DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

The monthly finance meeting of the above was held in the Town Hall, on Friday last. Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presided. The other members present were—Messrs. T. McCarthy, J. Hackett, D. Foley, Mce. Giffin, J. F. Moloney, M. J. Keane, and Thomas Power.

Expenditure.

The following payments were passed. Relief grant a/c £27 19s. 1d. General a/c £14 10s. 6d. Housing a/c £9 12s. 9d. and Harbour a/c 19s.

Mr. Keane asked if certain items regarding the building of the new houses such as the knocking down of the old houses etc. were charged to the general account.

B.S.—Yes. We had no housing account at the time.

Mr. Keane—Will the amount be transferred to the general account again.

B.S.—Yes.

Pig Fairs.

Mr. Hackett asked if there was any reply from the Pig Buyers' Association in answer to the letter asking a representative to attend.

Clerk—There is a letter stating that a representative will attend the first meeting in May.

New Houses.

Mr. Keane asked when and how the Council proposed to fix a time limit on the contractors.

B.S.—I said he thought they had fixed one month per house.

Mr. Griffin—An order was made here that no work was to be started until the bonds were signed.

Chairman—There will be no payment made.

B.S.—Mr. Greaney asked me to let him use the timber left over from the last scheme. I told him there would be no work until the bonds were signed, and that there was no money, but he said he required no money and as he was idle I allowed him start.

Mr. Griffin—There is another contractor and will it not look like favouritism.

Clerk—Mr. Greaney called here to sign the bonds, but I told him Mr. Williams was preparing them.

Chairman—We are amply safeguarded, as no money will be paid.

The Clerk was directed to write to Mr. Williams regarding the preparation of the bonds.

Sewer Traps.

A letter was read from Mr. Bowen, Co. Surveyor, regarding the conduct of the scavenger. He had seen sweeping refuse into the gully traps. The letter asked the Council to see that the practice would be stopped at once.

Clerk—On receipt of the letter I asked the scavenger to come here.

Mr. Power—he is waiting below.

Clerk—He denies sweeping into the traps. He says he often cleaned the traps.

S.S.O.—I never saw him sweeping the stuff in.

Mr. Hackett—Has Mr. Bowen men to clean the traps.

S.S.O.—Yes. They clean them every week.

Thos. Egan, Scavenger, was called before the meeting and denied sweeping any stuff into the traps. He freed any that he saw stopped. Only that morning he freed the one at Dunlea's corner where there was a flood over as far as Cahill's. Whenever he saw stuff between the bars of the traps he removed it with the shovel. Mr. Bowen might have seen him do that and think he was sweeping stuff in.

The Clerk, was asked to convey the explanation given to the County Surveyor.

Defective Range.

The B.S., reported a defective range in the house of Mr. Whelan, St. Garvan's Terrace. The tenant complained and stated he was willing to pay half the cost of a new range.

Mr. Keane—All the ranges in Garvan's Terrace seem to be working badly. He held it must be a question of draught, which the B.S., may be able to remedy by putting something on the chimney.

The B.S., said, the ranges were much the same pattern as those in the Abbey-side houses, which never gave trouble. Anytime he visited Whelan's house the range was not working right.

The B.S., was asked for a further report.

Mr. McCarthy, said, he would not agree with that. The woman was suffering too long and should get the range.

Purchase Of A Horse.

The Council decided to invite tenders for the purchase of a horse for scavenging on next Friday night.

Finance.

The Clerk submitted the following statement of account showing the amounts to credit on the following account. General a/c. showed balance due by Treasurer £241 12s. 7d., out of Cappoquin District Court.

Important Licensing Case.—Superintendent Quinlan, summoned Mr. Wm. O'Donnell, Publican, Cappoquin, for a breach of the Licensing Act on Monday night, December 1st, and eight men, who were lodgers in Cappoquin, at the time, were also summoned for being illegally on the premises on the occasion.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, appeared for all the defendants. The case had been heard at considerable length at the previous court, when the evidence of Guard Lee, Cappoquin, showed that the eight men in question belonged to Wexford, Kilkenny, and Waterford, and were engaged in painting the railway bridge at Cappoquin, for some months. It was their usual custom to go home to their various destinations every Saturday for the weekend, and return to their work in Cappoquin on the following Monday, and when they were found in Mr. O'Donnell's premises after closing time on Monday night, December 1st., they maintained that they were bona-fide travellers as they had all slept at home the previous night and had not gone to their lodgings in Cappoquin up to the time they were found on the licensed premises.

Mr. Farrell, solr., then raised the point that under Section 15, Sub-Section 5 of the Intoxicating Liquor Act of 1927, all the men were bona-fide travellers and would continue as such until they went to their lodgings that night.

Mr. Farrell, D.J., then said, as this contention raised a very important point of law he would reserve his decision for a month and carefully consider the case in the meantime.

When the case was now called, he asked Mr. Farrell, solr., if he had anything further to say for the defence, and Mr. Farrell then repeated the points raised by him at the previous hearing.

The Justice, said, that he could not accept Mr. Farrell's interpretation of the Act, as he held that the men had ceased to be travellers when they arrived in Cappoquin on that morning, as they had then reached the end of their journey and were ex-travellers when found on that night. He was, therefore, forced to the conclusion, that it was a case for conviction against all the defendants.

Mr. Farrell, solr., said, that even if the Justice had decided to convict in respect of the eight men, he submitted that the publican should not be convicted, as he had taken all reasonable care to ascertain if the men were bona-fide travellers and was perfectly satisfied from their statements to him that they were travellers.

The Justice, said, he would like to hear the publican further on this point, and Mr. O'Donnell was examined by Mr. Farrell, solr., and stated that the men entered his premises about ten minutes to 9 on the night in question, and when closing time arrived at 9 o'clock he told them that they should be going, and the foreman of the men then said, that they were all bona-fide travellers as they had all slept at home the previous night. "I fully believed them at the time and allowed them to remain, and only for that I would not be here to-day," continued the defendant.

Defendant having been cross-examined by the Supt., the Justice said, the question as to when a man ceased to be a bona-fide traveller had not yet been decided, but on the evidence before him in the present case he was satisfied that a technical breach of the Licensing Act had been committed and he would impose a nominal fine of 1s. each on the eight men, and the same fine on the publican, but there would be no endorsement.

Occasional License.

Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., Dungarvan, applied for an occasional license for Mr. John Daly, Pearse Square, Fermoy, for the purpose of running a bar at the Dyrick Point-to-Point Races.

Mr. Williams, said, that he thought it right to explain that the Race Committee had invited tenders through the Cork and Waterford papers, and Mr. Daly had tendered at the highest figure and had been accepted by the Committee on the express condition that only one bar would be allowed on the course that day.

He now understood, that another application was to be made to-day, on behalf of a local publican, whose tender had not been accepted, for an occasional license for the same day and he wished to point out to the Justice that if the second application were granted it would place the Race Committee in a very awkward position having regard to their undertaking to Mr. Daly, that only one bar would be allowed on the course.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, then made an application for an occasional license for the same day on behalf of Mr. Michael Tobin, publican, Modeligo, Cappoquin, and stated that one of the fields at Dyrick over which the races would be run belonged to Mr. Tobin's uncle and he was most anxious that Mr. Tobin should have a bar in that field on the race day.

Mr. Farrell, added, that last year, when there was only one bar on the course, it proved quite inadequate to meet the requirements of the large crowd present and many were unable to obtain refreshments as a result, so he submitted that two bars were necessary on this occasion.

Mr. Williams, replied, that it was his client, Mr. Daly, who had the bar last year and he was well able to meet the requirements of everybody present and not a solitary complaint had been received by the Race Committee in this respect.

The Justice, said, he would like to hear the Superintendent's views on the matter.

Supt. Quinlan, said, he had questioned some of the Guards who were on duty at the Races last year and they had told him that the one bar was sufficient to meet all requirements, and he thought that one bar would be equally sufficient this year.

The Justice said, that his own opinion also, and he would, therefore, grant the occasional license to Mr. Daly, and refuse Mr. Tobin's application.

The hours of opening were fixed at from one o'clock to 6 p.m.

No Driver's License.

Guard Thorne, Cappoquin, summoned Patrick Arrigan, do., for driving a motor car without a driver's license on March 4th., at Cappoquin.

Defendant did not appear, and a fine of 5s. was imposed.

Guard Moloney, Cappoquin, summoned, Wm. Ryan, Ballinacult, for driving a car for which the license had expired.

Defendant appeared and explained that it happened during the Easter holidays and he was unable to take out a fresh license owing to the Co. Council offices being closed at the time. He had taken out a license at the first opportunity as soon as the offices were opened.

Guard Moloney, having stated that he was satisfied the defendant had since taken out a license, the Justice said he would let him off with a reduced fine of 1s.

Guard Thorne, Cappoquin, v. Christopher Casey, Waterford, for using a motor car with indistinct identification plates.

The Justice, said, there was short service of the summons in this case, which was accordingly dismissed.

No Lights.

Guard Lee, Cappoquin, v. Elizabeth O'Shea, Ballyin, Lismore, for cycling without a light. Fined 2s.

Do. v. Pk. Ormond, Lyre, East same offence. Fined 2s.

Do., v. Margaret Hackett, Villierstown, same offence. Fined 2s.

Sergt. Rochford, Villierstown, v. Michael O'Sborne, Aghish, same offence. Fined 2s.

Do. v. Thos. Hurlin, Dromore, same offence. Fined 1s.

Guards Concannon, Cappagh, v. Thos. Burke, do., same offence. Fined 1s.

Road Nuisance.

Guard O'Mahony, Cappoquin, summoned John Cullen, Barack street, Cappoquin, for allowing a donkey to wander on the public road at Barrack street on March 21st., April and 8th., April.

The Guard stated that the defendant was a poor man.

Defendant now informed the Justice that he had no place to keep the donkey in at night time.

The Justice said he should make effort to keep the animal off the public road, and fined him 6d. in each case.

No Court in May.

