Dungarvan Urban Council.

Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at a special meeting of the above on Tuesday. Others present were—Messrs. T. McCarthy, S. Hayes, P. Byrne, P. O'Dwyer, M. Connors, J. Dahill, M. Clancy, J. Butler, J. J. Crotty, J. F. Foley, J. Christopher, P. Quann, J. Mansfield.

The meeting was called to consider the following report from Dr. Casey:—

I have now completed my house inspection being assisted by the Sanitary Sub. Officer, of the following streets:—
(1) Thompson's Lane, 10 houses; 59 inhabitants; average per house 5.9.
(2) Castle Street (a) 7 10 houses; 35 inhabitants; average No. per house 6.33.
(3) Strand Street, 14 houses; 60 inhabitants; average per house 4.28.
(4) Cross Strand Street, 6 houses; 28 inhabitants; average per house 4.66.
(5) Lower Strand Street, 20 houses; 86 inhabitants; average per house 4.33.
(6) Buttery Street (a) 14/20 houses; 92 inhabitants; average per house 4.55.
Buttery Street (b) 6 houses.

All the above houses consist of stone-masonry with slated roofs with no sanitary conveniences of any kind, very small back yard. Each house is divided by a timber partition into a bedroom and kitchen with a loft over the bedroom. In houses where this loft is, the height from the ceiling to floor is not more than 7 feet. The windows are small with ventilation and light very deficient. In most cases the floors are of clay with no means to prevent the ground air and ground dampness from entering the houses.

(1) THOMPSON'S LANE—This lane is very dark and can get only very little sun and air, being very narrow and being bounded on one side by a high corn store. These houses are above-ground level of floors being below road surface. Roofs bad, windows sashes and doors decayed. In my opinion, this lane is so cramped for space that when these houses now in occupation will be demolished it cannot be used as building site for human habitation.

(2) CASTLE STREET (a) Seven houses in this street are hopeless, clay floors, old leaking roofs, decayed doors and sashes. Windows small, much overcrowding, some of these houses do not cover more than 20 feet x 20 feet x 15 feet high and act as a house for as many as eight persons. The back yards are hopelessly insufficient, containing no sanitary conveniences of any kind. There will be very little room for developing this street when the present hovels are demolished.

CASTLE STREET (3) (b)—Houses have recently been repaired, but have no sanitary conveniences of any kind, cemented floors, loft and bedroom. Much overcrowding for size; not sufficiently large to house the present number of inhabitants, but when other neighbouring houses are demolished they would give more employment. Another aspect to be considered was the specification. The loan on the houses in Loughmore was for 35 years. Would the new houses last that time? It would be well to find this out before getting on with a big scheme. He would agree to acquire that amount of land.

The Chairman said it would be a bad policy to acquire land and to hold it. He thought that they should build on the land at once. He didn't see any great advantage in building in small batches.

Mr. Clancy referred to the building of big schemes and said there was too much rush about them in confining them to a certain time limit. If they were extended over a longer period they would give more employment.

Mr. McCarthy—In the last scheme, I wanted 100 per cent. local labour, but I was beaten on it.

Mr. Clancy—All skilled labour from the town was employed in the last scheme.

Mr. O'Dwyer—I don't think so. Chairman—I saw some skilled men walking about the town at the time.

Mr. Butler—He was allowed 10 per cent.

Mr. McCarthy—The work was for Dungarvan and Dungarvan should get it. There are as good workmen in Dungarvan as anywhere.

Mr. Connors—Tradesmen from Dungarvan are working in other places. After all, they're not foreigners. I thought all the available men in Dungarvan were working.

Mr. McCarthy—They were not.

Mr. Connors—Did you find out the reason?

Mr. McCarthy—It wasn't my business.

Mr. Connors—We can't compel the contractor to take them.

Mr. McCarthy—I hold that 100 per cent. local labour should be employed. The Dungarvan workmen are as good as any in Ireland.

streets or any streets you may deem necessary, I shall be always pleased to meet your request. You will notice that I have confined my activities to Dungarvan. I am doing so as you have in Dungarvan some terrible hovels with much overcrowding calling for immediate attention, whereas in Abbeyside housing conditions are much better. You have overcrowding and some insanitary houses there also. I have already made a report re Abbeyside and my recommendations on same have not yet been put in operation.

The Chairman said that they were all agreed that a scheme was necessary and the first thing to consider was the site. He was of the opinion that the Council should build on a new site.

Mr. Butler said he agreed with the Chairman, that the Council should acquire virgin soil to build on. Some of the sites that would be available when the Slum Areas would be cleared could be used to build a better class of house; houses that would command a higher rent.

The Chairman here read the report and explained that in all 80 houses were condemned in the report of which 71 were totally unfit for human habitation and 9 could be put right.

Mr. Dahill—I propose we start with a scheme of 100 houses. In Boreenatra we could use the site to build a better class of house. It is a good site. This new houses could be on the same style as the Loughmore ones.

Mr. Butler referred to the report on the Boreenatra houses and said that it was a pity that all the houses in this area were not in the report. The whole area should be cleared. If some of the houses were allowed to remain it would destroy the value of the site.

Chairman—No doubt, they will destroy the site.

Mr. Butler—I don't think that 100 houses are too many. In the last scheme 100 houses were to be built, but the Department brought down something about the density to the acre. In some places they allowed 20 houses to the acre. In most places there were 15 to the acre. 10 was considered a good thing. We didn't get 10 houses to the acre. I suggest that we advertise for sites. We can only proceed in steps and the first step is to advertise for the sites of from 10 to 12 acres, or 10 to 15, which could be in lots.

Chairman—I suggest 10 to 12 acres. We would be safe in saying that.

Mr. Butler—It is the intention of the Council to build on this side of the river. I suggest that the Council should build on this side.

Chairman—In Dr. Casey's report the people in Abbeyside are better accommodated.

Mr. Butler—Make it clear that no land will be taken only on this side of the river.

Mr. Clancy referred to the building of big schemes and said there was too much rush about them in confining them to a certain time limit. If they were extended over a longer period they would give more employment.

Mr. McCarthy—In the last scheme, I wanted 100 per cent. local labour, but I was beaten on it.

Mr. Clancy—All skilled labour from the town was employed in the last scheme.

Mr. O'Dwyer—I don't think so. Chairman—I saw some skilled men walking about the town at the time.

Mr. Butler—He was allowed 10 per cent.

Mr. McCarthy—The work was for Dungarvan and Dungarvan should get it. There are as good workmen in Dungarvan as anywhere.

Mr. Connors—Tradesmen from Dungarvan are working in other places. After all, they're not foreigners. I thought all the available men in Dungarvan were working.

Mr. McCarthy—They were not.

Mr. Connors—Did you find out the reason?

Mr. McCarthy—It wasn't my business.

Mr. Connors—We can't compel the contractor to take them.

Mr. McCarthy—I hold that 100 per cent. local labour should be employed. The Dungarvan workmen are as good as any in Ireland.

Mr. Connors—Yes, and there are some bad ones there too.

Mr. Clancy said that a contractor always had key-men to supervise the work. These men were experts. In the last scheme the Council allowed 90 per cent. local labour.

Mr. Butler said it would be bad business if there wasn't a time limit. In the tender for the last scheme, there was a lower one than that accepted, but the period was longer. Regarding that scheme there was no complaint about the labour.

Mr. McCarthy—Who put down the railings at the new houses? They were men from the city of Waterford. It's funny if a local man could not drive a stake in the ground.

Mr. Butler—There was no complaint made.

Chairman—This can be discussed again.

A discussion then followed on the type of houses. Mr. Connors pointed out that the only complaint about the new houses was that the fire place was not suitable for big pots.

The B.S. explained that there was provision made for that in the houses.

Mr. Crotty said that he thought the rafters in the houses were somewhat light and suggested heavier ones.

The B.S. agreed.

Mr. Clancy referred to the design of house and spoke of concrete roofs and using brick instead of mass concrete. If they could get advice on the cost of these it may be cheaper.

Mr. Butler said that the present house in Loughmore was the cheapest in this country.

Mr. Clancy—Of course, I am not suggesting brick houses in a slate roof.

Mr. Christopher—It would not be fair to the other tenants anyway if we build another type of house.

After further discussion the Council decided to advertise for sites on the Dungarvan side of the Urban area to build houses on. The sites to be invited in lots.

The Council also decided to advertise for an Architect.

Mr. Dahill proposed that the Council advertise in the "Irish Press" only.

Mr. Mansfield, seconded.

Mr. Butler said it would not be advisable to do this. The Department wanted every advertisement to be given as wide a publicity as possible, and he would, therefore, propose that the advertisement be issued in the "Press," "Independent" and "Cork Examiner."

Mr. Crotty, seconded.

For a poll there voted:—
For 3 papers—Messrs. McCarthy, Byrne, Connors, Quann, Christopher, Foley, Crotty, Clancy, Butler—9.
Against—Messrs. O'Dwyer, Dahill, Mansfield, and the Chairman—4.

The Council decided to advertise in the 3 papers.

RELIEF GRANT
The question of a Relief Grant for Christmas was then discussed and the Council decided to send a deputation consisting of the Chairman, B.S., and Vice-Chairman (Mr. McCarthy) to the Minister regarding the matter.

CUMANN Na gCEILIDHE.
Patrons—The Local Clergy.
Chairman—Miss O'Callaghan, B.A.
Vice-Chairman—Eamonn Keyes, Hon. Treas.—Sean Delaney, N.T.; Hon. Sec. Conn Wall, N.T.

Committee—Misses O'Sullivan, N.T.; L. Keating, M. Neylon, N.T.; Messrs. J. O'Higgins, N.T.; J. O'Gorman, M. Brennock, N.T.

The above Club was organised for the promotion of Gaelic Culture and particularly Ceilidhe dancing.

At the inaugural meeting held in the Town Hall, on Thursday night, 22nd November, 26 members were present, and elected the above officers and Committee. A further meeting was held on the 2nd December. The Minutes of the previous meeting were read and signed. Sixty members were present. Interesting and enthusiastic discussions were a feature of the meeting. All have become members of Cumann na gCeilidhe. Friday night 7th inst, was decided on for the holding of the first Ceilidhe. Hours 8 p.m. to 10.30 p.m.

The Committee were highly gratified at the number of members who joined. They sincerely believe that it is but the nucleus of a bigger organisation.

The following resolution, proposed by Mr. Keyes, and seconded by Mr. Brennock, N.T., was unanimously passed:—

That we the members of Cumann na gCeilidhe express our sincere gratitude to the Dungarvan Urban District Council in giving the use of the Town Hall, free of charge one night weekly for the promotion of Irish Dancing and cordially invite all members to attend our Ceilidhe.

That a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Urban District Council and also inserted in the minutes of the Cumann.—Conn de Bhal, Runsidhe, Onor.

CARRICK-ONSUIR TANNERY PROJECT.
Carrick-ONSUIR Urban Council has decided to include in their housing scheme six up-to-date dwelling houses for the six Austrian experts who are to live in town and teach the making of fine leather at the new Tannery for Carrick-ONSUIR.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES.

CAPPOQUIN POINT-TO-POINT RACES

CHANGE OF DATE FOR FIXTURE

The date for the Cappoquin Point-to-Point Races, originally fixed for Thursday, February, 28th, has had to be changed to Thursday February, 14th owing to an important Show being held in Cork on the former date. Full details later.

