WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

Commissioner Moynihan, attended at the Boardroom, Co. Home, Dungarvan, on Wednesday last to transact the business of the Board of Health.

BALLINAMUCK COTTAGE

Mr. Mansfield, Fair Lane, Dungarvan, appeared before the Commissioner in connection with his application for the tenancy of a vacant cottage at Ballinamuck, Dungarvan.

Replying to the Commissioner, applicant said he was at present living in a house where there is only a kitchen on the ground floor and a loft overhead. He works for Mr. O'Donnell, Youghal Road, for 12/- a week and has an army pension of 25/- a week. He lived in a cottage under the Board before at Grange, but had to leave it by the order of the doctor, as one of his girls was getting delicate owing to the dampness of the house. There was no rent due when he left the cottage.

Commissioner—I will adjourn the application until I can look at this house the applicant is living in at present.

TRAMORE CEMETERY.

In connection with the purchase by the Board of two acres of land at Tramore as a site for a new cemetery.

Mr. Jephson, Engineer, said the price of £240 for the two acres was fixed by arbitration.

Commissioner—I would like to know what the total cost will be?

Secretary—Solicitors' fees will be roughly £200. They are at present being taxed. It was most complicated there being six or seven owners involved.

Mr. Jephson, produced a map of the field, showing the divisions of the various plots.

It was decided to obtain a loan when the total expenditure required is ascertained.

KILMAGTHOMAS WATER SUPPLY

Mr. Jephson's estimate for the erection of an electric pumping plant to drive the water to the high levels of the town was £1,043.

Replying to the Commissioner, Mr. Jephson said there is no shortage at present. The plant would not be required for some months each year.

Commissioner—What would the running cost be?

Mr. Jephson—Very small. In Dunmore, where it is working, the cost is only £2 to £3 a month. It is undoubtedly a sound scheme and cannot be improved on.

Commissioner—The initial cost is very high. I will adjourn consideration for the present as there is no immediate urgency about it now.

Mr. Jephson was directed to ascertain what compensation Messrs. J. Walsh, and J. Drohan, would expect in the event of the scheme materialising.

DUNMORE PUBLIC HEALTH COMMITTEE.

A letter read from the above Committee informing the Board that they had suspended the Secretary of the committee for gross contempt and asking the Board to confirm the suspension.

The Secretary explained that the matter arose out of an extended holiday by the Secretary of the Committee during which he made his own arrangements with the acting secretary. The Commissioner decided to have an explanation from the Secretary.

TALLOW SEWERAGE.

A deputation consisting of Rev. Fr. Corbett, Dr. O'Mahony and Mr. O'Leary, N.T., appeared before the meeting in connection with the lack of a sewer at Chapel Street, Tallow.

After hearing the deputation, who explained that there is not one flush closet in the street and that the school with a roll of 120 to 130 is also depending on a dry closet, the Commissioner said he could do nothing until he had a report from the Engineer.

COTTAGE REPAIRS.

The Commissioner asked Mr. Jephson to inspect the cottages occupied by John Hickey, Kilbrack, John Gough, Ballycurrane, and James Lonergan, Clondonnell.

With regard to Hickey and Gough, the Commissioner said they informed him that they got a solicitor to write to the Board over a year ago, but nothing was done since.

COTTAGE RENT ARREARS.

Arising out of the report of the Cottage Rent Checker, which showed a reduction of the arrears by all the collectors with the exception of Mr. J. Broderick, Clashmore area.

The Commissioner requested the Secretary to write to Mr. Broderick for an explanation.

DEMAND FOR HOUSES.

Five applicants sought the tenancy of one of the new houses erected by the Board in Tramore. After going into the circumstances

DUNGARVAN DISTRICT COURT.

In the adjourned case of Mrs. O'Meara, Garryduff, v. Denis O'Meara. The Justice asked—Has he been troubling you since?—Mrs. O'Meara—No.

Justice—Then I will let the case stand to the next day.
In the case of Mrs. Moylan v. John Kiely, Mr. Farrell, for the defendant, said his client was working and if he came to court he would lose his job. Case adjourned.

In the School Attendance cases brought by Guard Regan, the Justice imposed a fine of 1/- on Patk. Hayes, Nicholas Street; Ml. Tobin, Strand St., 5/-; John Wall Kilmurray, 2/-; and John Daly, Clonea, 3/-.
Guard Rafferty v. G. Hore, Ballyduff, no light, 1/-; Guard Parke, v. W. Cotter, Lackendarra, no light, 3/-; Same v. Patk. O'Neill, Leamybrien, 2/-; Same v. Patk. Moloney, Butlers-town, 1/-.

A few other cases were adjourned as was also that of Supt. Walsh, v. Liam Hayes, Ballinacourty, for whom Mr. Farrell, solr., appeared.

CATTLE PRICES

MINISTER'S ORDERS UNDER RECENT ACT.

FREE BEEF SUPPLIES.

Under the Slaughter of Cattle and Sheep Act, the Minister for Agriculture has power by order to fix the minimum prices at which different grades of cattle may be bought for slaughter for home consumption. It is the intention of the Minister to fix the minimum price for fat heifers and bullocks over six months old at 25/- per cwt. live weight as from the 31st Oct.

The Minister has power under Part 6 of the Slaughter of Cattle and Sheep Act to make an order prohibiting the export of fat cattle, and of issuing export licences to which such conditions as he may specify may be attached. Before issuing British fat cattle import licences for November, the Minister proposes to ask exporters to give an undertaking that they will pay for heifers and bullocks prices for export not less than the minimum price fixed for cattle bought for slaughter for home consumption.

Arrangements are being made for bringing into force early in November that part of the Act dealing with the free supply of beef to persons in receipt of unemployment assistance, or of outdoor relief or home assistance. Advertisements have already appeared inviting tenders for the supply of beef for this purpose.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES DUNNE.

Mr. James Dunne, formerly of Leamybrien, died at the Central Hospital, Kilkenny, aged 51 years. Deceased, who was a brother of Mr. Tom Dunne, Limerick, and Mrs. J. Tobin, Leamybrien, worked for several years past with Mr. Philip O'Dwyer, Kilkenny, an extensive practical farmer, and a prominent Irish-Irelander. Hosts of mourners were present at the burial in Fews Catholic Churchyard. Fr. Kehoe, P.P., Kilrossanty, officiated at the graveside, assisted by Fr. Harty, C.C., Fews.—R.I.P.

of all the applicants, Richard Riordan was appointed tenant.

BALLYMACMAGUE COTTAGE.

The following applied for the tenancy of this cottage:—Declan McGrath, John Tobin, John Cowman, Ml. Lyons, Patk. Keohan and P. Mansfield.

Commissioner—It is obvious that Tobin with a family of seven children is the most deserving case, so I will let the cottage to him.

BALLYNEALE COTTAGE.

This cottage was let to Mce. Keane. Other applicants were—Thos. Dee, and Robert Weldon.

CURRAGHA'ESKIN COTTAGE.

The following applied for this cottage:—Thos. Ormonde, Jas. Ducey, Philip Ormonde, Patk. Kelly. The cottage was let to Thomas Ormonde.

BALLINTLEA COTTAGE.

John Grady was the only applicant for this cottage.

Replying to the Commissioner he said he was single and lived with his brother, but intended to get married.

Commissioner—Have you your eye on anyone?
O'Grady—Well, yes.
Commissioner—You are the only applicant. I hope we will now hear of an early wedding.

COOLAHEST COTTAGE.

This cottage was let to Michael Cotter.

Seized Cattle Sale at Dungarvan.

PROTEST AGAINST CHIEF SUPERINTENDENT'S ATTITUDE.

At the Dungarvan Pound on Tuesday, Mr. English, Assistant in the County Registrar's Office, put up for sale seven two-year-old, polly cattle and one cow taken from the lands of James Halley, Islandtarsney, Fenon, in respect of arrears of Land Annuities amounting to £22 3s. 9d.

A force of about fifty Civic Guards under Chief Superintendent Hallahan, Waterford, and Superintendent Walsh, Dungarvan, were present and held the approaches to the Pound by forming two cordons on the Quay.

Bidding was opened by a "Mr. O'Neill" at £23.

Mr. Farrell, Stanley Lodge, Cashel, (on behalf of the owner) bid £23 4s., and was declared the purchaser.

Mr. English next proceeded to dispose of 3 cows and seven weanlings, the property of Mrs. Mary Gough, Ballygarron, Fenon.

The amount of the debt and costs in this case being £25 2s. 6d.

Mr. Farrell said it was hardly fair to the owner to put up the cattle in one lot. The calves should be put up separate from the cows.

Mr. English—I am bound by definite instructions to put them up in one lot.

Mr. Farrell—In Clonmel and other places when cattle were put up you acceded to owners requests.

Mr. English—Yes. I am sorry, but I am now bound by definite instructions.

Mr. Farrell—I appeal to you it is only a reasonable request. Give the owner a chance to buy what he can.

Supt. Hallahan—Put up the cattle (and addressing Mr. Farrell)—you must conduct yourself or get out.

Mr. Farrell—I already did conduct myself as any sale I attended. In any case this place is in charge of the Sheriff.

Superintendent—You will be in charge if you don't conduct yourself.

The cattle were then put up and the bidding was opened by "O'Neill" at £42.

Mr. Farrell bidding £12 1s. was declared the purchaser.

Mr. Farrell—I would like to say here and now, that although I attended many such sales, I never said anything that either a Sheriff or a Superintendent could take exception to and I think it is not fair that crack of the whip I got from the limb of the law now. I never said anything at these sales although I often got great provocation.

At a protest meeting held after the sale Mr. Halley was moved to the chair. Returning thanks, Mr. Halley said the meeting could not expect a speech from him as he did not feel equal to speech-making just then, but he would call on their friend Mr. Farrell to make a little speech on the nature of their business here to-day.

Mr. Farrell said he thought it was his duty as a supporter of the farmers of the Co. Tipperary, of Waterford and of the Free State to come here to-day to help to protest against the absolutely unjust seizure of their cattle.

The sale that has taken place here to-day is for a debt that is paid three, four or five times over. Who are those people whose cattle were sold to-day, I do not know them personally, but I know that they are people who always paid their just debts, but now the time has come when they are unable to pay. I call the sale to-day nothing less than common robbery. We are not against the Government or just laws.

He had attended sales in Tipperary, Waterford, Limerick and Cork and he had never heard an officer of the Garda Siochana tell the Sheriff to get on with the sale, and he hoped he never would hear it again. They were not out to break the law and never would as long as it had a semblance of justice, and there was no need for that man to threaten to put me out of the Pound. According to the papers to-day we are now faced with the terrors of a fully armed mobile force. This force are already acting in Westmeath and when finished there are to come to Waterford. The new force holds no terrors for the farmers of the Free State. We are not out to hinder the Government. We will support them as long as their laws are just, but we will protest against unjust laws. It may not be in a year or in a generation, but in the end justice will prevail.

