The Annual Show was held on Thursday, under the auspices of the Dungarvan Show Committee, and was most successful from every point of view. The attendance of the general public has fallen due to the terrible depression in the farming industry and the shortage of money, but apart from that natural sequence, the Show was up to a very high standard. The entries were very large, while the quality of the exhibits was never better. In the various horse classes the Judges had great difficulty in making their awards and some very fine specimens of hunters were on view. But the Judges were most painstaking and gave perfect satisfaction to everybody.

The cattle section has always been a special feature of the Show and here it was that the dual purpose-breed for which this county is noted first came into prominence. Thursday's display of registered and non-registered Bulls and Cows and young animals proved once more, that despite the times our dairy farmers still have excellent cattle, and they defy competition. During the judging the greatest interest was taken by spectators in the adjudication and the merits of the several competitors keenly discussed.

The Committee in charge, and the officials, had the arrangements perfect, so that the judging passed off without a hitch. The day was very summery and warm, but the heat was tempered with a moderate breeze. In the afternoon there was a thunder shower, during which the assembly found shelter in the stands, but it did not mar the enjoyment of the evening. Taken all round, it was a most successful and enjoyable reunion, which culminated in a delightful dance at the Town Hall at night, at which there was a big attendance.

Messrs. Spreadbrough and Jephson, Engineers, were also present.

ARDMORE WATER.
The caretaker of the Ardmore Water Supply reported that a man named Quaine was still drawing water from the pump.

The Secretary said this man was cautioned previously.
The Commissioner made an order referring the matter to the solicitor to take the necessary action.

HELVICK WATER.
A deputation from the Helvick area consisting of Mrs. M. Moloney, Helvick House, Mr. M. Curran, Ballinacourty, and others appeared before the Commissioner and asked that a well be piped and extended to Helvick, where there is a shortage of water.

Commissioner—The only thing I can do to-day is to ask the Engineer for a report.

Mr. Curran said the Board had the matter under discussion, and he thought the Engineer was conversant with the matter. There are about 27 families depending on this. He thought if the Commissioner could go and see the place.

The Commissioner asked as to the amount of compensation the owner would expect.

Mr. Curran—The source is a public well. There would only be the question of going through.

Mr. Spreadbrough—A tank or small reservoir would be required.

Mr. Curran—It is only a question of enlarging the old well.

Commissioner—There is also the question of cost, which is more important still. I will go and see the place with Mr. Spreadbrough.

D'LOUGHTANE WATER.
Mr. Spreadbrough, Engineer, reported on the probable cost of improving the water supply to D'Loughtane.

The Commissioner made an order to have the water analysed before carrying out the recommendations of the Engineer.

Replying to the Commissioner, the Secretary said that that proposal was turned down by the Board of Health before.

The Commissioner refused to allow the appointment.

A CONTRACTOR'S BOND.
Mr. Spreadbrough, Engineer, reported that Mr. Jas. Kenneally, Young, who is a contractor under the new cottage scheme is making very slow progress.

A letter was read from the Contractor asking to be relieved of the contract and enclosing a doctor's certificate as to the state of his health.

The Contractor appeared at this stage and asked to be relieved of the contract, and in reply to the Commissioner, said he was finishing the first four cottages he took.

The Commissioner, addressing Kenneally, said—You have held up the building of these cottages nearly twelve months and depriving people who want houses of them, now you want to give them up, you must carry out your contract or action will be taken against your sureties.

Mr. Kenneally—Very well, sir, I never yet left my sureties down.

Commissioner—Mr. Spreadbrough you see that an eye is kept on this contractor, and report progress to me, as to how the work is going on.

Mr. Spreadbrough—Very good, sir, I will instruct my Clerk of Works.

INTERESTING CLAIM FOR COMPENSATION.
GOODS TO I.R.A.

At Waterford Circuit Court, before Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C., interesting evidence was given in the case in which Patrick Power, Mahon Bridge, Co. Waterford, claimed £350 under the Damage to Property Act. Applicant said he was raided two or three times by British military and police and almost every other night by one or other of the different contending forces. I.R.A. columns were operating in the vicinity, and Mahon Bridge was regarded as the pivot of the whole military situation. During that time his house was the target for British troops, and as it was too dangerous for men to stay there, they simply took what they wanted and hopped if £146 was claimed in respect of goods supplied to I.R.A. and £204 for goods taken by the National Army.

Judge Sealy reported for £144 in one case and gave a decree for £145 in addition.

Patrick Davin, a member of a well-known Carrick-on-Suir athletic family, claimed for the destruction of a salmon weir situated at Coolnamuck, whose history, he stated dated back for centuries. The weir was blown up by bombs and utterly destroyed on March 22nd, 1922. Applicant was executor and Maurice Davin, who was lessee of the weir for Lord Waterford, being lessor.

Mr. Fallon, counsel for applicant, said Lord Waterford had previously, as lessor, applied for compensation in respect of the physical structure of the weir and had been awarded about £800. Applicant's claim was in respect of the use of the weir.

Mr. Lennon, B.L. (instructed by the State Solr., Mr. Ryan), opposing, said when Lord Waterford was granted the decree for compensation the name of Maurice Davin, for whom the applicant now acted as executor, was joined with Lord Waterford, and three decrees had been granted in their joint names in respect of the destruction of this weir, and applicant could not now succeed.

Mr. Fallon said if an award was made to Lord Waterford it did not affect applicant.

The claim was adjourned for further investigation.

DEATH OF MRS. C. BATTYE.
On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. C. Battye, died at the residence of her son, Main street, Kilmachomas, after a brief illness and in her 62nd year. Relict of the late Mr. John Battye, the deceased was a most estimable lady and was always extremely popular. She was mother of Mr. R. D. Battye, turned down by the Board of Health before.

The Commissioner refused to allow the appointment.

KILMACHOMAS NEWS.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN WALSH.
The death, after a brief illness, of Mr. John Walsh, Ballyvaden, Kill, while yet in his early forties, removes a highly respected resident from the district. The deceased, who belonged to an old-established, widely connected family of the Decies, was an extensive, practical farmer and a successful breeder of thoroughbred horses. A good neighbour, he possessed many estimable qualities, which endeared him to a large circle of friends and relatives. Rev. M. Dowley, C.C., Kill, assiduously attended to his spiritual requirements, and the end came calmly and peacefully on the morning of the 5th inst. A great wave of public sympathy goes out to his wife, who is left with four young children to mourn his premature demise. The deceased was brother of Mrs. J. Power, Cowmahon, Kilmossanty; Mrs. W. Buckley, Shanakill, Kilmachomas; Mr. David Walsh, Ballyvaden, do.; and Mr. Bernard Walsh, Dungarvan. Three of his sisters are nuns on the foreign mission.

A very large funeral (headed by Fr. Dowley) accompanied the remains to the Parish Church, Kill, on Friday evening. Solemn Office and Requiem High Mass were offered up for the repose of his soul on Saturday morning. Rev. T. Ahearne, C.C., Kilmachomas, was celebrant of the Mass, assisted by twelve priests in the choir. The attendance at the interment in the old cemetery at Ballyristeen, Bonmahon, was also very large. It would be impossible to give a list of the names of the general public present. Fr. Dowley, officiated at the graveside.—R.I.P.

RURAL OPERATIONS.
Weather conditions continue in favour of the farming community, and harvesting operations are proceeding apace. Turf is made secure in large stacks in the bogs and will not be interfered with again until the hay and corn are secure. There may be a few amongst the rural population who believe in first getting the turf home as a wet September would kill their hopes of doing so then, but they are comparatively few. The idea, of course, is an innovation, and seems so contrary to the old way of doing things, that the great majority of the farmers would not dream of interfering with the method of their predecessors.

ROAD MISHAPS.
A road accident attended by rather serious consequences occurred at Ballyshonock, Kilmachomas, on the main Waterford-Cork road, when a lorry, the property of Mrs. Meany, fowl-buyer, Carrick-on-Suir, was being driven past a motor car, owned and driven by Mr. John Rowe, garage proprietor, Lator's Cross, Kilmachomas, the heavy vehicle hit the car. The force of the impact caused the car to swerve right around from the direction it was facing, and it had almost capsized before Mr. Rowe was able to regain control and stop the engine from running. His passengers, Miss Agnes Walsh, Brook Lodge, Kilmachomas, Mrs. P. Dunphy, licensed victualler, Newtown, do., and a child of hers—sustained injuries about the body. The driver of the lorry was not injured. Both vehicles were proceeding Kilmachomaswards when the crash happened. The lorry was undamaged, but the car was partially wrecked. Sergt. Dunne, G.S., Kilmachomas, was immediately apprised of the occurrence. He visited the scene and interviewed all concerned in the mishap. The injured parties were later conveyed to Waterford City Hospital for treatment. We learn that they are making favourable progress towards recovery.

