WATERFORD CO. BOARD OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Commissioner Moynihan sat at the Boardroom, Co. Home, Dungarvan, to deal with business under the Board of Health. The following cottages were let: Parkenaglogh to Mr. Hubbert, Ballybrack, Kilmacothomas. There were five other applicants. Kilkent—Thomas Power, Brenan, Stradbally. Lacken—Ed. Flynn, Coolnasmear. Three others applied. Coolbeggan—S. Fitzgerald, Tallow Street, Youghal. Monadh—Martin Neill, Churchtown, Carrick-on-Suir. No applications were received for cottages at Kibbeg and Carrigenaha. The following report was made from the Co. M.O.H. for the month of June: Infectious Diseases—The following infectious diseases were notified to this Office during the month: Diphtheria—4; Facial Erysipelas—1; Tuberculosis—3; Acute Primary Pneumonia—1. Three of the Diphtheria notifications were received from the Carrick-on-Suir No. 2 Rural District and one from the Dungarvan R.D. The Facial Erysipelas notification was received from the Waterford No. 1 R.D. Epidemic Diarrhoea—A Circular was received from the Minister for Local Government and Public Health during the month, drawing attention to the marked increase of mortality from Diarrhoea amongst children under two years of age, and to the importance of taking timely measures for the prevention of this disease. It was noted that the general public would be aware that such Diarrhoeal Diseases are attributable to food contamination arising from disregard of cleanliness in the household and in municipal sanitary arrangements, from the agency of flies as carriers of infection, and from an unwholesome milk supply. In all cases for the prevention of diarrhoea it is most important not only to insist on domestic cleanliness, but also to secure that all accumulations of dust, refuse, or filth about the dwelling are removed at frequent intervals. This applies to the contents of gieves, manure heaps and ashpits, and to the cleansing of yards, passages and streets. In this way the breeding of flies, which are such potent agents in polluting food and drink may be prevented. All practical measures for the destruction of house-flies, in order to prevent their access to food, should be taken. Strict attention to the observance of cleanliness (hands and clothing) on the part of milkers and thorough cleansing and scalding of utensils used for containing milk should be enjoined. Precautions for the storage of milk in dairies and in the houses of consumers should be always protected with muslin or other covering. The practice observed in some districts of leaving uncovered vessels outside houses for the purpose of receiving the milk supply should be discontinued. Fever Hospitals—There were in all 12 admissions to County Fever Hospitals during the month; 4 discharges therefrom and one death. On the last date of the month, there remained 10 patients still undergoing treatment. Notification of Births—Births notified during the month numbered 23 including one Stillbirth. Medical Assistance was requisitioned by Midwives in 4 cases. Inspection of Midwives—Miss Conboy, Public Health Nurse, and Deputy Inspector of Midwives, who took up duty on 2nd June inspected 38 Midwives in the County, and she reports that there is a tendency on the part of the greater number of Midwives to carry out instructions given, and fulfil their duties, according to the Rules of the Central Midwives Board. Tuberculosis—During the month there were 16 attendances of all patients at Tuberculosis Clinics, which attendances were made up by 71 patients. Two patients are under treatment in the Sanatoria, 6 patients in County Institutions, and 3 non-pulmonary patients in other hospitals. Thirteen domiciliary cases were attended by the Tuberculosis Officer and 9 patients were attended by other doctors, under the Domiciliary Visiting Scheme. One premises was notified as requiring disinfection; 5 Sputa or other specimens were examined, and 4 Contacts were also examined. One patient died during the month. The Jubilee Nurses paid 287 visits to 58 patients. General Sanitation—During the month Sanitary Sub-Officers throughout the County carried out 630 inspections of dwelling-houses. Streams, Outfall Sewers, etc., were also inspected. Dairies, Cowsheds & Milkshops Order—The Veterinary Surgeons carried out 63 inspections under above order. Their reports, which were satisfactory, have been sent before the Board. The Dairy and Cowshed Inspectors carried out 150 inspections of premises in the County, during the month. Anti-Diphtheria Immunisation—Arrangements were completed during the month for the Immunisation of children in the Rathgormac District. It is very desirable that this beneficial Scheme be extended to other areas. I have had verbal

DUNGARVAN SHOW

HIGH-CLASS EXHIBITS SUCCESSFUL EVENT

THE Dungarvan Show on Thursday, was held in beautiful weather and though a few light showers fell after midday they did not interfere with the attendance, which was well up to the mark of previous years. The Committee had made many improvements which were highly appreciated. The main test of a Show is the quality of its exhibits. That is what appeals to the practical man. And in that regard the best quality ever seen at a Provincial Show was evident in the Horse and Cattle sections. From far and near came excellent specimens of the Irish hunter and equally high-class examples of the dual purpose cattle which have made such a name in this and adjoining Counties. The Judges had a stiff task set them, but being men of vision and skill their decision won the approval of all. We could write at great length of the advantages conferred on the agricultural community by the holding of these Shows, which are of such value as competitive tests for the betterment of breeding, but we know their purpose is understood in this County and the Dungarvan Show has in the years gone by done its share in developing the Horse, Cattle, Sheep and Swine industries. All the officials backed by the Secretary (Mr. J. Lynch), did their duties in their usual perfect and finished manner. President—A. DUNGARVAN URBAN COUNCIL

NEW HOUSING SCHEME MEAT INSPECTION

At the weekly meeting of the above held on Friday, Mr. M. Morrissey, Chairman, presided. Also present—Messrs. T. McCarthy, Vice-Chairman; J. Mansfield, J. Dahill, J. J. Crotty, M. Connors, J. Foley, P. Quann. Sewerage As Explained Mr. McCarthy asked where the sewerage from the new factory was being discharged? The Borough Surveyor said that it was discharged at Cody's Quay. Mr. McCarthy—It has been reported to me by boatmen that the sewerage discharges right beneath the wall at Cody's Quay. It interferes with the fishing boats. Of course, it is not the fault of the factory, but of ourselves. B.S.—There is some confusion about that. Mr. McCarthy—It has been reported to me anyway and also that there are rocks left at Cody's Quay, which are a danger to boats. Chairman—I am nearly sure that the drainage from the factory is being taken out for 30 or 40 yards beyond the wall. There is no sewerage on the wall at all. Mr. McCarthy—I think a deputation should have a look at the place. We say it is not there and the men using the place say it is. The matter was referred to the B.S., and the S.S.O. New Housing A letter was read from the architects, Messrs. Doyle and Ormond, stating that they would have the necessary contract documents drawn up in about three weeks. In the meantime the sites should be cleared so that there would be no delay with the housing scheme. The Chairman stated that Mr. Strahan, L.G.D., Engineer, was down and that together with himself and the architects they went into the whole scheme. They came to a satisfactory agreement about McGrath's field. The only objection was the proximity of Gallows Hill, which it was thought would impede development in the future, but it was agreed that by levelling two or three houses out the difficulty would be got over and that there would be plenty room for future development. Mr. Strahan said the matter was now in our hands to get on with the scheme and things should be going by August. Mr. J. Foley—Who is responsible for the delay? Chairman—I suppose they say we are and we blame them. Mr. Strahan did not mention that. Mr. Crotty—It should be understood that this Council are not at all responsible for the delay. It was ordered that those responsible for the clearing of the sites be notified that the sites must be cleared immediately and that the Council are in a position to pay them. The Clerk was instructed to get the solicitor to go ahead with the preparation of the necessary documents. Horse Fair Arrangements for advertising, etc., were discussed in connection with the horse fair to be held on August 13th. Compensation The Department sanctioned the following payments to persons disturbed by reason of the demolition of the Clearance area Mahony £50; Condon, £20; Miss Maher, £50 and T. Lee, £40. Dea's Field Messrs. Deo Bros., wrote stating that the least price they would sell the field at Gallows Hill would be £500. Class II.—Open to horses that have not won a Jumping Competition in 1936. First Prize Solid Silver Cup £28; 2nd £4; 3rd £1. Thirty competed. After several eliminating rounds the Judge's award was: Miss M. A. White, Clonmel ... 1 P. Scannell, Cork ... 2 Lady Helen McColmont. DUNGARVAN FARMERS DANCE COMMITTEE Cup—For the best Hunter or Huntress, 4 years old and upwards, entered in Classes 1, 2, or 3. To be won three years in succession by the same owner—becoming his property. Won by T. O'Brien, Ballyvaddock, Middleton. West Waterford Hunt Challenge Cup (presented by late Col. R. H. Keane) for the Best Gelding or Filly entered in Classes 4 or 5, best calculated to make a hunter or huntress, bred and owned by a resident of the West Waterford Hunt District. To be won three years in succession by the same exhibitor before becoming his property.—Won by Jas. J. Curran, Ballinacourt, Ring, Dungarvan. "Observer" Cup (presented by J. A. Lynch, Editor "Observer") for the Best Brood Mare in Foal or with Foal at foot, best calculated to produce high-class Hunters. Open to Mares entered in

(Before Mr. J. S. Troy, D.J.)

