More Good Work for Dungarvan.

£250 FREE GRANT.

At a special meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council, on Tuesday evening, for the purpose of submitting a scheme to the Department in connection with the free grant of £250, secured out of the grant for the relief of unemployment, hearty thanks were extended to the Chairman, Mr. Butler, for his success in securing an unconditional grant.

Mr. J. Butler, presided. Also present—Messrs. M. Clancy, J. F. Moloney, T. Power, D. Foley, M. Griffin, T. McCarthy, and J. Hackett.

The Chairman explained that the meeting was called for the purpose of submitting suitable schemes, the laying of new water mains, and a scheme of road works to the Department for their approval.

Mr. Hackett—The result of the Department's visit to Dublin is most satisfactory and the Chairman deserves the best thanks of the people of the town, for getting this free grant of £250. He referred to the fact that other Urban Councils when given a £200 grant had to put up £100 against it out of the rates.

Mr. Clancy—Is it quite clear that this £250 is free?

Chairman—Yes. The only conditions is that all men be employed through the local labour Exchange.

Mr. Clancy—I am very glad to hear it. There is no doubt but it is all due to our Chairman, that they got this £250 free which would relieve the ratepayers and give employment to the unemployed. Every time we sent our Chairman to Dublin, he succeeded in bringing home a grant and he deserves the thanks of all, and he hoped that they would keep him in the Chair for a very long time.

Chairman—When I went to Dublin with the Borough Surveyor, we made our case very clear, that the Council would put up no money to supplement the grant. If the Council remembered when he came back he said he was very optimistic about getting a grant free.

Mr. Hackett—It is £250 for nothing.

Mr. Clancy expressed the hope that the Council would now spend it wisely.

Chairman—A suitable scheme for schemes must be submitted first, and that is what we are here for to-night.

Mr. Hackett—Fair Lane was one of the first schemes submitted.

B.S.—Every Urban road in the area not done in tar macadam was put up as a scheme.

Chairman—There is £75 allocated for a water extension at Abbeyside.

Mr. Hackett—What is the probable cost of doing Fair Lane in water macadam.

B.S.—£120.

Mr. Foley—What would it cost to finish the road to Abbeyside Chapel?

B.S.—The scheme submitted was to Lands End and from Nugent's to the New Line at a cost of £640.

Mr. Foley—What would it cost to the Chapel?

Mr. Griffin referred to the necessity of having the Abbeyside Chapel road done and said the people going to Mass had to jump over pools of water and were bringing mud into the House of God. Again as it was Eucharistic year, you will have a big number of visitors to the Church.

Chairman—You have one very populous area in the town where there are lots of children and you have neither a road or a footpath there—that is Scrammins Lane and St. Thomas Terrace. That place is very bad.

Mr. Griffin suggested supplementing the grant with a loan on the road fund when all the roads could be done, and you can utilise your road rate to pay off the loan, as when the roads are done the cost of upkeep will be small.

Chairman—It was unanimously agreed here before the deputation went to Dublin that any money would not be put up by the Council. If the Council intended putting up money the grant would have been much more than £250.

Mr. Clancy said he would not agree with Mr. Griffin and would not favour putting a further burden on the ratepayers. They were going on very nicely and there will be further grants next year.

Chairman—I would like to know from the B.S., can Scrammins Lane, Thomas Terrace, and the road as far as the Abbeyside Chapel be done for £175.

B.S.—It would not be possible. The two first and King's Street could be done. I would like to see King's St., done.

Mr. Foley—The Chapel road is more important.

Mr. Griffin—All the people in Abbeyside would forgo the roads already done to have the road to the Chapel done.

Mr. Hackett—Why was not this scheme put up before we got the grant.

DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT.

A LIGHT CALENDAR.

Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C., opened the Circuit Court in Dungarvan, on Wednesday. The business to be transacted was the lightest on record.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, on behalf of the Land Commission, obtained decrees against a number of defaulters in payment of annuities.

Injury To A Horse.
Mr. G. Quinn, Ballyreilly, Ring, sued Mrs. K. Hourigan, Goulane, for £100 damages to a 3 year old horse, which was on grass on the lands of Mr. Hayes, Goulane.

Mr. Joyce, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Ryan, solr.) for the plaintiff, and Mr. A. Carroll, solr., defended.

Mr. Joyce, said this was a valuable 3 year old hunter by Ben Alder, worth about £80, and when the animal came of age would as a hunter be worth £100 or more. This animal with a number of others was on grass at Goulane and the allegation was that a pony belonging to the defendant went on the lands and in rounding them up to get out the pony by the defendant and her servants, plaintiff's horse got injured, and as a result was made permanently lame.

G. Quinn, plaintiff, said, he had a 3 year old Gelding by Ben Alder—the making of a good hunter—on grass at Mr. Hayes' Goulane, last September. He was value about £80 and when of age would be worth £100 or more. When he went to see the colt on September 10th, he found him thrown on the field. He was going on three legs.

By Mr. Carroll—I went to see the colt every Sunday. I took him away home to Ballyreilly on September 10th. I did not see the horse on the 14th September.

Mr. Joyce, Goulane, on whose land the colt was grazing, said he could not say how he got hurt. He saw Declan Allen and Hourigan take a pony off his lands. He washed the colt with hot water and Jeyes' Fluid. I noticed nothing wrong with the horse, but that he was hurt. It was only a little cut.

By Mr. Carroll—Sometimes the horses went out on a commonage off my lands. He saw the horses the day before the accident early in the evening, but he could not tell the hour.

His Lordship—He seems to be a past master in evading an answer.

Mr. Carroll—There was no one in charge of those horses except you and you lived two miles away.

Witness—I had 13 horses there.

Mr. Joyce, Goulane, said between 9 and 10 on that morning, he saw Hourigan's man, Allen, on Hayes' land. Later that day he saw Hourigan on the fence with Allen, and he asked witness to go down to the gate as he wanted to get out a pony. Allen had a pony by the head and they turned out 4 or 5 colts with the pony and turned them in again when they had got the pony. He saw nothing wrong with the colts.

By Mr. Carroll—Allen has joined the Free State Army since the last Court.

Jas. Barry said Allen told him he had put the colts down to Hourigan's bounds as he thought he could put the pony out. Later witness saw the colts put out on the road with the pony and the colts put back again.

Mr. R. P. Byrne, V.S., said he examined Quinn's horse on September 14th. He found the animal lame, the fetlock swollen and a wound about 2 inches long in front of the joint. The wound seemed to be a few days old. He advised the ordinary treatment. On December 20th the wound broke out at the side of the joint. The animal had now a stiff joint.

For the defence Mr. Carroll said there was no evidence when the injury occurred. He said on the plaintiff's evidence he had no case to meet.

Mr. Joyce, said he relied on Hayes' story as he saw the animal the day before and it was all right and the following day after Hourigan's pony was taken away the animal was lame.

His Lordship said the plaintiff's evidence did not go far enough to establish a case against defendant and he dismissed the action with £4 4s. expenses to Mr. Byrne.

The B.S., advised the Board not to discuss the matter as the documents regarding the sale of the site were in the hands of the Council's solicitor.

Chairman—At present we have not the deeds of transfer, but if Mr. Bluet calls on our Solicitor, he will get all the information he requires. If there is any injustice done, the Council will see that it is rectified.

The resolution was accordingly adopted.

The part of the Town Hall known as the Supper Room was granted for election purposes to the Fianna Fail Party.

Improvements To Hall.

Mr. McCarthy drew the attention of the Board to certain improvements required to be done to the large room in the hall.

The Council agreed with the suggestions, but the matter was adjourned for further consideration.

Mr. Keane suggested that a drop screen be provided for the stage, and that local traders be invited to have permanent advertisements on it, at so much per foot.

Mr. Moloney—Keane's Botling" for instance.

Chairman—Yes, or "Moloney's Bread".

The matter is to be further considered.

Housing.

Chairman—I understand that four houses are completed at Mitchell St.

B.S.—Yes, and the fifth will be completed in four days.

Chairman—We are at a loss to the extent of £3 or £2 10/—I hope it is £2 10/ per week as the result of the houses remaining idle. I would suggest that the Borough Surveyor have the all in cost of the six houses before us on next Friday night, so that we could fix a rent and proceed to let the houses.

B.S.—I could give you the all in cost within £10 this night week.

Mr. Keane—We should know the all in cost within £1.

B.S.—I don't think it would be fair to expect that in a week.

Chairman—We are only anxious to let the houses so that the money could come in.

Mr. Moloney—Give the B.S. a fortnight.

OBITUARY.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN WALL, O'CONNELL ST., DUNGARVAN.

We deeply regret to announce the death of Mr. John Wall, O'Connell Street, Dungarvan, which occurred on Monday last after a brief illness and fortified by the rites of Holy Church. He had reached a ripe age and was hale and hearty to the last. On Sunday he was out and about as usual, but on Monday morning, he became unwell and in a short time passed calmly away to the great regret of his respected family and his numerous friends in town and country.

