DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT.

INTERESTING CASES.

Before Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C.

Sheehan v. Doyle.
 This was an action by John Sheehan against Denis Doyle, Assistant County Surveyor, for possession of a house on applicant's land, which is known as Kilmoran House, Russelstown.

Mr. McNery, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan) for applicant. Mr. Esmonde, B.L. (instructed by Mr. O'Reilly, solr., Clonmel) defended.

Rev. M. J. Sheehan, brother of applicant, deposed to purchasing the lands for his brother at a cost of £2,480 on 25th October, 1929. There were a family of five unmarried still, and the family agreed the place should be put in witness's name. He then leased the place to his brother, and it is his intention to hand the place over when the brother would settle down. Witness had another brother at Ruska Farm, Cahir. He had several conversations with defendant (Mr. Doyle), who told him he did not intend to stay in the house. Ruska House is nine or ten miles away, and there is no other place where his brother could live. He had to come to Kilmoran practically every day and take his meals with him or go into Clonmel for them. It was his brother's intention to get married as soon as he got the house. Defendant had offices in Clonmel. Witness's brother notified him of some houses which were available in the residential part of Clonmel. His brother had to come from Ruska House to Kilmoran House on a push bicycle or a pony and trap.

By Mr. Esmonde, B.L.—The lands were purchased by Mr. Farrell, solr., for witness's brother and then there was a family agreement whereby the lands were transferred to me as I wanted to look after the rest of the family. Mr. Doyle told me at one interview that he did not intend to remain in the house as it was damp. He had various interviews with Mr. Doyle up to March. The herd's house was occupied by a farmer for thirty years. The house occupied by Mr. Doyle is the bigger of the two.

J. F. Walsh, C.E., gave evidence of drawing the maps and taking the photos of both houses produced. The out-offices surrounded the herd's house and there was only a paddock dividing the bungalow from the out-offices. From Ruska House to Kilmoran House is 9 1/2 miles.

By Mr. Esmonde, B.L.—The herd's house could not be described as a farm house. In his opinion anything short of reconstruction would not make it fit for habitation.

John Sheehan deposed he was plaintiff in the case and lived presently at Ruska House, about ten miles away. He goes nearly every day to Kilmoran by bike or pony and trap. He had a herd living in farmyard. His present stock on the farm was about 100 head of cattle. It was his intention to run it as a dairy farm. He cannot work it to his satisfaction now. He made inquiries about the house in Clonmel for defendant. Witness was in a position to get married if he had the house.

By Mr. Esmonde—The herd was a stranger to witness. He got his through an advertisement. No expenditure of money would make the herd's house nice. Witness would not like the situation as the yard was bounded by the graveyard.

Mr. Esmonde said his client was an Assistant Surveyor for the northern part of the county and was a married man with two children. He took this house in 1928 and has since spent a lot of money in repairs, etc., and what his Lordship would have to consider was the greater hardship, and he respectfully submitted the greater hardship would be on his client.

Mr. D. Doyle deposed he came to live in the Bungalow in 1928. It was built by a Mr. Mulcahy and was intended to be a two-storey house, but was never finished. Under the terms of his appointment he was supposed to live in this area.

To his Lordship—He had not the terms of his appointment in court, but the Secretary of the County Council would have them. He spent roughly about £100 repairing the place. He remembered Fr. Sheehan coming to him and he told Fr. Sheehan he would give up the house if he got one to suit him equally as well. The herd's house was always the official farmhouse of the Butlers. He made inquiries, but could not get a suitable house.

By Mr. McNery, B.L.—He made an effort to get the house mentioned in Clonmel. He never inspected the houses, but made inquiries. The man living in the herd's house is only a blind, as it is another man who is minding the cattle. He never saw that man working. He heard what Mr. Walsh stated at the last court. Mr. Walsh came up here and perjured himself.

Mr. McNery—Is that what you say Mr. Fogarty, C.E., deposed to preparing plans of the herd's house and the Bungalow. The herd's house in his opinion was the farm house and could be put into a habitable condition for £137. He inspected the Bungalow and Mr. Doyle pointed out the repairs carried out by him, which he estimated at a cost of about £100.

By Mr. McNery—He had no personal knowledge that Mr. Doyle spent £100 on repairs. It was only what he told me.

Mr. J. Ormonde, B.E., deposed to inspecting both houses. He agreed with the estimates given by the previous witness.

To his Lordship he said as a farmer he would be inclined to live in the herd's house as it was more suitable, but as a man he would prefer the Bungalow (laughter).

His Lordship, summing up, said—It is regrettable that Mr. Doyle should make the suggestion that Mr. Walsh, an honourable solicitor in Clonmel, committed perjury at the last court. It is positively shocking coming from a man in Mr. Doyle's position. Mr. Walsh gave his evidence true and right, and the suggestion made by Mr. Doyle could not help his case in any way. As regards the arrangement made by the Sheehan family, it was a perfectly proper arrangement. He would therefore grant a decree for possession with a stay until April 1st.

Motor Collision.—Hayes v. Oderna.
 This was an action brought by Jas. Hayes, junior, Main street, Dungarvan, against Mr. Oderna, Waterford, for £100, the outcome of a collision between cars driven by defendant and plaintiff in September last at Kilmillen, Dungarvan. There was a counter-claim by defendant for loss and damages.

Mr. Budd, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Williams, solr.) for plaintiff. Mr. Connolly, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Farrell, solr.) defended.

Mr. Ormonde, B.E., produced a map of the scene of the accident. The road from fence to fence is 34 ft. wide with a sharp dip of about 4 ft. on the right-hand side. There was a view of about 100 yards coming from the Waterford side. He travelled over that road the same night. It was a bright moonlight night.

By Mr. Connolly—He visited the scene of the accident on January 6th and was accompanied by Mr. Hayes. There were chips on the roadside on the night of the accident, but they were not out 4 ft. on the road.

James Hayes deposed he was a motor mechanic. He was an expert driver and was chief demonstrator at Mr. Summerfield's Garage, Dublin. On the night of the accident he was travelling with two companions—O'Neill and Carroll—from Dublin. He was driving a Renault car. They left Dublin at about 5.15 p.m. They had one stop at Carlow, and when about two miles outside Kilkenny witness had to re-time the engine. Then at Carrick they got a puncture, and as the spare wheel was also punctured they had to pump up about every mile. The night was as bright as day. It was exceptionally bright. He had no lights on until he came to dark patches of the road when he switched them on. He switched on the lights when approaching Dalligan bridge. At the Dungarvan side he saw the lights of a car coming down the hill about 700 yards. Witness switched off his light at about 100 yards. He noticed the car on the wrong side of the road when he was 150 yards away. The lights on defendant's car were very bright. The defendant's light should be on his car. Witness thought defendant would pull out, and when about 50 yards witness applied the brakes and was nearly stopped. Witness's car was only about 4 ft. from the fence for about 50 yards. His car was absolutely ruined; it is not repairable. He bought the car for £60. He valued it now at £100 as he had fitted new cylinders and had it painted. Witness suffered from shock and bruises to his hands and legs. The car was painted white. The road was tarred.

By Mr. Connolly—He drove a car through Dublin without lights at 1 a.m. on the Stillorgan road. He never drove in London without lights. He agreed it was a big risk to take a car without lights. He stopped at the Royal Hotel, Carlow; at a garage in Kilkenny, and McGrath's at Carrick. He left Carrick at 11 p.m. After leaving he put his lights out. He met no car coming from Carrick. He put them on three or four times after leaving Carrick, the last time about 50 yards at the other side of Dalligan bridge. He switched them off about 150 yards from defendant's car. Witness thought defendant drove deliberately into his car. Witness had one headlight and a side light. As far as he remembered he said there was a flicker on his lights. He had a tail light. He made a statement to the sergeant, who was a witness. The reason he drove from Carrick without lights was it was so dark. In the District Court he meant that he drove the car from Carrick until he came to a dark portion of the road. Witness was travelling uphill at the time. He had a view of 150 yards. When defendant was about 50 yards away he put on the brakes. At the time of the collision he was still going. He did not put on the lights or blow his horn. At the Waterford side of where the accident happened there is a stone fence about 6 ft. high. There is a slight curve where the accident occurred. Mr. Oderna challenged me about lights, but witness did not say they were blown out. A bad connection caused the flicker in the lights. The road was perfectly dry, but he could see tracks that night. It was he brought the Guards. Witness was about next day with a stick.

By Mr. Budd—After the accident witness put Mr. Carroll on a fence. There was a stream inside.

To his Lordship—He saw Oderna's car at about 150 yards on his wrong side of the road going fast and witness did not blow his horn or show his lights as he thought anything would not happen.

Serjt. O'Donnell deposed it was a grand moonlight night. It could not be brighter. Witness was brought out by Mr. Sheehan, Dungarvan. Oderna's car was on the wrong side and Hayes's car was well in on its proper side. The collision was a head-on one. Witness examined the tracks and found for about 60 yards Oderna's car ran about 4 ft. out from the grass margin. He traced Hayes's back for 15 or 16 yards. The curve on the road is very slight. Witness without lights could see the car plainly at about 60 yards.

By Mr. Connolly—He did not come on the scene until 1 1/2 hours afterwards. He had ascertained that other cars passed there during that time. Witness did not examine the fences. He took a statement from defendant and Mr. Hayes. Witness asked plaintiff about lights and he said he had no lights. He did not say he had them on 150 yards from the car. He said he put them on in Carrick and Leamybrien.

Mr. Oderna said he saw no lights on the other car. There is a slight bend on the road. The road was quite bright. Hayes's car was painted white. He saw the tracks of both cars by the aid of the headlights of Mr. Sheehan's car. Oderna told witness he was coming along and he saw an object and swerved to the right.

James Keohan deposed to taking the photos produced. He was accompanied by Mr. Oderna.

Mr. O'Riordan, C.E., deposed to drawing the map produced. The scene of the accident was pointed out to him by Mr. Oderna. In the vicinity there were gorse fences, furze bushes and white thorn. The road was 33 ft. from fence to fence. They reconstructed the accident on a bright night and they could see the car without lights at 60 yards.

Mr. Oderna, defendant, deposed he was a Sicilian by birth and was a musician by profession and lived six years in the county. He was living in Waterford with his wife. On the night in question he finished his classes at Old Parish. When coming up the Pike Hill accompanied by Mr. O'Shea and Mr. Chippington about 150 yards from the Pike he passed an object on the road and stopped. They went back and found it was a dead dog. When proceeded he noticed a few donkeys and he had to get over on his right side. He then came back on the crown of the road. Going further down he noticed that heaps of chips were on his left side. He was about 10 or 12 feet from the car when he saw the headlights of the car. He was going about 20 m.p.h. He thought by the impact that if he was going faster than Hayes's car he would be heavier.

By Mr. Budd—The new Ford's are pretty fast. They would go up to 60 or 65 m.p.h. if you wished to risk your life. When witness saw the object, which he thought were more donkeys, he pulled across and decreased his speed. His lights should show 100 yards, but owing to the curve it did not take in the other car. The Ford was bought in March for £240. The bill for repairs was paid. He purchased a second-hand car for £12 and another car. He sold the second-hand car for £5.

Mr. O'Shea deposed to meeting donkeys after going over the crest of Pike Hill, and after going further there was a white object, and almost simultaneously the collision occurred. He saw no lights.

By Mr. Budd—He saw the white object in the middle of the road.

J. A. Lynch deposed he lived about 400 yards from the scene of the accident. He brought Mr. Oderna to Leamybrien. He had only his headlights on. The road was perfectly white and there were chips on the side of the road.

By Mr. Budd—The visibility was perfect.

His Lordship held that both were equally responsible for the accident and dismissed both actions.

CLAIMS FOR HORSE'S DEATH.

RATE COLLECTOR'S APPLICATION.

The adjourned special meeting of the County Council was held on Tuesday. Mr. John Kiersey, chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. G. J. Greene, D. Coughlan, M. F. Walsh, P. J. Fox, M. McGrath, M. O'Ryan, P. Fitzgerald, J. Butler, T. Shipsey, P. Cunningham, M. O'Brien, J. Halloran, M. Keane, W. Stack, J. Kirwan and D. Heskin.

