Green Flag Raised Aloft Above St. Mary's School

CELEBRATION AS DUNGARVAN SCHOOL REACHES INTERNATIONAL STANDARD

By Kevin Korrane

RTE's current affairs editor, Ian Noctor, hoisted the international symbol of environmental achievement, the Green Flag, above St. Mary's National school in a ceremony on Friday last.

After songs composed by second and fifth class girls echoed across the spotlessly tidy grounds on a gloriously sunny April morning, Mr. Noctor was one of a number of speakers to emphasise the rigorous tests undergone and the scale of the achievement in retaining the green flag for the second time.

ACHIEVEMENT

"This achievement can't be underestimated," he told the gathered throng which included school children, teachers, parents and assorted invited guests. "Extremely hard and thorough work went into this and the teachers, principal and students must be applauded for all their efforts."

An Taisce awarded the green flag in February in recognition of their work in the care of the environment. It followed a thorough assessment in January by David O'Leary of An Taisce and Anne Murphy, Environment Officer with Waterford County Council which deemed the school had successfully completed the seven step Green Schools Programme and had earned the prestigious international award.

CEREMONY

Speaking at the ceremony, Ms. Murphy said the Federation of Environmental Education (FEE) award was indicative that the school had reached a level of environmental behaviour.

Study Will Reveal Suitability Of Site For Marina

BIRD COUNT FINISHED FOR €12M MARINA

By Kevin Korrane

Dungarvan Town Council should be made aware of whether it can proceed to the next phase of its plans for a multi-million euro marina in the harbour when the results of a recently completed bird count study are known.

Over the past year, RPS Consultants of Belfast have been carrying out a study to measure the impact on, and the imporance of, the birds and wildlife in the harbour.

A site for the marina has been identified at Boreenatra, and a number of councillors have already visited marinas in Kinsale and other coastal towns in a bid to find out more about the possible facilities.

The estimated cost of a marina, which would be funded through Government grants and

Council's New York Trip Costs €16,623

In regard to this article which appeared in last weeks edition of the Dungarvan Leader it was stated that each councillor who travelled to America received €4,555 in expenses which was incorrect. In fact, the correct figure was €650.

We are happy to clarify this matter.

Cappoquin Welcome
Community Forum Executive
To Their New Facility!

The Community Forum Executive was delighted to be accommodated by the Cappoquin Community Development Company for their Executive Meeting on 18th April 2007 in the brand new state of the art Cappoquin Community Centre. The Executive Committee was welcomed to the Centre, by T.D. Ollie Wilkinson, who provided them with a background to the 15 year old Community Development Committee. Denis McCarthy gave a presentation on the history of the development of the centre, highlighting the rollercoaster journey traveled, since the idea emerged, to its state of reigning glory today! The Executive Members were then given on a guided tour of the building by Committee members taking in the fully equipped industrial kitchen, the childcare facility, the offices, the spacious computer room, the main hall with the largest stage in the county, and even the dancing class that was in full swing at the time! According to the Chairperson of the Committee, Ollie Wilkinson, "...the facility is nearly always booked out", which highlights the great need for such a facility in the area. The Cappoquin Community Centre is a particular example of what can be achieved by a very committed group of volunteers. Indeed, this level of commitment is replicated throughout the county with numerous community and voluntary groups striving to better their community. It may not be as visible on the exterior, as the Cappoquin Community Centre, however these groups are providing a valuable resource in our communities which is so often unrecognised and undervalued. We would like to commend that work and encourage you to use the Community Forum to continue to highlight it as much as possible.

USE THIS SPACE

New FF Enterprise Policy Will Deliver High-Quality Jobs for Waterford –Wilkinson

Fianna Fáil TD Ollie Wilkinson has said the party's new jobs and enterprise policy for the next five years will deliver high-paying jobs for a growing local workforce.

Our election policy sets out a series of initiatives designed to support firms to grow and workers to take higher-paying jobs.

While 600,000 jobs had been created under recent Fianna Fáil-led governments since 1997, further steps are required to help firms compete and win in the global economy.

The plans include: a substantial programme of up-skilling - working towards the target of increasing the number of workers with a qualification by 50pc; investment in Research and Development to create the industries and jobs of the future; a 25pc reduction in the regulatory burden faced by businesses; priority support for small and medium-size enterprises and priority support for opening up new export markets for indigenous industry

Fianna Fáil intends making jobs and enterprise a core part of its campaign and that neither the Fine Gael nor Labour have included even a mention of jobs in their basic platforms so far.

In Enda Kenny's recent Ard Fheis speech, he didn't once mention the word jobs.

We're proud to be both pro-enterprise and pro-worker.

In this period of unprecedented employment growth, we've also introduced Europe's second-highest minimum wage and various other protections of employment standards.

This is a new Ireland - prosperous but not without its challenges.

The deeper our economic success and the longer it is sustained, the greater the challenges to keep the forward momentum.

We're offering a clear choice to the people.

We've a proven commitment to creating and supporting employment through a focus on long-term success.

Our new policy proposals, Keeping Ireland Working, sets the next steps we need to take, said Deputy Wilkinson.

Flood Relief Schemes To Go On Public Display

By Kevin Korrane

Two flood relief schemes proposed for areas in Dungarvan are to go to Part 8, the public display and submission phase, in the coming weeks.

The first will channel flood water from near Kilrush on the Dungarvan to Cappoquin main road, down the course of the N25 road to an outfall near the Park Hotel roundabout. A pipe will also run from Shandon connecting up to the pipe at Fairlane roundabout near Dungarvan Fire Station.

The second contract will see the development of a water detention pond on marshy ground near Tournore. The pond will hold flood water until the tide goes out then release it into the sea.

It's hoped the new schemes will bring an end to the serious flooding experienced in both areas of the town, Dungarvan Town Council's April meeting heard.

Town Engineer, Tom Rodgers, in answer to a question from Labour councillor, Billy Kyne, said the council is in negotiations to purchase the land in Tournore.

"There is an offer on the table," he added.

Councillor Kyne and Independent councillor, Michael O'Riordan proposed the schemes go to Part 8.

Caravan To Be Removed From Near Crystal

By Kevin Korrane

A caravan which has been in place at an entrance between the Spring Roundabout and Dungarvan Crystal will be removed shortly.

The caravan has been in place for the past six months, but will be removed to allow a development, which will have its entrance where the caravan is parked to take place.

"We will be clearing that out in the near future," Town Clerk, Joe O'Flaherty assured Fianna Fáil councillor Ann Marie Rossiter at the April meeting of the town council.

However, there are question marks about the legal status of the entrance in question. The council will be landscaping the entrance but it was unclear who actually owned the land.

If the land was owned by the council, it's understood an available halting site would have to be available for the caravan to be moved to.

Mr. O'Flaherty said the council was landscaping the boundary of the land as it was part of the roundabout.

SECRECY OVER NEW YORK JUNKET A JOKE

As readers of this column will remember, Viewpoint said 'fair enough' when the council opted not to publicly name the councillors who were to attend the St. Patrick's Day festivities in New York.

The reason for shrouding the visit under a veil of secrecy seemed justifiable enough. Councillors away for the duration of the trip abroad were afraid of break-ins and damage to their property.

But as readers will also note, Viewpoint went on to say that on their return, if the councillors had nothing to hide, and if indeed the trip was value for taxpayers money, they should stand up and be willing to say they were in attendance.

Sadly the opposite happened. For some bizarre reason that Viewpoint frankly cannot fathom when Sinn Fein councillor Brendan Mansfield asked who went on the trip, Fianna Fail councillor Pat Daly proposed that he be informed in writing.

This effectively stopped the release of the names - councillor Daly's included - until a day later.

Considering that Cllr. Daly knew full well that Cllr. Mansfield intended releasing the names once he received them anyway, this stalling tactic could only be described as petty obstruction for obstructions sake.

That the five or six other councillors who made up the delegation and who were in the chamber at the time didn't put their hands up and say they were part of the trip doesn't reflect all that brightly on them either.

After all, we're told in length every year how useful this trip is in terms of contacts.

The delegation meets with agencies such as Tourism Ireland, Enterprise Ireland and the IDA which, you never know, may just bear fruit one of these days and is certainly handy in updating these organisations and keeping the communications channels open.

While Cllr. Daly is to be richly commended for paying for the trip out of his own expenses allowance - the only one of the delegation to opt to do so - it's impossible to understand his thinking.

The delegation itself was overly large, and hindered too by the fact that the County Manager, Ray O'Dwyer didn't attend - County Engineer, John O'Flynn attended in his place. No one, it seems, can adequately explain why eight councillors must attend, resulting in a bill of 16,623.46 euro.

Excluding the costs for Mr. O'Flynn and with Cllr. Daly's costs coming out of his own expenses allowance, this broke down as 540 euro each for flights, 1,184 euro for rooms and 650 euro for each of the seven councillors in expenses.

A smaller delegation would radically reduce the cost. If at most three people attended including the County Manager and the County Mayor this would mean a spend of around just 6,000 euro, which in Viewpoint's book would be far more acceptable and justifiable. Just don't hold your breath and expect sense to prevail. After April's council meeting, it seems that accountability and a sense of fair play have gone out the window.

DISGRACEFUL BEHAVIOUR MUST BE CONDEMNED

The behaviour of litter louts who exploited the good work of volunteers coming up to the Easter Bank Holiday Clean-Up of the Comeragh mountains was nothing short of disgusting and deplorable.

Getting volunteers out for an event of any kind is always difficult, and that so many should give up their time over the weekend to collect over 50 tonnes of rubbish in what is a backbreaking chore is to be lauded.

It at least shows that community spirit is alive and well in Waterford.

But that their efforts should be exploited by litter louts who discarded bags of household rubbish in the picturesque mountains days before the clean-up shows a darker mean spirited side.

The Comeraghs are one of the county's most precious natural assets. Unfortunately their remoteness with small twisting roads winding their way up the forested mountainside, the very things that make them so attractive to hill walkers and tourists is used by fly-tippers to dump huge quantities of waste in what should be a valued area.

There is no excuse for this type of behaviour, and anyone who attempts to justify it by saying the price for rubbish collection is too high is plain wrong - there are many other law-abiding and democratic ways of protesting the size of bin charges. This behaviour is scarring our countryside, and must be stamped out once and for all, whether through the use of modern spy cameras, the hiring of more inspectors, or as Cllr. Paudie Coffey has suggested setting up community alert type zones to keep areas free from litter louts.

Group Calls For Greater Communication Over River Bye-Laws

By Kevin Kirrane

The Waterford Water Users Association, a group set up to protest contentious draft bye-laws which would restrict the use by pleasure craft of the waterways of the county, has called on Waterford County Council to publicise details of the bye-laws and for greater communication.

The draft bye-laws have received stern criticism from a number of quarters including from councillors at the April meeting of the county council.

A petition calling on the council to amend them is currently being circulated and the Water Users Association appealed to people who have an interest in this matter to register their concern by signing the petition.

However, the lack of awareness among the public of the existence of the draft bye-laws and their implications has come as a surprise, a spokesperson said.

"Waterford Water Users Association is calling on the council to generate a greater level of awareness and to do more than to fulfil their basic legal obligations by actively promoting effective communication with regard to this issue," he said.

"There are people outside the county who have for many years been enjoying the facilities on our waterways and it has come as a huge surprise to these people that such restrictive bye-laws are currently proposed.

"The proposed permit system is causing confusion and concern for everyone especially these people as they feel excluded from enjoying a natural resource that they have traditionally enjoyed for many years," the spokesperson said.

other sources, is twelve million euro.

"The bird count will establish the significance of the birds in the harbour," Town Clerk, Joe O'Flaherty told Fine Gael councillor, Fred Forsey at the April meeting of the Town Council.

Officials will discuss the findings with consultants over the following weeks. They will then know whether its likely the Park and Wildlife officials will oppose plans for a marina in the harbour.

"If the activity is significant, there could be a barrier. There is no point in doing this at a later stage. We should have a clear indication of where we are going," Mr. O'Flaherty said.

A marina has been dubbed a key piece in the infrastructural jigsaw of the town. It would pump millions of euro into the economy of the town each year.

Printmaster Celebrates 2nd Anniversary In Dungarvan

Printmaster, now seven years in business is firmly established as one of Waterford County's most progressive and innovative print companies. It marked the second anniversary of its presence in Dungarvan by adding an exciting new piece of equipment to the print room there. Printmaster is the first design and print company, outside of major urban areas, to install the much sought after new Xerox Digiprinter x5. This new technology offers customers the very best in digital print and places Printmaster on a new level, high above others in the region. The installation of this machine gives businesses in the area the opportunity to keep their colour printing at home, supporting local jobs and the local economy, while still maintaining excellent quality and value for money.

Digital print is the very latest technology and offers customers sharper images and outstanding vibrant colour, rivaling anything available from the bigger print houses in the capital. Investment like this is part of Printmaster's commitment to its growing base of loyal customers. Since installing a state of the art printing press two years ago Printmaster has expanded its operation and now employs a skilled team of 14 at its two locations, Dungarvan and Lismore.

Matt Houlihan of Printmaster said, "We are delighted that we can now compete with the bigger design and print studios in the cities. We have equal technology, ability and design skills plus the fact that we are local makes us much more cost efficient too. Printmaster can now take a project from the design stage right through to the finished print all under one roof and we're local. Our customers are important to us and not just another number or another job".

Printmaster's flair for design is evident in all its work from business stationery to brochures, programmes, and marketing materials. The team at Printmaster is passionate about design and they are constantly upgrading their individual skills and coming up with fresh ideas to keep Printmaster at the cutting edge of graphics and print in Ireland.

The expansion into Dungarvan was prompted by the obvious need for a quality design and print service in the area. As the town has grown, businesses have been forced to outsource their design and colour print work to Cork or Waterford. This has not only been an inconvenience but it can also be less cost efficient. This need has now been addressed and, due to its growth and success in Dungarvan, Printmaster is moving to new, purpose built premises on the Westgate Business Park, later this year.

"I am hugely proud of what has been achieved here," she said.
Mayor of Dungarvan, Cllr. Teresa Wright, a former student of the school, said Dungarvan Town Council and Waterford County Council are very proud of the school's achievement.

HONOUR

The Mayor of County Waterford, Cllr. Mary Green also praised the school for their work.

"This is a particular honour for County Waterford and Dungarvan," she said. "Only a small number of schools go on to retain their green flags because you have to reapply every two years. It goes to show how much work the teachers do.

"It's a very special award and this is a unique school. I hope now the children will encourage their mums and dads at home to recycle and conserve energy."

Fr. O'Mahony, speaking on behalf of the Board of Management described the achievement as "a great example to the whole community," and showed what could be done by working together.

Wheelchair Association Plan Centre At Childers Estate

By Kevin Korrane

The Irish Wheelchair Centre are planning to lease an area of council owned land near the Youth Centre at Childers Estate, Dungarvan to develop a resource and outreach centre for the West Waterford area, the April meeting of Dungarvan Town Council heard. The Wheelchair Association currently provide services one day a week from Dungarvan Youth Centre.

"We have been in negotiations with the local HSE staff, Margaret Brown Disability co-ordinator and Nicholas Maher Capital Project Officer, to secure funding for this project," Michael Doyle, regional director of the association said.

The project has been prioritised for funding this year.

The site will be developed in two phases. Phase 1 will be to purchase and install a prefabricated structure based on the site. The current services could then be transferred into the new premises when it is erected.

Phase 2 will be to build a purpose built facility. While Phase 1 is in progress the association will be able to develop the project brief, apply for planning permission and secure funding. It is anticipated that phase 2 could commence in 2008-2009. They hope that phase 1 will be completed by mid to late 2007.

