Mr. Commissioner Moynihan, held a special meeting of the Co. Council in the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on 21st inst.

SYMPATHY.

The Secretary submitted acknowledgments of the Council's vote of sympathy to the family of the late Mrs. Bowen, Cork, from Messrs. J. Bowen, B.E., Co. Surveyor, Dungarvan; R. F. Bowen, B.E., Co. Surveyor, Kilkenny; J. F. Bowen, Provincial Bank, Cork; and Dr. W. E. Bowen, Enniscorthy.

The Commissioner directed that the acknowledgments be handed to the Press.

QUARTERLY MEETING.

The Commissioner fixed the Quarterly meeting of the Council for 14th August, and the last day for lodging applications as Saturday 14th July.

PETROL PUMPS.

The Commissioner granted the applications of A. J. Sargent, Lismore and J. Feeney, Lismore, for petrol pump licenses; also the applications of M. Cunningham, Tallow and Patk. Walsh, Cappoquin, for renewal of licenses under the Poison and Pharmacy Act.

BIG OVERDRAFT.

The Commissioner approved the following resolution—"That the Treasurer to the Co. Council of Waterford—The Munster and Leinster Bank, Ltd., Dungarvan Branch, be requested to grant to the 30th September an overdraft limited to £70,000, subject to the sanction of the Minister for Local Government and Public Health."

KNOCKMAHON FACILITIES.

The Minister for Agriculture wrote that he had learned that the Minister for Finance was prepared to recommend a grant of £400 for improvement of the landing facilities at Knockmahon on condition that the Council would undertake:

(a) To put the approach road to the site into repair and maintain that road subsequently.

(b) To be responsible for the maintenance of the slip after completion.

Matter adjourned for receipt of plan and specification.

MAINTENANCE OF SEASHORE AT WOODSTOWN AND ANNESTOWN.

The Irish Land Commission, under date 2nd June, 1934, wrote as follows: "With reference to your letter of the 27th November last (RS.p/4) forwarding a copy of a resolution approved by your Council agreeing to undertake the maintenance of the seashore bounding the townlands of Woodstown and Annestown and other works in connection therewith provided certain repairs are carried out and enclosing a copy of the County Surveyor's report in the matter, I am desired by the Land Commission to inform you that there is at present available for repairs to the fund amounting to £17 17s. 2d., and I am to enquire if your Council would be willing to take over the Trust at once and utilise the available income in executing the repairs necessary to the main flap valve in the outlet culvert, referred to by the County Surveyor. "I am to add that the Trust provides for the upkeep, repair and maintenance and reinstatement of the seashore bounding the townlands of Woodstown and Annestown, formerly part of the Galloway estate, and the tunnel which drains said lands and all sluices and other works in connection therewith. I am further to state that under Section 21 of the Land Act, 1927 a distinction is drawn between maintenance and reconstruction of such works and that the decision as to whether proposed works are works of reconstruction or maintenance is one that would have to be taken when works are proposed to be carried out in connection with the Trust."

The Commissioner approved of the taking over of the Trust.

OVERPAYMENT OF RATES.

The Commissioners of Public Works, under date 5th June, 1934, applied for a refund of £1 6s. 10d., overpaid in respect of rates for year 1933-34 on Small Dwelling at Tramore Coastguard Station. Referred to Solicitor.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

The following resolution from the County Waterford Vocational Education Committee was submitted, viz:—"That, rather than mutilate the original plans for the proposed Technical School for Dungarvan, we request the Commissioner to increase the grant by £2,700." Adjourned.

IRISH TOURIST ASSOCIATION.

The Irish Tourist Association invited the nomination of a representative of the Council on their Board for the current year.

The Commissioner was nominated.

REPAIR OF ROAD.

The Public Health Committee, Dunmore East, called attention to the dangerous condition of the road from Dunmore to Killea.

The Commissioner directed that the Committee be informed that the Council were not in a position to have the road steam-rolled but would keep the road in a reasonable state of repair.

LISMORE DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L.)

OWNERSHIP OF LABOURER'S COTTAGE.

John McGrath, tenant of a labourer's cottage at Carrigeen Hill, Tallow, sought an ejectment order against his sister, Mrs. Ellen Higgins, and her husband, Maurice Higgins, under rather unusual circumstances.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, who appeared for plaintiff, explained that John McGrath, was the tenant and occupier of the cottage in question, and up to a certain period he had given permission to his sister, Ellen McGrath, to reside in the cottage with him.

This lady got married in the meantime to a man named Maurice Higgins, and she had now brought her husband into the cottage to live with her, an arrangement to which McGrath strongly objected, and he now sought an ejectment order against both of them as he wanted to get them out of the cottage.

The Justice—This is a nice point. Is the tenant of a labourer's cottage the owner, and is he entitled to sue another person for possession.

Mr. Carroll said that he was the owner, and quoted authorities in support of his contention. He added that both defendants had agreed to vacate the place within six months, as soon as they had found alternative accommodation, and he suggested that the present case be adjourned for six months, and it could be brought on again if the defendants had not left before then.

The case was accordingly adjourned for six months.

CIVIL BILLS.

The Cappoquin Estate Co., succd John Quinn, farmer, Ballinacourty, Villierstown, for the sum of £2 due for the service of a stallion, the property of the plaintiffs.

There was no appearance on behalf of defendant.

Mr. Robert Bell, Manager of the Cappoquin Estate Co., having proved the debt, a decree for the amount was granted, with costs.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared for plaintiffs.

John McCarthy, General Merchant, Cappoquin, brought a civil bill against John O'Donoghue, Melleray, for £5 10s. 0d., for goods sold and delivered. Evidence of the debt having been given by Mr. Wm. J. McCarthy, son of plaintiff, a decree was granted, with costs.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, appeared for plaintiff, but there was no appearance for defendant.

BREACH OF CONTRACT.

John Casey, Coolahast, Aglish, sought damages against Michael Hennessey, Aglish, for breach of contract in the making of a cart.

Mr. T. Kiersey, solr., Kilmactochmas, for plaintiff, and Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, for defendant.

Plaintiff's case was that he was ordered by defendant to build a cart for him at an agreed price of £3 15s., the defendant to supply the complete set of irons from another cart. Plaintiff paid £2 for the necessary timber in Youghal, but when he went to defendant for the irons for the cart, he found he had not all the necessary irons, and defendant then got the cart built by another man, leaving the timber lying useless on plaintiff's hands.

Mrs. Mary Casey, wife of plaintiff, having produced the receipt for pay-

DERELICT HOLDINGS.

The Commissioner directed that the Rate Collectors be requested to furnish immediately particulars of all derelict holdings in their districts.

PAYMENT OF RATES.

The Commissioner referred to Mr. N. Connors, for an explanation of letter received by him from Mr. Michael Morrissey, Dunabratton, stating that he paid 3/5 for rates on the 27th November 1933, for which he got no receipt.

The Commissioner accepted the explanation from Collector Wm. Connors, regarding complaint of the G.S. Railways, that they had not received second moiety receipts for rates paid on November, 14th 1933.

The Commissioner noted the following letters from the Minister for Local Government:—

1.—23rd May (IR/107/Circ.)—Directing attention to the terms of the Closing of Roads (Public Notice) Regulations, 1925.

2.—24th May (G.32506/34, Oifg.g.)—Sending Copy of an Order assessing the sum of £574 2s. 0d. upon the Waterford County Council for the purposes of the General Cattle Diseases Fund.

3.—20th May (G.66360/34, Portlaoige Fa)—Sanctioning such departure from the terms of the Public Bodies Order, 1925 as would enable the County Council to adopt the rate for the financial year 1934/35 by the 22nd May, 1934.

4.—31st May (Circ.24/6/34)—Transmitting a Table showing the rates in the £. of relief to which the Agricultural Grants were equivalent in the year 1933/34.

5.—5th June (SGA/202)—detailing new arrangements for the recruitment of Labour for works financed wholly or partly from Central Funds.

Telephone Installation.—The Irish Telephone Co., forwarded a quotation for the installation of private telephones in the County Council Offices.

The Commissioner did not accept quotation.

ment of £2 for the timber purchased in Youghal, the defendant was sworn and said he had the full set of irons for the cart, but when plaintiff refused to carry out the contract, he (defendant) got the cart made by Declan Walsh for £3 10s., with the same irons which plaintiff refused to use.

