Fatality at Shandon

YOUNG MAN'S SUDDEN DEATH.
THE INQUEST.

On Sunday evening a young man named Nelson Coward, aged 25 years, Stephen street, Dungarvan, met his death under tragic circumstances. He went for a walk on the Shandon road, and being, it is stated, subject to epileptic fits, he fell on the way, and was later found by some young men lying in the dyke in some inches of water and mud. On examination he was found to be dead. The Guards were at once summoned to the scene as also Dr. T. McCarthy, and all that was possible was done for the poor fellow, but without avail. Deceased was son of Mr. Hy Coward, and was cider maker at Power's factory.

THE INQUEST.

On Monday evening Coroner M. F. Motoney held an inquest without a jury into the circumstances attending the death of a young man named Nelson Coward, Stephen street, Dungarvan.

Sergts. Perrin and O'Shea represented the authorities.

Henry Coward deposed that the dead body was that of his son, Nelson Coward, who was aged about 25 years. He was a cider maker by profession. He last saw him alive about 3.30 p.m. on Sunday. He was then in his usual health. He attended church earlier in the day. He was subject to epileptic fits as a result of sunstroke, but appeared to be much better recently. Only once before he got a fit while out alone. He was under treatment by the late Dr. Hackett for four years.

Jas. Healy, Ballinacuck, deposed he was going for a walk about 3.30 p.m. When passing Callaghan's house at Shandon there was a man named Dwyer going ahead of him and he said: "Look where the man is lying on the side of the road." Witness went over and said, "that man is dead." He asked Dwyer if he better take him up? He did not remember what answer Dwyer gave. Witness then thought it better not to stir him. He was not breathing. He could not see his face, but the back of his neck was blue. There was about two inches of water running in the dyke under him and there was mud also. Witness went for the Guards.

To Sergt. O'Shea—Dwyer was about 30 yards in front of witness. The face and mouth of deceased were in the water.

Lee Dwyer deposed he left for a walk around by Kiladangan at 2.30 p.m. on Sunday and returned by Shandon. He was about 20 yards ahead of Healy. He saw a man in the dyke and he turned round and told Healy. They looked over him and came to the conclusion he was dead. That would be about 4.45 p.m. They did not see any sign of breathing, and he was all blue about the neck. Witness did not know deceased at the time. They thought the best thing to do was to report the matter to the Guards, and Healy said he would go to the barracks.

By Sergt. O'Shea—they did not touch the body as they came to the conclusion that the man was dead and that the Guards might like to see the position of the body.

Michael O'Brien deposed that about 4.30 he was at Wm. O'Donnell's, Kilrush. He said he would take a walk and went around Shandon. When he came to the blind boreen he saw a dog sitting on the fence and then he saw an object in the dyke and found it was a man lying on his face and hands. He thought at first he might be drunk, and did not like to have anything to do with him. He then came to the conclusion that he would lift him out of the dyke, and as he made an attempt to catch the collar of his coat the dog jumped off the fence on to the man's back and would not leave him touch him. He decided to go to Callaghan's house about 50 yards further on for help, and before he reached it he saw Thos. Kirby going in the gate and he shouted at him to come on, that there was a man in the drain smothering. The two of them ran back and then witness left Kirby go and went back to Callaghan's and called the men there. When they got back they lifted him out of the drain and Callaghan recognised him as Nelson Coward. They had great trouble in removing his collar. His face was black and blue. They lifted him and brought him to Callaghan's where they did all they could to revive him by rubbing his face and hands, but it was no good. They kept rubbing him until the doctor came. Witness at this stage said in his opinion the condition of the road was the cause of it, as there were pools of water 8 inches deep in the middle of the road, and the man had to keep in near the drain to avoid these. If he fell on the road he may have been all right.

Thos. Lee deposed that about 4 p.m. he passed deceased at the brewery.

He was walking slowly. Witness turned back home again, and when going out the second time he went into Drummy's house and remained there about 20 minutes. He then went down through the field from the back of Drummy's to Callaghan's house and he saw the crowd. There were four men bringing the body in the gate. They put deceased on a chair and started rubbing his face and hands, but there was no sign of life in the body. Witness noticed a blue mark across the nose of deceased. Since he saw him at the brewery until he saw him being brought into Callaghan's about half an hour elapsed.

Sergt. O'Shea deposed that about 5.15 on Sunday evening he got a report at the barracks that there was a man lying in the dyke at Shandon. He went in the direction of where the man was and found he had been removed to Callaghan's cottage. When he went to the house he saw the deceased. He then appeared to be dead. Witness tried artificial respiration for some time, but to no avail. He then went for Dr. McCarthy. When the doctor arrived he pronounced the man dead. He visited the dyke in which the man was lying. It is about two feet deep and slanting towards the road surface and about 1 1/2 feet wide. There was about two inches of water in the dyke and mud also.

To the Coroner—He could not answer if this road was under the care of the County or Urban Council, but from a pedestrian's point of view the road was not very bad.

Dr. T. McCarthy deposed to examining deceased on the previous evening. He could not be sure of the time, but it would be about 5.30 p.m. He was dead. In witness's opinion he was dead about 20 minutes and had died from natural causes—heart failure—following exposure, probably as a result of a fit.

The Coroner returned a verdict that deceased died of heart failure following exposure, due to an epileptic fit. An expression of sympathy was extended to the family by the Coroner, which was joined in by Sergt. Perrin on behalf of the Garda, and Mr. Dwyer.

DEATH OF MR. THOMAS CURRAN, GARRUNTURTON.

The death of Mr. Thomas Curran, of Garrunturton, Kilmacthomas, took place on the 26th inst. following an illness of some few months' duration and of a comparatively early age. Deceased, who was one of the best-known and most successful farmers in the district, belonged to an old and respected family, the Curran's of Robertstown. He was of a quiet and unassuming disposition, and was most friendly with all classes. His demise is deeply regretted, and much sympathy is felt with Mrs. Curran and family in their bereavement. R.I.P. The remains were removed to the Parish Church, Killohsantay, on Tuesday evening. Next morning Masses of Requiem were offered up for his soul, and the interment subsequently took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. W. J. Keogh, P.P., and Rev. J. Hart, C.C., recited the final prayers at the graveside. Both on Tuesday and Wednesday the attendance of the public reached immense proportions.

The chief mourners were—Mrs. Curran (widow); Masters Patrick, Jack and Willie, of Garrunturton; and Mr. James Curran, Robertstown (son); Miss Mary Curran, Garrunturton (daughters); Mrs. McLoughlin, Cork (deceased's sister); Mrs. Curran, Robertstown (daughter-in-law), etc.

KILMACTHOMAS FAIR.

Kilmacthomas monthly fair, held on Tuesday, was well supplied with keen demand for cattle in condition. Quotations—3-year-old bullocks, £18 to £20; do. heifers, £14 to £17; 2-year-old stores, £13 to £16; yearlings, £8 to £13; beef, 70s. per cwt.; dead weight wethers fetched from 65s. to 75s.; ewes 55s. to 65s.; hoggets, 35s. to 45s.; store pigs, 40s. to 50s.; bonhams, 30s. to 40s. each. The local traders were kept pretty busy during the day.

ARE YOU FOR KILL?

The big dance, under the auspices of the Kill Social Club, will be held on tomorrow (Sunday) night, and will, as heretofore, be organised on the most up-to-date lines. Music will be supplied by one of Ireland's leading bands—Arcadian (Waterford), and the catering will, as on previous occasions, be of the very best by Mr. John Kent, Kilmacthomas. Mr. Patrick Kirwan will act as M.C. The Sui-raway Bus Co. will run a special service from the city for the dance. Don't miss the "night of the year!"

Vocational Education Committee.

CONTINUATION CLASSES FOR CAPPOQUIN. PREMISES TO BE SOUGHT.

At the monthly meeting of the Vocational Education Committee, An Fear Mhor, V.C., presided. There were also present—Rev. Jas. Walsh, C.C.; Rev. Bro. Gibson, Messrs. Sean O'Curran, M. F. Walsh, J. Butler and M. Curran.

The Secretary stated the total amount to credit was £296 3s. 9d., and the payments at that meeting were £275 4s. 4d., leaving a balance to credit of £20 10s. 5d.

In connection with the monthly wages of £9 13s. 10d. to the caretaker, Mr. M. F. Walsh said the amount was very high, and the Secretary said his wages were 23s. a week with bonus.

Mr. M. Curran—What are his duties?

Secretary—He is here from 10 a.m. to 11 p.m., and is a whole-time officer. He is responsible for everything in the place.

Electric Ranges. The Department wrote re the special terms at which the E.S.B. offer electric ranges to Technical Schools in which domestic economy is taught. The cost of the juice would be 1d. per unit.

Mr. Butler—How are you working at present?

Secretary—The Instructor thinks the scheme is not up-to-date if there is not an electric range in the school. There are 12 electric ranges in the town.

Chairman—A good many of your students who may be taught to cook at the electric range may have to use the other way afterwards.

Secretary—There is no cost of installation.

Mr. Butler—In connection with the Lismore Hospital, light was to be installed for £38, and later we found it would cost £40 extra.

Chairman—If they got an order they would install it free.

Mr. M. Curran—From our previous experience of the E.S.B. you should not allow them to run away with your money.

Fr. Walsh said electricity was the thing of the future. It was a natural product.

Mr. Walsh—it would be well to have it distinctly understood that both ranges should be used.

Mr. S. Curran—We should be up-to-date. I propose we get the electric range at a cost of £13 6s. 8d. Mr. Walsh seconded. Passed.

The E.S.B. notified that the rate of charge for electricity used at the Technical School would be 6d. per unit for lighting and 1d. per unit for other purposes.

Instructors at Local Schools. At the last meeting the following resolution was passed by a majority—"That this committee considers it in the interests of vocational education in the district generally that the services of the instructors should be unconditionally available to the local schools where in the opinion of the committee these schools are suitable centres."

In reply to that resolution the Department now state—The Department is unable to agree to such a general and unconditional proposal. It is essential for the success of the Vocational Education Scheme that the services of the instructors should be reserved for the work of that scheme for which they have been primarily appointed, and that they should only be utilised otherwise in very exceptional circumstances. Any application from the Managers of a local Primary or Secondary School for the services of a teacher employed by the committee should be considered on its merits and should be recommended for approval only when the services of the instructor required can be spared at the time, and when satisfactory conditions for their utilisation and terms of payment are agreed upon. The recommendation of the committee with regard to each application, together with the reasons therefor, should be submitted for the consideration of the Minister.

The Department wrote sanctioning the exchange of typewriters and approving of the purchase of a sewing machine.

Committee's Seal. A fee of £2 2s. was passed to Mr. Lavelle, art teacher, for preparing the seal of the Vocational Committee. The seal, which is most artistic, was designed by Professor Sean O'Curran, and shows three lighted candles depicting truth, nature and knowledge. It was decided to take tenders for the making of the seal.

Demand. The Secretary said the demand to be made on the County Council for the coming year was £1,985. That came from the Ministry.

Mr. Butler—What was last year's demand?

Secretary—This is the first time a demand is made. Last year the Co. Council struck a rate of 4d. in the £ for Technical Instruction and 1d. for Irish.

Mr. Butler—How is the £1,985 arrived at?

Secretary—It was arrived at by the Ministry on the basis laid down in the Act.

Mr. M. Curran—It does not say how the £1,985 will be spent?

Fr. Walsh—It is 1 1/2d. in the £ on the county.

Horticultural Instruction in Urban Areas.

In connection with the making of arrangements to provide instruction in horticulture or other agricultural subjects for persons in Dungarvan urban area.

The Secretary said heretofore the Agricultural Committee did that, but under the Vocational Act they could not do so.

Mr. M. Curran—The services of the Instructors must now be asked by this committee if urban residents want their services.

Mr. Butler—There is very little demand for the horticulture it is money wasted.

Secretary—The demand of fruit-growing would not say so.

Chairman—There is only one application—from Mr. J. Curran, O'Connell street.

Bro. Gibson said heretofore the services of the Agricultural Instructors were available to people in the town, and now what were they to do?

Chairman—You could continue it on certain conditions.

Secretary—We have no power to call in any officers of the Agricultural Committee unless we pay them.

Chairman—You cannot fix a scale when you don't know the number of applications.

Bro. Gibson—If their services are used to the full in the county at present, they will not have time for you.

Chairman—It is a question of arranging between the two committees. The matter was adjourned.