Labour councillor Billy Kyne proposed the lease of the land and said it should be developed on a partnership basis.

Buddy Programme To Tighten Ties With Sister City

By Kevin Korrane

A "buddy" programme is to be progressed between Dungarvan and its new sister city, Erie in Pennsylvania, it emerged.

The proposal was put forward by Mayor of Dungarvan, Cllr. Teresa Wright at the April meeting of the town council.

Mayor Wright, who has held meetings with Development Executive, Fergal Reidy and Town Clerk, Joe O'Flaherty over plans to tighten ties with Erie, said the "buddy" programme would see various committees, such as education, business and cultural set up and comprise of various representatives from both Dungarvan and Erie.

Labour councillor, Billy Kyne said he would like the idea of soccer scholarships between the schools and club in the area and colleges in Erie to be progressed.

"There are enough good soccer players around to warrant the idea," he said. "It would be a headline way of getting involved."

Mr. O'Flaherty said a choir from Erie is to visit Dungarvan in May and the council could give them a Mayoral welcome.

"I would be anxious that we keep the momentum going. We're also looking at erecting signs to say we are twins."

The council's protocol committee, meanwhile, are looking at the possibility of a return visit to Erie while Town Manager, Denis McCarthy paid tribute to the Mayor for representing the town with distinction over the course of the Erie delegations visit and Tom Keith for his work.

APES

There are four types of ape: Gorilla, Chimpanzee, Gibbon and Orang-utan. The gorilla is about the same height as a man but has longer arms and is much heavier and stronger. When disturbed, they put on a ferocious-looking display of chest beating and charge forward. This behaviour is all bluff, and intended to frighten the intruder. Gibbons live in the forests of South-east Asia. They spend much of their time in the trees, using their long arms to swing from branch to branch. The shy orang-utan, whose name means 'man of the woods', lives in the rain forests of Borneo and Sumatra. This second largest member of the ape family is reddish-brown in colour and lives mainly on fruit.

Chimpanzees Live in Family Groups

Most of the ape family are found in the forests and jungles of Africa, South America and Asia. Chimpanzees live in family groups in the rainforests of central and west Africa. They live on fruit, leaves and roots. They also enjoy ants, when they find an ants' nest.

Apes Use Sticks As Tools

Apes are very intelligent. They can work out simple problems, and they can use their hands and feet quite skilfully. A chimpanzee will use a stick to get to out-of-reach fruit or insects, spider monkeys use sticks as weapons, throwing them at any potential threat, and the orang-utan will often use a large leaf as an umbrella.

Apes are Very Noisy

Most apes and monkeys are noisy but the howler monkey, the largest South American monkey, beats them all. They start howling as soon as they wake up, the noise being a signal to others that this territory is taken. Both males and females howl but the male has a much louder and deeper sound which can be heard 3-5km (2-3 miles) away.

A series of bones in the throat form an echo chamber (giving the animal the appearance of having a double chin, which magnifies the sound. Another noisy monkey is the proboscis monkey of Borneo which makes loud trumpeting noises through its long, drooping nose.

- ★ Chimpanzees, gorillas and orang-utans have been taught to use sign language.

- ★ People were outraged when Charles Darwin suggested in 1859 that humans were descended from apes.

Yoga
in

with Eily Henry

Yoga to go

with Eily Henry

These days we have come to realise that there has been a change from the time when pregnant women were described as being in a 'delicate condition' and encouraged to do as little as possible.

Pregnancy is now considered a time when a woman should be feeling as fit and healthy as she possibly can. This so she can meet the increased demands made of her, not only physically, but also mentally and emotionally.

Because of these added demands the natural dividing line between good health and any type of illness is much finer than during our non-pregnant state. Our bodies are best able to remain healthy if we perform an exercise routine regularly. There is no doubt that a gentle exercise programme of suitably modified Yoga postures performed daily or as often as possible throughout pregnancy will help to produce and maintain good general muscle tone.

In particular, it will strengthen and keep in a healthy elastic condition those muscles which will be used during childbirth.

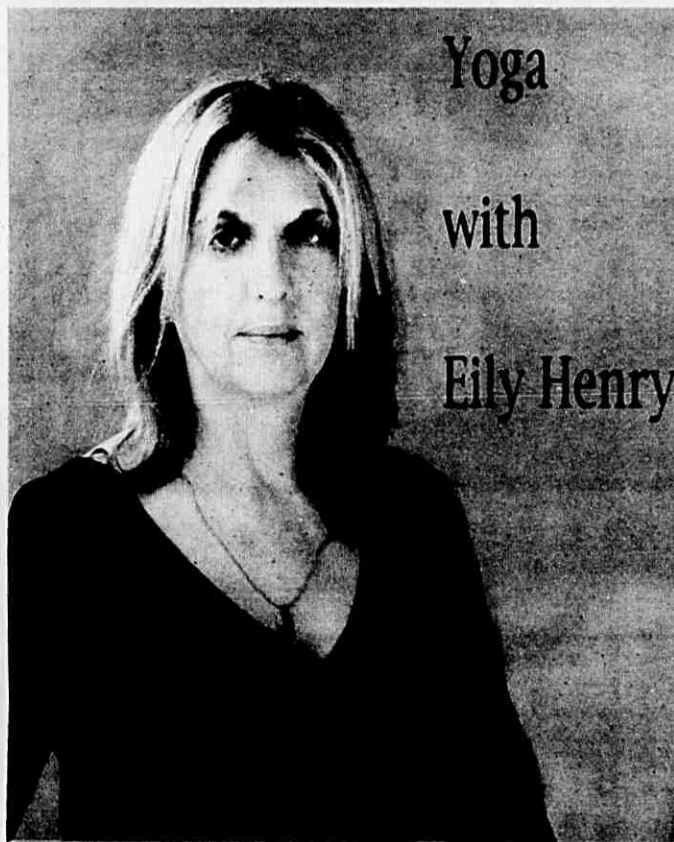

Many women who have attended my Yoga classes in the past have suggested to me that housework has been sufficient exercise to keep them fit enough during pregnancy. This even applies to women who work full time where many of them sit at a desk all day undertaking little or no exercise. Many also travel by car or public transport with very little walking and also carry the added burden of running the home when they return in the evenings.

Therefore housework however abundant, is not in itself a satisfactory form of exercise since it brings into play only some muscles, while others, notably those of the pelvic floor which are the ones most involved in the process of childbirth are usually neglected altogether. In many cases housework is just the type of activity which causes exhaustion and fatigue, which in turn leads to irritability and a feeling of being unable to cope. In particular with the needs of a new baby, which can lead to depression in some cases.

Yoga can be very beneficial in providing gentle relief by lifting the spirits and promoting relaxation. It develops a woman's central core, giving her a real sense of strength and empowerment so necessary during labour and birth.

Designerzone €10,000 kitchen give-away causes a stir in Dungarvan!

THE OPENING of Designerzone in Dungarvan in late 2006 brought a revolution in kitchen and bathroom design to the southeast. And no-one knows this better than Mrs Miriam Ryan from Keanes Road in Waterford, who was the lucky winner of a €10,000 Designerzone kitchen last week; the competition celebrates the official opening of the flag-ship store in Dungarvan. "I can't believe I have won; it's such a fantastic prize and I can't wait to start" stated an excited Miriam.

Designerzone teamed up with WLR to offer this fantastic prize to one of 16 lucky contestants who entered the competition. Over the course of the live broadcast in Designerzone's showrooms, contestants were treated to a selection of home-made breads, cookies and finger food straight from the ovens of Designerzone's working kitchen. According to resident cook and designer Richard Reeve, "We cook every day at Designerzone, whether this be for appliance demonstrations or for our customers. We like to enhance the experience by offering customers a selection of home-made treats, as they go through their specific kitchen requirements with their dedicated designer".

The emphasis at Designerzone is about offering the very best products tailored to meet individual needs, which means customers can be assured that no two kitchens will be the same. The fact that the company only collaborates with the best suppliers, coupled with an on-site manufacturing team, allows Designerzone to respond to individual needs easily and efficiently.

In establishing Designerzone, owner Gerry Phelan was adamant that the concept should be about offering individuals the opportunity to create the kitchen or bathroom of their dreams. "We want to offer our customers the chance to really have the home they have dreamed of, and what two rooms are more important than the kitchen and bathroom?"

It is the attention to detail at Designerzone that really sets the company apart from its competitors.

From the moment a customer walks through the door, the customer service and design team manage the entire selection and design process with you from start to finish.

The design of Miriam's new kitchen will be managed by designer Anouschka Joyce, who is looking forward to helping Miriam transform her home. The only problem that Miriam faces is choosing between the 28 fully fitted kitchens in Designerzone's impressive showroom!

Designerzone is located at Unit 1, Westgate Business Park, Dungarvan, Co. Waterford. The showroom is open from 9.30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday to Saturday. For further information, call the design team now on 058 48976 or visit www.designerzone.ie.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Drugs and the Mental Health of Young People

Dear Editor,
Cannabis:

The debate over cannabis is only one example of a much wider concern about the effects of drugs and the mental health of young people.

Mostly it is the physical and social effects of drugs that make newspaper headlines and get the attention of the public and politicians.

Yet experience from those working with young people and their parents/guardians shows that the psychological impact of their drug use/misuse is of serious concern.

There would appear to be a notion among young people that Cannabis is harmless.

The sad thing here is that for some young people it will be too late, and their futures are uncertain, but will probably involve medication and psychiatric care.

Any treatment needs to be geared towards the whole person. This means not just to have them engaged with an addiction counsellor but to improve their chances of recovery by using other holistic therapies such as Art Therapy, Drama, Acupuncture, and Meditation.

There have been many reports linking Cannabis use to future mental health problems but they are usually ignored. To young people I say simply, why risk it?

Smoking Cannabis=Paranoia
Do you want to be paranoid going around, thinking that little spot on your face is cancer, or that you are being followed? Cannabis is not the harmless relation of the other drug groups; it is highly addictive and demotivating.

Any person seeking help around their own or a family member's substance misuse can contact the County Waterford Community Drugs Initiative on 058-48946 or 087-9676439, or the local drugs outreach worker on 086-8561681

Regards,

The Daily Telegraph 28th February. I've heard great things about The Lift, a US developed home treatment that boosts the skin dramatically before a big night out.

marie claire June, ...Eyesential, isn't a cure but it is a mini eye lift - I've seen the results and they are impressive. Make up artist Randy Houston Mercer says its his secret weapon when working on celebrities like Brad Pitt and Sarah Jessica Parker.

M 11th April - hold up eye bags by smoothing on Eyesential, a quick fix gel used by all the Hollywood make up artists to help stars with wrinkly, saggy eyes.

THE SUNDAY TIMES 24th May. Follow the eye secret of the stars, Eyesential temporarily tightens and lifts and under eye area...

DAILY EXPRESS 8th April, said to make under eye bags and wrinkles a thing of the past, Eyesential is the latest beauty product to reach here from America. Apparently used by party loving boyband Blue during their recent UK tour, the gel promises to lift the area around the eyes.

woman 12th May, traditional egg white may have near miraculous, temporary face firming properties but newer ingredients include special algae and wrinkles filling gels. Try The Lift with sea algae.

HELLO! 23rd December, a circulation-stimulating face mask that visibly lifts skin as well. Celebrity fans include Madonna - who underwent the treatment the day before her wedding - as well as Sarah Jessica Parker and Rachel Hunter.

Daily Mail 3rd May, a bit uncomfortable to use as it dries and tightens very quickly on the skin but well worth the results...knocks 15 years off your looks for a good 24 hours.

The Anchor Sessions

This week's Anchor Sessions feature Boomer. This talented 4-piece from Waterford comprise 3 vocals (occasionally 4!) to great effect, add some 60s R'n'B style guitars, piano, bass and drums and it gives you some idea of their sound.

Quirky, imaginative playing interspersed with great song choices. Where else could you expect to hear covers like The Beatles... "A day in the life", to Hall and Oates, "Maneater".

The band also play a healthy mix of other covers by artists like, Johnny Cash, The Animals, Radiohead, Blur, Weezer and The Kinks. Boomer are now together for 2 years and have played all over Europe to great acclaim. The love of the music is always evident with this band and audiences can't help but groove to the infectious rhythms these guys put out!

Catch Boomer live at The Anchor Bar, Dungarvan, next Sunday 29th April, starting at 7.30pm.

LISMORE CLINIC TO HOLD FIRST OPEN DAY

Following the success of its recent launch, The Lismore Clinic will be holding the first in a series of open days on Sunday 29th April, from 2 - 6 p.m. The theme of the afternoon will be "Pregnancy, Birth and Beyond" and a number of talks by qualified and experienced therapists will focus on natural approaches to achieving healthy conception, pregnancy and birth, and to treating common problems in new mothers and young babies.

Aine Marie Reilly, proprietor of the clinic said that "the open day should be of great interest and benefit to new mothers, pregnant women and anyone trying to conceive. However, we also welcome anyone who would like to look around the clinic or have an informal chat with any of the practitioners." Around 1 in 7 couples in this country experience problems conceiving. The first talk of the afternoon, which will be held at 2.30 p.m. will focus on natural approaches to overcoming infertility. It will include nutritional and general advice for increasing fertility, and information on how herbal medicines can correct hormone imbalance, overcome problems with embryo implantation and help to prevent recurrent miscarriage. The talk will also cover other therapies which can help to increase fertility including acupuncture and chiropractic.

Any woman who has been pregnant will have experienced at least some of the numerous health problems which often come as part of the package. The second talk, which will be held at 3.30 p.m., will focus on natural, safe and effective therapies for pregnant women, including herbal medicine, nutrition, and aromatherapy massage.

At 4.30 p.m. there will be talk on natural approaches to pain relief in labour which will include hypnobirthing and homeopathy. The final talk at 5.30 p.m. will focus on helping mothers through the postpartum period and on natural medicine for babies. It will include information about craniosacral therapy and a wealth of other practical advice.

For further information about the open day telephone the Lismore Clinic on 058 53200/ 53816. Entry is free of charge and all are welcome.

Dungarvan Business Awarded For Its Top-quality Environmental Management

i-to-i are happy to announce that they have been officially awarded the Green Dragon Award. No, it is not a type of martial arts award, but instead an environmental management award and on the 12th April at the Green Dragon awards event, held in Waterford Tower Hotel, i-to-i received their decoration.

'The award is important to i-to-i as it shows our commitment to minimising our global impact on the environment. We encourage and recruit volunteers to partake in conservation projects to reduce their eco footprint and this award shows our contribution from the office side of things,' comments i-to-i spokesperson, Rosie Plummer. 'We have an award to show that we're a lean, green company committed to reducing our effects on the environment.'

CCTV May Help Stop Illegal Dumpers

By Kevin Kirrane

The installation of CCTV cameras in the centre of Dungarvan may be used to help crack down on incidences of illegal dumping in the town.

Dungarvan Town Council were given the go-ahead for CCTV by the Department of Justice late last year to help in the fight against anti-social behaviour late at night. But at the April meeting of the town council, Town Clerk, Joe O'Flaherty hinted they may have a broader use.

Asked about hiring inspectors to prevent the dumping of rubbish in the town by Mayor, Teresa Wright, Mr. O'Flaherty said illegal dumping was being looked at on an ongoing basis.

'CCTV when it comes, will hopefully help us,' he said.