The Justice said this was a difficult case to decide, but as he thought the defendant had not the proper irons, and plaintiff was, therefore, unable to make the cart, he would give a decree for 15/-.

BEER DEALERS' LICENCES.

On the application of Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, Mr. James Ahearne, Main street, Lismore, and Mrs. Bridget Moore, do., were granted renewals of Wholesale Beer Dealers Licences for the ensuing year.

FISHERY PROSECUTION.

The Lismore Estates Co., summoned Mr. T. Tallant, Glenmore, for fishing with a salmon rod and line in a portion of the river Blackwater over which Mr. Henry Randal Burroughes, was the private lessee.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared for complainants, and defendant, who appeared in person, was not professionally represented.

Mr. E. E. Hey, Secretary to the Lismore Estates Co., gave evidence of the ownership of the river by the complainants, and handed in a map showing the portion of the river which had been leased for private fishing to Mr. H. R. Burroughes.

John Lynch, Lismore, gillie to Mr. Burroughes, gave evidence of finding defendant wading in the river and fishing with a salmon rod and line on May 24th, 1934, near Glencairn Abbey, where the fishing rights were owned by Mr. Burroughes.

Witness shouted to defendant, and said didn't he know he had no right to be fishing there, and defendant made no reply but went back to the opposite bank a short time afterwards. He did not kill nor hook any salmon while witness was present.

Defendant in reply to the Justice, said he owned a stretch of fishing on the Blackwater at Glenmore, but there were very few salmon killed there this year.

On the day in question he saw a man trout-fishing further down the river and went down to watch him for some time, and having his salmon-fishing tackle with him, he waded out and had given only a few "casts" when Lynch came on the scene, and he stopped fishing at once.

Defendant having been questioned as to his means,

The Justice said if he thought he could afford to pay a heavy fine he would impose such a fine, as he could fine him up to £5 for such an offence.

As he was satisfied, however, that he could not pay a very heavy fine, he would let him off with a fine of 10/- with 20/- costs.

UNLICENSED DOGS.

Sergt. Bain, Ballyduff, summoned Patk. Murray, Ballyduff, for having an unlicensed dog in his possession in May, but as the licence had since been taken out, the case was withdrawn on the suggestion of the Justice.

A similar prosecution by the same complainant against John Murray, Toher, was adjourned for a month.

Same v. Bartholomew Cronin, for same offence. Fined 5/-.

Similar cases against James Russell, blacksmith, Aflish, and Thomas Mulumphy, Raspberry Hill, were withdrawn.

DRUNK AND INCAPABLE.

Sergt. Bain, Ballyduff, summoned Daniel Barrett, Waterpark, for being drunk and incapable on the public road.

Defendant, who was described as a cattle drover, did not appear and a fine of 5/- was imposed.

RATE DEFAULTERS.

Two cases at the suit of Mr. Barry, Rate Collector, Ballyduff, against two local farmers for arrears of rates due, were marked "settled."

HOME FROM AFRICA.

Rev. Patk. Hewitt, C.S.Sp., son of the late Mr. John Hewitt, Carrickbeg, Carrick-on-Suir, is on a visit to his sister, Mrs. Healy, 16 Main St., Carrick-on-Suir, after an absence of 7 years on missionary work in East Africa.

Father Hewitt, who is in excellent health, has many interesting things to relate regarding the missionary work of the Holy Ghost Fathers in Africa.

Cappoquin Priest's Death in Port Augusta, Australia.

LATE FR. O'BYRNE.

PANEGYRIC BY REV. DR. PRENDERGAST.

"The Southern Cross" of May 4th 1934, contains an interesting account of the Month's Mind of the late Fr. O'Byrne...

"The Southern Cross" says:—On Tuesday, April 24th, Office and Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated in St. Mark's Church, Port Pirie...

Present in the Choir were: R.D. Rev. E. A. Mulcahy, Georgetown; Very Rev. F. A. Henschke, Jamestown...

The music of the Mass was beautifully rendered by St. Mark's Choir, assisted by members of the Crystal Brook Church Choir.

The church was filled with the late Priest's parishioners and friends.

Panegyric By Dr. Prendergast. In an impressive address Very Rev. Dr. Prendergast paid eloquent tribute to the deceased Priest.

I have not come here, he said, to-day to preach the panegyric of any great statesman or of any hero who fell on a blood-stained battlefield.

"When at last the books are balanced in the settling-up to be, And our idols on the rubbish-heap are hurled...

While a Little Irish Mother, in her faded, faded gown, Shall receive the crown too long to her denied."

If this be true of the Little Irish Mother, it is also true of her son, William Francis O'Byrne, who like the Wise Man, gave his heart to rest early to the Lord that made him...

I believe that Father O'Byrne has already been exalted on the great day of death—"dies suprema"—where exaltation means something very real—before the Great White Throne of God.

School Boys At Melleray.

This is the third time it has been my sad duty to speak to the people of Port Pirie on an occasion such as the present, but the late Rev. Fathers O'Mahony and McEvoy, were acquaintances of only a few fleeting years...

At Propaganda, Rome, Fr. O'Byrne's ability was discovered, notwithstanding his extraordinary humility. In competitions with brilliant students from all the nations he won the coveted Gold Medal for Moral Theology...

Kind And Sympathetic. Father O'Byrne's twenty-six years in this diocese began in Port Pirie and ended in Port Pirie.

To you he came in the morning of his priestly life, and to you he returned when the shadows of evening were gathering round him. I know how you loved him for his humility and his charity and his meekness...

Was Not Afraid To Die.

On the day of Father O'Byrne's funeral I asked Mgr. O'Rourke, if Father O'Byrne, during his short illness, realised that he was dying, and Mgr. O'Rourke answered: "He knew he was dying, and he was not afraid to die."

What did Father O'Byrne preach to you from his altar, Sunday after Sunday? The great message that the Great Master Himself taught: to get ready for the hour of death.

What did Father O'Byrne preach to you from his altar, Sunday after Sunday? The great message that the Great Master Himself taught: to get ready for the hour of death.

If all had his viewpoint, no man would wrong another. Untrammelled individualism could never cause all the misery it has caused in great industrial countries.

To praise Father O'Byrne is not our chief business here to-day. We are assembled, in the first place, to pray for the repose of his soul.

In conclusion, I feel that there is no need to speak at further length, because Father O'Byrne's panegyric has already been spoken by the Divine Master Himself.

"Well done, thou good and faithful servant, thou has been faithful over a few things, I will place thee over many. Enter thou into the joy of the Lord."

Cablegrams of sympathy were received by Mgr. O'Rourke, from Archbishops Spence and Killian, from many Priests and Convents, and letters from the Municipal Councils of Ports Augusta and Pirie.

DUNGARVAN SHOW.

The above Show will be held on Thursday, July 12th. The entries are very large and representative of all the Munster Counties. As in the past, the excellence of the Horse and Cattle sections will be a great attraction to breeders and visitors alike.

WATERFORD CO. COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE.

Mr. Thomas Flynn, presided. Also present—Messrs. P. B. Sheridan, J. Daly and P. Quinlan.

The Department wrote that Mr. T. Tynan, Leix, had been appointed Judge of the Cottage and Small Farm Prize Scheme.

The Department also write approving of the hiring of two buses to take Winter Agricultural Class pupils from Clonea and Aglish on the occasion of the Cork Show.

They also sanctioned the Border Leicester and Black-faced Sheep Schemes for the County.

The remaining business was routine.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS.

POPULAR PASTOR'S SILVER JUBILEE.

On the 17th inst, the V. Rev. Patrick Queally, P.P., Petone, New Zealand, celebrated the Silver Jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood.

Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Queally, Carrigrahane, Stradbally, Father Queally received his early education at Rockwell College.

In the land of his adoption Father Queally soon earned the love and veneration of the parishioners by his pious zeal and kindly heart, as well as by the practical sympathy he evinced with all in trouble.

Father Queally is brother of the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Peter Queally, P.P., St. Agnes' Church, Long Island, New York; Rev. Mother Angelina, Holy Cross Convent, Philadelphia; Mother Evangelist, Presentation Convent, Maryborough; Sister Peter, Convent of Mercy, Blenheim, N.Z.; Sister Patricia, Convent of Mercy, Stradbally; Mr. Edmond Queally, Ballykerogue; Mrs. E. Rowe, Ballylinch, and Mrs. N. Power, Fahafaelagh.

