Appalling Tragedy In Dungarvan

YOUNG MAN SHOT DEAD IN HIS MOTHER'S PRESENCE

ARMED MEN IN MOTOR CAR

DESPERATE DEED SHOCKS THE COMMUNITY

ON SUNDAY NIGHT AT 11.20 O'CLOCK THE PEACE OF DUNGARVAN WHICH LAY UNDISTURBED FOR MANY YEARS WAS SHATTERED WHEN A YOUNG MAN NAMED JOHN EGAN, AGED 24 YEARS, SON OF MR. THOMAS EGAN, MITCHEL STREET, WAS SHOT DEAD OUTSIDE THE PRESBYTERY, MITCHEL STREET, BY A PARTY OF ARMED MEN, WHO ARRIVED IN TOWN BY MOTOR.

John Egan who was one of a family of eight, lived with his parents at Mitchel Street. He was unemployed.

The shooting was witnessed by the parents of the young man who were hastening to warn him that he might be in danger as unknown men had been at the house looking for him.

These men arrived by motor about 11 p.m. and asked if John Egan was at home. At the time the young man was attending a Dance in the Town Hall. Being informed he was not at home they left.

His mother was uneasy about the incident of the visit and both she and her husband decided to walk towards the Town Hall to inform their son about the matter.

Later Mrs. Egan found her son at Mrs. Kirby's, Mitchel Street, where he was having a glass of milk. She told him about the men who called and asked him to go home. Deceased said—"GO HOME AND I WILL BE HOME AFTER YOU."

Mrs. Egan then stood in a doorway nearby and saw the motor car again near the Presbytery.

When her son came out of Kirby's Shop one of the occupants of the car called him and as he approached the car a number of shots rang out and her son collapsed in the gateway outside the Priests' house. The car then drove off.

THE SHOOTING

On Sunday night John Egan, was at a dance in the Town Hall and when it was over at 11 o'clock he left accompanied by two companions named Walsh and Crotty. They stopped at Mrs. Kirby's, Mitchel street, and were talking to other boys. After a time the others went away and Egan, Walsh and Crotty were left together. While they stood there a car pulled up across the road, outside the Catholic Presbytery where Rev. M. F. Hearne, Rev. P. F. McGrath, and Rev. T. B. Walsh—all attached to St. Mary's Catholic Church—reside.

Leaving the car, a man crossed the street to the spot where the youths were chatting at the shop door, and he asked if John Kirwan was there. One of the boys said there was no such person as John Kirwan, but that there was a John Kirby living in Shandon St. The man, apparently satisfied with that answer, went back to the car, the engine of which was still running.

A few minutes afterwards Egan, Crotty and Walsh, turned to continue home-wards. Just as they were passing the car, one of its occupants called to Egan—using, it is stated, his name. As Egan crossed to the car, his two companions continued to walk on, believing, of course that merely another inquiry was being made. Then suddenly a revolver shot rang out.

Thinking it was only a backfire from the car, the others glanced back, but to their horror three or four additional revolver shots were fired and Egan staggered and fell in the passage way outside the Presbytery door. The car drove off immediately.

Appalled by what they had seen, the two young men rushed back to Egan, but did not reach him before his unfortunate mother, who, hurrying down the street was a horrified spectator of the tragedy.

It was her piercing scream which attracted the attention of the few passers-by, and roused the occupants of the Presbytery.

Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., quickly dashed from the Presbytery and was in time to administer the Last Sacraments to the dying man. Dr. Casey was also quickly on the scene, but the poor fellow was beyond medical aid.

MOTHER'S STORY

Mrs. Egan, mother of the deceased, who had the awful experience of witnessing the shooting, told a pathetic story to Press representatives on Monday. With words interwoven with sobs she told how on the previous night a knock came on her door about 11 o'clock, and she and her husband, as well as other members of the family had retired to bed at the time. The father got up and opened the door to find a strange man standing on the threshold. He was accompanied by a second man, and a motor car with engine running was at the kerb. There were two more men. Mrs. Egan had also got up and, looking out through the kitchen window of their little ground floor home, saw one of the men with his hand over his breast, as if concealing something under his coat. One of the men asked for John Egan, her son. The boy was out at the time, she knew in a small shop some distance down the street, where he resorted practically every night for a glass of milk before coming home. Last night he had been at the weekly Sunday night dance in the Town Hall. The men on being informed that her son was not at home took their departure.

Some instinct warned her of pending danger and, taking her shawl, she went off to find her boy at the shop of Mrs. Kirby, practically opposite the Catholic Parish Church. On nearing the shop she saw the same car parked some distance away, and the man who had previously called at the house was engaged in conversation with Patrick Walsh, a companion of her son's, outside the shop.

"When I saw him talking to Walsh," Mrs. Egan continued, "I stood back in the shelter of the doorway of the next door shop. The man only spoke a few words to Walsh, after which he went towards the motor car. I then went to talk to my son and told him to come home; that there had been two men at the house looking for him. John was then finishing a glass of milk with some companions. He said: 'Go home, and I will be home after you.' I went up a little past the motor car and stood in another doorway. Walsh and another man named Curran, passed me, and I asked them if John was coming. I then saw John walking out

SUNDAY CINEMA

CASTING VOTE DECIDES

At the Dungarvan Urban Council meeting last Friday night, Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presiding.

Mr. Daniel Crotty, applied for a seven-day licence. At present Mr. Crotty has a licence to show pictures on Sunday nights.

The following letter was read from Very Rev. Canon O'Brien, P.P., Dungarvan—
Dear Mr. Morrissey—Now that the application for a seven-day licence for the local cinema may come before the Urban Council, I deem it my duty to renew my protest. I protest most strongly against the opening of the cinema on Sunday nights, first because it is against the express wish of our Bishop, secondly because it violates the firm tradition that has existed hitherto in this matter. In Waterford, Clonmel and Carrick there is no question of opening the cinemas on Sunday nights, these towns adhere faithfully to our Diocesan tradition. I appeal to the members of the Urban Council not to grant the licence for the opening of the Cinema on Sunday nights, and I ask them to fall into line with the other Catholic towns of our Diocese in maintaining our strong Catholic spirit in this question.

I enclose a copy of the Bishop's letter which I will ask you to be good enough to read tonight, and which puts the matter in a clear light.

The following is a copy of the Bishop's letter:—

My dear Canon O'Brien—With much regret I have heard of the attempt which is about to be made to have the Cinema Theatres opened in Dungarvan on Sundays. I have no objection to reasonable, becoming amusements on Sundays, quite the contrary. I do, however, object to amusements which are not in keeping with the law requiring us to sanctify the Sunday, and Cinema displays generally speaking, are of this nature. All moralists admit the debasing influence of the films usually exhibited, even in Ireland where our censorship is rather strict. When the people of Dungarvan and their representatives on consideration realise this, they will not, I am sure, be the first to break a tradition in which the diocese of Waterford and Lismore has hitherto been so firm.

J. KINANE,
Bishop of Waterford and Lismore.

Mr. McCarthy—When was that letter written?

Clerk—It is dated 10th July, 1935. Chairman—This as you know is the annual application for a renewal. The matter was up before us last year and was discussed with undue heat. There is no necessity for that now. All I am sure, have their minds made up, and I think there is no use saying anything. Of course, any member that has anything to say can do so.

Mr. Dahill—Y suggest that you take a vote.

Mr. Byrne—In connection with the benefit for the Children's Health, the owner of the cinema did not stick to his word.

Mr. D. Foley—He did. It was when a remark passed here at the meeting was conveyed to him the following morning, some members are talking that meetings are being held outside, well there are meetings being held. It was on my idea that the Children's Health looked for a concession.

Mr. D. Foley—And they got it.

Mr. Byrne—I do not think so.

Mr. D. Foley—Didn't they get the money?

Mr. Byrne—The receipts were £22 10s. and the bill put up to us was £13 10s.

Mr. McCarthy—It was given back again.

Mr. Byrne—It was done in a very British kind of manner.

Mr. D. Foley—And I am sure you will get another couple of nights.

Mr. Byrne—The people complained about the picture shown.

Mr. McCarthy—The picture had to be taken in its turn. We happened to strike on a bad night.

Mr. D. Foley—The pictures are for the benefit of the poor and so is Mr. Crotty.

Mr. Byrne—They didn't make a success of it.

Mr. D. Foley—They did, and the money was given.

The Chairman said that he wished to repeat the remark that he made at the meeting of the Children's Health Committee. He was a member of the deputation that saw Mr. Crotty and Mr. Crotty stated that there would be no expense outside the cost of the film. It came as a big surprise to him when the bill for £15 10s. came in—£10 10s. for the hall and £5 for the film. That must have been a big surprise to all of you. I would have nothing to do with the show if I thought that it would cost £10 10s. and every member of the deputation would, I am sure, be of the same day of thinking. It was disagreeably disappointed. It was when a member here made a remark about the 7-day licence that the £15 10s. was returned.

Mr. McCarthy—That is wrong, other members of the deputation did not agree with you at all.

Mr. J. F. Foley—Some did and some did not.

Mr. McCarthy—Mr. Christopher and Mr. Dahill, who were members, did not agree with you. However, that should make no difference at all. It is not a question as to whether the money was refunded or not. It is a question as to whether pictures are wrong on Sundays, if so, they are also wrong on Mondays and every other day. You have nine clergymen connected with pictures that are run in Ireland on Sunday nights, and I hold that they are good clergymen. If pictures are all right in other places on Sunday nights they ought to be all right here too.

Mr. D. Foley—The poor men put this Council in on account of the pictures and Mr. Byrne was one of them.

Mr. Byrne—One of them?—I don't think so.

Mr. D. Foley—If you vote against the pictures tonight, you will find that I am right. Were you never approached?

