DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

PROPOSED BOYCOTT ON ORANGE FIRMS.

Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting, on Friday last. The others members present were—Messrs. M. Clancy, T. Power, T. McCarthy, J. Moloney, M. Griffin, and M. Keane.

Grant To Children's Health Committee.

The Chairman referred to the meeting of the Children's Health Committee, on Wednesday night. The Committee was composed of all the Council members, with a few outside members. It was his intention to propose that the best thanks of this Council be tendered to the Dungarvan Dramatic Class for their action in producing recently the play "The Sign of the Cross" in aid of the funds of the Children's Health Committee.

Mr. Clancy, seconding, said he did so with great pleasure. The performance was most enjoyable, and was fully appreciated by the public. While complimenting every member of the class, he thought that there was something more due to one member, their colleague, Mr. T. McCarthy. He deserved special thanks. They all know that he took special interest in Dramatics for a number of years.

Mr. McCarthy returned thanks to the proposer and seconder, for their remarks, on behalf of the Dramatic Class. He also wished to thank all the other members of the Council who did everything they could to make the production a success. He could not agree with Mr. Clancy regarding special thanks being due to him, every member of the class was only too willing to stage the production for the benefit of the Children's Health Committee.

Week's Wages.

The paysheets for the week, passed, were as follows—General A/c. £15 11s. 6d. Housing A/c. £1 14s. 7d., Harbour A/c. £9 2s. 1d.

Mr. Moloney questioned an item for carpentry on the general account. The B.S., stated the carpenter was employed making 12 new seats and repairing a wheelbarrow, the cost of the seats would be under 10/- each.

Mr. Griffin's Analogy.

Mr. Griffin, asked the B.S., if the work on the Hermitage Road was yet complete.

B.S.—No. I had to take the men off to clean up after the fair.

Mr. Griffin—The work should be finished. It is no good doing half the work and leaving the rest undone. It is only an eyesore at present. It is like a fellow shaved on one side of his face.

The B.S., promised to have the work completed.

Entrance To Abbeyside Strand.

Mr. Griffin asked why the stones at the entrance to the strand at the new road, Abbeyside, were not removed as ordered.

B.S.—John Walsh went over there. There must have been some high tides since.

Mr. Griffin—There was never a shovel put to it. Where I mean at the entrance down from the road. There was never a tide came up there.

Chairman—See to that Mr. McGrath.

Abbeyside Strand.

The Council ordered that notice be served on the residents of Strand Side South, Abbeyside, warning them against throwing any ashes or refuse on the foreshore, where a number of Council workmen were employed during the week cleaning up the strand.

Housing Scheme.

Mr. McCarthy asked what was the cause of the delay in proceeding with the building of houses under the new Act. His business brings him in contact with a great number of people who are living in bad houses, and others who are in lodgings. These people are very anxious to know when the Council will build houses for them. He would like to get an answer to the question, when will the Council be in a position to build houses for these people.

Chairman—Sometime back the Urban Council made an effort to prepare a scheme because in the Budget speech of the Minister for Finance, he promised an amount of money for building houses. The Council decided to advertise for sites, and I must say the response was very poor. It was the Council's intention to build houses in the slum areas, but he thought that the land should be acquired by compulsion. He saw by to-day's paper that the Housing Bill got a second reading in the Senate, but when it would become law, he could not say. They had notified the Clerk to make enquiries from the Department. He believed that under the new Act, they will be able to let the houses at a low rent.

Mr. McCarthy—Then we will have to wait until the Bill is passed. Mr. Clancy—We could do something thing towards the acquisition of land. We are after advertising for sites four times. He thought that they snould go ahead and acquire the land immediately that the Clerk hears from the Department. The people cannot blame the Council for the delay, it is not their fault.

Chairman—It is the intention of the Council to build a scheme of 100 houses, if the provisions of the Bill will allow letting the houses at a low rent. When I say a low rent, I mean a rent below 3/- a week.

Cinderella Dance. R. T. Atkins, Strand Palace, Youghal, was granted the use of the ballroom, Town Hall, for the purpose of holding a Cinderella Dance, on Friday August 19th, hours 11 to 2 a.m.

Whist Drive. The Band Committee were granted the Hall for the holding of a Whist Drive, the proceeds of which will defray the expenses of the band to Cork on August 11th.

Mr. Clancy appealed to the members of the Council to do all in their power to make the Drive a success. Messrs. McCarthy and the Chairman supported the appeal.

Trading With Northern Ireland. Mr. McCarthy, proposed, the following resolution:—"That we, the members of the Dungarvan Urban District Council, ask the traders of Dungarvan who are at present dealing with Belfast firms to do no business with them in future, because of the treatment meted out to our fellow-Catholics in the North when travelling to the Eucharistic Congress."

Continuing, Mr. McCarthy, said his reason for putting the resolution was that they all remembered Congress Week and they read about the way the Catholics of the North were treated when returning from the Congress. He was speaking to a man who told him he saw a photo of a prominent member of the Government between a picture of the Sacred Heart and the Pope, while inscribed underneath was: "Between Two Thieves." When it came to insulting their religion and their Church, they should hit them back, and they can do so without lifting their hands, by boycotting the goods coming from Northern firms. Mr. McCarthy also cited another case which he said he had on the best of authority, where a common pig's head was displayed with the inscription underneath: "Cured At Lourdes."

Mr. Power, seconding, the resolution, said he hoped the traders of Dungarvan would act up to it, not as they did in 1921-22 when several traders who were supposed to be supporters of the boycott, were getting stuff from the North themselves. He hoped they would not do so now, but would trade with good Catholic firms in Ireland.

Mr. Griffin, referred to the population of Northern Ireland, and thought that the resolution should specify the parties responsible. He held it should read Orange firms—Twelfth of July men. They are the people.

Mr. McCarthy—We all agree with Mr. McCarthy, every Irishman should protest against what happened, but it is the form of the resolution—would it not be better to condemn the outrage in the strongest possible manner. He would ask Mr. McCarthy to change the resolution to one protesting against the outrages.

Mr. McCarthy—I will not change the resolution. I asked for a boycott because I say that the people of Northern Ireland would rather see us dead than alive.

Mr. Clancy—As you all know religious bigotry is a terrible thing, and we of the South are very proud that there is no religious bigotry here, no matter what a man's denomination is, and if the people of other denominations here are celebrating any event, they are not interfered with.

Chairman—It is a deplorable state of affairs that our fellow-Catholics were not able to proceed to the Congress in Dublin, which was attended by people from all over the world, without being interfered with. Mr. McCarthy's resolution was one way of bringing the effects of their actions home to these people. I don't know if there is another way. He thought as Mr. Clancy stated we ought protest in the first instance. The matter was sprung on them and he would like to have more time to consider it. Mr. Clancy—I agree with the spirit that animated Mr. McCarthy in bringing this matter forward, but it is the method I do not agree with. I would ask Mr. McCarthy to put it in another way and have the Council draft a protest. They should all try and live in harmony with their neighbours.

Mr. McCarthy—The Catholics of Dungarvan always tried to live in harmony with the Protestants. No doubt a few Southern Protestants protested in the Press against the conduct. He was very much surprised that the Protestants of Dungarvan made no protest against it, in the Daily or Weekly Press. Nobody inspired him to bring this matter forward. He did it on his own.

Mr. Griffin—I am in favour of Mr. McCarthy's resolution, but there are various friendly firms in the North with branches in the South, and by passing the resolution as it stands you may be victimising friendly firms. He advocated the procedure adopted during the Belfast Pogroms, when certain firms were mentioned. He agreed with Mr. McCarthy, but would ask him to change the word Protestant to Orange-men.

Mr. Clancy—I want no war whether Political or Religious, and if I get a seconder I will propose an amendment protesting against the outrages to our fellow-catholics.

There being no seconder to Mr. Clancy's amendment, the resolution was passed.

Tenders. The following tenders for the painting and scraping of the Harbour Buoy—Mr. Duggan £8 19s. 0d., Thomas Flynn, Abbeyside, £16. Duggan's tender was accepted.

Wall At Cooney's Lough. For the building of a wall at Cooney's Lough in sections, G. Kiely, tendered at £1 8s. per section; Ed. Fitzgerald, tendered at £1 18s. 11d., per section. Kiely's tender was accepted.

Laying Water Main. The tender of Jas. Mullins, Abbeyside, at 2/3 per yard, was accepted for the laying of a water main at Youghal Road.

Plastering Piers. For the plastering of the piers of the Council houses at St. Thomas' Terrace, David Riordan, tendered at 30/- every three piers; Ed. Butler's tender was 59/- every 3 piers. For the same work in Mitchell St., Riordan's tender was 15/- each two piers and Butler's tender 39/- each two. Riordan's tender was accepted.

Sympathy. Mr. Clancy proposed, and Mr. McCarthy seconded—"That the Council place on record an expression of regret on the occasion of the death of Eddie Crotty, Mountain Villas, and tender to his sorrowing parents deep sympathy. The resolution was passed in silence.

DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

Held on Wednesday, before Mr. Troy, D.J.

License Transfer. Mr. Farrell, solr., on behalf of Mr. James Delaney, Glenbeg, made application for a transfer of the license held by Miss Kate Fitzgerald, Square. The application was granted.

Keohan v. Keohan. Mrs. Mary Keohan, Buttery Street, prosecuted her husband, Patrick Keohan.

Mr. Farrell, solr., for Mrs. Keohan, said his client did not wish to go on with the case, if he conducted himself. He would ask to have the case adjourned.

The case was accordingly adjourned for two months.

Wandering Animals. Guard O'Leary, prosecuted Margaret Daly, Thomas Keating and Annie Hennebery, all of Abbeyside, for allowing animals to wander on the public road. A fine of 2/- in each case was imposed.

Larceny Of 10/- Note. Superintendent Harle, prosecuted a youth of 17 years, Augustine Daniel, Youghal Road, with the larceny of a 10/- note, from Mr. Seamus Hayes, Square, on July 26th.

Sergt. Clancy, deposed to arresting the accused that (Wednesday) morning and charging him with the larceny. Accused made no statement. He asked for a remand to enable him to make further enquiries. Accused was remanded to next Court, on bail of £5.

No Lights. Fines ranging from 1/- to 2/6 were imposed in a number of cases of persons found cycling without lights by the Ring Garda.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

GREAT OPEN SPORTS MEETING.

The full programme of the great open Athletic and Cycling Sports to be held in the Cappoquin Sportsfield, on Sunday, August, 14th, will be found in our Advt. columns, from which it will be seen that there are no less than 18 important events included, and rarely has such a varied and attractive programme been provided by any Sports Committee in Munster. With two important Munster Championships to be decided, this should prove to be the premier Sports meeting of the season.

MINOR FOOTBALL VICTORY.

The Cappoquin Minor Football team, scored a notable victory in their Co. Championship tie in Dungarvan on last Sunday, when they defeated the Pike Rovers team by 2 goals 1 point to 1 point.

Cappoquin led at the half-time interval by 1 goal 4 point to nil, both scores being cleverly made by Thos. Collender, and with M. Kiely, adding a further goal, during the second half against 1 point for the Rovers, the Cappoquin players won very comfortably on the above score.

CRICKET.

Hearne's XI, Waterford, travelled to Cappoquin on last Saturday to play a match with the home Cricket Club, on the latter's beautiful ground at Kiltree.

Cappoquin went in for the first innings, but were all out for 30 runs, while the visitors scored 80 runs in their first innings.

Cappoquin had started their second innings in promising style, and Mr. E. E. Hey, and Mr. D. McCarthy, were beginning to hit out freely when heavy heavy rain fell about 6 o'clock which, unfortunately, caused the abandonment of what had promised to be a most interesting match.

The Cappoquin Club will travel to Buttevant, Co. Cork, on Saturday, 30th, to play a return match with the home team, which beat Cappoquin by one run after a great match played in Cappoquin last season.

On next Monday afternoon (Bank Holiday), Cappoquin will be "At Home" to the Mallow Cricket Club, and as this will be the first meeting between these Clubs, a most interesting match should be witnessed here on Monday afternoon.