Whilst cycling from his home at Carriganonshough, to Kilmachomas, a young lad named James Gallaher, was struck by a motor car, driven by a gentleman who is stated to be a commercial traveller. Gallaher was thrown violently, but, fortunately, on being examined later by Dr. J. C. Walsh, Kilmachomas, his injuries were found to be not so serious as one would expect in the circumstances. The mishap occurred near the Union Road junction with the main (Cork-Waterford) road. Gallaher's bicycle was badly broken. The boy's father, Mr. Patrick Gallaher, is the deservedly-popular mechanical engineer at Mr. E. Hill's establishment at Kilmachomas.

local newscaster; Mr. S. J. Battye, Fair Lane, Kilmachomas; Mr. A. W. Battye, London; the Misses Z. M., and J. C. Battye, do., and Mrs. J. Burke, Graigenageha, Kilmachomas. The funeral was attended by an exceedingly large number of the general public. Interment was made at Kilcool Protestant Cemetery. Rev. Canon Burkett, Stradbally, and Rev. Mr. Stanley, Comeragh, conducted the burial service. Numerous messages of sympathy reached the family in their very sad bereavement.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

MANY MATTERS DISCUSSED.

The first meeting of the newly-elected Council met on Friday night. Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presiding. Other members present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, P. Byrne, P. O'Dwyer, J. Dahill, J. Mansfield, S. Hayes, D. Foley, J. Foley, J. Christopher, J. J. Crotty, P. Quann, J. Butler, M. Clancy.

WEEKLY PAYMENTS.

The weekly paysheet amounting to £14 4s. 1d., was passed.

NUISANCE CAUSED BY NEW DUMP.

Mr. G. Williams, Shandon Road, wrote calling attention to the opening of the new dump at the outlet for the water from the marsh at Shandon. It was causing silting in the bed of the channel, resulting in the working of the sluices being interrupted with and becoming clogged with stones and rubbish tins and the Council were liable for this and he requested them to remedy the matter.

Mr. J. Foley—Has this matter arisen before?

Clerk—Not in regard to this trouble.

Mr. Dahill—If there was a railing outside to keep out the cans and tins it would be a way out of the difficulty.

Mr. McCarthy—It's not a nice thing to have tins dumped there. I think we should make an order that no tins be dumped there only ashes and clay.

Mr. Butler—There has been considerable trouble time and again about dumps. No matter where a dump has been opened, someone comes along and objects. The difficulty is to get a dump where it won't be objected to. We opened the old dump there. We must have a dump somewhere and must find a place for them. If sluices get choked, there is a liability on the Council to keep them clear.

Mr. McCarthy—Why not dump them in the new dumping place at Youghal Rd. Tins are being dumped there from the Co. Home. There is a nice place for a dump on the marsh opposite. It would make the finest dumping ground in the world. I think the Council should get it and get us out of all this difficulty.

Mr. Dahill suggested extending the old dump near the railway line and continue the planting of trees on it.

Mr. McCarthy—The only thing to do is to prevent tins being dumped there. If we ask the people not to dump in that particular place, they may abide by it.

Mr. Clancy—There has been notices put up before and we found that the public ignored any order made by the Council. They dumped everywhere; they have no sense of responsibility. There was a new dump opened at Abbeyside—it was a nice dump—but the owner objected. We should make an effort to get a new dumping ground. The Youghal Road dump is becoming unsightly. Tins and cans are exposed there. They should be covered up. At the matter on the agenda for the next meeting.

Mr. McCarthy drew attention to the dump at the Cat's Lough where stuff like chaff was being dumped and then burned. The smoke was going into the houses of the people living nearby and creating a nuisance. He asked that the Council make an order to stop it.

Mr. Clancy—Before you do it, I suggest making an order to close it up and level it and prevent further dumping.

This was agreed to.

Mr. Mansfield—Why not advertise for land for a dump. People may have land to fill in for building purposes.

Chairman—I suggest first of all adjourning the matter to the next meeting and let the B.S. find some new suitable place.

Mr. Crotty, proposed that in the meantime a man or two be sent there to clean the place.

This was passed.

CLEANING THE STRAND.

Mr. Clancy asked that as the bathing places were now open, the Council make an order to have the places cleaned.

Mr. J. Foley, suggested cleaning the strand from Abbeyview. They might as well clean up the whole front. People asked him to have this done.

The Chairman agreed, and also referred to the strand at the Youghal Road which was becoming unsightly and needed a cleaning. He suggested that the whole foreshore be cleaned.

Mr. Clancy drew attention to the railing at the esplanade. He suggested last year taking out a section of it and replacing it by a new section. Now it was all broken away altogether.

Chairman—There is a slip at the esplanade which is all broken up and torn. A little repair is needed.

Mr. Crotty drew attention to the railing over the bathing boxes which was broken and dangerous.

Mr. Clancy suggested taking it away altogether.

Chairman—It would not be any more dangerous if it were all gone.

Mr. McCarthy—Why not build a wall there?

Mr. J. Foley—If people respected their town and park they wouldn't do it; but it was done and done maliciously.

The Council agreed to clean the strand.

WATER COMPLAINTS.

A resident of South Main street, wrote complaining that the water supply was in bad condition. A plumber who inspected the supply was under the impression that there was a chokeage at the main.

Mr. Butler—Time after time, incrustation has occurred at either the service pipes or the main. If we found any incrustation at the main, the Council did the work, but if it occurred at the service pipes, the owner had to bear the cost. That was the order previously adhered to.

The matter was referred to the Water Inspector for a report.

Arising out of the above discussion, Mr. Foley said that a resident in the New Line complained of having no water in the house. As the other houses near had water it was obvious that the main was choked.

The Water Inspector said he would open the road on Monday and examine the main.

SUNDAY CINEMA LICENSE.

D. Crotty and Sons, Cinema, Dungarvan, applied for the removal of the restriction on Sunday night cinema license.

Mr. McCarthy said that some months ago, Mr. Crotty applied for his annual license and on that occasion was granted a 7-day licence. He thought that the application to-night was not in order.

It was decided that notice of motion was required to consider the matter.

WATER.

The caretaker of the Glendine reservoir reported that the water was very low at the intake.

Chairman—That's not very pleasing especially if the dry weather continues.

Mr. Butler—We can't help it.

Chairman—There is one thing I know and that is there is a lot of water going waste.

Mr. Butler—I suggest that we deal with the report from the M.O. and from Messrs. Delap and Wallard at a special meeting.

Mr. Mansfield—It's a big question for the Council. It would be a good idea to hold a special meeting.

It was decided to hold a special meeting to consider the matter.

TENANCIES AT LOUGHMORE.

The Department wrote regarding the creating of tenancies in respect of the 86 houses at Loughmore, pointing out that if the houses are let prior to the confirmation of the Clearance Order, difficulty might be experienced in preventing the re-occupation of the vacated houses. The letter added that in order to qualify for the higher rate of subsidy, it was necessary that houses vacated by the prospective tenants be demolished.

The letter was referred to the Council's solicitor.

OVERDRAFT.

A letter from the Minister sanctioned an overdraft of £400 to 31st of the month.

RICE'S STREET SEWER.

A letter from the Department sanctioning the proposed sewer at Rice's street, was read.

Mr. McCarthy—Is there any possible chance of getting a grant for that work?

Mr. Butler—This sewer is going to cost something about £900.

B.S.—The estimated cost is £950.

Mr. Butler—If we get a 50/50 grant, we would be advised to do it; otherwise not.

Clerk—I did not include it in the rates.

Mr. Clancy explained that it formed part of relief schemes about 4 years ago. The Council had to leave it however, because it couldn't be done at the time. At that time the Government would contribute one-third of the cost.

Chairman—My suggestion is put up the schemes; we have a good case.

Mr. Clancy—I propose we ask for a grant for the Shandon Road. We asked for it 3 months ago. Did we get any reply, Mr. Clerk?

Clerk—Only an acknowledgment.

Mr. Clancy's proposition was passed.

TENDERS.

Four tenders were received for the repairing of the water main. G. Stokes and sons being the lowest at 1/2 per yard was accepted.

LOCAL LABOUR.

Arising from the latter, Mr. McCarthy referred to the resolution on the books whereby only I.T. & G.W.U. men be employed at any work carried out by the Council. There was no condition to that effect in these tenders.

The B.S. explained that it was an oversight on his part, but he would see that Union men be employed.

Mr. Clancy—Another order is that skilled and competent men be employed. That's often forgotten too.

Mr. Dahill—I have a proposition that only men living within the Urban area be employed in Council work.

Mr. Butler—I don't think that we ever employed men only local men.

Mr. McCarthy—If there wasn't I'd know it and I'd object.

ESTIMATES AND RATES.

Before the Clerk submitted the estimates and rates, Mr. O'Dwyer proposed that the making of a new sewer from Davis street be included in the estimates.

B.S.—My recollection of this sewer is that it would probably cost £100.

Mr. Clancy—How are we going to do the work? Is it out of revenue or grant or how? Our finances are very low. I think we should get an opportunity of going into the estimates first.

Mr. McCarthy—I appreciate Mr. Clancy's point very much, but if he were living in Davis street he would know the position. There is a terrible stench there and when the wind blows in a certain direction it's terrible. I defy any man to live there.

Chairman—I propose that we take the estimates first and see how we can fit it in.

The Clerk submitted the following figures:—Town's Improvement Rate 1/10 (an increase of 4d.); Sanitary Rate 2/3 (an increase of 3d.); Road Rate, 10d. (an increase of 1d.); Housing Rate 2/41 (increase of 2/3); School Meals 3d. (no change); Poor Rate 8/9 (increase of 9d.). The total rate was 19/8 as against 15/9, being an increase of 3/11 in the £1. There was no provision made for the Shandon Road, Rice's street or King's street sewer.