At the conclusion of the business of the court, Mr. Farrell D. J., announced that there would be no court held in Cappoquin next month as he would be away, and Mr. Troy, D.J., would be acting for him during the last two weeks in May, but would be unable to attend at Cappoquin, so that the next court would not be held here until June.

Cappoquin District Nursing Association.

The annual general meeting of the Cappoquin District Nursing Association, was held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, Cappoquin, and was well attended, all the principal members of the Association being present with the exception of Mr. James Lincoln, Treasurer, who was unavoidably absent, and who sent a letter of apology regretting his inability to be present.

Amongst those present were—Very Rev. D. Canon Whelan, D.D., Cappoquin; Ven. Archdeacon Burkiitt, M.A., Rector, do.; Lady Eleanor Keane, President; Mrs. Keane, Fortwilliam, Vice-President; Miss Foley Knockalra, Hon. Sec.; Mrs. R. B. Burkiitt, Mrs. R. J. Colleder, Mrs. Helena Ryan, Miss M. Lincoln, Mrs. E. Spillane, Mrs. C. Boyd, Mrs. J. McGrath, Belmont; Mrs. W. McGrath, Cappoquin, and Mr. Thos. Ebrill, B.A.

On the motion of Ven. Archdeacon Burkiitt, seconded by Lady Keane, Canon Whelan, was moved to the Chair, and suitably returned thanks for the great honour conferred on him considering that Lady Keane, the able and worthy President of the Association, was present.

Miss Foley, Hon. Sec., having read the minutes of the last annual meeting, after which was submitted the Annual report for the year 1930, as follows—

REPORT FOR THE YEAR 1930.
In presenting their report, the Committee gratefully acknowledge the support of their subscribers and those who by undertaking the Weekly Collections, continue and maintain the Association on a sound financial basis.

The Annual Meeting was held in March. Canon Whelan presided and the Committee were elected for the year.

The District continued in the charge of Nurse McConnell until December, when she gave up her post to be married and Nurse Lyne took her place.

Miss Kavanagh, Inspector of the Queen's Institute Dublin, visited the district in July, and reported very favourably to the Committee, and the figures given below show Nurse's services were in greater demand than ever.

The outstanding event of the year was the equipment of a residence for the District Nurse.

The Directors of the Cappoquin Bacon Factory, Ltd., allowed the Association the use of their Manager's house at the nominal payment until such time as they required it for their own purpose. The Committee have been able to furnish sufficient rooms and make Nurse feel that she has a comfortable home of her own to return to after her day's work.

County Waterford joined generously in the Scheme for raising a Pension for the Irish Jubilee Nurses.

Gardens were thrown open and Fetes held at Cappoquin and at all the surrounding Demesnes, with the result that £64 3s. was returned to this Association, being half of the money so raised. The Committee felt that Cappoquin should show the same generosity as other Nursing Associations and spare what they could for so good a cause and they returned £16 to the Pension Fund Account.

The Committee gratefully acknowledged the receipt of £13 19s. 7d. being the residue of the Belgian Relief Fund for which purpose there was no longer need.

The Record of Nursing for the year 1930, is as follows—
Number of cases nursed 209, number of convalescents 180; number of deaths 10; number of transferred to Hospital 3; number of visits paid 5,600; number of Child Welfare visits 1,948.

Diseases Nursed.
Midwifery, Pneumonia, Tuberculosis, Uterine Diseases, Abscesses, Paralysis, Fractures, Pleurisy, Senility, Burns, Meningitis, Scalds, Eczema, Measles.

The report was unanimously adopted, as was also the Balance Sheet prepared by Mr. J. Lincoln, Treasurer, which showed a very substantial sum to the credit of the Association after defraying the heavy expenses of the past year.

Mr. Ebrill, said, that instead of circulating copies of the annual report and statement of accounts amongst the members of the Association only, he thought it would be a good plan to have those better advertised in advance of the annual meeting in future as this would be calculated to induce the members of the outside public to take a greater interest in the working of the Association and ensure a larger attendance at their meetings.

Ven. Archdeacon Burkiitt, said, that Mr. Ebrill's suggestion was an excellent one, but as the report was never adopted until it came before the Annual meeting he was afraid it was not feasible to carry out that suggestion.

With regard to increasing the numbers at their meetings he thought they could not ask for a better or more representative attendance of the real workers of the Association than they had here to-night, (hear, hear).

Several matters of detail pertaining to the working of the Association having been dealt with.

Archdeacon Burkiitt, said, it afforded him great pleasure to propose a very hearty vote of thanks to Canon Whelan for so kindly coming down to-night and presiding over that meeting with such dignity and ability and adding by his welcome presence so much brightness to the proceedings. (Hear, hear).

Lady Keane, seconded, and paid a high tribute to Canon Whelan for the deep and kindly interest which he had always taken in the progress and welfare of the Association since he had come to Cappoquin.

Canon Whelan, in replying, said he was very grateful to Archdeacon Burkiitt, and Lady Keane, for their kind remarks, and said, he regarded it as simply his duty to assist the Association by every means in his power. He paid an eloquent tribute to the great work being carried out by Nurse Lyne at present, and said that both he and his Curate Father Crotty, had personal experience of the different and almost inaccessible places which she had to visit on sick calls, more especially in the mountainous Mellerey district, and said the great and humane work which she was now carrying out was worthy of the highest commendation. (Applause).

Archdeacon Burkiitt, said, before they separated he thought a special vote of thanks was due to Lady Keane; their energetic and tireless President, for the wonderful interest which she had always taken in the work of the Association and her interest in the welfare of the sick poor in the town and district, and added that without Lady Keane he felt safe in saying that their Association would be something like Hamlet without the Ghost. Laugh and applause.

The vote of thanks having been carried with acclamation, Lady Keane suitably replied, and this concluded the meeting.

INDUCTION OF NEW P.P. AT BALLYDUFF UPPER, CO. WATERFORD.

The Very Rev. T. Galvin, Adm. St. John's, Waterford, who was appointed P.P., of Ballyduff, in succession to the late Very Rev. Father Callanan, P.P., was inducted to his new Parish by the Very Rev. W. P. Canon Burke, P.P., V.F., Lismore, at last Mass in Ballyduff on Sunday, before an unusually large congregation.

After the formal profession of Faith and taking of the Canonical Oaths, the Church, after which Canon Burke ascended the altar and said that they were all met together a few months ago to pay their last tribute to the gentle and kindly old man (Father Callanan) who had so ably ministered there for many years.

The Parish Priest was dead, but now the Parish Priest lives again, and we wish him many happy years among you.

God takes away the workman, but He carries on the work in the meantime.

He congratulated the parish on the Bishop's choice, because Father Galvin has come to them with a splendid record. He had already discharged perhaps heavier responsibilities than he could ever have to discharge here.

Canon Burke expressed his confidence that the new P.P., would prove fruitful in his labours, and like his Divine Master, would at the last be able to thank the Heavenly Father for the souls committed to his care. In conclusion the Very Rev. Preacher congratulated the new P.P. on his appointment, after which Father Galvin ascended the altar and while confessing his deep sense of the burden placed upon him, he felt that it would be lightened much by the fact that he and his new flock were not unknown to one another and he might be permitted to use the old phrase that they were all "neighbours' children."

SUPPLEMENTARY BULL SALE.
The Supplementary Show and Sale of Bulls at Waterford on Wednesday, under the auspices of the Dairy Short-horn Society, was a great success, and attracted big numbers of buyers. There were 400 animals on Show. In the Class for Yearlings 2nd. prize went to Mr. N. Fitzgerald, Ballinassila and 3rd. prize went to Mr. Martin Kennedy, Stonehouse. A very successful Sale was subsequently held by Mr. Palmer, Auctioneer, prices realised being from 15 to 25 guineas.

NONOGENARIAN PASSES AWAY.
During the past week Mr. M. Connors, Ballyvoile passed away. He had passed his 90th year and was an honest and upright man in every way. He was interred in Garrantown graveyard—R.I.P.

LISMORE NOTES.

PRETTY WEDDING IN LISMORE.

St. Carthage's Catholic Cathedral, Lismore, was the scene of a pretty and interesting wedding on Wednesday morning, April 29th., the contracting parties being Mr. John W. O'Gorman, Solr., Lismore, eldest son of Mr. Patk. and Mrs. O'Gorman, Main St., Lismore, and Miss Kathleen Joseph Madden, daughter of Mrs. Madden and the late Mr. Michael Madden, Kiltrowney Buttevant, Co. Cork. The bridegroom is a well-known practitioner at all the principal courts in Waterford and is a warm supporter of all branches of sport in the district and enjoys great popularity in his native town. His father, Mr. Pk. O'Gorman, was for many years Chairman of the Waterford Co. Council, and it at present Chairman of the Waterford Board of Health, as well as being Vice-Chairman of the Co. Council, and practically all the other Public Boards in the town.

The bride, who is a charming and refined young lady, is sister of Mr. Owen Madden, Merchant, Lismore, who is a prominent and respected member of the Lismore Race Committee, and extremely popular in the town.

The marriage was solemnised with Nuptial Mass and Papal Blessing by the Very Rev. W. P. Canon Burke, P.P., V.F., Lismore, in the presence of a large gathering of relatives and friends of the contracting parties, Mr. O'Gorman (brother of the groom) being best man, while Miss Dwyane, Churchtown, acted as bridesmaid.

After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served in "Annemount House," South Mall, there being a large attendance of guests, and later in the day the happy pair left for Dublin, en route to the South of France, where the honeymoon will be spent.

Over 100 valuable wedding presents were received by the bridegroom and bride.

JUBILEE NURSING ASSOCIATION OPENING OF LISMORE CASTLE GARDENS.

For the purpose of raising funds for the Irish Jubilee Nursing Association the beautiful grounds and gardens of Lismore Castle were thrown open to the public for a nominal fee on last Sunday, the event being availed of by hundreds of visitors from all parts of Munster, as large parties arrived by motor from Adraconusht, Bannrum, Clonmel, Cork, Cobh, Fermoy, Waterford, Dungarvan and other centres.