Classes at Cappoquin. Mr. Walsh moved that Continuation Classes be established at Cappoquin, and that suitable premises be advertised for. He said these classes would be very necessary and they would be well attended. There were a lot of young boys and girls after leaving school and these classes would be a great boon to them. He was sure suitable premises could be got.

Mr. S. O'Curran seconded, and said they were behind time in Cappoquin. They had only National Schools there, and if they wanted to go to a Secondary School they had to go to Lismore or Mount Mellery. These places were only for the favoured few. They were catering for the rank and file and there was quite an opening for boys with a technical training in woodwork and mechanical engineering. There were a number of estates near Cappoquin employing a lot of hands, and they had also one of the largest garages in Munster in Cappoquin, which employed a big number of men and apprentices also. If in connection with the school they had a class of Motoring Engineering it would be very useful.

Mr. Walsh—The Woodwork and Domestic Economy Classes in Cappoquin are very well attended.

Fr. Walsh—if this were adopted now when would it come into operation?

Secretary—In April.

Fr. Walsh—Kilmacthomas and some other centres are also applying for classes, and it would be well to have them all put together, as in a few years' time there would be a Technical School in every centre. All the applications should be considered together and see how many you should establish next year.

Mr. Walsh—According to the Act you must provide them in two or three different centres.

Secretary—There is an application from Tramore for Commercial Classes.

Bro. Gibson—The premises would be a big expense.

Secretary—We have very poor premises for manual instruction in Cappoquin. In Kilmacthomas there is very suitable premises with the old bedroom of the workhouse and the room next it.

Chairman—Would that be too far from the village?

Secretary—No. Pupils will come for miles all round.

Mr. Walsh—The Brothers have a Manual Hall in Lismore.

Bro. Gibson—Could you act similarly in the Convent and let the outside teachers work there?

Mr. S. O'Curran said Lismore was well equipped already. It had a Secondary School for boys and girls and Cappoquin had none. If the Lismore people wished to attend the school in Cappoquin they would be welcome.

Mr. M. Curran—Bro. Gibson wants to save the cost of purchasing premises.

Bro. Gibson—I am only considering the expense.

Mr. S. Curran—You must provide premises some day.

Mr. Walsh—We are entitled to the classes in Cappoquin as well as anywhere else.

Bro. Gibson—Classes are already established at Cappoquin?

Mr. Walsh—Yes, but we have no premises.

Brother Gibson said in the industrial portion of the Convent of Cappoquin they would have accommodation for Domestic Economy Classes if they would avail of it.

Mr. S. O'Curran—There are some splendid premises in Cappoquin that would be available.

Mr. M. Curran—Could not we rent a premises?

Secretary—The Department want to put instruction on a permanent basis and not as before on an itinerant basis.

Mr. M. Curran—Cappoquin, Lismore, Tallow, Ardmore, Clashmore and Ring—all will want classes, and how many instructors will you want?

Fr. Walsh said they should have a plot of ground attached to the premises?

Chairman—It may be difficult to get that in a town.

Secretary—We have only Continuation Classes in Dungarvan.

Bro. Gibson said the nuns in Lismore are willing to provide such classes.

Mr. Walsh—You have a Boys' Class already in Lismore.

Chairman—There is a big country round Cappoquin and you must cater for it. No matter how efficient things are in Lismore you must provide for Cappoquin.

Mr. Walsh—How many are attending the Manual Class in Cappoquin?

Secretary—Fourteen.

Fr. Walsh suggested that suitable premises be advertised for first and then they could deal with the question.

Mr. Walsh—I want to see the Continuation Classes held in Cappoquin.

Mr. Butler—The necessity may be there for Continuation Classes, but I would not like to commit myself to say we should have Continuation Classes there at any price. If you pass the resolution you are committed to the classes. He suggested that they get suitable premises first with a view to the establishment of Continuation Classes.

Bro. Gibson said if Fr. Walsh and Fr. Crotty were to see if the convent premises in Cappoquin would be available it would be a good thing.

Mr. S. O'Curran—It would be better to have a separate premises and not be depending on the existing schools in Cappoquin.

Mr. Walsh then withdrew his motion, and it was decided to advertise for suitable premises in Cappoquin for the purpose.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

The weekly meeting of the above was held on Friday last. Mr. M. J. Keane, vice-chairman, presided. The other members present were—Messrs. Mee, Griffin, T. McCarthy and James McEvoy.

Expenditure.

The following pay sheets were submitted and passed:—General account, £16 13s. 10d.; housing account, £4 13s. 3d.; harbour account, £1 6s. 3d.

Dumping.

Arising out of the minutes of previous meeting at which a letter was read from Mrs. Griffin, Abbeyside, re the dumping of loose papers, Mr. Griffin asked what was the order made? Was an order made to prevent all dumping?

Clerk—The objection was only against loose papers.

Mr. Griffin—The order should be made definite as some people seem to think that all dumping is stopped.

Financial Position.

The following statement showing the financial position of the council to date was submitted by the Clerk:—Amount to credit on the general account, £417 17s. 1d.; poor rate account, £217 15s. 9d.; housing account, £89 4s. 1d.; and harbour account, £61 11s. 8d. Poor Rate (first moiety)—£1,850 17s. 11d.; collected, £1,637 6s. 7d.; outstanding, £222 11s. 4d. Second Moiety—£1,701 4s. 11d.; collected, £602 9s. 6d.; outstanding, £1,098 15s. 5d. Town Rate—(first moiety)—£1,971 5s. 11d.; collected, £1,704 9s. 3d.; outstanding, £266 16s. 8d. Second Moiety—£1,773 6s. 6d.; collected, £860 0s. 3d.; outstanding, £1,113 6s. 3d. Domestic Water Rate (first moiety)—£145 4s. 8d.; collected, £120 17s. 11d.; outstanding, £24 6s. 9d. Second Moiety—£121 2s. 3d.; collected, £44 9s. 5d.; outstanding, £76 12s. 10d. The unexpended balances available under the different headings to the end of the year were given as follows: Roads, £87 8s. 2d.; water, £19 10s. 3d.; artisans houses, £23 10s. 1d.; scavenging, £44 15s. With regard to the headings town's improvement and sanitary, the amounts were over-expended by £85 8s. 1d. and £145 18s. 10d. respectively.

Acknowledgments.

Letters acknowledging resolutions of sympathy passed to them in their recent bereavements were read from Wm. O'Donnell, C. Spratt and John Foley.

The following letter was read from Mr. Patrick Morrissey, Abbeyside, stating that Mr. Dee was to be favoured with his choice of the four new houses at Sarsfield street. He thought he had first preference, and as he had asked for the lower house at the start, he did not think anyone could do him out of it. If I don't get the lower house I shall stay where I am until I get a house that will suit me. I trust the council will see that right is done for me. Mr. Dee has a house to live in, but the house that I live in is as you know condemned for human habitation. I am paying the council 3s. 3d. a week rent for a house that my family and self are living in at the risk of our lives as the walls are ready to collapse, and all round it a perfect commonplace, so I sincerely hope there is right in Dungarvan yet.

The letter was referred to the collector.

Spring Road.

Mr. Bowen wrote:—I am in receipt of your letter of the 20th inst. re the above. The road in question does not appear to have been included on the official road schedule of the county.

Burgery Footpath.

I invite your council to look at the way this path has been restored after the laying of your sewer. I assume you wish that we should restore the surface properly at your expense when you have left it several months in its present state.

The letter was deferred for future consideration.

The Causeway.

Mr. Griffin proposed a resolution, which was passed, asking the County Surveyor to re-surface the footpaths at the Causeway and to have chains thereon repaired also.

Remuneration for Clerk.

The application by the Clerk for remuneration in connection with extra work arising out of the Abbeyside housing scheme was considered, and on the proposition of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. McEvoy, a sum of one per cent. was granted. Mr. Griffin dissenting.

Sympathy.

The following resolution of sympathy was proposed by Mr. McEvoy, seconded by the Chairman, and passed in silence—"That we, the members of the Urban Council, desire to tender to Mr. James Curran, our respected harbour-master, our sincere sympathy on the death of his relatives Capt. M. Clifford and Mr. F. Williams."

WANTED—Weekly supply of best Culliflowers—Kelly's, Green Grocers, William street, Waterford.

Tallow District Court.

STRANGE LARCENY CASE.

Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.

Possession Cases.
In the adjourned case of the Cork County Board of Health against Thos. O'Keefe, Keleronat, for the possession of a labourer's cottage.

The Justice said that Mr. Condon, rent collector, being formally appointed by the plaintiffs, had a right to appear in the case as preferred, and he therefore granted a decree for possession.

Richard Hill, Glenatore, summoned moned Denis Regan, labourer, for the possession of a cottage.

Plaintiff said that defendant had been a workman of his and held a cottage on the farm. He left the work last November, and although he promised to return, he hadn't done so. Plaintiff now required the cottage for a man coming in his place. He had asked defendant for possession, but was refused.

A decree for possession was granted.

Music or Noise.

Sergt. Conboy charged Patk. Carr, of no fixed abode, with drunkenness. Justice—The summons asks him to appear on the 20th January, 1930.

Sergeant—I'd ask your Worship to amend that.

Justice—But he is not here.

Defendant appeared at this stage.

Complainant said that defendant was drunk on the public street at Ballynoe on January 5th and making noise.

Complainant—He had a violin and was playing it (laughter).

Justice—Do you call that noise?

Sergeant—He was shouting as well as being drunk.

Defendant said he had the pledge for three or four months. Coming on the New Year he attended four or five parties and he had no sleep for two nights running. He had a few "wets" and they overcame him.

Replying to the Court, the Sergeant said that defendant had been up before the August Court, but was let off.

Justice—I'll let him off with a half-crown fine this time.

Wandering Goats.

Guard O'Leary, Tallow, charged Patrick Geany, Knockbrack, with allowing seven goats wander on the main road to Middleton.

Complainant said the defendant was unable to attend, being in hospital.

The Justice said he would let him off with a caution in the circumstances, but a heavy fine would be imposed for any future offence of the kind.

No Light.

The same complainant charged Ed. Murphy with using an unlighted vehicle. Complainant asked him to get a light, but he refused. Fined 5s.

Guard O'Leary, Tallow, charged Pk. Hogan, Knocknamuck, with a similar offence. He gave no excuse.

Replying to the Court, the Guard said that defendant was "one of those Hogan's, the tinkers" (laughter). He was fined 2s. 6d.

Larceny.

Supt. A. E. Reynolds, Fermoy, charged a young girl named Norah Casey, Ballyhenry, Clondouane, with the larceny of a £1 note, a wristlet watch, a silver brooch, a lady's hair slide, a hair comb, 4 handkerchiefs, one lady's overall, one towel, a pull-over, a quantity of lady's underclothing, etc., value 40s., the property of Frederick Bryan, Kilcoran, Conna.

Mr. J. R. Barry, solr., Fermoy, prosecuted.

The Justice was about taking depositions, when Mr. Barry said the girl was only 15 years of age and she consented to be tried summarily.

Frederick Bryan said he lived with his wife and two children, aged 4 and 2, at Kilcoran. A working boy also stayed in the house. Accused was with them since last July as servant. On St. Stephen's Day he had reason to suspect something. On the night of January 5th they searched the girl's room and found a £1 note, the watch, brooch, clothing, etc. They were in her box and in parcels. She said she didn't want them to open the parcel containing her new shoes, and she snatched something out of one and tried to throw it out of the window or hide it. Witness took it from her; it was a £1 note. She said she found it behind the press, but there was no press there. He had missed £1 out of the pocket of his waistcoat in his bedroom. There were also a £10 note and a £5 note there, but they were all right. He had examined it the Sunday morning before.

Cross-examined by Mr. Barry, witness said his wife suggested they should search Nora Casey's room. Just before that his wife sent the girl on a message. He could not say if it was to get her out of the way. One of the children cried and his wife asked the girl where were the biscuits, oranges and chocolates. She said she didn't know, and his wife then said she would soon know. They went in and in the first parcel opened they found the biscuits and oranges. The other things were in five or six parcels or in the girl's box. There was a new pair of shoes in a parcel. She didn't want to have it opened. His wife had bought them for her at Ballynoe.

As a matter of fact at this particular time was there not two young men named Tobin and McCarthy sleeping in the house? Yes. In the room off that in which this girl slept? Yes. There was no lock on the door between? There was a bolt. A man named Manning also slept in the house? Sometimes. And all of those could easily go into this girl's room? Yes. Did you see this girl wear any of those things? No.

To the Superintendent—those parcels were in the girl's room when they went in, also the box. He didn't give her permission to take any of those things.