Council To Meet With Gardai Over Pedestrianisation Of Quay

By Kevin Kirrane

Dungarvan Town Council is to hold a meeting with senior members of Dungarvan Gardai over plans to pedestrianise the Quay. Pedestrianisation looks increasingly unlikely given the reservations of the Gardai and concerns over access for emergency services, and anti-social behaviour.

Town Clerk, Joe O'Flaherty said he had spoken to Superintendent O'Grady in recent days and the Superintendent was keen to meet with the council to discuss the likely downsides of the proposal.

The meeting will take place on May 14th and be held in committee.

sees large and small organisations, in any industry or business sector, gain recognition for effective environmental management at a pace to suit its organisation. Green Dragon is a stepped approach that makes implementing environmental management easy. The standard is made up of five steps, each of which incorporates the key elements of Planning, Taking Action, Checking Progress and Reviewing Achievements to realise continual environmental improvement.

'i-to-i got involved with the Green Dragon through a scheme that the Waterford chamber of Commerce was running. Six businesses within County Waterford were supported through the award scheme by the chamber and we were lucky to be one of them.'

i-to-i is Ireland's leading volunteer travel, teach abroad and Teaching English as a Foreign (TEFL) course provider.

McGuinness Confident Of Sinn Fein Seat In Waterford

By Kevin Kieran

The Joint First Minister of the North of Ireland and Sinn Fein chief negotiator, Martin McGuinness said he was "very confident" that Waterford General Election candidate, David Cullinane would win a seat for Sinn Fein in the upcoming general election.

Cullinane, a Waterford city councillor, trails at 9% in a recent Red C opinion poll. However, the party hopes for a surge in support coming up to election time.

Mr. McGuinness joined Cullinane and Cllr. Brendan Mansfield on the canvas trail in Tramore and Dungarvan on Friday last.

Speaking in Dungarvan, he said that the reception on the ground was exceptionally good and was confident the party would make an historic breakthrough in the Waterford constituency.

Mr. McGuinness said: "David Cullinane is an exceptional candidate who is a rising star within our party. He has been a member of the Sinn Fein leadership since 2003 and was part of the delegation at St. Andrews that has led to recent historic events. He is very much in tune with the needs of the local community and is a strong advocate for the people of Waterford city and county. I have no doubt that David will make an exceptional TD who will do the people of Waterford proud."

"He is part of a young generation of intelligent, hardworking and committed candidates coming through the Sinn Fein ranks."

"Sinn Fein is ready for Government north and south. We intend to radically change society for the better for all of the people of Ireland. David Cullinane is the only candidate who can offer the people of Waterford real change in this election."

"David reminded me on this visit that if elected he will be the first Sinn Fein TD in Waterford since Cathal Brugha and his wife Kathleen. Let's make history and make sure Waterford has a new and fresh face in the Dail."

DUNGARVAN RESCUE KENNELS

'FLOG IT' SALE

We are holding another sale to help raise much needed funds to keep the shelter afloat and help dogs in distress. The event will take place at the beginning of June (venue to be announced later), and we are looking for household items in saleable condition - such as pictures, bric a brac, small items of furniture, ornaments etc. We would ask not to receive toys at this time. So if you are having a 'spring clean' please think of us.

The shelter exists to help dogs in cases of great need, such as severe neglect, abuse or injury. We are not always able to assist people who no longer wish to keep their own dog - we will however offer help and advice in such situations.

Please call 086 337 4832 or 058 48742.

CUDDIHY — Birthday Remembrance of the late Eileen Cuddihy, whose birthday occurs on April 27th, late of 10 Ringnasillogue Place, Dungarvan.
Now I am contented that my life it was worthwhile,
Knowing as I passed along the way I made somebody smile,
When you are walking down the street and you've got me on your mind,
I'm walking in your footsteps only half a step behind,
And when you feel the gentle breeze or the wind upon your face,
That's me giving you a great big hug or just a soft embrace,
So please don't be unhappy just because I'm out of sight,
Remember that I'm with you every morning, noon and night.
(Fondly remembered by your son John, Terry, Helen, Michael, Patrick and Daisy and all your family and friends at home and abroad).

CUDDIHY — Birthday Remembrance of my dear friend Eileen Cuddihy, whose birthday occurs on April 27th, late of 10 Ringnasillogue Place, Dungarvan.
To your graveside I do wander,
I can picture your face so clear,
In silence I stand in sorrow,
For a dear friend I loved so dear,
The flowers I place upon it,
Will wither and decay,
But the love I buried with you,
Will never fade away,
When I am sad and lonely,
And everything goes wrong,
I seem to hear you whisper,
Cheer up and carry on,
I miss you calling on the phone,
And your smiling face,
For there is no one in the world Eileen,
Could ever take your place.
(Always remembered by your friend Mary T, Tony and family XXXX).

DRUMMEY — Birthday Remembrance of my husband Tom Drummey, late of 8 Cloneeety Villas, Dungarvan whose birthday occurs on April 29, 2007.
Sad is the heart that loved you,
Silent the tears that fall,
Living my life without you Tom,
Is the hardest part of all,
As I held your hand that morning,
I knew I would have to part,
With the kind and loving husband,
Whom I loved with all my heart,
So rest in peace dear Tom,
And thank you for all you have done,
I pray that God has given you,
The crown that you truly won,
In the shelter of thy Sacred Heart,
Sweet Jesus may he rest in peace.
Happy birthday.
(Your loving wife Nellie XXX).

CUDDIHY — Birthday Remembrances of my friend Eileen Cuddihy whose birthday occurs on April 27th, late of 10 Ringnasillogue Place, Dungarvan.
We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you shall remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives,
Until we meet again,
So rest in peace dear Eileen,
And thanks for all you've done.
We pray that God has given you,
The crown you truly won,
Will those who think of her today,
A little prayer to Jesus say.
(Always remembered by your friend Rita Cantwell and family XXXX).

DRUMMEY — Birthday Remembrance of our dear dad Tom Drummey, late of 8 Cloneeety Villas, Dungarvan whose birthday occurs on April 29, 2007.
Hoping Dad you are happy,
In your heavenly home above,
Today is your birthday,
And we send you all our love,
If roses grow in heaven,
Please pick a bunch for us,
Place them in our Dad's arms,
And tell him they're from us.
Happy birthday Dad.
(Never forgotten from all your sons, daughters, sons-in-law, daughters-in-law, grandchildren and great grandson Jake XXX).

DRUMMEY — Birthday Remembrance of my dear father Tom Drummey, late of 8 Cloneeety Villas, Dungarvan whose birthday occurs on the 29 April.

Some day we'll meet again
Dad,
Where sorrow is unknown,
Some day I hope to hold your hand,
Before God's heavenly throne,
No more the secret tears of grief,
No more the longing sigh,
I will see again the face I loved,
So much in days gone by,
I smile behind my heartaches,
As you would want me to,
And I shed a lonely tear,
No one sees but you,
I often pause in my daily work,
And by my side you'd be,
A million memories bring you back,
To stay a while with me,
But among my tears and heartaches,
There is one thing that makes me glad,
Is the love and joy you shared with us.
(Sadly missed by your son Brendan, daughter-in-law Claire, granddaughters Alanna and Claudia).

HAVENS — Birthday Remembrance of John Havens, 5, St. Patrick's Crescent, Dungarvan whose birthday occurs on April 30.
Those we love don't go away,
They walk beside us every day,
Unseen, unheard, but always near,
Still loved, still missed, still very dear.
(Sadly missed by sons Michael and Christy, daughters Annie and Mary).

PARISH DRAW

The draw held in Ballylaneen Community Centre resulted in the top prize of 150 euro going to Eamon Concannon, Curraheen with 25 euro each going to Pat McGovern, Abbeyside, Jim Power, Carrigree, Chris Townsend, Isle of Man, Maureen Carey, Millbrook Terrace, Kilmac' and Margaret Coffey, Williamstown. The promoters were Ann Concannon, Nellie Casey, Mary Power, Helen Power and David Coffey. The promoters prize went to Mary Hearne and Peggy Walsh. The next draw will be in Faha followed by a double draw in Stradbally.

TROCAIRE

The returns so far for the Lenten Trocaire collection indicates that there could be a good few boxes still not returned. Please check that you have returned your box and perhaps a reminder to one's neighbour might be beneficial as well for the people of the Third World who rely so much on Trocaire. Thanks to the volunteers who counted the money in Stradbally and Ballylaneen, it is very much appreciated.

WELL DONE

The lucky winner of a Mercedes Sports Coupe in the St. Dominic's Credit Union members draw in Waterford city was Victoria Forsey (nee Hughes) who resides with her husband Paul and family in Williamstown, Stradbally. Hopefully there will be more local success in the monthly draw taking place at present with the Dungarvan and Carrick-On-Suir Unions combining.

FIRST COMMUNION

The final preparation Mass for the boys and girls due to make their First Holy Communion on 12th May took place in Holy Cross Church, Stradbally on Saturday evening, 21st April. Michelle Hickey and Helena Kenneally on behalf of the parents organised the children for the entrance procession. During the Mass Sean Di Fusco and Imelda Fitzgerald shared the Prayers of the Faithful.

Melissa Fennell read the Communion reflection. The dates for the First Communion are Saturday, 12th May at 11 am in Stradbally and Sunday, 27th May in St. Anne's Church, Ballylaneen also at 11 am. There will be penitential services taking place in both churches before the big day.

TIDY TOWNS NEWS

Following the launch of their three year plan for Stradbally the first item on the agenda in preparation for the tidy towns competition by the tidy towns committee is to organise a Clean Up in cooperation with the local authority and An Taisce. The date fixed is next Saturday morning 28th April from 10 am to 12. Bags and gloves will be provided for all taking part. We would appeal to schools and local organisations to take part. It would help if everyone took a look outside their own area and picked up any litter, bottles, plastic and composting materials. As many hands make light work all help would be appreciated. An adult must accompany children attending the Clean Up. There will also be a Beach Clean in Stradbally and Ballyvooney. Please come out and give us an hour or two of your time and make Stradbally a place to be proud of.

'Specsy' Jodi Albert launches search for Specsavers' most respected Dungarvan beauty

The hunt is on for the 2007 Irish Specsavers Spectacle Wearer of the Year with the judges focusing on finding someone with a really 'eye-catching' look.

To launch the campaign, Jodi Albert donned designer fashion specs to encourage people from Dungarvan to enter the competition.

Girlfriend of Westlife's Kian Egan, Jodi flew in to Dublin just days before she begins her new role in long-running drama 'Casualty' on the BBC.

Jodi says: 'Whether you're a dedicated specs-wearer or only opt to look 'specsy' at weekends, and are aged 16 to 30, the chance to live the catwalk lifestyle is open to you by entering this fabulous modelling competition.'

Store director of Specsavers in Dungarvan Paul McLaren says: 'This competition is a fantastic opportunity for gorgeous young specs wearers to shine and show that wearing glasses can be more than just an optical necessity.'

'If you think you've got an eye-catching look or want to nominate someone who has, pick up an entry form from our store, it could be your chance to launch a whole new career.' Last year's winner was Orla Duggan from Limerick who went on to the International final but was pipped at the post by the first-ever male winner, Londoner Stephen Handisides. Orla now features regularly on the Irish modelling scene and launched Specsavers' new designer ranges, Tommy Hilfinger and Ralph Lauren.

This year's lucky winner will scoop a year's modelling representation with leading Irish modelling agency, Assets. They will also win a fabulous holiday for two to Gran Canaria, courtesy of Stein Travel and a portfolio from fashion photographer, Lili Forberg. Beauty products from the exclusive Kohl cosmetics range at Brown Sugar will be awarded to the winner and all Irish finalists. In addition to this, all finalists will be given Specsavers eyecare vouchers worth €15.

The Irish final will be held at the stylish Morrison Hotel, Dublin 1, on 16 August 2007. The Irish Spectacle Wearer of the Year will automatically be entered into the star-studded international finale in London on 9 October, attended by Kimberley Stewart and celebrity hosts. The International Spectacle Wearer of the Year will win a two-week holiday for two in Barbados or St Lucia courtesy of Almond Resorts and Virgin Holidays, plus many more prizes.

To enter the competition, pick up an application form from Specsavers in Dungarvan or log on to www.specsavers.ie to enter to download a form. All entries must be received by Specsavers in Guernsey by 2 July 2007.

DEATH OF DAN LENIHAN

The news of the death of Dan Lenihan was received in the area with feelings of genuine regret and sadness such as Dan's standing in the community that on Wednesday afternoon when the news started to spread everyone just said "Dan is dead", no one had to ask Dan who! There was only one Dan. He was a man who was interested in everything and belied his years with his enormous energy for anything that he happened to be involved in. His one big passion was vintage ploughing and he travelled all over the country to participate in matches. He also loved music and dancing and card playing but his biggest interest was his family of whom he was so proud.

The crowds that attended the removal and burial on Friday and Saturday was proof that Dan was known far and wide. We extend our sincere sympathy to Margaret, Mike, Pat and John, daughters-in-law, son-in-law, grandchildren and brother and extended family. May he rest in peace. He will be sadly missed in the community.

SYMPATHY

We extend the sympathy of the community to the Hale family on the death in England last week of Lilly Murphy (nee Hale). May she rest in peace.

GAA - Junior Championship

Our first game in this year's championship was against Modeligo on Sunday last. Unfortunately we came out on the wrong end of a 3-9 to 0-10 scoreline. The first half was a close affair, we missed a couple of good scoring chances and Modeligo scored a goal on the call of half time. Our lads seemed to run out of steam in the second half.

A big improvement will be needed for the next round which is against Tourin on Saturday, 5th May.

Lotto Results

Numbers drawn Tuesday 17th 4-9-12-20. No jackpot winner. 15 euro winners as follows; George Quinlan, Tom Cunningham, Anthony Glavin. Jackpot Tuesday 24th 1,000 euro. Results next week.

Deise Draw

A reminder that the Deise Draw for April will be held on this Friday night. All money to be handed in before then. Let's hope we have a bit of luck.

Hurling League

Just received following fixture in the hurling league. We are away to Ballinameela next Saturday at 7 o'clock.

Congratulations To De La Salle

Nice to see a Waterford team winning an All Ireland so we congratulate De La Salle on their great win and we wish our county senior team well in next Sunday's League Final.

MAIN STREET TRADERS EASTER COMPETITION WINNER

The Dungarvan Main Street Traders ran a competition for Easter. The question was in the form of a riddle which was as follows;

There were two ducks beside two other ducks,
There were two ducks in front of two other ducks
And there were two ducks behind two other ducks,
How many ducks were there?

The answer is four ducks. Imagine the ducks flying in a square formation. Well done to Lorcan O Muiri from Ring who was the lucky winner. Lorcan's mother entered him into the competition and he was both shocked and thrilled to have won. Lorcan can now enjoy his Main Street Traders' gift vouchers thanks to his lovely mother. Let's hope he buys her a thank you gift!

Popular Union Official Honoured by Town Council

Last Friday night, in the Council Chamber of Waterford County Civic Offices, Dungarvan Town Council accorded a Civic Reception to Tony Mansfield, Abbeyside in recognition of his exceptional services to the Trade Union movement in Dungarvan and District and his contribution to GAA affairs in Abbeyside and the County over the last fifty-four years. With Tony were his wife Moira, daughter Caroline and sons Michael and Brendan, who is also a member of the Council.

In extending the congratulations and appreciation of the Council, the Mayor, Cllr. Teresa Wright said that they were assembled in formal session to 'fulfil the wishes of the Council, to accord a Civic Reception, the highest honour we can bestow, on Tony Mansfield for his exemplary, distinguished and lengthy contribution to the community of Dungarvan and Abbeyside whose people he has served loyally and with quiet zeal for over half a century in one capacity or another'. She traced his career from the time he entered employment in 1953 when he first joined the Union of Irish Distributive Workers and Clerks, going on to take up employment in the Leather Factory and membership of the ATGWU.