The weather was stormy and showery but the showers only helped to lend an added freshness and charm to the collection of beautiful flowers and shrubs in the extensive and well-kept gardens which won the admiration of all.

The visitors were met by Mr. P. O'Brien, Head Gardener, and his staff and carefully conducted over the gardens, which occupy a commanding site over the Blackwater, with the majestic Lismore Castle forming a delightful background.

A visit was next paid to the Castle, where the visitors were courteously received by Her Grace the Duchess of Devonshire, Miss Saunders, Her Grace's Private Secretary, Lady Dawson, Lady Cobbold and Lady Dorothy McMillan (daughters of the Duchess), while Her Grace's grandchildren, Master McMillan, Miss Carroll McMillan, Miss Pamela Cobbold, Miss Gean Cobbold, and Masters David and John Stuart, acted as guides and showed the visitors through the various apartments of the stately Castle, every room of which presented special features of interest for all.

Tea was afterwards served in the large Banqueting Hall to 280 guests, and after a most interesting and delightful afternoon's experience all departed fully satisfied and grateful for the enjoyable time they had spent amidst the rare sylvan beauty which is to be found around Lismore Castle and grounds.

GREAT HOCKEY MATCH.
What promises to be a great hockey match will be played on the Lismore Hockey grounds on Saturday, May 2nd., when the final for the Munster Senior League will be fought out between such well-known teams as Waterford Bohemians and Maryville, Cork.

As the match will be of an inter-county character and as both teams are now at the top of their form, a fast and thrilling game is bound to be witnessed, and with fine weather we expect to see a record attendance present on the occasion.

The game starts at 3 o'clock, (S.T.).

RUSTY MILK CANS.
For failing to take all reasonable precautions in the distribution of milk to prevent contamination or infection, Rathgormack Co-Op. Society were fined 30s. in Dublin.

Youghal District Court.

Provincial Bank v. Gleeson. This was an application for a committal order against Mee. John and Mary Gleeson, on foot of an instalment order. Mr. Wm. Hodnett, solr., for plaintiffs; and Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., for defendants. Mr. Keane said, the brothers had paid their instalments, but the sister had no means, and could not pay. Mary Gleeson said, she had no means, and could not pay the instalment of 40s. per month. She merely kept house for her brothers. Mr. Hodnett having cross-examined the witness. The Justice said, he accepted her evidence, and refused the application in her respect. Mr. Hodnett asked for the usual costs as regards the other defendants. Mr. Keane—Provided I get mine. The Justice—I am striking this woman out of the proceedings and I will allow £1 costs. Arising out of an application for an adjournment in a Civil Bill Ejectment. The Justice said—There are so many adjournments in these cases I am beginning to lose track of them. Fishery Cases. The Lismore Estates Co. Ltd., charged Michael Fleming, Ardsallagh, Jas. O'Keefe, do.; Patk. Tobin, Youghal, John McGrath, do.; and John Slaney Ballycotton, with trespassing on their several fishery. There was also a charge of assault by James McGrath, water bailiff against John McGrath. Mr. A. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, for the plaintiffs, said that Slaney, having through his solicitor Mr. Rice, Middleton, undertaken not to repeat the offence, and having paid the costs of the summons, the case against him could be ruled "withdrawn." Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., appeared for the other defendants. Mr. Carroll said, the charge was brought under the 11 and 12 Vic., Cap 22 sec. 41. The penalty been from 10s. to £5. In the case of Tobin v. McGrath there was a summons for trespass on Nov. 14th and Dec 12, and a summons against McGrath for assaulting bailiff McGrath on the latter date, which had added a serious aspect to the attitude taken up by those defendants. There was a charge of trespass against Ml. Fleming, on Nov. 6th and a like charge against Jas. O'Keefe, on Nov., 19th. what had happened was this: Those defendants had used what was known locally as a "trammel" net for the capture of, he thought, flat fish. There had been an outcry against the use of those nets inside the Bay, because they disturbed the spawn or the spawning fish where those nets were used. Mr. Keane said, it was not correct to call the net a "trammel" net—a "trammel" net was fixed. Mr. Carroll said, he didn't care what it was. Those men had no right whatsoever to use any method of fishing in the waters they were in. He was instructed that they were using a motor boat of some sort with a net attached. Patrick Dooley, Water bailiff, Lismore, said, that on November 6th, he saw a motor launch and a boat trailing after the launch in the Blackwater just above Ballynabarr. There was a net extended from the launch and he saw it been used. On witness calling the man in the launch stopped her. Replying to witnesses charge, he said, he had a licence and receipt for 40s. paid and witness told him to produce it to Mr. Penrose, Lismore. He then said, he would give up, but he kept his gear on the river till Nov., 19th, when witness ordered him to clear it off, which he did. The Justice—I haven't gathered from this witness does he identify anybody. Mr. Carroll—Only Michael Fleming, he is the man. Dooley, answering, said, he found Jas. O'Keefe, trawling near D'Lough-tane, on November 19th. O'Keefe, said he didn't know it was prohibited and witness pointed out that some of his crew had been with Fleming on November 6th, when they were stopped trawling. They had a 4-oared boat. They stopped fishing after some words. On November 14th, he observed from the Green Park wall a boat on the river throwing out something. He saw the boat later throw out a net on the outside. He distinctly saw a rope trailing from the boat as if they had a net out. The boat went out at 10.30 a.m. and the crew landed about 10 p.m. He was on the quay when they came in. They had 2 boxes of fish and nets. He asked one of the crew— Mr. Keane—Which of the crew? Witness—I could not tell. I asked who was in charge. The Justice—Who was listening to your question? The crew, and there was one particular man standing at the corner. The Justice—Do you know if either of those defendants—Tobin or McGrath were there. Witness answering said Tobin was pointed out as the man in charge. He charged Tobin who said, he didn't know that trawling was not allowed and to speak to Fr. Murphy, as they were working for him. John McGrath said that witness would not come there that hour, only he had a "skit" and he threatened all sorts. Mr. Keane—Is there a summons for this? Mr. Carroll—There is a summons for that date. The Justice—I think it is evidence.

Dooley, resuming, said, McGrath spoke in presence of Tobin and two other men. On December 11th, he saw trawling going on from opposite the Hotel Monarea, to the Black Weir. They were using a net between Youghal Bridge and Green Park. They landed at the quay and witness said to Tobin, "You can't deny you were trawling this evening." While asking Tobin his name John McGrath struck him and threatened to drown him, break his neck or throw him off the quay. McGrath then backed witness towards the rail when a third member of the crew came to his rescue. John McGrath, hit bailiff McGrath knocked his cap off and the pipe out of his mouth. Jas. McGrath, turned to run from the defendant John McGrath who kicked him, bailiff McGrath and witness got away by different ways. The defendants wanted to get them into a dark laneway. The Justice—I have asked you several times not to give general evidence, just answer the question you are asked. Cross-examined by Mr. Keane. Witness, said, he came from the upper river to do duty there 3 or 4 years ago, when Mr. Murphy was written by the Estates Co. I asked you when did you prevent these men fishing, yourself, for the first time? Last winter. He didn't swear on his direct examination that he had prevented those men fishing 2 years ago. He knew very little about trawling. He didn't know that Fleming had been fishing 40 years and O'Keefe 40 years in the same way. He could not say if they had been stopped before. He didn't see Fleming or O'Keefe fishing after he stopped them, but Fleming didn't take his boat off the river till November 19th. Do you suggest he was fishing? It had no other business there. Then you do suggest it? I didn't see him. Fleming's was an "otter trawler," but he hadn't much experience about them. Trawlers fished in the mud banks, the trawl would be dragged there by the power of the boat. Do you swear that O'Keefe with his 4 oar boat could pull a trawl through the mud banks? There are sand banks as hard as the road. Witness saw a lot of fish in Fleming's boat. O'Keefe said he was 38 years in the locality and said he was sorry he ever came to fish. On November 14th, he saw the Youghal men fishing. He could not clearly identify it, but he knew it was a net. Are you prepared to swear it was a net? I had my suspicions. I distinctly saw a rope trailing after the boat. But you won't swear there was a trawl? I won't. Tobin partly admitted that they were trawling and said he didn't know it was prevented. Justice—I insist on your answering the question—You are asked did they deny or admit? Witness—McGrath did. He called me names and said I was a liar and I told them that they couldn't trawl in the same place. The Justice—We have an answer now. Mr. Keane—Did those men deny it on the 14th? Yes, they denied. Cross-examination continued, witness said on the night of the 14th, November, McGrath said if he (witness) hadn't a "skit" in his pocket he'd hear all about it, and laid down the box of fish to attack him. He hadn't summoned McGrath for assault, but bailiff McGrath who was with him on the occasion had. It was about 6 o'clock and dusk, but there were lights there. I gather from Mr. Carroll's statement that it was up against the trawlers you are?—have you prevented men from using a "spiller"? Yes, above Youghal Bridge. Youghal Court (3). Is there any suggestion that the "spiller" can interfere with the spawning beds? Why not the men at Ballyhea East use the "spiller" as the men down here? Have you been instructed by the authorities to prevent "spillers"? As water bailiff I am supposed to understand my duty. Have you been so instructed? No. Then you take it on yourself? Not down here, but at Templemichael. The Justice—This is outside the case. James McGrath, Water bailiff, called, was giving evidence in O'Keefe's case. Mr. Keane—I don't deny that. In the case against McGrath v. Tobin, for December 11th, witness said he saw their boat at the off side and they appeared to be fishing, he saw them hauling as if they were hauling a net. When the landed Dooley asked for the coxswain. McGrath said he was, but Dooley said it was Tobin. McGrath got excited, rushed at Dooley and punched him around. Witness interfered and McGrath attacked him, knocked his pipe out of his mouth and his cap off his head. Witness got a kick as he was going away. Cross-examined by Mr. Keane, witness said he didn't attach a lot of importance to the assault. Dooley didn't issue a summons for assault, but witness did. He could not say who kicked him. Mr. E. C. Penrose, Fishery Office, Lismore Castle, said, he gave no permission to defendants to fish with nets in these waters, which were strictly preserved. He was acting in the interest of the Youghal fishermen, who fish with hooks in the winter. A very strong protest was sent up against all the trawling in the Harbour in winter. It was decided before he came to stop that trawling. It had been done away with for a number of years. He had sent down bailiffs to look after it.