Mrs. Jennie Bryan said the accused was with her since 20th July. She was all right at first, but only muddling after. As a result of missing the oranges and chocolates she searched the girl's room and found the other articles in five or six parcels as described by her husband. The girl said she got the £1 from her mother. All the articles taken were worth about £5. She said she wanted the £1 to buy a suitcase.

Cross-examined by Mr. Barry—Witness said she last gave the girl £1 on Stephen's Day to bring home to her mother—she told her husband to give it to her. She never saw the girl wearing any of those clothes. She didn't question her about the things for she didn't think she would do such a thing. When the child cried she went to look for the oranges and she found all the things. She didn't miss the things till she found them in the girl's room. Some of the things were hers and others her sister's.

Did you believe your husband had £16 in his possession after Christmas? He could have and £20. Your husband drinks? Better ask himself. If you knew he had £16 in his pocket you would not permit it? No answer. You don't believe he had this money in his pocket? No answer.

When witness bought the shoes it about squared their account. She didn't give the girl £1 to buy the shoes.

As a matter of fact, was it not the £1 note that brought this whole thing about? No answer.

Miss Lily Hill, sister of previous witness said that some of the things were hers. Some had been in the sitting-room and some upstairs.

Cross-examined by Mr. Barry, witness said that the children never played with those things—she thought more of them than to allow that. The brooch belonged to her mother and she valued it accordingly. The clothes were her sister's.

Sergt. Conboy said that accompanied by Guard Reilly he went to the house on January 5th. The accused was in her room sitting on the bed. He asked her did she take any of those things and she said "Yes." Witness then arrested and cautioned her. She made a statement to the effect that she took the £1 on Sunday, the jumper and cakes, etc., that day. Mrs. Bryan then gave him the articles except some bed clothes.

Cross-examined by Mr. Barry, witness said the girl was inclined to be excited when he wrote out the statement, which was not coherent.

Mr. Barry reviewed the evidence at length, pointing out that a number of the articles referred to being of very little value might be left out of the question. As regards the £1 note, he said there appeared to be a genuine mistake, and he stressed the fact that quite a number of persons had easy access to the girl's room. Did the court wish to have her sworn?

Justice—That is a matter for you, Mr. Barry.

Accused was then sworn.

Justice—First of all, what is your age?

Accused—15 on 20th June last. Witness then said she didn't take the handkerchiefs. She used wear the jumper. She had never seen the wristlet watch before. She had heard it was found in the house after a dance. The children had some of the things playing with round the house. She found the nepin in her overall. She didn't know how the other things got into her room. There was £1 on the dresser and Mrs. Bryan told her to take it the Tuesday before New Year's Day. Her room opened off the room the boys slept in.

Cross-examined by the Superintendent—That was her first job. She didn't know why the Bryan's should frame up that thing against her. The parcels found in her room were not tied by her. She was there when they found those things in her room. She didn't know who put them there. Do you remember what you told the sergeant that night? Yes. You told him you stole the £1? Yes. Is that true or false? It is false. Mrs. Bryan told me to say that I took it, and that there would be nothing done to me. So that everything you told the sergeant is all lies? Yes. Every single thing in it? Yes. She found the pin in her jumper. She had never seen the brooch or the watch before.

To Mr. Barry, witness said she was going to leave because the boy Tobin used to be catching her. She complained to Mrs. Bryan, who did nothing about it.

To the Court, witness said there was nothing found in one of her shoes. Mrs. Bryan gave her £1 after Christmas and she gave it back. Her wages were £1 a month. She complained to Mrs. Bryan about the boy annoying her many times. She didn't leave sooner because she had no other job. She had given the £1 back to Mrs. Bryan when she asked witness to say that she had stolen it. What do you say about the other articles? I don't know anything. Did you know you were being charged with stealing the whole lot? Yes.

John Nevin, step-father of accused, said he met Bryan on Christmas Eve. Witness wasn't quite sober—there was a lot of Christmas spirit, knocking about (laughter). They had some words about the girl, and as a result Bryan had a grievance against him.

Justice—What are you suggesting by that? Nothing only it might be a bit of a notice to take revenge out of her somehow or other. So you suggest that because you had a row with Bryan, those people fabricated a criminal charge against a young girl of 15 and committed perjury?

Mr. Barry addressed the court at length. He said the gravamen of the charge was the £1 note, and as regards that he argued that there was a genuine mistake arising out of the question of the account between the parties and the purchase of the boots by Mrs. Bryan. He submitted there was not sufficient proof to convict her of larceny.

The Justice said that while Mr. Barry had done his best according to his instructions, he (the Justice) was reluctantly forced to the conclusion that he couldn't believe a word of her defence unless he was to be asked to conclude that those respectable people had entered into a conspiracy to fabricate an offence against her. Some of the articles might be of little value, but a person who would steal one thing would steal other things. They were all found in her room. Was the evidence of Bryan and his wife regarding the £1 note in the shoe a deliberate invention? She would be convicted of the whole charge in its entirety.

Mr. Barry made a strong appeal to the court on account of the girl's extreme youth.

The Justice said it was all fine and large having people coming up on charges of the kind and being automatically admitted to probation, but having regard to the instructions she gave her solicitor and the method of defence adopted, he wasn't going to take that course in that particular case, but he didn't propose sending her to prison. She would be fined £1 and ordered to pay 7s. 6d. costs, the £1 and the other articles to be returned. He was going to take a different course with youthful offenders for the future. He regretted to say that that class of case was arising too frequently for his taste, and he intended in future, if the circumstances justified, to impose a term of imprisonment without the option of a fine.

Bus Driver Charged with Manslaughter.

ACCUSED ACQUITTED.

At the Circuit Court, Waterford, on Monday, Michael Kearney, driver of a "Rapid" bus from Dungarvan to Cork, was indicted with the manslaughter of Surgeon-General Crowley, Lismore, who on the 9th November last was knocked down by the bus at Ballygalane Cross and subsequently died.

Mr. Budd B.L. (instructed by Mr. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan) appeared for the accused, and pleaded not guilty. Mr. Bacon, B.L. (instructed by Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr.), prosecuted for the State.

The circumstances of the accident were that on November 5th, a wet and very windy day, a man named James Curran was driving a motor car from Cappoyin to Lismore, and when passing Ballycullane Cross he saw Surgeon-General Crowley standing at the entrance to the main road on the right-hand side. He nodded to the surgeon, and believing that he was walking to Lismore, pulled up the car on the left-hand side of the road, about thirty yards beyond the crossing. Looking out, he beckoned to the deceased to come along and he would give him a lift. While the deceased was crossing the road, which was 19 feet wide at the point, the bus came along and knocked him down as he was about to get into the car. The surgeon, who was about seventy years of age, had been wearing a cloak turned up about his ears, and possibly did not hear a horn, if one was sounded. In justice to the accused, it must be said that the 'bul pulled up on the right-hand side of the road almost immediately. It would appear that the bus had swerved to the right-hand side of the road.

James Curran said that on the 5th November last he was driving a car to Lismore. It was a very bad day. He had just reached Ballycullane Cross when he saw Surgeon-General Crowley, who was standing at the entrance to the main road on the right-hand side. He shook his head to the deceased and pulled up about 30 yards beyond the cross. He opened the door of the car and looked out noting that Surgeon-General Crowley was moving towards him. The deceased had been talking to another gentleman. Through the side-screen he saw the deceased just at the rear door of the car when the bus knocked him down, and, after striking the open door of the car, pulled up immediately.

His Lordship said he was surprised to see that neither side had any map. The bus, said witness, continuing, had come from behind, and witness, when he got out of the car, saw the bus driver and the conductor lifting the deceased from beneath the bus, behind the front wheel. Witness heard no sound of a horn. Witness took Surgeon-General Crowley home.

In reply to Mr. Budd, witness said there was a bend on the road and a high stone wall on the left-hand side of the road near the cross. He pulled up about thirty yards around the bend and about two or three feet from the left-hand side of the road. The scratch on the car of witness had been caused by the bus after the surgeon had been knocked down. Witness had side-screens and hood up that day, and the wind was blowing a hard gale.

The jury found the prisoner not guilty and he was discharged.

Youghal District Court.

Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.

Walsh v. Keane.

This was an examination as to means. Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., for plaintiff.

Replying to Mr. Keane, defendant said she was a widow and kept a lodging-house at Ardmore. The past three summers were not much. The Irish College was no benefit for a couple of years. She bought the bus, which was the cause of that case, on the instalment plan, but Mr. Walsh (plaintiff) got it back again. She had no money lodged in court belonging to her children. It had not all come from America yet. Mr. Keane, solr., Waterford, had the case and the money would be lodged in court.

How much is it altogether? I could not tell you—£1,500 or £1,600. £800 of that has come home, but is not lodged in court yet. Are you not getting interest on that for your children? Not yet.

She had three children. She had no means of her own and could not pay anything at present. Only one fortnight of last summer was any good.

Mr. Keane asked the court to make an order for the payment of a small amount. She had 30s. weekly from lodgers.

Justice—That is gross, not nett. You ought make inquiries about the American money.

Defendant said she would do her best.

The case was adjourned to the first court in August.

Martin and Blackwood, Ltd. v. Griffin.

This was a similar case. Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., for plaintiffs, and Mr. Wm. H. Hodnett, solr., for the debtor.

To Mr. Keane, defendant said he could not pay anything at present. He had been hard hit by sickness and bad trade. He owed over £400, but was paying only for what he was buying for some time past.

The Justice, having examined the decree, said he didn't understand the situation. It was returned at £3 10s. marked "no goods." There were court messengers and sheriff's fees—15s. 6d. The statement of assets included a horse, £5; a van, £3, and a Ford motor car £7.

To the Court—The horse and van were there when the seizure was made—it was by them he made his living. The Ford was off the road. He was 2 1/2 years sick and had to pay a doctor and a shop girl. His children were aged 2 years and 9 months.

To Mr. Keane—his sales were bread and groceries. He got 2d. on the 4lb. loaf, the cost price being 7d. The motor car which had been bought by his wife was no good.

Mr. Keane—What is the difference? Justice—Sometimes there is a difference (laughter).

After a further lengthened examination defendant said he would sell the car if he got a buyer.

Justice—Perhaps the plaintiffs would purchase it.

The case was ultimately adjourned for three months.

The Justice said he found it difficult to fit some of those cases with orders within the four corners of the Act. Take the case of a small debt in which the plaintiffs had taken proceedings and recovered the most of it, and then came into court in that manner to realise the balance. He had to keep one eye on the costs incurred by further proceedings. Personally he had a great disinclination to see any sum for costs exceed a reasonable proportion of the sum sought to be recovered. If he made a small order in the case of a small debt he must be prepared to go into questions of farthings and halfpennies, metaphorically speaking. Sooner than make an order in some of those cases he preferred not to make an order at all, so as to give the debtor a chance to see if things would improve.

Griffin v. Mahony.

This was a civil bill by the defendant in the last case for 33s. 6d.

Mr. Hodnett said that was one of a big list of debts outstanding.

The Justice, reading from statement—Good debts, £9 18s.; doubtful, £3 8s.; bad, £7 17s.

Justice—Over what period? Plaintiff—Six years.

Justice—75 per cent. of the total.

A decree was granted for the amount. Credit 7s. 10d. paid since the issue of the civil bill.

Mr. Hodnett said it was only fair to say that the plaintiff had brought him from time to time lists of debts that were absolutely irrecoverable. The present case had been adjourned from week to week over a considerable time.

Drunk.

Guard Downes charged William Meade, Greeneloyne, with being drunk and incapable. He hadn't been up for the past 12 months.

In the circumstances the Justice adjourned the case for three months.

No Lights.

Sergt. O'Connor, Killeagh, charged Moe. Rourke, Ring, with using an unlighted vehicle. Fined 2s. 6d.

Guard Quinn charged David Whelan with using an unlighted bicycle. Fined 1s.

Guard Quinn charged Robert Rumley with a like offence. Fined 3s.

The same complainant charged Jeremiah Bernard with a like offence. Defendant's excuse was that his lamp was after going out. There was no candle in it.

Justice—How could it go out if there was no candle in it (laughter). Defendant was fined 3s.

ADVANCE SPRING FASHIONS.

Oil alone is not sufficient for polishing your Harness, as it contains no Preservatives and only softens the leather.

THE DAY-SHU POLISH CO., DUNGARVAN.

Malicious Injury.

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore charged Ellen and Michael Walsh, Coolbeggan, with malicious injury to a farm out-office.

The Superintendent said it was a case of the larceny of some boards, the property of Martin Murphy, Park.

