DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

PASSING AN OLD SWEEPSTAKE TICKET FOR 10/- NOTE.

ACCUSED LET OFF.

(Held on Wednesday, before Mr. Troy, D.J.)

Transfer Of Licences.

Mr. Ryan, solr., made application for, and was granted a transfer of the license held by the late Mrs. Curran, The Quay, to Miss K. Curran.

Mr. Ryan, was also granted a transfer of the license lately held by Di. Morrissey, from the Trustee, Mr. Declan Morrissey, to Mr. Declan Barron, Odell Lodge, Ardmore.

Occasional License.

Mrs. E. Tobin, Main Street, was, on the application of Mr. Williams, solr., granted an occasional license for the Literary Club Dance, on January 27th. Hours 11 p.m. to 4 a.m.

Lights.

Guard Begley, charged Nicholas Bergford, Castlequarter, with using a motor without a red light.

The defence was that the light fused. A fine of 1s. was imposed.

Guard O'Leary, prosecuted E. O'Connor, O'Connell St., with driving a lorry without lights.

Defendant said the lights were all on at Abbesside, but fused.

The case was dismissed.

Guard O'Leary, charged a man named Patk. O'Donnell, with being drunk and incapable in Bridge Street, A fine of 5s. was imposed.

Guard Gibbin, charged Wm. Moylan, Strand St., with being drunk and disorderly.

Defendant, who said it was Xmas times and his first offence, was fined 5s.

Drunk In Charge.

Guard Daly, charged John Walsh, Lacken, with (1) being drunk in charge of a horse and (2) with cruelty to the horse.

Mr. Williams, solr., for defendant. Complainant gave evidence of finding defendant drunk and chucking and beating the horse.

To Mr. Williams—He never heard anything against the defendant's character.

Mr. Williams said he could not prevail on the defendant to attend the Court, but his employer was present.

The facts were—the defendant, who is in the ordinary course a very temperate young man, came to town riding this pony, and met a few friends, with whom he had a few drinks.

Mr. Carroll, Lacken, gave evidence of the defendant being in his employment for 2 years. He attended to witness horses and he never showed any cruelty towards them. This animal was highly tempered. Walsh had no stick on the occasion.

To the Justice—He was present on the occasion. He was about 50 yards in front of Walsh. He knew Walsh had drunk taken, but thought he was capable of taking home the horse.

The Justice said it was a serious thing to have a man drunk in charge of a horse, and he would impose a fine of 20s. or 14 days. He allowed the second charge in with the first.

Pony Wandering.

G. Moylan, was fined 2s. at the suit of Guard Leary, for allowing a pony to wander on the Square.

A Miniature Battle.

When the case of Superintendent O'Shea, against three men named Kiely, Moylan and Roche, was called the Supt. asked for an adjournment to facilitate Mr. Skinner, solr., who was to appear for the defence and who was engaged at the Circuit Court in Clonmel. The application was granted and in consequence thereof, a number of summonses and cross-summonses (14 in all) between families of the Wall's, Moylan's, Kiely's, Roche's, etc., from Buttery Lane, were also adjourned as Mr. Skinner was also engaged in some of the cases. Messrs. E. A. Ryan, T. C. Williams, and A. R. Farrell, solrs., were also engaged by the various litigants.

The Justice, in adjourning all the cases to Tuesday January 26th., issued a stern warning to all the parties that if there was any further trouble during the adjournment, he would deal severely with the parties responsible. He informed one of the female litigants who stated that herself and her husband had to leave their house and did not go back since, that they could go back now without any fear.

Alleged Larceny Of Timber. The adjourned case of Supt. O'Shea, against Patk. Hayes, John Hayes, and M. O'Brien, for the alleged larceny of timber, was further adjourned, on the application of Mr. Farrell, solr., for Patrick Hayes.

Alleged Larceny By A Trick. Supt. O'Shea charged Patk. Keohan, Youghal Road, with the alleged larceny of money by a trick.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared for the defendant.

The Supt. said it was a case of the defendant tendering a Sweepstake Ticket on the Manchester November Handicap, as a 10s. note, and got back one large Player and 9s. change.

Mary Hogan, Mitchel Street, deposed she was in the shop with her aunt. She remembered Sunday 3rd January. She was in the shop about 3.30 p.m., when a man came in. The man was the accused now in Court. She gave him two small Players and then she saw the Ticket and handed it back. He gave back the cigarettes.

By Mr. Carroll—Her aunt is in the town about 20 years and is nearly always in the shop. When she got the ticket she saw the prizes on the back. She told him it was bad money and he gave back the Players. He appeared a bit sleepy or stupid. She could not say if he had drunk taken.

Miss Mary Kirby, in reply to the Supt. said she lived at Mitchel Street. On January 3rd, a man came in and asked for a large Player. She gave him the box, and he handed her what she thought was a 10s. note. She gave him 9s. change. She did not know it was a Sweepstake Ticket until later, when she went out next door for change, when it was pointed out to her. She did not know the man's name, but knew him by sight.

By Mr. Carroll—She was born in town and had a good education, and could count notes and gave out change. She was only 5 or 6 weeks in the shop. She saw the accused round the town several times. Her mother had the shop only about 5 or 6 weeks. The man seemed dazed or sleepy. She could not say if he had drunk taken. He produced no other money. She consulted her mother and witness went around the town to try if she could see the man, but she could not. They then reported the matter to the Guards. About 8 p.m. Mrs. Keohan came in and gave 10s. to my mother.

Guard Regan, deposed, he investigated the case. He was shown the ticket. About 8 p.m. accompanied by Guard Wrenn, he went to accused's home in the Youghal Road, and asked for Patrick Keohan. He told accused he was investigating the larceny of money by a trick and asked him to account for his movements up to 2 o'clock, but not afterwards. Witness took him to the barracks when he refused to answer. When going down Mitchel Street, he wanted to go into Kirby's to square up.

By Mr. Carroll—He told Keohan he was investigating the larceny of money by a trick. When he insisted on going into Kirby's to square up, I absolutely believed him guilty, and he made the statement (produced) when I charged him. He did not take a note of his statement regarding his movements from 12 to 2 p.m. He did not request accused to sign the statement, as he did not think it was necessary. He was capable of signing it. Accused did not seem to be suffering from the effects of a drinking revelry. Accused was not violent, but was vexed when he was not allowed into Kirby's and was pushing against us. We had to lift him down Emmet Street. He was all the time saying "I'll square it up."

Guard Wrenn went into Kirby's as they were passing. He did not know if accused was drinking heavy during Xmas. His reputation in the town is that he would not spend enough to make him drunk. There was a slight smell of drink off him. He found at about 9.30 p.m., that the 10s. had been paid to Mrs. Kirby by accused's mother about 8 o'clock.

Patrick Keohan, deposed he was a baker for 15 years in the one job. He was earning £3 10s. a week. He had between 3 and 4 hundred pounds in the Post Office and more in the Bank, between five and six hundred altogether. He was not able to read, but could write his own name. He got his wages on the Friday night, and when he finished work on Saturday, he went drinking and stayed all the evening drinking without a dinner. He could not say what time he went home. His drinks were whiskey and porter. He went to 12 o'clock Mass on Sunday. He had a bottle of whiskey at home which he bought on Saturday, and he drank some of it after Mass. He went out about 3 o'clock. He had drunk about 3 bottles of stout and a half pint of whiskey and went to Hogan's for fags. Hogan's was not far away from the Youghal Road. He knew Mrs Hogan very well but did not know what he asked for. He barely remembered going into the other shop and getting change. He had in his pocket 2 10s. notes and silver, also a bankbook and a corkscREW. Witness never bought a Sweepstake Ticket, but had a share in one. He got change while drinking on Saturday evening and had the Sweepstake Ticket in his pocket on Sunday morning, it was mixed with his change. He believed it to be a 10s. note when he handed it to Miss Kirby. He must have got it in change on Saturday night. He did not remember going home on Saturday, but he remembered waking up in one of the outhouses. When his mother came in on Sunday evening, she said the Guards were very busy about a Sweepstake Ticket, and witness said, "begor"

I had one of them. He then took out his change and gave 10s. to his mother saying—"go up and pay that, as it was I made a mistake." She went up and paid it, that was before the Guards came. He kicked up a bit of a row with the Guards outside Hogan's. He had no intention of defrauding, as he had too much money. He did not work since it happened.

By Supt. O'Shea—I have only a hazy recollection of what happened at Kirby's, but immediately he heard the Guards were busy, he remembered that he had a Sweep Ticket. When brought to the barracks, he had only nine pence halfpenny on him. He had given the money to his father. He remembered going into Hogan's and getting two small Players and getting the ticket back. He then went into Kirby's and it was the ticket came up again.

Justice—If it came up so well at the Draw, you would be alright (laughter).

Continuing, accused said that there were two shops, Rossiter's and Brown's, before he came to Hogan's. He did not stand at the windows and look in before he went into Hogan's and Kirby's.

By Mr. Carroll—He always got his cigarettes at Mrs. Curran's, but she was shut that day, so he then went to Hogan's.

To Superintendent—After calling at Mrs. Curran's, I passed up Kirby's to go to Hogan's.

Mr. Carroll—That shows you were not acting in a natural manner.

Mrs. Keohan, deposed, to being delivering milk on the evening of the 3rd., and she heard about the Guards going around and that Mrs. Kirby was "dauked" out of 10s. When she went home Patrick came in and she asked him if he heard anything about it, and he said it was I did that and he gave me a 10s. note to go down and pay it. He handed some other money over to his father. Witness went and paid the money, that was paid before the Guards came. Accused's father is in a dying state, and accused is drinking since Christmas.

To the Superintendent—She went to Kirby's to pay, about 7.30 p.m. and stayed there about an hour. She was there before the devotions were over in the chapel. She cannot remember what time it was when she was talking to Guard Regan.

Accused, recalled again, said he told the Guards that the money was paid before they arrived. He barely remembers that.

Guard Regan said when they were taking accused to the barracks, he kicked up to go in and pay it.

Mrs. Keohan, continuing, said she was in at Kirby's when a girl came in and said there's Patie down with the Guards.

The Justice said he would give the accused the benefit of the doubt, but would ask him in future to be more careful in dealing with 10s. notes.

CORRESPONDENCE.

19, St. Mary Street, Dungarvan, 12-1-32.

(EDITOR "THE DUNGARVAN OBSERVER.")

Dear Sir—Will you please allow me space to correct a mistake which is circulating in certain parts of the constituency. This rumour was current a few years ago, and was then contradicted, but the denial did not evidently reach the quarter from which the story now emanates. The public will recollect the sad death of Volunteer Morrissey, as a result of accidental shooting in the early part of 1922. His responsibility for all expenses in connection with the obsequies, owing to subsequent events, which need not now be referred to, those liabilities were not discharged at the time, but were eventually settled in full by the Sinn Fein Organisation of which I was then treasurer. It is now alleged that payment was never made but I hold the receipts which can be inspected at any time by interested parties. Hoping that this will finally dispose of the matter which has caused a certain amount of ill-feeling towards a person who was never individually responsible for either payment or non-payment,

M. J. COGAN, Sec. Comhairle Ceantair, (Fianna Fail).

CINEMA NEWS.

Next week, as will be seen from our advertising columns, the local Cinema is presenting two of the finest productions of the year. "The Criminal Code" on Monday and Tuesday and "Trader Horn" on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Both films come direct from two of Cork's leading Cinemas. Patrons are assured of rare entertainment.

