

Waterford County Council

MR. GALOY STRIKES OUT. LAND COMMISSION DEFAULTERS. REDUCING OFFICERS' SALARIES.

Mr. P. O'Gorman, V.C., presided at a special meeting of the County Council on Tuesday. There were also present—Messrs. J. Sheehan, J. Goulding, J. Butler, T.D.; T. E. O'Shea, J. Halloran, D. Conway, D. Heekin, M. Galgley, N. Fitzgerald, John O'Donnell, J. McAniffe, M. Brennan, J. Kirwan, E. J. Cahill, W. C. Coghlan, W. Stack, D. Coughlan, T. Harry, M. Walsh, R. Delaney, D. Ward, W. O'Donnell.

Mr. Galgley vs Economy.
The Finance Committee recommended that Mr. Down, county surveyor, be allowed £25 a year as extra remuneration for the work of the main roads of Dungarvan urban area subject to sanction.

Mr. Galgley—Some time ago we were trying to reduce the county surveyor's salary and now we are going to turn round and give an increase of £25.

Chairman—This is for extra work.
Mr. Galgley—And is not his present salary enough for the extra work? I consider it a very unfair thing to the ratepayers to give him £25 extra. What is his present salary? Secretary—£800.

Mr. Galgley—And if £800 a year is not enough for one man it is awful.
Chairman—For any extra work you impose on the county surveyor you must pay him for it.

Mr. Galgley—If you refer back to the terms of the advertisement you issued for a county surveyor it was £1,400 a year to do everything, and that was also to cover all travelling expenses. Mr. Bowen has now £500 or double the original £400.

Mr. D. Coughlan—Why not the Urban Council pay the difference? Why should it be put on the county?
Chairman—It is the work of the County Council.

Mr. Galgley—Are not we aware as members of this council that £800 a year is quite sufficient for any man? We are doing an injustice to the ratepayers by giving more—reducing salaries and then turning round and raising them. We want to do like that misgovernment in Dublin—put up the salaries. If that is the way we are to carry on it is a poor state of affairs.

Mr. Halloran—There is a proposition before the meeting.
Chairman—You must pay extra for extra work.

Mr. Galgley—The county surveyor is the servant of the County Council and so is a whole-time officer. It is not he who is a whole-time officer? Chairman—Yes.

Mr. Galgley—Then is not he entitled to do all the work of the council, and as this urban work belongs to the County Council it is his duty to do it.
The Chairman referred to the L.G. Act of 1926.

Mr. Galgley—Doesn't mind the Local Government. They will only do what they like. You are doing an injustice to the ratepayers by this recommendation.

Mr. McAniffe proposed, and Mr. Sheehan seconded, that the recommendation be approved.

Mr. Galgley—I propose he get no £25. Would not £25 be better spent by spending it on wages to workmen?
The recommendation was passed, Mr. Galgley dissenting.

legally to publish their names in the Press? Mr. Heekin—There are a sharp of annuities out, but the people were never billed for them.

Chairman—The Finance Committee thought it was the only way to stop people on to pay their annuities.

Mr. Delaney said some people in the county are paying annuities up to date and also their rates, while those not paying their annuities are not paying their rates either, and yet they are enjoying all the services of the County Council.

Chairman—That is my contention.
Mr. Delaney—I understand the council is not in a wretchedly strong position as regards finance. We owe a certain sum of money.

Mr. Galgley—And yet we are increasing salaries.
Mr. Delaney—You had to cut down the work of the unfortunate men for years of money, and yet those people who do not pay go round and enjoy all you do for them. They published the defaulters if South Tipperary, and it came as a great surprise to the people with the names they gave. It was by poster they were published.

Mr. Conway said it was a vital concern of the council and the ratepayers, as the man who refuses to pay his land annuity was increasing the burden on the other ratepayers. He suggested they should show up the defaulters, and they should not hesitate to do so. They were always grumbling about the financial affairs of the County Council, and they should bring these people to their senses if they possibly could.

Sir John Keane—Have you any idea approximately of the amount withheld where over two instalments are due?
Secretary—There is always from £12,000 to £15,000 arrears outstanding.

Sir John Keane—If the land annuities were paid punctually we would receive a lump sum of £12,000.

Secretary—That would be approximately due in respect of land purchase.

Chairman—It is a very serious matter for us.
Several members said the Land Commission was not doing its duty in the matter.

Mr. McAniffe suggested that the defaulters be written to and threatened that their names would be published if they did not pay up.

Mr. Galgley—We should give them an extra month to clear up the matter.
Chairman—There was an advertisement on the matter recently and it was very little use.

Secretary—If a mistake occurred through a name being published in error there would be an action against the council.

Mr. Goulding—Have we any legal right to publish the names?
Chairman—Have we any legal right to the grants? When the land annuities are not paid we don't get the grants.

Mr. W. Coghlan did not see why they should not take action. They were not going to be paying for defaulters year after year, and if the Government did not come to their rescue we will get the Government something else later on.

PURE WATER?

DEAD DOG FOUND IN KILADANGAN RESERVOIR. NO FILTRATION FOR 30 YEARS. WHAT DUNGARVAN CITIZENS ENDURE.

At a special meeting of the Urban Council on Monday evening, Mr. Brennan, P.C., chairman, presided. There were also present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, J. Curran, J. Moore, M. J. Keane, P. J. McAniffe, J. Hackett, J. Butler, T.D.; J. P. Power, B. Craig and M. Griffin.

Revelations were made in regard to the water supply from Kiladangan, which is used so extensively in the town and which from the statements made cannot be regarded as very conducive to public health unless it is taken in prescription form. The special object of the meeting was to consider the notice of motion by Mr. Butler, T.D., to the effect that the council rescind the order on the books appointing Mr. Patk. Lynch caretaker of Kiladangan waterworks.

Mr. Butler—I feel I am in duty bound to hand in this notice. Three other members and myself visited the waterworks and found the conditions there deplorable. The reservoir was turned into land, and the storage tank had not been used for a considerable number of years. That water supplies the population of this town, and it is our duty to see that the people get pure water. The caretaker is a particular friend of mine, but we found no trace of a caretaker having done anything. Whatever people think, I hold Kiladangan to be the principal supply, and we should not hold back no matter what money it would cost, from putting the place in order. What I said has been supplemented by the Water Inspector's report that the water has not been filtered for 30 years, and we never heard as a council that such was the case.

Mr. Hackett—On what terms is the caretaker employed?
Chairman—He has the free use of land and house and pays 2s. per week to the council.

Mr. Craig—Some official of the council is responsible.
Mr. Griffin—Was the caretaker ever cautioned for neglecting his duty?
Chairman—Not by the council.

Mr. Griffin—I say the council themselves and not the caretaker are to blame.
Mr. Butler—The people of the town and also the council have a habit of blaming the Borough Surveyor when anything goes wrong. He has nothing to do with the matter.

Borough Surveyor—I would like the council to understand that I am not supposed to go to the waterworks until a report comes from the caretaker.
Mr. Craig—Who is the caretaker responsible?
Borough Surveyor—If anything is wrong he must report to me or the Water Inspector.

Mr. Lynch, caretaker, was before the meeting and stated that an order to clear out the supply bed was made about six years ago, but it was never carried out.
Mr. Power—How long is the filter-bed out of use?
Mr. Lynch—About six years.

Borough Surveyor—It was not used since Mr. McCann left. In order was made to clear out the storage tank and it was carried out.

Mr. Craig—Are there two waterways?
Borough Surveyor—You can reverse the notion of the water to clean out the filter-bed, and the caretaker was instructed by me how to do it.

Mr. Lynch—I did my duty and I lost more than I gained. I never got the place in right order.

