

Breaking into Kilbrien Creamery.

ACCUSED RETURNED FOR TRIAL.

At Dungarvan District Court, before Mr. Connor, D.J., J. Blissett, Ballymacartney, and Thos. Keniry, Carrowgarra, were charged with on March 15th unlawfully breaking and entering the creamery at Broomdown and taking away 4 pairs of boots, 4 cartons of cigarettes, soap, lace, etc., value 28 s.

Patrick Keniry was charged with receiving stolen goods.

Supt. O'Riordan prosecuted, and Mr. Murphy, solicitor, appeared for Blissett.

Supt. O'Riordan stated that when accused were arrested Blissett made a confession which involved his fellow-prisoners.

John Dwyer, storeman at Kilbrien Creamery, deposed on March 15th, 1926, at 8 o'clock when he came to work he found the main door open. On examining the place he found there was something wrong. He had the key in his pocket. He always saw the place secure before he left each night. He found 4 pairs of boots, cartons of cigarettes, 3 cases, bread, toilet soap and lace, valued at 28 s. The store was upset. He examined the door and found no marks on it. He did not know how the entry was effected. He was positive he had the place secure the night before. He could not say if the boots produced were the ones taken, but are similar to the ones in stock. He could not identify the hand-made boots.

By Mr. Murphy—There was only one key for the store, which he had custody of. He was the last to leave the premises each night. There was no sign of any forcible entry. He was the salesman there. There was another door to the creamery, but it would not take you into the store.

Michael Finn deposed he was employed as a bootmaker at Ballymacartney Creamery. The boots he makes are never given to shopkeepers for sale. It is usual to have them sent to Kilbrien for sale. He made all kinds of boots. The boots produced were brought by Sgt. Keogh to him for identification. He made the boots, but had no mark on them. They were the same as others made by him. The making of the boots was not done by him; the nails were interposed with. He was positive the hand-made boots, were made by himself.

Guard Desmond deposed he was stationed at Cappagh on July 3rd, 1926. Acting on instructions he searched the house of Patrick Keniry, Carrowgarra, accompanied by Guard Concessano. He found 3 pairs of boots—one nailed and one unnailed. The nailed ones were underneath Thos. Keniry's bed and Patrick Keniry was wearing the unnailed pair. He found three large balls of thread. He did not interview Thomas Keniry that day. He interviewed his father and asked him to account for them. He said he purchased them from the street of Cappagh last harvest from a ragman. He asked him to account for the nailed pair found in Thomas Keniry's bedroom, and he said his son bought these, but he did not know where.

Patrick Keniry deposed he never said he bought the boots from the ragman. He bought strong ones, which he was wearing now.

Guard Concessano corroborated.

By Mr. Murphy—As regards the balls of thread, he had no reason to believe they were stolen.

By Keniry—He was in the room when Desmond got the thread.

Mr. Keniry—No, you were not, and it was not under the tree; it was left down on it. You also got a needle and two spoons in my pocket, which were only a few inches away from the bed. As I had no housekeeper I had to put the thread away. You didn't say anything about that.

Sgt. Keogh, Cappagh, deposed that on July 2nd both prisoners were under arrest in Cappagh Barracks. Blissett made a statement to witnesses. After the usual legal caution he signed the statement (produced). Witness took down the statement. There was no indication to make the statement. In consequence of the statement witness charged him with housebreaking and larceny at the Kilbrien Creamery. The statement, which was read was—Keniry and I raided the creamery at Kilbrien. They went to Dugan for a coat. They went to the creamery and Keniry forced the door open with an iron bar. I stood at the door and Keniry went in and there were some goods to me. As a result of Blissett's confession witness questioned Keniry, who denied everything and made a statement.

By Mr. Murphy—He arrested both prisoners and charged them. Blissett made a statement about 9 o'clock and another about 1 o'clock. Before making the statement re creamery robbery he had a long conversation with the Guards. He was questioned about the creamery robbery before he made the statement. Witness did not suggest to him to make a clean breast of it. He had not been cautioned during the questioning. At the end of Kilmacthomas News.

The Late Mrs. Thomas Hayes.—On Saturday last at Cahernan, Kill, occurred the death of a comparatively early age of the above-named popular lady, who leaves a husband with a helpless young family to mourn her loss. Deceased was sister of Messrs. Edmund and John Power, Glen, Kilmacthomas, and of Mr. P. J. Power, Villierstown, Cappoquin. She was a lady of great charitable instincts, and her passing from our midst, after a very brief illness, is universally deplored. The funeral to Kill Parish Church on Sunday evening was largely attended. Requiem High Mass for the repose of her soul was celebrated on Monday, after which the interment took place in the adjoining graveyard. May she rest in peace.

General Sympathy is felt with the mother, brothers and sisters of the late Miss Bridget (Bride) Shanahan, Whites-town House, Clones, who passed to her eternal reward on the 30th ult. Possessed of a most charming personality, the deceased young lady had during her brief career warmly endeared herself to hosts of firm friends. The funeral, which took place to the family burial ground at Clones on Sunday afternoon, was one of the largest seen in the district for some time, testifying to the high esteem in which she was held in her native parish. It would be impossible to give a detailed list of the huge numbers of relatives, friends and acquaintances who attended. Requiem High Mass for her eternal welfare was offered up in Clones Church on the 2nd inst. R.I.P.

The A.O.F.S.—A Kilmac' man, presently residing in London, sends us the following for insertion—"Started as a job a few weeks ago, the Ancient Order of Broth Bowers has achieved a remarkable success. The contributions of the members go to a fund for the benefit of poor children. There are four degrees among the Broth Bowers. The lowest is the 'Blower,' who contributes 5s; the next is the 'Blaster,' who gets 25 new members; while the obtaining of one hundred new members qualifies for the rank of 'Tornado,' and a thousand new members carries with it the degree of 'Grand Typhoon.' The last-named rank is already held by one stockbroker, who has obtained 1,500 members. Sir Alfred Eripp, the famous surgeon, is 'Blower' No. 1, and largely through his efforts about £3,000 has been raised by the job for the benefit of destitute children."

A Hurling Tournament under the auspices of the Kilmacthomas Hurling Club will be held in Kilmacthomas shortly for a valuable set of gold-crown medals of Irish design and workmanship. Invitations to play have been sent out to clubs in East and West Waterford and also in South Tipperary, and favourable responses are anticipated. More anon.

COUNTY COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE.

A meeting of the above was held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Saturday last. Mr. N. Fitzgerald, chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. D. Ward, J. G. Duke, M. Curran, C. J. Curran, T. Harly, Ed. Beresford, J. Curran, T. Flynn.

The Department wrote approving of the live stock scheme as adopted by the committee.

Chairman—Is there only one in the inspection of bears every year? He heard complaints of the conditions of premium bears during the year.

Mr. Ward—It is a fairly general complaint.

After some discussion Mr. Ward proposed, and Mr. M. Curran seconded, the following resolution, which was passed unanimously—"That this committee are of opinion that surplus visits should be made with a view to inspecting premium bears, as complaints are being made that bears are being badly kept and not up to premium standard."

SHEEP BREEDING SCHEME.

Four applications were received for two rams under the above scheme. Mr. E. Nugent and Mr. Patk. Coleman were granted the premiums.

ANNUAL LEAVE.

Miss Mullins, poultry instructor, and Mr. O'Shea, horticultural instructor, were granted their usual annual holidays.

HORTICULTURAL INSPECTION.

