useful work, and is almost alone in public service works in providing direct tangible benefit to almost every member of the public. This work offers the best solution for a large proportion of our unemployment problem, and its cost to the public must be little more than the cost of providing relief without work to a similar number of men. Money withdrawn from road work in the past has been spent on relief for unemployment. Surely it is a better policy to expend 21 and get value for it than to spend 10s, and get nothing for it beyond a certain amount of demoralisation. On November 14th witness counted on the following day he found that one dent insisted on calling another wit was missing. On November 16th, 2 ness he would adjourn the further sheep went, and on Sunday, November hearing of the case to the next Court.

18th he sent a man to Wm. Murphy to tell him that three of his sheep were missing, that John Lee had taken two of them, but he did not know who took the other one, Murphy said it was all right about the two, and not to worry, but that he would see Mr. Carroll, solr., in Fermoy, about the other one. Gross-examined by Mr. Carroll, witness said he keeps entries in a book showing the number of sheep on the land each day. Murphy's sheep were the only ones on the land since Sept. 12th. There was one sheep which had no blue marks, but the figure "5" branded on the horn, and Murphy took her away on December 28th and Lee pointed out to him two mountain sheep. There were no raddle of the letter "L" on the stump of one horn, and on the top of the other horn it appeared that the top of the letter "L" had been cut off but the lower "L" had been cut off but the lower rection remained. On December 7th witness called at accused a residence, but Murphy was not then at home. On December 10th he met accused and told him he was making injuried about some sheep alleged to have been skelen from John Lee, Pk. Mansfield, and Wm. Prendergast. He duly continued Murphy who then made a cantioned Murphy, who then made a lengthy statement which witness took in writing which was signed by Murphy.

Sergeant Joseph Ballantyne, Lismore,

WAGES On the proposition of Mr. Savage, seconded by Mr. McCarthy, a cheque Mr. MacNamara—Surely the Bri for £69 2s. 9d., wages etc., for work, Legion is a benevolent association. was passed.

CINEMAS

The usual applications for cinema licences were granted.

Mr. R. Hurst, Picture Palace, wrote stating that he was surprised to receive a request from the Council that the National Anthem be played at the end of each performance as he had been doing so for the past 21 years. Regarding the audience he could not compel them to remain while it was being played. Mr. Daly said his suggestion was that a request be put on the screen asking the audience to remain.

Mr. Savage asked, in connection with these licences, whether something could not be done to exclude children, say up to 14 years, from the nightly performances. It was a shocking disgrace to see youngsters, questing that tenants in urban areas who should be at their lessons or in their beds, trooping home through the streets after 11 o'clock, apart from the moral effect of some of the films.

their arms attending and going home at all hours. The Clerk was instructed to inquire into their powers.

CORK HILL

A strong complaint was read from a most prominent resident of Cork Hill. regarding the condition, of that place. Orders had been given some time since to repair and clean up that vicinity, it. but it hadn't been done.

Mr. Daly corroborated the complaint. Mr. Power said the chairman and Messrs. Daly, Lynch and he had visited the scene. The place was in a shocking condition. The Town Sergeant said he was kept going on various other works. Mr. O'Sullivan-Maybe Mr. Troy has not enough of men to do all the work. The Chairman-On occasions he might require 20 men and the following week very few.

Mr. Whelan-In the old days the staff, had to do 2 or 3 miles of main roads in addition to the rest.

The Superintendent said the men had been engaged during the week making good two bursts on the water main at Templemihall.

A STRAND STRUCTURE

Mr. A. R. Farrell, Solr., Dungarvan, wrote that Mrs. Hurley, of the Esplanade Hotel, had handed him the Council's letter to her on the 11th inst. with instructions to reply thereto. If they would refer to the copy plan submitted to the Council and passed by them, they would see that Mrs. Hurley was erecting the building in strict conformity thereto, and he had advised her to continue with the building and to complete it without departing in any way from the plans. BREACH OF LICENSING LAWS Coperintendent Walsh, Dungarvan, proceduted Mr. H. Coady, Ring, with a breach of the Licensing laws on December 25th, Xmas Day.

Mr. Farrell, Solr., for the defendants, Superintendent Walsh said that on found the defendant and in the bar said he had come to pay a bill and the get, a job. He would not. I think I cher two men said they were invited.

Mrs. Coady corroborated this statemant. Under the Amended Licensing Act, the Superintendent submitted that if the men were invited they should he in another part of the house, not in

Mr. Farrell said he was instructed to plead guilty. As the Superintendent was not calling any evidence, he (Mr. Farrell) would make this statement on behalf of Mrs. Coady The offence was committed on Xmas Day and the time was 1 50 p.m., which was after the last University. I lost thousands of pounds Mrss. This did not interfere with the devotions and there was no one on the premises during Mass. Justice-There is no charge of selling drink during Mass. Mr. Farrell-I know. But if that happened it would be dealt with more seriously, in addition to that, the day was Xmas Day, and a very friendly feeling prevails on that day. These
