

Vol. 14. No. 696. SATURDAY, AUGUST 1, 1925.

Dungarvan Urban Council

A general meeting of the above council was held on Friday night last. Mr. M. Broome, chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. J. Butler, T.D.; J. Moore, T. McCarthy, T. O'Mahony, Mrs. Griffin, R. Craig, Capt. Foley, T. J. Power, M. J. Keane, W. O'Donnell and John Curran.

Mr. Butler held that Miss Broderick required no sanction as she was only extending the place at her own risk. He thought Mr. Power's proposition was not in order, and he proposed an amendment that the site be granted as per the plan.

Chairman—We are the custodians of the public property, and I for one must object to anyone coming in free grants and free rent.

Miss Broderick—I asked in my original application to have a fair rent fixed. Chairman—If Miss Broderick desires a site we will give her a grant and she can build in any other place.

Miss Broderick—I want a site, but I don't want a grant and be waiting years for it. Miss Broderick then left the meeting.

Chairman—The matter is fully discussed now and we have a proposal from Mr. Power, seconded by Mr. Keane, and I think Mr. Keane—I don't quite agree with the question of the lease, so I will propose an amendment—"That we permit Miss Broderick to extend the portable tent for which permission has been already granted by the Urban Council at Griffin's Park, Abbeyside, at a nominal rent to be fixed and in accordance with plan submitted to borough surveyor and sanctioned by him."

Mr. Griffin—This council have no power to give a lease. Mr. Power—And they could give it to others.

Chairman—Yes, for suitable houses. Mr. Power—They are building houses everywhere now. Mr. Griffin—Why not build them in the Dungarvan Park?

After a further lengthy discussion Mr. Power proposed—"That Miss Broderick be granted the site asked for, the borough surveyor to mark the site at a lease of 99 years and a fair rent."

Mr. Keane again proposed his amendment. Mr. O'Donnell moved, and Mr. Griffin seconded, that the matter be referred to the council's solicitor.

Chairman—Mr. O'Donnell's amendment is the only one seconded so that this is the matter. Mr. Butler—No, not yet. I will move a further amendment—"That Miss Broderick be granted site as shown on plan on same conditions as original site was granted." Mr. McCarthy seconded. Mr. Butler's amendment being put there voted.

Mr. Power—They are building houses everywhere now. Mr. Griffin—Why not build them in the Dungarvan Park?

Dungarvan Show.

SOME LESSONS TO BE LEARNED. It is admitted by the 6,320 people present in the Dungarvan Show on Thursday last, that the event created a record not only in the attendance of the public from far and near, but also in the quality and quantity of the exhibits shown.

Established in September, 1915, with the primary aim and object of developing the agricultural interest of the county to the best advantage and having at its head man who through following business pursuits in town and country had learned to sow the seed and reap the harvest in more ways than one, it grew from small proportions in a few years mid to today when it stands four square in the land, and being, in the words of one of the Department's chief Live Stock Inspectors, who was present last Thursday—"the finest judged in every section seen at any show this year."

That statement was verified by the thousands present, who have come to regard Dungarvan Show as an educational treat on which a price could not be paid.

As the majority of our people are dairy farmers and everything that improves the herd is of deep concern to them, we can assure them that the bulls, cows, heifers and calves at the show were the superior of any that will be seen at any other show this year.

And the cause is the great interest many of our progressive farmers have taken in past years in introducing stock bulls of the best known dairy breeds in Munster—declared they had exceptional difficulty in making their swarms owing to the all-round high-class quality of the cattle. Is it any wonder that fancy prices are being paid our farmers for their dairy heifers and young bulls bred along such advanced lines?

Mr. Butler—According to the circular they are prepared to give £100,000 to the schemes initiated by the Department of Agriculture some years ago, the gospel of which was pronounced by Mr. O'Keefe, and eloquently by Mr. P. O'Keefe, our able Agricultural Instructor. His efforts have been rewarded. The need has been met by the Department's regulations which have borne good fruit, and the farmers of the County Waterford are the gainers in a measure to large that it can hardly be overdone.

