Most Rev. Dr. Hackett.

PASSING OF ILLUSTRIOUS CHURCHMAN. Brilliant Student; Zealous Missioner; and Patriotic Irishman.

MOST REV. DR. HACKETT, BISHOP OF WATERFORD AND LISMORE, BORN 24th MAY, 1863, ORDAINED PRIEST 24th, JUNE 1888, CONSECRATED BISHOP 19th MARCH, 1916. DIED 1st JUNE, 1932. AGED 69 YEARS.

Today the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore mourns the loss of one of its most eminent Bishops who ever wielded the Crozier of SS. Otteran and Carthage. Most Rev. Dr. Hackett is no more. On Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, he passed away and great is the grief which overwhelms his flock.

STUDENT AND PROFESSOR. When the news of the death of our saintly and distinguished Bishop reached his native town, the Church bells were tolled and on every side prayers were fervently offered up for the happy repose of his soul.

MOST REV. DR. HACKETT, when he was Professor at St. John's College, Waterford.

baptised by the late Father Maurice Mooney, a great priest who is still remembered by old people. He was educated first at the Christian Schools here, and at the age of 11 years went to St. Augustine's Seminary, where he was one of its first pupils and incidentally one of its most distinguished alumni. He had as fellow students, his famous brother, the late Dr. J. C. Hackett, Mr. John Christopher, and Dr. J. W. Williams, M.O., and Dr. E. P. Williams, solicitor, all of whom became noted in their professional careers.

he went he left a deep impression of his worth and piety which time has made the more lasting.

As BISHOP. In 1916, following the death of the Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan, he was called by Rome to leave the Cloister and take over the Episcopal charge of his native Diocese.

His sixteen years as Bishop have been fraught with untold blessings for his flock. His boundless and unostentatious charity, his deep and abiding sympathy, and his simple homely ways, had made a tremendous appeal to all and had won for him the love and undying regards of the people.

MISSIONER. For many years he had in contemplation the leaving of the secular for

In the councils of the Hierarchy, he occupied a prominent place and his counsel on matters of public utility was very freely sought. His loss will be sorely felt by his fellow-members of the Episcopacy. In all that goes to make a great priest and a great Bishop, he was supreme. Further, he was a sound patriot, and practical Irishman, imbued with sound and clear ideas of what was good for his country, and so long as these National Movements coincided with the spiritual Ireland of his heart, he approved them, but should they be inclined to outstep the mark or deviate from the straight path, he would at once cry halt in the interests of those whose acknowledged guide, philosopher and friend he was. We will miss him sadly in these days of trial.

His NATIVE TOWN. His Native town he loved with a love that was unlimited. He loved the old town by the sea, and its people. His interest in them was unbounded, and he would do anything to make them happy. Its institutions were dear to his heart and no wonder. Here he romped the streets as a child and boy. The playmates of his youth are now getting old, but they are with us, and it was His Lordship's love and delight to meet his old friends and neighbours every time he came amongst us and discourse with them on the days that are no more. But Dr. Hackett's love for the town and its people was fully reciprocated. The people bore him a love and loyalty which has never been exceeded and from the first announcement of his illness the town had been in constant communication with the Palace, John's Hill, up to the moment of his death. He was indeed a distinguished and honoured son of the Old Boro—one whose like we shall not look on for many a long day—and we pray that the Almighty will give him in Heaven a throne commensurate with his work while on earth, where he ever laboured unceasingly for the greater honour and glory of God. Requiem Aeternam dona ei Domine.

FUNERAL ARRANGEMENTS. The Remains of His Lordship will be removed to the Cathedral from the Palace, John's Hill, on this (Friday) evening at 8 o'clock (new time). On Saturday morning at 11 a.m., there will be Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass for the repose of his soul. The interment will take place subsequently in the grounds adjoining St. John's Church.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

UNEMPLOYMENT GRANT.

The weekly meeting of the above was held on Friday last, Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presiding. The others present were—Messrs. Jas. Hackett, D. Foley, J. Moloney, J. McEvoy, Wm. O'Donnell, and T. McCarthy.

Congress Flag. Mr. Moloney suggested that the Council should procure a decent Congress flag. Chairman—Yes, as a matter of fact we should have three flags flown from the Hall the Papal, the Congress and the Council flags. With regard to the purchase of the flag, I don't know if we can purchase it out of Public Funds. The Board of Assistance decided to purchase one at their recent meeting subject to the sanction of the L.G.B.

