WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

Mr. J. Butler, and subsequently Ald. T. D. Connolly, presided at the monthly meeting of the above on Wednesday. Also present—Messrs. Wm. Stack, P. Caulfield, J. O'Donovan, T. Tracey, T. Dunne, J. Cosgrave, M. F. Walsh, T. Synnott, D. Heskin.

HOLIDAYS. Mr. McGrath, H.O.A., Waterford, was granted three weeks annual holidays. Mr. O'Meara, to act as substitute.

WHITECHURCH DISPENSARY RESIDENCE. Dr. Lenihan, M.O., Kereen, wrote asking for repairs (painting, plastering, and to roof), of the Dispensary Residence. The matter was deferred pending a report from the Engineer.

MIDWIFE. Mrs. Murray, Midwife, Kilmacthomas, wrote resigning her position as midwife of the Kilmacthomas Dispensary area on her appointment to Dungarvan area. She is not prepared to take up duty in Dungarvan until June 2nd. The resignation was accepted.

INCREASE REFUSED. A letter was read from the Minister for Local Government and Public Health stating that he was not prepared to sanction the increase of salary granted by the Board to Mr. Michael O'Meara, H.O.A., Waterford. Mr. O'Donovan said the Board should do something further about it. It is a terrible thing to say that his salary is not more than the wages of the Corporation men for the amount of work done.

Mr. Caulfield—I know to my own knowledge that this man works up to 10 o'clock at night on three nights a week. They have 24 or 25 Clerks in the Labour Exchange who have not half as much work to do. On the proposition of Mr. O'Donovan, seconded by Mr. Caulfield, the Minister was asked to reconsider his decision.

HOME ASSISTANCE. Mr. Phelan, Superintendent Assistance Officer, reported a reduction of £70 in Home Assistance in Waterford City for week ended May 5th, owing to the operation of the Unemployment Assistance Act. There is no reduction in other parts of the County as yet. The amount of Home Assistance paid out during the month was £3,425 13s. 4d., for the preceding month £3,440 7s. 0d., and for the corresponding period last year £3,205 15s. 0d.

KNOCKANORE DISPENSARY. Mrs. Collins, owner of the above dispensary, appeared before the Board in connection with the delay in the purchase of same by the Board. The Secretary said he had no reply from the Department on the matter. Mrs. Collins said she wanted the thing settled definitely. She was down on the last day also. The Board decided just a year and 4 months ago to purchase the house and there must be something amiss that it is not yet completed. She wanted a definite answer, as she had a purchaser for the house.

The Secretary said the Board could do nothing until they hear from the Department. It was decided to again ask the Department for sanction to the purchase.

INCREASE OF SALARY. The Board considered the application of Mr. Jas. Walsh, charge hand at the Co. Home Laundry, for an increase of salary, owing to much extra work, including attendance on Sundays.

Secretary—This came before the County Home Committee and was referred to the Board with a recommendation for an increase.

Mr. O'Donovan—What is his present salary? Secretary—£2 17s. 6d. He is most capable and obliging.

Mr. Butler—The recommendation of the Secretary should go far with the members. He is a highly qualified man.

Mr. Synnott—He seems to be a useful man. Mr. Dunne—I also understand that the work will further increase with the approach of winter. I propose that the salary be increased to £3 7s. Mr. Caulfield seconded this proposition which was passed unanimously.

REFUND. On the proposition of the Chairman seconded by Mr. Caulfield, a sum of £2 5s. was by seven votes to four ordered to be returned to Nurse Young. The money was in respect of a charge for treatment in the Co. Hospital, where through continuous night work, her health failed. The Secretary informed the members before voting that they would be liable to surcharge in the event of that proposition being passed.

Dungarvan District Hospital A Tribute.

(To The Editor "Observer.")

Dear Sir—As I have just had some weeks of personal practical experience of the great work that is being done at our District Hospital for all who need its services, it is only right that I should pay a public tribute to all associated with that noble institution, and who late and early minister to the needs of the patients with the utmost devotion and constancy. To those who have been there for alterations and repairs to the human machine no words are necessary to tell them of the wonderful skill and treatment which all receive at our Hospital; but the general community who have not had occasion to go there cannot possibly be aware of what noble work is being done by the staffs late and early, week in and week out for the amelioration of pain and the restoration of the patients to perfect health.

Dungarvan Hospital with its limited accommodation is unequalled in the results of its achievements. From all parts of the county and outside it patients come to avail of the wonderful skill of our brilliant Surgeon Dr. McCarthy, who has upheld the record of his predecessor—the late lamented Dr. Hackett—as a Surgeon of the highest repute and a medical practitioner in whom the public have perfect confidence. How he deals with all the patients who seek his advice is a miracle.

His surgical work has made his name famous and with the course of years he will certainly make history as a Surgeon of the highest repute. But no matter how successful a Surgeon may be he cannot work without a capable nursing staff. Dungarvan Hospital in that respect cannot be excelled. The good Sisters and their staff who are responsible for the nursing, are truly devoted to their work. The care and attention they give all within the Institution cannot be expressed in words. They are ministering angels whose whole lives are devoted to the alleviation of pain and making comfortable and happy all who are committed to their care. By night as well as by day the nursing staff are the essence of courtesy and kindness, and the very smallest request of the patient is granted with a motherly kindness. No wonder patients speak so highly of the treatment they receive and that they recover so quickly and are restored to normal health under conditions so excellent. In addition to the nursing staff, high praise is due to the attendants and especially to Michael Power, who is an institution in himself. He never tires of exertion in attention to the wants of all in the establishment, and is certainly a young man whose work cannot be measured in words.

What a pity the authorities are so slow in giving our Hospital the facilities it so badly needs. The want of an X-ray apparatus is sorely felt. Its absence is not fair to Dr. McCarthy or the public. Such an apparatus is required regularly and patients have to be taken elsewhere for X-ray purposes. That is not right or just to the Hospital. And then there is the want of accommodation. The present Hospital is far too limited for the needs of the big district served by Dungarvan. A new Hospital was approved by the Board of Assistance and a perfect site secured, and even though the money is available, the scheme has been held up. What a pity that so noble and worthy a cause as the erection of a proper Hospital, fully equipped, should be kept in abeyance while people suffer. Is it too much to hope that those responsible will give their sanction to the erection of a much-needed Hospital in the centre of the County, and thus let the community have all the advantages it can give, while at the same time enabling our Surgical and Nursing Staffs to give of their best in modern up-to-date surroundings, equipped with every convenience of science. Given these concessions, Dungarvan District Hospital would be an Institution that would be a credit to the County; a blessing for the general public, and would be worthy of the great and noble healing work which would be carried on by its brilliant young Surgeon and his super-excellent staff.

Death of Mr. John Dalton, Glenavadra, Cappagh.

THE INQUEST.

On Monday evening, Mr. John Dalton, passed away at Glenavadra, Cappagh, rather suddenly. He had been working around his farm as usual that day and in the evening while putting down some piglings he was seized with sudden illness and passed away in a brief space.

The deceased was an honest upright man of 60 years, who was well known in these parts. He had acted as Coachman to the late Miss Cody, Dungarvan, for many years prior to her death.

On Tuesday evening last, Acting-Coneror T. C. Williams, solr., held an inquest into the circumstances of the death of John Dalton, Glenavadra, Cappagh, who died on Monday evening while working in a field.

Patk. Dalton, Glenavadra, brother of the deceased, said he last saw him alive about 7.30 on Monday. He never heard him complain of any illness, but used to have pains sometimes. Witness had dinner with him on Monday about 2.30 p.m. The deceased was not in for supper that day and my brother Edward went looking for him. When I saw him at dinner he was in good health. I saw him walking through the fields in the evening, and he seemed all right. About 9.45 Edward told me he was dead. I went over to see him, but could do nothing for him. He was cold by that time. He identified the body as that of his brother John Dalton. He was 62 years old, and was unmarried and a farmer.

Edward Dalton, deposed that when he came home on Monday about 7.30 and had supper he asked his brother Patrick where John was. He told me that John was up the land. Witness went to look for him and discovered his coat on a fence, and three or four yards further on deceased was lying in a field near some ruins. He was lying sideways against a corner of a wall with his knees bent. I called, and shook him, but got no reply. His hands were cold. He was apparently dressing a bit of stick with a hatchet which was beside him. Witness rushed home for help and returned with Thomas Kieley and Maurice Fitzgerald. They brought the body to the house. Deceased was always in perfect health, but he suffered from pains. The last time witness saw him was about 8.30 on Monday. There were no signs of violence on the body when I found it.

Dr. Linehan, Kereen, deposed to examining the body about 2.30 on Tuesday, which was that of a well-nourished man of about 60 years. Witness found no evidence of injury except for a small post-mortem bruise beside the left ear, where there seemed to be some slight trace of blood. About the middle of his back there was a small swelling about the size of a shilling, it seemed to me to be old and had no connection with his death. Death in my opinion was due to cardiac failure, following probably over exertion.

The Jury returned a verdict in accordance with the medical evidence. Much sympathy is felt for the family of the deceased in their loss.

RECENT WILLS.

Lieut.-Col. Charles Richard Louis Ronayne, M.B., B.Ch., late R.A.M.C. of South Abbey, Youghal, Co. Cork, who died on September 4th, last, left personal estate in England and the Irish Free State valued £10,425. Probate has been granted to his brother-in-law, John McNamara, retired Bank Manager, and his nephew, John Noel McNamara, solr., both of Youghal. He left £800 upon trust for his sister, Eily Mary Ronayne, for life, with remainder to the Sisters of a Charity Convent, Dublin; £25 to each of his personal servants of six months service, and he directed his trustees to continue to pay the allowances he had made to Mary Griffin and Mary Clickott. He left £40 for Masses; £500 to his niece, Geraldine McNamara; his freehold property in Youghal, his furniture, etc., and £2,000 to his nephew, John Noel McNamara, suggesting that he should spend half or more on immediate repairs, and the residue of the property to the Youghal branch of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Mr. James Clinton, of 27 Parnell street, Clonmel, Co. Tipperary, who died on December, 21st., 1931, left personal estate in England and the Irish Free State valued at £6,218. Probate of his will and codicil has been granted to his widow, Mrs. Julia Clinton, of the same address, the sole executrix. He left his property to his wife for life, with remainder to his son James, charged with the payment of £1,000 to his daughter Maureen.

At a meeting of the Bonmahon and Kill units of the League of Youth votes of sympathy were passed with Mr. John Lennon, Glen House, Bonmahon, on the death of his uncle, the Very Rev. J. Lennon, P.P.

COUNTY COUNCIL. INQUIRY TO BE HELD.

On Tuesday the following letter was received by the Secretary of the Co. Council:—

Chara.—I am directed by the Minister for Local Government and Public Health to state that, pursuant to Section 72 of the Local Government Act, 1925, and all other powers enabling him, he has instructed his Inspector, Mr. J. P. Geraghty, to hold a Local Inquiry into the performance of their duties by the Waterford County Council in the Council Chamber, County Council Offices, Dungarvan, on Thursday, 24th instant at 11 o'clock a.m. The Inquiry will be advertised and you are requested to notify the Members of the Council and any other parties likely to be interested.

(Signed) E. P. McCARRON, Runai.

Following the receipt of this notice, Mr. O'Sullivan, Secretary, wrote to each member of the County Council as follows:— A Chara.—You are requested to attend a Special Meeting of the Co. Council of Waterford to be held in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on SATURDAY NEXT, 19th day of May, 1934, at 10 o'clock, p.m. (Summer Time) for the purpose of making any arrangements considered necessary in connection with the Local Inquiry into the performance of the Council's duties to be opened on the 24th instant.

I enclose copy of notification of Inquiry received this day from the Minister for Local Government and Public Health.

J. H. O'SULLIVAN, Runaidhe.

YOUGHAL MENTAL HOSPITAL COMMITTEE.

At the usual monthly meeting of the above there attended—Messrs. D. Gamble, T.C.; and J. R. Connolly, T.C.; Rev. T. Wilson, C.C., and Dr. M. Twomey, were also in attendance. The Doctor's report was read as follows:—Since my last report there have been two deaths. The deceased belonged to the Cork Mental Hospital. Nine patients were confined to bed on the male side of the house and eleven on the female side, owing to debility, etc. There has been no case of seclusion, restraint, injury or violence. There has been no complaint of the water supply. The food supplies have been regularly examined and found up to standard requirements. There has been no case of zymotic disease and the general health of the institution is excellent.