The following report was read from the Department's Instructor in Horticulture and Bee-keeping in connection with Mr. O'Shea's work—On the 11th inst. I accompanied Mr. O'Shea, horticultural instructor, while he visited the undermentioned sparies—Mrs. Power, Gortaduff, Ring, and Mr. T. Lander, Leagh. The work included the examination and supervising of stocks in her frame hives, on which suitable instruction was given. Foul brood was detected at the first-mentioned centre, and the instructor took the necessary steps to have this disease properly dealt with. Subsequently Mr. O'Shea visited several other persons interested in horticulture and gave useful seasonal instructions on the cultivation of fruit, flowers and vegetables. When in Dungarvan district I inspected the horticultural demonstration plot recently established at Mr. J. O'Keefe's, Killosera, and found same in excellent order and well cultivated. So far as visited Mr. O'Shea's demonstration and other work appears to have been carefully carried out.

Youghal Notes.

Sunday was a record day at Youghal—at least for a considerable time past, every train that arrived from the city by the Lee was crowded to its utmost capacity. At 4 p.m. the Strand from the vicinity point of Knockaverry Hill returned one vividly of a Children's Excursion Day, with this difference, that there were quite a number of youngsters, some in their first, others in their second childhood—disporting themselves in and by the 'jolly' sea waves—there was very little of the 'sad' about Sunday's breakers—adults, fappers, male and female, were just as much in evidence. At 4.30 there arrived another big contingent, which increased the crowd to a somewhat inconvenient degree. And what were the attractions? Nothing whatever beyond the ordinary every-day natural attractions of the place—"mount and stream and sea."

The train to get across the harbour to Monroes, on the opposite shore of the Co. Waterford, was so great that it became necessary to commandeer the services of the motor boat "Ballymoe," as the regular "Rosaleen" was unable to cope with the crowds. As is well known to all who have crossed the harbour, the beautiful rock coast of Co. Phiarraigie is studded with little jewels of bays and coves where a most enjoyable dip can be had "far from the madding crowd." But Sunday was an exception, for all day long visitors arrived in a continuous stream till they thickly populated the whole coast from the Ferry Point along Monroes, on to the Eastward Point, and thence along the ocean-swept shores to Whiting Bay. A certain prominent public man who had "gone across for his usual swim returned not in the best of humour, for he could not get a spot that was not already occupied by 'talking' age or 'whispering' lovers." He went home in a damp spirit, but with a dry towel and top.

Bathing Appointed—Some years ago a prominent city man, one time Mayor, dined the local City Fathers by bathing infans naturalibus, a defiance of municipal authority which ended in a cause celebre at a subsequent Petty Sessions. A formidable list of bathing by-laws were afterwards promulgated, but though it is common property that the breaches of the law have occurred from time to time owing to the absence of a police, these have not been further court proceedings. The question as to what constitutes proper bathing apparel has not been satisfactorily decided. It is said that a certain local man quite recently, having mislaid his ordinary outfit, brought two towels with him as a substitute. But a jinx-eyed member of the Civic Guards did not consider this "proper apparel," and he forthwith threatened to haul the gent in question before the local Justice. If he does we shall certainly have an interesting column or two of stuff, which will be a God-send in those dull days of no Dail.

A Practical Joke.—Jokes are of various kinds. There's the dry joke, the practical joke, the joke in bad taste, etc., etc., but during the past week a practical joke that partook of the "wet" and "dry" was perpetrated on a local teetotaler of 40 years' standing—of total abstinence, not of years. It appears that he with a number of others travelled to a neighbouring town on business, involving a lot of talkative and, as a natural consequence, provocative of an unusual thirst in this hot weather. When the business was finished and done with, the others adjourned to an adjoining tavern to quench their thirst. After a time they sent out for him and invited him to a bottle of lemonade and biscuits and cheese as they had a long journey before them. He gladly concurred, and amid an assembly of Quaker-like stillness he approached the counter, taking up a glass with the query: "Is this my lemonade?" "Yes," was the answer all round, whereupon he proceeded to take a big swig, followed by a roar of laughter. It was beer. "Think of it," said he, "after my 40 years." Like the man that he was, he took the joke in good part, but nevertheless he succeeded in parting company with the "enemy."

Attention of British ex-service men is drawn to the meeting to be held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Thursday, 12th August, at 8 p.m., at which Major Tynan, D.S.O., will attend. It will be to the interests of all ranks to attend, especially those men residing in districts outside Dungarvan and where a branch of the Legion has not already been formed. The committee of the Dungarvan branch of the British Legion at a recent meeting passed the following resolution—"The committee desire to place on record their appreciation of the services rendered by the late secretary, Mr. Fred Phelan, and the excellent way in which he conducted the affairs of the branch and maintained the various records and books of account, carrying on the work of the branch at a loss to himself. They wish him every success in his new sphere."

LIMMORRE NOTES.

Is It Off?—An excursion which we had looked upon to be an annual event has not been arranged as yet. Some say that a rendezvous cannot be agreed upon, but after all one would think it rather an easy obstacle to surmount if this is the only excuse in allowing a much-looked-forward-to day's outing fall through. We hope before the season is ended a compromise will be effected.

Fishing Season.—On Saturday morning last the net fishing on the river Blackwater ended, and it was one of the best for many years back. Strange to state, for the latter two months or so very few fish found their way to the nets, but the first four months were more or less a record.

No Motors.—Not a motor was to be had at Lismore on Sunday last, and Cappoquin and Tallow garages had to supply the local public anxious to attend the hurling contests at Dungarvan and the Whist Drive at Glenties. The Railway Co. would not run an excursion train without guarantee, but with the fine weather and the attractions on Sunday we would venture to say the train from the west of the county should pay.

Figs.—The price paid for fat pigs at the Lismore live weight market underwent no change. 72s. per cwt. was the price again this week.

New Stationmaster.—Mr. Chestnut, the newly-appointed stationmaster for Lismore, took up duty there on Monday last. For years he had been attached to the clerical staff at Waterford Station where he had been clerk in charge. Mr. E. Carroll, who had been clerk in charge since the death of the late stationmaster, Mr. Ryan, has gone to Lough on relief duty. During his four months' stay at Lismore he proved to be a popular and efficient official.

The Hotel.—We understand that Mr. Thomas J. O'Donnell, merchant, Lismore, has purchased the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Lismore.

Tennis.—Lismore Tennis Club had as visitors Caher on Bank Holiday, and after a series of interesting games the home team ran out winners. In their re-play against Macroom last week Lismore went under.

Coal is now 3/8 per cwt. at Lismore, and the quality is not the best. It is more or less rationed also by the merchants.

G.A.A.—Lismore H.C. defeated Ballytruckle H.C. on Sunday last at Dungarvan, but some judges express the opinion that an improvement in form will be required in question before the local Justice. If he does we shall certainly have an interesting column or two of stuff, which will be a God-send in those dull days of no Dail.

POPULAR CARPOQUIN PRIEST HOME FROM AMERICA.

Rev. E. Noonan, who has been on the American Mission for the past 12 years, is at present home on a well-earned holiday with his relatives near Cappoquin, Father Noonan, who is son of the late Mr. M. Noonan, Turbula, and brother of Mr. Jack Noonan, do., and the Misses Noonan, costumiers, Cappoquin, was ordained for the American Mission over 12 years ago, and after a brief holiday at home was sent on his first priestly duties to Salt Lake City, Utah, U.S.A., where he laboured zealously for 10 years. About two years ago he was transferred to Oakland, California, much to the regret of his devoted parishioners in Salt Lake City, by whom he was greatly beloved as their spiritual guide, philosopher and friend, and since his advent to the more southern and sunny clime of California this young priest has continued with even renewed fervour and energy his great work for the spiritual and temporal welfare of all those committed to his careful charge.

BRIDE'S LUCK.

June is a favourite month for weddings. What with Lent, April's uncertain weather, and May's evil influence, Cupid has now a lot of love to make up.

