Decision On Major Mixed-Use Zoning Deferred

HOTEL, COMMERCIAL AND RESIDENTIAL DEVELOPMENT PLANNED FOR BURGERY

By Kevin Kirrane

Dungarvan area councillors are set to meet later this month to discuss controversial plans for a mixed use zoning that could ultimately see significant development at the Burgery in Dungarvan.

It follows the deferral of a decision on whether to material contravene the County Development Plan to allow site development works to cater for serviced sites for residential and commercial development, including for a hotel, bar, restaurant, car showroom, leisure and other commercial uses.

SITE

The 2.1 hectare site which adjoins the Golden Meadows nursing home close to the Dungarvan town boundary is planned to be developed by Terry McCarthy.

Four Dungarvan Area Councillors met with the developer's architects, Fewer Harrington Lawlor on Wednesday last for a presentation of the plans.

The material contravention was proposed at the June meeting of Waterford County Council by Fine Gael councillor Tom Higgins and Fianna Fail councillor Tom Cronin, and looked like being approved until the intervention of councillors, Billy Kyne and Teresa Wright of the Labour Party.

RESERVATIONS

Councillor, Billy Kyne pointed out that he had grave reservations regarding the "total lack of consultation" with elected members of the Dungarvan electoral area. And said that while the process may have been procedurally correct it did not in any way allow a realistic input for him as an elected member.

He said the notice for the material contravention appeared in the Irish Examiner on 2nd May but he didn't receive notice from the planning (continued on page 8)

Boil Notice On Deelish Water Supply

TRACES OF E. COLI & COLIFORM DISCOVERED IN WATER

By Kevin Kirrane

A boil notice was issued to residents of Deelish, Garranbane, the Burgery and part of Ballinroad after traces of E. coli and faecal coliforms were discovered in the water.

The health scare began on Thursday when the water was discovered to be discoloured, and a large amount of floating debris overloaded the Deelish Water Treatment Plant.

A boil notice was issued on WLR fm and notices were sent to homes in the affected area.

An alternate supply off the Ballinroad treatment plant has been used as a supply for the homes in the Ballinroad area.

CAUSE UNKNOWN
The exact cause of the problem is unknown, but County Engineer, John O'Flynn speculated that it may have been due to rainfall over the preceding weekend with debris being washed into the reservoir.

The booster to the reservoir also failed in a series of faults with the system that ultimately (continued on page 8)

Renewed Attempts To Uncover Truth About Caredoc Funding

By Kevin Kirrane
Lismore Town Council is set to renew attempts to uncover evidence that Caredoc, the after hours doctors service, received public monies to set up a clinic in the town, but failed to deliver on their own proposal.

So far a number of attempts to get Caredoc to disclose the original proposal, made in 2005 when Caredoc was expanded to Waterford, have failed. A Freedom of Information request was made by Labour councillor, Jan Rotte. But no information as to whether the proposal included a clinic in Lismore was released.

Caredoc received €800,000 from the South Eastern Health Board to set up the service in Waterford.

Now, the elected members of the town council are questioning whether all that money was spent.

Caredoc Chiefs have repeatedly claimed it would be unfeasible to set up a clinic in the West Waterford town due to the small volume of calls it receives from people in the area.

But if public monies were sanctioned by the then SEHB for the establishment of a clinic in Lismore, then it could have wide repercussions for the after-hours service.

Fianna Fail councillor, Bernard Leddy told the June meeting of the town council that Caredoc has so far resisted exposure of whether a clinic in Lismore made up part of the proposal sanctioned by the SEHB.

Fine Gael councillor, John Heneghan asked that Waterford County Council is contacted to ascertain who their representative on the SEHB was when the decision was taken to uncover what the original proposal contained.

Concern Over Stradbally Development Plans

By Kevin Kirrane

Concern was expressed over the possible over development of the picturesque seaside village of Stradbally after a notice to apply for planning permission for 67 houses was published.

Labour councillor, Ger Barron said his main concern for that the infrastructure in the village was not in place.

"If we over develop Stradbally we will regret it for years to come," he warned the July meeting of Waterford County Council.

Director of Services, Denis McCarthy said the land proposed is zoned residential and its proposed to connect the development up to a temporary water supply. However, it was too early to say anything about the development plan as the period for submission has not yet elapsed.

Top International Acts to Appear at Immrama the Lismore Festival of Travel Writing

Capacity attendances are expected at this week's Immrama festival which takes place in Lismore June 14th - 17th 2007. The theme of this year's event is the Silk Road.

International author Jung Chang heads a host of international travel writers and broadcasters which include Nick Danziger, Alexandra Tolstoy, Donald Brady & Nick Middleton. Chang will be joined by her historian husband and co-author Jon Halliday on June 16th.

Ms Chang is the best-selling author of Wild Swans: Three Daughters of China - an award-winning family memoir first published in the early 1990s and since translated in to 30 languages with over 10 million copies sold.

For many of those who made it the biggest grossing non-fiction paperback in publishing history Wild Swans offered a first insight to life under the Chinese Communist party. For her follow-up, Jung Chang combined with her husband to write Mao: the Unknown Story, an 800+ page record of the 27 year regime of Chairman Mao.

Travel writer, film maker and photographer Nick Danziger will open IMMARAMA on June 15. Danziger spent his formative years in Monaco and Switzerland with his American father and English mother. At the age of 13, he travelled to Paris where he embarked on a professional career selling sketches to people. He later moved to London and studied at the Chelsea Art School before becoming a visiting lecturer and holding one-man exhibitions in London and New York.

In the 1980s, he travelled through the ancient trade route from Turkey to China. It was on his travels that he wrote Danziger's Travels - an immediate bestseller that he followed with Danziger's Adventures.

Speaking at IMMARAMA's literary breakfast on June 17 is khaki-clad travel writer, academic and adventurer Nick Middleton who has travelled to some of the most inhospitable places on earth to present television series titled Extremes and Surviving Extremes for Channel 4. Middleton has visited the hottest, coldest, wettest and driest inhabited places on earth.

Also among the international guest speakers at this year's IMMARAMA is Alexandra Tolstoy, a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society who was a member of the team that completed the Silk Road Expedition in 1999. After the eight-month/5,000 mile odyssey on one of the trading routes that make up the ancient Silk Road, Alexandra wrote The Last Secrets of the Silk Road which was published in March 2003.

Broadband Coverage Extended To Ring

By Kevin Korrane

The Rinn Gaeltacht is to go online with quick access broadband to home and business customers.

Eircom, which announced the rollout on Wednesday last, will make the service available through phone lines in the area.

Eircom broadband is up to 20 times faster than a dial up connection. "Eircom broadband has one of the fastest connection rates for standard or entry level broadband in Europe," a spokesperson said, "and eircom's wide range of products and bundled talktime offerings mean that affordable broadband is now available to suit individual home or business needs."

Those who order broadband online from eircom.ie before July 2nd will get free connection as well as free modem, making a saving of €128.98. Customers combining eircom broadband always on with an eircom talktime package can get broadband from just €15 per month.

Michael Kennedy, Marketing Director eircom, said, "eircom is delighted to announce the roll-out of broadband to Ring. We are very pleased to be able to offer our full range of high speed, secure broadband packages to the local community. With 'always on' broadband prices from just €15 there is a broadband package to suit everyone."

Dungarvan Post Office Stages Lightning Strike

By Kevin Korrane

Dungarvan Post Office closed between one and two o'clock on Wednesday evening last, as part of a Europe wide lightening strike.

The stoppage, organised by An Post Unions, was in opposition to EU proposals to privatise postal deliveries and is part of a Europe wide action.

Opponents to the privatisation proposal said it is an effort to create new profit making opportunities for corporate business and will be of no benefit to users of the service.

"Such a proposal flies in the face of the historical experience and rationale for public control of the postal service and public utilities," Martin Ferris TD of Sinn Fein said.

"I call on the Irish Government to oppose this proposal on the grounds of the harm that it will do to the Irish postal service and to the fabric of Irish communities which will be further eroded as part of the ongoing withdrawal of public services, especially in rural areas."

More Enforcement Officers Needed - Kyne

By Kevin Kirrane

More compliance officers should be employed by Waterford County Council to crack down on developers who do not properly finish off estates, according to Labour councillor, Billy Kyne who was speaking at the June meeting of the local authority.

A number of developments have not been finished off, with Cllr. Kyne giving the example of Crumpan in Dungarvan where a number of problems have been highlighted by residents.

The developer sold the site off to another developer in Dublin and the problems have gone unresolved.

"We need to regig how we do business, and be more efficient, and provide enforcement in cases where developers have not played by the rules," Cllr. Kyne said.

He also questioned the executive whether new guidelines in place which allow the local authority to refuse a developer permission where he hasn't properly finished off the first estate are being implemented by Waterford County Council.

Director of Services, Denis McCarthy said he wasn't aware of any local authority which has implemented the guidelines.

However, he agreed that it is "essential" that problems are tackled. A new policy on taking in charge estates is being drawn up and it is to come before the SPC.

VIEWPOINT

FOLLOW THE MONEY

Two years after Caredoc was set up in a blaze of publicity, the organization is very clearly resonant about providing answers to important questions.

Lismore Town Council, through Labour councillor, Jan Rotte, lodged a Freedom of Information request asking what the original proposal for Caredoc in the county was, and whether under this, they planned to set up a Clinic in Lismore.

It's a key question. Lismore was flagged in press releases from Caredoc to the local media as the location for a clinic.

Given that €800,000 was granted to Caredoc to implement this proposal by the South Eastern Health Board (SEHB) it's crucial to know the exact details of the proposal.

If a clinic in Lismore was part of the original proposal sanctioned by the SEHB where did the money go when it wasn't delivered, was it spent, or was it returned to the SEHB, and why and when was the original proposal overturned.

The money argument renders Caredoc's claims that Lismore doesn't have the population, and wouldn't have the numbers to justify a clinic, wholly immaterial.

If Caredoc was indeed funded by public monies to put a clinic in Lismore, retrospectively claiming that the numbers don't add up is a futile argument.

Caredoc's refusal to release relevant information to Lismore Town Council, and later to Deputy Brian O'Shea, who also made representations on Cllr. Rotte's behalf, speaks volumes.

Lismore would be an ideal centre - not just for the town itself - but for the entire West Waterford area, cutting out unnecessarily long journeys on behalf of the sick and elderly - often twenty or more miles - for urgent medical attention in Dungarvan.

It could include the towns of Cappoquin and Tallow and the surrounding smaller urban areas as well as a significant rural base.

This would stack up to a substantial population, and end the unnecessary isolation people in these areas feel from the medical centres in the county.

If indeed, as is widely suspected, Caredoc received public funding for a Clinic in Lismore, there can be no valid reason for the company's refusal to go ahead with what was sanctioned by the SEHB.

It's not a matter of the Caredoc chiefs vetoing this - if it is the case, they simply shouldn't have the choice, and the commitment they gave to a public body on trust must be carried out for the good of the people of West Waterford.

DEELISH WATER SUPPLY PART OF WIDER PROBLEM

Residents of Deelish and surrounding areas were put on notice to boil their drinking water in recent days. Traces of e-coli and choliform were discovered in the water supply, leading to health fears. Tests are also currently being analysed for Cryptosporidium, the contaminant which closed off the Portlaw supply over Christmas and, in an even more high profile case, has seen water in Galway being subject to a boil notice for several months now.

The Deelish problem though is part of a wider issue to do with the county's water and sewage infrastructure.

Many smaller treatment plants each individually serving hundreds of people in their localities urgently need to be replaced, but due to delays, red tape and lack of forward thinking nothing has been done, leading to just these types of problems.

The treatment plant which malfunctioned and pumped raw sewage onto White Strand in Abbeyside for six months is a case in point.

As long as two years ago Independent councillor, Michael O'Riordan raised a clamour calling for its replacement as it was coming to the end of its life. Yet nothing was done, leading to a health and safety problem at the popular strand during the summer tourism season.

While massive amounts of money, totalling hundreds of millions of euro, have been promised, and in many cases delivered to update, improve and replace outdated treatment plants, the issue continues to be a front line problem, with smaller schemes especially at risk.

It's a right of each citizen of the European Union - set in stone by legislation by the EU - to have quality drinking water. Those without proper quality drinking supply can justifiably take the Local Authority to task before the European Courts for failing to adhere to these rights, as was seen in a recent case brought by residents in Limerick.

Therefore, replacing treatment plants on the verge of breakdown and coming to the end of their lives should be seen only as prudent, and as upholding these rights.

Until that is done we will continue to see health and safety fears and an increasing number of boil notices in our crumbling network of treatment plants.

Boil Notice On Deelish Water Supply

ended with the waters contamination. "We will lift the notice as soon as it is possible to do so," John O'Flynn, County Engineer said.

"At the moment it is prudent for all householders to boil their water."

TESTS

Tests are ongoing to check if clistosperidim - the contaminant that affected the water in Portlaw over Christmas, and has forced residents in Galway to boil their water for the last few months - has also contaminated the water.

"We hope it hasn't but tests are being carried out at present," Mr. O'Flynn said.

Small traces of E. coli, which can cause intestinal and extra-intestinal infections such as urinary tract infections and Gastrointestinal infections, and faecal coliforms, which could come from either human or animal faeces were, however, found in the water.

NOT INFORMED

However, some residents were not informed of the situation for several days. Sinn Fine councillor, Brendan Mansfield criticised the council's reaction to the scare at the June meeting of Waterford County Council.

Cllr. Mansfield, who is a resident of the Burgery, said he didn't receive a boil notice until the day of the meeting.

Labour councillor, Teresa Wright said householders should be made aware of how serious the situation is, particularly in regard to young children drinking the contaminated water.

BOIL NOTICE

In its boil notice, the council warned that in the interests of public health, it is recommended that all users on the scheme who have experienced discoloured water should boil the water before use.

Water should not be used unboiled for drinking, drinks made with water, food preparation, brushing of teeth and making ice.

Decision On Major Mixed Use Zoning Deferred

authority until the 9th May, when it should have been the other way around.

"It's clear that this significant contravention - which could have implications for other areas seeking contravention - didn't get any discussions with the elected members in the Dungarvan electoral area," he said.

EXECUTIVE

"I believe this was, in a way, public affirmation, of the support of the council executive for this material contravention without any dialogue with the elected members, which is regrettable.

"I also have reservations with some of the proposals included in the material contravention, specifically in relation to apartments, and would need much more assurance on other aspects of this development which could be seen in competition with town centre uses which we are trying to encourage."

IN FAVOUR

Speaking to the Dungarvan Leader, Fine Gael councillor Damien Geoghegan said he is in favour of the rezoning because it compliments what has already been put in place in the area by Dungarvan Town Council with the Town Development Plan.

"As far as I'm concerned we've seen housing estate after housing estate being put in place in that area.

"Now, we've a developer looking to take the residential aspect of the zoning off of part of the site so he can have a mixed use there."

MIXED USE

"As you enter Dungarvan from the Waterford side of town, you would be faced with housing estates only. If this material contravention is allowed, the approach to Dungarvan would be improved significantly. As it stands the developer could, in theory, just construct another housing estate. So I welcome the plans for a hotel, retail units and car showroom.

"It must also be remembered that the developer will be restricted in the type of retail development allowed. This is to protect the existing retail businesses and outlets in the town centre.

"I believe this to be the correct way to proceed," he said.

The proposal will now go onto discussion at an area meeting which is understood to be scheduled to take place on the 25th of June.

Council Legally Obligated To Make Farmers Pay

By Kevin Korrane

A small number of farmers, thought to number no more than ten in the whole county, will not be exempted from paying development contributions even though the development contribution scheme was changed to exempt nitrate related agricultural developments after an outcry from the elected representatives last year.

The farmers who in adhering to strict nitrate guidelines built farm buildings between the 8th of December 2003 and when the County Development Plan was amended to exempt agricultural developments on 11th of September 2006, cannot be retrospectively exempted from paying these charges, Director of Services, Denis McCarthy said.

"Legal advice was sought in respect of development contributions applicable to developments which either had received permission or begun or completed work prior to the date of the adoption of the amended Development Contribution Scheme," he said.

"The legal advice was quite categorical in that there is no provision in the legislation for retrospective application of a development contribution scheme.

"Hence it is not possible to exempt nitrates related agricultural developments which had received permission or either begun or completed the relevant work prior to the date of adoption of the amended Development Contribution Scheme."

Fine Gael councillor, Paudie

Coffey accepted that there was no way around the legal position, but called for those farmers to be helped in any way possible, including by facilitating phased payment.

Mr. McCarthy said that where the council receives a request to pay by phased payment it will be considered.

BALLYSAGGART COMMUNITY FESTIVAL NOTES

A Festival Committee meeting has been arranged for next Monday night (18th June) at 8.30 pm. Last weeks arranged meeting had to be cancelled at short notice - apologies to all. Do not forget that our Festival Weekend commences on Thursday, 26th July to Sunday, 29th July (inclusive) so book your diary for a great weekend of entertainment.

DRAMA FESTIVAL FOR WATERFORD

Just a quick reminder that this Friday, June 15, is the closing date for entries in the inaugural 123 Festival - Waterford City and County's (and Ireland's!) new amateur drama competition. With nearly every place full, there's still time for individual performers and drama groups from around the County and Waterford City to get up and show what they can do with monologues, duologues and short plays of up to 20 minutes.

There's a real buzz about the Festival, with new sponsorship in from Waterford City Council Arts Office - thanks Conor! Also, we're very pleased that international ceramics artist Jane Jermyn is now hard at work making many of the prize-trophies. Based in County Waterford, Jane exhibits and sells her work worldwide (see ) and, since her pieces can cost into the thousands, it's a real coup she's providing such beautiful pieces of art. For the organisers, it's important that competitors can compete for prizes that will be both truly memorable and have long-term value; not just trinkets.

If you need an entry form, visit Garter Lane Arts Centre or Theatre Royal, Waterford; Old Market House Arts Centre, Dungarvan; or Lismore Heritage Centre. You can also text the Festival Director, Vanessa Hyde, on 087 6733782 or email . If you have already entered, don't forget to send us your fees and scripts by the closing date, to ensure we can include you!

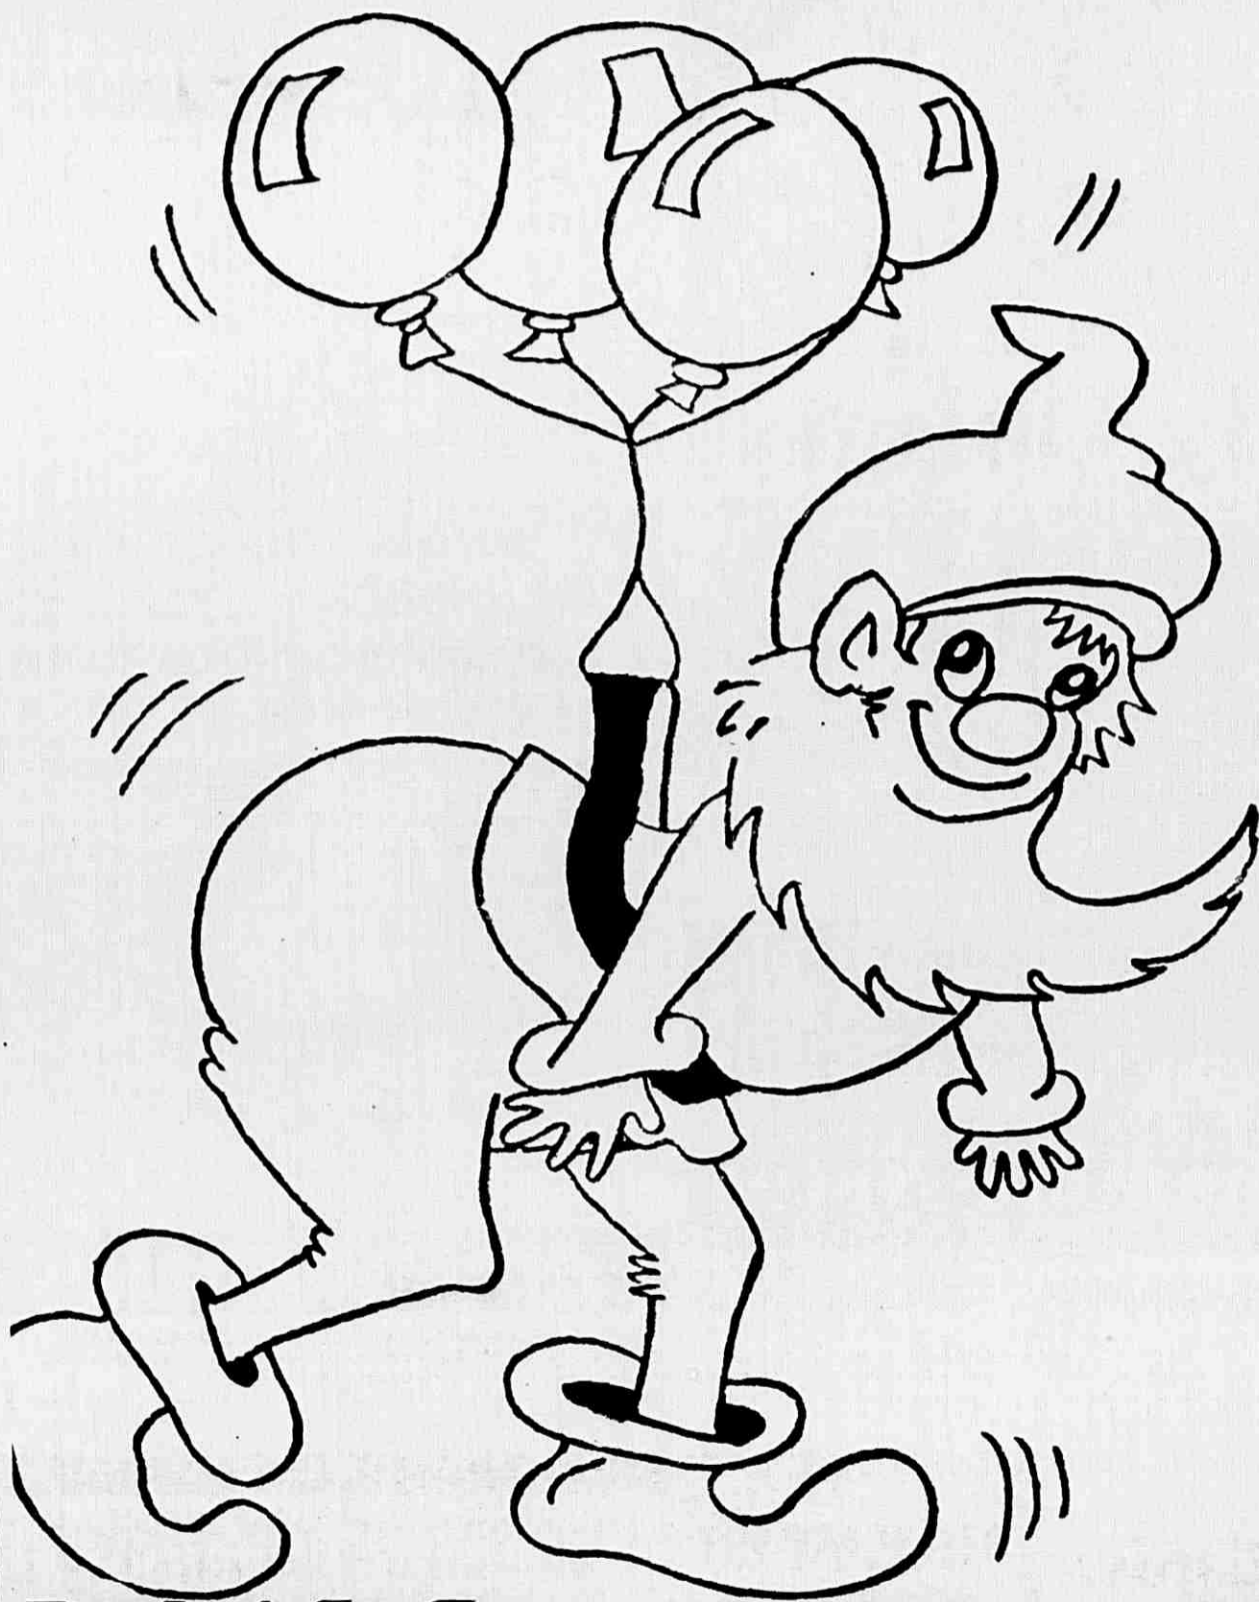

Tickets for the event (the evenings of July 6 and 7) will on sale from 20 June at Lismore Heritage Centre, Tel: 058 54975.

DESERT PLANTS

The hot and dry conditions found in deserts are far from ideal for plants, which need water to grow. Yet several types of plants have adapted themselves to these hostile environments.

Cacti Are Adapted To Hold Water
 Cacti have long roots that lie close to the surface, which enables them to take in any available water quickly. The stem of a cactus is designed to hold water and the spines, which are actually the leaves, are designed to lose as little water as possible through evaporation. The spines also help to protect the plant from animals that may try to eat it. If a piece of a cactus plant gets knocked off, it can take root in the sand and grow into a new plant.

The Saguaro Cactus Lives For Over 200 Years
 The saguaro cactus of the Arizona and Mexican deserts takes 10 years to grow to a height of 2.5cm (1in). Often it will not flower until it is 50, or even 75 years old. By the end of its life, which is about 200 years, it will have reached 15m (50ft) which makes it the largest member of the cactus family.

Many Desert Plants Only Bloom After It Has Rained
 Many desert plants remain dormant (inactive) until the rains come, when they burst into life creating a lush and beautiful landscape. The plants grow quickly, flower, create new seeds and die in a very short time.

Resurrection plants are brown and shrivelled when it is dry, to conserve water, but when it rains the leaves expands and turn green again. Living stones, desert plants of southern Africa, look just like stones until they lower after it has rained.

Desert Plants Have Ways To Conserve Water

Because there is very little rain in desert regions, many desert plants store water in some way, in their stems, their leaves, or their roots to last them through periods of drought. Some of these plants also have a thick, waxy skin that lessens the amount of water lost through evaporation. All these desert plants, that include cacti, are known as succulents.

Some Desert Plants Get Water From Air

The caper plant which lives in the Sahara Desert can survive without taking up any water from its roots. It gets its water from vapour in the air. Another desert plant that gets most of its water from the atmosphere is the welwitschia, which grows in the coastal deserts of south west Africa.

DID YOU KNOW?

The world's largest cactus is the Saguaro of Mexico and California. It can grow to 16m (52ft), weigh 10,000kg (10 tons), and store 3,000 litres (660 gal) of water.

 Some Native Americans of Mexico follow a religion based on the visions caused by taking a drug made from the mescal cactus.

 The American pygmy cedar lives entirely on water vapour absorbed from the air.

 Certain cacti can store enough water to live for a year without rain.

 The guayule plant that grows in the deserts of Mexico leaks acid from its roots to prevent other plants growing near it!

 Because desert plants all wait for rain to germinate, deserts can become a blaze of colour for a few days after the rainfall.