RURAL SCIENCE FOR FARMERS. Classes in Rural Science for Farmers, will begin at the Technical School, Dungarvan, on Wednesday evening next. These classes should be of great practical utility to all young people engaged in the farming industry and we hope they will be largely availed of. The Instructor, Mr. Mulcahy, B. Agr. Sc., in an authority on his subject.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

The weekly meeting of the above was held on Friday. Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presided, the other members present were—Messrs M. Clancy, Jas. Hackett, Wm. O'Donnell, T. Power, M. J. Keane, and J. F. Moloney.

A paysheet for £10 15s. 8d., was passed together with various sums to contractors, under the Housing Scheme.

Engineer's Report. In reply to the Chairman, the R.S. stated that 5 houses at Abbesside, were finished, 3 houses at Mitchel St., were also finished, but the other four houses at Abbesside were a bit backward yet.

Mr. O'Donnell—Is that the fault of the contractors. Did we hold them up.

B.S.—It is; they are a bit slow.

Mr. Power—I would ask that a deputation from the Council go and see the houses before they are let. He saw one of them and the ceiling was all cracked. If you light a fire there the ceiling will come down.

Chairman—The houses must all be certified by the B.S.

B.S.—Mr. Power may be right. I did not see that, it would be caused by too much plaster of paris and putty.

Mr. Moloney—Or lack of it. Mr. Power is right, there are four or five ceilings that way.

Chairman—Any defects are to be remedied.

B.S.—Yes.

Mr. Moloney asked the B.S., if he was satisfied with the flashings to which the B.S. replied that some of them were done in bad weather.

Chairman—The B.S. must satisfy us that the houses are according to specification.

The Council made an order for a detailed report from the B.S., on each house.

Use Of Hall. The Golf Club were granted the use of the Hall for the purpose of holding a whist drive and dance on Wednesday night January 20th.

Election Work. Mr. Jas. Daly, Sec., wrote asking the use of the Green Room, Town Hall for the Cumann Na nGaedheal Party, during the course of the General Election. He also applied for the use of the Large Room for Sunday 17th Jan.

Mr. Moloney—Are these all free.

Clerk—Meetings only.

Mr. Moloney—What about the use of the Green Room.

Mr. O'Donnell—It is the first application I believe.

Mr. Clancy, proposed that the use of the room be given free.

Mr. Hackett, in seconding, referred to the nomination of the Chairman (Mr. Butler) as candidate and expressed the hope that every member of the Council would do his utmost to help getting him elected. As a better man could not be found.

Mr. Keane endorsed the remarks of Mr. Hackett, and said it was time Dungarvan had a representative in the Dail.

The proposition was passed unanimously.

Dairies And Cowsheds Order. A report was read from Mr. Byrne, on his inspection of various premises of suppliers of milk in the Urban area. He advised more attention was required to milkers hands and cows udders, in a few instances.

Mr. Keane—Can we conclude that an improvement has been effected since Mr. Byrne took up duty. All the reports seem to be the same, there is always room for improvement.

Chairman—We can ask Mr. Byrne to report on that point.

Mr. Moloney—What we should ask him is to see that his recommendations are carried out.

Mr. Clancy—If Mr. Byrne came before us.

Mr. O'Donnell thought an improvement was effected. There were only a few cases of more attention to milkers hands.

Mr. Keane—I am prompted to ask the question, because there was milk delivered in Dungarvan last week which had to be returned.

S.S.O. in reply to Mr. Keane, said a bucket of milk was sent to him from the Convent as being unfit for use, he had the milk returned to the contractor, whom he told that he would get milk and charge it to the contractors account, if there was no improvement. He added the milk was alright, but was held in too long, and went into curds when used.

After some further discussion an order was made asking the V.S. to see that his recommendations were carried out.

Housing. The Chairman referred to the fact that their original housing scheme was for 30 houses, out of which they had only 10 built. There was a balance of 11 not built. He suggested that the Clerk write to the Department on the matter of the New Housing Act.

Purchase of Plot. The Chairman referred to the offer made by them to the County Council for the plot at Abbesside, which he said was accepted provided that the Urban Council pay all costs of the transfer.

The Council approved of the purchase.

Light on Bridge. The Council approved of putting a bowl shaped light on the Abbesside Bridge to replace the existing light, but adjourned the matter for the purpose of inspecting the specimens to be suggested by the E.S. Board.

Dangerous Fence. Arising out of a question by Mr. Griffin, the Board decided to ask their Solicitor what their liability was in the matter of the fences at Tierney's and Ryan's field at Abbesside.

Mr. Griffin said he saw in the Press where in a somewhat similar case the Listowel U.D.C. had to erect a wall.

Building of a Wall. Chairman—What about this wall in David Street, are we going to build it, or will we instruct the B.S., to consult Mr. Williams.

Mr. Keane—I hold the same opinion as at last meeting, we are bound to build it, as our men went below the foundations. It is most unfortunate that this work was carried out in the absence of the B.S. What did the B.S. say it would cost.

B.S.—Roughly £10.

Mr. Keane—I propose we invite tenders for the work.

Mr. Hackett, seconded.

The B.S. said when he went to see this wall he noticed that the houses at the other side were in a danger and he should issue an order on them.

Mr. Clancy asked were they going to accept responsibility without any hesitation. He knew that wall to be out eight or nine inches for the past nine years. He would dissent from the whole thing.

Mr. Keane—It is only honest to admit we tampered with the wall.

Mr. O'Donnell—It will not take up much time to see the solicitor and if he holds we are liable, the B.S. can sue for tenders.

Mr. O'Donnell's suggestion was approved.

Extension Of Sewer. The question of the extension of the sewer at Sarsfield Street to low water mark, was adjourned to the next finance meeting.

Sympathy. On the proposition of Mr. Hackett, seconded by Mr. Keane, a vote of sympathy was passed to Mr. and Mrs. Halpin and family, on the death of their daughter, and on the proposition of the Chairman, a similar vote of sympathy was passed to Messrs. C. and J. Wall, Mitchel Street, on the death of their father which took place in America.

CARRICK ARSON CASE. HEAVY SENTENCES.

"It is just as much a crime to take money from an insurance company dishonestly as from a private person," said Judge Sealy, at Clonmel Circuit Court, in a case in which Thomas Reidy, James Cooney, and James Healy, all of Carrick-on-Suir pleaded guilty to setting fire to the licensed premises, at Carrick-on-Suir, known as "Walsh and Nolan," the property of Mrs. Mary Lawlor, with intent to defraud. John Lawlor, husband of Mary Lawlor, pleaded guilty to inciting Reidy and Cooney to set fire to the premises.

Lawlor was sentenced to 18 months imprisonment, and Reidy to 12 months and a suspensory sentence of 19 months was imposed on Cooney and Healy.

Referring to the state of affairs as disclosed in Carrick, the Judge asked were they coming to American methods by hiring criminals. "Was that due to the cinema or a slackening of moral fibre over the country?"

He complimented Supt. Fitzgerald, for his handling of the case.

DEATH OF MISS ETHNA M. HALPIN, DUNGARVAN.

It is with feelings of deep regret that the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. M. Halpin, Cross Bridge Street, Dungarvan, learned of the death at the early age of 20 years, of their daughter Ethna. She was an exceedingly brilliant young lady and highly accomplished. She was the winner of many Scholarships during her school career and was on the eve of securing an important appointment under the Education Board. A genial and charming young lady, her loss is sorely felt.

—R.I.P.

Her funeral to the Parish Church, last Thursday evening, was largely attended and was a tribute to the esteem in which her family are held. The interment took place in the family burial ground adjoining, on Friday, in the presence of a large gathering. To her sorrowing parents, and the members of her family, sincere sympathy is tendered.

Cumann na nGaedheal.

BRANCH FORMED IN CAPPOQUIN.

A meeting for the purpose of establishing a branch of the above for the town and parish was held in "Morrisey's Hotel," Cappoquin, on Tuesday night.

Messrs. G. D. Connolly, and James Madden, Organisers, specially attended for the purpose of explaining the aims and objects of the organisation, and there were also present—

The Rev. J. Crotty, C.C., Cappoquin Messrs. Jeremiah Dempsey, Patrick Cahill, Dr. Thomas White, J. V. Conway, E. Casey, M. F. Walsh, P.C.; W. J. Baldwin, G. P. Hely, P. Morrissey, Thomas Daly, R. J. Barry, Richard Connors, J. P. Olden, John F. Ryan, etc.

Mr. Madden, having briefly addressed the meeting and referred to the good work carried out by President Cosgrave's Government, during the past year in restoring peace and order in the country which gave the people a proper sense of security to-day, said that in view of the approach of a General Election it was desirable that there should be a branch of the National Organisation in every town and parish, and he was glad to see so many of the prominent people of Cappoquin present to-night for the purpose of starting a Branch of the Cumann na nGaedheal in their midst. He said the usual procedure was to have somebody propose that a Branch of the organisation be formed here, after which they could elect officers and then appoint two delegates to attend the Convention to be held in Dungarvan on next Sunday for the purpose of selecting three Government candidates to stand for the Co. Waterford when the election takes place.

On the motion of Dr. White, seconded by Mr. Casey, a Branch of the Cumann na nGaedheal was then formally established, after which the election of officers was proceeded with.

Rev. Father Crotty, was proposed as President of the branch, but he said that he would rather they got somebody else to fill that position, and he then proposed Mr. J. Dempsey, whom he described as an "Old Campaigner," and this was seconded by Mr. Cahill, and carried unanimously.

Father Crotty, who, up till then, had been presiding, now vacated the chair, which was taken by Mr. Dempsey, amidst applause, who suitably returned thanks.

Mr. P. Cahill was then elected Treasurer and Hon. Sec., Father Crotty, paying a high tribute to this gentleman's qualifications for the positions.

Mr. Madden then explained the matter of the affiliation of the Branch with Headquarters, it was decided to affiliate, and the selection of two delegates to attend the Convention in Dungarvan on Sunday was next taken up.

Mr. M. F. Walsh, proposed, and Mr. E. Casey, seconded, that Father Crotty be one of the delegates.

The Rev. gentleman, said he should like to act in that capacity, but he found it very difficult to get away on Sunday, and he asked them to appoint some other member in his stead.

Mr. T. Daly, then proposed, that Mr. M. F. Walsh, be appointed, and this was carried unanimously.

Mr. Baldwin, proposed, and Dr. White, seconded, that Mr. E. Casey, be the second delegate, and this having also been carried, Mr. Madden then handed both gentlemen their credentials and admission cards to the Convention.

Mr. Madden then explained, that they were entitled to two delegates from each Chapel area, and Messrs. E. Lecky, Satterbridge, and Jas. Ahearne Tinker, were appointed to represent the Mellery Chapel area at the Convention.

Mr. Madden said that it was practically certain that Dr. V. White, and Capt. Redmond, would stand as Government candidates for the Co. Waterford, but they were anxious to run a third candidate on the same ticket and they hoped to find a strong and representative public man from the West of the County to also go forward this time.

Matters of detail, including general organisation, transport and finance, were next discussed at length, and the question of holding a public collection at the Chapel gates in aid of the Election Fund was also considered and a definite decision arrived at.

Mr. Connolly then briefly addressed the meeting and answered some interesting questions regarding the proper working of the Branch, etc., after which a vote of thanks to Mr. Dempsey for presiding concluded the proceedings.

A LOVING WIFE. Solicitor: What is your husband's woman: Just a mere worm.

G. A. A.

ANNUAL CONVENTION OF CO. BOARD.

CHAIRMAN'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Wm. Walsh, Chairman, presided at the Annual Convention of the Waterford County Board G.A.A., held at Dungarvan, on Sunday last. The Convention was attended by upwards of fifty delegates from the various Clubs as well as all the officials of the Divisional Boards.

Chairman's Address.