And now we come to the horses—a section dear to every Irishman—for who does not see in them a symbol of his own strength and manhood? It is a tradition with us handed down from the days immemorial when O'Connell's horse-drawn carriage was a mark of distinction.

Mr. Keane called attention to the display in the postal delivery in Dungarvan, and stated that although the mails were in at 7.45 some people had to wait until 10.30 for their mail. It was a great hardship on business people.

The Clerk was directed to write to the local Postmaster re the matter.

LISMORE NOTES

On Holidays.—The Very Rev. T. P. Canon Fitzgibbon, P.P., V.F., is presently enjoying his holidays. We also notice Rev. James S. Linnell, B.A.; Rev. W. A. O'Riordan and Rev. John D. Quailly among our clergy.

Sunday Last.—It was a matter of regret that Sunday last passed so unappreciated by the climate standpoint, as it was anything but pleasant for those seeking a rest on that afternoon. The excursion train, in fact, we should say, the experimental excursion train, run by the G.R.E. was fairly well patronized on the occasion, but it should be brought home to the authorities that Sunday was a serious loss by giving to the railway company would not even at this stage put on the Sunday afternoon train service from Tinnis to Dungarvan and advertise such. It would be most satisfactory that their respective efforts to comply with the wishes expressed in the resolutions of public bodies.

Pigs.—The price of fat pigs at Wednesday's live weight market at Lismore was the same as previous week—65c per cwt.

G.A.A.—In a friendly football contest on Sunday last in hot weather the home team ran out every winner pitted as they were against Cappoquin Football Club. James Tobin and Paddy Fogarty, two of the Lismore players, were injured during the contest, the former receiving injuries to the knee and the latter a dislocation of collarbone.

The U.S.A.—Messrs. Jim O'Connell and Tom O'Donnell, two prominent members of the Harling Club, left for the U.S.A. during the week, and a farewell dance was given in their honor on Monday night last. They carry with them the best wishes of all for their future happiness.

Next Sunday.—At Lismore on Sunday next, 2nd prox., two harling contests for Senior and Junior County Championships will be decided. Dungarvan and Cappoquin will cross arms for the big event, while Tallow Harling Club and Dungarvan will compete for junior honours. The field is in apple order and all arrangements complete.

No Apology.—Newsagents in Lismore offer to apologise to the many who were unable to procure a copy of the "Dungarvan Observer" for some weeks back. If a constant order is placed with the agent as advertised, he will be made to procure a paper weekly, but it must be understood that newsagents are human and are not infallible as some rather vexed members of the public lately would be inclined to think.

Epiphany.—Epiphany is celebrated this week with Mr. J. J. Budge, fruit merchant, occasioned by the death of his mother at an advanced age. The deceased lady's remains were laid to rest on Monday last at Kilmacross in the presence of a large gathering of sympathisers and relatives.

Croquet Tournament.—The Croquet Tournament between the members of the Lismore Lawn Tennis Club was won by Miss J. McNeill and Mr. J. W. Power, and the runners-up were Mrs. McNeill and Mr. J. C. Healy. With four tennis courts, putting green, croquet and basketball, the members find plenty of scope in some instances, while the grounds are ideal, reflecting the greatest credit on the management.

Sheep Dog Trials.—Support for the sheep dog trials and demonstration at Clonmel on the 25th of August is really forthcoming. The Department of Agriculture has given a grant of £10 for prize money, thereby recognizing the national utility and importance of the undertaking. The Clonmel trials will come under notice at single fares on August 26th. This facility should be largely availed of, as undoubtedly the demonstration of these magnificent Scotch sheep dogs is wonderful to witness. In addition to the magnificent "Doughmott" Cup (value £200), a cup is put up for the best bitch by Messrs. Macdonald and Co., wool merchants.

DUNGARVAN SHOW.

HOME INDUSTRIES SECTION.