The Chairman said it was a big increase. There were some schemes—very necessary ones—they would like to do, but it would be very foolish to add to the estimate.

Mr. O'Dwyer—The sewer at Davis street is most necessary. It would only be an extra 3d. in the £1.

Mr. J. Foley—Is there any possibility of getting a loan to do it. You can bring the horse to the water but you can't make him drink.

Mr. Butler said the greatest increase was in the houses. It was going to cost the ratepayers 2/3 in the £1 in the rates. Some people say build and build. The result would be that the people would not be able to pay at all. Another scheme like this would cost the ratepayers 4/6 next year, and another scheme after that 6/9. His opinion was that the rate of 19/8 was too large. There were some schemes he would like to see carried out, especially that in Davis street, but he believed that they should make every effort to reduce this rate.

Mr. Clancy—Can we economise in any way?

Chairman—We can go through the different items.

Mr. McCarthy—12 months ago that particular sewer at Davis street, was mentioned, but having no money it was let go to this year. I for one won't let it go this year.

Mr. J. Foley—I suggest getting a loan for it. If the M.O. certify it as being unhealthy I'm sure we could get it.

Mr. Quann—Any big scheme, one over £100 or so, should not be included. It would be ridiculous to put in a big scheme like Rice's street sewer.

After further discussion it was decided to postpone the matter to a special meeting.

HOME ASSISTANCE COMPLAINT.

Mr. McCarthy drew attention to a cut which was made in the relief of a woman by the Commissioner. She had been cut down to 2/6, and had to live for one week on that 2/6. He intended asking the Council to pass a resolution protesting against it. There was another man and his family who had to wait till 6 o'clock in the evening in order to get their breakfast.

Mr. Byrne—If it exists a month longer, they will die with starvation on the streets.

Mr. McCarthy—If it existed another month there would be a revolution. No man would like to see his children starving in front of him.

After further discussion a resolution was passed protesting against the action of the Commissioner in cutting Home Assistance.

MULCAHY'S, Dungarvan.

ARDMORE DISTRICT COURT.

LICENSING CASE.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.) Pask Power, vintner, Kiely's Cross, was charged with a breach of the Licensing Laws.

Supt. Walsh, Dungarvan, prosecuted, and the following were summoned for being on the premises: J. Mulcahy, Grange, W. Morrissey, Drumsig, P. Power, Loskeran, W. Foley, Monameen, P. Power, Strand St., Dungarvan.

Guard Moloney, stated that he found three of the defendants at the back and he brought them into the premises, where they were questioned by Sergt. Fitzgerald. One said he went there to see defendant's son regarding certain work. The others admitted having got drink. It was 11.15 new time.

Replying to the Court, the publican said he wasn't on the premises at the time. His daughter was in charge.

Sergt. Fitzgerald, Ring, stated he knocked at the front door which was opened by Miss Power. In a room at the back of the kitchen he found some of the parties sheltering behind a door. He questioned them in turn and they admitted being on the premises and getting a drink. Wm. Foley said he had only just come in regarding road work. There were several empty glasses with signs of drink—all stout as far as he could see. There was a kind of a show outside the premises with a crowd of a couple of hundred assembled.

The publican stated that he ordered his daughter to bolt the door and allow no one in. When he returned the Guards were inside.

Cross-examined by the Supt.—Why didn't you meet the Sergt.—I didn't know what to do. Were you not evading your responsibilities on the occasion?—I don't know.

Miss Josephine Power, stated that her brother said it was all right and she left the men in.

Replying to the Court—Witness said that she had eight brothers. She thought it was one of them was speaking. When the men got in she asked them to leave, but they would not go.

The Supt.—Why didn't you tell the Sergt. that they refused to leave?—I didn't think of it at the time.

Wm. Foley stated he went in to see one of the boys. He got no drink.

Cross-examined by the Supt.—Are you not one of the men who refused to leave?—No.

The Justice—What time did you go in?—3 or 4 minutes before I was caught.

The Justice—I don't like that word "caught," it suggests you were there, like the rest to get a drink.

There being a previous conviction, the publican was fined £2.

Wm. Foley, who appeared, was fined 1/- and the other defendants 5/- each.

RATES CASES.

The adjourned cases of Mr. James Hartly, Rate Collector, against a number of prominent local farmers for arrears of rates were taken up.

Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., Dungarvan, for plaintiff and Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, for defendants.

Mr. Hodnett said, having regard to his Worship's remarks last day he had impressed on his clients the necessity of making a very earnest effort to meet the first moiety before 30th June, and he was glad to say that had been done, except in one instance, in which the defendant had brought the money to pay then. In the circumstances he asked the Court to favourably consider the application made last day for time for the second moiety.

Mr. Williams said his instructions were to ask for decrees at once in all these cases. The plaintiff had to get the money or risk losing his position. He had there a circular sent to all the Collectors by the Commissioner.

The Justice said that circular had been already read in another Court and there was nothing in it that he did not know and had not been considering.

Mr. Williams—There is one point—The Justice—Don't read the circular. Mr. Hodnett objected to the Commissioner being represented by a solr. Judge Sealy had already ruled that point. He (Mr. Hodnett) objected to any circular.

The Justice—I don't think it is the proper thing to do. Everything in that circular is known to me. I allowed Mr. Condon more latitude because he wasn't a solicitor, to use that circular.

Mr. Williams said there was one point. Those defendants had already got 12 months time, and if they got a further extension the current year's rates would run into the last in times that would probably be worse than the first.

Mr. Hodnett—I take it your worship is satisfied that you have jurisdiction. The Justice—Oh, yes complete.

After further argument decrees were granted with a stay of a month in two cases, and to 15th September in the others.

Mr. Williams applied for costs. Mr. Hodnett—Your Worship granted costs of Court only.

10/- costs were allowed except where the amount involved was £5 or under, in which court costs only were granted.

NO LIGHTS.

Guard Deasy, charged Carlo Jones, with using an unlighted cycle.

Complainant said the man gave a wrong name.

He was fined 5/-.

The same complainant charged a number of other men with like offences and they were each fined from 1/6 to 2/6.

MOTOR OFFENCE.

Sergt. O'Shea, charged Patk. Quinn, with having no red rear light in his lorry to illuminate the identification plate; also with failing to produce a driver's license.

He was fined in sums of 2/6, 1/3 and 1/3.

SCHOOL CASES.

Guard Gill, had a number of persons summoned in school attendance cases.

Fines from 1/- up to 5/- were imposed.

HOUSEBREAKING & LARCENY.

Thos. Coffey, Toor, aged 48, was charged with housebreaking and the larceny of a sum of about 5/-, the property of James Walsh, Drumsig.

Supt. Walsh, prosecuted.

Mrs. Mary Walsh, deposed she lived with her husband at Drumsig. On Sunday 15th June, she left home with her husband for Mass at about 8.30 at Grange. The windows and doors were all secured before they left and the door of the sitting-room was locked. There were some coppers on the window. She took two pennies going to Mass. There was a coat of hers hanging on the window shutter and there was 3/4 in a purse in one pocket. When they returned from Mass they found the yard gate opened and the fastener of the window of the sitting-room pushed aside. All the money was missing. Tim Coffey and his brother Thomas had been employed by her the week previous. Witness got home from Mass about 11.30 old time.

Asked if he had any questions to ask, defendant said he took between 3/5 and 3/9. She said he took 2/-, 1/-, 6d., and 1/11 and also that he took 3/4 entirely.

The Justice—I notice that. Replying to the Justice accused said he admitted the offence.

Guard Gill, stated that Guard Moloney and he located the accused at Kiely's Cross. They brought him to the barracks, where, after being duly cautioned, he admitted the offence. They found a purse on him containing 1/7d.

The Justice—Then he spent about 4/- of the money.

Asked what he had to say for himself, accused said there was money coming to his brother from Mrs. Walsh.

Mrs. Walsh, recalled stated that she had paid the boys all coming to them.

The Justice said to defendant that even if there was money due to his brother it wouldn't entitle him to break into the house.

Accused—Mrs. Walsh had a sore leg and I thought she would be inside and I went in.

The Justice—That does you more harm than good.

Replying to the Court, Sergt. Fitzgerald said there was nothing against him up to that.

The Justice said if there had been more cases of pilfering in that district he would send accused to jail. Housebreaking was a most serious crime, worse than larceny. He would let him out under the P.O.A. in his father's recognisances in £5 to keep the peace for 3 years, but that was the last time he would let anyone guilty of such a crime off without sending him to jail for a short time.

Under N.A. & C.A. rules the Co. Waterford inter-club Championship sports were held in the Sportsfield, Cappoquin, and attracted very large entries from Kilmacthomas, Glenmore (Dungarvan), Tallow, Lismore and Cappoquin Athletic Clubs, with the result that competition was extremely keen in every department and some excellent sport was witnessed during the evening.