Mr. Connolly—That is very satisfactory. The Manager reported that since last meeting five patients (two females and three males) had been transferred to Cork, and two patients had died.

There were nine fat pigs reared for market and instructions were required. All contracts had been satisfactorily carried out. A communication from the L.G.D. re Peat Industry was submitted.

Mr. Connolly said they had a tender for turf before them at Cork recently—25/- per ton delivered. The price of coal being 18/6.

Mr. Gamble—Coal is better value. Fr. Wilson said there was no peat used in the Institution. In the absence of a quorum several matters were referred to the Cork Committee.

KILMACTHOMAS NEWS.

THE LATE VERY REV. J. LENNON, P.P., STRADBALLY.

It is interesting to note that following the late Father Lennon's ordination on the 19th June, 1881, the first Mass he celebrated was served by Mr. Nicholas Connors, Park. On Sunday, April 19th 1934, two days before he died, the reverend gentleman celebrated Holy Mass for his last time, when his server was Master Christopher Curran, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Curran, Stradbally.

DEATH. We sincerely regret to have to chronicle the death of Mrs. Cummins, Carrigeen, Kilmacthomas, which took place on the morning of the 12th inst., after a brief illness and at a comparatively early age, despite all that loving care and medical skill could devise.

The deceased lady belonged to an old-established, highly respected and widely connected local family, being a sister of Mr. Denis Hannigan, farmer, Rathmeaden. Only three months have elapsed since her universally esteemed husband, Mr. Patrick Cummins, was laid in his grave. She was mother of the Misses Madge and Nora Cummins, and Messrs. Pat and William Cummins, Carrigeen, to whom much sympathy is extended in their sorrow. The late Mrs. Cummins was possessed of many estimable and loving qualities that endeared her to the people, and was particularly noted for her charitable and kindly disposition. At 3 o'clock on Sunday evening the remains were removed to the parish church, Newtown, the accompanying cortege being one of the largest and most representative witnessed for a considerable time in this district. On Monday morning Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated for the repose of her soul by Rev. T. Ahearn, C.C., Kill, assisted by Rev. M. Dowley, C.C., do., deacon, and Rev. J. O'Donnell, C.C., Carrickbeg (cousin of the deceased), sub-deacon.

In the choir were—Very Rev. J. O'Donnell, P.P., Newtown; Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, Adm., do.; Very Rev. J. Walsh, P.P., Ballyduff; Rev. T. Power, C.C., Portlaw; Rev. L. Vereker, C.C., do.; Rev. P. Shine, C.C., Chaplain to the Little Sisters, Waterford, and Rev. M. Condon, C.C., Ardmore.

There was a crowded congregation inasmuch that seating accommodation was taxed to its utmost capacity. Interment was made subsequently in the adjoining cemetery amid many manifestations of profound regret. It would be impossible to give a list of the legion of friends, relatives and mourners in attendance on the sad occasion. Numerous wires and other messages of sympathy and regret were received by the bereaved sons and daughters. May she enjoy the eternal repose of the just, the universal prayer of the neighbours, and may the green sod rest lightly on her... R.I.P.

ANOTHER DEMISE. Fortified by the rites of the church, Mr. Patrick Kelt (56), farmer, Scart Upper, Kiltbrien, passed away last week-end. Having a gentle and joyous disposition his friends were numerous and reposed in him the greatest confidence. He will be deeply mourned and his loss will be all the more felt because of his comparatively young age. On Sunday evening all that was mortal of the deceased was conveyed to Kiltbrien R.C., and after the celebration of Requiem Masses for his soul on the following morning the funeral took place to Kiltrossanty Catholic Churchyard. The dimensions of the cortege evidenced the high esteem in which the late Mr. Kelt was held. The prayers at the graveside were recited by Very Rev. W. Kehoe, P.P., Kiltrossanty.—R.I.P.

AGAIN. We have to record another death—that of Mr. Declan Troy, Ashtown, Kilmacthomas, who passed away on Sunday, after a protracted illness and at an advanced age. He was well-known and held in high esteem by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He always took a keen interest in National affairs, and was in his earlier years especially, foremost in every national movement. He was a member of the old Kiltrossanty Gaelic Football Club, and was ever a keen and enthusiastic lover of the code. The deepest sympathy is felt for his sons and other immediate ties in their loss. The funeral to Kiltrossanty parish churchyard on Tuesday evening was a splendid public tribute of respect to departed worth. Fr. Kehoe, P.P., officiated at the graveside. May he rest in peace.

THE NEW BUDGET.

Agreeable surprise has been expressed on all sides on Mr. MacEntee's Budget for the coming financial year. The Minister struck an optimistic note in presenting his scheme to the Dail as to the financial outlook in the Free State, and the statement of facts fairly justified that optimism. A pleasing feature of the new Budget proposals is, that, so far from new taxation being imposed, except in a few minor instances, which apply to foreign newspapers and imported kippers, smoked and canned fish, the substantial reduction of fourpence per lb. on tea duty will begin to operate on the 1st July, while another welcome reduction is that in respect of Income tax from 5/- to 4/6 in the £. The exemption from Entertainment Tax on all outdoor sports is yet another pleasing feature of Mr. MacEntee's Budget. Whether people are in agreement with the general policy of the present Administration, or are opposed to that policy, they will find much cause for gratification in the main with the new Budget. That the Minister was able to show a surplus of £1,355,000 in revenue over expenditure for the previous financial year is certainly cheering.

TINKERS.

Rain was passing in sheets across the face of the Comeragh mountains, when, cycling up Mauna way the other afternoon, your correspondent was compelled to "take cover" for a while in a tinkers' caravan. A rather scrubby man, who proved to be the boss of the show, sat me down beside him, and proceeded to make this new experience of mine worth while. I could fill a column with the scrubby man's yarns. He had the inside history of almost every parish in the country at his finger-ends, and what- ever his reason, he regaled me with it. One of his sayings is worth noting. I remarked on the good appearance of a row of houses standing about ten miles seawards from the caravan door. "Aye," he said, "they look alright, but if ye fell again the wall when you were boozed, ye'd find yourself in your neighbour's kitchen. The happy, happy tinkers who move in bands, are full of cheer when full of beer, and full of "sauce" without. No banking smash or tariffs, will worry them a whit; or income tax they'll turn their backs, quite undisturbed by it. They dress in rags and tatters, and scan their "faney's" odds, then "double naps" they'll try, perhaps, and, winning, live-like gods. If this were true, a chara, the tinkers' feast we'd see; but just a "wet" is all they get, ye swanks! How can it be?"

ANENT FRUIT GROWING.

Fruit growing seems to have come into its own again in these parts, and in many farms where old orchards fell into decay and disappeared altogether, young plantations now exist. Though old gardeners maintain the quality of the fruit in the old orchard is cannot be produced, a good variety of cooking apples is nevertheless being grown, and, on the whole, fruit growing seems to promise a more profitable future if only a better system of grading and marketing the fruit was adopted, now that tariffs shut out the foreign produce.

BY THE WAY.

A Bachelors' Club, designed to "defend man against the temptation of marriage, which only serves to poison his existence," has just been formed in Madrid. Article 4 of the statute runs—"If one of the members is unable to withstand this temptation, the club, at an extraordinary meeting, shall bring all its influence to bear in an attempt to lead the delinquent back to the straight and narrow way. The said delinquent shall be liable to a fine of £40." Some of the bachelors are so inflexibly obdurate that they are now immune from temptation.

BOUNDITIES ON POULTRY.

Increased export bounties on dead poultry and eggs came into operation on Monday last, (May 14th). The bounty on all classes of dead poultry has been increased by 2d. per lb., and the bounty on eggs of all kinds has been increased by 2/- per great hundred. The bounty of 12/6 per cwt. on eggs not in shell (frozen liquid eggs or frozen liquid whites or yolks of eggs) is unchanged.

The new bounties are as follows:—DEAD POULTRY—Turkeys 5d. per lb. Guinea Fowl 4d. per lb. Other 5d. per lb. EGGS—Fresh (extra selected) 1/- per great hundred. Fresh (selected) 4/- per great hundred. Fresh (medium) 3/7 per great hundred. Fresh (pulled) 3/3 per great hundred. Fresh (duck) 3/7 per great hundred. Preserved (cold stored and pickled) 4/- per great hundred.

The object which the Minister for Agriculture has in view in increasing the bounties is to ensure for the producers a better return on their output. The advantage is very substantial and producers should benefit immediately by the new arrangement. It is estimated that the increased prices resulting from these additional bounties which will be obtained by Saorstad producers for the quantities sold on the home and export markets will be about £500,000.

FINE GAEL'S PLANS.
EXPLAINED BY GEN. O'DUFFY

Speaking at a Fine Gael Demonstration at Connemara, on Sunday, Gen. O'Duffy, who received an ovation, said:—I can assure the priests and people of Connemara that so far as the members of our organisation are concerned, there will be no disorder at public meetings. I can go no further unless I am called on to forego our right to organise our movement in our own way and to speak to the people whenever and wherever we wish. I will never agree to forego that right. The people only want freedom to carry out their every day work and to exercise their rights as citizens. We want no more, but we will have no less. If a certain section can be organised to destroy the State and its institutions and to interfere with the liberty of the people, then the majority of the citizens can organise to save the State and its institutions and preserve the liberty of the people (hear, hear). In the words used by the Bishop of Galway last Monday, "We will stand for God and our country in the highest sense of religion and in the highest sense of freedom" (cheers). That is inspired advice, and we in the League of Youth accept it; we shall make it our motto.

We have now a huge organisation and we have a forward language policy. We accept the ideal of Patrick Pearse—we want Ireland not only to be free but Gaelic but free from sea to sea. We recognise that Ireland cannot retain its separate and distinct nationality if the language, should disappear, and I believe that if the language is lost all the sacrifices made for Irish freedom would be in vain. I do not approve of humiliating people who through no fault of their own do not know Irish. Our purpose is to build through the schools and to extend from the Gaeltacht. Only the people of the Gaeltacht have the language in all its strength, vigour and richness. It is only by helping the people of the Gaeltacht to better economic conditions, and to a higher standard of living that the language can be saved. It is our purpose to take steps to enable the Gaeltacht to contribute a powerful and steady Gaelicising impulse to the rest of the country. We propose to appoint a Special Commissioner with powers similar to those vested in the old Congested Districts Board. He will be appointed by the Government, but will work in co-operation with local committees in the different Gaeltacht areas.

It will be our policy to enable the young people of the Gaeltacht to qualify for positions at home by a system of scholarships confined to the Gaeltacht, to secure a proportion of appointments as teachers, Gardaí, etc., for clever young Irish speakers. They will in this way carry forward with them to general use and recognition the language of the country. The primary school-boy is practically excluded from the Civil Service at present. I know the struggle it is in Connemara to keep boys at school until they are 14 years of age, and the shutting out of these young lads from the Civil Service must be a hardship. At present Civil Service examinations are based on secondary school standards. I should like to see these standards modified for the lower ranks of the Civil Service, and I should like to see brilliant boys from the primary schools receive a year's grind in the preparatory colleges with a view to fitting them for the Civil Service entrance examinations. After that their further advance would be a matter for themselves. That is a matter we hope to see rectified when the present Government disappears from the scene. Notwithstanding all the promises of Fianna Fail before the elections, and all their boasting about Irish, it is generally accepted that the language movement is progressing backwards since the Fianna Fail Government came into office. One prominent Gaelic Leaguer stated recently that there was no hope for the language or for the Gaeltacht while the Fianna Fail Government remained in office (hear, hear).

The policy of Fianna Fail towards the Gaeltacht has been niggardly in the extreme. You have been treated with contempt. The mothers of Connemara are expected to rear delicate children on maize. You depended in the past on the price of a sheep or a calf to pay your bills. Now the markets are gone. I heard about the last fair in Oughterard. They have no new schemes for the Gaeltacht, and they have abandoned the schemes of the old Government. You see now what Fianna Fail is doing for the Gaeltacht and for the language. The people everywhere have been victims of false promises of Fianna Fail, but you have suffered all the losses I have enumerated over and above what the people in the rest of the country are suffering by the general depression. You here are the outposts of the nation trying to eke out a livelihood under conditions which the farmers of inland counties know nothing about. Your life has always been a struggle, and that is why you are such a fine and hardy people, the brawn of our race. You are used to hard work, and anything you ever got you earned by hard and honest toil. You were always proud to be able to knock a livelihood out of this rough coast, and you don't want to look for alms from anyone no matter how hard the times are, if you can avoid it. To a free man there is nothing more degrading than to have to beg his bread or receive relief out of the public purse. Yet this is the condition to which large numbers of the

MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIPS.