Addressing the meeting the Chairman said his first duty was to bid them all a hearty cead mile faile. In a special manner he welcomed those of them, who, for a score of years or longer, had been working for the advancement of their native games, those who had kept the flag flying when their Association was not the great force it was to-day. It should be a source of joy to them, as it was to the younger generation of Gaeldom, to witness the remarkable strides made by the G.A.A. in recent times. The past year had been a wonderful one in more than one sense—wonderful in the very high standard of play produced in the various competitions—wonderful in the enormous attendances at Croke Park and other venues—wonderful in the enthusiasm and exemplary conduct of the tens of thousands of patrons from the four corners of Erin—wonderful above all for the magnificent sporting spirit displayed by victor and vanquished alike. (Applause.)

Within the past decade, we have watched with pride our Association progress. It has gained in strength each succeeding year until in 1931, it reached a point far in excess of our most hopeful anticipations. The last year will go down in the annals of Gaeldom as the most wonderful year the Association has known since its foundation.

"It is fitting," that Waterford's name should be entered in the championship roll in such a memorable year.

"We are proud of the sturdy lads who brought such honour to this old county."

But, he said, they should not forget the men mainly responsible for their victories in the Munster and All-Ireland finals. He was going to repeat there what he had said at the West Waterford Convention, that Waterford's success in the All-Ireland Junior Hurling final was entirely due to Frank Ryan, Jim O'Brien, and Jim Cunningham. These, with the Secretary and the Chairman of the Co. Board, were responsible for the selection of the team. Speaking with inside knowledge, he could say that his friends from Tallow were all anxiety to field the best possible fifteen, and in their endeavour to pick the right man in the right place they forgot the existence of the Tallow Club (applause). At their own expense they visited Ballyduff Lower and other venues. They harkened to and acted on the advice of the two outside members of the Selection Committee.

That was the spirit that carried a county to success; and, he said again if a like spirit had actuated the senior selection committee, Waterford would probably have won the senior and minor Munster titles on August 16th. He honestly believed that there was material in their county good enough to win a senior championship. All that was wanted was a spirit of co-operation which would lead to the selection of the best available men, irrespective of what clubs they belonged to (applause).

Tough football had not made the same amount of progress as hurling he was still hopeful that they could muster a team capable of rendering an excellent account of itself in this year's Munster ties. His conviction was based on the high standard of play exhibited in the senior final—De La Salle v. Dungarvan. This undoubtedly was the finest exhibition of Gaelic football witnessed in the county for a number of years.

"Twelve months ago some 'knowing' people whispered that the G.A.A. was on its last legs in Waterford. Our Secretary's report and balance sheet show how exactly these wise-crees erred.

"Thank God, the Association was never in such a flourishing condition in this old Decies county. Our All-Ireland victory—won by Waterford born boys over all-comers from the other thirty-two counties—no Partition in Gaeldom—was a bitter pill for the 'new aristocracy.' I tell these people that the G.A.A. will be a virile national force in Waterford when some influential citizens of the Un-touched City will be repining their action of attempting a new plantation, another conquest, by a process of 'peaceful penetration,' and in the guise of 'sport' (applause).

He recalled how at the last Convention he had occasion to refer to certain Catholic institutions that gave their allegiance to non-Irish sporting associations. Their right to do so, he said, no one disputed, but one had a right to see that they should not march under false colours. The Catholic bodies he referred to had as their slogan "Faith and Fatherland."

"I wonder," he asked, "do they ever think how fares it with Faith and Fatherland at Sandy Row and Lansdowne Road? Do they ever think who were the friends of Faith and Fatherland when the Gaels of Ireland saved our country from conscription? Do they ever ask themselves why Cardinal MacRory, the Bishops and the vast majority of the priests of Ireland give their wholehearted support to the G.A.A.? If they wish to know, I will try to enlighten them. The hierarchy and priests of Ireland support the G.A.A. because they recognise that our Association and its members are true to Faith and Fatherland. In case our friends in Waterford doubt what I say, perhaps a few quotations may convince them that I am not speaking at random."

Mr. Walsh, proceeding, quoted the following extract from a lecture given in Belfast by his eminence Cardinal MacRory:—"Gaelic games (His Eminence said) have a special claim upon us, for in the days of long ago they played a very important part in the building up of muscle and sinew and bone of our forefathers. We ought therefore, to cherish and foster these games for patriotic reasons."

He also quoted the letter written by his Eminence when he accepted patronship of the G.A.A. It was:—

"Dear Mr. O'Keefe—I shall be most happy to become a patron of the G.A.A., and I am grateful to the annual convention of the Gaels of Ireland for asking me to become one of their patrons. I shall be willing to receive an address from your Association, although I have no great love for addresses."

A further letter read by the Chairman was written by his Grace Most Rev. Dr. Harty from The Palace, Thurles, on May 4th, 1928. Writing to Mr. O'Toole, his Grace stated:—

"With special pleasure I accept the invitation of the Annual Congress of the G.A.A. to become a patron of the Association. Believing that the G.A.A. has an exceedingly healthy influence on Irish life, I deem it a great favour to be a patron. I hope that the Association will continue its splendid work for Irish ideals and manly Irish customs" (applause).

He next quoted the following letter received by Most Rev. Dr. Harty from Cardinal Gasparri:—

"Dear Archbishop Harty—His Holiness was very much pleased to have received the congratulations and felicitations of the Gaelic Athletic Association of Ireland on the occasion of the ratification of the Lateran Treaty and the Concordat between the Holy See and Italy. The Holy Father has directed me to request your Grace to convey an expression of his appreciation of this message of goodwill and filial devotion, and to say that the Holy Father bestows the Apostolic Blessing on all members of the Association."

The Chairman, continuing, used a further quotation—that of his Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Collier on the occasion of the blessing of the Nowlan Park, Kilkenny. His Lordship said:—

"I give the blessing of the Church to this new park, and in giving the blessing of the Church I might remind the Gaels here gathered that they could honour God just as well in lawful amusements as in several other ways. If their amusement is offered in the right way God accepts it as an honour. I particularly hope that this field for many long years will be the scene of clean, manly Irish games, and that commercialism and professionalism, which would ruin games, will be absent from the games played in this park. I can bear willing testimony to the good Catholic spirit that has animated the officials and playing men of the G.A.A. up to this. I may bless this field and hope that for many years the games played in it will be played for the honour of God and for the honour of the fair name of Ireland" (applause).

Mr. Walsh made it clear that it was no pleasure for him to dwell so much on this topic, but said the gravity of the situation demanded a plain, honest expression of opinion. Anything he had said he hoped would not be taken as hostile to the Catholic bodies referred to in his remarks. They regretted sincerely that they did not have the support and co-operation of people who in the natural order of events should be with them.

He felt sure the C.Y.M.S. and kindred associations were ever willing to take a lead from their spiritual advisers, and in view of the quotations he had given he trusted their friends would give due consideration to the matter, and that in the near future they might transfer their allegiance to the one organisation that had ever been true to Ireland's faith and Irish nationality (loud applause).

"Before I conclude," he proceeded, "I would like to say a few words regarding the work ahead. Although much progress has been made within the last few years, much more remains to be accomplished. The insidious opposition of to-day is far more dangerous than at any period in history. If we are true to the ideals and traditions of the G.A.A. we need have no fear of the anti-Irish influences at present aiming at the propagation of imperialism" (applause).

It was essential that sincere and earnest workers should have control of affairs in the various councils of the Association, from the humblest club to the Central Executive Council. It was even more essential that undesirable should not be tolerated. In a huge organisation like theirs it was only natural to expect that some weaklings were to be found. He feared they had a few such in this country—individuals with a mercenary outlook, who regarded themselves and their clubs as superior to the Association.

The sooner these people realised that their clubs were but tiny atoms of the G.A.A. the better. The Co. Board should make superior-minded people feel that if they were not willing to abide by the laws of the G.A.A. their presence was not required, as native traitor was far more harmful than foreign foe. (Loud applause).

It was the former Rooney had in mind when more than a quarter of a century ago, he wrote:—

"I asked my heart if each generation

That marched to honour and found red graves.

Gave all their valour to build a nation Of white-soiled, bloodless contended slaves."

He was very pleased to say that the Christian Brothers and De La Salle Schools were as enthusiastic as ever in pushing forward the games of the Gael. They of the G.A.A. owed a deep debt of gratitude to the good Brothers for their valuable assistance, and they could, with profit, follow their noble example in pursuing their activities in the cause of Irish-Ireland (applause).

"We should remember," Mr. Walsh concluded, "that the mission of the G.A.A. is not confined to the fostering of native games. Our Association expects, or, I should say, demands, that all its members should support in every way the language, music, dance and industries of this country (prolonged applause).

After standing orders had been unanimously adopted, the convention proceeded to the consideration of the statement of accounts and balance sheet.

Answering Mr. Madders, N.T. (Ballyduff), the Secretary (Mr. P. Whelan) said the Co. Board still held the £50 voted by the Munster Council to the Fitzgerald Fund, and would pay it when called upon. A proposal to this effect by Mr. Charlie Ware (Erin's Own) was carried at a later stage of the meeting.

The question of the Secretary's remuneration was then raised, when it was revealed that Mr. Whelan had not received payment for three years. The Secretary himself, however, stated he did not want any remuneration when the money was not there. When they had funds they could do something. The thing had cropped up for the last four or five years, as far as he could remember, but he would prefer that they would not have any discussion on the matter until such time as the Board were in a position to do something. They were getting towards the right position now; they were much better off than they were last year, and if they had another good year everything would be all right. It was a labour of love for him when he shouldered the job, and he meant to carry it through.

Mr. T. McCarthy (Dungarvan) did not think it was good enough to have their Secretary working for nothing. "You have hundreds of honorary secretaries throughout the country," Mr. Whelan said, "and I don't see why I should not be as good as any of them."

Even so, Mr. McCarthy contended that the former Secretary had been paid and he could not see why the same should not apply now.

Mr. Ormonde said he did not think they should take advantage of the secretary's generosity.

Neither did Mr. Madders, who maintained there should be an instruction sent from that Convention to the Co. Board to have the matter dealt with. If their Secretary were more pressing they would find some way of paying him.

The Secretary expressed the hope that nobody would get the impression that he was leaving the amount run, and then when they got the money that he intended taking it all. Let the years that are gone be gone, and have no more about them," he said.

The matter was not discussed further.

Mr. P. O'Grady (Waterford) said he would like to know how an item of £2 3s. 6d. under the head of wages in connection with the National League fixture at Waterford on Nov. 22nd last was made up.

The Secretary told him that 10s. was paid for the preparation of the field, and a couple of ticket-sellers got 5s. "Quite so," agreed the Chairman. "The spirit down in Waterford is so genuinely Gaelic that we cannot get half a dozen men to sell tickets without payment," he added.

Mr. O'Grady could not see why any man should be paid for this. Why, he asked, could they not get a number of men to sell tickets voluntarily until they were in a better financial position?

The Secretary admitted the idea was a good one if they could get the men.

"I stand by it. I think some members of the Eastern Board here know that as well as I do," the Chairman declared, when Mr. O'Grady commented on the statement that they could not get voluntary workers in Waterford.

"That is news to me, as a prominent member of the club," said Mr. Roche (Erin's Own).

Mr. McCarthy (Dungarvan) questioned the item in the statement of accounts relating to hurleys and balls and said the sum of £30 10s. was a very high figure. He suggested buying a number at wholesale rates.

Secretary—The expense for balls are very high, but the hurleys are dead, with the exception of one lot of hurleys they were all got at the wholesale rate about 5s. 6d. each.

Chairman—In former years we never had an item like this.

It was finally agreed that all players be picked for inter-county matches bring a hurley and if possible two, and when a hurley is broken in play the player will get a reserve hurley.

Training Fund.

Mr. Ormonde, questioned the item on the Statement of Accounts governing the Training Fund.

