Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.

ACTION FOR ASSAULT.

A YOUNG MAN AND HIS GIRL.

A farm labourer named Michael Cotter, brought a Civil Bill for £5 damages for assault against a farmer named Patrick O'Connor, residing in the district of Ballyduff Upper.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, for plaintiff, and Mr. E. A. Ryan, State Solicitor, Dungarvan, for defendant.

Plaintiff stated that he was employed for some months as a farm labourer by the defendant at 10/- per week and his "keep."

On Thursday, 20th June, he had to go away on private business and did not work for his master on that day, but returned to his work as usual on the following day.

He was absent again on the following Sunday. When he returned on Monday he went into an outhouse where he used sleep, and was packing up his clothes to go away when defendant followed him in and struck him a violent blow on the mouth which split his lip and he later reported the matter to the Guards at Ballyduff who examined his wound and told him he should get it stitched.

He afterwards went to the doctor who had to put two stitches in his lip and as a result of the injury he was not able to do any work for a fortnight.

Cross-examined by Mr. Ryan, solr.—Don't you know that the farmers are in a bad way at present?

Plaintiff—So are the labourers (laughter).

Mr. Ryan—Yes, so are the labourers and do you think that conduct such as yours in going away without leave and leaving a decent employer in the "lurch" for two days is likely to encourage farmers to employ labourers and improve their present condition?

Plaintiff made no reply.

Mr. Ryan further asked witness where he was on the Thursday when he should have been at work, and he replied that he was on private business.

Mr. Ryan—I put it to you that your mysterious business on Sunday was the same as that on Thursday—away with your girl?

Plaintiff—Yes.

Mr. Ryan—You have sworn that owing to the wound in your mouth you were not able to work for a fortnight. Is that correct?—It is, sir.

Mr. Ryan—How can that be, surely a farm labourer does not work with his mouth (laughter).

Witness made no reply.

Mr. Ryan—I suggest that the only damage you have suffered in this case was due to the fact that you were not able to kiss your girl for a fortnight (over your split lip) (renewed laughter).

Serjt. Hogan, Ballyduff, in reply to Mr. O'Gorman, solr., stated that Cotter came to the barrack and reported that he had been assaulted by O'Connor. Seeing that his lip was split he advised him to go to the doctor and have it stitched.

To Mr. Ryan—He had known the defendant O'Connor, for about 6 years and knew nothing against him during that time.

Mr. Ryan said the defence was that Cotter deliberately absented himself without notice or permission on the Thursday and left Mr. O'Connor and his wife to milk the cows and do all other kinds of farm work which the plaintiff should have done. He then repeated this conduct on the following Sunday and when he returned on Monday, Mr. O'Connor naturally lost his temper and struck him one blow in the mouth, but never intended to inflict any serious injury on him.

Patrick O'Connor, was then examined by Mr. Ryan, and stated that in paying Cotter his wages on the Saturday he paid him in full for the Thursday he was absent and treated him decently in every way. His wife and himself had to milk the cows on that evening owing to Cotter's absence, and when he absented himself again on Sunday and turned up on Monday and prepared to pack up and leave the job he lost his temper with him and gave him one "clout" in the face.

Defendant having been cross-examined by Mr. O'Gorman, Mr. Ryan pleaded extenuating circumstances and asked the Justice to award only nominal damages in the case.

The Justice awarded plaintiff 10/- damages.

Transfer Of Licence. Mr. P. Hally, solr., Waterford, applied for an ad interim transfer of the licence held by the late Mrs. Hannah Crotty, Main street, Lismore, to her son, John Crotty, and there being no objection on the part of the Guards, the application was granted.

"Ringing The Changes." Superintendent Quinlan, Lismore, charged a woman named Alice Mitchell, of no fixed abode, with stealing two sums of 2/6 each from John Moore

Shopkeeper, Lismore, and Charles Guest, Chemist, do., by means of a trick known as "Ringing The Changes."

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, appeared for the defendant.

It was stated that the woman had been arrested by the Lismore Guards a week previously and remanded to the District Court, but was let out on bail on depositing a cash security of £8 with the Guards.

The Justice now asked her if she wished to be tried by this Court or preferred to have the case go before a jury at the Circuit Court.

Mr. O'Gorman said she wished to be tried by the Justice, as she was pleading guilty to the two offences which were committed while she was under the influence of drink.

John Moore, Shopkeeper, Main St., was then examined by the Supt., and stated that on the evening of July 4th, the defendant came into his shop about 5.30 p.m., and asked for two penny bars of chocolate which he gave her. She laid a half crown on the counter, and when he gave her the change in two single shillings and four pence she asked him for the change of one of the shillings which he gave her. She kept him in conversation for some time and eventually asked him would she "tell his fortune," (laughter).

Having described in detail her further movements, witness said that after she had left the shop he had occasion to go to the till and he then found that there was a half-crown missing from his money.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Gorman, solr., witness could not definitely say whether the defendant had taken the half-crown.

Charles Guest, who stated that he assisted in his father's Chemist shop in the Main street, said he remembered the defendant coming into the shop on the same evening and asking for a worm powder for a child, the price of which was 6d. She laid a half-crown on the counter and when he gave her back her change she asked him for the change of a shilling and engaged him in conversation for some time.

It was only the next morning he missed the half-crown when he went to check the money in the cash register.

Cross-examined by Mr. O'Gorman, he said it was a "Check-Register" he had in the shop and there could be no mistake about the half-crown being missing the next morning.

Replying to further questions, he admitted that it was possible that his father or mother could have access to the Register in the meantime.

Further evidence having been given, Mr. O'Gorman repeated his plea of guilty and said the woman had a lot of drink taken on the occasion and had no recollection of what happened on the occasion.

She was a native of Dolphin's Barn, Dublin, and had never been in trouble before, and he asked the Justice to deal leniently with her as she was prepared to refund the two half-crowns which she was charged with stealing on that evening.

The Justice said that if the defendant ever came before him again he could promise her that she would receive a very stiff sentence as he was determined to put down this class of fraud.

He then let her out under the Probation of Offenders Act in her own personal bond of £5 to keep the peace for 12 months and ordered her to pay back the two half-crowns to the two trustful young men whom she had so easily duped.

Defendant was then handed back £7 12s. 6d., out of the £8 which she had lodged as security, the 5/- which she had obtained and also 2/6 cost of the stamp for her bail bond, being deducted, and having duly signed the necessary bond she was released from custody.

Food And Drugs Act. Guard Byrne, Food and Drugs Inspector, Lismore, summoned John O'Farrell, Ashbourne, Lismore, for offering for sale new milk which was 2.45 deficient in fat.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared for the defendant.

Complainant stated that on the 13th May, he took a sample of defendant's milk from John Flynn, his workman, and he now handed in the analyst's certificate showing it to be deficient in fat to the above extent.

Replying to Mr. Carroll, solr., he said the weather was very cold and wet in the early part of May. He also admitted having previously taken samples of defendant's milk which had been found correct.

Mr. O'Farrell, defendant, and John Flynn, who had milked the cows on the day in question, having given evidence that the milk was sold as it came from the cows and had not been tampered with, the Justice said he would accept the evidence for the defence and dismiss the case.

A similar ruling was made in a second case at the suit of Guard Byrne, against Miss Frances E. Jacob, Lismore, whose sample was also taken on May, 13th and which proved to be 2.55 deficient in fat.

Mr. John L. Keane, solr., Youghal, appeared for the defendant, and the defence was the same as in the previous case.

Ejectment Case. The Lismore Estates Co., sought an ejectment order against Edmond Coughlan, hairdresser, Lismore, in respect of premises held by him in Upper Main street, on which £13 19s. arrears were due.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, for complainants, and Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, for defendant.

Evidence having been given by Mr. E. E. Hey, Secretary to the Estates Co., the Justice gave a decree for possession, with a stay provided defendant regularly paid the rent of 6/- per week together with £1 per month off the arrears.

Drunk And Incapable. Guard Purcell, Lismore, summoned a horse-trainer named Richard Stanton, of no fixed abode, for being drunk and incapable on the April Fair Day in Lismore, and Guard Houlihan, Lismore, had a similar charge against him on June, 14th.

He was fined 2/6 in the first case and 5/- in the second, and was allowed two months in which to pay the amount.

Guard Murphy, Lismore, charged a cattle-drover named Michael Hackett, of no fixed abode, with drunkenness on the public street, and a fine of 2/6 was imposed.

CO. WATERFORD BEAUTY SPOT.

The village of Stradbally, lying within sight of the sea, between Waterford and Dungarvan, is again in the public eye. The demesne of Woodhouse has been left by his kinswoman, Dame Emily Frances Louisa Hodson, of The Rocks, Co. Kilkenny, to Lord Hugh Tristram Beresford—that popular young brother of the Marquis of Waterford. Miss Hodson by her will requested Lord Hugh to live there—"without imposing any obligation so that it might remain and belong to the Beresford family."

Woodhouse is one of those delightful out-of-the-way "bits of heaven" which abound in lavish nature and modest seclusion in this country. Densely wooded, shingly dells open on to pretty lawns and anon the river rushes down in cascade or flows silently under scrubby cott. Here one could, in truth, commune with Nature, for she has given abundantly to this favoured spot. Beautiful as it is, Woodhouse has also played its part in grim war, for it once belonged to the Geraldines, and the many castles scattered around proclaim it a battleground of the ancient clans against the invader. In the year 1742 an occupant of Woodhouse, ancestor of Robert Uniacke, planted 152,640 trees on the demesne. Close by is Temple Bric, a rick in the sea where an ancient fortified dwelling said to be the abode of O'Brice, Chief of the Southern Decies, was found, and, two miles away—to the south of Stradbally—is a Castle of the Fitzgeralds on a cliff overhanging the sea calling up memories of "The Castled Crag of Drachenfels." If Lord Hugh decides to live at Woodhouse a Beresford will again be Lord of the Manor at Stradbally—"Omnibus" in "Examiner."