The distinguished jubilarian is uncle of the Rev. Bro. Virgilius Power, O.Cist.R., Mount Mellerey Abbey, Co. Waterford; Sr. Eileen Maria Power, Convent of the Holy Angels, Glenriddle, Philadelphia, and Sr. Mary Aidan Gough, Convent of Mercy, Hill Street, Wellington, N.Z.

Father Queally was in Ireland for the great Eucharistic Congress of 1932. Numerous congratulatory messages reached him from all parts of the world on his Silver Jubilee.

THE FAIR.

The monthly fair on Tuesday was pretty largely supplied. Trade was tuned to the key of dullness struck at the Dungarvan bazaar of the 20th inst.

CONGRATULATIONS.

We join with his countless friends and well-wishers in warmly congratulating Mr. Berchams Power, Graigarrush, Kilmathomas, on the brace of brilliant victories recently achieved by his good greyhound, Palnetto, at the Clonmel track.

G. A. A.

As was generally expected, Erin's Own eclipsed Clonea-Power in their tie in the East Waterford Divisional Championship, decided at Ballyduff Lower Gaelic Sportsfield on last Sunday afternoon.

Dungarvan will be the mecca of the Gaels of these parts on to-morrow (Sunday), for the following two-part programme:—Sliabh Gua v. Kilmathomas v. Kilmathomas in junior hurling.

All praise to the Portlraige M.F. pack, who put "paid" to Limerick's "ledger" at Clonmel on Sunday last. Too bad that our inter-county senior football fifteen failed to "make it a double."

SYMPATHY.

At a meeting of the Kilmathomas Branch of the Post Office Workers' Union, Mr. John McGrath (Chairman) presiding, the following resolution was passed in respectful silence:

That we, the members of the Kilmathomas Branch of the Post Office Workers' Union, tender to our esteemed sub-Postmaster, Mr. George Brown, and family, sincere sympathy in their recent bereavement.

ORDAINED TO HOLY PRIESTHOOD.

His many friends and well-wishers in the Decies were delighted to learn that Frederick T. McCarten, late of 103 D Street, South Boston, Mass., U.S.A., received his ordination to holy priesthood (in the Order of the Society of Jesus) on Wednesday, 20th inst., and celebrated his first Mass on Sunday, 24th inst., in St. Augustine's Church, South Boston.

Father McCarten is a nephew of Mr. Thomas Walsh, N.T., P.C., Kill; and Mr. Wm. Walsh, Skeheens, Ballinacree, and Mrs. J. Broderick, Comeragh, Kilmossanty.

STRADBALLY FOR HOLIDAYS.

Stradbally is, in the opinion of discriminating tourists, one of the most charming centres in the ancient and historic Decies. It offers scenery which is not only beautiful, but distinctive in character.

BREVITIES.

Last week-end's copious rainfall was a veritable "gift" to owners of growing crops.

The Month's Memory Office and High Mass for the late Very Rev. John O'Donnell, P.P., will be offered up in Newtown Parish Church on to-morrow (Saturday) morning at 11.30.

Within the week, Mrs. Corcoran, wife of Edmond Corcoran, farmer, Glenaphooka, Clonea-Power, died in the fullness of her years, after a protracted illness.

DISEASES OF ANIMALS' COMMITTEE.

Mr. Thomas Flynn, presided. Also present—Messrs. James Daly, P. B. Sheridan and P. Quinlan.

Re Shelters for 6 tanks to be erected in Knockmealdown area at £1 each, Mr. Hynes, wrote approving of same and the committee approved of same.

A CARRICK BOOK COLLECTION.

When I inquired the whereabouts of Mr. John Flynn in Carrick-on-Suir recently, I got people staring vacantly at me—townspeople whom I knew in my heart and soul should be perfectly intimate with one who is something of an institution in that town.

THE LATE MRS. P. HALLAHAN, RATH, CO. WATERFORD.

At the funeral of the late Bridget, wife of Mr. P. Hallahan, Rath, Kinsalebeg, the remains of the esteemed lady were borne on the shoulders of members of the local I.R.A. and Fianna Fail Cumann, from her residence on the long journey to her burial place at Clashmore.

Amongst the chief mourners were—Pat. Hallahan (husband); Madge, Dote, and Mrs. E. P. Lynch, (daughters); E. P. Lynch, V.C., U.D.C., Youghal, (son-in-law); James, Paddy, Jerome and Rose Lynch, (grand-

Decrees For Rates.

FARMERS' COMPLAINTS.

JUDGE GRANTS TIME.

At the Dungarvan Circuit Court on Wednesday, before Mr. Justice Sealy, a number of extensive farmers from Clashmore area were sued for rates by Mr. Harty, Collector.

Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., appeared for Mr. Harty. Mr. W. J. Hodnett, solr., represented the defendants, and Mr. M. M. Hally, solr., appeared on behalf of Mr. Commissioner Moynihan, acting for the Co. Council.

Mr. Hally said he was instructed by the Commissioner acting for the Co. Council to ask his Lordship not to put a stay on any decrees he would give. The Commissioner wanted decrees issued forthwith. He was charged with carrying out the duties of the Co. Council and with maintaining public services.

Mr. Hodnett said Mr. Williams appeared for the rate Collector, and Mr. Hally had no standing in these cases. Mr. Hally—The Co. Council are plaintiffs in the cases.

His Lordship—I cannot hear two solicitors for the plaintiffs.

Mr. Harty sued Michl. McGrath and Mary McGrath, executors of the late Roger McGrath, Ballyheeny, and D'Loughane, Clashmore, for £90 8s. 2d. rates.

Mr. Hodnett—We do not dispute the amount. I plead for time to pay. Continuing, he said while these cases were pending hearing in that court, the Commissioner had sent each of his clients a letter threatening them with pains and penalties if the rates were not paid. That almost amounted to an abuse of the process of that Court. These notices were sent out without any reference to the solicitor acting for them, or for the rate Collectors.

His Lordship—Show me the notice? Was it sent in all the cases? Mr. Hodnett—Yes.

His Lordship, having read the notice said he thought it was wrong for the Commissioner to send out such a notice when these cases were pending before the Court. As no defence is put up to the action I don't think it affects the cases in any way.

Mr. McGrath, said his father died in April, 1933. He had a loss in the working of the Ballyheeny farm. If he got a bit of time to sell stock he would pay the rate. He tried to sell the cattle at several fairs, but failed. He would want until October or Nov.

Mr. Williams—My client's instructions are to get a decree forthwith.

Witness said he was in debt to the creamery.

Mr. Hodnett said defendant would pay his first moiety that day and asked for time for the second moiety.

His Lordship said he was afraid the farmers did not realise that the rates were the first charge on their farms. A most unpleasant change for farmers had come from the economic changes in the country. Cattle prices were going down and down and the sooner farmers sold their cattle and paid their rates the better. This change involves terrible privation and hardship on the farmers for some years, but they have to face it. He could not hold up the public services of the country because the farmers were hit by the economic changes. The rates are due and the defendant must sell his stock and pay his rates. He gave a decree for the amount.

In the case against Mr. Patk. Fitzgerald, same area, Mr. Harty said the amount due was £53 1s. 5d.

Mr. Hodnett—It is a question of time. This man has a tillage farm and he wants until after the harvest to pay. Judge—He should have paid the first moiety last harvest.

In other cases the amounts sued for were:—Mr. Geo. Kennedy, Clashmore, £51 14s. 6d.; Mr. W. J. Spratt, Grange, £65 4s. 11d.; Mr. Michl. O'Brien, Grallagh, £31 18s. 2d.

In the case against Mr. P. Fitzgerald, witness said he had no money in the bank and no creamery account. He tried to sell his stock at several fairs, but failed. He was never in Court before.

To Mr. Williams—I always paid my honey, (Ind.); M. McGrath, (F.F.); D. Mulcahy, (F.F.); P. McGrath, (F.G.).

ABBEYSIDE WARD.

Votes polled 271; Seats 3; Candidates 6; Quota 68.

The first preferences were:— S. Hayes (Lab.) 63; J. J. Crotty, (F.G.) 58; M. Griffin, (F.G.) 45; D. Foley, (F.F.) 43; John Griffin, (Ind.) 41; T. Power, (Ind.) 21.

As no candidate got the quota Mr. Power was eliminated and on the distribution of his papers Mr. Hayes was declared elected. Mr. John Griffin, was then eliminated and the transfer of his papers elected D. Foley, Mr. J. Crotty and Mr. M. Griffin, had then 63 votes each and with no further elimination or transfers, the Returning Officer declared Mr. Crotty elected having secured the greater number of first preferences.

