RATE COLLECTOR CHARGED WITH EMBEZZLEMENT.

ACCUSED SENTENCED TO EIGHT MONTHS.

At the Waterford Circuit Court on Tuesday, before Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C., Patrick Ryan, Dungarvan, ex-vice collector of the rate books for the year 1924-25, was charged with the embezzlement of £18 17s. 1d. on the 3rd January, 1925, and on a third count with the embezzlement of £18 17s. 1d. on the 3rd February, 1925.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, prosecuted. Capt. Redmond, B.L., instructed by Mr. M. J. Spears, solicitor, Dungarvan, defended.

Accused pleaded not guilty and the following jury were sworn—J. Butler, T. Kinn, P. English, S. Heame, J. P. Meade, J. Power, J. Martin, Paul Heame, P. Kennedy, P. O'Toole, Jas. Power, J. J. Sheridan.

Mr. E. A. Ryan said it was a case in which it would not be necessary for him to address them at length, but it would be fair to allow the accused to state his case without indicating exactly its nature so that they might be able to follow the evidence as it would deal with figures to a large extent which would require careful attention on their part if they were to deal fairly between the State and the accused, who was charged with embezzlement.

Mr. E. A. Ryan said that was so. They had nothing to say to anyone getting custody of the rate books from the collector. The collectors were largely men of standing in the different counties and most of them, of course, undertook a very responsible duty, having the handling of very considerable sums of money from time to time. It was their duty to account for that money to the County Council.

There was no proof that the accused issued the receipts. Witness said the amount represented by receipts issued for 1924-25 was £10,185 16s. 10d. In the rate books issued for 1924-25 the amount represented by receipts issued was £12,156 10s. 10d. The net difference between the amount of the warrant for 1924-25 and the amount represented by the issued receipts was £1,970 14s. 0d.

Mr. T. B. Boyle, county accountant, said he had audited and investigated the books of Collector Ryan for the two years mentioned. Collectors were supposed to lodge all monies with the county's treasurer, get a receipt and produce same at the fortnightly checking to the deputy clerk.

Witness then got the report from the Secretary County Council. As a result of his audit he found the collector had lodged for 1923-24 £10,185 16s. 10d. That was in regard to the first charge. He thought, certainly, the first charge must fail, therefore, on the evidence of insufficient evidence. He would like to deal more particularly with the other two charges. They seemed at first sight to be rather damaging to the accused. Let him take them one by one.

The first he took in regard to the amount of money which he appropriated at the time of the Duke of Devonshire. He said that he had collected a sum of £234 18s. 1d. on the 3rd January, 1925, and he had taken it to the Duke of Devonshire. That could not be denied. The cheque was there and it had been cashed. It was impossible to find out the exact date when the money was taken. He had taken it to the Duke of Devonshire on the 3rd January, 1925, and it was in the hands of the Duke of Devonshire on that date. full, and on the other side were two notices—the first and the second—in the form of receipts which were issued to the ratepayers and they paid their rates. He admitted to them that because these receipts were not to be found in that book that there was no consecutive evidence that the receipts were ever issued to the ratepayers, or that the money was actually received by them. He admitted that the receipts were not to be found in that book, but that was not a charge against him. The charge was that he got the money, that he did collect the rates, and instead of handing them over to the county treasurer he kept them for his own use. Twelve of the accused's fellow-countrymen could hardly be asked to verify the receipt, because that because those receipts were not in that book he could not produce them. That was not a charge against him. The charge was that he got the money, that he did collect the rates, and instead of handing them over to the county treasurer he kept them for his own use.

Dungarvan Urban Council

Mr. N. Davison, chairman, presiding. Also present: Messrs. J. Butler, T.D.; T. McCarthy, J. Moore, M. Griffin, Capt. Foley, Wm. O'Donnell, R. O'Connell, M. J. Keane, T. J. Power and T. Mahony.

The minutes of previous meetings have been read. Mr. Curran asked what the orders and recommendations of the old board carried out?

