DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL.

Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided at the weekly meeting of the above on Friday. Other members present were—Messrs. T. McCarthy, V.C., S. Hayes, J. Dahill, J. J. Crotty, M. Connors, D. Foley, J. F. Foley, and J. Christopher.

Sewerage

Arising out of the appointment of Messrs. Delapp and Waller as consulting Engineers with the B.S. in connection with the proposed sewerage scheme at Shandon, Davis street and King street, Mr. Dahill suggested that the Council include the top portion of Mary street and Mitchell street and said it was a shame to have some of those houses without any sanitary arrangements because there is no public sewer to connect with.

Mr. McCarthy agreed, and asked Mr. Dahill to propose a resolution on the matter.

The Clerk said the matter would require notice of motion, which Mr. Dahill said he would hand in.

Cleaning The Strand

Mr. Crotty referred to the condition of the strand which he said was full of tin cans, buckets and even old churns.

Clerk—It creates a very bad impression to see those things on the strand when entering the town.

Mr. Crotty—It should be cleaned up; it is a disgrace at present. Cannot the people who are doing this be caught?

Mr. Connors said it was a simple matter to catch those people dumping the stuff. It was being done openly.

S.S.O. said the Council's men are responsible for a lot of the stuff at Youghal Road; they cleaned the manure yard of all the tins and dumped them in the strand.

Mr. Crotty—That's disgraceful.

Chairman—There should be a few men put on to clean up the strand.

A letter was also read from a resident complaining that carcasses and parts of carcasses of calves were left on the foreshore about the end of Strand street.

The S.S.O. said he was watching the place for three weeks when he found two men burying the carcasses about 200 yards there. They undertook not to go there again.

Chairman—You should keep a sharp lookout there.

It was decided to put a notice in the paper prohibiting dumping and prosecute anyone found dumping after the notice appears.

A New Pound

Arising out of correspondence from the County Registrar regarding the procuring of a suitable pound in the town by the Council.

The B.S. was asked to report on the suitability and probable cost of converting the Fish Shambles into a pound.

Building Site

The Council considered a letter from the Department refusing to sanction the price offered for Mr. McGrath's field, and stating that every effort should be made to get the price reduced, especially in view of the fact that land across the road was bought by the Council at £100 per acre.

The Chairman said the price offered for something over 4 acres was £450. The redemption of the field would be a further £84.

The B.S. said that the Department referred to the land across the road as being bought for £100 an acre; he thought the price paid was £111 per acre.

Mr. McCarthy proposed that the Council offer Mr. McGrath £450 for the field. Mr. McGrath to be asked to bear half the cost of the redemption price of £84.

The resolution was passed.

New Range

Mr. M. Greany, Mitchell Terrace, wrote asking that a new range be installed in his house.

Clerk—Mr. Greany is probably your oldest tenant he is there for 40 years.

The matter was referred to the B.S.

Sewerage Scheme

The L.G.D. wrote sanctioning the appointment of Messrs. De Lappe and Waller as consulting Engineers in connection with the proposed sewerage scheme to be carried out at King street and Shandon.

Messrs. De Lappe and Waller also wrote thanking the Board for the appointment and stating that they would be ready to go on with the work as soon as their appointment had been sanctioned.

Plans

Mr. Bowen, County Surveyor, wrote stating that he was not in possession of any of the council's plans in connection with the water supply connections in the town.

Mr. Dahill—I thought the B.S. said that Mr. Bowen had the plans.

B.S.—He had them but as he states he gave them back. He may have given them to Mr. De Lappe.

The Chairman said that if they had no plans they should have some prepared. Mr. McGrath would not be with them all ways and they would have to know where the pipes were laid.

The B.S. was instructed to look further into the matter.

WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC ASSISTANCE.

LATE MR. O'DONNELL

NEW HOSPITALS

Home Assistance Increase

Ald. Jas. O'Donovan, Chairman, presided at the monthly meeting of the above on Wednesday. The other members present were—Messrs. Commissioner Moynihan, P. Caulfield, J. Cosgrave, T. D. Connolly, P. O'Halloran, T. Synott and J. Cassidy.

Sale Of Pigs

Arising out of the tender of Mr. Grant, Waterford, at £18 5s. for 5 fat pigs submitted to the Waterford Co. Hospital Committee.

Mr. P. Caulfield said that there was an order made by the Board, that when only one tender was received it should be submitted to the Board before acceptance, consequently Ald. Donovan and himself did not accept this tender.

Answering the Secretary regarding the price offered, Mr. Caulfield said prices at present were graded according to weight, etc., none of the pigs in question could be considered grade A. He considered the price a good one.

The Board accepted the tender.

Late Mr. J. O'Donnell

Mr. Connolly said it was only appropriate that this Board pass a vote of sympathy on the death of their late fellow member, Mr. J. O'Donnell. The late Mr. O'Donnell was a member of nearly all the public Board of County Waterford, being a member of the Co. Council, Board of Health, Mental Hospital Committee and member and Chairman of this Board. It was with very great regret he proposed the following resolution:—"That we, the members of the Waterford Board of Public Assistance tender our sincere sympathy to the widow and relatives of the late Mr. John O'Donnell, Glenstown, who was for many years a valued and esteemed member of our Board. That we place on record our appreciation of the kind and impartial manner in which he discharged the duties as Chairman of this Board for many years. He was an ideal public representative, imbued with the spirit of fraternal charity, and never during the course of his public career indulged in personalities or in any remark calculated to give offence to his colleagues."

The Chairman, in seconding the resolution said the late Mr. O'Donnell was a real true type of Catholic character.

All the members present, and the Secretary, having associated themselves with the resolution, it was passed in silence.

Shooting Outrage

The Chairman said it would not be right or proper to allow this meeting to pass without referring to the recent tragedy enacted in Dungarvan. He did not want to speak politically or otherwise on the matter as he felt that no words would be strong enough to condemn such a deed. To the relatives he extended the heartfelt sympathy of the Board as also to the people of Dungarvan, and to the President of our Government, and he hoped that in no part of Ireland would such a deed occur again. It is the duty

Compensation Claim

Messrs. E. A. Ryan and Co., solrs., writing on behalf of Thomas Lee, Loughmore, stated that their client owing to his having to leave the Clearance Area was deprived of his piggy which had cost him £40 to build, and also the keeping of pigs which was prohibited in Loughmore. On behalf of their client the Council was asked to give £40 compensation for disturbance.

Mr. Dahill—I propose that we give the £40.

Mr. Crotty—You are very fond of throwing away money.

Mr. Dahill—Yes, and I would give him £80 if he asked it. Why did the others get it?

Mr. Crotty—That's funny; if you give him £80 which is even more than he asked.

Mr. D. Foley—Mr. Dahill means that when others got it everybody is entitled to it.

The matter was ordered to be put on the agenda for next meeting.

Report

Arising out of the Borough Surveyor's report, an order was made that the rights of way which are blocked with refuse be cleared and that the tenants at Loughmore be informed that the practice of throwing refuse indiscriminately about must cease.

Caretaking Bathing Places

Miss Annie Wall, was the only tender for the caretaking of the ladies bathing place at £1.

The tender was accepted.

For the caretaking of the Park and men's bathing place, James Streete, tendered at 13/- per week; Wm. Haven's at 11/6 and Ml. Duggan, Thompson's Lane, at 12/6.

Streete, who had charge of the place previously was considered the most suitable man and was appointed.

WATERFORD CO. COUNCIL.

FINANCES

A quarterly meeting of the Co. Council was held on Tuesday by Mr. Commissioner Moynihan.