Mr. Curran—There is no complaint against the man.
Chairman—On Mr. Lynch promising to report if anything goes wrong in future, I would ask Mr. Butler to withdraw his motion.

Mr. Butler—Is there any second to my motion?
Mr. McCarthy then seconded the motion.

20 years and more with the carcass of a dead dog in it! For these reasons I feel bound to let my motion go. The majority may be against it, if so let their names be published. I mean to make the council move in the matter.

Mr. Power—I have to agree with Mr. Butler that the conditions were scandalous. In fact we were going to issue notices telling the people to take precaution against using the water.

Mr. Craig—The analyst reported the water good.
Mr. Butler—Have you the analyst's report? Clerk—No.

Chairman—Said for Mr. Walsh.
Mr. Keane—I support Mr. Butler, but I fear there is dire neglect on the part of the council.

Mr. Butler—Who is to blame but the person who should report and tell the council?
Mr. Griffin—Someone might have thrown in the carcass of the dog out of spite.

Mr. Butler—Was there a considerable time.
Mr. Keane—If I thought Mr. Lynch was to blame I would not shield him.

Borough Surveyor—The caretaker has to do nothing but report.
Chairman (to Mr. Walsh, S.S.O.)—When was the water last analysed?
S.S.O.—A very good report was given at the beginning of 1923.

Mr. Butler—I won't believe it until I see it in writing.
Mr. Power and Mr. Keane then looked in announcements to the motion, but the Chairman ruled them out of order and asked for a direct negative.

Mr. Griffin then proposed an amendment that the caretaker of Kiladangan waterworks be kept on. Mr. Keane seconded.

Mr. Butler's motion was then put and the voting was—
For—Messrs. Butler, McCarthy and Moore—3.
Against—Messrs. Griffin, Power, Keane, McGrath, Hackett, Curran, Craig and the Chairman—8.

The motion was declared lost.

Death—An old and respected member of the farming community in the person of Mr. Thos. Quinlan, Lower Bishoptown, passed away during last week, and his remains were laid to rest in the New Cemetery, Lismore, on Monday last. Deceased was father of Mrs. Marjorie Coghlan, Main street and brother of Mrs. Abner (senr.) Ballinspick.

G.A.A.—Congratulations are extended to the members of Lismore Hurling team on their matching the Bolster medals after their decisive victory over Erin's Own H.C. This week we notice some of the boys in possession of junior hurling championship medals, also, senior medals are fast to come. More laurels from the hurling field is our sincere wish.

Accident—As a local carrier in standing position in his cart was "jogging" to the railway station for a load, some portion of the harness gave way, which caused the cart to be precipitated to terra firma rather roughly, as a result of which he received some nasty facial injuries. The accident took place in the vicinity of the fever hospital and was witnessed by the nurse in charge, Miss O'Keefe, who ran to the victim's assistance, and laid him removed to hospital and his wounds dressed. The injuries were not of a serious nature, and the driver is out again pursuing his avocation, but the incident illustrates once again the necessity which existed for a hospital at Lismore. Writing with reference to the above, we notice that tenders for repairs to Lismore Workhouse to convert into a miniature hospital are invited, and it is to be sincerely hoped that by next winter the institution will be opened and ready for the admission of patients.

The Trust—The services at Lismore R.C. Church are being observed in accordance with old time, while in the other churches and generally in the town new time is the order.

Train Service—We have noticed by the Press that our Dungarvan friends have formed a Tourist Association in that town, but up to the present we have not seen whether they have got improved rail facilities for their seaside resort. We would respectfully suggest that the Urban Council of Dungarvan should get going in this respect. Cheap railway fares and suitable train service on week-days and Sunday afternoon excursions should prove a good medium for attracting visitors during the season. Strictly the train service between Fermoy and Dungarvan town is most unsuitable.

Pat Figs—78s. per cwt. live weight.
The Duke—His Grace the Duke of Devonshire who crossed over after Lismore Races, is expected to return this week-end.

Co. Board of Public Health.

A meeting of the above was held on Wednesday, Mr. Connolly, chairman, presided. Also present—Mrs. S. White, Messrs. D. Ward, J. Butler, T.D.; J. P. McAuliffe, T. Tracey, Jas. Cosgrave, R. Delaney, D. Conway, J. Kiersey, Wm. Stack and J. O'Donnell.

Tenders for Coal. The following tenders were received for supplying coal to the County Hospital, Waterford—Samuel Morris, 27s. a ton; Martin Curran, 30s. 10d. and 89s. 4d. a ton; Whitehaven Colliery Co. Ltd., 37s. 6d. a ton; Gaffery Spencer, 36s. 11d. a ton. Mr. Spencer's tender was accepted.

Report of County Home Committee. A discussion took place on the above report on the appointment of a male attendant to the insane ward at County Home. A man named Mahony was recommended by the committee for the position, but the Secretary said from the official point of view he would not suit.

Mr. Stack—What is wrong? There must be something against him. Secretary—There are certain queries to be asked in the appointment form. Mr. Stack—He had the position before and can be recommended by the late master. What is against him? Secretary—I have nothing against him only certain rumours which went around. On the suggestion of the Chairman, the report was approved of.

Stocktaking. The Department wrote approving of the appointment of stocktakers at Dungarvan and Waterford. The Department wrote with reference to the case of Mrs. O'Donnell, who was a patient in the Eye and Ear Hospital in Cork, and stated as the hospital was not an approved one, they were not in a position to sanction payment by the board.

Sekins Dispensary Residence. Lee McGrath's tender for repairs to the above for the sum of £18 was accepted.

Boarded-Out Children. The Department wrote stating they considered the fee of 30s. a head excessive as payment to the Christian Bros., Connel, for boarded-out children attending school.

Secretary—Under the Board of Guardians the Christian Brothers were always paid 30s. When we took over control we passed them subject to sanction. The Department consider other children were not charged so much. Mr. Cosgrave—That is not correct. I have children going to the Christian Bros. and they pay more than that. I propose we refer the matter back to them again. Chairman—I will second that.

Mr. Kiersey thought the Christian Bros. should come in under the National Board as we were paying enough already for education. Mr. Ward—I think they are already in. The matter was referred back to the L.G. Department for reconsideration. Assistant Officer McGrath recommended the removal of a boarded-out child from a street in Waterford to a rural area. Adopted.

The Department wrote sanctioning the appointment of Nurse Crowle as midwife for Rathgormack dispensary district. The Department also wrote sanctioning the purchase of a surgical boot for a man named T. Foley, Cappoquin, for the sum of £3.

Ballyduff Dispensary Residence. The Secretary to the Waterford County Council wrote stating the above was now vacant and would be available for the medical officer on April 25th.

There was also a letter from Dr. Kiely in connection with the matter asking the board to get the place inspected and stating the land was let on the 11th month. Secretary—The County Council got the place inspected and the engineer's report states that repairs would cost about £30. Mr. Conway—Was the place attached while the Guards were there to have so much damage? Didn't the doctor refuse to reside there before? Secretary—Yes. The place was vacant when he went there, then the military came there, and afterwards, the Guards.

Mr. Conway—If we repair the place will the doctor live in it? Mr. Kiersey—If we refer it back to the Finance Committee of the County Council to ascertain if the agreement stipulated handing it back in the same condition as it was handed over?

Mr. Ward—all tenants should be held responsible for any damage done. Secretary—According to the County Council agreement the damage should be waived. It was decided to invite tenders for repairs.

Tallow Dispensary Residence. The Secretary explained that at a previous meeting the board considered repairs to the above. Mr. O'Gorman thought it would be a saving for the board to build a new dispensary at a cost not to exceed £1,000, and the board decided to ask the engineer (Mr. O'Riordan) to send particulars, etc. Instead of that he sent an estimate for a house, the cost to be £2,500.