WATERFORD HURLERS WIN.
At Mallow on Sunday, Kerry beat Cork by 3-7 to 0-3 in the Junior football. Munster Championship, while Waterford beat Kerry in Junior hurling on the score of 8-3 to 1-3.

THE HURLING MATCH.

Playing with a strong wind in their favour, Waterford were early attacking, and had an easy goal in the opening minute per J. Murphy. The Kerry goalkeeper was again tested, but brought off a remarkably clever save. The Kerry backs were having a busy time of it with a continual flow of hard shots from all quarters of the Waterford forward line. Morrissey, the Kerry centre forward, made no mistake when he got possession from a ruck, to send over a high point. Immediately after the Waterford forwards got moving and J. Murphy sent through a shot which left the Kerry custodian helpless. A determined breakaway by Kerry put M. Sullivan in a scoring position, but S. Reidy, the Waterford goalie, ran out to beat him and send play to the other end. Kerry again got moving and had hard luck in not scoring, M. Connor being tackled by J. Walsh when about to shoot a certain goal. After the puck-out, P. Sheehan put the Waterford forwards in action, and after a scientific piece of hurling J. Murphy beat the Kerry goalkeeper all ends up. The Kingdom again looked dangerous, but a wild shot by J. Gorman sent the ball across the line. Two points in quick succession followed for Waterford, per W. Sheehan. A free to Kerry resulted in Morrissey raising the white flag after a few mild exchanges had taken place around the Waterford posts. Waterford added two more goals, per G. Keogh and P. Gough, to give them the lead at the interval by 6-2 to 0-2.

SECOND HALF.

Kerry were right away from the start, and Morrissey pointed before Waterford had properly settled down. The leaders next got going, and J. Walsh, who got the better of a fierce melee at midfield, raised a white flag for Waterford. A seventy to Kerry, taken by D. Morrissey, just fell short, and was well cleared by the opposing defence. The Kerrymen, who were now playing a much better game than in the first half, reduced Waterford's lead when M. Sullivan sent through a stinging shot that left the goalkeeper helpless. J. Ormond, who up to this, was playing a fine game for Waterford, was compelled at this stage to retire to the sideline owing to injury, his place being filled by D. Mahony. A seventy to Kerry, taken by J. Morrissey, was well saved by J. Walsh, who transferred play to the other end, where Sheehan and Mahony registered goals for Waterford.

Teams:—
Waterford—G. Keogh (capt.), J. Walsh, J. Murphy, J. Ormond, P. Sheehan, D. Gough, J. O'Mahony, J. O'Gorman, W. Henley, J. Whelan, J. Keane, W. Harney, M. Curley, W. Sheehan, D. Goode.
Kerry—S. Reidy (goal), M. Leahy, S. Hanlon, J. Morrissey, J. Courtney, J. Flynn, J. Dwyer, J. McCarthy (capt.), T. Clifford, W. Mason, J. Connor, G. Landers, M. Sullivan.
Referee—W. Clancy (Mallow).

people are being reduced by the insane economic policy of the Fianna Fail Government. They have destroyed your fishing industry, a market more vital to many of you than the agricultural market ever was to small farmers elsewhere (hear, hear).

Your trade in mountain sheep, the finest mutton in Europe, has been smashed to pieces with tariffs during this economic war. Everything you had which made you free and honest and proud of Connemara is being taken away from you under the pretence that this economic war is necessary so that we can get a Republic, which even the men who pretend to want it most are running away from. The whole country is being stripped and plundered to minister to the crazy jingoism of Fianna Fail. I think you realise now that Fianna Fail had never any intention of carrying out its rash promises. I know that you resent the alms and doles which Fianna Fail now offers you as poor and degrading substitutes for the work which they have taken away (hear, hear).

I have a message to-day for you all. I want you to know that United Ireland is with you; that United Ireland asks you to come into its ranks; that United Ireland makes no promises which it does not intend to keep; and that United Ireland can bring back the things which you have lost; remove you from your present degrading position and preserve at the same time our national honour which has been so sadly besmirched by Fianna Fail. I want to ask you, then, to rally behind the banner of United Ireland, to have no regrets for anything that is past, and to look forward to the future with confidence in the knowledge that this movement of ours will never let its adherents down, and that the things we promise we will bring about, namely—restoration of comparative prosperity, peace and order at home, honour amongst the nations of the earth, and a contended and united Ireland (loud cheers).

TALLOW DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.)

UNLICENSED DOGS.

There were over 40 cases of unlicensed dogs disposed of. At the outset the Justice asked why didn't the people take out these licences in time. He disliked putting on even a mitigated penalty of 5/-, but he had no option.

The complainants were Sergt. Grey, and Guards McLone, Mullooly, M. Dermott and Caulfield, O'Shea, Sheehan, and McNally.

In cases against Jas. and Patrick Casey, Newtown, one of the defendants said the animal was a sheep dog and he wanted to see if she was good or bad before he kept her.

A mitigated fine of 5/- was imposed. In a case of Guard McDermott, against Edward Drake, defendant said he had the dog only 6 weeks and he took out a license the day after the Guard called.

Replying to the Court, defendant said he was a blacksmith and there was very little doing in that trade now-a-days. He thought he had time enough till the end of the year.

The Justice—That is a different version from the "March story," (laughter). Defendant said he got the dog at the end of March. It was a greyhound.

The Justice—Isn't that a valuable dog?
Defendant—Not very valuable.
The Justice—But more valuable than the ordinary dog.

The case was finally market "withdrawn," the Justice remarking that it was rather doubtful.

The same complainant charged Jn. Keffe, Ballsairiarogue, with a like offence.

Being an old age pensioner, and the license having been paid the case was withdrawn.

A case against John Turner of the same townland, was similarly dealt with, the dog being only 6 weeks old. James Connell, Ballyknock, was fined 5/-, his excuse to the Guard being that the dog wasn't worth paying for.

The same complainant charged Patk. Hurley, Kilmurphy, with having two unlicensed dogs.

He was fined 5/- for one dog. In a case of Guard McNally, Ballynoe, against M. Fitzgerald, Conna, it was let stand, defendant being out of employment.

The excuse of D. Casey, Conna, at the suit of the same complainant, was that the dog was old—13 or 14 years—and he was going to drown it.

Fined 5/-.
In several cases the excuse given was negligence, one being fined 5/- for three dogs.

School Attendance Case.
Guard McDermott, Ballynoe, charged Margaret Casey, Newtown, with the non-attendance of her son at school.

Complainant said the boy was aged 13 years and 4 months, and lived two miles from the school and was absent 88 out of 85 school days. There was no excuse given. He was in the fifth standard.

She was fined 2/6.
Sergt. Grey, charged Wm. Hurley, Chapel street, with using an unlighted pony and trap.

Defendant said he had been out since 4 a.m. trying to get some work finished.

Complainant stated defendant said that the light didn't give him any trouble.

The Justice—What are you?
Defendant—I was once a cattle dealer, but I don't know what I am now (laughter).

The Justice—Are you still a cattle dealer?
Defendant—Trying to be (laughter). He was fined 1/-.

There were a number of cases of using unlighted cycles and the usual fines were imposed.

Burning Furze, Etc.
Nicholas Hynes, Ballybrack, was charged with that he did without the written permission of the Superintendent of the Garda Síochána for the district, burn ferns, briars, old grass and furze growing on lands not cultivated or in course of cultivation, contrary to Section 28 or the Game Preservation Act, 1930.

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, prosecuted and Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., defended.

SEIZED CATTLE.

EXCITING SCENES AT CLONMEL SALE.

Scenes reminiscent of old agrarian agitation were witnessed in Clonmel on Saturday last, when crowds of farmers gathered from various parts of South Tipperary for a sale of thirty-one head of cattle seized on the farms of Mr. P. Brett and Miss K. Brett, near Killenaule, for non-payment of rates. Fearing trouble, about 150 Garda and detectives were drafted into the town, and they made an imposing display as they marched to the pound, where the cattle had been closely guarded by the police since they were brought to the town. The approaches to the pound were congested by large numbers of farmers and Guards assembled there. Intense excitement prevailed. The sale was announced for noon, and, as the Angelus bell sounded, the people in the crowd doffed hats and silently recited the Angelus.

Only about fifty persons, including Mr. P. Brett, and Mr. R. Curran, T.D., were admitted to the pound.

Chief Superintendent Quinn, who was in charge, said no one with a stick would be allowed in—they should "leave their artillery outside." There were many Guards and detectives in the pound and posted on top of the walls around.

Bidding for 18 cattle, belonging to Mr. Brett, was started by a stranger, who had bid for Mr. McEniry's cattle at a previous sale, and went on between him and Mr. P. Brett, brother of the owner. Excitement ran high and the crowd pressed in. Mr. Brett said he was the owner of the cattle and did not want a hair of a man's head injured there. They should not get into trouble with the officers of the law. These words pacified the crowd. Bidding went on amidst cheers. Excitement rose, and Mr. Curran, T.D., appealed that the auction should go on. The cattle were knocked down to Mr. Brett for £28 10s. 6d. He paid for them, and took them out of the pound amidst great cheering.

Bidding for Miss Kate Brett's cattle was not brisk, and lay between Mr. Brett and a strange man with a Northern accent. The latter was declared the purchaser at £13. His name was not disclosed, though there were repeated calls for it.

After the sale Mr. Brett's cattle were taken out of the pound and driven through the town at the head of a long procession of cheering farmers. At Parnell St., the crowd entered Hearn's Hotel yard, where a meeting was held. Mr. Nicholas Ryan, who presided, said they had thought they would not have any more of these seizures, as the other side promised that those who could not pay would not be so pressed. The agreement had been broken, though the farmers were doing their best to pay. The only thing the farmers had before them while the present Government was in power was the poorhouse, but even that was gone now. The Government were exterminating everything in preparing for a dictatorship. Farmers were driven to an extremely, because their cattle and milk were unseizable. If the British Government put on more pressure there would be starvation. Their only hope was the election of a Government that would give them a chance to live and get back the British market, the best in the world.

Mr. R. Curran, T.D., said unfortunately the days of the bailiff were back again, owing to the policy of the Government in seizing cattle. The Government were depriving the farmer of the one asset he possessed, for livestock was the mainstay of the country. Through Mr. de Valera said the British market was gone, they saw that day the Government were giving a half million to get Irish produce into it. The agreement made was broken, and cattle were seized on people unable to pay. The Government wanted their pound of flesh. The only remedy for farmers was to show a united front and make their demands in a peaceful and reasonable manner.

Mr. Farrell, Cashel, Mr. T. A. Morris, and Mr. E. Stokes, also spoke.

The cattle sold to the strange man were brought to the railway under a strong guard and boxed for consignment to Dublin. Guards kept back a large crowd that followed the cattle to the station. The buyer got a hostile reception and drove away in a motor car.

BALLYDUFF, CO. WATERFORD.

At the monthly meeting of the Ballyduff, (Co. Waterford) Branch, U.I.P., Mr. P. J. O'Sullivan, P.C., presided.

It was agreed to submit the name of a candidate from this area for the County Council elections, to the District Convention, and on the proposition of Mr. M. Waters, seconded by Mr. John Prior, the chairman, Mr. P. J. O'Sullivan, was selected.

The Chairman informed the meeting that the treasurer, Dr. J. O'Driscoll, had resigned, on his appointment to the Dispensary District of Cloyne, Co. Cork.

Proposed by the Chairman, seconded by Mr. James Barry, and passed with acclamation:—"That this meeting of the Ballyduff Branch, Finá Gael, expresses its appreciation of the work done by Dr. J. O'Driscoll for the branch, and congratulates him on his appointment as medical officer of the Dispensary District of Cloyne, County Cork."

President's Answer.

ARE ANNUITIES BEING PAID TWICE?