Even apart from this, June has an attraction to lovers, for the month of the month is supposed to be the luckiest day in the whole year for marriage. Next in happy omens are October 6th and 9th.

Cats play a prominent part in wedding superstitions, and it is considered very lucky for a bride to hear a cat sneeze on her wedding eve. She will also be favoured by fortune if she sees a strange cat on the day itself.

Spiders and dogs are also lucky. A spider on the wedding dress foretells prosperity, and the bride who passes a dog on her way to church may know that happiness will be her lot. But the luckiest omen of all is to dream of fairies on the wedding eve.

DEATH OF MR. PATRICK FIVES, TOURIN, CARPOQUIN.

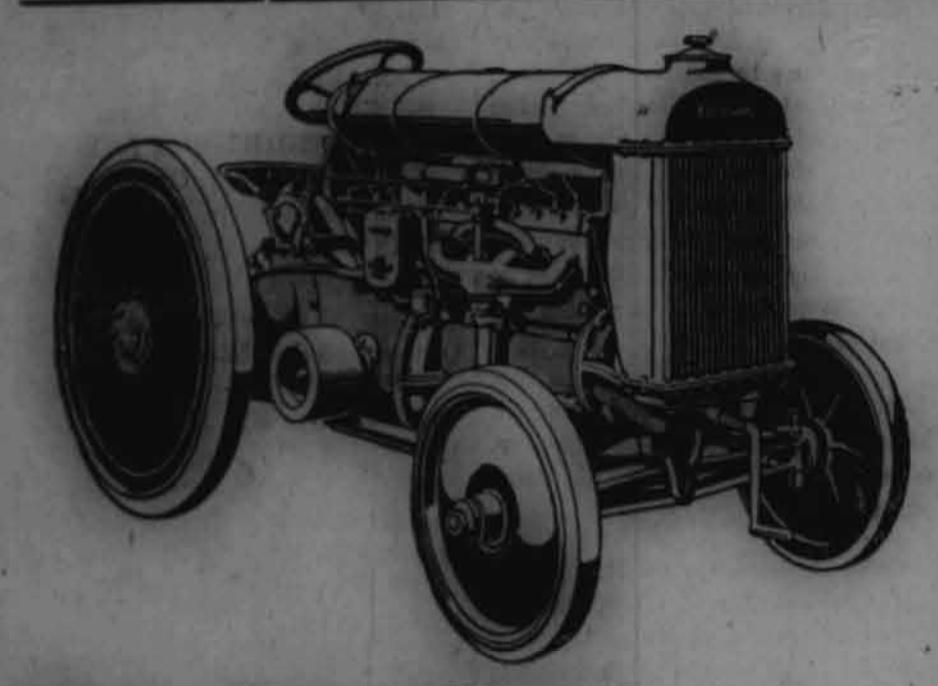

By the death of the above respected gentleman at the ripe age of 87 years, which occurred recently, the district of Tourin has been deprived of one of its oldest and most popular inhabitants. Known locally as "The Grand Old Man" of Tourin, deceased was brother of the late Mr. John Fives, who was well known as one of the most prominent and fearless Nationalists in West Waterford during the old Land League days, and later during the time of the United Irish League, during which he was always a loyal and devoted supporter of the policy of the late Mr. John Redmond and the Irish Parliamentary Party. Deceased spent a long number of years in America, and on his return he went to reside at Tourin, where he remained until his death about a fortnight ago. Despite his great age, he was wonderfully pale and hearty until about six months ago, and was able to perform many duties which a much younger man would shrink from. He was scrupulously honest and upright in all his business transactions, and being of a kindly and jovial disposition, he was a warm favourite with all. Can you afford to pay double?

When the Fordson takes a 6-ton load a mile for 4½d. against the motor lorry's 9½d. and the steam lorry's 8½d.—can you afford to ignore the Fordson? The Fordson is low in initial cost, low in running cost, low in tax and insurance. It is amazingly low in fuel cost because it runs on paraffin—the cheapest of fuels. Registration Tax, £21 only.

Think of the saving in a separate unit that can drop its trailers for unloading and go on working—that can split its loads at gradients and bridges that heavy lorries must avoid. And if you use movable machinery, remember that the Fordson will drive it—give you on its pulley for hours on end, 18 h.p. at 1½d. an hour.

There's a book about the Fordson that costs nothing and may save you thousands. Write for "The Fordson in Industry." It gives facts.

Prices of the Industrial Tractor equipped for your business can be had on application.

Armstrong District Court.
Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.

Mr. Thomas Drohan, Inspector of Fisheries, charged John McGinnis, Balinacash, with using a fine engine for the capture of salmon in the Blackwater. The case was adjourned to next court on the application of Mr. J. L. Keane, solicitor.

A number of cases of assault and cross-cases of a rather serious nature between members of a family named Conway were called.

It was stated that the Sergeant of the Civic Guards had got a great deal of trouble in connection with the matter and that he wished to get an undertaking from the parties to the cases were disposed of. In the absence of Messrs. E. A. Ryan, solicitor, Dungarvan, and Wm. B. Hodnett, Youghal, the solicitors engaged, all the cases were adjourned to next court.

A respectable-looking young man named Patk. Whelan, who said he belonged to Wexford, was charged with cruelty to a horse.

Supt. Murray, Dungarvan, prosecuted. The Superintendent said he would give evidence. On the night of 20th July while on duty he saw a caravan drawn by a horse on the main road from Youghal to Dungarvan. The animal appeared stressed and the defendant and a lady who was with him were helping it down the hill. The poor beast didn't appear to be able to walk, not to speak of drawing the caravan. Witness stopped them and questioned Whelan, who said he had left Dungarvan at 5 o'clock that morning and was going to Youghal. It was then 9.15 a.m. Witness pointed out the condition of the horse, and asked how did he expect it to draw the caravan to Youghal in its then condition, and he replied he intended putting the caravan and horse in a bye-way on the road. Witness examined the horse and found a number of old sores on its knees, breast, etc. The collar was worn and unpadding and the horse was covered with a cold perspiration as if it had been unduly worked and then allowed to cool. Witness asked the defendant to take the animal from the caravan to see if it was able to walk by itself. Guard Kelly and witness helped him to take the animal from under the caravan and they saw it wasn't able to move. One leg was helpless. Witness never saw a worse case of cruelty in his life.

Justice—Was there a wound on the leg? Witness said there was a sore under the mouth with some supuration. There was no cut, but it had evidently been wrenched—defendant admitted that the horse had a wrench. It was an old horse and it appeared to be actually starving with the bones protruding through the skin.

Justice—Was it a heavy wagon? Witness said it was a living wagon with the usual furniture, and there was a woman and child in it. Witness proceeded to Clashmore and brought the local sergeant with a summons back to the spot, and the defendant signed a form agreeing to have the animal destroyed as it was cruel to keep it alive.

Justice—Was that done? Sergeant—Yes, sir.

Defendant said the horse fell with him at a place called Touraneena, he believed, three weeks previously. He was treating the animal since. He was a photographer and his game was played out in the town after a week. The treating of the animal was actually starving him and his wife and child.

Replying to the court, the defendant said through the fall the horse faded away. He got stuffs from the chemist for it and did his best to get it along. He had never ill-treated the animal.

Clerk—Where are you from? Originally from Wexford.

The Superintendent said the man was already punished severely by the loss of the horse. If he had a whip on the occasion he would have been inclined to use it on defendant. In the circumstances he did not want to press the case.

The Justice said if the defendant had any means he would put on a heavy penalty, but it was evident he would not be able to pay.

Superintendent—I would be satisfied if he paid the costs of court. I merely brought forward the case as a warning to others.