Guard Rafferty, summoned James Kiely, Cappagh, for having no cycle light. Defendant said he had a front light but no reflector. Guard—You had no light. Fined 2/- and 2/6 for the reflector. Same v. Patk. Kiely, Cappagh, no light. Defendant—I was only shoving a bicycle for a girl while she was lighting the cigarette. Mr. Troy—Who was the girl?—Defendant—Cissie Early. Mr. Troy—The Guard says she had a bicycle of her own. Defendant—I was holding it for her. Fined 2/- and 2/6 in each case. Same v. Ml. Flynn, fined 3/6. Same v. Ml. Murray, Knocknacroha. Fined 1/-; Same v. Ed. Fitzgerald, Cappagh, fined 3/6. Guard Farrell v. Ml. Hallahan, Durrow, fined 3/6. Guard Deasy, v. R. Glavin, Briskey, fined 2/6. Alleged Careless Driving The case of Supt. Walsh, v. Alfred Coward, Dungarvan, for driving a motor in a careless manner on May 13th, and for having defective brakes, was adjudged owing to the absence of the principal witness, Mr. P. Sheridan. Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., for the defendant. Hurling On Street Guard Deasy, summoned two boys named Patk. Daniel, and Thomas Murphy, for hurling on the street. Daniel said they had no ball but a bit of a stick and they were hitting their hurleys together. Mr. Troy—You must give up hurling on the streets. The case was left stand over and his Worship said he would impose a heavy penalty on any one charged with this offence in future. Possession Case Mr. John Power, Ballinacoush, summoned Ml. Lyons, labourer, for possession of a house. Mr. T. C. Williams, solr., for plaintiff. Plaintiff said he had the defendant employed for the past 7 years. About 14 years ago he got married and went into this house. His wages were 12/- free house, 1/6 of land and his board. He left his employment in March, but did not give up the house when demanded. He wanted the house for another workman. Lyons—I have no where to go. I can't get a house. I must go into the Poor-house. In reply to Mr. Troy, Mr. Power agreed to give defendant a month to get a house. Ruled accordingly. Exemption Order Application having been made for an extension order on the 12th and 19th inst., in connection with the Carnival in aid of the Children's Health Committee, Dungarvan, and Supt. Walsh having no objection, his Worship fixed the hours of extension from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. Road Opening Cost Mr. Bowen, wrote stating that the Council could open the road in the Main Street on the usual conditions, the cost of resurfacing the road would be 10/- per square yard. Mr. Bowen referred to the frequent openings made in the roads and said that as the pipes were only laid a few years it showed bad construction and workmanship. It was impossible he said to keep a decent appearance on the streets owing to frequent openings. Mr. Mansfield said that he thought 10/- a square yard was entirely too high. It was agreed that Mr. Bowen be asked to reduce the price of resurfacing. Cinema Superintendent Walsh, wrote and asked for a report as to what action was taken re Sunday pictures shown on May 17th and 24th. The Clerk was instructed to give the information. Meat Inspection Regarding the adoption of the bye-law relating to Meat Inspection, a letter dealing with the matter was before the meeting from Dr. O'Farrell, Co. M.O.H. The Clerk read communications from other towns stating the cost of the inspection, viz.,— Carrick-on-Suir, Meat and Milk Inspection £50 per annum. Thirlis £35 per annum; Tipperary £20 per annum. Mr. Mansfield—What are we paying? Clerk—£20 for milk. Chairman—One thing is certain that Meat inspection is very necessary, more-so, I think than milk. Mr. Dahill—The Veterinary Surgeon told us that his Association would not allow a salary less than £50 for each. Mr. Quann—What is his Association to you. It was decided to ask Mr. Byrne, V.S., to perform the duties of milk and meat Inspector for £50.

DEISE DOINGS

CHRONICLED AND CRITICISED - By - CARRIG NA GAEDHEAL (Specially Contributed.)

The Mayor of Waterford—Councillor Alyward's Career.

The two most important events in the Deise during the past week were the election of Mayor of Waterford and the holding of Feis Portlairge. The keenest public interest was evinced in both functions. I tender my congratulations to Councillor James Alyward on his unanimous election, and it will be generally agreed that he was fully entitled to a second term of office. He has proved himself to be an able and efficient public representative and one who is "all things to all men" as far as helping the citizens of Waterford is concerned. And he has not spared himself to improve Portlairge's position industrially and commercially. An ideal Mayor. It is ten years since he filled the position of President of the Waterford Chamber of Commerce; and his experience in that capacity has been helpful to him in guiding the destinies of the premier body in Portlairge. He is proprietor of a very extensive drapery establishment on the Quays, which does a lucrative business. In commercial circles and in Chamber of Commerce debates Mayor Alyward has displayed sound judgment, tact and business acumen that could not be excelled by merchants far more advanced in years. To put in in tabloid: He has business ability par excellence.

Life-Long Supporter of The G.A.A. and Gaelic League.

Mayor Alyward as all the world knows hails from Mullinavat, in South Kilkenny—a part of the Deise tribal territory. The people of South Kilkenny gravitate towards the city of Waterford. Having graduated in O'Brien's Collegiate Academy, Lady Lane, Waterford, about 36 years ago, the Mayor entered the firm of Walsh and Fieldings as an apprentice to the drapery trade. But as I have touched already on his business career I would like to write a few lines about his activities in the G.A.A. and Gaelic League Organisations. He put in some strenuous years as Secretary to the South Kilkenny Branch G.A.A., and often displayed great prowess on the hurling and football fields. He has not missed an All-Ireland Hurling Final for 33 years. I attribute his stamina in the Gaelic Athletic Arena to the fact that his course of training included the dancing of "The Dag"—a dance peculiar to South Kilkenny which has vigorous heel movements that tend to physical fitness. When free from business cares he has been busy organising Gaelic League Concerts, in his native area. An honorary member today of the Waterford Branch Gaelic League, his national outlook has not altered one jot. And it is indeed in keeping with the fitness of things that a Deise man with such an excellent national record should fill today the position of First Citizen of Pádraig Na Deise.

Feis Portlairge—Great Hosting Of the Gaels.

Owing to a prior engagement in Clonmel on Sunday week where Mayor Alyward had an appointment to meet President de Valera, at the All-Ireland Athletic Championship meeting, he was unable to attend the opening ceremony of Feis Portlairge in the Presentation Convent Grounds. But he was there in spirit. The Feis was a huge success from every standpoint. As Feis Mor performed the formal opening ceremony at 3 p.m. in a brief and spirited address, Seas Leis An Deise. It was a tonic for the most pessimistic Gael to visit the extraordinary display of talent in the various competitions, choral singing, drama, dancing, etc. The best judges, I think, in Ireland, adjudicated; and they had a most difficult task to decide the winners. The choral singing was a glorious treat. I hope it will be possible to organise a Gaelic event (such as an Aeridheacht) before the summer is gone so that the hundreds who were precluded from hearing the choirs in the Presentation Convent Schools might get an opportunity of enjoying the singing. The Violin playing competition was won after "a replay" by young man Cantwell of Mooncoin. He is certainly a star player—a first-class exponent of traditional music. It is interesting to note that his father won a gold medal for traditional singing at Feis Porelaire 1903. The Amhran Brioghamar appeals to an Irish audience more so than the Caoine variety. On a Feis day I think the majority of the test songs should be in the former category. The popularity of the choral competitions was due, in my opinion to the brightly lively songs that were contributed.

Ceilidh Mor in the Gaelic League Hall—Most Enjoyable Event

There was an appropriate sequel to the successful Feis Day proceedings in the Gaelic League Hall, Lady Lane, on Sunday night, when a most enjoyable Ceilidh was held. Several Feis prize-winners in singing and dancing contributed to the "Char." It was one of the best functions of the kind that I have attended for years. A grand crowd of refined buccalli and caillín; spirited Irish music, a perfect floor, everyone in a pleasant mood to make everyone else happy; no formal introductions necessary and every individual present felt at home. The gaiety of the Irish temperament was experienced at its best. We had beautiful community singing. Here again the Amhran Brioghamar scored. The three contributions by Tomas Daithí O'Conghaile, were "Mairín," "Mo Teachlaic," and "Allilín Na Gamma" were much appreciated the entire audience joining in the chorus of those lively Irish songs. I met the lady who adjudicated the Senior Dancing Competitions, Mrs. O'Byrne of Blackpool, Cork. She praised the standard of dancing very highly. A senior four-hand-reel team from Waterford, she declared gave the best display of natural Irish dancing that she had seen for years. Mrs. O'Byrne was delighted with the atmosphere that prevailed at the Ceilidh and was loud in her praises of the cordial reception accorded to the visitors.

Aeridheacht At Butlerstown— I am informed that an Aeridheacht will be held at Butlerstown (a few miles from Waterford City) in the near future when the cream of the talent of Feis Portlairge will contribute to a Clar. It will be a great treat for the rural folk in that part of the Deise. The concert will be held on a Sunday afternoon and I would not be surprised to see a big trek of patrons from the city. The popular and respected Muinteoir Naisiunta of the district, Mr. Sean Flanagan, is co-operating with the organising of the Festival, and that I think, is a sufficient guarantee of a very enjoyable event.

