Price 2d.

Dungarvan District Court.

MOTOR PROSECUTIONS.

Before Mr. Troy, D.J. Mr. Michael Butler, Mapstown, was charged by Guard Sweeney with driving a Ford commercial car on which the road tax had not been paid. Mr. M. J. Spears, solr., for defendant.

Dungarvan Circuit Court.

DAMAGES FOR A COLLISION.

The Dungarvan Circuit Court was opened on Wednesday by Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C.

ANNUITIES.

The Land Commission obtained decrees against number of farmers for failure to pay their annuities.

ACTION OVER A COLLISION.

John Grant, hackey car owner, sued Thomas Cunningham, Ballynabogue, for £50 damages to his mare through the negligent driving of a sheep dipping van, the property of the defendant, at Callaghane on October 3rd, 1927.

OLD PARISH ESTATE.—CLAIM FOR WAGES.

Andrew Hubbard, Knocknahaney, sued Mr. M. J. Spears, solr., as Executor of the late Mary A. Costin for £172 2s. for work, labour and services rendered and performed by the plaintiff at her request, and for the management and working of her farm from the 4th June, 1923, to the 27th June, 1927.

DEATH OF MISS MINNIE CULLINAN, KILLINEEN, DUNGARVAN.

On Thursday last the death occurred of Miss Minnie Cullinan, sister of Mr. Thomas Cullinan and Mrs. Meany, Killineen, after a brief illness. She was a lady in the prime of life with a charming manner and lovable personality, held in the highest esteem by all who knew her, and her death is deeply mourned by her family and a wide circle of friends. On Saturday the funeral took place from the Parish Church, Dungarvan, to the family burial ground, Touraneena, the cortege being large and representative. R.I.P.

COUNTY COMMITTEE OF TECHNICAL EDUCATION.

The monthly meeting of the above was held in the Technical Schools, Dungarvan, on Tuesday last. Mr. T. J. Power, chairman, presided. Also present were—Messrs. Wm. Stack, J. Curran, J. O'Halloran and Mee. Griffin.

Increase of Salary.

A letter was read from the Department approving of the committee's proposal to increase Miss O'Keefe's salary from £150 to £158.

Domestic Training Scholarships.

The Department also wrote approving of the arrangements for the award of six Scholarships value £20 each at approved Residential Schools of Domestic Training for the year 1928-29. They also approved of the examination papers set by the examiner (Mr. Liam Flynn), and asked that after consideration by the committee the marked papers be forwarded to the Department.

The following six pupils secured the highest marks—Miss A. O'Connell, Ballyquin, Carrick; Miss Rita Fitzgerald, Tallacool, Dungarvan; Miss Mary Fennessy, Reanadampaun, Ballymacarbery; Miss C. Cullinane, Mitchel street, Dungarvan; Miss Alice Walsh, Mount Odell, Dungarvan, and Miss Alice McGrath, O'Connell street, Dungarvan.

Chairman—Have you decided on giving six scholarships?

Secretary—No, not yet.

Mr. O'Halloran—How many did you give heretofore?

Mr. Griffin—Six.

Secretary—Six Scholarships were awarded for the past two years. My own opinion is that if this money was given towards teaching you would have several girls in the county receiving instruction instead of six.

Mr. O'Halloran—Will our finances permit us to give six Scholarships at £20 each? It is a big sum, and it often happens that the parents of those girls who get these Scholarships can well afford to educate them. He was of opinion that the fifth and six girls on the list were very low, and that any pupil should get at least 60 per cent. marks at an examination before passing.

Mr. Griffin—That would be honours marks.

Mr. O'Halloran—Children in rural areas have no chance with these Scholarships. He suggested that half of the Scholarships each year should be given to children from rural areas and the other half to children from the town.

Secretary—Some time ago this committee passed a resolution that children attending Secondary Schools be debarred, but the Department turned that down.

The committee then decided to award the six Scholarships subject to the sanction of the Department.

Fireproof Safe.

A letter was read from the Department approving of the acceptance of the tender of Messrs. Healy's, Dublin, for a fireproof safe at £14 11s.

Chairman—In connection with that matter the Secretary had since received a tender for the same class of safe and it is 35s. cheaper. What will we do about it?

Mr. Griffin—Accept the lowest tender.

The committee decided to accept the tender of Mr. McQuillan.

Irish Scholarships.

The Department wrote approving of the arrangements made by the committee for the holding of the Irish Scholarships Examination, and also approving of the appointment of Mr. Jas. Clerkin as examiner. They asked that the marked papers, after consideration by the committee, be forwarded to them.

The Secretary said, in answer to Mr. Griffin, that the examination was held and the marks awarded were available. The number of Scholarships to be awarded was five, value £10 each.

Mr. Stack—Did you ever hear such trash? and the people running out of the country? They don't want any Irish.

It was finally decided to award the five Scholarships.

The names of the girls who secured the highest marks at the examination are—Pierce Hennebery, Brown street, Tallow, 85 marks out of 100; Margaret Whelan, Emmet street, Dungarvan, 83; E. O'Donnell, Lismore, 81; E. Moloney, Pike, Dungarvan, 81; Maura Doherty, Old Parish, 61; Maura Croilly, Clonea, Dungarvan, 59.

Temporary Teacher for Ardmore.

The committee next took up consideration of the appointment of a temporary teacher for the Irish course at Ardmore in the month of July.

Mr. O'Halloran said they could appoint Seamus O'Sullivan as they did last year.

Chairman—Will this committee have to pay him? Secretary—Yes.

Temporary Teacher for Ardmore.

The committee next took up consideration of the appointment of a temporary teacher for the Irish course at Ardmore in the month of July.

Mr. O'Halloran said they could appoint Seamus O'Sullivan as they did last year.

Chairman—Will this committee have to pay him? Secretary—Yes.

STRAND PALACE YOUGHAL. JACK KELLEHER and his MAYFAIR BAND—LONDON, Will Re-open for the season with a TREASURE HUNT DANCE. SATURDAY, JUNE 30th, DANCING—10 to 2 a.m. Tickets 3s each. At Midnight Hundreds of Balloons will be released from the Ceiling with SPECIAL LIGHTING EFFECTS. Enclosed in one of the Balloons will be a CLUE TO THE TREASURE which will take the form of a Return Ticket to the ISLE OF MAN or its value. PLEASE NOTE. SUNDAYS—7 to 9—9.30 to 11.30. 1s. each session. Train and Bus leave Youghal. 9.30.

Chairman—Let us understand this matter. In addition to paying £10 for each of those students are we also to pay for their teacher?

Mr. Stack—And for teaching them nothing?

Secretary—Yes, but you then qualify for the grants.

Mr. Curran—Is it a new appointment? Secretary—Yes.

Mr. O'Halloran—It was on last year so it could not be new.

Mr. Curran—But he got no payment last year?

Secretary—Oh, yes. The payment is 3s. 6d. per hour.

Mr. Stack—And what is the result of it?

Chairman—What will it cost this committee? In the first place they must pay £50 for the scholarships, and what will the teacher cost?

Mr. Griffin—What did it cost last year for the 10 Scholarships?

Secretary—£42 14s.

Mr. Griffin—Then it will cost you £21 7s.

Mr. O'Halloran—I hold that there is a saving in the arrangement. You have the grants. They teach four hours a day for which they are paid, but they often teach six hours without any payment.

Mr. Stack—Yes; they are very generous.

Mr. Griffin—If this man get £21 7s. from this committee for five pupils and if he has pupils from the Tipperary, Cork and Kerry Committee's, what will he make in the month?

Chairman—Is he paid by the college also?

Secretary—I could not say.

Chairman—If pupils come from any Technical Committee outside Waterford will they have to pay the teacher?

Secretary—No; you will pay and then you get the grants.

