Why patent shoes are popular

PATENT shoes are popular to-day because they always look so mart, are easy to clean and are suitable for so many occasions. They can be worn with 'almost anything,' indoors or out-of-doors. This utility of patent, the easy fit and the moderate price of this pretty 'Comac' shoe have made it one of our best sellers this season. There are several other beautiful styles from 18/11 to 42/6 in the new 'Comac' range. By the trade-mark on the sole the makers pledge themselves to replace free any pair failing to give complete satisfaction. May we show you the new styles?

Business-like!

It's business-like to buy well. When you buy a Ford you buy at rock-bottom price an article of sterling value proved the world over.

It's business-like to be assured of service after purchase. Behind the Ford there is the finest service in the world, a service station in practically every town in the Free State staffed by Ford Experts, equipped with Ford time-saving, laboursaving, cost-saving machinery.

It's business-like to be sure of economy in use. The figures published by "Commercial Motor" "based upon the experience of hundreds of users" proved that Ford commercial vehicles cost less to operate than other makes of similar capacity.

In short, it is good business in every business to