The following letter has been received by Mr. P. Beiton, T.D., from President de Valera in reply to his letter, enclosing resolution passed at a meeting in the Mansion House:—

"A Chára,—I am directed by the President to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 3rd inst., forwarding copies of three resolutions adopted at a meeting held in the Mansion House, Dublin, on the 2nd inst. He has considered these resolutions in conjunction with your letter of the 10th ult., already acknowledged.

With reference to resolution No. 1, the President notes the statement therein that the sum of £4,552,000, the proceeds of the British special duties on Saorstát products for the year 1933-34, exceeds the farmers' total liability, both for annuities and rates. In this connection he desires me to inform you that prior to the reduction of 50 per cent. in land purchase annuities—which was made possible by the retention of moneys formerly paid to Great Britain—the total amount of farmers' annuities and rates was much greater than the drafters of the resolution appear to realise. In 1931-32, for example, the annuities amounted to about £4,000,000, and rates on agricultural lands and buildings to about £1,750,000—a total of £5,750,000. It is evident, therefore, that there is no point in the request of the meeting that the Government should finance the local authorities to the amount that the product of the special duties exceeds the farmers' liability."

"The President directs me to say that the Government does not propose, as requested in resolution No. 2, to set up a tribunal to investigate the claim made by the meeting that the farmers' obligations in respect of annuities and rates have been fully discharged through the British special duties. The obligation to pay annuities on land purchased under the Land Acts is an obligation to the Saorstát Government, the obligation to pay local rates is an obligation to the local authorities. No tribunal is needed to discover that these obligations cannot be discharged by payment or duties levied by an outside Government. The President asks me to say further that the Government is being kept fully informed of the facts of the agricultural situation by existing agencies, and it is not felt that any useful purpose would be served by the establishment of a Tribunal of Inquiry."

"The President notes with satisfaction the declaration of the farmers present at the meeting that they are prepared to meet all their obligations to the best of their ability, and that they deprecate any attempt by individuals or groups to evade their obligations. He hopes that this declaration will be taken to heart by the people in certain areas in the Saorstát who have been engaged in organising opposition to the enforcement of payment of local rates. He observes, however, that the declaration is accompanied by an assertion that farmers must not be called on to meet their obligations twice, and desires me to point out that they are not being called on to do anything of the kind. Even if the yield of the British special duties could be regarded as in any sense meeting the obligations of Saorstát farmers to the Saorstát Government and local authorities, the reliefs afforded by the Government should be taken into account as an offset. Several of these relief items were adverted to in my letter of the 4th ult., and it is only necessary to say here that the 50 p.c. reduction in land purchase annuities, the bounties on agricultural exports, and the benefits of the scheme for the stabilisation of butter prices, taken together, exceed substantially the yield of the British duties.

"With regard to the statement in your letter of the 10th ultimo, that since the present Government came into office 'the value of the dropped calf has fallen £2 to £3 per head,' the President directs me to say that, outside a few restricted areas, the entire value of a dropped calf in 1931 or 1932 did not reach £2 on the average. In the circumstances he feels that your estimate of the fall in value may fairly be described as a fantastic exaggeration. He is equally unable to accept your assertion that the loss on cow replacements has risen £2 to £3 per head of the whole dairy stock. With reference to your further statement that 'the high price of butter here has turned thousands of working class families to the use of margarine,' he asks me to inform you that this is not borne out by the available statistics."

"I am directed by the President to add with reference to the third resolution of the Mansion House meeting that the allocation of licences for the export of farm produce, where such licences are necessary, is a matter for the Department of Agriculture. He is having the resolution sent to that Department.

"Is mise le meas,

Runaidhe."

HARBOUR BOARD SECRETARY.

42 CANDIDATES FOR WATERFORD POST.

There were 42 candidates for the position of Secretary and General Manager of Waterford Harbour Board, rendered vacant by the death of Mr. A. A. Farrell. By thirteen votes to eight for Mr. John Stephenson, Kilmearney, Mr. Thomas Shipsey, Dunmore East, Co. Waterford, was elected Secretary and General Manager to Waterford Harbour Commissioners on Tuesday.

Of the forty-two candidates only three were voted on, the third being Mr. J. V. A. Spencer, Vice-Chairman of the Harbour Board. He tied with Mr. Stephenson on the first ballot, each receiving six votes, and Mr. Shipsey nine votes. On the second ballot between Stephenson and Spencer, the former received eleven and the latter ten votes. Two Clonmel representatives, Messrs. J. Kane, and Edward Phelan, and Mr. Spencer were the only absent members. Mayor M. Cassin, T.C., presided. The position carries a starting salary of £450.

President De Valera.

OUR RELATIONS WITH BRITAIN. NO LARGE RANCHES.

Speaking at a big meeting in Cork on Sunday, President de Valera, who was loudly cheered when he rose to speak, referred to relations with Great Britain at the end of his speech.

The Government, he said, had no desire to quarrel with Britain. "We are," he added, "ready to say to them that if they are prepared to give us certain preferences in regard to agricultural products which they want, we will give them certain preferences in regard to capital equipment which we want."

When the President began his speech, there were interjections from a section of the crowd to the left of the platform demanding the release of Tom Barry, the Cork Republican leader, who has been imprisoned by the Military Tribunal.

The President ignored them until he had been speaking for considerably over an hour, and then suddenly in their direction, and in a voice rapidly failing after his long speech, he shouted:

"I heard somebody ask several times about the release of Tom Barry," and the interrupters cheered. The President retorted by asking the question: "Who put Tom Barry in jail?" and replying: "Himself."

He was loudly cheered by those in the immediate vicinity of the platform.

"We don't want any Irishman in prison," he vehemently declared, still addressing the interrupters, "and for one year we strove to have no Coercion Act of any character. Then we were going to have bloodshed in the streets of Dublin unless we brought the Act in."

"Are all the efforts of the Irish people to be in vain because there are a few fools?"

The interruptions still continued, and those on the platform advised the President, who had hesitated for a moment, to continue.

"Too much," he declared, "has been sacrificed in this nation to allow any one man or group of men to prevent the mass of the people from going forward."

The President was enthusiastically cheered, and when he could be heard he continued with great emphasis in his speech: "We have a duty to perform, and we will do it. We will ask every man in this crowd who knows what we are working for to support us."

"I want to see everybody in this country having the freedom that I desire for myself, and every man here is entitled to work for that freedom, and we are not going to allow any group to prevent the nation from marching forward."

President de Valera, at the opening of his speech, said that their opponents pretended to believe that if the Government went to the country it would be defeated (Cries of "Never.") "If we had a mind," he said, "to put the people to the expense or to waste our efforts in a needless campaign, I am certain that the people would again back us. We did not ask to be put into office merely to get the opportunity of going again and again before the people under favourable circumstances to be returned back again to office."

"We accepted office for the reason that we believed that we could lead the nation to the goal that is destined for it, and in the meantime organize the people to secure it, and when they have secured that position to enjoy it."

"Because that was our purpose we have no intention whatever of involving the people in the waste of effort and waste of money that a general election would mean."

"This meeting is proof enough to us that we have the support of the Irish people."

Referring to disorder at public meetings, the President said there was something he wanted to say that he hoped would be heard in every part of the Saorstát. They all loved liberty, individual liberty and well as national liberty, and they could not try and deny it to citizens who had the same right to meet in public as had the supporters of the Government. Anyone who did not like their opinions and views could keep away from their meetings, and if they did so the opinions of their opponents would be propagated far less than they were.

"This is a peaceful meeting," he said, "so let the other people be permitted to have their meetings in peace too. The denial of such freedom will interfere with the nation's march, because it creates dissension. I don't want to appeal for generosity. They are entitled to express in public their political opinions."

He appealed to their opponents, on the other hand, not to make the task of preserving peace at public meetings more difficult by giving an outside Government the hope that the Irish people would be beaten in the struggle and by tactics that made the march of the nation more difficult.

The President, referring to the Budget, said it was customary for Fianna Fáil's opponents to represent the country as financially unsound, as economically cracking up.

New Industries for Waterford.

DISCUSSED BY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

Criticism of the proposed new Waterford glass factory, which was stated by the President (Mr. R. S. Elmes) to be definitely coming to the city, was voiced at a general meeting of the Chamber of Commerce by Mr. W. A. Dohbyn, T.C. "Waterford glass," as he understood it, would consist of imported ready-made tumblers, wine glasses, etc., decorated in the city and sold under the name and on the fame of Waterford glass.

The President, said that since their last meeting a lot of work had been done in connection with the new glass factory, and he learned last week that the industry was definitely coming to Waterford (hear, hear), and that they expected to start very soon. He did not know at the moment what number would be employed, but he thought it would be between twenty and thirty hands for a beginning. The only thing he thought they could do therefore was to wish the venture every success. There was also a prospect of another factory coming to the city.

The Secretary had been in communication with a London firm in regard to a die stamping factory, and although nothing definite had yet come about, it was quite on the cards that such an industry would come to Waterford. The Secretary had also been in correspondence with a second London firm in connection with the establishment of a proposed canning factory. The members of this particular firm had been negotiating with some firm in Kilkenny in regard to this, but so far as he (the President) understood, no definite decision had been come to in that case either, and it was possible that that factory might also come to the city.

Personally, he had heard nothing further since the last meeting as to the cement factory. He did not think such an industry had yet been established in any other part of the Free State, nor did he know if the project had been dropped or not. Reference had also been made in the minutes to the tanning factory to be started in Portlaw, and perhaps the vice-president could give them information about that.

Mr. Hearne said they hoped to start the tannery in a few months time. Remarking that he had no brief against the company in question, Mr. Dohbyn said he had simply asked for information before they passed resolutions approving of the factory. He did not know anything about it except what he had suggested in his opening statement. He would like now to know why the company did not start making Waterford glass instead of importing those blanks. Mr. Dohbyn concluded: "I withdraw all opposition now, as we have heard the views of the members, and they all seem favourable."

The Mayor said the best way to give encouragement to the project and wish it success was to invest their money in it. That would be much better than boosting it or talking about it.

Mr. Mercer urged the necessity of impressing upon the promoters the possibilities of the common moulded glass which was used—and broken—much more extensively than the dearer quality article. This, he said, would be sold all over Ireland and would mean a considerable increase in the amount of employment given.

The President pointed out that in regard to the sale of the blanks, the promoters had given an undertaking that they would work anybody's blanks. If the new company could buy them more cheaply than they could supply them, they were quite willing to allow them to do so.

Mr. Hearne said they hoped to start the tannery in a few months time. Remarking that he had no brief against the company in question, Mr. Dohbyn said he had simply asked for information before they passed resolutions approving of the factory. He did not know anything about it except what he had suggested in his opening statement. He would like now to know why the company did not start making Waterford glass instead of importing those blanks. Mr. Dohbyn concluded: "I withdraw all opposition now, as we have heard the views of the members, and they all seem favourable."

The Mayor said the best way to give encouragement to the project and wish it success was to invest their money in it. That would be much better than boosting it or talking about it.

Mr. Mercer urged the necessity of impressing upon the promoters the possibilities of the common moulded glass which was used—and broken—much more extensively than the dearer quality article. This, he said, would be sold all over Ireland and would mean a considerable increase in the amount of employment given.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

Mr. P. O'Gorman, presided at the meeting of above. Other members present were—Messrs. J. Butler, W. Stack, Mce. Keane, P. J. Fox, D. Heskin, J. O'Halloran, M. Curran.

Tramore Committee And Fishing Rights.

Tramore Public Health Committee wrote stating that their committee should have been consulted before the Board gave the fishing rights of Ballylantee lake.

Chairman—The Tramore Committee will supersede us altogether. The letter was marked read.

Ardmore Water. The Engineer's amended estimate for the improvement of the Ardmore Water Supply was £2,070 10s.

A letter of a technical nature in connection with the matter was read from the Department.

The matter was referred to the Engineer for report on the Department's letter.

Aglish Water. The caretaker of the Aglish Water Supply reported a leak in the main.

Mr. Heskin—Are all the water rates being paid? Secretary—All, except in Ballyguiry. These rents are got by a deed of charge on the lands.

Mr. Heskin—I suggest that you ask the caretaker to report on the condition of the other pipes.

It was decided to repair the main and to get a report from the caretaker on the condition of the service pipes.

Kilmacthomas Water Charges. Letters were received from two residents of Kilmacthomas asking for a reduction on the water charges from 1/- per week to 6d. per week.

The matter was referred to the local representative for report.

Tramore Lighting. Tramore Public Health Committee wrote protesting against the using of the E.S.B., of the poles at the Promenade for the purpose of supplying private consumers.

