This great Annual Show was held in the Show Grounds, on Thursday, and was one of the most successful yet held. As predicted in these columns, the day was gloriously fine and warm, tempered with a gentle zephyr and from every point of view there was nothing to mar the excellence of a perfect day. The Shandon grounds so charmingly situated in sylvan scenery never looked more picturesque. The arrangements to the minutest detail were perfect and all visitors were highly pleased.

The several sections of the Show filled remarkably well. The big number of 153 horses and 105 cattle beat all previous records and beat them not only in quantity, but in quality. The three Classes for Hunters brought out some splendid animals which will take some beating wherever shown—the heavy weights over 13st., being an exceptionally fine turnout. The young horses were very promising; well-shaped and with plenty of bone. In this department a considerable improvement was noticed over past years, and the Judges had a very big task set them to decide the merits of each class. There was a very fine class for Polo Ponies, and in carrying off the red rosette, Mr. P. Walsh, Cappoquin, won a great victory with his handsome Gelding. The brood mare class filled well and were a very likely lot well calculated to produce high-class stock.

In the Cattle section all that was best in the dual purpose line was on exhibition. All the high-class Dairy Bulls introduced into the County in the past few years were shown, and were the admiration of everybody. The pedigree and non-pedigree Dairy Cows would have no equals at any provincial Show in Ireland and why not? The name and fame of the County Waterford dual purpose herds have long since won renown. And that the public highly appreciate such bovine displays was evident from the numbers who eagerly watched the proceedings in the Rings during Judging operations. The young cattle and calves too showed great promise and most of them will be heard of again. In the Sheep and Swine Sections, the Animals on Show were the very best. The Poultry, Eggs, Fruit, Vegetables, Flowers and Home Industries departments were splendidly supported in entries and great interest was taken in them by the Ladies.

The whole Show was of great educational value as showing the progress made in recent years in every department of practical agricultural utility, and that it is highly valued was shown by the enormous attendance present from every part of the County Waterford and outside it. As usual the whole work was excellently carried out by Mr. John Lynch, and the members of the Committee in toto.

The Presentation Convent, Lismore.
VISITED BY A DISTINGUISHED CHURCHMAN.

On Wednesday week the nuns of the Presentation Convent, Lismore, were honoured by a visit from a brilliant and distinguished Churchman, Right Rev. Monsignor John Maher, V.G., Salina, Kansas, who is at present home on a well-earned holiday in his native land.

Monsignor Maher, who is a native of Mallow, received his early education in the Christian Brothers Schools, Lismore, and all through the 23 years of his priesthood he has always displayed the kindest and most generous interest in the educational development of the town where his boyhood days were spent. About six years ago when home on one of his frequent visits to Ireland he purchased for the community of the Presentation Convent, Lismore, the splendid building beside the Convent Schools which had formerly been used as a Protestant College and generously equipped it as a Secondary School for them, and the building is now named the "Maher Memorial School" in honour of its kind and generous donor.

The acquisition of this fine School proved a great boon to the nuns whose teaching accommodation had previously been rather restricted, and as a result of the increased teaching facilities thus provided the pupils of the Presentation Convent have been scoring in creased successes and honours in the Intermediate and Musical examinations for several years past. Naturally the Rev. Mother Brendan and all the members of the Presentation Community feel under a deep debt of gratitude to Monsignor Maher for this great munificence towards them, and the visit of their kind benefactor and friend on this occasion was a source of the greatest pleasure to them all.

Monsignor Maher was accompanied by his sister Mrs. Ivers, and his brother-in-law, Mr. J. Ivers, and other members of the family, while the Very Rev. Wm. Canon Burke, P.P., V.F., Lismore, the Very Rev. F. C. Prendergast, P.P., Tallow, Rev. James Walsh, C.C., Lismore, and Rev. Thos. O'Gorman, C.C., do.; as well as the four following newly-ordained priests, Rev. Bernard Mangan, Rev. Daniel O'Byrne, Rev. John O'Donnell, and Rev. Jas. Walsh, were present to join with the nuns in extending a most cordial welcome to this distinguished visitor.

After Mass, Monsignor Maher first visited the Infant School and expressed himself as greatly pleased with the reception accorded him by the pupils. A varied and attractive programme of vocal and instrumental items was afterwards presented by the pupils in St. Bruno's Hall, the following brief address to the Monsignor being read by Miss Marjory Rice, Lismore.

"To Our Reverend Benefactor and Friend, Right Reverend Monsignor John Maher, V.G., Salina, Kansas.

"A welcome to the dear old land.
"A burning welcome here.
"Thank God who sends you back to bless,
"The closing of our year.
"If prayers have wings, 'tis said they have,
"A thousand flights a day,
"Our best friend-off to plead for you,
"Fond friend-so far away.
"Soggar Aroon, 'twas you who gave,
"These Halls to Faith's true light,
"You fanned the flame that must not dim,
"Must burn pure and bright,
"Must spread the glow of prayer and hope,
"Of love and learning true,
"Oh, be the Giver of all good gifts,
"Most bountiful to you."

The Concert programme was as follows, the accompaniment being brilliantly played by Miss Eileen O'Connor, and Miss Myra Kelly, Lismore.

Piano Trio "Marche aux Flambeaux"
Three Part Round "Welcome"
Piano Duet, "Warblings at Eve"; Chorus (two parts), "Maidsen's mbara, Dance Hornpipe; Solo and Chorus "My Land," Piano Duet "Sleigh Bells," Song "Avourneen," Dance Jug; Chorus (two parts) "Tir na h-Oge," Piano Solo "Memories of a Pipit," Vocal Duet "A Spray of Shamrock from Lismore," Piano Duet "Ireland," Vocal Trio "Crucua na h-Eireann," Piano Duet "Last Rose of Summer," Dance "Rocky Road," Solo and Chorus "Adeu," Piano Solo "Home, Sweet Home," Chorus "Hail to Our Pontiff."

At the conclusion of the Concert, Monsignor Maher warmly complimented the pupils who had taken part on the perfection of their performance, every item which he considered perfect and had greatly enjoyed.

He paid a high tribute to the teachers in the schools for the great proficiency displayed by their pupils, and complimented the Very Rev. Canon Burke on his good fortune in being the guide, philosopher and friend of such ideal parishioners who were a credit to him and also to the town of St. Carthage. He also thanked Canon Burke for honouring him by his presence there that day and exhorted the pupils to live faithfully up to the teachings of the good nuns so that they would always prove themselves to be true children of Bridget and Ita. He strongly advised the girls to live at home in Holy Ireland where the practice of their holy religion was such an easy matter, and appealed to them never to emigrate if possible, with a view to settling down in a foreign land where the foundations of their Catholic faith would be exposed to many pitfalls and dangers.

Very Rev. Canon Burke, in the course of an eloquent address, thanked Monsignor Maher for having honoured Lismore by his visit that day, and also for his great munificence in helping the cause of education in the town. He said that not only had the Monsignor kindly purchased and equipped a High School for the Nuns of the Presentation Convent, but he had also given generous assistance to another religious establishment at the other end of the town and eulogised the great munificence of the Monsignor as it had appeared in the past, as it would appear in the present and as it would appear in future generations of pupils in Lismore. (Applause.)

At the conclusion of the happy celebrations Monsignor Maher and party visited the various class-rooms of the "Maher Memorial Schools," and he expressed himself as delighted with their perfect and up-to-date equipment in every respect.

On Friday night they returned to the Convent where they were cordially received by the Rev. Mother and all the members of the community.

Contractors' Grievance.
Mr. M. Cowman, New Line, wrote asking the Council for £2 balance which he holds is due to him in connection with the clearing of the Water Main at New Line.

B.S.—His claim is that the distance is much longer than what I got. I must measure it with him.

Mr. Griffin—He is now 3 weeks waiting and it is not right to be keeping him out of his money if it is due. He asked if payment could be passed and let the B.S. measure the distance in the morning.

Chairman—Payment could not be passed without a certificate from the B.S.

Acknowledgments.
Letters thanking the Council for resolutions of sympathy passed to them were read from Messrs. M. Clancy, U.D.C., Jas. Clancy, and Thos. Clancy, on the occasion of the death of their mother.

Income Tax.
The Council decided to pay the sum of £34 19s. income tax assessed on appeal. Messrs. McGuinness and Co., Cork, Auditors, who represented the Council at the appeal recommended the payment.

Councils Or Manager's.
A resolution from the Sligo County Council was read and adopted. The resolution disapproved of and entered the strongest protest against the proposed legislation cutting down the popular public representatives of the people.

King St. Sewerage.
A letter was read from Mr. Keohan, landlord of houses in King St., stating it would be impossible to drain all the houses.

B.S.—I met Mr. Keohan by appointment. He was of opinion that two or perhaps three houses could be drained into Sarsfield St.

Mr. Griffin asked if that meant that the stagnant water etc. would be allowed to remain in the other yards.

Chairman—There are many houses in the town in a similar position. It would require a new sewerage scheme. A member—You can't drain houses against a hill.