The Library Committee recommended that Mr. Browne, Assistant Librarian be made permanent. The recommendation was not approved and an order was made approving of the temporary appointment of Mr. Brown, for a further six months.

The Libraries Committee also recommended the appointment of a second Assistant. The Commissioner directed that a report of the existing staff and their duties be obtained.

The recommendation of the National Monuments' Committee to protect Ogham Stones at Stradbally on the holding of Mrs. McGrath, as they are in danger of injury was referred to the Co. Surveyor for a report.

New Hospital

Arising out of a letter from Messrs. Dixon and Downes, Architects, to the proposed New Hospital at Waterford, the Commissioner read the report of the Department that either one or the other Hospitals should be scraped in Waterford, and that the New Hospital should suffice for the whole city.

The Commissioner stated that from the Sweepstakes they were entitled to £70,000. They would have to pay 40 per cent. of the difference between the cost of the hospital and the £70,000. The County and City Infirmary should come in with them.

Chairman—The question is, will the Governors of the Infirmary be agreeable.

Mr. Halloran—Some of them do not relish the proposals.

Mr. Caulfield—Some of them do not like to come in, but they like to get support from the public bodies' funds. We have now an opportunity of getting a first-class hospital in Waterford, better than any in Ireland, and we should do it.

Chairman—We all agree, but I think that a deputation should interview the Commissioner.

Commissioner Moynihan—This hospital will cater for the needs of all cases. In Manchester with its large population, one such hospital suffices for the whole city. We give £800 a year to the Infirmary and that is a big thing.

Mr. Halloran said that the one hospital would mean the cutting off of the staffs. Then there is the question—will the Sweepstakes be kept always?

Chairman—I am sure it will.

The Commissioner said that the support of the Infirmary would strengthen their hands in the obtaining of the £70,000. It would mean a saving of £24,000 for the ratepayers.

It was agreed that Commissioner Moynihan interview the Governor of the Infirmary in connection with the matter.

District Hospital

The estimate of Mr. Doyle, Engineer, for enlarging a room at the District Hospital, for the accommodation of a nurse at a cost of £50 was accepted.

Home Assistance Increase

The Secretary reported that Home Assistance for the month amounted to £1,480 3s. 3d., last month and £1,550 7s. 1d., for the corresponding period last year.

Mr. Phelan, Supt. Assistance Officer, said that the increase was due to supplying clothes to boarded out children at a cost of about £100; the remainder was due to the cutting off of men from the Unemployment Assistance.

Mr. Cosgrave said it should be defined what genuinely looking for work meant. The Board of referees did not define it and in his opinion the Act had not fulfilled the purpose for which it was brought in.

Chairman—The manager of the Exchange told a deputation that if any member brought a case it would be given every sympathy.

Mr. Cosgrave—I propose that we ask the Department to define what genuinely looking for work means. It is unfair to have people thrown over on the Assistance Board, and we are perfectly justified in making representation. The Corporation and this Board should be represented on the Board of Referees.

Chairman—It is not fair that we should have more put on the books, if it continues we will be in a very awkward position.

Mr. Caulfield—We should make representation to the Minister.

Mr. Halloran—If there is a revolution, I hope they will be made too the line.

Secretary—The matter has been raised in the Dail.

Mr. Halloran—They talk about Communism; they are making Communists. It was decided that representations be made to the Minister.

Irish Speaking Nurses

A letter from the L.G.D., stated that the Board should make provision so that a certain number of native Irish speakers would get vacancies as nurses in the hospital.

It was agreed that 25 per cent. of the vacancies be reserved for native Irish speakers.

Mr. Caulfield—They are all Irish whether they speak it or not.

Cappoquin Dispensary

The Engineer was instructed to report on the cost of enlarging above.

WATERFORD CO. COUNCIL.

FINANCES

An overdraft of £60,000 to the 20th September next was approved. The amount due to the Bank on the 18th May was £10,900, and the amount of rates outstanding was £79,000.

Co. Surveyor's Report

In the past quarter very little work was done on your roads, due to the fact that insufficient funds were allowed to carry on the work, and most of the work that could be done for the money was completed earlier in the year. Bad weather was continued, including storms, rain, snow, and frost. Contractors have done a reasonable amount of work generally and are recommended for payment. Only very few contractors are now on our books. A number of unimportant roads in remote areas might be again let to contractors when sufficient funds are available for maintenance, and at present rates of wages contracts should prove economically advantageous. Little work was done on Direct Labour roads. Nearly all plant was idle for the quarter, and the number of men employed reached a low level record. Only the barest essential work was done. Considerable damage was done by floods, and by a heavy fall of snow in the quarter. Some of the damages were increased owing to the absence of adequate maintenance work. The heavy snow-fall caused damage by filling up outlets and channels, so that when the thaw set in the water was driven on the centres of the roads. Unusually severe storms, coinciding with high water spring tides caused damage at various points, including Tramore, Garranus, Benvoy, Ballinagool, Dungarvan, Whiting Bay, etc. Most of these have already been reported on, and works of repairs have been carried out in some cases. I recommend that a Prohibitory Order, under the Piers and Harbours Act, 1814, be sought for the shore adjoining and South of Passage East. Serious damage by undermining of roads and walls is likely to occur here due to the removal of gravel, etc. The removal of Dolphins at Youghal Bridge is practically completed, and is a good sound job. A useful work of widening the approach to Tramore Strand, at Riverstown, has been carried out. The old Promenade is now in a bad condition, and badly in need of re-construction. It is necessary again to call attention to the provisions of the Town and Regional Planning Act of 1934, now in force in this county. This requires your approval to allow new buildings or alterations, and the submission of plans and site plans before work is commenced. Several Builders have disregarded this provision, and I recommend a few prosecutions to bring the knowledge home to the public.

It was ordered that the Department of Industry and Commerce be asked to make the necessary order under the Piers and Harbours Act 1814. Notices are also to be issued in connection with the Co. Surveyor's complaint re new buildings or alterations.

CHILDREN'S HEALTH COMMITTEE

(To the Editor "Dungarvan Observer")

A Chara.—Following in precision the letter of the Misses Crotty in reference to Children's Health Cinema Performance. I am glad to be in a position which I feel will clear the air, and leave no doubt whatsoever in this contentious matter.

I quote from a pamphlet issued and distributed by the Children's Health Committee prior to the production of the Picture, viz.:

Meals For Poor School Children

Mr. D. Crotty, Cinema Proprietor, has very kindly arranged to give the Gross Proceeds to be taken at his Cinema on Thursday and Friday next, 5th and 6th, December, in aid of the Fund for the Provision of Luncheons for poor Children attending Schools in the Urban District of Dungarvan.

In conclusion, I regret that a misapprehension has been suffered by some members of the deputation, but this circular, only portion of which is quoted above, should dissipate all doubts on the matter.—Mise le Meas.

Chairman, U.D.C.

AMATEUR BOXING TOURNAMENT

IN DUNGARVAN

The Boxing Tournament organised by the Dungarvan Boxing Club, was held in the Town Hall, on Tuesday night last, and proved a distinct success. A good crowd of boxing fans came to see the members of the recently formed local club in action against the pick of the Clonmel club. While all the locals gave a satisfactory display, the novices—T. Leahy, P. Streete, and 'Lefty' Keohan, who were appearing before the public for the first time, acquitted themselves with distinction. It was a great night's sport, and the large audience was treated with some thrilling encounters, which merited applause for the winners of the various events.

