DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the above, held on Friday last. The others present were—Messrs. Moloney, Griffin, Dea, Hackett, McCarthy, and McEvoy.

Sympathy.

The following resolution was passed on the proposition of Mr. Griffin, seconded by Mr. Moloney:—That we, the members of the Urban Council, tender to Mrs. Morrissey, Square, our sincere sympathy on the loss she has sustained on the death of her sister, Mrs. Mulvey, Arraglen, Co. Cork.

On the proposition of the Chairman, seconded by Mr. Hackett, a similar resolution was passed to P. Quinn, and relatives on the death of his uncle, Tenders For Extending Sewer.

The following tenders were received for the extension of the sewer at Sarsfield Street, Abbeyside, to low water mark—Gerald Kiely, Mitchel Street, £6 10s. 0d.; James Mullins, Abbeyside, £7 15s. 0d.; Edward Fitzgerald, Patrick Street, £11 12s. 6d. Kiely's tender was accepted.

Opening Of Main Roads.

A letter was read from Mr. J. Bowen, Co. Surveyor, applying for £50 11s. 8d., being cost incurred by the Co. Council, in the repairs and maintenance of opening made in main roads, by the Urban Council, during the period 8th October, 1929 to 24th June, 1932.

The matter was referred to the Chairman and Mr. Moloney to interview Mr. Bowen.

Pensions For Urban And County Employees.

The following resolution, read from the Tralee Urban Council, was adopted:—That the Government, be asked to approve of granting pensions to employees of county and urban district Councils, in whatever capacity employed, when they attain an age which renders them incapable of further employment, and that their amount of service be taken into consideration in assessing such pensions. That these pensions be made a Government charge.

Excursion To Cork Fair.

The Council discussed at length the proposed excursion, which the Chairman (Mr. Butler), is organising to the Cork Industrial Fair, and the following resolution, proposed by Mr. Clancy, and seconded by Mr. McCarthy, was passed:—That the Urban District Council, approve of the efforts of the Chairman, in organising an excursion to the Cork Industrial Fair, from the town and surrounding district, on Thursday, August 11th., and to ensure that all would be enabled to participate in the day's outing, we respectfully make an earnest request to the employers and shopkeepers of the town to close their establishments on that day. Further, we ask those getting that day off to work a full day on the half-holiday of the following week, August 13th.

YOUGHAL PEOPLE'S RACES.

As will be seen by our Advertising Columns, this popular event will be revived after a lapse of 4 years, and run off on August 10th, over the old Slobland Course, practically in the town. These races were carried on formerly with great success, affording a good day's sport. Circumstances compelled their temporary abandonment, but the Committee were enabled to place a substantial sum on reserve awaiting favourable conditions and this is now available for the present effort. An energetic Committee have got going and are leaving no stone unturned to establish a record. The Course is a splendid one, giving a full view of the racing, a natural grand stand running nearly all round. Complaints are made that Youghal does little to attract visitors. It is, therefore, hoped that the Committee's efforts, will be appreciated and practically supported by a generous response to their appeal, as the project is both expensive and risky.

Full particulars of the events are given in the programme, and the Hon. Secs., will be greatly facilitated by the entries being sent in as early as possible.

AMATEUR DRAMATIC SOCIETY IN VILLAGE HALL.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, before Mr. McCabe. The Justice dismissed the case in which Richard Hackett, Secretary, Carrick-on-Suir Amateur Dramatic Society, sued Michael Knox, Ahenny, for breach of contract, re the letting of the Village Hall, at Ahenny. When Richard Hackett, the plaintiff, proceeded to give evidence, the Justice asked him on what sum he and Knox had agreed for the hall. Witness said he did not make the agreement. It was made by a man named Purcell, who was not in Court. The Justice dismissed the case.

LISMORE NOTES.

LAWN TENNIS VICTORY.

The members of the Lismore Tennis Club were "At Home" to Cahir, on the beautifully laid-out Courts of the local Club, on Saturday-week, when an interesting Tournament was played under ideal weather conditions before a large attendance.

The programme included mixed Doubles, and provided a most interesting afternoon's sport, but the Lismore players had the best of the contest and beat Cahir by 8 to 3, with one drawn match.

Details:—Mixed Doubles—Miss Henchcliffe and J. Browne, Lismore, beat Miss Noone and Mr. Parker, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4. Miss Hickey and E. L. Corrigan, Lismore, beat Miss Griffiths and E. Ryan, 6-4, 7-5. Miss McGrath and J. Fogarty, Lismore, beat Miss Stevely and M. Crowe, 4-6, 6-3, 8-6. Mrs. O'Gorman and A. B. Harrington, Lismore, beat Miss Heffernan and S. Parker, 6-4, 5-6, 6-0. Miss Condon and E. Hipwell, Lismore, beat Miss Griffiths and R. Bradley, 6-4, 6-2. Miss N. O'Riordan and H. Foley, Lismore, beat Miss Heffernan and J. Sheavin, 6-2, 6-0.

Ladies Doubles—Miss Noone and Miss Griffiths, Cahir, beat Miss Henchcliffe, and Miss Hickey, 2-6 7-5, 4-6. Miss Griffiths and Miss Stevely, Cahir, beat Mrs. O'Gorman and Miss McGrath, 6-3, 3-6, 6-4. Miss Condon and Miss O'Riordan, Lismore, drew with Miss Heffernan and Miss Noone, 4-6, 6-2, 6-6.

Gentlemen's Doubles.—J. Browne, and E. Corrigan, Lismore, beat Mr. Parker, and M. Crowe, 6-4, 6-2. E. Ryan, and S. Parker, Cahir, beat A. B. Harrington, and J. Fogarty, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3. J. Barnes and J. Ormonde, Lismore, beat R. Bradley and J. Sheavin, 6-1, 4-6, 7-5.

During the afternoon the visitors were hospitably entertained by the members of the Lismore Club, and a most delightful social time was enjoyed by all. The Lismore Club will visit Cahir for the return matches on Saturday 23rd inst., the full results of which will appear in next issue.

ANOTHER HOME VICTORY.

Following the defeat of Cahir Tennis Club, by Lismore, the Cahir Cricket Club also suffered defeat at the hands of the Lismore Club, on the Castle Farm pitch, on Sunday. While all the Lismore men played a steady and well-judged game, the bowling and batting of C. Crowley were outstanding features, and were mainly responsible for the home side winning by such a big margin.

Mr. J. Fogarty, the popular Captain has some very useful material amongst this year's Cricket team, and with further practice they should develop into a very efficient XI. in a short time.

The Cappoquin Club will visit Lismore, to play a return match with the local Club, on Sunday week, when a great game should be witnessed between these evenly-balanced teams.

EVICTIION NEAR LISMORE.

Unhappy memories of the "bad old days" were recalled on last Friday, when a farmer named James Flynn, was evicted from his holding at Ahanoo, Glencairn, a few miles from Lismore, at the suit of the Irish Land Commission for non-payment of his land annuities. The tenant, who is an old man, held a farm of between 90 and 100 acres near Tallow Road Railway Station, and an ejection decree was obtained against him at the Lismore Court some months ago.

NEXT SUNDAY'S GREAT DAY.

The promoters of the Novices' Sports advertised to be held here on Sunday, July 3rd., were in decidedly hard luck when a heavy and continuous downpour of rain on that day necessitated a postponement of the fixture to next Sunday, 24th. inst.

However, the three week's interval since then has been fully availed of by the Committee to still further prepare the track and pay close attention to many other details, with the result that everything will be found in appropiate order for next Sunday.

The programme will open with a cycle road race of 8 miles from Lismore around Cappoquin Bridge and finishing near the Christian Brothers' Schools, in Lismore, so that this is an event which nobody should miss. Large entries have been received from all the leading novice "fliers" in West Waterford and a great race is bound to be the result.

In addition, several other cycling races will be held over the specially-prepared grass track in the Gaelic field, and with all the most popular items in running, jumping, weight-throwing, etc., also figuring on the programme, a regular feast of enjoyment should be witnessed.

At the District Court, last week, Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, applied for, and was granted, an Area Exemption Order, for the day, which will enable all the licensed premises in the town to open from 1 o'clock to 2.30, and from 6.30 to 8 o'clock, in the evening.

Waterford County Board of Public Assistance

ANNUAL MEETING.

The Annual General Meeting of the above, was held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Wednesday, for the purpose of electing a Chairman for the ensuing year. Mr. M. Curran, Vice-Chairman, presided. The others present were—Messrs. P. Caulfield, T. Dunne, D. Coughlan, W. Stack, T. Synnot, Jas O'Donovan, Jas. Casgrave, J. Butler.

Election Of Chairman

Mr. O'Donovan, proposed, that the outgoing Chairman, Ald. T. D. Connolly be re-elected.

Mr. Synnot, seconded. Mr. Stack, proposed, Mr. D. Coughlan for the Chair.

Mr. Coughlan—I do not intend to go forward.

Ald. Connolly was then appointed. Vice-Chairman.

On the proposition of Mr. Dunne, seconded by Mr. Caulfield, the outgoing Vice-Chairman, Mr. M. Curran, was re-appointed Vice-Chairman.

Travelling Allowance.

Mr. O'Donovan, referred to the refusal of the Department, to sanction his travelling allowance, stating that he had attended 91 per cent. of the meetings since he was appointed in June, 1931.

No action was taken, as the members held that payment could not be made until the act was changed.

Financial Statement.

The monthly financial statement showed a credit balance of £6,490 8s. 9d., at the end of the month.

Services Dispensed With.

The Matron, reported that, Augustine Walsh, attendant, Idiot ward, Co. Home, went off duty without permission, on the 14th inst., leaving the patients without anyone in charge.

The Secretary in reply to a member, said this man was cautioned before.

The Board unanimously decided to dispense with his services.

Porter's Lodge.

The Board decided to put in a new concrete floor in the kitchen of above also to purchase a new range and to replace a window.

Painting Wards.

Mr. Jephson, reported the probable cost of painting wards in the Co. Hospital was £50.

The Board decided to have the work carried out by direct labour, so that only the best material would be used.

Home Assistance.

Mr. Phelan, Home Assistance Officer, reported the amount of Home Assistance paid out during the month as £2,491 1s. 7d., for the previous month the amount was £2,368 12s. 5d., and for the corresponding period last year, £1,898 4s. 8d.

Dispensary Residence.

The Board directed the Engineer to make an inspection of the Ardmore Dispensary Residence, which Dr. Foley, reported required repairs.

Site For Dispensary.

Mr. Spreadborough, submitted a plan of the proposed new Dispensary. The Secretary said he wrote for the price of the site at Fair Lane to Mrs. O'Meara, the price is £60 for an area of 40 feet frontage by 60 feet depth.

Mr. Caulfield—In the city of Waterford we can get the best of land for building purposes at £100 an acre.

Chairman—I have no objection to the site, but I object to the price.

Mr. Stack—Adjourn it for a month or two, there is no hurry at all. The offer was rejected.

Increase Of Salary.

The Department of Local Government and Public Health, wrote regarding the Board's proposal to increase the salary of Assistance Officer, Broderick, by £20 a year, on the grounds of the increase in the duties of Mr. Broderick since his appointment. They asked to be furnished with a report showing in what respect Mr. Broderick's duties had been increased.

The Secretary was asked to give the required information.

Relief Grant.

The Department also wrote regarding the grant made available by the Dail, of £100,000, for the children of persons who are in receipt of Home Assistance. The amount which will be allocated to Waterford city and county under the scheme is £4,642. They requested the Board to submit a scheme for the distribution of milk to these children.

The letter was referred to the Superintendent Assistance Officer for a report on the best means of working the scheme.

Sewer From Co. Home.

Mr. Butler asked if there was any communication from the Department regarding the sewer from the County Home.

Secretary—No.

Mr. Butler—I am very disappointed with the delay. There is a very large stretch of street which is in a bad way for sewerage and it is being held up.

Mr. Caulfield—I thought that work was finished.

Wireless Set.