A feature of the meeting was the wonderful form displayed by J. McGrath, Cappoquin A.C., who won the 220, 440, and 880 yards in most convincing style, and also annexed the Pole Jump, which was a most meritorious performance, while C. Guest, Lismore A.C., also gave a brilliant performance by winning the half-mile, one mile and two miles Cycle races with comparative ease, which was also a most creditable and promising achievement on the part of this young cyclist. The weather proved gloriously fine for the fixture, but the attendance fell far short of what it should have been for such an important and interesting programme.

Thanks to the wonderful work carried out by Messrs. M. F. Walsh, and M. J. Sargent, Hon. Secs., assisted by Messrs. M. and Joe Mason, and one or two other public-spirited gentlemen, the field arrangements were the most perfect that could be found, the cycle track, especially, being a marvel of perfection which won the greatest praise from all the cyclists who competed.

The various officials worked hard in their respective departments during the evening, special praise being due to that veteran Athletic Champion, Mr. Percy Kirwan, Kilmacthomas, who as one of the Judges of Athletics proved a tower of strength to the other officials and helped very materially in having the long programme of 18 events run off in record time and without the slightest hitch from start to finish. The Hon. Secs. also worked unsparringly in having all the arrangements carried out with smoothness and expedition, and the great success which attended the Sports was a tribute to their efficiency in such matters.

Mr. M. J. Sargent very kindly presented a valuable Challenge Cup last year to be won by the Club scoring the highest number of points in the athletic and cycling events, and it was then won by the Cappoquin Athletic Club, which scored 30 points, and the same Club retained the valuable trophy this year with 29 1/2 points.

Glenmore coming next with 19 1/2 points and Tallow next in order of merit.

In addition to this valuable Silver Medal with gold centres were given to the winners, and silver medals to the second in each event, so that the successful competitors were highly pleased with the valuable and acceptable prizes presented to them.

On the suggestion of Mr. Percy Kirwan, a complimentary medal was presented to Mr. J. Conway, Dromana, for his stylish performance in the Pole Jump which was very creditable considering that he is yet only a young boy, but Mr. Kirwan felt that he is giving every promise of developing into a most successful athlete in a short time and it was in order to encourage him to devote himself to athletics that he suggested presenting him with a complimentary medal on this occasion.

The duties of Starter were capably carried out by Mr. W. J. Nolan, Dungarvan, while as Judges of Jumping, Messrs. J. McCarthy, B.A., and J. Regan, senr., deserve special praise for their efficient services with Mr. P. Kirwan.

J. Rea, C.C., Cappoquin, who congratulated the winners on the good form which they had shown in the various events.

Mr. Percy Kirwan, Kilmacthomas, proposed a cordial vote of thanks to Father Rea for so kindly attending the Sports and presenting the medals, and in doing so said he was very glad that Cappoquin had retained the Challenge Cup this year, and as they had some wonderful sportsmen in Cappoquin, they fully deserved their victory this year, (applause).

Father Rea, suitably replied, and said he was thankful to his old friend, Mr. Kirwan, for proposing the vote of thanks to him, and he fully agreed with his remarks about the fine sportsmen they had in Cappoquin, and he, too, was very glad that they had been able to retain the valuable Cup in the town on this occasion, the same as they had done last year, (loud applause).

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

LATE V. REV. CANON FURLONG. The month's Memory, Office and High Mass for the repose of the soul of the late Very Rev. Canon Furlong, was held in the Parish Church, Dungarvan, in the presence of a large congregation. His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, presided. The celebrant was Rev. M. F. There was a big attendance of clergy, while the Church was filled with the faithful.

DUNGARVAN RATES.

At a special meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council on Wednesday evening, Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman presiding and there being a full attendance of members, the question of adopting the estimate of rates for the year 1934-35 was the chief business. According to the statement prepared by the Town Clerk, the rate estimate was 19/8 in the £. The Council went fully into the various items to be provided for and eventually decided on a rate of 18/8 in the £. Last year's rate was 15/9 in the £ or 2/11 in the £ under that of this year.

URBAN WATER SUPPLY.

The Urban Council at its meeting on Wednesday night also considered the reports of Messrs. Delap and Walker, Dublin, and also of Dr. Casey, M.O.H., on the water supplies to Dungarvan. (These reports in extenso will appear in our next issue).

The analyst's reports on the water supplies were also received. They stated that the Glendine water was fit for drinking, but that the Kiladangan supply had vegetable contamination and required filtering.

Mr. Butler said that in view of the repairs carried out to the filter beds at Kiladangan recently that further samples be sent for analysis. This was approved.

On the question of the water supplies generally.

After discussing the question a resolution was proposed by Mr. Mansfield, seconded by Mr. D. Foley, and passed asking the L.G. Dept., to send down an Engineering Inspector to examine and report on the water supply and that the Council be guided by that report.

HARRY LINTON CO.

Next week Harry Linton, will have a great variety Show and Hippodrome at the Gaelic field, Dungarvan, when the special attractions will exceed anything yet seen. It promises to be the best yet given here and should prove a big attraction nightly.

DEATH OF MR. ED. KELLY, INCHINDRISLA.

The death of Mr. Edward Kelly, Inchindrisla, Dungarvan, occurred at his residence on the 3rd inst., after a brief illness and fortified by the rites of the Church. The deceased, who had reached a ripe age was a member of an old and highly-respected family, and was esteemed by all who knew him. His funeral to the Parish Church, Garranbane, was largely attended and on the 5th inst., High Mass for the repose of his soul was celebrated.

GOAT ATTACKS MOTOR CAR.

While making a call at a farmhouse in the elevated regions of the County Waterford this week, a gentleman from the midlands left his motor on the roadside. The car was neatly varnished and very attractive-looking. While its owner was engaged in the district, a male goat happened to pass by the way and having a good peep at the motor evidently mistook his own shadow for another he goat. His blood immediately boiled, and he started gesticulating in the wild way of his tribe. His prototype did the same, and then the trouble started in earnest. Armed with strong and powerful horns, he pucked the sides of the motor to his heart's content and when the owner of the car returned, he found its side all indented with horn marks and generally bearing the signs of a severe barrage.

WHO IS LIABLE.

When a goat so far forgets himself as to break loose and attack a stationary car there must be some cause and in this case it would appear to be due to the weather, the heat being rather oppressive. The owner of the goat can scarcely be held liable for the vagaries of his charge, and if he were he would not know what next he would do. Some years ago a goat with pugilistic tendencies took strange notions and going into the owner's house frightened the poor woman out. Peeping through the door later, being afraid to go into the house, she saw the intruder pucking a coat that hung on the wall and "she could see on the very next day, was the scut of his tail and he pucking away." So he pucked his way out and on to fresh fields and pastures new.

The heat wave is with us and all indications point to its staying for some time. It has meant a complete revolution in dress, for our people, hatless, coatless, stockingless, one and all sweater in the heat.

"EAT, DRINK AND BE MERRY."

The Kilgobinet Ladies and Men's branch of the League of Youth held a sumptuous picnic in Clonea on Sunday last. Upwards of 80 blue shirts and blouses attended and the splash of "blue" on the strand could be seen from afar. There were lashings of everything from sandwiches to "light beer." Truly the spirit of the occasion was "the more we are together the more we all will eat."—O'Duffy, Abu!—(Communicated).

26 FOR 18 COWS.

At Clonmel 18 cows were sold at a Sheriff's sale for £6.

BONMAHON.

As a health resort, Bonmahon will take some beating. During the present heat-spell its splendid strand is the favourite rendezvous of many South-Tipperary sea-trippers, who gather there to revel in those rolling waves that hurl themselves on the golden sands out of the bosom of the broad Atlantic, or to bask in the glorious sunshine on the emerald-coated cliffs at either end of the village.

BUSINESSMEN IN DISPUTE.

John Pope, Clonmel, businessman, and Mrs. Catherine Pope, his wife, were complainants and Ernest Stundon, a Waterford businessman, was defendant, in a case as assault at Tramore Court.

It was stated that a dispute arose over a right of way between the houses of the parties at Tramore.

Defendant gave an undertaking not to interfere with complainants, and both parties were advised by District Justice McCabe to go home and have more sense.

FINDING THEIR WAY ABOUT.
SOME DOGS CLEVERER THAN OTHERS.

By "PHILOKON."

A CORRESPONDENT is much concerned about the risks run by dogs that accompany their masters as far as a tram or bus when they are on their way to business. Some men, according to this gentleman, are in too much of a hurry or are too careless to order their dogs to return home as they board the vehicle. He has seen dogs running backwards and forwards in a state of bewilderment and in great danger of meeting with an untimely death from the traffic. It would certainly be better if their masters saw them safely on their homeward journey before they left. One can understand that they like to give the dog a little run after breakfast, and if he has been trained properly, he should be able to find his way back in safety and without difficulty. But they vary a good deal in their possession of road sense.

Some dogs are more clever than others in avoiding traffic, but the majority of them rush across a road and apparently have no idea of the pace at which an oncoming car may be travelling. In these cases, they run the risk of being killed or they may be the means of causing an accident. Most motorists hate the idea of injuring a dog and in swerving, may get into difficulties themselves.