In consequence of these two important matches on Saturday and Monday, the match between Lismore and Cappoquin on next Sunday has been postponed.

MODELIGO HORSE AND PONY RACES.

Everybody is looking forward to the Modeligo Horse and Pony Races, on next Monday (Bank Holiday), as large entries have been received for the various events on the card, and the competition promises to be of the keenest and most exciting description. The Races will be held over a perfectly level stretch of all-grass country, quite close to Modeligo Chapel, and as a perfect view can be had from start to finish, all present are promised a most delightful afternoon's sport.

CAPPAGH SPORTS.

A grand Novices Sports Meeting, under N.A. and C.A. Rules, will be held in the Gaelic Field, at Cappagh, on Sunday week, August, 7th.

A splendid programme has been prepared. The Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band has been specially engaged for the occasion.

PUBLIC RELIEF.

The number of persons in receipt of public assistance under the Poor Law and receiving treatment in county institutions other than the district mental hospitals on the last Saturday of May, 1932, according to official figures in a statement issued by the Department of Local Government and Public Health was 112,348, including 31,984 in the unions in Dublin City and County, and 80,364 in all other public assistance districts. The total number on the corresponding day last year was 94,772.

Death of Miss E. Hyland.

EX-N.T., CAPPOQUIN.

Deep regret has been caused by the death of Miss Elizabeth Hyland, ex-N.T., which occurred at her residence Cappoquin, on Sunday evening, at the fine age of 91 years. The deceased was a member of an old and distinguished Cappoquin family, being a relative of Michael Cavanagh, the famous Cappoquin Poet and historian, and the author of, amongst other notable works, "Memoirs of General Thomas Francis Meagher," the brilliant Waterford patriot and soldier, who won fame as Commander of the "Irish Brigade" in France and later in America.

She was connected with the late John Walsh, Schoolmaster, Poet and Patriot of Cappoquin, who wrote the stirring rebel song, "The Old Cornestone," and who was brother of the late Richard Walsh, N.T., Modeligo, who with his brother, John, were both married to the two sisters of Michael Cavanagh, which cemented a lasting union between the families of days of the Fenian Brotherhood.

The late Miss Hyland, was in her earlier days, Principal Teacher of the National School in Ring, and later was appointed Principal of Affane School, and in both places she was always noted for her superior qualities as a Teacher, as she turned out many a brilliant and distinguished pupil.

After a long and successful connection with Affane School, she retired on pension about 28 years ago, and since then, she had resided with the Lawless family, in Shanbally, Cappoquin.

She was ever proud of her connection with the rebel families of Cavanagh and Walsh, and was a lady of the purest patriotism, and a sincere lover of her native land.

A devout and exemplary Catholic she was for nearly 30 years the President of the Sodality of the Sacred Heart, and was also prominent in every sphere of Catholic activity in her native town.

She was an exceptionally well-read lady and a brilliant conversationalist, while her charitable nature and rare charm of manner endeared her to all.

On Monday evening her remains were removed to St. Mary's Church, where they were received by the Very Rev. Canon Whelan, P.P., Rev. M. Lane, Mayo, and the Rev. J. Ahearne, C.C., Waterford.

On Tuesday Requiem High Mass was offered for the repose of her soul. The celebrant was Rev. M. Walsh, Brooklynn, (relative of deceased); deacon, Rev. M. Lane, Mayo, (relative); and sub-deacon, Rev. John Ahearne, C.C. The other clergymen present were:—Very Rev. Canon Whelan, P.P., Cappoquin; Very Rev. Canon Prendergast, P.P., Tallow; Very Rev. John Murphy, P.P., Four Mile Water; Rev. Father Wall, C.C., do.; Rev. Father Corbett, C.C., Tallow; Rev. T. O'Gorman, C.C., Lismore; and Rev. R. Power, C.C., do.

The funeral took place to the family burial ground in Affane Cemetery, and was largely attended, the final prayers at the graveside being recited by the Rev. M. Walsh, assisted by the Rev. M. Lane, and Canon Whelan. The Chief mourners included:—Miss H. J. Lawless, N.T., Ballymacarbery; Michael and Mrs. Lawless, Shanbally; Cappoquin; Rev. M. Lane, Mayo; Rev. M. Walsh, Boffala, New York; Miss Mary Walsh, Modeligo; the Misses Kitty and Mabel Lane, do.; Masters James and Andrew Lane, do.; Mrs. M. Walsh, Cork; Thos. and Mrs. Delaney, Kilkenny; Miss Agnes O'Riordan, Lismore; Miss M. Meade, do.; Thos. O'Riordan, do.; the Misses Annie and Katy Walsh, Cappoquin; Miss Eily Mullins, do.; the Misses Mary and Margaret Walsh, Shanbally; Mrs. Ivy Crowe, Cappoquin; Thos. J. Daly, do.; Miss Eily Donovan, Ballymacarbery, (cousins and relatives, etc.)—R.I.P.

WIFE JAMMED IN TAXI.

A crowd of 400 in Southend High-street, watched a 9 stone husband struggling to release his 20 stone wife from the door of a taxi-cab.

The woman in attempting to get into the cab slipped and became jammed.

The husband pulled, but nothing happened. He pushed and nothing happened. Some people assisted him. Still nothing happened.

The taxi-driver was just about to set off to get someone to cut the door away when a police-sergeant arrived. Opening the opposite door, he caught the woman by the shoulders, and placing his feet against the cab, pulled hard. Inch by inch he pulled the woman through the door. At last he managed to get her on to the seat. She was exhausted.

Husband, (summoned by his wife) She has only brought me here to-day because the last time we came one of her wisecracks got into the newspaper.

The Late Most Rev. Dr. O'Connor

BISHOP OF ARMIDALE, AUSTRALIA.

REQUIEM HIGH MASS AT MODELIGO.

A solemn Requiem Office and High Mass was held for the repose of the soul of the late Most Rev. Dr. P. J. O'Connor, Bishop of Armidale, Australia, in Modeligo Parish Church, on Thursday week, these special obsequies having been arranged by the Very Rev. M. Carroll, P.P., Modeligo, Cappoquin, who is a nephew of the deceased Prelate.

There was a very large congregation present, representing all the principal parishioners in Modeligo, while many other prominent persons also attended from Dungarvan, Cappoquin and other outside districts.

The Right Rev. Dom Stanislaus Hickey, O.Cist., Lord Abbot of Mount Mellary, Cappoquin, presided over the obsequies, assisted by the Ven. Archdeacon Byrne, Vicar Capitular, Ballybricken, Waterford, and the Very Rev. Canon Power, Armidale, Australia.

The celebrant of the Mass was the Rev. Dr. P. Dunne, Tanworth, Armidale; deacon, the Right Rev. Chancellor Phelan, Sydney; sub-deacon, Rev. Earnest Walsh, Sydney; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. P. F. McGrath, C.C., Dungarvan.

The other clergymen present included:—Very Rev. Canon Walsh, Tallow; Very Rev. Canon Whelan, D.D., P.P., Cappoquin; Very Rev. Canon Prendergast, Carrick-on-Suir; Very Rev. £10 FINE FOR ILLEGAL FISHING.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, Thos. Butler, Wm. Hennessy, Patk. Maher, and John Maher, were fined £10 each for fishing with nets in the Suir, during the week-end close season.

Defendants pleaded guilty to the charge.

Mr. Verrington, solr., for the Fishery Conservators.

Mr. Quirke, solr., for the defendants.

EVADING PAYING DOG LICENSES.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, when Mr. McCabe, fined about 50 persons for not having paid dog licenses. Supt. Fitzgerald said nearly 60 per cent. of the dog owners in the Court district had endeavoured to evade paying dog licenses this year. The Justice said these people put the State to great trouble and expense.

CO. KILKENNY MEETING.

WITHHOLD RENTS, RATES AND TAXES.

"My idea is that we should withhold rents, rates and taxes. By doing so we will be touching the community at large, and we will show them at headquarters that we are alive to the situation," declared Mr. Wm. Murphy at a meeting of Kilkenny farmers, at Loughcullen Creamery, where a discussion took place on the present Anglo-Irish crisis.

The meeting adjourned without coming to a definite decision, in order to await developments.

St. Declan.

FOUNDER OF ARDMORE.

"Declan, Patrick of the Deisi, the Decies to Declan for ever."—Lines by St. Patrick.

THE ruined Churches and monasteries of our land have ever been objects of loving veneration, and are to us golden links with the past glories of our race. What hallowed memories crowd in upon us as, standing amidst the ruins of Declan's holy Ardmore, we see the relics of a past when valiant men and holy brethren assembled for the worship of the King of Kings, and students in pursuit of knowledge came from afar. About five miles east of Youghal Harbour, and within easy reach of the town of Youghal, stands Declan's holy city, for here, on the lovely bay of Ardmore, facing the Atlantic Ocean, with the Drum-fineen hills (mentioned by the Four Masters under date A.M. 3502) as a background, Declan planted the Cross of Christ in pagan Ireland, and erected a famous ecclesiastical foundation. In the Annals of Innisfallen, we find that Ciaran and Daiglan came from Rome as bishops. Ciaran founded Saighir (Queen's County), and Daiglan, Ardmore amongst the Deisi. The exact date of Declan's birth is unknown, but from the life of the saint, written by the Franciscan, Michael O'Clery (chief of the Four Masters), who copied it from the book of Eochy O'Heffernan of Cashel, it appears he was born at the place now identified as Drumore, near Cappoquin, and that he was baptised by Colman, a priest who was afterwards a bishop. After careful upbringing amongst his own people and studying under one Dioma, Parion of Cill-Dioma, Declan proceeded to Rome to "study discipline and ecclesiastical system." It is stated in the life that while in Italy Declan met Patrick, who was not a bishop at the time, though he was made a bishop subsequently by Pope Celestinus, who sent him to preach to the Irish. The territory of the Decii once included the whole of the County Waterford, with the baronies of Iffa and Offa, east and west, as well as portions of Middlethird and Slieveardagh, County Tipperary, and the baronies (or parts of them) of Imokilly, Condons and Clangibbion, and possibly Kinnatoloo and Barrymore, County Cork. This vast territory, according to Brother Michael O'Clery, received the first beams of Christian enlightenment from the labours of St. Declan the most blessed Bishop Declan of the most noble race of the Kings of Ireland, i.e., the holy bishop was of the most noble royal family of Ireland, a family who held the sceptre of Ireland and enacted tribute from all Ireland at Tara for ages." It was of the race of Eoghan Mac Fiacha Suighde that the Kings of the Decies belonged, and St. Declan was of this race of Eoghan. If thou has the right, O. Erin, to a champion of battle to aid thee, thou hast the head of a hundred thousand, Declan of Ardmore (Martyrology of Oengus).

It is now the generally accepted belief of commentators that Declan preceded St. Patrick, but that his missionary work was limited to his own tribal people. Certain it is that Patrick or any of his evangelists never entered the principality of the Munster Decies, except at Patrick's Well, near Clonmel, as Christianity had already entered there. The late Rev. Dr. Henebery and Professor Kuno Meyer ("Learning in Ireland in the Fifth Century") strongly support this view. In the "Life of St. Declan," written by O'Clery, at present in the Royal Library of Brussels, and translated by the Very Rev. Canon Power, D.Litt., M.R.I.A., (Irish Texts Society, vol. xvi., 1914) we have a beautiful account of Declan's meeting with St. Patrick at Patrick's Well, his submission to the latter as Primate, and Patrick blessing Declan, his people, their "woods, and water and lands." St. Declan's failure to convert his own tribal chief, Ledban, seems to have caused sorrow to the saint, as he addressed his people as follows:—"Separate yourself from this accursed man lest you become yourselves accursed on his account, for I have myself baptised you; but come you to Patrick, whom God has sent to bless you, for he has been chosen Archbishop and chief patron of all Erin. Moreover, I have a right of my own patrimony and to be king over you, as that man (Ledban) has been." After this Declan deposed Ledban and appointed Feargal Mac Cormac, who was blessed by Patrick and proclaimed chieftain. At a Synod subsequent to this, held at Cashel, it was ordained by St. Patrick that the Archbishopric of Munster should belong to St. Ailbe, and in like manner to St. Declan was committed his own race, whom he had converted, and St. Patrick made the rann:—"Humble Ailbe, the Patrick of Munster, greater than any saying; Declan, Patrick of the Deisi—the Decies to Declan for ever."