An account from Mr. Doyle, Waterford, for the sum of £41 5s., for a wireless set £28, and two loud speakers £6 12s. 6d., were supplied to the Co. Hospital, Waterford, was before the meeting.

Secretary—They got a new loud-speaker at the County Home for £2 19s. 6d.

Mr. Caulfield—I understood at first that this would be installed for £25 or £26.

The Board decided to purchase two loud-speakers, cost not to exceed £3 each.

The Late Bishop.

Ven. Archdeacon Byrne, P.P., wrote thanking the Board for resolution of sympathy passed on the occasion of the death of the late Bishop Hackett.

Cruelty To Children.

The Board decided to grant the usual annual sum, £5, to the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

An Inquiry.

David Power, Portlaw, wrote and appeared later before the Board, demanding an inquiry into the conduct of Nurse Leahy (Midwife), Portlaw Dispensary District, while attending his wife at her confinement. His wife died leaving four children.

The Board decided not to go into the case until next meeting, and that Dr. Walker, Nurse Leahy, and Nurse Foley, be asked to attend the meeting, as well as four other women, who Mr. Power said should also be allowed to attend.

CRICKET.

CAPPOQUIN V. CAHIR.

Cappoquin Cricket Club had its first home match for this season on Saturday, when they played Cahir C.C., on their splendid new ground at Kiltree, under glorious summer weather conditions. Cahir travelled with a rather weak team, while Cappoquin was also without the services of Captain T. O. Jameson, Mr. Ion Villiers-Stuart and other prominent players, and after an interesting match of two innings each, the home team won by 36 runs, Captain Maxwell, Cappoquin, (23 runs), and Col. Seymour, Cahir, (15, not out) being the highest scorers of the day.

Cappoquin is travelling to Cahir to play the return match on next Saturday afternoon.

In two home-and-home matches played against Lismore, Cappoquin won both on the scores of 53 to 49, and 54 to 52 runs, respectively, J. McCarthy, Cappoquin, being not out for 16 in the last match.

CRICKET IN CAPPOQUIN.

Hearne's XI., Waterford, will travel to Cappoquin on Saturday, 23rd inst., to play the local Cricket Club, this being the first meeting of these Clubs this year.

The new grounds in Kiltree demense have undergone a special preparation for the event, and a most interesting match may be looked forward to. Play starts at 3 o'clock (S.T.) Admission is only 6d.

Kilmathomas News.

POPULAR CITIZEN'S BEREAVEMENT.

The deepest sympathy of the people of these parts is extended to Mr. Richard Good, Accountant, Provincial Bank, Kilmathomas, in his bereavement, occasioned by the death of his mother, at Bandon, recently at the age of 89 years.

OBIT.

Profund sorrow was evinced throughout the whole wide parishes on the 13th inst., when it became known that Mrs. Mahony, Cullinaghorna (Clonea parish), had passed away during the early hours of that morning.

The deceased lady, who had reached an advanced age, was universally beloved by the people of her native Clonea and at Clonea, for her warm and affectionate disposition. It could be truly said of her that she had not an enemy. To her bereaved family and a wide circle of relatives the deepest sympathy is offered.

Her funeral to Clonea Parish Church on Thursday evening of last week, was extremely large. High Mass of Requiem presided over by Very Rev. James Canon Wall, P.P., Rathgormack, Clonea, was celebrated on the following morning, after which the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery amid many manifestations of profound grief.

The late Mrs. Mahony was mother of Mrs. John Croty, licensed vintner, Leamybrien, Kilsrossary. We respectfully add ours to the many messages of condolence tendered.—R.I.P.

VACATIONISTS.

Since the appearance of our previous number, it was our joy to meet friends Ned McCarthy and Harry Moore—both of the staff of the "Belfast Telegraph." Ned is a son of our esteemed neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCarthy (licensed vintner) Ballynane, with whom he and Harry is wholly "Belfastian," and he was never before further south than Dublin, where Ned and himself were of the mighty multitude in attendance at the momentous ceremonies enacted at the closing day of the recent Congress. They are inseparable pals, and both are faring finely together in the sphere of their similar activities.

Miss Sarah Andrews, the well-known Cork artist; Miss Fitzgerald, a London novelist of note, and Mr. Capelli, the African financier, with his wife, Mrs. Capelli, are amongst a number of holidayists at Bonmahon, who are keenly interested in the working of the electrically-operated mineral diving apparatus employed by Professor Broughton-Edge, the London geologist and mining engineer, who is now conducting an inspection of the copper-impregnated area on behalf of an Anglo-Australian Company, contemplating the re-opening of the old workings.

R.I.P. The sad tidings of the death (as the result of an accident) of Mrs. John O'Shea, of London, which has just taken place, came as a great shock to the people of Faha, Kilmathomas, the native district of her sorrow-stricken husband, who has the unfeigned sympathy of all in his heavy loss.

BEING BUILT.

Mr. R. B. Nolan, builder, Waterford, has a number of his employees now engaged at the work of erecting a residence for the priest at Kilmathomas. The new house is being built on a site adjoining the Kilmathomas-Newtown road and convenient to the Mercy Convent. The structure, when completed, will lend an additional charm to the scene.

BY SPECIAL REQUEST.

Kilmathomas Dramatic Club will, by special request, again face the footlights at the local Hall on to-morrow (Sunday) night, in aid of the fund for the building of the priest's house in the town. This will be good news for those who were unable to be present at the previous excellent productions of this capital company. The repeat performance will be supported by a select concertal card, and it is confidently expected that a bumper house will favour the fixture. By the way our Dramatic Club, has received an invitation from the Tramore Development Association to give a performance at the Palace Cinema (kindly lent by Mr. Berni), during the season in aid of the Life Guards at Tramore. The invitation has been accepted. This is a fine tribute to our Club, indeed.

OUR ADVERTISERS.

Mr. John Rowe, motor garage and coach factory proprietor, Lalor's Cross, Kilmathomas, has a striking advt. in connection with his newly-opened two-part business concern appearing elsewhere in this copy. Please peruse same and tell your friends about it. thank you.

OUR ADVERTISERS.

Many people are now taking advantage of the further all-round reductions announced by Messrs. D. O'Reilly and Sons, Victuallers, Kilmathomas, whose establishment has been noted for the excellence of its meat for a considerable number of years. As on previous occasions, Messrs. O'Reilly, are first in the advt. field to broadcast a cutting down of prices whenever a slump in fat stock gives the opportunity of benefitting the public in so praiseworthy a manner. They are not afraid to advertise, and if others will emulate their admirable action, why—the newly-appointed Government Food Prices' Commission will have no need to carry on. Full details of Messrs. O'Reilly's interesting statement appear in the advt. columns of this issue.

A KILMAC MAN ABROAD.

His troops and legions of friends in Kilmathomas will be glad to hear that Jim ("Lar") Scurry, who left his native sod for the States about 12 years ago, is doing very well in the land of his adoption, despite the very depressing times which are being experienced in America lately. Recently, Jimp passed an examination for an important and lucrative New York City post, and expects to receive his appointment thereto in the near future. Jim is a son of Mr. William Scurry, baker, Railway Street, Kilmathomas, and prior to his departure to Uncle Sam's clime, he was a member of the good old local cavan Club—the "Boys of the Black, White and Green." Soon after his arrival "over there," he threw in his lot with the New York-Waterford G.A.A. Club. No later than last year, when playing against Galway at Innisfail Park, New York, Jim scored the winning point for Waterford. We wish him further success and good luck in the sphere of the Stars and Stripes, and hope some day, to see him back in Mahon-valley, amongst the pals of his teens and early twenties.

INTERESTING POINT FOR NET FISHERMEN.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, The Fishery Conservators summoned four fishermen from Fiddown district, named Jas. Dunne, Jas. Murphy, Jas. Burne, and Patk. King, for fishing on the Suir with an unlicensed net.

The evidence showed that there was a license in the name of John Hayes, who used to fish with three of the defendants. Hayes had gone to work on the railway and the men retained the license and fished on it.

Hayes stated to the Justice, that he had given the defendants authority to fish on the license.

Mr. Power, solr., for the defendants held that the men were within their rights in fishing.

Mr. Verrington, solr., for the Fishery Conservators, said that was nonsense. If that was so one rod would do for the whole river Suir. Furthermore, it would mean that in cases where a man has a license and has three nets on the river he would have to licence each net.

The Justice said he would like to look into the points raised on both sides.

Mr. Verrington said if the four defendants would take out a new licence that week the case would be dropped.

Mr. Power said the men had had Hayes a share of the £2 10s., that had been paid for the licence in Hayes's name. The season would expire on the 15th August, and it would not be fair to ask them to take out a new licence.

It was decided to adjourn the case to give defendants an opportunity of taking out a new licence.

ATTRACTIONS AT DROMANA.

On Thursday August 18th, a varied and attractive programme of amusements will be held in Dromana, including Aeroplane flights; aerial stunts; Balloon races; Clay-pigeon shootings; Ladies Cricket match; Cycle race and endless side Shows. The performance will be in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Villiers Stuart, assisted by Mr. M. J. Sargent, Cappoquin.

BAND PROGRAMMES.

Sunday 24th July, at the Park, at 8.30 p.m. March "Colonel Bogey"; Afford; Waltz "Moonlight"; Overture "Poet and Peasant"; Entr'acte "Melodie D'Amour"; Selection "Gems from Maritana"; Waltz "Land of Dreams"; March "San Lorenza."

Wednesday 27th July, on the Square, at 8.30 p.m.—March "On the Quarter Deck"; Waltz "The Quaker Girl"; Selection "Old Ireland"; Serenade "La Paloma"; One-Step "Community Medley"; Waltz "River of Pearls"; March "Hoch Halesburg"; National Anthem. Conductor—M. J. McHugh.

G.A.A.

At the Gaelic Field on 8th inst., Dungarvan (Eire Oge) beat Cappoquin in junior Football championship by 4-3 to 1-3.

Death of Most Rev. Dr. O'Connor.

BISHOP OF ARMDALE.
A GREAT PIONEER BISHOP.

Tanto Viro nullum par elogium— the deserts of a man so great a beggar praise—is the epitaph on the monument raised to the memory of Machiavelli, an encomium which, whilst it is unmerited by that revolutionary genius, finds just and well-deserved application in the case of the late widely-beloved Bishop of Armadale. Dr. O'Connor was a stalwart, tireless and magnificent pioneer, a leader amongst those who did the spade work that has made the Catholic Church in Australia the splendid organisation that it is to-day.

For nearly sixty years he worked with undaunted courage, tireless energy and unflagging zeal for the good of religion, and the welfare of his people so much so that it was a source of wonderment to all, that he reached such an advanced age—eighty-three last Christmas Day—and maintained such wonderful health despite those long years of toil and care, of hardships and worry. He has gone with a long record of extraordinary work and yeoman service to his credit.

Bishop O'Connor went to Armadale in dark and evil days, days that are now matter for the historian's pen. The record of these days will probably appear later on in history's pages and these pages will be stained by the narration of foul deeds and malicious plots hatched by venal and inimical minds to injure religion in Armadale's early days. Into this unpleasant turmoil, after weary months of sea travel aboard a wind-jammer, entered the young exile, Father Patrick Joseph O'Connor, and his heart must have been encased in "brass and triple oak" that he was able and strong-willed enough to endure the heart-breaking trials that beset his youthful path, but his motto in these years, as ever after, was that of the Old Crusaders—"Dieu le Veut," it is God's Will, and with the glory of God as his beacon light, and the Cross his consolation—his episcopal motto was—"In cruce vita, in cruce vita"—he forged ahead and blazed the trail of religion in the distant colony of New South Wales. Having once put his hand to the plough he never looked back though sorely tempted at times to do so.

