing time of 50 minutes straight and she went on to complete the 3 mile course in exactly that time. In second place was Bernie Gleeson, who was only 6 seconds outside her prediction and Bridget Walsh from Ballymac was in third, 18 seconds outside her prediction.

A total of 64 walkers completed the course which was a record number in the 9 year history of the event. At the post race presentation, Mary Power presented the shield to a rather shocked looking Ailbhe and she proved to be a very popular winner of the event.

In the race itself which was again sponsored by Declan Kiely, Painter and Decorator, there was again a record entry with a total of 164 finishers. The first finisher over the line was local International athlete, David Mc Carthy but unfortunately he could not be credited with the title as he was an unofficial entrant. A ruling which states that no under 16 athletes can enter the road racing series understandable had to be upheld so the title went to Portlaoise's

Robert Wade. Kilkenny's Peter Duggan was in second place while West Waterford's Mark Langford finished in third place.

Last years runner up, Jackie Carty from Kilmore went one better this year when she claimed the women's top honour. Joanne Jackman finished second while another Kilmore athlete, Helen Doyle finished third. The under 16 ruling again came into play in the women's grade as Lorraine Mc Carthy was the second finisher but again she was an unofficial entrant.

Overall the event proved to be a big success and hopefully now we can hand over a sizable donation to the Oncology Day Ward at the Regional hospital in Waterford. The event would not be possible without the help of a lot of people. We are very grateful to the West Waterford Athletic club for all their help on the night and for including us in their annual racing series. As a club they are due unreal credit for the work that they are doing in promoting the sport and general fitness throughout the county. Thanks to Ger Wyley and Nike for the overall sponsorship of the series for which we are delighted to be part of.

Thanks to Mary Dunford and her staff for the use of the premises for the post race presentations. Thanks to all the people who helped out with the catering on the night and to those who spend the day making sandwiches and chopping strawberries. Again the display of refreshments on the night was a credit to all concerned.

Thanks to Laurence Mc Carthy who was the head of stewarding and to all his team who again did a top class job in stewarding the course. Thanks to Donal Foley for again helping in the traffic control while the race was in progress. His presence was the most important aspect of the evening as a mile of the race takes place on the main Clonmel/Dungarvan road. Thanks also to Breda Skehan who was on first aid duty on the night. All of this team contributed greatly to the safety of all the participants.

We would also like to thank Regina Hickey for the super job she did in making the race banner and to Joan Keane for sewing it up. Thanks to everyone who contributed to the spot prize draw. A special thanks also to the business people and individuals who took out adverts in the race programme.

The racquetball club would like to thank Declan Kiely for his very kind sponsorship towards the race. Each year, Declan contributes a lot of money towards this event and this makes the job of the organising committee a lot easier and it guaranteed an impressive array of prizes each year.

Finally, a big thank you to all the organising committee for all their work and hopefully we will have them all back next year in what will be the 10th anniversary of the race. The committee are as follows: Pat Dalton, Eleanor Hickey, Deirdre Coffey, Linda Skehan, Karen Kearns, Laurence Mc Carthy, Breda Skehan, Niamh Coffey, Michelle Power, Julie Skehan and Triston Hickey.

Presentation to Oncology Ward

On Saturday next the 19th of June, a night will be held in Dunford's to present a cheque from the proceeds of the race to the Oncology Ward at the Regional Hospital in Waterford. All are welcome to attend and your support would be greatly appreciated.

Coaching Continues

Racquetball coaching continues every Thursday night starting at 7pm until 9pm. Players are as young as 6 years old and the improvement that they are showing from week to week is brilliant. If anyone is interested in taking up the game, just contact our club chairman, Pat Dalton.

DUNGARVAN GOLF CLUB NOTES

LADY CAPTAINS PRIZE 2004

A beautiful weekend was held by our popular Lady Captain Ita Fahey where the temperatures matched the scoring for this wonderful highlight in the ladies calendar. The week end saw a great battle for our lady Captains beautiful prize of two stunning Waterford Crystal lamps, and the eventual winner emerged as Teresa Hayes playing off (36) with an impressive 133 nett.

A presentation of prizes was held in the clubhouse on Sunday evening and Ita was in great form as she gave her speech thanking 'the man upstairs' for the wonderful weather conditions and had everyone laughing as she compared her weekend as 'better than getting married!'

Ita thanked her hardworking committee for all their dedication and Michael Mernin and the course staff for all their endeavors in keeping the course in such super condition. Ita thanked everyone who had helped to make her weekend special and gave special thanks to her husband Jackie.