Declan died about the year 450. The "Life of St. Declan" gives many miracles performed by him, and concludes that "having banished images and the sacrifices to idols, having converted multitudes to the true faith, having established monasteries and ecclesiastical orders in various places, having spent his life profitably and holily, this glorious bishop went to Heaven on the 9th day of the kalends of August, and his body was blessed and honoured with Masses, and chanting by holy men and by the people of the Decies, and by his own monks, and disciples collected from every quarter at the time of his death." He was buried in his own city in "Declan's high place."

Of the ecclesiastical ruins of Ardmore, I am unable to give a detailed account owing to the space at my disposal. The beannachan, or oratory, is perhaps the earliest Christian structure surviving in Ireland, and measures 13 ft. 4 ins. by 8 ft. 9 ins. with walls 20 inches in thickness. One window, its head fashioned out of a single stone, lighted the building. Within it is the traditional grave of the saint, from which pilgrims for generations have taken earth, leaving a large pit in the floor. A slated roof was placed on the building in 1726. The round tower is 97 feet high, with a door 12 ft. 6 ins. from the ground, and is the most perfect specimen remaining in our land. It is divided on the outside into four storeys, marked off by projecting string courses and slight rebates, giving it the appearance of a huge telescope. A conical stone cap crowns the building. In 1642 the tower was occupied by the Irish, together with Ardmore Castle, and besieged by the English under Lords Dungarvan and Broghill. The beleaguered capitulated, and 117 of their number were hanged.

The Cathedral is of various periods, and many styles, namely, early Celtic, Hiberno-Romanesque, Irish Transitional, and Gothic, and is quite unique. An extraordinary feature of the church is the wonderful series of Celtic arcades and panels filled with archaic sculptures in relief, which occupy the whole external face of the west gable. They include such subjects as the Fall of Man, Judgment of Solomon, and Visit of Mary. Situated about three-quarters of a mile from the round tower, on the edge of the cliff, stand the ruins of Temple Desert and the Holy Well of St. Declan. The saint retired to Desert before he died. The "wars of the Gaedhul and Gall" make reference under date 824 to the plunder by Northmen of Desert. The church is 68 ft. long internally. On Sunday, 24th July, this year, thousands paid "rounds" at the Holy Well, when the great "pattern" of Ardmore was held. This "pattern" is very ancient. The well is arched over and is surmounted by three figures of the Crucifixion, two of which are antique. The water from the well drains into a shallow basin, where sore eyes, ailing limbs, etc., are bathed by pilgrims.

ST. DECLAN'S STONE.
This is a glacial boulder on the strand beneath the village, and probably was ice-borne from the Comeragh mountains. Many legends attach to it, and pilgrims crawl under it, as it rests on a two-edged rock. There are two ogham stones at Ardmore. The inscription on one, as interpreted by the late Rev. Dr. Henebery reads: "Lugaid, son of a man of the tribe of Neta Segamon, a pupil of Bishop Bigus." The translated inscription on the second stone reads, "Amadu."

EAST CORK JUNIOR FOOTBALL CHAMPIONSHIP SEMI-FINAL.

YOUGHAL V. BRIDE ROVERS.

The above Championship was advanced a further stage on Sunday at the Copperalley Grounds, Youghal, when the local team met, and overcame the Bride Rovers. The game was rather one-sided, Youghal proving much too good for their opponents and the winning margin would have been bigger only for the fine defensive tactics of Bride Rovers. A rather sparse gathering was present, when punctual to the time, Mr. S. Moynihan, Middleton, F.C., set the game under way. From the throw-in Youghal attacked and after a few minutes play opened the scoring with a minor. The homsters, still remained on the offensive and following some determined incursions raised the green flag. Bride Rovers rarely entered their opponents territory in this half, and before the interval came Youghal again raised the green flag, leaving the score:—

YOUGHAL—2 goals 1 point.
BRIDE ROVERS—Nil.

On resuming, the visitors made a breakaway which was effectively checked and play was transferred to the other end, where some clever passing amongst the home forwards resulted in a minor score. A like score was shortly afterwards placed to the homsters credit. Rovers were now fighting hard to score, and after a fierce bout in centre-field, succeeded in getting close in and raised the green flag. Youghal immediately replied with a similar score. The visitors were again pinned to their own lines, but the opposing forwards were well held. A fine spurt by Rovers brought relief and following up raised the white flag. Just before the final whistle they again recorded a minor, leaving the score:—

YOUGHAL—3 goals 3 points.
BRIDE ROVERS—1 goal 2 points.

The teams were—Youghal—M. O'Sullivan (Capt); J. Sullivan, M. Sullivan, Jas. Sullivan, P. Ring, W. Caskley, M. J. Mahony, T. Brian, W. Norris, D. Walsh, F. Duggan, C. Donoghue, T. Donoghue, A. Monaghan, T. Healy.
Bride Rovers—E. Barry (Capt); J. Moloney, J. Healy, W. Hanan, C. O'Brien, T. Barry, J. Healy, W. Barry, M. Hanley, J. J. Barry, C. Monahan, T. Hanley, M. Greaney, J. Barry, J. T. Barry.

Husband: I rejoice when I hear the lodgers give my wife a telling-off, because it is more than I dare do.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present—Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Chairman; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. D. Dennehy, P. J. McMahon, P.C., D. J. Linehan, T. Beausang, E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman, A. J. Fowkes, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; J. Whelan, T. Harrington, T. Murphy, J. Kennedy.

Acknowledgment.
Mrs. S. Hurley, P.C., U.D.C., wrote conveying her children's and her own appreciation of the tribute passed to the memory of her dear husband in the resolution of the Council, and the motion of adjournment. She also wished to thank them individually for their consoling sentiments, and Mr. McMahon, in particular, for his reference to the work of her dear departed husband in Youghal, in words both honourable and true. For 13 years he worked unceasingly amongst the poor who greatly appreciated his kindness, and understanding. Always straightforward in his dealings, the respect he was held in was shown by the attendance at his funeral. She also thanked the Town Clerk, for the great sympathy and assistance he had rendered in their sad affliction.

Cork-Youghal Line.
The following was read from Mr. M. J. Lally, Station Master, Youghal: "Dear Sir,—In view of the increasing inroad and motor lorries in our goods traffic, I am advised that my Company will be forced, unless the position improves immediately, to close the line from Cork to Youghal. I need hardly say that this would mean that Youghal would cease to exist both as a seaside resort and a market town. Last December your Council was good enough to pass a resolution and publish a notice in the Press, appealing to traders and others to support the Rail service in every possible way, and your Council have also led the way in the matter by using our services for the transport of all goods used in its various departments and undertakings. I regret, however, to have to state that your appeal to the public does not appear to have had the desired effect, and the use of motor lorries as a means of transporting goods to and from Youghal has increased to the extent that my Company now regard the Youghal line as being unremunerative and consequently as one that must be closed down. Accordingly, I must ask you to draw the attention of the Council to the subject once again, and to have some action taken, which would prevent such a happening. The members of your Council are aware that no other form of transport could transport the thousands, who visit Youghal each year, and that no other form of transport could deal with the livestock from your fairs and markets. When it is remembered how many hotels, boarding-houses and restaurants depend on the visitors for their existence, and that those establishments in turn are supported by the traders of the town, it will be at once seen what the rail services really mean to Youghal."

In addition to these points, when it is remembered that the Railway Company pays nearly £2,000 per annum in wages in this district, most of which finds its way back into the pockets of the traders of the town, and that the Company are also the largest ratepayers in the district, it will be seen that the Rail Company is an asset that Youghal cannot afford to lose. I feel confident that your Council having the best interests of the town in mind, will do all in their power to call for concerted action on the part of the traders to dispense with lorry services and give the Railway Company the fullest measure of support. I shall be very thankful, therefore, if you will have the matter considered by the Council in light of the facts I have stated.—Yours faithfully—M. J. Lally.

The Strand Protective Association forwarded a letter to the same effect, received by them.
Mr. McMahon said they could not force traders to do what they didn't want to do.
The Chairman—We have gone as far as we could.
Mr. Murphy said he had 2 lorries working, but he also got a lot of stuff by rail, which cost 2/- a ton extra to cart from the station. If the Railway want to get back the goods traffic, they should revise their rates.
Mr. Fowkes thought there was very little good in the Council passing resolutions asking traders to make use of the railway until the railway overhauled their traffic rates and competed with the cost of lorry transport.
Mr. Dennehy said it would be a calamity for Youghal if the line were closed. The trouble was largely caused by the late Government saddling the Railway Company with branches that were not paying. The question was one for Government intervention.

Mr. Fowkes said another matter for consideration was that goods ordered were delivered by motor traffic the next day. It took 2 or 3 days by rail.
Mr. Harrington asked how could they expect traders to use the railway for the transport of goods when the cost was substantially higher.
Mr. O'Gorman said that was a matter for very serious consideration, as it involved the life of the town to a great degree. It was the most serious crisis which they had ever faced and they should do all in their power to keep the connection with Cork open. He wouldn't like to visualise the condition of things in Youghal as a seaside resort in 12 months time if the line closed down. It was all very fine to talk of getting goods by the cheapest route, but if the line were closed with the subsequent loss of their summer tourist traffic and their fairs and markets, the traders would require a very small supply of goods to meet the demands under the new conditions.

Mr. Broderick agreed with all that Mr. O'Gorman had said as regards the prospect before the town if the line were closed down, but as had also been said, the Railway Company was not moving with the times in the matter of charges. He would be only too glad to do all his transport by rail, but it would mean a matter of £300 a year extra.
Mr. Lynch said the closing of the line would mean an end to their monthly fairs, which were such a great asset to the town, especially the North and Centre wards.

Mr. Murphy said the towns on the line between Cork and Youghal were largely responsible as they had regular lorry services under way.
Mr. Whelan said if the line closed down Youghal would revert to the status of a fishing village. Last Sunday for instance, 7,000 visitors arrived by train. There was no other known method of transport capable of coping with such an influx.
Mr. O'Gorman, having referred to what had been done by Mitchelstown in similar circumstances, proposed that they call a public meeting on the 29th., to consider the steps to be taken. After further considerable discussion, this was unanimously passed.

The Bathing Question.
The strand caretaker, sent in a number of names of men found bathing in the ladies part of the strand, since the previous meeting.
Mr. McMahon proposed, and Mr. Harrington seconded, that they be prosecuted.

Mr. McMahon said he was aware that certain parties were strongly inclined to take the law into their own hands and use forcible methods to put a stop to this defiance of the Council and its bye-laws by certain parties.
Mr. Dennehy said that might necessitate an application to bind to the peace.
Mr. Broderick said he would like to emphasize the fact that the Council wasn't prosecuting those persons for mixed bathing, but for bathing on the portion reserved for ladies.
Mr. Fowkes called attention to the fact that not a single Youghal man was involved in that breach of the bathing bye-laws.
Finally, on the suggestion of Mr. O'Gorman, it was decided to defer those prosecutions for the present.

Foreign Coal.
The Gas Manager, submitted communications from English firms, offering to supply American or Continental coal for the gas works.
It was decided to take no action for the present.

Land Annuities Question.
Mr. Lynch, said the present was a time of serious National crisis, and he proposed that they congratulate President de Valera, on the stand he had taken on the question of the Land Annuities, and that they pledge their support to the Government on that important matter. He asked the Council to be unanimous. After all they wanted all the support they could get to try and bring that question right.
Mr. Beausang seconded.
The Chairman said there was a resolution on the books against entertaining anything political at that Board, and he considered that proposition political.

Mr. Lynch said it wasn't a political matter, but a national one. If they had a drop of Irish blood in them, they would stand behind the Government.
The Chairman said there was plenty Irish blood around that table.
Messrs. Lynch and Beausang made further protests against the Chairman's ruling, but the latter adhered to it.

