Confirmation in Dungarvan

MOST REV. DR. KINANE'S ADDRESS

In glorious sunshine His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, came to Dungarvan and administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to over 200 children of the Parish on Sunday last.

His Lordship was met on his arrival at the Bridge by the Brass and Reed Band under Mr. McHugh, B.M., and played to the Parish Church. Here His Lordship was received by Very Rev. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., and the curates of the Parish.

The children were drawn from the Mercy and Presentation Convent Schools; C.B. Schools; Glenbeg, N.S.; and Carriglea N.S. They presented a very attractive appearance, the girls in white dresses and flowing veils being comely to behold.

Mass was celebrated by Rev. T. B. Walsh, C.C.

BISHOP'S ADDRESS

Ascending the pulpit, His Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, said it was an ideal time for him to come amongst his flock as it was within the Octave of the Feast of the Good Shepherd. Coming there on his Episcopal visitation to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation it was very consolating and very heartening for him to find their parish so beautifully equipped with religious institutions and in which the people are so good; a parish in which both priests and people cooperate so harmoniously and so successfully in promoting God's glory and the welfare of His Church.

He came there that day to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation to a number of children in the Parish—that Sacrament which strengthens them and was specially instituted to prepare them for the strenuous battle of life before them. He had also to examine the children in Christian Doctrine to see if they were sufficiently prepared for the reception of the Sacrament and that they had that ground work of Christian knowledge which would enable them to carry on in their battle through life.

He had examined the children on Thursday and Friday and he was extremely pleased with them. They were really splendid practically without exception. The children could not be much better. He was very grateful to all engaged in the preparation of the children. They did their work very well indeed and I know it is very strenuous work. I am grateful to the parents, priests and teachers—teachers both religious and secular. The teachers had a very hard time and they deserve special credit for the work they have done.

The fundamental purpose is to get the children to lead good Christian lives and live in accordance with God's law and the commandments of the Church. The priests and teachers play a very important part in so far as the teaching of Christian Doctrine is concerned, but in actual training to lead good Christian lives the part of the parents is by far the most important. Unless the children had good home lives parents would not have the influence over them they should have. In this home life parents must give a good example to their children. Prayers taught by parents have a much greater influence in after years than those they have learned otherwise. The tendency of parents at the present time was to be too lax. He did not believe in denying children legitimate amusement, but there was an inclination to let the children do as they please and if such were allowed parents would lose influence over their children.

His Lordship made a strong appeal to parents to exercise full control over their children—by being gentle and not harsh—and by doing so their children would grow up a credit to them and they would have God's blessing on them.

That Parish was in splendid condition and the people generally left very little to be desired. He had been extremely heartened by his visit to Dungarvan.

His Lordship made an urgent appeal for Fraternal Charity which was the basis of true Christian peace. They were bound by Divine Law to love their enemies—"Do good to those who hate you and bless those who persecute and calumniate you."

That was the essence of true fraternal charity. They were bound to forgive their enemies and use them well and if they could do so without inconvenience to themselves to come to their assistance.

He exhorted the congregation to be very particular in the fulfilment of this duty and the practice of fraternal charity as it was the true basis of that Christian Peace for which their Holy Father was so zealous. He exhorted them because it was a most important duty and it was the real test and proof that they had the love of God in them.

Subsequently His Lordship administered the Sacrament of Confirmation.

Confirmation in Abbeyside

On Friday, May, 10th His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, Bishop of Waterford and Lismore administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to the boys and girls of Abbeyside Parish.

Attending His Lordship were: Very Rev. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., Very Rev. N. Dunphy, P.P., Rev. M. Power, C.C., Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., Rev. P. F. McGrath, C.C.

After the celebration of Mass, His Lordship addressed the large congregation. He said firstly that he was very pleased with the very satisfactory state of the Parish and was delighted to see their Church in such a beautiful condition which was indeed a credit to the Parish. His Lordship referred to the answering of the children he had examined for Confirmation and said it was splendid and that it gave him great pleasure to see such a good religious knowledge imparted to the children by the teachers on whose shoulders fell the responsibility of preparing them for the reception of this great Sacrament. He also thanked the priests and the parents of the children, and exhorted the parents especially to give the children every good example in the home. His Lordship said that in rearing their children parents should be kind and gentle and not harsh, and by firm action keep the children under their control from the time they first come to the use of reason.

His Lordship then referred to what he said was a very important matter the Fraternity. They had here in this parish the Fraternity of the Sacred Heart and he would be delighted to think that every one in the parish was an active member of this Fraternity, and by attending to their spiritual duties in a regular and fervent manner secure their eternal salvation. He appealed to all to become active members and reminded the children whom he was about to confirm to also become members and thereby increase the numbers of the Fraternity and give special devotion to the Sacred Heart.

His Lordship then confirmed the children and subsequently imparted the pledge to them.

Addressing the children he told them that it was one of the greatest days of their lives for they had that day received a Sacrament which they could only receive once in a lifetime. He complimented them on their splendid knowledge of Religious Instruction, and said it gave him great pleasure to see such intelligence displayed by them.

In conclusion, his Lordship said he hoped they would all be happy and asked them to live up to the great blessings bestowed on them by the Sacrament of Confirmation and grow up to be good Catholic men and women. He asked them to think of him in their prayers and he would also pray for them.

His Lordship then gave Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament and subsequently gave his blessing to the large congregation who flocked to him and fervently kissed his ring.

The sponsors were Mrs. M. J. Christopher, N.T., and Mr. M. J. McCarthy, N.T.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. MAHER, EX-N.T., ABBEYSIDE

A Beautiful Silver Tray suitably inscribed was presented to Mrs. Maher, ex-N.T., Sarsfield street, Abbeyside, on Friday May 10th by her past pupils of Ballinacourty National School.

On that morning the past pupils of Mrs. Maher were confirmed in Abbeyside Parish Church and it was a very fitting occasion in which the make the presentation.

Mrs. Maher entertained her past-pupils to a party and thanked them for their beautiful present for which she was very grateful to them. All present thoroughly enjoyed the high fare so kindly prepared for them by Mrs. Maher, and were delighted to have spent such a happy time on their Confirmation day.

DUNGARVAN FAIR—

There was a big supply of cattle at Wednesday's fair, but prices were miserable, and the improvement expected did not materialise. Yearlings made 30/- to 35/-; some nice blacks made up to 25/-; 2-year-olds sold at 22/10s.; to 25 and 3-year-olds 25/10s. to 28 and sheep made 35/- to 45/-. There was a large supply of pigs and they sold at 21 to 22 according to quality.

He was assisted by Very Rev. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., Very Rev. N. Dunphy, P.P., Abbeyside; Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., Rev. P. F. McGrath, C.C., and Rev. T. B. Walsh, C.C.

After the administration of the Sacrament His Lordship delivered a short allocution to the children. He then gave Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

Mr. Jas. O'Donovan, Chairman, presided at the meeting of the above at Dungarvan, on Wednesday. Also present—Mr. Commissioner Moynihan, Messrs. J. Cassidy, T. Synott, J. Cosgrave, T. Dunne, P. Caulfield.

MINUTES OF LAST MEETING

Before signing the minutes, Mr. Cosgrave, questioned their correctness, and said that the resolution passed regarding the Hospital Scheme which was on the minutes as passed unanimously, should be corrected as he dissented. The resolution was not passed unanimously, and he wanted it corrected.

Commissioner—My recollection is that Mr. Cosgrave spoke against the resolution, but later when appealed to by the Chairman for unanimity he agreed.

Mr. Cosgrave—Not alone did I dissent then, but I dissent now and I want a proper record.

Chairman—I would ask the Board to pass the minutes. I think what the Commissioner said is right. Mr. Cosgrave opposed the resolution, but I appealed to him to let it be unanimous.

Mr. Cosgrave—I dissented then and I do so now. He did not want to be put in a false position, and would not allow this Board to put him in a false position. He would ask the Secretary to make the necessary correction.

Secretary—The simplest way is to take the opinion of the members who were present.

Mr. Caulfield—Mr. Cosgrave spoke against the proposition, but he thought that Mr. Cosgrave was later influenced by the Chairman's appeal to have the resolution passed unanimously.

After some more discussion it was decided to mark the resolution passed. Mr. Cosgrave dissenting.

PLANS FOR HOSPITALS

Mr. Dixon, Architect, to the Board under the Hospitalisation Scheme, attended the meeting with plans of the proposed Waterford, Dungarvan and Lismore Hospitals, which he explained to the Board. The plans submitted show a new Hospital on the site of the old Co. Hospital at Waterford. Dungarvan—an independent block to contain 120 beds to be erected to the west of the present Co. Home. The present District Hospital to be retained to house the staffs. Lismore—New Hospital to be erected on the site of the old Co. Home. New Fever Hospital to be erected on lands to be acquired.

Chairman—I don't think we could decide anything now. I suggest that Mr. Dixon, leave the plans so that we can go into them.

Commissioner Moynihan suggested that a small sub-committee be appointed to go into details and report for next meeting.

Mr. Cosgrave asked was there any estimate for all these buildings before them. He understood that there is to be a special meeting called in Waterford to protest against this on the grounds, firstly of the unnecessary expense, and secondly, on the grounds of exiling the poor people of Waterford from their friends, whom they will not have a chance of seeing again until they meet them in the "Valley of Josepheth."

He (Mr. Cosgrave) wanted to know if there was even a rough estimate so that the public would know what the expense would be.

Chairman—You must ask Mr. Dixon that.

It was decided that the whole Board consider the matter at a special meeting in Waterford on Friday week.

HOME ASSISTANCE

The Secretary reported the amount of Home Assistance paid during the month was £1,000 10s. 6d., for the preceding month the amount was £1,516 16s. 2d., and for the corresponding period last year £2,915 5s. 11d.

APPOINTMENT OF NIGHT NURSE

The Department wrote stating that they saw no necessity for the appointment of a night nurse at the Waterford Fever Hospital. There was no case made by the Board why alternate night and day nursing should not be taken by the nurses.

Mr. Caulfield—That's that.

Secretary—The point is, can you compel a nurse appointed for day duty to do night duty?

Commissioner—That letter is very definite.

Chairman—If there are three nurses on day duty and only one at night, surely it isn't necessary to have three on day duty. We can only submit the letter to the nurse.

Mr. Cosgrave—We intended appointing a secular nurse. The recent inquiry was brought about firstly, to show neglect and secondly, to show that the hospital was understaffed.

Chairman—It is not fair that the night nurse should not get a change.

It is not fair to keep any young nurse continually on night duty.

Mr. Cosgrave—You have appointed the nurses as day or night nurses. Can you change that?

Secretary—The Appointments Commissioners made the appointments. I do not know the conditions. It is recognised that one nurse did day or night duty only.

Chairman—It is not fair to any young girl to keep her on night duty continually. One way to upset the present arrangement would be to give the night nurse a day off every week, or a week off every month. We could refer that matter to the community.

Mr. Cosgrave—How many nurses are there in Lismore?

Secretary—Two; but when necessary they get temporary nurses.

Mr. Cosgrave—How many cases are usually in Lismore?

Secretary—Sometimes there may be only one.

Mr. Cosgrave said he remembered having 300 cases in Waterford. The nurses and nuns are worked to death there.

Mr. Caulfield—It isn't fair for a nurse to be doing night duty for the past 14 years and working 84 hours a week.

Secretary—If you give the nurses alternate day and night duty, you would require to revise the day nurses salaries, as it would not be fair to give one nurse £40 a year and the other £72 for the same duty.

Mr. Cosgrave—Why is the salary £40?

Secretary—Because there was no increase applied for.

The matter was adjourned for the observation of the Community.

RESOLUTION RE RAILWAYMEN

A letter was read from the Department of Industry and Commerce regarding the resolution from the Board asking them to make representations to the Railway Company re the reinstatement of the railwaymen at Waterford, pointing out that the Minister had already made representations to the Railway Company with regard to the reinstatement of the men.

Letters on the same subject were also read from Mr. Little, T.D., Mrs. Redmond, T.D., and Mr. Sean Goulding, T.D., the latter stating that with the Mayor he called on Mr. Floyd, Traffic Manager, G.S. Railways, who assured them that the men would be re-instated as vacancies occur.

Mr. Caulfield—How many of the railway workers are getting assistance now?

Superintendent Phelan—During the past few weeks some of the men are taken back to work. We had 25 at one period.

MIDWIFE APPOINTED

A letter was read from the Appointments Commissioners recommending the appointment of Mrs. Mary Condon, Boola, Co. Limerick, as Midwife, Rathgormack Dispensary District. The appointment was approved of.

LISMORE NOTES

DRAMATIC ENTERTAINMENT—
A very enjoyable entertainment, comprising a concert and drama, was given at the Town Hall, Lismore, on Sunday night by the Lismore Dramatic Society, when the available space was fully taxed to accommodate an appreciative audience.

The staging of a three-act comedy, entitled "The Able Dealer" was the principal feature of the evening's entertainment in which all the artistes acquitted themselves with distinction and a most enjoyable night was spent. The cast was as follows:—Mr. John Barry (Signon Daly) (The Able Dealer); Mr. John Singleton (Professor Haden, alias Horace Barry); Edward Stapleton (Michael Cogan, Simon's grand-nephew); Miss Kitty Keyes (his wife); Miss Maggie Stapleton (daughter); Mr. Michael O'Brien (Dano Carroll, Simon's grand-nephew); Miss Peggy Whelan (his wife); Mr. Jack Barnes (Mr. O'Sullivan, solicitor).

