Lismore District Court.

NO COURTS DURING CONGRESS WEEK.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.) At the opening of the Court, Mr. Farrell, D.J., said that he would hold no Courts during the period covering the holding of the Eucharistic Congress, in Dublin, next week. The Courts which should have been held in the ordinary during that week were Tallow, Cappoquin, Youghal and Castlemartyr, so he hoped the Solicitors and Civic Guards would note that no sitting of either of these Courts would be held during Congress week.

Action For Possession. Bridget Gambon, Moonarud, sought a decree for possession of a house held by John Loughlan at Whitechurch, Cappoquin.

Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., Dungarvan, appeared for complainant, the defendant not being professionally represented.

Mr. Williams said he was agent for Miss Gambon in this matter and wished to be sworn so that he could prove the case.

Having been sworn, he stated that defendant held the house at a rent of 1/- per week and owed £3 2s. 0d., arrears up to May 21st, this year. He had been served with notice to quit, but he refused to give up possession.

Defendant said the house was in a very bad state of repair and was "an unmerciful house to go into," (laughter). He had carried out repairs himself to the extent of £7, and he kept back the rent as payment for this outlay.

In cross-examination by Mr. Williams, he admitted that when he went into Mr. Williams' office in Dungarvan he had made no claim whatever for the cost of the repairs he was claiming for now. In the course of further evidence it transpired that defendant had now left the house and gone to live in Villierstown, but he had refused to give up the key of the Whitechurch house.

The Justice said he did not think there was anything in defendant's story as regards carrying out any repairs, and he would give a bare decree for possession, and asked Mr. Williams to withdraw the case for arrears of rent, as the man had now left the house.

Mr. Williams agreed to this course.

Claim For Trespass. Edmond Sheehan, Knockgarron, Cappagh, sued Mrs. M. A. O'Keefe, and her son, Patk. O'Keefe, same address, for £10 damages for the trespass of cattle, horses and sheep on complainant's land on various dates in November and December, 1931 and also in March and April, 1932.

Mr. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, appeared for plaintiff, and Mr. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, defended.

Evidence of the trespass was given by Wm. Sheehan, son of plaintiff, who stated that the cattle, horses and sheep of the two defendants had frequently broken into his father's land and done damage to green crops, cabbage, etc., to the extent of the amount claimed.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Gorman—Witness admitted that the defendant, Patk. O'Keefe, had offered to repair the boundary fence about a week ago if witness would also repair his side.

Patk. O'Keefe, in reply to Mr. O'Gorman, said it was the Sheehans who had been breaking down his fences from time to time for the purpose of bringing machines and loads of stones into their land through defendant's property.

Witness having been cross-examined at length by Mr. Farrell, Mr. O'Gorman, examined a labourer named John Moloney, who was in O'Keefe's employment last November. He stated that when O'Keefe's cattle strayed into Sheehan's land on that occasion he followed them in immediately and drove them out, and plaintiff's son then said that they could not have done much damage, as they were not long in the field.

Having given the case a very patient hearing, the Justice said it was very difficult for him to do justice in a case of this kind when there were no proper accounts kept by the plaintiff to show the actual amount of damage done on the various dates complained of. However, he was satisfied that plaintiff should get some compensation for the damage done, and he accordingly gave a decree for £1.

Breach Of Warranty. Philip Deady, cattle dealer, Clonmel, sued Maurice Riordan, farmer, Ballyearn, Tallow, for damages for breach of warranty in the sale of a cow.

Mr. Shannon, solr., Clonmel, for plaintiff; and Mr. W. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, defended.

Plaintiff's case was that he bought a cow from defendant for £15 at the January Fair in Lismore, and was told by defendant that she was due to calve on or before February 1st. The cow did not calve until March 13th and he now claimed £5 damages for the loss he suffered in the sale of new milk for a period of 6 weeks.

The defence was that there was no warranty given, as the defendant did not guarantee the cow would calve by February 1st, said "she might calve before that date and she might not."

James O'Keefe, was examined for the defence by Mr. Hodnett and stated that he was standing near the cattle pen in the Lismore Fair Field when he heard plaintiff asking defendant if the cow would calve before February 1st, and he replied that "she might and she might not."

The defendant gave similar evidence, and said that he told Mr. Deady that the bull had been running with the cows and he could not say whether the cow in question would calve before Feb. 1st or not.

Plaintiff was recalled by the Justice at this stage, and stated that if he had not been told by defendant that the cow would calve on or before Feb. 1st, he would not have bought her, as he was selling milk on an extensive scale and it was for the sake of the milk he wanted her, as milk was very scarce at that early period of the season. He had sold the calf later for £2 10s.

The Justice said he believed plaintiff's side of the story, but as he had sold the calf for £2 10s. he did not suffer very heavy loss, and he would give a decree for 30/- damages and allow £1 expenses.

Damage To A Hedge

James O'Donoghue, Glencairn, summoned John O'Neill, do., for damaging a hedge, the property of complainant.

Mr. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, for complainant; and Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr., Dungarvan, for defendant.

Complainant stated that on March 31, he found O'Neill cutting down whitehorn, blackthorn and hazel from his hedge and when he spoke to defendant, he said "If you don't get away, I'll cut your head off with the slasher," (laughter).

Cross-examined by Mr. Ryan—Witness denied that the hedge in question was a boundary fence between them or that O'Neill had any right to cut his side of it.

John O'Neill, defendant, in reply to Mr. Ryan, said the fence in question was the boundary fence between O'Donoghue's land and his, and he claimed that he had a right to trim his own side of it. There were several gaps in it and it was very badly overgrown, and he only cut the long bushes for the purpose of stopping the gaps and improving the hedge.

In the course of cross-examination by Mr. O'Gorman, he denied that there was a stream of water which marked his boundary there, as the hedge was the only boundary and he claimed title to his own side of it.

The Justice said as the question of title had been raised this was clearly a matter for another Court, and he would mark the case "D.V.P."

Action Over Building Stones

John Duggan, farmer, Tour, Cappoquin, sued a neighbouring farmer named John Cullinane, for damages for the removal of a quantity of building stones from the property of plaintiff.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., Dungarvan, for plaintiff; and Mr. Leo B. Skinner, solr., Mitchelstown, for defendant.

John Duggan, examined by Mr. Ryan, stated that he let 6 acres of his land to defendant last year for the sum of £42 10s. for a term of 5 years. There was a house on this portion of the land, which plaintiff reserved for himself, as it was not included in the letting of the land at all. On the 9th May last, the defendant removed a quantity of stones from this building and for two days he continued drawing them into his haggard for the purpose of building a wall there.

He estimated the value of the stones at £4, and when he spoke to the Cullinanes about the matter, they told him that they had bought the stones as well as the land for the £42 10s. They had also cut a beech tree on the land which was also plaintiff's property.

Plaintiff was cross-examined at length by Mr. Skinner, but denied that the £42 10s. which he had received was for payment for the stones as well as the land.

Mrs. Duggan, plaintiff's wife, stated that the sum of £42 10s. which they had received was for the land alone, and there was never a question about Cullinanes having any right to the stones. In support of this she stated that they paid her £1 about last Xmas for seven corner-stones which they wanted to use in a wall they were building.

In cross-examination by Mr. Skinner, witness said she was paid the £42 10s. in instalments. First we got £1, she said, then we got a pig, (laughter), and the balance was paid up in full by further instalments in cash.

David Cullinane, son of the defendant, stated that the agreement for the letting of the land was for £42 10s., the Duggans agreeing to give them the stones for nothing. His father then said that in order not to be under a compliment to them to give them 50/- for the stones, so that they had received £45 in all. Witness added that a legal agreement had been drawn up by the late Mr. Spears, solicitor, Dungarvan, but through a mistake, the sum of £42 10s. was mentioned instead of £45.

John O'Brien, examined by Mr. Skinner, said he had heard John Duggan asking Cullinane to leave him some flags out of the building to cover a gallet.

Mrs. Cullinane, wife of defendant, having given evidence of the payment of £2 10s. to Duggan for the stones, in addition to the £42 10s. paid for the land.

Sergt. J. Kavanagh, Lismore, said he was called to the place by Duggan and from what he saw he was under the impression that Cullinanes were drawing the stones without Duggan's permission.

Having heard further evidence the Justice said he would give a decree for the nominal sum of 1/-.

Area Exemption Order.

Supt. J. Quinlan, Lismore, applied for an Area Exemption Order for the town of Lismore on Sunday, 3rd July, when there would be a big Sports meeting held here. He asked that the hours of exemption be from 1 o'clock to 2.30; and from 6.30 to 8 o'clock in the evening.

The Justice granted the application.

Alleged Larceny Of Timber.

The Lismore Estates Co., charged Patk. Canning, with the larceny of a tree from one of their woods near Lismore.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., for complainant; and Mr. O'Gorman, solr., for defendant.

Mr. E. E. Hey, Estate Agent, Patk. Keyes, woodranger and Sergt. J. Kavanagh, Lismore, having given evidence for the prosecution, Mr. O'Gorman, solr., said that his client had purchased and paid for a half ton of timber from Patk. Keyes, woodranger, last March, when Keyes marked off nine small trees for him and told him that this was his lot. Canning then said that there was hardly a half ton of timber in that lot, and Keyes then promised to give him another tree in a few days time to make up the half ton. As Keyes did not turn up to do so, his client went to the wood and cut a small tree himself, which he considered was entitled to, and that was the whole offence.

Patk. Canning, having borne out Mr. O'Gorman's statement, was cross-examined by Mr. Carroll, after which the Justice said he was going to take an unusual course in this case, as the defendant had admitted all the facts.

He then dismissed the case under the Probation of Offenders' Act.

National Exhibition at Cork.

EDUCATIONAL DAY ON SATURDAY

SPECIAL TRAIN FROM WATERFORD

With the continuation of ideal summer weather large attendances are daily seen at the National Exhibition in Cork. The Halls of Industry, Commerce and Agriculture, showing the whole range of Ireland's products, are acclaimed the finest ever before seen in this country. Within the past few days the large number of American visitors have been especially loud in their praises of this great enterprise. From all over Ireland people have come to the Fair, and many who remember the old International Exhibition held in Cork exactly thirty years ago have exclaimed in wonderment at the magnificence of the Grounds and exhibit Halls.

EDUCATIONAL DAY.

Saturday next, June, 18th, has been fixed as a special Educational Day, and thousands of children will visit the Exhibition on that date. The Minister of Education will attend to distribute the prizes to successful competitors in the Essay Competition. Among the winners are representatives from schools all over Ireland and the prizes will be gold, silver and bronze medals of beautiful Irish workmanship in addition to cash prizes. On the same date the National Schools Sports will be held in the Sports Field in the Exhibition Grounds, prior to which a grand procession of all the school children of the city will march to the Exhibition Grounds. Specially reduced fares have also been arranged for the day.

Local Happenings—contd.

RETREAT IN ABBEYSIDE.