Sympathy.
On the proposition of Mr. O'Gorman, seconded by Messrs. Beausang, Chairman and others associating themselves with it, a vote of sympathy was passed to their former colleague, Mr. J. Forrest, on the death of his mother.

Camogie Club.
An application from Miss Hallisay, Hon. Sec., Camogie Club, for the use of the Ball Room, on the night of August 7th., to hold a cinderella dance was granted unanimously.

Another Postcard.
The Clerk said he had received another postcard.
Mr. Beausang—Don't read it. It wasn't read.

Irish Tourist Association.
A letter was read from the Secretary of the Irish Tourist Association, calling attention to the fact that there was no representatives from Youghal at their meetings.
Several members pointed out that anyone attending should pay their own expenses.
No action was taken.

KLEPTOMANIA DEFENCE IN LARCENY CASE.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, before Mr. McCabe, D.J., in the case in which John Cummins, aged 18 years, was charged with a number of petty larcenies. The defence was that the boy is a kleptomaniac and of mental defect.
Dr. J. C. Halpin, M.O., stated the boy is not responsible for his actions. He has a mania for petty larcenies. The case was adjourned for a month.

MILK CASES.
Guard Patrick Walsh, Inspector of Foods and Drugs, charged Wm. McAuliffe, Ballynoe, with selling milk deficient in fat.

On the application of Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., for defendant, the case was adjourned to next Court.
Sergt. Wm. Hogan, Ballyduff, charged Thomas O'Connell, Chapel Street, Tallow, with a like offence.
Mr. Hodnett, defended.

Complainant having given formal evidence, handed in the Analyst's certificate, showing the deficiency to be 10 per cent.
Cross-examined by Mr. Hodnett—Witness said that the pad was only about one-third full when he took the sample.

Mr. Hodnett said he had to take exception to the Analyst's certificate in that case. The Analyst stated that in his opinion 10 per cent. of the fat had been extracted from the milk. He respectfully submitted that such a statement should not have appeared on the certificate. The Analyst was entitled to use that only in a case of adulteration, and that wasn't one of adulteration.
The Justice—Is it not one of statutory adulteration?
Mr. Hodnett—No, sir.

The Justice asked in the wording of the Regulations wasn't there a presumption that the milk wasn't genuine by reason of the deficiency in the milk fat or the alleged addition of water. Didn't that amount to the same thing?
Mr. Hodnett said there was a distinction between adulteration and effects not arising from adulteration.
After some arguments, Mr. Hodnett, quoted authority and cases in favour of his point and said that the defendant was a butcher and milk vendor, who kept seven cows on 150 acres of the best land in the neighbourhood of Tallow. All the milk was sold in the shop.

Mrs. Mulcahy, stated that he milked the cows, having brought them from the field into the stalls. He was in the shop when the Sergt. took the sample.
The Justice—Was it the evenings milk he took the sample from?
Witness said it was. He brought the milk into the shop and poured it into a large pail. All the vessels were clean and dry, and the cows were milked dry. The milk wasn't tampered with in any way. He worked for Mr. O'Connell for the past 20 years. There wasn't much grass at the time, in April, and the cows also got mangolds. It was suitable feeding for that time of the year.

Replying to the Court, witness said he finished the milking at 4.30, and the Sergt. came at about 5.45.
Was all the milk of the cows put into the one vessel?—Yes.
Who was in charge of it?—Miss O'Connell.

Miss Norah O'Connell, sister of defendant, said they had a number of regular customers who left their vessels and these were filled from the pail. The milk wasn't tampered with in any way. When the Sergt. came there was very little left, and she had to tip it on one side to get the sample for him. Any milk left over was used to feed calves, and for the house. That was the first prosecution in 30 years, although samples had been taken from time to time.

Replying to the Court, witness said there was no milk left over from the morning. There was only 3 or 4 pints left when the Sergt. called.
Defendant stated his land was some of the best around. The cows had been properly fed. The weather was very bad in April and May and grass was scarce. The cows, therefore, got mangolds. That was the only way he could account for the deficiency. He had been selling milk 40 years and was never prosecuted before.

To the Court—He swore that he had not tampered with the milk in any way.
The Justice said he was satisfied with the defence, and the case was dismissed.

Larceny.
Richard Pratt, Ballynoroan, Ballyduff, was charged with the larceny of an oilskin coat, the property of the G.S.R.
Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, prosecuted, and Mr. Hodnett, solr., defended.
Peter Ryan, stated he was a plate layer, employed by the G.S.R., and had charge of the tool hut at Waterpark. On June 4th, he saw it locked up, and took charge of the key. On the 8th June, he noticed that the lock had been forced and a suit of oilers—coat, hat and pull-ups taken. They were the property of the ganger.
Jas. Cunningham, labourer, employed by the Waterford Co. Council, stated that on June 6th., the accused offered him an oilskin coat for £1. Witness offered 10/-, which he refused. On the 8th, accused said he had leggings and hat to match the coat. A day or two after, witness bought the suit (produced) from the accused for 17/6. When witness heard that the Guards were looking for the things, he brought them to the barrack at Tallow, to see if they were what was wanted. He didn't know at the time that they had been stolen. He was out of his 17/6.
Samuel Jestin, stated he was in charge of the clothing stores at Inchicore. The number on the oil-clothing supplied to Thomas Lillis, ganger, on May, 1931, was 934, and that was the number on the coat produced. The accused was at one time employed on the line. He believed his number was 988. His services were dispensed with in November 1930.
Thomas Lillis, ganger, stated he was working on the Waterpark section last June. About the second of the month he left his oilskins in the hut there. As a result of a complaint received, he visited the place and saw that the lock had been broken and the oilers taken. He identified the articles produced as his. He had a mark of his own, the letters "T.L." in the coat. There was a sign of it still there.
Mr. Hodnett, on behalf of his client, pleaded guilty, and asked the Court to deal leniently with him for the sake of his wife and young family of four. It was his first lapse and it was all due to drink. Since his discharge from the railway, he had only had odd jobs from time to time, and he was the sole support of the family.
Mr. Hodnett here produced references from the Parish Priest, C.C., and from a P.C., and said the man was willing to do all he could to remedy the wrong he had done.
Replying to the Court, the Supt. said the costs involved amounted to £1 17s. 10d.
The Justice said there must be some punishment for such an offence. It was breaking and entering, next door to burglary. He had no sympathy with the defendant, and would have no hesitation in sending him to jail, but for his family. In the circumstances, he would let him out under the P.O.A., order him to pay the costs incurred and enter into his own recognisances in the sum of £5.

Civil Bills.

A number of Civil Bills in which Messrs. J. J. Ronayne, W. R. Hodnett, T. K. Keane, and J. N. R. Macnamara, solicitors, appeared for plaintiffs, were first disposed of.

License Case.

Mr. P. J. Meade, Atlantic Hotel, was charged with a breach of the Licensing Laws on June 3rd, and a number of visitors from the city were charged with being on the premises. Superintendent Dennehy, prosecuted.

Mr. Hodnett, solr., appeared for Mr. Meade, and for some of the parties found on the premises, and Mr. J. J. Ronayne, solr., for the others.

Sergt. Lupton, stated that at 9.40 p.m., on the date in question, he found a number of parties including ladies in the diningroom. The proprietor said they were having some refreshment. There were sandwiches on the tables and some of the parties had drinks. Miss Meade said she thought she could serve drink with food after 9 o'clock. He found others in the passage of the diningroom.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hodnett—Witness said that the bar was closed. There were eight ladies at a table by themselves. Mr. Meade had sometimes called in the Guards to help him clear the place at closing time when pressed. In that respect he seemed anxious to comply with the law.

Replying to Mr. Ronayne—Witness said that one of his clients had lemonade.

Guard P. J. O'Connor, gave corroborative evidence. All the parties except one said they entered the premises after 9 o'clock.

Mr. Hodnett said nobody regretted that unfortunate occurrence more than his client. The day was a very busy one—a wet Sunday—and those people kept to the house. The bar was closed as usual. The defendants were in the diningroom having refreshment. Strange as it might seem, the management believed that they could supply drink with food, even after 9 o'clock. That seemed to be a point of law about which there was a doubt.

The Justice—How could there be any doubt about it?

Mr. Hodnett said there seemed to have been a general idea that food could be supplied at any time.

The Justice—Food, perhaps.

Mr. Hodnett—And drink with the food.

The Justice asked was not that point dealt with clearly in the section.

Mr. Hodnett said he agreed, but his client in company with many others thought otherwise. That was his professional experience. Now that the point had been cleared his client was most strict in carrying out the law. If that Act of '27, was to be enforced to the letter in seaside resorts like Youghal, it would be almost impossible for hotel proprietors to carry on business in the summer. He knew of a party of motorists who visited a seaside resort in a neighbouring County, where they were informed they could get refreshments up to 10 o'clock on Sunday's with a special examination order. He respectfully suggested there should be some latitude of a similar kind in Youghal. The house had a perfectly clean record since his client had taken it over and perhaps in the circumstances, the Superintendent having the point in doubt cleared up, might see his way to withdraw the case.

Mr. Ronayne associated himself with all that Mr. Hodnett had said. His clients had believed that they could get a drink with their food. He was quite aware that ignorance of the law was no excuse. The ordinary man was supposed to have a wide knowledge of the law—the laws of contract, Courts, property and the criminal law—for a knowledge of which the lawyer had to consult his books. One of the Georges said that lawyers didn't know any more than others, but they knew where to find the law (laughter). It would be, as Mr. Hodnett had said, a graceful act if, in the circumstances, the case was withdrawn.

Replying to the Court, the Superintendent said he couldn't withdraw the case. He agreed that there should be a little give and take on seaside resorts during the season, as the people concerned were not the usual type found in inland towns after hours. For that reason, he didn't wish to press the case, but to make it clear to the proprietors that those things can't be done.

The Justice said that Mr. Ronayne's reference to the dictum of George III., called to mind a saying of, he thought, Mr. Augustine Birrell, to the effect that—"One of the principal functions of the lawyer was to explain the obvious," and the force of that expression was very often demonstrated in the District Courts. In cases of unlicensed dogs, he was constantly faced with the excuse that the defendants thought it would be all right if he had paid the licence in March. Although the Act of '24 specifically laid down January 1st. There they had a similar case. He was told that the defendant believed that he was within his right in supplying drink with food after 9 o'clock in face of the expressed injunction of the Act of '27. He hoped that the obvious in that case was now sufficiently explained, and that it wouldn't be necessary to make the obvious more obvious. Having dealt at length with the Section involved, the Justice said he was satisfied with Mr. Meade's bona fides, but he would have to fine him 20/- not to be recorded, as he held the offence to be trivial, and the parties found on the premises 2/6 each. If there was any further prosecution of the kind, he would not interfere with the penalty specified by the Act.

Mr. Ronayne asked what about that client of his who had got no liquor.

The Justice—It would be rather too hard to penalize him for drinking ginger beer (laughter). I will dismiss the charge in his case.

Charge Of False Pretences.

Kitty Heffernan, Clonmel, aged 18, was brought up, in custody, on remand, charged with obtaining goods and board and lodgings at Youghal, and Middleton, on false pretences.

Superintendent Dennehy, prosecuted. The Justice—I didn't take her statement. (To the accused)—You know what you are charged with?

Accused—Yes, sir.

The Justice—What have you to say? Accused—Guilty.

The Supt. said unfortunately there was another charge pending against her for obtaining £5 or £6 worth of clothes in Clonmel. He suggested a suspensory sentence, not to take effect if she went to and remained in the Good Shepherds Home, Cork.

The Justice said he had intended sending her to jail for 3 months, but as the Superintendent considered that jail wouldn't be a suitable place for her, he wouldn't do so if she agreed to go to the Good Shepherds for six months.

Accused said she would go.

She was let out under the P.O.A., on the condition mentioned, the Justice remarking he didn't like the idea of a suspensory sentence. She was also bound in her own recognisances of £5 to be of good behaviour for 3 years.

Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., applied on behalf of Mr. Vincent Aherne, 2, Talow Street, for an ad interim transfer of the license held by Mr. J. Power.

Formal evidence having been given and there being no objection by the Civic Guards, the application was granted.

Lismore Notices Sports

(UNDER N.A. & C.A. RULES.)

Postponed from Sunday, July 3rd, owing to inclement weather, the above Sports were held in the Gaelic Grounds, Lismore, on last Sunday afternoon, under more favourable conditions and proved an undoubted success.

Despite numerous counter-attractions in Fermoy, Dungarvan, Tramore and Ardmore, there was a remarkably large attendance of spectators from many parts of the county, and with a large number of competitors and keen competition for the various events, a most interesting programme of high-class sport was enjoyed by all. With the exception of a few slight showers, the weather proved fine and warm for the greater part of the afternoon, but about 6 o'clock, while the three-mile cycle race was proceeding, there was a heavy and prolonged down-pour of rain, which quickly cleared the field of spectators, and caused the Committee to postpone until next Sunday a few unimportant events which figured at the end of the programme. Held as they were as Novices Sports, under the Rules of the N.A. and C.A., all the events should have been confined to competitors resident in the Co. Waterford, but for some reason or other the promoters ran the fixture as an open Sports Meeting, and accepted entries from the counties of Cork and Tipperary, as well as from Waterford, and this led to an unfortunate crash in the eight-mile road race which was won in convincing style by John Shanahan, Carrick-on-Suir, who was afterwards objected to by the second man, Charlie Guest, Lismore, on the ground that the winner did not belong to the Co. Waterford.

Whatever may be thought of the sportsmanship of the objection, Mr. Guest was quite within his rights under the rules of the N.A. and C.A., and although the Sports Committee overruled the objection, it was subsequently upheld by the Co. Board of the N.A. and C.A., so that a rather awkward position has now been created, which could not have arisen if the rule confining competitors to the Co. Waterford had been adhered to.

With this solitary exception, the Sports were carried out in a very satisfactory manner by the various officials, who worked hard to have the various events run off well up to time and they deserve to be congratulated on the success which attended their efforts in this respect.

A feature of the meeting was the wonderful form displayed by C. Guest, Lismore, who won the one, two, and three miles cycling events over the grass track in very easy fashion. The winner of the road race, young Shanahan is a promising and genuine sportsman and offered to put up the Cup for a special race between Guest and himself over the same distance if the former agreed to withdraw his objection, which he refused to do.

The Officials were as follows:— Starter of Road Cycle Race—D. Drohan. General Starter of Track and Field events—John F. O'Donnell. Judges—M. Byrne, G. S. Lismore; John Ormond and Wm. Hogan. Call Steward—J. Campton. Treasurer—James Ross. Hon. Sec.—M. V. O'Donoghue, B.E.

At the conclusion of the programme, the valuable prizes were distributed to the successful competitors by the Rev. R. Power, C.C., Lismore.

Details:— 8 miles cycling road race, from Lismore around Cappoquin Bridge and finishing in Lismore—John Shanahan, Carrick-on-Suir, 1. C. Guest, Lismore, 2. D. Cullinane, Tour, Cappoquin, 3. Ten competitors took part in this event, the entire lot being sent off to a capital start by Mr. D. Drohan, Lismore.

Coming round Cappoquin Bridge, Guest, Cullinane, Shanahan and T. Wall, Fermoy, were racing well ahead of the others, in the order named, until passing Kibree on the return journey when Cullinane got a bad spill through colliding with one of the others, which spoilt all his chances of victory. Guest and Shanahan continued to race neck and neck until within a short distance from the finish, when Shanahan forged ahead coming up the rather steep "Gallows Hill," and successfully staving off Guest's final challenge, the Carrick man, won a grand race by a good margin, with Cullinane who had remounted after his accident at Kibree, proving a good third.

Guest subsequently lodged an objection to Shanahan on the ground that he was not a resident of the Co. Waterford but the Committee overruled the objection and awarded the race to Shanahan, but decided to withhold the first prize pending an appeal by Guest to the Co. Board of the N.A. and C.A.

100 yards flat for boys under 12 years—Final—J. J. Hannigan, Campshire, 1; J. Barry, Tourin, 2. Also competed—J. Bransfield, Lismore; and A. Whelan, Waterford. Won by 2 yards.

100 yards (open)—Final—J. Ormond, Lismore, 1; Percy Kirwan, Kilmacethomas, 2. Also competed—J. Beecher Tallow; and T. Walsh, Kinsalebeg. Won a great race by a yard.

A challenge was later issued to the winner by Walter Walsh, Carrick, who was described as the champion 100 yards runner of the Co. Waterford, and this being promptly accepted, a special 100 yards race was run off between the two, and this was won in easy style by Ormond, who breast-stroke the tape fully 4 yards in front of the challenger, amidst loud cheers from the large number of his Lismore supporters present.

One mile cycle—First heat—C. Guest, Lismore, 1; W. Nicholson, Knockanore, 2. Four competed.

Second heat—M. Landers, Campshire, 1; T. Wall, Fermoy, 2. Four competed.

Final—C. Guest, Lismore, 1; W. Nicholson, Campshire, 2. Also competed—M. Landers and T. Wall.

Wall retired after the first lap, and a fast race then resulted between Guest and Nicholson, the former winning by about ten lengths.

440 yards flat—Win Revins, Glendine, 1; M. Murphy, do. 2. Also competed—W. O'Brien, Lismore; C. Mansfield, Cappoquin; P. English, do.; D. Leahy, Ballyhooley; J. J. Gallagher, do., and J. Beecher, Tallow. Won by two yards.

High jump—J. Power, Ballinamull, 5 ft. 3ins. 1; D. Leahy, and P. O'Mahony, do., tied for second place at 5 ft. 2 ins., but on the toss of a coin Leahy won. Also competed—P. Ryan, Knockanore; P. English, Cappoquin; J. Baldwin, Knockanore; J. Gallagher, Ballyhooley; L. Daly, Tallow; and W. Revins, Glendine.

Two miles cycle—C. Guest, Lismore, 1; W. Nicholson, Knockanore, 2. Also competed—J. Shanahan, Carrick and J. Ryan, Glendine.

Guest and Shanahan made the pace a hot one from the start, with Nicholson and Ryan bringing up the rear. At the bell Guest shot to the front, but was being gamely challenged by Shanahan, when the latter's machine skidded coming round a bend, bringing the rider down with great force as a result of which he was stunned for some time. This robbed the race of all further interest, and Guest then went on to win in the easiest fashion by about 30 lengths from Nicholson, who was the only other competitor to complete the journey.

880 yards flat—W. Revins, Glendine, 1; P. Power, Carrick, 2. Also competed—P. Ryan, Knockanore; M. Curran, Glendine; and W. O'Brien, do. Won by 3 yards.

Pole jump—T. Scanlan, Coolane, Cappoquin, 1; D. Leahy, Ballyhooley, 2. Also competed—P. English, Cappoquin; C. Mansfield, do.; M. Murphy, do.; J. J. Gallagher, Ballyhooley; and M. Crowley, Lismore.

Scanlan and Leahy tied for first prize at 8 ft. 9ins., but on a toss up, Scanlan was declared the winner.

Composite race—walk a lap, run a lay and cycle a lap.—J. Murphy, Glendine, 1; J. Ryan, do., 2. Also competed—W. Nicholson, do.

Slinging 56 lbs., without follow—M. Browne, Knockanore, (21 ft. 4 ins.) 1; M. Byrne, Round Hill, Lismore, and S. Moore, Ballinacela, tied for second place at 20 ft. 10 ins.

In a throw-off, Byrne threw the weight 21 ft. 8 ins. and Moore, 21 ft. 5 ins., both of which beat the winning throw, and Byrne was declared second. Nine competed.

Three miles cycle.—C. Guest, Lismore, 1; D. Cullinane, Tour, 2. Also competed—W. Nicholson, Knockanore, and J. Ryan, Glendine. J. Shanahan, Carrick, was unable to complete in this race owing to the injury he had sustained through falling in the two-mile race.

Ryan retired after the first mile, and Nicholson made the pace for several laps, closely attended by Cullinane and Guest. Coming round for the last lap Guest shot out in front, and although challenged by Cullinane, he maintained premier position and won a great race by eight lengths, Nicholson being four lengths behind.

Owing to a heavy downpour of rain at this stage, the Relay race, Baining and striking the hurling ball and some minor events had to be postponed until next Sunday.

WE HAVE AGAIN AND AGAIN warned our customers on the absolute necessity of potato spraying. It has been conclusively proved during the past few years that not only has spraying prevented potato blight, but it has almost doubled the crops in every instance. It also improves the quality of the potato by extending the period of growth, thereby allowing the crops to come to maturity. The necessity for spraying this season may be more urgent than usual. The present weather is proving favourable for the spread of the disease which has already made its appearance in the South of Ireland. We stock the latest types in horse and knapsack sprayers, and we also keep large stocks of sulphate of copper and washing soda. We shall be very pleased to answer any enquiries regarding quantity to be used per acre, and will quote special low prices for cash for sprayers or spraying materials.

INTERESTING POINT IN MILK CASE
When at Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, Mr. McCabe, D.J., dismissed the case against Rev. Canon Kellell, Rector, Pittown, for having for sale milk deficient in fats, the Justice said it was quite clear that there was no offence committed. Canon Kellell's man had stated that the Civic Guard who took the sample at the Canon's farmyard, just after the man had milked the cows, said that the sample of milk had been taken from the gallon just as it had come from a cow, that had just calved. Milk is sometimes deficient of fats in such cases.

Woman, summoned for income tax: I am what you would call in a vivacious circle. One week the landlord has my money, the next week it goes to the tax collector, and the week after that the undertaker has his bit for a funeral he did years ago.
Irish reveller: I am sorry, but I should have been sorry before it happened.

WATERFORD MAN IN MOTOR CASE.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, on Monday, before Mr. McCabe, D.J., John H. Clarke, residing at the Tramore Hotel, Tramore, was charged by Supt. Fitzgerald, with reckless driving of a motor car near Carrick-on-Suir.

The evidence of three witnesses—Mary O'Brien, and Michael and Patk. Heffernan, was to the effect that they were driving to Mass to Carrick-on-Suir, in an ass and cart. They were on the left hand side of the road. Clarke came behind them in a motor car. His car struck the donkey cart and upset it. A child, who was in the car was badly injured. Mrs. O'Brien had her collar bone injured and Heffernan's back was hurt.

Mr. G. Nolan, solr., Waterford, for Mr. Clarke, read a statement made to the Guards by Patk. Heffernan the day after the accident in which Heffernan stated that Mrs. O'Brien's cart was on the right hand side of the road, and the motor tried to pass it when Mrs. O'Brien moved to the left hand side.

Daniel Dunne, stated that the donkey cart was on the right hand side of the road as the motor was approaching.

Mr. Nolan—Patk. Heffernan's statement bears out our case, that Mrs. O'Brien was on the right hand side of the road.

The Justice in dismissing the charge against Mr. Clarke, said the witnesses were apparently having a trial trip at that Court in connection with a civil action that was pending.

SS. OTTERAN AND CARTHAGE HEALTH INSURANCE SOCIETY.
A very representative meeting of the Parish Secretaries of the above Society was held in the Town Hall, Dungarvan, on Tuesday, 26th inst., to protest against the proposed cut in their remuneration.
The following resolution was proposed and carried unanimously.
"That we emphatically protest against the proposed drastic cut suggested to be imposed upon us for the collection of cards commencing at the 1-32 period, particularly the portion with the cards not fully stamped, and request the Committee of Management to leave the old remuneration stand until the next Annual Meeting, when the appropriating (generally) of the amount allowed for administration expenses of the Society can be fully dealt with at a representative meeting of all Parishes.
And we ask that our Secretary be informed by what tribunal representing our Society this cut has been suggested."
Copies of the above have been forwarded to the General Secretary of the Society, and the Insurance Commissioners, Dublin.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

LOCAL VICTORY IN GALWAY PLATE.

