DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

Mr. J. Butler, Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council. Other members present were—Messrs. J. F. Moloney, M. Griffin, T. McCarthy, W. O'Donnell, T. Power.

ESTIMATE MEETING.

The Chairman said he would like to know if the Rate Collector had closed his warrant and when would they be in a position to have the estimates meeting to strike a rate.

Chairman—In a month.
Mr. Griffin—Will the £300,000 which the Government is giving affect the striking of the rate? Will we get any share?

Chairman—I can't tell you right off. Mr. Moloney—As far as I know it has only to do with agricultural land.

Chairman—There is agricultural land in the urban area. The Clerk could find out from the Co. Council, and if it is the Co. Council Official's opinion that there is nothing coming to the Council, then he can write to the Finance Minister and put the question.

Mr. O'Donnell—In the urban area the rents are high and the rates are extraordinary high. They got no concession. All along they have been looking for derating and it was turned down by the late Government and the present Government. If there is anyone entitled to concessions it is land owners in the borough.

The Council agreed to the Chairman's suggestion.

TENANTS SECURITIES.

Mr. McCarthy drew attention to a security of one of the tenants for a new house at Loughmore, which he was informed was no mark. He thought the security was a good one as he was a man earning £3 10s. a week. If this wasn't a mark who was? The Chairman said it was a matter for the Rent Collector.

Mr. McCarthy then referred to the deposit of £1 4s. which the tenant was obliged to pay. He asked was this money credit for rent. He instanced the position of a man who was out of work for 2 or 3 months and he had no way of paying his rent. Would he get credit for his deposit?

Chairman—The question doesn't arise now. It can be discussed when the houses are ready for occupation.

Mr. McCarthy—I think it is better to speak about it now. I think I am justified in bringing it up.

Chairman—I think you are only complicating the matter now. The question will arise later.

PAYSHEET.

The paysheet passed for the week amounted to £16 7s. 4d.

RATE COLLECTION.

The Rate Collector, Mr. M. O'Meara, reported that he had lodged the full amount of the warrant for the year 1933/34.

Chairman—I don't think that there are many rate collectors able to say that.

Mr. O'Donnell—It's a record.
Mr. Power—I don't suppose that there is another rate collector in the Co. Waterford able to do it.

Chairman—There is great credit due to him and to the ratepayers of the district. There are not many towns in the South that have their rate paid up. It is due to the energy of the rate collector and the willingness of the ratepayers to pay.

LOUGHMORE HOUSING SCHEME.

The Clerk referred to instalments on loans due by the Council, especially to the instalment due to the Commissioner of Public Works on the loan for the Loughmore Housing Scheme. There was a balance of £440 left out of the 1930 Housing Scheme, but in the Clerk's opinion, it couldn't be utilised to pay the instalment.

Mr. Griffin—We built 19 houses instead of 30 then.
Chairman—That £440 would pay the interest on the Loughmore Scheme.

Mr. Moloney—The point amounts to this: there is no other way to use it except for this. It would be going for housing.

Mr. Power—If you had not it you would have to raise it.

Clerk—Personally I believe you couldn't use it. If the Department say you can't use it you can't use it at all. The question is do you want a direction from the Department? You will have a big deficit at the end of the year in the Housing.

The B.S. submitted estimated figures of the deficit assuming that the income for the next nine months would be £380, there would be a deficit of £930.

Mr. Moloney—How much is that in the £?

Clerk—2/6.

Chairman—For the first two years we will get no bounties on the loan.

B.S.—You will have to pay the full 5% per cent.

Mr. Griffin—I never heard of that before.

Mr. Moloney—Let the Clerk explain to the Department that we can see no other use for that £440, except for this.

Mr. Griffin—There are other towns going on with a third scheme. How are they going to meet their demand?
Chairman—They are bigger towns maybe.

Mr. Griffin—Take Bray for instance. Chairman—But what about the valuation of Bray?

B.S.—Houses valued at £10 in Dungarvan would go up to £40 in Bray.
Mr. Moloney—We have more than a dish of our own to wash here.

Chairman—What are you going to do about this £440?
Mr. Moloney—I say use it while we have it.

Chairman—Very well let it be used.
Mr. O'Donnell—I am dissenting from it.

Chairman—We can transfer it from the 1930 Housing Account to the 1933 Housing Account.

Mr. Moloney—That will tide us over for the present at any rate.

In reply to the Chairman, the Clerk said that instalments on loans were paid out of the General Account.

Chairman—It can be done by transfixing it to the general account.
Clerk—It is the only way it can be done.

The Council decided to act on this course.

ENGAGING OF WORKMEN.

Mr. McCarthy said that he heard that two lists of men were given to Mr. Daly, contractor for the sewerage at Loughmore Housing Scheme, one from Mr. McGrath, B.S., and the other from Mr. Moloney. He thought that it wasn't fair. Some time ago it was the express wish of the six members who were at the meeting that he (Mr. McCarthy) would notify Mr. Daly as to the men to be employed.

Mr. McGrath said he gave no list. The contractor (Mr. Daly) came to him with a list given to him by Mr. O'Reilly, of men employed by Mr. O'Reilly in the Housing Scheme. He (Mr. McCarthy) referred Mr. Daly to Mr. O'Reilly.

Mr. Moloney also denied giving a list.
Mr. McCarthy—It is well that the air is cleared.

In reply to Mr. O'Donnell, Mr. McCarthy said he did not give a list either.

Mr. O'Donnell—Well I heard your name too.

Chairman—In the Housing Scheme, there was no interference by members of the Council with the Contractor, with the result that the scheme went on reasonably well. I think if that process were followed it would be all the better. I never mentioned a man and I never will. I find that it is a great ease to my mind.

GRAND BLUESHIRTS' DANCE FOR LISMORE.

A grand dance has been organised by the District Executive of Fine Gael to be held in the Courthouse, Lismore, on next Sunday night, 6th inst.

Elaborate preparations are being made by ladies' committees in Lismore, Cappoquin, and other centres covered by the District Executive and nothing is being left undone by these active members of the organisation to ensure the thorough success of the function.

The two large Halls in the Courthouse have been specially booked for the occasion, and the scheme of decorations inside the building will be the most artistic and elaborate seen in Lismore for a long time.

Special attention is being paid to the preparation of the two dancing floors, and the music will be provided by two high-class Dance Bands.

The catering arrangements will be in the hands of a capable and courteous ladies' Committee, while ample accommodation for the supper-room, cloak-rooms, etc., will be provided by the large number of spacious offices and other apartments in the Courthouse, so that a very large number can be easily catered for under the most comfortable conditions.

The tickets for dance and supper are only 3/- each and a record attendance is expected.

Mrs. Redmond, T.D., and Mr. Nicholas Wall, T.D., as well as other prominent leaders of the Blueshirts organisation, will be present, so that the dance should prove a most brilliant and successful social function in every respect.

MAN'S LONG WALK AT 91.

Mr. G. Barker, London, who is aged 91, walked from his home a distance of about 18 miles.

When asked for his recipe for maintaining his fitness, Mr. Barker said: "I am quite certain that a lot of it is due to the fact that many, many years ago I made my motto 'Don't worry.' I don't worry about anything. Worry is the cause of 99 complaints out of every 100."

SHANDON DAIRY, DUNGARVAN.

PURCHASED BY GOVERNMENT AND HANDED OVER TO DUNGARVAN CO-OPERATIVE CREAMERY.

The long-drawn-out negotiations for the purchase of the Shandon Dairy from Mr. Dunne, by the Dairy Disposals Board of the Government having been completed on Wednesday last, on Thursday morning, Mr. Horgan, representing the Dairy Disposals Board, handed over the key of the Shandon Dairy to Mr. Thomas Flynn, Chairman, Dungarvan Co-Operative Creamery, Ltd., who thereupon entered the premises on behalf of the new owners. Business then continued as usual. Thus passed out of trading, the Shandon Dairy Co., which for upwards of 30 years had had the complete confidence of the farming community of Dungarvan and surrounding districts and whose general proprietor—Mr. Patk. Dunne—was so highly esteemed.

Mr. Horgan, accompanied by Mr. James Daly and Mr. Thos. Flynn, also went to Cappagh, on Thursday morning, when possession of this auxiliary Creamery, was also handed over to Mr. Flynn for the Dungarvan Co-Operative Creamery.

To the rising generation of to-day it may seem that Co. Waterford was teeming with creameries in the past, but the fact is that prior to 1890 we had no creamery in the County of the type we know to-day. At that time Dungarvan had three small creameries, viz.: Stokes at Castle Street, Dunlea at Shandon and Lonsdale at Bridge Street. Watts ran a creamery at Bonmahon with an auxiliary at Leamybrien and Kiersey's creamery operated at Kilmacthomas, while Lonsdale's had several auxiliary creameries in this county from which the cream was sent to their central creamery in Cork for churning, etc. In those days the powerful Central Co-Operative Creameries at Dungarvan, Ballinacult and Kilmearney, with their many auxiliaries did not exist and with their rise to greatness we will deal in another article. To-day we are dealing with the Shandon Dairy Co., which has been acquired by the Dairy Disposals Board of the Government and handed over to the Dungarvan Co-Operative Creamery to be run in conjunction with their present concern.