During the week, Rev. Fathers McHugh, and O'Brien, of the Redemptorist Order, have conducted a most successful Retreat in Abbeyside parish church. Night and morning the church is thronged and the eloquent sermons of the preachers are closely followed. The Retreat will close on Sunday.

CAN NOTHING BE DONE?

Last Sunday 10,000 visitors were in Dungarvan. The town received them with open arms and entertained them royally. There was only one drawback. The road from the Bridge to the Gaelic Field was a disgrace. The thousands marched over the potholes filled with dust. Their clothes were destroyed and their throats were parched with clouds of limestone. Something should be done to end this state of affairs on this important thoroughfare. We think the Urban Council should definitely take action and deal with it, and if they do, the ratepayers will be behind them to a man.

EXILES RETURN.

We notice amongst the latest arrivals to the Old Boro' from New York, Mrs. Margaret Cronican, and Miss Lizzie Murphy, sisters of Mr. Thomas Murphy, Parish Clerk. They have come to spend their holidays with him after an absence of several years, and to attend the Eucharistic Congress.

Mrs. Cronican, was well known here for her sweet contralto voice as singer in the Parish Church Choir, and at all the local concerts.

Coffey, Fr. Hickey. LOUD SPEAKER REQUIRED.

We hope that on Sunday week provision will be made to have a loud speaker erected on the Square, so that the citizens of Dungarvan can hear the broadcast of the Eucharistic proceedings in Dublin. Such an arrangement would be greatly appreciated, and we hope the Urban Council will see that such an installation is made for this unique occasion.

Waterford County Board of Public Assistance

SALARIES INCREASED.

Ald. T. D. Connolly, Chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the above held on Wednesday. The others present were—Messrs. P. Caulfield, T. Dunne, M. Walsh, J. O'Regan, J. Cosgrave, T. Treacy, T. Synnot, D. Coughlan, J. O'Halloran, J. Donovan, Wm. Stack, J. Butler, M. Curran.

The Chairman said he wished to refer to the death of the late Bishop, Most Rev. Dr. Hackett, and to propose a resolution of sympathy to the relatives and also to the clergy of the diocese. No Board in the city or county of Waterford can better express the appreciation shown by the late Bishop for the welfare of the sick poor. He then moved—"That we tender to the relatives of the late Bishop and the clergy of the diocese, our sincere sympathy on the death of Most Rev. Dr. Hackett."

Mr. Coughlan, seconding the resolution, said the late Bishop was always a great friend to the poor and was a loss to them, and a loss to the diocese. We will all miss him.

Messrs. O'Donovan and O'Halloran also joined in the resolution, and the Secretary having associated himself with it, the resolution was passed in silence.

Fish For The Institutions.

Mr. Carney, representing the Irish Fisheries Association, appeared before the meeting regarding the question of having fish included in the dietary scale of the institutions under the Board.

Mr. Cosgrave—Will the fish be given at wholesale or retail rates. Mr. Carney said he could promise that Institutions would get the fish at a very special price under wholesale price.

Mr. Caulfield—The Board is more or less in the hands of the Doctors. I would like the representative to understand that the Board are in sympathy with the project. They want fish caught by Irishmen in Irish waters to be used in their institutions.

Mr. Carney—I have had an interview with Dr. McCarthy and he approves of having fish on the dietary scale.

The Secretary in reply to Mr. O'Donnell said they never had fish on Friday's in any of the institutions except a small amount at the County Hospital.

The Board made an order requesting the M.O. to revise the dietary scale for the purpose of having fish included in same.

Financial Statement.

The Secretary reported a debit balance of £984 at the end of the month.

Temporary Nurses.

Nurse Foley, Secretary Waterford Branch of the Irish Nurses' Union, appeared before the meeting, asking for an increase from 2 guineas to 3 guineas for nurses temporary employed under the Board.

Mrs. Foley told the Board that it was impossible for her to get temporary nurses to act at a fee of 2 guineas. She could not get them last year.

The Board on the proposition of Mr. O'Donovan, passed 50/- per week subject to sanction.

Home Assistance. The Secretary reported the amount of Home Assistance—paid out during the month as £2,368 16s. 5d. The previous month the amount was £2,374 11s. 3d., and for the corresponding period last year £1,916 17s. 9d.

The amount show an increase of over £450 of the corresponding month last year.

New Dispensary.

Mr. Spreadborough, Engineer, reported on his inspection of the two sites offered to the Board by Mr. Patk. Ryan, at Old Chapel Lane, and Mrs. O'Meara, at Fair Lane. Both sites were suitable; no one site being more central. The cost of erecting the building would be from £350 to £450.

Mr. Caulfield—Getting that space of ground for £65, I think we should not take it all; we should jump at it.

Mr. Butler—I don't like to see the price of sites going up in Dungarvan. That is £2 per foot frontage.

Eucharistic Congress Flags.

A letter was read from the Minister for Local Government and Public Health, referring to the proposal of the Board to purchase three flags for the Institutions under the Board to be flown during Congress Week. The letter pointed out that the question of purchase was one which the Board should deal with in their own responsibility.

The Chairman proposed, and Mr. Caulfield seconded, that the flags be purchased. A vote on the matter resulted as follows:—For purchase—Messrs. Caulfield, Dunne, O'Donovan, Cosgrave, Treacy, Synnot, and the Chairman—7.

Against purchase—Messrs. Walsh, O'Regan, Stack, Coughlan, Curran, O'Donnell, O'Halloran, Butler—8.

The proposition was declared lost. The cost of the three flags was given as £4 10s.

Thanks.

Mrs. Redmond, wrote thanking the Board for resolution of sympathy passed to her on the death of Capt. W. A. Redmond, T.D.

Improving Co. Home Water Supply. The following tenders were received for the improvement of the Water Supply at the County Home—Messrs. G. Stokes and Sons—£324 4s. 6d.; Messrs. Irish Boring Co., Abbey Street, Dublin—£324 16s. 0d.; Messrs. Stokes' tender was accepted.

Increase Of Salary.

The application of Mr. John Broderick, Assistance Officer, Clashmore, adjourned from the last meeting was considered.

Mr. O'Halloran—This matter came before us on a former occasion, and we were unanimous in granting an increase of £20, which was turned down by the late Ministry.

He now proposed that we grant him the £20 turned down by the late Minister.

Mr. O'Donnell—Did he ever get an increase before.

Secretary—The position is this. Mr. Broderick was appointed in June, 1924 at a salary of £60. In September 1928 he got an increase of £10, and in November 1929, an increase of £20 granted by the Board was not sanctioned by the Department.

Mr. Walsh seconded Mr. O'Halloran's proposition.

Mr. O'Donnell—I will oppose giving any increase.

The resolution was then put and passed on a show of hands by 13 votes to 3.

Another Increase. The application for an increase of salary by Mr. James Walsh, charge hand at the Co. Home Laundry, adjourned from the previous meeting was next considered.

The Secretary in reply to a member said Mr. Walsh was appointed to the position in 1930 at £2 10s. a week.

Mr. O'Donovan—How many hours a day? Secretary—I think from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Mr. O'Donovan—The remuneration is very small.

Mr. Cosgrave—What are his qualifications? Secretary—There is no doubt but he is a very useful man and very obliging and satisfactory. The Matron speaks very highly of him.

Mr. O'Donovan—I propose we give 5/- a week increase.

Mr. Synnot seconded.

CORK AND WATERFORD. ENORMOUS CROWD AT DUNGARVAN. DISAPPOINTING DISPLAY.

In glorious June sunshine, and with an arena unequalled in picturesqueness, the meeting of Cork and Waterford in the first round of the Munster Hurling Championship was staged on Sunday at Dungarvan. This match had been awaited for a long time as it was felt that Waterford were in bad luck last year in being beaten by Cork in the two games played at Clonmel. Hence their meeting this year in the spacious Dungarvan grounds was hailed with delight as a real hard and scientific game was expected.

The weather on Sunday was the best experienced for many a day. It was the beginning of the heat wave and nobody within 40 miles of the scene of the contest would possibly stay away.

From an early hour on Sunday morning all roads leading to Dungarvan were thronged with bicycles, motors and buses, on their way here, and by noon, the town was thronged. Then came the heavily laden special trains from Cork and Waterford, so that by the time the first match was due to start, 10,000 people had come. In addition a few thousand more betook themselves to Clonea strand where aeroplane flights and displays were given under the auspices of Irish Air Lines Ltd.

As on previous big occasions, the people of Dungarvan catered for the visitors in the most satisfactory manner, and everybody was able to get his wants attended to in the minimum of time, and with the maximum of satisfaction. Considering the enormous rush and the short time available it was a great tribute to our hotel and restaurant proprietors, etc., that they were able to cope with the demands made on them and in so successful a way.

The Guards regulated the traffic with perfect ease and harmony and no untoward incident occurred to mar a perfect day.

All the officials of the Munster Council G.A.A., and the County Board were present and had arrangements tip top.

The first match was a Minor Football contest between Tipperary and Waterford. It was a nice, spectacular display with scientific football, but the scoring lines of both teams were defective and the shooting erratic. Waterford deservedly won.

Then all was set for the meeting of the All-Ireland Champions (Cork) and the home County represented by the well-known Erin's Own team Waterford, with some addition from the County. It was felt that this would be a game of thrills and exciting incidents, but alas, the assembled thousands were doomed to disappointment. Cork took possession of the ball at the start and found the net twice in as many minutes. Waterford tried hard, but did not seem able to recover and with the visitors adding further scores as time went along, the game became very one-sided and early in the second half the people began to leave the field.

Mr. Sean McCarthy, Secretary, Munster Council, made a most capable and impartial referee of this match.

DETAILS:

The teams were played on to the pitch by the Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band, under Mr. McHugh, bandmaster, amid much enthusiasm. The huge gathering stood to attention while the band played the national anthem.

The game had a tame opening. Immediately the Corkmen went down to send in a goal in the first half minute. "Ga" Ahern was the scorer. Then things got lively before the home goal, and in went another goal, also off Ahern's blade. It was a disappointing beginning for the thousands of Waterford's supporters. The nearest thing to a third Cork goal came next, and only an alert goalie saved the situation. But a seventy was conceded to Cork, and Jim Hurley sent wide. As yet the homsters had not gone over the neutral line. They did so presently, and launched a beautiful movement along the left wing. The ball was centered and went over the line. "Ga" Ahern had possession at the other end. He sent in to evoke a fine reply. Waterford got up the pitch, but Byrne, playing full forward was unequal to the task of netting. Swift hurling followed at midfield. A Waterford player, Brown, was injured, but resumed. They set to work on either side with great speed. Enthusiasm ran high all about the arena. Cork were going strongly when held up for infringing. They lost nothing by the penalty. In the next encounter Waterford got well placed. They met all the time with a stern defence that gave them no quarter. Cork returned to send wide, after which Waterford went the nearest yet to opening their scoring when a long ball sailed beside the point posts. The homsters were playing with excellent spirits. Greaney sent in and Walsh drove wide. The former player came into the picture again, but Cork sent back to register another over. Hard battling resulted from the following movement, and from this D. B. Murphy sent over the bar for Cork. "Ga" Ahern was again on the ball and doing effective duty. Both sides displayed marvellous watchfulness, and not a stroke was apparently misplaced. The inevitable came with a goal by Ahern, who took nearly from Clancy. There was a sharp scuffle at the home goal-mouth, and Jim Ware, in charge, effected a delightful save, but got rendered temporarily out of action. A hurt to Pat Brown caused a fairly long period of cessation. Brown retired and was replaced by N. Fardy. The resumption saw Hurley smashing through to Kennelly, and the latter registering a further point. Waterford set up a dashing attack, and O'Donnell broke the ice by raising the minor flag. An incident in the Cork territory called forth some comment from the sidelines. Play was now in the home team's quarter. Cork forced a seventy, and Hurley sent all the way for a point. Kennelly added another in a minute. Condon was prominent in a homsters' drive that brought no good results. At half time the positions were—

CORK—3 goals 4 points.