What is sown in tears is reaped in joy has certainly been verified in the life of Bishop O'Connor. Back to 1877 is a far cry and every one of those years has been made fruitful by his giant labours the fruits of which are so evident to-day. In those distant days Armadale was a diocese in little else than in name, an extent of territory far larger in area than Ireland. It was unorganised, unequipped and with only a very sparse population scattered here and there. The few small insignificant churches of these early days have been replaced by numerous beautiful structures several of them stately edifices. Every town and village, every country place even with a small Catholic population has its neat and well-equipped Church, and in the building of each and everyone of these he had a hand even before the time of his episcopate for practically from the beginning he had been Adviser, Administrator and Vicar General to his revered predecessor Bishop Lorrigan. He was then widely known and lovingly referred to as Dean O'Connor, or the Dean and even after he became Bishop he was still spoken of by the old bushmen, whose hearts he had won in the pioneering days, as Dean O'Connor.

In the course of development a large portion of Armadale diocese was cut off and became the new diocese of Lismore, with Dr. Doyle its first Bishop. The new Bishop was an ex-Mellera student, who had gone to Australia at the same time as Dr. O'Connor. The Diocese of Armadale after the division and as it remains to-day, is about co-extensive with Ireland in area. This in particular was the scene of his labours, and the recipient of his benefactions. The amount of money he collected for Church buildings, Convents and Schools runs into hundreds of thousands so much so that he was frequently called "the best beggar in Australia." Even outside his own diocese whenever he was present—and that was often—at the inauguration of any Church building, he was generally called upon to make the appeal for donations, for his appeal always drew a generous response and deservedly so, for his own generous heart and lavish hand were always open to the call of charity. People often wondered where he got all the money he gave away. Single donations of his were sometimes reckoned by thousands. One of his first episcopal acts was the building of a beautiful Gothic Cathedral, which is the pride of Armadale, and the mecca of all visitors to the Cathedral city, and that edifice he opened free of debt. To collect that money many a weary mile did he travel. Into the bushman's hut and navies' camp, into the farmer's home, and squatter's homestead he went. In each and all he was welcomed, and the refusals he met with were few or none at all.

miration of all who see it. A first-class boarding-school, a palace are some of the epithets bestowed on it by visitors. At the time of his death he saw housed and educated there close on 150 orphans, each and all of whom loved him with all a child's love for a benevolent father, a love that was returned ten-fold by the dear old Bishop. He loved to speak of those poor children and several times a week did he visit them until stricken down by his last illness. On his arrival at Armadale there were but two little Catholic schools in the vast diocese, comprising as it did then the present diocese of Lismore, one at Armadale and the other at Grafton, with a handful of children in each. As he leaves it to-day the diocese is literally studded with well-equipped, capably-staffed schools, imparting eminently satisfactory courses of instruction, secular and religious to many thousands of children. These schools are in the hands of the Ursuline and Dominican Nuns, the Sisters of Mercy, and Josephites, the De La Salle and Christian Brothers. One of the Bishop's big projects towards the end of his life and one which he gladly saw realised a few years ago was the building of the beautiful De La Salle College at Armadale, a College that is second to none in the land. The existing portion cost £20,000 and another section costing another £20,000 is to be added before the original plan is complete.

If his work was blessed by God materially it was favoured even more munificently in spiritual things. "By their fruits you shall know them." Taking this as our calculus, we can form some idea of the work and worth of the late-lamented Bishop. The result of his labours is very evident in the triumphant state of religion, the deep devotion of the people of the diocese, the large numbers regularly frequenting the Sacraments. His exemplary life, his great piety, prudence, and zeal, his far-seeing wisdom will remain even long after his death as a source of edification, and an object of admiration to all who knew him. To meet him and greet him on his entrance into Eternity there surely was the recording Angel's list of those numerous wearsome journeys of seventy and eighty miles on horse-back to sick calls, those lonely nights spent out in the wild Australian bush, with the gum trees for a roof and the saddle for a pillow, the tiresome days passed under a sweltering Australian sun on his way to some little bark-roofed bush Church, to say Mass for a handful of Catholics and bring the consolation of religion to those lonely exiles. No wonder he was known far and wide throughout Australia as the "Bush Bishop." Many are the instances of God's marvellous grace and mercy, to the dying he was able to relate as the result of his Apostolic visits to the death-beds of the straying sheep.

His humility and his attachment to the field of his early labours was evidenced when the Archbishopric of Brisbane became vacant on the death of the late Dr. Dunne. Dr. O'Connor was acutely appointed by Rome to fill the vacancy. He pleaded hard to be allowed to remain as he was giving the reasons for his choice and remain he was allowed to the great joy of the people of Armadale. He was specially dear not only to the clergy and people of his own diocese, but to countless others far afield. His visits even to the homes of many non-Catholics was a source of joy and delight. The marvellous memory which he was reputed to have had was evidenced by the fact that he knew even by name practically every Catholic in his extensive diocese.

The grand old Crusader has passed away. The Bush Bishop has gone to his reward. He was one of Ireland's choicest gifts to the Land of the Southern Cross. He was a credit and a source of pride to his native land, and an honour to the Church he served so well. May his noble soul rest in peace.

Bishop O'Connor was born at Clonea, Dungarvan, County Waterford, on Christmas Day, 1849. He came of a very old and highly-respected family in the historic Decies, a family that had before and has since given many sons and daughters to the service of God in religion. His brother was the late Parish Priest of Ballyduff, Rev. David O'Connor. The names of the Father Meanys Pat, Joe and Garrett, his uncles, are still household words in the Diocese of Waterford. He succeeded in the Episcopate by a life-long friend and devoted priest, Right Rev. J. A. Coleman, D.P.H., D.D. Dr. Coleman, was very attached to the Bishop, and most attentive to him in his last illness. Dr. Coleman is the son of Mr. William Coleman, of Mount Mellera, and was elected as co-adjutor Bishop of Armadale, in 1928. He now succeeds his deeply-lamented and beloved Bishop. There was a high Mass for the repose of Bishop O'Connor's soul at Modeligo, on Thursday, at 11.30. This Parish is presided over by Very Rev. M. Carroll, P.P., who is a nephew of the late Bishop. Rev. D. Carroll and Rev. P. Walsh, both of Armadale diocese are also his nephews.

Charge of Alleged 'Welshing' at Lismore.

LIMERICK BOOKMAKER IN TROUBLE

At Lismore District Court, before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L., a respectable looking man, named Thomas Kelly, whose address was given as 13, Davis Street, Limerick, was charged in custody at the suit of Supt. Sean Quinlan, Lismore, with the larceny by a trick of the sum of 15/-, from Guard D. O'Connell, Ballyduff, and the larceny by similar means of the sum of 2/6 from Patrick Cahill, Cook Street Cappoquin.

The incidents which led to the charges against Kelly, took place at the Lismore Point-to-Point Races on April 6th, 1932, when accused under the name of "T. O'Sullivan, Limerick" acted as Bookmaker, on the course, and took two bets from Guard O'Connell, and Patk. Cahill, of 15/- and 2/6 respectively, on a horse called "Brown Ben" in the last race, but after the horse had won and when the two "lucky" backers went to the Bookmaker's stand to draw their winnings, Kelly and his clerk had disappeared, and no trace of them could be found on the course afterwards.

Kelly was arrested on a warrant in his lodgings, 13, Davis Street, Limerick, on Monday, 11th inst., and conveyed to Lismore from where he was later removed to Cork gaol, after being remanded in custody by Mr. A. Hickey, P.C., Lismore.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore now appeared for the accused. Supt. Quinlan, in opening the case, said since coming into Court, he had received a communication from the Revenue Authorities asking to have accused further remanded as they were about to take further proceedings against him for having acted as a Bookmaker without a licence on the date in question.

Mr. O'Gorman objected to a further remand, and asked to have the case proceeded with now, as any proceedings which took place that day would not prejudice in any way any proceedings which the Revenue Authorities may take afterwards, as they were two separate cases altogether.

Supt. Quinlan not persisting in his application, the Justice decided to take the depositions, and the Supt. then examined Guard Daniel O'Connell, Ballyduff, Co. Waterford, who stated that on April, 6th, 1932, he was at Lismore Point-to-Point Races, and saw the defendant carrying on the business of Bookmaker on the course. He had the usual stand and betting-board with the name "T. O'Sullivan, Limerick," on it, and in the last race witness made a bet of 15/-, even money on the horse named "Brown Ben." He got the usual ticket bearing the name of "T. O'Sullivan, Limerick," which was now produced and attached to the deposition.

Supt.—What induced you to make this bet with accused? Witness, I thought he was a genuine bookmaker, and he was offering even money about "Brown Ben" while all the other bookies were asking 6 to 4 on the horse.

Witness added that "Brown Ben" won the race, but when he went to draw his money, the accused had disappeared. He searched for him around the course, but could find no trace of him, and he had not received his money since.

In reply to the Supt., witness said there was nothing either on accused's board or ticket to show his true name.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Gorman—Witness said he had later received a letter from the accused promising to pay the amount when he had got the money, and witness replied that he was not pressing him for the money, as he had been informed by the Sergt. in Limerick, that he (accused) was rather badly off.

Patrick Cahill, Cappoquin, gave similar evidence about his bet of 2/6 with accused on "Brown Ben" for the last race. He received the usual ticket bearing the name "T. O'Sullivan, Limerick," and when he went back after the race had been won by "Brown Ben" there was no trace of accused, although he searched the course for a quarter of an hour for him.

He had not got back his money nor heard anything from accused since.

Mr. O'Gorman—Would you be glad if you got your money back now?

Witness—Of course I would, if I got 5/- (laughter).

Guard Patrick Vaughan, Limerick, stated that he knew the accused for the past 3 years, and knew that he was not a licensed Bookmaker last April.

In consequence of reports reaching the Limerick Guards, that some bookmakers giving Limerick addresses had taken bets at the Lismore races on April 6th, and had not paid back their clients, he went to interview the accused at his lodgings in Limerick on April 22nd. He asked him if he had been at Lismore Races on April 6th and he admitted that he had. He then duly cautioned accused, and asked him if he had a Bookmaker's licence on that day, and he said that he had not.

Witness then got from accused a Bookmaker's licence in the name of a man named Carew, and asked him if he had acted in the name of "T. O'Sullivan, Limerick," at Lismore and he admitted that he had. Witness then asked him about a bet of 15/- made with him by Guard O'Connell, and he replied that he would pay that all right when he had the money, that he was hard hit at Lismore races and was hardly able to pay the car hire home, but he would write to Guard

O'Connell and fix the matter up with him all right.

Witness was then handed one of accused's betting tickets which bore at the bottom the telephone number, "469," and was asked if that was accused's number?

Witness produced a telephone directory and said the number "469" was the number of Mr. Thomas E. O'Donnell, Solicitor, Limerick, whose private address was 2, Clougrennan Terrace, Ennis Road, Limerick.

Continuing, witness said that on Monday, 11th July, he arrested accused on a warrant and having read out the charges to him and cautioned him, accused replied—"I explained all that to you before. I have a letter in my pocket from Guard O'Connell and I will pay him when I have the money."

In reply to Mr. O'Gorman, witness said that he had known nothing against accused's character for the past 5 or 6 years. He had been formerly drapers' assistant, but had been mixed up with horse racing for several years past. He could not say if accused had ever worked with a Bookmaker named Carew, whose licence was now produced.

Sergt. John Kavanagh, Lismore, said accused was conveyed from Limerick to Lismore on Monday, 11th inst., and when charged and cautioned by witness he replied, "All right. I'll say nothing."

The Justice at this stage said he was inclined to remand the accused for a fortnight to Cappoquin District Court, but Mr. O'Gorman asked him to finish the case now, as he could do so owing to the amount being involved being under £20.

The Justice, however, adhered to his decision, and Mr. O'Gorman applied that accused be admitted to bail in the meantime.

The Justice—What have you to say to that Supt.?

Supt.—I will not object to bail provided he gets two solvent sureties of £20 each.

Mr. O'Gorman said that unfortunately, his client could not get sureties in Lismore, where he was unknown, but he had informed him that he could get them in Cork, and gave the name of a prominent Cork Bookmaker who would go surety for him.

Accused was then remanded to Cork gaol, the Justice saying that he could be released on bail on finding two sureties in the sum of £25 each, but the Guards in Cork should be fully satisfied as to the solvency of such sureties.

