MELLERAY CENTENARY.

Memorable Celebrations.

One hundred years ago the Irish Cistercian Monks, expelled from France, sought a refuge in their native land. After much searching they were finally given a strip of barren mountain and a herdsman's cottage on the slopes of the Knockmealdown through the kindness of Sir Richard Keane, Bart., Cappoquin. Here the exiled monks under Fr. Vincent Ryan set to work to lay the foundation of an Abbey worthy of the ancient glories of the Cistercian Abbeys of Mellifont, Jerpoint and Holy Cross. Standing on the Cappoquin-Newcastle road, overlooking the Knockmealdown mountains in 1833 what a picture of hardship and misery must have presented itself to the monks as they set about cultivating this uninviting and sterile mountain side. But they put their hearts into their work and were nobly assisted by the people of the surrounding parishes who helped late and early with horses and materials in laying the foundations of the Abbey. One hundred years have passed away and in 1933 we find the barren mountain a demesne of lawns and verdant pasture interspersed with delightful groves and sparkling streams—a place of beauty and joy. The name and fame of Mount Melleray are world-wide and men from the ends of the earth come there and seek the peace and happiness which are parts of Heaven itself.

completed with the motto of the present Lord Abbot—"Maxis prodesse, quam praesse!" The work of decoration was carried out by the members of the Community, assisted by Mr. Lavelle, Art Master and Mr. Frazer, Instructor in Gymnastics. The scrolls were designed by Mr. Lavelle, and executed by Mr. J. Walsh, Scenic Artist, Cappoquin. Added to the artistic effect of the decoration, the charm of the delightful panorama which unfolds itself to the visitor as he gazes over the stately lawns and meadows of the Monastery grounds, and you have a perfect picture of what has been done by the monks in the past century and to celebrate which a three days programme of festivities were arranged. In those three days friends of the Cistercians came to honour them in battalions, while the thousands who were unable to attend personally were in spirit taking part in the rejoicings. May we hope that when another 100 years have passed the progress and development of the great Cistercian Order may be so great as to mean a whole month's festivities in 2033 and that all present in this year of grace may view some from their happy heavenly homes.

Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore. Rev. William Daly, P.P., St. Helens, Lanes., was deacon. Rev. F. Flavin, M.A., C.C., Cappoquin, sub-deacon; the Ven. Archdeacon Byrne, P.P., D.D., V.F., Waterford, assistant priest; Very Rev. F. Canon Prendergast, P.P., V.F., Tallow, and Rev. Fr. Murphy, O.P., Nottingham, assistants at the throne. Rev. Prof. Power, St. John's Waterford, and Rev. Nicholas Power, Bishop's Secretary, were masters of ceremonies. The prelates present were Most Rev. Dr. Cohanlan, Bishop of Cork; Rt. Rev. Dr. Cotter, Bishop of Portsmouth; Rt. Rev. Dom Malachy Brasil, Lord Abbot of Mount St. Bernard's Leicester; Rt. Rev. Dom Justin McCarthy, Lord Abbot of Mount St. Joseph, and Rt. Rev. Mgr. Price, Birmingham.

A choir of fifty monks conducted by Rev. Fr. Columban McCarthy, O.Gist., sang the Plain Chant. The Seminary choir was conducted by Dr. van Gobraers. The ceremonies were conveyed clearly to worshippers on the outskirts by means of loud-speakers.

ELOQUENT SERMON BY ARCHDEACON BYRNE.

Ven. Archdeacon Byrne, D.D., P.P., V.F., Waterford, preaching from the text: "I have lifted up my eyes to the mountains whence help shall come to me" (Ps. 120:1), said that with many of the laity present he felt proud to associate himself in claiming kinship with those who, in the early days of these hundred years, came from all the surrounding districts in their thronging numbers and with their flaming enthusiasm to aid the pioneer band of heroic monks in their grim struggle with mountain wilderness and resistance.

Melleray was to the priests and people of the whole diocese a sacred name, and awakened affection and pride.

Melleray was in her life and the influence which she exercised a veritable Sermon on the Mount.

She strove to show forth in her members the living and the dying of Christ, and she reflected in a wonderful degree the spell and attractiveness of the Crucified. When they rejoiced in the life and glory of Melleray to-day, they were entitled also to rejoice in the participation of that life which they could count on as their own.

Man had to sustain the conflict of the passions of concupiscence of the flesh, the concupiscence of the eyes, and the pride of life. He had ranged against him the powers of darkness. His struggle was with Principalities and Powers, with the spirits of wickedness in high places.

FATEFUL STRUGGLE.

It was a fateful struggle on which for each of them the supreme and eternal issue depended. What a powerful help was theirs, what continuous stimulation they received, what encouragement and strength came to them, when they had in their midst the speaking example, the living sermon of Melleray.

Melleray observed not merely the Commandments, but the Evangelical Counsels.

In an age when men seemed to be particularly enslaved by the allurements of pleasure, of gain, of self-seeking, her members made a great and perpetual renunciation.

By the vow of chastity they renounced the flesh, by the vow of poverty they detached themselves from the goods of the world, and by the vow of obedience they abandoned even their own will.

Melleray was not satisfied, as her history had abundantly proved, with merely giving the example of a life devoted to God and His service.

The constant stream of those who visited Melleray, from far and near, of every class and station, saints and sinners, gave ample evidence of Melleray's attractiveness and her active and fruitful apostolate.

THE LIBERATOR.

"We read in the history of Melleray of the visit of the great Liberator, Daniel O'Connell," said the Archdeacon, "and I ask, was there any other moment in the great man's life that was so moving, so human, so worthy of him, as when, in the presence of Abbot Vincent Ryan and his community giving him welcome and giving him blessing, he felt so intensely affected and penetrated with the sanctity and kindness which enveloped him that as an eloquent historian describes it: 'The Liberator rose to reply, but intensity of feeling choked his utterance; that marvellous tongue, whose sonorous eloquence could sway parliaments and mass-meetings, was now speechless. Partly recovering himself after a while, he held up his hands and said in a voice broken with emotion: 'My friends, those hands are stained with blood.' This referred to the fatal termination of his duel with D'Este." Does not this remind us of a similar moment of profound emotion in the life of another very human personality, St. Peter, when, on the occasion of the miraculous draught of fishes, he was smitten with the sense of Our Lord's sanctity and his own unworthiness, that he could not repress the cry: 'Despart from me, O Lord for I am a sinful man.'"

The great O'Connell, then, as we are told, spent a week at Melleray in close retirement, employing all his time in fervent prayer and pious reading, speaking to none except his spiritual director, and edifying all by the modest gravity of his deportment.

How many another man, less great perhaps in historical stature, has succumbed to the spiritual attractiveness of Melleray, has warmed himself at the sacred fires, and has gone forth to the battle of life with renewed strength and courage and determination to follow even to death Him who is at once the Way and the Truth and the Life.

Melleray's life was not measured by a century. She had behind her the life and the immense prestige of the Cistercian Order going back over 800 years. Even then the Cistercians had ancestry in the great Order of St. Benedict for half a thousand years more. Cistercian life found in their country a rich and congenial soil, and in a short time branches were multiplied over the land, and for centuries the country enriched with over forty Cistercian Abbeys, great centres of holiness, and spiritual fruitfulness.

Even profane history told them of the immense material benefits—educational, pastoral, artistic, as well as charitable—which they conferred on the country. But the time came, after centuries of vigorous and fruitful life when, in the wake of the so-called Reformation, they were dissolved. By a process of criminality not easily paralleled in history, monastic life was brought to an end in Ireland. But while the exterminator could inflict material destruction and he did this only too completely—he could not destroy the glorious enrichment which centuries of high and heroic life had committed to the keeping of tradition and history, nor could he obliterate the sacred memories which the very ruins of the monastic buildings silently, but most eloquently and effectively, perpetuated.

Melleray was the chief heir to that vast spiritual heritage of the sacred memories of a glorious past.

They opened their souls to the sermon which Melleray preached in her life, and they prayed that in future Melleray might ever increase in her sublime character of being a living sermon on the Mount, the light of the world, and the salt of the earth.

LUNCHEON SPEECHES.

Luncheon was served in a marquee on the grounds. Rt. Rev. Celsus O'Connell, Lord Abbot, who presided, in proposing the toast of his Holiness the Pope, said that recently the Pope was requested to send a special blessing for the monastery and the centenary ceremonies. His Holiness readily consented, and sent such a blessing. What the present great occupant of St. Peter's Chair had most at heart was the reign and peace of Christ throughout the world. He (the Abbot) welcomed the descendants of those who had aided the Cistercian monks a century ago. God was with the people and the monks in those days, and He was with them now.

The strongest ties of friendship had always existed between the monks and people, and no matter what else might change, that friendship would never change.

The faith of the people was, thank God, as strong and as firm as it had been a century ago. In the surrounding parishes God had been pleased to raise up legions of religious vocations.

There was scarcely a townland in those parishes which had not given a nun to religion or a priest to the Church.

Missionaries and priests from those parts were pioneers in Australia, Africa, America, England and other lands.

The Song of the Pope was sung by Very Rev. Canon Whelan, P.P., Cappoquin, and joined in by the guests. The Lord Abbot also gave the toast of Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, and coupled it with the names of Right Rev. Dom Justin McCarthy and Rt. Rev. Dom Malachy Brasil. The community, he said, were specially privileged at having assisted at his Lordship's first Pontifical Mass. He referred to his Lordship's fame as a Canonist, and expressed the hope that he would visit Melleray again and be the guide of the monks in times of trouble, should trouble arise.

BISHOP'S REPLY.

Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, said he regarded it as a great honour and privilege to take part in the centenary celebrations. He had not the distinction of having been a pupil of Melleray but he yielded to none in his admiration for it. He wished to acknowledge the great debt which the Diocese of Waterford and Lismore owed to Mount Melleray.

Indeed, all Ireland was deeply indebted to it and to the Cistercian monks.

In these modern days of hurry and bustle people were inclined to place an exaggerated importance on the active life, and to forget that their true purpose here was the pursuit of that perfection, which consisted in the intimate union of love between the individual soul and God.

The existence in their midst of the contemplative Order, an Order which had for its primary object the perfection of its individual members, was calculated to keep that idea before their minds, especially when that Order was one like the Cistercians, which had a very severe rule of life. The influence of the Cistercians was felt all over Ireland. Many of the priests of that diocese, among them some great Church dignitaries, had received their early training at Melleray, and it might be said that it acted as a kind of seminary for Waterford and Lismore. He acknowledged that great debt which they owed to Melleray.

His Lordship proceeded to trace the history of the Cistercians in Ireland. To-day Melleray was a most flourishing institution, spiritually and temporally, and it showed every sign of perpetuation. He earnestly hoped that it would continue to flourish.

The Lord Abbot then proposed the toast of the Most Rev. Dr. Cohanlan, and said he was known widely for his kindness to the poor.