WATERFORD—1 point.

SECOND HALF.

The first important movement in the second half came with the Cork men forcing through for a point, per Ahern. Then Waterford missed the net narrowly, but kept up a fine attack that exerted the visitors' back line. The ball was returned to the Waterford end, and Kennelly with a smashing shot sent all the way into the net from thirty yards out. Jim Hurley sent back a Waterford advance, but the latter was carried to a successful conclusion with Condon doubling over the bar. At this stage Jim Hurley retired with an injured knee, and L. O'Brady took on in his stead. An aeroplane over the pitch caused some distraction from the game, which at this period had lost something of its previous interest. Waterford's 3rd point was recorded by Condon, and immediately afterwards the home custodian excelled himself in a brilliant save. Greaney had possession, but failed to make much of the advantage. Waterford retained their position as aggressors till forced to retire to their own territory, there to extend themselves in strenuous defensive tactics. In this they were successful, and Cork fell back only to come on again to register a sixth point for which Ring was responsible. Condon notched a point for Waterford, by way of a speedy reply. Spectators were here leaving the field. Cork pressed matters as vigorously as ever. The movement ended in an over. Waterford then landed a surprise goal which Byrne banged in out of a scrum mangle. The Corkmen lost no time whatever in replying with a goal, also deftly placed by Clancy. Only minutes remained, and Waterford had little hope of pulling down their opponents' long lead. Walsh shone with a decisive point. "Ga" Ahern did some spectacular work, hopping the leather off his blade for fifty yards or more, and then centering smartly. The defence was equal to the demands made on it. The game concluded with some open exchanges. The full score was—

CORK—5 goals 6 points.

WATERFORD—1 goal 5 points.

The referee was Mr. Sean McCarthy, Secretary, Munster Council.

The teams were—

CORK—E. O'Connell (capt); J. O'Donovan, M. Madden, G. Garrett, T. Barry, D. B. Murphy, P. Collins, J. Loftus, J. Hurley, T. McCarthy, M. O'Connor, J. Ring, W. Clancy, W. Ahern, J. Kennelly, J. Quirk.

WATERFORD—G. Ware (capt); J. Ware, (goal); J. Ware, D. Wyse, M. Wye, F. MacCormack, P. Brown, M. Condon, J. Carroll, J. Walsh, L. Ryan, J. Fanning, T. Greaney, L. Byrne, W. O'Donnell.

MINOR MATCH.

As an opening to the programme a minor football match between Waterford and Tipperary representatives was staged. The first half proved much to the favour of the visitors, and by the short whistle, while their opponents remained with a scoreless record Tipperary had registered three points. But the turn-over saw the Waterford youngsters full of spirited determination. Again and again they assailed the Tipperary fortress. Five minutes from the interval they had sent in their first score—a point. Further pressure brought them a similar second score, and with the margin of division thus reduced to slender proportions no little enthusiasm was aroused. Tipperary had a period of attaching to be beaten off and conceded a "fifty," but this went wide. The homsters continued to show up well, but the Tipperary lads gave nothing away, and were, in turn, forcing the issue. There was a brilliant bit of saving before the home goal, and had the visitors' forward line been better perfected in the matter of direction, they would undoubtedly have sent their side further ahead. Following a great Waterford dash, the white flag went up for the equaliser, and on top of this came another point, cheered to the echo by the homsters' supporters. Play was confined to the Tipperary end, and it was due to a custodian, absolutely trustworthy, that the visitors' sticks did not collapse more often. Result—

WATERFORD—4 points.

TIPPERARY—3 points.

Mr. Wm. Ahern, Cork Co. Board, was the referee.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present—Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Chairman; Mrs. S. Hurley, P.C.; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs D. Dennehy, T. Beausang, D. J. Linehan, A. J. Fowkes, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; J. Whelan, E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman; T. Murphy, J. Kennedy, E. Clancy M. D. Broderick.

Acknowledgment. The following letter was read and ordered to be inserted in the minutes: St. Mary's, 31/5/32.

Dear Mr. Walsh,—I am in receipt of your Council's resolution of sympathy on the death of our beloved Pastor. The priests of the parish are deeply grateful for their mark of respect to the memory of one whom they so highly esteemed and ask me to convey to the members of the Council their appreciation of the generous and kind action. I am thankful also for your own personal sympathy.—Yours very sincerely, L. KENEFICK, C.C.

More Buildings. Mr. P. Kennelly, Contractor, applied for permission to tap the water main at McCurtainstown, in connection with a number of houses he proposed building at Seafield. Mr. Beausang said that anybody proposing to build houses in the locality should get all facilities possible from the Council. The application was granted unanimously.

Late James Duggan. Correspondence was read from the Carnegie Trust Fund, regarding the grant made to the widow and child of the late James Duggan, who lost his life at New Ross, last February, when going to the rescue of a shipmate. The Council unanimously expressed their appreciation of the generous action of the Trust. The Clerk read a letter from the Royal Humane Society, notifying the granting of a medal to the family of young Duggan.

Strand Facilities. Mr. O'Gorman called attention to the fact that nothing had yet been done to repair the ladies bathing shelter. It was still in the same condition as when damaged by the storms of the winter. He understood that it was the business of the Co. Council to see to it. The Clerk said he had written to the Co. Council long since and had received a formal acknowledgment. Mr. Broderick suggested that the Clerk should write again to the Co. Council asking for permission to do the work and debit them with the cost.

The Clerk said the platform of the ladies bathing shelter was a buttress to the main road and it was, therefore, the business of the Co. Council to make the damage good. Strong comments were made on the manner in which the strand was being neglected by some of the staff, in view of the season now opening.

After a protracted discussion, Mr. Broderick's suggestion was adopted.

New Houses Objected To. A letter was read from Messrs. J. Hodnett and Son, solrs., stating they understood that the Council would have before them plans for the erection of three new houses at Knockaverry, by Mr. Michael Walsh, Contractor. A client of theirs was interested in the matter, and they, therefore, asked the Council to adjourn Mr. Walsh's application to next meeting.

A report was read from Mr. H. T. Spreadborough, C.C., Town Surveyor, stating that some of the neighbouring residents objected to the project on several grounds.

The Clerk said the Council would have to consider whether there would be congestion. According to the Act, only 12 houses were allowed to the acre though 20 might be the limit in special circumstances.

Mr. Beausang—I understand he is building three houses in 1/2 of an acre. Mr. Dennehy thought there should be very special circumstances to justify them in interfering with the development of the locality, which would be fair to become a New Youghal.

Mr. Lynch said he would like to know what was behind the Town Surveyor's objection to the proposed new building. The Clerk said the Council should be careful that they didn't get embroiled in a law suit.

Mr. Broderick said the question was were there more than 12 houses in the acre. Mr. McMahon suggested that they approve of the plans subject to the L.G.'s sanction.

The Clerk—Provided you have the Town Surveyor's report. Mr. McMahon thought there was something in the nature of pin-pricking in the matter. They invited people to come forward and build houses. Here they had a good man progressive enough to meet the demand and obstacles were put in his way. He for one wouldn't approve of such a line of policy.

Mr. Whelan asked where was the congestion. Mr. Walsh had recently built three bungalows in the narrowest part of the field and there was no objection. He couldn't see where the objection came in in the present case. Mr. Walsh appeared before the Board and in answer to the Chair, gave detailed particulars of the measurements, position of sites, etc. Between houses and bungalows there were 21 structures in the Church Field, which contained 2 acres.

Mr. Broderick—You are well within the limit then. The Chairman—I don't see any congestion.

Mr. McMahon proposed that Mr. Walsh's application for permission to erect the three houses be granted. Mr. Beausang seconded. Mr. Walsh had proved himself to be a most progressive man, and he should get every encouragement.

Mrs. Hurley—I understand that Mr. Walsh has 18 men idle owing to this question being raised. The Clerk—Mr. Walsh will appreciate the fact that I had no alternative. The proposition was passed unanimously.

Prevention Of Coast Erosion. The Clerk read correspondence on the efficacy of the fig plant in the prevention of coast erosion. It had been used successfully at Bournemouth and elsewhere.

It was decided to make further inquiries as to where a supply could be procured with the object of trying it at Claycastle and beyond.

Eucharistic Congress. The question of decorating public buildings in connection with the Eucharistic Congress was raised and Mr. Clancy suggested that the historic old building, the Clockgate, should be decorated.

The Chairman said both the Town Hall and the Clock Gate would be suitably decorated for the occasion. Mr. Clancy said the Council should be officially represented at the Congress.

Maternity and Child Welfare. A letter was read from Dr. Condy, Co. M.O.H., in connection with the Maternity and Child Welfare Scheme. He suggested that the Council should cease giving milk and give any rate they struck for the purpose to the local Nursing Association. That being an approved Scheme they would get a refund of half the expenditure. It would be more economic and possibly more effective.

On the proposition of Mr. Broderick, seconded by Mrs. Hurley, Dr. Condy's suggestion was unanimously adopted.

Children Marooned. Mrs. Hurley called attention to the fact that a number of children, and some of them of tender years, were left behind in Youghal on last Sunday night. Only that Guards Downes and Stack came to their assistance and paid their fare by bus to Cork they would have been left on the streets all night. She said the Railway Co. ought to do something to prevent a recurrence. A similar thing happened last year. The Council should take action in the matter.

The Chairman said it seemed strange that children of such tender years should be left travel to Youghal with nobody in charge. Mr. McMahon—What have we to do with it? Mr. Murphy suggested that they write asking the advice of the Stationmaster.

Mr. Dennehy said the parents were the responsible parties and should be made amenable. Mr. O'Gorman said it was hard to believe that such young children would be allowed come such distance with no responsible person to look after them. Why should the Council be called on to interfere?

The Town Clerk—Surely it is not suggested that the Urban Council should become a lot of children's maids. Mr. Whelan thought the Council had no control in the matter.

Mr. Broderick said the matter was out of their jurisdiction. The Guards should have got at the parents of the little children. They should have sent some elderly person with the children.