MIDDLETON DISTRICT GRADAI V. DUNGARVAN DISTRICT GARDAI

One of the most interesting games played at the popular Piltown venue during recent years came off on Thursday evening between the above teams. Weather conditions were not too favourable, nevertheless the rain failed to damp the ardour of the players and the enthusiasm of the spectators. The game aroused great local interest and it is hoped that it is only the prelude to many more matches between those worthy exponents of the Gaelic code. Supt. Dennehy, Middleton, and Supt. O'Shea, Dungarvan, were interested spectators of the game and it is largely due to the fine sporting qualities of those two popular officers and their untiring efforts to cater for the social amenities of their men that the game was promoted. Sergt. Duggan, was Captain of the Co. Cork team and Sergt. Clancy of the Co. Waterford.

Dungarvan won the toss and were first away. However, they found the Middleton defence very sound, and play for the first quarter was confined to midfield. From a free well placed by McDyer, Middleton opened the scoring with a goal. At this stage Middleton had the best of matters. Sergts. Byrne, Donoghue and Duggan, showing up conspicuously in attack, and McDyer, Griffin and Fleming made a great defence. Dungarvan rallied once more and Sergt. Mangan, placing well for Sergt. O'Shea, the latter raised the white flag for Dungarvan. Play was again at midfield where Lynch and Kelleher did well for Dungarvan, while Sergt. Clancy and Guard O'Leary repelled attacks by the Middleton forwards. Sergt. Donoghue again receiving from Sergt. Byrne, scored a point for Middleton. At the interval the score stood—

MIDDLETON—1 goal 1 point.

DUNGARVAN—1 goal 1 point.

Resuming, Middleton broke away, but were held up by O'Leary and Mangan placing for Sheehan, the latter scoring a point for Dungarvan. Middleton followed with two points by Guard P. J. O'Connor and D.O. Slain, and a point from Sergt. Donoghue, while Dungarvan replied by a point from Mangan, and a goal and a point from Lynch. Generally speaking the Middleton District Gardaí appeared the better team and on the run of the play Dungarvan was lucky, when the long whistle sounded, leaving the result of a well-fought game a draw, as follows—

MIDDLETON—1 goal 4 points.

DUNGARVAN—1 goal 4 points.

WORST ON RECORD.

NO TRADE AT YOUGHAL FAIR

Youghal July Fair, on Monday, was an easy worst record, being described as a complete wash-out. Very little stuff was brought in, buyers were few and business practically nil. The few finished beasts offered, were bought for home markets at enhanced prices, as a result of the tariffs. Generally speaking, it was like an ordinary business day in town.

Lismore District Court.

LAND COMMISSION CASES.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

Several adjourned cases at the suit of the Irish Land Commission against a number of farmers for arrears of land annuities having been called, Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, said he had been asked by Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, Dungarvan, to apply to have all these cases struck out of the books, and the Justice struck them all out.

Tallow Ejectment Cases.

A number of ejectment cases at the suit of Dr. Eaton Waters, Conna Weir, Tallow, against various weekly tenants, in Tallow, which had been several times adjourned, were now called. At the first hearing of these cases some months ago it was stated that the property of certain weekly tenement houses in Tallow had been purchased by Dr. Eaton Waters, from the Lismore Estate Co., in March last year, several of the tenants being then in arrears to the Lismore Estate Co., while further arrears had since accrued in the cases of some of the tenants.

The first case called was at the suit of Dr. Eaton Waters, against Michael Willoughby, Tallow.

Mr. Anthony Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared for plaintiff; and Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, defended.

Michael Conway, rent collector, Tallow, gave evidence of having served notice to quit on the defendant early in February this year and demanding possession of the premises on Feb. 19th, which defendant refused to give up. The rent of the house was 3/6 per week, and defendant owed £24 2s. 6d., to March 14th.

The Justice asked what amount did defendant owe up to the time the notice to quit was served, and witness replied that he owed £23 1s. 6d., to February 1st. Witness added that as the defendant was an old man he did not wish to evict him and had offered him the choice of one of three other houses at a cheaper rent, 2/6 per week, but he had refused to accept this offer.

Mr. Hodnett said the defence in this case was that defendant was being charged an excessive rent, and produced a letter written by Mr. Conway on behalf of Willoughby in March last year to the Lismore Estate Co., demanding a refund of the sum of £8 13s. 4d., the amount of excess rent paid by him. Mr. Hodnett added that he had served notice on Mr. Carroll, solr., on April 21st this year, to produce certain documents from the Lismore Estate Co., which would show that Willoughby had been charged an excessive rent, but he had not yet received those documents from Mr. Carroll, and he now called for their production.

Mr. Carroll said he was not going to produce any such document, as he had witnesses and books from the rent office of Lismore Castle here to-day, and these should be sufficient for all Mr. Hodnett's requirements.

After some legal argument between Messrs. Hodnett and Carroll, the Justice said he believed that Mr. Hodnett was entitled to the information sought and he further adjourned the case to the next Lismore Court.

In the case of the same plaintiff against John Barry, West Street, Tallow, in which the same solicitors were engaged, Mr. Conway, rent collector, stated defendant held the house at a rent of 4/6 per week and owed £2 7/6, to the 1st February, last. He had been served with the usual notice to quit, but had refused to give up possession.

Mr. Hodnett said he was surprised to see Mr. Carroll going on with this case to-day, as it had been already settled between him and Mr. Edmond Carroll, Mr. A. Carroll's son, who was acting for Dr. Waters when the case was previously before the Court.

Mr. Carroll, solr., said that his son, Edmond, had not authority from him nor from the plaintiff to make any such settlement, and he asked to have the case disposed of now.

Mr. Hodnett—it seems an extraordinary thing to have Mr. Carroll, senr., standing up now and repudiating an agreement made with me by Mr. Carroll, junr., and under the circumstances, I will ask your worship to adjourn this case for a month until Mr. Edmond Carroll will be here.

The Justice said that as it was Mr. Edmond Carroll, who had previously appeared for Dr. Waters in all those cases it would be more satisfactory to adjourn the case for his attendance in view of what Mr. Hodnett had stated, and the case was accordingly adjourned for a month.

A similar order was made in the case of Dr. Eaton Waters, against John Lynch, junr., West Street, Tallow, after a rather heated exchange of remarks between Mr. Carroll and Mr. Hodnett, the former saying that as Mr. Hodnett was not engaged in the case he had no right to interfere.

Unlicensed Motor Car.

Guard Martin, Lismore, summoned Daniel Devitt, Ladyswell, Limerick, for using a motor car on which the licence had not been paid.

Defendant appeared and explained that he had two cars, but one of them got wrecked in an accident last March, and as the licence period for this car had still a considerable period to run he thought he could use it for the second car, but he had no intention to commit any fraud in the matter.

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, said that the Guards in Cashel, had borne out defendant's statement, and he was let off with a fine of 1/-. The same complainant summoned James Parsons, for driving the same car without a driver's licence.

Mr. Devitt, the owner of the car, said it was he had asked Parsons to drive the car for him on that day, as he had no other driver available.

Parsons had been previously a licensed driver, but had given up the job and was now employed about horses, and he only obliged him by driving for him on that day. A fine of 1/- was imposed.

Guard Martin, summoned Jeremiah Canning, Waterpark, for using a motor car on which there was no identification plate, and he was fined 5/-.

Crockery Broken.

Guard Collins, Lismore, summoned John Herlihy, Main Street, Lismore, for drunkenness on the 16th June.

Complainant said that in consequence of a report received by him, he went to defendant's house, and found the kitchen floor littered with broken crockery, which Mrs. Herlihy stated had been broken by defendant.

As witness was leaving the house, he met the defendant, who was drunk, and he took him to the barrack.

Defendant stated that he had a row with his wife that evening over some money matters, and as she had no dinner ready for him when he went home, he lost his temper and broke a few cups and saucers.

Mr. O'Gorman, solr., who appeared for defendant, said he had hitherto borne a very good character, and asked that he be leniently dealt with, as his wife was the cause of the whole trouble on this occasion.

The Justice (to defendant)—Would you like to be let off, now?

Defendant—Begor, I would, sir, (laughter).

The Justice—Very well; I will let you off with a caution this time, but take care don't break any more crockery in future, (laughter).

Area Exemption Order.

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, applied for an Area Exemption Order for Lismore on Sunday, July, 24th, when there would be a Novices' Sports meeting held in the town.

He mentioned that he had been granted a similar order for Sunday, July, 3rd., but owing to unfavourable weather conditions on that day the Sports had to be postponed until Sunday, 24th inst.

The order was granted, the hours of opening of the licensed premises being from 1 p.m. to 2.30, and from 6.30 to 8 o'clock p.m.

Civil Bills.

A number of undefended Civil Bills, in which Mr. O'Gorman, solr., appeared for the plaintiffs, were disposed of, decrees for the full amount being granted, except in some cases where the debts had since been paid and where only decrees for costs were applied for.

SOLARIO SOLD FOR 47,000 GUINEAS

FAMOUS STALLION THAT MAY YET EARN £100,000.

Solario, the famous stallion which has been described as the "horse of the century," and which commands a fee of £500, was sold by auction at the Second July Bloodstock Sales at Park Paddocks, Newmarket, and realised 47,000 guineas.

The horse was purchased by Lord Glanville on behalf of a syndicate, and will remain in England.

The sale was by order of the executors of the late Colonel Sir John Rutherford, and was subject to the thirty-seven contracts already arranged for next season.

Forty-seven thousand guineas is the highest price ever recorded for a race-horse at public auction. The previous record was the 37,000 guineas paid by M. E. Blanc, for the triple-crown winner, Flying Fox, at the sale of the late Duke of Westminster's bloodstock at Kingsclere in 1900.

Horses have been sold privately for much bigger sums than that. It was stated that the St. Leger winner Tracery changed hands for £53,000 to Senor Unzué, of Buenos Aires, and that Captain Cuttle's purchase price was £50,000 when he went to Italy a few years ago. Both these horses had proved themselves at the stud before their sale.

Sir William Bass gave 31,500 guineas for Cylene, and King Edward's Derby winner, Diamond Jubilee, is reputed to have changed hands also for 31,500 guineas.

Sir Hugo Cunliffe-Owen, declined £100,000 from America for Felstead, the Derby winner.

Mr. J. B. Joel, paid £20,000 for Prince Palatine the day before the five-year-old was unexpectedly beaten in the Goodwood Cup, and Mr. Mallaby Deely, gave £60,000 for his brother's Derby winner, Call Boy.

Solario is a ten-year-old horse by Gainsborough—Sun Worship. A ten-year-old stallion is, of course, a depreciating asset—the average life of a horse is twenty years—but with thirty-seven nominations of 500 guineas each for next season, his purchasers can anticipate for the next four or five years an annual income of nearly £20,000.

Sir John Rutherford purchased Solario as a yearling for 3,500 guineas. He won more than £20,000 in stake money, his successes comprising the St. Leger, the Ascot Gold Cup, the Princess of Wales Stakes, and the Coronation Cup. He has sired winners of over £38,000, including Orpen, Dastur, Orta, Sunny Devon, Rose en Soleil, Andrea, and Solar Boy.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.
 (Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

Troy v. Hurton.
 This was an application for an Examination Order as to means.
 Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., for plaintiff, handed in the original decree.
 The Justice said that was a very ancient decree, dated 1929.
 Mr. Keane said his client had given defendants every chance, but they were evading service.
 The Justice said he thought there should be a fresh attempt to collect before granting the order. Subject to that he would grant it.

Decress Against Cottiers.
 The Cork Co. Board of Health, summoned a number of cottier tenants for possession, the rents being largely in arrears.
 Mr. Justin Condon, Collector, having given evidence, decree were granted.

Motor Cases.
 Sergt. Lupton, charged Michael Shanahan, Ballymacoda, with using a motor lorry registered for commercial purposes for the conveyance of passengers.

Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., for defendant.
 Complainant stated that he found the lorry with 16 passengers aboard. The case was brought under the Act of 1923.
 Having given particulars as to the size of the lorry, the lorry, etc., Mr. Hodnett said that there should be documentary evidence in view of the heavy penalties involved. He also asked what was the Sergt's authority for prosecuting.

Supt. Dennehy said there was a general authority under the Motor Car Act.
 The case was finally adjourned to next Court.
 In a similar case against J. Treacy, Kinap House, Cork, brought by Sergt. O'Beirne, which was adjourned last Court day, owing to the absence of defendant.

Defendant stated he did the journey entirely free. There was no question of a charge.
 The Justice—The passengers belonged to a club?
 Defendant—Yes, sir.
 After some arguments, the case was adjourned to next Court.
 Sergt. Lupton, charged James Lineen, Lismore, with not having a hackney plate.
 The Justice asked for a copy of the regulations dealing with the matter.
 Complainant handed up a booklet, which he said, was supplied to the Guards for instructions.

The Justice—That won't do me. I will have to get a properly certified copy.
 The case was adjourned for a week, for the production of the regulations referred to.
 A similar case against James Fitzgerald, Copley Place, Cork, was also adjourned.

Guard Stack, charged M. Collins, with not having his lorry taxed, and J. O'Donoghue, driver with not having a driver's license.
 Defendant stated it was all due to neglect.
 He was fined 30/-, and the driver 1/-.
 The same Complainant charged Michael Whelan, Dungarvan, with not carrying a hackney plate.
 Defendant said he had the car bought only one week.
 Having come from Dungarvan to answer the charge, the Justice said the case would be withdrawn.

Insurance Cases.
 James Keohane was charged with not having paid the National Health an Unemployment contributions of an employee, Bat Mangan, and also with a breach of the regulations in not returning the card.
 Mangan stated he had lost the maternity benefit in the case.
 Defendant gave evidence, and contradicted Mangan on several points.
 Mr. McNamara, Inspector, having given evidence,
 Mr. Casey said that defendant had been twice before the Court already on similar charges.
 Defendant was fined 5/- in each of the insurance cases, and 1/- for the breach of the regulations, with 10/- Court costs.

In a similar case against Patrick Power, Mr. T. K. Keane, for defendant.
 Mr. Casey said there was a settlement with a consent to a decree.
 In a similar case against James Manning, Ballymacoda.
 Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., for defendant, said the amount due had been paid.
 Mr. Casey asked to have a fine imposed. Defendant had denied that he had any workman.
 Mr. Hodnett—Why go into ancient history—Isn't the case settled?
 Defendant was fined 1/- and 8/- costs.

In a similar case against Bridget Green, Mr. Hodnett said that a cheque for the amount claimed had been sent.
 Defendant was fined 5/- and 4/- costs.

Attorney-General v. Pomphrett.
 This was a Civil Bill for £18 8s. 1d. arrears of Estate Duty and interest thereon.
 Mr. D. Casey, for plaintiff; and Mr. T. K. Keane, for defendant.
 Mr. Casey said that was a default Civil Bill in which a defence had been entered. It was a very long time due. Half the amount was for interest. If the duty were paid they would forego the interest.
 Mr. Keane said the land had been formerly valued at £300. 5 years ago it was raised to £750. The defendant neglected entering an appeal in time. If he got time he would pay the amount of duty.

 Mr. Casey said his instructions were to withdraw the case if the £9 3s. 4d., and costs were paid forthwith.
 Mr. Keane said his client was unable to pay them. He would if he got a year to do it in.
 Mr. Casey said his difficulty was that he couldn't go beyond his instructions.
 The Justice—Unless there is a consent must you not prove your case?—I have no evidence. The default in a defended case goes by default.
 Mr. Casey said it would mean bringing a witness down from Dublin and that would mean more cost on defendant.
 The Justice—You can't have a decree to-day.
 The case was adjourned for a fortnight.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

Motor Lorry Cases.
 The adjourned case of Sergt. Lupton, against Michael Shanahan, Ballymacoda, for using a lorry registered for commercial purposes for the carriage of passengers was called.
 Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., for the defence.
 Replying to the Justice, Mr. Hodnett said the h.p was 24 and Sergt. O'Beirne said it was the same in a like case against J. Tracey, Kinap House, Cork.
 Sergt. Lupton said the 30th Section of the Act of 1925 gave authority for the prosecution.
 Mr. Hodnett said that the Sergt. had cleared up the point he was in doubt about last day. That Section further gave his worship power to mitigate the penalty. It was the first case of the kind before the Court as far as he could ascertain and one of the first in any part of the country. That practice of using lorries to bring young persons to games had been going on all over the country for years past, and his client was unaware that he was committing an offence. He regretted that he had fallen foul of the law unintentionally, and would undertake not to offend again. In the circumstances he asked the Justice to exercise his discretion as regards the penalty.
 The Supt. said he didn't press for a heavy penalty. The case was simply brought to act as a warning.
 The Justice said he would give a considered judgment in the case. The matter wasn't at all as simple as it appeared. It might also be affected by the forthcoming Transport Act. He would, therefore, adjourn both cases to the first Court in August. In the circumstances the penalties would be very reasonable.

Hackney Plate Cases.
 In the adjourned cases against a number of persons for not having hackney plates on their cars, Sergt. Lupton produced a certified copy of the regulations governing hackney cars.
 A fine of 2/6 was imposed in each case.
Obtained Drink Unlawfully.
 Patrick Hickey, Youghal, farm labourer, was charged with obtaining drink by falsely representing himself as a traveller.
 Supt. Dennehy, prosecuted.
 Evidence of the offence having been given, defendant pleaded guilty.
 Replying to the Justice, he said he was unmarried and earned 10/- weekly.
 The Justice—I will fine you one week's wages.

Drunk And Disorderly.
 Sergt. Lupton, charged Denis O'Brien, Chapel Lane, with being drunk on the 25th June, and drunk and disorderly on the 2nd July.
 Complainant said they had to bring him to the barrack on both occasions. On the second occasion, he used obscene language.
 Replying to the Court, defendant said he had invested nearly all his savings in a great bird, his only companion, which he had named "John McCormack," he was such a grand singer, (laughter). But the bird died and he was so upset he put his few ha'pence to bad use. He was sorry for the trouble he had given. He had been sober for 9 months. If the Court gave him that chance, he would get a listner-in (laughter).
 Both cases were adjourned for 3 months.

Housebreaking And Larceny.
 Edward O'Brien, Old Strancally, was charged on remand, with housebreaking and larceny.
 Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, prosecuted and Mr. J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., defended.
 The Supt. said the case was adjourned last day to consider if there was a case for trial.
 The Justice—Well Mr. Macnamara? Mr. Macnamara said there was no evidence on which a jury could convict. The only two items were the chisel which was very doubtfully identified as having been seen in accused's house and the rather dubious marks on the tablecloth regarding which there was a certain lack of agreement between the Sergt. and Fitzgerald.
 The chisel and the table cloth were handed up to the Justice, who examined them.
 The Justice said he thought there was something for a jury to consider in the case.
 Mr. Macnamara said he would reserve his defence.
 Accused was returned for trial on his own bail to Waterford Circuit Court.

False Pretences.
 A young girl named Kitty Heffernan said to be from Clonmel, was brought up in custody, charged with obtaining goods and board and lodging at Youghal, to the amount of £2 12s. Od., and board and lodging at Middleton, to the amount of 15/- under false pretences.
 Supt. Dennehy, Middleton, prosecuted.
 Mrs. Margaret Hayes, Friar Street, Youghal, Shopkeeper, deposed that the accused called to her place on the 4th July, and asked to recommend her somewhere to for a week. Witness didn't know her before. She recommended her to go to Mrs. Margaret Goggin, next door. She came back and got bananas, apples, cigarettes, chocolate, chewing gum, etc.
 On 5th July, she got chewing gum, apples and cigarettes.

Witness questioned her on the 5th., and she said she was working for McDonald's Caledonian Amusements, that she was McDonald's niece. She came on Wednesday for more cigarettes and witness refused saying she would like to get settled for the last lot. All these things were given on credit. She said she would settle on the following day, as soon as she would see George, but witness didn't see her after. Witness believed her at first that she was working for McDonald's Circus, and that was the reason she gave her the goods, but she didn't believe it after.
 Accused didn't cross-examine.
 Mrs. Margaret Goggin, Friar St., boardinghouse keeper, deposed that the accused called to her house at 2.30 p.m. on the 4th July. She said she had been staying at the Green Park Hotel, but the charge was 4 guineas a week and she couldn't afford that and that someone sent her to witness. She said she would board her for 30/- or 35/- a week. She said that would be all right and that she intended having visitors into tea and would see mind. Witness said that would be all right and she said she didn't mind if the bill didn't go over £3 a week. She said she was a niece of McDonald's of the Caledonian Circus. Witness asked for payment on account, but accused said she couldn't pay till the end of the week, when she would be paid by her uncle. On the 5th July, she brought two children in for dinner. She had dinner with them. At 6 o'clock she brought in four girls and one gent for tea. Witness served it. Witness also got some stout for her. About 7 o'clock she brought another gent, for tea, and witness supplied it. She brought in a third gent about 11 o'clock, and they had coffee. She remained in the house that night and Tuesday night and left on Wednesday at about 5 o'clock. The total cost of her keep and visitors was £2 2s. Od. At 4.15 p.m. on Wednesday, she said her uncle was getting her tweed coat cleaned and she parcelled it. Witness followed her into the bedroom and found she had all her clothes were being packed up. Witness prevented her taking the things unless she paid up. She said she would leave them, but that she would return again that afternoon. She didn't come back again. Witness believed she was a niece of McDonald's and that was the reason she gave her board and lodging. On Wednesday morning witness told accused that her bill had gone up to £2 and asked her for 30/- on account. She said she would go and see George. Before parcelling in the things she said George was away and that she would pay on the next morning. Witness didn't know the value of the two coats like that she was wearing and some underclothing which she kept, but they were no value to her.

Accused asked no question.
 Mrs. Mary A. Cotter, Main Street, General Store, Middleton, deposed she kept boarders. On Wednesday night, 4th July, accused called at 10.30. She gave her name as Kitty Heffernan. She said she was a member of McDonald's Hippodrome, and was told by the members to engage rooms. Witness said the rooms were engaged the day before by the manager of the company. She asked if witness could keep herself and another young lady and witness agreed. She said that Mr. McDonald told her to stay in Middleton as Youghal didn't agree with her and she said she stay till the company would come. Accused remained in the house till the following Monday morning. She said she was going to the Post Office for a parcel. She didn't return any more. The members of the company came soon after she left. She said she was 8 1/2 months with the company. She mentioned the names of some of them. She engaged at 30/- a week for her board and lodging. When she left she owed 15/- Witness kept her on account of saying she was a member of the company.
 No questions by accused.
 Det-Officer Jas. Burke, Middleton, deposed that he went to Cork on 12th July, in pursuit of accused. He found her standing at the door of O'Gorman's Hotel, in McCurtain Street. He told her who he was and asked her her name. She said it was O'Gorman, that she was a native of Dublin, and that she had been in Cork since the previous day, when she came from Kilkenny. Witness told her he believed she was Kitty Heffernan, a native of Clonmel and she said that was her name. He then took her to Middleton, and handed her over to Sergt. O'Beirne, Youghal.

Sergt. O'Beirne, Youghal, deposed he arrested accused on the evening of the 12th July, on a warrant and charged her with the offences now before the Court. Having duly cautioned her she made no statement.
 Mr. Victor Vernon, Manager, Caledonian Hippodrome, deposed that he saw the accused at Carrick-on-Suir, on the 26th June, on their last performance. She arrived at the show with other girls he had seen at Clonmel. She paid the usual admission. He next saw her at Dungarvan, on the 29th June. She also entered the show and paid. The next time was at Youghal on the 5th July, and she paid for admission in the usual way. She had never been a member of the company. He engaged all the members. Mr. George McDonald is the proprietor of the show. He was at present on the way to Killarney. He gave the accused no authority to perform any transactions on behalf of the company. Mr. McDonald was with the company at Youghal, Dungarvan and Carrick-on-Suir.