CAPPOQUIN MARKET PRICES.

Turkeys, 7d. per lb.; geese, 4d. per lb.; fat chickens, 6d. per lb.; old fowl, 2/- to 2/6 per pair. Large quantities of turkeys, geese and fowl are being purchased at highest market prices by Messrs. J. O'Connor and Sons, Cappoquin, who announce in our advertisement columns this week that their principal market for turkeys for the Christmas trade will be held in Dungarvan, on next Tuesday, 11th inst., while large quantities of geese, chickens and fowl will be wanted by them at the Dungarvan market on Tuesday 13th inst., and also at their Cappoquin market, for which the best market prices will be paid.

PRICE OF PIGS—

The price of fat pigs at the Cappoquin Bacon Factory this week was 47/- per cwt. dead weight, being a decrease of 1/- on last week's price. Supplies of suitable pigs are keeping well up to the average, but a further decrease in prices is not unlikely in a short time.

THE FREE BEEF SCHEME—

There was great jubilation amongst the recipients of Home Assistance and the Unemployment Benefit last week, when the Free Beef Scheme came into force in this town.

On Tuesday, which is the usual day for paying Home Assistance, Miss Walsh, Home Assistance Officer distributed the eagerly-awaited documents. Seventy-one vouchers were issued in Cappoquin, for quantities of beef varying from 3 lbs. to 9 lbs. In each case, the total amount representing 350 lbs. or an average of nearly 5 lbs. in the case of each recipient. To one house alone, where there are two married families, and a single member of the same family drawing Unemployment Benefit, the huge quantity of 20 lbs. of beef was granted.

In several houses, where beef had been a luxury previously, miniature banquets were held last week-end, and on Thursday evening the calm November atmosphere was simply impregnated with the savoury odour of roast beef, which lent an air of unprecedented opulence amongst the poorer classes in the town, and would certainly make a stranger feel that the Irish Free State is a grand country to live in, after all the talk about poverty and depression. While one class in the community was thus revelling in free beef, the members of the purchasing public had a different tale to tell, as they had to pay an increased price of 2d. per lb. for their beef, the price having been raised from 8d. to 10d. per lb. in most cases.

Miss Walsh, Cappoquin, who is also the Home Assistance Officer for Lismore, issued 42 vouchers for free beef in that town on Friday, representing 250 lbs., which averaged nearly 6 lbs. per recipient.

Considering that Lismore has a much larger population than Cappoquin, and at present gives far less employment than the latter town, it is a strange anomaly that the recipients of Home Assistance there are little more than half the number in Cappoquin, while the amount of free beef distributed was exactly 100 lbs. less.

ROWING CLUB PRACTICE DANCE

Owing to the Boathouse Hall having been given over for the Dance for the Parochial Improvements Fund on next Sunday night, the weekly Practice Dance which should ordinarily have been held on that night will now be held on Saturday night, 9th inst., instead.

TREE CUTTING AND ROAD OBSTRUCTION.

Carrick-ONSUIR Urban Council at December monthly meeting adopted the resolution from Youghal U.D.C., condemning the cutting of trees, wires and telegraph poles, and obstructing the transit of motors and condemning such action as a campaign against the payment of rates and annuities.

CHRISTMAS FAIR DAY CHANGED

Carrick-ONSUIR Urban Council has made an order changing the December Fair from Thursday 27th to Thursday 20th December. It was pointed out that the 27th inst. would be the day following St. Stephen's Day, and would be unsuitable for the fair for all concerned.

Cappoquin Parochial Improvement Fund.

SUNDAY'S BIG ATTRACTIONS.

An unusually interesting programme of outdoor and indoor attractions has been arranged for Cappoquin on next Sunday, Dec., 9th, in aid of the Cappoquin Parochial Improvements Fund.

At 1.30 that day a Minor Hurling Match will be played in the Sports-field between St. Carthage's, Lismore, and "Blackwater Rovers," Cappoquin, followed at 2.45 p.m. by what should prove a thrilling Football Match between Fermoy (Minor Champions of Cork) and "Blackwater Rovers," Cappoquin, (Minor Champions of Waterford).

When these teams met in Cappoquin early this year an exceptionally fast and brilliant game ended in a draw at 41 points each, and as each team has since won the Minor Championships in its own county, next Sunday's contest will be really a test between Cork and Waterford Champions, so that this match should provide a splendid display of fast, clean and scientific football.

At 8 o'clock on Sunday night a Monster Whist Drive and Grand Drawing of Prizes will be held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, when the prizes to be offered for both events will be the most numerous and valuable yet offered in Cappoquin.

The tickets for the Whist Drive are only 2/6 each, and each ticket purchased at the door will entitle the holder to participate in the Prize Drawing, while special tickets will be sold in the Hall for further valuable prizes.

As free teas will be served to the players during the Drive, this will greatly add to the enjoyment of all, and we hope to see a large attendance of ladies and gentlemen present to participate in this delightful social function.

Commencing at 10 p.m. a grand dance will be held in the Boathouse Hall, for which tickets are only 1/3 each, (including tax), and as a sparkling programme of all the best dance music (including the ever-popular old-time waltzes, Barn dances, etc.) will be played by the "Nightingale Orchestra," Lismore, at full strength, this event should also be largely patronised, as it will prove a most enjoyable wind-up to one of the finest programmes of amusement ever before submitted on the one date in Cappoquin. Messrs. M. J. Sargent, P.C.; and J. P. Olden, Hon. Secs., are in charge of all the arrangements, so that everything is bound to be "O.K."

G. A. A.

EAST CORK HURLING.

YOUGHAL V. GURTROE.

Gurtroe fielded against the local team at Coppersley on Sunday. Up to the time of starting which was delayed 45 minutes by the rain, frequent showers were the order of the day. The result was that the pitch was in a badly sodden condition, with pools of water here and there, which rendered play very difficult. The teams seemed nicely balanced, especially during the first half which ended in even scores. Both wings played splendidly centering good balls. In the second half Youghal forged ahead and ended the match with a satisfactory margin to credit. The Rev. Dr. Twomey, C.C. Youghal, acted as referee, and kept things going without a hitch or delay.

With no wind to favour either side, Gurtroe got possession and invaded but Youghal defences proved equal. Up and down play followed, both teams going wide on several occasions. So well matched were they that 15 minutes elapsed before the ice was broken. The home team putting up the green flag. After another nice bout the visitors put in a neat point. Youghal added a minor to their score. Soon after Gurtroe landed a major, thereby levelling up matters. The score at half time was:

Resuming play, Youghal evidently put on a spurt, and within a short time from the throw in landed one goal after another. Some admirable up and down play ensued with spirited efforts on both sides to pierce their opponents' defence, but in vain, till finally Gurtroe after a tough struggle raised the green flag. This was their only score to their opponents 4 in the second half. The final figures being:

YOUGHAL 5-1
GURTROE 2-1

MORE HOUSES FOR CARRICK-ONSUIR.

Carrick-ONSUIR Council has accepted the contract of Mr. J. O'Reilly, Clonmel, to build 32 four-roomed houses at a total cost of £8,486 10s. 0d. The houses are to be built in mass concrete with tiled roofs and will have indoor water supply and flush lavatories. The average cost per house will be £260.

The Council decided to consider at a later meeting the clearing of the slum areas and putting the tenants into the 47 houses recently completed.

CARRICK-ONSUIR TOWN CLERK'S ILLNESS.

Carrick-ONSUIR Urban Council after having considered a letter from Mr. Jas. Verrington, Town Clerk, resigning his position, owing to ill-health. The members of the Council expressed their deep regret at Mr. Verrington's illness and their appreciation of his 35 years of efficient and devoted service to the town. The Council decided to ask Mr. Verrington to defer his resignation and to take six months sick leave.

TALLOW COURSING.

Tallow Annual Coursing meeting on Wednesday was most successful. With plenty good hares and high-class dogs a great day's coursing was had.

The National Breeders Trial Stake was won by J. Regan's Editor's Gift. The Janeville Stakes by D. J. O'Mahony's Acorn Cup. Mr. T. Veale's Clonea Steak won the Tallow Stake. The Moorehill Stake was divided between J. Barry's Welcome Caller and J. Dunne's Fiery Frank, and the Sapperton Stakes was divided between T. Hurley's Roseville Prince and D. McCarthy's Ringaway. The Sapperton (No. 2) Stake was won by D. Drohan's Ballyrafter Flier.

WOMAN WANTS TEETH.
Dublin Board of Assistance issued vouchers for 24,582 lbs. of free meat last week, and this week the total distribution will be 24,676 lbs.

Some persons, it was stated, had given back the vouchers, saying that they had not eaten meat for some time, and that they were no use to them.

When a woman's application for a set of teeth was submitted, Mr. Gately remarked, amidst laughter—That proves what I said last week—that these people will all be wanting new teeth to chew the free beef.

THE GOLDEN GOOSE.

Mor Polizer, a shopkeeper bought a fast goose in the market for about 3/8. When his wife cut it open she found two teeth of solid gold in its gizzard. They sold the gold for thirty shillings.

BLACKWATER FISHERIES.

YOUGHAL COMPLAINT

LIFE-SAVING APPARATUS IN FISHING BOATS.

DEPARTMENT'S LETTER

At the monthly meeting of the Lismore or No. 4 Board of Blackwater Fishery Conservators at Tallow there attended:—Messrs. J. Kennedy, Chairman; Joseph Power, Wm. O'Neill, M. J. Sheehan, Capt. R. Holroyd Smyth, E. E. Hey, W. Baldwin, R. G. Annesley, Major Longfield and A. Vavison.

The Clerk said he had received a letter from the Department, addressed to himself, informing him that the Minister for Agriculture had received a copy of a resolution passed by the Royal National Lifeboat Institution (Youghal Branch) alleging that the equipment for salmon fishing yawls in Youghal Harbour was deficient in life-saving apparatus, and requesting him to take steps to have them compulsorily fitted with the most suitable life-saving appliances.

The resolution further stated that loss of life, attributable to that, was an unfortunate recurrence, and the Minister would accordingly be obliged if he (the Clerk) could inform him whether he was aware of any lives having been lost on that account.

In reply he had written, stating that it was correct to say that lives had been lost as a result of deficient boats. During his term of office he was aware of at least eight lives being lost, and some saved happily by fishermen being adjacent to the scene.

The Chairman said that all the Youghal yawls were built by experienced builders.

Mr. Power said he agreed to a certain extent with the Clerk's statement. Some boats go outside the harbour when they should not.

The Chairman said the boats fishing in the Bay outside were usually bigger.

Major Longfield asked about the lines on the gunwales or the battens?

Mr. Baldwin—They might interfere with the handling of the nets.

The Clerk—No. My suggestion was that the lines should be run from the second thwart forward.

Mr. Annesley thought the Clerk had answered the Department's letter very well.

The Clerk thought it might be well to have an expression of opinion from the Board.

Mr. Annesley agreed with the Clerk's suggestions. There should be some check on boats going outside in bad weather.

Major Longfield—The Clerk gave his personal opinion, and it is a very good one. We ought approve of it.

The Chairman—Accidents scarcely ever happen in the harbour.