All the parts were well interpreted, and some of the players showed very marked ability. It would be hardly fair to mention one name more than another but John Singleton, John Barry and Edward Stapleton should get special mention for the way they acted their parts.

The second part of the programme opened with Miss Kitty Crowley dancing the hornpipe and jig for which she received a pronounced applause. Mr. John Barnes then gave a beautiful rendering of "Oh, Fred, Tell Them To Stop." He got a hearty encore and he had to respond with an old favourite "I'm One Of the Lads From Valencia." Mr. Ned Stapleton, Humorous, supplied unlimited laughter. His discourse on "Mrs. Mulligan" was excellent and most highly appreciated. Mrs. John Barnes, next appeared and was greeted with a hearty applause. Her song was "Angus McDonald," after which she had to respond to a hearty encore. Mr. Michael O'Brien, always so popular on the concert stage gave "Smilin' Thru," in his own inimitable way as a completion of the second part of the programme.

The third part of the programme opened with a Gipsy Troupe, for which a gipsy encampment had been designed as a setting, and the costumes and scenery lent a romantic and colourful touch to the musical fare. The singers included Mr. M. Whelan, Miss Sheila Daly, Miss Peggy Whelan, Mr. John Barry, Miss K. Keyes and Mr. Ned Stapleton. The songs contributed were "The Stein Song," "Ole Faithful," "Over My Shoulder" and "We'll All go Riding On A Rainbow." The proceedings were brought to a close by the entire troupe singing the National Anthem.

The stage sets were a tribute to the thoroughness and ability of John O'Grady and James Barry, who managed this department with an efficiency all their own. At the close, Mr. John Barnes, on behalf of the Dramatic Society thanked the audience for their generous response.

The Race Draw took place during the interval and the result was as follows:—1st Prize (A Fat Calf)—Miss T. Noonan, Lismore; 2nd Prize (Fat Sheep)—Kitty Melligan, Lismore; 3rd Prize (Fat Calf)—Charlie Guest, Lismore; 4th Prize (Camera)—Miss Ahearne, Lismore; 5th Prize (Valuable Clock)—J. O. Kavanagh, do.; 6th Prize (Sack of Potatoes)—T. Meade, do.; 7th Prize (Gent's Watch)—J. Barry, Lismore; 8th Prize (Silver Potato Fork)—E. Scully, do.; 9th Prize (Huge Doll)—P. F. Crotty, O'Connell street, Dungarvan; 10th Prize (Gent's Pullover)—Mrs. Allison, Lismore; 11th Prize (Sack of Potatoes)—Chris. O'Donnell, Lismore; 12th Prize (2 lbs. Tea)—Michael O'Farrell.

YOUNG GIRL IN TROUBLE AT LISMORE

VARIOUS CHARGES OF STEALING MONEY

A young girl of respectable appearance named Josephine Cashman, who gave her age as 19 years, was charged at Lismore Court before Mr. H. A. McCarthy, D.J., with the larceny of various sums of money from Peter McLoughlin, Glencairn, on various dates in February and March.

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, prosecuted and Mr. E. Carroll, solr., Fermoy, appeared for the accused.

The Justice asked if there were many depositions to be taken in the case, because if there were, he was afraid he would not be able to finish the case that day as he should rise at 4 o'clock.

The Supt. said there were six fairly long depositions to be taken.

The Justice said in that event it would be better to adjourn the case until the next Court, as it would mean no hardship on the accused if she would be allowed out on bail.

Mr. E. Carroll, solr., said he had no objection to an adjournment provided his client was let out on continuing bail, as she was at present on bail, her surety being Peter McLoughlin, the man from whom she was alleged to have stolen the money.

The case was accordingly adjourned to the June Court, accused being allowed out on continuing bail, Peter McLoughlin signing a fresh bail bond for her to appear at the next Court.

LISMORE FAIR—MAY 8th.

There was a very small supply of cattle, sheep and pigs on offer, the supply was practically cleared at prices showing an advance of 10% to 15% per head. Yearlings 41/10s. to 42/10s. per head; two-year-olds 43/ to 44. For Springers trade was better at improved prices. The sheep trade kept up well, ewes and lambs made from 30/- to 32/6, wethers 21 to 21 5s., fat sheep 21 5s. to 30s. Very few pigs remained unsold and prices showed a small increase at 12/- to 14 for bonhams and 11 to 11 5s. for stores.

HOUSING SCHEME

ARCHITECTS' REPORT

QUESTION OF UNION WORKERS

The weekly meeting of the above was held on Friday, Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presiding. Also present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, V.C.; S. Hayes, P. Byrne, P. O'Dwyer, J. Dahill, P. Quann, J. Christopher, J. Mansfield M. Connors, J. Foley, J. Crotty.

WATER SUPPLY

A letter complaining of a bad water supply was read from Mr. Sullivan, Mitchell street. The letter stated that the defect must be in the main.

The matter was referred to the B.S. Denis Dee, Caretaker, Glendine water supply reported everything satisfactory.

Other complaints were referred to the Water Inspector.

THANKS

Mr. Foley, Kilossera, Thos. Sheridan, Shandon, wrote thanking the Council for recent resolutions of sympathy.

ALLOTMENTS

Payment of £67 8s. was received from the Department of Agriculture in connection with the unemployed allotments.

KING STREET, SEWER

A letter from the L.G.B., asking for further information in connection with the proposed new sewer at King street, Abbeyside, was referred to the B.S.

HARBOUR FINANCES

A communication was received from the Minister for Industry and Commerce enquiring as to what steps the Council had taken in connection with the harbour finances.

Chairman—We adjourned that matter to our annual meeting.

The Clerk stated that he had not yet received sanction for the loan of £220 in connection with the harbour. There was £140 to be transferred to the general account and the proportion for lighting and roads. The harbour would be in a bad state. He was instructed to write again for sanction for the loan.

APPLICATION FOR HOUSE

Mrs. McGrath, Old Chapel street, attended the meeting and asked for a vacant house at Thomas' Terrace. She stated she lived in the clearance area and for her present house was paying 6/8 per week.

Mr. Byrne said that the Council were unanimous that those who were allotted houses in Loughmore and did not take them would not get another house. He gathered from Mrs. McGrath that this house was to be given to a Miss Greany. He would like Mr. O'Meara to explain.

Mr. Dahill—Was Mrs. McGrath offered a house in Loughmore?

The Clerk stated that Mrs. McGrath was offered a house in Loughmore on two occasions and she refused to take it.

Mr. Byrne—Why cannot we compel those people to go into the houses allotted to them.

Clerk—If you could settle the matter it would make things easy for the Council and the Collector.

Mr. Byrne—Mr. O'Meara is not entitled to give this house away.

Clerk—If the Council would take over the letting of the houses it would be sure to be good for the collector as he doesn't want the responsibility of letting the houses at all.

Mr. Byrne—I say that pressure was brought to bear on the collector to give this house to Miss Greany.

Clerk—That may be so. I suppose members have the same right to do a little canvassing as the private individual. You might do the same yourself.

Mr. Byrne—I didn't do it yet anyway.

Then there is a pleasure in store for you.

Mr. Dahill—There is an order on the books that the letting of the houses be left in the hands of the collector. The Council agreed to that. I think Mr. Butler was the only one that objected.

Chairman—It was passed by the previous Council and approved of by us.

Mr. Byrne said the giving of the house to Miss Greany would be casting a slur on the poor people at Loughmore.

After further discussion the matter was left in the hands of the collector.

ARCHITECTS' REPORT

Messrs. Doyle and Ormond, architects, reported on the sites offered in connection with the proposed new housing scheme by Mr. Dee and Miss Power.

The report stated that Mr. Dee's site had a suitable surface and could be easily drained. It would have to be drained owing to the slope towards the O'Connell street side. The site offered by Miss Power was too narrow and would be only of use if the adjoining land was purchased. As the site is at present, it should not be considered. From a town planning point of view the sites would not be suitable as the houses would be too scattered. The Council decided that the report be forwarded to the Department.

CARETAKER FOR PARK

Tenders were received for the caretaking of the Park and men's bathing place. Thomas Egan, tendered at 15/- per week; James Street, 12/- per week and Wm. Hayes, 13/6 per week. James Street's tender being the lowest was accepted.

The ladies bathing place was let to Miss Wall for £1 for the season.

SKILLED UNION LABOUR

Mr. Hayes proposed, and Mr. Byrne seconded that in future only skilled workers belonging to a Union be employed by the Council.

Mr. Hayes said it did not mean that tradesmen should belong to the I.T. & G. W. Union, but they could be members of any recognised Union. In some places there were no branches of the Unions, but they could belong to say, the Waterford Branch.

Mr. Crotty—Must employers of say plumbers be members of a Union.

Mr. Mansfield—It should not apply to contractors, but the way the resolution is written it does.

Mr. Hayes—Is the painting of the seats in the Park a contract?

Clerk—Yes.

Mr. Hayes—That is what it covers.

Chairman—Does it refer to the lighting at Ballinacourty and the painting of buoys?

Mr. Byrne—The light-keeper will not be effected owing to his age.

Mr. Hayes—It covers inside the Urban area.

Chairman—The other resolution on unskilled labour does not take in contracts.

Mr. Mansfield—It should be the same with this.

Mr. Crotty—We shouldn't force our people to join Unions in Cork or Waterford.

Mr. Foley—This only applies to the Council.

Mr. Crotty—This is the thin edge of the wedge.

Mr. McCarthy—That is what we labour members are here for.

Mr. Christopher—We are not labour members, you know.

Mr. Foley—This applies to any servant of the Council.

Chairman—Is there any amendment.

Mr. Christopher—I am against it for one.

On a show of hands the resolution was passed by 8 votes to 4.

For the resolution—Messrs. McCarthy, Hayes, Byrne, O'Dwyer, Mansfield, Connors, Dahill and the Chairman—(8).

Against—Messrs. Foley, Christopher, Quann, and Crotty—(4).

MAPS OF WATER MAINS

Mr. Connors asked if the Council had all the maps in connection with the water mains throughout the system.

The B.S. said he would look the matter up and if any maps were missing he would get new ones made.

40-HOUR WEEK IN ALL SHOPS

NEW PROPOSALS TO MINISTER

Far-reaching proposals are contained in a communication sent by the Irish Trade Union Congress to the Minister for Local Government and Public Health, asking him to receive a deputation to discuss proposals for new shops legislation, and urging the necessity for such legislation at an early date.

A resolution from Congress has been forwarded to the Secretary of the Department in connection with this request.

In a memorandum of recommendations for amendments to the existing Shops Acts a new definition is given to the term "shop assistant," it is suggested that the normal hours of employment for all shop assistants, with the exception of those covered by special legislation, such as workers on licensed premises, shall be limited to 40 per week.

Where there is a reasonable demand for hours of work in excess of 40 per week it is proposed that overtime might be allowed throughout the particular trade concerned. It is suggested that overtime should be paid for at a rate not less than one and a half times the rate paid for normal time. The demand is made that the weekly half-holiday should not commence later than 1 o'clock in the day; that the closing hour for all classes of shops shall not be earlier than 6 p.m. on any full day, and not later than 7 p.m.

It is suggested that all shops except the following should be closed on Sundays—Shops for sale of milk, newspapers, refreshment rooms and restaurants for the sale of soft drinks, fruit and meals. Limited opening hours, to be fixed by the authorities responsible, are suggested for these shops.

The health and welfare conditions should, according to the T.U.C., be similar to those enforced under the Factories and Workshops Acts, and the inspection system should be extended to embrace all conditions necessary to health and welfare.

It is proposed that the local authority responsible for the administration of the suggested legislation and of the existing Acts should appoint a Local Advisory Board, consisting of an equal number of representatives of employers and employees, with a chairman appointed by the Local Authority, subject to the sanction of the Minister.

The duties of the Local Advisory Boards would be to make recommendations effecting workshop conditions, hours of employment, including the question of overtime, etc.

The T.U.C. propose that a National Advisory Board should also be set up composed in the same manner from persons nominated by the central organisation of the employers and of the

Cappoquin District Nursing Association

The annual general meeting of the above Association was held in the C.Y.M.S. Hall, Cappoquin, on Thursday 2nd inst.

The Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., presided, and there were also present—Lady Eleanor Keane President, Mrs. R. H. Keane, Vice-President, Miss Foley, Hon. Sec., Mrs. R. B. Burditt, The Rectory, Cappoquin, Mrs. E. Colender, Mrs. J. Kelleher, Miss B. Greene, Miss M. Boyd, Miss K. Roche, Knockalara, the Misses Maureen and Eileen Regan, and Ven. Archdeacon Burditt, M.A., Rector, Cappoquin.

THE ANNUAL REPORT

The Annual Report for the year 1932 stated—"Small ailments that might have been serious but for prompt attention. Serious cases saved from death or disablement and restored to health and vigour. Sad cases eased and cheered through their last days of suffering.

"Precious babies launched on the sea of life, their mothers carefully tended and shown many a wrinkle as to how to care the little ones committed to their charge—This is the record of quiet work that goes on from year to year.

"Nurse Lyne, continues in charge of Cappoquin District, and the reports of Inspections made by the Queen's Institute of Nurses confirm the general opinion of her great skill and care.