Most Rev. Dr. Cohanlan said it was a wonderful thing that there were in Ireland monasteries of the great Cistercian Order.

Very Rev. Canon Whelan, P.P., said Melleray's story was one of the greatest chapters in Irish history. He referred with pleasure to the presence at those celebrations of Sir John Keane, whose ancestors had helped the monks long ago, and whose family had always befriended them.

AN ORATORIO.

The guests were later entertained by the pupils of the Seminary, the entertainment including a new oratorio, "The Second Spring," symbolic of the second advent of the Cistercians to Ireland.

In the evening Solemn Benediction brought the day's ceremonies to a close. At 8 p.m. quiet again descended on the Abbey. It was only broken by the intermittent peal of the Monastery bell and the sighing of the light wind in the rows of popular and beech trees in the Monastery groves. A few minutes before 8 the monks retired to their cells to be astir again at 2 a.m. to commence another day.

WEDNESDAY'S CELEBRATIONS

Wednesday was devoted to the reception of representatives of the Government and Public Bodies, and an outstanding feature of the proceedings was the striking appeal made by the Celebrant of the Solemn Pontifical Mass, Most Rev. Dr. Cotter, Bishop of Portsmouth, in which he asked the faithful to petition the Sacred Heart for peace and prosperity for Ireland. The other Prelates present were:—Most Rev. Dr. Lee, Bishop of Clifton (England), and Most Rev. Dr. Cohanlan, Bishop of Cork, while there was again a very large gathering of prominent Church dignitaries and representative public men.

The Cistercian Ideal was the subject of the special sermon preached by Very Rev. John Rossiter, Dean of Ferns and at the luncheon, presided over by the Lord Abbot, short tributes of con-

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

ARMY NO. 2 BAND

ENGAGEMENT OFF AND WHY?

Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, M. Clancy, J. McEvoy, W. O'Donnell, M. Griffin, and J. F. Moloney.

The Army Band.

Mr. O'Donnell—What was the cause of the disappointment on the question of the visit of the Army Band.

Clerk—I don't exactly know why they are not coming, but Mr. Moloney called here and asked me to cancel the meeting called for Tuesday night.

Mr. McCarthy—To my mind the whole proceedings were out of order. This was a matter that should have come up at the special meeting called for Tuesday night to which all the members of the Council together with members of the Band Committee were invited, for the purpose of forming a reception committee, and here you have a man coming along and telling the Clerk to cancel the meeting.

Mr. Clancy—The whole thing is irregular. The Band was invited and advertisements issued and posters got out. It should then be a matter for the whole Council. To my mind it was very irregular procedure, and I am sorry to have to say so, in the absence of the member responsible.

Mr. O'Donnell—Several people asked me why the visit was postponed, and I must say that I felt very small in not being able to explain. If the meeting on Tuesday night was held, and the proceedings reported, the people would not mind.

Mr. Clancy—I would like to know if the Chairman can tell us why it was postponed.

Chairman—I don't know. I only got notice of the postponement of the meeting, but it struck me when I got the notice that a likely explanation was that the Band could not fulfil the engagement. That is one possible explanation, but from the minutes here last Friday's meeting was adjourned to Tuesday night and if that is right Tuesday night's meeting should have been held.

Mr. O'Donnell—I propose that we adjourn the matter for Mr. Moloney's attendance.

Mr. Clancy—The people outside are very disappointed.

Chairman—Undoubtedly.

Mr. O'Donnell—Some are disappointed and others are delighted.

Chairman—I don't think there would be many delighted. I favoured bringing the Band, so as to give all those who would not have an opportunity of travelling to hear the music.

Mr. Clancy—To say the least it was discourteous of any member to treat his fellow-members in this manner.

Mr. O'Donnell—It is getting late, there is no good in discussing it, when we haven't the man responsible here.

Mr. McCarthy—Why isn't he here.

Mr. Moloney at this stage entered the room.

The Chairman—We were debating the question of the postponement of the Band and adjourned it for Mr. Moloney's attendance and explanation.

Mr. McCarthy repeated what he had said previously, and held it should be the business of the meeting called for Tuesday night to postpone the Band visit and not Mr. Moloney's.

Mr. Moloney—The explanation is simple. I was in touch with the Band all the time, and they notified me that they could not come on. I immediately went to the Clerk and asked him to cancel the meeting.

Mr. McCarthy—That explanation is a good one, but the procedure adopted gratulation to the Community were made by President de Valera, Mr. W. T. Cosgrave, T.D.; F. Aiken, Minister of Defence; the Lord Mayors of Dublin and Cork, and the Mayors of Waterford and Clonmel.

The ceremonies concluded with Solemn Benediction at six o'clock, at which there was again a very large and devotional gathering.

Waterford Co. Council and Corporation; Dungarvan and Youghal Urban Councils, as well as all the leading public men in the County were guests at Mount Melleray on Wednesday.

THURSDAY'S CELEBRATIONS.

To Thursday's celebrations the invited guests included the past pupil of Mount Melleray and a large body of Bishops and Clergy. In the afternoon, His Eminence Cardinal MacRory, Archbishop of Armagh, laid the foundation stone of the new Abbey Church. The Papal Nuncio, Most Rev. Dr. Paschal Robinson, was present. Pontifical High Mass was sung by Most Rev. Dr. Roche, Co-adjutor Bishop of Cloyne. Fr. Oliver, C.P., Mount Argus, preached the sermon. Sixteen Bishops, hundreds of Clergy and thousands of laity attended.

was bad. The public don't yet know why the Band is not coming.

Mr. Clancy—The whole proceedings were very irregular whoever is responsible. Is it the Military Authorities called off the Band, or is it the fault of the Urban Council.

Mr. Moloney—I got a letter from the Band stating that they were unable to fulfil the engagement.

Replying to Mr. McCarthy, Mr. Moloney said at first the Band was not to be engaged in the name of the Urban Council, but afterwards it was.

Mr. McCarthy—The letters from the Band should be in the Council's file and read.

Mr. O'Donnell thought they should accept the explanation given and should not hit a member so hard, Mr. Moloney tried to do his best for the town and I may say he went to extremes to try to get the Band. He would not consider it fair to ask him to produce the letters.

Mr. McCarthy—It is out of courtesy to the other members I asked that they should be on the file.

Chairman—The explanation is that Mr. Moloney got a communication from the Band that they could not fulfil the engagement.

Government's Free Milk Scheme.

In connection with the Free Milk Scheme to be taken over on October 1st, from the Board of Assistance, the Clerk submitted the following report suggesting to invite the co-operation of the Children's Health Committee; District Nursing Association and St. Vincent de Paul Society, in order to ensure that all deserving cases will benefit. I have conferred with Mr. Deo, H.A. Officer, and Mr. Keane, Hon. Secretary St. Vincent de Paul Society, and have got information and figures. Dr. Casey, M.O.H., who is taking a keen interest in the Scheme has submitted recommendations for your consideration, and Mr. Byrne, V.S., will also be prepared to assist in his capacity as Inspector of milk supplies.

The number of families in the Urban Area who permanently received free milk during the operation of the present scheme through the H.H. Officer was 42, and the number of families (intermittent cases) who benefited through the same source was about 140. During 10 weeks, while the scheme was in operation there were 47,436 pints of milk distributed at a cost of £296. I estimate the probable cost of the New Scheme at £400, and it will be necessary for you to appoint somebody to carry out administration, the cost of which will not come out of the grant.

Chairman—Is that £400 for 6 months? Clerk—Yes. That is what I assume from the figures before me, but it is rather hard to arrive at a figure of £400 to changes in the scheme.

Mr. Clancy—The U.D.C. will now be the administrative body, and it appears from the report that we must make an appointment. I hold it would be much better for the Government to provide work for the parents than to give free milk to the children.

Dr. Casey, M.O.H., also reported on the Scheme and made recommendations, and the report and recommendations were approved.

The Council decided to submit a draft copy of the Scheme to the Department also recommending that Mr. Thomas Walsh (who had given much voluntary service to the Children's Health Committee) be appointed to administer the Scheme.

Water Supply.

I could not owing to the water being so low at intake and storage tanks make tests this week, but I made an inspection and found a considerable quantity of gravel, sand and silt on the bed of the intake. It might be well to get this removed while the water is low.

It is an admitted fact your two water supplies are unsatisfactory and will become more so, in the near future when your 86 houses will be connected up. I suggest something should be done to improve them immediately, for instance, a large reservoir could be constructed at the south or other side of the road at Deelish large enough to impound a quantity of water to tide over a dry period. Filters might be constructed adjacent; also a filtered water storage tank. If this work were done it would cause the head to be increased by 70 or 80 feet over and above the present head. I might mention the position of the land there lends itself for this work. There may be other ways and means of getting auxiliary supplies such as pumping water to a tower, etc., maintenance in this case would be very high, and should be avoided as much as possible, besides the gravitation system is the cheaper.

On account of the importance of this work and its cost, the Council might be anxious to engage the services of a Consulting Engineer to work with me.

After a discussion, Mr. Clancy, proposed, and Mr. O'Donnell, seconded: "That Messrs. Delap and Waller, Dublin, be asked to consult with the B.S., and furnish a report on water supplies, also ways of improving same, with probable cost."

Waterford County Board of Public Health.

Mr. Patk. O'Gorman, Chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the above on Saturday. The other members in attendance were—Messrs. Wm. Stack, J. Butler, J. Kiersey, Mce. Keane, D. Heskin, G. J. Greene, Ml. Curran.

Finance. Payments amounting to £144 18s. 11d., were passed.

Cottage Arrears.

Mr. Morrissey, Cottage Rent Checker, reported the amount of arrears of cottage rents at the beginning of the month as £977 and at the end £1,078 an increase of £100.

Remuneration.

Mr. McGrath, H.A. Officer, Waterford wrote applying for extra remuneration in connection with the working of the free milk scheme. The matter was adjourned for further consideration.

Ardmore Water.

The caretaker of the Ardmore Water Supply reported that Jas. Quain, Cliff, Ardmore, still used water for other than domestic use.

Mr. Greene—We can't tolerate that. Mr. Kiersey—What is he using it for?

Mr. Keane—For flushing purposes. Mr. Kiersey—I would favour instructing our solicitor to take proceedings, it is the first case and if we don't do it now we may find it difficult to stop it later. If we stop it now it will save immense trouble.

Secretary—I wrote to him and cautioned him, but he paid no attention.

Mr. Kiersey—Get a report from the Caretaker.

Secretary—This is the second report, he was cautioned after the first report. Mr. O'Halloran, member of the Co. Council, who was present asked permission to say a word. Ardmore at the present time is nearly dry, and there there was no place at present so badly off for water. If this is allowed to go on it will be completely dry.

Mr. Curran suggested the Board's solicitor be asked to write and caution him. Mr. Greene—He got cautioned twice already.

The Board decided to instruct their solicitor to write to this man and if he still persisted in taking the water to take legal proceedings against him.