Mr. Griffin—If we send our pupils say to Ballygarry must we pay for their teaching there? Secretary—No.

Mr. Griffin—Then I propose that we send them there.

Secretary—The grants to this committee last year covered the expenditure.

Mr. O'Halloran—Won't we get a grant in respect of every pupil in the college?

Secretary—In respect of every eligible pupil.

Mr. Curran—The whole thing is out of order.

Mr. O'Halloran—It is not out of order. It is on the agenda and the appointment was made last year.

Mr. Stack—It is out of order. Why isn't it in Irish on the agenda?

Mr. O'Halloran—If it was you could not read it.

Mr. Stack—Very well now, couldn't it?

Mr. O'Halloran—You could not write a notice of motion in Irish if you remember.

Chairman—I propose now that the Scholarships be awarded and that no teacher be appointed by this committee.

Mr. O'Halloran—I dissent from that proposition.

Mr. Griffin—I will second the proposition. If there were only say, 10 eligible pupils where would we come in? We would have to pay.

After some further discussion the resolution was passed, Mr. O'Halloran dissenting.

Dunhill Feis.

A letter was read from Mr. Sean Downey, Irish teacher, asking for a small grant in aid of the Feis to be held in Dunhill.

Mr. Curran proposed, and Mr. Stack seconded, that a grant of £2 be given. This was passed.

Arts Examination.

Mr. Robert Tutty was appointed by the committee to superintend the Royal Society of Arts Examination to be held in the Technical Schools in July.

Ferry Tools.

The tender of Michl. Moloney and Co., Bridge st., was accepted by the committee for a supply of vices and tools used by the Ferry Instructor for the sum of £8 4s. 4d.

Limerick Congress.

At the conclusion of the meeting the Chairman said—I attended the Technical Congress at Limerick as one of the representatives of this committee together with Mr. Stack and Mr. Langan, and I must say I was very much impressed with the proceedings. I was proud to be amongst delegates from all parts of Ireland, and it was very gratifying to hear Major Stanley, Director of Education for the Northern Counties, say that he carried out the educational programme of the Free State as far as it suited him. Technical education is becoming more and more recognised, and with the extended system recommended by the Technical Commission in their report, it should prove a valuable aid to those seeking industrial and commercial careers. The enthusiasm shown by the delegates at the Congress clearly indicates a genuine awakening to the importance of a sound system of technical education, and with proper application it will play a very big part in the development of the country. His visit to the Shannon scheme was very educational. The huge undertaking is certainly a feat of engineering skill and should be gone through and seen from the intake near Killaloe to the powerhouse and immense workshops at Ard-nacrusa to realise its magnitude. With its completion in 48 months' time they should look forward to the large part electricity will take in their daily routine, and he had no doubt that the education and training of the rising generation in the utilising and handling of the resources generated on the Shannon will be a great means of bringing about its ultimate success.

NO TAX PAID.

Guard Murray, Leamybrien, charged Wm. Fitzgerald with using a motor car on which the road tax had not been paid.

Asked if he had a solicitor, defendant said he had, but he was engaged in the Circuit Court.

Mr. Troy—I will adjourn the case if you wish.

Defendant—I will defend it myself.

Guard Murray deposed to finding the defendant using the car at Glendalligan on the 19th May without the road tax being paid and defendant told him he was taking out the license.

Mr. Troy—Why had not you your tax paid?

Defendant—In April I decided to sell the car and I handed up the registration book to Mr. Casey. I put the car into Crotty's garage and Mr. Crotty got me a few customers, but we did not come to a sale. In May Mr. Casey asked me about the car but being taxed and I told him whoever bought it would pay the tax. A few days after (Mr. Casey) asked about it again and I told him I would pay the tax but he would not take it unless I got a note from the sergeant of the Guards. I got the note and then he told me he would give me the license on Saturday after he balanced at the bank. As there was no summons coming along Mr. Casey went further and wrote to the Leamybrien barack and then the summons was issued. At the time the car was sold to Mrs. Boyle, Leamybrien.

Mr. Casey, motor taxation officer—I want to ask the defendant a few questions.

Mr. Troy—You cannot.

Mr. Casey—It is rather awkward for me if I cannot contradict the statements made.

Mr. Troy—You put all the blame on Mr. Casey? Defendant—I told him whoever bought the car would pay the tax.

Mr. Troy—Why do you suggest that Mr. Casey came along to worry you about the tax unless he had reason to do so. If he had not good reason he would not have taken any action. I am sure he was discharging his ordinary duties to see that the tax was paid to the County Council, and something must have drawn his attention to the fact that the car was not licensed and that it should be.

Defendant—I had two or three people testing the car who were about buying it.

Mr. Troy—That would not bring Mr. Casey into it. Something must have brought him to look after the tax.

Defendant—I don't know why he came to me.

Mr. Troy—I think I have a fair idea of why he went to you. He was not going to you unless he saw the car on the road and he knew the tax was not paid. As an official of the County Council, it was his duty to see that the tax was paid.

Defendant—Yes, if I was keeping the car.

Mr. Troy—It makes no difference. What is the tax on this car?

Mr. Casey—£12 a year.

Mr. Troy—I will impose a penalty of three times the tax, viz. £36 mitigated to £5. It was a shabby thing to be trying to throw the blame on someone else. I am satisfied Mr. Casey acted in the ordinary way when he saw the car on the road and the tax not paid, and he acted quite properly in the matter.

Several cases were adjourned including that of Guard Desmond, Cappagh, against Michael Walsh under the School Attendance Act.

A SALE OF IMPORTANCE TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

Don't miss this opportunity. You will find Bargains in every Department.

C. LAWN DUNGARVAN.

Dungarvan Urban Council.

The weekly meeting of the above was held in the Town Hall on Friday night last. Mr. M. Brennock, chairman, presided. Also present were Messrs. J. Butler, M. Clancy, P. J. McGrath, T. Power, J. Curran, J. Butler and T. McCarthy.

Expenditure.
The pay sheet for the week, which amounted to £11 6s. 6d., was presented.

Shandon Road.
Mr. John Flynn, Mary street, was offering the council small stones and rubble for the trunking of the Shandon road at 1s. per yard.

Mr. McGrath—It is a very good offer and we ought to do our part if the County Council will do theirs.

Chairman—I don't understand what you mean, Mr. McGrath.

Mr. McGrath—The stones are cheap at that, and as we are promised the use of a roller from the County Council the work would not cost so much. In any case there is a chance of that road being scheduled as a main road.

Mr. Clancy—We should not roll that road as there is an amount of abnormal traffic on it. His suggestion would be to only fill in the pot-holes.

Chairman—I had some private business with the County Surveyor and in the course of a conversation afterwards he said he had some broken stone. I believe the price would be about 4s. per yard. I would like to know from the Borough Surveyor if that was cheap or dear?

Borough Surveyor—That would be cheaper by getting them broken.

Mr. McGrath—If it is anything about the same cost you should get labour to break them.

Mr. Butler—I have an idea that Mr. Bowen is over-anxious to get that road rolled. At a recent meeting here we had a discussion on the getting of compensation for abnormal traffic on that road. He remembered when the Co. Council sued private individuals for using heavy lorries on the roads. Would it interfere with our case if we repaired the road?

Chairman—The County Surveyor will give you a roller to do that work on 24 hours' notice.

Mr. Curran—You have asked the Department to take it over.

Mr. Power—You could patch-roll it and you have your case all the time.

Mr. McGrath—From the Provincial Bank to the Station, which is used for the good of the ratepayers of the town, should be done.

Chairman—That is part of the Shandon road.

Mr. McGrath—Something should be done to it. Even out to the Gaelic Field you can't walk it.

Mr. McGrath—You will have a Horse Show soon and it should be done before that.

The Borough Surveyor, in answer to a member, said it would require 200 yards to do it.