Dungarvan-Tipperary South MS Notes

Our 2007 Annual Collection was held over Saturday and Sunday 2nd and 3rd of June and once again we are overcome by the generosity of the people of Dungarvan and District. The weather was poor and still people took the time to stop and put money in the buckets.

Where would we be without the people to hold the buckets? We have a very loyal bunch of collectors and every year a couple of new volunteers join the ranks. They had a miserable time last weekend, especially those doing the church gate collections.

To the collectors in town, Kitty (who always puts in at least six hours) Anne, Mary, Maisie, Ann, Mary, Emma, Joan, Bernie, Denise, Mrs. Kenneally, Bridget, Breda and Anne O'D and to Garvey's and Morrissey's Super Valu who kindly allow our collectors in out of the rain we extend our heartfelt thanks. We also extend our gratitude to the Abbeyside collectors - Pauline, Renee, Angela and Sarah and to Eurospar for their kind co-operation.

Pat did Trojan work - collecting at Garvey's service station on Saturday and also covering the collection at Colligan, Kilbrien and Kilgobnet. Monica and Kevin at Ballinroad and Dan at Garranbane are real troopers and not withstanding the rain did their usual bit for the cause. Caroline sa Sean Phobal and Pakie sa Rinn also deserve our thanks.

We are also very grateful to the Manager, staff and customers of Davitt's Night Club for their generosity and co-operation.

The two girls who really deserve a big 'thank you' are Mary Ellen and Julie Anne who put in a tremendous effort every year. They do a full day - up to ten or eleven hours on Saturday and several hours on Sunday. We really appreciate your efforts and we thank you and all our collectors and you, the people of our area, for once again making our collection such a wonderful success.

Stena Line Oakwood Competition Winners

Congratulations to our two lucky winners of our Stena Line Oakwood Competition. They are Josephine Moylan, Congress Villas, Dungarvan and Maeve Flynn, Killineen West, Dungarvan. Well done to you both and your prizes will be forwarded to you by post.

Thanks to everyone for the support and for making it an enjoyable occasion.

COMMUNITY CENTRE AGM

At the Community Centre AGM, held on May 30th, the chairman, Ned Ryan made a surprise presentation to Noreen O'Brien in recognition of her ten years of outstanding service as the Committee's PRO, from 1995 to 2005. Angie Walsh announced that she would not be seeking re-election to the office of Secretary, the chairman and many other delegates thanked her for her service. As usual the Treasurer's report was comprehensive and detailed a bank balance of over €25,000. Fr. Gerry O'Connor was welcomed to the meeting. He was nominated for the Office of President, which he accepted. ### DRAMA AT MODELIGO

The community centre will host the Dungarvan Dramatic Society's Production of "Same Old Moon" a very witty and extremely funny play by Irish playwright Geraldine Arran. Among the very strong cast on stage will be Caroline O'Connor, who herself trod the boards with Modeligo on a number of occasions, and who will be playing the part, in the earlier stages of the play, of a 9-year-old girl! So do come along and enjoy a good piece of Drama, it runs for 4 nights from Wednesday June 13th until Saturday 18th, beginning at 8pm sharp. The group would love to see good audiences each night.

CONDOLENCES

We note with sadness the recent death of Jim Bannon, formerly of Lr. Glen, and we offer our sympathies to the extended Bannon family and to all Jim's connections and friends. Son of former Modeligo NS, the late James Bannon and Mary, (long serving Modeligo sacristan) Jim resided in Dublin, and was for many years an extremely popular and efficient chief steward at Croke Park on match days. A minute's silence was observed in his memory prior to the Dublin/Meath Leinster Football Championship game, with no less a broadcaster than the legendary Micheal O Muirheartaigh paying him a glowing tribute on radio. Leaba I mease na Naomh go raibh ag Jim, who was laid to rest in Glasnevin.

JUNIORS

The hurlers treated their small but loyal band of supporters to another fine win at Colligan on Friday evening last. But it was a narrow squeak at the end because leading by 8 points early in the second half everything looked to be going our way until Kilgobnet scored 2 opportunist goals to set up a thrilling finish. No championship fixtures at present, next up it's the Clashmore tournament. Meanwhile following a ropery enough first half performance we put it together for the second half and ran out facile winners over a Clashmore XV, which meant that we have qualified to play Ardmore in the final.

MINI LOTTO

No Jackpot winner this weekend, so there's €2,100 in the crock of gold for the next draw. Numbers drawn: 2-10-22. 4X€25 drawn: John O'Donoghue, Cappoquin; Deckie Walsh, Modeligo; Jerry Aherne, Lismore and K. Mullins, Kilmac.

Na Dèise Ladies Football Club

Game Friday the 08/06/07 against Ballyduff.

Training in Modeligo on Sunday evening's at 7.00pm for the under 12's & 14's. Trainer: Nicholas O'Donovan

Touraneena Friday evening's for the Junior's. Trainer: James Condon

We need a good turn out at all the training sessions from now on. County Training on in the Friary for under 14 & 16 girls at 10.45am.

That time of the month

For many women, the few days before a period is due are the worst days of the month. For some this time means little more than being slightly more irritable than usual, but for others it can signal a whole array of devastating emotional and physical changes. Pre-menstrual syndrome, or PMS is caused by the hormone changes which occur during the second half of the menstrual cycle, after ovulation and before start of the next menstrual period. For many women, symptoms only last for three or four days, but for others the ordeal can drag on for two weeks or more. Given that the period itself may last a week, this leaves only one week or less during which the woman feels any sense of normality.

By Aine Marie Reilly
BSc(hons), MIIMH,
MNIMH, MCPP, DipCoun.

The emotional symptoms of PMS have received the most attention, and for this reason the condition is sometimes referred to as pre-menstrual tension or PMT. Many women feel emotionally vulnerable at this time and may find themselves in tears over events which would not normally cause such distress. However, what most sufferers seem to find particularly distressing is the tendency to become extremely irritable, angry or even violent. These outbursts are usually disproportionately severe in terms of the events which trigger them, and sufferers often worry about the intense hatred they can feel towards their partner at this time of the month. They may also be concerned about angry outbursts which can be directed towards their children.

The physical symptoms of pre-menstrual syndrome are less well known but may be equally distressing. The most common is fluid retention which may lead to abdominal bloating, swollen hands and feet, and breast pain or tenderness. In some cases abdominal cramps or lower back pain can occur before the period starts, and cravings for carbohydrates (especially chocolate) are also common. In the most severe cases symptoms can include fatigue, constipation, muscle or joint pain, recurrent vaginal thrush, acne, swollen glands and migraines.

Pre-menstrual syndrome is usually caused by a relative deficiency of the hormone progesterone in relation to the other hormones which govern the menstrual cycle. There is often an additional sensitivity to the hormone prolactin which is produced at this time of the month. The condition can be triggered by an imbalance of microbial flora which leads to an overgrowth of organisms such as Candida albicans. Stress is also an important exacerbating factor. The most useful herb for treating pre-menstrual syndrome is chaste tree (Vitex agnus castus). This herb works on the pituitary gland to normalise hormone production and generally leads to increased levels of progesterone and decreased levels of prolactin. When taken over the course of a few months it is extremely effective in reducing pre-menstrual symptoms. Of course this depends on the quality of the product and the dose taken. Some over the counter preparations recommend taking the herb two or three times daily, however it is more effective to take the entire daily dose first thing in the morning (preferably between 6 and 7 a.m.) when the pituitary gland is most active.

In addition there are a number of supplements available which can support herbal treatment and help to reduce symptoms. Vitamin B complex supports the nervous system and preparations containing high levels of vitamin B6 are particularly useful for pre-menstrual syndrome. Essential fatty acids are also helpful for this condition, particularly brands such as EyeQ which combine Evening primrose and fish oils.

It is important to try to avoid refined carbohydrates (such as cakes, biscuits sweets and white bread) since these encourage the growth of harmful organisms such as Candida albicans. Other common culprits include milk and fermented products such as alcohol and vinegar. Herbs such as garlic, cinnamon and thyme help to keep harmful microbes under control, and friendly organisms can be replenished by taking an acidophilus supplement or eating plenty of live natural yoghurt.

For stubborn symptoms, a combination of herbs may be used to provide relief. For example, herbal diuretics such as dandelion leaf can help to reduce fluid retention and bloating. Numerous herbs are also available which can treat other symptoms such as breast tenderness, abdominal cramps, fatigue, constipation, recurrent vaginal thrush, and migraines. For symptoms which are numerous or severe it may be beneficial to consult a qualified practitioner of herbal medicine who can prescribe an individually tailored blend of herbs.

Kilgobinet-Colligan-Kilbrien Community Development Group

Lively and popular band Déjà Vu will play at Queally's Lounge, Bohadon on Friday, 29th of June. Mark your calendars. The get together is a fund raiser for the new Kilgobinet - Colligan - Kilbrien Community Development Group.

Next meeting: Tues., 12th June at 9:00pm at Coolnasmear Hall. All local residents are invited.

News so far

An exploratory meeting on the 2nd of May identified a number of local concerns: development and management of Coolnasmear

Hall, increasing use of Kilbrien Hall, local roads, the proposed Dungarvan Outer Bypass, the condition of the two local ball alleys, walkways in the area and the county's Golden Mile competition, etc.

A second meeting on the 16th of May elected a committee to hold office until Sept. 2007. The committee's task - get the new group off the ground. All local community and parish groups and stake holders were then contacted and asked to send a representative. This meeting, too, was open to all residents of the parish.

Chairman: Liam Dalton, Treasurer: Don Nix, Secretary: Orla Bannon

On the 30th of May, a third open meeting agreed a name for the Group. It's a mouthful, but says it all. This group is intended to be as inclusive and representative as possible.

The meeting also settled on two dates for community social activities and fund raisers.

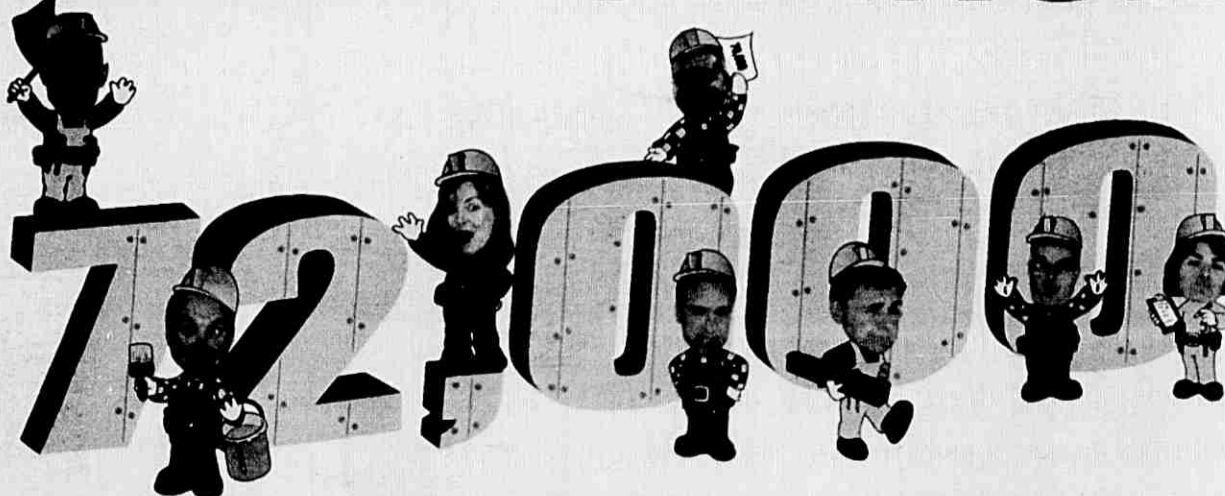

Friday, 29th of June at Queally's Pub in Bohadon. Déjà Vu will play.

Sunday, 26th of August - Family Sports Day at Bohadon.

A sub-committee was formed to organise a "Non-Stop Draw". Representatives of the Community Group will try and contact all parish households. Hopefully, this will also help keep everyone in the parish up-to-date on group activities.

It is hoped that by September basic organisational work will be well advanced and that an AGM can elect a new committee to advance the many local concerns and projects.

YOU'VE HELPED US BUILD A GREAT STATION

It's a big number. But here at WLR FM we've been used to big numbers for a long time.

That's because no matter what the year or what the competition brings, WLR FM remains Waterford's Number 1 Radio Station. 72,000 people aged 15+ listen to WLR FM every week in Waterford City and County. That's over three quarters of the total population*. So thanks for helping us to build such a great radio station and keep listening to the station that's First for Waterford.

Abbeyside Reference Archive A GEM

Last week a man gave us a brown envelope for the Archive. No, it didn't contain money but what it did contain was a gem of a little book among other items. The book by Edmond Keohan entitled Abbeyside Castle (Historical and Descriptive Sketch) Dungarvan 1916 and runs to just fifteen pages. The book was printed at "The Waterford News" office and contains two nice photographs. The cover gives the information Price One Penny. I wonder how many copies of that book are still in Abbeyside? This Sunday evening Fintan Strain will be at the Parish Office, minding the above book and all the other treasures.

Dungarvan Drama Club

DON'T MISS THE MADISON THIS TIME

Many people were disappointed when they missed Dungarvan Drama Club's production of "Same Old Moon" in April.

The cast of 14 performed the play for one night only but then had to postpone the remaining three nights due to unforeseen circumstances. If you missed it first time around, now is your final chance to see this touching comedy.

"Same Old Moon" shows us scenes from the life of Brenda Barnes, aspiring writer. We follow her from the age of nine to forty-ish and see her through her eyes, her eccentric and sometimes fiery family. A funny and charming but not uncritical look at family life with some wonderful characters.

Starting tonight Wednesday the 13th June the play will run until Saturday the 16th June in the Modeligo Community Centre at 8 pm nightly. This play has a large cast with many roles and some cast members take on the challenge of playing more than one character.

The cast is: Caroline O'Connor as Brenda; Ruairi De Paor as Desmond; Siobhan Buckley as Bridie; Margaret Dennehy as Pearce; Dave Pollock as Mr. Mooney/Mr. Mullen/ Announcer; Morgan O'Connell as Caruso/Michael; Aoife Doyle as Bella Rafferty; Elaine Diaz as Di; Paul MacGabhain as Trevor/Mark/Barman, Fidelma Meaney as Café Daphne; Ann Kavanagh as Mother Superior/Granny; Karen Macey as Nurse; Gillian Sheehan as Mrs. Geeny; Trisha Kiely as Mrs. Brown. We look forward to seeing you there.

Tickets can be booked on 087-6827186 or purchased atdoor. West Waterford Drama Network Meeting Meeting took place on 23d May

Ard Scoil na nDeise Notes

Pursuit of Excellence

West Waterford has long been known for the quality of its Discus throwers going back to the 1970 when Joe Brice was schools champion. In the eighties the O'Brien clan of Frank, Mike and Ailish dominated the throwing events and Frank is one of two athletes who hold a full set of records at the school championships in Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Discus and for good measure Ailish holds the Intermediate Girls record. Eadaoin Ashe who won silver and bronze at All Ireland level carried on this tradition in recent years. Now it is the turn of Zoë Scanlon to keep the flag flying and this she did in style with a winning performance at the Kit Kat All Ireland Championship. Two week ago Zoe finished second to Tracey Bradfield in the Munster Championships and she was determined to gain revenge in the All Ireland. Heavy rain in the morning left the circle wet and Zoe playing it safe took a standing throw for her first shot and flinging the discus over 26mts. Better was to come with Zoe recording a personal best throw of 33mts 73 taking the lead in the competition which she held to the end. As a result of her performance Zoe has been selected to represent Munster at the Tailteann games later in the month.

In the Junior High Jump Claire Collins was very unlucky not to win a medal. The competition was won with a jump of 1m 50cms and Claire jumped 1.45, which equalled her personal best and was the same height as three other competitors. The placing were decided on faults and unfortunately for Claire she had knocked the bar in the very first jump of the competition and this was the difference between 2nd and 4th. In the senior girls Discus Eadaoin Ashe finished her schools career with a fourth place finish in a very competitive event.

Shona Curran off to Italy to represent Ireland in International Mountain Competition

Shona Curran heads off to the Italian Alps at the end of the month to take part in an International Mountain Running Event. This is the first time Ireland has participated in this event and they are sending an under 17 boys and girls team. Shona is the only Waterford representative on the time and we wish her every success in this event.

VEC ART EXHIBITION

Dungarvan Vocational Training Opportunities Scheme, opened an Art Exhibition of the students finished work from the FETAC level 5 Art, Craft and Design course in the Town Library, Davitts Quay, Dungarvan on Thursday evening May 31st. 2007. The exhibition showcased the work of 10 adult education students from the county and surrounding areas. The V.E.C. has now three Art, Craft and Design courses at FETAC level 5, which is important for adults in the area, as art takes a fresh look at the world and questions surface appearances. Art is important for both staff and students as many can experience a sense of well being, an increase in confidence, through participation in the arts. Over the past few years a steady stream of FETAC students from VEC courses have progressed on to 3rd. level courses in Institutes of Technologies and Art Colleges and one such former student is now teaching in Dungarvan Youthreach.

The exhibition was officially opened by the County Arts Officer, Margaret Organ. In welcoming the exhibitors, all of whom participated in second chance education and training programmes for adults in Waterford county, Margaret laid particular emphasis on the importance of days such as Thursday last, which are about spreading the news, giving the information to adults out there in communities all over the county, telling them what is on offer in arts education and showcasing the successes. She spoke of the day that adults take that momentous decision to return to education or training to perfect their artistic skills and add to their personal development.

The opening was also attended by the Chairman of Co. Waterford V.E.C., Lismore's Declan Doocey accompanied by members of Co Waterford V.E.C. and the Chief Executive Officer Paddy Lavelle, who spoke of the wealth of creativity on display with a huge variety of art and craft areas which could be seen.

The students have excelled at Weaving, Batik, Jewellery, Sculpture, Painting and Drawing. This diversity is one of the strengths of the programme in VTOS.

The students shown in the exhibition included:

Alf Barden, who was born in England and has been living in Lismore for the past 27 years. Alf has been a student with VTOS for two years.

Adam Mooney who was born in the Isle of Wight, England and has lived in Ireland most of his life. His mother was an artist so he always had an interest in Art.

Sandra Hogan who having worked in manufacturing for many years, commencing a VTOS Art, Craft and Design course was a huge transformation. Sandra is from Sean-Phobal and thoroughly enjoys the course

Mary Dwyer, originally from Cork, Mary has been living in Dungarvan for the past 16 years.

Coming from a science background, this art course was a complete change for her but she has loved every minute of it. She hopes to continue to paint and pursue further studies in art

Christine McCarthy has enjoyed all the subjects and is especially interested in the design subjects. In her artwork, her inspiration came from her love of horses and flowers which can be seen in the exhibition.

Sean Allen-Ross who hopes that each and every one of the students I have participated with pursues their interests in the Arts after this course is over.

Lenore Keating lives in Mahon-Bridge. She has really enjoyed the course and has made many friends and received great help from all the tutors. She especially enjoyed pastel drawings.

Liz Griffin, having always been a keen gardener and been interested in design, Liz found the VTOS course a great opportunity to hone in on these key skills.

Joan Colbert, has been a student with VTOS for the past 2 years. She loves the course and feels very lucky to have the help and talents of all her tutors on the course.

Mags Mason who is a native of Affane and has been a student with VTOS for the past 2 years.

She has brought a wealth of creative skills and imagination to all her subjects, Mags loves the course and her love of lighthouses, landscapes and seascapes can be seen in her paintings and weaving.

In the children's section visitors will see the work of previous classes of the VTOS course in the form of the stained glass panel and the brochure displays work which was donated by former VTOS students as part of the millennium celebrations to the town of Dungarvan. People visiting the Town Council offices in the Civic Building will be familiar with the tapestry.

RECENT DEATHS

LATE JOHN ORGAN

The town and surrounding areas learned with great shock of the passing after a short duration of illness of John Organ, Toomard, Sarsfield St., Abbeyside at the South Infirmary/Victoria Hospital, Cork on Thursday, 31st May. Aged 72 years and a native of Abbeyside, Johnny received his formal education at the local National School. The next forty plus years were spent in the service of Waterford Foods. Managements were indeed fortunate to secure his services as he was a man of top rate ability who was dedicated to his work. He also served the needs of his fellow worker, he was a most able shop steward and served as Chairman of ATGWU from 1962-71. During the mid eighties he gave of his best on the District and Regional committees of the Union and of the Dungarvan Council of Trade Unions.

On his retirement from the Creamery, he established his own taxi service which was patronized by a huge clientele who were always glowing in their praise of Johnny. He loved driving and his camper van travelled the many roads of Ireland and also in England,

Scotland and Wales where he loved to holiday. He attended the many horse racing venues, be it the Curragh, Mallow or Listowel. He enjoyed the flutter and often shared the vital information with the many who sought his advice. He followed the fortunes of Waterford and Abbeyside with keen interest, indeed all his sons lined out the famed local club. He was involved in the Fight for Sight Movement. He was a man of deep religious faith who attended to his duties with admirable fervour and devotion.

Lying in repose at the Kiely Funeral Home, Fr. O'Riordan P.P. led the huge concourse present in Rosary and Prayers on Saturday evening, later the removal took place to St. Augustine's Church, Abbeyside. On Sunday morning Fr. O'Riordan P.P. celebrated John's funeral Mass, the lessons were read by Colin and Anthony, grandchildren Gillian and Deirdre Conroy, John and Lauren Organ shared the prayers of intercession. The Offertory Gifts were brought to the Altar by grandchildren Olga, Patricia, Maria, Jenna, Emma and Emmalie. Joseph Organ (son) delivered a much appreciated eulogy. Guards of Honour at the funeral obsequies were provided by Waterford Foods. Beautiful music was provided by Dina Walsh and Nicky Power, the latter played 'Joe Hill' at the graveside in St. Laurence's Cemetery, Ballinroad where John Organ was laid to rest. John has now joined his parents Molly and Joe, his brother Michael 'The Fear' and sister Maureen. May the Lord grant them all eternal rest.

We offer our heartfelt sympathy to his wife Kitty, daughter Mary, sons John, Joseph, Michael, Anthony, Brendan, Colin, his brothers Liam, Pat, Frankie, sisters Sheila, Breda, son-in-law

James Conroy, daughters-in-law Patricia, Deirdre, Claire, Aileen, Regina and Kate, his brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, grandchildren, great grandchildren, relatives and friends.

(Funeral arrangements by James Kiely & Sons, Funeral Directors, Dungarvan).

LATE TOM DUGGAN

We write with sadness and regret on the passing of Tom Duggan on June 2nd. A native of Cathal Brugha Place, Tom who was aged 86 years worked for most of his life in England, later when he returned to Ireland he was employed on the boats at the local quayside. In failing health for some time, he enjoyed the wonderful care of all at Dunabney for almost six years. In former years he loved to cycle, loved the outdoor life especially where birds and dogs were concerned. Predeceased by his parents Hanora and James, his brothers Paddy, Geoff and Mike, his sisters Hannie and Nonie and her husband Sid King. Only last year Tom mourned the passing of his brother-in-law John Carroll. We sympathise with his sister Mary Carroll, his nephews, nieces and other relatives at this time. Reposing at the Kiely Funeral Home, Tom's removal to church took place on Monday evening where Fr. Paul Waldren C.C. blessed and received the remains.

On Tuesday Fr. Cooney O.S.A. was Mass celebrant at which many of Tom's nieces and nephews read the lessons and Prayers of the Faithful. One of Tom's favourite songs 'Noreen Ban' was played in tribute as his remains were brought to the waiting hearse to be brought to their final resting place in Colligan Cemetery. At the graveside and in the presence of many relatives and dear friends following graveside prayers and blessing Tom was laid to rest.

LATE JOHN MCCARTHY

We received the sad news of the passing of John McCarthy, Main St., Ardmore on Friday 25th May at St. Vincent's Hospital, Dungarvan. In failing health for some time, John also spent periods of hospitalisation in both Cork and Waterford. Well known and highly respected John was employed as a petrol pump attendant with Tom Sullivan and then with the Moloney Brothers on Main St., Ardmore. His work brought him in contact with so many people who will all have special memories of John. He had a great sense of humour and could spin a right good story. He loved to recall happenings and events from around Ardmore.

Predeceased by his father Jeremiah and sister-in-law Nora McCarthy, John lay in repose at the Kiely Funeral Home where many came to pay their respects and console the bereaved. On Sunday John's remains were brought to St. Declan's Church, Ardmore where they were blessed and received by V. Rev. Fr. Milo Guiry P.P. On Monday Fr. Guiry P.P. offered the Holy Sacrifice in thanksgiving for John's life. The lessons were read by Gerard McCarthy (nephew), Cliona McCarthy (niece) and by sister Mary Margaret Brassel. Nephews Tony McCarthy and Declan O'Donnell shared the prayers of the Faithful. After the funeral Mass John's coffin was shouldered on route to the family home for prayers. Shortly afterwards we gathered in the Tower Cemetery within feet of the Old Cathedral. Fr. Guiry imparted final blessings as John was laid to rest with his grandparents. The huge numbers present at the funeral obsequies left no one in doubt to John's immense popularity and indeed his absence will be sorely missed. 'Leaba I measc na naomh do'.

We sympathise with his many relatives at this time on their great loss, mother Mary, brothers Paddy, Paul, Finbarr and Vincent, sisters Claire O'Donnell, Mary Margaret Brassel, his brothers-in-law, sisters-in-law, nephews, nieces, relatives and friends.

May the sod of his native and beloved Ardmore rest gently upon him.

LATE EDMUND (NED) KIELY

It is with sadness and deep sense of loss that we note the death of Edmund 'Ned' Kiely, Coolagurtee, Cappoquin. Ned died peacefully and unexpectedly in his own home on the 19th May. Ned was born and raised in Barranashinguan, Fourmilewater before moving to Ballinamult. Upon marrying his bride Helen Coffey (RIP) he moved to Coolagurtee. They were married for 36 years.

There they spent many happy years farming and rearing their large family. Ned had a great love for farming particularly the dairy side. He worked tirelessly and had a great energy. Ned was a kind, courteous man, a gentleman in the true sense of the word. He enjoyed company and greeted people at his door with a warm handshake.

Ned was a gentle, patient father and loving husband. In later years he took great joy in his three grandchildren and was never too busy to show them the cows and calves. He was also entertained by them and enjoyed a hearty laugh. He enjoyed show jumping and GAA. In particular hurling, either watching Waterford on T.V. or listening to the game on the 'wireless'.

He was not a man who believed in taking things easy. He enjoyed working and having a full day. Now that his days work is done may he enjoy the rest he so well earned. Rest in peace. Fondly remembered, sadly missed by his loving family. Ned is predeceased by his wife Helen and young son Paschal Matthew.