At the Galway Races, on Wednesday, the valuable Galway Plate of £600—a 2 1/2 mile Steeplechase—was won by Mr. Cunningham, Ardmore, with his bay gelding Sea View (by Cottage—No View). 17 ran and they included all our leading chasers Sea View's starting price was 50 to 1. Heartiest congratulations to Mr. Cunningham, who is one of our finest sportsmen.

ABOLISHED.

Under the new tariffs, pigs heads, crubeens, hairy bacon, and several other choice eatables for which in parts of the country the people had developed a great taste, have been abolished as far as imports are concerned into the Free State. Now there is a great chance to try the native article. In the good old days crubeens and stout were very popular with the multitude.

EXCURSION TO CORK.

The excursion from Dungarvan and district to the Cork Exhibition and Agricultural Fair, on Thursday Aug. 11th, promises to be a tremendous success. The return fare is the low figure of 5/-, with 2/6 for children under 14 years, while Mr. Butler has specially arranged that the charges of admission to the Exhibition shall be only 6d. to adults and 3d. for children, provided the tickets are purchased locally, otherwise the full prices will be charged. The train leaves Dungarvan at 9 a.m., and returns from Cork at 10.15 p.m., and excursionists will have every opportunity of seeing the sights and wonders of the Fair and indulging their fancies to their hearts content. The Brass and Reed Band will accompany the excursion and discourse musical selections in the Fair Grounds. The train will stop at Cappagh, and Cappoquin stations, going and returning for the convenience of persons travelling from these parts. Tickets can be had at several shops in town and Abbeyside as per list in advertisement on page 4.

No one, who can help it, should miss this rare opportunity of a charming day at the Cork Fair, as there will scarcely be another such chance during its continuance. The public are requested to purchase their tickets before August 4th.

WHIST DRIVE.

A Whist Drive, for which valuable Prizes are offered, will be held in the Town Hall, next Tuesday evening, August 2nd., at 8 o'clock. Tickets 2/- Proceeds in aid of defraying expenses of Band to Cork.

DUNGARVAN MARKETS.

Meal (special) 16/-; middletcut 15/6; flour 15/3; bran and pollard 9/- cwt.; coal £2 per ton; Creamery Butter (retail) 1/4d. per lb.; Fresh Butter 7d., per lb.; eggs 3d. per dozen.

AT CAPPAGH.

On Sunday next, July, 31st, at 3.30 p.m. (N.T.) a challenge Football match will be played at Cappagh between Abbeyside and Finisk Rovers. Admission to field 6d. A Cinderella Dance will follow in the New Hall. Admission 1/-.

DUNGARVAN PIG FAIR.

On Monday last, there were over 300 fat pigs on offer at Dungarvan market, but only about 20 of a nice, lean, suitable type, were purchased for Denny's Factory, at 15/- a cwt. Most of the remainder went to Cappoquin Bacon Factory, but some were not considered suitable and came home again. On Wednesday, Messrs. Dwyer, Murphy and Co., purchased 50 bacon pigs for a trial shipment to Birmingham. In the present disorganised state of the market, farmers and buyers are in an equal dilemma.

ECONOMIC WAR.

The Economic War between Great Britain and the Free State, goes on apace. Following the 20 per cent tariff on Irish cattle and Agricultural produce imposed by the British Government, our own Government has imposed a retaliatory tariff on several British imports, including coal, iron, cement, etc. At the moment all exports have ceased and farmers are rightly holding their cattle rather than sell them at a big sacrifice. In the meantime, the deadlock continues over the Annuities, but a change must come someday, and the question must be finally settled. Everything comes to an end, and so will this economic war.

A COAL RUN.

During the past few weeks, there has been a great run on coal, and the public were laying in supplies against the evil day. All coal which arrived at Irish ports up to midnight on Wednesday last, was not subject to the 5/- per ton tax. So far prices locally have not been raised.

WAGES IN LAMBS.

A novel feature resulting from the tariffs on Irish Livestock, is the fact that a Midland farmer has been reduced to paying his employees in lambs. In the days when barter was the system of payment, we had no trouble. Since money was invented there has been no peace in any land.

DEATH OF MR. M. MOLONEY, BURGERS, DUNGARVAN.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Martin Moloney, son of Mr. Thomas Moloney, Burgers, Dungarvan, which occurred on Monday evening at his residence. He had been in failing health for some time past, and passed peacefully away, fortified by the rites of Holy Church.

Deceased was a good upright young man in the early thirties, who was immensely popular with all who knew him. Of a very amiable and gentle disposition, he was ever cheerful. An active worker in the dairying industry carried on by his father and a shrewd man of business, his loss will be much felt, and his respected parents, brother and sisters, have the sincere sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.—R.I.P.

On Tuesday evening, the remains were removed to the Parish Church, Abbeyside, and were followed by a very large and representative cortege from the town and surrounding districts. On Wednesday morning there was Requiem Office and High Mass for the repose of his soul, at which there was a large attendance. Subsequently the interment took place in the adjoining graveyard, in the presence of his family, relatives, friends and the general public.

FOOTBALL AT WHITECHURCH.

A Football match between Brickey Rangers and Ballycurrane, will be played at Whitechurch, on Sunday next, July 31st at 4 p.m. (Summer time).

A CLASSIC IN ROAD-MAKING.

The new road which has just been completed from the Burgery to Abbeyside is perhaps the finest piece of road mechanism in the County, and is a tribute to the excellence of our Co. Surveyor's skill. All who have seen and used it are loud in its praises and no wonder, for it is the last word in the road-maker's art. When may we hope to see its counter-part down Shandon, which is just a touch of Siberia?

AT OTTAWA.

There is not much doing at Ottawa so far, where the Commonwealth Conference, Canada, The Free State, New Zealand and Australia have nearly all the same goods to sell—Agricultural produce. In the matter of the meat supply alone England imported meat to the value of £93,937,310 in 1931, of which £26,000,000 went to the Argentine; £25,000,000 to Denmark and other foreign countries £18,000,000. New Zealand supplied £11,000,000 meat; Australia £6,000,000; Irish Free State £3,500,000 and others £3,500,000.

THE GREAT SALE.

Opening at Moloney's on Saturday, will be an event of great importance. Thousands of pounds worth of fresh saleable goods will be offered at startling prices. This is an opportunity no one should miss.

FIANNA FAIL.

On Saturday night, The Minister of Education (Mr. Derrig), with the Attorney-General, and Mr. Goulding, T.D., will speak at Waterford, on the present situation.

SUPPORT FOR GOVERNMENT.

Kilrossanty Branch of the Cottage Tenants and Rural Workers' Association, unanimously passed a resolution supporting the Government.

Proposing the resolution, Mr. Michl. Brown, said: England imposed her economic system on us by which she exchanges her sixth rate surplus goods for our choicest first rate agricultural produce—it has impoverished our country and brought starvation to many of our people. Too long we have endured this economic slavery. Mr. Patrick Ryan, seconding, said: Let us all sink our personal spite and animosity towards one another, and unite in putting an end, once and for all, to England's cursed economic system. Let us adopt a firm independent spirit in making some sacrifices, and in a short time we shall bring the issue to a successful conclusion. A vote of confidence in Mr. Norton, T.D., and the Labour Party in the Dail, was also passed.

KILMACTHOMAS NEWS.

INCONVENIENT SERVICES.

The Railways Company's curtailment of the 9.45 a.m., Waterford-Dungarvan goods train and the 2 o'clock Dungarvan-Waterford do., is much resented by the traders and merchants of Kilmacthomas and the farmers of the neighbourhood, and the speedy reinstatement of these most convenient services, together with the restoration of the 1.30 p.m. passenger train out of Waterford to Dungarvan, is eagerly desired by all. As things stand at present, we understand that persons having goods to dispatch or receive at the local station will have to await the arrival of a 7.45 p.m. goods train out of Waterford; also that the tickets obtained here by travellers leaving aboard the 8.20 a.m., passenger train for the city will, if they wish and are ready to return by the 2.30 p.m. I.O.C. bus, find the return halves of their train tickets not interchangeable—only on the last I.O.C. bus out of Waterford to Cork. Surely the more convenient services should be restored. They certainly would be a better paying proposition for the Company than the system now operating.

SYMPATHY.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. Michael Murphy, postman, Kilmacthomas-Stradbally delivery, in his bereavement occasioned by the death of his uncle, Mr. John Murphy, which sad event occurred in America last week. The late Mr. Murphy, was a brother of Mr. James Murphy, (retired N.T.), postmaster, Ring—R.I.P.

THE MONTHLY COURT.

Fines ranging from 1/- to 5/- and Court costs were imposed by Mr. F. J. McCabe, D.J., in a long list of ordinary Gardai prosecutions before him at the July sitting here. The complainants were Sergt. Hamilton, Leamybrien, Guard O'Leary, do., Sergt. Lynagh, Stradbally, Guard Fulham, Kill, Guard Boyle, Kilmacthomas, and Guard Coakley, Rathgorman, Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, and Mr. P. O'Connor, Junr., solr., Waterford, acted for several applicants in a heavy calendar of un-defended civil bills, dealt with, and in which decrees for full amounts claimed, together with costs, were granted.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

At the residence of her parents at Robertstown, Kilmacthomas, Miss "Pat" Cullinane, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Cullinane, has just celebrated her 18th birthday. A big number of relations and immediate friends of the family attended a party in honour of the occasion. A "high tea" was heartily enjoyed by the company, and ensuing hours of music and dance, heightened the glamour and gaiety of the evening's entertainment.

THE FAIR.

While the supply of stock to the different departments seemed little below the average, business on the whole was exceptionally dull, and the few exchanges enacted were confined as between the vendors and local buyers, the prices being particularly low.

ST. ANNE'S DAY.

Tuesday last was the feast day of St. Anne, Patroness of Ballylanceen Parish. Holy Mass was celebrated by Very Rev. John Lennon, P.P., the majority of the vast congregation present approached the Holy Table. During the day which was observed as a regular holiday in the Parish, huge crowds visited the St. Anne's Well, and made the customary rounds thereof. The Rosary was recited.

A SUCCESSFUL PERFORMANCE.

Kilmacthomas Dramatic Club achieved a very successful performance on last Sunday night, when they again faced the footlights with a tip-top 3-Act Comedy, which was highly appreciated by a full house. The production was in aid of the fund for the erection of a Priest's house in the town. At the close, Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, A.M., suitably thanked the artists and audience.

LABOUR MEETING.

At a meeting of the Stradbally Branch of the Cottage Tenants and Rural Workers' Association, a resolution of support for the Government in the present economic crisis was on the proposition of Mr. Maurice Sammon, seconded by Mr. James Power, passed with acclamation. The meeting also voted confidence in Mr. Norton, T.D., and the Labour Party. A general meeting of the Branch will be held on the first Sunday in August, when an important agenda will be discussed, including the question of the purchasing of cottages, and all members and intending members are requested to attend.

BONMAHON MINES.

Professor Broughton-Edge, the London geologist and engineer, who is at present conducting a survey of the Bonmahon workings on behalf of the Anglo-Australian Company, has expressed himself as being pleased with the results of his electrically-operated mineral-finding apparatus. We understand the Professor will be engaged in the locality for another month or so.

DECLINE IN DENMARK'S PIG POPULATION.

Preliminary figures of Denmark's pig census on June 20th show a decline of ten per cent, as compared with January 15th. The figure given is 4,928,000, which is nearly three times as large as ten years ago. Compared with July of last year, there has been a reduction of 22 per cent, in sows.

"Excavations at Kilgreany"

"THE SECOND HEARTH."

W. K. F.

The finds and material formation of the first hearth have been discussed in a previous article. Immediately beneath this first hearth which corresponds to section B. already mentioned, are two other sections called C. and D. forming the Second Hearth. The surface layer C. is composed of fine clay mixed with small stones. Speleological Antiquarians are agreed that during the formation of this level, the cave was not inhabited by man. The evidence brought to support this opinion, is, that the section in question (in question) is completely devoid of charcoal, which is found to exist at higher and lower depths of the excavation, where the existence of man has been definitely proved.