Mrs. Barry Sullivan, Mallow, wrote thanking the Board for their vote of sympathy on the death of her husband. It was a consolation to know that he had been held in such high esteem by everyone.

ability of asking the Department to issue a by-law making it compulsory to have the owner's name and address put on all boats on the Blackwater. Almost every boat on the river, from Carridown, had been torn from its moorings, chains broken, oars sent adrift and sometimes the boat scuttled. Recently a gillie stated to him that a suspicious boat had been fishing. He sent a report in to the Inspector, but he happened to be away, and the gillie and a bailiff went and seized the boat. Next day the owner turned up and accused him (Major Longfield) of larceny (laughter). He immediately took steps at his own expense to have the boat returned to the owner. If the name and address had been on the boat, that would not have happened. The Fisheries Act required every boat used for fishing purposes to have the name and address on.

Mr. Power—That is already done in the salt water. Mr. Annesley—Boats with no name came down, and fished my waters. After further discussion, Major Longfield gave notice that the Department be asked to pass a by-law ordering that all boats on the Blackwater, the fresh as well as the salt water portions, should have the names and addresses of the owner's marked indelibly thereon, in conformity with Section 81 of the Fisheries Act, whether used for fishing or not.

Mr. Baldwin called attention to the fact that there were seals in the Blackwater, up as far as Cooneen. The Clerk said they were paying £1 for every seal snout produced. The official marksmen would be re-appointed on January 16th.

A member pointed out that a seal might be shot and sink, so that the snout could not be got.

The Clerk—That can't be helped. The Chairman—The seals are up farther than ever this year.

Mr. Brazier's Evidence. Major Longfield called attention to the evidence given by Mr. Brazier before the Fisheries Commission, and to his subsequent letter in the "Examiner."

The Clerk—That was in answer to Mr. Power.

Mr. Power—Not me (laughter). Major Longfield said they didn't know what evidence Mr. Brazier was to give, and therefore, they couldn't approve of it. He took exception to that statement and had written a letter to the "Examiner" to that effect.

The Chairman—Isn't this a matter between Mr. Brazier and the Major? Mr. Brazier did his best.

Mr. Annesley—It was absolutely incorrect for Mr. Brazier to say that he had their approval for all his statements before the Commission. We don't approve of the suggestions that nets should be longer, or that the season should open earlier.

The Chairman—I think we ought thank Mr. Brazier for his action. Mr. Annesley asserted that longer nets and earlier opening of the season would kill all the fish in the river.

Major Longfield quoted returns showing that 1884 was the last season of good fishing, which he attributed to the fact that night fishing was then started.

Mr. Power—The fishing in the tidal waters is practically over in May. The Chairman—The rods are for sport. Net fishing provides a livelihood for the poorer men.

Mr. Annesley said the upper men paid rates to preserve the river. If they made a rent, they brought money into the country. Did they want to kill all the fish at Youghal?

The Chairman—I don't want that. Mr. Annesley—We want to preserve the fish for you.

The Chairman said some rodmen got 106 fish. He had four boats and didn't kill 100.

Mr. Power—The fishing in the tidal waters for the past four years has been hopeless.

Mr. Sheehan—If they opened the fishing in January, they would not have a fish in the river in a couple of years.

Major Longfield said that in one certain year that rodmen killed 94,000 lbs. while the net men took 505,000 lbs.

Mr. Power proposed that they approve of Mr. Brazier's action before the Commission.

Mr. Baldwin seconded. Major Longfield—Is not that a matter for a notice of motion? It is not right to spring such a proposition on the meeting.

Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders' Shorthorn.

Mr. D. Dempsey, Chairman, presided at the annual meeting of the above at the Courthouse, Dungarvan, on Saturday. There was a big attendance of Cow-Testing Association Presidents and Supervisors.

RESOLUTION RE REJECTION OF ENTRIES FOR SHOW.

A discussion arising from the previous minutes, re the advisability of passing a resolution empowering the Committee to reject entries from certain breeders and of certain breeds of cattle took place.

The Secretary said the resolution was suggested owing to the number of Hereford Bulls which were getting wrong colour calves.

INABILITY TO ATTEND

The Secretary read a letter from Mr. J. D. Palmer, Auctioneer, Waterford, expressing regret at being unable to attend the meeting owing to having to conduct an auction in Waterford.

STATEMENT OF ACCOUNTS AND BALANCE SHEET.

The Secretary read the Statement of Accounts from the Show and Sale held at Waterford last March, which showed total receipts £149 16s. 6d., with expenditure £142 odd, leaving a balance to credit of £7 10s. 8d.

The Secretary—You have heard the statement of accounts read, have any member anything to say.

Mr. Drohan—The expense of preparing the Saleyard is very high. There is £20 and £4 10s.

Secretary—It may cost more this year. I hear all the cattle pens are removed now.

Replying to Mr. T. Lynch, the Secretary said entry fees for the March Sale amounted to £66 7s. 6d.

Mr. Lynch—There is an item of a guinea for auctioneer's Clerk. We questioned that last year also. Should not that be a matter for the Clerk?

Mr. O'Sullivan—£20 for preparing the Show Yard is a big amount. We are all proud of the Waterford Show and Sale, the great success it has been but I am afraid we can't continue with such a credit balance.

Chairman—The expenses certainly are very high. Mr. Lynch—There is a loss on the Supplementary Sale.

Mr. O'Sullivan—A loss of only about one pound. Mr. Lynch—Why should there be a loss?

Mr. O'Sullivan—I believe it is the first year there was a loss on the Supplementary Sale.

Mr. Lynch—There was a loss before this.

over a most inaccurate statement. The Clerk said there had been an exhaustive inquiry into that question of an earlier opening and the application for it was refused. They were now asking for the same thing again.

The Chairman—We have a different Government now. The Clerk said they might anticipate some extraordinary and unpleasant changes as a result of the recent Commission.

The Chairman—I take it the proposition as passed. Major Longfield—Take us as leaving the meeting, Mr. Reporter (laughter).

The Chairman—You are here still is there any amendment? Mr. Sheehan—I approve of Major Longfield's action.

Mr. Power—There is no objection. Major Longfield—It is most irregular.

Mr. Baldwin—We are appointed to look after the interests of the fishermen, and we'll do it.

The Clerk said that Mr. Brazier gave the evidence before the meeting referred to was held, and they were therefore, unaware of it.

Secretary—In 1933 there was, I believe, a loss of £3 9s. 6d.

Mr. O'Sullivan—Very few members of the Association take any interest in the supplementary sale.

Mr. Lynch—There were only five Waterford Bulls at last year's supplementary sale.

Mr. Hallidan—I don't like to be interfering, but I must say some of the charges are very high. You have an item of £3 4s. for billposting. In Mallo we send out the bills to the Cow-Testing Supervisors, who get them displayed, so we loose nothing under this head.

Mr. Drohan—The billposting for this Sale extends over a wide area? Secretary—Yes.

Mr. Hallidan—It seems to me, the Clerk should be Mr. Palmer's business seeing that Mr. Palmer has auction fees. Then £20 for preparing Show Yard, seems a monstrosity. The association got out with a small credit balance this year, but they won't at the next Sale.

Mr. McConville, Touraneena C.T.A., asked if it is essential that the Show be held in Waterford and said Dungarvan would be more central for the County.

Chairman—Waterford is more central for the Counties of Wexford and Kilkenny.

Mr. Lynch—The arrangements are perfect in Palmer's Yard, but he is charging too much.

A general discussion took place on the possibility of finding alternative accommodation.

Mr. Hallidan suggested appointing a small Committee.

Mr. O'Sullivan agreed, and said if they got an alternative yard, they should try and run the sale at a profit.

Chairman—Would it not be as well to adjourn the matter and see if alternative accommodation could be got.

Mr. O'Sullivan suggested an advertisement in one of the Waterford papers for suitable accommodation.

Mr. Drohan—How about advertising for an Auctioneer who would supply suitable accommodation.

After some more discussion Mr. Drohan's suggestion was approved and the meeting also appointed a small Committee to look for suitable accommodation and if such is available the Association would appoint an Auctioneer to conduct the Sale.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Mr. D. Dempsey (outgoing) was unanimously elected Chairman; Mr. J. J. Drohan, Vice-Chairman; Mr. D. Coughlan, Treasurer; and Messrs. T. Lynch and T. Smyth as Joint Hon. Secs.

Mr. Kennedy (outgoing Hon. Sec.) although appealed to by all present to remain for another year, said he would do all he could to help the Association in every way, but that he could not keep on the Secretaryship for another year.

RECENT DEATHS.

Fortified by the rites of his Church, Mr. Michael Power, Ballylanceen, Kilmachomas, died in the City Hospital, Waterford, after a protracted illness, and at a comparatively young age. A quiet and unassuming neighbour, his demise is deeply deplored throughout these parts. His funeral cortege was of huge proportions, and he was laid to rest in Ballylanceen Churchyard on Friday of last week, following the celebration of Masses of Requiem for his soul by Rev. T. O'Shea, C.C., Ballylanceen and Rev. P. O'Farrell, C.C. Stradbally.—R.I.P.

A most respected resident of Bonmahon, in the person of Mr. John O'Neill, answered the Great Call on the 28th ult. Every house in the village and district was represented at the funeral to Ballylanceen Churchyard, whereat interment was made amid many manifestations of profound sorrow—Peace to his soul.

FAT CATTLE—

Sellers of fat cattle should be careful to insist upon obtaining the minimum fixed price of 25/- per cwt., live weight for their fat stock under the provisions of the Slaughter of Cattle and Sheep Act. The Secretary to the Minister of Agriculture has issued an ultimatum to cattle exporters informing them that unless the provisions of the Act are rigidly complied with, and that if cattle producers did not get "a square deal," the Minister was fully prepared to set up a Government trading body for that purpose.

Sellers will in many cases find it difficult to judge the approximate live weight of their fat stock. It would pay them to have such beasts weighed in public markets where approved weighing machines are provided. Though the new Act is not likely to effect any improvement in the prices of cattle, other than fat stock, it will be welcomed in respect of the latter, and all sellers of such beasts should insist upon obtaining the prices scheduled under the Act. It would be a great advantage to the farming community if the Government bounties made available for bacon, butter and other agricultural produce could be made more effective in the interests of the agricultural community. General complaint has been made that these bounties do not reach the pockets of the producers. There is, of course, another side to that question also, which the responsible Minister ought to explain. In the case of these bounties, the Minister ought to insist upon seeing that the producers get "a square deal" as in the operations of the Slaughter of Cattle and Sheep Act.

ROBERT A. MERRY & CO., LTD. DUNGARVAN

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

PLOT HOLDERS. GAELIC DANCING.

Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at the meeting of the above. Others present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, M. Clancy, J. J. Crotty, J. Christopher, M. Connors, J. Mansfield, P. Byrne, P. O'Dwyer, S. Hayes, P. Quann, J. F. Foley.

PAYMENTS

Payments passed for the week were General Account £10 11s. 8d.; Harbour Account £1 16s. 6d.

UNEMPLOYMENT PLOT HOLDERS.

Mr. McCarthy said they held a meeting of the plotholders on Tuesday. He was sorry to say that only two members of the Council attended. The Chairman told him that he would not be able to attend; but every member didn't do the same. Every member present here in the room should be there. He explained to the meeting on Tuesday as well as he could, the meaning of the Act, whereby unemployed people could get plots in the area to till and cultivate. Everyone present at the meeting were agreeable to take a plot. There was a rumour, however, going around, that any man who took a plot would be cut 3/- in his Home Assistance; that was a lie.

The Chairman explained that these plots were for the men to grow vegetables, etc., for themselves. They could not however, offer them for sale.