The Chairman in reply, said "Erin's Own" Club had a separate fund. They got no permission from the Co. Board to start a private fund.

Mr. Ormonde—Their fund was more or less in opposition to the Co. Board Fund. That should not be allowed and the matter should be gone into very seriously. Tallow could have hung on to what they received but did not, they handed it over to the Co. Board.

Mr. Ware said the fund was expended in various ways by Erin's Own in training the team. He stated the Club Secretary would give any information.

On the proposition of Mr. Madders, seconded by Mr. Ormonde, it was decided to ask the Erin's Own Secretary for particulars.

Arising out of the Secretary's Report, and in reply to Mr. O'Donoghue, it was stated that the Minor Board in East Waterford was an independent body affiliated to the Eastern Board as a Club only. The Minor Board had full control of all finances from which no benefit accrued to the Eastern Board or Co. Board.

The matter after much discussion was on the suggestion of the Secretary, adjourned to the next meeting of the Eastern Board, when the views of the Minor Board should be heard on the matter.

Sympathy.

Votes of sympathy were passed to the relatives of the late Mr. P. Walsh, Templeorum, and to Thos. Drohan, Ferrybank, on the death of his sister.

Mr. Phil O'Donnell, wrote thanking the Board for the kind resolution of sympathy passed to him and the members of his family, on the death of his father.

Election Of Officers.

Nominees for the Chairmanship of the County Board were—W. Walsh (outgoing); P. Moloney, and Phil O'Donnell.

Messrs. Moloney and O'Donnell, having withdrawn, the Chairman in declaring himself elected, thanked the members of the Convention.

Treasurership—For the position of Co. Board Treasurer, Messrs. Frank Drohan, (outgoing) and Seamus Hayes, were nominated. The result of the vote was—Drohan 30; Hayes 18.

Mr. Drohan, returned thanks for his re-election.

Secretaryship—Mr. Pax Whelan, was unanimously re-appointed Secretary.

Delegates to Munster Convention.

The following delegates were appointed to attend the Munster Convention.

Messrs. F. Ryan, Tallow; J. O'Donnell, Dungarvan; W. Lawlor, Chairman Eastern Board; C. Ware, Erin's Own; with the Chairman and Secretary of the Co. Board.

Delegates To Annual Congress.

Messrs. W. Lawlor, P. O'Donnell, A. Madders, and the Secretary were appointed to attend the Annual Congress at Dublin, on Easter Sunday.

Munster Council Officials.

As Officials to the Munster Council, the following were nominated—Chairman—Sean McCarthy (outgoing); Treasurer—Sean Hogan, Waterford, and Secretary—Mr. P. McGrath, Tipperary.

Representatives On Munster Council.

The Chairman and Mr. M. Connors (Dungarvan), were appointed with the Secretary, who is already a member.

Central Council Officials.

The outgoing officials viz—Mr. Sean Ryan, Chairman, with Messrs. Breen and Mulholland, as trustees were re-nominated.

Grading A Football Team.

The proposal that Waterford be graded junior in football was made by Mr. S. Hayes (Dungarvan). Mr. J. O'Donnell, (Lismore), seconded.

Mr. Charles Ware, (Waterford), said such a step would be a sign of weakness. Mr. Lawlor (Chairman Eastern Board), said they tried it last year and they were laughed at. The Secretary (Mr. P. Whelan), said this grading system had been tried in Limerick and it had been found that, instead of improving the standard, it had rather gone backward. Mr. Hayes eventually withdrew his proposal.

On the proposal of Mr. Sean Hogan, the Convention unanimously decided that in future the Convention venue should be changed so as to be held in rotation in Lismore, Waterford, and Dungarvan, and not permanently in the latter centre as heretofore. Mr. Hogan and several other delegates stressed the importance of the change from the point of view of advertising and fostering the true Gaelic spirit throughout the county. The question of expense was mentioned. Mr. Hogan said the change had been made in other counties and had proved a great success.

HOCKEY.

Three friendly matches were played at the Youghal Club Grounds on Sunday week—Harlequins v. Youghal.

Result—Harlequins—1 goal; Youghal nil. Harlequins mixed v. Youghal mixed. Result—Scoreless draw; Bective v. Youghal (2nd Eleven)—Result—Scoreless draw.

"PESSIMISTS NEVER SAVED A NATION!"

When the late President Griffith wrote these words he added—
"They never exalted a Nation".

Mr. De Valera and his party have proved themselves pessimists. They can never save nor exalt the Nation.

"The hopeful do these things", continued the first President of the Saorstat.

His successors—President Cosgrave and his Government, have done and will continue to do these things.

In President Griffith's words—
"They believe and work".

Help them to continue to work—for you.

MULCAHY'S, DUNGARVAN.

Fianna Fail Meeting in Cappoquin.

On Sunday after last Mass, a Fianna Fail meeting was held on the Square, Cappoquin, this being the first public meeting to be held in that town in connection with the General Election which is expected to be held next month. The speakers were Messrs. Sean Goulding and P. J. Little, the two sitting Fianna Fail T.D.s for the Co. Waterford. There was a very large attendance, and the proceedings passed off in a most peaceful and orderly manner, there not being the slightest interruption from start to finish.

There was no formal Chairman, and the meeting was opened by Mr. Goulding who said it was about four years since he had last spoken to the people of Cappoquin, but it was 10 years since the present Free State Government was returned to power and it was well that the people should ask themselves what had the Government done to improve the prosperity of the country during that time.

He was not there to abuse anybody that day, for the upmost thought in every man's mind at present should be how to improve the prosperity of the country. The Free State was one of the worst sufferers in the matter of emigration, and this should not be allowed if they had a proper Government to develop the resources of the country. The common people themselves had as much intelligence as their elected representatives in either party, and he asked them to carefully use that intelligence when a General Election takes place and return to power only the men and the Party who were pledged to develop the industrial and agricultural resources of the country.

No doubt the people would be shortly flooded with propaganda by the Government Party telling them that if De Valera's Party were returned to power the first thing they would do would be to bring back the British troops, and the Black and Tans, and start another war in this country, but he asked them not to believe that. His Party did not want war because they knew too well that if such a thing happened again in this country they would be the worst sufferers, as they had been before.

The speaker then referred to the economic depression in the country, which was having a disastrous effect on the farmers, labourers and shopkeepers alike, and while he was not going to blame the present Government for all the ills the country at present suffered from, he held that they had not done as much as they should have done by the imposition of tariffs to protect their native industries and so avoid such depression amongst all classes of the people. Two years ago his Party had pointed out to the Government the necessity of tariffs on certain imported goods, especially foreign bacon, but Mr. Hogan and Mr. Blythe only laughed at them at the time, but now they had put on such a tariff when it was too late, as many of their farmers had abandoned pig-rearing altogether owing to the unfair competition to which they had been subjected for many years past.

The Free State was not an independent country to-day, and their principal industry was agriculture, and it was the policy of the Fianna Fail Party to foster and develop that industry and try to find employment for every man in the country who wanted it.

He said Nationally was the bed-rock of every country, and Ireland could never be happy and prosperous until the people asserted that spirit and made their country one and undivided. They had been frequently told that if his Party got into power their first act would be to scrap the Civic Guards, the Army and all the engines of Government in the Free State, but they would do nothing of the kind, as the country would be run by them as a well-ordered and well-governed State, but they would certainly stop further recruiting for these forces as they believed that important economies could be effected in this direction. Having dealt with several other topics the speaker concluded by asking those who had voted against them at the last election to vote for them this time and thereby return a strong Party to power, because nothing could be done for them by sectional or small parties in the Dail, or elsewhere, as had been proved in the past.

Mr. P. J. Little, in the course of a lengthy speech, said he was sure the people now fully realised that the country was in a much worse position to-day than when the present Government went into power, as their cattle, butter and other exports showed a decrease of £8,000,000, while their imports were increasing to such an extent that no country could stand. The lack of national principle in economics was alone responsible for the present depressed state of the country, and it would be the first duty of the Fianna Fail Party, if returned to power, to put an end to such an intolerable state of affairs. His Party were out for improving the economic position of the country, while the Government Party were in favour of depending entirely on the English markets.

Referring to the land annuities, he said that the countries involved in the payment of war Reparations had been granted a moratorium for two years in order to give them breathing space, but according to the policy of the present Government, the Free State was never going to get any breathing space. Instead of that, the Free State Government had done their damndest to keep this country saddled with the payment of these annuities by the publication of their recent legal opinion which made out a case for the British Government to continue demanding full payment of this money which should be kept at home for developing their industries and providing employment for their own people to-day.

The speaker then referred to the "Secret Document" signed by Sir John Keane, and other Unionists, appealing for £40,000 for a General Election Fund for Mr. Cosgrave's party, and said that as those who paid the piper were entitled to call the tune, the signatories to this document could dictate their own terms to Mr. Cosgrave, as they had been doing. He then quoted from Sir John Keane's recent article in the "Sunday Times", London, in which Cardinal McRory, and the Roman Catholic religion were attacked, and said when they had a man of that type looking for funds for

Mr. Cosgrave and his party it was easy to realise what kind of a party that was, and he appealed to the people to dissociate themselves from Sir John Keane and such a party at the coming election. He next referred to an article which had appeared in the "Irish Times" on Saturday, dealing with the precarious position of the Irish railways, and said while he agreed with most of what was said, he could not agree with the statement that the Fianna Fail Party had no policy on this matter.

This was no so, because his Party by their policy of increasing agriculture and the other industries of the Free State would ensure that the railway companies owing to increased traffic receipts would soon regain their lost prosperity, and they did their best to curtail the unfair road competition against the railways when the Traffic Central Bill was introduced by the Government. He said the position of their Party in the Co. Waterford was now so strong that they were going to put up three Fianna Fail candidates this time, one of whom would probably be a farmer as they already had several farmers as well as labourers in their ranks, so that their Party represented all the principal classes in the country and on that account was deserving of the best support on the present occasion. He then criticised the action of Capt. Redmond in changing his principles by becoming a member of the Government Party, and said that at the last election Capt. Redmond had attacked the Government far more strongly and bitterly than any member of Fianna Fail had done.

Mr. Goulding, in bringing the meeting to a close, said they would probably have some of the Government candidates holding a meeting in Cappoquin on an early date, and he asked the people to give them a patient and respectful hearing, as we are all Irishmen and each side was entitled to be heard, (cheers). Messrs. Goulding and Little had previously addressed another large meeting at Affane, near Cappoquin after the 10.30 Mass.

A Voter's Reflections.

The approach of the General Election is a time when the average thinking citizen begins to take stock of the position of his country. He realises that the financial and economic position of the Government of his country is a matter of grave personal concern to him, whether he be a manufacturer, a retailer, a farmer or a wage earner.

He begins to look around him and do a little stock-taking on his own. The intelligent man or woman is not content nowadays simply to take a parochial or narrow view of things when he or she completes this stock-taking.

Just as a man taking a stocktaking of his personal position has a look round to see how his neighbours, friends or rivals in business are doing and makes a comparison, so, too, the voter who wishes to make up his mind has a glance round other countries to see how they compare with his own.

The average Saorstat voter is now in this position and he realises from the information he gathers from the newspapers that the world as a whole is not in a healthy condition financially and economically. He reads of the large number of unemployed, millions of them, that are lining up day after day in what they call "Bread Queues" in the United States.

FLUCTUATIONS OF FORTUNES.

He casts back a few years and remembers that the United States was then indulging in an orgy of prosperity, that attracted thousands of young men and women from other countries including our own, who went there to share in the unprecedented wave of prosperity.

Something happened in the meantime to engulf that wave and leave a rocky shore of no work and no employment. In his own mind he thanks Providence that such drastic fluctuations of fortune do not take here.