The matter was left to the B.S., to see that all the houses that could be drained would be done.

Repairs To Ranges.
Mr. P. O'Brien, St. Garvan's Terrace wrote stating that he was very much annoyed that his range ordered to be repaired eight weeks ago was not yet done.

The letter was referred to the B.S., who promised to get the work done at once.

Speed Limit.
A letter was read from the L.G.D. with reference to the resolution of the Council fixing a speed limit of 10 m. p.h., for motors passing through the Urban Area. The letter asked if the Council had sought the co-operation of the Civic Guards.

The letter was left to the Clerk to reply to.

Fountain Needed.
Mr. Hackett referred to the necessity for a fountain in Strand St.

The S.S.O. said there was a fountain there, but it was removed at the request of some of the residents.

Show Day.
Mr. Hackett, referred to the Shandon Road and suggested that if the weather holds dry the road should be sprinkled with water on Thursday morning for the Show.

B.S.—I had men on the road this week in anticipation of the Show.

The matter was left to the discretion of the B.S.

Sunday Scavenging.
The S.S.O. reported that the scavenger was not carrying out his duties on Sunday mornings, as he did not bring out the horse to remove the refuse, only swept it into heaps.

After a discussion, Egan the scavenger, was called before the meeting.

The Chairman remarked that the Council were very dissatisfied with the state of affairs as reported. Before you discontinued you had a right to acquaint the Council.

Egan—I did not discontinue. I am out every Sunday morning without the horse, during the wet weather there was nothing worth while to take.

Mr. Lawn suggested working later on Saturday night and notifying the people of the change.

The suggestion was approved of and was to be tried for a few weeks.

Milk Purveyors.
A report was read from Mr. Byrne, V.S. Inspector under the Dairies and Cowsheds Order. The report recommended various improvements in the premises of some milk purveyors.

The Clerk in reply to Mr. Moloney, said he had only received three of four applications for registration from milk purveyors in the town.

Mr. Lawn—Has Mr. Byrne power to deal with cases without permission from the Council.

Clerk—I do not think so.
Mr. Keane—If Mr. Byrne find that milk suppliers do not carry out his recommendations what is he to do. He has stated repeatedly in reports that conditions in some cases fall short of requirements and if he has not power to enforce the regulations it is useless to have him going around.

Clerk—Mr. Byrne is inclined to think that he must be fortified by an order of the Council before he can take action. The Council unanimously made an order granting permission to Mr. Byrne to get his recommendations carried out.

Side Cleaning Roads.
On the suggestion of Mr. Moloney, the Council directed the B.S., to have the road from Abbeyside Chapel to Lands End and from Nugent's Cross to New Line side cleaned during the week.

Sand From Foreshore.
Sergt. Shea, wrote stating that on June 25th Guard Regan found Patk. Moylan, Buttery St., removing sand from the foreshore at Abbeyside.

The Council referred the letter to Mr. Moloney, as the place specified is under his jurisdiction.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY BERGIN, RING.

The death occurred on Sunday night of Mrs. Mary Bergin, Publican, and General Merchant, Ring, Dungarvan. The late Mrs. Bergin, who had reached an advanced age was one of Ring's best-known residents. She was a most respectable business woman, and was endowed with remarkable gifts of intellect and a keen and subtle interest that gave her an outstanding position in the district. Her unique gift of strikingly picturesque speech in Irish made her a popular and respected figure with visitors to Ring district, who will miss her familiar figure, her warm welcome and her ever remembered keen wit and humour. There was an extremely large attendance at the removal of the remains to Ring Catholic Church on Monday evening and at the interment on Tuesday morning at Ring after Requiem Mass.

J. H. O'SULLIVAN, Secretary, County Council of Waterford, Dungarvan, 13th July, 1931.

COUNTY COUNCIL OF WATERFORD.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT 1925, SECTION 25 (1) AND (2).

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the County Council of Waterford will, at their Quarterly Meeting to be held in the Court House, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, the 18th day of August, 1931, consider the passing of a Resolution, declaring that 139 perches of the road leading from stream at Knockanaffrin to Mrs. Whelan's gate (Towland of Knockanaffrin) be a public road.

J. H. O'SULLIVAN, Secretary, County Council of Waterford, County Secretary's Office, Dungarvan, 13th July, 1931.

Youghal Urban Council.

Present Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Chairman; Mrs. S. Hurley, P.C.; Capt. Dunne, Messrs. E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman; D. Dennehy, D. J. Linehan, J. Whelan, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; T. Harrington, T. Beausang, A. J. Powkes, M. D. Broderick, T. Murphy.

Vet. Insp. Salary.
A letter was read from the L.G.D., stating that in view of the report received from Dr. Condy Co. M.O.H. as to the manner in which the Vet. Inspector, had discharged his duties, the Minister approved of the proposed increase in his salary.

The following letter was received from Messrs. J. Hodnett and Son—The Council v. M. Barrett—This appeal was heard at the Circuit Court here on the 6th inst, the decision of the District Court declaring the structure to be a temporary one to which provisions of the Public Health Acts Amendment Act, 1907, applied was reversed by the Circuit Court with costs against the Council. There is no appeal from the decision of the Circuit Court. Now that these cases (Barrett's and Fitzgerald's) are finally disposed of, we think it, right, in justice to ourselves, to refer to our letter to you of 1st May 1930. Though our advice was at the time not followed, events have proved how completely right we were in our view of the law.

The Chairman—That is quite true.
Mr. O'Gorman—What is it going to cost us?

The Clerk—About £20.

Strand Improvements.
A letter was read from the Strand Protection and Development Association asking the Council to approach the County Council with a view to having the road from Moll Goggin's Corner to the Strand repaired, as they would have all the equipment needed while they were doing the Main Road. Also to improve the passage from one County to another. (laughter) opposite the Strand P.O.

Mr. Harrington—What are they talking about?
Mr. McMahon said the passage in question was private property. They had nothing to say to it.

The Chairman said the first matter could be referred to the Council.

Sympathy.
Mr. Beausang proposed a vote of sympathy, with Sister M. Mercy O'Keefe, Cork, on the death of her brother Gerald.

Mr. Lynch, seconded.
Capt. Dunne said they all joined in that.

The Chairman said he was intimately acquainted with the late Mr. O'Keefe for the past 35 years. He was a most cultured person and a great historian—though most unassuming—and they all sincerely sympathised with the family.

Mrs. Hurley and others having associated themselves with the proposition, it was duly passed.

Solicitors Letter.
Messrs. McCarthy, Hanrahan and Moloney, Solrs., Cork, wrote stating they had been consulted by Miss Maude Moloney, The Strand, Youghal re a serious fall occasioned her in Friar St., Youghal, whereby she received to hand and shoulder causing great pain, shock and the result of her injury was at present unknown. The fall was occasioned on the broken footpath in Friar St., at a building in front of which there was at present erected a hoarding and scaffolding, and she was thrown against a barrel in which one of the scaffolding poles was set, or which was protruding from the hoarding. They asked if the Council would admit liability for damage and pay reasonable compensation.

Mr. McMahon—There now for you. Was I right about the hoarding? Send the letter to your solicitor.

The Clerk—This is not your liability. Neither the road or the pathway is yours.

Mr. McMahon said it was not fair to have allowed that hoarding there so long. If it was some other contractor it would have been removed long ago.

Mr. Broderick said that contractors putting up hoardings should be called on to indemnify the Council against accidents before giving permission.

Mr. McMahon said that Messrs. Murray didn't ask for permission at all, nor did they submit the plans of the houses to the Council.

The Clerk said they were not new houses—only alterations.

Mr. Lynch said the contractors got notice to remove the hoardings. That cleared the Council. He saw a workman getting a fall in the same place a few days ago.

Mr. McMahon said some people were flouting the Council as they liked and it should not be permitted. One lady got leave to put in a half-inch water connection and she put in a three-quarter inch. Another put up poles in Claycastle and embedded them in concrete without asking the Council. No other public body would allow those things.

The Clerk said he had written to Messrs. Murray on June 19th and again on June 26th, calling on them to remove the hoarding.

Mr. Broderick agreed with Mr. McMahon. They were being walked on by everybody.

Mr. McMahon—We won't have it any longer. I will move that Mrs. Hughes be called on to remove those poles and that, if Messrs. Murray didn't remove the hoarding within 7 days, they be prosecuted.

The Clerk said he had a letter from the contractors last week stating that they would remove the hoardings.

Mr. Dennehy said he thought that

Messrs. Murray were entitled to some concession. They had many contracts in hands, and were giving good employment.

Mr. McMahon—They are being paid for their work.
It was unanimously decided to notify the contractors that if they didn't obey the Council's order, prosecutions would be instituted.

Aeroplanes For Strand.

A letter was read from the Iona National Airways Ltd., addressed to the Chairman as follows:—In connection with our conversation, I beg to apply for permission for the use of the Strand for Joy-Riding and Instruction work. Will you please inform me as soon as possible if everything is in order.