Pulla Graveyard.

A report from Mr. Dee, on the necessity of painting the gates of above graveyard was read.

The report was referred to the Engineer.

Old Parish Graveyard.

Mr. Curran—Is there and report on the Old Parish Graveyard, it is very neglected, although we are paying a man there.

Secretary—There is no report.

Resignation.

Mrs. O'Donnell, Cottage Rent Collector, Lismore, wrote resigning the position as from September, 30th. The resignation was accepted, notice of motion to be handed in with regard to superannuation.

Roofing.

A letter was read from the Ministry, informing the Board that in the case of contractors being unable to procure Irish slates they should roof with Saorstad made tiles.

Mr. Greene—Are these tiles approved of? Secretary—The Department approve of them.

Mr. Greene—Do the Engineer approve of concrete tiles? Mr. Jephson, C.E.—There is not much of a trial of them yet.

Mr. Greene thought it was a rather dangerous experiment, and if it turns out a non-success will mean the re-roofing of 400 cottages.

Secretary—It is only in the event of not being able to procure slates.

Rent Arrears.

The Ministry write calling the Board's attention to the increase in amount of cottage rent arrears and asking what steps the Board were taking to reduce the amount.

Mr. Greene—The unfortunate labourer is very badly hit at present, and it would be a very inopportune time to take any drastic action.

Mr. Kiersey—I agree, you need only go through the Home Assistance list to see how many occupiers of labourers cottages are out of work and drawing assistance.

The Board decided to draw the attention of the Collectors to the letter.

Valuer Appointed.

The Department write notifying the Board of the appointment of Mr. J. Bergin, Athy, as Valuer of plots under the Cottage Scheme at a salary of £33s. a day with travelling allowance.

Mr. Curran—Why was not there a local Valuer appointed?

Secretary—I think it would be inadvisable.

Replying to Mr. Kiersey, the Secretary said with regard to the 313 people who gave their plots voluntary, the Valuer would inspect these plots and very probably arrange on the spot with the owner the amount of compensation to be given. Regarding the plots to which there were objection lodged an enquiry will be held in the Boardroom, Co. Home, on August, 17th.

Fencing Of Plots.

Mr. Greene—Is it correct that it is the intention that the plots are to be enclosed by wire fencing?

The Secretary explained that in the interest of economy the Department suggested wire fencing. He informed the Board that if the cottages cost anything over £300 the whole cost of whatever would be over the £300 would fall on the Board. The wire fencing would cost roughly about 8/- a perch, while his experience in previous schemes was that stone fencing in some cases went as high as 30/-.

Mr. Greene—Thought there would not be very much economy if the farmers on whose land the cottages are erected get some of their stock impaled in the wire.

Secretary—It will not be barbed wire.

Mr. Heskin—I would not agree with any kind of wire. We should turn down wire altogether.

Mr. Kiersey also opposed a wire fence, and said both the farmer and cottier may have sheep and lambs, and how are they going to prevent trespass.

Mr. Curran—The best boundary is a stone fence.

Mr. Butler—The specification before the Board was for a fence.

Secretary—You must not forget that anything the cottages will cost over £300 will have to be borne by the Board. The wire fence is in the interest of economy.

Mr. Greene—The Department may be looking for economy, but if a horse or a cow get caught in this fence, it will not be long bringing the cost over that of a stone fence.

Chairman—Will the Department object to stone fences?

Secretary—No. The whole idea was to keep the cost low.

Mr. Greene—If the 313 owners who agreed to give plots, knew that the fence would be a wire one, you would have many more objections.

Mr. Kiersey—If a bull or cow of mine go up and scratch themselves, the cement stakes will all be broken in a night. He cited the case of the Carroll's Cross Creamery Co., who put up a wire paling with concrete stakes which were broken before six months and had to be replaced by a wall.

After some more discussion, Mr. Kiersey, proposed, and Mr. Heskin, seconded, that the fencing of the plots be done in stone, specifications to be prepared and submitted for approval, and tenders be invited for next meeting.

The resolution was passed unanimously.

Extension Of Water Supply.

Mr. Murphy, Ring P.O., wrote asking for an extension of the Water Supply to the Post Office premises.

Mr. Curran, supporting the application, said the extension would not cost much.

The Engineer was asked to report.

Tramore Scavenging.

Mr. Bowen, County Surveyor, wrote stating that for some time the County Council have been doing scavenging work on the streets of Tramore. They were now going to discontinue doing so.

Secretary—We have a scavenger there also.

The Board referred the letter to the Tramore Public Health Committee.

Additional Room.

The Board decided to advertise for Contractors for the purpose of building an additional room to the cottage occupied by J. Carlton, Clonea.

Barbed Wire Fencing.

A woman from the Clashmore area who is the occupier of a cottage, appeared before the Board and asked for compensation in respect of the loss of a donkey which got torn by the barbed wire fencing from which lock-jaw developed and she had to ask the Guards to shoot the donkey.

Mr. Curran—I am afraid in the absence of a certificate from a Veterinary Surgeon as to the cause of death, we can do nothing.

Mr. Greene—Who pronounced the animal suffering from tetanus? Applicant—Mr. Wm. Curran, Clashmore.

The Board decided that legally they could not give compensation, but decided to have the barbed wire removed and replaced by plain wire, as the applicant said it was a danger to her four children for which the applicant thanked them.

Appointment Of Clerks Of Works.

Three applicants applied for the position of Clerk of Works under the Cottage Scheme, for which the Board had advertised for two. The applicants were Mce. Foley, Clonea, Dungarvan, Mr. O'Donovan and Mr. Frawley, at a salary of £5 5s. a week and travelling expenses.

The Secretary said all three were fully qualified Engineers and conformed to the terms of the advertisement.

Mr. Kiersey said before going into the appointment in his opinion the principal thing is to see that foundations, etc., are properly laid, it was his opinion that in such a big scheme two Clerks of Works will not be able to give it proper attention. He suggested that as they had only the three applicants to appoint the three.

Mr. Stack—Put on four of them. Mr. Kiersey said you would at least want three, and cited the last scheme in the Kilmacthomas Rural Area and said the Clerk of Works there had more than enough to do.

Mr. Greene—Mr. Kiersey is thinking that we will be inundated with tenders. I do not think so. This Board is tired of putting up 17 cottages recently and we have only succeeded so far in getting tenders for a few of them. In these times of quick transport with motors, a man could nearly cover the whole county in a day.

Mr. Kiersey—As regards the 17 cottages, the reason it is so hard to get a contractor is that they are all in out-of-the-way places.

Mr. Butler said he would agree with Mr. Kiersey. He saw in the Press recently where in the town of Sligo they were building a scheme of 300 cottages in a confined area, and they thought it was good business and appointed four Clerks of Works.

Mr. Curran—I also object to a third appointment. On a vote being taken for the two Clerks of Works, Messrs. Foley and O'Donovan were appointed unanimously.

Mr. Foley for the West and Mr. O'Donovan for the East of the county.

Tenders For Cottages.

For the 313 cottages advertised by the Board tenders for 181 were received; of these 119 were accepted subject to sanction of the L.G.B. and 62 were rejected.

The following were the tenders accepted and the prices given are for construction with concrete walls and concrete tile roofing:—

DEATH OF MISS LOUISE SHEEHAN, RING.

The death occurred on Saturday at Ring, of Miss Louise Sheehan—a member of one of the most highly-esteemed and respected families in Co. Waterford. Deceased was a sister of Most Rev. Dr. Sheehan, Co-adjutor Archbishop of Sydney. His Grace who arrived in Ireland recently from Sydney on a holiday was with his sister at the time of her death. Deep sympathy will be felt for his Grace and the other relatives of the late Miss Sheehan in their bereavement.

The late Miss Sheehan's brothers, Mr. Thomas Sheehan and Mr. Con Sheehan, who died some years ago were well known and greatly esteemed in the commercial and social life of Dungarvan. Another brother, Pasha Robert Sheehan, occupies a responsible position in the service of Khadine of Egypt. Her sister Mrs. Barron, now living in San Francisco, was much respected and esteemed in Dungarvan and throughout County Waterford.

On Sunday evening, the remains of the late Miss Sheehan were taken to Ring Catholic Church. The coffin was carried to the Church by the teaching staff of Ring Irish College and the residents of Ring district. His Grace, Archbishop Sheehan, Rev. John Murphy, C.C., Ring; Very Rev. T. O'Brien, P.P., Dungarvan; Fr. Ryan, P.P., Ballyneal; Rev. Dr. McGrath, O.S.A.; Rev. J. Harly, C.C.; Rev. T. Power, C.C., Rev. Fr. Donegan, O.S.A. Rev. Fr. O'Neill, P.P., Dunhill; Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. Fr. Nugent, C.C., Ring; Very Rev. J. Gleeson, P.P., Aglish proceeded the coffin and read the prayers for the dead. Archbishop Sheehan attended Requiem Mass for the repose of the soul of deceased at Ring Church, on Monday morning. Requiem Masses were also celebrated by Rev. J. Nugent, P.P.; and Rev. J. Murphy, C.C. At 11 o'clock the remains were taken to Dungarvan for interment in the family burial place there. The large attendances at the removal of the remains to Ring Church on Sunday and to Dungarvan on Monday, bore striking testimony to the great esteem and respect entertained for the late Miss Sheehan and her relatives and the sympathy felt for them in their bereavement.

His Grace, Archbishop Sheehan, assisted by the priests of Ring, Dungarvan, Abbeyside, Augustinian Friary, and a number of priests from other parts of the diocese conducted the burial service.

The funeral arrangements were carried out in a most satisfactory manner by Mr. Patk. Burke, Emmet Street, Dungarvan.

Monster Hurling Final.

WATERFORD'S OBJECTION. SEQUEL TO SCENES AT CORK.

A special meeting of the Munster Council was held on Sunday at Clonmel, for the purpose of considering the situation connected with the meeting of Limerick and Waterford in the Senior Munster Hurling Final.

Mr. W. P. Clifford (Chairman) presided, and there was a full attendance of delegates.

Waterford objected to Limerick being awarded the championship final on the following grounds:—(1) That the referee had no power to award the game to Limerick; (2) that Limerick were responsible for the abrupt termination of the game, as a known partisan of Limerick was the first to enter the field of play and assault a Waterford player; (3) that the Limerick list of players, handed to the referee, did not contain the names of the clubs from which the players had been selected. The fullest investigation of the scenes which took place on the occasion and of the Press reports of same was demanded.