The delighted winners then received their splendid prizes presented by Ita and her lady Vice Captain Irene Dawson. A special prize was given to Chrissie Terry who managed to score a hole in one on the thirteenth. Music and Dancing followed the presentation to round off a fantastic weekend to remember.

ULSTER BANK OPEN SINGLES

Last Thursday's Ulster Bank open singles was played in very windy conditions which was reflected in the winning score of 37 pts returned by promising junior member Stephen Slater playing off 15. Stephen had a poor 15 points on the front 9 but back to back birdies on 13 & 14 saw him come home in 22 pts for his 1st win in the senior ranks. No doubt we will be seeing a lot more of him in the prizes over the summer. The club competition on Sunday was won by Kenneth Walsh (18) with a great score of 43 pts, beating Tom Melody senior (9) on a countback. Saturdays competition was won by Alan Butler (12) with 40 pts. Runner up was Noel Brennan (9) whose 39 pts beat Noel Hackett (15) on the back 9.

LADY BELLE SINGLES & DR O'CONNELL FOURBALL

Competitors are reminded to check the draw to ensure that matches are played by their due date. Remember the committee reserves the right to decide any outstanding match by the toss of a coin.

To mark the clubs 80th anniversary of our affiliation to the Golfing Union of Ireland there will be a nine hole scramble on Friday 18th June. Members are reminded to place their names on the sheet in the clubhouse. This scramble promises to be an evening to remember.

JB CARR

Our J.B Carr team will play our neighbours West Waterford in the County final on Tuesday 22nd June. West Waterford will probably start as favorites as they have home advantage but our 'young guns' have proven in the past that they have a great fighting spirit. Best of luck to all concerned.

WEST WATERFORD GOLF CLUB - LADIES BRANCH

Nice one Marion! On Monday last in the 9 hole competition held in conjunction with the Captain's Prize Marion Hilliard became a member of the elite Hole in One Golfers Club. Marion recorded the hole in one on the 4th. Well done, Marion. The competition was won by Marie Curran with June Whyte filling second place.

Great Scoring in Captain's Prize to Ladies: On Sunday Michael Walsh very kindly presented a prize to the Ladies. Scoring was excellent, in this the first major of the season, and it was the in-form players who featured.

Marie Curran playing off 34, who recently lost 2 shots emerged a worthy winner with 40 points, winning on the breakdown, from June Whyte, another player who has lost shots recently. Joan Sheehan, who is playing alot of good golf at the moment, picked up the prestigious gross prize. In third place was Finola Butler who brought in a super score of 39 points. It was nice to see Phil Kelly bringing in a score of 37 points to take fourth and Jean Connolly who has only recently started to play filled the 5th spot. In the categories, Jenny Sweeney was a deserving winner in Cat. A, while Mary Quinlan who is a regular prize-winner won the B Category, and in Cat. C the loudest applause was reserved for Eileen Harty who played great golf to take her category prize.

On behalf of the Lady Captain, Reena and members I would like to express our thanks to Michael and Lena Walsh for putting up a prize for the ladies Lady Captain Strikes Winning Note: While the rest of us regulars have been beating balls around the golf course all season, our Lady Captain Reena only returned to "Light" golf two weeks ago and still managed to go and win our 18 Hole Stroke Competition kindly sponsored by Tommy Powers Pub on Thursday last. We had better watch out! Well done Reena. Mary Spratt had a great round to fill second spot.

Lady Captain's Prize: The most eagerly awaited event on the golfing calendar takes place on Thursday June 24th, Friday June 25th and Saturday June 26th when Reena McDonnell presents her Captain's prize. Time slots are available for Thursday and Friday and the order of play on Saturday will be determined by the scores. A draw will take place on Monday night June 21st following the pre-Lady Captain's competition Scramble which is sponsored by Alicia Browne. Please put your name on the time sheet.

Pierce Purcell Shield:

On Thursday last we travelled to Waterford Castle to take on the much-fancied Clonmel in the area final of the Pierce Purcell. Conor Clancy, John White and Brian O'Connor had done everything in their power to ensure that this team would be properly prepared for this game. John Fitzgerald and Ben Casey were in top form and Tommy Reynolds and Paul O'Sullivan played superbly to record two precious wins for the GoldCoast. Clonmel had also claimed two victories at this stage and it was all down to the rubber match, level after fourteen, and unfortunately this time the rub of the green didn't go our way, and Clonmel were victors. John Hallinan, Dermot Ahearn, Ger Kelly, John O'Keeffe, Tony Sheehan, Pat Bagge and the players mentioned above together with the substitutes had put in a tremendous amount of effort into this tournament and great credit is due to them. The experience will stand to all of them and hopefully next year we can go that step further. Thanks to all the caddies and supporters, great to see so many of our Lady members present, who travelled to the Castle last week.