Dr. J. J. Hogan—R.M.S., County and City Infirmary.

Last week I wrote a couple of paragraphs in reference to the Waterford County and City Infirmary. Any reference to that admirable institution that is doing so much good for the public of this area, would not be complete without mentioning the popular R.M.S., Dr. J. J. Hogan, than whom there is no more kind-hearted and efficient medical officer in the Southwest. He has the assistance, no doubt of an able and devoted staff of doctors and nurses. But I think I would be justified in writing that there was no R.M.S. in the Infirmary during the history of that old-established hospital, who for so long a period has carried out his duties with such remarkable energy and thoroughness and who has been so uniformly kind to all patients treated there. The same skillful attendance is given to all classes without distinction. There is a picture called "Smiling Through" which has delighted Cinema goers. There is another picture that I would portray as a Governor of the Infirmary: Doctor Hogan going through the wards (I should write singing Through) for he is always humming some pleasant ditty that cheers the sick people. He has the ideal bed-side manner. The R.M.S. is a tonic for the patients.

Cared Thousands—A Benefactor to Humanity

On the facet of the County Infirmary Building is an inscription: Leper Hospital 1785—County and City Infirmary 1897. Kind turns are unfortunately quickly forgotten by many people. The Scripture incident where Our Lord healed the lepers and only one returned to give thanks is often quoted regarding persons who have received excellent hospital treatment and are discharged "cured" but immediately forgot the kindness and attention that had been bestowed upon them. They go their way as if they had received no favour. As one who has had relatives treated in the County Infirmary, I tender my little tribute of thanks to Doctor J. J. Hogan, and I would say that of all the thousands who have been cured in the Infirmary during the regime of the present R.M.S., that any one of them will deny that my words are exaggerated or that he does not richly deserve my encomiums. Dr. Hogan is also Medical Officer in charge of the Tuberculosis Dispensary at Hennessy's Road for many years. And again I would say that all the thousands of patients who have attended the Dispensary and benefited by the kind and expert treatment of the doctor, will agree with me that he has been a great benefactor to humanity in this area.

RECENT RAILWAY FATALITY

At the Dungarvan Circuit Court last week. This was an application by Mrs. Mary Relehan, Ballymacmaigue, Dungarvan, for compensation against the Great Southern Railway Co., for the loss of her husband Thomas Relehan, who was killed while in the course of his employment as level crossing gateman at Ballymacmaigue.

Mr. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Mr. Farrell, solr.) said this man was employed as gateman 17 years at this crossing. On the 10th February last this man started work as usual. The weather was abnormal about this time and a train due at 8 a.m. did not come along until 12.50 p.m. All this time the deceased had to let traffic through. Owing to the storm the deceased had to have help to work the gates and it was very fortunate that there was not more loss of life.

His Lordship—Do the Railway Company give any notice when a train is overdue?

Mr. McGuire—No. There was no telephone communication with this crossing at that time.

Continuing, Mr. McGuire said that from the figures supplied by the Company the amount earned by the deceased in the 3 years prior to the accident was £281 8s. 1d., so that the total compensation his dependents would be entitled to under the Act would be £300. Liability is acknowledged by the Company and the only question for his Lordship to determine is, who this money is to be paid to.

After hearing from the applicant, His Lordship held that the applicant is the sole dependent and entitled to the amount lodged in court. He directed that £200 be invested for her benefit in new Land Bonds.

INJURED FINGER

At the Dungarvan Circuit Court last week.

Mr. McGuire, B.L., said the applicant Mrs. Mary Hennessy, Loughmore, Dungarvan, is a married woman about 39 years of age with one child aged 11 years. She is living apart from her husband. She was 2 1/2 years in the employment of the respondent, Miss K. Power, O'Connell St., on 4th Nov., last in the course of her occupation as general domestic while scrubbing a table a splinter entered the index finger. She attached no importance to it at the time. When she got home that night she found Dr. McCarthy attending her mother and she had to stay at home and mind her mother. After some time her finger got bad and she had to go to hospital.

Applicant in evidence bore out the above statement. When she went to the hospital to see Dr. McCarthy, he told her to remain and he would operate on it. She was in hospital until January. Her wages were 6/6 a week and three meals.

To Mr. McDonald, B.L.—Witness described the table she was scrubbing. She did not say anything to Miss Power about it, as she did not want to make a fuss, but she showed it to Robert Barry. Miss Power called to her house on Nov. 11th, to know if she was going back to work. She said she could not go back as her mother was bad and agreed that Miss Power should get another maid. She said nothing to Miss Power about her finger that day. She could not remember going back to Miss Power's on Nov. 17th, and offering to come back to do washing and cook the dinner. Dr. McCarthy was attending her mother, but she did not show him her finger until Nov., 22nd. She was sure it was while at Power's she got the splinter. She told Barry about it when it happened and he said you should try and get it out. There was no whittle on her finger.

Robert Barry, deposed he was employed by Miss Power in Nov., last. He remembered Mrs. Hennessy coming into the store and telling him there was a bit of a chip in her finger.

To his Lordship—Witness said he did not try to pull it out, as he did not want to have anything to do with it, because if anything happened he would be blamed (laughter).

To Mr. McDonald, B.L.—He was dismissed in Dec., for insubordination. He would not work with the new maid. He got on very well with Mary Hennessy.

Dr. McCarthy said applicant came to the Hospital on November 22nd, with an acute septic finger and said she had an accident a few weeks before. The finger was blood-poisoned and could have been 3 weeks injured. She was about 5 weeks in hospital. She is suffering partial incapacity due to the condition of her finger. The injury is consistent with what she states.

POWER'S MINERALS ARE SO GOOD Because they are made from the pure sparkling spring water of Saint Brigid's Well. Thomas Power & Co., ST. BRIGID'S WELL BREWERY DUNGARVAN

To his Lordship—It would be difficult to define the amount of incapacity.

To Mr. McDonald—The injury could be caused by a nail or anything else. He saw no sign of a splinter.

To Mr. McGuire, B.L.—Certain duties as a domestic would be interfered with. The poulticing would possibly have removed the splinter before he saw it.

Dr. Casack, said he examined the applicant on June 30th, and found definite rigidity of the finger. The injury would be consistent with the story she told, or could be due to a whittle or other causes. He thought the present state of her finger hindered her in her work.

Miss Kathleen Power, Miss A. Stack, and Miss Mary Power, having given evidence for the defence (which relied on the failure of the applicant to bring the proceedings within the specified period of 6 months).

Mr. McGuire, B.L., addressed the Court on the question of reasonable cause for the claim being late.

His Lordship in summing up said he thought Mrs. Hennessy an honest woman and that she did get the splinter in her hand, but he held with the defence that there was not reasonable cause for the claim being late and dismissed the action.

CHARMING CLONEA—

Refreshing to record that easily-reached Clonea's truly beautiful bathing strand (dominated by the wooded mass of Cloncoskerine demense and Croughan's comely crown on one side, and by, homely Helvic Head on the other) is being thickly peopled these days—the Atlantic assuredly has not a more resplendent resort and its popularity has grown enormously in recent years, thanks to the able proprietorship of Ocean View Hotel.

SWEET STRADBALLY—

Stradbally bids fair to become one of the leading holiday haunts on the Deise seaboard. It has an ideally healthy situation, invigorating ether, and excellent facilities for bathing. Framing the local cove are fine cliffs offering walks among grassy trails amid scenery so beautiful that it does honour to the creative hand of God Himself. Holidayists who have experienced the spell of Stradbally say that it yields one a new zest for life. And this sweetly calm and peaceful spot of splendour shelters its share of visitors today.

DUNGARVAN CIRCUIT COURT

INTERESTING CASES

Cases heard last week in Dungarvan, by Mr. Justice Sealy, K.C.

Maher v. Maher

This was a civil bill for £18 brought by Patrick Maher, Kilmagobogue, against Mr. Maher, Coolbogg, Clashmore, being balance of £30 in respect of 4 yearling cattle purchased by the defendant from the plaintiff in 1932.

Patrick Maher, in reply to Mr. Ryan said he had a small farm. He brought yearlings to the Dungarvan fair in 1932 and asked the defendant to drive them with him.

The defendant went with him and said he would buy the cattle if he got time to pay for them. They agreed that the price would be £30. The defendant sold the cattle at the October fair in Youghal. He paid witness £12 and did not say anything about the balance.

He later called at witness's house and said he would give him £12 and a cow that would calve about October. That was in August 1933. The defendant sold his land last year, but he never gave witness a penny beyond the £12.

Cross-examined by Mr. Molloy, B.L., plaintiff is 67 years old. His memory is not unreliable. He was attended by Dr. Casey about 5 years ago but it was not for loss of memory. He had litigation with a man named Farrissey about the sale of a pony and trap some years ago.

The action was dismissed, but Farrissey had not paid him. This present deal took place in 1932, over 4 years ago. The defendant was always friendly to witness and was best man at his wedding a few years ago.

He does not remember being offered £20 and £27 at the fair and refusing to sell. Defendant said he would take them at £25, but witness said he wanted £30. There was no particular time mentioned for payment, but when defendant would sell the cattle, defendant gave witness a ten-pound note and two single notes in Russell's pub-house about two months after that.