A Member—Does he expect the board will pay him for that? The matter was referred back to Mr. O'Riordan to comply with the order of the board.

Dr. Foley, Ardmore, applied for his annual holidays, and nominated Dr. Konyne to act during his absence. Mr. Conway proposed Dr. Mansfield, who is newly qualified, from that district get the work. Mr. Stack seconded. Mr. Delaney—it was already decided by the board, and it is a very good thing, that doctors without an appointment get preference for this work, because very often when a man with a practice is appointed and when called he is engaged in his own work. Dr. Mansfield was appointed.

Restitution. The Secretary announced that he had received the sum of £30 as restitution money from Co. Limerick since last meeting, which he had lodged to the credit of the board.

Travelling Expenses. Mr. McAuliffe moved the notice standing in his name, viz.—That Supt. Assistance Officer Phelan be granted travelling expenses by the board. Speaking to his motion Mr. McAuliffe said Mr. Phelan was losing half his salary in travelling expenses. He spoke of the amount of good work done by Mr. Phelan, and moved that £110 be granted. Mr. Tracey seconded. Mr. Conway—What is his present salary? Secretary—£300 per annum. Mr. Kiersey—Is it an inclusive salary? Secretary—Yes.

Mr. Kiersey—Was it not taken into account at the time of appointment that there would be travelling. To the Chairman, Mr. Phelan said on an average he covered 880 miles a month. That mileage at hackney charge would amount to £171. He knew he was doing over 5,000 miles in the year, but he never took a note of it. At the time of appointment he knew there was travelling to do, but not to such an extent.

Mr. Stack—No doubt Mr. Phelan is giving satisfaction, but the rates are very high, and the amount of relief given out in the Dungarvan district for the past six months is very great. Mr. Kiersey said he knew Mr. Phelan had a lot of travelling to do, but most of his time was taken up in Waterford, and when coming to Dungarvan or other places he should come in the cheapest way—by rail, or a young energetic man like Mr. Phelan should travel by motor cycle, which would be cheaper than a car. Mr. Stack was after speaking about the high rates, etc. He would not agree with Mr. McAuliffe's proposition, but would propose £50. Mr. Conway seconded.

Mr. Butler said everyone knew Mr. Phelan had a lot of travelling to do. He could not travel by train into every corner of the county. He must go into the homes of the people as well as looking after the Assistance Officers. He asked Mr. McAuliffe and Mr. Kiersey to withdraw both propositions and agree to £30. Mr. McAuliffe agreed, but Mr. Kiersey would not agree.

Mr. O'Donnell said he would not agree to any increase. Mr. Phelan had a salary of £300, and let his expenses be £100 out of that he would still have £200, and where is the man of us who has that much clear. I am against any increase.

Mrs. White—No one wants to raise the already high rates on the poor people, but the amount of good work done by Mr. Phelan entitles him to consideration. Mr. Cosgrave—I ask Mr. Kiersey to agree to £70? Mr. Kiersey—No. Mr. Butler—If Mr. McAuliffe amends his resolution to £75. Mr. McAuliffe then amended the resolution to £75, and a poll was taken on Mr. Kiersey's amendment, the voting being—For—Messrs. Stack, Conway, Kiersey, Delaney and Ward—5. Against—Messrs. O'Donnell, Cosgrave, Tracey, Butler, McAuliffe and the Chairman—6. Mrs. White did not vote.

The resolution was then put, the voting being—For £75—Messrs. Cosgrave, Butler, Tracey, McAuliffe, Mrs. White and the Chairman—6. Against—Messrs. Conway, Stack, O'Donnell, Kiersey, Ward and Delaney—6. The resolution was then declared passed by the casting vote of the Chairman.

Change of Meetings. The notice of motion standing in the name of Mr. O'Gorman that in future all meetings of the board be held in Dungarvan, was moved by Mr. Kiersey in the absence of Mr. O'Gorman.

Speaking on the motion, Mr. Kiersey pointed out the hardship on the members from the West in attending meetings in Waterford. He would personally be in favour of Waterford, but it would not suit the western members. Mr. Conway seconded the motion. Mrs. White agreed with the resolution. She saw the western members come to meetings in Waterford when they were half through and had to leave again before the work was over.

Chairman—I propose that the hour of meeting be changed to Waterford. Mr. Tracey seconded. Mr. Delaney—If I want to attend a meeting in Waterford I must drive 42 miles, and when I get there the meeting will be over. Dungarvan is the centre for all the services.

Mr. Butler said at one time he was in favour of present arrangement, but he found it very inconvenient on account of the train services. It was no hardship on the eastern members to come to Dungarvan as they had an excellent train service. The motion was put and passed by 9 votes to 3.

RETURN OF REV. FATHER D. CARROLL. INTERESTING NARRATIVE OF TRAVELS AT "WELCOME HOME."

We clip the following from the "Armidale Chronicle" (Australia) in regard to the return to his mission of the Rev. D. Carroll, who spent last summer at his native place, Ballyvoile, Dungarvan.

After a tour of the world extending over a period of twelve months, the Rev. Father D. Carroll returned to Armidale on Monday morning, and was accorded an enthusiastic "Welcome Home" at the Jessie-street Hall on Tuesday evening.

It will be remembered that in February of last year, Father Carroll, after 14 years of strenuous missionary work in Armidale, was permitted to take this prolonged trip, chiefly for health reasons. The rousing send-off which he then received, when the Town Hall was packed to overflowing, is still fresh in the memory of Armidaleans, and the substantial cheque presented was tangible proof of the popularity and high esteem in which Fr. Carroll was held by his flock, and citizens generally.

The enthusiasm and spontaneity which marked Tuesday's welcome home function indicated the delight and pleasure of the large crowd present on Father Carroll's return, renewed in good health and vigour.

Proceedings opened with a select musical programme, contributed by the following artists, all of whom were of their respective excellence:—Mesdames H. Hayes and L. Purcell, Messrs F. Fitzgerald and E. Godson, Messrs J. Giles and J. Murphy (violinist).

The welcome home and presentation to Father Carroll then followed. Aid. W. Watson occupied the chair, and with him were the Rev. Dr. Coleman, Adm.; Dr. D. J. Crossin, Messrs. W. Murray and T. F. Hiscox. His Lordship the Rt. Rev. Dr. O'Connor and Father O'Brien were also present.

Aid. Watson expressed his delight at so many being present to extend a welcome home to Father Carroll, and felt he was voicing the feelings of the whole congregation in expressing his pleasure in having Father Carroll back again. He paid a tribute to the successful work of Father Carroll as Administrator for twenty years, and remarked on the wonderful grasp he had of his duties and the wants of his flock. He was at the beck and call of everybody, and always responded with the utmost courtesy.

Mr. W. Murray supported the chairman in his words of welcome, and said life seemed to be composed of speeding the departing guest, and welcoming the returning guest, and on this occasion he extended to Father Carroll his best wishes and greetings and his great pleasure on his return to Armidale.

Dr. Crossin and Mr. F. T. Hiscox supported the previous speakers, the latter also making eulogistic reference to the capable manner in which Dr. Coleman had filled the position and discharged the duties of Administrator.

Rev. Dr. Coleman, on behalf of the clergy, extended a hearty welcome home of Father Carroll, whom they were all so pleased to see back again in such splendid health. The speaker said Father Carroll returned like the prodigal son, amidst great rejoicings and celebrations.