"The Association is greatly indebted to Mr. B. Arthur for Auditing the Accounts, to Mr. J. Lincoln for his splendid work as Hon. Treasurer, to Dr. Wm. White, for his unflinching consideration and co-operation, and last, but not least, to those ladies who, week after week, go from house to house collecting those subscriptions, which, though small in themselves, yet together meet a large part of the expenses of the Association.

The following are statistics of cases nursed by Miss Lyne during 1932:—General cases, 195; Midwifery, 30; T.B. 6; Convalescents, 168; Visits paid to General Cases, 3,416; Midwifery, 319; T.B. 179; Child Welfare, 3,293.

The Committee met four times during 1932 with the following attendances:—Lady Eleanor Keane, Mrs. Burditt and Mrs. Ryan, 4; Mrs. Villiers Stuart, Miss Foley, Miss Lincoln, Mrs. Keane, and Mrs. Colender, 3; Mrs. Jameson, 1.

The Committee acknowledges with very much gratitude the following gifts to the Association:—From Mrs. Scanlon, Clontarf, Co. Dublin, Air Cushion and Cotton Wool; Mrs. Villiers Stuart, Sofa Cushions for Nurse's House; Lady Eleanor Keane, Babies' Jackets; Mrs. R. H. Keane, Pneumonia Jackets, etc."

Archdeacon Burditt said the report was a very creditable and satisfactory one, and he proposed its adoption.

Mrs. R. H. Keane, seconded the motion which was passed unanimously.

THE TREASURERS REPORT

The Treasurer's Report, submitted by Mr. James Lincoln, and audited by Mr. B. Arthur, Manager, National Bank, Lismore, showed the substantial credit balance of £133, this being made up of Post Office Savings Bank Deposit, £45 1s. 3d.; War Stock, £50; Cash on hands, £23 1s. 9d., and cash in Bank, £14 17s. 0d.

This statement was also considered highly satisfactory, and was unanimously adopted, high tributes being paid to Mr. Lincoln and Mr. Arthur for the painstaking and admirable manner in which they had prepared the balance sheet.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

On the motion of Mrs. J. Kelleher, seconded by Miss M. Boyd, all the outgoing Officers and Committee were re-elected "in globo" as follows:—

President—Lady Eleanor Keane. Vice-Presidents—Mrs. R. H. Keane, and Mrs. Villiers Stuart.

Executive Committee—Mrs. R. B. Burditt, Mrs. Jameson, Mrs. R. J. Colender, Mrs. Ryan and Miss Lincoln, with all the honorary officers added.

Hon. Treasurer—Mr. Jas. Lincoln, Cappoquin.

Hon. Secretary—Miss Foley, Knockalara.

The honorary collectors for the coming year were re-elected as follows:—Mrs. R. J. Colender, Miss Boyd, Miss B. Denn, Miss Kerfoot, Mrs. J. McGrath, Miss Ryan, Miss Watson, Miss Cliffe, Miss Foley, Miss Lincoln, Mrs. W. McGrath, Miss K. Roche, Miss Keane, the Misses Lacey, Miss Regan, and Miss Walsh.

The Very Rev. Chairman then proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the officers and committee for the great services which they had rendered on behalf of the sick poor during the past year, and also for the admirable management in which they had managed the business of the Association. He paid a special tribute to Nurse Lyne for the great work which she had carried out in looking after the comfort and welfare of the sick, as revealed by the statistics shown in the Annual Report, and said the Association was extremely fortunate in having such a kind, attentive and skilful Nurse at their disposal, (hear, hear).

Mrs. Kelleher, seconded the vote of thanks, which was passed with enthusiasm.

Lady Keane, then proposed a cordial vote of thanks to Father Fitzgerald, for his kindness in presiding at the meeting and said she was sure his kind and influential assistance would prove a great asset to the Association. (hear, hear).

Ven. Archdeacon Burditt, in seconding, paid a glowing tribute to the great services which Lady Keane had always so freely given, and said it was very doubtful if they would be able to have any Nursing Association in Cappoquin only for the great interest which she had taken in the matter. He said it was a great blessing to have such a splendid Association in the town, and they were very fortunate in having such a kind and skilful Nurse as Miss Lyne, who had never spared herself in alleviating the sufferings of the sick poor amongst them.

Having praised the great work carried out by the lady collectors in going from house to house each week for subscriptions, he also paid high tribute to the excellent work of Miss Foley, as Hon. Sec., and Mr. Jas. Lincoln, Treasurer, while he felt they were deeply indebted to Father Fitzgerald for his great kindness in presiding, and also for the keen personal interest which he had shown in the affairs of the Association. As this was the first occasion on which Father Fitzgerald had honoured them by his presence he (speaker) bade him a hearty welcome amongst them, and he hoped that he would be spared for many years to enjoy the exalted position which he now held in the Catholic Church, and that they would have the pleasure of his attendance at many more meetings in the future, (applause).

Lady Keane, and Father Fitzgerald, having briefly thanked the Archdeacon for his kind remarks towards them, the proceedings terminated.

Sale of Seized Cattle at Dungarvan.

Twelve cattle seized from Mr. Thos. Gough, Kilmoyimogue, Portlaw, for annuities were on Friday offered for sale at the Pound, Dungarvan by Mr. English, Assistant Registrar. The amount in default was £21 7s. 3d.

About a dozen Guards under Supt. Walsh, Dungarvan, were on duty, but the sale was the quietest yet experienced, there being no demonstration of any kind.

It was the first occasion that the owner at a sale here bid for the cattle himself. A stranger opened the bidding at £9. Mr. Gough, the owner, bid £9 5s. A further bid of £9 10s. by the stranger was beaten by a bid of £9 15s. from Mr. Gough. There being no further bidding, the cattle were knocked down to their owner.

It was learned that when Pound fees, etc., are paid there will only be left something over £3 to go towards the discharge of the debt.

PRESENTATION TO DR. DOUGLAS HYDE

A large and representative gathering was present in the Council Chamber of University College, Dublin, on the occasion of a presentation to Dr. Douglas Hyde as a memento of a life's work. The presentation took the form of an illuminated, framed scroll. The design of the scroll has been carried out on the finest Roman vellum, and the raised gold work has been carefully modelled in gesso, coated with Armenian bole and overlaid with double line pure gold leaf. The dominant note of colour is real ultramarine blue, made from lapis lazuli. The craftsmanship of the frame was founded on mediæval Italian recipes.

President de Valera and Mrs. de Valera were present, and the attendance included the Lord Mayor of Dublin (Ald. Byrne, T.D.), Mr. Justice Meredith, Gen. Mulcahy, T.D.; Prof. Hayes, Prof. O'Dwyer, the President of University College (Dr. Coffey); Dr. Kiernan (Director of Broadcasting); the Ceann Comhairle of Dail Eireann (Mr. Fahy), Mr. James McNeill, ex-Governor-General.

Letters of apology for non-attendance were received from His Eminence Cardinal MacRory, Most Rev. Dr. Dooley, Bishop of Elphin; Most Rev. Dr. Wall, Bishop of Thasos; Dr. Llewellyn Jones, M.P., etc., etc.

Padraig O'Siochradha ("An-Seabhaic") said that they had assembled that night to honour their old leader in the Gaelic movement, "An Craoibhin Aibhinn." That meeting brought to mind the fine meetings held by the Gaelic League years ago. They had with them that night many of the old workers in the language movement, and many of the young workers of the present day.

Dr. Eoin MacNeill recalled what was in the minds of many earnest young Irishmen 45 years ago. They were anxious about the state of the Irish language, but did not know how to bring about an effective remedy. At that time a certain paper printed a speech made in America, a speech which gave them at home great hope. It was "An Craoibhin" who made that speech. Dr. Douglas Hyde, he added, succeeded in a wonderful way to make the people of Ireland realise what they should do.

President de Valera, who was received with applause, said the old Gaels, those who knew "An Craoibhin" and his work for the Irish language and for the country, would not be satisfied that he should go from them to the quietness of Roscommon without showing him the greatness of their respect and love for him. It was not the old Gaels alone who would be disappointed but everyone in the country, young and old, would be angry with those old friends if they let him go in that way, because they all knew that there had been no man in our time who better earned their respect and love than "An Craoibhin." Mr. de Valera then referred to his work for the Irish language from his early youth, collecting and publishing folklore, and establishing the movement for the revival of the language amongst the general public. Like Thomas Davis, he understood that language was the best badge and protection for nationality. He was one of the first to recognise that the movement for the revival of the Irish of the people. He had confidence in the people and they had confidence in him. For 20 years he was President of the Gaelic League, and during all that time there was strength and vigour in the Gaelic League, but the time came when people turned to other work. Tide and ebb—that is the way of the world. "I believe," said Mr. de Valera, "that there is another flood tide coming, it is An Craoibhin" and Dr. MacNeill and Father O'Growney and their co-workers that we will have to thank. They started the work. We have the chance to finish it now if we have the will to do so. The language could be put out of danger as a living speech within ten years if we had earnestness, like the earnestness that "An Craoibhin" had, and his fellow-workers had forty years ago.

KILMATHOMAS NEWS.

A SPARKLING PERFORMANCE—

Mr. George Shiels is undoubtedly the most pleasing of living Irish Playwrights. Moreover, there is hardly to be found a critic of any authority who would dispute that, all things considered, he is "out on his own." It may safely be said that this happy-humoured Ulster man's fame is now established on a basis from which it is not likely to ever be shaken. To Kilrossanty's talented team of amateur performers belongs the honour of being the first in Munster to stage Mr. Shiels cleverly-conceived and capably constructed 3-act comedy, "The New Gossoon," which right mirthfully and unmistakably marks the difference in deportment and dress between the marriageable boys and girls of to-day and the "eligibles" of fifty years ago. The play was presented at Mr. John Crotty's Hall, Leamybrien, on Sunday night last, in aid of a praiseworthy parochial purpose, and was received with tremendous enthusiasm by a large, cultured and appreciative audience, and many were unable to gain admission on the occasion. The gestural and vocal values of the production were preserved throughout and a well-balanced cast did Mr. Shiels full justice. The plan of presentation was positively par-excellent and the stage settings were particularly appropriate to the piece in all its phases. Mr. Joseph Hevins scored a personal success as "Rabbit Hamil," and it would be difficult to imagine him giving a finer performance. Miss Hannah Walsh's performance as "Mag Delaney" provided this able actress with immeasurable success. In the role of "Widow Ellen Carey," Miss Madge Power exhibited the restraint and suave charm that are its distinguishing qualities in a guise so attractive as to appeal to the most fastidious of playgoers. Every facet of the emotional element of her role was realistically revealed in all its splendour by Miss Power. Counterparting "Sally Hamil," Miss Hannah Walsh achieved a distinct triumph. Her delineation of the behaviour of the modern girl could not be bettered. As a replica of "Ned Shea," Mr. John Drohan had a powerful part, and he brought into his performance all the force and conviction that make him an actor to be remembered. Because of his masterly manipulation of the rather onerous role of "Peter Carey," Mr. Peter O'Connor cannot be too highly praised. He was truly topping. Mr. Monnie Dee's impersonation of the character called "Luke Carey" was a capital enactment, as he showed himself to be ideally suited to the part. Mr. James Dunphy delighted the audience with an exceptionally fine interpretation of the part of "John Hanly." Mr. Dunphy's acting was deeply impressive. A graceful Geraldine girl, in the person of Miss Kitty Ryan, functioned faultlessly in her characterisation of the role of "Biddy Hanly." The comedy in each act is broad and never subtle, and the play simply sparkles with witty sallies. It rushes along in a constant stream of action, fruitful of features that are grateful to the sense, and accentuate the general mobility of the play. Mr. Patrick Kirwan operated as stage manager. We cordially congratulate the Kilrossanty Amateur Dramatic Class on their magnificent production. The players are living long distances from each other. They look over their respective parts six weeks ago, and in the meantime were unable to come together but a few nights of each week for rehearsals. All facts recognised, they richly merit the laudation accorded them, both individually and collectively. A short selected-concert card was introduced in conjunction with the play. The brilliant young Durrrow violinist, Master James Fleming, obliged with a series of popular Irish numbers, which won him unstinted applause. Mr. Berchmans Power, Graigarush, favoured with "Bonnie Mary Of Argyll," which he soulfully sung, and was applauded to the echo. Miss Cissie Walsh, Kilrossanty, captivated her hearers with the sweetness of her voice in the old favourite "Absent," and was warmly rewarded for her treat. Mr. Patrick Gleeson, Stradbally, held the house spellbound by his melodious singing of "Love Thee Dearest," for which he was awarded with claps and cheers galore. Miss Norah Whelan, Stradbally, was given a great ovation for her charming rendition of "The Rose of Tralee," which fairly captured the hearts of all. The ever-familiar number, "Darling I am Growing Old," was alluringly delivered by the well-known local tenor, Mr. John Drohan. Miss Eileen Power, Graigarush, played the piano accompaniments with her wonted ability. At the end of an unforgettably enjoyable entertainment, a highly esteemed member of the Parochial Committee thanked the audience for their presence in such large numbers, and for their kind appreciation of the efforts of the various performers. Having thanked the different artists for their admirable assistance, the speaker spoke gratefully to Mr. and Mrs. John Crotty, for the use of the Hall, seating accommodation, etc. and to Messrs. Patrick Kirwan, Patrick Mulhearn, Joseph Twomey, Edmond Dunphy, and John Driscoll, for the valued help received from them, he concluded by announcing that the play would be repeated there on next Sunday night (19th inst.), and again augmented by a choicely arranged concert and programme and he hoped another bumper house would avail of the occasion of seeing, hearing and thoroughly enjoying the cream of local histrionic talent operative in the latest comedy hit of the gifted, Mr. George Shiels.

