SHANNON SCHEME STRIKE.

As the work on the Shannon Electric Scheme was about to start last week, a strike of labourers occurred against the rate of pay proposed by the German firm—8d. per hour.

The principal of the firm of Messrs. Siemens Schuckert, contractors of the Shannon power scheme, has returned to Limerick from Dublin, where he had an interview with the Government in reference to the position brought about through the refusal of local labour to accept the wage rate offered for work on the project. What transpired at the conversations has not been ascertained.

It was, however, learned that the contractors are not in any great hurry to commence operations, as they are not yet ready, but the position, it may be stated, is causing uneasiness. All the constructional material brought to Limerick by the steamer Commercial last week has been stored at the Strand, Limerick, and a further cargo is expected, as the vessel after unloading returned to Hamburg. Local Labour officials are still in the dark as to the intentions of the contractors on the wages question, and inquiry made failed to elicit any information in this respect.

DETAILS OF WAGE CRISIS.

When the strike occurred a small body of labourers employed by Messrs. Siemens Schuckert were working just inside the city boundary, as far as it has been possible to ascertain the wages for unskilled labour at the moment, are 1s. 3d. an hour.

The wages paid in Co. Limerick by the Limerick County Council for road labour are 3s. a week for a 50-hour week, and by the Clare County Council 3s. a week for a 50-hour week. The wages paid on Government road grants are 30s. for a 47-hour week, and 28s. in Clare for a 47-hour week.

This unit works out at approximately 8d. per hour. The demand for 1s. 4d. an hour does not seem to have any local basis, and it is 50 per cent. higher than the figures given above as the wages paid in the counties where most of the work will be.

The average wage paid to farm labourers in Co. Limerick is 25s. to 35s. a week, and close up to the city boundary it is 30s. a week. The hours of labour are from 56 hours to 63. In Castleblayney, situated in the centre of the area where the Shannon work is to be, farm labourers are paid 27s. 6d. a week for a 54-hour week.

It is stated the work offered on the Shannon is not central like farm work or road work, but is for a period of about three years. In Limerick at present there are about 1,800 men unemployed, 500 of them in the Free State about 150. Of the 1,800 in Limerick only about 600 are in receipt of any unemployment benefit. The rest are absolutely idle without any maintenance.

The Foreman. The following letter was "Youghal, 7th September, 1925. Dear Sir—We have been in communication with Messrs. Another Petrol Pump Messrs. Donovan Bros., electrical engineers, street, applied for permission to erect a petrol pump. Mr. Broderick—They were short of petrol pumps. They will be going cheap in years (laughter). Hand over matter to the Improvement Committee and the Town Mayor to report on.

The Chairman suggested all the owners of petrol pumps should be called on to put on them. The council was willing nothing out of them for risk of cost and litigation.

Mr. Powkes—the council identified against anything like this.

Clerk—That is the fact. Mr. Powkes said the council were also insured against accidents.

Mr. Broderick agreed with the Chairman that the owners of those lamps should have lighted, and it should be one of the conditions that be lighted.

NOTICE.

The Dungarvan Electric Light and Power Co., Ltd. wish to inform prospective clients who intend to have Electric Light installed that immediate application is necessary as special arrangements are being made to meet their requirements.

By Order, T. MOLONEY, Secretary.

Summer Time expires on Saturday night in the Free State and all clocks must be put back one hour to get to normal time. In England and Northern Ireland Summer Time lasts for another fortnight. The result of the upset in time is that there will be general confusion in the running of boat trains and cross-Channel boats for the next two weeks. The Masses at St. Augustine's Church will be at 8, 9.30 and 11 o'clock, and at the Parish Church at 8, 10 and 11.

That in a nutshell explains the deserved popularity which our Bread enjoys to-day. The best of housewives will admit that women never could or did bake such as they can now buy—Bread that is the same year in and year out and always good. Youghal Urban Council.