The referee of the match reported that Richard Power had to leave the field injured, and Michael Mackey was ordered off the field. At times the play was very heated, and during the first half he had occasion to warn M. Mackey of Limerick and N. Fardy, Waterford. In the second half heated exchanges were more frequent. M. Mackey adopted a fighting attitude to one of the Waterford players, and, in order to keep the game in proper check, the referee considered it necessary to put him off the field. Seven minutes from full time Chris. O'Brien (Limerick) was injured. Immediately after, a ruck occurred out on the right wing of the Waterford back line between two opposing players, culminating in a section of the crowd rushing in, and in a number of players taking part in the general melee, in which Dave Clohessy, of Limerick, and J. Ware, Waterford goal-keeper, were prominent. He sounded his whistle repeatedly for about 15 minutes to summon the teams to finish the game. The Limerick team responded, and assisted in an attempt to clear the playing pitch. Three Waterford players responded also. People who were, presumably, Waterford supporters, as they sported the blue and white ribbons, and rallied around a man waving a blue and white flag, refused to leave, and would not allow the game to be resumed. Under the circumstances, and also as the Waterford team did not line up, he awarded the match to the Limerick team.

The referee's report and the Waterford appeal were first taken up, and on the suggestion of the Chairman, the Secretary (Mr. Sean McCarthy, Tralee) read the rules which Waterford lodged their appeal.

Mr. Sean Murphy (Cork) moved the adoption of the referee's report, and was seconded.

Waterford delegates moved an amendment, and after a discussion and on a show of hands, the report was adopted.

Some of the delegates held that the referee had no power to award the match to Limerick.

The Rev. Father Hamilton expressed the view that the Council should approve of the action of the referee in terminating the match, and that the Council award the match to Limerick.

Mr. Walsh, Waterford, commented on the report of the match in one of the Dublin papers, and the placing of the blame on Waterford. He took strong exception to the report. He referred to "Carbery's" comments on the match and described it as the true account.

The Chairman said he did not think it fair to put the blame on the Cork grounds.

Mr. Walsh, Cork, said that no number of stewards could have stopped what had happened.

Mr. Sheehy, Kerry, argued that the referee had handled the game to the best interests of the Association until the crowd invaded the pitch. He thought that the members of both teams were to blame. All the stewarding in the world would not have kept the crowd back.

The Secretary said that a section of the crowd refused to take their seats on the side line, and it was this section that was chiefly responsible for the trouble.

The motion approving of the referee's action in terminating the match was passed.

The Chairman said he was perfectly convinced that the referee was quite impartial.

Mr. Whelan, Waterford, contended that Limerick was responsible for the termination of the match and he moved they should not get it.

Mr. Longin, Limerick, moved a negative, and, on a show of hands, Mr. Whelan's motion was defeated and the match awarded to Limerick.

The next point considered was the list of Limerick players, but after a discussion it was not pressed.

Mr. Walsh, Waterford, said as the decision had gone against Waterford they were held primarily responsible for the action of the spectators, and it was for the Council to give Waterford the full penalty of the law.

The Chairman said that he did not think Waterford was responsible for what had occurred, and he thought the Council should congratulate the Waterford delegates on the good temper with which they dealt with the matters before the Council. Waterford players had done everything in their power to prevent anything unpleasant on the field, but were powerless. He sincerely hoped that it would

New Fashion in Face Powders

Makes Amazing Difference

The worst shiny nose and the coarsest roughest skin quickly take on amazing beauty when this new fashion in face powders is used. Scientific research has revealed a new ingredient which makes face powder stay on all day long. It is called Mousse of Cream. Blended with face powder it enables any woman to keep her complexion fresh and lovely in spite of windy or cold rainy weather. Even when dancing in the hottest ballroom it keeps the complexion entirely free from the slightest trace of shine and greasiness. Mousse of Cream is now blended by a patented process in Poudre Tokalon. This wonderful ingredient makes Poudre Tokalon entirely different and gives amazing complexion—beauty, impossible with ordinary powders.

FREE—By arrangement with the manufacturers, any woman reader of this paper may now obtain a de luxe Beauty Outfit containing popular shades of Tokalon "Mousse of Cream" Powder so that she may test them on her own face. The outfit also contains Creme Tokalon Skinfoods for both day and night use. Send 3d. in stamps to cover cost of postage and packing, etc., to R. J. Mechanical Milking.

After a further discussion the meeting adjourned. The investigations have shown that milking machines, properly operated do not injure the udders of cows, or cause garget or other udder diseases. Udder troubles are often due to causes that are not in any way associated with the method of milking practised; they will occur at times in machine-milked, as well as in hand-milked herds, although less frequently when ordinary care is taken in operating the machine. Prompt and careful hand stripping is a most important factor in successful machine milking, even though the machine used leaves only very small amounts of milk to be stripped out.

The actual saving in the cost of milking by machine over hand milking is greater in the case of large herds than with small ones, and will, in general, be in proportion to the size of the herd.

IRISH CATTLE EXPORTS.

According to the statistics published by the Department of Industry and Commerce, the total number of cattle exported from Irish Free State ports to Great Britain and the Isle of Man during the week ended 5th August was 15,226. The total for the corresponding week in 1932 was 16,243. The total number of animals exported this year up to 5th instant was 486,019, as compared with 733,940 in the previous period last year.

During the week ended 5th instant, Cork sent 143 cattle, 56 pigs and 1 horse to Fishguard, and Waterford, to the same port, sent 8 cattle and 125 horses. The shipments from Cork to Glasgow during the same week were 21 cattle, from Waterford 23 cattle, and from Limerick 65 cattle. Cork sent 304 cattle and 8 pigs to Liverpool during the week ended 5th instant; Waterford, to the same port, 499 cattle and 50 pigs. From Waterford, also 155 cattle were sent to Bristol.

CYCLING.

Cycling, judging from the large number of machines to be seen on the road, is increasing in popularity. The other evening at the New-line Bridge (near Kilmacthomas) it was interesting to watch over 30 young men and women returning from a day's outing at the seaside. Darkness had fallen, and their lamps, one behind the other, provided a pleasing effect. The line, which was minus a tandem, seemed to have a peculiar fascination over the pedestrians about at the time, and there was a general pause until the last reflector had disappeared from view in the way of the railway stone bridge. A line of super motor cars could have attracted no more attention.

be a long time before such a painful scene was again witnessed on the Gaelic Field. He wished that an appeal should go out to players to play the game as Gaels, and, more particularly, that spectators should show respect for the game.

Kilmacthomas News.

FIRES.

On Friday of last week, railway banks on both sides of the track between Kilmeehan and Durrow stations were fired by sparks by passing trains. The smoke from lengthy stretches of burning grass could be seen for miles. Numerous heather fires on the Comeragh mountains also attracted attention over a wide area during the same day.

BRIGHT PROSPECTS.

While it is not easy to please or satisfy the average husbandman, he certainly has good grounds for grumbling this year about the extreme difficulty of finding remunerative markets for his live stock. Were it not for the fact that pig prices are holding steady at comparatively fair figures, the plight of our agricultural community would be even worse than it is. It is hard to blame the farmers therefore for complaining about the economic war, which has brought the majority of them to a very pitiable plight. The only redeeming feature which is calculated to buoy up their spirits is the prospect of one of the most bountiful harvests experienced for many years. All crops from the foot of the Comeraghs to the seaboard promise abundant yields, grain being exceptionally good and likely to be cut and threshed in splendid condition. If reasonably good prices be obtained for oats, barley and wheat, the sale of the grain will in no small measure compensate for the loss of their cattle markets.

By the way, is it not high time the Control of Prices Commission should pay special attention to the recent rise in the price of flour and Indian meal, which certainly appears not to be justified? It is bad enough for farmers to have to sell their commodities at prices which scarcely pay the cost of production without having to pay higher prices for foodstuffs for themselves and their live stock. The control of Prices Commission when they start to function in real earnest will have to inquire into the prices of many other commodities besides flour and meal, for it seems manifest that the retail prices charged for a lot of them is out of all proportion to prevailing wholesale prices. This applies particularly to retail prices for beef, mutton and bacon, which seem to be much in excess of the comparative prices paid for fat cattle, sheep and pigs.

RINGS.

Rings for keeping up prices must be dealt with promptly and firmly by the Government if consumers are to be protected against barefaced fleecing. And so, too, must rings for keeping prices lower than they need to be at our fairs and markets.

MOUNT MELLERAY CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS.

Amongst the innumerable guests of the famous Cistercian Community this week was Miss Mary O'Phelan, Kilsrossanty, sister of the late Most Rev. Dr. Dom Maurus O'Phelan, who held the Abbatical dignity from 1908 to his death in 1931. Miss O'Phelan is a fluent native speaker and a worthy member of the great family line of the Prince of Deices.

HOLIDAYING.

Rev. James Walsh, C.C., of the English Mission, is now enjoying a well-merited holiday at his old home in Kilsrossanty parish. This worthy young Soggarth is a son of Mrs. Minnie Walsh, Comeragh, and the late Mr. Michael Walsh, do., and he is a nephew of the deservedly popular Pastor of Ballyduff-Portlaw parish, the Very Rev. James Walsh.

Guard Edmund Morrissey, stationed at Kinsale, is at present whiling away his annual vacation at his native Kill.

After an unbroken absence of 32 years in Boston, Mass., U.S.A., Mr. Michael Hickey, is now back at his natal Kill village, renewing happy acquaintances with the friends and scenes of his boyhood. He is in excellent health and intends returning to the city of his adoption ere the end of the year.

WEDDING CHIMES.

Withing the week, at Kill Catholic Church, Miss Margaret O'Sullivan, Savagelown, Kill, became the wife of Mr. John ("Jack") McGrath, Smoore, Dunhill, who recently returned from America. Rev. M. Dowley, C.C., was the officiating clergyman. In congratulating the happy couple we sincerely wish both the best of the best of conjugal bliss.

OWN MORE GOATS!

We are reminded that the goat is looming large in the development of America, and is being exploited in all the moods and fancies of the propagandist. The Yankee goat seems much more of a disciplinarian than the home specimen. According to a film reproduction they run on the call of a whistle to the pens, and after submitting to the milking process they resume their activities on the farm. By right, we here in An Saorstad should have a nanny population second to none in Europe. A breeder of the best stock has found from experience that a goat is an asset to the State, inasmuch that its milk is absolutely pure, and of prime importance to the diet of children and invalids. It is just a pity the goats, as the general public know them, have such a love for linen on the line, and such a want of dietary discrimination generally, but these defects would no doubt disappear with training on a proper basis. We are not kidding when we express the view that the time is opportune for the biggest goat drive in history. Why should not the Free State goat be as famous as any other Free State animal?

THE "FINAL" THAT WASN'T!

