Leather Factory For Dungarvan
STATEMENT OF MANAGING DIRECTOR

A Public Meeting under the auspices of the Dungarvan Industrial Development Association was held in the Town Hall, on Friday evening last for the purpose of hearing a statement from Mr. Reginald Dickens, Northampton, Managing Director of the proposed Dickens Leather Co., Dungarvan.

Rev. T. B. Walsh, C.C., presided. There were also present—Dr. Casey, Messrs. E. A. Ryan, solr.; P. J. Moloney, M. J. Keane, M. Morrissey, C. U.D.C., J. Lanigan, C.E.O.; John Beresford, Sean Goulding, T.D.; S. J. Moynihan, Commissioner, J. Bellotte, P. A. Casey, J. Mansfield, U.D.C.; J. Smith, E. Maher, M. Moloney, P. Casey, M. Casey, B. Mulcahy, J. Donovan, M. Curran, M. O'Meara, Hon. Secs., etc.

Fr. Walsh said that the objects of the meeting were known to all of them and there only remained to him the pleasant duty of welcoming Mr. Dickens, who as they all knew was one of the largest manufacturers of Lining Leathers in England and was of the highest repute, and who had come there to assist them in the establishment of their Tannery Factory at Dungarvan. He would explain fully all details. Continuing Fr. Walsh, gave a resumé of the work done by the local committee since the inception of the project, in which they had the able assistance of the principal of the firm of Kennedy Crowley and Co.—Mr. Vincent Crowley, Chairman of the Board of the Portlaw Factory, and Mr. Kennedy O'Brien, who was a member of the Board of Directors of this and the Portlaw Factory. He felt sure that the money invested under those two men and our own two local Directors—Mr. P. J. Moloney and Dr. Casey—would be a profitable investment.

Dealing with protection, Fr. Walsh said they had full assurance of every possible assistance from the Minister for Industry and Commerce.

At this stage Fr. Walsh had to leave and Mr. P. J. Moloney took the chair. Mr. Moloney said his first duty was to offer apologies on behalf of Mr. Kennedy O'Brien, who could not possibly attend. He would ask Mr. Dickens to address them.

Mr. Dickens, prefacing his remarks by saying, I am a Leather Manufacturer and not a speaker, said well, Mr. Chairman, and gentlemen, we all know what is taking place in Ireland to-day—the Revival of Industry brought about by world conditions. Every country to-day says it must make and grow the articles required by its people. Your Government has given many assurances from time to time to its people that it will do everything that lies in its power to help you to start new industries; that it will protect each new industry adequately by tariffs, etc. You know the most prosperous industries in England to-day are the motor and silk industries. Why, simply because they have got protection from foreign competition and of the two the motor industry is the more prosperous because it has a 33 1/3% import duty.

A few years ago this country imported over £2,000,000 worth of leather goods. At that time there were only a few hundred employed in the boot and shoe trade here. To-day there are many thousands of Irish people at full time work in this industry. In fact we now read that in 1936 you will manufacture at home the full requirements of your people as regards boots and shoes. Reviewing the figures of the Department of Industry and Commerce since 1932, I have noticed the value of boots diminishing and the value of leather imported increasing. I may say that I was very pleased to attend at the official opening ceremony of the Portlaw Tannery and I heard Mr. Lemass, the Minister for Industry and Commerce, saying that he would not rest satisfied until what applies to the boot and shoe trade could be said of the leather trade. We have made a good start at Portlaw and arrangements are now completed in other towns to proceed at once to manufacture this country's requirements in leather. We have very definite assurances from the Minister and his Department that we will always have ample protection. At the moment I may say, that we have 37 1/2% tariff on foreign and 25% on English or 6d. per pound, whichever is the greater, and I consider this very satisfactory. I have had 31 years experience in the leather industry and so I possess an intimate knowledge of the various processes necessary to manufacture the many and varied classes of lining leather and semi-chrome uppers, fancy glove and clothing leathers. The premises secured here can be made adaptable at every reasonable cost. They are convenient to the Quay for the importation of raw material, etc., etc. For the success of any industry you must have the co-operation of labour, good management and the required capital. I am informed by my Dungarvan colleagues that there is plenty of adaptable labour available here. So that the whole question resolves itself into a triangle—labour, management and capital, each occupying an angle. No company could carry on without capital or without efficient management, but money and management cannot go on unless labour is co-operative in working with the management to procure money from the sale of the manufactured goods to meet the wage bills and other expenses. During my experience I have always found labour ready and willing at all times to co-operate, and I feel if the men here work not only for their own interests, but for the interests of the Company as well, the position soon will be that the Dungarvan Company will not only be supplying the needs of the Free State, but will be exporting to other countries as well. My own firm exports its products all over the world and I see no reason why we here will not be able to have an export trade. In fact, I say definitely from what I know we are in a good position to secure a large export trade at competitive prices with foreign firms.

My estimate of the turnover here is very conservative at £60,000 during the 1st year and at £86,000 during the second year. Having a net profit of 1% on first year's turnover—this is sufficient to pay the dividends on preference shares; having a net profit of 3%, this is sufficient to pay the preference dividends nearly three times over or to pay the preference dividends and 10% on the ordinary. I may say that I am not coming here for my salary; I have lived and can live without that, but I am coming here to do what I truly believe was the starting of a very big enterprise.

Mr. E. A. Ryan, solr., to the Company said that his primary interest was principally as a resident of the town. Then the Committee appointed him as legal adviser to the Company. What he would like to go forth from that meeting, what he would like all present to tell their friends was that this was a sound undertaking. Mr. Dickens, the Managing Director, had shown his confidence in the undertaking by subscribing in cash £6,000 in ordinary shares of the capital. He would like to emphasize cash because generally speaking others do not subscribe in cash, but in kind, such as machinery, etc. This money may be over-subscribed by small investors. It is certainly going to mean a big thing for the town and especially for the shopkeepers of Dungarvan and if this Factory is started it will only be the forerunner of many other such undertakings in the town.

Mr. Ryan then dealt with the capital of the Company and said that with the subscriptions promised, they only required five to six thousand pounds to start. If this is subscribed locally the cost and inconvenience of underwriting the Company can be saved. He had before him a copy of the prospectus, which would be available to the public in a few weeks. He thought the Company had in Mr. Dickens an ideal Manager, who had both the experience and the energy to make it a success and he saw no reason why the Company could not be going in about two months time if the shares are taken up.

Mr. Goulding, T.D., said they had practically £18,000 guaranteed and he did not think it would be necessary to go to the cost of underwriting.

Fr. Walsh said he would like to mention that when the Committee came back from Dublin they discussed the matter very fully and they decided that before going to the public for shares they should themselves prove themselves. He would like to state that the eleven who were present at that meeting promised between them from £10,000 to £11,000. He was absolutely, firmly convinced that the undertaking would be a great success and he would ask those present to spread the good tidings. The money that is put into this Factory will benefit the town. Four other towns fought strongly for this and he had no doubt but the people of Dungarvan would stand by this gift.

Mr. Goulding said it was not taking any gambling chance to do away with underwriting the Company. This prospectus will go to the whole country, and people in this country are rather chary of foreign investments since the big crash in 1920.

Fr. Walsh agreed and said that they should not allow opportunities to slip. If the Dungarvan people let this chance slip, who knows who will be in charge of the Company in a few years time. Personally, he had no doubt but that the people of Dungarvan would respond in the same manner as the eleven men who put up the £10,000.

Mr. Ryan—The prospectus will be advertised and a subscription list opened. In the matter of shares, he thought the usual procedure was

KILMAGTHOMAS NEWS.

DEATH OF MR. M. CONNOLLY.

At Clonca-Power, Mr. Michael Connolly, passed away after a long illness and in the fullness of his years. He will be missed by a large circle of relatives and friends, and particularly by his neighbours, with whom he lived in the most friendly terms. Deceased was a staunch Nationalist, and a familiar camp-follower of the Clonca-Power hurling team when in action over the past forty years. The interment took place in Clonca-Power Churchyard, in the presence of numerous relatives, friends and sympathisers.—R.I.P.

GONE—

Miss Babs Russell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Russell, Kilmagthomas, after a happy holiday at her home returned to London last weekend. This young lady's brother, Paddy, is serving his apprenticeship at the Maddenstown Lodge training establishment.—(Senator J. J. Parkinson's) as a jockey.

CAPITAL CLASSES—

Gaelic teacher, Sean Downey, has a splendid roll of juveniles and adults at his Irish classes at Kilmagthomas Courthouse on Thursday and Friday evenings. Mr. Downey, who has written a number of Irish stories and plays is also engaged at the work of collecting the folk-lore of the Deise at present.

WE WONDER—

If it is really true that some labourers cottages built with cement and Bonmahon sand have passed muster, while others partially constructed of similar components have been rejected?

CONDITIONS CLIMATICAL—

The weather continues very broken. A deluge of rain fell in these parts on Sunday evening and throughout Sunday night. The month just ended was one of the worst Septembers in the experience of local oldsters.

TRANSFERS—

Mr. John O'Brien, Accountant, Provincial Bank, Kilmagthomas, has been transferred on promotion to Waterford. During his term of over three years in our midst, Mr. O'Brien, by his many fine qualities of head and heart, had firmly installed himself as warm favourite of all classes and creeds of the district.

A BONMAHON ITEM—

Bonmahon will undoubtedly be one of the busiest districts in the Deise in due course. We are reliably informed that mining operations will be soon in motion, under the direction and supervision of Professor A. Broughton-Edge, the well-known London mineralogist, who is one of the directors of the Anglo-Danish syndicate by whom the mining rights of the district have just been acquired, with the approval of the Minister for Industry and Commerce. It is expected that upwards of 100 hands will be employed before Christmas. While in the village the other day we met a young lady motorist whose car is somewhat unique in so much as it is fitted with no fewer than six horns, each of a different type! What the idea is we cannot say. We asked the driver, but even she was unable to explain her collection. "I suppose it's just a craze," she said.

WE PUT IT TO YOU (SERIOUS AND NOT)—

That Cabinet Minister Sean Lemass was right well received by the populace on his factory-opening visit to Portlaw—

That covies of partridges were seen at Garranurton, Ballygoary and Ballylinch within the week—

That all species of game are now plentiful over the area preserved by the Kilmagthomas Game Preservation Society—

when the Directors of any Company meet to allot the shares that preference is given to local applicants, so it is up to the local people themselves to see that they apply in time.

Dr. Casey said that he visited one of Mr. Dickens' factories in Northampton and was given every facility to make a full inspection of the whole factory. He further stated that from what he saw and from the interviews he had with the employers he was more than impressed, and his only hope was that Mr. Dickens would do for Dungarvan what he has done for Northampton, and he had every reason to believe that he would.

Mr. Goulding in proposing a vote of thanks to Mr. Dickens for his attendance, said that when a man is prepared to put £6,000 into a factory for the town, he deserved the best thanks of the people of that town.

Commissioner Moynihan, seconded the vote of thanks, which was passed with acclamation.

That the Society will show no leniency to poachers on their premises—

That at a second to six on last Sunday evening, a kindly Kiltieen colleen suddenly became conscious of a dismay that brought a chill to her heart's core—

That the rightly respect-ful, late-paying residents of the Rathgormack region can congratulate themselves on having nothing much to keep them awake during the nights from now to next year—

That even the Nire Valley virgins are prepared to meet all "sanctions" against them—

That all efforts to inaugurate a branch of the National Smoke Abatement Association at Kill are doomed—

That even the raw onions they raise in "White Rings" can keep true lovers apart—

That Kilmac is maintaining a cautious attitude in view of the continuance of the Italo-Abyssinian crisis—

That all descriptions of eggs are now as scarce as sovereigns at Stradbally—

That there are more down-trodden, henpecked husbands crawling about in the world like soulless worms than there are tamed and intimidated wives—

That the so-called strong men who can dominate committee meetings, build empires or tame lions are very meek little fellows before their life-partners—

That they are afraid of their wives—

That what exactly they are afraid of they may not quite know—

That no man with fighting blood in his veins would mind such trifles as rolling pins, pokers or potato-mashers used as weapons of aggression—

That man, proud man, big chief and top-sawyer, becomes when wed a humble subaltern who takes orders from his generalissimo; his not to reason why—

That the other name for wife is managing-director—

That when two ride on a donkey, one must ride behind—

That it does some haughty fellows a world of good to be given a back seat, even on an ass's back—

That Slabh Ogua's grandest grandmother has lost her spectacles again—

That according to Old Moore's Almanac for 1935 (now "out") no good hat will be raffled for no good cause either on the 30th or 31st day of February next—AND—

That ewes, the property of Messrs. Thomas Wall, farmer, Newtown, Kilmagthomas, and John Patrick Walsh, do., Comeragh, Kiltrossy, respectively, have given birth to lambs, being the earliest known of in Mid-Deise.