In 1900 Lonsdale and Co., who were big Butter Factors in England had creameries all over Munster with a Central Creamery at Cork, where all their butter was manufactured. In Co. Waterford their creameries were at Dungarvan, Stradbally, Old Paris, Clashmore, Aglish, Cappagh and Modeligo, and the Inspector who looked after them was Mr. James Daly, afterwards the capable Manager of the Shandon Dairy Co. In 1903 Lonsdale and Co., decided to sell their creameries in this County, and the seven auxiliaries already named were purchased by Mr. Patrick Dunne, from Mr. Daly, who was acting for Lonsdale. Mr. Dunne then finding himself with a number of auxiliary creameries and no Central Creamery, he entered into negotiations with Mr. Dunlea and purchased his creamery. He then started off in business as the Shandon Dairy Co., and from that day until the present moment his story is one of continued success and prosperity. Some 18 years ago he also purchased Mr. Stokes' Creamery at Castle Street, Dungarvan. For some years Mr. Dunne continued all the auxiliaries, but the advent of lorries made it more economical to bring the milk direct to Dungarvan, and so he closed down all outside stations except Cappagh, which was maintained as an auxiliary to the present.

Mr. James Daly was appointed Manager by Mr. Dunne at the start, and his great business capacity was recognised on all sides. Finding that butter-making alone would not be sufficient to enable them to continue as a prosperous concern or at least as prosperous as they would wish to be they added cheese-making to the business and during the Great War they were the largest cheese-making firm in Ireland and were continuously making cheese up to this week. Some years ago a Milk-Drying Plant was added and until last year the Shandon Dairy Co., was the only firm in Ireland engaged in that line. Then the Suir Island Creamery, Clonmel, in conjunction with the Savoy Cocoa Company, entered the market and Mallow Creamery came later.

The Shandon Dairy Co., were in a position to supply the needs of the Free State with dried milk and did so with success. Their products were sold in every area. Prior to the economic war, the firm had established a good hold amongst the Child Welfare Centres in Britain, and were also shippers to South Africa, U.S.A., India and the French Colonies. The tariffs of these countries became prohibitive later. Last year the firm sold over 270 tons of dried milk. The Branis—Dunne's Dried Milk—Dunne-cow Brand for baby food and Dunne's

Malted Milk Food for invalids and adults made from dried milk and malted cereals have become famous in the market for quality and price, and testimonials of their value have been received by the firm in shoals from the medical profession and users.

The firm has ever been a large and generous employer of labour, and at present there are over 40 men in constant employment there. Beginning with five men in 1903, the Shandon Dairy had over 100 men in 1917, but owing to industrial conflicts in subsequent years, and reconstruction, due to economic changes, the number was reduced. For the past 10 years an average of 40 men were regularly employed. Other activities carried on included a Saw Mill, where native timber was worked and converted into butter and cheese boxes, dried milk crates, etc. The Saw Mill also did work for the general public. The tins for the dried milk are made by Irish firms, as also the card board boxes, etc. In fact, everything possible was made by home labour and on merit alone the firm was able to compete with all comers in their manufactures. The firm applied for a tariff on milk foods which was not granted. They were also refused a licence to start a creamery at Lismore, where they had part of the machinery installed.

Had it not been for the restrictions put on the firm in recent years, they would have made much more progress.

Some years ago the Government decided to purchase all Proprietary Creameries in the Free State and succeeded in negotiating terms with most of them. The negotiations of the Dairy Disposals Board of the Government and the Shandon Dairy Co., were protracted, but have now been completed and as from the 3rd inst., the concern passed under the control of the Dungarvan Co-Operative Creamery, who will run it in conjunction with their own firm.

The passing of this great and prosperous firm, so carefully fostered and so brilliantly controlled, needs a word of praise to the men who made it. Mr. Dunne, the general proprietor, is a cool, shrewd business man, of wide vision, and clear reasoning; a generous employer, who spared nothing to make his employees comfortable, a true and sincere friend of all who needed his assistance. He was a man of whom any town should be proud. He filled a large place in the industrial life of our county, and we hope he will be long spared to give the benefit of his advice and sound business theories to his country.

In the management of the concern he had Mr. James Daly, who has proved himself a man of efficiency, ability and sterling worth. A sound Financier and a practical man of business, keen, alert and shrewd, he always took a long vision, and being a good judge of men he was always safe in his commercial undertakings. For 31 years he has managed the Shandon Dairy with conspicuous success and his numerous friends in the social and business world will wish him all prosperity in the years to come.

Mr. M. J. O'Connor, was for years the Manager of the Cappagh Creamery and a most capable and popular official, and good business man he was.

No matter how great and successful a firm may be, it cannot go ahead without a loyal and contented staff. The staff of the Shandon Dairy were only concerned with doing their business right every time. They did and they got there. Both the indoor and outdoor staffs were ever working in perfect unison, and with happy results. Men of the type of Mr. Jack McHugh; Mr. Peter Enderson; Mr. P. Singleton and Mr. Jack Sweeney, you do not find every day, but they were pillars of strength to their firm, and what of Johnny Navin, who as an Engine Driver or lorry man, has no equal?

The Shandon Dairy Co., has passed, but it has left behind it a record of which any firm might be proud—a record of service rendered in a thorough manner and a public confidence on which time had placed no wrinkle—Sic transit gloria mundi.

ENNIS SHOOTING.

INJURED MAN DIES IN HOSPITAL.

James Glynn (27) Ennis, who was shot in Ennis on Sunday night, died in Ennis Hospital.

LOANS FOR THE FARMERS.

The Agricultural Credit Corporation Ltd., are reducing the minimum amount heretofore fixed for their loans. Up to the present they did not issue loans under £30, and usually a charge on land was required as security.

It is now proposed to issue loans of £20 and not exceeding £25 on personal security. Two approved sureties will be necessary, and the loans will be repaid in 3 years. This decision is obviously intended to encourage the Government's tillage scheme.

Waterford Senior Hurlers in Action.

OPENING OF NEW ATHLETIC GROUNDS IN FERMOY.

The formal opening of the New Athletic Grounds in Fermoy, on next Sunday, will be signalled by the playing of two of the best Senior Hurling matches seen in Munster for a long time, when Waterford will meet their old opponents, Tipperary, while Cork and Limerick will also do battle for supremacy on the same excellent pitch. With the four best hurling teams in Munster thus engaged, it will be seen what a wonderfully attractive programme has been arranged for the day, and we have no doubt that thousands of enthusiastic followers of the code from the Co. Waterford will travel to Fermoy on that day to see their brilliant representatives worthily upholding the honour of their county against the doughty hurlers of "Gallant Tipperary."

The contest between Cork and Limerick should also prove a rare "tit-bit," and the two matches should provide some of the finest and most thrilling displays of high-class hurling witnessed for many years.

Fermoy has long suffered from a serious handicap through not having a suitable Athletic Ground in such an important centre, and great credit is now due to the generous and public-spirited action of the sporting people of that town in voluntarily subscribing over £2,000 towards providing an enclosure which is regarded by experts in Gaelic sport, to be one of the best in Munster. The grounds afford a big accommodating capacity, the playing pitch cannot be excelled, and all the requirements that one looks for in an up-to-date sports venue can be found on every side.

Situated practically in the centre of the town, on the site of the old military barracks in Oliver Plunkett St., midway between the Railway Station and The Square, the side-line seats, embankments and terraces surrounding the playing pitch can accommodate over 30,000 people, and all the arrangements are so perfect that a wholly uninterrupted view of the entire arena can be enjoyed with the greatest ease by all.

The catering arrangements for Sunday's big day will be found fully adequate and perfect in every respect, and with special excursion trains at very cheap rates running from almost every part of Munster, next Sunday should certainly prove a "red-letter day" in the sporting annals of Fermoy.

A RARE BIRD IN CAPPOQUIN.

A MIGRANT FROM AFRICA.

While the cuckoo and corncrake are regular visitors to Ireland each year, and have always been regarded as welcome harbingers of summer, Cappoquin has now been favoured with a visit from a much rarer specimen of bird from more sunny southern climes, this being a Hoopoe, one of which had not been seen in the district for the past 30 years, when a fine specimen was found at Dromana, three miles from Cappoquin. An eminent authority on Natural History describes the bird as follows:—"The Common or European Hoopoe (Upupa Epops) is an elegant bird inhabiting the warmer and temperate parts of the old Continent, and migrating occasionally to the British Islands.

It is about the size of a thrush, but is easily distinguished from it by its head being ornamented with a handsome crest, composed of cinnamon-coloured feathers of unequal lengths, having a white bar and black tips, which it can expand and depress at pleasure.

Its bill is also much longer and more slender, and its feet much shorter. The colour of the head, neck and body is pale ferruginous, darkest on the back and shoulders; the wings and tail are black, the former crossed by five white bars, the latter crossed in the middle by a white crescent.

The Hoopoe feeds on various grubs, worms, etc., hence it follows the retreat of the Nile in Egypt, whose neighbouring plains swarm with insect life, and it also frequents ploughed lands and pasture grounds, like crows.

It is more abundant on the Continent of Europe than in Britain, but its sojourn in temperate climates is but short, its arrival from warmer regions being late in the year, and its departure early.

This migration, however, is not universal, since it is observed that great numbers of these birds are constantly found about the towns and villages of Egypt, becoming very familiar with man, and building their nests in the immediate vicinity of his habitations. The flight of the Hoopoe is rather slow and undulating, and it seldom alights on trees. The name of the bird seems to be derived from its continually uttering in soft and rapid tones a peculiar sound resembling hoop, hoop, hoop."

The bird in the Cappoquin district is usually seen in the locality around Kilmacthomas, and frequently visits the railway line and embankment in search of its favourite food.