 Miss Stella McDonald, sister of Mr. George McDonald, proprietor of the Caledonian Hippodrome, deposed that she saw the accused once at Dungarvan, during rehearsal. She was no relation whatever of witness's brother or herself.
 The Supt. said that was the case.
 The Justice—What do you ask me to do—send her for trial, or deal with it summarily?
 The Supt.—I'd be inclined to have it dealt with summarily, but there is another charge against her of having obtained clothes in Clonmel, value £6. Her family, who are fairly poor came to Clonmel from Fethard. She is 18 years of age. She went on this wild streak. I don't know whether she is altogether responsible, but it would seem there is something behind it all that we haven't heard of.
 The Justice said he would remand her in custody for a week, before finally deciding the case.

Gaelic Sport in Lismore and District

Something of a sensation was created in the West Waterford junior football championships by the decisive victory of Lismore over Dungarvan at Tallow on Sunday week. This match had been hanging fire for various reasons since last April. The several postponements had had an adverse effect on Lismore football, so much so that the Club had much difficulty in mobilising a playing fifteen. Owing to the short notice, numerous counter attractions, and the fact that several eligible players were injured or engaged elsewhere, Lismore were not very sanguine about being able to field a team. In this crisis, the footballers rose loyally to the occasion in the best traditions of the "Old Ramblers." Abandoning all other claims, they rallied as one man to the support of their club, and it was only fitting that their splendid sacrifices and efforts should be rewarded by a glorious success.

The actual game provided some first rate football. In the first half, the passages were fairly even, but it was early evident that Lismore were going to prove a formidable proposition. Leading on the turn-over by 2 goals and 1 point to 1 goal and 1 point, with the wind now in their favour, they harassed the Dungarvan defence scoring two goals in quick succession to assure their already well established superiority. The final score of 5 goals and 3 points to 1 goal and 2 points did not at all flatter the winners. Throughout the game the referee Jas. Cunningham, used a tactful whistle.

Goode, O'Sullivan, and Fitzgerald, were outstanding for Dungarvan, and it was no fault of theirs that defeat was their lot. The accurate place kicking of Goode, was a feature of the game. In the Lismore defence, O'Donnell, Melligan, and the veteran "Marsh" Regan, shone like the "Ramblers" stars of old. Moore at midfield was a tower of strength, while Joe Whelan and Jacky Murphy were the "live wires" in a very efficient forward line. Each man played his part manfully, and all are to be congratulated on their splendid success, all the more welcome because it was unexpected. Its effects on Gaelic Football activity in the Lismore district, will be both beneficial and far-reaching.

The football match was preceded by a minor hurling game between Tallow and Moorhill. The fierce rivalry that exists between these two neighbouring clubs was reflected in this juvenile encounter. The hurling was up to a high standard and there was not a dull moment in the whole hour. Bitter duels, close tackling, hard "drawing" characterised the game, the artistry of the Tallow "stars," Doyle and Tom McCarthy, being offset by the determination and striking of Coleman and Hannon for Moorhill. At the end of the hour, referee Seamus Hayes, whistled up a draw, at 3 goals 2 points all. A fitting end, as either team would have been unlucky to lose.

WE HAVE AGAIN AND AGAIN warned our customers on the absolute necessity of potato spraying. It has been conclusively proved during the past few years that not only has spraying prevented potato blight, but it has almost doubled the crops in every instance. It also improves the quality of the potato by extending the period of growth, thereby allowing the crops to come to maturity.
 The necessity for spraying this season may be more urgent than usual. The present weather is proving favourable for the spread of the disease which has already made its appearance in the South of Ireland. We stock the latest types in horse and knapsack sprayers, and we also keep large stocks of sulphate of copper and washing soda. We shall be very pleased to answer any enquiries regarding quantity to be used per acre, and will quote special low prices for cash for sprayers or spraying materials.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

A WASH OUT.

Dungarvan Fair on Wednesday begat all that was ever heard or dreamt of since the fairs were first held. Only a few cattle were on offer; buyers were absent and where the fair was usually held, was only the ghost of itself. Everything was at a standstill. A few local purchases were made, but beyond that in the cattle line, all was stagnant. Needless to say there was no shipping. The 20 per cent. tariff stopped that, and no farmer can afford to throw away his stock at a sacrifice. One man sold a dry cow for £1. Some sheep and lambs were sold to local butchers at 20/- to 35/-; store pigs were sold at 10/- to 25/- for the best, but most of them went home unsold.

On every side, farmers and shopkeepers discussed the crisis existing, and pathetic were the views expressed of the ruin ahead of farmers should present conditions continue any length of time. Let us hope that we will see no further fairs as gloomy as that of July 1932.

FARMERS VIEWS—MEETING TO BE CALLED.

A large and representative meeting of farmers from all parts of County Waterford, was held in the Court-house, Dungarvan, on Wednesday. The object of the meeting was to consider way and means of dealing with the present crisis at it affects the farming community. The view was expressed that nothing but bankruptcy faced the farmers and unless they were to go down and out for all time, they should get together at once and devise some means to safeguard their livelihood, and save themselves from total ruin. After a general exchange of views, it was unanimously decided to hold a public meeting of the Farmers of the County, in Dungarvan on Tuesday, August 2nd, at 12.30 o'clock, to deal with the situation.

Shipping of cattle, sheep, and pigs to British ports at a standstill, owing to the 20 per cent. tariff. The new Bill to levy taxes on British Imports to the Free State, will be law to-day (Friday), so that the tariff war will be full on by Saturday. Fresh Butter on the markets is selling at from 5d., to 6d., per lb, and eggs at 6d. per dozen.

PATRON DAY AT ABBEYSIDE.

A General Meeting, will be held in the Scouts' Den, Abbeyside, on Wednesday next, 27th July, at 8.30 p.m., for the purpose of getting the programme and other items connected with the Annual Patron Day Sports in order. The President, Very Rev. M. C. Crotty, P.P., asks the co-operation and help of all in making this great annual event the success it deserves. All interested should attend.

EXCURSION TO CORK FAIR.

The great excursion, which is being organised by Mr. John Butler, Chairman, U.D.C., Dungarvan, to the Cork Fair and Industrial Exhibition, on August 14th., is receiving the heartiest support on every side. The Urban Council at its last meeting unanimously approved of the project, and in order to enable all to take part in same, requested employers and shopkeepers of the town, to close their establishments on that day, and suggested that employees work the full day on August 14th. The special train will leave Dungarvan at 9 a.m., and return from Cork at 10.15 p.m. The return fare is only 5/-, and children under 14 years will travel at half fare. Mr. Butler has also secured special concessions for the excursionists in the admission to the Exhibition, details of which will appear in our next issue. The Brass and Reed Band, will accompany the excursion and disburse musical selections on the Grounds. In addition to the usual sights and wonders associated with the Fair, it should be a wonderful educational treat to our farmers and tillage experts. The array of machinery, agricultural implements, time-saving appliances, etc., are extraordinary, while in addition visitors can see the wonderful work being done at the Munster Institute, and at the Dairy Farm, attached to the University College. This excursion is a great opportunity for the people of the town and district to see the attractions and wonders of the Fair and at the same time to reap the educational advantages which it possesses for all classes. If requested, arrangements can be made to have the train stop at Cappagh and Cappelquin. Tickets, which can be had from the principal shopkeepers in the town or from Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, U.D.C., should be purchased before August 4th., to enable the Railway Company, to have sufficient carriages available.

WHIST DRIVE.

A Whist Drive, will be held in the Town Hall, on Wednesday, August 3rd., at 8 o'clock, the proceeds of which will be devoted to defraying the expenses of the Brass and Reed Band to the Cork Exhibition. Tickets 2/- each.

AUCTIONS.

At the request of numerous patrons Mr. Patk. Ryan, Auctioneer, proposes to hold an auction henceforth each Fair Day at Dungarvan. All articles for sale entrusted to him, will receive the best attention.

LOOK OUT!

For Moloney's Great Annual Sale, commencing July 30th. This will be one of the most remarkable Sales ever held.

BUTTER AS CAR GREASE.

In Cadillac, Saskatchewan, farmers are using butter to grease the axles of their waggons because it is cheaper than axle grease. That shows that others are as badly off as we are.

MUSICAL SUCCESSES.

At the recent Leinster School of Music Pianoforte examinations, all the pupils presented by Mrs. O'Hara, A.L.C.M., were successful. The following are the results:—Middle advanced Grade—Plunkett Brennock, first-class honours and prize. Mary Kiersey, first-class honours.

Middle I. Grade—Evelyn Kiersey, first-class honours. Patrick Harney, Pass.

Junior II. Grade—Pearse Moloney, second-class honours. Tom Clancy, Pass.

These excellent results are a tribute to the efficiency of Mrs. O'Hara as a teacher, and to the application and zeal of the students concerned.

MOTOR ACCIDENTS.

There has been quite a crop of motor accidents recently, but fortunately all involved got off lightly. A horse belonging to Mr. Thomas Connors, Faha, was injured in a collision with a Waterford lorry. Miss Power, formerly of Kilmacthomas, received concussion of the brain on Sunday evening last at Abbeyside, through stepping out of a motor while in motion. Two motors collided at the cross at Garrynageragh school on Sunday evening. Beyond damage to the cars, the occupants escaped unhurt. A motor cyclist entering Dungarvan struck the wall at Dee's Egg Store, while taking the turn to Mary Street.

ARDMORE ACTIVITIES.

This pretty seaside resort is increasing in popularity year by year. Next Sunday is the Annual "Pattern" and a large crowd of visitors is expected, the weather being favourable.

In addition to the annual faith worshippers, and when the Rounds and exercises are complete a great attraction is offered by a Football match staged between the local Ardmore team and a selection from Finner Club, who will visit.

A very keen contest is expected, well worth coming a distance to see for the Finner boys have been preparing in anticipation for weeks, while the Ardmore boys have recently given proofs that they are good material and well-trained. May the day be fine, and that the best team may win, is the ardent wish of an onlooker.

AT CLONEA.

There will be a Band Promenade at the Ocean View Hotel, on Sunday afternoon, 24th inst., at 2.30. And a Grand Dance on Sunday night, Ladies 1/6; Gents 2/- (including tax).

KINSALEBEG NOVICE SPORTS.

Will be held on Monday August 15th.

CLASHMORE FIANNA FAIL.

At a meeting of the Clashmore Cuman Fianna Fail on Sunday last, Mr. M. Lynch, Chairman, presiding, On the motion of Mr. Hugh McGrath, seconded by Mr. W. Murphy, a resolution of sympathy was tendered to Mr. Patrick Foley and family, on the death of Mrs. Foley. A resolution of sympathy was also extended to the family of the late Mr. John O'Donoghue, Clashmore, on the motion of the President, seconded by Mr. T. Morrissey.

ST. DECLAN'S HALL, ARDMORE.

The Annual Dance will be held in the above Hall, on Sunday night, July 24th., commencing at 9 p.m. Admission 2/6. Refreshments extra. Orchestral music. All are welcome.

OTTAWA CONFERENCE.

The Ottawa Conference opened on Thursday in the Canadian Government Buildings. 500 delegates (including three from the Irish Free State), from all parts of the Commonwealth were present. A message from King George was read by the Governor-General (Earl of Bessborough), and on the motion of Mr. Bennett, Premier of Canada, seconded by the head of the Indian delegation, a resolution of loyalty and adherence to His Majesty, King George, was carried unanimously.

DEATH OF MR. EDDY CROTTY, MOUNTAIN VILLAS, DUNGARVAN.

Deep sympathy is extended to Mr. John Crotty, Mountain Villas, Dungarvan, on the death of his eldest son, Eddy, which occurred at his residence on Wednesday, after a brief illness. Deceased was a most intelligent young man, popular with all, and highly esteemed by all who knew him and who now regret his early death. The remains were removed to the Parish Church, on Thursday evening, being accompanied by a large cortege. The interment takes place to-day.