Horse Killed.—Claim Against Council.—Liability Denied.
 Mr. M. Condon, Mitchel street, Dungarvan, wrote that at 8.10 a.m. on 9th January while engaged at his work his horse fell on the Causeway owing to the slippery condition of the surface of the road and had to be destroyed. That road has always been treated with sand in frosty weather, but on that particular morning it was not so treated. He was a workman doing general carting. The value of the animal was £15, and he trusted the council would forward him a cheque for that amount.

Mr. Greene said if the council were liable it would be a big question as cattle had been killed going to fairs at Carrick and Clonmel.

The question was referred to Mr. McCoy, solr., who at a later stage stated that in his opinion the council were not liable. The accident occurred at 8.10 a.m. and it was quite possible that frost came on that night and there was no opportunity for the council sanding the road. There was no obligation on the council to put sand on the road. That claim for £15 was one which he would not advise the council to pay.

An order was made that the council did not accept liability in the case.

Assistant Librarian.
 Mr. O'Ryan moved his motion that an Assistant Librarian be appointed for 12 months as recommended by the Libraries Committee.

Mr. Heskin—At the time the Librarian was appointed he stopped the local and daily papers to the libraries in Lismore, Cappoquin, etc.

Chairman—The Libraries Committee dealt with that and the papers are to be supplied as usual.

Mr. Heskin—And why were they stopped?

The Chairman seconded the motion, which was passed unanimously.

The Secretary said the L.G.D. had written that the terms of the appointment should be approved by the Ministry.

Mr. O'Ryan—We will refer it to the Library Committee and they will draw up the terms.

Secretary—It is the County Council must fix the salary and make the appointment.

Mr. Stack—Maybe he would not have any Irish. We must know his qualifications.

It was suggested that the matter be referred to the Library Committee to suggest the salary, name the subjects required, assign duties, etc.

Secretary—He must be a typist and a motor driver.

Mr. O'Ryan proposed they empower the Finance Committee to deal with it.

Mr. Greene—That would not be right. We represent the ratepayers and it is they will have to pay and we must see whether the 1d. in the 4d. will go in salaries or to benefit the public. I would suggest that the salary be £100.

Chairman—I think that would be on the small side unless the person appointed happened to be a Lismore man.

Eventually the council recommended a salary not to exceed £130 a year.

Mr. Greene said he would suggest that the Library Committee lay before the next meeting their estimate of the cost of administration and how much would be available for the public for books.

Mr. O'Ryan said there was no reason for being so suspicious.

Mr. Greene—We are not suspicious at all.

Mr. Stack—You won't see a library here in 12 months. It won't last.

Railing at Ardmore.
 Mr. Keane moved that the railing erected opposite Mr. Martin Hurley's house at Ardmore be left stand, and that an order made at the previous meeting be rescinded.

Chairman—What is the difference between this and the case recently at Kilmacthomas?

Mr. Bowen said assuming the council gave the permission asked for, it would be non-effective. Such railings could not be put up. He would ask the council to consult their legal adviser as to what their powers were in such cases.

Mr. Halloran said there was an old wall there and it was moved out seven or eight inches from the wall. It was not worth the bother of taking down the railing now. There was a ganger on the road at the time and he was asked to get Mr. Bowen's permission. It was nearly six months before any information was got and it was thought the permission was granted. Later Mr. Ormonde came along and stopped it, but it was too late.

On a show of hands the motion was passed by a majority.

Land Purchase.
 Mr. Walsh moved that they request the Government to take the necessary steps to complete land purchase in the Co. Waterford and relieve the tenants of the burden of interest they are paying in lieu of rent, and that copies of this resolution be sent to the T.D.'s.

Mr. Greene seconded.

Mr. O'Ryan—It should be done years ago.

Mr. Walsh—It is done in the County Cork and there is no reason why it should not be done in the Co. Waterford.

Audit Fees.
 Mr. O'Ryan drew attention to the amount of fees charged for auditing the accounts of the County Council—£500.

The Secretary said it was a 5 1/2 years' audit. An ordinary audit lasts three weeks, but that audit lasted six or seven months.

The spaces for parking motors at Tramore to relieve congestion as suggested by the Chief Superintendent of the Guards was referred to Mr. Bowen to deal with it.

As to the preservation of National Monuments under a recent Act of the Oireachtas, Mr. Stack suggested they adjourn the matter for 12 months.

Mr. O'Ryan suggested they consult Very Rev. Canon Power, U.C., Cork, and get his views on the matter. He was an eminent archaeologist.

On the Brink of War.
 Arising out of consideration of a resolution from Dundalk calling on public bodies to store corn in vacant stores, etc., to meet possible contingencies.

Mr. O'Ryan said they were on the brink of war and they should take notice of it.

Chairman—We have vacant stores all over the country.

Mr. O'Ryan—Something should be done. It is no laughing matter.

Rate Collector's Application.
 Mr. Ryan, solr., acting for Mr. Wm. Connors, Park, Stradbally, rate collector for Lismore and Cappoquin districts, applied for an increase in his poundage from 4d. in the £ to 7 1/2d. as paid to the other collectors.

Mr. O'Ryan—I object as at the time of his appointment the question of the poundage was raised.

Chairman—I did not agree with it at the time.

Rate Collector's Application.
 Mr. Ryan, solr., acting for Mr. Wm. Connors, Park, Stradbally, rate collector for Lismore and Cappoquin districts, applied for an increase in his poundage from 4d. in the £ to 7 1/2d. as paid to the other collectors.

Mr. O'Ryan—I object as at the time of his appointment the question of the poundage was raised.

Chairman—I did not agree with it at the time.

Mr. Greene—Circumstances have changed very much since.

Chairman—The usual course would be to refer it to the Finance Committee and it would then come again before the council.

Mr. Halloran—I know when Mr. Connors took the position the poundage was too low. I would be for fixing something fair, but not the full amount as if we did that we will have the other man who offered to do the work at the time for 4d. writing to the Press and exposing us. I would not be for giving him much.

Mr. Heskin—I propose we adjourn it to the end of the financial year.

Mr. Halloran—No doubt he took it with a view to an increase later on. It looks very strange he has only 4d. while the other collectors have 7 1/2d.

Chairman—They get 7 1/2d. on certain conditions.

Mr. Halloran—But another man at the time offered to do it for 4d. I would be inclined to give him 5d. or 5 1/2d.

Mr. Heskin—Adjourn it until the collection is closed.

Answering Mr. O'Ryan, Mr. Halloran said the Librarian was to do all the work for £250 a year and there was no word about an assistant at the time.

The Chairman said this matter could only come before them by notice of motion to rescind the order already made.

Mr. Halloran said they should discuss it where they were.

Mr. Greene said this was rushed on them and they should not proceed too precipitately.

Mr. Halloran—Recently Mr. O'Ryan moved a resolution to reduce salaries, but I was not here that day. Another man—Mr. Walsh—offered to take this rate collectorship at 4d. poundage, and if we now give an increase he (Walsh) will write to the Press and expose us.

Mr. Heskin—Maybe he would do it again at the same price.

Mr. O'Ryan proposed they mark it read, and Mr. Keane seconded.

Chairman—My proposal is to refer it to the Finance Committee for report. Mr. Greene seconded.

On a show of hands it was decided to refer it back to the Finance Committee.

Mr. Heskin—If Mr. Connors cannot do it for 4d. why not give Walsh a trial?

DEATH OF MR. MICHL KEATING, COMERAGH.
 We regret to announce the death of Mr. Michael Keating, Comeragh, which occurred at his residence on Monday last after a brief illness and fortified by the rites of Holy Church.

The late Mr. Keating was a general favourite with everybody, and in his young days was a prominent footballer and did his bit to uphold the honour of his native parish when it led the I.R.A. movement, and who in the dark days fought so hard for the freedom of their country and gave their lives in defence of the principles they had at heart. The loss of his two sons was a severe blow to him, but he bore it bravely like the patriotic Irishman he was, and in his trial he had the sympathy of the public at large. Of a gentle disposition and quiet manner, the deceased was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him, and today deep sympathy is extended to his bereaved wife and family in their great loss. R.I.P.

On Tuesday evening the remains were removed from Comeragh to the Parish Church, Kilmossanty. The cortege was one of the largest ever seen in the district, and was attended by sympathisers from near and far. There was a big muster of the old-time comrades of the sons of the deceased in the I.R.A., as also of other national movements with which they were associated, and was in keeping with the esteem in which the deceased and the members of his family are held. At the church gates the remains were received by the Very Rev. W. J. Kehoe, P.P.

On Wednesday morning there were Requiem Masses for the repose of his soul after which the interment took place in the adjoining graveyard. The attendance of the general public at the interment was again very large and representative.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Keating (wife); William, John and Michael Keating (sons); Mrs. McCarthy Bridget, Margaret and Lena (daughters); Thomas Keating (brother); Mrs. Galvin, Lyre; Mrs. Cullinan, Curra-baha; and Miss B. Keating (sisters); Jack, Michael, Patrick and Thomas Keating (grandsons); W. and J. Keating and D. O'Reilly (nephews); Mrs. Hassett, Kildoonney, and Mrs. J. Walsh, Coolnasmar (nieces); Mrs. W. Keating (daughter-in-law); J. McCarthy Skeehers (son-in-law); W. Galvin, Lyre (brother-in-law).

WHIST DRIVE JOLLIFICATION.

WHEN IS SINGING RIOTIOUS?

Held on Monday, before Mr. J. S. Troy, D.J.

Supt. O'Shea charged Mr. Michael Brennock, Square, Dungarvan, trustee for Mr. John O'Carroll, Square—a minor—with a breach of the Licensing Act on December 12th.

Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., defended. Sergt. O'Shea said on the night of December 12th he entered the licensed premises of O'Carroll's, The Square, and found two young men with John O'Carroll there.

Cross-examined by Mr. Williams—There was no concealment of any kind. The men said they had been at the Church street Club at a Drive and won a hamper.

Mr. Williams said Carroll invited them to his house and they were his guests, but he was wrong to have them in the bar, and they would plead guilty to that.

The Clerk produced the court books showing a previous conviction against the premises.

His Worship imposed a fine of £2 not to be recorded. The two men found on the premises were fined 2s. 6d. each.

Sequel to Whist Drive.—Singing Riotiously.

Mrs. Egan, Hotel, Dungarvan, was charged by Supt. O'Shea for an offence under the Licensing Act on the night of the 19th December and with permitting riotous conduct on her premises.

Mr. Williams, solr., appeared for Mrs. Egan, and Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., defended the men found on the premises.

Sergt. O'Shea said on the 19th December he was on duty in the town. He was on the Square at midnight and noise in O'Connell street attracted his attention.

Superintendent—What kind of singing was it? Witness—it was very loud singing together. I would nearly describe it as shouting.

Mr. Farrell maintained that singing was not riotous conduct. Mr. Troy asked if the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" in the morning after a dance in the Town Hall with all the parties having joined their hands and some of them thumping on the floor would not be riotous?

Supt. O'Shea—A dance hall would not be a licensed premises. Mr. Troy said he would dismiss the summons for riotous conduct. As to the holding of the Drive in these premises, whether there was permission or an assumed permission, it was very unfair to allow a breach of the Licensing Act.

Unstamped Bottles. Sergt. Falvey, Inspector Weights and measures, summoned Mr. Martin, Manager, R. A. Merry and Co., Ltd., for having six bottles unstamped.

Cross-examined by Mr. Williams (for defendant)—Only 1 per cent. of the bottles were unstamped. Merry's did a big trade and sent him 100,000 dozen bottles for stamping.

Mr. Williams said his clients had done all they could to comply with the law. Mr. Troy—If these six bottles were broken it would be all right. This occurred during Xmas week when the firm were extra busy and sent out over 2,000 dozen bottles.

Alleged Light Bread. Sergt. Falvey summoned C. Casey, driver of O'Brien's breadvan, and also Mr. O'Brien, baker, Waterford, with selling bread at the Pike that was light in weight.

A Serious Charge. Supt. O'Shea charged Patrick Sheehan, Killongford, Dungarvan, with attempted rape. Mr. Farrell, solr., defended.

Mr. Farrell—Why did you go to the trouble of bringing out the remarks made by one of the party? I am quoting facts.

As to the remarks made to the sergeant and objected to by Mr. Farrell, Mr. Troy said the man who made them was half-seas over at the time and wanted to do the buffoon.

Mr. Farrell—Did you know these men? Witness—I knew the majority of them.

Mr. Farrell—Were they all respectable men? Mr. Troy—What do you call a respectable man?