Expenditure. The following paysheets were passed. Harbour A/c. £10 12s. 2d. General A/c. £18 8s. 8d. Tenders. The following tenders were received for the making of seat legs the Council to supply the iron: Thomas Morrissey, 6/- per pair; Peter White, 7/- per pair and Rd. Whelan, 10/6 per pair.

Application For Grant. The Chairman suggested that the Council should make application to the L.G.B., for a grant for the relief of unemployment. As the Council are aware, there is a certain amount of money set aside for which other Councils were applying. He referred to their recent discussion on the footpaths of the town, and suggested that the B.S. prepare a detailed scheme and estimate of the cost, and a resolution to be drawn up applying for portion of the grant.

Harbour Meeting. The Harbour Master reported the amount of Harbour dues collected and lodged since last meeting as £77 12s, import dues, export dues, nil. Increased Salary. The Harbour Master called the Council's attention to the increase of salary granted to him by the Council in June 1931, which was later refused by the L.G.B. He informed the Council that he was since being paid at the increased rate and as he had promised to indemnify the Council against a surcharge, he would like to have the matter raised again. The Clerk was asked to write again to the L.G.B. asking sanction for the increase.

Insurance Of Dredger. The following letter was read from the Board of Works:—We note that the Dungarvan Urban District Council are agreeable to the hire of our dredger "Sisyphus." Before the vessel can be sent, however, it will be necessary for you to forward to us the necessary insurance policies and arrangements should be made to have this done as early as possible. An agreement will be prepared and sent to you for execution.

IMPOSING PROCESSION IN DUNGARVAN.

The preparations for Sunday's procession of the Blessed Sacrament through the streets of Dungarvan were on a par with those of previous years and nothing could exceed the discriminating taste with which the decorations of the houses and the public thoroughfares was carried out. Flags and bunting were displayed in every street, and spanners with appropriate mottoes stood out at points of vantage. Laurels and evergreens laid along the side walks gave a very artistic setting to the thoroughfares. At various points of the route altars were erected, while all the windows were decorated with religious pictures in a manner worthy of so great an occasion. On the Square a neat altar was erected and another at the church gate.

Sharp to time, the procession moved off in the following order:—Cross-bearer; Children of Presentation Convent; Children of Mercy Convent; Christian Brothers' Boys; students of St. Augustine's Seminary; Choir of Mary; Brass and Reed Band; Choir of Mercy House Girls; Women's Confraternity, Dungarvan and Abbeyside; Boys Club; Men's Confraternity, Dungarvan and Abbeyside; Urban Council; Crossbearer; altar boys; Clergy and Canopy. The route was the Buttery, Fair Lane; O'Connell street, Main street and Church street and thence to the Church gates. The Sacred Host was borne by the Very Rev. T. O'Brien, P.P., assisted by Very Rev. J. Gleeson, P.P., Aglish, and Very Rev. M. C. Croily, Abbeyside. The other Clergy present were:—Rev. L. Egan, C.C., Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., Rev. P. McGraith, C.C., Very Rev. R. Walsh, C.C., Very Rev. P. Redmond, C.S.A., Rev. P. Donegan, O.S.A., Rev. J. Hartly, C.C., and Rev. Fr. Whelan of the Redemptorist Order, who was conducting a Retreat in the Parish.

Had it not been for the inclemency of the afternoon, the procession would have been one of the most imposing yet held, yet despite the rain the children in their white frocks, the children of Mary in their blue cloaks, and the women's and men's Confraternity members displayed a Spartan indifference to the elements and proved themselves worthy of the fine solid Catholic spirit which has ever characterised this grand old town. At night candles were lighted in all the windows and the scenes presented in every part of the town were most edifying, and in keeping with our noblest traditions.

Popes' Encyclical.

HIS CALL TO THE PEOPLE.

REGULATIONS FOR THE DIOCESE OF WATERFORD AND LISMORE.

We understand that the following letter has been addressed to the Priests of the Diocese in reference to the devotions which will take place on the Feast of the Sacred Heart and the Octave, which begins on Friday, 3rd June:—

Bishop's House, Waterford, 31st May, 1932.

Rev. and Dear Father.— I beg to inform you that permission is granted for Exposition and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, and for Benediction on each day throughout the Octave.

The devotions each day may consist of the Rosary, the Act of Reparation to the Sacred Heart (Pius XI's), the Litany of the Sacred Heart, and Benediction; all for the Pope's intentions as set forth in his recent Encyclical.