Cross-examined, witness said, the protest against the trawling was signed by a number of local fishermen early in the winter. He had received a communication from the Fishery Conservators asking him to allow the fishing go on. He didn't reply. He replied to the protest by sending down bailiffs. He took steps to find out if the protest was genuine. He did write one letter to the Conservators in which he stated that the trawling interfered with the spawning beds. He adhered to that license used by the Duke of Devonshire, but some years ago it was stopped on account of the local fishing. He was asked where and when those fish spawned, but he didn't reply. They didn't spawn at sea altogether. The Fishery Departments all over England objected to that kind of trawling. If you were satisfied that they didn't upset the spawning beds would you remove, or ask to have the prohibition removed? If it is going to affect the local fisherman it would not be removed. How could it affect them if it didn't interfere with the spawning—isn't the Harbour teeming with those fish—flounders? It may be. He could not contradict a man who would swear that he had been trawling in the same way for the past 40 years. He wrote to Mr. Murphy, the previous winter calling on him to stop the trawling, but to nobody else. You refused to give him his usual salmon license because he trawled? Yes. Don't you think that was punishment enough without prosecuting these men? I don't. He said he would do no more trawling, but he continued to do so. Do you know that trawling in the Harbour is only done when the weather is bad outside? That boat trawled up and down the Harbour all the winter. Mr. Keane asked for a dismissal. They were charged with trespass on a several fishery. The plaintiffs must show they were the owners; they hadn't done so. The Justice—I agree. Mr. Carroll said, Mr. Keane's defence had been that one of his clients had a license issued by Mr. Penrose and that the others were not fishing at all. He (Mr. Carroll) didn't bring the title with him because he didn't think it would be required. The title of plaintiffs was established on eight appeal cases in the House of Lords in the case of the Duke of Devonshire v. O'Neill. If his worship was going to hold that he should prove title he would ask for an adjournment. Mr. Keane's plea was that the defendants didn't know they were breaking the law and that there was no proof that nets were used. Under the Section invoked by Mr. Carroll, it was obvious he must show title. The case quoted by Mr. Carroll was the Duke of Devonshire against O'Neill—There was also the case of the Duke against Hodnett, grandfather of their colleague Mr. Wm. Hodnett. The Duke of Devonshire was not before that Court, it was the Lismore Estates Co., Ltd. The Justice held with Mr. Keane, that proof of title was essential and he dismissed the cases without prejudice and with 15s. in each case. The charge of assault was another matter. John McGrath, sworn said, he punched Dooley, but not McGrath. Having been out in a boat saving life that day, they got a reward and he was in good form. He didn't see McGrath. Cross-examined by Mr. Carroll, witness said McGrath was 12 feet away, but he did not know him. There was another man with Dooley when they landed, but he didn't know him. You were in good form? I might have a couple of shots, (laughter). In good fighting form? No, I mean I had a couple of drinks. He punched Dooley because he interrupted him. He didn't hear Dooley calling on anybody to witness something. John Ronayne, said, he was present that night. Mr. Keane—Do you know who assaulted McGrath? I am the man. Mr. Keane—You need not have said that. Cross-examined by Mr. Carroll, witness said, he gave no kick, because the man ran away. His pipe might have been knocked out of his mouth and his cap knocked off, but McGrath didn't do it. Dooley, swore that the man whom he saw give the kick was John McGrath. I saw no kick at all. Then there were 20 you at him? Mr. Keane—That is not correct. The Justice, said he thought the charge of assault was proved, but it was not very much. McGrath would be fined 10s. and 10s. costs. 3 Charges. Guard P. J. O'Connor, charged Denis O'Brien, Chapel Lane, Youghal, with drunkenness and disorderly conduct. Guard J. Downes had a like charge against the same defendant for a different date. There was also a charge against him by Sergt. O'Beirne of assault while in discharge of his duty. On the application of Supt. Dennehy the three cases were adjourned for a fortnight. Mr. Paik. Healy, vintner, was charged with a breach of the Licensing Act, on Sunday 22nd. March. Supt. Dennehy, prosecuted; and Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., defended. The Supt. having opened the case called on Sergt. Lupton. Mr. Hodnett, said he could not justify the presence of two of the men found on the premises, and he therefore pleaded guilty. In view of the fact that they were with a relative of the defendants, he asked the Court to deal leniently with the case. The Justice, said, that having regard to the circumstances and the manner in which the case was met, by Mr. Hodnett, he would not deal with the case as serious. However, he wished publicans to understand that he was not going to strain the wording of the Act, or his own ingenuity to find that charges of the kind were trivial, if he was not in a position to do so. Defendant was fined £2 not to be recorded and the men found on the premises were each fined 5s. Adjournment. In the adjourned cases of McLaughlin, and Cronin, against Devlin, Mr. J. N. R. McNamara, for the plaintiffs and Mr. J. L. Keane, for defendants. Mr. Keane, said, the cases had been adjourned from time to time owing to a serious illness of his client. He was still laid up and would be unable to attend for another month. He handed in a Doctor's certificate. The Justice, said, the certificate gave no particulars beyond stating that defendant was ill and unable to attend. Mr. Keane, said, he would produce the Dr. if necessary. He applied for a further adjournment. Mr. McNamara, said, he was instructed to oppose any further adjournment. The cases were hanging fire 2 1/2 months. The Justice, said, there seemed to be no end to adjournments there. Last day the whole Court was adjourned. What were the cases about? Mr. McNamara, said, one was for cutting off the plaintiffs water and the other was a claim for wages. After some further discussion Mr. McNamara, agreed to a month's adjournment and asked for the defendant's expenses for the day. The cases were accordingly adjourned. Cronin being allowed 5s. expenses for the day. McLaughlin saying he didn't require any. Forfeiture Of Net. Mr. T. Drohan, Inspector Fisheries, applied for the forfeiture of an illegal net found fishing the river. Bailiff Murphy, said, he saw a boat fishing in the river at Ballinaclesh. The boat went ashore at the quay and the men left the net behind. It was 220 yards long. An order was made to have the net adjusted, and forfeited and sold. Land Commission v. Dunne. This was an application by the Land Commission against Wm. Dunne, Shangarry, for committal for non-payment of instalments on foot of judgment decree of £105 18s. 2d. Mr. D. Casey, State Solicitor, Mitchelstown, for plaintiffs. Defendant sworn, said he was not able to pay at present. He had paid £20, but didn't get credit for it. Mr. Casey, said, that £20 went to the costs of a decree of C. Healy, Cork, the Land Commission got none of it. Mr. Hodnett, solr., who acted on a former occasion for Dunne, here handed in a receipt for the £20 in question. It bore the numbers of two decrees—Mr. Healy's and the Land Commission, the latter being specifically mentioned. Defendant, said, he had meant the £20 to go to the Land Commission. The Justice, said, he thought he would have to give the defendant credit on the decree. Mr. Casey, said, he would have to accept his worship's ruling, but the Land Commission could not give up their claim. Defendant had two holdings and he had not paid a penny for years. The Land Commission tried to sell one holding, but failed. The defendant had an offer of £150 for one, but he would not accept it. After a very protracted hearing the Justice, made an order for 6 weeks imprisonment with £1 costs on the application and £1 for transfer to Cork, with a stay till July 1st. SEQUEL TO CO. WATERFORD MOTOR ACCIDENT. In the High Court, Dublin, a consent was received by Mr. Justice O'Byrne and made a rule of the Court in the case of John Kelly, a minor, suing by his father, William Kelly, of Catherine Street, Waterford, against John D. Palmer, of Catherine Street, Waterford. The action was for damages for personal injuries suffered by plaintiff through the alleged negligence of the defendant in driving a motor car at Killocock, Waterford, in October 1929 and also for damages to the plaintiff's motor cycle. The consent provided for the payment by the defendant, who in his defence, denied liability, and pleaded contributory negligence of the sum of £1,120 and costs up to the date of delivery of the defence. PRICE OF MILK. (To The Editor "Dungarvan Observer.") Sir,—Permit me through the medium of your excellent Journal, to voice a protest against the present price of milk here in Youghal viz., 9d. per pint, quite recently a local Farmer contracted to one of the Institutions at 11d. per gallon about 80 per cent. under what we have to pay, for which there is no justification, considering the present price of butter, same can be purchased from Shopkeepers here at 1s. 10d. Have the Urban Council any control, I quite agree that all the Urban Councilors are business men and don't care to interfere, never the less there is such a long road between the two prices some persons or persons should step in and protect the poor, so as to enable us to buy one of the best diet for our children at reasonable prices. Trusting some other pen than mine will take up the important question so as to secure prices on reasonable terms. WORKING MAN. Youghal, 21 April, 1931.