Present—Messrs. M. Whelan, chairman; T. Harrington, James Bennett, vice-chairman; A. J. Powles, J. Troy, P. Kenneally, A. W. D. Murphy, T. Beausang, P. J. McMahon, P. G. M. Moloney, solicitor; P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; M. D. Broderick, J. Troy.

The Ferry. Mr. McMahon inquired about the Ferry. The Clerk said that there was a loss of 10s. 3d. for the week. Mr. McMahon said it was time to take one boat off. Mr. O'Gorman said the loss was caused by the unexpected cold snap.

It was decided to give a week's notice to one crew.

The Foreshore.

The following letter was read:—Youghal, 7th September, 1935. Dear Sirs—We have been in communication with Messrs. Wm. Guest Lane and Co., solicitors for the owner, with a view to a purchase for a nominal sum of the small strip of strand between high-water mark and the break water or groynes opposite the lands of Summerfield, and have now heard from them that Mr. Reynardson, the owner, is now willing to fall in with our suggestion and transfer the strip in question to the council. We will immediately prepare the conveyance and have it executed by Mr. Reynardson—Yours faithfully—J. Hodnett and Son.

The Chairman said he hoped that the matter would be carried through in the shortest possible time. It was hanging fire long enough, with the result that certain people were defying the council and removing sand and gravel from the foreshore. The council had closed the Green Hole Strand and the people were now going to the other strand and removing the stuff. He had seen it himself. The only objection of the council was to help to lessen the erosion that was taking place.

Another Petrol Pump.

Messrs. Donovan Bros., motor and electrical engineers, Nile street, applied for permission to erect a petrol pump. They enclosed a plan.

Mr. Broderick—They won't be short of petrol pumps locally. They will be going cheap in a few years (laughter). Hand over the matter to the Improvements Committee and the Town Surveyor to report on.

The Chairman suggested that all the owners of petrol pumps should be called on to put lights on them. The council was getting nothing out of them but the risk of cost and litigation.

Mr. Powles—The council is indemnified against anything of the kind.

Mr. Broderick agreed with the Chairman that the owners of those lamps should have them lighted, and it should be made one of the conditions that they be lighted.

Clerk—Whether the council is empowered to make that condition I am not aware.

Chairman—I think the council ought to move in the matter. Mr. Moloney said that the lights on certain pumps were meant only for advertisement. Mr. Broderick—Surely in a narrow street they ought to be in the interest or safety of the public.

Chairman—Where does common sense come in? Take the pump in Friar street, for instance. It would be very easy to knock against it going along on a dark night at 11 or 12 o'clock.

with no great inconvenience to the public provided it didn't extend beyond 15 inches from the foot of the wall.

On the proposition of Mr. O'Gorman, seconded by Mr. Kenneally, the permission was granted on that condition.

Town Superintendent, Etc. The Improvements Committee recommended the fixing of the salary of Mr. McNally's successor as follows:—Sanitary sub-officer, £45; town superintendent, £80 10s.; hackney car inspector, £5; total, £136 10s., with no further increase, the candidate, if necessary, to submit to an examination in Junior Grade arithmetic and composition.

On the proposition of Mr. O'Gorman, seconded by Mr. Beausang, the report of the committee was unanimously adopted.

County Cork Roads.

Mr. O'Gorman called attention to a statement in a Dublin paper regarding the roads in Ireland. Everywhere, the writer said, he had found the roads in tip-top condition till he came to the main road between Cork and Youghal, which was covered with bad potholes all over. That was a matter which concerned them seriously, and he thought they ought to take some steps to have the grievance remedied. They had an able representative on the County Council (Mr. Wm. J. Broderick, vice-chairman), who was a colleague of theirs, and he suggested that they ask him to press the matter on the attention of the County Council. It was nearly time that the principal road between Cork and Youghal—a road much used by tourists and travellers—should be put in decent condition.