Mr. McMahon—Let them come on.
The Chairman—You want to be very careful in a matter of this kind.

It was decided to get the opinion of their legal advisers as to the Council's liability, and if it was favourable to grant the application.

Judge's Joke Resented.

Mr. McMahon called attention to the remark of Judge Kenny at the Circuit Court, comparing the Council with Rip Van Winkle. They were no Rip Van Winkles, and strangers from all parts, including the United States and Australia had over and over again complimented them on the splendid condition in which the town was kept. Where did Rip Van Winkle come in? They were not going to lie under such a taunt, even from a High Court Judge. There wasn't much of the Rip Van Winkle about his Lordship when he was getting his term of office extended.

Mr. Dennehy said the Council's action was justified by an able lawyer, the District Justice and there was no justification for Judge Kenny in using the remark he did. Cheapsneers at Corporations and Councils could be safely made for as Daniel O'Connell had said they had neither a soul to save nor a body to beat. He suggested that they should enter a protest against his Lordship's remark.

Mr. Lynch agreed with Mr. McMahon's remarks.

Mr. McMahon—Propose it.
Mr. Dennehy then proposed, and Mr. McMahon, seconded a resolution of protest.

Mr. O'Gorman proposed that the Council take no action in the matter.
Mr. Broderick, seconded. It was simply ridiculous in the circumstances.

Mr. Harrington said there was no necessity for that amendment. It didn't behove any judge to ridicule a public body.

The Clerk said it was not so long ago since Judge Kenny paid a very fine tribute to the Council. He didn't believe that Judge Kenny had the slightest intention of reflecting on that Council, though he might have had a quiet dig at some of their predecessors.

The Chairman—That is my interpretation also.
Mr. O'Gorman said they were taking for too much notice of a jocular remark of the kind. It was really not worth commenting on.

Mr. Broderick said they were only making laughing stocks of themselves by such a ridiculous proposition. Some of them seemed to be very thin skinned indeed.

On a poll being taken, there voted for amendment—Capt. Dunne, Messrs. Fowkes, O'Gorman, Linehan, Broderick, and the Chairman—6.

Against—Mrs. Hurley, Messrs. Harrington, Murphy, McMahon, Whelan, Beausang, Lynch, and Dennehy—5.

The proposition was therefore carried.

Ambulance For Youghal.

Mrs. Hurley asked what about the ambulance they had been so long talking about. Why not get it?

The Clerk—Where will you get it?

Mrs. Hurley—What are we paying rates for?

The Clerk—They dare not buy it.

Mrs. Hurley—Why not demand it—it is very badly wanted. There was an accident recently in the adjoining Co. Waterford, and a country car had to be commandeered to bring a badly injured man to the town. He was brought first to the Dr. then to the barracks and finally to the hospital. The poor fellow must have suffered dreadful tortures.

Mr. Whelan said the cost of an ambulance would be a county-at-large charge and would be a mere trifle.

The Clerk said the same thing applied to every other town in the County.

Mr. Broderick said there was an ambulance in the city available if required by telephone.

Mr. Fowkes said it would take some time to get the ambulance from Cork and the injured person might succumb before it arrived.

The Chairman—It is not civilization.
Mr. Beausang said the ambulance might be away in Bandon, or farther off and where would they be then?

Mr. Lynch said that last evening a poor man was ordered to the hospital. He could not be put in a motor car. They then had to get a stretcher and send for the old horse ambulance which was a proper disgrace—dirty and falling asunder.

The Chairman—It is a disgrace to civilization.

Mrs. Hurley said quite lately their colleague, Mr. Murphy had to throw all his goods out of his lorry to take up an injured man.

Mr. Harrington said a lorry was in no way fit for such a purpose. They should therefore do everything possible to impress on the Board of Health the great necessity of a proper ambulance.

Mr. Fowkes said that Youghal could not be compared to other towns on that business. It was one of the most important Co. towns and all through the summer season there was a big influx to the seaside.

Finally a deputation consisting of Mrs. Hurley and Messrs. Fowkes, Harrington and Dennehy were appointed to wait on the County Board of Health to press for a local ambulance.

Prosecutions Ordered.
The Strand Caretaker, reported that a man named Harris had removed gravel from the Strand 100 yards west of the gap, also that a man from the city was found bathing without proper apparel. (laughter)

Mr. Broderick said that was no laughing matter, but one that should not be overlooked. He proposed that prosecutions be instituted in both cases.

This was seconded by Mr. McMahon and passed unanimously.

Motor Traffic.
The Chairman said their streets were very narrow for motor traffic and it was their duty to take every precaution against accidents. Notices should be put up at all important points, especially at both entrances to the town. Capt. Dunne said that no cars should be allowed park on Sunday's on the Main Street, near the Post Office at Mass time. It was very dangerous.

Mr. Broderick agreed with Capt. Dunne; it should not be permitted.

Mr. Beausang—What is the speed limit?
The Clerk said there was no definite limit.

The Chairman—The definition is driving to the danger of the public.
Mr. McMahon said it would be all right till they had a serious accident. On that day a motor car wanted to push through a funeral.

The Clerk—He did push through.
Mr. Lynch—That motorist whoever he was might show some respect to the dead and the mourners. He saw one flying through Friar St., like the wind.

Mr. McMahon—Write to the Guards again.

Mr. Dennehy said it was strange that when the Strand was crowded with thousands on Sunday's, some motorists avoided the splendid road from Moll Goggin's to Summerfield Cross and then down to the beach, and forced their way through the crowds on the narrow Strand Road. They had a serious accident there recently. He complimented the Guards on the able, courteous and patient manner in which they handled the Sunday traffic, but they should get more assistance from the motorists.

The Chairman said the Town Clerk and he would see what was best to be done.

This was agreed to.

Fatal Road Smash.

PONY AND TRAP RUN INTO BY LORRY. DAMAGES AWARDED.

Before Judge Kenny, at the Youghal sitting of the Cork Circuit Court.

O'Donoghue v. Martin and Blackwood, Ltd.

This was a series of actions arising out of a collision between a pony and trap and a motor lorry, the property of defendants, as a result of which Patk. O'Donoghue, Ballykenilly, Ballymacoda, lost his life.

Mr. J. J. Kavanagh, (instructed by Messrs. Hodnett and Sons, Solrs., Youghal), for plaintiffs; and Mr. G. Daly, (instructed by Messrs. J. M. Keane and Sons, Solrs., Youghal), for defendants.

Mr. Kavanagh said there was three separate civil bills, there being three plaintiffs—Michael O'Donoghue, who claimed £300 as administrator of the deceased; Margaret, his widow, claiming £300, and Michael O'Donoghue claiming £50 for the loss of the pony and damage to the trap etc.—all of whom had suffered damage by the negligence of defendants' agent in driving a lorry on 8th January, 1931. Deceased was injured, and he died on 12 January, 1931. The widow received injuries to her wrist and side, the pony had to be killed, and the trap was damaged.

Mrs. O'Donoghue described the incidents leading up to the collision. Her husband had a few drinks in Youghal that day, but was perfectly sober. Herself and her husband were taken to Youghal Cottage Hospital and attended by Dr. Kennedy. She was active prior to the accident, but was not able to work since. She was injured on the wrist, side, and knee.

Cross-examined—Her husband was 72 years of age. He had about three drinks during the day. His cousin Jas. O'Donoghue, came with them in the trap as his bicycle went wrong. He sat behind her husband in the trap. She never swore she sat on the same side of the trap as her nephew.

His Lordship—She did, but she corrected it. She saw the bright lights of the lorry coming towards them. There was a little fog on, but no haze. They were on their own side of the road—about 3 feet from the grass margin. She shouted to her husband that there was a lorry coming, and he said it was all right—that they were on their own side. He wasn't partly asleep—he was smoking. She did not see her nephew plunge forward to seize the reins.

James O'Donoghue, insurance agent, second cousin of the deceased, said he went in the trap for the comfort of the drive. The night was dark, but there was no fog at the time. They were on their right side of the road when the lorry crashed into them.

Mr. Daly, for the defendants, submitted there was contributory negligence on the part of the plaintiffs. He referred to decided cases to show the defendant's driver was quite entitled to pull into his wrong side of the road in order to avoid a head-on collision. His second defence would be that Lynch, the driver, had no authority, express or implied, from defendants to drive the lorry. He was employed solely as a travelling salesman. It was Twomey who was employed to drive the lorry, and he had no authority to give the wheel to Lynch. Lynch was, therefore, acting outside the scope of his employment, and his employers could not be made liable for his negligence, if any.

Dr. Cagney, stated he had examined Mrs. O'Donoghue, and found her to be now quite recovered from all effects of the accident. She still suffered from natural grief after the death of her husband.

Dr. Healy, valued the pony at £7.

Mr. R. B. Martin, managing director of the defendants' Company, said he engaged Lynch about three years ago as travelling salesman, whose duties were to travel into the county, sell goods, and take orders. He never gave Lynch any authority, either express or implied, to drive the lorry, and he never knew until after the accident that Lynch had driven. Twomey was the driver of the lorry. Twomey had no authority to give Lynch the wheel.