Jimmy Bruen:

We were back in Waterford Castle again on Saturday morning to take part in this year's Jimmy Bruen. Our team of Tom Considine, Conor Clancy, Micheal White, Tom White, Kieran Cullinan, Billy Power, Ian Pericho, Mick Ahern, Thomas Larkin and Bernard played very well and were the leading qualifiers after the first day. Dungarvan qualified in second place with Tramore in third and Waterford Castle in fourth. The draw for the Sunday morning match play section placed GoldCoast against Waterford Castle. Unfortunately, as in the Purcell, we were beaten three and two.

Irish Junior Cup:

This year the Irish Junior Cup takes place in Mitchelstown Golf Club on Saturday 10th July at 11.00 a.m. A panel is now being formed for this event and should you like to be included, you should place your name and telephone number on the sheet provided in the kiosk. Handicap limits are no lower than 5 in 2003.

Michael White Memorial Foursomes.

This has now reached the quarterfinal stage and all quarterfinals must be played by 25th July. Remember that some players may be going on holidays and you might be better off getting your match played sooner than later.

Willie Barron Memorial Fourball:

The closing date for the next round is 20th June. Times for all remaining matches are now posted in the kiosk. Already through to the quarterfinals are Ian Pericho and Nicholas Fitzgerald.

GoldCoast Cup:

The next round of this competition must be completed by 4th July. The following are the remaining matches: Micheal White v Joe Meade, Mick Ahearn v Kieran Cullinan, Martin Allen v Dermot Ahern and Michael Fahy v Tom White.

Park Hotel Sports Star Of The Month

The Park Hotel Sports Star of the month for May is Waterford's John O'Shea of Manchester United. In his second full season with Manchester United, and with 116 appearances in a United shirt, John is making his own the left full back position. John had a storming game in Manchester United's 3-0 victory over Millwall in the FA Cup Final at the Millenium Stadium, Cardiff, picking up his first Cup medal to add to his Premiership medal of last year. At a celebratory lunch in the Park Hotel on Wednesday last, Pierce Flynn presented John with the Park Hotel Award for May, his fifth monthly award. Also in attendance were John's parents, Mary and Jim, his girl friend Yvonne, and members of the adjudicating panel.

DUNGARVAN HILLWALKING CLUB

George Harney Memorial Walk Comeragh Crossing 2004

There was a large turnout of club members on Tues. 1st. June at a function in Bean A Leanna for the launch of the George Harney Memorial Comeragh Crossing and Challenge 2004 which is once again being very generously sponsored by Flahavans. This year's event is being organised in support of West Waterford Hospice and The Samaritans, South East Area. On behalf of the club. Scan O'Connor welcomed all club members, Ms. Patricia Doyle on behalf of West Waterford Hospice, committee members on behalf of The Samaritans, and Ms. Olivia O'Mahoney, representing our sponsors Flahavans. Patricia, who is also a very active club member, on behalf of West Waterford Hospice said that they were once again delighted to be involved in the event, and gave us all a greater understanding of the work they are engaged in, while Ms. Jacqueline Sweeney on behalf of The Samaritans thanked the club for deciding to undertake the event on their behalf. On behalf of our sponsors Flahavans, Olivia O'Mahoney, Brand Manager, said that they were delighted to be associated with the walk, and praised the professional manner in which the event was being organised. This is the 8th year that the event has taken place, and to date the walk has raised in excess of ?65,000 for local charities and organisations, and is now considered one of the premier events on the hill walking calendar. Since it's inception in 1996, it has been the policy of the club that 50% of all monies raised should be donated to West Waterford Hospice, who undertake such vital work in providing help and assistance for those in poor health in the community, while other organisations to benefit from the event have been the local branch of the Irish Wheelchair Association, Care for the Aged, St. Josephs