The Chairman said he was sure Mr. Broderick would do all he could to have the complaints rectified. They would also have to tackle their own roads and cover them with tarred macadam.

Mr. Kenneally—We are living in a new age now and we should endeavour to keep up with the times.

Mr. O'Gorman—The road from Youghal Bridge to Dublin was like a billiard table almost the whole way. We met no bad roads till we came back to the County Cork. We have three county surveyors and we ought to get better roads than we have.

The Chairman said they all knew the condition of the County Council business, which was not all that could be desired. If Youghal were treated properly by the County Council, they would be receiving a contribution of £300 towards their roads instead of £230. What was equitable 17 years ago was not equitable that day.

Clerk—They are thinking of stopping it altogether.

Chairman—I think that case I would be in favour of simply stopping keeping up the roads.

Mr. M. Broderick said he was in agreement with Mr. O'Gorman's remarks. Surely it was not impossible for the great Co. of Cork to do for the roads what was done by the County Waterford under the direction of Mr. Bowen, county surveyor.

MMr. Kenneally—Our Co. Cork roads are in a shocking state. It was ultimately decided to ask Mr. Wm. J. Broderick to press the matter on the County Council.

Asylum Water Charge.

The Chairman referred to the inadequacy of the amount charged the asylum for the water supply, viz. £100. That was considered fair some 22 years ago when the people of the town were paying only 6d. in the 2s. water rate. At present the water rate was 2s. 10d. It was utterly inequitable to continue to accept such a small sum, especially in view of the facts that the town water rate had been so greatly increased, and that they expended many thousands of pounds to increase and improve the supply. He suggested that proper legal notice be served on the asylum authorities of the council's intention to increase the charge.

The Clerk said the matter was in Messrs. Hodnett's hands.

Mr. Broderick thought a pro rata increase with the rate would not be out of the way.

The Chairman said he thought that the asylum should pay at least a yearly sum of £250. That would not be unreasonable considering that the water rate had gone up from 6d. to 2s. 10d.

It was ultimately decided on the suggestion of Mr. O'Gorman to go into the matter at next meeting.

YOUHALL v. COVE.

Cove met Youhall in the Copper Alley Sportsfield, Youghal, on Sunday evening for the final of the East Cork Championship. The weather was delightfully fine, and considering the attractions at Milltown and elsewhere the attendance was fairly good. The North Abbey Band played to and from the field. From the very start the game was interesting and exciting at times, with some pretty rough interludes. The teams were evenly matched, and both fought well for the laurels, there being several stops from accidents. The visiting team included some of the old favourite faces, Desmond and others, and displayed the local team, and when the referee exhibited a rather unorthodox impatience with the action or inaction of the referee. In the opinion of many of the "hurlers on the ditch" the play would up with a win by a point for the local team, and when the referee gave his decision that it was a draw a lively racket ensued. Youhall won the toss and played down the field with the sun to their backs, the wind being a negligible quantity. Cove took possession and just missed a minor, which was well saved in a twinkling. Youhall seized and rushed up the field only to meet a fine defence. Play was not long under way when it became evident the teams were evenly matched, some lovely play ending in the home team drawing first blood with a point. After some fast up and down play lasting for a time Youhall raised the white flag again. Keeping up the pressure they foiled Cove's well-planned efforts to score till a halt was called by a Youhall man getting knocked out. Re-summing, Cove made a determined attack, which only narrowly missed owing to a clever save. At half-time the score was:

YOUHALL—2 points. COVE—NIL.

Starting the second half, Youhall ran quickly with the ball, but Cove quickly seized and scored the first major of the evening, to be followed by a minor for the home team, thereby levelling the score and raising excitement to a high pitch. Some very fast and fierce play ensued till another accident took place. Re-summing, the play, which had been rather rough, waxed warmer, both teams putting forth their best, but with no result, all of 2800 towards the goal of the goalkeeper's save. For the rest of the time the game was fiercely contested with varying attempts at fortune till Youhall appeared to score a point, the white flag being raised, but it was disallowed by the referee. Shortly before the finish Cove scored a point, thereby making it a draw.