The Justice said Supt. Murray's action was highly commendable. He took the view that the man had acted out of dire necessity. In all the circumstances it was no means he would make him pay and pay heavily for the great cruelty inflicted on a poor dumb beast. He wished to take that opportunity of publicly announcing that he would punish with the utmost severity anybody brought before him and convicted of cruelty to animals. In the circumstances he would fine the defendant in the nominal sum of 6d. and costs of court.

A large number of civil bills and other cases were adjourned.

RECORDING YOUR STEP.

The very latest kind of gramophone record records the actual sounds of dancers' footsteps. Until recently it was found impossible to do this, all step-dancing for record purposes being faked by the use of Chinese drums.

Mr. Fred Astaire, one of the most famous dancers in the world, who is now appearing with his sister at the Empire Theatre, London, is the first dancer to have his feet "recorded." A special recording instrument was used, and Mr. Astaire danced on an insulated plate-glass platform.

Now that this has been accomplished, it is hoped that even complicated dances may, before long, be taught by means of the gramophone.

Blackwater Fishery Conservators.

Mr. J. Kennedy, chairman, presided at the usual monthly meeting of the above at Tallow on Thursday, and there also attended—Messrs. E. A. Rice, solr., vice-chairman; W. O'Brien, Capt. P. Dunne, J. E. Godfrey, W. P. Maxwell, R. G. Annesley, H. J. Lucas, W. Kent, Capt. Holroyd Smyth, J. McCarthy, Dr. Montgomery.

Penalties for Fishery Offences.

On the reading of the minutes, Mr. Lucas commented strongly on the inadequacy of some of the penalties imposed in some of the fishery cases at the District courts. In one case the offenders had been at the job for some years.

Mr. Kent—And it cost hundreds of pounds to catch them. Mr. Rice—We tried, but failed. The Chairman said he didn't agree with Capt. Dunne at all. Capt. Dunne said he didn't approve of arming their bailiffs when the Government didn't arm the Civic Guards.

Chairman—Would you care to face armed poachers if you were endeavouring to detect them? Ultimately the proposition was adopted, Capt. Dunne objecting.

be responsible if anything occurred.

Mr. Rice—What about the other side of the story? The world was not much good to a man when his wife was a widow (laughter).

Capt. Dunne—Why don't you get the C.I.D. men down? Mr. Rice—We tried, but failed. The Chairman said he didn't agree with Capt. Dunne at all. Capt. Dunne said he didn't approve of arming their bailiffs when the Government didn't arm the Civic Guards.

Chairman—Would you care to face armed poachers if you were endeavouring to detect them? Ultimately the proposition was adopted, Capt. Dunne objecting.

A Dropped Prosecution.

The Department wrote asking for the Board's reasons for withdrawing the prosecution against four Youghal men.

The Secretary read the reply forwarded by their solicitor, and it was decided to await the Department's reply before considering the question further.

More Money.

The Department wrote—“With reference to Section 16 (4) of the Fisheries Act, 1925, I am directed by the Minister for Fisheries to state that the Department is advised that a person employing men to fish for him would require to be licensed to sell any salmon captured under such circumstances.

During a short discussion the opinion was expressed that it was ridiculous and only a means of getting in more money. It was decided to instruct their solicitor to take up the matter with the Minister.

Free Licenses.

The Minister for Fisheries wrote stating that it had come to his notice that in certain districts Boards of Conservators had issued free licenses to members of the Garda Síochána. Whilst the Minister was fully aware of the very valuable assistance rendered by the force and had expressed his recognition of it both in his public statements and otherwise, he regretted that he was unable to concur in the issue of free licenses. There was no authority in the Fisheries Acts for the issue of free licenses nor had the Minister any power to sanction such a practice. Board's issuing free licenses leave themselves open to a surcharge by the auditor.

The Secretary said they had issued only one license of the kind in a remote part of the district where the assistance of the Civic Guards during the close season was most valuable.

Mr. Rice—And he does the work of his own free will. Mr. Godfrey—We ought not give in on that point. Mr. Rice—How did they find that out? Mr. Godfrey—Some poacher who objected to the activities of the Guards (laughter).

The Secretary was directed to reply that they could not see their way to comply with the suggestion in the matter in the circumstances.

Dead Seals.

The following letter was received from the Waterford County Board of Public Health:—“Dungarvan, 5th July, 1926. A Charr—It has been reported to the Waterford County Board of Public Health that as a result of your Board offering a reward for the destruction of seals, the carcasses of these animals are sometimes washed ashore and have to be buried at the expense of the Board of Public Health, and I am Revolvers for Bailiffs.

Mr. Rice proposed that they apply for permits for revolvers for certain bailiffs. Mr. Annesley seconded. Capt. Dunne strongly objected. Mr. Rice—Are you aware that the poachers carry arms—? Capt. Dunne pointed out that the Civic Guards did not carry arms. Mr. Rice said that had nothing to do with the matter. Capt. Dunne said they would

Use of Explosives.

Mr. Wm. Buckley, Assistant Inspector, reported—On the morning of July 18th Bailiffs Fanning, Condon and Twomey were on duty at Haloran's Rock and observed three men with a boat beneath the rock. The boat proceeded up the river about 300 or 400 yards and was followed by the bailiffs and seen to pull from the middle of the river towards the bank, and then they heard an explosion after which the boat circled all round evidently looking for dead or dying salmon. The bailiffs approached, told them to pull in, which they did after giving some trouble. There were 12 dead salmon found by Mr. G. Hull and on the following Sunday and some more by Mr. O'Mahony, Kilworth Mills, at the spot where the explosives were used and below it. Chairman—That is a very serious case. Mr. Rice said he understood that on making a search the bailiffs found three pairs of boots, trousers and a piece of paper, to which some stuff adhered. He suggested that they send the paper to an analyst to have the stuff analysed. This was unanimously agreed to.

directed to point out that in the circumstances this expenditure should be borne by your Board.—Miss Le mess.—Michael O'Flinn.” Mr. McCarthy—It is a compliment to our marksman. Mr. Annesley—He does his work. The letter was marked “read.”

Anglers' Association. The following letter was read:—“Royal Hotel, Mitchelstown, 13th July, 1926. Dear Sir—We have formed here a branch of the Anglers' Association for the preservation of the Punccheon and tributaries as far as lay in our power. We are already assured the assistance of most of the land owners along the banks, many of whom are our promoters. We invite your guidance and help of your Board to enable us make a success of our undertaking. We are likely to have a good roll call and poachers will get a rough time. The Guards will get every help. The raimers would be glad of some encouragement. Sincerely yours—M. Forrest, Hon. Sec.”

Mr. Rice said during the close season they might put on some men to prevent the destruction of spawning fish, carried on in the neighbourhood of Mitchelstown. Mr. Annesley—And we might give them some trout in the future if possible.

Mr. Rice said the Department was in favour of turning the Mallow hatchery into a trout hatchery, and they didn't want that. There was a trout hatchery at Rockmills.

Mallow Hatchery. The Secretary said that was dismantled. Was he to go on with the hatchery that year? After a short discussion the Secretary was instructed to proceed with the hatchery.

Double Rates. Arising out of a discussion on the arrears of rates, Capt. Dunne proposed that all defaulters be proceeded against immediately. This was seconded by Mr. McCarthy.

Mr. Annesley—Does that raise the question of the duplicate rate—one to the County Council and the other to the Board? The Secretary said it was a hardship that people should have to pay twice, but those concerned could proceed against the County Council.

Chairman—Would they first take up those who have paid no rate? Capt. Smyth said he had already paid over £100 to the Co. Council, and the Board's Secretary was now demanding a similar amount. He had consulted two solicitors. One was of the opinion that the County Council could be made pay, but the other was of an opposite opinion.