It is quite tame, and seems little perturbed by the approach of man and as a result large numbers of the townspeople visit the place daily to see it and admire its beautiful plumage, which could be seen at its best during the brilliant sunshine in the early days of this week.

Its visit is locally regarded as an indication of a warm summer, and we trust that very few will be disappointed in this respect.

KILMACTHOMAS NEWS.

G. A. A.
On last Sunday a pretty large crowd eyed an excellent exhibition of hurling in lovely spring weather at Leamybrien (The field for the fray was kindly provided by Mr. T. Boyle, and the local Gaels had everything in apple-pie order). Mr. Sean Ormond, N.T., had charge of the clash. The minor fifteen of Dungarvan and Kilmacthomas farmed the line-out, and the bout began sharp to scheduled time. The match opened at a fast pace. "Pull on the ball" was immediately the order of the day, and it was early evident that the game was going to be an exciting one. And truly it was a battle royal for supremacy all the way. Here are the figures of the first moiety of the mix:—Kilmacthomas—5 goals, 1 free, 5 overs; Dungarvan—3 goals, 3 frees, 7 overs, 1 seventy. Figures of the second half:—Kilmacthomas—3 goals, 1 free, 12 overs, 1 seventy; Dungarvan—1 goal 1 point, 4 frees, 9 overs, 3 seventies. Total scores of the set-to:—Kilmacthomas 8-0; Dungarvan 4-1. Both bunches gave of their very best, and though Kilmac, who were the heavier side, deserved victory for their keen tackling and hard pulling, the palm passes to the losers as being the more stylish hurlers. In Larry Veale (the smallest player on his side) Kilmac have a star forward, who proved a real terror to the Old Boro defence. M. Downey, in goal, staved off several Old Boro "bullets," and N. Flynn, J. Bluet, P. Burke, W. Wall, and P. Troy, also shone for the victors. Undoubtedly, it was a very good match, played in a fine sporting spirit. The players were listed as follows:—Kilmacthomas—M. Downey, M. Power, R. Walsh, T. McCarthy, N. Flynn, F. Troy, S. Troy, T. Kirwan, D. Kirwan, E. Morrissey, L. Veale, W. Wall, J. Bluet, P. Burke, J. Maye.

Dungarvan—P. Cullinane, J. J. Morrissey, J. Rensh, B. Lanigan, E. Power, M. Lenders, T. Ryan, P. Barry, J. Walters, T. Quinn, M. Donnelly, M. Fraher, J. Glanville, E. Monahan, W. Morrissey.

As Eire Og (Dungarvan) failed to face Kilmacthomas in their junior football championship tie, the match was awarded to the home team.

CLOCKOLOGY!

Kilmacthomas is keeping official time, of course. We imagine that there are upwards of one hundred clocks in the Deme. Most of these indicate the time silently, but several mark the hours and quarters by striking or chiming. The most familiar clocks in our midst are those of the Post Office, the Provincial Bank, the Ulster Bank, the National Bank and the Station House. Things go wrong even with the best of time-pieces, but the house clocks here all function appreciably, and although they go on tick, they rarely go on strike; The vast majority takes some 15 or 20 turns to wind.

SOME LOCAL PRICES.

Meal, 18/- per sack; flour, 14/- per half-sack; bran, 7/9 per cwt.; pollard, 7/- per do.; Presto, 9/9 per bag; eggs, 6d. per dozen; farmers' butter (salted) 11d. per lb (wholesale).

FRESH BUTTER MARKET.

Kilmacthomas fresh butter market reopened on Thursday of this week. We are glad to note that the buyers include Mr. P. O'Mahony, O'Connell street, Dungarvan, who has been buying fresh butter at Mr. Percy Kirwan's premises in the Main street, for more than a decade of years. Mr. O'Mahony's personality makes him a favourite with all classes, young and old, as his sincerity of disposition and charm of manner never fails to touch a responsive chord in the hearts of everybody with whom he comes in contact; while in his business capacity he has made firm friendships the whole wide countryside over. We welcome his presence at our weekly butter market again during this season.

BUS CRASH.

Sixteen people were injured, seven of whom were removed to Cork Hospital in a collision between two buses, which took place at the Pike, near Mallow, on Sunday.

The bird in the Cappoquin district is usually seen in the locality around Kilmacthomas, and frequently visits the railway line and embankment in search of its favourite food.

It is quite tame, and seems little perturbed by the approach of man and as a result large numbers of the townspeople visit the place daily to see it and admire its beautiful plumage, which could be seen at its best during the brilliant sunshine in the early days of this week.

Its visit is locally regarded as an indication of a warm summer, and we trust that very few will be disappointed in this respect.

U. I. P.

MEETING AT CLASHMORE. IMPORTANT ADDRESSES.

Under the auspices of U.I.P. a successful meeting was held at Clashmore, on Sunday, and addressed by Mrs. Redmond, T.D., and Messrs. R. Curran, and N. Wall, T.D.s. and local speakers.

There was an imposing display of Blue Shirts and blue blouses, who paraded the village before and after the meeting. A large number of Civic Guards were on duty at various points, but no occasion arose for their intervention, although a small section kept shouting party cries during the proceedings.

A number of representative men from all the surrounding districts were present, and amongst the local farmers on the platform were—Messrs. J. Ward, G. Kennedy, J. Hannan, M. Foley, T. Coughlan, T. Beresford, W. Curran, J. Flavin, M. O'Brien, etc.

Rev. P. Walsh, C.C., who presided, referred briefly to the plight of the farming community and of the country in general as a consequence, and appealed to the people to organise if they wanted to save themselves and the country (a voice "Who shot Kinane." "Up Dev.") He knew decent labourers who had only a few weeks employment in 6 months. If the present trend of events continued there would be no employment for the labourers in the country districts in the near future.

MRS. REDMOND, T.D.

Mrs. Redmond, who was very warmly received, apologised for her inability to come to Clashmore before that. She and her colleagues were there to state the policy of their party. The people were told over and over that the country was prosperous, while all the time it was going down the hill fast to bankruptcy. There was no getting away from that positive fact and the people, themselves, knew it. It was brought about solely by the insane policy of the present Government cutting them out of the British market, into which many other countries, governed by leaders of common sense were trying to get. She said deliberately that their whole future prosperity depended on sensible co-operation with Great Britain. All the attempts at arguments to the contrary was mere eye wash. They were sick and tired of hearing of the economic war, which they were told they must fight to a finish—to finish themselves. They were going to starve the British nation! Whoever heard such humbug! They were told that the English people couldn't afford to buy Irish meat. Another downright falsehood. And then they were to derive consolation from the fact that there was depression in other parts of the world. The present serious depression in the Free State was brought about largely by that unfortunate dispute with Great Britain—retaining money legally due to bondholders who advanced it to enable the Irish farmer to purchase his land. At the two previous elections the people were told that the annuities wouldn't be paid to England and that the Irish farmer would reap the benefit. What was the result? The English market was almost closed to the Irish farmer, who consequently had to pay the annuities twice over. Again they were told Ireland was to be self-supporting, but was it? The actual result was that the farmer was being pauperised, and in turn every other section of the community. And still they had people amongst them foolish enough to be carried away with catch cries of "Up this and that," which the British farmer had good reason to echo for they were doing good work for them ("Up Dev."). Yes, it was "Up Dev." which meant "Down Ireland," (hear, hear). If the present Government was to carry on much longer, did any sane man among them believe that the farmers could afford to pay their labourers? They heard a lot of silly talk about the Government giving money for this and that and the other scheme. Who provided the money. Was it not the rate and taxpayers, a large share coming from the farmers. Let them not forget it, when the farmer ran short everyone else would go short too. The fight for the Irish tenants' rights had been waged for generations, and finally won. Now it would seem that they will have to begin all over again. Those who said that the country wasn't prosperous were denounced as pessimists, but the plain fact was that after two years of Fianna Fail Government, the majority found themselves unable to meet their lawful liabilities. Their party never advocated the non-payment of rates or annuities. The present unfortunate state of things was brought about by their means of livelihood being taken from them and now they were once more up against the battering ram and the bailiff. The people of Clashmore wouldn't, she believed, be carried away by irresponsible youngsters shouting "Up Dev." or rainbow chasing after a Republic, which the Government didn't want, but which they used to gull the foolish youth in the country. As regards the "rancher," cry, she only wished they had more money to spend on the people. They heard volumes about all the present Government was doing for the unemployed. She sympathised with the unemployed, but they should realise that if the policy of the present Government was carried on 3 or 4 years more there would be no money for them. The farmers capacity to pay was ever growing less and as for living on capital—where was the capital to live on? The farmers were told they had too much stock—what arrant nonsense! But because the English market had been taken from them they must slaughter their calves. The policy of the U.I.P. was small and simple—to endeavour to establish a better relationship with Great Britain, upon which the salvation of the farming community and everyone else depended. That wasn't pessimism or pro-British, but pro-Irish and pro-commonsense. They wanted fair play for everyone, not law for one and no law for another. That was the policy handed down by a great Irishman, Parnell, and they ought carry it out. Some present day patriots tried to intimidate those who differed with them. Intimidation was the weapon of the coward, who only attacked when he had a hundred to one on his side. She hoped there were no cowards in Clashmore. Only last night in Waterford one young man was attacked by a pack of bullies, concluding, she appealed to every decent, sane person amongst them to join the League of Youth and the U.I.P., and thereby help to put an end to the present wave of political insanity and terrorism.

MR. R. CURRAN, T.D.