Continuing, Mr. Farrell said he would appeal to the farmers as the men who carried on the main industry of the country, who fought Cromwell—who fought the battering ram and who fought the Black and Tans to stand together now and in the future.

Chairman—I agree with the remarks of Mr. Farrell, and I beg to thank him on behalf of the County Waterford farmers for his able address and support in their fight.

Mr. Farrell said he did not need any vote of thanks. He had nothing to live

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

CAPPAGH FOOT HARRIERS.

A grand dance will be held in the New Hall, Cappagh, on Sunday night 14th inst., in aid of the funds of the Cappagh Foot Harriers Club, which was established last season, and which provided some rare sport during the winter months. The Committee of the Cappagh Club wish to thank the Committee and members of the Dromore Harriers Club for the great assistance and co-operation rendered by them last year during the first season of the former Club, we understand that both Clubs again intend to work in unison this season.

The Cappagh sportsmen had to incur very heavy expense in the purchasing of the necessary dogs last year while their upkeep during the "close season" has also added to their liabilities, and Sunday night's dance is being held for the purpose of helping to raise the necessary funds to keep the Club going in real active fashion during the coming season.

Apart altogether from the worthy and sporting object of the event, this dance deserves to be warmly supported for its intrinsic merits alone, as splendid music will be supplied by two high-class orchestras, and with all the arrangements in the capable hands of a representative local Committee, headed by Mr. M. J. O'Connor, everything will be found in tip-top order.

A MONSTER PUMPKIN.

A monster Pumpkin, which belongs to the vegetable marrow variety, has been grown in the garden of Mr. S. J. Power, Afane House, Cappoquin.

It weighs 72 lbs., and considering that the average weight of Pumpkins is between 30 and 40 lbs., the splendid specimen in question should almost create a record.

It was on view at the Harvest Thanksgiving Service in St. Anne's Cappoquin, on Sunday week, and was an object of great attention and admiration on the part of the large congregation present.

Mr. S. J. Power, has been a most successful exhibitor of fruit, plants and vegetables at several southern Shows for years.

GRAND DANCE AT DROMANA.

Under the auspices of the "Cork Aero Club, Ltd.," a grand dance will be held in Dromana House on Friday night, 26th inst., by kind permission of Mr. Ion Villiers Stuart, M.F.H., and Mrs. Stuart.

Music will be provided by Miss Billie Foley's celebrated Band, and the dance promises to be the most brilliant and enjoyable social event held in West Waterford within recent years.

Further details will appear next week.

MINOR FOOTBALL.

The Blackwater Rovers Minor Football team travelled to Fermoy on last Sunday to play a friendly match with the home team in the Fermoy Athletic grounds.

Cappoquin had to travel without the services of at least six of their most prominent players, including James Ryan and Hugh Barron, but despite this serious handicap, they played a great game, and were only beaten by 2 goals 2 points to 1 goal 1 point.

SYMPATHY.

General sympathy is tendered to Miss Fairholme, Comeragh House, Kilmacthomas, in her bereavement, occasioned by the death of her sister, Miss K. Fairholme, Dublin, whose remains were laid to rest in the family vault at Comeragh, cemetery on Sunday evening last, in the presence of immediate relatives and friends. The Rev. Dean Stanley, Kilrossanty, read the burial service.

out of but the land, and he can see the time coming when he won't be able to carry on. They may bring a mobile force against us, but the men who met the battering ram, will not quail, and justice will prevail in the end. He thought he said they should not close this meeting without passing a resolution of protest against the action of the Superintendent in the Pound to-day.

The following resolution was then proposed by Mr. Halley, seconded by Mr. Gough and passed unanimously:—"That we, the farmers of County Waterford, protest in the strongest possible manner against the undue interference of a Superintendent at the cattle sale to-day, against our God-given and law-abiding rights. We have never in the past known anything of that kind, and we sincerely hope that it is not a prelude to similar action by the Gardaí. We protest against such action on the part of the aforesaid Superintendent and sincerely hope that the Government will take such action as will insure that it will not occur again."

KILMAGTHOMAS NEWS.

THE MISSION.

The Mission rules the hour. The spirit of the Mission is abroad. The light of the Mission is on the face; its grace in the heart, and its word like honey on the tongue. The Very Rev. Fathers Coyle and Curran, of the Redemptorist Order, have established themselves in the life of the people—already are they like old friends and like Fr. Collier, Fr. Fox, Fr. Cassin, Fr. McDonald, Fr. Jones, Fr. Russell and other great Missionary Fathers of the past, they will live in the hearts of the people even into the far future. So far the weather has been anything but propitious but, in spite of that the congregations are record ones and from morn till night the kindly and gentle and patient Fathers deal with our human frailties in the confessional. The good priests of Newtown Ahearne, C.C., and Rev. J. Hally, C.C.—must needs be well pleased with the splendid response of the parishioners to the call of the Retreat. One reflects with a throb of pride how safe is the soul of Eire amid all the turmoils and new-fangled movements of an age when Society seems in the crucible.

"Never forgetful silence fall on thee, Nor younger voices overtake thee; Nor echoes from thine ancient hills forsakes thee! Old Banba of the sea!"

The Mission will be brought to a close in the parish church, Newtown, on to-morrow (Sunday) night, by Fr. Coyle, and Fr. Curran will open the second week of the Retreat in Kill church on to-morrow morning.

EDIFYING SPECTACLE.

An edifying manifestation of Faith and devotion to Mother Church was given by the faithful of Kilrossanty-parish on last Sunday afternoon, when the entire available population thereof performed the Jubilee devotions in public. Led by the parish clergy, a grand procession was formed at St. Brigid's Parish Church at one o'clock p.m., and to the number of several hundreds, of both sexes and of all ages—from seven to eighty and even over—proceeded four deep to Fews Catholic Church, a distance of approximately 5 1/2 miles. Along the route, the Rosary was recited and sacred hymns sung by the choir. The processionists bore blessed banners and other religious emblems. At the conclusion of the Jubilee visits, Benediction of the Most Sacred Sacrament was imparted by Rev. Fr. Harty, C.C., while the Very Rev. Fr. Kehoe, P.P., expressed himself as highly pleased and proud of the manner in which the people had fulfilled the Jubilee obligations.

DEATH OF MISS A. GRIFFIN.

Miss Alice Griffin, Millbrook Terrace, Kilmacthomas, died on Thursday last week, after a protracted illness and at the early age of 23 years. A highly-talented girl, her gentle disposition endeared her to all who came in contact with her, and she won the affection of young and old. Fortified by the rites of Mother Church, her death was peaceful and happy. She was the youngest surviving daughter of the late Laurence Griffin, postman. Deep sympathy goes out to her mother, brother (Jack), and sister (Bridie) in their bereavement. The remains were removed to the Convent Church on Friday evening; the accompanying cortege was of imposing dimensions, and was headed by the Very Rev. M. Dowley, P.P., Ballyduff Upper, and the Rev. T. Ahearne, C.C. Kill, who recited the prayers for the dead on arrival at the church. After Masses of Requiem for her soul on Saturday, the funeral took place to Newtown cemetery, whereat interment was made in the presence of innumerable relatives and sympathisers and amid many manifestations of profound sorrow. May she rest in peace.—(American papers please copy)

OVERHEARD IN KILMAC.

Once upon a time (and a very good time it was!) a commercial traveller called upon a certain grocer, who is still "to the good," happily, and these two had only time to shake hands when a poor woman entered the shop and asked the grocer (a young and active man, by the way) for a copper. The grocer, wishing to play a joke on his friend, told the woman to "ask the boss," at the same time pointing to the traveller. The woman did so; but the traveller was smarter than the shopkeeper, although this gentleman thought he was smart; and so the traveller, turning to the shopkeeper, said to him: "Here, boy! give this poor woman sixpence out of the till." The grocer, of course, had to "fork out" for, "cough up," if you will; but never-the-less, he did enjoy the joke although it cost himself a "tanner."

BREVITIES.

A Beggars' Union on the Continent has declared a strike. The form of the strike has not been disclosed. If it is a refusal to solicit alms we cannot see that the general public will be inconvenienced or upset. If the mendicants of the Decies decided upon a policy of abstention there would be much rejoicing in the domestic devocals—sez you!

A Portlairge motorist writes to tell us of "just the queerest coincidence." He bought a new car, and, would you believe it, the number is the same as that of his telephone! Easy to remember, certainly.

A comely Comeragh Valley colleen who sailed a few days ago to take up a position in America was sent an original and happily expressed card by a Garranbane-side gorson, wishing her "bon voyage." It was in the form of a "tie on" label, over which was written:—

"I'd like to be a baggage tag
With nothing else to do,
But dangle from a steamer trunk
And tag along with you!"

With the mornings growing steadily colder, darker, gloomier, the struggle to turn out at alarm clock reveille becomes more excruciating, difficult and risky as to the issue: the issue is between Morpheus and the mat at the side of your bed; once on the mat you have given the K.O. to the drowsy god. The toil of rising in the morning puts a greater strain on some people's nerves and heart and sinews than their entire day's work, though it be lifting pianos, milking cows or goats, cleaning other people's windows, dictating to the typist or typing the guff dictated. Science has done a good deal to smooth the ways of life for human beings. Why can't it invent a pill, say, to promote prompt and painless rising in the morning in hail, rain or snow? For the present we of and not of Kilmacthomas can only join in the chorus with Harry Lauder:—

"Oh, it's nice to get up in the mornin',
But it's nicer to lie in your bed."

IN MEMORIAM.

REV. BENEDICT O'KEEFFE,
O.CIST., MOUNT MELLERAY.

(1856—1934).

The late Fr. Benedict was a born gentleman; a real Christian in every sense of the word, and a great and lovable priest and teacher. He possessed some indefinable but endearing mannerism in the rostrum that gripped your attention immediately and held it without wavering until he uttered his very last word. His demour exuded sincerity, and his simple eloquence carried more conviction than floods of stylish rhetoric. The virtue of humility he harboured in a high degree, and his sacred calling was stamped on his every word and act. He was a living symbol of the power of meekness. To know him personally was to love him. To hold converse with him once was to resolve that you must meet him often. He was one of the beautiful characters that the world never knows. His pupils idolised him, and he was a striking instance of the invincible power of simple, unassuming charm. A native of Glengolsh, Co. Tipperary, he proved himself all through his grand career of eight and seventy years a worthy son of song-and-story famed "Knocknagow." May his soul find everlasting peace in the Mansions of the Blest—"Eternity's Harvest Home" and may God love him; for, unknown to the unheeding world, such holy men are standing between itself and destruction.

When 'yond the crown of Knockmealdown
The sunlight fades away,
And twilight moves thro' Mell'ray groves—
Kind friends will for him pray.
—(G.C.K.)