Mr. Annesley asked would they proceed against all defaulters, but take those who had not paid anything first. Capt. Dunne—There's the resolution. Mr. Annesley—I withdraw. Leave it to the discretion of Mr. Barry Sullivan.

The Secretary said he had a number of letters on the same question complaining that the writers could not understand why they should be called on to pay twice. The resolution was passed.

Acknowledgments.

Mrs. F. Lee, 17 Ailesbury road, Dublin, wrote thanking the Board for their kind resolution of sympathy with her on the death of her husband. A similar letter was received from Mr. R. Meagher in connection with the death of his mother. Both letters were ordered to be inserted on the minutes.

Youghal Marksman.

The Secretary stated that the marksman at Youghal was prepared to carry on during the close season at no expense to the Board, provided they procured the necessary renewal of his permit. It was unanimously decided to accept the offer.

Venue of Meetings.

Mr. Annesley's notice of motion to hold the future meetings at Lismore was taken up. Mr. Annesley said he only suggested it for the general convenience. The Chairman said before making the change they would first have to rescind the original resolution.

Mr. Godfrey questioned if they could fix any date for the meeting except at the annual meeting. Mr. Annesley thereupon withdrew his motion, the question to be again considered at the next annual meeting.

WHY THE COW CHEWS CUD.

Calves begin to ruminate soon after they have access to long food, and have been known to do so before they are a fortnight old. Healthy cows spend 25 per cent. of their time ruminating, and the number of ruminating periods per day depends to some extent on the number of meals and the amount of disturbance to which they are subjected. The normal average number of periods per day is eight, of which five occur during the daytime and three between the evening and morning meals.

In properly conducted byres, the factors that are potent to excite the cattle and so disturb rumination are carefully eliminated, because it is well recognised that only under a regime of almost perfect quietude in the cowshed, gentleness in handling of the cows, and an almost entire absence of circumstances that by sight or hearing or sensation upset the natural complacency of the cows, can the maximum yield of milk be obtained. Perfect rumination is one of the essentials to this end, and as indicating how very sensitive are the phenomena responsible for the process, one has only to make observations to see that the majority of milk cows cease ruminating when being milked by hand. The exceeding value of suitable periods of rest and quietude, to permit of quiet rumination, is well understood by those experienced in the charge of yoke oxen. Although this interferes with the speed of the trek, it must be provided for, otherwise the animals soon fall off in health and condition, and are incapacitated for further work.

Rumination does not usually begin until fifteen minutes after a meal. When on house rations the average number of cuts that each bolus receives is sixty to sixty-five, though this average is increased by five or six in dry fed animals and reduced by ten when on grass food, and the number of cuts varies between greater extremes in summer than in winter. The first bolus and the last two or three of each period seem to be smaller than the average, and receive a smaller number of cuts, and if there be perfect quietude, the period ends in drowsiness or sleep.

The masticatory movements of the ruminating cow are slow and deliberate compared with those of the sheep or goat. The speed of the movements, nevertheless, varies in different cows according to temperament, and since one may be seen to dispose of five mouthfuls while another accomplishes four, each subjecting the cud to the normal number of cuts, it follows that the time spent on rumination by animals of equal appetite must vary a little.

It is frequently taken for granted that, because an animal has been seen recently to chew the cud, though any deflection in the manner of it was unthought of, it must be all right, and may still be fed with a free hand. Too often is the vital error made of enticing the “saucy” cows by sprinkling some concentrated meal on the food that has been refused. That way lies disaster for the rentpayers—the recently calving, highly sprung, deep milking cows at the height of their utility, are prone to fall into that profound “digestion stasis,” which is so often the harbinger of a fatal nervous attack.

The act of rumination should be read as you read a thermometer, observing the regularity or otherwise of every phase of it and counting the number of strokes given to each of a succession of boluses. Regularity in the movements and a maximum number of cuts per bolus are always associated in a state of perfect health, while departure from health is increasingly indicated as the number of cuts observed decreases, and the movements become hesitating, erratic and perfunctory.—“Irish Farmer.”

Dungarvan Urban Council.

A general meeting of the above was held on Friday last. Mr. M. Brennock, chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. J. Butler, T. D. J. Curran, M. Keane, M. Clancy, T. Power, P. McGrath, T. McCarthy, W. O'Donnell, M. Griffin, J. Moore, J. Hackett.

Expenditure.

The general account for the week amounted to £26 1s. 2d. Payment was passed.

Fair Lane.

Mr. Butler—What has been done about the sanitary arrangements to the new houses. Fair Lane is in a bad state at present. Borough Surveyor—I got the pipes and will lay them on next week. Mr. Butler—You should do something to Fair Lane. Mr. McGrath—Are there any tenders for the paving of Main street? Clerk—No. Mr. McGrath—There is a lot of talk about other streets. Some of the biggest ratepayers are in the Main street.

Borough Surveyor—In connection with the tenders, one man called to me about the Town Hall, but he did not come since. Mr. Clancy—We should cut down everything as much as possible this year. Perhaps later we may devise some means for further improvements. Borough Surveyor—I cannot exceed £50. Clerk—There is no money just now.

Chairman—I would like to draw your attention to the weigh-house, which is at present a danger. Half of it should be cut away and Mr. McGrath could give us an estimate for doing up the rest. Borough Surveyor—I will have it for this night week. As no tenders were received for the paving of Main street and the repairs to the hall, it was decided to leave the tenders open.

Public Fountains.

Mr. McCarthy—The head of the fountain at Tom Moore street has been broken, and I think that it was broken deliberately by somebody not living in the street. S.S.O. Walsh—That is the second time that has been broken within a fortnight. Chairman—That took a long time to do and the people in the locality must have seen it done. Mr. O'Donnell—When that pump was shifted did it cause any inconvenience? S.S.O. Walsh—There has been no report made. It was at the people's own request that the pump was shifted.

Mr. McGrath—The pump at New Chapel street should be shifted to the middle of the street. Mr. Keane—I am opposed to such unnecessary expense at present. The people have not grumbled about the pump's present position. Mr. O'Donnell—They have grumbled; you have not been down there since the election. Mr. Keane—It may be electioneering. Mr. O'Donnell—Since we shifted some pumps they have done a lot of service. Mr. Keane—I am entirely opposed to it. Mr. Butler—The channel in that lane is all holes and there is stagnant water all over the place. After further discussion it was decided to mend the pump at Tom Moore street and if it was broken again the council would consider what was best to be done.

Burgery.

Mr. Griffin raised the question of the water supply at the Burgery. S.S.O. Walsh was instructed to interview the residents there in order to find out where they wanted the fountain put.

County Roads.

Mr. Butler, who had been requested by the council to interview the Roads Department in order to find out whether the Urban Council were responsible for the upkeep of channels and pathways on the main roads in the urban area, stated that from the information he received the County Council were responsible for the channels and pathways. The main road was from house to house. As regards the Square, Mr. Butler said that as he had not the necessary data he could not yet give the information necessary. After a discussion Mr. Clancy proposed, and the Chairman seconded, that Mr. McGrath (borough surveyor) and Mr. Butler again interview the Roads Department with regard to the Square, and that Mr. McGrath make out a map showing all the roads leading from the Square. The resolution was passed unanimously. Notice. Mr. Clancy handed in notice of motion that he would move at a subsequent meeting that the 11 houses at Mitchel street and the 9 houses at Abbeyside be sold to likely tenants in order to enable the council to build more houses. Mr. Butler—Does it mean to sell right out and for every one to build another. Mr. Clancy—Yes, the present scheme will not remedy the housing question as the rent is too dear for the working people.

Water Test.