Final result in order of election:—

- S. HAYES (Lab.) D. FOLEY, (F.F.) J. J. CROTTY, (F.G.)

The new Council will be composed of Fine Gael 6; Fianna Fail 5; Labour 4.

Mr. Butler, proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. O'Meara, as Returning Officer and complimented all parties with the manner in which the election was carried out. Mr. J. F. Foley, seconded. Messrs. Dahill and M. Morrissey, associated themselves with the vote. Mr. O'Meara returned thanks.

NO. 182—
DOGS IN SUMMER.
SOME OF THEIR NEEDS.
By "PHILOKOUN."

UP to the present we have been having weather that should be acceptable to dogs. A rule they feel excessive heat, and there is no doubt that a moderate temperature, without extremes in either direction, is most to their liking. It may be that a heat wave will have set in before these lines are printed, and in any case, one is sure to come before the summer has run its course. When it does, it is advisable to exercise dogs in the early morning and later evening, leaving them to lie about in the shade when the sun is at its hottest.

I hope no Tail-Wagger enthusiasts chain their dogs to a small kennel in the garden or back yard, but should they know anyone who does, they should suggest tactfully that the kennel should be moved into a shady spot. Unfortunate creatures that have no means of escaping the sun are greatly to be pitied. The drinking water, too, should be renewed frequently and the receptacle put in the coolest place available. The majority of dogs are not often subject to heat stroke, but a few breeds with short faces, big heads and thick necks (notably bulldogs) are susceptible.

Sufferers exhibit symptoms of discomfort and sometimes fall unconscious. One need scarcely say that they should then be placed in the shade and allowed as much air as possible. A warm bath is recommended, with applications of ice or cold water to head and neck. Dogs that are sent by train should travel in well-ventilated boxes or hampers, and a sensible precaution is to tip the guard, when it can be done, so that no other packages are placed round them. The basket should always bear conspicuously a label—"Live Dog," it is not unusual to hear of dogs being suffocated on a journey.

Nature has provided dogs with an extra thick growth of coat as a protection in winter and the old coat is shed in spring or early summer. For a while, long-coated dogs are a sorry sight as this process goes on and can seldom do themselves justice at shows. We see then the difference that clothing makes. Unfortunately the shedding of the coat is a nuisance in house-dogs, hairs being distributed on clothing, carpets and furniture. If the daily grooming is then performed more vigorously with a free use of the comb, the old coat comes away more quickly. A good deal of the dead hair can be plucked out with the fingers, without the infliction of any pain. It often comes away in chunks. This assistance increases the comfort of the dog, whose skin becomes irritable at such times. If it is allowed to scratch too much, eczema may supervene.

Let me add that readers who may be in difficulties about their dogs can obtain expert advice by writing to the Tail-Waggers' Club, 47, Temple Chambers, Temple Ave., London, E.C.4.

This chat is issued by THE TAIL-WAGGERS' CLUB OF IRELAND, 23, Old Abbey Street (off Marlborough Street), Dublin, C.8. The Club will be pleased to answer any enquiries submitted by Tail-Wagger Owners in connection with canine hygiene and welfare.

LISMORE AND DISTRICT.

BALLYIN SPORTS—Held on Sunday June 17th at Ballyin, 2 miles north of Lismore attracted a huge attendance. Promoted by the Ballyin G.A.A. Club to develop Gaelic Athleticism in an area hitherto ignored, the success of their initial venture is a remarkable tribute to the thoroughness and efficiency of those enthusiastic pioneers. The sports arena was situated amid rugged but picturesque surroundings at the foot of the Knockmealdowns. A feature of the programme was the revival of several events now but scantily favoured by modern athletic "high-brows." All the arrangements were in the hands of an energetic Committee comprising—Robert Lineen, T.C., William Lineen, Patrick Morrissey, Carthage Murray, Patrick Barry, William Moore, James O'Donnell, Martin Byrne, Michael and John O'Gorman.

Cycle Road Race—George O'Brien, 1; Nicholson, Knockanore, 2. Won a gruelling race by 3 lengths.

Half mile Cycle (under 17)—Michael Hale, Ballysaggart, 1; Edmond McGrath, Melleray, 2.

Mile Cycle—Nicholson, Knockanore, 1; Murray, do., 2.

In an early mix-up, several of the competitors came to grief, George O'Brien, Lismore, being the worst sufferer. The winner was not pressed to win by several lengths.

100 Yards—J. Beecher, Tallow, 1; W. Moore, Monatarive, 2; P. English, Cappoquin, 3.

Won a great race by a foot. A yard between second and third.

220 Yards—L. McCarthy, Tallow, 1; J. Lineen, Ballyin, 2. Two promising juveniles of 17 years. Taking advantage of a generous handicap from more experienced athletes, they fought out a great finish, McCarthy winning by one yard.

440 Yards—W. Moore, Monatarive, 1; J. Lineen, Ballyin, 2.

High Jump—J. Balwin and W. Moore, Monatarive, tied at 5 feet 2 inches.

Long Jump—W. Moore (18' 9"), 1; W. Barry (18' 8"), 2.

Hop Step and Jump—W. Moore 38 feet 1; J. Whelan, Lismore, 36 ft., 2. Hurlley Puck (off the sod)—M. Regan, Lismore, with a beautiful cut of 61 yards was first; George Whelan, Lismore, 60 yards, 2. Dozens completed.

Sack Race—J. Barry, Tourin, 1.

Lifting the 28 or Bowl—This event produced keen competition and the throwing was up to a high standard.

— Nicholson, Knockanore, (63 yds.), 1; Feeney, Ballysaggart, (62 yds. 2ft.), 2; Moore, Monatarive (62 ft.), 3. Seventeen completed.

Throwing 56 lbs. (between legs without follow)—McGrath, Modeligo, 1; Power, Affane, 2.

Two youths, still in their teens, who give promise of a brilliant future as weight throwers.

Owing to the lateness of the hour, due to the unexpected keenness of the competition, the Committee were reluctantly compelled to curtail their programme by cancelling two other events, the football kick and the Old Age Pensioners Race. The disappointed footballers and septuagenarians can console themselves with the assurance that they will get an opportunity of displaying their prowess in the near future.

SCHOOL HURLERS HONOURED.—Much pleasure was expressed in Lismore and district recently when it was learned that two members of St. Carthage's G.A.A. Club had been selected as forward on Waterford's Minor Inter-County Hurling team. That the selection was amply justified press reports of the Tralee match all bear testimony. Ned Daly and Mick Feeney, contributed largely to Waterford's big score total. Their comrades in Lismore C.B.S., are proud of their prowess and anxious to prove that a wealth of hurling and football material is available in this Gaelic nursery. It's a grand thing to see that the efforts of the schools to promote Gaelic games are being recognised in this emphatic manner.

REVIVAL OF BOWLING—A remarkable revival of this ancient and mainly Irish game has taken place in this district of late. Previously unknown in Lismore, this vigorous game has now dozens of devotees in the town who every evening flock to the Ballyanchor road to test their strength and practice their skill. Strange to say, the game was always strong in Ballysaggart and never wholly died out in Knockanore, Ballyduff, Ballyin and other rural districts. So popular has the game become now in all this area as well as Cappoquin that it is hoped before long to place the game on an organised basis as it is in Cork and so make sure that the revival is a permanent one. The "lofting the bowl" event at Ballyin Sports showed what wonderful progress has been made and how popular the game is. Many old bowlers, Jim Donovan, Bob Lineen, Mick Lyons, Mickey Ryan, are practising their favourite styles once again to the admiration of the newcomers.

RATES DECREES.

At Carrick-on-Suir District Court, Mr. McCabe, D.J., gave decrees for rates from £5 to £70 against farmers living in Counties Tipperary, Waterford and Kilkenny.

Kilmacthomas District Court

At the Kilmacthomas monthly District Court, before Mr. F. J. McCabe, D.J., Mr. John Rowe, garage proprietor, Lator's Cross, Kilmacthomas, was granted a renewal of his license to sell petrol.

Messrs. Counihan, Kiersey, and O'Connor, solicitors, appeared for several applicants in undefended civil bills, in which decrees for full amounts claimed, plus costs in each application, were granted.