Mr. Curran (a Clashmore man) was well received. Opening his remarks by hitting out in telling style against the young interrupters, he said all these shouts of "Up Dev." wouldn't put a bite of bread in the hungry man's mouth. Those crying for unity now were its greatest enemies in the past and present. It was high time people talked commonsense and acted accordingly. The whole policy of the Fianna Fail Government which got into power by fine but foolish promises, incapable of fulfilment, was bolstered by wholesale falsehood. The principal asset of the country, farming, had depreciated 60 per cent. Fianna Fail boasted about the progress of factories. Coming there that day he passed hundreds of factories that were being driven to bankruptcy—for wasn't every farm in the country a factory? ("Up Dev.") Those silly cries wouldn't help to solve Ireland's difficulties, and Mr. de Valera would never settle them. He had rejected the Treaty made with England and ratified by the Irish people; he turned down the proposed Ottawa agreement, and running true to form he treated in like manner a conference, with Cardinal MacRory at its head, suggested by one of his own supporters, Mr. Rice, and it was safe to assume he would run true to form to the death. There in that agricultural County of Waterford they were represented, or misrepresented by a retired shop-keeper and a solicitor, from somewhere or other. That shouldn't be the case and the people in their own best interests should work to return men that would know their requirements and look after their welfare. There was only one man governing the Free State now—Mr. de Valera, a dictator in fact, if not in name. The country had given Fianna Fail the chance they asked for, but after their experience of their regime, he believed the sane and decent amongst them had more than enough of it, and he appealed to them all, the young people especially to join up and put the present Government out. That Government was in the position of the farmer, who instead of minding number one, ran round to races, spent recklessly and finally ruined himself and his family. He made a strong appeal to the labourers (A voice—What about the 5/- a week man?) The 5/- a week man was merely one of the results of Fianna Fail misgovernment, and Dr. Ryan told them, that if the farmers didn't pay their annuities he would divide up their lands between Micheen This, Pauden That and Toméen the other (loud laughter). Concluding, he congratulated the Blue Shirts and Blouses on their fine turnout there that day. Were it not for the A.C.A. in the first place and then the Blue Shirts, he wouldn't be there that day, nor would they either (applause).

MR. N. WALL, T.D.

Mr. Wall said he didn't come there to attack any party unfairly. It was no satisfaction to him or to anybody genuinely interested in the country to find that the Fianna Fail Government had been a complete failure. He believed in appealing to what was best in the people, not to their worst, and in doing or saying nothing to perpetuate the unfortunate bitterness so prevalent that day. Let the people try to be truly patriotic and not be content with shouting "Up Dev." or "Up O'Duffy." Those political catchcries weren't worth a snap of the finger. (The speaker here dealt at length with the financial situation as affected by the loss of the British market, giving figures in support of his arguments.) They had been told by Fianna Fail and its supporters that everything would be all right, that if they lost the British market, alternatives would be provided. But they all knew how that promise, like all the others made by Fianna Fail before the elections, panned out in the end. As regards industrial development, where was the good of it if the purchasing power of the people was to be brought down almost to vanishing point? For that was what was happening. The Fianna Fail Government was fast rushing the principal industry of the country to bankruptcy. The Fianna Fail Government had brought home to the English people the fact that they could bottle them up, financially as well as otherwise. Dealing with the question of doles of money and milk, he denounced the system a most contemptible way of running the country into demoralisation. Concluding, he appealed to them all not to copy the tactics of their opponents in their use of force, but to act as true self-respecting Irishmen and women should.

A cordial vote of thanks to the Rev. Chairman, on the proposition of Mr. Curran, seconded by Mrs. Redmond, brought the proceedings to a close.

CAPPOQUIN DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

ORDER TO ENTER QUARRY.

Mr. Bowen, Co. Surveyor, Waterford, applied for an order to enter the quarry of Mr. James Tybin, Quarter, Cappoquin, for the purpose of quarrying stones for the public road in that district.

Mr. F. Power, solr., (Messrs. Dobblyn and McCoy, Waterford), appeared for the Waterford Co. Council, but there was no appearance on behalf of defendant.

Mr. Bowen explained that the quarry in question was the only suitable and convenient one in the district, as the only alternative one was in Kilibree, which would be too far away. He added that while the members of Mr. Tobin's family were quite agreeable to allow him to enter this quarry, their father would not give his consent, and it was, therefore, necessary to apply for an order from the Court each year.

The Justice asked for what period was the order required, and Mr. Bowen said until March, 31st 1935.

Having heard further evidence, the Justice granted the necessary order, with costs.

Petrol Licence.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, applied for a renewal of the licence held by the Irish Shell Co., Dublin, for the storage of petrol in the yard of Walsh's Hotel, Cappoquin and there being no objection on the part of the Guards, the application was granted.

Unlicensed Lorry.

Sergt. O'Mahony, Villierstown, summoned John Collins, North Main Street, Youghal, for using an untaxed motor lorry at Villierstown on April, 13th.

The Justice said he had a letter from the defendant explaining that the granting of the licence in this case had been delayed through the Insurance Co., and as the tax had now been fully paid up, he thought the mitigated fine of 2/6 would meet the case.

Unlicensed Motor Car.

Sergt. Rochford, Cappoquin, summoned Jeremiah Brick, Cappoquin, for using an untaxed motor car in Cappoquin on January, 11th. Defendant's sister appeared and said her brother had now gone to reside in Kerry, where he belonged to. He had a licence for the car from October to the end of December, 1933 and only took out the car on one occasion in January, and it was since lying idle in Cappoquin.

The Justice imposed a mitigated fine of 5/-, and on a second charge for having failed to display his licence, he marked the case "D.W.P."

No Lights.

Guard Coyle, Villierstown, summoned Michael Crowley, Dromore, Aghlish, for cycling without a light. Fined 1/6.

Do. v. Patk. Keating, do., same offence. Fined 1/6.

Do. v. Patk. Lyons, same offence. "D.W.P."

Guard J. O'Mahony, Cappoquin, v. John Greehy, Ballinwilling, Cappoquin, same offence. Fined 2/6.

Do. v. James O'Donnell, Tourin, same offence. Fined 1/6.

Guard Teehan, Cappoquin, v. John Phelan, Knocknaskea, same offence. Fined 1/6.

Guard Moloney, Cappoquin, v. John O'Brien, Woodlands, Lismore, same offence. Fined 2/6.

This completed the business of the Court.

SEVENTY-THREE YEARS A NUN.

C.Y.M.S. Cappoquin

SUCCESSFUL WHIST DRIVE.

The last Whist Drive of the season to be held in Cappoquin was held in aid of the funds of the C.Y.M.S. in the Society's Hall in Mill street, on Sunday 22nd ult., and proved one of the most interesting and enjoyable functions organised by this flourishing Society for a long time.

While the support accorded the event by the people of the town was fairly generous, it fell far short of what it should have been in a strongly Catholic centre like Cappoquin, but the people of Lismore, Dungarvan and other districts attended in large numbers and more than atoned for the difference shown by the local people in supporting such a worthy and deserving object.

The organising of the event was in the capable hands of Messrs. M. J. Sargent, Vice-President, and J. P. Olden, Hon. Sec., under the direction of the Rev. J. Rea, C.C., the zealous and popular Spiritual Director of the Society, and all the arrangements were admirably carried out by these gentlemen, ably assisted by Messrs. R. J. Collender, President; P. Cahill, Treas.; J. Singleton, J. V. Conway, J. F. Crowe, M. J. Walsh, and other members of the Society, so that everything was carried out without the slightest hitch, and the proceedings were thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

At the conclusion of the Drive teas and choice confectionery were served out to all the players by a most courteous and hospitable committee of local ladies, including Mrs. E. Collender, Mrs. J. V. Conway, Mrs. Ivy Crowe, Miss M. Kerfoot, Miss Gracie Walsh, and Miss Margaret Cahill, which were greatly appreciated by all, while a further pleasing feature was the introduction of a number of high-class vocal items by well-known artists from Cappoquin and Lismore which helped to make the event a grand social function in every sense of the word.

Miss Bridie Crotty, Cappoquin, captivated the hearts of all by her soulful and artistic singing of "The Coulin" for which she received a most enthusiastic encore, while Mrs. Ivy Crowe, the accomplished Cappoquin Soprano, sang "Bonny Mary of Argyle" in such a sweet and appealing manner that she had to respond to a most insistent encore when she sang "Memories" in such a finished and musical style as stamped her as a singer of rare vocal ability and charm. Mr. "Jack" Fogarty, Lismore, "brought down the house" by his effective rendering of a humorous parody on "Bonny Mary of Argyle," and all present were grievously disappointed when he did not respond to the loud and deserved encore which he received for his popular and laughter-provoking contribution. Another talented singer from Lismore, who prefers to remain anonymous, created a great impression by his cultured and tuneful singing of a difficult classical song, and in response to a richly-merited encore he sang a highly-humorous song, entitled "The Egg," which proved him to be a concert artist of outstanding merit, and for which he was again very warmly encored.

The piano accompaniments in all cases were brilliantly played at short notice by Mr. John Regan, Junr., Cappoquin, and added greatly to the success of the vocal items, at the conclusion of which the prize-winners in the Whist Drive were announced as follows:—Ladies' Class—First Prize, (A valuable Silk Bedspread), Miss Esther Mansfield, Cappoquin; second (Manicure Set and Picture), Miss L. Lacey, Cappoquin; third, (A lady's Silk Cardigan), Miss Lizzie Olden, Cappoquin; special prize, (A Bag of Flour), Mrs. Helena Ryan, Cappoquin; number prize, (A Leg of Mutton), Mrs. J. V. Conway, Cappoquin.