Mr. Butler—The only thing to do is to fill the pot-holes, because I hear that the County Council are to have steam lorries as well as horses drawing the heap of stone that is over there now.

At the time the County Council proceeded against private individuals it was for timber drawing, and this is worse.

when will he have them out? He suggested a fair price being arrived at by the council and have all the carters employed.

Chairman—The board can put a limit to the length of time: it must be done before 19th July anyway.

Mr. Clancy—I suggest we refer it to the Borough Surveyor and then we will have an idea of the amount of stone required at next meeting.

Mr. McGrath—Fix a fair wage and let all the carters of Dungarvan share the loaf and not have one eating all the loaf.

Mr. Clancy—Let the Borough Surveyor see what it will cost. Everything we take in hands seem to cost more than what was originally intended.

Mr. Butler—Carry out the order of last Friday night—fill the pot-holes and stop when they are filled.

Borough Surveyor—We put out about 20 yards of stone this week into some of the pot-holes.

Chairman—Do you agree it should be done.

Mr. McGrath—I agree to that, but the price for the carters should be fixed here. We should not be putting one man against another.

Mr. Clancy—We should await a report from the engineer, then we will know what we want.

Chairman—You will be losing valuable time.

Mr. Power—Have you any idea what the County Council paid for carting to street—would it be a suitable basis?

Mr. McGrath—It would not. They don't pay a decent wage at all.

Mr. Curran—In the interest of economy I want tenders invited.

Mr. McGrath—I propose that a rate be fixed and all carters be employed.

Mr. Curran—You don't want the work done cheaply.

Mr. McGrath—I don't want the workmen to be working for nothing.

Borough Surveyor—If you want only 40 or 50 loads then you will have them only one day.

Mr. McGrath—Even so let them share the loaf. Why is it brought back to 50? It was 200 before.

Chairman—One thing is certain, if we have a roller we can't leave it to be as before waiting for stone.

Mr. McGrath—Leave it in the hands of the Borough Surveyor.

Mr. Clancy—The Borough Surveyor referred to 50 loads.

Mr. Butler—Then I would be in favour of withdrawing my proposition.

Mr. Clancy—You can fill up the pot-holes.

Mr. Power—If you pay for the roller you won't compromise your case.

Borough Surveyor—That is only my opinion about compromising your case.

Chairman—It is easy to get over that. A few lines from the Clerk to Mr. Bowen asking for the use of the roller without prejudice to any further action which they may take will settle it.

The council agreed to this course.

Relief Grant.
Mr. Clancy asked if there was anything new in connection with the grant?

Chairman—No. At the last meeting we had a letter from the Department asking for plans and specification and those have been sent on since Wednesday last. We could not have a reply since.

Mr. Butler—Are there any further plans to be sent on?

Borough Surveyor—No, except they ask for more.

Mr. Butler—Some time ago there was a sewerage scheme discussed here new houses at Abbeyside, which for some reason or other was omitted from and that included a sewer from the scheme prepared. He suggested that the council revert back to that scheme now, and if any money was left over, and as the Department suggest instead of spending it in repairing the storage tank at the waterworks, it be used to connect up the new houses at Abbeyside with the main sewer.

Chairman—All the council are in favour of that.

Mr. McGrath—I raised that question at the last meeting.

Mr. Butler—Then I propose that the Borough Surveyor prepare plans and specifications and send them on at once to the L.G.B.

The proposition was passed unanimously.

St. Garvan's Terrace.
Mr. McCarthy called attention to a stoppage in the water supply to two houses in the above Terrace.

The Borough Surveyor was directed to inspect the supply.

Catering for Tourists.
The following letter was read:—

"Gentlemen—We, the undersigned, beg to bring under your notice the great necessity that exists to make some provision for providing amusements for our visitors. For some years past there has been gross neglect in catering for the wants of tourists, with the result that the town has considerably suffered, and those who would like to holiday in Dungarvan have had to go elsewhere where amusement can be had. We trust your council will forthwith do all in your power to make our grand seaside resort the attraction it was of old when thousands came here annually for health and pleasure and danced in the Town Hall and on the Cunniger to their hearts' content.—Signed—Annie Wall, Park Terrace; M. A. Flynn, Hotel; George Stokes, John Daniel, Park, Foley; Patrick Mulcahy, Wm. Mulcahy, D. Walsh, B. A. Murray, C. Martin, Mrs. R. Crofty, Mrs. M. McGovern, Mrs. Alice Watson."

The letter was marked "noted."

Painting the Bandstand.
Only one tender was received for the painting of the bandstand in the Park. The tender, which was considered excessive, was not accepted and the Clerk was directed to re-advertise.

IRISH BONES BEST.
THE REASON THEY MEND BETTER THAN ENGLISH.

Dr. Reginald Larkin, divisional police surgeon, giving evidence at a Cumberwell inquest into the death of an Irishwoman, aged 81, who had fallen downstairs, said that a broken collar-bone she sustained last year had united excellently.

The coroner expressing surprise, the doctor added that it was a common thing with Irish people.

Coroner—Do you mean to say Irish bones mend better than English?

Dr. Larkin—Oh, yes. I think the diet has a lot to do with it. They get the benefit of the calcium in potatoes.

Coroner—Perhaps it is a wise dispensation of Providence. An Irishman likes a scrap, doesn't he?

WORLD-TOURIST'S EXPERIENCE IN TURKEY.

In Turkey an unpleasant experience befell Mr. John Crawford, ex-policeman, who is touring the world on a pedal bicycle.

Writing home, he states that on entering Turkey from Bulgaria he was immediately arrested by the Turkish police, and, together with two or three other prisoners, taken from police station to police station across country under armed escort until Stamboul was reached.

There he was kept in custody for four days, having to traverse the city day after day searching for police officials to sign his passport and order his release. Every day, he says, he saw people being led about under armed police escort. Having been told that other parts of Turkey were even worse he proposed taking the boat to a port near Jaffa.

EAST CORK MINOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP.

MIDDLETON v. YOUGHAL.

The above teams travelled to Ballymacoda on Sunday to play the initial match of the minor football championship. A large crowd witnessed a rather good display, and the score does not reflect credit on the losing fifteen. The local club are to be congratulated on the arrangements made for the match. The field had been mown and was in fine playing condition. This, coupled with the favourable weather conditions, helped to make an enjoyable game, and one which did not flag till the final whistle. Punctually to the appointed time, the Rev. Fr. Cotter, C.C., Ballymacoda, set the teams in motion. Details:

Middleton winning the toss elected to play towards the village goal, and making quick invasion were repulsed, the ball travelling to midfield where play centred for a time. Getting possession again Middleton again attacked, and this time raised the white flag. Following the kick-out Youghal attacked, and though on the offensive for some time, did not penetrate the Middleton defence. A fine clearance by Middleton saw their forwards getting possession, and in a nice bout of combination broke through for a grand goal. This was immediately followed by another. Middleton again resumed the offensive, but a free to Youghal eased the situation, and following up they made a determined attack, but sent over. Youghal were now playing better, but could not get through the Middleton backs. The Middleton fifteen were much heavier than their opponents, and they combined with much more advantage than did Youghal. From this to the short whistle Middleton were on the offensive and succeeded in amply supplementing their scoring sheet. Just before the short whistle, as a result of a collision in midfield, a Middleton player was injured and had to retire. Half-time score was—

Middleton—6 goals 1 point.
Youghal—Nil.

