The matter was adjourned pending the explanation from Dr. White.

A Resolution.

The Clerk read the Cookstown resolution, which asked for a change in the dispensary medical system.

Mr. Ormond—I think there is a good deal in it, but at the same time we should have a great change to bring that about. It would require a good deal of attention and the people would then have a choice of document.

Clerk—You would want a special Act of Parliament to upset it.

Mr. Ormond—It would ensure better attendance and attention.

Mr. J. Walsh—The law is against it.

The resolution was marked "Noted."

Price of Coal in Kilmacthomas.

In reply to a query from the Clerk re the price that was being charged for coal in Kilmacthomas, Mr. Ed. Hill, merchant, wrote stating that he was at present selling coal at £3.15s.

A letter received from Mr. Patrick Donoghue stated that he did not sell

The Clerk was directed to forward Mr. Hill's letter to the Coal Control-

Boarded-out Children.

Miss Fitzgerald Kenny, L.G.B. Inspector, attended the meeting to put forward suggestions with regard to the children that were being boarded out by the guardians. Reterring to a circular letter of the L.G.B. on the subject, she pointed out that it was their wish that in future the wages earned by those children should be lodged in the G.P.O. Savings Bank in the name of the guardians and the child.

Mr. Coffey said that the usual procedure was to buy clothes with the earnings.

Miss Fitzgerald Kenny said that if they wanted clothes the R.O. could report to the guardians and the money. ANY MAKE OF CAR THOROUGHLY OVERHAULED, PAINTED, ETC.

The Clerk pointed out that now as the husband had died he did not know if they could do anything for the wife. He could write to the Local Government Board, explain the circumstances and ask them if there was any law which allowed the board to give the wife either a pension or any compensation.

An order was made accordingly.

The fellowing notice of metion stood in Mr. Whittle's name—"I will move at the next meeting of the Joint Committee that the application of the carpenter for an increase on his present wages be considered."

WATERFORD ASYLUM.

At the usual monthly meeting of the above institution on Monday, Very Rev. Canon Furlong, V.F., presided. Also present—Mesers. Thos. Whittle, J.P.; M. Casain.

Canon Furlong reported that he visited the asylum on Friday, and stated that he was pleased to observe the great cleanliness apparent everywhere. There was evidence of great patience being bestowed on the patients and their apartments by those in charge, and the discipline preserved was exceptionally good. It was gratifying to see the good feeling prevailing between the superintendent and his large staff, and he was much impressed by the kind and gentle manner of Dr. Fitzgerald towards the patients and the attendants. He had also evidence of the careful manner in which the matron discharged her duty. He offered his congraculations to the marses, male and female, who fulfilled