Gentlemen's Class—First prize, (A valuable Suit Length), Mr. "Monnie" Hogan, Dungarvan; second, (A Case of Spoons), Mr. J. McCarthy, B.A., H.B.Dip., Cappoquin; third, (a turkey), Mr. Michael Lawless, Cappoquin; special prize, (a bottle of Port Wine), Master Willie Sargent, Cappoquin; number prize (large box of cigarettes) Rev. Brother Mullan, Lismore.

In a grand drawing for three cash prizes, for which tickets had been sold at 3d. each, the winners were as follows:—First, Mrs. H. Greehy, Main street, Lismore; second, Mr. E. Sweeney, Tourin, Cappoquin; third, Mr. J. Duggan, Davis street, Dungarvan.

Mr. R. J. Collender, President of the Society, acted as M.C., and proved a most courteous and efficient gentleman in this capacity, whose invaluable services contributed largely to the enjoyment and success of the function. At the close of the proceedings the prizes were graciously distributed to the lucky winners by the Rev. Father Rea, Spiritual Director, after which he warmly thanked all those who had so kindly attended on that night, and thus helped to make the Whist Drive such a great financial and social success. He particularly thanked the large number of supporters who had so kindly come from Lismore, but, then, didn't the people of Cappoquin generously support the last Whist Drive held in Lismore, so he could expect nothing else from the people of that town on this occasion (laughter). His thanks were due in a special manner to those who had come the longer journey from Dungarvan, but the "Old Boro" was always to the fore in supporting every worthy object, and it was grand to see such a fine spirit of loyalty and friendship prevailing amongst the good people of the three towns. He warmly complimented the various prize-winners on their good

Dungarvan Cow Testing Association.

SUPERVISOR'S REPORT.

Mr. D. Dempsey, presided at the annual meeting of the above which was held on the 28th April.

Mr. T. Smith, Supervisor, submitted the following report as to the working of the Association during the year 1933:— I beg to submit my report regarding the working of your Association during the year ended 31st December 1933. During that period 247 cows were under test, and complete records are available for 229.

The average yield per cow was 5,770 lbs. of milk; 216.48 lbs. of butter-fat, with an average butter-fat test of 3.76 per cent. Compared with 1932 there has been a decrease in the average yield of 530 lbs. of milk and 23.40 lbs. of butter-fat. This decrease can be attributed to two causes—(1) the abnormal dry season which prevailed in 1933 with a consequent serious effect on pasture; (2) owing to the depressed condition of Agriculture in general, members who fed Balanced Rations in previous years were unable to continue to do so.

At 1/- per lb for butter-fat and 1d. per gallon for separated milk, the average earning capacity of each cow was £12 14s. 9d. The average yield of the five best cows in the Association was 9,888 lbs. of milk, giving 376.73 lbs. of butter-fat, with an average butter-fat test of 3.66 per cent. Mr. Michael Ryan, the Buttery, Dungarvan, had again the highest yielding cow in the Association, this cow, a ten year old Friesian, yielded 11,063 lbs. of milk, giving 404.90 lbs. of butter-fat. The Christian Brothers herd had again the highest average milk yield in the Association with 7,790 lbs. In connection with butter-fat tests, the herd of Mrs. Carroll, Lacken Lodge, Dungarvan, comprising 24 cows, had the high average butter-fat test of 4.08 per cent.

Taking the analysis of all cows tested during the year, two gave over 4,000 gallons of milk; seven gave between 900 and 1,000 gallons; 13 between 800 and 900 gallons; 29 between 700 and 800 gallons; 46 between 600 and 700 gallons; 50 between 500 and 600 gallons; 45 between 400 and 500 gallons and 36 milked less than 400 gallons.

Now it can be certainly taken that these 36 cows, yielding less than 400 gallons each, were definitely kept at a loss to their owners. At least, such of these cows as have completed their second lactation period, should be immediately eliminated, their continued retention in any herd is a serious obstacle to any member with a genuine desire to increase his average milk yields. This is all the more necessary at the present time, when the state of the beef market makes it imperative on the farmer to concentrate more on higher milk production.

Seven cows were put forward for inspection in 1933, and of these six were accepted and placed on the Department's Register of Dairy Cattle. 1,198 milk samples were taken and tested during the year, and 134 visits were paid to members herds for the purpose of taking samples and checking milk weighings. 28 calves were tattooed during the year, this number is a record for the Association, but there is still room for improvement in view of the large number of Registered cows and approved Bulls in the Association.

Three Premiums were awarded to members for their exhibits at Bull Sales and Shows during the year, Mr. John Hennessy, Killosera, again securing two Premiums and Mr. Patrick Flynn, Ballymacmaigue, one. Mr. Hennessy is to be congratulated on his continued successes at Bull Sales and Shows. During the present year his half-bred exhibit at the Cork Sale and Show was first in his class and Reserve Champion for the Cup, while at the recent Mallow Show another half-bred exhibit also secured first place in his class and reserve champion of the Show.

Notwithstanding the disheartening condition of things that prevailed during the year, milk weighings, were on the whole, carried out satisfactorily. There has been no apparent loss of interest or enthusiasm on the part of the members, and the fact that we entered 1934 with an increased membership is a happy augury for the future.

I wish, in concluding, to thank the President, Members, and Cow-Testing Instructor for the help and courtesy which they have always extended to me.

The report was unanimously affirmed and following a lengthy discussion on the Dairying Industry, the meeting ended.

600-YEARS-OLD IRISH BRIDGE.

The concreting of the Old Bridge, Carrick-on-Suir, recalls the fact that the bridge was built in 1345 for use of the Friars at Carrickbeg and that Cromwell and his troops crossed it on their way to Waterford in 1649.

Mr. Edward Doolin (50), a well-known Waterford pig buyer, travelling to Thurles market, took ill in the train at Kilsheelan. Leaving the train at Clonmel he collapsed on the platform and died soon after removal to hospital.

luck and thanked the donors of the prizes, and wished them all "Good-Night" and a safe journey home. (loud applause).

The Value of Agricultural Shows

Agricultural Shows, generally speaking, may be said to have two distinct values, the first and more important being educational, and the other commercial. In their earlier history the educational aspect only was considered, it being deemed infra dig. to countenance in any way the other element. Fortunately, or unfortunately, we are now living in a great commercial age, where values are, more or less, assessed in terms of pounds, shillings and pence. As a consequence of this indisputable fact the danger that the present generation may ignore the lessons of the past and fail to estimate properly the value of Agricultural Shows, from the educational point of view, in the economic development of a country.

A country without its agricultural shows must indeed be in a poor way, and nothing great is expected of it no matter how great its resources or however good its prospects. Happily the exception proves the rule in this particular connection, because all progressive countries recognise the necessity of such exhibitions, if for no other reason than their own glorification.

Knowledge can only come by education and education, to be effective, is only possible in certain conditions; one of the essentials being, as far as agriculture is concerned, the opportunity afforded by the modern showyard, where the principle of example being better than precept is demonstrated, and where comparisons are not odious. As a rule, the majority of visitors at agricultural shows are merely sightseers, who have little interest in the exhibits, and who, therefore, cannot possibly understand or appreciate their educational value; but for those who do understand and are anxious to improve their knowledge, there is much to learn in the showyard, and perhaps a great deal more to unlearn or forget. Old prejudices and practices usually die hard, because "where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise." Science may dissipate the grand illusion, but unless the wisecracks are afforded an opportunity of seeing better things, and have a sense to grasp it, there is no hope for their salvation.

A knowledge of the laws of nature is a necessary preliminary to the acquisition of that further knowledge which the modern showyard affords to the progressive farmer, who must study the immutable laws of cause and effect in their application to husbandry. The showyard is the only place to stimulate the desire that must necessarily precede the accomplishment of better things. If a farmer confines himself to the circumscribed area of his own neighbourhood he cannot possibly acquire the incentive to enable him to make that headway which is essential to success. Agricultural societies provide the ways and means for educating the farmer, and it is up to him to take all the advantage he can of such opportunities to increase his fund of knowledge, which, in time, will materially augment the other funds that are so necessary to the success of all farming operations.

The commercial value of agricultural shows is a great asset in itself, and it is very doubtful whether the larger events would be the success they are if this element were eliminated.

Auction sales of cattle, etc., at shows assure breeders that the intrinsic value of their products will be fairly assessed, while the opportunity is always there, when the animals are in the ring, of seeing what is most in demand. The great exhibitions of agricultural implements and machinery are, in themselves, a revelation of the progress of the times. The commercial possibilities of these show attractions are tremendous. New implements and improvements in all sorts of labour-saving appliances are now so rapid that one is left wondering what will be evolved in the near future. So long, however, as the demand is there, so long may a succession of these wonders be expected, and the farmer who would keep abreast of the times must recognise the value of these exhibitions.

Science plays a very important part in the evolution of farming methods generally, even more so now than at any other period in the world's history. Education is rapidly destroying the old preconceived ideas, but the trouble is that in certain districts theories and practices still continue that not only cannot make for efficiency, but actually hinder progress. The agricultural Press is an important factor in disseminating information that is essential to the attainment of a higher level of thought, whilst the showyard may be regarded as the natural complement of such education. Hence it is that agricultural shows, if conducted on proper, up-to-date lines, must necessarily grow in importance and ultimately justify all reasonable expectations.—L. in "Farmers' Gazette."