It will be very desirable to bring before the faithful Our Holy Father's desire that they should crowd to the Holy Table on the Feast of the Sacred Heart, and that they should gather in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament solemnly exposed; also that the spirit of prayer and reparation should be kept alive and vigorous during the entire Octave, and that the faithful should abstain during these days from all attendance at theatres and places of amusement, however lawful these be in themselves; and, finally, that those in comfortable circumstances should make voluntary sacrifices and devote the fruits thereof to the giving of alms to the poor.

Your obedient servant, DAVID POWER, (Bishop's Secretary).

DEATH OF MR. P. O'DALY, DUBLIN.

BRILLIANT ABBEYSIDE MAN PASSES AWAY.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Pádraig O'Daly, which occurred in a private nursing home, Dublin, on Sunday evening, after a few days illness.

Mr. Patrick O'Daly, was certainly one of the greatest Irish scholars of the age and one of the most brilliant men that Abbeyside had ever produced. From boyhood he was an authority on our native language and literature and wrote in poetry and prose with the ease of a master of his subject. In his young days he was employed in the office of the late Mr. J. F. Williams, solicitor, here. Even then he was the life and soul of the Gaelic revival in our midst. When the Gaelic League required the services of a general Secretary over 25 years ago he was appointed to that responsible position and his energy and ability were of untold value in furthering the cause of the language. At one period he toured the United States on behalf of the Gaelic League and no abler representative ever went over the waters.

Of fine physique and commanding appearance with force of expression and lucidity of meaning, he was a capable platform orator, who always won the applause and admiration of his hearers. A noble and true-hearted Gael, he was an ornament to any movement with which he was associated, and his connection with the Gaelic League, did much to ease its path on the road to success and greatness.

In 1915 he resigned the General Secretaryship of the Gaelic League and joined the Board of the Educational Company of Ireland Ltd., and the Talbot Press Ltd., and to his new duties he brought a clear mind and perfect understanding with great business acumen, which won the admiration of his fellow directors and staff. He was a general favourite with all who knew him, and admired his homely manly ways. He had a very tender heart, and was ever at the call of those who needed his assistance.

He is gone and his pleasant voice and sweet Gaelic notes will be heard no more. To his brother, sisters and relatives, deep sympathy is extended. On Monday the remains left Dublin by road, and reaching Abbeyside were removed to the Parish Church, where in the adjoining cemetery the interment took place in the presence of a large gathering.

The last prayers were read by Rev. M. Power, C.C. The chief mourners were:—John Daly, (brother); Hannah and Bridget Daly, (sisters); T. Walsh, N.T., Mrs. Walsh, J. Daly, M. Daly, etc., (relatives).

MOUNTAIN RANGERS APPOINTED DIPPING REGULATIONS.

At the meeting of the above Committee, Mr. N. Fitzgerald, Chairman, presided. The names of the others present will be found in the division lists below.
Messrs. C. P. Hynes, V.S., T. R. Mulcahy, V.S., and R. P. Byrne, V.S., also attended.
Tanks.
The Department would approving of the Dipping regulations made at the previous meeting.

Dipping Contractors.
In reply to the advertisements for Contractors for transport of Dipping tanks etc., at the forthcoming Dipping in Kilmacthomas; Carrick-on-Suir and Waterford areas, Mr. Thos. Cunningham, Ballinabanogue, Kilmacthomas, tendered at 25/- per day, and that being the only tender received it was accepted subject to the Contractor providing an assistant also at the various centres.
For a Contractor in Dungarvan and Youghal areas, the following applied: John Barry, Goulane, 18/- a day (per cent); Maurice Doherty, Barneybrook, 24/- per day; D. Foley, Rusheen, Ballymacart, 18/- a day; P. Foley, Moonamain, 18/- a day; Jas. Greaney, Knockmaun, 23/- a day.
Mr. Byrne said Barry was an excellent worker. He had no experience of the Foleys.
Barry's tender was accepted.
For Lismore area, the tender of Mr. Greehy, Deerpark, Lismore, was the only one received, the charge being 25/- a day.
Mr. Hynes said Greehy was an excellent man.
He was appointed.

Sheep Dip.
Two tenders were received for Sheep Dip for the season, viz.—Mr. Burke, Cork, tendered to supply Liquid Dip at 4/4 per gallon and Mr. J. J. Crotty, Square, Dungarvan, tendered to supply Liquid Nicobrand Dip made in Lismore, at 4/4 per gallon.
It was agreed to divide the contract and accept Nicobrand Dip for the areas of Dungarvan, Lismore and Youghal, and Burke's Dip for the areas of Kilmacthomas, Carrick-on-Suir and Waterford.