Mr. McCarthy—I want this to be understood that any one in receipt of Home Assistance will not be cut if they take plots. Continuing, Mr. McCarthy said that a Committee was formed at the meeting and applications for plots were invited. Mr. McCarthy then referred to the local Labour Exchange as one of the members raised the question of men getting Unemployment Benefit, and said that the men getting this money were not fairly treated there. There was no special time in the morning for men to go there and sign. The hours were from 10 to 5 and not from 10 to 1 as were at this office.

Mr. Dahill apologised for not being able to attend the meeting.

Mr. Clancy said that he understood that this was to be a joint meeting of the Council and the unemployed. He was prepared to go to the meeting, but when he saw the posters they stated that it was a meeting of the Unemployed. For that reason he did not go. There was no notice on the posters of the Urban Council attending.

Mr. McCarthy—It was to be a joint meeting.

Chairman—I understood that it was to be a joint meeting of the Council and the unemployed.

Mr. Crotty—The posters were wrong so.

Mr. Hayes—The meeting was similar to that which was convened to discuss an industry for the town.

Mr. Clancy—I'd like to have the meaning of the Act explained. If a man takes a plot will he be assessed? I am not satisfied with that. I was assured by country men in country districts that they were assessed.

Chairman—The circular letter which accompanied the copy of the Act explains everything.

The Chairman then read the section dealing with the point Mr. Clancy raised, which showed that such people in receipt of Home Assistance would not be assessed.

Mr. Clancy—What is the procedure? Chairman—That is also explained in the circular. This matter will come up again I believe.

APPLICATION FROM V.S. FOR INCREASE

An application for an increase of salary was read from Mr. R. P. Byrne, V.S. In the application, Mr. Byrne, pointed out that his duties had been increased very much owing to the new Minute Dirt Test Order. He asked for an increase of £30.

Mr. Dahill—How long are you in office?

Mr. Byrne—Since 1926.

Mr. Connors—What is the salary?

Mr. Byrne—£20. I am looking for £50 that is the minimum laid down.

Mr. Crotty—That is not a salary at all. I have great pleasure in proposing that he get £50.

Mr. O'Dwyer, seconded.

Clerk—It can't be dealt with to night. It requires notice of motion.

Mr. Crotty handed in the required notice of motion.

Chairman—This is subject to sanction of course?

Clerk—Yes.

GAELIC DANCING

A deputation of Misses O'Callaghan, B.A., and O'Sullivan, N.T., and Messrs P. J. O'Higgins, N.T., and C. Wall, N.T., came before the meeting regarding a request for the use of the Town Hall for one night each week free so as to teach Irish dancing and hold Cellidhes.

Mr. O'Higgins, on behalf of the deputation said that they were starting this movement so as to promote and foster Gaelic Dancing and Culture in the town. It was purely an Educational matter and was non-political. It was not initiated for any remunerative or financial purposes; it was solely for the promotion of Gaelic Culture and Dancing. They had not much assets starting, and would be very thankful if the Council would grant their request.

The deputation then withdrew.

Mr. Quann—They are entitled to every consideration. These young people who were intending to do this work, were doing it to uphold an old tradition. There was no similarity between them and other parties looking for the hall. They were trying to safeguard their old Irish wholesome traditions of Gaelic Dancing and Culture, and to counteract what was coming in from foreign countries. No matter how they differed politically, they were all agreeable on upholding their National tradition.

Mr. Dahill—Some months ago I was at an Irish dance and it would do any man's heart good to watch it. "Jazz" was ruining the country.

Mr. Byrne—"Jazz" should be banned.

Mr. Foley said that such a project should be supported.

Mr. Clancy—These young people are doing something which is long overdue and should be encouraged in every way.

Chairman—I think the Council are unanimous about this. Afterwards in a year or so we can put a tariff on them.

After further discussion the Hall was granted free for 12 months on the proposition of Mr. Crotty.

APPLICATIONS.

A number of other applications for the use of the hall were referred to the Clerk.

COMPLAINT AGAINST CHILDREN'S CONDUCT AT NEW HOUSES

Arising out of a request from a tenant of the New Houses at Loughmore for a right of way to the back of his house, Mr. Clancy said that he got no fewer than six complaints from tenants there. They complained that children living there had pulled down some of the railings around the houses. One railing had been completely pulled down. There were terrible conditions up there now. An old man living there had been fired at by children who threw stones and sods at him. A tree growing in one of the gardens had been pulled up. If the children were complained, one got nothing but abuse from their parents. They were young once and inclined to mischief, but all the same this kind of thing should be curbed and something should be done to prevent this conduct. For this reason, he would suggest that the Council get a report of the damage and that the Guards be asked to co-operate with the Council in stopping this. If a patrol of Guards patrolled the place every night it might stop it. If something was not done now there might be endless trouble up there later.

Mr. Byrne—If you want to prevent it, put two new lights there.

It was agreed to ask the co-operation of the Guards and get the complaints from the tenants themselves before the Council.

RESOLUTION CONDEMNING SABOTAGE

A resolution from the Youghal U.D.C.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS.

ROLL ON CHRISTMAS!

"At Christmastime," said the tabloid-sucking cynic, "veracity is at its nadir and voracity is at its zenith." The genial creature meant, of course, that during the approaching festival we shall all be telling lies to each other, and especially to children, and that we shall be "a-stuffin' of ourselves" with huge chunks of indigestible viands. But were the cynic's friend (if any) to tell him exactly what they think of him and of his snarling attitude towards life, he would probably agree that the truth is sometimes a very bitter pill, and calls for a merciful coat of sympathetic sugar, and he would cease to discount those kindly greetings which now pass current for that pure gold, of which, in most cases they are undoubtedly minted. Christmas has not been "tariffed" off the calendar, nor has its kindly sterling slumped on the Social Exchange. And isn't it obvious that a man who supports a semi-less tabloid is as ill-fitted to dogmatise about diet as Mr. George Bernard Shaw is to dogmatise about love and to denounce romance in the light of his confession that he passed through all the years of his youth without experiencing a single puncture from Dame Cupid's dart? Such cheek for those two chaps (bad scraws to 'em) to open their dogmatic mouths on subjects about which they are abysmally ignorant!!!

THE "SEAT" SAFE—

Whether true or otherwise there is a rumour current within a radius of "fourteen parasangs" from Crotty's Rock that a very dapper member of the Dail was chased by a young bull when in his rural constituency not more than two moons since. It is further stated that without any regard for his social dignity the bully beast brought its horns into contact with the "Dailmentarian's" anatomy, and that he returned home in quite an angry and indignant frame of mind. Of course the affair is outside the jurisdiction of the Minister for Agriculture, but all "in the know" would show no surprise if a question is addressed to him in the initial session of the New Year. After all a T.D. (the one referred to does not belong to the Deise, thank goodness!) should be immune from such an attack, but then, of course, it will be asked by way of offset, "How was the bull to know?" Animals are not always discriminating. It is gratifying to add that the dear Deputy's "seat" is not in danger.

AN ADAPTION —

Children here in Kilmathomas have an unshaking belief in a real, live, all-the-year-round Santa Claus. The gentleman is a lover of the Decies, and time and again the writer has seen him distribute small toys, pencils, sweets and other equally desirable sundries. He is known to a group of youngsters—or "youngsters," to put it to you "more simply and not less elegantly" (perhaps)—who run to meet him when he appears. Like Father O'Flynn, this every-day Santa has a wonderful way with him; there is no more popular dweller in the Deme and district. May his burial be not "enacted" while grass grows and water flows and crows stick out their tongues!

BUY NOW AND BY AND BY —

Some shop-windows are teeming with toys to-day. We had the curiosity to enquire about the evolution in toys and learned that there is little change in juvenile taste. The big air race has fired the imagination of gorse-needles, who must possess an aeroplane at any price. This and other toys of a constructional kind, are favourites. Girls remain static (vide the recently published Concise Oxford Dictionary, or Section II of the Lights Act) in their preference for the doll and the pram and the cradle. The doll, however, is more elaborately dressed than it used to be, and this in itself intensifies its appeal, for even in the child the feminine urge for nice apparel amounts to a craze. It is significant that about a decade and a half years ago a tomboy spirit was cultivated in many little circles, and the doll was partially eclipsed by roller-skates and scooter. But the inherent instinct for a baby doll is now dominant once more.

FOR SALE —

A few friends who lives out of sight of Ireland's Eye and who never forgets to remember "that memory and its mode of stimulation is a very complex affair, and that other things, as well as association and analogy, play their parts in recalling what is forgotten to our recollection"—awoke this week to find sticking up in his front garden a notice bearing the announcement that his house was for sale! This was news to him, so he investigated, and discovered that the notice had been removed from the garden of a neighbour's house. He promptly "transplanted" it. Evidently some small boys had been "working overtime" during the night! We wonder is this prank the 1934 equivalent to door-knocking.

"SOME SIGNS" —

Appropos your paragraph under the above caption in last week's number (a Kill-born correspondent writes)—I also saw an amusing one outside a barber's recently. It read: "Perms for one month only!" Incidentally, the local shoemaker is displaying at the moment a rather clever warning notice to the effect that "A cold in the head often starts in the feet!"

us that "Dutch Parties" are becoming extremely popular at the mouth of the Mahon. We must confess we were none the wiser. "What is a Dutch Party?" we asked. He explained that it is one at which boys and girls alike pay their way, no one must "stand." We wonder where the name comes from—perhaps an old Dutch custom!

MONET'S ART, HOW ARE YOU!

Sluttering sheep soup! but isn't the sub-joined the very limit?

Ballylanean Bean-a-Tighe: "Let's have a look at the bun."

WHY HE CLINGS TO LIFE—

During these difficult days when PLOUGH-NOTES (Thiggin Thu?) are scarcer than free meat vouchers in and out of Kilmathomas, and calls are being made from every side upon the financial resources of the husbandmen of bobbed-headed Banba, it is not surprising to find that many are unable to meet those demands, but seldom under such circumstances can an optimist be found similar to the one who wrote the following letter in response to an account which he had been asked to pay:—A Chara,—For the following reasons I am unable to pay your account for which you ask. I have been held up, held down, sand-bagged, walked upon, sat upon, flattened out and squeezed out by the Income Tax, the Spirit Tax, Tobacco Tax, the Beer Tax, and the Motor Tax, and by every Society, organisation and Club that the inventive mind of man can think of, to extract what I may or may not have in my possession for this thing, and that thing, and every other bally thing in town and country. The Government has governed my business till I don't know who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, examined, and re-examined, informed, required and commanded, so that I don't know who I am, where I am, or why I am here at all. All that I know is that I am supposed to be an inexhaustible supply of honey for every need, desire and hope of the human race, and because I will not go out and beg, borrow or steal money to give away I am cussed, discussed, boycotted, talked to, talked out, lied out, lied about, held up, rung up, hung up, robbed, and d—d near ruined. The only reason why I am clinging to life at all is to see what is going to happen next.—Yours sincerely,—OPTIMIST."

BREVITIES—

County Council workmen are this week engaged in carrying out improvements to the Main Street, Kilmathomas.

A reader, who is a resident of the Rathgormack region, writes, respectfully suggesting that a cuckoo clock would be a most suitable Xmas gift for a boy who is a little simple.

A Pordaw peruser passes on this thought for publication: The man and woman who can give and take a joke is worth a dozen dull purveyors of financial feats, pessimistic prophecies and sour-voiced scandal.