RELIGIOUS PROFESSION AT FERMOY.

On 24 th September, the Solemn Profession took place at the Loretto Convent, Fermoy, of Miss Maureen Harkham (in religion Sister M. Carmel) daughter of Mr. W. F. and the late Mrs. Harkham, Emmet Ville, Youghal. The ceremony was performed by His Lordship, Most Reverend Dr. Roche, coadjutor, Bishop of Cloyne. After the ceremony the clergy present and the relatives and friends of the newly professed, were hospitably entertained by the Mother Superior and Community.

A LUCKY ESCAPE.

When a motor car skidded at the Mitchel Street—Youghal Road turn, Dungarvan, last Friday, it swerved to the left and stuck between the wall and an electric light post. The car was badly damaged, but the occupants of the car escaped with a good shaking.

FINE GAEL.

LEADERS' ADDRESSES.

GEN. O'DUFFY'S RESIGNATION CATTLE SEIZURES

Fine Gael leaders were enthusiastically received at a big meeting in the Dublin Mansion House on Tuesday.

General Mulcahy, T.D., who was attired in a blue shirt, presided.

Mr. Cosgrave said the nation was in urgent need of sanity and sincerity in public affairs—national and international. He went on to refer to the Fine Gael merger. Gen. O'Duffy had been made the leader and custodian of that merger. He was the symbol of the new hopes, ideals, and aspirations of the new party, and as such he had got during the last year more loyal, faithful and useful service than any leader of a party in this country ever got.

The tragedy was that he confused his symbolic with his own personality.

"The resignation of Gen. O'Duffy came as a surprise, if not as a shock, to our supporters," proceeded Mr. Cosgrave. "It was a surprise to his colleagues, the vice-presidents of the Party. During the weeks preceding his resignation conferences had taken place between Gen. O'Duffy and the available vice-presidents—Comdt. Cronin, Mr. Dillon, and myself. During these conferences Gen. O'Duffy gave no hint to us of his intention of resigning, or that he had any reason to adopt such a course. Nor was there any reason disclosed to us why he should adopt such a course."

He (Mr. Cosgrave) had learned that he had during the preceding weeks discussed the question of his resignation with leading members of the League of Youth. They had told him (Mr. Cosgrave) that they had used all their persuasive powers to prevent Gen. O'Duffy from doing so, and that they understood that he would not do so.

"He now states that he resigned because of fundamental differences in policy. If such differences did exist (and we were unaware of this) his proper course to have adopted would have been to have made his colleagues acquainted with this."

Gen. O'Duffy had hinted at differences on National policy and Fine Gael policy to the North. "It is not sufficient," declared Mr. Cosgrave, "to say that our policy is now what it was at all times since the National Congress of our Party approved our policy. That policy stands on the historic conception of an independent and undivided Ireland, the traditional aim and ideal of Irish nationalism. Enjoying, as we do in our present status, the full reality of independence, we realise that a frank recognition of the status, and in the fostering of friendly feelings between the North and the South, in the making of our State attractive, stable and prosperous, lie the surest hope of ultimate reunion."

He summarised briefly Fine Gael policy as follows:—

The voluntary reunion of all Ireland in a single independent State.

An advantageous settlement of the financial dispute and a trade treaty to secure most favourable terms for Irish produce.

Unconditional opposition to Communism.

The reform of Local Government. The inauguration of a corporate system based upon the principles enunciated by the Holy See in "Quadragesimo Anno," adapted to Irish conditions and operating with the full consent of all concerned.

Encouragement of Irish industry by every efficient means. Retention and imposition of tariffs justified by social economic or cultural results. Elimination of arbitrary ministerial powers to admit goods under licence.

Recognition that the agricultural industry is fundamental, and that constant attention must be paid to agricultural organisation and marketing.

Establishment of a Ministry of Housing.

Construction loan for agricultural purposes: restocking of farms, purchase of agricultural machinery—loans to be made available at 3 p.c.

Encouragement of tillage and consumption of home-grown produce on the farm.

Reduction of the burden of taxation when the financial position allows it.

Encouragement of thrift, energy, and enterprise constructively applied.

Application of the best modern methods of organisation and equipment for the preservation and study of the Irish language, the study and utilisation of national folklore, music, and traditions, and the improvement of the standards of scholarship and education.

THE ANNUITIES.

Dealing with annuities, Mr. Cosgrave said that whatever the merits of the annuity question, the farmers had been compelled to pay twice over a single debt. They had in effect paid two Governments in full a debt which was only due to one. And while the two Governments were disputing which of them was entitled to it, then callously proceeded to collect it separately.

It was surely time that farmers considered without prejudice how they stood now compared with the worst period in their experience.

Mr. Cosgrave then read a letter from Mr. Liam Burke, General Secretary of Fine Gael, to President de Valera, enclosing the resolutions passed by the National Executive, and asking if the Government was prepared to accept either line of policy laid down in them.

The resolutions demanded that the collection of land annuities, rates on agricultural land, and rents of labourers' cottages, occupied by bona fide agricultural labourers, be suspended "at least till a reasonable measure of agricultural prosperity has been restored," and that alternatively, the Government set up at once an impartial tribunal, presided over by an experienced judge.

"To inquire into the fairness of asking farmers and labourers to pay annuities, rents, and rates in existing circumstances; all evictions, seizures, and sheriff's sales to be suspended until the tribunal has issued its decision."

"We yield to none in our respect for the law and in our desire to maintain it," said Mr. Cosgrave. "But lawmakers—in a temporary majority—must not confound might with right. Laws and the administration of laws must be just. The law as it affects the farmers we hold to be unjust."

The sheriff had now the power to mobilise court messengers without the authority of any court in the land and to seize goods in satisfaction of the debt. They opposed the insertion of that clause in the Land Act, and they had now lodged a Bill to repeal the section giving such power to the Land Commission, and to give the farmer the right to be heard in court before any attempt was made to seize his property.

"We have not brought you here to explain or excuse ourselves, nor to criticise General O'Duffy," concluded Mr. Cosgrave. "We do not aim at making or unmaking leaders, but at saving the country from the catastrophe into which Government policy is surely leading it."

Chairman—I think it is necessary. We must convenience these people.

Mr. O'Dwyer—I think they are after getting a lesson now.

Chairman—Mr. O'Dwyer represents that district and he should know.

Mr. Clancy—I suggest that we leave it to Mr. Walsh and let him visit the place and report. It is no use having any friction there again.

The Council agreed to Mr. Clancy's suggestion.

PLAY CO.'S BAD WEEK.

A representative from the Dramatic Company using the Town Hall, appeared before the meeting and asked for a reduction in the hall charges, as the Company had a very poor week.

Clerk—The Council will discuss your case and let you know the decision afterwards.

The representative then withdrew.

The Clerk explained that the Company had lodged a £2 deposit. The charge for the week was £5 exclusive of lighting expenses.

Mr. McCarthy—I happened to be in the hall and I don't think they made more than an average of 30% each night. The old Council used give a reduction and I think we should give a reduction.

Clerk—The old Council used take a lenient view.

Mr. McCarthy—Let them off with the £2 and the cost of the light. I think that is enough.

The Council agreed on this.

COMPENSATION CLAIM.

Regarding the damage caused to a field of Mr. M. Ryan, Mitchell Street, by reason of the laying of a sewer through the field, Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., to the Council, wrote stating that the sum of £30 assessed by Mr. Hayes, Auctioneer and Valuer, was in his opinion a fair offer. This offer was to be final and Mr. Ryan would not be liable for any further damage that might be done to his land. The Council, however, could if they wished, make an offer slightly in excess of this amount if and in the case of law proceedings. The amount could be lodged in Court and if Mr. Ryan did not get a decree for any further amount, he would have to bear the costs of the action.

A letter was read from Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr., regarding the claim of his client, Mr. M. Ryan, for the trespass by the Council on his land, in the laying of the sewer.

The letter gave a detailed account of the alleged trespass and damage caused, pointing out that Mr. Ryan had lost a considerable sum by reason of the depreciation of the value of the land. He (Mr. Ryan) was of opinion that the offer of £30 was entirely inadequate and a sum of £130 at least would be a reasonable compensation.

Mr. McCarthy—Did Mr. Ryan agree to submit this matter to arbitration at the time?

Clerk—No, sir; he wasn't asked.

Chairman—We offered £30 to Mr. Ryan and now we have this letter looking for £130.

Mr. Butler explained that some years ago the Board of Assistance were about to embark on a scheme to lay a sewer from the County Home to the point where it is at present. The Council at that time were engaged in the scheme for erection of the houses at Loughmore. Mr. Ryan was asked for permission to run the sewer through his land. Mr. Ryan asked £50 compensation, but the Board of Assistance thought it too much and they had no option but to abandon the scheme. The Board of Assistance had no compulsory powers, but we had. Because of that, this Council had to run that sewer and the result was the agreement that was before them the other night whereby the Council had to contribute two-sevenths of the cost and the remaining five-sevenths to be borne by the Board of Assistance. This Council then engaged a valuer to assess the compensation, and they had his report the last night. In cases like this there were a lot of unforeseen difficulties.

Chairman—The first thing for the

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

COMPENSATION CLAIMS.

Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at the meeting of the Dungarvan U.D.C. Other members present were: Messrs. J. Butler, M. Clancy, J. Christopher, P. O'Dwyer, P. Byrne, S. Hayes, T. McCarthy, J. Foley, J. Dahill, P. Quann, J. Mansfield.

PAYSHEETS.

The payments passed for the week were: Harbour A/c. £2 12s. 6d. General A/c. £18 15s. 10d.

THANKING THE COUNCIL.

The Superior, Rev. Bro. Gibson, Christian Schools, wrote thanking the Council for their resolution of congratulation on the recent Intermediate results of the school.

MILK TESTS.

Mr. R. P. Byrne, V.S., reported the results of 4 milk tests he had taken. They were:—W. O'Donnell, Fair; Christian Brothers, Fair; M. O'Ryap, Fair; and Miss Daniel, Fair.

WATER FOUNTAIN COMPLAINT.

Mr. O'Dwyer, drew attention to the necessity of having a fountain erected at Buttery Lane. At present the people living there complained of inconvenience of getting water.

The Water Inspector said that there was a pump in the lane, but the people objected to having it outside their houses and it was removed.

Mr. Clancy—There was endless trouble there before. In fact, it was a scandal there fighting about the pump.

Chairman—I think it is necessary. We must convenience these people.

Mr. O'Dwyer—I think they are after getting a lesson now.

Chairman—Mr. O'Dwyer represents that district and he should know.

Mr. Clancy—I suggest that we leave it to Mr. Walsh and let him visit the place and report. It is no use having any friction there again.

The Council agreed to Mr. Clancy's suggestion.

RANGE QUOTATIONS.