Informations were refused against William Cavanagh, Passage East, Waterford, charged with obtaining the sum of £10 by false pretences from David Connors, Fahafeelagh, Kilmacthomas.

For breaches of the N.H.I. Act, in respect of two of his employees, a local farmer named James Whelan, was ordered to pay £14 due for stamps, together with 10/- costs in each case.

Waterford No 3 Board of Fishery Conservators v. Patrick Troy, Currahaha, Kilmacthomas.

Defendant, who was not legally represented, was charged with unlawfully using a gaff on the river Mahoon on the 14th February last.

Mr. Verrinton, solr., appeared for the prosecution.

Guarda n. Boyle, Kilmacthomas, proved the offence, which the defendant admitted. His Worship said he would show no leniency in cases of this type and imposed a fine of £2 and 4/- costs, the whole to be paid within 7 days, failing which defendant should go to goal for a month.

Fines ranging from 1/- to 2/- and costs were inflicted in a heavy calendar of Gardaí prosecutions chiefly breaches of the Lights Act. Guard Boyle, Kilmacthomas, Guard O'Connor, Kilmeaden, and Guard J. Murray, Leamybrien, were the complainants.

AFTER-CULTIVATION OF SUGAR BEET.

SINGLING AND HOEING.

The best returns, both in respect of yield and sugar content of the beet, are likely to be obtained where the maximum number of well-developed, medium-sized roots are grown per acre. Consequently, the singling of the crop is a very important operation requiring much more attention than is usually devoted to other root crops. It is generally acknowledged that the best time for singling is when the plants have developed four rough leaves, but the actual date of singling of the crop must be governed by the general growth and vigour of the plants and the prevailing weather conditions. Better results are, however, almost always obtained from "early" rather than from "late" singling. Where a strong braird develops, a preliminary "thinning" or "gapping" may be found desirable, but singling may be done by hand at one operation if particular care be taken in the spacing of the plants. The space to be allowed between the singled plants will depend on the width of the drills in which the crop is grown, but in general, and provided the drills are approximately 22 inches in width, the plants may be singled to a distance of 9 inches apart.

A FINE TILTH.

Frequent and thorough after-cultivation is an important means of increasing the yield and sugar content of sugar beet. If a hard crust should form on the drills before the young plants appear, it should be broken by running a light wooden roller or a turnip sower along the drills. When the crop is well braided, either a horse hoe or drill grubber should be used to destroy weeds and to maintain a fine tilth without disturbing the young plants or cutting away the drills any more than is necessary. This operation will usually require to be performed again before the plants are singled, and should be repeated a number of times thereafter according to the condition of the soil and the nature of the weather; the main object being to ensure that the soil is maintained in a friable condition and free from weeds from the time the plants appear over-ground until the leaves meet across the drills.

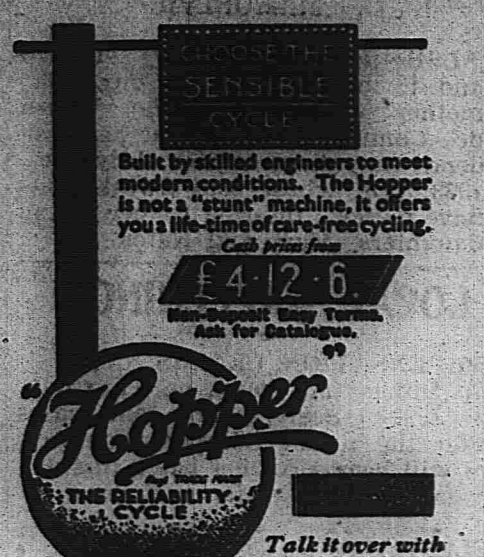

ROOT DEVELOPMENT.

Two hand hoeings are usually necessary, one before the plants are singled and another before the plants have become too large to permit of hoeing between them. The portion of sugar beet root which has grown above ground, and has, consequently, become green from exposure to the sun, contains less sugar and more impurities than the underground portion. In the determination of "factory weight" the bulk of the green portion of any root included in the sample is liable to be trimmed off before the sample is finally weighed. It is, therefore, imperative to secure that as little as possible of the root should be exposed above the surface of the soil, and this may be attained to some extent by proper adjustment of the horse hoe on all occasions on which this implement is used. When the development of the foliage has approached a stage at which further cultivation would not be practicable, the upper portion of many roots may still be exposed, and a light moulding with an ordinary drill plough suitably adjusted, should then be given, if necessary.

TALLOW DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.) UNLICENSED DOGS.

Guards McClune, and McNally, had a number of persons charged with having unlicensed dogs.

NO LIGHTS. Sergt. Grey, and Guard Kehoe, charged a number of men from the town with using unlighted cycles.

The Justice—What is the meaning of this? The Sergt.—It was the night of the circus at Lismore.

The Justice—Then they were coming from Lismore without lights. Fines of from 6d. to 2/6 were imposed.

BURNING GORSE, ETC. Superintendent Quinlan, Lismore, charged Nicholas Hynes, Ballybrack, with burning gorse, furze, etc., on lands not within cultivation.

Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, defended. Guard McClune, stated he saw defendant burning the stuff on his own lands at Ballybrack on 8th April.

Witness called his attention to the law. There were brats, furze, ferns and bushes burning over a quarter acre. The place was frequented by pheasants, hares and rabbits.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hodnett—Witness said the fire was not continuous but in patches. Defendant said that he was only clearing a passage for the cattle to get to the water, but there was a lot burned before that—9 or 10 acres for the cattle.

Mr. Hodnett—That was no offence—that was before 1st April. Why are you loading the dice against us? Supt. Quinlan said defendant had not got or asked for permission to burn the place.

Mr. Hodnett said his client pleaded ignorance of the law. Although that was no excuse, he referred the Court to Sub Section 2 of Section 28 of the Act under which they were prosecuted and argued that Mr. Hynes acted in the ordinary course of good husbandry, viz., to make a passage for his cattle.

Mr. Hynes gave evidence in support of Mr. Hodnett's statement. Cross-examined by the Supt.—Witness said he didn't remember a neighbour of his being prosecuted for a like offence recently. There were no pheasants there.

The Justice—Is there any game there?—Only a hare and a rabbit. Fining him 2/6, the Justice warned people that they were liable to a fine of £10 for such an offence.

MILK CASE. The adjourned case of Gaurd McNally, Ballynoe, against Pierce Donovan, Conna, for selling milk 20 per cent. deficient in fat was resumed.

Mr. Hodnett, for defendant. Evidence for the prosecution was given last day.

Mr. Hodnett said the deficiency looked large. The only way they could account for it was that the milk had "set" and that Mrs. Donovan when getting the sample for the Guard dipped the can under the cream, thereby drawing off the thin stuff.

Defendant stated he milked 11 to 12 cows and had no regular customers besides the creamery. At the time in question he was supplying two invalids. It was the first time he had been ever prosecuted; he was never in court in his life before.

Evidence was then given by various members of the family that all the necessary precautions had been taken and that the milk was not tampered with in any way. Mrs. Donovan, stating that the milk had been "setting" from 7 to 10 o'clock when she supplied the Guard and that she dipped the can in the churn.

The Justice said the milk seemed to have been sold as it came from the cow. The case was therefore, dismissed.

COTTAGE CASES. The Cork Co. Board of Health had

USE LUMINOUS POLISHES FOR Shining & Waterproofing Your Boots & Shoes; Also for Furniture, Lino, Floors, etc. Prices—2d., 3d., 6d. and 1s. Made in Waterford

a number of labourers summoned for the possession of cottages. Mr. J. J. Dudley, solr., Midleton, appeared for plaintiffs.

In a case against Daniel Fleming, Garryduff, Mr. Barry, Collector, stated that there was £2 3s. 3d. arrears and rates due, rent 1/- weekly.

The Justice said there was a letter from a member of the Co. Council, asking for time for the man.

The Collector said they had trouble with him previously. He had been evicted. His wife was then made tenant and she also had been evicted.

The Justice—What became of the arrears? The Collector—They were irrecoverable.

The Justice—A very profitable transaction. A decree for possession was granted.

LARCENY FROM CHURCH. Elizabeth Brady, of no fixed abode, was charged with the larceny of 4/-, the property of Rev. Fr. Fouhy, Conna.