The speaker was vociferously applauded at the close of his remarks. Subsequently, the artists were treated to a sumptuous spread in the Greenroom, by Mrs. J. Crotty, whose hospitality was highly appreciated by her guests.

A STERLING CITIZEN'S DEMISE

Mr. George Crowley, farmer died at his residence, at Stradbally, on the 11th inst., after a brief illness and in his 81st year. The deceased gentleman was a most interesting and kindly personality. A staunch and consistent Nationalist of the old school, he figured prominently in the public life of Co. Waterford throughout the stirring Plan of Campaign days, and was always to the fore in the Land League and Labour and United Irish League movements. In his heyday, he was evicted from his old home by the "crowbar brigade," and the wounded soldiers of the land war had not a champion braver or more forceful than he in their camp. At public meetings he strongly voiced his denunciation of the tyranny of the time that was known as "landlordism." And because he had the courage of his convictions he had, perforce to suffer for a period, the pangs and pains of "durance vile." But the hardships of imprisonment only heightened his determination to hold fast to the cause he espoused. About fifteen years ago he had the happiness of again gaining possession of his fair and fertile farm, which fringes Stradbally village on the suthard. He was a sterling member of both the Board of Guardians and Rural District Council of Kilmacthomas for a considerable number of years, and was also Chairman of both bodies for some time. A man of splendid physique—the late Mr. Crowley was fully six feet in height and built in proportion—his shining sincerity and honourableness, coupled with his bright geniality, ranked him a notable neighbour who fascinated even those who did not see eye to eye with him. He was a man of imperturbable good humour which political vicissitudes, advancing years, and heavy financial sacrifices for the cause in which he believed did nothing to diminish. Honest George Crowley was an intimate friend of John E. Redmond, John Dillon, Michael Davitt, P. J. Power, Martin J. Murphy, and Joe Devlin—all of whom went before him into the promised Paradise, the beautiful bourne beyond the infinite stretch of sky. The funeral was the largest witnessed in these parts for many years, and everywhere in Stradbally tokens of the deepest regret were in evidence. All business was suspended and the shops closed. Interment was made in the family plot in the cemetery adjoining the Protestant Church, Stradbally, on Monday evening. The Rev. Canon Burkitt, Rector, read the burial service. The chief mourners were: Miss A. Crowley, Stradbally; Miss L. Crowley, do.; Mrs. N. F. Whelan, do.; Mrs. C. H. Pace, London (daughters); Messrs. F. and C. Crowley, Stradbally (sons); Mr. G. G. Hill, Dungarvan; Mr. A. B. Hill, Kilmacthomas; Mr. R. D. Batye, do.; Mr. S. Batye, do. (nephews); Miss J. C. Hill, Kilmacthomas (niece); Mrs. F. Crowley, Stradbally (daughter-in-law); Mr. N. F. Phelan, do.; (son-in-law); Mr. G. Brown, Kilmacthomas; Mr. and Mrs. W. Thompson, Kilmeaden; Mrs. F. Orpen, Kilminton; Mr. C. Orpen, do.; Miss Orpen, do.; and Mr. R. Thompson, Fews, (relatives).

Many beautiful wreaths and floral tributes were placed on the grave. It would be impossible to give a complete list of the general public in attendance.

HIGH-CLASS ENTERTAINMENT—

On the night of the 12th inst., the laughter-lifting comedy, "Cupboard Love" was performed by the local Amateur Dramatic Club at Mr. Patk. Baldwin's Hall, Kill in aid of the Newtown and Kill parish debt. The various characters of the piece were faithfully portrayed, and a capacity house voted it the best staged production in the history of the Hall. It was supported by a grand variety concert which rounded off a really high-class card of entertainment.

DEATH OF MR. J. BUCK.

Fortified by the rites of Holy Church Mr. John Buck, master tailor, passed away last week-end, after a protracted illness and at the age of 80 years. A splendid type of the grand old generation so fast disappearing from amongst us, he was well and widely known, and was beloved of all. The attendance at his funeral was a fine tribute to his worth. He was buried at Kill Churchyard on Monday evening. Rev. T. Ahearne, C.C. Kill, officiated at the graveside.—R.I.P.

A Great Co. Waterford Man

THE LATE MR. GERALD FITZGERALD

FAMOUS FORBEARS

The late Mr. Gerald FitzGerald, who passed away on Sunday week at his residence, 3 Kiltarragh Mansions, Foxrock, Co. Dublin, will be remembered by all who met him, either socially or in his official capacity as Lay Assistant Commissioner and Assessor to the Land Judge in the Irish Land Commission.

He possessed a personality of rare charm of manner and a sincere, unassuming nobility of character.

Born in 1855, he was the second son of the late Mr. Henry A. FitzGerald, J.P., of Seaview House, Dungarvan, Co. Waterford. In 1890 he was appointed to the important post of Lay Assistant Commissioner on the Irish Land Commission, having at that time had valuable experience in land law procedure from his father, who, while managing and farming his estate, held the post of Assessor to the County Court Judge of Waterford.

Later, in 1903, he was appointed Assessor to the Judicial Commissioner, which post he held until his retirement a few years ago.

IN THE IRISH BRIGADE

He came from a branch of the FitzGeralds who had their seat for many generations at Seaview, Co. Waterford, and who held tenaciously during the Penal Times in Ireland to the Catholic Faith at that sad period in our country's history. It was during this period that many members of the family went abroad in the ranks of the Irish Brigade, and Mr. FitzGerald's uncle, Colonel Gabriel FitzGerald, joined the Austrian Army as a Cadet in 1847, and served through the Hungarian, Polish and Italian Campaigns, being severely wounded at the battle of Sadowa. For his bravery when fighting with the Cuirassiers, he was decorated by the Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria.

He subsequently served in the defence of the Papal States, returning to the Austrian service as Chief Warden of the Imperial Forests and Game Preserves, and he died in Austria, but not before he had revisited the scenes of his boyhood at Dungarvan and the family residence at Seaview, and received an enthusiastic welcome from the people. On that occasion he was met by the Mayor and Council of Dungarvan Borough and all the leading citizens, and full honour was done to his brilliant work on the Continent. All the way to Seaview Horse crowds lined the way and cheered the Colonel as he passed.

In 1919 Mr. and Mrs. FitzGerald lost their only son, Mr. Herbert FitzGerald, B.L., who died in his early manhood after a very distinguished course at Trinity College, Dublin. Both in scholarship and athletics he had won distinction, and he had also evinced fine talent as a contributor to the College magazine, and a collection of his essays and poems, published in 1920 by the Kerry Press, shows a rare sense of style and a delightful strain of quaint whimsical humour, combined with a deep love for the beauty of the countryside inherited from his parents.

Deep sympathy will be felt for Mrs. FitzGerald, widow of deceased. Mrs. FitzGerald, who before marriage was Miss Frances Quinlan, a member of an old Waterford County family with relationship with Daniel O'Connell, is well known for the active service she has for so many years given in various branches of charitable guilds, and as president of the Executive Committee, who are helping towards the erection of the new church of Our Lady of Perpetual Succour at Foxrock.

SPECIALY ORGANISED IRISH PARTY TO VISIT SPAIN

Our advertising column to-day gives particulars of an inviting trip to Spain and the Mediterranean, which takes the place of the Ocean Cruise already announced. The alteration in the arrangement has been made in response to representations from friends of Catholic Spain who are anxious at this vital time in Spanish history to make a small gesture of Irish esteem and sympathy. The organisers were pleased in consequence to change their plans, and so the new itinerary will be confined to Spain. Calls will be made at Cadiz, Palma, the capital of the Balearic Islands, Tarragona and Barcelona, and, on the way back, Gibraltar. This change will be welcomed by many for more reason than their anxiety to show sympathy with Spain. It will bring the voyagers into the very heart of the beautiful Mediterranean, a privilege which, unfortunately, could not be conceded in the case of the previous itinerary. It was planned it will be remembered, that the Lancastris was to cross the Gulf of Gibraltar direct to Morocco. The present plan is that the new ship, the s.s. Laurentia, perhaps the finest ship of the Cunard White Star Line, will go through the Gulf into the entrancing sea beyond. The fares under the new arrangement will work out at about the same as under the old, and will be, for the value offered, exceptionally low.

Bolger, O.S.A., Michael, youngest son of the late John and Mrs. Wyley, Parnell street, Waterford, to Alcide, fourth daughter of Patrick and Mrs. Egan, Egan's Hotel, Dungarvan.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

DUNGARVAN SHOW

On Wednesday a meeting of the Show Committee was held at which the following were present:—Messrs. A. Hunt (President); N. Morrissey, S. J. Power, D. Dempsey, J. A. Lynch, J. J. Crotty, J. J. Morrissey, P. B. Sheridan, P. A. Walshe, J. Lynch, Secretary. A general discussion took place as to the advisability of holding a show this year under existing circumstances and after a full exchange of views.

Mr. Hunt, suggested adjourning final consideration of the matter to a special meeting to be held on May 30th and this was agreed to.

On the motion of Mr. Morrissey, seconded by Mr. S. J. Power, resolutions of sympathy were passed to Mr. J. J. Crotty, and Mr. J. A. Lynch, in their recent bereavements.

FIRE AT KILGOBINET

On Thursday 9th inst., the licensed premises of Mr. T. Hallinan, Kilgobinet, were completely destroyed by fire. It appears that the outbreak originated in a chimney and the flames spread rapidly to the thatched roof. Willing helpers worked heroically to fight the flames, but for want of appliances they were badly handicapped. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. Hallinan on the destruction of his premises.

SYMPATHY

Dungarvan Branch Fine Gael, on the proposition of Mr. Clancy, seconded by Mr. J. Butler, passed a resolution of sympathy to the family of the late Mr. C. J. Curran, Ballinamuck.

BAND PROMENADE

The Dungarvan Brass and Reed Band, will play a programme on the Square, at 12.15 on Sunday next.

LEAGUE OF YOUTH

At the monthly meeting of the above the following resolution was proposed by Mr. T. McCarthy, and seconded by Mr. W. Terry:—"That we tender to our esteemed friend, Mr. James McGrath, and family, Ballinamella, our deep sympathy on the death of his wife, E. Flynn, Secretary."

GOLF NEWS

A four-ball against Bogey was played at Clonca on Thursday week, for which there was a large entry. It was won by E. Fitzgerald and D. Dempsey, who returned a score of 5 up. The runners up were Mr. J. B. Cooke, (Capt.) and P. Foley. A mixed team of 16 travelled to Middleton on Sunday 28th ult., to play a return match with the home club. It was a very fine day and the Middleton team won by 12 to 7. On the 2nd inst., a different team of 14 invaded Lismore, weather conditions were bad and the visitors made a poor show.

DEATH OF MRS. MOLONEY

The death of Mrs. Moloney, Spring, occurred at her residence on Tuesday last at an advanced age. She was a very amiable lady and was held in the highest esteem by all. Her remains were removed to the Parish Church on Wednesday and on Thursday the interment took place in the presence of a large assembly.

SCHOOLS CLOSED

Following the outbreak of 'Flu the primary Schools in Dungarvan Parish have closed. Other schools also in the rural parts are being closed for the same reason. At no time in the past 35 years have the schools here been closed consequent upon an epidemic. Even the ravages of the 1918 'Flu did not effect the schools as the 'Flu did at that time only dealt with adults. Now the germ tackles everybody young and old. It certainly was a coincidence to find the closing of the schools synchronous with the taking up of duty by the new M.O.H.

PROPOSED NEW HOSPITAL FOR DUNGARVAN

According to Mr. Dixon, the Architect, under the Hospitalisation Scheme, Dungarvan is to have a new hospital of 120 beds—the new Hospital to be erected to the West of the Co. Home and the present Hospital to be used for the accommodation of the staff. Lismore is to have a new Hospital on the site of the old Workhouse and a new fever Hospital is to be erected on land to be acquired. Mr. Dixon attended the Board of Assistance meeting on Wednesday on the matter and it was decided that the Board would hold a special meeting to consider the Scheme. Dungarvan wants its new Hospital as fast as it can get it. At present our accommodation is altogether too limited for the many needing hospital treatment, with the result that Dr. McCarthy is handicapped, and the public are inconvenienced. When money is available for the scheme no time should be lost in getting on with the erection of the hospital which will be up-to-date in every detail and a boon to the suffering public. Life is short and sweet. Anything that would tend to give greater length of days should have the whole backing of our Public Health Department, and as a modern hospital here would confer wonderful advantages on the area, we hope not a moment will be lost in having the good work put under weigh.

MUSICAL SUCCESSES

At the Pianoforte Examination held on May 2nd., by the Leinster School of Music, Dublin, the following pupils of Miss Fanny O'Keefe, A.L.C.M., Western Terrace, Dungarvan, were presented and the results are as follows:—

SENIOR GRADE—FIRST YEAR Miss Gerta Endersen—Prize. MIDDLE ADVANCED GRADE Miss Joan Curran—Pass "with merit."

JUNIOR GRADE—SECOND YEAR Miss Mamie McGrath—First-class Honours.

