DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

The weekly meeting of the above was held in the Town Hall on Friday last.

Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presided, and the other members present were: Messrs. J. F. Moloney, M. J. Keane, Jas. Hackett, T. McCarthy, B. Dee, W. O'Donnell, and C. Lavin.

Expenditure.
The following pay sheets were submitted and passed: General A/c. £8 18s. 8d. Relief Grant A/c. (various schemes) £44 14s. 1d.

New Range.
The quotation for a new No. 8 Stanley Range, at £6 18s. from the Repls. of Mee, Flynn, Main St., was accepted. Miss Annie, Wall, Park Terrace was appointed caretaker, of the Ladies Bathing Place. The Clerk was directed to re-advertise for a caretaker for the Park and Men's Bathing Place for which only one tender at 15s. a week was received from Ml. Duggan.

Emmet St. Footpath.
A letter was read from Mr. Thos. Kelly, calling the Council's attention to the condition of the footpath opposite his premises.

Consideration of the letter was adjourned for discussion at next meeting.
No Water.
A letter read from Mr. Daniel Crotty, 10 Main St., called attention to the fact that the water supply to his premises had failed completely.

The matter was referred to the Water Inspector to deal with.
Bad Roof.
Mr. M. Mahony, wrote complaining of the bad condition of the roof of the shambles under which he was working in connection with the Abbeyside Housing Scheme.

The Council directed the B.S. to have the roof repaired.
Sympathy.
A vote of sympathy was passed to the relatives of the late Maurice Gamblon, who died in America, and to Mrs. McEvoy, Abbeyside, on the death of her sister.

THE DERBY SWEEP.

GO. WATERFORD DRAWS TWO HORSES.

DUNGARVAN'S LUCK.

The Draw for the Derby Sweep took place on Saturday in Dublin. The total amount subscribed was £2,789,696 and the amount of prize fund £1,900,544. The Hospitals' share would be £697,424. Nineteen tickets were allocated to each horse drawn value £30,000 to each of the nineteen ticket holders. The second to be worth £15,000 and the third £10,000. Holders of tickets on the other horses will receive £833 6s. 8d. each and cash prizes of £100 each were drawn to the number of 3,800.

44 Irish ticket holders were amongst those who drew horses on Saturday. The majority of the prizes went to England, Scotland and Wales, while America (North and South), India, China, Japan, West Indies and everywhere under the sun also drew prizes.

The Co. Waterford drew two horses, Mr. Michael Morrissey (Morrissey Bros.), Main St., and his brother-in-law, Mr. P. O'Gorman, son of Mr. J. O'Gorman, Mary St., drew Elixir. The non-de-plume on the ticket was "Puff-Puff." Elixir was a non-starter and the holders of the ticket are entitled to £833 6s. 8d. Mr. James Phelan, Island Keane, Fenor, Tramore, drew Kiatere, and as he did not win the Derby Mr. Phelan, will get £833 6s. 8d. "Dawn Patrol" Percy Terrace, Waterford, also drew Kiatere.

£100 PRIZES: LOCAL WINNERS.

On Monday and Tuesday the Draw for £3,800 Consolation Prizes of £100 each was held and Dungarvan and Co. Waterford were also in luck. Miss Margaret Casey, Springmount, Dungarvan, the popular County Tuberculosis Nurse, drew a ticket; as did also R. J. C. Ross, Kilmeehan, and P. J. Condon, Kilmacow, Tallow. A Consolation Prize of £100 was also drawn by a ticket held by Mr. John Norris, Englishtown, Stradbally, and Mr. Ml. Walsh, Coolnahoon, brother of Mr. James Walsh, Durrow, who drew a horse in the Grand National Sweep, and won £1,250. Mr. Norris who is a well-known contractor and builder, was carrying out work at Waterford recently and it was in the city he and Mr. Walsh purchased the lucky ticket.

We heartily congratulate all the lucky winners and hope that in the next Sweep on the November Handicap, all who have been unlucky so far will win fortunes.

Youghal District Court.

(Before Mr. J. S. Troy, D.J.)

Overholding.
Miss Bridget Walsh, summoned Bridget and Ellen Fleming, for overholding a caretakers house at Burgess. Mr. Wm. Hodnett, Solr., for plaintiff.

Plaintiff having giving formal evidence.
One of the defendants appeared and said they had been in the place seven years. They had cared the cattle and minded the place. If Miss Walsh had a man she should pay him wages.

The Justice—That is another days work. A solicitor will tell you what to do.
A decree for possession was granted. Unlicensed Dog.

Guard P. O'Connor, charged Patk. Whelan, Kilmagned, with having an unlicensed dog.
Mr. J. R. N. Macnamara, Solr., for defendant said his client bought the animal on 20th March, and it had afterwards been injured by a motor car. He didn't want to pay for perhaps, a dead dog. The license had been taken out since.

The case was withdrawn.
Overlength Nets.

Mr. T. Drohan, Inspector of Fisheries, Mallow, charged R. Graddy, P. Bowler, W. Nunn, and W. Courcay, with using a net overlength.

Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., for complainant; and Mr. Macnamara, for defendants.
Mr. Keane said the prosecution was brought under a bye-law fixing the maximum length at 200 yards. The defendants were found using a net over 300 yards.

D. Ellis, Water bailiff, said they found defendants fishing in the Bay with a net, which measured 322 yards.
Cross-examined by Mr. Macnamara, witness said the men gave him every assistance. They were fishing at the mouth of the Harbour, close to the shore at Claycastle.

The Justice—What is the objection to the extra length?
Mr. Keane—The number of boats engaged in the fishing could not get on with such a length.

Mr. Macnamara pleaded guilty on behalf of his clients. They were inexperienced. They had been out of employment and they got the boat and gear from the British Legion Scheme. The equipment cost £39, and the men were still in debt to the Legion. If the nets were forfeited they would be unemployed and have no means of paying off their debt.

The Justice—If I convict, the net must be forfeited.
Mr. Keane said if the men sent a memorial forward for mitigation of the penalty it would receive support.

The Justice—Was this net supplied by the Ex-Servicemen's Association?
Mr. Macnamara said the men added old nets to the one they got to save it from the rocks, (laughter).

The Justice said the penalty was a fixed one—a fine of £5 each. The nets to be forfeited.

DEATH OF MR. T. MCCARTHY EMMET ST., DUNGARVAN.

The death of Mr. Thomas McCarthy, Emmet St., on Friday last, removed from our midst a gentleman, who was a well-known and familiar figure. He had reached a ripe age and passed peacefully away fortified by the rites of Holy Church.

The late Mr. McCarthy, was of powerful build and commanding appearance. He stood six feet three inches in height. He served a number of years in the R.I.C., and retired many years ago with the rank of sergeant.

Settling down in Dungarvan he ran the Eagle Hotel for a number of years with conspicuous success retiring from business a few years ago. A splendid type of man, broadminded, upright and honourable, his death is deeply regretted by all who knew him and sincere sympathy is extended to his wife and daughter in their bereavement.—R.I.P.

On Saturday evening the remains were removed to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, and on Sunday, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. There was a large attendance of the general public present.

THE DERBY.

Twenty-five colls started for the great Derby Race, on Wednesday. Cameronian won by a neck from Orpen, with Sandwich third; Goyescas fourth and Gallini fifth.

The starting prices were: Cameronian 3 to 1; Orphen 9 to 1; Sandwich 8 to 1. As a result of the Sweep, Mr. Pope, Clerk, in the Munster and Leinster Bank, Bandon, who drew Cameronian gets £30,000, and Miss Nolan, Ballon, Co. Carlow, who also drew the winner gets £30,000. Miss Nolan sold three parts of her ticket for £6,000. Four residents of Kilgarvan, Co. Kerry drew Orphen, and now get £15,000. No person in Ireland drew a ticket for Sandwich the third horse.

Kilmacthomas News.

REVERED CLERGYMAN'S GOLDEN JUBILEE.

We are informed that the deservedly popular Pastor of the united Parish of Stradbally, Fahs and Ballylaneen—Very Rev. John Lennon, P.P.—will celebrate his Golden Jubilee in the priesthood on June 19th next. Father Lennon, who was born at Glen House, Lisnageragh, Bonhamon, is a sterling Irishman and a great priest. He has an intense gradh for his parishioners, by each and all of whom his many estimable qualities of head and heart are fully recognised and appreciated.

DUNHILL CRUELTY CHARGE.

At the suit of Guard John Byrne, Waterford, James Power, farmer, Dunhill, was, at the city Court on the 22nd, inst., fined 6s. for cruelty to a cow, his property. The cruelty alleged was that the beast was tied by the left horn and left foreleg. The rope with which it was held caused several breaks in the skin of the leg. Defendant said he did not know of the breaks in the skin. His Worship said a lot of these cases arose from ignorance rather than from deliberate cruelty; but, from the animal's point of view the effect was the same.

A CARRIER PIGEON'S END.

A ring which Mr. Richard Crowle, found on one of the legs of a carrier pigeon he picked up on the cliffs adjacent to his home at Stradbally after having witnessed it being brought down in flight and killed by what he believes was a peregrine falcon—a rare visitor to these parts—bore the following inscription:—"W.G.S. 1930." young news writer is now in possession of the ring.

PRICES.

Prices obtaining here this week: meal, 15s 6d.; flour, 13s 6d.; bran, 10s.; pollard, 9s.; presto, 8s.; butter, (fresh) 10d. per lb., and eggs 7 1/2d. per dozen.

R.I.P.

We regret to record the death of Mr. Denis Donnelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donnelly, of Kildarmody level-crossing, which sad event occurred last week after a brief illness, and at the very early age of 32 years. The large concourse of people which followed the remains to Newtown Parish cemetery on the 27th ult., testified to the high esteem entertained for the deceased and his family. Very Rev. John O'Donnell, P.P., Newtown, officiated at the graveside.

PROTECTION OF GAME.

We are assured that a representative and influential association for the protection of game in the Kilmacthomas rural district is now in the course of formation, and that the leading landowners throughout the whole parishes have already signified their willingness to act. With game protected for a period in the area, a plentiful supply will be available for all true sportsmen in due course. In a later number we will be able to furnish fuller particulars on the matter.

BY THE WAY.

The par (published in the Local Happenings' column of our previous number) stating that Messrs. James Deane and Patrick Foley, (who were injured near here returning from Traamore races to Dungarvan on Whit-Monday) were both on the high road to complete recovery—was perused with much pleasure by their numerous friends and well-wishers hereabouts.