The Board were of opinion that the poles were the property of the E.S.B., and they could do nothing in the matter.

Compensation For Clothes. Dr. Healy, Lismore, reported on the condition of clothes, which were alleged to have been damaged in the process of disinfecting.

The owners of the clothes, Miss Keating and Mr. O'Meara, claimed £4 12s. 6d., and £4 8s. 6d. respectively.

A letter in connection with the matter was received from the Department. The letter stated that in such cases in order to prevent concealment of cases it would be advisable to err on the side of generosity.

The Board agreed to give both claimants £3 10s. each.

Tramore Scavenging. An application from the Tramore P.H. Committee to have an assistant scavenger appointed, was refused as the Board considered that one scavenger should be able to do the work.

Cottage Repairs. Mr. M. F. Walsh, M.C.C., appeared before the meeting in connection with the necessity of repairs to cottages in his area.

Mr. Stack—You are not a member of this Board. You have no right to be here. I will not listen to you (laughter).

Mr. Walsh—I am representing the cottiers. You need not be so smart. The cottages in question were referred to the engineer for report.

Dunmore Bathing. A deputation consisting of Mr. Farrell, Mr. Waterford, Mr. Lawlor and Mr. Keating, appeared before the meeting in support of a letter requesting the revision of the bathing bye-laws for Dunmore.

Mr. Farrell said the bye-laws at present were unsuitable. Dunmore, he said, was unlike Tramore or other places as there were not so many people coming there. It was largely families who went to Dunmore, and there was only one strand there. It was unfair to disallow parents from going to the strand with their families. People would not come to Dunmore if they were not allowed to go on the strand.

Mr. Lawlor said that he was connected with Dunmore for 20 years. During that time there was never a complaint about breaking the moral code. It would be a danger to public safety if people were separated like this.

Mr. Keating said he came to Dunmore from Waterford every summer with his family, if the bye-laws were not revised he could not go there at all.

Mr. Fox—Weren't the bye-laws submitted by the Dunmore P. H. Committee?

Mr. Keating—The committee there are rather ignorant about laws. They are annoyed about this now.

Chairman—We acted on the advice of the committee, there are letters every day from the Hierarchy warning Councils about the dangers of mixed bathing.

Mr. Fox—Refer the matter back to the Dunmore committee.

A letter was read from the Dunmore committee stating that the bye-laws should have been sent back to them before being adopted.

Secretary—That suggestion came too late as the bye-laws were in the hands of the Department at the time. It was the committee drafted them.

New Technical School in Cappoquin.

COMPLETION OF SPLENDID BUILDING.

The new Technical or Vocational School in Cappoquin, built by the Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee, has now been completed, the Painting Contractor having put the finishing touches to the building on last Saturday.

The erection of this school was proposed by Mr. M. F. Walsh, Co. Councillor, over three years ago, and he was strongly supported by Mr. S. Curran, B.A., Cappoquin, both members of the Vocational Education Committee who pointed out the great necessity for such a building in order to provide facilities for the children of the town and parish to acquire a sound Technical education after they had left the Primary Schools.

After some time the Committee eventually decided to proceed with the work at a cost of £2,500.

A suitable site having been acquired from the Cappoquin Estate Company, quite close to the Sisters of Mercy Convent and Schools, Mr. Bowen, B.E., Co. Surveyor, was entrusted with the work of preparing the necessary plans for the building, but his original plans not being accepted by the Engineer of the L. G. Department, alternative plans had to be prepared, and it was only late last year that one of these plans was finally approved of.

It was also decided to have the work carried out by direct labour under the supervision of Mr. Bowen, and building operations were started during the first week in October, so that the entire work has been completed in the record-time of little over six months.

Concrete blocks were used in all the outer walls, and as the weather proved fine throughout the greater part of the winter, rapid progress was made in the erection of the shell, but the internal work, proved of a more intricate and protracted nature.

The School as it now stands is a most substantial and imposing structure, of graceful and ornate appearance, and is a distinct credit not only to the plan prepared by Mr. Bowen, but also to the thorough and expeditious manner in which the work has been carried out under his able supervision.

Tribute must also be paid to his capable overseer, Watt Walsh, who was in constant charge of the work, while all the carpentry work by Luke Hackett, and Mr. J. Barry, Cappoquin; the plastering work by J. Looby, Clunmel, and the painting by Wm. Foley, Mogehe, have all been executed in a finished manner.

The frontage of the School is 50 feet, and the height, 32 feet, with a flat roof laid in reinforced concrete and asphalt and a parapet wall 18 inches high running all round. On the front of the building a large limestone slab has been inserted, bearing the words, in Irish and English, "Vocational School, 1934," while the main entrance is furnished with a large and handsome glass-pannelled door which opens on to a spacious vestibule inside.

The building is separated from the public road by a low wall, surmounted by pretty wrought-iron railings, so that the entire work has been carried out with materials of Irish manufacture, as far as possible. On the right-hand side on the ground floor stands the Manual Instruction Room, a spacious and well-ventilated apartment, measuring 35 ft. x 20 ft., while immediately overhead is the Domestic Economy Classroom of the same dimensions.

On the left-hand side on the ground floor is a splendid class-room, 22 ft. by 20 ft., and upstairs is another well-appointed class-room, while a comfortable and airy office, 10 ft. x 10 ft., stands immediately over the Hall-door entrance.

Several Cloak-rooms, lavatories, washing-basins, with hot and cold water, and every other convenience are on both floors, while the entire building is fitted with electric light throughout, and nothing has been left undone to make it one of the most modern and best-equipped Vocational Schools in Munster.

At the rear of the building are several spacious out-offices for the accommodation of motor cars, bicycles, tools, etc.

Mr. Bowen, has completed one of the finest jobs he has ever executed for the Vocational Education Committee, and the building in its finished state is a striking monument to his great skill and artistic taste as architect and engineer.

The School is a welcome addition to the aesthetic appearance of Shanbally, on the main road between Cappoquin and Mount Mellary, and is certain to attract the attention and win the admiration of the thousands of tourists who pass by that route on their way to the Cistercian Monastery every year.

The people of Cappoquin owe a debt of gratitude to Mr. M. F. Walsh, M.C.C., who initiated the project over three years ago, and who never tired of advocating it until he saw the work started, which, by the way resulted

It was decided to send the bye-laws back to the Dunmore committee for revision.

Milk Tenders. In connection with the acceptance of milk tenders in regard to the Free Milk Scheme the Secretary said two tenders were at 1/4 per gallon.

The meeting were of opinion that no tender should exceed 1/- per gallon, and an order to that effect was made.

in providing remunerative employment for a large staff of Cappoquin workers during the past six months. Tribute must also be paid to Mr. J. Lanigan, Chief Executive Officer, Dungarvan, for the invaluable assistance which he has given in the matter, and also to the members of the Vocational Committee. Mr. Thomas Halpin, who has been Woodwork Instructor under the Vocational Education Committee and the old Technical Instruction Committee for many years, has been appointed Headmaster of the School, and no more efficient or experienced official could be found anywhere, and it now only remains for the parents of the children in Cappoquin to see that the various classes are well supported by pupils when they start next September, as they are now afforded a golden opportunity at their own doors of imparting to their children of both sexes, a practical knowledge of many necessary and useful subjects which will equip them for the battle of life.

RETREAT AT YOUGHAL. A retreat, attended with the most edifying success, was conducted by the Rev. Fathers Collier and Leo, C.S.S.R., in the Parish Church, Youghal, during the past fortnight. From the very opening the devote missionaries got at the hearts and souls of their hearers with the glad result that the attendance and devout attention at the morning Masses, the evening services, the confessional and the General Communion, could not be excelled. The first week was for the Women's Confraternity of the Holy Family in particular and for the women of the parish in general, and last week for the Men's Confraternity and the other men of the parish. Denouncing in immeasured terms the spiritual evils of the day, the good Fathers attacked the spirit of "exaggerated nationalism" so prevalent in Ireland now-a-days, which had degenerated into so many serious breaches of the law of God—hatred amongst neighbours, injury to the neighbours property and person, not stopping even at murder. And a sad feature of the matter was that these crimes were committed in the name and under the guise of so-called Patriotism—a sham patriotism that was bound to bring the curse of God on the country. The scenes at the closing of the retreat were impressive to an extreme degree, and included the imparting of the Papal Blessing and the Solemn renewal of Baptismal Vows with lighted candles. Several times during the course of the retreat the fathers strongly stressed the many spiritual advantages to be derived from membership of the Confraternities and appealed for new recruits. As a result a substantial number of both women and men joined up.

Class 4.—Championship—Open to County Waterford and confined to First Prize winners in classes 1 and 2 in previous years. First prize, £5; second prize, £4; third prize, £2.

Each competitor must forward a special entry form accurately filled in in every detail to the Secretary of the County Committee. In case of insufficient competition, want of merit, or in which the conditions of this scheme have not been strictly adhered to, the Prizes may be withheld in whole or part.

Competition in Class 1 is strictly confined to bona-fide Agricultural workers resident in rural districts. In Classes 2 and 3 only bona-fide breeders who are rated occupiers in Rural Districts and who derive their means of living from Agricultural work will be eligible to compete. Holders of Poultry Stations are ineligible to compete under the Scheme.

N.B.—Prize Winners in 1931, 1932, and 1933 are not eligible to compete in classes 1, 2 and 3.

Latest day for receiving entries 11th June, 1934.

Entries must be made on a special form to be obtained from: J. O'DWYER, Secretary, Co. Committee of Agriculture, Offices—Courthouse, Dungarvan, May, 16th, 1934.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

A COWARDLY ACT. MOTORIST INJURES YOUNG MAN AND RUNS AWAY.

On Thursday evening, 10th inst., a young man named James Hayes, of Davis street, Dungarvan, who had received injuries to his hand was driven on a pony and cart by a man named Connors to Mrs. Murphy, Glenmore, for treatment and was accompanied by Mrs. Hayes, mother of the injured man and another woman. On the way back to Dungarvan, and when near Killongford Bridge, the pony was frightened by a motor coming behind him and fell on the road. In so doing, Hayes, who was sitting in the cart slipped and one of his legs went out over the side of the cart. The motorist was coming behind and the wheel of the motor went over the unfortunate man's leg, fracturing it. The motor, which was driven by a lady, went on and paid no attention to the injured man. Hayes was later taken away to have his injuries attended to, while Civic Guards were notified of the occurrence, and have been making eager inquiries as to the whereabouts of the offending motorist, but so far without success. In the interests of the general public and of the usage of our public highways, any person with information on the matter should communicate with the Guards and so put an end to such cowardly conduct.

SWORN INQUIRY.

On Thursday next, an Inquiry will be held at the Courthouse, Dungarvan, by Mr. Geraghty, L.G. Inspector, into the discharge of their duties by the Waterford Co. Council. An order to that effect has been issued by the Minister for Local Government. Following receipt of the notice, the Secretary Co. Council has summoned a special meeting of the Council for this day (Saturday) to consider the matter.

CO. COUNCIL ELECTIONS.

At a Convention of the U.I.P., Executive in Dungarvan last Saturday, the names of candidates for the several areas at the forthcoming Co. Council elections were submitted. The names were not issued to the Press.

F. F. CANDIDATES.

For the Co. Council election in the Co. Waterford next month, the following candidates have been selected to contest seats under Fianna Fail auspices:—

Dungarvan Area—Messrs. M. McGrath, Modeligo (outgoing); Michael Hickey, Cahernalega and James Mansfield, Dungarvan.

Clashmore Area—Messrs. Maurice Keane, Ardmore (outgoing); John O'Halloran, Clashmore (do.), and J. Sullivan, Villierstown.

FIANNA FAIL MEETING IN DUNGARVAN.

On Sunday 27th inst., Senator Connolly, Minister of Lands and Fisheries and other prominent speakers will address a public meeting in the Square, Dungarvan, at 12 noon.

CO. COUNCIL.

A Quarterly meeting of the Co. Council will be held in Dungarvan on Tuesday next. The business includes the nomination of a standing solicitor to the Council consequent on the death of Mr. A. McCoy, recently. It is interesting to note that Messrs. Dobbyn and McCoy were appointed solicitors to the Grand Jury in 1884—50 years ago—and have continued ever since as the legal advisers to the body responsible for administering the affairs of the Co. Waterford.