JUNIOR GRADE—SECOND YEAR Master Sean Norris—First-class Honours.

JUNIOR GRADE—SECOND YEAR Master Mical Power—Pass.

JUNIOR GRADE—FIRST YEAR Miss Eily Dee—Pass.

Miss Gerta Endersen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Endersen, South Terrace, deserves to be again complimented, she being prize winner this year in the Senior Grade. This is the third year in succession that this talented musician has obtained a prize. We congratulate both herself and her teacher, Miss O'Keefe, on whom she has reflected the highest credit.

LOOKING FOR POUNDS

The Sheriff's Assistant has been touring each part of the County in turn looking for Pounds, and if the parties visited are unable to find the amount of the orders against them their cattle must go to the Pound. So the misfortunate farmer must find the Pounds or his cattle will get the Pound.

THE BUDGET

We got our Budget on Wednesday, and it was not very surprising. It took off no tax—in fact, once a tax is imposed it never ceases again. We have plenty new taxes including 4d. per lb on tea; 4d. lb. on sugar; 8d. a lb. on tobacco; a big tax on oil and 50 per cent. extra tax on Cinema. No relief was given under any head, but Old Age Pensioners were informed that enforcement of the law is to be tightened up to save £100,000 on Old Age Pensions. That looks as if the Authorities think some of the recipients are not qualified. A whole flood of new duties were imposed on imports so that there is scarcely any item coming into the country but is heavily taxed. And when our four-footed beasts go out of the country they are taxed left and right again. In fact, there is nothing but taxes all around us.

£36,000,000

£36,000,000 is the estimate of the Finance Minister of the amount required to run the Free State for the coming year. When the amount was £12,000,000 in the olden days for all Ireland every parish held a demonstration to condemn overtaxation. Yet for the £36,000,000 we only undertake to run the Free State and its 3,000,000 souls. When one considers the number of children, civil servants and public servants, pensioners—civil and army; old age pensioners and British ex-army servicemen and the huge number on the dole of some form there cannot be a big lot left to work. And remember it is the workers will have to pay all. You cannot have your loaf and eat it. Somebody has got to produce and if the producers ever decide on striking without pay it will be a very unhappy day for everybody else.

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS

At long last provision is made for payment of pensions to widows and orphans. They are a very deserving class and no one will envy them their pension. Now with all the pension lists being made it must be quite evident to any Government Official in high authority that with one stroke of the pen our Executive could make this an ideal land by giving pensions to all who have been passed over hitherto. Then all who labour and worry could rest at ease and await the coming of the Income Tax man with composure. For the average lay man who never had and never will have a pension sees in the possession of such a prize a something priceless.

Death of Mr. C. J. Curran, Ballinamuck, Dungarvan

We regret to announce the death of Mr. Charles J. Curran, Ballinamuck, Dungarvan, which occurred at the District Hospital, on Sunday evening after a prolonged illness and fortified by the rites of the Church.

The late Mr. Curran who had reached his 70th year, was one of the best known public men in the Co. Waterford. Sprung from a most respected Clashmore family, he came to live at Ballinamuck in his early manhood and from the start entered into the conduct of public affairs in the mastery way which was so characteristic of him. He was elected a member of the first Co. Council in 1899 having won the representation of Touraneena division after a strenuous contest. In the early days of the Co. Council when its policy was being shaped, his services were highly appreciated and his colleagues fully appreciated his clear vision and shrewd judgment. He was a member of the Co. Council up to its dissolution last year. He was also a prominent member of the Co. Committee of Agriculture and the Diseases of Animals Committee, and gave to these committees the benefit of his ripe judgment and sound common-sense. On the occasion when the Co. Council sent a delegation to London to deal with the disposal of the Railway Guarantee Fund of £93,000, Mr. Curran was one of the Councillors sent over, and he gave most valuable assistance and evidence before the Treasury Officials.

A sound consistent Nationalist, he was a personal friend of the leaders of the Irish Party and the Land League. An effective platform speaker, his services were always in demand at platforms in the county at the many general elections, and few could hold an audience with greater skill. Well read and highly intelligent, a fluent speaker with a ready wit, the late Mr. C. J. Curran always played his part, and while ready to concede a point when opposition would be strong, he stuck to his views and invariably succeeded in convincing his colleagues of the wisdom of his point. As a public man, he always played the game and we shall not see his like again in this generation.

He was an authority on horse-breeding, and in his day he bred some very fine thoroughbreds which were dispersed of at the Dublin Bloodstock Sales.

Broadminded in politics, he always pursued a straight National course, and the hardships of farmers in recent years were elaborated by him at the Council meetings in a very thorough manner. In private life he was a most entertaining gentleman, and he could point a moral or adorn a tale with the greatest ease and charm.

Deceased was of a deep religious disposition. Four of his daughters are members of religious Orders. Two are members of the Presentation Community, Wexford; a third is attached to the teaching staff of Blackrock College and the fourth is attached to the Mater Hospital, Dublin. One of his sons—Paul Curran, B.E., holds a high Government position. He was brother of Rev. Mother Philomena, Presentation Convent, Wexford.

To his widow, family and relatives, deep sympathy is extended in their bereavement.

On Monday evening the remains were removed to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, where they were received by Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C. There was a large and representative attendance from Dungarvan and the surrounding parishes. On Tuesday, the funeral took place, to the family burial ground, Clashmore. It was one of the largest funerals seen for some years, the procession of motor cars being over a mile in length, while large crowds escorted the cortege for two miles outside the town. On arrival at Clashmore, the remains were received by Very Rev. Fr. Murphy, P.P. and Rev. Fr. Walsh, C.C. The chief mourners were—John Curran, (son); W. C. Curran (brother); Charles Curran (nephew); W. M. Curran, P.C.; Charles Curran (son); J. H. Curran, Sean Go'lding, T.D.; M. Curran, Rupert Hodnett, solr.; Dr. Curran, P. Curran, Mrs. A. Amongst the general public present were:—

YOUGHAL NOTES.

SHARKS were the principal topic of local conversation during the week, but the first query that arises is "were those 'sharks' sharks or something else?" Opinions, skilled and unskilled vary widely in the matter. Some are of opinion that those "sharks" were not sharks at all, but some other species of big fish—basking sharks, "black fish," small whales, etc., etc. Anyhow, they don't seem to have done any harm beyond getting themselves fouled in a couple of salmon nets, which very naturally got damaged. Some of the fishermen say—and they surely ought to know—that when one of those amphibious monsters get entangled in a net, they deposit a sort of slimy substance which rots the thread. One daring fisherman went to sea and payed out his net in spite of the fact that he must have known they were pretty thick in the vicinity. Result his net was walked off with but later on recovered with the carcass of a "shark" emmeshed. The "fearful" nature of the animals may be gauged by the true story of one venturesome pleasure seeker, who unconsciously touched the back of one of them. The animal dived instantly and made away at lightning speed. In former years some industrious Pressman from the "Land of Promise" wove a fairy tale about brave fishermen going out to tackle and fight those monsters, and after a heroic "fight" bring one to the shore to the pier at Ardmore—rhyme eh!—where all the villagers rushed down in their "hundred" armed with all kinds of deadly weapons to give him the "Coup de gras." The story consisted of some 90 per cent. of "terminological inexactitudes," paid for at so much per line! "Truth pays best." Does it? Not always. Appearances at present go to suggest that these nuisances are leaving our shores, which is something to thank Providence for.

THE FISHING SEASON—This year has been, taking it all round, very unsatisfactory, locally at all events. It began very well, in fact, it was a record good opening. Unfortunately after some weeks a slump set in and since then it has been "from bad to middling." Just now, the majority of the fishermen don't deem it worth the while or trouble to go out for a "drift." It is said that, although the poor men maybe out for weeks without getting, come on dit, "the eye of a fish," they are not entitled to any form of the relief at present in vogue, private or public. This is a very regrettable state of things, for many of the men have large, young families depending on them. This particular form of fishing may be an important industry, but it partakes largely of the nature of a gamble. It is no unusual matter for a crew to go out regularly for weeks and not catch a single fish. Salmon have become very scarce, and it is said that at present those "sharks" in the sea outside helps to frighten them away, and thus prevent them coming into the harbour and river. Although an occasional peck has been caught, they are very, very scarce. In the "good old times" the local boats used to capture them in large numbers, often going well over the 100 mark. Nowadays nothing like that is seen even in the best of seasons.

THE JUBILEE—It is said that a local business man recently received an unofficial invitation to the Jubilee Celebrations at Buckingham Palace. On close investigation, however, it was ascertained that the letter was the work of a local practical joker. Of course the handwriting was disguised, by the use of partially "block letters," but the writer left other traces of clues behind which pointed to the authorship. Why not submit the document to one of our "handwriting experts?" In reply to their resolution of loyal greetings and congratulations to their Majesties on their Silver Jubilee, the British Legion, Youghal, have received the following telegraphic reply:—"The King is much grateful to receive the message of congratulation which you have sent on his Silver Jubilee, and I am directed to express His Majesty's warm thanks to all who joined in their good wishes. Clive Wigram."

CAPPOQUIN TO YOUGHAL—The hint given by your "Corner Stone" Correspondent to the effect that it was under consideration to run bus trips to the seaside on Sundays is very interesting. Indeed, surprise has been often expressed at the fact that nothing is being done to link up in some way the above-mentioned towns during the summer months and thereby give an opportunity to tourists to see and enjoy the magnificent scenery of the river Blackwater, sometimes called the "Irish Rhine." Now that the important road between Tallow and Youghal has been wonderfully improved of late, especially in the Co. Waterford portion, a bus service on the route involved might be worthy of consideration. Unfortunately there is no prospect of a tourist service by the river itself. In its absence trips by road would open up to travellers some of the magnificent scenery of the district.

HANDBALL—The following matches were played at Youghal on Sunday 12th May.—Co. Championships, Novice Soft Ball Doubles, Youghal (D. Keogh and J. Twomey) beat Craobh Ruadh (Fitzgerald and Murphy). The scores were—21-10; 21-20. Junior Soft Ball Singles, Collins Barracks (J. Merriman) beat Middleton (M. Hennessy). Scores, 21-3; 11-21; 21-10; 21-13. In the Novice Handball

MUNSTER CHAMPIONSHIP AT DUNGARVAN VISITORS DOUBLE VICTORY

S.F.—Clare, 2-4; Waterford, 0-6
M.F.—Clare, 2-4; Waterford, 1-2

A good attendance and good weather saw Waterford oppose Clare in the Munster Minor and Senior Football Championships at the Shandon grounds, on Sunday. Waterford had much the better of matters in the minor event for the first half and led by 2 points to nil at the interval. The second moiety saw a complete change, Clare, outclassing their opponents, registered a score of 2 goals 4 points, Waterford adding a goal.

The senior event opened with a free to Waterford, who opened the scoring with a point inside a minute per Noonan. Clare attacked and had two successive "50's," the second free being put over for a point. Clare pressed for some minutes and Waterford eventually changed the play to the other end, the Clare goal being saved at the expense of a "50," which was cleared. Waterford drove wide, and the kick out saw Clare dash clear through the other end for a goal. Clare had now the best of matters and did most of the attacking. A few good opportunities were lost by the Waterford forwards. About five minutes from the end of the play, and after a very fast and scientific match they emerged victors by a fairly substantial margin, the final score being:—

Ballyduff-Mocollop 3-3
Ballylin 2-1
Mr. Jerh. O'Shea, Tallow, proved an able and impartial referee.

Ballylin (Lismore) and Ballyduff-Mocollop. These teams first met in Ballyduff on March 24th., when a great game ended in a draw at 1-1 each, and the replay having been re-fixed for the same venue on Sunday week, much local interest was taken in the match, and there was a fairly large attendance of spectators present.

Ballyduff showed improved form on this occasion, as although they were playing against a rather steep incline, they had much the better of the play in the first half, and turned over at half-time with a lead of 1-2 to nil for Ballylin.

The latter showed better form against the hill in the second half, and towards the closing stages of the play they gave the Ballyduff backs several anxious moments, but they were never able to get on level terms with the home team who proved deserving winners of a great match on the final score:—

Ballyduff-Mocollop 3-3
Ballylin 2-1
Mr. Jerh. O'Shea, Tallow, proved an able and impartial referee.

JUNIOR HURLING MATCH
An interesting Challenge Match in Junior Hurling followed between Blackwater Rovers, Cappoquin, and Ballyduff-Mocollop, in which the scoring was even at 1-2 each in one period of the game.

Cappoquin, however, always held an advantage in the general run of the play, and after a very fast and scientific match they emerged victors by a fairly substantial margin, the final score being:—

Cappoquin 3-2
Ballyduff 1-2
Mr. A. Harris, Ballyduff, refereed the match in a most efficient manner.

HURLING IN CAPPOQUIN
On Wednesday week, at 8.30 p.m., a friendly Junior Hurling Challenge match was played in the Sportsfield, Cappoquin, between Blackwater Rovers, Cappoquin, and Ballylin (Lismore), this being a "try-out" for the Ballylin team which will meet Four-Mile-Water at Boola, Melleray, on next Sunday in the first round of the Co. Championship.

Although Cappoquin did not field the same team they had in Ballyduff on Sunday, they still put up a great fight, and had the majority of "overs" in the first half-hour, which ended without a solitary score for either side.