Our caption, of course, refers to this year's Munster Senior Hurling Uiltimate—in other words the latest inter-county "fiasco" enacted at the Cork Athletic Grounds. Waterford's rightful request for a replay was beautifully brushed aside by the Munster Council at their specially convened meeting at Clonmel on last Sunday evening. Yes, Waterford were utterly and completely "washed out" by a "show of hands." Following the voting of victory to "Garryowen and glory," the Chairman (Mr. W. P. have stated that "the Waterford players had apparently done everything in their power to prevent anything unseemly on the field, but were powerless." Lazarus was grateful for the crumbs that fell from the rich man's table; likewise, will poor Gaelic Portlaur be thankful for these few soothing words from the lips of the President of the Provincial Executive. However to make the pill all the sweeter for the caman representation of the Decies it is to be hoped that the sterling Limerick Gael who was put off the playing pitch by the equally sterling Gaelic referee who had charge of the contest in Cork, will be reinstated at once (if he is not already so favoured). After all 'twas "only a Waterford hurler" he assaulted on the occasion, and on that account it would not be in keeping with the general harmony of things to have him endure the full penalty of the law (6 months suspension) for so trivial an offence. We know that he will not dare try on such silly stuff against Kilkenny in the All-Ireland Final. Now that we come to think of it, Jim Ware and "Sonny" Power weren't killed outright in Cork. So, why be vindictive? Let us venture to predict that a Munster S.H. title will crown our county when the people of the Province will see tobacco growing in flower-pots on the house-tops of Portlaw, which are as flat as any Jerusalem ever had!

Youghal Mental Hospital.

At the usual monthly meeting of the Committee of the above held on Monday, there attended—Alderman J. Allen, in the Chair, Messrs. D. Gamble, T.C.; J. F. O'Sullivan, T.C., and J. R. Connolly, T.C.

Doctor's Report.

The report of Dr. M. Twomey, Visiting Physician, was read as follows:—Since my last report there has been one death. Deceased belonged to the Cork Mental Hospital; 3 patients are confined to bed on the male side of the house and 7 on the female side owing to debility and other causes. There has been no case of seclusion, restraint injury or violence. There has been no complaint of the water supply. The food supplies have been regularly examined and found up to standard requirements. There has been no case of zymotic disease and the general health of the Institution is excellent.

Manager's Report.

The Manager's report stated that since last meeting one male patient had died and one patient had been transferred to Cork Mental Hospital. The total number in residence at present was—126—240 men and 178 women. As arranged by the Committee the butter supply was purchased by quotation at 4.3 per lb, delivered at the Mental Hospital. The corn is being cut and a thresher would be required as usual.

Mr. Connolly asked how many British ex-Service patients were in the house.

Mr. Gamble said that could be ascertained at Cork.

The Dr.—I don't think we have many. They are transferred from Cork down.

The Chairman—Is there any increase in the number of patients?

The Dr.—It is about the same number all the time.

The Chairman—They are very much crowded above.

Farm Report.

The Farm report stated that the corn had been cut and, the weather being fine, they were able to put it up nicely. The oats at the Cottage Hospital was ripe and it was expected to have it cut down by the end of the week. It would be advisable to have the threshing done at the first available opportunity. All the planting and the other work for the season had been carried out as usual. There were 29 pigs in stock, some of which would be fit for sale in a few week's time.

An order was made to hire a thresher as soon as possible and to dispose of the pigs fit for sale in the usual manner.

Trailer Engine.

In compliance with a request by Mr. Gamble, a report was read to the effect that the trailer engine was working every day and in good order.

Fire Escape.

In reply to a query, the meeting was informed that the fire escape was not yet complete, being help up by the builders.

It was decided to call on the contractors to finish the work without further delay.

West Cork Patients.

A short discussion took place on the question of the patients from West Cork in the house. The Chairman remarking that their relatives found it very inconvenient to come such long distances to visit them. He thought it would be more suitable to have them in residence at Cork.

The progress made by the Society since it was established in 1912 can be best judged from the Actuary's valuation reports which were taken at the end of each 5 years. As a result of the first quinquennial valuation taken at 31-12-18 the Society had a surplus of assets over liabilities of £5,598. On the second valuation taken at 31-12-23 the surplus increased to £10,475, and on the third and final valuation taken at 31-12-28, the surplus was increased to £20,315. The Chairman, in proposing the adoption of the report, referred to the fact that notwithstanding the continued heavy increase in expenditure on benefits the Society continued to be in a most satisfactory solvent position, which was due to a great extent to the wise selection of securities, and also to the savings on administration expenses. Taking the investments all round, there was a considerable increase in their present value as compared with their cost price. He also referred to the great boon the additional benefits were to members, particularly dental benefit on which the sum of £1,500 was expended during the year, and he was glad to see that the members entitled were availing more readily of those additional benefits. Having dealt with other matters, he formally proposed the adoption of the annual report and statement of accounts, which was seconded by Very Rev. E. Canon Prendergast, and passed unanimously. AUDITED ACCOUNTS. The audited accounts for the years 1930 and 1931 were also unanimously adopted, it being noted with satisfaction that no reservations were made by the Auditor. ELECTION OF COMMITTEE MANAGEMENT. Proposed by Mr. G. Stokes, seconded by Mr. Hahessy, and unanimously resolved:—"That the members of the Committee of Management be re-elected for the ensuing year, and that Very Rev. M. Norris, P.P., St. Patrick's, Waterford, be appointed to the vacancy on the Committee." NATIONAL HEALTH INSURANCE ACT, 1933. The Secretary explained the different Sections in the Act as they effect the insured members of Society, and also officials both whole and part-time. A vote of thanks was passed to the local T.D.'s—Mrs. Redmond, Messrs. Little, Goulding and Wall, for the valuable help which they gave during the passage of the Bill through its many stages both in An Dail and Committee, and it was noted with satisfaction that the Bill as introduced was considerably amended for the betterment of the members and officials before reaching its final stages. A vote of thanks was also passed to the Executive of the Approved Societies' Association, and particularly to the Dublin members of the Executive who devoted a lot of time and energy looking after the interests of the Society. This having concluded the business of the meeting, a vote of thanks to the Chairman and officers was proposed by Mr. Hahessy and seconded by Canon Prendergast who referred to the excellent qualities of the Chairman (Mr. Phelan) who presided over their meetings in a most courteous manner, and was a faithful guide and counsellor in all their deliberations. Canon Burke, Lismore, also spoke in praiseworthy terms of the excellent qualities of the Chairman, and he re-ferred that the proposed changes may have the result of depriving the members of the finest minds such as Mr. Phelan's. The Chairman, replying to the vote of thanks, stated that any work of any help he was able to give the Society since its foundation was to him a labour of love. It was a pleasure to him to have been able to give some little assistance to the Most Rev. Dr. Sheil in the establishment of the Society. He also referred to the pleasure it was to serve on the Committee under the presidency of Canon Furlong, who he was pleased to say, was still with us, as were also the Secretary and Treasurer. Messrs. Kelly and Veale returned thanks for the appreciative remarks about them. CABBAGE SEED FOR SUMMER AND AUTUMN SOWING. AN INCIDENT OF THE DUNGARVAN EXCURSION TO DUBLIN. On this occasion, when arriving in Dublin, Patrick C. Murphy, St. Thomas's Terrace, who is keen on having the autographs, etc., of popular persons, accidentally met the Lord Mayor, Alderman Alfred Byrne, T.D., when approaching O'Connell street, whom he kindly requested for his autograph, he very courteously submitted to the request and both had a very pleasant conversation on his recent visit to Dungarvan and Ring Colleje. He invited him to the Mansion House to receive a memento of his visit to Dublin, which consisted of a beautiful engraving of the Mansion House, and the Lord Mayor himself, inscribed thus beneath: "With sincere good wishes from the Lord Mayor of Dublin, Alderman Alfred Byrne, and the Lady Mayoress."

Youghal People's Races.

BIG ATTENDANCE.

Brilliant weather favoured the holding of Youghal People's Races over the old Slob Lands course on Tuesday. Although rain fell early on, by the time fixed for the start, bright sunshine tempered by a cooling breeze prevailed. A very large crowd assembled, augmented by reason of the fact that it was holiday for the country-folk. Many townspeople and holiday-makers in Youghal also swelled the throng. All the details of the fixture were admirably carried out by the officials, and the success of the fixture is due, in no small measure, to their efforts.

Perhaps the only thing which militated against the complete success of the day was the scarcity of runners. Only five competitors were forthcoming on the first event, an open hurdle. The whole lot got away well and Pretty Nora made the running for the first mile, followed by Mary's Pet and Rosalee. On the last circuit, however, Mr. W. Browne's Carrigan Lass, when given her head, gave the others short shrift and drawing clean away won easily.

Only three runners appeared for the Subscribers Plate, an open flat race, and of these Mr. Hurley's Lizzie's Fancy led the whole way to win pulling up.

The third event, the Strand Plate, produced the best contest of the afternoon. There were six runners and though Knockaverry and Kitty the Hare were soon tailed off, the others made a race of it. Mr. M. Foley's Rover led most of the way with Merry Boy and Dark Betty in close attendance. In the last furlong Rover and Dark Betty drew clear and in a hard ridden finish Dark Betty got the verdict by a length and a half, Merry Boy being third.

Unfortunately no runners appeared to contest the next event, the Youghal Plate, and this was declared void. The last event, a consolation race, attracted four runners and of these, Whiskey, always had command and drawing away in the last circuit won pulling up, but Merry Boy and Mary's Pet staged a great battle for the minor berths, Mary's Pet just getting into second place half a length in front. FIRST ANNIVERSARY. GEARY (nee Tierney)—In loving memory of our darling Anna, who died August, 19th, 1932, late of New York. On her soul sweet Jesus have mercy.—R.I.P. Her smiling face and winning way, are pleasant to recall. She had a kindly word for each. She died beloved by all. But you are not forgotten Anna, nor never will you be. As long as life and memory last, we'll always think of thee. We never knew what pain she felt, we never saw her die. We only know she passed away and never said goodbye. Inserted by her loving Father, Mother, sisters, brother, nieces and nephews.

FIFTH ANNIVERSARY. BRENNAN—In loving memory of John Brennan, Graigueaurra, Modeligo, who died on August 13th, 1928. Sacred Heart of Jesus have mercy on his soul. Immaculate Masses offered up for the repose of his soul. In a nearby lonely graveyard, Where the trees their blossoms wave. Rests a gentle, loving brother In a cold and silent grave.—R.I.P.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS. A GREAT TREAT. The greatest musical romance of all time "The Maid of the Mountains" will be shown in the Dungarvan Cinema next week for three nights, beginning on Wednesday August 23rd. For music, song and dance, it will be a wonder and no one should miss it. It is certainly the greatest treat that Mr. Crody has yet provided for his patrons and we know it will be fully appreciated by the multitude.

FURNITURE SALE. Hayes & Sons, Auctioneers, will hold a Furniture Sale in the Town Hall, at an early date. Those wishing to send articles for disposal should send particulars to Hayes & Sons, Auctioneers, Dungarvan.

FRIARY RENOVATION FUND. In connection with the Friary Renovation Fund, a further meeting was held in the Town Hall, on Wednesday evening, when it was decided to appoint a sub-committee to go into details of the scheme.

The Ladies Committee were requested to appoint collectors for the Town and District, who will call during the week on those who have not already subscribed. The total subscriptions at the moment amount to £30, and it is hoped that a ready response to the appeal of the Very Rev. Prior, will be forthcoming, and so permit this much-needed work to be started immediately.