Erection of Tanks.
Mr. Mulcahy, V.S., said he had got a suitable site on the farm of L. Hallahan, Scrouthea, Clonmel. This man would give the site and being a handyman would build the tank and all at a total cost of £15. He thought it was fairly reasonable.
Chairman—It looks reasonable. You must get sanction for it.
Mr. Flynn—There will be no rent on this site afterwards?
Mr. Mulcahy—No.
As to the cost of the acquisition of the site legally, the Chairman said it would be very expensive and he suggested they put it up to the Department to get the Land Commission to transfer them the site.
Mr. Hynes said in the Knockmeal-down area four tanks would be required, one at Lyre, Lismore, on the lands of Mr. Houlihan, who would give a site for 27; two tanks at Lyralin, one at Ballysaggart, Chapel Bridge and the site could be acquired and the tank erected there for £15.
The committee accepted the offer of site at Ballysaggart at £15 subject to sanction and adjourned the others.

Mountain Rangers.
Before making the appointments of Rangers, the Clerk said it would be well if they had a specific list of the duties to be performed read out to the applicants. The committee held that would be very proper.
Mr. Hynes submitted a list of duties which were approved, and the 27 prospective Mountain Rangers came before the meeting, and the Clerk read for them the duties they would have to perform if appointed.
Carrick Area.
For the position of Mountain ranger of the Clonmel area, at £10 for the year 1932, there were three applicants, but one Mr. P. White, Killossanty, was withdrawn. John Whelan, tendered at less than the advertised rate.
Mr. Mulcahy—He lives in the Clonmel area.
Secretary—Ed. Whelan, Glenanore, (same address) tenders for the Clonmel area also at a lower rate than advertised. Denis Nugent, Lyre East, Ballymacarby, also tendered and was recommended by Mr. Mulcahy, V.S. Nugent was appointed.

Clonmel.
The following tendered for the job of Mountain ranger advertised at £10.
Ed. Whelan, Glenanore, (at £7 7/6); M. Tobin, Glendaloughin, James O'Donnell, Knocknaree; J. Brady, Glendaloughin, John Guiry.
Mr. Mulcahy, V.S., recommended Tobin, and said he lived in the centre of the district.
Tobin was appointed.

Ranger For Comeraghs.
For a Mountain ranger for the Comeraghs at £15 for the season, the following applied:—J. P. Morrissey, Kilbrien; D. Connolly, J. O. Patrick Hickey, do.; John Keane, Ballinlea; C. Kiely, Deelish; John Kiely, Kilbrien and Wm. Fraher, Scart.
Mr. P. Fitzgerald proposed J. Kiely.
Mr. Walsh said they should be guided by the V.S.
Mr. Stack—I don't agree with that at all.
Mr. Hynes said Morrissey gave excellent satisfaction before. He had no experience of the others.

Mr. Byrne said the order in which he would put the applicants was—Connolly, Morrissey, C. Kiely, Hickey, Fraher, and John Kiely. Any of them would probably be able to carry out the job, but you must have a man more or less independent.
Mr. Curran, proposed Wm. Fraher for the job, and said he was a victim of circumstances, and was a good man who deserved it.
It was decided to take a vote on all the candidates and the result was—For Connolly—N. Fitzgerald, and P. H. Power—2.
For Hickey—M. McGrath, M. F. Walsh, and J. Roche—3.
For John Kiely—M. O'Brien, J. F. Moloney, D. Coghlan, P. Fitzgerald—4.
For Fraher—M. Curran, J. Daly, P. Sheridan, T. Flynn, J. Greene, and W. Stack—8.
Connolly then fell out in the second round Fraher received 7 votes, John Kiely 5, and Hickey 3.
Hickey then fell out and the final vote was as follows—
For W. Fraher—M. Curran, M. McGrath, J. Daly, P. Sheridan, P. H. Power, T. Flynn, J. Greene and W. Stack—8.
For J. Kiely—M. O'Brien, J. F. Moloney, D. Coghlan, P. Fitzgerald, M. F. Walsh, J. Roche, and N. Fitzgerald—7.
Wm. Fraher was appointed.
Knockmeal-down Rangers.
For a Mountain ranger for the Eastern side of Knockmeal-down Mountains at £10, the following applied:—Michael Hale, Carrinagown, Roger O'Brien, Farnane, P. Scanlan, Coolagurthboy; E. Quirke, Crooked Bridge; and John O'Gorman, Monattarriv.
For a ranger for the Western side of the Knockmeal-downs at £10, the following applied:—T. McCarthy, Ed. Bennet, Ballysaggart, P. Coleman, and J. O'Gorman, Monattarriv.
John O'Gorman was unanimously appointed for the western area.
For the eastern area, Mr. Hynes said Quirke was a very good young fellow, who knew the mountain well and lived in the centre of the district.
Mr. Daly—I propose that he be appointed.
Mr. Walsh—What about Halle?
Mr. Hynes—I don't know much about him. We want a good man as the work was never done there before.
The voting was—
For Hale—M. O'Brien, M. McGrath, D. Coghlan, M. F. Walsh, J. Roche, N. Fitzgerald, J. Daly, J. Greene, W. Stack—9.
For Quirke—M. Curran, J. F. Moloney, P. Fitzgerald, P. Sheridan, P. R. Power, and T. Flynn—6.