Quotations were received from Repts. of Mce. Flynn, Main Street, and Ml. Moloney, Bridge Street, for two ranges for two of the Council's houses: Repts. of Mce. Flynn, quoted £6 2s. 6d. (Stanley) and £5 2s. 6d. Mr. Moloney, quoted £5 19s. (Stanley), £4 2s.; £3 12s., with pipes and doors to suit same 10s. 6d. extra.

Mr. Butler—I propose the cheapest be taken.

The B.S. explained that one of the tenants wanted a Stanley range.

As Mr. Flynn's quotation for a Stanley range was the cheaper, it was accepted.

Mr. Dahill—The other tenant should have a say in his if he is going to pay fifty-fifty.

It was decided that the other tenant choose the range he required from the quotations.

ARCHITECTS' TRAVELLING EXPENSES.

Mr. Murphy, Architect, wrote asking for payment of £66 4s. 8d. in respect of travelling expenses, in connection with the Loughmore Housing Scheme. He pointed out that the Department had sanctioned the payments and as the Department were contributing two-thirds of the amount he requested the Council to pass the payment and not hold up the Department.

Mr. Dahill suggested referring the matter to their solicitor.

Mr. Christopher—The Local Government people don't say we are bound to pay it.

Mr. Mansfield—The point is are we going to throw away £20 of the ratepayers' money?

The matter was referred to their solicitor.

TOWN TENANTS PURCHASE BILL.

A resolution from the Ennis Urban Council, asking the Government to pass immediately the Town Tenants Purchase Bill, was unanimously adopted by the Council.

THE EUCHARISTIC CONGRESS.

During the coming week the International Eucharistic Congress will be celebrated at Buenos Aires. From the 10th to the 14th October Catholics in large numbers from every part of the world will be gathered together in the beautiful capital of the Argentine Republic to make a public offering of loyalty, devotion and love to their Eucharistic King.

The Eucharistic Congress held in Dublin two years ago is still fresh in the memory of us all. That wonderful manifestation of Irish faith astonished the whole world. The great solemnity with which it was celebrated, and the great fervour of those who took part in it were evident even to the most casual observer; but the miracles of grace which is effected are fully known only to God Himself. I ask the clergy and laity of this diocese to pray earnestly during the coming week that the Congress about to be held at Buenos Aires may have a similar or an even greater success, to pray especially that it may effect a deeper and more extended knowledge and appreciation of God's wonderful love for man, and a fuller return of that love through increased devotion to Him in the Sacrament and Sacrifice of the Eucharist.

The October devotions during the coming week may be appropriately associated with this object, and, with the same end in view, the clergy, on the closing day of the Congress—Sunday 14th October—may, in accordance with the circumstances of individual places, institute some special Eucharistic devotion, such as solemn exposition of the Blessed Sacrament.

—J. JEREMIAH KINANE, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

Council now is to decide if the £30 is enough.

Mr. O'Dwyer—I think it is too little.

Mr. Mansfield was of the opinion that the matter should be dealt with by arbitration.

Mr. Foley—As Mr. Butler said there are a lot of unforeseen difficulties and as Mr. Mansfield said if they agreed on arbitration, it may obviate all this difficulty, but how are we going to bridge the difficulty.

Mr. Mansfield—Would it be possible to have it settled outside the Court?

Mr. O'Dwyer—I propose we offer £50.

Mr. Butler pointed out that the Board of Assistance would have a say in this matter as five-sevenths of the compensation must be borne by them.

Mr. Mansfield—As a matter of fact, the Council had no power to make an offer so?

Mr. Butler—We have, seeing that the Board asked us to do the job.

Mr. Quann—Suppose you make a new offer and it comes before an arbitrator and our valuer is thrown over, where do we stand then?

Mr. Dahill seconded Mr. O'Dwyer's proposition.

Mr. Mansfield—I propose we submit it to arbitration.

Mr. Hayes seconded.

Mr. Butler—What position would the Council be in if this offer was increased? What view would the Department take?

Mr. Christopher—It would be hard for Mr. Hayes to back down now; it would be better to stick to the £30.

After further discussion, Mr. O'Dwyer and Mr. Mansfield withdrew their proposition and the Council unanimously agreed to adhere to the original offer of £30.

DEATH OF MRS. KATE O'KEEFFE, CAPPOQUIN.

The death of the above lady at the early age of 57 years has caused deep regret amongst all classes of the people in Cappoquin by whom she was so justly held in the highest respect and esteem.

She was the wife of Mr. Andrew O'Keeffe, Barrack Street, one of the best-known and most popular sportsmen in Cappoquin, and was the mother of a respectable family of four boys and three girls, all of whom fill responsible positions in the town, and for whom the deepest sympathy is felt in their sad bereavement.

In her earlier years she had travelled extensively in America and England before she married Mr. O'Keeffe, and during her 36 years' residence in Cappoquin she was always noted for her quiet and retiring disposition and her kind and charitable nature, as well as many other outstanding traits of character which endeared her to all who knew her.

She had been ill for several months past, but she bore her illness with great christian fortitude and resignation, and was regularly attended by the Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C. Her death was a peaceful and happy one. Requiem Mass for the repose of her soul having been offered up in her late residence on Wednesday morning, the remains were removed to St. Mary's Catholic Church on that evening and were followed by a large cortege of the townspeople as well as many mourners from other centres.

The remains were received at the Church by the Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., and on the following morning Requiem Mass was celebrated for her eternal repose by the Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., before a very large congregation.

At 8 o'clock on Thursday the funeral took place to the New Cemetery at Dromore, and was a wonderful tribute of respect to the memory of the deceased, as the cortege was one of the largest and most representative seen in the town for years.

Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., recited the final prayers at the graveside.

The chief mourners included:—Andrew O'Keeffe (husband); Thomas, John, William and Andrew O'Keeffe (sons); the Misses Madge, Kathleen and Mary O'Keeffe (daughters); Master Michael O'Keeffe (grandson); John McGrath, Ballynoe (brother); Mrs. Davis, Dungarvan, and Mrs. O'Sullivan, Lismore (sisters); William O'Keeffe, Wexford, and James Davis, Dungarvan (brothers-in-law); Mrs. Nora McGrath, Ballynoe and Mrs. Mary McGrath, Mellery Road (sisters-in-law); Mrs. W. O'Keeffe, Wexford, (co-sister-in-law); John Patrick, Thomas and William McGrath, Mellery Road and Patrick and John O'Sullivan, Lismore, (nephews); Miss B. McGrath, Mellery Road (niece); Gus O'Keeffe, Wexford, (nephew-in-law); Michael Power, Wexford, Michael and Mrs. Lawless, Cappoquin, William and Mrs. Noonan and family, Deepark, Lismore; Thos. and Mrs. Mulcahy, Lismore, William Mulcahy, do.; the Misses Mary and Nora O'Sullivan, do.; Joseph O'Sullivan, do.; Mrs. Scanlan and family, do.; Thomas Fahy, Mogha, etc., (cousins and relatives).

Wreaths were placed on the grave from—"Her sorrowing husband and family"; from Sister Nano and family"; Mrs. McGrath and family; Michael and Josie Lawless; James Russell and family, Cappoquin; Mrs. Scanlan and family, Lismore; from the Post Office Staff, Cappoquin; Mrs. Hogan and family, Lismore; Janie Foley and family, Cappoquin; Mr. and Mrs. Hick, Cappoquin. Several Mass Cards were sent.

BRITISH LEGION.

ANNUAL MEETING OF YOUGHAL BRANCH.

At the annual general meeting of the Youghal branch, in the Branch Rooms, a large attendance was present, presided over by Capt. Watson, M.C., U.D.C., Vice-President. There were also present Edward Kenefick, M.M., M.S., (Chairman), and officials.

The one minute's silence being observed the Chairman declared the meeting opened. The minutes of the last annual general meeting were read and approved of.

The Treasurer submitted the accounts and auditors' report. A vote of appreciation was passed for the manner of submission of accounts by the Treasurer.

The auditors' report was read by the Chairman, Mr. E. Kenefick, M.M., M.S., as follows:—"We have examined the accounts, receipts and books of the financial year and found them to be correct. We also appreciate the manner in which the books were kept by the Secretary, Mr. P. Fitzgerald, and Treasurer, Mr. E. Bush—Auditors, Miss M. E. Fitzgerald, G. B. Simkin, Esq."

The Chairman remarked on the lack of support of ex-servicemen to the British Legion and its local branch. He pointed out that it was the bounden duty of all ex-servicemen in their own interests to come forward and show their appreciation of the noble work done by the British Legion in general, and its local branch in Youghal and district. The acute distress in the district had been felt, and if it were not for the efforts of the British Legion in trying to alleviate the sufferings, the ex-servicemen in Youghal would have a very trying time. The branch had done great work in getting pensions for the R.N. Reserve men and others in general. The British Legion was an organisation which any ex-serviceman should be proud of. He personally thanked all outside the organisation for their support in subscriptions and services. He also thanked the committee and secretary and treasurer for their untiring services in carrying out their duty during their term of office.

The Vice-President, in the absence of the President, said it gave him great pleasure to address this meeting of ex-servicemen of the British Legion. He endorsed the remarks of the Chairman, and would like to add his appeal to all ex-servicemen to come forward and give their heartiest support to the British Legion. He reminded them that Poppy Day Remembrance would soon be here and urged them to honour those who fought and died in the Great War, 1914-1918.

The Treasurer appealed for funds to support the objects and aims of the British Legion; while the Secretary thanked all for their appreciation of his work.

The election of officers was then proceeded with. John Revis, D.C.M., presiding officer; William Donoghue and Daniel Landers, tellers. The following officers were declared elected: Major J. B. Arbutnot, M.V.O., President; Capt. C. Watson, M.C., U.D.C., Vice-Pres.; Col. C. Roche, Vice-Pres.; Capt. Crosbie, Vice-Pres.; Edward Kenefick, M.M., M.S., Chairman; John Webster, R.N., D.S.M., Vice-Chairman; Ernest Bush, Treas.; Patrick Fitzgerald, Hon. Sec. Committee—Mrs. M. Simkin, ex-V.A.D.; M. Mahony, D.S.M.; John Mulley, D.S.M.; J. Mulcahy, Edward Lynch, Harry Colman, James Donoghue, M. J. Lally, J. Casey, William Donoghue, James Bennett.

At the conclusion, the Chairman, Mr. Edward Kenefick, thanked the members for their confidence in him in re-electing him to the chair for the fourth year.

The Treasurer and Secretary also replied in the same way.

MR. DE VALERA

SUCCESS IN WOMEN'S WILL DISPUTE

Mr. De Valera, President of the Irish Free State Executive Council, was party to a will suit in the Chancery Division, London, on Monday last. The suit raised a question as to dealings with the estate of Miss Polly Mary Fitzpatrick, a 72-years-old re- cluse of Russell-square, Brighton, who left all her property, valued at more than £3,000, to Mr. De Valera.