Jerh. Twomey said that on the day of the accident he and Lynch went into the country for orders. On the way home Lynch took the wheel at Ladysbridge. Approaching the scene of the accident they were travelling at about eighteen miles an hour. The night was foggy. The accident was practically in the middle of the road. The pony and the trap was at its wrong side of the road. Lynch had to pull to his wrong side in order to avoid a head-on collision. At the time the pony was also pulled to the left.

Cross-examined, witness said that Lynch very often, took the wheel. He had no authority from the defendants to allow Lynch take the wheel. He was employed to drive the lorry and Lynch's duties were to see goods and take orders.

Patrick Lynch, who drove the lorry, said there was a dense fog. He could not see any light on it until it was 12 or fifteen yards off. He thought he would have time to get out, but it did not take many seconds until the collision occurred. He applied the brakes immediately but the pony came into contact. Witness had turned to the right-hand side and those in the pony and trap twisted it to its left. He could not have done anything else. The occupants of the trap were all thrown on the road. Jas. O'Donoghue asked was the car insured, and said if he had not the reins the accident would not have happened. It was not true to say that the lorry continued its speed. If it did it would have gone over the pony.

Cross-examined—Did you hear Twomey swear that the speed of the lorry was about twenty miles?—Approximately.

In a dense fog was that a prudent speed?—The fog was not dense until we got into it. He was licensed to drive and he satisfied Twomey that he was able to manage the car.

Bernard Jennings said the lorry was not going very fast. The night dark and when he approached he couldn't see what was there at all. Lynch sent him for the priest. It was foggy.

His Lordship—I have no doubt about the case.

Mr. Daly said on the question of means he would like to call the Old Age Pensions Officer.

His Lordship—That would not help me. The man may have made a false statement.

Ultimately Mr. P. J. Hurley, pensions officer, was sworn and said the deceased had completed papers for the old age pension. His authorities regarded the information in them as confidential and directed him to comply with his lordship's instructions.

His Lordship—I think it is confidential.

Mr. Daly argued that it was material in the interests of justice that the statement made by the deceased should be disclosed. It was an estoppel against deceased and his representatives.

The Court allowed witness to give evidence.

Mr. Hurley said he recommended a pension one day, and the man died some days after.

Mr. Daly—If you recommend the granting of a pension, does it become automatic to grant it?

His Lordship—Not at all. As regards the statement, I don't believe what he said is true. There is evidence that he had £250 in bank.

Mr. Daly said his representative was bound by it.

His Lordship—Give the document now.

Mr. Hurley, then read from the statement, in which deceased said he was dependent on the produce of a small farm, and had no other means. He paid rent for his house.

Mr. Daly—Did you recommend a pension on that statement?—Not on that I made my own investigations.

As a result of the investigations did you return him as entitled to a pension?—I did.

MORE MONEY from Pigs

Here is the experience of a farmer from Ennistymon, Co. Cork—"I feed about 10 pigs and during the last 3 months I have given them a penny packet of Porceline 3 times a week. The result has been a great surprise to me. I have never had a sick pig or a pig that I suspected of having worms during the whole 3 months. That is good, enough—but the best of all is that I have all my pigs fattened 2 weeks earlier than I was able to do before, even though I used other makes of pig powder. The results of a regular dose of Porceline are marvellous. If every reader for 1/- Try a 1/6 tin (400 doses) from Chemists and local dealers."

Licensing Case.
Mrs. Hannah Meagher, S. M. St., was charged with a breach of the Licensing Act, on the 29th ult.
Supt. Dennehy, Middleton, prosecuted and Mr. Wm. Hodnett, solr., defended.

Guard O'Connor, stated that at about 2.5 a.m., while on duty with Guard Tolster, he noticed the door of the licensed premises open and Mrs. Meagher came to the door with two men behind her, in the act of letting them out. Witness and the other Guard walked across the road and when she saw them she closed the door. Witness knocked and the men retreated through the bar into the kitchen. After two or three minutes delay, Mrs. Meagher opened the door. Witness asked where were the two men and she said in the kitchen. She said they were invited guests. The men said the same. There was a glass with port wine in it on the bar counter and there was a half of whiskey opposite one of the men in the kitchen. The other men had no drinks. As witness approached the premises Mrs. Meagher said "Here are two Guards, we're caught."

To the Court—Two of the men in the kitchen were from the town, the other was from Blarney and showed his railway ticket. His name was Cullinane and was brother-in-law of the licensee. Cross-examined, witness said he examined the house twice previously and found nothing wrong. The kitchen was behind the bar with a passage between. The light from the kitchen shone into the bar. He had heard that one of the men summoned was the means of having Mrs. Meagher buy the place and the other was his brother-in-law. Cullinane, the publican's brother-in-law wasn't summoned. Guard Tolster, corroborated.

Mrs. Meagher stated she bought those premises a few months ago, paying a big sum for them. She spent a considerable sum on improvements. It was not on the recommendation of one of the men found on the premises—who was an old friend of hers that she purchased the license. On the previous day she had invited him and his brother-in-law to the house to meet her brother-in-law who was coming to Youghal that day. They came in the evening her friend bringing his wife. They had tea and a few drinks which she stood in the sitting-room upstairs. When her friends wife left at 12 o'clock, they all came down to the kitchen, where they had one drink and remained chatting till the Guards came. One had ginger wine, one stout and the whiskey was for Chas. Cullinane. There was no drink whatsoever in the bar, and no light there. Drink was never sold in the kitchen, which was their living room.

To the Court—They passed through the bar, then through the passage and into the kitchen. They didn't look at the bar at all. The light from the kitchen would not show on the counter in the bar. She did not say "Here are two Guards, we're caught," or anything of the kind. When she heard the knock she went to the door, asked who was there and on receiving the answer "Guards" she opened the door immediately. She told the Guards there was nobody, but invited guests on the premises. Cross-examined by the Supt.—Do you say the story of the Guards is pure fabrication?—It didn't happen. Can you suggest why the Guards should come here and swear it?—No, they were quite friendly. There was no glass of wine on the counter. She had invited the parties to meet her brother-in-law at her place. The half whiskey was for him. The Justice—Who was standing this treat?—I was, through Chas. Cullinane being my brother-in-law. Were they intended to be paid for in any way?—Oh, no. Chas. Cullinane stated he visited Youghal on Sunday 29th, June, having previously notified his sister-in-law. He first went to her place and after that to the other defendants who were friends of his.

He then gave detailed evidence corroborating that of the previous witness, and was cross-examined at length by the Supt.

Miss Foran, the barmaid, and others having been examined, Guard O'Connor was recalled by the Court. The Justice—About this glass of wine—did you take it in your hand?—No, but I saw it distinctly, it was an ordinary small wine glass.

The Justice said if the defendant had committed an offence so early in her career, she was commencing very badly. In arriving at what he ought do, he was trying in a sense to reconcile the irreconcilable. They had 15 witnesses for the defence, not content with denying that any drink was paid for, but all contradicted the evidence of the Guards. He didn't attach much importance to the wine glass business. The Guard might have been mistaken about that, but not as to what they both saw in the street. He hadn't the slightest doubt that the Guards saw what they said they saw. Should he then reject the evidence for the defence altogether?—If there was one thing more than another that made him suspicious it was the extraordinary multiplicity and the concentration upon detail—all cast doubt upon the story. The witness might perhaps have suffered from the lapse of memory or shock. Was he to conflict two peace officers, whose duty it was to be fair to everybody of manufacturing the evidence. Turning to the other part of the case, it was possible, but hardly likely that a person making a living on that way should commence by giving it away for nothing. He thought that was a case where that young woman, very nervous, had those people there, and it was quite possible that she still thought she was committing some sort of offence, having them there that late hour. He held that while all the Guards saw they truthfully described and that the publican was quite properly brought before him, he was taking an exceptional course in view of her recent accession to the ranks of publicans, and on account of her want of experience. On the whole then though some of the witnesses proved too much, and therefore proved nothing, he would give her the benefit of the doubt and dismiss all the cases.

Waterford County Board of Public Assistance

The Annual Meeting of the Waterford Co. Board of Public Assistance was held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Wednesday, Mr. J. O'Donnell, outgoing Chairman, presided. The other members present were—Messrs. J. O'Donnell, (outgoing) and Mr. T. D. Connolly, were nominated.

A vote was taken and resulted as follows:—For Mr. Connolly—Messrs. Dunne, Caulfield, Brett, Cosgrave, Curran, and Connolly (6). For Mr. O'Donnell—Messrs. O'Donovan, Heskin, Coughlan, and O'Donnell (4).

Mr. Connolly then took the Chair and returned thanks for his election, referred to the cordial relations between the members of the Board during the past 3 years, which he hoped would continue during his term as Chairman.

Vice-Chairman.

For the position of Vice-Chairman, Mr. Connolly, proposed Mr. Curran, Mr. Dunne, seconded.