He never paid him the full amount. Defendant brought witness out in the yard at Russell's and asked him to say he was paid for the cattle.

To his Lordship—That was because people were talking and saying that the defendant had not paid witness. When they came in from the yard the defendant asked him in the presence of Wm. Downing did he not pay me for the cattle, and witness replied yes. He wanted witness to say that to stop the talk.

To Mr. Molloy, B.L.—That conversation took place in the yard and witness did not meet the defendant since 1932.

Mrs. B. Maher, wife of the plaintiff said they were married on November 5th, 1932. The defendant was best man at the wedding. He called to the house in August 1933 and said he had paid £12 and would they be satisfied with £12 more and a cow that would calve in Oct. They agreed to that. She had written a letter to him previous to that visit.

To Mr. Molloy, B.L.—Witness said the defendant squandered and drank the money he got for the land. Defendant lived about 3 miles from witness. She goes to Mass at Aglish and she thought defendant went to Clashmore. She only saw him once outside of the time he called since 1933, he flew past her on a bicycle.

They gave him a chance all along thinking he was an honest man and would pay. She is not the cause of bringing these parties in, but she does not like the defendant.

Mr. Maher, defendant, said he was always a great friend of plaintiff. He attended the fair with him and heard him offered £30 for the yearlings.

To his Lordship—He is a relative of plaintiff's and know him since he was a boy, he is about 54 years old. He was match-making for the plaintiff several times, and was best man at his wedding. Plaintiff was distant and would hardly look at witness since. He offered plaintiff £28 for the cattle if he could not sell them, at first he wanted £30, but later said £28 is alright Mike and you can pay me anytime. Witness only went to help plaintiff to drive the cattle that day and did not mean to buy any cattle.

About 2 months later he went to pay plaintiff and paid him on the road. He gave him one £10 note one £5 note and the remainder in single notes. Plaintiff said that's all right Mike and put it in his pocket without counting it. He met him later in Russell's pub-house. Wm. Downing was there and Mr. Russell. Witness said to plaintiff didn't I pay you for the cattle and he said you did Mike. He did not bring plaintiff out in the yard to make up this story. He heard it suggested that £12 was paid in Russell's but there is no truth in that. He never visited plaintiff's house and promised £12 or a cow. He had met both Mr. and Mrs. Maher three or four times since 1933.

To Mr. Ryan—He went on a friendly visit to Maher's in 1933. Mr. Ryan—Even though they were distant to you. Continuing, witness said the bargain made in Dungarvan was to pay anytime I liked. Witness was dealing in cattle at the time he sold the four cattle in Oct., and lost £10 on them. Witness, continuing, said he attached no importance to the rumours as he was after paying plaintiff. He got a letter from Mr. Ryan.

planned man on the road without any witness?

Witness—Yes. It was not true to say he paid plaintiff £12 at Russell's or that he asked him out in the yard. He never got a letter from Mrs. Maher. He is not a tea-totaller, but is not a drunkard, and held a position of trust, for which he could show a letter. He had let his farm for 11 months.

To Mr. Molloy—When he got this letter from Mr. Ryan he felt strangely about it.

Mr. M. Russell, in reply to Mr. Molloy, said he had a licensed premises at Aglish. He knew both plaintiff and defendant well. Defendant is not by any means a drunkard. Plaintiff and Downing were in the bar this evening when the defendant came in and said there is a rumour around that I did not pay you for the cattle and plaintiff replied—"You did, Mike." All were perfectly sober. There was no money exchanged in my presence.

To Mr. Ryan—He did not see any money exchanged. He could not say whether the conversation about the paying for the cattle took place immediately after plaintiff and defendant had come in from the yard.

To Mr. Molloy—Plaintiff and defendant are both friends of his and he was sorry to be on the case at all. Wm. Downing, said he remembered Mike Maher asking Paddy Maher out to the yard and after coming in asking him if he had not paid him for the cattle and plaintiff muttered very slow—you did.

His Lordship said he accepted plaintiff's evidence and gave a decree for £18 and £7. expenses.

Workmen's Compensation

Mr. McGuire, B.L., said this was an application to review the amount of compensation granted to D. Heslip, Dungarvan, in respect of an injury received by him while in the employment of Messrs. A. Moloney and Sons. On July 13th, 1934, D. Heslip was loading barley for the applicant at the Shandon Dairy when the injury was received. At the last Circuit Court the case was adjourned to allow an operation on respondent's mouth as he was suffering from bad teeth.

Mr. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Mr. A. R. Farrell, solr.) for applicants. Mr. McDonald, B.L., (instructed by Messrs. J. F. Williams and Sons) for respondent.

Mr. McGuire said the respondent was in receipt of 26/3 a week for total incapacity from the time of the accident up to the present.

Dr. McCarthy said at the last circuit court he advised having respondent's teeth removed. His general health had since improved and in his opinion he is now fit for light work.

To Mr. McDonald, B.L.—He found some limitations of movement still, but he thought his movements were freer now than previously. He was doing heavy work up to the time of the accident, the man is in or about 60 years, and at that age would not be fit for very heavy work. It was witness's opinion from lumbargia he would have been attending the Dispensary. His opinion was that Heslip would never be able to do full work again, but he would not agree that that was because the man was 60 years of age.

Respondent in reply to Mr. McDonald, B.L., said he worked nearly all the year round at Moloney's before the accident. He did every kind of heavy work. He got his teeth out since the last court but was not feeling too well. When he is lying in bed he feels the pain in his back, it is going just like an alarm clock ticking (laughter).

His Lordship—What does Dr. Casey say to that? Witness—I don't know. Continuing, witness said he never got a pain in his back before the accident and if he did he could not go down the hold of a boat. He was very seldom idle.

To Mr. McGuire, B.L.—Witness said he had done about 40 years work and would go on working as long as he could. At the present moment he could not do the work he used to do. He never suffered from lumbargia or shooting pains before the accident.

Mr. P. J. Moloney (A. Moloney and Sons) said Heslip was a very good workman prior to the accident. He did dock and general labourers work.

To Mr. McGuire—He had one man older than Heslip working. His Lordship held that at the moment Heslip was fit for light work. He found partial incapacity and would reduce the compensation to 17/7 a week. He would allow Heslip his costs and expenses.

Workmen's Compensation

Mr. McGuire, B.L., (instructed by Messrs. E. A. Ryan and Co.) defended. Mr. Molloy said the accident occurred on 24th April last, while the applicant in the course of his employment was loading a heavy pole assisted by men named Organ and Sullivan. His average weekly earnings was £3, which entitles him to the maximum compensation of 30s. a week. No compensation has been paid. The only question at issue now is his capacity.

Applicant in evidence said he was a married man with three children and was employed by Messrs. Kavanaugh, 25, from me, you must think I am very soft (laughter).

Mr. Ryan—So you said this absent-

KILMATHOMAS NEWS.

A MEMORABLE EVENT—

The piety and favour of the people of Kilmathomas were very much in evidence on Sunday evening last when practically the whole population of the town and many from the surrounding districts took part in the Annual Procession of the Blessed Sacrament. It was certainly a wonderful and inspiring demonstration of public faith and it was only fitting that the elements should be in a very kind mood. Skies of azure and emerald, golden sunshine with a fresh southerly wind to temper the July heat made conditions perfect for the finest display of sacred pageantry ever witnessed in the town. People had been doing overtime during the previous week brightening up the general appearance of the houses. On Saturday the Valley of the houses was ravished of its choicest flowers and greenery and lo! on Sunday morning an ideal Kilmathomas greeted the eye—the veritable "soft retreat of sylvan splendour"—Railway Road, the Square and the Main Street being beautifully decorated beyond description.

Bunting copious and exquisite, lovely bannerettes, holy pictures and statues, amid the bright grandeur of Nature on all sides, and flowers of wondrous hues hailed the Host of Hosts on His journey glow and sweetly solemn through the principal thoroughfares of our grand old Catholic town. The Procession was the finest on record, vividly striking, impressive and spectacular, magnificently vigorous in portraying the strength of the forces which keep our beloved Isle at one with the glorious Christian civilisation of the past against those puny little materialistic instincts now trying to take root all the world over.

The Procession was formed up in the vicinity of the Mercy Convent Church, and moved off at 7 o'clock in the following order—Cross-Bearer (Mr. David Hill, Student of St. John's College, Waterford) and Acolytes; Teachers and pupils of Kilmathomas Boys' National School; Mercy Convent School Girls, wearing white veils and garlands of flowers; Teachers and pupils of Newtown Boys' and Girls' National Schools; Members of the Kilmathomas Men's and Women's Guilds of the Sacred Heart Confraternity; members of the Newtown Guilds, etc.