LATE BISHOP OF ARMIDALE.

At Modeligo Parish Church, on Thursday, there was Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass for the late Most Rev. Dr. O'Connor, Bishop of Armidale, uncle of Very Rev. M. Carroll, P.P., Modeligo. The Lord Abbot of Mount Melleray, presided. The celebrant was Rev. Dr. Dunne, Tanworth, deacon, Rt. Rev. Chancellor Phelan, Sydney; sub-deacon, Rev. E. Walsh, Sydney; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. P. F. McGrath, C.C., Dungarvan. Over 50 priests attended. Full list next issue.

"Excavations at Kilgreany"

(By Wm. Kevin Fahey).

In the Spring of 1928, a joint committee consisting of three members of the Royal Irish Academy, and two members of the Speleological Society Bristol, set about preparations for excavation in Ireland—their main object being to secure material for comparison of the faunas of the Irish and English caves. Sometime about Easter of the same year, two caves were chosen on which the actual research work was to be carried out, but soon afterwards owing to the sudden and unforeseen withdrawal of permission by the proprietors, on whose land the caves were situated, they were abandoned.

In the last moment, as soon as the excavating party had arrived in Ireland, the aforesaid joint committee resolved to test some caves in the South. The reason given for such a mode of action is that this southern portion of the island was free from the last glacial period, so that in all probability in an area of this kind, evidence of the Pleistocene man might be obtained. The actual section of land decided on, for such prehistoric investigation lies between the mouths of the Finisk and Brickey, somewhat to the west, and north, of Dungarvan. The area is a valley rather marshy and fertile with a limestone floor for the most part. On either side of this valley are long sloping ridges of old red sandstone. The valley itself is dotted here and there with what might be termed limestone hillocks, scarcely ever more than eight feet in height, and beneath which are generally found caves of various natures. Most of the caves in the vicinity were tested, but all except one, were void of prehistoric remains. The fruitful and successful cave is at Kilgreany, concerning which we shall treat of, in this and subsequent articles.

Kilgreany lies at the foot of a ridge which gently slopes towards the south. The land is limestone, so that the material formation of the cave is the same. A wide mouth looking to the south forms the entrance, which leads to a deep chamber inside, at the bottom of which a well rises through a stalagmite floor. The external dimensions of the entrance are greater than any in the passage leading inwards, so one must almost creep when inside to gain admittance to the inner chamber.

A little in from the present mouth a trench was dug of no great depth in which were found some highly mineralised animal bones mixed with fragments of modern pottery. Another trench of a similar nature was formed at the entrance of the cave, and was yielding by far better results than the inner one, hence it decided to abandon the inner and concentrate all available time and efforts to the outer trench. This done, it was clearly proved that the statement of Mr. Ussher, was perfectly correct, when he said that the primitive mouth of the cave was fifteen or twenty feet further out, some years ago, but had since been quarried back, so that in reality the outer trench was really inside the ancient entrance.

During the actual research work, the excavators both from a convenience point of view as well as from a chronological aspect, divided this outer trench into sections each of which corresponded to a certain depth reached, as well as to the respective finds obtained at each depth. The sections were named, A, B, C, D, E, F., each of which we shall take in order.

The surface to the first hearth, corresponded to the first section A. It immediately overlaid the first hearth and consisted of a thin clay covering mixed with broken limestone, which had fallen from the ceiling of the cave. Beneath this slight surface, was found a broken stalagmite floor, according to some of the excavators, which according to others and which seems most probable this supposed stalagmite was only tuffaceous stalagmite which had fallen upon the floor, from the walls of the cave.

Immediately under section A. comes section B. which contained the first remains of pre-Christian implements together with fragmentary animal bones, and it was rare to find a complete bone. The floor consisted of a deposit of clay and small stones, reaching a depth at some points between two and three feet. In different parts and at various depths on this floor were found, a round headed bronze pin, a small iron knife, a knife of bronze, part of a Kimberley Shale bracelet and some bone spindle whorls; one of the latter objects seemed to have been produced on a lathe of some sort, for it bore on both faces several concentric circles.

The thickness of the floor seems to point to a rather long occupation of the place by man, and the rude pottery which was chiefly got from the bottom of the uoor points to a bronze age date. This bronze age date must have been late in this island as is testified by the fact that the bronze knife and bracelet were found in close proximity. Many authorities infer that the implements found are as early as 500 B.C., and that their use survived into early Christian times. Hence the end of the occupation as shown by the first hearth can't be earlier than 500 B.C. The human remains found at this level were so scanty and minute, that they almost defy recognition and will be left over for subsequent consideration. The diet of the people seem to be fish, animal and vegetable foods, and some of the leading authorities on teeth would have us believe that vegetable food formed a greater part of the whole.

SILVER JUBILEE.

On last Thursday week, the 14th inst., Very Rev. John M. Kieley, P.P., V.F., Caledonia, Minnesota, U.S.A., celebrated the Silver Jubilee of his ordination to the Holy Priesthood. In the years 1900, he started student life in Mount Melleray Seminary, and proceeded thence to the American College, Louvain, where he received Holy Orders, in 1907, at the age of 23.

Father Kieley, said his first Mass in Ireland, in the home of his parents at Shandon Street, Dungarvan, and his Jubilee Anniversary Mass was also celebrated in that same old home. There were present at the Holy Sacrifice, Right Rev. Monsignor Mangan, P.P., Pipestone, Minn., Very Rev. Louis O'Day, Chancellor of the Diocese of Winona Minn., Very Rev. Dominic Mangan, P.P., V.F., Marikota, Minn., Very Rev. John Deere, P.P., Prior Lake, Minn., Very Rev. William Collins, P.P., Canton, Minn., Very Rev. Thomas Prendergast, D.D., Port Elizabeth, South Africa; Mr. J. Kenny, Thurles; Mr. T. Barry, Ballyduff; Father Kieley's sisters—Mrs. R. P. Tobin, Mrs. T. O'Hanrahan, Mrs. P. Daly, and Mrs. T. O'Mahony, his brother-in-law, Mr. T. O'Mahony, his nieces, Misses M. and K. Tobin, and his nephews, Masters E. and T. O'Hanrahan, who served his Mass.

During the day, and for the week preceding the Anniversary Day, Fr. Kieley, was the recipient of various gifts, and congratulatory messages, by post and cable from friends at home and abroad, all of which would occupy too much space to enumerate. Many of his well-wishers came in person with a hearty hand-shake to offer their compliments, and to show to the Jubilarian, that this important epoch of his life brought its share of joy to them also.

In the evening a sumptuous banquet was given by Mrs. T. O'Mahony, at which there were 20 guests both lay and clerical. Rt. Rev. Monsignor Mangan, acted as toast master. He referred to the popularity of Father Kieley in his diocese, his zeal for the souls entrusted to his care, and his wonderful success during the 25 years he has laboured in the Vineyard of the Lord. He then presented Father Kieley, with a valuable purse of notes, the collective gift of his clerical friends there present, and concluded by expressing the unanimous wish that Fr. Kieley may be as hale and hearty amongst them for the celebration of his Golden Jubilee, as he was on that day. Go dtugaid Dia saol fada seanainar do'n sagart arun.

LIVE-STOCK TRADE

CRITICAL OUTLOOK FOR IRISH FIRMS.

"Our live stock trade it at a standstill and in my opinion the number of unemployed in every class of business not to mention our own, will, I venture to say, within a month be four or five times what it is to-day." This was the statement of a well-known Waterford cattle-dealer. Before long he said, a leading Irish firm of bacon-curers, with headquarters in Waterford, whose trade was fifty per cent. English, would be compelled to reduce the staff fifty per cent. if present conditions continued. It was significant that Donnelly's, who did extensive business in lamb and pork trade with cross-Channel markets, had issued no quotations for the past fortnight. He scouted the idea of the Free State ever securing alternative markets in European countries or America, and, in confirmation, referred to the recent endeavour to establish an export bacon trade with the latter country. A representative of O'Mara's who recently went to the U.S.A. to investigate prospects there, on behalf of the present Government, returned, he declared, with a top price quotation, 40/- deadweight, ranging down to 30/- while in Ireland the firm he represented was quoting 56/- and 60/- before he left.

The position was one of disaster and would mean ruin to the Irish farmer and producer. Take our own firm, he went on. We do a good deal in the export of cattle, sheep and lambs. We have a comparatively large staff. A large proportion of these will not be required any more under the present conditions. The same thing applies to the farmer. Why should farmers want to save hay or oats for cattle for which there is no trade. Recently we had to discontinue transactions with a well-known stock exporter on the other side. He will now have to find suppliers outside the Free State, and that he will not have the slightest difficulty. Small farmers who opened up direct trade with England and had invested their small capital in stock for this purpose, are now practically faced with ruin. He revealed that before the present economic war set in between the two countries, cross Channel dealers had been acting in a rather generous spirit, and did not quibble with Irish exporters over a pound or two beyond the value of the beast. All that had now been changed. Just before the imposition of the 20 per cent. tariff those firms paid the exact value of cattle and no more. Under the conditions that now existed he concluded, Irish bacon-curers would only kill sufficient for the home trade.

N.A. & C.A.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD.

A meeting of the Waterford County Board of the N.A. & C.A., was held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, Cappoquin, on Sunday week.

Mr. M. F. Walsh, Cappoquin, Vice-President, presided, and the following delegates were present: Tallow—A. Murphy, and T. Keniry, Cappoquin—M. J. Sargent and J. McGrath, Kilmacthomas—P. Kirwan, Junr., and A. McCormack, Lismore—J. Campion.

Mr. W. J. Nolan, Treasurer and Hon. Secretary of the Co. Board, represented Dungarvan.

The minutes of the previous meeting having been read and confirmed, Mr. Sargent mentioned that at the last meeting, Cappoquin Athletic Club had stated that they were getting two Munster Championship events, the half-mile cycle and half-mile flat, for their Sports, to be held on Sunday, August 14th, but this had since been changed, as the half-mile flat championship, had now been allocated to Fermoy, and Cappoquin had been offered the 440 yards championship, in addition to the half-mile cycle event, which they had decided to accept.

The granting of the half-mile cycle championship of Munster and also the 440 yards Championship were then confirmed for the Cappoquin Sports, on Sunday, August 14th.

Novices' Sports.

The question of allowing competitors from outside a ten-miles radius to compete at Novices' Sports, was raised by a delegate, and after a discussion it was agreed not to insist on the ten-miles radius rule, but it was decided that competitors should be confined to the County Waterford in the case of all future Novices' Sports, held under the authority of the Co. Board.

The status of Novices at such Sports was next discussed, and the question was raised if those novices who had won events at Cappoquin Sports on last Sunday, would still be eligible to compete as novices at Tallow Sports on Sunday, 17th inst., and Lismore Sports, on Sunday, 24th.

After a lengthy discussion, Mr. M. J. Sargent, proposed, and Mr. T. Keniry, seconded, that any novice who wins an event at three different Novices' Sports meetings this year, and also any novice who wins one event this year at any Novices' Sports meeting will lose his status as a novice and must compete only in open events next year and at all future meetings.

This means that those novices who won at Cappoquin Sports on last Sunday will still be eligible to compete at both Tallow and Lismore Novices' Sports this year, but not at any Novices' Sports next year.

Increased Fees for Permits.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

Mr. W. J. Nolan, announced that previously the fee for a Permit to hold Novices' Sports was only 5/-, but the Munster Council of the N.A. & C.A., had now increased the sum to 10/- per Permit.

The increase was unanimously approved of.

Inter-County Contests.

Mr. Nolan raised the question of organising an athletic team in the Co. Waterford to compete in inter-County contests against Tipperary and Kerry, and the suggestion was warmly approved of, but the matter was adjourned for a fuller discussion at the next meeting of the Co. Board which will be held in Lismore after the Sports, on Sunday evening, 24th inst.

Several other matters having been dealt with, a vote of thanks to the Chairman for presiding, concluded the proceedings.

ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

YOUGHAL PEOPLE'S CUP.

The necessary permission having been obtained to hold the above tournament for a fine trophy, subscribed to by the people of Youghal, two games in the first round were successfully run off at Youghal Club's Ground on Sunday last. There are eight teams competing, seven being from the City. In the first game the local eleven were opposed to Distillery (Cork). Youghal proved too good for their opponents being served by a fine defence. At the interval Youghal led by 2 goals to one. On the change-over Distillery had the advantage of a strong breeze, but were unable to penetrate their opponents' defence, whilst Youghal succeeded in placing two further goals to their credit, leaving the issue safe in their hands. Glenview and Suttons also played off their tie. The former team had the advantage of the wind in the opening period and placed two fine goals. On the resumption Suttons played determinedly and some good passing movements saw them quickly overhaul their opponents and eventually they secured the deciding goal. The final score was 3-2 in favour of Suttons.

Next Sunday, two further games will be played. The teams engaged are Maymount Rovers and Eagle United, and Southern Rovers and Fair Hill. Both games should provide interesting football.

Youghal are now drawn to meet Suttons in the first semi-final, while next Sunday's winners will fight out the other semi-final.

Mr. Lynch, Munster Junior Council, had charge of the whistle on Sunday last.

FITZGERALD FOR BIKES. DUNGARVAN

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present—Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Chairman; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. D. J. Lynch, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman; T. Harrington, D. Dennehy, E. Clancy, M. D. Broderick, T. Beausang, J. Whelan, A. J. Fowkes, T. Murphy, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.

A letter was read from "T. C. Murphy, Canovee, Biddulph, Stoke-on-Trent," stating that he had been a regular visitor to Youghal for some years and had regularly bathed with his family opposite the Terminus, undressing and dressing in their hotel. If they were precluded from enjoying that family pleasure their visit would be much less enjoyable. He suggested that mixed family bathing with proper costumes and privacy in dressing couldn't or shouldn't offend the susceptibilities of the most puritanically-minded.

Mr. McMahon—Must we go to Stoke-on-Trent to learn how to do our business?

The Clerk read a sheaf of reports from the Strand Caretaker, giving the names of a number of young men who went bathing on the portion reserved for ladies on several days since their last meeting, including Messrs. C. Edwards, and R. Atkins. One refused to give his name, but it was subsequently ascertained. Another apologized and said he didn't know he was committing a breach of the bye-laws.

Mr. McMahon said having been absent from the last meeting, he had read the report of the proceedings in the Press, and he had since read letters from some cheap scribes on the subject—one from Mr. Edwards, dictated by a certain source he wouldn't then name. A member of that Board for 20 years, and the "Father" of it, he said it was high time for a bit of plain talk (hear, hear.)

He had been at the last meeting he would have agreed with his friend, Mr. Broderick, in his desire to deal with the matter in a spirit of toleration, owing to the difference in persuasion involved, and in his desire to give full fair play and that was more than was done in another quarter. During his time on that Board, he said without fear of contradiction, that there was nothing but tolerance in both religion and politics. If they naturally differed in politics at times, they were none the worse friends afterwards. But when he read that letter in the "Examiner" from Mr. Edwards, "from nobody knows where, an Orangeman and a Freemason."

The Chairman—Now, now, Mr. McMahon. Dictating to the people of Youghal as to how they were to conduct their public business. They had always tried to keep religious differences out of that town.

The Chairman—And out of this Boardroom. Mr. McMahon—But now if they pleased, Mr. Edwards came along and endeavoured to introduce it. If they wanted to find religious intolerance in Ireland they should go up to Mr. Edwards's friends in the North. That was very practically and forcibly proved during the recent Eucharistic Congress and also on the 12th. He formally and with pleasure proposed that right there and then that they prosecute the persons reported that night by their Strand Caretaker as having again committed a breach of their bye-laws, with all the rigour of the law.

Mr. Harrington, seconded. Mr. Edwards's letter was evidently intended to belittle and throw ridicule on the Council. He should be the last to try a trick like that. Mr. Edwards alleged that a certain Councillor gave them permission for mixed bathing. If that was the fact it was a distinct breach of trust on the Councillor's part. No member had any right whatever to do any such thing. Mr. Edwards and his friends had been duly warned, and they should now abide by the consequences of their repeated defiance of the bye-laws.

Mr. Beausang suggested that the young man who had apologized should not be prosecuted. This was agreed to.

Mr. Dennehy supported the proposition. There seemed to be some misconception about the bye-laws in question. Some persons looked upon it as some sort of a fad of the Council, adopted so far back as 1854. Was that correct?

The Clerk—It was adopted in 1901. Mr. Dennehy said that the Act of Parliament which gave the bye-law its power was the Towns Improvement Act, 1854—an entirely different matter. The bye-law was signed by men who knew Youghal and took a deep interest in its welfare.

The Clerk said it bore the names of the late Messrs. R. Casey, W. Broderick, M. Whelan, and J. J. O'Shea and the sanction of the L.G.B., was signed by Sir H. Robinson.

Mr. Dennehy said he looked upon that bye-law as being most important, having a spiritual as well as a temporal aspect. It segregated the sexes in a state of partial nudity and prevented them coming together higgledy-piggledy like cattle in a field. He suggested that their solicitor be instructed to apply to have the persons responsible for organising those mixed bathing parties bound to be of good behaviour. If that state of things was allowed to develop, they might some day have parties coming along from Constantinople or other Oriental places and starting a harem (laughter). Some people said it was ridiculous nonsense to say there was any harm in the practice. It was no harm to eat an apple, but on one historic occasion the eating of an apple caused great trouble (laughter).

Mr. Clancy said he had much pleasure in supporting that proposition. On last Thursday night they had overlooked the offence in the hope that it wouldn't be repeated, but they now could see how their leniency was abused repeatedly. He hoped that the Council would instruct their solicitor to press for the heaviest penalty possible. As regards Mr. Edwards's letter in the "Examiner" it was a jolly good thing for him that he didn't try his tricks on a few years ago or he would get what he very richly deserved, (hear, hear.)

Mr. Lynch said the only thing he was sorry for was that they didn't decide on determined action at their last meeting. As he remarked previously if they didn't intend to see their bye-laws carried out, they should burn and put an end to them. He thoroughly agreed with the previous speakers. Some of those young gents on the strand were evidently showing their teeth.

Mr. McMahon—We'll pull them for them (laughter).

Mr. Lynch said when those parties got an inch of allowance they seemed inclined to go the whole hog. If they went too far they might come up against a force that wouldn't deal with them as gingerly as the Council (hear, hear).

Mr. Broderick said he had moved at their previous meeting that the offending parties be written to. Those who hadn't repeated the offence, he thought, had given a satisfactory reply.

Mr. McMahon—That is good enough.

Mr. Fowkes (Protestant) said he believed that the Council had gone as far as they possibly could consistent with maintaining their dignity in that matter. As regards Mr. McMahon's remarks, he wished to remind them that every decent Protestant in the country, from the Primate down, had condemned the outrages in the North and he didn't think it fair that a whole community should be held responsible for the actions of irresponsible blackguards. He hoped Mr. McMahon would withdraw his remarks that there was anybody behind Mr. Edwards in writing that letter.

Mr. McMahon—I withdraw nothing. Mr. Fowkes said he thought Mr. Edwards had acted entirely in his own interest in writing that letter. He doesn't agree with it. They could see his point of view.

The Chairman—We all can. Mr. Fowkes said while on the Council he had always experienced the fullest kindness and courtesy from them all from the Chairman down. That was why he felt that so much. Youghal was particularly free from anything in the nature of intolerance.

Capt. Dunne said they were all thankful to Mr. Fowkes for that expression of opinion. The Council certainly won't allow that thing to go on.

Mr. Whelan endorsed the proposed action of the Council. No one could accuse them of being in anyway intolerant, and they were always reluctant to take such steps except when it was forced upon them. There was no question of the fact that one particular gent was looking for it. His attitude was one of studied defiance and the Council couldn't and wouldn't allow their authority to be flouted in such a brazen manner.

The Clerk said he would like to refer to one remark on Mr. Edwards's letter, where he quoted Judge Kenny's joke about Rip Van Winkle. He doubted if his Lordship would appreciate Mr. Edwards's sarcastic version of his quotation. Quite recently that Council had expended £20,000 in a new water supply, greatly to the benefit of the strand, where Mr. Edwards resided. They had only just erected a Ladies cloakroom at a cost of £400 for their strand visitors, and spent £300 on steamrolling the McCurtainstown road opposite Mr. Edwards's and a few years ago they rebuilt their Upper Quays at a cost of £6,000. There was very little of Rip Van Winkle about that. As regards giving permission for family parties to go bathing in a prohibited part, he knew his duty too well to do anything of the kind.

The Chairman—And I also. The Clerk said in making those remarks he was doing so as one not opposed to mixed bathing under proper conditions.

Mr. Dennehy said that practically all the members of the South Ward were present and he didn't believe that any one of them did as Mr. Edwards suggested.

Mr. McMahon said they were all present except one.

Mr. O'Gorman said what he felt most keenly about Mr. Edwards's letter was bringing religion into it. It was absolutely detestable even from Mr. Edwards. They all wished to live in harmony with their fellow-townsmen of all persuasions. Mr. Edwards's insinuation was, he had no hesitation in saying a filthy one. In that old town of theirs every respect was shown to every one who deserved it, no matter at what altar he knelt.

Mr. Broderick said were it not for their extreme desire to be tolerant, they would have taken a different line of action.

The proposition was then passed unanimously.

Employees Pensions. A resolution was received from the Tralee Urban Council—"That the Government be asked to approve of granting pensions to employees of Co. and Urban District Councils, in whatever capacity employed, when they attained an age which rendered them incapable of further employment, and that their amount of service be considered in assessing such persons which should be made a Government charge. On the proposition of Mr. Lynch, seconded by Mr. Dennehy, the resolution was unanimously adopted.

Proposed Regatta. The Southern Rowing Club, applied for the Green Park to hold a Regatta on Sunday July, 31st and the Ball Room to hold a dance from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m., the following gents had kindly consented to function on the occasion—Messrs. E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman, U.D.C.; T. Murphy, U.D.C.; J. Webster and W. O'Brien, with C. Ronayne, as Patron.

Mr. McMahon said they couldn't close the Green Park on a Sunday, which was the principal day of its use by the public. He proposed that the application be not granted.

Mr. Linehan, seconded. Mr. Murphy said he consented to the use of his name provided that the name of Capt. Dunne was included (laughter).

Mr. Lynch said the Park was closed on Sunday's formerly. He proposed they grant the application. Mr. Beausang seconded.

Mr. Broderick said in view of the responsible men mentioned, and as an incentive to the Club, they ought get the Park. On a poll the application was refused by 8 to 6. It was unanimously decided to grant them the use of the Mall, Mr. Murphy remarking that there was as much danger in holding a Regatta off the Park, owing to the tides etc., as on the Strand.

Regarding the application for the use of the Ball Room, several members objected to the late hour of 2 a.m. After some discussion the application was granted from 9 to 12, a proposition by Mr. Lynch for 9 to 2 a.m., not being seconded.

An application from the local Camogie Club for the Hall on the same night was accordingly refused.

The All-Steel Raleigh!

The local Agent at Dungarvan, J. B. Cooke, has received the following letter from Dublin:—

DEAR SIR—We regret that owing to the recently imposed tax on complete cycles our deliveries for the past month have been seriously dislocated. We have pleasure in announcing, however, that arrangements have been made for the assembly of all machines for the Irish Free State at our Dublin Depot under skilled supervision. We have decided not to make any alteration in our existing prices, and we will make every endeavour to reduce the accumulation of orders with as little delay as possible, for which we crave your kind indulgence.

Yours faithfully, THE RALEIGH CYCLE CO., S. GUY, Irish Manager.

The above letter speaks for itself. The All-Steel Raleigh is now an Irish product. Duty Free Prices from 8/11 per month upwards.