Early in the second half, Cappoquin opened the scoring with a point, quickly followed by a goal, and scores came rather frequently on both sides after this, although the light was fading fast, and the end of a grand game saw Ballylin the winners by the narrow margin of one point, on the score:—

Ballylin 3-1 (10 pts.)
Cappoquin 2-3 (8 pts.)
The match was excellently refereed by Mr. John O'Donoghue, Captain, Blackwater Rovers Hurling Club, Cappoquin.

BALLYLIN V. FOUR-MILE-WATER
Before a fairly large crowd of hurling enthusiasts on Sunday last, Ballylin advanced a stage in this year's Junior Hurling Championship by defeating Four-Mile-Water by a comfortable score.

The match was played at Melleray, Cappoquin, which was the first Championship match that was ever fixed at this venue.

Four-Mile-Water gave Ballylin a particularly strenuous game throughout the first half when the issue seemed to be a very open affair, but on the change of ends, Ballylin playing in whirlwind fashion brought off an easy victory. With the wind and sun in their favour in the first half Four-Mile-Water registered two goals in quick succession per Flynn, after seven minutes play. M. Murray sent Ballylin along with a long midfield shot and Daly taking charge a goal went in for his side. A stiff tussle saw Four-Mile-Water up again with the fall of the Ballylin net per Power. After the puck-out the Four-Mile-Water net was having some narrow shaves, but Halpin as custodian used his stick with great dexterity and brought off some marvellous saves, and another goal was registered for his side in quick time per Flynn. From a movement by V. O'Donoghue, Ballylin were again in operating effect in their rivals territory and secured a rather well earned goal per W. O'Connell. Ballylin seemed to be getting the best of matters now. They kept up a continuous attack on their opponents' goal. Linnec centred to Daly who found the net in brilliant style. The Murray brothers were quite in-evidence. Just before the half-time whistle Murray drove a long ball to Daly to whom ground was conceded to goal. Half-time score:—

Four-Mile-Water 4-0
Ballylin 3-0

The resumption saw Ballylin again in the picture when V. O'Donoghue set the forwards in action and the green flag was raised once more per Daly to make the scoring level. A strenuous tussle then took place in which Ballylin emerged, W. Linnec notching two points in quick succession. Daly, Ballylin's sharpshooter, was again in evidence in the work of compiling scores, when he had two goals to his credit in quick succession. From the puck-out Four-Mile-Water made a great effort on their opponents' goal, but to no effect. A seventy to Ballylin taken by V. O'Donoghue, resulted in a goal which ended the scoring.

Ballylin 7-2
Four-Mile-Water 4-0
Mr. J. O'Donoghue, Cappoquin, refereed in a most impartial manner.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION

Under the supervision of Miss L. A. Flynn, Domestic Science Instructor, Cookery and Needlework Classes are being held on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays each week until 26th June, and are being well attended. The enthusiasm and interest shown by the students augur well for the success of these classes, but it is suggested that the very short period allotted—barely six weeks—is not sufficient to allow such an efficient teacher and eager students to do themselves full justice.

We have heard the culinary art referred to as the "Taking Game" owing to recipes usually starting with "take four ounces of this and two ounces of that," where we are to take them from in these hard times it is difficult to say, but still the "taking game" seems to be popular even in spheres other than cookery. (Take cattle for instance).

We hope that a sound knowledge of patchwork will be learned at the Needlework Classes.

CONFIRMATION CLASSES

This is a period of intense activity in our schools in preparation for the visit of His Lordship, Most Rev. Dr. Kinane, on June, 12th and 13th, to administer the Sacrament of Confirmation. This being the first visit of His Lordship to the Parish, it is being looked forward to eagerly, and our beloved P.P., Very Rev. M. Dowley, has a small band of men at work preparing the chapel.

At a recent Diocesan Inspection in a neighbouring parish, the Rev. Inspector asked a bright little girl of seven—"Will we get apples and oranges in Heaven," she disdainfully replied—"Huh, I suppose we will, if we want them."

It happened some years ago in this parish during a Confirmation examination by the late Dr. Sheehan. His Lordship asked a little boy—"Who should be present at a marriage ceremony" and was answered—"Herself and meself and the two sponsors."

We were all grieved to learn of the illness of our Curate, Rev. Fr. Wall, who has gone to the Bon Secours Home, Cork. At 11.30 a.m. Mass on Sunday Fr. Dowley, P.P., asked the prayers of the congregation for his recovery. Father Wall has only been a short time with us, but he has already endeared himself to the people by his homely ways and saintly disposition. We earnestly hope and pray that he will soon return in good health and be long spared to continue his kindly interest in us.

COUNTY WATERFORD FARMER'S ACTION

ARTICLE IN A NEWSPAPER

Holding that here must be definite and accurate information before him, Mr. Justice O'Byrne, in the High Court Dublin, said he would not proceed with the application made on behalf of James Kelly, farmer, Ballyshunock, Kilmacthomas, for leave to issue a concurrent summons for service out of the jurisdiction on the Daily Telegraph, Ltd., Fleet St., London, as printers, and Allied Newspapers Ltd., London, as publishers of the "Sunday Times," who, with Sir John Keane, Cappoquin, were named as defendants in the summons, which was for damages for alleged libel in an article stated to be written by Sir John Keane in the "Sunday Times" of the 24th of last February dealing with the judicial system in the Free State.

Plaintiff and others had at Waterford been acquitted of charges of an agrarian and political nature, and in an affidavit plaintiff's solicitor stated he had no doubt the words complained of in the article referred to plaintiff and the others tried, and meant that they had been guilty of embracery to influence the jury.

Mr. Mooney said he had received instructions in other cases in which the registered office of the Allied Newspapers was stated to be in Manchester and not in London, as was stated in the present case.

His Lordship then ruled as stated.

ANOTHER APPLICATION.

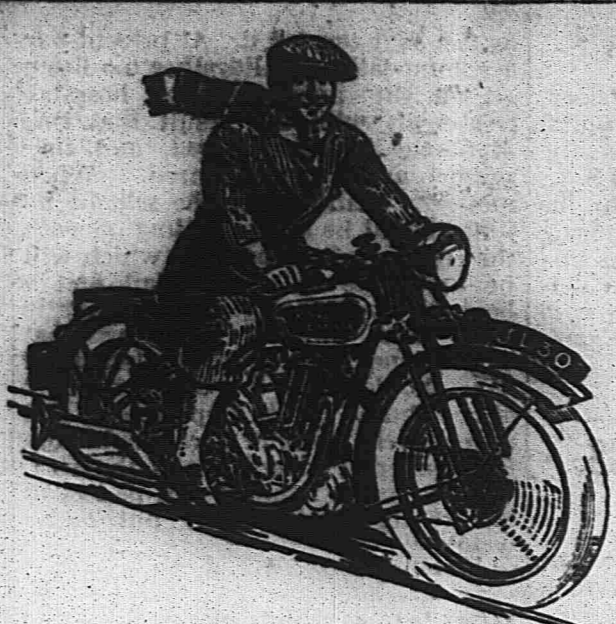

His Lordship granted an application made on behalf of Michael Behan, farmer, Killowen, Dunhill, Co. Waterford, and Wm. Ivory, farmer, Ballyglan, Dunmore East, Co. Waterford, for liberty to issue a concurrent summons on the Daily Telegraph, Ltd., and the Allied Newspapers, Wither Grove, Manchester, with Sir John Keane, all named as defendants in actions for damages all arising out of the same publication, plaintiffs contending a passage in the article meant they were guilty of intimidation of juries.

Mr. J. J. Mooney (instructed by Mr. T. Kiersey) for plaintiffs; and (instructed by Mr. C. S. Quinlan) for Michael Behan and Wm. Ivory.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman; J. R. Smyth, P.C.; Wm. O'Sullivan, M. Cashman, E. P. Lynch, R. Power, R. C. Farrell, Vice-Chairman; J. Daly, T. Beausang, J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., M. D. Broderick, E. D. Condon, T. K. Keane, solr., Capt. C. Watson, M. Ahern.

Waggon Bungalows
Messrs. D. Nyhan and T. O'Sullivan, Cork, appeared before the meeting in connection with the Council's resolution forbidding the use of disused railway waggons as summer residences in the Strand neighbourhood.

Mr. Nyhan said they had taken leases of plots for 20 years, six weeks before they had bought the waggons down. They didn't know at the time there was anything to prevent them from occupying the plots in question. They were not going to live in primitive conditions, but intended to put in conveniences of an excellent type, subject to the approval of the M.O.H. The persons concerned were quite independent and wouldn't interfere in any way with the people of the Strand, but would spend their money in the town. The carriages wouldn't be subtle. They had gone to considerable expense and he asked the Council to reconsider their decision in the matter, at least to grant the necessary permission for a year, when they would be in a position to see for themselves if there was any ground for the objections put forward. They hadn't any idea of flouting the authority of the Council.

The Chairman said those waggons were put up before the sanction of the Council was asked, and Mr. O'Hanlon was notified before hand that they wouldn't be allowed. A previous application was also turned down. After some discussion, the Chairman said there was a resolution on the books refusing permission for the erection of those waggons and until that was properly rescinded by notice of motion nothing further could be done.

Mr. Beausang handed in notice of motion to rescind.

Condition Of Pathways
The Co. Surveyor, wrote acknowledging Council's complaint regarding the pathways in the Main street.

Mr. Power—How long have we to wait for them to do the work?
The Chairman—I fear it will take a long time.

Mr. Daly said some of the side paths on Cork Hill were in a scandalous and dangerous condition. One woman got a nasty fall recently, and somebody would be seriously hurt if the place wasn't attended to.

It was decided to repair the bad parts with "breze."

Meat Inspection
The report of the Veterinary Inspector of meat supply for the month was read and declared satisfactory.

Mr. Power—Everything is open and above board except the prices (laughter).

Old Landmarks Gone And Going
A letter was read from the L.G. inquiring about the demolition of Murphy's Row, Carey's Lane and Pender's Lane.

Mr. Lynch said that Murphy's Row was nearly demolished.

The Chairman—Carey's Lane is gone.

The Clerk said that nothing had been done yet about Pender's Lane yet, but he was in communication with Messrs. Hodnett, their solicitors regarding it.

A Youghal Martyr
The following letter was read:—
St. Luke's Cork,
8th May, 1935.

Proposed Memorial Tablet to Dominick Collins, the Jesuit Martyr, executed in Youghal, 31st October, 1602.

Increased attention is being paid to the cause of the Irish Martyrs. Blessed Oliver Plunkett's cause leading the way. I wish to remind you of a great Youghal Martyr, Dominick Collins, S.J., born at Cremore, 6 miles from Youghal and captured at Dunboy, he was hanged in Youghal, his native town his head being cut off, 31st October, 1602. He was for 6 months in prison in Cork, and his friend Taylor at Dunboy was hanged in chains at the North Gate Bridge, Cork City, same date. Born at Cremore, young "Calanus" or O'Callaghan, went to France, joined the Army, and became a Colonel. He next went to Spain and joined the Jesuit Order at Compostella, where he remained for some time. A plague broke out in the College he attended and young Callaghan worked as a serving man but didn't contract the disease. Volunteered for Irish service as a Jesuit and was at the siege of Dunboy with Father Archer, June 1602. Letters from Owen Egan, Bishop of Ross (a martyr, too) to Father Dominick (Collins) appear in Pacata Hibernia. Came out on ramparts of Dunboy June 1602 and surrendered, but refused to accept the Oath of Supremacy in Cork. Though beaten and tortured, he was adamant. His friend Taylor captured with him at Dunboy was hanged at North Gate Bridge, Cork. Dominick Collins, S.J., was taken to Youghal. On the scaffold he delivered an oration—"Fought for the cause of religion and country," he said. "Be prepared to die as I am about to for Christ."

The officer in charge ordered the executioner to go up the ladder and throw him (Collins, S.J.) off. This was done. He died, a brave Youghal man with a prayer on his lips. When his body lay on the ground, his head was cut off and raised in the air with the words—"This is the head of a traitor to her Most Gracious Majesty, Queen Elizabeth." The people came and buried his body in the night time. This was the terrible fate of Youghal's forgotten martyr.

Could you name a street after him; erect a Memorial Tablet in the Vocational School or place an account of his life in a booklet on Youghal? See O'Reilly's "Memorials to those who suffered for the Catholic Faith, 1863," for a grand account of Dominick Collins, S.J., the Dunboy hero, "Calanus" his name is written sometimes. Murphy's "Our Martyrs" gives a good account, too, "Pacata Hibernia," also. What can you do to keep his memory green—Daniel Nyhan, M.R.S.A.

Mr. Daly said there was a terrace of houses which might be named as suggested by Mr. Nyhan.

Mr. Power—Mr. Beausang, is that the man on whose behalf you are giving notice of motion?

Mr. Beausang—Yes.

Mr. Power—Then I'm afraid you haven't a dog's chance of carrying it. He is too patriotic (laughter).

The Chairman said they would adjourn the matter for the present and consider it favourably at the first opportunity.

Resolution From Cove

A resolution was received from the Cove Urban Council requesting the Minister for Lands and Fisheries, not to accept the findings of the recent Fisheries Commission regarding the total abolition of net fishing in their rivers.

On the proposition of Mr. Broderick, seconded by Mr. Lynch, the resolution was unanimously adopted.