ATTACKED BY A COW.

John Boyle, (50) a Co. Louth farmer, was seriously injured when he was gored by a cow which he had been milking. Boyle, who is about 50 years of age, was accompanied by a dog. The cow attacked the dog, and then attacked the farmer, injuring several of his ribs before being driven off.

ROSE THORN DEATH.

Mrs. Rosina Smith, Thornton Heath, pricked her finger with a rose thorn in her garden. Three days later she developed blood poisoning and died.

Custody Cases at Youghal

At Youghal Court, before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J., Patrick Barrett, Bovernascrib, farmer, was charged in custody with having a revolver in his possession or under his control, with intent to endanger life or cause serious injury to property.

Supt. Brady, Fermoy, prosecuted, and Mr. T. Linehan, solr., appeared for the accused.

Detective Inspector Diggins, Union Quay, Cork, deposed he arrested the accused at Fermoy and charged him with having the gun in his possession on April 17th at Ballycough and other places. Having charged and cautioned him, he said: "I am innocent." Witness asked for a remand in custody for 14 days or sooner to enable him to complete inquiries connecting accused with the charge.

Mr. Linehan did not cross-examine. John O'Connell, Lisle, farmer, was charged with a similar offence.

Inspector Diggins made a deposition similar to that in the previous case, and applied for a like remand. When charged and cautioned he said: "Not guilty, sir."

CHARGE OF CONSPIRACY.

Patrick Quinlan, Labbycarthy, Glanworth, farmer, was charged in custody with conspiracy.

Supt. Brady, Fermoy, deposed that on that morning he arrested the accused on a warrant (handed in) and charged him with that he did on divers dates between 1st January, 1934, and 18 April unlawfully conspire with one John Fitzgibbon, Glenahulla, Mitchelstown, and with other persons unknown to commit an offence punishable by law, viz., to assault and imprison one, William Dwane, of Ballycough, Co. Cork, and in pursuance of such conspiracy the said William Dwane on 17th April at Ballycough and other places was unlawfully assaulted, and then unlawfully and injuriously imprisoned and detained for about two hours against his will. Witness gave him the usual legal caution, and he made no statement. Witness applied to have him remanded in custody for 14 days or sooner, when he expected to have evidence to connect him with the charge.

Mr. T. P. O'Keefe, solr., Mitchelstown, who appeared for accused, did not cross-examine.

Mr. Linehan applied for bails in the cases of Barrett and O'Connell. They had been detained at Mallow on Tuesday morning and had since been detained in Cork.

The Justice—The only evidence before me is that they were arrested at Fermoy.

Mr. Linehan said he was prepared to offer substantial bails. O'Connell was a big farmer, with nobody but his mother at home. Barrett's father was an invalid, and he and his sisters worked the place.

The Superintendent said he was instructed to strongly oppose bail on this occasion, as it was the first application of the kind for remand. The charge was serious—a felony—and it had a political significance.

The Justice—I won't consider that. I don't think anything of that nature should be mentioned to me. I am only concerned with the charge before me. The Superintendent said he believed the granting of bail would hamper the course of justice by witnesses being interfered with.

They were both remanded in custody for 14 days.

In the case against Quinlan, the Superintendent said he was instructed to formally oppose bail also, on the same grounds.

The Justice—This is only a misdemeanour, and I think he is entitled to bail in that case.

Mr. O'Keefe suggested that the court accept the man's own bail. It would be difficult to get bails there. Accused was a very substantial farmer, and owner of his own place.

The Justice allowed Quinlan out on his own bail of £100. In the other cases, if there was a question of a further remand, he would consider the question of bail.

WATERFORD CO. COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE.

Mr. N. Fitzgerald, Chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. T. Flynn, W. Stack, and M. McGrath. The Department wrote stating that eleven additional premium Boars would be available of which one had been allocated to the Co. Waterford. That was from the Bacon Curers' Fund.

Secretary—We got two last year. Mr. Flynn—What is wrong? There are no pigs at all in the country.

Chairman—They were very low two time last year. The Department wrote sanctioning the appointment of Mr. P. McEneaney, as Agricultural Instructor for the County.

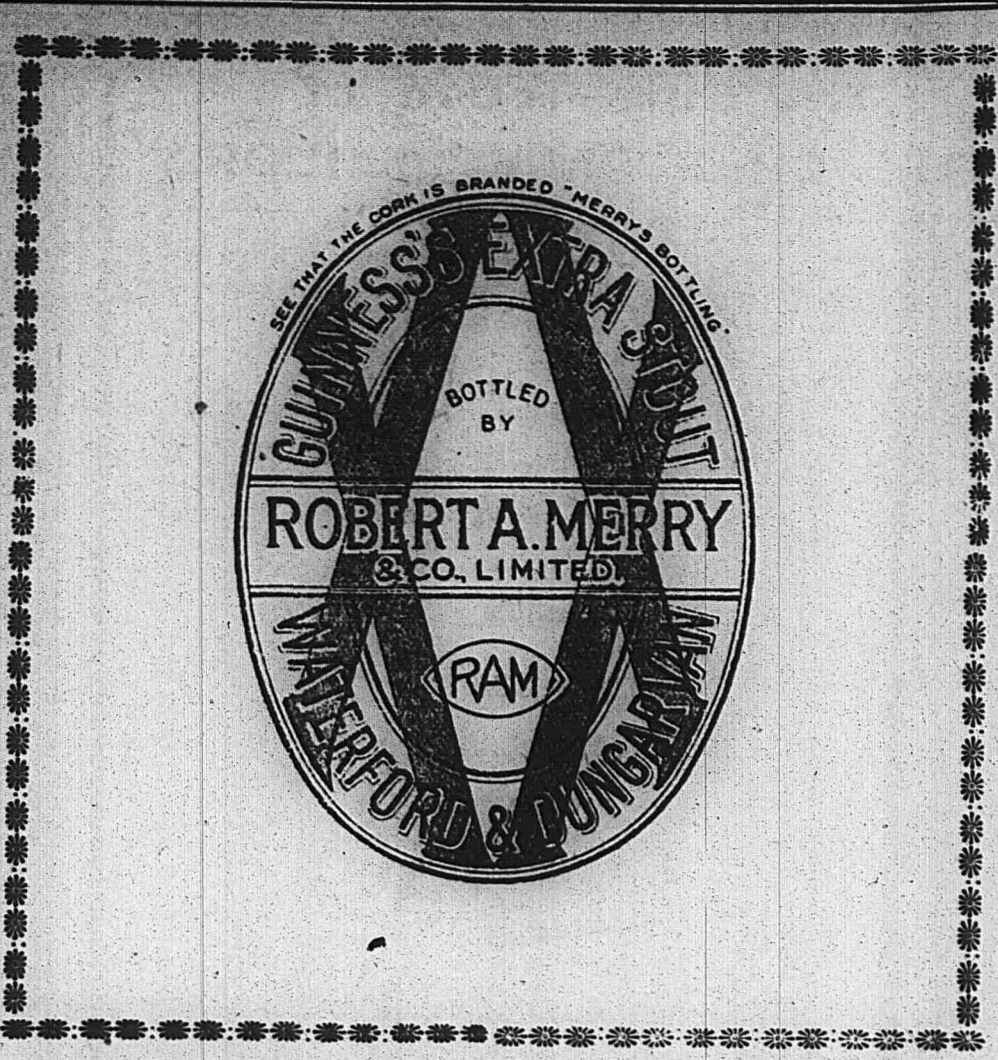

The Committee passed a resolution asking the Department to fix Mr. McEneaney's salary on the basis of his length of service with the Department as per their regulations.

Lime Scheme.

In connection with the Lime Scheme proposed by the Department of Agriculture, the Secretary said the details of the scheme would be discussed with the Minister in Dublin during the coming week at which all County Secretaries would be present.

Satisfactory.

The wedding took place at St. Mary's Church, Drogheda, of Mr. Edward Napier Perceval-Maxwell, late of the Rifle Brigade, son of Mr. H. Perceval-Maxwell and the late Mrs. Perceval-Maxwell, Moore Hill, Tallow, and Miss Daphne Lelia Coddington, daughter of Capt. and Mrs. Coddington, Old Bridge, Drogheda. Very Rev. T. R. Brunskill, officiated, assisted by Rev. J. P. Balfour, and Rev. J. W. Camier. She wore an antique diamond Maltese cross, and heirloom, which was the gift of the bridegroom. The bridesmaids were the Misses Denise and Diana Coddington, Peggy Pritchard, Elizabeth Napier, Ursula Pomeroy, Heather Boyd, and Beryl Cooper, Capt. W. R. Starkey was best man. A reception was held at Old Bridge by the bride's mother. Among the guests were Mr. H. Perceval-Maxwell, Mrs. and Miss Purdon Cooke, Lord and Lady Farnham, Capt. and Mrs. J. R. Perceval-Maxwell Mrs. W. O. Pritchard, Mrs. Corden, Gen. Sir John Fowler, the Misses Fowler, Capt. and Mrs. W. Napper, Mrs. A. Napier, Major and Mrs. Purdon Cooke, Capt. and Mrs. G. Perceval-Maxwell, Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Osborne, Capt. R. Fowler. HINTS FOR "MRS. HOUSE." A lynx-eyed Barony of Middle Third mesdame has sent us a cutting from we know not what journal, containing some tips for the rapid preparation of tasty meals; tips which should go far to remove the wrinkles from the harassed bean-a-lighe's brow, and to fill up those in the hungry waistcoat for her hustled husband. For example if dinner is needed in hot haste, the preparation of spiced beef is clearly indicated, and the straight tip is given in these simple but drastic words: "Rub the beef with spiced mixture for a week." Again if "fowl pie" is urgently required, the hint takes this most helpful form: "First of all, slowly cook the fowl for about six hours." Possessing no personal knowledge of the culinary arts, except in so far as the brewing of a cup of tea and the boiling of eggs is concerned, we are in no position to pass judgment upon the hints given above, but in the matter of time-saving those hints seem to be a "little bit" (a very little bit) of all right." Try them, dear "Mrs. House," but remove both knife and fork out of hubby's reach while he is waiting for either that spiced beef or that fowl pie!