The late Mr. John Wall was one of the best-known men in the County. In every form of sport he was a leader, but as a lover and breeder of high-class horses he was supreme. Hunting, shooting, fishing and coursing were his chief amusements and few men in his day were more adept than he, whether riding over a stiff country or on the moor with the gun. He farmed extensively in the neighbourhood and was a kind and generous employer. In the olden days he acted as Land Valuer and always gave fair and impartial decisions. An upright and honourable gentleman in every way, his death even in the fullness of years leaves a void in his native town not easily filled. His son Capt. Jack Wall, is one of the most esteemed sportsmen in the South and a dashing rider to boots.

In private life, the deceased was a general favourite. Possessed of a big heart and a generous mind, he was ever ready to do a good turn to those around him and who now mourn his loss.

In their bereavement, his family have the sincere sympathy of the general public.—R.I.P.

On Tuesday evening, the remains were removed to the Parish Church, and were accompanied by a most imposing cortege representing the town and all sections of the county. At the Church prayers were recited by Very Rev. T. O'Brien, P.P., Rev. P. F. McGrath, C.C., and Rev. J. Harvey, C.C.

On Wednesday the interment took place in the family burial ground in the presence of his family and an extremely large gathering of friends and the sporting and general public. The final prayers at the graveside were read by His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Hackett, Bishop of the Diocese, assisted by Very Rev. R. Walsh, O.S.A., and Rev. P. F. McGrath, C.C.

Exports—Nil.

Imports for the month amounted to £113 5s. 6d., this includes registered tonnage.

Deepening Harbour.

The report suggested that the harbour should be deepened midway between Abbeyside and the Barrack. Also at Christopher's berth, and that a dredger be employed to do the work.

The Harbour Master explained that larger boats coming into the quay were often held up if they did not hit on the highest tides, the suggested deepening would do away with much of this and better terms could be had by those who chartered the boats.

The Harbour Master was instructed to obtain more information as to the cost of dredging etc.

AN APPALLING RATE.

(EDITOR "THE DUNGARVAN OBSERVER.")
Dear Sir,—Reading the "Observer" I see that the Waterford Co. Council have again put on the crushing Tax of £45,000 for the roads. Can the Ratepayers pay this appalling tax with a lot of us on the verge of starvation.

The Co. Surveyor states that 85% or £38,250 is paid in wages to the road workers. Their weekly wage is 35/- plus insurance. If those men were brought down to the farm workers wage of 17/6 per week (why should they get more than a land worker who produces all) this would mean a saving on the roads alone of about £18,000 per year and then if the Co. Council wish to be generous they could take on unemployed extra men and give us better bye roads. Now the Home Assistance is the cruellest joke of all. We all can see young men and women wearing splendid clothes riding about on their bikes, backing horses, going to pictures, and their sole means of living is Home Assistance. I think that half those relief recipients should be cut off and asked to come into the Co. Home. Then the Co. Home should be combed out every month. To see the strong men in there is shocking. Or to revert to the old plan of compelling the able-bodied males to break at least two loads of stone every day at Shandoo Quarry. This would pay for their board and lodgings. This has been done for years in America to the Hobos. Then you would not have those drones living on the sweat of the bankrupt Ratepayers. I will write more on a future occasion. Hoping you will publish this letter in your valuable paper.—Yours Sincerely,
"KING JOHN."

P.S.—Counties Cavan, Galway, and Mayo, pay £1 per week to road men

LITERARY CLUB DANCE.

The Revival of the Literary Club Annual Dance, was held in the Town Hall, on Wednesday night. Over 100 couples drawn from near and far were present and a most enjoyable time was spent. The Hall was delightfully decorated for the occasion, and the Ballroom with its artistic lighting effects, and multi-coloured streamers, was a treat to behold, and reflected the great taste of the organisers. Mr. P. Crowley and his Band of 7 performers supplied the last word in high-class dance music to the delight of all exponents of the art of Terpsichore. An excellent supper was served by Mrs. Stephenson, Ocean View Hotel, while there was also a running buffet. It was one great night, at which all present thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

REMARKABLY SUDDEN DEATH.

A man named Michael Stack, between 55 and 60 years, died under remarkably sad and tragic circumstances here on the evening of Wednesday 18th inst., fair day in the town. He was a well-known farmer who resided in the Ballysaggart district and had been in at the fair during the early part of the day apparently in his usual health and spirits. Between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon he visited a licensed house in the town and complaining of feeling unwell he asked the wife of the proprietor if she could make a cup of tea for him.

This lady at once agreed to do so, and placed Stack in a comfortable seat on a sofa while she was making the tea.

Returning with a cup of tea shortly afterwards she was horrified to find that he was dead, and the matter was at once reported to the Civic Guards and also to Dr. Healy, all of whom were immediately on the scene.

It didn't take Dr. Healy long to discover that the poor man was then beyond all earthly aid, and he gave it as his opinion that death was due to natural causes.

Later Dr. M. F. Moloney, Coroner, Dungarvan, held an inquest without a Jury, and having heard the evidence of Dr. Healy he recorded a verdict that death was due to natural causes, and expressed his deep sympathy with the relatives of the deceased, in which the Civic Guards and others joined.

Deceased was a quiet, honest and industrious man, who enjoyed the greatest respect amongst his neighbours and the people of Lismore, and the news of his death cast a gloom over the town and district.

At 9 o'clock that night the remains were removed to the Catholic Church and were followed by a large cortege and after Mass for the repose of his soul the interment took place on Friday.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN M. COLLINS.

The people of Lismore learned with much regret on Tuesday night, 19th, inst., of the death of Mr. John Maunsell Collins, Maryville, Lismore, at an advanced age. The late Mr. Collins, was connected with the well-known firm of Beamish and Crawford, Ltd., Cork, for over 60 years, which was a remarkable tribute to his great ability, honesty and uprightness. For the best part of that time, he had resided in Lismore where he held the responsible position of agent for the above firm, and during this long period he was always looked upon with the ## highest regard and respect by all.

In his capacity as agent his business brought him all over this end of the Co. Waterford where he developed a splendid trade and for a long number of years he was a well-known and welcome visitor to the licensed traders of Lismore, Cappoquin, Tallow, Ballyduff, and all the adjoining districts. A gentleman of rare culture, he was noted for his unflinching courtesy and kindness towards his numerous customers, and his cheery smile and genial personality will be sadly missed by many of those amongst whom he was such a familiar figure for close on half a century in this area.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN HANLY.

The death occurred at his residence Mitchell Street, on Saturday last, of Mr. John Hanly, after a brief illness and fortified by the rites of the Church. The late Mr. Hanly had a long and honoured service in the R.I.C., and retired some ten years ago, making his home here. He was a straightforward, honourable man, who always did his duty in an efficient manner, with the minimum of trouble to those who contravened the law. He reared a most respected family, who now occupy trusted positions in the State. On Saturday evening the remains were removed to the Parish Church, and on Sunday the interment took place in the presence of a large assembly.—R.I.P.

FAITH AND FATHERLAND.

(EDITOR "THE DUNGARVAN OBSERVER.")
Dear Sir,—"A Catholic" writes in your last issue "Whatever Mr. Little may say to Sir John (Keane) attacking Cardinal McRory in the "Sunday Times" it is plain to all that, Sir John, in this Election, is on the same side as the great majority of our Catholic Clergy, and that is good enough for us."

It should not be good enough for us. God forbid that we, Catholic Irishmen should place our Country, much less a Party, before our Religion. Look around at those symbols of a glorious fight for Faith and Fatherland—the confiscated Churches, the ruined Abbeys, the "Mass-Rocks" dotted here and there—are these no longer to have any significance for us? Is it "good enough for us," and are we, as the letter of "A Catholic" implies, to subscribe the interests of our Religion to the interests of this, or that form of Government?

Sir John may espouse any political religion he desires, but conforming to the policy of any particular political Party should not be tantamount to granting him a license for an attack on the Old Faith. Catholic Action, if it means anything, should assert itself in the breasts of every right-minded Catholic; it should, as it were, be a second nature to him to be up and doing, and reproach Sir John and his likes who have the audacity to attack the cherished inheritance of our Forefathers.

FAITH—(and then)—FATHERLAND.

"Could Not Fight a Regiment"

BIG ROW IN DUNGARVAN.

(Before Mr. Troy, D.J.)

The doings of the inhabitants of Battery Street, on December 19th., occupied the attention of the Court for a considerable time. The Moylan's Wall's, Wright's, Keohan's and Roche's were all intermixed in a batch of summonses arising out of the incidents on the occasion and Messrs. E. A. Ryan, solr., T. C. Williams, solr., A. R. Farrell, solr., and J. Walsh, solr., T. F. O'Brien and Co., Clonmel, were all engaged by the various parties.

There were charges of assault and battery threatening and abusive language and cross charges to the same effect.

The various charges having been duly set out, Mr. Troy said—May the Lord direct us through the labyrinth.