Mr. McCarthy drew attention to the shortage of water in the higher levels of the town. The Chairman said that Mr. Bowen told him that at present there should be enough water to supply Dungarvan five times over. Mr. Bowen also said that if it was acceptable to the council he would make an independent test of the supply. It was decided to accept Mr. Bowen's offer to make an independent test.

Lighting.

The Electric Light Co. tendered to supply light to the town for the coming year for the sum of £301. Clerk—That is £21 of an increase over last year. The council were unanimous in refusing the tender, and decided to only accept the tender at the same price as last year.

Harbour Dues Increased.

Mr. J. F. Williams, solr., forwarded a communication he had received from the Ministry of Trade and Commerce referring to the application made on behalf of the Urban Council for an order under the Harbour, Docks and Piers (Temporary Increase of Charges) Act of 1920, and stating that an order had been made authorising certain increases in the statutory maximum rates chargeable by the Dungarvan Urban Council in respect of the harbour undertaking. The following is the schedule which accompanied the order—Cattle, bulls, oxen, cows and horses, 6d. each; calves, pigs, sheep and lambs, 1s. per score; coal and culm, 44d. per ton; fish, 7d. per ton; flags, 5s. per 100 feet; flour, 7d. per ton; grain, 7d. per ton; iron, 7d. per ton; limestone and sand, 7d. per ton; timber per load of 50 feet, 8d.; light goods per barrel bulk, 3d.; heavy goods, 8d. per ton. The following resolution was proposed by Mr. McGrath, seconded by Mr. Brennock—“I, the members of the Urban District Council, desire to express our sincere sorrow and regret on the occasion of the death of Sister Mary Carthage Ryan and tender to the members of the family sincere sympathy in their bereavement.” The resolution was passed in silence.

CLARE GUARDS AND ESCAPED LUNATIC.

A fierce encounter between Guards Murphy and Clifford, of Milltown Malbay, and a lunatic named Thady O'Brien, for whom they have been searching for some days past after his escape from Ennis Lunatic Asylum, took place in a lonely hill at Moy, where, after a desperate struggle, they succeeded in arresting him. It appears the lunatic, who is 18 stone weight, and possessing herculean strength, attacked the Guards in an open meadow with a hay fork, where after some arduous dodging by the Guards from the steel fork was just near Guard Clifford's head when Guard Murphy seized an opportunity, and pouncing on him from behind, succeeded with the aid of his comrade, in wresting the fork from his grasp and arresting him. Much credit is reflected on those two brave Guards for their promptitude and skill as well as unflinching loyalty to their duty in capturing this dangerous lunatic, who was seen some days previously going about with a large knife in his hand. The mere fact of it taking five R.I.C. men seven years ago to arrest him, and only two Guards now, shows their determination of arrest regardless of their own lives.

WANTON DAMAGE.

The Strand Caretaker reported that the canvas covering at both the ladies' and men's bathing shelters had been cut with a knife. Mr. W. Broderick—What sort of mentality do the perpetrators of such outrages possess. Chairman—Call the attention of the Guards to the matter. Clerk—That has already been done.

Youghal Urban Council.

Present—Messrs. M. Whelan, chairman; W. Coughlan, A. J. Fowkes, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; T. Harrington, J. Bennett, vice-chairman; S. A. L. Merrick, J. Troy, W. J. Broderick, M. D. Broderick.

SPRAT CURING.

The following letter was read:—“Youghal, 29th July, 1926. Dear Sir—I expect to be curing sprats for myself this year in my yard opposite the police barracks, and I will require fresh water for same. Please let me know if you will give me permission to tap the main pipe.—Yours faithfully—Thomas Murphy.” The application was granted unanimously.

ANOTHER COMMISSION.

The resolution of the Cork Co. Council calling on the Government to appoint a Commission to inquire into the cost of administration in the Free State, both national and local, was unanimously adopted on the proposition of Mr. McMahon, seconded by Mr. Bennett.

DOUBLE INCOME TAX.

The resolution of the Killarney Urban District Council protesting against the policy of the Government in interpreting the Income Tax Laws in such a manner as to make it impossible for people of means to take up residence or remain in the country, was unanimously adopted. Chairman—We are the most overtaxed country in Europe. Mr. McMahon—As the President said, we are getting good value (laughter).

ADDITOR'S REPORT.

Mr. J. P. Moran, L.G.B. Auditor, wrote reporting that he had audited the accounts of the council for the year ending 31st March, 1926. The accounts were presented for audit in a satisfactory manner. Chairman—That is very satisfactory.

CHEAPER TRAVEL.

The following letter was read:—“The Baths, Youghal, 28th July, 1926. Dear Mr. Walsh—Please convey my thanks to your esteemed council for their sympathetic reply to my application for a bus service. As Secretary of the I.T. Association, County Cork Commission, the need for cheaper travel in all parts of Ireland has been manifest to me, and I think some start should be made in Youghal. There appears to be unreasonable apprehension on the part of certain car drivers in Youghal, but they do not see that the more people we can induce to come to Youghal, the greater the profit for everybody, including these drivers themselves. You, Mr. Walsh, and the council here have all had sufficient proof of my constant efforts to help Youghal, not only with tourist business, but in every possible direction. You may feel sure that everything that can help the Youghal people has my constant solicitude.—Yours truly—C. Flynn.”

A SLIPPERY SLIP.

Mr. Merrick called attention to the slippery condition of the Ferry Slip. It was so slippery that people were slipping and falling (laughter) and there was a big traffic there at present. The Chairman said a lady visitor got a nasty fall the previous day. The Town Superintendent was directed to have the cause of complaint remedied at once.

Regatta for Villiersstown—A few of the more enterprising sportsmen in Villiersstown and district, assisted by Mr. Wm. Baldwin, Camphire, have organised a regatta to be held at Villiersstown on Saturday, 21st August. The fine stretch of river between Stranally Castle and Villiersstown quay provides one of the grandest regatta courses to be found anywhere, the rich woodland scenery around Stranally on the one side and the historic mansion of the Villiers-Stuarts at Dromana, with its delightful woods and forests of century-old oaks, elms and copper beeches, presenting at once a panorama of rare scenic charm, with the majestic "Irish Rhine" seen at its best at this point. All classes of boat racing will be provided for, from the humble fishing boats to the more pretentious salmon yaws and pleasure boats, while a specially attractive feature will be the races for four-oared and eight-oared outriggers for which various crews from the Cappoquin Rowing Club will compete, and there is bound to be keen competition for the valuable "Sullivan" and "Hanney" Cups, kindly presented for these events. Altogether a most attractive programme has been arranged, and a rare evening's sport can be guaranteed for all visiting this pretty and picturesque village on the occasion.

Also ran—Mr. J. Devereux's Ardinnan Castle, P. Irvine; Mr. E. Cunningham's Sheila, M. Cunningham; Mr. Ahern's Whiskey, J. Baker, and Mr. W. J. Clifford's Hop Up, J. Wade (disqualified).

In the latter stages of the race Hop Up drew away from The Bird and won easily by ten lengths. A similar distance away Irish Rover was third. An objection to the winner, by the owner of the second, for carrying wrong weight, was upheld, and the race awarded to The Bird, Irish Rover being placed second, and Wendon Rose third.

The Youghal Plate of £10, of which the second receives £2 and third £1. Open weight for age hurdle race. Two and a half miles.

Mr. M. Donovan's White Rose, T. Mescall ... 1

Mr. C. Hennessy's Peggy, T. Connell ... 2

Two ran. White Rose made all the running and won by five lengths.

The Strand Plate of £12, of which the second receives £2, and the third £1. Open flat race for ponies 14.3 hands and under. Two miles.