Mr. Farrell—They are not the type of men who cause the Guards trouble? Witness—No.

Mr. Troy—That is the Guard's definition of a respectable man. Guard Straine corroborated and said when he went into the bar there was no appearance of any drink around.

Mr. Williams said he was instructed to plead guilty to the charge of having men on the premises, but not to the charge of permitting riotous behaviour. The class of men who frequent Egan's Hotel give the Guards no trouble.

Guard Straine corroborated and said when he went into the bar there was no appearance of any drink around. Mr. Williams said he was instructed to plead guilty to the charge of having men on the premises, but not to the charge of permitting riotous behaviour.

Mr. Williams—The Whist Drive that evening did not begin at 8.30 as intended, and it was not over until 11 o'clock. It was Mrs. Egan's friends were there.

There was no sign of drink either. He could find no definition of what riotous behaviour in a publichouse meant. Only one man was singing and the others joined in the chorus. This singer has only two songs in his repertoire.

Mrs. Egan said there was a conviction against her premises in 1923. On this particular night she ran a Whist Drive. It started at 8.30, but did not finish until 12.50 as they had not the crowd expected.

As people were knocked out in the drive they went home. There was some drink supplied after hours, but not after the final was played. There was no one drunk on the premises that night. They had not enough drink taken. Only one man was singing and the others joined in the chorus, but there was no shouting.

This man that was singing has only two songs. To Mr. Williams—And he keeps on singing them. There was no horse-play or fighting in the hotel that night. They were all friends.

By Supt. O'Shea—The men were not noisy and it was not unfair to the people living next door. Superintendent—You understand you can hold no more Whist or 45 Drives.

On behalf of the men, Mr. Farrell said his clients were charged on three counts, but that which charged them with aiding and abetting in the commission of riotous conduct was more than a summons, as it was a public insult. These men are generally well behaved, but this was a slight lapse.

He asked if singing constituted riotous conduct? Riotous conduct was always something that led to a breach of the peace.

Mr. Troy—If the singing were really bad it would lead to a breach of the peace. Mr. Farrell maintained that singing was not riotous conduct.

Mr. Troy asked if the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" in the morning after a dance in the Town Hall with all the parties having joined their hands and some of them thumping on the floor would not be riotous?

Supt. O'Shea—A dance hall would not be a licensed premises. Mr. Troy said he would dismiss the summons for riotous conduct. As to the holding of the Drive in these premises, whether there was permission or an assumed permission, it was very unfair to allow a breach of the Licensing Act.

It was a mean thing and an abuse of privilege if it were given. Sergt. O'Shea showed great forbearance in not going in for such a long time. He fined the publican £2, not to be recorded, and the men found on the premises were fined 2s. 6d. each.

Unstamped Bottles. Sergt. Falvey, Inspector Weights and measures, summoned Mr. Martin, Manager, R. A. Merry and Co., Ltd., for having six bottles unstamped.

Sergt. Falvey said he found on the defendant's lorry, which contained 30 dozen bottles, that six bottles were unstamped. Subsequently one of the bottles was found to be stamped under the label.

Cross-examined by Mr. Williams (for defendant)—Only 1 per cent. of the bottles were unstamped. Merry's did a big trade and sent him 100,000 dozen bottles for stamping.

Mr. Williams said his clients had done all they could to comply with the law. Mr. Troy—If these six bottles were broken it would be all right. This occurred during Xmas week when the firm were extra busy and sent out over 2,000 dozen bottles.

A fine of 1s. per bottle was imposed. Mr. Troy—It is a dangerous practice to be holding Whist Drives in a hotel.

Mr. Williams—Mrs. Egan got special permission to hold them from Chief Superintendent O'Meara. Witness said the singing was riotous and the interruptions were also riotous.

Cross-examined by Mr. Farrell—I had no difficulty in hearing the singing at 100 yards. I raided Bransfield's at 12.50.

To Mr. Troy—I was not going in, but they made me go in. Some of the men had considerable drink taken. You would not say they were drunk? No, but they were well on.

Mr. Farrell—Why did you go to the trouble of bringing out the remarks made by one of the party? I am quoting facts.

being committed. You said for the loaf and you knew what you were getting.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Connor—The scales were tested the previous month and were accurate. If the six loaves weighed 12 lbs. what would be your action? There would be no offence.

Witness (to Mr. Troy)—I saw the lorry put up at Mrs. Guiry's door and put a hand of bread on the counter. I asked the boy what was the weight of each loaf and he said 2 lbs. I then weighed each of the four loaves and found them as stated.

Mr. O'Connor said Mr. O'Brien, who had one of the largest bakeries in Ireland, always allowed 5½ ozs. extra for soakage.

Mr. Troy said if there was a shortage in the weight the sergeant paid for it with his eyes open and prevented an offence being committed. He dismissed the case.

An Alibi. Guard Hannon, Ballinamult, summoned Mce. Fraher, Coolnasmea, with having no light on his trap. Mr. Williams, solr., defended.

Guard Hannon gave evidence of the offence, which occurred at 7.40 p.m. It was dark at the time. The horse was dark-coloured. Later Fraher denied he was out with the pony and trap that night and said he could get witnesses to prove it.

The Guard said he was in Kilbrien that day and his wife said she was the cause of keeping him late. He was not Maurice Fraher, Bohadoun.

Mce. Fraher, Coolnasmea, said he was not there that night and did not meet the Guard. He had a chestnut pony and a yellow trap.

To the Guard—I never before saw you. You never met me in your life. I have friends in Kilbrien and I keep sheep on the mountain at Coumraghlin.

Mr. Troy—Was not your wife with you that night? Witness—She was not there at all.

Mr. Troy—You are either very smart or very innocent and I will give you the benefit of the doubt. Sent to Industrial School.

On the application of Guard Regan, two young lads named Stephen Butler and John Dunne, who would not go to school and who had got out of control, were ordered to be sent to Greenmount Industrial School.

Garda Cases. In the case of Sergt. O'Shea v. John Flynn, Carriglea, for being drunk and disorderly, Mr. Farrell said Flynn and O'Donnell had a dispute at the Circuit Court over a tree, but they were all the best of friends again and no more would be heard about it.

A big number of cases for no lights, etc., were disposed of and the usual fines inflicted. Transfer of License.

Mrs. Elsted, Ballinacourty, was granted a transfer of the license held by her late husband.

Abusive Language. Mrs. O'Donnell, Slane Lane, Abbey-side, prosecuted Mary Power, same address, for abusive language on the 22nd December.

Mr. Williams, solr., for complainant, and Mr. Farrell, solr., defended. Complainant deposed to the abusive language on the date in question.

When defendant got the summons she came up and went on her knees and cursed witness and her children.

By Mr. Farrell—Witness got on with the people in the lane. They were not all at her. She denied it was she that started it all. She never sent her husband to break defendant's door.

Her husband was drunk on that occasion and defendant had to bring a Guard over. Witness never interfered with defendant.

Mrs. Havens deposed to seeing the complainant and defendant talking. When she joined them they were arguing.

Mary Power, defendant, deposed to being booed by complainant's children as she was going in the door, and she asked complainant what she was laughing at. She used no bad language, and there was no bad language used on this occasion.

She brought no witness as the rest of the neighbours were too decent to mix with us (laughter). The whole lane was down on her.

By Mr. Williams—She did her best to get a house out of that lane. She would go up the mountain to live if she could get a house out of it (laughter).

Justice—She would leave complainant alone if she would let her alone (laughter). The case was adjourned for one month.

License for Dance. Mr. Farrell, solr., was granted an occasional license from 11 p.m. to 4 a.m. on the occasion of the Three Clubs Dance in the Town Hall on February 3rd.

Adjourned Larceny Case. The adjourned case against young boys from the town who were at a previous court charged with a number of larcenies was again called. One of defendants (Lewis), the Justice said, was too old to be sent to a Reformatory and he made up his mind to give him another chance before sending him to a Borstal Institution.

He would adjourn the case for three months and give the parents time to save up to repay for the articles taken.

Cappoquin Notes.

A WELCOME IMPROVEMENT.

Those who have been in the habit of visiting the local Carnegie Free Library at night time for the purpose of reading the newspapers have often complained of the dim and sickly light produced by the oil lamps, but the efficient caretaker could not be held responsible for this grievance, as she could only light the old-fashioned lamps placed at her disposal by the Libraries Committee, and which have now long gone past their period of utility.

Thanks to the timely action of Messrs. R. J. Collender and M. F. Walsh, Cappoquin, who suggested at a recent meeting of the County Libraries Committee that the library be installed with electric light from the Shannon scheme, the work of installing the new lights will be taken in hand without delay, so that reading in the library, instead of being a torture, will be a pleasure to all.

THE "DR. HACKETT CUP."

The Billiards Tournament which had been in progress in the C.Y.M.S. Hall in Mill street for some time past for the "Dr. Hackett Cup" presented to the Society several years ago by the Bishop of Waterford, was concluded on last Sunday night before a large attendance, who showed the keenest interest in the final game. All the best billiards players in the Society had entered for the tournament and several very interesting games were witnessed.

Messrs. J. E. Crowe and Gerald Cahill were the only two to emerge safely from the eliminating contests, and the final game between them was expected to provide a keen contest on Sunday night. The games were 200 points up, Crowe owing 100 and Cahill 50 points.

Crowe played one of his characteristically safe and brilliant games, and catching up his opponent rather early in the game, he quickly forged ahead, and although Cahill put up a plucky fight, Crowe eventually proved a rather easy winner on the final score, 200—148.

In addition to the valuable cup, the winner was also awarded a handsome billiard cue (in case), while a similar prize was won by Mr. Cahill as the runner-up. It may be of interest to add that Mr. Crowe, the present winner, was runner-up for the cup during the past two years when it was won, respectively, by Mr. Sargent and Mr. W. Cahill (brother of the present runner-up), so that Mr. Crowe has at last reached the Promised Land within sight of which he has been for the past two years.

SUCCESSFUL 45 DRIVE.

The annual 45 Drive was held recently in the C.Y.M.S. Hall and was won jointly by Messrs. R. J. Collender and Patk. Coss after some very closely-contested games had been played by the members of the Society amongst whom the Drive was confined.

CAPPOQUIN MAN WEDS.

A pretty wedding took place in the Catholic Church, Rathmines, Dublin, on Wednesday, 14th inst. with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing when Lce. D. ("Dommy") Dunne, only son of Mr. E. and Mrs. Dunne, Cappoquin, was married to Miss Anna Lena ("Lulu") Mulvaney, daughter of the late Capt. John Mulvaney and Mrs. Mulvaney, 49 Grove Park, Rathmines.

The bridegroom was educated in Blackrock College, Dublin, where he was a noted athlete and a prominent Rugby player, and played in most of the inter-College and inter-Provincial Rugby contests for his College for many years. Since returning home to Cappoquin he has been a valuable member of the Dungarvan Rugby Club and has played for them in recent years, while he has also been a prominent member of the Cappoquin Rowing Club and a leading member of the Under-Age and Junior Crews, and later of the senior crew which won such brilliant victories last year. He is a general favourite in Cappoquin and extremely popular in all sporting and social circles. The bride belongs to a well-known respected Co. Dublin family, and is a relative of the Most Rev. Dr. Mulvaney, Bishop of Meath. Mr. George Kavanagh, Dublin (cousin), acted as best man, while Miss Frankie Mulvaney (sister of the bride) was bridesmaid. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was held in the Marine Hotel, Dunloughaire, where a large party was entertained.

CASE UNDER ACT OF GEORGE I.

TAKING AWAY A FARM SERVANT. At Carrick-on-Suir District Court on Monday, before Mr. McCabe, D.J., Andrew Kirwan summoned Godfrey Greene under an Act of George I for having deprived him of the services of his farm servant (Wm. Ormonde).

Mr. Quirk, solr., for plaintiff, and Mr. Power, solr., for defendant. Plaintiff's case was that last August during the harvest Ormonde left him without notice and went to work for Mr. Greene. When witness went to Mr. Greene's place Ormonde refused to return to his work and said he had given witness notice. Witness had to hire a man and pay him 6s. a day.

For the defence Mr. Power said Ormonde was a married man with one child. He had no house and Mr. Greene gave him a cottage on his land.