YOUHALL—4 points. COVE—1 goal 1 point.

Mr. J. Foley (Sarsfields) referred.

DEATH OF MISS N. LINEEN, CAPPOQUIN.

The death occurred on the 3rd inst. of the above well-known and popular young lady. She was the younger daughter of Mr. A. and Mrs. Lineen, Allen street, Cappoquin, and was a most attractive young lady of only 17 summers, who was beloved and respected by all. She was a pupil of the Sisters of Mercy Convent School in Cappoquin, and was one of the brightest and most promising of the many clever young lady pupils attending that school. Something less than a month ago she was seized with a serious illness, and after being treated by Dr. White she was removed to the District Hospital, Dungarvan, where Dr. J. C. Hackett did all that was humanly possible to save her life. The remains were conveyed from Dungarvan to the Parish Church, Cappoquin, and were met en route by large numbers of the townspeople, who turned out to show their sympathy and respect on the sad occasion. The funeral took place to Affane Cemetery on Saturday afternoon and proved one of the most impressive of its kind seen passing through Cappoquin for a long time.

The chief mourners were—Anthony and Mrs. Lineen (parents); Josephine Lineen (sister); Thos. Lineen (brother); James Edmond, Mary and Margaret Murphy, Crinaghane; Andrew and Mrs. Flynn, Lackey; Crinaghane; Denis and Mrs. Ward, Kilgahriel, Clashmore; David Kiely, Ballynoe; John Noonan, Turbeha; the Misses Noonan, Cappoquin; Mrs. P. Ryan, do.; Miss M. Prendergast, N.T. do.; Miss Norah Ryan, Ballynoe; Ardmore; Miss J. Ronayne, do.; James and Mrs.

G.A.A.

On Sunday last at the Gaelic Grounds, Dungarvan, before a fairly large crowd of spectators two interesting matches in connection with the County Waterford Junior Championship were decided. Kilrossanty met Bricey Rangers in football, while Dungarvan tried conclusions with Tallow in hurling. This match being a replay was looked forward to with interest, as the teams had previously played a drawn game in Limerick. Mr. T. McCarthy had charge of the whistle in the football contest, which was not up to the standard and proved very disappointing. The score at half-time was:

KILROSSANTY—1 point. BRICEY RANGERS—1 point.

On resuming play was of a give and take nature for some time, and it was quite evident that both teams were not trained as well as they might have been. A crisis arose over the referee's decision with the fact that Kilrossanty left the field before the match was finished, the score at that time being:

BRICEY RANGERS—1 goal 1 point. KILROSSANTY—1 point.

HURLING.

Mr. L. Condon had charge of the whistle for the hurling contest and soon had the teams in motion. From the start the play was fast and exciting and the absence of fouls was a credit to both teams. Tallow won the toss and played with a slight breeze and the sun in their favour. At half-time the score stood:

TALLOW—2 goals. DUNGARVAN—1 goal.

On resuming play opened fast and both teams showed plenty of speed and stamina. Towards the close of the game Tallow, who appeared to be better trained than their opponents, forged ahead, and at the final whistle the score was:

TALLOW—5 goals. DUNGARVAN—2 goals 1 point.

The teams were—Tallow—E. Burke, J. Deane, R. Condon, N. Condon, E. Condon, J. O'Brien, J. O'Brien, W. O'Brien, T. Plaberty, W. O'Carry, M. Mulcahy, J. Slattery, W. Scanlan, P. Ryan, W. O'Brien.

Dungarvan—John Mulcahy, Patrick Scallan, John Duggan, Lou. Frasier, Phil O'Donnell, Park O'Donnell, J. Mahony, Thos. Higgins, Ed. McCarthy, John Whelan, John Conroy, Gra. Cahill, Pat. Querry, Ed. Kirby, Thos. Quirk.