RECENTLY ORDAINED. The Rev. George B. Curtiss, only son of Mr. George Curtiss and Mrs. George Curtiss (nee Brigid McGrath), Waterbury, Connecticut, U.S.A., was ordained priest on June, 10th last. (Feast of Corpus Christi), and celebrated his first Mass on June, 25th. Father Curtiss is a nephew of Mr. Patrick McGrath (a well-known figure in Gaelic and greyhound sporting circles), of Leamybrien, Kilkenny, and of Miss Alice McGrath, do. and Mrs. James Veale, do.

FROM NEW YORK. A mid-Waterford man who went out to New York to take up a business appointment a few months ago, in a letter to a home pal, says—"I have already become wonderfully acclimatized, and can now choose from the wonderful variety of menus—sensible and refreshing meals. Of course, now that the hot season has commenced, fruit and salads, and vegetables, are the main foods, with coffee, oceans of iced water, and ice cream as the chief liquids. I may tell you that there is no difficulty in obtaining any drink you please, the prohibition laws being an absolute 'dead letter.'"

SEVEN AND SEVENTY. "I was 77 on St. Swithin's Day, and I have no notion of 'pegging out' yet; in fact, I hope to live over the hundred." These words came from the moustach-and-beard-fringed lips of a jolly old Kill-side resident whom we happened on early this week. He is a true optimist if ever there was one. And, save for a slight shower or two, St. Swithin did serve it fine for the old man's birthday on the 15th. inst.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

A WELCOME RENAISSANCE.

The revival of rowing under the auspices of the Cappoquin Rowing Club, to which we referred with pleasure a fortnight ago, has now proved to be more than a mere spasmodic effort, or a "flash in the pan." Such as we have seen here only on too many occasions in the past.

Not only have most of the former oarsmen returned to the "true fold," but many new members have also joined the Rowing Club, the latter including some strapping and promising young oarsmen from the Camphire district, who, with the necessary amount of training and practice, should shortly prove a most valuable asset to the Club.

The result is that the Blackwater is literally "alive" each evening now with young and energetic crews in the eight-oared and four-oared outriggers indulging in vigorous rowing practice, and the great enthusiasm which they are displaying in the sport only makes us regret that this splendid effort was not made a couple of months earlier in the season.

However, "Better late than never," and we are delighted to learn that with the great amount of rowing material now available a most interesting and attractive series of "Scratch Races" will be held on the August Bank Holiday (Monday August 7th), in which no less than six four-oared crews will compete.

This means that there will be three heats between two four-oared crews, with the three winning crews in the final race, and as several other interesting events will be sandwiched between these races a most attractive programme of aquatic events should be witnessed on the lovely Blackwater on the date in question.

On that night a grand all-night dance will be held in the popular Boathouse Hall, full particulars of which will appear in our advt. columns in a future issue, and also in these "Notes."

In the meantime, preparations for the great Cycling and Athletic Sports to be held in the Sportsfield on Sunday, July, 30th, are going on apace, so it can be seen that practically every branch of sport is being carefully catered for here, and the people of Cappoquin are sparing no effort to fully uphold the proud sporting reputation which the "Corner Stone" has so deservedly enjoyed in former years.

DEATH OF A GREAT SPORTSMAN. The sad news of the unexpected death in Cork on Monday week of Mr. J. J. Buckley, Official Handicapper to the N.A. and C.A. was heard with very deep regret by all classes of sportsmen in Cappoquin, amongst whom he was so intimately known, and so highly respected.

For many years the late Mr. Buckley had acted as Handicapper and Starter at the various Sports Meetings held here, and as a matter of fact, he had been engaged to officiate in the same capacity at the Sports here on Sunday, July, 30th.

Only a few days before his death, Mr. M. J. Sargent, Hon. Sec. received a very cheerful letter from him in which he promised to bring a large number of prominent cyclists and athletes to our Sports, and also proposed to do all in his power to make the fixture a great success, but "Man proposes but God disposes," and hence the news of his death came as a great personal shock to the members of the Sports Committee and all the local sportsmen with whom he had been brought into contact for several years past.

A noted sportsman and brilliant sprinter in his earlier days, Mr. Buckley proved a thorough sportsman to the last, as his kind consideration towards budding athletes and cyclists, and his cheery and helpful words of advice and encouragement won for him the love and respect of all.

Kind, genial, gentlemanly and generous, he was a perfect and lovable type of Irishman, and now that he has handicapped and started his last race here below let us hope and pray that he has successfully "breasted the tape" in Heaven as a fitting reward for a life so nobly and honourably spent amongst all classes of sportsmen during his active and useful span of life on this earth.—R.I.P.

GREAT BOWLING TOURNAMENT. A great Bowling Tournament has been in progress here during the past month in which over 50 players competed.

Substantial cash prizes and three valuable Silver Medals were offered for the first, second and third in the final score, and all the eliminating contests having been decided last week, it was intended to bowl off the deciding scores on last Sunday, but a continuous downpour of heavy rain having made this impossible, the event had to be postponed until next Sunday. Only four competitors remain for the final round, and as these

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN.

ALLEGED RUSHING TACTICS.

ELECTION OF M.O.

DR. SHELLEY FOR BONMAHON.

At a meeting of the Board of Assistance on Wednesday, Ald. T. D. Connolly, outgoing Chairman, presided, and there were also present—Messrs. D. Heskin, J. O'Donovan, M. F. Walsh, W. Slack, J. Cosgrave, P. Caulfield, John Butler, M. Curran, J. Tracey, John Kiersey, D. Coghlan, M. O'Regan, T. Synnot and J. O'Halloran.

Election Of Chairman. Mr. Curran, proposed and Mr. Walsh, seconded that Ald. Connolly, be re-elected Chairman.

Mr. O'Donovan at this stage had left the room and went downstairs, the Chairman in the meantime declared himself elected just as Mr. O'Donovan returned with other members.

The Chairman then called the next business which was the election of Vice-Chairman.

Mr. O'Donovan protested vigorously at the rushing through of the election of chairman, which he held was carried out before the specific time. He handed in a resolution proposed by him and seconded by Mr. Tracey, that Mr. Coghlan, be appointed chairman.

Chairman—That matter is already dealt with, and I refuse to take that proposition.

Mr. O'Donovan—I will propose that these proceedings be abrogated. Up-roar ensued and it was impossible to note what was being said in the din.

Mr. Curran rising shouted at Mr. O'Donovan to sit down, remarking "do you want me to use physical force to make you do it."

Mr. O'Donovan—Physical or any other force will not make me sit down. I will ask the Secretary for his opinion of the proceedings.

Secretary—Personally I would insist on any proposition being put in writing.

Mr. O'Donovan—It is now Mr. Curran is writing his proposition and mine is being put on the Chair.

Mr. Synnot—What was all the rush about?

Mr. Walsh—The meeting started at the proper time.

Mr. Tracey—That is not so, it started at 23 minutes past twelve.

Mr. Cosgrave—I don't give a button who is appointed Chairman, but I heard no one being proposed although I was present.

Mr. Coghlan—I am very sorry all this has arisen, but I think the meeting was rushed. I think some county member is entitled to the chair after 3 years.

Mr. Caulfield—That matter is finished and I propose that Mr. Curran be elected V.C.

Mr. Butler, seconded.

Mr. O'Donovan then handed in a resolution proposing that the business be abrogated.

The Chairman refused to accept it, saying it was a matter for the law adviser.

Mr. O'Donovan—I will take the matter to the Department.

Mr. Heskin—When Mr. Connolly was proposed Mr. O'Donovan left his place and went down below to call other members.

Mr. O'Regan—I was the first he met below and he did not say anything to me.

Mr. O'Donovan—Which proposal was handed in first?

Secretary—Yours was.

of those in receipt of Home Assistance. Mr. Cosgrave—That would mean the writing out of about 2,000 names by the officials.

Secretary—It is a big job. It was finally decided to submit a copy of the Home Assistance Superintendent's report to the Corporation, and adjourn the matter of preparing a list of Home Assistance recipients for a month.

Peter Street, Dispensary. Mr. Jephson, Engineer, estimated the cost of erecting the suggested shelter at Peter street, Dispensary at £40. The shelter to consist of a galvanised sheeting covering along the passage to the Dispensary.

Mr. O'Donovan thought that the shelter as proposed would not suffice, as the rain would be driven in by the wind, and those waiting would be as wet as ever. He suggested something like enlarging the existing shed.

The Board adjourned the matter to allow Mr. Jephson to submit an estimate for enlarging the existing shed.

Kilmacthomas Dispensary Residence. Mr. Jephson, reported that the painting of the above was now completed.

In addition to his estimate for repairs (22s) before the last meeting he now wished to add sums of £10 and £3 10s.

The Board decided to have the work carried out so that Dr. Walsh can take up residence.

A Popular Member. Mr. O'Donovan said he wished to express his regret to their colleague on the Board (Mr. John O'Donnell), on hearing that he is unwell, and to express the hope that he would be with them soon again.

All the members having joined in the expression of regret.

The Secretary was directed to convey the Board's expression to Mr. O'Donnell.

Appointment Of Doctor. For the appointment of M.O. for the Bonmahon Dispensary District, the Appointments Commissioners recommended, Dr. Heskin, Tallow; Dr. T. K. White, Cappoquin and Dr. Shelly, Callan, from the applications received and asked the Board to submit the names back in the order of their choice.

Dr. Heskin on behalf of his brother (Dr. Heskin) said he wished to withdraw his name from the list.

A vote was then taken between Dr. White and Dr. Shelly and resulted as follows:—For Dr. Shelly, Messrs. Kiersey, Coghlan, O'Regan, Synnot, O'Donovan, Halloran, Cosgrave, Tracey—8.