Last December the Probate Court found in favour of Mr. De Valera, whose right had been challenged by Mr. John Fitzpatrick, brother and next-of-kin of the dead woman. Mr. Fitzpatrick was also a defendant yesterday.

The proceedings were brought by Mr. H. Z. Deane, administrator of the estate, and the question for the court was whether two sums of £349 4s. 6d. and £148 14s. 1d. passed under the gift in the will.

Mr. Turnbull, for Mr. Fitzpatrick, submitted that there was no gift in the will to Mr. De Valera of the sums concerned, which were in the bank. The only gift to Mr. de Valera was "My house, furniture, and effects."

Mr. Gray, for Mr. de Valera, argued that the word "effects" included the bank deposits. The words in the will were followed by the direction that none of her next-of-kin was to have any of it. It was obvious that Miss Fitzpatrick intended Mr. de Valera to take everything she left.

Mr. Justice Clauson held that the word "effects" carried with it the gift of the two sums concerned to Mr. de Valera.

OUR LADY OF WATERFORD

Believed to be many centuries old, and rediscovered in 1832 by Mr. Thos. Dignam, artist, the statue of Our Lady of Waterford was solemnly crowned by Very Rev. A. M. Crofts, O.P., Prior and borne in procession through St. Saviour's Church, Waterford.

During the Cromwellian regime the statue was removed to Limerick, and for its greater safety was later treated with three coats of paint. It remained thus until Mr. Dignam restored the original beauty of the design and colouring. The new gold crowns and sceptre are beautiful examples of Irish workmanship. The crown of the Divine Child is studded with opals, rubies, and amethysts, and several large and beautiful topas of different colours are set around the sides of the crown of Our Lady. In front of her crown are precious stones, which provide a very striking effect.

SEIZED CATTLE SALE

£100 FOR NINETEEN ANIMALS.

Nineteen cattle seized in respect of non-payment of land annuities were rebought by the owner, Mr. P. Hartigan, Grange, at Pallasgreen, for £100. A Mr. O'Neill made an opening bid of £50.

At a subsequent sale, three cows owned by Mr. M. J. Carroll, Ballinlough, were bought by Mr. O'Neill for 30/-.

The public were admitted to the sale which passed off without incident. A protest meeting was held subsequently.

AMALGAMATION SCHEME A FAILURE.

"An abomination scheme I call it, not an amalgamation scheme," declared Councillor J. Cosgrave at the monthly meeting of the Mental Hospital Committee during the course of a discussion on the proposed extension of the building.

In reply to Mr. O'Halloran, Dr. Fitzgerald, R.M.S., stated that he had nothing new to report about the farm purchase matter, nor the Sweep money for the purpose of the proposed extension. A Commissioner was to have inspected the farms, but he had not arrived yet.

Councillor Cosgrave suggested that they had probably made up their minds in Dublin that the hospital had land enough, and the R.M.S. replied that it was more a matter of providing the extension than getting more land. There was, he added, the problem of accommodating the mentally deficient patients who were at present in the County Home, Dungarvan.

Ald. Wm. Jones, who presided, said the project was now three years going on, and at the end of that period they were still just where they started. It was a pity that a beginning could not be made with the several schemes that were in contemplation in the city, and thus provide a considerable amount of employment.

Dr. Fitzgerald mentioned that there were, roughly, seventy people in Dungarvan to be accommodated, and the Mental Hospital was overcrowded at the present time.

In the opinion of the Chairman, the question was one that would have to be faced some time. The people in Dungarvan, he said, were suffering intense inconvenience.

"They told us," said Councillor Cosgrave, "that they were making a home fit for heroes when they sent them to Dungarvan in the old days, and they have them overcrowded now, after taking them away from a splendid, spacious home."

"That is the result of the amalgamation scheme," observed Alderman Jones.

"Abomination Scheme," commented Councillor Cosgrave.

JUGOSLAV KING ASSASSINATED. ALSO FRENCH MINISTER.

The King of Yugoslavia was shot in Marseilles on Tuesday.

The assassin, a Croat shopkeeper, from Zagreb, jumped on the running-board of the King's car and fired several shots. King Alexander received two bullets, one in the abdomen and another through the heart. He died within a few minutes.

The French Foreign Minister, M. Barthou, was also fatally shot, and a French general. The assassin was killed.

King Alexander was on a visit "to consolidate friendship."

Two policemen and a woman were wounded.

Four previous attempts were made on his life, one at Serajevo, the scene of the killing of Archduke Ferdinand in 1914.

The heir to the Yugoslav throne is at present at school in England. He is eleven years old.

WELL-KNOWN FIGURE PASSES AWAY.

The death took place in the County Home, Dungarvan, last week of Nicholas Hogan, better known as "Nicholas the Sweep." He had reached a ripe age and had pursued his trade up to the last. He was an expert as a fire-range director and chimney doctor, and held the record of having been the official sweep to all the mansions and institutions in the counties Tipperary, Waterford and Kilkenny. In his younger days he was an enthusiastic huntsman and was a keen follower of the Waterford hounds. A good living honest man, he passed away fortified by the rites of the church.—R.I.P.

N.A. & C.A. CONGRESS.

WATERFORD ATHLETE'S VIEWS. The decision of the Congress of the N.A. & C.A. on Saturday last to fount the ruling of the International Federation, by which the Free State was to be confined to its own political boundaries in place of All-Ireland being an entity, was carried by a large majority. It is felt that the decision will mean an end to international competition for our Athletes if persisted in. In a letter from Mr. Percy Kirwan, Kilmacthomas, our versatile County Athletic Champion, who is Vice-President of the Waterford Co. Board N.A. & C.A. to Mr. Nolan, Hon. Sec., resigning his position on the Co. Board, he says:—

I am compelled to take this step as a result of the decision of Congress on Saturday night last in Dublin. By its decision Congress has deprived our athletes of taking part in international contests, which is a regrettable fact in view of the great material we possess, especially in our schoolboy champions. The Athletic Revival which we all worked so hard for has now gone for nothing. I take this opportunity of thanking you for the great assistance given at all times, and the work you have done for athletics in Waterford County.

Mr. Nolan, in reply said—During a brilliant athletic career, Mr. Kirwan has frequently represented his country in international competitions. In the recent athletic revival his help and advice has been invaluable. I am calling a Congress of Co. Waterford athletic clubs for an early date, when I shall place Mr. Kirwan's resignation before them. I will explain the points at issue as clearly as possible, and I have confidence in their prudence and good sense. Meantime, I hope that a strong effort will be made to restore unity in Irish athletics.

NEXT WEEK'S GREAT DOG SHOW

A GATHERING OF THE CLANS.

By "PHILOKUVON."

ALL devout dog lovers are looking forward with pleasurable anticipation to the Kennel Club Show at the Crystal Palace, on Wednesday and Thursday, October 10 and 11, when we may expect to meet approximately 3,000 of the finest dogs that can be produced. In course of time a convention has grown up that exhibitors must be represented by the cream of their kennels at these shows, the second strings being reserved for less important occasions. The prestige of the Kennel Club as the forerunner of the many other governing bodies that have since appeared in all parts of the world has something to do with it. Apart from that, old customs die hard. Not so many years ago an entry fee of £1 per dog was charged instead of the half-guinea elsewhere and that made exhibitors get into the habit of sending only their principal dogs.

I do not expect that any marked changes of fashion will be noticeable next week. In all probability cocker spaniels will maintain their supremacy; wire-haired fox terriers are sure to attract the usual crowd and the smooths also will have their admirers. When this century dawned, smooth fox terriers were the predominant variety, but the wires improved so much that the positions have been reversed. Mr. Theo O'Farmer is coming from the United States to judge Airedales and Dandie Dinmonts, and Count Brassavola de Massa, an Italian expert, should attract large numbers of Great Danes. Among the breeds that impress by their size and noble bearing, Great Danes are the favourites, though one is glad to know that mastiffs are making progress. When shows first began, mastiffs were largely in the possession of noble families, and it is a source of regret that old strains should have disappeared from their original homes. Until well on in the last century, Lord Newtown's ancestors had kept the breed at least since the battle of Agincourt. Long before that date they had been common in England, famed for their devotion as guardians of the home.

The celebrated "Ouborough" kennels will not be represented in Irish wolfhounds as Mrs. J. V. Rank has promised to judge them, but the entry should not suffer, since the absence of formidable opposition will be an inducement to others to send their dogs. Sir Edward Chichester, who introduced the charming little Finsk Spets a few years ago, is taking that breed. They are sporting dogs used in Finland for shooting over in the forests, and are still sufficiently rare to be a novelty here. Cocker spaniels have been divided between Mrs. Jamieson-Higgins and Mons. L. H. Daniel Lacombe, a French breeder. Viscountess Portman is down for the gallant Border terriers, whose hearts are out of proportion to their size. They will evict the big hill foxes from their fastnesses or tackle badgers without thought of the consequences. Since they have become known in the South through the medium of shows they have been attached to a number of Hunt kennels.

In the eighty-odd breeds that will be benched, there will be dogs that appeal to all tastes from the tiny Yorkshire terriers to the lordly St. Bernards. None of the toy breeds can rival Pekingeses either with exhibitors or in the affections of a wider public.

This chat is issued by THE TAIL-WAGGERS' CLUB OF IRELAND, 23, Old Abbey Street (off Marlborough Street), Dublin, C.B. The Club will be pleased to answer any enquiries submitted by Tail-Wagger Owners in connection with canine hygiene and welfare.

HURLING AND FOOTBALL AT LISMORE.

On Sunday Tallow met Four-Mile-Water in Lismore in the final of the minor hurling championship for the West Waterford Division, while Dungarvan and Stradbally met in the semi-final of the senior football championship of the same division.

The games were played in the Gaelic Field, Lismore, where the local Gaels had the ground laid out in excellent condition, and as the weather proved fine and calm there was a very large attendance of spectators who were treated to some really high-class sport, especially in the football match which provided some brilliant and thrilling play and was stubbornly contested by both sides until the final whistle was sounded.

Owing to the great name enjoyed by the Tallow senior hurling team, the minors from there were expected to be easily able to dispose of Four-Mile-Water, but the former were never really in the picture, and after a rather uninteresting game the Four-Mile-Water team emerged rather easy victors on the score of 5 goals against 2 goals 2 points for Tallow.

Great interest was centered in the senior football semi-final, as this was the third meeting between Dungarvan and Stradbally, both teams having played a drawn game in Dungarvan at their first meeting, and on the venue for the second match being changed to Lismore, another drawn game resulted, but on Sunday Dungarvan left no room for doubt as to their superiority, as turing over with a lead of 1 goal 2 points against 4 points at half-time, they added three points in the second half, while their opponents were unable to raise a solitary flag, although they got several opportunities of scoring, but owing to erratic shooting several kicks went wide which should have resulted in as many points if their forwards showed better judgment.