DUNGARVAN FAIR.

The May Fair on Wednesday was on the small side, and prices were smaller also. As usual at recent fairs numbers of cattle went home unsold; in very many cases no offers were made for them. Yearlings made from £2 to £5 according to quality; 2 year-olds from £3 to £6 and 3-year-olds £6 to £9. Springers sold at £8 to £10 for the best and young fat cows fetched £6 to £8. Sheep 20/- to 45/-; Lambs 20/- to 25/-. There was a big supply of pigs. Prices ranged from 20/- to 40/- according to size, etc. A good number went home unsold.

LOCAL MARKETS.

Meal 10/- per sack; middiecut 18/6; flour 13/6 per 10 st.; bran and pollard 7/6 cwt.; Creamery butter retail 4/5d. lb.; farmers unsalted butter 7d. lb.; salted 9d. lb.; eggs 8d. dozen.

A PROTEST.

At a meeting of the Kevin Barry F.F. Cumann, Cappoquin, a resolution was unanimously adopted protesting against the action of the Executive Council in bringing Tom Barry, before the Military Tribunal and demanding justice for the hero of Kilmichael.

CIRCUS COMING.

Old and young will hear with delight that John Duffy and Sons great Circus, the finest in Ireland is on tour and will soon visit Youghal, Lismore, Dungarvan and Kilmacthomas. This year it is better and brighter than ever, and the programme arranged should delight the hearts of all.

AUGUSTINIAN FRIARY.

A Solemn Triduum in honour of St. Rita, O.S.A., will commence at St. Augustine's Church on Sunday evening 20th May, 1934. Rosary, sermon and Benediction each evening at 7.30 o'clock. Solemn High Mass on Tuesday (the Feast) at 10 o'clock and Solemn Benediction at 7.30 o'clock.

CHAMPIONSHIPS AT DUNGARVAN

On to-morrow (Sunday) at Dungarvan, there will be seen in action Waterford, Limerick, Tipperary and Cork in the first round of the Munster Championships. In Junior Football Waterford and Limerick will meet under D. O'Keefe, Clonmel and this should be a great game in which the home County should do big things. In Junior Hurling, Tipperary and Cork will line out with Mr. Pax Whelan, as referee, and this should be a real thriller. The Waterford v. Limerick game starts at 2.30 p.m. (new time). A special train leaves Waterford at 1 p.m. reaching Dungarvan at 2.10 p.m. and returning at 7 p.m.

The field arrangements are perfect. Mr. Fraher, has the grounds thoroughly overhauled of late and today the Gaelic Field is as of old, the finest playing pitch in the Free State. Spectators will here find that their wants are catered for in a thorough manner and whether on the banks, in the stands or on the sideline, they will have every opportunity of enjoying under ideal conditions, every item of the games.

The following were selected to travel to Dungarvan on next Sunday to meet Tipperary in Junior hurling—G. Molony (Middleton), M. Cotter (do.); L. Horgan, (do.), B. Thornhill (Buttevant), M. McSweeney, (do.), J. Tobin (Blackrock), T. Kelly (do.), P. Lawless (Fr. Mathew Hall), M. Sheehy (do), G. O'Connor, (Ballincollig), W. Murphy (do.), E. Murphy (do.), J. Lucey (Eire Og), J. Flannery (Banba), M. McCarthy, (Lough Rovers) D. Hyde (do.), R. Crowley (Bandon), J. Barrett (Kinsale), T. O'Connell (do.), J. Cogan (Carrigaline), D. Cogan (St. Columbas), J. O'Callaghan, (Ballincollig), M. Flanagan (Collins), C. Buckley (Glen Rovers).

DUNGARVAN GOLF CLUB.

The Annual General Meeting of the Dungarvan Golf Club was held in the Magistrate's Room, Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Tuesday night last. There was a large and enthusiastic attendance. Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., Ring, presided. The minutes of the last meeting were read and signed. The Auditor's Report showed a distinct improvement in the finances of the Club and a substantial reduction of the Club's liabilities. The election of officers and committee then took place. Mr. J. B. Cooke, was re-elected Captain. Miss M. Mullins, was elected Ladies Captain in place of Miss Lawlor, who resigned. Miss Lawlor was elected Ladies Vice-Captain. Joint Hon. Secretaries were elected, Mr. J. Lynch, and Mr. A. R. Farrell, Solicitor; the Tournament Secretary elected was Mr. E. Fitzgerald. Mr. U. Mulcahy, was re-elected Hon. Treasurer. The five members of the Committee elected were: Dr. McCarthy, Messrs. J. Foley, J. Lanigan, J. O'Dwyer, and W. Barr.

Applications for membership from 16 new members were accepted. It was decided to limit the subscriptions from Associate members, that is, members of other affiliated Clubs who joined Dungarvan to £1 1s. 0d.

A vote of thanks to Fr. Murphy, the Chairman was then passed.

ADMORE IRISH COLLEGE.

The following Head Masters have been appointed for July and August respectively:—Seamus O Cleirichain, B.A., (Hons.), and Seamus Dalton, B.A., (Hons.), Higher Dip. in Ed. Owing to the large number of students being enrolled it has been decided to hold a special course from June 4th to 28th.

DUNGARVAN SHOW—JULY 12th.

At a meeting of the Dungarvan Show Committee on Wednesday, Mr. Arthur Hunt, President, in the Chair, it was unanimously decided to hold the Annual Show this year on Thursday July 12th in view of the fact that the date provisionally agreed to already—July 19th—would be a Race meeting at Powerstown Park, Clonmel, and it would not do to have the events clash. All arrangements are being made to ensure the success of the Show and despite the strange times in which we live at present, it is thought possible by the Committee that the Show will be as great a success as it ever was in the past. Prize Lists are now being prepared and can be had from the Secretary (Mr. J. Lynch), at an early date.

EXCLUSIVE MATERIALS.

We have just received delivery of a charming selection of printed crepe silks, coloured spun silks, pique voiles and the new fancy printed crepe materials, suitable for smart summer frocks. Mulcahy's, Dungarvan.

BAND PROMENADE.

The Brass and Reed Band will play on the Square, Dungarvan, after last Mass, on Sunday, 20th inst.

WEATHER VAGARIES.

During the past week we have been treated to various kinds of weather, and it looks as if we are to have more strange phenomena in that line. Cold and biting winds with showers of sleet and hail are a common feature in a season that should be sunshine and dew. How our farmers can produce early potatoes for the market in the face of such organised opposition by the weather Clerk is a mystery. No wonder the cuckoo got hoarse when he saw where he landed this summer. Thinking he was doped one cuckoo on visit to these shores hit his head against a stone wall and put himself out of action. Now he won't come

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

A GREAT SPORTS FIXTURE. At the inaugural meeting of the Munster Provincial Advisory Committee of the N.A. & C.A.I., held in Fermoy, it being pointed out that every County in Munster except Waterford has already had its turn in staging these contests and that it was the turn of Co. Waterford to get the fixture for this year, Mr. W. J. Nolan, proposed and Mr. P. Dynan, N.T., (Cork), seconded, that Cappoquin be the venue this year, and the contests were accordingly fixed for the Sportsfield, Cappoquin, on either Sunday, July 22nd or Sunday July 29th, the actual date to be definitely fixed at the next meeting of the Advisory Committee to be held in Fermoy on Sunday July 1st, the day on which the Irish Championships will be decided in that town.

As these contests will be fought for by all the leading Athletic and Cycling champions in Munster, including Dr. O'Callaghan, the famous champion Athlete, this fixture should prove one of the most important sporting events ever held in Cappoquin, and we trust the people of the town will generously subscribe towards the expenses which must be incurred in preparing the Sportsfield for such a great day's sports in Cappoquin. Fuller details in later issues.

"SCRATCH RACES" ON WHIT MONDAY.

Under the auspices of the Cappoquin Rowing Club a very interesting programme of "Scratch Races" will be run off here on Whit Monday.

Mr. J. McCarthy, the efficient Vice-Captain of the Club, has been working hard for some weeks past in training the various crews for this event, and as the crews to represent the Club at this season's Regatta will be selected on the "form" displayed on Monday there will be a great scramble for the much-coveted "Caps," so that some close and exciting finishes should be the order of the day. On that night a grand Cinderella Dance will be held in the Boathouse Hall, which should prove an enjoyable wind-up to the evening's sport.

PRICE OF PIGS.

The price of pigs at the Cappoquin Bacon Factory this week was 58/- per cwt., dead weight, the same as last week.

THE CARNEGIE FREE LIBRARY.

We are informed that at a meeting of the Co. Waterford Libraries' Committee held some months ago it was ordered, on the motion of Mr. M. F. Walsh, Cappoquin, that tenders be invited for the painting of the Cappoquin Library, and also that Lockers be provided for the newspapers supplied to the Library, but so far nothing appears to have been done in carrying out either of these orders.

While the painting of the Library would be a very desirable improvement, the question of Lockers for the papers is a pressing necessity, as at present owing to the habit of many of those using the Library in separating the various sheets of each paper and mixing them up in a confused heap with other papers it is almost impossible to find a single paper intact on any day of the week. Worse still, several of the most interesting pages are missing each day, through no fault of the Caretaker, who cannot be expected to be constantly on duty there, but the use of the Lockers would prevent much of this abuse.

DAIL QUESTIONS. WATERFORD SEARCHES.

Mr. Rutledge, Minister for Justice, replying to Gen. Mulcahy, stated that he was aware that Mr. Fergus Power, solr., Waterford, reporting secretary of the League of Youth, and Mr. Roddy Hanlon, Tramore, were approached by detectives in the street in Waterford on Saturday evening, May 5th., and subjected to a personal search, and that a number of Civic Guards and detectives on the same night visited the League of Youth Club, Waterford, and subjected all present to a personal search. The searches, said the Minister, were made following the receipt by the police of information that firearms were being kept in the club or carried by individual members without the necessary licences. The Statutory authority for such search would be found in Act No. 17 of 1925, and Act No. 37 of 1931.

Gen. Mulcahy—Does the Minister realise now that there is no foundation for making such reports to the police.

Mr. Rutledge—I realise nothing of the kind. Recent events, he added, had shown that arms had been found on members of that organisation.

Sligo and Wexford.—The Minister for Justice, in another reply to Gen. Mulcahy, said that he had received reports with reference to an armed attack on a number of persons near Cliffoey, Sligo, and the blocking of a road with felled trees near Enniscorthy and the cutting of telegraph and telephone wires between Enniscorthy and Ferns on the night of April 28th. No persons had yet been charged in connection with these matters.

PRICES OF VEHICLE BODIES.

The Minister for Industry and Commerce under the provisions of Control of Prices Act, 1932, has required the Prices Commission to investigate the prices charged for bodies for omnibuses, and vehicles designed for the carriage of goods by persons manufacturing such commodities in the Saorstát.

Control of Crop Pests.

The arable farmer has to contend with a great many insect pests, although, fortunately, they do not all cause widespread damage, and he relies chiefly on the thorough cultivation of the soil to minimise their attacks on his crops. Early sowing of spring oats to avoid damage by frit fly, and the consolidation of land to make it more difficult for wireworm to move freely from plant to plant, are common examples. At this season of the year widespread damage may be done by wireworm, leather-jackets, and the turnip flea beetle. These are well-known pests, and their life histories have been carefully studied, yet absolutely certain methods of preventing attacks by any of them have not been devised. Good cultivation, good drainage, and freedom from weeds, together with adequate manuring—in short, good farming—are the main preventive methods.

In some years attacks of a particular pest are more widespread and more devastating than in others. In a pest year all ordinary precautions seem to fail, although they may lessen the severity of the attack. Extra ploughings or cultivations and proper consolidation of the soil will do much to reduce wireworm damage; poultry and birds consume large numbers and the protection of the lapping is to be commended because of its usefulness in this direction. Leather-jackets can be destroyed by using a mixture of Paris Green and moistened bran scattered over the growing crop. Stimulating the growing crop by quick-acting nitrogenous manures is advisable.

Remedies against the turnip flea beetle are numerous. Sometimes all seems to fail. The most common precaution is to moisten the seed with paraffin or turpentine. When the flea makes its appearance various things are tried. Dusting with basic slag, soot, or lime fails as often as it succeeds; running a frame on wheels from which is slung freshly tarred sacks will catch millions; free use of the horse hoe will disturb the fleas, encourage the growth of the plant, and is thus beneficial, but there are instances where all these have been tried and still the crop had to be ploughed up.