Superintendent Bray, Fermoy, prosecuting, said the woman was charged with stealing 4/1 from the Catholic Church, Ballynoe, from a collection box. She was arrested on 14th June, and remanded to that Court, but she hadn't turned up. Her husband was present and he said she fell down the stairs of their caravan last night and dislocated her shoulder and he came there to answer for her. He (the Supt.) was inclined to think she was dodging.

The Justice—Are you asking for a warrant? The Supt.—I would like to give her another chance, if her story is true. She promised to be here. The case was then adjourned to next Court.

OCCASIONAL LICENSE. Mr. Hodnett, on behalf of John Murphy, Waterpark, Fermoy, applied for an occasional license in connection with the Kilcoran Sports, to be held on the 29th June.

There being no objection by the Guards, the application was granted.

MONEY FOR HOUSING. GEN. O'DUFFY'S STATEMENT ON ALLOCATION OF FUNDS.

General O'Duffy, as President of the organisation, has issued an important statement on the housing question to the secretary of each local executive in the Free State.

Referring to the Budget speech of the Minister for Finance, the statement says that it is clear the Government is taking to itself the credit for putting money for housing purposes at the disposal of local authorities, but is not taking credit for putting an unfair burden upon the people for whom the houses are being built.

"Assuming," the statement goes on, "that the sum available is the total sum which he claims the Local Loans Fund has received since the Government took up office (i.e., up to March 31 last) the sum of £3,184,000. The Minister has asserted that this sum of £3,184,000 would be lent to local authorities at an interest rate of 4 1/2 per cent.

HOW MONEY WAS FOUND. This means that the future cottagers will have levied from them in each year the sum of £151,240, and it is important to see how much of this will accrue each year as profit to the National Exchequer. The £3,184,000 has been accumulated in two ways, £1,400,000 of it is the proceeds of the over-taxation of the country and as it has been derived by way of ordinary revenue, there are no interest charges to be paid by the State on it. It was voted and levied in taxation in two years, 1932-33 and 1933-34 (£550,000 each year), the first £500,000 being described as provision in the Local Loans Fund to lend to local authorities at low rates of interest. The rest—an amount of £2,084,000—comes from the Fourth National Loan at 3 1/2 per cent. The interest charge on this portion amount, therefore, to £74,398, and as there are no such charges on the £1,400,000 referred to before, this sum of £74,398 represents the entire interest charge which the State has to bear on the full sum of £3,184,000 said to be at the disposal of local authorities for housing purposes. If the State has to pay only £74,398 per annum and has in mind to collect £151,240 per annum, it would seem to be their intention to look for a profit on their housing activities of over £75,000."

Pointing out that Fine Gael candidates cannot stand "for any proposal to make money out of the housing necessities of the people," the letter goes on—

"If this sum of over £75,000 which is to be collected over and above the State charges were allocated to housing proper, it could be most serviceably applied in the direction of reducing the rents that have to be paid by the cottagers. There are approximately 12,500 cottages to be built out of the money provided, and the profit of over £75,000, if properly applied, would give a reduction of 26 per cent. If this money were devoted to the reduction of the rents it would serve to reduce the 3/6 proposed to be charged to something between 1/3 and 1/4 per week.

"It should be impressed upon our candidates that profit-making out of the rents of these cottages is not to be tolerated, and that when they are elected to the local councils it will be their duty to see that the rents will be reduced from 3/6 per week to whatever sum will meet, and only meet, the interest which can justly be charged upon the money lent for housing purposes."

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present—Mr. J. R. Smyth, P.C., Chairman; Mrs. S. Hurley, P.C.; Messrs. D. J. Linehan, D. Dennehy, M. J. Fleming, T. Beausang, J. Whelan, P. J. McMahon, P.C.; M. D. Broderick, P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; F. Clancy, A. J. Fowkes, T. Harrington.

CANVASSING. Some jocose references having been made to the canvassing for the coming elections, Mr. Beausang said that "canvassing is only making people tell lies" (laughter).

ESPLANADE HOTEL CONSERVATORY. In accordance with notice, Mr. O'Gorman, proposed that the resolution giving Mrs. Hurley, permission to erect a conservatory adjoining the Esplanade Hotel, be rescinded.

Letters on the subject were read from Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, for Mrs. Hurley, Messrs. J. L. Keane, and Sons, solrs., Youghal, for Mrs. S. Edinborough and Messrs. Hodnett and Son, solrs., to the Council.

Mr. Broderick pointed out that their solicitors had advised them to take no further action, but leave the matter in their hands to safeguard the interests of the Council.

Mr. McMahon seconded Mr. O'Gorman's proposition. There being no amendment, the proposition was passed.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS. Letters acknowledging resolutions of sympathy were read from Mrs. C. Dunne, Cork Hill, Mr. M. J. Corry, T.D., the family of the late Mrs. Cronin (mother of Comdt. Cronin), and Mr. E. P. Lynch, Vice-Chairman.

HOUSING INQUIRY. The L.G. forwarded objections received to the recent Clearance Orders in connection with the new Housing Scheme. They were referred to the Council's solicitors.

The Clerk stated that the Inquiry into the matter would be held on 5th July. He had forwarded the lay out plan of the further scheme. Everything was in readiness now and they were only awaiting the approval of the L.G. Engineer.

Mr. McMahon asked did they yet get possession of the recently completed houses. The Clerk said they couldn't let them till after the Inquiry.

The Chairman—We are blamed all over the town for holding the thing up, but our hands are tied by the authorities till the Inquiry.

ELECTRICITY PRICE INCREASE. Copy of a resolution from the Clonmel Corporation was received, calling on the E.S.B., to remove the 25 per cent. increase put on some time ago.

Mr. Broderick moved its adoption. Mr. Beausang proposed it be marked read. Mr. Harrington—It doesn't affect us; we have our gas works.

Mr. Broderick—It affects many people in the town. Mrs. Hurley seconded Mr. Broderick and Mr. Harrington seconded Mr. Beausang.

The resolution was adopted, Messrs. Beausang and Harrington, dissenting.

LIMERICK POOR CHILDREN'S EXCURSION. The Clerk said he had received an application from the Limerick Poor Children's Excursion Committee, asking for the use of the Town Hall etc., as on the last occasion. Having consulted the Chairman he replied that the Council would gladly give the Committee every facility. The Committee had written gratefully acknowledging the Council's action, which they very highly appreciated.

GRANTS FOR SEASIDE RESORTS. The Clerk said he understood that there was a prospect of grants for the improvement of seaside resorts and the Irish Tourist Association had asked for suggestions. He had submitted several including (1) concrete bathing shelters; (2) steam rolling the road in the seafront from Moll Goggins to the Main Road; (3) Erecting a concrete wall across Green's Dock at Dunne's Park, etc.

The Chairman said the concreted bathing shelters would hardly be feasible. Mr. Whelan suggested protective works from the Promenade in front of Claycastle.

Mr. Harrington said they ought to do something for the North Ward. Mr. O'Gorman said it would first be a matter for the L.G. Inspectors. Having disposed of a long agenda.

PEACEFUL MEETING. The Chairman said that was the most peaceful meeting he had ever attended (laughter). A member—Rigor Mortis has set in (laughter).

MR. W. J. BRODERICK, T.D. Mr. Whelan referring to the local Hospitals project, said that great credit was due to their colleague, Mr. W. J. Broderick, for the share he took in securing it. He, therefore, proposed that they extend him their sincere congratulations on the success attending his efforts and also on the splendid and brilliant speech he had made against the break up of that constituency.

Mr. Dennehy, seconded. The Chairman said that both the Council and the town were under a deep debt to Mr. Broderick.

Mr. O'Gorman said they all realised the great obstacles and opposition that had to be faced. Mr. Broderick deserved anything they could say of him.

Mr. Fowkes, as an Independent member of the Council, desired to be associated with the tribute paid to Mr. Broderick. The proposition was passed unanimously.

THEIR LAST MEETING. Mr. Dennehy said as that was the last meeting of that Council, and as he wasn't seeking re-election, he wished to say he was retiring with regret after spending six happy years with them, and to thank his colleagues for the unvarying kindness and courtesy always shown to him and to the members of his family. Having taken an active part in the working of the Council, he was able to pay a high compliment to them individually for their disinterested labours for the good of the people. He would also like to thank the Press for repeated surprises in reading language which he had never used (laughter). He wished them all good luck and happier days.

Mr. Fowkes complimented Mr. Dennehy on his conduct as a member of the Board, and especially in the great interest he had taken in the Library Committee.

