3 Stretch the body in a reclining position on the side. Feet, if centre, or middle, is too high, raise the head and feet to the same level by means of quano bags placed with the feet. Then dip the head on the right and left only, together with the neck. If done gradually, this exercise is very beneficial to the sight, but awkward handling in this exercise may cause dizziness.

3 Sloop down and slowly grasp the ankles with the hands. Jump on terra-firma (the same paved floor), at the same time pulling the feet forward. This exercise will strengthen the spine and the back of the head if repeated often enough.

4 Using the stomach as a pivot, spin round on the floor with the head sunk on the chest. This will make the calves swell.

5 Tie the tongue round the left ear, and put the right foot in the mouth. If you cannot do this at first, persevere. It will cure gout. N.B.—If the feet are not washed before this exercise, the good effects of it may be nullified.

Now, Sean O'M—i, a chara, get busy!

THEY SAY —
That the principal parts of the "glad" eye of any Comeragh Valley colleen are the pupil, moat and beam.
That in Stradbally ere-yesterday the day after to-morrow was to-day.
That an all-round drop of a point in Bonmahon barometers denotes a possibility of more weather.

That at the "witching hour" of Christmas Night, the tallest resident of the Rathormack region was high enough to just see the parallelogram of Arion, with the Betelgeuse at one corner, and across from it Rigel, scintillant like a blue diamond. (The poor "devil" was "high-enough," surely!)

That in Windgap within the week hard hats made an impression that was felt.

That in Kilmac' on the 25th inst., married men, single men, men of high degree, and men of no estate all treated their "inner men" to a forkful or two of roast turkey—washed down with the spirit of the season.

That 'yond the space where spaces wait
On others yet unknown,
No Kill man can Kilmaden or
"Macthomas with a stone.

That a Kilmac' medico operating in Ontario is now using injections of gold as a cure for rheumatism.

That the lovely-looking ladies of "The Lost City" of Portlaw put their powder and paint on with a brush like they do in Hollywood.

That the population of Portlaw and purlious is tremendously thick.

That all by himself on Boxing Day the Metal Man "soffed" an outside ice-crested cake without any reason.

That a New Year greeting card and a length of ribbon that ties in a big bow comes with every gift from Melbourne to Mid-Waterford these days.

R. I. P.
The late Mr. Denis Foley, farmer, Ashlown, who had attained his 77th year, was for a number of years a valued member of the Kilmachthomas Board of Guardians and Rural District Council.

TRANSFERRED —
Sergt. Patrick O'Connor, who was in charge of the Kill Gardai unit for the past two years has just been transferred to Shanaglish, Gort, carrying with him the good wishes of the countless friends he had made in the excellent discharge of his duties at Kill, Kilmachthomas and Stradbally, respectively.

KILMACHTHOMAS MONTHLY FAIR
This was postponed from Christmas Day to Thursday and proved the smallest and duller of the year. Recent rates ruled the few exchanges enacted.

DEATH OF MRS. BUCKLEY.
The death of Mrs. Bridget Buckley, wife of Mr. Thomas Buckley, Kilmoylan, Kilmachthomas, which took place on Sunday morning, after a protracted illness and of a comparatively young age, is deeply regretted. The deceased lady, whose lovable disposition commanded the admiration of everyone she had come into contact with, was a sister of Messrs. Michael and Martin Keane, Fahafeelagh, Kilmachthomas; Mr. Patrick Keane, Ballyvoile, Stradbally; Mrs. P. Galvin, Ballyvoile, and Mrs. T. O'Callaghan, Fallow, Kilmachthomas.

On Monday evening the remains were removed to Kill Catholic church. The accompanying cortege (headed by Very Rev. T. Galvin, P.P. Newtown; Rev. T. Ahearne, C.C., Kill, and Rev. J. Hally, C.C., Kilmachthomas) was large and representative, and strikingly displayed the very general esteem in which the late Mrs. Buckley was held and the deep extent of the regret occasioned at her passing. At 12.30 p.m. on Christmas Day, interment was made in the adjoining cemetery, in the presence of her universally popular husband and innumerable other mourners and sympathisers.—R.I.P.