Both regret has been caused in Aglish, Krossan and West Waterford by the death of Mrs. Johanna Roche, Ballinaparka, which occurred on Tuesday, 8th inst., after a lingering illness. The late Mrs. Roche was a member of one of the oldest and most respected families in West Waterford, possessed of a charming and amiable disposition, she was always remarkable for her kindly and generous traits of character, as her hospitality knew no bounds, and no body in distress ever appealed to her in vain for assistance. A devout and fervent Catholic, she was regularly attending during the last stages of her illness by Fr. Gleeson, P.P., Aglish, and Fr. Sheehy, C.C., and Fr. McNairy, Ballinacorney, and she died a holy and happy death. Her husband, Mr. Michl. Roche, and her son Mr. David Roche, who are well-known and respected farmers, have the deepest sympathy of a very wide circle of mourning relatives and friends in their bereavement. The funeral took place on Thursday afternoon in a magnificent demonstration of public sympathy and respect. The remains were conveyed in a beautiful paneled oak coffin, mounted with silver and purple. Large numbers of mourners attended from all parts of the surrounding districts, and both in its dimensions and its respectful and representative character the cortege was one of the finest seen in the district for many years.

The chief mourners were—Michael Roche (husband); David Roche (son); Mrs. D. Roche (daughter-in-law); David and John Moloney, Monastok (nephews); Mrs. Coyne and Mrs. Jane Moloney, do. (cousins); John and Mrs. Absarue, Droimore; Egit and Mrs. Healy and family, Ballycurane; Edmond and Mrs. Frasier and family, Cappoquin; R. A. Fraher, do.; Denis Lyons, Villiersdown; Thomas and Mrs. Morrison, do.; Ed and Mrs. Cutler, Timinewy; Michael and Mrs. Foley, Gosh; Michael and Mrs. Curran, do.; M. and Mrs. Flynn, Kiely's Cross; John Gamble, Ballymullala; John and Mrs. O'Brien, Ballymullala; James Bransfield, Droimore; Mrs. Crowley, Villiersdown; John O'Donnell, do.; Wm. Curran and family, Timinewy; Thos. Alvarne and family, Kereen; Jas. Morrison, Villiersdown; Robert and Mrs. Taylor, do.; Wm. Ronayne, Ballymullala, etc. (cousins and relatives).

The coffin was supplied and all the funeral arrangements carried out in a highly satisfactory manner by Mr. R. A. Fraher, undertaker, Cappoquin.

O'Donoghue and family, Cappoquin; Thomas and Mrs. Ehrill, do.; Patrick and Mrs. Walsh, do.; Aidan and Mrs. Walsh, do.; Wm. Walsh, do.; Michl. O'Brien and family, Bewley; J. Crowe, Cappoquin; Mrs. E. Spillane, do.; Eugene O'Keefe and Miss and Mrs. McCarthy and family, Cappoquin, etc. (cousins, relatives and friends). A large number of wreaths were placed on the grave.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS. Dungarvan Fair on Wednesday last was very large, and trade was generally slack in the cattle line. In the sheep and pig departments things were lively. Death of a Centenarian.—By the death of Mr. James Flynn, Fahafoela, Kilmacthomas, County Waterford has lost possibly its oldest inhabitant. He was over 100 years of age and was hale and hearty to the last. He was born near Dunhill and worked hard throughout his long life. One of his longest memories was to be present at a meeting at Faha during the election campaign of 1826—99 years ago—when Lord St. John was the opponent of Lord Beresford, of Carraghmore, for the Parliamentary representation of the county. He was a man well up in years when he met up with Daniel O'Connell in Dungarvan in the forties. He had a clear and perfect view of all the great historical doings in the county in the last 100 years. To him the plan of campaign and the evictions of the eighties were things of yesterday. He enjoyed the best of health throughout his long life, and it was only a few months ago he was obliged to leave his bed. He died after a long illness, and was buried in the presence of a large gathering. While there are several other persons in the County Waterford who have reached 100 or about the century, we have no trace of any coming near the Patriarchal age of the late James Flynn.