At the Dungarvan Show on Thursday last great interest was taken in the section for Home Industries. The quality of the exhibits in the various classes was the best and reflected high credit on the manner in which the exhibitors are doing their business. The poultry entries were small though in this county these are as good as a class of all kinds of poultry as are to be found anywhere, and we hope in future years the entries in this section will be larger.

YOUNG URBAN COUNCIL.

"MIXED BATHING."

O'Grady, P.C.; M. D. Broderick, J. E. Smyth, P.C.; H. C. Farrell, T. Harrington, T. Curran, W. J. Broderick.

SANITARY ACCOMMODATION.

Messrs. J. Hollett and Son, scribes, wrote stating that the council as sanitary authority had power under the provisions of the Public Health Acts, in any case in which they were satisfied in the opinion of the medical officer that sufficient sanitary accommodation had not been provided for a building, to require the owner by written notice to provide proper accommodation. If the notice be not complied with the council might do the work, but if that work consisted in the alteration of existing accommodation, the council would have in some cases to bear the whole and in others the half cost. These powers of the council were, however, subject to one very important proviso, and that was that there must be existing, prior to the service of the notices, a sufficient water supply for sewer. Before moving in the matter the council should in their opinion carefully consider whether the present antiquated sewers could be regarded as "sufficient" within the meaning of the Acts. Another point which needed to be emphasized was that apparently the Acts did not empower the council to enforce a general scheme of compelling defective accommodation of some other kind, but the council must consider the circumstances of each particular case and exercise their discretion accordingly.

ALLEGIANCE TO THE STATE.

On their engineer, Mr. M. O'Keefe, Portlanna, declining to sign the declaration of allegiance to the State, Co. Galway Honorary Committee expressed the view that the section of the Local Government Act, requiring the declaration to be signed, as it tended to create animosity and introduce politics. The committee also asked the Local Government Department whether the section should be applied to Mr. O'Keefe, as he is only a temporary officer.

TO THE OLD SYSTEM.

Under the present system the men worked on the mornings of Church holidays, but they were deprived of the usual half holiday the same week. He said the change was adopted as a "repeal."

Mr. Wm. Broderick strongly objected to the change of "repeal." Nothing was farther from the minds of the members in introducing the change. The whole question was considered and dealt with on its merits. Did they want to pay men a six days' wages for 4 days work? That was the whole question. It was a matter of equity and justice. He moved that the existing arrangement stand.

Mr. Coughlan seconded. He failed to see why the municipal staff should receive preferential treatment to other workers. Mr. Harrington said that the vice-chairman was asking for no concession for the men, but merely a return to the old order, which was reversed when there was a "repeal" on.

Mr. O'Grady said his only objection was to the charge of "repeal." There was no such thing. He endorsed the remarks of Mr. Broderick.

On a poll being taken there voted—For the Amendment—Messrs. Smyth, Farrell, Broderick (2), Fleming, O'Grady, Kennedy, Coughlan and Moloney—12. Against—Messrs. Curran, Forrest, Bennett and Harrington—4.

The proposition was therefore defeated. Mr. Forrest asked what was the estimated cost of the two tennis courts in the Green Park.

Mr. Curran—Another matter regarding the balance to the credit of the Amusement Committee—can the committee expend the amount without consulting the council?

Mr. O'Grady said, speaking on behalf of the committee who had charge of the laying out of the tennis courts referred to, he wished to tender their best thanks to Messrs. Smyth, Thos. Murray and Thos. O'Connor and to all those who helped them in bringing the project to a successful conclusion, with the satisfactory result that the courts were now ready for playing.

Mr. Smyth said that he had a large quantity of bricks free of cost. It would cost £200 more only for him. Mr. Tom Murray had marked out the courts, and Mr. O'Connor supervised the ploughing of the upper part. All the materials used were supplied at wholesale prices. He therefore proposed that the council thank all those who helped the committee. The Chairman said they were grateful to all who helped.

Mr. O'Grady seconded. Were it not for the help so willingly given, and while things would have been done, were it not for Messrs. Smyth and Murray it would have been impossible to carry out the work.