Mr. W. J. Clifford's Peggy's Leg, J. Clifford ... 2

Mr. H. Higgins's Isonia, J. Doyle ... 3

Also ran—Mr. T. Harnett's Saleen Boy, T. Harnett; Mr. P. Flynn's Try Again, Miss Peggy Barnes; Mr. H. Murphy's Nellie, J. Carey; Mr. J. O'Brien's Ocean View, J. Baker; Mr. Barry's Josie's Pet, J. McCarthy; Mr. Mansfield's Flying Ida, J. Mansfield; and Mr. Fitzgibbon's The Pullet, P. Keeffe.

Dublin Kitty made all the running, and resisting challenges by Peggy's Leg and Isonia in the straight, won by one length. Four lengths between second and third. Try Again was fourth.

The Greeneloyne Plate of £8, of which the second receives £2 and the third £1. For ponies beaten in the second race. Two miles.

Mr. W. J. Clifford's Hop Up, J. Clifford ... 2

Mr. Galvin's Eileen, J. Fletcher ... 3

Also ran—Mr. Cunningham's Sheila, M. Cunningham; Mr. C. Hennessy's Second Try, T. O'Connell; P. Devereux's Ardinnan Castle, J. O'Callaghan, and Mr. Baldwin's Wendon Rose, J. McCall.

Won by three lengths; five lengths divided second and third.

HOLY GHOST MISSIONS.

OBJECTS NEEDED FOR NEW BUILDING AT HOME.

ST. JOSEPH'S MISSIONARY HOUSE, ROCKWELL.

The interest in the foreign missions, which is spreading in the country, has had among other results the most happy one of increasing the number of vocations. Friends of the missions are beginning to realise that a missionary vocation for one of their family is a very special blessing from God, and also that since the need of priests is the most trying need of the missions, there is no way in which they can more genuinely help the missionaries abroad, than by assisting as far as they can, in the education of those who are to be their fellow-workers in the near future.

Be it understood, however, that this education must be a thorough one, if the missionaries are to do effective work both in the schools and in their ministry. The contrary idea may easily obtain, that is to say, that a superficial education would suffice for a priest, whose life is to be spent among pagans. Nothing is more false. Abroad more than at home, especially in the schools, priests have to contend at all times with men of other religious denominations, who have almost all had the good fortune of a full University training in England or America. Hence the necessity of the Catholic priest being likewise thoroughly equipped in all branches of knowledge.

To meet the increase of vocations and to give the students all possible facilities for their studies, etc., the Holy Ghost Fathers have enlarged their Juniorate of St. Joseph's Missionary House, Rockwell—a building close to, but entirely distinct from Rockwell College—into which are received solely aspirants to the Congregation of the Holy Ghost. To fit out properly the enlarged building for the Missionary students, appeal is made for the following articles of furniture which are urgently needed—

12 seats for new chapel, dedicated to the Little Flower, cost £3 per seat. Who will supply ONE?

400 desks for new study hall, cost £3 per desk. Who will supply ONE?

2 pinas, new or secondhand. You can help in the education of the priests by supplying some of the above to the new building. All applications for admission, as well as all communications re above, should be addressed to Rev. J. McCarthy, C.S.S.P., St. Joseph's Missionary House, Rockwell, Cashel.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

Motor Accident.—While a young lady named Miss Power, residing at Ballinamtra, Cappoquin, was cycling home from the Dungarvan Show on Thursday night week and while on her proper side of the road, she was overtaken and run into by a motor car coming from the same direction. Miss Power was flung off the bicycle and hurled into the dyke, but, fortunately, escaped without serious injury, but her machine was considerably damaged, and she had a miraculous escape from more serious injuries, if not a terrible death, under the circumstances. The Cappoquin Guards are now busy in trying to locate the driver of the motor car in question, which, it is stated, was being driven not only at a furious pace, but also in a most erratic manner at the time, and for the sake of public safety it is to be hoped that their efforts will be successful, for it is high time that the homicidal tendencies of some motorists were curtailed in a drastic manner, for there is no respect for either cyclists or pedestrians when some of those "road hogs" go tearing along our public roads, especially when they happen to have plenty of "petrol" not only in their tanks, but in their stomachs as well, which appears to have been the case on this occasion.

Compact Farm for Sale.—Those on the look-out for a nice, compact and conveniently-situated farm should read the announcement in our advertising columns in which Mr. M. F. Walsh, auctioneer, invites private offers for the sale of the "Kennel" farm, containing 34 acres of prime land, which is considered to be amongst the best land in the district. There is a fine, newly-built slated dwelling-house on the holding, which is only about a half mile from this town, on the Kiltree road leading from Cappoquin to Lismore, and no more desirable or attractive property has been placed on the market for a long time.

Handball.—Dealing with Supt. Eamonn O'Riordan's victory in winning the final in the Intermediate Soft Ball All-Ireland Championship at the Garda Campships in Dublin a fortnight ago, "Gameball" writing in "Sport," after dealing with various players, says: "Another player who turned what looked like defeat into victory was Supt. E. O'Riordan. Good cutting into the left enabled him to overhaul his opponent in one game when he was behind at 10 and in the second at 15-4. This is a lesson to a player never to give up a game until the last ace is won." We understand that an interesting 4-hand game between Supt. O'Riordan and Mr. J. J. Smith, Cappoquin, against the Bros. Crowley, Lismore, two players of high merit, will shortly be played in Lismore, full details of which will appear in due course in this paper.

Interesting Wedding.—The Catholic Church at Kiltinane, Co. Limerick, was the scene of a very pretty and interesting wedding on the 7th inst., when Mr. Patk. Mulcahy, B.A., Mount Melleray, was married to Miss Eileen Burke, daughter of Mr. M. F. Burke, Kiltinane. Mr. Mulcahy is a popular member of the brilliant staff of Professors attached to the famous Mount Melleray Seminary, and is held in the highest respect in Cappoquin, while his charming young bride belongs to an old and respected Co. Limerick family, who have been connected with the teaching profession for a number of years. She herself has been a talented teacher in England for a considerable period. Both Mr. and Mrs. Mulcahy have been the recipients of the heartiest congratulations of their hosts of friends on the auspicious event, all of whom now wish them the best of prosperity and felicity in the years to come.

YOUGHAL RACES.

SUCCESSFUL FIXTURE.

This popular fixture was held on Monday afternoon over the old lands course, and proved thoroughly enjoyable and successful from every point of view. Glorious weather conditions attracted a large gathering to the venue, and the excellent sport provided was generally appreciated. A programme of five events was arranged, and with one exception competition was exceedingly keen, and good trials and finishes were produced. The president and officials discharged their duties with marked efficiency, while the secretarial work was accomplished by Messrs. P. J. Walsh and J. J. Ahern with conspicuous ability and success. The proceedings opened with the Blackwater Plate, for which six ponies were saddled. When half the distance of two miles had been covered it became evident that the finish would be confined to Mr. C. Hennessy's Peggy and Mr. Higgins's Isonia. They were together until the last hurdle, when Peggy gained an advantage and maintaining it up the straight won by three lengths. Seven ponies contested the Subscribers' Plate, but at an early stage at least four of the runners were tailed off, leaving the issue between Mr. J. Clifford's Hop Up, Mr. T. Hurlin's The Bird and Mr. M. Foley's Irish Rover. Approaching the straight Hop Up drew away and eventually passed the post ten lengths in front of The Bird, with Irish Rover, a similar distance away, in third position. An objection was, however, lodged to Hop Up for carrying wrong weight, and as it was sustained premier honours were awarded to The Bird. The Youghal Plate resolved itself into a match between Mr. M. Donovan's Wild Rose and Mr. C. Hennessy's Peggy, and the former was in command during the whole of the journey, and gained an easy victory. Ten ponies, one of which was the mount of a lady rider, came under the starter's orders for the Strand Plate, and it proved a highly interesting event. It provided an excellent finish. Along the straight Mr. M. Hibberd's Dublin Kitty, which disappointed in the first race owing to having run out on two occasions, was challenged in determined fashion by Mr. W. J. Clifford's Peggy's Leg and Mr

DEATH.
WALSH—On July 26th, 1926, William Walsh, aged 44 years, died at his residence, 10, St. Peter's Street, Dungarvan, after a long illness.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

Tipperary and Limerick.—The meeting of Tipperary and Limerick at Dungarvan on August 2nd will be the last of the year. Tipperary hurlers have just arrived home after having an unbroken record in America from New York to San Francisco, and their match against Limerick will be their first since their return.