DEATH OF MR. JAS. HAYES, MOUNT ODELL.

The deepest sympathy is extended to the members of the Hayes family on the death of their father, Mr. James Hayes, which took place on Friday last at his residence Mount Odell, Dungarvan, after a brief illness, fortified by the rites of the church. Their sorrow was all the more poignant by reason of the fact that on the day of his death, his son-in-law, Mr. R. Dempsey, who leaves a wife and young family was buried in Dublin.

The late Mr. Hayes was an ex-Sergt. of the R.I.C. and at every centre at which he was stationed he was held in the highest esteem and won the esteem and respect of the public for his quiet and unassuming manner and the impartial discharge of his duties. He was father of Mr. Seamus Hayes, a popular member of the Dungarvan U.D.C.

On Sunday evening the remains were removed to the Parish Church, Dungarvan, and were followed by an imposing cortege. The interment took place in the adjoining graveyard, the last prayers being recited by Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C.

The chief mourners included, Mrs. Hayes, (widow); Rev. Bd. Kevin, B.A.; Rev. Br. Amedy; Sergt. J. Hayes, D.M.G.; Sergt. M. Hayes, C.G.; Mr. Seamus Hayes, U.D.C. (sons); Mrs. M. Divinney, Mrs. R. Dempsey (daughters); Mrs. Cooney, Carriglea, Mrs. Hogan, Ballintaylor (sisters); Rev. T. Cooney, O.S.A.; Messrs. Dan, Ed., and Jas. Cooney, Carriglea, (nephews); Miss M. Cooney (niece); Mr. M. Divinney, (Garda son-in-law); Mr. Cooney, Carriglea, M. Horgan, Ballyintaylor (brothers-in-law); Mrs. Walsh, Cappoquin, Misses May and Kathleen Walsh, do., Mr. and Miss Annie Hackett, Carriglea, Mr. and Mrs. Aherne, Ballintaylor, (cousins).

END OF SUMMER TIME—

Summer Time will end on Sunday next at 3 a.m. People should put back their clocks one hour before retiring on Saturday night.

VERY MUCH SO!

"Young people of to-day are much alike." In many respects.

LISMORE NOTES.

LISMORE NOVICE SPORTS.

Lismore Novice Sports held in the Gaelic Field, Lismore, on Sunday last were hampered very much by inclement weather. It was thought in the early part of the day that there was no alternative but a postponement, but being so late in the season and all arrangements made, it was decided to continue with the programme. The Lismore Sports Committee wish to thank all those who gave prizes and subscriptions to help to make the Sports a success.

The opening event (Road Cycle Race) started at 2.30 p.m. at Main street, Lismore via Glencairn and ended at the entrance to the Sports Field, a distance of 8 miles. The race, run on the handicap basis, was favoured with fine weather, though a rather cold and strong wind faced the competitors on the home run. There was one casualty in the run, which happened to George O'Brien, L.C.C., 20 yards from the finishing point, he being pitched over the handle bars from a severe skid. The finish of the race proved very exciting, William Barry, Ballyin, winning by four lengths from J. Hyde, Youzhal.

DETAILS:

100 Yards (men) final—J. Barry, Tourin, 1; J. Ormonde, Lismore, 2; P. Barry, Cahir, 3. Time 10 2/5 secs. Won by inches.

220 Yards, Final—W. Moore, Monastarive, 1; P. Barry, Cahir, 2; J. Ormonde, 3. Time 24 1/5 secs. Won by two yards. Also competed—J. Barry, Tourin, E. Power, Dungarvan, C. Taylor, Villierstown.

440 Yards Final—C. Taylor, Villierstown, 1; J. Barry, Tourin, 2; E. Power, Dungarvan, 3. Time 1 min. 2 1/2 secs. Won by yards.

800 Yards—C. Taylor, 1; E. Power, Dungarvan, 2. Time 2 mins. 55 secs. Won by yards.

220 Yards (Boys under 16)—Patrick Pease Hurley, Abbeyside, 1; Jas. Foley, Lismore, 2; Pat. Moore, do., 3. Time 26 secs. Won by a yard.

High Jump—W. Moore, Monastarive, Lismore, 1; 5' 8"; M. Whelan, Lismore, 5' 5" 2.

Pole Vault—H. Conway, Cappoquin, (8ft. 10ins.) 1; Thomas Conway, do., (8ft. 9ins.) 2; M. Whelan, Lismore, (8ft. 2ins.) 3.

One Mile Cycle—George O'Brien, L.C.C. 1; W. Barry, Ballyin, 2. Time 4 mins. 7 secs. Won by 1 length.

Two Miles Cycle—G. O'Brien, L.C.C. 1; W. Barry, Ballyin, 2. Time 8 mins. 36 secs. Won by four yards.

Half-Mile Cycle (Boys under 16)—Jas. Foley, Lismore, 1; Patrick Moore, Lismore, 2. Time 2 mins. 6 secs. Won by one length.

A GREAT DANCE—

A Ceilidhe Mor, including old time dances was held at the Town Hall, Lismore, on Sunday night under the auspices of the Lismore Sports Committee, and proved an outstanding and most enjoyable function from every standpoint. The large crowd present showed striking evidence of their enjoyment right throughout the night, they being treated to an unexpected programme. This augurs well for the renaissance of the Gaelic dances in Lismore.

The hall was beautifully decorated for the occasion with bunting and other colourful effects and nothing was left undone on the part of the Sports Committee to cater for the large assembly of dancing enthusiasts present. Contingents came from all parts. Representatives attended from Fermoy, Kiltworth, Tallow, Cahir, Ardmore, Melleray, Cappoquin and Tallow and all left the hall with buoyant feelings of delight to be present at such an enjoyable function.

The Lismore Sports Committee had engaged the Lismore Nitghingale Ceilidhe Band for the occasion under the personal supervision of Mr. P. Gillen, and seldom if ever was a programme of such soul-stirring Irish music given in the Town Hall. The music was voted the best ever heard in the Courthouse.

The catering arrangements were carried out by the Lismore Sports Committee themselves in an efficient manner.

A raffle for a Sweep Ticket or 10s. note took place during the dance and was won by Thomas O'Brien, Ballysagart, Lismore.

Dancing continued with zest until 2 a.m. when all present stood to attention for the playing of the National Anthem.

THE BOOK OF LISMORE—

The famous Book of Lismore was written about 925 years ago by a Monk who gave his whole life to write a work that would hand down to posterity historical sketches, biographical sketches and topographical of price-

OWBEG STREAM—

(Composed by the Late William Campion.)

My own Owbeg, my lovely stream, how oft I've fished your waters, And often called at Widow Keefe's and gested with her daughters. Delightful stream your dear to me, for now my hairs are hoary; Gladsome hours on you I spent and told some quaint old story. Enduring heat and bitter cold, you never cease your labours; Driving onward to the sea a boon with your neighbours. Often when your banks were green, I stretched upon the clover; Often from a shower of sleet I hid beneath an osier. Comrades of youth you bring to mind too true we had to sever, Except a few who still remain for most are gone for ever.

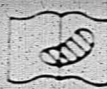

DEATH OF MRS. MARY E. BURKE, COOLNASMEAR.

The death of Mrs. Mary Ellen Burke, took place at Coolnasmear, on Monday 23rd, September, after a brief illness fortified by the rites of the church. She was a very popular lady, always doing good amongst her neighbours and her demise is deeply regretted by all who knew her and appreciated her worth. To her family deep sympathy is extended.

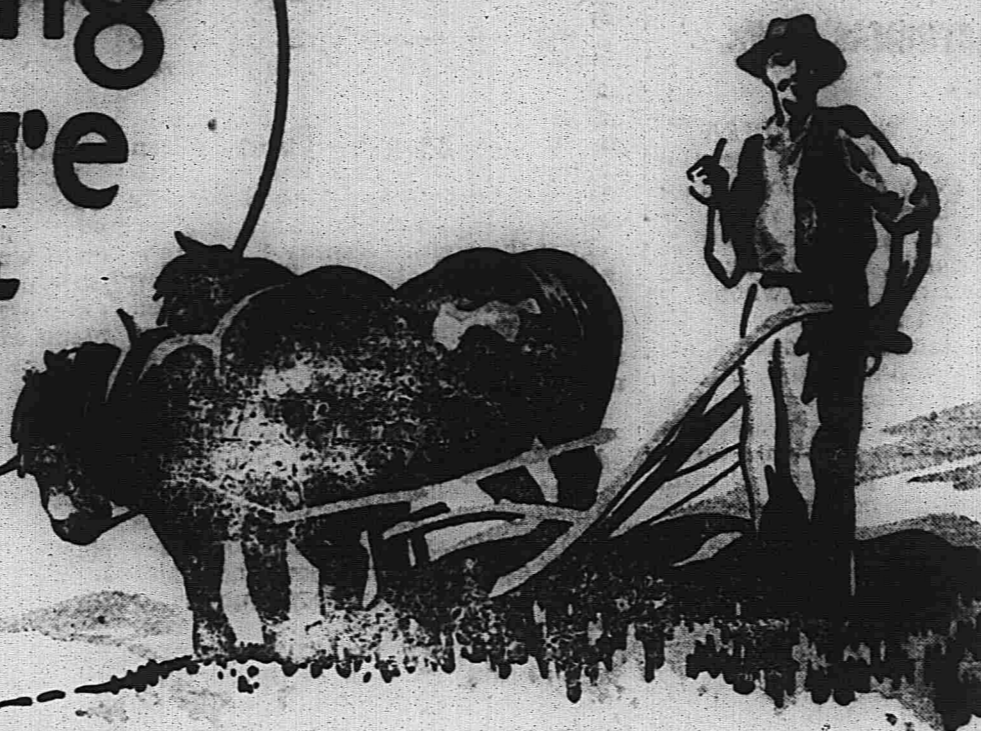

Her funeral to the Parish Church, Touramena, was large and imposing, and was a tribute to the respect in which the deceased and her family are held. The chief mourners were—Mrs. M. Fraher Coonasmear, Mrs. E. Landers, Modeligo; Mrs. J. McCarthy, Kiltbrien (daughters); J. P. Burke, Glid dane (son); Mrs. Burke (daughter-in-law); Mr. Fraher, M. Landers (sons-in-law); Misses V. A. Fraher, E. Fraher, Nell and Alice Burke, Peg, Nell, Alice McCarthy, Patk. Landers, N. Burke, John, Wm. and P. McCarthy, Misses P. Landers, E. Landers, Joe O'Brien, (grand-children); Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien, Millstreet; Mrs. Farrell, do.; Mr. and Mrs. M. Hickey, Cahernalega; Mrs. Tyers and Mr. Tyers, Miss E. Grady, E. and L. Grady, Mrs. Hourigan, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mulcahy, Miss B. Fraher, D. Fraher, Bleantis; P. Fraher, D. Fraher, Miss M. Cullinan, Miss N. Wall, Miss K. Fraher, J. Wall, T. Barry, M. Fraher, Dungarvan; Mrs. O'Flynn, do.; Mrs. J. Curran, do.; Mrs. Mansfield, Mrs. McGrath, Modeligo; P. J. and L. O'Brien, Ballinagurke; Mr. and Mrs. W. Fraher, Kiltbrien; Mr. and Mrs. Fraher, Coum; T. Fraher, Coum; P. Fraher, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fraher, Mrs. Moloney, Colligan, Mr. and Mrs. Hennebery, W. Wall, T. Dunford, D. Dunford, Misses Dunford, Mr. and Mrs. J. Crotty, etc., etc., (relatives).