When the upper portion of section C. was excavated, several fragments of pottery similar to those found in the first hearth were obtained. The presence of such shreds here, can be only explained on the assumption that they were forced through the broken stalagmite floor of the first hearth into this stratum. The discoveries made on this and the next level were not very numerous, but were important, all of which are described separately.

From the north of the Second Hearth came a flint axe, which is oval shaped, black, and highly polished. The age of this implement could be as early as 2,000 B.C., that is to say it could have existed from the dawn of the bronze age. This axe may have been formerly at a higher level, but afterwards may have sunk to a lower layer, due to disturbing influences, which altered the strata levels,—this would mean that the Second Hearth was still older.

At the western end of the excavation, resting on the floor, were found the disturbed remains of the burial of a female. The cranium of this individual both on account of its size and the shallowness of the hearth at this point, protruded into the upper layers. The skull was mixed in no small degree with the remains of several other individuals, including the remains of a person whose age is considered to be about eighteen or twenty years. The burial of the female seems to have taken place in a peculiar manner, for the left shoulder was pinned under a huge flag, while from the position of the vertebrae it is clearly evident that the body must be originally highly flexed.

At the eastern end of the same trench and on the same hearth, were found scanty and minute remains of several individuals. From the position of the skeletons, it has been conjectured that at least two of them were intentionally buried. One of those is the remains of an old individual, portions of whose skull and arm bones were obtained, and in several instances, as in the case of the female skeleton, the bones were covered with a thin film of stalagmite. The bones of the second individual were more recent in appearance, and parts of the arms, legs, and skull bones were found, in addition to these were also found most of the vertebrae with the ribs in their anatomical relationship. Though as already stated, the cranium and bones of the second individual had a very new appearance, they must at least be older than the first hearth. Other portions of bones of this individual were found in the same stratum badly charred by fire, and still more the floor of the first hearth was devoid of pits, hence the bones cannot represent a burial of a later date, than the age of the first hearth. Authorities seem to hold that the newness of the bones is due to local differences in the mineralising conditions of the cave, a like property has been observed in other caves.

Throughout the yellow clay and debris, fragmentary human remains were abundant, being still more so on the floor of the Second Hearth was reached. The bones discovered would represent in all the remains of eight persons, all of whom must have been contemporary with the formation of the layer in which they were obtained. The fragmentary condition of the remains was in no way due to breakage during the excavation, for in the majority of cases the fractures were old and were covered with stalagmite.

The animal bones found in this section were fewer in number than those found at higher levels, but this can be accounted for on the hypothesis that the remains of recent animals perishing on the surface to the first hearth, gradually sank into the layers beneath, and became intermingled with the bones of ancient animals.

The conclusions drawn from the finds made in the portion in question are most interesting. It is insinuated that the occupation represented by the Second Hearth was of short duration, and in light of what remains, the occupation seems to have come to a sudden end, through death or other unknown causes of a number of people probably making up a family (community). The presence of some cuts on bones, and the burning of minute skull bones, though this may be only accidental, suggests cannibalistic propensities, which is quite in harmony with similar evidence procured from English and Continental caves occupied as early as the bronze or iron age. Two of the skull fragments found appear to have circular pieces extracted after death, and here it is possible that the continental custom of making amulets from human skulls is in evidence.

Ardmore Pattern and Aeriocht.

The pretty little seaside resort of Ardmore, Co. Waterford, was on fête on Sunday, in honour of its holy patron, St. Declan, the first Bishop of the Desian See by the sea. The appropriate religious ceremonies in the Parish Church over looking the Bay were followed by Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament, and all throughout the evening a constant stream of worshippers flowed in and out to pay their homage. The actual feast day is the 24th, but by a custom handed down from days long past, the Sunday nearest the 24th has been observed as "the day." In addition, on the 24th itself and on the other Sunday within the octave, the people of the place and of all the surrounding districts foregather to do their rounds at St. Declan's Well and his tomb in the old Churchyard under the shadow of the still well-preserved Round Tower.

For many years past, the efforts of the local organisers have been persistently dogged and frustrated by unfavourable weather. This time they were vouchsafed a really fine day, which held up till late afternoon, when there was a short shower, after which it took up again. There were many comments on the fact that luck was again with the function when it coincided with the Sabbath day.

From the early forenoon, outsiders trooped in from all the surrounding districts and spent their time visiting the various scenes hallowed by traditions of the Saint—the old Church with its quaint carvings, the Tomb, the Holy Well on the hillside, with the interesting remains of sacred buildings. The Round Tower, the celebrated Rock on the beach etc. A varied assortment of amusements was provided by the usual tramp "camp followers." One old dame took possession of the "Well," where she doled out the water at a copper a cup, but her profitable occupation was suddenly terminated by the arrival of some of the local Civic Guards. The orthodox programme of events included a football match between Fenor and Ardmore. An Aeriocht at the Irish College, a Play in St. Declan's Hall, and a Dance at the College.

At 4 o'clock, the pupils of the College and their teachers, headed by the Youngest Pipers' Band, playing Irish airs, paraded the village, and on their return to the College grounds, the programme was started with a well-rendered chorus "Seoladh na nGabhna" followed by "A Chomairigh Aoibhinn O." A four-hand-reel by Offally scholars was warmly applauded. An eloquent "Aoraid" wholly in the vernacular was here delivered by Michael O'Conchubhair. Having dealt with the glorious past of the native tongue, he traced its gradual decadence resulting from the efforts of the English to destroy it entirely. He next gave a brief history of the various movements for its revival down to the present day, and he concluded with an impassioned appeal to all "the n-oinn De's Muire, s' Naoimh Padraig s' Naoimh Deuglan" to help to restore the language to its rightful place in Church and State, in the home and in the market, in prayer and in sport, and thereby all take the one great road to true nationhood. Being evidently understood by many of his audience, his address was punctuated with applause. Brighid ni Ghadhra, gave a capital rendering of "A Dhrimín Donn Dúis." The versatile manager of the College, "Michael O' Foghludha, sang "Dir Dyrie's Broo," and "Raghadsa a Bhaile na Maire," the chorus of the latter being heartily joined in by his young hearers. A capital little dance, "Roisín Delahunty (Tullamaine) delight ed the spectators with her performance. A pleasing variety was here added by a mirth-provoking yarn by the veteran story-teller Mairis O'Faolain, whose every turn and twist of expression was keenly followed by the young scholars. Cork City was well represented in both singing and dancing. Sean O'Riordan, gave several exhibitions of the latter, which had to be repeated and Maighread ni Shiothchain, contributed a well-finished version of the old song "Salog Ruadh." Póilin ni Shiothchane, also from the city, proved herself a capital dancer. Traditional singing had a splendid exponent in Brighid ni Ghadhra, who rendered "A shean Mí Dubhíir an Gheanna," and as an encore, "Cois Abhann Mor" in a most taking manner. The well-known songs "A raibh tu agan g-Carraig" and "A leanbh Síghé" were done full justice to by Risteard Ceitinn, being chorused and encored. Maire ni Ghiobhinn, was heard to advantage in "A d-ting-eann tu mo Chas," and "Carrig na Suire." Other able step-dancers were Brighid ni Feighir and Bessie O'Brain, who were warmly applauded.

During the aeriocht, the Pipers' Band, contributed a number of selections and they were awarded the College Cup, previously held by the Volunteers Band.

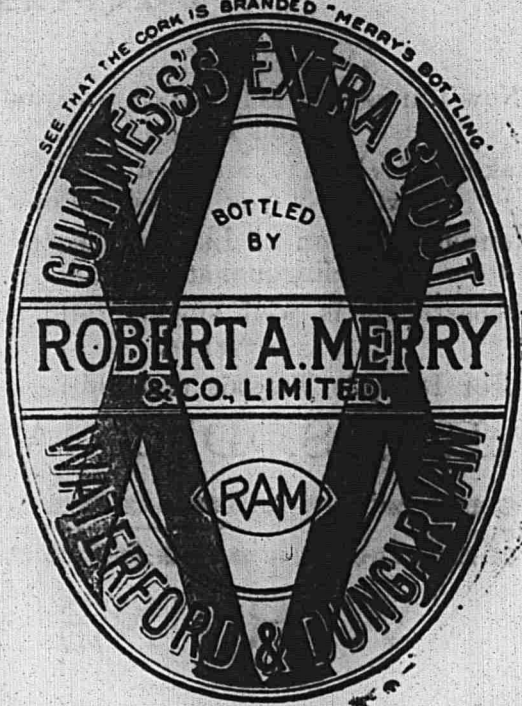

THE NEW SOLO LIME WASHING MACHINE.

This machine is wonderfully strong and will throw a jet 40 feet high. It will do the work of ten men and do it better. This handy sprayer can be used for garden spraying, and it can also wash your motor car. You can pump water out of a bucket in a fine spray to soak the dirt, and then in the form of a powerful jet to swirl it clean. The complete outfit is sold at 28/6, from the sole agents—

Economic War.

NEW TRAFFICS.

The first order in the Economic War with Britain was issued by the Free State Government on Monday night, and includes, Coal, Cement, Iron and Steel, Sugar, Cheese, Poigs meat, etc.

Order entitled Emergency Imposition of Duties (No.1) Order, 1932. Whereas it is enacted by Section 1 of the Emergency Imposition of Duties Act, 1932 (No. 16 of 1932), that the Executive Council may, if and whenever they think proper, do by order all or any of certain things mentioned in that section, and amongst others

(a) Impose, whether with or without qualifications, limitations, drawbacks, allowances, exemptions or preferential rates, a Customs duty of such amount as they think proper on any particular description or descriptions of goods imported into Saorstai Eireann on or after a specified day, and where such goods are chargeable with any other Customs duty, so impose such first-mentioned duty, either in addition to or in substitution for such other duty.

(b) Vary in manner or respect whatsoever in regard to goods imported into Saorstai Eireann on or after a specified day and Customs duty in force at the passing of that Act, or imposed by any Act passed or Order made after the passing of that Act, or any qualification, limitation, drawback, allowance, exemption or preferential rate in force at the date of such Order in relation to any such duty.

Now, the Executive Council, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 1 of the Emergency Imposition of Customs Duties Act, 1932 (No. 16 of 1932), and of every and any other power them in this behalf enabling, do hereby order as follows:—

1.—In this paragraph the expression "pigs' meat" includes the whole or any part of a pig's carcass, whether the same is or is not fresh or has or has not been cured or partially cured, or has or has not been chilled or frozen.

2.—A duty of Customs at the rate of 84s. the cwt. shall be charged, levied and paid on every of the following articles imported into Saorstai Eireann on or after the 26th day of July, 1932, that is to say (a) all pigs' meat, except the heads, feet, skin, and bristles of pigs, when imported separately from the rest of the carcass.

(b) All products of pigs' meat, excluding sausages and sausage casings, and also excluding articles made from or with pig skin or lig bristles. (c) Sausages of all descriptions. (d) Sausage casings of all descriptions imported unrolled.

3.—A duty of Customs at the rate of 42s. the cwt. shall be charged, levied and paid on every of the following articles imported into Saorstai Eireann on or after the 26th day of July, 1932, that is to say, all pigs' heads and pigs' feet imported separately from the rest of the carcass, whether such heads or feet are or are not fresh, or have or have not been cured or partially cured, or have not been chilled or frozen.

4.—Where any article which but for this sub-paragraph would be chargeable with a duty imposed by this paragraph, is shown to the satisfaction of the Revenue Commissioners to have been consigned from a country within the British Commonwealth of Nations, and produced entirely in a country or countries within the British Commonwealth of Nations, such duty in the case of an article chargeable with duty under sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph shall be charged, levied and paid at the rate of 56s. the cwt., in lieu of the rate mentioned in that sub-paragraph, and, in the case of an article chargeable with duty under sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph shall be charged, levied and paid at the rate of 28s. the cwt. in lieu of the rate mentioned in that sub-paragraph.