THOROUGHbred SIRE FOR 1932. KILMACTHOMAS NEWS.

SYMPATHY.
Sincere sympathy is extended to Miss McCluskey, who is attached to the staff at Mr. E. Hill's stores, Kilmacthomas, on the death of her mother, which sad event happened recently in Dublin.

SEAFIELD SPORTS.
Clay-pigeon shooting competitions, cycling and athletic events, together with a fancy fair, constituted the monster programme enacted at Seafield, Bonmahon, on the evening of the 23rd ult. (holiday), under the auspices and in aid of the Seafield Cricket Club. Mr. Roy Buckley, Bonmahon, was the able secretary to the competent committee in charge. The fixture proved an unequalled success in every shape and form.

IS IT YOURS?
All efforts to trace the owner of a peahen found on his farmyard at Scranham, Kilmacthomas, a few days ago, by Mr. William Burke, have failed so far. Mr. Burke now thinks the bird must have "come across" with Miss Amelia Earheart in the role of mascot.

THE MAY FAIR.
Despite very inclement weather, the fair held here on Tuesday was well supplied, and buyers were well represented. Well-bred stores with condition were in request, but others were neglected. Half of the exhibits remained unsold. Springers, excepting in calf heifers, met a tardy trade. Store sheep were scarcely noticed. Fat sheep in good condition were in demand. Young pigs plied a dragging business. Prices in all departments were on a par with those paid at the Dungarvan fair last week and which were quoted in our previous number.

PASSENGERS FROM NEW YORK TO COBH on the liner President Harding, recently arrived, include Miss Margaret Kirwan, sister of Mr. Andrew Kirwan, Curran, Killossanty, and Miss Mary Kirwan, do. This marks Miss Kirwan's first home-trip since her departure seven years ago. She holds an important and lucrative position in one of the largest outfitting stores at Brooklyn. She is remaining in Ireland until after the Eucharistic Congress.

CROPS.
Potatoes, even those planted in February are not very advanced in their growth in mid-Waterford this season. The oat crop is very backward also, but is expected to improve with the advent of fine and warmer weather. Pastures are very poor, too, with the result that cattle have to be hand-fed in many farmsteads. Naturally one would think that this should effect the milk supply at the creameries throughout the area, but it appears that the daily average number of gallons taken at present is not very much below that received during the corresponding period last year. The mortality among young calves, which used to be a negligible factor in the region, assumed alarming proportions this season, and many farmers have sustained serious losses in consequence. It is stated that calves dropped during February and March are far less liable to be attacked by the disease than those calved later on.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

THE LATE CANON O'DONOGHUE, P.P.

Present Messrs. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Chairman, Wm. J. Broderick, T.D.; D. Dennehy, M. D. Broderick, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman; P. J. McMahon, P.C.; A. J. Fowkes, T. Harrington, J. Whelan, Capt. P. Dunne, D. J. Linehan, T. Beausang, Mrs. S. Hurley, P.C.

The minutes of the previous meeting having been signed.

Mr. W. J. Broderick said they had met under a sense of great loss—the father of his flock, the Very Rev. Canon O'Donoghue, having been called to his reward. It was questionable whether during his term of ten years amongst them, anyone had so endeared himself to the people. Wherever and whenever spiritual comfort or temporal aid was needed, there he was found. Those of them who had the privilege of being associated with him in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul knew how near and dear to his heart was the welfare of the poor of his flock.

During his illness the whole community were consumed with anxiety as to the result; that night they were all united in the conviction that they had lost their greatest and most sincere friend. No one in trouble ever consulted him without receiving comfort and consolation. He (the speaker) felt that next to his own parents he had lost his best friend and surest guide. It was a melancholy honour to him to move not as a mark of respect to his memory, they adjourn that meeting and that they tender their deep sympathy to the reverend Bishop of the diocese and the clergy and above all to the people whom he had lived for and loved and to whom his memory would remain a guiding star through life.