Mr. McCarthy—We are so busy it is hard to get at everything, but they will be done in due course.

EXPENDITURE. The expenditure for the week was as follows—General account, £21 3s. 7d.; trunk road grant, £46 7s. 6d.; harbour account, £50 1s. 6d.

Mr. McCarthy—There were men stopped the other day and a man who went out to buy a farm lately was kept out; that was not fair. I was asked to bring this on.

Mr. Griffin—Will it reduce the estimate by putting the permanent men on the grant? When there is a Commissioner here the same as before you will know.

Mr. Griffin—Will the estimate be lower this year? Clerk—It might be a little lower when the trunk roads are finished. I might tell you, gentlemen, that your bank account is very low at present and several accounts are to be paid yet.

Mr. Butler—How much of the rate is outstanding yet? Clerk—About £400. Mr. Butler—That would cover our liabilities? Clerk—Yes.

Mr. Keane—It is a hardship on good householders who pay when others who can pay will not. Clerk—The demand this year will be very serious. The County Council demand is very heavy.

Mr. Curran—How is it when the County Council demand is paid they come forward with a balance against? Mr. Butler—At the beginning of the year the accountant gave the amount approximately, and if it exceeds that the balance will be demanded.

Mr. Power—If we demand is higher than the expenditure will there be a refund? Chairman—Yes.

Mr. Griffin—Lantern and Trains are needed by the County Council. Mr. Butler suggested that a deputation go and inspect the books at the County Council Office, and the following were appointed—Messrs. Power, Keane, Griffin and Curran.

Mr. Curran—I won't go at all. Mr. Griffin—I read a statement in the Press which was not correct. It stated that the grants for roads were exceeded by £700, whereas the statement made here at last meeting was that the grant for the Ribford road was exceeded by £47. He hoped the matter would get publicity.

Mr. Curran—I want to ask Mr. McGrath a question. You said all the material for the quay was paid for. Tell me how much cement you have now? Mr. McGrath—I would like to see notice of that question. I would not mind my self to 10 or 15 tons of cement, I will make a good job of the quay.

GRANT £1,000. Mr. Hackett reports on the 27 25 that only small progress has been made on the quay wall. The foundation course has been a troublesome undertaking, but "no record is kept of work done." The quantity of work done is small and it will not be possible to complete the whole within the original estimate.

Under such circumstances I will not give a certificate for final payment unless there is a very clear account kept of how the money has been expended and unless some fair value is shown. It is imperative that this work be carried out and completed as rapidly as possible. Please convey these instructions to the Town Surveyor—Yours faithfully, JAMES QUIGLEY, Chief Engineer.

Gentlemen—On account of some observations made at last meeting by members of the council in connection with the building of the quay wall, I beg to report for the information of the council the following—Work started on the last week of February, and by the end of March machinery and materials were on the ground when the work of taking down the old wall began.

count the spring tides that come once a fortnight were of little help to us as the gales were in from sea with a flood in the river. It might be said that were the men doing during the period that foundation could not be excavated. They were taking down the other portion of the old wall and making concrete blocks. When these were done the staff was reduced.

Within the past six weeks the weather has been favourable and the ground has been very good, with the result that about half the foundations were excavated and put in, and about one-fifth of the whole length of the wall built to within a few feet of the coping stones, and in a few days another one-fifth will be up to that level.

The foundations of the new work were carried down to a depth of 4 feet below spring tide low water. This was and is a tedious and dangerous job, and consequently very little progress could be made when the further disadvantage of having only one working hour for each spring tide is taken into account.

Everything considered it is my candid opinion that were it not for the fact that we had a willing staff of working men that did not spare themselves in the mud and water this work could not be done so expeditiously and well. The quality of the work done and the manner in which it is laid out is of the very best description, and I defy any statement made to the contrary.

A record of the work is kept and available in the office. The remainder of the old wall is now down to stand level. The future progress of the work depends on good spring tides and suitable weather. Yours faithfully, JOHN McBRATH, B.S.

