Dungarvan Urban Council

Mr. Patrick Sexton, J.P., chairman. Also present—Messrs. M. Brennock, John Curran, M. Byrne, T. Flynn, M. J. Casey and J. Walsh.

The pay sheet showed £25 17s. 1d. as having been expended on the streets during the week.

School Attendance Officer. A report was read from the School Attendance Committee stating that they had approved Mr. Michael Deo, school attendance officer, in succession to his father, the late Thomas Deo. The council approved of the appointment.

Mr. Flynn—It seems to me these jobs are hereditary and that they are kept on from generation to generation. Everyone should have a fair show for these jobs. I don't care for anyone, but these hereditary jobs should not be at all, and there should be an election for everything like that.

Mr. Byrne—I don't know. Mr. Flynn—You don't know. It is like the British House of Commons and Mr. Randolph Churchill's of course. I agree with the business here, but I say it is not good enough.

No Light for the Town. The Gas Manager wrote acknowledging the council's letter offering to pay £225 to light the town from the 1st October. His offer was £208 for the lighting from the 1st September. In order to meet the council he would agree to do the lighting at £260.

The Clerk said last year the price was £180. Chairman—Lighting began last year on November 1st.

Mr. Flynn asked why the lamps on the quay were not lighted. Only one light was there the whole year and there should be two.

Chairman—We have no alternative but to accept the tender and not leave the town in darkness.

Mr. Flynn—if any mishap occurs in this harbour we are responsible.

Chairman—There was no light on the quay at all this week.

Mr. Flynn—I think one was lighting and you say as well have nothing at all as one lamp.

Mr. Byrne—It is not right.

Chairman—You should give light to the people as you are taking their money. It is a shame.

Mr. Brennock—You are absolutely in the hands of the Gas Co. and they can force the council and the town as much as they please until the council come together and try and devise some means to get out of it.

Mr. Byrne—Don't sign that tender or you sign it at your own risk.

Chairman—Are you satisfied to accept it?

Mr. Curran—No, certainly not. We adhere to our former offer of £225, which is an increase of £50 on last year.

Mr. Brennock—The people are sick of being in the dark. I would be as much opposed to signing it as anyone, but there is no alternative, and if you don't light until Christmas they will still rob you, you are absolutely in their hands.

Mr. Flynn—You remember a gentleman named Mr. Pigg came along here to light the town with electricity, and Mr. Casey said: "Let him get away." We would not have it, and now we are peering away.

The Chairman proposed that the Gas Co.'s offer be accepted, and Mr. Brennock seconded, and said he did not want the town in darkness and there was no other way out of it.

Mr. Byrne approved and said they were allowing away £50 of the ratepayers' hard-earned money.

Mr. Flynn—And with No. 2 burners that you would want another burner to look for them.

Mr. Curran said £50 over last year's price was good enough. Say we cannot see our way to grant anything extra.

Chairman—What are we to do?

Mr. Byrne—Light it yourself with paraffin oil.

Mr. Flynn—You can get them now from Austria.

Chairman—The people are asking for light and we are giving them none. The Gas Co. don't care whether they get the contract or not, and in other places they don't tender at all.

Mr. Byrne—Because they have to give proper light.

Mr. Flynn—We had a right to get in the electric light, but Mr. Casey said to let him get away.

Chairman—I will take no further action about the lighting of the town.

Stonemasons' Wages. The Secretary Transport Union, applied on behalf of the stonemasons for 2s. 6d. per cubic yard. He said as the wages of the men in the town were substantially increased, the council would have no hesitation in granting the demand.

Clerk—The men are paid 1s. 6d. per cubic yard.

Mr. Brennock—Divide it, 2s. per cubic yard was granted.

Mr. Brennock—It is not fair to give as much for heaving the rubbish in the quarry as the good hard stones in the depots.

Mr. McGrath said he was having no more broken in the quarry.

Remove These Stones. Mr. Flynn referred to the heaps of stones that were lying in Bachelor's Walk or King street, Abbeyside, and he asked that they be removed.

Chairman—I am sick of this. I can't stick it any longer.

Mr. Flynn—It is a hell of a thing. Would you like to have loads of stones put down in the Main street of Dungarvan? You would not like it. They must be shifted.

