AND SOUTHERN DEMOCRAT

BY KEVIN KIRRANE

Residents of a local authority estate in Shandon have expressed outrage at the escalating problems with an illegal traveller encampment after up to eight caravans arrived at the entrance to the Estuary Heights and Cluain Ard estates in Shandon on Thursday night last.

Although a number have since left, seven caravans are now parked up on both footpaths into the estate.

Residents say the influx has worsened problems with antisocial behaviour and intimida-

"They are urinating on the street and shouting abusive language at us as we pass," one resident told the Dungarvan Leader.

"We rang the council, and they said they would be gone in a couple of days - that was a week ago.

"Most of us are single mothers and we're afraid to even walk past them," she said.

Several weeks ago, the traveller group were moved on shortly before the Environment Minister, Dick Roache was due to open the nearby recycling plant. However, the caravans were back in place again within days of the opening

"TOTALLY FED-UP" Residents are now "totally fed-up" with the situation, Sinn Fein councillor, Brendan Mansfield said.

'We have been talking about this for nearly two years, but nothing has happened," he said. "I am calling for immediate measures to prevent illegal encampments from taking place in that area.

"The question that has to be asked," Cllr. Mansfield said, "is would this be allowed to happen in any other area of the

"I don't blame the residents for feeling neglected by the council because they are being told week in and week out that it will be sorted in a week or two. But it is not being sorted."

Waste Charge Hike Threat Shelved Until Estimates

BY KEVIN KIRRANE

Waterford County Council has shelved plans to bring in massive refuse charge hikes until the end of the year.

Council management backed down on proposals to introduce a 35 euro flat charge for refuse services amid fierce opposition from the elected members and public outcry over spiralling levels of charges.

County Manager, Ray O'Dwyer was expected to announce the charges at the county council's July meeting, held on Monday.

Clonea Realignment Goes To CPO Stage

By Kevin Kirrane

Long awaited plans for the realignment of the Clonea road have been advanced to the CPO stage, Waterford County Council's July monthly meeting heard. The proposals will also see the construction of a roundabout, footpaths and a new 150 space car park close to the popular Clonea beach.

The council hope the development will improve safety on the road and alleviate congestion during the summer months.

Welcoming the completion of the Part 8 process, Fine Gael fit" to the public.

the members on board." However, he told councillors that the issue "has not gone away.

The flat charge was among a number of options being looked at in a bid to address the local authority's significant waste management losses. The options also included, increasing the price of the organic Brown Bin Tag from 7.50 to 8 euros; cutting back on collections and finally privatisation.

A number of councillors had expressed opposition to the proposals, including Fine Gael councillor, Damien Geoghegan, who questioned whether it was now dropped.

Sinn Fein councillor, Brendan Mansfield said it wasn't fair that the householders should have to pay for the drain on the county council resources caused by the waste crises. "As a party, we are totally and utterly against these charges. And if any hike is proposed in the estimates or any other time, I will also be opposing it."

Meanwhile, council management are now considering tabling a proposal for a new annual flat fee charge of 100 euros for the county's refuse services, reports in yesterday's Irish Examiner said.

The Anne le Roy Centre and Dungarvan C.B.S. Transition Year Integration Project

Again this year, students from Dungarvan CBS School have been involved in a very successful integration project with service users from the Anne le Roy Centre. The programme had two primary goals, breaking down prejudice by integration and development of community spirit.

The year began cautiously enough, with both groups being a bit apprehensive. However after some brainstorming and plenty of humorous banter the groups soon got together planning and plotting and found they really began to gel.

The first project of the year which the students collectively decided on was a Cake Sale. The group planned the project, deciding on such details as the venue and the price for tea and a bun. When it came to providing the produce-it was all hands on deck, sourcing ingredients, baking, and buying the tea. Then on to the CBS school for the sale. The rush was on at five to eleven, but such was the demand it was all over at five past!

After the initial success the ideas came 'hot n heavy' and were sometimes slightly too ambitious-we had to defer 'running a marathon' and 'climbing Mount Everest'. Eventually after much debate the group planned a trip to Clonmel to see a film. As by now, they had some practice in planning and working together, they broke into smaller groups to do different jobs-booking the bus and the cinema, organising lunch and co-ordinating the times. Of course the decision on the film was the most difficult bit - but it went to a vote and a romantic film won out. The outing was enjoyed by all and too soon we returned to Dungarvan.

The last outing was around Dungarvan with a visit to the park and Flanagan's restaurant. Even though the sun shone, everyone was sad to exchange goodbyes. Unfortunately, like many good things, the term came to an end. The two had become friends and a friendly wave or a call across the street is the proof and the legacy. So often, a friendly salute is the very thing needed on a cloudy day.

Cinema To Make Way For New Retail Development

BY KEVIN KIRRANI

A major furniture retailer plans to demolish the Ormonde Cinema on O'Connell Street, Dungarvan and construct a mixed-use development in its place.

Larry O'Keefe, a Clonmel based retailer, is to apply for full planning permission to construct a furniture store, four shop units, ten apartments, ancillary spaces and forty car parking spaces on the site

If plans proceed it will mark the end of the cinema at its present location. But the Ormonde cinema will retain its link with Dungarvan.

The Ormonde chain will operate the new state of the art multi-screen cineplex, which is under construction at Dungarvan Shopping Centre.

Professional Development In the Childcare Sector Of Waterford City & County

In 2004 Waterford City & County Childcare Committees (CCCs) undertook to carry out research on professional development in the childcare sector in the City & County. The main objective of the research was to explore the factors affecting professional development of childcare practitioners and service providers in City & County with the aim of raising. awareness and stimulating discussion & debate.

The report was completed in 2005 and it was launched recently by Gerald O'Regan of the Childcare Directorate in the Department of Justice, Equality & Law Reform

(DJELR) at a local hotel in Wa-salaries, employment conditerford City. At the launch an tions, pensions, trade union expert panel was invited to address the key discussion points arising from the research.The key stakeholders comprising the panel included Gerald O'Regan (DJELR), Maresa research to inform further work Duignan (CECDE), Angela on professionalising this impor-Lamkin (FETAC), Hilary Kelleher (IMPACT), Kevin Lalor (DIT), John Cassidy (FAS) and Peggy Walker (NVCC) and the afternoon's proceedings were led by the Majella Cantwell (City CCC) and Paddy Lavelle (County CCC). All of those attending the launch had the opportunity to participate in the discussion

A questionnaire survey was used for the primary research and a critical review of policy reports and documents formed the secondary research. The questionnaire survey looked at the levels of Nationally Accredited Childcare Qualifications (NACQ) held by the research participants, the levels of participation in Local Quality Training (LQT) and Local Provider Networks (LPN), and research participants' views in relation to the development of a professional body.

Results from the primary research (questionnaire) revealed a number of positive findings particularly with regard to the levels of Nationally Accredited Childcare Qualifications (NACQ) held by the research participants, the level of participation in Local Quality Training (LQT) and Local Provider Networks (LPN). However, findings with regard to salaries, terms and conditions of employment, pensions and trade union membership were less positive.

Findings from the primary and secondary research provided a number of key discussion points in relation to training, networking, development of a professional body, experience, membership etc and these are presented in the full discussion

The Childcare Committees intend to use the findings of the tant evolving sector in Waterford City and County over the coming years.

The full document - Professional Development in the Childcare Sector in Waterford City & County - A Discussion Paper is available from Waterford City (051-860444) or Waterford County Childcare Committee (058-43601).

BORAGE FOR COURAGE

The name for borage is thought to come from the Irish word 'barracht', meaning bravery and mastery, and in Medieval times it was used for courage on the jousting field. Although few people take part in jousting these days, modern life still presents its own set of challenges, such as exams, interviews, illnesses, work pressures and family demands. Borage is still extremely useful for providing courage and support during stressful situations.

The adrenal glands are the organs responsible for the body's response to stress. Prolonged periods of stress or illness and use of steroids can lead to depletion of the adrenal glands, which results in a reduced capacity to cope with life's demands. Modern research has shown that extracts of borage actually nourish and stimulate these glands.

Borage also has a generally calming and relaxing effect which is useful for people suffering from anxiety, and the leaves were traditionally added to wine to drive away sadness. The star-shaped flowers are a most exquisite shade of blue, which always reminds me of paintings of Our Lady in her blue mantle. Just looking at these beautiful flowers seems to lift the spirits. The famous 16th Century herbalist, Gerard, once wrote that an infusion of borage flowers "comforteth the heart, purgeth melancholy and quieteth the phrenticke and lu-

Borage is a particularly appropriate herb for pregnant and nursing mothers. It can help to bring courage in the weeks approaching labour, and to replenish the system following delivery. It helps to ease anxiety and fatigue in new mothers and its uplifting effect is ideal for the prevention and treatment of postnatal depression. It is rich in vitamins and minerals and acts on the hormones to give a rich and plentiful supply of breast milk.

The oil which is pressed from the seeds of the borage plant is called 'starflower oil'. It contains Gamma Linolenic Acid (GLA) which is also found in evening primrose oil. This is very useful for premenstrual symptoms and skin conditions such as eczema Marie Reilly practices at the Lismore Clinic of Herbal Medi-

It is very much appreciated by the Parish Community.

DEUTCH IN ST. MARY'S SCHOOL — 6th class recently received their Language certificates, having completed a two-year course in German. We wish them every success as they head for secondary school. Viel Gluk and viel Ekflog! 5th class pupils have also been busy putting together their latest batch of letters, for their pen pals in Emil-von-Behring Schule in Marburg, Germany. This has proved to be a very successful and popular activity with both sets of students. It has done much to improve the cultural awareness between the two countries. Finally congratulations to both classes and their teacher Ms. Onra Enright on their article and photograph which appeared in the latest edition of Language Links. The Modern Languages in Primary Schools Initiative publishes this bi-annual magazine. This is the first time St. Mary's has been featured, and given that there are 400 schools taking part in the Initiative, it is a great achievement! Well done to all involved.

NEW CENTRE

Following our July Committee meeting it was agreed that our new hall will be fully ready for use in September. Therefore, any clubs/groups/organisations who intend using the Centre start planning what evenings will suit you and be ready to place your bookings which we will be taking after our August meeting. Watch this space for further details NEW PITCH

At the end of June very important drainage work was carried out on the pitch. This was an expensive undertaking but we have been assured it will be very successful, however, we appeal to all players and mentors using the pitch at present to stay off the area where this work was done so that it gets a chance to settle.

SYMPATHY

The committee wishes to extend sympathy to the Curran Family, on the recent death of Tom Curran, The Square, Dungarvan, to the Kilkenny Family, on the death of Christy Kilkenny, Ballygambon, and to the Howell Family, on the death of Tom Howell, Ballincoush. May they rest in peace.

Clarification

With regard to the article "Wilkinson Troubled Over Mix Up With Deasy On Radiotherapy' which appeared in last weeks edition Deputy John Deasy has made it clear with the Leader that comments made by Deputy Ollie Wilkinson in the article about him were inaccurate.

ABBEYSIDE ROUNDUP

Abbeyside Scout Notes

The scout meeting which began at the usual time of eight took everyone by surprise. The reason for this is that it was decided to head to the beach for some fun water based activities as it was probably the best summer evening to come along so far this summer. Of course noone had a towel or shorts but this little inconvenience was sorted out by Aaron, Joe and Cormac who high tailed it home to grab some of these items. On arrival at the beach underneath the Church the fun soon began and indeed a small but appreciative crowd of onlookers were soon drawn to the spot. All of the games involved all of the scouts getting into the water and undertaking some simple tasks to win the prizes on offer. The competition was an inter patrol activity with the winning patrol picking up two vouchers for a half days sea kayaking. These vouchers were a returned prize from our recent draw. The woman (Rosie C) who donated the prize back to the scouts said she couldn't use them as she had a bungee rope jump already arranged. Lots of fun was had by all as they did the tasks and the eventual winners turned out to be Michael Organ and John Nicholas Fennell. The scout motto which of course everyone knows is "be prepared," means that in future the scouts will arrive at the den in summer or winter with their shorts and towel packed.

Next weeks meeting the 16th of July is the last scout meeting of the year and also the last one before we all head off to Switzerland for annual camp. The meeting it has been decided will begin at seven o clock and if a suitable film is on at the local cinema the troop will head over to watch it and probably get a burger and chips on the way home. If nothing suitable is on then a video will be screened in the den and burgers and chips will still be part of the meeting. If the troop attend the cinema the meeting is likely to end at around ten thirty. If a video is being watched in the den then the meeting will end rather sooner.

At this meeting a list of items which each person should pack for camp will be handed out and if any of the adults travelling with the group or indeed parents of scouts have any last minute queries please call to the den for an update. Scouts should note that parental permission to camp forms must be handed in at this meeting! D-day for camp is fast approaching the date of departure is midday on Friday the 22nd of July.

THE CHIEF

Last Saturday the troop along with scouts and leaders from all over the country turned out in large numbers for the funeral and burial of Jim Hally. Jim was involved in the scout movement for most of his adult life and indeed for a while was involved with this troop when he served on the unit council for a time about thirty years or more ago. Following this stint with the 4th he went on to play a much greater role in scouting nationally. He served in a number of positions in the diocese, provincially and nationally as J.D. always believed that he well as being heavily involved in turning what was the boarding school in Mount Mellery into a first class international scout centre. Another legacy of his in Mellery is the renowned scout museum. The highest position J.D. achieved nationally was Chief Scout, a role he loved and a role he put his whole heart and efforts into. As Father O'Doherty said in his homily at the funeral mass: "J.D. was a bit like the Taoiseach Jack Lynch. Jack believed and so did everyone else that he was the real Taoiseach.

was the real Chief Scout!" J.D.'s way of getting things done in scouting circles was to go ahead and do whatever needs to be done. He felt it was easier to look for forgiveness than to took for permission. J.D. has now passed on to his eternal reward and is one of the many scout people both locally and nationally who we all believe are members of God's own scout troop. J.D. will be sadly missed by all who knew him and scouting has lost a very great friend. Ar Dheis De

THE DIPLOMAT PUB LEAGUES

The final of this years pub league tournament will be held tomorrow, Thursday 14th July at 7pm sharp. The Anchor will battle it out with Keating's of Kilmac to see who will be crowned '05 pub league champions. The Anchor who have scored the most goals to date, face a very strong defensive side of Keating's in what we know will be a very close encounter. This year we had a total of 30 teams in the draw and after some brilliant games were down to the final two teams. Please come out and support the Anchor and Keating's in this years final. Firstly, I would like to thank all the pubs who entered this years pub leagues and hope to see you all again next year. A big thanks to Michael Ryan of the Diplomat Bar, Abbeyside who sponsored the pub leagues. May I wish the Anchor and Keating's the very best of luck in the final. The final will consist of 30 minutes each way, in the event of a draw 10 minutes extra time each way will take place and in the event the both teams cannot be separated then we'll have a penalty shoot out

Yes, we do have a book on Heritage at the Archive and it does

Included in it are photographs of all the stone depots in the parish of Abbeyside and these total seventeen. It contains paper cuttings of the interesting articles written by Dominic Berridge, Heritage Officer, Waterford County Council for the local press. It also has articles entitled Waterford Wildlife from Waterford Today and the good news that the Annie Brophy Photographic Collection was purchased by the Waterford City Council. This collection would contain Abbeyside photographs.

The Archive lost a very good friend last week with the death of Mr. J. D. Hally, The Burgery. We extend our sympathy to his family and all their relatives on the death. Jim gave us many small items for our glass cases - he even gave us two glass cases! He was always available to us with advice and support. We will miss the Sunday morning coffee and chat. May he rest in peace.

ORPHANED WILDLIFE: LEAVE WELL ALONE

This is the time of year when those publicly concerned with wildlife get regular telephone calls from people concerned about apparently abandoned young birds, foxes, deer and other wildlife. The answer always has to be: leave well alone.

Most young wild animals go through a period when they are being fed away from the nest or den and their inexperience leads them into danger. Most in fact die at this stage and if this were not so, the world would be overwhelmed. We cannot value the lives of every young wild animal as we value every human life. We are not responsible for the welfare of mammals and birds living in the wild in the same way that we are responsible for domestic pets and live-

Deer and hares leave their newborn young hidden in cover where their only defence against predators is the fact that they have little smell to attract meateaters and that they lie very still and stay quiet. A nest full of baby birds is a tempting meal to any carnivore and it makes survival sense for the infants to go and hide separately, even before they can fly properly. Their hunger calls prompt the parent birds to come and feed them.