Mr. Byrne—Never.

Mr. Quann—We are not concerned if we got a half-year's benefit. We have two letters before us and I feel to say anything further would be trying to paint the lily. I hold that the action of the Council in Aug., last when they granted a Sunday licence was regrettable. There is no reason why we should defy the wishes of his Lordship, the Parish Priest and the Clergy, and our previous action was a blot and a blur on the Catholic tradition of this town.

Mr. McCarthy—I don't think Mr. Quann should be allowed to make a remark like that. Maybe the members who voted for the seven-day licence might be just as good Catholics as the others. I resent Mr. Quann's remark.

Mr. D. Foley—I think the remark is an insult and Mr. Quann should withdraw.

Mr. McCarthy—I think we are as good Catholics as any others and if the test came, perhaps we would prove it.

Mr. Quann—The Bishop is our authority in this matter.

Mr. McCarthy—I am as much for the Bishop as you are and maybe I would prove it.

Mr. D. Foley—Mr. Quann's remark was an insult.

Mr. McCarthy—I voted according to my conscience. I hold there is nothing wrong with Sunday pictures. There are nine out of ten picture houses open in Ireland every Sunday night.

Mr. D. Foley—Do you hear that Mr. Quann? What have you to say to that?

Chairman—I think Mr. Quann did not make any insulting remark; I think he was misunderstood.

Mr. McCarthy—You will say that any- way.

Chairman—Why?

Mr. McCarthy—Because it suits you.

Mr. Dahill—I say that there is no vote that I ever cast here and that I am sorry for now.

Mr. D. Foley—Why did not the others do the deputation to Mr. Crotty agree with the Chairman.

Chairman—To use Mr. McCarthy's remark: "Because it suits them."

Mr. McCarthy—You say one thing and Mr. Dahill and Mr. Christopher say another.

Chairman—I am straight about what happened on that occasion. They are not straight about it.

Mr. Clancy then moved that Mr. Crotty be refused a seven-day cinema licence and granted a six-day licence. Mr. Clancy said that he felt honoured to be able to take his stand with the Waterford Corporation and with other public bodies in the county.

Mr. D. Foley—Anybody that votes against the pictures tonight will vote against the poor people. I have been asked by several poor people to vote for the pictures.

At this stage several members were speaking together, and it was not possible to discern what was being said. Mr. Byrne and Mr. O'Dwyer, were engaged in cross talk and were seen to rise and engage in fistfists, several members after a tussle succeeded in separating the two and after quiet was restored a vote was taken without further discussion, and resulted:—

For a six-day licence—Messrs. Byrne, Quann, J. Foley, J. Butler, M. Clancy and the Chairman—(6).

For a seven-day licence—Messrs. McCarthy, Hayes, O'Dwyer, Dahill, D. Foley, J. Christopher—(6).

The Chairman gave his casting vote in favour of the six-day licence.

Mr. McCarthy said that the Chairman should not have given a casting vote, but should have adjourned the matter to a full meeting.

AN EXPLANATION

To the Editor "Dungarvan Observer"

Dear Sir—In the report in the "Cork Examiner" of the proceedings at last meeting of the Urban Council when our application for a 7-day Cinema Licence was discussed, it was stated by the Chairman who was a member of the Children's Health Committee Deputation that interviewed regarding the benefit shows for these funds, that Mr. Crotty said there would be no expense outside the cost of the film. Mr. Morrissey further stated that—"It was when a member here made a remark about the 7-day licence that the £15 10s. 0d. was returned." To correct any erroneous impression created by that statement, we take this opportunity of placing before you the facts, and at the same time to show the Chairman's remarks were altogether incorrect.

The facts are as follows:—The deputation that came consisted of Messrs. M. Morrissey, (Chairman); P. Byrne, J. Foley, J. Christopher, (Jr.); J. Dahill, and T. Walsh, and they interviewed not Mr. Crotty, but the two undersigned, who made the arrangements for three shows—a matinee and two nights. We were to be paid running expenses of £3 10s. 0d., for each performance and in addition, the cost of the film, which was to be requested at special charity rate. This was done, and the film cost £5, which is very moderate.

In January our account was sent in. We heard nothing further, nor were we ever approached about any agreement not to charge, a matter which would surely have been conveyed to us, had such an agreement ever existed.

A balance sheet showing a loss on the performance, was submitted to a meeting of the Children's Health Committee on the 20th March last, and on the following day we sent a letter addressed to the Secretary offering to forego the expenses because of that loss. In spite of the offer made by us on that day, Saturday March the 21st, the amount of the account was handed into our office approximately one week later, and the balance sheet showing the loss was published in the "Observer" of March 28th, although on the previous evening, Friday March 27th, we had gone before the Council and handed back the money, expressing our surprise that it had been sent to us, in view of our letter of the 21st offering to forego same, and asking why this letter had not been produced. It was obvious from what was said that our letter had not been brought to the notice of the members at all. A special meeting of the Children's Health Committee was called for the following Tuesday 31st March. Our letter was then brought before the meeting, our offer accepted, and a vote of thanks passed to Mr. Crotty. We are putting the above facts before you with the object of justifying the statements of Mr. Christopher and Mr. Dahill on our behalf—as the Chairman said that they were not straight about the matter. We also desire to point out that all this occurred approximately one month before the question of our 7-day licence came before the Council, and we think you will agree it is only fair to us that the facts be put before the public.—Yours faithfully,

F. CROTTY,
A. CROTTY,
Dungarvan, 29th April, 1936.

Mount Melleray New Church

Building Fund—

As indicated in articles which have appeared in recent issues of the "Observer," a Mount Bazaar and Grand Drawing of Prizes will be held in the Cappoquin Town Park, from Sunday June 21st to Monday June 29th, in aid of the fund for the splendid new church which is now in course of construction at Mount Melleray Abbey.

This Bazaar will be one of the most important and attractive events of its kind ever held in Cappoquin, and apart from its highly deserving object, should be generally supported by all classes of the public, as it will provide a feast of amusement and entertainment the like of which has never before been witnessed in this town.

McDonald's famous Caledonian Amusements' Company, has been specially engaged for the occasion, so with Chair-planes, Swings, Roulette, Shooting Galleries, Dodgems and countless other forms of amusement, this should prove a great Carnival Warg for all.

Mr. M. J. Sargent has been appointed Hon. Sec. of the representative Committee of the leading Professional and Business men in Cappoquin which has been formed to carry out all the arrangements, and as he is, undoubtedly, one of the ablest and most energetic organisers to be found anywhere, the success of the Bazaar is already assured.

Look out for further details in future issues.

New Jubilee Nurse—

Miss Norah Buckley has taken up duty as District Jubilee Nurse in Cappoquin with in the past fortnight in succession to Miss M. C. Lyne, transferred to Co. Dublin.

Miss Buckley had previously acted as Jubilee Nurse in the Coole District where she had given such great satisfaction that at a meeting of the local District Nursing Association, presided over by the Very Rev. J. Kelly, P.P., Castlepollard, warm tributes were paid to her, and she was presented with a gold Fountain Pen, suitably inscribed, on the occasion of her transfer to Cappoquin.

Large Supplies of Pigs—

The price of fat pigs at the Cappoquin Bacon Factory still remains at 8s. per cwt dead weight, for first-grade pigs, and farmers will be glad to learn that this figure will continue until the middle of May.

CO. WATERFORD VOCATIONAL EDUCATION COMMITTEE.

LEATHER FACTORY TRAINEES

An Fear Mor, Vice-Chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the above on Tuesday. The other members present were—Rev. Brother McMahon, S. Hayes, Liam O'Meehan.

Finance—Payments amounting to £300 19s. 10d. were passed.

State Grants—A letter from the Department of Education relative to the allocation of State Grants stated that the amount allocated to Co. Waterford Vocational Education Committee is £3,379.

College of Technology—Correspondence was read from the Technical Association relative to the proposal to establish schools of Technology at Dublin and Cork.

The Secretary, in reply to the Chairman said that proposal was not approved of at the Annual Congress.

The Chairman thought it would be a desirable thing to have one of these Colleges. He was very opinion that it would be a mistake to build two until there was a trial of one.

Secretary—A contribution would be required from all committees.

The committee approved of the scheme generally, but stated they are not in a position to make any contribution.

Trainees For Leather Factory

Arising out of a letter from Mr. Dickens, Managing Director of the Dickens Leather Co., re the scheme for trainees, the Secretary read the result of the recent examination at which 22 pupils sat for the 10 vacancies—1st Patrick Ryan, Sexton street, Abbeyside; 2nd, Richard Johnson, Mary street, Dungarvan; 3rd, D. O'Sullivan, do.; 4th, F. Burke, St. Thomas' Terrace, Dungarvan; 5th, H. Glanville, St. Bridget's Terrace, Dungarvan; 6th—Casey, Modeligo; 7th, J. Barron, Ballynecy, Dungarvan; 8th, S. Donnelly, Ballynecy, Kilmessen; 9th, M. Kelly, St. Thomas' Terrace, Dungarvan; 10th Thomas Trihy, Prap, Grange.

Tramore's Need Of School

Mr. P. J. Fox, writing regarding the need of a Technical School at Tramore, stated that he had been asked so often why there are no classes held in Tramore, that he found bound to write to the committee on the subject.

Chairman—There were classes held in Tramore formerly?

Secretary—Yes; classes in Domestic Economy and Manual Instruction.

Chairman—I believe it was difficult to get accommodation there. The question is can the committee tackle the problem of another new school at Tramore.

The Secretary said he had replied to Mr. Fox's letter and informed him of the position.

Coolarne Training College

Arising out of the decision of the committee at a previous meeting to give two scholarships in Domestic Economy, value £25 each at the Residential School of Domestic Economy at Coolarne, County Galway.