Supt. O'Shea, summoned John Kiely, Patrick Moylan, and James Roche, for a breach of the peace. John Wall, summoned Patrick Moylan, and Michael Moylan, for assault; Helena Wall v Mollie Moylan, Patrick Moylan v. John Wall and J. Wright; Patrick Moylan, v. Patrick Wright; Mollie Moylan, v. Helena Wall; Mary Keohan, v. Bridget Roche; Chrissie Healy v. Helena Wall.

Mr. Walsh said all the cases of the Roche family were settled. The first case taken was that of Supt. O'Shea, v. John Kiely, Patrick Moylan and Jas. Roche.

Guard Regan, stated on the 19th., December, he was on duty on the Square, with Guard Daly, about 5.30 p.m., he saw Patk. Moylan, outside Seamus Hayes' premises and John Wall also. Guard Giblin cautioned Moylan against fighting. At 9.15 p.m., the same night at Mary Street corner, he saw a crowd of people and going up he saw Wall and Patrick Moylan fighting and a number of people separating them. He cautioned Wall and took Moylan to the Barrack. Returning to the Square, he saw James Roche, coming on to the Square and John Kiely came out and knocked him with a blow. Kiely was a brother-in-law of Moylan. Witness took Roche and Kiely to the Barrack. Opposite Mulcahy's Drapery Store there were 200 people behind them and some of them appeared hostile especially the Boreenatra community. Michael Moylan caught Kiely as if trying to take him off the Guards. At 11 p.m., the same night at the junction of Emmet Street and Battery Street, as they met Sergt. O'Shea, and Sergt. Clancy a stone was thrown and passed within a few inches of witness. Someone who was looking out Moylan's door went into the house. As they were approaching Michael Moylan's house again another stone was thrown at them.

Cross-examined by Mr. Walsh—Moylan went quietly to the barracks as did also Kiely. For the past few years we have had no occasion to visit these people. By Mr. Williams (for Jas. Roche)—Roche was released about 11 o'clock that night. Guard Giblin said he saw John Wall and Patrick Moylan and a crowd outside Hayes' publichouse on the Square. He saw Moylan knock Wall down as he was getting up. Moylan told witness that Wall passed a remark he would not allow him to make. By Mr. Walsh—I did not notice Moylan's shirt torn. In the case of John Wall v. Patrick Moylan for assault and battery, Mr. Ryan for Wall said he was knocked down and assaulted five times that evening.

Wall said in Seamus Hayes' premises when Patrick Moylan and Ml. Moylan came in, they both struck him outside Ml. Moylan knocked him kicking in the channel. Later at Walsh's corner Ml. Moylan hit him and going home later Moylan came out of a door and knocked him kicking again. On the following Monday an attack was made on him by Mollie Moylan and Chis Healy. When his wife was going for the Guards they attacked her and beat her. By Mr. Walsh—I sell fish and work when I can get it. I never looked for trouble. There was nothing said in Hayes' pub about a shore. That was 6 years ago.

Are you as good as the Moylan's? I am. If I were not afraid of them I would not be here. How could you fight a regiment? It would take all in the Courthouse to beat them (laughter). All this happened over nothing. I did not get vexed, but I was trying to get away. I did not rise a hand to them. You have a big following? No; but I have a big family. The Roche's and Daly's and Wright's are not on my side. I am 13 years in the house and I wish to God I could get out of it. You could not get a house in Dungarvan this minute for £100. I never look for fight. I did not ask Moylan to fight me. I got the first beating at 5 o'clock and the second one at 6 o'clock and after 6 I was attacked from a door when going home. My wife was going for the Guards when she was attacked by Chrissie Healy and Mollie Moylan. My wife had no bad tongue. To Mr. Farrell—I must be afraid of the regiment as I am a bird alone. I had to leave Ml. Moylan hit me. I was like a football for all of them. I was only to be put out of the publichouse for safety sake. If I lifted my hand to any of these people, I would be killed that night. I would give the Moylan's anything to pass them.

By Mr. Walsh—I was fined £1 some time ago for fighting the Guards. Mrs. Helena Wall, said on Monday 21st December, Mollie Moylan and Chrissie Healy attacked her. She was going for the Guards, when Mollie Moylan caught her by the hair and they both assaulted her. They threatened to kill her in the house and to do with her what Patey did with her before. I am afraid of my life of them.

By Mr. Walsh—When I went to the door they were behind the car. I went out and the two women raced for him. Mollie Moylan at once charged at me. I made no fight as I could not stir when two women had me by the hair. I was praying to God they would not attack the door and wake up my six babies. I have no following, but the Justice to come to here for protection. I have nothing to do with the Dalys or Wright's or Roche's. I came here for protection against a faction—an army of the Moylan's. If I could get a house anywhere I would not stay a minute near the Moylan's.

Michael Moylan, father of Patrick Moylan said he was in Seamus Hayes' pub, on December 19th. His son was arguing with John Wall. Hayes put out Wall and his son went out after him. He saw no row outside. He did not see John Wall at all and could not have assaulted him.

By Mr. Ryan—Wall has issued the assault against me.

Patrick Nagle (to Mr. Farrell) said he was in Hayes' publichouse. He did not see Ml. Moylan strike John Wall. He went home with Moylan. Patrick Moylan and Wall were arguing in the pub about a shore.

To Mr. Ryan—I was drinking alone. There was no row in the pub, but they were chewing the fat. I never said a word to Moylan going home. I did not see him strike Wall. I am no relation of Moylan's.

Patrick Moylan said he had a wife and five children. On December 19th he was in Hayes' pub. Wall was there too and he attacked witness about water and witness said he did not want fight. Wall caught him and tore his shirt and struck him. Witness told the Guards what happened and went home. He returned later with his wife and met Wall and Roche at Walsh's corner. Roche said to Wall—Do you think you would be able for Moylan and he said he would and went at him. Kiely came along and took Wall off him. Later Wall challenged him and struck him. They both fell and the Guards came and took Moylan to the barrack.

In the case of P. Moylan v. Patrick Wright, Moylan said on December 26th Wall and Wright met him and said something about the shore. Wright wanted to hit witness, but he went home. If he could get four walls of a house any place he would roof it in and leave the place he was.

To Mr. Ryan—He never had a fight with anyone that night, but they wrestled three times. It was more wrangling than anything else. He did not see Fr. Egan or Fr. Hearne, and was not drunk. He did not see his father and Wall fighting.

Supt.—Would you be surprised to know that the Guards were 15 times in your lane in December? I was never cautioned by the Guards.

Mrs. Moylan said Mrs. Wall attacked her and her sister Chrissie Healy. Later when her sister was going for water Mrs. Wall came out and called her dirty names and caught her by the hair. The Wall's had plenty backing in the lane in the Roche's and Wright's.

To Mr. Ryan—Mrs. Wall is not a delicate woman. The Priest never came to her house. Sergt. O'Shea came and said 3 or 4 women assaulted Mrs. Wall and she was one of them and if anything happened Mrs. Wall someone would swing.

Chrissie Healy also gave evidence. To Mr. Ryan she said Mrs. Wall called her a dirty name though she never interfered with her.

In the case of Annie Kiely, v. Maggie Tutty, the plaintiff said she was a sister of Patk. Moylan and Maggie Tutty was a daughter of Patrick Wright and niece of John Wall. She said she was afraid of the defendant. Justice—Indeed you are not.

In delivering judgment, the Justice said—Dungarvan was a quiet town, and he would try and keep it so. He was of opinion that Patrick Moylan was the chief offender and he would sentence him to a months' hard labour and at the end of that time to enter into bail for his future behaviour or get another 3 months. He fined Michael Moylan 20/- and bound him to the peace. Mollie Moylan and Chrissie Healy were also bound to the peace and warned them against coming before him again. He dismissed all the other summonses.

ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

DISCOVERY NEAR YOUGHAL.

Early on Sunday morning, Sergt. Beirne, Detective Slane and Guard Fottrell, searched the farmhouse of Mr. J. Griffin, Greeneloyne, near Youghal.

In the bedroom of his son Cornelius were found 3 rifles, 3 revolvers, 52 .303, 14 rounds parabellum, twenty rounds .45 assorted ammunition, 3 revolver holsters, 2 pouches, one loading machine, 2 bandoliers, 50 detonators, percussion caps, belts etc.

Young Griffin was arrested and detained in the local barracks.

THE JANUARY COURT.

The usual monthly Court was not held at Kilmacthomas, owing to the unavoidable absence of Mr. F. J. McCabe, D.J., due to the death of a near relative of his—the late Mr. John A. McAreevy, Solicitor, Foxrock, Co. Dublin. Cases listed for hearing on the occasion will be the first dealt with at next month's sitting.

WE HAVE NO WAR DEBT!

ALL the great nations of the world are to-day groaning under the burden of War Debts. The wealthiest of countries are having financial troubles.

OUR War Debt was wiped out six years ago. If we had it to-day we could not get rid of it. We are the only country in Europe to have been fiscally separated from another Public Debt.