Mr. O'Donnell, proposed Mr. D. Coughlan, Mr. Heskin, seconded. The vote resulted as follows:—For Mr. Coughlan—Messrs. O'Donnell, O'Donovan, Stack, Heskin and Coughlan, (5). For Mr. Curran—Messrs. Dunne, Caulfield, Brett, Cosgrave, Curran, and Chairman, (6). Mr. Curran returned thanks for his election.

Home Assistance.

The Secretary stated the amount of Home Assistance paid out during the month was £1893 4s. 8d., the previous month the amount was £1915 4s. 7d., and the corresponding period last year £1714 14s. 0d.

Co. Home Sewerage.

Mr. Spreadborough, Engineer, (as requested at the last meeting submitted a revised estimate of the cost of a piped sewer from the Co. Home to the Strand at Youghal Road. The estimate for a 12-inch pipe with manholes and covers etc., to be discharged outside the sea wall was £730 to £820.

Mr. Dunne—How does it compare with the previous estimate.

Mr. Butler—It is a reduction of about £1,000.

Secretary—The other estimates allowed for the sewerage to be brought out to low water mark, the amount was £1,700.

Mr. Butler—I don't think a 12-inch pipe would be required. The work is very necessary, the place which is a favourite walk, is a disgrace at present, the stuff is actually oozing out on the road. The money would be well spent. Secretary—You will have the stuff on the foreshore then and it will be objectionable there, that is the reason the Engineer does not approve of it. Mr. Butler—You will have two tides a day coming up there. The Board approved of the work being carried out.

Increase Of Salary.
The adjourned application of Thos. Murray, Ambulance driver, Co. Home, Dungarvan, for an increase of salary, was next considered.

Mr. Heskin—What is his present salary.

Secretary—£150 a year. Mr. Curran, said that owing to the much increased duties of the Ambulance driver he proposed that the salary be increased to £176.

Mr. Butler—The Ambulance driver for Dungarvan is the driver for the whole County. He is the driver for the County Home, and for the Dungarvan Youghal and Waterford Hospitals.

Mr. Stack—He has a good salary at present.

Secretary in reply to Mr. Heskin, said he was a very capable driver.

Mr. Caulfield—We gave the Waterford driver an increase to £168. They were both whole-time officers who were always on the job. He would propose that an increase to £168 be given to Murray, the same as the Waterford man.

Chairman—Will Mr. Curran agree to that.

Mr. Cosgrave—Let us be unanimous on £168.

Mr. Curran then withdrew his proposition.

Chairman—I will now make an order unanimously granting £168.

Mr. Stack—What is that you say, Chairman—We have unanimously granted £168.

Mr. Stack—No, I dissent from that.

Lismore Dispensary.

The Board directed Mr. Spreadborough, Engineer, to report the estimated cost of providing a new sink at the Lismore dispensary.

Co. Home And Hospital Committees. Mr. O'Donovan, raised the question of new members for the Co. Home and Co. Hospitals Committees and on the Chairman's suggestion the matter was ordered to be put on the agenda for next meeting.

Sympathy.

Mr. Heskin, proposed and Mr. Stack seconded a resolution expressing sincere sympathy on the death of the Lord Abbot of Mount Melleray, Dr. Maurus O'Phelan.

The Chairman in putting the resolution said the death of the Lord Abbot would be regretted by everyone in the County and City and far outside it.

Mr. Brett, in associating himself with the resolution, referred to the death of the Lord Abbot whom he had known since he left the cradle, as a great Ecclesiastical and National loss.

The resolution was then passed in silence all present standing.

GOOD NEWS FOR LADIES AND BAD FOR BACHELORS.

The County Board of Public Health, at their meeting last Saturday, ordered the rent collectors to prepare a list of all the tenants of cottages who are unmarried in the County. The intention is to notify them that unless they marry they must clear out and make room for married labourers who have no home to live in. Now that order is a sensible one, but is it right in equity? Suppose a labourer is quite happy in his own cottage; is a good cook and housekeeper and generally looks on the world with a smile and on women with disdain. Is he to be driven into matrimony against his will and have his future blighted and a girl made unhappy? Certainly not. Then again an honest labourer may have lost the girl on whom his heart was set. Her affections may have been stolen by another. Would the Board of Health make the jilted one more unhappy still by marrying a girl whom he could not love? And what about the man who means to be a celibate. No man of common sense would do Mussolini on him and make him marry. Undoubtedly there are many occupiers of cottages who should be made run in double harness and where the Board has the evidence of its officers that a tenant ought to marry, then he should be made line up. Should he say he cannot get a girl to suit him the Board should have a panel of eligible ladies on their list and make a proper choice for him for better or worse. The whole question is very serious and in times of distress like the present, when many a good man can barely afford to keep himself and consequently could not run the risk of a matrimonial alliance, the Board must be very careful not to inflict hardships on any section of the people. When the return of the Bachelors are before the next meeting and the position clarified it will be clear how many vacancies will exist for our blooming maidens to furnish the homes of the hard-hearted tenants of Labourers Cottages, who have remained adamant until they had to be pushed.

SPECIAL FOR SHOW WEEK.

DUNGARVAN FAIR.

Springers sold up to £20. Young fat cows up to £17. Sheep 45/- to 55/-. Lambs 30/- to £2. Store Pigs 25/- to 35/-.

G.A.A.—LEAGUE FINAL.

On to-morrow (Sunday) at Dungarvan, Waterford and Limerick meet in National League Football, and a real good, lively and interesting game should be witnessed. It will be followed by a minor Football tie between Dungarvan and Kilmacthomas.

On Sunday last at Kinsalebeg, the home team beat St. Mary's, Dungarvan, in Minor Football by 4 points to 1 goal. At Touraneena, after a spirited contest in which strength was more manifest than skill, the Cappagh Minor Football team emerged victors over Nire, the final score being 4 goals 3 points to 2 goals 3 points. The Junior Football game at Shandon field between Kilgobinet and Kilrossary turned out to be a very one-sided affair the former running up a big score and won easily.

Dungarvan maintained their winning form of the previous week by beating Old Bridge at Clonmel, on Thursday evening. The final score of 3 goals 5 points to 1 goal 2 points about indicates the superiority of the Blues. The game in the first half was scrappy, with both sides erratic in shooting, particularly from long range. A re-shuffle of the Dungarvan team at half-time improved matters and they ran out easy winners.

POPULAR BANK OFFICIAL TRANSFERRED.

Mr. Jago, Provincial Bank, Dungarvan, one of the most popular of Banking Officials, has been transferred on promotion to Fermoy and carries with him best wishes of his many friends here. He is being replaced by Mr. Long, who comes from the Ballyshannon Branch of the Bank.

G.A.A.

On Sunday evening at the Gaelic field, Fermoy turned out for what proved to be an interesting return match with the home team. A heavy shower just before the start made ball control difficult. Both teams played in excellent spirit, and provided some splendid passages of football. The final scores were—Dungarvan 1 goal 6 points, Fermoy—2 goals.

The Junior Hurling Divisional final, Eire Oge v. Lismore, fixed for next Sunday has been postponed owing to Lismore objecting to the Venue, Dungarvan. A special meeting of the Committee is being called to deal with the protest.

A meeting of the Munster Council will be held in Limerick, on Saturday 18th, inst., to decide on the venues for Munster Hurling and Football finals. Waterford are in finals of Minor, Junior and Senior Hurling.

Monday & Tuesday July, 20th and 21st. Midnight Mystery.

An extra special Super Production, starring Lowell Sherman, Betty Compton, Hugh Trevor and Rita la Roy, in one of the most thrilling pictures ever screened, an enthralling blend of drama, comedy, mystery and suspense, played out against a most original background. An ancient castle on the rock-bound coast of Cuba. Inside—a gay house-party—love and laughter—magic fingers making tender music. Outside—the pounding of the surf—the rain beating down on the rocks—the roar of thunder—the weird clanging of a bell-buoy, in warning of Nature's angry mood. The host (Hugh Trevor), in order to provide a thrill for his guests, pretends to quarrel with one of his friends and "murders" him, then showing his guests the "dead" body washed up on the rocks. Everyone is in a state of panic, except the host and the "dead man," who are having a quiet laugh together. The party retire for the night still talking of the terrible crime. Suddenly, the silence of the witching hour is broken by a revolver shot and the startled guests assemble, only to find that this time murder has been really committed. How the girl (Betty Compton) solves the mystery and brings home to the murderer the consequences of his crime, is revealed in almost startling fashion. The thrill drama of a murder for a joke, that turned mysteriously to a murder in grim earnest, developing swiftly from sensator to sensation to a surprising climax of intense power. Thrilling! Amazing!! Intriguing!!! Also Movietone News and Comedy.

Wednesday & Thursday July 22 and 23. Wordly Goods.