LATE NORA LEAHY (NEE O'MAHONEY)

The passing at Waterford Regional Hospital on Thursday last of Nora Leahy, 4, St. Thomas Tce., Dungarvan was the cause of deep regret and sorrow throughout the locality. Of advanced years Nora had many admirable qualities which endeared her to everybody. A quiet inoffensive person who was of deep religious faith, the passing of her husband Sean some four years ago changed her life. In truth she never got over that heavy cross of bereavement.

Reposing at the Kiely Funeral Home where relatives, neighbours and friends gathered for family rosary. On Saturday Canon Liam McNamara P.P. (nephew) shared prayers at the Kiely Funeral Home before Nora's remains were brought to St. Mary's Parish Church for 12 noon funeral Mass. After the Holy Sacrifice Nora was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery.

Our deepest sympathy we extend to her brother Tim, sister-in-law Cathy, her nieces, nephew, other relatives and friends at this time.

LATE MONNIE HEHIR

LATE AGNES PATRICIA KEANE

With feelings of profound sadness we write on the passing after a short duration of illness of Agnes Keane, Ballyvoile, Stradbally at Waterford Regional Hospital on Saturday 2nd June. Aged 75 years, a native of Ballyvoile, Agnes worked all her life on the Isle of Wight.

Daughter of the late Patrick and Mary, both Agnes and her sister Kitty returned to reside in Ballyvoile in 1988. In her younger days Agnes loved to dance and was also very interested in music. Her passing is deeply regretted by her sisters Kitty Keane and Norah McGrath, Norah travelled with her daughters Marguerite and Noreen to attend the funeral obsequies.

Reposing at her residence, relatives and friends gathered for family rosary on Sunday evening. On Monday Agnes' remains were brought from her residence to Stradbally Church for funeral Mass which was celebrated by V. Rev. Fr. Michael Enright P.P. Readings were shared by John Keane (nephew). After the Requiem Mass Agnes was laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery. Sincerest sympathy is extended to Kitty, Norah, her nieces and the many members of the Keane family.

DUNGARVAN NO NAME CLUB

Success at Variety All-Irelands

Dungarvan No Name Club recently competed in the All-Ireland Final of Variety, which was held in the University Concert Hall, Limerick. The other competing teams came from Shannonside (Kerry), Tuam (Galway), Claremorris (Mayo), Headford (Galway) & Westport (Mayo).

Dungarvan performed extremely well and following a great day's competition we finished up in 2nd place with the overall title going to Tuam for 2007. We were extremely happy with our performance and indeed Dungarvan captured the largest number of individual prizes on the day.

Everyone of our team performed magnificently and our show was the talk of Limerick. After we had seen all the shows we knew we stood a great chance. It was just a question as to whether Tuam or Dungarvan would get the nod. In the event Tuam shaded it and we had no complaints. It was wonderful to see the talent and the effort our young people put into the show this year. The best aspect of this year however was the maturity which our gang showed when the winners were announced. They accepted the result in good faith and each one of them were fulsome in their applause for Tuam, indeed we joined them on stage afterwards and the Dungarvan crew began to party as though they had won themselves. Well done to everyone involved - you made us proud!

Special thanks to Tam for the endless supply of Tara's cookies, and also to Theresa who slaved all morning to make sandwiches for us. We were well fed and the extra energy from their food contributed to our all-action performance on stage.

All things go in cycles and we will be back again in 2008 so I ask Tuam to keep the trophy well polished up for us in the meantime.

Variety Prize Winners

Best Comedy Act ..... Chicken Pox (Featuring Rory Moloney, Daniel O'Mahoney, Fiona Slaton, Mary Hogan, Luke Martin, Declan Hyland, Jim De Fusco & Jonathon Sheehan)

Best Male Singer...Stephen McKelvie (Oh What a Beautiful Morning)

Best Female Singer...Lisa Mangan (All That Jazz)

Best Irish Dancer .... Chloe Lawlor (now known as Cleo)

Best Sean Nos Dancer.... Roisin Fahey (for a record third year in a row)

No Meeting This Week

There is no club meeting this week. As we are into the Summer holidays now we will not be meeting every week. Belated best wishes to all those who are doing exams at the moment.

Those who are going to Killarney will be texted as to when they are to drop in their money for the trip.

We have put together a group of 12 to organise a Summer Trip for the club probably to be held in August. This group will meet over the next week or so and again will be informed by text as to time and place.

Riverdance

On Thursday 21st of June the club will travel by coach to Killarney to see Riverdance. We are staying overnight in the Gleneagles Hotel and will return on Friday afternoon after relaxation and some shopping in Killarney. Pat Grant is coming to Killarney with us to see if he can pick up a few new moves.

This trip was booked out but three of the original applicants cannot now go so we have three spaces up for grabs. The tickets for the bus, the show & the hotel B&B cost just 99 Euro, which is a steal. If you are a member, an associate or a former member and you would like to come to Killarney with us then text John immediately on 087-782825 to secure your place.

Bag Packing

After a hectic year of activities the club funds were depleted so last weekend we were bag packing in Dunne's Stores. We were delighted with the response from all the shoppers and wish to thank them sincerely for their generosity. Thanks also to all our bag packers, particularly those who did more than one stint. The title of Bag Packer of the Year is shared between Aideen Mulcahy and Luke Martin. Both were still packing late on Sunday when everyone else was heading for the beach.

The club owes a huge debt of gratitude to Theresa Daly who virtually single handedly organised the bag packing for us. Thanks a million Theresa, we very much appreciate your hard work.

It's a miracle!

They say that the world is a small place. Four No Namers Lorna, Eileen, Naimh & Des went to Lourdes last week to assist with the infirm (some people would go to any lengths to avoid bag packing). While they were there they got talking to a lovely lady from Waterford. To their amazement they discovered that she was none other than Pat Grant's mother. Lorna says she was "sound out just like her son Pat".

Auf Wiedersehen

The No Name Club says "Auf Wiedersehen" to our two German friends Liza Schroeder and Linda Witekam who are returning home this week. The girls spent the 2006/07 school year in 5th Yr at St. Augustine's College. During the year they spent many days and nights with us in the NNC. It is noticeable that some of our Irish members have improved their German this year - especially some of the guys. So long girls it was great getting to know you. Hopefully we'll see you back in Dungarvan again soon.

CINEMA REVIEW

By Barry Power

Ocean's Thirteen*****

Getting excited about Ocean's Thirteen is a task that really depends on what you have seen of the series. If you have seen neither of its predecessors then you will surely be very eager to watch a slick heist movie directed by one of Hollywood's real talents, Steven Soderbergh, and featuring an eye-wateringly starry cast. If you saw the first George Clooney effort you will be perhaps slavering at the thought of a follow up to one of the smartest, most enjoyable movies in recent years. However, if it was your misfortune to see Ocean's Twelve you will probably dread the prospect of sitting through another such borefest. So the fact that, in cinema at least, Thirteen is closer to Eleven than Twelve will come as a relief to fans worldwide.

The gang's motivation this time round is revenge, as they attempt to repay Al Pacino's brazen hotel owner Willie Bank for ripping off Reuben Tishkoff (Elliot Gould). While Reuben languishes in ill health and depression after Bank's betrayal, Danny (Clooney) puts together the old team, including Rusty (Brad Pitt) and Linus (Matt Damon) to bankrupt and humiliate Bank on the opening night of his new casino. The plot driven script follows the pitfalls and successes the Oceans have along the way to the big opening night and then delivers the heist.

Although neither as slick nor as fresh as Eleven, Thirteen wins big in the humour stakes. The big payoff isn't as impressive as before perhaps but then as the theme of the theft is revenge rather than gain or necessity, the tension never builds. Instead the joy comes from the comic flow of the gang, especially the easy humour between Clooney, Pitt and Damon and a real breakout for Casey Affleck, who shows up as the funniest thing in the entire movie. As ever, there are enough twists and turns to keep everyone guessing and the soundtrack by David Holmes is as sleazy and cheesy as Las Vegas music should be. The story opens up the world of the Oceans enough to suggest that there may be more films in the works, though hopefully not along the exact same lines as the franchise has taken to its end now. Although not a match for Eleven, the horror of Twelve has been erased and Ocean's Thirteen is an enjoyable addition to the franchise.

Still Showing

Paradise Lost (*****) isn't original; neither is it funny (as many great horrors are) or shiver-yourself-to-sleep-afterwards scary. The tale of gringo backpackers lost in Brazil and preyed upon by organ stealing locals does have a sheer sense of excitement going for it though. It is also gorgeous to watch, both because of the Brazilian scenery and the gorgeous cast. It packs in the gore, which may be more stomach turning than frightening but has a doubtless effect. Without doing anything special it still manages to be a guilty pleasure and is worth a look.

Wedding Daze (*****) meanwhile is a perky little film that makes the best of a threadbare concept with a cheaper version of the kind of gently outlandish humour that made Little Miss Sunshine such a hit last year. Jason Biggs stars as Anderson, whose life has been in a slump since his fiancée died. After chiding from a friend he proposes to total stranger Katie (Isla Fisher) in a café. Katie, freaked out by her own love life and with a family history of spontaneity, accepts his offer. Equally stunned by this outcome, the pair embark on a rollercoaster journey to married life upon which they discover some interesting feelings.

Away in the beautiful land with God,
In a valley of peace so fair,
Some day, some time, dear Mart,
I will find you waiting there,
I will know your voice in the heavenly crowd,
And your steps on the streets of gold,
And the same sweet smile on your face,
I knew in the days of old,
Your memory is my greatest treasure,
Deep in my heart you will live forever.

(Remembered always with love by your sister Marie, brother-in-law Tommie, nephews Raymond, Emmett and Adrian).

Of a brother I love so dear,
As the days go on without you Mart,
And weeks turn into years,
They hold a million memories,
And hide a million tears,
And when I see your photo,
You seem to smile and say,
Don't cry I'm only sleeping,
We'll meet again some day,
Treasured memories are all I have left,
Of a brother I love and will never forget.

Of the special times we shared,
The way you looked out for us, Mart,
The way you always cared.
There is a place in every heart,
They call it memory lane,
Where thoughts of loved ones lost forever, will remain,
God made this special place,
When he first created man,
For he knew it would be needed,
As part of our life's plan,
He knew when Martin left us,
We'd need some time to heal,
To come to terms with sorrow,
And the loneliness we'd feel,
So when you lose a loved one,
And when your life is filled with pain,
The comfort of your presence, Mart,
Will be found in memory lane.
(Still missed, loved and never forgotten by Mam and Ned).

When evening shadows fall.

We did not see you close your eyes,
We did not see you die,
All we knew that you were gone Mart,
Without a last goodbye,
It was a sudden parting,
Too bitter to forget,
Only those who loved you,
Are the ones who will never forget,
The happy hours we once enjoyed,
How sweet their memory still,
But death has left a vacant place,
This world can never fill.

And only those who share our pain,
Can understand our loss,
Not a day do we forget you,
In our hearts you are always near,
As we loved you so we miss you,
As it dawns another year,
Some people say that given time,
The heartache would subside,
But the feelings in our hearts today,
Are the same as when you died,

We had a beautiful daughter,
Catherine was her name,
In life we loved her dearly,
In death we do the same,
In the silence of our minds,
Where no one else can see,
Your smile, your voice, your memory,
Is kept so tenderly,
One year has passed already Catherine,
We can't believe it's true,
We thought about you a lot today,
But then we always do,
No words were ever written,
No verse will ever say,
How much we love and miss you Catherine,
On this our saddest day,
God saw you getting weary,
A cure was not to be,
He put his arm around you Catherine,
And whispered come to me,
Keep your arms around her Lord,
And give her special care,
Make up for all she suffered,
And all that seemed unfair.

(Forever loved and sadly missed Mammy and Daddy).

A best friends touch, a best friends kiss,
Grieving friends, you're greatly missed,
An empty house, an empty chair,
A best friends love no longer there,
A broken heart, tear filled eyes,
Another soul to fill the sky,
Many memories in our minds,
Some we laugh, some we cry,
The times we shared, the laugh we had,
Things we miss when we think of you Catherine,
Realising that's all we have to hold on to,
Only memories of what once was you,
Missing your laugh, we will never again hear,
That's the reality that fills us with so much fear,
No more smiles on our face or warmth of your embrace,
The last hug the last kiss,
The last goodbye leaves us with one last wish,
To have you Catherine here with us today,
Never to leave your friends this way,
A best friends touch, a best friends kiss,
Grieving friends, your greatly missed.

A PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN (Never known to fail) — O most beautiful Flower of Mount Carmel, fruitful vine, splendour of heaven, blessed Mother of the Son of God, Immaculate Virgin assist me in my necessity. O Star of the Sea help me and show me herein you are my mother. O Holy Mary Mother of God, queen of heaven and earth, I humbly beseech you from the bottom of my heart to succour me in this necessity; there are none that can withstand your power. O show me herein you are my mother. O Mary conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3 times). Holy Mother I place this cause in your hands (3 times). Holy Spirit, you who solve all problems, light all roads so that I can attain my goal, you who gave me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evil against me and that in all instances of my life you are with me, I want in this short prayer to thank you for all things as you confirm once again that I never want to be separated from you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy towards me and mine. The person must say this prayer on three consecutive days. After three days the request will be granted. This prayer must be published after the favour is granted. — A.H.

NOVENA TO SACRED HEART — Dear Heart of Jesus, in the past I have asked you for many favours. This time I ask for this special one (mention favour). Take it, dear Heart of Jesus and place it within your own broken heart, where your Father sees it. Then, in his merciful eyes, it will become your prayer, not mine. Amen. Say this prayer for three days, promise publication and favour will be granted. Never known to fail — A.H.

BRAY — Birthday Remembrance of Michelle Bray, late of 47 Childers Est., Dungarvan whose birthday occurs on June 15th.
A thousand words won't bring you back,
We know because we've tried,
Neither will a million tears,
We know because we've cried.
Sometimes we think we're dreaming,
We cannot believe it is true,
That we can all go on living,
Now that we no longer have you.
(Always loved by Mam, John, Kevin, Leah, Kim, Sinead and Glen).

BRAY — Birthday Remembrance of Michelle Bray, 47 Childers Est., Dungarvan whose birthday occurs on June 15.

MICHELLE

I think of you today,
But that is nothing new,
I thought about you yesterday,
And the day before that too,
No longer in our lives to share,
But in our hearts you are always there,
Another year a silent tear,
Miss you Michelle, wish you were here.
(Never forgotten by your loving friend Colette XXXXXX).

COSTIN — Birthday Remembrance of my mother Mary Costin, Ballinagoul, Ring whose birthday occurs on 12th June.

No birthday cards to put on show,
No candles on a cake to blow,
Your special day we cannot share,
My gift to you must be a prayer,
Let the stars be your candles,
Mum,
And keep them burning bright,
So that when I look up to the sky,
I know that you're alright,
So today it is your birthday,
Mum,
And I would like to send,
A great big happy birthday wish,
To the bestest Mum in the world.

(Always remembered by your loving daughter Kathleen and family XXXX).

COSTIN — Birthday Remembrance of my grandmother Mary Costin, Ballinagoul, Ring whose birthday occurs on 12th June.

It's lonely here without you,
Nan,
I miss you more each day,
Somehow life does not seem the same,
Since you have gone away,
My heart still aches with sadness,
My eyes shed many a tear,
God only knows how much I miss you,
Since you went away,
(Always remembered by your loving granddaughter Veronica, John and family, Miss U XXXXXX).

COSTIN — Birthday Remembrance of Mary Costin, Ballinagoul, Ring whose birthday occurs June 12. R.I.P.

You have crossed the flowing river,
To the shores of evergreen,
We would dearly love to see you,
But the river flows between.
Away on a beautiful hillside,
Free from sorrow and pain,
Some day we will go to meet you, Nan,
And find you waiting there,
We will know your voice among the crowd,
And your loving smile of old,
And our hands will meet on God's own street,
And never more unfold.
(Happy Birthday Nan — never forgotten by your granddaughter Mary and friend Patrick XXX).

CORCORAN — Birthday Remembrance of Mary Corcoran, Knockadunlea, Araglen whose birthday occurs on 15 June.

Today is your birthday Mum,
But you are not at home,
We cannot kiss you on the cheek,
Or call you on the phone,
Instead we write this letter verse,
But what we'd rather do,
To put our arms around you,
And say happy birthday to you.

(Always loved and remembered by all your family at home and away XXX).

BUCKLEY — In loving memory of Gerard Anthony Buckley, R.I.P., late of Lower Glen, Modeligo and Johannesburg, South Africa, whose birthday occurs on the 12th June, 2007.

As time goes by without you,
And days turn into years,
We recall so many memories,
And shed a million tears,
Nobody knows the heartache,
Hidden in the smile,
Only those that have endured the same,
Will understand the grief,
And I pray to God to comfort them,
In His own special way,
And to you my son on God's Green shore,
May the winds of love blow softly,
And whisper for you to hear,
A very happy birthday, Gerard,
From all your loved ones here.

(Sadly missed: Mom, Michael and Siobhan).
Uncle Gerard: Happy birthday, hope the Angels give you a big birthday party. Love and Hugs: Gavin Gerard XXX.

I hide my tears when I speak your name,
But the ache in my heart is still the same,
I laugh, I joke, I play the part,
But behind my smile is a broken heart,
I wish that I could see you Sean,
Sitting in your chair,
I wish that I could go back home,
And find you waiting there,

eCommerce - Realising the Opportunity

The internet and eCommerce can bring real market opportunities to businesses in County Waterford. In 2006 an additional 20,000 customers used broadband every month in Ireland. One third of Irish people say that they use the internet each day, while 42% use it several times a week. Yet many Irish businesses do not use the internet to conduct business, and when they do they use it to buy rather than sell.

E-Commerce opens up a wide market for a businesses products and services. To help businesses understand the opportunity, Waterford County Enterprise Board is hosting a seminar eCommerce - Realising the Opportunity. The Enterprise Board has invited high-profile experts on doing business on-line to speak at the seminar.

Fergal O'Byrne, is the Chief Executive Officer of the Irish Internet Association and was instrumental in setting up eircornet. He is author of the book '10 Online Marketing and Search Engine Essentials.

Meave Kneafsey, Managing Director of Elucidate, has advised high profile clients such as An Post, First Active, Eircom and Permanent tsb on their eCommerce Strategy. Meave understands the requirements of smaller organisations and she recently advised clients of Waterford County Enterprise Board.

Ian Tilson is a graduate of Waterford Institute of Technology and is a Personal Account Manager with eBay, one of the world's largest eCommerce portals.

Ian O'Sullivan, founder of Dungarvan business success i-to-i will also speak on his experience in eCommerce. According to Ian O'Sullivan, eCommerce is central to the success of i-to-i.

The seminar will take place at 1.30pm on June 28 at the Clonea Strand Hotel, Dungarvan. For further details contact Waterford County Enterprise Board at 058-44811 or email us at waterfordceb@cablesurf.com.

CIVIC LINK NOTES

Heritage Group

Preparations for the Heritage Exhibition over July 6th to 9th are ongoing, with the spaces for exhibits nearly full. If anyone has anything else of local interest, do let us know sooner rather than later, as we would really like to accommodate as much of interest as possible. A gentle reminder to shops and businesses too that we are sponsoring a shop display trophy for the best heritage-related display over the same weekend. No entry fee required.

Many thanks to everyone who has commented positively on Jacinta's sample lectern display, currently in the Credit Union window. It is really excellent. It is anticipated that work will begin over the next weeks on the other displays.

Also now in the Credit Union window is a mock-up of the proposed cover of our forthcoming heritage trail guide, provisionally entitled 'Cappoquin: A Brief Guide to a Rich Heritage'. Any comments or alternative design suggestions are welcome. The booklet itself will run to 32 colour pages, with over seventy illustrations, including two Arthur Maderson drawings on the cover, three pages of maps and loads of photographs, old and new. These are accompanied by short accounts of the people and places featured.

We hope this guide will be of interest to local people and visitors alike and that it will be a nice accompaniment to the plaques and lecterns which are being put in place around the area. We should be able to collect the booklets from the printers within two to three weeks, so expect to see them on sale by the early days in July. There won't be a formal launch on this occasion but take it as definite that the booklets will be on sale in many locations around the area, and over the Cornerstone Carnival weekend in particular.

English Classes

Just a note to say that the free English language lessons at the Library have now ended for the summer holiday period. We hope to resume again in September. It is important to take this opportunity to thank Mary Tobin and family for their assistance with the classes. It is important also to say a big thank you, on behalf of the tutors, to our students. We have had people from Poland, Latvia, Slovakia and China over the months and our experience with you has been very enriching. The fun and challenge of getting to know each other, not to mention getting to know a new language, has been fascinating and, we hope it has been of use to everyone.

Defibrillator Appeal

It now looks very likely that we will have enough volunteers to train in the use of the area defibrillator. There is definitely still room for one or two more people on the training team, so do contact one of the committee if you are interested in getting involved. We will be in touch with those who have already indicated their interest in a short time. Many thanks to the volunteers, and again to Michael O'Rourke of the Melleray-Cappoquin Red Cross for their magnificent work on this initiative.

Glenshelane Clean-Up

Despite pretty unclean weather, it was great to see over twenty members of the camogie club join with Civic Link members last Saturday week to do a clean-up of Glenshelane and the Lyre Bridge area. It was, as last year, a great sign of the social commitment of the young people in particular. The assistance of Fintan Strain of Abbeyside Scouts was also much appreciated, as was the support of the Tidy Towns committee members who made litter pickers etc available to us. A final note of thanks also to the organisers of the Snooker Club's Duck Race a few days later, who did a fantastic job in leaving the picnic area as tidy as it was when we left it. And what a fun day out was had by all as well.

CAPPOQUIN SNOOKER & BILLIARDS CLUB

Duck Derby: A Huge Success

On Bank Holiday Monday last we held our Annual Duck Derby in Glenshelane and again this year. It was a fantastic day for the club and everyone present. Everything on the day went like clockwork. All the organising and sales of ducks had been planned in advance but what we were blown away by was the huge crowd that turned up. Most of the people that were in the crowd said that after last years derby they just had to be there again this year to enjoy and join in the craic. Once again we were blessed by the beautiful weather. The bouncy castles were on the go all day and all children were guaranteed to have a great time. Again the bar-b-cue was top class and great credit from the club must go to Keith Millea for the way he kept the food rolling all day. Keith had many helpers, Veronica Costin, Bridget Murray, Maureen Allen and M. Farrelly and a big thank you to all of you. Alice Reddy again sold tickets for the many prizes and again this year Alice your help was very much appreciated. All day from 2 pm on Michael O'Rourke was M.C. for the day. Just to sit in Glenshelane and listen to Mike would be enough as he had all the crowd entertained throughout the whole day. Again a very big thank you Mike for another great job. Finally a very big thank you to all members of the club/committee who sold ducks and who helped out on the day. Your presence alone made this day go as smooth as was planned. It just goes to show that when you have a committee like ours who are willing to put in so much effort what can be achieved. So a big well done to everyone who helped out on the day. Finally a huge thank you to you the public for your very kind contribution to this years derby. It is people like you who keep clubs like ours going and again when we call you come up trumps. Thank you all from everyone involved in the Cappoquin Snooker & Billiards Club.

Thanks also to Jacinta Uniacke for her wonderful work in organising the advertising boards that were on display on all roads leading into Cappoquin and to Tom O'Donoghue of Coillte for all his help also.

For the record this years Duck Derby champion is Kevin Forde "Daybreak", Dungarvan. 2nd was Louis Lommano, Belville, Cappoquin. 3rd was Michael Kiely, Dromana, Cappoquin.

Last Saturday they met St. Pats/

A little later the Dromana 5 Road race will finish in town and at 9.30 we will be showing the film of the last train to pass along the local railway line. The film will be shown in the new Community Centre and entry will be free. There will be music in the Square and later at the Boat House to welcome the Boats arriving from down river and to keep the audience entertained while they wait for the spectacular Firework Display.

On Saturday in St. Anne's Church, Blackwater Community School will restage the award winning display from The Young Scientist of the Year Competition. A second-hand book sale will be held at the same time and proceeds from this will go to the churches in Cappoquin.

Local products will be on sale at the Market in the Square from 10.30 onwards. Stalls will include Barron's Bakery, Crinnaghtau Apple Juice, Glenribbeen Organics, Knockalara Cheese, Knockanore Cheese, and McGrath's Jams. There will also be an opportunity to taste Specialities from Poland and Medieval Irish Cooking.

During Saturday the Local Anglers' Club will hold a fishing competition, Railway Athletic will hold a Family Day at their ground and there will be a Snooker competition in the newly refurbished Snooker Hall.

At 3pm all are invited to take a walk around Historic Cappoquin; this will be especially interesting as the weekend sees the launch of the Heritage Group's book explaining the stories behind the Plaques and Lecterns they have set up around the town to remind us of Cappoquin's rich history. The illustrated booklet will be available to buy at the Heritage Exhibition and would make a memorable gift for any resident, visitor or Cappoquin exile.

A Car Treasure Hunt has been organised for 5.00pm and you can begin to search for the answers to the cunningly cryptic clues at the car park in Glenshelane. The entry fee for this is €5.00 per car so if you pack in the passengers they can help you solve the riddles but you will have to share out the prize at the end when the winners are announced at 7.00pm in town.

The Carnival will literally stop the traffic on the streets at 8.15pm when a Round-The-Houses Cycle Race is held in the area between Walshe's Hotel and St. Anne's Church. This event has attracted riders from across Munster who will be completing several circuits and, apart from cash prizes, a Perpetual Trophy will be awarded.

Sunday will provide a last opportunity to visit the three exhibitions and a Classic and Vintage car Show will be held in the afternoon.

Beginning at 9.00am Cappoquin Salmon and Trout Anglers Association will be holding an Open Salmon Fishing Competition.

In the early afternoon Cappoquin Camogie Club will hold a Camogie Blitz, there will be a Children's Fancy Dress Competition and an Archery Display. A little later there will be a GAA Fun Tournament at the Field.

As part of the Cornerstone Carnival weekend the Cappoquin Heritage Group is sponsoring a trophy for the shop window display which best highlights a heritage theme.

The competition is open to all business premises in the town, whether pubs, shops or other retail outlets. If you are not sure whether your business is eligible for inclusion, give us a call. We aim to be flexible.

The theme of the window display can be as varied as you like - a display of the goods sold in the shop in times gone by, a photo display, sports, industry, etc. We will, again, be flexible as long as the official entry is made and the theme is one of celebrating our heritage.

A perpetual trophy will be presented to the winning entrant, with judging being done by an outside guest judge to ensure fairness. If you are interested in participating, please contact either Cara McGrath (Credit Union) or Kevin McCarthy (Barrack Street).

The carnival website at www.cappoquincornerstonecarnival.org has pictures from last year's events and will provide a timetable for this year.

We hope that everyone and all ages will find plenty to interest them over the three days; if you know of Cappoquin Exiles, perhaps your own family, why not contact them now to invite them back to the town for the weekend 6th, 7th and 8th of July and we can guarantee them a great welcome and an unforgettable re-union.

KILROSSANTY ICA

Our June meeting was held on Monday the 11th. A large number of members attended. A lot of the meeting was devoted to a discussion on the future of the ICA. This was followed by a cryptic word game which tested the brains and one group actually got 100%.