The Justice said the case may be interesting, having been brought under the Act of George I. The complainant and his wife seemed to think the Ormonde was a slave. That attitude of mind towards labouring men is out of tune with the outlook of the present age. He had no sympathy with the spirit of the Act that regarded labourers as slaves. He dismissed the case on the merits.

RUGBY.

C.Y.M.S. Waterford, had an easy victory in a return match played at Carrick-on-Suir. The final score was: C.Y.M.S., 25 points; Carrick-on-Suir, 6 points.

SUCCESSFUL CHILDREN'S OPERETTA.

The annual Christmas treat for the children of South Abbey Schools, Youghal, was held recently, and was very successful, and after tea an operetta, "A Royal Jester, or a Kingdom for a Laugh," was presented to a large audience. The cast, composed entirely of the pupils of the school, included:—King Orontius, Frank Peters; Queen Zitania, Eileen McLean; the Royal Jester, Avis Kaye; the Prime Minister, Cyril Hore; the Court Astrologer, Evelyn Draper; the Lord High Executioner, William Kaye; the Commander-in-Chief, Victor Kaye; the Admiral of the Fleet, George Kaye; Princess Sylvania, Iris Brookes; Puck, Jackie Brookes; Chancellor of the Exchequer, Pearl Phillips; Usher, Richard Phillips; Quips and Cranks, Gabrielle McCall, Mina Barter, Anna Mills, Alex Fowkes, Freddie Phillips, Stella Peters; Court Ladies, Vera Draper, Constance Hore, Iris Brookes, Sophia Jennings; Pages and Ladies-in-Waiting, Dorothy Allen, Stella McLean, Helen Cole, Ivy Peters, Cecil Torrens, Willie Fowkes; Train Bearers, Joan Hollman, Bertha Halsall; Guards, Harry Jennings, William Mathis. The operetta was presented in three acts, the first scene opening in the Court of Prinitania, where the rightful heir to the throne has been engaged as court jester. Many songs, choruses and dances were introduced in this act. In Act II. the scene was laid in the enchanted forest of Hilaria, where Puck, with his quips and cranks, held sway. These, with Princess Sylvania, and her ladies and pages, rendered several songs and dances. Act III. showed the jester being restored to his kingdom with the aid of Puck and his friends, and the final curtain fell on a striking ensemble of all the characters.

At the conclusion of the performance the Rev. V. W. Darling, B.D., thanked, on behalf of the audience, the Misses McGibney, who had trained the children; Mr. E. Chapple, who acted as stage manager, and Mr. R. Chapple, who had charge of the lighting arrangements.

Father Christmas then distributed gifts from a very large Christmas tree, kindly presented by Dr. and Mrs. C. Orpin, after which the distribution of Sunday School prizes took place.

FARMER'S LOSS OF £50 ON FAIR DAY.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court on Monday, before Mr. McCabe, D.J., Mary Power, Gorey lane, Carrickbeg, and her son, aged 12 years, were charged with the larceny by finding of £50, the property of Patrick Quinlan, farmer and cattle dealer, Rathgormack.

Supt. Fitzgerald said Patk. Quinlan lost £50 in the street in Carrick last fair day. The boy Power had been holding Mr. Quinlan's horse on the street. In his mother's house at Gorey lane, Carrickbeg, the Guards found £20 in notes in a tick and had traced a lot of purchases made by Mrs. Power in local shops. She stated to the Guards that her son picked up three £40 notes in the street and gave them to her.

Mr. Power, solr., for defendant, said his instructions were to plead not guilty on the woman's behalf. From what he had learned of the woman's statement to Sergt. Moylan he would advise her to plead guilty to the larceny of the £30.

The Justice said he would adjourn the case to next court to give the Superintendent an opportunity of altering the charge. He (Justice) could not look upon the offence as a minor one. It would be for Judge Sealy to deal with the case at Clonmel with a jury. It was worse for the woman to have kept the money her son found than if she had found it and kept it herself. He allowed the woman and her son out on bail until next court day.

DEATH OF MERCY NUN.

The death has occurred at the Mercy Convent, Carrick-on-Suir, of Mother Vincent, Campbell. Deceased, who had been about 50 years a member of the Community, had acted as head of Technical and National Schools. She was a very efficient teacher, and took a deep interest in the spiritual and temporal welfare of her pupils. The late Mother Vincent was a native of Dublin City. Her sister, Mother Aquidin, died at the same convent two years ago. The interment took place after Office and High Mass at the Convent Cemetery.

At the weekly meeting of the above man, presided. Also present—Messrs.

J. Moloney, M. Clancy, J. Hackett, M.
Keane, T. McCarthy.

Pay Sheets.

Payments were passed.

Electric Heating.
Mr. Raftis, E.S.B., attended the meeting and explained to the council the advantages of using electric heaters in the offices. The rate, Mr. Raftis said, for heating would be 1d. per unit and for water heaters 3d. per unit.

The Chairman said that the matter should be brought before the officials of the council and the members could discuss the question at their next meeting. The Clerk would let Mr. Raftis know what decision the council had come to.

Acknowledgments.
Letters thanking the council for resolutions of sympathy passed by them were received from Mrs. Biggs and Mrs. Eistead.

Water Shortage.
Miss Scanlan, Main street, wrote complaining of the poor water supply on her premises.
The S. S. O. was instructed to report on the matter.

New Houses.
The Borough Surveyor applied for £20 as a remuneration in connection with the building of the four houses at Abbeyside.

Mr. Clancy said they should put off consideration of the application. At present he wasn't sure if the money at their disposal would finish all the houses. They could consider the matter at some future date when the all-in cost of the houses was before them.
The matter was then dropped.

Hall Charges.
In connection with the revised charges for Town Hall, Mr. McCarthy said that he thought locals should be given the use of the Hall at a lesser rate than strangers.

Mr. Clancy—There it is. This is the first of it.
Mr. Keane—When we revised the charges we considered that point and it was decided that locals should pay a little extra, too, until the Hall was put into a good condition. The charges will be again revised as soon as the Hall is up to the standard.
Mr. McCarthy—If I had been at the meeting I would not agree. Locals should be granted some concessions.
After all they are ratepayers, too.

Harbourmaster's Increase.
In connection with the increase of £20 granted to the Harbourmaster, the Minister wrote asking under what Act
the increase had been granted.

Mr. Clancy—We don't know of any Act, but we are the harbour authority.
The Clerk was instructed to write stating that the council were not aware of any Act governing the matter.

Coolagh Road Water Supply.
Arising out of the Water Inspector's report, the Borough Surveyor stated that the cost of taking up and cleaning the water pipes at Coolagh road, Ab-beyside, would be about £27.

Mr. Clancy said that the council had no money for that work, but he thought it would be a good thing to include it in the relief grant for the unemployed. The water rate was all gone.

The Borough Surveyor was instructed to provide an estimate for the doing of the work when it could be then brought into the relief grant scheme.

Damage to Bathing Boxes.
The S. S. O. reported on the condition of the ladies' bathing boxes, which he stated had the doors broken
in.

It was decided to notify the Civic Guards.

Rent of New Houses.
The council had before them for consideration the suggestion of the Minister that £1 per cent. be added to the rent of the new houses, the money to be used for repairing the houses.

The Chairman said that the council could make it 10s. per cent. if they desired or do away with the charge.

Mr. Keane—If I thought the houses would be occupied by workmen I would be for not putting on anything, but I am afraid the rent will not suit the people for whom the houses were built in which case I would favour the £1 per cent.

Mr. Clancy—I am afraid that the houses will be beyond the reach of the workingman. The rent will be something like 7s. per week.

The Borough Surveyor stated that the rent would be about 7s.
The matter was adjourned until the actual cost of the houses was known.

Late Mr. Spears.
The Chairman, in proposing a vote
of condolence to the wife and child of the late Mr. M. J. Spears, said that Mr. Spears had been a particular friend of his. They all knew that the deceased was a very upright, honest
and well-known professional man,
and his death was deeply deplored.
He would ask the council as a mark
of respect to adjourn the meeting without doing any further business.

Mr. Clancy, in seconding the resolu-

Ardmore District Court.

Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.

In the adjourned case of the County Council against Mrs. Meriner, the Justice said he had come to the conclusion that there had been a technical offence committed by reason of the fact that an assistant of the licensee supplied the defective article, according to the analysis, to the Inspector of Foods and Drugs who had come in to buy that particular commodity. He thought that in order to have a perfectly absolute defence a complete notice should have been given, much more complete than was given, of the fact that that was not whiskey as he demanded, of a certain standard, not less than 25—that was something like 31 under proof. At the same time he largely accepted the explanation given,
not by the person supplying the liquor,
but by the owner, that that in fact would not have been ordinarily sold.
At the same time he should point out that the very fact of that article being in the shop would be held to be there for purposes of trade, even though in fact he was told that it was made up from remnants of other bottles, some admittedly of a brand—Scotch—which might be sold at notice at 30 under proof.

Defendant was fined 1s. and 20s.
costs, not to be recorded.

Drunk and Disorderly.
G O'Sullivan, Ballymacoda, charged
Wm. Finn, labourer, Ballymacoda, with being drunk and disorderly and refusing to leave licensed premises
when called on to do so.

Complainant said that acting on a report received he went to Mr. Gum-bleton's licensed premises where he found defendant drunk and disorderly.
He refused to leave and Guard Quinn and witness had great difficulty in getting him out. Outside he took hold of a wire netting and it took them a half hour to disengage his hold. They then took him to the barracks. It was New Year's Day.

Supt. Dennehy said the local curate had given the man a very good character, and as he had promised not to offend again, he suggested a three months' adjournment.

The Justice agreed to this.

LOOKING AHEAD.

If it were always May or June the farmer's feeding problem would be easy, for there is then enough grass to feed all stock. As it is, on most farms only four months' grass is available or five at the outside. By following simple rules good grass can be got to grow in the first half of April—probably a month earlier than usual.

One or two of the best fields should be chosen in fairly good heart and sheltered from north and east. If possible a big field should be chosen. If the grass is rough or matted it should be harrowed hard with a sharp tined harrow to tear out the dead and useless material which clogs growth in spring.

The following mixture of manures should be applied in February—3 cwt Sensol, 1 cwt. Polish Salts (or Kainit), 1 cwt. Sulphate of Ammonia.
This treatment will give grass in April instead of May.

After the first early grazing, which should not be too hard, rest the treated land for a week or two. A second flush will soon come away and can then be grazed again or laid up for hay.

Just as early grass can be got in April by the help of fertilisers, so, by their help, the growing season can be prolonged well into autumn. If the land is already well supplied with phosphates and potash, it will only be necessary to apply to August 1½ cwt.
Sulphate of Ammonia per statute acre.
On poor or unmanured land it is advisable to give a dressing of Sensol and Kainit as well.

Before applying the fertilisers, graze the fields down closely unless they have been cut for hay. Grass treated with fertilisers and eaten when it is short is better than ordinary grass. In feeding value it is as good as an expensive feeding stuff. It is a complete food for cows yielding up to four gallons a day. The feeding of cake or meal on good pastures throughout the summer is entirely unnecessary and a waste of money. Manured grass will replace expensive feeding stuffs. All pastures can be made to give earlier, better and richer grass by such attention.

CARRICK-ONSUIR PRIEST FOR CHINA.

Most Rev. Dr. Dignan, Bishop of Clonfert, ordained a couple of days ago at Dalgin Park for the Chinese Mission the Rev. James Houlihan, son of Mr. James Houlihan and the late Mrs.
Houlihan, Tinnahow, Carrick-on-Suir.
Father Houlihan celebrated his first Mass at Carrickbeg Church, where he was baptised and received his first Holy Communion and Confirmation.
He gave his blessing to a large congregation.

Late Mr. Spears.
The Chairman, in proposing a vote
of condolence to the wife and child of the late Mr. M. J. Spears, said that Mr. Spears had been a particular friend of his. They all knew that the deceased was a very upright, honest
and well-known professional man,
and his death was deeply deplored.
He would ask the council as a mark
of respect to adjourn the meeting without doing any further business.

Mr. Clancy, in seconding the resolu-

the wife and child of the late Mr.
Spears, and he would be a great loss to Mr. Spears was surely a very upright and honest man.

Mr. Keane also spoke feelingly of the deceased.
A vote of condolence was also passed with the relatives of the late John Kieley, Shannon.

Both resolutions were passed in silence and the meeting adjourned.

FREE STATE SOLDIERS ON XMAS LEAVE.