For Dr. White—Messrs. Slack, Butler, Curran, Caulfield, Walsh, Heskin, and the Chairman—7.

The result was ordered to be sent on to the Commissioners.

Caretaker Of Dungarvan Dispensary. The following applications were received for Caretaker of the above:—Mrs. N. Draper, Mitchell street; Mrs. E. McCarthy, St. Mary's street and Wm. Kelly, Rochfield.

Mr. Coghlan, proposed, and Mr. Caulfield, seconded, that Mrs. Draper, be appointed.

Mr. Tracey, proposed, and Mr. Cosgrave, seconded, Mrs. McCarthy.

The result of the vote was:—For Mrs. Draper—Messrs. Kiersey, Coghlan, O'Regan, Synnot, Butler, Caulfield, Walsh, Heskin, Curran and the Chairman—10.

For Mrs. McCarthy—Messrs. Slack, Halloran, Cosgrave, Tracey, Donovan—5.

Mrs. Draper was then declared appointed.

Dispensary Caretaker's Pension. Mr. Curran moved the notice of motion standing in his name that the Board consider the granting of a pension to the retiring caretaker of the Dungarvan Dispensary (Mrs O'Grady).

The Secretary replying to a member said the salary was £12. There was no emoluments attached.

The Board decided to allow £20 in respect of apartments bringing the salary to £32 and to grant two-thirds of that, viz., £21 6s. 8d. subject to sanction.

Sewerage From Co. Home. The Board approved of the resolution from the Urban Council regarding the County Home sewerage in which the Urban Council are to go 50/50 only from the point where the sewer from the new houses meets the Co. Home sewer.

MEETING AT TALLOW.

At a public meeting held at Tallow on Sunday, the various speakers were subjected to much interruption, but the principal speaker, Mrs. W. Redmond, T.D., was allowed to proceed with little break.

Mr. de Riva O'Phelan, Waterford, opened the proceedings in Irish saying he would later address them in English as he heard they wouldn't understand him otherwise.

Mr. J. Keating, T.D., said that Mr. de Valera, and his hidebound Party had practically exhausted the purchasing power of the Irish farmer—the only real industry left them—by their mad and silly policy.

Mr. T. M. Forde, Wexford, who answered an inquisitive heckler by saying that he came of Wexford Rebels and Galway Blazers, said he was proud to stand by the side of one who bore the honoured name of Redmond.

Mr. Keating—Yes "up de Valera" and to with everything and everybody else.

Mrs. Redmond, who was warmly received, said they came there that day not to talk politics, but to talk and face facts. For many years past they had too much politics in that country. It would be much better if they had a little prosperity.

was largely waste of time to try and bring the facts and effects of the present situation before many of the younger people, fed upon high and airy ideals, but sooner or later it would be brought home seriously to them all.

CAMOGIE. INTERESTING MATCH AT YOUGHAL.

There was a fair attendance at the Youghal Gaelic Grounds on Wednesday week when Middleton lined out in a friendly camogie challenge match against the local team.

Middleton were the first to attack and in less than a few minutes had the green flag raised (per Miss N. Lee). Youghal replied with a similar score for which Miss M. Revins was responsible.

The second half opened up with many lively exchanges, Youghal having the most of the play. J. Coveney sent the forwards going and in a rush M. Revins sent in a fast ball which put the teams on level terms.

Youghal were responsible. Play was now very fast and exciting, both teams trying hard to score. Youghal fouled at the ten yards mark. B. Twomey taking the free, sent in a neat point. Youghal again paid a short visit to the Middleton end, but failed to score. K. Brett, from far out, put her side farther ahead with a beautiful point.

DAIRY GOODS IN BRITAIN.

Britain, Ireland's chief market for butter—consumer of 80 p.c. of the world's butter export—warned the Marketing Sub-Commission that her own dairy production must and would be considerably increased.

A sub-committee on dairy products was appointed, including representatives of Britain, Australia, Canada, Irish Free State, New Zealand, in addition to a number of European countries and U.S.A. and Argentina.

The world market in butter, and possibly other products, was suffering from over production.

In Britain the subject was considered last February, he said, and they came to the conclusion that a 50,000 ton cut in butter was necessary to restore a healthy condition in the London market.

At present Great Britain imported annually twice her own total production of milk. Major Elliot warned the Sub-Commission that this condition could not continue. Britain intended to increase her output of dairy products.

MULCAHYS, DUNGARVAN.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

LATE MR. MULCAHY, EX-CLERK.

L.G.B. SAY THEY HAVE NO MONEY FOR A GRATUITY, BUT SUGGEST A LOAN.

Mr. J. Butler, chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. M. J. Keane, V.C., J. F. Moloney, Jas. Hackett, T. Power, B. Dee, Thos. McCarthy, and Wm. O'Donnell.

Wages. Payments amounting to £16 6s. 3d., on the general A.C., and £5 11s. 1d., on the Footpaths A.C., were passed.

Mr. Moloney—The General Account is high considering that we have very little money left. I understood we were not going ahead with the contracts at the Park, Cooney's Lough and Abbesside, until the rates were coming in.

B.S.—The amounts are small, and later on these men will all be employed on the housing scheme, and we may not be able to get them.

Mr. Moloney—Our bank balance is very low at present.

Condition Of Park. Jas. Street, Park Caretaker, wrote complaining of the condition of the Park every morning. The seats are all removed and doubled up together, some of them are burned with candles, and covered with candle grease. There is nuisance committed on the steps every night, which is most disgusting.

Mr. Keane—It would be hard to object to the cardplayers.

Mr. Moloney—The caretaker is putting it up to us, but he could help us out himself.

Mr. Hackett—The nuisance must be caused by youngsters. The cardplayers should at least put back the seats when they are finished.

An order was made directing the caretaker to warn anyone found removing seats, etc.

A Sewer Or Drain. The S.S.O., reported as follows—(1) Regarding the nuisance at Miss Daniels and T. Egan's Mitchell street, I have given Mr. Williams, instructions to summon the owner, of both premises for the abatement of the same.

The drain that conveys the drainage from the County Council and the Courthouse is badly choked. I saw Mr. Bowen about it, and he is of opinion that it is a matter for the sanitary authority to have the chokeage removed, he stated that it is a sewer and request that the Urban Council abate the nuisance. In my opinion the buildings being County Council property and within the same curtilage, they are liable for keeping that drain in order.

Mr. Moloney—Where exactly is this drain?

S.S.O.—It comes out on the Quay at the Bridge side of the offices.

Chairman—Let us hope the two big bodies will not start fighting over this. I suppose half a crown would put the matter right.

S.S.O.—A man for half a day would set it right.

Mr. Keane—Make an order to have it done.

Mr. McCarthy—It is not for the sake of the half crown. The next case may cost £10. He would favour finding out whose duty it is.

The S.S.O. here produced the Act dealing with sewers and drains and said the Council were entitled to open the drain to see what was wrong.

Mr. McCarthy—It should be the Council's business to find out what they are responsible for.

Replying to the Chairman, the S.S.O., said it was a matter that could easily cost £500 to decide. He could not say for certain that it was a drain.

A member suggested referring the matter to their solicitor to find out who was responsible.

Chairman—If this was a big case involving more I would agree. The solicitor will charge you more than it will cost to remedy it. You all remember another case at the Burgery, we were assured by everyone that that was a drain, but when the matter came before the Judge, he held it was a sewer.

The S.S.O., was directed to open and ascertain the cause of the blockage.

Dumping Ground. Mr. Williams, wrote on behalf of the tenants of Strand Side North, Abbesside, protesting against the proposed re-opening of the dump there.

They stated that the proposed alteration will not remedy the existing state of affairs. During warm weather the stench from the dump is very bad and most unhealthy for the people in that area. They suggested that the Council open the dump further down the road.

Chairman—I thought we were inclined to do something like that at first.

Mr. Moloney—We sent our officers and acted on their report.

Mr. Keane—We decided to make a new opening, but they don't seem to agree with it and I am inclined to agree with them.

Mr. Power—They can't keep their homes clean presently with stuff blowing around.

Mr. McCarthy—I found one man dumping on the surface during this week, and I made him put it over the pit-head. He did not blame the man. The new entrance is not yet open.

B.S.—We were a bit busy this week and could not attend to it.

Mr. McCarthy—You were not too busy, half an hour would do the whole thing. Make an order to have it done to-morrow. There is also room for 4,000 loads yet at the place below the Shannon Dairy.

Mr. O'Donnell—We discontinued there as it might interfere with the outlet for the Sluiceway.

Chairman—There was an order made, which is not carried out yet, and we must first see how it will work when this order is carried out.

The B.S., was ordered to have the new entrance to the dump opened immediately, and to close the old one.

Clean Milk Supply. Mr. R. P. Byrne, V.S., wrote applying for a Minit testing apparatus with a view to the production of a clean milk supply for the people of the Urban area.

Chairman—What is that, or what will it cost?

Clerk—Mr. Byrne says about 30/-.

The application was granted.

Excursion To Dublin. Chairman—You will remember last year an Excursion was arranged to the Cork Exhibition. Certain representations have again been made to me with regard to an excursion this year to Dublin Show. The Council agreed with the Chairman's suggestion and the following resolution was proposed by Mr. Keane, and seconded by Mr. Moloney, and passed unanimously—

"That the Urban District Council, approve the efforts of the Chairman (Mr. Butler), in organising an excursion from the Town and surrounding districts on Thursday 10th. August to the Dublin Show, and to ensure that everybody may be enabled to participate in the day's outing, we respectfully request the Employers and Shopkeepers of the town to close their establishments on that day."

Co. Home Sewer. The Council discussed the adjourned resolution from the Board of Assistance asking the Council as Sanitary Authority to construct the sewer from the County Home on a 50/50 basis for the Board of Assistance.