Mixed instantly in cold water—is an all Tobacco Dip and approved by the Department of Agriculture. Don't deprive your sheep of the Tobacco that gives so much comfort to yourself. They need it as much as you do, AND IT COSTS EXACTLY THE SAME AS THE HARSH ARSENIC AND CARBOLIC PREPARATIONS. USE IT FOR TWELVE MONTHS and watch the surprising differences in the health of the flock and the vigour of the lambs in the Spring. AS FOR MAGGOTS—If you dip with Nicobrand Liquid a double strength, you need not worry about Maggots in the Fly season. You should get a 99 per cent. avoidance of this evil by so doing. DON'T USE BURNING FLUIDS to cure maggot-struck sheep, it only makes a patchy looking sheep, and there is no need to do so; NICOBRAND LIQUID DIP used at one egg-cup full to a pint kills the maggots in less than a minute, moreover, it is soothing, narcotic, and antiseptic to the skin; it heals the wounds in twelve hours, and there is not the slightest sign of a patch soon afterwards. NOTE HOW FEW LAMBS DIE OF WOOL-BALL WHEN A NICOBRAND DIP IS USED. NICOBRAND SHEEP DIP is the one and only Dip MANUFACTURED in Ireland in the true meaning of the word manufacture. There are people claiming their Dip as of Irish manufacture, but the ESSENTIAL principle is almost invariably bought in England, or elsewhere, and merely mixed in Ireland. This is not manufacturing. It takes a 100 tons of Tobacco to manufacture a ton of Tobacco Dip. This means haulage for the Irish Railways, and employment for Irish labour. Here is a case where you can support Home Industry and in doing so benefit yourselves, for Nicobrand is a genuine all round improvement on any of the imported Dips, AND REMEMBER IT COSTS NO MORE. A different report from various Sources on sheep dipping will appear with each insertion of this advertisement. None of them solicited Testimonials. Here is the first. WEXFORD COUNTY COUNCIL. (County Secretary's Office, Fortview, Wexford, 27th March, 1931). NICOBRAND SHEEP DIP. Dear Sir,—In reply to yours of the 26th instant I enclose copy of Mr. Hennessy's report. Yours faithfully, N. J. FRIZELLE, Secretary. NICOBRAND CO. LISMORE. Copy Report Mr. M. J. Hennessy, Lay Sheep Dipping Inspector for New Ross District. Monamolin, Rathnure, Enniscorthy, 7th October, 1930. Dear Sir,—I beg to inform you I tried Nicobrand Sheep Dip on three or four flocks of sheep and in my opinion it is a real gift to Farmers and Sheep owners. Besides being a preventive of sheep scab it is also an excellent dip to keep away the maggot fly. I dipped sheep badly cut with maggots and Nicobrand seemed to heal the skin very quickly. In all other sheep dips if you Dip sheep cut with maggots it is certain death in a word I think Nicobrand dip is the dip Farmers and sheep owners have been looking for. I am, yours obediently, (Signed) M. J. HENNESSY, Sheep Dipping Inspector. NOTE—This Inspector Dips 30,000 Sheep per annum. SHARKS ON WATERFORD COAST. Since the recent belated much-needed improvement in the salmon fishing act in the dangerous enemy of the fishermen, the shark, has been very busy on the County Waterford coast. Last week-end they wrought great damage to the men's gear. One boat's nets were struck by five of these pests which tore them to pieces in their struggles to free themselves. Several others also suffered similarly. The men succeeded in capturing two good sized specimens. Owing to the fact that there is a good depth of water in the Ardmore Bay, the sharks can come quite close in to the shore where the men fish. The result is that after the experience of their comrades the crews are chary of casting out their nets. Several nets, more or less seriously damaged by the sharks are strewn up on the beach. The heags seen range up to thirty feet in length. This Bay is regularly infested with them year after year, about the months of April and May. Unfortunately nothing apparently can be done to prevent their ravages which means a big loss to the poor men and their families. Burn Moloney's Coal unless you have money to burn.

WHISKEY, STOUT, AND MONEY.

At Dungarvan District Court, last week before Mr. Troy, D.J.

Superintendent O'Shea, charged James Terry, Friary street, Dungarvan, (1) with the larceny of a bottle containing 3 or 4 glasses of whiskey, and three bottles of stout the property of Miss Dempsey, Mary street (2) with the larceny of a bottle of imitation whiskey, and for loitering with intent on the premises of Mr. Wall, O'Connell St., and (3) with the larceny of a sum of money between £4 and £5 from John Flynn, Mary St., and a bicycle lamp value 10s. from J. Morgan.

Jas. Cowman, a brother-in-law of the accused was charged with being in possession of the bicycle lamp and the bottle of imitation whiskey.

Mr. Farrell, solr., defended.

John Flynn gave evidence to the effect that on the evening of April 18th at about 8 p.m. he was in his kitchen having tea with his wife. He heard the bell on the till in the shop ring. On going out the shop was unoccupied, but he discovered that the till had been opened and a sum of between £4 and £5 taken, all the money was in silver.

To Mr. Farrell, solr., for defendant, witness said that he could not swear to the exact amount in the till, but was sure they was the sum he mentioned.

Miss E. Wall, publican, O'Connell street, said that the defendant came to her premises on April 18th, at about 8 p.m. He had a small bottle of stout, which he paid for with six pennies. She saw defendant through the glass door put his hand on the till and then she told him to get out. After he had gone she missed a bottle containing imitation whiskey which was kept for show. She identified defendant as the man who was in her house, at a parade.

Mrs. Wall, gave evidence of the defendant being in the shop on the evening of the 15th.

Cross-examined by Mr. Farrell. He was between 7.30 and 8 p.m. There were people in after defendant, but not before she missed the bottle, she had bottles similar to the one in Court, but she could not swear to it.

Miss Dempsey, deposed to leaving the shop for a few minutes on the 18th, she had a bottle similar to the one produced on a shelf. It contained about 5 glasses of whiskey at 1s. 8d. per glass. She had left the shop for about 15 minutes, about 7.30 p.m. a customer came in for whiskey and she missed the bottle. On the 18th she left the shop to have a cup of tea, she missed three large bottles of stout when she returned.

Cross-examined by Mr. Farrell.—It was on the fair day she missed the whiskey, there would be strangers about that day.

Sergt. Wallace, deposed to searching defendant's house on April 20th. He found a whiskey bottle containing about 24 glasses concealed in the yard, witness accompanied by Sergt. O'Shea went to Miss Dempsey's and she identified the bottle.

Genrd Sweeney, deposed to arresting the accused who was drunk and disorderly on the fair day. He took him to the barrack and searched him, he had 24s. 6d. on him, all in silver, with the exception of 6 coppers, and some foreign coins. On the following morning witness charged him and he said, I have nothing to say I did not do it.

Sergt. Perrin, deposed, that the defendant was in custody on the morning of the 17th, April. Witness saw him at 9 a.m. he was feeling fit to make a statement and he said he was. He then made a statement which witness took down and defendant signed it.

Mr. Walsh, deposed he was employed at Mr. Dawson's Mary St., it was nearly opposite Mr. Flynn's house, Terry's sister came in and made a statement to witness Terry came in afterwards to pledge a watch which witness refused owing to his sister's statement. He came after and pledged a trousers for 3s. On the 16th witness was standing at the Club in Mary St., at about 7.30 p.m., as defendant came down Mary St., witness did not see him go back.

Mrs. Halley, deposed she had a shop on the off side of the street from Mr. Flynn, on the 16th., the accused came in between 6 and 7 p.m. and left almost immediately.

Cross-examined by Mr. Farrell. He brought an orange. Witness did not think he was drunk, but she could not say.

Bridget Curran, deposed she was employed by Thos. Barry, Mary St., opposite Miss Dempsey's, on the 16th she was in the shop. The accused came to the door, but did not come in, witness saw him go into Dempsey's she did not see him coming out.

Mr. Healy, deposed that accused was a member of the National Health Insurance Society. He was paid 13s. 4d. on March 24th and on March 21st., he was paid 16s. He had received no further payment since. He got no payment of 16s. twice.

Cross-examined by Mr. Farrell.—He may have drawn unemployment benefit and witness would not know it.

Patk. Moloney, deposed on the day after the fair he was at Cullinane public house. He did not know if Terry came in, but they met and went up to Keane's they were refused there so they went across to Donovan's. Witness gave Terry a few coppers as he was short.

Cross-examined by Mr. Farrell.—Terry had some drink taken as well as himself. They were both well oiled.

May Donovan, deposed to supplying Terry, Moloney and Sullivan with a drink. Later she refused to serve Sullivan.

By Mr. Farrell.—Did not see what money Terry had.

Miss Downey, Barmoid, at Mr. D. Morrison's and Nora Dunford, Barmoid at Mr. P. Foley's and Miss Halpin, were also examined, to prove that Terry had drinks there on the evening in question.

Sergt. O'Shea, deposed he was making inquiries into the larceny. He found the box which contained Mr. Flynn's money in Chapel St. the day after the larceny. The box was 50 yards from the house of Terry's brother-in-law Cowman and 151 yards from Flynn's house. Witness was present when the whiskey and lamp were found in Cowman's yard, Cowman said he could not account them, and that it must be someone else was trying to get him into trouble.

Jas. Cowman, deposed he was brother-in-law of Terry's and he lived at Battery street. On the evening of the 16th Terry came in at about 8 p.m. and went out to the yard. Witness followed him out and he thought Terry was sick. They had about 5 drinks together that day.

Cross-examined by Mr. Farrell.—Terry was constantly employed up to August and had a good job with wages at £5 5s. a week.

J. Morgan, deposed, to missing a bicycle lamp off his bicycle which he left on the Square on the fair evening, witness identified the lamp later at the barrack, it is value for 10s.

By Mr. Farrell.—There were not many people about at the time.

Mr. Farrell, said, his instructions were to plead guilty to the larceny of the bottle containing the coloured whiskey. As regards the money we know nothing about that, and as regards the other whiskeys he was instructed that his client purchased these from a stranger for 1s. as he wanted to catch the Clonmel bus. Terry will give evidence that he had this money saved up and was celebrating before he went to England to get work. Mr. Farrell, said, Flynn was positive the money was taken between £4 and £5 and his client could not have spent all this except 24s. in the time.

Jas. Terry, was then examined and said, he was a sailor and was 25 years old. He was employed up to August. He lived with his mother who was in a poor state of health. His father was in hospital four or five months. Witness kept the house going. He drew 15s. unemployment a week for 6 months up to March last. He pleaded guilty to the larceny of the bottle from Wall's, but knew nothing about the money, as regards the other stuff he was going home down the Main street when he was stopped by a man who asked him to buy the lamp as he wanted to get to Clonmel by bus. Witness bought the lamp for 1s. the man then said he had some bottles which he gave witness. They were in a bag, witness took the bag home and opened it and found the stout and whiskey, witness put the whiskey out in his own yard and took the lamp and the coloured whiskey to Cowman's yard. Cowman did not know he was putting them there.