GREAT Britain claimed that the Saorstát's share of the United Kingdom's Public Debt and other Funds was £169,750,000. We had a counter-claim for over-taxation but it was impossible to formulate that claim to stand expert examination at an Arbitration Court.

MR. de Valera stated before the settlement that we would be saddled with a payment to Britain of £19,000,000 a year. He was wrong.

PRESIDENT Cosgrave and his Ministers settled the claim for £5,000,000. The payment of that sum is spread over a period of 60 years. That could not be done to-day.

PRESIDENT Cosgrave settled at the right time. His foresight and sagacity saved the taxpayers many millions. We got rid of the burden of a War Debt. We are the only one of the countries involved in the Great War now without a War Debt.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE.

WATERFORD V. CORK.

Cork and Waterford met on Sunday at the Copperalloy Grounds, Youghal, in the National Football League. Despite the threatening appearance of the weather and some slight showers which fell in the forenoon, it cleared off, and, though dull, held fine throughout. A good attendance witnessed a mediocre display, the slippery state of the pitch making it extremely difficult for the players to keep their feet. The game was contested in a fine sporting spirit, but the home county gained the supremacy, and ran out winners with a good margin in their favour.

Prior to the football match a challenge camogie game was played between St. Enda's (Glounthaune) and Youghal, which resulted in a draw. Mr. J. Monahan, Youghal, promptly to time, set the teams in motion. Waterford won the toss and elected to play towards the town goal. Cork secured possession at the start, and a quick invasion saw Lynch send wide. This was followed by a further attack and Cork were awarded a "50." O'Meara made a great effort with the kick, and placed his forwards in an advantageous position, but a stolid defence prevailed. A quick bout of passing saw Waterford gain ground, and Goode, aided by Mulcahy, gave to Driscoll, who lost a good opportunity. Waterford kept pressing until a free to Cork eased the situation, and play was transferred to the other end, where Lynch made a great attempt to score.

Immediately afterwards the same player sent to Murphy, who opened the scoring with a major. Following the kick-out, Greaney sent to Goode, but the latter just failed to score. Shortly afterwards Mulcahy raised the white flag for Waterford and Cork's lead was further reduced by Parsons' who shot a fine point. McCarthy sent Cork going, but the attack ended in a fifty, which was again well placed by O'Meara and saved at the expense of another fifty. Both sides had strong back lines and fierce melees took place in the respective goalmouths. M. Murphy got possession and beat the Waterford custodian with a fine shot. Interval

WHY IS THE ACE OF SPADES ALWAYS LARGER THAN THE OTHER ACES?

When a tax was first imposed on playing cards the ace of spades was the card on which the mark was made to show that the duty had been paid. Eventually the excise authorities printed the ace of spades themselves in sheets of twenty on paper supplied by the card manufacturers. When this practice ceased, the makers continued the old design for the ace of spades.

MAKING SILAGE.

Mr. Thos. Flynn, V.C., presided. Also present—Messrs. C. J. Curran, A. J. Power, J. Greene, and Thos. Harty. In connection with the resolution passed at the previous meeting, re Silage Scheme replies were received from Donegal, Limerick, Wicklow, Tipperary and other Committees, stating they had approved of the resolution passed and having a deputation sent to the Department on the subject. Chairman—They also approved of it in Cork.

Mr. Curran—To my mind the question is whether silage or hay is the more beneficial to the country. Chairman—You can save hay one year, but not another year. Last year most of the hay was washed out by the rain. Ireland is the greatest country in the world to grow grass and if we could make silage as they do in other countries, we could feed our cattle all the year round. Anyone who studied Dr. Kennedy's article on the question would say it would be the proper thing to make silage.

Mr. Curran referred to a statement of a man who made silage and fed two lots of cattle during the winter, one with hay and the other with silage. The following May, the cattle that got presumably well-saved hay were 25 per cent. better than those that got silage.

The Chairman said it was in the last 5 or 6 years they had made silage very well. Mr. Greene thought if the grass were put into the silos dry and green it would be far better than if put in wet.

Mr. Curran—There may be something in the modern way of saving it, that we don't know anything about. Mr. Greene—It would be a great boon to the farmers if it were a success and I believe that the modern way of making silage is worth trying.

Mr. C. J. Curran—Some time ago a Gentleman told me in Dublin, that if he could make hay at all he would make it rather than silage. You cannot sell silage by the ton and old hay they say is old gold. Owing to the political turmoil at the moment the matter was left over for further consideration after the Election.

Travelling Expenses.

Miss Mullins, Poultry Instructress, applied for £15 travelling expenses incurred in connection with taking blood tests of the fowl at the several Poultry Stations in the County as requested by the Department. Mr. C. J. Curran—What about the officials formerly, who did their work willingly and well without such expenses? The man on the farm who pays for all is the worst paid of all. Our rates will be up 10d., to 1/- in the £. this year. Chairman—What gave rise to this? Secretary—All birds had to be blood-tested by order of the Department and the blood sent for analysis to the Veterinary College. Chairman—Will this be an annual thing? Secretary—Yes. They will not even allow birds to be imported without the blood-test sent here. Mr. Curran—She is getting £100 expenses for travelling already. Mr. Power—That work was made compulsory by the Department. Has not it been done for this year? Secretary—Yes. The tests have been carried out at 28 stations. It was decided to grant the Instructress £10. Mr. Curran dissenting. Mr. Greene—I think the Poultry industry is paying for itself.

Salmon Fishing Prospects the River Blackwater. (From our Cappoquin Correspondent) The Salmon fishing season, both for net fishermen and anglers, will open on the river Blackwater, at 6 a.m. on Monday morning, Feb. 1st, and the prospects for the season are at present being eagerly discussed by the hardy fishermen who have to eke out an existence from this industry, as well as by those who fish for pleasure with the rod and line.

As a result of careful and exhaustive inquiries made from several gentlemen, we have learned with much pleasure that the prospects for this season are far brighter than they have been for many years past. In previous years poaching of salmon during the close season was indulged in to a great extent, so that hundreds of valuable fish which had gone up the rather shallow streams, glens and other tributaries of the Blackwater for spawning purposes were ruthlessly killed and the spawn of what would ultimately develop into thousands of young salmon was thereby destroyed, with the inevitable result that there was a proportionate scarcity of fish in the main river when the fishing season opened each year.

Net-fishing is carried on over a long stretch of the river Blackwater extending from Youghal to Lismore, a distance of about 22 miles, each season. Most of this portion of the river is tidal water as high tides run up to within 2 miles of Lismore, and the only netting carried on in the non-tidal part of the river is that which the crews of Devonshire carry on above the bridge underneath Lismore Castle.

These men fish at the lower end of the weir, a couple of hundred yards above the Castle, where the famous "Queen's Gap" is situated, and although the Duke holds proprietary rights over the river from this point right down to Youghal harbour, he has let his several fishery to various tenants from Tourin down to Youghal Bridge, so that his own netting area, extends only from the "Queen's Gap" to a point known as the "Rock Hole" just below Cappoquin, where the fishery rights of the representatives of the late Sir Richard Musgrave, Bart., Tourin, begin.

Mr. Ion Villiers Stuart, Dromana, next holds the rights of another long stretch of the river from a point called "Pallas," below Tourin, down to Dromore, and in this way various other gentlemen hold long stretches of the river down to Youghal Bridge, below which Drift Net fishing is carried on in Youghal Harbour. The fishing engines used between Youghal Bridge and Lismore are Snap Nets and Drag Nets, the annual licence for the former being £2 10s, while we understand the licence for a Drag Net is £5 per annum.

The Blackwater between Cappoquin and Youghal Bridge presents a busy sight when the fishing season is in full swing, being dotted with several hundred boats of various kinds, as different classes of boats have to be used for the Snap and Drag nets, respectively. Last year proved a very profitable one for the fishermen in the lower reaches of the river, as one buyer alone, the Cappoquin Bacon Factory, purchased over two tons of salmon over several days, while for many weeks during the season the weight of the fish bought never fell below one ton a day.

Other prominent buyers in Youghal, Dromore, Villierstown and other centres also purchased unusually large quantities of fish during the same period, and while last year's fishing results cannot be described as a record, still they were far more satisfactory than those experienced in previous years. Although the tidal portion of the river extends about 20 miles from Youghal, it must not be assumed that net-fishing can be carried on over this entire area. Long stretches of the river are absolutely useless to the fishermen, because owing to the large number of shoals and shallow streams which are to be met with at frequent intervals it is quite impossible to use nets in those parts, and consequently the fishermen have to depend on certain deep parts of the river for the purpose of carrying on their work at low water. Starting from the "Queen's Gap" at Lismore down stream the first important place for fishing is the spot known as "The Kitchen Hole," a mile from Cappoquin, where some very large catches of salmon are usually taken, while the next best place is "The Rock Hole," about a mile below Cappoquin.

