BROISTRAND AT THE GENERAL POST OFFICE AS A NEWSPAPER

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1925.

A meeting of the above was held on the middle of the Square. Friday night last. Mr. M. Brennock, P.C., chairman, presided. Also present-Messrs, M. J. Keane, Ml. Clancy, T. J. Power, J. Moore, J. Hackett, P. J. McGrath, J. Butler, T.D.; T. McCarthy, J. Curran, R. Craig, Mce. Griffin.

EXPENDITURE. The expenditure for the week was as badly needed. follows :- General account, £38 10s.; trunk rend account, £11 14s. 10d.

REPAIRS TO NEW HOUSES. Mr. Craig asked what repairs would be carried out in Abbeyside, and if he would get compensation for repairs carried out. Borough Surveyor-Until the back wall is cemented it won't be a good job. Mr. Craig-I had to sheet the inside of the house. The whole plaster fell off the wall and the bricks were exposed. Mr. Clancy-That is a serious report, but it was a pity Mr. Craig didn't report it when it happened. Chairman-He did. Mr. Craig-It cost me about £3 to repair it and who will compensate me? The Borough Surveyor was asked to go over and see the place before it was sheeted,