Mr. Smyth thanked the council for their kind remarks. He and those associated with the work looked forward to seeing the project a huge success.

The Strand caretaker reported that the offenders were bathing all over the place (laughter) and there was a lot of mixed bathing carried on. When he spoke to the offenders and pointed out their own wrongs they only laughed at him and said "while things would have been done, were it not for Messrs. Smyth and Murray it would have been impossible to carry out the work."

general rates of the town. The rate per cent. to be charged on this last account will be half per cent. under Irish law, not below 4 per cent., and the advance is sanctioned provided that the property is not in arrears. This authority will define the length of time for which the course is to be in course of reduction. Yours faithfully—G. V. Watson, Manager.

COST OF STONES.

Arising out of a report on the question of a supply of stones for the streets, Mr. McMahon inquired what was the cost. Chairman—10s. per ton at the street.

Mr. McMahon—That is too much money. What about having it done by contract? It would be cheaper.

Chairman—It should have been done two months ago and the work must be done at once. The question of having it done by contract must wait till next year.

Mr. Bennett pointed out that the work done by 15 men formerly was now done by 3. The smaller staff could not be expected to do everything—excavating, building walls and everything else.

Mr. Smyth said that he didn't alter the fact that the stones were costing 10s. per ton. It was an absurd price to be paid.

Mr. Broderick said if it were postponed any longer the men would have to knock off work early at the end.

Chairman—Get the work going on to-morrow. It should have been done before.

Instructions were given to have the work on quarrying started immediately.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Successful Irish Classes.—Instead of having to go to Ring, Ardara or some other distant centre for the annual course of Irish study this year, the National Teachers of most of the schools in the county were enabled to attend a most successful Irish class in the Convent of Mercy Schools, Cappoquin, which has proved highly suitable and convenient for all. It can be truthfully stated that the Sisters of Mercy, who acted as teachers in their own schools, are amongst the most ardent of the Gaelic language, and so when it was proposed to have an Irish class for National Teachers held in their school during the month of July they concurred in the proposal with genuine Irish enthusiasm and gave every assistance possible to ensure the thorough success of the month's course of Gaelic study. The teachers forming the class are the lady teachers from Ballydaff, Ballysaggart, Molebeg, Villierstown, Afane, Tourin, Cappoquin, Ballymacorney and other places, while all the members of the teaching staff in the Convent of Mercy are amongst the most regular and enthusiastic pupils. The teacher selected for this class was one of the best to be found anywhere, viz.—Mr. Padraig McKeown, B.A., a brilliant member of the staff in Mount Mellary Secondary. Mr. McKeown was in charge of the Irish classes in Ring last year, which proved such a remarkable success, and as all his pupils in Cappoquin have proved most regular and attentive towards their studies day after day, wonderful progress has been made here during the month.

Distinguished Visitors.—The Very Rev. W. Tobin, P.P., Buffalo, U.S.A., a native of Molebeg, who is at present at home on a well-earned holiday with his relatives, had the honour of a visit from his own Bishop recently, the Most Rev. Dr. Turner, Bishop of Buffalo, who was accompanied by his secretary, Manager Brett, both of whom had been to Rome in connection with the Holy Year Pilgrimage. Touring Ireland on their return from Rome and learning that Father Tobin was at present home in Molebeg, both ecclesiastical and lay members of the county Council, accompanied them to Cappoquin to pay him a welcome visit, and they remained as the guests of Father Tobin for three days in Molebeg. This being their first visit since their return to America, Father Tobin accompanied them to Cappoquin and over them off to their distant homes in Buffalo, where he will join them in due course at the end of his present holiday.