Hand-reared creatures stand even less chance of survival after release into the wild than those reared by their parents. Sometimes an obviously injured animal will have to be put down to alleviate distress and this may be a job for a vet. Wild species are almost never suitable for keeping as pets in the way that dogs and cats are, with their thousands of years of domestication history. So, again, the message must be: leave well

NCB ANNUAL CHURCH GATE COLLECTION

The Waterford branch of the National Council for the Blind will hold their annual Church gate collection on Saturday and Sunday, 16th and 17th July. Your ever generous support for this cause would be very much appreciated.

THE TALL SHIPS RACE

Last week Waterford City successfully hosted the start of the Tall Ships race. This was the first time that Ireland hosted the start of the race series and it was a unique opportunity to present our great city to a huge global audience.

The Waterford Tall Ships Committees and sponsors of the Tall Ships Festival certainly did Waterford proud with their efficient planning and execution of such an enormous and prestigious international event.

The splendid spectacle culminated on Saturday morning with the 'Parade of Sail' where the ships set off for the 2005 race off the coast of Dunmore East. We wish the best of luck to the three Irish ships participating in the race - the Jennie Johnson, the Dunbrody and the Asgard III. Best of luck also to the Prince William ship which is captained by a Waterford man.

MEMORIAL MATCH

There was a hurling match played in Kirwan Park last Friday night in memory of the late Ned Burke. The date for the match between St. Mary's and Erin's Own has yet to be confirmed.

ally and locally that needs to be addressed urgently. Protection of the environment is a real concern and perhaps the biggest challenge facing Waterford County Council and Dungarvan Town Council is that of how to motivate the public into action against litter. Litter Pollution is a major threat to the quality of County Waterford and Ireland's environment.

Waterford County Council and Dungarvan Town Council are currently reviewing the 2001 Litter Management Plan for County Waterford. The new Draft Plan recognises the problem of litter will not be eradicated unless every sector of society takes responsibility for its share of the solution. We need to recognise as a society that litter is not the sole responsibility of Local Authority and that cleansing alone is not the most cost-effective or sustainable, long term solution. There is an undoubted need for a major change in public attitudes to littering, as it needs to be viewed as an anti social and uncivil act. This change of attitude needs to be complemented by a consistent and high profile enforcement policy by the Council so that fines and prosecutions are utilised to their full extent. Every piece of litter harms our environment and is potentially dangerous to our community. Examples of litter offences are given below:

Remember each of these activities is subject to a €125 fine!

Throwing items from cars.

 Not cleaning up dog fouling when out for a walk or in a public place.

Dropping cigarette butts and/or chewing gum on the ground.

During the review of the previous Litter Management Plan, new areas to highlight the extent of litter pollution became evident. As solutions were found for old problems new ones were identified. The Draft Litter Management Plan 2005 - 2007, for the prevention and control of litter, sets out to achieve quantifiable improvements in litter performance throughout County Waterford. It is intended that all measures to be undertaken are realistic and measurable and 8 new objectives were identified to tackle litter pollution across County Waterford

1. To intensify the vigorous enforcement of the Litter Pollution Act 1997 and to review current policies regarding enforcement to ensure that maximum use is being made of the enforcement powers of local authorities under the Act.

2. To keep implementing the National Litter Pollution Monitoring System and to use it to actively monitor the activities and performance of Waterford County Council in tackling litter.

3. To mount public awareness anti litter campaigns to specifically target cigarette related litter, chewing gum and dog fouling.

4. To actively encourage increased public participation in anti litter awareness activities at a local level.

5. To heighten public awareness of both individual and commercial sectors' responsibilities towards litter and waste management in local and countywide environments by developing an Eco Alliance Programme. This programme aims to nurture a responsible attitude towards the environment among the wider community. Leading by example illustrates a positive action against litter in the community.

6. To further develop a comprehensive schools education programme that focuses on anti litter measures and waste reduction as an effective strategy for environmental protection.

7. To provide funding under the Anti Litter Grants Scheme in association with the Department of the Environment, Heritage & Local Government.

8. To ensure the Council abides by responsibilities to ensure that its own activities do not create litter.

There is no simple solution to tackling a litter problem. Short term campaigns may have an impact for a while but the problem often returns. Solving a litter problem requires the co-operation of a wide range of people and a permanent long term programme. The objectives set out in the draft Litter Management Plan illustrate the importance of the partnership approach when dealing with litter pollution across Co Waterford.

The Draft Litter Management Plan is available free of charge by contacting the Environment Section on 058 20894 or downloading from www.waterfordcoco.ie. Please write with your comments/suggestions to Waterford County Council's Environment Department, Civic Offices, Dungarvan, Co. Waterford. AGRICULTURE AND FOOD DEVELOPMENT AUTHORIT

CATTLE: Grazing Management

Grazing management has been rather difficult this year due to peaks and troughs in the growth curves. This was due to low temperature in April and May and at present a moisture deficit in some areas. In stressful conditions, grass plants goes into the reproductive stage and heads out quickly. When plants produce seed, growth and tillering practically stops.

Cutting old heads and long grass encourages tillering and new growth. This is important for better quality and more productive pastures in the autumn. Cutting of the grass or topping as it is more widely known is kept to a minimum under a well-managed mixed grazing (cattle and sheep) system. Under an all cattle system topping always pays off at this time of year. The grass should be cut at a height of 5 cms, at most. Generally the cut grass is eaten by stock when wilted so waste is kept to a minimum. Many farmers cut higher than 5 cms and the resulting advantage are very much decreased.

An additional advantage of topping is that it removes weeds like thistles, docks and nettles. One or two toppings can control thistles and nettles in a season. The best time to top is just before flowering (late June). Docks are the most troublesome weed in intensive grassland. Now is a suitable time to spray docks in silage aftermath when dock leaves have reached 15 to 20 cm in height. There are numerous chemicals available to spray docks, most of which have some effect on clover. Information regarding the chemicals are available from the Teagasc Internet Service – www.client.teagasc.ie.

SHEEP: Ewe condition

A ewe that is weaned on the 1st July has 14 weeks before she is expected to go back in lamb for 1st March lambing. Body condition score (BCS) at mating should be 3 –3.5, failure to achieve this will mean lower litter size and more problems associated with lambing and rearing of lambs subsequently. One unit of body condition score is around 12kg liveweight. As ewes will be restricted for a period after weaning this leaves only 12 weeks to put on 1 condition score for ewes that are around body condition score (BCS) 2 – 2.5. That's a gain of 1 kg per week. To achieve this ewes need a plentiful supply of good quality grass. Most flocks will have a wide range in BCS with some ewes below 2 and some over 4. Ewes that are around BSC 3-3.5 need to be fed to maintain condition whereas ewes below 3 need to be flushed and ewes over 4 need to be restricted to loose weight.

Thin ewes that fail to respond should be considered possible candidates for culling.

Replacement ewe lambs

Weaning time is the best time to select replacements for your flock. Traditionally tail end ewe lambs were kept to draw premia and double up as flock replacements. This resulted in selecting the poorest lambs from the flock. Selecting at weaning allows you to identify lambs with good growth rate. By identifying well-grown lambs at this stage it is likely that you are choosing lambs from dams that did a good job rearing them. To avoid picking single born lambs multiples (twins and triplets) should be tagged at birth.

For next year a better option is to use a maternal sire for the production of female replacements. Ram sales will be kicking off in the next few weeks so its time to start planning for next year. Using a ram such as the Belclare has been shown to increase lambing rate and weaning rate of replacements kept from this sire breed. On average 20% of the flock should be replaced every year. The weaning rate of the flock will dictate the number of ewes that need to be mated to a maternal sire. Where a replacement rate is less than 20% 'problem' ewes will have to be retained to maintain flock size.

Ram Sales

July marks the beginning of the annual ram sales. In recent years the number of pedigree breeders that are participating in various breed improvement and genotyping schemes has increased. These schemes provide important information for the potential purchasers of rams, information that cannot be gained from visual assessment of the animal. If you are in the market for rams this year use this information to help you make your decision. A ram is a large investment not only financial but also in terms of the flock replacements he breeds. Where pedigree breeders do not provide this information ask yourself why? Are they afraid that the information will reflect poor performance? When selecting your ram look at type, conformation etc and then use the figures to make your final decision. Buying a ram without figures is like buying a 'pig in a bag'.

IMPORTANT EVENT

ICMSA Call For Co-ops To Give Commitment To Holding Price

Dominic Cronin, Chairperson of ICMSA,s Dairy Committee, has repeated his conviction that milk prices can be held well into the medium term.

"The July 1 mid-term review of intervention prices has come and gone. The market prospects are for no change, given that supply and demand are in reasonable balance. In addition, the weakening of the euro against the dollar by 13 per cent since January 1 has been very positive in terms of market returns, the Co-ops have most definitely glossed over that factor.

Dairy farmers do not have to be reminded that there has been a string of reductions over the last six months in the price paid by Co-ops amounting to 4 cents per gallon, on average. These reductions have had a very adverse affect on farmers, incomes.

ICMSA now believes that it is entirely possible for Co-op Boards to make a decision with certainty to hold milk price for the remainder of the year. It would be a welcome development in terms of stabilising farm incomes, and I am confident that such a commitment could be made by the Co-ops in the context of the continuing strength of the markets and the rationalisation programmes and cost-cutting being undertaken by our Co-ops in recent times."

Pheig Uí Mhurchadha (Ní Chathmhaoil)

Directors, Cappoquin.

Tháinig scéala bás Pheig Uí Mhurchadha (Ní Chathmhaoil) chugainn Dé hAoine 20 Bealtaine, in ionad bhanaltrais Drom Fhinín mar a raibh sí le roinnt seachtaine.

Chaith Peig saol fada sláintiúil i dtús sa Ghaillimh mar a rugadh agus a tógadh í, ar bhruach na Sionainne i dTír na hEascra, agus ina dhiadh san sa Rinn. B'í an pháiste ab óige de dheichniúir clainne a bhí ag Seán Ó Cathmhaoil agus a bhean chéile Máighréad. D'fhreastal sí ar an mBunscoil ansan mar a raibh Eamonn Ó Coigligh agus a bhean chéile mar mhúinteoirí. Is iad a spreag suim san teanga Gaoluinne inti. Ina dhiaidh sin chaith sí cupla bliain ag freastal ar Scoil na gCéard i bPortomna, mar a ghabh sí scoiláireacht gach Samhradh chun cúrsa Gaoluinne a dhéanamh sa Spidéal. Ina dhiaidh san chuaigh sí go Coláiste Cúl Aran i mBéal Átha an Righe. B'iad Siúreacha Charthnacht na Fraince a bhí i bheighil an choláiste. Mhúineadar Tís, Cócaireacht, Obair láimhe Céad Cabhair, na h-ábhar a bhí tábhachtach d'aon óg bhean i rith an lae san. Bhí cáirdeas idir an Mháthair Ab agus Fear Mór, bainisteoir Choláiste na Rinne. De thoradh fíosraithe an Fhir Mhóir duine a bheadh cumasach le páistí agus gar suim leí an Ghaoluinn agus an saol Ghealach, roghnaíodh Peig chun dul go dtí Coláiste na Rinne mar bhean a' tí. Go luath ina dhiaidh sin bhuail sí lena fear chéile, Danny agus shocraíodar síos i bPoll a' Phúca mar a thógadar a gclann.

B'í seo tréimhse na h-éingeandála, an Chogadh Mhóir agus ní raibh cúrsaí thar mholadh beirte, in aimsir an ghann-chuid agus an chruatan. Mar a dhein cam dá leithéid ag an am, d'oibrigh Peig agus Danny go dian dícheallach chun a gceann is fearr a dhéanamh dá gcuid, ag saothrú na talún agus ag cothú ainmhithe agus éanlaith de gach tsaghas i mease rudaí eile, mar obair bhreise.

Dhein Peig a seacht ndícheall gach ghné den phobal a chur ar aghaidh agus a fheabhsú agus is beag eagraíocht ná raibh sí páirteach ionta. Ina measc bhí na Mná Tuaithe, An Choiste Forbartha, Aonach na Rinne, An Fhéile Drámaíochta, Gnóthaí Pholaitíochta, chomh maith le haon chabhair a thabhairt le maoiniú agus caiteamhála an tséipéil agus an Grotto. A mhór aici gach ghné de chultúr na tíre agus roinn sí líofacht na teanga go fras leis na céadta scoláirí a d'fhan lei ins na seascaidí seachtaidí agus ochtaidí.

Bhain sí an-taithneamh as an" nGairdín le h-ais an Bhóthair" agus is mó duais a ghnóthaigh sí ar san an pharóiste leis .Mar chaitheamh aimsire ba bhreá le Peig cluiche cártaí, agus bhí clú agus cáil uirthi idir óg agus aosta ar fud an chonndae dá

New History Talk On How Irish Women Helped Build Australia

Noted Australian historian and writer, Susanna De Vries, presents a highly topical and interesting talk this weekend in Lismore on the Irish Women who went to Australia and helped build it during the Colonial era.

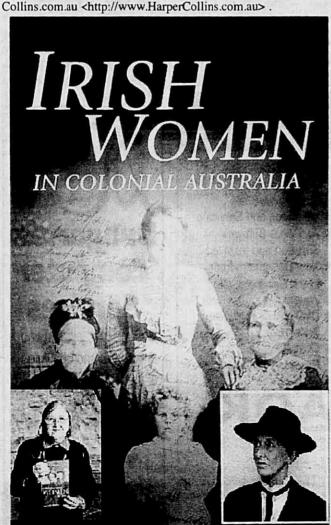

Susanna is one of Australia's premier writers on the huge contributions that women have made to the settling and founding of Australia. Her talk will be lively and full of anecdotes about the Irish women who emigrated there, either on their own or with their families. She will look at the roles they found themselves in, the workloads and responsibilities they had to shoulder, plus the opportunities and chances they were able to grab and take forward.

Many women went to Australia with their husbands to make a better life for themselves, or because social conditions in Ireland of the Nineteenth Century offered little prospect of success (including before and after the Famine). While legally and socially it was usually men who gained the fame, it was the women kept in the background who actually did much of the work that created the fortunes.

Indeed, many women struck out on their own to great success. H.E. 'Daisy' Bates is a redoubtable example of one women finding her own path through a male-dominated world to great success. One of Australia's key early anthropologists, she left Roscrea in County Tipperary for what was to become decades in the Australian deserts with many different Aboriginal nations. Her extensive books, papers and research became the stuff of legend and created her a stellar reputation.

Susanna's talk is a great example of an increasingly important area of history - that of highlighting those who, even though they were often equal partners in creating a success, gained none of their due recognition. Irish women have, as in so many places around the world, made a massive contribution to the development of Australia. Susanna's presentation, complete with pictures and examples of the women's writings, helps bring out what Irish women truly gave to Australia.

The event takes place at 2.30 p.m. on Saturday July 16, at Ballyrafter House Hotel in Lismore, Co Waterford. Tickets cost €15.00 in advance or €17.00 on the door; with a group ticket at €13.00 per person for 4 or more people. Please confirm your place by calling Lismore Books on 058 54650. All are welcome and the talk is suitable for all ages. You can see a profile of Susanna De Vries by visiting her publisher's website: www.Harper-

New County Development Plan Adopted By Council

BY KEVIN KIRRANE

Strict new rural planning guidelines will be implemented as part of the new County Development Plan which was adopted by Waterford County Council at its monthly meeting on Monday last.

The County Development Plan covers all aspects of planning over the next five years, and was adopted on a vote of 16 to 5.

Its adoption marks the culmination of a two-year process which saw a total of 431 submissions, a special meeting of the council, several area meetings and two public consultation phases.

County Manager, Ray O'Dwyer, said the adoption of the County Development Plan is "the most important work" the elected members will carry out in the life of this council.

CONCERNS

However, serious concerns were voiced about the new rural guidelines as well as zonings in Ardmore and Ballinacourty.

The guidelines establish conditions on one-off rural housing, including of local residency, employment, agricultural worker and conditions on having a bloodline connection to an area.

Director of Services, Denis McCarthy said legal advice from senior counsel found that the conditions do not impinge on human rights and are constitutionally sound.

However, Fianna Fail councillor, Kevin Wilkinson proposed an amendment to the plan, effectively opposing the new rules.

"It would be on my conscience if I accepted this," he said.

However, the amendment was struck out on the grounds concerns about the zoning of of its legality and led to strong the Greenbirch site in Kilcriticism of Cllr. Wilkinson with Fine Gael councillor, Paudie Coffey claiming it was "gameplay" while Cllr. Mary Green, also of Fine Gael, said it was "a bit rich" at the 11th hour for councillor Wilkinson to oppose his own Ministers guide-

ZONINGS

Contentious zonings in Ardmore and Ballincourty also led to opposition. Labour councillor Teresa Wright expressed "serious concerns" with the whole zoning process for the municipal waste water treatment plant in Ardmore.

