DROWNING OF CHILD .- ACCUSED

Before Mr. Troy; D.J. Guard Navin prosecuted Daniel Crotty to Dr. Hackett. The child died next mornwith using a commercial lorry for hackney purposes. Mr. Spears, solr., defended. Guard Navin gave evidence of finding passengers on the lorry going to Waterford on the occasion of a demonstration recently aware of this section of the Act. Mr. Crotty did this in ignorance of the section. Justice said he thought Mr. Crotty knew there and she said she would stop there the difference between the licenses. Lionnaing Case. Supt. Murray charged Ed. Hally, O'Connell street, with a breach of the Licensin Act on Sunday, March 7th. A man named Curran was summoned for being found outside the prunises with a bottle of Merry's.

Mr. Spears, solr., for defendant. Guard Beilly deposed he was on special osin clothes duty on that day at 19.30. He was coming down Western Terrace and he saw a man going in at the back of Hally's. He followed bim in and found him with a large bottle of stout at Hally's door. Curren told him he had the bottle since Saturday night, and after a while he said he would tell the truth-that he got it from Mr. Hally. He knocked at Hally's back door. Mr. Hally opened it and witness asked him to account for the bettle of stout. Mr. Hally gave no ex-

Dear sir, the cry is, give us more

Of your heart-touching golden lays,

In thought and word beyond all praise;

Pay homage to their boundless charm;

They're welcomed at the rich man's

Both strife and sorrow to disarm.

The toiler loves o'er them to pour.

Through them we hear the blackbird's:

The cuckoo's call when May comes

The ploughboy's whistle, jocound sound.

Gives food for thought to girl and wife.

A NON-BOBBED HEAD.

The March winds moaning in the trees,

Their sway is felt in many ways,

TROUT PIBHING.

In order to be a successful angler, it is necessary that one should pay particular attention to the selection of his fishing taskle. One of the most important items is the artificial fly. We devote a special department to the care and selection of trout flies, which are all hand-tied from carefully extested materials. The gut is particularly fine drawn and selected, and the wings are matched so as to be exactly the same as the real fly. Every book is made from the finest steel, and will stand the landers strain. We have over 200 verticins in etch, and every fly is guaranteed true to name. We sell them at the ferents possible price consistent with possible price consistent with namely, is, 9d, per decen, post free. Address: HARPUR BROS., Whole-sale Fishing Tackle Merchante, Waterford.

CAPPOQUIN ANNUAL BULL SALE.

The tenth annual ball sale organised by Mr. M. F. Walsh, M.I.A.A., Cappoquin, was held on the May Fair Day, and proved eminently successful from every point o view. The entries showed a welcome in crease on those of previous years, while the quality of the animals entered was also superior in every respect, as there was a very fine display of high-class registered and licensed yearling bulls on show, representing the pick of many of the best-known cattle breeders from various districts in West Waterford, and also from East Cork and East Tipperary. Owing to the Eng-all classes of the cattle trade at the monthly fair, and this, no doubt, had some effect on the bull sale later in the day, but all things considered, very good prices were obtained for all the animals sold. "The valuable silver cup and substantia cash prize, offered each year by Mr. Walsh disposed of at the sale, was won by Mr. T. Scanlan, Ballyhane, Cappoquin, with his splendid roan yearling, "Coolaneen Boy," which realised the top price of 32gns., while another fine roan yearling, the property of Mr. M. Kelleher, Bishopstown ismore, came a good second at 25gns. The following were amongst the prinpal sales effected :-A roan yearling, the property of Mr. Thos. Scanlan, Ballyhane, Cappoquin, was ourchased by Mr. Hickie for 32gns.

A roan yearling, the property of Mr. Martin Kelleher, Bishopstown, Lismore, went to Mr. Patk. Doran, Kilbree, Cappoquin, for 25gns. A roan yearling (Mr. Thos. Kenneally Bewley), to Mr. M. Duggan, Dromore, for