Subsequently an order was made for the removal of these stones.

Water Wanted. Mr. E. Deo, Square, applied for a water supply for his upper yard in Old Chapel Lane.

Mr. McGrath said to do so the main should be extended.

Mr. Curran and Mr. Casey opposed granting the application except the work was done at Mr. Deo's expense.

Mr. McGrath said that would be ridiculous, as if Mr. Deo paid for the extension of the main it would be his. The cost would be £4 or £5.

Mr. Brennock—I am against that order. Mr. Byrne—Must we lose so much for any individual.

Mr. Casey—Right you are, Byrne. Mrs. Norris, Abbeyside, wrote that the water supply to her premises was unsatisfactory and she wished to have it attended to.

Mr. Walsh (S.R.O.) thought the cause of the trouble up the hospital road was that the pipes were corroded.

Mr. R. Deo also came before the council on the same subject. He had no water on his land at present.

Mr. McGrath was directed to have the necessary work done.

The L.V.B. wrote that under the housing scheme the council could borrow money at 4 1/2 per cent.

Mr. Brennock—That is a tall order. P. Dahill wrote informing the council that he was owed 7s. per week back time from the 30th September to 14th December last and that he was entitled to it.

Mr. McGrath—There is no back time and I know nothing about it.

Audit Notice. Mr. Gribb, L.G.B. Auditor, wrote notifying the council that he would audit the accounts of the council on October 1st.

Water Inspector Resigns. Mr. Thomas Walsh wrote resigning his position as water inspector and Town Hall caretaker. He said as regards the caretaking of the Town Hall he objected to the hours as he was kept there until 2 or 3 o'clock in the morning.

Chairman—The Town Hall should be closed at 11 o'clock.

Clerk—Mr. Walsh has only 4 1/2 years as water inspector.

Mr. Walsh was asked to reconsider his resignation.

Malicious Injuries. Mr. Curran—There were two or three malicious injury claims at the quarter sessions, and the engineer or anyone else did not get instructions. I suppose they were all insured, and by leaving them by default you were putting the ratepayers to expense.

Mr. McGrath had a right to be there and give evidence as regards the shed on the Cornmarket. If the claim was three times as great he would have got it.

Mr. Brennock—As regards the Cornmarket, Mr. McGrath had got standing there at all. You are not insured for it and it is no business of the town. It is put on the rural district.

Fire Brigade. Mr. Walsh, Fire Brigade Inspector, asked that the stores in the Town Hall given up by Sheehan and Co. be used for the fire engine. He also asked that some new lengths of hose be got.

It was ordered to invite tenders for the hose.

As to the Town Hall lettings, the Clerk was directed to give a report as to who were the tenants.

Clerk—Mr. Foley was tenant for the upper hall. The middle portion was used for the fire engine, and subsequently Mr. Foley got it, and the lower portion Mr. Casey is tenant of it. Mr. Paxon buys butter and eggs there every Tuesday, but he is not a tenant of ours.

Mr. Brennock—We have five people using the stores downstairs. Are there not sacks in another portion of the building?

Mr. Casey—Yes. In the butter jugging place.

Mr. Brennock—You have this place let and sub-let and sub-let again.

Mr. Byrne—Who are the real tenants of the place?

Chairman—There is only one tenant to the council, viz., Mr. Foley.

Mr. Brennock—Is not Mr. Casey tenant of council? Clerk—He is.

Mr. Curran—Paxon paid 5s. a week to us always.

Clerk—Mr. Casey pays rent to Mr. O'Meara, as all these rents are collected by Mr. O'Meara.

Mr. Brennock—Before you get finished with the S.S.O.'s resignation, it has been very assiduously circulated abroad that he is holding four or five men's jobs on this council, and that he is receiving a man's pay for each. That is very unfair to Mr. Walsh. If he takes his time from 9 a.m. to 2 or 3 o'clock the following morning, and yet he has not half a man's pay for the whole lot of them.

Mr. Walsh—People are under the impression that I have £200 a year.

Mr. Curran—That is circulated by someone who wants the job himself.