Edward Walsh, brother of male defendant, said he was caretaker of Mr. Murphy's outside farm at Coolbeggan. Missing a 6 and a 12 foot board from a partition in the building used as a store-house, he reported the matter to the Guards. The two boards were found in accused's house.

Michael Walsh pleaded guilty and accepting full responsibility, Ellen, his wife, was discharged.

Mr. Thos. Murphy, son of the owner, said the timber was value for 10s. Walsh had been 25 years in his father's employment and there was nothing against him previously. Being in poor circumstances, if he had asked for the boards, they would have given him something instead.

He was let out under the P.O.A. in his own recognisances of £5.

Manslaughter Charge.

In the adjourned case of the Attorney-General against Patk. Lynch for the manslaughter of Patk. O'Donoghue in a motor collision.

Supt. Dennehy applied for a further adjournment of two weeks.

Mr. T. K. Keane, solicitor for the defendant, consenting, the application was granted.

Recent Joy Ride Case.

Wm. McLoughlin and James Mulcahy, MacCurtainstown, were charged with not entering into the recognisances ordered in connection with the charge of having broken into the Pacific Hotel Garage and taken out a motor car, the property of Miss A. Meade.

Supt. Dennehy said the defendants made no attempt to comply with the order made, and he asked the court to review the matter.

Mr. Keane (for McLoughlin) said the fault might have been his as he didn't inform his client it was necessary to do it at once.

Justice—Do they appear now? Mr. Keane—Yes.

Justice—Let them show themselves beside the dock.

The names of the sureties having been submitted and accepted.

The Justice said that the impression had had to be applied for by the Superintendent was that those two young men were inclined to treat the court with a certain amount of disrespect. If he thought that was the case he would review the order made last day, as he had full power to do under the Probation of Offenders Act, and send them to where they deserved to be sent the first day. Unfortunately he was being forced to the conclusion, particularly in dealing with youthful offenders, that leniency was misinterpreted as weakness. For the future it would be unfortunate for some of those youths if that view were to be taken, because it was quite as easy for him, sitting there and trying the case—much easier in fact than the trouble of finding excuses and reasons for their action—to make an order for their imprisonment. If they took the view referred to they were making a big mistake.

Replying to the Court, Mr. Keane said that the amount ordered to be paid would be paid that day. He was sorry if the court was under the impression that any disrespect was meant.

The Justice said it was the first time in his experience where having admitted people to bail under the Probation of Offenders Act that a summons had to be applied for to bring them before the court a second time. They were treading on very thin ice as far as he was concerned.

The bonds were then completed and the defendants discharged.

Occasional License.

Mr. Hodnett (for Mr. W. J. Barry, solicitor, Middleton) applied for an occasional license for Mrs. Martha Walsh, Upper Aghada, for the night of February 3rd for the Parochial Hall, Aghada, where a Farmers' Union Dance and Whist Drive were to be held. The hours were from 9.30 p.m. to 6 a.m.

Supt. Dennehy said he would like to curtail the hours to 11 p.m. to 4 a.m.

The Justice granted the application, the hours to be from 11 p.m. to 4 a.m.

UNEMPLOYMENT GRANT.

At the meeting of the Waterford Co. Council last week.

On the question of grants for unemployment, Mr. O'Ryan said he read recently that counties that had not appointed a County M.O.H. would not get anything like the share of the £300,000 grant for unemployment that counties would get that had made such appointments. Unless we impose further burdens on the ratepayers we won't get a full grant.

Mr. Heekin—It is only robbing Peter to pay Paul.

Mr. O'Ryan said Col. O'Higgins was County Medical Officer of Health at a salary of £200 a year, which with expenses brought it to over £1,000 a year, and in addition he had £300 a year as a T.D. in place of working for the people he was going round the country making political speeches.

Mr. Black—He must be a Sinn Feiner I bet you.

Larcenies at Cappoquin

CULPRIT GETS 18 MONTHS' HARD LABOUR.

At the Circuit Court, Waterford, on Monday, John Fitzgerald, of no fixed abode, was charged with breaking into the shop of Bridget O'Keefe and Annie Dunne, Cappoquin, on October 20th last and stealing a quantity of cigarettes and tobacco value £20 and a cloak value £2. He was also charged with being in possession of the cigarettes and tobacco knowing them to have been stolen.

Mr. Bacon, B.L. (instructed by Mr. E. A. Ryan), appeared for the State. Mr. Bacon said he did not propose to give any evidence to show that the defendant was near the shop, or had any of the stolen articles in his possession, when arrested. They would prove, however, that the shop had been broken into and about 60 lbs. of tobacco and cigarettes taken away. Between then and the time of his arrest it will be shown that the accused was in possession of tobacco which he offered for sale at a price that was a great deal less than the shopkeeper would have to pay for it.

Laurence Dunne, Cappoquin, said he lived in main street, Cappoquin, with his mother, Annie Dunne, who, with Bridget O'Keefe, kept a snuff shop. He opened the shop on the 21st of October, and when he went into the shop he noticed that a door leading on to the back yard was open. It had glass panels in it, and one of the panels was missing. He found that the glass had been taken out from the outside, and the key of the door was accessible to anyone standing outside. He found the laths which had kept the glass in place and a chisel lying on the ground. An office at the back of the shop had been thoroughly rifled, and in the garden a ladder used by the workmen had been placed against the wall. Two snafes had been completely cleared. He reported the matter to his aunt. The majority of the stock missing was Clarke's and Carroll's tobacco.

Mrs. Annie Dunne said she locked up the shop on the night of the 20th of October. She locked all the doors at the rear from the inside, and the front door from the outside. On the morning of the 21st of October her son told her that someone had been in the shop and she found two sheaves of tobacco missing, consisting of 32 lbs. of Clarke's tobacco, 4 lbs. Walnut plug, a tin of Bruno tobacco, and quantities of Garrywoon and Murray's tobacco. A waterproof coat had been hanging in the office on the previous night, and that was also gone. She paid about 10s. 8d. per lb. for tobacco and sold it at 4s. 4d. per two ounces. The profit was very small, but a discount was allowed her.

Kate Power, Kilrossanty, said she kept a snop in which she sold tobacco and cigarettes. On the 20th October she met the accused, who asked her to buy tobacco, remarking that there was a bit to be made on it. He said: "You can have 60s.—tenpence for two ounces." Witness did not buy any, and the accused asked her if there was a Guards' barracks in the village.

In reply to the accused, witness said she had been asked to attend an identification parade, but did not do so.

James Glavin, who resides near Killrossanty, said he was standing near Kate Power's cottage on the 20th October, and he saw him talking to Mrs. Power. The man was the accused now in the dock.

Wm. Power, residing near Kilmacthomas, said he kept a shop. On Sunday, 28th October, a man went into the shop and asked witness if he would deal in a bit of Clarke's and Murray's tobacco. He said he had six pounds of it, and wanted thirty shillings for it. Witness said he did not want it. The accused had a papered parcel under his coat. He told witness that he found the tobacco on the road, where it had fallen off a bicycle, fifty miles away. Cappoquin was 22 miles away from where witness lived. At an identification parade later witness picked out the accused as the man who had come into his shop.

Thomas O'Toole, 53 Ballytruckle, said one day late in October a man went into his shop and asked him if he would buy a little thing—tobacco. He said he would give witness, who kept a shop, two ounces for a shilling, but he did not buy it. He had no doubt the accused was the man who offered him the tobacco.

John Quimmins, labourer, Ballytruckle, said on the 20th October a man spoke to him about smoking. He then asked witness if he would buy tobacco, and he (witness) told him that he did not smoke that kind of tobacco. He offered two ozs. for 1s. The defendant was the man who offered him the tobacco.

Katherine Walsh, 57 Ballytruckle, said she had a shop in which she sold tobacco. On October 27th last she was in the shop and the defendant came in and offered her 18 ounces of plug for 8s., and reduced it to 7s., and then to 6s. She told him she would not touch it, and that if he did not get out she would send for a Guard. He suggested that witness was insisting he had stolen the tobacco, and she replied that if he had got it honest he could not sell it so cheaply. Witness attended an identification parade and picked out another man, but now she knew the defendant was the man. There was no doubt about it.

Detective-Officer Dowling said that on the 20th October he met the defendant at his wife's street, and he told witness he had come from Dungarvan. In further reply the defendant said he had been in Clashmore and previously at Cashel. Later witness heard of the larceny of tobacco, and he went back to the defendant, who denied that he had been selling a plug or two which he had bought along the road. He further told witness he was a farm labourer and had been working in Cumberland. He found the defendant had money in his possession—two pound notes, a ten shilling note and silver, totalling £3 14s. 6d.

In reply to the accused, witness admitted that he did not see any incriminating evidence in his room, nor did he see the accused attempt to sell any tobacco.

Addressing the jury, he said he had never been in Cappoquin in his life, and never had any tobacco at any time, and it was clearly a case of mistaken identity. The money in his possession had been satisfactorily accounted for.

His Lordship commented on the fact that the accused did not go into the box. There was not sufficient evidence to sustain the charge of breaking and entering the house at Cappoquin, and he should be found not guilty. The State had to prove beyond doubt that the goods had been stolen, and, as regards the defendant being in possession of stolen goods, they had the evidence of five witnesses. Apparently he had a large quantity of tobacco in his possession, and it was the same kind of tobacco that had been stolen from the shop. None of the tobacco was found on him, and it could not be produced. If they were satisfied that the tobacco which had been offered for sale had been that which had been stolen from Dunne's shop, they had got over one branch. The second branch concerned his knowledge of where it had come from. If they were not satisfied he knew it had been stolen he was entitled to an acquittal. It certainly looked very suspicious that he should have offered the tobacco at the prices stated. They would also have to consider the defence of mistaken identity.

The jury found the prisoner guilty on the second count. His Lordship remarked: "You were convicted at Clonmel before. You seemed familiar—I thought I knew your face. Have you anything to say for yourself? I let you off with six months before. Why do you go breaking into shops and stealing tobacco?"

Accused—I never did break in, and I never saw the tobacco.

His Lordship—I will sentence you to 18 months with hard labour.

DUNGARVAN STEAMER.

HELD RESPONSIBLE FOR MERSEY COLLISION.

A collision in the Mersey, near Wallasey Landing Stage, on February 15th, 1930, resulting in damage to the dumb barges, Wm. H. Abel, the property of Messrs. Richard Abel and Sons, Ltd., of Liverpool, and Betal, the property of Harris Barges, Ltd., of Chester, was the subject of an action in the Admiralty Division, London, before Mr. Justice Bateson and Trinity Masters.

The defendant ship was the ss. Cargan, the property of Messrs. K. Williams and Co., of Dungarvan, Co. Waterford.

Mr. D. Stephens, K.C., and Mr. R. F. Hayward (instructed by Messrs. Keene, Marsland, Bryden and Besant) represented the plaintiffs, while Mr. C. R. Dunlop, K.C., and Mr. Eustace W. Brightman (instructed by Messrs. Hill, Dickinson and Co.) were counsel for the defendants.

The case for the plaintiffs was that the barge, in tow of the tug Gretadale, were lying stationary in the river waiting to enter Morpeth Dock, when the Cargan, which had just left the dock, suddenly turned towards the barges. Although the tug went ahead to avoid a collision, the Cargan struck the Betal a heavy blow, doing such damage that the barge had to be taken to the river wall, where she sank. As the tug was taking her there both barges got into difficulties under the pier of the Wallasey Landing Stage, with the result that the Wm. H. Abel was damaged.

The defendants, who blamed the tug for the collision, pleaded that the Cargan, having come out of the lock, was shapink to pass between the tug and the Landing Stage on her way down river when the tug turned to port, closing in the passage. The engines of the Cargan were put full astern, but without avail, to prevent the collision.

Mr. Justice Bateson, giving judgment, said that he had not the least doubt that the plaintiff's witnesses had told the truth, and they had satisfied him that their case was the true one. It resolved itself into this—that when the tug and barges were lying off the dock entrance in a perfectly proper position, the defendant ship came out of the lock and ran into them. Instead of getting over to her proper side she attempted to pass between the tug and the pier, when the tug was much too close. She had no business to do so. He could not accept the story told by the defendants, and when people altered their logs they must not be surprised if their story were not believed. Therefore he held that the Cargan was responsible for the damage to both of the barges.

PREMIUMS TO BULLS.

Mr. Thomas Flynn, vice-chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. P. Sheridan, M. O'Brien and M. Curran, Special Grant.