The Chairman then presented Father Carroll with a case of pipes. In rising to respond, Father Carroll was greeted with loud applause. He thanked all associated with this grand welcome, especially the artists, whose items he greatly appreciated. He was a musical talent unearthen since his departure.

Rev. Father Carroll then gave a brief synopsis of his trip. Having a desire to see more of Australia before commencing his tour, he travelled to Perth in February by the transcontinental railway, which proved very enjoyable and highly educative. He left Fremantle on March 4 and called at the ports on the north-west coast. He then sailed for Java. He described Java as a very interesting place, with its millions of mixed population, and their quaint customs. Singapore was the next centre of interest, and he visited the De La Salle College there, which had eighteen hundred pupils. He then sailed to China, visiting Hong Kong and Shanghai. At Hong Kong he met an old Armidale friend in the person of Fr. Augustine.

Dungarvan Urban Council

The weekly meeting of the above was held on Friday last, Mr. M. Brennan, P.C., chairman, presiding. Also present—Messrs. J. Butler, T.D.; Thos. McCarthy, Wm. O'Donnell, Jas. Hackett, J. Moore, M. Griffin, P. J. McGrath, T. Power, M. Clancy and M. J. Keane.

Expenditure. The expenditure for the week was as follows:—Waterworks account, £26 9s. 6d.; general account, £24 4s. 6d.

Mr. McGrath asked would it be possible to employ any more men at the reservoir.

Borough Surveyor—No. The place is too small, and some of the men will be finished there by Monday.

Mr. McGrath—Is the work done according to specification? Borough Surveyor—Yes.

Mr. Keane—Does Mr. Bowen call to see the work occasionally? Borough Surveyor—He has been there a few times.

Mr. Butler—What is our position as regards Mr. Bowen? Clerk—He was called in as consulting engineer.

Borough Surveyor—When the grant was obtained I interviewed Mr. Bowen.

Mr. Griffin—Is Mr. Bowen already paid for that work? Chairman—Not as consulting engineer.

Mr. McGrath—Time enough to discuss that when it comes up. Mr. Griffin—He is paid only for his report.

The matter then ended. Thomas Street Footpath. Mr. O'Donnell called attention to the necessity of doing the above work and also the channel at Kilrush.

Borough Surveyor—The Kilrush road is out of our hands now since April 1st.

Mr. O'Donnell—The Thomas Street footpath was budgeted for and I will not lose sight of it.

Borough Surveyor—That is to go by contract.

Mr. O'Donnell—You promised you would do it.

Borough Surveyor—I have nothing to do with it. Tenders will have to be invited.

It was decided, on the proposition of Mr. O'Donnell, to invite tenders for the work.

Outstanding Rates. Mr. Keane asked if the clerk had the statement regarding the finances of the council prepared? Clerk—I would want a little more time. It is not quite ready yet.

Mr. Keane—What is the outstanding rate at present? Clerk—There is about 85 per cent. collected.

Mr. Keane—That is serious. We have done as well as any other year and as well as any town in Ireland.

Chairman—There were men doing unnecessary work at Abbeyside last week cleaning the water-tables at Skacrine.

Mr. Griffin—They pay rates out there also.

Chairman—It would be better to do the Old Hospital road.

Mr. Butler—And the Ballyneety road is in a bad condition.

Mr. Griffin—I am in a position to offer stones at 1s. 6d. per yard.

Borough Surveyor—Are they broken? Mr. Griffin—No.

Chairman—I am afraid the council could not deal with Mr. Griffin's offer.

Borough Surveyor—I could beat that price. I thought they were broken.

Chairman—The most necessary things should be done. There is the sewer in O'Connell street that will take some doing.

Mr. Griffin—There was a deputation appointed here to visit the Strand at Dungarvan and Abbeyside. I went with the deputation to Dungarvan and they did not come to Abbeyside yet.

Mr. Butler suggested the clerk write to Mr. Carbery to know the price of the plot.

Mr. McGrath—What will we do with the place? Mr. Griffin—Burn it.

Clerk—I would like the council to define the exact area.

Mr. Butler—Ask him to mark the area on the map and send the price.

Mr. Griffin—Will any shelters be given to Abbeyside and will the members of the deputation visit it?

Mr. O'Donnell—Yes, the deputation should go.

It was decided that the deputation appointed for the purpose visit Abbeyside on Sunday.

A letter was read from the County Council Office asking to be informed if the Urban Council intended laying any more pipes on the roads taken over by the County Council.

In answer to a member, the Borough Surveyor said that he between the Presentation Convent and Fair lane he would have to lay about nine lengths of pipe.

It was decided to inform Mr. Bowen of the fact.

Suburban Roads. The County Surveyor also wrote asking that the above roads (which in some cases were half county and half urban) be divided in the centre instead of the present arrangement whereby each party maintained the full length of road along the centre.

It was decided to agree with the county surveyor's suggestion on the proposition of Mr. Butler, seconded by Mr. O'Donnell.

INTERESTING WEDDING.

The marriage of Mr. Richard Russell, only son of Mr. J. R. Russell, M.F.H., and Mrs. Russell, of Seaford, Bonmahon, and Miss Gillian Helen Cairnes Seckham, only child of Lt.-Col. D. T. Seckham, D.S.O., and Mrs. Seckham, of Lisnagar, Rathfriland, Co. Wick, took place on the 14th inst. at Rathfriland Church, Rev. J. G. Nason, Rector of the parish, officiating. The bride was given away by her father. She wore a dress of georgette, entirely embroidered in pearls the train of plain georgette, finished with a true lover's knot in pearls, and a horse-shoe of orange blossom; she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The train-bearer, Master Robin Hunt (cousin of the bridegroom) was attired in a Kate Greenaway suit of gold satin. The bridesmaids were—Miss K. Russell (sister of the bridegroom), Miss Betty Cairnes, Miss Patricia Carson (cousins of the bride), Miss Diana Cooke-Collis. They were dressed in tunics of gold tissue, with pleated skirts of georgette to match, ornamented below the waist-line with a plastron of shaded mauve anemones round their heads; they wore a gold fillet with wings of shaded mauve and anemone, and carried bouquets to match. The bridesmaid presents the gift of the bridegroom, were travelling clocks. The best man was Capt. Wills Brett. After the ceremony the reception was held at Lisnagar. Amongst those present were—Bridesmaids—Miss Kat Isten Russell, Miss Diana Cooke-Collis, Miss Betty Cairnes, Miss Patricia Carson; Master Bobbie Hunt (page); Capt. Wills Brett (best man); Lady Blanche Beresford, Lady Katherine Beresford Col. and Mrs. Douglas Seckham, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Russell, Mrs. Wardlaw, Mrs. Percy Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Carson, Col. and Mrs. T. A. E. Cairnes, Mr. and Mrs. Hunt, Mrs. Montgomery, Miss Elaine Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hallinan, Mr. and Miss Hallinan, Mrs. Massey, Mr. and Mrs. Deane, Mr. Norton Deane, the Misses Corban, Mr. and Mrs. Creagh, Mrs. Bourne, the Rev. J. and Mrs. Nason, Mrs. Miss and Mr. Walker, Mrs. Donagh, Capt. and Mrs. Nicholson, Mr. Denis McCarthy, Mr. and Mrs. C. Murphy, Miss R. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzjames Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. Ignatius Ryan, Major and Mrs. Fuge, Mrs. and the Misses Bond, Mrs. Burkhitt and Miss I. Burkhitt, Mr. and Mrs. Langley, Miss Langley, Col. and Mrs. Heather, Dr. and Mrs. Walker, Mr. G. and Miss Walker, Mrs. Johnson, Major and Mrs. Berry, Mr. James Berry, Mrs. Reeves, Miss Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Sharn Crawford, Miss Sharn Crawford, the Misses Gubbins, Commander Shea, Mrs. Godfrey, Miss Creed, the Misses Flury, Miss Burke, Mr. Crosbie, Miss Hendley, Mrs. St. Leger, Mr. and Mrs. Hendley, Miss K. Hendley, Capt. and Mrs. Magnier, the Rev. and Mrs. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. Pennyfather, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lucas, Miss Roe, Miss Magill, Mr. and Mrs. Harman, Mr. Frank Hallinan, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Miss Maxwell, the Rev. and Mrs. Pearce Brown, Mrs. Furlong, Miss Bradell. The presents were costly and numerous. The bride's travelling dress was of a lovely shade of dark parma violet in kasha, with hat to match, and she wore a beautiful stone marlin fur, the gift of her mother-in-law. The honeymoon will be spent hunting on Exmoor.

