The production of the OVERLAND SIX is another advance o new and more splendid achievements in Motor Engineering. With a distinctive Saloon Body, finished in choice colours, comfortably seating five passengers and a beauty—worthy of the Aristocrats of the Motor World.

It has gained unanimous approval. The Engine is in a class all its own, alive with increased power. It whispers its way along the road with smooth, effortless ease. But it is in crowded traffic that one appreciates to full its marvellous reserve of power and fast acceleration.

See the Car for Yourself.

We will gladly arrange a demonstration run without your incur-ring the slightest obligation.

On Thursday last the voting for the election of 49 Senators took man, presiding,
In connection with the making of arrangements for the appointment of a County Medical Officer of Health under Section 21 of the L.G. Act, 1925,
Mr. Goulding asked was the appointment mandatory? Chairare a higher percentage was returned. The arrangements for the County Waterford were excellently carried out by Mr. Colbert, Mr. Goulding—How many of you approve of this appointment, which will carry a salary of £600 or more a year? If you appoint a man with the Diploma of Public Health you cannot get him for less than £600 a year. pathy of the electorate did more harm than the weather. In some pensary doctor in his district an M.O.H. and where is the necessity for a whole-time officer when you have such an official in each area?

In some polling areas the voting was very small. In Dungarvan over 50 per cent. polled. At Glendine booth 45 voted, at Ballycurrane 27; at Knockapore (7) at Tour County of the control of the county o row 25-in fact the average nummust be a peripatetic officia', and he will be over the other medical officers.

ber of votes recorded at the majority of the rural booths was 8 to 15 per cent. of the electors on Mr. Brennock said some time the Seanad register. In the evennow it was in abeyance as they were satisfied it was not going to be the great thing they thought ford to Dungarvan and from East Waterford to Waterford Courthouse. On Thursday morning the hallot boxes in Dungarvan the great thing they thought it was. Now they were trying the same thing in the medical profession.