GERMANY WANTS COLONIES—

"Germany must have Colonies again to enable her to obtain such raw materials as rubber, cotton, and cocoa, declared Gen. Ritter von Erp, the Governor of Munich, at a gathering of Colonial ex-servicemen at Dusseldorf. There could be no question of force. Through the English Press he could tell that Britain foresaw a settlement of German demands in the near future.

This year I'm sowing still more Wheat

Last year I saw a lot in the papers about wheat growing. But I'm a cautious man, so I put in a bit to see how it would do.

It did splendidly—much better than I'd expected. In fact, I don't think I ever grew a crop that gave more satisfaction.

Now I'm convinced by my own experience that wheat growing will pay me. I've proved that I can grow it successfully. From now on I'm going to get my share of the £3,000,000 that we've been spending on foreign wheat. The Government definitely guarantees me a good price for all the wheat I grow. I've found that wheat is a paying crop. You follow my example and it will pay you, too.

BLACKWATER FISHERIES.

At the usual monthly meeting of the Lismore or No. 4 Blackwater Board of Fishery Conservators, at Tallow, on Wednesday, there attended—Messrs. R. Gore Annesley, moved to the Chair; Major Longfield, E. P. Maxwell, Capt. R. Holyrod Smyth, W. O'Neill, J. Kent, W. Baldwin, T. E. Montgomery.

Messrs. T. Drohan, Clerk and Inspector and W. Buckley, Assistant Inspector were also in attendance.

Grant For Hatchery

The Department wrote referring to a grant towards the upkeep of the Banteer and Mallow Hatchery, stated that the Minister for Agriculture was pleased to approve of a grant of £50 for this purpose.

The Clerk—That is £10 less than last year.

A certificate was read from the Department authorising the Clerk to capture and have in his possession spawning salmon of trout and the fry of those fish for the purpose of artificial propagation.

Mallow Beet Factory

A letter was read from the Department to the Mallow Beet Factory stating that the Minister had arranged that his Inspector Mr. R. Southern, should visit Mallow on the 1st October with a view to discussing with a deputation from your Board the question of preventing the escape of beet effluent from the Mallow Beet Factory into the river Blackwater.

Penalty To Stand

The Minister wrote stating that in the case of John Scanlon, Glantane, Mallow, who was fined £10 for a breach of the Fishery Laws, no mitigation could be granted of the penalty imposed.

Penalty Mitigated

In the case of Thos. Connell, Dro-more, Cappoquin, who was fined £5 with £1 costs the fine was mitigated to £1, costs to stand.

Major Longfield asked why was there a mitigation in one case and not in the other.

The Clerk said that in one case the offender, a farmer was found at 4.30 a.m. and with a pony and trap. In the other case a snap net was found, but it wasn't in fishing order, but before the prescribed time.

Bailiffs Wages

Arising out of an application for an increase of wages from a water bailiff, The Chairman asked what was the rate of wages prevailing.

The Clerk said that married men received 35/- weekly, and single men 30/- with 5/- lodging allowance when operating from mhoine.

Decrees For Rates

A letter was read from Mr. T. A. Riordan, solr., Mallow, stating that a number of decrees for unpaid rates had been handed over for execution.

Run Of Small Fish

During a discussion on the best location of the men, the Chairman said that there was a big run of small fish in the Awbeg river recently.

Bull And Bailiffs

Mr. Buckley said there was one particular place which the bailiffs found very difficult to patrol owing to the presence of a vicious bull (laughter).

Major Longfield—Are the poachers afraid of the bull, or does he know them? (laughter).
Mr. Buckley—I heard that a bunch of them got a good run from the animal lately (laughter).

Auditor's Report

The Department forwarded the Auditors Report with attested abstracts of the accounts for the 3 years ended 30th September, 1934. The attention of the Board was directed to the Auditor's remarks relative to the large proportion of rates outstanding at the close of each year. The Department stated that they were to take every step necessary to comply with his suggestions.

The Report having dealt with the question of making and collecting the rates in proper time, stated that the accounts were presented for audit in a most satisfactory manner.

Mr. Baldwin said it was evident from the report that the Clerk had carried out his duties to the satisfaction of the Auditor.

The Hatcheries

Major Longfield raised the question of the Lismore Hatchery. He didn't know how much was spent on it or what was the amount of the grant—a few hundred pounds—but he felt that they as a Board should give more careful consideration to the hatcheries. He hoped soon to submit to the Board an interesting report on the Ayon river in Devonshire, where there was no run of spring salmon, but a large run of gravid, heavy fish, about that time of the year, and which were looked upon as vermin, which the people there would be glad to get rid of, as they couldn't be transformed into spring fish. His idea of the situation there was that the spring fish were completely wiped out, and that the Autumn run of salmon simply produced their own kind—Autumn fish, utterly worthless. If that were so, it would bear out the idea that he had held for a long time, viz., that spring fish produced spring fish, and Autumn fish Autumn fish. They might, therefore enlarge their hatchery, and deal with early fish at Banteer, instead of propagating at considerable expense heavy fish of no use to anybody.

The Chairman said that Major Longfield's opinion was held by several prominent authorities.

Major Longfield—There are those who say it is not proved—our own Fishery Department and their Chief Inspector. As regards the Lismore hatchery—are we benefitting by it to the extent of a penny-piece?

Mr. Baldwin—That is only a side issue—look at the main river.

The Clerk—The Board is not involved in the Lismore hatchery—that is subsidised by the Government.

Major Longfield—We don't contribute?

The Clerk—Not a penny.

Major Longfield said if they could transfer the hatchery activities from the tideway to the upper reaches, if Mallow were better supplied, rather than Lismore, they might increase their run of early fish.

The Chairman said that those who had studied the subject agreed that early fish produce early fish which were the most valuable to both net and rod fishermen. They should run the Mallow hatchery to its utmost capacity.

After some discussion on the best method of extending and improving the Mallow hatchery, the subject was adjourned, pending the receipt of the report referred to by Major Longfield.

In reply to a query from the Chairman regarding their financial position, The Clerk said that after paying that day's cheques they would have a cre-

A CAPPOQUIN'S P.P.'S VIEWS

At the Cappoquin District Court, before Mr. G. P. Farrell, B.L., Mr. Samuel Hick, a member of the Committee of the Cappoquin Rowing Club, applied for an annual Dancing Licence for the Boathouse Hall, Cappoquin, for the purpose of holding practice dances, Cinderella dances and eight all-night dances during the coming year.

Mr. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, appeared for the applicant, and the Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., Cappoquin, was present in Court on behalf of the Bishop of Waterford to state his views and explain the conditions which he wished to have imposed in respect of dances.

Mr. O'Gorman said this was an application by the Cappoquin Rowing Club for an annual licence for the Boathouse Hall for the purpose of holding a series of dances there during the coming year.

The application was made under three headings, viz., a licence for eight prolonged dances from 10 p.m. to 4.30 a.m., from 10 p.m. to 1.30 a.m., for a number of cinderella dances, and from 8 p.m. to 11 p.m. usual practice dances on Sunday night during the winter.

The Justice—Why do you call those dances from 10 p.m. to 1.30 a.m. cinderella dances?

Mr. O'Gorman—That is the name, sir, by which they are popularly known about here.

Justice—Well, I think this name is a misnomer, because I have read cinderella and according to that all those dances should finish at 12 o'clock and not at 1.30 a.m. However, go on with your application.

Mr. O'Gorman explained that dances had been held for a number of years in the Boathouse Hall under the management of the Committee of the Rowing Club, and they had always been properly conducted by the Committee, and would be conducted in an equally orderly and peaceful manner in the future.

Parish Priests Opposition

Very Rev. T. Fitzgerald, P.P., Cappoquin, said he was there on behalf of the Bishop of Waterford to oppose all forms of dancing on Sunday nights and the eve of Church holidays and Sundays. The Bishop also wished to have all dances confined to a certain area, say 3 miles, because when strangers from other towns over this distance came to Cappoquin dances they could be bona fide travellers after 12 o'clock on Sunday nights and were able to visit the publichouses and indulge in drinking, and the conduct carried on by some of those visitors in the early hours of the morning was simply outrageous. He referred to certain incidents on the street connected with the two last all-night dances held in Cappoquin, and said such conduct would not have been carried on if persons from outside a 3 miles' radius were not admitted to the dances.

The Justice—Well, only two complaints after several years' dancing's not too bad, after all.

Father Fitzgerald said that he was not very long in Cappoquin parish, but he was only referring to the two occasions which had come under his notice during this period.

Mr. O'Gorman said that the Committee were responsible only for the conduct of persons while in the hall, and could not be held responsible for anything which happened outside on the street, as this was a matter entirely for the Civic Guards. Continuing, he said if Father Fitzgerald's application to have the dances confined to a three-miles' radius were granted it would mean that large numbers of persons in the very parish of Cappoquin would be precluded from attending, as this parish extended to Lismore Bridge, nearly 4 miles away in one direction, while it extended to 7 or 8 miles from the town on the other side.

Mr. Samuel Hick was then examined by Mr. O'Gorman and said he was a member of the Committee of the Cappoquin Rowing Club which would be responsible for the conducting of all dances held in the Boathouse hall.

In reply to the Justice, he said that the object of those dances was to provide funds for the holding of regattas by the Rowing Club, as the cost of holding a Regatta would be close on £100, and the subscriptions of the members would only amount to about £15 or £16 a year.

The practice dances were intended to be held every Sunday night from 8 to 11 o'clock.

The Justice—What is the object of those practice dances?

Mr. O'Gorman—In order to give the young people an opportunity of learning to dance.

Father Fitzgerald said that young children of 12 or 13 years had been admitted to those dances at one time, which he thought was very wrong.

The Justice—There will be no children under 18 years of age admitted to practice dances in Cappoquin, in future, so far as I am concerned.

The Justice then asked Supt. Quinlan what he had to say to the application, and he replied that while he had no objection to the licence being granted to the Rowing Club, he thought the hours asked for to 4.30 a.m. were too long.

Father Fitzgerald said that no dances should be held later than 4 or 2 a.m. in the morning.

and he was only referring to the two occasions which had come under his notice during this period.

Mr. O'Gorman said that the Committee were responsible only for the conduct of persons while in the hall, and could not be held responsible for anything which happened outside on the street, as this was a matter entirely for the Civic Guards. Continuing, he said if Father Fitzgerald's application to have the dances confined to a three-miles' radius were granted it would mean that large numbers of persons in the very parish of Cappoquin would be precluded from attending, as this parish extended to Lismore Bridge, nearly 4 miles away in one direction, while it extended to 7 or 8 miles from the town on the other side.

Mr. Samuel Hick was then examined by Mr. O'Gorman and said he was a member of the Committee of the Cappoquin Rowing Club which would be responsible for the conducting of all dances held in the Boathouse hall.

In reply to the Justice, he said that the object of those dances was to provide funds for the holding of regattas by the Rowing Club, as the cost of holding a Regatta would be close on £100, and the subscriptions of the members would only amount to about £15 or £16 a year.

The practice dances were intended to be held every Sunday night from 8 to 11 o'clock.

The Justice—What is the object of those practice dances?

Mr. O'Gorman—In order to give the young people an opportunity of learning to dance.

Father Fitzgerald said that young children of 12 or 13 years had been admitted to those dances at one time, which he thought was very wrong.

The Justice—There will be no children under 18 years of age admitted to practice dances in Cappoquin, in future, so far as I am concerned.

The Justice then asked Supt. Quinlan what he had to say to the application, and he replied that while he had no objection to the licence being granted to the Rowing Club, he thought the hours asked for to 4.30 a.m. were too long.

Father Fitzgerald said that no dances should be held later than 4 or 2 a.m. in the morning.