SERVANTS' STORY OF WELL-DRESSED STRANGER.

The inquiries made by the police during the week-end suggest that the theft of jewellery valued at £20,000 from the residence of Major McCalmont at Mount Juliet, Kilkenny, on Thursday week, was the work of someone who had an intimate knowledge of the household.

The jewellery was in a safe in Lady McCalmont's bedroom, and the keys were kept in a box in the same room. This box contained besides the keys a diamond wristlet watch valued at £50 guineas, but this was ignored by the thief.

Some time before the theft was discovered two men and two women were seen in a motor car near the house, and shortly afterwards, it is stated, a well-dressed stranger was seen by servants leaving by the front door. No suspicion, however, was aroused as tourists frequently visited the estate.

Meat Market. Mr. Griffin handed in notice of motion that he would move at the meeting of April 30th—that negotiations be entered upon between the Duke of Devonshire and the council with a view to acquiring the meat and fish markets.

Dance.

The committee of the G.A.A. were granted the use of the Town Hall for a dance on Monday, 19th April.

Kiladangan Water Supply. Mr. Walsh, S.S.O., reported on the condition of the above. The filter beds were not working with years. The pond was full, but the stream running into the pond were not properly kept.

Mr. Butler—Why was it not reported before now? S.S.O.—The pond was cleaned two years ago.

Mr. Butler—Three members with the borough surveyor and myself visited the place recently and found it as reported. The fault I find is why was it not reported before now?

S.S.O.—Strictly it is not my duty to report at all. It is the caretaker's business.

Chairman—The Kiladangan supply was more or less left derelict when the Glendine supply was carried out.

Mr. Butler—We are using unfiltered water with years.

Chairman—I understand the water is analysed every year and good reports received.

Mr. Keane—The people should be left know they are drinking unfiltered water.

The matter was then adjourned pending consideration of Mr. Butler's notice of motion re the duties, etc., of the caretaker.

Refreshments were served, which terminated a very enjoyable and successful function.

Father Carroll will leave for Quirindi at the end of next week. In the meantime he will call on his many friends, and visit Brisbane to see his sister, Mrs. Brennan.

Singapore was the next centre of interest, and he visited the De La Salle College there, which had eighteen hundred pupils. He then sailed to China, visiting Hong Kong and Shanghai. At Hong Kong he met an old Armidale friend in the person of Fr. Augustine.

Father Carroll vividly described his trip through Japan, staying a few days at Yokohama, Kobe, Tokio and other places. He said the cities destroyed by the earthquake were rapidly being rebuilt. Throughout Japan he travelled mostly in electric trains.

After Japan, he travelled to Honolulu, and the Bishop there, after learning that Father Carroll came from Armidale, inquired after Dr. O'Connor, which indicated the world-wide popularity of Armidale's Grand Old Man. Father Carroll said he was wonderfully impressed with his trip through the Orient, observing the customs and lives of its teeming millions of people. Finishing his tour of the East, he then sailed for America, and received his first welcome there in San Francisco. He visited Hollywood, of picture fame, the Grand Canyon, Arizona, Kansas City, St. Louis, and Chicago. Fr. Carroll described the wonderful scenic view and colouring of the Grand Canyon of America, which was magnificent. At Chicago he was met by Father Bishop. He spent three days at Chicago, and the time mostly was spent talking about Armidale, so interested was Father Bishop in Armidale, where he spent, so many happy years.

The tourist then visited Washington, and from there to New York, where he met his brother whom he had not seen since his boyhood. He spent six weeks in New York and got to know that great city equally as well as Armidale. New York appeared to him as a city of pressing buttons; no matter what one wanted one had only to press a button to get it. In this city he met Father Forster, who desired to be remembered to his Armidale friends. So great has been the emigration to America, said Fr. Carroll, that he had met more of his friends and relatives there than in Ireland.

The speaker briefly referred to prohibitions in America, and from his brief experience of it, said it was a farce and a great tragedy to the country. Father Carroll went back to Ireland end of May, and caught the first glimpse of his native land at Queenstown. He found Ireland a happy and prosperous country, and observed a big change for the better. The Free State Government was working well, but, like all Governments, had its own local troubles. He found the people happy and contented. His visit to his old home was rather sad, as his mother and father had died since he left home fourteen years ago. After a short stay in Ireland he went across to England and Wales; then, in August, travelled through Belgium, visiting all the principal cities; and from there to Holland.

The principal parts of France were then visited, and he then returned to England. Visiting London, he went to the Wembley Exhibition, and he felt very proud of the Australian exhibit, which was, in his opinion, the best of all the countries represented. The wool, timber and other industries were exceptionally well displayed, and the exhibit generally attracted considerable attention, and would prove very beneficial to Australia.

Father Carroll spent the month of September in Ireland, and in October travelled to France again and then through Switzerland. From there he went on to Italy and visited the Eternal City—Rome—where he joined the Irish pilgrimage, led by President Cosgrave, of the Irish Free State. At Rome he attended the Pope's Mass at St. Peter's, when 40,000 people were present. He had an audience with the Pope, together with the other Irish pilgrims, and said he could not describe the feeling and wonderful sensation of meeting His Holiness the Pope.

After seeing the places of interest in Rome, such as the Catacombs and the pagan monuments there, he travelled to the South of France and visited many of the battlefields. He spoke of the Australian graves in France being kept in wonderfully good order; whilst in Belgium there is practically no sign of the recent war ever being waged there, so quick and thorough had been the work of restoration.

Father Carroll went back to Ireland in November, where he had a prolonged stay. Being provided with a motor car, he travelled over 7,500 miles in different parts of his native land, where the roads were in splendid order. He said Ireland was full of tourists, and Australia was favourably known there. Australia, indeed, is well on the map since the war. The ultimate parting with his relatives was a sad one.

His trip back to Australia, of seven weeks, via the Suez Canal, was most enjoyable. Having landed in Australia, he was happy to be back. After his world tour he could now say Australia was a grand country, very much up-to-date in many things. He did not see in America a Cathedral that could be compared with St. Mary's, of Sydney, and very few as beautiful as their own St. Mary's, of Armidale. Completing a splendid holiday, he was now anxious to get to work. Having been appointed to the Parish of Quirindi, he would miss his many loyal friends in Armidale. He desired to thank all for the assistance and co-operation extended to him during his fourteen years as Administrator, and hoped they would be equally as loyal to his successor, Dr. O'Connor.

Dungarvan Urban Council

The weekly meeting of the above was held on Friday last, Mr. M. Brennock, P.C., chairman, presiding. Also present—Messrs. J. Butler, T.D.; Thos. McCarthy, Wm. O'Donnell, Jas. Hackett, J. Moore, M. Griffin, P. J. McGrath, T. Power, M. Clancy and M. J. Keane.

Expenditure. The expenditure for the week was as follows:—Waterworks account, £66 6s 6d.; general account, £24 12s. 5d.