A middle-aged, unmarried man, of the Barony of Middle Third, was describing the terror he felt when a lizard ran up his arm. "That's nothing," said a listener, "one day a sewing-machine ran up a leg of my trousers."

A PLEASANT VISITOR.

The writer of these notes met this week the most entertaining Irish-American one could wish to happen on, in the person of Mr. John B. Shanahan, at present holidaying in his natal Clonea-Power parish. Friend Paddy Power (the well-known Clonea-Power Gael) introduced us. Mr. Shanahan is a retired Inspector of the Worcester, Mass. Police Force, and he served with the American Expeditionary Army in France, being attached to the Worcester unit of the National Guard. I doubt if Uncle Sam has any more talented or naturally humorous

ACKNOWLEDGMENT.

The Widow and Sisters of the late Mr. P. Daniel, Shandon, beg to thank all who sent Mass Cards and letters of sympathy in their recent sad bereavement, and beg them to accept this as an acknowledgment of same.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

DEATH OF MR. L. GREANEY, ABBEYSIDE.

The death took place on Monday last of Mr. Laurence Greaney, at his residence, Abbeyside, after a few days illness and fortified by the rites of the Church. The deceased who was a member of a well-known and highly-respected Garrahan family, was a prominent builder and contractor who carried out in his day, many important contracts. He was all through life a strong Constitutional Nationalist and did a man's part in the various National movements of his time, winning the admiration of his leaders.

He had reached a good age and passed away to the great regret of his brothers, sister, and relatives and of all who appreciated his worth.—R.I.P.

OLD COMRADES ASSOCIATION I. R. A.

Meetings of Sean Ogligh na hEireann (I.R.A. Old Comrades Association) have taken place in the 1st and 2nd Battalion Areas. Battalion and Branch Committees were formed. Very important business relating to the Military Service Pensions Act, 1934, the distribution of Land and various other matters affecting the interests of the old I.R.A. were discussed. Messrs. P. Whelan and M. Morrissey, from Area Headquarters, were in attendance and explained the different problems confronting the members of the Association.

CHURCH HOLIDAYS.

"Catholic" write protesting against the opening of business establishments on Church holidays, which he says is breaking the laws of God.

ELECTRICITY SUPPLY BOARD

Accounts are now due to the above and consumers are requested to make payments to Mr. James Patterson, at E.S.B. Office, Main Street.

BEE FACTORIES OPENED

At Mallow on Monday, Mr. Lemass, Minister for Industry and Commerce, opened the new Mallow Bee Factory, which had been previously blessed by the Bishop of the Diocese. Amongst those present were Mr. Commissioner Moynihan, Mr. J. H. O'Sullivan, Secretary Waterford Co. Council; Mr. J. O'Dwyer, Secretary Co. Committee Agriculture and Mr. McEneaney, A.I. The Bee Factories at Thurles and Tuam were also opened. Bees being delivered at full speed this weather at all the railway stations.

STEP-DANCING.

"True ease in writing comes from art, not chance As those move easiest who have learned to dance"

The development of Irish dancing and the restoration of the days when everybody could dance a jig, reel and hornpipe, is an excellent thing and we hope the new Ceilidhe Club in the Town Hall, will be a perfect success. Dancing is the oldest form of culture as the history of the Isles of Greece testify. The ancients believed in rhythm of movement and you cannot have that unless you know how to frisk in frolic measures. The National dances of Ireland had no superior in gracefulness or in the development of that charm of movement of the body, which connotes health and strength. Reels, jigs and hornpipes should supply a long felt want for our young people and for the fox-trot is too insipid and D'Alberty too much like hard work.

CUMANN NA gCEILIDHE

The first dance under the auspices of the above Club will be held on Friday 7th December, from 8 p.m. to 10.30 p.m. Prospective members can hand in their names at Dance Hall.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN GLEESON, LACKENDARRA.

On November 22nd, the death took place of Mr. John Gleeson, Lackendarra, after a long illness and fortified by the rites of the Church. The late Mr. Gleeson, who was 77 years of age, was a most respected and upright man, highly esteemed by all. His funeral to Knockboy graveyard, was largely attended.—R.I.P.

HUNTING.

The Dromore Beagles recorded another good run on Sunday last. They met at Lower Dromore and finding in the bogs he circled on towards Shanekill and back to Dromore, the pace was very fast during parts of the run, and the followers were kept moving until the line was lost, which was late in the evening when hounds were drawn off.

HELLO EVERYBODY!

ABBEYSIDE BAZAAR CALLING— Look out for next Tuesday and Wednesday nights Parade through the town of the Masquerade Village Band. An enormous selection of prizes will be drawn at the Bazaar in aid of the Abbeyside Church Improvement Fund in the Town Hall on Wednesday night next. They include Valuable Silk Bedspreads; Eider Down; Fur Gloves; Overmantles; Bottles Champagne, Whiskey and Wine; Teasets; Hampers; Irish Linen; Cameras; Irish Linen Tablecloths; Coal, Flour, Silver Teapots; Legs of Mutton, Turkeys; Geese, etc. Bazaar will open on Wednesday evening at 7.30 o'clock. The Committee request that all outstanding blocks be returned by Monday night. The prizes can be seen in the windows of Mr. E. Power's O'Connell street, and Mr. E. Phelan, Main street. No one should miss being there.

I.D.B.S. DANCE.

The third annual dance under the auspices of the I.D.S.B. Society (Co. Waterford Branch) was held in the Dungarvan Town Hall, on Wednesday night and was a perfect success upwards of 200 couples being present representing all parts of the County and outside it. The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion and nothing was left undone to cater for the comfort and enjoyment of all patrons. The music by Billy McSweeney's Band was perfect and added considerably to the thorough enjoyment. The catering was first-class and was highly appreciated. As Hon. Secs.—Messrs. T. D. Smyth, and D. O'Dempsey, had the arrangements perfect. A most enjoyable time was had by all and dancing was kept up until daylight came to terminate a real good night's enjoyment.

45 DRIVE—

The Republican Club 45 Drive will be held on Sunday night 9th inst. Usual Cash Prizes.

LAND ANNUITIES.

Mr. J. English, assistant to the County Waterford Registrar, accompanied by his usual escort of bailiffs and Guards, collected arrears of land annuities in the Ballymacarbery, Kilmanahan and Clonmel areas this week. In every instance the amount due was paid and hence no seizures were effected. The Guards were in charge of Superintendent Quinlan, Lismore.

DEATH OF MRS. DEE, MITCHEL ST., DUNGARVAN.

On Wednesday the death took place at the residence of her daughter—Mrs. P. Dunne, Mitchel street, of Mrs. Dee, a well-known and highly-respected lady, who belonged to the old stock of the town. Deep sympathy is felt with her family in their loss. The remains were removed to the Parish Church, on Thursday evening, and the interment takes place this day (Friday).

LITERARY CLUB DANCE.

The above Club have decided to hold their Third Annual Dance in the Town Hall, on Wednesday January 23rd. Arrangements are already afoot to ensure that this dance will, if possible eclipse the two previous ones. Dancers are advised to keep that date in reserve for a wonderful night. Details as to Band, Catering, etc., will appear in due course. Don't forget January, 23rd, a night not to be missed.

XMAS GIFTS—

Persons on the look out for Xmas Gifts should read Mr. J. B. Cooke's advertisement in this issue, where high-class Jewellery is offered at very low prices.

CAPPOQUIN CONCERT—

Will be held on 19th Dec., and not on 18th December.

The increased estimate of Co. Waterford Board of Assistance has been reduced by £10,000, which will mean a substantial saving to the ratepayers.

The tender of Messrs. Kavanagh Bros., Clonmel, at £3,258, for the building of 12 houses at Albert St., for Clonmel Corporation, has been approved by the L.G.D.

TO ENSURE SALE OF PURE MILK The Sale of Food and Drugs (Milk) Bill passed the report stage in the Dail. Mr. O'Donovan (F.G. Cork, W.) moved an amendment, the effect of which was to exempt from penalties those who proved that the milk was sold as it came from the cows, without being tampered with, but

Dr. Ward, Parliamentary Secretary, said he could not accept it, as the defence "that it came straight from the cow" was one which provided cover for fraudulent purveyors. Mr. McGilligan (F.G., Nat. Univ.) said that the Courts had given various decisions on this point. Was a man guilty of an offence if he could prove that, though the milk was deficient in standard, it had come direct from healthy cows, properly milked, etc? The amendment was defeated by 66 votes to 45.

There is not the least doubt that for general Sports and Holiday wear Knitted Suits, Costumes, and Sports Shirts are ideal.

Dungarvan Water Supply

PROPOSED IMPROVEMENTS

At a meeting of the U.D.C. for the purpose of considering the proposed water improvement. Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided. Also present were—Messrs. T. McCarthy, S. Hayes, P. Dwyer, J. Mansfield, J. Dahill, M. Connors, P. Quann, J. Foley, J. Christopher, J. Butler, M. Clancy, Mr. McGrath, B.S., and Dr. M. Casey, M.O.H., attended the meeting. Reports from Messrs. Delap and Waller, Chartered Civil Engineers, Mr. Bloomer, L.G.D. Engineer and Dr. Casey, M.O.H., were before the meeting.

Messrs. De Lap and Waller's report dated June last, stated that investigations into the Dungarvan water supply had been completed by them.

The report dealt at length with Dungarvan's two present supplies—Kiladangan and Glendine. Referring to Kiladangan the report stated that it is at such a low level that it need not be further considered.

The following works were proposed:—

(a) Intake tanks beside the road in Kilnafrehan West.

(b) A 6 inch concrete pipe along the road from the above intake tanks to the present intake at Glendine river, a distance of 2,820 yards.

(c) New open sand upward filters and service reservoir, in the 'Townland of Deelish, beside the existing pipe line, between the present intake and water fall. The filters will be a duplicate set with a continuous output of about 10,000 gallons per hour.

The service having a capacity of 33,000 gallons.

(d) With the filters and service reservoir will be a valve house with automatic control valves, alum dosing plant, and chlorination plant to be used in times of emergency.

(e) Connections to and from existing main and to new filters scour pipe to river, etc., and new pipes short circuiting the present filters and reservoir, will be included if necessary.

The approximate cost would be £3,025 0s. 0d.

Mr. Bloomer's report dealt with the same supplies and stated that there were five alternative ways for improving the supply.

(1) To adopt the scheme proposed by the Consulting Engineers (Messrs. De Lap and Waller).

(2) To lay an auxiliary main from Glendine works.

(3) To lay a bye pass main round the 140 odd tapings in Abbeyside.

(4) To improve the Kiladangan supply and use portion of the Glendine head to boost this supply to the higher levels of the town.

(5) To vary the scheme proposed by Consulting Engineers by forming a new intake at the confluence of Glendine and Monarud river. Constructing new filters and service tank and connecting as before to existing main.

Dr. Casey, M.O., reported:— Each member has now had the Reports of the Consulting Engineers, Messrs. Delap and Waller and the Report of the Department's Engineer, Mr. Bloomer, circulated for his personal consideration. It is now over two years since I submitted a report to your Council concerning the conditions existing at that time. I then suggested certain recommendations which were adopted by your Council, but seemingly were never put into force.