Correction

Mr. Lynch said he saw it stated in a Press report during the week that he had condemned the T.D.'s for not taking action in that matter. He did no such thing. He said they didn't even get a chance—they were not asked for their co-operation. That was what he had said, and he wanted the misstatement corrected.

The Chairman said it was a mistake which, he was sure, would be duly corrected.

YOUGHAL DISTRICT COURT.

(Before Mr. H. A. McCarthy, D.J.)

There were a large number of undefended civil bills disposed of, Messrs Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., T. K. Keane, solr., (also acting for Messrs. Barry and St. Clair Rice, solrs., Middleton), and J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., appearing for the plaintiffs.

A Hospital Bill

Cork Co. Board of Health v. Burns. In this adjourned civil bill for £2 12s. 6d., for hospital attendance, Mr. Keane, for plaintiffs, said they agreed to accept half the amount—£3 6s.

The Justice—That is very reasonable. A decree was given for the amount, with a stay of two months.

Corbett v. McCarthy.

This was a civil bill for £10 6s. 0d., being £6 6s. 9d. for the trover and conversion of articles of furniture and £3 9s. 3d., for work done, etc., brought by Wm. J. Corbett, against his father-in-law Patrick McCarthy, Barry's Lane.

Mr. Macnamara, for plaintiff and Mr. Keane, for defendant.

From the evidence it appeared that towards the end of last year, McCarthy being old and ill brought Corbett and his family to live with him, plaintiff and defendant to go halves in their business as tinsmiths, Corbett bringing all his furniture from Cork. Some months ago trouble arose between the parties and McCarthy's two sons were sent to jail for 4 and 6 months for a serious assault on Corbett, who had to go to hospital as a result. The Corbetts then left the house and trouble arose about the Corbetts furniture. They took some of it away, but alleged that they were afraid to go for the rest, McCarthy threatening his daughter and grand-daughters.

McCarthy said they were welcome to any stuff belonging to them—"it wasn't worth a 4d. loaf."

After a very protracted hearing the Justice gave a decree for £5—£3 in the first count and £2 in the second.

Mr. Macnamara applied to have the amount of the decree set off against a decree obtained by McCarthy against Corbett at a previous Court.

The application was granted.

Poor Rate Cases

Mr. Justin Condon, had a large number of local persons summoned for arrears of poor rate and decrees were granted.

In one case Mr. Hodnett applied for time.

The Justice—What do you say, Mr. Condon?

Plaintiff—My position is this; under my warrant I have to pay money out of my own pocket. I got an extension up to the 20th inst, and then I have to pay, collected or uncollected.

Mr. Hodnett—If the Court gives time won't it protect you?

Plaintiff—No, but it would help me to get a refund later on.

The Justice—How long will you be out of your money?

Plaintiff—Probably a couple of months. However, I am prepared to agree to a stay in this particular case.

The Justice—That is very fair. A decree was granted, with a stay for two months.

Motor Tax

Guard Carroll, charged Thomas Richardson, with using an expired motor tax.

Complainant said defendant had taken out the tax since.

He was fined 5/-.

In a similar case by Guard Stack, against Michael O'Brien, a fine of 4/- was imposed.

Unlicensed Dogs

The same complainant had a large number of persons summoned for having unlicensed dogs, fines of 5/- being imposed, where the P.O.A. was not applied.

Guard Fottrell, also had several like cases.

In one case the defendant swore that the dog wasn't his and had left, but he took out the license fearing he might come back (laughter).

The Justice—So you have a license and no dog (laughter).
He was let off under the P.O.A.

TIPPERARY TIM

WINNER OF SENSATIONAL GRAND NATIONAL DEAD

The death took place a few days ago of Tipperary Tim, who won the Grand National in 1928 for Mr. H. S. Kenyon.

His grave is at Whitechurch in Shropshire, only a few yards from the box which he occupied for many years. The Grand National which he won was the most sensational of all. So little was thought of his prospects that he started a 100 to 1 chance. The field was a record one, forty-two horses going to the post. Yet Tipperary Tim was the only horse to complete the course without a fall.

The American horse, Billy Barton, who had been backed to win a fortune was leading at the last fence when he came down. He was remounted and finished second. Tipperary Tim was ridden to victory by Mr. W. P. Dutton, a Cheshire solicitor. He was 47 years old at the time of his death. He was sent into a well earned retirement after his Grand National success.

Tipperary Tim was bred by Mr. Jack Ryan, the famed International Rugby forward at Boytonrath, Ceshel.

No. 228.—
THE SHEDDING OF COATS

ATTENTION TO DOGS IN SPRING
By "PHILOKONON."

NOW is the time for dogs to shed their coats in response to the demand of Nature that they shall appear in a new grab more suitable for the summer months. As the winter approaches their coats will thicken again so affording the protection necessary against the cold weather. Dogs are usually equipped with two coats, one consisting of soft woolly hair next to the skin that keeps them warm, and harsher hair outside to ward off the wet. The breeds from cold regions are particularly well endowed in this respect, and as a rule are improved in appearance, a wealth of covering enhancing their beauty.

A few breeds have particularly fine short coats, such as greyhounds, whippets, dachshunds and Italian greyhounds, which feel the cold more readily but look well on account of the ease with which a gloss is imparted when they are groomed. Those that are addicted to the water have not been overlooked, the hair being of such an oily nature that they can endure exposure with less hardship. About this time or a little later the long-haired dogs are seldom at their best from the show point of view, and then we realise what a difference clothing makes. A lady invited my opinion of her Keeshond at a show the other day. She was evidently a little disappointed that the dog had not been higher. I pointed out that he was very short of coat, which made him look longer in the back than he will do later on. She would have been well advised to keep him at home until his condition had improved. It is a mistake to risk having a decent dog put back through an accidental circumstance.

The casting of hair is a nuisance in housedogs, but it is inevitable. Something may be done to hasten the process by intensive grooming. Brush and comb out the dead hair every day, and where possible without inflicting pain pull as much out as you can with the fingers. This little attention conduces to the comfort of the dog as well as your own peace of mind, for the old coat often brings on an irritable condition of the skin, and provokes scratching, which may be the forerunner of eczema. If a dog is examined carefully at this season you will be surprised at the amount of scurf and dirt that are to be found, although externally there does not seem to be much the matter. A bath will improve things and make him happier.

A dose of worm medicine is frequently beneficial. If a dog is in good health the new coat will come all the quicker. In some cases the shedding goes on all the year round. Then one would expect a state of debility, and as a remedy give a harmless tonic and a little more generous scale of dietary. The growth of coat entails a certain tax upon the system. Of course, there are certain strains of long-haired dogs that are notoriously poor in coat. That is a question of breeding, and where the defect is hereditary not much can be done by artificial means to bring about an improvement. What has been inherited can only be remedied by selective breeding. One cannot make bricks without straw.

CHEAP CATTLE
NINETY-SIX FOR £80.

SEIZURE SALE AT FERMOY

At a sale of seized cattle at Fermoys today, 96 animals were sold for £80.

The buyer gave the name of Roche, and left immediately after the sale in a car driven by a defective.

This was the third sale of seized cattle in Fermoys during the past ten days, but Monday's proceedings were marked by the almost complete absence of farmers from outside the new barracks, where the cattle were sold.

At the two previous sales there was a large attendance of farmers, the first sale being marked by a procession and a protest meeting, all the shops in the town being closed.

The beasts sold were as follows:—9 milch cows and 12 dry cattle, including calves and heifers, seized from the farm of Mrs. Nora Daly, wife of Mr. P. Daly, T.D., Kilworth; 42 cattle including 15 three-year-old beef cattle, seized from Mr. John Hayes, Glenarousk, Castlelyons, and 16 yearlings.

5 in-calf heifers and 12 two-year-old store cattle, seized from Mr. David Buckley, Ballytreasna, Castlelyons.

Mr. Hayes' cattle were first put up for auction on foot of a Land Commission warrant for £64 10s. 4d., the total amount plus expenses, being £87 10s. 4d.

Roche bid £20, and there being no further bid the cattle were declared sold at that price.

The amount due in Mrs. Daly's case was £23 13s. 10d., plus £10 6s. expenses. Roche again bid £20, and no further bid being forthcoming, the cattle were sold to him. Mr. Buckley's cattle, seized on foot of a warrant for £54 10s. 4d., plus £22 13s. 8d. expenses were also sold to Roche, whose first bid of £40 was not increased.

Mr. P. Daly, T.D., and a few farmers were present at the sale. Mr. Daly said that when the cattle were seized from his farm on Friday last he was present at the Mitchelstown Bull Sales to buy a pure-bred dairy short-horn bull for purposes of breeding.

"When I returned in the evening," he said, "I found there were no cattle on the farm. It was an unfortunate coincidence, if you like."

CUCKOO!
A champion has come to the fore to point out that all cuckoos are not nest-crashers, and that the parasitic bird is only one of a numerous family numbering many scores of species scattered throughout the temperate and tropical countries of the world. There are, he vows, many cuckoos who lead normal lives rearing their young and vowing much time and labour to the business of nest building. It is important that this fact should be duly ventilated, for the legend has long been accepted in and out of Kilmac-thomas that the cuckoo is not only a sponger, but a thief.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES

DEATH OF MR. HUGH WALSH

Much regret has been caused in Cappoquin and surrounding districts by the death of Mr. Hugh Walsh, Kilbree, which occurred at his residence on the 7th inst., after a prolonged illness which was borne with fortitude and Christian resignation.

Deceased was a pretty extensive farmer, and a sound and practical business man, whose honest and upright character won for him the respect and esteem of all.

Of a quiet, refined and generous nature, he was regarded as one of the best and most obliging neighbours in the Kilbree district, and was connected with some of the oldest and most respected families in West Waterford. Several years ago his health suffered a serious breakdown and during his illness he was carefully nursed with the greatest skill and devotion by his loving wife, but, despite the best of care, his condition gradually grew worse, and the end came calmly and peacefully after he had received the last Sacraments from the Rev. T. Downey.

On Wednesday evening the remains were removed to St. Mary's Catholic Church, Cappoquin, and after Requiem Masses for the repose of his soul on Thursday, the funeral took place to the Old Churchyard, Lismore, when there was an unusually large attendance of the general public from Cappoquin, Lismore and many other districts in West Waterford which proved but a fitting mark of respect to the memory of a man who had been held in such high esteem by all.

Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., Cappoquin, read the final prayers at the grave.

The chief mourners included—Mrs. Walsh (widow); Mr. John Walsh, Tourin, (brother); the Misses Walsh, Lismore, (sisters); and many other relatives from various districts around Cappoquin and Lismore.—R.I.P.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE CRICKET CLUB

The annual meeting of the Cappoquin Cricket Club was held on Tuesday night 14th inst., Mr. R. H. Keane, President, presided, and amongst those present were: Messrs. E. E. Hey, M. J. Sargent, J. J. Smith, Treas., and Hon. Sec.; J. J. Smith, Treas., and Hon. Sec.; J. J. Smith, Treas., and Hon. Sec.; J. J. Smith, Treas., and Hon. Sec.

Mr. J. J. Smith, Treasurer, submitted an interesting financial statement, which was unanimously adopted, and arrangements were made for increasing the membership roll this year, the rate of subscriptions for members being left the same as last year.

All the outgoing officers and Committee were unanimously re-elected as follows:—

President—Mr. R. H. Keane; Vice-President—Mr. Ion Villiers Stuart, M.F.H.; Captain—Capt. T. O. James; Vice-Captain—Mr. E. Hey; Treasurer and Hon. Sec.—Mr. J. J. Smith.

Committee—Messrs. M. J. Sargent, P.C.; George Russell, R. Bell, J. V. Conway, J. Lacey, and L. D. Dunne.

Selection Committee—Messrs. E. E. Hey, M. J. Sargent and J. J. Smith.

Mr. Hey submitted a list of College Clubs from Waterford and Cork which would be anxious to arrange matches with Cappoquin during the season, and the Hon. Sec. was instructed to communicate with them and arrange all details for matches on an early date.

The Secretary said the first important fixture already made was a match with their old friends, Hearn's XI, Waterford, in Waterford, on Saturday, June 8th, the return match to be played in Cappoquin on a date to be fixed by this Club.

It was decided to fix the usual matches with Cahir, Lismore and other Clubs as early as possible in the season, and it was mentioned that Mr. Drohan's team, Gowran Park, Killenny, would be anxious to play Cappoquin in the latter's ground when they would be on their way to Cork during the season.

Mr. Sargent said he was glad to learn that through the efforts of Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., a new Cricket Club had been formed in Dungarvan this year, and it was decided that Cappoquin should give the new Club all the assistance possible, and arrange for some matches on Thursday evenings in Dungarvan, this being the half-holiday in that town.

The groundsmen was instructed to start the preparation of the usual pitch in the Cappoquin Sportsfield, and it was decided to have practice on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays during the season, Saturdays being reserved for matches against visiting teams.

The provision of extra gear and equipment, and many other important details having been attended to, a vote of thanks to Mr. Keane for presiding, concluded the meeting.

DANGER OF PLAYING ON THE STREET

On Monday evening a young lad named Patrick Coleman, 8 years, while playing with a ball in Lower Main street, suddenly darted out from behind a stationary motor car in pursuit of the ball and was knocked down by a passing motor car which struck him a glancing blow, so that with the exception of some slight wounds, he fortunately escaped what might have been far more serious injuries. This incident leads to show the great danger which always exists through young persons indulging in games on the public street, as the most careful drivers in the land can hardly escape being innocently involved in accidents under such circumstances.