On resumption Youghal determinedly set out to reduce their opponents' lead. Middleton were unable to increase their score, and did not add a single point during the half hour. Youghal getting close in as a result of a free were awarded a 50, but though well taken and placed, Middleton responded and sent away up field. Following an attack by Middleton, a Youghal man was hurt and had to be replaced. Youghal conceded a 50 to Middleton, but the ball went sent wide. The Youghal centres were playing a great game, but the forwards lacked the cohesion required to avail of the splendid opportunities given them. Nearly half the second period had elapsed without a score, when Youghal following up broke through for their first goal. Soon after they registered a minor score. It was now a battle between the Youghal centres and the opposing lines, and though they made several spirited attacks, the opposing defence stood up in fine style and repeatedly cleared and saved some dangerous situations. No further score resulted, and with Youghal still striving to reduce the lead, the final whistle blew, leaving the score—

Middleton—6 goals 1 point.
Youghal—4 goal 1 point.

The teams were—
Middleton—S. Moynihan (capt.); J. Kennedy, J. Shore, P. J. Byrne, H. Power, D. Hennessy, J. Short, J. Conway, M. Hughes, W. Murphy, J. Kennedy, J. Murphy, J. Brophy, C. Duggan, A. J. Berne.

Youghal—M. Guiry (capt.); T. Brien, M. Sullivan, M. Sullivan, P. Ring, J. Donoghue, J. Broderick, W. Aherne, P. Hennessy, R. Swain, S. Kenneally, G. Walsh, C. Donoghue, J. O'Shea, D. Fennessy.

Waterford Co. Committee of Agriculture.
This meeting was held on Saturday. Mr. Thomas Flynn presided. Also present—Messrs. D. Coughlan, Co. C., J. Curran, P. Mulcahy and W. Slack. The Secretary reported that he had lodged to the credit of the committee £403 9s. 7d., fourth quarterly instalment received from the County Council.

The Department wrote approving of the Prize Lists and subsidies given to the Dungarvan and Lismore Shows.

The application of Michl. Cleary, Kilnagrange, for a premium boar was granted.

Black-faced Rams.
James Hickey, Kilbrien; John Grady, Knockboy, and Patrick White, Crough, Kilrossant, were granted premium black-faced Scotch rams. The applications of Messrs. N. Qually, Barracree, and Thos. Wall, Knockanaffrin, were deferred to next meeting.

A resolution was read from the Dublin County Committee of Agriculture re the refusal of the Department of Agriculture to sanction payment of £3 affiliation fee to the County Committee's new organisation and also the travelling expenses of the delegates to the Congress.

Chairman—We cannot touch it now in the face of our previous resolution refusing to join the new organisation.

THOROUGHBRED SIRE PERCIVAL KEENE.

ABORTIVE SEIZURE.
Exciting incidents in County Tipperary.

An exciting struggle with Sheriff's officers who went to make a seizure under a decree of courts on a farmstead is reported from Rossmore.

When the Sheriff's men—James Lynch and George Mullins—were seizing a mare and foal on the farm of Michael O'Dwyer, Turrabeen, Rossmore, near Gould's Cross, Mrs. O'Dwyer and her son Patrick came on the scene. It is alleged that Patrick O'Dwyer struck Mullins on the head with a hurley stick. Lynch and O'Dwyer then got into handgrips, and subsequently Lynch brought a sergeant and two Civic Guards from Dundrum Barracks, but when they arrived young O'Dwyer and the mare and foal were

Kilmacthomas District Court

Before Mr. F. J. McCabe, D.J.

No Court Next Month.
Prior to the calling of the first case of the day, the Justice announced that there would be no court held here next month as he would be absent on his annual holidays, and Mr. Fahey, D.J., Wexford, who is to do duty for him during the period of his vacation, cannot come to Kilmacthomas sooner than the third Wednesday in August.

Civil Bills.
An unusually large number of civil bills were dealt with. Decrees for full amounts claimed with costs were granted in all, save two or three, which were allowed to stand over to the next sitting. Messrs. Ryan, Keane and Williams were the solicitors engaged.

Transfer of License.
Mrs. Patk. Nugent, Newtown, Kilmacthomas, applied for a transfer of the license held in the name of her husband, who died on the 9th inst.

Having ascertained that the Guarads had no objection, the court granted the application subject to the production of the title. Mr. H. D. Keane, solicitor, appeared for applicant.

Petrol License Renewed.
Mr. Patk. Cummins, Kill made application for the renewal of his petrol license. Granted.

Gardai Cases.

Same v. John Flynn for allowing six pigs to wander. The Guard said defendant abused him and would not apologise. Fined 10s. and costs.

Guard Halloran, Leamybrien v. John Williams for failure to bury carcass of a dead beast within reasonable period. Fined 10s. and costs.

Sergt. Cully, Leamybrien v. Joseph O'Keefe for having no light. Fined 2s. and costs.

Guard Boyle, Kill v. John Doyle for breach of School Attendance Act. Adjudged to August court.

Guard Cummins, Leamybrien v. Margaret Kiehy, like charge. Adjudged to next sitting.

Guard Barry, Kilmacthomas v. Margaret Muldoon, similar case. Adjudged to August court.

Guard McLoughlin v. Jas. Murphy, Waterford, drunk and incapable at Kilmacthomas. Fined 2s. and costs.

Same v. Patk. Doyle, wandering ass. Fined 2s. and costs.

Guard Finnegan, Kilmacthomas v. Richard Kearney, drunk and disorderly at Kilmacthomas. Fined 5s. and costs.

Same v. Michael Keating, Thomastown, drunk and using bad language at Kilmacthomas. Defendant, who was being a pedlar, was fined 5s. and costs.

Same v. Susan McLoughlin, no fixed abode, drunk and disorderly. Fined £1 and costs with one month to pay.

Sergt. Sheehan v. Patrick Kirwan, no light. Fined 2s. 6d. and costs.

Breach of N.H.I. Act.

The National Health Insurance Commissioners prosecuted John Donovan, farmer, Ballyvaden, for failing to stamp the cards of a workman named Thos. Landy, who had been for some months in his employment.

Mr. Ryan, for the prosecution, called Inspector John Murray, Dublin, and Thos. Landy, who proved that the cards were not stamped between July 5th, 1928, and February 15th, 1928. Landy swore that he was sacked after Inspector Murray's visit to Donovan.

Defendant did not appear in court. The Justice said this was a case that should be met with the infliction of a heavy penalty. Defendant got an opportunity from the Inspector and he doesn't appear to have availed of it. He now imposed on conviction a fine of £4 plus £1 costs, and ordered the immediate payment of arrears in accordance with the terms of the notice served on Donovan.

Attorney-General v. Michl. Longan.
Defendant, who belongs to the Kill district, and who is 21 years of age, was charged with having unlawfully in his possession between October 1st, 1927, and May 1st, 1928, two sheep, value £2, the property of Mr. Michl. Keating, Comeragh, and one sheep, value 25s., the property of Mr. Michael Brown, Briskey, knowing same to have been stolen.

Supt. Keenan, Civic Guard, prosecuted, and Mr. P. A. Murphy, solicitor, Waterford, defended.

Michael Keating, Michael Brown and Patk. White were sworn, and their evidence was to the effect that they shared in the grazing of the lands of Mr. Mullins at Ross, Rathgormack. Eleven sheep disappeared from that farm on one night. They reported the matter to the Guards. From information received they visited defendant's place, and amongst a number of sheep there three of the missing animals were identified—two belonging to Keating and one to Brown. An attempt had been made to obliterate the ear-marks on the sheep and they were shorn since their owners had previously seen them.

Defendant swore he paid £2 for the three sheep at the last September fair of Kilmacthomas. He didn't deem the purchase too cheap at that sum. He didn't know the seller's name, but would know this person by his appearance if he again met him. Only his

DAIL BONDS.

REPAYMENT TO SUBSCRIBERS.

MINISTER'S STATEMENT.

In the Dail last Friday, Mr. Blythe (Minister for Finance) made the following statement on the position of the Dail Eireann Loan (Internal), 1919-1920.