Mr. Jas. Hayes, the popular President of the Club, who was mainly responsible for the organisation of the Tournament, was unavoidably absent, owing to illness. Mr. J. J. Hurley, Square, acted as Time-keeper. Boy Murphy, Cruiser-Weight Champion of Ireland, acted as referee. The judges were—Messrs. T. Smyth, and J. Fitzgerald, Clonmel, and D. Cooney and M. McGrath, Dungarvan.

Mr. Smyth, Clonmel, acted as M.C. All the contests were for three 2-minute rounds.

Details

The opening contest, a light-weight between P. Streete, Dungarvan and P. Ahearne, Clonmel, was most interesting. After opening cautiously, both men mixed it with real vim. Streete getting home a hard punch on the head with telling effect which damaged Ahearne's eye. The referee stopped the fight after the first round and Street was declared the winner.

M. McGrath, Dungarvan v. W. Noonan, Clonmel. This proved a most interesting bout in which some grand ring-craft was displayed by both boxers. At the end the Clonmel man got the verdict on points. Both men received a great ovation from the audience.

B. Cowman, Dungarvan v. M. McGrath, Clonmel. This was a hard-hitting affair from the word "seconds out." Both men swapping some hard punches in ding-dong fashion. Cowman was the aggressor during the first two rounds, but the Clonmel man, who appeared to have a weight advantage, finally wore down his opponent to get the verdict on points.

Heavy-Weight Contest—E. Tobin, Dungarvan v. J. Fitzgerald, Clonmel. Some heavy punishment was given and taken in this bout, in which the Clonmel man who showed superior ring-craft, was declared the winner on points.

Light-Weight—Keohan, Dungarvan v. Long, Clonmel. This was a ding-dong contest from the moment the men left their corners. Long was twice cautioned by the referee during the first round. The second and third rounds showed some desperate in-fighting in which no quarters were asked or given. Keohan was declared winner on points.

Gnat-Weight Contest. The Gnat-weight contest between two little chaps—T. Cronin and E. Power of Strand street, was the tit-bit of the night. Both "men" gave and took punishment in a sporting spirit that surprised everyone. The result—a draw was received with applause.

Light-Heavy-Weight—M. Barry, Dungarvan v. J. Walsh, Clonmel. This was the best bout of the night. Barry although up against a much heavier man showed superior ring-craft and put in some telling work with the left hand and was an easy winner.

Welter-Weight—T. Leahy, Dungarvan, v. W. Looby, Clonmel. This bout opened in whirlwind fashion, both men getting home some stinging punches before Leahy (whose first appearance it was before the public) connected a right to the point and finished with a left hook that put his opponent out for the Count before the end of the first round.

J. Power, Dungarvan, v. "Hawker" Downey, Kilmacthomas. Power led off with a right to the head which shook his opponent. Downey making use of the ring got in some telling blows to the body. There was much clinching in this bout which was awarded to Power after going the full distance.

This concluded the night's programme. Mr. J. J. Hurley, Hon. Treasurer of the Dungarvan Boxing Club, in a short address thanked the audience for their support of the fixture and introduced Boy Murphy.

Mr. Murphy said this is the second occasion at which he had the pleasure of acting as referee at Dungarvan. He said he was very much struck with the improvement displayed by the local boxers on this occasion. There was good boxing talent in Dungarvan as could be seen from the contests that night and he stressed the fact that that talent could only be brought out by the patronage of the public in the establishment of a proper boxing club.

Death Of Mr. John O'Donnell, Glenstown, Clonca

We regret to announce the death of Mr. John O'Donnell, Glenstown, Clonca, which occurred at the County Infirmary, Waterford, on Saturday last after a brief illness fortified by the rites of the Church.

The late Mr. O'Donnell, was one of the best-known public men in the Co. Waterford, and was most highly-esteemed by all who knew him. A large and practical farmer, and a sound and sincere Irishman who brought to the discharge of his duties a broad mind and a judicial impartiality, his advice was always at the disposal of his fellowmen, and it was invariably followed with profit.

As a public man he occupied a foremost place in the Co. Waterford. For many years he represented his native division on the Co. Council, and was also a member of the Mental Hospital Committee and the Boards of Health and Assistance. As Chairman of the latter body he proved a most capable administrator of public funds. Prior to the Treaty he was a J.P. for this County and sat and adjudicated on the Court Bench with that dignity, firmness and suavity which was so characteristic of him. He was also a prominent member of the Farmers' Union. From every point of view he was a capable, efficient and broadminded gentleman, whom to know was to appreciate, and by his death his native county has suffered the loss of one of her most esteemed sons.

To his bereaved wife, his brother, Mr. Wm. O'Donnell, Ballacahane, and the other members of his family sincere sympathy is tendered in their loss.—R.I.P.

On Monday after Requiem Office and High Mass for the repose of his soul at St. John's Church, Waterford, the funeral took place to Killyrossy, where in the old Churchyard, the interment took place. The cortege was exceedingly large and representative, and in keeping with the esteem in which the late Mr. O'Donnell, and his family are held.

Dungarvan Crime

At the Co. Council meeting on Tuesday, the following resolution was passed:—"That the Commissioner acting for the Waterford Co. Council extends to the parents and relatives of the late John Egan, his deepest sympathy on his death under such tragic circumstances."

Mr. O'Sullivan, Secretary on behalf of the staff and on his own behalf desired to be associated with the expression of sympathy.

KILMACHTHOMAS NEWS.

Death of Mr. E. Fitzgerald—

His many friends throughout these parts will deeply regret the death of Mr. Edmund Fitzgerald, Knockeylan, Kiltrossant, which took place at his residence on Friday last after a brief illness and while yet in his early sixties. He was a most progressive and successful agricultural and dairy farmer. The worthy member of a good old stock of the Deise, he, by his charm of manner and genial personality, added appreciably to his already large circle of friends. Of a deeply religious and kindly nature, he was beloved by all and his passing will create a void not easily replaced in the locality. Widespread sympathy is tendered to his bereaved wife and sons and daughters in their great sorrow and loss. On Saturday evening the remains were removed to St. Bridget's Parish Church, Kiltrossant, where Fr. Kehoe, P.P., recited the prayers for the dead. The cortege on the occasion was of most respectable proportions, a manifestation of the deceased's fine, loyal, god-hearted nature, and the esteem and standing of his family connections in the life of the district. Interment was made in the adjoining cemetery after the late Mass on Sunday, Fr. Kehoe, officiated at the graveside. Chief mourners, included—Mrs. Fitzgerald (widow); Messrs. Martin, Patrick, and Edmund Fitzgerald (sons); the Misses Alice, Mary, Bridie, Margaret, Hannah, and Nellie Fitzgerald (daughters); and Mrs. J. Coffey, Curraheen (sister). On Monday morning Solemn Requiem Office and High Mass was offered up for the repose of the soul of the late Mr. Fitzgerald, in the presence of a very large congregation of relatives, friends and sympathisers. Rev. J. Hart, C.C., Kiltrossant, was celebrant of the Mass, and was assisted by Fr. Kehoe, P.P., and the priests of the neighbouring parishes—Beannacht De ar a h-anam della.

Increased Tillage—

The area of land under wheat in Mid-Waterford this year is twenty per cent more than last year, and there is also an increase of acreage under best.

Death of Mr. Thomas Wall—

Mr. Thomas Wall, farmer, Newtown, Kilmachthomas, breathed his last on the 19th, inst., succumbing after a rather short illness in his 75th year, and his death caused deep regret to his large circle of relatives and friends. Sprung from a well-known Nire family, the deceased possessed a gentle, amiable and generous nature, and was a favourite with everybody over the whole wide neighbourhood. An extensive and practical husbandman, he was a real good citizen, and as such set up a splendid example in the parish of Newtown. His wife had predeceased him, and he is survived by a universally esteemed family of four sons and three daughters.