SYMPATHY.

For the widow and sons of the late Mr. John Condon, Seafeld, Bonhamon the deep sympathy of their many friends is felt in the sad loss they have just sustained. The late Mr. Condon, who was laid to rest in Ballylaneen graveyard last week, was a general favourite with all throughout his long and useful career. May he rest in peace.

ANOTHER DEATH.

On the 29th, ult., Mr. Joseph Murphy, son of Mr. and of the late Mrs. Murphy, Bonhamon, was called to his eternal home, after a protracted illness and in his 47th year. The remains were removed to St. Anne's Church, Ballylaneen, on last Saturday evening, the funeral on the occasion being extremely large and representative. On Sunday all that was mortal of the deceased was reverently consigned to its natal dust amid many manifestations of sincere sorrow. The Rev. T. O'Shea, C.C., Ballylaneen, officiated at the graveside.—R.I.P.

QUARANT ORE AT BALLYLANEEN.

The Forty Hours' Adoration, which commenced in St. Anne's Church, Ballylaneen, with the celebration of Holy Mass by Rev. Fr. O'Shea, C.C., at 10 o'clock, a.m., on the 29th ult., were brought to an impressive close with a procession in honour of the Sacred Host, followed by the imparting of ## Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament by Fr. O'Shea, after the late Mass on Sunday.

The altar was beautifully decorated with choice sprays of variegated flowers and evergreens for the august function, by the energetic and efficient sacristian, Mr. Patrick Galvin. Large numbers of school children took part in the procession, all wearing distinctive sashes, cloaks, etc., whilst the members of the various Societies of the Children of Mary and the Men's and Women's Guilds of the Sacred Heart Confraternity formed a very edifying spectacle. The Church choir contributed a special programme of appropriate hymns. Mrs. Thomas McCarthy, very ably presided at the harmonium. There was an enormous congregation in the Church.

FROM CURRAGHMORE BY CARAVAN.

The Marquis of Waterford has a great gradh for open-air life. Last Summer he went on a walking tour through the South and West of Ireland. This Summer, accompanied by Lady Waterford—who shares his Lordship's devotion to the freedom of the open-road—he will start in a horse-drawn caravan for a tour in the Province of Connaught. The caravan, in which they intend to travel, is being built in the old factor's mill. It will be 10 feet high, 14 feet long, four-wheeled structure, painted in green, and will be drawn by two horses. To facilitate the driving in inclement weather the front opening will be divided from the inside. It will be completed and the commodious and cleverly arranged interior decorated by the end of next week, when it is anticipated the tour will begin.

On the 22nd, ult., the Marquis and Marchioness returned to Curraghmore immediately after Lady Waterford had been presented at Court on the Wednesday previous.

AN OLD CATHOLIC FAMILY.

Mr. Richard Girouard (husband of Lady Blanche Beresford—Lord Waterford's sister) belongs to an old Catholic family who, though long settled in England never lost the true Faith, and through all the years when Catholics were a small minority, and it was not fashionable, especially for a noble family to be Catholic in that country, kept the light of Faith burning through every vicissitude.

Mr. Girouard's father was a great engineer, who made British history in the Sudan more than forty years ago. The family name will be forever linked with the stirring events in Egypt when the late Lord Kitchener was Sirdar. In his book, "With Kitchener at Khartoum," George W. Stephens, a brilliant war correspondent of the late Victorian era, tells a graphic story of the transport difficulties which beset the British Army in the early Egyptian campaign over the great sand desert, where a steam engine was never before seen, and its approach had for the natives something of the terror of the mythical headless coach. Here was brought to light the ingenuity of a young Canadian engineer, Mr. Stephens says: "In the engine shed you see rusty embryos of engines that are being tinkered together with bits of rubbish collected from everywhere, and still they move. Who runs them? It is part of the Sirdar's luck—that luck which goes with genius—that he always gets the best conceivable subordinates. Conceive a blend of French audacity of imagination, American ingenuity, and British doggedness in execution, and you will have the ideal qualities for such a work. The Director of Railways, Bimbashi Girouard is a Canadian, presumably of French derivation. In early life he built a section of the Canadian Pacific. He came out to Egypt for the Dongola campaign—one of three subalterns specially chosen from the Railway Department of the Royal Engineers. The Sudan killed the other two out of hand, but Bimbashi Girouard goes on building and running his railways. The Dongola line runs as far as Kerma, above the third Cataract. The Desert Line must wait at the Ahara for a bridge before it can be extended to Khartoum. But already here is something over five miles of rail laid in a savage desert—a record to make the reputation of any engineer in the world—standing to the credit of subaltern of sappers. The Egyptian army is a triumph of youth on every side, but in none is it more signal than in the case of the Director of Railways. He never loses his head nor forgets his own mind; he is credited with being the one man in the Egyptian army who is unafraid of the Sirdar. Having finished the S.M.R. to Athara, Bimbashi Girouard accepted the post of Director General of all the Egyptian railways. There will be plenty of scope for him in the post, and it will not be wasted. But, just reflect again on this crowning wonder of British Egypt—a subaltern with all but Cabinet rank and £2,000 a year."

KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING.

Owing to the recent death of his wife, Mr. J. Cliffe, has retired from the Coal business which he had been carrying on in Mr. M. F. Walsh's yard in Pound Lane, but we are glad to know that the coal-yard will not be closed down in consequence, as Mr. Watson and Mr. W. J. McCarthy, two respected and enterprising town traders, have now acquired the business and have laid in splendid stocks of only the best quality coals which they are selling at the lowest competitive prices consistent with quality.

NO COURT LAST WEEK.

Owing to the absence on holidays of Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L. D.J., there was no District Court held here last week, as had been announced by Mr. Farrell at the April Court.

We understand that there would have been only very little business to be transacted in any event, as owing to the peaceful and law-abiding character of the people of Cappoquin and district the number of cases at the local Court has been growing beautifully less for some considerable time past.

YOUGHAL HORSE FAIR.

This fair on Monday last, was not too well attended, but buyers were plenty and promising young horses sold well. Mr. W. Murphy, Waterford bought a number of troopers at good prices, as also a chestnut 5 year-old filly by Roken, from Mr. Richard Fitzgerald, Kilmaloo, for £70.

Anne's Church, Ballylaneen, at 10.30 a.m., on Tuesday. Rev. T. O'Shea, C.C., Ballylaneen, was celebrant of the Mass. Rev. J. Hart, C.C., Fews, deacon and Rev. M. Dowley, C.C., Kill, sub-deacon. In the choir were:—Very Rev. John Lennon, P.P., Stradbally; Very Rev. Canon Wall, P.P., Clonea-Rathgormack; Very Rev. John O'Donnell, P.P., Newtown; Very Rev. W. J. Kehoe, P.P., Kilmacrossan; and Rev. Wm. O'Mahony, C.C., Kilmacthomas.

A large number of relatives and friends of the deceased clergyman present in the Church included Mr. Jerh. Foley, Ballymahonogue, (brother); and Mrs. Pat Morrissey, Square, Kilmacthomas, (sister).

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

DEATH OF MRS. KATE CONWAY, CANADA.

Last week-end Mr. J. V. Conway, "Morrissey's Hotel," Cappoquin, received the sad news of the death of his mother, Mrs. Kate Conway, which occurred recently in Lucky Strike, Alberta, Canada. The deceased lady was a native of Ballintaylor, and was relict of the late Mr. James Conway, who died in Alberta, about three years ago. The late Mr. and Mrs. Conway, were respected farmers in Ballintaylor for many years, but emigrated with their family to Canada in 1910, where their son, Mr. J. V. Conway, spent a long period with them until he returned to Ireland about 10 years ago and purchased "Morrissey's Hotel."

Brothers and a sister of Mr. J. V. Conway, are still engaged in farming in Alberta, and to those as well as to Mr. Conway, Cappoquin, sincere sympathy will now be extended in their sad bereavement.

After Solemn Requiem High Mass and Office for the repose of deceased's soul the interment took place in Allerston Cemetery, Alberta. Very Rev. Father Murphy, P.P., Lethbridge, officiating at the graveside.

The chief mourners were:—James, William, and Michael Conway, (sons); Miss Mary Conway, (daughter); Mrs. W. Conway and Mrs. M. Conway, (daughters-in-law); etc., while there was a large attendance of the farming community from Lucky Strike and the adjoining districts present at the funeral to show a fitting mark of respect to the memory of the deceased lady, who was so popular with all.

CONSECRATION OF CHILDREN OF MARY.

On last Sunday afternoon the pretty Chapel of the Sisters of Mary Convent, Shanbally, Cappoquin, was the scene of an impressive and interesting religious ceremony when eight young ladies from the town and district were consecrated as members of the Sodality of the Children of Mary.

The young ladies who were consecrated were the Misses Josephine Lineen, Cappoquin; Margaret Foley, do.; Kitty Ahearne, do.; Mary Ahearne, do.; Josephine Morrissey, do.; Nellie O'Shea, do.; Mary O'Keeffe, do.; and Bridie Moore, Bawnfaun.

There was a large attendance of the members of the Sodality of the Children of Mary, while the parents, relatives and friends of the young ladies also attended.

The ceremony was performed by the Very Rev. D. Canon Whelan, D.D., P.P., Cappoquin.

"KEEP THE HOME FIRES BURNING."

Owing to the recent death of his wife, Mr. J. Cliffe, has retired from the Coal business which he had been carrying on in Mr. M. F. Walsh's yard in Pound Lane, but we are glad to know that the coal-yard will not be closed down in consequence, as Mr. Watson and Mr. W. J. ### NO COURT LAST WEEK.

Owing to the absence on holidays of Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L. D.J., there was no District Court held here last week, as had been announced by Mr. Farrell at the April Court.

YOUGHAL HORSE FAIR.

A large number of relatives and friends of the deceased clergyman present in the Church included Mr. Jerh. Foley, Ballymahonogue, (brother); and Mrs. Pat Morrissey, Square, Kilmacthomas, (sister).

Youghal Urban Council.

Present Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Chairman, Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. D. Dennehy, T. Muffhy, E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman; T. Beausang, T. J. Linehan, P. J. McMahon, P.C., T. Harrington, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., A. J. Powkes.

Urban Farmers.
Mr. Dennehy called attention to the hardships on the farmers within the Urban District not getting the benefit of recent legislation. It was most unfair he thought, to exclude them.