Perhaps the cleverest dogs at finding their way about are Chow-Chows, which not only have a highly developed sense of locality but also know how to take care of themselves. One morning I watched one crossing the wide bit of road leading to the Admiralty Arch from Trafalgar Square. He waited quietly until there was a lull in the stream of traffic in one direction and then walked to the middle of the road. Instead of making a dash for the opposite pavement, he paused and looked to see what was coming towards him from the other direction. He then disappeared into St. James's Park. I have often met this fellow taking a lonely walk in the Park, which, by the way, is against the rules, as he ought to be on a lead. But he shows no disposition to interfere with the birds on the borders of the lake.

More remarkable still is the story I was told about another Chow. His mistress, who lived more than two miles away on the other side of Kensington Gardens, took him to a place to be washed. On being asked when she would return for him, she gave directions that he should be turned loose, saying that he would get home safely. He was kept under supervision until he had crossed Knightsbridge and in a short time a telephone message came to the effect that he had reached home.

To human beings who are unable to fathom the mentality of dogs, the extent of their knowledge of locality seems amazing. If you take a sensible dog for a walk, he will know every turning on the return journey, and if you are in doubt yourself, it is often safe to follow his lead. Perhaps it is more astonishing still that they should be able to recognise persons by their peculiar scents. A dog's nose tells him far more than his eyes and when he is once acquainted with anyone, he will recognise that person some distance away by the scent given off by his or her body.

This chat is issued by THE TAIL-WAGGERS' CLUB OF IRELAND, 23, Old Abbey Street (off Marlborough Street), Dublin, C.8. The Club will be pleased to answer any enquiries submitted by Tail-Wagger Owners in connection with canine hygiene and welfare.

Ardmore Water Supply.

EVIDENCE AT L.G.B. INQUIRY.

Mr. William Ian Bloomer, B.E., Engineering Inspector, Department of Local Government and Public Health, held an inquiry in the Courthouse, Ardmore, into the application of the County Waterford Board of Public Health for sanction and the raising of a loan of £2,000 for providing a water supply for the village of Ardmore.

Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr., Dungarvan, appeared for Mr. James Flynn, on whose land it is proposed to construct the reservoir. Mr. Edmund Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared on behalf of a number of ratepayers and residents in Ardmore.

Dr. Foley, M.O.H., Ardmore, in reply to the Inspector, stated that the population of Ardmore in the winter time was about 200, and in the summer about 300. The existing water supplies were a few ordinary well pumps. These were entirely insufficient for the needs of the village. There was a good deal of agitation as far back as 1914, for a water supply, when an Engineer from Dublin visited the district, and reported on a then suggested source of supply. All the existing pumps in the village were in working order, as far as he knew. There was an old style system of sewerage, but there was no water for flushing the sewers.

In reply to Mr. Carroll, witness said he was acquainted with the investigations made in 1914, when a sample of the water from the source then suggested was analysed, and the report of the analyst described it as bad. Witness knew Mr. Flynn's land at Dysart, from which it was proposed to obtain the supply. There were surface springs on the land. The 1914 scheme was abandoned as the Dublin Engineer had condemned the proposed source of supply.

In reply to Mr. Farrell, witness said he was not aware that a great number of the village people got their supply from a well on Mr. Flynn's land; they got it from a well on his (witness's) land.

Detailed evidence in support of the scheme was given by Mr. Spreadborough, B.E., Youghal, Engineer to the Board of Health, who stated that the source of the proposed supply was in the townland of Dysart and was about 184 feet over sea level. A bore hole had been sunk on Mr. Flynn's land, on the advice of a water diviner and a test made, something like 700 gallons per hour being obtained. The pumps were unable to exhaust the supply. Late in the year during the dry weather another test was made, and it proved satisfactory. He recommended the Board of Health to continue blasting as an experiment. When the hole was opened up a more adequate supply of water would be obtainable. In addition there was a spring well at a lower level on the land, which would give a supply of about 280 gallons per hour in winter, and in the summer a little over 200 gallons.

Having heard evidence submitted by Mr. Carroll, as to an alternative source of supply at Liskealty, about 4 miles to the east of Ardmore, the Inspector said he would report to the Department. Subsequently, accompanied by Mr. Spreadborough, B.E., he visited Liskealty and inspected the suggested alternative source of supply.

Mr. M. O'Flynn, Secretary, Waterford County Board of Public Health, was in attendance.

ARDMORE WATER SUPPLY.

(To The Editor Dungarvan Observer).

Dear Sir,—A Sworn Inquiry was held at Ardmore on July 4th, several witnesses gave evidence. The object of the Inquiry was to ascertain if the proposed water supply at Dysart was sufficient to supply the wants of the Village of Ardmore. One witness swore that the population was 450 another said 250, and a third 800 to 1,000. Allowing 500 for summer months, Mr. Spreadborough's sworn evidence was that Dysart supply of 800 gallons per hour would give 20 gallons per day to each person of 500 population and besides all this there are three of the biggest houses there that have their own supply, viz.,—Mr. Kelly's, Cliff House, Revd. Mr. Warren's, Grey House and Mr. Dwyer's summer residence, besides the old fountain and pump which is supplying Ardmore at present. St. Declan's College, also has its own supply, taking all together it would give plenty water to a town as big as Lismore and still some of the residents of Ardmore don't think it sufficient for a small village. Now a word about the cost.

The Dysart Scheme would cost £2,000 and the alternative scheme at Liskealty £5,000 at least.

I wonder if the ratepayers of Youghal No. 2 Rural District are prepared to get saddled to the tune of £5,000. Well if so, I don't wonder that the bailiff is busy. I myself strongly protest against such extravagance when poor ratepayers are at their wits end trying to find ways and means to meet their demands, such as the Rates, Annuities, Shopkeepers bills, blacksmiths, Bakers, etc., etc.

If the Ratepayers of Youghal No. 2 Rural District take the extra burden of £5,000 on their shoulders without a murmur, then what sympathy can they expect? None. One Farmer signed and gave evidence that Dysart supply was not sufficient and favoured the costly scheme from Liskealty, even though he was before the Court a month ago for non-payment of his rates. In conclusion, Mr. Editor, I

Sheriffs Auction at Clonmel.

PROTEST MEETING.

SERIOUS PLIGHT OF THE FARMERS.

Forty-nine cattle which were seized from farmers for non-payment of rates were put up for sale by the Sheriff (Mr. J. W. Buggy) at Clonmel pound on Saturday, and were sold in three lots of thirty-five, seven and seven. The first and second lots were purchased by Mr. M. Farrell, Stanley Lodge, Cashel, for £45 1s., and £10 10s., respectively. The third lot was bought by a man who at a previous sale gave his name as O'Neill, and who spoke with a Northern accent, for £17. The total amount realised was £92 11s.

A crowd of farmers and the general public were present and subsequently a protest meeting was held at the Main Guard. Mr. Martin Farrell, who presided, said they had that day perhaps the most glaring case of tyranny seen in the county since the time of Cromwell.

Referring to an appeal of the Hierarchy Mr. Farrell said as a humble Catholic he did not want to dictate to the heads of the Church what they should do, but he would like to say it was the duty of the Bishops to see that there were no serious consequences if the Government did not stop its policy.

Mr. R. Curran, T.D., said they were there to protest against the Government's policy, which was bringing about the ruin of the farming industry. The Government's policy deprived the farmer of his means, and then his last few remaining cattle were seized. The policy of the Government, as it was related to the farmer, was equivalent to taking machinery out of a factory. The situation of the farming community was becoming intolerable, and if young farmers adopted other methods besides constitutional means, which he was largely responsible for preserving up to this, who could blame them? The farmers were being made paupers, and they didn't deserve that from any Government, foreign or native.

Mr. de Valera had done more to bring about the impoverishment of the farmers than ever any Government or Cromwell did. He would like to appeal to all, even to those who differed from them politically, to try and realise the situation as it affected the country as a whole. There was no other section of the community who would stand the consequences forced upon the farmers. The farmers had been most tolerant and patient, and had adopted every argument and persuasive means to try to get the Government and the people to realise the situation, but it was all to no avail. If things took another course, which he would be very sorry to see, he for one could not help it, as the farmers would be fighting for their existence. What would the people in the towns do in the same circumstances—would they not also fight for their existence? That day they had to collect amongst his fellow-farmers money to send back to his home the money by which Tim Ryan might rear his eight or nine children. They heard a lot of talk about Christian and social charity in this country, but it was not applied to the farming community. What would anybody there do if he saw his wife and children hungry? The farmer was driven to that, and the consequences would become very serious if a realisation of the situation was not brought about by the present Government.

It was about time that if Mr. de Valera wanted to continue fighting his economic war, responsibility should be shifted from the shoulders of one section of the community, and let everybody take responsibility. The farmers had a right to live as well as anybody else. They were in absolute destitution, and if they resorted to other constitutional means to bring about an amelioration of their sufferings, who could blame them? Mr. de Valera had once said coercion would never succeed in this country, but now he was trying to adopt it himself. He (Mr. Curran) would re-echo the President's words and tell him that coercion never would succeed and the sooner de Valera and Fianna Fail realised that the better it would be for every section of the community in the country.