Mr. O'Gorman thanked the Chairman for his conduct of the business. He had been always the personification of courtesy. If anything, he was too kind, even when they deserved a rap (laughter). He would also like to pay a tribute to the Clerk for the great work he had done during difficult years (hear, hear). Some people might say they could have done better. Perhaps? If the incoming Board proved as good as the old they would have no reason to complain.

Mr. Whelan endorsed Mr. O'Gorman's remarks as the youngest recruit on the Council he thanked them all for the courtesy extended to him since his co-option in his father's place.

Mr. Fleming as another not seeking re-election associated himself with the remarks made and thanked the Board for the kindness and fairness he had invariably received.

Mr. McMahon, as the member longest on the Council, and as the proposer of the Chairman six years ago, he appreciated all that had been said. His only fault was that he had given some of them too much latitude. Long may his big jib draw plenty of wind to sail ahead (laughter).

Mr. Clancy said the Chairman had given them all fair play, even when they had differed with him.

Mr. Harrington said although a prominent supporter of the Chairman he had often crossed swords with him, but if he had at any time exceeded the bounds of debate he now apologised for it. As regards the Town Clerk they couldn't get a better man.

Messrs. Broderick and Linchan expressed their hearty concurrence with what had been said. Mrs. Hurley said she was deeply grateful for all the kindness she had received in her troubles.

The Chairman, thanking them all, said, only for the solid co-operation of the members during his term of office they couldn't have made the headway they did. In spite of the fact that they were spending a lot of money they had reduced the rates a little. He hoped they would continue doing so in the future. It was characteristic of the Council that no matter what heat arose inside, it was all forgotten outside. As regards the business in general, were it not for the Town Clerk, it would have been sadly in arrears. Thanks to his skilful guidance they had successfully weathered the many difficulties they had to face.

The Town Clerk thanked them for all the kind things they had said about him. He was greatly indebted to all the members, present and absent, for the help and courtesy he had invariably received. The new Council could expect the same hearty co-operation from him in forwarding the interests of the town.

The meeting concluded with a vote of thanks to the Press.

QUARANT ORE. The Forty Hours Adoration were begun at Newtown Parish Church on Friday morning of last week, when Holy Mass was celebrated by Rev. T. Ahearne, C.C., assisted by a very large congregation, the vast majority of whom approached the altar rails. All through Friday and Saturday the Church was visited by the parishioners, young and old, all joining wholeheartedly in a grand tribute of loyal affection and devotion to God. After the late Mass on Sunday the Quarant Ore was brought to a close with the impartation of Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament by Fr. Ahearne. The high altar was beautifully decorated during the period of exposition. Hymns appropriate to the august function were prayerfully rendered by the Church choir.

NEWTOWN CUMANN, FIANNA FAIL. At a largely attended meeting of the above Cumann, a resolution was passed calling the attention of the Minister of Industry and Commerce to the disused Slate quarries at Carroll's Cross, with a view to having them re-worked. The resolution stated that the Carroll's Cross slate was considered by experts to be the best in Ireland.

G. A. A. MUNSTER FOOTBALL TIES.

WATERFORD LOSE SENIOR AND WIN MINOR GAME. S.F.—Limerick 4-7; Waterford 1-6. M.F.—Waterford 3-4; Limerick 0-1.

The Munster football championships were advanced a further stage at Clonmel Gaelic Sportsfield, on Sunday, when Limerick and Waterford clashed in the senior and minor departments, and divided the honours. The pitch was firm but wet, and a drizzle and strong east wind militated against good playing conditions. The advantage was on the small side, but those present enjoyed a thrilling game.

In the senior match Limerick fielded a very fine combination, and showed marked superiority in most departments. Waterford played well, but missed some good openings. In the first half Limerick gave a brilliant display and scored 4 goals and 4 points to Waterford's 1 goal and 1 point. Limerick's combination was excellent and the forwards made the most of their opportunities.

In the second half Waterford showed to better advantage and registered 5 points and held their opponents so closely that they only scored 3 points. Limerick had the game well in hand all the time, and their display delighted those present. On form they should prove doughty opponents for the winners of the Tipperary v Kerry match.

The scorers for Limerick were Sullivan, Lonergan, Mahony, O'Connor, and Culhane, and the scorers for Waterford, Numan, and Murphy. Mr. T. Powell, Clonmel refereed.

Waterford team—M. Dalton, M. Ryan, P. Hassessy, B. Casey, T. Greany, P. Gough, D. Goode, N. Numan, J. Power, J. Murphy, A. Noonan, J. Roche, J. Colbert, T. Lyons, C. Ryan. The minor championship tie between Limerick and Waterford was a rather scrambling match in which Waterford was superior right through and ran out winners by 3 goals 4 points to 1 point made by Limerick in the second half. The winning team included Rheimsch (goal), J. Keane, M. Hearne, E. Power, J. Ryan, O'Connor, J. Walters, J. Kiely, M. Landers, Henebery, Barry, Kirby, O'Meara, Jacques and Walsh.

On Tuesday evening the remains were removed to Affane Catholic Church when there was an unusually large attendance of relatives and the general public from all parts to pay a fitting tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased.

The cortege was headed by the Very Rev. Father Carroll, P.P., who received the remains at the Church, and after Requiem Mass for the repose of her soul on Wednesday morning, the interment took place in the family burial ground in Affane Churchyard in presence of another large attendance of relatives and friends from many parts of the Co. Waterford.

The Very Rev. Father Carroll, P.P., read the final prayers at the graveside.

DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT.

ACTION FOR SLANDER.

The Dungarvan Circuit Court opened on Wednesday before Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C. James Power, Barnestook, sued Miss Mary Hannigan, Old Parish, for £300 damages for slander.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr., for plaintiff; and Mr. Esmonde, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Farrell, solr.) defended.

Mr. Ryan said they did not want £300 damages, but they wanted a sum sufficient to clear the character of the plaintiff in the absence of an apology which had been refused.

The slander was contained in words spoken by the defendant at Mrs. Barron's Barnestook, when she said he (plaintiff) got £2 in her (defendants') name in Dungarvan to pay for a doctor for his mother.

James Power (plaintiff) 21 years, said his father was a farmer of 40 acres with a large family. At 14 he went to work with Thomas Hannigan, brother of the defendant and stayed there 7 years. He left in January '33. He was dismissed because his father would not swear that a particular man was not to blame for a girl. The wages due to him were 11/- and he got a decree for that. He went to work in August 1933 for Mr. T. Hartly, and he left as Hartly told him that Mary Hannigan said he was a dangerous man and treacherous. In May, he was in the house of Kate Barron, Barnestook, Bridgie Barron and K. Collins, were there. Defendant came in and said witness had no right to sue her brother. She said he went into a house in town and took £2 in her name to pay for a doctor for his mother. She did not say the house. Since he heard it was Mrs. Quinlan's, Mary street. He never went there for money or anywhere else. It was a falsehood. She said she could not prove it when challenged. That false statement had been repeated again and again in the district and he was still out of a job.

By Mr. Esmonde—His employers did not complain of the way he was doing his work. He did not put the clock on one morning to get off early. It was not witness was telling and circulating stories about Murphy and a girl being in trouble. Murphy is related to the Hannigans and witness's father would not go to Murphy's in the matter. I used to get clothes out of my own wages. He was at Mrs. Quinlan's, Dungarvan, one day and Miss Hannigan was there. He never asked Mrs. Quinlan for £1. The exact words defendant said were—"You went into a house in town and took £2 in my name to pay for a doctor for his mother." His mother was not ill at any time and he did not want doctor McCarthy for her. Defendant invented that through spite over witness suing for the wages due to him.

Miss Bridget Collins, said she came to Barnestook in May as a stranger. She came to Mr. Morrissey's Monecoush. On the 24th May she was in Mrs. Barron's house and the defendant came in. Defendant did not salute plaintiff, but she was excited. She said he took £2 in some house in Dungarvan to pay for a doctor to go to his mother. Power asked her could she prove it, and she said first she could and after she could not. She appeared unfriendly to Power.

By Mr. Esmonde—I only know the words spoken by the defendant in Barron's house. The others there said nothing except Power asked her could she prove it.

Mr. Esmonde, for the defence said when the evidence was heard it would be proved to be a most unjust and unjustifiable action for slander. The defence was a denial of the action and that no damage was suffered.