Mr. O'Gorman seconding, said that by the death of their beloved Canon, that town and the Diocese of Cloyne had suffered a very severe loss. During his ministrations in their midst he had woven himself into their affections as a true type of Irish Priest, possessed of saintly and high attributes, making his loss the more poignant as shown by the feelings displayed by his spiritual children. He was thorough in all things good and perhaps it was his thoroughness displayed during the recent great mission which cost him his life. Whatever he had to do he did with all his might. He (Mr. O'Gorman) had the privilege of serving under him on many Committees and thus had learned of his anxious endeavour to do what was best for those whom he represented. But, perhaps, his greatest trait was his charity. Many a poor home would miss his help—his purse was always open to the needy, generously but unostentatiously. To him might well apply the words of the poet:—

Life's race well run, Life's work well done, Life's victory won, Now cometh rest.

Mr. Whelan desired to join in that tribute of esteem to the memory of their revered pastor. By his death a great Churchman had passed from their midst. While in Youghal he had won his way into the hearts of all his parishioners, but more especially the poor, for whom he had always shown the keenest solicitude. They all mourned his loss, but no class would miss him more than the poor. On the various public bodies of which he was a member, he always acted in the best interests of the town which had the privilege of having him as their P.P.

Mr. Dennehy said that in the course of his career in various parts of Ireland in the discharge of his duties, he had been on intimate terms with many P.P.'s, but he felt that he could say of the late Canon O'Donoghue, in the words of the song that he was "the pride of them all." Possessed of many most admirable characteristics, the keen and practical interest he took in the welfare of the poor and of the children was beyond all praise. Shortly before his fatal illness, the Canon called on him and gave him detailed instructions regarding the conduct of certain examinations he was to superintend. Fearing that there might be some mistake, he dictated on his sick bed on last Saturday, a letter to him on the same subject.

Mr. Beausang and others having endorsed the remarks of the previous speakers.

Mr. Fowkes asked to be associated with the proposition. He had the privilege of knowing the late Canon O'Donoghue personally many years. A man of the people, he always upheld the dignity of his high calling. Broad-minded and tolerant of the opinions of others, he discountenanced any thing in the nature of religious strife. His courtesy and personal charm endeared him to all irrespective of creed or class. He (Mr. Fowkes) was confident that he was voicing the wishes of the Protestant community in tendering through the Chairman their deep sympathy in the loss of their parish priest and spiritual director.

The Vice-Chairman also desired to be associated with the proposition.

The Town Clerk said as one who had come into frequent contact with the late Canon O'Donoghue, on different Committees, such as the Old Age Pensions Committee, etc., he could bear testimony to his very fine sentiments particularly where the interests of the poor and of the town were concerned. He was one of nature's gentlemen and his loss would be deeply deplored.

The Chairman said it was with feelings of genuine sorrow and deep regret that he, in common with his fellow-townspersons had learned of the death of their revered Pastor, Very Rev. Canon O'Donoghue. His demise though not altogether unexpected had come as a great shock to the people of Youghal, who would long mourn his loss. During his time in Youghal, barely 9 years, he had endeared himself to all with whom he had come in contact. His charitable dispositions were well known to all, and the poor would miss him sorely. With their beloved Bishop they united in mourning his loss, and they tendered through him to all the priests of the Diocese of Cloyne their deepest sympathy.

Having made arrangements to march in a body at the funeral, to have the Town Bell tolled on Saturday and to call on all business concerns to close during the Solemn Requiem Mass and funeral, the meeting adjourned.

OLD ABBEYSIDE MAN PASSES AWAY. Last Friday evening, the death took place rather suddenly, of a well-known Abbeyside man in the person of Mr. David Murray. He had attended the mission at the Parish Church, and was on his way home, when he was seized with illness and passed away in a short time fortified by the rites of Holy Church. Deceased was father of Rev. Father Murray, of the Silesian Order. The interment took place in Abbeyside graveyard, on Sunday.—R.I.P.

IRISH REGISTERED TRADERS ASSOCIATION. The Committee of the Carrick-on-Suir branch of the above, met some of the traders of Dungarvan by appointment on last Monday evening, with the object of forming a branch in Dungarvan. The aims of the Association are of vital importance to all traders in town (small and large), and a general meeting of the Dungarvan traders will be held at the Town Hall, on Monday next, at 8.15 p.m. sharp, when the necessity for such an Association will be explained. It is of the utmost importance both to traders and employees, its principal object is to bring back the trade to the towns. All Shopkeepers are requested to attend in their own interest.