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN O'BRIEN, SCART.

The death of Mr. John O'Brien, Scart, Kilbrien, after a brief illness, fortified by the rites of the church, is deeply regretted by all who knew him. The remains were removed to Kilbrien Parish Church on Thursday week. The funeral to Kilgobinet on Friday last was one of the largest seen in the district for some time.

DEATH OF MISS M. QUEALLY, BALLINCOURCH.

Miss Mary Queally, daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Qually, Ballincouch, the well-known patriot of former days, passed to her eternal reward on Friday last at Ballintaylor. On Monday there was Requiem High Mass for the repose of her soul.—R.I.P.

DEATH OF MRS. M. LEAHY, WHITECHURCH.

On Saturday last, the death took place of Mrs. Margaret Leahy, wife of Mr. John Leahy, Whitechurch, after a long illness and fortified by the rites of the Church. IMPORTANT RULING FOR FARMERS.

In connection with the queries raised at the Co. Council meeting last week with regard to the administration of the Agricultural Grant this year, the Minister for Local Government in a reply states:—"Mere temporary absence of a permanent worker through illness or injury or for the purpose of the prescribed period of training in the Volunteer force could, in his view, be held by the Council not to invalidate a claim. With regard to the query where it has been customary to employ a worker permanently and one worker has been continuously employed, a claim should be admitted in respect of one man although the same man may not have been employed over the whole period."

DEATH OF MR. JOHN POWER, BALLINTLEA, KILROSSANTY.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. John Power, Ballintlea, Kilrossanty, which occurred at the District Hospital, Dungarvan, on Wednesday after a brief illness, fortified by the rites of the church. The late Mr. Power was an upright, honourable and practical farmer. He was a member of a most respectable family—the Powers of Glendalligan—and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. His death is deeply regretted and sincere sympathy is extended to his wife and the members of his family.—R.I.P.

On Thursday evening the remains were removed to the Parish Church, Kilrossanty and were followed by a large cortege. On this day (Friday) the interment takes place after Requiem Mass for the repose of his soul. GEM OF THE SEA.

We would direct the attention of readers to our advertising columns where they will find particulars of an interesting nature, with reference to the Irish travel film Gem Of The Sea, which is being shown all next week at the Cinema, in addition to the feature attractions.

SYMPATHY WITH MR. BOWEN, CO. SURVEYOR.

Sincere sympathy will be extended to our capable Co. Surveyor, Mr. Bowen, B.E., on the death of his mother, which occurred at her residence, Ballyorban House, Monkstown, Cork, on Wednesday. The interment takes place to-day (Friday)—R.I.P.

Death of Very Rev. J. Lennon, P.P., Stradbally.

We regret to announce the death of Very Rev. John Lennon, P.P., Stradbally, which occurred at the Parochial House, on Tuesday last, after a brief illness.

The late Fr. Lennon, was born at Glen House, Bonmahon, in 1857 and received his early education at Mount Melleray Seminary, where he showed himself a very diligent student. He then proceeded to St. John's College, Waterford, where his theological studies were completed. After his ordination he spent some years on the English Mission at Salford. Recalled to his native Diocese of Waterford and Lismore, he laboured with conspicuous success for the spiritual and temporal welfare of the people in the Parishes of Ardmore, Kilgobinet, Newcastle, Dunhill and Dunmore East. Everywhere his lot was cast, he was held in the highest esteem by the people. In 1919 on the death of the Rev. P. O'Connor, P.P., Stradbally, Fr. Lennon, was appointed Pastor and from that time until his death all his efforts were devoted to his people and their spiritual and temporal advancement. Passing away in his 77th year, he has left behind him many enduring monuments to his great zeal, piety and love of country. In every charitable and patriotic movement having for its aim the good of his people, he used his great influence. He was a true pastor of souls and his works of charity will long be remembered by the poor and the down-trodden, for in him they had a sympathetic friend and a true benefactor.

He was brother of Mr. Wm. Lennon, Glen House, Bonmahon, and of the late Michl. Lennon, do., and cousin of Very Rev. M. Walsh, P.P., Ballylooby and Very Rev. J. Nugent, P.P., Old Parish.—R.I.P.

On Wednesday at 6.30 o'clock, the remains of the late Fr. Lennon were removed to the Parish Church, Stradbally, where they rested on a catafalque in front of the High Altar. The funeral was of very large proportions, and on all sides were tokens of the deepest regret. On Thursday morning there was Solemn Office and High Mass for the repose of his soul at which Rt. Rev. Monsignor Byrne, P.P., Ballybricken, presided. The celebrant was the Rev. J. Nugent, P.P., Old Parish; deacon Rev. M. Halley, C.C., Newcastle and subdeacon Rev. M. Dowley, C.C., Kill. There were over 70 priests in the choir. There was an enormous congregation, representing, not only the Stradbally Parish, but all the surrounding ones.

Subsequently the interment took place in the adjoining cemetery in the presence of a very large gathering, when all that was mortal of a good kindly priest and christian gentleman were laid to rest.

BRITAIN AND PROTECTORATES.

Mr. Thomas, Dominions Secretary, in reply to questions at Westminster regarding the South African Government's reported intention to send a Note to the British Government, regarding the transfer of the Protectorates to the Union of South Africa, said that the native views and the white views would have to be considered when the issue arose.

BLACKWATER FISHERIES.

At the usual monthly meeting of the Lismore No. 4 Board of Blackwater Fishery Conservators, there attended—Messrs. J. Kennedy, Chairman, W. O'Brien, W. O'Neill, T. Murphy, W. Baldwin, J. Kent, E. E. Hey, Lord Charles Cavendish, T. Stafford, Capt. H. Holroyd Smyth. Messrs. T. Drohan, Clerk and Inspector and W. Buckley, Assistant Inspector, were also present. Letter From I. T. A. The Irish Tourist Association, wrote: We have secured a very good opportunity of getting valuable free publicity in some British Sporting Journals for our Irish fishing resorts. We can best avail of this if we are supplied with reports from the different areas, dealing with prospects, recent records, etc. Further, we are requested constantly by anglers living abroad, to supply them with particulars of the fishing in specified districts, which we are not always in a position to provide. We should much appreciate your co-operation in sending us reports on your area and you will find that we shall use them to the best advantage.—J. P. O'Brien, General Manager.

The Clerk was directed to procure the necessary information and forward it to the Association. No Reply. The Clerk said he had written, as directed by the Board to the Department, on the 15th, on the question of the powers of bailiffs, but had received no reply as yet. The Chairman—They are certainly very slow; that is 15 days ago. Intersting Figures. The Clerk read a return of the value of fish captured in the Blackwater, from Lismore to the sea, Ardmore, etc.—1927 £34,364; 1929, £18,489 and 1931, £18,961. 1927 seemed to have been an exceptionally good year. The Chairman said there was a big falling off after that year. He firmly believed in the efficacy of caring the spawning fish, but they didn't protect them properly. The hatcheries might be very well in their way, but he did not believe half the fry got away. The Clerk said during the present season they liberated 2,050,300 fry from the Mallow Hatchery. The Chairman said he believed a large portion didn't reach maturity. The Clerk—They have a lot of enemies. The Chairman—In the Cork river they had no hatchery; still they had a fair amount of fish that year. The Clerk—The fishing is universally bad this year. Poaching Gangs. A letter was read from Major Longfield, who was unable to attend, stating that he had got serious reports that gangs of poachers were preparing to operate in portions of the upper reaches. He had been informed that they were to use some new kind of net. If the reports were correct, and they came from a good source. The Board should take all the steps necessary in the matter. The Clerk said he had never heard of poachers circulating their intentions they would keep their minds to themselves. The Chairman—Unless the information was given by one of them. The Clerk—We will be on the look out for them. Prosecutions. The Clerk stated he was issuing summonses against two Youghal crews for breaches of the fishery laws. He was also applying for the forfeiture of a net seized at Ardmore, with anchor attached. As regards the Bay boats, it was alleged that the weather was bad and they were forced in. Mr. Hey said he had reports that certain boats were fishing within the prohibited half-mile and on calm days. Mr. Murphy asked what did they expect—the boats to go outside and get swamped. Mr. O'Brien said it would appear they wanted to drive them out. If anything happened and the men were drowned, it would be a nice state of affairs. On the day in question no boat could go outside the Lighthouse. Mr. Murphy said it was all about poaching in the lower water. A short time ago they had a serious case of poaching reported from Lismore, but when questioned the bailiff went back of his story. The Clerk said they couldn't go on with the prosecution in the absence of identification. Mr. Murphy—I asked was there any other big net around Lismore and was told there wasn't. No one would bring a drag net from Villierstown to fish at Lismore. The Clerk said the law was there. If the weather was really bad were they allowed a discretion? Not according to law. Mr. Murphy said there was a crew lost a short time ago, and another the year before. After further considerable discussion, Mr. Kent proposed, that the matter go through the Court and, if the offence were not repeated, that the penalty imposed be not enforced. This was seconded by Mr. Murphy, and passed unanimously. Bailiffs Assaulted. A report was read from a bailiff in the Fermoy district that he and another saw three men landing after poaching near Ballyhooly on last Sunday morning. A fourth man got away during the struggle for the net. The poachers attacked the bailiffs with oars. One of them was struck several times in the stomach with an oar, and the other in the shoulder. The bailiffs were called in and questioned and it was unanimously decided to prosecute two of the alleged poachers for poaching, obstruction of bailiffs, and assault.