He pointed out that the Dail Eireann Loan and Funds Act of 1924 had empowered the Minister for Finance to cause to be prepared an authentic register of subscribers to the internal loan, and to prescribe the conditions and evidence upon which any person claiming to be a subscriber to the internal loan might be entered in the register. The Act further provided for the issue to every subscriber whose name was entered on the register so prepared of a certificate enabling the subscriber to obtain repayment on or after the 1st June, 1927, at the rate of 28s. for every £ subscribed. The total number of subscribers was approximately 140,000, but owing to the circumstances in which the loan was raised only 120,000 names were recorded in the primary register. Efforts were being made to obtain particulars from collectors, but in many cases the original collectors were not now available.

In accordance with the conditions originally laid down, the subscribers were required to lodge their application not later than the 31st March, 1925. Only 35,200 applications were received by that date, and he decided for the time being to waive the time limit. Repayment had up to the present been authorised in 70,615 cases, representing approximately £342,000, including principal and interest. The amount still outstanding was £188,000. He was confident that by the end of the present financial year repayment would have been authorised in all cases in which particulars of subscriptions were recorded, and also in cases in which, though the particulars were not recorded, satisfactory evidence in support of the claim had been submitted to the Department of Finance.

The situation was complicated by the fact that applications were being received from persons who subscribed to various funds for national purposes about the time the loan was raised and who now thought they were entitled to obtain repayment. Requests were frequently received in the Department of Finance for lists of names and addresses and amounts of subscriptions, but there was a serious objection to furnishing these lists, as a number of claims had already been submitted which there was every reason to suspect, and in at least one case a prosecution had been ordered. All claims were being dealt with as expeditiously as possible, and it was suggested that deputies in future should restrict their inquiries to an absolute minimum.

It had been suggested that a tribunal might be established to deal with applications in certain areas, but it did not appear that such a tribunal was at present necessary. If the necessity for taking any special measures to complete the task of repayment should become apparent, the question of establishing a tribunal would be considered. It had been suggested that in cases in which repayment had not been already authorised interest on the amount of subscription should be allowed as from the 1st June, 1927, to the date of repayment. In reply to this, however, it should be urged that in most of the cases which would be affected by the suggestion, application for repayment was not made when applications for such were invited, and there would be no justification for making the exchequer liable for additional interest in cases where the subscribers were responsible for the delay themselves. Moreover, legislation would be necessary, and it was felt that at present there was not sufficient justification for proposing it.

For Backache Rheumatism Lumbago Urinary Disorders Doan's Kidney Pills

(witness's) father's workman, James Jordan, was present at the deal.

Jordan, who was ordered out of court during defendant's evidence, swore that he was not at the fair on the occasion.

After hearing the case at considerable length, the Justice said that he regarded the charge as being a most serious one. The basis of honesty and fair dealing was involved, and unless the standard of morality and honesty is high in sheep-raising districts, things would speedily assume a sad phase indeed. In the present case he had no doubt the defendant had the sheep in his possession knowing them to have been stolen. He ordered defendant to be imprisoned for a period of three months with hard labour. The Justice hoped that this would be an example all over the locality. Cases of sheep stealing will in future be met with severe punishment by his court.

ADULTERATING HOSPITAL MILK.

SENT TO JAIL FOR SHEEP STEALING.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, Patrick Shea, Ballylynch, was fined £5 and £1 costs for supplying adulterated milk to Carrick-on-Suir Hospital. The evidence showed that the milk was 3.3 per cent. deficient in the original fat.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, Thos. Kennedy, Kilballyquilly, County Waterford, was sentenced to one month's imprisonment for stealing a lamb, etc., the property of a neighbouring farmer. A charge of sheep stealing against Ed. Kennedy was dismissed.

Youghal District Court.

Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.

Meade v. Hurley.
In this adjourned civil bill for £12 10s. 2d.—£3 6s. 8d. one month's rent and balance of repairs and renewals (Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett for plaintiff, and Mr. J. L. Keane for defendant).
Mr. Keane said he would have to go before the Circuit Court with his side of the case.
A decree was accordingly given for the rent.

Assaults.
Thos. O'Connor, farmer and contractor, charged Jer. Kelleher, contractor, with assault and threatening language, and Kelleher had cross-cases against O'Connor and his employee, Mrs. Nora Gardiner.
Mr. Hodnett for O'Connor and Mrs. Gardiner and Mr. Keane for Kelleher.
After a prolonged hearing and contradictory evidence.
The Justice said he believed that Kelleher was the aggressor, fined him 21s. and costs of court, and bound him to the peace in £5.
The other summonses were dismissed.

Fishery Cases.
Mr. Thomas Drohan, Inspector of Fisheries, Mallow, charged Richard Neville and Daniel Coakley, Youghal, with having a net over length and with having it on board a boat within the prohibited time.

Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., prosecuted.
Sergt. Shaughnessy deposed that on Saturday evening, 5th May, he went to the steamer quay near the barrack and saw the two defendants in a boat close to the quayside. There was portion of a net on the quay and portion in the water. It appeared to have been just used. There was one fish in the boat. When defendants saw witness they rowed out into the harbour.
Defendants pleaded guilty.
They were each fined £5 on one count and the nets ordered to be forfeited, the other count in the summons being marked D.W.P.

The same complainant charged Jas. Mangan, Wm. Broderick, Cors. Gray and Michael Lynch (1) with having a net over length, and (2) with fishing in prohibited waters.
Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., for the prosecution.

D. Ellis, water bailiff, deposed that on the 24th May he saw a boat with defendants on board fishing off the light-house. He met them afterwards that evening. They admitted the offence.
Defendants pleaded guilty to fishing in the prohibited waters.
The minimum penalty of £1 each was imposed and the nets forfeited.

Mr. Keane—What about costs?
Justice—Costs of court.
The other summons was withdrawn.

Obstruction.
Guard Flanagan charged Denis Collins and James Kiely with causing an obstruction by fighting at Green Quay. Complainant said that Collins was trying to strike Kiely, who was defending himself. Collins had left the town.
The case against Kiely was dismissed and that against Collins was marked "no rule" as he had left the town.

Motor Case.
Mrs. Agnes Murphy, Tramore, was charged with dangerously driving a motor car through Friar street on the 20th ult.

Supt. Muldoon prosecuted and Mr. T. K. Keane defended.
Guard Nolan deposed that defendant was driving about 30 to 35 miles an hour. There was generally a lot of traffic at that season of the year, tourist and otherwise. On stopping her she said she didn't know at what speed she was driving, but admitted doing over 20.

Cross-examined by Mr. Keane, witness said Mrs. Murphy didn't say she was a stranger or that she didn't know the regulations.

To the Court, witness said that there were a number of people standing at the corners and outside the Picture Palace.

Mr. Keane said he had been instructed by the Automobile Association to appear for Mrs. Murphy. She stated that there was not a single person on the road. She said she was going about 28.

The Justice said he had no evidence that defendant had been driving recklessly or the danger of the public. He had to convict for exceeding the speed limit, but taking all the circumstances into account he would impose the nominal penalty of 10s.

Exemption Order.
Supt. Muldoon applied, on the representations of the local sergeant, for an area Exemption Order for the Sundays during the season. It had been granted last year, the hours being from 6.30 to 9.30.

The Justice granted an order for next Sunday from 8 to 9.30.

Sergt. Heaslip, Killeenagh, for Supt. O'Connor, Cappoquin, applied for an extension order for Lombard's, Newtown, owing to the sports on July 1st.
The Justice said the application was rather premature. He would hear it at next court.

Strange Case.
A boy named John Mahony, Cross lane, aged under 16, was charged with unlawfully breaking into the premises of Mr. Charles Terry, North Main st., on June 2nd with intent to commit a felony.

Supt. Muldoon prosecuted. The accused was not represented professionally.

