Chairman—The way I understood Mr. Secretary and County Organising Secre-Walsh is that he asked the County Sur-tary for the I.T. and G.W. Union, I clear some misunderstanding in connec-tion with Mr. John Butler's candidature

Since the 1923 Dail Election this organi sation in so far as the county is concerned has disappeared, with the result that there is not a single individual outside of Waterford City a member of the organiwaterford City a member of the organi-sation to-day, and has not been for a con-siderable time past. In view of this fact Mr. Butler found himself in a rather pe-culiar position, and some nine or ten months ago he decided not to contest the present election.

This was a proper and just decision, as it could not be possible for Mr. Butler or anybody else to go forward as a candidate representing an organisation that did not exist. This is evident from the fact that

Why patent shoes are popular

PATENT shoes are popular to-day because they always look so smart, are easy to clean and are suitable for so many occasions. They can be worn with 'almost anything,' indoors or out-of-doors. This utility of patent, the easy fit and the moderate price of this pretty 'Comac' shoe have made it one of our best sellers this season. There are several other beautiful styles from 18/11 to 42/6 in the new 'Comac' range. By the trade-mark on the sole the makers pledge themselves to replace free any pair failing to give complete satisfaction. May we show you the new styles?

The future.

By lifting up the lowly and making the working classes—Labourers. Farmers, Artizans and Shopkeepers—comfortable and contented, the Stability of the State and the Progress and Prosperity of the entire community can be best promoted. National and Prosperity of the entire community can be best promoted. National and Prosperity of the entire community can be best promoted. National and Prosperity of the entire community can be best promoted. National and Prosperity of the entire community can be best promoted. National and Prosperity of the entire community can be best promoted. National and Prosperity of the entire community can be best promoted. National properation, where old feuds shall be forgotten, old have buried and the spirit of fraternal fellowship fostered, is the great energising force that can create a real Irish Common.

FISHERIES, RE-AFFORESTATION, truer trust and self-reliance to secure the welfare of our National policy whole-heartedly advocate. Protection for our people to enable them to gain decent live-of new industries and the safeguarding of existing ones, by retaining the cream of our population on Irish soil and in Irish factories, is the sound National policy.