Destruction By Otters.

The report also stated that the Ballyhooly waters were infested with otters which were responsible for the destruction of a large number of fish, and it was suggested that traps be set for them. The report concluded by saying they should have some means of protecting themselves. The Chairman—What means of protection do they want? The Clerk—Revolvers, I suppose. The Chairman—We can't do that. We can't take the responsibility of giving any bailiff a revolver. I certainly won't do anything of the kind. Financial Position. Replying to the Chairman, the Clerk said the rates question had reached a very serious aspect. Mr. Murphy—Didn't you expect that (laughter)? The Clerk said he didn't care to be a gipsy prophet in everything. The valuation of the river was £4,878 10s., and the rate £2,439 5s. 0d., in two moieties. Out of the first he had received up to the present only £225 15s. Mr. Murphy—According to that you can't carry on. The Chairman asked how would they stand after paying that day's cheques. The Clerk said they had £330 to credit, and that day's payments amounted to £250. The Chairman said that meant they would have £90 to meet next month's demands. If they didn't get the rates in the meantime they would have to pay off the bailiffs. The Clerk said he had sent out the usual demands and also "reminders," and had got in only £40. The second half of the boat purchase, £257 should be paid that day. The Chairman—We are in a hopeless mess. Mr. Hey said he believed money would come in meanwhile. He was sure of one cheque, for £500. The Clerk was instructed to make further efforts to get the rates in. Mr. Hey complained about a rowing boat anchored at Ardsallagh which was used for poaching. He had received a report that it was fishing on Sunday night with a net. Could it not be taken off the river? The Clerk said that couldn't be done unless there were two or three convictions previously.

DISEASES OF ANIMALS' COMMITTEE.

SHEEP DIPPING 1934.

Mr. Thomas Flynn, V.C., presided. There were also present—Messrs. W. Stack, and M. McGrath. Messrs. C. P. Hynes, V.S., T. R. Mulcahy, V.S., R. P. Byrne, V.S., and W. J. O'Donoghue, V.S., were also in attendance. The Department wrote that the Guards had been instructed to arrange for the enforcement of the Sheep Dipping regulations for the year. They also wrote asking for full particulars of the arrangements made by the Local Authority to secure that all sheep in the area would be properly dipped under supervision during the current year. Clerk—That looks as if they were trying to introduce compulsory dipping under supervision in the lowland areas. Mr. Mulcahy, V.S., said in South Tipperary a good number of tanks had been put up in the lowland areas and private tanks had been availed of also by paying for them. Travelling tanks are done away with. The Clerk said they had adopted compulsory regulations for Comeragh and Knockmealdown areas and appointed mountain rangers. They did not think it feasible to apply the same thing to the lowland areas as the sheep being so scattered there it would be difficult to supervise them. Mr. Byrne, V.S., said in the lowland areas farmers could dip privately at their own tanks and could notify the Guards. Mr. Mulcahy—In South Tipperary the Guards have nothing to do with the dipping. An Inspector is paid 10/- a day and he notifies all the sheep owners in the area of the time and place of dipping. The Co. Council pay for the use of the tank, the dipping being done under the supervision of the travelling Inspector, while the Veterinary Inspector pays a surprise visit during the dipping. Mr. Hynes—I don't think you can go beyond what we have been doing for years. The Committee approved of the existing arrangements made for sheep dipping in the Co. Waterford and the Chairman suggested that the Clerk get a copy of the South Tipperary Scheme. DIPPING ARRANGEMENTS. As to the transport arrangements for this year's dipping, the Committee decided to leave the appointment of contractors in the hands of the Veterinary Surgeons. The Clerk explained that last year the contractor for Kilmacthomas, Carrick-on-Suir and Waterford areas (Mr. Cunningham) was paid 18/- a day and the contractor for the Dungarvan and Youghal areas (D. P. Foley) was paid 16/- a day and for the same work in Lismore area, the contractor (J. Lynch), was paid 19/6 per day. The Committee decided to pay this year a flat rate of 18/- a day, and the Veterinary Inspector's are to make the appointments themselves. MOUNTAIN RANGERS. In connection with the appointment of Mountain Rangers, it was decided to re-appoint the same officers this year as they knew their jobs and gave satisfaction. The mountain rangers were—In Carrick area—J. Nugent at £10. In Clonmel area—W. Tobin, at £10. Comeragh area—W. Fraher £15. He was described as an excellent ranger. Lismore area—Michl. Hale, £10. Hale, was stated by Mr. Hynes, V.S., to be a super man. For Knockmeal-down (Western area)—J. O'Gorman £10. SHEEP DIP. Two contractors were received for the supply of Sheep Dip for the County, viz.—Nicobrand Co., Lismore and Burke's Chemical Manufacturing Ltd., Cork. The price was the same as last year. Burke's Dip was accepted for East Waterford and Nicobrand Dip for West Waterford. Thorough-Bred Sire for 1934. "ROCKEN" (Registered by County Committee of Agriculture) AT KILMALOO STUDD. EAST CORK JUNIOR HURLING CHAMPIONSHIPS.

YOUGHAL V. KILLEAGH.

The above teams met at Gurtroe on Sunday in their tie in the second round of the above championship. The field arrangements were well carried out by the Gurtroe Club, who deserve to be complimented. There was a good attendance present when Mr. Eamonn Fleming, Hon. Vice-President Cork County Club, set the teams in motion a few minutes after the appointed hour. In a previous encounter, Youghal had matters much their own way, but they had to fight all the way against a sterling opposition before they again emerged victors. Youghal attacked from the outset, but sent over. Killeagh got under way following the delivery, but recorded an over. Hard exchanges took place at midfield, when McLoughlin sent to O'Brien, who, with a deft shot, opened the scoring for Youghal with a major. Shortly afterwards Norris added a minor. Barry was sending in some telling shots to the Killeagh forwards, but Doyle and the Sullivan brothers, were equal to the occasions. Following a free to Youghal, Sheehan raised the white flag, and Crowley added a similar score soon after. Killeagh were fighting hard and, O'Neill shot well for a major. Youghal replied with a goal from a lightning shot by Norris. Foley and Crowley cleared effectively for Killeagh and following up, Killeagh just missed the goal. Healy sent to Crowley who transferred to Donoghue and Youghal were rewarded with another fine goal. Play was fast and clean, some good bouts being witnessed. Following a melee in front of the Youghal posts, Sullivan sent through for a goal. The Youghal front line were making the most of their opportunities, and Mulcahy further increased their register with a goal. Barry and Foley figured prominently in the ensuing exchanges, but the forwards could not make use of the fine openings made by the above. Shortly before the interval O'Brien, notched a point for Youghal. At half time, the score was: YOUGHAL 4-4. KILLEAGH 2-0.

In the opening minutes of this period Youghal fought hard and Crowley secured a major. Youghal were getting into their stride in earnest now and Donoghue flashed through another major. Sheehan had hard luck shortly afterwards just missing the upright. At this point Killeagh made a great effort and Barry scored a point. A nice bout of passing ended in Youghal again scoring a major per Norris. Killeagh were making desperate efforts to reduce their opponents lead and Corr sent through a fine goal for Killeagh. This gave Killeagh great heart and keeping up the pressure Sullivan shot another goal. Great excitement prevailed as Killeagh again pressed and Barry raised the white flag. Killeagh sent wide on several occasions and in one attack were awarded a 70, which Barry placed well, but the ball was cleared to midfield, where Foley returned for another minor for Killeagh. Youghal were being hard pressed, but a fine clearance by Healy eased the pressure. O'Brien got possession and dodging several opponents clinched matters by scoring a fine goal for Youghal. No further score resulted, and when the final whistle blew, Youghal were comfortable winners on the score: YOUGHAL 8-4. KILLEAGH 4-3.

HEIFER LOAN SCHEME.

SUCCESSFUL SALES IN LISMORE.

Under the Heifer Loan Scheme under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture, a most successful sale was conducted in the Fair Field, Lismore, by Mr. D. Noonan, Auctioneer, Lismore, on last Friday.

Eighty-one animals were presented for inspection, and out of these thirty seven were selected, including two weaning calves.

The Judge on behalf of the Department was Mr. Quaide, while three Government Inspectors were also present on behalf of the Department of Agriculture.

There was a very large attendance of farmers at the sale of the selected heifers which followed and bidding proved unusually brisk, having regard to the depression prevailing in the cattle trade at present, with the result that out of the 35 heifers which were offered for sale 34 were bought up at prices ranging from £11 to £15 each, which represented an average of well over £12 per head.

This was the only sale held in the County on this occasion, which largely accounted for the great demand for heifers, as applications had been received for 50, so that there were not sufficient animals to meet the demands of all.

It was the third sale conducted for the Department by Mr. Noonan, Auctioneer, in Lismore, and both as regards the number of heifers sold and the good prices realised, it easily proved the most successful sale yet held in that town.