MAGNIFICENT AMUSEMENT.
Seamus MacManus's laughter-lifting play "The Resurrection of Dinny O'Dowd" was presented to a crowded house in Messrs. Flahavan's Hall, Kilmachthomas, on Sunday night last, by the local Amateur Dramatic Club, and the enthusiasm with which it was received showed the appreciation of those present.
The performers were: Mark Kiely (in the title role); Geo. C. Kiely ("Mrs. Bridget O'Dowd"); Mr. William Lennihan ("Neighbour Con Maloney"); Mr. Patrick Barron ("Major Port"); Mr. James Flynn ("Billy"); Mr. Sean Ormond, N.T. (Fr. Mat.); Mr. Ormond, who trained and coached the piece from the beginning is surely to be congratulated on the success of his efforts. The Convent Church Choir opened the night's programme with a prayerful rendition of the seasonable hymn, "Nazareth." The play followed and was succeeded by a high-class concert card. Highly-pleasing vocal items were contributed by Mrs. J. J. Maher, Mr. Patrick ("Celia") Flynn, Mr. John Dunne, and Mr. Michael Power, Action songs and dances by the convent schoolchildren deserved the plaudits awarded. Miss Mary Coffey evoked thunderous applause by her dancing of a hornpipe and double-jig. Mr. Christopher O'Connor, an Irish champion step-dancer. His reception on the occasion was like that of some great hero, and his exhibitions were cheered to the echo. Mrs. D. Coghlan (piano), and Messrs. P. Kiersey and D. Coghlan (violins), played the accompaniments. Mr. Ormond, acted as M.C. The singing of the National Anthem by the Convent choir (in charge of Mr. David Power) concluded a capital treat, and Fr. Galvin, P.P., in a brief address, thanked the audience for their attendance in such large numbers. His reverence paid glowing tributes to the musicians, singers and dancers, and closed with a graceful compliment to the histrionic ability of the local players. Loud and prolonged applause greeted Fr. Galvin's remarks. By special request, the play will be repeated in Messrs. Flahavan's Hall, on New Year's Night, supported with a different itemed, but equally attractive concert card, and Mr. Patrick Kirwan, will again have the stage in top-notch trim. The proceeds go to the Parochial Debt.

XMAS-ISMS —
The local shopkeepers were well pleased with the volume of their Christmas business.
Mr. George Brown, postmaster, and his augmented staff sorted and delivered the heaviest Xmas mail received at the office here in the past decade of years.
Christmas Day was the wettest and wildest day of one of the most inclement Decembers in memory.
All low-lying lands in Mid-Waterford are water-logged.
Despite the unpleasantness of conditions climatical, young and old are enjoying a real happy Yuletide.

'BUS HUMOUR!
Everybody rides in I.O.C. buses nowadays, and therefore there are many humorous incidents occurring if one takes the trouble to look for them. For example, a Kilmac' man was riding in one out of Dungarvan the other day, when an excited gentleman carrying a small parcel got in at Abbeyside and sat down in a corner seat. He looked longingly at his parcel and at last, unable to resist, began to open it. Kilmac' man was too polite to look what was in it, but a most becomingly attired maiden with a Kilmac' accent sitting opposite him wasn't. She gave a gasp and shifted her seat swiftly. The gentleman took no notice, but looked admiringly at the parcel. The conductor came along and said to the "parcel-gazer": "Good-humouredly—"Don't do it here, Mister." The gentleman blushed and quickly packed up again. We wonder the maiden shifted her seat for the gentleman was looking longingly at a new pair of razors. People are always leaving things behind in buses. A cheery Comeragh Valley bean-Tiehe was boarding a bus recently when she spotted a man a hundred yards away signalling frantically. She told the conductor, who got the driver to "hang on a bit." "Sure I'm only after leavin' him off," grumbled the conductor. "He's forgotten something." The man had left his bag behind, and he rescued it all right. He was making his exit from the bus, when the conductor called him back. "Say, sir," said the conductor, "you're always leaving something behind. You got your bag, but look what you're forgetting this time." Sure enough, the forgetful man was going away without his gloves. Has any reader observed what people do with their bus tickets? Inside the bus is the best place for his sport. Some people put their tickets in their hats. Others carefully place them inside the strings of parcels. A good many chew them, and boys and girls look carefully at the numbers to see if there are any "lucky" ones. How this is arrived at we do not know, as each route has its own rules.

HOUSING —
The question of procuring a housing scheme for the town was discussed at a public meeting held in the Temperance Hall, Kilmachthomas, at which Rev. T. Ahearne, C.C., Kill, presided, and Mr. Sean Goulding, T.D., was present and offered valuable advice relative to the project. A committee was formed, with Fr. Ahearne as Chairman. A further meeting will be held early in the New Year.

DUNGARVAN COUNCIL

BEST PUNISHMENT FOR YOUTHFUL MEN

Mr. M. Mervisey, Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the above on Friday last. Also present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman, D. Foley, J. Dahill, P. O'Dwyer, P. Byrne, S. Hayes, J. J. Crotty, M. Connors, J. Butler, J. Mansfield, M. Clancy, J. Christopher, (Juni.) and J. F. Foley.