He looks further afield and sees such far apart countries as Australia and Germany suffering in a similar way. Australia is in difficulties because her national finances have been badly managed.

Other countries will not come to her assistance and give her a loan and she has to impose extra heavy taxation.

Germany is overwhelmed with war reparations, and even Great Britain finds herself burthened with war debts to such an extent that drastic economies are effected and more taxation is placed on her people.

He goes still further and sees that most of the countries so affected are surrounded by very high tariff walls. Yet there are huge stocks of food and manufactured goods in all these countries, and there are millions of men and women willing to work to make money to buy the food and goods.

The problem of solving this abnormal position resolves itself into a question of exchanging these materials and getting people to work again. But the tariff walls remain as high as ever and there is a deadlock.

SAORSTAT POSITION BRIGHTER.

The voter comes back to the Saorstat and again has a look round. The position here is brighter. Our national finances are in a sound position. Our national debt is very low. We have no high Tariff Walls. We have no war debt to pay. He recalls that in 1925 President Cosgrave made an agreement with Britain to wipe out the share of that debt which was originally apportioned to the Saorstat and estimated at amounts varying from £5,000,000 to £10,000,000.

He remembers that there was little thanks given to the President at that time for such a great achievement, and he also recalls that some years later, when Mr. Snowden, the Chancellor of the Exchequer in Britain saved his country, vastly wealthier than ours, £1,000,000 a year he was hailed by the British people as the "Iron Chancellor."

Reflectively he wonders why President Cosgrave got little praise and much blame for saving the Saorstat taxpayers such a large annual payment. Perhaps he himself was largely to blame for that.

He sees the matter in a clearer light now. Times are hard it is true, but looking round at other countries, there comes the conviction that the Saorstat has weathered the storm remarkably well and has not come near to being wrecked on the rocky shores of high tariffs or war debts.

The men who guided the ship of State, though not so experienced as the pilots of other states and countries, showed greater skill and wisdom and they deserve to be thought well of.—(Com.)

IRISH PRIEST HONOURED IN GLASGOW.

The following is taken from a recent issue of the "Glasgow Observer":

LINWOOD PASTOR HONOURED. PRESENTATION TO REV. FR. DENNEHY.

KNIGHTS OF ST. COLUMBA AND CAHOLIC ACTION.

His Grace the Archbishop of Glasgow proposes to call together representatives of various Catholic Organisations in order to discuss what action would be taken in Scotland to meet the menace of naturalism and materialism.

This significant statement was made by Mr. E. Henry, Past Supreme President of the Knights of St. Columba at a Presentation Supper to Rev. Cornelius Dennehy, of Linwood, by No. 10 Council of the K.S.C., last Thursday.

The function was held in the new premises, Forbes Place, Paisley, of No. 10 Council, and the occasion was to mark the recent promotion of Fr. Dennehy to the Councils of the pastorate of St. Conval's, Linwood.

Mr. O'Gaffney, G.K., who presided, proposed the toast of "the Pope" and of "the Clergy of Paisley and district". The area of No. 10 Council embraces Paisley, Linwood, Johnstone and Barrhead.

Rev. Dean White, M.R., replied on behalf of the clergy and also proposed the health of the members of the K.S.C. He spoke of his own deep interest in the welfare of the Knights, and Fr. Dennehy he described as his prop and his stay during his years at St. Muris. His advice to the members was "keep your own Council" and he reminded them that their duty as Catholics and as citizens was to be loyal to the country in which they lived.

Past Supreme Knight E. Henry, said as a sequel to the speech of his Grace the Archbishop of Glasgow on Monday, it was certain that the order would get many new recruits for membership from the clergy—and no Association would make progress without the clergy—Catholic action will be speedily required and he revealed that his Grace the Archbishop of Glasgow is going to call together representatives of various Catholic Organisations in order to discuss what action is to be taken in Scotland to meet the menace of naturalism and materialism. What has happened in Russia and Spain and has been going on in France for half a century threatened Scotland. The machinery of the order of the Knights of St. Columba will be put at the disposal of the Hierarchy immediately the call comes.

Grand Knight Gaffney, who proposed the toast of their Chaplain, Father Dennehy, recounted their guest's yeoman service to St. Muris mission, and the appreciation of the people shown by the readiness of those whom he worked among in his 17 years to do when asked anything and everything they could for him.

On behalf of the Council he presented Fr. Dennehy with a portable Wireless Set.

Fr. Dennehy, in the course of his reply expressed gratitude and thanks and accepted of the request to continue in his post as Chaplain to the Council.

Returning home to Linwood that night he said, he would feel like some one who had left a little village to return "with a whole world under his arm (laughter).

Past Provincial Deputy Quigley, thanked Grand Knight Gaffney, for his chairmanship.

(Fr. Dennehy is son of Mr. D. Dennehy, U.D.C., Gibraltar Terrace, Youghal.)

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

THE ELECTION.
As the date of the General Election draws nearer, more and more activity is being shown in the Party camps, and by the time the dissolution is announced, all candidates will have been selected. So far very few independents are in the field, and the Agricultural Community, who have to keep the pot boiling for all parties have made no move at all in these parts. As we said already that is a pity as the same opportunity won't occur again for years.

FIANNA FAIN CONVENTION.
At a Fianna Fain Convention, in Dungarvan, on Sunday last, which was largely attended, it was agreed to run three candidates for the Constituency. The sitting members, Messrs. P. J. Little, and Sean Goulding, were unanimously selected, and for the third seat, it is stated the names of Alderman Jones, Mayor of Waterford, Mr. M. O'Ryan, Co. Councillor, Knockalishen, Ballymacarbery, and Mr. Michael Mansfield, Old Parish, were put forward. On the first vote Mr. O'Ryan, was eliminated and in the final division, Mr. Mansfield, beat Alderman Jones, by 6 votes and was recommended to the Executive for ratification as the third member. Mr. Mansfield is a most popular and respected young man, sprung from a highly-esteemed family and has long since proved his worth in the fight for freedom. He has the best wishes of his countless friends up and down the county for his success at the polls.

CUMANN NA nGAEDHEAL CONVENTION.

There has been great activity in the Government Party Camp in the Co. and City of Waterford during the past week and the recent alliance of the Redmondites with the Cumann Na nGaedheal should be a great addition in the fighting strength of the Government in the area. It is generally understood that three candidates will be put forward by Cumann Na nGaedheal and in some quarters even four are favoured. A Convention to select candidates will be held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Sunday next, 17th inst., at 3 p.m., at which General Mulcahy, Minister for Local Government will preside. In addition to the outgoing T.D.'s—Dr. White and Capt. Redmond, it is understood that the names of Mr. John Kiersey, Ballyhussa Chairman, Co. Council, and Mr. John Butler, Chairman, U.D.C., Dungarvan, will also be put forward. At a meeting in Dungarvan last Thursday night the candidature of Mr. John Butler was unanimously recommended to the Convention, and eloquent tributes were paid to his worth as a representative on the several public bodies of the County with which he is associated, as also to his actions while a member of the Dail a few years ago. For everything that meant to improve the general prosperity, and to benefit the individual, he worked with the zeal and capacity for which he is noted, and he obtained enormous concessions in the matter of unemployment grants etc for the town and area. His absence from the Dail in recent years has been much felt, and the County has suffered in consequence. Viewed from any angle, he would be a candidate to carry a big volume of support and one who, when elected, would devote himself wholeheartedly to the interests of the people amongst whom he lives for nobody knows better than he, what is required to make the people content, and prosperous.

Mr. John Kiersey, the able and energetic Chairman, of the Co. Council, needs little commendation to the public. He is so well known and so widely respected that his name is household, and as he touches nothing he does not adorn, he would be an ornament to any legislative assembly. The name of Mr. O'Gorman, Solicitor, Lismore, is also on the tapis, and he, too, would be a candidate of merit and worth.

With the times bad, and the prospects none too bright and the future dark, we want clever administrators to steer the Ship of State to the harbour of National success and safety.

MEETING IN DUNGARVAN.
A Public Meeting, under the auspices of Cumann na nGaedheal, will be held in the Square, Dungarvan, on Sunday next, 17th inst., at 4.30 a.m. General Mulcahy, Minister Local Government, Capt. Redmond, T.D., and Dr. White, T.D., will deliver addresses.

LOURDES AND BERNADETTE.
A beautiful and highly interesting Lecture on Lourdes and Bernadette, illustrated with Lantern Slides, was given in the Scouts Den, Abbeyside, last week, by Rev. J. Warren, C.C., Cathedral, Waterford. There was a large and appreciative audience, who followed the various scenes with the greatest interest. Vocal and instrumental items were also rendered by Waterford artists. At the conclusion of the Lecture, Very Rev. M. C. Crotty, P.P., heartily thanked Father Warren for his Lecture and the artists, who so kindly gave their services free. The vote was passed with acclamation.

GRAND OPENING CINDERELLA DANCE.
A Grand Opening Cinderella Dance, will be held in the Scouts Den, Abbeyside, on Friday, January, 22nd. A special Dance Committee are making all arrangements complete and a splendid Orchestra has been engaged. Dancing from 8 to 12. Tickets—Ladies 1s. 6d.; Gents 2s.

WISE SPENDING.

"THE OATH—A PROTESTANT INSTITUTION."
(SENATOR COMYN, IN DUNGARVAN, JANUARY 3rd).
(EDITOR "THE DUNGARVAN OBSERVER.")
Dear Sir,—What about the Oath sworn by Otto the Great, to the Holy See, to protect it in the 10th Century, thereby making a crisis in the history of the Papacy? What, for that matter, about the very word "Allegiance" meaning that Oath to a Liege, on which the Catholic European feudal system of Governments was founded? What about a quite recent Oath for which both Catholic and Protestants died and which many still consider binding? In the interest of mutual toleration can we not remember that we have been swearing together happily all down the ages with nobody to blame the process, except first the Quakers and now Senator Comyn?—Yours truly, E. H. USSHER,
Cappagh House.

EXTENSION OF WALLPAPER SALE.
Owing to the very inclement weather several of our numerous customers were prevented from taking advantage of last week's offer. In order to facilitate them, we will continue same for another week. Moloney's Bridge Street, and Square, Dungarvan.

A POPULAR APPOINTMENT.
At the Annual Congress of the Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders' Society, last Friday in Cork, Mr. Nicholas Fitzgerald, Co. Councillor, Bannahon, was unanimously elected Vice-President for 1932, with the right to the Presidency in 1933. This is an honour richly deserved, for Mr. Fitzgerald is the pioneer of the Cow-Testing Movement in this County, and is one of the most successful breeders and shrewd Judges of Dairy Shorthorns in the Country. It is anticipated that next year's Congress will be held in Dungarvan.

"45" DRIVE.
An extra big "45" Drive will be held at Egan's Hotel, Dungarvan, commencing on this (Friday) evening, January, 15th, at 8 p.m., when the first qualifying round will start. £15 in prizes. Tickets 2s. 6d. each.

There are classes for Pedigree and non-Pedigree registered Dairy, Aberdeen Angus, Hereford and other Bulls. Entry forms and all particulars can be had from Mr. J. Kennedy, Stonehouse, Kilmeehan, Hon. Sec., or from Mr. J. D. Palmer, M.I.A.A., Auctioneer, Waterford. Entries close February 6th.

ENGINEERING CLASSES.
We are pleased to note that the Classes in Dungarvan in Metal Work, and Motor Engineering, under the Co. Vocational Scheme, have been favoured with a full attendance of students. So large was the class that it has been divided into two sections of two nights each. It is proposed to allot a special night for apprentices and Motor mechanics.