The Department wrote re a temporary special grant being available to supplement the number of premium bulls in the county, and stating they were prepared to give £450 in connection with the continuation of premiums already awarded and for new premiums. The allocation already made should be fully utilised, and then the committee could draw on the special grant.

Secretary—You have 35 bulls on continuation premiums costing £894, and that will leave you a balance of £96 for Hereford and Aberdeen Angus if you charge them to your own funds. Thirteen bulls out of the supplemental grant would be about £242, and that would leave you £304 in all. Against that £96 above-mentioned there is the case of the special dairy bull—Rathaspeck Dairyman—belonging to Mr. Kirwan, Colligan, which has been sold to Mr. Leahy, Crossery, Knockanore. This bull has bred exceptionally well, and he has been inspected by the Department's Inspectors and they have agreed to give him a premium, and that takes £20 off your £96.

Chairman—That is a district where there is no premium bull.

Secretary—It was only in 1929 we got two bulls there. One of them died before the season started and the second bull was infertile.

Chairman—Now you have £284 left to allocate. How many applications have you? I see they had too many in Cork.

Secretary—You won't be troubled that way.

Mr. O'Brien—There are a lot of districts where there is practically no bull and that won't apply.

Mr. Curran—The standard is too high and the prices of the bulls is very high.

Chairman—Loans can be got to purchase the bulls.

Mr. Curran—You must repay the loan and it is as broad as it is long.

Secretary—Up to last year I never saw a premium Aberdeen Angus sold under 50 guineas, and last year they went as low as £35. I have seen the ordinary licensed Angus costing 40 guineas.

The Secretary read applications for premium bulls from the following—Jas. Quirke, Leagh, Dungarvan; J. T. Flahavan, Kilmagrange; I. V. Stuart, Dromana; M. McNamara, Caher, Tramore; M. Walsh, Kilbeg, Tallow; John Hickey, Knockroe; J. Foley, Ballyabanogue, Kilmacthomas. All the above were granted subject to their complying with the usual conditions.

Mr. Hynes, V.S., said there was so much contagious sterility going round that the people had no confidence and were afraid that the bulls may become infected and infect the farmers' own herds.

Mr. O'Brien—Could not people with infected cows be prosecuted?

Mr. Hynes—No. It is not a scheduled disease.

Secretary—The man with the premium bull is safeguarded as he can make the man bringing a cow give a declaration that his herd is clean.

Mr. Curran—If you were to do that it would cause a lot of bad blood between neighbours.

Mr. Sheridan—If made a general rule there would be no objection.

Chairman—People who never touched a premium bull have their herds affected.

Seed Potatoes.

Mr. Sheridan asked the Potato Inspector (Mr. McCann) what variety of seed he recommended for a shipping crop later?

Mr. McCann—Up-to-Dates.

Prize Scheme for Poultry. Miss Mullins, Poultry Inspector, recommended the following scheme of prizes for poultrykeepers:—For Cottiers and Small Farmers under £10 Valuation—1st prize, £6; 2nd prize, £4 10s.; 3rd prize, £3; 4th prize, £2; 5th prize, 15s.

Classes Open to the County for Farmers of £10 to £50 Valuation—1st prize, £8; 2nd prize, £4 10s.; 3rd prize, £3; 4th prize, £2; 5th prize, 15s.

Boats. Premium boats were granted to John Costello, Laharden, Portlao; Thomas O'Donnell, Glasha, Ballymacarthy; and Peter O'Rourke, Shanakill, Kilmacthomas.

Kilmacthomas News.

LADY WATERFORD INJURED.

Only a small-sized field showed up at the meet of the Waterford Foxhounds at Ballydurn on Saturday last. From Ballydurn covert hounds ejected a tenant in the pursuit of whom numerous checks cropped up. Reynard ran in a right-hand half-circle back (through Cummins's farm) almost to the covert, where he was marked to ground. Graigue covert next served up a fox, who broke towards Graiguenageeha, crossed the road into Coghlan's farm, heading for the Newtown road down to Scrahan. The part of the fence directly opposite the point to which the Marchioness of Waterford steered her mount on the Newtown road was out of the ordinary in the way of height and narrowness; but this exceptionally stiff obstacle did not deter her ladyship from facing her horse straight for it. The animal and its fair partner admirably "overed" the jump together; but, unfortunately, on gaining the off-side the horse swerved and stumbled, with the result that Lady Waterford became unseated and was thrown, sustaining a sprained ankle and some other injuries of a less serious nature. Mr. Roger Shanahan and a few other followers who were hard by when the regrettable accident happened, were first to render assistance to her ladyship. Lord Waterford, whose motor car was at some short distance away on the road, was quickly apprised of the affair, and he speedily conveyed the Marchioness to Curraghmore. Meanwhile the hounds were moving splendidly in the wake of their quarry, who was leading his pursuers right back to his original lair. Mr. Russell (Joint Master) and the remainder of the company were returned to Graigue territory when news of Lady Waterford's mishap reached them. Mr. Russell immediately called off the hunt.

ABOUT A BOTTLE.

Last week-end Patrick Power, of No. 6 Bridge street, Portlaw, took from the river Suir, near there, a bottle, which contained a note stating: "This bottle was set afloat at Ballyvoile, near Dungarvan, on September 15th, 1930. Will finder report in 'Daily Mail' Signed J.J.B." Portlaw is about 17 miles from Ballyvoile by road and about 70 or 80 by water.

SYMPATHY.

Widespread sympathy is felt with Mr. John McGrath, senior postman, Kilmacthomas, in his bereavement occasioned by the untimely demise in Mrs. O'Loughlin (R.I.P.)

PRICES.

Some of the prices prevailing at Kilmacthomas this week read—Meal, 15s. per sack; flour, 15s. per 10st.; pollard, 9s. per cwt.; bran, 9s. per cwt., and Presto 8s. per cwt.

THE FLU.

Although the flu is making its presence felt throughout these parts, the sway of the dread disease so far is happily only of a very mild nature. It is to be hoped that it will speedily disappear from amongst us without leaving any trail of sorrow in its wake.

KILMACTHOMAS BEAGLES.

The above pack met at Ballygarty on Sunday, and a fairly large following experienced a really good day's sport. Hounds (in charge of Mr. M. Harris) operated faultlessly. Some stout-hearted hares were happened on, and a number of appreciable "marathons" were executed by all in attendance. About 5 p.m. the happy-humoured hunters dispersed.

ANOTHER DEATH.

After a protracted illness and in the fullness of her years, Mrs. O'Connell, of Kilmacnee Upper, Kilmacthomas, breathed her last on Monday of the present week. This estimable lady was a general favourite with all, and sincere sympathy is extended to her popular son (Mr. Wm. O'Connell) and the other members of the family. The funeral to Newtown Parish Church on Tuesday was largely attended. R.I.P.

KILMACTHOMAS MEDAL TOURNAMENT (FOOTBALL).

All interested in the above will surely be in attendance at to-morrow (Sunday's) two-part programme in connection therewith, viz. De La Salle (Waterford) versus Ballinroad and Kilmimon v. Bonmahon. These matches will be decided in the order given, and the first bout begins at 1.45 p.m. sharp with Mr. Frank Drohan, P.C., in charge of the whistle. Mr. Matt Ryan (Kilrossanty) will referee the second encounter, starting at 3 p.m. Lovers of the code can rest assured of eyeing exciting exhibitions in these clashes, for which the local Gaelic Sportsfield will be laid out in tip-top trim.

DURROW BEAGLE CLUB DANCE.

A fine social success was recorded at Durrow Hall on last Sunday night at the dance held by the local recently-formed Beagle Club. The noted Cappagh Band provided the music in faultless style; while the catering, in the hands of a local committee of ladies, left nothing to be desired. Bravo, Durrow!

E. M. RYAN, Manager.

Dungarvan District Court.

Before Mr. Troy, D.J.

Working a Lamie Horse. Guard Straine charged Jas. and Ml. O'Connor, Davis street, Dungarvan (owner and driver, respectively) with working a horse suffering from a lame leg.

Complainant deposed to examining the horse, which was yielding to the leg. The animal was used crawling coal from one of the boats. Witness asked him to take the horse home, which he did. He had the horse examined by a V.S.

Mr. Byrne, V.S., said he examined the horse on January 2nd. He found him suffering from a severe strain in one of the tendons of the fore-leg. Defendant—Didn't you pass the horse sound two years ago? Witness—Yes. It was not blemished then.

Defendant said he was fired by Mr. Hynes and that witness had no right to pass him.

Replying to the Justice, Mr. Byrne said he expected defendant thought his examination of the horse two years ago should hold good still.

With regard to the expenses for Mr. Byrne—10s. for the examination of the horse and £1 for attending court, defendant said he was not able to pay and that he would not see his young children hungry. He would go to jail first.

The Justice adjourned the case until next court to give defendant a chance to pay the vet's fee.

Wandering Animals.

Guard Navin prosecuted Patk. Lannon and J. Sullivan for allowing animals, their property, to wander on the public road.

A fine of 2s. in each case was imposed.

Guard Nolan had a like case against J. Sullivan, and a similar fined was imposed.

Guard McGuire v. James O'Connor for allowing an animal wander. Fined 2s.

Same v. Patk. Wright for a like offence. Fined 2s.

Guard Straine v. Mary Ellen Hehir, no fixed abode, for being drunk and disorderly. Fined 10s. or 7 days.

Larceny Charges.

The Justice referred to the larceny charges against a number of youngsters from the town at the previous courts. He wished to express his approval of the manner in which Guard Regan dealt with these cases. As everyone knew, he was very sparing in his recommendation, and was not in the habit of throwing bouquets around, but he would like to express his approval of Guard Regan's handling of these cases.

Supt. O'Shea expressed pleasure at the remarks of his Worship, and said they would be brought to the notice of the Authorities.

Alleged Rape.

In connection with the charge of alleged rape on the 18th January against P. Sheehan, Killongford, Supt. O'Shea prosecuted, and Mr. A. R. Farrell defended.

The depositions of Mrs. K. Lynch, Humble street, Abbeyside; P. Lynch, her husband; John Power, Killosera, and Sergt. O'Shea, having been taken, the accused was returned for trial to the next Circuit Court, bail being allowed.

NEW BISHOP.
 Rt. Rev. Monsignor Wall, D.D., P.P., Haddington road, Dublin, has been appointed Auxiliary to His Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Byrne, Archbishop of Dublin.

THE FLU.
 The flu has been at large of late in these parts, but its form is not very virulent. However, those who have had it would gladly pass it on if they could. What a pity these epidemics only come in the cold, icy wintry weather. Why not the germ be told to postpone his visit until summer when people would be in better trim to meet it?

DUNGARVAN SHOW.
 The annual meeting of the Committee of the above will be held in the Commercial Hotel on Monday next, February 2nd, at 7.30 p.m., when the working of last year's Show will be considered and arrangements made for the 1931 Show. All members are asked to attend punctually.

SUCCESSFUL AUCTION.
 The auction of land, cattle, farm implements, etc., carried out by Mr. Paik, Ryan, auctioneer, Dungarvan, for Mrs. McGrath, Newtown, recently was one of the most successful on record. Bidding was brisk, buyers were plenty, and every item put up for disposal was sold. It was a great tribute to Mr. Ryan's zeal and enthusiasm.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

THE TALKIES IN DUNGARVAN.—STRIKING SUCCESS OF NEW SOUND MACHINE.

Always to the front and ever in the vanguard of progress, Mr. Dan Crotty introduced the Talkies to Dungarvan people on Wednesday with the best results. The sound machine, which he secured at a long price, is the very best machine operating in the Free State. It is a new pattern with all the latest sound improvements introduced, and those who had the pleasure of hearing it on Wednesday and Thursday nights were loud in their praise of its success. The engineer who installed the machinery declared the local Cinema the best he had heretofore met for sound, and those who have heard the Talkies in Dublin and Cork can confirm his opinion that nowhere has the sound been better and clearer than here amongst us. The new installation is a tribute to the judgment and skill of Mr. Crotty, and we know the public at large will highly appreciate his efforts in their behalf. In order to cater for the vast multitude from near and far who wish to avail of hearing all that is best in the Talkie world, the Cinema will give nightly performances in future commencing each week evening at 8.15 p.m. Screen lovers need no longer travel far afield to satisfy their tastes. They will find at the Dungarvan Cinema all that is best and latest from Hollywood to Vladivostok with perfect speaking and perfect intonation. There, at their leisure, they can discriminate between the charms of the screen stars of the several countries, and generally find amusement of the most enjoyable and interesting nature.