The Rev. M. Power, C.C., Kill, assisted Fr. Galvin, while the Rev. J. Hally, C.C., Kilmathomas, acted as M.C. The prayerful singing of the sacred hymns was a splendid feature of the soulful function. At an artistically decorated altar erected on the Square a brief halt was called, and the processions reverently knelt for Solemn Benediction of the Most Holy Host, which was imparted by Fr. Galvin. Having traversed the streets already named and returned to the Convent Church, which was most tastefully arrayed for the auspicious occasion, the proceedings concluded with the imparting of Solemn Benediction of the Most Blessed Sacrament again by Fr. Galvin. The discipline, reverence and piety evinced by the vast congregation as a whole were exemplary in extreme, and the impression remains that the moral strength of our people is impregnable and that this fine Catholic spirit alone will ultimately prove the material salvation of our great Gaelic race.

POPULAR GUARD TRANSFERRED—

From time to time we see expressions of regret at the departure of members of the Garda Síochana, but no more sincere regret could be recorded than that of the people of Leamybrien (Kilrossanty) and surrounding districts at the departure on Friday of last week of Guard David Bermingham, who has been transferred to Kilmaganny, Co. Kilkenny. Guard Bermingham's first station in Co. Waterford was Kilmathomas, from whence he was transferred to Leamybrien. During his term of more than three years in these parts he has carried out his duties with conspicuous ability and tact, and his amiability, gentility, and impartiality won the respect and esteem of all. He was a valued member of both the Kilmathomas Hurling Club and the Kilrossanty Football Club. In National Athletic circles he is well and popularly known as a described the loading of the pole and the injury to his back. He attempted to work after the accident but had to give up next day.

He was attending Dr. McCarthy. He was in receipt of wages of 10/- a day at the time of the accident.

To Mr. McGuire—It is now over 9 weeks since the accident, but he had no feeling at present that he was going to get right. He had made every effort to straighten himself up but could not do so. When he walks the vibration hurts his back.

Matthew Organ, gave evidence as to the accident. He was loading the pole which was about 50 feet long. Applicant was at the heavy end. Witness in the centre and Sullivan at the light end. Applicant did not do any more work that day only to lead the horse.

Dr. McCarthy, gave evidence that at present applicant was incapable of doing any kind of work.

To Mr. McGuire, B.L.—Applicant co-operated in every way with him during the examinations. He would strongly advise an X-Ray of the applicant's back. Dr. Casack, Dungarvan, gave evidence for the defence.

His Lordship said this man is entitled to the maximum compensation on the basis of total incapacity and I will make an award of 30/- a week with costs and expenses of witnesses.

weight-thrower of considerable merit. The people of Kilmaganny are to be congratulated on securing the services of such an efficient peace officer, and Guard Bermingham can rest assured that any time he returns to Leamybrien, or to Kilmathomas, he will get a hearty cordial welcome as he on the 3rd inst. got a heart-felt God-speed. Guard Bermingham is a native of Kildorrery, East Cork, as also is his charmingly-mannered wife. Good luck to both.

By the way, Guard Bermingham is replaced at Leamybrien by Guard McGrath, of Kilmaganny.

ALSO LEFT THE LOCALITY—

Mr. Thomas Howston, who has been head gardener on the Fairholme estate at Comeragh for the past 10 years, left there last Saturday morning, with his estimable wife, and their well-liked son, Samuel, to take up residence in their newly-purchased home at Kimmage Road, Dublin, and they have the good wishes of all locally for their future prosperity and happiness in the Metropolis.

SON OF BALLINGOWN PARENTS SHOT BY AN ARAB—

Last week, by both telegram and letter, Mr. James Kiely, Ballingown Cross, Kilrossanty, received official word from British War Office to the effect that his son, Patrick J. Kiely, was wounded by a party of Arabs (who attacked from ambush) at Palestine on the 23rd, ult., and that his condition is not such as need cause his parents undue anxiety. The injured youth, who joined the British Military police some five or six years since, is only in his 25th year, and is six feet high in his stocking tops and built in proportion. Two comrades who were with him when he was ambushed were seriously wounded and their condition is extremely grave. Military policeman Kiely's father and his uncles Patrick, Andy and Tom Kiely, were, like himself, each over 6 feet in height and built accordingly, and all of them were Gaelic footballers of repute in their native parish.

We Put It To You (Serious And Not)—

That the "Leather City" of Portlaw is "pinned" into the heart of a heavenly arcade—

That its 150 factory workers are weaving wool into the life of the Nazareth-like roofed centre—

That even in Bonmahon butter was originally spread with the thumb—

That the Kilmarc man whose Mrs. insists on his pushing the perambulator, pushes the pram—

That most genuine Sliabh cGua gentlemen eventually break away from the Bourne of Bachelordom because of a MISS understanding—

That when a Windgap wife reigns she sometimes storms—

That in and around the Rathgormack region it is generally recognised that the good old days were the days when a girl stayed at home if she had nothing to go out in—

That, judging by their appearance at the Old Borough's sturdily successful Show on Thursday, the daughters of Bohannon's dress is not less becoming since it is not becoming less—

That Kibrien belles are not blind of the fact that there is a bright side to everything, even to the seas of old trousers—

That every modern Kilmeeaden maiden knows needles are for the gramophone—

That aching muscles lost that "every moment an agony" feeling and move with sweet ease after a dip in the briny at Clonca—AND—

That a trim and tidy Tramore tart poured forth fountains of uncalculated tears when she realised that she could not "do out" Annetstown Anne with the Metal Man under the gaze of Dungarvan's deservedly-popular Show Committee on Thursday.

The Pigs Marketing Board wrote Donegal Co. Committee of Agriculture that they were prepared supply for distribution to pig producers in the county 250 young Irish Large White sows at £1 each.

OTHER PEOPLE'S MONEY—

The late Mr. Edmond Walsh, Glendaligh, Kilsosny, farmer, left £1,400 in England and the Irish Free State. He left £100 to his workman Anthony Barron in grateful acknowledgment of his loyalty to me.

DUNGARVAN DOG WINS ST. LEGER—

At Shelbourne Park, Dublin, last Saturday night Moresby black dog (Rowing Bunt)—Faise Colleen owned by Messrs. E. A. Ryan, State Solr., and Mr. Pax Whelan, Abbotside, won the St. Leger Stakes of £250 and Cup. The race was run in the fastest time of 31.68 (550 yards) which proves that Moresby is a high-class performer.

SURBURBAN ROADS—

After many years of weary waiting the Shandon and Old Hospital roads are being modernised. Having been placed under the jurisdiction of the Co. Surveyor, the work has now begun and in a short time we know Mr. Bowen and his staff will have these heretofore rut-holed and rugged highways converted into boulevards which will be a joy to all who use them—motorists and pedestrians will have added safety. When remade on up-to-date lines these roads will be a great addition to the amenities of the town, and will be highly appreciated by the citizens who love a stroll along the Shandon Road, where nature has been so lavish in dispensing her charms.

A NECESSARY WORK—

In view of the narrow escapes of life and limb which occur daily at Tarr's Bridge, where visibility is so bad owing to the high fence, that cars approaching in opposite directions cannot see each other until very often it is too late. Something should be done to safeguard the public. Mr. Bowen, of course, would make a perfect job of the place if he had the money. In the public interest we think Mr. Commissioner Moynihan, who since he took over the administration of the public affairs of the County has discharged his onerous duties with perfect satisfaction to all, might consider the provision of a small sum to fix up this dangerous bend and thus obviate the danger of further accidents.

SPORTS MEETING IN DUNGARVAN

On Sunday, August, 9th, a great Sports meeting will be held at Dungarvan, under the auspices of the Garda of Waterford and Kilkenny, and the event is certain to be the greatest sports display ever seen here. In addition to the usual Field, Track and Cycle events, for which all the leading athletes in the State will enter, there will be a Lady's Cycle race and Tug-of-war, confined to G.A.A. Clubs in Co. Waterford. The well-known athletes—Ed. Tobin, Birmingham, C. O'Callaghan, Paddy Hughes, etc., are all coming, so keep the date before you. The famed Garda Band will be in attendance. A dance will be held in the Town Hall on the Sports night from 10 p.m. to 5 a.m. The genial Sergt. Paul Russell, is Hon. Sec. of the Sports.

DUNGARVAN CARNIVAL—

The Grand Carnival in aid of the Children's Health Committee, was opened in the Christian Bros., Grounds on Thursday evening, when a most imposing parade started from the Square for the grounds, where every form of amusement was provided for the assembled thousands. The arrangements were perfect and the Committee in charge spared no effort to ensure the enjoyment of all visitors. On Sunday next at 3 o'clock there will be a children's Fancy Dress Parade for which valuable prizes will be given. There will be also a Monster Boxing Competition and All-in Wrestling, while the Step-dancing contests next Thursday 16th, inst., will be wonderful. "The Wall of Death" is a special attraction. For all details see advt. elsewhere.

TOURANEENA BAZAAR—

The promoters of the very successful Bazaar and Sale of Work, held at Touraneena, on the 28th and 29th ult., desire to thank very cordially the many kind donors from Dungarvan and other districts outside the parish of Touraneena for the many and valuable gifts and prizes so kindly presented for the occasion. The Bazaar Committee feel that the names of individual donors need not be published as the articles presented for Sale prominently displayed names and addresses of donors at the Stalls on day of Sale. Ornamental Clock, ticket No. 166, and pair of Pictures, ticket No. 190, have not yet been claimed. Winners of above are requested to forward claims to Bazaar Committee within the next week.