Mr. Keane—The matter was adjourned to allow the B.S. to discuss the question with Mr. Murphy, Architect.

B.S.—Mr. Murphy was not down, but I met Mr. Spreadborough Engineer to the Board of Assistance on Saturday, and we discussed the matter. I put it up to him that this Council thought that they should contribute 50/50 only from the point of junction where the sewer from the Housing Scheme meet the Co. Home sewer and Mr. Spreadborough agreed that that was only reasonable.

The following resolution was then proposed by Mr. Moloney, seconded by Mr. Keane, and passed—

"That this Council inform the Co. Board of Public Assistance that we are agreeable to contribute 50% of the proposed new sewer from County Home from the point where our sewer from the new houses joins the Co. Home sewer, viz., approximately 123 yards from Co. Home wall in Mr. Ryan's land; further, that on these conditions we agree to carry out the work as suggested in their letter.

Ex-Town Clerk. The Council considered the following letters dealing with a gratuity for the representatives of the late Mr. Patk. Mulcahy, ex-Town Clerk.

The Department wrote as follows— "I am directed by the Minister for Local Government and Public Health, to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 6th. inst., regarding the payment of a gratuity to the representatives of the late Mr. Patk. Mulcahy, formerly Town Clerk to the Urban District Council."

I am to state that there are no Government funds available for this purpose and the Minister accordingly trusts that the Council will dispose of the matter with the least possible delay.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., (for the representatives), wrote—"Further to my letter of 25th inst., as a result of an interview I had with Mr. J. F. Moloney, I wrote to Mr. S. Goulding, T.D., with a view to ascertaining if there was any Government Fund from which a sum awarded in this matter by your Council could be borrowed and repaid after a certain number of years.

Mr. Goulding, in his reply states that the Minister for Local Government suggests that your Council can raise a loan from the Bank for such amount as is ultimately sanctioned by the Council. The Minister suggests that a resolution be passed by your Council awarding a certain sum with a proviso that the amount should be raised by means of a bank loan, and this resolution should then be sent to the Department for sanction. I hope that your Council will adopt the Minister's suggestion and bring the matter to an early conclusion. I trust also that your Council will deal generously with my clients in this very worthy case.

Mr. Moloney—There are two main points to be considered, what the amount will be, and what terms the Bank will give.

Chairman—In view of the fact that there are absentees to-night, and as this matter was not on the agenda, in fairness to the members not present, I think we should call a special meeting of which all members would have notice. I was speaking to one of the representatives to-day, and explained this and she was agreeable.

Mr. Moloney—I was going to suggest that myself, in order to allow the Clerk to get information from the bank Manager as to the longest term we could get a loan for, also to have particulars as to the term of office of the late Town Clerk, and how such grants are assessed.

The Chairman's suggestion was agreed to, the Clerk to approach the bank manager and when the necessary information was ready to call a special meeting.

Acknowledgments. Letters acknowledging resolutions of sympathy passed by the Council were read from Dolia M. Broderick, Woodland St., Hartford, Conn.; M. Broderick, Highland Ave., Waterbury, Conn.; D. Stokes, Rice, St., Dungarvan; and Mrs. M. Ryan, Sexton, Street, Abbesside.

Clearing Slum Areas. The following letter was read from the Department—

A Chara, With reference to the scheme being carried out by your local authority for the erection of houses under the Housing of the Working Classes Acts, I am directed by the Minister for Local Government and Public Health to state that if the scheme is intended for the re-housing of persons living in unhealthy areas or unfit houses steps should at once be taken to ensure that the existing dwellings of the prospective tenants will be demolished as soon as alternative accommodation has been provided.

The Medical Officer of Health should, if he has not already done so, be requested to survey the district and report on the condition of the dwellings of the working classes and the local authority's Engineer should be instructed to prepare a map showing the areas to be declared clearance areas under the Housing (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1931. The local authority should then pass the necessary resolution declaring such areas clearance areas and they should decide the manner in which such areas should be cleared, i.e., whether by making a Clearance Order requiring the owners to clear and level the sites or where the sites are suitable for re-building by purchasing the houses and lands either by agreement or by means of a Compulsory Purchase Order and demolishing the houses and erecting new houses on the cleared sites. Clearance Orders should be made on Form 14 of the Housing of the Working Classes Acts (Forms) Order, 1932, and Notice to Owners, etc., and advertisements should be issued on Forms 15 and 16. In the case of Compulsory Purchase Orders, the Order should be made on Form 23 and the advertisement and notices should be issued on Forms 24 and 25.

In fixing, for the purpose of Clearance Orders, the dates upon which the condemned buildings will be required to be vacated the local authority should have regard to the dates upon which alternative accommodation will be available, for the persons to be displaced. In the case of houses which are unfit for habitation but which are capable of being made fit the local authority should now proceed to serve notice on Form 2 requiring the persons having control of the houses to execute such works as will, in the opinion of the local authority render the houses fit for habitation. If such persons fail to carry out the work the local authority are themselves empowered to enter the premises and execute the necessary repairs and recover the cost.

In submitting, for confirmation by the Minister, Clearance Orders or Compulsory Purchase Orders in respect of clearance areas the following documents should be forwarded—

(1) Copy of the official representation or other information upon which the Council's resolution declaring a clearance area was founded.

(2) A certified copy of the deposited map with date of deposit. The map referred to in the Order should—

(a) be upon a scale of not less than one inch to every 88 feet;

(b) show clearly distinguishing by different colours the land comprised in the clearance area and the land surrounded by or adjoining the clearance area;

(c) show by separate numbers corresponding with the number in the Order the several houses, parcels of land or other property included in the Order;

(3) Copies of newspapers containing advertisements and copies of notices served on owners, etc.;

(4) Certificate of service of notices;

(5) Fernal resolution of the Council applying for confirmation of the Order.

A report as to the action taken should be made to the Minister as soon as possible.

Chairman—Better refer this to the M.O.H. and B.S.

Mr. McCarthy—I would like very much that a copy of that letter would appear in the local Press. As all the members are aware, a percentage of these people are averse to leaving their present houses and blame the Council for trying to make them. The rent those people are paying at present is about 1/- to 1/6 a week, and they find it hard to do that. Where are they going to get 3/- or 3/6?

The Chairman agreed with Mr. McCarthy, but said that was a matter that need not be considered for another 12 months.

The letter was referred to the M.O.H. and B.S., to report on.

GONE AGAIN. William ("Bill") Power concluded his vacation at his home Gurtvickary, Kiltrossanty, last week-end, when he left for Cobl, from whence he sailed back to the home of his adoption in New York on Sunday morning. Bill immensely enjoyed every hour of his holiday in the Old Land, and bears away with him wholly pleasant memories of a supremely satisfying sojourn amongst the faces and places familiar to his boyhood-tie.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS.

RESCUED.

A carrier pigeon, found in an exhausted condition by Mr. William Kirwan, of Cutteen South, Kilmacthomas, has on one of its legs a rubber ring, bearing the following markings:—I.U.F.S. 324 1378. Since rescued the bird has regained its normal strength and activity, and it does not seem inclined to sever its connection with Cutteen South and the "good Samaritan" it luckily located there, when all but life seemed lost!

TEN JUST MEN.

There are at least ten married men with families in Kilmacthomas who need houses badly. Day in day out for many moons past they have been looking forward for the new cottages promised to be built for them by the powers that be, but, beyond procuring the sites for the said structures, no further steps have as yet been taken and the anxious ones awaiting are now wondering if the erections will ever be enacted.

ANENT BOOKS.

A businessman of our acquaintance and a very astute businessman, too, is in the habit of boasting that he never read a book in his life, that he found time too precious for such literary adventures, and all too brief for keeping an affair (whatever that!) with the topics of the hour. When the Copyright Act was passed in 1842, John Murray, the second, maintained that books were a luxury. To the ordinary man and woman the biography, the novel, the travel tale, the romance, are indispensable treasures of life. The few may get through the world without their exhilarating stimulus, but the book-lover has a mine of resource which annihilates boredom and gives his hours a thrill for which there is no substitute. At one time in the dim and distant past a three-volume novel cost 31/6 or 42/- We can purchase a similar work today for a few shillings, so that we are well off. We cannot leave this paragraph without mentioning that the Kilmacthomas and Kilmacthomas branches of the County Library are being appreciably supported by the public of both centres.

BY THE BRINE.

It must be acknowledged, despite all other emotions, that the beach apparel worn by the girls of to-day has greatly enhanced the panoramic radiance of the seaside colour scheme. If history can be relied upon, our forebears had more to interest them at the shore than the prospect of a dip. In our great-grandfather's and great-great-grandmother's time it was no unusual experience for bathers to be escorted to the briny by a band of musicians. And now that it strikes us, it would not be an ill idea if this bathing aspect of seaside pageantry was revived on modern lines; it would certainly be a capital advertisement. Let it be announced, for instance, in bold captions: "That the Mayor of Waterford will swim at Tramore on a given date, when he will march to the water's edge in his chain of office, accompanied by the (let us say) concertina band of the City Father's Corporation in uniform, on which occasion the promenade and its approaches will be decorated with flags and bunting." This should prove an event of spectacular interest, both for residents and tourists. The Chairman of the Dungarvan Urban District Council could stage a similar display, as could other civic chiefs throughout the country. Just imagine the excitement these shows would cause among the young, and the curiosity it would arouse among the adult population. Cobham's flying Circus would be only "in the hae-penny place" up against the civic ceremonial at the seaside! En passant, we must express the hope that the gentlemen referred to will not be vexed with us over our little "jokey poke."

GARNERED.

Kilmac' Gardener—This is tobacco plant in full flower. Dear old Mahon Valley woman—very interesting! And how long will it be before the "fags" are ripe?

NUDE "PROPS."