Mr. Curran—In spite of what he said the other day there is a report from the L.G.B. Mr. McGrath—It has been admitted by the Inspector that the foundation was a difficult job. Mr. Griffin asked would he be able to complete it within the estimate?

Mr. McGrath—That was a probable estimate. Mr. McGrath—The grant of £1,000 was given on condition that it would be spent by March 31st. Mr. McGrath—And that is the reason the job could not be let by contract as it could not be spent within the time.

Mr. Butler—And that is the reason all the material was paid for. In answer to Mr. Butler, the Clerk stated the amount to credit on the harbour account was something over £200. Mr. Power asked that the report of the L.G. Engineer and the Council's engineer be given to fall in the Press.

Mr. Keane—Could you give us the figures of the assets from the harbour for the past few years? Clerk—March 31st, 1921, £401 2s. 2d.; 1922, £438 19s. 4d.; 1923, £328 5s. 7d.; 1924, £300 15s. 4d.; 1925, £284 6s. 7d. Mr. Keane—And the expenses? Clerk—The expenses in the year 1923 were £298 18s. 3d.; 1924, £288 17s. 8d.; 1925, £385 1s. 10d.

Mr. Curran—How was that money expended? Mr. Curran—Harbourmaster—On dredging, repairs, lights, stationery, etc.

BATHING PLACES. The deputation appointed to visit the bathing place at last meeting reported there had, and suggested some improvements, and after a very lengthy discussion another deputation was appointed to interview the owner of the ladies' bathing place at the Look-out.

THE CASERWAY. Mr. McGrath was directed to have the bridges on the Caserway trimmed and to have seats put in position there during the coming week.

ABBEYSIDE PLAY GROUND. Capt. Foley called attention to the play ground at Abbeyside, and said it was in a bad state, and it was decided to carry out any improvements needed.

TENDER FOR WEIGHT HOUSE. There was only one tender received for the weight-house for one year—that of Mr. R. McGrath for £24 17s. 6d. The tender was accepted.

PETROL PUMP IN O'CONNELL STREET. The report of the deputation, appointed at last meeting to inspect the site was in favour of locating the site in O'Connell Street. The whole council would be in favour of that, but will the council be liable if an accident occurs?

Mr. O'Donnell—There is a pole at the opposite side of the street and it is nearer to the wall than the pump. There is more room now than when Mr. McGrath saw the place as the cement was removed. Mr. Power held that the Act governing petrol pumps should cover the council. Chairman—You can grant a license, but if there is an accident who will be liable? Mr. Power—You can grant a license on certain conditions.

Mr. O'Donnell held there would be plenty room for a car to pass while another car was taking petrol. Chairman—If our solicitor will guarantee we are not liable the council will have no objection to the pump. Mr. Mahony—Didn't the council give the permission? Clerk—Conditionally. Mr. Mahony—I can't see what harm it is doing there. Mr. McCarthy—Is there a definite time for applying for the license? Mr. Curran—I move that the question be adjourned until Mr. Power applies for a license. Mr. Mahony seconded. Mr. Butler—Permission was given, but were any conditions put in? Clerk—He was to submit a plan, which he did. Mr. Butler—He had a perfect right to erect the pump, and we could do nothing, now, and I propose that this amendment—That the minutes of meeting granting permission to Mr. Power to erect petrol pump be confirmed. Mr. Moore seconded.

Chairman—I propose a further amendment—That we consult our solicitor regarding liability of council at last regarding all petrol pumps on council's side walls. Mr. Keane seconded. Mr. Power—If we accept Mr. Butler's amendment and if an accident occurs will the members who voted for the amendment be discharged? Clerk—Yes.