CLASHMORE SOCIAL CLUB PICNIC—

The annual Picnic organised by the Clashmore Social Club, was held on Sunday last, at the Old Mill Grounds, Glendaligh. Everything combined to make the event an outstanding success. The venue was ideally situated as it is on the banks of the river Lickie, amidst the prettily-wooded scenery of the river valley, while the enjoyment provided exceeded all expectations. Close on 100 members were present from, Aghish, Villierstown, Lismore and Grange, in addition to Clashmore. Tea was served by the Ladies' Committee. All having partaken of a splendid repast a number of musical items were contributed by some of the gentlemen. A dance was also held. In the evening the large crowd present travelled to Youghal and thus brought a very pleasant day to a fitting conclusion.

The following are the members of the Committee—Misses Stella Merman, Hon. Sec., Miss Dower, A. Terry, M. Terry, A. Meskill, S. O'Brien, Messrs. M. Hogan, P. Troy, D. McGrath, J. Whelan, C. Curran, W. Baldwin, R. Guiry, D. Barton and J. Harte.

DEATH OF MRS. M. WALSH, DOON—

Deep regret is felt at the death of Mrs. Margaret Walsh, Doon, which took place on July 1st, after a brief illness, fortified by the rites of the Church. The deceased was a general favourite with everybody, and was noted for her kind and genial manner and charitable disposition.

A large cortege accompanied the removal of her remains to the Parish Church, Touraneena, where on Friday morning Requiem Masses were celebrated by Very Rev. J. Cullinan, P.P., Rev. B. McGrath, C.C., and Rev. P. Dower, C.C., Waterford, for the repose of her soul.

The interment took place in the adjoining burial ground in the presence of a large gathering.

The chief mourners were—Laurence and Mrs. Walsh, Ed. Walsh, Ed. and Mce. Dower, Mrs. Mansfield, Ballintea, and Mce. Dower, Miss B. Power, Crough, W. and S. Dower, Creggs; Mrs. Quailly, Baracree; P. MILITARY TRIBUNAL

Co. Waterford Men Sentenced

The Military Tribunal sentenced six young men last week on charges of refusing to give an account of their movements and actions when asked by a member of the Garda.

The sentences were as follows:—William O'Donoghue, Knocknagrane, Cappoquin—6 months' imprisonment.

John Tobin, Kilineen, Dungarvan—6 months.

Edmund Carrigan, Knocklofty, Clonmel—3 months.

William Flynn, Coolaneige, Kilworth, Co. Cork—3 months.

Denis Barry, 22 Cork Rd., Fermoy—3 months.

William Lonergan, Roachestown, Ardfinnan, Co. Tipperary—3 months.

The sentences are to take effect from the date of arrest in each case.

The men were tried in batches of three. When arraigned John Tobin said: "As a soldier of the Irish Republican Army, I refuse to recognise this Court to try me on this or any other charge."

O'Donoghue and Carrigan said: "Same here."

Mr. K. Haugh (instructed by Mr. J. S. O'Connor, solicitor to the Attorney-General) said that on April 26 last a young man named John Egan was murdered. The three accused were, amongst others apprehended under Article 2A of the Constitution, as persons who might be concerned with the offence.

Supt. M. Walsh, Dungarvan; Sergt. J. Reynolds, Thurles, and Sergt. T. Murphy, gave evidence of arresting and interrogating the three accused, who declined to answer the questions put to them.

Det.-Officer J. McCabe, Cappoquin, who gave evidence of arrest, was questioned by O'Donoghue, who asked him if it was he who visited O'Donoghue's home three times on April 29.

Witness said—Were you the man who plotted and planned that detectives would waylay me on the road from Dungarvan to Waterford and take me to the Waterford road at midnight and strip me?—No.

Sergt. J. Quinlan, Lismore, giving evidence of character concerning O'Donoghue, said accused had been previously convicted by the Tribunal for refusing to answer questions. He was a farmer with eight children.

Supt. Walsh, Dungarvan, said Tobin

CAPOQUIN NOTES.

Death Of Brother Dominic, O.Cist.— We deeply regret to announce the death of Brother Dominic (Goggin) O.Cist., Mount Mellerey Abbey, which occurred in the Bon Secours Home, Cork, on Saturday evening after a rather protracted illness. Deceased who was a native of Rathinies, Dublin, had spent the best part of his life as a lay brother in the Cistercian Monastery at Mount Mellerey, and his death is now much regretted by the Lord Abbot and all the members of the Community. He was for many years in charge of the Reception Lodge at Mount Mellerey, and in this capacity it was his duty to receive visitors from all parts of the world on their arrival there.

Always kind, genial, hospitable, and cheery, he was during this period one of the best-known and most popular members of the Community and many of the friends from distant lands, as well as in Ireland, who knew him so well will now mourn his loss and pray for the eternal repose of his pure soul.

The remains were conveyed by motor Hearse from Cork to Mount Mellerey on Sunday afternoon, and on Monday morning Solemn Requiem High Mass, over which the Lord Abbot presided, was offered up for the repose of his soul, after which the interment took place in accordance with the Cistercian Ritual, in the Abbey Cemetery, the final Abolition being given at the graveside by the Lord Abbot, assisted by all the Priests and Brothers of the Community.—R.I.P.

Funeral of Miss Colbert.— The funeral of Miss B. Colbert, late Assistant Matron at St. Joseph's Industrial School, Cappoquin, took place after Requiem Mass from St. Mary Church, Cappoquin, on last Friday to the family burial ground at Grange Cemetery, Co. Waterford.

A number of the orphan boys from the Industrial School, over whom she had been in charge, walked at the head of the funeral from a considerable distance outside the town, while large numbers of the general public from Cappoquin also attended the funeral.

The chief mourners were—Mr. M. Colbert, late Postmaster, Youghal (brother); James Colbert, do. (nephew); Mrs. Connelly, do. (sister); John White, Kilsanbeg, Mrs. K. Hallahan, Springfield, Mrs. Connelly, Kilsanbeg, Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgerald, Ardmore, etc. (cousins and relatives).

The Sisters of Mercy, Cappoquin, to whom she had proved such a faithful and devoted official for the long period of 32 years, were specially represented at the funeral, all the arrangements of which were very satisfactorily carried out by Mr. P. Walsh, Undertaker, Cappoquin.—R.I.P.

Correction.— In the list of twelve Scholarships of one month at an Irish College, awarded by the Vocational Education Committee, as published last week, the name of J. Brennan, Cappoquin, was given for Stephen Brennan.

Master Stephen Brennan is son of Mrs. Julia Brennan, Main Street, and the late Mr. J. Brennan, who was nephew of the late Rev. Fr. Louis, O.Cist., Mount Mellerey, who was for years Superior of the Cistercian Monastery in Dubuque, U.S.A. and also the Monastery in Coalville, Leicestershire.

A Great Dance.— On Monday night week, on the conclusion of the Bazaar in aid of Mount Mellerey Church Fund, one of the best dances held in the Boathouse Hall for many years took place under the auspices of the Rowing Club, when there was an enormous attendance of young ladies and gentlemen from all parts of West Waterford and East Cork.

The arrangements for this unexpectedly large gathering were admirably carried out by Mr. G. Watson, Cappoquin, while the music by the popular Nightingale Orchestra, Lismore, under the Conductorship of Mr. P. Gillan, was

"The Land of the Midnight Sun"— Cappoquin earned for itself the title of "The Land of the Midnight Sun" while the continuous Bazaars were in full swing here for the past fortnight. This was particularly so during the first week, while the Mellerey Bazaar was in progress, as owing to the large attendances each night, and the late hour at which the amusements concluded, the streets of the town presented a gay and animated appearance almost down to daybreak. With buses flying to all parts of the country with visitors after the Bazaar, the merry hum of the motors kept people awake all night, and very few wanted to go to bed at all during those busy and hectic nights!

But all this is changed now, for with the conclusion of the Bazaar on Monday night the town has quickly got down to its old-time habit of "Early to bed, early to rise," and the streets are now as still and silent as the grave about midnight every night since.

G.A.A. NOTES & NOTIONS

By "CROTOG."

All our Championship hopes are now centred in our Junior teams who are contesting the Munster Semi-Finals in Waterford next Sunday. Our Minor ambitions have been wrecked, the hurling in Fermoy and the football in Thurles last Sunday. Charity compels me to be all but silent about our youngsters' football exhibition—it was indeed a sorry spectacle to home supporters painful in the extreme and the least that can be said about it is that it was too bad to be true. Our young footballers were taught a lesson and our selectors and administrators too. But a lesson can be profitable. We know now where we stand in Minor football and we should know where to begin the cleaning-up and restoration in this competition which last Sunday's humiliation urgently demands.

Our Senior hurlers, as everybody knows, were narrowly and somewhat unlucky beaten by a good Clare team at Fermoy. How good that Clare team was, was amply demonstrated in Thurles when the much-boosted Cork "mystery" team were decidedly fortunate to hold the Dalcassians to a draw. And therein lie bitter-sweet reflections for our hurling public at home. For, it is now only too obvious that had everything gone as arranged for Waterford Hurlers they would today be well in the running for the Munster Championship.