The funeral to the Nire Catholic Churchyard on Sunday afternoon was extremely large and testified to the general regard in which the late Mr. Wall was held. The chief mourners were—Messrs. Thomas Wall, Old Parish, Dungarvan, and James Walter and William Wall, Newtown (sons); the Misses Kathleen, Mai, and Bridget Wall, Knocknaree, Nire; Mr. Pierce Wall, do.; Mr. James Wall, do., and Mr. Michael Wall, Ballyvied, Kilmachthomas.

Thomas (brothers); Mrs. J. Egan, Craigue, New Inn, and Mrs. B. O'Donnell, Ballyveelish, (sisters); Mr. D. Barron, Dro-more, Aghish (brother-in-law); Mr. G. Portle, Old Parish; Mrs. M. Colleder, Nicholatown, Modello, and Mrs. J. Noonan, Cappoquin (sisters-in-law). Many other friends and the general public who attended are to numerous to mention. Masses for the happy repose of the deceased's soul were offered up during the week—R.I.P.

Sympathy—

A great wave of public sympathy goes out to the Rev. Canon Burkitt, M.A., and Mrs. Burkitt, The Rectory, Stradbally, in their recent sad bereavement occasioned by the death of their deservedly-popular daughter, Miss Eileen Burkitt.

Mr. Thomas Quailly—

In his capital contribution appearing on last week's "Observer," Carrig Na nGaeleal" referred to Mr. Thomas Quailly's pending resignation from the important post he has occupied in the London G.P.O. over the past quarter of a century. Mr. Quailly is a native of Kilmachthomas, and is a first-cousin of the Rt. Rev. Monsignor Peter Quailly, P.P., Rockville Centre, New York; Very Rev. Patrick Quailly, P.P., Petone, New Zealand; Rev. Mother Angeline, Holy Cross Convent, Philadelphia, Pa.; Mother M. Evangelist, Presentation Convent, Portlaoighis; Sister M. Peter, Convent of Mercy, Blenheim; New Zealand; Sister M. Patricia, Convent of Mercy, Stradbally; Mr. Edmund Quailly, Carrigbarahane, do.; Mrs. N. Power, Faha-feelagh, Kilmachthomas; Mrs. E. Rowe, Ballylinch, do.; and Mrs. M. Gough, Ballykerogue, Stradbally. He is a second cousin of Sister Eileen Marie Power, Convent of Our Lady of Angels, La Verna Height, Glen Riddle, Philadelphia, Pa.; Sister Aislinn Gough, Convent of Mercy, Hill's Street, New Zealand, and Rev. Bro. Virgilius Power, O.Cist, Mount Mellieray Abbey, Cappoquin.

Please to Publish—

That the usual May Devotions, held in the Convent Church, Kilmachthomas, are being regularly attended by large and devout congregations.

Popular Gentleman Bereaved—

His troops and legions of friends on all sides sincerely sympathise with Mr. Thos. King, accountant, National Bank, Kilmachthomas, in his recent sad bereavement occasioned by the death of his father.

Within The Week—

Mr. Michael Murphy, postman of the Kilmachthomas-Stradbally delivery, saw a lizard measuring more than twelve inches in length.

For Parochial Purposes—

The "45" Card Drive and Ceilidh at Ballyvian on Sunday night last (under the auspices of the local Parochial Committee) proved an unqualified success from every standpoint. Winners of the principal prizes in the card competition were Guard Fitzgerald and Mr. John Flynn both of Stradbally. By the way, the gentlemen named were the top winners of the previous Sunday night's Card Drive under the said auspices.

G. A. A.—

Fine weather with a good gathering favoured the Eastern Divisional Board fixtures enacted at Kill on last Sabbath Day. Kill-Newtonman crushily conquered De La Salle, and Mount Sion bested Ballyduff. Both sides were in junior grade football. At Clons, Erin's Own were outclassed by Rathgormack in a senior football friendly.

Oh to-morrow (Sunday) the Clonsa J.H. XV. will be at home to the Raywee Ramblers (Kilmac' and Mahonbridge), and a sparkling set-to is confidently anticipated.

We Put It To You (Serious And Not)—

That the eye-arresting, admirably fitting new summer frock which sheltered a certain Slane girl on the 17th inst., only cost the dear colleen two pints of tears plus four fits of hysterics—

That a seven-and-seventy years old resident of the Rathgormack region has grown a new set of teeth—

That his next-door-neighbour's theory is that kindly nature helped him over the handicap of his wife's cooking—

That even a Cork man couldn't live by his wits in the birthplace of Nire Valley virgins, as the population isn't dense enough—

That, once upon a time, there was a Kilmachthomas bridegroom in Dungarvan, and he was such a good young man that he won the Blushing Championship of the Old Borough in 1866, by turning pink for one thousand and sixty seconds under the gaze of a graceful Garranbane girl—

That those who try to understand the bright "beauties" of Bohadon and Kilmachthomas generally succeed only in marrying them—

That any Bonmahon bridegroom will allow the best man to kiss the bride after the ceremony, but not too long after—

That the "Kilmac" man whose head was hit in two places on the morning after the night before, intends keeping out of those places in future.

FOOTBALL AND HURLING AT CAPPOQUIN

On Sunday two interesting friendly challenge matches were played in the Sportsfield, Cappoquin, between Dungarvan Junior football team and Cappoquin, while Ballylin (Lismore) Junior hurlers, who are still in the Co. Championship, lined out against Cappoquin junior team, which was recently defeated in their Championship tie by Ballyduff-Upper at Tailow.

The weather was beautifully fine and warm, being tempered with a refreshing breeze, and there was a good attendance of spectators.

The football match was the first on the programme, was timed to commence at 3 o'clock, and although the Dungarvan team was on the field well up to time, the local men, who should be first on the spot, were fully forty minutes late before lining up, which proved a most inexcusable delay which was strongly resented by those present, and it is to be hoped that Cappoquin will show greater respect for punctuality in all their future engagements of this nature.

Cappoquin played towards the road end with a fairly strong breeze in their favour, but Dungarvan had the best of the opening exchanges and claimed the honour of the first over against the breeze.

Cappoquin then settled down and quickly brought play into Dungarvan territory, where, despite a sturdy defence, they drew "first blood" with a beautiful goal scored by J. Ryan.

The kick-out was promptly returned, and a further spirited attack saw Cappoquin just shooting wide by a narrow margin, but their next attack proved more fruitful when Earley shot a well-judged flying point. Cappoquin forwards were now playing a great game, and a further attack was repulsed at the expense of a 50, but nothing resulted.

Dungarvan then brought play to the other end and sent over twice in succession, and they were in hard luck a few minutes later when a shot for a goal resulted in the ball striking the cross-bar and going over for a point. Dungarvan added two further points, but a point and a goal to Cappoquin soon followed, to which Dungarvan responded with a goal, and after some even play in mid-field, in which Dungarvan excelled in passing tactics, the half-time whistle found the home side leading on the score:—

With the breeze in their favour in the second half, Dungarvan put more life into their work, but their first attack was driven back for Cappoquin to add a point. They soon added another minor before Dungarvan got properly going and soon had the green flag raised for a goal, which left them only one point behind behind Cappoquin.

Dungarvan quickly added two goals which gave them the lead, but Cappoquin then made a determined attempt for a goal, but had to be content with a point, and Dungarvan responding with a similar score, the end of a very fine and clean game found the visitors winners of a hard-fought match on the score:—

Dungarvan 4-4
Cappoquin 2-5
Mr. Joe Mason, Cappoquin proved a strict and impartial referee.