Unemployment Register. Mr. Lynch proposed, that they call on every unemployed man in the place to register at the local office of the Employment Exchange for work as the allocation of further grants towards the relief of unemployment would be based on the exact number of men registered at the local office.

The Clerk read a circular letter from Mr. Lynch's proposition. After a short discussion, the proposition was passed unanimously.

New Industries. Mr. Lynch proposed, that they call the attention of the Minister for Industry and Commerce to the crying need for an industry in Youghal, which was the seat of a large brick industry giving employment to 100 men now closed down and that with a view to getting one of the new industries started, and we request our Clerk to call a meeting of the business men of the town to discuss the position.

Mr. Beausang seconded. Mr. Lynch said if they didn't make a move soon, they would be left out in the cold. Mr. Whelan said that was a matter of great importance and other towns had already taken action.

Mr. O'Gorman didn't believe in the efficacy of public meetings. He thought the Council could handle the matter best. Mr. Broderick suggested that they call a special meeting of the Council to consider the question and, in addition, that they invite the attendance of local business men interested.

After some discussion, Mr. Broderick's suggestion was unanimously adopted, with the addition that the local T.D.s. be also asked to attend.

Bathing Facilities. The Council were occupied for some time in dealing with the bathing facilities on the Strand. Mr. Dennehy said a visitor had complained of the absence of life-buoys of the Strand.

The Clerk said that they put four complete life-buoys with ropes on the strand last year, and they were stolen, buoys and ropes. They were now having six lifebuoys being prepared. Mr. Hurley said she never saw them last year.

The Clerk—Because they were stolen. Mr. O'Gorman said let the Council do their duty by placing the lifebuoys out there. If irresponsible blackguards took away the buoys, the Council couldn't be held liable. There should be sufficient civic spirit amongst the people to prevent such outrages or detect the culprits.

Housing Scheme. Replying to the Council's letter on the question of the proposed Housing Scheme. The L.G. wrote stating that the question of further subsidies to local authorities for the erection of houses under the Housing of the Working Classes, was at present under consideration, and an early announcement in the matter might be expected.

The Clerk said he believed they could, with the increased subsidies, build houses to let at a moderate rent. Time Up. Several protracted and lively discussions took place on routine of the unimportant matters until Mr. McMahon called attention to the fact that it was after 9.30, which was the time limit for the business.

Mr. Dennehy—Unless we suspend the Standing Orders (laughter). The meeting then broke up.

MICHAEL O'MUIRGHEASA ON RINN.

By S.O.F.) The brilliance of the early June sun of 1932 was dimmed for many of us by the news of the death of two notable Deise Gaels—Padraig O'Dalaigh of Dun na Manistir and Michael O'Muirgheasa of Ring. Their deaths have taken from us two types of Gael, whose loss is irreparable—the scholar and the seanchuidhe. Time was when both were plentiful in the county that gave birth to Padraig Denn, John Fleming, Father Meanx, Dr. Sheehan, Dr. Henneby, Dr. O'Hickey, Dan Fraher, Ml. Beary, Wm. Williams, Robert Weldon, Abbot Maurus O'Phelan, and many others.

The Irish scholars and seanchuidhes left in the Deise to-day, could be counted on the fingers of one hand and indeed it might be said that Michil Ring College was the last of the Deise seanchuidhe. He was for 20 years as much a part of Ring College as its walls and its grounds. Should it happen that one failed to see him or hear his voice on entering the grounds from the avenue one had to ask before going further—Ca bhfuil Michil? A gathering round the kitchen fire at night or a hosting of students for class or a ceilidhe was inconceivable without Michil's presence. He embodied the central fact of the existence of the College—the living speech pure and undefiled, and the tradition of Irish conversation and an Irish outlook that can never be understood or appreciated by those who have never been in close touch with men like Michil. His talents as a maker and teller of Irish stories were marvellous. He was not a mere relator of tales he had heard from others and memorised and he had powers of imagination, characterisation, humour, pathos, comedy and tragedy one rarely finds outside the great dramatists and novelists. His solicitude and affection for the students at Ring struggling to acquire a good speaking knowledge of Irish were most touching. He had a pride in his pedagogic skill and a pleasure in the industry and progress of his students albeit a little tinged with plamas that was really the manifestation for his courtesy and sympathy. As long as folk continue to come to Ring in quest of Irish there will be no more honoured name there than that of Michil Muirgheasa. Thanks to the industry of An Fear Mor, Michil will be with us in a sense always in "Sealta Michil." In Rinn where his body lies the clay covers all that is mortal of a man whom to have known and to have been an intimate friend of was for an Irishman a priceless privilege. His soul was we may feel sure given a warm welcome at heavens gates by all the Saints of the Deise from Declan to the last of the simple and pious souls who were vouchsafed the Beatific Vision. May his prayers help us to preserve in Rinn Teanga na nGaedheal agus a gabhann lei.

2,000 PASSENGERS FROM U.S.A. The liners Scythia and Baltic have arrived at Galway, with about 2,000 passengers from America. The Scythia brought 500 passengers to Galway. The majority have arrived for the Congress, but a number of them have decided to remain in Ireland owing to the economic conditions in America, which they describe as "desperately bad." The vessel left later for Cobh, to land 475 passengers. The Scythia landed the American visitors at Cobh, and the liner St. Louis arrived with 257 visitors.

On the same day the Adriatic is expected to disembark nearly 1,000 passengers between Cobh and Galway, from New York, Boston, etc. On June 21st, the Lapland will call at Cobh en route for Dublin.

The Laconia is expected with a large number also from Boston and New York. During the coming week end a North German Lloyd steamer will land Eucharistic Congress party from Havana, Galveston, and Gijon. On Wednesday the ss. Harding brought a party of 358 to Cobh. The ss. New York flagship of Hamburg-America fled arrived on Wednesday. This will be the first visit of this liner to Ireland.

Cardinal Hayes of New York, and Cardinal Dougherty, of Philadelphia, sailed on board the ss. De Grasse and ss. Lapland, respectively.

BUILDING TRADE.

WORKERS DEMANDS AT WATERFORD.

To concentrate attention on the unprecedented unemployment at present prevailing in the building trade in Waterford, a public meeting of the local branch of the Federation of Building Trade Operatives was held. The Secretary, Mr. J. O'Connor, gave statistics to show that from fifty to sixty per cent. of building trade workers were idle.

A resolution was passed calling on the local authorities to take immediate advantage of the Government Housing Act, and a deputation was appointed to wait on the Corporation officials to protest against the employment of handy men on work being done in connection with Corporation leases.

Corpus Christi Procession at Youghal.

The annual Corpus Christi Procession at Youghal, was fixed in accordance with the usual manner to be held on Sunday, May 29th, but this arrangement was nullified by the sad death a few days previously of the revered Parish Priest of the place, the Very Rev. J. Canon O'Donoghue. It was very generally anticipated that the sacred function would have been abandoned altogether this year, owing to this sad event, but it subsequently transpired that the good Canon, when asked about it in what proved in a couple of days afterwards to be his death-bed, said that the Procession should be held no matter what happened. This holy desire of his was duly respected and honoured in a most striking manner on Sunday. The success achieved exceeding that of many previous years in point of order, numbers taking part, decorating, and last, but not least, weather. Thanks to the fine weather prevailing of late, the Catholic inhabitants were enabled to carry on uninterruptedly their outside preparations for the great event. By Sunday morning, every residence and business premises along the route and in the surrounding vicinity were both renovated and decorated exteriorly. All the public buildings—Convents and Schools, Town Hall, Clock Gate, Guards Station, etc., were tastefully arrayed. Elaborate temporary altars for Benediction were erected at the Ferry Slip, and on the Green Park Band Stand. A large fleet of local and neighbouring fishing boats all neatly bedecked with streamers, etc., were moored in the Market Dock, to receive the blessing specially arranged for them. An eloquent indication of the great week close at hand was the display of numerous Eucharistic Congress flags.

A large increase was evident in the numbers taking part. The boys of the Christian Schools were under the charge of Rev. Brother O'Connell, Superior, and his community; the children of the Convent and Loretto Schools formed a picturesque scene, all arrayed in white. The recent successful Mission in the Parish was brought to mind by the great increase in the membership of both the Women's and Men's Confraternities of the Holy Family. The Catholic Young Men's Society, headed by Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., U.D.C., Vice-President; and D. J. Linehan, U.D.C., Hon. Sec., also figured prominently in the ranks, as did the Children of Mary, the Gurtroe contingent and other bodies.

A massed Parish and Confraternities' Choir under Miss Hichens, contributed a number of appropriate hymns, including "Jesus, My Lord," "Holy God we praise Thy Name," "Soul of my Saviour," "Nearer my God to Thee," "Sweet Heart of Jesus," "To Jesus Heart all Burning," "Sweet Sacrament Divine," "All for Thee O Heart of Jesus," "Hail Glorious St. Patrick," (at the Ferry Slip); "Faith of our Fathers," (at the Green Park); and "God Bless Our Pope," (at the Church). Three bands—the League of the Cross Brass Band (under Mr. Bush); the North Abbey Pipe and Drum (under Mr. R. Cronin); and the Pipers Band—took part, playing sacred airs and hymns during the march, the processionists joining in.

At 2 o'clock, the Clergy assembled in the Sanctuary, the Choir singing the "O Salutaris," the Rev. W. Carey, C.C., carried the Sacred Host under a magnificent canopy. He was assisted by Rev. T. Leonard, O.S.B., and Rev. T. Nolan, Rev. L. Kenefick, C.C., was in charge of the proceedings, assisted by Rev. E. O'Riordan, C.C., and Rev. J. Aherne, C.C. Preceded by the Flower Children, the Sacred Ministers left the Church, the choir singing the "Pange Lingua," and Messrs. J. R. Smyth, P.C., C.U.D.C.; P. J. McMahon, P.C., U.D.C.; M. H. Walsh, P.C.C., Town Clerk, and J. Murray, forming a Guard of Honour. The canopy was borne in relays by the following members of the Society of St. Vincent de Paul:—Messrs. W. J. Broderick, T.D.; J. Whelan, U.D.C.; G. Crowley, D. Dennehy, U.D.C.; M. Foley, E. Keniry, J. Murray, P. J. Broderick, J. Power, J. Egan.

Proceeding by the prescribed route, a halt was made at the Ferry Slip, where Benediction was given for the fishermen. Reforming, the procession wended its way past the Town Hall to the Green Park, where Benediction was again given. A large number of visitors from the outlying districts took part in this impressive stage of the solemn function. Again reforming, the procession returned by a different route to the Parish Church, where final Benediction was given. The order, decorum, and reverence displayed everywhere by partakers and spectators, was most edifying, and much credit is due to the Civic Guards, under Sergeants O'Beirne and Lupton, for their tactful management of the traffic at congested points. Some idea of the route covered may be gained from the fact that it was 4.30 when the procession got back to the Parish Church, everything passing off without the slightest hitch. Even the weather, dark and threatening in the morning, improved as the hours went on and ended in a perfect summer day. The route of the Procession was from the Church by Campaign Place, William Street, across North Main Street to Browne Street, Catherine Street, the Quay, Market Square (where all lined up for Benediction at the Ferry Slip), Hanover Street, the Mall, Strand Street and South Abbey, to the Green Park (where Benediction was given in the Bandstand). Reforming, the Procession returned via Harbour.