INSPECTION OF SITES

Arising out of the minutes, Mr. Crotty, asked if the Medical Officer had reported on the sites offered at the previous meeting. Clerk—I did not ask him for a report. Of course the M.O. was present when the order was made.

PAY SHEETS

A pay sheet on the general account amounting to £7 14s. 8d., and on the Relief Grant Account £15 17s. 7d. was passed. Mr. Hayes referred to a man named Paik Lynch, employed on the Relief Grant, and gave figures and dates showing that the man lost 33c and 27 lbs. of beef through being employed for two weeks. B.S.—I am sure he did lose. Mr. Hayes—There must be a different system. Mr. O'Dwyer asked the B.S., why he stopped the horses and then started them again. B.S.—All the horses went to the boats on Saturday. Mr. O'Dwyer—All I can say is, that it is very unfair to have the men working a fortnight for about a week's wages.

CONNECTING WITH GLENDINE SUPPLY

Mr. John Greene, Burgery, wrote asking the Council's permission to connect (at his own expense) with the Glendine water supply. Mr. Dahill—Would it not be as well to wait until the improvements are carried out. Mr. D. Foley—I don't see what difference that will make. I propose he get it now. Mr. Clancy, seconded. Mr. Foley—I never saw any application objected to or turned down before. Mr. Dahill—I am not objecting.

THE HALL

Mr. O'Dwyer—One only had the hall on Friday nights when the Band Committee did not play. Mr. Clancy—That is so, for the past two years. Mr. O'Dwyer—I am going back 7 years. Mr. Christopher, proposed Eire Oge get the hall. Mr. Butler seconded. Mr. Connors, proposed an amendment that Cumann na Ceilidhe get it. Mr. Crotty, seconded. Mr. McCarthy said he would like to make it clear he would not favour giving a monopoly of the hall to any one Club, but he would support Eire Oge for whatever night they preferred.

THE HALL

Mr. O'Dwyer—Some of them are run at a loss. Continuing, Mr. O'Dwyer said he supported Eire Oge, as they were upholding Gaelic games which in his opinion are better any time than Gaelic dancing. This Club had to pay for a field to practice and to make provision for the hire of cars to travel to matches. Mr. Byrne—What revenue are you receiving from the Ceilidhe Club? Clerk—It is slightly over the other Club. I think about 6d. more. Mr. Connors agreed with Mr. O'Dwyer that Gaelic games were more important than dancing, but said he wanted to make it clear that Eire Oge as a Hurling Club could not run such dances, as such dances would disqualify the Club. There is a rule to that effect that dances held by G.A.A. Clubs, all the dances must be Irish, such as are danced at a Ceilidhe.

THE HALL

After some further discussion a vote was taken and resulted— For Eire Oge—Messrs. McCarthy, Hayes, Byrne, Dwyer, Christopher, J. F. Foley, and Butler—(7) For Cumann na Ceilidhe—Messrs.

THE HALL

Mr. Ryan—It was agreed here at the meeting that we have a report on the sites from our Architects and the Medical Officer of Health. Are the Council over-ruling that now. Mr. Christopher—The reports are very necessary. Chairman—As a matter of fact we should have the reports before us to-night. Mr. Byrne—Is not there a report on the site—41 acres before us. Mr. Dahill—Who are your Architects. They may not be sanctioned. Mr. Mansfield—How soon could sanction for the Architects come through. Clerk—It went up in last week's minutes to the Department. Mr. Foley—Even though not yet sanctioned, could they not report. They will be sanctioned all right. Chairman—I don't like to be holding up the scheme, but at the same time I would like to have a report from the Architects and M.O.H. before us. Mr. Clancy said he was opposed to rushing on the houses. He had it from some poor people who are living in the last scheme that they would prefer to be back in their old houses. When the scheme come on he would oppose certain types of houses. Mr. Dahill—If sanction for the Architects is not here this night, I will hand in notice of motion to rescind the order asking them for a report. We don't want to be holding up the scheme for another 12 months. Mr. O'Dwyer—The notice of motion would cause another delay of about three weeks.

THE HALL

The Council decided to await the reports from the Architects and the M.O.H.