Late Hours. Chairman—I saw some of the men going to work at 9 o'clock in the morning. I was not in bed at the time, and we got an undertaking here the night we gave the increase that that would not happen.

Mr. McGrath said he would see to that.

COUNTY WATERFORD JOINT COMMITTEE FOR TECHNICAL INSTRUCTION.

TEACHER FOR SHORTHAND WANTED.

THE above Committee require the services of a Certified Teacher of Shorthand (Shan-Duployan System) for two hours weekly for Evening Classes at Dungarvan. Remuneration to be at the rate of 5s. 6d. per hour of actual teaching.

Applications, with qualifications, should be sent to the undersigned on or before the morning of the 29th inst.

JAMES LANIGAN, Principal and Secretary, 20 Main Street, Dungarvan, 24th September, 1919.

WATERFORD COUNTY COUNCIL. NOTICE OF COMPLETION OF AUDIT.

NOTICE is hereby given that Mr. J. L. King, Local Government Auditor, has Audited the Accounts of the County Council of Waterford for the period ending the 31st day of March, 1919, and has reported to the Local Government Board thereon.

A copy of the Auditor's Report and of the Abstract thereon referred to can be obtained at this Office during Office hours by any person applying for same and paying to the Council therefor the sum of Sixpence.

Dated this 25th day of September, 1919. J. H. O'SULLIVAN, Secretary, County Council Offices, Dungarvan.

PROBLEMS OF IRISH-SPEAKING PARISHES IN THE CO. WATERFORD

At a dinner given last week in the Rev. Dr. O'Donohue, the new Bishop of Clonfert, his Lordship said that in future he intended to visit the parishes in the Irish language. For years past the enthusiasm for Irish in Maynooth College has been so great without any compulsion in the matter of learning Irish, about 80 per cent. of students in the college have learned Irish, and the Rev. Dr. O'Donohue said that he intended to visit the parishes in the Irish language. What this has for the language movement throughout the county is not clear, but it is a step in the right direction.

For the priests who have gone out to Maynooth to the Irish-speaking districts, Kerry and Donegal, the Rev. Dr. O'Donohue has been a great help, and he has been a great help in the study of Irish in the parishes, in administering in the English and on the sick bed of old Irish-speakers. Happy indeed, are the young priests trained at Maynooth, and who have been a great help in the study of Irish in the parishes, in administering in the English and on the sick bed of old Irish-speakers. Happy indeed, are the young priests trained at Maynooth, and who have been a great help in the study of Irish in the parishes, in administering in the English and on the sick

PROBLEMS OF IRISH-SPEAKING PARISHES IN THE CO. WATERFORD.