Mr. Nicholas Ryan, Maginistown, said that the seizure that day was the most glaring yet. Mr. Ryan, who was the father of a large family, the youngest only a fortnight old, had his few cattle seized and sold that day. He could not find money, but his cattle were going home because Mr. P. Quinn of Kilbraugh had volunteered to collect money amongst his fellow-farmers and hand over a cheque. That money would go towards the support of the relations of a man who was one of the first martyrs for Irish freedom, Con Carew, who was shot down in Dublin fighting to free Ireland.

The tender of the South of Ireland Asphalt Co., £11,512 being the lowest of five, was accepted by North Tipperary Co. Council for the concreting of the road from Thurles to the Sugar Beet Factory.

thank you for giving me valuable space in your Journal, and I trust the Commissioner will move slowly before he will clap £5,000 more on the backs of the unfortunate Ratepayers of Youghal No. 2.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

ANNUITY AND RATES DECREES.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.)

Decrees were granted at the suit of the Irish Land Commission against a number of defaulting annuitants in the adjoining country districts.

Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., (for Mr. D. Casey, State Solr.), for the plaintiffs. The Court resumed the hearing of a large number of adjourned cases against poor rate defaulters.

Mr. J. Condon, Collector, gave evidence of amounts due, etc.

Decrees were granted where there was no appearance for defendants.

In a number of cases defendants appeared personally or by solicitor (Messrs. J. L. Keane and Wm. R. Hodnett) and where they agreed to pay half the amount due within one month decrees were granted with a stay to 15th September.

In the course of his evidence, Mr. Condon stated that the Commissioner stated he would recommend the Land Commission to take up farms in connection with which there were arrears of rates and annuities.

Sergt. Lupton, charged Margaret Fitzgerald, with selling milk 13 per cent. deficient in fat.

Mr. Hodnett, defended. Complainant having given formal evidence and handed in the certificate of analysis.

Mr. Hodnett said that the milk was supplied to his client by Patk. Connery, who would prove that the milk was supplied as it had come from the cow and that all the necessary precautions had been taken.

A number of witnesses having borne out Mr. Hodnett's statement, the case was dismissed.

Griffin v. O'Brien.

This was an examination order by Anne Griffin, by her mother, against John O'Brien, Killeagh Road, Castle-martyr, in connection with an affiliation order for £12 17s. 0d.

Evidence having been given, Mr. Keane said that an additional £7 had accrued since the order was made.

A letter was read from the defendant promising to pay.

Replying to the Court, Mr. Keane said that no statement of means had been handed in.

Evidence as to means was given by Mrs. Griffin and an order was made for the payment of 10/- weekly.

CATCH CROPS.

The Department of Agriculture wish to bring to the notice of farmers the need for making timely provision for the growing of catch crops to supplement the other home-grown feeding-stuffs during the period of comparative scarcity that is usually experienced in the late spring, when the winter reserves of fodder are becoming exhausted and the new season's grass has not advanced in growth sufficiently to afford a reasonable amount of keep for live stock.

If catch crops are to supply the shortage at the critical season, they must be ready for use from, say, the beginning of April onwards, and preparations for their sowing should be made as soon as possible after October. The cereal crops, wheat, oats, and rye, as well as Vetches, Rape, Hardy Green Tops, Cabbages and Italian Rye Grass, are suitable for this purpose. The choice of crop depends to a large extent on the district. In Northern counties, rye, on account of its hardiness, does very well and is usually fit for cutting early in April; and Italian Rye Grass, when sown in time and top-dressed with nitrogenous manure, produces a heavy crop fit for cutting from the middle of April onwards. In the milder climate of the Southern districts either Winter Oats or Wheat mixed with Vetches makes better feeding than Rye, especially in the later stages when the Rye becomes woody. Rapes sown in July for July for Autumn consumption by sheep, if suitably top-dressed and not grazed too closely produces a second cutting in spring.

Farmers who are in doubt as to the most suitable crop to sow should consult the Agricultural Instructor for their County. Copies of Department's leaflet No. 80 dealing with the seeding and cultivation of catch crops may be had free of charge on application to the Secretary, Department of Agriculture, Dublin, C.17.

Dungarvan Council.

ELECTION OF CHAIRMAN

The statutory meeting of the Dungarvan Urban Council was held on Friday last for the election of Chairman and Vice-Chairman. All the newly-elected Council were present, viz.—Messrs. J. Butler, J. J. Crothy, J. Christopher, M. Clancy, P. Quinn, and J. F. Foley (6 P.G.)—Messrs. M. Morrissey, J. Mansfield, M. Connors, J. Dahill, D. Foley (5 P.F.)—Messrs. J. McCarthy, J. Hayes, P. Byrne, and P. O'Dwyer, (4 Lab.)

The Town Clerk (Mr. O'Meara) having read the notice convening the meeting, Mr. John Butler (outgoing Chairman) took the chair.

Mr. Butler said—As this is the first meeting of the newly elected Council I wish to explain that it is the right and duty of the outgoing Chairman to preside at the meeting.

Mr. Dahill—We don't object.

Mr. Butler—I think it is my first duty to welcome each and every member of the newly-elected Council to the Council Chamber, and especially the old members. I hope that all our deliberations and discussions at this Council will be a benefit to the town. I will now take proposals for the Chairmanship.

Mr. Byrne, proposed the election of Mr. James Mansfield.

Mr. Mansfield—I thank you for proposing me, but I cannot accept the position of Chairman. Instead I propose another soldier, Mr. Morrissey, for the chair.

Mr. Dahill—As Mr. Mansfield has refused to become our Chairman, I beg to second the nomination of Mr. Morrissey. There is no necessity to go into details of the merits of the two men who are known to the people all over Munster.

Mr. Byrne then withdrew his proposition.

Mr. Clancy—I have great pleasure in proposing Mr. Butler as Chairman for another year. He has been Chairman of this Council for the past five years and I, as an old member, can safely say he had proved a very worthy Chairman in every respect during that period. Further, I am glad to be in the position to say that the electors had shown their appreciation of his public services by returning him at the head of the poll.

That was not an occasion for speech making, and I do not intend to say very much, I hope whoever will preside over our Municipal Council will do his best to keep politics from interfering with the business of the Council and do all that is possible for every section of the ratepayers—Shopkeepers, Merchants and Workers—and in that case we will all work together in thorough harmony for the town of Dungarvan.

Mr. J. Christopher, seconded.

Mr. Foley, supporting the nomination of Mr. Morrissey for the Chair, said no one deserved the honour better as when there was work to be done for the country, he did it like a soldier and so deserved the Chair.

As there was no further proposition a vote was taken as follows:—

For Mr. Morrissey (P.F.)—Messrs. Byrne (Lab.); Hayes, (Lab.); McCarthy (Lab.); O'Dwyer (Lab.); Dahill (F.F.); Mansfield (F.F.); D. Foley (F.F.); Connors (F.F.); Morrissey (F.F.)—(9).

For Mr. Butler (F.G.)—Messrs. Crothy (F.G.); Christopher (F.G.); Clancy (F.G.); Quinn (F.G.); Butler (F.G.); J. F. Foley (F.G.)—(6).

Mr. Butler declared Mr. Morrissey duly elected Chairman by 9 votes to 6, and in vacating the Chair said his earnest wish was that harmony of the greatest kind will exist in the Council Chamber during the ensuing year.

Mr. Morrissey then took the Chair amid applause and returned thanks to the members for the honour they had done him in electing him to be their Chairman. He was green as to the functions of that Council—or of any Council—but he hoped with the co-operation of his fellow-members and the officials to discharge his duties to the best of his ability. He hoped to give every member a fair crack of the whip. He said the result of the election showed that the people wanted to carry out the policy of the Government, and he hoped they would not be slow at that Council to avail of the housing schemes and the different grants that would be made available by the Government to advance the town in every way—Housing and Sewerage and generally for the benefit of the town. He hoped the new Council would do better than the old one and that they would get every help in doing all that was necessary. It would be a good thing if they could exclude politics from the Council, but they should deal with every situation as it arose.

VICE-CHAIRMAN.

Mr. Dahill, proposed and Mr. Byrne seconded the election of Mr. Thomas McCarthy (Lab.) as Vice-Chairman.

Mr. McCarthy—I would prefer not to take the position at all. I would rather some one else was selected.

There was no other proposal and Mr. McCarthy was declared elected unanimously.

For the appointment of two members of the Council on the Co. Vocational Education Committee, Mr. Dahill, proposed and Mr. Connors seconded that Messrs. J. Mansfield (F.F.) and J. Hayes (Lab.) be appointed.

This was passed unanimously.

Mr. Dahill—As this is our first meeting I wish to say that I did not think I would ever go into public life. I was proposed in 1918 for election on the Sinn Fein ticket, but I refused to go forward. In 1923 there was a vacancy on this Council and I could

Election of Chairman.

YOUGHAL.

The Town Clerk took the Chair and there were present—Messrs. T. K. Keane, solr., P. J. O'Gorman, P.C.; E. Lynch, J. Aherne, R. Savage, J. J. McNamara, M. D. Broderick, J. Daly, D. McCarthy, E. D. Condon, P. Watson, R. C. Farrell, W. J. Broderick, T.D., T. Beausang, M. Cashman, J. Forrest, W. Sullivan, R. Power, and J. R. Smyth, P.C.