Splendid fishing is next found at Tourin, Dromana, Strancally, Ballinacorney, Ardsallagh, Templemichael and various points down to Youghal Bridge, as the river is practically free from shoals and shallow streams from Tourin down, so that during the season this area might be safely described as "The Fishermen's Paradise."

Turning to the question of rod-fishing, it must be said that few salmon anglers of note ever spend much time over the tidal portion of the river, although it is famous for trout fishing, as the best salmon angling can be found on the non-tidal portion of the river from the "Deirne Stream," below Lismore Bridge, up towards Flowerhill, Ballyduff, Mocollop, Ballinacorney, and Careysville, near Fermoy, these being the favourite fishing grounds of cross-channel anglers staying in Lismore, Ballyduff, or Fermoy, as large numbers of them do each year.

The owners of the several fishery rights in these parts have been for many years complaining that the construction of the weir above Lismore Castle has proved a serious hindrance to the free passage of salmon to the upper reaches of the river, and this vexed question led to very costly litigation over 30 years ago, when the late Mr. T. M. Healy, K.C., was briefed on behalf of the up-river fishery owners. Friction has frequently been caused since over the same question, but there is every reason to hope that his matter will be amicably adjusted this year through the joint efforts of the Lismore Board of Fishery Conservators and Lord Charles Cavendish, youngest son of the Duke of Devonshire, who is at present in residence in Lismore Castle.

Lord Charles is a prominent member of the Board of Conservators, and being an enthusiastic and expert angler himself, as well as being a good all-round sportsman, we understand that he is now anxious that salmon should have greater freedom in passing up the river in future, so that from present indications everything points to a happy termination of this age-long dispute on an early date.

Taking everything into account we feel perfectly justified in stating that the prospects for all classes of fishermen on the Blackwater are extremely bright and promising this year, as the heavy floods of the past few weeks have caused a great run of salmon up the river, so that unusually large catches, both with the nets and rod and line, should be experienced by all during the coming season.

Ring Assault

At Dungarvan Court on Tuesday, before Mr. Troy, D.J. J. Finger, Ballingoul, Ring, sued Thos. Foley, Gortinaidha, Ring, for £7 damages for assault.

Mr. Ryan, solr., for plaintiff; and Mr. Williams, solr., defended. Mr. Ryan, said the assault took place on December 6th 1930 when the defendant struck his client when going home from Dungarvan and inflicted serious injuries on him. Later a Civil Bill was issued for £35 damages and the case was settled for £7 out of Court and proceedings withdrawn, but the money was never paid and for that they now sued.

Finger, in evidence, said he was going home from Dungarvan on December 6th 1930, with a donkey and cart and the defendant had a donkey also behind him. He told defendant to pass out as his donkey would then go better after the other. Defendant did not pass him out, but took the stick witness had in his car and struck him on the head and shoulder with it several times. Witness came off the car and fell with weakness, but getting up he took the stick off Foley. Witness went to Dr. Casey, Ring. Dr. Casey was treating him for three weeks after. He agreed to settle the case for £7.

Cross-examined by Mr. Williams—I live 3 miles from Foley. The quarrel about the trespass between Foley and me was 5 or 6 years ago and we settled it then. He had no quarrel with him since. Foley was walking with the donkey when he struck me with the stick I had in the car behind my back. Only for he took the stick out of the car he would not have it. Can you give any reason why Foley attacked you? It was because of the trespass charge. He couldn't attack me, but he got the chance. It was not the first time he did it with a man. Witness denied he made a blow at Foley when passing him. I took the stick off him as I was too good a man for him. He did not know if he was at Mr. Ryan's office four days after the accident.

Re-examined by Mr. Ryan, witness said his kidneys were affected (pointing to his shoulder).

Mr. Ryan—Where are your kidneys. Witness—Somewhere there (clapping himself on the shoulder and chest). Dr. Casey, Ring, said Finger came to him. He bled a lot. The wounds could have been inflicted with a blow and were consistent with the blow he said he got. He was also injured in the shoulder by a blow. He attended him five times. Finger paid him £4, but that would not pay him for all he did for him.

By Mr. Williams—I did not hear the case was settled for £2. Defendant was not in Court. His Worship gave a decree for £7 and allowed £2 s. to Dr Casey.

SYMPATHY. Profound sympathy is felt with Mrs. Barron, wife of Mr. Patrick Barron, Square, Kilmacthomas, in her bereavement occasioned by the death of a brother of hers, which sad event occurred at his home, at Glenmore, South Kilkenny, last week, after a protracted illness and at a very early age.

KILMACTHOMAS NEWS.

ON JANUARY 29th., 1932. Mr. John Wall, farmer Knockmaun, Dungarvan, was unconditionally released from Naas Prison (Co. Kildare). Mr. Wall's health had been affected by "duration vile" and he had been in the prison hospital for some time prior to his release. He was the respected vice-chairman of Dungarvan Union at that period, and because of his activities in the Land League and Plan of Campaign movements, he was arrested as a "suspect."

ON JANUARY 30th., 1932. The following lines, under the caption, "Song of The Politician," appeared in the "Sydney Bulletin": "Oh, the streams will flow with honey, if our side wins. And the trees will sprout with money, if our side wins. And a gay, full-dressed millennium will come on the proscenium. And Fate ring up the curtain, if our side wins! Oh, we'll live on luscious manna. If our side wins. While the angels sing hosanna, if our side wins. And a reign of general charity. And uncontrolled hilarity Shall dominate the planet, if our side wins!"

PHENOMENA IN NATURE. The extraordinary spectacle of turnips on drill butting for the past three weeks (or so) faster than period during the Autumn or early winter is one that has never been witnessed before by the oldest person living in Mid-Waterford today. Potatoes are also sprouting with unwonted vigour; flowers are in bloom in several gardens, and buds are showing in many trees. Pasture lands, too, present an "April-May" appearance. This phenomena in nature is attracting considerable interest, especially on the part of the older people. Does it augur for the best? We wonder!

PREDICTION. We bespeak signal success for the forthcoming "45 Drive" at Newtown. It will swell and advance the Curate's House Fund. From Messrs M. Walsh, N.T.; Laurence Veale, and Pat. Cummins, of the promoting committee—we have it that there will be a record number of tables occupied in the local schoolrooms, when the penultimate and ultimate rounds will be decided there on to-morrow (Sunday) evening week (7th prox). There is yet time for any of the "caroachs" of these parts not already entered to "fall in" with the rest.

PORKATINE TEST. The Porkatine test, which is now under way at Mr. E. Hill's, pig farm, at Kilmacthomas, is creating wide interest. Being the first practical demonstration of this nature conducted in the district, great interest has been aroused among the local pig-feeders. There are two lots of pigs, one lot only receiving Porkatine. When the two lots are finished the weights of each will be known, and also the quantity of food consumed. It will be a simple matter to discern whether or not the regular feeding of Porkatine made a difference.

OBITUARY. It is with feelings of deep regret that we announce the death of Mrs. Ellen O'Neill, which event took place at her residence at Bonmahon, on the 23rd inst., after a brief illness, fortified by the rites of Holy Church. She deceased, who was relict of the late Mr. Thomas O'Neill, was possessed of a very lovable disposition which endeared her to all who had the pleasure of knowing her personally. Quiet and unassuming, always in sympathy with those in need and anxious to assist them, her demise is mourned by many among whom she was held in the highest esteem. Her popularity was strikingly testified by the huge concourse of people which followed the remains to the family burial ground at Kill on Monday evening. May she rest in peace.

WAGES. Due to the depression prevailing in the farming industry, the hiring of farm hands is not as brisk as in former years. In the majority of cases the wages have been lowered about £2 for the eleven months. The wage for a man proficient in the management of horses in connection with tilage, etc., averages £33 to £35.

THE FAIR. The usual monthly fair, held on Tuesday, was pretty well supplied in all departments. Young cattle, 6 to 12 months, 1st class £7-£9; 2nd, £5 10/- to £6 15/-. Store cattle yearlings, 1st £12-£13 10/-; 2nd, £10-£11 15/-; 2 year-olds, 1st, £14-£16; 2nd, £12-£13 15/-; Fat cattle, 2-years-old, 1st, £15-£17; 2nd, £13-£14 10/-; 3-year-olds, 1st £18-£19 5/-; 2nd, £16-£17 10/-. Milch cows, 1st, £17-£20; 2nd, £15-£16 10/-. Store lambs, long wools, 18/- to 25/-; Fat lambs, long wools, 25/- to 35/-; Fat sheep, yearlings, long wools, 33/- to 50/-; Bonhams, 14/- to 18/-; Store pigs (12 weeks to 4 months)—20/- to 25/-.