The water supply of your town has been troublesome for a number of years and more so as each year passes, due to various causes. Now, as you are determined to find the solution to this problem which is becoming more acute owing to the increased demand on the supply as it now exists, I feel it my duty to impress upon you that a plentiful supply of water is a most valuable service for all concerned.

You are aware that there is practically no water to your new houses and that the residents of other Urban Council houses are also feeling the effects of the shortage. When considering the various reports now before you I wish you would take into consideration that the demand for water in Dungarvan five years hence will be much greater than it is to-day as all the new houses for the poor will each have a supply and as new buildings are going up in your suburbs and as there is a possibility of an Industrial Revival in the town. Considering your geographical position this town is most ideally situated for an efficient and plentiful supply being surrounded by hills. In fact, the Report of the Department's Engineer says that you have nearly 1 1/2 million gallons of water at Kiladangan and that your storage tank at Glendine is leaking 50,000 gallons per diem, which is one-third of your daily requirements. Your Council have been aware of these facts many years, but the question that you are yet awaiting an answer namely "Why does not this water come to town?" I was anxiously awaiting a satisfactory explanation from your Consulting Engineers, but the report received from them carefully avoids that question, and suggests to you to forget all about that question, and suggests to you to forget all about your existing sources of supply and advises a new intake of water higher up at Kilnafrehan, with new works to be erected at Deelish to be connected up with Glendine 6 inch Main, which is now trying to supply 95 per cent. of the population efficiently. I am opposed to this new suggested scheme as its source is polluted river water. This new water will receive treatment at new works to purify it and will then be connected up with the Glendine Main which supply has been proved good and efficient from the Public Health point of view for a number of years. There is a danger here which must be avoided. If at any time through any cause this new supply is not properly and regularly treated, filtered and chlorinated, then it would become a source of danger to the Public Health of the town and pollute the Glendine supply. Referring to Messrs. Delap and Waller's Report that "Kiladangan is so low lying that it need not be further considered." Why then I ask you is Kiladangan expected to supply the higher levels of the town as it is at this moment only allowed to do, that is, to do what our Consultants tell us and what your Council know for a number of years it cannot do.

When I recommended that you request the L.G. Department to send down an Engineer I had in mind that if he did come he would give a full report of our water system. He also reports to you the conditions existing at Kiladangan and Glendine, but makes no mention of the amount of water that is actually coming in through the main pipes and to where it is going. We are told the quantity we have and the quantity we are losing but no one will tell us what we are receiving.

I would feel grateful if the following questions were answered by the Engineers now at your disposal at their earliest opportunity.

(1) The quantity of water that is leaving Kiladangan each day; and to where it is going?

(2) The quantity of water that would come from Kiladangan when the scour opening nearest to town is fully opened for a definite period, e.g., one hour?

(3) Why is this low lying water-works (Kiladangan) compelled to supply only the higher levels of the town?

(4) Why is the elevated auxiliary supply (Glendine) doing the work that Kiladangan used to do and should be asked to do again, that is, supplying the lower levels of the town?

(5) What is the condition of the interior of the main service pipes and how frequently are they scoured out?

(6) What is the condition of the interior of the smaller service pipes in town especially in the higher levels of the town where there has always been a slow flow of water and where sedimentation is more likely to occur?

(7) What attention has filter beds in Kiladangan received during the past 10 years and what would be the effect of a general overhaul of the Kiladangan filter beds and mains and the approximate cost of making it a perfect system for the lower levels of the town?

As I have already stated in a previous report that I am of opinion that if these two services were put working properly there would be a plentiful supply to meet the present day demand. That is my reason for requesting you to seek an answer to the above questions. I am mindful of the fact that while this shortage exists the general health of your town is seriously endangered and as neither report now before you gives the required information necessary to enable you to formulate a definite policy to improve your water supply, it appears to me that this shortage is going to continue for some time to come.

Having this data and any other data you may deem necessary supplied by the Engineers as soon as possible, I am of opinion that you will then be in a position to know how the present situation can be met in the most efficient manner to get rid of this shortage for years to come.

Permit me to point out that if you should not be able then to deal effectively with this unhappy situation, I would respectfully suggest that you direct the attention of the Engineers to seek a new source of supply from the hills in the direction towards which the town is now extending. I refer to Glenmore where, in my opinion, there is a plentiful supply of spring water available at all times. This would open up a new rural area where there is no water supply at present. An arrangement could be come to between your Council and the County Board of Public Health concerning this new Scheme as this latter body were considering a supply for that rural area and in which area I consider a supply is most essential.

Mr. Butler asked if the present pipes had been tested.

Mr. McGrath, B.S.—The portion taken up stood the test.

Mr. Mansfield—There should be no "mays" or "ifs" it would be serious if every connection in town were blown.

Mr. Quann—Messrs. De Lap and Waller tested the pipes and said they stood the test, we cannot put our opinion against them.

Mr. Mansfield—They express doubt in two paragraphs.

In answer to Mr. Connors, the B.S. stated that before the water reached the Square there were 480 tapings in Abbeyside and added that this was what Mr. Bloomer meant when he referred to the bye-pass. The bye-pass would be over a mile in length.

Mr. Mansfield—From the new main? B.S.—From Glendine.

Mr. Mansfield—We do not know if the pipes are functioning 25 per cent. or 100 per cent. or if at all.

Dr. Casey stated that he as M.O.H. had a duty to see that an efficient water supply was available. They had Kiladangan for 45 years and Glendine for 21 years giving a supply of good water. Glendine supply is good water and I am opposed to connecting up with Kilnafrehan, there is a possibility of pollution. If you want Kilnafrehan get an independent pipe and you will have Glendine as a good supply always.

Mr. Butler stated that before any supply was connected the water would be sent for analysis.

Mr. Clancy said that the previous Councils had debated water improvements many times, but nothing was done. Now they had the advice of expert Engineers and he hoped they would do something.

Mr. Butler—The present supply from Glendine is 7,000 gallons per hour, and if Messrs. De Lap and Waller's scheme is adopted it will mean 16,500 gallons per hour, which I think is providing for the future.

Mr. Connors—If Kiladangan got the proper attention I think that at a small cost we could get a sufficient supply.

Chairman—The suggestion is that Kiladangan get the cold shoulder, but members here are not satisfied with that. Dr. Casey asks certain questions which I think should be answered, and I think that Messrs. De Lap and Waller should give us their opinion of Mr. Bloomer's and Dr. Casey's reports. There is no doubt that there is plenty of water at Kiladangan, but where it is going? It is not coming into the town.

Mr. Quann said that Kiladangan failed to do what it was intended to do and Glendine had to be got to support it.

After further discussion, Mr. Butler proposed, and Mr. Clancy, seconded that the Council adopt Messrs. De Lap and Waller's Scheme with the provision that Messrs. De Lap and Waller report on the last paragraph of Mr. Bloomer's report (Messrs. De Lap and Waller propose for the purification an upward flow filtration of the "Bracket" type. Generally speaking filtration processes of the "mechanical" type are not to be recommended for small installations. What is gained in land saved is often lost in maintenance, chemicals etc. They should be asked to report on the relative economy of slow sand filters and rapid filters both as to initial cost and future maintenance.) Also that the L.G.D. be asked to contribute to the cost of the scheme.

Mr. Dahill proposed and Mr. Connors seconded, that copies of Mr. Bloomer's and Dr. Casey's reports be sent to Messrs. De Lap and Waller for their consideration.

A vote resulted—For the amendment—Messrs. Mansfield, Dahill, Connors, Foley, Chairman—(5).

Against—Messrs. McCarthy, Dwyer, Quann, Christopher, Clancy, Butler—(6).

Mr. Hayes did not vote.

The amendment was declared lost.

There voted for Mr. Butler's proposition—Messrs. McCarthy, Hayes, Dwyer, Quann, Christopher, Clancy, Butler—(7).

Against—Messrs. Dahill, Mansfield, Connors, Chairman—(4).

Mr. Foley did not vote.

The resolution was declared passed.

DEATH OF REV. MOTHER IMMACULATE DELANEY, MERCY CONVENT, STRADBALLY.

The news of the death of Rev. Mother Immaculate Delaney, Superior of the Convent of Mercy, Stradbally, was received with feelings of intense regret by the people of these parts. The sad event happened on Sunday morning, after a brief illness and in the fullness of her years. A member of a well-known Abbeyleix family, she joined the Order close on half-a-century ago. As the years passed so much had her life-work and the charm and nobility of her personality become a part of the community among whom she lived and laboured, that she became not so much a nun as an institution. Piety, self-denial, simplicity, thoroughness and kindness and generosity formed the pith of her fruitful life.

The remains were removed from the Convent to the Parish Church on Monday evening, and on the following morning Requiem High Mass, the Very Rev. T. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., Dungarvan, presiding, was celebrated for the repose of the soul of the deceased, the celebrant being Very Rev. J. Murphy, P.P., Stradbally, deacon, Rev. W. Flynn, C.C., St. Mary's, Clonmel; sub-deacon, Rev. P. O'Farrell, C.C., Stradbally; Master of Ceremonies, Rev. P. F. McGrath, C.C., Dungarvan. Chanters—Rev. J. Keating, B.A., St. John's College, Waterford, and Rev. J. Harty, C.C., Kiltrossanly.

In the choir were—Very Rev. J. Gleeson, P.P., Aghlish; Very Rev. J. Walsh, P.P., Ballyduff-Portlaw; Very Rev. J. Nugent, P.P., Ring; Very Rev. W. Kehoe, P.P., Kiltrossanly; Very Rev. M. C. Crotty, P.P., Cahir; Very Rev. N. Dunphy, P.P., Abbeyside; Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., Cappoquin; Very Rev. T. Galvin, P.P., Newtown; Rev. T. B. Walsh, C.C., Dungarvan; Rev. M. Power, C.C., Abbeyside; Rev. J. Crotty, Clogheen; Rev. J. Kenneally, C.C., Grangemockler; Rev. T. O'Shea, C.C., Stradbally; Rev. T. Ahearne, C.C., Kill; Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., Cappoquin; Rev. J. Hally, C.C., Kilmacthomas; Rev. P. Ahearne, C.C., St. John's, Waterford; Rev. M. Donovan, C.C., do.; Rev. M. Barron, Bishop's Secretary; Rev. J. Cullinan, C.C., Rathgormack; Rev. T. Power, C.C., Portlaw; Rev. W. Flynn, C.C., Tramore; Rev. P. Ahearne, D.D., St. John's College; Rev. J. Murphy, C.C., Ring; Rev. P. Baldwin, C.C., Chaplain Carriglea; Rev. D. McGrath, C.C., Fenor; Rev. M. Murray, C.C., Cahir; Rev. P. Power, St. John's College, and Rev. N. Burke, C.C., SS. Peter and Paul's, Clonmel.