Sinn Fein Cllr. Brendan Mansfield, meanwhile, raised grovan, Ballina courty, saying the decision to zone the site Tourism at an area meeting went against the planners recommendation.

It was his view that following this and other rezonings in Ballincouty would set a precedent which will further erode the agricultural nature of the Cllr. Damien Geoghegan FG, however, said the tourism zoning has been in place since the

"We didn't rezone it, we decided to leave the zoning as it was," he said.

VOTE On a roll call vote the County Development Plan was adopted by 16 votes to 5.

Voting for were: Labour councillors Ger Barron, Billy Kyne, Paddy O'Callaghan; Fine Gael councillors Liam Brazil, John Carey, Paudie Coffey, Declan Doocey, Mary Green, Tom Higgins, Pat Nugent, Damien Geoghegan and Ann Marie Power; and Fianna Fail councillors Ciaran O Riain, Pat Leahy, Pat Daly and Dan Cowman.

Against were: Fianna Fail councillors Tom Cronin and Kevin Wilkinson; Fine Gael councillor Nora Flynn; Labour's Teresa Wright and Sinn Fein councillor Brendan

MAYOR CONDEMNS "DESPICABLE" LONDON BOMB ATTACKS

"On behalf of the people of Dungarvan, I wish to condemn in the strongest possible terms the despicable bomb attacks on a number of targets in London and to extend our deepest sympaty to the people of London and to the British government (through the UK Embassy in Dublin)."

"It is evident that the people of London have been the subject of a series of coordinated attacks that have left death and terrible injury in their wake. These attacks will repel and horrify anyone with any shred of decency or humanity."

"With so many Irish people resident in London - including natives of Abbeyside and Dungarvan and their families - there has always been a close affinity between communities here and the British capital. London is, of course, a major recreational and business destination for us.

"I am a regular visitor to London myself, having lived and worked there in the past, so I am particularly horrified by what has happened. The thoughts of the people of Dungarvan are with those who have been injured or who have lost relatives in these attacks."

"All democrats must stand firm in the fact of such terrorist attacks and there must be the greatest degree of cooperation possible between all governments to ensure that those responsible are brought to justice."

The above statement was issued by Mayor of Dungarvan, Cllr. Fiachra O Céilleachair.

Farewell and Hello Again to Fr. Tim

At a pleasant function held on Tuesday last, Aisling O'Connell on behalf of the No Name Club made a small presentation to Fr. Tim O'Riordan on the occasion of his appointment as Parish Priest of Abbeyside. The presentation was an acknowledgement of Fr. Tim's role in the formation of the No Name Club in Dungarvan. About two years ago the Parish Council was considering various ways by which they could connect positively with the young people of our area. It was Fr. Tim who first suggested the idea of establishing the No Name Club, and it was he who made the first contact with the National Organisation of the No Name Club.

Our club has of course since established good roots but we thank Fr. Tim for his foresight and his continued involvement with us. At the recent AGM Tim stepped down as club secretary but we are glad to report that he will continue as a committee member and be a valuable resource to us going forward. We wish Fr. Tim well in his new role in Abbeyside. The fact is that he already knows dozens of our members from the Abbey side of the bridge.

New Members 2005/06

We get many queries from young people and their parents requesting if they can become members of the No Name Club. It is not possible to join at present but our new term begins in September and at that time we will invite applications for membership. We will visit all of the schools in the area then and explain our philosophy and aims to the young people. We will then seek recruits for the new term.

This year we have had 45 Junior Leaders (also known as Hosts & Hostesses). These young people are drawn from the age groups of Transition Year, Fifth Year and Sixth Year of the Secondary School cycle. Young people who may have dropped out from school but are of the equivalent age group are of course most welcome to join also. The Junior Leaders are the core of our club. These young people will decide the shape and thrust of our activities. In effect they decide on certain basic rules of the club and what type of activities the club will provide for all the young people of the area. These people meet weekly for most of the year and involve themselves in a wide variety of tasks. While we have a limited number of Junior Leaders it is vital to us that we reach out to all the young people of the area by providing activities for all during the course of the year.

If you think you would like to join our club then enquire of any of the current members of their experience as a Leader in the club. While we certainly will be seeking new members in September it is important to note that all existing Junior Leaders can re-apply for membership for next year providing they are still within the required age bracket.

Being a Junior Leader with the No Name Club provides opportunities to belong to a fun loving gang where you will learn and belong. You will gain new friends from all the different schools in the area. We create opportunities for young people to develop and learn to respect. We want to make our place better for our young people. We want you to be the best that you can be and to make use of your talents. If you ever dreamed of being on stage, maybe organising a sports tournament for your pals or just planning a trip away we can make many of these things happen. We aim to combat the current dependence on the drink culture by providing safe activities in response to our young peoples requirements.

If this appeals to you then consider joining us when we come talk to you in September.

Stradbally Notes

FAREWELL

This week marks the departure after eight years of sterling service to the people of Stradbally, Ballylaneen and Faha of Fr. Gregory Power. It is with great sadness that the people bade farewell to a priest who never spared himself in helping everyone he could in so many ways. He is to reside in Clonmel where he was Parish Priest for a number of years. All that hymns. The gifts were brought know him wish him many years of happiness after a lifetime in the service of the Lord Fr. Gregory was involved in many aspects of parish life during his time among us and his work in improving the facilities at Seafield School will always be a testimony to his efforts in the field of education. His dedication to the housebound was another feather in his cap, also to those who spent time in hospital from time to time. He will be sorely missed but his memory will live on and the parish has been a better place because of his presence among us.

WELCOME

One priest leaves, another comes in his place and so a warm welcome to Fr. Martin Keogh, who came to the parish having spent a number of years in the parish of Abbeyside, Ballinroad and Garranbane. It will take some time for Fr. Martin to get used to his new surroundings but once he does he will continue the great tradition of the priests who have served in the parish before him.

SYMPATHY

There was great sadness in Stradbally on Monday, 4th July when the news of the death of Jackie Power of High Street was announced. Jackie had been ill for some time but his passing in Waterford Regional Hospital was a great loss to all who knew him. Jackie is survived by his sisters Eily, Josie, Cissie and Margaret as well as by a large number of relatives and friends to whom sincere sympathy is extended in their bereavement. The remains were removed to Holy Cross Church, Stradbally on Thursday evening, 7th July and were received and blessed by Fr. Gregory Power who was also the chief celebrant of the Requiem Mass on Friday, 8th July assisted by Fr. Michael Enright. The readers were Marion McGovern and Marie Power and the choir led by Mary Dunphy sang some of Jackie's favourite to the altar by nieces Colleen, daughter of Kevin and Cissie Whelan who were unable to travel from America and Siobhan Dixie. Burial took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a large number of sympathisers. Jackie was a great favourite with the young and old and his great friend John Corbett of Knockour travelled from Watford to pay his last respects to Jackie with whom he travelled to Watford many years ago in search of work. Jackie also loved to have a flutter on the horses and often held court at home in High Street with Richard Hickey, John Corbett, Kevin Roche and Mac to mention a few, and while they were not always winners, Jackie did do well at the expense of the bookies! May his gentle soul rest in peace.

Sincere sympathy is also extended to the Darcy family, Stradbally on the death of their aunt which took place in Tullow, Co. Carlow recently. Also sympathy is extended to the Cooney and Kiely families on the death in Greenford of John Cooney, brother of the late Mary Kiely who with her husband Mikey were buried recently in Stradbally. John is survived by his son Michael, daughter-in-law Maureen and family in London. Burial will take place in London.

CARDS

Whist this week will be back to the usual night of Friday, 15th in the local G.A.A. club. The proceedings will start at 8pm and all are welcome.

NEWS FROM ST. JAMES CHURCH

The sun shone brightly as Rev. Jenny Crowley on Sunday last as she conducted her first Communion service following her recent ordination in her own parish church. Dean Billy Beare and Rev. George Cliffe of Piltown assisted the Rev. Jenny. The church was packed to capacity with family, parishioners and many friends from Holy Church. It was a historic morning for Jenny as she preached from the pulpit where her father Dean David Clare had preached in the 60's and 70's before her. Jenny's mother Eileen had travelled from Warrenpoint, Co. Down for the service as did her sister from Cork and brother from Dublin. It was poignant also for the Clarke and Crowley families as during the service a candle holder from the Clarke family was dedicated in the church in memory of Dean David Clarke and a bookcase to hold the prayer and hymn books was dedicated in the memory of the late George Crowley, for forty years of service as Rector Churchwarden to St. James Church by his brother Noel. The bookcase was crafted by his nephew Charlie Crowley. After the service all were treated to tea and coffee in the Rectory across the road.

TIDY TOWNS NEWS

A reminder that our tickets are still on sale and your support is welcome. It is getting quite close to the final judging for the National Tidy Towns competition. Last year we were judged on the last week of July and we can safely assume that it will be around that time again this year. You will see that with the very warm weather, committee members have to spend a lot of time watering the flowers. We would also ask all residents to be very litter conscious and this especially applies to cigarette ends, as we approach the final days of the competition.

A note for your diary to all who are looking forward to the Garden Visit and Fete at Lord and Lady Monteagle's residence at Stradbally village, this will take place on Saturday, 6th August. This is being organised by the parishioners of St. James Church and the Stradbally Tidy Towns committee for church

Official Opening of Maritime Exhibition

On Tuesday 5 july historian and author Mike Hackett performed the official opening of our special maritime exhibition which was prepared to mark the arrival of the Tall Ships to Waterford. William Whelan, President of the Museum welcomed the new Mayor of Dungarvan, Fiachra O Ceilleachair and Town Councillors. He paid special tribute to Mike Hackett and to maritime historian John young who wrote the first maritime history of Dungarvan. Mr. Whelan referred to the rcent death of Mr. Tom McHugh, former member of the Society and one of our Trustees. He thanked William Fraher and the Museum staff, Margaret Casey, Alan Healy, Judy O'Connell and Helen Moynihan for all their hard work in assembling the exhibition. Also thanked were Waterford County Council, the County Library and FAS for their assistance over the years.

The President said he was particularly pleased to see on display two items which had now been returned to Dungarvan - the bucket from 'The Moresby' and the bell from 'The Dunvegan'. Both those items were donated on behalf of the late Richard Miller, formerly of Dungarvan. A number of the other maritime artefacts on display have also been donated to the Museum. We intend that these will form the basis of a new expanded maritime section. The exhibition includes many photographs of ships ans schooners connected with County Waterford, items from 'The Folia' and other ships, maritime books and memorabilia. If you would like to donate any maritime items of interest we would like to hear from you. The President concluded bystating that the photographs on display were just a small part of our photographic archive which will soon be made available to the public online.

Do come and visit the exhibition and remember that we are now open during lunchtime everyday and on Saturday afternoon for the Summer.

Opening Hours - Monday to Friday - 10 a.m. to 4.45.p.m. Saturday :- 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. (June to September). Waterford County Museum, Old Town Hall, St. Augustine Street, Dungarvan. Phone: 058-45960

Memoirs Recount An Extraordinary Life

Martin Bengtsson once killed for the mafia and spied for the CIA. He doubled for Clint Eastwood and Charles Bronson in more than a dozen spaghetti westerns. Now aged seventythree, and living a life of virtual seclusion in the Knockmealdown Mountains in the north West Waterford bordering Cork and Tipperary, he has released his memoirs, telling the story of his extraordinary life.

In the prologue to his memoirs, "If You're Not in Bed By 10, Come Home," published by Maverick Books he says some of the events recounted may seem far-fetched. His warning, and insistence that it just so happens to be true, is understandable. His life of chasing adventure - for money never out of patriotism or politics, he says - contains all the ingredients of best-selling fiction (murder, intrigue, sex, royalty, and espionage).

He's been involved in military and commercial espionage, gunrunning, piracy, and general smuggling. He's been part of an assassination hit squad, a personal bodyguard to the Saudi royal family and others, and a stunt man on 16 films.

He's been an explosives technician, has led expeditions across the Sahara desert and throughout Africa and sky instructor in Austria, has held different identities, was married twice and has been forced to kill in self-defence.

In this, his first book. Martin weaves the many threads of his story together, from his young days growing up in his native London to his introduction and quick rejection of respectable life as a bank clerk. His voice - witty, debonair and emphatically non-conformist - sings from the pages.

Looking back he says, "I can honestly say I did it all for the money."

"If You're Not In Bed By 10, Come Home" is available in all good bookshops.

South Tipperary County Council elected a new Chairman Councillor Derry Foley (FG), Garryroe, Clonmel. He replaces Cllr. Mattie McGrath (FF), Mollough, Newcastle who was Chairman for the last year, a position he vacates after a busy year throughout South Tipperary. The highlights of which he mentioned during his farewell speech. I think it would be remiss of me he said, if I did not reflect on some of our major accomplishments in the past year. In the area of housing we saw the completion of 38 social houses with schemes underway for an additional 47 homes. In the area of roads we were able to carry out upgrade works on almost 175 kilometres of regional and local roads. LATE MRS. MONA BOLGER

A wave of sadness came over the district on Sunday, 3rd July with the news of the unexpected death of Mrs. Mona Bolger (nee Murphy), Shanballyanne, Ballymacarbry and formerly of Ardcast, Portmagee, Co. Kerry.

Deceased in her late thirties was a member of a well loved and respected family in the Nire Valley and her native Kerry from where she came from some three years ago when she married Frank Bolger and became a kind and loving wife and mother to her two children, a girl and a boy.

Her husband and children were her pride and joy and she was utterly devoted to them. She was a member of the Nursing profession and was employed in Clonmel, she was the holder of Diplomas in many professions.

A very estimable lady of many charming traits of character. Her gentle, good humoured and obliging nature, mild manner and unassuming disposition, commended her to all.

She was a person who had a great sense of fun and humour, which made her delightful company. She was possessed of a deep faith and practised her religion devoutly. That her presence amongst us will be very much missed and her memory long cherished by a host of friends, as was evidenced on Tuesday evening when all walks of life were represented in the vast concourse of mourners who were present when her remains after rosary and prayers were recited by Rev. Fr. Cornelious Kelleher P.P., Nire/Touraneena were removed from Condon's Funeral Parlour, Clonmel to the Parish Church of St. Helena in the Nire Valley where they were blessed and received by Rev. Fr. Cornelious Kelleher P.P.

On Wednesday at noon, the feast of St. Maria Goretti, requiem Mass as celebrated for the happy repose of her gentle soul. The celebrant was Rev. Fr. Cornelious Kelleher P.P. assisted by Rev. Fr. William Ryan P.P., Ballybricken and Rev. Fr. Sean Nugent, Newcastle, retired P.P., Clogheen/Burncourt. After Mass she was taken to her place of rest in the New Cemetery. She was the first person to be interred there.

Rev. Fr. William Ryan P.P. officiated at the graveside in the presence of a large concourse of mourners paying their final respects to a clear Christian friend whose memory they will long

To her husband Frank, daughter Mary Ellen, son Bryn, mother Ellen, brother Sean, sisters Sally and Annette, uncle Johnny and aunt Bridie and her many relatives we extend our sympathy.

LATE MR. KEVIN O'RIORDAN

It is with deep and sincere regret we pen the death of Mr. Kevin O'Riordan, St. Francis Court, Clonmel which sad event took place peacefully in Melview Nursing Home, Clonmel where he was a patient there for some two and a half years. There he had received the utmost kindness and care according to his family, who said he had a quality of life there which he hadn't known for quiet some time previously.

He was noted for his lovely sense of humour and ready wit. The gaiety of his spirit, which was such an endearing characteristic remaining with him up to the end. In his younger days he joined the Army, completing his service in Collin's Barracks, Cork with a first class honourable discharge. From all accounts he was a great solider, his marksmanship having won him prestigious Army Shooting awards over the years of which he was so justifiably proud. After his army days he subsequently became a painter and decorator, he brightened many homes lives in more ways than one, a family member rem in latter years, when he was no longer able to work, he could be seen on the town any day, talking to everyone of all ages.

Music, of course, was a large part of his life and the O'Riordan's are grateful to Tipp F.M. for the nice tribute they paid him on the Denis O'Sullivan show. Kevin, also loved nature, the countryside and all the animals. He has a pet cow "Percy", who used to call to his window every morning which was a wonderful source of pleasure to him. The outward appearance and devil-may care personal, which he displayed in recent years disguised a basically shy nature, an example of which was in the fact that when he became a teetotaller, some two or three years ago, his singing and serenading stopped. He would have loved the ceremony in S.S. Peter and Paul's Church, however with his brother singing for him and the beautiful musical tribute by the Gordonaires, as well as the large gathering there of family and friends in a last farewell.