Mr. McGrath asked would it be possible to employ any more men at the reservoir. Borough Surveyor—No. The place is too small, and some of the men will be finished there by Monday.

Mr. McGrath—Is the work done according to specification? Borough Surveyor—Yes. Mr. Keane—Does Mr. Bowen call to see the work occasionally? Borough Surveyor—He has been there a few times.

Mr. Butler—What is our position regarding Mr. Bowen? Clerk—He was called in as consulting engineer. Borough Surveyor—When the grant was obtained I interviewed Mr. Bowen.

Mr. Griffin—Is Mr. Bowen already paid for that work? Chairman—Not as consulting engineer.

Mr. McGrath—Time enough to discuss that when it comes up. Mr. Griffin—He is paid only for his report. The matter then ended.

Thomas Street Footpath. Mr. O'Donnell called attention to the necessity of doing the above work and also the channel at Kilrush.

Borough Surveyor—The Kilrush road is out of our hands now since April last. Mr. O'Donnell—The Thomas street footpath was budgeted for and I will not lose sight of it.

Borough Surveyor—That is to go by contract. Mr. O'Donnell—You promised you would do it.

Borough Surveyor—I have nothing to do with it. Tenders will have to be invited. It was decided, on the proposition of Mr. O'Donnell, to invite tenders for the work.

Outstanding Rates. Mr. Keane asked if the clerk had the statement regarding the finances of the council prepared? Clerk—I would want a little more time. It is not quite ready yet.

Mr. Keane—What is the outstanding rate at present? Clerk—There is about 85 per cent. collected. Mr. Keane—That is serious. We have done as well as any other year and as well as any town in Ireland.

Mr. Butler—When will you submit the estimate? Clerk—About the end of the month.

Harbour Dues. Mr. Griffin called attention to the fact that although the harbour dues were revised some time ago by the council the increase did not take effect yet, and said it was unfair to the council, as all business, etc., for this year were now in.

Clerk—The matter is in the hands of the solicitor. Mr. O'Donnell—Ask Mr. Williams to expedite the business. Clerk—The harbour account is in a bad condition at present.

Bathing Place. The Borough Surveyor's estimate for putting the proposed bathing place at Borhenatra in order was £35. Mr. Clancy—Seeing that we have the estimate, would it not be well to get a few men at it now?

Chairman—We asked the clerk to inquire about the price of the little plot where the shelters were to be erected. Clerk—I wrote to Mr. Carbery and he replied that he was willing to sell the entire place, but could not sell the small plot separate.

Mr. Griffin—Are you finished with Abbeyside, Mr. McGrath? Borough Surveyor—We will never be finished with Abbeyside, but as we have no money we must stop. Mr. Griffin—Is there no work to be done there? Borough Surveyor—We have no money to pay for it.

Mr. Griffin—And you have money for Dungarvan. Borough Surveyor—We have it for neither. Mr. Griffin—Then do nothing. Refreshments were served, which terminated a very enjoyable and successful function.

INTERESTING WEDDING.

The marriage of Mr. Richard Russell, only son of Mr. J. R. Russell, M.P.H., and Mrs. Russell, of Seaford, Bournemouth, and Miss Gillian Helen Cairnes Seckham, only child of Lt.-Col. D. T. Seckham, D.S.O., and Mrs. Seckham, of Lisnegar, Rathfriland, Co. Wick, took place on the 14th inst. at Rathfriland Church, Rev. J. G. Nason, Rector of the parish, officiating. The bride was given away by her father. She wore a dress of georgette, entirely embroidered in pearls the train of plain georgette, finished with a true lover's knot in pearls, and a horse-shoe of orange blossom; she carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley. The train-bearer, Master Robin Hunt (cousin of the bridegroom) was attired in a Kate Greenaway suit of gold satin. The bridesmaids were—Miss K. Russell (sister of the bridegroom), Miss Betty Cairnes, Miss Patricia Carson (cousins of the bride), Miss Diana Cooke-Collis. They were dressed in tunics of gold tissue, with pleated skirts of georgette to match, ornamented below the waist-line with a plastron of shaded mauve anemones round their heads; they wore a gold fillet with wings of shaded mauve and anemone, and carried bouquets to match. The bridesmaids presented the gift of the bridegroom, were travelling clocks. The best man was Capt. Willis Brett. After the ceremony the reception was held at Lisnegar. Amongst those present were—Bridesmaids—Miss Katleen Russell, Miss Diana Cooke-Collis, Miss Betty Cairnes, Miss Patricia Carson; Capt. Lucas, Miss Rose, Miss Magill, Mr. and Mrs. Harman, Mr. Frank Hallinan, Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell, Miss Maxwell, the Rev. and Mrs. Pearce Brown, Mrs. Furlong, Miss Bradell. The presents were costly and numerous. The bride's travelling dress was of a lovely shade of dark parma violet in kasha, with hat to match, and she wore a beautiful stone martin fur, the gift of her mother-in-law. The honeymoon will be spent hunting on Exmoor.

£20,000 JEWEL THEFT.

SERVANTS' STORY OF WELL-DRESSED STRANGER. The inquiries made by the police during the week-end suggest that the theft of jewellery valued at £20,000 from the residence of Major McAlmont at Mount Juliet, Kilkenny, on Thursday week, was the work of someone who had an intimate knowledge of the household.

The jewellery was in a safe in Lady McAlmont's bedroom, and the keys were kept in a box in the same room. This box contained besides the keys a diamond wristlet watch valued at 250 guineas, but this was ignored by the thief. Some time before the theft was discovered two men and two women were seen in a motor car near the house, and shortly afterwards, it is stated, a well-dressed stranger was seen by servants leaving by the front-door. No suspicion, however, was aroused as tourists frequently visited the estate.

Meat Market. Mr. Griffin handed in notice of motion that he would move at the meeting of April 30th—"That negotiations be entered upon between the Duke of Devonshire and the council with a view to acquiring the meat and fish markets, etc., of the caretaker.

Dance. The committee of the G.A.A. were granted the use of the Town Hall for a dance on Monday, 19th April.

Kiladangan Water Supply. Mr. Walsh, S.S.O., reported on the condition of the above. The filter beds were not working with years. The pond was full, but the stream running into the pond were not properly kept.

Mr. Butler—Why was it not reported before now? S.S.O.—The pond was cleaned two years ago.

Mr. Butler—Three members with the borough surveyor and myself visited the place recently and found it as reported. The fault I find is why was it not reported before now? S.S.O.—Strictly it is not my duty to report at all. It is the caretaker's business.

Chairman—The Kiladangan supply was more or less left derelict when the Glendine supply was carried out.

Mr. Butler—We are using unfiltered water with years. Chairman—I understand the water is analysed every year and good reports received.

Mr. Keane—The people should be left know they are drinking unfiltered water.

The matter was then adjourned pending consideration of Mr. Butler's notice of motion re the duties, etc., of the caretaker.

Youghal Urban Council

At the meeting of the above Mr. P. J. McMahon, also present moved to the chair. Also present—Messrs. M. J. Fleming, P. Kennedy, M. D. Broderick, A. W. D. Murphy, J. P. O'Connell, T. Harrington, J. Troy, P. J. O'Gorman, P. G. J. Kennedy.

Wages. A cheque for £96 15s. 4d. week's wages, was paid on the proposition of Mr. Harrington, seconded by Mr. Murphy.

A Councilor said the fact that week's wages were high but that amount for cartage.