CHARGE OF TAKING UNIFORMS.

At a Special Court at Carrick-on-Suir
before Mr. McCabe, D.J.

Martin Banks, Carrick-on-Suir, was sent for trial to Clonmel Circuit Court on bail (two sureties of £100 each) on charges of having while armed with a rifle forcibly entered with others unknown on the night of 27th December the dwelling-houses of Private Francis Houlihan and Philip Cashen, privates in the National Army, and having stolen, using threats and armed with a rifle, the military uniforms of the two soldiers, who resided at Garranbeg, seven miles from Carrick-on-Suir, and were on Xmas leave at the time.

Guards O'Quigley and O'Hara and Sergeant Sheehy gave evidence of having seen Banks' motor car at Glenbowser and Grangemockler between 9 and 10 p.m. on the night of December 27th.

Detective-Sergeant Murphy gave evidence of having found tyre tracks corresponding to those on Banks' car at Garranbeg and Grangemockler.

Patk. Houlihan and James Houlihan gave evidence of having seen a motor car like that of Banks near Houlihan's and Cashen's house where the raid took place. The Houlihans swore they could not identify Banks as being one of the two men armed with rifles who came into the cottage and took the uniforms. The men stated they did not want the Staters, but wanted the uniforms. One was a very tall man and the other was a smaller man.

Sergt. Murphy handed in a statement made to him by Banks to the effect that from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m. on the 27th December he was at Fiddown, Co. Kilkenny, looking after a boat he keeps there and at Carrick for carrying sand, etc.

The Justice said that court could not deal with the case. It would be for a jury to decide on the evidence re the motor car.

Defendant said he would say nothing at that court, but would reserve his defence.

The baill were forthcoming and Banks was released on bail.

DEATH OF MR. P. O'HARA, LISMORE.

The funeral of Mr. P. O'Hara took place on the 15th inst. from St. Car-thage's Cathedral, Lismore, to Aglish Cemetery. The cortege was of large dimensions and showed the great respect and esteem in which deceased was held by all classes of the community. On his father's death thirty years ago the late P. O'Hara was employed as herdsman and shepherd on the farm of the Duke of Devonshire's Lismore Castle Estate and he filled that position with distinction till about six months ago when he was taken ill and had to be removed to the North Infirmary, Cork, where after a prolonged illness he passed away.

The late Mr. O'Hara enjoyed much popularity, and his kindly disposition endeared him to all who had the pleasure of knowing him. His demise will be generally mourned in the Lismore district, where he was so well and so popularly known.

The chief mourners were—Laurence O'Hara (brother); Mrs. J. Crowley, Mrs. M. Cashman and Mrs. E. Coughlan (sisters); Miss Peggy O'Hara (niece), Messrs. J. Crowley, M. Cashman and E. Coughlan (brothers-in-law).

Amongst those present at the funeral were—Mr. E. C. Penrose (Agent for Lismore Estates Company), Lismore Castle; Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore; Messrs. M. McGrath and J.
McGrath, Lismore; Mr. M. F. Casey,
do.; Mr. M. Moore, do.; Messrs. F.
Crotty and J. Crotty, do.; Mr. J. Gould-ing, T.D. do.; Messrs. D. McCarthy, J. Heelan, do.; Mr. D. Slattery, Tallow; Mr. D. Heskin, Glencairn; Mr. J.
Barry, do.; Mr. D. Barry, do.; Mr. J.
Clancy, Coolydoody, while the entire staff of his fellow-workers on the farm were present. The final prayers at the grave were recited by Rev. Fr.
Walsh, C.C., Lismore.

Sir John Francis (at Police Court)—

County Roads.

APPORTIONING £24,000.

ALL-ROUND CUT TO BE MADE.

On Tuesday at the adjourned special meeting of the County Council, Mr.
Kiersey, chairman, presiding, the main business was the apportionment of the £24,000 allocated for the county roads in the coming year. £21,000 was allocated to the main and trunk roads.

Mr. O'Ryan suggested that if they decided what sum they would give to new roads and for steamrolling they could divide the remainder on the county roads.

Mr. Coghlan referred to the necessity of having money expended on the road through Kilmactomas, which carried very heavy traffic, and advocated the necessity of the work.

Chairman—We should allocate a certain amount for steamrolling out of the £24,000 and a certain sum for councilors' proposals and then go back to the several districts and cut down all the roads by a certain percentage and let each district suffer equal loss. You cannot have it both ways.

Mr. Bowen said he would give the council a perfectly impartial view on the subject. While they wanted work done to the extent of £53,600, only £24,000 was passed. They would have to cut down an enormous amount of work that would be very desirable and necessary and much appreciated by the people. Ordinary maintenance by direct labour was estimated at £22,630; contract maintenance, existing and renewable, £4,199; steamrolling £24,740;
improvement works on surfaces, £250;
other improvements £150; councilors'
proposals, £632, and contingencies, £1,000. His suggestion was that all the roads be done even at a reduced price.
He could not do the work he would like, but he would suggest that some work be done to every road in the list.

As to steamrolled roads, Mr. O'Ryan asked were the people to be deprived of their bye-roads while paying for steamrolled roads in other districts which were no use to them.

Mr. Bowen—You have no money to do all you want to do. If you have more money you can have more roads and give every man in the county a road, but until you have the money what is the good of talking. I am submitting a scheme to you which will work out as good as anything can be.
Reduce contingencies to £500; strike out all councilors' proposals without exception and all the other improvements; throw out all the steamrolling except that at Ardmore. For the steamrolling of the roads leading to and through Ardmore which were much frequented by bus traffic. That road should be a main road. He suggested the council pass £9,000 for steamrolling that road on the condition that they got a free grant of at least half that sum from the Ministry and that a loan be obtained by the council for the balance—£4,500—repayable in five years. That would be a very light burden on the ratepayers and this year would be only £600. With that expenditure they could get the work done, and it was one of the most necessary works in the county. In several counties where a strong case was made for a place like that the Ministry put up a free grant of 50/50. They should put up a fight in this case and bring it off. They could not compare this year with last year. A lot more roads were put on this year than last year.
As they were promised a good deal of relief in the rates next year they should carry on this year.

The Chairman said if they adopted the suggestions of the County Surveyor they would finish the business in five minutes. The alternative would be to go through all the roads in the several districts in turn.

Mr. Butler said there was a figure of £632 for councilors' proposals, and they should get consideration, and each councillor could put his case whether his proposal was afterwards turned down or not.

Mr. Coghlan agreed that Mr.
Bowen's proposal was very fair.
Chairman—My proposition is that we accept the schedule and figures as placed before us by the County Surveyor for the allocation of the £24,000.
Mr. O'Ryan proposed they consider the councilors' proposals. Mr. Fitzgerald seconded.

Mr. O'Ryan's amendment was passed.

The Proposals.
Mr. O'Brien proposed that a new road be made between Colbert's Cross and Ballymullala Cross. It was badly needed.

Mr. Bowen said the estimate was £1,000, but £300 would do it.
Mr. Halloran said threequarters of it was fairly good.
Mr. Bowen said it was not the required width. The land should be acquired.

Chairman—I had a similar case at Kilmactomas and I had to let it drop.
A petition on behalf of the road was before the meeting.
Mr. O'Brien said the land could be had for the road free. It served a lot of people.

On a show of hands the proposal was passed.
Mr. Bowen—Will they convey the freehold title of the land to the council? Are you going to charge £300 for that work this year which won't be done?

Chairman—That is the order made.
Mr. Stack moved to make 200 perches of new road from Glenmore to Glennagade. It was passed provisionally. If £150 were passed let the people themselves pay the rest.
Mr. Butler said the people there had no road.

Mr. Bowen said it was illegal as it did not end at a county road.
Mr. Bowen—If you put in the whole road it would be all right.

Mr. Heskin—If you pass an illegal road would you be surcharged?
Mr. Bowen—You would for a certainly.

Mr. Stack—You have a Government now in power that would not surcharge anyone.
Chairman—My ruling is it is illegal.
Mr. Stack—I will clear out. This board won't be here very long.

Mr. O'Ryan moved to make 193 perches of new road at Carrigreen, town-land of Knockanarrin, at £70. The road had been under contract.
Mr. Bowen—I don't know if that is so. £20 would make it all right.

Mr. O'Ryan asked to make a new road of 193 perches at Knocknaree. He said before the estate was sold it was suggested that the road should be made at the expense of the landlord.

Mr. Butler proposed they make 290 perches of new road from Ballinacuck Cross to Limestone Quarry at Bally-macmague East. The estimate was £80.

Mr. Bowen—This road was never before us. Nearly all the people living on it had another way out. It should be left over.
Mr. Butler—Half the road is in contract.

It was passed at £40.
A proposal by Mr. Hallahan (moved by Mr. O'Ryan) to lay a concrete channel at Scrouthea was passed at £40.
A proposal by Mr. Keane to protect the road leading to the strand between Curragh and Crushea was passed at £24.

Mr. Halloran said it was very necessary.
Mr. Bowen—We could pick up 1,500 miles of these roads in the county and you have no money. His estimate for it was £250.

Mr. O'Ryan's proposal to erect a concrete footpath across the stream at Glendaloughin for £15 was withdrawn.
Mr. Heskin proposed to make a new road in the townland of Cahergal, Ballyduff, at £50.

Mr. Bowen—This road should not be made. My estimate is £106 and £50 would be no use.
Mr. Bowen said it would be illegal to pass Mr. Cunningham's motion to erect a footbridge across Glen at Bally-healy.

A proposal by Mr. Hallahan to make a new road at Glenagad, Clonmel, was withdrawn.
Mr. Fitzgerald's motion to make 357 perches of road at Briska Lowry and Lyre was stated by the County Surveyor to have been already passed, but certain formalities were not carried out. When that was done it would be all right.

The total amount passed for councillors' proposals was £400, and it was then decided that as to the balance left of the £24,000 after the necessary deduction an equal reduction be made on the estimates for all roads.
Mr. O'Ryan said last year contractors complained that the reduction in their money and in their specifications were not on an equality.

Unemployment Grant.
In connection with the £300,000
grant to relieve unemployment, Mr.
O'Ryan asked what steps had been taken in the matter in this county?

Mr. Bowen said the County Secretary and himself had the matter in hand, but they understood the public body getting the grant should put up half the money, and as it was intended for sewage and waterworks, they could not formulate a scheme. Their point is to get work done you would be bound to do in any case. Also the money should be spent by 31st March.

Mr. O'Ryan—And we would have no provision made to meet it and they make it impossible for us to spend it.

CORRESPONDENCE.
To the Editor of the "Observer."

Dear Sir—With reference to your kindly allusion to "Cappagh Celebrations," I think it only fair to state that most of the toys were given by some poor Londoners who belong to a Legue "for promoting international friendship." It also seems a good opportunity to recall the fact that we owe our "old" United Irishwomen's Hall to the inspiration of Mrs. Walsh, of Ballylemon Lodge, who first realised the need of a centre for classes and wholesome recreation in this district.

I came to live at Cappagh in 1914 and found the Hall an accomplished fact through the zeal of public-spirited people, many of whom are still among us. An enormous Cookery Class was in full swing, and since then there have been courses, not only for cookery, but for dairy and poultry work, for needlework, for carpentry, for first aid, for the making of a wonderful variety of home crafts from cheese to gloves—48 courses in all, if my memory does not fail me.—Yours truly,

E. H. USSHER,
Cappagh, 14th January, 1931.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

DUNGARVAN'S NEW M.O.
 Dr. Michael Casey, M.O., Whitechurch, has been appointed M.O. Dungarvan dispensary district following the appointment of Dr. McCarthy to the charge of the District Hospital and County Home. The new M.O. of Dungarvan is the son of the late Mr. M. J. Casey, and is a brilliant medical practitioner, who during his years as M.O. Whitechurch has won the universal esteem of the public. On behalf of the general public we tender him a hearty welcome back to his native town, and wish him a long and prosperous professional career.

THE LATE MR. SPEARS, SOLR.
 At the sitting of the Dungarvan Circuit Court on Wednesday, Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C., paid an eloquent tribute to the worth of the late Mr. M. J. Spears, solr., who was a practitioner at the court, and referred to the great loss his death meant to the public and the legal profession. Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr.; Mr. W. J. Skinner, solr.; Clonmel; Mr. M. J. Connolly, B.L., and Mr. Colbert, Registrar, all joined in the tribute and expressed sympathy with the wife and son of the deceased.