The Chairman said there was no reason, that he could see, why they should not be included in the scheme.

Mr. McMahon said the Council would be only too glad if the farmers rated within the Urban should get the benefit.

The Clerk said he knew of farmers in the district who had to pay town and water rates, and had to go a mile for water.

It was unanimously decided to call on their T.D.s, to press the claim of the farmers concerned.

Childrens Playgrounds.

A letter was read from the Carnegie United Kingdom Trust stating that the Trustees at their recent meeting decided to offer a grant of £100 towards the cost of play apparatus for young childrens playground. A detailed list of the equipment which it was proposed to acquire must be submitted and the Grant would be payable on receipt of a certified statement that the full amount of the Trust Grant had actually been expended upon equipment.

The promise was made on the understanding that the levelling, surfacing, and fencing and the erection of a pavilion etc., at a total cost of £250 had already been carried out and paid by the Council.

The Clerk—Where would the things be put up?
The Chairman—In the Green Park. Capt. Dunne—No—But, in Dunnes Park, for the workmen's children.

Mr. Lynch said Green Park was mentioned too. They had workmen's children in the South Ward as well as the North.

Capt. Dunne said he would be only too glad if they got another £100 for the Green Park.

Mr. Lynch said they were entitled to their share for the Green Park. Where was the real playground for the kids?

The Chairman—The Green Park. Mr. O'Gorman said the money should go fifty-fifty. The Green Park was an ideal place for a playground.

The Clerk read a letter from the Local G.A.A., stating their petition as regards Dunnes Park, as it might appear to some that the Council were giving them a splendid new playground. In fact, some members of the Hurling teams who were engaged in the Christian Brothers' Tournament last Sunday asked them to show them their new grounds, Dunnes Park. They knew that some members of the U.D.C. were anxious to help the G.A.A. and also that these might think they were doing so by enclosing the place. The G.A.A. had no interest in Dunnes Park, or never had. They never identified themselves officially with the project and believed that it was a most dangerous place to play in. If the Council were serious about helping the G.A.A., let them drop the Dunnes Park project and spend the money in paying off the debt on the official G.A.A. Field at Coppersally. They were having some good matches played there that season (some inter-county) and the field would want to be improved. The business people of the town benefited by those matches, but never give any encouragement to the promoters who were carrying on the games at a loss. That was not intended to be a begging letter, it was only to let the Council know what they could do to help the G.A.A. if they really meant to do so.

Captain Dunne said the place was not intended for Gaelic Sports—it was a children's playground and where the old people could sit down and enjoy the open air.

Mr. O'Gorman said he would not be averse to any project for the public benefit, but after that letter and the public criticisms he had heard all round, he thought it ridiculous to expend £25 in erecting a railing at Dunnes Park, and they ought go no further with it.

Capt. Dunne said the railings would do no harm to any interest. The £33 for the railings was included in the estimate and passed. The opposition was all a bit of jealousy. What he wanted was a place for the poor children to play in and keep them out of the way of motors.

Mr. O'Gorman said before putting up a railing at Dunnes Park, they ought do something to improve the surface, which was not fit for playing on.

Mr. Harrington said, the matter was duly passed. What was the use discussing it?

The Chairman—Yes, it is a waste of time.

After some further discussion the matter dropped.

The New System of Grassland Management.

INTERESTING DEMONSTRATION AT MOUNT MELLERAY.

On Friday, 20th, ult., a most interesting demonstration of the new system of grassland management was held on the farm attached to the Agricultural College, Mount Mellera...

Amongst those present were—Commander O'Connor Portlaw, M. O'Brien Bewley, M. McGrath, Clashmore; E. Mansfield, Orange; P. Kelly, Comogon House, Knocklong; P. Kenneally, Figlash, Carrick-on-Suir; M. Ryan, Knockboy; K. Williams, Farranfore, J. Moloney, Beauravilla, Skibbereen; J. J. Hooley, P.C., Springfield, Cove; C. O'Donovan, Iniscara, T. McCarthy, Farnamagh, Bantry; George Heskin, Aglish, Glencairn; J. O'Keefe, Tallow, etc.

The Rev. Brother Carthage Heskin, O. Cist., Mellera, who is in charge of the farm of the Agricultural College, was also present and rendered able and valuable assistance to Mr. O'Reilly both during the demonstration and lecture, and 18 of the students of the Agricultural College, who are now studying for a Matriculation examination, also attended and evinced a keen and intelligent interest in the proceedings from start to finish.

The main essentials of the new system of grassland management, or rotational and intensive grazing, are the division of a pasture field into six equal plots and the usual dressing of phosphates and potash, followed by heavy stocking of the various plots in rotation from four to six days each and the top-dressing of the various plots three or four times with Nitrogen as a reliable fertiliser.

As each plot becomes vacant in turn, the droppings of the cattle are evenly spread over the land with a chain or other harrow and a further dressing of phosphates and potash applied, and in this way when the first bunch of cattle are finished with the sixth plot they are returned to No. 1 plot where there is a fine crop of fresh new pasture so that the cattle have young fresh grass to graze on from April to October each year, instead of from May to September, as is usually the case under the old system, thus saving the heavy cost of buying foodstuffs for the cattle during the months of April and October.

In the course of the inspection of the experimental plots on this occasion, the Rev. Brother Carthage mentioned that he had cut a meadow off one of the plots last year and still had more than sufficient grass left in the remaining five for all the cattle, which was a striking proof of the great advantages of the new system.

At the close of the inspection of the plots, a most interesting lecture was delivered in the spacious and well-lit Dairy of the Agricultural College by Mr. O'Reilly, who described in minute detail the manner of working the new system of grassland management and also the varieties and quantities of fertilizers to be used for the purpose.

He said that some farmers may be afraid the cost of fencing and watering the various plots on the same lines as had been carried out at Mount Mellera, and said that many farmers had a number of small fields which could be easily treated in the same way and where rotational grazing could be carried on without the expense of erecting any paling to divide them.

A large passage could easily be constructed from the various fields leading to their water supply, so that the cattle from the different fields could have an easy way of reaching the water and in this way the cost of erecting special water tanks, as they had in Mount Mellera, could be easily saved.

Dealing with the objection of some farmers to the heavy cost of purchasing various kinds of fertilizers, Mr. O'Reilly stated that Imperial Chemical Industries, Ltd., had this year put on the market two kinds of concentrated fertilizers, one of which, the Complete Fertilizer, contains a careful mixture of Nitrogen, Phosphates and Potash, while the other brand, known as N.P. Fertilizer, contained Nitrogen and Phosphates only, so that it was now an easy matter for farmers to purchase whichever kind was most suitable or essential for their land.

These Concentrated Fertilizers, he explained, contain approximately double the amount of plant food usually obtained in mixtures, thus effecting most important savings to the user in carting, handling and spreading.

labour in harrowing and spreading of manures, etc., 8s. per acre, making in all a total cost of £14 16s. per acre for applying the new system.

The returns per acre were 417 gallons of milk at 7d. per gallon—£42 3s. 3d., the increase in live weight beef, 7cwt., or a 1/4 cwt. per acre—£1 per acre—and the grazing of dry stock, valued at £1 5s. per acre, making a total of £14 8s. 3d.

Against this there was the cost of the system, £4 16s. together with the cost of concentrated food consumed during the period, £2 12s. 6d., or a total per acre of £7 8s. 6d. The difference between those two totals was £6 19s. 6d. for labour, rent and profit, as against £1 17s. 9d. per acre for the previous year. There was thus a sufficient profit in the first year's working of the new system to wipe off the entire cost of the fencing and watering and to still leave the owners in a far better position than they were at the end of the grazing season in 1926.

Nathwithstanding the heavy rain and the generally adverse weather conditions so far this season, the experimental plots at Mount Mellera looked remarkably well and flourishing on the occasion of this year's demonstration, and one of the plots was carrying no less than 29 heavy milk cows, in addition to some horses each night, and the Rev. Brother Carthage informed those present that this large number of animals had been continually grazing on the plots since April, 9th this year, which was a much earlier date than would have been possible under the old system of grazing.

The splendid condition of the milk cows, all fat and healthy-looking animals, proved clearly that they are certainly thriving on the fresh pasturage provided by the new system, and the general condition both of the plots and the cattle reflected much credit on the careful manner in which they are being attended to by the Rev. Brother Carthage, who is himself a practical farmer of wide and long experience, and also by the students of the Agricultural College under his wise and able tuition. This up-to-date College, which is an offshoot of the famous Mount Mellera Seminary, now provided a golden opportunity for the sons of farmers to acquire a sound and intelligent education in all agricultural subjects, and we were very glad to learn that there is such a large roll of students there at present.

Speaking on this important phase of the educational activities of Mount Mellera at the "Glean Day" ceremony last year the Lord Abbot said—"With regard to agriculture, this science has been in existence in the school for some years, and it was becoming a favourite subject with those intending to live on the land. They had a fine opportunity of those students devoting their time to acquiring a knowledge of agriculture on scientific lines. In the agricultural department the system of intensive pasture was giving real satisfaction. They had been doing it for the past three years, and it was making progress every year, with their pastures becoming greatly improved."

Interesting experiments were carried out, and instruction was being given in the most efficient and economic methods of stock-raising and crop-production.

In the course of the inspection of the experimental plots on this occasion, the Rev. Brother Carthage mentioned that he had cut a meadow off one of the plots last year and still had more than sufficient grass left in the remaining five for all the cattle, which was a striking proof of the great advantages of the new system.

At the close of the inspection of the plots, a most interesting lecture was delivered in the spacious and well-lit Dairy of the Agricultural College by Mr. O'Reilly, who described in minute detail the manner of working the new system of grassland management and also the varieties and quantities of fertilizers to be used for the purpose.

He said that some farmers may be afraid the cost of fencing and watering the various plots on the same lines as had been carried out at Mount Mellera, and said that many farmers had a number of small fields which could be easily treated in the same way and where rotational grazing could be carried on without the expense of erecting any paling to divide them.

A large passage could easily be constructed from the various fields leading to their water supply, so that the cattle from the different fields could have an easy way of reaching the water and in this way the cost of erecting special water tanks, as they had in Mount Mellera, could be easily saved.