She recalled that in 1962, there was a major dispute at the plant and Tony got his first taste of high level negotiations when he became actively involved in finding a solution to the problem. This was finally resolved with the help of the Labour Court and subsequently, Tony was elected Chief Shop Steward at the factory, a post he held until his departure from there in 1977 to take over as District Officer of the Union based in Dungarvan.

"He soon confirmed in his full time capacity, the ability that he had shown as a skilled negotiator as a part-time union activist," she continued, "preferring to seek workers gains through reasonable compromise rather than militant action." Tony also served on many other local and national committees as well as being Secretary / Treasurer of the Dungarvan Council of Trade Unions.

Outside the Trade Union movement, Tony is best known for his work for the Abbeyside / Ballinacourty Hurling and Football Club for which he played from 1953 to the early 'Seventies and was for twenty years a member of their senior squad. He is currently Club Chairman and in his many years there has always served in one officership or another.

He played in three Senior Hurling County Finals between 1957 and '69 a period which mirrored some of Waterford's best years too. Tony was an active member of the County's Senior squad in 1963, when they were just pipped for All Ireland honours. That he achieved when Waterford's U.21 hurlers, of which he was part of the management team, won the All Ireland in 1992.

Along with all of the other demands on his time, Tony has also been the GAA correspondent with the Dungarvan Observer since 1970, giving news and views of Gaelic Games to a wide readership.

Concluding, the Mayor said that Tony Mansfield has been the epitome of a good servant to his colleagues in his working life and an exemplary community man in his leisure time. Few in his parish or his working district have not at one time or another benefitted from his wisdom, his advice or his leadership and there is no more worthy candidate for the honour which the Council bestowed on him.

Cllr. Billy Kyne added his congratulations to Tony and thanked him for his sterling work in many fields. "Tony brings more than commitment to a club," said Cllr. Kyne, "he also brings a clear analytical mind, a willingness and an ability to work with the people. He does not seek popularity, but gives leadership irrespective of the occasion. I have no doubt that this natural leadership was well honed in the Leather Factory where he was part of the stewardship of many trade unionists of whom Patrick Ryan and Denis McGrath readily come to mind." He said that Tony took on that stewardship himself in 1977, when he was appointed District Officer of the ATGWU.

"Tony did much more than process the interests of thousands of workers in different sectors," he continued, "his pro-active leadership was vital in the projection of Dungarvan and West Waterford as a location where the union was seen as an equal and responsible partner, not only in trying to protect jobs, but in projecting an image and a reality, that working together does create a positive industrial environment."

Cllr. Kyne said that the same principles remained constant in his delivery to the GAA, especially through the Abbeyside / Ballinacourty Club where the words 'a labour of love' are apt.

"His commitment remains as strong today as it was when he first joined the Club over fifty years ago," he said, "and the greatest tribute that could be paid to Tony Mansfield above and beyond this well deserved Civic Reception, is to try to match his commitment, leadership and social conscience." Tony's son Cllr. Brendan Mansfield said that he had exemplary parents who gave their children every benefit they could.

"The door in Sexton Street was always open and welcoming," he continued, "including today to Martin McGuinness on his visit to town." Tony has always been a crusader for fair wages," he added, "and even though he is now gone from full time union affairs, his advice continues to be widely sought."

He recalled the great days of

The Mayor of Dungarvan, Cllr. Teresa Wright presents Tony Mansfield with a Commemorative Scroll after the Council accorded him a Civic Reception in recognition of his life-long contribution to the communities of Abbeyside and Dungarvan. From left are Michael Mansfield, Caroline Mansfield, Tony and the Mayor, Mrs. Moira Mansfield and Cllr. Brendan Mansfield.

Waterford hurling and his father's part in it and said that in regard to Abbeyside / Ballinacourty, they had 'brought the Club back to the heart of the Parish. "It is important that the Club and the Parishes stay united."

Deputy Co. Manager, John O'Flynn added his congratulations on behalf of the Executive and endorsed the sentiments of the Mayor and other Councillors. He thanked Tony for 'the ever courteous manner in which he conducted business in relation to the outdoor staff whom he represented so effectively for thirty years'.

He said that there had been many changes in industrial relations practices over the years and that as a member of the Local Authority Partnership body, Tony had helped to add a new dimension to industrial relations in Local Authorities. Town Clerk, Joe O'Flaherty also congratulated Tony on his very considerable achievements and said that they had always enjoyed a professional working relationship and he always found Tony fair to deal with. It was obvious, he said, that the betterment of employee conditions was his first priority.

A presentation of a specially commissioned scroll was then made to Tony by the Mayor and Mrs. Mansfield was presented with a bouquet of flowers.

Replying, Tony Mansfield thanked the Mayor and the Members of the Council for the signal honour they had bestowed on him and recalled many of the highlights of his career as a full time Trade Union Official as well as the activity which took up most of his leisure time, Gaelic Games. He recalled his entry into the work force in the old London and Newcastle Tea Company in 1953 and his introduction to Union affairs through his membership of the Irish Distributive Workers and Clerks, currently known as MANDATE.

He recalled his parents, Mick and Mary Mansfield and his father's days in the IRA and his part in the fight for Irish Freedom. He remembered also the members of his family and his wife Moira's family who had passed away in the intervening years.

In paying tribute to the support of his own family, Tony recalled how Micheál O'Muircheartaigh had accurately referred to his wife as the 'Bean 'a Tí', as she had always maintained an open door to Tony's colleagues both in the Union and in the GAA. He said that he was proud that his daughter and sons were active within the unions of their own employment and that his son Brendan had been elected to both the Town and County Councils.

He spoke of how difficult it had been for the lowly paid workers of the Dungarvan of the 1940's, who had fought for the right to join a trade union and the weeks they had been on strike in support of that right. "Now, sixty-five years on," he continued, "I am proud to say that the ATGWU has played a significant role in the economic and social development of Dungarvan and its environs." He said that on a personal basis, he had taken his father's advice and tried 'to do the greatest good for the greatest number'.

Tony also recounted his days as a member of Abbeyside / Ballinacourty Hurling and Football Club, which he had seen go from strength to strength since its founding in 1927 and which had become 'a united Parish club in 1967'. He recalled one of the County's finest moments in decades with the winning of the 1992 U.21 Hurling title under the management of Peter Power, Joey Carton and himself, which had given him immense satisfaction.

Also present at the ceremony were Cllrs. Michael O'Riordan, Nuala Ryan, Anne Marie Rossiter; Very Rev. Flor O'Callaghan, OSA as well as Members of the trade Union movement and the Abbeyside / Ballinacourty Club. Tom Keith, Dungarvan Town Council acted as MC for the occasion.

Community Meeting: On Wednesday next May 2nd there will be a meeting to discuss the many issues which have been raised at various gatherings during the past year. ## Waterford Scout County Challenge Weekend

As we said in last weeks notes two Patrols from Abbeyside attended the County Challenge Weekend here is the report from PL Aaron Fraher.

We left the den at around 6 o'clock on Friday, with all our gear (well except for Kevin Brazel), that we would need for the weekend. We arrived at 7:30 and were registered in about 10mins. Our team name was 'Pirates of the Crimean'. After we registered we pitched our tents and they were pitched by about 8:15. We then moved our gear inside the tents. After we sorted our gear we had to put up a flagpole. We used 2 poles, tied them together, and stuck them into the ground between our patrols 2 tents. For a flag we used our neckerchiefs, which we tied together and to the flagpole. After we had put up the flag we had a gear inspection to check if we all had the proper gear for the weekend. We went back to the tent after and started unrolling our sleeping bags. At about 10:30 the PL's were called, to be told about who would be going where, regarding a compass course we would be doing. The compass course involved taking bearings and using pacing, to arrive at a certain point. For each correct answer we got a piece of map, which would make up the map for Saturdays activities. We managed to get all the pieces. We then went back to the tent to cook supper on our shiny new triangles, which for our patrol was some bread and 5 sausages each. After everyone had eaten we went to sleep. We were woken on Saturday at about 8 o'clock to an extremely foggy morning. I heard a lot of Kevin Brazel saying 'do we SERIOUSLY have to hike up in this'. I kept him in suspense until I was forced to tell him we were getting a bus. We all had some breakfast around 8:30, of which everyone brought their own (except Kevin Brazel, as you already guessed), but Gearoid was there to bail him out. At around 9 o'clock we took down the tent and the amount of intelligence observed was unsurpassed. The 4 people in our second tent took down their tent with the tent bag inside the tent, and quickly stole ours when we weren't looking.

After that we loaded our gear into a van and boarded a bus to go to the drop off point. The idea of Saturday was to complete bases and to get clues to find where we would be camping on the mountain. The bases were as follows:

- A: first aid
- B: communications
- C: map & compass work
- D: cooking
- E: environment
- F: shelter building.

We must have walked about 16 kilometres in total during all of Saturday, during which some fun shortcuts were found. On Saturday, the Coastguard SAR(Search And Rescue) Sikorsky S-61 Sea King helicopter, call sign 'rescue 117' or 'alpha romeo', did a flyby at about 75ft over the first aid base. Everyone enjoyed this. After we had completed all the bases we proceeded to Lough Mohra where we would camp for the night. It was a hard walk to get to it but it was worth it. We were one of the last patrols to arrive at the site at around 7:30pm, but we still managed to find a good camping spot near and facing the lake. For dinner I had Pre-prepared chicken curry for seven and also 4 packs of savoury chicken flavour rice. Everyone enjoyed the meal as it was nice, warm, and the first decent meal we'd had all day! Me, Chris and Dylan cooked the food. After the meal we washed up and just lazed around until the campfire at 11:00. Each patrol had to do a sketch and we decided to do the song 'There are no bananas in the sky' (don't ask). We then had our pot noodle around 12:00, which was welcomed by all. We got to bed around 12:40. I was woken up at 4am by Kevin shouting and roaring about the tent. I then noticed the almost gale force wind hitting the tent. It had knocked off 3 Guys so the tent was blowing in on us, the loops to keep the sides down had ripped clean off, and the poles were bending. While all the time Chris was in a coma. Kevin and I got no sleep from 4-6am. When it was time to get up Sunday (8:30) we had a quick breakfast and took down the tents. We then took our gear and put it into then van to be brought back to Rathgormack, while we walked down the mountain to get a bus. When we got back we had a go at the climbing wall and also had a mass before heading home at 2 o'clock.

FRIDAY APRIL 20TH

Toker Was Solid As A Rock

Recently crowned All Ireland Hurling Colleges Champions De La Salle, Waterford staged a well-supported fund raising meeting in Kilcohan Park last Friday night. To use the old soccer cliché this fixture was a meeting of two halves with the results going in favour of the punters early on but the pendulum swung in favour of the layers during the latter stages of the session.

In the opening graded 525 Monbeg Rock took over in the lead heading out on to the back stretch but recovering from a moderate break the Willie Robinson owned Willie Drink (Willys Toby-Precelly Flash) 6/4 made eye catching late headway up the fence to come through for a half a length win over Monbeg Rock in 29.28.

We dropped down to the 300-yard trip for race two. The Donal Thompson and Frank Kiely owned and Michael DeLahunty trained Ebony Knight (Roanokee-Lyndell Lady) was sent off at odds of 5/4 and gliding past a fast starting Daisy Top Ebony Knight bounded clear up the home stretch to run out a clear cut seven lengths winner over Time Saver in a decent 16.54.

Despite steering a wide course throughout in race two track newcomer Redmonds Son (Bionic Prospect-Carrighill Lady) 6/4 opened his account for owner Joan Atkinson and trainer Davy Morris. Up with the pace throughout Redmonds Son saw off the back stretch challenge of Star Of Cappagh and despite drifting wide into the home stretch Redmonds Son went on to account for Geneva Treat by two lengths. Time 30.12.

The following three races were semi finals of the Tramore AFC N2/N3 Unraced Stake the final of which is pencilled in for Saturday April 28th.

In the first semi final the Philip Lynch owned Toker Rock (Top Honcho-Kimberleys Pet) the 4/5 favourite impressed all present with a no nonsense 29.02 front running display. Firing himself clear from trap one Toker Rock skipped well clear of Windgap Lucky before running out a facile eleven lengths winner over Rathilla Sarah.

The husband and wife combination of May and Perry Aylward were victorious in the second qualifier courtesy of the 5/4 shot Mays Scul (Droopys Scolari-Dalcash Lefty) this favourite doing the business in 29.73. Jumbos Dream set a hot pace from trap five but when the leader appeared to go wrong on the back stretch Mays Scul forged to the front to run out a length and a half winner over a hampered Gallows Morning.

The third semi final was a grief stricken affair with only three of the runners managing to complete the course. Crystal Annie broke well from trap two but the George Starmer owned Bush Tucker (Royal Impact-Cheese Denise) 2/1 charged into a first bend lead and staying on well up front Bush Tucker went on to account for Crystal Annie by two and a half lengths. Time 30.01.

Trainer Perry Aylward enjoyed his second winner of the session in the seventh contest sending out Karl Evoy's Tango Star to a deserved 29.54 success. With Ja Orr the 4/5 favourite missing the break the early paced Sheffs The Best dashed into a handy lead over Tango Star and Moonveen Jim. Driving into a third bend lead Tango Star 2/1 (Knockeevan Major-Magpie Tango) was soon on his way to winning out eventually defeating Moonveen Jim by three and a half lengths.

Less than half a length separated the first three home in race eight. Eden Molly set the early gallop but she was joined over the final two bends by a slow starting Balybrazil Bond and Lord Shauna. Refusing to wilt under pressure the Breda Kelly owned Eden Molly (Hallas Rocket-Eden Storm) 3/1 battled on tenaciously for a short head win over Balybrazil Bond with Lord Shauna a further head away in third. Time 29.71.

Returning after a short absence the Isobel Copeland Eccles owned and John Nichol's trained Three Spots Off (Droopys Woods-Feels Like Gold) 2/1 returned to winning ways to capture a two-bend dash in 16.58. Dominating from trap rise Three Spots Off could afford the luxury of coming wide into the home stretch before proving two and a half lengths to good for a slow starting 4/6 favourite Glencarra Blue.

In the tenth event the John Long owned and Michael Power trained Builders Butty (Knockeevan Major-Rightful Flash) 3/1 came from off the pace to triumph in a lifetime best 29.19. Ushers Rob made a brave bid to lead all the way leading early on from Classy Queen and Transtown Jack but showing a nice dash of back stretch pace Builders Butty hauled himself right into contention and getting every yard of this four bend trip Builders Butty dashed clear to run out an easy two and a half lengths winner over a slow starting but fast finishing Cloncun-ny Duke 4/1 to 1/1.

The final race of the session produced a 4/1 winner as John O Mahoney's home bred Kilbunny Vieri (Droopys Vieri-Adravilles Honey) defied a four months absence before obliging in 29.09. Taking over in the lead on the back stretch from a fast starting Slipstream Kilbunny Vieri increased his advantage throughout forging clear for a six and a half lengths success over Daisy Pilot

A Battling Display By Oslo

The long established Bohemians Football Club staged a fund raising night in Kilcohan Park last Saturday.

Favourite backers made a positive start to proceedings with victory in the opening four bender going to the Gerry Croke owned Walk With Me (Just The Best-Forest Bird) this even money favourite shedding his maiden tag in a hot 28.75. A well drawn Cactus Vieri cut out the early running from trap one but Walk With Me was always on the premises and dashing into the lead halfway down the back stretch Walk With Me skipped well clear in the closing stages crossing the winning line with six lengths to spare over Cactus Vieri.