MARRIED.
On Thursday last, at the Parish Church, Dungarvan, Mr. Wm. O'Donoghue, Knockmaun, Dungarvan, was married to Miss Mary Browne, daughter of the late Patrick Browne, Carrigroe. The ceremony was performed by Rev. John O'Donoghue, O.S.A., brother of the bridegroom, assisted by Rev. L. Egan, C.C. Subsequently the wedding breakfast was given at the Ocean View Hotel, after which the happy pair left on their honeymoon.

CAPPOQUIN RUGBY CLUB.
The First Annual Ball, under the auspices of the above Club, will be held in the Boathouse Hall, on Friday, February, 5th. Billy McSweeney's famous Band, is especially engaged, and the catering by Mr. Conway, will be perfect. There is an influential Committee in charge of the arrangements, so that the event is bound to be a perfect success.

ON FEBRUARY 7th, the home team will meet Sunday's Well (Cork), on the Kibree Grounds, and on that night a Monster Whist Drive will be held.

Waterford County Board of Public Health

Mr. Patrick O'Gorman, chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the above held on Saturday. The other members in attendance were Messrs. D. Heskin, M. Curran, Wm.
 Stack and J. Butler.

Possession Of Cottage.
 The Board discussed the question (adjourned from the previous meeting) of the tenancy of the cottage occupied by John Hayes, in the Ring area.
 Hayes, who appeared before the meeting, replying to the Secretary said he was not married. He was not prepared to give up possession of the cottage when the house that his mother was building under the Gaeltacht Housing Scheme was completed. That house was in his mother's name, and he wanted a house of his own.

Chairman—The L. G. Board will oblige us to put you out when it is required by a married man with a family. If you are prepared to give up the cottage when the other house is ready we won't disturb you.
 Hayes—I am not prepared to give up the cottage. Let ye work away.

The Board referred the matter to their solicitor, to take the necessary steps to get possession of the cottage.

Aglish Water Supply.
 The question of providing a new filter at the Aglish Reservoir, reported on by the caretaker, was referred to the Engineer to inspect.

Nuisance At Portlaw.
 Mr. Jephson, Engineer, reported being requested by residents to have the pump at the Square, Portlaw, removed to a more suitable position, owing to the nuisance caused at present by waste water. The probable cost was £4 10s.

The matter was adjourned to next meeting for the opinion of the members representing that area.

Portlaw Sewers.
 Mr. Jephson, also submitted a report on the sewers at Portlaw, which he had opened and found completely filled with silt, the sewer was now nearly cleaned. There were some further short lengths to be cleaned
 also and others under the jurisdiction of the Co. Council were to be attended to by Mr. Bowen.

The report was approved.
Glencairn Water Supply.
 The question of the provision of a water supply to the Glencairn School from the supply tank at Fortwilliam arose again on the report from Mr.
 Spreadborough, Engineer, to which was attached a letter from Major Gumbleton, the owner of the tank,
 who is at present in England.

The matter was further adjourned
 pending an interview between Mr.
 Heskin, Mr. Spreadborough and Major Gumbleton.

Water By-Law For Tramore.
 A letter from the Department with reference to the proposed by-law governing the Tramore Water Supply was read, accompanying the letter was a by-law which the Department suggested should be applied to all water schemes in the county.
 Consideration of the matter was deferred to next meeting.

Transfer Of Cottages.
 Pending the attendance of the local representatives, the Board adjourned to the next meeting, the transfer of a cottage at Bawnabanogue, Kilmac-thomas. The cottage in the name of Thos. Galvan, (deceased), Comeragh, was let to John Galvan. That in the name of Kate Mullins, Newtown, Kilmachomas, (deceased), to her son
 David and that in the name of E.
 Casey, Kilmacbrannigan, Kilmac-thomas, to Patrick Casey.

Additional Room To Cottage.
 A further report was asked from the Engineer in connection with a query from the Department as to the reason the Board refused to build an additional room to the cottage occupied by John Loughlan, Ardnahe.
 The Department also wrote for information regarding a cottage at Mountfair, Tallow, which required repairs.

The Secretary said this cottage was referred to Mr. Spreadborough, Engineer, about 12 months ago, but the Engineer find great difficulty in getting contractors in that area.

The matter was referred again to the Engineer.

No action was taken on correspondence read from the Tramore Public Health Committee, re cleaning drain, Promenade, and erecting a railing at the Crue Well.

Compensation.
 The Board granted an application for £16 made by Alice Mulcahy, Moon
 alour, Melleray, in respect of clothing destroyed owing to an outbreak of sickness in the house.

Urinals At Lismore.
 The Board directed their solr., to represent them at the forthcoming inquiry to be held in connection with the erection of public urinals at Lismore.

Arrears Of Cottage Rents.
 Mr. Morrissey, checker, reported the amount outstanding arrears of cottage rents for the county as £716
 at the beginning and £766 at the end of the month.

Raising Of Loan Refused.
 A letter was read from the Co. Council Secretary, informing the Board of the Council's refusal to sanction the raising of a loan of £1,500 for the further extension of the sea wall at Tra-more and refusing to co-operate with the Board in the carrying out of the proposed work.

The Engineer who again expressed the opinion that the work was very necessary was asked to submit a further plan.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

HOUSEBREAKING AND LARCENIES.

At Youghal District Court, (before
 Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.) Patrick
 White, of no fixed abode, was charged with housebreaking and larceny on 3 different occasions from the shop of Mrs. Lane, Inch. He was also charged with the larceny of 5s. 6d., from a farmer, named Morrison.

Supt. Dennehy, prosecuted.
 The charges were as follows:—On December 13th breaking into Mrs.
 Lane's and stealing cigarettes value
 1s., and cash 2s.; on December 27th,
 a like offence, stealing goods, value 10d.; on same date stealing 5s. 6d., from Michael Morrison, on January 3rd, stealing goods value 2s. from Mrs. Lane's.

The Justice—All those occurred about 10 a.m.
 The Supt.—Yes, during Mass time
 at Inch.
 The Supt. said that on the 3rd Jan., two young men, named Walsh and O'Donoghue, saw the accused approach Mrs. Lane's. They watched him and hearing the crash of glass, went over and found him inside. They held him there till Mrs. Lane and her family returned from Mass and sent for the Guards. Mrs. Lane then reported two similar incidents which occurred on the 13th and 27th Dec.
 The Guards had since ascertained that the accused had broken into Morrison's. When charged he admitted all the charges.

Mrs. Lane, deposed that on Jan., 3rd, she and her family left to go to Mass at 9.30, locking up and leaving no one behind. She fastened one window with wire because it had been tampered with on previous occasions while she was at Mass. When she returned from Mass on 3rd January,
 she met Con Donoghue at the door,
 and in consequence of what he said,
 she opened the door and went in.

She found the prisoner in the dock inside. She questioned him about his business there and what he had taken.
 He muttered something about a "few fags," and landed her a package of Players. She saw another neighbour, John Walsh, outside the back window. That window was open two panes of glass were broken and the fastener was off. Donoghue remained and she sent her son for the Guards.
 There was nobody in the house when they went to Mass. On December 13th, they also went to Mass and locked up the house. On her return she found the same window had been forced open. She couldn't say what her she missed any money or cigarettes.

The Justice—Did you find anything wrong except the window being interfered with?—No, Sir. I found nobody in the place.
 On December 27th, they also closed up and went to Mass. Returning they found the same window burst open.
 She found traces of fresh mud on a book that was opened on the window.
 It was on that account she fastened
 the window with wire after 27th Dec.
 She stocked tobacco similar to that produced, she was present when Sergt. Eddie found the plug of Clarke's tobacco (produced) on the prisoner. She knew him for 4 or 5 years, during most of which time he was working around with farmers.
 He came to her shop for messages off and on.

Accused didn't cross-examine saying—"I was caught in the act."
 The prisoner consenting, the rest of the cases were tried summarily.

John Walsh, Carriganass, and Con Donoghue, Inch, gave evidence to the effect that they were near Inch Church at 9.50 a.m., on January 3rd,
 when they saw the accused coming down the hill and approaching Mrs.
 Lane's. They kept him under observation and hearing the crash of glass, they rushed over, one going to the front and the other to the back. The accused was inside and they kept him there till Mrs. Lane returned from Mass, when they told her there was a "raider" inside. She sent for the Guards and Walsh remained in charge till they arrived.

Sergt. Eddie, Killeagh, said that on 3rd, inst., in consequence of a report received, he proceeded to Mrs. Lane's at Inch, and found the accused inside. A plug of tobacco was on his person. Witness took him to the station at Killeagh and after being duly cautioned, he admitted breaking into
 Mrs. Lane's while they were at Mass on three occasions. He also admitted breaking into Morrison's and taking 5s. 6d.

Replying to the Court, the accused pleaded guilty to all the charges.
 The Supt. said the Guards knew very little about the man. He had been working around the neighbourhood for farmers.

Mr. Morrison, said the accused worked for him occasionally for a day or two at a time. He knew him 2 or 3 years. He would keep him employed but he couldn't get him to come in early at night.

The Justice said the man seemed to be a sort of simple, rambling around from one place to another.

An aunt of his appeared and said
 "there's a want in him." He used stay with her when out of work. She had not seen him for the past 5 months.

He was sentenced to two months imprisonment from the day of his arrest.

The Justice said he was certainly very pleased to see an element in the case which they hoped to see very much more of in the future—where civilians came to the rescue when they observed a breach of the law and the neighbours' property being interfered

 The Committee require all Applicants for Premiums to deposit with their applications £2, such deposit to be refunded in case the Applicant is not selected by the Committee or if he procures a Premium Bull. In the event of an Applicant failing to procure a Premium Bull, the deposit so made shall be forfeited.
 Applications on Forms, which may be had from the undersigned, will be considered at a Meeting of the Committee to be held on the 23 January, 1932.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present Mr. E. P. Lynch, Vice-chairman, presiding. Capt. Dunne, Messrs.
D. Donnelly, M. J. Fleming, T. Beau-sang, P. J. McMahon, P.C., A. J.
Fowkes, D. J. Lingham, T. Murphy,
J. Whelan, T. Harrington, E. Clancy,
P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.

Candidates And Election.
Capt. Dunne, proposed, that they ask their colleague, Mr. W. J. Broder-rick, Chairman of the Cork Co. Council to stand as an Independent Candidate at the coming Election for Youg-hal. They always had a representative for the town in former days.
Mr. Whelan, seconded. Youghal was important enough to have its own member. If Mr. Broderick became a candidate, he would undoubtedly be elected and he would be able to do something for the town.

Mr. Fowkes—Would it not be wise to get Mr. Broderick's views first?
The Chairman—I think it would be better.

Capt. Dunne said he hadn't Mr.
Broderick's views, but as a Council,
they knew they required a man of Mr. Broderick's standing—a man they could always approach.

Mr. McMahon said it would be no harm to ask him.

Mr. Fowkes—It might put him in a peculiar position.
Mr. Harrington thought they had as a Board nothing to do with politics.

Mr. McMahon said there was a resolution on the books to that effect.
Mr. Clancy said the proposition was a bit premature. There had been a meeting held during the week and the matter was referred to Mr. Broderick.

The Chairman said in that case they should take no action at that stage.
Capt. Dunne said they all knew what happened three years ago, and his object was to prevent it occurring again. They all knew what a Convention meant—leaving the best men behind and shoving donkeys over the ditch (laughter).

Mr. Murphy—Keep to your proposition.
Mr. O'Gorman said while there was nobody more anxious than he to see Mr. Broderick come forward, he agreed with Mr. Clancy, that it was not opportune for the Council to act
just then. In any case it was a matter of politics and should not be discussed there.

Mr. Harrington said the thing was out of order.
Mr. McMahon agreed with Messrs.
Harrington and O'Gorman. It was a matter for another body altogether.