Dealing with the objection of some farmers to the heavy cost of purchasing various kinds of fertilizers, Mr. O'Reilly stated that Imperial Chemical Industries, Ltd., had this year put on the market two kinds of concentrated fertilizers, one of which, the Complete Fertilizer, contains a careful mixture of Nitrogen, Phosphates and Potash, while the other brand, known as N.P. Fertilizer, contained Nitrogen and Phosphates only, so that it was now an easy matter for farmers to purchase whichever kind was most suitable or essential for their land.

These Concentrated Fertilizers, he explained, contain approximately double the amount of plant food usually obtained in mixtures, thus effecting most important savings to the user in carting, handling and spreading.

also in many other parts of the world, and had everywhere proved highly successful. They had the further advantage of being granular, and recent experiments had shown that this granular condition results in a more even and regular distribution over the land. The smaller quantity of these fertilizers now required in comparison with the different forms of fertilizers hitherto necessary meant a great saving in carriage alone, and this was a most important point for farmers living a considerable distance from a shipping port or a railway station.

Mr. O'Reilly next referred to the farm of Mr. Patrick Crowley, Derrygowna, Banteer, who had introduced the new system of grassland management for the first time last year.

In January 1930, he gave the land a dressing of fertilizers, consisting of 4 cwt. Semsol and 1 1/2 cwt. Potash Salts per acre over six fields, 24 acres in all.

In February a first dressing of 1 cwt. Sulphate of Ammonia per acre was given, and house-feeding was dispensed with on the 1st of May. The total saving during May in house-feeding alone was about £42, much more than the entire cost of the fertilizers.

In 1929 it took 32 acres to maintain 21 cows, but in 1930 the same number of cows were maintained on 24 acres during the season.

They also improved 42 per cent. in milk yield, the returns for May, 1929, being 1,275 gallons which was increased to 1,820 gallons last year, in June the increase was from 1,404 gallons to 1,987, in July from 1,226 to 1,790, in August from 1,033 to 1,568, and the yield was continued down to October, same proportion of increase in milk the total returns of milk in 1929 being 157 gallons per acre, value £4 8s. 10d., while in 1930 the returns per acre were 381 gallons, value £7 18s. 10d., showing an increase of £3 10s. per acre under the new system.

Mr. O'Reilly next referred to the mistaken notion held by many farmers, that unless their cattle were actually wading in long grass they would be starved. He said that was absolutely wrong, as long grass was far more indigestible for cattle than short pasture, and it was well that they should know that grass lost its nutritious and digestible qualities as it grew longer, so that the short fresh grazing was always the best and most healthy for cattle.

The lecturer next gave valuable instructions as to the best means of cutting and saving, and also the utilization of silage and explained the up-to-date system adopted in the latter respect in University College Cork. Having dealt with a variety of other agricultural subjects, Mr. O'Reilly then invited questions from his audience on any point about which they were in doubt and several important questions were then put, and fully answered by him.

Replying to a question as to the cost of Concentrated Fertilizers, as compared with other manures, Mr. O'Reilly said that one ton of Concentrated Fertilizers was equal to two tons 16 cwt. of the others, so that the farmer by using this mixture could purchase for £8 8s. what would otherwise cost him £16.

Several other matters having been dealt with, a cordial vote of thanks was proposed to Mr. O'Reilly for his able and instructive lecture.

The Rev. Brother Carthage, seconding said they should all feel highly thankful and indebted to Mr. O'Reilly for the great pains he had gone to in giving them such valuable information and education that day, and it was a great treat to all of them to hear the expert and masterly manner in which he had dealt with every aspect of the agricultural industry in which they were all so interested. (Applause).

Mr. O'Reilly, in returning thanks, said, he was very grateful to all the gentlemen present for having attended and for having travelled such long distances on such an inclement day, and said if at any time any of them required any further information or instructions on any matter he would be only too happy to give it to them, or they could get it from the Dublin Office of Imperial Chemical Industries, Ltd.

He should express in a special manner his best thanks to the Rev. Brother Carthage for the great facilities which he had given him for the demonstration and lecture on that occasion, and he also felt deeply grateful to the entire community of Mount Mellera for the great assistance which they had always given in the carrying out of those demonstrations for several years past. (Applause).

The proceedings then concluded.

MORE MONEY from Pigs. There is the opportunity of a farmer... I had about 10 pigs and decided to try the new method... I have now had a pig of a pig that I succeeded in getting to the point of sale... I was able to do better, even though I had other means of pig production. The result was a pig of 150 lbs. at 100 cents per lb. and I had about 100 cents per lb. of meat.

SHEEP DIPPING ON KNOCKMEALDOWN.

INTERESTING REPORT.

Mr. Thomas Flynn, V.C., presided. Also present—Messrs. J. Greene and W. Stack. Messrs. C. P. Hynes, V.S., and R. P. Byrne, V.S., were in attendance.

The Clerk read a note from Mr. T. Hubbert, Knocknaraney, Ring, asking the Committee for the second time to have the contents of a jam-pot of meat found on his lands a few years ago sent for analysis.

Chairman—Tell him if he brought it in, in 1928 when he found it we could do something. It is too late now.

No Prosecution.

The Department wrote re a case of sheep scab reported from the farm of John Dalton, Glendog, and recommending that proceedings be taken against Dalton. Not only did Dalton fail to report the outbreak of disease in his flock, but he actually exposed a sheep for sale at Dungarvan fair.

Mr. Byrne, V.S., said Dalton did not know the sheep had scab at all. When he (Mr. Byrne), informed him of the fact he took the sheep home at once and complied with the regulations. That was the only sheep he had at the fair. This man was a workman all his life and would not know sheep scab if he saw it. The Committee decided that no proceedings be taken against Dalton.

The Department wrote approving of the acceptance of tenders for contractors for Sheep Dipping; Dip, appointment of Mountain Ranger etc. As to the acceptance of Nicobrand Dip the Department said it was conditional in an immersion of 1 1/2 minutes for each sheep.

SHEEP SCAB AT KNOCKANASK.

PRECAUTIONARY MEASURES SUGGESTED.

DIPPING UNDER SUPERVISION.

Mr. Hynes wrote.—In connection with my suggestion re above to your Committee and instructions received, I beg to report as follows.—In company with Mr. C. J. Curran I interviewed John Hurley, Mountain Ranger, on the Cappoquin Estate and made arrangements with him subject to the sanction of your Committee and of the Department, that Hurley's son act as Mountain Ranger and obtain particulars of the number of sheep and owners in the area in question that Hurley give the use of his cement dipping tank for the dipping of the sheep of the proposed area and act as Dipper during the Summer and Autumn Dipping periods.

That certain suggested alterations be made on the dipping tank, enlarging the draining pen to deal with a greater number of sheep; to post notices and warn owners etc., all for the sum of £12 for the first year and £10 for subsequent years that it would be considered desirable to continue the arrangements. If the necessary sanction and formalities could be got through in time arrangements could be made for the compulsory dipping of all sheep under his supervision. He discovered recently the existence of an outbreak of sheep scab of old standing in the Townlands of Knockanask; Knocknafolla; Knockboy; Maul Knocknafrehan or Crowhill and Knocknashinga. The report was approved of.

It was ordered that the report of Mr. Hynes, be sent to the Department and ask them to sanction the arrangements at once to enable the work to be proceeded with.

Swine Fever.

In connection with a case of suspected Swine fever reported by the Guards from Ballymacarby, Mr. Hynes said he attended the case and found there was a bad outbreak of swine erysipelas at the creamery where over 200 pigs were kept. He had the fact to the Department. Swine the animals inoculated and reported Erysipelas was very prevalent as present. The prevention was inoculation and the serum for the inoculation was cheap.

Blackwater Fisheries.

Mr. H. P. Maxwell, was moved to the chair, subsequently taken by Mr. E. A. Rice, Solicitor, Vice-Chairman.

At the usual monthly meeting of the Lismore or No. 4 Board of Blackwater Fishery Conservators, at the Devonshire Arms Hotel, Lismore, on Thursday, and the other present were: Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. W. O'Brien, W. Baldwin, J. Kent, Capt. R. Holroyd Smyth, Major Lingfield, R. Meagher, Carey Joyce.

Messrs. T. Drohan, Sec. and Inspector, and W. Buckley, Assistant Inspector, were also in attendance.

Acknowledgment.

A letter was read from Mr. J. Kennedy, Chairman, thanking the Board for their kind vote of sympathy with him on the death of his daughter.

Department v. Bailiff.

A letter was read from the Department withdrawing sanction of Bailiff Tammy's appointment, as from the date of next meeting, until he was prepared to reside in the district for which he was appointed.

Inspector Buckley, said that men had secured lodgings at Castletown-roche.

Hatcheries.

A letter was read from the Department authorising an expenditure of £64,189 on repairs etc., at Banteer and Mallow Hatcheries.

Insurance Premiums.

Some discussion took place on the insurance of the Boards working staff, from which it appeared that the total wages paid were £1,300 and that the quotation of the Alliance Co., for £35 was the lowest.

Major Lingfield, said that was very reasonable.

The Chairman (Mr. Rice)—Have you asked any Irish Company to quote? I don't see why we should not support an Irish Co. We should keep all the money possible at home.

Major Lingfield, agreed if the same or better terms could be got.

The Secretary was directed to obtain quotations from Irish Companies.

Secretary's Report.

The Secretary's report was as follows:—I beg to report that in compliance with the order of the Board I warned all boat's crews, at Monatrea, Piltpark, Youghal Bridge, etc., as to the discontinuance of weights on their nets, while in fishing order. The Bailiffs were warned to pay marked attention, and report any infringement without delay. Visits were since paid and nothing wrong discovered. I examined several boats and found all in order in that portion of the Harbour. In addition to the visits paid by the bailiffs, I paid surprise visits on the 8th and 18th, inst., and the Civic Guards from Clashmore were similarly engaged. On 1st May bailiffs seized 80 yards of net abandoned in the Harbour, on the 18th, I visited Youghal Bay, Knockadoon, etc., and discovered a boat using a net 122 yards over the legal limit. The crew have been summoned to Youghal Court. The offence took place in the Bay, near the Rifle Range. I observed only two boats fishing in Ardmore Bay, last week. Sharks were playing havoc with the nets there and the fishermen more or less abandoned fishing as a consequence. The fishing of May was fair, and taking everything into consideration the catches were four times greater this year than in 1929 and 1930. Rod fishing at Banteer and vicinity was remarkably good since 1st April.

Major Lingfield—What about Knockadoon as well?

The Secretary, said they were satisfactory there.