YONGHAL RESOLUTION

The following resolution was read from the Yonghal U.D.C.— "That the resolution proposed by Mr. R. Power, seconded by Mr. T. Beausang, and passed by a snap division of this Council at a meeting on November 22nd., is a purely political one and was introduced solely for the purpose of party propaganda. That while we condemn acts of sabotage, the resolution as worded does not represent the views of the majority of the members of this

YONGHAL RESOLUTION

Chairman—I would rather finish it to-night. Mr. Butler—It should be put on the agenda so as to give absent members a chance to discuss it. Chairman—Other matters more important were often dealt with here in the absence of members. Mr. Connors—Since that resolution was first proposed, a change has taken place. There is none of it now, it is dead, and we should leave this die too. I suggest we mark it read. Mr. Dahill—Burn it, burn it, Mr. Chairman. Mr. J. Foley—There is a lot of Hitler about that. Mr. Dahill—There is no Hitler about it. It should be burned. Mr. Crotty—I think it should be put to a vote. Mr. Dahill—I am satisfied, Mr. Crotty. The resolution was then marked read.

SLAUGHTER HOUSES

Applications for licences were read from the various Victuallers in the town. Mr. Christopher—Have we not got adverse reports on some from our M.O.H. Clerk—Yes. Mr. Christopher—Then would it not be well to have him here. Chairman—I suggest a special meeting. It is an important matter and we could hardly do it justice with the time at our disposal to-night. Mr. Christopher—And have the V.S., and M.O.H. present. The Chairman's suggestion was agreed to and a special meeting was fixed for Wednesday night.

YOUGHAL NOTES

The Solemn Feast of Christmas was ushered in at Youghal by the strains of the "Adeste Fideles" played by the League of the Cross Brass Band...

Despite the wretched weather conditions and other depressing circumstances, a satisfactory volume of business was transacted before the holidays, large numbers coming to town by bus and otherwise...

THE POST OFFICE—had an unusually busy time of it, unexpectedly heavy American mails throwing an extra heavy burden on the staff...

Outdoor recreation was practically at a standstill owing to the uncertainty of the weather, Hurst's Picture Palace and Horgan's Bros. Picture Theatre...

A SEASONABLE SHOW—An interesting and highly seasonable exhibition was held in the Domestic Science Room of the Youghal Technical School during the week-end...

YOUGHAL TECHNICAL SCHOOL—The following is an extract from the Inspector's report on the Session 1932-1933:

Thirty-three students were enrolled in the day classes this session as compared with twenty-seven last session. Twenty-two girls followed a course in which domestic economy was the special feature...

Another aspect of the activities of the Inter-Departmental Committee will be brought to the notice of the general public within the next week or two, when each unemployed person will be asked to give replies to a series of questions...

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON—brings its joys, but is very busy, brings its sorrows and troubles...

WHOOPEE—On St. Stephen's Day a big crowd of youngsters flocked together round a shop in the South Main street...

PUBLIC WORKS

GOVERNMENT DRIVE AGAINST UNEMPLOYMENT

Particulars of a Government drive against unemployment are given in connection with an invitation to the public issued by the Inter-Departmental Committee on Public Works...

While the Government is taking every possible step to foster the development of home industries...

A special committee of senior officials from various Government Departments have been for some time at work reviewing the whole sphere of public works...

Under the heading "Public Works" come such varied matters as the construction and repair of roads, the improvement of harbour facilities...

The Committee attach great importance to the value of local knowledge, and feel that no effort should be spared to ensure that such knowledge be utilised for the general benefit...

Another aspect of the activities of the Inter-Departmental Committee will be brought to the notice of the general public within the next week or two...

The Justice—Why do you say that? Mr. Casey—I can get it in my hand to be supplied to all the houses...

The Justice—You are taking a leap in the dark. Mr. Casey—No, sir, I have heard of it, the wording of the Section...

Ultimately a copy was got from the local Labour Exchange. Mr. Casey said they were going under Section 14.

Mr. J. J. Aherne, Manager of the Exchange, having given evidence, Defendant said he pleaded guilty.

The Justice—That simplifies matters considerably. What do you say, Mr. Casey?

Mr. Casey said it was a very serious offence. Those grants were made for the purpose of preventing people from starving and acts of that kind might prevent legitimate cases from being relieved.

Some argument having taken place as to the disqualification involved, the Justice said if he convicted the defendant at all he would be disqualified for at least 6 weeks...

Mr. Justin Condon, Rate Collector, said he occasionally employed Gammon on small jobs. He was a good and willing worker and eager for work.

The Justice said that was a most serious offence and if anyone guilty of it came before the Court, he would be sent to jail without the option of a fine.

Doubtful Identity—Guard Griffin, Killenagh, charged Patk. Gallagher, Conna., with using an unlighted bicycle at 12.30 a.m.

Replying to the Court, defendant persisted in saying he wasn't the man. That was his fourth time in Youghal.

School Attendance Case—The same complainant charged Timothy Smiddy, Boula, with the absence from school of three children, Mary and Wm. Coughlan...