Hospital, Alzheimer's Ward, and Dungarvan Family Centre, and South Eastern Mountain Rescue. The walk takes place on Saturday 3rd July with transport being provided from Dungarvan Soccer Club to Clonmel where the 36 Km. mountain crossing begins. There are 3 stages to the walk, so those who feel that they may not have the required fitness levels to complete the marathon event may choose to take part in stages 2 and 3 which starts in the Nire Car Park and finishes at Whites Boreen, Monarud, or may choose to take part in stage 3, which begins in the Mar Mar road on the northern side of Cruachan and walk the 8Km to finish in the Soccer Club, Kilrush. Again transport will be provided to the start for all participants, while club members will guide all stages of the walk, with refreshments provided along the route. Once again, in conjunction with the Comeragh Crossing, there will also be the Comeragh Challenge, which also starts in Clonmel, with a more difficult route, which takes in all the highpoints along the route of the Comeragh and Monavullagh mountain ranges. The walk is also 40 Km. in distance, and finishes at White's Boreen in Monarud. This walk should not be undertaken unless participants have a high degree of fitness, and are competent in map reading and navigation skills, as this walk will not be guided. The club wish to take this opportunity to thank all the local business houses and the community of West Waterford for your continued support of the event, and we look forward to having record numbers on the mountains once again this year. Anyone wishing to get further information on the walk, and the different starting times for the stages involved may do so by contacting Reenie Palmer at 058 54828, or Scan O'Connor at 058-48613 or on our new website at www.dungarvanhillwalkingclub.org Also, anyone requiring sponsorship cards for the event may do so by calling to Michael at Power's Book Shop, Mary Street, or by contacting any club committee member.

WEST WATERFORD JUVENILE ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES

Great Performances All Round In Munster Championships

On Saturday and Sunday last a small group of athletes made the long trip to Castleisland for the Munster Championships. There was a huge entry in each event with over eighty children taking part in many events. The standard was very high and it was difficult to get into the final of most events and even more so to get among the medal winners.

Silver For Zoe Scanlan and David Earley

West Waterford had two medal winners on Saturday. Zoe Scanlan went into the shot with a best of 7.02 metres. In the opening round she had a throw of 7.03 which put her in third place, however a great putt of 7.59 in the 2nd last Pictured at the Munster Track and Field Juvenile Championships last weekend in Castleisland, Co. Kerry is West Waterford's David Earley after receiving his silver medal after finishing second in the Boys Under-11 600 metres. Also included are Cian Daniels, Ferrybank (gold) and Gearoid Finn, Riverstick/Kinsale.

Gold For Zoe On Sunday

Zoe Scanlan came away from Sunday's competition with a gold medal in the ball throw. She threw over 40 metres to win this event. Well done Zoe. She has now qualified for the All Ireland in this event. Our boys U12 relay team made it into the final. The team was David Earley, Michael Tutty, Ronan O'Neill and Colin Dunford.

West Waterford's Zoe Scanlan proudly shows both her medals won at the Munster Track and Field Championships last weekend in Castleisland, Co. Kerry. Zoe took silver in the girls under-12 shot and gold in the under-12 ball throw.

round gave her second position and a silver medal.

In the Boys U11 600m, David Earley made it through the heats to the final. While he got off to a good start, he seemed to drift off the pace and a three hundred metres to go, was well off the lead in 6th place. At the 200m mark he changed gear completely and took off like a steam engine round the bend and up the straight to take a silver medal. Colin Dunford ran a great heat in 600m and made it through to the final.

On Sunday he also got to the semi final of the sprint. Ciara Scanlan and Kate Veale were unlucky not to make it to the semi finals of the sprint but Kate qualified for the final of the 600m where she finished in 6th position.

Michael Tutty had a great series of runs in the 80m. He won his heat, came 2nd in the semi final and in a very tough final he finished in 6th place.

Lisa Houlihan was just outside the medals in the high jump and hurdles but has qualified for the All Ireland in the high jump. She was also in the shake up for the long jump where she qualified for the final eight jump off.

GREYHOUND NEWS

BY MARK
PHILLIPS

FRIDAY JUNE 11TH 2004

Runaway Victory For Distant Fields

It's not very often that a greyhound bred on coursing lines records the fastest time of the night but that's what happened last Friday night as the Julie Brennan owned and Michael Power trained Distant Fields (Central Lord-Gavs Lady) 4/7 absolutely hacked up in the final of the Liam Keating Furnishing 525 in a fast 29.01. In a stake confined to coursing bred dogs Distant Fields powered into the lead on the run to the first corner to lead from Princess Grace and as this final wore on Distant Fields went further in front eventually crossing the winning line twelve lengths in front of Princess Grace. The winner now boasts an excellent strike rate winning eight of his nine races while finishing in second place on one other occasion.