Mr. Kent, said there was a great contrast between the upper and lower waters.

Major Lingfield, said there was a very good early run of fish at Banteer and elsewhere, the fish having got straight through.

Capt. Dunne, said a weight on the net would not prevent it from being a drift net.

The Chairman, said the point raised was regarding fixed engines.

Capt. Dunne, said a fixed engine was a net moored.

The Chairman—Major Lingfield has a photo here of what they found.

Capt. Dunne—But it was at Ardmore.

Major Lingfield—We found the same at Youghal (laughter).

Weights v. Ballast.

Capt. Dunne, said there was no law preventing fishermen from having weights to trim or ballast their boats.

Chairman—They are entitled to both. The Secretary, said he was informed that bailiff Doyle ordered some boats to haul in their anchors.

Mr. Baldwin—He ordered the men to take the weights out of the boats.

The Secretary, said the men sometimes used the weights to lower the boat at the stem or stern.

Major Lingfield—That is ballast. The Chairman—They must be a certain amount of ballast. No balliff was entitled to order ballast out of a boat.

Mr. Baldwin—Doyle seems to take a lot on himself.

The Chairman—Let the boatman who is treated that way go to Mr. Keane, solr., and he will soon settle the matter.

Early Poaching.

Mr. Kent, complained of the poaching that prevailed early in the year, and called on Inspector Buckley to tell the Board what they had seen.

Mr. Buckley, said that on January 30th, last they saw 40 cois?? fishing opposite lower Stranacally Wood.

The Chairman, said Mr. Kent's point was that there was no use for bailiffs if they didn't do their work. If the men could get lodgings where required they must only be sent down in the close season.

Mr. Buckley, said he saw 2 boats at the mouth of the river Bride on February, 21st, during the close season. He also saw four men fishing from cots, with snap nets. He called them in, but they refused.

Mr. Kent said that kind of thing was going on for week-end to week-end. He again asked that the Minister of Fisheries, should be requested to make an investigation.

Major Lingfield—Didn't Mr. Buckley report that to the Inspector?

Mr. Buckley—I made a report to the Clerk of the Board and to Mr. Keane, solicitor.

Mr. Kent, said somebody was protecting the poachers.

Chairman—Who are?

Mr. Kent—The bailiffs in the tidal waters.

Mr. Baldwin—That is a very serious charge.

Mr. Buckley, gave another instance, which occurred in March, where two lots of poachers got away.

The Chairman—They were not recognised?

Mr. Buckley—No—It was after midnight on Saturday, and so dark that the two parties of bailiffs mistook each other for poachers (laughter).

Major Lingfield—He made a written report.

Mr. Kent—This Board has a very unenviable reputation in Dublin.

Replying to Major Lingfield, the Secretary said, that Mr. Buckley said he had given particulars to their solicitor, Mr. Keane.

Major Lingfield—What has been done about it?

The Secretary, said it was in Mr. Keane's hands.

Mr. Buckley, said no further steps could be taken before as there was no Court at Tallow in May.

Mr. Buckley, gave particulars of another case in which a man and his son were detected on Sunday morning 17th May.

Mr. Kent, complained that they had never heard about the Inspector.

Replying to the question "what Inspector?"

Rates Etc. Mr. Kent, said he meant the Department Inspector—The lady Inspector, poor rod anglers had to pay, £2 for a license and the rates had gone up 45 per cent and there they were as bad as ever.

The Chairman—Has not the value of the private fisheries gone up 500 per cent?

Mr. Kent—We are not dealing with the value of anything, but with the protection of the river.

The Chairman, said the Government was entitled to advance the rate as the value of the fisheries had gone up.

Mr. Kent, said his contention was that the people were compelled to pay an inflated rate, for which they were getting little value. If the Minister held an investigation he could see for himself how the inland fisheries—one of their chief industries—were being murdered.

The Chairman, said that people who received increased rents for their fisheries should pay increased rates.

Major Lingfield said as long as the Lismore Weir was allowed continue in its present condition, the fish could not get to the upper waters in any quantity.

Mr. Baldwin—Then there is the netting at Fermoy.

The Chairman, said Major Lingfield had stated positively that the Lismore Weir was not being maintained as it should be. If that were so he didn't see why the Board should not institute proceedings against the Duke of Devonshire.

Mr. Kent said it was the duty of the Government to protect their subjects.

The Chairman—They will say there is a law there, and if anybody felt aggrieved they could take action.

Major Lingfield having given details of the cause of complaint in regard to the Lismore Weir, said the Association were in communication with the Lismore Estates Co. and when things came to a head they would lay the full facts before the Board. In the meantime he was preparing to take the necessary soundings.

Capt. Dunne, said he had heard Mr. Kent say that the Government should do everything for them and they also heard the complaint about all the fish being killed at Lismore, but the practice known as "cribbing" was worse than the Weir, and their staff couldn't cope with it.

Chairman—I agree with you.

quinn and he didn't buy a single fish before the season. His first consignment was only 5 boxes. After that he could get almost a ton of fish any day.

Major Lingfield, gave details of the fish caught one season at Lismore and in the river generally, and said the nets at the former took nearly 15 to 1 foot for the others. Where there was 9 feet of water when Gray took his sections, there was land now with trees growing on it.

The Chairman—I think the discussion is ended now for the present.

Rating Valuation.

Major Lingfield said there were a number of anomalies in connection with the valuations in the river, which he thought should be revised. It was a most important matter.

The Chairman said he knew of one for which £200 was paid and only one fish killed in three months.

Mr. Kent said that those valuations which had not been recently revised should be revised.

Major Lingfield said it didn't seem equitable that a person getting £500 or £600 rent for his fishery should pay only the same rate as another getting only £400.

After considerable discussion it was unanimously decided on the proposition of Major Lingfield, seconded by the Chairman to call for a revise of the valuation of the fisheries on the Blackwater.

Salmon Fry.

Replying to Major Lingfield, the Secretary said they had put out almost a million fry from the hatchery.

The Major said it unfortunately happened that they sometimes had heavy floods in September and when it occurred the Inspector ought to be the authority of the Department to work the trap at Banteer.

The Secretary was directed to take the necessary steps.

COUNTY COUNCIL OF WATERFORD.

ELECTION OF POOR RATE COLLECTOR FOR THE COLLECTION DISTRICT OF LISMORE (NO. 1 DIVISION).

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the County Council of Waterford will at their Annual Meeting to be held in the Court House, Dungarvan, on Tuesday the 23rd day of June, 1931, proceed to elect a Poor Rate Collector for the above Collection District of Lismore (No. 1 Division) at a remuneration of 7jd. in the £., if one-third of the first moiety and arrears be lodged by the 31st August, the full moiety and arrears by the 30 September, one-third of the second moiety by the 1st February, and the full warrant by the 31st March in each year, and at the rate of 6d. in the £. if full warrant be lodged by the 31st March but all other conditions be not complied with. The Collector will in addition be entitled to the fees prescribed under the Electoral Act, 1927. The duties of the office will be those prescribed by the Public Bodies Orders, 1925 to 1929.

The appointment to the position (which is part-time and non-pensionable will be made pursuant to the Public Bodies Orders, 1925 to 1929, wherein the duties of the position are prescribed, and the appointment will be subject to the provisions thereof and to the sanction of the Minister for Local Government and Public Health.

The amount of the approximate yearly warrant for the District is £10,000.

Two approved Personal Sureties in a Bond with Warrant of Attorney attached for the sum of £1,000 together with a Bond of an approved Guarantee Society in the sum of £2,500 will be required. The premium payable to the Guarantee Society will be borne one-half by the County Council and one-half by the person appointed.

Applications for the position will be received by me not later than 22nd. June, 1931, and must be made on a Form to be obtained from me at the County Council Offices, Dungarvan.

The County Council will have to be satisfied that the Applicant appointed is competent to keep the Books and Accounts appertaining to the position and has a reasonable standard of general education or, if required by the County Council, he must pass a suitable examination test.

An essential qualification for the appointment is an adequate knowledge of Irish, subject to the provisions of Article 3 of the Local Offices and Employments (Gaeltacht) Order, 1928.

Applicants should be over the age of 21 years.

Applications from persons disqualified by Article 96 of the Public Order, 1925 will not be entertained.

Dated the 2nd. day of June, 1931.
J. H. O'SULLIVAN,
Secretary, County Council
County Secretary's Office,
Dungarvan.

A shelter sufficient for 18 or 20 people would cost £10. However, should the Council wish to "do the thing proud," and provide one, which in itself would attract visitors, and so, probably double the takings of the ferry. Such a one would cost £20.

Suppose the Council decides to go the whole hog, and have a twenty-pounder, and at the same time decides to place the ferry-boat "landing stage," temporarily on the shelf.

This then would leave the Courfeil with about £80 to jingle in their pockets. What will they do with it? I suggest, spend it on tennis courts.

If my information is correct, some of the members of the Council would be inclined to look askance at this suggestion, as I am informed they regard tennis as a "rich man's" game, and so ought not be catered for.

Well, perhaps "in the good-old days" this view would be right enough—but not so in these democratic times.

A trip to England could easily satisfy anybody on this point. There, all large business establishments provide sports-clubs for their employees. These clubs cater, not only for football, etc., but, provide many tennis courts, as well. A bus trip, around London shows this. Here and there in the suburbs can be seen large placards, or hoardings announcing "Messrs. So-and-So's Sports-Club." Instead of London, take a "working-class" district—like say, Middlesborough. There "Smiths Dock Yard Co.," Bell and Co.; and all the large firms have their "Sports-Club." The Sports-Club of Messrs. Dorman Long, the great iron founders, has about 20 tennis courts. And so on.

To the foregoing it possibly might be said:—Yes, but what you say applies to hated England—you must remember we live in dear old Ireland. Even so, such an argument will not do, because, as I clearly demonstrated in a recent Log, "Fashion" like "Love," knows no bounds nor landmarks; it even "leaps" across seas and oceans with equal ease. And tennis is now the "fashion" for all classes everywhere.

So to sum up: Generally speaking, Youghal earns its bread and butter, by fishing for fish, and fishing for visitors; and according as we bait our hooks so shall we reap. Therefore let us be practical, and move with the times. In England seaside-resorts vie with one another in providing excellent public tennis courts. Let us do the same.