Hurling
In the hurling match Cappoquin had to field most of the men who had played in the football match, and who were, consequently, rather tired, the remainder of the team being made up of very young members of the minor team, while Ballylin fielded a fresh and strong Championship team who were much better than their opponents.

The "young bloods" on the Cappoquin team proved themselves to be regular "surprise packets," one of them, Master

Richard Curran, scoring no less than six goals, while all the others acquitted themselves with distinction in mid-field.

Playing with a freshening breeze in their favour towards the road goal, Ballylin started off in promising style, but were quickly held up, and soon their back division was sorely pressed, and eventually pierced, when Curran shot the first goal for Cappoquin.

Three further goals followed in rapid succession, and Cappoquin were leading by 4 goals to nil after only 10 minutes' play. Ballylin then "broke the ice" with a point, which was followed by a further point and a goal in a short time, and a free brought them a further goal. Cappoquin soon replied with a similar score, but Ballylin again resuming the attack, added a goal and a point, Daly, in the forward line, playing a dashing game for Ballylin. Play on both sides was now of a very high-class order, the pucking being swift, clean and accurate, but no further flag being raised, the half-time whistle found the home-side leading on the score:—

Cappoquin 5-0
Ballylin 3-4

Ballylin opened the scoring very early in the second half with a goal, which gave them a lead of a point, but this lead was short-lived, as Cappoquin quickly raised the green flag to forge ahead by two points, and they were never led after this, although Ballylin once drew level when the score stood, Cappoquin 7 goals 1 point Ballylin, 6 goals 4 points. Cappoquin soon established the lead again with a goal and a point, after which Ballylin raised the green flag for their final score, and from this onward Cappoquin completely dominated the game and shot goal after goal, practically at will, so that the full-time whistle found the home-side very easy winners of a grand game on the final score:—

Cappoquin 11-4
Ballylin 7-4

Cappoquin were minus the services of J. O'Donoghue and Wm. Coffey, their two "Star" backs, but their absence was atoned for by the brilliant play of R. Curran, James Ryan, W. Sargent, R. O'Donoghue, Steve Brennan, J. Bracklett, and W. Rea (goal), who were outstanding players on the winning team.

The match was capably refereed by Mr. W. Coffey, Cappoquin, who, owing to a recent injury to the hand, was unable to play for the home team.

Lodge, Tramore, agreed to pay £1,200 damages, and the action before Mr. Justice Sullivan in the High Court (Dublin), was settled, in which he was sued by Mrs. Josephine Hennessy, Tramore, Waterford, for damages for the death of her husband, Thomas Hennessy, who was struck by defendant's motor car and died from his injuries.

His Lordship allocated £500 to the plaintiff and the balance equally amongst her seven children.

Mr. C. Lavery, K.C., and Mr. James J. McGuire (instructed by Mr. C. S. Quinn) for plaintiff; Mr. Sean Ryan (James O'Connor and Co.) for defendant.

LADY WHO SHELTERED THE LATE WILLIAM O'BRIEN, M.P.

The death of Miss Ellen O'Neill, William street, Carrick-on-Suir, recalls the remarkable escape 50 years ago of Mr. William O'Brien, M.P., from Carrick-on-Suir Courthouse, where he was being tried by an R.M. for a seditious speech at Carrick. Mr. O'Brien bolted from the Courthouse into the darkness of a December evening and ran up New Street into William street. His pursuers—a number of armed police—continued up New St. Miss O'Neill dragged Mr. O'Brien into her house in William street. He lay concealed there until he was driven on a dark night to South Waterford coast, where he was taken on a vessel to France.

CAPPOQUIN NOTES. Resignation of Librarian— Mrs. Mary Walsh, who had been Librarian of the Carnegie Free Library in Cappoquin since it was first opened to the public 25 years ago, has resigned owing to ill-health, and her resignation has caused much regret in the town.

A well-read and highly-intelligent lady, Mrs. Walsh possessed the highest qualifications for such a position and during her long and honourable connection with the Library she had always proved herself most attentive and courteous in all her dealings with the reading public here.

It is a high tribute to her efficiency that during this long span not a single book was unaccounted for out of the large numbers of books usually borrowed by the public, while the general upkeep and spotless cleanliness of the Library were also a great credit to her.

Mr. F. Murphy, County Librarian, as well as the members of the Libraries Committee, held a very high opinion of her owing to the faithful and satisfactory manner in which she had always performed her duties.

CO. WATERFORD PRIEST HONOURED IN AUSTRALIA

Farewell to Rev. P. Coffey ENTHUSIASTIC GATHERING

The Times' Peterborough, South Australia, to hand contains an interesting account of a farewell gathering on the occasion of the transfer of Rev. P. Coffey, from Peterborough to Fort Pine Parish.

Father Coffey is son of the late Mr. Thomas Coffey and Mrs. Coffey, Whitechurch, Dungarvan, and left his native Dungarvan for the South Australian Mission on his ordination 3 years ago. His countless friends in the old land wish him still further promotion in his great Missionary work as the years roll on.

The largest gathering seen in St. Anacostus Hall, Peterborough, for many years assembled on Thursday night to bid farewell to the Rev. P. Coffey, who has been transferred to the Port Pirie Parish, after three years' sojourn in Peterborough. Apologies were read from many well wishers in various parts, who were unavoidably absent.

Mr. W. Dowdy presided and a very high class musical programme was submitted by Mrs. W. J. Brady, Misses D. Reid, V. G. Bennett, (vocal), Natalie Nelson (educational), Messrs. W. J. Brady, K. Doherty, C. Robertson, J. Walker (vocal), Nash Casey and Theo Vance (instrumental), each item was vociferously cheered. Mrs. Brady, Misses V. Cleary, M. Deed, and Mr. W. J. Brady, acted as accompanists.

The Chairman in an appropriate address, expressed the assemblage's appreciation of the high qualities possessed by Fr. Coffey and their sorrow in losing him from the Parish. Coming as a stranger to a strange land, some three years ago, he had quickly endeared himself to the Catholics in every part of the large parish. He had shown himself as a man of many parts—being a religious, social and town success, and was very highly respected in every sphere.

Mr. P. J. Sullivan said that it was with a great deal of sadness that he voiced the feelings of the people of the parish who deeply regretted Fr. Coffey leaving the district, but they were grateful that circumstances had permitted him to carry out his duties in his new home. He had been a very bright spot in their sadness—Port Pirie was not so very far away and they hoped he would soon be back this way meeting his old friends and receiving the right royal welcome that would be his whenever he visited the parish. On behalf of the parishioners he wished Fr. Coffey good health in Port Pirie and hoped he would long be spared to carry on his priestly duties.

Mr. J. Reid said they were forced to realise that night "that the best of friends must part." No one had endeared himself more to the people and children than Fr. Coffey and it was brought home to them what priests must give up and the sadness of parting with their loved ones in Ireland. As well as an ideal priest, it was evident from the large and varied gathering that night he had proved an ideal citizen.

His Worship the Mayor (S. D. Jones, Esq., J. P.), was pleased to see such a large gathering of townspeople to do honour to Fr. Coffey, who had been a loyal, faithful and energetic citizen and had endeared himself to all. He was always obliging and ready to help in anything for the betterment of the town, which was valued very much. The Port Pirie Parish was not so scattered and he would not have such long journeys. His Worship had been very intimately connected with Fr. Coffey in regard to the children and he had always been to the fore in anything for the good of the young folk—especially at St. Patrick's sports, St. Joseph's School functions, an cricket and football fields and would be greatly missed in all circles. He had taken a very keen interest in their welfare and always got on well with all his assistants. It was a striking characteristic, as they had to look after the children, who were to be their future citizens. The good training made them worthy citizens. The Mayor wished to publicly thank Fr. Coffey for the great interest he had taken in Peterborough's welfare, which had been much appreciated by the Council and the town—he had been a very loyal and popular citizen and they wished him the best of good health and God's richest blessings on his work in Port Pirie.