The case was heard in camera.
Sergt. Shaughnessy deposed that he arrested the accused on Sunday, 3rd, on the charge specified. Having given the usual caution, defendant said he had nothing to say only what he told witness before. While in detention in the barracks the accused made a long statement to the effect that he had been sent into Mr. Terry's for paint brushes and other articles on that and some previous occasions.

The Justice said he thought it expedient to deal with the case summarily.
The accused and his father expressed consent to have the charge tried by that court.

Mr. Terry deposed that the premises were a lock-up shop. Since the middle of May he had been missing money and small articles. On the evening of June 2nd he got a friend—Mr. O'Connell—to stay in the place while he went to tea. When he returned about 7 o'clock Mr. O'Connell had young Mahony. The latter said that was his first time, and that he had come in by the window for a paint brush. He said he came by the back window and down the stairs.

Justice—Did you examine the window? Yes, he could lift it from the bottom; it was closed at 5 o'clock that evening. There was no catch on it. Some time ago it was fixed and could not be lifted. It had been tampered with from inside.

Mr. Terry asked him to remain in the shop, which was closed, while he went to his tea. While there he heard a noise and soon after young Mahony jumped down. Witness caught and held him till Mr. Terry returned.

The Justice said he saw no evidence of breaking—there was no fastening on that window. Therefore that charge must be dismissed. At the same time he warned the defendant and his father that he escaped only by the skin of his teeth in a technical matter of law, and that they should be more careful of his movements in the future. Had he been convicted he would have been sent to a reformatory for three years.

Mr. Reuben Hurst, North Main st. and Strand, was charged with aiding and abetting the defendant in the previous case.

Supt. Muldoon prosecuted and Mr. Wm. H. Hodnett defended.
Mr. Hodnett—What is the charge exactly?

Superintendent—The charge is that in or about the 16th, 21st and 30th May at Youghal you did aid, abet, counsel and procure John Mahony to enter the shop and place of business of Charles Terry for the purpose of committing a felony therein, namely, to steal a number of paint brushes, etc.

John Mahony, accused in previous case, deposed he was a messenger boy. About a fortnight before June 2nd Mr. Hurst sent him in to Mr. Terry's to get some paint brushes for him. This was in Hurst's yard. He went up a stairs in Mr. Hurst's house and into the lavatory, out through a window on to the lower thatch of Mr. Terry's. He opened the back window of Mr. Terry's, got in through the window, down to the stairs to the shop. He took four paint brushes and took 1s. 9d. out of the till. He went back the same way to Mr. Hurst's. It was about 10 o'clock then. He gave him the paint brushes. They both went to the end of the yard and Mr. Hurst put them into a small oil-house. He then went home. About five days after that Mr. Hurst asked him if he could get him a small and a big wrench. He went in again the same way. He went to the till first, but there was no money in it. He didn't look for the wrench. He went out the same way. It was about 7 o'clock in the evening. He didn't see Mr. Hurst till next day, when he told him he couldn't get the wrenches. The third time he went in was on a Wednesday evening about 4 o'clock when he went over Mr. Hurst's wall into Mr. Terry's yard. He mounted an oil shed and opened a small lower window. He took 2s. 3d. out of the till.

Mr. Hodnett—We're not charged with receiving money.
Witness, continuing, said he came out the same way. The next occasion was the following Friday night when he said the girl in the Strand shop wanted a brush and to know if he could get him one. Witness said he would get it the following night, Saturday. He went into Mr. Terry's by the lavatory, same as on the first occasion. Mr. Hurst was in his office at the time. He was going down Mr. Terry's stairs and he heard a voice saying "Stop where you are." When he looked around Jeff O'Connell was behind him.

While giving evidence the Justice cautioned him that he might incriminate himself, and witness said he understood.
Cross-examined by Mr. Hodnett, defendant said he left school when 10 years old to get a job as messenger boy. After leaving his last job he used to go in to Mr. Terry's where he got odd jobs. About two months ago he began going into Mr. Hurst's.

Mr. Hurst's door is always open? Yes.
Justice—That is next door to Terry's? Yes.
Cross-examination resumed—Nobody asked him in, but he gave a hand. The hole in the wall between Hurst's and Terry's was made two or three months ago. It was there all the time. He knew who made that hole, but he would not tell who it was.

You say you gave Mr. Hurst only four brushes—who put the other brushes, paint and distemper found there? I don't know. When handing the four brushes did you see the other things there? No, though I often looked in. For what? Curiosity. What did you expect to find? Nothing. You will be surprised to hear that all this stuff was found inside the shed with some sacking over it? I would, because I know nothing about it. Mr. Hurst was in his office when you went there on Saturday night, June 2nd? He was. Why did you bolt the lavatory door after you? I didn't. It could not be bolted from the outside? No. He didn't know it was bolted. His cap was not found on the lavatory floor. He had no conversation with Patrick Coomey about paints or brushes or things of that sort. If Coomey swears that about a month ago, you said to him "If you want cheap paints, come along to me," he will be taking a false oath? That is right, he will. If he swears that on a subsequent occasion you said to him, "If you want stuff why don't you come to me when Mr. Terry is at his dinner?" I never said such a thing. According to your direct evidence, in the several occasions you went in, you first went for the till? Not on the first occasion. I got the brushes first. And went to the till afterwards? Yes. He got nothing from Mr. Hurst, but was left into the pictures twice one week. He paid himself to go in the other times. He got about 4s. in the week from Mr. Terry. That was quite all right. If quite all right why did you take the money out of his till? I'd prefer not to answer that question. Was there another hole in the dividing wall? There was a brick out. Who took it out? I don't want to tell. Are you sheltering someone? No answer. Question repeated? I heard who took it out. But you prefer not to say who? Yes. He heard Mr. Hurst missed minerals, but he didn't take them. He didn't see Mr. Hurst before going into Mr. Terry's on the third occasion, Wednesday evening, but he saw him about 1 o'clock that day. Mr. Hurst didn't tell him to leave, but he went home to his dinner.

By the Court—He did odd jobs at Terry's for six months and was going into Hurst's for a month or two. Mr. Terry didn't send for him, but he used to go there every day. He made no bargain about pay. Mr. Terry had another boy. He gave the money he got to his mother. He had 6s. weekly at his previous job.

Justice—Will we go on any further with this case now?
Mr. Hodnett said that was a very serious charge. It had got notoriety throughout the town, and his client was anxious to have it decided. It was very hard on a man of Mr. Hurst's position to have such a case hanging over him.

Justice—I am satisfied that there is no use in sending this case for trial before a jury.

Mr. Hodnett—We must clear our character before the public, and Mr. Hurst would like the opportunity of going into the box and proving the absolute falsehood of that boy's story.

Justice—Is it not enough for Mr. Hurst that I am satisfied that a prosecution based on such unreliable evidence would be dismissed by any jury? From what I have heard of the cross-examination in this case and of the evidence in the previous one, I don't think there is any case Mr. Hurst could be held on to meet.

Mr. Hodnett—It is an absolute fabrication from beginning to end.

Mr. Reuben Hurst, sworn, said he was the owner of the Picture Palace in Friar street and of a shop on the Strand. He had only the rear portion and the top floor of the premises next to Mr. Terry's, in which he manufactured minerals and into which there was an entrance from the street. That entrance was practically always open and Mahony had a habit of coming in. He was never asked in nor to do anything. Previous to that occurrence one of his men complained that there was a hole in the dividing wall. He at once called Mr. Terry's attention to it.

To the Justice—It was just a brick removed. You could see from Mr. Terry's side into where the minerals were made.