Kevin's popularity was evidenced in the number of people from all walks of life who turned out in order to given him a good send off. It was so sad that Kevin hadn't more time to enjoy his lovely respond apartment in King Street but he has, however, gone to a more heavenly mansion, his eternal reward, where he is at peace in the arms of the Lord.

Lismore Artist Wins Co. Waterford Regional Bursary Award

The multi-media artist Corina Duyn from Lismore, Co. Waterford has won the Co. Waterford Regional Arts Bursary 2005. Dutch born Corina has been based in the County for 15 years. She is well known for her company 'Fantasy Folk' where she created dolls and puppets. In 1998, Corina was diagnosed with ME which is also known as chronic fatigue syndrome, she then had to deal with the effect which debilitating illness had on her life and her work. Unwittingly, she embarked on a creative journey through this time of illness, creating drawings and later paintings to help her deal with her situation. Since then she had exhibited this work and a documentary 'Fit to Fly' was made of this journey. Corina also wrote extensive diaries, stories and poems during this time. This has now become her next project as she is writing a book and there are plans for another DVD. The Arts Bursary will enable Corina to spend two weeks at the Tyrone Guthrie Centre, the artists workplace in Co. Monaghan. Co. Arts Officer, Margaret Organ says 'Corina's submission outlined exactly why she would benefit from working in the artists environment, Waterford Co. Council is delighted to be able to assist her with her new project by offering her this facility. Also because of her particular requirements, we are pleased that the Tyrone Guthrie Centre can also host her assistant the ceramic artist Jane Jermyn to ease her travel arrangements and to assist her with her work on the book'. Mayor Gerard Barron presented Corina with a commemorative certificate and wished her every success with her work.

It is with deep sadness and regret that we record the passing of Kitty Murphy who was called to her eternal reward in the early hours of Sunday, 19th June at her residence at 4, Bankfield, Lismore surrounded by her loving family and carers. Though not enjoying the best of health in recent months, dignity and courage and Kitty's passing will leave a huge void in the lives of the many people she loved and cared for.

Aged 85, Kitty was born and reared in her beloved Knockaniska. Ballysaggart and as was the case with a lot of families in those tough times, she was forced to seek employment from an early age. In 1936 she started housekeeping in Lismore for the Madden family in South Mall, where she gave over 60 years of loving and dedicated service to three generations of the family, caring for all their needs with such precision.

In her earlier years Kitty had many great past times, being a member of the local Red Cross and Civil Defence, her many fundraising efforts for the various local charity walks, her love for the G.A.A. games to cheer on her club and county, but most of all her devotion to the church, being a daily Mass she bore her illness with true goer and her loving devotion to

Our Lady helped her in those final few weeks to accept her illness and to all her relatives and her many friends we offer our sincere sympathy.

Family rosary was recited on Sunday evening at Ryan's Funeral Home, Lismore. Removal took place on Monday evening to St. Carthage's Church where her remains were blessed and received by Fr. K. Mulcahy P.P., Lismore and Fr. Madden, Castlelyons.

Requiem Mass was offered up on Tuesday morning for the happy repose of her soul. Chief celebrant was Canon Nugent assisted by Fr. K. Mulcahy, Fr. Madden and Fr. P. Fitzgerald P.P., Knockanore. Readings were by Ken Madden and Pauline Shanahan. Prayers of the Faithful were recited by Gael Madden, Bernie Whelan, Eileen Walsh and Eileen Ross while the Offertory gifts were carried to the altar by Marion Whelan and Nonie Shanahan while the beautiful music and appropriate hymns sung by John, Cyril and Kenneth Stack and the tributes by Barry Mc-Carthy and Michael Stack made a fitting tribute to a wonderful lady.

After Mass, the cortege proceeded to St. Mary's Cemetery, Ballysaggart where after final blessing by Canon Nugent and Fr. Madden, Kitty was laid to rest in the family grave. After prayers her grandnephew John Stack sang Kitty's favourite song "Noreen Bawn" in memory of a person whose memories we will forever cherish.

The Month's Mind Mass for Kitty will be celebrated on Sunday, 24th July in St. Carthage's Church, Lismore at 11am.

To her loving sister Mary, nieces, nephews, grandnieces, grandnephews, relatives and her many friends, we extend our sincerest sympathy.

LISMORE SNATCH DEFEAT FROM THE JAWS OF VICTORY AS IRELAND MAKE WORLD CUP HISTORY

Bitter disappointment was etched on the Lismore faces on Saturday evening last as Harlequinns managed to nick victory right at the end of a competitive Minor Cup Quarter Final at the Castlefarm. It was a result that looked near impossible as having won the toss, the Lismore batsmen spent the greater part of the afternoon compiling a formidable target of 177 runs. Leading the way with superb performances were Winston Boyle, Richard Tonks, John Russell, Dave Ind, David Campion and captain Brian Power with the visiting bowlers having no answers to the nifty skills of Lismores top order. By mid afternoon, both sides were enjoying tea in eth pavilion and the Lismore bowlers relishing the opportunity to defend their big total and secure their semi final place. Power and Ind took early wickets to put Lismore further in the driving seat but as the innings wore on, Harlequinns slowly edged their way back into matters. Simon Boardsworth with 59 runs, Philip Russel with 25 runs and Dave O'Leary with 31 runs brought the visitors firmly back into contention. With momentum on their side and Lismore looking decidedly weary in the summer heat, Harlequinns reached 179 runs and victory with just a handful of balls remaining. Three wickets each from Ind and Power were the highlight sof the Lismore bowling but the match had slipped away and the visitors were left to celebrate. It was a result the home side would rather forget and further improvement will be required in advance of next weeks Division 2 clash against the University of Limerick.

The team were Brian Power (Captain), Winston Boyle, Richard Tonks, John Russell, Dave Ind, David Campion, Sean Willoughby, Ken Madden, Paul Coolebear, Oliver Ind, William

On the international stage, there was great delight with Ireland qualifying for the 2007 World Cup in the West Indies following a fabulous display to date in the ICC Trophy. As these notes go to print, Ireland will be contesting the ICC Final with Scotland but have already achieved qualification by reaching the semi-finals of the event. It is a real joy for Ireland to take their place in this great event and it will do wonders to enhance the profile of the sport from the younger players right through to senior level. There are talks of a Lismore tour to the West Indies to coincide with the finals...Watch this space!!

On Monday evening next Junior practice will take place at 7.30pm and on Wednesday evening, adult practice takes place at 7pm. All are welcome as always.

Life In Ancient Egypt

sptian civilisation began to develop around 4,000BC along the banks of the River Nile and flourished for over three thousand years until Egypt was conquered by the Romans. At first there were two kingdoms, Upper Egypt and Lower Egypt, but these merged into one around 3,500BC.

Importance Of The Nile

The River Nile was vital to the people of Egypt. Each year the river would flood as a result of rains falling in the mountains to the South. When the water subsided the area would be coated with a thick layer of fertile soil in which crops would flourish. The farmers learnt to control the flood waters to irrigate (water) their crops. They used ditches and gates to adjust the amount of water going into the fields.

The Tomb Of Tutankhamun

The Egyptians believed that the human soul lived on after death. They preserved the bodies of the dead and buried them in coffins and then in tombs. Because of Egypt's dry climates, the contents of many tombs remained perfectly preserved through the centuries. Those that remain have given historians a unique picture of Egyptian life. Possibly the most famous tomb is that of the boy king (pharaoh) Tutankhamun who reigned from about 1360 to 1350BC. It was discovered in the Valley of the Kings at Thebes, Egypt in 1922. It became famous for the treasures that were discovered in it.

Green answer to air pollution

Some experts think that people are more at risk from pollution inside their home than outside. Unsurprisingly, they also believe the best way to keep the air clear inside a house, is growing pot

Many people see their house as a sanctuary from the outside world but according to the World Health Organisation nearly a third of all buildings pose a serious threat to health.

Many experts even believe that indoor pollution is now a much greater problem than outdoor pollution.

And it seems our homes are just as much at risk to suffer from sick building syndrome as places of

Your home could be emitting volatile chemicals, increasing your risk of getting allergies, chronic fatigue syndrome or even cancer. Modern energy-efficient insulated buildings seal in a mixture of chemicals such as nitrogen dioxide and carbon monoxide from gas cookers, formaldehyde, benzene and other volatile organic compounds from building materials, carpets, fabrics, paint. Other surprising sources of pollution include household cleaning products and toiletries.

A number of recent studies have suggested that many of the chemicals in modern cleaning products and air fresheners are major contributors to a rise in the number of young people who suffer from asthma.

There are also the emissions from electrical appliances, pet hair, dust mites and cigarette smoke but everyone can cut the chances of being affected and it couldn't be simpler.

The solution is to grow house plants - the more

Using plants as air filters is not a new idea, and

In 1980 Nasa scientists discovered that house plants are the best way of cleaning up chemical emissions in buildings that we spend a lot of time

While most plants will provide some benefit to the indoor environment some work better at removing indoor toxins than others.

Here are the top pot plants to help revitalise and clean up your home:

In laboratory, ivies were rated excellent for their overall clean-up performance. grow one around a topiary form for added interest.

Dragon tree A good choice for the home office, as it absorbs tricloroethylene and xylene from computers, printers and chipboard or MDF furnishings.

Areca palm

Humidifies the air and is good at removing all the indoor toxins that have been tested. Most palms are excellent air

Boston fern

One of the best plants for increasing humidity and removing chemical vapours, especially formaldehyde. Weeping fig

This is a good all-round air filter. Boost its benefits and enhance its appeal with an underplanting of ivy or golden

They take in and metabolise atmosphere pollutants and use them as food, reducing or eliminating many toxins. They are very good at removing carbon monoxide, formaldehyde and nitrogen.

The beautiful pot plant is especially good at removing benzene, formaldehyde and bioeffulents released by human breathing. It also significantly improves the moisture content of dry indoor environments.

BARBECUES can by rather messy meals, especially if ribs are on the menu, so it is always handy to have some fresh wipes on hand so your guests can clean up a little before the next course.

For hot towels at home dampen some flannels, roll up and spray each lightly with your favourite toilet water.

Place on microwaveable plate, cover with clingfilm and turn on the microwave for a few seconds to give you hot towels in seconds.

WATCH OUT!

THERE is a one in ten chance of something being stolen from your garden - so take care this summer, particularly during June, which has seen the highest number of claims for theft from the garden and garage in recent years, according to Halifax Home Insurance.

New patio sets, garden strimmers and even hanging baskets are all too tempting to the green fingered thief who can be in and out of an unsecured property in minutes.

Its vital that back gates are properly secured, garages and sheds are locked and any items kept in greenhouses are hidden from an opportunistic thief.

BBQ TIPS

WITH summer just around the corner, you may be tempted to get involved in the No 1 summer leisure activity - barbecuing!

But, before you get your hands on the hamburgers, remember to follow these simple tips to make sure your BBQ is a sizzling success!

Light the BBQ well in advance. Make sure you use enough charcoal and wait until it is glowing red (with a powdery grey surface) before cooking. ■ Never leave the BBQ unattended and always have a supply of water on hand for emergencies.

n Avoid using pre-soaked briquettes, as they tend to give the food a chemical taste. Instead use fire lighters to get the coals burning.

TALLOW NOTES

Where Is Tallow?

Indeed, where is the town of Tallow. Has it vanished? Well, it certainly does not seem to be in County Waterford. The South East Regional Tourism Authority who in association with the Waterford County Tourism Committee brought out the Holiday Guidebook 2005 which saw West Waterford end in Ballyduff and Lismore.

This is not the first time that this scribe brought this to the notice of our readers. It fell on deaf ears as nothing had been done to put it right. We in Tallow have nothing against our neighbours Ballyduff and Lismore but it does seem to be a bit of a joke that the town of Tallow is again missing from the County map.

Is it any wonder why many people here in Tallow say that West Waterford ends in Lismore. Perhaps if the local people blocked off the road at the Brideview bar and somebody would then sit up and take notice. We have passed on this guidebook to our local Cllr. James Tobin who will now follow this up with the relevant authorities. We will keep you informed on any developments. Oh yes, there is also a golf club in Lismore.

MONEYMATTERS

SCHOOL COSTS IN THE IRISH FREE EDUCATION SYSTEM

Is it too early to bring up the topic of going back to school? Well the summer holidays have but begun and going back to school is the furthest thought from every child's mind and from some parent's financial concerns

There are many parents, however, who do not have the luxury of a summer free from the ongoing worry of the costs associated with school. These expenses not alone cover the cost of fitting out a child for the return to school but also the constant requests, almost on a weekly basis, for funds for this and that requirement.

For families on social welfare or on low income school costs are a constant drain on their already meagre resources. In a recent piece of research carried out for OPEN (One Parent Exchange Network) and MABS (Money Advice & Budgeting Service) the cost of sending children to school was a big worry for many parents. Mothers spoke of the price of footwear and clothing, including special school uniforms and school crested sportswear. A huge bone of contention, the research showed, was the fact that despite spending large sums on uniforms and school bags, they were often of poor quality and had to be replaced regularly.

Schools sometimes try to compensate for under-funding by asking parents for a contribution at the beginning of the academic year. This request often comes in a form that more resembles a bill than that of seeking a voluntary contribution. This is clearly wrong and can put a considerable burden on families where resources are already scarce. A school cost survey carried our by North Cork MABS in 2002-2003 showed how expensive it is to send your child to school in what is supposed to be a free education system. It showed that school costs came to €1938.10 a year for a family on social welfare with one child doing the Junior Cert and another in 6th Class. That was equal to €37.26 per week out of their then income of €163.40. The research also showed that the total cost for a family with three children in secondary school was €3327.00 or €63.98 per week. In the survey school tours were an issue raised by several parents. Many secondary schools tend to go to Europe, and because parents want to get the same opportunities as everyone else, they oflen have to borrow to raise the money for the tours. It also highlighted how students from low income families who had to drop Home Economics or Woodwork as it was too expensive to provide the ingredients and materials required throughout the year. So education is not free and does not come cheap.

If you are a parent who is living on a low income then the cost of children going back to school is already in your mind. If you can save now for the back to school costs well and good. Put aside what you consider necessary each week into the post office or credit union so that when September comes you will have money to

If your income is particularly low, you may be entitled to the "Back to School Clothing and Footwear Allowance." This is a special supplementary payment that exists to help ease the financial pressure at the beginning of the school year. To apply, contact your local Community Welfare Officer between June 1st. and September 30th

The Money Advice & Budgeting Service is based at Civic Offices, Davitts Quay, Dungarvan (Tel 058-44922) and provides a service throughout the West Watcrford area. It is part of the national MABS Service and is free, confidential and independent. Visit our web site at: www.mabs.ie

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

What is the European Health Insurance Card?

The European Health Insurance Card allows you to access public healthcare for treatment when visiting certain European countries should you become ill or get injured. It replaced the E111 and other E forms which had previously been required.

If you are going on a short stay to an EU country (excluding UK), an EEA country (Iceland, Liechtensein, Norway) or to Switzerland, it is advisable to have a card to cover you and your family for public healthcare. The card is valid for up to two years and each person travelling will need a card.

You can apply for the card online at 222.ehic.ie if you already have a Medical Card or a Drugs Payment Scheme Card. You can also download application forms from the website or get them from your local Health Service Executive officer or health centre. You will have to provide your name, address, date of birth and Personal Public Service (PPS) Number.

You should apply for the Card at least ten working days before travelling. If there is not enough time to get a card you can get a Temporary Replacement Certificate from the Health Service Executive for each person travelling, which will cover you.

Apart from people going on holidays, other people who should apply for the card are:

Those going on business trips.

Those going to look for work.

Those posted to work in one of the countries mentioned, temporarily, but still paying tax in Ireland.

Those going to do a course of study.

Those going temporarily for any other purpose where healthcare itself is not the purpose.

Frank Ryan

- A Singing Legend

40th Anniversary of Renowned Tenors Death

This year marks the 40th anniversary of the death of one of Co. Waterford's best loved tenors, Frank Ryan of Tallow.

Born on October 5th 1900, Frank's contribution to music and to the West Waterford town was recognised when, on the centenary of his birth on November 24th 2000, the people of Tallow unveiled a bust of the great singer.

Frank was actually born in Fermoy but came to Tallow at the age of six. But he was reared in Tallow, worked in Tallow, reared his own family in Tallow and had a great love of Co. Waterford.

Though, Frank sang as a boy soprano in the local Tallow churches his development as a singer came late. Frank was first and foremost a farmer and a butcher and, in fact, he was working on his farm when he died suddenly on the 17th of July, 1965

COMMANDANT

He joined the old IRA as a young man and fought in the War of Independence. He became a Commandant of the West Waterford Brigade. It was not until he was in his early thirties that his beautiful tenor voice was discovered.