CAMOGIE. YOUGHAL V. ST. ENDA'S. Prior to the National Football League game, the above teams lined out in a challenge camogie match. This was Youghal's initial appearance and great credit is due to them for their fine performance. There is some good material in the team, and with further practice they should emulate the splendid record of the Camogie Club which brought many laurels to the old town some years back. Mr. Canly, Glanthane, set the teams in motion and some sparkling play was witnessed in the ensuing exchanges. Youghal pressed from the beginning, but Miss McNamara effected a timely clearance. At the other end the Misses Long, Aherne and Convey, put up a creditable defence, especially the latter, who worked wonders in the back line. The half-time arrived with Youghal one goal up, scored by Miss Revinis. The second period was full of excitement and the better training of St. Enda's began to tell on the local team. Up to the last minute Youghal held their lead, due to the fine defence of Misses Aherne and Convey. Just before the final whistle St. Enda's broke through for the equaliser, leaving the full-time score—1 goal each. The teams were— Youghal—The Misses M. Hallisey, (Capt.) M. Revinis, M. Moloney, W. Sullivan, K. Meehan, K. Glavin, E. Healy, B. Aherne, J. Convey, M. Long, M. E. Twomey, B. Walsh (goal); St. Enda's—The Misses M. Macnamara, C. Carroll, L. Murphy, M. Mahony, N. Grandon, K. Leahy, N. M. Grandon, R. O'Flynn, M. Leahy, D. Carroll, J. O'Neill, N. Leahy.

Diseases of Animals Committee. Mr. Thos. Flynn, V.C., in the Chair. In connection with the Dipping Centres at Ring and Old Parish it was stated that as the number of sheep in the area was not large, one central centre would do for the place, and it was agreed that one suitable centre be provided. Mountain Rangers. Mr. Curran said he noticed that Mr. Mulcahy, V.S., applied for a Mountain Ranger at the last meeting and the Committee agreed with it. Chairman—We did not exactly agree, but we said we would see about it when the whole matter came up later on. Chairman—Do you think Tuberculosis in cattle is increasing in the county? Mr. Byrne, V.S.—I would not say so. Chairman—Professor Kearney at the Dairy Congress gave a very gloomy picture of it and said nearly one animal in eight had it. Mr. Harly—Especially in Limerick. Mr. Curran—it is not. I remember here at one time, when we would have four times the amount of cattle slaughtered in a quarter than we have to-day.

SLUM ANGEL.

A most powerful drama from the story "The Ragged Messenger" by W. B. Maxwell. "Slum Angel" presents the talented and fascinating Evelyn Brent in an extremely interesting role... that of a rich man's pampered darling who poses as a homeless waif of the streets, in an effort to steal a fortune. The story is set in the colourful background of the Barbary Coast with its romantic atmosphere... the gay cafes and saloons... the underground dives where the sailors congregate... and where split lips and black eyes are more the rule than the exception.

Included in the supporting cast are Robert Ames, Josephine Dunne and Ivan Linow.

PAY I.—T. WITH PIGS—OR TURNIPS. INCOME TAX BY BARTER!

Scene: Tax collector's office.
Collector: The amount of income tax payable by you is £50. You haven't notes? Never mind. A cheque will do.

Small farmer: But I have no cheque-book, and no money. Can't realise cash on stock, so I've brought you three loads of turnips, two of swedes, a fat sow, and a dozen fowls. A good fifty quids' worth, I assure you. Will you take them?

Collector: Of course I'll take them. Cart them round to the depot and dump them with the kippers, rabbits, sides of beef, eggs, old clothes, churns of milk, unpublished novels, works of art, and other things. Here's your receipt. Thank you. Good morning.

Is the world going to revert to barter?
Look what is happening here and there.

COPENHAGEN.—A farm girl, owing to agricultural stringency, paid in suckling pigs. Barterers one for a "bob" and permanent wave at the hairdresser's.

DETROIT.—Lorenz Sauer, junr., pays rates to the city treasurer with 500 lbs. of peanuts.

BRAZIL.—Exchanges 50,000 sacks of coffee with Mussoolini for eleven sea-planes. Also pays the Ruhr with coffee for half a million tons of coal. Also sends a million bags of coffee to the United States for 25,000,000 bushels of wheat.

IRELAND.—Travelling circus takes coffee at the doors instead of money. One man came with a sea lion and demanded change.

PARIS.—Two hundred artists/establish an art mart, where a pair of shoes, a radio set, pots of jam, and bottles of wine are accepted in exchange for pictures.

Inquiries are said to have been instituted by British firms for acceptance of goods in exchange for goods. A consignment of macintoshes is said to have been paid for by a fine collection of fat and healthy frogs.

A Kentucky judge, feeling the pulse of cashless love couples, has offered to marry anybody for two bushels of fruit.

There is romance, primitive glamour, and fun about barter. A cheque, a note, cash—soulless things! Bah!

But the man who takes a blushing bride to church, driving a pig in front for the parson, with a goose under one arm for the clerk, and a broody barnyard hen on a clutch of eggs under the other for the organist, is a noble and picturesque figure.

CHILDRENS HEALTH COMMITTEE

Mr. J. Butler, presided at a meeting of the Children's Health Committee held in the Town Hall, on Tuesday last. Other members present were Mrs. O'Neill, Messrs. Clancy, J. F. Moloney, T. Power, D. Foley, Mcc. Griffin, Thos. McCarthy, and Jas. Hackett.

Mr. O'Meara, Treasurer and Mr. Walsh, Secretary, were also present. The Secretary reported that the accounts for the preceding two months reached a total of £49 9s.

Chairman—Can we pay all these. Treasurer—Yes.

Secretary—I wish to report that the milk supplied by the contractor was not satisfactory on two days and he had to return two buckets to the contractor. The contractor suggested cutting out the two days altogether, but that in his (Secretary's) opinion would not be fair.

Chairman—What amount of milk was supplied on the two days.

Secretary—About 25½ gallons; about 5 gallons were returned.

Mr. Hackett said milk got sour in private houses and at the creamery that week.

The Committee held that the condition of the milk on the occasion was not the contractor's fault and passed payments deducting 4/7 from the milk contractors in lieu of the milk returned.

Mr. Moloney—Can the Treasurer give us an idea of how much we have to go on with.

Treasurer—I did not anticipate the question for this meeting.

A Musical Treat.

Chairman—Rev. Father Walsh, approached me yesterday regarding some musical Teachers who are anxious to have a Concert at which their local pupils would contribute, they were prepared to give the receipts to this Committee, provided that the Committee take charge. The Committee ought consider whether it would be worth while, and then meet Father Walsh.

Mr. O'Neill—We should first find out what the cost may be, whether the artistes will attend free etc.

The matter was left in the hands of Mrs. O'Neill, Mr. Moloney and the Secretary to deal with.

J. O'DWYER, Secretary.

28th January, 1932.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

A CHAMPION HEN.

In connection with the Egg laying contests carried out at the Munster Institute Cork, it is interesting to note that a White Wyandotte hen, the property of Mrs. D. Drohan, Ballynevin, Carrick-on-Suir, has laid 95 eggs on 95 consecutive days since she took up the contest on October 15th.

RUGBY FOOTBALL.

NO WORK AND NO MONEY.— WHY A SHEEP WAS STOLEN!

At Dungarvan Court, on Tuesday, before Mr. Troy, D.J., a young blacksmith, named Guilfoyle, of Ballymacarby, district, was charged by Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, with the larceny of a sheep from James Tobin, Glendaloughlin.

George Kennedy, Kilganey, said he dealt in sheep. On Dec. 17th, he went to Guilfoyle and bought a sheep for 17/- less 1/- luck. He put the sheep to grass at Graignagour.

Accused pleaded guilty and said he took the sheep as he had no money or work. He was a blacksmith out of a job. When he got work he would pay back Kennedy's money.

SCOUTS DEN, ABBEYSIDE.

On Friday night last, the Opening Ciderella Dance, was held in the Scouts Den, Abbeyside, and was a perfect success. Sarsfield Street—one of the finest thoroughfares in the area—was illuminated for the occasion and it was a rare sight to see on both sides, the big number of motor cars parked which brought patrons from far and near. Over 70 couples were present and a most enjoyable night was spent by all.

THE ELECTION.

As the date of the Election draws near, excitement grows, but somehow, it is hard to work up deep enthusiasm amongst a people oppressed by heavy taxation and bad times. But a new Parliament has to be elected as the old one is to be dissolved before this week is out and polling will take place in about 3 weeks or so. In this Constituency, there are at the moment 7 candidates in the field viz., 3 Cumann na nGaedheal—Capt. Redmond, T.D., Dr. White, T.D., and Mr. John Kiersey; 3 Fianna Fail—Messrs. P. J. Little, T.D., Sean Goulding, T.D., Michael Mansfield, Crotty and one Labour—Mr. Dan Foley, Waterford. As we have only four seats to fill three candidates must fall out, but we hope the electors will give us the best men for they have a big job to do to try and put our country on its feet.

COMING MEETINGS.

On Wednesday next at 6 p.m., Dr. O'Sullivan, Minister for Education, will address a meeting at Tallow and at 8 p.m. the same evening he will speak at Lismore. On Thursday next at Cappoquin fair, he will also deliver an address. On next Sunday the Cumann na nGaedheal Candidates—Dr. White, Capt. Redmond, and Mr. John Kiersey, will address a number of meetings in Chapel Areas of West Waterford.