Owing to the splendid defensive work of the Dungarvan backs, notably E. Hayes, full back, and Seamus Hayes, goal-keeper, the winners fully deserved their victory as they showed greater speed and combination throughout the game, but it must be said that they met "foemen worthy of their steel" in the Stradbally team, who played a strong and vigorous game to the close, and although beaten on the occasion, they were by no means disgraced.

FOOTBALL.

Playing with a slight incline towards the road end, Stradbally set a fast pace from the start, and getting possession after the opening exchanges, they at once vigorously attacked, and getting a free near the Dungarvan goal matters looked dangerous for the latter, but Seamus Hayes saved in beautiful style. Stradbally at once returned to the attack and shot a grand point within the first few minutes of play, and scoring two further points in almost quick succession, the supporters of Dungarvan began to get anxious as to the outcome of a game started in such sensational fashion.

Dungarvan, however, quickly settled down and next brought play into Stradbally territory, where they met with a stubborn defence and were driven back, but returning again to the attack, they were rewarded with a point beautifully shot by Parsons from a difficult angle. Continuing to play with great dash, Dungarvan next sent wide, but their next attack resulted in a point, and later they were rewarded with a goal. Stradbally next brought play down the field and shot a point, after which Dungarvan came along for another determined attack which was well met by the Stradbally backs who soon transferred play to Dungarvan territory, and Stradbally were forcing the pace when the half-time whistle went, leaving the score as follows:—

STRADBALLY ..... 0-4

Playing with the incline in the second half, Dungarvan immediately set to work in spirited fashion and having got two wides in rapid succession, they next shot a grand flying point. The kick-out brought Stradbally temporary relief, but Dungarvan were soon back again, and a shot for a goal went wide. Stradbally then took play up the field and looked dangerous for a time, but the Dungarvan backs proved sound, and they had to be content with a wide. Keeping up the pressure for some time, Stradbally were at length forced on the defensive and their goalie had to kick the ball over the end line in order to save his net. The 50 yards free for Dungarvan was taken by McGrath, but the ball went wide, and Dungarvan again sent wide a few moments later. A further attack by Dungarvan resulted in the ball missing the net by a narrow margin, but a free to Stradbally next transferred play to the other end, but no score resulted.

Dungarvan next got a point, and although Stradbally attacked again and again their forwards were unable to score.

Dungarvan added a further point (per Parsons), and although Stradbally cleared well and brought play up to the Dungarvan back division, they were unable to penetrate the splendid defence met with, and Stradbally were still attacking when the full-time whistle went, leaving Dungarvan the winners of a brilliant and hard-fought game on the score:—
DUNGARVAN ..... 1-5
STRADBALLY ..... 0-4

The teams were as follows:—

Dungarvan—Seamus Hayes, E. Hayes, Jas. Power, Wm. Sullivan, M. Whelan, Jas. Moloney, T. Fitzgerald, C. Moylan, D. Goode, T. Lannon, P. McGrath, Jas. Dwyer, J. Murphy, P. O'Donnell, and Thos. Parsons.

Stradbally—R. Fitzgerald, J. Power, Wm. Kirwan, Percy Kirwan, James Whelan, Thos. Colbert, Jas. Colbert, Patk. Kiely, R. Kiely, T. Keane, J. Keane, M. Halpin, P. Wall, Jas. Connors, and John Cummins.

The match was strictly refereed by Mr. Seamus Malone, Waterford.

MINOR HURLING.

Four-Mile-Water started off with a goal within the first few minutes, to which Tallow quickly responded with a point.

Four-Mile-Water next got their second goal, and Tallow soon had the green flag up for a similar score. Four-Mile-Water from this stage had the best of matters and added a further goal, and although Tallow strove hard to reduce the lead, the half-time whistle found the score as follows:—
FOUR-MILE-WATER ..... 3-0
TALLOW ..... 1-1

Four-Mile-Water added two further goals in the second half, while Tallow scored a goal and a point, but Four-Mile-Water always held the upper hand of the game, despite several brilliant displays by Tallow, and the final whistle left the score as follows:—
FOUR-MILE-WATER ..... 5-0
TALLOW ..... 2-2

The following were the teams:—

Four-Mile-Water—Patk. Whelan, M. Whelan, J. McCarthy, Patk. Ryan, Wm. McCarthy, Wm. Ryan, P. Brett, T. Moloney, J. Corbett, P. Crotty, Jas. Whelan, Thos. Ryan, Thos. Ormond, John Power, and M. Fitzgerald.

Tallow—Luke McCarthy, M. Sullivan, E. Malone, M. Roman, M. Flaherty, M. Ahearne, L. Daly, J. McCarthy, T. Quinlan, W. Cronin, W. Buckley, John Hancock, Jas. Burke, Jas. O'Keefe, and John McGrath.

Mr. J. P. O'Donnell, Lismore, proved an impartial and efficient referee.

NATIONAL HURLING LEAGUE.

WATERFORD GOES DOWN.

Clare, 10-5; Waterford, 5-3.

Clare senior hurlers met Waterford in the first round of the National Hurling League at Newmarket-on-Fergus on Sunday last and won by 10-5 to 5-3.

Favoured by sun and breeze, Clare for the first five minutes kept the play in the Waterford half, but the sound work of the backs prevented a score.

Waterford opened with a point, and from a free soon had another point. Waterford were now aggressors and attacks on the Clare goal were, in fact, repulsed. A free gave Waterford their opportunity, Condon finding the net.

Clare resumed the attack; their forwards were well fed and they registered three goals and two points. Waterford failing to improve their position up to half-time, when Clare led by 3-2 to 1-2.

CLARE SHARPSHOOTERS.

The second half was a repetition of the first, but play was far more lively and exciting. Clare forwards dominated the period and scored freely.

Hennessy, one of Clare's best forwards, retired injured and a substitute was sent on.

Clare scored 7 goals and 3 points, and Waterford 4 goals and 1 point in this half.

The Clare goalie, Keating, who is a new "find" fully justified his try-out by effecting a number of exceptionally fine saves.

For Waterford, Ryan, Wyse, C. Weir, Browne, Graney, Condon and Fanning, were the most prominent; and for Clare, Conlon, Hennessy, Doyle Loughmane, Mullane, Harrington and Reynolds.

NEW IRISH SCHOOL READERS.

Messrs. Browne and Nolan Ltd., have issued a new series of readers in Irish specially compiled by Shan O'Cuiv for use in schools and in all classes where Irish is taught as a living language. The series, entitled "An Comhgar," is in four parts, part one 3d. and the other parts 4d. each, and consists of ninety-two lessons carefully graduated so as to cover the main features of the grammar of modern Irish and help the learner to speak like a native speaker.

While the lessons were not compiled to teach rules of grammar, each of them is based on some grammatical phenomenon, and as they proceed the points dealt with in preceding lessons are recapitulated and the learner unconsciously absorbs the language as a native-speaking child does by constant repetition. Students who memorise these lessons will have at their command a great body of language relating to every-day life in Ireland, and should be able to speak and write Irish well.

A great part of the matter in the lessons is in dialogue form. This arrangement permits of a very full treatment of the verbal system in Irish, and particularly of the various forms of the irregular verbs. The teacher is saved an immense amount of trouble in preparing oral lessons, and can concentrate on the actual work of teaching the language, with the assurance given by the author that there is not a phrase in the lessons that would not be heard from a native speaker in the Gaeltacht speaking the language naturally.

The lessons are printed in large Gaelic type on good paper, and are very legible. Black type is used to emphasise the special feature of Irish grammar dealt with in a given lesson,

Interest Facts About Wheat!

Of more than usual interest is the Report recently issued of Field Experiments conducted by the Department of Agriculture in the year 1933. The information it contains is of particular importance to the thousands of farmers who at present are preparing to sow wheat, and who are, doubtless, anxious to know what their returns from the crop are likely to be.

In those areas where wheat growing has continued from early times the art of cultivating the crop to the best advantage, the knowledge of the most suitable varieties to use, and a wealth of general information regarding the crop have been handed down to the present generation of farmers by their fathers and grandfathers. Unfortunately, the growing of wheat in many areas is now merely a tradition, and, in fact, some farmers are doubtful whether their land will grow wheat, or ever did grow good wheat. Eighty-five years ago one acre in every six under arable crops in Ireland was in wheat. It is certain, therefore, that there is little arable land in the country which in years gone by did not produce wheat regularly. That the land will at present produce splendid crops of wheat is proved by the results of over 350 experiments carried out in every county in the Saorstát and described in the Report mentioned. But the principal way in which the Report will be of assistance to farmers is in the information it provides as to how each of the four principal wheat varieties under test yielded in the farmer's own county and on different types of soils. Of those wheat crops which were grown after a manured crop Yeoman II gave the lowest average yield of 21 cwt. per statute acre, while the highest average yield was 23½ cwt. from Queen Wilhelmina. The other two varieties, Squarehead Master and Iron Master, were intermediate between these two in yield.

Another matter of the utmost importance in the Report is the result of the cultivation of wheat on lea land over eight years old. The remarkable uniformity of the yields from this set of trials conducted at 58 centres shows that, contrary to popular belief in many places, wheat can be sown with confidence on old lea. The average yield of 197 cwt. or just short of eight barrels per statute acre, is particularly satisfactory, in view of the fact that at a number of centres the crop was sown rather late in spring and that the land was not in many cases ploughed as early as is desirable in the case of lea land.

These experiments were carried out on average land in each county, and the crop yields obtained are of the standard which any farmer may expect from his wheat crop grown on moderate land and without unusual treatment in respect of manuring or otherwise. The market and the price for wheat are both guaranteed, the former because the millers must purchase a quota of home-grown wheat equivalent to the total estimated quantity of millable wheat available for sale, and the latter because there is a Government guarantee of 23s. 6d. per barrel of 20 stones for wheat sold before mid-December and 26s. per barrel for wheat sold after mid-January.

At these prices, and on the basis of yields obtained in the experiments in question, wheat offers a most attractive return, and farmers who have not yet definitely made up their minds to grow the crop should no longer hesitate, but should make immediate preparation.

Copies of the above-mentioned Report and also of the Department's leaflet on wheat growing may be had free on application to the Department of Agriculture, Dublin.

but there are no grammatical rules. The grammar is learnt from the text. The whole series is based on principles now well recognised in connection with the scientific teaching and study of other languages, but not heretofore applied to Irish.

PROMINENT WATERFORD MAN'S DEATH.