The Justice told Mr. Hick that he should realise that if the present application were granted in his name he would be held personally responsible for the manner in which all those dances were conducted, and if there were any breach of the rules laid down by the Court the person in whose name the licence was granted was liable to a prosecution and a heavy fine, while the licence for the hall could be also cancelled.

The Justice then granted licences for practice dances from 8 to 11 p.m. on Sunday night, and from 10 p.m. to 1.30 a.m. for cinderella dances, on condition that nobody outside a 10-miles' radius of Cappoquin be admitted to those dances, and also that no person under 18 years be admitted, or persons under the influence of drink.

With regard to the all-night dances, he would grant a licence for eight such dances from 10 p.m. to 4.30 a.m., as he was going a long way to meet the wishes of the Bishop, but not the whole way.

The fact that such licences should now be applied for by those persons running dances showed that dances were now legalised by Statute, and as the present licences were being granted more or less on probation, to see how they would be conducted, a great responsibility fell on the shoulders of those running such dances, and it was to their own interest to see that no abuses were permitted, as it would be the duty of the Civic Guards to take action, and the consequences might be serious for those who failed to observe the conditions governing each case.

He would place no radius limit in the case of the all-night dances here, but no person under 18 years should be admitted while the other rules which governed the other dances should also apply to the all-night dances.

WATERFORD CO. COMMITTEE OF AGRICULTURE.

ANNUAL SCHEMES
COTTAGE AND FARM SCHEME
THE PRIZE WINNERS

Mr. Thomas Flynn, Chairman, presided at the meeting of the above Committee. There were also present—Messrs. P. B. Sheridan and P. R. Power; J. O'Mahony, Inspector of the Department; P. O'Shea, H.T., and Miss Mullins, P.I.

The chief business to be dealt with was the consideration of the coming year's schemes and the allocation of Funds for the same. Mr. O'Mahony Inspector, said the Committee had an unexpended balance of £288 which with the funds available made the total amount for allocation £5,750. Last year they got £300 from a special allocation and it was quite possible they may get a similar supplementary grant this year. This was the last year for which a supplementary grant would be available.

The same amounts as last year were allocated to Poultry: Live Stock £1,240; Nomination to Mares £300; Boars £280; Sheep £250; subsidies to Shows £100; Ploughing matches £15; Scholarships for Boys and Girls; Bull Shows; Wheat and Barley subsidies; Shelter Belts; Vegetable plots, etc.

On the suggestion of Miss Mullins, it was decided to drop the inculator scheme and grant instead subsidies for the erection of Poultry houses.

As to the Border Leicester Sheep Breeding Scheme, the Chairman said his contention was that he people getting these rams were not keeping the progeny to improve the breed.

The Schemes and allocations were approved.

Mr. Power proposed, and Mr. Sheridan, seconded a resolution of thanks to Mr. O'Mahony for the help and assistance he has at all times given the Committee, and for his lucid explanation of the Schemes under review.

Mr. O'Mahony returned thanks.

Chairman—We are very glad to welcome you to our meetings, and hope you will be for long coming to this County.

MEMBER'S COMPLAINT

Mr. O'Dwyer asked if the order requesting Mr. Qually to clear the refuse from the vicinity of his slaughter house had been carried out.

Mr. Walsh, S.S.O., said he had visited the place and practically all the rubbish had been cleared. Mr. Qually had built an embankment around his field.

Mr. O'Dwyer said that the stuff complained of was covered by the embankment and held that the order made by the Board was not carried out.

Mr. Walsh—I visited the place two or three times and found nothing wrong.

Chairman—We are concerned with a nuisance and if our S.S.O. says there is no nuisance we can do nothing.

Mr. O'Dwyer—Our order was not carried out.

Chairman—Mr. Walsh says there is no nuisance.

Mr. O'Dwyer—I do not agree.

Mr. McCarthy—A deputation should visit the place.

It was decided that a deputation visit the place on Thursday next.

PAYSHEET

The paysheet for the week amounting to £19 15s. 5d., was passed.

FINANCE

The Clerk submitted the usual monthly payments and read a letter from the arbitrator in connection with his award regarding the demolished area. The letter stated that the award would be sent on receipt of the cheque for £30 19s. which was the cost of the inquiry.

The amount of the award was £1,428.

This payment was included in the payments passed.

MEMBER'S BEREAVEMENT

The Chairman said he regretted to have to put before the meeting a resolution of sympathy with their fellow-member Mr. Hayes, on the death of his father. Mr. Hayes was a worthy member of the Board and as a mark of respect they would adjourn the meeting without transacting further business.

The resolution was proposed by Mr. Dahill and seconded by Mr. Mansfield. Both spoke to the resolution.

The meeting then adjourned.

Scholarship Winner

Notification was received that the Scholarship at Glasnevin, granted by the Co. Committee, had been awarded to Mr. J. J. Ahearne, Knockaun, Cappagh.

Fruit Growing

For a Department Course of study in Fruit Growing and the handling etc., of fruit, Mr. O'Shea recommended that Mr. L. Flynn, Ballymacmaigue, Cappagh and Mr. R. Scanlan, Glencairn, be nominated, and this was approved.

Chairman—What will they do when trained?

Mr. O'Shea—They will assist the fruit growers in grading the fruit, etc.

Trees

The tender of Mr. W. Watson, Killiney, Co. Dublin, was accepted for fruit trees and that of Mr. R. Walsh, Rathdrum, for Forest trees.

Prizes Of Cottages And Small Farms

The Awards

The report of Mr. McGauran, Inspector and Judge under the above Scheme was read.

In the Cottage Scheme, the number of competitors in each class was very large and competition keen; while in the class for small farms the competition was keen but the entries were small. The State of the cottage holdings entered was very satisfactory. The premises and out offices were very clean and in good order. The gardens were generally very well cultivated and well stocked with potatoes, vegetables and fruit. Fences and walks were trim and neat; weeds were kept in check, while flowers were in abundance everywhere. Poultry were kept at almost all the cottage holdings and a large number of the competitors kept pigs. The poultry and pigs were generally of nice quality, and were well managed and cared for. On a large number of the holdings goats were kept for milk, while on a few holdings one or more cows were kept. Some of the competitors kept bees and paid good attention to their management. The cottage holders deserve credit for the satisfactory state and appearance of their holdings. Special credit is due to the prize winners, particularly those in the Championship class whose holdings were models of good management, industry and economy. The state of the holdings entered in the Farm section was very satisfactory. The farm premises and out offices were kept in clean and good order and in many cases improvements in the farm buildings had been recently carried out. Cropping was judiciously carried out, and the crops were well cultivated and looked promising. Nearly every holding had a useful garden well cultivated and well stocked with vegetables and fruit.

Dairy Shorthorn Breeders CO. WATERFORD BRANCH SUCCESSFUL SHOW AND SALE

The annual meeting of the County Waterford Branch of the Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders Society was held on Saturday in Dungarvan. Mr. D. Dempsey, presided and there were also present—Messrs. P. J. Halliden, D. Coghlan, J. J. Drohan, T. G. Flahavan, J. Kennedy, T. Smith, W. Ryan, D. O'Sullivan, C.T.I.; J. O'Dwyer, and T. F. Lynch, Hon. Sec.

NEXT BULL SALE

In connection with the coming year's Show and Sale of Bulls, the Society fixed Wednesday March, 25th as the most suitable day.

PROPOSED THREE COUNTY SALE

The Secretary read a communication from the Co. Wexford Branch enclosing resolution suggesting a conference to discuss the holding of a three county Show—Wexford, Kilkenny and Waterford—at Waterford.

Mr. Drohan—Waterford and Kilkenny are already recognised sales.

Mr. Halliden—We should see what they have to say. A three county sale would mean you would have a big sale for a small outlay.

Mr. Coghlan—We started this Sale and made a success of it and if we went on in association with these counties now we would be outvoted and would not have much to say.

Mr. Halliden—As the parent branch you would have a say.

Chairman—This is after coming up several times.

Mr. Kennedy said the £35 given to Waterford Show by the Co. Committee should be confined to this County and not given to other counties as prizes.

Mr. Halliden thought they should meet delegates from Kilkenny and Wexford.

Mr. Drohan—This branch treated them very fairly and let their entries in at reduced fees.

Secretary—We let them in this year at a fee of 10/-. All the best bulls at Waterford are coming from Wexford.

Mr. Kennedy thought they should send delegates to a conference.

Mr. Drohan suggested going on as usual this year.

Mr. Halliden—Are you blocking progress by so doing?

Secretary—It would depend on what concessions we are going to get.

Mr. O'Sullivan—Last year we reduced the entry fees and the Wexford people walked away with all the prizes and have no reason to complain. If they wrote to the Secretary of the Wexford Committee to put forward any reasonable scheme or suggestion they could consider it.

Chairman—If you could get the Wexford people in on reasonable terms it would be well worth trying.

Mr. O'Sullivan—We should move very carefully. Last year we did not get the concessions we deserved.

Mr. Drohan said the Supplementary Sale in April had a right to get more support, especially from members of the Committee.

Eventually, the Secretary was directed to write to the Wexford Committee and ask for the basis on which it was proposed to hold a joint Show and Sale.

BALANCE SHEET

The statement of accounts for the last year was submitted and showed a balance to credit after all payments had been made of £60 0s. 11d. At the beginning of the financial year the balance to credit was £6 14s. 5d.

The Secretary explained the receipts and expenditure and the general healthy state of the finances.

Mr. Coghlan—It is a very good balance sheet.

On the motion of Mr. Drohan, seconded by Mr. Kennedy, the balance sheet was unanimously adopted.

Mr. Halliden congratulated the committee on their satisfactory statement of accounts which reflected the greatest credit on those who took over the show. It was very encouraging to find the Branch progressing and he hoped that would continue.

Chairman—It is very satisfactory.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

All the outgoing officers were unanimously re-elected.

The Committee allocated £10 as a subscription to the I.D.S.B.S.

On the motion of Mr. Smith, seconded by Mr. Flahavan, an honorarium of £20 was voted to Mr. Lynch, Hon. Secretary and £20 was also passed to Mr. Kennedy, who it was stated received no honorarium as Secretary last year.

In connection with next year's Show and Sale Messrs. Flahavan Harly and Co., Auctioneers, and the Committee went into the consideration of various details after which the meeting adjourned.

BATHING IN THE NUDE

Under section 18d of the Criminal Law Amendment Act, a youth was charged at Blarney, with an act of indecency by bathing in the nude in the river Lee. He pleaded guilty and he was bound over for 12 months.

COUNTY OF WATERFORD. GAELIC NOTES

ANNUAL REVISION OF RATEABLE VALUATIONS DECISIONS ON APPEALS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN
1.—That consequent upon enquiry into the subject matter of all notices received from persons aggrieved by reason of the Valuation or inaccurate statement of area or inaccurate description of any tenement or hereditament the Commissioner of Valuation has on this date transmitted to me a statement of all the cases in this County in which he has altered or refused to alter the Valuation or statement of area of any such tenement or hereditament, or otherwise amended the same in accordance with Section 20 of the Valuation (Ireland) Act 1852.
2.—That the said statement will remain open for inspection at my office and extracts therefrom may be taken between the hours of 11 a.m. and 4 p.m. (Saturdays 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.) during the twenty-one days next after the date hereof, and the owner or occupier of any tenement or hereditament appearing thereon can obtain a copy of the portion of the said statement relating to such tenement or hereditament by applying within the aforementioned twenty-one days to the Commissioner of Valuation, 6 Ely Place, Dublin, or to the undersigned.
3.—That any person aggrieved by the Valuation of any tenement or tenements contained in said statement and desiring to appeal therefrom may within twenty-one days from the date hereof, by post or otherwise, deliver to me a notice in writing duly signed by him, the said person aggrieved, or by his known agent, of his intention to appeal to the Circuit Court in the manner provided under Section 22 of the said Valuation (Ireland) Act, 1852. Dated this 19th day of September, 1935.
J. H. O'SULLIVAN,
Secretary of the County Council, County Council Offices, Dungarvan.