Referring to the work at the Quay wall, Mr. Moloney said that week after week promises were made that the work was finished, but it was still going on.
B.S.—That is so, but we discovered a very bad patch and it had to be done immediately, otherwise much damage would have resulted.
Mr. Hackett—I saw the place and I agree with the B.S.
B.S.—The work is practically done now.

Chairman—Tell us something definite to-night.
Mr. Moloney—I hold there is not enough supervision.

Mr. Clancy—I heard from one of the workmen about the part of the wall not being done. We don't object to carrying out the work, but object to the way things are being done.
It was decided that a deputation inspect the work, and that the B.S. report to next meeting.

Water.
Several complaints of shortage of water were referred to the Water Inspector Thames.

Letters thanking the Council for resolutions of sympathy were read from the relatives of the late Mr. Patrick Daly, and from Mrs. Ellen Murray.

Site For School.
In connection with the sale of the meat shambles to the Vocational Educational Committee, for the purpose of building a school, the Clerk read correspondence from the Council's Solicitor, who had been in touch with the authorities in Dublin.

The Council, it appears from the view taken by the Department have not an absolute clear title. The Solicitor, however, does not agree with this view.
A deputation consisting of the Chairman, Mr. Clancy and Mr. Moloney were appointed to consult the Solicitor in connection with this matter.

TRAGIC SCENE AT TRAMORE
BROTHER'S ATTEMPT AT RESCUE

Hundreds of people walking on Tramore strand, on Sunday evening, witnessed a thrilling attempted rescue of a little boy named Wim. Gray, of Barrack street, Waterford, who was drowned while trying to recover a rubber ball which he and other companions had been playing.
Gray, who was in company of his eleven years old brother, Percy, and five other youths had been alternately bathing and kicking ball on the strand during the afternoon, when at about 7 o'clock one boy kicked the ball into the sea. Gray decided against his brother's advice, to try to recover it. Advancing beyond his depth, he was dragged into deep water by the outgoing tide. An outcry was raised by his brother and other companions and Gray's brother dashed into the sea in a desperate attempt to find the unfortunate youth who had disappeared. The plucky little lad was soon in difficulties himself, and it was only the prompt action of a visitor from Kilkenny, who fought his way out to him fully clothed, that prevented a double tragedy.

Although almost completely exhausted, brave little Percy Gray had to be prevented from entering the sea again, while other bathers searched for the body unsuccessfully.
Civic Guards and helpers dragged the vicinity in boats during the night without reward, and it is believed the body is caught between rocks or lodged in a hole.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS.

IMPROVEMENTS.

According to reports, much money has been expended in many towns to improve their appearance, so that the large number of visitors expected for the Eucharistic Congress would be favourably impressed by the bright appearance of our towns. It is good to be able to honestly record that the residents of the Mahon side, did not look to any for a lead in this respect. There are, apart from the improvements already enacted, a number of others needed, which would make our picturesquely-positioned town a highly presentable pile; for instance the concreting of the footpaths along the Main street and from the Temperance Hall corner to the Convent, and the trunking, steamrolling and tarring of the roads leading to the town off the main (Waterford-Cork) road. This is the time to draw the attention of the powers that be to those much-needed and long-overdue works.

HOLIDAYING.

Mr. James Gough, son of Mr. John Gough, farmer, Killooney, Kilmacmas, has just returned to his natal spot, after an absence of seven years in New York. He is looking in the pink and feeling fit. By the way he is cousin of the Dunhill hurler, Paddy Gough.

Miss Katie Boland, sister of Mr. Patrick Boland, Fahá, Kilmacomas, has arrived at her old home on a visit from the U.S.A., where she has been faring finely for a considerable number of years. That the neighbours were delighted to renew happy acquaintance with this most estimable young lady is a fact obvious as it is pleasing to chronicle.

Miss Mary Morooney, formerly employed by Mrs. D. O'Reilly, Main St., Kilmacomas, is another charming person of the many such from "over there" at present in our midst. We hope our Yankee visitors will find their holiday an enjoyable one.

OBITUARY.

Sincere and widespread regret was felt on all sides at the announcement of the death of Mr. Laurence Casey, Currawn, Killossanty, which took place last week at Dungarvan Hospital, after a protracted illness and at a comparatively early age. The deceased, who belonged to a well-known Killossanty stock, was for several years a valued member of the old Kilmacomas Board of Guardians and Rural District Council. The funeral to St. Bridget's Parish Church, Killossanty, was of extremely large dimensions. After the late Mass on Sunday, the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery. Very Rev. W. J. Keogh, P.P., officiated at the grave. Masses for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Casey were offered up during the week.—R.I.P.

ORDINATION.

Among the priests ordained at the Cathedral, Waterford, on last Sunday morning was Rev. Michael Flynn, for the Diocese of Salford (England). Second son of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Flynn, Killerguile, Kilmacomas, Father Flynn was educated at Mount Melleray Seminary, and St. John's College, Waterford. During his holidays in Killerguile, he took an active part in hurling with the boys of his native Clonea-Power parish. Father Flynn was the recipient of many presents and celebrated his first Mass at Clonea parish church, on Monday morning. He will take his departure for Salford within the next few weeks.

A TIMELY WARNING.

The Department of Agriculture has issued a timely warning to potato growers as to the need for early and repeated spraying. The necessity for early spraying cannot be too strongly stressed. The potato crop must be regarded as being the most important raised on Irish soil. It constituted our staple food in former times and must continue to be so regarded now and in the future. Anything like a general failure of the crop would prove a national calamity. Hence, it is that we issue a strong appeal to all potato growers, whether on a large or a small scale, to adopt the advice so opportunely tendered by the Department of Agriculture. Progressive farmers who have systematically resorted to spraying in recent years have been amply repaid by a largely increased yield of good-sized sound table potatoes. Every grower should profit by the experience of those who have found spraying so beneficial in recent years. Some farmers incline to the belief that certain lands are able to resist the ravages of the blight, while others believe that so long as weather conditions continue favourable, all will be well and that there should be no need for spraying the crop. That is a very foolish idea, for the blight comes like a thief in the night, following foggy weather, which often sets in without a moments warning. We repeat, therefore, that it is the bounden duty of all potato growers to have the stalks sprayed immediately and to renew the process at intervals later on, as the need for so doing may arise.

AN IDEAL DAY.

The weather last Sunday was ideal out of doors, and huge crowds from Kilmacomas and district "fell in" with the rest who battered the trail to Dungarvan. The far and far-away Gaelic Field was at its loveliest—the playing pitch could not possibly have been improved upon, and Gaels from parts far and near were loud in their praise of it. The Old Boro' people's behaviour in the way of winning and dining the invading thousands on the occasion left absolutely no room for complaint. The only "fly in the ointment" from a Waterfordian's point of view was the bitterly disappointing display of our senior caman combination. It was simply shocking; but, happily, the unpalatable pill was swallowed in appreciably good taste by all in attendance who had confidently counted upon the defeat of the champions. The victory of our minor unit was achieved right worthily and well. Boys Daly, Dalton, and Keane were a topping trio on the winning side. The boys meet Cork at Mitchelstown on tomorrow (Sunday) in the 2nd round of this year's Munster Championship. May they again emerge victorious, sincerely say we. By the way, we recall that it was on the same date as last Sunday, viz., June 12th that Cork and Kilkenny clashed in their famous fray of 1908 on the Fraher Field. Very Rev. J. B. Dollard, Litt.D., ("Slabhinnmon"), the well-known Irish-Canadian poet, set that memorable match in motion, before a gathering of 20,000 or so. Kilkenny won by 21 points to 20. We should have more big matches in Dungarvan. The local business fraternity should put up a Cup or a set of Medals for a Kerry-Wexford "Big-ball" mix, and the same for a Cork-Kilkenny individual Club-team set-to. Why leave the most spacious playing park in the country with but one big match in every blue moon, to so put it? Get busy, ye Dungarvaners!

FIRE.
A commodious hayshed, containing a quantity of hay and straw, together with some farming implements, the property of Mr. Patrick Kirwan, Drumlough, Stradbally, was completely destroyed by fire on the night of the 12th-13th inst. The origin of the outbreak is unknown. The Civic Guards are prosecuting searching inquiries into the occurrence. Mr. Kirwan is a well-known extensive, practical and progressive farmer, and a most successful breeder of dairy stock.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

CEAD MILE FAILTHE.
In the name of the ancient territory of the Decies, ever illustrious in her devotion to our Holy Mother the Church, whose star has shone resplendent in the glorious canopy of Ireland's affluence with Rome, and whose lustre is undimmed by the passing years, we tender our heartiest welcome to His Eminence Cardinal Lauri, Papal Legate to the Eucharistic Congress, on his visit to our country in this great year, and pray that enormous may be the blessings which will follow for our people.

DUNGARVAN AGRICULTURAL SHOW.

At a meeting of the Show Committee, on Wednesday, Mr. A. Hunt, President, in the Chair, and there being also present—Messrs. D. Dempsey, R. Bell, S. J. Power, P. J. Moloney, N. Morrissey, J. A. Lynch, J. J. Morrissey, N. Connors and J. Lynch Secretary. The Chairman referred in feeling terms to the great loss the Diocese had sustained by the death of Most Rev. Dr. Hackett. His Lordship was a great Churchman, broadminded and tolerant, and like his deceased brother, Dr. J. C. Hackett, was a great Dungarvan man. He was very sorry the occasion had arisen to propose a vote of sympathy with his relatives and the priests and people of the Diocese on his death. He then proposed—"That the Dungarvan Show Committee, beg to express their deepest sympathy with Mr. Joseph Hackett (brother); and relatives, as also with the priests and people of the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore, on the great loss they have sustained by the death of the Most Rev. Dr. Hackett, and that we adjourn this meeting as a tribute of respect to his memory. That copies of this resolution be sent to Mr. Joseph Hackett, Ven Archdeacon Byrne, Vicar Capitular, Ballybricken, Waterford, and Very-Rev. T. O'Brien, P.P., Dungarvan. Mr. Dempsey seconded the resolution, which was supported by all present and passed in silence.

DEATH OF MRS. TREACY, ABBEYSIDE.

One of the old stock of Abbeyside passed to her reward on Tuesday last in the person of Mrs. Elizabeth Treacy, Sarsfield Street. She had reached a good age, and was a lady held in the highest esteem by all who knew her. She was mother of Mrs. Maher, the capable teacher at Ballinacourty School, to whom the deepest sympathy is expressed in her sorrow.—R.I.P.

DUNGARVAN FAIR.