Starring James Kirkwood and Merna Kennedy and taken from the world-famous novel of the same name, by Andrew Soutar. James Kirkwood as a business magnate, caring more for the money he makes than the quality of the goods he puts on the market. His firm manufacture aeroplanes, which are called "Flying Coffins," during the War by the unfortunate pilots who have to take them up, as owing to their faulty construction, many a gallant youngster has lost his life. The hero of the story, a young airman in France, crashes to earth in one of those machines. He is blinded for life and after giving up the girl he loves, swears to have revenge on the man who made the fatal aeroplane. He gets a job in a big aeroplane factory, his sharp hearing making up for the loss of his sight, and all unknown to him, the man who employs him and with whom he becomes friends, is the owner of the aeroplane which cost him his sight, and is also the husband of the girl he had parted. His employer persuades him to have an operation as a result of which, his sight is restored, but when he recognises Mary, now married, as the girl he had given up and her husband, as his employer, he is nearly mad with grief. How the business man, goes up for an aeroplane flight and then deliberately crashes his plane to certain death, in order to leave the path clear for his young wife and her former lover, makes a most thrilling climax to a thoroughly appealing picture. A rare blend of romance and drama, impressively acted and enjoyable all through.

Lord Abbot of Mount Melleray.

THE PASSING OF A GREAT CHURCHMAN AND PATRIOTIC IRISHMAN.

THE OBSEQUIES.

We deeply regret to announce the death of the Right Rev. Maurus Phelan, Lord Abbot of Mount Melleray, which occurred on Friday evening 10th inst., after an illness of some weeks. At the Glebe Day Ceremonies, on May 21st, he delivered one of the most eloquent addresses of his life, which was mainly devoted to the Irish Language question, but on that night he was taken seriously ill, and next day he was operated on for Peritonitis by Dr. Kiely, Cork, assisted by Dr. White, Cappoquin, and Dr. T. White, do. The operation was successful and there was every hope of complete recovery. Then complications developed and the distinguished Patient passed peacefully away and great is the sorrow felt not only by the great Cistercian Order, of which he was so illustrious a member, but by unlimited thousands in all parts of the world, who knew him and his noble work. His native County and his beloved Comeragh, loved him for was he not one of her most illustrious sons, and one who led lustre on the race of the Gael. He is gone in the fulness of years, and has left behind him a record of work for his Master, well and nobly done, and what Greater Monument need one hope for.

The Right Rev. Richard Maurus Phelan, was born on the 8th December, 1853. He was the youngest of a family of three, the two other members of which—his brother and sister—Mr. John Phelan, and Miss Phelan, are to-day his closest mourners. Beneath the shade of the Comeragh Mountains—almost in their very heart, it might be said—he first saw the light. His brother and sister still occupy his birthplace at Kilrossanty, a home for which his affection never waned. His earlier education he obtained at the National Schools half-a-mile from that home, and even in those tender years of childhood his brilliancy and his aptness to imbibe knowledge marked him out among his playmates. There was inculcated in him a boy's great desire to acquire fluency in the Irish language and his parents, both ardent lovers of their native tongue, sent him in 1867 for a twelve months' course of instruction under Mr. John Fleming, National Teacher, at Rathgormack, near Carrick-on-Suir. Mr. Fleming was a noted student and likewise teacher of Irish. In 1868 the boy Richard went as a student to Mount Melleray. His vocation was rapidly and as strongly formed, and after four years in the College he joined the Cistercian Order in 1872. Six years later he was ordained in Waterford by the then Bishop of Waterford and Lismore, Most Rev. Dr. Power, the date of his ordination being the 20th June (the Feast of Corpus Christi), 1878. Soon after his ordination he was appointed Guest Master, at Mount Melleray, and later filled the important positions of Housekeeper, Choir Master, College Professor, Sub-Prior and Prior, filling the latter position in 1908, when the late Right Rev. Dr. Delaney, Lord Abbot, died, after which Dr. Phelan was appointed Lord Abbot, being consecrated on August 15, 1908, so that he had filled this exalted position for close on 23 years.

A man of rare erudition and intellectual attainments, he was not long in office when he set about carrying out important improvements in the monastery, his most notable works in this respect being the establishment of the new agricultural buildings, a new cloister and seminary chapel, the installation of electric light, an agricultural college, and a foundation convent for Cistercian nuns at Glencairn Abbey, Lismore, while the developments of the famous Seminary at Melleray was a matter always dearest to his heart.

A native Irish speaker of culture and refinement, he did great work for the Irish language revival in conjunction with Dr. O'Growney, Dr. Sheehan, Dr. Hennebery, and other brilliant pioneers of the day, and the high position occupied to-day by Mount Melleray Seminary in the teaching of Irish is mainly due to his tireless and enthusiastic efforts in this respect. He was a gentleman of unbounded charity and generosity in every deserving cause, and his long life of goodness and kindness in this respect should endure for many years as a memorial to his great work while in charge of Mount Melleray.

His long association with Mount Melleray had made him known almost equally universally with the famed monastery itself. To one who knew him most intimately, who had worked and prayed with him in that great monastic home, was it given to sum up the life work of the dead Lord Abbot in the following simple, yet wholly expressive terms—"Nature," he said, "made him a noble man; grace made him a man of God." What greater epitaph could combine those two phases of a life as ennobled and sanctified.

Visit Melleray to-day and on every hand will be indicated accomplishments that have blossomed forth as the products primarily of his personal unflinching efforts to advance the institution over which he presided. Much had been done before his time to make the mountain Abbey a place of pilgrimage for people the world over. Where his predecessors left off he continued to labour, and there are modern extensions and improvements that speak eloquently of his progressive energies both with regard to the college and the monastery. Others there will unquestionably come who will devote their lives to their labour for God with an attachment as pronounced as was his who has just completed his portion, but to find in one man that wonderful combination of qualities and capabilities, natural and Godly, as he possessed, will be difficult indeed.

Members of the Order then took shovels and tenderly covered their late Lord Abbot amid manifestations of deep grief.

The funeral arrangements were carried out by Mr. P. Walsh, Undertaker, Cappoquin. The coffin was of American oak with glass panel lid.

CURLS IN COURT.

"There are two places where ladies who are witnesses or worshippers, must put on their hats—those places are a court of justice and in Church."

"If you have not a hat I will excuse you, but please remember never to come into a court of justice again without a hat."

This reproof was given yesterday at the East Ham Police Court by the magistrate (Mr. Wyatt Paine) to a pretty girl pillor rider with a wealth of golden curls who entered the witness-box hat-less to give evidence in a case of negligent driving.

The girl blushed at the magistrate's words, then took the oath and gave her evidence—still bareheaded.

Solicitor: Did your husband treat you to tea?—Woman: Yes, and I paid for it myself.

Irish doctor: It is an exploded theory that when an Irishman is drunk he naturally wants to fight.

Woman: I hope I shan't have to stay here too long, because I put a Kettle on to boil before I came out.

Judge: Why should a limited company without a soul be saved by treated better than anyone else?

Waterford County Board of Public Health.

The Annual Meeting of the County Board of Public Health for the purpose of electing a Chairman and Vice-Chairman for the coming year was held in Dungarvan on Saturday. The following members were in attendance—Messrs. Patk. O'Gorman, outgoing Chairman; Mr. Curran, outgoing Vice-Chairman; J. O'Donnell, Mee. Keane, J. Greene, J. Kiersey, Wm. Stack, and D. Heskin. Election of Chairman.

On the proposition of Mr. O'Donnell, seconded by Mr. Heskin, Mr. O'Gorman was unanimously re-elected Chairman. Vice-Chairman.

For the position of Vice-Chairman, Mr. Greene said Mr. O'Donnell resigned from the Vice-Chair last year in order to give a West Waterford man a chance, now he thought that East Waterford should be represented and he would propose Mr. O'Donnell for the Vice-Chair.

Mr. O'Donnell—Oh, no. I don't intend to go forward. I propose Mr. Greene.

Mr. Curran—Are we going to make a change. Mr. Kiersey, said that owing to the constant attendance of the Chairman during the year, the Vice-Chairman got very little chance, he would therefore propose to leave things as they are.

This proposition was agreed on. The Chairman and Vice-Chairman, returned thanks for their re-election. Letting Cottage.

For the letting of the vacant cottage at Carrigrohane, two applications were read. The board on the proposition of Mr. Heskin gave the letting to Dr. O'Leary.

Not An Agricultural Labourer. Mr. A. W. Farrell, J.P., appeared before the meeting representing Mr. Charles Murray, agriculturist, who had made application for the cottage in that area which is at present occupied by Jas. O'Flaherty.

Mr. Farrell said the applicant is a single man and he wants to get married and there is no other cottage in the vicinity. His instructions are: Mr. O'Flaherty is not an agricultural labourer, being a mechanical Engineer, and therefore is not eligible for the cottage. Mr. O'Flaherty does not till that acre attached, but has it planted with apple trees and turned into an orchard his client wants the cottage as early as he can get it.

Mr. Curran—The question is which would the greater hardship be inflicted on, by putting out a married man and putting in a single man.