The National League Hurling fixture Waterford v. Clare at Dungarvan on Sunday next October 6th will be closely followed by those Gaels who have been advocating a change in the Waterford selection. As readers of my notes will have noticed, I am one who think that Waterford could have done much better than they did this year. That we have hurlers second to none in Munster we have proved by winning the Minor and Junior All-Ireland Championships in recent years. This year's Juniors also showed that they were a sound team by their display against Cork at Dungarvan on the occasion of the replay. Their defeat by Limerick did not take from their form, when we consider the way the Kilkenny Juniors went down to the Munster Champions. Limerick had the best Juniors ever entered for All-Ireland honours, and I believe that if Waterford met the same team again they could be depended upon to give them the best game of any team in Munster. On Sunday next I expect to see Waterford team if played as selected win in a manner that will leave no doubt as to their powers as a first-class hurling team.

The selection to meet Clare will be from the following—Erin's Own—G. Ware, S. Wyse, F. Browne, D. Ryan, J. Fanning (5); Dungarvan—C. Moylan, T. Geaney, D. Goote, J. Murphy (4); Tallow—P. Sheehan, Curley, W. Sheehan, C. Curley (4); Mount Sion—G. Kehoe, D. Hoan, M. Creede, P. Duggan, (4); Lismore—M. Regan, Ballyvin—E. Daly, J. Ryan, Mt. Sion, reserve goalman.

It is almost certain that nine Western men will be on the team.

I am quite satisfied that the action of the Co. Board in changing the Senior Selection Committee will meet with the approval of almost all the Clubs in the West. The decision of the Co. Board was the direct result of the action of the Dungarvan and Tallow Clubs at the West Div. Board meeting, as I reported in my notes last week. It shows that when Clubs are anxious to see that things are done in the right way they should act through their representatives on the Co. Board.

St. Carthage's v. Dungarvan minor hurling match will be played at Dungarvan on Sunday next before the big match Clare v. Waterford. We should always remember not to overlook our Minors because our County Seniors are engaged. The Minors of to-day will be the Seniors of to-morrow, and keen judges of Gaelic teams never watch the Senior teams when deciding how the game is progressing in a County. Lismore have a fast, well-trained minor team, the direct result of the action of the Minister for Education in ordering all schools to set aside one half day in the week for national games.

Names of winners with remittances can be sent to Rev. D. Sheehan, C.C., Hon. Treasurer; or to Ml. Desmond, Ml. Duggan, Hon. Secretaries.

The testator left £15 for the celebration of Masses and £20 for the erection of a memorial over his father's grave: £100 in trust for his sister, Ellen Daniel; £50 to his niece, Helena Timmel; £150 each to his nephews, Richard Fitzgerald and Thomas Fitzgerald; £200 each to his nieces, Mary Foley and Bridget Foley; £200 to his sister, Hanora Gough; £100 to his nephew, Thomas Gough; and the residue of the property to Helena Timmel, Margaret Fitzgerald, Thos. Fitzgerald, Richard Fitzgerald, Bridget Foley, Mary Foley, Thomas Gough, William Gough and Philip Gough equally.

ANGLO-AMERICAN OIL CO., LTD.

In our advertising columns to-day will be found particulars of the new brands of high grade petrols and motor oils put on the market by the above famous Co., which heretofore specialised under the name 'Pratts' and will be henceforward known as 'Ess'. The petrols and oils of the Anglo-American Co., mark the last word in scientific perfection.

The Manager of the Company in the Southern area is Mr. J. J. Brennan, and the assistant manager in charge of West Waterford and East Cork is Mr. T. J. Coughlan, a young man of rare ability who never spares himself in his endeavour to see that all clients of his firm receive perfect satisfaction. For the past 12 years Mr. Coughlan has proved his worth and won the esteem not only of users of the products of the Anglo-American Oil Co., but of the general public as well. Incidentally he is an all round sportsman and a keen judge of a greyhound. He is brother-in-law of Mrs. Coughlan, Carrick-on-Suir, the well-known coursing enthusiast.

In Mr. Coughlan, the Anglo-American Oil Co., have an official who is second to none.

A NEW INDUSTRY

During the past week a large consignment of potatoes from the Dungarvan area was shipped per sea. The Lady Belle en route for Palestine where they will be used for seed. The potatoes were purchased by the enterprising firm of A. Moloney and Sons Ltd., and at their stores they were graded and packed in half cwt crates ready for transport. This is an industry capable of big development locally and we hope the most will be made out of it in the interests of the farmers.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations are tendered to Master M. V. Morrissey, son of Mr. J. J. Morrissey, O'Connell street, Dungarvan, who has been awarded a Scholarship value £60 as a result of an examination held at Mount Melleray. Master Morrissey was educated at the Christian Schools, Dungarvan.

WAR ON—

The Italian-Abyssinian war is said to have started on Wednesday evening when 50,000 Italians crossed the Abyssinian frontier. Anyhow it appears there was a clash and as both sides are full of fight, the war began in earnest on Thursday and where it will end no one knows. The Abyssinians were called to arms a few days ago by the sounding of war bugles all over the land, while Mussolini had also a general mobilisation. The Abyssinian women have gone to the fight as well as the men so there will be some dirty work at the cross roads near Hairar. Meantime the League of Nations has threatened to use "sanctions" which is the new name for penalties. Any farmer trying to sell his stock or produce for the past few years knows all about "sanctions" as applied to his business.

EXILE RETURNS

Mr. Patk. Kennelly, Ballinaculla, Cappagh, has arrived home from the U.S.A., where he has been for some years. Mr. Kennelly is President of the G.A.A. in America and said he came home to make arrangements for an American tour next May of the Champion Hurling and Football teams the costs to be defrayed by M. J. Reeves, a well-known Clare exile.

Prior to going to America, Mr. Kennelly was a prominent member of the Brickey Rangers and Dungarvan Football teams.

CLUBS AND SOCIETIES

Committee meetings were held in the Band Room on 27th and 28th ult. Miss O'Connell, B.A., presided. Others present—Misses A. O'Sullivan, N.T., M. Neylon, N.T., Messrs. L. Lanigan, solr.; M. Brennock, N.T.; J. Wall, N.T.; J. O'Gorman, J. O'Higgins, N.T.; E. Keyes, V.C., D'O'Regan, G.S.; C. Wall, N.T., Sec. The opening Ceilidhe was fixed for 1st October. The term of office of the committee having expired it was decided to hold a general meeting of members in the Town Hall on Thursday evening at 8 p.m. to elect new members. The Secretary was directed to order membership cards. On the motion of Mr. O'Higgins, seconded by Mr. Keyes, and supported by Mr. Wall, a resolution of sympathy was passed to the family of the late Mr. R. Dalton.—An Runaidhe.

I. T. & G. W. Union—

At a specially convened meeting of the Dungarvan Branch, Irish Transport and General Workers Union, a resolution of sympathy was passed to Mr. Seamus Hayes, U.D.C., on the death of his father.

DUNGARVAN EXCURSION CLUB—

At the General Meeting held on Sunday last, Mr. J. Bulfin, was re-elected President and Miss M. Clancy, Vice-President, while Mr. M. Brennock, was appointed Hon. Treasurer and Mr. E. J. Keyes, Hon. Sec. The Committee of management comprise—Misses K. Wall, F. Daly, G. Foley, C. Quailly, S. Curran, and A. Coleman and Messrs. J. Moloney, J. Morrissey, Rd. Hanrahan and P. Delaney. Many new members were enrolled, and it was decided to confine the total membership to 100. Several routes for the Second Annual Outing were discussed but it was decided to postpone fixing same until a later date. Club Rules were compiled, and may be had from Hon. Sec. A Committee meeting will be held to-night (Friday) to consider further applications for membership.

LOCAL ATHLETES HAVE

"A DAY OUT"—It is doubtful if Co. Waterford athletes have ever won so many prizes at a sports meeting as they did at the Clonmel Garda Sports last Sunday. J. A. Phelan, Shamrock A.C., Waterford, won the 220 yards, and was 2nd in the 100 yards; J. McGrath, Cappoquin, won the 440 yards, and was 2nd in the 880 yards; Tom Whelan, Co. Waterford Champion, won the confined Mile, after getting third place in the Open Mile, and Guard Birmingham, Leamabrien, got 2nd prize for the Slinging of the 50 lbs. without follow.

CYCLING—

Charlie Guest of Lismore was not present at the Clonmel Garda Sports, as he is training hard for the 25 Miles Cycling Championship of Munster. This important event will be decided over the Waterford-Kilmacothomas Road on to-morrow week, October 13th, starting at 1.30 p.m. This interesting race has attracted entries from every Munster County except Kerry. It was last decided on the Cashel-Thurles Road, Co. Tipperary, when, through an accident, Guest could only get second place. Last year at Cork he won a similar race, but it was not a Championship. His performance on the 13th October, will be awaited with interest.

PRESENTATION CONVENT, DUNGARVAN—

In the report of the examination results of the Presentation Convent Schools, published in our last issue the following was inadvertently omitted: 4th Year Intermediate—Miss Biddy Moloney—Honours in English, Irish, History and Geography, Arithmetic, Geometry and Algebra.

EXIT SUMMER TIME—

As and from Sunday morning next October 6th, Summer Time disappears. All Masses in Dungarvan on Sunday next will be by old time.

LOOK OUT—

For the Irish Dairy Shorthorn Breeders Annual Dance, the season's most popular social function. Particulars later.

FAT CATTLE LICENCES—

The Waterford Co. Committee of Agriculture desire to point out that in future fat cattle licences will be valid only for the month for which they are dated and up to the last day of the next following month. And that any person who after 30th September, 1935 has unsold fat cattle licences dated August, 1935, or any previous month should furnish particulars of same on a form to be obtained from the Secretary, Department of Agriculture, 24, Upper O'Connell Street, Dublin.

IRISH CLASSES—

Irish Classes are now running at the Technical School, Dungarvan, under the able tutorage of Mr. P. Millea. Students desiring to have a beginners class formed are requested to hand in their names without delay.

WATERFORD V. CLARE—

The Hurling League contest between Waterford and Clare on Sunday will be a first-class contest and no one should miss it. As usual Mr. Fraher has the field arrangements in perfection.

PIG PRICES—

Fat pigs of superior grade rose to 52/- cwt., at Cappoquin this week. Lower Grade made 47/6 cwt.

Leather Manufacture

DUNGARVAN FACTORY

Up to about 50 years ago Ireland provided almost all her requirements in footwear and leather goods and all our chief towns could boast of one or more tanneries. These times changed and after a while nearly all our leather was imported. On the establishment of the Saorstad the Government took up the matter in earnest and by a tariff on boots and shoes gave great assistance to home development and that assistance having been intensified by each successive Government, today nearly £2,000,000 is saved for the home market in boots and shoes.

Side by side with the manufacture of our own boots and shoes came the necessity to make our own leather requirements and towards that end some tanneries have been established and more are in projection. When all these are in full swing not only will the Free State be able to supply her own needs, but will be able to export also.

As will be seen elsewhere in this paper the proposed Dungarvan Leather Factory, to be known as the Dickens Leather Co., Ltd., is on the threshold of starting and judging by the optimism of its promoters and the wholehearted support it is receiving from the public its success is assured. Splendid premises on the quay front have been secured, and already most of the Capital required is promised locally, and when the public read and carefully digest the statement made in the Town Hall, on Friday evening last, by Mr. Reginald Dickens, Managing Director, we are sure the balance will pour in apace.

The local Directors of the firm are Mr. P. J. Moloney (A. Moloney and Sons Ltd.) and Dr. Casey, and having made full and careful inquiries into all matters associated with the running of such an industry, they are satisfied it is not only a sound investment, but an investment such as is rarely to be found on the Commercial market. Not only will support of this industry be sound patriotism, but it will certainly be good business at well.

The Factory will give good employment to a big number of hands, while many will be sent for technical training to the Dickens factories at Northampton in order to fit them for the work they will be required to perform.

Having made a pronounced success of the Leather Factory there is no reason why other industries of a like valuable nature should not follow at a later stage. Thus work of a remunerative nature would be had by our unemployed; Dungarvan would once again be on the map as an industrial centre and those who invested their money and so made these industries possible will not alone have the satisfaction of having served their town and country in the hour of need, but will reap the reward of the wise and sound investment in the shape of large dividends.