LABOUR MEETING IN DUNGARVAN.

Last Sunday night, there was a meeting on the Square, in furtherance of the candidature of Mr. Dan Foley, Labour Candidate. Mr. T. J. Dunne, presided and addresses were delivered by the candidate and Mr. Thos. Ryan.

RUGBY BALL.

At Carrick-on-Suir, on Sunday, Cappoquin R. F. Club, played the home team to a scoreless draw in a fast game. The Grand Ball, to be held in the Boathouse, Cappoquin, by the Rugby Club next Friday night, promises to be a huge success. Billy McSweeney's Band will supply the music and Mr. Conway the Catering. It should prove a great event.

"45 DRIVE."

The Semi-Final and Final rounds of the "45 Drive" in connection with the Boys' Club, Dungarvan, were played off last Sunday evening, in the town Hall. There was a large attendance and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed. After most exciting contests, Messrs. James Delaney, Glenbeg, and Martin Tobin, ran out winners. The runners-up were Jas. Curran, and Pk. Tobin, Dungarvan, followed by Messrs. Morrissey and Tobin, Garrynaguragh. As usual the arrangements were perfect.

PADRAIG O HEILIDHE, CLUISHMOR.

writes "It is pleasing to find a large section of the General Public especially the aristocracy showing interest in the policy of Fianna Fail, as is shown in your issue of the 16th, by a contribution in which Senator Comyn, is compared to a Quaker, because he refers to the Oath of Allegiance to the British King which will have to disappear contrary to the wishes of the writer. When it comes to a question of the Church and also of vital importance to the country, debating on the subject should be left to Catholics and Irishmen."

He was brought to Dungarvan Hospital for treatment and Dr. McCarthy had him sent later to a Cork Hospital, where he died on Wednesday evening. Deep sympathy is felt with the College authorities on the sad event.

STRANGE MOTOR ACCIDENT.

Mr. Baldwin was unhurt. Getting help an effort was made to lift the car to the quay, but a boat which had been supporting it drifted and the car again fell into the river. The car was eventually salvaged little the worse of its unusual journey.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present—Mr. E. P. Lynch, Vice-
Chairman, presiding; Capt. Dunne,
Messrs. D. Dennehy, M. J. Fleming,
T. Beausang, J. Whelan, T. Murphy,
A. J. Fowkes, J. Kennedy, C. Clancy,
P. J. McMahon, P.C.; Mrs. S. Hurley,
P.C.; M. M. Broderick, D. J. Linehan,
P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.

The Dail Election.
A letter was read from Mr. Brooke-
W. Brazier, M.C.C., stating that it was his intention to visit the town in connection with his forthcoming candidature for East Cork, and asking for terms for the use of the Town Hall.

The Clerk said he had never heard of a charge for the like.
It was decided to ask Mr. Brazier to name a date, there being no charge except for gas if used at night.
Mr. Clancy applied on behalf of Mr.
W. J. Broderick, for the use of the Town Hall, on Monday next.
The application was granted unanimously, Mr. McMahon stating that they would go to hear them all.

Housing Conditions.
Dr. D. J. Murphy, M.O.H., reported that he had inspected the house occupied by Mrs. Broderick, in Power's Lane. He found the house overcrowded and the kitchen wasn't fit for occupation. He had reported on that place repeatedly. That house was in much the same condition as other houses in the lane, the lower part of which got flooded in extreme wet weather. The difficulty they had to face was if they closed the house, where were the people to go. A good many houses in the town were insanitary. Their position was no worse than other towns.
They were in a difficult position not easily met. The occupants of the houses say "if you send us out we must go on the street as we have no other place to go." He recommended that he necessary notice be served on the landlord to carry out the required structural repairs.

It was decided to serve the notices referred to.
The Clerk—If she puts out the people in the meantime—and she can do so.
Mr. Broderick said they would insist on the houses being put in a satisfactory condition before being let again, and a resolution to this effect on the proposition of Mr. Broderick, seconded by Mr. Dennehy, was unanimously adopted.

Rents of Council's Houses.
The Clerk said he had gone into the question of the rents of Town Wall houses. In view of the reduction of the principal and interest of the loan borrowed for their erection, they could reduce the rent by 2d. per week.
Mr. Murphy—What is the present rent?
The Clerk—8s. As time went on they could make a further reduction.
Mr. Murphy said would it not be better to make a proper reduction so that the houses would be always occupied. If they were idle any time, the ratepayers would be at a loss.
The Clerk—For years and years the rates have been subsidising the houses in Cross Lane and Cork Lane.
Mr. Murphy—It should not be so.
The Clerk said they had struck an economic rent for the houses.
After further discussion, the matter dropped.

Williamstown.
Mrs. Hurley asked was it true, as she had read in the Press, that Williamstown was not included in the steamrolling scheme.

The Clerk said there was no steamrolling included in the scheme.
Mr. Dennehy said, arising out of Mrs. Hurley's question, something should be done to Williamstown. He proposed that it be cleaned and swept a few times a week.
The Town Supt. was instructed to attend to the place twice weekly.

Meat Supplies.
The Co. Medical Officer of Health, submitted the usual monthly report of the Veterinary Inspector, in his meat inspection. Everything was satisfactory, only 17 lbs. having been destroyed.
Mrs. Hurley said that was very satisfactory.
The Clerk said that the Vet. Inspector told him that Youghal was in a very happy position as compared with other places as regards the meat supply.
Mr. McMahon said the only trouble was that they couldn't buy enough of it. With them it was a question not of quality, but quantity (laughter).

Regatta Committee.
The Town Clerk, on behalf of the Regatta Committee, applied for the use of the Town Hall, on St. Patrick's Eve, for a Whist Drive, with the object of helping to meet the deficit incurred.
Mr. Broderick said the Committee had undertaken the thing in the interests of the town and they would receive every possible help from the Council.

Mr. McMahon said they wouldn't let Mr. Dennehy go to jail (laughter).
The application was granted unanimously, free of charge.

The Groynes.
Mr. O'Gorman called attention to the damaged condition of several groynes on the beach. Some of the timbers had been torn away during the recent storms with the result that the beach material was swept along inwards. He suggested that the Clerk should communicate with the Co. Surveyor on the necessity of having them repaired.
This was unanimously agreed to.

Mr. Clancy complained of the shocking conditions of some of the back streets. They were almost impossible in bad weather.
The Town Surveyor was instructed to take the necessary steps to remove the grievance.

Moll Goggin's Rest.
Mr. McMahon said that another seaman had called his attention to the state of the railings protecting the rest at Moll Goggin's. If something were not done to preserve them from further corrosion, there might be serious consequences.
It was decided to have the matter seen to as soon as possible.

Acrobatic Club.
The local Acrobatic Club, applied for the use of the Town Hall, to give an Entertainment in aid of their funds.
The application was granted unanimously, on the proposition of Capt.
Dunne.

The Gas Committee.
The Gas Manager, reported that he had been in negotiations with the contractors for the purchase of materials left over after recent works. The owners valued the stuff at £45. He offered, subject to the approval of the Council, £10 for them, but was asked £25. He thereupon increased the offer to £20.

Mr. McMahon strongly objected to the Gas Manager's action without the Council's sanction. The Gas Committee visited the works during the week, but the Gas Manager never mentioned the matter to them. He proposed that they do not purchase the goods.
Several Councillors said it would be a mistake to bleak off the negotiations if the goods were a bargain. There might be some explanation of the Manager's action.
Mr. Fleming asked what was the good of being a Manager if he were not allowed some latitude in the management. What did the members of the Council know about details of the kind.

Mr. McMahon asked what was the Gas Committee there for. The Manager should have consulted them.
After a very protracted discussion
the Manager was called in and questioned. He said he had received no notice of the Committees intended visit, and he just forgot to put the matter before them.
The Gas Manager's explanation was accepted as satisfactory and the Council ratified his offer of £20 for the goods.

Miss Anne Gilman, Newmarket, for an ad interim transfer of the license of Mrs. Meagher, South Main Street.
Miss Gilman having given formal evidence and there being no objection
the application was granted.

Exemption Order for the town from 4 to 6.30, on Sunday next, in connection with the Hurling Match Cork v.
Waterford.
The application was granted.

on Wednesday night last, was a huge success both from a social as well as a financial point of view.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

A GREAT RACE MEETING.

The programme of the Point-to-Point Races to be held here on Thursday, February, 18th appears in our advertising columns this week, and should provide interesting reading for all owners of hunters and sportsmen of every class in the Co. Waterford.

From this it will be seen that the card will contain five races, viz., Open Maiden Race; Open Light-Weight Hunt Race; Open Race for Cobs; Open Farmers Race and a Confined Maiden Hunt Race, so that the tastes of all sections of the racing public will be fully catered for. In addition to this very attractive programme, the Committee can point with pride to the fact that the maximum stakes of £25 allowed by the I.N.H.S. Rules are being offered in every case, while five valuable Cups, or one for each race, are offered in addition to the above substantial stakes, which constitutes a record for any Point-to-Point meeting held in Munster for many years.