The "Daly Cup"—It is now many years ago since Mr. James Daly, better known as Cork, presented the lion Cappoquin Football Club with a valuable silver cup which was put up for a football tournament, all the matches of which were to be played in Cappoquin. As a valuable set of silver medals was offered for the winning team, in addition to the cup, large entrance were received not only from Waterford, but also from the County Cork. Youghal and Perroy putting up two great fights for their county in their respective matches. Several rounds of the tournament had been played in the clubs standing in had been reduced to three—Lismore, Cappoquin and Dungarvan—but in 1916 came, with all its attendant horrors, and football tournaments had to take a back seat in order to make room for the men of the world, the rifles and the bombs. We all know the toll that was taken during the following years, but now that our games and sports are being again revived in a calmer and safer atmosphere, and that a splendid sportsfield has been provided for the town, the members of the local Football Club and Sportsfield Committee intend to finish out this important tournament on an early date, an important announcement may be seen for in a future issue of the "Observer." The "Daly Cup" is at present in the possession of Mr. E. Maddara, Ballydaff, Kilmacross, a former official of the County Board, and we hope to have this valuable trophy returned to Cappoquin within a few days.

TECHNICAL LOAN.—The following letter was read—"Provincial Bank, Youghal, 21st July, 1925. Dear Mr. Walsh—Referring to your letter of the 4th inst., I have pleasure in informing you that the Directors have sanctioned a loan to this extent to the council themselves, repayment of same to be spread over a period not exceeding 10 years in half-yearly instalments of principal and interest to be secured by a mortgage over the council's property, including the Church holidays and that they revert back to the old system. Under the present system the men worked on the mornings of Church holidays, but they were deprived of the usual half holiday the same week. He said the change was adopted as a "repeal."

COUNTY COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN.

IMPORTANT DISCUSSIONS.

WATERFORD AND BEET FACTORY.

The annual meeting of the County Committee of Agriculture was held in Dungarvan on Saturday. Mr. N. Fitzgerald was present to the chair and the following were present—Messrs. John Kiersey, Chairman of the County Council, Mr. O'Keefe, John O'Keefe, Liamakill, Jas. G. O'Connell, Carrick-Phillip, Mathias Walsh D. Larkin, J. G. Dake D. Ward, T. E. O'Shea, M. Dwyer, P. Molealy, Thos. Flynn, Mee. Walsh, C. J. Curran, J. Curran, D. Dempsey, M. Curran, John O'Donnell, W. C. Coghlan, Wm. O'Donnell, Ballybarnon, J. McLaughlin, Jas. Lyons, W. Stack, J. Kavanagh, E. Breenan, J. Butler, T.D.; M. Brennan, T. Hart, J. Sheehan, M. McGrath, L. Hallinan, R. Tobin, Mr. J. O'Dwyer, secretary; M. O'Keefe, agricultural instructor, and Mr. O'Shea, horticultural instructor, were also present.

Mr. Kiersey proposed that Mr. N. Fitzgerald be elected chairman. He said he was one member of that committee who had always taken a very keen interest in everything connected with agriculture and they could not find a better man for the position. Mr. M. Walsh seconded.

There being no other proposal, the Chairman said his first duty was to declare himself elected chairman, and he thanked the members for the honour they conferred upon him, and said he would do his best in the job during the coming year.

For the position of vice-chairman, Mr. Healy proposed the election of Mr. Daley. Mr. Daley seconded, Mr. Daley was unanimously elected.

Attendance. Mr. Flynn said he had a resolution to propose asking the County Council to re-elect members to that committee who did not attend at least 3 or 4 meetings during the year. There were a big number usually on that committee, and yet it was often very hard to find a quorum as they would not attend, and for the sake of efficiency they should stop that.

After a brief discussion it was agreed to ask the County Council to disqualify any member at the end of 12 months who had not attended 3 meetings of the committee in the year.

More Funds Wanted. Mr. Flynn raised the question of the funds allocated to the County Committee. They got less grants from the agricultural rate than any other county, and the Technical Committee a lot more than they did out of the rate in the county and that was not right.

The Chairman said their rate did not compare with other counties. In the Co. Tipperary they had a rate of 1d. in the £ for cow-tending purposes and in Cork they had some 4d. in the £, and in the Co. Tipperary would bring in as much as 4d. in the £ for agriculture, while the Technical Committee gets 1d. in the £ also as well as a rate of 1d. in the £ for Irish. Whatever you give the Department will give a grant pro rata.