ANNUAL LICENSING SESSIONS

This being the Annual Licensing Sessions, all the local publicans' licences were signed, without opposition, while the usual Exemption Orders entitling publicans to pen their premises at 7 o'clock on the mornings of Fair Days were also renewed.

Confirmation of Transfer

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, applied for confirmation of a transfer of licence from Mrs. Coleman to Miss Bridget Guiry in respect of licensed premises situated in the village of Aglish, six miles from Cappoquin. Miss Guiry, sister of the licensee, was examined by Mr. O'Gorman, and stated that she was at present managing the business for her sister, who was at present in America, but who was returning in a short time.

Mr. O'Gorman said an ad interim transfer had been granted by the Justice last November, and the premises had since been ably managed by Miss Guiry, the applicant's sister.

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, said there was no objection on the part of the Guards, and the necessary confirmation was granted.

Alleged Unlicensed Bull

The Minister for Lands and Agriculture, summoned Eugene O'Keefe, farmer, Shanbally, Cappoquin, for having an unlicensed bull in his possession on July 7th, 1935.

Mr. J. W. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore, (for Mr. E. A. Ryan, S.S., Dungarvan) appeared for the complainant.

Sr. Sgt. Dalton, Cappoquin, stated that on the date in question he found a bull about 16 months old on the lands of defendant at Shanbally and when he asked the defendant if he had a licence, he said he had not, and the bull was under age and was not liable to be licensed yet.

Defendant now stated that the bull was calved only last September, and was not liable to be licensed until he was a year old.

Sr. Sgt. Dalton was recalled by the Justice, and said he was only giving it as a matter of opinion when he said the animal was about 16 months old, as the bull certainly appeared to be that age to him.

Mr. O'Gorman having cross-examined the defendant, the case was dismissed with a caution.

Cruelty To A Pony

Guard O'Mahony, Cappoquin, summoned Wm. Casey, Mount Stuart, Aglish, for cruelty to a pony.

Complainant said he found the animal wandering on the public road on August 27th and there were such tight fetters on its legs that one of the legs was cut to the bone, and the animal appeared to be suffering great pain. He had the animal taken to the Pound in Cappoquin.

Defendant said the pony had wandered away from the field, and he did not know where it was until he got it in the Cappoquin Pound two days afterwards. He denied that the fetters were so tight as to cut the pony's leg.

In reply to the Justice, he said he had bought the animal from a travelling man only a short time previously.

The Justice—I suppose you bought him for the proverbial "song"? laughter.

Defendant—Indeed I did not, sir; I paid £2 for him.

Defendant was fined 5s.

Motor Prosecution

Sr. Sgt. Dalton, Cappoquin, summoned Peter O'Halloran, 50, Cornmarket Street, Cork, for using an unlicensed motor lorry at Cappoquin on August 1st.

The Sr. Sgt. said defendant was in Cappoquin with a load of fruit, and he understood that he was a poor man.

Defendant did not appear, and the Justice said as he did not think it worth his while to appear, or send any explanation, he should impose a fine of £3.

Overcrowding Of Bus.

Sr. Sgt. Dalton, Cappoquin, summoned John Bove, Clonmel, conductor of a G.S.R. Co. bus, for having a bus overcrowded with passengers in Cappoquin on Sunday, July 28th.

Mr. John P. Kelleher, P.C., Stationmaster, Cappoquin, and Mr. P. J. Floyd, Dublin, Traffic Manager of the G.S. Railway Co., were also summoned in connection with the same offence.

Mr. Fergus Power, solr., Waterford, (Messrs. Doherty and McCoy) appeared for the Railway Co., and asked to have the summonses against Messrs. Kelleher and Floyd struck out, as they had nothing whatever to do with the matter.

The Justice said it seemed to be very hard to summon a stationmaster for the overcrowding of a bus, and struck out both summonses.

The Sr. Sgt. explained that the Railway Co. had been running a bus service between Clonmel, Cappoquin and Youghal during the summer months, and on Sunday, July 28th he found a bus, of which defendant was the conductor, leaving Cappoquin for Youghal with 46 passengers on board, when the bus was certified to carry only 32 passengers. He spoke to the defendant about it, and 10 passengers were then ordered off the bus.

In cross-examination by Mr. Power, solr., witness agreed that there was a big hurling match in Thurles that day and all the motor cars from Cappoquin had gone there, so the people had no other means of going from Cappoquin to Youghal except by bus.

The defendant was examined by Mr. Power and stated that he had only 12 passengers on that day, but when he reached Cappoquin two passengers at first got in, and while he was engaged in giving them their tickets and collecting their fares there was a big rush of passengers got in, including about eight children, and he was unable to get them out.

Replying further to Mr. Power, he said he had never been on the Cappoquin trip before, and he was now unemployed, as he had been only taken on as a temporary conductor by the Company during the busy season.

Mr. Power said that although buses were registered to carry only a certain number of passengers, they were rarely confined to this number.

The Justice said he was very strongly opposed to the overcrowding of buses, and under the Road Traffic Act he was empowered to impose very heavy penalties for offences of this kind, and he would go to the extreme limit in all future cases brought before him.

In the present case, however, he would let the defendant off with a fine of 10s., but he later reduced this to 5s., in view of the fact that the defendant was at present unemployed.

A Dirty Lorry.

Guard Thorne, Cappoquin, summoned Michael Walsh, Arbour Place, Fermoy, for using a motor lorry in a filthy condition in Cappoquin on August 5th.

Complainant stated that the lorry was conveying a number of sheep on the date in question and was in a very filthy condition, as it had been used carrying cattle the previous day and had not been cleaned before it was used for the sheep. He added that the defendant was a cattle dealer and was both owner and driver of the lorry.

Defendant did not appear, and a fine of 20s. was imposed.

No Lights On Motor Car

Guard Moloney, Cappoquin, summoned Palk Lannon, Kilmathomas, for using a motor car in Cappoquin without having either head or tail lights, and a fine of 2/6 was imposed in each case.

A Stolen Camera

Supt. Quinlan, Lismore, prosecuted a young girl named Hannah Whelan, Coolroe, Aglish, for the larceny of a camera from the residence of Mr. Matthew H. O'Brien, Aglish House, Cappoquin.

The accused was not professionally represented and when she took her place in the dock she told the Justice she was over 16 years of age, although she looked considerably younger.

Miss Kathleen O'Brien, sister of Mr. M. H. O'Brien, stated that she had the accused temporarily employed as a servant 6 days in August during the illness of her regular maid. Two nieces and a nephew named James Walsh, came to stay with them while the accused was there, and James Walsh brought a small camera with him. She missed the camera one day after the accused had left her employment and reported the matter to the Villierstown Guards.

Guard Daly, Villierstown stated that on August 19th he received a complaint from Miss O'Brien in consequence of which he got a warrant to search defendant's house. Accompanied by another Guard, he went to the house and questioned the girl who at first denied having taken the camera, and her mother then told her that if she had taken it to tell the Guards and give it back. She later admitted having taken it, and said she had hidden it in a lot of ferns some distance from her house. Witness remained in the house with her mother and sent the other Guard with the girl to get the camera in the ferns, where she said it was, and after a long absence both returned and said the camera was not there. She later went to a coat which was hanging up in the house and took the camera from one of the pockets and gave it to witness, who then arrested her and gave her the usual caution, after which she made and signed a statement admitting the offence.

The camera was now produced in Court and identified by Miss O'Brien as the article which had been stolen from her house.

Supt. Quinlan then read the statement made by the accused in which she had admitted everything.

The Justice (to accused)—Have you any questions to ask, or anything to say for yourself?

Accused—No, sir.

Did you know this was a camera when you were taking it?

I did, sir.

Is there anybody belonging to you in Court now?

No, sir.

The Justice said it was an extraordinary thing that nobody belonging to her was in Court when she was charged with such a serious offence.

Continuing, he said it was a great pity to see a young girl like her starting off so badly by becoming a thief, and he severely cautioned her about her future conduct, or she may find herself in a very serious position. He did not like to send a young girl like her to jail, and would now let her out under the P.O.A., but her father should have to come to Court later and enter into a bond of £5 for her good behaviour in future.

The accused was then discharged from custody, and the camera ordered to be returned to Miss O'Brien.

PORTLAW TANNERY

OFFICIALLY OPENED

On Thursday last the new Tannery at Portlaw was opened by Mr. Lemass, Minister for Industry and Commerce. There was a big attendance present. The premises were blessed by His Lordship Most Rev. Dr. Kinane. An address of welcome was presented to the Minister by M. J. Henneby, on behalf of the people of Portlaw and district. Subsequent to the opening ceremony a luncheon was given at Mayfield House, at which speeches were delivered by the Minister, the Chairman of the Portlaw Factory and others.

Replying to the address of welcome Mr. Lemass, thanked them very sincerely for the address and the welcome they had extended to him on the occasion of his visit to Portlaw. He could assure them that it was a very great pleasure for him to come there. Many years ago he heard of Portlaw and the industrial activity which proceeded there. He had seen the passing of that activity which had left an indelible mark on the prosperity of the town, and it was a source of personal joy to him to be able, in a very small way, to associate himself with a project which would, he hoped, help to restore to some extent the prosperity of the town.

The primary credit of that enterprise in Portlaw, the Minister continued went to those who had planned, organised and financed it. The work which they were doing as a business enterprise was a work in which they could all participate in ensuring the success of their venture because its success was going to mean much for the town of Portlaw. Therefore, he could assure the undertaking that anything which the Government could do, anything which the Department of Industry and Commerce, in particular, could perform to assist in ensuring the success of the enterprise and its future development would be only too gladly done.

It is our hope, said Mr. Lemass, that as was stated in the address, that the establishment of this enterprise here will mean brighter homes in this town, and a better prospect for the children born in it; and in anything that tends to achieve that objective, it is only the duty of the Government to render assistance because that is the main objective of the plans which are being devised for the promotion of industrial development here. If at any time those associated with this enterprise in the town of Portlaw desire to come to the Department of Industry and Commerce, or meet me personally to discuss matters affecting it, or plans for its development, or anything that will redound to the prosperity and benefit of the people of this town, I can assure you that I will on that occasion extend to them a welcome as hearty at least as that which has been extended to me here to-day (applause).

A HAPPY THOUGHT

Mr. Crowley, Chairman of the Company, who presided at the luncheon, proposed the toast of "Eire" which, having been honoured, he then proposed the toast "Prosperity to Ireland."

He said the selection of Portlaw for the tannery was a very happy thought because it had a unique industrial history. A century ago it was famous for the manufacture of cotton goods and in the premises of the new tannery, the famous Malcolms family, who controlled the cotton industry, gave employment to nearly 2,000 workers. Since the Malcolms closed down their factory some fifty years ago, Portlaw became a deserted village. The machinery and equipment in the new factory, he proceeded, were of the most modern type. The first stage of manufacture began in February last, and leather from the tannery had been available for sale since April. The second and final process of tanning began on July 1st, the sale of the company's products, he mentioned, substantially increasing month by month, and credit for this was due to the fact that the company had been fortunate enough to have associated with it at the outset Mr. H. G. Barlow, Managing Director, who was connected with two very important tanning companies in England. Those two companies had provided for the new company in Portlaw facilities for training the workers before manufacturing began there, and also excellent technical assistance. Accounts for the period of the first period of the company's trading had been prepared, and the results shown thereby indicated the possibility of declaring a first dividend in the Preference shares at the annual meeting, to be held within the next month or two (applause). He thanked the Minister and the officials of his department for the great assistance they had given towards the promotion of the company, and paid a tribute to all others associated with its development.

Replying to the toast, Mr. Lemass said the industry established at Portlaw was an important one and one that had formerly existed there. Its revival was due largely to the fact that industrial development had been taking place along other lines, because leather was only the raw material for other industrial processes, and if those other processes were not being practised here the market which Irish Tanners, Ltd., hoped to supply would not be available. When, some time ago, the plans upon which it was hoped to promote industrial development were being formulated, it was recognised that the group of industries producing leather and leather goods of all kinds was one of major importance. In fact the value of goods of that type which

Pratts Now Becomes—

AN ENTIRELY NEW RANGE OF PETROLS

A revelation in anti-knock!
A new thrill in acceleration!
More miles per gallon!
Better climbing than ever!