Mr. Savage suggested in the interest of the peace and prosperity of the town, that they re-elect the outgoing Chairmen, viz.—Messrs. J. R. Smyth, P.C., and E. P. Lynch.

Mr. Daly seconded Mr. Savage's suggestion.

Mr. W. J. Broderick said he regretted he couldn't agree to the suggestion made by Mr. Savage. He had not the slightest intention of doing hurt to the feelings of anybody, but they had amongst them one who had given heroic application to the business of that Council for the past 22 years—Mr. P. J. O'Gorman, whom he therefore had much pleasure in proposing for the Chair. Mr. O'Gorman could be fully relied on to uphold the honour and dignity of the position, and to follow worthily in the wake of those who had gone before, and who had done their utmost to earn a good name for cleanliness of administration, toleration for all irrespective of politics and a sincere desire to do their best for the ratepayers they represented. He thought the position of Chairman ought to go around every 3 years.

Mr. Power—Some hold on 10 years.

Mr. Smyth (outgoing Chairman), seconded, said that the proposer had left him little to add. After many years' experience of Mr. O'Gorman's conduct in public affairs, he endorsed all that had been said of him.

Mr. Daly—Are you voting against yourself?

Mr. Beausang—Then it is better for Mr. Savage to withdraw his proposition.

Mr. Daly—It is on party lines, and we'll stand up to it.

Mr. Savage said he regretted having to withdraw. It would mean a certain reaction outside that body, not for the good of the ratepayers or the peace of the town.

Mr. Power—If they want a hot time they can have it.

Mr. Beausang proposed Mr. Forrest for the Chair.

Mr. Lynch seconded. He hoped the remarks made about the continuance of office would be put into practice on other Boards.

Mr. Power said whatever they did they would have to be subservient to the Government in power, whether they liked it or not.

A poll was then taken with the following result:—

For O'Gorman—Messrs. Smyth, Condon, O'Gorman, Broderick (2), Watson, Farrell, McCarthy, McNamara, Keane, Aherne and Cashman—(12).

For Forrest—Messrs. Savage, Forrest, Daly, Beausang, Lynch, Power, and Sullivan—(7).

The Clerk declared Mr. O'Gorman duly elected.

Mr. O'Gorman then took the Chair. He thanked them for the honour conferred on him and he was grateful to Mr. Broderick for his kind references. As Chairman he would be strictly impartial. Politics shouldn't enter into their business and it would be his wish and aim to administer the affairs of the Council fairly and to emulate the tradition handed down by his predecessors.

Mr. M. D. Broderick, proposed Mr. Farrell, for the Vice-Chair. He could be relied on to fill the position well and capably when necessary.

Mr. Keane, seconding, said that Mr. Farrell, was eminently suitable for the Vice-Chair, and would fill it without fear or favour, and with advantage to the town.

Mr. Power proposed Mr. Lynch as one who had done his bit for his country, more than any other man in the room. For that reason he asked the Council to elect him.

Mr. Daly seconding, said that for 6 years Mr. Lynch had given every satisfaction to all the members of the Council.

On a poll being taken Mr. Farrell was elected by the same voting.

Mr. Farrell returned his sincere thanks for the honour they had conferred on him, and for the kind remarks made. He hoped that whenever he was called on he would with their co-operation fulfil his obligations with fairness to all.

Mr. Power here left his seat and walked towards the Chairman, before whom he placed a formidable looking baton, which he said was taken from Bluebirds during the disturbance at Cork Hill on Friday night. He said he saw their apology and accepted it, but he asked them to keep that as a memento of their responsibilities.

The Chairman said that judging by Mr. Power's actions and words he was going to be a "stormy petrel" for the coming 12 months.

be elected unanimously at the time, but I refused to go on, but on this occasion when I was called upon on the challenge O'Duffy put up to the people and selected by the Catholic Brugha Cumann, I could not refuse to allow my name to go forward, and I beg to thank all who voted for me. In conclusion, he said he would do his utmost for those who voted for him as also for those who did not give him their votes.

This concluded the business of the statutory meeting.

Mr. Lynch said the remarks about Mr. Power were very unfair.

After some exchanges, The Chairman said there should be an end to the discussion and called for the selection of a Technical Education sub-committee.

Mr. Power said he hoped the Press would act impartially.

The Chairman said he thought the Press had always reported their proceedings impartially.

Mr. Power said that wasn't his experience, but they would help the Press to be impartial.

SUGAR BEET EXPERIMENTS.

The report of the series of manurial and other trials with sugar beet, carried out by the Agricultural Instructors in 1929, 1930 and concluded in 1932, has now been issued by the Department of Agriculture in pamphlet form. In the manurial trials conducted by the Agricultural Instructors during three seasons the application of additional quantities of artificial manures amounting to 25 per cent, and 50 per cent, of the standard dressing (4 cwt. superphosphate (35 per cent.) 4 cwt. kainit (14 per cent.) and 1 cwt. sulphate of ammonia per statute acre) produced in each season a slightly increased yield without appreciably reducing the average sugar content of the roots. Both of these heavier dressings resulted in a slightly profitable increase in the average value of the crop per acre. On the other hand, the substitution of muriate of potash for kainit in the standard dressing had the effect of depressing slightly the sugar content and, to a less extent the yields of roots.

Trials were conducted at the Department's farms and at the Albert Agricultural College during the three seasons, 1930, 1931 and 1932 for the purpose of comparing the results obtained from the different strains of seed belonging to the three principal types of sugar beet seed as distinguished by the yield of roots and the percentage of sugar in them. The results show that the (Z), (N) and (E) strains of the Kleinwanzleben variety were quite distinct as regards both yield and sugar content of roots, and that although the (S.O.), (S.S.) and (S.K.W) strains of the Scriber variety differed somewhat in their yields of roots these strains were similar to each other as regards the percentage of sugar in roots.

The Kuhn (P) variety and two varieties of English grown seed, Marsters (Hilleshog) and Johnson's (Perfection) were also included in these trials. The two varieties of English grown seed were quite satisfactory as regards both yield and sugar content and the Kuhn (P) variety was definitely superior to all other varieties included in these trials as regards percentage of sugar in roots. The Kleinwanzleben (E) variety produced the highest average yield of roots containing the lowest average percentage of sugar. The Kleinwanzleben (N) variety produced the highest average yield of sucrose per acre, but its low average percentage of sugar compared very unfavourably with that of the Kuhn (P) variety which produced a satisfactory yield of roots and sucrose and was comparatively free from "bolters." The two varieties of English grown seed are handicapped by the fact that seed of these varieties is relatively dear and scarce.

During the course of the experiments the following points were noted:—

At the majority of centres where the experiments were conducted the soil was described as medium loam. A comparison of the returns from all centres, according to the description of soil shows that in favourable seasons very satisfactory yields of sugar beet, containing high percentages of sugar, can be obtained on the different types of soils commonly described as light, medium and heavy loams.

Examination of the returns from the variety and manurial experiments with particular reference to the place which the beet crop occupied in the rotation shows that on the average the most satisfactory yields of roots and sugar were obtained from beet grown after a manured crop and after lea corn.

At a majority of centres farmyard manure was applied in the drills immediately before the seed was sown, but the yield was higher on the average at the centres where farmyard manure was ploughed in during winter, and this practice did not adversely affect the average sugar content of the crops at these centres.

Although the dates of sowing, singling and lifting of the beet at the various centres depended on very different circumstances, comparisons of the average returns from all the centres indicate that the period at which these operations were performed and the length of time between these operations had a marked effect on the yield and a slight influence on the sugar content of the beet.

The best average yield was obtained from the plots sown in April and the average yield from the plots sown during the first week of May was better than that from plots sown after 7th May. The average yield was much the best in the case of those crops, which were singled moderately early. Those crops which were harvested when the period of growth had exceeded 200 days produced a much heavier average yield of roots than was obtained from the crops harvested within a lesser period.

From the results obtained, it is evident that when other conditions are favourable the maximum returns as regards yield and sugar content are most likely to be obtained where the crop is sown early in the season under such conditions that the seed ger-

HURLING CHAMPIONSHIPS.

LIMERICK TO MEET WATERFORD

At Thurles on Sunday, in scorching weather and before a record attendance drawn from all parts of Leinster and Munster, the Semi-Final of the Munster Hurling Championship was played between Cork and Limerick, and was won in convincing style by the Limerick men who now meet Waterford in the final.

At the same venue Tipperary beat Clare in the Minor Hurling Championship.

THE SENIOR TUSSLE.

The grounds were filled to overflowing when Cork and Limerick lined out in the momentous issue of the senior hurling semi-final. The attendance, which was a record for a Munster competition, was estimated at close on 30,000. The respective rivals took the field to the music of the Boherbee Brass and Reed and the Cork Volunteer Pipers Bands. His Grace Most Rev. Dr. Harty, who was accompanied by the Chairmen of the Leinster and Munster Councils, Messrs. R. O'Keefe and W. P. Clifford, and P. O'Keefe, Central Secretary, advanced to the line out. His Grace having placed the ball in position, play opened fast and furious with Cork winning the toss. In a few minutes Cork's followers received a shock when O'Connell (Limerick) raising a fast ball far out, sent it all the way to the net. Still on the offensive, Limerick looked dangerous and but for Garrett, a like score did not look improbable. J. Mackey figured in the next challenge, but was stopped by Quirke, and Southern supporters shouted, "Come on, Cork." A free to Limerick was checked at a crucial stage, and Cork received a like award, but Clohessy, Kennedy and Howard were too clever for the opposing forwards. Following a lengthy shot from Garrett (Cork) the forward line got moving, but a penalty destroyed the advantage and Limerick broke away to be beaten by an exceptionally fine defence. Attacking again from the centre-field, where M. O'Connell was partnered by Lee, and was doing splendidly, his namesake from Limerick picked up a loose ball, placing a second goal to the Shannon side's account.