Well, there's no use in crying over spilt milk, so let us forget temporarily at any rate, our recent unpleasant rebuffs and concentrate all our hopes and attention on the following players who will carry the Decies standard in Waterford Sports field on Sunday next, July 12th.

Junior Football Selection
Goalkeeper—Seamus Hayes, Dungarvan. Consistently sound and knows his job. Has given every satisfaction in all his games this year.

Full-back—Liam Lyne (De La Salle) hails from Kerry and that's recommendation enough. And if you're still sceptical, just see him field and kick.

Right Back—Michael Lovell, another Kerry student of De La Salle. Football is his middle name and he lives up to it. Has starred all through, the year for his Club and County.

Left Back—Sean Power, Stradbally, faces his baptism of fire in inter-county football. Kicked his way on to the team by a superb display against Dungarvan. A fierce twelve stone of bone and muscle who uses his shoulders as a shark uses his tail and all with the same effect.

Right-Half—Dee Goode, Dungarvan, back again in action after a sojourn among the reserves. The selectors might judge him as a forward but his splendid displays since prove that defence is his true forte. One of the few Dungarvan stars to shine against Stradbally.

Centre Half—Batt Casey, Fenor, the keystone of the defence. As impossible as a Customs barrier. Revels in the ruck where his great strength in a powerful asset.

Left-Half—The selectors are undecided between the claims of M. Bowler (De La Salle and Kerry) and Whelan of Stradbally who figured so prominently in the Dungarvan match. Experience will probably be the deciding factor.

Centre-field—Liam O'Sullivan, the tall muscular student who learned his football in the rugged county of his famous namesake, the Chief of Berra, partners the dashing black-haired Dungarvan stalwart Christy Moylan. An ideal mid-field combination who should, and will, dominate their sector absolutely.

Centre-forward—The one and only Paul Russell, of Kerry and All-Ireland fame. His Gaelic football prowess is the inspiration of the youth of today. His Gaelic spirit is shown by the way in which he has chosen to sacrifice his football career to raise Waterford out of the football rut in which it has lain so long.

Right-Wing—John Cummins, Stradbally, won his spurs by his scoring feats against Dungarvan. Has only to reproduce that form to come well into the headlines against Tipperary and so justify the selectors' high opinion of him.

Left-Wing—Michael Lynch, the Kerry man who captains De La Salle. A speedy winger with a delightful centre and a splendid understanding with Russell.

Right-Full—O'Sullivan Rusch, De La Salle and Kerry. A veritable cyclone among forwards—what the Yanks call a "go-getter" in the scoring area. "Ease-off" is a term which is not in his vocabulary. Has proved himself the bane of goalkeepers.

Full-forward—Michael Myles, a Mayo man who plays for De La Salle. Has all the football sense of his famous county—and that's some. Just see him in action and watch the score-board.

Bernard Spollen, Fenor, the tall left corner forward who uses his boot and his fist with such telling effect. A rare opportunity which takes advantage of every opening.

Among the reserves are—T. Greany and W. Barron (Dungarvan); P. Gough, F. O'Mara and J. Connelly (Fenor); D. Walsh (Kilrossanty) and J. Granville (St. Stephen's).

It is a good team and all Waterford looks confidently to them to avenge our Minor's merciful drubbing at the hands of Tipperary; while they are on the job, they would do well to remember that any slacking-off during the hour is mistaken tactics. Chivalry has many forms on the playing field, but doing the cat-and-mouse act with beaten opponents is not one of them. It only humiliates the victims and irritates the (m) spectators. Tipperary will no doubt provide strong opposition as their juniors outclassed all opposition in their march to Croke Park last year and most of that team are still available.

The Junior Hurling Selection to meet Clare (who ousted Tipperary) is as follows—

Goalkeeper—M. Curley, Tallow, pounces on flying balls like a cat; has an eagle eye and a huge pook. Won All-Ireland honours with Waterford in 1929, 1931 and 1934.

Full-back—P. Fanning, Erin's Own, a brother to the redoubtable Johnny Fanning, whose style he reproduces. A master of defence tactics, he shines at close quarters by his fierce tackling.

Left-full—D. Hogan, Mt. Sion, in his old corner, needs no introduction. A grand defender with a masterly stroke.

Right-full—J. Whelan, Dungarvan, is in the running with M. Pease (Ballinacorney) for this important position. Both have much experience though recent form favours the Ballinacorney man.

Centre-half—M. Sheehan, the big raking harrier from Dunhill, comes back to his old position on the 1935 team. The selectors experimented unsuccessfully with him as a forward but, like Dee Goode, defence is his strong suit.

Right-Half—J. O'Gorman, Lismore, a vigorous worker who believes in first-time striking. Won All-Ireland honours in 1934.

Left-half—J. Mountain, St. Stephen's, a hard pulling defender of much promise. Slow to warm up but then can hold the fort against all-comers.

Mid-field—W. Ryan, Tallow and Shortall St. Stephen's, are given charge of this department. Both are well to inter-county hurling. Ryan, a Limerick man domiciled in Tallow, has all the style and dash of Garryowen hurling in his methods. Starred recently against "Sarsfields" of Cork, and also against selections from his native county. The St. Stephen's man (a brother, by the way, of the Dublin Civil Service player, who formerly assisted Waterford), is young and sturdy but improves with every match he plays.

Centre-forward—John Halpin, Glennan-Udrice, has been entrusted with the pivotal position forward. A terrific batter. Missed his Senior 'cap' through a blood-poisoning injury to his hand received in training. Should be the "power" behind the "punch" in the Waterford attack.

Right-Wing—T. Fitzgerald, Dungarvan, fast and elusive, strikes and centres with uncanny precision. Shone as winger in last year's junior team.

Left-Wing—J. Phelan, Mt. Sion, the All-Ireland schoolboy hurler, has been moved up to the wing, where his speed, ball control and outstanding forward talent will have more scope. His cannon is an automatic scorer when within range, so on Sunday he is expected to keep the umpires busy.

Right-forward—J. Ormond, Lismore, the toughest hand of the Decies attack as he proved against Limerick. Nearer the goal this time, his fast ground-pulling should tell on the score-board.

Left-forward—D. O'Mahony, Mt. Sion, light but stylish. Was not too impressive against Limerick, but should sparkle on his home sod.

Full Forward—Jas. Plunkett, St. Stephen's, fourteen stone of bone and brawn, is given the onerous job of steam-rolling Clare's last defences. Should be equal to the task. The selectors are gambling on intelligent co-operation between the corner forwards to avail to the full of the openings provided by Plunkett's crashing weight.

The following are the reserves—John Ryan, Lismore; M. Parle, Erin's Own; J. Shea, Ballinacorney; J. Nolan, St. Stephen's; T. McCarthy, W. Sheehan and J. Burke, (Tallow).

Clare are fielding a strong rugged fifteen who rely chiefly on shock tactics. Our lads should out-hurl them, and unless they make the mistake that Tipperary made of letting the Dalcassians call the tune, should pave the way for a Decies double which would go a long way to restore Waterford's prestige on the Gaelic field.

Call For School Playgrounds—
Westmeath Co. Committee, G.A.A. called on the Minister for Education to acquire compulsorily land within a reasonable distance of national schools which would be available for the development of national pastimes.

AMUSING "RAG" IN CAPPOQUIN In Aid Of Parochial Funds

On last Sunday an amusing "Rag" was held in Cappoquin in connection with a local Bazaar which was in progress on behalf of Parochial purposes in the town. Encouraged by the wonderful success which had attended the Monster Bazaar held in the Town Park from Sunday June 21st to Monday June 20th in aid of the Mount Mellerey New Church Fund, under the able management of Mr. M. J. Sargent, Hon. Sec., and a representative committee of the leading townsmen, the Cappoquin Parochial Committee started another Bazaar on Tuesday evening, 30th, to continue until Sunday night, July 5th, for the purpose of helping to raise funds for the building of a new Curate's house in Cappoquin.

After the amount of money spent by the townspeople in supporting the Mellerey Bazaar the previous week, local resources had been almost entirely depleted, so that the second week's Bazaar was not so generously supported, while the very wet weather experienced during the first two nights also had a very serious effect on the success of the project in its initial stages. Towards the end of the week Mr. F. X. O'Leary, N.T., who was in charge of the Parochial Bazaar, conceived the idea of holding a "Rag" on Sunday in order to stimulate interest and attract a better attendance for the event, and it must be said at once that both those objects were fully attained on Sunday. Nothing of its kind had ever before been seen in Cappoquin, so that the "Rag" was a distinct novelty for the townspeople, and the success which attended it proved ample reward for the original idea which had been conceived in the fertile brain of Mr. O'Leary.

The necessary costumes and uniforms for 100 participants having been procured towards the week-end, Mr. O'Leary hastily made the necessary preparations for Sunday's procession, so that many celebrities, notabilities, and a few nonentities, should be duly represented, and the result was that the display provided one of the most amusing and hilarious events ever previously witnessed in Cappoquin.

