This performance was of a remarkably AND performance was of a remarkably high standard, and everyone was highly pleased with it. "Love Thee, Dearest," by Mr. J. Keohan, Dungarvan, was sung charmingly. Mr. Keohan won rapturous applause. Mr. Willie Quinn, the famous Dungarvan comedian, gentleman farmer concerning a deal in "a pair of plaice" was a real house tickler. Vociferous applause greeted the conclusion of his part. A hornpipe by Mr. Patk, McGovern, Dungarvan, was a delightful tit-bit. Mr. McGovern has won several valuable medals. has won several valuable medals at Irish step and figure dancing. Master J.