The June Fair was largely attended in all departments, but business was the worst on record. Prices were not alone bad, but many people had not even an offer for their stock. With very little export trade and buyers afraid to take risks, results were poor. Yearlings made £8 to £11; 2-year-olds £12 to £14 and 3-year-olds £15 to £18. Young fat cows sold well. Sheep were cheap and sold at 35/- upwards; for the best fat lambs 25/- to 35/-. There was a large supply of pigs on sale, but trade was dull. Good stores sold at 25/- to 40/-.

MARKETS.

Meal 16/-; middlet 15/6; flour 15/6; bran 9/-; pollard 9/-; creamery butter (retail) 1/4d. per lb.; fresh butter 8 1/2d. per lb.; eggs 7d. per dozen.

A HEAVY DRAIN.

The amount of Home Assistance paid out in Waterford city and county for the month of May was £2,360 or £450 over the amount paid in May last year. That huge amount of relief in summer is unprecedented and reflects the hard times we are in. With cattle nearly unsaleable at the moment; eggs 7d. a dozen; Farmers butter 8 1/2d. per lb.; pigs 50/- (d.w.); there is a danger of a financial collapse of ratepayers. We are at the moment on the verge of a precipice and something must be done or the little money in circulation will run out, and there will be nothing left to pay anybody.

NOTHING DONE.

The Conference between President de Valera and the British Premier and others last Friday in London, ended with nothing having been done. Since then no information on the matters at issue has been given to the public.

NOW OR NEVER.

The formation of branches of the Irish Traders' Association in every town is a most important matter if business people are to survive the shock tactics of the Travelling Shops. Co-operation is the only hope of success left to our towns, and now that a start is made in all our home towns, we anticipate great results.

LAND ANNUITIES.

According to a statement in the British House of Commons on Wednesday, the Irish Land Annuities for the current half year due to be paid on June 15th were not paid. The amount is £1,500,000.

WE HAVE AGAIN AND AGAIN
warned our customers on the absolute necessity of potato spraying. It has been conclusively proved during the past few years that not only has spraying prevented potato blight, but it has almost doubled the crops in every instance. It also improves the quality of the potato by extending the period of growth, thereby allowing
the crops to come to maturity.
The necessity for spraying this season
may be more urgent than usual. The present weather is proving favourable for the spread of the disease
which has already made its appearance in the South of Ireland. We stock the latest types in horse and knapsack sprayers, and we also keep large stocks of sulphate of copper and washing soda. We shall be very pleased to answer any enquiries
regarding quantity to be used per acre,
and will quote special low prices for cash for sprayers or spraying materials.

Dungarvan's Dual Destiny.

Nobody will gainsay that there are few towns in Ireland more favoured by nature than Dungarvan. There are indeed few anywhere in the British Isles which have such a variety
and abundance of natural charms.
Dungarvan could well be almost the premier holiday resort and the sports
centre of Ireland.
Seeing it has not got very far in this direction as yet, it may not be amiss
to consider a little of what lines development should be planned. Nature
as we have observed, has done her part; it only remains for the human element to get active.
In case any doubts should exist as to nature's intentions regarding Dungarvan, it is only necessary to point to the proximity of Ardmore (which
a famous English novelist described as the most delightful spot he knew),
of Lismore and the Blackwater—sometimes called, not inappropriately, the Irish Rhine, of Stradally and the charming country towards Kilmac-
thomas; whilst nearer at hand there is the picturesque Western Bay, the fine expanses of water the background
of the Comeragh mountains, the Clonea strand, and the woodland hillsides towards Cappoquin and Lismore. In every direction there is variety and charm of natural attractions. In addition to this Dungarvan
has the advantage of being comparatively easily reached from Dublin,
and directly on the Fishguard-Ros-sare route from London, and on the verge of 100% Gaelic speaking districts.

There can be no question then that all that is needed is development. And on this score one could proffer numerous suggestions. Let us consider first the East side of the harbour. This is admirably fitted to become the holiday quarter. A small jetty might be constructed at the South-Eastern corner of the harbour, both to increase its mooring accommodation, and also
to serve as a pleasure promenade—
perhaps more particularly the latter.
And also—and a more pressing need—
a coastal promenade to the East of Abbeyside, which would afford the best sea views in the district, and
would prove a very attractive holiday
feature. Two or three shelters, tennis-courts, etc., would enhance its utility.
As this would be on the way to the famous Clonea strand, it would certainly not fail to become popular. So for a little way in this direction there would be a real sea-side quarter,
fronting a gradually developing residential area. In this connection one might cite the example of Carrickfergus, where the strand to the North of the castle and harbour has been developed into a fine promenade, the castle and harbour thus dividing the town into two parts—the old or business quarter to the South of the castle
and harbour, and the new or holiday
one to the North.

The Southern end of the quay certainly needs some tidying up, and a few seats could be placed here. Something too should be done about the Square. Here there might be erected a small Gaelic Theatre—it would be an ideal spot for one; or else the space
could be occupied by a little garden
with a fountain, which tastefully laid out, would constitute a very pleasing feature. In any case it is highly desirable that the Square
should not continue to be used as a cattle market. Protests against the holding of fairs in the centre of towns
are frequently being made, and Dungarvan affords a rather glaring instance of this kind of abuse. Now,
there should be a main business
thoroughfare running due South from the station to the Western end of Main Street, prolonging itself as a residential thoroughfare towards the Western
Bay. At present the centre of Dungarvan gives the impression of a town
which has so far grown up on one side only of a possible triangle. With any marked increase of population another business thoroughfare will be imperative. There might also be an arcade; this is very necessary
to any town which proposes to cater
for holiday-makers, as nowhere is immune from showery days.

The possibilities of Dungarvan as a holiday centre cannot be over stressed.
It must not be forgotten that the host of visitors to Killarney nearly all pass through Dungarvan and not a few are impressed by the delightful scenery
of this district—although not quite comparable to that of Kerry. But there is no sea-front at Killarney. If Dungarvan would set itself out to become really attractive, a large percentage of these visitors would make a break here either on the outward or return journey, and a really brisk
holiday trade would be assured.

But there must also be more industrial activity. A good deal of industry is necessary to ensure permanent prosperity. Such popular holiday resorts
in England as Brighton, Bournemouth and Southport, are also quite big industrial centres. The possibilities of starting fresh industries in Dungarvan must be carefully studied. The district is fertile and there are some
such as market-gardening, fruit-growing and packing, etc., would seem to be specially indicated.

And of course more advertising is essential. A committee might be formed to advertise Dungarvan both as a holiday resort and also as an industrial centre. Perhaps in the early summer as a holiday resort and later as an industrial centre; after a year or so this would be bound to tell. A well-planned advertising campaign
might indeed be the first step towards future greatness. But it must be the token of a definite and also well-planned scheme of development. That is obviously indispensable. And this development must have the dual aim

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

D.J. AND CONGRESS WEEK.

At Youghal District Court, before
taking up the hearing of the cases listed,
Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L., said there were four Courts in his area in Congress Week: Tallow, 21st; Rathcor-mac, 22nd; Cappoquin, 23rd; and Youghal 24th. He didn't propose to hold those Courts in the ordinary way,
as he wished to leave the solicitors and members of the public who may have business at those Courts free to attend
the Congress. He would be available
if any cases of urgency arose, but he would transact no business in the Courts mentioned except something absolutely unavoidable.
He then disposed of a number of undefended Civil Bills in which Messrs. J. J. Ronayne, Solr., Midle-
ton; Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal;
and T. K. Keane, solr., Youghal, appeared for the plaintiffs.
In a number of Irish Land Commission and Insurance cases,
Mr. Keane applied on behalf of Mr
D. Casey, State Solr., Mitchellstown,
for an adjournment of the lot.
Mr. Hodnett for some of the defendants agreeing, all the cases were adjudged to 1st July.

WATERFORD MENTAL HOSPITAL

SUPPORT FOR THE RAILWAYS.

"The amount of unemployment
being caused by the old mode of transport being supplanted by the modern is becoming alarming," said the Very Rev. Canon Walsh, P.P., (Chairman),
at the monthly meeting of the Water-
ford Mental Hospital Committee,
when he had heard the views of a deputation from the local branch of the Railway Protective Staffs' Organisation. He added that their general purpose was to try to prevail on the Government of the country to do their best to have the railways supported and suicidal competition brought to heel in the country.

Mr. J. Butler, (Dungarvan), declared that if the Irish people gave more support generally to the railways, their present adverse trade balance and the huge amount of unemployment would be put right to some extent. The amount of money that was leaving the country in connection with road transport for the purchase of imported cars, engines, etc., also tended to increase that adverse balance. Everybody knew that if horse traffic were more extensively used
they would have a greater amount of employment and the farmers, in consequence, would have a bigger market for their produce. He asked the Committee to express an unanimous opinion in support of the railways.

Mr. Hallihan, (Clonmel), said he had never used a bus travelling to Waterford for the past twenty-five years. He thought, however, the Railway Company should give some travelling concessions to public representatives.

On the proposal of Mr. Thomas
Ryan, T.C., seconded by Mr. M. F.
Walsh, (Cappoquin), the following resolution was adopted unanimously:—
"That this Committee of the Mental Hospital have fully considered the gravity of the present railway situation, as put before them by a deputation
of the Railway Staffs' Protective Association, desire to place on record
their warmest appreciation and sympathy with the employees in their efforts to restore the industry. We consider that it is the first duty of the Government to safeguard this national industry by immediate legislation, to place it on a sound, economic basis,
and cut out wasteful competition. As evidence of our practical sympathy
with the claims of the railway staffs
on our support, we pledge ourselves
to insist that none but rail-borne goods and materials be supplied by the contractors to this institution."
The deputation included Messrs.
Lee (Chairman), Hartford (Hon. Sec.),
Brett and O'Neill.

OFFICIALS COMPLIMENTED.

At the monthly meeting of the Water-
ford Mental Hospital Committee,
Dr. Fitzgerald, R.M.S., and the other officials were warmly complimented
by the members on the admirable
manner in which the affairs of the institution had been administered during the past twelve months.

The R.M.S. pointed out in his annual report that as a result of economical management a saving of £700
to the rates would be effected this year.
Referring to the farm and garden account, he stated that the pig prices
were poor, the oat crop fair, but the potato yield was the worst in his experience, although the crop had received all the attention possible and had been sprayed twice.

PROMISING JUVENILE HURLERS.

We are glad to see the youngsters of the town following in the footsteps of their elders in the matter of sport,
and we had striking evidence of the thorough manner in which they are doing so, by the stylish display
which a juvenile hurling team from Cappoquin gave in a match played against the Lismore juvenile hurlers,
in the Sportsfield recently.

Although, the Lismore lads put up
a game and plucky fight, they were completely outclassed by the Cappo-
quin players, who won by the remarkable score of 11 goals 1 point (34 points) to 1 goal 1 point (4 points) for Lismore. In order to encourage them to perform even more brilliantly in future, we give the names of the Cap-
poquin juveniles as follows:—J.
Twomey, Frank Crowe, P. O'Shea, J.
Brackett, P. Twomey, T. O'Donnell,
W. Moore, T. Lee, J. Kiely, W. Mc-Grath, W. O'Donnell, W. Rea, D.
Revis, J. Hartrey and D. Murray.