One method by which it is alleged that an attack can be prevented is to sow common turnips round the outside and headlands of the field, where the kale, swedes, or turnips are to be sown, about 10 or 12 days before it is intended to sow the main crop, and when the flea is busy on these turnips to plough them in and sow the crop. The theory is that the first brood is destroyed and that the main crop can be got past the dangerous stage before the second brood is due. A few isolated cases of success with this method may not be proof that the practice is sound, but some support is given to it by the experience of some farmers a few years ago who made an early decision to plough up the first crop when the attack was bad had much better success with their second sowing than those who waited an extra week in the hope that the crop would pull through.—W. L. in "Farmers' Gazette."

RETAIN THE BROOD SOW.

TAKING BAD TIMES WITH THE GOOD.

As a rule, there appears to be two reasons to account for brood sows appearing in the market before their sphere of usefulness has approached its end. The first reason is that prices are so high that the farmer, anxious to secure the largest profit in the shortest possible time, fattens and sells every pig that he thinks he can spare from his farm (incidentally one is inclined to think that he does not show foresight in this idea), and, secondly, because the slump having set in, and there being no signs that it will end speedily, he decides to sell as many pigs as possible to avoid the expense of keeping them at home.

In reality, both these ideas are wrong and false to the best interests of the farmer himself and to the farm. A brood sow costs but little to keep while she is in pig, and it is only during the last three weeks of her pregnancy that she need be given extra food to assist her milk supply and to "steam" her up to giving plenty of this nourishing beverage to her youngsters when they arrive. During the best part of the time she is in pig she can maintain herself by grazing, supplemented, of course, by some allowance of meals.

It seems almost a crime to slaughter valuable brood sows just to save their keep, for, when prices improve, as often they do, such sows are the potential mothers of good litters, and the farmer will have many moments of regret that ever he was weak enough to slaughter them.

WEANING PIGS.

The age at which to wean pigs largely depends on the system of management followed on each farm. Sows usually will not come to service until after the litter is weaned. Therefore, if the practice is that of raising two litters per year, it will be necessary to wean pigs as soon as practicable in order to get the sows served for farrowing at the proper time. It is the usual practice when the sow is to raise an autumn litter to wean the pigs at eight weeks of age. Some breeders are able to induce the sow to come in heat by keeping her and her litter separated several nights in succession. In that case the litter can be nursed a greater length of time, but this system can hardly be recommended, because it places a double burden on the sow when she should

Waterford Mental Hospital.

THE SOLICITORSHIP.

There was an animated discussion at the monthly meeting of the Waterford Mental Hospital Committee when the members discussed at length the appointment of a solicitor in succession to the late Mr. A. S. McCoy.

Mr. Fergus Power, solr., of the firm of Dobbyn and McCoy, was present throughout the discussion.

The Mayor (Councillor M. Cassin), occupied the chair.

The matter arose when Mr. Coghlan proposed that a temporary solicitor be appointed at that meeting and that advertisements be issued for the permanent appointment, to be effected at the next meeting.

Mr. Fergus Power, solr., came before the meeting and said many of them were already aware of the position which arose at the County Council meeting. The few remarks he was going to make that day would be similar to his remarks at the Co. Council meeting, namely, that the firm of Dobbyn and McCoy were the solicitors to the Mental Hospital. He did not know if the resolution appeared on the books of the Mental Hospital appointing anyone their solicitor, but he could tell them that he had looked back over the books of his firm, and as far back as 1861 Dobbyn and Tandy were then acting for the Governors of the Hospital. And since then down to the present day, despite many changes in his firm and in the personnel of the Mental Hospital and also in the method of administration, his firm had remained solicitors. Continuing, Mr. Power said that Mr. McCoy's daughter had qualified and taken up her position as a member of the firm. The firm was being carried on the same, and Mr. Power suggested there should be no change in the matter of solicitorship to the Board.

After discussion, Mr. J. O'Donnell handed in notice of motion for next meeting to have the appointment of Messrs. Dobbyn and McCoy terminated, and a new appointment made.

DRUNKEN PILOT SHOT FOR CRASHING WITH PASSENGERS.

A drunken pilot on the Soviet air line between Kharkov and Kiev, was responsible for the death of three passengers when his machine got out of control and crashed.

The pilot, whose name was Verschkoff, saved his life by jumping out with the only parachute on the machine, leaving his passengers to crash to an instantaneous death.

But retribution in Soviet Russia is swift.

A special court which was summoned immediately, after submitting Verschkoff to various tests for intoxication, stated that he was "as drunk as a pig," and passed sentence of death on him within three hours of the accident.

The sentence was executed at once.

be storing nutrients within her body for the litter to be farrowed in the autumn.

Sows that are good milkers and are to be retained in the herd, but are not to be used for autumn farrowing, should be allowed to suckle their pigs till they are ten or eleven weeks of age. The practice of letting the sow wean the pigs usually is not profitable unless the sow is a good milker, because she may do more damage by way of robbing her pigs of feed than benefit by way of furnishing them milk.—W. in "Farmers' Gazette."

LISMORE DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

AN UNLICENSED DANCE HALL.

The Co. Waterford Board of Public Health summoned Mr. Edmond Higgins, Ballyduff, for holding a dance in a hall in Ballyduff which had not been licensed for the purpose under the Public Health Act of 1890.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, appeared for the complainants, and the defendant, who was not professionally represented, appeared in person.

Mr. O'Gorman said that the Public Health Act of 1890 was adopted by the Co. Waterford Board of Health on June 28th 1933, and after the statutory period of six months it duly came into force on December, 28th 1933. Under the provisions of this Act all halls or other buildings used for dancing or other forms of entertainment should be licensed under the local Board of Health, but the defendant failed to comply with the Act and ran several dances in his hall without a licence, but they were proceeding against him in respect of only one offence which was committed on Sunday night, April 1st (Easter Sunday Night).

Guard Cullen, Ballyduff, gave evidence of finding a dance in progress in defendant's hall on Easter Sunday Night. There were about 60 persons present at the dance, and a charge of 2d. each was made for same. The dance continued from 7 o'clock till 10 o'clock.

Defendant did not cross-examine witness, but admitted the facts. He said he did not understand the Act properly and did not think he required a licence for an ordinary practice dance for 3 hours. He had since closed down the hall, and no further dances would be held there.

Replying to the Justice, he said the building was an ordinary store which he has rented from Mr. Daly, Cork, and he used it as such in connection with his business as a shopkeeper during the week. His usual receipts from a dance held there were about 16/-, and he had lost that since he had closed down the hall.

Mr. O'Gorman said he was not pressing for a heavy penalty under the circumstances, and in bringing on this case the Board of Health only wished to show the owners of other halls that they could not carry on dancing there without having them duly licensed.

The Justice said as the hall had now closed down he should take into account the loss of revenue sustained by Mr. Higgins in the meantime, and he thought a nominal fine of 1/- would meet the case.

Mr. O'Gorman applied for £1 costs but the Justice considered this amount excessive, and allowed only 7/-, the ordinary costs of Court.

A Licence Granted.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, applied on behalf of the Cappoquin Rowing Club, for a licence for the Boathouse Hall, Cappoquin, for the purpose of holding a Cinderella Dance on Whit Monday Night, May 21st., in connection with the "Scratch Races" to be held on that day.

Supt. Sean Quinlan, Lismore, said there was no objection on behalf of the Civic Guard authorities, and the application was granted on the usual conditions.

Civil Bills.

A number of Civil Bills of no public interest, in which Mr. O'Gorman, solr., appeared for the complainants, completed the business of the Court.

Correction.

In our report of the case arising at the previous Court out of a disturbance created in the Carnegie Free Library, Lismore, the name of the defendant was inadvertently given as Henry O'Brien, New Street, Lismore. This should have been Chris O'Brien, same address, and we regret any annoyance which may have been caused to Mr. Henry O'Brien, over the matter.

Golf Putting Green On Strand.

The following letter was read from the Strand Church Committee:- Dear Sir,-It is proposed to operate a Golf Putting Green in aid of the Church Fund on the Promenade during the coming season if the Council would grant the necessary permission. The most suitable site is the Green bank between Mrs. Hughes' hut and the gravel car-park. No obstructions would be erected that would interfere in any way with existing rights, and the Committee think the amusement would be a decided asset to the locality. As it is desired to open the Green for the Whitsun holidays, the desired permission would be very much appreciated. The application was granted un-animously, and Mr. Dennehy thanked the Council on behalf of the Committee.

Mrs. Hurley said instead of spending £36 or £40 on the lighting of the Strand, they ought get a piece of land for a golf links. It was a great and pressing want. Many visitors went elsewhere when they heard there was not a golf links in the vicinity. The Clerk said that wasn't the business of the Council.

Mrs. Hurley-It is their business to bring people to the town. Mr. O'Gorman said he saw no likelihood of a golf links for Youghal at present. When they had one before the local people didn't appreciate it. The Chairman-Or support it.

Mr. O'Gorman said that many of the property owners who derived a considerable income from the visitors who came to Youghal for golf would not give a subscription or become members. The old Golf Committee made superhuman efforts to keep the links going, but were unable to do so.

Mrs. Hurley-Sweet are the uses of adversity (laughter). The people concerned would be very glad to help now.

Mr. McMahon-This is not our business at all. Mr. Fowkes asked what about the Amusement Committee. There were other forms of Amusement besides golf which could be developed. Other places were doing everything possible to attract visitors, but the responsible people of Youghal were doing little or nothing.

After some further discussion the subject dropped without any action being taken.

Letter From Transport Workers.

A letter was read from the Transport Workers Union asking that the members of the staff who worked at the filter beds at Bould should get a half-day's extra pay. The Clerk-That is the usual thing. Mr. Broderick-Then there was no necessity for that letter at all.

Septic Tank. Three tenders were received for the raising of the walls of the Septic Tank, viz., £15, £16 15s. and £18 14s. The lowest, that of Messrs. Murray and Sons, was unanimously accepted.

Proposed Extension.

A prolonged and lively discussion took place on the application of Mrs. Hurley for permission to erect a "Conservatory," extending in front of her place, the Esplanade Hotel, Strand. The matter was ultimately referred back to the Town Surveyor for his opinion as to whether the proposed structure constituted a conservatory.

County Vocational Representative.

Mr. O'Gorman was re-appointed representative on the County Vocational Committee, on the proposition of Mr. McMahon, seconded by Mr. Broderick.

Lighting Strand.

The Gas Manager, submitted proposals for the extra lighting of the Strand till midnight during September and part of October. He was directed to procure 3 of the lamps suggested by him for a practical test as to their efficiency.

Dunne's Park.

Capt. Dunne called attention to the fact that a lot of stones were being dumped on the Childrens Playground at Dunne's Park, rendering the place unsightly and dangerous. The Town Superintendent was directed to attend to the complaint.

Strand Road.

Mrs. Hurley made a strong complaint regarding the condition of the Strand Road. It was full of potholes, the surface should be properly repaired and rolled. The Clerk said the Town Surveyor reported that it would cost over £100 to repair the roadway as required. Mr. O'Gorman-And the Council is getting only £75 from the County Council towards the upkeep. It was decided to have the surface made good without delay.

FRUITLESS RAID FOR RATES.

A force of Garda, under Supt. Heron, who left Naas to make a seizure for rates, failed to find anything to seize on the farm except a tubercular cow.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.)

Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., applied on behalf of Mrs. E. O'Donovan, Hotel Monarca, for a substitution of hours for the summer months. Supt. Kelly having said that there was no objection, the application was granted.

Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., made a similar application on behalf of Mr. E. J. Halpin, Devonshire Arms Hotel. It was also granted.

Fishery Case.

Mr. T. Drohan, Inspector of Fisheries, Mallow, summoned John and Thomas McGrath, J. Ronayne, Alfred Coleman, D. O'Connell, M. Duggan, and Thomas Collins, with fishing with the prohibited half-mile at the mouth of the Harbour.

Mr. T. K. Keane, who appeared for the plaintiff, said the case was brought under the 44th Section of the Fisheries Act 18 and 14 Vic. The Fishery Conservators didn't wish to press the case. They were satisfied that it should be adjourned to the end of the season, and if, in the meantime, the defendants didn't offend again, the case might be withdrawn.

The defendants agreeing, the case was adjourned to the end of July, when the season terminated.