Mr. Beausang called on the chair to rule it out of order.
The Chairman said the majority of the Board thought it a political business. Let Mr. Broderick please himself. Why should they dictate to him or any other man?

Mr. McMahon—Any man elected will have to take one side or other.
Therefore, it is politics. God knows
we are getting too much of that stuff.
Capt. Dunne—Isn't there a resolution proposed and seconded?

Mr. Harrington—The Chairman says he won't take it.
The matter then dropped.

The Hon. Sec., local branch G.A.A., applied for the use of the Ball Room for a dance on the 24th inst., on which day there would be an important League match—Cork v. Waterford, at Copperally.

The Clerk said there was a similar application from the S. Hurling Club.
On the proposition of Mr. Linehan, seconded by Mr. Whelan, the room was granted to the G.A.A.

British Legion.
The British Legion, applied for the use of the Hall, on the 12th, for a Whist Drive.
The application was granted.

Y.C.Y.M.C. Dance.
The Y.C.Y.M.C., were granted the use of the Town Hall for their Annual Dance, on February, 2nd.

R.N.A.T.
Col. Roch, on behalf of the Lire-boat Committee, applied for the Hall on February, 5th, to hold a Whist Drive in aid of the Funds.
The application was granted free,
no charge in view of the object.

G.S. Advertisement.
The Clerk called attention to an advertisement from the G.S. Railway in the Christmas Number of the "Irish Independent," boosting the country to oversea visitors. In it they gave the names of some of the most obscure places, but Youghal was ignored. He had written to the Co. making a complaint and the answer was an excuse that it was the draft of an old advertisement which had been sent. It seemed strange that Youghal is the only town that was omitted from their advertisements from time to time.

Mr. McMahon—It would seem that there is somebody in the Head Office of the G.S., who has his knife in Youghal.

Mr. Clancy said that for sometime past complaints of a similar kind had come regularly year by year before the Council.

The Clerk said that Youghal didn't deserve such treatment from the Co.
The Council had done its part in supporting the railway in opposition to the buses.

Market House.
The Clerk said that Mr. O'Dwyer, of the L.G. Department had been recently in Youghal, and inquired about the Market House. He had since received a letter from Mr. O'Dwyer, stating that the Council could make short lettings of the building, or from year to year, provided it wasn't required for market purposes.

Mr. O'Gorman said it was used for market purposes.

Mr. Fleming thought it might be converted into a number of dwelling houses, but the Council were generally of the opinion that it couldn't.

Capt. Dunne said it was awful to have it as it was—a regular white elephant.

The Chairman—Could we not let
the upper portion of it?
Mr. McMahon—What a change in the views of the Council. Some time ago it was decided by 18 to 3 to keep it for the use of the public.

Mr. Linehan said that Judge Kenny when giving an ejection against a former tenant, said that the Council had no power to let it to anybody.

Mr. Harrington said that was the opinion of only one Judge.
The Clerk—Will I advertise one portion of it?

Mr. McMahon said they could do nothing without rescinding the resolution on the books

Relief Grant.
A letter was read from the L.G., notifying a grant of £300 from the Relief Fund towards the stamrolling of the back streets, provided the Council put up a similar amount.

It was unanimously agreed that the work was badly needed.
Mr. O'Gorman—Accept the £300 and raise a 10 year loan to carry on the job.

The meeting expressed themselves in favour of contract, several Councillors stating that the last job of the kind done by direct labour, did more harm than good.

Mr. McMahon—We put on men on some jobs before Christmas, and it was spoons they wanted to handle, not shovels (laughter).

The Clerk said if they intended carrying on the work they should also consider the question of relaying the gas mains first.

The Gas Manager, called in, said
a lot of gas mains in the back streets were in a bad way, perished. On a rough estimate the relaying of the mains 4 inch instead of the present 2 inch, would cost about £500. (Oh, oh!)

The Gas Manager, was directed to go into the matter closely and submit an estimate for the next meeting.

Students' Union.
A letter was read from the Hon.
Sec., Technical Students' Union, asking for the use of the Town Hall, for a Whist Drive on the 28th.

Mr. Linehan said the Regatta Committee were in a bad way, being pressed for the payment of some debt. He suggested they should reserve a date for the Committee.

The application of the Union was granted, the Council expressing themselves willing to help the Regatta Committee, whenever they applied.

Alleged Grant.
Capt. Dunne, asked was it the fact as stated in a letter of Mr. Corry, T.D., to the Council, that they had received a grant of £500 towards the erection of a shelter for fishing boats at the market dock?

The Clerk said he didn't know of any grant of the kind.
Mr. McMahon—Were we ever promised it?

Mr. Harrington—What is the good of drawing up those matters? The Capt. is a great politician.

Capt. Dunne—If the statement is correct, we were not told of it.
Mr. Harrington—Another inspiration (laughter).

Capt. Dunne—It is no inspiration, but the people outside are asking about it and saying we should have accepted it.

After considerable discussion, the Clerk produced a letter from Mr.
Corry, dated 25.31, in which he stated that the Minister considered the Harbour Commissioners estimate for building a shelter was too high. He thought £600 would do the work and the Department would give £300, if the Board raised a like amount. He
(Mr. Corry), believed they could get £500 from the Department.

The Clerk said it looked as if the Department left Mr. Corry under the impression, but they turned the Board down definitely.

Rev. Dr. Dineen, P.P.
Mr. Whelan, proposed that they est-end their warmest congratulations to the Rev. Dr. Dineen, on his election to the pastorate of Ballyhea. While in Youghal, he made a friend of every body, especially among the poor, who would miss him.

Mr. Donnelly, seconding, said it was with mingled feelings of pleasure and regret that they had learned of the departure of the Dr., pleasure at his promotion and regret at losing him.

Mr. Fowkes (Protestant) said he would like to be permitted to join in the vote of congratulation. He was liked by one and all, of every creed and class.

The Chairman said they were all delighted at Dr. Dineen's promotion.

A DECENT SHAVE.
Very few people nowadays shave themselves, but run to the nearest hairdresser to have it done. The reason is obvious, as the fault lies certainly with the razor. We make a speciality of stocking only the finest German Hollow Ground Razors, which are guaranteed to shave the strongest beard with the greatest ease and pleasure. We shall send one of these razors post free to any address on receipt of P.O., for 5/6 and we have not the slightest hesitation in giving an absolute guarantee with every razor sold.

YOUGHAL NOTES.

CLERICAL.

The promotion of the Rev. D. Dinneen, D.D., C.C., Youghal, to the pastorate of Ballyhea, Charleville, creates vacancies in the Spiritual Directorship of the Men's Confraternity of the Holy Family, and the Catholic Young men's Society. The "Doctor" is a preacher of a high order and his addresses and sermons were followed with keen interest by his hearers. His place is to be filled by Rev. W. Carey, C.C.

A SAD STORY.

A sad story of unusual poignancy
comes from the district of Gurtroe
On Saturday week, Mrs. K. Daly, the wife of a respected member of the farming community, Mr. Wm. Daly, Gurtroe, was buried in the ancient and historic graveyard at Clonpriest.
On Sunday her sister, Miss Margaret Glavin, Ballymadog, was laid to rest in the same God's acre. Mrs. Daly, was a young married woman. She leaves behind her four young children, one an infant. She died on New Year's Eve. Her sister died on the following day in the Bonne Secours Home, Cork, and the remains were brought by road, leaving St. Patrick's Church at one o'clock. Mr. Daly and Miss Glavin and families have the very deepest sympathy of the whole community in their tragic bereavements.

SALMON SEASON.

After a dull and dreary winter with widespread unemployment and its concomitant troubles, Youghal is looking forward with very natural eagerness to the opening of the Salmon season on the 1st February next.
Report has it that there is a plentiful stock of fish in the river and its many tributaries at present. If this should prove correct it will be a great godsend to hundreds of fishermen and their families all over the extensive district through which the Blackwater and its tributaries flow. Already boats and gear are being prepared for the occasion and from this forward the banks of the river will present a lively appearance after their long slumber of 7 or 8 months. The season legally and nominally comes to an end on July 31st each year, but long before that date, the fish become so scarce that the large majority of the men employed in the avocation lay up their nets and boats as it would be only waste of time and useless wear of materials to carry on. In former years, easily within recollection of many local people, the normal close season was remarkable for large takes of the young salmon, known as peal or grisle. But for many years past, the numbers of peal captured have become so small that it does not pay to purchase the necessary gear nets. However, since the cessation of the good old peal seasons, there has been a decided improvement in the takes of salmon. Some years ago a fishing expert from up the river informed the writer that for a long period he had kept graphs of the takes of salmon and he found that they ran in cycle, reaching a maximum every 9 or 10 years. Let us hope that the forthcoming season will prove to be a "peak" year, and that it will thereby make up in some way for the dull and bad time experienced of late.

CORRECTION.

In the report of the Christmas
Church Ceremonies at Youghal, which appeared last week, an error crept inadvertently in. It should have been stated that the soloist in Van Brees Beautiful "El Incarnatus Est"
was Miss Shelia Hichens. The "Adeste Fidelis" was sung at the 8 o'clock Mass, the Duet "Deum de Deo" was well rendered by Miss Griffin (a promising young debutante) and Miss Hallisey.

ANOTHER DOUBLE FAMILY BEREAVEMENT.

Mr. James Shanahan, Chapel St., shoemaker, died rather unexpectedly during the holidays. A steady and industrious member of the community,
he won the respect and esteem of all who knew him. Only a few days previously the family received the sad news of the death of a nephew in the United States. Strange but true, the holiday season is generally marked—and marred for some—by calamities of unusual sadness.

NURSING ASSOCIATION.

The local Nursing Association held a Whist Drive in aid of their funds,
in the Town Hall, on Tuesday week.
The public appreciation of the laudable objects of the Society was amply testified by the crowded attendance of players who overcrowded the large Ball Room into the stage and into the green room. It was undoubtedly the most successful function of the kind yet held locally. Everything was run off in tip-top order and time, under the skilful management of Messrs./
P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., U.D.C., and
M. H. Walsh, P.C., Town Clerk, who distributed the prizes at the conclusion.

GOLF LINKS.

The closing of the Youghal Golf Links is another striking instance of the want of a decent civic spirit on the part of that portion of the community who benefit most by the disinterested efforts of others. This (or should it be those) Links has been for many years past a kind of lodestone that attracted many visitors to Youg-hal in the summer season, visitors who would otherwise, have not thought of coming. The result was that many of the Strand Villas and the local hotel and boarding houses reaped a rich harvest from the influx.

In their efforts to make the Links a greater success, the Golf Committee from time to time appealed for support to those parties interested, but the response to the appeal was almost nil. Now the probability is that they will reap the "whirlwind." The Golf Club Committee did everything possible to keep things going, but they found themselves up against several kinds of blank walls, and finally had to put up their hands to cry "Kamerad." The Club tried to procure an alternative Links in the vicinity, but so far, their efforts have proved futile
All the local equipment has been disposed of by public auction, and "that's that." Let us hope that even at this late hour the truth of the proverb
"experientia docet" will penetrate the craniums of the interested portions of our community.

REGATTA COMMITTEE.

It is said that the Regatta Committee, who worked themselves to a "frazzle," pro bono publico, have received a billet doux, in the shape of a solicitor's letter demanding payment of an account incurred by them in their efforts to provide amusements for the visitors and townspeople and to put some airgead sios in the pockets of many members of the local trading community. As it now well known, the well meant project resulted in a deficit. It now remains for the Committee to devise some means of "raising the wind" somehow or other. The question is how is it to be done. It will be interesting to see what help will be given by those who made most out of the show.

G.A.A. CONVENTION.

Secretary's Report.