At a dinner given last week in Loughrea, following the consecration of the Most Rev. Dr. O'Donohy, the new Bishop of Cloyne, his Lordship said on priestly work in the future he intended to visit the parishes in the Irish language. For many years past the enthusiasm for Irish studies in Maynooth College has been so great that without any compulsion in the matter of learning Irish, about 60 per cent. of the students obtained every year have been excellent Irish scholars and fluent speakers of the language. What this has meant for the language movement throughout Ireland is well known to those who have seen the good work of those special young priests known as the priests who have gone out from Maynooth to the Irish-speaking districts of Connaught, Kerry and Donegal their knowledge of Irish has been a precious gift, indeed, in administering in the confessional and in the sacre bed of old Irish-speaking people. Happy indeed, are the Irish speakers in the diocese that has all its young priests trained at Maynooth. They are not subjected to the spiritual starvation and the deprivation of the confessional of confession, prayer, and instruction in the only language they know (Irish), as has been the case in several parishes in Co. Waterford for the past quarter of a century. Only about one in twelve of the priests of our diocese go to Maynooth College. Although the Waterford priests in Maynooth have been noted for their indifference to the study of Irish in the past—their indifference in the confessional days of Father O'Donohy and Dr. O'Donohy—there is a decided improvement of late, and the few Waterford students who have been in Maynooth for the past six or seven years have been earnest and enthusiastic students of Irish, and will be a blessing and a consolation to the old Irish-speakers in the diocese as they will minister later on. The after lack of enthusiasm for the Irish language and the manner in which the study of the language is either shirked or got through in a camouflaged way in the provincial ecclesiastical colleges is notorious. The census returns for 1911 showed that in a number of parishes in West Waterford about 70 per cent. of the adult population were Irish speakers, and in Ring, Old Parish, Grange, Ardmore, Clashmore, Ballinacorney and Madoligo over 90 per cent. In Ring, Old Parish, Grange, Ardmore and Clashmore quite a large number were returned as knowing Irish only. Anyone acquainted with these parishes knows quite well that more than half of the old people returned as knowing Irish and English know about as much English as a junior Grade Intermediate pupil knows of French. Is it not lamentable, from the spiritual as well as the national standpoint, that for twenty years there has not been a sermon or instruction in Irish in the parishes of Clashmore, Filtown, Grange and Ardmore, and only an odd sermon in Irish in Ring and Old Parish during the same period. Were it still to be contemplated the mental agony of the old people in some of these parishes who have had to make their confessions in the churches and on their deathbeds in "lockjaw" English. The struggle thing is that in dioceses like Limerick, Meath, Kilkenny, etc., where there are scarcely any Irish speakers, practically all the young priests (Maynooth trained) know Irish extremely well; and in Waterford, where there are thousands of native Irish speakers, many of whom know little or no English, there are only about half a dozen priests in the Irish-speaking districts who know Irish. The late Bishop of Waterford (Most Rev. Dr. Sheil) told a deputation who interviewed him on the question of Irish in the churches, about five years ago, that he had done his best to provide for the spiritual wants of the Irish-speaking people in the diocese by making Irish compulsory for the students in St. John's College intended for the diocese, but that he had found that at the end of the students' ecclesiastical term, for some reason for which he could not account, the students had only an elementary knowledge of the language. During the ecclesiastical course—from 6 to 7 years—had an hour a study a day even without the assistance of a teacher, should give any person of average intelligence an excellent knowledge of Irish. The deputation told this to the Bishop, and one of those present stated that the only conclusion at which he could arrive was that the students did not take the rule re "compulsion" to mean anything, and did not learn Irish. The only parishes in Co. Waterford in which there is a sermon of instructions in Irish are Madoligo, Ring, Kilmacorney, Knockmore and Mount Melberry Abbey. In the very Irish-speaking parishes of Grange and Ardmore neither the P.P. nor the C.C. knows a word of Irish. In some other parishes, such as Kilmacorney and Aghab, the priests know Irish, but never use it. The following parishes contain a very large number of Irish speakers, and many of the older folk know English very imperfectly:—Cashmore, Filtown, Newcastle and Four Mile Water, Touraneva, Kilmacorney and Fews, Rathgormack, Kilmacorney, Alibeyside (trout portion), Ballinacorney and Aghab. From beginning to end of the year one word of Irish is not heard in the churches of any of these parishes. Until the Rev. M. Dwyer went to Stradbally a couple of months ago there had not been a prayer in Irish in the church there or in Faha for twenty years. The people of the parish are delighted with the revival of public prayers in Irish. The neglect of the Irish-speaking people of County Waterford in the matter of providing instruction, public prayers, and confessions for them in the Irish tongue for the past quarter of a century is, to say the least of it, lamentable. An eminent ecclesiastic once declared to the writer that these people have been spiritually starved for more than twenty years and have had to rely on their instinctive holiness and the Irish prayers they learned at home for spiritual food. Surely our priests think these splendid Catholic people worth the little trouble they would have to go to to learn as much Irish as would enable them to say the Acts before and the prayers after Mass and the Rosary in Irish, and to hear confessions in Irish. Any studious person of aver-

IRISH DEVELOPMENT. MINING IN CO. WATERFORD.