Miss Mary Hannigan (defendant) said she lived with Thomas Hannigan, who was a cripple. After plaintiff left her employment, her brother got a civil bill for 11/-. Last May she was in Katie Barron's house and the plaintiff was there. Witness said it was bad right for Power to sue Thomas Hannigan, who was so good to him always. Nobody went to court and the civil bill went by default. She denied ever saying that Power went to Dungarvan and got £2 to pay for a doctor for his mother. She told the company that at Mrs. Quinlan's house in Dungarvan Power came and asked witness for £1 to send doctor McCarthy to his mother, who was ill and witness said that the doctor knew his mother well enough to go to her until they would have the money.

By Mr. Ryan—My brother is the owner of the farm. The Murphy and Coyne business was nothing to me. Power left her employment and was not dismissed. His wages were 4/- for the first 2 years and 5/- a week afterwards.

To His Lordship—I never spoke out £2. Subsequent to the plaintiff suing her for £1 at Quinlan's, Mrs. Quinlan asked—"Is your mother very ill?" and he said no, but I wanted to get £1 out of her. That was not said in the presence of Miss Barron.

Mr. Ryan—You have taken Miss Barron—my witness—over body and soul from me. You drove her in today in a motor car.

Mrs. Quinlan, Mary street, Dungarvan, corroborated the last witness's statement of his mother not being ill, but that he (Power) wanted to get something out of Miss Hannigan.

By Mr. Ryan—it happened in February. Witness did not know wages were due to Power. People did not make matches in my house. Power never got £2 from me for a doctor for his mother.

Kate Barron denied she heard the offending words spoken in her house. She had nothing at all to say to Power. He was all right. Witness took no part in the conversation.

Plaintiff recalled, was questioned by His Lordship about what took place at Mrs. Quinlan's, but he denied being there at all.

His Lordship said it was not a very satisfactory slander action. He had no doubt that Miss Hannigan used slanderous words about plaintiff and his trying to obtain money by false pretences. The defence is a denial and that the plaintiff did not suffer damage. He held plaintiff was slandered, but he did not think he would give him substantial damages. He would give a decree for £1 and costs and 10/- expenses.

MOTOR ACCIDENT.

Ed. Curran, Killossera, Dungarvan, sued Mr. M. J. Keane, Dungarvan, for £28 5s. for personal injuries received through being knocked down by defendant's lorry on the Youghal Road in April, and having his wrist broken.

Mr. Esmonde, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Farrell, solr.), for plaintiff; and Mr. Budd, B.L., (instructed by Mr. H. D. Keane, solr.) for defendant.

Mr. M. Foley, B.E., proved the map of the scene of the accident, which was at the junction of Youghal Road and the road leading to Fr. Twomey's well.

Ed. Curran, farmer and contractor, said he was riding a bicycle from the Spring to the main Youghal road. He came out on the main road as a lorry was coming towards Dungarvan. It was on his side and as he could not get across he turned to his right side. After he got out on the road the lorry was passing and swerved towards the centre of the road. Witness jumped off the bicycle and was struck by the end of the lorry and sustained a broken wrist. He was attended by doctor Casey. He was unable to do work for weeks. He had to pay a man to do his work. After the accident the driver of the lorry came back and said he thought he was killed and offered to take him home. Asked as to the sounding of the horn the driver said he did not think there was any necessity to do so.

By Mr. Budd—I was on my wrong side.

Michl. Keogh, lorry driver, said it was a Ford 30-cwt. lorry and on this occasion had a load of full stout and empties. It was a drizzling evening. Witness slowed down and went to his own side on meeting the bus. As he passed Fr. Twomey's boreen, he heard a kind of bang and looking saw Curran on the road. He struck the back of the lorry.

By Mr. Esmonde—I never saw the plaintiff until I had almost passed the boreen. At the time of the accident I was about 3 feet from the footpath on my own side. If I were in the centre of the road there would possibly be no accident.

Miss Russell, who was travelling in the lorry on the evening of the accident said she saw the cyclist coming up the boreen and knew no more until the lorry stopped.

A young boy named Walsh, who was in the lorry, corroborated.

Mr. Esmonde, maintained that the lorry driver should have seen the cyclist coming around the corner and had he seen him one swerve to the right would have prevented the accident.

His Lordship said if the driver knew about that side road and did not blow his horn, he would be guilty of negligence, as he should give warning to traffic from the bye-road. The plaintiff was also guilty of negligence and was not entitled to recover damages. According to his own story he took no precautions, and seeing the lorry coming along turned to the wrong side of the road, which was a dangerous thing to do. He dismissed the action.

CAPPOQUIN CHILDREN'S FREE TRIP TO THE SEASIDE.

An important meeting of the Ladies' Committee and also the Committee of the C.Y.M.S. was held on Wednesday night for the purpose of completing arrangements for the free trip to be given to Youghal next week. The schoolchildren of Cappoquin between 6 and 14 years.

Rev. J. Rea, C.C., who first proposed such an excursion, presided, and there was a large attendance of members of both committees. At a meeting last week a ladies' committee was formed to collect subscriptions in the various streets of the town, the following ladies being appointed for their respective areas:

Barrack Street—Mrs. E. McGrath, Mrs. B. Regan, Mrs. P. Walsh, and Mrs. J. Singleton.

Main Street and Mass Lane—Mrs. E. Collender, Miss E. Moloney, N.T.; Miss M. Fraher, Mrs. Annie Dunne, Mrs. Watson, Mrs. J. V. Conway, Miss Lyne (Jubilee Nurse); Mrs. T. F. Olden, Mrs. Bateman, Miss Mansfield and Miss English.

Green Street, Castle Street, Pound Lane and The Square—Mrs. P. Colender, Miss Barron, Miss Gracie Walsh, and Miss M. Cahill.

Church Street, Mill Street, Cook Street and Twig Lane—Mrs. Ivy Crowe, Mrs. J. J. Meade, Mrs. M. J. Sargent, and Miss M. Kerfoot.

Very satisfactory reports of the result of the collection were now reported as follows by the various collectors: Mrs. McGrath and Mrs. Regan, Barrack Street, £5 17s. 6d.; Mrs. J. Bateman, Upper Main Street, £3 6s. 2d.; Mrs. T. F. Olden, Main Street, £1 11s. 0d.; Mrs. J. V. Conway, do., £1 12s. 6d.; Miss Lyne, Lower Main Street, £2 10s. 0d.; Mrs. Meade and Mrs. Crowe, Church Street, Cook Street,

Mill Street and Twig Lane, £2 0s. 0d. While a personal subscription of £1 was also announced from Mr. W. J. McCarthy, making a total of £20 5s. 11d., which was considered a very generous response.

After discussion it was agreed that all the children of Cappoquin schools and districts round should go making a total of 300.

The method of transport having been fully discussed, it was stated that the catering would be carried out reasonably by four restaurants in Youghal, while a free Cinema Show, Merry-Go-Rounds, and other forms of amusement would be provided free for the children in Youghal as the result of an arrangement between the proprietors and the Committee, so that nothing has been left undone by the promoters of the excursion to ensure the fullest measure of enjoyment for the children, and to give them a great day's outing at the seaside for which they will feel forever grateful to Fr. Rea, and his colleagues on the Committee.

A WORTHY OBJECT.

On Sunday night, July 1st., a Grand Concert and Variety Entertainment will be held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, to provide funds to meet the heavy expenses of sending 300 children for a free trip to the seaside at Youghal on Tuesday next. This worthy project has been started by the Rev. J. Rea, C.C., supported by the Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., and the officers and members of the C.Y.M.S., and nothing is being left undone by the promoters to make this great excursion a memorable event in the lives of the children who will avail of it.

As the expenses of the trip for transport, catering, amusements, etc., will be heavy the Concert was decided on to augment the amount obtained through voluntary subscriptions.

The programme will include songs and choruses by the talented C.Y.M.S. Pierrot Troupe, while all the most accomplished vocalists and instrumentalists in Cappoquin, Lismore, Tallow and other places will also be heard at their best. Specially attractive features will be the exhibitions of Irish step-dancing by the pupils of the Elocutionary, Singing and Dancing Classes conducted by Mrs. Violet McCarthy, Lismore.

For the convenience of children and others who may not be able to attend the night performance, a Matinee will be held on Sunday afternoon when the full programme will be presented.

NO INCOME TAX FOR FATHERS OF FIVE.

Fathers of five children or more will be exempt from income tax, according to a new Nazi tax reform plan.