After seeing off the early challenge of Black Wok in race two the rails running Cotts Lady appeared in control of matters but coming with a sustained run from the rear of the field the JJ Scully owned Cotterstown (Larkhill Jo-Pet Shop Honcho) 3/1 finished with a rattle on the wide outside to come through for a well deserved length and a half win over Cotts Lady. Time 29.24.

The Laos Davies owned and bred Almost Lethal (Droopys Vieri-Almost Deadly) finished full of running in the third contest to win out at odds of 3/1 in 29.29. The relative novice Eden Scholes led throughout from Nans Swallow and Generic Joe but making rapid late headway on the outside Almost Lethal timed her winning run to perfection to short head Nans Swallow.

The S.K.T. syndicate are certainly knocking great fun out of their March 2004 whelp Tinrah Jo and this son of Teds Jo and Doctor Tinrah produced a battling performance to capture a two-bend sprint in a lively 16.37. Pushed throughout by Sophies Pride Tinrah Jo 4/1 responded in positive fashion easing his way to the front in the home stretch to triumph by a length.

The punters rowed in with the Lotte Orum owned Greyfarm

Cross (Jamella Prince-Miss Muggins) in the fifth event and this 5/4 chance rewarded his supporters with a pillar to post 29.18 victory. Daveys Gap was in close attendance throughout but the long striding Greyfarm Cross kept finding more in front to run out a length winner.

Sleepy Jenny and May Consider shared favouritism at 7/4 in the sixth contest and they duly filled the first two places home. The Mary Duggan owned Sleepy Jen made the better start from a middle draw and this proved the deciding factor with Sleepy Jen (Droopys Scholes-Make That Call) doing the business in a fast 28.80. May Consider tried hard in second place but Sleepy Jen kept on well in the lead to triumph by four and a half lengths.

The bould Willie Robinson from Wexford struck twice during the night with victory for his Willies Lad 2/1 and Willies Flash 4/1. Willies Lad (Droopys Scholes-Pipers Sally) lay a moderate third throughout race seven as Ankle Basher made a brave bid to make all the running from Avalon Princess but producing a fine burst of finishing speed Willies Lad stayed on strongly in the final quarter of this contest to outstay Ankle Basher by a length and a half in 28.96.

In complete contrast Willies Flash (Willys Toby-Precelly Flash) running as a reserve from trap four in race nine made the best possible start to run riot over the opposition in 28.84. The opposition only ever had a rear view of Willies Flash as he bounded clear of Lord Jo and Barro Boy before eventually accounting for a running on Dan Feeder by a facile seven lengths.

Trainer Peter Cronin rarely leaves this venue without a winner or two or three and he was on the mark courtesy of the G Renilson owned Jethart Storm (Droopys Vieri-Jackies Lady) 6/4 and Liam Walsh's Oslo (Larkhill Jo-Noan Hope) 4/1. Jethart Storm didn't enjoy the clearest of runs to the first bend in race eight but he did manage to work himself into a challenging position behind Chloes Bandit and Kuda Flash. Switching his challenge to the outside Jethart Storm pounced up the home stretch to deny Kuda Flash by a length in 28.94.

In the tenth contest Oslo did well to hold his position on the run to the first bend and getting the better of a back stretch duel with Montos Runaway Oslo made the long dash for home and despite a staying run by Willies Prince from the rear of the field a determined Oslo went on to triumph by three and a half lengths in a best of night 28.61.

In the concluding 550-yard contest the front running pair of Cailin Liath and Deckos Dazzler hampered each other at the first turn. The Matthew Brazil owned 5/1 outsider Cassies Pride (Jamella Tiger-Monmahogue Rose) was left in the clear from Barro Breeze at that point and despite a late charge by the latter Cassies Pride held firm to post a short head win in 30.69.

GER WYLEY SPORTS/NIKE SUMMER SERIES — RACE 1: MARINE BAR 6 MILE

Sandis Retains The Crown

On a perfect night for running the first race in this years Ger Wyley Sports/Nike Summer Series got under way last Friday night with the Marine Bar sponsored 15th Annual Marine Climb over 6 miles. The series for 2007 could not have got off to a better start with a record field of 188 finishers conquering the Marine Hill.

The series, which is the only one of its kind in the country has flourished over the intervening years and now on reaching its 13th year the club and sponsors are delighted that it can still attract a record field for one of the most difficult but also one of the most challenging runs in the ten race summer programme the Marine Climb.

The race was got under way from its traditional Lookout starting point by race sponsor Christy O'Neill along with his daughter Muireann and we thank them both for coming along to the start to lend their support to the runners for the task ahead.

The race itself was really decided over the first 400 metres as West Waterford's Sandis Bralitis got his summer series campaign off to the ideal start as he strives to retain his overall victory from 2006.

The Latvian national raced into a lead from the off which no other athlete could match, a lead which was to increase as the race passed through the mile markers along the old Cork road to the finish at the Marine Bar.

Retaining his title as king of the hill from last year's race, Sandis broke the winners tape in a time of 32.40, finishing also a minute and a half ahead of the second placed athlete again running with West Waterford's Raivis Zakis 34.08 who improved his finishing position having finished 4th in last years race. The West Waterford AC dominance of the mens top positions was complete when recent winner of the Colligan Hill League, Seán Stilwell (35.09), ran a super race to claim third place after a great battle with former Marine race winner well known St. Joseph's athlete Peter Duggan who had to settle for fourth this year in a time of 35.17.

First over 40 was Youghal A.C. athlete Noel Curtin 37.25 finishing a good 7th overall.

The over 45 prize went to Larry Kennedy, Waterford A.C. 37.19 and the over 50 winner was West Waterford's Joe Gough 40.04 who was winning this title for the third year in a row. Another West Waterford athlete Con Kelleher took the over 55 win in 45.13. Great to see Con back from his recent injury worries.

In the team handicap categories it was the team of Philip Harty, Brendan Cronin, Kenneth O'Donnell, Sylvia Malone and Pat Tutty finishing with 315 points taking first place from the team of Jack Duggan, Tim Twomey, Gordan Giles, Mags Power and Michael Leechmore who finished second with 339 points and third were Billy Maguire, Andy Dollard, Tomás Coleman, Frank Fahy and Tom Halley 367 points.

A superb number of 113 West Waterford runners completed the race this year. Well done to all.

Sinead Crotty A Rising Star

West Waterford's Sinead Crotty the current Munster Novice Road champion broke the Jackie Carty four-year dominance of this race last Friday evening with a superb tactical performance. Sinead one of the club's present young rising stars is improving with every outing and apart from her success at the Munster Road Championships in Dundrum some weeks ago, last Friday evening was her best result ever on the road racing scene. She brings a new freshness to our ladies senior club and along with our more established athletes they will bring many honours to the club in the future.

The ladies race was a three way battle this year and from the gun Waterford's Maria Griffin sailed into a substantial lead with Jackie Carty some 200 metres behind at the one mile mark with Sinead on her shoulder, by mile three the hot early paced began to tell on the Waterford athlete and she was joined by Carty and Crotty.

Shortly after catching Maria, Sinead and Jackie drew clear and it was between the reigning champion of the last four years and the young pretender, still locked together as they tackled a very steep section of the hill Sinead made a decisive move that was to claim her the victory. A very well timed and decisive increase in pace which could not be matched by the Wexford lady drew the West Waterford athlete away and Sinead broke the tape in 40.13 finishing 26th overall in the field of 188 runners. Jackie came home 26 seconds behind in 40.39. The early leader Maria Griffin held on gamely to claim third place and the over 35 category with a time of 40.59 and the third senior ladies prize was claimed by West Waterford's Norma Wall 42.42. Norma will be pleased with her run last Friday evening and she will figure high up the pecking order as we settle into this years summer series.

Anne Whelan, West Waterford A.C., recorded a good win in the over 40 category in a time of 45.52, Ann certainly is making an impact in this category and is rarely outside of the winners enclosure. Ann Fitzgerald, Waterford AC was first over 45 in 46.08. Hillary Collins, Tipperary, was first over 50 with a time of 53 minutes. Another breath of fresh air was the junior ladies win of West Waterford's Stacey Lyons in 51.29. Dad Colin will be well pleased with Stacey's winning Performance here.

Congratulations to all the clubs ladies who numbered many for taking on the challenge of the Marine Climb for many its as much about getting to the top as it is about the finishing position or time, so well done to all.

He is the first and only the West Waterford club athlete to ever take an individual medal at this particular championship. The race itself was won by the inform Alan O'Shea of Bantry and pre race favourite and twice winner in 2005 and 2006 Paul McNamara was denied his hattrick having to settle for third place and the Bronze medal.

Dzinters Klava was well pleased also with his performance when finishing in the top 20.

Splendid Second Place For Raivis In Castlemartyr 4 Mile

The country's inform road-running athlete Bantry's Alan O'Shea was never challenged at last Thursday's 22nd Annual Castlemartyr 4 mile road race. He came home a clear winner with a time of 19.36. From a West Waterford point of view it was a very good performance from Raivis Zakis the club's sole representative at the race. There was a real ding-dong battle for the runners up spot with four athletes in the mix. With 500 metres remaining to the finish line the five were still locked together. Raivis then made the decisive break which saw him hold on for second with a time of 20.22, just two seconds ahead of East Cork's James McCarthy 20.24 who just piped Wieslaw Sosnowski, Eagle A.C., by just one second 20.25. Seán McGrath was fifth in 20.29. An excellent run from Raivis who is coming into good from again at the start of the summer road racing season.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to local runners Alan Dalton and Aisling Bannon on the occasion of their marriage last week. Best wishes to you both.

West Waterford A.C.'s Conor Murray Performs Well In London Marathon

West Waterford's Conor Murray was the club's sole representative at last Sunday's London Marathon, keeping the club's long tradition intact of having athletes taking part in this premier Marathon event. On one of the hottest London Marathon days in the history of the race it was a case of survival to the line for many with even the mighty falling by the way side when one such Heile Gebrselassie pulled up at the 30 k mark. Conor prepared well for this his first London attempt and said after, like many he also was glad to reach the finish line with athletes falling by the way side every step of the final 3 or 4 miles.

This year's winner was Martin Lel (Ken) who regained the Flora London Marathon title showing that the 26.2-mile distance can be as much about speed as it is endurance. Lel won in 2:07:41, three seconds ahead of Abderrahim Goumri (Mar) with last year's champion, Felix Limo (Ken), third in 2:07:44.

David Bedford, the Race Director of the Flora London Marathon, had assembled the best men's field in history and the event did not disappoint. It was close from the beginning until the last stages when four men were left challenging in Birdcage Walk, bringing the marathon down to the sort of sprint you might expect on a track race.

In the hot conditions, there was never going to be the chance of an attempt at the world record of 2:04:55 held by Paul Tergat (Ken).

Tergat, double world champion Jaouad Gharib (Mar) and Stefano Baldini (Ita), the Olympic champion, were among the elite athletes which not only made this race such a fantastic prospect but left it so tough to call as to whom might win. Three men pacemakers were assigned to reach the halfway point in 62:45 and Paul Kimugul (Ken), Wilfred Taragon (Ken) and Patrick Makau (Ken) led a field of 14 for the opening miles, taking them through in 4:56, 4:59, 4:39 as the men headed towards the 5km mark with Limo being the first of the group, there was just 0.02 between Baldini, in 10th position and him at this stage, but it was not to prove an afternoon to remember for the Italian because he was out of contention within another 5km. Over the next couple of miles the lead pack was reduced to six: Lel, Limo, Gharib, Goumri, Tergat and Ramaala. It quickly was reduced to five when Tergat dropped away and then as the runners left Big Ben behind them, it was down to four when Ramaala slipped out of contention. Who would triumph? It was still not possible to tell, but as the quartet turned into the final 200m, Lel kicked on and though Goumri went with him, he was never going to catch the winner Lel.

In the Ladies race Chunxiu Zhou became the first Chinese athlete to win the Flora London Marathon with a run of meticulous timing when, 16 months before the Olympic Games in Beijing, she demonstrated that the sport has a new superstar. Wearing a white peaked-cap to protect herself from temperatures which rose to 24 at midday, Zhou was the one athlete who never looked troubled during a fascinating and gripping race. Zhou, 28, won in 2:20:38, having taken control after 22 miles. As the runners made their way towards The Mall, Zhou broke away from Gete Wami (Eth) and from then on there was only one outcome. Wami was second in 2:21:45 with Constantina Tomescu-Dita (Rom) overcoming a setback at halfway to finish third in 2:23:55. Another super London Marathon event which will be remembered by many for the heat on the day as much as the race itself.

Waterford & Tramore Racecourse Jumps Another Hurdle

Following the withdrawal of an objection to An Bord Pleanála, the board and shareholders of Waterford & Tramore Racecourse can now look forward to the proposed relocation of their racecourse to a new site at Lisselan.

Following further negotiations with the Racecourse Company, Jeff & Anne Blanche now satisfied that the additional conditions agreed with the Company re. the proposed development will satisfy their concerns and allay any fears that they had.

"For a development of this scale, that is so vital to the upgrading of horse racing facilities in the South East, it was important that all local concerns were addressed" said Racecourse Manager Sue Phelan "Jeff & Anne Blanche have been most helpful since we started our negotiations and have greatly assisted us with the drainage plans that we propose."

The relocation has a tentative late-2008 completion target whilst the existing racecourse at Graun Hill was recently rezoned for a mixture of residential & commercial/retail use as part of the Tramore Local Area Plan 2007-2013.

TOURANEENA RACQUETBALL CLUB NOTES

Touraneena Win Aisling Hynes Trophy

The 8th Irish Junior Open was held in Fermoy and Conna over the weekend and what a weekend it turned out for the club. Over 80 players were battling it out for the 10 titles on offer. The age groups started at Under 9 and went up with the uneven ages as far as Under 17. The weekend produced some top quality racquetball matches that were a joy to watch for both the quality of the play and the level of excellent sportsmanship shown by young players of our game.

Again the number of players, parents and supporters that travelled to the Blackwater side town was brilliant to see and it was even better to see every one of them dressed in their club gear. All the new gear looked hugely impressive on the players while the sea of blue and white in the spectator areas was also brilliant to see.

This tournament was the last junior event of the 06/07 season, a season that was a spectacular success for the Touraneena Club. Already we finished as the club with the most All Ireland Junior Championships won, we won the most Club Championship titles, we had the most players on the International junior team, we have the most players on the Senior International title, we now have the most Junior Open titles this season while the season was finished off brilliantly when it was announced that we had won the Aisling Hynes Trophy which is the club that wins the major team event at the Irish Junior Open each year. It certainly is an impressive array of achievements by a hugely dedicated bunch of players. Altogether it is a massive team effort from the players to the coaches, to the parents and supporters, to the club officers and to our various sponsors. It would not be possible to achieve such sporting heights if we were missing any of the links in the chain.

3 individual titles returned home to the Deise County. In the Under 9 boys, Jack Skehan won his first title at National level following a great victory over Rossmore's Pdraig Carew in the final. Jack is a very strong player for his age and has a huge future in the game if he goes on to fulfil his undoubted potential. Mike Kearns produced his best ever performance at national level and it resulted in him claiming the Under 11 title following a thrilling final encounter against the highly rated Rossmore player, Stephen Quinn. It took a tie-breaker to decide the outcome and after a highly impressive and determined display, it was Mike that clinched the title on an 11-9 scoreline. The Under 13 final was an all Touraneena affair as predicted. Although, he has a total of 3 All Ireland junior titles in his racquetball CV, Eoin Kearns had never won a Junior Open title but that statistic has now also been changed as he proved victorious over his club mate and good friend, Conor Skehan in the final.