Various reports from reliable quarters having been received in Youghal that preparations were being made for an immediate development of the mineral resources of the adjoining portions of the County Waterford, your correspondent paid a visit to the pretty seaside village of Ardmore with the object of making inquiries on the spot. After a record season the summer visitors had nearly all left, but the place was alive in confident anticipation of big things to come in connection with the projected re-opening of the old mines in the neighbourhood of Ardmore Head, a short distance around the coast from the celebrated Toss South Dhegiani (St. Dhegiani's Well). From an authoritative source it was ascertained that the well-known mineral wealth of that portion of West Waterford known as Decies With-in-Drum, including an area of some 40 square miles was being thoroughly surveyed with a view to its development in the immediate future. Two mining experts of wide experience have taken up their headquarters at Ardmore and have already made superficial investigations with very satisfactory results so far. The topography and the history of West Waterford prove that this district was famed in former times for its mineral wealth, which includes copper, galena, iron, manganese, etc. Amongst its place-names are the well-known Mine Head, Moyne Caltarach (Upper Mines), Moyne Cocharach (Lower Mines), etc. Local history records the fact that the mines at Ardmore Head were worked in the time of Sir Walter Raleigh and the adjacent part of Cork, and that in those days they were famed for the quantity and richness of ore extracted. Scientific surveys that the geological formation of the striking cliffs in the vicinity resembles that of the coastal mining districts of Cornwall, and it is pointed out that the crude method of extraction of former days only enabled the miners to "scratch" the supply. In other parts of the district, not far from Clashmore, mining was carried on down to some 60 years ago. This latter district was well known formerly for its splendid alga quarries, many old houses in Youghal and elsewhere being roofed by "Clashmore slates."

Dungarvan Guardians. R.O. Ship.

The I.G.B. wrote re the resolution of the guardians to appoint an R.O. at 455 a year, and stating that 450 was the sum fixed for similar positions in unions of the same grade as Dungarvan. The guardians decided on informing the Local Government Board that 455 was required, as the person appointed would have to keep a pony to do his work, etc. For the position of R.O. for No. 1 district vacant through the death of Mr. Thos. Dee, there was only one applicant, viz., Mr. Michael Dee, and he was unanimously appointed. Mr. Flynn, assistant clerk, applied for a war bonus in accordance with the L.G.B. circular of June last, and said that his present war bonus of 45. was totally inadequate owing to the high cost of living. Mr. Walsh—Hand in notice of motion for this day fortnight. Chairman—Appoint a committee and go into the matter to-day and they can make a recommendation to the meeting on the next day. Mr. Curran—Must not notice of motion be handed in? Clerk—No. It is not an application for an increase of salary, but a war bonus. The Chairman then moved that the guardians present form themselves into a committee at the end of the meeting and go into the matter and then recommend their findings to the board. At the end of the meeting this was done, and the committee unanimously recommended a war bonus in accordance with the scale set out in the L.G.B. circular of June. This recommendation will come up on notice. Mr. McGrath reported that his attention was called to the worn-out state of the 60-gallon tank, and until it was replaced the closets and baths could not be used. New closets were also required for the chapel. Ring M.O. Wants Increase. Dr. Moylan, M.O., Ring, applied for an increase of salary owing to the high cost of living. Mr. Curran—What is his salary? Ring—£150 and extras. The other doctors have £180. Mr. Curran—He has the poorest district of all. Mr. Egan—He is starting very soon to look for an increase of salary. I don't think he should start so soon. It is not fair. Mr. Byrne—We can't leave away the ratepayers' money like that. Notice of motion on the matter was given. Mr. Terry thought that Dr. Moylan should have the same salary as the other doctors. Kate Flynn, Whitechurch dispensary, applied for an increase. Her present salary was 24 a week. Adjourned. The fore-parents in the union applied for an increase owing to the high cost of foodstuffs, and said the lowest they could expect would be £1 per month, as in other schools the guardians had to pay at the rate of 10s. per week. Adjourned. Tenders. Tighe were three tenders for bread, viz., James Hayes at 9d. per 4 lbs.; A. Moloney and Sons, Ltd., at 9d., and Mrs. Croxey at 9d. The names of Mrs. Croxey and Messrs. Moloney were put in a hat, and that of Moloney's being drawn, the contract was accepted. Meat—Mr. Draper tendered at 1s. 3d. per lb. for rounds of beef; 1s. 3d. per lb. for shoulders, and 1s. 6d. per lb. for mutton. Mr. Quinn tendered at 1s. 6d. per lb. for rounds of beef, 1s. 3d. per lb. for shoulders, and 1s. 6d. per lb. for mutton. Mr. Draper's tender was accepted. Mr. J. J. J. Condon tendered at 2s. 6d. per lb. and Mr. P. O'Brien at 2s. 6d. per lb. Mr. Condon's tender was accepted. Mr. James Hayes tendered for butter at 1s. 2d. per lb. and was accepted. Mr. W. E. Egan tendered 2s. 11d. per lb. for it at present. The contract was accepted for candles at 1s. per lb. and Mr. P. O'Brien at 1s. per lb. Mr. Condon's tender was accepted. Mr. James Hayes tendered for butter at 1s. 2d. per lb. and was accepted. Mr. W. E. Egan tendered 2s. 11d. per lb. for it at present. The contract was accepted for candles at 1s. per lb. and Mr. P. O'Brien at 1s. per lb. Mr. Condon's tender was accepted.