THE BIG DANCE.

On next Tuesday night, February 3rd, the Town Hall, Dungarvan, will resound to the merry tripping of the hundreds of patrons of the Three Clubs Dance as they lightly frisk in frolic measures over its well-waxed floor. This dance has been the subject of uncommon interest amongst lovers of the light fantastic for some weeks past, and from all parts the young and gay are coming to participate in what undoubtedly will be the best dance yet seen in this historic town. Organised under the auspices of the Farmers' Golf Club and Garda Siochana Dance Clubs, and with three such expert officials in charge as Supt. O'Shea, Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., and Mr. E. Maher, Manager Co-operative Creamery, nothing has been left undone to make it an unprecedented success. A Ladies' Committee will take charge of the catering arrangements, and needless to say, perfect satisfaction will be given to everybody. Mr. Peter Keogh's famous Dublin Band has been specially engaged for the occasion, and as usual will acquit itself in masterly manner, rendering all that is best in dance music with a grace that should not be missed. Next Tuesday night will be an event to be indented on the tablets of the mind. The Hall, now enlarged and made more comfortable, will be decorated in a manner befitting the occasion, and a welcome will be in store for all patrons that will pale into insignificance previous events of a like nature. Dancing at 10 p.m.

DEATH OF MR. THOS. SLATTERY, BALLYGEGAN, DUNGARVAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Thomas Slattery, Ballygegan, Dungarvan, which occurred at his residence on Tuesday last after a brief illness and fortified by the rites of Holy Church.

The late Mr. Slattery, who had reached an advanced age, was a large and practical farmer, and one of the best known men in the county. A lover of sport and horses, a kind and jovial gentleman, a broad-minded and well-versed Irishman with sound national principles, he was a general favourite with everybody, and his death, even in the fullness of years, leaves a void not easily filled. To his sons deep sympathy is extended on his death.

On Wednesday evening the remains were removed to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, and were followed by a large and representative cortege. On Thursday the interment took place in the adjoining graveyard in the presence of his family and a large gathering of relatives and friends, many of whom came long distances to pay a last tribute to his personal worth.

INFANTICIDE CHARGE.

At the Circuit Court in Waterford this week, Mr. Justice Sealy imposed a suspensory sentence of six months on a domestic servant named Mary Larkin, Ballyduff (24 years) on the charge of the alleged murder of her male child.

WATERFORD COUNTY CONVENTION.

CHAIRMAN STRIKES OUT AT ALL OPPONENTS OF THE NATIONAL GAMES.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

The annual Convention of the Gaelic of Co. Waterford was held at Dungarvan. Mr. W. Walsh, chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. M. Hurley, A. Noonan (Abbey Rovers), P. Whelan (Aglis), J. Power, Jas. Deane (Ballyduh Upper), W. Walsh (Ballylane), P. Hurley (Bonmahon), T. Walseh, M. Hickey (Brickey Rangers), J. Mason, P. Dineen (Cappoquin), J. O'Donnell, T. Keane, J. Goode, J. Dwyer (Dungarvan), J. Lyons, J. McCarthy (Eire Og), L. Boland (Kilgobinet), D. Power (Kilmacthomas), M. Conery (Kinsalebeg), J. Ross, J. Ormond (Lismore), W. Wall (Nire), F. Murphy (Old Parish), D. Tobin, J. Harly (Ring), J. O'Connor, M. Fitzgerald (St. Mary's), P. Ryan, T. Flynn (Tallow), J. Flynn (Touraneema), D. Dunphy (Meaghen's), J. Flynn (Mithels), J. Murray, T. Halpin (O'Rourke's), J. Power, J. Murray (Ballytruckle), P. Ahearne, J. Croke (Erin's Own), P. Kelly (Fianna), P. Gough (Fenore), E. Spratt, J. Ormond, M. O'Connor, A. Madders, J. Power (members of County Board). Mr. P. Whelan (secretary) was also in attendance.

The statement of accounts showed that a balance amounting to £31 9s. 8d. was due to the bank out of the year's working. The Secretary's report was as follows:—

Herewith I beg to submit for your adoption Accounts of the working of the Association in County Waterford for last year.

Looking back on the season just ended there is a good deal of work on which we can congratulate ourselves. There are also several points on which improvements have been made from the experience we have gained. I am glad to be able to record that the hopes expressed in my report last year concerning our first Hurlers were realised and our first All-Ireland Championship won. We also had the distinction of winning out the Southern Division of the National Football League. In this competition we have not yet lost a game, and can look forward to our meeting with the Northern Champions in the Semi-Final with every confidence and hopes of entering another All-Ireland Final.

The number of Clubs taking part in our Championships is well up to that of past years as will be seen from the divisional reports. It is gratifying to find the Juniors and Minors playing a prominent part in our competitions and deliberations. Their interest in the championships was keen and sustained. Our Seniors, particularly in hurling, were not as keen as in former County Championships, there being only one game played in this Grade in West and no final in East.

The Senior Football County Championship was again won by Dungarvan, the Junior Hurling was won by Tallow. Senior Hurling, Junior Football and Minor Championships are not yet decided. It is some years since we had any of our competitions unfinished at end of season, and I hope the divisions in the coming year will do all in their power to expedite the Championships. There is no doubt that the very late date of our Finals this year was a big loss both financially and in standard of play. Some very ugly scenes took place during the final of the Junior Football County Championship, but as the matter at present is sub judice, I will make no comment on it.

In the inter-county games we had a fair measure of success and gained victories over Limerick in all grades except junior hurling in the first round ties. Our meeting with Tipperary in the second round senior hurling was marred by an ending that we all regret and hope will not recur. In football we were defeated by Kerry Juniors after a drawn game, and our minor hurlers and footballers went out before Tipperary in the Munster Semi-finals. The standard of play of all our teams was well up to that of the other counties in all grades, and we can look forward to the coming year with confidence.

In the National Leagues we completed our programme, and as I've reported, the football team won Southern Group, beating Cork, Tipperary, Clare and drawing with Limerick. The hurling team beat Tipperary—All-Ireland Champions—and Limerick, and lost to Kilkenny and Cork.

Our receipts from County Finals and Semi-finals to date are £141 6s. 8d., this being £45 14s. 3d. less than previous year, and is a big falling off in gate as affiliations are nearly what they were. Our receipts in National Leagues were £172 2s. 5d., and our expenses £176 4s. 3d., which is a loss of £4 1s. 10d. as compared with a loss of £86 16s. 9d. in the 1929 Leagues. The wages at County Fixtures are not as high as in former years, but there is a big increase in Injury Grants, printing, hurleys and balls. Those increases were unavoidable with the exception of last, and some effort should be made to try and keep the cost of balls and hurleys down. The whole matter of finance will have to be very seriously tackled by the new Board, otherwise we'll never overtake our growing liabilities with our present resources.

The selection of our inter-county teams was done satisfactorily in the year now ended by the Committees appointed. A crux arose on two occasions over the Senior Hurling Selection, and even though matters were eventually set right, a feeling of uncertainty arose that should be avoided in future.

The motions passed at last Convention dividing our Juniors into two Grades was differently interpreted by the two Divisional Boards, and it would be well if Clubs carefully considered the matter in order to have it rectified at the coming Convention.

Taken all round our games have done very well in the county during the year now past. There is no apparent reason, however, why they shouldn't do better in the year before us. I cannot emphasise too strongly the playing off of our Championships as quickly and as early as possible. Tournaments, except for benefit of the Board, should not be permitted to interfere with the regular playing of our Championships. Objections are another serious hindrance to the completion of our Competitions before the winter, and should be avoided if at all possible. A good sporting spirit and efforts to play the game will prevent a lot of trouble in this respect. Strict attention to practice is another matter I would like to bring to the notice of Clubs. It is obvious that in order to be successful in any of our games serious attention must be given to training and practice. The chief difference between teams is generally that one has more training than another.

In conclusion, I would recommend to Clubs careful consideration of the various matters on the Agenda for the Convention with a view to getting the best possible results from the annual gatherings. Thanking all for the help and co-operation that was given so willingly during the year, and hoping for the coming year to be a prosperous one with the same good feelings existing between Clubs and Officials.

The report and balance sheet were then unanimously adopted.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Chairman—Messrs. W. Walsh (outgoing), Sean Hogan and E. Spratt were nominated. Mr. Hogan and Mr. Spratt withdrew and Mr. Walsh was amidst applause declared elected.

CHAIRMAN AND FOREIGN GAMES.

In thanking the members for his re-election, the Chairman said that he was sorry the other two nominated for the position should withdraw, as he felt they would fill the position better than he. Twelve months ago at the Convention he expressed a wish that the Waterford Minor Hurlers who were in the All-Ireland Final, would be successful, and he was glad to be able to say that they were victorious. It was delightful to watch the fine spirit of co-operation that existed among the minors, and it was an example that their seniors would do well to imitate. It was a thrill never to be forgotten to see the way those lads bucked up when all seemed lost. He would say that the schools played a great part in the victory, and the Christian Brothers of Waterford, Dungarvan and Lismore, also De La Salle Brothers, deserved the greatest thanks. It was well to see that in Waterford they had all the schools, except that of Waterpark and St. Augustine's, behind them. There were, of course, other schools, who after all were acting according to tradition in standing for Anglicisation; all the others were with them heart and soul. It was a sad thing to see a Catholic organisation like the Knights of St. Columbanus joining another organisation in assisting Rugby and Soccer. There was also the C.Y.M.S. in Waterford with its shoneens and snobbery, who had a Rugby team, a Soccer team, and even a dog game, but no Gaelic game. St. Joseph's Boys' Club, Waterford, when fielding a team in the championships had to call on six or eight Soccer players to fill the team. There were also others, and it was hard to understand their mentalities—people who professed to be Irish Irelanders and men who did good work in 1918-19-20 now patronise Rugby and Soccer.

In Paris 15 Irishmen went out to play Rugby and were played to the field by the strains of "God Save the King," and at a subsequent banquet the toast was "The King," and still they tell us that there is nothing Imperialistic about those games. There was not even a mention of the Free State. In Soccer you have third and fourth rate English crocks got as much as £6 and £7 a week for playing in the Free State before the glib Irish public who support them. We are in greater danger of Anglicisation to-day than we were twenty years ago. We must make our big push, and the sooner we do the better. I regard these things as the aftermath of the troubled times and we must establish the G.A.A. as the leading sporting organisation in Ireland. Referring to the scroll used to advertise an All-Ireland match in Waterford, Mr. Walsh said that the Central Council advertised the match and some individuals brought the question up before their Clubs, but he (the speaker) thought that no individual or Club had a right to criticise the Central Council for advertising a match in any way they thought fit. Mr. Walsh again thanked the meeting for his election.

Treasurer—Mr. Frank Drohan (outgoing), elected unopposed. Secretary—Mr. Fox, Whelan (outgoing), elected unopposed. Mr. Whelan, in thanking the meeting for his re-election, also thanked the Clubs and officials for their co-operation in the past, and hoped that they would do their best to buck up things in the future. Referring to the training of teams, he said that in this county training was not taken seriously enough, and he would ask Clubs to take a headline from other counties where training was considered very essential to the composition of a team.

Representatives on Munster Council—Messrs. P. Whelan and W. Walsh were unanimously elected, the other nominations having withdrawn. Delegates to Munster Convention—

Messrs. P. Whelan, W. Walsh, J. O'Donnell, J. Ormond, G. Ware and J. Lawlor were appointed.

Delegates to All-Ireland Congress—Messrs. E. Spratt and A. Madders were appointed.

Nomination of Munster and Central Council Officers—Mr. Sean McCarthy, Cork (outgoing), chairman; Mr. J. J. Sheehy (Kerry), treasurer (outgoing); and P. McGrath, secretary (outgoing) were nominated for Munster Council. Mr. Sean McCarthy, Cork (chairman); Mr. P. Breen and Mr. Mulholland (trustees) nominated for Central Council.

It was stated that Mr. Sean Ryan's (outgoing Chairman of Central Council) term of office would expire this year.

Nomination of Munster Representatives on Central Council.

The Secretary explained that three representatives could be nominated. He thought that according to the system of rotation adopted last year that a Waterford representative was likely to be elected. Of course the Munster Convention might change that in such that the Waterford representative could support whoever was nominated by the meeting.

Mr. Sean Madders was unanimously approved of as the Waterford representative.

Report of Minor Board.

Miceal O'Ceallaigh submitted the report of the Minor Board. The report stated that the Board had a credit balance showing that the competitions were at least self-supporting. The Hurling Championship was as yet unfinished, due to the difficulty of finding venues for minor purposes in the city.