A Chairde.—I have pleasure in presenting to you the Annual Report and Statement of Accounts for the year 1931. The progress outlined in last year's report is more than well maintained and is borne out by the reports of our Divisional Conventions held recently. At the outset I congratulate our Junior Hurlers on the great honour they have brought the County in winning the Munster and All-Ireland finals.

The County Championships were all finished in good time with the exception of the Minor Competition which is not yet decided. The Senior finals produced two of the best games we have had for some time. Erins Own again won the Senior Hurling and the Senior Football was won by De La Salle, who defeated the holders, Dungarvan.

The Junior Hurling was won by Eire Oge, and the Junior Football by O'Rourke's. Arising out of the Junior Football final, an application for investigation of the winners team is to be considered at first meeting of Board. In addition to this year's competitions the finals of last year's championships were played off, and resulted as follows:—Minor Hurling—Mount Sion defeated Dungarvan; Minor Football—De La Salle defeated Derrinlaun; Junior football and Senior hurling Erins Own won from Dungarvan. In connection with our finals and semi-finals, I would like to point out that we have only one Hurling and Football semi-final to show in Minor, as the competitions in the Eastern Division is run by an independent body, who take over all the gates in connection with the competition in that area.

In the inter-county competitions our Hurling teams have made marked progress. The Senior team were defeated by the All-Ireland winners in Munster final after a drawn game. Our Minor hurlers gave a splendid account of themselves, and were unlucky in the Provincial final, losing by the smallest margin. The achievement of our Junior Hurling team I have already referred to, and in this grade we have abundant material, that, with early development should bring in further honours in the future.

In football we did not do as well as our success in last seasons National Leagues promised, being defeated in our first ties in all grades, at the same time the high standard of the play in our county matches is bound to result in progress and better form on the part of our footballers.

In the National League Competitions we have finished our hurling programme, defeating Cork and Kilkenny and losing to Tipperary.

In football we have finished last year's competition, losing to Cavan in the semi-final. In the current competition we have beaten Limerick and lost to Clare. Two more games are to be decided, against Cork away, and Tipperary at home; and as the venues are convenient very little expenses will be incurred.

As will be seen from the Statement of Accounts, our position financially is very much improved. Receipts from County final and semi-finals including finals left over from last year are £189 13s. 11d., and expenses of same not including Printing or Referees expenses are £75 14s. 2d. In previous year our expenses under same heading were only £37 13s. 10d., and our Receipts £141 6s. 8d., so that our nett gain wasn't as great as expected. The Senior hurling final at Lismore was well attended and the gate £45 19s. 3d., is one of the best we have had for some years. Our Junior football semi-final at Cappoquin was also well supported and goes to show the healthy state of our Association in these areas.

In National League matches to date our Receipts are £120 13s. 0d., and Expenditure £152 11s. 6d. This shows a greater loss in this competition than in previous season when our deficit was only £4 1s. 10d.

There also passed through our hands, but is not mentioned in Statement, £13 to St. Enda's fund from matches played on Easter Sunday; £25 for train to Junior finals in Waterford on November 8th, which was immediately refunded owing to the splendid support given by the Kilgobinet and Eire Oge Clubs.

Complaints are heard on all sides regarding the abuse of the age rule in the Minor Competition, and it would be well if Clubs gave this very important question careful consideration with a view to having the competition run on sound lines, and for the purpose for which it was started.

Appeals to County Board during the season were few and we hope will be fewer. The new departure with regard to settling those unpleasant affairs adopted by the De La Salle and Dungarvan Clubs might be tried with advantage by other Clubs.

The new Insurance Scheme which was adopted by Congress last Easter, and which is now compulsory is not being complied with as it should, only about six Clubs having insured to date. It is to be hoped that all Clubs will comply with the order before the start of Championships for 1932.

The appearance of "An Caman" in the last few months has been very welcome to Gaels and all lovers and supporters of our native pastimes, Language and industries. It supplies a long felt want and we confidently hope that it is being read by the members of all Clubs who should avail of its columns to further the Association in every district and thereby help to combat seoinism.

In conclusion, I once again return my most sincere thanks to all my col-

KILMACHTHOMAS NEWS.

THE TARIFF ON BACON.

Advocates of tariffs ought feel satisfied that imported bacon is now subject to a high tariff. This matter was the subject of important discussions but whatever justification there may be for this imposition, one fact stands out clear, i.e., the consumer will have to pay, and no small number hold that the producer will not benefit much by the transaction. Does it not seem strange where we are wont to vaunt our patriotism and shout ourselves hoarse about nationality, that an administration must impose a tariff to protect us from ourselves? Southern Ireland produces all the necessities of life save one. Yet if we look up the list we find that every one of them have a tariff to protect them. Surely this is not as it should be. There would be no need for the recent tariff if the householders of the country purchased or provided their own home produce, and what applies to one industry applies to all.

CARDS.

Card parties are now being held almost every night in Kilmachthomas and district—playing for tickets for the Irish Hospitals Sweepstake on the Grand National. It is stated that more than £500 worth of these tickets have already been won at the "card schools" in the area.

VOTERS—GET READY!

There are unmistakable signs in the offing that a general election is near at hand. The dogs of war—political war, that is—have been unleashed. Up and down the country, the packs are in full cry. All are assuming the "General" will soon be "on parade." At any rate, the various political parties are mobilising. So far, however, little or no interest is excited by these first moves in what is likely to be a stirring struggle.

OBITUARY.

With much regret the news was learned of the death of Mrs. Kathleen Casey, relict of the late Mr. Michael Casey, Rathmeaden, Kilmachthomas, which occurred on the 7th inst., after a lingering illness, which she bore with true Christian fortitude. The deceased was a comparatively young woman of charming personality and mother of the Misses Bridget and Josephine Casey, and Mr. Michael Casey, of Rathmeaden—the latter is a prominent playing member of the Croughaun Rangers H. and F. Club. The funeral was very large, and the interment took place in Fews cemetery on last Saturday evening, under heart-rending circumstances. May She rest in peace.

OF LOCAL INTEREST.

The contributor of "Talk of Ireland" to the "Sunday Dispatch," writes:—"Georgestown House at Kill, which Lady Osborne Beauclerk has bought, is being renovated. I hear, for her daughter and son-in-law, Lady Blanche and Mr. R. Girouard, whose home is in London. They will take up residence early this year. The mansion, one of the oldest residences in the county, is delightfully situated, with sloping lawns and a background of fine trees. Lady Blanche is a sister of the Marquis of Waterford, who was entertaining for the Tipperary Hunt Ball. Lady Waterford thoroughly enjoyed the children's fancy dress at Waterford in aid of the hunt, and was surprised at the originality displayed by the young guests."

A PLEASING ITEM.

It is a pleasure to note that to Messrs. Maurice Walsh, N.T., Newtown; Laurence Veale, Ballyshonock, do., and Patrick Cummins, Ballyhussa, do., entries are liberally pouring in for their monster "45" Drive in aid of the parochial debt. Any venue may be selected for the first round; second and final rubbers will be played at Newtown N.S., on February 7th next. Entrance fee, 10s. per table. Fall in with the rest!

Intending participants should immediately get in touch with any of the above-named gentlemen for full instructions re the drive.

RECOVERED.

His troops and legions of friends on all sides will be glad to learn that Mr. Percy Kirwan, Kilmachthomas, is now fully recovered from his recent indisposition and is up and about—fit as the proverbial fiddle.

The hosts of friends and admirers of Mr. Arthur Hunt, Rockmount, Kilmachthomas, were delighted to see him again on horseback at the meet of the Waterfords at Durrow on the 14th inst. Early in the present hunting season, this genial gentleman accidentally met with a nasty fall, which necessitated his undergoing an operation, and not until Monday of this week was he able to resume riding. That Mr. Hunt is one of the most popular members of the Waterfords is a fact obvious as it is cheering to chronicle.

BRIEFLETS.

Kilmachthomas Convent and National Schools re-opened last Monday after being closed about eight weeks during a contagious disease amongst the children. The death occurred recently in America of Mrs. Kate Walsh (nee Coffey), formerly of Carrigcastle, Kilmachthomas.—R.I.P.

On New Year's morning, a Comeragh Valley bachelor found on his breakfast board a post-card containing the following Leap Year Hint:—"Proposal Villa, Leap Year Avenue, 1st January, 1932.—My dear and most re-leagues for their co-operation and assistance during the past year with the hope for a more successful future.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE. COUNTY WATERFORD COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE.

NOMINATIONS OF MARES, 1932.

The County Committee have decided to offer Nominations to Farmers' Mares to be served by Thoroughbred Irish Draught or Halfbred Stallions on the Register or Selected List of the Department of Agriculture, under the conditions set forth in the Department's Scheme for encouraging improvement in the Breeds of Horses, 1932.

The following are the Centres and the days and hours at which Mares will be judged in each district:—Dungarvan—Shandon, Tuesday, 2nd February, 11 o'clock a.m.

Youghal No. 2—Clashmore, Tuesday, February 2nd, 2 o'clock p.m.

Clonmel No. 2—Ballymacarbery, Wednesday, 3rd February, 11 o'clock a.m.

Lismore—Lismore Show Field, Wednesday, 3rd February, 2 o'clock p.m. Carrick-on-Suir No. 2—Clonea Power, Thursday, 4th February, 11 o'clock a.m.

Kilmachthomas — Kilmachthomas, Thursday 4th February, 2 o'clock p.m. Waterford No. 1—Ballybricken, Friday, 5th February, 11 o'clock a.m. The Value of Nominations to Thoroughbred, half-bred and Irish Draught Stallions shall be £2.

Preference will be given to the best Young Mares under Six years of Age. Each Mare must be the property of a Farmer, the Tenement Valuation of whose Holding or Holdings, wherever situated and for which he is rated, does not exceed £200.

As far as possible two-thirds of the Nominations shall be reserved for Farmers valued at £50 or under. The term "Farmer" is to be understood to mean a person who derives his means of living mainly from Farming. Special attention is directed to the following Regulations:—

1.—Only such Farmers as are rated for Holdings within the County are eligible to exhibit Mares.

N.B.—(This Regulation does not apply to Herds).

2.—Each qualified Rated Farmer is entitled to compete for a Nomination for One Mare only, but the Committee may award a Second Nomination to Owners of Mares on the Reserved List.

3.—Special Notice—Any person found (a) exhibiting a Mare not his Bona Fide Property, (b) attempting to obtain more than One Nomination through any misrepresentation as to the Ownership of his Mares, or (c) sending for service a Mare other than the one in respect of which the Nomination was awarded, is guilty of a Criminal Offence, and will be prosecuted.

Further particulars regarding these Awards, Copies of the Department's Live Stock Schemes, 1932, and Entry Forms, must be filled and returned not later than Saturday, 23rd January may be had from JOHN O'DWYER, Secretary, Co. Waterford Committee of Agriculture.

Courthouse, Dungarvan, 29th December, 1931. N.B.—No Entries will be received on days of Shows, nor will Mares be allowed to compete for Nominations, whose Entries do not reach me at latest on Saturday, January 23rd—J. O'D.

HARPUR BROS. WATERFORD.

spected sir, I send you this your love to stir; 'tis you I've chosen first of all on whom to make a Leap Year call; so send me back without delay your answer either 'yes' or 'nay.'

"But if your hand does not incline in wedlock's clasp to join with mine, then Leap Year's law you must obey; and to me £10 you must pay. Besides, kind sir, a handsome dress; I'll ask no more and take no less. Now you may think that this seems funny, but I must have a man or money. So send me back a quick reply—let me be your wife 'till I die. If the writer's name you guess, send this back to her address; and if for me there is no hope, send me back six yards of rope—I remain, with love—A 'Miss' who wants to be your 'Mrs.'"

(The recipient is in a quandary and no one has heard yet what is his decision.)