And now in conclusion, just a word about the courts themselves: The money spent on those two grass courts, was much on par with burning money, instead of Maloney's coals. Even beginners will not be content to play on courts with the ball hopping on all directions owing to the lumps and bumps on the ground. Visitors depart from these courts much like after a shower on the Ferry-point—limp and dishevel in spirits. No happy memories. To provide really good grass courts is practically impossible, owing to the expense of constant care and attention required. They are being given up everywhere—in England there are no public grass courts.

The Council should make every endeavour to provide four good "hard" courts say two of gravel or brick dust and two of cement or bitumen. Then the attractions of the place will receive an important fillip, and (as I once said) Moore's lines could be brought up to date, to read of Youghal:—

His name went abroad through the nations,
And the folk came afflocking to see,
And they shouted without hesitation,
YOUGHAL is the place for me!
Yours Truly,
L. RONAYNE.

YOUGHAL— Its Ferry-point and Tennis.

South Abbey, Youghal,
23rd. May, 1931.

Dear Sir,—Thank you for so kindly publishing my recent letter re a "landing-stage" on the Ferry-point. I hope you may allow me space to once again call attention, to the urgent necessity for a shelter there.

At a recent meeting, the Youghal Urban Council referred with some pride to the success of its "publicity campaign" in advertising the attractions of the town and locality. But just fancy what memories the Ferry-point must be the means of carrying away! Just fancy the gay visitors "down for the day." The young ladies in their shortest—

I mean smartest summer frocks. Their young men "in their hair" and "Oxford bags." All happy and carefree, on the end of the Point, awaiting the boat—when a sudden tropical shower renders them limp, dishevelled and drenched. No escape from it.

I ask you how can our City Fathers later on see these visitors off by the excursion trains with:—"Ta, ta! Au revoir Come back to Youghal!" Why its impossible!—Unless they add:—"But don't go near the Ferry-Point."

Then again, just fancy a tramp, or tourist, weary after an exhausting walk, cooling down in the wind and rain. How many a man, in this way, must have "caught his death of cold" on the Point. Better a hundred boats should be battered to bits, on the unfriendly shore, than that one life should be lost!

A shelter sufficient for 18 or 20 people would cost £10. However, should the Council wish to "do the thing proud," and provide one, which in itself would attract visitors, and so, probably double the takings of the ferry. Such a one would cost £20.

Suppose the Council decides to go the whole hog, and have a twenty-pounder, and at the same time decides to place the ferry-boat "landing stage," temporarily on the shelf.

This then would leave the Courfeil with about £80 to jingle in their pockets. What will they do with it? I suggest, spend it on tennis courts.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

THE MISSION.

The three weeks' Mission in Dungarvan Parish, will close on Sunday next. Since the start it has drawn the population of the Parish night and morning in record numbers, and the eloquent discourses of the distinguished preachers—Fathers Cleary, Regan, and Boyle, of the Redemptorist Order, have been listened to with the closest attention morning and evening. On Sunday evening His Lordship the Bishop, was present, and gave Benediction. On Wednesday evening Fr. Cleary, preached a powerful sermon on our Blessed Lady, and later consecrated the Parish and its people to the Blessed Mother. A beautifully decorated altar, on which was a statue of our Blessed Lady, was erected in the Sanctuary. The spacious Church was thronged. The numbers approaching the Holy Table each morning have broken all records and the effects of the Mission will certainly be far reaching and the source of much blessing henceforth.

AN ATTRACTIVE OFFER.

Within the past few weeks extensive and elaborate alterations have been carried out at Phelan's Premises, Square, Dungarvan. A beautiful new front and plate glass windows have been put in, the whole giving a delightful set off to this go-ahead concern and making it most attractive to the public eye. In order to commemorate the occasion in a special manner, a most attractive offer of valuable prizes is being made. Any person visiting Phelan's and purchasing goods to the value of 1s. will get a ticket for a free ballot which may win any of the substantial prizes advertised in our columns to-day. The offer will be continued up to June 13th, when the draw will take place. It is expected that early advantage will be taken of this attractive offer to the public.

POTATO BLIGHT.

Prevention is better than cure. Use my specially prepared spraying Powder, made up in 10, 20, and 40 lb. bags or Pure Sulphate of Copper and Soda Crystals. Spray early and spray twice and your crop will be doubled, and free from disease. J. J. Crotty, Square, Dungarvan.

WELCOME HOME.

Rev. Edmond Keohan, son of our esteemed and respected townsman Mr. Ed. Keohan, Main St., Dungarvan, is home on a well-earned holiday from Los Angeles, California. His numerous friends here were delighted to see him looking so fit and well and hope he may have a very enjoyable time in the old land.

£100 FOR AN EX-KING.

Ex-King Alfonso of Spain, drew a cash prize in the Derby Sweep on Monday.

ALL GOT THERE.

A baby, a Negro, a blind basket maker, a butler, a rivetter, and book-maker, are amongst those entitled to £30,000 each over Cameronian's win in the Derby.

DUNGARVAN PIG FAIR.

This big fair will be held on Monday next, June 8th. All the buyers are coming and farmers are requested to be on the Square with their pigs at 10 a.m. (new time), when the fair opens.

PROMINENT LOCAL APPOINTMENT.

Within the past week, Mr. James Lynch, son of the late lamented Mr. James Lynch, Ballylemon, Cappagh, has been appointed by the Department of Agriculture, Inspector to supervise, and examine all Butter exported across Channel and he will be stationed at Rosslare Harbour. Mr. Lynch, qualified with honours in Dairy Science, at the University College, Cork, a few years ago, and since then held a very important position at Mallow Creamery. He has won his new position from big competition and brilliant young man that he is, we are sure he will keep climbing the official ladder at top speed. His numerous friends heartily congratulate him in his appointment.

Wear a Zambone and enjoy any weather. Phil Walsh, Square, Dungarvan.

TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

In connection with the approval of 6d. a mile Travelling expenses to the Co. Surveyors and Assistant Surveyors passed at the last meeting of the Co. Council, it should have been stated that Mr. Butler, dissented.

THE CINEMA, DUNGARVAN.

THE HOUSE WITH PERFECT SOUND.

Each night at 8.30 p.m. Matinees Thursday and Saturday at 3.30 p.m.

Monday and Tuesday June 8th and 9th. RAFFLES.

Starring Ronald Colman. At last the picture you have been waiting for. Raffles—most daring—most charming—most fascinating of crackmen, fights for millions against the best brains of Scotland Yard, Ronald Colman the screen's most dashing figure, as "Raffles," mystery-drama's most tantalising adventurer. Here is a Ronald Colman to thrill you, amaze you, delight you. Beneath the suave, impeccable exterior of this underworld daredevil, throbs a gallant, reckless heart, bursting with love of adventure and romance. The law tamed, the underworld tamed, the public trembled and Raffles the arch gentleman-thief laughed until love brought the turning point in his career. Don't miss "Raffles." It is thoroughly good entertainment. Dashing! Daring! Dynamic.

Also Moviefone News and 'Sound Cartoon.

Wednesday and Thursday June 10th, and 11th.

A Song of Kentucky.

Starring Lois Moran and Joseph Wagstaff. The story of a Society girl from old Kentucky and her golden-voiced lover, who staked everything on the turn of fortune's wheel. If a horse named "Dixie" won the great race, all their ambitions were realised—if "Dixie" lost, they were ruined. The picture is replete with romantic situations, exciting scenes and delightful music. See and hear the classic Kentucky Derby, furious feet that quicken the pulse and move at lightning speed to a thunderbolt climax. Hear the song hits, "A night of Happiness," "Sitting by the Window" and "Song of Kentucky," beautifully rendered by Joseph Wagstaff, whose glorious voice won him a prominent position on the stage of New York.

Usual Supports.

Friday and Saturday June 12th and 13th. Compromised

Starring Sally O'Neill, Eddie Quillan, and Jeanette Loff, in arrollicking story of College life. Scintillating, hilarious, full of pep, comedy, and romance, showing college life in a radiant manner that has never been portrayed on the screen before. There are quite a few thrills in this snappy picture, but it is the comedy which is the main attraction, and a big college football game as its thrilling climax. Don't fail to see Eddie Quillan as the bad boy of the college, who runs the wrong way in the football game but who proves himself a hero before the end of the story. See the college "rags," dances, school plays and sports. If you've never laughed before, you will laugh at "Compromised."

Comedy and Usual Supports.

SHEEP DIPPING IN 1931.

As the Sheep Dipping season commences on the 1st June, the Minister for Agriculture desires to direct the attention of sheep owners, and all concerned in the execution and enforcement of the Sheep Dipping Orders, to the urgent necessity for securing the dipping of all sheep in the Irish Free State during the prescribed periods, in accordance with the requirements of the Orders and any Regulations thereunder of the Local Authorities concerned.

The principal object of the Order of 1915, and of the supplementary Orders which enable Local Authorities to require the prescribed dippings to be carried out under the supervision of local Inspectors, is the eradication of Scab, a disease which has done much to retard the development of the sheep industry, and to injure the country's valuable export trade in sheep and lambs. Under these Orders the Local Authorities have ample means of ensuring the freedom from Scab of all sheep in their respective districts, and of thereby enhancing to a very considerable degree the value of the sheep industry as a whole.

In the last resort, however, responsibility for the cleanliness of Irish flocks rests on sheep owners themselves. Every owner of sheep is bound to dip his sheep in the manner and during the periods prescribed by the Sheep Dipping Order and any local Regulations in force and every consideration of duty and self-interest should urge him to discharge this obligation. If regulations of the Local Authority require him to have his sheep dipped at a time and place appointed by the Local Authority, he should make arrangements to have the whole of his flock dipped in accordance with these regulations; otherwise, he should fix a time and place himself, and give the Local Authority due notice either direct or through the Garda Síochána, so that they may be represented at the dipping, should they so desire.

Youghal District Court.

INTERESTING FISHERY CASES HEARD.

At Youghal District Court (before Mr J. S. Troy, D.J.) there was a re-hearing of the fishery cases recently dismissed without prejudice on the grounds that the complainants, the Lismore Estates Co. Ltd., had not proved their title. Additional interest was aroused by the fact that, in the fresh summonses issued, His Grace the Duke of Devonshire was cited as a complainant. The defendants were, James O'Keefe, Ardsallagh, and John McGrath, Youghal. The court was crowded during the hearing.

There was big pile of books, documents, maps, etc., in the table in the body of the court.

Mr. A. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, for complainants; and Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., Youghal, for defendants.