As previously stated, a splendid course has been laid out overlooking the main road between Cappoquin and Melleray, about two miles from the town, and a finer or more picturesque course could not be found anywhere.

The public will be afforded a commanding view of the racing, practically from start to finish, and in this respect it ranks almost equal to the famous Dyrick course, which is one of the most ideal Point-to-Point courses in the South of Ireland.

Experienced workmen have been engaged in preparing the ground and fences for the past couple of months under the personal direction of Mr. P. Walsh, who is a most competent Judge of this important class of work, and nothing has been left undone to ensure the most absolute safety, both for horses and riders over this beautiful stretch of perfect hunting country. Mr. J. O'Connell, Broomana, the popular Master of the West Waterford Hunt, has been appointed as Judge, with Mr. S. J. Power, Affane House, as Starter, and from their wide and varied experience in hunting and racing matters it must be admitted that no more able or competent officials could be found for those responsible positions.

The Stewards and Committee have also been carefully selected from amongst the most expert followers of hunting and racing in West Waterford, and with Messrs. M. J. Sargent and P. Walsh, filling the important positions of Hon. Secs., it will be seen that everything points to this popular fixture being one of the best managed racing events held in the Co. Waterford for many years. Large entries have been promised, not only from all parts of Waterford, but also from every hunting district in Cork, Tipperary and Kilkenny, and even from the famous Curragh, so that Thursday, February, 18th should be a memorable day in the racing annals of West Waterford.

SILVER JUBILEE OF BACON FACTORY.

The Cappoquin Bacon Factory having completed 25 years of trading on December, 31st, 1931, has now entered on its 25th year, and has accordingly, attained its Silver Jubilee.

It should be unnecessary to emphasize now what a great boon this industry has conferred on Cappoquin since it was first opened on January, 2nd, 1908, by Mr. R. H. Keane, because during the past 24 years it has provided welcome and remunerative employment for large numbers of the men and women of the town who should otherwise be in a bad way owing to the absence of any other source of employment in Cappoquin.

Like many other concerns in more prosperous centres, this Factory has had to suffer periods of industrial depression from time to time owing to the unfavourable economic conditions caused by the wholesale dumping of foreign bacon and by-products in the English and Irish markets at prices which no Irish firm could compete against, but despite the most adverse conditions, the Factory was never closed down, but continued working regularly every year, as the Directors believed that the Silver Jubilee to the cloud of depression would sooner or later be seen again.

The recent tariffs imposed by the Free State Government have now, fortunately, synchronised with the Silver Jubilee of the firm, and although rather belated, it is felt that they will, nevertheless, do an immense amount of good in increasing the demand for Irish bacon and thereby enable this concern to greatly improve its output, which, in turn, will result in the reinstatement of many of the old employees who had to be reluctantly discharged some years ago. With a young, active and progressive gentleman like Mr. Jas. Lincoln now filling the responsible position of Manager, there is every reason to hope that a much more prosperous era now lies before the Factory, which we trust will be still "going strong" when it celebrates its Golden Jubilee 25 years hence.

TARIFF COMMISSIONERS VISIT CAPPOQUIN.

Last Thursday Messrs. O'Friel (Chairman); D. Twomey, and Professor Smiddy Tariff Commissioners visited Cappoquin, Bacon Factory, in connection with the tariff on Bacon and were received by Mrs. Keane, Managing Director, Miss Keane and Mr. Lincoln, Manager, who conducted them over the several departments, and gave them all necessary information. The visitors were much impressed by the general condition and equipment of the Factory and the quality of its products.

Youghal Circuit Court.

(Before His Lordship Judge Kenny).

Attorney General v. Charles McCarthy.

This was an Appeal of Charles McCarthy, Plumber, Youghal, against the decision of District Justice O'Sullivan, imposing a sentence of 2 months imprisonment on him for breaking into the house of Mrs. A. McDonald, of Harbour View, Youghal, and stealing the sum of £2 4s. 2d. from the gas-meter in said house.

Mr. J. F. Meagher, B.L., (instructed by Messrs. J. L. Keane, and Son) for appellant.

Mr. Daniel Casey, State Solicitor, for respondent.

Mrs. McDonald stated she left her house on November 6th at ten minutes to eight, and returned at 10.30. About 11 o'clock she had occasion to go into the kitchen, and found that the gas-meter had been rifled, and the contents taken. She found on the kitchen table a broken file, a poker, and some burnt papers (all produced).

Sergeant O'Beirne, Youghal, gave evidence that he questioned accused on the day after the crime. He also took a statement from accused on the following Monday after accused had been duly cautioned. The statement was then read.

Cross-examined—Finger-prints were taken from accused by the Superintendent.

Professor Grey, M.Sc., stated that he examined three files, namely, the broken file found on the premises, and also two similar files belonging to accused. He found traces of lead, tin and copper on all three files. In addition he found on the broken file sodium chloride.

Cross-examined by Mr. Meagher—Witness stated that these were all common metals. He would expect to find them on files.

Sergeant Leahy, Inspector of Weights and Measures, gave evidence that the accused worked in the Weights and Measures Office, and used files, similar to those produced, as punches in adjusting weights. He met the accused on the night of November 6th about 10 o'clock near Friar Street. Accused spoke to him. The accused would earn about 50/- a week at the weights.

William Broderick, Henry Morrison, Richard O'Connell, and Guard Fottrell all stated that they saw the accused both going towards and coming from the direction of Mrs. McDonald's house at different times between 9 o'clock and 10.30.

Mr. White, Gas Manager, stated the amount of money taken from the meter would have been £2 4s. 2d. This closed the case for the prosecution.

Mr. Meagher on behalf of the accused quoted a recent decision of the Chief Justice, to show that suspicion however strong, was not sufficient to convict. He submitted that in the present case there was nothing more than mere suspicion against accused, and he, therefore, asked his Lordship for a direction.

His Lordship stated he would require to hear evidence for the defence. The accused was then called, and in reply to Mr. Meagher stated he was a plumber, and worked in the Weights and Measures Office, with Sergeant Leahy. Accused gave a detailed account of his movements on the night of the crime. He went into Dickenson's public house at about 7.20 and remained there until closing time. Mr. Dickenson was in charge when he went in first, and Miss Dickenson took charge when her father went out. Witness stated five other persons saw him at Dickenson's while he was there. After leaving Dickenson's he met Sergt. Leahy. As regards the files, the broken file was not his. These were a very common make of file, and were used in Garages, workshops, etc. Finger-prints were taken from him by the Superintendent. He earned from £2 10/- to £3 a week, and was a plumber. He was not nearer the scene of the crime that night than Horgan's Picture Palace, which is almost a mile away.

Cross-examined—Witness stated that the previous witnesses must be making a mistake when they state they saw him that night. George Dickenson stated that accused came into his licensed premises about 7.15 p.m., on November 6th. He remained there all the time until he (witness) went out at 8 o'clock. Accused remained in the bar. His daughter took over charge when he left. Miss Winifred Dickenson stated that she was the daughter of the last witness. She took over charge of the bar from her father at 8 o'clock when her father went out. Accused was in the bar then, and he remained there all the time until just before closing time. Witness gave the names of a number of persons who were in the bar while accused was there that night.

His Lordship said he had heard enough and did not wish to hear the other witnesses for the defence. The evidence was rather conflicting. He was there in the capacity of both Judge and Jury, and having regard to the evidence of the last witness he could not convict the accused. The decision of the District Justice would, accordingly, be reversed, and the accused discharged.

PRICE OF PIGS. At the Cappoquin Factory this week the price of pigs was 54/- per cwt.

MOTOR V. PIER. On Sunday night, a motor car struck a pier on the main road at Cloncostraine. The pier was knocked and the car put out of action. No one was hurt.

WHIST DRIVE AT MONATREA.

A most successful Whist Drive, in aid of the Youghal Branch of the Royal National Lifeboat Institution, was held at the Monatrea Hotel, Ferry Point, Co. Waterford, on Tuesday evening, January 19th. Mrs. O'Donovan, the lessee, had spared no pains in her preparations for the evening, the Coffee and Drawing Rooms were brightly decorated and converted into an enormous card-hall. Every corner was occupied by the thirty-eight tables of enthusiastic and cheery players, and the party did not break up until nearly midnight. Prizes were presented by Mrs. O'Donovan, Miss O'Donovan, Revd. Father Walsh, C.C., and the local President of the Life Boat Institution. During the half-time interval light refreshments were served, this was a most welcome innovation, especially for those who had come from a distance.

Mr. Chapple, of Youghal, with his two sons acted as M.C. and Stewards, and directed the players in the crowded rooms with great skill and good humour. This is the first whist drive that has been held at Monatrea since the old Manston became a hotel and it is hoped that it will become an annual fixture in aid of a most deserving charity.