Correspondence was read from the C.E.O. Galway and from the Rev. Mother of the College.

The Secretary said Mr. Kirwan, the Department's Inspector suggested that the scheme be confined to the Gaeltacht. What is required now is to have an examination.

The Committee decided on having an oral test open to the County at first; those who secure 75% to be qualified to sit for the examination which would include, written Irish, Cookery, Needlework and Mathematics.

Kilmacthomas School

A letter was read from Mr. Williams, solicitor, to the committee, enclosing copy of a letter from Mr. Kiersey, solicitor, on behalf of the owners of the proposed site at Kilmacthomas.

The Secretary said in the draft Agreement, Mr. Bowen got permission to run a sewer pipe from the site towards the Mahon river and for a cess-pool. Mr. Kiersey now want to cut that out of the Agreement. He submitted the letter to Mr. Bowen, who said it was absolutely essential that the committee have this permission otherwise the site would be useless.

The Committee agreed with Mr. Bowen and recommended that Mr. Walsh be informed accordingly.

Shooting Of Thomas Egan

Mr. Hayes, proposed and Mr. Meehan seconded, the following resolution:—

"That we, the members of the Vocational Education Committee, condemn in the strongest possible terms the appalling deed committed in Dungarvan on Sunday night last, April 26th. Further, that we sympathise most sincerely with the family of the late John Egan.—R.I.P."

Mr. Hayes said anything they could say would not be strong enough to condemn such a deed.

The Chairman said such an occurrence was never expected to occur in this part of Ireland and the parents have the sympathy of everybody.

The resolution was passed in silence.

of Mrs. Kirby's shop, and heard one of the men at the motor car call him towards the car. The minute John got to the car a number of shots rang out in rapid succession. The man who fired the shots was standing on the road at that time. John ran towards the priests' house and more shots were fired after him. The man who fired the shots then jumped into the motor car, which drove away immediately in the direction of the County Home. Some of my daughters saw it passing the house.

"I ran over to my son immediately he had collapsed in the gateway of the railing outside the priests' house. Father Hearne heard the noise and came down immediately. John's father, who had come down the street after he also rushed over to my boy. John did not speak after he fell, but when he had been shot he cried out: 'Save me; save me; I'm shot!'"

Mrs. Egan added that her son was 24 years of age, unmarried, and unemployed. He had been promised a job at the new leather factory. He was a model son and a daily Communicant.

After her boy had fallen, some people rushed to the scene. One of these (Mrs. Quinn) knocked at the priests' door and called them. He died almost immediately but Father Hearne had announced him. Dr. Casey was one of those who came on hearing the shots.

Mrs. K. Kirby, owner of the shop from which the boy had come to his death, said that he came to her shop every night with some companions for a glass of milk. He and a number of others were there when a strange man came to the door and asked: "Is John Kirwan here?" He was told that he was not, and then the strange man went away from the door, but stood on the footpath outside, where some of those in the shop went out to talk to him. This was about 11 o'clock, and young Egan and the others having finished their glasses of milk said good-night.

"I went out," said Mrs. Kirby, "to close the shop door, and I saw John Egan going across the road towards a motor-car, which was standing a little above the railing of the presbytery. This part of the street was fairly dark, but I could see a man standing at the back of the motor car. The next second I heard shots fired—one after another—and I heard John Egan's cries, and saw him run towards the door of the Curates' house.

Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., said that he was in the act of retiring when he heard the engine of a motor car running outside the door. He then heard what he thought was a car back-firing. This was followed by a woman's screams. "I rushed downstairs," Father Hearne said, "and found young Egan lying in a pool of blood immediately outside the door. He was then breathing, and I anointed him. He did not speak.

Father Hearne added that in all probability had he opened the door a moment earlier, he himself might have been shot, as it was afterwards discovered that one of the bullets had lodged in the door.

Dr. M. Casey, M.O.H., said he happened to be in the Commercial Club in the vicinity, when he heard the shots, which he also took to be the back-firing of a car. He then heard a woman shouting "Oh, my poor boy!" He immediately rushed into the street and found young Egan lying as described. Father Hearne was then attending him, kneeling on the fringe of the pool of blood, by which the boy was surrounded. Young Egan was bleeding profusely, principally from the back of the head and also from the mouth. He estimated that he lived some ten minutes after being shot.

It was further learned that Garda Deasy, who was on patrol duty at the Square, also heard the shots and the shooting, and did not with all haste to the scene. Only a few minutes elapsed until Supt. Walsh and a number of other local Gardai had joined him. The body was brought to the morgue on an improvised stretcher. Apparently a revolver was the weapon used, as bullets of the calibre were subsequently found.

A visit to the scene of the tragedy revealed a gruesome spectacle. One of the two entrances to the Presbytery had its door bespattered with blood and brain matter and a large pool of blood marked the spot where young Egan had been shot down.

At the time of the shooting there were many people going home, but like those in the vicinity and who had retired but heard the shooting, thought it was only the back-firing of a motor.

It was only when the word went forth that a man was shot that people realised what had occurred. Numbers came out of doors and for hours the streets were thronged with citizens discussing the awful tragedy.

On Monday Chief Supt. McCarthy, Cork, came to Dungarvan and was in conference with Chief Supt. Duffy and Supt. Walsh.

THE INQUEST Medical Evidence On Monday evening at 9 p.m. Dr. McCarthy, Coroner, held an inquest into the circumstances of the death of John Egan.

Dr. John McGrath, State Pathologist, Dublin, arrived in town at 7.30 o'clock and proceeded to the morgue where he made a Post Mortem examination, being assisted by Dr. Casey.

A big crowd was gathered on the Quay at the time. At the conclusion of the examination the inquest was held in a crowded Court-house.

The following jury were sworn:—Messrs. C. Lavin (foreman); E. Maher, P. Dwan, J. F. Foley, P. Quailly, J. Flynn, E. McCarthy, E. Power, J. Noble, B. Kieley, M. Fraher, J. Kieley, Supt. Walsh appeared for the State.

FATHER'S EVIDENCE

Thomas Egan, father of the deceased, who laboured under deep emotion, said the deceased was aged 24, and unmarried. Witness left the house about 6 p.m. yesterday, and deceased was there when he left. When witness returned, about nine, deceased was out. He saw his son's body at the Parochial House after the shooting. He identified the remains at the Morgue at those of his son.

"Are you aware," asked Supt. Walsh, "if your son had any enemies?" Witness replied: "I am not."

The Superintendent informed the Coroner that at that stage he did not propose to go into the circumstances and did not propose to ask witness, who had a good deal more evidence to tender, any more questions.

Replying to the Coroner, witness said his son resided with him.

DR. CASEY'S EVIDENCE

Dr. M. Casey, M.O.H., Dungarvan, said that on hearing what he thought to be shots about 11.15 the previous night, he found the body now lying in the morgue outside the door of the priests' house. The deceased was still breathing and bleeding profusely from the left side of the head and neck. He had a wound in the upper lip on the right side. He died about five minutes after witness arrived. Witness assisted at the post-mortem examination on Monday evening. Four entrance wounds and three exit wounds were found on the body. There were two in the head, one in the chest, and one in the left leg. The fourth bullet was found in superficial skin at the back over the spinal column.

Supt. Walsh asked—Would your examination lead you to think that the shots were fired at close range?

Dr. Casey replied—Yes, there was some singeing.

Further replying to the Superintendent, he said that the head wounds alone were sufficient to cause death.

PATHOLOGIST'S EVIDENCE

Dr. John McGrath, State Pathologist, who performed the post-mortem, stated that the body was well-developed. Describing the clothing, he said there was a cinchur belt around the waist. Detailing the wounds, he said there was a punctured wound through the clothes below the right armpit and two similar wounds through the left trousers leg on the inner side. On the body there was a bullet wound with an entrance and an exit on the inner side of the left leg above the knee. The direction of the bullet was from front to back and slightly from left to right. There was an entrance wound on the right side of the chest some inches below the armpit. The bullet in this case was found under the skin between the two shoulder blades, having pierced the lower part of the right lung and organs. There was an entrance wound on the left side of the neck below the lobe of the left ear, the track of which was through the mouth and upper teeth, with an exit wound to the right side of the angle of the mouth. There was an entrance wound on the right side of the head, and this wound went through the skull, ploughed up the brain, and in its exit shattered the skull over an area of three by one and a half inches. On the left side a little above the left ear and below the top of the left shoulder was a glancing wound corresponding apparently with the wound in the neck. The skin was scraped at both ends and torn in the centre. The right side of the chest was full of blood and brain matter had been torn through the exit wound on the left side of the head. Death was due to shock and haemorrhage caused by the wounds described on the head and neck, which would of themselves have caused rapid death.

Superintendent Walsh said that at stage he would not tender any further evidence, and he asked for an adjournment for a month at least.

The Coroner said he would adjourn the inquest for a month and said it was his painful duty to express to the relatives of the deceased his profound sympathy in their sad bereavement. I know, he added, that I am expressing the sympathy of the people of Dungarvan who were shocked by this tragic occurrence in their town.

Mr. Lavin on behalf of the Jury associated himself with the resolution of sympathy.

Joining in the vote of sympathy, Supt. Walsh said—On behalf of the Gardai, I appeal for the co-operation of the people in tracking the culprits in this shocking case. I think it is up to the people of Dungarvan to help the authorities in their efforts to trace the perpetrators of this crime. We have no evidence at present of anything that would in any way identify the culprits, but we know there were a number of people about the streets at the time of the shooting and I feel it is my duty to ask for their co-operation.