Mr. Flynn—We don't want to increase the rate at all, but we say that while the Technical Committee gets the 1d. in the £ we only get 1d. While not increasing the rates, we should see we get our due share of the rate struck, and when the estimate comes up next the County Council should pay attention to that fact.

Chairman—At present we are getting 1d. in the £ for agriculture, while the Technical Committee gets 1d. in the £ also as well as a rate of 1d. in the £ for Irish. Whatever you give the Department will give a grant pro rata.

Mr. Flynn—We don't want to increase the rate at all, but we say that while the Technical Committee gets the 1d. in the £ we only get 1d. While not increasing the rates, we should see we get our due share of the rate struck, and when the estimate comes up next the County Council should pay attention to that fact.

Chairman—You can ask the County Council to revise the rate.

A resolution was then passed on the motion of Mr. Flynn, seconded by Mr. Dempsey, to have the question come up before the County Council when the estimates were being prepared some months hence, and that a large share of the rate levied be devoted to agricultural purposes.

Live Stock Breeding Act. In reply to a question, the Secretary said in regard to application forms under the above Act, he had not received anything like the number of applications he expected to get, but the forms could also be had at Post Offices and Civic Guards Stations. He wished to know if the members had any suggestions to make.

Mr. Kiersey—Forms were distributed from crannies also. Secretary—Has it been posted extensively in the county? Several members said it was.

Mr. C. J. Curran—I would like to know if it is absolutely necessary that bulls not passed by the Inspectors should be immediately castrated or disposed of? Chairman—You will get a special form to hold the animals not passed to a certain day and the owners will give an undertaking that the bulls will not be used for service.

Mr. Flynn—Must all be brought for inspection? Chairman—Yes. You apply for a license in the ordinary way, and if the animal is turned down you get permission to fatten him.

Chairman—There are a number of farmers who prepare their bulls for sale in September each year, and it is a hardship on those people if they could not do that as usual.

Chairman—There is no necessity for them to do otherwise. Mr. O'Keefe—Several numbers did not apply for the license as they were inclined to sell their bulls.

Chairman—They can put on the application form they intend to fatten the bull. This meets the point.

Mr. O'Keefe, agricultural instructor, said Mr. Duffy, Live Stock Inspector, and himself took very good care that all important points were dealt with at the lectures they gave and the report was published in full in the "Observer." Personally he felt no more could be done than was done in explanation of the Act.

Mr. O'Keefe—The special license only comes into force after 30th September. A resolution was received from the Kildare County Committee of Agriculture asking that four delegates be appointed to a Conference in Dublin on August 4th (Horse Show Week) to devise means of improving the price of home-grown grain.

Mr. O'Keefe—It would be well for us to help other counties any way we could. If you look at it seriously they should take into account the difficulty of feeding pigs at present with the price of foreign grain. With the prices prevailing it was impossible for pig-breeding to enter into pig feeding.

Mr. O'Keefe—It is a pity as the factory would be a great relief to unemployment in this and the adjoining counties. This committee should make out a serious case in connection with the factory and put it before the Department and Messrs. Lippens. It would be advisable for the committee to make the strongest case possible.

Chairman—We should get the Department's representatives and Messrs. Lippens to come and see the place for themselves. In reply to Mr. McAvilly, Mr. O'Keefe said it was a foregone conclusion that they could grow as good beef as anywhere else.

Mr. M. Walsh—What does the factory cost? Chairman—£250,000. Mr. M. Walsh—And the Transport Workers would close it before six months as they are doing everything else.

Mr. O'Keefe said the farmers of the Co. Waterford would grow best extensively if it paid them as well as anything else. Mr. Griffin—I grew 10 years ago for an experiment. The best was sent to London to be tested and manufactured and the result was most satisfactory.