Also down for decision was the final of the Bernard Mackey sponsored Moonveen Dessie 29.80 event. Impressive semi final winner Per Sempre was all the rage in the betting market closing as the 11/10 favourite. The favourite was none the wiser at the break however as Fyvush Finkel made a positive break from trap four to lead to the first bend where Sparta Fizz was also bang in contention. With Fyvush Finkel keeping wide Per Sempre (Always Good-Mammys Nightmare) produced a smashing turn of foot on the inside and tracking beautifully on the rails Per Sempre glided into the lead. Making the best of his way home Per Sempre cruised to a four lengths defeat of Fyvush Finkel in 29.41.

The opening 525 saw the Jim Curran owned Quanns Egret (Mustang Jack-Brookside Marty) 6/4 make every yard of the running from trap one to oblige in 30.05. As Kuda Monday moved off the first bend the Dungarvan owned Quanns Egret shot into a clear lead and in a one sided race "Quanns" came home six lengths clear of Kuda Monday.

Running in only his second race the Sadie Delaney owned and Bernadette Delaney trained Look Out Shaggy (Droopys Kewell-Charming Jill) made every post a winning one to oblige in 29.59. Displaying nice early pace up the middle Look Around Shaggy had Rorys Forest for company throughout this second race but seeing the trip out well Look Out Shaggy went on to score by four lengths.

Cushill Tara (Larkhill Jo-Cushmine Tara) who ran up for an Oaks Trial Stake at Galbally came back after a layoff to run out a well backed 7/4 winner of a 300-yard sprint in 16.54. Displaying plenty of early pace the Judy Mackey owned Cushill Tara had his rivals in big trouble on the run to the first bend and staying on nicely Cushill Tara went on to beat the always prominent Tinlough Mick by three and a half lengths.

Running in his seventeenth race the Martin McDonald owned Lilac Slipper (Mustang Jack-Deenside Jet) finally shed his maiden tag for trainer Nick Turner running out a 4/1 winner of the fourth contest in 29.73. Bark Knockeevan cut an early dash from trap one but running down to the second last bend Lilac Slipper went to the front on the outside. Threerocks Rebel stayed on into second spot in the home stretch but Lilac Slipper was not extended obliging by a length and a half.

The Leamybrien Syndicate owned and Mick Cronin handled Venice Duchess (Droopys Woods-Kilmeaden Mary) 3/1 ran out a clear cut winner of the fifth contest in 29.69. After Venice Duchess got the better of an early duel with Daroma Aoife she galloped clear for an easy eight and a half lengths success over Ethelwulf.

The following two races were run off over the 300-yard sprint distance.

In the first of these Lassie Is Back came away in front from trap five but nearing the first bend Fitzy Legend struck the front. Making ground on the wide outside however the Jeanette MacKenzie owned and bred Boots And Allasb (Pale Texan-Fiery Honcho) 4/1 finished best of all to beat Fitzy Legend by two and a half lengths. Time 16.89.

In the seventh contest the early leader Gloundaugh Tom was unlucky to stumble between the opening two bends and in a close run race the vastly experienced Fear No Factor (Spiral Nikita-Droopys Lilian) 3/1 stayed a best of all to beat Gloundaugh Tom by a head in 16.99. Ian Seymour for the Sharp Shooters Syndicate trains the winner.

Having run well in a heat of the Red Mills Guineas the Tom Weadick Junior owned Have Ago Hero (Smooth Rumble-Fast Slipaway) 6/4 made short work of the opposition in the final race of the night leading all the way in a smart 29.02. Taking an absolute flyer from trap three Have Ago Hero had his rivals in big trouble on dashing into a handy lead over Mustang Keano and while Bally Blue made late headway to fill the runner up spot Have Ago Hero was gone beyond recall scoring by a cosy six lengths in 29.02.

SATURDAY JUNE 12TH 2004

Corries Kate In A Tight Finish

Racing conditions were perfect last Saturday night and some fast times were recorded during the ten-race session.

In the opening graded contest the Damien Gleeson owned and Marie Byrne trained Ballyquin House (Staplers Jo-Just Queenie) the red hot 4/6 favourite recovered well from a moderate start to burst into a first bend lead over Sparta Rebel before bounding clear for an eye catching nine lengths success over Finns First in a brisk 28.84.