REMOVAL OF REMAINS

The remains of John Egan were removed from the Mortuary to the Parish Church on Monday night when the Inquest proceedings were over. An enormous number of persons were present and in the stillness of the night broken only by the sobs of his parents and family, the coffin was borne through the streets on the shoulders of his companions.

At the Church the prayers for the dead were recited by the Very Rev. Canon O'Brien.

THE FUNERAL

On Tuesday the interment took place in the Parish cemetery. Again there was a very large attendance of all classes. A Guard of Honour was formed by members of the local Hurling and football clubs of which the deceased was a member. They wore blue and white badges on mourning armlets.

The last prayers were recited by Very Rev. Canon O'Brien, P.P., V.F., assisted by Rev. M. F. Hearne, C.C., Rev. T. B. Walsh, C.C., and Rev. J. Power, C.C. Kilgobbinet.

There were heart-rending scenes as the coffin was being lowered into the grave. Fervent prayers having been offered up for the repose of his soul the crowd departed in silence.

CIVIC GUARDS ACTIVITIES

During the week the authorities have been investigating the crime at top speed. Motor cars have been searched and motorists questioned. In Dungarvan area there is special activity and Guards and detectives are busily pursuing investigations with a view to tracing the perpetrators.

DISTRICT JUSTICE'S CAR

Seized By Raiders

On Sunday night about 9 p.m. a motor car belonging to Mr. Troy, District Justice, was seized and taken away by armed men. It is thought that was the motor car used by those who perpetrated the outrage in Dungarvan.

Interviewed on Monday at his residence Ard na Houan, Fermoy, Mr. Troy, D.J., said on the previous night about 9.10 p.m. four men with the lower parts of their faces covered arrived at the house knocked at the front door, and asked for Mr. Troy. When he came out to them they produced revolvers and requested him to go with them to his garage. There they forced him to start his car and take it out of the garage.

The car, which is a Chrysler, was then driven away by one of the men, and the three others returned to the house with Mr. Troy. They told him that he and the members of his household were not to leave the house during the night, and, further, warned him that they would keep guard over the house.

The members of the household retired to bed about 12.30 a.m., and at that hour the men were still walking about outside, keeping the inmates under observation. They were heard to be still talking at 3 a.m.

Between 5 and 6 the occupants of the house came to the conclusion that the men were gone.

It was not till 9 o'clock on Monday morning that the Civic Guards were notified of the occurrence.

Chief Supt. McCarthy and Supt. Brady, as well as a large number of Guards and detectives were at Mr. Troy's residence on Monday.

The car was found abandoned early on Monday at Knockree, on a bye-road leading from Cahir to Clonmel, towards Fethard, about half a mile from the well-known land mark Moll's Cross. The number plates which had borne the letters "K.I." had been taken off, and replaced by plates bearing the letters, "I.N."

In addition to Mr. Troy, the other occupants of the house were his wife, daughter, and a maid servant. They informed the Press that the raiders were most courteous and appeared to be rather nice young men.

DEATH OF MRS. H. GEARY,

BRIDGE STREET, LISMORE

Deep regret as been caused by the death of Mrs. Hanora Geary, Lismore, which occurred at her residence Bridge street, on Monday 20th ult., after a rather brief illness.

She was the wife of Mr. Joseph Geary, Merchant and Steamship Agent, and one of the most popular and best-respected citizens of the town of Lismore.

Spring from an old and highly-respected family in Cork City, the deceased was always noted for her kind and amiable disposition wherever she went, and she never failed to lend the hand of help to assuage the sorrows and sufferings of others when the chance came her way.

She was a lady of many other excellent traits of character which endeared her to all classes during her long and honourable connection with Lismore.

A devout and exemplary Catholic, she died a most peaceful and happy death after having received the last Sacraments of the Church she had loved so well.

Her premature death at a comparatively early age has proved a great blow to her respected husband, sisters and relatives, but they may be consoled in the knowledge that they now the deepest sympathy of all in their sad bereavement.

On Tuesday evening the remains were removed from her late residence to St. Carthage's Cathedral, Lismore, when there was a remarkable attendance of the general public from all parts.

Requiem Office and High Mass was celebrated for the repose of her soul on Wednesday morning. The celebrant was Rev. M. Power, C.C., Lismore.

In the choir were: Very Rev. Canon Prendergast, P.P., Tallow; Very Rev. Mr. Fitzgerald, P.P., Cappoquin; Rev. T. O'Gorman, C.C., Lismore; Rev. T. Dunphy, C.C., Cappoquin; Rev. T. Murphy, C.C., Lismore; Rev. F. D'Shea, C.C., Stradbally.

The funeral took place immediately afterwards to the adjoining cemetery, when there was a further manifestation of public sympathy owing to the large and representative cortege which was attended by all the leading people in Lismore and many other parts of West Waterford and East Cork.

The chief mourners were—Mr. Joseph Geary (husband); Mrs. F. McCarthy, Cork and Mrs. K. McCarthy, do. (sisters); Mr. Chris. McCarthy (nephew); Misses Nina, Mary and Josie McCarthy, Cork. (nieces); Robert Smyth, Listinny Castle, Tallow; Miss Madge Smyth, Bride View, Glenbeg; Michael Byrne, Round Hill, Lismore; Mr. and Mrs. Michael Foley, do.; Miss Alice Byrne, do. (relatives).

Amongst the general public were—Mr. A. Drohan, Manager Gas Works, Lismore; D. Noonan, M.L.A.A., J. O'Gorman, solr., Lismore; J. P. Daly, do.; A. Hickey, P.C., do.; E. A. Murphy, P.C., do.; T. Crotty, do.; J. Crotty, do.; M. McCarthy, do.; Dr. Heskin, Ballyduff; F. Daly, do.; J. Ross, Lismore; Mrs. Moore, do.; J. O'Donnell, do.; Dr. Healy, do.; Dr. Donnelly, Headview; J. F. O'Donnell, do.; D. Branfield, do.; M. J. Sargent, Cappoquin, etc., etc.

DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. Ml. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the above on Friday last. Also present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman; S. Hayes, J. Dahill, D. Foley, M. Clancy, P. Quann, P. O'Dwyer, J. Christopher, J. F. Foley, J. Butler, P. Byrne.

Finance

A paysheet for £16 13s. 5d., and other payments amounting to £84 2s. 9d., were passed.

Arising out of items in the paysheet under the heading Town's Improvement, Mr. Dahill asked what did it include. He could not see any improvements.

B.S. said it included work not connected with the roads or water account. With regard to the roads, he had a trap ready to put down in the Quay, but it is not the Council's duty now.

Mr. Clancy—We have nothing to do with the roads now. Chairman—It is now a matter for the Co. Council.

Limit Of Officialdom

Mr. McCarthy—All the members remember the application of Mr. James Barron, O'Connell street, for permission to erect a small hut to enable him to carry on his business while improving his present premises. The Council recommended Mr. Barron to apply to the Co. Council, who had then taken over the roads. He (Mr. McCarthy) heard that Mr. Barron refused the application of Mr. Barron, and he thought the Council should enter a strong protest against the action of Mr. Barron. If Mr. Barron had got the contract he (Mr. McCarthy) held there would be no refusal.

Mr. Quann—I am not going to say anything about the contract, but I certainly say the refusal of this application is officialdom carried to the extreme limit. This man is going to give employment to 12 or 13 men for some months, and he should be encouraged. He thought the whole matter should be brought under the notice of the Commissioner. If it was a main street he would not object, but it is a dead end where gipsies, tinkers and such like put up. He saw those people spending nights there. He would say again that it is officialdom brought to the extreme limit.

Chairman—I was more than surprised at the request being refused. I think it is a reasonable request and one required by Mr. Barron to enable him to carry on his business.

Mr. McCarthy supported the remarks of the previous speakers and said the proposed structure would not be an inconvenience to anybody.

Mr. J. F. Foley—Isn't it the idea of the Government to support it under the terms of the Commissioner. If it was a main street he would not object, but it is a dead end where gipsies, tinkers and such like put up. He saw those people spending nights there. He would say again that it is officialdom brought to the extreme limit.

Chairman—I was more than surprised at the request being refused. I think it is a reasonable request and one required by Mr. Barron to enable him to carry on his business.

Mr. McCarthy proposed, and Mr. Quann, seconded, the following resolution which was passed unanimously:—That Commissioner Moynihan be requested to allow Mr. James Barron, O'Connell street, to construct a temporary structure at the gable of Mr. J. Well's house O'Connell street, during the reconstruction of his house.

The Urban Council consider that this will be no inconvenience to the general public and there will be no necessity to open the street.

Milk Tests

Mr. R. P. Byrne, M.R.C.V.S., reported the following result of a milk test on samples of milk taken:—P. Curran, Glenmore Dairy—Good; Christian Brothers, Good; Wm. O'Donnell, Youghal Road—Satisfactory.

Use Of Hall

The following Clubs were granted the use of the hall—Dungarvan Excursion Club, Friday, C.A.A. Club, Sunday, May 10th; Ballinroad Club, Sunday.

Full Lodgment Of Rates Warrant

The rate collector applied for poundage on the rate collection, the full amount of which was lodged.

Payment was approved subject to signature.

Mr. Clancy said the collector deserved the thanks of the Council. He also paid a tribute to the ratepayers for paying so promptly.

INJURY TO WORKMAN

At the Waterford Circuit Court before Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C.

There was a claim against the Waterford County Council under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

Mr. Bannone (instructed by Mr. H. Shannon, solr., Clonmel) for the applicant, representative of a man named Houlihan, said the case arose from an accident which occurred at a place known as Boola Bridge. Deceased was employed by the Co. Council, and on December 21st last was working with two other men on the road at Boola. A heavy downpour of rain came on, and the men took their bicycles to cycle to the shelter of some trees. The other two men went first, and it was when deceased was following them that the accident occurred. No one saw what happened, but deceased was lying on the road near his bicycle at Boola Bridge suffering from head injuries, from which he died on December 24th.