The "Rag" started from the Convent of Mercy Schools in Shanbally, and proceeded slowly down Barrack street, Main street, around the Protestant Church, through Mill street and Cook street to the Town Park, where the Bazaar was being held, and provided a most amusing and interesting spectacle en route.

The procession was led by Master Liam Ryan, riding a White horse, representing Marshal Badoglio's triumphant entry into Addis Ababa; next came two rows of "Japanese girls" (pupils of the Convent School), who were followed by the "Mellerey Melody Makers" (Mount Mellerey District String Band), driving slowly along in a motor lorry, and playing appropriate airs in the meantime. "The Corporation of Cappoquin," all in sombre hue and wearing Top Hats, made a most impressive display, after which came "The Lord Mayor's Coach," this being an open carriage drawn by one horse of ancient lineage which was driven by Mr. Joe Walsh, who made a most striking and convincing "Coachman" in a smart green "Mayoral" livery. Seated inside the "coach" was the "Lord Mayor" (Mr. F. X. O'Leary) wearing his full robes and "chain of office," and accompanied by two aides-de-camp with drawn and uplifted swords (Messrs. J. Cahill and M. Ryan).

Filling his important role with becoming dignity and decorum, the "Lord Mayor" halted his "coach" opposite the historic "Cornerstone" and delivered a brief address to the multitude, and concluded by saying that with all the power and authority of his exalted office he now ordered that all the public houses in the town should be opened forthwith, and that free drinks should be liberally supplied to everybody during the remainder of the day, an order which met with sympathetic and spontaneous approval from all his thirsty listeners, and created roars of laughter, in which all the Publicans heartily joined.

"Mr. Commissioner Moylanhan," Dungarvan, followed close on the "Lord Mayor," this role being filled with great pomp and dignity by Mr. Johnny O'Shea, who was seated in a luxurious carriage which was drawn by "Danny Boy's" richly-carbonised ass, while "Danny" himself, phlegmatic like some fierce Indian Warrior, shouted lustily war-whoops at his "slow-motion" donkey, which appeared not to have fully awakened from his previous night's sleep.

"Herr Hitler" (Mr. W. J. McCarthy) next appeared in full military uniform with the "Charlie Chaplain" moustache and strict martial bearing of Germany's famous Nazi Dictator, and carrying a formidable-looking sword and other trappings of war. He was followed by "His Majesty's Brigade," all wearing the typical black shirts, after which came "Fred Astaire" and "Ginger Rogers," who made a very popular appeal to all.

The most picturesque character in the whole "Rag" was the "Emperor of Abyssinia" (Mr. J. P. Olden) who with black beard, swarthy complexion and long flowing robes of white silk, which glistened in the sun, filled the part of "The Negus" true to life.

The rere of the procession was brought up with "The covered Wagon," on which was inscribed, "Roll Along, Covered Wagon, Roll Along."

The "Rag" was carried out in the most orderly manner, which reflected great credit on its promoters, while a number of young ladies in fancy costumes plied a busy trade with their collection Boxes, but they could have been even more successful if they had been a bit more persistent in their appeal for funds.

A very large crowd followed the novel procession down to the Town Park, with the result that the various games, Side-

Shows and other amusements were very generously patronised during the remainder of the evening, and the Bazaar wound up on a note of success that night that earlier indications had given little ground to hope for.

On Monday night, 6th inst., a one-night's Bazaar was run by Mr. M. J. Sargent, Hon. Sec., of the successful Mellerey Bazaar, this being in aid of the Parochial Fund for the parishes of Aglish and Ballinacorney, over which Very Rev. J. Gleeson, is the worthy and popular Pastor.

The proceedings opened at 7.30 with a hurling match between Dungarvan and Cappoquin for a Valuable Set of Medals presented by Fr. Gleeson, and this event attracted a very large attendance.

Cappoquin found considerable difficulty in fielding a team, as several of their best players were absent, but when they had eventually mustered a "scratch team" it was then found that some of their players were short hurleys, so under these circumstances it was not surprising that Dungarvan won easily, and the medals were presented to them by Fr. Gleeson, amidst applause.

The Mellerey District String and Reed Band attended, and played a grand selection of Irish airs and finished up a delightful programme with "Faith of Our Fathers" and The National Anthem, for which they were loudly applauded.

The large crowd present at the match devoted their attention to the various attractions of the Bazaar until midnight, the scene resembling one of the busiest nights during the Mellerey Week, which proved a great personal tribute to the popularity of Mr. Sargent, as organiser of the Bazaar, as well as Fr. Gleeson, the genial and sporting Sogarth of Aglish and Ballinacorney, both of whom deserve to be heartily congratulated on the success of the event.

This concluded sixteen nights of continuous amusement in Cappoquin, and on Tuesday all the attractions of Perle's Fancy Fair, as well as the thrilling entertainment, "The Wall of Death," left for the great arrival to be held in Dungarvan from Thursday, July 9th to Sunday July 12th, so that the people of the "Old Borough" will have a rare feast of attractions amongst them during the coming week.

YOUGHAL COUNCIL

A FALSE RUMOUR
CLEAN BILL OF HEALTH

Present—Messrs. P.C., Chairman, Mr. Power, W. O'Sullivan, P. Lynch, M. D. Broderick.

Attendance Of Mr. Beausang, drew empty chairs, it was kept the Council going. Mr. Power—It shows in the business. I and other members should be. The Chairman said the been in want of a quorum. Mr. Beausang—Thank.

The Chairman said an important matter, which referred to at last year's rumour that serious prevalent in the town, then that the rumour had spread. He was at a hospital yesterday and he had seen several people there if a break of diphtheria and hal. Of course, he was deny the rumour because been one single case of reported for the past 20 could be seen by the M.O.H. On that day on him and stated that visitors had cancelled the owing to those rumour. The Chairman then a resident of Mitchelstown Youghal, regretting the abandon the idea of going with her family for the had been told that there of typhoid in the town, the Pacific Hotel, infer for the second time that ceased cancellations of the. It was a very serious matter, should emphatically say, that should emphatically contradict the false rumour. Some cases of colds like nothing else and he believes with their usual kindness remarks the publicity of Mr. Lynch agreed with remarks. He knew of that had been engaged after owing to those rumour. Killalea fair he had heard city man if it was true fever in Youghal. Their contract that.

Mr. Broderick said the Council as Sanitary Agent received a single notice, infectious disease for the was sufficient to give to those rumour. Their supplies were regularly always found satisfactory supply was one of the best star or anywhere else. It was unanimously decided to publicly in the Press referred to.

A letter was read from U.D.C., thanking the Council vote of congratulation of his son. It was read by him and his Miss Ellen Ahearne, the Council's vote on the death of her sister. The Clerk said he had Circular letter issued by bathing. The Chairman said he perused the document, when he had had the Ireland or anywhere else gradual slope of the beach. Mr. Power—Does it seem out mixed bathing? The Clerk—No, sir.

G. A. A. JUNIOR FOOTBALL AT DUNGARVAN. Slabh cGua, 1-5; Stradbally, 0-2. The above teams met at the Gaelic Field, Dungarvan, on Sunday last, in the semi-final of the West Waterford football championship...

The Play. Slabh cGua attacked from the throw-in, but sent wide. Stradbally transferring to raise a white flag. Slabh cGua again forced matters and after narrowly missing a major sent over the bar for a point to equalise. Slabh cGua kept up the pressure, but met a stubborn defence and were checked time after time. Stradbally getting away on the wing added a further point. A free to Slabh cGua close in was well placed but the Stradbally defence cleared and soon had their opponents defending, an over resulting. Stradbally again returned to the attack, and had hard luck when a good shot at goal struck the upright and went wide. Stradbally returned the kick out but sent wide, and Slabh cGua took to midfield where a Stradbally player was ordered off. Stradbally attacked and getting a free close in had to be content with an over.

Half-time score: Stradbally 0-2, Slabh cGua 0-1. Stradbally although a man short opened the second half in dashing fashion and tested Dalton in their opponents goal, who however, rose to the occasion and cleared. Stradbally keeping up the pressure attacked again and again, but could not penetrate the defence. Slabh cGua transferred and after registering an over sent over the bar to level the score. Stradbally were at the other end in a flash, but were repulsed and play returned to midfield. Fouls were frequent at this period. Slabh cGua with a lightning raid found the Stradbally defence disorganised and banged into the net and immediately after pointed, giving them a 4 points lead. Two fifths to Slabh cGua in succession were well cleared and play brought to midfield, but they returned to register another point. Stradbally were away again, but the Slabh cGua goalkeeper nullified their effort by clearing a difficult ball, and play returned to the other end where Stradbally saved at the expense of a 50. This was dealt with early by the Stradbally defence who forced matters but were held by the Slabh cGua defence. Slabh cGua from a free had another point, and Stradbally taking the ball to the other end were again disappointed in their effort to find the net by the Slabh cGua goalkeeper. The final whistle sounded with Stradbally attacking, leaving the score: Stradbally 0-2, Slabh cGua 1-5. Mr. J. Lyons, Dungarvan, had charge of the whistle.