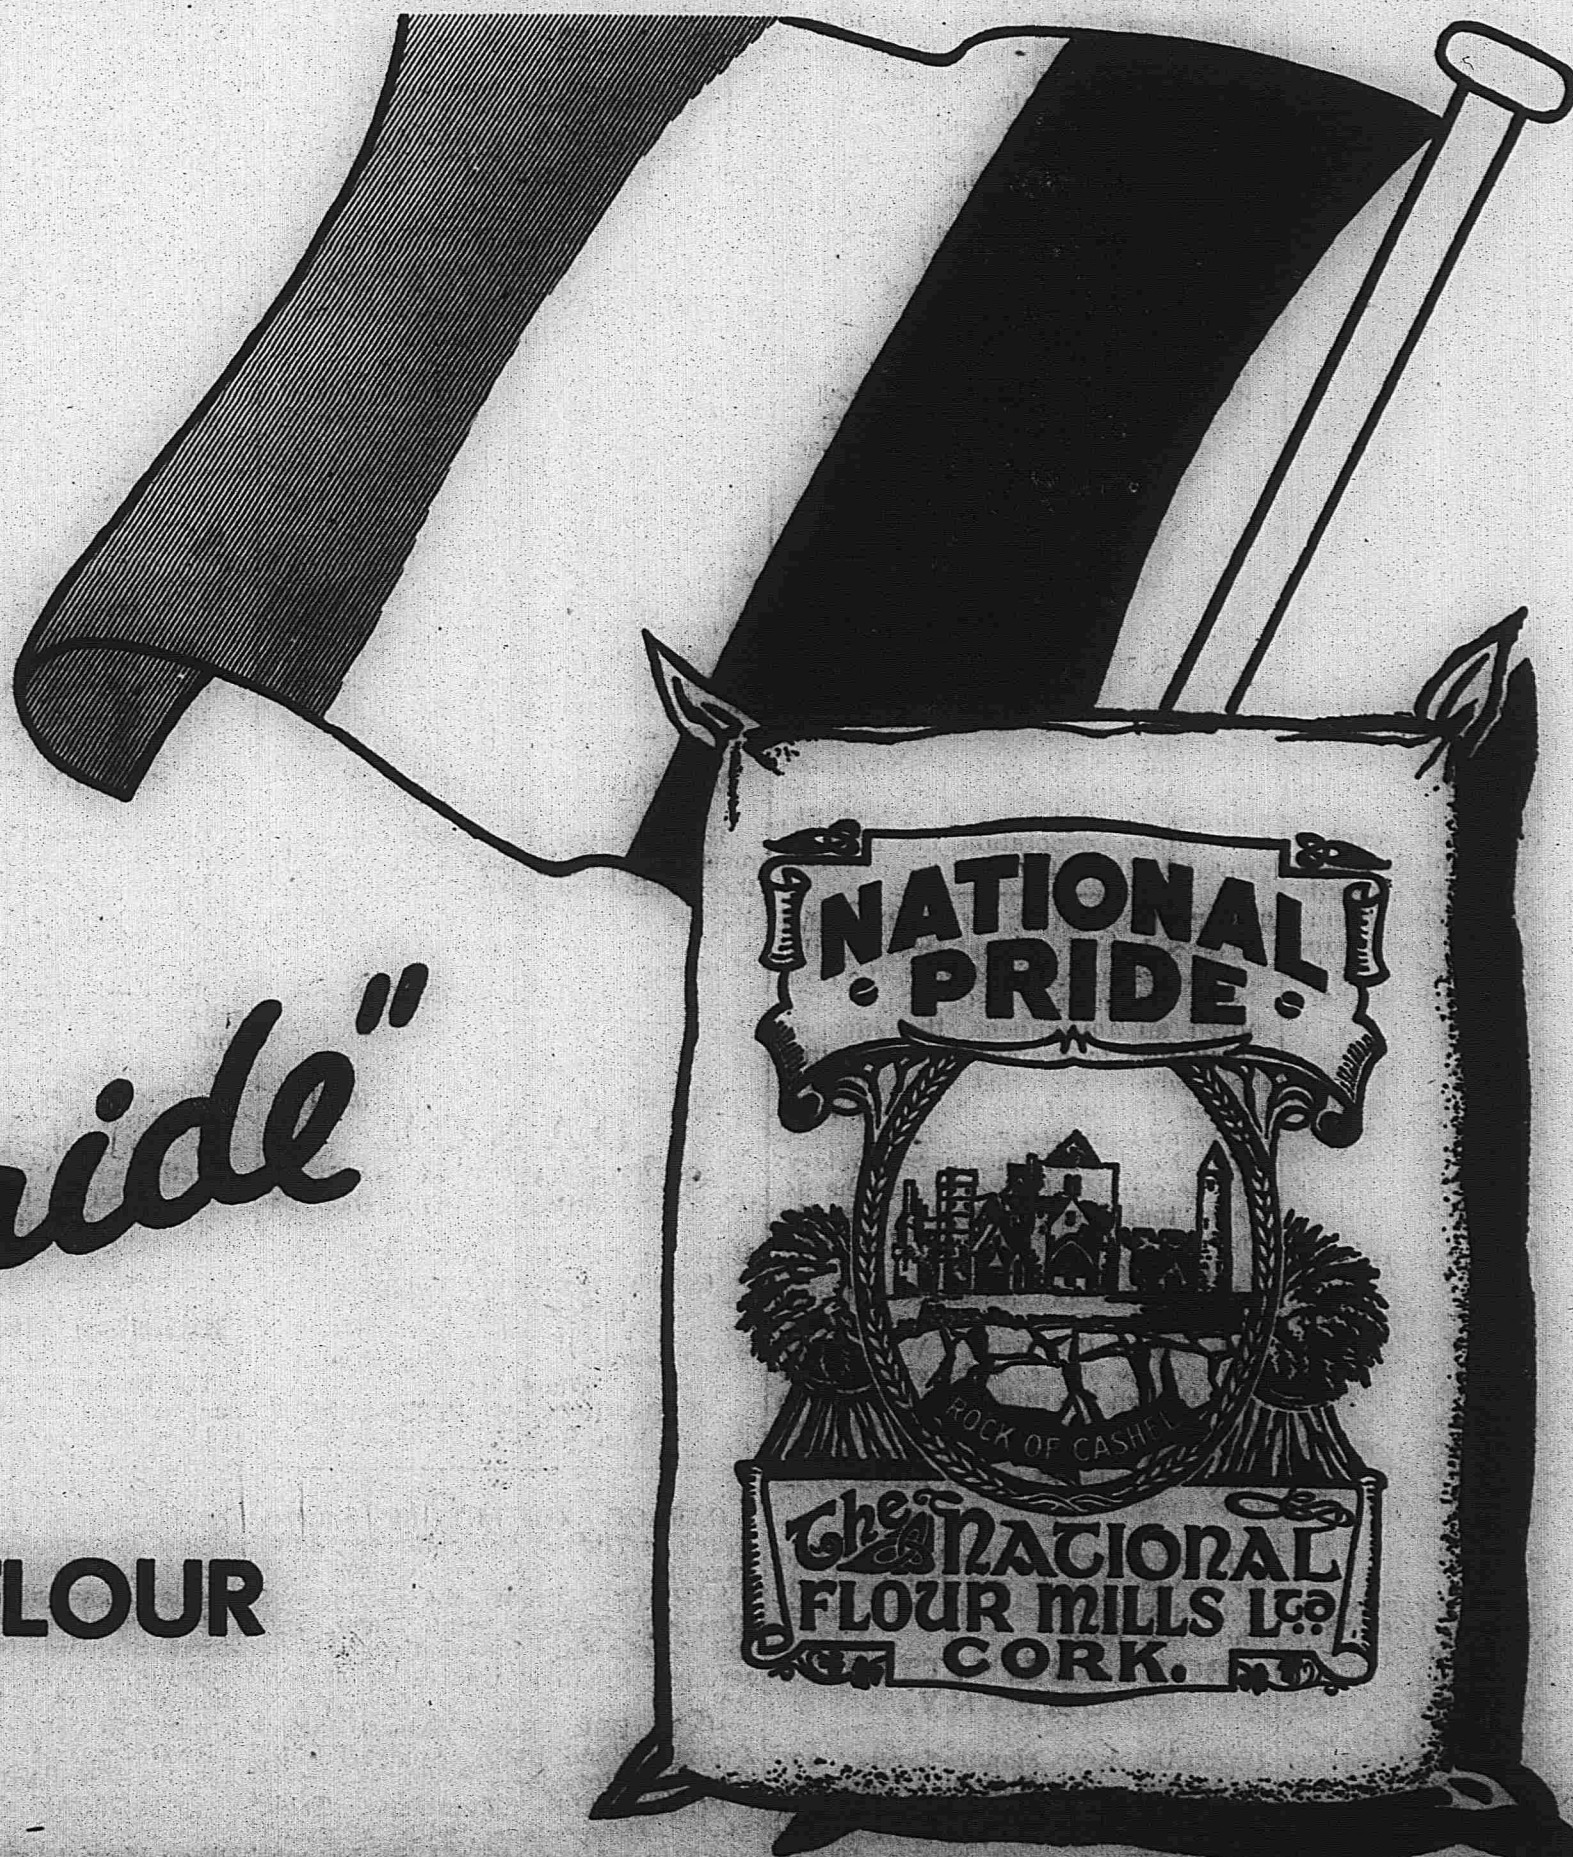

Interment was made immediately afterwards in the Nun's Plot in the adjoining cemetery. In addition to the clergy, there was an immense concourse, representative of all classes in the district, present at the graveside, paying their last tribute of respect to departed worth.—R.I.P.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL.

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman; M. Aherne, J. Forrest, W. O'Sullivan, R. Power, E. P. Lynch, T. K. Keane, solr.; J. N. R. MacNamara, solr.; M. Cashman, E. D. Condon, D. McCarthy, T. Beausang, J. Daly, R. C. Farrell, Vice-Chairman; Capt. C. Watson.

Performing Right Licence.
A letter was read from the Performing Right Society Ltd., stating that in accordance with their current tariff, the fee for the Society's licence covering performances in the Town Hall, was £5 5s. 0d. per annum. Assuming that the Council desired to obtain this Society's licence on those terms, they enclosed a copy for signature.

The Chairman said they could add the extra cost to those using the Hall.
Mr. Power—As it is an International affair and as they are looking after the interests of Irish composers, I propose that we pay the required fee and obtain the necessary licence.

This was seconded by Mr. Beausang, and passed unanimously.
Republican Memorial Committee.
Mr. Daly, applied on behalf of the Republican Memorial Committee, for the use of the Town Hall on December 23rd, to hold a Ceilidhe.

The application was granted.
Acknowledgment.
The Clerk said he had sent out 82 copies of the resolution passed at previous meeting, and had received one reply—from Bundoran.

Travelling Shops.
Copy of a resolution was read from the Carrickmacross Urban Council, requesting the Government, to put into immediate operation the recommendations of the Shop Act Commission to abolish the Travelling County Shops, and to register all shops in the interest of Urban Towns, where business was rapidly declining as a result of the increasing activities of the Travelling Shops.

Mr. Power, proposing its adoption, said those Travelling Shops were having a terrible effect on the town. They were looking to the people in the town to pay rates, but if things continued as they were, the ratepayers would be unable to meet their demands.

Mr. McCarthy, seconding, said that unless something was done very soon there was an end to the town.
The Chairman said that resolution covered the question. It was only by united effort they could compel the Government to interest themselves in the town.

Mr. Power—Up to the present the Government has not done so.
Mr. Farrell said many farmers were afraid to bring their horses to town owing to the slippery condition of the road surface.

Mr. Daly said that could be remedied. It had been done elsewhere.
Mr. Power—The needs of motorists were considered principally.

Mr. Lynch—The horses are getting use to the new roads of late.
The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Demand From Co. Council.
A letter was read from the Co. Council complaining that they had not yet received any payment on the current rate.

The Clerk said he had referred the letter to the Collector who replied that he had received the rate books only on the 23rd October and 7th November. He was forwarding payment on account.