ADRMORE HORTICULTURAL SHOW.

This year's Ardmore Horticultural Show was a very decided success. The exhibits, thought not so numerous as of late years, were of a high standard, and spoke well for the care and attention that must have been paid to their culture considering the abnormal drought through which we have just passed. The arrangements were perfect and the hon. sec., the Rev. W. H. Remission, must feel highly pleased at the success of his efforts. He left nothing undone to make it so. The judging was admirably carried out by Mr. J. Sexton, Cappagh. Details: Exhibits by Farmers and others who do not keep a Professional Gardener. IRISH DEVELOPMENT. MINING IN CO. WATERFORD.

At the Dungarvan Quarter Sessions last week, before the County Court Judge A. F. Flood, R.C., James Pendergast, Carrigrohane, Lismore, sued the Waterford County Council for £40 10s., being for 250 cubic yards of stone broken by the plaintiff, and £ 10s. for damages for breach of contract. Mr. Williams for plaintiff and Mr. M'Carthy for the County Council. Plaintiff said he entered into the contract with the County Council and began work on the 3rd April last. "When he had 250 cubic yards of stone out he told Mr. O'Riordan to come and measure the stones, and Mr. O'Riordan said it was very hard on him to go, and it would cost him 15s. for a cart. It was on the 4th June that he was told by Mr. O'Riordan that he was to be measured the stones and found only 238 cubic yards of stone there, and he asked if he meant to complete his contract. Witness was told by Mr. O'Riordan that on the 4th June he had 250 cubic yards of stone supplied. No stone was put in the road since by him. His Honor—By the contract did not you know you were to get what he certified for? Witness—I was to supply 1,000 yards. I refused to proceed with the contract until I was paid. By Mr. M'Carthy—I did not tell Mr. O'Riordan I was going to give up the contract. I was to have 1,000 cubic yards put out in four months. I had 263 yards

ORIGIN OF THE WORD "STUNT."

The latest edition of the new Oxford Dictionary, in its definition of "stunt," says the word came up at the end of the 13th century in American college slang, its earliest sense being a feat, especially one performed in response to the challenge, "I dare you."

KEROL PREVENTS INFECTION
 COMMON sense suggests the use of Kerol as a prophylactic for all purposes of disinfection. Twenty times more efficient than pure carbolic acid, Kerol is a scientific purifier that has no equal.

KEROL SHOULD BE USED IN EVERY FARM, HOUSEHOLD, OFFICE, FACTORY AND SCHOOL.
 Stables, barns, cowsheds, kennels—wherever animals are kept—can be rendered practically immune from disease by Kerol. There is no substitute for Kerol. Nothing else can successfully take its place as a general disinfectant for household and personal use, and for disinfecting buildings of every description.

A 1/3 Bottle makes 20 Gallons of Efficient Disinfecting Fluid

SHORTAGE OF Feeding Stuffs.

In view of the shortage of other feeding stuffs, the Department desire to direct the attention of stock-owners to the value of

DRIED GRAINS AND DRIED YEAST
 as food for different classes of stock. Satisfactory results have attended the feeding of these to Cattle, Sheep, Pigs and Poultry on the Department's farms.

Abundant supplies of dried Grains and dried Yeast—which are produced in Ireland—are at present available, and the prices at which they are obtainable compare favourably with those payable for other stock foods.

Stockowners who are unable to procure supplies through the ordinary trade channels should communicate with the Department.