5.—Where it is shown to the satisfaction of the Revenue Commissioners that any lard which but for this sub-paragraph would be chargeable with a duty imposed by this paragraph is imported by a manufacturer of margarine for use in the manufacture in Saorstai Eireann of margarine, the Revenue Commissioners may, subject to compliance with such conditions as they may think fit to impose, permit such lard to be imported without payment of such duty.

6.—Where the Revenue Commissioners are satisfied that any complete carcass of a pig which but for this sub-paragraph would be chargeable with a duty imposed by this paragraph complies with all the following conditions, that it is to say:—(a) Such carcass is imported from Northern Ireland by a farmer resident in Northern Ireland; and (b) the pig whose carcass it is was immediately before being killed the property of such farmer; and (c) such carcass is imported for sale by the importer in a market town and is so imported on a day which is a market day in that town; and (d) on the day on which such carcass is imported not more than one or other such carcass is so imported by such farmer, the Revenue Commissioners may subject to compliance with such conditions as they may think fit to impose, permit such carcass to be imported without payment of such duty.

7.—The duties imposed by this paragraph in so far as they are chargeable in respect of articles chargeable with the duty imposed by the Finance (Customs Duties) Act, 1932 (No. 5 of 1932), are in substitution for and not in addition to the said duty imposed by that Act.

4.—(1) A duty of Customs of an amount equal to the value of the article shall be charged, levied and paid on every of the following articles imported into Saorstai Eireann on or after the 26th day of July, 1932, that is to say all apparatus, machinery, and utensils which in the opinion of the Revenue Commissioners are designed constructed, and intended for use in the making of cheese.

(2) The duty imposed by this paragraph shall be charged and levied in addition to any other duty of Customs however chargeable.

(3) Whenever the Minister for Finance after consultation with the Minister for Agriculture so thinks proper, the Revenue Commissioners may by licence authorise any particular person subject to compliance with such conditions as they may think fit to impose, to import without payment of the duty imposed by this paragraph all or any articles chargeable with the said duty either as the Revenue Commissioners shall specify in such licence without limit as to time or quantity or either of them, or within a specified time or in a specified quantity.

5.—(1) The provisions of section 8 of the Finance Act, 1919, shall apply to the duty imposed by section 3 of the Finance Act (Customs Duties)—No. 2 Act, 1932—No. 11 of 1932—with and subject to the following modifications in lieu of the modifications mentioned in the said section 3, that is to say with the substitution of the expression "Saorstai Eireann" for the expression "Great Britain and Ireland," and as though the second schedule to the said Finance Act, 1919, contained a list of goods to which three-fourths of the full rate was made applicable as a preferential rate, and goods chargeable with the said duty imposed by the said section 3 were included in that list.

(2) Whenever the Revenue Commissioners are satisfied that any potatoes which but for this sub-paragraph would be chargeable with the duty imposed by section 3 of the Finance (Customs Duties)—No. 2 Act, 1932—No. 11 of 1932—comply with all the following conditions, that is to say:—

(a) such potatoes are imported from Northern Ireland by a farmer resident in Northern Ireland; and (b) such potatoes were grown by such importer on his farm in Northern Ireland; and (c) the quantity of such potatoes imported by such importer on any day does not exceed ten hundredweights; and (d) such potatoes are imported for sale by the importer in a market town and are so imported on a day which is a market day in that town, the Revenue Commissioners may, subject to compliance with such conditions as they may think fit to impose, permit such potatoes to be imported without payment of the said duty imposed by the said section 3.

6.—(1) There shall be charged, levied, and paid on the importation into Saorstai Eireann, on or after the 26th day of July, 1932, of any article mentioned in the second column of the schedule to this Order which is imported into Saorstai Eireann from the United Kingdom, or is exported from the United Kingdom to any other country and thence brought into Saorstai Eireann, a duty of customs of the amount or at the rate—as the case may be—stated in the third column of the said schedule opposite the mention of the article in the said second column.

(2) The duty imposed by this paragraph in respect of any article shall be in addition to and not in substitution for any other duty chargeable in respect of such article (3) The duty imposed by this paragraph shall not be charged or levied in respect of any article which is chargeable with the duty imposed by paragraph 4 of this Order, or which would be chargeable with that duty but for an exemption conferred by that paragraph.

(4) Where an article could be regarded as chargeable with two or more of the duties imposed by this paragraph the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say: (a) Such article shall be liable to and chargeable with only that one of these duties in respect of which the greatest amount of duty would be payable. (b) Where the same amount of duty is payable in respect of each of such duties such article shall be liable to and chargeable with only such one of those duties as the Revenue Commissioners shall select. (c) Where the same amount of duty is payable in respect of each of two or more of such duties and such amount is greater than the amount of duty payable in respect of any other such duty, such article shall be liable to and chargeable with only whichever of those duties in respect of which the same amount of duty is payable as the Revenue Commissioners shall select.

(5) Whenever the Minister for Finance, after consultation with the Minister for Industry and Commerce so thinks proper, the Revenue Commissioners may by licence authorise any particular person, subject to compliance with such conditions as they think fit to impose, to import without payment of the duty imposed by this paragraph any articles chargeable with the said duty either as the Revenue Commissioners shall specify in such licence, without limit as to time or quantity or either of them, or within a specified time or in a specified quantity. (6) Articles which are shown to the satisfaction of the Revenue Commissioners to have been imported into and exported from the United Kingdom by way of transit only, or have been imported into the United Kingdom and exported therefrom in the same condition as that in which they were imported into the United Kingdom, shall not be deemed to be exported from the United Kingdom within the meaning of this paragraph. (7) In this paragraph the expression "The United Kingdom" means the United Kingdom of Great

The Undersigned has been instructed by the Owner, MR. JOHN FLYNN to Sell by,

PRIVATE TREATY

His fee-simple interest in ALL THAT AND THOSE part of the Lands of Carriglea, containing 52 acres and 29 perches or thereabouts, Statute Measure, held subject to the provisions of the Land Act, 1896, at the yearly rent of £17 11s. 2d. Poor Law Valuation £54 0s. 0d.

There is a piece of Bog Land useful for Grazing of about 4 Acres free with this Holding. This Land is the finest in the County. It is well watered. It is situated within three miles of the town of Dungarvan, and is adjacent to the main road from Aghlish to Dungarvan, and on the 'Bus route. The Dwellinghouse is a fine two-storey Building, slated, with six rooms. There are slated cow-sheds, stables, barn, etc., together with an orchard of 2 acres.

The Lands are at present set with 10 1/2 acres of oats, 4 acres of turnips, 1 1/2 acres of mangolds, 1 acre potatoes, and 7 acres of meadow. These crops will be sold with the land.

The whole farm is picturesquely situated and would make a splendid residential farm.

Offers will be received by the undersigned from whom additional particulars may be obtained.

The All-Steel Raleigh!

The local Agent at Dungarvan, J. B. COOKE, has received the following letter from Dublin:—

DEAR SIR—We regret that owing to the recently imposed tax on complete cycles our deliveries for the past month have been seriously dislocated. We have pleasure in announcing, however, that arrangements have been made for the assembly of all machines for the Irish Free State at our Dublin Depot under skilled supervision. We have decided not to make any alteration in our existing prices, and we will make every endeavour to reduce the accumulation of orders with as little delay as possible, for which we crave your kind indulgence.

Yours faithfully, THE RALEIGH CYCLE CO., S. GUY, Irish Manager.

The above letter speaks for itself. The All-Steel Raleigh is now an Irish product. Duty Free. Prices from 8/11 per month upwards.

A Mid-Summer Night's Dream.

(By "Idealist").

"Last night as I lay asleep" "There came a dream so fair."

I dreamt that my little Irish town of Ballybeg, had a neat little amusement Hall, capable of seating 350 people comfortably; that the cost of erection had been paid by public subscription, aided by a series of Concerts, plays and athletic events; that youth and age met there periodically; enjoyed themselves thoroughly and then went home peaceably and piously.

That Ballybeg had a vigorous branch of the Gaelic League, numbering close on 200, that the Irish language, Irish Music, Irish Song, Irish History and Irish Dance were successfully fostered by the League. That a very live branch of the Fianna existed in Ballybeg; that the teachers of the Town and District formed the nucleus, that the 200 members of the Gaelic League engaged in glorious rivalry as to who would be the first to qualify for the Fiancee.

That a swimming Club had been established, that its membership was over 100, that every young person in town and district, 12 years and above was taught to swim; that an aquatic sports had been arranged for August 15th every year.

That Ballybeg men availing of the magnificent grounds at their disposal, had captured the Senior, Junior and Minor Hurling Championships of Co. Waterford, that all in Ballybeg were quite proud of them, and took an enthusiastic interest in their affairs.

That a Choral Class for adults had been formed in Ballybeg; that it had 100 members; that from these a select choir of 50 voices could be formed, which could rival the village choral classes of Wales, Scotland, and Continental countries such as Bavaria, Czecho Slovakia.

That a debating society had been formed in Ballybeg; that the society had arranged for a series of public debates to which the general public would be admitted; that the public would thus become familiarized with enlightened views, touching natural, social and economic progress.

That a Literary and Historical society had been formed, that this society had procured the services of cultured lecturers, whose discoveries had raised the intellectual tone of town and district; that the Public Library was besieged by people who wanted to read good books and so render themselves eligible for election by the committee of the Literary and Historic Society.

That an opportunity had been taken from the lately imposed tariffs to start an industry in which 100 of the young men and women of the town were employed. That our youth were no longer forced to seek a livelihood in pagan lands, where faith and morals were in jeopardy; that as a result of all this the intellectual and moral standard of the community was considerably raised; that the industrial and economic progress was not one whit decreased. That the same throbbing pulsating energy, so characteristic of the commercial life of Ballybeg was still manifest, notwithstanding the claims of aesthetic physical and national cultural interests.

That the ultra-conservative citizens, who had been irrevocably committed to a policy of masterly inactivity had sworn a solemn oath that they would neither slay nor waylay, slander nor malign, insult or ill-treat those who had promoted the various projects referred to above.

That the Captains of Industry in the town of Ballybeg had been reconsidering tables of values and can be heard reciting Wordsworth—

"The world is too much with us late and soon."

Getting and spending we lay waste our powers.

Little we see in Nature that is ours. We have given our hearts away a sordid boon."

Great God!

And such a new spirit of Christian Democracy had generated by the free intermingling of the innumerable grades of society in Ballybeg in the various activities referred to, that the aristocratic ladies of the town can be heard teaching their daughters, James Clarence Mangan's, Woman of the three cows—

"Oh woman of three cows agra! don't let your tongue thus rattle."

O don't be saucy, don't be stiff because because you may have cattle; I've seen and here's my hand to you I only say what's true.

Ah many a one with twice your stock, not half so proud as you."

That a Christian Woman's Association had been formed to provide food and clothing for the destitute poor during the winter. That a number, who were more skilful with sewing machines had agreed to collect cast-off clothing and use the suitable material for making up into dresses and suits for the children of very poor parents.

That a Workers' Protection Association had been formed, whose object was to secure the application to workers of the terms of the Encyclical of Pope Leo XIII.

That the Association had pointed out that a man earning 24/- per week who had to support a wife and six children was limited to 3/- per week per person, and that this was less than 6d. per day per person; that this was less than 2d. per meal per person and that this further assumed that no clothing or household utensils had to be purchased, and that never a penny was spent on any little luxury, such as tobacco, or any form of recreation such as hurling or football matches.

That the Association pointed out that this and worse was daily occurring in an alleged Christian land under alleged Christian employers, who could well afford to comply with the terms of the Papal Encyclical.

That an Orchestra, consisting of 30 Instrumentalists was in being in Ballybeg, and had secured the services of a thoroughly competent conductor.

That an Employment Bureau had been formed, the object of which was to endeavour to secure positions for the unemployed.

That an Investors Association had been formed, the object of which was to secure that suitable encouragement be given to those of the town and district who had £100,000 invested abroad; to withdraw their money from foreign investments and with it promote the development of Home Industry.

A dream only perhaps, but let those who read, take note, mark, and inwardly digest its meaning.