Messrs. Peter Quinn (Dawson), Owen Dowd (Yongala), O. Howard (Oodla Wirra), J. P. Keane (on behalf of Cockburn Line), Jas. Casey, P. J. O'Leary, W. H. Bennett, A. E. Rowe, and M. Ross

All supported the remarks expressed and added their testimony to the good work and popularity of Fr. Coffey amongst his parishioners, young men and women, children and townspeople.

His Lordship the Bishop (Right Rev. N. T. Gilroy, D.D.), in a very bright speech, said "he was happy, because they were sad," as it was very striking evidence that Fr. Coffey had carried out his duties in a manner befitting a Catholic priest, who was trained to take his part in social, as well as religious life. If he was faithful to his priestly calling, it naturally followed that he must be a loyal citizen—rendering to Caesar what was Caesar's, and to God what was God's. By their strong testimony and their sadness they had amply demonstrated that Fr. Coffey had done his work, and done it remarkably well. Although his Lordship had only been a short time amongst them, it had been long enough to make him realise the sterling qualities of their departing guest—there was nothing like living in the same house to find out the characteristics of a man, and he could heartily endorse all that had been said of Fr. Coffey. It was what was to be expected of a priest, and it was very gratifying to know that Fr. Coffey was no exception. He had been a man amongst men, in church he was a man of God and they naturally felt sorry to lose him. His Lordship had been, therefore, very pleased to accept their invitation to present to Fr. Coffey a wallet of notes, on their behalf, as a token of their love and esteem, which he knew would be accepted and treasured in the spirit in which it was given. The Children of Mary Sodality had not, His Lordship said, forgotten all the great work he had done for them, and had requested his Lordship to hand him a mounted inkstand, on their behalf. Neither had the children overlooked his interest in their welfare, and were holding a special function at the school the following morning to bid him farewell and hand him a memento of their associations.

The Rev. Fr. Coffey, on rising to respond, received a great ovation, all standing and enthusiastically singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." He had, he said, often spoken in that hall, but had never done so at a greater disadvantage than on the present occasion. After listening to all the nice things that had been said about him, he felt that he was not himself. If he possessed all the qualities and ability they had credited him with that night, he must have acquired them since he came to Australia, because he knew he had not them before he came to this country. He was pleased to know he had succeeded in his priestly duty among them. It seemed to him that he had first to thank his Lordship the Bishop for coming to make the presentations to him, and he was deeply grateful to him for his gracious act and for the many acts of kindness he had shown him since he had come to the Diocese; as their chief pastor and ruler. He also wished to thank Fathers O'Farrell and Molloy for their presence and support. He was particularly grateful to the Mayor and Moynees for the compliment they had paid him by coming that night. He hardly needed to say to the Catholics of Peterborough, Yongala, Dawson, Oodla Wirra, Nackara and all along the Cockburn Line, how grateful he was for their kindness in giving him such an overwhelming send-off and for their presentations—words failed him to express his thanks to them—not to say how honoured he felt by the great gathering present that evening. He was thankful to the Children of Mary for their gift, to those who arranged for the monster function, to the various artists, who contributed such a beautiful programme—his heartfelt thanks were extended, though poorly expressed. Of the many nice things said, he appreciated very highly the statements that he had endeared himself to the children. To be held in affectionate regard by them was something he felt very proud of. He was very sorry to leave them, but was glad to know that he had helped, in some small way, the Parents, Bishop, Priests and Sisters in the great work of preparing the little ones to be future citizens of heaven, as well as of this world. He had many regrets in leaving them, but his chief regret was that he was leaving people for whom he had come to have a great regard and affection. To each of them, one and all, he offered his sincere thanks for the way they had honoured him and hoped they would always remember him in their prayers.

The Chairman, on behalf of the parishioners, extended a very hearty and cordial welcome to Rev. Father Molloy, in whom they felt they had a worthy successor to Fr. Coffey. Both priests had been at College together and they felt they were going to know and revere Fr. Molloy as well as they did Fr. Coffey (applause). Fr. Molloy, in a very happy reply, thanked them for their welcome, and would always do his best to uphold the dignity and traditions of his sacred office, while helping out their duties, as worthy Catholics and worthy citizens. Supper was provided and served by the ladies, opportunity being taken to personally bid farewell and happiness to Fr. Coffey.

Children Say Farewell On Friday morning prior to his departure to Port Pirie, Rev. P. Coffey was entertained by the pupils of St. Joseph's School, Peterborough. Master J. Maxwell, on behalf of the children, thanked Father Coffey for the kindly interest he had always taken in them. Little Francis Salvano presenting him with a Biretta, as a token of their gratitude and love. Master Noel Kelly added a special word of thanks from the Altar Boys and Master Leo Cain asked him to accept, on their behalf, a pair of motorist's gloves. Father Coffey, in replying, thanked the children for the gifts they had offered. The Biretta would remind him of the children where remembrance is best, at the Altar of God, and the gloves, while keeping his hands warm, would also keep warm in his heart his affection for the children. Father Coffey said he found it more difficult to say good-bye to the children than he did to the adults. He was proud of the affection they had for him and while asking a remembrance in their prayers, he promised them a daily memento at the altar.

TAIL-WAGGER CHATS No. 280. THE NATIONAL BREED BULLDOGS PAST AND PRESENT By PHILOKOUON.

A VISIT to the annual show of the Bull-dog Club recently set me thinking of the changes and vicissitudes through which the national breed has passed in the course of its long history. Today we have a heavy, lumbering, great-bearded, devoted creature that wins the affection of all who have anything to do with him. In spite of his forbidding looks the bulldog has a kindly nature. Though he must be conscious of his strength he does not use it unfairly, and little children could not have a friendlier playmate. They may perhaps hurt him sometimes in romping roughly, but he will take it all in good part. It is not everyone who would care to have a bulldog as a household pet, but those who have once become attached to them overlook their snoring and snorting. The most serious objections one could raise is that they cannot take a great deal of exercise comfortably and that their expectation of life is not as favourable as some. These criticisms lead one to the conclusion that they must have changed considerably in the course of a century or less. That may be seen by reference to photographs of bygone celebrities, some of them as recent as the early 1870's when they had not been bred for many years up to any particular standard. I have heard it said that a pure cross was introduced for the purpose of improving the shape of the head. Certainly the heads of the old dogs, which gave them a sinister appearance, were very different from the modern, and it is quite possible that Youatt was right in writing nearly a hundred years ago about the ferocity and stupidity of the bulldog. He had not then had time to become civilised, and today such strictures would be entirely unmerited. He was not far away from the bad old bull-baiting, dog-fighting days, when the dogs must have been almost as brutalised as their masters. The word 'almost' is used advisedly because men are supposed to have an advantage over the brute in the possession of a higher intelligence and free will. Bull-baiting, miscalled a sport, was a diversion of all classes for some centuries. On the accession of Queen Anne it became less fashionable, but we had to wait until 1835 for its abolition by Act of Parliament. That act, however, was not passed without strenuous opposition, some seeing in it a sign of the decadence of the race. One of the supporters of the old custom even went so far as to contend that its prohibition would lower the character of the common people, whose moral fibre would be softened by the inability to enjoy such a manly exercise. Dog-fighting continued for some years longer, and there is more than a suspicion that it is carried on "sub rosa" today. The dogs used were most often a cross between the bulldog and one of the terriers. Beyond a doubt the bulldog has been valuable in infusing courage into a number of other breeds, some of them of a most unexpected kind. We know that towards the end of the eighteenth century greyhounds were crossed with them. NOTE—This club is issued by THE TAIL-WAGGERS' CLUB OF IRELAND.