The next meeting will be held in the Town Hall, on Wednesday, 23rd, inst. at 8.30 p.m.

LABOURERS ACT INQUIRY. On Thursday, Mr. J. P. Geraghty, L.G. Inspector, opened an inquiry in the Boardroom, County Home, Dungarvan, into the objections lodged in respect of erecting labourers cottages on certain lands up and down the county. Evidence was taken in respect of the objections made. On opening the inquiry dealt with the cases from East Waterford. There were 8 solicitors engaged at the inquiry.

G.A.A.—DUNGARVAN V. "SHAMROCKS" SENIOR FOOTBALL. On Sunday next, August, 20th, Dungarvan will line out in Senior Football against the Tipperary Senior Champions, the Clonmel "Shamrocks" considering that the Tipperary team who put up such a fight against Kerry on Sunday last, include several members of the Clonmel team, one realizes that on this occasion Dungarvan will have to fight hard if victory is to crown their efforts. But true to the traditions of the old "Blues" (many of whom still take a keen interest in the games) they give of their best when they are "up against it."

The present Dungarvan team are young and light, but their grit and determination will serve to counteract these disadvantages. We feel sure that the Tipperary "Stars" will have to fight to the final whistle, for they will find that though in some cases their opponents are but boys, they have the hearts of men.

The Dungarvan team will be selected from the following:— P. O'Donnell, P. McGrath, M. Whelan, E. Hayes, S. Hayes, J. Dwyer, T. Higgins, C. Moylan, T. Greany, E. Curran, J. Murphy, T. Parsons, E. Goode, K. Moloney, T. Daly, R. McAllister, T. Lannon, J. Foley, W. O'Donnell.

DUNGARVAN GOLF CLUB. The first round for the Cunnigar Cup will be played at Clonea links next Thursday evening, and it is expected big numbers of players will enter this contest.

DUNGARVAN FAIR. The August Fair on Wednesday could hardly be called a fair at all. Though there was a good attendance and plenty stock, prices were very bad and most of the cattle went home again. In the sales registered, 3-year-old cattle in forward condition made £9 to £11; 2-year-olds £5 to £8 and yearlings £3 to £4; springers of good quality were in fair demand at good rates; fat cows sold at small money and old cows made no money at all. Sheep in good condition fetched 25/- to 35/- and lambs 15/- to 20/-. Good store pigs made up to £2; bonhams 15/- up, according to size and quality.

DUNGARVAN MARKETS. Meal (special) 17/6; middiecut 17/-; flour 16/-; bran and pollard 7/- per cwt.; creamery butter retail 1/4d., lb. Continental coal 40/- ton; fresh butter 7d., lb., eggs 9d. dozen.

CONGRATULATIONS. At a special meeting of the Dungarvan Branch of the British Legion, Lieut-Commander Dunphy, R.N., presiding, Mr. M. Curran (Irish Guards), proposed and Mr. W. Organ R.I.Reg't, seconded, a resolution of congratulation to Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, on his appointment as Bishop, and hoping he may be long spared to rule the flock entrusted to his care and promising him most loyal support. Copies to be sent to His Lordship, the Bishop, Very Rev. T. O'Brien, P.P., V.F., and the "Observer."

DUNGARVAN SHOW. At a meeting of the Dungarvan Show Committee on Wednesday, Mr. A. Hunt, President in the Chair. The Secretary submitted details of the prizes won at the recent Show and it was decided to pay all prize money forthwith, with the exception of winners in Registered Dairy and Irish Draught Classes, for which the sanction of the Department has not yet been received. Local prize winners will please call at the Secretary's office for their cheques.

TO SOUTH AFRICA. Last week, Rev. John Power, son of Mr. Ed. Power, Mitchell Street, Dungarvan, left for the Diocese of Port Elizabeth, South Africa, in which his priestly work lies. We wish Father Power bon voyage and long years to labour in the Lord's Vineyard amongst the South Africans.

MELLERAY CELEBRATIONS. At the Mount Melleray Celebrations on Wednesday at which President de Valera and Mr. Cosgrave, T.D., attended, Very Rev. Canon Whelan, P.P., Cappoquin, speaking at the luncheon, referred to the presence there together of the President and the ex-President of the State and said if the people were governed in accordance with the Christian and Catholic tradition and the standard of the ten commandments their political leaders would not lead them astray. The Lord Mayors of Dublin and Cork and the Mayor of Waterford joined in congratulating the Community on the Centenary of the Abbey's foundation.

In the afternoon, President de Valera returned to Dublin and Mr. Cosgrave to Carna, Co. Galway, where he is on holiday.

President de Valera, accompanied by his son, Eamon, Mr. Frank Aiken, Minister of Defence, Mr. P. J. Little, T.D., were heartily received by the Lord Abbot on arrival at Mount Melleray on Wednesday.

An equally cordial welcome was given to Mr. Cosgrave, ex-President, who was accompanied by Mrs. Cosgrave and their two sons.

ABBEYSIDE "PATTERN" SPORTS. The above fixture to be held on Sunday August, 27th., promises to eclipse all records of previous years, and big numbers of competitors have already signified their intention to be present at the meeting.

A meeting of the Sports Committee was held in the Scouts' Den, Abbeyside, on Wednesday night, and all details in connection with the Field, the official printed Programme, Prizes and the appointment of the various stewards was gone into.

The Prizes for the various items are a varied list and well worth winning, a list of same appears in an advertisement in another column and attention is directed to same. In addition to the prizes for the events, a special prize—A perpetual Cup—for the best all-round athlete will be given, so that keen competition will be the order of the day.

The Sports this year will be held in the Friary Sportsfield, kindly placed at the disposal of the Sports Committee by The Very Rev. Father Faragher, Prior, and is to be laid out in a second to none condition, so as to insure all competitors a better chance of showing their best form.

Admission to the field will be by ticket costing 3d. which will entitle the purchaser to participate in a grand Draw for four Valuable Prizes. Competitors should note that the entries close finally on Wednesday, 23rd August, with the Hon. Secs. See advt.

Important Notice. We wish to call the attention of our customers and the general public to the fact that we have erected a Walworth Patent Kilm at considerable expense to treat the native Grain which it is incumbent on us to mix with Maize. Under the new Cereals Bill the quantity of this Admixture has been raised by a recent order of the Department of Agriculture from 10 per cent. to 15 per cent. Owing to this increased percentage to secure good sound Meal, the Kilndrying of the home-grown Grain is in our opinion absolutely necessary. We therefore guarantee that the quota of native Grain used by this Firm in the Admixture will be Kiln-dried. This combined with the stone grinding at our Water-power Mill at Kiladangan should secure a first-class article. We shall supply Maize Meal with the stipulated Admixture of either OATS or BARLEY. In the case of BARLEY being used a slight increase in price will be required. N.B.—As the percentage of admixture of Home-Grown Grain has been raised to 25 per cent. since 24th. July, it is absolutely vital to have the Home-grown grain Kiln-dried to have good meal.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

MORE BUILDING.
THE STRAND ROAD.

Present—Mr. E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman; Capt. P. Dunne, Messrs. D. Dennehy, T. Beausang, J. Whelan, T. Harrington, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; E. Clancy, D. J. Linehan, M. D. Broderick.

More Building.
Mr. M. Walsh, Contractor, applied for permission to erect a bungalow at Upper Knockaverry.

On the proposition of Mr. Whelan, seconded by Mr. Beausang, the application was granted unanimously, on the same plan as previously approved.

Milk Registers.

The Veterinary Inspector, reported that he had visited the various milk shops and all agreed to register except two. One was going out of business and the other said he didn't think it necessary.

Mr. McMahon said they would have no defiance.

The Clerk said it was the law of the land and would have to be complied with.

Strand Church.

A letter was read from Mr. J. V. Hallissey, stating that it was intended by the Committee of the Strand Church to run a Monster three days Carnival on the Strand during the last week in August and the first week in September. He had been requested to ask if the Council would facilitate the Committee by giving their approval to the project.

Mr. Dennehy suggested that the matter be postponed till their next meeting. Meantime inquiries could be made.

Mr. Whelan—Is Mr. Hallissey the Acting Secretary?

Mr. Dennehy said that Mr. Savage was Chairman of the Committee and Acting Secretary, till the return of Mr. Goy, the Hon. Sec. He (Mr. Dennehy) was a member of the Committee and he hadn't heard a word about the matter although he was speaking to the Chairman on the previous evening.

Mr. Broderick, proposed and Capt. Dunne, seconded, that they approve of the proposal.

Mr. McMahon—Why should we approve of a thing we know nothing about?

Mr. Harrington—What authority has Mr. Hallissey to write in the name of the Committee?

Mr. Broderick said they were only asked to approve of the proposal and they could do that provisionally.

This was agreed to.

Housing Scheme Abandoned.

A letter was read from the Director of the Irish Sailors and Soldiers Land Trust, stating that they had noted that the Ministry refused to sanction the proposed scheme for the erection of four houses at Dunne's Park. The scheme was therefore, abandoned.

The Clerk said that sanction was refused on the grounds of density of population in the vicinity. He had been told that there was some misunderstanding about the matter, and he was following it up.

Strand Road.

The Co. Surveyor, wrote enclosing copy of a letter received from the Secretary Irish Tourist Association, calling attention to the condition of the road from Moll Goggins Corner to Claycastle, which required a little smoothing.

After a short discussion it was decided to comply with the suggestion of the Tourist Association.

Motor Matters.

The Clerk read a quotation for the supply of notices to motorists—"Drive Slowly."

Mr. Harrington said there was a man drove down the Main street that evening, and he should be put into jail.

Mr. Clancy said that every credit was due to the Civic Guards for the manner in which they handled the enormous traffic during the past week end, which was a record. It spoke volumes for their vigilance and care that not a single accident occurred.

Mr. Dennehy supported Mr. Clancy's remarks. He had heard many complimentary remarks on the manner in which the holidays passed over at Youghal.

Several other members joined in complimenting the Guards.

Coastal Excursions.

On the suggestion of Mr. Whelan, the Clerk was instructed to ask the Tourist Association to request the Steamship Companies to arrange for the calling of their boats off Youghal Harbour.

Limerick's Thanks.

The Mayor of Limerick, wrote, thanking the Council for placing the Town Hall at the disposal of the children on the 30th, ult., on the occasion of the first excursion of the Poor Children of Limerick.

The action of your Council not alone in placing your Town Hall at the disposal of the children, but also in placing a Life Boat on the Strand, and in co-operating with the Limerick Committee generally in making things comfortable for the children was only what he expected from a Council with a reputation like theirs. A remark which he might also in gratitude apply to practically the whole population of Youghal. He assured the Chairman and members of the Council that personally, he was deeply grateful and on his own behalf as well as that of the citizens of Limerick, he wished to tender them his very sincere thanks

ARDMORE.