Young fellows engaged in games like this are so absorbed in watching the ball that they pay no heed to approaching motor cars or any other vehicles, and it is the unfortunate drivers will then be blamed by the angry but unreasonable parents if anything happens the children through their own carelessness.

Their should be no excuse at all for having hurling, football or any kindred games played on the streets of Cappoquin, as we have a splendid Sportsfield within easy reach of all, where every kind of game dear to the hearts of youngsters can be played with the greatest safety and besides, the playing involves the danger of getting windows broken, or obstructing the traffic, as we sometimes see happening. Our efficient Guards will be conferring a great boon on the public if they take steps to put an end to this dangerous practice in future.

AND WHY NOT?

The excellent and well-reasoned Editorial which appeared in last week's issue pointing out the great attractions of Dungarvan as a charming seaside resort during the summer season has met with many a responsive echo in Cappoquin, and especially from the writer of these "Notes," who can bear personal testimony to the undoubted claims of Dungarvan to greater patronage, not only for the health-giving properties of its invigorating sea-breezes, but for the splendid accommodation which the town affords to visitors, and above and beyond all, the warm-hearted and hospitable nature of the inhabitants of the "Old Borough."

When the Sunday afternoon excursion trains were running to Dungarvan several years ago, the people of Cappoquin never missed a visit to the old town Sunday after Sunday, and the warm ties of friendship then forged between the people of the two towns have never been severed or sundered since.

We should be glad if the members of the Urban Council, or some other enterprising body in Dungarvan, could arrange for train or bus excursions to the seaside for the summer months, as such a service would be generously patronised from the inland towns in the West of the County, as most of us at this end would be only too glad to renew the warm friendship and repeat the happy experiences which we enjoyed so much when proper facilities were afforded for visiting the old town by the sea some years ago!

THE BARRACK STREET SEWERAGE SCHEME

Several weeks ago it was stated that all obstacles towards the carrying out of the Barrack street Sewerage Scheme had been removed, and that the Engineer had been instructed to prepare the necessary plans for the work, which gave us every reason to hope that the Scheme would be well under way by now, but nothing further seems to have been done about the matter in the meantime, or why the present prolonged delay? With the approach of warm weather, the necessity of the work becomes greater each day, and further, many able-bodied young men here who are now on the "Dole" have been waiting for some work to turn up for them, as they would feel greater self-respect and independence by being able to earn their living by honest toil, from which the workmen of Cappoquin have never shrunk in the past!

A POPULAR NURSE

From the report of the Annual Meeting of the Cappoquin District Nursing Association, which appears in this issue, it will be seen that high tributes were paid to Miss Lyne, Jubilee Nurse, for the excellent and painstaking manner in which she has been attending to the wants of the sick poor since she was appointed to this responsible position in Cappoquin. Not a word was spoken at the meeting that was not richly deserved, and we can personally endorse every word of praise uttered on the occasion, as Miss Lyne is one of the kindest and most skilful and humane nurses to be found anywhere, and the sick poor should feel deeply grateful and happy at having such an "Angel of Mercy" at their disposal in this extensive district.

BOWL PLAYING

The sport of Bowl-playing, which is so popular in the Co. Cork, and which was also a favourite pastime here at one time, but declined considerably during the past couple of years, is being again revived with great vigour and enthusiasm, and scarcely a Sunday passes without some important challenge matches being decided on the various by-roads in and around Cappoquin.

It is rather curious that Cappoquin seems to be the only town in the Co. Waterford where this sport is preserved but it appears to be a kind of heirloom for succeeding generations of the young men here, as this pastime has been very popular in Cappoquin for the past half-century, or more.

MARKET PRICES

The price of fat pigs at the Cappoquin Bacon Factory is 50/- per cwt., dead weight.

Clean, fresh and selected eggs are fetching 6d. per dozen, while farmers' butter remains at 8d. per lb.

Cattle Seizures and Cattle Show

Cork Co. Committee of Agriculture decided to withdraw the usual grant for the Cork Summer Show and the opinion was expressed that the Show should not be held under present conditions.

Mr. Downing proposed—"That we, the Cork County Committee of Agriculture, grant no subsidy to Cork Summer Show Committee this year, and that we have no demonstrations or exhibits by our instructors." While other committees had decided he said, not to hold Shows this year while members of the Agricultural Committees and other farmers were in prison, it was very unfair that Cork Show Committee would not stand down. They had the unpleasant experience during the week of the Government going around and seizing the unfortunate farmers' cattle and taking them away.

He saw the spectacle of the Government agents going into one farmer's house—a man with a large family—and taking away five of his six cattle while his children stood around crying. That unfortunate man, he said, hadn't a pound in his pocket, and yet that was the treatment meted out to him, as it was meted out to others of his class to-day. Those people cherished their stock, and it was pitiable to see children crying when they saw the cattle being taken away. It was unfair for Cork Committee to propose to hold their Show while such conditions prevailed in the country.

Mr. T. Kiely, seconding, said in view of the situation in the country as they found it they should consider it their duty to make a protest against the holding of the Summer Show. It was a peculiar position, indeed, to see President de Valera and other members of the Government attending the Show at Dublin last week. What was the show he asked. A cattle show, cattle that they were doing their best to destroy. The present Government had succeeded in destroying the cattle trade yet there they were in Dublin at a cattle show in all their splendid array, met and welcomed and admired by the promoters of a cattle show, while their own agents were buying in cattle at seizures at Fermoy and other places, because they were worthless for anyone to purchase.

Mr. D. L. O'Gorman said every effort was being made throughout the country to try to persuade dwellers in towns and the professional classes that the ordinary living of the country was going up. The ordinary living he said is not going up. Last year the Parliamentary Secretary to the Minister for Finance attended the Cork Show and subsequently at various meetings he stated that anybody who said the farmers were not well off should have gone to the Cork Show, where, he said, he never saw a better dressed crowd. That was Mr. Hugo Flinn's remark, and that was all Mr. O'Gorman said he had called attention the day before yesterday to precisely the same thing as they were now discussing. He told the people at the meeting he attended there that the farmers were not well off but living on their capital, and that farming was being carried on at a dead loss. There again, he was told: "Go down to Cork Show." He proposed a resolution at the Dublin meeting stating taxation was excessive, that was defeated by 24 votes to 7. One of the most rampant men against the resolution was the Chairman of the Westmeath County Council, though it was stated recently that that Council was unable to meet its obligations, and another who opposed it was the representative of a Council where it was stated recently the rates would be 19/- in the £1. He had met in Dublin a Cork gentleman with whom he discussed the holding of the Show.

"Well," he said, "we have 800 members who subscribe £1 each, and it gives employment and creates a holiday." That was his view while the farmers of the country were suffering as they were and losing fifteen millions a year.

Mr. John Daly, also supported and other members having spoken the resolution was unanimously passed.

UNWANTED CALVES

Arising out of a resolution from the Kerry County Council with regard to the Premium Bull Scheme, Mr. O'Driscoll asked where was the necessity to-day for such a scheme when farmers were not rearing calves.

Some time ago, he said, there were over one hundred dead calves in a field at Macroom, and he believed that was only a fraction of the calves in that neighbourhood. In his own district farmers were not rearing calves, hence there was no necessity for a premium bull scheme.

Mr. O'Leary—The foreshore where I live is alive with dead calves (laughter).

Mr. O'Gorman—There will be no calves at all in the country by next year.

Mr. Donovan said there was a report that the fish were dying in the ocean on account of all the carcasses of calves washed out to sea.

No action was taken.

GOOD PRICES FOR ABERDEEN ANGUS CATTLE

The oldest Aberdeen-Angus herd, belonging to Col. Walker Portlithen, Aberdeen, has been dispersed. Forty-eight head averaged £51 15/-. The top price, 230 guineas, was paid for a cow; 140 guineas was paid for a 2-year-old heifer, and 100 guineas for a cow and calf.

Series of Seizures Near Lismore

YOUNG MAN GETS SIX MONTHS

At the Lismore District Court, before Mr. H. A. McCarthy, Acting D.J., a young man named Patrick Wrenne, Glencairn, Lismore, was charged in custody at the suit of Superintendent Quinlan, Lismore, with the larceny of the sum of £6 and an overcoat from the residence of his father, John Wrenne, Glencairn, Lismore; on a second count he was charged with the larceny of a Trench Coat, the property of his brother, Michael Wrenne; on a third count he was charged with the larceny of a gentleman's bicycle and lamp, the property of Mr. James O'Donoghue, Cappoquin, from the premises of Mr. George Heskin, Aglish, Glencairn, and on a fourth count he was charged with the larceny of a bicycle, the property of Thomas Gibbons, Naas, Co. Kildare.

Supt. Quinlan, stated that in connection with the latter charge the accused had been arrested in Co. Kildare and had only been sent down to Lismore in custody on a transmit warrant that morning.

Accused was not professionally represented, and pleaded guilty to all the charges.

The Supt. stated that only "at the last Tallow Court on April 16th, the accused was convicted of the larceny of a sum of money from Sean O'Donnell, Mellera, Cappoquin, but was then let off with a suspensory sentence of one month.

The Justice asked accused what he had to say for himself now?

Accused replied that he had permission to take his father's money and overcoat.

The Justice said that was equivalent to a plea of "not guilty," and he should therefore, take positions in the case.

Accused then pleaded guilty to all the charges and agreed to be tried summarily by the Justice.

The Justice (to accused)—At the last Tallow Court on April 16th, I wasted my voice and my eloquence on you in telling you to keep out of trouble in future, and I then let you off with a suspensory sentence of one month in order to give you a chance of making good and keeping yourself straight in future. Yet only two days after that date, on April 18th you started stealing again and have committed a series of crimes since, so I see it is no use in my being lenient with you any longer. The only thing to do with you is to put you away for six months for the safety of the public and yourself, and also in order to give the Supt. a rest from trying to recover articles stolen by you. I accordingly, sentence you to six months imprisonment, and hope this will have the effect of making you keep straight and lead an honest life when you come out of jail, although I am rather doubtful about it.

Accused took his sentence quite uncomplained and chatted gaily for a few minutes with some young lady friends in Court until he was removed by the Guards and conveyed to Cork prison that evening.

LOSSES CAUSED TO STOCK AND CROPS

THE FARMERS FIGHT AGAINST WORMS

Farmers have good reason to be interested in worms—true worms because there is scarcely another division of the animal kingdom which, with the exception of the common and oft-despised earthworm, causes such losses amongst crops and stock.

Worms constitute one of the most important groups of animals without backbone—so-called invertebrates. They are all longish soft-bodied creatures, without properly defined heads, and completely lacking in eyes. Usually they are whitish or creamy in colour, the earthworm being an outstanding exception. Worms are either flat or round in section, and scientists have, therefore, divided the numerous types of worms into two groups, namely—Flat worms and round worms. The first group is composed of the flukes and the tapeworms, whilst the second group comprises the thread worms, whip worms, lung worms, earthworms, celandworms, and leeches. The earthworm is distinguished by the stiff hairs which occur on each segment, by means of which it moves about.

FLUKES

Now, flat worms are extremely destructive animals, whether they be flukes or tapeworms. No one in Ireland need be unfamiliar with the common sheep liver fluke, that curious little creature which Cobbell, some hundred years or so ago, called a "dab" or "fat fish," and marvelled how it could come from the sea into a rotten sheep's liver. Indeed, the fluke is very deceptive, since within its fish-like exterior it conceals the sex organs and reproductive capabilities of both male and female. It can fertilise itself, and this it does right heartily, passing out of its body scores upon scores of eggs, which, after a marvellous series of changes, turn into adult liver flukes ready to take their toll of our flocks of sheep. The metamorphosis of the fluke is too well-known to require further description, but it should be borne in mind that there is more than one kind of fluke—a quite common species attacks cattle and causes liver rot there.

TAPEWORMS

Of tapeworms, there are legions, if one may make use of such a proud word in connection with such abominable things. They are truly loathsome animals, scourges of beast and man, the natural outcome of foul and insanitary conditions, of improper feeding and irregular existence. If the head of a tapeworm were to be magnified several hundred times and exposed in a public place half the population would see, poised on a slender neck, an obscene spherical mass, with four huge suckers and a ring of cruel-looking hooks situated above them. With suckers and hooks the worm attaches itself to the intestines of animals and develops dozen of flatish segments until it may reach in some cases, to a length of twenty feet! And each segment, be it noted is practically complete in itself. It has no intestine—why should it, when it can absorb already digested food from the gut of the animal in which it lives? Each segment has both male and female sex organs, and soon it becomes choked with fertilised eggs. As it ripens, the segment drops off and finds its way to the ground, soon to be taken up by some other animal grazing there. Each egg hatches, and the larva bores its way into the muscles of the animal and forms a "waterbag" or a cyst. This cyst develops into a tapeworm when conditions become favourable. Not a very engaging cycle of events, is it?

Modern sanitary methods have practically abolished the human tapeworm from all civilised countries, but tapeworms in cattle, cats, and dogs are all too frequent. The difficulty in getting rid of tapeworms is to dislodge the head. So long as the head is in position segments will continue to form, but the problem of making the suckers and the hooks release their hold upon the intestinal walls is not a simple one. It is easy enough to bring about the evacuation of all or most of the segments, but long and careful dosing under veterinary supervision is frequently needed before the tapeworm is finally disposed of.