Clodagh Kearns went on to win a silver medal in the Under 11 grade while bronze medals were also won by Garvan Dunford (U-17), Gemma Cliffe (U-15) and Dean Cliffe (U-13). Other players to claim valuable points for the victorious club team were Thomas Lonergan (U-15), Aisling Hallinan (U-11), Ronan Gleeson (U-11) and Shane Organ (U-11) and Sean Dalton (U-17).

When the overall results were added up, we had over 20 points to spare over the second placed Templederry team while Rossmore finished in 3rd place. Congratulations to all who were involved with the outstanding success over the weekend.

ITALY BECKONS FOR TOURANEENA TRIO

3 Touraneena players will be part of the Irish Senior Racquetball Team that will compete at the European Championships next July. Triston Hickey will be joined by the Skehan sisters, Julie and Eithne as they head to Brembate in Italy for the week long event.

It's the highest representation that we have had on the senior team and all 3 players deserve great credit for their dedication to the sport which has resulted in them reaping the rewards and getting the honour of representing their country. They are 3 tremendous role models for all the young players in the club and their outstanding achievements will act as a great spur to all the young players to practice hard at their game in time, they may also get the chance of playing for the troy colour at a major racquetball championships.

All involved with the club would like to congratulate the 3 players on their outstanding achievement.

EIOIN AND EITHNE TAKE TOP CLUB AWARDS

The 2006 Player of the Year awards were announced at our presentation night last Friday night and it was no great surprise when Eithne Skehan and Eoin Kearns were named as the top performers during the 06 calendar year.

Eithne had a superb year, winning 6 National titles, 2 Open Doubles titles, numerous Under 18 Open titles and of course she represented her country at the World Championships in Arizona in December.

Eoin also travelled to Arizona where he produced an amazing result of finishing in the top 16 in the World, playing in the 12+under age group. He also won the All Ireland Under 14 titles and was part of the Touraneena team that won the Junior Boys at the National Club Championships. He entered the club record books yet again by becoming the first player to win the title, 3 years in a row. Both players are most worthy winners with a huge list of achievements over the 12 month period. Congratulations to you both.

AISLING AND KEVIN ALSO REWARDED

Aisling Hallinan and Kevin Sheehan were also rewarded for their efforts with the game when they were named as the 2006 Most Improved Club Players. 2 excellent young players that could have a great future in the game. Both proved to be very popular and worthy winners and like Eithne and Eoin, everyone involved with the club would like to congratulate you both.

Dungarvan Golf Club Notes

We've Arrived! In the Top 100

Dungarvan Golf Club has been listed in Golf Digest Ireland's 'Top 100 Courses' in 2007. Our members were absolutely delighted to see us in the company of Fota Island, Little Island and Old Head of Kinsale on our west side, Carlow, Dundrum House and Thurles to the north, and Tramore, Waterford and Rosslare to the east. The list was dominated by seaside courses, with Royal Co Down, venue for the Walker Cup in September, on top. Adare Manor, venue for the Irish Open for the next three years is in third place. Others in the Top 10 ten include Portmarnock, Ballybunion, The K Club and Mount Juliet.

Unlike last year when the Top 100 courses were chosen by the readers of Golf Digest Ireland, this year's list was compiled by a panel representing the Irish Golf Trust, Golfing Union of Ireland, Irish Ladies Golfing Union, Professional Golfers Association (Ireland) and Dermot Gilleece (Editor of Golf Digest). For having us up there in the Top 100 courses (out of 400+), hearty congratulations must go to our Management Committees over the years, but especially to Michael Mernin and his course staff, backed up by the course designers/consultants.

Gents Results: Sun 22nd 18H Stroke, Bank of Ireland Monthly Medal 1st J. Harty (7) 66, 2nd S de Paor (18) 66, Gross D. Williams (1) 73, 3rd J. Moroney (8) 68, 4th P. Morrissey (11) 68, CSS 71

Gents Fixtures: Thurs 26th Ulster Bank Open 18H Singles; Fri 27th Open 18H Singles; Sat 28th 18H Singles; Sun 29th Michael McCarthy Cup - Peugeot Challenge Qualifier.

Ladies Fixtures: Sat. 28th 18H Singles S/ford Matchplay Competitions

The entry sheets for the Lady Belle Singles Matchplay and the O'Connell Cup Fourball are now on display in the locker room. Get your entry in quickly, as the draws will be made by early May. The organizers have said that each round must be played on time; any match unplayed will be decided on the toss of a coin.

Snippets

I've seen it all! Picture the scene in a leading golf club known for its conservatism: the Lady Captain lying on the table in the snooker room having a massage. I'll say no more: details from Emer! I wonder is it golf balls or vampires Mary Fleming is chasing with her garlic recipe! Longest drive at the 18th in the Rose Lanigan Classic? Mary Anne - and she no spring chicken - was up there with the best! Poor Clagga, run off his feet the last two weeks...not used to it he said! There were a few surprise omissions from the JB Carr team as they headed for Waterford on Monday. Well done Junior Cup ladies on winning in the Gold Coast against Mitchelstown; we hope you do well against Youghal at Monkstown this weekend.

Congratulations again to Seamus Power of Ballinamult, who is in his first year of a golf scholarship at East Tennessee State University! This time he won the Atlantic Sun Conference Championship, and helped his team to win the overall title for the first time, beating the University of North Florida by a whopping fourteen strokes. The event was played over three rounds, and Seamus had a hole in one on his way to a 3 under par finish. For those who are following Seamus' progress, he will be in action again in Atlanta, Georgia, from 17th-19th May.

Hard luck juniors in your Fred Daly meeting with West Waterford on Sunday, 4-3 was the result I hear. Thanks to Eoin Stack, Colm O'Hare, Mark O'Keeffe, Colm Kindregan, Jack Leacy, Conor O'Dwyer and Tom Hanrahan.

60.com

Yes, the social afternoon for the golden oldies was a big success again, attracting the usual big crowd on Wednesday. If you admit your age and fit into this bracket we'd love to see you at 2 p.m. for nine holes and some fun. Winner last week was Jackie Fahey (20) with 22 pts. Best Lady Phil Donnelly (24) 18 pts and Best Gent Pat Deasy (10) 20 pts.

50 Somethings

Breda Conway asks if you have reached that golden age? She also wonders why there are not more men. Breda, do you not realize that while you might be a lady of leisure someone must do the work to keep you in the style to which you have become accustomed! Draw for partners is at 2 p.m. on Wednesdays, for nine holes; all over 50s are welcome. Last week was an end of season bash, ending with a lovely meal organized by the same Breda, when she presented the following with their prizes: Mary Fleming, Fr. Flor O'Callaghan, Noel Brennan, Brid Killigrew, Emer O'Kennedy, Tish Baumann, Elayne Kirwin, Bernie Hayes, Maeve Morrissey, Breda Conway and Marianne Mulcahy.

Rose Lanigan Classic

What a success! And what a tribute to the late Rose (nee Doherty) from Thurles, mother of four and wife of Pajo; Rose was known and loved widely, not least by visitors to Dr Mahony's surgery where she was the resident nurse for many years. There was a great buzz around the club from Wednesday, for the greatest classic we've seen for a while. Six hundred played, in teams of four, came from Waterford city and county, Tipperary, Cork and beyond in their droves. The organizing committee of Roger O'Connor, David Walsh, Eamonn Moore, Paddy Kennedy and Dave Mahony can be justly proud of their efforts.

Golfers from the three local clubs rubbed shoulders with many visitors; the response from the business sector through sponsorship was huge, and the sporting community was there in force. It was lovely to see so many Hurling All-Stars - from Tipperary, Waterford, Cork, Clare and Wexford. Our own Mossie Walsh renewed acquaintance with John Doyle, Pat Stakelum, Babs Keating, John Leahy, Aidan Ryan, Declan Carr, Ollie Baker, Joe Deane, Declan Ruth, Martin Quigley and many more. Mary O'Donnell, Waterford Ladies Football All-Star was there, as were two greats from Munster Rugby, Mick Galwey and Anthony Foley.

Golf apart, the visitors enjoyed a lovely meal from our new and very successful catering service. There was a raffle for sporting memorabilia, along with an auction which swelled the coffers. The many representatives of Thurles GC who came all agreed that the Dungarvan committee have set a high standard in running such a memorable classic in memory of Rose. As it will be the Thurles' turn in 2008, Rogie, Big Dave and company will be a hard act to follow. While there were many, many prizes, the top prizewinners were: Ladies: 1st Dungarvan Ladies Club Team; 2nd Pat Flanagan's team. Men's 1st Jackie Lanigan's, 2nd Dungarvan Credit Union, 3rd, Michael Brackett's.

Lotto

Thanks to all who support our weekly lotto, and I hear that members and friends are still buying their Annual Tickets. This week's numbers were 4, 5, 15 and 22, and there was no winner of the jackpot. Next week's Jackpot will be €5,550. The winners of €15 were: Eleanor Slater c/o Eugene; Kevin P. Hall; Brigid Walsh 13, Parklane Drive; J. Power and M. Lynch; Des Baumann.

O2 Masters 2007

CPC OPEN FINAL WEEK

The play offs due to take place next Wednesday in Dundrum so this is the final chance for anyone interested in qualifying and joining the following: Michael Kavanagh, Joe Meade, Tom White, Tom O'Connor, Noel Casey, Freddie Starmer, Brendan O'Brien, Jim Whelan, Tony Condon, Shane Casey, Tom Prendergast, Willie Moore, Jason Wrigley, Mark Maher, Jack Kelly, Alan Landers, Gerry Whelan, Martin Walsh, Wexford, Patrick O'Brien, for the trip to the County Tipperary venue.

TIMESHEETS Lateness and cancellations

Most players in the club prefer to play their competitions early on Sundays but the time sheet will only accommodate so many players which results in some players playing at a later time than they would prefer. This can then be exacerbated by players turning up late for their tee times and delaying the time sheet further. The time on the time sheet is the time you tee off and not the time you check in. In future players not checked in 10 minutes before they are due to tee off may find themselves replaced on the timesheet if other players are available to play. Nobody can be late and things will happen to delay people and we fully understand this but what we are talking about here is people who are persistently late.

Players failing to turn up and not giving due notice to the kiosk should take note of the club rule that states that such players may be banned from putting their names on the time sheets for a number of weeks.

Club to go on line with timesheet

Around the middle of May all members of the GoldCoast will be able to book their times on line. Each player will need to fill in a simple registration form and the club will then activate their account and they will then be able to book into various competitions. Players can book one month in advance. Competitions will open automatically ay 06.00 one calendar month beforehand and will be open for booking. Players can book in one to three players. Players can also cancel their bookings on line. Casual golf can be booked up to 28 days in advance.

New Club Website

This will also be available at approximately the same time if not sooner than when the timesheets go on line. It will have information on all that is happening at the GoldCoast, special events, competitions, etc and will carry the club results each week. We will give the web address shortly.

CLUB CLASSIC

kindly sponsored by Damien Walsh Home Entertainment Installations

Our annual club classic will take place over next weekend. This year we have changed the format slightly to add to the event. There will be two competitions at the same time. The main competition will be a rumble with the best score from the three players to count at all holes. The second competition will be a 'yellow ball' competition. Each player will use the yellow ball to play a hole and it is that score that will count for the yellow ball competition. Player A will use it at the first hole, Player B at the 2nd, Player C at the 3rd, Player A at the 4th etc. Lose the ball or put it out of bounds and you are out of that particular competition. The cost per team is €60.

DUNGARVAN GOLF INTERNATIONAL

This is a three day 2 person team event played over the three local courses, West Waterford, Dungarvan and the GoldCoast and this year it will be held on Tues 12th, Wed. 13th and Thurs 14th June. The event is run in association with Bulmers and Michael Ryan, Saltan Properties.

The cost for the three days golf and entry to the competition is €20. This is an ideal competition for people visiting the area and it is a great way for people to make new friends. The craic at night is mighty. To register please phone Ms. Marie Curran at 058-42870 or mobile 087 2347918

CLUB CLASSIC FIXED FOR WEEKEND IN APRIL

This year the club will hold it's fundraising classic at a much earlier date. It will be held on Friday 27th, Saturday 28th and Sunday 29th April. The format will be slightly different with two competitions going on at the same time. The main competition will be a rumble with one to count at all holes. The second competition will be a yellow ball competition with each player taking it in turn to play the yellow ball. Lose the yellow ball or put it out of bounds and you are out of the yellow ball competition. 3 men or 3 ladies, no mixed teams. Entry is €20 per person with a reduced re-entry fee.

Congratulations to Nicholas and Helena Fitzgerald for winning a prize in the Senior Pairs Classic.

GoldCoast v Cobh in Junior Foursomes

Played in the GoldCoast last Sunday the home team were always under pressure as they had to win all three games as they were beaten in all three matches in the first leg. Deirdre Hannigan and Joan Virgo got off to a great start and won their match on the eleventh hole. Ruth Hannigan and Anne McGrath were also doing very well in their match while the rubber match with Sheila Norris and June Priest was nip and tuck all the way through. However Cobh came through in that match and this resulted in overall victory for our very sporting visitors. We wish them well in the next round. Helena Fitzgerald was very proud of the effort made by her team. Also in attendance were our reserve on the day Teresa Queally and our Lady Captain Fidelma Horsom.

Seamus Shines in Georgia Sun

West Waterford's Seamus Power collected his first collegiate golf win in great style by taking the individual title at the Atlantic Sun Conference Championships at Sanctuary Cove in Waverly, Georgia. After several outstanding performances since he joined East Tennessee State University (ETSU), Seamus made this championship his own with a stunning back-9 of 29, which included a hole-in-one in the second round.

In the final round, Seamus played steady par golf to hold off all challengers, including fellow ETSU Bues player, world number 3 Rhys Davies. More important still, he led his college to victory in the team event, which qualifies them for the prestigious end-of-year NCAA national finals.

This is Seamus' first year in the States, and obviously has settled in very well. He is fast-becoming a household name among the top collegiate golfers in the States. No doubt the members in West Waterford Golf Club, not to mention Ned and the rest of his support team, must be very proud of his exploits state-side!

We all look forward to Seamus' return for the summer, where he will compete in all the major Irish championships, including the Irish Youths which will be played over his home course in June.

SEAMUS POWER SHOOTS THE LIGHTS OUT TO SWEEP THE ATLANTIC SUN MEN'S GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP

Seamus Power captured the Atlantic Sun Men's Golf Championship, and also helped power the No.13 ranked ETSU men's golf team to its record 18th conference title and first ever Atlantic Sun Conference championship on Wednesday afternoon at The Golf Club at Sanctuary Cove USA. Seamus, who enjoyed a hole-in-one during Tuesday's second round, finished at 3 under par 210 (73-67-70) for the tournament, two strokes better than North Florida's Michael O'Neal. Meanwhile, Seamus' ETSU teammates also helped lift the Buccaneers to the team win, as senior Rhys Davies (Bridgend, Wales) posted back-to-back 68s to finish tied for third, while junior Gareth Shaw (Lisburn, Northern Ireland) finished tied for fifth place. The Buccs ended the event with a team score of 16-over-par 868 (307-278-283) to finish 14 strokes better than second place UNF. With the victory, ESTU earns the A-Sun's automatic bid to the NCAA Regionals. "It was a good day and the guys played really well," said head coach Fred Warren, who has directed the Buccs to 13 conference championships in his time at ESTU. "We were able to pull away on the front nine and hold that advantage the rest of the way. We're really proud of Seamus. He played very solid to become the first freshman in our program to win a conference championship." Seamus, who used a 29 on the back nine Tuesday to build his lead, said he had one eye on O'Neal, but also kept his sights on his teammates Davies and Shaw. "Obviously, I was watching the guy in second place, but it was a good competition within our team as well," said Seamus, who collected his first collegiate win. "I'm very happy to have had a couple good days on the course. As a team, all five of us are coming together at the right time." This victory is another major milestone on Seamus' career path and he has certainly found his feet on the other side of the Atlantic in no uncertain terms. All at West Waterford Golf Club are delighted for Seamus, his family and friends.