IV.
THE GLAMOUR OF AN IRISH VILLAGE.

"TOURISTS GUIDE THROUGH ITS ANCIENT AND ECCLESIASTICAL SPLENDOUR."

There's a scenery in that ancient spot.

Where many tints are mingling, make pictures that

Will live for evermore of Bay and Ruins.

And a lofty Tower.

Oh! Scenes of old,

That will never, never die!

There's music in you Dear Ardmore,

Oh music sweet and lovely.

The croon of your lovely Bay.

That flows and ebbs

By night and day.

There's a song in you, Ah! sweet Ardmore,

Within your ancient Ruins.

To which the ivy clings.

As the wind blows thro'

There's heard a tune of a sad lonely croon.

There's a charm in you,

Oh! "Ruined" Ardmore,

A joy of days gone by;

An incense from a sacred past,

A mystic spell that will not for ever die.

Of your beauty, no mortal tongue,

can ever tell.

The spirit of your Holy Ruins

Will for ever last.

There's a voice in you of fame renowned.

That is calling—ever calling with the magic of a lonely past.

To come and see your fair sweet shore.

Oh! list and hear that Homely call.

To come and bide in sweet Ardmore.

This little Guide is by no means intended for those, whose daily lives are spent amidst the shades of Ardmore. It is for those who come to gaze on the scenes of Ardmore,

Perhaps for once,

And never more.

It is intended in a special way for those who are intended to spend a little time longer, enjoying their holidays in the locality. There are those whose everyday lives are spent in Dublin of the "Metropolis." Those who hail from Galway of the "Tribes," some who come from the "Hills of Donegal" from Kilkenny of the "Marble City," Kerry of the "lakes fame," Tipperary of the "Kings," Limerick of the "Treaty Stone," and last but not least Cork of the "Shandon Bells." It is for those that this little Guide is being written, for there in the quiet, calm and tranquility, their minds and bodies shall find the peace and rest they desire.

Then to the Tourist or visitor whose heart yearns for a True-Real-Irish Homely Holiday, it is suggested here, that such a holiday will be found within the sanctuary of Ardmore. The seaside of the Gaeltacht, and famed Round Tower, and ancient ruins. Here is found "Erinn" the Motherland clad in the robes of richest green. Here is found the Ireland of the past, the home of Saints and Scholars. It may be truly said that in this seaside resort the people, scenery and language are Irish to the core. In Ardmore the visitors thoughts must go back in fancy to the Ireland of centuries past and gone—to the time when the joy-clad ruins were in full bloom, to the days when the Mass was celebrated in the old church on the lonely cliff. To the period when the Pillar Tower was functioning as was intended. The Tourist who is a "lover of nature" will find here a true and vibrant appreciation of its charms, for that impressive peacefulness and tranquility is found amidst these surroundings. These pictures, visions and dreams of former days must of a necessity sink down deep in the heart and mind of the visitor, and blend it and gratitude for all the work that was so very willingly done to make the first children's excursion from Limerick a success.

Under separate cover, he was sending a copy of a local paper in which he would find reference to the expression of thanks of their Corporation to the good Youghal Council.

A letter was read from Mr. Reuben Hurst, Picture Palace, thanking the Council for their resolution of thanks in connection with the entertainment he gave the Limerick children. His only regret was that he had been unable to find accommodation for the girls on the occasion.

Recent Strand Incident.
The following letter was read from the Secretary, South Cork Co. Board of Public Assistance—"Your letter of the 18th, ult., relative to a man named Barrett, who was seized with an epileptic fit on the Strand, together with a letter received from Mrs. Hurley, U.D.C., on the subject, were considered by the Board at their meeting on the 26th, ult., and they have directed me to inform you that they are satisfied that the Home Assistance Officer discharged his duty properly in this matter.

Consideration of the question of providing an Ambulance has been deferred until the new Hospital will be provided in Youghal.

Mount Mellera Centenary.
The Council decided to place one of their motor ferryboats at the disposal of the members wishing to take part in the Centenary Celebrations at Mount Mellera, on the 16th, inst.

to a perfect and natural harmony of a sylvan shade of former days. The visitor may be often prompted in fancy to pause impulsively and listen to a gentle croon of mystic music that comes from a flowing and ebbing tide—or to the music that springs from the gentle breeze which whispers through the ancient ruins, that stands on the lone hillside, "neath the shadow of the Round Tower, above the hallowed mounds of the "Sacred dead." But taking all into consideration, it might be truly said, that the happiest and loveliest hours of a holiday spent in Ardmore is that which comes before the—

"Sinking of the Sun,
Among the Golden clouds
Of the Glorious West.

It may be said there is nothing so real so supernatural as to stand on the Eastern Hills of Ardmore, and gaze across to the West and behold an open sunlit sky of golden red.

The visitor has every facility of reaching Ardmore nowadays. The Buses plying twice daily between Cork and Waterford call there. From Youghal Bridge, and Kiely's Cross may be seen by the intending visitor, a land mark, a sign that has existed there for centuries past and will for centuries hence. That is a Pillar Tower of Ireland. The landmark of the nature land, and the trademark of the Gaeltacht. It is not befitting then, that Ardmore should well feel proud of being one of the few Irish villages who possess so rare a "jewel" and "famous gem." Here is not the symbol, not the dream, but the reality—a real Round Tower, and Ancient Ruin, yes—One of the Pillar Towers of Ireland, that so wonderfully stand.

The first thought of the visitor on arrival in the village is to find some suitable place of abode or lodgings. Some Hotel or private catering establishment. The principal Hotel in the locality is Kelly's Hotel, Cliff House (Licensed). This Hotel is very highly commendable, modern in every aspect, having hot and cold water, electric light, and a private passage leading down to the sea at the back, where a very safe and up-to-date bathing place has been recently reconstructed. There is also a large garage attached to this Hotel, and up-to-date Tennis ground.

Another very up-to-date Hotel is found in the village at "Tig Ailinn" This establishment is very up-to-date, possessing all modern requirements, and can be highly recommended to the tourist or visitor. "O'Dell" Lodge is a very up-to-date private Hotel, a very well laid out residence, lovely grounds overlooking the Bay and Village. Many of the local shopkeepers and private people cater for visitors also, and every comfort is assured. In another article the writer will give a description of the ancient places of interest to the visitor. It may be not out of place in this article to say a word about "St. Declan's Irish College," which nestles neath the shadows of the Round Tower and Holy Ruins. The College could not be found in a more suitable place, for the Ruins and Tower neath whose shade it lies are Irish to the core.

'Twas there the Celtic Tongue was first lisped by our Forefathers in the days of yore, 'tis here an endeavour has been made ever since down through the generations to keep it alive, and thanks to the generous spirits and Irish hearts it has survived and here in St. Declan's College of Ardmore the final step is being made year after year to make it the every day commercial language of a present generation. The writer has been through the College and has seen some of the work that has been carried on there. The classes are open every day, except Sunday from 10 to 3, there is an Irish Ceilidhe every night from 8 to 10. The College staff are as follows—S. Dalton, B.A., H.D. in Ed.; M. Lacey, N.T. Dip in Ed.; T. Murphy, B.A., S. Gleadow, B.A., M. O'Connor, (Professor); S. Downey, M. Keating, Michael Foley, Principal. Irish music teachers are Philip O'Leary, and Miss Maire O'Meara. St. Declan's Irish College is built on an eminence overlooking the waves of the broad Atlantic. It has a splendid view of the Knockmealdown and the seashore of a greater part of Cork and Waterford. Inside the walls of this College one finds oneself in a very different atmosphere to that of an outside world. In here your thoughts are taken back to other years, to the time when Ireland was surely the "Island of Saints and Scholars."

Improved Methods in Pig Feeding.

HOW ECONOMY MAY BE EFFECTED.

It would be wrong to deny that in some districts there has been a remarkable improvement in the form, character, and quality of the ordinary commercial pig, a change due to experience, to the imperative necessity of economising owing to the hard times experienced by well-nigh everyone connected with the land, and perhaps more than in any other way by the publication in the agricultural journals of articles, written by men who have made a special study of the many questions connected with the breeding and fattening of pigs. Notwithstanding this admitted and appreciated improvement, there still exists very considerable room for increased attention to the selection of the breeding stock. The sides of bacon and the form and weight of hams which are most in demand and shortest in supply, and consequently the highest in price, have changed greatly of recent years.

In the good old times a very large and a very fat pig was the one which was considered to be the most suitable for conversion into bacon. Amongst the reasons for this were the belief, which has since been most clearly proved to be fallacious, that the greatest increase from the food consumed was made by the pig when it approached maturity, and a state of complete fatness; another reason was that a large proportion of fat meat was necessary to render the extremely salt and hard lean meat more palatable. Both of these alleged causes have ceased to exist, and it is now known that it is the growing and young animal which gives the greatest return for the food consumed, and that the best type of live stock will easily combine the growing and fattening stage so effectually that they will become ripe for the butcher at a very early age.

In pig feeding there are many things to consider, more particularly now that it is most difficult to feed pigs with profit. Foods which are used for the purpose are numerous, but, in order to obtain remuneration and quick results, a feeder should make himself acquainted with their constituents and with the relative quantities required. There is no domestic animal which feeds so rapidly as the pig, and probably none which so imperfectly assimilates its food.

This being the case, it is necessary that the food should be of a digestible nature, or that it should be given in such a form as would make the smallest demand upon the digestive organ of the animal. It should not be forgotten that the sole end of pig breeding is to obtain a large quantity of meat in the shortest time possible; the greatest quantity can only be obtained by selecting a good breed and supplying the animals with suitable food.

The common custom of keeping pigs in sties shows that many people suppose that pigs neither need exercise nor green food. It is a fact, however, that there is no domestic animal upon the farm which pays better for liberty upon grass. Feeding pigs upon a particular article, however good it may be, is undesirable, and in practice it has been found that a mixed ration suits the constitution of the pig much better. There are certain principles in feeding pigs which are very simple and yet should be regarded with extreme care. There is nothing more important than that the pigs should be fed regularly, and whether the food is given twice or thrice daily it should invariably be at the same hours. Nor is it necessary in feeding that the trough should be filled, for it is a fixed rule with all who understand the question to give no more than can be properly eaten. Like every other animal, a pig prefers fresh food whether in a sweet or sour state.

It is well known to old feeders that good food is comparatively thrown away upon fattening pigs if they are not kept in a thoroughly clean state. Water, again, is most necessary in all cases where pigs are confined, and, if pure, so much the better for their health. The feeding of pigs may be divided as follows:—First, the feeding of the boars and breeding sows; second the feeding of young pigs after weaning; third, the feeding of young sows and porkers; fourth, fattening bacon pigs.

In each of these cases there is a distinct method, which is varied according to the facilities at the hands of the feeder—such as the produce of the crops grown on the farm and the use of skim milk and butter-milk. Variety in all diet is advisable; no great or sudden change should be made, and there is a very important point which should never be lost sight of—one great secret of success in the feeding of pigs lies in the skill, knowledge, and attention of the feeder.—O.R. in "Farmers' Gazette."