Mr. Carroll said there were two defendants in one of the cases J. McGrath and P. Tobin. The latter had not been served and his case had to go, being outside the district.

The case against Tobin was then struck out. Mr. Carroll said he was there with a good deal of material. Those cases were before the court a month ago. They were brought by the Lismore Estates Co. and were dismissed without prejudice, with 10s. costs in each case, the defence being that they didn't prove title.

Mr. Keane said it would save time if he intervened at this stage. The summonses last day were issued at the instance of the Lismore Estates Co. since then new summonses had been issued, in which the Duke of Devonshire and the Co. were the complainants. Now that the Duke was a complainant, he didn't intend to question the title. He did want to allow why the Co. came up.

Mr. Carroll said he wanted no concessions from his friend. He had come over the last day thinking he would be met with a difficult line of attitude. He was met by such attitude in another case and he didn't trouble the court with it. But, it was a difficult thing when they were met by points that ought not have been raised. He had gone to considerable trouble and expense to come there that day armed with proofs of title and he would show the court what he had to go and do. He had been in that court occasionally prosecuting since 1920, for breaches of the law and he had never pressed any case, the last time he had proved a formal conviction. The summonses were brought under 41 Section 11 and 12 Vic. Chap. 92—Commissioners Old Book he had.

Justice—That is the one I have too.

Mr. Carroll, having quoted at length from the Act, said the case against O'Keefe was that on November 19th last, he was trawling in a rowing boat between Ardsallagh and Ballinaclash. The case against McGrath was that on 11th December, he was a member of the crew of a steam trawler, operating between Green Park and the bridge.

Mr. Keane I think you will find you are wrong in that. It was not a steam trawler.

Mr. Carroll said it was since trawling boats at all events, and it would be proved that McGrath was a member of the crew and had been notified not to trawl, and that there had been some altercation on a previous occasion about their continuing to commit that offence. As regards the question of the title, which was now of course abandoned as a defence, the establishment of the title of the 8th Duke of Devonshire was said to have cost £40,000. There had been an interesting litigation before Judge and Jury in Dublin with several trials and verdicts set aside. Eventually the jury found in favour of the Duke's title. It went then to the Court of Exchequer to have the verdict set aside and from that to the Court of Appeal, the final Court as far as Ireland was concerned, but the defendants appealed from that to the House of Lords. The case was finally reported in the 82 and 83 Law Reports. The fishery on which the defendants were charged with trespassing was originally known as the Molanassa Fishery—he didn't know its local design now. There were monks in Lismore—the Monks of St. Carthage, and Monks near Youghal—Franciscans, he thought—the first in Ireland. The latter were founded, as was seen by the historical Act, set out in the report, by St. Molanassa. It was he who established that Monastery on the bank of the river near Ballynatray, and those Monks secured the fisheries—the Lismore Monks having the upper portion and the Monks of St. Molanassa the lower. Then property was seized and confiscated and it passed to Sir Walter Raleigh. When he attained and disproved of his estates, they were acquired by Robert Boyle, Earl of Cork. Ultimately, it came into the possession of a former Duke of Devonshire. The title was upheld by the Court of Appeal in England. (Mr. Carroll here read an extract from report referred to, to the effect that the estates were granted by Queen Elizabeth to Sir Walter Raleigh in 1587. In 1590 Raleigh also acquired by purchase from Boyle the manor and lordship of Lismore together with the several fishery extending from Lismore down. Raleigh was attained in 1603 and by successive letters patent of King James in 1604, '9 and '13 and Charles I. 1630, the estates which Raleigh had acquired in the Counties of Cork and Waterford were given to Robert Boyle, to whom he had executed a conveyance. The title of the Duke of Devonshire was derived from this Sir Robert Boyle through the Binlions). The project involved in the report, proved that the 8th Earl of Devonshire had established his title to the fishery. He had there the probate of the will of the 8th Duke of Devonshire, resealed in Ireland 19th Jan., '09. Under the probate and will, the present, the 9th Duke, acquired all the property which the 8th Duke had in Counties of Cork and Waterford. He (Mr. Carroll) handed in as evidence an agreement between the 9th Duke of Devonshire and the Lismore Estates Co. Ltd. By that agreement the Duke agreed to assign all his lands in the Counties of Cork and Waterford, his title rents and fisheries to the Lismore Estates Co., and he could prove the execution of that agreement by the Duke of Devonshire and the Co. He produced the Certs. and valuation showing that the 8th Duke of Devonshire was the rated occupier on fee simple on the tideway of the river Blackwater and he had certificates of valuation on the Co. for the same property. Those certificates showed that they paid more than one third of the entire revenue of the river. That would be his title to put an end to poaching. In addition he would hand in evidence a certificate from the local Customs Department showing that the boat in which McGrath was fishing was registered under the name of Mr. Thomas Murphy Youghal, No. G140.

Mr. Keane said Mr. Murphy was not a defendant, he was not before the Court at all.

Mr. Carroll said he would prove that Mr. Murphy got notice to stop that trawling and that he undertook that the boat would not trawl again inside Youghal Harbour. His explanation of 1929 that the boat didn't trawl in the Harbour except in bad weather had been accepted.

Mr. Keane said that only the Lismore Estates Co. appeared up to that.

Mr. Carroll—The Duke of Devonshire need not have been put in at all.

The Justice—You are the lessies and occupiers.

Patk. Dooly, water-bailiff, Lismore, repeated the evidence given last day, and was cross-examined by Mr. Keane.

Mr. Keane—May I take it you instructions are to prevent all sorts of fishing—I am not, but, I took it on myself.

Jas. McGrath, bailiff, who in company with Dooly on the occasion in question, also gave evidence.

Mr. E. C. Penrose, Lismore Castle, Secretary of the Estates Co., proved the demand notes and receipts for the fishery rates and the signature of the Duke of Devonshire and the seal of the Co. to the agreement. He had charge of the fisheries of the river and issued licenses for nets and gave permission for fishing in the river. Up to the present season he had issued 3 licenses to Mr. Murphy, but, they were discontinued that season.

Witness was cross-examined by Mr. Keane regarding a letter sent by the Conservators asking him not to prevent the trawling, and his reply.

The Justice—Has it anything to do with the case?

Mr. Keane said that the Conservators were charged with the protection of the river.

The Justice—At this stage of the proceedings what have I to do with it?

Cross-examination continued—Witness said trawling was stopped by his father, when agent, 10 years ago. Licenses were issued for a time, but it was decided that trawling was bad for the river.

I submit it was not stopped? They ceased to issue licenses and nobody could trawl without one.

Trawling was going on for the past 50 or 60 years and that was the first prosecution—why is it?—It was considered that it upset the trawling beds and killed immature fish.

Mr. Keane, said the stopping of the trawling was a serious matter for the poor fishermen, many of whom depended on it for the support of their families and themselves during the winter months. It had been carried on for a considerable time. Licenses were issued for two years sometime ago and now they had the first prosecution. The stoppage of "spillers" and fly fishing would make matters even worse, and a large proportion of the community would suffer materially. The question was, was any man or company entitled to stop the natural wealth of the State in that manner?

The Board of Fishery Conservators wrote to Mr. Penrose asking him to reconsider the decision as regards allowing small boats to trawl and to issue licenses, for which the men were prepared to pay as formerly. Mr. Penrose replied declining to do so, as trawling interfered with the flat fish spawning beds. As regards that, the opinion of old fishermen was that those fish spawned at sea. O'Keefe had not trawled since stopped, and he (Mr. Keane) would give an undertaking that there would be no repetition.

The defendants O'Keefe and McGrath, having given evidence, and been cross-examined.

Mr. Carroll said they accepted O'Keefe's explanation that he thought the prohibition didn't affect a small boat like his and he would therefore agree with the case against him being withdrawn.

After a further protracted hearing McGrath was fined 10s. and 5 guineas costs.

ALLEGED FALSE PRETENCES.

At the District Court, Joseph O'Regan, 53 The Glen, was prosecuted for 6s. alleged, obtaining relief vouchers from the Board of Public Assistance.

Supt. Fahy, said the case had been adjourned from time to time to enable the defendant to pay back the money, which amounted to £4 odd. As the defendant had been unemployed for the past two weeks, Supt. Fahy, said he would again ask for an adjournment. The Justice granted the application.

Waterford County Committee of Agriculture.

FAILED IN IRISH.

MR. STACK AND AGRICULTURAL SCHOLARSHIPS.

Mr. Thomas Flynn, V.C., presided. Also present—Messrs. W. Stack, and John Greene.

Scholarships For Boys. The Department of Agriculture wrote that at the examination of competitors for Scholarships for Boys held at Dungarvan, on 19th April last, the candidates who attended obtained the percentage of marks hereunder—

Patrick Hahey, Rathgormack, 71 marks; Richard Kennedy, Rathgormack, 62 marks (failed in Irish); Patk. McCarthy, Ballyhane, 60 marks; Wm. Hahey, Rathgormack, 59; John Halpin, 53 marks (failed in Irish); with the exception of Richard Kennedy and Halpin, who failed in Irish, all the candidates reached the necessary standard of qualification and the award of Scholarships to Patrick Hahey, and Patrick McCarthy, was approved. Should either of the above candidates not avail of the Scholarship awarded the vacancy may be awarded to Wm. Hahey.

It may be mentioned that it was considered necessary to set a fairly low standard for a pass in Irish this year, and so any candidate who scored 30 per cent. in this subject is regarded as having qualified therein.

Mr. Stack—We elected people here who had no Irish and they were sanctioned, that is a fraud. They put it on as a great test, but they have no Irish. I remember when Dr. Mullany was elected in this room and there was a Doctor came her from Dublin who had all the Irish in the world, and it was detrimental to him to have it as they sanctioned the Doctor who had not a word of Irish. The question of Irish should go before the electors at the next General Election and show whether they want Irish or not. They are forcing it on the people and it is a shame. It is a shame for a man going for agricultural instruction to be disqualified because he doesn't know Irish.

Secretary—When the Department wrote down here last year it was to know if we wanted to have Irish a compulsory subject and the committee said they did though the Department left it optional with them as to what they would do.

Chairman—This Committee approved of Irish being made a compulsory subject, and we can do nothing.

Mr. Stack—If I knew the names of the members who did it I would fire them all out. I was not present at the meeting, who proposed the resolution?

Secretary—Mr. Daly.

Mr. Stack—He won't be long on this committee I may tell you.