Mr. Curran—The council gave permission to the Black and Tans to erect one at Merry's. Chairman—You are very wrong, Mr. Curran, and it is easy for you now to make glib statements. Mr. McCarthy—There is no petrol pump at Merry's. Mr. Curran—There is a telephone post there. Mr. McCarthy—That was there long before that time. Mr. Butler's amendment was then put and the voting was—

For—Messrs. Butler, McCarthy, Moore, Griffin, Mahony, O'Donnell and Curran—7. Against—Messrs. Power, Craig, Foley, Keane and Broome—5. Mr. Curran's proposition was declared lost.

Mr. Butler held that the amendment by the Chairman was not in order as it covered all the petrol pumps in town. After a further long discussion both the proposition and the amendment were passed unanimously.

APPLICATION FOR EXTENSION OF PREMISES. Mrs. Broderick, Abbeyside, applied for permission to build an extension to her premises. Chairman—Well, gentlemen, what have you to say to this? Capt. Foley—Give her permission. Chairman—I was one of those who gave permission for the shop, but if she wants a dwelling-house I am in the hands of the Council.

Mr. Griffin—Is she paying rent or is there a rent fixed yet? Clerk—Not yet. Mr. McCarthy—Had she made the plans bigger at first would there be an objection? Mr. Butler—I imagine it would be with in the Council's right to submit the plans. Mr. Keane—My idea would be to give permission for sites for bungalows in every available space in town.

The Chairman, in answer to Capt. Foley, said the L.G.B. would not sanction the site for Mr. Greener there. Mr. Keane—For the life of me I can't see what harm it would do. Mr. Butler—Would the L.G.B. condemn the site if a house was built there by private enterprise? Mr. Keane—Anyone who wants to build should get permission.

Chairman—The council have no power. Mr. Butler—I suggest writing to Miss Broderick and ask her to submit a plan of the space required. Chairman—The council in my opinion would be committing themselves. Mr. Butler proposed that we adjourn consideration of application to enable Miss Broderick to submit a plan of the space required.

Chairman—If this is decided I take it no action will be taken in the matter. For the proposition—Messrs. Power, Butler, McCarthy, Moore, Mahony and Foley—6. Against—Messrs. Griffin, Craig, Keane and the Chairman—4. Messrs. O'Donnell and Curran did not vote.

While the poll was being taken, Mr. Griffin said he was not voting. Mr. McCarthy—You have not the courage of your convictions. Mr. Griffin—I have. Against us. The matter then ended.

Voughal Urban Council. Present—Messrs. M. Whelan, chairman; J. Bennett, vice-chairman; T. Harrington, M. Mahony, Mr. J. Troy, M. J. Fleming, J. Forrest, A. Murphy, Wm. Coughlan, T. Bousman, T. Curran, P. Kennelly, A. J. Donohoe, P. J. McMahon, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; B. C. Farrell, M. D. Broderick.

GOVERNMENT GRANTS AND UNEMPLOYMENT. Mr. Kennelly said that the Government had decided not to renege the unemployment scheme, but to give a grant of £135,000 for relief works, he proposed that they apply for their share so as to be in a position to give some extra employment during the winter months.

Chairman—An excellent idea. The proposition was seconded by Mr. Broderick and passed unanimously.

CHURCH HOLIDAYS. Mr. Bennett laid in notice of motion to rescind the resolution on the books regarding the employees and Church holidays.

STRAIN WATER SUPPLY. The Strand caretaker reported that the water supply to the Strand for the week was satisfactory. One house was found wanting water by having the tap turned down for a considerable time. The council gave instructions to have the water cut off from any consumer found guilty of waste.

LADIES IN GENTS' BATHING PLACE. He also reported that the ladies continued to bathe in the gents' bathing place (laughter). When spoken to they took no notice and nobody put up by him were torn down immediately.

STEAMROLLED ROAD. Mr. Broderick called attention to the condition of the steamrolled road at McCurtainstown. It was worse than before the steamrolling and was getting worse every day. The matter was referred to the Improvement Committee.

CHEQUE FOR LABOUR. On the proposition of Mr. McMahon, seconded by Mr. Kennelly, a cheque for £22 7s. 6d. for the week's wages was passed.