The fast pace at which the game was begun showed no slackening on either side and the tension of the spectators had grown more pronounced. John Barry (Cork) was now giving a display of his sprinting power and when in possession it was not easy to dispossess him. With P. Collins he participated in some effective saving operations. The delight of the Cork crowd came with Brennan beating Scanlan for an appealing goal. Pressing on the Limerick net again Cork had all but repeated the feat. A free taken by Clohessy was a close shave for a register. Cork had the better of the next exchange and ought to have put on something to their score. A nice ball from M. O'Connell was supported by D. B. Murphy, a useful worker on the Cork side, and a minor flag was raised. Cork were now exciting their worthy rivals in all sections of the game. J. O'Regan burst up a number of attacks on the Cork back line with Garrett assisting, and Lee was a good partner to O'Connell. Cross (Limerick) had more than a handful in D. B. Murphy. A seventy to Cork saw Garrett point the whole distance, after which Mackey covered ground along the wing, but missed the finishing touch. After some minutes interval T. Ryan took a pass from Mackey and put up the minor flag. Kenneally having missed the objective Clohessy cleared Limerick's lines and T. Ryan placed over the bar just before the short whistle, when Limerick led by a goal, the score being 2 goals 2 points to 1 goal 2 points.

This period of the match was started with a lead of three points to Limerick. The spectators had encroached on the side line and it was with no small difficulty this part of the field was cleared. This appeared to be the only weak spot in the arrangements. In the preliminary encounters John Mackey was knocked out, but he recovered quickly and the play continued with a free to Limerick which was entrusted to Clohessy, who put the chance to the best use. The ball was dead on to the Cork net, but the likely score was splendidly averted by Jim O'Regan. Fierce clashing in the leading departments of the game now became the order with Cork's forwards hammering at their rivals' net. Scanlan saved at the cost of seventy which did not prove helpful to Cork's interests. Cogan and M. O'Connell rallied Cork's forces. Quirke and J. Barrett co-operated with effect, but the opening was not improved upon. Cregan, Cross and Ryan were getting through a lot of hard fencing, with D. B. Murphy, offering opposition. T. Ryan temporarily put out of action on resuming the Limerick net was in jeopardy from a series of determined assaults which wound up in Brennan netting from Clancy. At this stage honours were evenly divided and on their performances Cork's prospects were looking the best, John Barrett and Cogan occupying prominent places in the tussles. A strong offensive was raised by Limerick following a clearance. It was beaten off and Limerick's territory came into possession of Cork. During some exciting moments Cork were all out for a score but T. McCarthy, Kennedy and Cross preserved their line intact and the ground gained was soon lost. J. Barrett and John Barry having cleared a big rush on the Cork quarters, Cross returned for J. Close to shoot wide.

DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

TROUBLE AT GARRYDUFF.

Held on Wednesday before Mr. J. S. Troy, D.J.

Mrs. Mary O'Meara, Garryduff, summoned her husband, Mr. Denis O'Meara, Garryduff, for abusive and threatening language.

Complainant said that on Sunday 24th, June, it was her turn and she stayed at home from Mass. She had the door locked while she was milking the cows and feeding the calves. She came in about 8.30 o'clock and some time after defendant came in. She thought to put him out, but he would not go. He then took 4 loaves of the kitchen table and went out. On another day he also took 4 loaves of bread. The day before she had the door locked and her sister was in the field minding the cattle. Witness went to let her sister to her dinner, and later returning she found the defendant had his two pockets filled with eggs, also 4 loaves and half a cake. She also found a pound of tea and a stone of sugar was missing. Defendant also abused her.

Mr. Troy—What did he say to you? Complainant—He threatened me with the pot-hangers and said he would knock me down.

Defendant—I was a bit hungry and I came in as she often gave me food. Complainant—He has 10/- a week and constant work.

Defendant—I have not. Complainant—Why didn't you take the tackling off Mrs. Butler's horse when you were told?

Mr. Troy—Have you been giving him food all along? Complainant said she was not.

Mr. Troy—Is it that he comes in and takes it? Complainant—Yes. In April 1931, your Worship gave him 6 months hard labour if he came to my house any more. I told him I would summon him and put him to jail. We lost two calves on account of him.

Mr. Troy—If the weather changed, you would blame your husband for it. Defendant—I will keep away from the place.

Mr. Troy—For how long?—Defendant—Always.

Mr. Troy—That is a long time. Complainant—Keep him away from me. I have the door always locked.

Mr. Troy said he did not want to send O'Meara to jail and so he would let the case stand adjourned for three months, and if there was any complaint in the meantime he would deal with it then.

MOTOR PROSECUTION.

Sergt. MacGearailt, summoned Thomas Galvin, for riding a motor cycle which had no tax, no insurance and no driver's license.

The defendant produced in Court the driver's license and road tax and the case was adjourned to enable him to get the machine insured.

APPLICATION.

On the application of Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., Wholesale Beer Dealers Licenses were granted to Mrs. M. Whelan, O'Connell street, and Messrs. R. A. RING COLLEGE AND DISTRICT CROWDED.

There are 130 nuns at Ring Irish College, for July session. About 300 lay students are staying in houses in the district.

P. Collins (Cork) was outstanding in the next phase of the play, the clash ending in a wide and Garrett stopped Limerick who were given a free. Clohessy's effort went all the way to pass over the line. Collins (Cork) sent on a long delivery but it was well held by the opposition. A nice ball from Quirke was taken by Brennan, whose scoring effort was not productive. After an over at the Limerick end by Clancy, Limerick moved up, but could not penetrate the defence and thrilling play was witnessed around the Limerick stronghold. For almost twenty minutes gruelling performances neither side could force a score in a very sensational game.

At this stage Howard (Limerick) had to retire with an injured leg. The play was resumed with a goal by O'Connell (Limerick) and quick points by Mackey and J. Roche of the same side. It was a very remarkable development in the game and was accomplished inside a minute or two of the full whistle, when Limerick ran out winners by 3 goals 4 points to Cork's 2 goals 2 points.
Dr. T. Daly, Clare, was the referee.

Cappoquin Children's Excursion.

GREAT DAY AT YOUGHAL.

Between 350 and 400 Schoolchildren from the Cappoquin District—including Camphire and Tourin, Melleray, Cappoquin Convent, Cappoquin Boys and the Industrial Schools had an ideal outing at the seaside on Friday. What it meant to the kiddies may be gauged by the fact that out of 120 from the country schools, over 100 had never seen the sea before.

The grand idea emanated from the Young Men's Society, under the inspiring guidance of the Rev. Fr. Rea, C.C., and throwing themselves into the good work, in one short week, they made a thoroughly unqualified success of the event.

Preceded by the Committee, a half-dozen fully laden buses and a dozen cars—some of the latter doing a double journey—started from the C.Y.M.S. Hall. After a pleasant drive along the beautiful Blackwater they reached Youghal at 1 o'clock, passing through waving and cheering and making straight for the beach, all the auspices at their best for the occasion. A calm sea round about high water, a brilliant sun and a delightful sea breeze from S.E. contributed to a perfect day. Having spent a short time enjoying the amenities of Claycastle and the Strand, they all climbed the cliffs and foregathered in different sections for tea and refreshments, rounded off by a welcome supply of fruit, kindly supplied by the good people of Cappoquin.

Thus fortified, they again made for the beach, where 12 hours were joyfully spent in sports of various kinds. Back then to their buses and cars, they were conveyed to Hurst's Picture Palace, where they were treated to a Picture Show. At the conclusion they were again taken to the Strand, where another tea was done justice to with the appetite developed by that strange something in the seaside air.

With refreshed youthful vigour they then rushed to Field's Sports, where they had a couple of jolly hours on the "hobby horses," etc.

With their fill of that, they returned once more to the beach where a fine low tide gave them safe and ample room to disport themselves to their hearts' content.

At 9.30 they all boarded their buses and cars again and left for home in the best of trim and good humour and without the slightest hitch or untoward event during the whole of a glorious day's outing.

From start to finish Fr. Rea, was in constant watch, ably assisted by Messrs. M. J. Sargent, Vice-President; J. Crowe, P. Cahill, Treas., R. Colender President; J. Olden, J. Conway, P. Walsh, etc.

The Ladies' Committee assisted by the teachers of the various schools—including Mrs. P. Walsh, Mrs. Crowe, Mrs. R. Colender, Mrs. P. Colender, Miss Fraher, Mrs. Conway, Nurse Lync, Mrs. Olden, etc.—travelled with the children in the buses and cars and saw personally to their safety and their wants throughout the day.