The Football Championship has been finished, and De La Salle, who gave a fine display against Fenore, have qualified to meet the winners of the Western Division in the final.

The Waterford City and District Cups competitions are also unfinished, the finals of both trophies remaining to be played. This also may be attributed to the grave difficulty experienced by the Committee in procuring venues to promote the national pastimes amongst the young Gaels of Waterford. In conclusion, he wished to thank one and all of the officers and delegates for electing him as Secretary for the past year, and also to the representatives of the various Clubs for their faithful attendance at meetings. While Gaels of such self-sacrificing qualities are available in order to secure the coming generation for the G.A.A., we can look forward with confidence to the future.

Motions From Clubs.

Lismore, Tallow and Dungarvan Clubs had motions tabled specifying a date for the completion of the County Championship matches.

After a discussion, the motion tabled by Tallow, that all county finals be played off before the first Sunday in October, was carried by 32 votes to 9.

A Lismore motion that the county finals be distributed proportionately throughout the county, due regard being given to the interests and conveniences of the teams concerned in the finals, was then discussed.

Mr. Ross, Lismore, in proposing the motion, said that if Lismore, Tallow, Cappoquin, or any other outlying centre were considered when making the venues for the finals, the Board would be doing a good day's work towards the spreading of the national games.

Mr. Lawlor seconded the motion. The Chairman, in declaring the motion passed, said that he remembered the old days when good games were realised in Cappoquin and Lismore, and he was glad that the motion was passed.

Mr. O'Donoghue (Cappoquin) asked if those venues could be considered for National League fixtures.

The Chairman, who agreed with Mr. O'Donoghue, said that the Board would, when making the venues, go into the suggestion.

A motion by Tallow that the Convention instruct their delegates to Congress that a reduction be made in the prices for admission to all inter-county matches was then taken up.

The Chairman said that the delegates would raise that question.

Mr. Lawlor—I think that the prices to the field and stands should be reduced, and the price to the sideline be increased. This would help to prevent a good many of the scenes that are happening in our Gaelic fields.

Tallow had a further motion that the winning teams be entitled to inter-county selection.

Mr. Ryan (Tallow), in proposing the motion, said that the Board could give the system a try out for a year.

Other members having given their opinions, a resolution that three from the winning team and two outsiders compose the Selection Committee, was passed.

On a Dungarvan motion, the delegates to the Munster Convention were instructed to move that Waterford be graded junior in football in Munster Championships, 1931.

Mr. McC. Fitzgerald (St. Mary's) said that he was at a recent meeting of the N.A.C.A. at Mallow, and he was informed that athletes who should be in Waterford Clubs were in with Cork and Tipperary Clubs. He had been asked to bring the matter up, as it was hoped that members of hurling and football Clubs in County Waterford would find out these athletes and send any information on the matter to Mr. Nolan, Hon. Sec. for County Waterford.

The Secretary said that Mr. Fitzgerald referred to athletes who resided on the borders of the county, and he had no doubt but the members of Clubs present to-day would do all in their power to strengthen the N.A.C.A. organisation in Co. Waterford.

Junior Grades.

In accordance with a motion passed by the Board, teams applying for permission to be rated as Grade "B" football or hurling must submit a complete list of players for inspection of Grading Committee, and teams graded "B" will not be allowed to play players other than those on the list, unless sanctioned otherwise by the Divisional Committee.

The Secretary stated that the County Committee, who met before the Convention to consider the motions, had the matter of grading before them and decided that a specified time after the draws were made, should be made for the purpose of grading. At present there were applications for re-grading up to August.

It was decided that no applications for transfers or re-grading be entertained two months after date of draws.

Mr. Madders proposed that teams graded as "B" play out their divisional matches and that there be no County Final in "B" Grade. He said that he would be only too delighted to see trophies offered for "B" Grade if the finances of the Board would permit it. He thought that Grade "B" teams who won out their divisions should be satisfied with promotion to Grade "A" the following year.

Mr. Lawlor said that a team may start out as Grade "B" and might improve so much that they would be as good as the Grade "A" team at the end of the year. He thought that the order that the winners of Grade "B" meet the winners of Grade "A" in the divisional finals should stand.

Mr. Madders said that he did not agree with Mr. Lawlor. He would not be in favour of playing a final between a Grade "B" and "A" team. It would not be fair to ask people to come and see such a contest; it would only turn the thing into a fiasco.

Mr. Mason said that in the Western Divisional Final this year when a Grade "A" and "B" team met there was only a goal and a point between them.

Mr. Kyne—They were two senior teams, at least the players were old senior players on both sides.

Mr. Lawlor's amendment that Grade "A" and "B" teams meet in the Divisional Finals was passed by 28 votes to 6.

ELECTRIC DANGERS.

At the meeting of the Waterford Co. Council last week.

Mr. O'Ryan drew attention to the dangers attending the public from electric cables crossing roads, etc., should they break at any time. He thought that at a very small cost something could be done to protect the public.

Chairman—We have already sent on a resolution from the council.

Mr. O'Ryan—Could not we erect some protection where the wires cross the road?

Mr. Fox—In some places they put up a netting under the cables to catch them if they break.

Mr. Heskin—The E.S.B. should be responsible for that.

Mr. O'Ryan—If they won't deal with it we should.

Mr. Walsh—They should be compelled to deal with it.

Mr. Greene then proposed that the attention of the Department be directed to the previous resolution of the council asking for an inquiry into the electrocution of a boy of nine years in Tramore some time ago. This was passed.

INTERESTING YOUGHAL CASE.

In the Land Commission Court, Mr. Justice Wylie heard an application by Patrick J. Little, T.D., as owner of a holding at Claycastle, Strand, Youghal, seeking a declaration that the holding was not one to which the Land Acts, 1923 and 1927 applied, on the ground that the lands possessed a

Cappoquin District Court

Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.

Petroleum Licenses.
 Mr. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, applied on behalf of the British Petroleum Co. for a renewal of the license empowering them to store petroleum in the yard of Walsh's Hotel, Cappo-quin. He said the place was quite safe and fully complied with the legal regulations in every respect, and had been used for the purpose for several years.
 Supt. Quinlan said there was no objection on the part of the Guards, and the application was granted.
 A similar application was made on behalf of Mr. M. J. Sargent, motor agent and engineer, Cappoquin, for the purpose of storing petrol in his garage in Uover Main street, and this was also granted.

Alleged Dangerous Dog.
 Mr. O'Gorman, solr., made application to have a dog, the property of Mr. O'Brien, Lismore, destroyed. He said the animal was dangerous and had bitten a man named James Moore from Cappoquin for whom he now appeared.

The Justice asked Mr. O'Gorman why he had not taken out a summon-ses in the ordinary way?

Mr. O'Gorman—I thought an exparte application would be sufficient.

Justice—Oh, no; you must take out a summons before I can make any order in the matter. If you wish I will grant you a summons for the next District Court at Lismore.

Mr. O'Gorman—That will do as I will proceed on a summons at the Lismore Court.

Motor Prosecutions.

Guard O'Mahony, Cappoquin, summoned Mr. E. P. Maxwell, Moorehill, Tallow, for allowing a motor car to be used on January 1st for which no road tax had been paid, and there was a second summons against the defendant for having no identification plate on the car.

Samuel Roberts, chauffeur, was also summoned on the above counts for driving the car on the date in question.

The Guard having given evidence of the offences,

 Mr. Maxwell, owner of the car, explained that this was a new car which he had purchased in Cork on December 23rd. He found that he could not get a license or registration number there for the Co. Waterford so he went to the County Council Office in Dungarvan on December 27th for the purpose of getting a license and registration number, but he found the office closed on that day.
 He then sent a cheque for the license, etc., on December 28th, but did not receive it until January 3rd, two days after the date for which he was summoned, so that he could not have the license or identification number on January 1st.

The Justice said he was prepared to accept Mr. Maxwell's explanation, but as a technical offence had been committed, he should fine him 1s. in each case. The cases against the driver were dismissed.

A Kilmachomas Case.

The same complainant summoned
 Mr. Edward Hill, Kilmachomas, for permitting a Chevrolet lorry, his property, to be used on December 30th without being licensed, and also for having no identification plate.

Complainant said the lorry was being driven by James Cronin, who was delivering bread in Cappoquin.

Mr. Hill appeared and said this was a new lorry which he had purchased before Christmas and which he did not intend to use until after January 1st when he had the tax paid for the present year. Owing, however, to the heavy rush of trade over the Xmas holidays he found he had to use it sooner than he had intended, but he had since paid the amount of the tax due for the month of December and had also paid £30 tax for the year 1931. He then produced the license referred to and also his cheque book in substantiation of his statement.

Justice—Have you your registration book with you?

Defendant—No, sir, as I thought I need only produce the documents bearing on the present case.

Justice—In the absence of your registration book how am I to know that the license which you now produce is for the particular lorry for which you are summoned? I will adjourn this case for a month, but you need not go to the trouble of coming up here again if you are able to satisfy the Guards in the meantime that everything is in proper order.

Defendant—Will it do if I satisfy the Guards in Kilmachomas?

Justice—So long as you satisfy them anywhere that your new lorry is licensed now it will do me.

The case was then adjourned to the next District Court at Cappoquin.

Alleged Dangerous Driving.

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, summoned Michael Glavin, junr., Cappoquin, for driving a motor lorry in a dangerous manner in Cappoquin on January 1st.

Guard Lee, Cappoquin, stated that on the date in question he and Guard Moloney were on duty at Mason's corner about 3.40 p.m. when they saw a motor lorry driven by the defendant coming round the corner from Mill street and turning up Castle street.
 It was fair day in Cappoquin and there was a good deal of traffic on the street. Two girls were walking down Castle street had to run to the side of the street to avoid it. The lorry then turned up the back street on its wrong side and stopped at the garage up the Main street, and when witness went up to question the defendant he repeatedly said that he had blown the horn when coming around the various corners.

Guard Moloney having given corroborative evidence, the defendant stated that he had been in the Bacon Factory all that day until 3.30 o'clock, when he got an order to go to go to Cloghheen for pigs, and he was on his way there at 3.40 when the Guards saw him. He denied that he was driving recklessly or dangerously, as he sounded the horn frequently and drove very carefully around each corner.

Replying to the Justice, he said he had 14 years' experience as a motor driver.

Having been briefly cross-examined
 by the Superintendent,

James O'Dwyer, Cappoquin, gave evidence for the defence. He stated that he was standing at the junction of Mill street and Castle street when he saw the defendant driving the lorry around the corner and turning up Castle street. Two women and a little girl were coming down on the left side of the street at the time and two girls were walking down on the right-hand side and the latter simply walked out of the way of the lorry.
 There was a car also on one side of the road and he thought the defendant could not have driven more carefully than he did. Witness added that anybody should have heard the lorry before it came around the corner as it was "kicking up an unmercif-ul row at the time" (laughter).

Replying to the Superintendent, witness said he thought the lorry was not going too fast, "as motors travel to-day."

Further evidence having been heard, the Justice said he should accept the evidence of the two Guards, and fined defendant 10s.

Breach of Firearms Act.

Supt. O'Shea, Dungarvan, prosecuted three respectable young men from the Aglish district for using firearms without licenses on Sunday, December 7th.

Guard McGee, Clashmore, stated that on the date in question he was on plain clothes duty at Mountstuart, near Aglish, when he heard some shots, and on going in that direction he found the three defendants with two single-barrel and one double-barrel fowling pieces. Neither of them had a permit to carry firearms, and having obtained their names and addresses he seized the three guns and also four live and two spent cartridges which he found on them.

Two of the defendants now appeared, and one of them stated that he had been invited by a farmer near Mountstuart to go out for a day's shooting as his farm was over-run with rabbits, which he wished to get rid of. He got the loan of a fowling-piece from a friend of his, who had the necessary license for it, and went out for a few shots. It was the first time he had ever been out with a gun without a license.

Supt. O'Shea did not press the case, and the Justice said he would let the two defendants who had appeared off with a fine of 5s. each, but he imposed a fine of 15s. on the third defendant, who was stated to have since left the district.

The Superintendent said that a sum of 16s. expenses had been paid for a motor car for Guard McGee from Clashmore to the court that day, and the Justice said in that event he would reduce the fines of 5s. to 2s. 6d. each in the case of the two defendants present, and would order them to pay in addition 8s. each as expenses, but the original fine of 15s. against the absent defendant was allowed stand.

Cruelty to Pigs.