MUSIC SUCCESSES. The following results were obtained by pupils of Miss Eily Quain, Youghal, at the recent Pianoforte Exams., held by Trinity College of Music, London, at the Cork Centre. Four presented. Josephine Carter (Intermediate Grade), Honours. Mary O'Connell, (Junior Grade), Pass 75. Mary Crowley, (Preparatory Grade), Honours. Betty Foley, (First Steps), honours.

CHANGE OF OFFICE. The Income Tax Office, Dungarvan, is transferred to Cross Bridge Street, next door to the Rate Collectors Office.

ENROLL AT ONCE. According to the findings of the recent conference in Dublin between the Minister for Local Government and the Co. Surveyors of the Free State in connection with the million pounds grant for road works, it appears that no man can get a job unless he is registered as unemployed and that the Grant to each county will be in proportion to the number registered in that county as unemployed. At present we have very few registered, so that if a division of the grant were made at once Co. Waterford's share would be very little and the centres with big numbers registered would get all. To combat that and to ensure that this county will get its full share of the Grant, we request all wishing to get a job on the spending of the new Grant—labourers, farmers, carers, their sons and daughters and all others to register at once at the nearest Post Office, Garda Barracks, or Labour Exchange, and so be ready. Nobody can get a job who is not registered so we hope there will be a rush at once to the Barracks, Post Offices and Exchange, and so ensure Co. Waterford getting its full share of the money. Don't lose a moment, but register. If not registered you can't get a job in any capacity. Remember there are 32,000 registered in Dublin, and we have only a few dozen.

AN URBAN SCHEME. We are informed reliably that £500,000 is also set aside by the Government for works other than main and County roads with special reference to Urban Areas and their wants. Now we could do with some of that. The Shandon Road is in a desperate way and seems to be no one's business. Other matters of Urban importance could also be tackled with satisfaction and so relieve unemployment. So that the best possible case can be made for a good slice of the Grant every man and boy unemployed in the town should be registered at the Labour Exchange at once. Let all hand in their names without delay as unless registered you cannot get a job and we are sure, Mr. Butler, and the members of the Urban Council will satisfactorily deal with the Grant.

POSTPONED. Owing to the lamented death of Most Rev. Dr. Hackett, Bishop of the Diocese, the Munster Chess Championships to be played at Dungarvan, on Sunday next, (Cork) and Waterford Senior Hurling and Tipperary and Waterford Minor Football, are postponed to Sunday June 12th.

The Grand Dance announced for the Cinema on Sunday next, has been postponed to Sunday June 12th.

SAVE MONEY. By buying Irish poplin Ties—a grand selection at Walsh's, Outfitters, Square, Dungarvan.

N.A. & C.A. The meeting of the Waterford Co. Board arranged for Sunday next, at Dungarvan, will not take place, owing to the death of Most Rev. Dr. Hackett.

CO WATERFORD GARDEN SCHEME. On Thursday next, June 9th, Curraghmore will be open to the public from 2 p.m. to 7.30 p.m., in aid of the Jubilee Nurse's Fund. A view of this splendid house is a treat, as also the long Rhododendron Drive now in full beauty. There will be a Cinematograph exhibition of local interesting pictures, including Waterford Hunt Races, at Tramore; Waterford Regatta; Tramore Motor Races, etc. Also various amusements.

Funeral of Very Rev. Canon O'Donoghue P.P., Youghal.

An outstanding tribute of widespread sympathy was paid to the memory of the Very Rev. Canon O'Donoghue, P.P., Youghal, whose remains were laid to rest on Saturday last. The business activities of the town ceased for several hours and the entire of the inhabitants, together with large numbers from neighbouring and distant parishes, joined in paying their last respects to the memory of a pastor who by his many exemplary qualities had won for himself the love and esteem of his parishioners. The late Canon O'Donoghue had spent but a comparatively short space of his life in Youghal, and yet he had enshrined himself in the hearts of his people. As a pastor he was revered, and as a friend his ready sympathy and unfailing sound advice was such that his services in this respect were for ever being requested. The charitable activities of the townspeople were his special care, and as President of the St. Vincent de Paul Society he was unsparing in his efforts to alleviate the distress occasioned by unemployment. His death caused a feeling of profound sorrow to run through the length and breadth of the parish, and the remarkably representative funeral was eloquent testimony to the regard in which the deceased parish priest was held.