The witness was cross-examined at length by Superintendent O'Shea. The foreign coins were also found in the bag he bought from the man, all the stuff was in the bag except the silver and the bottle of water. He got 5s. from his mother but not for drink, he wanted to pay the rent. He did not pay the rent.

Jas. Cowman, was now charged with being in possession of the lamp and bottle.

The defence was that he knew nothing of them, the case against Cowman was dismissed.

Recalled by the Justice, Terry, again said, that the coins were in the bag which he bought.

Mr. Farrell pleaded for a suspensory sentence for the accused, who, he said would go away.

The Justice, said, the accused could not be very drunk when he went into Flynn's house, because when the bell was heard he had disappeared. He was not satisfied accused was telling the truth especially about the coins in the bottom of the bag. He would give him one advice, if he knew who owned the coins he could say so now, because if the Superintendent finds that they belonged to another there will be another charge.

Accused was then sentenced to two months hard labour for the larceny of the money, with a month in each of the other charges to run concurrently.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY A. TOBIN, GRAWN, MODELIGO, CAPPOQUIN.

Deep regret has been caused by the death of Mrs. Mary A. Tobin, Grawn, Modeligo, which occurred at her residence after a rather prolonged illness at the ripe age of 80 years.

The deceased belonged to one of the oldest families in the district, being a member of the Holy Family of Rockfevogue, Cappagh. A lady of a strictly devout and religious character, she had given no less than three sons to the Priesthood, viz., the Rev. Wm. Tobin, the present Pastor of St. Benedict's, Buffalo, U.S.A., the Rev. Patrick F. Tobin, do.; and the late Rev. Michael Tobin, who was accidentally drowned in Buffalo, nearly 20 years ago.

She was owner of an extensive farm in the Modeligo district and was a lady of a most upright and honourable disposition who was held in the highest esteem by all who knew her during her long and honourable life.

On Saturday evening week the remains were removed to the Catholic Church at Afane, where they were received by the Very Rev. M. Carroll, P.P., and Rev. Jas. Dwan, C.C., Modeligo, and at the 10.30 Mass on Sunday morning the Very Rev. M. Carroll, P.P., Modeligo, paid an unusual and eloquent tribute to the memory of the deceased.

Having eulogised her many sterling traits of character as an exemplary Catholic and a Christian lady of a broad-minded and charitable disposition, he said, it was a privilege to him to have been allowed to attend her in the last stages of her illness and he always found that he was a better man after having left her.

On Sunday afternoon the funeral took place to the family burial ground in Afane Cemetery when there was an extremely large and representative cortege of all the leading people in the district whose presence proved a striking tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased lady.

The Very Rev. Father O'Carroll, P.P. headed the remains at the Cemetery gates, afterwards reciting the final prayers at the grave side.

The Chief Mourners were:—John Tobin, Grawn (son); Mrs. Quinn, Bawnavogue, Modeligo, and Mrs. Sheehan, Knockgarron, do., (daughters); Mrs. J. Tobin, (daughter-in-law); James Quinn, (son-in-law); Masters Michael and John Tobin, the Misses Maureen and Bridget Tobin, Grawn; John Sheehan, Limerick; Michael Sheehan, Cork, Wm. and Maurice Sheehan, and Miss Kattie Sheehan, Knockgarron, (grand-children); Mrs. Hely, and G. P. Hely, Cappoquin; Mrs. M. INFANTICIDE CHARGE IN WATERFORD.

When James Hannigan, Spring Garden Alley, was charged in Waterford before Mr. McCabe, D.J., with the murder of his daughter's unnamed boy child, Mr. E. A. Ryan, S.S., said that in Hannigan's case he would offer no evidence. Hannigan, he said, had been arrested and charged with the offence rather for his own protection. This had been found necessary because of the very peculiar circumstances of the case.

Hannigan was then discharged, and his daughter Nora, took his place in the dock, and was sent for trial to the Central Criminal Court, charged with the murder of her child on April 7th.

DEFAULTING LAND ANNUITANTS.

The Secretary informed Wexford Co. Council that £503 had been deducted from the last instalment of the Agricultural Grant owing to the sums due by defaulting annuitants under the Land Purchase Act.

He thought the amount of unpaid annuities contained in the last return was £22,000, and it was now £18,000. The Finance Committee's resolution that the Land Commission should send down an Inspector to discuss the question of dividing up the defaulting farms in the County was passed.

The Department's Inspector, on Horticulture reported having attended a demonstration with Mr. O'Shea, Instructor, at an Ardmore plot and the work he was doing was excellent. Mr. O'Shea was usefully employed. The shelter belt and schemes under his charge are well advanced.

In connection with the application received from Mr. J. J. Bergin, Athy, to have delegates appointed to a conference in Dublin next week for the New Rural Organisation.

Mr. Daly, said, the Committee should have some information before taking action.

An application for a Premium Bull from John Kennelly, Ballinlovane, Ballyduff, was granted.

Machine For Seed Sowing.

Mr. J. J. Roche, Moorehill, Tallow, wrote, asking if the Committee would arrange a trial demonstration for the new spacing machine for seed-sowing which he had invented and patented in England, that had not yet been patented in the Irish Free State.

Mr. Heskin—He is agreeable to bring down the machine and give a demonstration at planting mangolds or turnips near Dungarvan. It would be a good thing to have the demonstration carried out by the Co. Committee of Agriculture, I saw the machine at work and it is a great success. All the farmers around Tallow are using it.

Mr. Hartly—I saw one of those spacing machines by the Planet Junior People.

Mr. Sheridan, said, he had a spacing machine for some years which worked very well. It was a great saving of seed.

Mr. Heskin, said, Mr. Roche's machine was not only a great saver of seed, but afterwards owing to the spacing there was a great saving of labour. The crops he saw after the machine were tip-top. It was a great success in every way. I saw it at work and it is as regular as clock work.

The Chairman, said, he would be agreeable to have the spacing machine give a demonstration of mangold sowing on his land the following week and later a demonstration could be given at turnip sowing.

from Pigs

Here is the experience of a farmer from Enniskean, Co. Cork—"I feed about 50 pigs and during the last 8 months I have given them a penny packet of Fortakine 3 times a week. The result has been a great surprise to me. I have never had a sick pig or a pig that I suspected of having worms during the whole 8 months. That in itself is good enough—but the best of all is that I have all my pigs fattened 4 weeks earlier than I was able to do before, even though I used other makes of pig powder. The result of a regular dose of Fortakine are marvellous. 15 penny packets for 1/- Try a 15s tin (100 doses) from Chemists and local dealers.

NEW YORK'S MAYOR.

The charges against Mayor Walker that he had carried out his duties in a "wasteful and incompetent" way, have been dismissed by Mr. Roosevelt, Governor of New York State.

Mr. Walker passionately denied the charges in a 15,000-words document, in which he asserted that he had "adequately and consistently" done his duty.

South Abbey, Youghal, 25th, April '31.

Sir,—In my "Observer" to hand, I see how members of the Youghal Urban Council, at a recent meeting, rubbed their hands with delight, and stuck out their chests at making a "profit" out of the ferry-boat.

"Profit"—forsooth! I protest against any "profit", as long as "sweated labour" conditions are being practised on the crew. Yours faithfully,
L. RONAINE.

Youghal Urban Council.

Present Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Chairman; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. M. D. Broderick, D. J. Linehan, J. Whelan, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; T. Beausang, Mrs. Hurley, P.C.; D. Dennehy, E. Clancy, F. Harrington, T. Murphy, A. J. Nowkes.

Proposed Pier.

The following letter was read from the Minister of Fisheries:

A Chair.—Referring to your communication to the Minister, enclosing plans and specification of proposed works at Youghal Harbour, to afford better shelter for the fishing boats using the Harbour. I am directed by the Minister for Lairs and Fisheries to state that in his opinion the needs of the present fishing fleet, consisting as it does of Oyster yawls, which engage in seasonal fishing, do not call for the expenditure of such a large sum as that set out in the estimate for the construction of a breakwater pier which is proposed.—A. C. Moriarty.

The Chairman.—We go so far, can we get any farther by writing again? Capt. Dunne, said, that the Department were treating the poor Youghal fishermen very badly. The fishing was practically their only industry, upon which hundreds of families depended and the Government had never been asked before, even for a loan for those boats—boats and gear were all supplied locally. In winter time the men have often to stay up and out all night trying to save the boats from destruction, and when any damage was done it was made good by the owners—the Government were never asked for a penny to help.

Mr. Broderick, agreed with Capt. Dunne—it was their only industry upon which large numbers depended for a livelihood and in the circumstances the Ministry ought help the men in some way or another to protect the boats, without which they could not carry on.

Capt. Dunne, said, that other places around the coast had no difficulty in getting grants or loans, but, Youghal was completely neglected.

Mr. Whelan, suggested that they should solicit the aid of their T.D.s irrespective of party, and see what could be done.

The Chairman, agreed with the remarks of the previous speakers. There was a large portion of their population depended on the fishing, and the men deserved some help. Youghal contributed some £50,000 in direct and indirect taxation and they ought get a little of their own back.

Mr. O'Gorman, asked had the Department sent down a representative to examine that particular dock.

Mr. Harrington, said, they had expected an Inspector and some members awaited his arrival in the Board Room, till 4 o'clock, but he never turned up. It appeared he came afterwards and saw Capt. Dunne.

The Clerk, said, the visit of Mr. Harrington referred to was totally unofficial. It was the late Mr. E. C. Ronayne, B.L. that was directly responsible for the visit. The Department subsequently wrote down stating that they were sending down an Inspector, conversant with work of the kind, but the gent who came down knew more about the making of roads than docks. (Laughter).

Mr. Beausang—Did the Minister ever hear about Youghal? Does he know it is there at all?

Chairman—He does, it is on the map, (laughter).

Mr. O'Gorman, suggested that they as a Harbour Board, should call on the Department to send down an Inspector officially.