The death has occurred at his residence, Ballygunner Castle, Waterford, of Mr. John Power. The deceased, who had attained the ripe age of 86 years, was one of the staunchest Republicans in the County Waterford, and up to the last look a keen interest in the advancement of the cause so dear to his heart. During the civil trouble in 1922 he had the misfortune to lose his only son, Andrew, who at the time of his demise was incarcerated in Kilkenny prison, having taken a prominent part with the I.R.A. in the Anglo-Irish and subsequent struggles. The late Mr. Power was one of the most extensive farmers in East Waterford, and brought to bear on all his agricultural undertakings a knowledge and practical experience that stamped him as one of the most progressive and successful members of the farming community. Esteemed by all who knew him for his probity and honesty of purpose, his death will be deplored by the countless friends who held him in such high and appreciative regard. The late Mr. Power, in his younger days, was prominently identified with the administration of local affairs, having been for a number of years a respected and honoured member of the Waterford Co. Council and Waterford Board of Guardians. Prior to throwing in his lot in the fight for Irish freedom, his son Andrew had served with conspicuous gallantry in the Great War.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

TAKING SAND FROM FORESHORE

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman; E. P. Lynch, W. O'Sullivan, T. Beausang, J. Daly, R. Savage, J. R. Smyth, P.C.; J. Whelan, R. Power, D. McCarthy, R. C. Farrell, Vice-Chairman; E. D. Condon, J. Forrest, W. J. Broderick, T.D.; M. Ahern and T. Murphy.

Acknowledgment.

The Rev. Bro. J. R. O'Connell, Superior, Christian Schools, wrote acknowledging the resolution passed by the Council on their recent successes, and he asked the Clerk to thank the proposer and seconder, as well as the Council in general for the interest they had taken in the welfare of the Schools. It was gratifying to know that their work was so genuinely appreciated in the town and it gave a stimulus to teachers and pupils alike, that interest in their success didn't stop within the school precincts—that it was a source of pleasure to their Council representatives as well as to the whole community.

He also wished to thank the Clerk himself for his association with the resolution. The Chairman said he was unavoidably absent when that resolution was passed. He now desired to express his hearty association with it.

N.S.P.C.C.

Mrs. M. Ryall, Provincial Bank, local Hon. Sec., of the N.S.P.C.C., wrote applying for the use of the Town Hall to hold a Whist Drive on the 23rd inst., in aid of the Society's Funds.

The Chairman said it was a Society that was worthy of their support.

On the proposition of Mr. Whelan, seconded by Mr. Power, the application was granted at the nominal fee of 1/-.

Removing Sand From Foreshore.

The District Engineer, G.S. Railways, wrote that he had received a report from one of their staff at Youghal stating that he had found two men named Kelliher taking sand from the foreshore at Summerfield. They put it back at his request.

The Chairman said it might be well the new members should know that the Council had entered into an agreement with the Railway Co., and the Co. Council to protect the foreshore, and with that view to prevent the removal of sand and gravel. There was a lot of money sunk in the place and it was the duty of the Council to do everything to protect the foreshore.

At Mr. Broderick's request, the Clerk detailed the position of the Council, which after litigation at the District and Circuit Courts had established their claim to the foreshore and obtained mortgages of £65 and £50 against two local farmers who had mercifully not registered those mortgages.

Mr. Broderick—Is there not an undertaking by this Council to take action against persons removing sand or gravel from the foreshore?

The Clerk—Yes.

Mr. Broderick said that was a very important question for if the Council didn't carry out their agreement, the other contributory bodies could withdraw, which might leave the Council in a terrible predicament. They should, therefore, take serious notice of the Railway Engineer's communication.

After some discussion, it was unanimously decided to strongly warn the parties named that any future cases of the kind would be brought to Court and heavy penalties asked for.

Mr. Lynch asked how far did their jurisdiction over the strand extend. The Clerk said they had title deeds over the foreshore from Green's Quay out to Boherbwee.

Work For Unemployed.

A letter was read from the Secretary of the local Trades Council giving details of works requiring repairs in the town and vicinity and that they would give much-needed employment. It was decided to notify the Co. Surveyor.

The New Houses.

The L.G. wrote stating that the Minister for L.G. and P.H. wouldn't raise any objection to the transfer by the Council of tenants in condemned houses in the Clearance Areas to the new houses if the Council were satisfied that they could prevent re-occupation of the vacated houses pending the coming into operation of the Clearance Order. Failure to have the vacated houses demolished would render the Council ineligible for subsidy at the high rate.

The Clerk said he had submitted the letter to their solicitors, Messrs. Hodnett, who replied that there were objections from the legal point of view to the course suggested, namely, the immediate admittance of the tenants in the houses mentioned in the Clearance Orders into the new houses, and they couldn't advise the Council to adopt that course. The time allowed to owners to appeal to the High Court would expire on the 25th inst., and the admittance of such tenants into the new houses could be effected after that date in any case in which an appeal had not been lodged. It was decided to take no action till the date mentioned.

Bricks v. Concrete.

The L.G. wrote with reference to the tenders for the erection of 28 houses under the Housing Acts, pointing out that the tender accepted by the Council, which works out at £291 per house was exceptionally high for 3-roomed houses of plan type No. 4. With a building cost of £291 per house, the all-in cost would amount to approximately £307 per house. As they were aware the subsidy was payable on the annual loan charges incurred subject to a maximum all-in cost of £300 for one house. Accordingly if the Council wished to avail of the full benefit of the subsidy and at the same time let those houses at rents which would not prove too high for the tenants or the ratepayers, it was essential that the cost be kept within the £300 limit.

The use of concrete blocks would effect a saving of £14 10s. per house, and if concrete roofing-tiles were used there would be a further reduction of £7 10s., resulting in a total saving of £22 per house, giving an all-in cost of about £285. In view of all the circumstances it would be well for the Council to reconsider their decision so as to ensure that the all-in cost would not exceed £300.

Mr. Power proposed that they adhere to their original decision to have the houses built of bricks. The Chairman suggested they should hear the Town Clerk before taking action. The Clerk then submitted a detailed statement showing that by the elimination of certain items that were not really essential, and the equitable distribution of the cost of the new sewer, etc., the price per house could be brought down to about £281, while still adhering to the use of bricks. In deciding in favour of bricks, the Council were inspired with the desire to encourage and give an impetus to an old local industry, as they were frequently asked by the L.G.

The meeting complimented the Clerk on his admirable handling of the matter and it was unanimously decided, on the proposition of Mr. Broderick, seconded by Mr. Savage that the proposed solution of the difficulty be submitted to the L.G.D. Mr. Power—And remind them that the next lowest tender for the 28 houses was £1,000 over Messrs. Murray's.

English Colliery Disaster.

On the proposition of Mr. Savage, seconded by Mr. Broderick, a vote of sympathy was passed in connection with the recent terrible colliery disaster at Wrexham.

Fishery Question.

Replying to Mr. Power, the Clerk said he had not yet received any reply to the Council's request to the Fisheries Commission to hold a sitting at Youghal. Mr. Power said he hoped they would see at no distant date that beautiful river, the Blackwater, taken from the Duke of Devonshire and restored to its rightful owners, the Irish people. It was a common matter of history that the Dukes predecessors and compatriots had seized it from the monks, who were working it for the people.

Congratulating New P.P.

Mr. Daly, proposed a vote of congratulation to Father Wilson, on his promotion to the pastorate of Ballyhea. He was always a popular and courteous clergyman.

This was seconded by Mr. Beausang. The Chairman, Clerk and others associated themselves with the proposition.

Musical Rights.

The Performing Rights Society, Ltd., London, wrote re Youghal Town Hall, stating they understood that the Hall was let for musical entertainment and they, therefore, enclosed copies of their pamphlets giving the rights and objects of the Society. The Society's licence was necessary before copyright music it controlled might lawfully be performed at such entertainments and they should be glad to hear the Council wished to take up the Society's licence. If they received certain particulars they would state the appropriate annual licence fee.

Some further correspondence was read on the same subject. The Clerk said they only had the No. 1 Army Band once. It was decided to reply that only Irish music was performed.

League Of Youth Dance.

The Hon. Sec., local Branch League of Youth, applied for the use of the Town Hall on the 21st to hold a Cinderella Dance. The application was granted unanimously.

Clerk Of Works.

Applications for the position of Clerk of Works over the new Housing Scheme were received from—Messrs. Jas. Walsh, Avondale House, Youghal; M. J. Galvin, Friar Street, do.; Jas. Foulkes, Ashe Street, do. The Clerk read the L.G.D.'s circular in connection with such appointments.

Mr. Smyth—Do I gather that the appointment made is subject solely to the Engineer-in-charge—that is Mr. Spreadborough? The Clerk—Yes. No matter what the Council do, they can only recommend subject to his selection. Mr. Beausang moved that they appoint the man they had in the last scheme, Mr. Galvin, who had been approved by Mr. Spreadborough.

The Clerk—You can't do that. Mr. Power—Why? The Clerk—The Engineer must be given the responsibility for the selection.

Mr. Beausang—He has already approved of Mr. Galvin. The Clerk—It doesn't matter. The position was advertised as required

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.) CIVIL BILLS.

Decrees were granted in a number of undefended Civil Bills, in which Messrs. J. L. Keane and Wm. R. Hodnett, solrs., appeared for the plaintiffs.

Decrees For Seed Loans. Waterford Co. Council obtained decrees against two defaulters for arrears of seed loans.

Insurance Commissioners v. Power. Mr. D. Casey, State Solicitor, Mitchelstown, for plaintiffs, said that summonses and Civil Bills had been before the Court in 1932 and decrees granted for £8 9s. 2d. for National Health Insurance and £18 12s. 2d. for Unemployment Insurance contributions. An arrangement for the payment of £4 down and £1 per month was made, but only £3 in all had been paid. The sheriff had returned the decrees marked nulla bona. The cases had been re entered for hearing on the 14th inst., and adjourned to that day.

Mr. McNamara, Insurance Inspector, having given evidence of the facts of the cases, Mr. Keane said the defendant was wholly insolvent. The Justice said having regard to all the facts and the lapse of time he would fine the defendant 1/- and Court costs in each case.

False Pretences.

Michael Evans, Croughroe, Mitchelstown, was charged with obtaining £2 by false pretences from the Post Office.

Mr. Casey, prosecuted and Mr. Hodnett appeared for defendant.

Mr. Casey said defendant's father, also Michael, died at Youghal, on 5th January, 1933. He was an old Age Pensioner. It would be proved—indefinitely admitted—that for the four weeks subsequently to his father's decease, he had drawn 10/- per week, £2 in all, on his father's Pension Book.

Defendant pleaded guilty. Mr. Hodnett said his client had acted in an insane manner in doing what he did. As he had pleaded guilty and was prepared to make good the amount there and then, and as it was his first offence and any punishment would react only on his young family, he (Mr. Hodnett) appealed to the Court to deal leniently with him.

The Justice—Mr. Casey, what do you say? Mr. Casey said he would leave the case in his Worship's hands. There was a sum of 17/- expenses incurred. He was discharged under the P.O.A. paying the £2 also the 17/- expenses and giving bail himself in £20 and two sureties of £10 each.