The Chairman said it was very hard for the Collector to make payment considering the time he got the books.

Acknowledgment.
Mr. M. J. Hogan, The Hollies, wrote conveying his deep appreciation of the vote of condolence so kindly passed at their last meeting.

Recent Wire Cutting.
The Clerk said he had been served with notice of the intention of the Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, to apply at the Circuit Court for £1 12s. 0d., compensation for the recent malicious cutting of telegraph wires outside the town.

Oilskins.

In connection with the application of an employee, engaged principally at night, for a new oilskin.

Mr. Beausang said he had seen the old one and it was a disgrace.

Replying to a query, the Clerk said it was got from a firm on the Government List.

Mr. Lynch—Send it back to them and tell them we will get no more of them.

There was only one tender for the usual supply of oilskin suits and hats, Messrs. S. J. Merrick, at 16/6.

The tender was unanimously accepted.

New Housing Scheme.
Mr. M. J. Galvin, Clerk of Works, to the new Housing Scheme, reported that the work was going on satisfactorily. Trenches had been cut for water, gas and sewer pipes, etc., 25 men were engaged.

Land Allotments.
Two letters were read from landowners in connection with the proposed Allotments Scheme.

The Clerk—There has been only one application for an allotment from the unemployed.
Replying to Mr. Beausang, he said applications would be received up to the New Year.

The Chairman said he thought it only right and fitting that that Council should pass a vote of sympathy with the relatives and widow of the late Senator George Crosbie. They would all agree with the tributes paid to his memory by prominent members of every political party.

His paper, "Cork Examiner," had always given them fair play and as an employee of labour he was one of the best. From every point of view his memory deserved any tribute they could pay, and he therefore, proposed that the Clerk convey an expression of their sincere sympathy to his relatives.

Mr. Keane, seconding, said the late Mr. Crosbie had done a great man's part for the city of Cork, the Province of Munster and for the country in general. In all his dealings he had acted fair and square, setting a worthy example to his fellow countrymen.

Mr. MacNamara, asked to be associated with the proposition.
Mr. Power—All I can say is "The Lord have mercy on his soul," but as far as his paper is concerned it was always Imperialist.

The Chairman—I am really surprised to hear a remark like that on such an occasion, from even Mr. Power.
Other members having associated themselves with the proposition, it was passed.

A Scene.
Mr. Keane handed in the following notices of motion:

That the resolution proposed by Mr. Power and seconded by Mr. Beausang, and passed by a snap division of this Council at the meeting of 22nd November, is a purely political one, and was introduced solely for the purpose of political propaganda—That while we condemn acts of sabotage the resolution as worded does not represent the majority of the members of this Council, nor of the community we represent. That these views are as publicly stated by Mr. W. T. Cosgrave, T.D. That the said resolution be and is hereby rescinded and expunged from the minutes, and that copies of this rescinded resolution be forwarded to the Council and Committees who received the original resolution.

(2) "That any Resolution or motion which, in the opinion of the Chairman, is of a political nature, be not in future considered without due notice of such resolution or motion having been given."

Mr. Beausang made some remark whereupon the Chairman said he would have no discussion on it then. It was quite in order and would be considered at their meeting on December 13th.

Mr. Beausang questioned the matter. The Clerk said it was governed by Section 44 of the Commissioners Clauses Act, '47.

Mr. Beausang—What about the six months' rule?
The Clerk—Whatever the result of this notice of motion it can't be raised again for six months. That is the business of the meeting.

As the members were leaving Mr. Power said the other side got beat last Thursday night and they had a right to take it. He supposed they would bring down all the crowd next time to upset it. "I tell Mr. Keane and the Chairman, and every member of the Blue Shirts that they will never overthrow the Government."

A lively exchange then took place resulting in several of the opposing parties trying to get at each other, the timely intervention of the Chairman and other members preventing a nasty scuffle.

Late Mr. McDonagh, Galway.
On the proposition of Mr. Cashman, seconded by Mr. McCarthy, a vote of sympathy was passed to the relatives of the late Mr. Martin McDonagh, Galway.

Wages, Etc.
On the proposition of Mr. McCarthy seconded by Mr. Cashman, a cheque for £67 8s. 0d. was passed for wages, etc., for the week.

A letter was read from Messrs. Hodnett, solrs., stating that the addition erected by Mrs. Hurley at the Esplanade Hotel, Strand, did not contravene the permission given her by the Council.

After a short discussion, it was decided to be guided by their solicitor's advice.

Freeman's Lane.
A petition was received from the residents of Freeman's Lane. A member asked where was Freeman's Lane (laughter).

The Clerk said it was otherwise known as Hayman's Hill.
The application was granted on the proposition of Mr. Lynch, seconded by Mr. Keane.

OLD OFFENDER CHARGED AGAIN.
Andrew Griffin, Greeneloyne, Youghal, who recently served 6 months' for house-breaking and larceny, was brought before Mr. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., charged with two offences of a similar nature.

Formal evidence having been given, he was remanded in custody to next District Court.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS.

THE COURT.

At the local monthly District Court, before Mr. F. J. McCabe, D.J., Supt. M. Walsh, G.S., Dungarvan, prosecuted Francis Murphy, librarian, Lismore, for alleged dangerous driving of a motor van at Leamybrien on the 25th of September last. After hearing the evidence of Sgt. J. O'Shea, Leamybrien, and that of the defendant and to Dr. Counihan's address on the latter's behalf, his Worship complimented the defendant on having made what he (Justice) was convinced was an honest defence, and he felt that a nominal penalty would meet the case, and imposed a fine of 5/- and costs.

Supt. Dennehy, Tramore, charged James Flynn, vanman, employed by Mr. Patk. Kiersy, Kilmathomas, with driving a motor van in a manner dangerous to the public, the while approaching Brenan Cross, from the Ballydwan side, on October 22nd last.

Defendant told the Court he was only travelling at the rate of seven miles an hour nearing the cross in question, and admitted that he did not sound his siren on approaching close up to it. He was fined 10/- and had his licence suspended until the 1st of January next.

Mr. Patrick Joseph Baldwin, Corriadv, Carrick-on-Suir, (for whom Mr. M. Hally, solr., appeared), applied for, and was granted a transfer on sale of the license of the public house in Kill village from the executors of the late Mr. Patk. Cummins.

Fines ranging from 1/- to 2/6 and costs were inflicted in a heavy roll of Gardai cases, chiefly breaches of the Lights Act.

Dr. Counihan, and Messrs. T. Kiersy and Mr. Hally, solicitors, represented several of the applicants in a long list of undefended civil bills, in which decrees for full amounts claimed, together with the costs incurred by each application, were granted by his Worship.

Fathers, hearing Christmas chatter, Never share their families' thrills For they sense behind the clatter—Bills.

A COMING TREAT.
A valued Kilmadeen regular reader of this paper writes putting us wise to the fact that the local Irish Irelanders are rehearsing a drama entitled "An Cleamnas," written by the well-known versatile Desie Irish teacher, Mr. Sean Downey, which they intend presenting to the public at the old-schoolhouse, Kilmadeen, before Christmas.

The scene of the play is laid in Kilmadeen—the Kilmadeen of sixty or so years ago—and the plot is cleverly conceived and capably constructed. The members of the caste (including Volunteer Miceal Loran, of the new I.F.S. Army Force) are all past pupils of Mr. and Mrs. A. Madders, N.T.'s, Ballyduff. Deuglain Supeal (Grange, Ardmore), Ireland's noted traditional singer, will contribute vocal items. The Misses O'Brazil and Everett, Faithlegg, and Miss Kitty Sheehan, Waterford, will give exhibitions of the good old Irish step-dances. So—a "great night" lies in the offing for the good folk of Kilmadeen and district.

By the way, Mr. Sean Downey has organised an Irish-Ireland class at Passage East, where Mr. Frank Ahearne, of Kinsalebeg (W. Waterford) is the principle teacher. God bless the work!

law ere last night?—

That on reaching their hundredth birthday milestone, Dunhill dwellers don't dabble in politics any more?—
That the use of cosmetics is rapidly increasing in Nire Valley?

That the funniest fellow in the Rathgormack region is organising a fund in aid of the funds for providing nutmeg graters for housewives in Windgap?

From our political "live wire" in An Daill we have it that a fruitful problem led to the distribution of apples among the T.D.'s present in Leinster House the other day, and the ex-member of Fianna Fail and Fine Gael, to wit, Mr. P. Belton, got the "pip."

Palatable as a nice juicy County Waterford apple can be, the handing round of apples in Leinster House is certainly uncommon. Our "man on the spot" even suggested it was propagating the apple of discord, or words to that effect. We wonder, by the way, if home-grown onions were passed round, instead of apples, would the "House" be moved to water—or to tears if we must put it plainer?

We learn—cant vouch for its accuracy, though—that a mouthorgan was played in a pound during the sale of cattle seized recently in the Kilmathomas district for annuity arrears. This readily reminds us of the misquotation of the memorable lines of Congreve:—

"Music has charms to soothe a savage breast, To soften rocks or bend a knotted oak."

"To assist animals. Dance at the—"
"So reads an advertisement. Evidently a Hunt Ball! It is nice to think that the animals have a share in the social amenities of the season.

TEACHERS' TRIALS.

BAN ON USE OF ROUGE AND POWDER IN TURKEY.
School teachers in Turkey have been forbidden to use rouge or powder. This ban has been imposed by the Ministry of Education, which points out that women who use make-up, set a bad example to young people. At the same time, men teachers have been forbidden to grow long beards, and have been advised to dress simply but cleanly. Some of the teachers are indignant over the orders; but they have been told that if they refused to obey they will be asked to resign.

Toys.

Xmas is not far off and the Burning Question now is Toys.

MOLONEY'S (The Shopping Centre of the County) announce a Grand Opening of Xmas Bazaar. The most remarkable Show of TOYS ever shown in the County Waterford.

Huge Purchases were effected direct from the Manufacturers in Germany, France, Slovakia, and England. This form of wholesale buying is the Secret of the LOW PRICES. This means a Saving of at least 30 per cent. The assortment consists of every available type of Mechanical Toys, Huge Range of Dolls, Tricycles, Cars, Perambulators, Children's Books, Electrical Novelties, Beautiful Calenders and Cases of Fancy Note Paper. There will also be a special display of Gramophones, Records, Melodeons. Beautiful Exquisite Sets of genuine English China, Cases of Cutlery, Table Lamps, including the Famous Incandescent Oil Lamp. The wonder of to-day, more brilliant than Electric Light. Simple easy and effective. Demonstration Given Free. We have all classes of Goods, suitable for Xmas Present. A Special feature of ours during 1934 Xmas Season was to label Goods for early purchasers, instalment payment arranged on any Goods selected. The Goods will be carefully stored away, until the great day arrives. This Scheme proved very satisfactory indeed. We are adopting the same course this Season with a new addition. The Father Xmas Post Office, a Special Prize will be given for the best letter to Santa. Santa Claus will arrive on Xmas Eve in full regalia, and will deliver all Toys by motor car. Now is the time to secure while the big Variety is available. We need scarcely mention our Wall Paper Department as we are unbeatable in this field of enterprise. We carry the biggest Stock in the South of Ireland, at prices which are absolutely staggering. Don't forget to send for a design booklet post free on application. For anything and everything in the Household way come to us and we will put you right in price and quality.