NEW WAY TO OBTAIN MONEY.
 When Mrs. Kathleen Stoney (40), of no fixed abode, was remanded in Dublin on the charge of obtaining money by presenting alleged worthless cheques, Mr. Turner, Accountant National Bank, Dunlaoghaire, said he cashed a cheque for defendant for £15. She said she was the wife of Dr. White, Cappoquin. The cheque was returned to the bank at Lismore, where there was no account in the name of "Dr. White." Other cheques were also passed by her which were dishonoured.

COUNTY COUNCILLOR'S COMPLAINT.
 Mr. O'Ryan, Co.C., Ballymacarbury, writes:—In the discussion at Tuesday's County Council meeting on the work of County Medical Officers of Health, in dealing with the duties of Dr. O'Higgins, Meath, I should have mentioned that this official in addition to the other sums of money he receives got a gratuity of £3,000 when leaving the army. This, together with £360 as T.D. and £800 plus £200 travelling expenses should be sufficient inducement to devote all his time to the discharge of his duties instead of stumping the country up and down making speeches.

DUNGARVAN FAIR.
 The January fair on Wednesday was well supplied and buyers were plenty. Prices were fairly good all round and a lot of business was done. All good-conditioned cattle sold well at current rates, while weanlings in good trim were in brisk demand and sold at £9 to £12 10s. each. Springers were scarce and dear. Old cows were slow and prices ruled low. The pig fair was large, but prices were more or less depressed.

THE THREE CLUBS' DANCE.
 On Wednesday night, February 3rd, the Town Hall will overflow when the above dance comes off. It is organised on an elaborate scale under the auspices of the Farmers', Golf and Garda Síochána Dance Committees, and promises to eclipse anything yet seen in this town. The newly-renovated Hall will be resplendent in its decorations for the event, and Peter Keogh's noted Dublin Band will supply the music as only Peter's combination can. A Ladies' Committee will look after the catering, so that all patrons may be assured of perfect satisfaction and thorough enjoyment. Notch the date in the tablet of your memory and pitch all thoughts of the flu to the four winds.

LOCAL PRIEST DIES IN U.S.A.
 The death occurred last week at Philadelphia of Rev. James C. Brett, son of the late Mr. Brett, Crough, Coligan. He was educated at St. Augustine's, Dungarvan, and was ordained in 1913. The interment took place last Saturday at the Church of St. Cyril of Alexandria, Philadelphia.

SYMPATHY.
 Dungarvan Literary Club passed resolutions of sympathy with Mr. J. Dower on the death of his mother and with Mr. Michl. McGrath on the death of his sister.

DANCE FROCKS.
 We have a charming selection of Model Dance Frocks. Refinement and good taste are the keynote of these exclusive Frocks. Our new Evening Dresses totally eclipse all previous shows for style and variety.—Machy's, Dungarvan.

HUGGY FOOTBALL.
 On Sunday last at Waterford, Dungarvan beat Waterpark by 5 points to nil. Up to then Waterpark were unbeaten. On this occasion Dungarvan forwards proved their superiority. The only score of the game resulted from a movement started by Evans and culminated in O'Byrne scoring between the posts to be converted by McAdoo. On Sunday next Dungarvan will meet Cork Constitution in the first round of the Munster Junior Cup, and the locals will give a strong display. A Nomad bus will leave Dungarvan at 11.30, and supporters can travel with the team for a very reasonable fee.

CAHILL v. KILROSSANTY THRESHING CO.
 At the Dungarvan Circuit Court, Mr. Carroll, solr., applied for an order re the above to recover £15 15s. balance due to January 1st. Mr. Carroll, for Cahill, said £4 10s. was paid. His Lordship made the order sought and gave credit for £4 10s.

INSURANCE APPEAL.
 At Dungarvan Circuit Court, Tallow Temperance Hall Society appealed against the decision of District Justice Farrell in giving a decree against them for £5 4s. 8d. in respect of failing to stamp the card of their caretaker, Bat Collins. The Temperance Society held that as Collins was employed by Mr. O'Keefe at £2 a week, they were not liable. The District Justice held he was bound by the decision of the Insurance Commissioners. Mr. McEnery, B.L. (instructed by Mr. Hodnett, solr.) for the appellant, and Mr. Ryan for the State. After hearing the legal arguments at length his Lordship confirmed the ruling of the District Justice in the matter.

ANOTHER APPEAL.
 In the appeal case of Mr. Oderna against the decision of District Justice Troy in fining him for reckless driving on the occasion of the head-on collision with Mr. Hayes's car at Kilineen last September, his Lordship reversed the decision of the court below.

ECONOMY.
 Keep colds and chills away. Wear Wolsey and be well. In all weights and sizes at Walsh's, Outfitters, Square.

DUNGARVAN DISPENSARY DISTRICT.
APPOINTMENT OF DOCTOR.
DR. MICHAEL CASEY ELECTED.

At the meeting of the County Board of Public Assistance on Wednesday, Mrs. White presiding, Mr. Kiersey moved the motion standing in his name to the effect that by virtue of the power conferred on the board by Section 5 of the Local Authorities (Officers and Employees) Act, 1928, Dr. Michael Casey, M.O., Whitechurch dispensary district, be appointed M.O. Dungarvan dispensary district, which is now declared vacant by the appointment of Dr. T. McCarthy to the District Hospital and County Home. In asking the sanction of the Minister of Local Government and Public Health to this appointment, that his attention be directed to the fact that Dr. Michael Casey has the following qualifications:—M.B., B.Ch., B.A.O. (N.U.I., 1923), D.P.H. (Dublin University), L.A.H. The motion was passed unanimously.

ESTIMATE OF £54,828 ADOPTED.
REDUCTION OF £1,020.

The County Board of Public Assistance, Mrs. White presiding, considered on Wednesday the estimate required for the coming year. Mr. Flynn (secretary) submitted his estimate for £55,848, and the estimate for 1929 £59,420. The reduction of £1,020 this year was principally due to the fact that the board had a substantial credit balance at the end of the current year mainly as a result of the board not having expended the sum provided in his last estimate in connection with the opening of the Auxiliary Home at Waterford.

On the motion of Mr. Kiersey, seconded by Mr. Butler, the estimate as submitted was passed.

Youghal Urban Council.

Present—Mr. E. P. Lynch, vice-chairman; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. D. Dennehy, T. Beausang, D. J. Linehan, J. Whelan, J. Kennedy, P. J. McMahon, P. C.; T. Harrington, P. Kenneally, A. J. Powkes, E. Clancy, Mrs. S. Hurley, P. J. O'Gorman, P. C.; M. J. Fleming.

G.A.A.
Mr. T. Crowley, Hon. Sec. G.A.A., Youghal, wrote applying for the use of the Green Room on January 12th for the purpose of holding an organisation meeting on behalf of the G.A.A. Sean McCarthy, B.A., Chairman of Munster Council and Cork County Board, was to preside, and all interested in National pastimes were welcome.

On the proposition of Capt. Dunne, seconded by Mr. Whelan, the application was granted unanimously.

Telegraph Wires Underground.
Notice was received from the District Engineer's Office, Post Office, Cork, of the intention of Postmaster-General to open the roadway and footway for the purpose of laying underground telegraphs, the work to be commenced on the 12th inst. at Devonshire Square, Market place, Dolphin's Square, Catherine street, Grant Street, etc.

National Monuments.
The Commissioners of Public Works wrote calling attention to the National Monuments Acts, 1930, which considerably extended the powers and duties of local authorities with regard to the protection and preservation of national monuments. In particular they drew attention to Section 22 of the Act, which enabled a local authority to appoint an Advisory Committee composed of persons having special knowledge of or interested in architecture, archaeology, whose function it should be to give advice and assistance to the local authority in relation to the protection and preservation of national monuments in their area. They suggested that the appointment of such a committee as one of the first steps to be taken by the council in the exercise of their functions under the Act.

Replying to some member, the Clerk said the expenses incurred should be raised by the poor rate.

Mr. Powkes—That fixes it. It is all nonsense.

Association Football Club.
A letter was read from Mr. J. M. Forrest, Hon. Sec. Association Football Club, applying for the Town Hall on 27th inst. to hold a dance from 9 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Mr. McMahon—Who are they at all?

Chairman—I don't know.

Clerk—There's a regular epidemic of those dances lately.

The application was granted, the dance to conclude at 12 o'clock.

Outrage in Hospital.

The Gas Manager reported that at 8.30 on Saturday night the gas supply to the local Cottage Hospital was deliberately turned off at the meter by some unknown persons. The whole institution was plunged into complete darkness until their filter arrived and put the matter right. He reported back that the main tap was too stiff to be turned with the naked hand. So the responsible parties had gone there provided with the necessary implement to turn it off. The matron felt very annoyed at such an outrage being committed in the institution. It caused confusion amongst the patients amounting to almost a panic, and it was quite possible, she said, for an operation to be in progress at the time, which, if it had, it might have serious if not fatal consequences.

Mr. McMahon suggested that the council should take drastic action in that matter, and he proposed that they offer a reward of £10 for information leading to the conviction of the culprits. It might have occurred during an operation or a maternity case and the consequences would be terrible.

Mr. Harrington seconded. It was a shocking outrage on such an institution.

Capt. Dunne said there should be a lock on the main tap.

Mr. Powkes said to prevent any further occurrence of the kind he proposed that it be boxed and locked, the key to be in the keeping of some responsible official.

Mr. Whelan, seconding, said it was a piece of wanton blackguardism of the worst type.

Both propositions were passed unanimously.

Mr. Kenneally—Can we expend money for such a purpose?

The Clerk said they could. They had done it on former occasions.

The Chairman said it would be £10 well spent if they got the culprits.

Mr. McMahon—If caught they ought be hanged.

Youghal-Tallow Road.

Mr. O'Gorman called attention to the condition of the main road from Youghal to Tallow, Fermoy, etc. It was about the worst road in parts in Ireland at present, absolutely disgraceful. The Clerk would bear him out in that, as they had been over it together. The County Council had done good work on other roads, and something ought to be done to improve that important one. He suggested that they call the County Council's attention to the necessity of doing some repairs to the road.

Mr. Fleming said that parts of the road were in the Co. Waterford.

Mr. Kenneally said the Co. Waterford had done their part.

Mr. Fleming—The Cork portion is the worse of the two.

Mr. Powkes said it was strange that the Co. Cork should allow such a road to be in its present condition.

Mr. Kenneally said it was nearly 30 years since anything proper had been done to the road, and it was therefore time to make it good.

The Clerk was directed to write to both County Councils on the matter.

Operatic Society.

Mr. M. J. Firmin, organist Parish Church, applied on behalf of the local Operatic Society for the use of the Green Room on three nights a week for rehearsals.

On the proposition of Mr. McMahon, seconded by Mr. Clancy, the application was granted from week to week provided it didn't clash with other applications.

Southern Hurling Club.

The Hon. Sec. Southern Hurling Club applied for the use of the Town Hall to hold a dance on the 13th inst. and also for a Cinderella dance on 17th March.

The first was granted, the second being considered premature.

Strand Lavatory.

A long discussion took place on the question of the site of the proposed lavatory on the Strand, which is at present the subject of an appeal before the next Circuit Court.

Ultimately Mr. Fleming proposed that a Conference consisting of Mr. Barrett and his solicitor, Mr. Keane, and a deputation of the council and their solicitor, Mr. Hodnett, be held, with a view to a settlement of the question.

Mr. McMahon proposed, and Mr. Beausang seconded, that the law take its course.

On a poll being taken there voted:—

For the conference—Mrs. Hurley, Capt. Dunne, Messrs. O'Gorman, Clancy, Kennedy and Fleming—6.

Against—Messrs. Kenneally, Harrington, Powkes, McMahon, Whelan, Linehan, Dennehy, Beausang and the Chairman—9.

It was therefore decided to have the case go on.

Vocational Sub-Committee.

Mr. Harrington proposed, and Mr. Beausang seconded, the following as members of the local Vocational Sub-Committee:—Very Rev. J. Canon O'Donoghue, P.P.; Rev. Bro. O'Connell, Superior Christian Schools; Rev. V. W. Darling, M.A., Rector; Rev. W. K. Hayes, Methodist Minister; Mrs. S. Hurley, Messrs. E. P. Lynch, A. J. Powkes, J. Whelan, D. Dennehy, T. Beausang and T. Harrington.