Bonmahon—not excepting the smart social world—has accepted the present bare-legged fashion with superb composure. Even in Kilmac' each day this month, increasing numbers of women—aye, and men, too, well-dressed in all but stockings, have made their appearance out of doors. These bare legs created no sensation, but were accepted as a matter of course—in marked contrast to the consternation that such a display would have caused a couple of annums ago. Fortunately for the hosiery manufacturers the "stockingless" fashion promises—thanks to our erstwhile erratic climate—to be brief and spasmodic. This explains the anomaly to be found at the drapery stores of bare-legged ladies thronging the counters in quest of bargains in stockings.

GAELIC "ISMS."

The Gaels of these parts were amongst the many who eyed Cork's collapse at Thurles on last Sunday. The Munster Final will be fought in the Rebel City's arena on the 6th. prox. Will Waterford wrangle the laurels from Limerick that day? You bet they will!

At Fews on the 16th. inst., the Croughaun Rangers and Millvale Rovers clashed in a friendly junior hurling challenge, which was well refereed by Mr. Maurice Power, Kilmacthomas. A great game terminated in favour of the Rangers by a clear margin of 1 goal 2 points.

At Grangemockler South Tipp., a senior football challenge, between Kilmacthomas and Ballynaclea wound up with "honour easy" on the scores:—Kilmacthomas, 0-8; Ballynaclea, 1-5. It was a stern struggle, and had Matt Ryan been playing with Kilmacthomas they would undoubtedly have defeated the team which included five of Tipp's inter-county combination. W. Connors, P. Fitzgerald, M. Fitzgerald (goal), J. Walsh, W. Power, J. Dalton, and T. Veale, were outstanding for the Comeragh Valley representation. The return match will be played at Leamybrien on to-morrow (Sunday) week.

The following two-part programme will be brought off at the Ballyduff Lower venue on to-morrow (Sunday): Millvale Rovers v. Passage, minor hurling, 3 p.m. (s.t.); Mr. R. Brown, referee; Glonea v. Graecidun, junior hurling, 2nd. round Co. Championship, 4.15 p.m.; Mr. Liam Walsh, referee. With bright prospects of propitious weather on the occasion, a big attendance should see what bids fair to be a brace of keen bouts.

OVERHEARD.

High finance is not in the line of most of us, but we know enough to enjoy the dialogue overheard between a couple of Kilmac' workmen the other day. One was enthusiastic in his advocacy of the Post Office Savings Bank, while the other was stubbornly emphatic that it was best to keep one's savings in one's own home rather than entrust them to any institution. "You can always lay your hand on your money when you want it," he said, as if to clinch his contention. "But then, you see," rejoined his enlightened companion, "you lose the interest on the money that way." Impressed not the least, the canny one replied: "I know that, but I allow for that by putting a little extra away!"

During his time in Abbeyside Father Crotty devoted himself wholeheartedly to the spiritual and temporal welfare of his flock. They in return loved him and no wonder, for he was unparisng in his endeavours for the good of young and old. The Troop of Boy Scouts he formed in the Parish and the splendid Scouts Den he had erected as a club for the young men and boys in his parish are tributes to his noble work. Everything ennobling appealed to him and the Christian virtues he instilled into his people, young and old, will long live as a tribute to his great priestly rule. He carries with him to his new Parish, the prayers and blessings of his Abbeyside Parishioners for length of years in health and strength to carry on his noble work.

EXCITING SCENE IN CAPPOQUIN

GALLANT RESCUE FROM DROWNING

The Blackwater above the stone bridge in Cappoquin in the vicinity of the Boathouse premises, was the venue of a most exciting scene and a brave and gallant rescue from drowning on Saturday evening.

In preparation for the "Scratch Races" under the auspices of the Rowing Club on August Bank Holiday, several crews have been out every evening practising, and it was while one of these crews was so engaged on Saturday evening that a serious accident occurred.

One of the four-oared outriggers was manned by a junior crew composed of James Brady (bow), M. O'Donnell (2); P. Driscoll (3) and John Fives (stroke), with James Curran as cox, and as they were proceeding up the river a second time, something went wrong with the oars held by O'Donnell, and Fives and it was decided to exchange the oars while the boat was a considerable distance from the bank above the bridge. Older and more experienced oarsmen would have brought the boat back to the Boathouse slip and have it carefully held while this rather dangerous operation was being carried out, but the members of this crew tried the experiment while the boat was in mid-river with the result that the frail craft capsized and the five occupants were thrown into the water.

Four of them either swam or scrambled towards the nearest bank, but it was then found that O'Donnell, who could not swim, was in serious difficulties and shouting for help. He had actually gone down and nothing but one of his hands could be seen above the surface, when young Brady, who is still in his teens regardless of his own life, pluckily swam back and grasped the drowning man who brought him almost to the bottom of the river with him. Brady displayed wonderful presence of mind, and partly stunning O'Donnell in order to make him relax his deadly hold, he quickly succeeded in bringing his man to the surface where he caught hold of the upturned boat and gamely held O'Donnell's head above the water until another racing boat in charge of Patk. English arrived on the scene, and into this O'Donnell was hauled and brought safely back to the Boathouse premises where he soon recovered and was later able to cycle home.

The gallant rescuer is the youngest son of Mr. E. and Mrs. Brady, Mass Lane, and is a prominent member of the local A.C.A., and his comrades, as well as all classes in Cappoquin, are proud of his brave action which, we understand, is to be brought to the notice of the Royal Humane Society, so that he may be suitably rewarded for his bravery on the occasion.

You, like others, always want the Best.

Important Notice.

We wish to call the attention of our customers and the general public to the fact that we have erected a Walworth Patent Kiln at considerable expense to treat the native Grain which it is incumbent on us to mix with Maize. Under the new Cereals Bill the quantity of this Admixture has been raised by a recent order of the Department of Agriculture from 10 per cent. to 15 per cent.

Owing to this increased percentage to secure good sound Meal, the Kiln-drying of the home-grown Grain is in our opinion absolutely necessary. We therefore guarantee that the quota of native Grain used by this Firm in the Admixture will be Kiln-dried. This combined with the stone grinding at our Water-power Mill at Kildamuck should secure a first-class article.

We shall supply Maize Meal with the stipulated Admixture of either OATS or BARLEY. In the case of BARLEY being used a slight increase in price will be required.

CRICKET.

Cappoquin Cricket Club having twice defeated Cahir earlier this season, the Cahir Club visited Cappoquin on Saturday week, and got a little 'bit of their own back' by defeating the home Club by the narrow margin of 12 runs. Play on both sides was of a disappointing nature, as indicated by the low scores. Cahir, who batted first, being all out for 53 runs, while Cappoquin were all dismissed for 41 runs. The home team threw away all chances of success in their eagerness in trying to get impossible runs, with the result that no less than four of them were 'run out' when they were batting well. We hope they will exercise more prudence and judgment in all their future matches, because there is little sense in sacrificing victory in this manner when it is well within their grasp. Lismore Club will visit Cappoquin for an important return match on Saturday 15th, at 3 p.m., and a great match should be witnessed between them.

Athletics and Cycling.

NOVICES' SPORTS AT LISMORE.

Under the auspices of the Lismore Hurling and Football Clubs a most successful Sports fixture was held on Sunday under N.A. and C.A. rules, in the Gaelic Grounds, Lismore. The fixture had been advertised for the previous Sunday, but owing to the inclement weather on that day it had to be postponed. Although postponed fixtures suffer as a rule in the matter of public patronage, we are glad to be able to state that this popular event proved an exception, as there was a very large attendance and the various events produced large 'fields' of competitors and several close and interesting finishes proved the order of the day.

The weather was fine and bright, the warm rays of an unclouded Summer sun being tempered with a refreshing breeze which made the conditions ideal for all, while the richly wooded scenery of the picturesque Castle Farm provided a charming background to the animated scene.

The officials were as follows:— Starter—Mr. W. J. Nolan, Hon. Sec. Co. Board, N.A. and C.A.; Judges of Jumping—Messrs. John F. O'Donnell, and Wm. Hogan; Judges of Running Events—Messrs. P. Hickey, and P. Wilkinson; Judges of Cycling—Messrs. H. Ormonde, and Herman Foley; Judges of Weight-Throwing—Messrs. J. F. O'Donnell and Wm. Hogan.

Committee—Messrs. James Ryan, Neil Darragh, P. Hickey, W. Hickey, John F. O'Donnell, Wm. Hogan, Herman Foley and P. Wilkinson. Treasurer—Mr. James Ross, Hon. Sec.—Mr. P. Ormonde.

All the officials and members of the committee worked hard to make the fixture a success and had all the events run off in good time and without the slightest hitch, and they deserve to be complimented on the great efficiency which they displayed, while a special tribute of praise is due to Messrs. W. J. Nolan, Dungarvan, and John F. O'Donnell, Lismore, who were the two most active officials on the field, and who performed their onerous duties in a manner which gave the greatest satisfaction both to competitors and spectators alike.

Details:— 8-Miles Cycle Road Race from Lismore around Cappoquin and back to Lismore—D. Galvin, Glenmore A.C. 1; D. Cullinane, Cappoquin A.C. 2; P. Hogan, Tallow A.C. 3.—Nine competed. All the competitors were in a bunch cycling through Cappoquin, but approaching Lismore on the return journey Galvin gradually forged ahead, and although pluckily challenged by Cullinane, he maintained his lead to win rather easily by about 40 yards. Third close up.

100 Yards (for Boys under 14)—P. Prendergast, 1; C. Daly, 2. 220 Yards (for Boys under 16)—J. J. Hannigan, Tallow 1; D. McGrath, Cappoquin, 2.