Mr. Greene—The Government are only applying the principle they have established about Irish.

Chairman—It is very hard lines on a boy like that who is highly qualified in every way to be turned down over Irish.

Mr. Greene—If they insist at headquarters what can we do.

Secretary—It was the Committee insisted.

Mr. Greene—What order can you make?

Chairman—You can make no order, as this committee made Irish compulsory.

The Committee approved of the granting of the two Scholarships to the boys recommended by the Department.

Scholarships For Girls

The Department wrote that at the examination for Scholarships for Girls held at Dungarvan on April 24th, the following were the candidate and the marks awarded:— Margaret M. Walsh, 84; Alice Meskill, 65; Lizzie McCarthy, 57; Nellie Power, 56; Ellen Croly, 48; Margaret Dooley, 33 (failed in Irish). The first four candidates on the list reached the necessary standard of qualification and the Department approve of the award of the available Scholarships to the first two of these candidates in order of merit viz., Miss Margaret M. Walsh, Bailice, Cappoquin, and Miss Alice Meskill, Dromore, Villierstown.

The Committee approved of granting Scholarships to the Girls above-mentioned.

A Grievance. Mr. P. J. Kiely, Ballyhane, wrote as follows:—I beg to inform you that I sent a cow to Mr. R. Phelan's Hereford Bull on 12 May, and he refused the service of this Bull. As I sold my bull I am anxious to know if I can get the service of this Hereford. My man had the necessary fee and also all my cows calved right.

It was ordered that the Secretary write to Mr. Phelan for his views on the matter.

Mountain Rams.

The Secretary said that 5 Blackfaced premiums rams of the number imported last Autumn had died before Xmas, and as the Committee had lost £5 on each or £25 in all he thought it would be a good thing if the committee had the rams insured for their share. Every year they lost a few rams.

Mr. Greene—Was it from neglect? Secretary—Oh, no. The owners insure for the amount they pay themselves. Ordered that the Committee to insure the rams henceforth.

Routine business having been transacted the meeting ended.

CIVIC GUARDS TRANSFERS.

SAVE EVERY CALF

Don't let Card and scour take the toll of your stock. You can rear every calf. Just give them a few doses of Cureox weekly for the first three months after birth. This has never been known to fail. Prevention is better than cure. Symptoms of Card in the stomach are—head drooping—and head staring, grinding teeth and stretching neck and body, sometimes scour with an offensive odour. Read what users say:—

"I tried a hundred remedies, but Cureox was the only cure. It never failed when used in time."—Charles M. C. Blaney, Carrick, Co. Downagh.

"I have used Cureox for over four years. It is the best remedy for scour I have ever known."—J. Buttner, Rathcoone.

"Your Cureox was excellent, and we have fine calves."—A. Mulcahy, Ballyglass House, Tipperary.

"Every time I use Cureox it seems to act like a charm."—T. Conery, Kilmilly, Youghal.

R. A. MILLER, Dungarvan.

Strange Co Waterford Larceny Case.

At Youghal District Court, (before Mr. J. S. Troy, D.J.), a young woman, named Mary Kenny, the Carrowgar-riffe, County Waterford, was charged by Supt. O'Shea, Dungarvan, with breaking into an outhouse adjoining the dwellinghouse of John Power, Lisaroe, Cappagh, and stealing therefrom a quantity of meat value £3, the property of the said John Power. She was also charged with having in her possession 2 1/2 lbs. of meat.

Alice Power, Lisaroe, sworn said she visited the storehouse at 7.30 a.m., on the 20th May. She first noticed a bicycle wrench in the frame of the door, which had been locked. An attempt had been made to force the door which was slightly damaged. The man handed witness a ladies umbrella, (produced), on the garden fence near the store they found a walking stick (produced), sometime after she went to the back of the store and found the wire netting torn off the window.

Mrs. Mary Power, mother of previous witness, said she visited the store on the day in question and saw the bicycle wrench stuck in the frame of the door. She had pickle in the tub, in which she put 2 killed pigs. She missed some of the meat on the day in question—about 3 cwt., value for about 50s. She saw the meat on the day before when getting it for the servant's dinner. It was all right then.

Sergt. O'Shea, Cappagh, said he made inquiries into the larceny in consequence of a complaint received. He visited the store-house and saw that the door was partly forced in and the wire netting taken from the window at the back. Alice Power, handed him the wrench, the umbrella and the stick. The wrench was familiar to him. By a turn in it he recognised it as being the one he used on a bicycle in Kenery's yard, when executing a warrant 12 days before. He broke one wrench on the occasion—he had no doubt that that was the wrench he found in the door.

The Supt. A good turn never goes astray (laughter).

Witness continuing said he found a woman's footprint near the store beyond the fence. He followed them 2 1/2 miles to within 300 yards of Kenery's. He searched Kenery's house. Accused's brother, Tom and a friend were at the fire. Witness told her he was inquiring into the larceny. There was a pot on the fire and he asked her what was in it, she replied "netties". He then asked her if there was anything with them and she said there was not. He said he would have a look and he took the pot off the fire and put it on the floor. In it was 2 1/2 lbs. of home cured bacon, (produced). He then asked her where she had got it and she said at the store at Cappagh from Miss Cunningham, for 1s. Witness got a pair of new shoes. They were very wet and full of grass. He compared them with the footprints on the road and they fitted. He made casts of them and they corresponded.

The Justice (to accused)—Do you plead guilty or not?—He can say what he likes.

Nellie Cunningham, Cappagh, said she worked at the Co-operative Store. They didn't sell home-cured bacon like that produced. She knew the accused.

The Justice—You wouldn't have sold her that kind of bacon?—No, we don't keep it. Accused sworn, said she was at home that night at 7.30, when her brother sent her to shop at Modeligo. She then went with a person to the cross, and waited for another till 9.30. She came away then and went to Modeligo about 10 o'clock or after. She met a friend who accompanied her home. About 12 o'clock he said he would go home, but came back in twenty minutes.

The Justice—At night?—Yes. Witness continuing said the man sat at the fire till morning, at 2 o'clock they had tea, she then went to bed and got up at 8.30. She had no more to say.

The Justice—You told the Sergt. there were netties in the pot?—Yes, for he took me by surprise, (laughter). I was only after taking off the netties five minutes before. And you say now it was in Modeligo you got the meat?—No, it was in Cappagh, 7 or 8 days before. Have you any witness?—They are not here now.

The Justice—What is the character of the defendant? Sergt. O'Shea—She was never convicted before—herself.

The Justice—I want her general character. The Supt.—The district will be well rid of her for a short time. Cappagh has been a quiet place, but recently a completely new party of Guards was in the barracks when this occurred.

The Justice—I may take it her character's not good. The Supt.—It is not. Accused was sent to jail for one month.

SHEEP DIPPING (IRELAND) ORDER OF 1915.

SHEEP OWNERS

are reminded that the above Order as amended by the Sheep Dipping (Ireland) Order of 1915, Amendment of 1924, requires this year—

(1) All sheep, except such as are specially exempted, to be dipped at least three times, i.e., once in the Summer Dipping Period (1st June to 31st July inclusive), and twice (with an interval of not less than 7 or more than 14 days) in the Autumn Dipping Period (1st August to 15th November inclusive);

(2) Five clear days' NOTICE TO BE GIVEN to the Garda Síochána or to the Local Authority as to the time of proposed dipping, except in cases where the dipping has to be carried out under Local Regulations at a specified time and place;

(3) All sheep moved to a Market, Fair, or Saleyard in the Free State (a) during the months of July and August, to be accompanied by a Declaration that they have been once dipped after 31st May;

(b) during the period from 1st September to 15th November by a Declaration that they have been twice dipped after 31st July;

(4) A Declaration by the occupier of every farm or holding on which sheep are kept to be furnished to the Garda Síochána or to the Local Authority during, or at the close of, each dipping period, to the effect that all the sheep on the farm or holding have been dipped during the dipping period in accordance with the Order. (N.B.—THIS REQUIREMENT DOES NOT APPLY WHERE THE DIPPING HAS BEEN DONE UNDER THE SUPERVISION OF AN OFFICER OF THE LOCAL AUTHORITY.)

Before dipping in the Summer Dipping Period all sheep, except lambs under nine months old, must be clipped. In both periods, dipped sheep must be kept apart from all others that have not been dipped. By "dipping" is meant thorough immersion in a Sheep Dip approved by the Department for Sheep eScab.

The Place used for dipping must be cleaned thoroughly without delay after each occasion of use; and all loose wool about the place must be gathered and disinfected or destroyed. If the dipping is carried out in the presence of an Inspector of the Local Authority, he will give a certificate to that effect.

Failure to comply with any provision of the Order entails serious penalty on prosecution. Sheep not dipped as required by the Order may be placed under severe restrictions.

A copy of the Order can be obtained on application to

THE SECRETARY, Department of Agriculture (Veterinary Branch), Dublin, C.17.

Forms for Use under the Order may be obtained at any Garda Barracks, or at the Office of the Local Authority, viz., County Council Offices, Dungarvan.

There are excellent out offices, comprising dairy, stabling, garage, gate-lodge, etc. There is a large walled-in garden, lawn of 5 acres and a tennis ground. A good trout stream runs through the grounds, which are situated in the centre of the West Waterford Hunt district. Good rough-shooting can be obtained in the locality, and salmon fishing in the river Blackwater. The Lands and House are held in fee-simple free of rent. The house and out-buildings are in splendid repair. Poor Law Valuation £149 10s. 0d. on lands and £33 0s. 0d. on buildings. For further particulars apply to: J. F. WILLIAMS AND SON, Solicitors, Dungarvan.

PROTECTION OF GAME. At the moment steps are being taken in Kilmathomas district with the object of the protection of game, under the Game Preservation Act of 1930. This praiseworthy object will gain the ready support of all true sportsmen throughout the area, and it is to be hoped that the landowners of these parts will wholeheartedly assist. The need for such an association should be apparent even to the least interested; for it is a well-known fact that partridges are almost as dead as the Dodo; grouse (for which the Comeragh Mountains were once famous), are almost extinct, and pheasants and hares also are fast disappearing from our midst.

LICENSED SIRE FOR 1931. CAPTAIN III. Captain III will stand this season at Owner's stables. Service Fee £2, and Grooms fee 2s. 6d. Not accountable for accidents. For further particulars apply to M. Nugent, Ballygreen.