The "Dungarvan Golf Triangle" effectively, allows you to purchase a ticket that enables you to play each of the three courses, Monday to Friday for the combined price of €80, and in this era of high green fee rates, this represents good value. # HORSE RACING SNIPPETS

BY MARK PHILLIPS

MIGHTY MAN FOR PUNCESTOWN

Trainer Henry Daly confirmed that Mighty Man - rated the best hurdler to have run this season by the Racing Post - is set to line up in the EUR200, 000 Dunboyne Castle Hotel & Spa Champion Stayers Hurdle at Punchestown this coming Thursday. The seven-year-old won the John Smith's Liverpool Hurdle at Aintree recently by an effortless 13 lengths and Daly is looking forward to Punchestown. "I'm very happy with him after Aintree and he'll go to Punchestown. He doesn't want soft ground but that looks unlikely anyway," said Daly. "The official handicapper has put him up 7lb to 172, which doesn't really make any difference as he won't run in a handicap, but you've got to be delighted to have a horse that good. "It will be interesting to see what happens if Hardy Eustace and Al Eile run. They're all good horses and that's what racing's about - running good horses against each other."

SUBLIMITY FOR CHAMPION HURDLE

The Grade 1 ACCBank Champion Hurdle on Friday promises to be one of the races of the 2007 Irish National Hunt Festival and trainer John Carr confirmed that he hopes to run Smurfit Kappa Champion Hurdle winner Sublimity in the EUR200, 000 contest. "I couldn't be happier with him after Cheltenham. He's the champion and I believe he can come out on top again. I might bring him back a bit earlier next season and it will be a light campaign again," said Carr. "Hopefully he can give me my fourth winner at the Punchestown Festival. I had one in 1990 and then Roadmaker won the three-mile handicap hurdle last year and Stutter won the two-mile handicap hurdle the year before." Punchestown's course continues to be watered and Carr added that the seven-year-old would not want the ground to be too fast. "He's an intended runner providing the ground is right for him. We've kept him cantering and doing a bit of work. "I believe they're doing a very good job watering but we'll need a drop of rain as well for him to take his chance as it would have to be on the soft side of good." Trainer Jessica Harrington confirmed that Macs Joy - who finished second on the Flat at the Curragh on Sunday - is set to line up in the ACCBank Champion Hurdle. "Mac's Joy is very much on course for the ACCBank Champion Hurdle. I was delighted with his run at the Curragh - absolutely thrilled with him. He showed that he's come back fine after missing Cheltenham and he's very good in himself," said Harrington. "He loves good ground and it would be absolutely brilliant if he could repeat last year's win. Barry (Geraghty) will ride him as always."

CORK ALL STAR AND GEMINI LUCY IN GREAT FORM

Cork All Star, winner of Cheltenham's Weatherbys Champion Bumper in March, is set to bid for a fifth successive victory in the Grade 1 Paddy Power Champion INH Flat Race at Punchestown on Wednesday. "Cork All Star has pleased me since Cheltenham and will go in the Bumper. He's looking to maintain his unbeaten record and is in very good form," said trainer Jessica Harrington. "He's won on firm ground so there are no ground provisos with him." Meanwhile, the mare Gemini Lucy, a 17-length handicap chase winner at Fairyhouse on April 10, is to step up to Grade 1 company for the Swordlestown Cup Novice Chase on Thursday. "I'm very happy with Gemini Lucy after Fairyhouse so she will head to the Swordlestown Cup. Andrew Leigh will ride her."

GOOD GOING AT FESTIVAL

Richie Galway, Punchestown's Racing Manager, said: "The ground is currently good on the chase and hurdle tracks following extensive watering since last week. "Over 1.5 million gallons of water have already been applied to the track and watering will continue to maintain good ground in advance and throughout the Festival. We are very conscious that the ground needs to be good safe jumping ground over the four days and we will ensure that is the case."

AINTREE TO STAGE BUMPER

Aintree Racecourse, which had to abandon the last race on Grand National day, will stage a replacement worth £30,000 at its evening fixture on Friday, May 18. The contest will have the same title, the John Smith's Champion Standard Open National Hunt Flat Race, thanks to continued support from the Grand National sponsor John Smith's as well as the Levy Board. The original race, due to be run as the seventh race on Grand National day, Saturday, April 14, was abandoned because Graphic Approach, who ran in the big race, was still being treated on the course. Graphic Approach, who was subsequently taken to the Philip Leverhulme Equine Hospital at Leahurst for further assessment, is on the way to a full recovery.

Charles Barnett, Aintree Racecourse's managing director, commented: "The welfare of the horse is always our number one priority and the abandonment of the last race on April 14 was the right decision. "We apologised at the time to the owners and trainers who had horses in the abandoned event and have been working hard since to stage a replacement at Aintree's next fixture on May 18. "This has now been agreed and we want to give connections of horses as much notice as possible of the replacement race which I am sure will be well supported."

The John Smith's Champion Standard Open National Hunt Flat Race (8.55pm) is additional to the scheduled programme on May 18, meaning there will now be seven races during the evening, with the first off at the earlier time of 5.35pm.

The conditions of the race are similar to the original, although it will not carry Grade Two status and the penalty structure has changed, with a winner of a National Hunt Flat race or an Irish NH Flat race carrying 4lb extra or two or more such races 7lb extra.

DUNGARVAN TYRE CENTRE CUP FINAL PREVIEW

Brideview Looking For Cup Final Glory

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS

On behalf of the W.W.E.C. Junior League I would like to congratulate both Valley Rangers and Brideview on reaching this year's Cup Final.

Both teams have a long association with this league and have been in many Cup finals down through the years. We look forward to a good sporting game of football which both sides are noted for.

This game is hosted by Mod-eligo F.C. and is an ideal venue for a Cup Final with a wonderful playing surface and facilities. The Cup is sponsored by Philip Flynn, Dungarvan Tyre Centre and we thank Philip for his continued sponsorship.

I would like to wish the best to referee Tony Horgan, his assistants Paul Brennan and Tom Griffin. We look forward to Saturday evening and the great game of football that we know these two teams are capable of producing and I wish both managers the very best.

— Michael O'Neill, Chairman.

The Brideview United panel who are looking forward to the Dungarvan Tyre Centre Cup final on Saturday against Valley Rangers.

Brideview Utd was founded in May 1972 and the club spent its formative years in the Cork AUL progressing from the 3rd Division to Premier Division with their highlight coming in 82/83 season beating Mallow Utd in the County Cup. Trips to Skibbereen and other places in West Cork began to take its toll on the club and in the 84/85 season they pulled out of the league and stayed a year in the wilderness before joining the Red House League in the 86/87 season. The eighties and nineties were fruitful years for the club picking up many leagues and cups and in the latter stages of the nineties came the club's development off the field. With the purchase of our playing field and installation of changing rooms, all weather pitch and lately the addition of floodlighting, our club can boast some of the best facilities in junior soccer.

On Saturday 28th of April we head into our 21st Cup Final under the auspices of the W.W.E.C. League when we take on local rivals Valley Rangers from Conna. We have had many encounters with the Conna side over the years and our first competitive match with them took place on the 6th of December 1987 the game ending in a draw. Valley failed to beat United throughout the eighties and nineties managing only 5 draws with Brideview winning the other 21 games.

Their breakthrough came on the 30th of January 2000 when they won 4-0 and from the turn of the century they have had the better of things winning 12 to United's 5 with three games ending as draws.

So when Saturday comes history will mean nothing and it will be up to the people on the pitch to make their own history.

Best of luck to Brideview United from

Valley Rgs Hoping To Complete The Double

VALLEY CLUB HISTORY

Valley Rangers was formed in the early 1980's. Valley Rangers won their one and only first division title in the 1982-83 season. Valley have contested many Cup finals over the years and not having any luck at all it seems to be always the Bridesmaids and never the Bride. Valley are a club with much under age success and many of the Valley team today have progressed from those underage teams. Valley Rangers have two junior teams playing in WVEC league. Valley Rangers had four players on the WVEC U-15 team that were beaten narrowly in the final in Italy. Hopefully these players can bring their success on to the playing fields for Valley Rangers.

A special thanks here to Margaret Walsh who is putting in great work and without her there would be no Valley Rangers underage teams.

Valley Rangers Profiles

- Shane Fitzgerald - Goalkeeper
 Fitz has been Valley's No 1 Keeper for a long time. Has produced some vital saves at vital times in this cup run. Very quiet and rarely gets onto his back four.
- Alan Carr - Right Back
 Alan has had a very consistent year at right back and can play centre half too when called upon. Always seems to be in the right place at the right time.
- James Casey - Right Back
 James is a very strong and "No Nonsense" right back. Started off the year very well but then went missing for a few months.
- Seamus Hogan - Left Back
 Seamus has played mostly at left back this season and even though he is right footed, he can slot in at left back or anywhere in midfield as well. One of the best defenders in the squad.
- Paudie Noonan - Left Back
 Started off season up front and scored and made a few assists. Subsequently converted into a left back where he has defended well and also got forward when required. Bit of a ball player at the back which quite often gives the rest of the team heart attacks. Had trials in England when younger and before he lost his fitness!
- Brendan Hickey - Centre Half
 Has been a rock at the heart of Valley's defence all season, even winning some towering headers. Captain of Valley and deservedly so.
- Paul Donovan - Centre Half
 Last season's player of the season....not too shy to remind everyone of that fact. A tower of strength at the back and is cool under pressure. Went missing halfway through the season with an 'injury' but has made a miraculous recovery.

- Sean Twomey - Centre Half
 Can play at centre half or midfield. When in midfield, he plays the 'holding' midfielder in his own unique way. Has been a rock in this Valley team. His free kicks are always a danger. Always first on the teamsheet.
- Damien Farrell - Left Midfield
 Dan has got a sweet left foot and is always full of running down the left wing. Has scored vital goals this season and made plenty of assists. Has a fantastic workrate too.
- Billy Carr - Centre Midfield
 Injured at start of year but has come back. When given the license Billy loves to get forward and has scored some great goals this season. Sometimes he needs a kick up the backside to get him going but has had an excellent season.
- Ed Kenneally - Centre Midfield
 Has been excellent throughout the year and never has a bad game. Covers more ground and makes more tackles than anyone else on the pitch. Has also scored some crucial goals this year. Dying to get new pair of boots.
- Jim Lane - Centre Midfield
 Jim has been with the squad for a long time now along with Hickey and Twomey. Jim has played left back and right back this season but probably has not played as much as he would like. Still when he has played he has been quality. Just unlucky that there is such strength in this position, as he would walk onto any other team.
- Ritchy Connell - Right Midfield
 This is Ritchy's first season with the team and he has played mostly down the right wing. He is a very exciting player and full of tricks and puts in great crosses... when he can get out of bed of course....
- Aidan Hogan - Right Midfield
 Aidan was a huge addition to the squad upon returning from Oz. Can play on the right or in the middle. Quality player who had trials in England.
- John Carr - Striker
 John has been a valuable member of the squad this year. He has scored some vital goals at vital times. Can also play on the right.
- Shane Kearney - Striker
 First year back with Valley after a long stint away. Has struck up a good relationship with striker partner Rumley.
- Terence Rumley - Striker
 A goal machine. Can score a goal from almost nothing. Likely to miss one or two also but will score more often than not. Work rate has also improved this season.
- Derry O'Leary - Mascot
 Where would Valley be without Derry. Well, there would not be a Valley Rangers. Plain and simple. "What that man don't know about football.....tis not worth knowing"....

West Waterford/East Cork Junior League

Valley Rgs Are League Champions

Congratulations to Valley Rgs on winning the Mari Mina Premier Division of the WWEC on Sunday morning last at Conna when they defeated Accrington Celtic by the only goal of the game and leapfrogged league leaders Mogeely who were losing the local derby at Inch. What an occasion for Valley who have not won the league since 1982/83 season. At the other end of the table Lismore easily defeated Kihworth and both must now play off for the right to stay in the Premier next season. Blackwater put all the ghosts of losing finals behind them when they defeated the Valley 2nd string in the Liam Fitzgerald Cup final at Inch.

Blackwater Win Cup Final

BLACKWATER 2
VALLEY RANGES (B) 0

Having suffered defeat in two finals in the past 12 months, Blackwater at last won a final when defeating Valley Rangers (B) in the Liam Fitzgerald Cup Final, sponsored by Bertie O'Mahony Fitted Furniture Killeagh, at the excellent Inch ground on Sunday afternoon last.

With the ground in excellent condition and played before a large crowd, Blackwater made their intentions known from the kick off, as they attacked the Valley rearguard and as early as the 8th minute Garry Ronayne fired over the bar from a Camen Rdley cross. Man of the match Andrew Murphy saw his effort well saved by Valley keeper Paul Hayes, before the Cork side had their first real attack with Dave Walsh shooting wide.

On 22 mins. the opening goal came when from a corner kick Camen Radley headed home to give Blackwater a well deserved lead, and shortly before the break they should have doubled the score when Murphy fired over the bar.

The 2nd half started as the opening half finished with Blackwater on the attack and after just two minutes Camen Radley scored again when a wonderful cross from Franny Cotter was headed to the net by Radley.

For the next 25 mins. the Blackwater midfield was in total control with Murphy outstanding and the Waterford side guilty of many missed chances.

Valley were unable to break the midfield dominance and it was only in the final 10 mins. they got into the opponents penalty area, and had a chance to pull a goal back when a marvellous move saw Padraig O'Connor head back across goal only for Diarmuid Hogan put his effort over the bar. A corner in injury time saw the Blackwater defence hold firm and when Eamonn Cusack blew full time the Blackwater players and supporters at long last enjoyed the fruits of a cup final success.

As we wrote our man of the match was Blackwater's Andrew Murphy who was magnificent at midfield and dangerous when going forward. Up front the long seving Camen Radley scored the two goals and both headers. Over all Blackwater were on top in all departments, especially in defence where Cullinane, Healy and Cotter were excellent.

Valley on the day were not strong enough for a very committed Blackwater. Riordan Kenneally, Caplice O'Connor and the Carr's tried hard but over all the better team on the day won.

Blackwater—P Donovan, Fcotter, G Ronayne, J Healy, J Radley, J Tobin, R Halpin, A Murphy, K Cotter, C Radley. Subs, S Cotter, A Ronayne, J Radley, D Cotter.

Valley Rangers—P Hayes, D Walsh, P Riordan, P Kenneally, A McCarhy, D Caplice, P O'Connor, P Flynn, D Hogan, A Carr, R

Carr. Subs, K Cotter, D Leahy, L O Connor.

Referee E Cusack, assistants, P Marks and T Griffin.

After the game League chairman Ml O Neill thanked both teams for a very sporting final and congratulated the winners on at last winning a cup final. He congratulated the Valley Club on winning the league that morning.