Acknowledgment. The following letter was read and ordered to be inserted in the minutes.—South Main Street, Youghal, 15th April, 1926. Dear Mr. Walsh—Please convey to the members of the Urban Council our thanks for and appreciation of the kind vote of confidence passed with us on the occasion of our recent bereavement; also accept our thanks yourself for the feeling manner in which you conveyed same.—Miss E. Meas, M. O'Sullivan.

Analysis of Water. A report was read from the City Analyst, Cork, stating that in its present condition the sample of water submitted was quite suitable for drinking and domestic purposes.

Pierrots. The following letter was read: "Onema Times, 19th April 1926. Dear Sir—I wrote you during September last re our agents visiting Youghal with the Pierrots. I was happy and grateful to learn through the Press that your council approved of my work, and on the strength of that, gave me first preference for the coming season. Throughout the long winter I have been hard at work collecting new material with a view to again delight our many visitors, and I sincerely hope and trust that everything is in order for our coming. As a result of last year's experience there will be many improvements made both as regards accommodation and entertainment, and I am full of hope that this time we shall make even more friends than before, as the whole concern will be a vast improvement. I have engaged some first-class performers, some old favorites and some new, who will soon make themselves favorites. If your council will again give me permission to lay out the chairs on the beach I will do my utmost to see these better managed and served than they were last year. There is also a possibility if your council give consent for it of arranging for a Punch and Judy show occasionally on the beach. I have heard unofficially that some merry-go-rounds had arranged for the site we had last year. That would be most unfair. Yours sincerely—Ronald Rice."

It was unanimously decided to grant Mr. Rice the same facilities as last year, but as the site in question was on private property, the council could not interfere.

Main Roads Question. A letter was read from the Mayor Urban Council stating that they were prepared to co-operate with the urban bodies in respect to the main roads. So far they had no communication from the County Council giving definite information as to what they intended to do, and he could not go on with his estimates. The county surveyor wrote him over a week ago stating he would let them know what was going to be done, but they had got no information since. Some of the Urban Councils were doing very little in connection with the question.

New Buildings Rating. A letter was read from the L.G. Department stating that it was a matter for the council in the first instance to determine whether a building should or should not be included. If the council had any doubt in a particular case it was open to them to refer the matter to the Minister for decision.

During the discussion which ensued it was stated that the main question was respected as if being burned down and that it had been insured before-hand. The council unanimously decided that they could not include the buildings in question in the new buildings list.

Coast Erosion. The Town Clerk gave a detailed account of the interview which the coast erosion deputation had with the Minister of L.G. in Dublin, as already reported in the Press. The Minister informed the deputation that the Government could not undertake any responsibility in connection with the construction of the coastline from erosion.

Mr. Broderick having supplemented the clerk's account, said the deputation had received most valuable assistance in their mission from Senator Barnaville. Mr. J. Daly, T.D., and Captain Collins. He therefore proposed that their clerk convey to those gents the warmest thanks of the council for their action in the matter. Senator Barnaville showed by his unsparring efforts his deep interest in the old town. He had every detail so arranged that the deputation had their path clear of all difficulty. Mr. Daly, T.D., deserved their deep gratitude for travelling with them to Dublin and helping them in every possible way at great inconvenience, while Capt. Collins' assistance was of great service to them.

Mr. O'Gorman, in seconding the proposition, said it was up to all the bodies interested to push forward the project as quickly as possible. It was evident that they should all take a hand in it if they wanted to make it a success.

The proposition was passed unanimously.

Kilmacothomas District Court. Before Mr. McCabe D.J.

Civil Bills. A fairly big list was dealt with and decrees for full amounts were granted in all claims save those announced as having been settled out of court.

Messrs. Ryan and O'Connor appeared for several of the applicants.

The Irish Land Commission sued a number of persons in respect of arrears overdue. Decrees with the usual costs were given in each case.

Trespass. John Buck, summoned Mary Barry, do, for allowing a sheep and 2 goats her property, to trespass on his lands. Mr. O'Connor, solr., appeared for the complainant.

At the outset defendant's son informed the Justice that his mother was unable to attend the court as she was an invalid.

John Buck, sworn, in reply to Mr. O'Connor, stated that he was a farmer on a small scale, and had 20 acres of good pasture land. On the 8th March he found 2 sheep and 2 goats, the property of defendant, on his grounds.

He brought them to Mrs. Barry's house and told her that it was a wonder she didn't mind her sheep and goats. The animals gave him constant trouble. He d Mrs. Barry in court on a similar charge on the 13th February, 1926.

Here Mrs. Barry's son interrupted saying the sheep were his property (continuing)—Mrs. Barry is tenant of the farm. Her son works around with the farmers. His land was preserved land.

21 damages and costs were allowed.

Same v. Annie Barry. Miss Barry, daughter of the defendant in previous case, was charged with assaulting and abusing John Buck on the 8th ult.

Plaintiff, to Mr. O'Connor, said when he returned the sheep and goats to Mrs. Barry the latter's daughter followed him out of the house and abused him with "language." He was afraid of this girl. She threatened him not to bring home the sheep and goats again. She struck him in her house.

Defendant—He hit me first. I was drinking my tea and he came in like a "devil." He "drew" me between the two shoulders with a stick. I only gave him a few blows like that, there she illustrated a gentle tap or two with her right hand.

District Justice—I think you are a bit wild, Annie (laughter). He adjourned the case for a month and warned defendant that much depended on her conduct towards plaintiff in the meantime.

Supt. Keenan v. John Beary. Sergt. O'Donnell (to Supt. Keenan) deposed as to his having found defendant in possession of a revolver without the necessary certificate to use same. Accused was a railway employee and lodged at Ballyshonock. He was a native of Westmeath and was not long in these parts. He handed over the weapon readily. He (witness) searched the house Beary stayed in and found no ammunition there.

Beary had no question to ask the sergeant, but stated, in reply to the District Justice, that he had no intention of doing harm with it. He gave it up when told about the matter. He bought it as a curiosity and kept it as a souvenir. He paid 15s. for it to a man whom he met in Dublin about nine months ago. The man frightened him into purchasing it. He worked at the Broadstone Station, Dublin, prior to the amalgamation of the railways. He was transferred to this part of the country on the 1st December last. He belonged to Westmeath. He had no ammunition with the gun.

The Justice said he looked upon this as a very serious case. Recent events in the country necessitated the passing of an Act dealing with the keeping of firearms under proper control. He adjourned the case until next court and asked accused to procure references as to his character from persons of local standing in the meantime. He intimated that without such he would have to decide on imprisonment without the option of a fine.

Wandering Animals. Fines of 2s. and costs in each case were entered in charges of this ilk instituted by Sergeant O'Donnell, Guard Cummins and Guard McCann, respectively.

Supt. Keenan v. Ed. Hanrahan and Michl. Rowe. Defendant, who had been taken from him in recent months. Rowe, who was present in court, told the Justice that Hanrahan and himself were fishermen and were poorly circumstanced. They were ordered to pay 5s. compensation and 10s. and costs each.

Supt. Keenan v. Thomas Kirwan. Sergt. Keane, Strabally, said it was freely rumoured that defendant had left the country.

Mr. Regan stated that timber to the value of £30 or £40 had been taken from him in recent months.

Rowe, who was present in court, told the Justice that Hanrahan and himself were fishermen and were poorly circumstanced. They were ordered to pay 5s. compensation and 10s. and costs each.

Same v. Richard Galvin. This was a prosecution under the Firearms Act. Guard Twamley, Strabally, said he found a shotgun with defendant on the 8th inst. Galvin had no certificate entitling him to use the gun.

The defence was that a chap named Cunningham, who left the district recently, told Galvin from England offering to sell him the gun for £1. Galvin sent on 10s. and wrote Cunningham that the effect that after testing the gun he would forward the balance provided the weapon proved to his liking. He meant to obtain the necessary certificate for its use should he decide on keeping it.