Our guild outing is on the 21st June, departing from the post office, Leamybrien at 10.30 and heading to Blarney Mills Centre outside Carrick, then to Farney Castle at Holycross for a tour of the castle and porcelain workshop and finally to Hearne's Clonmel for dinner. The outing is confined to members and friends.

A lovely tea was provided by Ann Phelan and Kathleen Fieldhouse. Best wishes to Mairead who is spending a week in An Grianan.

U-12 Hurling

On Saturday morning last we played the Western Final against St. Oliver's. St. Oliver's went into the match as favourites but early in the first half, Conor Walsh scored a goal. It turned out to be the only score in the first half. At half time, the team knew that the backs were playing well but we needed more scores. Eight minutes into the second half, Kevin Raheer was on the end of a long ball into the square and buried the ball in the back of the net. Two more points were added and with five minutes to go we were eight points but then St. Oliver's scored two goals in a couple of minutes. During the three minutes of injury time (which seemed like more) our defence held out to record a great win. The final whistle was a signal to start jubilant celebrations among players, mentors, parents and supporters. After the match, Brendan Tobin presented the trophy to Oscar De Paor. After all the photos were taken, the players were treated to a meal in McDonalds. Well done to all involved.

The County Final will take place on June 23rd. Time, venue and opposition will be in next week's notes.

Panel; P. Whyte, M. Murphy, M. Morrissey, S. Curran, K. Raheer, L. Kay, O. De Paor, D. Coffey, O. Hickey, W. Brazil, C. Walsh, R. Flynn, A. Murphy, D. Hogan, M. Hassett, H. Connors, A. Hallahan.

A word of mention must go to the referee, who was only 16 but handled the game extremely well and was fair to both teams. He is part of the Young Whistlers initiative which has proven to be a great success.

Go Games

Well done to Orla Hickey who has been selected to represent Waterford next Sunday at Thurles in the Go Games exhibition which will be played at half time in the senior match between Waterford and Cork.

Well done to Dylan Hogan who represented Waterford during half time of the Waterford v Kerry game in Dungarvan.

COOKERY CORNER

Spicy bites on sticks

TRY these delicious and simple lamb mango kebabs with spiced cous cous on the patio or indoors.

Ingredients:

Serves 4
450g lean lamb, cubes

GLAZE:

2 x 15ml sp mango chutney

SPICED COUS COUS:

1 x 5ml sp oil
1 red onion, chopped
1 courgette cut into chunks
50g sultanas
1 x 15ml sp medium curry paste
300ml lamb stock
100g cous cous
2 tomatoes, chopped

Method:

THREAD the cubes of lamb onto the skewers.
Cook the kebabs under a preheated grill for four to six minutes on each side.

Brush the kebabs with the mango chutney glaze and grill them under a medium heat for one to two minutes. Turn the kebabs and repeat the process. Meanwhile, prepare the spiced cous cous.

In a saucepan, gently fry the onion in the oil for two to three minutes until it is softened and translucent.

Add the courgette to the saucepan and cook the mixture for a further minute.

Add sultanas, curry paste and stock to the pan. Bring to the boil. When the mixture has boiled, turn off the heat and stir through the cous cous and tomatoes. Cover the cous cous mix and leave for about five minutes or until all the liquid is fully absorbed. Serve with grilled pepper, courgette and onion.

Top tips

Try using a packet of flavoured cous cous, now widely available in the shops. It will help add a bit of variety to the meal. VARY the strength of the curry paste according to your taste.

Anchovy toasts - a tasty treat

TRY these tasty toasts as a fishy little snack or appetiser. Ingredients:

Serves 8
TOPPING:

Method:
Preheat the oven to 200°C/400°F/Gas Mark 6. Whisk together the oil, lemon juice and shallot. Stir in the anchovies, the tomatoes and the olives.

Arrange the bread slices on a baking tray, brush with the olive oil and scatter with the chopped garlic. Bake the bread slices for 10 minutes or until golden brown. Spread the toast with the anchovy mixture. Garnish with basil leaves and serve while still warm.

Ice-cream a la lemon meringue

THIS is a touch of cool refreshment for a hot summer's day.

Ingredients:
Serves 4
100g ready-made meringue
300-350g jar lemon curd
200ml crÈme fraÏche
75-100ml natural yoghurt
1 large punnet of strawberries, hulled
1 x 15ml sp icing sugar
Knob of unsalted butter

Method:
Lightly crush the meringue into small pieces and mix thoroughly with the lemon curd, crÈme fraÏche and yoghurt. Transfer into a plastic container, cover and place in the freezer. Stir regularly until the mixture is firm. Alternatively, use an ice-cream making machine if you have one. Next, toss the strawberries in the icing sugar. Heat the butter in a pan until beginning to bubble. Add the strawberries and move around the pan for a few minutes until they have just started to soften on the outside. Serve immediately with the ice-cream.

TOP TIP
For a richer ice-cream, use a tin of ready-made custard instead of the yoghurt and mix 150ml crÈme fraÏche. Use marshmallow pieces as an alternative to meringue.

Soft fruits can be really hardy

SUCCULENT and juicy, with a delicate skin and gentle double curve, peaches, nectarines and apricots have all these things in common so where do they differ?

The one main physical difference is that apricots are a lot smaller than peaches and nectarines.

Also, there are noticeable differences in skin texture. Nectarines are smooth and shiny, peaches are furry and apricots fall somewhere in the middle.

Apricots have been grown in Britain for the last 400 years, although not widely until the last century.

There are three main points to consider in the culture of apricots: the flowers appear in early spring and are therefore very susceptible to frost damage; many fruits may fall if the trees are dry at the roots; and fruit set may be patchy unless the flowers are hand-pollinated because there are few pollinating insects about when the flowers open in spring.

Soils that apricots relish have a neutral pH a little on the alkaline side. Good drainage is essential.

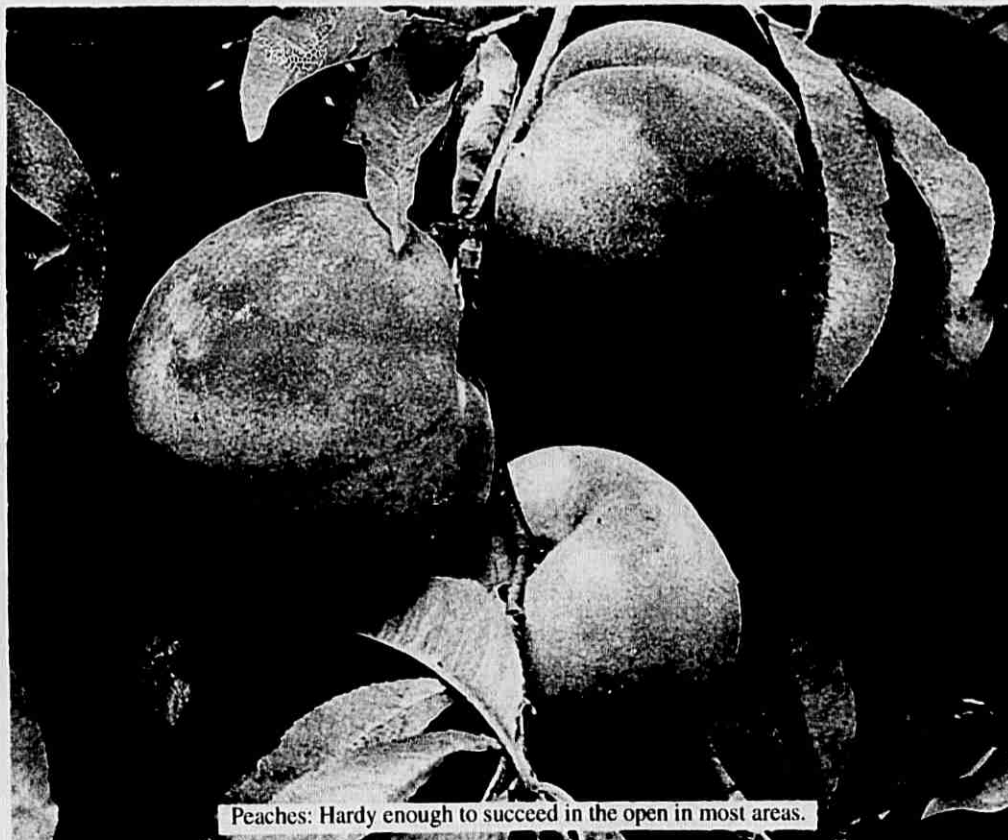

The nectarine is, in fact, the smooth-skinned form of the melt-in-the-mouth peach.

Technically it is a mutation, or bud sport, which arose more than 2,000 years ago.

As a bush tree, the nectarine has not proved popular in Europe, as it is said to be somewhat less hardy.

Far from being tender subjects, peaches are hardy enough to succeed in the open almost anywhere except the really cold regions, such as northern Scotland.

They need no special soil requirements, but the soil must be of normal garden fertility and adequately drained.

Peaches: Hardy enough to succeed in the open in most areas.

Nectarines should be grown and cultured in the same way as peaches. Recommended varieties of peaches include Duke of York, Peregrine and Rochester.

Varieties of nectarines that are recommended include Early Rivers and Golden State. If you want to grow apricots choose from Farmingdale, Moor Park or Blenheim.

Prune flower shrubs

Any shrubs that flowered during May or early June can be pruned, but this is not to say that pruning is always necessary. Much depends on the purpose for which the shrub is being grown and the amount of space that you can spare for it.

Take pink cuttings

Now is the time to propagate pinks by cuttings. Select healthy looking, non-flowering shoots 10 to 13cm long and pull them out at a joint.

This is known as taking a eippingi. Insert these pipings firmly, 5cm deep and about 10cm apart each way, in sandy soil, preferably in a frame, but failing this in a shady border outdoors and keep well watered. They should be well rooted and ready for planting out by the end of September.

Sow French Beans

Make a sowing of French beans in a sheltered place outdoors. Sow the seeds singly about 15 cm apart in drills 5 cm deep. An economical method is to have two drills about 23 to 30 cm apart, then an alleyway about 75 cm wide, then another couple of rows and so on.

Stop cutting asparagus

It is most unwise to cut asparagus after the third week in June. Allow the plants to make foliage now so that new crowns may be formed for next year. Give the bed a small dressing of any good compound fertiliser.

Spray apples against Codling Moth

If in previous years grubs have been found feeding inside apples during July and August it is probable that the codling moth is responsible, and steps should be taken now to prevent further damage. Spray all apple trees at once with derris carbaryl, fenitrothion or malathion making sure that the fruitlets are covered. It would be a good idea to spray again in about 3 weeks' time to catch any later-hatching grubs. This pest is easily confused with apple sawfly.

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

QUESTION

Who is entitled to claim a Bereavement Grant in the event of a death?

ANSWER

The Bereavement Grant is a payment to assist with funeral or other expenses following a death. The grant of €850 is usually paid to the person responsible for these expenses. Eligibility usually depends on the number of PRSI (Pay-Related Social Insurance) contributions that have been made over a certain period of time. You may also be eligible based on entitlement to certain social welfare payments.

The PRSI requirement can be met by the PRSI payments of either the deceased person or their spouse or partner. In the case of the death of a child under 18 years of age (or under 22 if in full-time education), the PRSI contributions of their parent or guardian are taken into account.

The grant is also payable on the death of:

A contributory pensioner, their spouse or partner, or someone for whom they received a qualified child allowance or qualified adult allowance

An orphan for whom a Guardian's Payment (Contributory) was being paid, or their guardian

The widow or widower of a deceased insured person

From May 2007, the grant is payable on the death of a person aged between 16 and 22 who was receiving Disability Allowance. To apply for the Bereavement Grant, contact your local Social Welfare Office or telephone Lo-call 1890 500 000.

Other grants available following a death include the Widowed Parent Grant, for widows or widowers with dependent children, and the Special Funeral Grant which may be claimed under the Occupational Injuries Benefit Scheme where a death results from a work-related accident or disease.

MONEYMATTERS

FOREIGN LOTTERIES

We have all received promotional material, regarding foreign lotteries and we are very tempted by the prizes on offer. However, before you proceed to hand over your credit card details and personal information perhaps you should take the following warning from the European Consumer Centre in Dublin into consideration.

The European Consumer Centre in Dublin has seen a huge increase in the past year of Irish consumers complaining about foreign lotteries.

With most of these lotteries you are told in the promotional material that you have won a major prize. To claim the prize however, you must submit personal details and very often credit card information. But if you read the small print it indicates that you have only entered into a prize draw and money will be debited from the credit card to pay for administration fees and lottery tickets.

The warning from the European Consumer Centre in Dublin is to be wary of these lotteries and consumers should note that:

Legitimate lottery operators do not ask for administration fees.

Never provide personal identity information to an unknown third party.

If you receive information from foreign lotteries you should contact the European Consumer Centre, 13a Upper O'Connell St., Dublin 1.

Concerns Over Addition Of Untested Substance To Drinking Water

Independent MEP for Munster, Kathy Sinnott wrote to the Irish Medicines Board asking their position on hydrofluorosilicic acid, which is used by the HSE and the Minister of Health to add to Irish drinking water in order to prevent dental caries.

She expressed her concerns over what she called an "unlicensed and untested drug" and requested that the Board test this medicinal product for safety and effectiveness.

The Irish Medicines Board responded that they do not classify hydrofluorosilicic acid as a medicinal product and that its use in the fluoridation of water was not within their statutory brief.

Sinnott said: "As hydrofluorosilicic acid in drinking water is used for preventing the disease of dental caries, it is a medicinal product by definition under European Directive (2004/27 EC) on Medicinal Products. Hydrofluorosilicic acid, by bypassing the legal regulatory system, is administered to the Irish population untested for safety and contradicts the law demanding such safety testing."

"The IMB (Irish Medical Board) has confirmed that hydrofluorosilicic acid is not a medicine. Adding it to our drinking water for medicinal purposes, as a medicinal product, is completely illegal on these grounds. All medicines in use in Ireland must be approved by the IMB which is the only competent statutory regulatory body for licensing medical products in Ireland and yet it has never tested this highly unstable and toxic pollutant, on which Irish people are being medicated daily."

Sinnott was "appalled" that in Ireland and Europe, hydrofluorosilicic acid has not been nor is being tested and is being used by the HSE in Ireland. "Successive governments have mass medicated us by adding synthetic fluorides to Irish drinking water. We can see the harm that is being done as a result of exposure to this substance during our youngest years, by the increase in fluorosis and bone disorders."

"As vice president of the European Parliament's Petitions Committee, I am hosting a number of petitions from groups addressing this issue of hydrofluorosilicic acid. I hope that hydrofluorosilicic acid's days are numbered and that our new government will take the issue of force medicating the population seriously. They need to ensure that the IMB tests hydrofluorosilicic acid and in doing so will realise how dangerous and unsafe it is and ban the use of this toxic waste substance."

FEARS OVER BRAZILIAN BEEF HIGHLIGHTED BY CROWLEY

Irish Government MEPs met with the top Brazilian envoy to the EU earlier this month in Brussels to seek serious assurances that the Brazilian Government is implementing a range of animal health and quality control measures in its beef sector.

The European Commission is demanding that these animal health and quality control measures are put in place as a matter of urgency.

Brazil exports over 330,000 tonnes of beef per annum to the EU. The value of beef exports consumed in Ireland in the year 2006 was valued at 104 million Euro.

Brian Crowley MEP, Liam Aylward MEP and Sean O Neachtain MEP met with top Brazilian envoy to the EU, Ambassador Maria Celina De Azevedo.

Brian Crowley MEP and President of the UEN political group in the European Parliament said: "The purpose of the meeting was to seek assurances that the Brazilian Government is fully and strictly implementing a wide range of animal health and quality control measures covering its beef sector."

"This is very important from both an agricultural and consumer viewpoint. Brazil exports 333,000 tonnes of beef to the European Union each year and this amounts to in excess of 65% of all beef imports into the EU from a non-EU country."

The European Commission is taking a tough line on this issue of Brazilian beef exports to the EU and some of the European Commission concerns include the following movement control, the vaccination process, and enhanced controls on farms which dispatch cattle for slaughter for export.

Crowley MEP said that, "it is clear that the European Commission has given the Brazilian Government a shopping list of measures to implement in the animal health and quality control areas governing the Brazilian beef sector."

"I have urged the European Commission for some time to vigorously monitor the beef sector in Brazil very carefully because foot and mouth disease does exist in three regional areas of Brazil."

FREELANCE JOURNALIST WANTED BY PARLIAMENT

The European Parliament Office in Ireland has launched a new call for tender seeking the services of a freelance journalist in Ireland.

The notice appears in the Official Journal (12/05/2007) under the title 'provision of EU-related news services (with a particular focus on the European Parliament) and dissemination of those columns on a weekly basis to regional and local publications throughout Ireland'.

There is a short item on the website (www.europarl.ie) and the following link will bring you directly to the OJ notice, a copy of which appears on the website: http://www.europarl.ie/OJ\_contr\_notice\_for\_Eurolink\_2007.htm

Minehead Lighthouse

A series of organised walks are currently taking place in Ring and next wednesday 13 June (meet at John Paul's pub 7.30) there will be a visit to Minehead in Old Parish.

What do we know about the history of the lighthouse? The lighthouse was constructed by the Commissioners of Irish Lights to designs commissioned from George Halpin (c.1775-1854), the elegant four storey structure is built of tooled granite ashlar which is painted over. There is a painted copper-clad dome lantern on a moulded stone plinth. There is a platform with wrought iron railings. 'The construction of the shaft attests to high quality stone masonry, which is particularly evident in the fine tooled detailing, while the lantern is of technical interest.' There are also two attractive stone cottages for living accommodation.

County Waterford Beekeepers Notes

Summer, swarming and the "June gap" have all arrived close on one another. After a few, now forgotten, weeks of cool, blustery weather around the end of May we are now heading towards mid-summer. As far as the "June gap" is concerned we may have to rewrite that. A week ago in the locality here (Lismore area) the first blackberry bushes were in flower. Granted the areas concerned are sheltered and sunny - but flowering blackberry in late May / early June is not sticking to the script and so we may have no gap in our honey flow at this time. The same cannot be said about swarming. Swarms are reported all over the place. From a bee's point of view this is a very healthy sign as bees will only swarm when there are times of plenty...as a rule! Certainly the successful beekeeper is the one who deals effectively with swarm protection and keeps stocks and honey intact. I must confess to not being one of these. While I had four hives on oil-seed rape in April two had swarmed and one had become queenless on their return to their original apiary. Nevertheless three of them yielded a super of honey...so you win some you lose some. Altogether I found that moving bees to the rape to be a positive experience, though in future I will examine hives while they are stationed out. As it turned out the honeyflow only started two to three weeks after flowering begun and as it turned out only after rainfall (April was practically without rain) so our flora does require moisture to release nectar.

The Association has been very successful in its hive opening programme this season. Our thanks to Tony Murray for hosting the last meeting in Carrigroe, which despite inclement weather and dropping temperatures turned out to be a very fruitful meeting. Most of us are very impressed with the manner with which Tony works his bees without gloves. We are also impressed with the bees manners. Tony is demanding on his standards of bee behaviour and two stings from the same hive is marked as down the scale on his report sheets. (Most of us would be delighted with hives that only recorded two stings per opening) Queens were found and marked (and clipped expertly by our favourite barber, P. J. Curran) and those present practised the holding of Queens poised for clipping by using drones instead - a good and safe way to gain confidence in this procedure.

Our next meeting is on Sunday 10 June at the same P. J. Curran's when the emphasis will be on queen breeding. It's no use me urging members to attend because it will have happened by the time you read this! But you will be able to read all about it on this space next month. Keep your reports of swarming and anything else coming.

Finally, we wish our President Noel Lonergan a speedy recovery after he was taken to Waterford Regional Hospital some days ago. Hopefully by the time you read this Noel you will be at your workshop in Cappoquin and about that pair of trousers! Enjoy the good weather and your bees in the coming weeks.

Strike Hoose Before Coughing Starts

Pneumonia is the scourge of suckled calves in October/November. But an animal with lungs damaged by hoose in July/August is much more likely to get pneumonia. And, of course, the performance of an animal with a damaged lung from hoose will be below par. Hence very good reasons to bury hoose when it is likely to appear. The first signs of coughing in spring born calves can appear as we move through June into July. It is too late dosing when coughing has started. Damage has already been caused. Both suckled and bucket reared calves are eating a significant amount of grass by now. As they graze they pick up infection. So the first dose should be in late June. The next around mid August. Levamisole is cheap and is an excellent hoose treatment. It will also hit stomach worms. But the important point is to strike before coughing starts. Otherwise damage is already done. An earlier dose can make all the difference.

Can we Cut Nitrogen Costs?

Up to recently far too much nitrogen was being applied on grassland particularly at low to medium stocking rates. But the rapid rise in the cost of nitrogen means that it is now being applied much more prudently. With excess nitrogen you grow more grass than can be grazed. The result - very poor quality grass or a lot of time spent topping fields or making baled silage you may not need.

Very little nitrogen will be spread on most drystock farms for the rest of the year. On dairy farms the following are the Moorepark recommendations for the rest of the year.

Stocking Rate

Acres per L. Unit Fertiliser N. units per acre June/July/August/Sept. 1.25 or greater 14141 to 1.252120

P.S. Save time by blanket spreading all the grazing area at the same time.

Slurry Waste

Lots of slurry being spread after silage this past week. Unfortunately it is the worst time of year to apply. Nitrogen in the slurry spread at this time is a complete loss. Every 3,000 gallons spread between February and April would have given at least 30 units of Nitrogen. This time of year it just goes off in the air.

June Breeding - A Vital Month.

20% of spring calving dairy cows are now calving in April or later. Disastrous from a profit point of view.

Cows calved 42 days and not been seen in heat since are a dilemma. Either you have missed them or they are not cycling at all. Do you wait for another 21 days and hope you pick them up then or do you do something about the situation? Fair enough if you pick her up at day 63 post calving. Ideally she will be in her 2nd heat at this stage and she will have a 60% chance of going in calf.

Back to the cow calved 42 days and not seen in heat. I would get such cows checked out. Every dairy farm will have a small percentage of cows that won't cycle for one reason or other. Twins, difficult births, any cows that needs assistance at calving, all fall into that bracket which says that these cows may not cycle naturally.

Ensure that every cow and heifer you want in calf is bred before the end of June. Cows bred in mid-June will calve at the end of March next year. February and March are generally the optimum months to calve spring calving dairy cows for the key reasons:

Profit - cows calving in January produce more milk but leave less profit (because of higher production costs) than their February/March calving herd mates.

Survival - monitor farm data shows that cows calving after the end of March are twice as likely to be empty at the end of the breeding season.

Take the following steps.

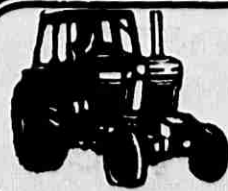

1. Continue to tail paint during the month of June (missed heats now result in culling). As there is less cows bulling now, it is much more difficult than a month ago to detect cows on heat.
2. Check records, identify cows not yet bred.
3. Examine those calved more than 5 weeks and not yet bred.
4. Continue to use dairy AI until you have used a minimum of 6 straws per heifer required (extra for expansion).

Replace Liners at the end of June.

Replacing liners after 2,000 milkings per liner is a gilt edged investment. You increase milk yield by 5% and besides worn liners are now likely to give you a cell count problem. Eddie O'Callaghan, Teagasc Moorepark says that the expected life of a set of liners is about 2,000 milkings. With a mean calving date of March 1st, 2,000 milking per liner will have been obtained around the end of June on many farms.

Moorepark Open Day.

Thursday June 21st should be marked on the diary of every dairy farmer for a visit to the Moorepark for the major open day. This, the major Teagasc event of 2007, is set against a background of ongoing trade liberalisation. The likely phase-out of milk quotas between 2009 and 2015 will make economies of scale and efficiency increasingly important both on farm and beyond the farm gate. Our Open Day will highlight the potential of Moorepark's state-of-the-art science and technology to optimise output and profitability in both milk production and processing. The event will feature: Increasing Efficiency at Farm Level. Milk Quality and Increasing Value. Moorepark 2007 Conference. Research Village. One-to-one Advice.

91st Running of Dungarvan Agricultural Show

Thursday 26th July marks the 91st running of Dungarvan Agricultural Show - the only Agricultural Show in Co. Waterford. Once again the Phelan and Buckley families have made their land available, a venue which has proved hugely popular with exhibitors and spectators. The various Committees have met and the classes have been arranged. Sponsors, without whom the show could not continue have again been loyal and generous. The Home Industries section always attracts a wonderful array of entries in the Horticultural, Crafts and Baking classes. Children are catered for and are encouraged to enter their Art work or indeed try their hand at Flower Arranging and Baking. The Macra na Feirme Clubs in Co. Waterford provide plenty of excitement with the wide variety of Farm Efficiency tasks.

Last year's show was memorable for the large crowds which flocked into Cappagh. The Inter-Hunt Chase was a spectacular success and will take place again this year. The Show Day traditionally is the day when people come and meet their friends from throughout the county and indeed the neighbouring counties. It is the place for some to rush from one ring to the other, as they manage their various entries and for others just to come and amble in the sunshine, watch the animals going through their paces, enjoy the colourful array of produce on display and, indeed enjoy the craic as the WLR outside Broadcast sets the lively atmosphere throughout the myriad display of Trade Stands and Stalls. Why not enter your Dog in the Red Mills Dog Show. This year the show will have the Garda mounted division who will parade through the showgrounds.

Entries will close for the Horse, Cattle and Sheep classes on Friday July 13th. All enquiries can be directed to Donna Coady, Show Secretary at (058) 41365 or to Dinah Walsh, Sec of the Home Industries Section.

Watch your local papers for further details. - Remember Thursday July 26th is Show Day this year. Why not enter this year - it adds to the fun! A Free bus will run from the square in Dungarvan throughout the day.

Ifa Seek Immediate Introduction Of Farm Schemes In Advance Of Formal Eu Decision

IFA Rural Development Chairman, Padraic Divilly, has called for the immediate introduction of Farm Schemes under the 2007 - 2013 Rural Development Plan in advance of the formal decision of the EU Commission that is now likely to be in July.

While Farm Schemes like the Early Retirement, Installation Aid, Farm Improvement Scheme, REPS 4 and Disadvantaged Areas are currently under negotiation between the Department of Agriculture and the EU Commission, there is no reason why the schemes cannot now be introduced in advance of the formal decision of the EU Rural Development Committee.

Ballinroad I.C.A News

We were very pleased at how the federation meeting went in Ballinroad hall last month. As hosts there is always a bit of pressure to put the best foot forward, but there was no need to worry as the guild members did us proud, there was help coming from all sides. The tables looked very eye catching and as usual the bakers came up trumps so well done to all!

We held our A.G.M at our last meeting. The committee remains the same except that Brigid Clancy has stepped down and Mary Fraher has come on board.