APPLICATION FROM CONTRACTOR. Wm. Roche, Clerk Inc., contractor for the excavation of 222 lanes, applied for some compensation for the manner in which he carried out the contract. He had met a lot of unexpected rock-cutting. The Chairman suggested that the matter be referred to the Gas Manager for report.

Mr. Broderick said Roche had done the work very cheaply. If there was rock-cutting that they had anticipated and if he was at a loss owing to the work, the council might consider his application if they could legally do so. Chairman—Adjourn the discussion and refer it to the Gas Manager. Clerk—In any event anything granted to Roche would be unauthorized. Mr. McMahon—Why didn't he charge enough the first day?

A HARD CASE. Mrs. Ellen Walsh applied for some compensation for her husband, who had lost an eye through an accident while working on the excavations for the gas mains.

The Chairman said they were all sorry for the poor man's great loss, but he feared they could do nothing in the matter. Mr. O'Gorman—It is absolutely out of our power. Mr. Broderick said the contractor took over all responsibility. The Clerk said they had all arrangements made with the South County Board of Health to admit him, but he didn't go. Mr. O'Gorman—Then our intervention was nil.

Clerk—No good at all. Mr. Harrington—This man hadn't the means to go to Cork. Chairman—But he was entitled to a pass. After some further discussion the subject dropped, the council unanimously expressing regret that they could not do anything for the poor man.

THE BAND STAND, ETC. The following letters were received for the painting of the band stand and fountain in the Green Park, H. Hayes, 235 Main, the Green Park, H. Hayes, 235 Main, the Green Park, H. Hayes, 235 Main, the Green Park, H. Hayes, 235 Main.

DANCES. Hurra's Orchestra applied for the use of the ballroom for the Tuesday evenings in September and October for practice dances.

The application was granted on the usual conditions. Mr. Broderick—Is there not an order that application should be made from week to week? Clerk—That is embodied in the "usual conditions." Mr. Ed. Keefe, 5 The Mall, Youghal, applied for the use of the ballroom on Tuesday and Friday evenings "in aid of the distress in the West."

Chairman—Is this venture on his own behalf? The Clerk said it would appear so. Mr. McMahon—On his own? Clerk—Apparently. He applied for the ball previously and not a preferential rate as it was for a charitable purpose. Otherwise he would have been charged the ordinary rate.

It was decided to charge the ordinary rate. Chairman—The hours are from 8.30 to 10.30. Clerk—He wants till 11. Chairman—10.30 is late enough. Mr. Farrell—I don't agree with you there.

Chairman—We'll agree to defer. I think 10.30 late enough, irrespective of the couple 10.30 was no objection to 12 if you are paid for it. The Clerk said the scale laid down was: Practice dances to 10.30, 10s. 6d. and (charity) extra; ditto to 12, 21s. all-night dances 42.

CHAIRS ON STRAND. The Manager of the Pierret Troop on the Strand—"The White Coats"—wrote stating that his charge for the use of chairs on the Strand would be 21s. a "session."

The council was unanimous in the opinion that the charge was very reasonable.

COMMITTEES. The meeting then proceeded to appoint various committees. On the proposition of Mr. McMahon, seconded by Mr. Harrington, Mr. Mahony was appointed to fill the vacancy on the Technical Instruction Committee.

Mr. Kennelly was appointed to the second vacancy on the proposition of Mr. McMahon. The appointment of the Free Library Committee was adjourned. After some discussion the following committees were appointed on the proposition of Mr. Coughlan, seconded by Mr. Mahony—

Them to attend, still we think that in cases of this kind where any event is being held for the benefit of the town, the public should realize that it is their duty to make such events as possible for visitors, and the numbers may rest assured that by doing so they will not be regretted.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Mission in Kilgobnet Parish.—A very successful three weeks' mission opened in Kilgobnet Parish on June 14th and continued in Collihan and Kilgobnet Parishes on the following weeks and closed at Kilgobnet on the 18th inst. The mission was attended by very large congregations at the morning and evening exercises. It should be most gratifying to the zealous missionaries—Fr. Kelly and Fr. Manning—two distinguished members of the Vincentian Order and to the Very Rev. P. Durbin, the worthy and esteemed pastor of the parish, and his popular curate, Rev. P. Walsh, to find such a noble response from the faithful young and old, during the mission. There was not a Sunday when any of these churches at the sacred services, and many had to be content to stand outside the church doors. The mission closed in each parish with a special service of the Holy Sacrament and a special sermon appropriate to the solemn occasion.