In evidence one of the workmen said that the last he saw of the deceased he was walking after them with his bicycle. Witness later heard a crash and saw deceased lying on the side of the road. He went to where deceased was and saw a scratch on the stone fence on the left hand side of the road, as if it had been struck by the handlebars. Deceased was bleeding from the nose and seemed badly injured. He was taken to Clonmel Hospital and died subsequently.

The respondents, for whom Mr. Budd, B.L., appeared, contended that the deceased was not killed while engaged in his employment as a County Council worker. It was suggested by counsel that the workman's death was caused by an accident to

FOOTBALL AT DUNGARVAN

On Sunday last at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, two Junior Football matches were decided. The weather conditions prevailing made good football practically impossible as a gale of wind down the field made it very difficult for the team defending the road goal to make any progress, with the result that all the scoring was done by the teams when playing with the wind with the exception of one point scored by Killorossanty against Dungarvan towards the end, when the wind had somewhat moderated.

The first match was between the newly-formed Pike team and Stradbally Juniors. Playing with the wind in the first half the Pike boys took a long time to settle down, wide after wide being the order, until finally T. Cowman raised a white flag. Three further points from Bowe ended the first half leaving the score at—PIKE 0-0 STRADBALLY 0-0

The second half saw the Stradbally team attacking, with the Pike back line putting up a strenuous resistance, but their more experienced rivals were not to be held and ran out 2 goals and 5 points. The Final scores read:—PIKE 0-0 STRADBALLY 2-5

The teams were:—Stradbally—P. Wall, P. O'Meara, R. Kieley, M. Veale, J. O'Meara, J. Burke, M. Halihan, M. Connors, M. Power, J. Begley, M. Keane, A. Fleming, M. Halpin, S. Begley, J. Lucey.

The Pike—T. Lynch, J. Fennell, T. Fennell, P. Dunford, W. Barry, P. Dunford, J. Fahey, P. Daly, J. Carlton, M. Casey, J. Bowe, P. Cowman, G. Tobin, M. Flynn, T. Cowman.

In the second match between Killorossanty and Dungarvan Juniors, the former proved altogether too good for their opponents and with the aid of the wind in the first half despite the stubborn resistance of the Dungarvan back line, in which T. O'Gorman, P. Noonan, and McAllister, were outstanding, they succeeded in scoring a goal and 5 points to a virgin's sheet for Dungarvan.

In the second moiety the Dungarvan supporters had great hopes that the lead would be substantially reduced, but they were disappointed as their forwards were for a long time unable to penetrate the Killorossanty defence. Two points to Dungarvan in succession enlivened matters, but they were unable to stay the pace and Killorossanty working up field succeeded in scoring a point, the only one scored at the railway goal during the course of the two matches.

Final scores:—KILROSSANTY 1-6 DUNGARVAN 0-2

Mr. P. Moloney, Ag. Sec., held the whistle for both matches and gave general satisfaction.

The teams were:—Killorossanty—P. Walsh, P. Veale, T. Veale, M. Veale, J. Moroney, P. Dalton, T. Power, W. Power, J. Higgins, J. Coffey, D. Walsh, J. Crotty.

Dungarvan—P. Nagle, T. O'Gorman, M. Fives, M. Fraher, F. Houlihan, W. Coleman, P. Lannon, R. McAllister, J. McCarthy, P. J. Morrissey, M. Devine, J. Waters, D. Sullivan, P. Noonan, W. Stack.

By The Way—"Mrs. Mulligan's Millions," is to be staged at the Hall, Kilmacthomas, on next Sunday night, in conjunction with a select Concertual card. The proceeds will be devoted to the same laudable object—the Parochial Debt—and young and old of the town and district are expected to be in attendance.

At the monthly meeting of the above Committee, Power, and Sub-Committee Thomas Flynn, V.C.

There were also present: B. Sheridan, N. Walsh, M. Hickey, M. Kelly, J. Cunningham.

Messrs. T. R. Mulcahy, Hyatt, V.S., J. J. Walsh, P. Byrne, V.S., also attended.

Sympathy

The Chairman proposed sympathy with the colleagues of Mr. Murphy, on the death of Very Rev. John Murphy, bally. Mr. Cunningham.

Mr. Foley (Clerk) assented with the resolution as directed by V.S., on behalf of the Inspectors.

The resolution was passed. Late Mrs. Foley, B.M.A. Foley, Clerk, thanked the members for their solution of sympathy on the mother. Also the Veterans for their association with it to be inserted on the minutes.

Warble Fly Order Clerk—Since our last Warble Fly Order has been issued, and I have prepared report on the matter. The following:—

In view of the far-reaching of the Warble Fly Order, which was developed Executive Committee under of Animals' Acts, I intend to submit for your information report in connection with the Order in the County.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances were not in a position to attend the meeting of the Order in the County, which the Order came into operation. On that date the Inspectors reported to the Veterinary Inspectors, and took up duty.

The Inspectors are returning record of each day's work at the end of each week, and a return of the work done will be forwarded to the Veterinary Inspectors, and then to this office, and compiled in form.

At the monthly meeting of the above Committee, Mr. P. R. Power, and subsequently Mr. Thomas Flynn, V.C., presided. There were also present—Messrs. P. B. Sheridan, N. Walsh, G. Morrissey, M. Hickey, M. Kelly, J. Fenton and J. Cunningham.

Messrs. T. R. Mulcahy, V.S., C. P. Hynes, V.S., J. J. Walsh, V.S., and R. P. Byrne, V.S., also attended.

Sympathy

The Chairman proposed a vote of sympathy with their colleague, Mr. Robert Murphy, on the death of his brother—Very Rev. John Murphy, P.P., Stradally. Mr. Cunningham seconded.

Mr. Foley (Clerk) associated himself with the resolution as did Mr. T. R. Mulcahy, V.S., on behalf of the Veterinary Inspectors.

The resolution was passed in silence.

Late Mrs. Foley, Ballytra.

The Chairman read a letter from Mr. M. A. Foley, Clerk to Committee, thanking the members for their kind resolution of sympathy on the death of his mother. Also the Veterinary Inspectors for their association with same. Ordered to be inserted on the minutes.

Warble Fly Order

Clerk—Since our last meeting the Warble Fly Order has come into operation, and I have prepared the following report on the matter. The report was as follows:—

In view of the far-reaching importance of the Warble Fly Order—the enforcement of which was devolved upon the Executive Committee under the Diseases of Animals' Acts, I consider it desirable to submit for your information a short report in connection with the operation of the Order in the County.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances the Committee were not in a position to make the appointment of the Inspectors required for the purposes of the Order until your Meeting on Saturday, 14th March, 1936, but, despite the limited time, the notices of appointment, official instruction and explanatory literature were in the hands of all the Inspectors on the morning of the 16th March, the date in which the Order came into effective operation. On that date the several Veterinary Inspectors, received instructions and took up duty.

The inspectors are required to keep a record of each day's work and to furnish at the end of each week on the official form a return of the work done. In accordance with your directions, those weekly returns are in the first instance forwarded to the Veterinary Inspectors Area for examination and then transmitted to this office, and compiled into statistical form.

I have very carefully gone through the weekly reports forwarded by the Inspectors and I respectfully submit for your attention the following observations arising from my examination of same.

The provisions of the Order have been welcomed by stock-owners generally throughout the county. The Inspectors in every district they have visited realise that it is in their own interests, and in the interests of the cattle trade generally to adopt the measures prescribed with a view to eradicating the warble fly pest. The majority of owners appear to be most anxious and willing to comply with the provisions of the Order. A much larger number of cattle would have been dressed during the last three weeks were it not for the fact that farmers were very busy with tillage operations. In a few remote mountainous districts such as Ballyduff Upper and Ballysaggart, cattle owners are rather slow in having their cattle dressed and if an improvement does not take place at an early date, it would be well to have seven day notices as to detention and treatment served on defaulters as laid down by Article 8 of the Order. This Article provides that Inspectors must first obtain authority from the Local Authority before serving such notices on defaulting cattle owners. To obviate the necessity of summoning weekly meetings, it might be advisable if the Committee delegated their authority in this connection to the Veterinary Inspectors and empowered them to deal directly with such cases and direct the lay Inspectors to serve notices on owners of cattle who persist in refusing to comply with the requirements of the Order.

It is a general feature of the Inspector's reports that in the opening weeks of the treatment period the great majority of infested animals comprised yearling bullocks and heifers, and that very few old cattle or cows were found to be infested. The incidence of warbled cattle would appear to be much greater in mountainous districts and open country than in districts where cattle have access to the shade of trees or to streams and ponds in which they can stand. A case worthy of note has been submitted by Inspector Murphy (Youghal No. 2 District). He squeezed six warbles from a 9-month-old calf which had been confined to a house since its birth. The question arises as to how this animal became infested.

The weekly returns received from the Inspectors to date cover the 5 weeks ended the 18th April, 1936. A tabulated statement showing the work done by each Inspector during this period has been circulated to each member.

In the 5 weeks the Order has been in operation, Inspector John Hassel—Carrick-on-Suir area) visited 436 farmers, 107 of those had warbles on their cattle. He examined in all 10,920 cattle and found warbles on 2,173. Dressings were applied to 4,107 cattle.

Inspector E. Power (Clonmel) visited 313 cattle owners, 122 of those had warbles on their cattle. He examined 6,409 cattle and found 955 with warbles and 877 cattle were treated by dressings.

Inspector James Power (Dungarvan Area), visited 241 cattle owners and found cattle belonging to 149 owners affected. He examined 5,474 cattle, found 993 affected with warbles and had 782 treated by dressing.