Mr. Greene—the cottages were built for agricultural labourers. Chairman—Yes, the Board should take steps to get possession of cottages not occupied by agricultural labourers. Secretary—At present the collectors by an order from the Department are compiling a list of those other than agricultural labourers who are tenants of cottages. There is also a report asked for by the Board regarding the number of unmarried tenants of cottages, to come before them to-day.

Mr. Farrell's application was adjourned to the next meeting pending the report from the collectors.

Water Wanted. The Board adjourned an application for a water supply signed by a large number of residents in the Carrigrohane (Cappoquin) area.

Villierstown Water Supply. The caretaker of the above (Mr. T. Crowe), wrote asking the Board for a very substantial increase in his wages owing to increased duties, which he set out in detail.

Mr. Curran—What is his present salary.

Secretary—£2 a year. Undoubtedly he is asked to do much more than he was doing.

The Board decided to increase the salary to £4 a year. Tramway Sewerage. Arising out of the minutes of the Tramway Public Health Committee which embodied a proposal to extend the new sewerage scheme to Queen St. The Board referred the matter to the Engineer for a report.

Lismore Sewerage. A report by Mr. O'Donnell, regarding a defect in the sewerage where two sewers meet was also referred to the Engineer.

Board's Unmarried Tenants. The Secretary read the following lists of unmarried tenants living in labourers cottages, Youghal (2 areas) 41; Ballyduff Upper 27; Lismore 17; Dungarvan 44; Kilmacthomas 60; Garrick-on-Suir 22.

Mr. Kiersey said in some cases although the tenant may be unmarried, he could have brothers and sisters etc. living with him.

The Secretary—in the Kilmacthomas area 19 unmarried tenants are living alone in cottages.

The Board decided to get from the Collectors a list of tenants living alone in cottages (excepting widows and widowers) with a view to getting possession of the cottages unless the tenants married within 3 months.

Dairies and Cowsheds Act. A letter was read from the Minister for Local Government and Public Health, requesting the Board to get from the Veterinary Inspectors a report on the defaulters in their areas, under the Act.

Compensation. A letter on behalf of two Tramway residents claiming £25 compensation for injury to their gardens by the Board's employees in the laying down of the new sewerage scheme was read. The Board referred the matter to the Engineer for a report.

LISMORE NOTES.

CRICKET. Lismore Cricket Club, travelled to Camur on Sunday last 12th July, to engage the home team in friendly rivalry, on arrival at Cahir, the weather was anything but ideal for Cricket. Cahir won the toss of the coin and decided to bat, the start was disappointing for Cahir as in a short time 4 of their wickets were down for a total of 8 runs. A downpour of rain now occurred and play was suspended, after which the bowlers or fielders were unable to control the ball or keep on their feet. Play was again resumed and stopped at frequent intervals by rain. At 5.30 the tea interval arrived and the visitors and their followers were hospitably entertained. Cahir now declared their innings for 9 wickets. Another downpour prevented resumption of play till 6.30 p.m., when a roller was put over the sodden ground, this gave Lismore 15 minutes play before the time limit. In this space of time Lismore hitting out vigorously put up a total of scores for the loss of 4 wickets. This ended the match in a draw. Lismore travel to Cappoquin on Sunday next 19th July, to engage the home eleven. Play will start at 3.30 p.m. (Summer Time).

THE PASSING OF THE GAEL IN RING.

Visitors to Ring this summer—especially those who recall the pioneer days of work for the Irish language there—will miss sorely two residents who were called to their reward in the early part of the year, viz. Mrs. Mary White and Mr. Liam O'Regan, both of Shanakill, Ring. Mrs. White's house was prominently associated with the early efforts of the founders of the Irish College at Ring a quarter of a century ago. Her house was the meeting place of the group of Irish Irelanders who blazed the trail in Ring in the days when work for Irish meant sacrifice of health abandonment of leisure and expenses that in these lean years meant something only the earnest and single-minded enthusiast was prepared to face. Among those who resided at Mrs. White's house in these days nearly 30 years ago were—His Grace Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan, Co-adjutor Archbishop of Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. Wyse-Power, Dublin, and their children (Judge Wyse-Power, Miss Nans Power, M.A., and the late Miss Maire Power, M.A., Mr. Padraig O'Keely, An Fear Mor, and many others.

Long after the time when the Residential College was built and equipped, Mrs. White's house continued to be the resort of groups of earnest students who filled their note books daily with gems of Irish idiom heard there in conversation with Sean An Rhaobig agus a fear Tomas with Martin Sheehan, Nora Ni Cineide, Tomas Murray, Liam Regan Micilín Healy, Cathín and other Gaels, most of whom have passed away, taking with them their pearls of great price of Gaelic speech and Gaelic lore. Maire Bean an Faoilóg, was a type of Irishwoman whose death is an unrepairable loss. Visitors to Shanakill will miss her gracious presence and kindly welcome, her sincere friendship and warm kindly interest in her friends, and her priceless store of delightful Irish and her eagerness to help student visitors. Her numerous friends throughout Ireland will learn of her death with deep regret and will sympathise with her son and daughters in their bereavement.

Another outstanding and respected Ring Gael who has died was Mr. Liam O'Regan, a close neighbour of Mrs. White. Liam O'Regan was a man of striking personality and cultural graciousness that inspired the affection and respect of all who knew him. As an Irish speaker he was unrivalled for richness of idiom vocabulary and his striking vocal intonation and powers of picturesque description left a lasting impression on all who met him. He was father of Mr. Declan O'Regan, who was one of the most valiant soldiers of the I.R.A., in West Waterford. Two of his daughters gave excellent service to the Irish language movement. His widow and children are assured of the sympathy of their many friends and of their prayers for the happy repose of the soul of Liam.

The "Tail" of a Fox AND HOW IT TURNED THE SHOW INTO A RIOT.

The following rollicking yarn in rhyme by G. A. Walluck is taken from the current number of the "Tail-Wagger" Magazine:— Come, cock up your ears and wag your tail, And listen to this, how a Show can fail, It truly occurred, as well I know, At the "Ex" Town Members' Sanction Show. The rings were prepared and the "vetting" done, And the dogs gathered round to enjoy the fun— Collies and Setters and Pekingeses Gathered together the judge to please. Elderly stewards and judges tall, Some with side whiskers, or none at all, But busy men all, with jobs to do, To jockey the merry old "Ex Town" through. St. Bernard and Airdale and Mastiff, Dane, United their throats in a gay refrain. Pip-squeaky Poms and the cheeky Pekes Criticised freely their neighbours' freaks: While the bulky Bulldog, with grumpy snorts, Entreated the mob to play up like sports; And the Wire Fox terriers and Bedlington Looked perky and neat and enjoyed the fun. Just then from without came a startling clang, The door went slam, and a chair went bang! Then across the ring from behind a box, Darted a monstrous well-grown fox. Out through the yard, with gasp and splutter, Followed by dogs in a heap and clutter, Setter and Collie and Pointer too, Headed the chase with a scent so true. Along the alley and into the street, With the "Poms" and "Pekes" in their coats so neat, Scuttering, scampering, came the pack, With the Yorkshire clung to the Mastiff's back. Old Reynard, bewildered by hounds so queer, Made straight for the ford, just below the weir. And the pack "gave tongue" all in full view, And vowed they'd follow to Timbuctoo. Dane and St. Bernard with thund'rous bay, Were leading the van on that sporting day. Right over the weir old Reynard went, His nerves all shattered, his breath high spent, With the pack at his heels, a hundred feet, He scurried, so flurried, along the street, And the butcher's boy stood with mouth so wide, Dumbfounded to see a fox in full stride, As the dogs came by with a rush of feet, He had never seen such a chase so fleet. Into the grocer's old Reynard sped, Up the small staircase and on to a bed, And the dogs poured in, and the dogs poured through, The sheep and the kitchen, the parlour too. And the grocerman—Mister Pat McCann— Pinched at himself as he saw the van Of the pack that followed on speedy legs, Between his biscuits, his jams, his eggs, Collie and Setter and Pointer, Dane, Retriever and Cocker and Clumber came: Loud snorting Bulldog and Chow-chow black, And the Yorkshire clung to the Mastiff's back. Barking and baying and whimpering low, Followed the remnants of Ex Town Show. The stairs were a mass of fur and feet, And the tidy rooms that had looked so neat A moment ago, were a seething rush Of dogs for the capture of Reynard's brush. When Reynard sighted the noisy pack, He leapt thro' a window that looked on the back, Out of the yard and through the pens, Where Mrs. McCann was feeding the hens. She dropped the corn with a startled shriek, To see such a noisy fearsome freak. As the dogs poured forth down the bedroom wall To the greenhouse roof, with never a fall, Came the barking, yapping, excited pack, With the Yorkshire clung to the Mastiff's back, And the snorting Bulldog quite short of breath, Avowing to be in the van at the death, Schipperke, Whippet and Terriers in coats, All ready for running to "John O'Groats," Down the meadow and through the grain, Headed right on to the road again. Came the tired fox, now sorely tried, Followed so closely, now in their stride, By the Setter, the Collie, the Pointer, the Scot, Each racier "all out" on the scent red hot.