Water Orphanage.—Many citizens complain of the inequality of the water supply to their houses, and considering all the money that has recently been expended on the waterworks system, there should be no shortage at all. The engineers say the water is there, but wherever it is, those who are paying for it don't get it.

Death of Sister Mary Catharine Ryan, Kilmacshannon.—The announcement of the death of Sister Mary Catharine Ryan, who occurred at the Convent of Mercy, Kilmacshannon, on Thursday last, was received with deep regret. She had been only a short period ill, and her death at the early age of 60 years is deeply lamented.

High-class Exhibits.—As an instance of the quality of the exhibits at Dungarvan Show a few weeks back, it may be interesting to note that 9 of the prize-winners here were prize-winners at the Dublin Show this week, viz.—Mr. P. Arnold's thoroughbred steed "Servitude"; Mr. J. Barry, Curra, Fermoy, in the brood mare, 3-year-old gelding, and 3-year-old filly classes; Mrs. De Salis La Terriere in the 2-year-old gelding class; Mr. W. Pridan, Sporthouse, brood mare and yearling classes; Miss Macgrath in the 4-year-old hunters' class; and Mr. R. Shanahan in the aged hunters' class.

Dungarvan Show.—In our report of the awards at the Show on the 22nd July, the following should have been included—Best pony under 15-3 hands—R. Murphy, Mountain Lodge, Channel; 2. Best brown horse—Miss Herford, Monard; 3. Best Collection of Ornamental Trees and Shrubs—Miss Hanley, Gildam; 1. Mrs. J. F. Williams; 2. T. Morrissey, Ballinaskaha; 3. Best pair men's hand-knitted socks—Miss B. Geary, Camphire.

Firarms License.—Farmers and shooting men who hold licenses to use shotguns will note that their permits expire on July 31st, and they must be renewed after August 1st if they intend using their guns. Bring your new permits to Crotty's registered firearms and ammunition dealers, Square, Dungarvan, who stock only the best and avail of the free gift they are giving with the first lot of cartridges purchased on your new permit.

Markets.—Meal (best fine), 2/6 per sack; lively fine, 2/4; middle-cut, 2/3/6 per sack; flour, 27/-; bran, 12/-; pollard, 12/-; butter, 1/7 per lb.

Next Sunday at Dungarvan the final of the Waterford Football Championship will be played between Dungarvan and Aglish, and the game should be a trial of no ordinary kind and well worth seeing. Bricky Rangers and Kilmacshannon meet in junior football and an equally good contest is assured.

Dublin Show opened this week in glorious weather and was attended by big crowds of foreigners, including 3 Indian Maharajahs, one of whom was the guest of the Governor-General. Amongst the prize-winners in the various classes were several exhibitors, who showed their animals at Dungarvan Show on July 22nd ult. At the Bookstock Sales for thoroughbreds held in conjunction with the Show big prices were realised, several yearlings running from a thousand to two thousand guineas each.

G.A.A.—At Dungarvan on Sunday last before a good attendance, two very interesting senior hurling matches were played, the play throughout being up to a very high standard. The contests were between East and West, which had very early victories. In the first match between Dungarvan and Ferrybank the latter were outclassed, leaving the home team winners by 3 goals, 4 points to 2 goals 1 point. Lismore champions then took on Ballytruckle, and proving far superior to their opponents, won a hard game by 4 goals 2 points to 2 goals 2 points for Ballytruckle.

Fianna Fall.—Mr. De Valera addressed a public meeting at Waterford on Sunday, August 1st, on the new Fianna Fall policy. There was a very large attendance present. Later at a Conference the following committee was formed to take charge of the details of the organisation in the city and county—Messrs. W. Jones, A.M., Doyle, P. J. Roche, P. Barden, W. Barrett, J. Howlett, N. Power, Ballinacree, N. White, Treasurer; M. Egan, Portlaoise; J. Murphy, Dunmore East; Sean Gelling, Lismore; J. Kirwan, Kilmacshannon; J. McGrath, Kilmacshannon; M. O'Ryan, Ballymacarthy; M. Cogan, Dungarvan, and J. Murphy, Clona.

DRUMRUE, CAPPOQUIN, COUNTY OF WATERFORD.
HIGHLY IMPORTANT AUCTION OF LARGE RESIDENTIAL FARM.

MR. DAVID NOONAN has been instructed by Mr. Edmund Casey, to sell by PUBLIC AUCTION, ON THE LANDS, AT ONE O'CLOCK (NEW TIME), ON THURSDAY, 2nd SEPTEMBER, 1926. The Farm of Lands consisting of all that part of the Lands of Drumrue Lower, formerly known as New Affane, containing 164 acres 1 rood 15 perches or thereabouts, statute measure, situate in the Barony of Coismore and Coishbridge and County of Waterford, being the lands entered on Folio 306/1607 of the Register of the County of Waterford, held in FEE-SIMPLE subject to a terminable annuity of £66 9s. 4d., payable to the Irish Land Commission subject to the provisions of the Ashbourne Act. The original annuity of the said Lands was £94, which has since been reduced by several reductions to the said sum of £66 9s. 4d., and will be further reduced until it terminates.

This magnificent Residential Farm is ideally situated on an eminence overlooking the river Blackwater, about 1 mile from Cappoquin and 2 1/2 miles from Lisamore. Three convenient entrances from the main Cappoquin-Youghal road give an easy access to the Holding. The Land is of the very richest kind and especially noted for its fatness and milk-producing qualities.

In virtue of its southern aspect, the Farm is well sheltered from the north and east, and conveniently sized and well-fenced fields make its working both easy and economical. A well, centrally situated and famous for the quality and quantity of its water, supplied the Farm with an invaluable asset; and access to the river gives an ample and never-failing supply of water for live stock.

The value of this fine property is still further enhanced by the possession of a splendid Limestone Quarry and a superabundant supply of growing timber (principally beech and ash) as well as affording excellent shooting and fishing.

THE RESIDENCE.—A splendid three-storied Building contains on the Ground Floor a large hall, a sitting-room and dining-room, a kitchen and pantry and two servants' rooms. A quaint spiral staircase gives access to the Second Storey, which contains 7 bedrooms equipped with massive marble fireplaces, whilst the front rooms are further embellished by large bay windows. On the top storey there are 9 airy bedrooms.

OUT-OFFICES.—Adjoining the Residence are 3 spacious yards containing 7 large stone built and slated buildings giving accommodation for 60 cows and 12 horses. Three of the buildings are furnished with large lofts. Convenient to the Residence there is also a splendid dairy and a large cement water tank and a roomy shed, stone built and roofed with corrugated iron.

To the importance of this Sale Subscribers direct the attention of intending purchasers, as the small annuity, the great fertility of the land, the picturesque residence, all combine to make this farm one of the finest in Munster.

For further particulars and Conditions of Sale apply to E. A. RYAN, Solicitor (having Carriage of Sale), Dungarvan; or DAVID NOONAN, Auctioneer and Valuer, Lismore.