Inspector E. Whelan, (Dungarvan Area), visited 186 cattle owners and found cattle belonging to 77 owners affected with warbles. He examined 2,040 cattle, found 597 affected and had 502 treated by dressing.

Inspector T. Hassel (Kilmachthomas Area), visited 420 owners and found cattle belonging to 178 affected. He examined 9,067 cattle and found 2,520 affected with warbles. He treated by dressing 2,549.

Inspector L. O'Donnell, Lismore Area), visited 390 cattle owners, found the cattle of 134 owners affected with warbles. He examined 4,708 cattle and found 1,758 affected. He treated by dressing 1,729 and 36 by squeezing.

Inspector J. M. O'Neill (Lismore Area), visited 169 owners and found the cattle of 118 owners affected. He examined 3,686 and found 1,344 affected with warbles. He treated 1,397 by dressing and 29 by squeezing.

Inspector J. Phelan (Waterford Area) visited 246 owners and found the cattle of 130 owners affected. He examined 6,597 cattle and found 1,137 cattle affected. He treated 1,137 by dressing.

Inspector J. Power (Waterford Area) visited 315 owners and found the cattle of 66 owners affected. He examined 2,734 cattle and found 1,696 affected with warble. He treated 1,278 by dressing.

Inspector J. A. Murphy, (Youghal No. 2 Area), visited 124 owners and found the cattle of 121 owners affected. He examined 4,391 cattle and found 1,666 affected. He treated 1,278 by dressing.

Mr. Mulcahy, V.S.—Is it only the cattle affected that are to be treated?

Clerk—The Order lays down that cattle visibly affected are to be treated.

Mr. Mulcahy—Who is to judge whether they are visibly affected or not?

Clerk—The Inspectors.

Mr. Mulcahy said it was absolutely impossible to examine 10,000 cattle over a whole district. If a farmer says his cattle are not affected he must treat them.

Mr. Byrne said it would be a good thing if the Inspectors would let the Veterinary Surgeons know each week the districts they would be operating in the following week, as if that were done they would give the Inspectors a good deal of assistance. At present when the Vets go to one place they find the Fly Inspectors were there a few days previously.

Mr. Mulcahy, V.S., said the 15th March was a ridiculous time to start after the warble fly. Only last week he saw cattle slaughtered and the immature warbles were under the skin which no one could find. If the Inspectors started later it would be much better. There was no use in dressing except the warble was beginning to come through.

Mr. Hynes, V.S., said the Free State Order was an exact copy of the English Order. It was no use dressing cattle until the warbles were in a certain advanced state.

Mr. Walsh, V.S., thought the starting time—15th March—too early.

Chairman—Do you think the warbles would be appearing after the treatment period?

Mr. Mulcahy—Yes.

Mr. Byrne—The order cannot be varied this year.

Mr. Walsh, V.S., said only on the previous day at an inspection of a beast that was slaughtered he saw the immature warbles and no Inspector could find them where they were.

Chairman—Are you all satisfied that the Fly Inspectors were doing their work efficiently and without any complaints?

The Veterinary Surgeons said yes.

Mr. Mulcahy said the month of March was a ridiculous month to be looking for warbles.

The Department wrote stating that under no circumstances should any Inspectors under the Warble Fly Order make private gain by being engaged in the selling, etc., of approved cattle wash preparations.

A copy of the letter was ordered to be sent to each Inspector.

The Department also wrote that the Temporary Fly Inspectors should be insured under the National Health, Employment Insurance and Widows' and Orphans' Insurance. Approved.

Site For 9 Tank

The payment of £5 for the site of a Dipping Tank with £17s. 6d., legal costs sanctioned by the Department in respect of a tank near Halfway and owned by Mr. E. Power, Doon, was passed.

Mr. Mulcahy, V.S.—The site was not worth 2/6.

W. Hickey—The place was always looked upon as a commonage.

Chairman—Mr. Power proved his title to the place.

Locum Tenens

£2 2s. a week was passed to Mr. W. Power, V.S., for doing duty for Mr. Mulcahy, V.S., Clonmel, for 2 weeks. Payment is subject to sanction.

Increases Wanted

D Nugent, Mountain Ranger, Carrick-on-Suir area, applied for £5 increase in his salary. His present salary is £10.

Mr. W. Fraher, Bleantis, Mountain Ranger, Dungarvan and Kilmachthomas Mountain districts, applied to have his salary raised from £15 to £24 a year.

Chairman—These men are only appointed from year to year.

Mr. Byrne, V.S., said Fraher was a very efficient mountain ranger.

Chairman—How many days has Fraher to work?

Mr. Byrne, V.S.—14 days, and he delivers the notices to the owners also.

Mr. Hynes, V.S., said Fraher had 4 days in the Kilmachthomas district.

Mr. P. R. Power thought if £2 extra were given to the Carrick-on-Suir ranger as was given to the Clonmel ranger last year it might do.

Mr. Cunningham proposed they get £5 each.

Mr. Hickey—What are their duties?

Mr. Byrne—To notify the owners of mountain sheep of the Dippings and to see the sheep are dipped.

Mr. Hickey—Fraher has a big area and I think he should get £5.

It was eventually agreed to give Nugent £2 and Fraher £4 increase.

Lismore Tanks

Mr. Hynes, V.S., reported that P. Murphy, Glendine and P. Fitzgerald, Carrinogour, had offered him their private Dipping tanks to be used as public tanks. They would give the tanks free, but would be paid for supervising the dipping. He recommended that they be accepted.

It was ordered that Dyrick tank be repaired at a cost of £2 10s.

Mr. Hynes also stated in his report that sheep owners in Knockmaldown East and West had represented to him the advantage of using Nicobrand Dip. They said the sheep had kept remarkably clean after being dipped in it.

Mountain Rangers

All the Mountain rangers in the Comeragh and Knockmaldown Mountain Areas were reappointed.

Tenders For Dip

Mr. I. J. Crotty, Dungarvan tendered to supply Burke's Liquid Dip at 4/4 per gallon and Nicobrand Dip at 4/4 per gallon.

Messrs. H. Bell, Ltd., Waterford, tendered to supply approved Sheep Dip at 2/4 per gallon.

It was stated that the sulphur mixed with the Dip worked very well last year.

The Chairman said Bell's Dip was the lowest.

As to the question of the cost, Mr. Hynes said it was not a question of price, but of quality.

Chairman—You have no experience of Bell's Dip.

Mr. Mulcahy—The addition of sulphur to the Dip last year was a great advantage.

Mr. Cunningham said the sulphur should be tried again this year.

The committee accepted the tenders for Burke's and Nicobrand Dips subject to the sanction of the Department.

Cattle Slaughtered

Under the Tuberculosis Act, 50 cattle in the County were slaughtered in the past quarter and the compensation allowed for them was £17 15s. od. The remaining business was routine.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

SUNDAY'S OUTRAGE—
The appalling crime which was perpetrated in the streets of Dungarvan last Sunday night has cast a mantle of gloom over the town and its people which time alone can dispel.

Young Egan was dancing merrily in the Town Hall that night and on the way home he partook of a glass of milk.
A moment later he was called towards a motor car across the street and riddled with bullets. So swift and sudden was the shooting that people in the vicinity thought it was only the back-firing of a motor. When the truth was realised words could not be found to adequately convey the horror of the people who were almost overcome by the terrible murder enacted at their doors. During the week it has been the sole topic of conversation and the name of Dungarvan has found its way to every corner of the world.

Let us hope that never again will the old town witness the spilling of human blood under such circumstances and that the Almighty will spare our people from His Wrath thus provoked. The good priests of Dungarvan have the sympathy of the entire community in the stain on their hitherto stainless parish.

LATE JOHN FITZGERALD,
BLEANTIS
Deep sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald, Bleantis, on the death of their son John, after a brief illness. The deceased who was only 26 years of age was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. A good upright young man, and a good living Catholic, he passed away to the great regret of his family, friends and acquaintances. The funeral to Knockboy graveyard was largely attended.

DEATH OF MRS. O'CONNOR
SHANBALLY
On Monday last the death occurred at her residence Shanbally, Kilmossany, of Mrs. Ellen O'Connor. She had reached a good age and was a general favourite with all who ever regret her demise.

On Tuesday evening the remains were removed to the Parish Church, Kilmossany, and on Wednesday, after Requiem Masses for the repose of her soul the interment took place in the adjoining graveyard.—R.I.P.

DEATH OF MR. JAMES FLAVIN,
CARRIGEEN
The death took place at his residence
Carrigeen, Killy's Cross, on April, 10th, of Mr. James Flavin, one of the most respected farmers in the district. He passed away in his 76th year after a brief illness fortified by the rites of the Church.

The funeral to the family burial ground at Clashmore was of immense proportions and in keeping with the respect entertained for him and the members of his family. A sound Irishman and a practical farmer, he was one of the most popular men in the district and held in the highest esteem.

BALLINAMULT BALL ALLEY
The result of the Prize drawing in aid of the above resulted as follows:—winning ticket No. 678 (E. Keane, Ballina-guilkee); 2nd No. 462 (Mrs. Scanlan, Coolaneen, Cappoquin); 3rd No. 38
(Laurence Cliffe, Ballinamult).

DEATH OF MRS. LANDERS,
KILMINTON
The death of Mrs. Landers, Kilminton,
Dungarvan, relict of the late Thomas
Landers, occurred last week after a brief illness fortified by the rites of the Church.
Deceased was mother of Sister Mary
Raphael, Convent of Mercy, Herberton.