Guard Twamley said Galvin was a man of good character. He was unmarried. His wages were 5s. weekly.

A fine of 10s. and costs was imposed and the forfeiture of the gun ordered.

Same v. Patrick Fitzgerald. The charge preferred against Fitzgerald was that he did steal, take and carry away a piece of rope value 2s. on the 15th ult. from the Spanish vessel "Cirilo Amores" wrecked at Ballyvooney Cove on that date.

Answering the Superintendent, Sergt. Keane said he remembered the 15th February. About 41 o'clock that morning he found defendant with a coil of rope on his back proceeding from the scene of the wreck. He took the rope from Fitzgerald. The latter came to him after the crew had left Strabally and asked him (sergent) if he intended issuing a summons about the rope. He replied that he was, and Fitzgerald said that he would say in the court that one of the sailors gave it to him.

Questioned by the Justice, Fitzgerald said that one of the crew gave him the rope for helping to save his life.

District Justice—So you are living up to that (laughter). Tell that tale to the Marines (laughter).

Accused—The Spanish gentleman said to me: "We're finished, take away rope."

District Justice—Was it in English or in Spanish he said that? Accused—In English.

District Justice—Did you ask him if he could speak Irish? On learning from the sergeant that defendant gave a hand in the rescue of the crew, the Justice said he would deal with him under the Probation of Offenders Act, and accordingly discharged him with a fine of 2s. and costs. He ordered that the rope be returned to the party now in charge of the ship.

29 AN EGG WARNING. A warning to bird-nesting boys and men was issued by Sheriff Howden at Elgin Sheriff Court, when 7 of the first time in the records of Morayshire two labourers were charged with robbing a lapwing's nest.

The public should understand, said the Sheriff, that the Birds' Protection Order was to be enforced. "The men were admonished, but he added that people should remember they were liable to be fined 29 for each egg taken.

Youghal Notes.

The Salmon Fishing.—Since the last report in connection with the above, the slump which set in at the conclusion of Holy Week—and unfortunately synchronizing with the drop of nearly 50 per cent. in price—has continued. Although some few boats, especially the knockdowners, have been lucky enough to make good takes, generally speaking, the takes all round have been very poor. And strange to say, the fish as a rule are running very small. In other years there was an occasional run of large-sized salmon—some weighing over 40 lbs. and some even calling for mention in the Press—but this season locally has produced so far no fish of outstanding size. However, it is said that this is not all to the bad, for it is held by many to be a sign of a successful season. A satisfactory subject of record is the fact that the local men are not wasting the fruits of their labour—often realised with difficulty in the past—and well and contentedly, as in former years, are seen fishing for their fish for sale, "let go" in a bit of a "blow out," but it is a matter for real congratulation that there is an almost utter absence of drunkenness. During the progress of the Urban Council meeting on Thursday night some awful screaming was heard—had none to indicate a serious accident of some kind. A few councilors rushed out to make inquiries. Shortly afterwards they returned and were asked what was up. "Only too much to tell," was the laughing reply. That was one of the very few exceptions which prove the rule. Who-knows but that the trying experiences of last winter has brought home to them all, or nearly all, the fact that there is another winter on the approach, and that unless they make some provision for "the rainy day" now, they may be caught napping when the bad time comes again, and they and their helpless wives and kiddies will pay dearly for their lack of foresight.

Fire and Water.—On Thursday morning last a fire broke out in a house at Cork Hill which might easily have had serious consequences. It appears that a chimney which had not been used for some time was partly choked up with crows' nests, and taking fire during the night, it smouldered away in the small hours till a beam caught the blaze and burned in to a ceiling. Fortunately the occupier, an early riser, otherwise the whole place would have been ablaze and the occupants might have been trapped. Getting up at 5.30 he found the ceiling on fire, that the blaze was rapidly spreading. He called for help and an effort was made to extinguish the fire by throwing buckets of water on it, but it still gained. The alarm was given and the local Fire Brigade arrived on the scene. There was such a fine pressure of water that the flames were got under in quick time. Were it not for the timely arrival of the Brigade, the damage done would have been serious.

The Christian Brothers' Schools.—It is with the sincerest pleasure that we have to record in our "Notes" the latest successes attained by the pupils of the Christian Schools, Youghal, as follows: Clerical Officers Exam. December, 1925. 2,400 competitors. 140 vacancies. Rupert J. Colgan, Strand, Youghal, 73rd place, and William Gerard Hickey, Bellvedere, Strand, Youghal, 100th place. The Christian Brothers have been the mainstay of the education of our local youth for many years past—their production dating back about three-quarters of a century—and year by year they have given practical proof of the great skill and unlimited care they bestow, from the very highest of motives for the very lowest of earthly rewards on both the religious and secular upbringing of our boys. Long may they reign and prosper amongst us. The worst of it is that many, if not most, of the fine young Irishmen turned out trained by them, leave their native land in their young prime, and give the fruits of their cultivated genius to foreign lands better able than poor Ireland to pay them for their labour and brains. This is true of all parts of the country, for the "Celtic temperament" is keenly susceptible to that roving disposition, otherwise known as "wanderlust" but it is much truer as regards our seaports. Here the sight of the ships that come in the bay and pass in the night, with their tales and tidings of lands far over the sea raises a fever in the youthful blood which has turned, and will continue to turn, many of our lads into slowways or passengers working their way across Channel on their way to the West.

The Seals.—For many years past the seals or "swivels" have been doing great damage to our local salmon fishing. Some local MARRIED. RUSSELL AND HICK—On April 21st, at St. Anne's Church, Cappoquin, by the Ven. Archbishop R. B. Burke, M.A., George, son of Mr. James Russell, Grocer and Wine Merchant, Cappoquin, to Gertrude, second daughter of Mr. Wm. Hick, Co. Galway.

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY. In loving memory of Thomas Doery, Rockfield, who died on April 21st, 1921. R.I.P. Inserted by his wife and children.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS. The Budget—On Wednesday the Free State Budget was introduced and contained many important proposals. All bookmakers are to pay 10 license duty and all bets to pay 5 per cent tax and betting premises 4 1/2 a year. License duty on Ford motors reduced from 418 to 210; all other cars increased, and horses to pay from 218 to 2100 tax according to weight.

Boys' Ready-to-Wear Suits for all occasions and for the hardest wear. Suitable for all ages and sizes. Have them fitted in our special WEAREPROOF Suits and save the expense of frequent repairs.—W. and G. Hadden, Ltd., Dungarvan.

Dungarvan Fair on Wednesday was very large. Good forward cattle were in demand. The supply of sheep was very good. The pig business was very quiet. The market for poultry was good. The market for butter was good. The market for eggs was good.

Public Health.—That Dungarvan is the healthiest town in the world and its people the soundest constitutionally is evident from the debate at the special meeting of the Urban Council on Monday night when the condition of the reservoir of the Kildangan water supply for years past was explained by Mr. Butler, P.D.

MR. SHEEHAN'S REPLY. My dear Bobbed Head, your verses bright. Have been a source of keen delight. To me, as well as all who prize, Poetic charm, 'neath Irish skies; And while I deem your views un sound On modern maids, beheaded and crowned. I feel I should have done you wrong Did I not praise your gift of song.

My views I do not care to set forth In praise or blame or fame or court; I love to see our Irish girls In dainty dress and dainty curls, Happy and bright, in sunny mood; Graceful and sweet, and never rude; The low-necked dress and scanty skirts Are for film stars and foreign girls!

DEATH OF MR. MICHAEL LYNCH, M. AND L. BANK.