To-day old standards of petrol are gone as surely as Yesterday has gone. An entirely new range of petrols now takes the place of Pratts at all filling stations and garages throughout the Saorstát.

These new petrols, which will be sold in all countries under the new name of ESSO, are produced by the world's largest oil company—the Company which pioneered petrol pumps, petrol supercharged with Ethyl, and the 5-star motor oil Essolube. They represent the supreme achievement of the Company's unexampled record of enterprise and progress.

ESSO ETHYL

The world's greatest anti-knock. Faster than ever! Sir Malcolm Campbell used special Esso Ethyl for his sensational speed record of 301 miles per hour.

were imported here some years ago exceeded two million pounds annually. It was with considerable confidence therefore that the task of developing these industries within the country was undertaken. In the year 1931 they had imported 1,450,000 dozen pairs of boots and shoes, and in 1934 that figure had been reduced to 200,000 dozen pairs. The quantity imported had been further reduced since then, and it was their hope that when certain new boot factories came into production their imports of boots and shoes would disappear completely from their trade statistics.

As announced in the Press, plans had been completed for the establishment of other tanneries for the production of various classes of leather necessary for the boot and shoe industry. The making of fancy leather goods and for upholsterers new tanneries were in contemplation for Dungarvan, Carrick-on-Suir, Passage, Co. Cork and Gorey. It was hoped that all these tanneries would be in full production this time next year, and that the two million pounds which formerly had been exported would now be retained at home, and be utilised as wages to Irish workers. It would be foolish to ignore the fact that industrial revival alone would be sufficient to promote the prosperity they all desired. They believed in the soundness of a balanced economy, and if they were to have that they must not merely have a progressing and developing manufacturing industry, but a progressing and developing agricultural industry as well.

To a very great extent, the success of all their plans for industrial development depended on the success of the plans being made to maintain the position of the great industry of agriculture. It was clear that if they were to succeed in securing the future of this country and in placing its economy on a basis which would enable it to weather storms of depression and changes in international conditions, they must carry out the reorganisation in relation to agriculture, while developing industry at the same time. In that they had to get the co-operation of industrialists. The great trouble with the farmers was that the prices they were obtaining for their products were uneconomic. There was only one way to remedy that position; by raising those prices, and there was no way of raising those prices except by increasing them to the consumers in accordance with the demands which each agricultural product required. He hoped they would have among the most active supporters in the campaign to increase prices those who were engaged in industry.

The public appreciation of the requirements of the situation was very keen, said the Minister, adding "We have learnt our lesson here in a hard school, just as other peoples of the world have learnt their lesson in recent years." The prosperity of Ireland, he concluded, was not a party issue, and it was heartening to find that whilst men and women might hold their varying political views, they were prepared to work together to achieve their economic development. It was because they had, to a great extent, secured such co-operation that the industrial progress of the past few years had been accomplished. Although they had made great strides, there were greater strides yet to be made before any of them could afford to rest on their oars, and think that industrial development could proceed of its own volition.

Dr. J. F. Crowley, M.I.E.E., consulting engineer to the company, proposed the toast of "Irish Tanners, Ltd.," and referred to the distinguished Malcolms family so long associated with Portlaw, and whose activities extended to Germany, as well as India, and the Southern States of America.

Mr. R. J. Hearne, director, Waterford, responded, Mr. H. G. Marlow, managing director, was associated with the toast.

The toast of "Our Guests" was proposed by Mr. Kennedy O'Brien, Dublin, a director of Irish Tanners, Ltd., and speakers to this toast included the Mayor of Waterford, Councillor Aylward, who wished the enterprise every success; Mr. J. P. Colbert, Chairman Industrial Credit Corporation; Mr. Daniel O'Callaghan, Limerick, Managing Director of the Limerick Tannery and Secretary of the Irish Tanners' Association; Dr. Gordon Parker, Chairman of the Tanning Technical Institute, London, and Professor Smiddy.

DISINFECTION OF PIGGERIES

Among the many points essential for successful pig husbandry routine disinfection of houses and runs is one of the most important. Yet it is often overlooked and its importance not fully realised. Most people recognise the necessity and value of disinfection when infectious disease has actually broken out, but the part that regular disinfection can play in the prevention of all disease is perhaps not fully appreciated.

Where pigs are kept in any numbers there are always individuals in the herd who act as carriers of parasites of different kinds, and of germs, which give the opportunity to propagate and spread, may start serious trouble amongst the stock. This is particularly the case amongst young stock on breeding premises. Regular disinfection and cleansing may kill millions of eggs of worms and millions of germs, and thus prevent their being picked up by other pigs.

Faeces and urine act as a vehicle for most parasites and germs; thus the need for frequent cleansing and disinfection is obvious.

The following methods in routine disinfection are suggested by a veterinary surgeon in the September News Sheet ("Pig Progress") published by the Pigs Marketing Board, Northern Ireland—

(1) Sweep up all manure and urine, soiled food and bedding, etc., and remove these to the manure pit, which should be situated out of reach of all stock.

(2) Wash out the houses and feeding troughs with water. Scrub thoroughly, paying particular attention to crevices in the walls or floors, to the outside of troughs as well as to the inside. Where available in quantity hot water and soda are certainly more efficient than cold water.

(3) After the washing, disinfect thoroughly with a good disinfectant, used at the strength recommended by the makers. An excellent disinfectant available on most farms is copper sulphate, used at a strength of 5 per cent. It is important after disinfection to see that pools of the fluid are not left in the food troughs or on the floor where pigs may drink. This precaution should be taken as all disinfectants are in some degree poisonous. Movable fixtures, such as wooden trays, should be stood for a few hours in the sun when disinfection is being carried out.

In the case of the known presence of actual disease the above rules should be preceded by a preliminary disinfection of the houses before removal of bedding, urine and manure, so that there may be no risk of spreading the disease from such material as it is being removed from the houses.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman; R. Savage, T. Beausang, R. Power, J. Forrest, W. O'Sullivan, J. Whelan, M. Ahern, J. N. R. Macnamara, solr., J. R. Smyth, P.C.; M. Cashman, E. P. Lynch, R. C. Farrell, Vice-Chairman, T. K. Keane, solr.

Acknowledgments Comdt. Crean, Sarsfield Barracks, Limerick, wrote on behalf of his fellow officers, N.C.O's and self, tendering to their worthy Chairman, the Clerk and all other members of the Council his grateful and sincere thanks for that generous mark of their esteem. The facilities afforded by the Council and the Clerk's co-operation at all times did much to lighten their task. It gave him great pleasure to learn their good opinion concerning the behaviour of the troops. He was happy to have learned of the good will of the Council and people of Youghal and trusted it would be his privilege to renew their friendly associations at some future date.

Supt. Kelly, Middleton, wrote on behalf of himself and the members of the Garda conveying their appreciation of the tribute paid them by the resolution passed by the Council. As requested he had forwarded a copy of the resolution to his authorities.

Private Sign On Public Lamp

Miss Meade, Pacific Hotel, wrote drawing attention to the letters addressed to Council last May and June, pointing out the damage to her business caused by the sign "Public Thoroughfare" placed across the lamp standards. She then requested that it be reduced in size and placed at the side, and now she added, they could remove it altogether, and give the thoroughfare a name. But the only reply she could get was—"you can't have a private sign on a public lamp." The question of having a private sign on a public lamp and the question of having the objectionable sign "Public Thoroughfare" on the lamp standards (which lamp and standards were by the way supplied by her at a cost of £70) were two distinct questions. Last week she requested copy of a letter preventing Messrs. Murray from erecting the sign "Pacific Hotel" for which she had their approval, and the request was ignored. She wanted that letter to enable her to recover the £30 import duty on the sign which was now quite useless. She had been assured of the Council's sympathetic consideration owing to the loss caused and that any alternative would be helped out.

On the Clerk's suggestion it was decided to send Miss Meade a letter that would meet her requirements.

Strand Sluice

In connection with the damage to the sluice on the Strand, Mr. Savage proposed and Mr. Whelan, seconded that the Council contribute their arranged share one-sixth of the cost. This was passed unanimously.

Labour And Wages

On the proposition of Mr. Whelan, seconded by Mr. Savage, a cheque for £64 18s. 0d., wages, etc., for week was passed.

Dances

Applications for the use of the Town Hall for dances were received from the following—Southern Rowing Club, October 4th; Republican Memorial Committee, October 20th; British Legion, 2nd October; Fianna Eireann, October 6th. All were granted.

Cinema Roofing

In connection with the repair of the roofing of Messrs. Horgan's Picture Theatre, the Acting Surveyor wrote stating that he was still of the opinion that asbestos was safest.

Mr. Keane pointed out that only one-eighth of the roof required repair. After a short discussion it was decided to take no action.

DANCE HALL LICENCES

(Before Mr. G. P. Farrell, D.J.)

License

This was the Annual Licensing Sessions, and there being no objection, all the renewal certificates were duly signed.

Mr. Wm. R. Hodnett, solr., applied on behalf of Patk. Cooney, for confirmation of an ad interim transfer of the license lately held by Miss Mary Murray, deceased.

The application was granted.

Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., made a similar application on behalf of Patk. Murray, The Mall, the license being formerly held by Mr. M. J. Fleming.

The application was granted.

The usual exemption orders and wholesale beer dealers licenses were also renewed.

Petty Larceny

Michael Donovan, Foxhole, was charged with the larceny of a piece of timber, value 6d.

Supt. Kelly, prosecuted and Mr. Hodnett, defended.

Mr. Hodnett said it was a very small case. His instructions were that the piece of wood was really a bit of flotsam.

The Justice—Or jetsam.

Mr. Hodnett said it came in on the recent high tides. It was purely a technical offence.

The Justice said it was too small a case to bring unless there was anything else behind it.

Supt. Kelly said there was.

The Supt. said the object was to put a stop to this pilfering.

The Justice said that stuff was being taken from the fences.

The Justice said he would mark the case "proved and dismissed."

False Pretences

Michael Connaughton, Bridge St., Birr, was charged in custody on remand, with obtaining and attempting to obtain money by falsely representing himself as a representative of the Irish Tourist Association.

Supt. Kelly, prosecuting, asked to have two of the counts struck out, in respect to Mrs. Julia Ahern, and Mrs. Alice James. The amount involved was small—one sum of 5/- and two of 10/6 each. His worship could take the case summarily.

The Justice said he would like to start with one deposition.

Supt. O'Beirne, deposed that on 15th September, he interviewed the accused at Youghal Garda Station. Gave him the usual legal caution and he made and signed a statement in which he said that he met a Michael Smyth of Birr in April or May 1935, who said he was solicitor representing the Lindsay Advertising Service, Glasgow, who were publishing an Irish Holiday Guide and register, and accused took on with him as a traveller through the different seaside resorts, canvassing for business and collecting accounts, he to receive one-third of all orders with a certain amount of expenses, on a verbal agreement. In May 1935, they started in Galway, staying in the same hotel, Smyth being responsible for expenses. Accused went to Kilkree, and deducted commission and expenses from his collection. After that he went to Limerick, where he met Smyth, who agreed to meet him in Cork. Accused went there, staying first at the Windsor Hotel, and afterwards at the Devonshire Hotel, Leitrim Street. On September 13th he went to Cobh where he got a few orders. He came to Youghal on 13th September staying at the Esplanade Hotel. On 6th September he canvassed Carrigtwohill, where he got one order. The cash receipt book in his possession he got from Smyth in Galway, as they sometimes ran out of official receipts and Smyth said "that any kind of receipt would do." He did not know where he got the I.T.A. Book which he had. He didn't use that book as being from the I.T.A. He thought it was no harm to use it as showing the space they would give in the Irish Holiday Guide register. He always represented himself as being from that. He denied he was collecting accounts for the I.T.A. He understood from Smyth that the Lindsay Service had already published a guide for England and Scotland and that they were starting a branch in Ireland. He wished to add that the cheque for £3 he got from Lester, Cork, was cashed by Mrs. Collins, Glanmire. He got a cheque from Powell's garage Lower Road, Cork for £1 1s. 0d. It was payable to Smyth. He signed his own name and Smyth's to the cheque which was cashed by Mr. McNamara of the Eagle Printing Works.