The funeral to Ballinroad was large and representative. The interment took place at Kilminton. The chief mourners were—John and Michael Landers (sons); Mrs. Doran, Cork and Mrs. Rockett, Tramore (daughters); M. and J.
Nugent (brothers); Mrs. Tobin, Modelago (sister); Guard Doran and D. Rockett (sons-in-law); J. Landers, Ring,
(brother-in-law); Miss Landers, Square
Dungarvan (sister-in-law); J. Tobin, J.
Higgins, J. Power, Mrs. Nugent, Miss
Landers, Technical School, Dungarvan;
Miss Higgins and Miss Delaney, N.T.,
Tallow.

STATE PATHOLOGIST—
Dr. McGrath, the eminent State Pathologist, who gave evidence at the inquest on John Egan, on Monday evening is a brilliant West Waterford Surgeon, and is son of the late Mr. John McGrath,
Laurel, and of Mrs. McGrath, Mount
Rivers, Cappoquin.

A CLOSE SHAVE—
Following the Dungarvan shooting on Sunday night motorists were held up in all the surrounding counties. Near Cork a motor car refused to halt when called upon to do so. Shots were fired over the car and it then pulled up. The occupants thought they were being illegally held up at the time—hence their going ahead.

DUNGARVAN MARKETS—
Meal (special) 20/-; middicut 19/-;
flour 20/- and 21/- per 100 lbs.; bran 8/-;
pollard 8/- and 8 1/2 cwt., coal 40/- ton.

SUNDAY'S CRIME
Up to the time of going to Press no arrest has been made by the Authorities in connection with last Sunday night's horrible deed in Dungarvan streets. During the week there has been considerable activity by Guards and Detectives over a wide area.

LABOURER'S CLAIM—
"Refused Medical Treatment"
At the Waterford Circuit Court last week in an appeal under the workmen's Compensation Act by James Brett, Kil-macthomas, against a previous award in favour of Wm. Fitzgerald, labourer, finding him totally incapacitated and fixing compensation at 18/6 a week. Counsel asked for a termination of the compensation as the man refused to submit to treatment.

Evidence was given by Dr. White, Dr.
McCarthy, Dungarvan and Dr. Abreu, after which his Lordship ruled that the compensation go on subject to Fitzgerald undergoing treatment for a month.

WELL-KNOWN CITIZEN
PASSES AWAY
In the fullness of years Mr. Michael Duggan, Strand street, Dungarvan, has passed away. He was one of the old stock and a celebrity whom to know was

SYMPATHY—
Caheroulis (Co. Limerick) Co-Op
Creamery, at their annual meeting passed a resolution of sympathy with their Chairman—Rev. T. Ahearne, St. John's, Waterford, on the death of his brother-in-law—the late John McCartan, Grey Abbey, Co. Down.

ON THE MAP—
On Monday last Dungarvan was visited by Reporters and Press Photographers from all the Irish Daily papers and also by representatives of the Press Association and the cross-Channel papers anxious to get first hand details of the crime of the previous night. Dungarvan has earned notoriety in a way her citizens would very well do without and hopes never again to find herself in such a spotlight.

YOUGHAL URBAN COUNCIL

Present—Messrs. P. J. O'Gorman, P.C., Chairman, M. D. Broderick, M. Ahern, W. O'Sullivan, R. Savage, T. Beausang, J. Daly, B.E., E. P. Lynch, T. K. Keane, sovr., J. N. R. Macnamara, sovr., J. Forrest, R. Power, E. D. Condon, Capt. C. Watson.

Mrs. Hurley's Conservatory Mr. Power said he had asked the question at last meeting regarding the action of the Council if Mrs. Hurley turned her conservatory on the Strand into a shop, which he believed had taken place.

The Chairman—The moment we ascertain definitely that that has taken place we shall take action against her.

Gas Stokers The Gas Stokers wrote applying for an increase of 1/2 weekly in their wage owing to their hard work and long hours.

Sympathy Mr. Lynch proposed a vote of sympathy with the relatives of the late Jeremiah and Laurence Kelliher. It was a very sad occurrence, both father and son, dying within a couple of hours. He proposed a similar vote to John Gleeson, one of their staff on the death of his mother.

The Chairman said they all associated themselves with that proposition. It was a very tragic occurrence. Both were good types of Irishmen and had done a lot of useful work for the Council. Laurence Kelliher was snatched away in the prime of his manhood, and his death was a great loss to his sisters.

Pig Markets Mr. Lynch suggested that a copy of their resolution on the Pig Market question be sent to the Cork Association. Mr. Broderick said on that very day pigs had to be taken home, which would have been bought if the buyers had attended.

Mr. Lynch said that proved that they wanted competition. Under the new regulations, pigs with an extra bit of fat would be rejected. That was what they should try to stop.

Mr. Broderick said the man in the business could place those pigs where they were wanted.

Mr. Power said he had personal experience of the serious loss caused by the new scheme. The Clerk was directed to send a copy of the resolution to the Cork Association.

Closing Of Rates The L.G. wrote regarding the closing of the rate book on the day fixed. The Minister refused to be involved in the arrangement proposed by the Council.

Mr. Power—The gent who wrote that gets his couple of thousand a year. It is fine and easy for him to talk. Mr. Broderick—The matter is taken out of our hands.

It was decided to send a copy of the letter to the Collector.

Building Extension Mr. Michael Walsh, Building Contractor, wrote stating that as building was extending along the Main Road Cork-Youghal, the main sewer would have to be extended. If the Council provided the necessary pipes, he would provide the labour.

The Chairman—That would be a good bargain. Mr. Walsh has done a man's part in the building line.

On the proposition of Mr. Broderick, seconded by Mr. Savage, it was unanimously decided to comply with the offer.

Demolition Question Mr. J. Daly, South Main Street, wrote stating that he was prepared to give an undertaking regarding Kenny's Lane, similar to that given in connection with the condemned houses at Copperalley and Water Lane.

The matter was referred to the Council's solicitors, Messrs. Hodnett, and also to the Minister for L.G.

New Housing Scheme The L.G. wrote stating that the Minister for Local Government and Public Health had nothing to add to that Department's letter of the 27th ult., relative to the proposal of the Council to erect 3-roomed houses only under their proposed housing scheme. At the same time they requested information as to whether the Council proposed to take any action to reduce the arrears of rents on the houses already provided by them.

The Chairman—There's a problem for you. How are we to collect the arrears? Mr. Broderick said the Minister wanted the Council to build 4-roomed houses and at the same time called on them to press the tenants who were not able to pay for a 3-roomed one. He proposed they adhere to the 3-roomed house.

Mr. Forrest said the Government were giving them a free grant of £3,000 to help them take the poor people out of the slums. They should not let the opportunity pass. He proposed they adopt the Minister's suggestion.

Mr. Savage agreed with Mr. Forrest. The Minister understood their position. They had done very little to provide houses as compared with other towns.

Mr. Broderick said the Council had submitted a plan to the Local Government for converting the present 3-roomed houses into 4-roomed, but it was turned down and the scheme thereby held up. The present houses were adequate for the people who wanted them.

Mr. Power said the extra cost of 4-roomed houses would be small. If they adopted the Minister's suggestion, it would give employment and take the poor people out of the slums. He seconded Mr. Forrest.

Mr. Keane said the situation created by the Minister was rather Gilbertian.

He asked them to build bigger houses and at the same time called on them to take action against the present tenants who were not able to pay for the smaller ones. One thing must happen. The people would not be able to pay the rent, and if the Council had to get them out, the houses would ultimately get into the hands of people for whom they were not originally intended and thereby defeat the very object of the Act.

Mr. Macnamara, seconded Mr. Broderick. The Chairman said they were all desirous of going ahead with the building of houses. The arrears of rent of the present schemes of 3-roomed houses were accumulating weekly. Undoubtedly the situation would be even worse if they built 4-roomed houses. The Minister was forcing them to do what they should not do.

Mr. Macnamara said while he agreed with a great deal of what Mr. Forrest had said, they should not altogether overlook the ratepayers, who were going through very hard times. Mr. Savage said he associated himself with the fine Christian sentiments and statements of Mr. Forrest. The amount of difference between the cost of erecting seven 4-roomed houses out of the 28 would be very little. They were not now in the famine years; they controlled their own destinies.

Mr. Lynch said the present tenants had come out of the worst slums and they could look forward to a better class of tenants for the new scheme. To build 7 4-roomed houses out of 28 would not be such a big matter.

Capt. Watson said it would be a short-sighted policy to confine building 3-roomed houses when they knew that 4-roomed were essential for some families.

The Clerk said that the improvement in the health of the families, and especially the children, who had been put into the new houses was most apparent.

After a further very protracted discussion, a poll was taken as follows:— For 3 and 4-roomed houses:—Messrs. Watson, Savage, Power, O'Sullivan, Beausang, Forrest, Lynch and Daly—8. For 3-roomed only—Messrs. Macnamara, Keane, Broderick, Condon, Ahern, and the Chairman—6.

It was therefore decided to comply with the Minister's requirements. Mr. Power—It is all a matter of party. Mr. Daly—I object to that statement.

The Chairman said the matter was ended.

Free Milk Scheme A letter was read from the L.G.D. re the Free Milk Scheme, stating that tenders for the supplying of milk for the 11 months ending 31st March, 1937, should be forwarded to the Department with an indication of the one it was proposed to accept.

The Clerk said that the Co. M.O.H. suggested certain improvements in the Market House, which was used as a Milk Depot. The Council were satisfied to carry out the suggestions, but the L.G. wanted to have the milk delivered to the homes of the recipients. The contract price of milk distributed at the Depot was 8d. per gallon. The only tender they had received for delivery at the homes of the people concerned was 2/- per gallon. Therefore, if they had to adopt the suggestion of the L.G. it would mean that only one-third of the poor families would receive the milk.