Bring full purses to the meeting tonight as our fees are now due, 27 euro for the year. As this is the last meeting before we break for the summer our treasurer

Margaret would like the fees in now please.

Those who are interested in going on the day trip on June 23rd pay Margaret a deposit of 15 euro, the venue is still under discussion but it is always a good day out. And to finish with the finances, please return your monies from the breast cancer research sponsored walk. A group of us met with the Tramore guild in the coast guard station and joined with them for the walk around the cliff in the wind and rain. The tea and cakes before and after were very welcome so thank you Tramore guild for looking after us so well.

Meeting tonight in Ballinroad hall at 8pm. We will have a lady talking hats and undergarments!! See you there.

IFA IN BRIEF

IFA Wants Outright Ban On Competition And Other Premium Rate Numbers That Do Not Provide Necessary Services To The Public

Following the recent overcharging incident with premium rate numbers, IFA Telecom has called for an outright ban on all competition and other premium rate numbers that do not provide necessary and value services to the general public.

IFA Telecom Director Pat Smith said that most of the premium rate numbers have totally exorbitant call costs and almost always provided little else but huge profit for the operators.

For example, he questioned why media companies should charge premium prices to the public entering competitions or voting for their favourite act on a TV show.

Surely these public service providers should charge people no more than a local call rate?

Mr Smith said "the Regulator and Government should ensure that the general public is not exposed to premium services that do little but take large chunks of money from vulnerable people. Many parents have suffered huge financial loss as a result of family members calling these worthless services."

IFA Telecom also called on the media to show leadership on this issue by banning all advertising associated with worthless services being promoted at premium call rates.

IFA REMIND FARMERS OF FARM WASTE MANAGEMENT DEADLINE

IFA Deputy President Derek Deane has reminded farmers who have applied for the Farm Waste Management scheme that the deadline for submission of drawings and planning permission if required is June 29th next.

Mr Deane said that farmers who had applied under the fast tracking at the end of 2006 might not have submitted the required drawings to the Department of Agriculture or for Local Authority planning permission. An extension was given up to the end of June due to the huge backlog that had developed.

The IFA Deputy President said that already 21,000 farmers have been approved to proceed with grant aid, while a further 25,000 farmers have applied but have yet to be approved for a grant aid. Many of these farmers may not yet have submitted the necessary drawings. They now have until the end of June to do this.

Macra members at a Niall Diamond revival

Well maybe not but I got your attention anyway - members were singing along to Forever in Blue Jeans, though (so not too far off) at the Miss Blue Jeans Country Festival over the June Bank Holiday weekend in Athboy. Waterford Macra was represented by Bernie Cummins from Kilmacthomas club, well done to ya. An absolutely fantastic weekend was had by all.

Co. Waterford Parish Launches Welcome Initiative

Over the past year the Parish of Abbeyside, Ballinroad and Garranbane has been working on a variety of liturgy, faith and communications initiatives. A key initiative has been the compiling and printing of a full colour Parish Welcome Booklet for new residents in the parish.

Presently a group of volunteers from the parish are calling to each home in the parish to hand deliver a copy of the booklet and to welcome new residents to the area.

Parish Priest Fr. Tim O'Riordan complimented the group of people who oversaw the production and delivery of the booklet.

"It really is amazing what a small group of people can achieve when they have energy for a task which has a definite beginning and an ending. The publication is timely in that it is a form of our outreach ministry to welcome new people who have settled in the parish over recent times. This is a time of great change and development in our area, but it is also a time when a sense of belonging and community is needed more than ever. People have different gifts and talents which, when harnessed, make for the creation of a community that is warm, welcoming, vibrant and alive. This booklet is one of the ways we invite people to become involved in the project of making ours such a community."

The booklet gives a lot of information not only about church activities but also about the many services, organizations and activities that exist in the parish which are not related to the church at all.

Those who were involved in its production are to be commended on an excellent and timely publication.

Song And Chat At Dungarvan Youthreach

Trainees and staff were pleasantly surprised by the welcome visit of Chris Doran to the centre in Dungarvan on Tuesday 18th May.

Chris was very generous with his time. He delighted us with stories of his keen interest in music and singing from an early age. He reminisced about the many times he had gigged around the Dungarvan area.

Chris is very thankful to "You're a Star" for giving him a platform to perform for a national audience. This brought him to prominence going on to represent Ireland in the Eurovision Song Contest in Turkey in 2004. He encouraged our trainees to focus on their work and to follow their dreams.

We were delighted to hear that Chris is pursuing a successful music career in L.A. at the moment. He is a story of self-made success, of hard work and dedication.

Chris joined the trainees in singing The River by Garth Brooks. This entertaining performance was accompanied on the guitar by our music teacher Kathleen Condon. All at Youthreach would like to wish Chris continued success in the future.

Lismore Tidy Towns Notes

As mentioned in last weeks notes, Tidy Towns Adjudication can be carried out any time between now and the end of June. We ask people who have a footpath outside their property to regularly sweep it and outside the kerb. Cigarette butts are a problem outside some properties on the Main Street and we ask those property owners who are not checking or sweeping outside their premises to please do so, otherwise the town will lose marks in the Litter Control/Tidiness Category.

During the past week, Tidy Town workers have

- (i) Planted shrubs at the entrance to Bóthar Mochuda, at the raised circular bed at Church Lane and the front of the narrow bed at Ferry Lane. The planting will create colour and all year round interest.
- (ii) The box hedge surrounding the trees has been trimmed.
- (iii) A general sweep up on Main Street and West Street.
- (iv) The stone wall on both sides of the Ballyduff Road was cleaned. We thank members of Lismore Harriers Club for their help.

Finally, we would like to wish all of those involved in the Immrama Festival of Travel which runs this weekend, 15-17 June, a successful weekend.

Fionn Wilkinson (6) who represented Lismore Great Southern Tae Kwon Do club, won 2nd place in Patterns and also in Sparring at the 15th National Championships for GST which was recently held in Little Island, Cork.

LISMORE CRICKET CLUB

Power And Brady Bowl Supreme As Lismore Complete A Scorching Weekend Double

As temperatures soared on the hottest weekend of the year thus far, the Lismore Cricket Club enjoyed two excellent victories over top opposition. Indeed the heat seemed to suit bowlers Brian Power and Barry Brady who dazzled with the ball enroute to a 'wipe out' of University of Limerick and Cork County respectively. The two league wins have put Lismore into a fine position and enhanced an already confident panel of players with a series of leagues / cup ties ahead. On Saturday the University of Limerick were returning to the Castlefarm, scene of their recent Junior Cup trashing, in the hope of regaining some pride. Lismore opened the batting on a good clean wicket and made a fine start before Harvey Jones (44 runs) and Mubbin Ashraf (22 runs) put the home side in a strong position. Further runs were added through the middle order before a last wicket partnership saw Ken Sutton and Oliver Ind put on a further 21 runs against some hostile bowling from the students, leaving Lismore on a total of 159 runs. After tea, Lismore took to the field feeling very pleased with their tally and confident of dispatching Limerick. And they did so with great aplomb. Chief amongst the bowlers was a partially injured Brian Power who had one of his finest hours with the ball taking 6 wickets for just 13 runs off 3.3 overs. This purple patch completely decimated any thoughts Limerick had about running the home side close and with a paltry 66 runs on the board they were bowled out. It was a fine team performance and one that bodes well ahead of next weekends away clash with Clonmel.

Saturdays team was: Dave Ind (Captain), Mark Ardern, Mubbin Ashraf, Martin Finn, Oliver Ind, Harvey Jones, Ian Magee, Killian McLoughlin, Sunil Monga, Brian Power, Ken Sutton.

On Sunday, Lismore welcomed the legendary Cork County to the Castlefarm, which looked a picture on such a beautiful day. Cork County won the toss and elected to bat. Captain Sunil Monga gave the team his well renowned 'chat' before the off and his charges did not disappoint. Early wickets began to fall and it looked likely that another rout was in store. However, Cork County responded and were seemingly finding their feet at the crease when a phenomenal display of bowling from Barry Brady ended any hopes of posting a big total. Indeed Brady took 5 wickets for just 5 runs off 6 overs, which destroyed the Cork County momentum. Further wickets were taken by young Oliver Ind and Cork County were ousted for 59 runs. After an early tea, Lismore were left with the relatively straightforward task of securing a quick 60 runs for victory and this they did with fine shows from Martin Finn and Sunil Monga who played a captains innings staying at the crease for most of the afternoon. Lismore ran out easy winners in the end and will now prepare for a trip to the Kingdom to face Kerry County on Saturday hoping to secure further league points.

Sundays team was: Sunil Monga (Captain), Keith Barry, Barry Brady, David Campion, Martin Finn, Ian Haynes, Oliver Ind, Chris Kilbride, Ken Madden, Ben Martin, Ken Sutton.

Meanwhile in other club news Oliver Ind has been called up to the Munster Under 13 squad for the July Interprovincials in Cork. We wish him well as he prepares to represent his province.

The fixtures for next weekend are as follows and all support is welcome as always: Saturday June 16th Kerry County v Lismore in Tralee (Division 3). Sunday June 17th Clonmel v Lismore in Clonmel (Division 2)

On Monday evening at 7pm there will be training for the youngsters (both boys & girls welcome) and a big turnout is expected. Then on Wednesday evening at 7pm it's the adults turn. It's a great evening for players and would be players as everybody bats and bowls. We look forward to seeing you there!!

If you are interested in playing cricket for Lismore and wish to find out more about us, call the captain Sean Willoughby on 087 8167628. Until next time, keep the willow swinging!

Classic Total

When Life Shift captured the recent Epsom Oaks for ten times champion trainer Henry Cecil it was Henry's 24th British Classic success to add to his seventy Royal Ascot victories.

Cartier Awards

Finsceal Beo sets the early pace in the race for honours in the 2007 Cartier Racing Awards, European horse racing's most prestigious accolades, which will be presented during a glittering ceremony in London, England, on November 14, 2007. The Cartier Racing Awards, now in their 17th year, celebrate the champions of the Turf, plus one outstanding individual. The coveted eight horse awards, horse racing's equivalent of the Oscars, are determined by points earned in Pattern races combined with the opinions of a panel of racing journalists plus votes from readers of the Racing Post and The Daily Telegraph, a system which accurately rewards supreme achievement. The Jim Bolger-trained Finsceal Beo took the 2006 Cartier Award for Two-Year-Old Filly and has already staked a strong claim for this year's Cartier Three-Year-Old Filly Award, as well as the coveted Cartier Horse of The Year Award, after completing the elusive English/Irish 1,000 Guineas double, only the second filly to do so following Attraction in 2004. Finsceal Beo currently has 88 points, the highest total so far. The Mr Greeley filly captured the Stan James-sponsored Newmarket Classic in devastating style in early May before an audacious bid for a Classic treble just came unstuck on the softer than ideal Longchamp turf, as she was caught close home by Darjina in the Poule d'Essai des Pouliches (French 1,000 Guineas). Finsceal Beo's subsequent Boylesports Irish 1,000 Guineas success gives her a lead of 40 points over Vodafone Oaks heroine Light Shift (48 points) in the three-year-old filly category.

The Niarchos Family-owned Light Shift gave Henry Cecil, winner of the Daily Telegraph Award Of Merit at the 2005 Cartier Racing Awards, a hugely popular eighth Vodafone Oaks success on June 1, while providing jockey Ted Durcan with a well-deserved first British Classic triumph. Poule d'Essai des Pouliches winner Darjina, unbeaten in three outings, has 40 points, while her unbeaten compatriot Coquerelle, winner of the Group One Prix Saint-Alary, is on 32 points and Vodafone Oaks runner-up Peeping Fawn has 30.

Authorized threw his hat in the ring for the Cartier Three-Year-Old Colt Award with a devastating five-length victory in the Vodafone Derby on June 2, that ended jockey Frankie Dettori's 15-year hoodoo in the Epsom Classic. The Peter Chapple-Hyam-trained colt has 64 points. He is second at the moment in the three-year-old colt division behind dual 2,000 Guineas hero Cockney Rebel who has accrued 72 points but will have plenty of opportunities to close the gap.

Geoff Huffer's charge took the Stan James 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket in fine style under Olivier Peslier before adding the Boylesports Irish 2,000 Guineas at the Curragh by a length from Creachadoir (36 points), who had also finished runner-up in the French equivalent behind Astronomer Royal (32 points).

Dettori took his second Derby in two days on June 3, when he executed a brilliant front-running display aboard the Jean-Marie Beguigne-trained Lawman (57 points) in the French version, the Prix du Jockey Club Mitsubishi Motors at Chantilly.

The older horse division looks particularly competitive this year with Breeders' Cup Turf winner Red Rocks, 2006 Vodafone Derby hero Sir Percy, the brilliant two-time Cartier Award winner George Washington, prolific mare Red Evie and last season's Irish Derby winner Dylan Thomas among a host of top-class performers remaining in training. The last named, winner of the Group One Prix Ganay at Longchamp in April, leads what is already looking a tight chase for the Cartier Older Horse Award, with 44 points. Aidan O'Brien's charge is only four points ahead of the Andre Fabre-trained Manduro, who scored an easy success in the Group One Prix d'Ispahan at Longchamp on May 20.

The 2005 Ladbrokes St Leger winner Scorpion landed the Group One Vodafone Coronation Cup at Epsom on June 1, to take his tally to 36 points, while Red Evie's Juddmonte Lockinge Stakes win takes her to 32 points and Notowcato, narrow conqueror of Dylan Thomas in the Group One Tattersalls Gold Cup at the Curragh on May 27, has 25 points.

The Rod Millman-trained Sergeant Cecil is one of the most popular horses in training and his success in the Group Two Emirates Airline Yorkshire Cup at York in May puts him on 17 points, one more than Allegretto who won the Group Two WBX.COM Henry II Stakes at Sandown on May 29, and the French-trained Lord Du Sud. The sprinting division, which promises to be a fascinating spectacle this season, sees Group Two Prix du Gros-Chene Mitsubishi Motors first and second, Beauty Is Truth and Peace Offering, leading the way with 20 points apiece.

The Kevin Ryan-trained Amadeus Wolf, winner of the Group Two Duke Of York Hearstead Homes Stakes is next best on 16 points, the equal of Group Two Belfair Stakes heroine Sierra Vista.

Harry Herbert, Cartier's racing consultant, commented today: "The very high standard of the Classics so far is encouraging for the rest of the season and it will be fascinating to see how Authorized, Darjina, Cockney Rebel, Finsceal Beo, Lawman and Light Shift progress. "The Cartier Racing Awards reward excellence and, with so many good older horses waiting to test the mettle of the Classic crop, we can certainly expect more exceptional performances in the coming months."

Grand Central Retired

The regally bred Grand Central has been retired and will take up stallion duties at Summerhill Stud in South Africa. By Sadler's Wells out of the Group 1 Coronation Stakes winner Rebecca Sharp, Grand Central comes from an outstanding Hascombe Stud family and - such was his promise as a two-year-old - that he was one of the winter favourites for the 2005 Derby when trained by Aidan O'Brien. A runaway four-length Leopardstown maiden winner as a two-year-old, he went on to be placed in the Grade 1 Secretariat Stakes in Chicago as well as both the Group 2 Derrinstown Derby Trial at Leopardstown and the Group 3 Leopardstown 2,000 Guineas Trial at the same course. He was subsequently purchased by the Hong Kong Breeders' Club to join David Oughton in Hong Kong.

Major-General Guy Watkins, a former Chairman of the Hong Kong Jockey Club, organized the placement in South Africa and described Grand Central as "probably the best bred horse ever to race in Hong Kong." Greg Muir, stallion manager at Summerhill Stud, said: "We are excited to have Grand Central with us and standing a horse with his credentials was an opportunity we could not turn down."

Top Class Entry

Dual Classic heroine Finsceal Beo tops a superb 51-strong entry for the £300,000 BGC Sussex Stakes, run over a mile on Wednesday, August 1, the second day of Glorious Goodwood 2007. Jim Bolger's charge, who followed success in the 1,000 Guineas over Newmarket's Rowley Mile on May 6 with victory in the Irish 1,000 Guineas at the Curragh three weeks later - narrowly failing to land an incredible hat-trick when touched off in the French version in between - could face very stiff competition in the Group One contest, with a host of top international performers entered, not to mention last year's champion two-year-old and stable companion, Teofilo.

Compatriot George Washington, brilliant winner of both the 2,000 Guineas and Queen Elizabeth II Stakes in 2006, was initially retired to stud after his three-year-old season, but is now back in training at Ballydoyle. His trainer, Aidan O'Brien, is looking for his third BGC Sussex Stakes victory after Giant's Causeway (2000) and Rock Of Gibraltar (2002) and has 15 entries to choose from, including French 2,000 Guineas victor Astronomer Royal and Epsom Derby runner-up Eagle Mountain. Prior to Giant Causeway's success, the previous Irish-based scorer was the Vincent O'Brien-trained King's Lake in 1981. The 22-strong Irish entry also includes Arch Swing, trained by John Oxx, who chased home Finsceal Beo in the 1,000 Guineas at Newmarket before disappointing behind the same rival in the Irish version next time.

The Classic generation could also be represented by Eoghan O'Neill's Vital Equine and Dutch Art, trained by Peter Chapple-Hyam, who filled the minor placings behind Cockney Rebel in the 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket on May 5, while Creachadoir, runner-up in both the French and Irish 2,000 Guineas, is another contender for the Jim Bolger stable.

Godolphin has taken the BGC Sussex Stakes twice with Aljabr (1999) and Noverre (2001) and the Maktoum family's racing operation is well represented with eight entries, among them Caradak, who captured the Group Two totesport Celebration Mile at Goodwood last year, and ex-Italian Ramonti, who ran a blinder on his British debut when touched off by the Michael Bell-trained Red Evie in the Lockinge Stakes at Newbury on May 19.

The Criquelette Head-Maarek-trained Passenger ran his best race to date when a close third in the Lockinge Stakes and could bid for compensation, while the Head family has another entry - trained by ex-jockey Freddie - in the shape of Racer, who took the Group Two Prix du Muguet at Saint-Cloud on May 1. France last won the contest with Bigstone in 1993.

A fascinating entry is South African challenger Asiatic Boy, trained by Mike de Kock. The Argentine-bred four-year-old won all four starts on dirt at Nad Al Sheba, Dubai, earlier this year, culminating with a breathtaking nine and a half length triumph from Jack Junior in the Group Two UAE Derby on March 31.

Ed Dunlop lifted the BGC Sussex Stakes last year with the gallant Court Masterpiece and has entered the improving Munaddam, while James Fanshawe, who sent out the classy Soviet Song to land the prize in 2004, has entered progressive six-year-old Cesare, an emphatic winner in Listed company at Ascot last month.

Proclamation gave Jeremy Noseda a famous win when resisting the late charge of Soviet Song in 2005 and his three entries this year includes Rahiyah, who produced a cracking effort on her seasonal reappearance when third to Darjina and Finsceal Beo in the French 1,000 Guineas at Longchamp on May 13, and Sander Camillo who was a top two-year-old before disappointing so far this year.

Sir Michael Stoute's three BGC Sussex Stakes triumphs came courtesy of Sonic Lady (1986), Zilzal (1989) and Among Men (1998). His four possible contenders this year are headed by Echelon, last seen edging home from Bahia Breeze in the Group Three Princess Elizabeth Stakes at Epsom on June 1, with John Gosden's Nannina back in third.

Jeremy, who took the Group Two Belfair Mile at Sandown in April, Home Affairs, not seen since an unlucky third in last year's Diomed Stakes at Epsom, and talented front-running filly Wasseema are the Freemason Lodge handler's other entries.

Dark Islander, trained by John Hills, has yet to score above handicap company in Britain, however he made an impressive debut in America when landing the Grade Two Oak Tree Derby at Santa Anita in October.

Rod Fabricius, Managing Director of Goodwood Racecourse, said: "The BGC Sussex Stakes is undoubtedly one of the highlights of the Flat season, and we are delighted with the quality of this year's entry. "It would be wonderful to see Finsceal Beo take on George Washington and company at Goodwood on August 1 and, with South African raider Asiatic Boy adding extra spice, it is sure to be a fantastic race."

Profile Of Epsom Derby Winning Owners

Saleh Al Homaizi and Imad Al Sagar are Kuwaiti businessmen whose dark green colours have become increasingly conspicuous in recent times. Prior to their great win with Authorised in the recent Vodafone Derby their biggest successes came when the Jeremy Noseda-trained Araafa raced to victory in the 2006 Irish 2,000 Guineas and the St James's Palace Stakes at Royal Ascot. Their annus mirabilis was capped with Authorised's victory in the Group One Racing Post Trophy, while further big-race success in 2006 came courtesy of Hamoodiy in the Group Two Richmond Stakes at Goodwood. Al Homaizi, chairman of the multi-faceted Al Homaizi Group, which employs 4,000 people, was introduced to European racing by Prince Yazid Saud, with whom he owned 1984 Cambridgeshire winner Leysh as well as Ile de Nisky, fourth to Nashwan in the 1989 Vodafone Derby. He also part-owned 1993 Irish 1,000 Guineas third Goodnight Kiss and the multiple Group Three winner Tropical. He owns Al Fanaar Stables in Kuwait. Al Sagar is chairman of the Kuwaiti shipbuilding and engineering company HEISCO and also has interests in the publishing and electronics industries. Al Homaizi and Al Sagar employ the services of Tony Nerses as their bloodstock advisor and he purchased eight yearlings for the pair at Keeneland in 2006. They have most of their 17 horses in training with Jeremy Noseda, Peter Chapple-Hyam and Brian Meehan in Britain, and Patrick Biancone in the US. Authorised was the first ever Epsom Derby runner.

Profile of Epsom Derby Winning Trainer

Born April 2, 1963, in Leamington Spa, Peter Chapple-Hyam gained valuable experience working for Barry Hills, Fred Rimell and Lynda Ramsden before taking over the trainer's licence from Hills at the late Robert Sangster's Manton complex in 1991. With Sangster as his main patron, Chapple-Hyam hit the ground running, securing major two-year-old Group One victories in his first season, with Dr Devious winning the Dewhurst Stakes and the brilliant Rodrigo de Triano the Middle Park Stakes. The following year brought Vodafone Derby glory as he prepared Dr Devious to run seventh in the Kentucky Derby before taking the Epsom Classic by two lengths. Rodrigo de Triano meanwhile gave Lester Piggott his 30th and final Classic win in the 2,000 Guineas and added a further three Group One successes that term - Irish 2,000 Guineas, Juddmonte International and Champion Stakes. Group One glory continued with the likes of top-class 1993 Italian Derby winner White Muzzle, Turtle Island and Spectrum, winners of the 1994 & 1995 Irish 2,000 Guineas respectively, Revoque, successful in the Prix de la Salamandre and Grand Criterium in 1996, the filly Carmine Lake, victorious in the 1997 Prix de l'Abbaye and 1998 Poule d'Essai des Poulains winner Victory Note. Seeking a new challenge, he moved to Hong Kong in 1999 but found success hard to come by in the former British colony and returned to Britain ahead of the 2004 Flat season with a point to prove. With his string based at St Gatien Stables in Newmarket, Chapple-Hyam immediately silenced any doubters as he improved the three-year-old African Dream from lowly all-weather claiming class to four straight wins that included a brace of Group Three classic trials. Further big-race success followed that year as Captain Hurricane took the Group Two July Stakes at Newmarket and Montgomery's Arch the Group Two Richmond Stakes at Goodwood. Memories of the glory days of the 1990s were rekindled in 2006 as he saddled the top-class juvenile Dutch Art to four straight wins that included a brace of Group Ones (Prix Morny and Middle Park Stakes), while Authorised collected the Group One Racing Post Trophy, a race the trainer won in 1998 with Commander Collins. Authorised trained on really well as a three year old taking the Dante Stakes at York while he produced a top notch performance to capture the 2007 Epsom Derby. In 2005, Peter Chapple Hyam separated from his wife Jane (now a fellow Newmarket trainer), daughter of Robert Sangster's second wife, Susan.

Profile of Epsom Derby Winning Rider Frankie Dettori

Born in Milan on December 15, 1970, the son of Gianfranco, a multiple champion jockey in Italy, Frankie Dettori arrived from his homeland to join Luca Cumani's Newmarket yard as an apprentice in July, 1985. His first success came on Rif at Turin, Italy, on November 16, 1986, and he rode his first British winner on Lizzy Hare at Goodwood on June 9, 1987. He was champion British apprentice in 1989 and passed 100 winners for the first time in 1990 when recording 141 successes. He has since captured the hearts of racegoers with his flamboyant style, phenomenal riding successes, and charisma in and out of the saddle. Champion jockey in 1994, 1995 and 2004, Dettori created history when riding all seven winners on the first-day card at the Ascot Festival in September 1996.

His ground-breaking exertions brought recognition beyond racings own sphere when he was voted into third place in the 1996 BBC Sports Personality of the Year Awards and was a team captain on A Question Of Sport. Victory in the 2007 Vodafone Derby on Authorised means that he has tasted success in all five domestic Classics at least once (with 12 in total), as well as a host of high-profile international successes, including the 1995 and 2002 Arcs on Lammtarra and Marienbard respectively, the Japan Cup on Singspiel in 1996, Falbrav in 2002 and Alkaased in 2005, the Dubai World Cup on Dubai Millennium (2000), Moon Ballad (2003) and Electrocutist (2006) and the Breeders Cup Turf on Daylami in 1999, Fantastic Light in 2001 and Red Rocks in 2006. For good measure Frankie also captured the 2007 French Derby on Lawman while last Sunday yielded a French Oaks success aboard West Wind.

Dettori, who is retained by the Godolphin team, survived an horrific plane crash at Newmarket in 2000 in which the pilot was killed. He is married to Catherine with five children, and his autobiography came out in 2004.

THE FINAL FURLONG

A right royal racing rollick

WITH PHIL DELANEY

Royal Ascot is many things to many people. If you're a dolly bird you're probably salivating at the thought of next week's showcase festival of flat racing. Right now you're probably biding your time in some salubrious boutique, sitting prettily with the Irish Field in one hand and the Dungarvan Leader in the other.

Your personal stylist is casting her eye on the nearby rails, undecided. Mullingar Mango or Termonfeckin Turquoise? It's not easy. Besides, it's getting so difficult to second-guess the Queen these days.

For your typical racing fan, the quandaries are far starker, and evidently more expensive. Going through the card at Portman Park is easier than solving the Wokingham Stakes cavalry charge, a race that can often cost more than a suit of Louis Copeland's finest clobber. And then there's the top hat.

Next week's Royal Ascot meeting will be an entirely different vibe to the frenzy of Cheltenham and the charm of Aintree, but no matter what your bent is - be it National Hunt, Flat or flappers - it will be a week to savour.

Outside of the Classics and autumn's marquee races, this is where the top-class flat horses canter down the red carpet. If you're looking for revenge for a Guineas defeat, you do it in the St James' Palace Stakes. If you're a filly, the Coronation Stakes fits the bill. And if you're a contender for top mile honours, you'll have to strut your stuff in the Queen Anne Stakes.