The late Canon O'Donoghue, was born at Mount Cross, near Macroom, sixty-nine years ago. He was educated at St. Colman's College, Fermoy, and was subsequently ordained at Maynooth. Having served for some years on the English Mission at Southsea, he returned to his native diocese about the year 1895 as curate at Clonrohid. Subsequently he was transferred to Claghroe, and from there to Cove, where he ministered for fifteen years. From Cove he was transferred to Fermoy as Administrator, and in 1923 he was appointed Parish Priest of Youghal.

THE OBSEQUES.

Following the Requiem Mass on Saturday the remains were borne through the principal streets of the town, accompanied by some thousands of mourners. Returning to the church the coffin was borne, at their own request, on the shoulders of six fishermen to the graveside, where his Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Roche, officiated.

At the Requiem Mass, his Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Browne, Bishop of Cloyne, presided, the assistants at the throne being the Rt. Rev. Dean O'Connor, P.P., Midleton, and the Very Rev. A WORTHY CITIZEN.

The numerous friends and admirers of Mr. A. J. McCormack, M.P.S.I., Main street, Kilmacthomas, are highly delighted at his return to the town, after an absence of about four months on a business mission to Kenmare, Co. Kerry. Since he first came amongst us, some five or six years ago, Mr. McCormack has conducted a most successful pharmaceutical establishment, and it is a pleasure to record that his popularity is ever growing. He is the veritable "life and soul" of our social activities, and the members of the local Dramatic Club gave him a special welcome on his "return to the fold."

Youghal Suicide.

THE INQUEST.

Coroner E. A. Rice, s.r., held an inquest at Youghal on Friday, with a jury, into the circumstances attending the death of Michael Kenneally, North Main street, who was found hanging on Thursday morning. James Kenneally, North Main street, Youghal, father of deceased, deposed his son was about 26 or 27 years of age. He saw him last in his usual health on Wednesday, 25th May about 6 p.m. in his own house. He next saw him in the presence of the Guards on the 26th May, hanging by the neck from the rafters of a shed used as a piggery in his own yard. There was a rope round his neck. On Monday last a Mrs. Kelly called to his workshop, and she accused deceased of being the father of her daughter's illegitimate child. Witness asked her had she that from her daughter and she said she hadn't. That happened also on the previous Saturday. He believed that worried him, as he protested he was innocent. On yesterday a letter was handed to him by Sergeant Lupton, addressed to him. It was in his son's handwriting (the letter was handed to the Coroner, who read it and said "the man must have been deranged").

Thomas Kenneally, son of the previous witness, deposed that he went to bed with deceased on the night of the 25th May, at 12 o'clock. He appeared normal and in his usual health at the time. He asked witness if he had heard any rumours about him and witness said he hadn't. When witness awoke in the morning, he found that the brother had left the bed. About 9 o'clock he went down the yard to look at the pigs and he saw him hanging in the sty. He told his father who went for the Guards. On Monday last deceased declared to witness that he was innocent of the accusation made against him by Mrs. Kelly. His brother appeared ashamed to face the public. He was soft-hearted.

Guard Kelly, deposed that at 10.20 a.m., on Thursday, he went to J. Kenneally's yard, and there saw the deceased hanging from a rafter. He was dead. He cut the body down and had it removed into the kitchen.

Dr. J. B. Beausang, deposed that he examined the body of deceased on the morning of the 26th May. He found a well-marked circular depression around the neck, which corresponded with the cord produced by Guard Kelly. The cause of death was shock due to injury to the spinal column, as result of hanging.

The Coroner found a verdict in accordance with the medical testimony, adding that the man was temporarily insane. Judging, he said, by the letter the young man must have been insane for he said that he was going to face his maker being afraid to face the public. In the circumstances he seemed not to know what he was doing. He (the Coroner) wished to express his sympathy with the relatives.

Sergt. O'Beirne, on behalf of the Civic Guards, associated himself with the Coroner's expression of sympathy. (The letter referred to found on the body read:—

Father, I am going to death an innocent man. I am going to meet my Maker unguilty of the crime. Father, remember I am speaking the whole truth from my heart. But before I would face the public with that undeserved name her mother gives me, I would willingly die and go to God for judgment. Father, when my body is discovered please bury me with my sister. If possible fulfil my last request, as I have not brought any shame or disgrace upon ye. Father, do not worry because I am innocent. Neither do not have any ill-feeling against Mrs. G. O'Connell, as she was often a kind friend to me. I will now wish ye all goodbye. Written by your innocent and respectful son, Michael.)