Ml thanked Inch for hosting the final, the referee and his assistants and a special thanks to Bertie O'Mahony for sponsoring the competition honouring the late Liam Fitzgerald of Killeagh who was such a wonderful committee member of the league.

Liam's daughter Linda presented the cup to the Blackwater captain Kieran Cotter who suitably replied.

On our own behalf we congratulate both sides for a very sporting final well refereed by Eamonn Cusack and commiserate with Valley, who on the day were beaten by the better team. We congratulate Blackwater on winning a final at long last after so many disappointments through the years. A special word of praise to the management team of Brendan O'Connell and Mike Ware.

Waterford Hurlers Team Up With SpringBoost

Swiss athletic footwear manufacturer, Springboost, in association with Ger Wyley Sports in Dungarvan has teamed up with the Waterford hurling team to supply performance training shoes to intercounty players and coaches. Through its national network of retailers Springboost has launched a grassroots effort to reach more county teams and GAA clubs throughout 2007. Springboost shoes are available from Ger Wyley Sports in Dungarvan and other leading sports shops nationwide.

"SpringBoost is leading a new wave of footwear technology and we are pleased to be able to offer this innovative product to our County players, said Physical trainer Gerry Fitzpatrick. "We are excited to partner with SpringBoost and are anticipating our athletes getting more out of their training with faster results." According to Trevor Giles, physiotherapist & former GAA All Star, "Injuries caused by prolonged training and running exercises can be reduced by wearing Springboost', which specifically caters for alleviating pressure on lower limb joints".

SpringBoost successfully introduced the SpringBoost B-Train, an athletic shoe for intensive workouts and performance training, to the worldwide athletic community in summer 2006 as a sponsor of the Triathlon World Championship in Lausanne, Switzerland 2006.

"Springboost is very pleased to become the official performance training shoe of the Waterford hurling team," said Declan Duffy, Managing director of Pacelli Sports, the sole distributor of Springboost in Ireland. "At Springboost we take training and competition seriously, which is why we have developed the B-Train training shoe, used by the Waterford Hurling team and other GAA clubs nationwide, allowing them to adjust the intensity of their workout. We are very excited to have received such an enthusiastic response from intercounty players and their management team."

The technology of the SpringBoost shoes is based on the biomechanical principles of dorsiflexion and years of research. The Dorsiflexion Technology™ lowers the heel position in the shoe which leads to health, training and performance advantages. This stretching firms legs and buttocks, resulting in more strength and stability. Dorsiflexion helps users attain correct posture naturally, while relieving ankles and lower back. It also strengthens core muscles and improves circulation in the legs. Thanks to the interchangeable insoles of the U-Control Insole System™, dorsiflexion lets athletes adapt the intensity of their performance training to their particular physical constitution and performance goals.

About SpringBoost

SpringBoost is an innovative manufacturer of performance athletic footwear. Its Dorsiflexion Technology™ is based on the biomechanical principles of dorsiflexion and multiple scientific studies. Core to the company's technology, the heel position is lower than the forefoot in the shoe. SpringBoost's R&D department is committed to meeting the specific requirements of selected sport disciplines in order to enhance athletic performance. Since its launch in the spring of 2003 SpringBoost has been helping active people and athletes attain better results by more efficient performance training.

Waterford and Kilkenny Clash In Allianz Hurling League Final At Thurles

Kilkenny Are Strong Favourites But Deise Are There With A Chance

Judging by the predictions being made about this mouth-watering clash at redeveloped Semple Stadium on Sunday next, it is obvious that no one is getting carried away with our display against Cork at the same venue in the semi-final 10 days ago.

In the immediate aftermath of the Cork match there was understandable euphoria and here and there we heard wild predictions about how we were going to manage the reigning All-Ireland and national league champions, Kilkenny in the final.

However over the past week caution seems to be the main element of all the comments and there is a general acknowledgement that we are the clear outsiders who are facing a mighty challenge. It will be seen to our advantage that common sense is taking over and we are beginning to see things in perspective.

The reigning All-Ireland and league champions Kilkenny are presently the best hurling team in the country and it is going to take a mighty effort to topple them in our first ever meeting in a league final.

The role of outsiders will certainly suit Waterford and research will show that we performed best and have achieved more when our opponents were listed as favourites. Our record against Kilkenny is so poor that they will automatically be installed as favourites when our counties are in opposition.

Some of the media reckoned that the Wexford display was so half hearted on last Sunday week, that Kilkenny were flattered by their winning margin.

I agree with the many people who believe that had Kilkenny been playing Cork things would have been very different. I also believe that while acknowledging Kilkenny's power and their high standard, that we might be inclined to overrate them. They are going to be difficult to beat but by no means are they unbeatable. I firmly believe that a lot will depend on our attitude and our focus from the throw-in. We cannot allow Kilkenny the latitude that we gave Cork during phases of the semi-final when some of their players were allowed to roam freely and unchallenged on occasions. This is clearly shown on the video.

Having said all this, I firmly believe that we are playing our very best hurling in a long time and with splendid defensive play and all six forwards capable of scoring, that we are capable of winning. Seventy minutes of commitment and non-stop concentration on the game is the recipe that can bring us success.

The team to be announced on this evening or on Thursday is unlikely to show changes in personnel but placings are another matter so the actual line out will keep patrons guessing as always.

Clinton Hennessey is in super form in goal, cool and confident the Ardmore man continues to inspire confidence in the defence. Man of the match in the semi-final, Declan Prendergast at full back with Eoin

Murphy and James Murray on either side and mighty Ken McGrath having wingers of the quality of Tony Browne and Aiden Kearney in the half-line go to form a bastion that even the great Richie Power, Eddie Brennan, Aiden Fogarty and Martin Comerford will find difficult to breach.

Willie Dwyer and David Lyng are seasoned campaigners but can find Waterford team captain Michael Walsh and Stephen Molumphy very difficult to handle.

As will be read elsewhere all our six forwards have shared in the scoring so far and if Seamus Prendergast, Eoin Kelly, Dan Shanahan, John Mullane, Shane Walsh and Jack Kennedy are caught 'on fire' from an early stage the much vaunted Kilkenny defence can have problems that they had not bargained for.

Many people are beginning to wonder about the recall of Paul Flynn and at what stage of the season will the Ballygunner ace be fully fit and ready to take his place on the first fifteen? His two appearances for brief periods in recent games would seem to indicate that he is nearly fit. I would not rule out seeing him called on at some stage on Sunday.

I understand also that there is a distinct possibility that the great Henry Shefflin may take his place on the first fifteen for the 'Cats' on Sunday also. He is expected to be back from his honeymoon.

No Booking

A crowd in the region of 30,000 is expected at the venue and this is under 60% of the capacity, so pre-booking is not on. This means that patrons who arrive early will get the

SCORING COMPARISONS

To date in the league Kilkenny have scored a total of 9 goals and 111 points and they have conceded 7 goals and 74 points, they have played one game less than Waterford.

Waterford on the other hand have scored a total of 8 goals and 133 points and a total of 5 goals and 97 points have been scored against them. It is interesting in this context to record that their respective scoring averages are Kilkenny 1-34 and Waterford 1-35. It should be remembered of course that the opposition was different in both cases.

County Board chairman Pat Flynn, has appealed to Waterford supporters to travel in strength and to wear the traditional Deise emblems

The Statistics A Comparison!

Kilkenny have played in 22 National League finals and have won 13

Waterford have played in 4 finals and have won just one (home finals)

1938 Dublin 1-8 Waterford 1-4,

1958/59 Tipperary 0-15 Waterford 0-7.

1960/61 Tipperary 6-6 Waterford 4-9.

1962/63 Waterford 2-15 Tipperary 4-7.

1998 Cork 2-14 Waterford 0-12.

2004 Galway 2-15 Waterford 1-13.

An amazing feature of Kilkenny's record is that they have won 11 of their 13 national league titles since we won our first and last in 1962/63.

And in another context it is interesting to note that in 1959 after Waterford defeated Kilkenny in a replay of the All-Ireland final, they have since gone on to win an amazing 15 All-Irelands while we have won none since '59. These records tell their own story.

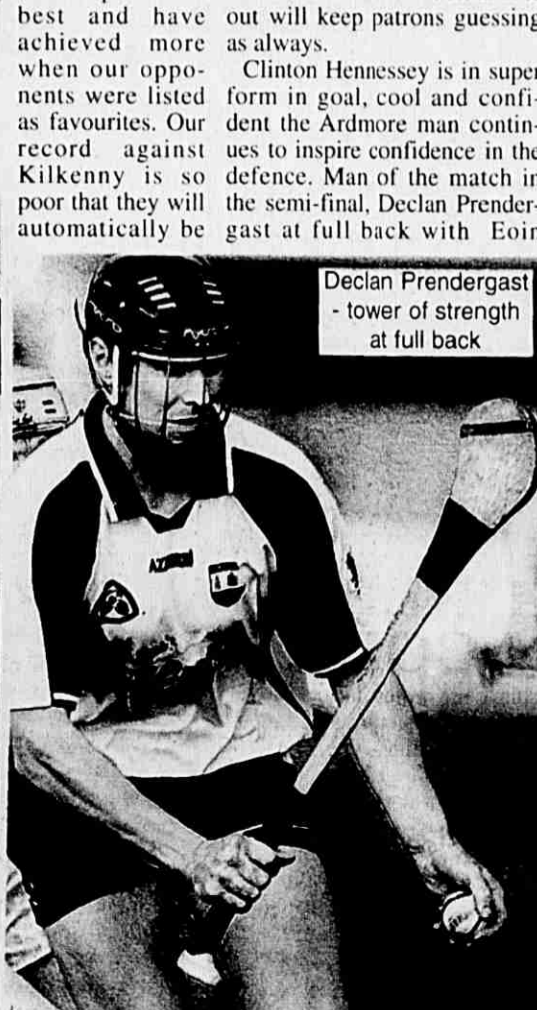

In the matter of affiliated clubs Kilkenny is the smallest of the 32 counties with 45. We are also down pretty low with 54 clubs registered.

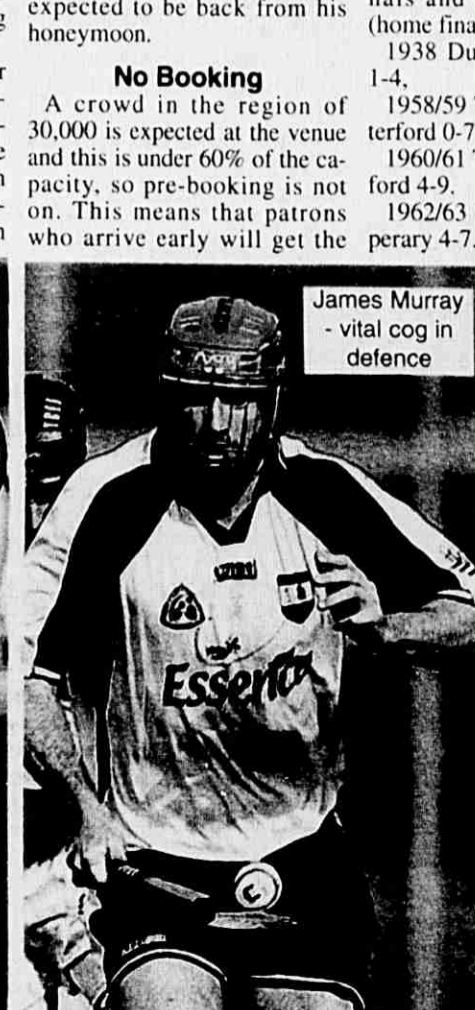

Dan Shanahan - prolific scoring forward

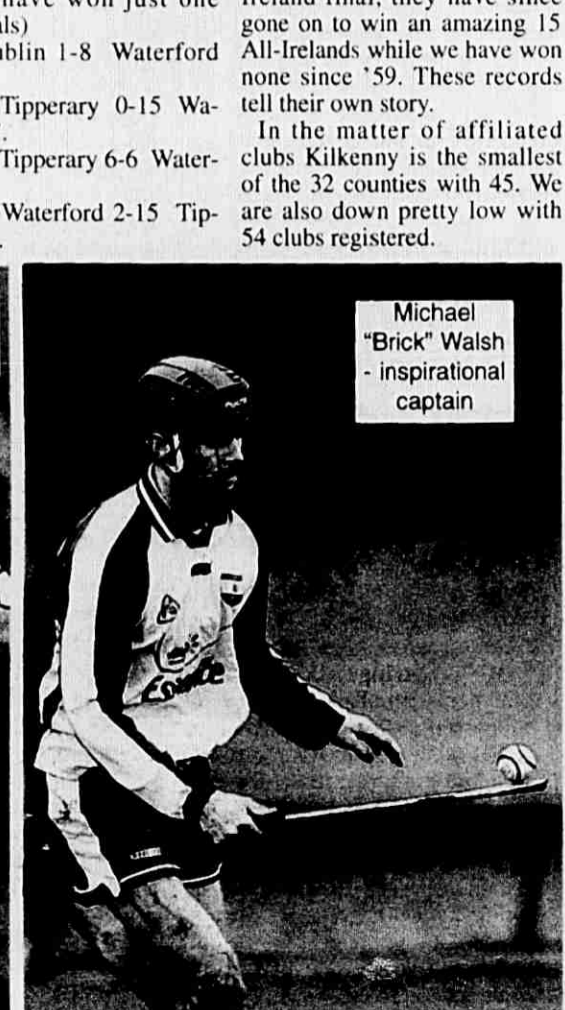

Seamus Prendergast - leader in attack

Declan Prendergast - tower of strength at full back

James Murray - vital cog in defence

Michael "Brick" Walsh - inspirational captain

Glanbia Guaranteed A Win At The National Hurling League (NHL) Final As Kilkenny Face Waterford

TEN YEAR SPONSORSHIP MARKED BY THE TEAMS' HISTORIC FIRST MEETING IN A NHL FINAL

Ahead of their historic first ever clash in an NHL final, Glanbia - proud sponsor of both the Deise and Cats - is guaranteed a win, regardless of the outcome on the field.

Glanbia is the only food company in Ireland to sponsor two County teams and has supported both, not just on the long road to this final but at a County level for over ten years. Sunday will mark a unique day for the sponsorship as reigning champions Kilkenny march out in jerseys bearing the Avonmore Milk logo - Ireland's No. 1 milk brand and the third largest grocery brand in the country.

While Waterford hurlers will face them wearing the Yoplait Essence brand - a range of concentrated dairy boosts with ingredients proven to deliver specific health benefits.

Speaking about the sponsorship, Glanbia Consumer Foods Marketing Director, Joe Collum said; "As a company we are committed to delivering the freshest, most naturally nutritious food to our customers, from the field to the shopping basket. We have taken the same approach to our sponsorship of Waterford and Kilkenny hurling and it is fantastic to see integral grassroots support at a county level culminate in a NHL final for both teams. The sponsorships represent a perfect fit for both Avonmore and Yoplait Essence, both of which are an essential nutritional component of Irish consumers' daily health routines, just as the sport of hurling is for so many people in the country today. I would like to take this opportunity to wish both teams the best of luck on Sunday".

Marking the historic occasion at a special function on the banks of river Suir were Noel Hickey, Kilkenny Hurling's All-Star defender and Glanbia farmer supplier with Waterford captain Michael Walsh and GAA president Nicky Brennan.

Adding comment on the sponsorship, Nicky Brennan, GAA President said; "Without the support sponsorship brings, hurling as a sport would suffer, particularly as a result of the costs now involved in running County teams. I would like to take this opportunity to thank Glanbia for their generous support of not one but two County teams and look forward to our continued close association over the years to come".