The Justice said that was a very serious offence, a common fraud, which if punished, involved imprisonment. He warned people that if they committed such an offence they would not get off by payment of the proceeds of their crime. While he generally did give people the benefit of the P.O.A., he wasn't to be relied on to always do it. He was quite capable of imposing the sentence the offence deserved.

Mr. Casey—Your Worship has a cross, as well as a quiet, side (laughter).

LIVE STOCK IN SAORSTAT

The first winter census of live stock in the Free State was taken in January last. Previously an annual census was taken in the summer—June 1. The figures for January 1st, which are now available, show remarkable decreases under all headings.

The number of cattle in the Saorstat on January 1 was 408,216 less than on June 1, 1933; sheep show a drop of 1,001,164; pigs a fall of 131,619; horses were down by 18,057, and poultry by 7,852,065.

The following are the totals under the several heads:— January, 1, 1934; June 1, 1933. Cattle 3,728,375; 4,138,591. Sheep 2,343,408; 3,040,680. Pigs 798,863; 930,554. Horses 423,256; 441,313. Poultry 14,653,430; 22,505,495.

Cattle.—Decreases in cattle are shown under all heads except heifers in calf, which increased from 89,724 to 144,920. Milch cows were down by 1,725 and bulls by 2,492. Other reductions were: 3-year-old cattle, 44,250; 2-year-olds, 83,754; yearlings, 149,310, and cattle under one year, 201,881.

Sheep.—There was an increase of 5,393 in ewes for breeding, and of 8,787 in rams; but yearling sheep were down by 995,837, and older sheep by 79,507.

Pigs.—Sows for breeding increased by 1,311, and boars by 238. Horses.—The principal decreases are agricultural horses, 2,754; and unbroken horses, 13,567. There were 61 fewer stallions.

Poultry.—The decrease in poultry is distributed under all heads. There were 946,230 less turkeys; 751,750 less geese; 644,769 less ducks, and 5,509,316 less ordinary fowl as compared with June 1, 1933.

by the L.G. and all the applications must be submitted to him.

Mr. Lynch—Then we have nothing at all to say to it?

The Chairman—Nothing. On the proposition of Mr. Mc-Carthy seconded by Mr. Smyth, the three applications were referred to the Engineer.

Housing Needs.

LABOURERS ACT—INQUIRY AT YOUGHAL.

The local inquiry on oath into the housing needs of the South Cork Health Area concluded last week, when the Department of Local Government's Housing Inspector, Seumas O'Murchadha, attended at Youghal District Hospital, where the claims of 21 applicants for labourers' cottages and acre allotments were heard.

Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., Youghal, appeared for the Cork County Board of Health, and Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., do., appeared for some objecting occupiers.

Messrs. R. Flavin, Acting Secretary South Cork Committee, and B. O'Flynn, B.E., architect to the County Board of Health, were in attendance. Mr. W. J. Broderick, T.D., Chairman of the Cork County Council, was present.

ACCESS TO FIELD.

In the case of Edmond Loughlin, Ballykilly, Youghal, who applied for a cottage and plot on the holding of Mrs. Kate Doyle, Burgess, Killeagh, the occupier objected on the grounds that there were already four labourers' cottages and plots on her holding; that the acquisition of the plot would deprive her of the only passage from the public road to the field in which the site had been selected; that one of the four cottages referred to was in the occupation of applicant's father, a widower, aged about 70 years, with whom the applicant resided. A cottage and plot had been marked out for applicant's sister and her husband, and there would then be only applicant and his father in the existing cottage. One of the four existing cottages on her lands had only a half-acre allotment, and she was willing to consent to an additional half-acre being taken for this cottage, or alternatively, she would consent to a cottage and plot being substituted on another part of her holding.

Mr. J. L. Keane, solr., represented the owner and occupier.

CONVEYING MILK.

Applicant, examined by Mr. Hodnett, stated he was an agricultural labourer, working for three or four farmers in the district, conveying milk to the creamery for the past three years. He was married and had a wife and three children. He had no house of his own, and lived with his father. His wife and children resided together.

In answer to Mr. Keane, the witness said he was not a contractor. He was paid a half-penny per gallon for conveying the milk of these four farmers to the creamery. His father was not getting the old age pension. He did not want witness in the house.

Mrs. Doyle, the occupier, stated, in reply to Mr. Keane, that she had 188 acres of land of which 100 were arable. She had no objection to giving the applicant a half-acre allotment elsewhere on her land.

Dan Foley, the occupier of one of the four cottages on Mrs. Doyle's holding, appeared and objected to the site being given to the applicant where marked, which was beside his (witness's) cottage.

Asked by the Inspector what his objection was, witness replied: "If he gets the cottage where marked, I cannot get the land it is marked on. I do not want the cottage put there."

Inspector—You do not want him as a neighbour? Witness—I have four neighbours beside me and I do not want anymore. I would have no place for my hens if this site were taken here.

Inspector—I see what you want, you want the place for your hens to wander at will.

The Inspector said he would inspect the alternative site offered.

A SUITABLE PASSAGE.

David Conney, Ballykilly, applied for a cottage and plot on the lands of Mr. Hubert H. Ryall, Ballyglasson House, Killeagh.

Mr. Hodnett stated that the occupier had no objection, but required that a suitable passage be left at the northern side of the proposed plot from the gate into the field in which the plot was selected.

The applicant stated he was a farm labourer employed by Mr. Ryall. He lived with his father-in-law and had three in family.

Wm. Shanahan, Knockadoon, applied for a cottage and plot on the lands of Eamonn Lige, Glenawilling, in the Kilmacdonagh Electoral Division.

The applicant was not in attendance and John Lynch, Knockadoon, who was also an applicant, gave evidence on his behalf. The applicant he said, was a fisherman who had six in family. He was a British naval pensioner. When not employed at the fishing he worked as an agricultural labourer.

The occupier wrote the Minister stating he had no objection, but willingly consented to the compulsory acquisition of the plot to enable him to pay his rent and rates. He was a poor man, and hoped his case would be considered, as he was served with a fifteen days' notice from the sheriff to pay his annuity.

Inspector—There is no objection in this case. The occupier only wants to get the money for the site as quickly as he can.

MEDICAL EVIDENCE.

Certificates as to unsuitable condition of the houses at present occupied by the applicants were proved by Drs. Kennedy, M.O.H., Youghal Dispensary District, and Dr. O'Brien, M.O.H. Killeagh.

BUTTER 2/6 A POUND.

SERIOUS SHORTAGE IN SOUTH AFRICA

Butter is selling at half-a-crown a pound in many Johannesburg shops, regardless of grade, and even then very little is obtainable.

Unless there is early rain the shortage promises to grow more acute, and public opinion condemns the Government policy of compelling over-export and the selling of butter in Britain at prices far below those obtainable in South Africa.

FUNCTIONS OF LIME.

Some plants cannot tolerate more than a certain degree of acidity, but there is a great deal of variation in the resistance of plants to acid conditions. Indeed, there is distinct evidence that many crops grow best in slightly acid soils.

The Condition Known as Sourness. It is, perhaps, comforting to know that, whatever the causes of the condition known as "sourness," it can generally be ameliorated, if not cured, by the application of lime.

- 1. It reduces acidity or entirely neutralises it.
2. It prevents substances like aluminium having a harmful effect on plant growth, either by rendering them insoluble or by giving greater viscosity to the plant.
3. In some soils it causes the plant to absorb a greater amount of nutrient elements such as potassium.

How Lime is Lost

The maintenance of the supply of calcium in a soil is, therefore, of great importance, and almost as much attention should be paid to it as to the maintenance of the nitrogen, phosphorus, and phosphate supplies.

The Need of Preliminary Experiment.

The exact amount of lime which should be added to a soil in order to remove sourness or to maintain fertility depends upon several factors, and is a subject upon which it is impossible to give accurate advice.

Catch Crop for Early Spring.

NOW IS THE TIME TO SOW WINTER VETCHES FOR EARLY SPRING. THEY CAN BE MIXED WITH EITHER RYE OR OATS AND MAKE A VERY PLENTIFUL CROP WHEN FEEDING IS SCARCE. WE ADVISE OUR CUSTOMERS TO SOW EARLY IN ORDER TO GET THE FULL BENEFIT.

PRICES ARE VERY LOW AND WILL GIVE WONDERFUL RESULTS.

HARPUR BROS., SEED MERCHANTS, 48 The Quay, Waterford.

deal can be done by applying dressings of lime to small portions of the soil showing signs of sourness in order to test whether the return obtained is worth the expense involved.

DEATH OF MR. PATK. HAYDEN, MELLERAY.

The death of Mr. Patrick Hayden, Fiddaun, Melleray, which recently occurred at the early age of 55 years has caused sincere regret.

He was a quiet, hardworking and most industrious farmer, and a member of a highly-respected family, and was held in very high esteem by all who knew him.

He was brother of Sister M. Ignatius, Convent of Perpetual Adoration, Devon, and was brother-in-law of the Most Rev. John Coleman, D.D., Bishop of Armidale, Australia, and of Mother M. Teresa, Dominican Order, Cape Town, South Africa.

The funeral took place to the new cemetery, Cappoquin and was attended by a very large number of the general public.

The last prayers at the graveside were read by Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., Cappoquin.

The chief mourners were:—Mrs. Hayden (widow); Miss Alice Hayden, (daughter); Matthew and John Hayden (brothers); the Misses Mary and Ellen Hayden (sisters); William Coleman, Melleray (father-in-law); Mrs. Coffey, Melleray, Patrick and John Coffey, do.; Mrs. Tobin, Monalour, etc., (cousins and relatives).—R.I.P.

AN ENJOYABLE WEEK'S ENTERTAINMENT.

Not for many years have the people of Cappoquin been treated to such a high-class feast of dramatic and variety entertainment as they enjoyed recently during the engagement of the talented Ewing Taylor's Dramatic and Variety Company.

A free dance was given after the performance each night, and on Saturday night an interesting waltzing competition was held for which Mr. Taylor awarded two pretty silver cups to the winning partners.

Thirteen couples took part in the competition, including several well-known experts from Dungarvan, Tallo and other places, the test dance being an old-time waltz, but despite all "foreign" competition, we are glad to be able to say that the two cups were kept in Cappoquin, the winners being Miss "Tiny" Conway, Dromana, and Mr. Martin Murray, Cappoquin, who outclassed all by their graceful and perfect motion in the old-time waltz.

Mr. Taylor is holding a similar entertainment in Dungarvan on Saturday night which should attract all the best dancers in the "Old Boro."

It is a remarkable tribute to the sport-loving propensities of the people of Cappoquin that while the Boathouse Hall at one end of the town was crowded for the Dramatic entertainment, on Sunday night the Technical School at the other end was also crowded for the enjoyable Whist Drive and Dance, which proves that wherever else depression or pessimism prevails, "we're not down-hearted yet" at the "Old Cornerstone."
