ST. PATRICK'S DAY. The National festival was celebrated in a most peaceful manner in Dungaryan. The day was observed as a general holiday, and the sham-rock was displayed by everybody. There was no local demonstration. In fact the day had all the appearance of Sunday. In other centres there were processions and meetings held. In Waterford City the Gaelic League had the usual display, the Corporation being absent from the procession. Columteers who sook part in the display were mobbed at a few points. In County Tipperary large numbers from Thurles, Cashel and elsewhere pro-Irish was recited over the grave of the late Pierse McCan, M.P.

LATE PIERSE McCAN, M.P. The Committee of the Tipperary Hunt unanimously passed a resolution xpressing sincere sorrow at the death of Mr. Pierse McCan, M.P., one of the most active members of the Hunt, and declaring they would ever remember declaring they would ever remember his gallantry in attempting to save the life of P. Tierney, first whip of the bounds, when he was drowned in the river at Ardmayle while hunting. On Tuesday there was Requiem Office and High Mass in Clonnel for the repose of his sout. Right Rev. Monsigner Walsh presided. There was a large attendance of clergy. His parents (Mr. and Mrs. McCan) and Messrs. A and J. McCan (brothers) Messrs. A. and J. McCan (brothers)