The second contest produced an impressive all the way winner as the Michael Gater owned and Phil Gough trained Persistent Jim (Droopys Merson-Persistent Chill) 3/1 packed to much early pace for Newline Spice and while Jo Nell made sound late headway after taking some hefty bumps at the first turn Persistent Jim was gone beyond recall scoring by five lengths in a best ever 28.95.

County Wexford trainer Nick Turner sent out the very easy winner of the third race as the Patrick and Rebecca Hamilton owned Hamford Spark (Split The Bill-Rockmount Queen) ran away from his opponents to register a clear cut 29.19 success. Quickly into his stride from trap two Hamford Spark 4/1 led out of the first turn from Pet Shop Honcho before sprinting clear for a cosy nine lengths victory over Pet Shop Honcho.

The Danny Fitzpatrick owned Dysart View (Deenside Joker-Snap Noir) posted back-to-back marathon victories coming back a second time to win out at odds of 4/1 in 41.14. Leading out of the first bend from Determined Irish Dysart View gave way to Alices Best rounding the fifth bend but renewing her challenge in the closing stages Dysart View came back for more to beat a staying on Black Pepper by a length.

Tamna Lady made a positive start in the fifth contest but she allowed a challenging Draw Your Gun (Whitefort Judge-Roan Queen) to race up her inside between the opening two bends. Owned by Sean and Ray Jennings Draw Your Gun made the best of his way home from that point onwards this 5/2 chance winning out by three lengths in 29.02.

The well bred Swahili Blue (Droopys Vier-Making Merry) came good for owners the Lonergans Quartet Syndicate and trainer Phil Gough in the sixth contest powering clear from trap four for an all the way 29.02 victory. Darting straight into the lead Swahili Blue was always traveling like a winner up front eventually breezing in all of seven lengths clear of Ritas Lady who got the better of Cooly Progress for the runner up spot.

The punters rowed in with Connollys Honcho in the seventh race and while he did manage to hit the front off the first turn he could never shake off the attentions of Log On Pro and Torcan Staplers. A winner over six bends the Maeve Phelan owned and Jimmy Frisby trained Torcan Staplers (Staplers Jo-Robins Rebecca) 4/1 brought his stamina into play in the home stretch to outstay Connollys Honcho by four lengths. Time 29.02.

The eighth race of the night was the final of the Go On The Deise 525 stake. Metric Sid cut out the early running from Corries Kate and Druids Classic. The Catriona Ryan owned and Paul Hennessy trained Corries Kate (Staplers Jo-Corries Maid) 5/2 made her move running down to the penultimate turn and while she took over in the lead between the final two bends Corries Kate had to work really hard to hold the renewed challenge of Metric Sid who tasted defeat by half a length with a fast finishing Druids Classic just behind in third.

A fast starting Vancouver Dave made a gallant attempt to make every post a winning one in the ninth contest and after severe first bend crowding only two runners really mattered as Vancouver Dave led down the back from Stop The Messan. The latter running for Bonmahon owner Andrew Weldon joined issue off the home turn however and quickening the tempo up the rails 4/1 shot Stop The Messan (Kilmessan Jet-Ashfield Shadow) stayed on well to record a two lengths win over a wide running Vancouver Dave in 29.15.

The concluding 550 saw the Ballydogers Syndicate owned and Derek Kehoe trained Sin Sin Amy (Mustang Jack-Charity Amy) cause a mild upset obliging at odds of 5/1. After Sourcery Rush was knocked over at the first bend Nikkis Tillie, Sin Sin Amy and Prince Cushie raced in unison down the backstretch and while Nikkis Tillie poked his head in front on the wide outside track newcomer Sin Sin Amy produced the stronger finish to beat Nikkis Tillie by two lengths in 30.47.

TOURANEENA NOTES

Tea/Coffee Day
Alice Burke's tea/coffee day was an outstanding success on Friday last. Alice wishes to thank the politicians who took the time come in for a cuppa and to everybody who came along and supported the charities. Also to Ann Walsh, Betty Condon, Kitty Cullinan and Breda Hickey who helped out on the day. A big thanks to John Queally who supported Alice by taking up a collection from his friends in Dunford's Bar during his 21st birthday party and donating the money to Alice's charities. Thanks a million John and thanks to everybody who supported John. Also to the people who sent in donations. E600 was raised on the day. Ann Kiely, Cappelquin was the winner of the hamper while Bridget Quinlan won the turkey and Joan Wall the win and a tin of biscuits. Your support was very much appreciated. Thanks again to all.