WE HAVE AGAIN AND AGAIN warned our customers on the absolute necessity of Potato Spraying. It has been conclusively proved during the past few years that not only has spraying prevented potato blight, but it has almost doubled the crops in every instance. It also improves the quality of the potato by extending the period of growth, thereby allowing the crops to come to maturity.

The necessity for spraying this season may be more urgent than usual. The present weather is proving favourable for the spread of the disease which has already made its appearance in the South of Ireland. We stock the latest types in horse and knapsack sprayers and we also keep large stocks of sulphate of copper and washing soda. We shall be very pleased to answer any enquiries regarding quantity to be used per acre, and will quote special low prices for cash for sprayers or spraying materials. HARPUR BROTHERS, IRONMONGERS, WATERFORD.

Then the sound of a horn—not a huntman's blast! But a touring car overtook him fast. And Reynard smiled as it scattered the "meat." For their yelps and snarls to him sounded sweet. As the car drew near and his snout heart thumped, With a well-timed leap on the back he jumped, And settled himself for a well-earned rest. Whilst the pack pushed on with their hopeless quest. Down in the valley and over the hill, For aught I know they are running still. Pointer and Setter and all on the track. With the Yorkshire clung to the Mastiff's back. And the judge and stewards are waiting, they say, For the Show has never been held to this day.

SS Otteran and Carthage Health Insurance Society.

ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING.

At the Annual General Meeting of the SS. Otteran and Carthage Health Insurance Society, held at the Society's Offices, 12, Colbeck Street, Waterford, A. J. Phelan, Esq., Vice-President, presided. A letter was read from Very Rev. T. F. Canon Furlong, P.P., Dungarvan, (President), explaining his inability to attend and congratulating the Committee and Officers on the excellent results disclosed by the Annual and Valuation Reports.

Very Rev. M. Dowley, apologised for the unavoidable absence of the Very Rev. W. J. Dean Walsh.

The minutes of the last Annual General Meeting having been read and signed, the Chairman stated that he was sure he was voicing the unanimous wish of the meeting in extending to Canon Furlong their best wishes on the happy occasion of the celebration of his Golden Jubilee. In the course of his remarks he stated that, Canon Furlong, has honoured the Society by being its President ever since the Society was established over twenty years ago, and while expressing joy on the happy occasion they were aware of the heavy physical trials, consequent on ill-health, which he had to bear, and wished to extend their sympathy to him.

The resolution was seconded by Mr. Hackett, supported by Mr. Brett, and agreed to unanimously.

ANNUAL REPORT.

The Annual Report for the Year showed that the certified Membership of the Society at last Audit was 8,809 (Men—5,751, and Women—3,058). The amount paid in Sickness, Disablement, Maternity and Marriage Benefits for the year to 2,945 Members was £12,449 12s. 0. (an average of £1 10s. 5d. on total membership), as compared with £11,247 3s. 0d. paid in 1929—being an increase of £1,065 17s. 0d.

612 members received Additional Benefits, namely:—Dental Treatment, Hospital Treatment, and Optical Treatment at the cost of £970 1s. 1d., making the total expenditure on benefits for the year—£13,419 13s. 1d.

The Administration expenses (including subscriptions to Hospitals) amounted to £2,477 10s. 10d., making total expenditure for the year—£15,897 3s. 1d.

Reference was made to the alarming increase in the cost of Sickness and Disablement Benefits in the Irish Free State generally which, according to Official statistics, had increased by 65 per cent. between the years 1923 and 1929.

The Secretary submitted a table of the total amount of Benefits paid to the respective Parishes, which showed that the average amount per member, paid in Waterford City was £1 2s. 5d., while in the Rural Areas, in the case of one Parish it had exceeded £3 12s. 0d. per member, and in five Parishes the amount per member had exceeded £2.

MEDICAL REFERRES.

206 cases were referred for examination by the District Medical Referee. Of these 88 were certified Incapable of work or declared off the funds before the date fixed for examination by the Referee, and 28 did not attend for examination.

The certified amount of the Society's credit in the Accounts of the Irish Insurance Commissioners to date of last ascertainment 31/12/28 was as follows: Current Account £764 1s. 6d. Investment Account £29,166 0s. 0d. Reserve Values Account £50,738 9s. 0d. Total £80,668 10s. 6d.

The total Invested Funds of the Society, at Cost amounts to £59,150 19s. 0d.

The adoption of the Annual Report was proposed by the Chairman, who referred to the very satisfactory position of the Society, both financially and otherwise, notwithstanding the large increase in the cost of Sickness and Disablement Benefits, and stated that great credit was due to the Officers and Committee for the very satisfactory condition.

The adoption of the Report was seconded by Mr. James Hackett and unanimously adopted.

AUDITED STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS.

The audited Statements of Accounts for the year 1929 was unanimously adopted on the proposition of Mr. P. Brett, seconded by Mr. M. Flynn.

THIRD VALUATION.

The Secretary submitted the Actuary's Report on the Third Valuation of the Society as at 31/12/28, which showed a surplus of assets over liabilities of £20,315. In the five years 1923-1929 the surplus had increased by £12,828, and this satisfactory result enabled the Committee not only to continue the existing Additional Benefits, but also to extend them.

ing that according to the official returns the total surplus for all Societies in the Free State had been reduced from £262,814, in 1923 to £114,185, at 31/12/28,—a reduction of £148,629. As a result several societies in the Free State, including some of the large Centralised Societies, will be unable to give additional Benefits in the new Benefit Period commencing July 1931. The results of the Valuation on the whole are a substantial argument against the Amalgamation of Societies which was proposed some time since.

The Additional Benefits which the Committee proposes for adoption by the General Meeting, and which were provisionally sanctioned by the Insurance Commission, are:—Additional Cash Benefits—Increase above normal rates: Sickness Benefit 1s. Disablement Benefit 6d. Maternity Benefit 2s. Marriage Benefit 2s. And the following non-cash Additional Benefits:—Dental Benefit, Optical Benefit, Hospital Benefit, Medical and Surgical Appliances, Specialist Surgical Treatment. The adoption of the Additional Benefits referred to was proposed by Mr. Brett, seconded by Mr. Hackett, and unanimously agreed to.

ELECTION OF COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.

Unanimously resolved that the outgoing Members of the Committee of Management, who are all available, be re-elected for the ensuing year.

This having completed the business of the meeting the Chairman thanked the Delegates for their attendance.

In proposing a vote of thanks to the Chairman Mr. Hackett referred to the able and courteous manner in which the Chairman guided the proceedings of the meeting, and to the keen interest he took in the welfare of the Society. The vote of thanks was seconded by Mr. Brett and carried with acclamation.

Kilmacthomas News.

SAD NEWS.

At the Masses at St. Brigid's Church, Kilmacthomas, on Sunday last, touching tributes were paid to the memory of the late Lord Abbot by Very Rev. W. J. Kehoe, P.P., and Rev. J. Harty, C.C. Father Kehoe said the death was the saddest event the Parish could suffer. It meant the loss of its greatest Parishoner, a true Saint of God, and one who was doubtless now enjoying the crown earned by a life of self-abnegation and sanctity.

THE WEATHER.

The weather has been the sensation of the year, and every week it has supplied "copy" in one form or another. On Sunday we had thunder, which rumbled like the guns of Flanders—being clearly heard by the hosts of pious pilgrims who paid their annual visit to Mothel Shrine and Well on that day (Festival of SS. Cuan and Brogan). On Monday we had heavy rains. On Tuesday we experienced scorching sunshine, with horse-flies buzzing about "seeking whom they may devour," and anon, hailstones rattled on the slates and windows in several districts. One writer describes all this as "the queer tricks of our erratic climate." We would be more inclined to ascribe the variations of the climate to a versatility in keeping with the moods of the population, and emigrants who swelter in the trying heat of tropical lands would give all they possess to be back in this country of atmospheric changes. Sic est vita!

KILL ANNUAL AERIDHEAGHT.

The forthcoming Kill Annual Aeridheacht is creating a considerable stir, and An t-Aitair Miceal O'Dowley, C.C., Kill, Tomas Breathnach, N.T., P.C., do., and their able organising helpers will have a noteworthy feast of Gaelic "good things" to serve up to their many patrons on to-morrow, Sunday, afternoon. Come and enjoy the eclatc open-air entertainment with the rest!

GAELIC ITEM.

At Mothel last Sunday, before a large assembly of spectators the junior hurling Co. Championship tie between Mount Sion (Waterford) and Portlaw, was decided. A pretty good game ended in a win for the College XV, by a very substantial score.

JUDGE AND NAGGING WIVES.

"A good spanking is a sure cure for nagging, childish wives," said Judge McDevitt in a divorce case at Philadelphia. "It proves a man is boss in his own home. I have no doubt a woman respects a man more when he proves he is the master. It's the worse thing in the world to let a woman wear the trousers in the home."