Where else in the world next week would you get the 2,000 Guineas winner Cockney Rebel, the (unlucky) third Dutch Art; the 1,000 Guineas heroine Finsceal Beo and her French rival Darjina; last year's Irish Derby winner Dylan Thomas and the world's top stayer, Yeats? Throw in the best of the two-year-olds seen so far - including our 'one for the notebook' entrant, Henrythenavigator - and we have the best few days of flat racing of the season.

And that roll-call doesn't even include the great George Washington. The vagaries of nature mean that last year's start-up is back from the stud-farm to charm us with his good looks, his almost human quirks and, of course, that devastating dash.

The physical challenge in getting George Washington ready for Ascot's Queen Anne Stakes on Tuesday won't keep trainer Aidan O'Brien awake at night - it's the mental one that promises to test his powers.

Bear in mind here is a horse with a mind of his own, a steely determination to do what he wants, when he wants. Minutes after winning last year's Guineas at Newmarket, for example, George Washington was determined not to go into the winner's enclosure.

Far too naff for this regally bred half-brother to Grandera. In the end Kieren Fallon had to slip into reverse, a quick look in the mirrors, and back him in. Not quite Hollywood.

At the end of a spectacular three year-old campaign where he was crowned the best miler of his age-group, George got his just rewards - a lifetime sentence of hard labour at stud, servicing the finest mares in the world. But then nature bit back.

Reports that he could dance to the Village People's YMCA appear unfounded but, as a spokesman put it, there were issues with George Washington's fertility. With his stud career at an end, at least temporarily, George had to pack his bags, and he arrived back at Ballydoyle this spring in a breathtaking 'swap deal' with Holy Roman Emperor.

Since then O'Brien had faced the unenviable task of reprogramming the miler, of teaching him that he's a racehorse once more and not a sex machine. So, as it's been for most of his career, all eyes will again be on George Washington at Ascot next week. Don't miss it.

One for Galway

Every race run in Ireland on the level and over the jumps will be analysed over the next six weeks as the build-up to the Galway Races heats up. Balakan, trained by Michael Halford in the Curragh but owned by the enthusiastic Connolly family in Galway, looks a likely one for Ballybrit.

He was beaten in a maiden hurdle at the venue last summer but that was on ground with a bit more juice in it than he'd prefer. He was second in a good looking handicap hurdle (his first) at Roscommon on Sunday, and it's odds-on he'll be heading to Galway for the festival. An admirable type - and still only six - Balakan is worth noting.

DAMIEN TRAVERS CLAIMS CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP IN TIME TRIAL SPONSORED BY NEW IMAGES HAIR SALON

Just 0.2 of a second separated the first two places with Enda Donnelly a close third. The B grade was won by Brett Lynam and Frank O'Rourke took the honours in the C grade.

The event took place in a stiff head wind and the competitors found the flat 5.8km course a tough one. Thanks to our generous sponsor Nicola Dee of New Images Hair Salon in O'Connell St. who has sponsored the event the past two years. Prizes were awarded in all three divisions last week along with spot prizes for non-winners. The Perpetual Cup will be presented at the Club AGM.

Friday June 8th

Rusty Crest Was Razor Sharp

The feature race at Kilcohan Park last Friday evening was the final of the Masters N2/N3 Unraced Stake. Springmount Zulu was sent off the 1/1 favourite but the jolly dwelt at the break as Impact Boy made the best possible start from trap five. Music In Brazil went in hot pursuit of the leader however and striking the front off the home turn the Fergus and Michael Flynn owned and Jimmy Frisby trained Music In Brazil (Droopys Vieri-Coffee In Brazil) 3/1 quickened into the lead on the outside to motor on for a well deserved two and a half lengths win in 29.35.

In the opening graded contest Max's Delight was backed as if defeat was out of the question but a slow start ended this favourites chance of victory. There were no such problems in this department for the Davy and Michael Power owned and bred Honey Glen (Droopys Scholes-Honey Bev) this 5/2 shot bounding clear from trap two to lead all the way for a handy two and a half lengths defeat of the always prominent Miss Chippy. Time 29.31.

Favourite backers rowed in with the Aidan and John Roche owned Kingsmill Fawn (Just The Best-Kingsmill First) in the second event and this 2/5 chance duly landed the odds in a best ever 28.98. Easing her way past the front running Ballyvadd Kop on the back stretch Kingsmill Fawn was soon on her way to winning out crossing the winning line with five lengths to spare over Ballyvadd Kop.

Without a win for some time the Patrick O'Donnell and Robert Colclough owned Cill Dubh Jet (Knockeevan Star-Cill Dubh Queen) 3/1 came in from the cold with a trap to line 29.38 success in the third contest. Firing himself clear of Furry Rocket Cill Dubh Jet basically won unchallenged by seven lengths from Furry Rocket.

Trainer Nick Turner enjoyed a nice double on the night courtesy of the Diane Band owned Whittlesey Decoy (Blackjack Tom-Rockmount Queen) 6/4 and The Four And Two Halves Syndicate owned Chloes Bandit (Knockeevan Star-Cactus Winger) 4/6.

Ideally housed in trap six in race four Whittlesey Decoy grabbed a second bend lead from the early paced Kilaspy Flash and while the latter never gave up the chase Whittlesey Decoy went on to post back to back victories by three lengths in a best ever 29.06.

Chloes Bandit wasn't hanging around in the ninth contest a heat of the Masterkabin event dashing clear early on to register an all the way success in 28.93. Packing too much early dash for Ballygerald Ben Chloes Bandit comfortably accounted for Ballygerald Ben by three lengths.

Races six and seven were semi finals of the Masters Restaurant Marathon Stake. In the first semi final the Steve Locke owned and Sally Williams trained Harlequin Huggie (Droopys Woods-Penny Eye) the even money favourite went to the front at the second bend from the fast starting Vettys Doll and in a one sided contest thereafter Harlequin Huggie drew clear as this six bender wore on eventually coming home seven and a half lengths clear of Vettys Doll in a decent 41.04.

The second semi final is easily described as the JJ Scully owned and JJ Scully trained Raymonds Suttly (Larkhill Jo-Blackstone Sky) 2/1 made every yard of the running to triumph in 41.32. Leaving trap one smartly Raymonds Suttly quickly established a winning advantage and while Dibbers Forte was narrowing the gap in the closing stages Raymonds Suttly went on to score by two lengths from Dibbers Forte with a fast finishing Notlikejo just behind in third. Racing concluded with four first round heats of the Masterkabin A4 Stake.

In heat one the George Roche owned Rusty Crest (Bionic Prospect-Betfivemillion) the well-supported even money favourite made no mistake with an impressive pillar to post 28.75 success. Leaving trap four like a scalded cat Rusty Crest led early on from Wilcox Monet before eventually accounting for Dan Feeder by four lengths.

In heat two the May Aylward owned and Perry Aylward trained Mays Drifter duly ran out a deserving 29.52 winner. Doing ever so well to survive first bend crowding Mays Drifter stuck to the task with great gusto and while Well Nicholas kept on well Mays Drifter duly prevailed by one and a half lengths.

The concluding qualifier produced a gripping finish. Showing good early speed the Tubber Lane Syndicate owned and Michael Delahunty trained Zip Fastener (Elite Estate-Affleck Patsy) 3/1 quickly set his stall out to make every yard of the running but Tree Tops Honcho nearly spoilt the party flashing home on the wide outside only to taste defeat by a short head in 29.11.

Saturday June 9th

Four In A Row For Shedfield Cowboy

Breaking the 29.00 barrier for the first time in his short but rewarding career Shedfield Cowboy recorded his fourth consecutive success around Kilcohan Park last Saturday to plunder the featured Deise Cabs (051-820500) A3 final. Sent off the lukewarm 7/4 favourite the early paced Shedfield Cowboy (Droopys Scholes-Four Queens) was joined in the lead early on by Jetharts Here. Speedwell Honcho loomed up to challenge at the penultimate bend and it was three in a row rounding the third bend. Speedwell Honcho and Jetharts Here appeared to come in contact at that stage and retaining his composure the Thomas Leahy owned and Denis Fitzgerald trained Shedfield Cowboy shot into the lead to run out a three lengths winner over the unlucky Speedwell Honcho in a lifetime best clock of 28.83.

County Tipperary owner Pamela Holt finds Waterford a lucky track and her ever improving Mrs Moser (Hotshow Ben-Kilcannon Fancy) posted back to back victories in race one his 3/1 shot sprinting past the pace setting Ima Cooper Cool on the back stretch before galloping clear for a facile four lengths win over Agassis King in a smart 28.90.

Race two produced a gripping finish with victory going to the Kevin Ayres owned and Pat Duggan trained Knockmoylan Howl (Boherduff Light-Treanaree Honey) justifying plenty of support at 6/4 in 29.20. Getting the better of an early tussle with Waxey Man Knockmoylan Howl had to be at his very best in the closing strides to hold at bay the renewed challenge of Waxey Man who tasted defeat by the minimum distance.

As the winning time of 30.28 suggests there was plenty of grief at the first turn in race three where Senor Paco took a crashing fall with Black Deano and Any Westerns also badly impeded. Gallows Evening was left in front out of the first bend but he gave way to the well built but slow starting Carlow Road on the back stretch. Once in front Carlow Road 1/1 went on to beat Gallows Evening by four and a half lengths. Nick Turner trains this strapping son of Larkhill Jo and Onedin Jem for owner John McDermott and he looks nailed on for another success in this company.

Local owner Niall Hayes who kindly sponsored the Deise Cabs stake himself visited the winner's rostrum courtesy of his 2/1 chance Vera (Droopys Vieri-Lady Flow) this lady breaking her duck in 30.08. Led for a long period by both Fins Lady and Brindle Storm Vera kept on best in the closing stages of race four to beat Fins Lady by a length.

In a 300 yard sprint the SKT Syndicate owned and Gerry Mulligan trained Tinrah Jo (Teds Jo-Doctor Tinrah) 5/2 made a positive start from trap five to run a deserved winner in a lifetime best clock of 16.32. Dictating matters throughout Tinrah Jo went on to account for Free Pete by a length and a half.

The rails loving Kingsmill Dubh (Droopys Vieri-Its Awesome) 2/1 recorded her fifth race win capturing the sixth contest for owner Michael Roche in a lively 28.74. The front running Ballyboro Kate gave way down the back stretch to Kingsmill Dubh and cutting every corner thereafter Kingsmill Dubh came home two and a half lengths clear of a running on Marwood Shelly.

Saturday night proved a good night for the lads from the Model County with Wexford short heading Dublin in the Lester Hurling Championship and two Wexford greyhounds filling the first two places home in the seventh contest over 550 yards. Elegant Scholes cut an early dash from trap two and was still in front off the fourth bend. At that point however the long time leader was clipped from behind by a closing Sunfire Scampi. As a result Elegant Scholes was knocked out of his stride and the Christopher Ryan owned Sunfire Scampi (Droopys Vieri-Cyprus Willow) 3/1 was left in the clear to run out a three lengths winner over Ima Cooper Mist in 30.69.

Returning after a four months break the Judy Mackey owned Moonveen Classic (Honcho Classic-Battstreet Katie) the 5/4 favourite made short work of the opposition to easily account for his rivals in the eight event in a speedy 28.70. Outpacing his rivals to the opening turn Moonveen Classic was never going to loose this event and despite a sound run by Lough Sheedagh Moonveen Classic basically won unchallenged by three and a half lengths. The winner now has eight victories and three second placings to his credit from eleven outings.

In the ninth event over 550 yards the Elizabeth Atkinson owned Leahs Boss (Jamella Prince-Hopeful Dawn) the 7/4 favourite duly delivered in emphatic fashion in a lively 30.09. In front from an early stage the red sheeted Leahs Boss eased his way clear of Eldan Honcho and Marshals Trigger before beating a slow starting but fast finishing Arkays May by six lengths.

Greyhounds bearing the "Marwood" prefix albeit in different ownership filled the first two places home in the concluding 550-yard contest. Wasting no time on leaving trap five the Mathew Flynn and John Corrigan owned and Paul Morrissey trained Marwood Review (Brookside Bear-Hi Babe) 4/1 quickly tacked over to the rails and in a winning rhythm throughout Marwood Review kicked on from Cailin Liath before proving two lengths to good for a fast finishing Marwood Merson in a decent 30.19.

Benefit Meeting

Lucky Katie

IRISH INTERNATIONALS WITH LISMORE CONNECTIONS

With Irish soccer going through a transition period at international level, and senior manager Steve Staunton giving many younger players an opportunity to play their way into his plans for the future, by playing challenge games in the last three weeks, many of the younger players are making their names at this level.

Players with Waterford connections, Murphy and the Hunt brothers, Kevin Doyle Wexford, and ex Cork City, Shane Long, ex St Michael's and Cork City, Alan Bennet ex Cork City and current City favourite Joe Gamble, all starting on the international stage during the summer challenge games in America.

Also starting in the two games in the States against Equador on the 23rd May and against Bolivia on the 26th May was Joseph Cearuill, whose main Ann Marie resides at Lios An Oir, Lismore.

Speaking with Ann Marie over the weekend, she told us she is delighted and proud of Joseph's achievements in the game so far. He is already capped at u21 level, and will feature in the two European U-21 qualifiers in Turner's Cross, when Ireland play Portugal in September and England in October.

He has already played for the Irish B team this season, before being capped at senior level twice in America.

Joseph's contract with Arsenal ceased at the end of the season and at present two clubs are chasing his signature, Wigan, and Wolves, currently managed by ex Irish manager Mick McCarthy.

We wish him the best and know that his career will be closely followed by all in Lismore.

Lismore can also boast of another Irish International making the headlines, 15 year old Karen Duggan, from Piltown Co Kilkenny, who has been starring at U-17 level with the Irish International team.

Karen is grand daughter of Paddy and May Lawton, Town Parks, Lismore. When we spoke with Paddy and May last weekend they were very proud of Karen's achievements to date.

Karen is in the Irish U-17 squad currently in training for the FIFA U-18 world cup qualifiers which commences in August away to Turkey.

The World Cup finals take place in New Zealand in 2008.

Karen's uncles, Brendan and Raymond both played league football with Lismore, with Brendan scoring a hat-trick for Lismore in a Dungarvan Tyre Centre Cup final against Cappoquin in 1990, a game Lismore led by 4 goals to nil early in the 2nd half, but Cappoquin levelled before full time and scored the winner in extra time.

Needless to say we are all delighted to hear of Karen's success, and we wish her the very best in the season ahead and will keep our readers posted on her success.

LEAGUE ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

The Annual General Meeting of The West Waterford East Cork Junior League will take place on Monday 25th June next at the Red House Bar Lismore, commencing at 8.30pm.

No need to mention, all registered clubs must be represented at the AGM.

Clubs are reminded that any alterations or additions to League Rules must be sent in writing to the League Hon Secretary, bearing postmark not less than 21 days before the AGM, 25th June 2007, signed for, and on behalf of the club concerned, by the Hon Secretary.

MUNSTER SENIOR CUP FINAL

There was much disappointment at the weekend when it was learned that the Lucozade Sport Munster Senior Cup Final between Waterford Utd and Passage planned for St Colman's Park, Cobh on Tuesday night had to be cancelled as the FAI would not allow Waterford play as the Eircom League is on a break at present, and as such no league team will be allowed play a challenge or competitive game.

Passage, in their first season in senior ranks, it was a most disappointing end to their season. They were already finished their competitive season and continued training for a further two weeks for this cup final, which for many of the players would be the pinnacle of their career. However, the FAI, in their wisdom ruined their big occasion. At the time of writing those notes, there is no new date for the final, but it is most likely that September will be the nearest date.

MUNSTER JUNIOR CUP

On last Saturday night at St Colman's Park, Cobh, Pike Rovers of Limerick defeated Maymount of Cork AUL, by 2 goals to nil in the semi final of the Lucozade Sport Munster Junior Cup.

On a beautiful sunny evening and on an excellent surface, Pike were the better team and deserved their victory, and they now go on to play Ballynanty in an all Limerick final which will be played next Sunday at Jackman Park Limerick, with an 11.30 am kick off.

This is a final worth seeing, between two of the top teams in Limerick.

DEATH

We were all shocked on Saturday last when news came through of the death of Len Rogers, Clashmore, who died in England early on Saturday morning. Len was deeply involved in underage football in Clashmore for many years and was always more than helpful with fixtures etc, and through his effort and commitment, underage football flourished in the Clashmore Club.

To his family we offer our sincere condolences.

CORK CITY v SUNDERLAND

A limited supply of tickets are now on sale for this very attractive pre season friendly at Turner's Cross, when newly promoted Sunderland play a Cork City Selection on Monday 30th July next.

Clubs seeking tickets are asked to contact the league Hon Secretary as soon as possible, as they are being distributed on a first come, first served basis.

Tickets for the game are only being sold through the leagues in Munster, and we believe they are selling very quickly, especially with the Cork Clubs. Our advice, buy now and do not wait until they are all gone.

BEST OF LUCK

We wish all our young players, boys and girls, the best of luck in the Junior and Leaving Certificates.

UMBRO KENNEDY CUP

By the time our notes appear in print our U-13 Kennedy Cup team will have played at least three games in the Umbro Kennedy Cup competition which commenced last Monday at the University Of Limerick. We wish manager Dec Barron and all his players the very best of luck in this very prestigious competition.

SINGING THE BLUES

BACK TO BUSINESS THIS FRIDAY

With everyone in the FAI Eircom League all on holidays last week it was a free weekend for everyone. However it's back to business this weekend when Waterford Utd travel to Dublin to take on Tolka Rovers in the cup.

On paper this should be a win for the Blues but the cup can sometimes see funny results and the Blues have been involved in some of those results.

However, we are confident we will go on and advance to the next round.

SUPPORTERS CLUB MEETING

The next supporters club meeting is due to take place on Thursday June 21st, but this may be changed due to the clubs Golf Classic taking place on the day. Members will be notified this week.

PLAYERS PHOTOS

Over the next few weeks we will be putting on photos of players who play with the Blues.

SUMMER CAMPS

Some of Utd's players will be visiting the schools and summer camps when the schools close. So some surprise visits to the camps during the summer months.

NEW SCARFS

The club will have the new scarfs in stock hopefully for the next home game which is against St. Pat's. More on this later.

ON TV

The Blues away game against Bohs will be live on Setanta Sports on Monday 25th June.

GAME OFF

Our Munster Cup game against Passage was called off on Tuesday night last. At the time of writing, we have not got another date for this game.

ABBEYSIDE SOCCER NOTES

Abbesside A.F.C. Under-11 team who finished second in the league.

U-11's Finished Off Season In Style

ABBEYSIDE 6 BOHS 2

Our last game of the season and we finished on a high with another three points for our effort. With the league already won by Villa, Abbesside finished a very strong 2nd place in what was a good season for this young team. In this last game we decided to change things and put players in different positions to see what they were made of and they showed us some of what they could do and surprised a few with their determination.

With the two backs now at centre they showed some great skill with Hogan scoring on his first solo run. With Antho on the left wing he was eager from the start to net his first of the season which he did in super style. With the usual keeper Cummins now playing up front had his chance but was off side and disallowed.

Half time we were 2-0 up and spirits were high.

We made major changes at half time with Mullet out of goal for Clifford and a change with midfield. With the second half under way Bohs pushed and netted their first after a mistake at the back. Mullet showed some of his skill and pace to bag his first of the game. Bohs pushed at every opportunity and were rewarded with another goal.

Abbesside were eager to finish on high and again Mullet found the space to net his second to go 4-2.

Timmy not left out went on to score his first of the game. With five minutes to go Mullet was looking for his hat trick and to add to his tally of 30 goals for the season grasped his final chance and went on a solo run to round several players and stick it in the net.

Final whistle and all over saw Abbesside finish on super form and a great result. A super season for Abbesside and great team work by all.

Team — L. Mulhearn, P.J.

Donnell, D. Cummins, T. Cifford, L. Cummins, A. Fitzgerald, D. Hogan, M. Morrissey, J. Cockwell, J. Rockett, J. Joyce. Subs — S. Fehilly, D. Power, L. Power, M. Beecher, T. Duggan, T. McGrath.

A very special thanks to the parents who drove to every match and supported the team throughout the year and really enjoyed the experience. I think they have the soccer bug and hope they continue their support next year.

Hope to see all these players next season and maybe we can go further. We hope to start an academy for younger children in the near future.

DIVISION 1 CUP FINAL

Lady Luck Not With Abbesside In Cup Final

ABBEYSIDE 1 GRANNAGH 3

On Sunday morning last in Connors Park, Waterford the Villagers had to give way to a physically stronger Grannagh team whom they had beaten twice in the league, for them to complete a great league and Cup double.

In the opening minutes Grannagh were well on top and scored after 13 minutes when Johnny Kelly fired home a cracking shot from the edge of the box. In the sweltering heat the younger Abbesside team were the more nervous and it took them 25 mins. to settle into their free flowing passing game. On 30 mins. Grannagh went further ahead when a right wing cross was slotted home by Johnny Kelly, a striker really on form. Abbesside introduced the experienced Olan Casey at centre half and it had an immediate effect on the team's performance.

Abbesside's best chance of the first half was from a left wing corner on 40 mins when Shane Delahunty was unlucky to head the ball straight at the keeper.

In the second half Abbesside came out all guns blazing and really had the Grannagh defence under pressure. On 23 mins. of the half a great run by Liam Sheehan from midfield his shot went just over the bar. Abbesside were really dominating the game now but when the referee gave a free kick for a Grannagh player who fell over after he stood on the ball and as the Abbesside players protested Grannagh took a quick free and scored. The referees assistant was waving his flag. The referee didn't consult him, allowed the goal and booked two Abbesside players.

Eoin Meehan and Mark Maher replaced midfielders Shane Delahunty and Liam Sheehan who had given their all. The Villagers never gave up and with 12 mins. left Nathan Burke headed powerfully to the net following a great cross from Diarmuid Sheehan to give them the life line they needed.

Two minutes later a Grannagh defender clearly handled the ball in the area. The referees assistant flagged for it but the referee took no notice again and played on. The lads battled on until the final whistle in the blistering heat on a day when lady luck and the referee was not on their side.

All 14 players who played can feel proud as they didn't leave themselves or their club down in the Cup Final.

Team — D. Byrne, M. Barry, H. Morrissey, J. Healy, M. Cahill, A. Flynn, S. Delahunty, D. Ferncombe (capt), L. Sheehan, D. Sheehan, N. Burke. Res; O. Casey, M. Maher, E. Meehan (all played).

BEST WISHES

We all wish the Waterford Senior Hurlers, especially Richie Foley, the very best of luck ahead of their game against Cork on Sunday.

U-11 TOURNAMENT

On Saturday morning last, we hosted an U-11 tournament at our own ground. There were six teams involved. Two from Cork, two from Waterford, a team from Dublin and ourselves.

In our first match we were narrowly defeated by Carrigtohill from Cork. We then had to play a strong Clonea side. We were beaten in this game but the lads never gave up. Tiredness was a big factor in the Clonea game as a lot of our panel had played two big hard championship games earlier in the week with the U-12 panel.

We then qualified for the C Final against Roanmore from Waterford. This was a tough game from the start, but our lads dug deep and weren't going to be beaten in this one. In the end we won by a couple of goals against a galant city side that never gave up until the end.

There was great excitement after the game as the lads went up to collect their winners medals in front of the big crowd outside the clubhouse. These young group of lads have trained very hard all year and the club can feel very proud of these players who are the clubs future. The panel of players were: Gabriel Lacey, DJ Kiely, Kevin Dwane, Laurance Power, Kian Dwyer, Ronan Mansfield, Cormac Dwyer, Ben Horn, Conor Prunty, Conor Harty, John Elstead, Darragh Smith, Liam Power, Eamonn Crotty, Darragh Drummy, Stephen Cliffe, Tadhg Prendergast, Jack Duggan, Mickey Coleman, Conor McCarthy, Eoin Kiely, Daniel Flynn, Ben Mulligan, Tom O'Rourke, Rory Conway, Shane O'Riordan.

FUN IN THE SUN

There was another huge turn out for our seventh successive Sat morning hurling coaching sessions. Special visitors were the Carrick Swan club and a whole series of game took place at the U6, U8 and U-10 age groups. The emphasis was very much on "fun in the sun" and so it transpired.

On Saturday morning next at the club grounds the sessions will again take place commencing at 10.30am sharp and concluding at 12 noon. All Boys and Girls age 5yrs to 10 yrs are welcome together with their parents and it has been most encouraging to see so many parents in attendance at each session.

SYMPATHY

The club extends its sympathy to the members of the Leahy family and relatives on the death of Mrs Nora Leahy who was predeceased by her husband Sean Leahy who was one of those who helped to keep the club going in the 1940's.

COIS BHRIDE JUVENILE G.A.A. NOTES

U-14 HURLING

Our U-14 match versus Clashmore last Monday week was postponed due to the death of Tommy Neville, Knockanore, and we had a bye last Monday night. So nothing to report on these last two weeks. Their next match will be next Monday evening at home to Clonea.

TOSS BRYAN TOURNAMENT

Lismore was the venue last Saturday afternoon for the inaugural Thos Bryan U-10 Hurling Tournament. This is a new tournament on the calendar for the U-10 age group, and it involves three teams from West Waterford, and three teams from East Cork. Ballyduff, Lismore and Cois Bhride were the Deise teams, and Fermoy, Kilworth, and Castlelyons the Rebels representatives. Our first match was against Ballyduff, and a slow start in this game almost cost us dearly. However, our lads got into their stride eventually, and in the end a draw was a fair result, 1-2 apiece.

Next up were Kilworth, and this time we went flat out from the start and won very convincingly in the end by 9-6 to nil. Fermoy were our next opponents, and this was a good game of hurling despite the extreme heat of the evening. Alan Buckley notched up a hat-trick of goals as we slowly took control, eventually winning by 6-3 to nil. And so we had qualified for the final against the host team, Lismore, who had won all their matches without conceding any score. Lismore struck first, and before long we found ourselves down by a goal and a few points. But we came back into it with a lovely goal from Edward Hynes, and a point from Ryan Grey.

Sadly we were unable to score again, and so Lismore ran out deserved winners. Captain Alan Buckley received the Plaque for runners up, and all the players received medals for their efforts. I believe a Cork club will host this tournament next year, then a Waterford club, and so on every second year. Well done to Thos Bryan's for a great sponsorship. Cois Bhride panel; David Tobin, Pdraig Roche, Eimear O'Brien, John Paul Lucey, Kelyvn O'Farrell, Jake Beecher, Ryan Grey, Jordan Farmer, Edward Hynes, Alan Buckley, Jake Grey, Stephen O'Hara, Chloe Beecher, Billy Hynes.