Mr. Whelan having withdrawn his name, Mr. P. Kenneally was nominated instead, and the proposition passed unanimously.

The Press.

The Chairman said he noticed a report in the "Dungarvan Observer" commenting on language alleged to have been used at that council. He thought it very unfair.

Mrs. Hurley—I second that. I think it is perfectly disgraceful—a scandal. There was never a dirty word used there. As for the word "louse," there was nothing in that—it was in common usage in America.

Mr. McMahon said it wasn't the first time that happened. How long was the Press Correspondent going to be their schoolmaster and spiritual guide? They had a lady on the council who would resent anything like objectionable language. He supposed somebody was behind the writer putting him up to it. If there was any more of it he might tell them that, as an humble member of the council, he would move that the Correspondent in question be not allowed there, and that they apply to the newspapers to get some other correspondent. Like Mr. Barrett's shack on the Strand, he wasn't the only pebble on the beach. He (Mr. McMahon) wouldn't allow the council to be held up to ridicule in that manner. There was a lady there as good as any and she could bear him out. The Correspondent was paid for being there; they were not.

Mrs. Hurley said she had never heard a word that could be taken exception to.

Mr. McMahon said the Correspondent seemed to be watching the words that came out of their mouths—some of which didn't seem to agree with his Pecksniffian stomach.

Capt. Dunne said he never bothered about what appeared in the Press, but since he came on the council some members seemed to be always down on the officials and the Press—always having a crack at them.

Chairman—A crack now and again. The subject then dropped.

Tennis Courts.

On the proposition of Mr. O'Gorman, seconded by Mr. Whelan, it was unanimously decided to improve the condition of the Tennis Courts in the Green Park.

Present—Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., chairman; Mrs. S. Hurley, Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. D. Dennehy, E. P. Lynch, vice-chairman; T. Beausang, T. Murphy, J. Whelan, D. J. Linehan, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; E. Clancy, M. D. Broderick.

Repairs to "Rosaline."

The Harbourmaster reported that he had examined the motor boat "Rosaline," and he considered that the necessary repairs—for which a tender for £15 10s. had been received—could be done for £5.

Mr. Beausang proposed, and Mr. Murphy seconded, that the work be done under the Harbourmaster's supervision at a cost not to exceed £5.

Mr. Lynch thought that unfair to the contractor, who should get preference.

Chairman—But his tender for the work is £15 10s.

Mr. Lynch—Why not employ him by the day?

Mr. McMahon—If the board can save £10 10s. it would be very wrong not to do it.

Mr. Lynch proposed that the contractor be employed at so much.

The Clerk said that the amendment was too indefinite.

There being no seconder, the proposition was passed.

Burnt Stores Quay.

Considerable discussion took place on the question of the continued use of the Burnt Stores Quay as a "deep water berth," owing to the fact that vessels had to lay off some 30 feet from the quayside.

Mr. Broderick called attention to the fact that some of the absent members had a big interest in the question, and he suggested that it be put on the agenda for the next meeting.

This was finally agreed to.

Importation of Bricks.

Mr. Dennehy asked if any reply had been received from the Department to the council's resolution regarding the free importation of foreign brick.

The Clerk said they had got a formal acknowledgment, but nothing further.

Gas Show Rooms.

In accordance with notice, Mr. Whelan proposed that they continue the Gas Show Rooms in the South Main street for three months. If made proper use of, as was done in Cork and elsewhere, it would bring an increase of trade.

Mr. Murphy seconded.

Mr. Linehan said that up to the present it resulted in the sale of a heater or two and a few cooker books. The exhibition held in the town recently resulted in the sale of quite a number. It was waste of money to pay 10s. weekly for the Show Rooms.

Mr. Dennehy called for the Gas Manager's report.

Chairman—That is the sensible thing to do.

The Gas Manager called in said, in reply to the Chairman, said that the place was no use at all to them unless they put an assistant in charge, and there were too many loiterers around.

Mr. Lynch said the place didn't get a fair show.

Mr. McMahon proposed, and Mr. Linehan seconded, that they discontinue the place.

On a poll being taken the amendment was carried by 7 votes to 5.

Gravel From the Promenade.

Messrs. J. L. Keane and Son, solrs., wrote that Mrs. Hurley, P.C., had requested them to inform the council that a man whose name and address she would supply, if required, had been carting large quantities of gravel from the Strand during the past six weeks. She was also prepared to supply evidence proving the taking of the gravel. The owners of houses regard that as a very serious matter.

They asked if the council were prepared to prosecute in the circumstances.

Mr. Broderick said the council had no option but to prosecute.

Mr. Lynch asked were there not others besides the man referred to taking the gravel.

Chairman—We have to deal with what is before us.

Mr. Lynch said he heard that the Chairman had given permission to others to take the gravel.

Chairman—Can you prove that?

Mr. Lynch—It is the talk of the town.

Chairman—And you believe in the "talk of the town"—a queer way of doing public business. I gave no permission.

Mr. Linehan said that the stuff taken had been washed over the sea wall.

The Chairman said that was the fact. It was washed over.

Mr. Broderick—Is it from the promenade it was taken?

Mrs. Hurley—It was taken from where the cars were parked.

Mr. McMahon—Nobody has permission to take it.

Mr. Lynch—Let them all be summoned.

Mr. Broderick—The board didn't give permission to anybody.

Mr. Lynch said he could name 30 people who had drawn it.

Mr. Broderick said they had to deal with the letter before them, not with hearsay. They had no option but to prosecute. He didn't know who the person was, but he proposed that they prosecute.

Mr. McMahon seconded.

Mr. Beausang—When did this happen?

Mrs. Hurley—It is happening for the last month. It is a public disgrace.

Mr. Lynch proposed that they write to the person referred to, cautioning him and giving him a chance.

Mr. Clancy seconded.

After further considerable discussion a poll was taken with the following result:—

For the amendment—Messrs. Murphy, Whelan, Linehan, Beausang, Lynch and Clancy—6.

Against—Mrs. Hurley, Capt. Dunne, Messrs. McMahon, Broderick and the Chairman—6.

Mr. Dennehy didn't vote.

The amendment was therefore carried.

Dance Hours.

A letter was read from the Hon. Sec. Technical Students' Social Union applying for the use of the Town Hall for a Whist Drive and Dance on February 14th from 8 p.m. to 3 a.m.

The Clerk said there was also a letter from the Association Football Club asking the council to reconsider the granting to the hall to 12 o'clock instead of 9 a.m.

Mr. Murphy said 12 o'clock was late enough for anyone.

MULCAHY'S, Boot Specialists, Dungarvan.

Chairman—Do we adhere to our decision? The meeting unanimously decided to adhere to 12 o'clock.

The Tallow Road.
The Clerk stated that Mr. R. F. O'Gorman, County Surveyor, Cork, wrote stating that the council's complaint regarding the Youghal to Tallow road was receiving attention.

Mr. J. Bowen, County Surveyor, Waterford, wrote as follows:—I think you will find that the County Council of Waterford have always attended well to their parts of the Tallow road, and that same are in good condition. It is hoped that a portion of the road will be rolled and tarred next summer.

Strand Protection Association.
The Hon. Sec. of the Youghal Strand Protection and Development Association wrote putting before the council and asking their help and co-operation for the welfare of the town and strand:—(1) Would the council reconsider the lighting of town and strand by electricity? (2) Could not the council see their way to settle this matter with Mr. M. Barrett and have the ladies' cloak room started at once and have it ready for the summer season? Mr. McMahon said those matters could not be touched for six months. No action was taken.

The Clock Gate.
A letter was read from the District Engineer, Post Office, Cork, asking for consent to the placing of works consisting of "cable and brackets on wall of town clock, and placing of pole and underground cable on waste ground at back of town clock."

The Town Clerk pointed out that the town clock was a monument of the past, which possessed many interesting associations. The suggested cables and brackets would hardly be in keeping with its history. He therefore suggested that, in view of the efforts being made to preserve all their old monuments, the Post Office Authorities be asked to devise some other means of achieving their object.

This was unanimously agreed to.

POINT ABOUT A MOTOR CAR.
At Carrick-on-Suir District Court on Monday, before Mr. McCabe, D.J., Mr. J. F. Quirke, solr., asked to have a motor car, the property of Martin Banks, returned to him from the Guards' barracks. Banks was sent for trial on bail on a charge of having taken the uniforms of Free State soldiers. The use of a motor car figured prominently in evidence at the Special Court. Since Banks was arrested on 27th December the motor car has been in the custody of the Guards. It was Banks' chief means of livelihood.

The Justice said he had no power in the matter. All he could do was to express the view that he would be in favour of having the car given back to Banks. Mr. Quirke and the Superintendent might be able to arrange for the return of the car.

CARRICK-ONSUIR SEWERAGE SCHEME.
Following the last meeting of Carrick-on-Suir Urban Council, Mr. Jas. Verrington, Town Clerk, went to Dublin and interviewed the L.G.D. authorities there re the proposed sewerage scheme for Carrick. Mr. Verrington pressed the L.G.D. to make a further addition to the £1,000 free grant they have given towards the £10,000 sewerage scheme would cost. The Department authorities were very sympathetic and promised to give the matter favourable consideration.

Pending the decision of the Department re the increased grant, the special meeting of the Carrick Urban Council summoned for Saturday, 23rd inst., was postponed.

Youghal Motor Fatality

COURT PROCEEDINGS.

At Youghal District Court on Friday, before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L., Patrick Lynch, grocery salesman to Messrs. Martin and Blackwood, Ltd., Youghal, was charged with the manslaughter of Patrick O'Donoghue, Ballykenally, Ballymacoda.

Much interest was displayed in the case, the court being crowded during the hearing. Supt. Dennehy, Midleton, prosecuted; Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., Youghal, defended, and Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, held a watching brief for the next-of-kin.

The Superintendent having outlined the facts of the case, said the lorry was driven at the time by a man who was not authorised to drive, being only a salesman. There was a proper driver. He submitted that when the court had heard the evidence he would conclude there was something wrong and that it was a case which ought to be tried by a judge and jury.

Jas. O'Donoghue, Gurtavilla, Ballymacoda, insurance agent, deposed that on the 8th inst. he came to Youghal on a bicycle arriving about 12.30. After transacting some business in the town he met the deceased, Patk. O'Donoghue at about 5 p.m. His wife was with him at the time. He met them at Mr. Power's, Clock Gate.

Witness left his bicycle at Bushe's, North Main street, where he had his dinner. He remained with deceased till he left Youghal for home. They left Power's about 6 o'clock. The three of them sat in the pony tub trap. Deceased was sitting at the right-hand and witness and Mrs. O'Donoghue sat opposite. Pat O'Donoghue was driving, having one side of the trap to himself. They lit the lamp in Power's yard. They stopped at Miss Foley's, the Strand, remaining there about three minutes. Deceased and he went in there and had a drink. There was no truth in the rumour that witness and deceased were drunk. Between five and six deceased had three bottles of stout. Witness had two bottles of stout and a half of whiskey. They left Foley's about 6.45 or 6.20. All three sat into the trap in the same position as already described. They drove on and shot along to the main road. They then took the road home. They met five or six pedestrians and about six motor cars before the accident. Deceased was driving the trap on his right side of the road. He hadn't the slightest difficulty in passing any of these motor cars. They all had lights. The night was dry; there was no fog. All went well till they got to Ballyvergan. They were driving at their own side of the road, passed five or six motor cars with good lights. Their own lamp was lighting at the right-hand side and deceased was driving. The pony was a very steady animal on the road and it didn't appear there was any danger ahead. He noticed an oncoming motor a good distance away coming along in the Killeagh direction on the same road. It appeared to have good lights. Witness kept on watching the lights and suddenly he noticed it was entirely on their line of the road and almost up on top of them. It crashed straight into the pony. He couldn't remember any more as they were all hurled out of the car on to the road. He was stunned for the time being and the next thing he remembered as he regained consciousness he said: "My God, you have us all killed on the road." He was saying that to himself and muttering a few prayers for deceased. The driver and his companion were on the road near the lorry. The first time he saw them was when they were walking towards them on the road. He knew Lynch previously. He asked Lynch who owned the lorry, saying that they had them all dead on the road. He said: "You must be driving in America all your life." Witness said: "Wasn't it a terrible state of affairs or what was the matter with you at all? Who are you?" He said his name was Lynch. He said he was driving the lorry and that it was Mr. Twomey was with him. He also said he was a couple of years driving. Lynch said he was a native of County Kildare. Witness then told him to get a cushion to put under the poor man's head, which he did. The pony was restless and he asked them to look after it while he attended the poor man. Mr. Tom Fitzgerald then came along and took deceased and his wife to the hospital. Witness remained till the Guards came out when the cars were in the same position as at the time of the impact. The shafts of the trap were broken and the step at the back was bent up completely. There was no room on their left for a car to pass. It would all depend on the kind of a car. A motor car could not pass. A toy motor car or anything might pass. There was sufficient room on the right for any car to pass. Deceased was quite capable of driving a pony at the time of the accident.