100 Yards Open—Final—P. Lannon, Glenmore A.C. 1; P. Morrissey, Cappoquin, 2.—Ten competed. Won a great race by inches.

One Mile Cycle (open)—Final—W. Beecher, Tallow A.C. 1; M. Lenihan, do. 2.—This event had to be run in three heats for which ten competed, and in the final Beecher won a well-judged race by a couple of lengths.

High Jump—W. Moore, Monatrave, Lismore, 5 ft. 3 ins.; 1; S. Twomey, De La Salle, Waterford, (5ft. 2), 2. Also competed—John McCarthy, John Baldwin, Peter Mahony, P. Kirwan and John Clancy.

Half Mile Flat—J. Hurley, Curraglass, Tallow, 1; W. O'Brien, Glenmore, 2; W. Claxton, do. 3. Also competed—J. Healy, Glendine, T. Morrissey, Cappoquin; C. Taylor, do., and M. Curran, Glenmore. Won by five yards.

An objection was lodged against the winner on the ground that he had competed at illegal Sports, and the prizes in this event were held over pending further investigation by the Committee.

Two Miles Cycle Race—M. Lenihan, Coolagown, 1; W. Beecher, Tallow, 2; D. Cullinane, Cappoquin, 3. Also competed—E. Walsh, M. Devereux, J. O'Rourke, and J. Crowley. Won a great race by half a length, third a length behind.

220 Yards (open)—T. Morrissey, Cappoquin A.C. 1; P. Walsh, Lismore A.C. 2. Also competed—J. Moloney, Cappoquin, M. Byrne, Conna; J. Curran, Glenmore; S. Twomey, De La Salle, Waterford. Won by inches.

Pole Jump—M. Whelan, Lismore, (8ft. 4 ins.); 1; W. O'Brien, Glenmore, (8 ft. 3 ins.) 2. Also competed—C. Taylor, T. Conway and D. McGrath.

This proved the best race of the day and a thrilling finish resulted in Lenihan and Beecher dead-heat for first place, with Galvin close up for a good third.

440 Yards.—P. Walsh, Glenmore, 1; J. Hurley, Curraglass, 2. Also competed—Jas. Murphy, Glendine, John Murphy, Glenmore; Jas. Moloney, Cappoquin; J. Curran, Glenmore; T. Morrissey, Cappoquin and G. Taylor, do. Won a great race by a yard.

One Mile Flat (open)—M. Curran, Glenmore, 1; W. Claxton, do., 2. Also

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present—Mr. E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman, Mrs. Hurley, P.C.; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. J. Kennedy, D. J. Linehan, T. Beausang, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; J. Whelan, A. J. Fowkes, D. Dennehy, M. D. Broderick, P. J. McMahon, P.C.

The Clerk said that having received no Estate Duty Grant for '32-'33, he had written to the Department on the matter and received a formal acknowledgment.

Mr. Dennehy—That is not the agricultural Grant? The Clerk—No, sir.

No. 2 Army Band. A letter was read from the O.C., Cork Barracks, regretting that owing to the weather the No. 2 Army Band was unable to give the free recital arranged for last Sunday. They could give the 23rd. inst., for a paying engagement and a free recital in August, 13th.

The Clerk said he had received a letter from Mr. Moloney, Dungarvan, stating that they were trying to get the Band for a recital, and asking if the Council could see their way to allow Dungarvan have a turn.

The Council decided that having made all the necessary arrangements, they should adhere to the dates mentioned.

Recent Rescue. A statement was received from John Ronayne and Thomas Swayne, who went to the rescue of a Cork visitor during the past week. The rescue took place 50 yards from the shore and in a 9 to 10ft. depth of water. It was a most dangerous part of the coast.

Mr. Dennehy said he had been told by two eye-witnesses that the rescuers acted very well.

Mr. O'Gorman said it was a case which should be dealt with by the proper quarter.

The Clerk was directed to forward the statement to the Royal Humane Society.

Sanctioning. Letters were read from the L.G.D., sanctioning the raising of a loan of £6,000 in connection with the Housing Scheme, and also sanctioning the purchase of the plot of land at Sea View from Mr. Thomas Connors for the sum of £80.

Alleged Trespass. Mrs. Hughes, Claycastle, wrote, re notice Boards which had been erected by the Council's men on her property without her sanction. She should request them to have the same removed, otherwise she would place the matter in the hands of a solicitor (laughter). No action was taken on the letter.

Horse and Cart Hire. Six tenders were received for the supply of a horse and cart per week, ranging from 6/11 to 9/6 per day.

Mrs. Hurley asked was there any chance of getting a lorry to do the business of cleaning the town quickly. The Chairman said there were streets and lanes into which a lorry couldn't go.

Mr. O'Gorman said he feared the getting of a lorry was out of the question.

The lowest tender was unanimously accepted.

A letter was read from Mr. P. J. Walsh, Hon. Sec., Youghal Races Committee, stating that they intended holding the Races on Tuesday 15th, August, and they would be grateful if the Council asked the traders of the town to hold the usual weekly half holiday on that day instead of the following day, Wednesday, in order to give the people an opportunity of enjoying the Races.

Mr. McMahon said they couldn't do that. They could only make a pious request to the people to close.

The Chairman said the Race Committee were doing a good work for the town and the Council ought help them in every possible way.

After considerable discussion, during which Messrs. Broderick, McMahon and others said that all Church Holidays should be Bank Holidays, it was unanimously decided to issue a poster, asking the traders, at the instance of the Race Committee, to close the business premises at 2 o'clock on August 15th.

Strand Congestion. Mr. Dennehy called attention to the congestion at the strand Gap, caused competed—E. Power, Lisfennel; S. Murphy, Glenmore and J. Curran, do. Won by three yards. Running Long Jump—S. Twomey, De La Salle College, (21 ft. 2 ins.); 1; P. Kirwan, Kilmacthomas, (20 ft. 2 ins.) 2. Also competed—M. Byrne, Conna; J. Baldwin, Glendine; J. Clancy, Ballysaggart; T. Morrissey, Cappoquin and P. Lannon, Glenmore.

Twomey and Kirwan first tied at 20 ft 2 ins. each, but in a jump off Twomey was declared the winner.

Running Hop, Step and Jump—P. Kirwan, Kilmacthomas, (42 5 ins.); 1; S. Twomey, De La Salle College, (38 ft. 11 ins.) 2. Also competed—J. Baldwin, J. Clancy and M. Byrne.

Half-Mile Race (confined to Lismore Club)—W. Moore, 1; T. O'Donoghue, 2. Also competed—J. Whelan, Won easily by a big margin.

At the conclusion of the Sports the prizes were distributed to the winners by Mr. Nolan, Dungarvan, Hon. Sec., Co. Board, N.A. and C.A., who warmly thanked the members of the Lismore Sports Committee for the successful manner in which they had run their fixture that day.

by fruit vendors and their tables on Sunday's and other Excursions days. Owing to the narrowness of the passage between the Gap and the Station Master's house, it was a most dangerous corner, with the constant motor-traffic and the crowds of people making their way to and from the Strand. This congestion was largely caused by persons with a certain foreign accent (laughter). The distance from the Gap to the opposite wall was only 43 ft.

Mr. Broderick suggested that they call the attention of the Guards to the matter.

The Clerk said the local vendors were not to blame. Mr. Dennehy said a somewhat similar state of things existed in the vicinity of the Fair Field on Fair Day. Outsiders planked themselves and their wares on the footpath so that the ratepayers who had to foot the bill for the upkeep of the roads, etc., had to walk in the middle of the street. It was most unfair and should not be allowed.

After some discussion it was unanimously decided, on the proposition of Mr. Dennehy, seconded by Mr. Broderick to communicate with the Superintendent of the Guards on the matter.

Want Of Ambulance.

Mrs. Hurley called attention to an incident which occurred on the Strand a few evenings ago. The 'Strand Artist' got a fit and was left lying unconscious for 4 1/2 hours. After a long delay the Board of Health official arrived on the scene and when she remonstrated with him, he spoke most disrespectfully to her. It was another instance of the crying need for an ambulance in the town. What were they going to do about it?

Mr. McMahon asked what could they do about it. The man was not an employee of theirs.

The Chairman said it was most unfair to leave the man in that condition 4 or 5 hours. The official should have acted more promptly.

Mr. McMahon said he had been informed that some of the poor were not treated as they should be. The man should have spoken respectfully to Mrs. Hurley.

Mr. Beausang said all that talk was getting them nowhere.

Mr. Whelan said that occurrence was another instance of the great want of an ambulance in the town. That Council had done everything they could to get an ambulance. Several deputations had waited on the Board of Health and they were promised an ambulance, but nothing had been done since, although several other towns in the County had ambulances.

Mrs. Hurley proposed, that the matter be reported to the Board of Health.

Mr. McMahon seconded.

Mr. Fowkes said even if the matter were reported by an ordinary citizen, he should be met properly by the official responsible. Mrs. Hurley, actuated by the best motives, common humanity, had always displayed a deep interest in the welfare of the poor and she should have received respect and civility.

Mr. Broderick suggested that the official be called on to apologise to Mrs. Hurley.

Mr. Fowkes seconded.

The Clerk said, while, as an official, he deplored the action complained of, he suggested, in the interest of justice, that they should hear the other side before coming to a decision.

After further discussion, the Clerk was directed to write accordingly.

"The New Found Out."

Mrs. Hurley drew attention to the insanitary conditions prevailing in a certain portion of Cork Lane.

A Councillor—The famous "New Found Out" (laughter).

A long discussion ensued, during which it was stated by several Councillors that the people themselves were largely to blame having no sense of civic spirit, and that the methods they adopted in getting rid of their rubbish, etc., was responsible for the state of things referred to by Mrs. Hurley.

Mrs. Hurley said that Cork Lane was such a large and populous neighbourhood, that one member of the staff ought be appointed to attend to it exclusively.

The Town Surveyor was called in, and directed to see that the place be kept as clean as possible in the circumstances.