UNDERAGE ROUND-UP

Our U-8's and U-10 football teams have been very busy over the last few weeks playing the Go Games in various venues, including Knockanore. They have been to Ballymacarbery, Modeligo, An Rinn, and will be going to Ballyduff tonight (Wed.). There aren't any medals for the winners of these Go Games, but they have all enjoyed them immensely, and in fact, have won most of their games. It's good to see football getting a look in for a change, and I know the lads have enjoyed them all. Training has been going very well in the field in Tallow on Friday nights for the Primary School players. This will continue until July when our coaches take a well deserved break.

TOMMY NEVILLE R.I.P.

It is with sadness we record the death of Tommy Neville, Kileanagh, Knockanore, and the club wishes to sympathise with all his family and friends. Ar dheis De go raib a nam.

PRIMARY SCHOOLS GAME

Our congratulations go to Kegan O'Farrell who was picked on the panel of players to play in the Primary Schools Games before the Waterford / Cork match and also the Munster Final. Though he was originally picked for the game next Sunday, I believe he may be playing in the one before the Munster Final instead. Anyway, it's a great honour Kegan, we all hope you enjoy the day.

G.A.A. 4 TEENS 2007

That is the title of a new coaching initiative by the Coaching and Development committee which runs from the 16th to the 20th of July in Fraher Field, Dungarvan for 13 to 16 year olds, male and female. Included in the package is a trip to Croke Park for the G.A.A Museum and Stadium Tour, and activities include blitzes, skill improvement, expert coaching, and other activities. Price is Eur 50 which includes everything. To book, contact Eoin Breathnach (087-9219345) or Michelle Power (086-6076226).

DEISE V REBELS

The much anticipated clash between newly crowned National League winners Waterford and last year's All-Ireland runners-up Cork takes place in Semple next Sunday, with a Munster Final spot for the winners. Will Cork be playing with a full hand? Can Waterford stay focused and ignore the 'tunnel trouble' controversy which has nothing to do with them? Let's hope for a good sporting traditional Munster clash of the ash. Come on the Deise!!!

DEVELOPMENT FUND

You may or may not be aware that we have a development fund open to help defray the cost of development work that is at present in process at our field in Clogherane. The bottom field has been verti drained and sanded and work will commence draining and sanding the middle pitch shortly. The contractor is at present erecting new flood lighting system on both pitches. Next on stream we hope to build a hurling wall which will be of great benefit to our adult, juvenile and camogie players.

One of our fundraising ventures to help defray the enormous costs involved is the establishment of Super Club 100 where we are asking players, members and the general public to contribute ten euro per month by direct debit into an account designated specially for this development. Anybody wishing to contribute to this fund please contact the Secretary Grace O'Callaghan at 087-7977272 or any member of the committee.

You will appreciate that this development will cost hundreds of thousands of euro. While we have obtained funding from the National Lottery for this work we will have to find the balance to pay off our debt. We are also running a Super Draw with the following prizes; 1st prize; Trip for two to New York, Hotel, accommodation plus 500 dollars. 2nd prize All-Ireland Hurling Weekend, 2 nights B&B and 1 dinner with two tickets to hurling final or 500 euro. 3rd prize All Ireland Football weekend, 2 nights B&B and 1 dinner with two tickets to football final or 500 euro cash. 4th prize Weekend for two at the Imperial Hotel, Cork, kindly sponsored by Flynn's Hotels, and we wish to say that we are very appreciative of their very generous sponsorship. Tickets for this draw cost only 5 euro each which is great value. It is the clubs intention to canvass the housing estates in the town over the next few weeks and we look forward to your support. We especially appeal to the parents of our juvenile club to get behind us in this venture. Your support would be greatly appreciated.

After the game Bord na nOg Treasurer Jimmy McCarthy, who sponsored the U-12 championship presented the winners shield to Dungarvan captain Jack Morrissey amid scenes of great excitement. Jack thanked all the players and the team mentors for their hard work throughout the year and he thanked all the supporters who came to support the team. Our U-12 hurlers now look forward to playing in the U-12 hurling county final on Saturday 23rd June against the Eastern champions. Our U-12 panel is Rian Reddy, Shane Duggan, Rian Crotty, Mark Power, Joseph Allen, Gavin Power, Jack Morrissey (capt), Darragh Lyons, Billy Egan, Lee Donnelly, Patrick Curran, Tadhg McComb, Eamonn Ryan, Kevin Dee, Ryan Davis, Aaron Donnelly, Donnacha Kirwan, Tyrone Clifford, John Havens, Denis McGrath, Ciaran Dec, Fionn Hallahan, Michael Harty.

INTERMEDIATE HURLING

At the Fraher Field on Friday last we took on Ring in the Intermediate Hurling Championship. On the night we missed a lot of chances with a hard earned win on the scoreline 2-10 to 2-8. Best wishes to Jamie Nagle and Derek Trumann who sustained accidental injuries on the night in what was a very sporting game.

MUNSTER SEMI FINAL TICKETS

Please note that the tickets for the Munster semi final v Cork will be available this Wednesday night at the Club House at 8 pm. We must point out that the tickets must be collected and paid for on the night. Any tickets not collected will be returned to the County Board.

U-12 A WESTERN HURLING CHAMPIONS 2007

Pride of place this week goes to our U-12 hurlers who defeated Lismore 5-5 to 1-3 in the Western Bord na nOg U-12 Hurling Final which was played at a sun drenched Fraher Field last Saturday morning, 9th June.

Both teams were meeting for the second time in the championship with Dungarvan having won the opening game in the league section in early May. Our U-12 hurlers followed up with wins over Cois Brid, Brickey's and Abbeyside to qualify for the Western Final and another clash with Lismore. The team played brilliantly in the final displaying great skill and discipline throughout the field. Rian Reddy was very reliable in the goal while Mark Power, Rian Crotty and Shane Duggan were solid in the full back line. Our half backs Joseph Allen, Gavin Power and Jack Morrissey made many fine clearances while midfielders Billy Egan and Darragh Lyons worked tirelessly for the whole match.

First half goals from Eamonn Ryan, Ryan Davis and Patrick Curran gave the team a half time lead of 3-3 to 1-1. The boys continued to dominate the exchanges in the second half and despite Lismore's best efforts they ran out convincing winners at the final whistle. Half forwards Lee Donnelly, Kevin Daly and Tadhg McComb and all our substitutes contributed to a great team effort to win the Western title.

After the game Bord na nOg Treasurer Jimmy McCarthy, who sponsored the U-12 championship presented the winners shield to Dungarvan captain Jack Morrissey amid scenes of great excitement. Jack thanked all the players and the team mentors for their hard work throughout the year and he thanked all the supporters who came to support the team. Our U-12 hurlers now look forward to playing in the U-12 hurling county final on Saturday 23rd June against the Eastern champions. Our U-12 panel is Rian Reddy, Shane Duggan, Rian Crotty, Mark Power, Joseph Allen, Gavin Power, Jack Morrissey (capt), Darragh Lyons, Billy Egan, Lee Donnelly, Patrick Curran, Tadhg McComb, Eamonn Ryan, Kevin Dee, Ryan Davis, Aaron Donnelly, Donnacha Kirwan, Tyrone Clifford, John Havens, Denis McGrath, Ciaran Dec, Fionn Hallahan, Michael Harty.

Best wishes to our U-12 hurlers Ryan Davis who suffered a broken hand in the Western final last Saturday. We wish you a speedy recovery Ryan and hope to see you back in action soon.

MENTORS ABROAD

U-12 mentors Derek Lyons and Tommy Egan missed last Saturday's Western Hurling Final. Derek was kayaking somewhere off the Aaron Islands in his attempt to circumnavigate the Irish Coastline while Tommy was enjoying a well deserved holiday in sunny Spain. Thanks to mobile phones both men were able to keep in touch with proceedings at the Fraher Field where their sons Darragh and Billy were playing in the U-12 final.

Let's hope they can do it.

Fourmilewater under age hurling. The Buckley was presented to the club by the family of the late William Buckley who was a founder member of the club. The Power Shield was presented to the club by the Power family, St. Martin's Place. A family that has been involved in under age games in the locality. A Power Shield has been an important part of Fourmilewater Hurling Club. All in all it should be a great day of hurling.

Modeligo GAA Notes

"Eoin O'Riordan" Junior Football Tournament

We travelled to Clashmore on Friday night last to play the home side in "Roosters" football tournament - which, by the way, is being run very efficiently by the Clashmore club and has proved to be a fitting tribute to a lad who always gave it everything. Great credit is due to the Clashmore club for their efforts here.

We were short the services of a number of regulars on the night, which possibly led to Clashmore having the better of the first half. But some stern words and bit of re-organising at half-time led to a real reversal of fortune and the points seemed to come from every attack in the second half, something which we just could not manage in the first.

In the end, we ran out winners of a hard fought game on a scoreline of 1-17 to 2-6. We learned afterwards that we will now advance to the tournament final, where we will face Ardmore's junior side. Friday nights team was: 1. Donal O'Keefe, 2. Tomas Fenton, 3. Brian McCarthy, 4. James Power, 5. Johnny Buckley (Capt), 6. JP Ryan, 7. Kieran McCarthy, 8. Willy Morrissey, 9. John Fitzgerald, 10. Micheal Power, 11. Eoin Quinn, 12. Patrick O'Donovan, 13. Shane Reddy, 14. Paul Sheridan, 15. Tom Byrnes. Subs 16. John Power (for E. Quinn), 17. Shane Troy (for P.Sheridan).

EXAMS

With the exam season now in full flight, hopefully all from Modeligo who are facing either the Junior or Leaving Cert exams are coping well so far. Continue success and best wishes to you all.

WATERFORD HURLERS

Best wishes from all in Modeligo to Justin McCarthy's squad who face the mighty Rebels in Thurles this weekend. With a Munster final place up for grabs, there's no doubt it's going to be another better of a match in Semples Stadium. Hopefully, the trip home next Sunday evening will be a happy one for all those returning into the Deise.

Fixture - Western Junior A Football Championship

Saturday Jun: 23rd; Modeligo v Affane in Colligan GAA Grounds at 7.30am. (All players to be at the Colligan venue no later than 7pm on the night). A tough game anticipated here as a win would almost certainly see us advance to the knockout stages, while Affane also need a result to stay in contention, having lost their opening fixture to Ballyduff. As if being a local derby wasn't enough, there's all that to play for!! Either way, a big effort will be needed by our lads to win this one.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to long serving committee member and dedicated GAA clubman, Vince O'Donovan, who completed yet another marathon when he competed in the Cork City event over the June Bank Holiday weekend. Well done to you Vince, but I'm still wondering if you wore the traditional white togs with green stripes, or are the Modeligo colours now officially retired?

Waterford Hammer Kerry In One-Sided Mismatch

UNDER 21 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP — WATERFORD 4-26 KERRY 0-3.

Waterford who defeated Kerry in the Munster U-21 Hurling Championship Quarter-Final at Fraher Field. —(Pictures by: Michael Kiely).

One could say that it was every bit as disappointing for Waterford as it was for Kerry as with so great a gap in standards, it was impossible to make a reliable assessment of the quality of Waterford's hurling.

They looked overpowering, taking classy scores, first to the ball all the time and never in the slightest bother as they piled on the scores with monotonous regularity. It could not be classes as a fair contest and would be better described as a non event, such was the difference in standards.

According to a certain source, the Kerry county board were at some stage considering not fielding a team in this championship, but had they done so, they would likely be accused of not promoting the game.

Maybe they can still be so accused since the panel of players did no preparation and were together only a week before they came to Dungarvan and the team was selected in the dressing room at Fraher field just before the game.

Perhaps it is a matter that should receive the attention of Munster Council. It might not be a bad idea to have Galway replace Kerry in this grade in Munster!

For this game the Waterford panel were very well prepared and looked a powerful side on the evening but the reality of the situation is that we will not know how good they are until they have played Limerick in Limerick next month.

Scorers: Waterford - Mark Gorman 2-6, Shane Walsh 1-3, Jamie Nagle 0-5, Mark Fives 0-4, Patrick Hurney 1-0, Ross O'Keeffe 0-2, Jonathan O'Regan 0-2, J. Murray 0-2, Paul Murray and 0-1.

Kerry: Tim Hannifin 0-1, Limerick:

Francis Keane 0-1, James Flaherty 0-1.

Club championships Games For The Weekend

A number of football championships are being played by the County and divisional boards over the coming week-end. No county hurling players are involved at Fraher field where a double header here will see Brickey Rangers versus Mahon Gaels at 6.30pm followed by Ring v St. Brendans and it is unlikely that any of the four will be involved when the championships reach the knockout stages but nevertheless all will be striving to avoid involvement at the relegation stage. Brickey Rangers were comfortably beaten by Clash-more in their opening game on a score of 2-13 to 1-6 and are now faced with Mahon Gaels who felt that they were unlucky against Tramore. It is expected that the western challengers may suffer further setback.

Ring who scored the rather surprising victory over Kilrossanty will have a difficult assignment here as Mahon Gaels comprising KilmacThomas and John Mitchell's showed good form in their second round match. The Ring players showed remarkable fitness in their intermediate hurling game against Dungarvan on Friday night last and this may help them to gain their second brace of points in the second of these two enjoyable games.

Kilrossanty v. Tramore

Tramore were unlucky when losing by 2-8 to 1-8 against the group team St Brendan's (comprising of Kill, Newtown and Bonmahon) but in their next game Tramore showed improved form and should account for Kilrossanty here who lost by a single point to Ring 1-7 to 0-9 in their first round game in Dungarvan.

Junior Football Games

Ballinacourty v. An Rinn
Ballinacourty will be slight favourites to win this tie at Bushy Park on Friday evening and at the Abbesside venue on the same evening the second string of Kilrossanty and Clashmore will meet and here a win for Clashmore is anticipated.

Sliabh gCua v Geraldines

Sliabh gCua will be fancied to take the points in this tie at Col-ligan on Friday evening and Kilgobinet must be fancied to beat Shamrocks on the same evening at Cappoquin.

Sale of Waterford Shirts, Flags & Emblems

Emblems in a variety of styles and white and blue, Waterford shirts, etc. etc. are among the items offered for sale at the G.A.A. shop in the Shopping Centre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

With supporters very keen on displaying their identity the majority of people travelling to matches these days, wear emblems of some kind. This was never seen to better effect than in Semple Stadium after the National league final victory.

Visitors to the shop might well take a look and purchase the recently published Kilgobinet club history which was available as part of the match programme for the opening of the Bohadon complex. In it also is the fascinating story of the famous Connerys (outlaws). This is available for a nominal sum. On duty at the shop will be Stephen Power, Ann Hogan, Patricia Walsh and Patricia Walsh, Jnr.

TICKETS

Since the Munster semi-final is an all-ticket game both the stands at Semple stadium are bookable.

All clubs collected their quota of tickets before the county board meeting on Monday night and tickets were available to the public at Dungarvan and Waterford on last night, Tuesday.

Munster Senior Hurling Semi-Final In Semple Stadium On Sunday

Battle Royal Between Rivals Waterford & Cork

Whatever the outcome this clash is sure to be another blistering contest between the Munster and National League champions and if it lives up to the same high standard of matches between the counties over recent years it must be one of the outstanding games of the entire championship.

The customary speculation about the contest has to a great extent been overshadowed by the controversy concerning the four Cork players who were up for suspension as a result of their being involved in the misconduct before their first round match with Clare in Semple Stadium two weeks ago.

The Hearing Committee in Croke Park had the two county boards plus the four Cork players up on Thursday but were unable to conclude their business due to the hearing of witnesses and the fact that the Clare players were not present. The matter was then deferred until Monday of this week and a decision was due to be announced yesterday. Depending on what the decision is, there may be appeals to the Central Controls Committee later this week.

Like other people who are compelled to write their preview on Monday or 24 hours before a decision is given, we are faced with a problem of not knowing what the strength of the opposition will be on Sunday.

I might yet end up with egg on my face for predicting that the suspensions will stick and that the Munster champions will be without regular goalkeeper Donal Og Cusack, fullback Diarmuid O'Sullivan, Sean Og O hAilpin and John Gardiner for our game on Sunday.

The overwhelming view here in Waterford (if we are reading public opinion correctly) is that we would prefer to have the quartet playing as any perceived diminution of their team in the circumstances could have a psychological effect on the attitude of our players. I know that Cork with the strongest panel of players in the game, can afford to substitute the four players in question, but at the same time if we did win in the circumstances, Cork and the media would play down the quality and the importance of such a victory.

Anyway, one way or another we have to play Cork in the Munster semi-final on Sunday and be prepared for a mighty challenge.

Apart from the Clare and Offaly results, we played a great league and in defeating arch rivals, Kilkenny in the final, must now be rated as one of the top hurling teams in the country.

In the holiday in Portugal and during the training sessions since then, everything looks to be going well and there are no reports of injuries.

In many, if not most quarters throughout the county, the expectations are that the national league final team will be fielded. But also there is speculation that the deposed fullback, Tom Feeney who played a 'blinder' in the tournament match against Wexford at Bohadon and Paul Flynn who gave a super display at midfield in the club championship two weeks ago, will each come back strongly into the reckoning for places.

Still, very few will be surprised if Justin and his management committee decide to stick with the winning team and name the fifteen who started against the All Ireland champions, Kilkenny in the league final.

I know that in the euphoria which followed many supporters were wont to make wild predictions about the quality of the Deise display at Semple Stadium that glorious day, but at the same time no one will argue with the fact that this was one of the team's best ever performances, having to fight back and come from behind to defeat the Cats.

The line out?

Tomorrow Thursday when the team is officially announced it will certainly show Ardmore's Clinton Hennessey as goalkeeper. He has been a major component of the machine and playing to form on Sunday he will take us part of the way towards winning. If the league final line-out is to be maintained we will have Aiden Kearney, Eoin Murphy and Declan Hennessey in the full line of defence with that most reliable trio of Tony Browne, Ken McGrath and James Murray playing in the halfback line.

At midfield, team captain Michael "Brick" Walsh and Ballduff's Jack Kennedy will have a big battle with Tom Kenny and Jerry O'Connor and at least a break even situation here will help us on our way.

In attack, our sextet may be taking on something of an unknown quantity if the Cork quartet are missing.

Of course Ronan Curran, star of the game against Clare in the first round will be at centre half back and is going to be a handful for his marker.

We will be depending on Seamus Prendergast, Dan Shanahan, Eoin Kelly, John Mullane, Eoin Kelly, Stephen Molumphy and Shane Walsh.

Cork Line Out

If Cusack is not available Martin Coleman will take over and may prove a very worthy replacement for the Cloyne man. Brian Murphy and Cian O'Connor will help out Ronan Curran in defence while Kenny and Jerry O'Connor are certain to be named as the Rebels midfield partners, Nial McCarthy, Kieran Murphy, Pat Cronin, Joe Deane and Nial Ronan, and company will spearhead the Cork attack.

Best Matches

Two of the better games in the entire All-Ireland championship last year involved Waterford v. Tipperary in the quarter final at headquarters and Waterford v. Cork in the semi-final, also at Croke Park.

Having defeated Tipperary by 2 points we took on the reigning Munster and All-Ireland champions Cork in a super contest that produced a heartbreaking result and an unlucky 1 point defeat (1-16 to 1-15) that sent almost 20,000 supporters home agonising over a defeat that should never have been. That was our last championship meeting with next Sunday's opponents and while we have defeated them twice since in the league, only the championship counts.

Famous Last Words.

Cork's coach/trainer Gerald McCarthy and the Waterford players are well known to each other since he was in charge here for three years before Justin took over and did very well to bring a provincial title here in the year before he retired. He was a very popular coach and when leaving was sorry that the Deise team had not won the McCarthy cup during his term. Gerard's famous last words when leaving were "I'm very sorry to be leaving and one thing for certain is that I will never train a team to beat Waterford!"

I'm sure that this declaration will cross his mind during the week.

The Result?

Regardless of the fate of the four players who are under suspension, I feel that playing to their best form, Waterford are good enough to win. The confidence gained from the national league victory, the break in Portugal and the injury free preparation must mean something. We are good enough to win.

Our Scoring Chart.

The above all relate to inter-county league 2007 and do not include club championship scores. The leading marksmen are Eoin Kelly 1-61; Ken McGrath 1-18, Stephen Molumphy

2-7; Seamus Prendergast 0-16; John Mullane 1-12; Dan Shanahan 1-12; Kevin Moran 1-3, D. Bennett 0-4. Jack Kennedy 0-7, Jamie Nagle 1-1; Michael Walsh 0-3; Eoin McGrath 0-4; Nicky Jacob 0-1, Shane O'Sullivan 0-2, Shane Walsh 0-2, Paul Flynn 0-1.

The total score for the 7 matches is 7-124 (155) and the total against is 4-99 (111)

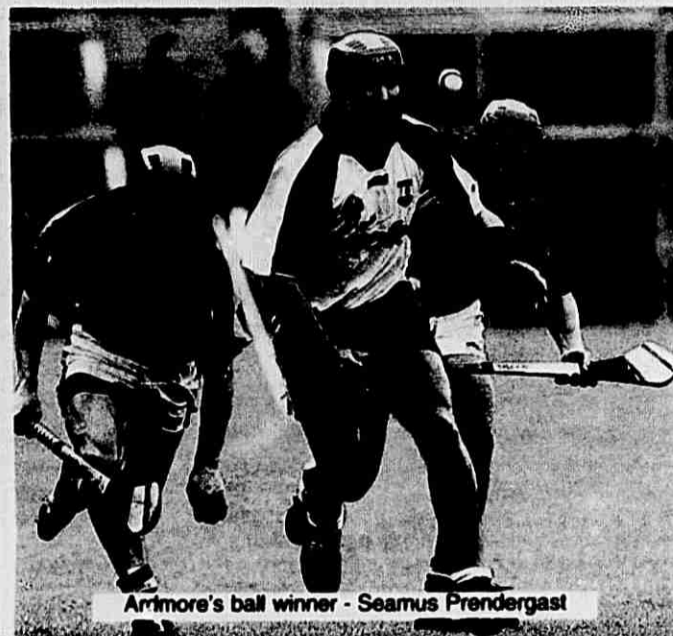

Clinton Hennessey - Waterford's dependable goalkeeper

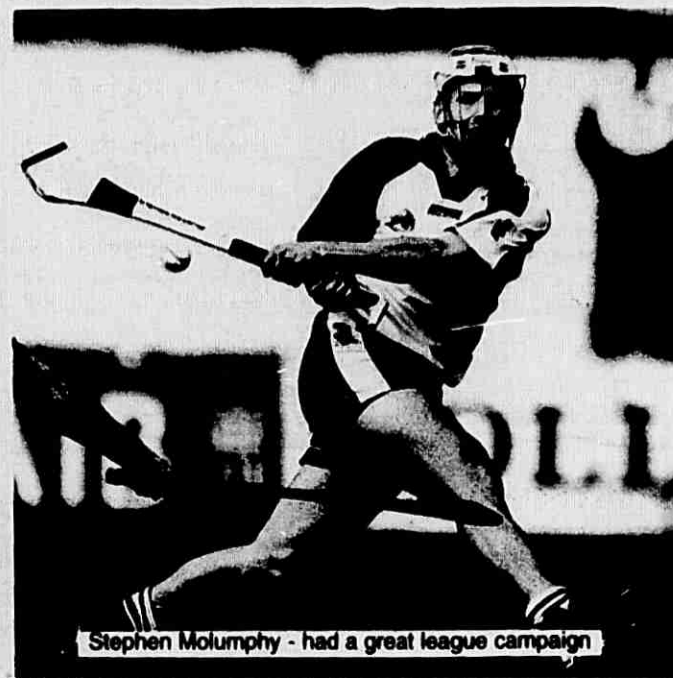

Declan Prendergast - reliable defender

Michael Walsh - could win midfield battle

Ardmore's ball winner - Seamus Prendergast

Stephen Molumphy - had a great league campaign

Late Scores Seal Victory For Dungarvan in Exciting Game

INTERMEDIATE HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP — DUNGARVAN 2-10 AN RINN 2-8

This was a splendid game of hurling between two very fit and committed teams with both throwing caution to the wind from start to finish. Dungarvan the reigning Divisional champions were slight favourites but it was only in the closing stages that they came on top when a 65 metre free taken by Wayne Flynn went all the way to the losers net to give them a one point lead in the 29th minute. It was very much a tit for tat game all the way with scores level on a number of occasions including at half time when it stood at 1-3 to 0-6.

Play

Brian Bannon opened the scoring in the first minute to send the champions into an early lead with a well taken point but within a minute Cian O'Connor had the ball in the Dungarvan net to raise the first green flag of the game. Michael O Toibin added a point and Dungarvan responded with a hat trick of points by the accurate Jamie Nagle who unfortunately was forced to retire with a leg injury shortly afterwards. At this point the scores were level at 1-1 to 0-4.

Sean O Harta sent the Gaeltacht team back in front with a point and Pdraigh O Harta increased the lead in the 24th minute. A David Morrissey point followed by a Ciaran Curran point in the 30th minute left the sides locked together at the break.

Second Half

Jonathan O'Regan and Pdraigh O Harta exchanged points to keep the game level before successive points by Michael O Toibin gave the challengers a two point lead. This was transformed in a three point lead with a Liam O Lonain score in the 21st minute but the sides were back on level terms in the 22nd minute after a Derek Truman shot found its way to the Gaeltacht net.

However an Rinn were far from finished and struck back with a 23rd minute point by Michael O Toibin and a 24th minute goal by Liam O Lonain to give them a 4 point advantage with just six minutes remaining. A point by Wayne Flynn in the 26th minute was followed with a point by the same player in the 27th minute and An Rinn seemed to be holding on to a slight advantage when the Wayne Flynn goal referred to at the outset sent the champions into a late lead and the scoring ended with a Ger Cusack point to ensure victory for the favourites.

This was a splendid game and very sporting all the way.

COUNTY BOARD MEETING

Pat Flynn chairman presided at this mid summer meeting at which a lot of routine business was dealt with and about which a full report will appear next week.

Finance

County treasurer Michael Hogan in his monthly report told delegates that the revenue raised from the racehorse raffle at Bohadon three weeks ago amounted to €137,000. He said that 137 tickets had been sold at €1000 each. He said it was an outstanding success because of the wonderful work done by the fund raising committee who left no stone unturned in making this the most successful venture of its kind ever undertaken by a sub committee.

He said that the recent golf classic held at the Waterford Golf club was also a great success. The revenue for this is not finalised and will be announced at the next meeting.

CENTRAL COUNCIL REPORT

Central Council delegate S. O'Brien reported that the revenue from the national hurling league showed a 70% increase and that Waterford who won the title will receive a record sum of €161,000. This is the highest amount ever received by a county from National hurling league revenue.

He further reported that the revenue from the national football league also showed a huge increase due mainly to the full house attendance at the Tyrone v Dublin game at Croke Park. Waterford's share of the National football league will be slightly in excess of €40,000 and both these monies will be paid to County Boards before the end of June.