Cross-examined by Mr. Keane—Between five and six o'clock the first drink he had with deceased was at Mr. Linehan's, the second at D. McCarthy's and the third at Miss Foley's, Strand. He left his bicycle at Bushe's that night and chose the drive home as it was a cold night. He wanted to complete some business next day and knew he would have plenty of drives to town. Dr. T. Kennedy, M.O. Youghal Cottage Hospital, deposed that he saw the deceased at about 7.30 on the night of the 8th. He was suffering from shock and concussion and was unconscious. He had a bruise over the right side of the head. There was no other wound or mark. On Saturday he developed symptoms and signs of compression of abdomen due to internal hemorrhage. An operation was performed on Saturday evening, 10th inst. He never regained consciousness. He died on Monday at 11.30 a.m. In his opinion death was due to shock and compression of the brain. A fall from a trap as described by last witness would have caused his injury. He appeared to be a healthy, well-nourished man, stated to be aged 72.

Mr. Keane didn't cross-examine. Mr. Thos. Fitzgerald, MacCurraintown, Youghal, motor owner, deposed he left Gurtava in a motor car about 7 p.m. on the 8th. A lady technical teacher was in the car with him. When he got to Mr. Flavin's gate he observed a light at a distance on the road. Witness had powerful headlights and he noticed that the light was stationary. He slowed down approaching it, and James O'Donoghue put up his hands for him to stop. When witness stopped he saw the pony lying on the road bleeding very hard. Witness got out of the car and switched on a flashlight to a man lying stretched on the road on two cushions. He recognised Pa Donoghue, whom he had known for years. Twomey, Lynch and Donoghue then came up and told him what had happened. They were all together. The trap was on the left-hand side of the road as it came from Youghal. The lorry was on the right-hand side going to Youghal. There was no fog and he had no difficulty in driving a car that night. He took deceased and his wife to hospital and Lynch came with them.

Mr. Keane didn't cross-examine. To the court—When he looked at these two vehicles he saw that the pony's head was practically under the radiator of the motor lorry. He noticed that the shafts of the trap were both broken and one of them completely gone from the socket and the shafts were on the road. The trap was upright on its wheels facing down shaft side. The pony was lying down and he wasn't sure, but he thought some of the traces were still attached to the pony and trap. He thought it was the left-hand shaft was broken completely off. He didn't think any lights were on the vehicles when he got there, but he thought Donoghue was going round with the car lamp lighted in his hand.

Jeremiah Twomey, Cork Hill, Youghal, motor driver, deposed he was employed 15 years by Messrs. Martin and Blackwood. He was driving motor vehicles seven years for the firm. On the evening of 8th January he was in charge of that Morris lorry, 13.9 h.p. It was a delivery van. They left Youghal about 2 p.m. Patk. Lynch, the accused, was with him. Witness's duty was to drive the car and deliver the goods. Lynch's duty was that of a traveller—to take orders and collect the money. They were out together for about 1 1/2 years three or four days in the week. On the day in question they first drove to Killeagh, then to Mogeely, Castlemary, Ladysbridge. There was nothing wrong with his health. He was driving till they got to Ladysbridge, where the accused, Lynch, took the wheel and drove to Killeagh and thence to the scene of the accident. Lynch drove the lorry several times during the past 1 1/2 years. They had no drink on the road. It wasn't dark when they left Ladysbridge. It was dark when they arrived at Killeagh. They stopped at Killeagh for a short time. They left Killeagh about 6.25 or 6.30 p.m. They had no fixed hour for return. They had a pair of good head lamps and the lorry was in first-class order with good brakes. They met one or two cars between Killeagh and the scene of the accident. They were doing about 18 m.p.h. The accident occurred about 7.45 or 7.50. Lynch didn't appear to have any difficulty in driving the lorry at any time. Witness didn't remember passing any cart on the road for a mile or two before the crash. He saw the accident occur; he was sitting near the driver. He saw the trap approaching first about 10 or 145 yards away. He saw pony, car and lamp, all three together. They had about 200 yards view from Gould's. There was a small bend in the road at the Killeagh side of where the accident occurred and the view was not very good. From that bend the road was straight for a distance of 300 or 400 yards. The accident happened on the Killeagh side of the bend. He didn't take any measurements, but roughly he thought the distance from the bend at the scene of the accident was from 50 to 100 yards. It was a dark and foggy night. They were travelling about the middle of the road when suddenly there was a pony and trap in front of them 10 or 15 yards. The driver of the lorry swerved in to the right-hand side of the road and the pony seemed to swerve also to the left-hand side of the road. The next thing he knew there was a crash. The lorry stopped and he got out. The pony was lying on the road with its head at the left front wheel of the lorry. The trap was held back. The shafts were broken. He saw a man and woman standing behind the trap. He went around to the back of the trap and there was a man lying on the road. The man was quite close to the trap. He helped to make the injured man comfortable. Some time after a motor car came along. They had the injured man put into the car and removed to hospital. The radiator of the lorry was bent and the top portion of the bonnet. The dashboard was bent inside the bonnet. It was all bent back. The petrol tank was a little bent. The windscreen was burst in over the steering wheel. The engine didn't stop, but the lorry was low in to town.

At this stage the Superintendent said he wouldn't produce any further evidence that evening, and Mr. Keane said he would reserve his cross-examination of the witness for next sitting. The accused was thereupon remanded on bail for a week.

County Libraries Committee.

At the recent meeting of the above, Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., presided. There were also present—Very Rev. M. C. Croly, P.P.; Rev. J. Walsh, C.C.; Rev. Bro. Gibson, Messrs. J. Goulding, T.D., R. J. Colender, J. F. Moloney, M. F. Walsh, D. Coughlan, M. Keane, J. Daly, R. J. Fox.

The various accounts presented by the Librarian were passed, but in the case of a payment of £30 to Mr. O'Connell, Lismore, for sheeting, decorating, etc., at the Carnegie Library, Lismore, it was understood the original estimate was £12, and a contract for that portion of the work was taken, but later other things such as decorating were found necessary and the contractor carried them out. Mr. Curran—They should have been tendered for.

It being explained that the committee had adopted the standing rules of the County Council, it was decided that in future tenders for all work costing £5 or over be tendered for.

Mr. Fox asked when may they expect the distribution of books would begin?

The Librarian said they would first open up the centres that already existed, and after that he would deal with the more important ones.

Mr. Fox—What about the centres where you have no buildings? Secretary—Go round and get buildings. The majority of the centres will be in schools.

Matrimony. The Chairman said the Librarian wanted 14 days leave as he was about to get married.

Mr. Fox—Is there any possibility of the future bride being Assistant Librarian? Librarian—That is what some of the members would like—cheap labour. The leave was unanimously granted.

Insurance. The committee decided to insure their property with the Irish Public Bodies Mutual Insurance Co. on the proposition of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. Colender.

Honorary Librarian for Dungarvan.

A letter was read from Miss Margaret Clancy stating that she was prepared to act as Hon. Librarian for Dungarvan.

The Secretary was directed to convey to Miss Clancy a unanimous expression of thanks from the committee.

Lighting Cappoquin Library. The tender of the Electricity Supply Board for the installation of seven lights in the Cappoquin Library for the sum of £7 7s. 6d. was accepted.

A Duplicator. On the question of providing a duplicator, the Secretary stated that since the matter was discussed at the previous meeting he had seen and worked a duplicator, which could be had at a cost of £8 10s.

Chairman—I understand that there is a duplicator idle in the office of the County Surveyor, and I suggest that we ask that. If that is not available we can discuss the other.

The suggestion was approved.

Subsistence Allowance. The Secretary raised the question of a subsistence allowance when compelled to be away from headquarters at Lismore. The question of travelling expenses had been previously fixed.

The committee held that any such allowance would not be sanctioned and the matter dropped.

Censorship of Books, Etc. Resolutions read from the "League of the Kingship of Christ" regarding the working, etc., of the Censorship Act, were marked "noted."

Delegate to Libraries Association. On the proposition of the Chairman, Mr. Goulding was unanimously appointed as delegate on the Libraries Association.

YOUGHAL G.A.A.

An organising meeting of the above was held in the Town Hall, there being a large muster of the local Gaels present. Messrs. Sean McCarthy, B.A., Chairman of the County Board, and Eamonn Fleming, vice-chairman, attended, with the officials of the local Club.

Mr. Fleming was moved to the chair, and he explained that the principal object of the meeting was the re-organisation of the Youghal Senior Football Team as of old. He dealt with the successes achieved in the past, and he appealed to all local Gaels to join in reviving the team and again taking their honoured place in future events.

Mr. McCarthy said he was glad to see all the old Gaels who were to the good amongst them, but he was further pleased to see so much new talent coming forward to their assistance in the good work in hand. To make a good start in the district they had arranged a match between the pick of West Waterford and East Cork at Carrigrohilly. In order to help the local Club to wipe off the debt on the Coperally Sportsfield he would be glad to give a lecture as soon as possible, the lecture to be supplemented with a concert. As regards the Christian Brothers' Gold Medal Tournament, the outstanding matches would be arranged as soon as possible.

The Chairman having addressed the meeting at length, some routine business was disposed of and the meeting adjourned.

CONCENTRATED FERTILISERS.

There have been many developments in the fertiliser industry since Leibig, Lawes, Gilbert and other investigators made successful experiments early in the 19th century. For many years phosphates were regarded as the only type of artificial manure. It was later realised that potash and nitrogen played very important parts in supplying raw food material to plants. Today balance in manuring is recognised as absolutely essential. Unfortunately many farmers still continue using phosphates only on their crops. To supply this balance in manuring compound fertilisers were manufactured to suit various crops and soils. Their value is considerable in reducing the trouble of mixing and saving time when the farmer is making every effort to get his crop sown. These compounds, or even the ordinary fertiliser mixed on the farm, are bulky to handle and spread and the cost of carriage is high. In order to save labour and speed up operations for the farmer, a big step forward has been made by Imperial Chemical Industries in manufacturing concentrated complete fertilisers which contain weight for weight, more than twice the amount of plant food occurring in ordinary mixtures. Two grades of these fertilisers are being put on the Irish market, one containing phosphates, potash and nitrogen and the other phosphates and nitrogen. Farmers can order these through their local merchants. Three to four cwt. of the former type per statute acre will give excellent results on potatoes and grass land deficient in potash. Two cwt. of the phosphate nitrogen type will give very satisfactory results for grass or hay on average soils.

£1,000 FOR 35 STATUTE ACRES.

The farm of 35 statute acres, together with a compact dwelling-house, the property of the late Miss M. Prendergast, Kilmory, Carrick-on-Suir (within the urban district) was sold by Messrs. Shee and Howe, auctioneers, for £1,000 and auction fees to Mr. James Hinchey, solr., Carrick-on-Suir (in trust for a client). Messrs. J. J. O'Shea and Co., solrs., had carriage of sale.

KILMACTHOMAS MEDAL TOURNEY (FOOTBALL).

Referee Matt Ryan (Kilrossanty F.C.) had no option but to grant a walk-over to Ballyduff, when Kill failed to field out against them in the Gaelic Sports-field, Kilmacthomas, on Sunday last. A friendly encounter between Ballyduff and Kilrossanty Selected went in favour of the latter lot by a substantial margin. The game provided the finest exhibition of the code seen locally for years, and was immensely enjoyed by the big crowd of spectators in attendance. Mr. Frank Drohan, P.C., had charge of a hurling challenge bout in which the junior groups of Ballyduff and Kilmacthomas figured principally. A fast, clean fray wound up with the sheet reading: Ballyduff, 6-1; Kilmacthomas, 4-0.