Weight-throwing Champion.—At the Mallow Sports on Sunday last Quiri M. Kennedy, Dungarvan, threw the 56 lbs. 23ft. 6ins., winning the championship and defeating the holder of the title, Mr. J. Bresnahan.

Senate Election.—The polling for the election of 19 Senators took place in the Free State on Thursday, but owing to the inclemency of the weather and the general apathy displayed by the electorate, the poll is certain to be very small. After the election the first preference votes will be counted for each county area under the Assistant Returning Officer, after which the total papers will be forwarded to Dublin and the count completed. The result of the election will be announced on the 6th December next. The total number of Senate voters in the Free State is 1,315,000. The term of office of members is elected in 12 years and the salary is £200 a year with free travelling expenses. There were 79 candidates nominated for the 19 seats. Under the terms of the Constitution the persons to be elected or nominated must have done something out of the common to advance the interests of the State, but on looking over the list of candidates—the majority of whom are unknown outside their own family circle—one wonders what they did for the good of the country except in their mind's eye.

Co. Waterford Farmers' Association.—Dungarvan Branch. A representative meeting of the members of the Dungarvan branch was held in the Court-house, Dungarvan, on Saturday last. Mr. D. Dempsey, chairman, presided. Senator Sir John Keane, County Chairman, and Mr. R. A. Kelly, County Secretary, were present. Sir John delivered a most instructive address and dwelt on the necessity of lectures being given on agricultural economics during the winter months and papers read on subjects of deep concern to farmers. All present having paid their subscriptions, the meeting ended.

The Annual Ball of the Dungarvan Golf Club will be held in the Town Hall on October 7th. Mr. W. A. Mannan's Band will entertain the music. This promises to be the dance of the year and a very big number are seeking tickets, which can be had from the hon. sec.

Old Cappoquin Resident Passes Away.—Mrs. Amy Keyes, a well-known Cappoquin lady, who died on Sunday week at Affane. For many years she conducted a successful carrying business, but retired a few years ago and went to reside in Cork.

A Special Meeting of the Co. Council will be held on Tuesday next in the Court-house, Dungarvan. The agenda is a most important one, and very many serious items come up for deliberation.

The First District Court in Cappoquin since last May owing to holiday arrangements. The calendar is a light one.

THE GLORIOUS SONS OF ERIN.

And the noblest on the battlefield were sons of Erin's Isle—Old Ballad.

The Highland men are gallant men, and the men of sunny Spain, boys; The Frenchman, too, has pluck enough, the Bulgar and the Dane, boys; But who will send the foemen flying, and charge with reckless daring, Men and guns and odds defying, the glorious sons of Erin.

They've fought upon a thousand fields, the Kelly, Burke and Shea, boys; From famed Clontarf to Frederickburgh, when glory led the way, boys. At Bannockburn they stood the line when the Saxon had to yield, boys; The Irish bowmen sent them flying, they helped to win the field, boys.

From Waterloo to Neve Chapelle they've died for England's glory, Mides shining steel and bursting shell, how pitiful the story.

They raised the Green by Comeragh's Heights, the fond hearts and the daring, And fought and died for Ireland's rights, the glorious sons of Erin.

The wild geese sleep amongst the slains far from the slumbers above, boys, For Austria and France and Spain, their blood did freely pour, boys; 'Twas Meagher's men told Ireland's sons the wild sea roll between, boys; Brave hearts who charged up to the guns and wore the sprigs of green, boys.

We'll leave the colours flying once more, the Orange, White and Green, boys; And then as in the days of yore, we'll crown Dark Rosalind, boys; North and South and East and West, the Irish flag upspringing, Your health, brave hearts, who stood the test, the glorious sons of Erin.