He sang with the Fermoy Choral Society in The Mikado, the Gondoliers and the Geisha. He won the Gold Medal at the Feis Ceoil, Dublin, in 1936, and the adjudicator commented that his natural voice was even better than John McCormack's.

The newspapers reported, "a new McCormack discovered." As a result of the Feis Ceoil award, he was a popular choice for operas and concerts, singing for four seasons with the Dublin Operatic Society in the Olympia Theatre, Dublin. Among his fellow artists during that time was the great Australian soprano, Joan Hammond. He was also a regular in opera at the Old Cork Opera House

ALBERT HALL

He was a constant visitor to England where he was in great demand for concerts and dinners organised by the various Irish County Associations. His English ventures later included a packed concert at London's Albert hall. He had a similar rapport with the Irish County Associations in America, the highlights of which were his invitation to travel with the Kerry and Cavan teams for the "Polo Grounds All-Ireland" in '47 where he sang the national anthem and to sing at various functions, culminating in another packed out concert at New York's Carnegie Hall.

As a result, he was invited as US President Harry Truman's guest at the St. Patrick's Day Parade in 1948.

FESTIVAL SOCIETY

During the early forties, Frank sang various versions of opera with the Waterford Festival Choral Society (later to become the Waterford Grand Opera Society). He also sang very often in the Theatre Royal in variety concerts, which was a regular feature of the war years. These concerts were mainly for charities (the ones dearest to Frank's heart were in aid of the National Graves Committee). In 1945, he sang the part of Don Caesar in Maritana for the Grand Opera Society - the first fully staged production of an opera in Waterford since the late '20's. By 1958, he had notched up his 100th performance of the role.

FRANK RYAN ireland's leading tenor in the 1950's

Larry Fanning of the Waterford News & Star recalled: "Frank had an absolutely beautiful natural tenor voice, 'a big lyric' in quantity, which combined sweetness and power as required, a combination rare in many a famous international singer. Had Frank Ryan as a boy received the international standard of training his voice deserved, he would have been up there with McCormack and the rest.

NATURAL VOICE

Tommy O'Brien, of radio fame, declared in his book, 'Good Evening Listeners' that Frank Ryan had "the most natural tenor voice I ever heard."

His death came just a few months before he was due to sing in a Maritana to commemorate the centenary of the death of William Vincent Wallace.

His sudden death on July 17th, 1965, denied the Waterford public of the privilege of hearing the Tallow Tenor in one last Maritana in memory of the Waterford man who composed

GROW - Ireland's Best

Kept Secret

It has been said that Grow is Ireland's best kept secret. That is understandable in the light of the confidential nature of its work in the field of mental health. This year, thanks to GSK, Grow's Dungarvan branch in Dungarvan, is getting much needed publicity as well as much needed funds.

It was originally called Recovery but changed its relevance to encompass everyone who wishes to improve the quality of their life. People in Grow soon discover that mental health isn't all about doom and gloom. They are steered in the direction of the basics of healthy living - friendship, laughter, love, personal value and community.

Above all the message Grow would like to send to people is that life has a place for you; each one of us is unique and together we can ensure that the future is well worth living.

Come to Grow or become a Friend of Grow. To Contact Grow Telephone 058 - 45554

On Friday July 15th the 6th annual GSK race takes place in aid of Grow. Funds raised will help us to maintain our three existing groups and develop further groups in the town. The race kicks off at 7.30pm for walkers and 8pm for runners. Changing facilities and race entries will be at Dungarvan Crystal Sports Centre from 6.30pm with an entry fee of 8 euro.

BEEKEEPING NEWS

Anybody approaching Cappaquin from the south (that's from the Dungarvan direction for those of you who don't do cardinal points) will have noticed a field of bright yellow hue over and behind the town. It really leaves its mark on the landscape. I have not as yet got close to investigate which crop this is, but it can only be oil-seed rape or mustard. Oil seed rape is "new" to County Waterford as far as I know and, as the name suggests, it is grown for its seed which yields a very high quality cooking oil. It can also be used to drive diesel engines, so experiments in its value as a bio fuel are well advanced. For beekeepers it represents either a bonanza or a disaster, depending on how you deal with it. Oil seed rape is probably the highest yielder of both pollen and nectar among our flora. Really it could be described as a cultivated weed and when bees gather its nectar and invert it into honey it crystallizes within days. It literally goes rock hard - too hard for the bees to use it as food stores. This is because the proportion of glucose to fructose (the two main constituents of honey) is so lopsided. The only way the honey can be treated is that it be removed from the super immediatly it is sealed, extracted and stirred until it reaches a cream like consistency. This might mean extracting not once a season but several times within a few weeks while the honey flow is on, which makes it sound like a lot of hard work. The up side is that the bees make a phenomenal amount of honey in a short time (weather permitting) and though the taste is, in my opinion, rather bland it can be improved by storing in a freezer for a short period - after stirring and settling and bottling - I am told. We have all different tastes and there are those who prefer oil-seed rape honey to any other. The crop is wind pollinated and does not really require the presence of foraging bees to ripen and bear seed, but tests have shown that when the crop is well worked by honey bees yields are higher and flowering is more uniform and short lived.

Bees and beekeeping have traditionally been associated with honey and wax production. At times (in earlier centuries) bees wax was considered a much more important hive product than honey and of much greater value. However, in modern crop production the value of bees as pollinators is worth many times the value of the honey produced. In Denmark the value of bees as pollinators is estimated to be worth ten times the value of the honey produced. In the tropics the value of bees as pollenators is many times that and, in some cases, by as much as one hundred times the value of the honey produced. This information is not of my making but snippets from a publication called "Beekeeping in the Tropics" by a Danish anthropoligist (and beekeeper) called Ole Hertz. Ole is a member of a Danish Aid Project which has been successful in the spread of beekeeping in four African countries (Gambia, Guinea, Bissau and Ianzania) and in The Dominican Republic in the Caribbean. Put simply the aim is to increase crop yields through effective pollination, and since 80 - 90% of the cultivated crop production is dependent on insect pollination this is very important indeed. Ole will be manning, along with others, a stand at the coming Apmondia on tropical beekeeping where much more information can be had on this and related matters. I tried to lure him to come to County Waterford to give a talk to the Association along with his fascinating slide show from these far-away places, but he said that he has a cheap return air ticket and it would be too costly to change. Another time perhaps.

Back here in the inappropriately named "Sunny South East" people are wondering if there is to be any summer at all. I'm wondering if there is going to be any honey harvest since we are now in main crop season and with the blackberry in flower this is 'last chance saloon' time. I should like to hear from others as to their experience of the season so don't hestiate to ring 058 53508 or mail your messages to jasc@eircom.net. It looks as if this Thursday 7 July migh yield a little bit of sunshine so I'm off to look at my own and our latest member Ian Magee's bees. Good luck to all your colonies and it is my sincere hope that some of you have been more successful than I have this season, otherwise there's not going to be much Waterford honey on the shelves this autumn.

Concert for Sri Lanka and Sudan this Sunday

A very talented local line-up of singers, musicians, storytellers and other artists has been arranged by the Dungarvan Gospel Choir for their Concert for Sri Lanka and The Sudan which will be held in the Park Hotel this coming Sunday night, 17th July commencing at 8.15 p.m.

As well as their own varied programme, the Choir have been able to secure the services of the Cork Gospel Choir, James Lenane, Seanachai; Donnchadh Gough of Danú, Lorna Jane Murray, Dinah Walsh and Sinéad Kiely; Mala Raggett, The Threshing Set and Austin Hallahan, Piano. It's a varied programme which has something for everyone and who will be sparing nothing for the causes for which the Concert is being held.

Jenny Beresford from Dungarvan gives some extra care and attention to a young victim of the Tsunami in Sri Lanka.

The coastal towns of Sri Lanka, in common with many others along the Indian Ocean rim, are still in dire need and Jenny Beresford from Dungarvan is helping to restore some normality to the lives of people who have lost family, possessions and homes in the December Tsunami. They still see some hope as the foreign aid continues to arrive and, more importantly, good, caring and talented people coming with goodwill in their hearts.

That has also been the hallmark of the Christian Brothers Mission in the Sudan for decades and now, as many Brothers from the local population reach the stage where they can take over from those who taught and trained them, the Christian Brothers are happy to hand over the reins of administration to them.

They are however, in great need of resources for their social, health and education programmes and this Concert will help towards their great work in the poorer region of The Sudan.

Clare Hallahan, a member of the Gospel Choir and one of the organisers of the Concert is delighted with the response of the public so far. "People are so generous," she said, "after all the demands which have been made on them over the past seven months, they are still willing to help both these needy areas. With Dungarvan's Jenny Beresford and Br. Declan Power overseeing the use of the resources in their respective areas, this is a great opportunity to make a direct and positive impact on the lives of those far less fortunate than ourselves."

Tickets for the Concert are available at Hallahan's Pharmacy and also from the members of the Dungarvan Gospel Choir and at € 10 each for a star studded line-up, it all adds up to a very good night's entertainment.

"Dancing Thru' The Ages" - The Show

Audiences were "blown away" at the opening of "Dancing Thru' The Ages" in Youghals' Mall Art Centre on June 30th. A dazzling performance with the show sure to evoke the highest of accolades during its run through to September. The production team that brought us last years show, Phyllis Foley, Richard Foley and Paula Goulding, has surpassed all expectation in this magical triumph. This spectacle of Irish music, song and dance has wowed the crowds that flocked to see the opening performances.

The setting for this show is in an idyllic location alongside the promenade of Youghals' picturesque seafront. The Theatre was built in 1779, and was then known as The Mall House.

The show begins with the cast setting the scene for its opening number, 'Dancing at the Crossroads' with references dating as far back as the 1930's when people gathered at what was known as 'The stage' or 'At the crossroads', to play music, song and dance. The second half of the show moves forward in time, its slick and precise with music composed by David Downes, and the shows choreography by Paula Goulding of Riverdance fame. Paula performed with the hit show for seven years, finishing as a lead in last years run at the Gaiety Theatre in Dublin. Colleagues to Paula in her Riverdance days are the shows leads, Sarah Harris and Shane McAvinchey. With Harris' poise and grace and McAvinchey's phenomenal energy and rhythm, they make a dynamic duo, their extensive experience and professionalism evident throughout this mind boggling performance. The troupe, comprised of world class dancers, Ciara Calanan, Gemma Donovan, Majella Louise Fitzgerald and Anne Marie Hickey were foot perfect and flawless throughout. The number; "Mná Na hEireann" provided them with an excellent opportunity of displaying quality of poise, style and dance. Making her first appearance as vocalist in the show, Caroline Fraher stilled the audience with her exquisite rendition of "Ar Eireann Ni Neosfainn Ce Hi", which tells of mans love for Ireland and her daughter. The energetic group of musicians provided some choice and captivating music with Richard Foley, mandolin/bouzouki, Paddy Tutty, from Dungarvan, Fiddle, Tom Murphy also a native of Dungarvan, Flute /whistle, Ted Farrell, Guitar, Keith Ansbro, Bodhran/percussion and Caroline Gray on Keyboards. In Act 2 the company were "Reeling in the New" with mesmerising dance routines, one of which being "Dancers Duet", a real delight, danced with a new expression and twist of Irish dance.

Phyllis, Richard and Paula have provided enchantment, excitement and entertainment of highest calibre. Don't miss the opportunity to experience the magic of this spectacular performance of Irish music, song and dance.

THIRD ECLIPSE WIN

When Oratario won the Eclipse Stakes at Sandown last week it was the third win in this prestigious Group 1 event for trainer Aidan O Brien, as he already tasted success with Giants Causeway in 2002 while Hawk Wing came up trumps for the County Wexford born trainer in 2001.

STALLION FEE TAX

on Stallion fees in the next couple of years. The Government will almost certainly introduce one tax or another but the amount will be capped at about the Euro 10,000 the small breeders outside of the tax net.

SLOW PACE DID NOT SUIT

Trainer Michael Bell is blaming the muddling pace in the Eclipse Stakes for the defeat of the Derby winner Motivator. Fair enough but the connections must take some blame for not running a pacemaker in the race similar to the ones used by both Aidan O Brien and Godolphin.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know that Mick Kinane's first ever winner came on Muscari in a sprint race at Leopardstown back in 1973. Muscari was trained by Roscrea based vet Larry Greene and Larry is the father of English based jump jockey Rodi Greene.

FIRST GR1 WINNER

Dual purpose trainer Hughie Morrison enjoyed his first ever Group 1 success at Newmarket last Thursday when Irish born rider John Egan steered 22/1 outsider Pastoral Pursuits to a narrow win in the July Cup sprint.

FREELANCE JAMIE

English jockey Jamie Moore who rode at as a freelance rider having been attached to the Martin Pipe yard for some time.

TURF WARS

If you missed out on the Turf Wars programme featuring Moone County Kildare trainer Jessica Harrington you can now catch up on the series on BBC 2 at 7.30pm on Friday nights.

SEAMUS MCGRATH DIES

One of Irelands best ever trainers Seamus McGrath died last week at the age of 82. While he trained mostly for the McGrath family who were involved with Waterford Crystal at the time Seamus still managed to win four training championships.

CHANGE OF TACT

I was always of the impression that Coolmore had all of their horses in training with Aidan O Brien but not so as I am told as they have a number of two year olds in training with Sir Michael Stoute.

DID YOU KNOW

Did you know that the Edward O Grady trained General Montcalm was rated the top hunter chaser for the 2004 season while The Wipper trained in Tallow County Waterford by Sean Aherne was the top point to pointer in the country?

BOMBS FORCE CANCELLATION

Epsom racecourse were forced to cancel their meeting last Thursday as there were no ambulances available to the track after the bomb explosions in central Lond

MULLINS BAY AT YORK

The good run of the Aidan O Brien yard continued at York last Saturday when the Kieren Fallon ridden Mullins Bay ran out a facile winner of the John Smiths Cup from an unfavourable high draw. This was a first ever win by an Irish trained runner in this prestigious handicap.

REGGIE IN HOT WATER

Better known as a trainer of some top class greyhounds County Kildare man Reggie Roberts found himself in hot water with the Tipperary stewards last Sunday when they fined him Euro 1,000 for using the racecourse as a training ground for the fourth placed Happy Moments. The jockey Paraic Beggy incurred a seven-day ban while the horse was barred from racing for 42 days. Ex jockey Donal Manning assists Reggie

Two Of The Best For Maria

The action was hot both on and off the track in Kilcohan Park last Saturday night. County Waterford based trainer Maria Byrne sent out a short priced double as her two runners Castle King (Droopys Woods-Starrie Plough) 2/1 and Run On Boy (Droopys Kewell-Valentina) 1/1 both ran out impressive winners of their respective contests. Tracking cleverly in the second semi final of the Gallows Kennels Open Unraced Stake the Castle Ten Syndicate owned Castle King dashed up the inside of Honest Al between the opening two bends and staying on stoutly Castle King was never subsequently headed racing on to a smart one and a half lengths defeat of Honest Al in 28.91.

The Nicky O Regan and Jimmy Flynn owned Run On Boy a previous debut race winner at Clonmel ran riot over the opposition in the eight contest cruising to a very impressive success in a red hot 28.47. Easing his way into an early lead over Daisys Dream Run On Boy bounded clear down the back eventually beating Kelz Rio by seven lengths.

In the opening 300 yard dash the Catherine Kearns owned Shunters Lad (Tinlough Jerry-Walls First) 5/1 led out of the first turn but the red hot 4/7 favourite Camblin Woods (Droopys Woods-Crucial Mystery) trained by Harry Seery for William Byrne got back up close home to run a perfect dead heat in 16.53.

While it may have taken him some time to get off the mark the Lester Collins owned Glenview Fright (Fly Fright-Glenview Lass) did it in style on Saturday night running away with the second race in a career best 29.16. Flashing clear from trap five to lead from Dinnys Choice Glenview Fright was never in any subsequent danger breezing in all of five lengths clear of Paw A Penny.

We already covered the second semi final of the unraced event but in the first qualifier the George Roche owned Moher Mover (Hotshow Ben-Domingo Star) the 6/4 favourite made sound use of his early pace to lead all the way in a much improved 29.04. After taking a first bend bump Paddys Spiral ran on well in the closing stages only to taste defeat by one and a half lengths.