Dungarvan Take Second Western U-12 Title In 2007

WESTERN U-12 HURLING SPONSORED BY JIMMY MCCARTHY

Division 1, Division 2 and Division 3 of the Western U-12 Hurling were played at Fraher Field last Saturday. In the first game it was St. Oliver's versus Kilrossanty in the Division 3 final. Kilrossanty developed an early lead but in the second half a spirited St. Oliver's fought back but left it too late to catch Kilrossanty.

Dungarvan who won all their league games continued their dominance when they won the under 12 division 1 title. Lismore on this occasion were unable to match Dungarvan's strength in all areas of the field. Dungarvan ran out easy winners and amid scenes of jubilation they received their trophy from Jimmy McCarthy treasurer of the Western Board.

In the final game, Division 2 it was Cappoquin versus St. Pat's. St. Pat's scoring an early goal saw them hold on to their lead despite Cappoquin's numerous attempts on goal.

A word of thanks to all team's that took part, to the winners we wish them well in the county final which takes place on 23rd June. To the Western Bord for the use of Fraher field, Anthony Morrissey for having the grounds in excellent order. A special word of thanks to Jimmy McCarthy for his Sponsorship of the under12, also to Tricia Walsh for the excellent organisation of the finals.

DUNGARVAN GOLF CLUB NOTES

Jimmy Bruen Shield

We went en masse to Carrick on Saturday morning to see our Jimmy Bruen team take on the might of the home side. We were blessed with a lovely sunny morning, and we went with a fit and able panel of sixteen; they had gone for practice rounds over recent weeks, and the pairings had been tried in differing combinations, so they were 'champing at the bit' following the success of our Pierce Purcell in their first match two weeks ago. Tadhg Sheehan and Jim Hayes, Tadhg Harrington and Tony Brady, Tony Keane and Jim Harty, Mossie Walsh and Des Cleary had us finely balanced with Carrick, with the last pair of John Gough and David Walsh still on the course. Down the 19th they went, with our boys victorious, and the prospect of another round in the searing heat.

"Well done, a quick snack, take lots of water and off ye go" said manager Rogie O' Connor, bringing in the fresh legs of Denis Cronin with Patsy Horsom, and P.J. Kindregan with Ger Darcy. Our opponents Dunmore had the advantage, perhaps, of having a bye in the morning, and we expected them to be fresher. We had a very exciting afternoon, with a repeat of the morning 2-2, and one match still on the course. P.J. and Ger were level after 18 so we had sudden death, with a big entourage of spectators down the 19th. The excitement was as intense as the sunshine, and we shared the hope of moving on in the competition and playing the next round on Sunday. It went to the 22nd, and we came off worse on the par three, with our bogey losing to a par.

The two matches were played in a very sporting manner. As we go through the summer we will have memories of near misses in both the 'Bruen' and the 'Purcell'. It was heartening that we got to the second round of each, so congratulations to panel members and team managers. And hard luck!

Irish Mixed Foursomes

Next up in our calendar of inter-club competitions will be the East Munster section of the Irish Mixed Foursomes, sponsored by Newbridge Silverware, at Waterford Castle on Saturday next, June 16th at 10.30 a.m. Our opponents will be Tramore, and for those 'not in the know', there are five ladies playing with five gents on each team. The Irish Mixed Foursomes is a handicap competition, and each pair must have a combined handicap of not lower than nineteen; if their combined handicap is more than thirty-six they must play off 36. In each individual match the handicap allowance is half of the full difference between the combined handicaps of the pairs, and the stroke allowance is based on the men's card.

No player who is under 18 may play; however, we have no difficulties on this score! Our panel for the match against Tramore will be Rose Prendergast with John Reynolds, Ita Fahey with Dermot Walsh, Maeve O' Riordan with Alan Butler, Ann Morrissey with Tadhg Sheehan, Maeve Morrissey with Jim Harty, Christine O' Keffe with Donal Williams, and Maeve Fitzgerald with Kevin Stack, ably managed by Carmel O' Brien and Roger O' Connor. Like the Pierce Purcell and Jimmy Bruen Shield days, we would love to see some travelling supporters and caddies. We all wish the team and managers the best as they represent Dungarvan GC in this competition.

What are we at?

Last year's AGM passed a motion towards examining the structures and functions of committees at the club, i.e. Ladies' Club, Men's Club and the Parent Club (Management Committee). The idea behind this scrutiny of 'what we do, how we do it, and why we do it' is to consider how our excellent Dungarvan Golf Club can continue to be the outstanding entity that it is acknowledged to be. Such a close scrutiny is common nowadays (I noticed that it is happening at Athlone GC currently), and is part of an evaluation and planning process which will lead to recommendations on how we can move with the times in running our business. A sub-committee of June James, John Moloney and Noel Brennan would like to hear from members on the challenges we face as we continue to develop our services for members and visitors.

What a weekend

There was a beautiful selection of David Crowley's solid wooden furniture for the weekend Open Fourball for the men and singles for the ladies, with carver chairs, occasional tables, mirrors and jewellery boxes. A fine crowd turned up on Sunday night for the presentation of the magnificent prizes, including David's family, friends and employees. (See results below). Paul O' Riordan's 44 point winning score in the Ulster Bank was notable; perusing his card I notice very steady golf throughout the round, with birdies at 2, 10, 14, 15 and 18. Paul, playing off a handicap of 8 had only 19 points on the front nine, with a whopping 25 on the back. Well done Paul. Congratulations to Emma Tobin and new husband Philip Coles who gave us a great day out on Saturday. Congratulations also to Bro Finbarr Spring of the local Augustinian Community. He deserves the success he has had with the Friary/Abbeyside/Ballinacourty handball Club, and their Golf Classic in West Waterford GC at the weekend. Well done to John Deasy, Frank O' Donohue, and the Mansfield brothers Eoin and Séamus for winning the gross. There was a nice touch when the second-placed team came from Clonmel to collect their quad of beautiful crystal vases. Such is their regard for Bro Spring and the efforts of the handball club, the group gave back their prizes for future use in fundraising.

Examiner Amm-Amm

The Irish Examiner hosted their popular tournament at Tramore on Sunday. We had our annual qualifier in April for this team event, with three category winners going on to represent us. Fr Condon couldn't travel, so our team of Michael Kelly, Tom Phelan and Seán Power set off with high hopes, knowing that they would be competing against the best in Munster, from forty-eight clubs in total. Teams travelled from as far away as Ballyunion, Shannon and Bantry Bay, and the event was a huge success; with only one score at each hole to count, the format was destined to guarantee high scoring. Our team had a very respectable 48 pts; however, the results were not to hand so I don't know if the lads were in the prizes. Hard luck to our ladies Junior Cup team who travelled to Shannon GC on Sunday; they were narrowly beaten by Tralee GC.

Lotto

Thank you all for supporting our weekly lotto. There was no Jackpot winner again this week, with numbers drawn being 8, 19, 20, 24, so next week's Jackpot will be €6,600. €15 winners were Ben Roche, Biddy Drohan, Maurice Cliffe, Liam Brazil and Tony McKeohan.

Friday Scramble

There was a big turn-out on Friday for the scramble and finger food social event, ably organized and run by Vice-captain Anne Fitzgerald. This event is gaining in popularity, with some new faces each week; it was played in glorious sunshine, and the buzz in the clubhouse afterwards bodes well for Friday evenings over the summer season. Winners this week were: Carl Fay, Tom Conway, John Moloney and Patricia Redlich with 271/12, with runners-up Gretta Harris, David Crowley and Seán Power with 273/8. We're all glad Tom was in the frame; "what's seldom is wonderful" he said - perhaps his way of saying he's finished whingeing for getting no recognition for a hole-in-one! And, of course, I must say thanks to Anne for the graphic description of how she got lipstick on her collar while scrambling; a likely story! And I must ask Yummy about the bird he met in the middle of the night; or was it the middle of the road! And I must ask if Donal who is the lady who is dipping into his credit in the pro-shop! And I must try to find out who played off the ladies 1st tee in the Captain's Prize; (hint: I have been told he left the print of his shot on the tee box). Finally, I am still trying to find out who put two 'mutton slices' into Billy Connors' the same day: Cyril wouldn't tell me! P.S. What about the guys who rang to find if their 54 points got them into the prizes in the Open Fourball, only to be told that it was fourball betterball and not a scramble as they thought!

Sixty.com and The Young One

Wednesday afternoon brought out the usual big crowd of retired folk, this week for their monthly scramble, and the following were in the prizes: 1st Joan Buckley (36), Garry Morrissey (23), Michael Twomey (22) and Michael O' Brien (18) On 28%. Runners-up were Mary Dee (34), Mary McGrath (34), Paul Vart (20) and Seán de Paor (17) On 29%; in third place were Mary Hofstede (27), Jack Clancy (24), Carl Fay (24) and Johnny Hogan (18) On 29%. Due to the Three Course International Classic this week and the Seniors Open next week there will be no Sixty.com until June 27th at 2 p.m.

The Young Ones (50 Somethings) had their Wednesday afternoon nine holes too which Brid Killigrew (29) won with 15 points. Their next outing will also be on June 27th. Junior Golf.

Results for 6th June 2007. 18 hole single stableford. Winner Jack Leacy (11) 39pts. Next fixture is Fri. 22nd June for the E.O'Connor Trophy... 18 hole singles stableford.

Abbeyside GAA Club Golf Society

On Saturday next, June 16th we are host to Abbeyside GAA Club Golf Society for their annual outing. Arrangements for the day are in the capable hands of Séamus Fitzgerald and Michael Hanrahan, who spoke to me of the generous sponsorship of Ben O' Neill Video Hi-Fi; Ben has promised prizes for first, second, third, fourth, fifth and sixth as well as prizes of golf balls for best front nine and best back nine.

Many former club players living in various cities and towns throughout Ireland have indicated their intention of travelling to play. Catering facilities are available in the clubhouse for those wishing to avail of them. Each golfer intending to play must have a current handicap with a recognized golf club; he must also have played with the Abbeyside/Ballinacourty Club at some grade or must have been an administrator with the club.

Glanbia have also agreed to sponsor prizes, so there will be separate categories for juvenile members i.e. Under 18, Under 16, and Under 14. The entry fee for juveniles will be only €5, and the first prize for the overall winner of the Under-age categories will be a Vodavone Camera/Mobile Phone.

Further details are available from Séamus at 41836 or 086 1066520, or Michael at 41686; or you may telephone Dungarvan G.C. at 43310 for a slot on the timesheet.

The weekly news, photos and results are updated on a regular basis and tee times can be booked following the relevant links.

DUNGARVAN WELCOMES PLAYERS FOR THE INTERNATIONAL PAIRS

The Dungarvan International Pairs Classic takes place this week over the three local courses. This is an annual event attracting players from all over Ireland, as well as many from abroad. Some of these players have been coming for many years and really enjoy their stay in the locality.

Last Day for 1st Round Willie Barron Fourball.

Next Sunday is the final day for the 1st round matches of the Willie Barron Memorial Fourball.

BELVEDERE TROPHY CLARKE'S TEAM CONTINUE TO AMAZE

Taking on any team in their own back yard is always a daunting exercise so when the GoldCoast travelled to Waterford Castle on Thursday last it was more in trepidation than in hope, but following the rallying cry from 'Manager of the Month' Dave Clarke the GoldCoast team proved better on the night. Although it went down to the wire, Pat Malone and Francis secured victory by winning on the 19th hole. Well done to all concerned, Pat Malone, Francis O'Connor, Stephen Greene, Kevin Fitzgerald, Gerry Raheer, Tom Daly, Des O'Brien, David Raheer, Jackie Fahey, Mark Raheer and Jim Whelan who had played in the previous round. The GoldCoast now meet Williamstown in the next round.

IRISH MIXED FOURSOMES

The GoldCoast will play Faithlegg in Waterford Castle on next Thursday 14th June at 3.45 p.m. All panel members should be present at 2.45 p.m. Tom White and Sheila Norris are in charge of team selection and hopefully their efforts in preparing this team will pay dividends. Any support on the day would be more than welcome.

JIMMY BRUEN

Last Saturday at sun drenched Carrick-on-Suir the GoldCoast played Youghal in the first round of the Jimmy Bruen Shield. The GoldCoast team which consisted of Tom White, Patrick O'Brien, Michael Kavanagh, John White, Brian O'Connor, Martin Allen, Thomas Larkin, Robert Poag, Ger Kelly and Billy Long were unfortunate to meet such a strong Youghal team at the top of their form and while winning two matches and fighting hard in the other three it was not to be the GoldCoast's day.

JUNIOR CUP AND SENIOR CUP

Brian O'Connor, team manager of the Senior and Junior Cup teams would like the following players to be present for a practice round on Wednesday 13th June at 6 p.m. in the GoldCoast: David O'Connor, Tom White, Micheal White, Willie Morrissey, Ger Kelly, Kieran Cullinan, Paul Greene, Pat Power and David Troy.

First Munster Title For Kate Veale

The first session of the Munster Club Championships were held in glorious sunshine in Castleisland last weekend. A small number of our young athletes made the journey to compete in a very competitive event. Kate Veale had a very successful day taking gold in the girls under 14 walk. This is Kate's first year in race walking and she has taken to it like the proverbial duck to water. On Sunday she was a clear winner and her winning time of 11m 23s came very close to the record. We should hear a lot more about Kate in the years to come.

Our second medal winner on the day was Ciara Scanlan who finished 3rd in the under 14 Discus. The standard was very high in this event with the first three over 20mts.

A number of our athletes qualified for the finals of their events including Ronan O'Neill in the Shot and Discus and Chloe Walsh in the Long Jump where she jumped 4m 15. In the High Jump Leanne Herlihy was just outside the medals in 4th place. Leanne jumped the same height as the second and third placed athletes but the places were decided on faults. Kate Hickey finished 5th in the under 13 Shot. Ciara Scanlan finished 8th in the under 14 Shot with Siobhan Nugent just behind her in 9th. David Early was 8th in a very fast 1500m as were Michael Coleman and Tholm Reddy in the under 12 600m team event. Cian Ryan was running very well in the under 13 600m and looked to be heading for a medal but a stumble on the second lap saw him lose out. Maggie O'Neill competed in the under 13 Long Jump and jumped 3m 43, while Rachael Phelan jumped 3m 60 in the under 14 event.

Club Championships A Big Success

The first round of the club championships last Friday was a big success with almost sixty athletes taking part. Last week it was the sprint event with everyone taking part and gaining points. Tony is busy sorting out the scores and they will be on display on the big board at training on Wednesday. Next Friday it's Long Jump for girls in all ages and Ball Throw for boys under 9 and 11 and Shot for boys under 13, 15 and over 15. We hope that anyone who missed round one will be there on Friday next.

WEST WATERFORD ATHLETIC CLUB NOTES

Minnies Summer Running League

The run of good weather has certainly added to the popularity and participation in the very successful Minnie's Summer Running League. Round six of the league was held in glorious conditions and a thoroughly enjoyable night was had by all involved. As we are reaching the final stages of the league with only two nights left to go, we would still like to make you all aware that we are still extending a big welcome to all those who have not yet joined the ranks of the running league. If you come along for the next couple of weeks, the league will certainly give you a taste of what's on offer and you will see for yourself just how enjoyable and manageable the running league really is, even to complete beginners. You will see that we have a range of distances to cater for the complete beginner, to the improved to the regular runner. So don't just take our word for it, come along to the Friary College on Tuesday nights and find out for yourself. The league itself begins at 7 p.m. and the registration begins from 6.30 pm onwards. The entry fee is €2 per night and water is provided at the finish for all athletes.

ONE LAP.

We have witnessed amazing performances among all the one-lap participants from the beginning of the league up to the present time. Recent newcomer Diane Chizhikov dipped under ten minutes for one lap and recorded 9.42 for her efforts. Ann Wall whose main goal from the outset was to run a lap under ten minutes is so close to achieving this and with a time of 10.07 for round six we will all be eagerly watching for the remaining nights to see her realise this. She will not be alone as Andrea Gaffney was hot on her heels the other night as was Siobhain Moore, Marie Donovan, Avril Doocey and Ann Hennebry. Ita Mason, minus the Mp3 for round 6 recorded a pb of 12.11 and will no doubt have 12 minutes as her target.

With the league tables now taking shape it's a hard one to call at the minute as to who will be come away as division champion. It's each person's best six nights that will count in the final tallying of scores and so it will literally be down to the wire as the points are very close at the minute. We'll just have to wait and see! Well done to all the one lappers and perhaps you might ponder on giving the two laps a go in the next league.

TWO LAPS.

It was fast and furious at the finishing tunnel for the two-lap league for round 6 as there was only seconds separating each of the various groups. Yevgeniy Chizhikov once again led the field home. Joe Barry ran a super 16.39 but the other Joe, Joe Byrne fought hard and clocked a time of 16.41 with Tom Byrne also battling it out to finish with a time of 16.42. It doesn't get much closer than that. Likewise, Damian Travers and Kevin Burke also battled hard to finish with 16.58 and 16.59 respectively. Carol Whelan and Caitriona O'Brien, both of whom are edging closer and closer each week to breaking twenty minutes for the two laps, recorded times of 20.07 and 20.09. That's the beauty of running in an organised league like the Minnie's summer running league, everybody finds someone that will run to a similar pace as themselves and it's running alongside these very same people that will help bring you on. Una Tynan and Mary Whyte helped each other along the two-lap distance and clocked 23.58 and 23.59 for their efforts. At present there are six divisions in the two-lap league and some of the divisions are extremely close. Mary Harney leads division 2 with just one point to spare over Carmel Corcoran on 49 points. Deirdre Cunningham and Marie O'Donovan are on level points in division 3 and so it won't be clear until the final night. Just a reminder that it's each athlete's best six nights that count.

THREE LAPS

A total of ten took part in the three-lap league and some of these may make the move up to four laps in the next league. Johnny O'Connor once again led the field home. He was closely followed by Pat Early and Brian Collins, both of whom had great runs on the night to record 25.54 and 25.56 respectively. Martina Ryan had a great run to clock 30 and a half minutes and Ann Wright will surely break 31 minutes before the end of the league. Eileen Heffernan and Trish Connors must have been thrilled to break 32 minutes for the distance, as was Conor Mulhall to break 40 minutes.

Well done to all the three lap participants and we hope you will come along to the next league.

FOUR LAPS.

Pádraig Healy led the four-lap runners home in a time of 28.05. Next to cross the line were Declan McGrath and Kevin Kenneally. Four broke thirty minutes for four laps on the night and three managed to break 31 minutes. Alan and Colin Lyons and Patrick O'Riordan, Mark Vespa, Earl Navin, Richie Kelly and Jim Barry were successful in getting in under 33 minutes and showed no fatigue from the Touraneena race the previous night. John Quill and Paul Twomey were marginally outside thirty-eight minutes but on their next attempt should do so with ease. Josie Uí Chuirrin and Michael Callaghan will be doing likewise.

We hope you all enjoy the few remaining nights of this current league.

SPONSORS.

We would like to take this opportunity to once again thank our very generous and helpful sponsors, the O'Brien family of Abbesside for their support and financial sponsorship of this very popular and successful league. It is due to their generosity that we are in a position to organise leagues such as this. Many thanks.

UPCOMING LEAGUE-THE TQS RUNNING LEAGUE

Following the conclusion of the Minnie's league the TQS League will begin. The first night of this league will be Tuesday July 3rd. The TQS League is unique in that it follows a very different format than all the other leagues and it's this format that contributes to its popularity. The winner each night of the league is not the fastest person but the person that is most accurate in predicting their time. For example John and Mary run the one lap league. John predicts that he will run the lap in 15 minutes even and Mary predicts that she will run it in 16 minutes. John actually runs the lap in a time of 14.30 and Mary runs in a time of 16.02. Mary is the winner as she was closest to her predicted time. This makes the TQS League wholly suitable for newcomers and beginners. The League begins at 7 p.m. with registration beginning from 6.30 onwards. We'll see you out there.

FRIENDS OF WEST WATERFORD ATHLETE OF THE YEAR

As we shortly approach the half way stage in this year's friends of West Waterford athlete of the year competition many of the club members are still in a with a realistic chance of winning the title, however that said the man leading after five months and defending champion from last year Raivis Zakis will be hard to knock off the top spot. He is currently on 35 points. But in close contention is Seán Stilwell with 33 followed by Sinead Crotty and Michael Tutty with 29 a piece. These are followed by five runners on 28 points and so on down the line. Remember our chart shows only up till the end of May so many months still to come. If anyone has any query on the tables below please contact Raivis as he is looking after the athlete of the year this year.

TOURIN G.A.A. AND NEIGHBOURHOOD NOTES

WATERFORD V CORK

All roads lead to Thurles next Sunday as Waterford take on their mighty rivals Cork in the Munster Semi Final. At the time of writing the suspensions pending for the Cork/Clare altercation has not yet been sorted out but if justice is served, surely some players should be suspended. Good luck to the team and backroom staff.

DEVELOPMENT MEETING

Progress has been made in regard to the hall development with the ceilings being poured last Saturday. The committee proposes to hold a Car Boot Sale on Sunday, 15th July...so if you missed the last one...please come along on the 15th July. Our next meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, 4th July at 8.30 pm.

CONGRATS

Well done to Bun Scoil Gleann Sidhean, Cappoquin on winning the Rinn B Western Primary Schools Camogie competition recently and to Cappoquin U-10's on winning the Division 2 Hurling Shield at Ballyduff last week.

The Lismore U-10's were also successful in their Division 1 Hurling Final against Killeagh at Ballyduff.

WATERFORD V KERRY - U 21 HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP

This Kerry team were out of their league here against Waterford at Dungarvan and the Deise boys now go on to play Limerick in the Semi Final.

OTHER GAMES

Limerick and Tipperary have to do it all over again this coming Saturday at Semple Stadium. It was nip and tuck and fair play to Limerick for fighting back even though they were at a numeric disadvantage for most of the game.

Wexford just beat Dublin in a tight encounter, while Offaly failed to beat the Cats in their hurling game.

Meanwhile their football team had a fine win over Carlow while Monaghan beat Down in the Ulster Football Championship.

IT'S A GIRL!

Congrats to Michael and Denise Meaney, Dromrue, Tourin on the birth of their daughter, Hannah. A little sister for Denis, Sean and Matthew. Congrats to Colin & Kate Organ, Camphire on the birth of a girl - a sister for Stephen.

GET WELL

The club would like to wish a speedy recovery to Ger Collender who is presently in hospital. Ger sustained serious injuries involving a horse. We wish the parents of Paddy Leahy, Bridane a full recovery as both were involved in a car accident recently.

OWEN O'RIORDAN TOURNAMENT

The last game for us in this tournament was played on Saturday evening last in Clashmore against Modeligo on a superb evening football. On the day we were just off the mark against a strong Modeligo 1st string side, losing by 3 points in the end. On the mark for us were Eoin Kelly and Emmett Kelly scoring our two goals in a 2-5 total. This competition has turned out to be a great footballing success, certainly from this club's point of view, with a huge panel of lads getting games and all credit is due to Jonny Flavin for his tremendous organisation from start to finish. This tournament will now see Ardmore and Modeligo contest the final which is yet to be fixed but watch this space for this fixture.

Team on the day: 1. B. O'Neill, S. Burke, T. Burke, C. Coughlan, A. Trihy, E. Ledingham, J. Collins, M. Barron, P. Griffin, T. Dee, G. Dower, R. Ryan, Eoin Kelly, B. Dunne, Emmett Kelly; Subs used: G. Seward, E. Coyne, D. Curran.

1930'S JUNIOR FOOTBALL

During some recent research, an account was stumbled upon about some of our footballers of the 30's, of whom we have very little history. The story begins with Sliabh gCua who won the 1936 Junior Football title against Fenor after a replay on a scoreline of 1-11 to 1-4, nothing unusual in that you might say. But they did so on the day with the help of four Clashmore players, Jack Barron, Paddy & Johnny O'Rourke & Jimmy Power.

The reason that they needed our lads was because they played that year's championship and the drawn game with several illegal players from Clonmel. But after the drawn match suspicions arose within the county board and they decided to play the replay without them, and our lads had to step in and help out. This was legal because Clashmore had actually won their own Junior Football title in 1934 but did not contest the Senior championship in '35, and at the time a player who had not played for 48 weeks or more could join another club.

And so it became that the four mentioned stalwarts won Junior County medals with Clashmore & with Sliabh gCua in the space of 3 years!

Quay Should Be Pedestrianised For Activities

- CLLR. MANSFIELD

PEDESTRIANISATION SHOULD GET AWAY FROM DRINK CULTURE

By Kevin Kirrane
Davitts Quay should be pedestrianised for social activities during the day, and not be mixed up with the drink culture, according to one local town councillor.

Sinn Fein councillor, Brendan Mansfield, a supporter of pedestrianisation, said the quay should be pedestrianised for social events such as the upcoming Daft Raft Race, and not be confused with an excuse to drinking outdoors.

The Gardai scotched plans to pedestrianise the quay over the August Bank Holiday weekend, due to fears of anti-social behaviour. A meeting was held in committee between the Gardai and the town council, but despite the scrapping of the plans, Cllr. Mansfield said some positives did come out of the meeting.

"One of the big problems on the quay at the moment is the parking," the Sinn Fein councillor said.

"There are double yellow lines there, and nobody parks there during the week and yet if you go down to the quay on a Friday night, Saturday night, Sunday night it's very hard to drive up and down there because of the vehicles parked illegally on double yellow lines.

"So the whole area of enforcing has to be looked at.

"But something that came out of that meeting was that there was nobody against pedestrianising the quay for a set period of time, be it from 4 o'clock to 6 o'clock and having some kind of activity there. Because the whole pedestrianisation of the quay got swept into a kind of idea that it was only being pedestrianised for drinking.

"I don't think that was ever the intention of any councillor. It was certainly never my intention. I supported it to attract visitors and locals down onto the quay.

"After all, the quay is a great amenity when the tides in.

"For example, there's a Daft Raft Race on there in a few weeks for the RNLI. There'll be big crowds down there that day - for activities like that the quay should be pedestrianised.

"But," he said referring to Cllr. Forsey's comments in the local media last week, "I'm a bit astounded to see Cllr. Forsey's views on it, and how supportive he is of it, considering he didn't even attend the meeting with the Gardai."

Anthony Cunningham, eldest son of Anthony and Margaret Cunningham, Chapel Road, Modeligo and his bride Naomi Ono, eldest daughter of Osamu and Noriko Ono, Chiba, Japan, who were married recently in Galway. The reception was held in the Clarinbridge Hotel, Co. Galway.

The heat of the sun was intense, as everyone was covered in sun cream.

It was on to the railway tracks and towards the Railway Tunnel, where it was a lot cooler. IFG mortgages ... a better choice of mortgage

Get the best mortgage for you, not your lender.

- Widest choice of mortgage lenders
- Life and house insurance products
- Fast approval
- Experienced mortgage advisors

BEST

Why use the independent advice of solicitors and surveyors when buying property and then, when it comes to the mortgage take the first one that's offered without any independent consultation. The wrong mortgage could cost you thousands more than it should. If you'd like independent expert advice about the hundreds of mortgages available and which one is best for you, not your lender, contact your local IFG Mortgage broker.