Youghal District Court

Defendant Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L. Guard Charles charged Frank Cooper, Friar street, with selling milk deficient in fat 6 per cent. Mr. J. L. Keane, solicitor, defended, and Mr. M. Moloney, solicitor, appeared for Mr. W. P. Hayler, who supplied the milk. Complainant gave evidence of purchasing the milk from defendant. He produced the analyst's certificate showing the deficiency complained of. Mr. Keane said that the certificate showed that the sample contained 8.2 per cent of solids other than milk fat, which was only 6 per cent deficient. Mr. Hayler, from whom the milk was originally purchased, had been 30 years in business, and during that time there had been only one prosecution and that failed. He had everybody present who had anything to do with the milk from the cow to the purchaser. They would prove that it was genuine milk and as it came from the cow.

DEATH OF MRS. GLEESON, COLLIGAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mrs. Gleeson, which occurred at her residence, Colligan, on Sunday morning last at a venerable age. She was relict of the late Michael Gleeson, who was uncle of the late Rev. Joseph Gleeson, one of the best known Irish priests on the American Mission. Throughout her long life she won the admiration and respect of all who made her acquaintance, and was noted for her unflinching and admirable disposition towards those in distress. A member of a well-known County Waterford family and a good mother and a kind neighbour, her death is a loss to the members of her family, but by the general public. A fervent daughter of the Holy Church in her death came calm and peaceful. R.I.P. On Monday evening her remains were removed to Colligan Church and were laid to rest in the family grave. On Tuesday at 10.30 a.m. there was solemn Requiem Office and High Mass for the repose of her soul at which Rev. P. Walsh, C.C., Kilgobnet, was celebrant; Rev. J. Keane, C.C., Alibeyde, deacon, and Rev. J. Dwyer, C.C., Modligo, sub-deacon. Rev. J. Dwyer, C.C., was master of ceremonies. In the choir were—Rev. T. Egan, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. M. Heane, C.C., do.; Rev. R. Walsh, O.S.A.; Rev. J. Donegan, O.S.A.; Rev. J. Mulcahy (grand-nephew); Rev. M. E. Walsh, Millstreet; Rev. Fr. Hassett, Collinacross; Rev. D. Power, Colligane. Subsequently the funeral took place to Colligan, where the interment took place. There was an enormous concourse of friends and relatives present from all parts, who came to pay a last tribute to the memory of the deceased lady. The chief mourners were—Mrs. Kirwan, Graiguevalla, and Mrs. Brett, Colligan (daughters); Messrs. R. Kirwan, M. Kirwan, James Kirwan, Percy Kirwan, Pat. Kirwan, James McGrath, Philip Beroford, John Beroford, Ed. Beroford, Ed. Quailly, Walter Gough, Pat. Kirwan, A. Deo, Mrs. Gough, Mrs. Power, Mrs. Dore, Mrs. Barron, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Murphy, Mrs. Kely, Miss Gough, Miss Kirwan, Miss K. Kirwan and Miss M. Kirwan (nieces); Frank, Ed., Victor and Wm. Brett, Michael, James, T. and Thomas Kirwan (grandsons); Mrs. Power, Miss Kirwan and Mrs. Keane (grand-daughters); Mrs. P. Kely, Misses Nan and Bala Kirwan, Nan Cullinan, Mary Kurwau, M. M. and K. Quailly (grand-nieces); Nicholas and Thomas Beroford, Nicholas Quailly and Nicholas Beroford (grand-nephews).