Harbour Master and Collector Mr. Power, in accordance with notice proposed that the positions of Harbour Master and Collector be amalgamated and that the salary be made £100. He took that action to be consistent now that the Harbour Master was devoting all his time to his duties and discharging them satisfactorily.

Mr. Ahern proposed that matters be left as they were. It would be ridiculous to increase the cost of collecting the dues from £13 to £40.

Mr. Condon, seconded. On a poll there voted— For the amendment—Messrs. Farrell, Watson, Macnamara, Whelan, McCarthy, Broderick, Cashman, Ahern, Condon, and the Chairman—10.

Free Library A letter was read from the Cork Co. Librarian, stating there could be no objection to keep the Reading Room at the Carnegie Library open up to 10.30 p.m.

In accordance with notice, Mr. Savage proposed—"That we relinquish our powers in favour of the Cork Co. Council in accordance with the provisions of the Public Libraries (Ireland) Act, 1904.

This was seconded by Mr. Daly and passed unanimously.

Strand Water Main The Town Surveyor reported that while changing the 3 inch water main on the Strand a serious leak was discovered in the G.S.R. connection, which resulted in the loss of a large quantity of water daily.

The Clerk said that the work was being carried out by the Cleansing Co., for the first time in the South. They had a number of interested visitors to the scene, including the Cork City Engineer. He had been informed that it would be a very effective job. The leak in the G.S.R. connection had interfered with the progress of the work, and he had notified the Co. about it.

Some discussion took place on the proposed re-surfacing of the Strand Main Road, and the Clerk was directed to ask the Co. Surveyor to expedite the work, with the object of having it completed before the tourist season.

Green Park Sea Wall Mr. Lynch called attention to the condition of the Sea Wall fronting the Green Park, and it was decided to have the Town Surveyor examine and report on it.

Proposed "Flats" Mr. M. J. Fleming, submitted plans, etc., of the proposed conversion of stores at Tallow street, into "flats". They were referred to the Engineer.

Rate Estimate The Clerk submitted the rate estimate for the coming 12 months' an inclusive rate of 14/8 as compared with 14/- last year, showing an increase of 3d. in the general town rate, 2d. in the domestic water rate and 3d. in the Poor Rate. The increase of 5d. in the local rate was due to increased expenditure on road maintenance and water mains.

The Chairman said they had reason to be pleased with the rate submitted and the Clerk deserved great credit for the manner in which he had worked things out. The slight increase on last year was unavoidable, and of course, they had no responsibility for the increase in the poor rate. It compared favourably with other towns of the same size. It was a big industry, their turnover being some £18,000 annually. They had no reason to be pessimistic as to the future and they were able to meet all their liabilities.

Mr. Whelan proposed the adoption of the estimate. It reflected credit not alone on the Clerk, but in the Council as a whole. The lighting and cleansing left nothing to be desired, and they had a water supply second to none.

Mr. Power, seconded, endorsed the remarks made regarding the Clerk, who not alone acted capably, but with the utmost courtesy. The rate was then adopted unanimously.

Rent Arrears The Clerk said that the L.G. had asked what action the Council proposed to take in connection with the arrears of rent on the houses already provided by them.

Replying to Mr. Forrest, the Chairman said that some of the tenants were 16 or 18 weeks in arrears.

Mr. Forrest—Force the Government's hands; leave it in the hands of the Collector as usual.

Mr. Farrell—Does that mean the Collector is to go to law against the tenants? Mr. Forrest—What else? The Clerk—No good. The decree would be marked "nulla bona."

Mr. Forrest—You would have done all in your power. Then the Government will have to step in and help.

The Clerk—It is left to the Collector, and he proceeds to evict, would the Council approve?

After further discussion, the proposition was seconded by Mr. Daly and passed unanimously.

Gas Stokers Wages The application of the Gas Stokers for an increase of £1 weekly in their wages was taken up.

Mr. Broderick said that the gas workers were included in a reduction scheme some time ago, their wages being lessened 3/6. In view of the strenuous nature of their work he proposed an increase of 5/-.

Mr. Power seconded. Mr. Lynch proposed, and Mr. Sullivan seconded, an increase of 10/-.

Mr. Savage suggested that they be unanimous in granting 7/6. If any men earned their pay, it was the gas stokers. They never got a holiday, and he could not understand why the Government would give holidays to all officials, high and low, but none to the workers.

Replying to Mr. Power, the Chairman said the men's hours were 8 a day 7 days a week.

Mr. Power said he withdrew seconding and Mr. McCarthy thereupon seconded Mr. Broderick's proposition.

On a poll there voted— For 5/-—Messrs. Farrell, Watson, Whelan, Macnamara, McCarthy, Broderick, Ahern, Condon and the Chairman—9.

For 10/-—Messrs. Savage, Daly, Forrest, Lynch, O'Sullivan, Power, Cashman—7.

It being now 9.30, Mr. Broderick proposed that he do not suspend Standing Orders and Mr. Macnamara seconded.

Mr. Lynch proposed and Mr. Power seconded the suspension.

The question was not put to a vote. A poll was then taken between 7/6 and 5/-, and the voting was the same, but that Mr. Macnamara voted for 7/6, the result being 8 each. The Chairman declined to give a casting vote.

Mr. Farrell suggested that the matter be put on the agenda to give the absent members an opportunity of taking part.

Mr. Lynch—It has been on the agenda for several weeks.

Mr. Broderick—My proposition has not been defeated.

The Chairman suggested an increase of 6/- as a compromise.

Mr. Broderick—Divide the 2/6 and make it 6/3.

Mr. Lynch (leaving the room)—It is only all bunkum coming here, I am not voting.

An increase of 6/3 was finally agreed on unanimously.

THE NELLIE FLEMING DISASTER

CREW'S COMPENSATION CLAIM

JUDGE'S AWARD

The loss of the Youghal sailing ship, Nellie Fleming, which left the port of Lydney, South Wales, in February last, ran into a heavy storm and was never heard of, had an echo at the Cork Circuit Court, before Judge Thomas O'Donnell, S.C., when applications for compensation on behalf of the dependants of the lost crew were heard under the Workmen's Compensation Act.

The respondent was Mr. Martin J. Fleming, shipowner and coal importer, Youghal.

The hands on board the lost ship were five in number, and hence there were five applications.

Mr. G. Daly (instructed by Mr. J. L. Keane, Youghal) appeared for the applicant, and Mr. W. A. Hungerford (instructed by Messrs. Norris, Goddard and Coulter, Dublin) for the respondent.

The first claim taken was that of Annie Kenneally, the Mall, Youghal, widow of Daniel Kenneally, able seaman.

The dependants were: Wholly—Kevin Kenneally, aged 12; Florence, aged 14; Partial—John, aged 19; Annie, aged 22; Mary, aged 25; Daniel, aged 28, and James aged 29 years.

Applicant's counsel, opening the claim said the Nellie Fleming was a sailing vessel trading out of Youghal to South Wales. She left Lydney on the 8th February last. Shortly afterwards a severe storm sprang up, into which the vessel ran, and she never reached Youghal. The vessel or crew had never since been heard of, and were now definitely regarded as lost. The claims were first opened up with the Shipping Federation acting as agents for the respondent.