Witness, resuming, said when he next saw Mahony about he told him to "hop it." He again saw him about on the Saturday evening in question. Having seen that his office was locked witness left for the Strand. When he returned Mr. Terry told him what had happened. He went upstairs and found the lavatory door bolted from the inside. The next thing they found was Mahony's cap on the floor. There was not a word of truth in the statement that he had procured or abetted Mahony in taking that stuff, he never received anything from him, nor told him to bring anything. On the following Sunday night Sergeant Shaughnessy examined the premises. The oil shed was locked and when opened it they found the hole looking in from Mr. Terry's. That was the first time he had seen it. Hidden inside they found two tins of distemper, 7 pots of paint, and he thought about 40 paint brushes. He could not account for how they came there. He had recently had all his premises painted. When Mr. Hodnett produced receipts for the purchase of focal and extra firm's see paint, etc., and had a quantity of stuff left over unused. Patrick Coomey, painter, detailed the work he had done for Mr. Hurst, and gave particulars of the paints, etc., used or left over. He always had his own brushes, so that Mr. Hurst had no occasion to get any. About the last week in April Mahony said to the witness, wanted any stuff he could get it cheap for him. Early in May while in Mr. Terry's shop Mahony handed him a 2-inch varnished brush while the assistant was out. Witness ordered him to put it back. Another time Mahony said to witness if he came into Mr. Terry's at dinner time he could give him things cheap. Last Saturday night he said he could prove where the distemper was got for the palace. He (witness) had never used any stolen stuff, least of all Terry's.

Mr. Hodnett said he had all Mr. Hurst's employees present. They knew nothing about the stolen stuff found inside the hole in the wall.

The Justice said the charge against Mr. Hurst rested entirely on the evidence of that boy Mahony. It sounded serious, but was very vague and boiled down actually to 4 paint brushes, which he took as described by himself. On Saturday, 2nd June, he took nothing because he didn't get a chance. Of course he had decided on hearing the boy's evidence that he would not be justified in punishing Mr. Hurst to the worry and expense of a trial. He said he went in as directed, but his first act was to go to the till for money—4s. 9d. on one occasion and 2s. 3d. on another. He (the Justice) was much struck by the unabashed manner in which, after causing that charge to be brought against Mr. Hurst, he gave evidence of his own thieving capacities and endeavoured to throw the blame over on Mr. Hurst. After hearing the case he was inclined to think that he had erred on the side of leniency by giving Mahony the benefit of a merely technical point of law, and he was not sure that by some amendment in the charge Mahony could not and should not have been convicted, especially as he had admitted other acts of larceny. He warned the boy and also his father that if there was the slightest departure by him from the strict law of honesty, and if brought before him, he would not deal with the case as a first offence, but would impose the maximum penalty of three years in a reformatory.

Informations against Mr. Hurst were refused.

Youghal Urban Council.

The final meeting of the present Urban Council was held on Thursday night. Present—Messrs. M. Whelan, chairman, J. R. Smyth, P.C., R. C. Farrell, A. J. Fowkes, J. Forrest, T. Curran, T. Harrington, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; J. Troy, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; M. J. Fleming, M. D. Broderick, W. J. Broderick.

Week's Wages, Etc.

On the proposition of Mr. Forrest, seconded by Mr. Harrington, a cheque for £63, wages and for week, was passed.

Motor Speed.

The following letter was read:—"Middleton, 18th June, 1928. Dear Mr. Walsh—Yours to hand re motor speed through our towns. I entirely agree with resolution passed by your council. Whatever may be said for motor speed through the country districts, there is no doubt but something must be done to protect pedestrians in the urban districts. I will bring your decision to the notice of the Minister for L.G. and you can rely on Messrs. Hennessy and Daly, T.D.s, also—Yours faithfully—E. Carey, T.D., Chairman—That is very satisfactory. Mr. O'Gorman said that cars were flying through the town now at 25 miles an hour.
 Mr. Smyth—Yes, and more.

Ferry Service.

Mr. O'Gorman said he had been asked to call attention to the very bad morning service on the Ferry. People had to wait sometimes till near 10 o'clock.
 The Clerk was directed to write to the lessee calling on him to comply with the terms of his agreement.

Valedictory.

Mr. McMahon said as that was their last meeting, he had very great pleasure in conveying their best wishes to their esteemed chairman after his term of office. They had been a happy family, and although he called a few of them to order now and again (laughter) he did it in a manner that was quite fatherly (hear, hear).
 Mr. O'Gorman endorsed Mr. McMahon's remarks. The council was a harmonious family, all the members co-operating. Many of them were leaving better friends after their three years of office than before (hear, hear). Their worthy chairman had given them every facility. If there was any fault to be found with him it was that he had been too scrupulous with the ratepayers' money (laughter). They were now facing the electors, again.

and he felt confident that practically every available member of the present board would meet around that table again. His only regret was that one of the best members of the council, Mr. Farrell, did not see his way to come forward again. He hoped they would see him amongst them again in the near future.
 Mr. Smyth supported the remarks of the previous speakers. In the words so well used they had been indeed a very happy family. No matter who filled that chair in the future he could say, without flattery to the chairman, their clerk and their colleagues, that they had set a headline for their successors to follow. He had to congratulate their capable chairman and worthy clerk on the manner in which the business had been conducted during their term. There had been occasionally a "storm in a teacup" (laughter), but it always ended harmoniously as it should. He sincerely regretted that the board would not have the benefit of the co-operation of their able colleague, Mr. Farrell, for the coming term.
 Mr. M. Broderick endorsed the remarks of the previous speakers regarding the conduct of the business and the loss the council would sustain by Mr. Farrell not coming forward, but he hoped to see him back again in the near future. He believed that the manner in which they had looked after the public interest could not be easily improved on. They would see some new faces in the new council filling the vacant chairs, but he hoped to see all the present members back again.

Mr. Harrington said, speaking for the North Ward, he could vouch for the return of the retiring members, and he was confident the representatives of the other wards could say the same for their areas. During the past three years he had received nothing but kindness and courtesy from the chairman, the clerk and his colleagues. He suggested that Mr. O'Gorman would now give them a verse or two of Tosti's "Goodbye" (laughter).
 A Councillor asked would not "Say Au Revoir" be more apropos? (laughter).
 The Chairman thanked the various speakers for their flattering remarks. He also wished to gratefully acknowledge the kindness, forbearance and co-operation he had always received from them. It had been well and truly said that they had been a happy family. If any little temporary heat arose it ended with the meeting. Everything done had been done by the council as a whole, and in the best interest of the ratepayers. His duties had been light for the council faithfully adhered to their past tradition for decorum and business-like conduct. It was with regret they had learned that their cap-

HUGE ROBBERY.

AMERICAN MAILS OPENED AND ROBBED.
 £100,000 TAKEN.

Scotland Yard Detectives, officers of the General Post Office, and the New York Police Department, have combined in conducting inquiries into the robbery from the mail bags brought to this country on Friday evening by the United States liner Leviathan.

It is believed that the total sum may exceed £100,000. Everything points to the crime as being the work of a daring and clever gang operating in New York.

It was so cleverly carried out that it was not detected until the mail bags were opened at the General Post Office, London, and various provincial post offices. It was then discovered that while, to all appearances, the actual mail bags were in perfect order the contents of many of them had been looted.

The thieves had worked so leisurely and so securely that they had not resorted to the common trick in mail robberies of substituting dummy packages for those stolen. They opened all the registered packages, took out whatever was of negotiable value, and then replaced the looted package, thus ensuring that there should be no appreciable alteration in the weight of the mail bag if by some chance such a test should be applied.

As a matter of fact mail bags are not tested in this way. They are examined frequently to ascertain if the registration seals are intact, and the mysterious part about this robbery is that the seals on the rifled bags are those which were placed in position in America. Experts declare that these seals would be impossible to reproduce without elaborate apparatus, the use of which at any point between New York and London would have led to instant detection.

Therefore, while making every possible inquiry and investigation in this country, the British police and Post Office detectives are inclined to the

She arrived at Southampton with 3,253 mail bags, which, from the moment they left New York post office until they were handed over to the British authorities, were under armed guard. In Southampton Docks there was nothing about the bags to arouse the suspicion of the British postal officials, nor was anything detected on the journey from the port to Waterloo by train. Royal Mail vans conveyed them from Waterloo to the General Post Office, and thence to the sorting offices for transmission to their final destination.