The Clerk, said, that had been done and the Department promised to send down, but it was not done officially, as far as the Board was concerned.

After further considerable discussion it was proposed by Mr. Broderick seconded by Mr. O'Gorman, and passed unanimously that they call on the Department to send an Inspector officially and that they invite the co-operation of their T.D.'s in the matter.

Rate Estimate.

The Clerk submitted his rate estimate for the coming year, showing a total town and water rate of 4s. 4d. as against 3s. 10d. last year—an increase of 6d. in the £.

Mr. McMahon, said, he understood from a report the previous meeting in the Press, that there was to be a reduction of 7d.

The Clerk, said, that a reduction was then anticipated, but, meanwhile there were a number of improvements suggested for the Strand and they had to be provided for. Nobody could foresee what works the Council would undertake during the year and recommendations could not be carried out for nothing.

Mr. McMahon, questioned the constitution of the Committee that had considered the improvements. What had they an improvements Committee for?

The Chairman, complained of the non-attendance of the members of the various Committees. He was a kind of cook, slush and butter on the lot, (laughter). Only one or two turned up sometimes.

After some further discussion, Mr. McMahon, proposed that they adopt the estimate.

Mr. Harrington, seconded.

Fire Escape.

Mr. Beausang objected to the item of £100 for fire hose. That was only relieving the Insurance Companies of their liabilities. They draw a big amount in premiums out of the town, but they never gave anything to help the Council against fire. He didn't object to paying the members of the Fire Brigade.

The Clerk, said, that was most absurd.

Mr. Broderick, said, it would be worse than absurd to have a town like Youghal with a fire brigade without proper equipment. It was not the people who could afford to pay Fire Insurance, whom they aimed to protect, but the hundreds of poor families whose lives and little properties might be at stake. If Mr. Beausang's suggestion were adopted it would only mean more money for the Insurance Companies.

Mr. Beausang, said, he wanted the Fire Brigade to take the people out of the houses, and no more.

Mr. McMahon—Leave the houses burn?

Mr. Beausang—Let them burn. The Insurance Companies were getting up to a million hundreds of pounds out of Youghal.

Mr. Broderick, said, he never knew before that Mr. Beausang, was an insurance agent. (Laughter).

There being no seconder for Mr. Beausang. The estimate was adopted. Mr. Dennehy, said, that the estimate reflected great credit on both the Clerk and the Council. It compared very favourably with other places.

Mr. Whelan, said, that Youghal was not sufficiently advertised. Something should be done by way of coloured posters, like other places in the South. He had seen huge posters in the City boasting the advantages of neighbouring seaside resorts.

Mr. Dennehy, questioned if it was necessary to spend more money advertising Youghal. He remembered more than half a century back, and a visit to Youghal was looked forward to by everybody around. Even "Johnson's Geography" told them that Youghal was a town remarkable for its climate and its Strand. (laughter).

Mr. McMahon—They all know about Youghal.

Mr. Whelan, differed. If they wanted to compete successfully with other resorts, they should do all the advertising they could.

Mr. Broderick, said, that matter would come up in its own proper time.

The Clerk, said that Youghal was well advertised in all guides of repute. It was decided to get quotations for posters.

Dunne's Park.

On the suggestion of Capt. Dunne, it was ordered to get the railings for Dunne's Park already decided on.

Proposed Landing Stage.

Mr. Murphy, pressed the urgent necessity for a landing stage for their ferry boat at Ferry Point. They were all aware of what happened last Friday evening, when the boat was driven ashore. A few more incidents like that and the bottom and keel would be torn out of her.

Mr. McMahon, said they hadn't budgeted for any such project.

The Clerk, said, that some members seemed to expect miracles. He understood that the Waterford people were interested in having a jetty erected there, and would be prepared to bear some of the cost, but they wanted a jetty for vessels. The Council required one for passengers.

Mr. O'Gorman, having described the accident to the boat, said, that only for the valuable work done by the skipper and the engineer, aided by the crew and a salmon yawl, their £800 boat would have suffered great damage. He strongly supported Mr. Murphy's suggestion.

Mr. Broderick, agreed. It seemed a penny wise pound foolish policy to run such a risk with the boat.

Mr. McMahon, said he would insist on notice of motion before anything be done.

The Chairman, said, they made it a Harbour Board charge, it would not interfere with their estimate.

Mr. Broderick—Why should it be a Harbour Board charge? Which body derive a revenue for the ferry—the Harbour Board or the Council?

Capt. Dunne, said the Harbour Board repaired the Ferry slips.

Mr. McMahon, said he wouldn't mind if the Harbour Board did it.

Mr. Murphy, said he meant the cost to be borne by the Harbour Board.

The Chairman, said the thought it could be a legitimate charge on the Harbour Board.

Mr. Fowkes, said they all seemed agreed on the necessity of a jetty. He proposed that they get tenders for the work, in accordance with the Chairman's suggestion on a former occasion. They could adjust the question of cost afterwards.

Mr. Dennehy, said that the proposed jetty was an Urban Council requirement. That being so would it be legal to make the Harbour Board pay for it.

Mr. Broderick said the two bodies were entirely distinct in their meetings and finances. The business of the Harbour Board was finished before the Council began and could not be taken on again.

Ultimately a suggestion was made and approved of generally, that the cost could be refunded in instalments to the Harbour Board.

Mr. Broderick, thereupon seconded Mr. Fowkes's proposition, which was passed unanimously.

Children's Playground.

A letter was read from the Secretary of the Carnegie Trust Fund with reference to the Council's expenditure on local children's playgrounds, stating that there was no doubt that the Council applied for a grant towards the project, would be favourably considered at the next meeting.

Hockey Club Dance.
A letter was received from the Ladies Junior Hockey Club, applying for an extension of their dance hours from 12 o'clock to 1 a.m.
The application was granted unanimously.

A letter was received from the Sec., G. S. Railway Co., regarding the Council's application for a site for a public lavatory on the Strand. He proposed to submit the plans to his Directors for sanction subject to a rent of £1 yearly for the site.

The Clerk, said that acting on the Chairman's instruction he had written accepting the terms.

Mr. Broderick—We thoroughly endorse that action.

Mr. O'Gorman—Would it not be as well to get on with the work by inviting tenders?

The Chairman, said the plan would have to be slightly altered.

The Clerk—You should apply to the Department for sanction for a loan.

This was agreed to.

Mr. Dennehy, said, it would be a great matter to expedite the work.

The Chairman—That will be done.

Mr. Dennehy, said, that Mr. O'Gorman deserved credit for having suggested the new site and congratulated him on its having been obtained. When it was first brought forward he was in grave doubts that they would succeed in securing the plot in question.

Resignation Of Member.

Mr. P. Keneally, wrote, resigning his membership on the Council, as he was unable to devote the necessary time to the business, and enclosing the usual cheque for £1.

Mr. McMahon, proposed, they accept the resignation. He did so at Mr. Keneally's urgent request it being impossible for him to remain on.

Mr. Beausang, seconded.

Mr. Broderick, said it was with very sincere regret he heard of Mr. Keneally's resignation.

Mr. O'Gorman, said, they should not let the occasion pass without paying some little tribute to Mr. Keneally after his 9 years faithful service, (hear, hear). Mr. Keneally, was one of the straightest men he had ever come into contact with. Never courting popularity with any party, he always acted in the best interest of the town according to his own conscience. It was a pity that the vast majority of public men in Ireland were not of the same calibre.

Mr. Dennehy, said, that a few years ago, the field back of the Atlantic Hotel, was a commonage. Now it was the home of villadom, with a terrace of lovely houses—and all the thanks due to Mr. Keneally.

The Chairman, said, speaking from personal knowledge, he could cordially endorse the remarks regarding Mr. Keneally, who, had been always a most useful and practical member of the Council. He had sent in his resignation in a former occasion, but they got him to reconsider it. Now there was no chance of that, and they all regretted it.

The Town Clerk, desired to be associated with the compliment to Mr. Keneally.

Mr. Fowkes, said, that, in proposing to ask Mr. Keneally to reconsider he didn't know that he could not see his way to agree. He very much regretted his departure from the Council.

The proposition was then passed unanimously.

Mr. Dennehy—Would this be an opportune time for dealing with the question of co-opting? (laughter and shouts of no.)

A Gas Fitters Application.

A letter was read from John Daly, ex-Gas Fitter, who had been 36 years in the Council's employment, stating that he was now almost completely blind, and asking the Council to try and get L.G. to reconsider their refusal to sanction a small pension.

Mr. Broderick, said, the Council were anxious to do what they could for the poor man, but was afraid it would be useless.

Mr. Harrington, said, it was a most unfortunate state of things.

The Chairman—If we can do anything for him we ought do it.

The Clerk, read a long correspondence with the L.G.D., showing that he had quoted several similar instances on which sanction had been granted, but all to no avail. They replied it was against law.

Mr. Fowkes, said, the Council and the Clerk, had done all they humanly could. There were laws and laws, but there was also the law of humanity. He proposed that the Clerk write once again and stress the said circumstances of the case.

Mr. McMahon—I don't think it would be any good.

Mr. Fowkes, said, it was worth trying. The people and their representatives were all in favour of doing some little thing for the poor man, after his long years of service.

Mr. Broderick, seconding, suggested that Daly's letter, be forwarded to the motion that it was the unanimous wish of the Council to help the poor man in his dire straits.

The proposition was passed unanimously.

Milk Samples.

The Veterinary Inspector submitted samples of milk, which were all declared satisfactory.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL CORRECTION.

In the report of last meeting of the Youghal Urban Council, the rate for the coming year should be as follows: Town Rate 7s. 2d., as compared with 7s. 4d., last year; County Rate 6s. 4d., as compared with 5s. 10d. An all round increase of 4d.

ATTEMPT TO CUT OFF ELECTRICITY.

While the dance in honour of President Cosgrave was in progress at Playfair Hall, Clonmel recently, a disastrous attempt was made to cut off the electric current to the town...