Kilmeaden owners Damien O'Regan and Sandie Holland were on the mark in the fifth event courtesy of the 2/1 favourite Glenbervie Sweep this November 03 son of Top Honcho and Asata Sana posting back to back victories in a career best 28.91.Glenbervie Sweep shaded the first bend from Point Two and when the latter stumbled off the second bend Glenbervie Sweep went for home. To be fair to Point Two he did his best to haul in Glenbervie Sweep but the favourite battled all the way to the winning line to triumph by half a length. The following two six bend races were semi finals of the Jack Fitzgerald Memorial 29.70 Marathon stake. In the first semi final Whiteys Flower was despatched as the 5/4 favourite but the jolly completely missed her break from trap two. The same could not be said of the Moment Of Madness Syndicate owned and Dave Morris trained Richie Rapid (Jamella 2 Agent Goodnight Prince-Monamolin Lass) this 6/1 shot bounding into a clear lead over the chasing pack. While he failed to stay in the first round of this competition there were no such problems for Richie Rapid on this occasion as he kept up the gallop to defeat a slow starting but fast finishing Orlando by three and a half lengths in a much improved 41.29.

From as the same kennel as the previous beaten favourite Bobs Fancy (Bypass Byway-Hannahs Fancy) the 7/4 favourite enjoyed the rub of the green in the second semi final winning out for owners the Turret Rock Syndicate and trainer Nick Turner in a decent 41.24. When the fast starting pair of Wheres Jack and Reggae Blue collided at the first bend Bobs Fancy seized the opportunity to gallop into a clear lead. Bells Of Boulick who was forced to take evasive action at the second bend pile up made eye catching late headway but there was no catching Bobs Fancy who won out by four lengths.

Val The Man made a commendable effort to lead all the way from trap five in the ninth contest but he could never shake off the persistent challenge of Smooth Charlie and securing a clear run up the inside of the long time leader the Sinead and Ciaran Hearne owned Smooth Charlie (Split The Bill-Seafield Lemon) 7/2 lived up to his name coming through for a half a length success in 28.78.

The two semi finals of the 2005 Paddy Power Derby Trial Stake provided some excellent fare. In the first semi final the Paula and Collette Hoban owned Stage Joey (Spiral Nikita-Alias Stage) 5/1 asserted his superiority at the entrance to the back stretch as he motored clear of Arry Scarry. The latter's cause was not helped when colliding with the rails over the final two bends but Stage Joey kept going at full speed to win out by three and a half lengths in 29.82.

Many of us thought that the second semi final was at the mercy of Agent Goodnight 6/4 but you under estimate track specialist Silken Thomas (Droopys Vieri-Tiger Babs) 2/1 at your peril and this Paul Walker owned and Tony Ryan trained black produced a super front running effort to lead all the way in a smashing 29.60 a near record run for the 550 yard trip. Agent Goodnight enjoyed a clear run in behind Silken Thomas and while we waited for Silken Thomas to tire in the closing stages he was having none of it obliging by a length over a gallant Agent Goodnight.

In the concluding graded 550 the Marie Roche owned and bred Marshals Trigger (Smooth Rumble-Marshals Smasher) 4/1 came back to winning form with a vengeance to score in 30.29. Marshals Trigger came between the front running pair of Windele King and Gurrane Gold near the third bend and despite a home stretch bump with a running on Lindas Scholes Marshals Trigger prevailed by one and a half lengths.

The Late Eddle Quinn-Mooncoin

A minute's silence was observed at Kilcohan Park last Saturday night as a mark of respect to the late Eddie Quinn who died unexpectedly during the week. Eddie was a great character both in Kilcohan Park and all over Ireland on the coursing fields and all those who came into contact with the likeable South Kilkenny man down through the years will sadly mourn his passing. He enjoyed an amount of success with his runners on track and field many bearing the "Snodgers" prefix. To his family we extend our deepest sympathy. May his soul rest in peace.

UNDER-21 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

Our opening game in this years championship took place last Saturday evening when we played Tallow in Ballyduff. Being a local derby, this was always going to be a very closely contested game. Lismore got off to a good start and got the opening point, it was tit for tat throughout the first half and going in at half time the score read Lismore 1-3 to Tallow's 0-4 with our goal coming from John Heneghan. In the second half Lismore lifted their game and with some great scoring opportunities being availed of and John Heneghan finding the net again, the final score read Lismore 2-6 luck was not in their favour on this occasion Tallow 0-7.

CUNNIGAR PITCH AND PUTT NOTES

Calendar Events

On Thursday last competition was fierce yet again. Winning 1st Nett was Mary Donnelly and Mikes (Faldo) Donovan while taking honours for first gross beat the very strong combination of John Carroll and Jimmy Quinn. Next weeks game is an 18 hole scramble commencing at 7pm sharp.

Waterford Crystal Scratch Cup

Congratulations to John Carroll on winning the Waterford Crystal Scratch Cup last weekend. I'm not sure what score he ended up with but I'm told he was 18 under par going into the play offs. Once again well done to John.

Con Sunday last our ladie

On Sunday last our ladies travelled to Douglas Pitch and Putt club in Co. Cork for the national finals. Many of our women played well and enjoyed the day immensely. Well done to all who represented Cunnigar Pitch and Putt club.

Donna Cockwell Unlucky

Donna Cockwell who is rated one of the best intermediate players in the country, represented our club in Cork for the National finals over the weekend.

Donna, who last year was crowned with Junior Munster and National titles is regarded as one of our biggest ambassadors in the club went on to win the Intermediate Munster title think a fabulous effort and I know that Donna will be back again next year. On behalf of everyone at Cunnigar Pitch and Putt club I would like to congratulate Donna on yet again a earlier this year. Donna had to qualify for the National finals from Cork and did so comfortably. Donna who was only one shot from the overall winner was well behind going into the final 18 hole play off and played well to finish in second place. Considering that this is Donna's first year at Intermediate level I think this is as good a victory as actually winning outright. My source tells me that Donna pitched some great shots but was unlucky when it came to the greens. All in all it think a fabulous effort and I know that Donna will be back again next year. On behalf of everyone at Cunnigar Pitch and Putt club I would like to congreat year of pitch and putt.

TRUST RUMBLE

To be held in the GoldCoast Golf Club, this three man or three ladies rumble looks like being the biggest ever classic run in the Club. Tony Dunford, who is organising the event, has put together a package of prizes which I doubt will ever again be matched by any classic. Nineteen team prizes are on offer, all green fees, some with a night's stay in a hotel, with a value of approximately 10,000. The timesheet for the event opened last week and already over sixty teams have entered for the event. If you intend to enter it would be advisable to book as soon as possible as preferential time could soon run out.

Dungarvan Golf Club Notes

OPEN WEEK

Our Open Week continues this week and is attracting a large number of visitors. On Monday a mixed foursomes Sponsored by East Cork Oil was held. This was won by Matt Walsh and his wife Marian with a 66 nett closely followed by Chairman Jim Harty and his wife Sheila on 67. This really proved to be a family occasion with John Reynolds and Aunt Tess winning the gross with 78.

Waterford Hurlers continue to find our Dungarvan Course a happy hunting ground with all star Paul Flynn (4) winning the Baumann Jewelers prize with 44 points (68 gross) highlighted by a tap in Eagle on the 15th on his way to 25 pts on the back 9. Dave Bennett (6) also featured with 40 points. Next up was our annual sponsors Gain Feeds hosting an open singles which was won by Eddie Elstead on 42 pts. Eddie was delighted to be back in the winner's enclosure again. Also, a recent recruit to the game, Neil (Trucker) Power (16) scored a fine 41 pts. Billy Joyce playing off (13) from Youghal proved to be too good for the rest of the Fitzgerald Insurances Competitors with 65 nett. This competition was also notable for a great 67 gross score from scratch player John Reynolds warming up for Senior Cup duty and the South of Ireland. John also featured with his partner Donal Williams in the fourball sponsored by GlaxoSmithkline, coming a close second with 46 points. Winner of this competition was Joe Murphy (6) and Paul Morrisson (11) with a fantastic score of 47 points. Joe got this round off to a great start with an eagle 3 on the 1st. This was followed by 5 birdies between him and his partner. John & Donals round featured 10 birdies, 7 Pars and one unfortunate bogey. The scoring really has been brilliant this last week, which reflects the condition of the course. Well done to Michael Mernin and his staff. Sundays rumble, sponsored by Cappoquin Chickens proved to be the ideal format for D. Sexton (14), Ml. O'Leary (10) & Robbie Donovan (12) all from Slievenamon with 89 points. Second were locals Ml. Drummy (6) Former chairman Nicky Norris (10) and Dylan Rees (15) a new member from Wales with 87 pts. During the week great praise was given to the sponsors and the course by all our visitors. Great thanks and appreciation is indeed due to all our sponsors, some of who are new and others who have been long time supporters of the club.

JUNIOR CUP

Our Junior cup team under manager Pat Norris snr took on Carrick on Suir at Youghal lat weekend. After good preparation the team lost very narrowly, the last putt on the last green! Well doen to all on their efforts. The panel included Sean O'Hare, Tom Stack, Kevin Moroney, Michael O'Connor, John Gough, MI Drummy, Liam Fitzgerlad, Tadhg Sheehan & Patsy Horsom. Good to see some of our younger players representing the club.

SENIOR CUP

Our senior cup team are in action next week end at Faithlegg Golf Club. We have put up some excellent performances in recent years in this competition, without making the big breakthrough! It would be great to see members turning out to support this team. The panel includes John Reynolds, Ian Prendegast, Pat Norris Jnr, Kevin Stack, Tom Melody Jnr, Alan O'-Donnell, Dermot Walsh & Paddy Kennedy so best of luck to David and his team.

We play Fourmilewater in the Sargent Cup at Colligan at 7pm next Sunday evening the 17th of July. This is an ideal time to see how our Senior Hurlers are shaping up so come up and give the lads your support.

MINOR FOOTBALL

Despite being short some lads who were on holidays ours lads picked up two more valuable points in the minor football championship against a very spirited Kilrossanty team. This game was played at Stradbally last Wednesday night the 6th of July. We were ahead at half time by 7 points to 1 but Kilrossanty fought back to within 3 points half way through the second half. But thanks to goals by substitute Jason Healy and Jason O'Brien who was supplied with a cross from minor debutante Anthony Flynn late in the game we came away with a 2 goals and 9 points to 1 goal and 5 points win. The team was as follows Stephen Enright, Donal Henley, Diarmuid O'Hare, Donnacha Enright, Brendan Walsh, Richie Foley, John O'Driscoll, James O'Mahoney, John Gorman, Shane Delahunty, Jason O'Brien, Alan Deegan, Alan Tobin, Stephen Lanigan and Diarmuid Sheehan. Our full compliment of substitutes were used and they were Sean O'Hare, Jason Healy and Anthony Flynn. Scorers were Jason O'Brien 1 goal and 1 point, John Gorman 4 points, Jason Healy 1 goal, Brendan Walsh, Alan Tobin, Shane Delahunty and Diarmuid Sheehan 1 point each. Their next outing is Wednesday the 13th of July at the Fraher

Field at 7.30pm against the Brickey's. So please get out and shout for your support

JUNIOR FOOTBALL

CHAMPIONSHIP In contrast to the minors we were short here also due to holidays but unlike the minors we couldn't pull off the win. This game was played at a glorious Fraher field last Friday the 8th of July against a strong Nire contingent. Despite being only 1 point down at half time at 5 points to 4 we couldn't maintain the pace with a lot of young minors involved. However it was a good spirited display from our lads and for sure football will still remain strong in

The team was as follows Declan Byrne, Richie Foley, Keith Brown, Diarmuid O'Hare, Brian Scanlon, Jonathon Moore, Joey Mullen, Ian Kiely, Simon Hanrahan, Eoin Enright, John Foley, Jason O'Brien, Liam Briggs, Mickey Enright and Luke Brennan. Substitute used was Sean Kiely. Substitutes on the bench waiting for the shout were also Eddie Casey, Shane Delahunty, Diarmuid Sheehan, Alan Deegan, Denis Byrne and Shane Donnelly. Scorers were John Foley 3 points, Simon Hanrahan and Mickey Enright two points each, Eoin Enright and Luke Brennan 1 point each.

Under 21 Hurling

On Thursday evening July 5th we played Comeragh Rangers in the first round of the U-21(A) hurling championship in Ballyduff. In a preview of this game a pundit in one local newspaper said "Ballyduff will have an awful lot to do to survive here". The Ballyduff panel must not have read the script for this game, (or maybe they did) because they certainly did "survive here". The final score read Ballyduff 5-12 Comeragh Rangers 0-3. Well done lads for "scraping" through in this one. Panel for this game was Adrian Power, Kevin Moroney, Wayne Power, Denis Twomey, Conor Hannon, Sean Cunningham, Seamus Hannon, Gerry O'Donovan, Stephen Molumphy, Shane Hannon, Paul Hickey, Jamie Kearney, Patrick Kearney, Conor Feeney, and Shane Kearney. Subs were David Casey, Gerard Millar, Seamus Kenneally, Kieran Keane, Bernard Flynn, and Aidan Casey.

Sympathy

On behalf of the club we offer deepest sympathy to the widow, family, brothers, sisters, grandchildren and other relatives of the late Gerald McGrath, Dromore, Cappoquin and formerly of Dunmoon who died last week after a short illness. He played for many years in the Shamrock club and there was hardly a game played by the club but Gerald would appear in the scoring list. Since going to live in Dromrue, Gerald was a keen supporter of the Tourin club and at his funeral the coffin was draped with the colours of both teams, Shamrocks and Tourin.

Ar dheis De go raibh a anam. Also we offer our sympathy to Frank Corcoran, Knockanore, former club player on the death of his sister, which took place at the weekend. Ar dheis De go raibh a anam. Commiseration's

To Waterford hurlers who suffered a 5 point defeat at the hands of Clare in the All Ireland qualifiers game played at Ennis on Sunday last but will now meet neighbours and old rivals Cork in the quarter finals in two weeks time at Croke Park. Even though beaten we were glad to see our Eoin Murphy had a good game.

Sympathy We regret to announce the death of Jimmy Daly, Parkdota, Tallow which took place last week. When the club was formed in 1953 Jimmy was the first goalkeeper to play and he excelled in that position for a number of years. To his widow, children and the other members of his family we extend our deepest sympathy.

of the service, all members & supporters who transfer to Gaelic Telecom will keep their existing phone number and save between 20% and 40% on their own phone bills. In addition they will also have the opportunity to help raise funds for their Club & County. This is an important initiative from the GAA at a time when every club is aggressively fundraising to keep their teams functioning at the highest levels.

Gaelic Telecom is an important initiative by which YOU Play your part in raising members & supporters. As part can support your Club & County without costing you a cent. You will even SAVE MONEY. The initiative was officially launched today by Pat Flynn, Chairman of the Waterford County Board, in conjunction with Ciaran Doyle of Gaelic Telecom. Gaelic Telecom, a Guaranteed Irish company, will provide fixed line telephone services to GAA members and supporters, both residential and business, at significantly lower prices than offered by other telephone service providers. Gaelic Telecom has proven to be one of the best deals in the market, whilst at the same time generating much needed funds for the local Clubs and Counties nationwide.

Gaelic Telecom customers will benefit from savings of between 20% and 40% based on an average home telephone bill. This will generate savings of approximately 150 per annum on a typical phone bill. Gaelic Telecom customers will receive one bill with discounts on both Calls and Line Rental.

Importantly for the selected club or county, 15% of the call spend by Gaelic Telecom Customers will go directly back to their nominated Club and/or County. GAA members and supporters can choose to donate 10% of calls made to their local Club and 5% to their County Board or to donate the full 15% to either their Club or County. For Example, a Waterford Club, which is nominated by 100 members could receive 9,000 per annum to use in the ongoing investment in the club to help keep it at the highest level of competition at local or national level.

Customers will keep their existing telephone number and the transfer to Gaelic Telecom will be completed in a matter of days with no disruption to service. Applications for both the residential and business services may be made by post, by telephone 1890 929 422, on the Internet www.gaelictelecom.ie Gerry O'Connell General Manager of Gaelic Telecom, said:

"The success of Gaelic Tele-

com has surpassed all of our expectations to date. To follow on from the tremendous response we received from the Waterford County Board and the affiliated clubs we are delighted to launch this service directly to all Waterford members and supporters. Gaelic Telecom is already gaining a significant share of the market with clubs from all over the 32 counties joining this new initiative and their members and supporters enjoying the benefits of a competitive telecoms service. The benefits to consumers are clear - they receive one bill for all calls and line rental along with discounts of up to 40% whilst at the same time 15% of their call charges goes back to their nominated Club or County'

Pat Flynn, The Waterford

County Chairman said: "This is an exciting and very important initiative from the GAA that contributes to the grassroots development of our national games. The Gaelic Telecom offer has the potential to deliver significant financial windfalls for all Clubs in Waterford. The fact that members and supporters will also benefit from significant reductions in their own phone bills is another strong incentive in encouraging them to play their part in the ongoing development of their club. We are delighted to be launching Gaelic Telecom in County Waterford and would ask that all members & supporters in Waterford give serious consideration to transferring to Gaelic Telecom."