Guard Moloney, Cappoquin, summoned John Foley, farmer, Clash-more, for cruelty to animals by overloading a creel with seven young pigs and two calves on the Cappoquin fair day.

Complainant stated that there were seven young slips and two calves packed tightly into a creel which measured 4 ft. 6 ins. x 3 ft. 3 ins. The pigs were on top of each other and were nearly smothered, and when he called defendant's attention to the cruelty which was being inflicted he took out one of the calves, but the creel was still too small for the remainder of the animals.

Defendant now explained that he had bought the slips and one calf at the fair, but a friend of his had asked him to bring home a calf which he had bought and that was how the two calves were in the creel. The moment the Guard spoke to him he took out his friend's calf, and he thought the other animals had plenty of room after that.

The Justice said he was always particular in cases of this kind, and was determined to prevent cruelty to animals as far as possible. He was quite satisfied that there were too many animals packed in this creel and that they were subjected to unnecessary cruelty, and he should fine the defendant 10s.

Wandering Animals.

Guard Furlong, Cappagh, summoned Mary Cliffe, Carrwoggorrie, for allowing ten cows to wander on the public road on December 3rd.

Defendant said the cattle were only crossing from one part of her farm to another for water, as she had land on both sides of the road.

In reply to Mr. Farrell, complainant said it was not the main road, where the cattle were found and there was not much traffic there.

A fine of 2s. was imposed.

The same complainant summoned
 Thos. Power for a similar offence on the same date, and a similar fine was imposed.

Guard Conannon, Cappagh v. Leo Curran, Tinalour, for allowing eight head of cattle to wander on the road.

 Fine 2s.

Drunk and Disorderly.

Sergt. O'Dwyer, Cappagh, summoned an old man of the adjoining class named John Walsh, of no fixed abode, for being drunk and disorderly on the night of December 26th.
 The sergeant said he heard shouting on the road about 9 o'clock on that night, and on going to investigate the cause he found the defendant kicking up a row outside Lynch's farmhouse where he wanted to be put up for the night. As defendant had nowhere to go, witness took him to Cappagh barracks where he was detained until next morning.

Justice (to defendant)—What have you to say for yourself?

Defendant—Wish, 'twas Xmas time, sir, and I took a couple of drinks.

Justice—Have you any money on you now?

Defendant—I have a little, sir.

Justice—Very well, pay 4s. fine
 now and behave yourself in future!

The fine was promptly paid and defendant made a hurried exit from the court.

Drunk.

Guard Lee, Cappoquin, summoned James Grace, Barrack street, for being drunk on the public street at 10 o'clock on the night of November 26th.

Complainant said the defendant had been previously ejected from a public-house owing to his drunken condition and was using profane language on the public street outside his own house at 10 o'clock.

Defendant did not appear, but sent a letter to the Justice, who, having read it, remarked, "Oh, this is the bird-catcher, I see."

A fine of 5s. was imposed.

School Attendance Act.

Guard Fallon, Villierstown, and Guard Moloney, Cappoquin, had two defendants summoned for not sending their children regularly to school, but after hearing the explanations of both parties, they were each let off with a caution.

Unlicensed Dogs.

Two cases of having unlicensed dogs in their possession were brought against two defendants from the Villierstown district, and fines of 5s. and 15s., respectively, were imposed, the second defendant having two unlicensed dogs in his possession on December 27th.

No Lights.

There was an unusually large batch of defendants summoned by the Guards from Cappoquin, Ballinamult and Villierstown for having no lights on carts, bicycles and other vehicles after lighting-up time, and fines varying from 1s. to 2s. 6d. were imposed in each case.

Licensing Prosecutions.

Two licensing prosecutions at the suit of Supt. O'Shea, Dungarvan, and Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, respectively were adjourned to the next court on the adjournment of Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, who was engaged for the defence, but who was unable to attend Cappoquin Court owing to the Circuit Court being sitting in Dungarvan on the same day.

This completed the business of an unusually heavy calendar, which comprised two months' cases, as no court had been held in December.

I. N. T. O.

DUNGARVAN BRANCH.

The usual annual meeting of the of the above was held in the Technical Schools on Saturday, January 17th inst. The following members were present:—Messrs. T. Walsh, John Connery, D. Gullen, G. Quinlan, T.
 Cahill, T. Mulcahy, B. O'Neill, P.
 Delaney, M. Brennock, Mesdames
 Maher, O'Connor, Connelly, the Misses Whelan, Brick, Gough, Connery, Christopher, Power, Shanahan and Hayes.

The present officers were re-elected for the coming year. Circular letters from candidates for G.E.C. and F.C. were read and the following were the nominations of the branch:—President, Mr. Robert Neilly; vice-president, Mr. M. Kearney; principals' representative, Mr. M. P. Murphy; assistants' representative, Mr. L.
 MacSweeney; finance committee, Mr.
 T. Scannell.

Mr. J. Connery and Mr. T. Walsh paid a striking tribute to Mr. M. Kearney and the good work he had done.

The Secretary's report of the special Conference held in Dublin on 20th December, 1930, was read, and arising from it an appeal was made on behalf of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, for at the Conference an appeal was made by Mr. Sharkey, Secretary of Dublin City Branch of the I. N. T. O., on behalf of Mr. M. Kearney, Chairman of the Finance Committee, for each Association to forward at least 25 towards this deserving object and to place it on a firm footing.

The following resolutions were passed:—"That it be an instruction to our branch officers that they interview as soon as possible the lapsed and unassociated teachers of the district, expenses thereof to be met from branch funds."

"That the members of the Dungarvan Branch of the I. N. T. O. unanimously and emphatically call upon the Government to make good immediately the deficiency in the Irish National Teachers' Pension Fund; that this unwarranted present standing be considered to be more political feigning, and not usually associated either with dignity or Statesmanship. We Diseases of Animals Committee.

LATE MR. P. W. CREAGH, V.S.

SHEEP SCAB.

Mr. Thomas Flynn presided. Also present—Messrs. P. Sheridan, M.
 O'Brien and M. Curran.

An outbreak of sheep scab was reported from the lands of Mr. Flynn,
 Two-Mile-Bridge.

Chairman—In connection with that we must be very careful in future in taking tenders for sheep dip. These sheep were dipped—once in summer and twice in the autumn, and yet they got scab. There must be something wrong when that occurred. The only explanation I can give is that it happened at the tank. The sheep were always dipped at the tank.

Mr. Hynes—The dip used is fatal to the parasite. Sometimes the parasite lives in the ear and develops when the sheep get poor in the winter.

Chairman—It was too fat they were.

Mr. Byrne, V.S.—I said at the time it was not a practical dip for us.

Chairman—I agree with that now.

Mr. Byrne, V.S.—That dip was only approved by the Department on condition the sheep were kept in it for 14 minutes, and that was impossible to be done.

Mr. Hynes said that dip was absolutely fatal to parasitic life.

The Chairman said the sheep were two years on the land and were dipped three times in 1929 and three times in 1930, and yet they got affected.
 There were no sheep in contact with them.

Mr. Hynes—It is a very small percentage affected for the county.

Chairman—If the dip were right it would not happen at all.

Mr. Byrne—How does the price of the dip compare with other dip?

Chairman—The next time the dip comes up I will be very careful.

Late Mr. P. W. Creagh, V.S.

The Clerk reported the death of Mr.
 P. W. Creagh, V.S., who for 40 years had been Veterinary Surgeon for Lismore Union. During his illness Mr.
 Hynes, V.S., had been doing duty for him.

On the motion of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. Curran, Mr. Hynes was ordered to carry on the late Mr.
 Creagh's duties pending the making of a permanent appointment.

Chairman—Have we anything to do with the permanent appointment?

Clerk—I think that will be made by the Appointments Commissioners.

Mr. Curran—Can you transfer if you like?

It was decided to pay Mr. Hynes, V.S., the same rate of pay as was paid to the late Mr. Creagh, V.S.

Mr. Curran proposed the following resolution—"That we beg to convey to the family of the late Mr. P. W.
 Creagh, V.S., the expression of our deepest sympathy on his death. Mr.
 Creagh, V.S., was an old and valued official of this county for 40 years, and gave excellent value to the public at all times."

Youghal Urban Council.

Present—Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., chairman; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. E. P. Lynch, vice-chairman; T. Beausang, D. J. Linehan, J. Whelan, T. Murphy, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; E. Clancy, M. J. Fleming.

Youghal-Fermy Road.
The following letter was received from the Town Clerk, Fermy—A. Chars—As you probably have noticed by the Press my council are endeavouring to get the County Council to put into proper repair the road between Fermy and Youghal which at present is in a very bad state. I am directed by my council to request that you would try and get your people interested in the matter and join with Mr. Power, Co.C., who has a motion set down on the subject in insisting that the County Council would direct their County Surveyor to carry out the required repair. There is no doubt that there is a loss to your town as well as to Fermy, and in any event for tourist traffic alone it should be made good.

The Chairman said that the road in question was in a scandalous condition.

Mr. O'Gorman said that the council had already taken action on that very important matter. It behoved the two councils, which represented the ratepayers at both ends, to press their representatives on the County Council to have that largely used main road put into proper condition without further delay.

Capt. Dunne said he had had some experience of that road. Travelling over it by motor, there were parts at which one would be almost shot through the roof with the jolting (laughter). It nearly happened him. It was unanimously decided to comply with the request of the Fermy Council.

Vocational Sub-Committee.

A letter was received from Mr. J. M. Buckley, Chief Executive Officer, County Vocational Committee, stating that the persons nominated by the council had been appointed a local Sub-Committee.

Y.M.S. Annual Dance.

A letter was received from Mr. D. J. Linehan, Hon. Sec. Y.C.Y.M.S., applying for the use of the Town Hall on February 10th for their annual dance on the usual conditions.

Mr. McMahon proposed that the application be granted.

Mr. Murphy objected to the Society getting any concession beyond other applicants.

Mr. McMahon said the Y.M.S. was in existence for 70 years.

Town Clerk—Linger.

Capt. Dunne—it was there before my time.

Ultimately the application was granted. Mr. Murphy dissenting.

Choral Society.

Mr. M. J. Firmin, Organist, Parish Church, applied on behalf of the Youghal Choral Society for the Town Hall on the 30th inst. to hold a Whist Drive.

The application was granted unanimously.

More Houses.

Mr. M. Walsh, South Main street, contractor, applied for permission to build two houses at Knockaverry, Upper Strand, on the same plan as previously.

On the proposition of Mr. Whelan, seconded by Mr. McMahon, permission was granted unanimously.

Chairman—The more building the better (hear, hear).

Irish Tourist Association.

A letter was received from Mr. C. O'Flynn, Secretary Cork Branch Irish Tourist Association, suggesting that the council should nominate delegates to the Cork Commission.

Mr. Whelan thought it would be advisable for a town like Youghal—a prominent seaside resort—to be represented on the City Committee. It was a matter of importance to them to be able to bring questions concerning the local tourist traffic before a Central Committee.

Mr. O'Gorman said the Tourist Development Association deserved every encouragement from all the urban bodies, especially one situated as Youghal was. Much more could be done for the development of tourist traffic if all worked together instead of trying to work separately. Therefore he asked the council to comply with Mr. O'Flynn's request, and he suggested the Chairman and Mr. Whelan as delegates.

This was unanimously adopted.

It was also decided to forward the usual subscription.

Chairman—It is the proper thing to do.

What Did it Mean?

The Clerk read a resolution from the Town Clerk, Kilkenny, regarding the payment of contractors.

The Clerk said he didn't know what they meant by the resolution (laughter).

Several members expressed a like opinion, and the Clerk was asked to write for an explanation.

The Clerk received tenders for the printing of five rate books and demand notes from several Dublin and Cork firms and also from Mr. Field, Youghal. The last was the lowest and was unanimously accepted.

Wanted Damages.

The Town Superintendent called attention to the blackguardism perpetrated at the railings overlooking the beach at Merville. They were pulled apart. If anyone fell through they Oatmeal Manufacturing.

Influenced by the ridiculously low price for Oats, we have overhauled and refitted (on most up-to-date lines) our Oatmeal Manufacturing Plant, and we are in a position to receive Oats for the manufacture of Oatmeal.
We would remind intending patrons that in order to obtain first-class samples of Oatmeal White Oats give best results, and wherever convenient, are preferred as being the most satisfactory for all concerned.
We specialise in the manufacture of Pure Whole Meal.
We also wish to remind our numerous friends and the general public that we are now in a position to carry on the usual Rolling and Kibbling Grinding, kiln-dried or fresh as may be required.