Mr. Macnamara—That is scandalous. Mr. Daly—These poor people have to come down every morning for their messages and they could get the milk at the same time from the Depot, and the children have to come every day to school. If the L.G. insist on their view, it will mean that only one-third of the poor kiddies will get the free milk.

Mr. Power—It is utterly ridiculous. Mr. Lynch—How long is the scheme on?

The Clerk—Four years. Mr. Lynch—And now the L.G. comes along and wants to upset it. I think there is something radically wrong. The present contractor took it on for six months.

The Chairman—They will smash any contract they like. Mr. Broderick—You only accepted it subject to the Minister's sanction.

Mr. Lynch said he was personally aware that Mr. McGrath had purchased extra cows to enable him to carry out the contract, and had gone to considerable expense otherwise.

Replying to a question, the Clerk said that Mr. McGrath had given every satisfaction.

Mr. Lynch said that all their arguments had been ignored by the Department. Before the Minister was elected to his job, Mr. McGrath, like many others had gone out and chanced his life.

The Chairman—That has got nothing to do with the matter. What is the use of bringing it up? Mr. Lynch—I am voicing my feelings regarding the shabby way the old I.R.A. were treated by the late and the present Governments. When jobs were going they were given to others. The Old I.R.A. should form a strong organisation to press their claims on the Government.

Mr. Daly said he always thought that contracts were in a way sacred and here they had the responsible Minister breaking it.

Mr. Broderick said from a humanitarian point of view it would be an absolute scandal if the Minister insisted upon a house to house delivery thereby depriving some 40 families of the Free Milk.

The Clerk said he had pointed out that about 130 children would be affected. After a further protracted discussion, it was decided to invite Dr. Condy down to go into the matter with him.

Finance Committee Report The Finance Committee submitted a report recommending an increase of 10 weekly to the Gas Manager, and from 10 to 15 per cent. for the summer months to the Manager of the Ferry. They also recommended a reduction in the price of

COFFEY & BERESFORD, BOOT, SHOE & OUTFITTERS THE SMALL PROFIT WAREHOUSE DUNGARVAN

A GOLF CASE

JUDGE'S ADVICE TAKEN At the Waterford Circuit Court last week, before Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C., an unexpected conclusion was reached in the action brought by Miss Mary Hynes, Tramore, against the Committee of the Tramore Golf Club. Plaintiff, who had completed her evidence, sought three things: (1) A declaration that the resolution passed by the Committee of the Tramore Golf Club on 16th December, 1935, purporting to expel her from the club was null and void; (2) a declaration that she is still a member of the club; and (3) an injunction restraining the Committee from interfering with her in the exercise of her rights as a member of the club.

The case had aroused widespread interest, and a large gathering of golfers from all over Munster was present. Before any evidence was called for the defence, His Lordship said that before they went on he would like to say something at this stage of the case. Remarkably that he had a great interest in Waterford and the Hynes from the club, but after all, the Committee was a committee, and if they thought that any member was guilty of some sort of conduct it was their duty to take cognisance of it and to stop it. He had not to try whether Miss Hynes used these unpleasant words or not, and he was not going to decide that, but he felt he certainly would be satisfied that the Committee believed she used these words, and if the Committee believed she used these words, he thought they were justified in asking for an apology, and he thought Miss Hynes herself really was willing to give an apology. Then, through blunders on one side or the other, no proper apology was ever given.

Pointing out that the action had already been going on for three days, Judge Sealy said it looked as if the parties were being drawn along by some malignant fate. But he thought there was time to bring some peace to the parties. Miss Hynes undoubtedly believed, and was satisfied, that she did not use these words as Mr. McCarthy had stated. Mr. Jennings was going to say he heard these words, and if Mr. Jennings stated that, he (his Lordship) certainly would be satisfied that the Committee had reasonable grounds for acting in the way they did.

At the present moment, Judge Sealy continued, his mind was slightly in favour of the defendants in the case. He would like the parties to consider the matter and he would adjourn the court to enable them to do so. When the court was resumed after an interval of over an hour, Mr. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Nolan, sovr.) who appeared for the plaintiff, said he was extremely glad to be able to announce that the parties to the action had been able to arrive at an extremely satisfactory agreement. He was instructed by Miss Hynes to express her regret to the Committee of the Tramore Golf Club for the words spoken by her, and about the Tramore captain, near the 19th tee at Tramore on 31st August last. As part of the settlement it had been agreed that the committee undertakes to rescind the resolution expelling her and reinstating her

WATERFORD DISTRICT MENTAL HOSPITAL

APPOINTMENT OF QUANTITIES SURVEYOR

The Joint Committee of the above Mental Hospital will at their Monthly Meeting to be held on Monday 11th May, 1936 receive applications for the position of Quantities Surveyor in connection with the proposed erection of two new blocks and extensions at the Waterford Mental Hospital.

Fees payable will be in accordance with the scales of Professional Charges issued by the Chartered Surveyor's Institution and the Irish Quantities Surveyor's Association.

The person appointed must undertake to commence work within seven days of receipt of instructions to do so, from the Medical Superintendent, and to complete the bill of quantities within six weeks.

The appointment will be subject to the sanction of the Minister for Local Government and Public Health.

Applications, addressed to the Resident Medical Superintendent, accompanied by evidence of qualifications and experience will be received up to the hour of ten o'clock a.m. on Monday 11th May, 1936.

By Order, THOMAS F. CASEY, Clerk, Mental Hospital Offices, 29th April, 1936.

HIGH-CLASS FOOTBALL

On to-morrow (Sunday) at Dungarvan Gaelic Field, Dungarvan and the celebrated Ballyneale (Grangemoakler) football team meet in a challenge match which should be one of the most attractive seen for some time.

The Egg Market—From the huge supplies of eggs being received at Messrs. J. O'Connor and Sons, Egg and Poultry Establishment here every day, one would be inclined to think that all the hens in the country are working overtime at present.

ECONOMIC POLICY

A resolution asking the Fine Gael Executive to table a motion in the Dail asking the Government to pay a bounty on livestock and agricultural produce equal to tariffs, was passed unanimously at a meeting of the South Tipperary Executive Fine Gael held in Clonmel.

The meeting was addressed by Messrs. Richard Curran, T.D., Seamus Burke, T.D., Dan Morrissey, T.D., Col. Jerry Ryan and Mr. Martin Farrell, Mayor of Clonmel. Councillor E. V. White, presided.

Mr. Curran said it was generally agreed that a good many people had had enough of Fianna Fail. That party had lost a lot of its glamour, and it was gratifying to see that Fine Gael could now meet and express views about broken heads, which were characteristic of Irish politics not long ago.

There was an improvement in the economic situation; but if there was it was not owing to anything the Government did in their policy of self-sufficiency.

Notwithstanding the fact that the "and walls were posted with inscriptions 'Break the connection with England,' the present situation is due to more trade with England. At the next election, which could not be very far away, he believed the people would be called on to make a very vital decision.

Fine Gael made no quibble about a national issue. They believed the country would be better economically and every other way by being associated with the Commonwealth of Nations.

In 1931 the price per head for exported cattle was £15. In the last year for which returns were available, it was £8. Some people might say the farmers should not be politicians, but no one had more to lose or gain at the next election than the farmers.

Mr. Seamus Burke said the deficiency between the price of cattle now and that when Mr. Cosgrave was in power summed up the whole situation. When Mr. Cosgrave was in power he put this country in a position to face an ordinary conflict of economic conditions just as good as any other country, due to the fact that he had to get rid of the British and fight a civil war, which cost the country 30 million pounds.

Mr. de Valera was fighting the economic war with his fists the speaker might say, but he entered into the coal-cattle pact, which was the biggest surrender in the eyes of the traditional fighting Irish that was ever made, and the greatest triumph by British diplomacy.

Italy had at the time withdrawn a contract from Britain for about ten million pounds for coal, and instead of regarding "England's difficulty as Ireland's opportunity," Mr. de Valera entered into a settlement with Britain.

Mr. Dan Morrissey, referring to speeches made recently by Fianna Fail T.D.'s said Mr. Martin Ryan (North Tipperary) had stated that the economic war was practically won. But he (the speaker) contended if it was, it was on the British side, before the economic war the total liabilities of farmers of the Free State to Great Britain for annuities was £2,990,000.

Two days after Mr. Ryan had said the war was over, the Chancellor of the British Exchequer, said one of the bright spots in the Budget was the Irish Free State, from which he had collected £420,000 over what he had estimated for. Last year Britain collected directly £3,420,000, and Mr. de Valera collected for annuities last year £2,400,000, so that to both, the total paid by the Irish Free State was £7,820,000.

Britain was also given a monopoly of the market for 3,220,000 tons of coal, and had the special duties on England's exports to Ireland reduced by half. Senator Quirk had said that the promise of derating of agricultural land by Fine Gael was only to be expected from that party, who were friends of the ranchers. If the Government were so intensive in dividing land as was maintained, there would be no ranchers when Fine Gael got into power to work their policy. If rates were not a burden on the ordinary working farmer, why was it necessary to maintain a flying squad to collect the rates? Senator Quirk had also said that he (Mr. Morrissey) had the support of every rancher in Tipperary. If that was the case, he should have the support of Senator Quirk. If we are to have an aristocracy in this country, continued Mr. Morrissey, it is the genuine, educated, cultured aristocracy, and not people who imitate aristocracy. It was people like Senator Quirk who was never elected by the people of Tipperary to do anything for them, who had the audacity to tell the elected representatives of the people where to get off.

Dealing with the policy of Fine Gael, Mr. Morrissey said they definitely proposed complete derating and to enable the farmer to take full advantage of this, three millions would be set aside for loans to farmers at no more than 3 per cent. to stock their farms. They had decided to fix a maximum price of milk at 5d. a gallon and also to do everything possible for the unity of the country.