Economic War.

PRESIDENT DENIES PEACE BLOCKING.

There was no real desire on the Government's part to settle the economic dispute, said Prof. O'Sullivan, on the Vote for the President's Department, in the Dail last Friday which was moved without statement. The Government had tried to put obstacles in the way of peace. Alternative markets had been promised; the President did not say where they were.

The President should be in London, where he could do some good for the country, declared Mr. MacDermott. The bulk of the President's followers desired settlement.

The President, replying, denied he had blocked settlement at Ottawa. They refused to go into a Dominion court, and that was the only settlement offer they had been offered.

Their policy, said Mr. de Valera, was not one of ill will to Britain. But the Irish people hated iniquity or domination by a stranger. What right had the British in this country, or to demand this money from them? They had none. Let them prove their right to it before an impartial court. Money was not the only difficulty, although it was the only one they were raising at the moment.

Nobody wished for a settlement of this fight more than he did, but the only way to have it was by the invaders and the intruders getting out, and then it would be possible for them to work together as friendly neighbours. No settlement which fell short of that would ever be satisfactory.

The unity of this country was essential before they could get a complete and final settlement with England.

Probably in no other country was there more individual liberty than here. It was possible, however, that some thought they could take a licence in trying to do things that had been done on the Continent. He warned them that they would not be allowed to do it.

The Government were not unmindful of the development and of the aims of certain people, and the moment they were satisfied that any action on the part of those people became really dangerous, then the liberty of the people as a whole would be defended by the forces at the Government's command. In their judgment, developments were taking place which would mean conflict finally.

He did not think that at the present time there was a likelihood of conflict. The Government were not going to permit people to parade in uniform, and that was definite.

The President said he could not get in the arms from everywhere they were, but they could prevent people from carrying arms or wearing uniforms in public, and they proposed to do it.

The President referred to a certain inscription on the walls of Limerick which he said read, "And don't mind the Church." It was the A.C.A. did that.

Dr. O'Higgins said that the President had stated that there was no intimidation and that there was peace in the country. What were his Mr. Cosgrave's experiences when he went to address his constituents in Cork after the 1932 election? He could not be heard owing to interruptions from people who came in from outside Cork with the object of interrupting the meeting. He also described unpleasant experiences during his meetings in Kerry.

Until the organisation of which the President had complained had come into existence public meetings could not be held.

He had received no apology in regard to these occurrences; and this was due to him having regards to the fact that he had delivered the gentlemen on the Government front benches alive and well after a civil war.

With regard to the dispute with England, Mr. Cosgrave said let them leave out politics and see whether it did not cost more to continue the dispute than to pay £5,000,000.

If the case were properly presented and provocative talk dropped, he believed that a settlement could be effected with England.

With regard to the statement that £19,000,000 was the sum demanded by the English in 1921, Mr. Cosgrave said that the sum was much larger. It was £150,000,000.

President—They put in a claim for £19,000,000 a year. That was the claim at that time.

Mr. Cosgrave—The British asked £150,000,000 under the financial agreement of 1925. He went on to say the country was relieved of the responsibility of the public debt.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.)

Webster v. Buttimer.

This was a Civil Bill for £3 for that defendant "wrongfully converted to his own use plaintiff's goods, three salmon nets, by purchasing same from John Yellop, who had not title to the good and no authority from plaintiff to sell same."

Mr. J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., for plaintiff, and Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., for defendant.

Much interest was taken in the case, the Court being crowded by fishermen.

Mr. Macnamara said that case might appear trivial, but it involved considerable importance to fishbuyers and the fishermen generally. In the local fishing industry the fishbuyer equipped the crew with the necessary gear and sometimes with the boat. The men were employed to deliver the catches to the buyer, getting a share of the proceeds. In the circumstances the men were simply bailees. By verbal agreement it was arranged that if the debt incurred was paid off, the nets and other gear became the fishermen's property at the end of the season, and if there was anything due the nets, etc., were returned to the buyer.

John Webster stated that he was the Secretary and Organiser of the local Legion of British ex-Service Men's Fishing Scheme and holder of the licenses. He made an agreement with John Yellop that he would fish from 1st February to 31st July. The understanding was that if there was anything due on the gear, etc., at the end of the season, the nets, etc., were to be returned, the boat was the property of the Legion. One-third of the proceeds went to pay off the debt, the remainder going to the crew. At the end of the season there was a balance of £14 19s. 0d., due on gear, and the nets should have been returned, but Yellop retained three old ones, and sold them to Mr. Buttimer.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hodnett—Witness said that the crew returned 3 new nets, but kept and sold 3 old nets. During the season they sold 4 old nets for £1, out of which he received 4/6, but those were stripped to be replaced by new ones. They were absolutely useless. His objection was that the men didn't ask for his permission to sell the nets. The men suggested that he might buy them, but he had no money for such a purpose.

Wasn't that your opportunity to ask what authority they had to sell them? The Justice—Suppose you leave that to me to consider. Did they tell you that they sold the nets to Buttimer? No, but I heard that they had sold them to him.

Mr. Hodnett—Did they take the nets off the "crib" on the quay and walk past you with them?—I saw the men taking the nets away, but I didn't know where they were taking them to. Did you then raise any objection? No.

Defendant is a respectable man?—Very.

The Justice—If the boat was clear of debt, would they have got all the nets?—Yes, they became their property.

John Yellop, cross-examined, stated that Mr. Webster told him at the start that there was an old debt on the boat, that it would be washed out at the end of the season and that they could have the old string nets for themselves.

In previous seasons were you ever offered good nets when a debt was still outstanding on the boat?—No.

The Justice—You are cross-examining your own witness.

Mr. Macnamara—He is obviously hostile.

The Justice—You may cross-examine him but I am reminding you you called him.

Replying to Mr. Macnamara, witness said that Mr. Webster gave them permission to take the nets at the opening of the season.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hodnett, witness said that Mr. Webster saw them taking the nets off the "crib" but he never opened his mouth.

Mr. Hodnett said that was a bonafide sale and all the elements which would constitute wrong or tort were entirely absent. They believed that Yellop and his crew had power to sell them those nets. Even on the plaintiff's own case there was reasonable ground for that belief.

Mce. Buttimer stated he was 40 years fishing and since 1890 was engaged buying fish. Some time in June Yellop and one of his crew asked him to buy the nets, but he said he didn't want them. He finally bought them for £1. They were very little use. He hadn't put them in the water.

The Justice—What did you buy them for then?—To sell them if I could.

Cross-examined by Mr. Macnamara—Witness said he knew the men had been fishing for Mr. Webster, but the season for salmon was over at the time.

After a further very protracted hearing, the other members of the crew being examined.

The Justice having reviewed the case, said that from the way the plaintiff handled the matter he believed that those men took it into their heads that part of their perquisites was the ownership of the old nets at the end of the season. Having regard to the way business was done between the plaintiff and the crew, he thought he ought to hold they had a title as a matter of contract, and that they were under that impression. That being so, the defendant was entitled to purchase the nets. It was a very borderline matter, and he would advise those people to make a clear arrangement in future so that that might not happen again.

The case was therefore dismissed.

Albert Coleman, Youghal, was charged with the larceny by finding of a purse containing from 25/- to 30/-, the property of Miss Ellen Supple. Supt. Donnelly, prosecutor, and Mr. Macnamara, solr., defended.

Miss Supple stated that on Saturday 1st July she lost the purse. It contained from 25/- to 30/-. When she got it back there was only 19/6 in it. P. Cooney stated that he saw Coleman pick up the purse in the street, near the Clockgate. Coleman had a conversation with witness and gave him a shilling out of his pocket.

Guard P. J. O'Connor, stated that as a result of a report received he interviewed the defendant, who handed him over the purse. He said he didn't know how much was in it.

Questioned by Mr. Macnamara as to defendant's character, witness said there was nothing against him so far.

Sergt. O'Beirne read statements made by defendant, who said he picked up the purse near Power's. He gave Cooney, who saw him pick it up, 1/- out of his own pocket. He didn't report the matter to anyone. In a further statement he admitted taking 4/- out of the purse.

To Mr. Macnamara—He knew nothing against the defendant.

Mr. Macnamara said they pleaded guilty to a purely technical offence. His client had intended to refund what he had taken out of the purse. It was his first time ever in Court on any charge. He yielded to the temptation on the occasion.

The Justice said it was a pity that a man of his character should have succumbed to the temptation. He didn't agree with Mr. Macnamara in saying that it was a technical offence—it was a very serious one. He should have reported the matter to the Civic Guards.

Defendant was let out under the P.O.A. in his own recognisances and ordered to pay 10/- to Miss Supple.

YOUGHAL MENTAL HOSPITAL COMMITTEE.

At the usual monthly meeting of the above then attended Messrs. W. J. Broderick, T.D., Chairman; W. Desmond, Vice-Chairman; J. Connolly, J. F. O'Sullivan, R. Daly, and D. Gamble.

Price Of Meat.
Arising on the list of payments, Mr. Desmond—How much are you paying for beef and mutton? Secretary—About 5d.

The Chairman—It is all right, doctor? Dr. Twomey—Yes.

Doctor's Holidays and Substitutes.
The Doctor applied for his usual annual vacation, which he would take in instalments. He recommended Dr. T. Kennedy, as his substitute.

Mr. Gamble asked did Doctor Kennedy hold any other position. The Chairman said he was District M.O.H.

Mr. Gamble said in the circumstances he would object to his appointment as substitute. If necessary he would raise the matter at the Cork meeting. They ought to encourage the young doctors.

Mr. Desmond—Why not appoint some young City doctor; it would be a valuable experience for him.

Mr. Gamble proposed Doctor Humphrey Kelliher, who had recently come to town. He was well known and spoken of in both City and County.