Fortunately, the attempt failed, as, owing to the extraordinary strength of the current passing through the high-tension wire, it jumps any japs, and connection is again established.

The alarm hooter in the transformer station at Clashiniska, some distance from the town, sounded, and the men on duty there were made aware of the interruption.

The interruption was also detected by Electricity Supply Board engineers at Ardnoerusha through a similar hooter there, and the y communicated at once with the power station at Clonmel, but the matter was already being attended to.

It appears that close on midnight the high-tension line carrying electric current between Cahir and Clonmel was pulled down in a field at Derrygrath, some four miles from Clonmel.

The officials at Clonmel Power Station set to work at once and succeeded in maintaining the supply of current.

Those responsible ran probably in ignorance, a great risk of death or serious injury, for the force of the current was so strong that when the electric wire fell to the ground the earth was torn up for a distance of a hundred yards.

Several cattle were in the field, but the escaped injury. The damage to the line was somewhat considerable.

tion set to work at once and succeeded in maintaining the supply of current. Later, they proceeded to Derry, where they found a wire rope and spanner thrown over the live wire, which was cut and had fallen to the ground.

Those responsible ran probably in ignorance, a great risk of death or serious injury, for the force of the current was so strong that when the electric wire fell to the ground the earth was torn up for a distance of a hundred yards.

Several cattle were in the field, but the escaped injury. The damage to the line was somewhat considerable.

WATERFORD GARDA DIVISIONAL SPORTS.

It is proposed to hold the Garda Divisional Sports in Waterford on August 9th. At the Meeting of the Six Mile Flat Championship of Munster will be decided as will also the Munster Championship for throwing the 56-lbs over the bar.

The Garda Sports Meetings are reckoned the best meetings throughout the whole Country and the forthcoming meeting in Waterford will it is hoped beat all previous records. Judging by the activities of the Committee even at this early stage one can safely say that it will not be their fault if the Sports is not a complete success.

Already some of the renowned Athletes in Ireland have promised their support. The Garda Band from Dublin will be in attendance. Excursions from all centres are being arranged.

Diseases of Animals Committee.

MOUNTAIN RANGER APPOINTED.

At the meeting of the above Committee, Mr. Thomas Flynn, presided. There were also present—Messrs. Jas. Daly, C. J. Curran, D. Heskin, P. R. Power, P. B. Sheridan, M. Curran, P. Fitzgerald, W. Stack, and T. Harty.

What Was In the Jampot? Mr. Thomas Hubbert, Knocknaraney, Ring, wrote—I wish to inform you that I found on my land a small jampot containing some flesh meat. I hope you will be good enough to get the contents of this jampot analysed for the protection of live stock.

Chairman—I don't think that is a matter for us at all. Hubbert—Who had permission to put it there?

Chairman—We cannot watch every farm in the country. Hubert—If we lose our stock who is to be responsible for those things? I lost two gun dogs and a greyhound also.

Chairman (to Inspector Hynes, V.S.)—This is a Jampot of flesh meat found on this man's land. Where do we come in?

Mr. Hynes, then examined the Jampot. Mr. Curran—When was this found on your land? Hubbert—On the 1st May 1928. The matter then ended.

This was accepted. Mr. Greehy, Deerpark, Lismore, tendered for the Lismore area at £1 5s. per day. Accepted.

For Dungarvan and Youghal, areas, John Barry, Old Parish, tendered at £1 5s. a day and N. Doherty, also tendered at £1 5s. a day.

Doherty's tender was accepted. Sheep Dip. For the supply of Dip required for the Summer and Autumn Dipping of Sheep tenders were received from Mr. Burke, Cork, Cowper, McDougal, and Robinson, R. John and Co., Glasgow; and J. J. Crotty, Square Dungarvan.

Mr. Crotty's tender was for Liquid Nicobrand Dip, of the same quality as supplied last year.

Having considered the prices the Committee found that Mr. Crotty's tender was the lowest and his tender was accepted. Mr. Hynes, V.S., highly approved of Nicobrand Liquid Dip.

Mr. C. J. Curran—That being so we should accept the lowest tender. That was done.

Mountain Ranger. For the position of Mountain Ranger, for the Comeragh mountains area, the following applications were received.

J. P. Morrissey, Kilmorien—£12 for the season. Patrick Hickey, Bhdoodan, at £11 9s. Wm. Fraher, Kilmorien, £8. James Kiely, Kilmorien, £7 19s. 6d.

Mr. Curran—A big drop from £20. Mr. C. J. Curran—A big drop from £45, which we were paying a few years ago.

Kiely's tender was accepted and now he can roam the mountains in freedom to check the Sheep population.

Lismore Vacancy. The County Council forwarded to the Committee a letter from the Department of Local Government re the vacancy for V.S., in Lismore area, asking that the remuneration be fixed for the position and the Appointments Commissioners asked to fill the vacancy.

Mr. C. J. Curran—What was the salary of the late Mr. Creagh? Secretary—£167 10s. of which three-fourths was paid by the County Council, and one-fourth by the Board of Health.

Mr. Curran—We should fix the salary on the same basis. In reply to a question the Secretary said, Mr. Hynes was doing duty until a permanent appointment was made.

On the suggestion of the Chairman the matter was referred back to the County Council with a recommendation to fix the salary at the same rate as heretofore paid, viz. £167 10s.

Knockmealdown Sheep. Mr. Hynes gave details of a recent outbreak of scab among sheep in the Knockmealdown Mountains, which had been attended by him. He suggested the appointment of a ranger for that area and that the sheep be dipped under supervision. He would suggest a charge of 1d. per sheep at a central tank there and have the sheep dipped once in the Summer and twice in the Autumn.

Chairman—Can you compel them all to go to the Tank? Mr. Hynes—I think you could. Mr. J. C. Curran—The difficulty in the past was that the Co. Tipperary sheep, came in amongst theirs and was great difficulty in stamping out disease in the area.

Chairman—I would suggest that we leave it in the hands of Mr. Hynes to try and come to an arrangement in the matter. Can we apply compulsory powers?

Mr. Hynes—My suggestion would be to bring them all to one tank which is at a central part of the mountain.

Mr. C. J. Curran—Can anyone trace the boundary between Tipperary and Waterford at the place? The question was left to Mr. Hynes who will report to next meeting.

Kilmacthomas News.

PRESENTATION TO MR. CONSIDINE.

A pleasant function took place at Kilmacthomas on the 23rd, ult., when the members of the local Rugby Football Club assembled to make a presentation to Mr. J. G. Considine, Provincial Bank, on the occasion of his departure on transfer to Cork. The proceedings were opened by Mr. Percy Kirwan, who occupied the chair. Mr. Kirwan, said, they were assembled there that night for the purpose of paying a tribute to Mr. Considine, and to present him with a small token to show the very great esteem in which he was held by them. Having spoken in glowing terms of Mr. Considine's powers on the playing pitch, Mr. Kirwan went on: "Conse, as we affectionately call our friend, is a true sportsman to his fingertips; he plays the game as it should be played both off the field as on-it, and because of this pleasing fact he carries the united good wishes of the Club so much, (loud applause). Proceeding the Chair man said: "As Captain of our team for the past three years, the harmony and good working which our friend promoted amongst the unit resulted in bringing Kilmacthomas to the front as a most formidable Fifteen." (renewed applause).

The Chairman then made the presentation, and in doing so asked Mr. Considine to accept it as a small memento of the good wishes of the Club, and hoping that he would enjoy many happy years in Cork. The presentation took the form of a gold wristlet watch, suitably inscribed. Mr. Considine, replied in feeling terms, and assured them that it needed no presentation from them to let him know that he had their good wishes. He was very sorry to be leaving them but the parting could not be avoided, and he would take away with him very pleasant recollections of the Kilmacthomas Club. He always found them to be gentlemen of honour, who, both individually and collectively, were sportsmen of the first water—big-hearted, clean, Catholic-minded men, whom it was a pleasure to know and to associate with. Years before he came to Kilmacthomas he had learned to know the town principally because of athletic feats of its worthy citizen, the world-famed Percy Kirwan, (applause). If he wanted any reminder the gift he had just received from them would certainly remind him of the happy days he spent in Kilmacthomas. If there was one fly in the amber of his transfer it was that he had to sever his connection with the "Green and Whites," and he sincerely wished the Club the best of luck and success in the future. While he had spent close on four years in Kilmacthomas, he was satisfied to remain there, and, like the Spaniards of old, he would become more Kilmacthomas than the Kilmacthomas people themselves. (Loud applause).

Mr. Robert Aherne, said, it would ill befit the "Green and Whites" to let their able Captain, whom they all honoured, pass unnoticed from their midst. Shakespeare in his play of "Romeo and Juliet" had said "Parting is such sweet sadness," but what was the parting of two lovers on a moonlit balcony who expected to meet one another in a few hours. They had no such hope in parting from their friend; therefore there was no sweetness, but much of sadness in their farewell. Particularly sad is it to those who have been his intimate friends since Mr. Considine's advent to Kilmacthomas. All who have known him longest and best know him as an upright, Christian man, unimpeachable in honour, of strict integrity of character, and fearless in all he considers duty, a loyal friend, and an interesting and witty companion. "Cork will not cause 'Conse' to forget Kilmacthomas," continued Mr. Aherne, "Tom Moore says—

You may break, you may ruin the vase if you will, But the scent of the roses will hang round it still,

"So will the memory of Kilmacthomas, wherein his friends are legion, always have the warmest and largest share in his loyal heart." (Applause).

Mr. Willie Power also spoke of Mr. Considine in terms of appreciation, and closed with wishing their friend health, happiness, and many years to enjoy them.

Messrs. Thomas Kennedy, Cornelius O'Connor, Willie Wall and Nicholas Flahavan, also spoke eulogistically of Mr. Considine's activities in local social and sporting circles.

The large party in attendance then developed into a pleasant smoking concert, at which several popular vocal numbers were contributed. The proceedings were brought to a close by the singing of "He is a Jolly Good Fellow."