GREAT REVIVAL OF ATHLETICS.

Since the formation of the Athletic
and Cycling Club here last week (which will be found reported elsewhere) there has been a wonderful revival of athletic and cycling sport
amongst all the young men and boys
from the town and surrounding districts. Large numbers can be seen training in the Sportsfield every evening in running, jumping, weight-throwing, cycling and other forms of healthy outdoor sport, and from the amount of material which is at present available here it is not too much
to hope that the town which produced Mr. Jim Wall, the famous footballer and world-champion jumper
and athlete, will in a short time be able to regain the high reputation
which it enjoyed in this respect up to 30 years ago.

REVISION OF PRISON
SYSTEM.

An increase in the prison staffs may take place in the Saorstad shortly in order to make the jails pleasanter
places by giving prisoners more recreation.

The rations scale may also be increased, and the treatment imposed as hard labour is also likely to be modified. Mr. J. Geoghegan, K.C., Minister for Justice, has completed a tour
of inspection of the prisons, and appears to have made up his mind that
the prison system needs revision.

Conditions, he believes, are not as good in Saorstad jails as in Northern Ireland and Great Britain, and he means to bring about reforms. The reforms will cost money, but he considers it would be money well spent in the interests of humanity and the prisoners.

Deputies Dan Breen and M. J. Kenedy (Fianna Fail) are taking steps
to present to the Minister for Justice
a petition, upon which he is likely to act, asking for the release of first-term
prisoners who have not been convicted of serious crime, and also of prisoners
whose terms of imprisonment are nearly complete.

Some members of all parties have already signed the petition, and it is expected that more signatories will be obtained.

Witness: I came here to be a witness to the truth, but I haven't witnessed much of it.

Magistrate: Are you married?
Young man: Not yet, but I am going to try it for a month!

Debtor: My wife gets my money
and pays my debts—a very sensible arrangement.

YOUGHAL NOTES.

THE FISHING SEASON.

The fishing season has slumped
very badly of late. In fact it is a rare treat to see a salmon landed by any of the many boats, whose crews devoted long and weary hours of both
day and night endeavouring to earn a livelihood for themselves and their dependents. The most striking feature of the season up to the present
has been the low price prevailing almost from the very first day. At present the men are busily engaged in
"peeling" nets for the capture of
"peal," otherwise called "peise."
Compared with years gone by quite an evolution has taken place in the local salmon fishing. In what are sometimes called—whether they deserve the title is a question—the "good old days," the salmon season in the first three months, was so poor that the fishermen had to look forward to the peal season during the following three months to recoup them for their expenses. It was by no means an uncommon thing to see a boat land considerably over 100 peal. Now-a-days,
the very opposite holds good, the salmon are generally plentiful and
the peal always scarce.

A "PLAYFUL PORPOISE."

Was, it is reported, landed at Ard-
more last week, having fouled itself
in the nets of a local fisherman, John Mansfield. It was some 13 or 14 feet
in length and must have weighed about 3 cwt. It is said that it was a very unusual specimen of the species,
not hitherto met with in the locality.
It was very bulky down to the fins,
and the tail was of a most peculiar shape. Evidently, the animal must have strayed from its own "school"
for it was the only one seen in the Bay for some time past.

"TIME'S UP GENTS."

At the latest meeting of the Youghal
Urban Council, there was a big display of perverted eloquence on all sorts and conditions of subjects—anything, everything and, at times, something about nothing. There was nothing in the method or delivery to which exception could be taken, indeed, the oratory now and again
reached a pretty high standard, but
was it worth the wealth of verbosity
expended? If we recollect aright, there's a rule—understood, if not in black and white on the books—that members are to address the meeting
on any specific subject once only.
That rule, it would appear from recent experiences, is honoured only in the breach. A few very important proposals were brought before the meeting and dealt with in a most proper and reasonable manner to which
the most fastidious couldn't object.
There were others, however, of the two-penny-hapenny order which occurred so much time that more important matters had to be, so to speak, rushed with undue haste. Had the meeting been allowed to go on its way unchecked, nobody knows when it would have come to an end. According to the Standing Orders, the meeting terminates automatically at 9.30. When that hour was reached on the night in question, we were only in the middle of it. Fortunately,
however, a certain member had evidently had more than enough of it,
and he stood up and called the attention of the meeting to the fact that
"time is up." Another member suggested that by suspending the Standing Orders, they could carry on, but
the majority seemed about fed up,
and amid general laughter, the meeting broke up. Some time ago the Chairman called a member to order,
asking him not to be like a "Cock Robin" hopping on his perch. On the occasion referred to, there were quite a number of "Cock Robins."

THE TOURIST SEASON.

Since the first day of the present
month, barring a part of one day only,
we have been experiencing the most delightful kind of weather, the ideal sort for the seaside. But "where, oh
where are our jolly 'gay-bricks' gone?"
Up to the present, anyhow, they are few and far between—anything but thick as autumn leaves in Vallam-brock. The few that have arrived
have been vouchsafed almost perfect

atmospheric conditions for both sea-
bathing and sun-bathing, and they are evidently making the most of it, as may be seen all during the day on a visit to the strand. Of course, it must be recognised that there are several factors mitigating just at present
against the success of the tourist season, such as the almost universal
scarcity of air-ged sios; the Cork Fair,
the coming Eucharistic Congress; the continued development of motor traffic, etc. Some complain that there are practically no English tourists coming. For this various reasons are suggested, but the real reason is hard to get at. Nobody knows, perhaps after Congress Week, there will be a bit of improvement all round and West Waterford and East Cork capitals, Dungarvan and Youghal will num with the cosmopolitan twang of oversea "gay-bricks" and "olishers."
To help to realize this the people of both towns should be up and doing
in the way of enticing visitors by providing suitable attraction. They can't expect to catch good fish without using proper bait. Therefore, it is up to them to organise and advertise in every way possible. In a matter of this kind, the fly won't walk into the spider's parlour without some effort to trap on the spider's part. Now-a-days, travellers require something more than the mere ordinary natural attractions of a resort to tempt them.
The resorts must put and keep themselves well in the limelight, and each knows, or ought know, best its own capabilities and limitations.

LABOUR PARTY AND TARIFFS.

Mr. W. Norton, leader of the Labour Party, speaking at Naas, said he did not believe that tariffs would do all the Government expected them to do. Tariffs had not in themselves the seeds of virile growth, and industries
based on that delicate fabric would not survive for long. He would prefer that the Government would organise under their own control, basic industries suited to the country.

The late Government had successfully completed the Shannon scheme.
There was no reason why the present Government should not organise other industries on the same basis. Tariff protected industries were radically weak.

Dealing with the new taxes, he said
they were being made the excuse for another attack on the workman.
Wages were being reduced, the standard of living was falling, and wage earners were being thrown out of employment. If this sort of thing continued, added Mr. Norton, he would ask that the Government step in and put a stop to it.

In conclusion, he said as long as the Government did what the Labour Party desired they would have the wholehearted support of the Labour Party; but if they followed the example of the Cumann na nGaedheal Government they would have just as little use for them as a Cumann na
nGaedheal Government.

PRESIDENT DE VALERA'S
MOTHER DEAD.

Widespread sympathy will be extended to President de Valera on the death of his mother, Mrs. Catherine Wheelwright, which occurred at Rochester, New York, on Sunday.

Mrs. Wheelwright, whose maiden
name was Catherine Coll, was a member of an old Bruree family having extensive connections in Co. Limerick.
She was a school mistress at Bruree
before emigrating to America. In New York she married Mr. Vivian de Valera, an artist, who died before the President was three years old, and she was once more dependent on her own labour.

Her son was sent from New York
in the company of an uncle to the care of his grandmother in Bruree.
There his mother visited him at intervals until she married secondly Charles Wheelwright, and made her home in Rochester. One son by her second marriage is now Rev. Thomas J. Wheelwright, C.S.S.R.

Mrs. Wheelwright naturally took a keen interest in the career of her son
in Ireland, and his election to the Presidency of the Free State was a source of intense pride and pleasure
to her.

Waterford County Board of Public Health.

Mr. Patk. O'Gorman, Chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the above held on Saturday. The other members present were—Messrs. G. Greene, P. J. Fox, J. O'Donnell, M. Curran, D. Heskin, Wm. Stack, J. Butler, and Mce. Keane.

The Late Bishop. Mr. O'Donnell proposed:—"That we place on record an expression of our deep regret on the death of the Most Rev. Dr. Hackett, and our sense of the great loss that the people of the city and county of Waterford sustained by the demise of this brilliant Churchman and kindly Father, and that we tender to the Clergy of the diocese our sincere sympathy in the loss to the Church." Copies of the resolution to be sent to the relatives and to the Ven. Archdeacon Byrne, P.P. Mr. Greene, seconded the resolution. The Secretary (Mr. Flynn) on behalf of the officials associated himself with the resolution, which was passed in silence.

Letting Of Cottages. The tenancy of a vacant labourer's cottage at Ballinagoubeg, Ring, was, on the proposition of Mr. Curran, let to John Tobin.

Carriglong Cottage. Three applicants applied for the tenancy of the above cottage viz., Jn. Whelan, Patk. Regan, and Ed. McGrath.

Mr. Green proposed, and Mr. O'Donnell seconded, that McGrath a married man with a large family and without a house, be appointed. Mr. Stack proposed Whelan be made tenant.

On a show of hands McGrath was appointed.

Cappoquin's Dumping Ground. A letter read from Mr. M. F. Walsh, Cappoquin, protested against the dumping of rubbish at Twig Lane, Cappoquin, and the present unsightly condition of the place.

Secretary—It all depends on if it is unsanitary; then it is a matter for the M.O.H.

The Secretary was directed to ask the Sanitary Officer to report the matter to the M.O.H.

Financial Statement. The Secretary reported the amount of credit at the end of the month as £3,847.

Well To Be Closed.

Mr. Jephson, Engineer, recommended the closing down of a well at Graigshooneen, Kilmacthomas, as it is liable to contamination. The recommendation was approved.

Tallow Water Supply.

A report from the caretaker of the above supply relative to broken valve covers in the streets of Tallow and a defective stopcock at the reservoir was referred to Mr. Speradborough for attention.

Lismore Public Lavatories.

The Chairman referred to the lawsuit between the Board and the Lismore Estates Co., which was adjourned by Judge Sealy, from the last Court for the purpose of getting expert advice on the pressure of water etc.

The Chairman said that he met Mr. Carroll, solicitor, for the other side and he offered the Board an alternate site. He (Chairman) then wrote to Mr. Speradborough, Engineer, to come and inspect the site offered which he did. Mr. Speradborough is of opinion that the alternate site is suitable and that the erection of a lavatory there would cost less.

Mr. Speradborough also wrote stating that the site offered was suitable and central.

