you know that I am pleased with the glasses you supplied me with last December. They are more satisfactory than any I got for the past 20 years. I lad an excellent opportunity of testing your ability, as I was with several specialists from time to time, and as late as May last two of them said they could do nothing for me and one said no money could produce glasses for me. When I heard you were coming to town. I resolved to visit you as a last chance, with the result that I have absolute comfort, both at my work (accountant) and outdoor. Mr. Storey having dealt at length with At a meeting held in Yonghal Town Hall Mr. Storey having dealt at length with the various activities of the Society, said that they had succeeded in practically wiping out deliberate cruelty, which had fallen from 55 to 9 per cent. The majority of the cases they had to deal with were caused by neglect. A great many cases successfully by their very capable and tact-ful body of insectors of whom he could not speak too highly, Mr. Fitzsimons for prevention was better than cure. The Cork branch had dealt with 265 complaints during the twelve months under report. Amongst these were 24 cases of ill-treatment and assault, and two for exposure for begging. They had to prosecute in only 15 cases. They were now engaged trying to stamp out the habit of some wretched people dragging poor children all over the country in all kinds of weather and evil for the purpose of extracting money from charitably disposed persons. Cases of neglect were not confined to the trict they found eight children, from the age of eight months to fourteen years, blood, and is a perfect hunter himself locked up in a house under shocking conditions of filth and neglect. No Grant Yet .- Up to the moment no grant has been made in respect of trunk roads in this county, and considering how badly in need of rolling some of our main roads are, it is a pity that steps are not taken to let the county surveyor have a grant directly so that he may get to work. Already two of the best months of the year-March and April-are lost. and by the time the work can be put on hands the summer will be far advanced. Mr. Bowen has been getting the material ready for some considerable time, but he has been handicapped for want of money, and the absence of the grant has prevented him from having good work done. Now is the time to steamroll and not in the wintry season. We hope the grants to be given to this county will be made right off, so that the work may be pro-ceeded with without further delay.