Mr. Daly said that the County was the larger contributory, but he didn't want to take it out of the town.

Mr. O'Sullivan proposed, and Mr. Connolly seconded, that they fall in with the doctor's recommendation.

Mr. Gamble objected. He would raise the matter at the meeting in Cork. He objected to a monopoly.

The Chairman suggested that Doctors Kennedy and Kelliher be appointed to act alternately.

This was finally agreed to unanimously.

Doctor's Report.
The monthly report of the Visiting Physician, Dr. M. Twomey, was read as follows:—Since my last report there has been no death; 6 patients are confined to bed on the male side of the house and 5 on the female side, owing to debility and other causes. There has been no case of seclusion, restraint or violence. A female patient suffers from an injury to left leg due to an accident. There has been no complaint of water supply; the food supplied have been regularly examined and found up to standard requirements. There has been no case of zymotic disease, and the general health of the Institution is excellent.

Farm Report.
The Farm Report showed that all the crops were doing well. The potatoes which had been already sprayed, would receive an additional spraying.

Manager's Report.
The Resident Manager's monthly report stated that since last meeting 2 females patients had been admitted from the Cork Mental Hospital, and the total number in residence at present was 428 (250 men and 178 women). Dr. Kelly, made his official inspection of the Institution on the 22nd, ult. Mr. Hill, Architect, inspected the Fire Escape Staircase, on the 18th, inst. The Builder's work in connection with the stairs was now in progress. She submitted report of the Boiler Insurance Inspector on the Steam Engines, Boilers, and Dynamos, and bill from Messrs. Merrick, for repairs £1. old Laundry Washing Machine. A cheque for £14 10s. 6d., had been received from the Cork Mental Hospital for the sale of 6 tons of potatoes, and lodged to the Credit of the Mental Hospital Account.

SHALL WE MEET OUR FRIENDS AGAIN?

By "PHILOKUON."

"THERE are more things in Heaven and Earth, Horatio, than are dreamt of in our philosophy," wrote Shakespeare in one of his many inspired moments. The great discoveries in the domain of science that began in the Victorian age and reached their fullest expression with the invention of wireless, have made men revise their opinions with regard to the future as well as the present. Ideas that would have been inconceivable fifty years ago are now regarded as commonplace, and those having a bearing on the life hereafter that would at one time have been rejected offhand are now discussed with speculative interest. It is no longer possible to reject them summarily because we cannot test them by the application of accumulated knowledge.

In the current number of "The Tail-Wagger" Magazine the Duchess of Hamilton accepts the belief that animals survive in the unseen world. If life continues for the human being, it must also continue for animals, she declares. Any doubts on the subject arise from a two-fold reason, she thinks. "First, a man's consummate conceit. He does not like to think of animals except as things to be exploited for his desires and wishes. Secondly, because he cannot get away from the material idea of limitations—omnipotence is beyond his ken, and he has always the fear that heaven may be too overcrowded for himself."

The Duchess contends emphatically that there is no single proof of the survival of man that does not equally apply to the other animals. "This is an appalling thought for some people who have not treated animals with that consideration which should be shown to God's creatures," she writes, "and in some cases this fear of consequences is a factor that deters people from admitting the survival of animals." Byron, in the familiar epitaph on his Newfoundland, Beatswain, gave expression to similar views. The dog left unhonoured.

Denied in heaven the soul he held on earth:

While man, vain insect! hopes to be forgiven,
And claims himself a sole-exclusive heaven.

If kindness, unselfishness, and devotion to others are qualities by which man hopes to ensure immortality, surely his prospects must be shared by dogs, or at least many of them. Such faults as some of them possess are attributable more to their ignorance and lack of education than to innate perversity, and they can at least claim that they sinned unknowingly. Those of us who are on the side of the animals no doubt have difficulties about what are commonly called pests. Is there a future for them, too? The Duchess of Hamilton thinks not. It is unlikely, since the parasitic tendency destroys that individualised personality which survives. Parasitism, the desire to take, is the opposite of love, the desire to give.

Whether animals have souls or not, the duty to them should be clear. It is revolting to think that we should treat with unkindness creatures over which we have been given dominion, and that are dependent upon us for their sustenance and comfort. I am speaking, of course, of those we have domesticated, and towards which we have therefore assumed a double responsibility.

CO. WATERFORD VOCATIONAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

Very Rev. Fr. Walsh, P.P., presided at the monthly meeting of the above held on Tuesday. Also present—Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., Rev. Br. Gibson, Messrs. Wm. Stack, Sean Curran, M. F. Walsh, M. J. Keane, and Ml. Curran.

Finance. The Secretary reported the balance to credit of the committee at 30th June was £1,247 1s. 7d., since then he had lodged a further £1,330. Chairman—That is very satisfactory.

Teachers Summer Courses. The Department wrote notifying the committee that expenses to teachers in excess of those set out in the Department's circular may not be paid to committee's teachers in attendance at special course at the Galway University College.

Secretary—At the last meeting I think it was Mr. Curran expressed the opinion that as the students going to Gaiway would be charged entrance fees that they be allowed £5. According to the Department's circular £4 is all that is allowable.

Mr. Curran—We can do nothing further in the matter so.

Cappoquin School. A letter was read from the Department of Education agreeing with the committee that a three-roomed school is sufficient for the needs of Cappoquin; the building to be so constructed that an additional room could be added if necessary at a future date. Further, that the Department had no special funds from which a special grant for buildings might be made.

Mr. Bowen, C.S., wrote noting that the committee require further plans for Cappoquin school. The finished plans already prepared and approved by you and by the Inspectors of the Department are for a four-roomed building with flat roof. Six sets of these plans of 6 drawings each have been prepared and also 6 copies of specification. This involved a very large amount of work, which will be useless if a different building is to be erected. I understand that the committee's difficulty is on the score of cost, the estimate given for the four-roomed building was £2,570 excluding fees of Architect. This sum was arrived at as follows: Preparing sites, building boundary walls excavating and levelling £200. Building complete with grates, electric wiring, water and sanitary £2,270. Cycle shed £50. Clerk of Works, £60. To this should be added, for fees, etc., say £130. Total £2,700. It is possible that a contractor may take the work at a lesser figure. Some reduction could be made in the amount of work to be done on the site, and done at a later date. A Clerk of Works may not be necessary except for a very short time. It would also be possible to substitute steel windows and a few other cheaper substitutes for several parts of the work even though I do not recommend them. The total cost could probably be reduced in this way to £2,300 to £2,400.

It is impossible to provide the three-roomed building of single storey together with sanitary accommodation, electric wiring, drains, water supply, cycle shed, stores, gates and fencing, and rooms of the size required for £1,500. Even if allowed to use asbestos slates and steel windows and otherwise to reduce the quality of the work, I don't think we could erect a building to provide the necessary accommodation at anything less than £1,800. I would wish to have the considered opinion of the committee, as to whether they can see their way to increase the sum allowed from £1,500 and what kind of building they will erect. I can let you have complete draft plans in a day or two, but obviously it would be waste of time to complete any of the plans until I know the committee's wishes more clearly.

Chairman—Could we get this £300 from any other source. Mr. Keane—Mr. Bowen has suggested that he can cut down the estimate by substituting some material. If we ask him to do this. Secretary—That is in respect of the four-roomed house. Br. Gibson—Send Mr. Bowen's letter to the Department. The Chairman suggested asking permission from the Department to allow them take the required amount from the committee's funds. After much more discussion on the question of how the money is to be got. Mr. S. Curran proposed, and Mr. Walsh, seconded: "That the extra cost, about £500 required for building a school at Cappoquin be raised from the Treasurer, the Munster and Leinster Bank."

It was then decided to send a copy of the resolution together with Mr. Bowen's letter to the Department. Domestic Economy Instructress. The Secretary explained that after the last meeting he sent a proof of an advertisement to the Department with reference to the appointment of a Domestic Economy Instructress, and had no reply, so before the meeting started he phoned the Department and the reply he got was, that the scheme for the year submitted by the committee was not yet gone into, and that there was no very great hurry about the appointment. They promised that a letter on the subject would be received in the morning. The Secretary also stated that he had an Inspector down since the last meeting who suggested that the applicants for this position be examined in oral Irish by a Department Inspector. The matter was adjourned pending the Department's letter.

Kilmachomas Technical School. Mrs. Walsh, Kilmachomas, wrote, offering a site for the proposed Technical School for £70.

Secretary—On Saturday last I went there and met Mr. J. Walsh, who showed me the site. There is a little grove of trees on the proposed site, which is also at an angle of about 30 degrees. The only thing in its favour is that water and sewerage is near. The surveyor agree that it is not a suitable site. I asked Mr. Walsh to give a site on the next field, but he would not.

Mr. Walsh—What size is the site? Secretary—A quarter acre.

Mr. Walsh—That is nearly £300 an acre.

Mr. Stack—Is it through the medium of Irish you are buying this (laughter).

Secretary—No. The conversation was in Bearla (laughter).

Fr. Hearne—This man does not feel the economic pinch (laughter). The offer was refused.

Rectifier At Engineering Workshop.

The Secretary submitted quotations for the installation of a Rectifier at the Engineering Workshop for Instruction purposes and the charging of car batteries. The quotations were:—Electricity Supply Board £7 10s.; Messrs. Keating and Gual £7 10s.

The committee considered the expense too much and directed their Instructor (Mr. Wall) to erect the necessary apparatus, the committee to supply the material required.

Dungarvan Technical School.

Mr. Bowen, Co. Surveyor, wrote enclosing plan and estimate of the above school, the estimate was £5,000, made up as follows:—Building complete with heating system, sanitary system, and electric wiring £4,555. Clerk of Works (part time only) £80. Contingent works, say, £125. Fees £240. Total £5,000.

After a discussion, it was decided to ask the Department to allow the committee to raise on loan the £500 extra required.