Mr. Hungerford—Mr. Fleming, as the owner of the vessel, is the person liable and I think your Lordship is not entitled to take anyone else into consideration.

Mr. Daly, continuing, said certain figures had been agreed upon as compensation for the adults in each case, based on the seaman's wages, but they had not agreed on the question of additional allowances. Mr. Fleming, the respondent, was a well-known merchant and shipowner in Youghal, and he would know what wages and allowances were paid to the members of the crew. Liability had been admitted, and the other side had attempted to lodge in court a certain sum, which included the food calculation, but, as his Lordship knew, that was not a practice of that court, and, therefore, it was not effectively carried out.

His Lordship—The amount attempted to be lodged—are you satisfied with it? No; there are two questions—the value of the food supplied on board and the value of the lodgings—but we are agreed as to the cash payments for compensation. The food and lodgings are outstanding between us. In the present case the wages was at the rate of £3 per month, and we come to your Lordship to determine what allowance will be made for food and lodging. Here we claim £300, a total sum for the adults, and a sum of £22 10s for juveniles. The difference between the applicant and respondent was that applicant said, allowing £180 as the wages which was agreed, the adult allowance should be £253 instead of £300, which difference arose from the calculation placed by respondent on the food value and what applicant said it was.

Mr. Hungerford—We say one shilling a day food allowance and fourpence a day lodging is the rate to be paid.

Mr. Daly—And we say £1 per week, which would bring the earnings up to £2 3s. 1d., weekly, and on which our claim to £300 is based.

Anne Kenneally, widow of the seaman, deposed her husband was an A.B. on the Nellie Fleming, twelve months last September. When they were at home the crew were allowed one shilling a day, which she understood was for dinner.

On the question of the quality of the food, which was another point discussed between counsel.

Kate Glavin's whose husband was a member of the crew, said he purchased the food for them at Mr. Fleming's shop when in Youghal, and the very best food was always bought.

On the same question Martin J. Fleming, respondent, deposed he gave the Captain complete control in the matter of the food purchase. The captain bought what he thought was required for the voyage except perishable stuff like fresh meat and vegetables. At the other side, it was held up, he would purchase meat and other food stuffs as required and furnish the bill to witness. He always left what was wanted and how much was wanted to the captain.

In reply to Mr. Daly, he said the food supplied would cost more than one shilling a day. That was never meant as a food value, it was given as an allowance.

On the question of apportionment, Anne Kenneally said she and her sisters were agreed that their mother should get their allowance.

Mr. Hungerford having quoted cases for his Lordship in support of his argument, his Lordship said he had to decide pretty frequently of late what was the value of food supplied to employees maintained by an employer. In the case of a farm labourer, for instance, where the farmer had eggs, milk, butter, potatoes and other articles of food at cost price, he would not dream of estimating the maintenance at so low as a shilling a day.

Mr. Hungerford said he did not hope to hold the rate which was decided in 1908 in this year, 1936, but the other side claims £1 weekly which he thought exorbitant.

His Lordship—Well, it is an easy matter to decide. You have agreed on £180, apart from the board and lodging, and I could not allow less than 15s. weekly for food, and as to the lodging—fourpence night—well that seems to me too low. I will say sixpence, though I don't know why I am

FIANNA FAIL

PUBLIC MEETING AT YOUGHAL

Messrs. P. J. Little and Sean Goulding, T.D.'s paid their first visit to the newly-formed part of their Constituency in East Cork, on Saturday night when a public meeting was held in the Town Hall, Youghal. Amongst those on the platform were: Messrs. E. P. Lynch, U.D.C., (presiding); W. O'Sullivan, U.D.C., R. Savage, U.D.C., R. Power, U.D.C., J. Forrest, U.D.C., P. Savage, A. O'Byrne, M. J. Galvin, Hon. Sec., etc. The Pipers Band played to and from the hall.

The Chairman introduced Mr. Little, who was warmly received. He said that was the first time his colleague and he had come to them as their Deputies, as they had been cut off from Cork as included in Co. Waterford. It was now 20 years since the Rising and the execution of James Connolly and Sean MacDermott, two great figures in that historic event—the one representing the traditions of James Stephens, Woulfe Tone and John Mitchel, the other a true democrat, devoted to the service of the people. Today we stand as we stood in those days, faithful to the ideals they stood for and it was in pursuance of those ideals that the Fianna Fail Party took possession of the Government with the object of building up a stronger Ireland and achieving the independence of the country. It was now 10 years to a day that President de Valera made his first Fianna Fail pronouncement—the "Cease Fire Order" (Mr. Little here read several extracts from that document). Their principles remained unchanged; they were always kept in view in building up the Constitution and they hoped to do much more work to make it more in accordance with the principles of true nationality. Before the next General Election, they hoped to have done almost everything that they had undertaken to do in their declaration of Policy. They laboured not for the selfish interests of any individuals, but for the benefit of the whole nation, and in order that Ireland might grow stronger and ultimately achieve what they had set out to do, namely complete independence (applause).

Referring to the recent assassinations, he said the Fianna Fail Party and Government were absolutely unanimous in the determination to stop that sort of thing. They would give every possible protection to all citizens, and it was in that spirit they approached the task they had to carry through. Referring to unemployment, he said that the great development of modern machinery of all kinds made it impossible to solve the problem completely. Years ago Mr. de Valera had laid it down as a principle that it was the duty of the State to see that the unemployed did not starve and that they had done their best to carry that into effect. At present they were changing their schemes and providing more money to be carefully expended on employment. Last year they had put 6,000 people into farms and 8,000 this year, a policy they would endeavour to extend. He thought they had helped to give the people heart and encourage them in the spirit of nationality, because that was the root of the whole thing—their aim being to make Ireland free and secure from outside interference. Regarding local matters, he said that the Government had thought the first estimate for the New Mental Hospital £10,000 was not sufficient. It would probably cost £18,000, and about £100,000 of that would be expended on labour, 50 per cent. of that would be provided out of the Hospitals' Sweeps. As to the proposed Fisheries Bill, while there might be certain restrictions on net fishing in tidal waters, there would be no interference with those whose livelihood depended on it. The Government had already a grant for the remaking of the Front Strand Road and the work would be soon commenced. There was some difficulty in connection with the repair of the Sloblands Embankment but his colleague and he would do their level best in the matter. There was some delay in connection with the new Sewerage Scheme owing to the plans not being submitted. When the time came the Government would be prepared to do their part. He concluded by appealing to them to build up a strong organisation locally and thereby strengthen their Deputies' hands when required.

Mr. Sean Goulding, who was well received, said the Fianna Fail Government was only too anxious to safeguard the interests of the people of Ireland as a whole without injury to anybody. No matter what was said in the Dail or anywhere else, the present Government had done more for the interest of the people in general than any Government before. True Nationality aimed at the furtherance of the interests of the people as a whole without losing sight of the interests of the individual members. In that country of theirs they had people who would complain of any legislation because they thought of their own interests only. They were men in Ireland, who had sacrificed everything for the country and those sacrifices they had made as a result of those sacrifices.

saying it—and make the board and lodging 18s. 6d. weekly.

There was a further matter Mr. Hungerford said—the parties had been allowed the usual seaman's allotment which was paid when a seaman made an allotment to his wife. He submitted such an allowance should be deducted from the award.

Mr. Daly said respondent had made the allowance, which was 15s. until the vessel was declared lost, to the widow out of the bigness and generosity of his heart, seeing the plight of those people.

On the food and lodging valuation as decided by his Lordship, an award of £300 was made: £270 to the widow, £30 to John, and as to the juveniles, £40 to Florence and £4 10s. to Kevin, making the £282 10s. claim.