Ballyduff Juvenile GAA Club Notes

Minor Football

On Wednesday last our minor footballers had their first game of the campaign taking on Cois Brid in Lismore. The first half was close with both sides getting early points. Adrian Power and Shane Kearney got goals for Ballyduff either side of a Cois Brid goal from a penalty. Both teams added points leaving the half time score Ballyduff 2-5 Cois Brid 1-3. The second half was a much more one sided affair straight from the throw in. Ballyduff hit 1-3 in the opening minutes, 1-1 from Adrian Power and 0-2 from Shane Hannon. Ballyduff continued to dominate the second half, a goal from Pa Kearney and 6 points (1 point each from Seamus Hannon, Thomas Noonan, Colm Horgan, Kevin Moroney, Patrick Kearney and Adrian Power), before Cois Brid got their first and only score of the second half, a goal from close range. Ballyduff tapped over 2 more points be-fore the final whistle to leave the final score Ballyduff 5-15 Cois Brid 2-3. We can't take a whole lot from this game as this was, as the Cois Brid manager himself admitted, an under-prepared Cois Brid side. Thanks to everyone who turned up to support the lads. Our next game is against Naomh Brid in Lismore today (July 13th.)

Panel: Aidan Casey, Seamus Kenneally, Bernard Flynn, Maurice McNamara, Kevin Moroney, Colm Horgan, Patrick Kearney, Shane Kearney, Shane Hannon (Capt), Seamus Hannon, Thomas Noonan, Adrian Power, William Drislane, Patrick Corcoran, Denis Drislane.

Scorers: Adrian Power 2-5, Shane Kearney 2-1, Patrick Kearney 1-2, Shane Hannon 0-2. Kevin Moroney 0-2, Seamus Hannon 0-1, Thomas Noonan 0-1, Colm Horgan 0-1.

Under 16 Hurling

Our U16 hurlers took on St. Saviours on Monday June 27th in their first game of the campaign. Ballyduff got off to a good start with 3 points in the opening 5 minutes from Shane Kearney. St. Saviours replied with a point and 2 quick goals. Shane Kearney hit another point for Ballyduff before St. Eoin Scanlon added another summer. point just before half time to leave the score at half time Ballyduff 0-5 St. Saviours 2-4. The match was being played in very hot conditions and the second half display from Ballyduff was all about heart and determination. Shane Kearney hit 2 points but St. Saviours came back with 4 more. Credit to the backs they never gave their man time and continued to give the forwards plenty of supply. Maurice "Macky" McNamara hit a point for Ballyduff to keep them in touch before Liam Byrnes pounced on a loose ball to tap home a goal. Ballyduff seemed to be coming good when it mattered but St. Saviours went straight up the other end and scored a goal. Credit to Byrnes getting another goal, very similar to his first one, and Macky added another point. This left Ballyduff trailing by 2 points. Up stepped Shane Kearney to crash an absolute bullet into the top corner with just 2 minutes left. This left the lads 1 point up. Straight from the puck out though St. Saviours went up the other end and scored a rather soft goal to put us 2 down again. The lads had one last chance when the ball broke to Patrick Corcoran inside the 21 but unfortunately Patrick's effort flew just over the crossbar. Final Score: Ballyduff 3-10 St. Saviours 4-8.

U14 Hurling

Our U14 hurlers travelled to Newtown on Saturday last to take on a strong Killrossanty side in the county semi-final. Unfortunately we were missing 2 key players on the day so we had no substitutes. Killrossanty dominated the game from start to finish and unfortunately Liam Byrnes was sent off with 5 minutes remaining after receiving 2 yellow cards. Despite this loss this team have had a decent campaign, winning the Western Championship. Thanks to the players for their effort and to Mike Walsh for all the work he put into this team.

DEISE SUPPORTERS IN ENNIS LAST SUNDAY

PHOTOS BY SEAN BYRNE

SENIOR HURLING QUALIFIER

Waterford Well Beaten by Clare at Ennis Clare 4-14 Waterford 0-21

A leaking defence, poorly taken frees, a miserable supply of ball to our inside forward line and the sending off of Eoin McGrath midway through the second half, were among the contributing factors which spelt defeat for Waterford at Ennis in sunny Cusack Park on Sunday evening last. But there can be no hard luck stories on this occasion as the Banner men clearly deserved their win.

The disappointment felt by the huge Waterford support was clearly visible on their faces when leaving the field.

The ground was full with the attendance bigger than expected and the Deise contingent not in a good mood following the traffic problems which delayed patrons most of whom had left early to get to the ground on time.

Conditions were ideal for the game, with Waterford having no injury problems. Clare, on the other hand had two late replacements when the Forde brothers had to cry off injured prior to the game. There was no breeze and the temperature was 26c.

The Waterford team were involved in a rather bizarre situation when it was observed that the band had moved off followed by the Clare line out for the pre-

This, I understand was the first parade at a Qualifier game this year and Waterford officials were not informed. This was a slip up by the Clare county board.

The result, for us means that we are now meeting old rivals, Cork who earlier in the summer relieved us of our Munster title in the quarter final as part of a double header in Croke Park. Meeting one of the 'major powers' was what we had tried to avoid and will now be looked upon as the penalty for losing.
What Went Wrong?

Conceding four goals was without doubt the major contributing factor to our defeat. Two would have been excusable but four leaves questions to be asked and answered before we play Cork again. Meeting the All-Ireland champions twice in the same season is a daunting task, but I doubt if Cork will relish the idea either. They are already complaining about injuries.

For us, it will mean that another performance like that of last Sunday will send us 'packing' and out of the championship.

At the other end of the field. David Fitzgerald was called upon to save only once and on that occasion he was not even seriously threatened. There was a very poor The Waterford Team who lost to Clare in their final game in the qualifying group. Photo; Sean Byrne.

supply of the ball reaching our inside line and on too many occasions we seemed to come off second best in the man-to-man exchanges. Also we missed too many scoring chances from frees.

Clare had prepared very well and their tactics and match strategy worked very well for them. PLAY

Eoin McGrath opened with a point from play for Waterford in the second minute and Clare's Tony Carmody had them level after pointing a free in the 5th, minute. Sean MacMahon and Tony Griffin put the home side two points up before John Mullane from play and Paul Flynn from a free brought us level by the 10th minute.

Paul Fynn and Ken McGrath each had scores from frees and there followed splendid points from John Mullane and Dan Shanahan and by the 18th minute we were ahead by 0-7 to 0-4.

Gilligan and Eoin Kelly exchanged scores and Tony Browne followed with a super point from very far out (scoring like this in every game has become a regular feature of the Mount Sion man's performances).

Gilligan had a couple of scores to keep Clare in close touch and with seven minutes of the half remaining Diarmuid McMahon struck for the home team's first goal to level the scores at 1-6 to Within another 2 minutes Clare were a goal ahead when Alan Markham, having received a hand pass from Gilligan hit the net for their second goal. We were only once level after this.

Paul Flynn was wide with two frees and the half ended on a 2-6 to 0-9 scoreline in favour of Clare.

SECOND HALF

The gap widened to four points within a minute when Sean McMahon pointed. Then Waterford seemed to hit a purple patch and scored four unanswered points.

Dan Shanahan hit a super score in the 39th minute and this was followed with points from John Mullane, Michael Walsh and Ken McGrath to leave the score at 2-7 to 0-13 after 10 minutes of this half. But then it became Clare's turn to take control and three scores on the trot from thin and Nial Gilligan (2), left them three points clear after 15 minutes of the half. Disaster hit Waterford a minute later when Tony Griffin tapped the ball past Stephen Brennar to put the Banner six points ahead.

But still Waterford did not wilt and continued to fight courageously. Paul Flynn pointed two frees and the gap was reduced to four points. But then further disaster struck when Eoin McGrath was given a red card for a foul on his marker with almost 20 minutes of the match remaining.

Frank Lohan and Dan Shanahan exchanged points. Eoin Kelly and his namesake on the opposition exchanged points.

A 26th. minute free saw Ken McGrath reduce the gap to just two points. Tony Browne was wide and Sean McMahon and Ken McGrath exchanged points to keep the gap to two points with only five minutes of normal time remaining.

Then the final nail in our coffin came when Alan Markham had Clare's fourth goal in the 31st minute. Ken McGrath pointed from a '65' and we followed with three successive wides before the final whistle.

Each side played some splendid hurling and it would be misleading to say that it was not a very good contest. The venue was certainly not to our liking and coupled with the other things which went wrong, it was difficult to see any other result in the end.

MUNSTER CLUB

If a statement which I read recently is true, then Waterford may not be taking part in the Munster Club championship this year. With all twelve football clubs and our 14 hurling teams all still standing it is most unlikely that we will finish on time to make the October deadline.

It must also be remembered that all our clubs are dual hurling and football clubs, although not of the same grade.

Senior football clubs have intermediate hurling teams and vice versa with the senior hurling clubs who also have either intermediate or senior football teams. The fact that divisional boards have made good progress with their intermediate championships, will be a big help, but it certainly will not solve the problem.

If we lose to Kilkenny in the quarter final, we will resume playing a couple of weeks later but I feel that clubs will object to playing out the championship on a "blitz style."

Whatever the circumstances or the situation next year, a repeat of the present hold up will not be tolerated by clubs.

TOMMY MURPHY CUP

The first rounds of this football tournament will be played over the coming weekend and will continue non-stop until completed. Waterford have received a first round bye and will not know who they are playing until after the weekend.

Last year, Tipperary withdrew from the competition and were subsequently deducted 20,000 euro of their qualifier money.

This contest between neighbouring clubs will take place on Sunday evening. I expect to see Ballinameela advance as on form they seem to be the stronger outfit.

JUNIOR FOOTBALL RESULTS

In the second string section (senior grade) two games were played during the week and these saw the Nire defeat Ballinacourty in a splendidly contested match and Kilrossanty score a 1-5 to 0-4 victory over Clashmore.

Sargent Cup Fixtures

The decision to have the cup matches played without the players on county panels has meant that good progress has been possible with both the Phelan and Sargent cup matches.

We are now at the semi-final stages in both. ABBEYSIDE V. FOURMILEWATER AT COLLIGAN

This will be quite an entertaining contest on Sunday evening next, even though each team will be a bit understrength. In the other semi-final, Ballygunner will travel to Roanmore for what promises to be another enjoyable contest.

If each game produces a result, the final will take place a few weeks later.

PHELAN CUP

Ballinacourty and the Nire will see the same players again involved when they clash in the semi-final of this competition on Saturday, July 23rd in this football competition.

GERALD McGRATH RIP

Our very sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Gerald McGrath who had given very many years of outstanding service to the Shamrocks Club both as a hurler and footballer. As a hurler Gerald was an outstanding player and figured on every club team from intermediate to senior.

On and off the field he was a sportsman and always a very interesting person to meet and hear his opinion on county team matters. His sad death occurred last week after a period of ill health and while the Shamrocks Club did the honours at his funeral, there was also strong representation from a number of GAA clubs in the west of the county. 2005 Munster All-Stars

It has been announced that the 2005 Provincial All Stars in hurling and football will be officially launched at Waterford Crystal Show Rooms on Monday, July 18th, by the Provincial Chairman, Sean Fogarty.

The innovation was well received last year when it aroused national interest and there seems to be equal interest this time round and supporters are, no doubt, wondering which Waterford players are going to lose out.

The event is once again sponsored by Waterford Crystal.

CLUB MANUAL

I don't know why it is called a manual because in fact it is a 180 page book which is published to replace the 1982 Club manual which was often referred to as the GAA Bible. This latest and updated edition has been compiled by the Association's Club Development and Planning Committee and aims to assist clubs in dealing with ongoing social and demographic changes in Irish life as well as offering preparation and advice on how to meet the challenges being encountered in the day to day administration of club affairs.

In brief the manual aims to help clubs in the development of Structures, Administration, Coaching and Physical Facilities and it includes Best Prac-

Guidelines and advice on a wide variety of every day issues that can be encountered by clubs. This is undoubtedly the best publication ever launched to help clubs as it offers information and advice on every single topic relating to the running of a club.

At the launch in Croke Park on Tuesday last it was announced that a Provincial launch will take place next month and a county and club launch in September.

Every club will be supplied with a copy of the 180 page

DRESSING ROOM DEVELOPMENT

Things are moving along very well indeed at this moment in time with a lot of voluntary work being done by committee and club members. Painting and things are well ahead of time and with some luck this side of things will be completed in the coming weeks, we then can put a big push into completing the cleaning up of the club surrounds.

Why not help us get these projects done in time for the season ahead. Contact 087-7769125 or any committee member.

MANAGEMENT POSITIONS

For the incoming season we are inviting applications for the following positions in schoolboys football or positions as assistant coaches to the managers in question. Under 13 assistant manager, under 14 manager/assistant manager. Under 16 assistant manager.

If any parent wishes to bring their child out to our club to participate in trials for various grades, can do so by attending those sessions in the coming weeks when we finalise training times. This is a great opportunity for any parent to help their child become part of our great club and enjoy the game they love. Trials for various teams will determine how well we can compete this season. We will have all times finalised in the very near future. Contact 087-6489251 or 087-7769125 for assistance.

NEW SPONSORS ON BOARD

This season will see some new sponsors coming on board. Indeed League Chairman Michael McBride is delighted with the new companies that have come out to sponsor different divisions for the coming season. A full list will appear in next weeks notes.

Paddy Pollard from the league travelled to Poland last week with Ireland's amateurs and were very disappointed at failing to qualify for the U.E.F.A. Regions Cup final. Luck was not with us stated Pollard. We kicked off with a 1-1 draw against Dacia of Romania. Then we raced into a 2-0 lead against Kahovka-Kzeso but disaster struck in the second half when we let in four goals. We beat the Spanish side in the final game but it was of no value to us added Pollard. Paddy states that he enjoyed the trip and all the players were a credit to themselves and their country.

The launch of our super draw failed to take place on Monday night. A slight problem stated Liam Fraser but we should have it sorted shortly.

How time flies as the league kicks off again in about five weeks time.

THE BLUES

Yes, all Blues fans have the blues at the moment. On Saturday evening last a 0-0 draw did not do Utd any great favours and we are still in the relegation zone. The Blues are at home to Bray Wanderers on Friday night. Support welcome.

PEPSI SUMMER CAMP

This camp will take place in Conna from Monday, August 8th till Friday, 12th. The cost is E79 per person. There are still places available but do not leave it too late.

R.D.O.

I understand that there is no shortage of applicants for this position. Full details along with the official F.A.I. Job Application form are available on the F.A.I. website at www.fai.ie Apply now rather than later.

BEST WISHES

All in the league wish our Chairman Michael McBride a speedy recovery. Michael was in hospital but should be home by the time these notes appear. For the next few weeks any questions to Liam Fraser.

Best wishes also to Edward Pollard who is also in hospital at the moment. Again Edward should be at home by the time these notes appear on the paper.

Busy Week Ahead

It's another busy week for the ladies league with games going on in Kilmacthomas, Modeligo and Inch. The league has got off to a flying start and the games are attracting good crowds which is great to see.

PREVIEWS

Section A

Kilmacthomas v Lismore

This should be a real cracker of a game. Kilmac got off to a winning start while Lismore suffered a defeat at home to Modeligo. So, Lismore will be anxious to get back to winning ways. Kilmac at home will be hard to beat and the game is sure to attract a big crowd to the home venue.

Modeligo v Brideview Utd

Modeligo joint leaders with Kilmac were rather lucky to defeat Lismore but they will be hoping to continue their winning ways with a home win over Brideview. Utd will be anxious to avoid defeat for a second time but they will need to improve from their first outing. To be fair the Tallow side played much better in the second half against Kilmac. So all to play for here.

Section B

Inch v Valley Rangers

A big local derby here for these two East Cork sides. Both sides did well last season and this game will be a very tight affair. It's a game that could go either way.

FIXTURES

Section A

Bríd ni Criostoír Tournament

Our annual Brid ni Criostoir Tournament catering for under 12 hurling took place last weekend in our club grounds. Played in very warm and humid conditions, we were treated to a feast of hurling with some of the best Under-12 teams in the county on view. We had two groups of three with ourselves, Mooncoin and Roanmore in one group and Ballygunner, De le Salle and Abbeyside in the

The top team in each group went on to play the Main Final with the runners up in the groups playing the Plate final

Following two convincing wins in our group we went on to play Ballygunner in the final and it was a great game. The lads battled all the way with some great individual performances and in the end came away with a win by the narrowest of margins. De le Salle and Roanmore competed in the Plate Final and De le Salle came away with the win. I would like to thank everybody who made this day a great success and in particular our ladies committee who provided refreshments on the day.