While the soil was suitable the question was would it pay for growing it? You would have 3 tons of manure to one ton of best. Mr. O'Keefe said at present they were producing one article for sale on their farms—the stock. What would happen if they had an outbreak of foot and mouth disease? Grain was practically finished for revenue, and in potatoes they had extraordinary competition from the Continent, England and Northern Ireland.

Mr. Flynn—It will do no harm to make a move and try and get the factory. Chairman—It would mean a lot of employment in the area.

Mr. M. Walsh—There is very little tillage in the valley of the Suir. Mr. C. J. Curran—They have decided to have the factory at Athy or Carlow.

Chairman—No. The valley of the Barrow is the best site as far as the property of Mrs. Rita Whelan, Esq., who has a large tract of land in the valley of the Barrow, and she has offered to give the factory site to the county.

Mr. O'Keefe—There are factories in Waterford that have not been investigated. Mr. Greene—Does sawing suit best as good as a mangel crop?

Mr. O'Keefe—Yes, according to my present information. Mr. Greene—I know of no better mixture for mangels than seaweed and farmyard manure.

Mr. Brennan—How does the area under best in Co. Waterford compare with other places that are claiming the site? Mr. O'Keefe—We have got our pro rata number of experimental plots.

Mr. Butler—Was any guarantee asked for from the farmers of this and adjoining counties in connection with the factory? Chairman—Nothing has been done so far.

Youghal District Court

Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L. JARNEY.

Two young girls named Elizabeth Kieley and Christina McCarthy—aged 16—both of Cook lane, were charged with the larceny of two pairs of silk stockings, silk handkerchiefs and tooth brush, etc., the property of Mrs. Rita Whelan, Esq., who has a large tract of land in the valley of the Barrow, and she has offered to give the factory site to the county.

Supr. Doreen Middleton, prosecuted, and Mr. J. L. Keane, solicitor, Youghal, defended. Miss Whelan deposed that on June 29th when she was staying at Lingville she put the articles in question out in the garden hedge and went down to the Strand. When she returned some hours later she found that they had disappeared. They were value for about £1.

Mr. Keane did not cross-examine. Supr. O'Sullivan deposed that on a complaint being made to her she got a description of two girls who had been seen in the neighbourhood—two young girls both with fair hair. Having made inquiries he was satisfied that the accused were the girls in question. He searched their houses and found the missing articles. In Kieley's house he found a pair of silk stockings, a tooth brush and a small handkerchief. In McCarthy's there were two pairs of ladies' silk stockings and a silk handkerchief. The Kieley girl admitted that she took a silk handkerchief, a tooth brush and two pairs of silk stockings. McCarthy admitted taking one pair of silk stockings and a silk handkerchief.

To Mr. Keane—There was no attempt to deny the charge? No. They gave you the things? Yes. Mr. Keane made a strong appeal on behalf of the accused. Eliza Kieley had lost her mother at the early age of 3 and Christina McCarthy was very ill and backward.

The Justice said that was a case to deal with under the Probation of Offenders Act and he meant to apply it. But he wished it to be made clear to all concerned that in a town like Youghal where there was such a high floating population in the summer, he would not be prepared to apply the Act automatically, even to youthful offenders—if there were any further cases of the kind. That sort of petty larceny was very annoying to people, and involved considerable expense in investigation. It was the first case of the kind that summer, and he wished to give due notice of his intention not to deal with all future cases in a similar manner.

The girls were then let out in their own and their fathers' recognisances in the sum of 15s. During a discussion on the question of costs of court and witnesses' expenses, Miss Whelan rose and said—1 beg your pardon, I don't want any of the children's money.

Mr. Keane—Thank you; I expected something nice from you. The costs were fixed at 10s. and the articles recovered were handed over to Miss Whelan. As Miss Whelan left the court with her friends, she passed the accused to whom she gave the parcel.

Guard Nolan charged Mrs. M. E. Ryan with being under the influence of drink with two young children in her charge. She was fined 7s. 6d. and costs. Guard Downes charged James Keefe with being drunk in charge of a horse and cart. He was fined 15s. and costs.