The Board approved of the site offered and held that the Lismore Estates Co., should pay the costs of the action, as if they had offered this site at first, there would have been no litigation. The Board also asked their solr., (Mr. O'Gorman), to get into communication with Mr. Carroll, solr., regarding the settlement of the case before the Court.

Kilmacthomas Sewerage.

Arising out of a letter from Dr. Foley, M.O.H., Kilmacthomas, on the sewerage system in the town.

Mr. Jephson, Engineer, was asked to report on the probable cost of carrying out a sewerage scheme.

Mr. O'Donnell—There is no doubt but they are badly off there. If the cost won't be excessive something should be done.

Grant For The Work.

Mr. Jephson suggested that the Board make application for portion of the money for the relief of unemployment towards the carrying out of the work. The suggestion was unanimously approved.

Ardmore Water Supply.

Mr. Keane suggested applying for a similar grant for a water supply to Ardmore and Mr. Curran advocated an application for another portion for a further extension of the Ring Water supply and improvement of the Sewerage system there.

Tramore Sea Wall.

Messrs. Downey, Contractors, Waterford, were the only firm to tender for the protection of the Sea Wall at Tramore for the sum of £1,491 19s 11d. The lowest tender received at the previous meeting was £1,492. The estimate for the work is £1,250.

Mr. Fox proposed that the tender be accepted.

Secretary—The County Council

granted two-thirds of the estimate and now unless they agree to give the two-thirds of the balance, Tramore will have to shoulder the whole of the balance.

Mr. Fox asked if the Co. Council did not agree to give two-thirds of the cost of the work.

Secretary—No. They gave two-thirds of the Engineer's estimate.

Mr. Fox—Then we will have to make a further application to the Co. Council.

Mr. O'Donnell—That will delay the work considerably.

Secretary—It need not delay the work provided that if the Co. Council refuse to give the extra, Tramore will be prepared to shoulder the balance.

Mr. Fox then proposed that Messrs. Downey's tender be accepted, and that the Board make a further application to the Co. Council for two-thirds of the balance necessary to complete the work.

The resolution was seconded by the Chairman and passed.

GOVERNMENT POLICY

EX-MINISTER'S VIEWS.

Speaking at a Cumann na nGaedheal meeting in the Town Hall, Carlow, on Sunday, Mr. Desmond Fitzgerald, T.D., said that previous to the General Election they had a Government in power for ten years, and it had to go before the country when the Free State was suffering, like every other country in the world, from the world's economic slump. They as a people had only ten years' experience of self-government compared with other countries which had centuries of experience in government. Therefore, they could not expect the Irish people to judge promises and to decide whether they were fulfillable or not.

When Fianna Fail took over the Government, instead of making cuts in certain services they proceeded to increase taxation. The first thing the present Government did when they came into power was to release certain prisoners who belonged to organisations which stood for the overthrow of society. In any country in the world the activities of such men would be put down. As well as releasing the prisoners, the present Government made the Public Safety Act non-operative. Last Easter the released prisoners were to parade in Dublin. A certain Pressman who happened to be in the country went to an I.R.A. man and asked him were they going to parade with arms. He replied that Mr. De Valera had promised the people a thing he could not fulfill, and it had made it possible for the I.R.A. to go ahead with their organisation. On next Sunday there would be a parade at Bodenstown. In recent years the National Army had held parades at Bodenstown. This time the National Army was not going to hold a parade there, but the Revolutionary Workers' Association was going there. The Government was going to give them full liberty to hold their mobilisation at Bodenstown. Those who belong to the I.R.A. believe there must be a revolution and the seizing of power by dictatorship, and when the dictatorship has ceased that there must be no stop to murder, to confiscation and unimaginable things until ultimately they arrive at a Socialist republic. It had been stated that such men must be free, and if elected they must be allowed to go into the Dail.

Mr. Fitzgerald said the farmers must realise they had a very bleak prospect before them in view of no agreement being arrived at in London on Friday. The farmers were getting any preference that was obtainable at present for their produce in the English market, but they were not going to be long in that position. Mr. Thomas said the British Government was not going to have any negotiations with people who broke treaties. It was plain that the Free State did not sell anything to Canada, Australia or South Africa. The farmers sold 90 per cent. of their produce to Great Britain. They also enjoyed at present a preference of 10 per cent. on butter and other commodities, but that preference would cease on the 1st November.

Before Mr. De Valera invited the British Government to send delegates to Dublin he became aware that they were quietly making arrangements for the non-arrival of the Land Annuities, and that the British Government were going to put a tariff on livestock exported from this country to Great Britain equivalent to the Land Annuities withheld. The speaker said they had read in the newspapers that British ships were on the lookout for ships carrying arms into the Free State. He was aware that Mr. De Valera had given instructions to the police to watch for arms coming into the country, but he (Mr. Fitzgerald), had heard the orders "Right turn and Left wheel" being given at night to men drilling in the I.R.A., and the Government were aware that drilling was going on. If England refused to negotiate, he said, with us, and if friendly relations are not to exist between this country and England, it will mean inevitably the collapse of our agricultural industry. He hoped that something would turn up to make the Government change their policy, because, logically it was demonstrated that the country at present would go to disaster. It was a good thing to hope it would not, but he did not see how it could be prevented.

BRIDE ROVERS V. BALLINCURRA

The second round of the East Cork junior hurling championship was advanced a further stage, when the above teams met at Killeagh on Sunday. Weather conditions were ideal, and a good gathering witnessed a spirited and stubbornly contested exhibition. At the outset Bride Rovers took the lead, and determinedly held it to the final whistle. The result being 1 goal 3 points in their favour to one goal for Ballincurra. Mr. P. Mahon y. Killeagh, H.C., had charge of the whistle.

Ballincurra won the choice for ends, and played towards the village goal. Rovers were called on to defend and for some minutes fast exchanges took place. Transferring play to the other end, Barry was quick to seize an opportunity and opened the scoring with a goal for the Rovers. Hartnett placed the ball well for his forwards, but Hogan cleared in fine fashion. Stern duels were witnessed in the ensuing moments, and Ryan placed a minor for the Rovers. Following a free the same player shot a point. Determined attacking by Ballincurra was eventually rewarded through a fine effort by Lane, who raised the green flag. No further score resulted when the interval arrived. The score was then—BRIDE ROVERS—1 goal 2 points. BALLINCURRA—1 goal.

On resumption, Ballincurra fought hard, but a fine defence was displayed by Rovers. Some hard knocks were given and taken and though Ballincurra tried their best they could not penetrate the rock-like defence of their opponents. Several 70's were awarded to Ballincurra, but clever clearances were effected. Hartnett made many openings for the front line, but they failed to finish the movements. At the other end Donovan and Quirke likewise proved effective and time and again brought off fine saves. Shortly before the end, Rovers raised the white flag. The final score was—BRIDE ROVERS—1 goal 3 points. BALLINCURRA—1 goal.

The teams were:—BRIDE ROVERS—E. Hoskins, (Capt); J. Healy, Jas. Healy, D. L. Horgan, T. Collins, Jas. Ryan, W. Murphy, R. Ryan, W. Barry, P. Collins, T. Shea, E. Barry, J. Murphy, J. Collins, D. Mr. J. J. Crotty, Dungarvan, explained the circumstances which had led up to the starting of this Association in Ballyhaunis, and also its aims and objects, which, he said, were to protect the country towns of Ireland from being completely wiped out by the unfair competition of persons who paid neither rates nor taxes in the towns and therefore, had a big advantage over the resident and legitimate traders of those places. He referred to the decline in the trade of his own town, Dungarvan, due to this irregular and unfair form of trading, and said that all the other towns were equally affected, so that if the people concerned did not wake up now and properly organise by joining the new Association, there would be very little trace of those towns left in a short time.

Mr. Crotty, continuing, said he was glad to know that it was the intention of the Government to set up a Commission of Inquiry to investigate the question of the Registration of Shops, so that it was absolutely necessary that every town in the country should be properly organised before this Commission began its investigations, (hear, hear).

Mr. J. Christopher, Dungarvan, then read the following letter which had been sent by the Minister for Industry and Commerce to the Hon. Secs., of the Executive of the I.R.T.A., Ballyhaunis:—I am directed by the Minister for Industry and Commerce to refer to your letter of the 12th inst., and in reply to inform you that it has been decided to set up a Commission of Inquiry to investigate the question of the Registration of Shops. The matter of the personal of the Commission is at present under consideration, and its Terms of Reference are as follows:—

The advantages of Potato Spraying are forcibly demonstrated in our illustration. A crop of potatoes were planted in the usual way, and in the after-treatment were divided into three sections. The result is shown above. Spray with Pure Sulphate of Copper and Soda Crystals. Guaranteed 98 99 per cent. Packed in linen bags 8 and 10 lbs. for 40-gallon mixture.

MOLONEY'S, Implement and Machinery Specialists, Dungarvan

Russell, was unanimously elected Chairman. On the motion of Mr. P. Walsh, seconded by Mr. G. Russell, Mr. W. J. McCarthy, was elected Hon. Sec., while Mr. Jas. Lincoln, was elected Treasurer on the motion of Mr. P. Walsh, seconded by Mr. J. V. Conway.

The following were elected on the Committee:—Messrs. M. J. Sargent, P.C.; P. Walsh, G. P. Hely, J. P. Olden, S. Kingston, L. D. Dunne, S. Hick, Jas. Hallahan and P. Bateman. It was then decided to affiliate the branch with the Executive and generous subscriptions were handed in by most of those present, and it was arranged that a small deputation call on those town traders who were absent from the meeting that night.

The traders' backs were now to the wall owing to the manner in which their business had been ruined by unfair competition for a long time past, but if the traders of the various towns now stood firm and properly organised themselves they would be in a position to force any Government to take the necessary legal action to safeguard their interests. (Applause).

Mr. M. J. Sargent, seconded the vote of thanks, which was carried with enthusiasm.

REGISTRATION OF UNEMPLOYED WORKERS.

Arrangements have been made for the registration of unemployed workers at Local Post Offices and Civic Guard Stations where these centres are more convenient to them than the existing local offices of the Department of Industry and Commerce.

Unemployed workpeople residing in districts too remote from the local offices of the Employment Exchanges system may, accordingly, now register themselves for employment at the nearest Post Office or Civic Guard Station, but where it is more convenient to do so they will continue to use the Employment Exchange service, which must in any case continue to be used as heretofore by those applying for Unemployment Benefit.

No applicant may register at more than one of the places provided for the purpose. As grants for the relief of unemployment will be allocated on the basis of the extent of unemployment in each County, it is of the utmost importance that all persons seeking employment under relief schemes should IMMEDIATELY register their names for such work at the local Post Office or Civic Guard Station.

Employment will be given only to persons so registered and not to other persons. Small farmers and others seeking employment as carters should also register immediately. This will apply to any persons who may be looking for work up to the 31st March, 1933. J. H. O'SULLIVAN, Secretary, Co. Council. County Secretary's Office, Dungarvan, 6th June, 1932.