Ahearne v. Kinsella.

This was an application for a Committal Order in respect of the second instalment due on foot of a decree.

Mr. W. J. Barry, solr., Midleton, for plaintiff, said the defendant owed 3 years rent, the former obtaining a decree for £26.6s. 6d. debt costs. An order had been made for the payment of £9 to be followed by monthly payments of £3. The defendant hadn't paid the first instalment and in respect thereof he had been committed for one month. He (Mr. Barry) now asked the Court to have him committed for a further term as he had failed to pay the £3 as ordered.

Plaintiff having given evidence corroborating Mr. Barry's statement, defendant said, in reply to the Court, that he was unable to pay anything then. He had eight in family, none of them earning yet. He was doing his best to educate them. He had a pension of £182 yearly, which went in their support and education. In a short time some of the children would be an asset to him.

Cross-examined by Mr. Barry, witness said he spent very little "on the turf." If he smoked it would cost him more. The debt in question was largely due to Mr. Aherne's indulgence. After a protracted hearing the Court refused the application.

Motor Tax Cases.

Guard Griffin, charged John Spillane, with using a motor car with an expired tax, on 4th April.

Defendant stated that he had sent on the cheque for the tax to Dungarvan on 31st March, but owing to some delay in the postal delivery, he didn't receive the disc till the day after the Guard accosted him.

Corroborative evidence having been handed in.

The Justice said the defence seemed genuine and he accordingly dismissed the case.

Guard Stack, charged Wm. Costin, with a similar offence.

Mr. Hodnett, defended. Guard Stack said that on 25th April he found defendant using a motor tax which had expired in March.

Mr. Hodnett said the delay was caused by some misunderstanding regarding the insurance and by the illness of the agent, who hadn't been notified of the increase in premium.

Evidence was given to this effect by defendant and Mr. T. Foley, agent.

The Justice said the only case against him was failing to produce the certificate.

He was fined 1/- in each summons.

Larceny Of Bicycle.

At the Childrens Court, a boy aged 12, was charged with the larceny of a bicycle.

Supt. O'Kelly, prosecuted and Mr. Keane, defended. From the evidence it appeared the boy took the machine-which belonged to a playmate-from outside a shop on Thursday. When he brought it back, his little friend was gone and fearing discovery by his father he hid the machine for two days. On Saturday evening he asked another boy to mind it while he went home to tea. As he didn't turn up, the other boy brought it to his house and handed it over.

Guard Kelly stated that the boy at first said that he got it from a friend on the Strand and again that his brother bought it for him. He ultimately admitted taking it. His father punished him severely.

The Justice-And he richly deserved it, taking a bicycle for a joy ride-stealing the loan of it. Mr. Keane, having dealt with the evidence said the matter was completely unknown to his people till it was brought back on Saturday evening.

The Justice said he believed that, the youngster required looking after. Having given him a severe caution, the Justice discharged him.

TOWN TENANTS.

At a meeting of the Tallow (Co. Waterford) United Town Tenants Association, the following resolution was adopted:- "That we, the Town Tenants of Tallow, earnestly request the Government to speed up the long promised Bill and to give the tenants the same advantages as the farmers have."

TAIL-WAGGER CHATS. No. 176. WOMEN EXHIBITORS THE LADIES' GREAT DOG SHOW. By "PHILOKON."

WOMEN are in a considerable majority at all the leading dog shows. Since this century opened their numbers have increased without interruption, but we had to wait until post-war years for the greatest influx. In the sport they find amusement of an interesting and harmless nature, preferring it to leading idle lives, or taking it up as a relaxation from domestic duties. Modern women must have something to do in their spare time. Some of them manage to make pin money from dog breeding, others earn a living at it. Most are content if they can recover the expenses entailed in running a kennel.

A few women took part in exhibiting soon after shows were started. Queen Victoria being the most notable. She had a large kennel at Windsor, composed principally of privileged pets that had been given to her by intimate friends, but some were up to exhibition form. Queen Alexandra followed her example long before King Edward came to the throne; and on the foundation of the Ladies' Kennel Association she gave it her active support. One of her great pleasures was to attend the annual shows, held then in the Royal Botanic Gardens in Regent's Park, and to witness a parade of the prize winners. Her kennels at Sandringham were models of their kind, without being in any sense extravagant, and one of the first things she did on going into residence there was to visit the dogs equipped with small biscuits or other dainties to the canine palate. Hanging in the kennel-man's house was a verse which I am sure had Her Majesty's approval since it reflected her sentiments:

A man of kindness to his beast is kind, But cruel actions show a wicked mind. Remember, He who made thee made the brute: Who gave thee speech and reason formed him mute. He can't complain, but God's all-seeing eye Beholds thy cruelty and hears him sigh. He was designed thy servant, not thy drudge, But knows that his Creator is thy Judge.

The shows of to-day organised by the Ladies' Kennel Association are vastly different from those of thirty years ago. Open to all, as championship fixtures must be, they receive a representative entry of all breeds, besides, being important social functions. I understand that a very big show at the Crystal Palace on Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Well over 2,000 dogs will appear in more than 1,000 classes, and among the exhibits will be representatives of several of the lesser-known breeds. Exhibitors have entered from every part of the Kingdom, and many famous champions will be present. Among the strong breeds are Scottish terriers, still frequently called Aberdeens by those who are not familiar with kennel nomenclature. These smart little dogs have entered upon a period of prosperity, which gives no indications of being checked. They are general favourites.

The ladies run their shows with great ability under the leadership of Lorna Countess Howe, their chairman, who has had much organising experience. This chat is issued by THE TAIL-WAGGERS' CLUB OF IRELAND, 23, Old Abbey Street (off Marlborough Street), Dublin, C.S. The Club will be pleased to answer any enquiries submitted by Tail-Wagger Owners in connection with canine hygiene and welfare.

Probate of her will, dated August 28th, 1933, with five codicils, has been granted to her nephew, John Lenihan of Bailinrough, Kill, Co. Waterford, and Thomas Connors, of Faha, Kilmacshoan, Co. Waterford. She left £25 each to the executors, £100 from certain money due to her to Cath Connors, £30 each to Margaret and Richard Lenihan, £300 each to Mrs. Henry Power and Michael Walsh, £400 to her niece, Mary Bridget Connors, £100 each to her nephews, John Linehan and James Walsh; £150 to her nephew, Thomas Power, and £50 each to his sisters, Nell, and Bridie; £50 to her niece Kate Power, and £100 to her daughter Kitty; £50 to Ellen Walsh, Briskery. A total of £140 for Masses; £40 to the Maynooth Mission for China for its trusts in Ireland; £160 to the same for the foundation of a bursar for the education of a student for the priesthood in the same mission; £150 to the Superiors of the Mercy Convent, Waterford, for the benefit of the Convent; £10 to the Superior of the Little Sisters of the Poor, Waterford, for the benefit of the Convent; £10 to the Superior of the St. John of God Convent, Waterford, for a similar purpose; £10 to the Catholic Bishop of Birmingham for Father Hudson's homes; £20 to the St. John of God Convent, at Broom Beagle Bay, America, for the benefit of the Convent; £40 to the St. Vincent de Paul Society, Tramore; £30 to the Superior of the Sisters of Charity, Tramore, for the deserving poor; a sum not exceeding £30 for her funeral expenses, and £15 for a railing and gate round her grave; £10 to Mrs. Kathleen Fallon, formerly organist at Tramore Cathedral Church; her residence and effects to her niece, Mary Lenihan, and the residue of the property between Mrs. Henry Power and Kate Connors. She directed that if any charitable legacy should fail, the sum should be paid to the Catholic Bishop of Waterford.

BITTERNESS AND ILL-FEELING. BISHOP'S ADVICE.

Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, Bishop of Waterford, addressing the people at Cahir, said it was sad to have to admit that hardly at any time in the history of the country had there been so much bitterness and ill-feeling. It began in the public life of the country, and now it seemed to have spread into the homes and private life of the people. In exhorting all to fulfil the obligations of the principle of fostering charity, his Lordship said there was hardly any other precept upon which so much importance had been laid by Our Divine Lord. It even extended to those with whom they had social and business relations, and included those who were not of the same way of thinking in political matters. A man had a right to give allegiance to any political group, provided the principles and practices of that group were in harmony with the laws of God and the Church. A man had that right, and he should respect the rights of others in that matter. He had no right to impose his views on others, and he was bound by the obligations of charity towards those with different views, sincerely to forgive them if they had injured him, and not to nurture hatred or ill-will against them; and he was bound to assist them in need if he could do so without injury to himself. They could have no peace of mind if they nurtured ill-feeling towards others.

PRESERVATION OF GAME.

The Minister for Justice has made an order, under the Game Preservation Act, prohibiting for two years the export of partridge, pheasant, and grouse except on the certificate of a superintendent of the Garda.

N.A. & C.A.I.

MUNSTER INTER-COUNTY CONTESTS TO BE HELD THIS YEAR IN CAPPOQUIN.

The inaugural meeting of the Munster Provincial Advisory Committee was held at the Grand Hotel, Fermoy, recently. Mr. D. P. Forde (Chairman, Cork Co. Board N.A. & C.A.I.) presided, and Mr. W. A. Nestor (Hon. Sec., Cork Co. Board N.A. & C.A.I.), was hon. sec. of the meeting. Also present—Messrs. P. C. Moore (Hon. President, Central Council, N.A. & C.A.I.), J. J. McGillon (hon. sec. do.), T. E. Nolan (hon. treas. do.), W. J. Scallan (hon. sec., Limerick Co. Board), W. J. Nolan, (Waterford Co. Board), Donal Barrett (vice-Pres., Central Council, N.A. & C.A.I.), P. Dynan, N.T., (Cork County Board), M. J. Sargent, Cappoquin, M. P. Walsh, (do.), T. O'Regan, (vice-Pres., Cork Co. Board), and two Kerry representatives.

The chief venue before the meeting was the selection of the date and venue of the Munster Inter-County contest for 1934.

It was proposed by Mr. W. J. Nolan (Waterford) and seconded by Mr. P. Dynan, N.T., (Cork), that Cappoquin be the venue and, as now every county has had its turn in staging the contest, it was decided that this year's Munster Inter-County contest be held at Cappoquin on either July 22nd or July 29th.

It was also decided that after the expenses had been paid all the profits remaining would be divided between the competing counties. It was further decided to change the prizes from medals to plaques, and further suggestions were deferred to the Central Council for consideration. After addresses of welcome had been extended to the Central Council delegates the meeting terminated.

THE INCREASED BOUNTIES ON EGGS AND POULTRY.

VIEWS OF A PROMINENT CAPPOQUIN EXPORTER.

Mr. M. J. O'Connor, Cappoquin, (Messrs. J. O'Connor & Sons), one of the leading Egg & Poultry Exporting firms in the South of Ireland for many years, in the course of an interview with our Correspondent expressed the view that the increased bounties on eggs and poultry, announced by the Government last week, would certainly prove a great boon to the trade generally, especially to the producers, as the benefits have been immediately passed on to them in the form of proportionate increases on the prices hitherto paid for those commodities.

He regretted that the producers had not in the past been giving the exporters all the assistance and co-operation which the latter should have received from them, and wished to remind producers that soiled eggs could not be purchased at any price, as they are unsaleable in the English markets. He added that the Irish Egg Trade, generally, had long enjoyed a very high reputation in the above markets, and it now behoves all producers to market their eggs in a perfectly clean and fresh condition so that they may be assured of reaping the fullest benefits from the increased bounties now in force.

Best Prices can be obtained on Tuesdays from above mentioned Firm (adv.).

WATERFORD HORSES.

A number of West Waterford farmers were extremely fortunate in securing unusually good prices for their horses at Clonmel May fair, amongst the principal transactions being the following:

Mr. Edmond Healy, Dromore, Ag. lish, received £90; Mr. David McGrath, Clashmore, £80; Mr. Thomas Ducey, Dromore, £70; Mr. James Fen-ton, Tinniscart, £60; for a 3-year-old colt and Mr. John Flynn, Coolree, Clashmore, £40 for a 4-year-old colt.

WHAT THEY DID.

An aeroplane bound from New York to Rome was forced to land in the Co. Clare on Monday. The pilot and his assistant (Italian) landed safe and sound and immediately made tea for themselves. Had this been Irishmen they would have gone to the first public-house for a drink.