SEIZED STOCK RETURNED.

The Finance Committee reported to Wexford Co. Council that the stock seized for non-payment of rates and on foot of decrees were returned to their late owner by the Sheriff as no offer was received for the stock at the sheriff's sale. The L.G.D. wrote that the matter was receiving the Department's attention.

WEST WATERFORD JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIP.

Dungarvan (Blues)—3 gls. 5 pts.
Eire Oge (Dungarvan)—1 gl. 1 pt.

Keen local interest was very evident on Sunday last among the large crowd of spectators at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, when Eire Oge and Dungarvan met in this year's junior hurling championship. Supporters of each team, many sporting their colours, eagerly debated their favourites chances, and all agreed that which ever team won, a good match would be witnessed. In this they were not disappointed as for 55 minutes of really first class hurling it was anybody's game. With about five minutes to go, the Blues through a short goal puck got a rather soft goal, which seemed to demoralise the Eire Oge back division, which up to this point were playing a sound smooth game and repeatedly beat off the most determined attacks.

Dungarvan fielded at full strength, while Eire Oge missed the services of P. Lannon, who was unable to turn out through knee injury.

Mr. V. O'Donoghue, Lismore, who had charge of the whistle, discharged his duty in a most impartial manner.

THE MATCH.

Dungarvan played towards the Town goal in the first half. Eire Oge forced and were awarded a 70, which was well cleared and Dungarvan transferred to the other end, but sent over. Both ends were visited without result until Dungarvan with a nice passing movement raised a white flag. Eire Oge transferred to the other end, but sent wide, they continued to press, but were beaten off or sent over three or four times. A free to Eire Oge was nicely placed, but again sent wide. Dungarvan next attacked and had two overs. A 70 to Dungarvan was landed in the goal-mouth and forced into the net, but the score was disallowed for an infringement. Midfield play of a most exciting nature followed for some time, until Dungarvan succeeded in breaking away to score their second point. Eire Oge transferred and had two further overs. Two frees to Dungarvan brought the ball to the Eire Oge goalmouth, but the defence cleared and Dungarvan sent over. An injury to one of the players caused a short stoppage. On resuming, Dungarvan attacked, but Eire Oge saved at the expense of a 70. Taken by T. Greany, it was sent all the way for a point, which however was disallowed by the umpires. Dungarvan returned the puck-out, but the Eire Oge goalie made a grand save and getting the ball away on the wing Eire Oge succeeded in getting their first score a point. Dungarvan again returned, but were held up and Eire Oge broke away only to send wide. A free to Dungarvan was cleared and the half-time whistle sounded with play at midfield and the scores:

DUNGARVAN ..... 2 pts.
EIRE OGE ..... 1 pt.

On resuming, Eire Oge attacked, but sent wide, returning the puck-out a goal gave them a two point lead. Eire Oge again returned, but sent wide and Dungarvan took the goal puck all the way to reduce the lead by a good point. Both ends were now visited without result. A free to Dungarvan was beaten off and immediately afterwards. Eire Oge had a free which missed the net by inches. Both sides having now registered some further overs, a 70 to Dungarvan enabled them to equalise. Excitement at this point was intense and with about six minutes to go it looked as if a draw would be the result, which would only be a fitting one on the run of the play up to this. Dungarvan again got going to add another point which gave them a point lead. The puck-out fell short among the Dungarvan forwards and in a twinkling the ball was in the net. This score seemed to bewilder the Eire Oge defence and Dungarvan banged in two further goals in as many minutes, leaving the final score:

DUNGARVAN ..... 3 gls. 5 pts.
EIRE OGE ..... 1 gl. 1 pt.

THEIR COAXING WAYS.

MAKING SHEEPDOGS CLEVER.

THOSE holiday-makers who happen to find themselves in the neighbourhood of sheepdog trials should take the opportunity of seeing what these clever dogs are capable of doing. It will be a revelation. A few of my readers who witnessed trials last year, afterwards wrote to me asking where they could obtain Border collies, arguing that, considering how wise they were, they must make satisfactory companions. Most of the sheepdogs fill this role very well, being extraordinarily sensible.

Although a number of local trials of minor importance takes place every year, some in conjunction with agricultural shows, the principal are those promoted by the International Sheepdog Society, the secretary of which is Mr. James Reid, of Airdrie, Scotland. Since the war the society, previously operating chiefly in Scotland, has extended its scope by inaugurating National trials for England, Scotland and Wales. The twelve best dogs at each are entitled to compete at the International, and the honour of winning the triple crown is highly prized. So far England has been the most successful in the singles, having won the championship six times to Scotland's four. Wales had only one victory to its credit.

The Scottish National has already been decided for this year, but the English, at Ilkey in Yorkshire, does not take place until September 1st and 2nd. The Welsh will be held at Margam, Glamorganshire, on August, 24th and 25th., and the International is at Ayr on the three days beginning September 25th. At all of these trials the tests are of a very exacting nature, being altogether different from those imposed at local events. An item on the programme of the Scottish National should appeal irresistibly to all members of the Tail-Waggers' Club. The judges had to take into consideration any evidences of the cordial and affectionate relations that existed between the children and their charges.

The coaxing ways of the dogs when at work always interest the onlookers. They are so quiet and gentle in their methods, approaching in a way that will not be likely to frighten the sheep they are seeking to pen after inducing them to go through a number of intricate evolutions. Roughness in any form would defeat its own object, but for all that, as occasion arises, the dogs assert their mastery in a definite manner, first seeing that the sheep are in a bunch and disposed to go in the right direction. One's inevitable conclusion is that these trials must have a great educative influence, encouraging farmers and working shepherds to train their dogs better, and to make them of more use. The tests imposed at the trials may be beyond the scope of everyday life, but at least those who try to emulate them will be certain to improve their dogs. Increased efficiency means saving of time, and lessens the likelihood of any damage being done to the sheep.

This chat is issued by THE TAIL-WAGGERS' CLUB OF IRELAND, 23, Old Abbey Street (off Marlborough Street), Dublin, C.S. The Club will be pleased to answer any enquiries submitted by Tail-Wagger Owners in connection with canine hygiene and welfare.

LEIX FARMERS AND RATES.

Mr. John Finlay, T.D., presided at a meeting of the committee of the Leix Farmers and Ratepayers' League, which adopted a resolution stating that the vast majority of the farmers had no resources wherewith to pay rates in the current year owing to Government policy, that it was grossly unfair to attempt to exact payment in the circumstances, that when a man had neither capital nor income out of which to pay he could not be expected to run into debt for the purpose of paying, and that, while not advising anyone not to pay who could pay, the League intended making every effort to prevent victimisation of those who could not.

LOW PRICES FOR RAMS.

At the 68th annual sale of breeders' sheep, at Cork, by Messrs. Marsh, auctioneers, the first day was devoted to rams. Both entries and prices were down by one-half as compared with previous years. The top price was 6½ guineas, as compared with 12 to 14 guineas in previous years, and prices went as low as 3½ guineas.

EMMET STREET, DUNGARVAN.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

ASSISTANCE OFFICER RESIGNS.

AMBULANCE DRIVER WANTED.

Mr. M. Curran, Vice-Chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. J. Butler, J. Cosgrave, P. Caulfield, T. Tracey.

Resignation.

Mrs. O'Donnell, Home Assistance Officer, Lismore, wrote resigning the position as from September 3rd, and asking that the Board grant her the highest superannuation allowable.

The Secretary said the salary under this head was £40, with bonus £26 3s. 1d. The Board decided to fix the salary at £65 and do away with the bonus when advertising.

Mr. Butler said he would hand in notice of motion dealing with the superannuation at next meeting.

Home Assistance.

Mr. Phelan, reported the amount of Home Assistance paid out during the month was £3,630 16s; for the preceding month the amount was £3,706 16s. 10d., and for the corresponding month last year £2,727.

Secretary—An increase of over £900 on last year.

Replying to the Chairman, the Secretary stated that the amount given in the city was £1,731 or nearly half the entire amount.

Ambulance Driver.

The Matron Co. Home, Dungarvan, reported that she engaged the services of Wm. Quinn, when the ambulance driver (Thos. Murray) got sick. On the death of Thos. Murray, she retained the services of Wm. Quinn.

Secretary—I suppose you will retain the services of Quinn and issue an advertisement for a driver, the salary was £150 rising to £168.

Replying to Mr. Caulfield, the Secretary said the work was hard, as the hours were very long.

Mr. Caulfield—The Waterford Corporation have a big number of temporary employees. He suggested that the Board carry on with the present temporary driver who is giving satisfaction and not go rushing into an appointment.

Chairman—I will propose that we advertise for an ambulance driver, the salary to be £2 5s. a week and the age limit 18 to 25 years.

Mr. Tracey, seconded.

Mr. Caulfield—What is the present man getting?

Secretary—£2 10s. a week.

Mr. Caulfield—Why is that, why was this man cut 10/-? If I had any say I would leave this man in the job at £3 a week, and make no appointment, but if we are going to advertise the job, it should be at £3, because I know what a 24 hours job on the clock is.

Mr. Tracey—The wage is small at 45/-, it should be at least 50/- or £3.

Chairman—I would agree to 50/- as the job is pensionable we will not give it to a man with half his life spent.

Mr. Caulfield—Referred to the wage and quoted the wages paid to the I.O.C. bus drivers for an 8-hour day £3 13s. a week.

Chairman—You must remember that a big wage would not make a man efficient.

Mr. Butler—As the Chairman remarked a big wage may not make a man efficient, but if you give a wage rising by certain increments it will give a man encouragement. He would suggest a salary of £430 raising by increments of £10 a year until it reach the salary paid to the late driver.

Chairman—You should remember that it is other peoples money we are expending.

Mr. Butler—As long as I am on Public Boards I always remember that without being reminded of it.

Mr. Caulfield, proposed an amendment: "That the Board advertise for an ambulance driver at a salary of £150 a year rising by annual increments of £18."

A vote on the amendment resulted—For—Messrs. Butler, Cosgrave, Caulfield—(3).

Against—Mr. Tracey and the Chairman—(2).

The amendment was declared passed.

Chairman—As this job is pensionable, I propose that we make the age limit 18 to 30 years.

Mr. Cosgrave—Anyone under 21 will not be sanctioned.

Secretary—No.

Mr. Cosgrave—What is wrong with the man over 30?

Mr. Butler—What is wrong with a man over 30 who is rearing a family. No limit should be made, but ask the applicants to state their ages.

Chairman—I intend to hand in notice of motion on this for next meeting.

Secretary—That will then upset what you have done.

Chairman—I don't believe in giving this fabulous sum.

Secretary—You are not increasing the salary; you are reducing it.

It was decided to advertise for a driver for next meeting. Quinn to be kept on temporary until next meeting.