In the ordinary course one bag was opened at the Northern London office (Upper street, Islington), and then it was discovered that registered packages had been slit open and their contents extracted. The matter was reported immediately to the General Post Office, and it was at first assumed that simply one bag had been robbed, and on that supposition inquiries were set on foot.

When, however, a few hours later a message came from Bristol that a Leviathan bag received there had been similarly treated the matter assumed a more serious aspect, and as messages to the same effect came in from Manchester, Liverpool and Belfast, it became apparent that a robbery on a very large scale had been carried out.

"Just how big it is," said a Post Office official, "we are quite unable to say. We know that the contents of the registered packages were insured through the Post Office in the ordinary way, and we can tell from the figures at present available that the total sum is considerable, but that bears no relation to the real value, because the insurance effected this way is purely nominal to secure that packages shall be under guard during transit."

"The real insurance is effected through brokers, and what the total sum will prove to be can only be ascertained by careful inquiries, either from the sender or the addressee. This will take some days."

"In the meanwhile the lists of packages enclosed in the bags are being checked, and in those cases in which the packages, wrappers or envelopes are available inquiries are being made of the addressee as to the nature of the missing contents."

The magnitude of the task before the detectives can be imagined when it is recalled that the Leviathan's mail included registered packages not only from the United States, but also from Canada, Japan, Mexico, China, Barbadoes, Panama, Jamaica, Honduras, West Coast South America.

And if no other means is forthcoming inquiries will have to be made in each of these countries to ascertain the nature and value of the missing articles.

It is understood that for the most part the stolen property consists of jewellery, negotiable bonds and cheques.

It is clear that the thieves had ample time at their disposal, or a very intimate knowledge of the nature of the mail, for their booty was entirely selective. Some of the registered packages, although slit open, have not been rifled, as their contents could not be easily disposed of.

All this supports the theory of the English authorities that the robbery took place in New York before the sailing of the Leviathan, and at a time when the mails were being collected for despatch to this country.

It is known that the registered mail was placed by the New York Post Office in small sacks, which were sealed at the neck with seals that could not be replaced unless devices used by the authorities or very careful copies of them were employed. These were then placed into larger sacks containing general mail intended for the same sorting offices in England. These larger sacks were sealed in the same way.

Certain sorting operations were carried out by the postal staff on board the Leviathan, but these did not entail opening any of the bags concerned. This work, in addition, was carried out under very close supervision.

A full list of passengers of the Leviathan was obtained by Scotland Yard, and careful examination of every name is being made.

The bags were consigned as follows: 1,700 bags for London, 160 bags for Manchester, 140 bags for Liverpool, 130 bags for both Edinburgh and Glasgow, 120 bags for Birmingham, 100 bags for Belfast, 80 bags for Bristol, 60 bags for Dublin, and 633 to other towns throughout the country.

Kilmacthomas News.

A MODEST BRAVE.
It is reported that by the prompt action of a young fisherman, who refuses to divulge his identity, a drowning accident was narrowly averted at lake Conmishgan on last Sunday afternoon. The angler was pursuing his sport on the lake bank when he hooked a trout, and a number of children (belonging to a picnic party) playing near, dashed up to see the fish landed. One in the excitement got too near the edge and fell in and was soon in difficulty. The angler, it is said, plunged in, clothes and all, and brought the youngster ashore. When asked by a spectator of the incident for his name this plucky disciple of Isaac Walton refused to oblige, and departed further along the margin of the lake before his identity could be established.

THE FAIR.
Due to inclement weather conditions the monthly fair held on Tuesday was not supplied as extensively as was generally anticipated. Stores showing forward condition did well, others meeting with little if any demand; milch cows were in eager request, but the supply was very limited; sheep slow. Quotations—3 years, fat, £19 to £25; 2 years, £17 to £20; 1 year, £14 to £17; springing cows, £18 to £24; milch cows, £16 to £22; in-calf heifers, £16 to £18; fat sheep, 60s.; store sheep, 30s. to 35s.

CONFIRMATION IN STRADBALLY.
On Thursday, 28th inst., Most Rev. Dr. Hackett, Lord Bishop of the Diocese, attended at Stradbally Parish Church and examined the pupils presented by the teachers of the National Schools of the parish. The children concerned acquitted themselves splendidly, and confirmation tickets were gained by all. The solemn ceremony of administering the Sacrament of Confirmation was conducted in the aforementioned church by His Lordship the Bishop after the celebration of Holy Mass at 10 o'clock (old time) on this (Friday) morning. The clergy of the local and adjoining parishes assisted His Lordship throughout the august proceedings, which were witnessed with profound reverence by a very large congregation. A detailed account will be published on our next issue.

CAPITAL CONCERT COMEDY COMBINE AT DURROW HALL.
The highly-talented members of the Durrow Amateur Dramatic Class will contribute a capital concert comedy combine in the local hall on this (Friday) evening commencing at 8 o'clock sharp. With popular prices a capacity house should support this entertainment. The proceeds of the treat will be entirely devoted to the fostering of the ancient game of hurling in the district. A repeat performance will be given on the 5th prox.

Lismore Notes.

G.A.A.
At Lismore on Sunday last the Dungarvan Hurling Club defeated the Lismore Senior Hurling Club by 5 goals 1 point (16 points) to 3 goals 2 points (11 points) for the senior championship of the county. Mr. Pax Whelan, Dungarvan, Secretary Waterford County Board, was the referee. The game was a fast and interesting one. Two of the goals registered by Dungarvan were got rather easy, and Lismore had hard luck on many occasions. Their forwards were weak and lost several opportunities. Foley although injured early played a grand game for Dungarvan.

CRICKET.
The Lismore Cricket Club is once again being revived. At the moment a playing pitch is in readiness, and probably early next week cricket enthusiasts will be on an active service in the field. We are also informed that invitations from outlying Cricket Clubs have already arrived in Lismore.

Waterford County Board of Public Assistance.

WELL-DERVED TRIBUTES TO CHAIRMAN AND SECRETARY.

At the conclusion of the business of the monthly meeting of the County Board of Public Health held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Wednesday, 20th inst.

The Chairman (Mr. Conway) said as this was the last meeting of the old board and his last appearance at the meetings (as he was not going forward for election again) he wished to thank the members one and all who had given him such help during the past three years. He was elected chairman of the board three years ago and all he could say was that it was a pleasure to him to come here to do the business with the aid of such a body as the members of the Board of Assistance.

Mr. O'Gorman said he begged to propose a hearty vote of thanks to the Chairman for the able manner in which he conducted the business of this board during the past few years.

Mr. Drea seconded the vote of thanks to the Chairman.

Mr. Drea said he would not let this opportunity pass without proposing a sincere vote of thanks to their Secretary and all the officials under the board for the manner in which one and all discharged their duties.

Mr. Kiersey, in seconding, said he would not be far out in saying that the Waterford Board of Assistance and Public Health had the most painstaking and efficient secretary in all Ireland.

Mr. O'Gorman—I wish to endorse all the remarks made by Mr. Kiersey. The Chairman said he was associated with Mr. Flynn, secretary, since he was 19 years of age when he began his public career, and all he wished to say was that the members appointed on the boards to which Mr. Flynn was secretary need not worry while they have his efficient advice. He also wished to thank Mr. Phelan, Superintendent Assistance Officer, for the able manner in which he discharged his difficult duties.

Secretary—I am very much obliged to the members for the nice things said about me and the staff, and on behalf of all the officials I wish to thank you sincerely. I was always treated with the utmost courtesy by the members one and all.

Mr. Phelan, Superintendent, also returned thanks to the members.