Mrs. Cronin, Claycastle, deposed that on the 31st August last, a man called to her house (she here identified accused). He produced a book to her, a tourist book, with advertisements for hotels and restaurants. He showed her the name of two Youghal hotels in it. He said he was travelling for some tourist book, she couldn't state the name. He said 10/- would pay for an advertisement for 2 years, but she said she could not afford that much. He then said he would give her a small ad for 5/- in the book. She then gave him the 5/- and he gave her the receipt produced. She only saw one book like the receipt book, not the other.

No questions asked. Miss Ellen Ahearne, proprietress, Hot Baths, Strand Street, Youghal, deposed that on 14th September, the accused (whom she identified) called to her place. He said he was travelling for the Irish Tourist Association. He asked her to take an advertisement in the I.T.A. and she said she thought Mr. O'Flynn was the Secretary of the Association, who lived in that house and that his office was in Patrick St., Cork and that she left all the advertising in his hands. At that time Mr. Flynn was in the house. Accused then went out the door. Mr. Flynn went after him and brought him back. Mr. Flynn accused him of trading under the I.T.A.'s name. Accused did not state the cost of the advertisement. He asked for no money.

To the Court—She was quite certain that he said he represented the I.T.A.

Accused asked no questions but said his solicitor Mr. Walsh, of Birr was not able to attend that day.

The Supt. said he had some correspondence with Mr. Walsh, to whom he submitted the facts of the case. Mr. Walsh, didn't say definitely that he was in the case.

The Justice—Do you want me to remand you for a further week?

Accused—Yes.

The Justice—I think it is safer in the interests of everybody to do so. You understand it is at your own request. Better have it definite about your solicitor for next Court, whether he is to appear for you or not.

Accused was then remanded again in custody for a week.

Dance Licences

Mr. Hodnett, on behalf of Mr. M. H. Walsh, P.C., Town Clerk, representing the Urban Council, applied for a Dance Licence in respect of the Ball-Room, Town Hall, for the ensuing 12 months, subject to the general restrictions. It would be impossible in the circumstances to state exactly how many days or nights were required. The practice was that the Council carefully considered each application, and being a responsible body, one might take it the hall would not be granted for unsuitable purposes or to unsuitable people. A similar application had been made to his Worship in connection with the Middleton Town Hall. It differed from like applications made by private individuals or particular clubs.

Supt. Kelly said he had no objection.

The Very Rev. D. Canon Dinneen, D.D., P.P., said he had no objection to a license being granted to the Urban Council as he believed they would see to it that everything was carried out properly.

The Justice said he would grant the license subject to two stock conditions: (1) that no one under 18 be allowed take part and (2) that there be no intoxicating liquor.

Mr. Hodnett—There are very salutary conditions, which would make it easier for them.

The Justice said he would grant a general license, not limiting the hours. To facilitate inspection by the Civic Guards, they should be duly notified.

Mr. Hodnett agreed.

Mr. T. K. Keane, solr., made a similar application on behalf of Mr. R. L. Atkins, for the Strand Palace.

Mr. Keane said that Mr. Atkins held the ground on which the palace was built under a lease for 99 years, at a yearly rent of £52. He had originally spent £5,500 on its erection and £500 on improvements, so that he had £6,000 capital sunk in the venture. It was his only source of income, and the season was very short, little more than three months. Youghal was a seaside resort and that application differed from other in that it was only for the summer months principally.

Mr. Keane here read a list of the days and hours arranged as follows:—Summer—Mondays and Tuesdays 8 to 11; Thursdays and Fridays 8 to 12; Wednesdays and Sundays 8 to 10 and 10.30 to 1 a.m. Two Wednesdays, two Saturdays and two Sundays and August Bank Holiday 10 to 3. Winter Practice Dances, two nights weekly 8 to 10.30. St. Stephen's, St. Patrick's and Easter Sunday 9 to 3.

The Supt. said he had no objection.

Canon Dinneen said his duty was to ask for the imposition of the condition put on behalf of his Lordship the Bishop before the Justice at the Cobh Court in connection with similar applications: (1) That no one under 18 be admitted; (2) Proper supervision; (3) that no intoxicating liquor, or person under the influence of drink be admitted; (4) No dance to be held on the eve of Church Holidays. The Bishops and priests were unanimous against that, and Saturday nights for very strong reasons; (5) That there should be no dancing after midnight.

In his application Mr. Keane referred to the fact that Youghal was a seaside resort and therefore, should be treated in a specific way. The conditions the Bishops would like to have imposed were meant to prevent the grave abuses more liable in the experience of priests to arise at seaside resorts than elsewhere. His Lordship held that there should be no dancing after midnight, and it was his (Canon Dinneen's) duty to identify himself with that view. It was said that those restrictions might interfere with the tourists coming there. It was a question whether it would. It might keep a few undesirable patrons away. But from the Christian point of view, success could be purchased at too dear a price.

The Justice—I would like to hear about the control of the place.

Mr. Atkins having given evidence in support of Mr. Keane's statement, said that both he and his son remained in or about the hall till the conclusion of all dances. As regards Saturday night dances, many of his week-end patrons had to be back at business on Monday morning, and if Saturday night were cut out, they could have no dance, and he couldn't carry on without it.

The Justice—What about the other dances till 3 o'clock?

Mr. Atkins—They are going on since 1920.

Replying to the Court, Mr. Atkins said he would comply with the conditions regarding the age limit and intoxicating liquor.

The Justice said he proposed to grant that application. He was obliged to Canon Dinneen for giving the Bishop's views and his own on the question. Having dealt at length with the legal aspect of the matter and of the functions which devolved on him under the Act, he said he had to consider the existing conditions as he found them. In that case Mr. Atkins had invested a substantial sum of money many years ago and was running a dance hall. He wasn't prepared at present to interfere with any existing halls of that type, even that he might object to certain things. What might happen in the future was another question as all licences would come up for renewal periodically. Unfortunately, dancing had become one of the new problems of Irish life and couldn't be disposed of in a moment. As was evidence those licences were only provisional. That was the only hall for which he had been asked to permit dances on Saturday nights.

Youghal was the only seaside resort in his district and he was afraid he must leave it to the judgment of the people themselves whether they would come to a particular dance on a particular Saturday night. He didn't think he would be doing justice to Mr. Atkins if he prevented it. Owing to the shortness of the season and the fact that the proprietor's livelihood depended on it he felt he ought grant the application in full.

Clearance Order

APPLICATION BY YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

LANDLORD OBJECTS

At Youghal Town Hall, Mr. Wm. Bloomer, Local Government Inspector, held a sworn inquiry into an application by the Youghal Urban District Council for confirmation and Minister for Local Government and Public Health of a clearance order under the Provisions of the Housing (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act, 1931. Mr. W. R. Hodnett, solicitor, appeared for the Urban Council.

Mr. Michael H. Walsh, Town Clerk, gave evidence that the Council had passed the necessary resolutions and had complied with the Departmental regulations in the making of the clearance order.

D. T. Kennedy, Medical Officer of Health, and Mr. James Murray, B.E., Acting Town Surveyor, gave evidence that the houses were unfit for human habitation on the grounds that they were in a bad state of repair, were badly lighted, and a danger to health. It was stated that nine of the houses were let, each at a rent of two shillings per week. In the event of the order being confirmed accommodation would be available for the tenants at the new Council houses at the Town Wall.

Landlord's Evidence

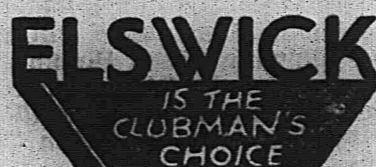

The landlord gave evidence that following representations to the Urban Council he was given to understand that the clearance order had been postponed, and acting on that he had within the past twelve months spent £40 on repairing the houses. They were situated in one of the healthiest portions of the town and were all clean and airy.

John Donoghue, a former tenant, stated that with his family of ten he had occupied two of the houses for twenty years, and both he and his family had always enjoyed good health there.

This closed the inquiry, and the inspector said he would submit his report to the Minister.

ORCHARDS

Splendid crops of apples are noticeable in the many orchards in this district. Anyone travelling the main road to Fermoy, through Mocollop would wonder why apples should ever be imported to this country. When the many young orchards, planted during the past few years, come to maturity we should surely be able to supply all our own needs.

Why? Because it is built for strength, safety and easy running. Follow the expert and choose an Elswick for effortlessness.

Ballyduff Notes

QUARANT ORE.
 Sunday 29th, September, being the feast of St. Michael Patron of this Parish, Quarante Ore devotions opened on Saturday at 10.30 a.m. when the Missa Cantata was celebrated by Rev. Fr. Dower, C.C., after which the procession of the Blessed Sacrament took place to the High Altar for Exposition. Confessions were heard practically the whole day on Saturday and again before Mass on Sunday morning. It speaks well for the religious fervour of the people of this Parish that the whole congregation of almost 800 received Holy Communion, and during the Exposition a continuous stream of people visited the Church. The devotions concluded at 10 a.m. on Monday when the Missa Cantata was again celebrated by the Rev. Fr. Dowley, P.P. The Masses were sung by the children of the Ballyduff National School under the guidance of Mrs. B. Prior, N.T.

It was the intention of some of the people to make a pilgrimage to St. Michael's Well, Tobernahulla (the well of the oils) on Sunday, but owing to the inclemency of the weather this was not possible.

In olden days large numbers of people visited this well on St. Michael's Day, but owing to abuses and scenes of revelry that took place the practise was discontinued on the advice of the clergy. The well is still kept in fairly good condition by the local residents, and indications of pilgrimages which one time took place can still be seen, the surrounding bushes being hung with scapulars and medals left by the pilgrims. It is hoped that in future years properly conducted religious processions will be held, and we believe that such is the intention of our present pastor, Rev. M. Dowley, P.P.

VOCATIONAL EDUCATION—
 Domestic Economy Classes are being continued at Ballyduff Centre by Miss O'Flynn, Instructress, of whose teaching abilities the students are loud in their praise. There are, however, many young ladies still left in the district, who could with advantage attend these classes, and we are sure that with an increased attendance the County Committee could be prevailed upon to further extend the period of training. We are sure that if these young ladies realised the benefits to be obtained by the careful tuition of Miss O'Flynn, they would flock to the classes and soon show the same keenness as the present students.

The Irish classes being held in the Boy's School by Mr. L. Kiely, are being well attended each Wednesday but there are still many who could with profit attend. We might suggest that in addition to the present course, beginners classes should be held, as some of us who have left school for a long time have forgotten the little Irish we have learned.

LIBRARY—
 We notice that complaints have been made at other places that too large a percentage of fiction is being read, and that the demand for non-fiction is small. Readers are not altogether responsible for this and the Library Committees must shoulder some of the blame. From enquiries made in the neighbouring town of Fermoy, where 50 per cent. of the books issued are non-fiction, we believe that if the Waterford Co. Committee supplied a larger number of good non-fiction books the demand for them would improve considerably. The present supply of these books is very meagre, and is mainly of a technical or religious nature. The average reader requires something entertaining and interesting, and does not feel inclined to spend the evening at study, especially in the country after a long day's work. Books dealing with travel and nature such as "With Scott in the Antarctic," "Going about the Country with your Eyes Open," etc., would be welcomed. In the absence of such as those, fiction is read. ("Opals and Gold" would be topical just now).

FAIRMING—
 Thrashing operations are nearly completed now despite the inclement weather. In a few cases crops of oats were badly damaged by the rain. We hope that an improvement in the weather will take place before the pulling of the beet and raising of potatoes takes place.

Owing to the mountainous nature of some of this area, many small farmers are unable to grow wheat or beet and they look askance at the rising prices of flour and sugar.