Under-16 Hurling

The lads played Passage East last Friday night in Passage and came away with a fine win. They then played Abbeyside on Monday night last in our own field and again, came away with a convincing win. The progress this bunch of lads has made since their U.14 days is incredible and a testament to the hard work put in by themselves and their mentors. They are now in great shape to qualify for the knockout stages of the County Championship.

ADULT SCENE

Under-21 Hurling

Our Under-21 hurlers played An Rinn in the first round of the Championship last Saturday night in Bushy Park. Unfortunately for the lads they failed, despite a gallant effort, to register a victory. This means that the season is over for some of these lads after one game and something needs to be done to address this problem or we will lose players to other sports. Well done to John Joe and the lads for giving it their best shot and had all their players been there on the night, we may have got the win.

Intermediate Hurlers

The adult hurlers had a good challenge match last Monday night in a sun drenched Dungarvan venue. Portlaw provided the opposition on the night and the lad's came away with a three-point victory on a score line of 1-18 to 2-12.

Weekly Lotto

No winner of the €10,000 jackpot. Numbers drawn were 15, 19, 22 and 25. Two winners of €35 were Frank Murphy and Cliona Hyslop. Two further winners of €25 were Delores Reddy and Denis Young.

DUNGARVAN LADIES FOOTBALL

We played Ardmore in the Semi final of the U.14 Ladies football on Thursday last at the Ardmore venue. Following an exciting game of football we emerged victorious on the night.

We now take on either Clashmore or Abbeyside in the final at a venue and date to be confirmed. We would like to thank all the parents and supporters who travelled in such large numbers.

Flag Day

We would like to say a sincere thank you to everybody who supported our flag day last week.

St. Olivers G.A.A. Notes

UNDER 14 HURLING

We travelled to Walsh Park on Saturday last, more in hope than expectation as Sacred Heart had beaten all their opponents with high scores on their route to the final. It certainly turned out to be anything but a foregone conclusion with our lads serving up a thriller.

The game began with Sacred Heart getting the best possible start and scoring five points, one of these a sideline cut 30 yards out on the stand side. At this stage we had had a couple of chances but unfortunately did not score. The signs were ominous, but then our players settled and MI Heaphy scored our first point. Owen O'Connell pulled first time and found the net. The half-time score St Olivers 1-1 to Sacred Heart 0-6.

On the turn over, St Olivers played very well with John and Tom doing particularly well in the backs. David and Jim were working very hard in the half forward line. Then David O'Connell went on a solo run, went for goal, but it was stopped, but MI Heaphy got a touch to it and buried it in the net. David scored another point to put us two points ahead half way through the second half. At this stage every Oliver player was giving their all, and we wondered was this going to be our day, but alas, No. 10 for Sacred Heart scored two goals within three minutes. David scored another point, Sacred Heart scored two more. Ciaran who had come on , got the ball, dribbled it past the defender and found the net, but unfortunately it was too little too late.

Final Score: Sacred Heart 4-9 St Olivers 3-3

Team — C Walsh, S McGrath, C Buckley, J Longan, D O'Brien, T Curran, R Fitzgerald, S Meskill, P Hickey, J Curran, D O'Connell, G Hurley, M Hamill, M Heaphy, O O'Connell, K Phelan, C Lynch, B Phelan.

The club provided a meal in the Park Hotel afterwards and this was much appreciated by all concerned. At this a special presentation was made by club secretary Michael Phelan to David O'Connell for coming second in the All-Ireland Feile u14 skills competion.

Ardmore GAA Notes

HURLING SUMMER CAMP

Our annual Hurling Summer camp will commence on Monday 18th July until Thursday 21st July from 10am to 1pm. All children between the ages of 6 to 14 will be catered for. Its imperative that all children attending bring their hurley and helmet. Cost per child is 30. Children are also requested to bring a packed lunch. We encourage parents with children between the above age group to attend this great camp. We ask that all children are at the Ardmore GAA grounds at 9:45am each morning and be collected at 1pm please.

UNDER 12 FOOTBALL

Our Under 12 footballers will be in action this Sunday against Ballyduff in Ardmore at 11:30am. After being very unlucky in the County final of the Hurling...we hope that they can go one step further in the football campaign of 2005.

DEEPEST SYMPATHY

The club would like to extend its sympathy to Maria & Tony Keane (and his family) on the death of their Mother-Bernadette Keane of Clarkstown Ardmore. The Keane family always had great interest in the GAA...and none other than Tony who graced the field of play for Ardmore on many an occasion. We also extend our Sympathy to the Curran family (Square Dungarvan) on the death of Tom Curran...who's daughter Patricia resides in Ardmore with her family and are heavily involved with the Ardmore under age teams. "May they rest in peace".

ANOTHER TITLE FOR

On Saturday last David Mc-Carthy returned from Italy with a silver medal from the European Youths Olympics. In the heats on Monday, David ran an impressive race to lead the qualifiers and so his chances of taking home a medal from the championships looked very good. The final on Wednesday was a different style of race. In common with most big championship finals, it was a very tactical race with the first lap run in a very slow 63 seconds. All the athletes were watching each other and waiting for someone to take up the running. With 200 metres to go David made a break for home but over the final 100m as David led the field, there were six athletes battling for the medals. In the final few metres the German got up to snatch the Gold with David securing the silver for Ireland to round off a very successful season.

The Club has been very active in recent gratulations to John and his team. weeks with Feile na nGael U-14 club competitions in Cork and another group playing in the American Championships in Houston, Texas.

Our U-14 team, led by John Power, Captain, three divisions. Our club played in division 2.

Winning all their games in the round robin was a great result as we did not expect these young lads to go so far in the competition. They proved that with great heart you could without a battle. It was great to win the silver medal. The team was as follows, John Power, Captain, Pierce Galvin, Colm Kindregan, Cathal Reynolds and Patrick Fennell.

John Power contested a skills competition and came away with the silver medal. Con- hope that they had a great time in Texas.

The 8th European Youth Olympic Festival in 1.57.99 with David recording 1.58.26 takwas held last weekend in Lignano Sabbi- ing the silver medal. A memorable day for adora, Italy. Well done pean stage at this level for the first time. To from all the club and we wish you every say he left his mark would be an understatement, competing in the 800 metres and having to qualify through the heats which were held on Monday, David was drawn in heat 3 of 3, where he ran a very quick 1.55.76, which turned out to be the fastest time of the 3 heats, qualifing him for the final on Wednesday. The final was a completely different race and after 200 metres it was clear it was going to be a tactical race. The field was together for the first 400 metres with no athlete willing to take the pace on, at 600 metres David made a decisive move splitting the field apart with only the German athlete Sorin Lodolph able to match the speed of McCarthy. David looked the likely winner with 50 metres remaining, but the very good German just found that little bit extra at the death and caught the West Waterford athlete on the line winning German.

The Three J's Are Top Dogs In Cappoquin Relay

The first Annual Cappoquin road relay was held last Friday evening as part of the Cornerstone Festival Carnival weekend in the town. We had a small enough turnout on the night with many other activities on round about including the Tall Ships in Waterford.

However those who did take part really enjoyed the race which was organised by club members Ray McConnell and Trevor Mason. Least we forget we started the winter league with a hand full of runners way back, look at it now, anyway with teams of three having to run 1.5 miles each starting from outside Rays Roots and Fruits we took the Mellery Road to the Grotto outside the town turned and ran back to the starting line where the next runner did the same route, and then the third also doing the same.

The winning team got off to a flier when young J. J. Devine put in a flier leaving his opponents in his wake, despite a very fast start from the likes of Brid Veale and Brian Curtin, J. J. soon stamped his authority on the leg and on his return to the start he handed over a substantial lead to their second athlete James Veale who was next out of the blocks for this team and he had a stormer running the fastest leg of the night which left team captain Jason Travers with very little to do on the third leg of the relay, he sailed home an easy winner but in fairness it has to be said, much of the work had been done by the previous two runners.

The second team home 35 seconds down on the winners were the team led by Raivis Zakis and included Brid Veale and Mark Mc Connell, even the great Raivis was no match

For the record the third team were led by captain Johnny O'Connor, and included Richie Power, and Brian Curtin. A very disappointed Johnny said he will be back next year for sure.

Most of the runners went for a training run to Glenshalane Woods with Ray McConnell after the relay and it's a pity many of them didn't put the same effort into the relay as they did on the hills during the training run, maybe then they could have taken the title.

Hopefully next year we will see a bigger turnout, but thanks and well done to those who did come along, thanks also to the boys in Cappoquin for organising the relay and to Tony and Michael the old reliables on P.A.

- Raivis Zakis, Brid Veale and Mark McConnell who were second team in the Cappoquin Road Relay which was held in conjunction with the Cappoquin Cornerstone Carnival Weekend last Friday evening

WEST WATERFORD ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES TQS INTEGRATION SUMMER LEAGUE Encouraging Start To New Summer League

tine's College every Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock for the new Summer League which is being generously sponsored by TQS INTEGRATION through our club member Maura Quilty. Distances available are 1, 2, 3 and 4 laps of the college, with each lap being 2km long. The league is open for beginners, who are always very welcome and will be encouraged, regulars, has beens, going to be's, indeed anyone who wants to enjoy a healthier way of life in the activities of West Waterford

Last Tuesday night's first stage attracted an encouraging entry of almost 60 participants, all of whom enjoyed the running and also the post event refreshments which were generously sponsored by Glenpatrick.

One Lap:

The one lap witnessed the participation for the first time of James Phelan, Paul M. Mooney, Coleen Shasby and Noelle Daly and all four did very well in their first taste of the Friary Circuit. A special mention goes to James who ran the lap in a very impressive 7 minutes and 28 seconds.

Two Laps:

Liz Nhyan returned to action in style recording 20.19 for the two laps. Also back in action were Marie Murray, Betty Sheehan and Michael Burke, while the runs of Regina Cunningham (27.10), Kim Coffey (21.55) and Ann McCarthy (20.10) also caught the eye. The 15.03 ran by Stephen Shasby was the fastest of the night, fine running you'll agree.

Three Laps:

William Rotte made his West Waterford debut and he clocked a brilliant 21.42 in the process. Mark Vespa, Kevin Power, Peter Barry, Joan Navin and Caroline Lenane moved up to the three lap distance and all five finished the course comfortably. It was also great to see Keith Kenneally back in action.

Four Laps: The largest entry was in the four laps with Pat Keane, Pat

Christopher, Dave Pollock and

All roads lead to St. Augus- Jim Barry all trying this distance for the first time. Well done to the four boys at four and also to Sean Stilwell who ran a super 27.25 over the course. A different four boys fell foul of the penalty points system. Look at the finishing times and maybe you will recognise them.

AND BRIEF HISTORY Many have been asking the question who are the sponsors of our new summer league TQS Integration, well the idea came from one of our regular league runners Máire Quilty who took part in our Minnie's League at St. Augustines College. She along with others asked if we could keep a league going for the summer months as her and many others felt they needed an incentive to keep running and keep their fitness levels up. Maire went away and came back with a sponsor for such a league; this is where Máire's husband came into the picture as with a little persuasion (just like we got) he kindly agreed to sponsor the league. Máire also received sponsorship from Glenpatrick Spring Water and through our notes we also which to thank Pamela and all at Glenpatrick for the supply of water for the duration of the league. So who are our sponsors and what's the company up to? TQS Integration Ltd. provides Hardware Specification, Design Engineering, System Integration, Project Management and Commissioning services to a vast array of Industries and Organisations Worldwide. The strate-gic intent of TQS is to serve and to be part of the new generation of Irish industry, bringing together the latest, most accurate and most efficient state of the art techniques in global Information Technology and process control Integration. Kilrossanty National school has been awarded the Green Flag from An Taisce in recognition of the school's efforts in reducing waste and generally promoting good environmental practices. This was the culmination of a years hard work and tremendous effort on behalf of the students, staff and community of Kilrossanty. From its very onset with the Seven Steps programme it required the participation and co-operation of every family and household of the pupils of Kilrossanty National school. The children were the essential promoters of all the aims of the programme in the school and whether it was being a member of the committee or being on a litter picking rota, 100% effort was given by all.

On Thursday 26th May at Taylor's Hall in Dublin, the green flag was presented to Mrs Catherine Dunwoody and representatives of the children's committee by the Green Party Leader Trevor Sargent.

On Wednesday 15th June the School held their Green Flag raising ceremony. A large crowd of parents attended as well as Fr. Delaney P.P., members of the Board of Management. Ann Marie Kenna Environmental Education Officer from Waterford County Council, County Councillors Liam Brazil, Ger Barron and Pat Leahy, Members of the Parents Association and representatives of the Comeragh Development Group.

The Principal Mrs. Sile Murphy welcomed everyone to the school and during her speech praised the tremendous amount of work and effort that had gone into getting the Green flag for the school during the whole year. The school was looking splendid mainly due to the planting efforts of Mrs Tuohy and all the volunteers from the Parents association who worked so hard throughout the past year. The construction of our new school garden which was planned and executed by Mrs. Tuohy and Sheila Foley, with great help from parents, was a wonderful addition to our day.

Mrs. Dunwoody the Green Schools co-ordinator thanked one and all who helped them in their achievement from both inside and outside the school community.

A special word of thanks was given to all those who provided us with the wonderful refreshments for our flag raising day and to Marian Coffey our secretary for her many efforts throughout the programme.

The children then performed some songs to entertain our guests, one of which was especially composed for the occasion by Ms. Kavanagh with the green theme in mind.

The flag was then raised by the eldest and youngest pupils of the school who were Brian Curran 6th class and Hannah Lonergan Junior Infants under the careful supervision of Councillor Liam Brazil. At this point we would like to thank most sincerely Councillor Brazil who not only sponsored our flag pole but personally saw to its installation in the school.

Following the flag raising, refreshments were served and a great day was had by all.

Further good news was received by Kilrossanty National school with the release of the results of the Tidy Primary Schools competition run by Waterford County Council. Kilrossanty has been judged to be the tidiest school in the west of the county and had the distinction of being the only school where no item of litter was found on the day of inspection. The judges awarded the school a total of 96 points out of a possible 100.

The Tall Ships Race was hailed as a tremendous success as over 450,000 people flocked to Waterford City over the four days of the event

The attendance was over double the forecasted quarter of a million visitors as people from across the south east viewed the spectacular 82 tall ships crewed by some 3,000 Irish, European and International volunteers.

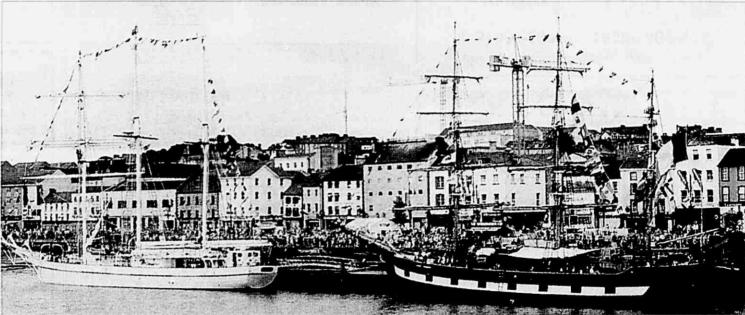

Friday was the peak day when a stunning fireworks by Spraoi illuminated the sky above the Suir and held 130,000 people spellbound.

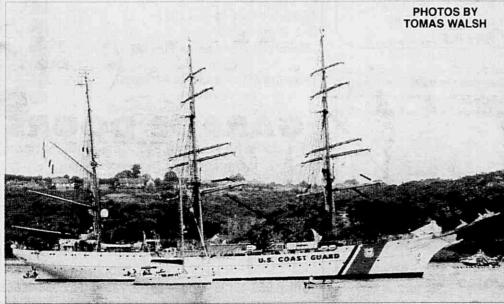

Organisers believe Waterford's hosting of the Tall Ships reaped a massive economic dividend for the city of over 30 million euros.

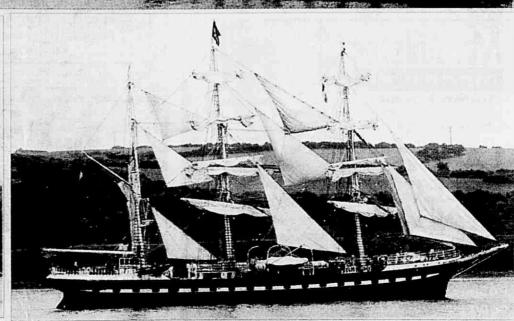

This figure is backed up by banking sector estimates that there was an additional 10 million in banknotes circulating in the city over the four days, with a single ATM dispensing a quarter of a million euros in one 48 hour period.

Fine Gael councillor, Paudie Coffey said the event had put both Waterford City and County on the international map, and paid tribute to the organisers for their achievement.
